GOLDEN RULE

Keynote to Policy of President Roosevelt

GREAT NASHVILLE SPEECH

DENIAL OF THE CHARGE THAT REFORM MOVEMENT IS THE REAL CAUSE OF THE PRESENT FINANCIAL TROUBLE EXISTING OVER THE CONTINENT.

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 22.—President Roosevelt was heartily welcomed here today, the city being beautifully decorated and there being thousands of visitors from neighboring cities. The president addressed large crowds in the Ryman auditorium, saying among other things:

"There has been trouble in the stock market and in the high financial world during the past few months. The statement has frequently been made that the policies for which I stand, legislative and executive, are responsible for that trouble; now gentlemen, the policies of mine can be summed up in one brief sentence. They represent the effort to punish successfully dishonesty. I doubt if the policies have had any material effect in bringing about the present trouble, but if they have it will not alter in the slightest degree my determination that during the remaining fifteen months of my term, these policies shall be perservered in unswervingly.

"Men of means, remember this, that atonement in this world is largely vicarious, that if we sit supinely and let men of great wealth set before the country as a whole the standard of successful dishonesty, so that young men are taught to think of business trickery, of evasion and violation of the law, of stock gambling and swindling as the chief roads to financial success, that if we should let such a state of affairs exist, not only do we bring about a deterioration of public conscience as a whole, but as sure as fate we ultimately invite ignorant and vile reaction which, in trampling out the wrong, will trample out the right at the same time, which in punishing the wealthy wrongdoer will inflict the punishment brutally and so unskillfully as to confound in it many men who have done honestly and well.

"I want to see the process of gaining wealth by successful dishonesty stopped, before it goes so far as to invite the very reaction of which I speak and the man of property, the man of great means, will do well to turn and in the loftiest way back up a rational movement for such supervision and control over the use, over the accumulation and business use, of these great fortunes as will, if not eliminate, at least minimize the evil of which I complain.

"Such a movement as that in which we are now engaged is not in the least undertaken with any vindicative purpose. It is undertaken to cure evils and to prevent their recurrence. If the beneficiaries of these evils succeed, which they will not do, they will not succeed, but if they did succeed, in stopping the movement, it will merely mean that in a very few years it would break forth again and that in time it would be in the control of men who would legislate with a vindicative purpose and act as legislators with a desire to hurt and damage the men at whom the movement was not aimed. There is no movement, in its proper sense, that more properly may be described as conservative, using the word with its real significance, than the movement which we have seen developed during the past four or five years, the movement for the proper supervision and control in the interest of the general public of these colossal fortunes which, singly or in combination, are of such importance in the modern industrial world to control and supervise them, that in their accumulation and their business use, there shall be, as far as we can prevent it, no wrong doing to the small man, which small man is a competitor, wage worker, or an investor. In other words, gentlemen, our whole movement is simply and solely to make the Decalogue and the Golden Rule of some practical moment in the business life of the community."

CHAMBERLAIN'S CONDITION.

Former Colonial Secretary Gradually Recovering His Strength.

London, Oct. 22.—Rt. Hon. Joseph Chamberlain is steadily recovering his strength, as the result of the careful treatment he has been undergoing.

He still suffers severely from the gout in one leg and slightly in the other, and in one arm, but his eyes are now quite free from this insidious complaint. His brain is quite clear, and every morning he devotes two hours to reading new papers and keeping in touch with public affairs.

During his seclusion at Highbury the only persons Mr. Chamberlain has received beyond the members of his family and his private secretary, Mr. Wilson, have been four friends who live in the neighbourhood.

He walks daily for a considerable time in his grounds, taking great interest in the gardening operations. Dressed usually in a grey suit and a soft felt hat, he walks at a brisk pace, requiring no assistance, though he leans somewhat heavily on a thick stick. His monocle has been replaced by spectacles.

Mr. Chamberlain rarely breakfasts before ten, while by the same hour in the evening he is usually in bed. His diet is arefully regulated, being sparing in quantity, while meat is reduced to a minimum. His allowance of the strong green cigars, of which he used to consume so large a number, has been cut down to two or three a day, and he seldom smokes a pipe.

In the afternoon he usually rests for several hours. His constant attendants are Mrs. Chamberlain, to whose tender and unremitting care so much of his recovery is due, and Mr. Wilson, who for so many years has been his private secretary.

BRYAN'S CAMPAIGN

Will Not Accept Contributions from Corporations or Trusts

New York, Oct. 22—William Jennings Bryan arrived in New York today to begin a tour of speech making in the empire state under the auspices of the New York Progressive Democratic league. The subject of all Mr. Bryan's speeches in this state will be the "Average Man in his relation to National Politics." After his tour of this state, which is in the interests of democracy generally, Mr. Bryan will speak in Wisconsin and other northern states, prior to returning to Omaha early in December, when it is expected he will announce his candidacy for the presidency.

In his tour of New York state Mr. Bryan has admonished the Progressive Democratic league and other partisan organizations in the cities to be visited that no contributions for covering the expenses of the meetings must be received from private corporations, officers or directors of corporations, or from anyone whose bank account would indicate that he is connected with any trust or combine, railroad, trust company, or insurance company. Large contributions have not been received as it is the Nebraskan's plan to have the common people "pay the freight" for his stumping tour.

ANOTHER POLICE CASE

TEAMSTER IS ARRESTED WITHOUT A WARRANT

NO EVIDENCE IS OFFERED AND ACCUSED IS RELEASED

The attention of mayor Gillett, as chairman of the board of police commissioners, is directed to an occurrence which is stated to have taken place last Saturday evening.

A teamster and a barkeeper had some words in a Baker street bar about 10 o'clock on Saturday night. The teamster struck the barkeeper finally and the latter went out and called in one of the city policemen, sergeant Wheeler. The sergeant arrested the teamster and put him in the lockup. Some bystanders who witnessed the whole affair called up the police magistrate and the hotel proprietor and informed them of the occurrence.

The police magistrate dressed and came to the city hall some time after 11 o'clock. Here he found the hotel proprietor and the teamster was brought up from the dungeon and liberated, the hotel proprietor going bail for the man's appearance on Monday.

At the time the arrest was made no information had been laid, nor had any warrant been issued.

The sergeant who made the arrest was not present when the breach of the peace occurred.

On Monday morning no one appeared to press the case, the police stating that they had no evidence to offer and the charge of common assault was dismissed.

The barkeeper is out of a job.

The mayor's letter suspending constable Charles Young last month gave two reasons, one for wrongfully arresting a citizen and the other for wrongfully allowing him to go from the police station. It has since been shown that constable Young neither arrested the citizen in question, nor later gave him his liberty, but Mr. Young's suspension was made permanent.

In the present instance will his worship enquire into the facts as above stated and if they prove to be correct, will he suspend sergeant Wheeler?

It should be stated that according to eye witnesses, the teamster was not under the influence of liquor at the time of his arrest and the information subsequently laid against him charges common assault only.

TO BREAK THE RECORD.

Bowmanville, Oct. 22.—Reynolds reached here on his walk from Port Hope to Toronto at 10.40 looking fresh and walking strong. He is now 35 minutes ahead of Langford's time.

THE GERMAN BALLOON.

Cleveland, Oct. 22.—(Bulletin)—The German balloon Pommern passed over Cleveland this afternoon, being the first of the balloons from St. Louis to be seen here. A note sent down reads: "3.10 p.m., open water ahead, lake Erie, wind north northwest, a quarter north; all well. (Signed) Oscar Ebsloch." The note from the balloon came down on Euclid avenue in a crowd of several hundred people who had watched the balloon in its flight over the city.

INEXORABLE JUSTICES

EAGLE COURT IN FULL SESSION LAST NIGHT.

SMOKER WAS IN EVERY SENSE A SUCCESS.

"Well," said an enthused Eagle, streaming with many another such, out of the opera house late last night, "if that don't beat any smoker we have seen in this city I want to know. Why the court was just all right and Big Bill should have stuck to the law."

The very best thing among many things in the Eagle's smoker last night was the constitution of the court. There were two judges, Rhadamanthus and Solon—E. A. Crease and T. G. Proctor—both of whom justified their epithets, the first by never letting a prisoner go without fining, even when he was up against a Bowery tough, and the second by freeing (the only instance in a long record) a wandering gaberlunzie man charged with attempting to play "Willie Comes Marching Home Again," upon the pipes. Then there was the prosecuting attorney, W. A. Galliher, who, obtaining the sympathy (and applause) of both judge and audience proceeded (without any looked-for interruptions from the chairman, S. S. Taylor) to ask the most leading and incriminating questions, ended invariably by winning his case. The clerk of the court, George Horstead, showed the true spirit of Varges by prefacing his indictments with the remark that "the charge was a very serious one." When the chief of police, J. Wightman, was supported by Charles Young, D. McBeath and Arthur Pitchford, the make up of that court was completely rounded out. Not a benefactor (to quote Dogberry) in the bunch could escape their Eagle vision and were incontinently hauled, regardless of their standing among citizens, before that Rhadamanthine bench. Great, therefore, was the satisfaction, expressed on all sides, when inexorable and blindfolded justice meted out fines alike to the prosecuting attorney and his starred myrmidons, as well as to their victims.

The next feature of the evening was the boxing. This occurred in three bouts, the first between Bert Pavlin and Jim Reid, the second between Jim Pitchford and Jack Fitzsimmons and the third between a sweep and a miller who so disfigured and bemauled each other that their identity was indiscoverable. In fact the miller was in danger of a rough house, after the show, from his own friends, on the ground that he was the sweep!

All through the evening were interspersed songs by Ed. Mason, S. Wye, S. Parker, dances by M. McKay, bagpipes by Gunn, an Irish recitation by Buzzell and an instructive discourse by Dr. W. O. Rose on the manners and customs of eaglets and eyries. The whole formed one of the most enjoyable evenings in the fraternal history of Nelson.

TURNED DOWN

Canadian Printer Refused Admission to the United States

Toronto, Oct. 22—The printers in Canada will be unable to take advantage of the printers' home at Colorado Springs which they help to maintain. A printer from Canada, who had all the papers necessary to have him admitted to the home, was turned back at Port Huron a few days ago because of the law which went into effect on July 1, prohibiting the entrance into the United States of all people unfit to earn a living, through sickness or other causes. An attempt will be made to have the law amended but it will probably mean in a short time, the erection of a home for Canadian printers.

NO SUNDAY CARS.

London, Ont., Oct. 22.—After a long and bitter fight the city council closed the agitation for Sunday street cars last night by refusing absolutely to put the matter to a vote of the people. Matters waxed warm between members of Lord's Day Alliance on the one hand and members of the Rational Sunday league on the other and for a time when the several members met on the street it was feared that a hand to hand fight would result.

BORDEN AT BRANDON.

Brandon, Oct. 22.—A great crowd greeted R. L. Borden here tonight in the big rink, which was cold and uncomfortable. With him were Hon. R. P. Roblin. Hon. Robt. Rogers, Dr. J. D. Reid, M.P., J. G. H. Bergeron, M.P., Hon. J. H. Agnew, Hon. S. W. McInnis, and Dr. Roche, M.P. Borden's address on the issues of the day was well received.

SPECTACULAR BLAZE.

Carberry, Man., Oct. 22.—Fire broke out yesterday in Murphy's elevator and resulted in a loss of $10.000. The cause of the outbreak was hot boxing under the shoot. The flames swept up to the top of the elevator and worked downward and at times the blaze was very spectacular. Over 15,000 bushels of wheat were stored in the elevator and about half of it was saved. The loss is fully covered by insurance.

A PURE CANARD.

(Special to The Daily News)

Toronto, Oct. 22.—The rumor that J. J. Hill offered McKenzie and Mann seventy-eight millions for the Canadian Northern railway, proves a pure canard.

'FRISCO'S PLAGUE RECORD

San Francisco, Oct. 22—The totals today in the Bubonic plague situation are as follows: Verified cases, 73; deaths, 46; death rate 63; cured, 17; under treatment, 19; suspects, 38.

WHEAT CRISIS

Possible Attempt at a Corner in Chicago

LEITER'S FIASCO RECALLED

EXTRAORDINARY DIFFERENCES EXISTING BETWEEN THE ENGLISH AND THE AMERICAN MARKETS—WINNIPEG PRICE IS BREAKING IN SYMPATHY.

(Special to The Daily News)

Minneapolis, Oct. 22.—Rumors of a big corner in wheat, manipulated by Chicago brokers, were heard in the Minneapolis chamber of commerce again today when the local wheat market wen down while European markets went up, leaving a margin of six cents between Liverpool and Minneapolis. It is said that such a condition has not been noticed in ten years, and not since the famous corner by Joe Leiter have such violent readjustments been recorded. No one outside the secret knows just what is being done, but big bulls seem to have plenty of wheat to sell when they want to realize profits and plenty of capacity to buy when they desire to boost prices again.

(Special to The Daily News)

Winnipeg, Oct. 22.—Wheat broke three cents again today in sympathy with American markets. Representatives of English export houses purchased heavily on all breaks in the cash market.

(Special to The Daily News)

New York, Oct. 22.—Despite the positive assertions of the clearing houses, and protestations on the part of its new president and directorate, that it was fully solvent, the Knickerbocker Trust company was compelled to suspend temporarily today after paying out eight million during the run. The trust company had announced earlier in the day that fifteen millions were pledged for the use of the Knickerbocker deposits, which aggregate over sixty-two millions.

New York, Oct. 22.—The failure of the Concolidated stock exchange brokerage firm of Butler and Johnson was announced today. It had branches in several New England cities.

The assignment of Mayer & Co., brokers and members of the stock exchange with liabilities amounting to $600,000, was announced in the stock exchange during the final hour of trading today. It was expected that the assets might be sufficient to meet the liabilities and the firm hope to resume business.

A CRISIS AT VICTORIA

ABSENCE OF RAIN CUTS DOWN WATER SUPPLY.

SITUATION IS ADMITTEDLY A SERIOUS ONE.

Victoria, Oct. 22.—The Esquimalt water works company has asked the B. C. Electric company to put into operation its auxiliary steam plant in view of the rapid dimunition in the supply of water at Coldstream.

A crisis has now been reached and the absence of rain has led the Esquimalt company to ask the Electric company to assist by turning on steam.

Mr. Gifford of the London directors of the B. C. Electric Co., regards the situation as a serious one, but points out that his company is in no way responsible for any inconveniences which may follow. Asked as to the ultimate solution of the situation and the extension of their system in Victoria, Mr. Gifford said that it will mean that his company will have to seek additional power. He expects that this will be found at Shawnigan.

GOT THEIR HOLIDAY

Penman Operatives Get off on Saturday Afternoons in Future

Paris, Oct. 22—At a mass meeting here tonight it was decided by the operatives of the Penman mills to return to work in the morning and thus end the strike which has been in progress for a week. It is understood that a compromise has been effected between the company and the men. The hands will probably work over time until the lost time during the strike is made up and it is understood that the final settlement will provide for 56 hours work per week with Saturday afternoons off.

ADVANCING TEMPERANCE CAUSE.

(Special to The Daily News)

Toronto, Oct. 22.—The Ontario Brewers met here today and decided to raise the price of beer a dollar per barrel.

QUARANTINE RAISED.

PLEASED WITH OUTCOME

FOUND WORKING OF LEMIEUX ACT VERY SATISFACTORY

Ed. Goulet of New Westminster, general chairman of the grievance committee of the C.P.R. telegraphers, who has spent the past three months in the east negotiating a settlement of te claims of the men for better pay, etc., spent yesterday in town on his way home from Montreal. The details of the settlement, through the intervention of the arbitration board, appointed under the Lemieux act, have already been given in these columns.

Mr. Goulet states that the men, almost without exception, express perfect satisfaction with the settlement arrived at. Personally the thinks the men obtained about all that could be expected under the circumstances. He was specially pleased with the conduct of the arbitration board, speaking in high terms of the fairness and the breadth of mind displayed by the chairman, Prof. Shortt and the company's representative, Wallace Nesbitt, K.C.. Mr. Goulet confesses that at the outset he did not regard the submission of the case to a board of arbitration, under the Lemieux act, at all favorably. He was inclined to think that a college professor and a corporation lawyer would hardly approach the subject in the spirit essential to a just settlement. However, he admits now that he was very pleasantly surprised in this regard. It would have been impossible, he says, to have found two men more reasonable or more honestly desirous of dealing with the case wholly upon its merits and in the light of the best information obtainable, than professor Shortt and Wallace Nesbitt. Mr. Goulett returns with a new understanding and appreciation of the Lemieux act. He recognizes that it is a powerful factor for good in the industrial life of Canada and a splendid alternative to hasty strikes and lockouts. He compared at some length the differences between the telegraphers' strike in the United States and the amicable settlement of fully as serious differences on the Canadian side between the great railroad corporation and its telegraphers. On the one hand there is the general disturbance of business, the loss of business by the company and of wages by the men and the inevitable ill-feeling these conditions give rise to, and on the other there was no interruption of business, no loss of wages by the men and no after effects of an unpleasant nature. The C.P.R. telegraphers have gained their just demands without endangering in any respect the good relations prevailing between them and their employers.

Mr. Goulet yesterday discussed the situation with local telegraphers and on his way home he held meetings of those affected at various points and on every side he found the men well pleased with the outcome.

Mr. Goulet is one of the best known railroad men in the province. At present he is agent in charge at New Westminster. Formerly he was agent at Kamloops. The position of general chairman of the grievance committee was one of very considerable responsibility, as in that capacity he represented the railroad telegraphers in the employ of the C.P.R. from end to end of the system. Whilst the responsibilities were great and the work, at times, very onerous, the outcome of the negotiations proves that no mistake was made in choosing Ed. Goulet for the post.

BOUNDARY DISPUTE.

England and the United States Have Another Case on Hand.

Washington, Oct. 22.—First news of a boundary dispute between Great Britain and the United States, transpired in an order just issued containing an agreement between the countries, respecting the administration of certain islands on the east coast of Borneo by the British North Borneo Co.

The line of demarkation between the Philippine Archipeligo and the British possessions in Borneo vicinity is in doubt, making uncertain the status of the British North Borneo company operating under a concession. An arrangement was accepted by secretary of state Root on July 1, under which the company is authorized to operate in the island in dispute, "providing its administration carried no territorial rights until the two governments by treaty delimit the boundary."

WHY "REMARKABLE?"

Tory Leader's Experience in a Manitoba Hotel Fire

Hamiota, Oct. 22—It is a remarkable circumstance that within two hours after R. L. Borden had registered at the hotel Cecil, fire broke out in the kitchen basement. The maids ran through the house bringing the contents of their wardrobes, the guests rushed for their grips and J. G. H. Bergeron, the conservative leader's doughty henchman, was seen gliding down the stairs carrying his hair brush and comb, having been disturbed in his toilet. The fire was fortunately quickly put out and the company forgot the panic in a hearty supper.

FRENCH DEFEATED

Driven Back by the Moors and Forced to Ask Spanish Aid

Tangier, Oct. 22—According to semi-official information received at the Spanish legation today, the French forces at Casa Blanca under the command of general Drude suffered a serious repulse yesterday at the hands of the Moors. Moorish troops estimated at 7000 and equipped with field guns and modern rifles, not only drove the French back to the city wall but menaced the town to the extent that the authorities found it expedient to request the aid of the Spanish warship in the harbor to repel the attack. Castle Anfloss, located at Timsourin, near Mogador, which is known to hold half a million dollars is endangered by the advance of the third division under Mucial Hafig. The castle is being defended by caid Anfloss himself, who represents sultan Abdul Aziz in the south. The French troopship Artois left here tonight hurriedly with troops and machine guns on board going to the assistance of caid Anfloss. The transportation of troops is seriously hindered by the lack of ships and the exorbitant charges of the transportation companies.

FRENCH PARLIAMENT.

House Opened Yesterday—President Referred to Morocco and Floods.

Paris, Oct. 22.—Parliament was reopened today with the usual ceremonies. President Brisson in his address to the chamber of deputies referred feelingly to the French soldiers in Morocco who "died for civilization" and to the flood catastrophe in the south of France.

FORTUNE VANISHED.

(Special to The Daily News)

Toronto, Oct. 22.—Dugald Ross, whose experience in England caused such a big sensation, arrived in the city today enroute to his home in Streetsville. In an interview he explained how he was skinned by Wall Street sharpers out of some $30,000, chiefly profits in a deal over the Silver Bird diamond mine in South Africa, which was sold to the De Beers mining company for half a million pounds. A syndicate, of which Ross was one, purchased the Silver Bird mine when the stock was badly depressed for $250,000. Ross' actual investment was about $45,000. Other members of the syndicate put in a like amount. When the sale of the mine was completed, a check from the De Beers company was cashed by the secretary of the syndicate who then vanished. The case is in the hands of Scotland Yard and one arrest has been made in Berlin.

ROBBED HIS EMPLOYERS

WINNIPEG STORE MANAGER PUT BEHIND THE BARS.

DETECTIVE SMITH OF GANS FAME MADE ARREST.

(Special to The Daily News)

Winnipeg, Oct. 22.—Wm. Reinhardt, manager of the Euclid Avenue store of the Gibson Gage company, dealers in provisions, was arrested this forenoon by police detective George Smith, on a charge of stealing from his employers. Reinhardt has been in the employ of the Gibson Gage company for about two years and as manager, had good opportunities afforded him for dishonest practices. It is alleged he has taken advantage of these opportunities, although to what extent is not yet known.

Curiously enough the man who arrested Reinhardt was detective Smith who yesterday was released on $20,000 bail, pending the hearing of the charge of manslaughter preferred against him for the recent fatal shooting of Oscar Gans on the public street.

St. Louis, Oct. 22.—The balloon, the United States, landed about 12 miles out of Hamilton, Ont., at 6.15 this evening. She crossed Illinois and thence went north across lake Michigan and lake St. Clair, and reached the middle of lake Erie, when a change of wind carried her north into Canada, to the place of landing. The distance from St. Louis to Hamilton on an air line in 620 miles, which is far ahead of the record made in the European races by Lieut. Lahm, whose balloon won the international cup by sailing from Paris to a point in England 42 miles distant.

FRANK SPIRIT

In Which Lemieux Embarks for Japan

BANQUETTED IN MONTREAL

LAURIER'S AMBASSADOR TO THE FAR EAST IS HONORED BEFORE HIS DEPARTURE ALIKE BY LIBERALS AND BY CONSERVATIVES IN QUEBEC.

Montreal, Oct. 22.—Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux was the guest of honor at a luncheon of Geo. G. Foster K.C., at the Mount Royal club today, the occasion being the eve of his departure for Japan as special envoy of the Canadian government on the immigration question.

The company included the most representative citizens of Montreal and was entirely non-political, in fact the majority of those present being conservatives, as was the host.

Speaking of his mission, Mr. Lemieux said: "I take it as one of the omens dawning on the fraternity of nations, as it is one of the most pleasing and picturesque incidents in recent history, that one of the youngest and most democratic among these nations should thus with frankness and confidence, untrampled by formalism and ceremony and under the protection of the mighty empire to which we proudly belong, approach one of the oldest and most distinguished of peoples, that the two may quietly take counsel together as to the policy best suited to the best interests of both. This is the spirit in which I start upon the mission entrusted to me."

Ottawa, Oct. 22.—The Canadian government has been advised by lord Elgin, colonial secretary, that instructions have been sent to sir Claude MacDonald, British ambassador at Tokio, to officially introduce to the Japanese government Hon. Mr. Lemieux on his arrival there, and to render him any assistance possible.

The planks were from 14 to 18 feet in length and three inches thick. While lifting a plank from the skidway the next row of planks, six feet in height, toppled over striking both men. Lambley was borne to the ground and sustained a fractured skull. MacLean was cut over both eyes and his breast injured. LACK OF PATRONAGE IS CAUSE GIVEN OUT.

PAPER WILL STILL COME OUT AS A WEEKLY.

Rossland, Oct. 22.—The Rossland Miner, the oldest daily in the interior of British Columbia, suspended publication today because of lack of patronage. The Miner has been established for eleven years, and has a plant large enough for a city many times its size. William K. Esling, the publisher of the paper, said today that the Miner will be issued as a weekly, but the daily plant will be shipped to some other point, which offers inducements commensurate with its size.

ROSSLAND'S LOSS.

W. K. Esling, publisher of the Rossland Daily Miner, has concluded to discontinue the publication of that paper as a daily because of inadequate support. The Rossland Miner was one of the old established dailies of the province and under various owners had done good work for the town in which it was published. It is probably correct to say that for the past few years the paper has not earned anything like a decent return for the money and labor put into it. Mr. Esling displays good judgment in deciding not to continue at a losing game, although the town of Rossland will yet seriously regret the loss of a daily paper, particularly one that had been so long established and was so widely known.

Within the past few weeks several provincial newspapers have retired from the field unable to make both ends meet in face of increased cost of production and no appreciable increase in patronage.

The newspaper business has been greatly overdone in British Columbia for many years, the public apparently preferring several small, poorly edited news sheets to a few well established papers that would be in a position to give both subscribers and advertisers value for their money. Politics and petty sectional jealousies are largely responsible for this state of affairs. So much so is this case that today there is no more precarious business for any man to engage in than the publication of a newspaper in British Columbia.

OLD-AGE PENSIONS.

We publish elsewhere in this issue an interesting account of the steps being taken by the International Typographical Union to establish a system of old-age pensions for the benefit of their members.

This question of old-age pensions is rapidly coming to the front. It is a well recognized fact that old age is one of the chief causes of pauperism. It is therefore seriously proposed in many countries to pension all persons above a certain age. In Great Britain this question has received much careful consideration, but as yet no definite action has been taken by the government.

Charles Booth, the noted writer on sociological questions, estimates that to provide a pension of five shillings per week for every person in Great Britain who has attained the age of 65 would entail an annual expenditure of £14,000,000.

In the United States the question has not heretofore been very seriously considered, at least from the standpoint of a state undertaking. Certain private concerns have inaugurated old-age pensions, but so far the matter has not been widely taken up as a matter for state interference. In continental Europe several countries have already entered upon important experiments in the direction of old-age pensions, notably Germany.

In Canada the question has been brought to the front by the resolutions of trades unions and other public bodies. Sir Richard Cartwright, in a speech in the senate, outlined a modified plan of old-age endowment and at the recent provincial liberal convention at Vancouver, a resolution was adopted endorsing a proposal by Ralph Smith, M.P., that a royal commission should be appointed to enquire into the whole subject of old-age pensions. It is probable, therefore, that in the near future the question will become a live one in Canada.

S. S. CONVENTION MEETS

INTERDENOMINATIONAL GATHERING IN THE CITY

WELCOMED BY MAYOR GILLETT AND REV. J. T. FERGUSON

The openng meeting of the interdenominational Sunday school conventon was held last evening in the Baptist church. Mr. Patrick, chairman of the local committee was in the chair and after a few introductory remarks on the aims of the association and its history, addresses of welcome were given by mayor Gillett and Rev J. T. Ferguson.

Mayor Gillett said: "Of all the conventions I have had the pleasure of welcoming to this city, none have come so close to me as this one and on behalf of the citizens it gives me the greatest pleasure to welcome you to this city. The importance of the Sunday school in the community cannot be reckoned, and I trust that in the deliberations of this convention this cause may be splendidly forwarded.

Rev. J. T. Ferguson, in welcoming the delegates on behalf of the city churches, and Sunday schools emphasized the necessity of the co-operation of the church and the home in the teaching of the young.

Stuart Muiread, the general secretary, in the absence of Rev. Mr. Hughes, responded to the welcome given.

The address of the evening was given by Rev. W. C. Merritt, the representative of the field force. His subject was "Our Inspiration in Working with the Young." Mr. Merritt is a most enthusastic and pleasing speaker, full of his subject and his long experience in the work adds weight to his words, he fist spoke of the value of inspiration as a working force. The possibilities of our work should give us the greatest encouragement; we are dealing with human life in the plastic state. Everything leaves its impress on the mind of the child. Our inspiration should come from the fact of this capability of impression for right instead of wrong. There are also the formation years. There is a growing into a fixedness. Four things are possible in the life of each child: Firstly, a right formation of character, a life modelled upon the pattern of Jesus Christ; secondly, deformation, sin and evil are allowed to grow and the life is permanently deformed; thirdly, reformation; this humanly speaking is not possible; lastly, there is transformation. The transformed life is possible only through the saving love of Jesus Christ. The possibilities of a transformed life were shown in several striking instances quoted by the speaker from his personal experience. This is the source of our greatest inspiration to see these young lives open out into strong manhood and womanhood.

The program for the day is as follows: 9:30 a.m., devotional half hour, Rev. J. W. Winslow, Kaslo; 10 a.m., business, 1, discussion on organization, 2, appointment of committees; 10:30, attendance, how to secure and maintain regularity, how increased Rev. J. W. Williamson, Fernie; discussion; 11:15, the session program, Stuart Mulrhead, 2:00 p.m., Devotional half hour; 2:30, the pastor's relation to and opportunity in the Sunday school, Rev. W. C. Merritt; discussion; 3:15, round table, the superintendent; 4:00, Sunday school organization, Stuart Mulrhead.

6:00 p.m., devotional service; 8:15, organization for evangelization, Stuart Mur'head; music and offering; 9:00 world wide work, Rev. W. C. Merritt.

FOR OLD AGE PENSIONS

SCHEME ADOPTED BY INTERNATIONAL TYPOGRAPHICAL UNION

EXAMPLE MAY BE FOLLOWED BY CIGAR MAKERS' UNION

While in Germany, Denmark and certain of the Australian states the old age pension policy is in actual operation as a government institution, and in Great Britain is at present the subject of a government measure, in the United States it has barely reached the stage of legislative inquiry, and that in but one or two states. Many publicists and most legislators, when the subject is broached to them, wave it away as more or less Utopian, and the ordinary tax payer protests that we have all the pensions now that we can pay for. But this is the land of individual initiative; and in a most unexpected quarter the old-age pension plan has substantially been adopted.

The International Typographical union, made up of the most skilled workmen of the printing craft in the United States and Canada, at its recent convention in Hot Springs, adopted a carefully formulated and conservative scheme of old age pensions. A summary of the measure, presented in the committee report is this:

Age of eligible applicants, 60 years.

Continuous membership of the I.T.U., 20 years.

Amount of weekly pension, $4.

Source of revenue for fund, 1-2 of 1 per cent weekly assessment on earnings of membership, (estimated) $168,000.

Amount disbursed yearly, estimated, $104,000.

Balance for sinking fund, administering and incidental expenses, $64,000.

Qualifications of applicants are based on 20 years' continuous membership for members 60 years of age, who earn less than $4 per week in any one week, and who have no other income or means of support.

This plan, submitted as an amendment to the constitution of the International union and adopted by the delegate body, now becomes the subject of a referendum vote by every union printer. But the sentiment for the adopton of the idea, as reported by the delegates is so strong that there is no doubt that the amendment will carry.

The solidity and the conservatism of the I.T.U. as a great trade organization, no less than the unusually high standard of intelligence among its members, are well known; and the entire machinery for the collection and disbursement of the pension fund is already in working order, and it was thoroughly tested in the recent strike for the eight hour day, when for nearly a year ten per cent of the wages of each union printer under employment, in the aggregate about $3,000,000, was collected and disbursed by the International officers.

Not only will the International officers attend to the collection of the money, but they will place applicants on the pension roll and may likewise remove them. But no applicant may be placed on the list until 30 days after his name and application have been put in the hands of every union printer in the country, and the objection of one member is sufficient make necessary a hearing by the executive council of the International officers. Moreover the individual pension is payable, not quarterly, nor monthly, but each week and in this manner:

Secretaries of subordinate unions shall forward weekly to the International secretary-treasurer, a true and correct list of applicants entitled to pensions. On receipt of such list the international secretary-treasurer shall transmit the amount due to the local secretary for distribution."

The "poverty" qualification was objected to by many but the feeling of the international gathering was that so momentous a step must be taken with great carefulness. Yet if the general plan turns out well ultimately every union printer at 60 will receive a pension unconditionally; such was the undercurrent of the meeting.

"For not poverty, but the waning of the powers of a faithful workman, s the basis of the old age pension idea in the Typographical union. Says the young craftsman: "These old fellows were once the best men in the office; they made a printer of me; it is in no small part to their skill and unionism that I owe my daily bread; and I should be ungrateful if I couldn't stand an assessment of ten cents a week to take care of all the old printers in the country." "Besides, some day I may need it myself," thinks the middle aged workman; "four dollars a week as long as I live after I'm 60 looks pretty good." Thus both altruism and self interest underlie the plan.

A third reason for its adoption is that the old age pension feature will make membership in the Typographical union more desirable and more permanent. It will offer a strong inducement to any good printer who is not already in the union; and, by reason of forfeiture through lapse, it will discourage any dereliction from membership. In short, the pension idea is a good thing, not only for the individual, but for the union.

In this country, then, under especially favoring conditions the International Typographical union is about to start out as the pioneer in the old age pension movement. Should it succeed, the cigar makers' organization is likely soon to follow.

WE-TE-GO CREE RITES

FIDDLER TRIBE IS HATED AND FEARED IN THE NORTH.

(Special to The Daily News)

Winnipeg, Oct. 22.—Later mail advices from the district to the west of Hudson's bay give fuller details of the arrest of the chief of the Fiddler Indians who put to death a pretty little squaw according to the ancient Cree rites of We-te-go. The tragedy occurred nearly a year ago but news travels slowly through the unexplored wilds of northern Canada, consequently it was not until July that wild rumors of the occurrence reached the post of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police at Norway House, a trading post maintained by the Hudson's Bay Co., upon the north shores of Lake Winnipeg.

The rumors reaching the police were extremely vague but Sergt. D. B. Smith who is in command of the post, decided that an example must be made of the perpetrators if a crime had been committed. Accordingly he sent Constables J. A. O'Neill and W. J. Cashman to the lone northland to investigate the many stories being brought down by the Indians and half breeds who had been trapping in that country to the west of Hudson's bay. As the men proceeded on their march, the country being too wild and over grown with brush to permit of the use of horses, it became apparent a crime had been committed. On their way they picked up a halfbreed interpreter as they learned the Fiddler Indians were unable to speak a word of English, in fact, so remote is the district in which they live that many of them have never seen a white man. They are a surly race of people and are avoided and feared by the other nomads. Yet, with the grim courage which has always distinguished the red coated mounted police, these two constables went into the camp and arrested four of the tribe, including the chief and his nephew.

Though these people had never come into actual contact with the mounted police a generation of rigorous justice had installed fear into the hearts of even these people, and as soon as the son of the chief had been installed as ruler of the tribe the party set of on the return journey. The long tramp back was a severe one, mosquitoes practically eating the men alive and for the last three days of the journey neither policemen nor prisoners had a bite of food of any description.

According to one of the prisoners the tragedy occurred a year ago. The pretty little daughter of the chief was taken ill with some complaint and all the incantations of the medicine men failed to give her any relief. Daily she grew worse while the medicine men watched over her, watching for delirium which would proclaim the arrival of the We-te-go in her body. That was her death warrant and the medicine men imparted the information to the chief of the tribe. At once arrangements were commenced for her execution and as soon as the fever had disappeared all the tribe assembled in an open space and waited patiently for the performance of the rites. Foremost amongst the spectators was the little squaw's husband, it being the mark of a coward for any near relative not to attend the execution of one possessed of the We-te-go. Later came the medicine women, bearing the sick woman from her teepee. The girl only too well understood the dire preparations for the awful sacrifice but her feeble struggles were silenced by a word and a blow. The struggling form was laid at the feet of the chief and his nephew, Jose, and while the Indian braves held her these two strangled her to death with a hempen cord. Two days of wild orgy were necessary to complete the ceremony. It is claimed among the Crees that the culprits should no more be held responsible than a government hangman who hangs a condemned man. The We-te-go superstition is simple. The Indians believe the devil possesses himself of the bodies of people in exactly the same as was done in the days of the Redemption when Jesus walked on the shores of Lake Galilee and drove the devil into the herd of swine of Gennesaret and thence into the lake. When an Indian becomes feverish he is watched carefully, it being believed the devil is trying to possess him. If delirium comes the devil wins and it is believed that if the victim lives he becomes a raving maniac and a ferocious cannibal. Hence the prompt execution for the safety of this savage society and to relieve the victim of further sufferings and agony. The Indians are helpless in case of sickness and murder is the most efficacious treatment they know. They say: "Do we not put our horses and dogs out of their misery? Why not our friends and relatives in the same way." Against this defence it is stated by factors of the Hudson's Bay Co. that this Fiddler tribe is hated and feared among the other tribes for hundreds fo miles round and they have been forced up into the most remote portions of Keewatin because of their rigid adherence to the We-te-go ceremonial. They say that the act has been performed at least twenty times in the last twenty years by the same venerable old chief. The fact that the Indians raised no disturbance when their chief was arrested is held to be a mark of even the Fiddlers' repugnance for the ceremonial.

"What you want— When you want it"

That's the Semi-ready "idea"—coupled with a great system which is simplicity personified when once you understand it.

Tailoring men's clothes as good as clothes can be made and making them from the highest priced fabrics at a much smaller cost than you have had to pay for similar style and quality—that is another paragraph in the "Semi-ready" idea.

Delivered to any place you designate—finished within two hours after trying-on. A third idea.

Cash—coupled with your money back if you ask it—which inspires mutual confidence and long friendships. One more basic.

Bowel Troubles

Liver pills, cathartics, mineral waters, often make Constipation worse. They merely irritate the bowels and force them to move—stop taking purgatives and the bowels become "tight" again.

"Fruit-a-tives" are the one certain cure for Constipation

because their action is upon the liver, "Fruit-a-tives" are a liver tonic. They stimulate the secretions of bile by the liver, this bile causes the bowels to move in the natural, regular way and completely cures Constipation.

"Fruit-a-tives are fruit juices with tonics and antiseptics added. In "Fruit-a-tives" one atom of bitter replaces one atom of sweet in the fruit juices, forming a new compound which is many times more active, medicinally, than the fruit juices could possibly be. 50c. a box — $2.50 for 6 boxes. NELSON NEWS OF THE DAY

There were no more cases of diphtheria reported yesterday.

The thermometer yesterday varied between 36 and 58 degrees.

Reg Webb formerly of the Strathcona hotel is in the city on a business trip, looking very much improved in health.

The first social session of the season of the Churchmen's club will be held this evening in St. Saviour's parish hall, beginning at 8 o'clock. A good program has been arranged. Strangers in the city are particularly invited to attend.

Edward Baillie has just returned from a short trip to the Lardeau and says that Poplar is now looking up a little. Several properties lying idle for the past couple of years are restarting work and some good finds are being made. Interest, however, chiefly centers in the dredge which is nearing completion and which should be in operation within the next few weeks. The dredge is the idea of some Philadelphia capitalists and is to work over a stretch of flat river bottom working is own way along as it shifts the gravel.

Assistant general passenger agent H. W. Brodie, western division C.P.R., is in the city for a few days looking over the district. Asked as to the wheat crop in the prairie provinces, Mr. Brodie had the following interesting official figures as to the final summary of the wheat crop of last year, published in a circular issued this month by the Winnipeg grain exchange: Inspected 68,356 cars at 1070 bushels each; 73,141,000 bushels; in store at country points 1,250,000 bushels; in transit and not inspected, 350,000; marketed at Winnipeg, 400,000; shipped over G.N.R. to Duluth, 700,000; in farmers' hands, 800,000; used by country mills, 8,840,000; used for seed and feed, 9,000,000, making a total for the whole crop of 1906 of 94,461,000 bushels.

LONDON BYE-ELECTION

London, Oct. 22—The labor party will inaugurate a vigorous campaign after the nomination tomorrow and arrangements are now being made for a number of public meetings. At these meetings the speakers will include, besides the candidate, John D. Jacobs, a number of labor leaders from both Ontario and Quebec.

HOW TO CURE A COLD.

The question of how to cure a cold without unnecessary loss of time is one in which we are all more or less interested, for the quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less danger of pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. B. W. L. Hall, of Waverly, Va., has used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for years and says: "I firmly believe in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me." For sale by all druggists and dealers.

FROST IN THE EAST

Cold in Ontario and Quebec and a Blizzard in Nova Scotia

London, Oct. 22—The thermometer has reached 22. All outside flowers are practically destroyed and it is thought the celery crop is badly damaged.

St. Catherines, Oct. 22—Frost yesterday did damage to fruit and garden stuff in this vicinity.

Halifax, Oct. 22—A fierce blizzard swept Nova Scotia yesterday and last night. The storm was accompanied by a heavy downfall of rain and occasional snow flurries. Three schooners are ashore and one will be a total wreck. The snow storm and frost has alarmed the apple growers in the fruit region of the province. It is estimated that one-sixth of the crop remains unpicked.

LACK OF FILTHY LUCRE

Baptist Secretary Complains of Meagre Contributions to Missions

Woodstock, Oct. 22—At a convention of the Ontario and Quebec Baptists today secretary Daniels complained of the meagre contributions for western missions and declared that there were two men in the convention who had spent twice as much money themselves as had been contributed to western missions by all the denominations. Ontario and Quebec Baptists he declared are sending their filthy lucre west for investment purposes and they grumbled if they did not turn over their cash in a month. The report of the western missions was read by John McNeill, Toronto. It stated that while there had been progress all along the line in the western fields, yet the increase in offerings had not been so great as the importance of the situation demanded. The committee itself is face to face with a lack of means to enter into the field and even sometimes to hold those already established.

GENERAL BOOTH IMPROVING

New York, Oct. 22—Col. Piercefield, secretary of the Salvation army, who is in this city, received the following telegram from Miss Booth, daughter of general Wm. Booth, the commander in chief, in regard to her father, who was reported seriously ill in Chicago, where she had been attending him: "General's condition quite satisfactory; improving in such a manner that we expect he will be able to fill all engagements."

A TEXAS RANGER

A Texas Ranger, which comes to the opera house for two nights, next Thursday evening is claimed to be the greatest of all western melodramas. The characters are clean cut types of men and women who count in the world of strenuous life. The story centers around a typical cowboy by the name of Jack Dallam and the most exciting escapades of his wild career are graphically told. Wild sensation is the feature of the piece; the comedy element has not been overlooked with the result that "Dalrymple" and "Wildcat" are two as laughable characters as were ever conceived.

COMMANDER ARRESTED

Paris, Oct. 22—A despatch received from admiral Philbert of the French naval commander in the Moroccan waters, said the 6000 Moors who attacked the French reconnoitering party recently, belonged to the army of Mulai Rachid. Rachid did his utmost to prevent the attack but his men could not be controlled. General Drude, who came to the rescue, pursued the aggressors for four miles and inflicted severe losses upon them. Col. Defretey, commander of the reconnoitering, party is held responsible for the incident, as he had gone beyond the limit of operations fixed in his instructions. The colonel has been placed under arrest for a period of 30 days.

No Father, No Mother, No Home—Worse Than a Prisoner

GARFIELD BRACEY, BERLIN, ONT.: Enclosed please find doctor's certificate and examination papers. Hope you will secure me a place in your Sanatorium. You will notice that my circumstances is a hard one; no father, no mother, no home—worse than a prisoner. Nobody wants me on account of my disease. Hoping you will have the charity and consider my position, and give me a position at once in your Sanatorium, I ever pray.

An Orphan, without Home or Means

DR. A. E. HANNA, PERTH: I have a patient here, a young fellow in whom I am greatly interested. He has tuberculosis. He is a poor young fellow, an orphan, out of home, without any means. If we sent him up would you take him in and do the best you can for him? I know how difficult it is to accommodate all who require treatment, but this is a special case.

It is always encouraging to have a letter from friends who kindly contribute. For the convenience of those who have not time to write, the following blank may be used:

"DO IT NOW"

Is a business motto of this strenuous age that applies with tremendous force when it is a good act you should do.

"A child's kiss set on thy sighing lips shall make thee glad.

"Thou shalt be served thyself in every sense of service which thou renderest."

"DO IT NOW"

"I WAS SPECIALLY PLEASED WITH THE ATTENTION PAID TO CONDUCT THE INSTITUTION CAREFULLY AND ECONOMICALLY."—Dr. R. W. Bruce-Smith, Government Inspector Hospitals and Charities.

NELSON NEWS OF THE DAY

L. Norris, government agent at Vernon, is paying a visit to Nelson.

The Busy Bees had a notable swarm at their business meeting last night.

M. H. Doble, representing the Victoria Chemical company, is in the city.

At the smoker last night Kid Bennett formally accepted the challenge made by Bob Brechin recently in the columns of the Daily News.

The Ladies' Aid of St. Paul's church will meet in the church parlor today at 3:30 p.m. A full attendance of ladies of the congregation is requested.

A. Lucas came back from a trip around the Kootenay district engaged upon assessment work. He was accompanied by J. Kirkup, who is working with him upon the railway assessments of the Great Northern railway.

W. E. Burnham, the well known theatrical manager is in town arranging for the appearance of Geo. B. Howard and his company of New York players. Mr. Burnham will be remembered as the business manager of the Juvenile Bostonians, who are now at home enjoying a much needed rest.

Information as to the present whereabouts of Arthur Pitts, an Englishman of some 26 years, dark and about five feet six inches in height, last heard of from this city in March, 1906, when he was a guest at the Tremont hotel, is wanted. Anyone knowing where he can be located will confer a favor by notifying this office.

R. E. Gosnell, formerly editor of the Victoria Colonist and well known all over the province, reached the city last night after spending nearly a year in the old country on business. Mr. Gosnell expects to go on to the coast this evening.

A plucky deed was done yesterday when about 5:30 p.m. a pair of grey horses belonging to Robert Hood and company took alarm at the pole dropping between their feet while high up on Stanley street. The team bolted down the hill, the driver, Audrey Jackson, holding on and desperately sawing the reins. Disaster was narrowly averted when the bolting team were made to turn by the bank of Commerce to the east, the pole catching between their feet, the wagon nearly going into the Royal bank. The team still had plenty of fight left in them, when with a powerful wrench they were brought to a halt by the driver in front of the office of The Daily News.

A deal was closed yesterday for 30 1-2 acres at 13-Mile point, part of the Porter pre-emption. The land was purchased by Mr. Allen of New Bedford, Mass., whose son from Winnipeg will live with him. The son has a family of eleven children the eldest being 16 years of age. Another family will also come from Winnipeg to live on part of the place. Had it been known that families of this size were going to locate on the West Arm, several other localities would have offered them a bonus to go elsewhere, as this number of children will warrant a school. Mr. Allen is going to donate a site for a church which the settlers at Harrop will build. Mr. Reynolds, a retired Episcopal clergyman, who is a settler there, has promised to take charge of the services. The land deal was put through by Toye and company.

ATTEMPTED ASSAULT

(Special to The Daily News)

Grand Forks, Oct. 22—Last evening about 9 o'clock while two ladies were returning to their homes in the Ruckle's addition and just as they had reached the center of the bridge across the Kettle river, they were suddenly grabbed by two men, who tried to assault them. The screams of the ladies frightened the men who allowed their victims to escape. The ladies terrified nearly to death returned to the city and secured male escorts to see them safely home. A most peculiar feature about this attempted assault is the fact that the men were not of the tramp class, but were well dressed and sober. Search parties last night failed to locate the rascals and the city police are now working on the case.

FOUND IN ELK RIVER.

Michel, Oct. 22.—The body of Walter Dyrkread, the young lumber jack who was drowned in Elk river on July 2nd last, has been found about six miles above this place in a badly decomposed state. The deceased was engaged on a log drive for the Sparwood Lumber company. No one was present when he was drowned, and though the river was dragged for days no trace was found of him until his body was discovered.

MUST MOVE STATION.

Ottawa, Oct. 22.—An order was issued by the railway commission this morning that the C. N. R. must move their station off Victoria street at Fort William. The city also wins out in other cases.

UNWISE INVESTORS

London, Oct. 22—At an extraordinary general meeting of the shareholders of the Barnum and Bailey show today, a resolution was adopted ratifying the provisional contract providing for the sale of the property for $410,000 to the proprietors of the American Circus. When the company was formed in 1899 British investors all fell over each other in their anxiety to subscribe the capital stock, $5,000,000. The American purchasers are Ringling Bros. of Wisconsin.

KIPLING AT MONTREAL.

Montreal, Oct. 22.—Rudyard Kipling has arrived here and tomorrow he will lunch with the McGill students and later will address them. On Thursday he gives a speech at the Canadian club's luncheon and leaves the same day for Quebec whence he will sail on Friday for home.
