WELCOME TO MACDONALD

Liberal Leader Given a Warm Reception in Rossland

Lorne Campbell Laughed at by the Audience--Hannington Jeered Down

(Special to The Daily News)

Rossland, Jan. 22.—Rossland turned out in full last night to greet the liberal leader, J. A. Macdonald, at his first public meeting since his victory-winning tour of the island and lower mainland. Miners Union hall was packed, and it is no exaggeration to say that the overwhelming majority of those present were in hearty accord with every utterance of Mr. Macdonald.

The meeting was not without its amusing incidents. In particular, R. W. Hannington, of Nelson, who spoke for L. A. Campbell, the McBride government candidate, created uproarous amusement in his efforts to explain that, whilst Campbell was not a man versed in public affairs, he was a most desirable representative for Rossland. Laughter and cat-calls quite drowned what he wanted to say, and, finding it impossible to check the uproar, he gracefully subsided.

Another lively incident arose in connection with Macdonald's reference to Campbell's preference for Chinese labor. Campbell jumped up in white heat, shouting, "I want to tell you that Macdonald sometimes employs a Chinese cook." The whole audience shrieked with laughter, and Campbell was heard no more of during the remainder of the meeting.

After all, the significant feature of the great gathering was the splendid reception given the liberal leader. There was an undoubted note of affection for, and pride in, the citizen who in three short years had gained for himself so high a place in the confidence and esteem, not only of liberals, but of all classes of people throughout the province. This was particularly noticable when Macdonald replied to the reckless charges preferred against him by Mortimer, the socialist, in regard to his attitude on the labor questions. Quietly and with marvellous effect, Macdonald discussed his every act in the legislature in reference to all labor subjects. He told of his action re the eight-hour smelter bill, with special particularity, and as he concluded his remarks on this subject and appealed for the verdict of the electors of Rossland on his stand, there came back a shout of approval that told unmistakably of the confidence the workers of Rossland have in his good faith and in his efforts to accomplish real service for those who labor in mines and smelters of the province.

J. H. McDonald presided. F. J. Deane, of Nelson, opened the meeting. He spoke but a few minutes, confining his remarks to a brief review of Macdonald's parliamentary career and the success that had attended his leadership of the liberal party. Deane drew attention to the distorted report of part of W. W. B. McInnes' speech at Rossland last Saturday, wherein the miner declared McInnes had said the liberal party did not want the support of socialists and labor men in this campaign. He pointed out that McInnes said nothing of the sort or anything like it. The Miner's report in this regard was deliberately garbled to mislead the electors of Rossland. McInnes had clearly stated what attitude the liberal party would assume in the legislature, that under no circumstances would the liberal party seek to remain in office by an alliance with any other party in the house that had been elected on a platform not in accordance with liberal principles. McInnes' statement was a timely declaration on a matter of prime importance in the political life of B. C. and a guarantee that so far as liberals were concerned that there could be no alliances formed for the mere purpose of remaining in office. Liberals would give effect to their policy as liberals or not at all.

L. A. Campbell spoke for a minute or two giving the task of defending the McBride government to R. W. Hannington, of Nelson. Hannington's speech was noteworthy mainly for the exceedingly friendly tone to the socialist candidate, Berry, and the socialist spellbinder, Mortimer. Incidentally, Hannington told the Rossland audience that McInnes spoke for four hours in Nelson last night and uttered four million words. He then proceeded to eulogize the Kaien island deal and defended the government's course in not taxing the B. C Southern lands. His time being up, Hannington attempted to work up some enthusiasm for Campbell on personal grounds, with the disastrous result told above. Berry, the socialist, likewise gave way to a representative, explaining that he could not discuss public issues intelligently, though fully competent to represent Rossland at Victoria.

Macdonald, on coming forward, was given a rousing reception, the cheering being prolonged. At the outset, he said he hoped the contest would be carried on fairly and without personalities, but felt compelled to challenge statements made by Campbell on the public platform, statements which he characterized as absolutely without foundation, but evidently deliberately uttered. He took up first the matter of taxation of railways within city limits which Campbell made a feature of in his recent speech here. Campbell insinuated that Macdonald had done nothing, promising at the same time that he would press the issue if elected.

Macdonald showed that on more than one occasion he had brought the matter before the house, but could not get the government to take it up. On one particular occasion, he made a strong stand in this connection in the debate on the assessment bill. In spite of this Campbell maintained that he had neglected his duty. Then he took up Campbell's contention that a portion of the 2 per cent tax should be spent on Rossland, which Campbell accompanied with the statement that Macdonald had done nothing in this connection. Macdonald pointed out that not once but several times he had brought this before the house, but on every occasion he was turned down by the McBride administration. Macdonald continued with a most unmerciful scoring of Campbell, stigmatizing his statements as absolutely false and without foundation and predicting that if this was the style of campaign he proposed carrying on, Lorne Campbell would be very deeply snowed under on Feb. 2. Campbell, at his last meeting, had made the statement that Macdonald had done nothing to get anyhing for Rossland for roads, trails and bridges. With the finest of sarcasm and amid a running fire of laughter, Macdonald explained that Rossland, being an incorporated city, the government had nothing whatever to do with roads, trails and bridges.

"And yet," said Macdonald, "this man, who has been in the council two whole years, does not appear to know this. Either he is ignorant or he deliberately attempted to hoodwink the electors." (Cheers and laughter.)

The speaker then turned to the socialists, answering at length the criticisms and wild statements of Mortimer. He dwelt on the pact between Hawthornthwaite and McBride, in which the socialists had gone back on their most cherished principles. Despite a goodly number of socialists present, Macdonald's remarks under this head received marked attention and constant applause. His review of the labor legislation of the past three years, the part he had taken in it, and the course pursued by the socialist members, was a powerful exposition of facts that completely broke down the labored efforts of Mortimer to persuade the Rossland electors that Macdonald had been in any sense false to their best interests. Macdonald's reference to the bills he had put through the legislature for the protection of the widows and orphans of men killed in the mines, and for a more equitable distribution of compensation for injured employees, capped the climax and completely frustrated the joint conservative-socialist attack upon his standing with the wage earners of Rossland.

Mr. Macdonald then turned to the main issues of the campaign, the connection between McBride and the C.P.R. as in the Columbia and Western grant, the Spence's Bridge and Nicola proposed cash subsidy, the B.C. Southern taxes, the Kaien island deal, etc.

Mr. Macdonald touched upon the deliberate mis-statements that had been made as to McInnes' words in speaking of socialists and labor men. He appealed to all who had been present and who had heard what McInnes had said to compare what he had actually said with what the Rossland Miner credited him with saying. He challenged them to read that report of the speech and say if they could recognise it as the same speech at all. He was sure that it was more than even the editor of that paper himself could do. He felt confident that Deane's exposure and correction of these mis-statements would appeal to all who had heard his speech. He pointed out the absurdity of the attempt to mislead, an absurdity because it was so palpably different from all known and recognized principles of liberalism. The liberal party, he pointed out, had always had the bulk of its support and membership from the workingmen and the leaders of liberalism were proud of it.

"To say that the liberal party does not want the votes and support of the labor men is an utter absurdity," he said, adding "we depend on the labor party, on all workingmen, on all who are of liberal principles."

"It was the union men of Rossland who elected me three years ago," said Mr. Macdonald, "and it will be the same union men, workingmen, who will elect me again on February 2nd."

This was greeted with prolonged cheers and cries of "You bet we will."

Macdonald closed with an eloquent appeal to all liberals, all workers to join hands in the fight that would end on the second of February. He reminded his hearers that all were workers, some with hands and some with brains, some in stores and some in offices, and that it was often difficult to say which worked hardest, for all had to work. He was proud of the fact that he represented a constituency the voters' list of which contained more than 80 per cent of workingmen. He had the utmost confidence that they would elect him with a greater majority even than before.

WILSON LAID UP

(Special to The Daily News)

150-Mile House, Cariboo, Jan. 22—A splendid meeting here tonight was addressed by Jones and Yorston, the liberal candidates, and Dr. Wade. No opposition speakers were present. In fact it is hard to find a conservative at this point. The liberals will have a large majority here. Charles Wilson has been laid up for several days at Quesnel for repairs after the liberal meeting there. Champion intends coming down the road this week. He is causing much amusement with his lavish promises of what "McBride and me" will do. Jones, Yorston and Wade are on the way to Quesnel Forks today.

DID GREEN TAKE BRIBE?

Autograph Letter From Ex-Commissioner to Sir Adolph Caron Accepting $37,000 Stock for Making Pine River Leases is in Vancouver and Has Been Photographed, Says The World

(Special to The Daily News)

Vancouver, Jan. 22.—The Daily World this afternoon said: In 1905 a company, called the Transcontinental Exploration Syndicate, applied to R. F. Green, then chief commissioner of lands and works, for leases of 32 sections of coal lands on Pine river, which, when the early construction of the Grand Trunk Pacific railway through that portion of British Columbia is considered, are certain to become of great and immediate value. Representing the Transcontinental Syndicate was sir Adolph Caron, formerly a conservative minister of the crown at Ottawa.

The application was refused by Mr. Green, who alleged, as his reason, that the dominion government had not then selected the 3,500,000 acres of land in the northwest corner of this province which were conveyed to it by the terms of Settlement Act under which the Esquimalt & Nanaimo railway was built. Later, a private arrangement was arrived at by R. F. Green, representing the B. C. ogvernment ,and sir Adolph Caron acting for the Transcontinental Exploration Syndicate, and the leases were granted.

Caron had previously written to Green to name a friend who could be trusted to hold shares in the syndicate in his (Green's) interest. Green replied, thanking Caron for his beneficence and naming Mr. McKay, then premier McBride's private secretary, as a safe person in whom to vest the ownership of the shares. Caron wrote Green stating that the value of the shares which were to be given to him as a free gift, and which were rated at £1 18s each was $37,000. Green replied, thanking Caron for his very great kindness. The leases were then issued by the chief commissioner to the Transcontinental Exploration Syndicate. Caron also secured leases for coal lands on Telqua river in the same section of the country, for which Green was given another share in the name of Neil McKay.

Later on there was a hitch. Either Green thought he had not received a sufficiently large share of the plunder, or objection was raised by one of his colleagues. Be this as it may, two eminent conservative lawyers, then residing and still residing in Vancouver, were retained by Caron to press his claims. Armed with the correspondence between Caron and Green, they interviewed the executive council. At that meeting all the members except Mr. Fulton were present. The lawyers were persistent in pressing sir Adolph Caron's claims. Mr. Green put up a show of resistance, but was dumbfounded when confronted with sir Adolph Caron's letter and his own letter thanking sir Adolph for his great kindness and instructing him to issue the shares in Neil McKay's name.

The difficulties must have been smoothed away, for it was stated in the Province, a government organ printed in Vancouver, on the 10th of October last, that the Transcontinental Exploration Syndicate had been formed in London with a capital of $400,000 to explore and develop the coal measures in Telqua valley. In the interval that elapsed between the granting of the lease and the mysterious and abrupt deposing of Mr. W. S. Gore from his position as deputy of the lands and works department, Mr. Neil McKay, the premier's private secretary and holder of $37,000 worth of Transcontinental Exploration Syndicate shares, for the gift of which Mr. Green had thanked sir Adolph Caron for his great kindness, was appointed deputy in Mr. Gore's place. It was probably felt that the custodian of the shares should be changed at any rate, and the name of Granville Cuppage, a junior clerk in the lands and works department at Victoria, appears in the Province of October 10th as one of the directors of this company that is about to spend $400,000 in developing coal lands along the line of the Grand Trunk Pacific.

From whom Mr. Cuppage got his shares is not at present known, but there is reason to believe that the $37,000 worth of stock which was originally conveyed to Neil McKay are the shares which Mr. Granville Cuppage represents and by virtue of which he sits as a director of the company.

The above is a plain narration of a most appalling instance of provincial government corruption. Readers will have no difficulty in arriving at a conclusion unfavorable to the government. The correspondence has been photographed, and Mr. Green's letter thanking sir Adolph for his munificence and requesting that the shares be placed in Mr. McKay's name, is in Vancouver at this moment. Special attention will be directed to the fact that, although the executive council meeting at which Mr. Green's conduct was exposed was held in May last, the other ministers, immaculate Mr. Cotton included, continued to sit and act with Green until the 22nd of December, when the pressure from Vancouver conservatives became so great that he resigned from the lands and works department. He is now at Kaslo engaged in an effort to cover his official tracks by the return of Mr. Neil McKay, his former deputy, whom he plans to succeed him in the lands and works department.

The Daily News has wired to R. F. Green and Neil McKay for their version of this incident, but no replies have yet been received.

CURTIS AND McBRIDE CHEER EACH OTHER

(Special to The Daily News)

Keremeos, B.C., Jan. 22—Learning that premier McBride intended to visit the Similkameen, Smith Curtis challenged the premier to meet him in joint debate on fair terms. When premier McBride arrived in Fairview he was met by Mr. Curtis, to whom the premier offered half an hour at his meeting to be held on Monday. Mr. Curtis refused, thinking it was far too little time in which to present the case against the government. The premier was obdurate and so was his opponent. Later local conservatives, who concluded that Mr Curtis was right and that a failure of the premier to accord greater time would have a bad effect, induced the premier, who was evidently afraid of the debate, to give Mr. Curtis an hour. There was a large attendance at the afternoon meeting and Mr. Curtis opened the ball by a skishing attack on the McBride government, showing that the political promises of the premier and his colleagues were worthless and claiming and proving that, while taxes had been heaped on the masses, certain large corporations and railroad companies and speculative timber land owners had had their land taxes lowered or these were not levied at all. He ripped up the government on its knifing the Midway and Vernon railway, which was projected through this riding, and exposed the C. and W. steal, which grant is largely taken out of this constituency. He pointed out how the McBride government last session had voted down the proposition that the 880,000 acres then being given by the C. and W. land grant bill should be stipulated as in full of all claim of the C.P.R. for building to Midway, for which the C.P.R. had often tried to induce the legislature to vote an additional 900,000 acres; and said this meant that the government intender later, if retained in office to hand this out to the C.P.R. He drove this home most forcibly and challenged Mr. McBride to pledge himself to the electors to the contrary.

As a result, the premier made a pledge which he had refused to make in the house or elsewhere, that so long as he, Mr. McBride was at the head of the government, the 900,000 acres would not be granted. Mr. Curtis now feels that, whatever the outcome of his candidacy, he has, by entering the contest here and in meeting Mr. McBride, made it certain that the country will not be robbed of 900,000 acres, worth at least $4,500,000.

Fairview is supposed to be a Shatford stronghold but the meeting demonstrated that it was the other way, Mr. Curtis being much applauded. On the conclusion of the meeting he received rousing cheers, while but half a dozen raised a feeble cheer for Mr. Shatford. Mr. Schubert, one of Mr. Curtis' strong supporters, seeing that the conservatives had no cheers for Mr. McBride, out of courtesy to the latter, proposed cheers for him, which were joined in by all. Mr. Curtis at the McBride meeting last night, again spoke for 50 minutes, Mr. Winkler, the socialist being given 20 minutes. Mr. Curtis made a rousing speech to a packed house, many people coming 20 miles to hear the discussion. He had a splendid reception and applause throughout, showing him to be a favorite. A great many moderate socialists are voting for Mr. Curtis, whose platform seems to meet the views of all classes.. Mr. McBride had a good reception and made the best of a bad case by special pleading, much of which was very amusing, as when he pleaded that the non-taxation of the C.P.R. land grant in East Kootenay was due to his not having yet found time to look into them. The meeting did not end until nearly midnight. At its conclusion Mr. Curtis proposed cheers for McBride as premier, but not as a political partizan. Mr. McBride countered by proposing cheers for Mr. Curtis but not in a political sense, and both rounds were given with a will. The longest meeting ever held here thus broke up. The contest in the riding is exciting great and growing interest and is the chief topic of conversation. Mr. Curtis' onslaught on the graft at Victoria has made things lively from the start. Mr. Curtis looks a sure winner.

PROVINCIAL ASSOCIATION

ANNUAL METING OF B. C. FRUIT GROWERS

MEET FOR THE FIRST TIME IN THE INTERIOR

For the first time in the history of the B. C. Fruit Growers' association, assembling here today, will that important body meet outside of the coast cities and it is stated that this will be the last time the association meets out of Victoria, the government having declared that as the association is practically a governmental institution the proper place for its meetings is the capital city.

It s expected that this will be objected to by the interior ranchers, the Vernon delegates being instructed to do their best to get the association to meet at Vernon next year, as representing a most important fruit growing district, and being centrally situated. The delegates from Summerland and other places in the same district may also be expected to pull hard for the same object.

Some 25 delegates have already arrived and there are expected altogether some 25 representatives from the various ranching districts scattered all over the province. They will be called to order this afternoon at 3 o'clock by the president, T. J. Brydon in the board of trade rooms. Papers will be read by the first vice-president, James Johnstone, by J. W. Cockie of Kaslo and probably by others. The session will last all the afternoon and probably will be resumed again in the evening or tomorrow, or both, as the association may see fit to decide. Another part of the business is the election of officers.

Some of the delegates in attendance, besides those already mentioned are W. Mayor Upcraft and J. Bartholemew of Summerland, Henry Kipp of Kaslo, and the secretary, W. J. Brandreth.

DEPUTY COMMISSIONER

APPOINTMENT OF W. J. GOEPEL IS GAZETTED

ANNOUNCEMENT OF MORE THAN ORDINARY INTEREST

Apparently the influence of the Hon. Robert F. Green is still at work in government circles, although that supposedly extinguished personage is no longer chief commissioner of lands and works in the McBride administration.

When Green resigned and subsequently when his deputy commissioner also resigned and became his formen chief's successor as the tory nominee in the Kaslo riding, some curiosity was expressed as to who would succeed Mr. McKay at Victoria.

Various names were mentioned, among others Harry Wright of Ymir, but all doubts upon this subject have been set at rest by the announcement in the current issue of the B.C. Gazette of the appointment of William J. Goepel of this city, formerly inspector of government offices, as deputy commissioner of lands and works. A coast conservative paper says the appointment is one of "more than ordinary interest."

REVISING BOUNDARIES

Ottawa, Jan. 22—In the house yesterday sir Wilfrid Laurier announced that the question of extending the boundaries of the western provinces is now engaging the attention of the government. It was a task of some delicacy as the views of Manitoba and Saskatchewan governments clash. He hoped a solution would soon be found and given to the house at an early date.

MADE SUCCESSFUL RUN

CITY POWER PLANT WAS TESTED YESTERDAY.

IS ABLE TO DO FAR MORE THAN GUARANTEED.

At the invitation of H. C. Bullis, superintendent of construction for the Allis-Chalmers-Bullock comapny on the city power plant, mayor Gillett, alderman Selous, city engineer McCulloch and electrical engineer Dickson, together with a representative of the press, went down yesterday morning to witness a rigid test of the turbine and electrical equipment of the city power plant. This was done to satisfy all parties concerned that there was absolutely no defect in the machinery or its erection.

It may be said at once that the test was carried on in a most satisfactory manner. The entire equipment was run up to a total capacity of 1340 kilowatts, which is 600 kilowatts above the normal capacity of the plant. Placed in terms of horsepower, this means that the horsepower developed was 900 above the normal capacity of the equipment.

It may be here explained that the Allis-Chalmers-Bullock company guaranteed to supply 1000 horsepower continuously and that for a two hours run a fifty per cent overload can be carried without an undue increase in temperature. But the plant yesterday showed that the overload carried was nearly 100 per cent although the run was upwards of 45 minutes and the city engineer and other officials have come to the conclusion that with the present head the plant may be run at 1350 horsepower continuously. This the company does not guarantee but it is seen that this can practically be continuously produced without danger to the equipment.

Of course, at the same time,there were the usual tests made as to the heating of the coils and bearings. According to the agreement the coils must not rise in temperature above 35 degrees centigrade. In the run made the rise in temperature was hardly more than barely perceptible, the hand resting without any discomfort on a barely warmed coil. As the coils are wrapped with cotton, a high temperature, induced by the machine, would have the effect of charring the insulating cotton when it would become a conductor, short circuiting th ecoils. As to the bearings, examination showed that the oil was not heated at all and apparently had not risen in temperature. As the machine has neither a commutator nor brusfhes, as is common in direct current machines, there is no sparking possible.

The plant as yet is not quite ready for furnishing service to the city. It is necessary that the governor be finely adjusted for continuous running and the addition, as an extra guard, for the benefit of the city in cases of extremely high water, of an extra drainpipe on the casing of the turbine, the effect of which is to hold up the vacuum on top of the runner should the river be abnormally high. These arrangements should be finished in two or three days when the plant will be ready to supply service to the city. From the beginning of that run, the city require Mr. Bullis to run the plant successfully for 30 days, before taking it over.

"The late trouble of the plant was caused by a too hurried starting up of the machinery," said Mr. Bullis. "This was done because of the fear of the city being left in darkness through the cutting off of the present supply by the West Kootenay Power and Light company. The proper method of starting up, as insisted upon at the time, should have been the running of the machinery at a slow speed for a few days until the bearings had acquired a glaze sufficient to carry the load without heating. When these bearings began to heat, necessitating a cessation of operations, as the impression seemed to have got abroad that the trouble was due to defective machinery, or poor erection, I telegraphed my company to send an expert at once to investigate the trouble. Arnold Pfau, chief engineer of the hydraulic department of the company at Milwaukee, immediately came to Nelson and found that there was absolutely no addition to be made to the machinery and nothing further to be done for proper operation except to put in the spare set of rings, for the bearings, run slowly for a couple of days, and gradually bring on the load as was originally intended. This has been done and from the date of his arrival there has been absolutely no heating of the bearings nor difficulties of any nature."

NEARLY A BLAZE

Gas Leak Left to Burn on Fortunately Discovered Early in the Evening

An "absent minded beggar" caused some excitement last night a little before 7 o'clock and incidentally caused an alarm to be turned in from box 24 at the corner of Baker and Ward streets.

McDermid and McHardy discovered a leak in their office gas pipe near the meter and located it by a match. The tiny jet was left burning while a man was sent for to make the necessary repairs. The man did not arrive at closing up time and the office was locked up for the night. The meter is placed close to the ceiling and at the front window and the lighted leak melted the jointings next to the meter, causing a small explosion and a good sized flow of lighted gas threatened to set the whole building ablaze. A crowd collected and the office being locked up an attempt was made to put out the fire with snowballs, the window being smashed in. Then some one turned in an alarm, while others broke in the office door and turned off the gas.

Mr. McHardy was phoned for and shortly arrived on the scene along with the fire brigade. The services of the firemen were not needed and fortunately but little damage was done.

B. C. LUMBER COMBINE!

Ottawa, Jan. 22.—The government has decided to appoint a parliamentary committee of nine to investigate the alleged lumber combine in British Columbia.

TORONTO GETS WORST OF IT

Toronto, Jan. 22 — Police stationed at crossings today refused to allow street cars to proceed except along certain routes mapped out by the city engineer. Immediately the police boarded a car the motormen and conductors left, taking with them the controller handles and leaving the car stalled on the track. The company is making no effort to move the cars. There lines are completely tied up, Bathurst, Winchester and Arthur streets. On one line 22 cars are already stalled.

SEPARATED BY RELIGION

Montreal, Jan. 22—The marriage was annulled in the supreme court yesterday by judge Taschereau, of Charles Rousseau and Rose Anna Vallee, Roman Catholics, married 15 years ago by Rev. P. Duclose, the French Presbyterian minister of Montreal. Eighteen days after the ceremony the wife left her husband because the latter refused to have their union verified by the priest of her own religion. They have lived apart ever since.

KILLED BY SNOWSLIDE

Henry Ward Loses Life on Sheep Creek Near Salmo

Avalanche Rushes Down 3000 Feet and Wipes Out Cook House at Devlin Mine

The first fatal snowslide of the season was reported here last evening, resulting in the death of Harry Ward, brother of William Ward of the Nelson house, and the remarkable escape of two miners—Soper and Kennedy.

The slide occurred about 8 a. m. yesterday morning at the Devlin group on Sheep creek, eleven miles out of Salmo. The slide, caused by the prevailing soft weather following the recent heavy snowfall, came down 300 feet, along a new track, and right through a well timbered stretch.

The Devlin mine buildings are situate 800 feet above and 2000 feet from the bed of Sheep creek, and consisted of a bunk and cook house about 30 feet apart. Yesterday morning at 8 o'clock some of the miners were at work on the property but two, Soper and Kennedy were in the bunk house, while Ward was in the cook house preparing a meal.

Without warning the avalanche, which started 3000 feet higher up the hill, and which gathered size and strength, as the huge snowball tore down the mountain side, crashed over the camp site, completely demolishing the cook house and burrying the bunk house under many feet of snow, and falling into the bed of the creek with a roar that could be heard miles away. The site of the buildings had been carefully selected with the special view of avoiding slides. None had been known to come there in the past and the fact that the mountain side above the camps is well timbered, appeared to make the safety of the buildings beyond question.

Within a few moments after the accident the miners from the Queen, Kootenay Belle and other adjoining properties reached the spot and proceeded at once with the work of rescuing the men buried in the bunk house. After some hard work, Soper and Kennedy were dug out, uninjured but pretty well used up for the time being.

No trace of Ward could be discovered. The cook house was smashed into small pieces and scattered down the hillside and it is a difficult matter to say where the unfortunate man's body now lies, but a careful search is being made and possibly the remains may be found today.

The deceased was about 40 years of age and leaves a wife and family in England. He came to B. C. from the old country some three years ago and has been working on the G. T. P. A couple of months ago he came here and had been at the Devlin group for some weeks past.

Mr. Ward of the Nelson house was notified of his brother's death early last evening and he has requested that every means possible be taken to find the body.

The Devlin group is owned by Bella Devlin and Messrs Amas and and Poole and is now under bond to Charles Olmsted who has just left for New York in connection with the property. Three months' supplies had been ordered and most of these had been taken up to the mine. F. M. Chadbourn is looking after the property for Mr. Olmsted, during the latter's absence.

COTTON HAS LISTS

Vancouver Liberals Badly Handicapped by Government

(Special to The Daily News)

Vancouver, Jan. 22—Although it is now only 13 days before the elections, the voters' lists for this district have not made their appearance, thus greatly disconcerting canvassers. Inquiry by liberals has divulged the fact that the printing is being done in the News-Advertiser office, Cotton's sheet. It is probable that the access he and his friends will have to the advance sheets will be used to the utmost to cripple the opposition efforts. Liberals are publishing the facts of the case to show the ends to which the government forces are compelled to go to maintain their chances.

SCHOFIELD IN YMIR

(Special to The Daily News)

Ymir, Jan. 22 — Conservative candidate Schofield is working here in his own interest. Accompanying him is one named Murphy who hails from Trail. This gentleman claims to be a socialist and is trying to work that vote for Schofield. Personally Mr. Schofield is well received, politically coldly.

CONTEST IN YMIR

(Special to The Daily News)

Creston, Jan. 22—John Houston, the independent candidate in Ymir, spoke here last night to a gathering of 50 people and made a good showing. He did not talk party politics, but presented his land scrip policy. Schofield speaks tonight, while Hume holds a meeting at Sirdar. There will be about 80 votes on the Crow's Nest road.

A GRAVE CHARGE.

The Daily News publishes in another column, with a certain amount of reserve, a sensational despatch from Vancouver boldly accusing the ex-commissioner of lands and works, R. F. Green, of corruption. The tale, as received by telegraph, is very circumstantial. Names, dates and figures are given, and the almost convincing statement is made that the correspondence which passed between Mr. Green and those from whom he is said to have accepted the alleged bribe, has been photographed and is now in Vancouver.

Immediately on receipt of this despatch a message was sent to Mr. Green at Trout Lake, where he has gone on campaign work, asking for his side of the story and offering to publish anything he might have to say. As yet no reply has come to hand; and, until it does, the judgment of all fair minded persons will be withheld.

It is a serious matter to accuse a minister of the crown of being corrupt—of accepting private pay for making use of his public position to further the ends of those who are willing to purchase his services. Such charges should not be made lightly, nor should any one find pleasure from their hasty publication. The disgrace of a public man is no more fit subject for delight in foe than in friend. Better far would it be for the ministry to go down under the weight of popular condemnation of its policy than under the shame of a scandal. But, while this is true, the opposition, and the public at large, cannot escape the obligation, painful though it is, of laying bare official crookedness whenever that crokedness can actually be shown to exist. If Mr. Green has accepted a bribe, as charged, it becomes the unpleasant duty of every one interested in the general welfare and the fair name of the province, to see that fitting punishment is at once meted out.

The story received need not be repeated here in full, for it is told in detail elsewhere. In general outline, it is to this effect: A syndicate, of which sir Adolph Caron was head, applied for a lease of rich lands in the Telqua district; Mr. Green refused to grant the lease, alleging certain objections. Sir Adolph then wrote offering to transfer $37,000 worth of shares in the syndicate to Mr. Green, and asking for the name of a friend who could be trusted to hold them for Mr. Green. Mr. Green accepted the offer, named Neil McKay, the present candidate in Kaslo, as trustee, and the transfer was made. Later, when McKay succeeded Gore as Green's deputy, the shares were again transferred, this time to Granville Cuppage, a clerk in Mr. Green's office, who now sits on the board of the syndicate as a director. At that time all seemed to be going smoothly; but, owing to the opposition of some of his colleagues when they discovered the nature of the deal, Mr. Green was unable to carry through his part of the bargain (the lease of the lands) as soon as promised. The delay irritated sir Adolph, who at first insisted and then, finding expostulation unavailing, put his case in the hands of two Vancouver lawyers. Appearing before the cabinet, these lawyers confronted Mr. Green with the incriminating correspondence which he had himself carried on with sir Adolph, and thus completely silenced the emphatic denials with which he at first met their charges. Out of the friction which this incident developed came Mr. Green's sensational resignation. At least so the story goes.

If this tale is true, the reason why Mr. Green and his friends have persistently refused to give an explanation of his retirement at once becomes apparent. If it is not true, the reason will probably remain unknown. However that may be, a grave charge, a very grave charge, hangs over the head of the ex-chief commissioner and over the heads of the remaining members of the government who were accessories to the deal. So serious is the accusation, and so damaging the evidence on which it is based that in this instance the government organs will not be able to brush it aside with a cry of "slander." If they do, they will neither be honest with themselves nor with the public. Hasty condemnation of the ex-minister would be unjust; but it would be equally unjust to attempt to screen him from the results of his wrong doing, if of wrongdoing he has been guilty. For the moment both the government and opposition press should pause, awaiting on the one hand verification of the statements sent out from Vancouver and, on the other, Mr. Green's explanation. Till these are received, the question must remain open and judgment suspended. In the meantime, The Daily News will make every effort to learn the truth.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The local conservative organ yesterday showed exactly how big it was when it published its estimate of the McInnes meeting. The audience it termed a fair one; the address disappointing. The five or six hundred persons who were present and who were carried away with Mr. McInnes' stirring oratory and convincing argument will henceforth know what value to give to the government apologist's statements of "fact."

Mr. Clark flies into a passion when spoken of as a defeated aspirant for the local conservative nomination. Certain it is that he did not receive the nomination, and equally certain is it that friends of his, if not he himself, had aspirations for his selection. Those aspirations, whether his own or his friends' were defeated. However, Mr. Clark need not feel ruffled. No one thinks any the less of him for his failure. Indeed, he should feel highly honored that he was considered for the position at all. Everyone will admit that Mr. Clark has given the party nominee valuable support, and has thus far borne himself creditably in the campaign.

SIR WILFRID'S STATEMENT

Says Hyman's Resignation will be Withdrawn or Accepted Shortly

Ottawa, Jan. 22—Sir Wilfrid Laurier's reply to the question put to him yesterday by Mr. Foster, relative to the position of the resignation of Hon. Mr. Hyman, was as follows: "It is quite natural that my honorable friend should want to know something more definite. I can assure him that if very shortly, within a couple of weeks for instance, we do not receive favorable news from Mr. Hyman, we shall have to press him for a definite answer as to his intention. His intention was to resign, but unfortunately he omitted a formality which prevented the speaker issuing his warrant. We have sent communications to Mr. Hyman but they were not able to reach him. At present we have reason to believe they can reach him and we expect to have an answer at an early date. I did press upon him my view that he should not resign his cabinet position. I did so because of the reasons which induced his resignation as a member of parliament. It may, however, happen that for reasons of ill health we may be left to accept his resignation."

TORY CHARGE AGAINST LIBERALS RECOILS ON McBRIDE.

LATTER BLOCKS SALE OF LAND MADE BY INDIANS.

(Special to The Daily News)

Victoria, Jan. 22.—The history of the negotiations in which the Grand Trunk Pacific sought to purchase a portion of the Indian reserve at Port Simpson, Digby and Kaien islands places the transaction in a light very different to that attributed to it by the conservative press. There was no invasion of provincial rights in the matter and the dominion government's application to the B. C. government was no attempt at coercion, but merely a notification of the business agreement made between the dominion and the G. T. P. by which the dominion government, with the consent of the Indians, sold the latter's right of possession to the G. T. P. The application was made in 1904 and representatives of the company discussed the price and terms with Indian agent Morrow and the Indians in 1905. The company was informed that unless the provincial government waived its revisionary claims, a title would not be given, and on 2nd April, 1906, the B. C. government was asked if such claim would be waved. It repled that it could not favorably consider the suggestion. On being so advised the company stated that it was prepared to accept the porperty on the terms offered by the dominion and made a declaration to take title from the dominion without recourse in the case of establishment of the claim for reversion. In August, 1906, the Indians executed the surrender of 13,519 acres, being portions of Kaien island and Digby islands and part of the mainland. The terms were: Purchase price $7.50 per acre and satisfactory settlement for Indian claims for gardens, etc., fifty per cent to be paid to the Indians, men and women, of twenty-one years and over; the balance to be funded and interest paid annually for the maintenance and improvement of the villages of the Indians. The company has since paid $103,202.50. This is the whole story of the sale of a part of the Indian reserve to the railway company.

Early next week W. W. B. McInnes will address a meeting in this city. Mr. McInnes will be in Esquimalt in the interest of John Jardine on Saturday night. A special despatch from Nanaimo in the government paper is one of the most gratifying to the liberal cause. It is to the effect that Texado is not with the government. H. V. Brewster, the liberal candidate, is conceded a majority there, which in view of the fact that it was considered a government strenghold, means that Brewster's election is now absolutely certain. John Piercy, the liberal candidate for Saanich, is in the city today. He reports that the prospects in his constituency are excellent. A week from tomorrow night W. W. B. McInnes will address a meeting in Saanich riding.

CAMPAIGN OF SLANDER

Conservative Tactics in Vancouver are Discreditable

(Special to The Daily News)

Vancouver, Jan. 23—The evident weakness of the conservative cause here is being shown by the party plan of campaign, which consists chiefly in mud-slinging at the opposition candidates. McInnes is being arraigned for his course in resigning the Yukon governorship; McLennan for alleged Dawson dealings, and judge Henderson for his career on the bench. Many conservatives are openly disgusted with the tactics and openly state they are losing votes for the conservative ticket. The character of the liberal candidates is so well known that the leaders are laughing in their sleeves at the attacks, well knowing what results will follow. The liberal organization is being made thorough and nightly meetings in various districts are telling the tale with the new voters who hold the balance of power and who, in Vancouver, will cast their votes for the first time at the coming election.

THE REAL TEST

Of Herpicide Is In Giving It a Thorough Trial.

There is only one test by which to judge of the efficiency of any article and that is by its ability to do the which it is intended to do. Many hair vigors may look nice and smell nice but the point is—do they eradicate Dandruff and stop falling hair?

No, they do not, but Herpicide does, because it goes to the root of the evil and kills the germ that attacks the papilla from whence the hair gets its life.

Letters from prominent people everywhere are daily proving that Newbro's Herpicide stands the "test of use."

It is a delightful dressing, clear, pure and free from oil or grease.

MONTREAL DEFAULTER

Montreal, Jan. 22—Investigation into the affairs of William B. Magee, erstwhile secretary of the People's Mutual Building society, show his defalcations to be in the neighborhood of $30,000, a greater part of which comes from the pockets of personal friends. From two intimates he got $4,000, which will be a total loss to them. Forgery, embezzlement and common theft are the charges against him and he pleads guilty. He has turned over property amounting to $50,000 to the society but this is mortgaged so that the society only receives a small benefit.

HELD UP THE C. P. R.

COLD HOMESTEADERS STOP TRAIN AND TAKE COAL.

THEN SEND THEIR NAMES TO COMPANY'S HEADQUARTERS.

Grenfell, Jan. 22.—When a train pulled into the town of Windthrost, about twenty miles south of here, on Saturday morning the entire adult male population was there to meet it. They asked the conductor for part of a car of coal, and offered payment therefor. Being refused, nine men armed themselves with shovels and picks which had been hidden in the snow, boarded the car and shovelled out the coal, leaving sufficient to run the train to the next station and return to Reston, while the other nine threw a rail across the track in front of the engine and fastened it down with chains. Despite curses and threats of shooting, they prevented the crew from moving the train. They gave their names to the conductor and one of them drove to Grenfell this morning and sent a report to the C. P. R. headquarters by mail, giving a list of the names and the amount of coal each one got and offering payment therefor. They are now awaiting developments, but will be able to keep themselves warm while doing so.

Winnipeg, Jan. 22.—The local fuel situation is still serious. Dealers are still dealing out coal to customers in half ton lots and the wood supply is for the present practically exhausted. It is now generally conceded by dealers that there is a serious shortage of coal at Fort William and that before the winter is over Winnipeg will be very short of fuel. Several country points wired for coal this morning but none of them are in actual distress. The Canadian Pacific railway is sending out one car shipments to most of these points. A few cars arrived in the city over the C. P. R. yesterday but not nearly enough to supply the demand. The C. P. R. is giving coal the right of way over freight, except perishable goods. Very little coal ordered from Duluth reached Winnipeg as yet, and dealers here are beginning to fear that most of their shipments are being stolen for North Dakota where a bad famine prevails.

SWEETENHAM'S LETTER

TEXT OF INSULTING EPISTLE TO ADMIRAL DAVIS

U.S. GOVERNMENT WILL IGNORE THE INCIDENT

Washington, Jan 22—From official sources it is learned that no attention will be paid by the United States government to the action of governor Sweetenham of Jamaica, in asking admiral Davis to withdraw his forces from Kingston. It is held here that the act of the governor is that of a single individual for which the British government is in no manner to be held responsible.

London, Jan. 21—Replying to a telegram from the British charge d'affaires at Washington, reporting that the state department had inquired whether Great Britain desired or was willing to accept further assistance in money or other forms of aid for Kingston earthquake sufferers, the foreign office replied as follows:

"The offer of the American government to give further aid is gratefully appreciated by his majesty's government. The governor of Jamaica has not yet reported his requirements fully, but now that the first few days are over it appears that there will likely be no further justification for further calls on the generosity of the United States. In the meantime, his majesty's government has been requested by sir Alexander Sweetenham to convey to the government of the U.S. cordial thanks for the prompt and powerful assistance of the U. S. navy, under rear admiral Davis, rendered to the inhabitants of Kingstone in their suffering."

Washington, Jan. 22—On the afternoon of the incident, rear admiral Davis wrote governor Sweetenham as follows:

"My Dear Governor—I beg you to accept my apologies for the mistake of the salute this afternoon. My order was misunderstood, and the disregard of your wish was due to a mistake in the transmission of my orders. I trust the apparent disregard of your wishes wil lbe overlooked.

"I landed working parties from both ships today to aid in clearing the various streets and buildings and purpose landing parties tomorrow to the same purpose unless you expressly do not desire it. I think a great deal may be done in the way of assistance to private individuals without interfering with the forces of yourself and of the government of the United States. As the only object of my being here is to render such assistance as I can, I trust you will justify me in this matter for the cause of common humanity.

I held a patrol of six men ashore today to guard and protect the archives of the United States consulate, together with a party of ten clearing away the wreckage. This party, after finishing its work at the consulate, assisted a working party to catch thieves, recovering from them a safe taken from a store, valued at $5000. From this I judge that the police surveillance of the city is inadequate for the protection of private property.

"Actuated by the same motive, namely, common humanity, I shall direct the medical officers of my squadron to make all efforts to aid cases of distress which perhaps do not come under the observation of your medical officers.

"I shall have pleasure in meeting you at the hour appointed, 10 a.m., at headquarters house.

"I trust you approve my action in this matter. Your obedient servant,

"C. H. DAVIS, Rear Admiral.

Governor Sweetenham responded Friday as follows: "Dear Admiral—Thanks very much for your letter, your kind call and all the assistance given or offered us. While I most heartily appreciate the very generous offers of assistance, I feel it my duty to ask you to re-embark the working party and all parties which your kindness prompted you to land.

"If in consideration of the vice-consul's assiduous attentions to his family at his country house the American consulate needs guarding in your opinion—although he was present and it was not guarded an hour ago—I have no objection to your detailing a force for the sole purpose of guarding, but the party must have no firearms and nothing more offensive than clubs or staves for this function.

"I find your working party was this morning helping Mr. Crosswell clean his store. Crosswell was delighted that the work was done without cost. If your excellency should remain long enough I am sure almost all the private owners would be glad of the services of the navy to save expenses. It is no longer a question of humanity; all the dead died days ago and the work of giving them burial is merely one of convenience.

"I would be glad to accept delivery of the safe, which it is alleged thieves had possession of. The American vice-consul has no knowledge of it. The store is close to a sentry post and the officer of the post professes ignorance of the incident.

"I believe the police surveillance of the city is adequate for the protection of private property. I may remind your excellency that not long ago it was discovered that thieves had lodged in and pillaged the residence of some New York millionaire during his absence in the summer, but this would not justify a British admiral landing an armed party and assisting the New York police.

"I have the honor to be, with profound gratitude and the highest respect, your obedient servant.

"ALEXANDER SWEETENHAM.
"Governor."

When rear admiral Davis called at the headquarters house to bid farewell to governor Sweetenham, he waited 15 minutes. He then informed the governor's aide he would wait no longer and requested him to tell the governor that in consequence of the attitude in not accepting American aid he had countermanded president Roosevelt's order regarding the supply ship Celtic, laden with beef for the relief of Kingston.

Governor Sweetenham arriving at that moment, there was a brief private meeting and the governor escorted rear admiral Davis to his carriage. Salutations were exchanged.

Halifax, Jan. 22 — The relief steamer, which left tonight for Jamaica, takes $16,000 worth of relief supplies, consisting of flour, pease, meal, biscuits and other food stuffs, shipped by the collector of customs for the dominion government. The militia superintendent is shipping 500 tents.

Winnipeg, Jan. 22—The city council at a meeting last night granted $500 to the Jamaican relief fund.

FIRE AT MOYIE

Blaze on Saturday Destroyed Over $500 Worth of Property.

(Special to The Daily News)

Moyie, Jan. 21.—The Farrell block was burned here Saturday, the fire starting about 2.30. The building and furniture belonged to Miss Mamie Farrell, and were valed at $2500 and $400 respectively. The insurance on the building is $1,200, and that on the furniture $200. The other occupants of the block had no insurance and their losses are as follows: W. H. F. Crosby, entire stock in store, $1,500; W. L. Lucas, $600; Harold Chapman, $150; K. D. Stinson, $75. The four persons last mentioned lost clothing, books and other personal effects to the extent given. Gordon Monkhous got his belongings out, but they were badly damaged by water. The fire is said to have started in the rear of W. H. Crosby's store.

A HEALTHY OLD AGE

OFTEN THE BEST PART OF LIFE

Help for Women Passing Through Change of Life

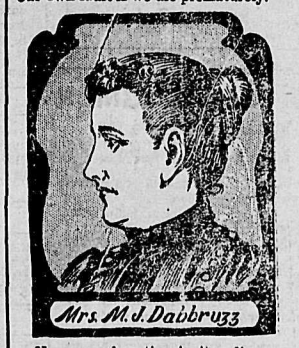
Providence has allotted us each at least seventy years in which to fulfill our mission in life, and it is generally our own fault if we die prematurely.



Nervous exhaustion invites disease. When everything becomes a burden and you cannot walk a few blocks without excessive fatigue, and you break out into perspiration easily, and your face flushes, and you grow excited and shaky at the least provocation, and you cannot bear to be crossed in anything, you are in danger; your nerves have given out; you need building up at once! To build up woman's nervous system and during the period of change of life we know of no better medicine than Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Here is an illustration. Mrs. Mary J. Dabbruzz, of 150 Main St., Winnipeg, Manitoba, writes: Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been a blessing to me through that delicate period known as the change of life. For six years it disturbed my entire system. I had hot flushes, was extremely nervous, became pale and debilitated, very irregular in the monthly flow, and the blood all seemed to be in my head. I had frequent palpitation and throbbing of the heart; in fact, my whole system seemed to be in disorder.

"I received no relief from the suffering incident to this period until I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; but I date my relief from the time I took the first bottle. I gradually improved, nature took her course painlessly, and in due time I was a well woman."

Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., invites all sick and ailing women to write her for advice. Her great experience is at their service, free of cost.

A HORRIBLE DEATH.

St. John, Jan. 22.—Wallace Brown, a stevedore and a large employer of longshoremen, met a horrible death on board the Donaldson liner at Herian while superintending the loading of the forward hatch. He was caught in a steel cable, hurled against the steam winch, and ground to fragments between the heavy wire rope and drum. His head and all his limbs were torn from his body.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

SEALED TENDERS addressed to the undersigned, marked on the envelope "Tender for Construction," will be received at the office of the Commissioners of the Transcontinental Railway, at Ottawa, until twelve o'clock noon of the 14th day of February, 1907, for the construction, in accordance with the plans, profiles and specifications of the Commissioners, for the following sections of the Transcontinental Railway, viz.:—

(1.) District "A"—From a point designated on the plans of the Commissioners at or near the City of Moncton, in the Province of New Brunswick, westerly for a distance of 50 miles.

(2) District "A"—From a point designated on the plans of the Commissioners at or near the town of Grand Falls, in the Province of New Brunswick, westerly to the boundary between the Provinces of New Brunswick and Quebec, a distance of about 63 miles.

(3) District "B"—From a point designated on the plans of the Commissioners, at or near the Quebec bridge, easterly for a distance of about 150 miles.

(4) District "B"—From a point designated on the plans of the Commissioners, about 150 miles west of the Quebec Bridge westerly to a point known as Weymontachene, a distance of about 45 miles.

(5) Districts "C" and "D"—From a point designated on the plans of the Commissioners, about eight miles west of the Abitibi river, crossing easterly for a distance of about 150 miles.

Plans, profiles and specifications may be seen in the office of the Chief Engineer of the Commissioners at Ottawa; also in the offices of the District Engineers concerned, viz: Guy C. Dunn, St. John, N.B.; A. E. Doucet, Quebec, P.Q.; and S. R. Poulin, North Bay, Ont.

Persons tendering are notified that tenders will not be considered unless made in duplicate, and on the printed forms supplied by the Commissioners.

A separate tender must be submitted for each section.

Tenderers shall not be in any way entitled to rely upon the classification or any other information given by any person on behalf of the Commissioners, and before submitting any tender, bidders shou'd make a careful examination of the plans, profiles, drawings and specifications, and read the forms to be executed, and fully inform themselves as to the quantity and quality of materials, and character of workmanship required; and are understood to accept and agree to be bound by the terms and conditions contained in the form of contract, specifications, etc., annexed to the form of tender.

Each tender must be signed and sealed by all the parties to the tender, and witnessed, and be accompanied by an accepted cheque on a chartered bank of the Dominion of Canada payable to the order of the Commissioners of the Transcontinental Railway, as follows:

For Section No. 1, District "A," $75,000.
For Section No. 2, District "A," $90,000.
For Section No. 3, District "B," $225,000.
For Section No. 4, District "B," $75,000.
For Section No. 5, Districts "C" and "D," $225,000.

Any person, whose tender is accepted shall, within ten days after the acceptance thereof, furnish such additional approved security as may be required by the Commissioners; sign the contract, specifications and other documents required to be signed by the said Commissioners; and in any case of refusal or failure on the part of the party whose tender is accepted to complete and execute a contract with the said Commissioners, and to furnish the additional approved security within ten days after the acceptance of the tender, the said cheque shall be forfeited to the Commissioners as liquidated damages for such refusal or failure, and all contract rights acquired by the acceptance of the tender shall be forfeited. The cheques deposited by parties whose tenders are accepted will be deposited to the credit of the Receiver General of Canada as part of the security for the due and faithful performance of the contract according to its terms. Cheques deposited by parties whose tenders are rejected will be returned within ten days after the signing of the contract.

Attention is called to the following clauses in the form of contract:—

"All mechanics, laborers or other persons who perform labor for the purposes of the construction of the works hereby contracted for shall be paid such wages as are generally accepted as current for competent workmen in the district in which the work is being performed, and if there is no current rate in such district, then a fair and reasonable rate; and in the event of a dispute arising as to what is the current or a fair and reasonable rate, it shall be determined by the Commissioners whose decision shall be final."

"This agreement is subject to the regulations now in force, or which may at any time hereafter be in force during the construction of the works hereby contracted for, made under the authority of the Department of Labor, and which are or shall be applicable to such works." (The schedule of Minimum wages determined upon by said department will form part of the contract.)

"The contractor shall, in connection with the whole of the said work, as far as practicable, use only material, machinery, plant, supplies and rolling stock manufactured or produced in Canada, provided the same can be obtained as cheaply and upon as good terms in Canada as elsewhere, having regard to quality and price."

The contractor shall conform to the fire regulations adopted by the Commissioners; and also the laws and regulations respecting fires in the different Provinces wherein the work is being performed.

The right is reserved to reject any or all tenders. By Order,

P. E. RYAN, Secretary.

The Commissioners of the Transcontinental Railway, Ottawa, Jan. 5th, 1907.

Newspapers inserting this advertisement without authority from the King's Printer will not be paid for it.

FRUITGROWERS' MEETING

ALTERATIONS MADE IN CONSTITUTION BY ASSOCIATION.

A SURPLUS IS RESULT OF THE WORKING OF THE YEAR.

The annual meeting of the Fruit Growers' Association was called to order at 2:20 p. m. yesterday afternoon in the board of trade rooms, James Johnstone being in the chair. There was little business discussed beyond the election of officers and rules of procedure. The affairs of the local association showed a profit instead of an anticipated deficit for the year.

Among those present were: J. W. Ford, Angus Cameron, G. E. Botting, D. C. McMorris, T. Morley, J. Hyslop, H. H. Sewell, J. Williams, E. Applewhaite, Crozier Bourke, J. Sammons, Cecil Bourke, H. Williams, S. S. Fraser, Lieut. Hallett, J. E. Annable, C. W. Busk, J. Johnstone, J. Ferran, J. W. Holmes, F. M. Black, J. Russell, J. J. Campbell, J. Astley, F. Brewer.

After reading the minutes of the previous meeting by the secretary, J. E. Annable, the financial statement of the secretary was read showing that there was a cash balance of $97.38. There were outstanding accounts for fruit shipped still due, amounting to $352.10, and on this it was suggested that better terms be arranged for next season. There were also accounts owed by the corporation to its shareholders and others owed to it. Also certain quantities of fertilizer are on hand. The accounts were not audited and T. Morley therefore moved that they be audited, copies printed and forwarded to each shareholder seven days before the date of another meeting to be held later. This was carried.

D. C. McMorris and E. B. McDermid were then appointed auditors for these accounts and for those of the enquing year. The fee was fixed at $25 per annum.

President Johnstone said the financial report was satisfactory. He had anticipated a deficit but there was a surplus. There had been mistakes made, inevitable at first, which he hoped to avoid the coming season. He proposed to do away with the man on the boat but to have one at Winnipeg and another at a nearer point. This would make the shipper responsible for bad packing as he would only get that which the injured fruit would fetch. Furthermore he recommended that a resolution be adopted that all members of the association should ship through the association. A member who took advantage of a good local market should be considered a competitor of the most dangerous type. The president then declared that he had borne the burden of the day since the inception of the association and now would beg to retire, promising to return to help if dissension should hereafter arise.

Cecil Bourke moved and J. Williams seconded that the president and secretary be appointed by the general annual meeting instead of by the directors. It was objected that while notice had been given as to the change in the method of the appointment of president, none had been given as to the secretary.

The president pointed out that there was a need for a change in the date of the annual meeting which should be earlier so as to permit of proper preparation for the coming season during the slack part of the year.

It was then carried that the president should be appointed by open vote and also that the annual meeting be held on the first Wednesday in November.

The election of officers then being proceeded with C. W. Busk was appointed president. On going on to the election of the directorate it was proposed by J. W. Ford that the directors be elected with a view to a close representation of the various portions of a scattered directorate. F. J. Sammons objected on the ground that if directors would not attend it was of no use making them representative.

The result of a ballot was the election of the following directors: James Hyslop, D. C. McMorris, J. E. Annable, J. Johnstone, J. Williams, J. J. Campbell, F. M. Black, S. S. Fraser, G. Hallett, H. H. Sewell and Crozier Bourke.

A committee was then selected, composed of James Johnstone, J. E. Annable and T. Morley, who will confer with the agricultural society with a view of sending out a circular to fruit growers in the province, Washington and Oregon containing a set of questions the tabulation of the answers to which will yield some valuable statistics of the fruit growing industry.

The annual meeting was then adjourned for the adoption of the accounts until February 22.

At a meeting of the directorate which was held directly afterwards James Johnstone was appointed vice-president and D. C. McMorris secretary.

PREMIER ROBLIN ILL

Winnipeg, Jan. 22—Premier Roblin who was away from the proceedings of the legislature last week, has gone south. It is stated that his health is not good and that he is seeking a warmer climate, where it is hoped the chest trouble from which he is suffering may be removed. It would appear that the final session of the present assembly is not likely to have any more of his presence.

To the Electors of the Ymir Riding

Gentlemen:

As the unanimous choice of the liberal convention in the Ymir riding I am before you as a candidate for representative of the Ymir riding in the next provincial legislature.

In this connection I desire to solicit your votes and influence in my behalf. I will visit all parts of the riding between now and election day, time permitting.

Believing that every candidate should place himself on record on the main issues, I take this opportunity of stating that I am in favor of the following:

(1.) All public lands should be held for actual settlement, lands suitable for agriculture should be surveyed and plans of same kept at the government office of the district for the information of intending settlers.

(2.) I am not in favor of granting land or cash subsidies by the provincial government to aid the building of railroads that when built are owned by soulless corporations.

(3.) Prevention of the importation into the province of Chinese, Japanese, Hindus or other Asiatic peoples for the purpose of competing with white labor.

(4.) The eight hour day for men working in metalliferous mines and smelters is now generally acceptable as legislation in the right direction and I will oppose any legislation that would repeal the penalty clause, or in any way impair the effectiveness of said law.

(5.) Mining, agriculture, and the timber industries must not be hampered in the way of unjust taxation, which should be based on the treatment and manufacture within the province.

(6.) Trunk roads and trails should be built and maintained at government expense, and the cost of roads and trails to isolated mines and communities should be borne in part by the province. Yours respectfully,

J. FRED HUME.

To the Electors of the Nelson City Electoral District

Gentlemen:

At the uanimous request of the liberals of this constituency I have allowed myself to be a candidate in the approaching election. I do so because I believe the interests of the interior are and have been in the past sadly neglected and although Nelson is the most central and the chief inland city has fared the worst of any constituency in the province.

Although I am a liberal, I am not such a strong partisan that I cannot see faults in my own party and those who know me must admit that I have the courage of my convictions and wherever I see errors or injustices I will do my utmost to correct them.

Pre-election promises I do not believe in, for in a young and growing country conditions may so change that to carry them out would not be to the best interests of the province.

The following are some of the principal things that should receive immediate attention:

To assist the development of our mineral resources.

A labor bureau and immigration policy as suggested by J. A. Macdonald is a capital idea.

Full information with maps and plans for intending settlers should be supplied.

A railway policy without bonuses by cash or land but by giving equal privileges to all and special privileges to none.

Our civil service should be taken out of politics and put on a sound basis.

Our timber resources shoud be carefully guarded.

In short our natural resources should be preserved and developed for the people.

I believe in a progressive policy but at the same time maintaining an equilibrium between revenue and expenditure.

Yours respectfully,

G. A. B. HALL.

NOTICE

TO CONTRACTORS AND THE PUBLIC

At a meeting of the Nelson Union of Carpenters and Joiners, held Jan 16th, it was unanimously decided that after March 1st, 1907, they would accept no less than $4 per day of 8 hours, except for work on contracts which have been tendered for prior to Jan. 18th, 1907.

As the cost of living has considerably increased since the present standard of wages was established, the union believes the contractors and public will readily endorse this action.

Blue Ribbon TEA

The uniformity and superb quality of the famous Red Label package of Blue Ribbon Tea have made it very popular, and packers of other teas are now commencing to call their packages Red Label.

There is danger, therefore, of not getting the genuine Blue Ribbon Tea when you simply ask for the Red Label.

To avoid disappointment, ask for Blue Ribbon Tea, and see that the name "Blue Ribbon" is on the package.

MADE GARRISON FINISH

HOCKEY GAME AT MONTREAL WAS WHIRLWIND ONE

PLAY WAS SO FAST IT COULD NOT BE FOLLOWED.

Montreal, Jan. 22.—As announced last night, the Stanley cup comes west, the Kenoras defeating the Wanderers by eight to six. With five minutes to play, it was six to five in favor of the Kenoras. With four minutes to play, it was six all. Two minutes to play, seven to six and just before time was called Kenora put in another. The ice was so keen it favored the Thistles, who showed no ill affects of Thursday's match. Both teams were strong and play was so fast it was impossible to follow it. The Wanderers wore Montreal uniforms to distinguish their team from the Kenoras. The Wanderers objected strongly to the officials, but the trustees of the cup insisted and the following acted: Referee, F. C. Chitty, Ottawa; judge of play, M. J. Sheehy, Ottawa; umpires, McNeil and Baskerville, of Ottawa.

Thistles: Geroux, Ross, Griffis, Phillips, Hooper, McGimsie, Beaudro.

The Wanderers' checking was very hard, but clean, any misdemeanors being unintentional. The Wanderers scored first in 23 minutes, but thirty seconds later McGimsie evened the score. When half time was called it was six to two against the home team. On opening the second half, a terrible onslaught made on the Thistles' goal resulted in four tallies being made by the Wanderers, evening the score. With five minutes to play, the Thistles, although fagged out, managed to tally twice.

"A BIG PIECE FOR 10 CENTS"

This is the catch line that made a certain well known brand of "plug" tobacco famous. 'A Big Piece for Five Cents" may well be said of the New York World Magazine. Next Sunday's World will contain a wonderful color picture of New York's tall buildings of the future; the story of plants that grow from artificial seed; the remarkable story of a man who was convicted of a crime by his finger prints, etc., etc. The magazine and funny sections of the great Sunday World consist of 16 large pages.

Scalded By Boiling Fat

COULDN'T USE HAND FOR A MONTH

Zam-Buk Then Applied and Gave Instant Relief

An accident in a Toronto home the other day might have had serious consequences had it not been for Zam-Buk. Mis Martha Green of 9 Claremont street, in taking a pan of boiling fat from the oven spilt it over her right hand. "The boiling fat ran into the palm of my hand," she says, "and over all my fingers. You may well imagine the agony I suffered in consequence. I was almost wild with pain. The hand became swollen and large blisters formed all over the palm and along the fingers. For over a month I was unable to use the hand at all. I tried several kinds of salves and liniments, but the wound seemed apparently no better. It was altogether too severe for these preparations to heal. About this time I was advised to try Zam-Buk. I stopped using all other preparations and applied Zam-Buk instead. The very first application soothed my hand and seemed to draw out the fire and inflammation; and as I kept on using Zam-Buk the blisters gradually dried up and disappeared. In a very short time the scald was completely healed."

This is but one instance of the uses to which Zam-Buk can be so advantageously applied. It is equally effective for cuts, burns, bruises, abrasions, sprains and stiffness. It also cures eczema, ulcers, sores, blood poison, ringworm, scalp sores, chronic wounds, acne, blackheads, pimples, cold sores, chapped hands and all skin diseases and injuries. Rubbed well on to the chest in cases of cold, it relieves the aching and tightness and applied as an embrocation it cures rheumatism, sciatica, neuralgia, etc. All druggists sell Zam-Buk at 50c. a box, or it may be obtained from Zam-Buk company, Toronto at six boxes for $2.50.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Benefits a City Councilman at Kingston, Jamaica

Mr. W. O'Reilly Fogarty, who is a member of the city council at Kingston, Jamaica, West Indies writes as follows: "One bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy had good eecfit on a cough that was giving me trouble and I thin k I should have been more quickly relieved if I had continued the remedy. That it was beeneficial and quick in relieving me there is no doubt and it is my intention to obtain another bottle." For sale by all druggists and dealers.

INQUEST IS ENDED.

Jury Exonerates Everybody From Blame for Frank Accident.

(Special to The Daily News)

Frank, Jan. 21.—The inquest opened by coroner Beech on the 7th instant on the bodies of Peter Fisher and John Ollivie, who were killed in the C. A. C. & C. Co's mine, was (by request of E. Heathcote, provincial inspector of coal mines) adjourned until the 18th instant. The jury were; J. Harmer, foreman, banker; Alfred Manuel, hotelkeeper; Harvey Murphy, merchant; Robert Evans, James Nicol and John D. McLean, miners.

The evidence of E. Heathcote, Dr. McKensie, J. Barber, pit boss, and H. Rice, fire boss, was taken. The jury, after due deliberation, returned a verdict of accidental death, laying no blame on anyone. The accident in the opinion of the jury was due to the effect of carelessness on the part of the men who were killed by not obeying orders.

The Frank hospital has six patients at present, some with frozen hands and broken legs, all from Peter McLean's lumber camps, six miles from Frank.

The C. A. C. and C. Co's mine at this town is working at full capacity, shipping about 700 tons a day.

The Red Cross Drug Store is now open with a full line of druggs and druggist's sundries, patent medicines, etc. Prescriptions carefully dispensed. Note address, Baker street, near Josephine. 234-6

NELSON'S NEWS OF THE DAY

A new drug store—the Red Cross—has been opened on Baker street, near Josephine.

S. G. Blaylock of Trail, the new superintendent at the Hall Mines smelter, is a guest at the Strathcona.

The thermometer yesterday ranged between 34 and 43 degrees above zero, a return to normal weather.

The Makers of Modern Rome" by Mrs. Oliphant and "The Doctor" by Ralph Connor have been added to the library.

Arrangements have been made to play a game with the Rossland hockey team in this city on Friday night next. Rossland and Nelson have both beaten Phoenix and a good tussle is expected.

There was no connection at Revelstoke with the coast train yesterday and at Spokane no eastern connection for the third consecutive day. The crow train reached the city about 4 o'clock this morning.

The Ladies of the Maccabees have postponed their installation, which was to have been held tonight, til lthe first regular meeting in February on account of so much sickness amongst the lodge members.

John Keen, the next member for Kaslo riding, spent yesterday in this city and will leave for the northern portion of the riding this morning, going in by way of Beaton, and following up Robert Green and Neil McKay who were at Beaton last evening. Mr. Keen will hold a meeting at Trout Lake on Thursday and another at Ferguson on Friday.

The Summers' Stock company put on a good comedy last night in "Mrs. Temple's Telegram" and promise to do even better tonight in "Because She Loved Him so." George Summers is a good low comedian and his company played up well to him, eliciting many a laugh from the audience. Between the acts there were some good specialties, the Valpos in particular attracting much applause.

Some curiosity was evinced locally, when John Houston's nomination at Trail was announced on Saturday last, as to the proposer, seconder and assentors on Mr. Houston's nomination papers. Nelson's former member was proposed by James Dawson and seconded by R. A. Davis, the assentors being D. A. McKay, J. Joseph W. J. Hartford and one other. Mr. Schofield was nominated by R. A. Davis and seconded by Harry Anderson.

Pat Daly, A. Hughes and J. Ryan, owners of the Yukon-Kitten group at Ymir, have bonded the property to A. H. Stiles and brother of Seattle. Mr. Stiles was in the city yesterday when the bond was duly executed. The consideration named is $35,000 and the payments are to be made within two years. The first in six months, the second in another six months, and the final payment in 12 months after. The bonders agree to keep six men at work on the property.

HUME—C. W. Bourke, H. H. Sewell, C. MacW. Bourke, Miss W. Bourke, Clubb's landing; J. W. Melrose, Trail; J. W. Cockle, Kaslo; S. DesBrisay, T. W. Storey, J. P. Thompson, Vancouver; R. J. McPhee, Slocan; E. Mallandaine, Creston; R. A. Henderson, Grand Forks; J. W. Warren, Toronto; F. Demuth, Rossland; J. A. Yeo, Eholt.
