ELECTION BILL

Conservatives Taunting the Premier

PURITY AND AYLESWORTH

LOUD PRETENSIONS OUTSIDE OF HOUSE ON PLATFORM FADE AWAY WHEN SUGGESTIONS ARE MADE FOR LEGISLATION WHICH IS PRACTICAL.

(Special to The Daily News.)

OTTAWA, July 3 — The government, acting on the report of Mackenzie King, in respect to the growing evils of the opium trade in Canada, will introduce a bill in the commons this session to prohibit the manufacture and importation of opium into Canada, except as required for medical purposes. Canada is now considerably behind Great Britain and the United States in legislation along this line.

By special request of the prince of Wales, a special detachment of between 20 and 30 Royal Northwest Mounted Policemen, will be sent to Quebec during the celebration to take part in the military display and to act as a special guard to his royal highness. During his visit to Canada eight years ago the prince was greatly impressed with what he described as the "finest police force in the world."

In the house this morning R. L. Borden enquired when the remaining legislation would be brought down. "I am anxious to have the end of the session," he said, "but that cannot be till we have all the government's legislation brought down."

The premier explained the delay occasioned by the Manitoba boundaries bill and said he would announce on Monday whether it would be brought down this session or not.

Notice has been given of amendments to the election act. Mr. Alcorn, who has made a special study of the election act, early in the session introduced a bill embodying many amendments to secure purity in elections. His measure has been stalled by reason of government business which now monopolizes every working day. In order to get an opportunity of bringing the provisions of his draft bill before parliament, Mr. Alcorn gives notice of amendments. His bill was introduced as long ago as March 18.

Notice has been given of Mr. McDonnell's amendment, providing that polling day for the dominion shall be a general holiday.

Mr. Alcorn's amendments are of a drastic character. Among other provisions they prohibit the hiring of any class of conveyance for voters; impose heavy penalties for manufacturing or importing a ballot box, with a device by which ballots may be diverted or manipulated; inflict heavy fines upon any federal or provincial officer who acts as canvasser, organizer or agent of any candidate, or is guilty of an offence under the election act; imposes heavy penalties on any person for publishing false statements on behalf of any candidate and forbid contributions from any corporation under a penalty of not less than $5000.

The report tonight is that Ralph Smith and Prof. Shortt of Kingston are to be offered positions as civil service commissioners.

OTTAWA, July 3—The house spent the whole of the three sessions today in considering the election act.

The whole of the morning session was occupied in discussing the clause prohibiting payment for the conveyance of voters to the poles. The penalty is disqualification at the particular election being held.

Mr. Bennett pointed out that all a man had to do was to vote early and then he could spend the remainder of the day driving voters to the polls.

Mr. Lancaster wanted the clause so amended that livery stable men could rent teams on election days so long as they did not charge more than the ordinary tariff.

Mr. Alcorn moved several amendments taken from the bill he introduced earlier in the session, but they were one and all rejected by the government. One of them dealt with the statement of expenses which must be made by the candidate. Mr. Alcorn's amendment called for a more detailed statement of expenses and for certain vouchers.

Mr. Aylesworth thought that these details would serve no good purpose and would not accept the amendments.

Mr. Alcorn retorted that the amendment was taken almost word for word from the British corrupt practices act. If Mr. Aylesworth did not think Canada needed to be guarded against electoral abuses then Mr. Alcorn had nothing to say.

Mr. Borden added that in England illegal election expenditures have been wiped out by the enactment of such legislation.

The amendment was lost.

Mr. Lake moved an amendment dismissing officials who took part in election contests.

Mr. Borden said the house had already passed a resolution embodying the principle of the amendment. If there was any objection to passing it, it stamped the government's resolution as a piece of humbug.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier said he thought it would be going far enough to censure officials.

Mr. Lake retorted that in the past censure had too frequently been followed by promotion.

Mr. Foster accused the premier of standing before the people and professing a great desire to prevent government officials taking an active part in politics. When the time came to put these professions into practice the premier fell back and forgot his great, sounding platitudes. There were hundreds of people in the Northwest who hardly dared call their souls their own for fear of these officials.

To this sir Wilfrid replied that he could not rise to the heights scaled by Mr. Foster. He must confess that he was a poor miserable sinner. Mr. Lake's amendment was rejected.

Race Today

VANCOUVER, July 3 — The American yacht Spirit won the second heat of the international race today, with a lead of 1 minute 43 seconds, over the Canadian boat, the Alexandra. The final heat will be sailed tomorrow, each boat having won a heat.

CERTAINLY MADE SURE

HE KILLED HIMSELF IN THREE DIFFERENT WAYS

FAR BETTER OUT OF THE WORLD THAN IN IT

CHICAGO, July 3.—A despatch from Hazelhurst, Miss., says: Unable to decide which of three women he really wanted to marry, Eli Hood, 17 years old, decided that the best way out of the difficulty was to commit suicide in such a way that each of the women would believe he had killed himself for her. For Miss Carrie Nelson, aged 18, he swallowed sixty grains of morphine; for Miss Eva Spellman, aged 25, he drank four ounces of laudanum and for Miss Helen McDonald, aged 18, he put the muzzel of a shotgun in his mouth and pulled the trigger with his toes.

Beside his body was found on a table a paper wrapper that contained the morphine. On it was scrawled "For Carrie." The empty bottle stood on a slip of paped on which was written "For Eva." An empty envelope on which a picture of a shotgun had been drawn was inscribed "Helen."

Except that he had been acting queerly and that he had become despondent, there was nothing in Hood's manner that indicated that he contemplated self-destruction.

DROWNED IN ELK RIVER

FIFTEEN BLACK HAND SUSPECTS ON TRIAL

MASS OF EVIDENCE OFFERED BY THE POLICE

A Russian employed as logger at the Elk Lumber company's plant in West Fernie was drowned in the Elk river yesterday morning. He was driving logs into the sluice when he lost his footing and fell into the river. The body has not yet been recovered. His name cannot be ascertained.

The preliminary hearing in the cases against the fifteen men arrested last week in connection with the Black Hand society case will be held here on Saturday morning, and the police have a mass of evidence to support their charges against the men. Members of the local Italian colony are still suffering from a severe attack of nerves and are greatly exercised over recent developments. The evidence secured during the last few days tends to show that a serious state of affairs would soon have existed but for the prompt action of the police in hunting down those responsible for the organization of the dreaded society here. It now appears that several citizens were the recipients of threatening letters demanding money, and that many young men had been persuaded to associate themselves with the society by intimidation. It is thought that the commendable activity of both the Provincial and city police forces has had the desired effect of effectually stamping out the spread of the evil.

Several more cases of scarlet fever among children have been reported the last few days, but as the schools are closed for the summer vacation, it is not likely it will become epidemic.

The Rev. Hugh Grant and family leave tomorrow for a summer outing at Elko and will remain there for a month or six weeks.

A large number of citizens have gone to Calgary for the Dominion exhibition, a large party leaving by the express tonight.

DISTINGUISHED ARRIVALS

Empress of India Brings French Party and Some Well Known Americans

VICTORIA, July 3.—Arrivals by the steamer Empress of India, which reached here today, included a French yachting party composed of countess Bearn, owner of the steam yacht Nirvana, vicomte de Condray, R. D. Norton and R. Lorez, who left the Nirvana at Kobe. The Nirvana, which is a twin-screw screw steam yacht of 960 tons, built six years ago at Glasgow for the countess de Bearn, started from Marseilles and travelled by way of Mediterranean ports and the Suez canal to Oriental ports, and after her owner and guests left the vessel started back to Marseilles.

Outward bound the Empress of India carried another touring party, including John Hasen Hyde, former president of the Equitable Life Insurance company, and an actress from the Opera Comique, madame Garrick, they embarking at Yokohama and debarking at Shanghai.

The Empress of India also brought an engineer of the Empress of Japan who became insane on the voyage out. He attempted to cut his throat before he was placed under guard.

The steamer Shawmut, which reached port with a cargo from Manila and way ports, brought 42 saloon passengers, mostly U. S. army and civil officials from the Philippines.

WORSE THAN SUPPOSED

SENSATIONAL REVELATIONS IN BANK INVESTIGATION

PRESIDENT ROY'S PORTION IS BE-ING SHOWN UP

PROVINCIAL LIBRARY

MONTREAL, July 3.—Sensational revelations have come to light in connection with the all-fated bank of St. Johns. It will be remembered that in the famous "blacklist" which was published as being reported to the finance department as good values, there was a large amount representing notes of C S Roy, the president's brother. It now transpires that the discovery has just been made that a great many of these notes were the president's and that the others bearing the name of C. S. Roy had been substituted. This makes Hon. Mr. Roy's position even worse than was at first supposed.

There does not appear to be any hope that the project to revive the bank will succeed. Three gentlemen in St. Johns have made an offer to the depositors of 15 cents on the dollar, but there is a tip from the inside that the process of liquidation, if continued, may give them 40 cents, so it is highly probable that an official warning will soon be forthcoming, asking the depositors not to sacrifice their holdings.

BERRY SHIPMENTS GOOD

REQUIREMENTS OF MARKET WELL UNDERSTOOD

ROY C. BROCK UPON THE SITUATION OF TODAY

"It is the soft varieties that may cost us our record," said Roy C. Brock, the secretary of the Kootenay Fruit Growers' association, who has spent his time for the last few weeks in instructing the new coming ranchers into the methods of shipping and packing his berries.

"The soft variety is often the best for the immediate table. It will often stand being sold locally. But, after all, the great market for our ranches is the Northwest. It is to that market we must ship our berries. It is for that market we must cultivate our fruit. And for that market, a market which is ever growing, that the rancher of Kootenay lake must grow. I have found during the last week or so that many a rancher is cultivating from six to a dozen and a half varieties. And the most of them are soft. It is quite possible, thought not necessarily so, that the soft varieties are the sweetest, and from one point of view the best.

"But, notwithstanding this, there is really only one point of view and that is that of selling the berry to the best advantage. And the point of best advantage is the Northwest territories. Soft berries cannot be shipped.

"So far the output has been good and there is every likelihood, from the records which I have so far been able to gather that the shipments this year will be, in point of numbers and price, the best that the West Arm has hitherto done."

WAS A DRAW

Canadian Cricketers at Philadelphia—Ahead on First Innings

PHILADELPHIA, July 3.—The match between the Canadian cricket players, representing the Toronto Cricket club, and the Germantown Cricket club at Manheim ended today in a draw. When play was resumed today the Philadelphias had 67 runs to their credit for one wicket and they succeeded in running up the total to 233. Toronto, in the second inning, made 98 runs for four wickets, when stumps were drawn for the day. They had scored 264 runs in the first inning. The Canadian players went to Atlantic City tonight to remain over Saturday and Sunday.

CRITICISING THE QUEEN

Some Pious People Object to Sunday Entertainments

LONDON, July 3.—Queen Alexandra is coming in for criticism just now because she has accepted an invitation to be present at a lavish garden party to be given by lady Paget on Sunday. King Edward will also attend. This rolay countenance of what is called "Sabbath desecration" by the extremely pious has led to a tempest in a teapot. Most of the diatribes are directed at the queen, as the religious people long ago learned not to expect much in the way of Sabbath observance from king Edward.

TEMPERANCE CAMPAIGN

Toronto Aldermen to Tour Manitoba in Veto Movement

WINNIPEG, July 3.—Ald. James A. Hales, B.A., Toronto, the national chief of the Royal Templars of Temperance is in the city to take part in a unique temperance campaign throughout the province of Manitoba. The object of the trip is to awaken interest in the veto movement and to promote the taking of a vote at the municipal elections in December in as many municipalities as possible. Meetings will be held at many points.

OPIUM TRADE

Special Report by McKenzie King

EVIL IS NOW INCREASING

DRUG SAID TO BE SMUGGLED INTO CANADA FROM CHINA AND THE UNITED STATES—ORDER IN COUNCIL AFFECTING EFFECTS OF IMMIGRANTS.

OTTAWA, July 3 — Mackenzie King has presented a special report to the government on the need of suppressing the opium traffic in Canada. He gives the value of the annual product of the seven British Columbia factories at $650,000. He thinks there is good reason for believing that much of the product is smuggled from China and the United States coast cities. The amount consumed in Canada is increasing. He urges parliament to adopt restrictive legislation.

An order in council was passed today bringing the principal Canadian cities, including Winnipeg, Vancouver ad Victoria, under the clauses of the immigration act of 1906, requiring every hotel or boarding house keeper receiving immigrants, within three months after their arrival, to keep conspicuously posted in his house a list of the prices charged immigrants and restricting any claim upon immigrants' effects to $5

Races Proposed

SEATTLE, July 3 — All the races in the first day's program at the North Pacific Association of Amateur Oarsmen's regatta on lake Washington, were postponed today until tomorrow on account of rough weather. The races will start tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock.

RAN AMUCK

Japanese Soldier Chases Caretaker Through Missionary Residence

SEOUL, July 3.—A Japanese soldier ran amuck yesterday through the American Methodist premises at Ping Yang and assaulted a Korean caretaker with a bayonet, chasing him through the missionary residence section. The American consul, when informed of the fact, called it to the attention of the Japanese embassy, and demanded punishment of the soldier.

The soldier was arrested and immediately sentenced to two months' hard labor. The colonel, major, captains and lieutenants to which the soldier belonged will all be disciplined by a confinement from three to seven days.

FATAL CIGARETTE

Small Boys Carrying Five Pounds of Powder and Smoking—Natural Result

NEW YORK, July 3.—Walter White, aged 14, Eugene Heym, 14, and Harry Gill, 16, all of Port Richmond, S. I., were carrying a bag containing five pounds of gunpowder last night when a spark from a cigarette which one of the boys was smoking burned a hole in the bag and ignited the powder. There were three explosions in quick succession and the boys were enveloped in flames. It is believed that the Heym and Gill boys will die. White may recover.

NO RACE

Cambridge Will Not Row With Harvard This Season for Good Reason

CAMBRIDGE Mass., July 3.—It has been definitely decided that the Harvard varsity crew, which defeated Yale, will not go to England during the present summer. The receipt of a cablegram yesterday by the chairman of the graduate rowing committee at Harvard from R. C. Lehmann, the English rowing coach, ended all hopes of a trip to England by the Crimson crew. Mr. Lehman in his cablegram said:

"Cambridge, having to row in Olympic regatta, is regretfully compelled to decline further races this season."

BIG HOUSE

Sale of Seats for Gans-Nelson Fight—Two to One on Gans

SAN FRANCISCO, July 3.—The sale of seats for the Gans-Nelson fight continues and from present indications a $25,000 gate is a certainty. All the cheaper seats have been disposed of and the sale of the higher priced chairs is proceeding briskly. There is ample Gans money in sight but the Nelson end is in considerable. The odds of 2 to 1 on Gans still prevail and in some instances bets are being made that Gans will win inside of 20 rounds, for which even money is the ruling figure.

ONE DAY AHEAD

Anticipating the Fourth of July—Six Instantly Killed

CLEVELAND, July 3.—Five girls and a five-year-old boy are dead, while possible a score of others were more or less seriously injured as a result of an explosion of fireworks in the S. K. Reese's 5 and 10 cent store on Ontario street today. A panic among the hundreds of clerks and customsrs followed the explosion. It was not known until nearly two hours after the fire was out, when the firemen began searching the building, that any lives were lost. The fire started when one of clerks was demonstrating one of the pieces of fireworks, a spark from which ignited the others.

CABINET WILL RESIGN

FUTURE FINANCIAL POLICY OF THE JAPANESE

RETRENCHMENT IS NOT POPULAR WITH THE PEOPLE

TOKIO, July 3—It is expected that the cabinet will resign tomorrow morning. The Associated Press was informed today that the premier, marquis Saionji, decided to tender his resignation some days ago and that at his request the members of his cabinet agreed to resign also. The resignations will be tendered to the emperor in the morning.

The nominal reason for marquis Saionji's resignation is ill-health. The cabinet are strict members of the Seiyuka or constitutional party and it was there fore necessary that they resign with him. The actual reason for the resignation of the premier, it is understood, is the position taken by marquis Inouke, secretary of the home department, regarding the future financial policy of marquis Saionji. This calls for retrenchment in the army and navy; the postponement of public works; a demand for a sinking fund and the yearly repayment of loans. Marquis Inouye recently attacked the present government's policy regarding finances. This gave offense to marquis Saionji, who decided to resign alone. He consulted with the other ministers and was by them persuaded to accept the resignations of all the members of the cabinet.

An unknown quantity in the constitution is the position the emperor may take. He may possibly decline to accept the resignations, but this is considered extremely unlikely.

Marquis Katsura, who was formerly premier, probably will succeed marquis Saionji, although admiral count Yamemoto, former minister of marine, is a strong candidate. In well informed circles, however, it is considered that marquis Katsura will get the position, in which event count Komura, at present Japanese ambassador to London, is almost certain to succeed count Hayashi, the present minister of foreign affairs, count Hayashi probably succeeding Komura at London. It is uncertain who will get the portfolio of finance, since no one is anxious to accept. There will be no change in the ministry of marine and war.

FOR THE PRESIDENT

C. A. Thorne of New York Says He Is in the Field to Stay

DENVER, July 3.—Fresh from his visit of yesterday to William J. Bryan, at his home in Lincoln, Neb., Charles A. Towne, of New York, candidate for vice president on the democratic ticket, arrived here today and at once placed himself in touch with leaders of his party now here.

"I might say I am in the field to stay, and I have every reason to feel that I will be nominated. I have been assured of the support of a large number of the New York delegation and I believe that at the proper time they will be for me. From other parts of the country also has come information that my candidacy is acceptable and pledges of active support."

BANDITS OR PATRIOTS

Difference of Opinion About Fighting Mexican Revolutionists

AUSTIN, Texas, July 3—Thomas Sarabia, publisher of La Reforma Libertad, a semi-official journal of the local branch of the Mexican revolutionary Junta, which has suspended publication because none of the printers in the city have cared to run the risk of violating the neutrality laws of Mexico, sought an interview with governor Campbell yesterday to protest against the Mexican revolutionists being regarded as bandits. He insists that they are patriots fighting for rights and liberty granted under the constitution and declared they will honor American soil. Mr. Sarabia stated that the revolutionary army consists of 500 infantry and 600 cavalry entrenched in a strong position near Las Vacas and that at the proper time they will descend upon that city and capture it.

DEL RIO, July 3—Developmets in the conference held at Las Vacas between Col. Alberto Dorantes, commanding the Mexican forces, Capt. Aquiore of the customs office and district judge Arredendo and several United States civic and military officers show conditions to be serious and one that demands prompt action upon the part of the Mexican government. Following the conference Col. Dorantes admitted that the situation had been serious but he thought the forces of the revolutionists had been broken and te only trouble expected now is from small bands travelling over the states. These, he claims, are being pursued by soldiers. It is understood warrants will be issued for the arrest of a number of Mexicans located on this side of the river.

WAS INSTANTLY KILLED

JAMES FERGUSON, MACHINIST AT MICHEL MINES

DEATH IS CAUSED BY RUNAWAY TIMBER TRAIN

(Special to The Daily News.)

MICHEL, July 3.—JamesFerguson, a machinist, was instantly killed this morning while engaged filling steam pipes on the slope in No. 5 mine. Several cars loaded with mine timbers broke loose from the haulage, scattering timbers right and left on their wild rush down the incline, and Ferguson, who was working on the slope, was struck on the neck by one of the timbers and instantly killed. The body was taken to the morgue. The deceased, who was a native of Scotland, aged 29 years, came here from Moyie about three months ago. He was married two years ago and his wife, who resides here, survivies him.

SALE OF FRUIT LANDS

ALBERTA PEOPLE PURCHASING IN THE BOUNDARY

CUSTOMS RETURNS AND OTHER NEWS ITEMS

(Special to The Daily News.)

GRAND FORKS, July 3—The customs returns for June as reported by R. R. Gilpin, collector of customs for this district were as follows: Grand Forks, $3168.61; Phoenix, $1141.66; Cascade, $66.05; Carson, $56.22, making a total of 4432.54 for the month.

Cherries grown in the Kettle river valley were on sale in the stores of the city yesterday. The cherries this season are of a fine grade being large and juicy and are plentiful.

J. W. Collins, who formerly owned and run the C.P.R. hotel in the west end of the city, left this week with his family for Ontario where they will reside in the future.

Ernest Lane, head electrician of the Granby company, accompanied by a party of friends, took in the celebration at Greenwood, going in his automobile by way of Curlew and Midway.

W. J. Brown, who owns the Davy ranch, a few miles east of the city had a party of people in here from Alberta this week looking over the valley. Sixty acres of this valuable land were sold to members of the party, who also selected 40 acres more for two of their friends in the prairie province. One of the parties who purchased will immediately take possession, the others waiting until after the harvest is off on the land they at present own in Alberta. Mr. Brown who has recently opened up an office in Nelson states that there are at the present time a large number of prairie people in Nelson looking for fruit land and not caring to buy land that is not cleared, are easily persuaded to come over to the Kettle valley and see what it is like here. Mr. Brown returns to Nelson on Monday and from there will go back to the prairie provinces from where he has a number of inquiries in regard to land in this district.

The score of the ladies' rifle club for their last shoot of the season, at least the last until the summer holidays are over, was as follows Miss Bruce, 58; Miss Musgrove, 48; Miss Hall, 48; Mrs. Woodland, 45; Mrs. Clark, 44; Miss Hay, 42; Mrs. McIntyre 40, out of a possible 75 points.

The shaft on the Little Bertha mine, up the north fork of the Kettle river, is now down 107 feet and drifting which was done at this depth southward has encountered an extremely fine body of ore.

I. A. Coryell, Great Northern engineer, has purchased six acres and 20 lots of the White estate, located on the southern limits of the city.

Major and Mrs. Morris provincial commanders of the Salvation army, with headquarters at Vancouver, will hold meeting in the local barracks on Thursday, July 9. A special musical program has been arranged for the occasion.

COAST HOLDUP

VANCOUVER, July 3.—C. A. Crosbie, supervisor of the Royal Bank of Canada, was held up last evening by a masked man. When Mr. Crosbie struck up the hand that held the revolver the man ran and got away.

CRESTON LAND

Declared to be the Best in Kootenay

OPENED BY GOVERNMENT

WILL BE SOLD IN TEN ACRE LOTS IN OPEN AUCTION, EACH BLOCK SEPARATELY, SOMETIME DURING THE MONTH OF SEPTEMBER NEXT.

"I believe," said W. F. Teetzel yesterday to a Daily News reporter, "that the biggest boom in fruit lands that has yet been seen will result on the sale of the government lands between Sirdar and the boundary line at the head of Kootenay lake. I do not think that there are any fruit lands, wherever situate, that can compare with those of Creston. I am looking after the government lands and though they are not the only lands in a place which will hereafter be regarded as the orchard land of the Kootenays, yet, for all that, I say that the lands which are at the disposal of the government and which are now under survey and which will be auctioned off about the middle of September next, are so good that they will be the beginning of a boom which will end with Creston and its environs being regarded as the typical orchard land of these districts.

"We are not selling a parcel of land which is under water at any time of the year. All the land is good. There is not a block which is more than a mile distant from a railroad. Some of the land is within hail of two railroads. It is all bench land and of the very best. It stretches in patches, from the boundary line to Sirdar and comprises altogether about 3000 acres. The major part of it, that is to say the biggest block, 1000 acres, is at Creston itself. There is some across the lake which may fetch lower prices but which, for all that, may eventually prove to be the choicest land of the lot.

"We are now surveying the land. That survey will be finished by the end of next month. We will then proceed to auction off the reserve in ten acre blocks. Exactly when the auction will be held I cannot say. It will probably be shortly before fair time. But every ten acre section will be put up separately and must be bought in separately. We are giving the best of terms. All the government demands is one-tenth of the purchase price down and one-tenth for the remaining nine years.

RUSSIAN MINE EXPLOSION

Great Loss of Life—Tun Hundred Miners Are Still Entombed

YUZOVO, European Russia, July 3.—Fire broke out today in the Rikovsky mine, which yesterday was the scene of an explosion of gas that resulted in a very high loss of life. The work of rescuing and fighting the fire down is being conducted under the greatest difficulties. Over 200 men remain down in the mine, shut in by falling earth, while 160 bodies have already been brought out. Seventy-five wounded were removed to hospitals and of these 10 are now dead and many more are dying. It is believed that the present number of dead will be increased by 755.5

The explosion occurred just after the night shift entered the mine. The last 20 men of the shift were still in the cage at the bottom of the shaft and they were drawn to the surface uninjured. Rescue parties were at once organized and commenced to go down. Six of the rescuers were suffocated. The others bravely continued at work.

YUSOVO, Russia, July 3.—The bodies of 214 persons recovered from the Rikovsky mine, which yesterday was the scene of an explosion of gas, were buried today. Today the horror of the situation was added to by a fire penetrating the inner galleries, where there are 150 men imprisoned, and made the efforts of the rescue parties almost useless. Behind heaps of fallen debris could be heard all day cries for help. Fifty-three bodies were taken out today all terribly mutilated, some of them having been burned to death while the heads and limbs of others had been torn off by the force of the explosion. Seventy-five wounded also were taken out and sent to the hospitals. Of these ten succumbed during the day and many others are in a precarious condition. Three women who stood at the mouth of the pit and recognized the bodies of their husbands, dropped dead from shock. A number of others have gone mad.

BISHOP POTTER

No Change for the Worse—Physicians' Bulletin

COOPERTOWN, N. Y., July 3.—While the passage of another day with no appreciable change for the worse in the condition of bishop Potter afforded his family and physicians some encouragement, there was no disposition apparent on their part to make this fact the basis for large hopes. This was indicated by the tone of tonight's bulletin, given out shortly before 10 o'clock by the bishop's physicians, and was was as follows: "Bishop Potter has passed a comfortable day. While he has not suffered from the heat as much as on several days previously, he has not gained perceptibly in strength, but continues very weak."

HARVEST HANDS WANTED

We have not heard much complaint this summer in Kootenay of the lack of labor and if the ranchers need assistance at this time they have kept very quiet about the matter compared with the requests made last year and the season previous to that.

In Manitoba and the Territories the situation is altogether different and it is announced now that an army of 25,000 men will be required this season to handle the great crop. Everywhere the crops are making steady progress. Experts predict an abnormally heavy yield of all sorts of grain, which may be gathered in early, if present conditions continue.

With this prospect in view, the question of securing an adequate number of farm hands becomes a vital one, declares the Winnipeg Telegram. In England, in the agricultural districts, there is a depression as great as has ever existed, and thousands of farm workers would hail with delight a removal to the great northwest of Canada if only assured of a home and employment when they arrive. The rural districts of Great Britain are not sufficiently canvassed, and an erroneous feeling has grown up that Canada prefers foreigners to English speaking immigrants. This feeling has to be weeded out before the ranks of desirable emigrants from across the water can be increased in number.

They want to be convinced Canada is a white man's country, and that in Canada there is plenty, as opposed to the starvation wages at home, and an ultimate occupancy of the poorhouse which must be theirs so long as they remain there. The English farm laborer is hard to convince, but once he realizes what is offered he will not be slow to take advantage of the offer.

Wire Wounds

My mare, a very valuable one, was badly bruised and cut by being caught in a wire fence. Some of the wounds would not heal, although I tried many different medicines. Dr. Bell advised me to use MINARD'S LINIMENT, diluted at first, then stronger as the sores began to look better, until after three weeks, the sores have healed and best of all the hair is growing well, and is NOT WHITE as is most always the case in horse wounds.

EDITORIAL NOTES

Mr. Borden at Ottawa yesterday made a strong point against the liberal administration for its dilatory tactics this session resulting in the delay of a large amount of important legislation. The leader of the opposition was able to silence the government supporters by plainly showing that although the conservative members were being blamed throughout the country for obstruction, the real culprits were the members of the government who had got so far behind in their work that bills were not ready for discussion, although the same measures had been referred to in the speech from the throne and should have been brought down long ago. No attempt was made to answer Mr. Borden's complaint and the premier merely promised that he would announce on Monday next what further legislation would be brought down this session. After all the shouting that has been done of late by the liberals charging the opposition with "obstructing the business of the country," it is to say the least, amusing to see the charge exploded, and the truth of the matter made clear, as it was unquestionably done yesterday by Mr. Borden.

Professor Goldwin Smith, always a pronounced pessimist, takes a very gloomy view of the present political situation in the old country. As "Bystander" in the Weekly Sun, Dr. Smith says: In the British house of commons the pensions bill passes its second reading. It was certain that it would. It is practically a gift to every one of a large class of the electorate of public money on the sole condition of his reaching the age of 70. Naturally, and quite blamelessly, all who will profit by it will support it, while the members of the house of commons have been now, by the practice of pledging, pretty well reduced to telephones, as was seen when, the other day, 288 of them shrank from voting against an employment bill so monstrous that even its author seemed almost to flinch from it. The mother country appears really to be approaching political crisis. The unfortunate part of it is that no leading man appears. The premier is able, no doubt, but it does not seem that those who know heartily trust him. The leader of the opposition is deplorably weak. Lord Rosebery, who might take a lead, will not do it. He pops in and out, making most brilliant and amusing speeches, but organizing nothing. His health which is weak, may be the reason. There was a fair chance of organizing something in the way of a moderate liberal understanding when the premiership was vacuated, but the opportunity was allowed to pass.

It is the hopeless condition in which the Ottawa government is placed that prompts the campaign for the recall of Clifford Sifton to the cabinet, says the Mail-Empire. But would Mr. Sifton, as a minister, change the current of opinion now running so strongly against the administration? Would he restore public opinion? Would his presence in the council chamber be accepted as a pledge that graft will be discontinued and that sane and honest rule will be given? That he would be an inspiration to the machine element there can be little doubt. The persons who make politics a profitable occupation would welcome his return to office, and would labor for him with all the zeal that selfishness can produce. Moderate men, whether they be liberals or conservatives or independents, would, however, regard the restoration of this politician with neither favor nor hope.

With commendable promptness Mr. William Irvine, chairman of the Dominion day celebration committee has announced that a detailed statement of receipts and expenditures in connection with the celebration will be prepared by July 10 and then given to the press for publication. Nelson people always respond so generously when called upon to support local celebrations and like events that care should be taken to show fully what money was collected and how it was disbursed, and Mr. Irvine's action is just what is wanted.

PREPARING FOR FOURTH

FOUR MILLIONS WILL BE SPENT IN NEW YORK

MERRYMAKING IN AND OUT OF THE STATES TODAY

NEW YORK, July 3—New York will spend about $4,000,000 tomorrow in celebrating the anniversary of the Declaration of Independence, if Jupe Pluvius and the local weather sharps provide anything resembling a fair day. Incidentally, several persons, mainly small boys, will lay down their lives upon the altar of patriotism. The number of injured will mount into the hundreds—the list last year numbered nearly 400. A dozen or two youngsters will pick it up because it didn't go off right away and will lose a few fingers, or an eye or two as a result. The perennial fool who didn't know it was loaded will get in his usual deadly work. Premature explosions of fireworks will take place in many and divers places and the firemen of the metropolis will be kept busy. The ambulance surgeons, too, will have a busy time in administering first aid to the injured. Altogether it may be said that New York is headed towards another glorious and bloody Fourth, and nothing but the details are lacking for a full description.

Dealers in fireworks, who have their habitat in Park place, admit to doing a bigger business than ever before. It is estimated that $2,000,000 is a modest estimate of the cost of the explosives and fireworks that will go up in smoke tomorrow and that the grand total of the nation will be in the neighborhood of $25,000. Many new and novel ways to burn up money have been invented for this season's trade.

If all the folks within the greater city would stay at home and set off their firecrackers and fireworks, the biggest town in the country could easily give a $5,000,000 fillup to the day be celebrate. But from early today until tomorrow is well advanced, every train and boat departing from New York will bear its share of a goodly slice of the city's population bound for the country, the seaside or the mountains where the air may be cooler, but the noise will be as great proportionately.

New York will have a go as you please celebration. No official cognizance, in the way of exercises will be taken by the city authorities. Coney Island and the other seashore resorts are ready to handle the biggest crowds of the season, if it doesn't rain.

Despite the defection of many of the big chiefs, who left today for Denver, Tammany Hall will have its usual Fourth of July scream and the tail of the tiger will be pulled until he roars as never before. There will be numerous sporting events on land and water.

Last year's record in New York was 4 killed, about 400 injured and 116 fires. With fair weather, tomorrow's roll of the dead and injured is expected to be even greater and more glorious.

PARIS, July 3—Merrymaking incident to the Independence day observance began today in the American quarter and will culminate tomorrow night in a banquet, which will be attended by several Americans of prominence. American residents will attempt to prove tomorrow the truth of Patrick F. Murphy's observation that, notwithstanding the number of Frenchmen who persist in frequenting the city, Paris is still an American city.

LONDON, July 3—Thousands of American flags will fly over London tomorrow and there will likely be an unprecedented outburst of Yankee patriotism. The customary banquet will be held in the Hotel Cecil tomorrow night. Special observations will mark the day at the Franco-British exhibition and the Scottish National exhibition in Edinburgh. Reports from the continent state that elaborate celebrations will be held in all the chief capitals.

MINNEAPOLIS, July 3—A "safe and sane Fourth for the kids" is the keynote of tomorrow's celebration in Minneapolis. Many hogsheads of lemonade, cords of popcorn bricks and thousands of flags will be distributed free in an attempt to save the 50,000 school children of the city from the deadly ravages of firecrackers and toy pistols.

CHICAGO, July 3 — Despite the fact that thousands of Chicago citizens are abandoning the city today for a brief vacation along the lake or in the country, there will be a sufficient number left to render tomorrow's celebration one of the most glorious ever held here.

NEW YORK, July 3—Tomorrow's big athletic event in the metropolis will be the annual games of the United Scottish Clans. In addition to eight regular track events, there will be a relay race, a football game open only to clansmen, a Highland fling competition and a bagpipe contest.

WASHINGTON, July 3—Dedication of the new municipal building, which will be marked by especially significant ceremonies, will be the feature of the Independence day celebration in the national capital tomorrow. There is every indication that the observance of the day will be the most enthusiastic in years.

The 46th star, signalizing the admission of Oklahoma as a state, will be officially added to the flag tomorrow.

The field or union of the national flag in use in the army will, from after tomorrow consist of forty-six stars, in six rows, the first, third, fourth and sixth rows to have eight stars, and the second and fifth rows seven stars each in a blue field.

IMMORALITY IN YUKON

ASSISTANT COMMISSSIONER GOES ON RECORD

MANY DIFFICULTIES MET WITH IN ENFORCING THE LAW

So much has been said about the prevalence of immorality in the Yukon that a statement from the assistant commissioner at Dawson will be of interest.

Z. T. Wood, assistant commissioner at Dawson, commanding the Royal Northwest Mounted Police in the Yukon territory writes the Rev. A. G. Sinclair, D.D., Dawson, as follows, under date June 3, at Dawson.

I beg to acknowledge receipt of yours of the 30th May and would state that I am responsible for the enforcement of the Criminal Code in the Yukon territory and have full powers to take proceedings against anyone infringing the provisions thereof. As you particularly mention gambling and prostitution, I may state that my instructions are to suppress these, as well as any other evils.

As regards the difficulties peculiar to Dawson and White Horse in enforcing the laws, it must be remembered that neither of these towns have bylaws dealing with the offences which the code does not reach. All cities and towns in other parts of Canada have their own particular laws governing the city or town as the case may be. Should an evil or undesirable condition arise which is not covered by the laws of the dominion, the city council can, in a moment, pass a bylaw dealing with the matter. In Dawson and the Yukon generally, if the code does not cover an offence, or reach a sore spot, nothing can be done until parliament assembles and passes an amendment. It is true the Yukon council can legislate upon certain matters, but this body only meets once a year.

As an instance I might refer to the dance hall now running in Dawson, which is nothing more nor less than a resort for prostitutes, where they meet men and lure them to their cabins. Subsection J of section 238 of the Criminal Code forbids the "keeping of a house for the resort of prostitutes" and one would think the premises could be suppressed under that section; I am advised, however, by the crown prosecutor and other legal gentlemen that it has been ruled that by "resort for prostitutes" is meant a place where women resort for the purpose of prostituting themselves. As the prostitutes of Dawson frequent the place only for the purpose of dancing and entrapping the unwary, they cannot be molested.

The crown prosecutor writes, in answer to a request for advice on this matter as follows: "I am of the view that it is very questionable whether a dance hall kept for the purposes of dancing purely and simply, although resorted to by people of lewd or evil reputation, would come within any section of the Criminal Code." The legal adviser and police magistrate concur in this opinion. The Yukon council abolished the ordinance permitting dance halls on licensed premises, but the dance hall in question is not on licensed premises (though immediately next door and separated from one only by a thin partition) nor is prostitution carried on there.

An evil peculiar to Dawson and the Yukon generally is the large number of men and women who are co-habiting although not married. There is no law in Canada by which we can deal with such immorality, though in the states illegal cohabitation is a serious offence. There are many women, prostitutes by profession, who for the time being are living with one man and who therefore cannot be reached.

Another difficulty we have had to contend with is that cigar store licenses have been issued to women who were afterwards discovered to be loose characters. At one time some 50 women followed their profession under the guise of selling tobacco and cigars. When summoned to the police court they would produce their licenses, swear they were bona fide tobacco dealers and the case against them would be dismissed. There are still four of these women left and the commissioner has promised their licenses will not be renewed.

It is very difficult under the present wording of the code to convict a woman of prostitution. General reputation is not accepted as conclusive evidence. If the neighbors of a prostitute do not complain of the annoyance caused them by her proximity—which has only been done here under promise of secrecy—it becomes necessary for the police to station men to watch the front and back doors of the premises occupied by such a woman until sufficient evidence is secured to enable them to procure a warrant to break in. Then the place has to be watched for a favorable opportunity to execute the warrant and catch the occupants. As a rule by the time all this is accomplished the prostitute is aware she is being watched and refuses admittance to visitors. Generally speaking only one woman occupies a house or cabin.

Lately we have been notifying house owners and agents that if they persist in renting their places to women of ill fame they, the owners and agents, are liable to prosecution. This has had the effect of causing the women to move in several instances, but in others no notice has been taken of the warning, as the law on this subject is vague to say the least.

Some people claim the police are herding the fast women together in Klondyke City—across the river from Dawson—such is not the case. We cannot designate any place for such women to reside. Our one object is to drive them out of the town limits, but we have not molested them in Klondyke City unless complaints are made by the citizens of that locality. There are but few, if any, respectable women or children over there and so far those that reside there have taken no exception to the presence of the class mentioned.

I have written Ottawa requesting that the code be amended so as to cover dance halls and illegal cohabitation, also that the clause referring to prostitutes be made more explicit. No doubt my request will be granted, as hitherto every assistance has been given me in such matters.

From commissioner Henderson I have also received hearty support in everything concerning morality in the Yukon.

It must be remembered that a great improvement has taken place since 1901. Dawson was then a wide open town, open gambling was permitted, dance halls flourished, and prostitutes and the dance hall women, numbering some 150 were located on every street, but principally near where the postoffice now is. That a great change has taken place, I think no one will deny. Gambling has been practically stamped out, though, of course, at this time of year when the cleanup is in progress, miners will, even yet, get together and have a game. Until last August dance halls were allowed on licensed premises by an ordinance of the Yukon council. Since the withdrawal of this privilege two have been opened on unlicensed premises, but only one still exists; this one, I trust, will have to close before long. At present a constable is constantly present druing hours the hall is open to see that no liquor is sold and that there is no immorality.

We have here a different class of people to deal with to those inhabiting other Canadian towns. The great majority in Dawson are foreigners who are accustomed to the lax enforcement of the laws usual in American cities. Only two or three days ago a deputation of business men called on the acting commissioner to protest against the action of the police in a tempting to drive the prostitutes out of town. They complained that it was hurting their business.

As regards gambling, every efffort is made by the police to put a stop to it. Nevertheless it does break out in town and on the creeks at odd intervals, but it is suppressed as soon as discovered. The few policemen now remaining are too well known to be able to catch the guilty parties. In order to do so we have to employ "spotters" and in a community such as this, it is hard to get men to be relied upon. However, we do our best, and I think any fair minded person will admit that we have been fairly successful.

If imprisonment without the option of a fine was the penalty for the keeper of a gambling house, our work would be easier. As it is, the fines imposed do not act as a de errent.

LABOR IN NEW ZEALAND

THOMAS DUNCAN COMES BACK AFTER LONG TRIP

COMPULSORY ARBITRATION IS NOT WORKING OUT WELL

Thomas Duncan, a son of Capt. Duncan, of this city, has just got back to this city after an absence of nearly eight years, during which time he has been round the world. Most of the time was spent in New Zealand, where he was undertaking work as an electrical engineer. Mr. Duncan was the first manager of the Tramway company and was on the first car that ran down Stanley street. He and his brother William were the first hockey players in the city and, in fact, brought about the formation of the hockey club which has played so many successful games since that time. Thomas Duncan himself was reckoned in the early days Nelson's fastest forward.

Speaking of his residence in New Zealan and especially in reference to the working of the Compulsory Arbitration Act, Mr. Duncan said it was not working out very well. It seemed that in the early days of the working of that act wages were too low and successive applications to the board of arbitration resulted increases till at last they were brought up as high as the industry would stand. When harder times came and wages were reduced there was trouble. Under the law there are not supposed to be any strikes. Practically everybody belongs to a union. If the union strikes the union itself, or its individual members, may be fined. But in Mr. Duncan's time there was one strike and since he left New Zealand there has been another, both in the electrical workers' union. Mr. Duncan had no statistics as to strikes in other unions. In the first instance the government, which has no opposition and which is supported by labor members in the house, and is therefore dependent upon the labor vote, found themselves too weak to do anything effective. Consequently two of the men were fined £1 apiece, an entirely inadequate penalty. As to what would be the effect if heavy fines were imposed upon the men of the union and upon the society itself Mr. Duncan did not care to express any opinion. On the whole he thought that the working of the cat was not satisfactory.

An Element of Safety

With the old fashioned razor, a man is never safe. Most men will cut their faces a dozen times a year, at least. The man never lived and shaved regularly with the old style razor, who has not frequently cut himself.

A man can shave all his lifetime with the "Gillette" Safety Razor without a single mishap.

Whether he has "oceans of time" or only five minutes—whether at home or on a railroad train or ocean liner—whether he has every convenience or is without a mirror—it's all the same with the "Gillette."

The certainty of safety is only ONE of the many exclusive features of the "Gillette"—the safety razor that is safe.

The Gillette Safety Razor consists of a triple silver plated holder and 12 double edged flexible blades, in velvet lined leather case. Price $5—at all leading Jewelry, Drug, Cutlery, Hardware, Sporting Goods and Department Stores.

Write or ask your dealer for free booklets. If he cannot supply you, write us.

JOE GANS A FAVORITE

LIGHTWEIGHT CHAMPION IN THE SCALES

FIGHT WITH BATTLING NELSON THIS AFTERNOON

SAN FRANCISCO, July 3—On the eve of the battle between Joe Gans and Battling Nelson for the world's lightweight championship honors, the negro is a decided favorite. Bookmakers predict that many heavy wagers will be made before the men enter the ring tomorrow. Nelson and his backers are confident that he will win a victory over his old time rival, but this opinion is shared by only a small portion of the sporting experts congregated in San Francisco today to witness the mill.

According to the articles of agreement the bout will take place tomorrow afternoon in Croffoth's Mission street arena and is scheduled to go 45 rounds. The winner will receive 60 per cent and the loser 40 per cent of the 70 per cent of the gross proceeds which will go to the fighters. The men will weigh in at 133 pounds at the ringside stripped.

Jack Walsh has been agreed upon as referee . A clause in the articles is to the effect that the referee must not put his hands on the men if they should be in a clinch. They must step back at his command. The clause was inserted at the request of Nelson's representative. The Dane never clinches, and this condition is thought to favor him. It was considered of so much importance by Ben Selig that he had a special conference with Gans before he agreed that it be made part of the articles. Nelson does his most effective work at infighting, hence this is expected to be in his favor.

There is every indication that a record breaking crowd will witness the encounter, anxious to see settled the dispute which Nelson and his supporters have tried to keep up ever since that memorable battle at Goldfield on Sept. 3, 1906.

There has never been any doubt in the minds of the fair ones as to the outcome of the struggle, for only the prejudiced gave any consideration to the ridiculous claims of Nelson that he had been robbed of a victory, but the Dane and his immediate followers have not missed an opportunity to question the right of the negro to the lightweight championship title and repeated challenges for another contest have been mingled with the numerous attempts to harm the fistic standing of the colored man.

Now it is all to be settled in the ring, and if the apparent form of the two men during the past year counts for anything the Dane is in for a worse beating than he received at Goldfield, and a beating, too, that will leave no room for arguments in future.

In no light since he escaped a knockout or an adverse decision on points by deliberately fouling Gans in the 42nd round in Nevada, has Nelson displayed his old-time form. Nelson has pulled off one or two fairly creditable performances, all things considered but nevertheless he gave in every appearance the impression that he wasn't the same Battler, showing in many ways a waning of the qualities that once caused him to be hailed as the king of the lightweight lot.

Gans, on the other hand, has gone right along in the same old way so familiar to fans who have seen in him the greatest fighting machine, big or little, the ring has ever known. His failure to stop Unholz in shorter time is not taken to mean the passing of his famous punch by those who know the remarkable ability of the Boer to stand punishment. That he is as fit as ever in all departments there is not the slightest doubt, and the only conclusion possible is that in the coming contest Nelson is likely to discover for the first time in his life how it feels to be knocked out.

GATHERING OF BISHOPS

ANGLICAN CHURCH DIGNITARIES AT LAMBETH PALACE

COME FROM EVERY CORNER OF THE EARTH

LONDON, July 3—Gaitered and aproned bishops of the Anglican church from all corners of the earth—80 of them from America—are assembled today to take part in the decennial Lambeth conference. In all 250 bishops are here, many of whom took part in the Pan-Anglican conference and will represent at the conference a Christian community of not less than 100,000,000 persons. While the actual business of the conference will not be commenced until Monday, the distinguished churchmen will be received tomorrow at Canterbury. On Sunday there will be a celebration of holy communion at Westminster Abbey, the sermon to be preached by the dean of Westminster.

England and Wales will be represented by 37 bishops at the Conference. Canada, Australia, India, South Africa, Japan and China have also sent nearly all of their bishops. Among the delegates is assistant bishop Cluwolle, a full blooded negro, who has many native clergymen under his jurisdiction in the jungles of the dark continent. The United States has by far the largest representation.

The conference will continue until Aug. 5. Among the subjects slated for discussion are the relations of the church to modern thought, science, philosophy, democracy and social and economic questions. Religious education in schools, supply and training of clergy, foreign missions, reunion and intercommunion, prayer book adaptation, marriage problems, divorce, race suicide, faith healing and Christian science are other problems which will be considered.

It must be understood that while the decisions of the conference will carry great weight with churchmen the world over, they will have no binding effect on anybody. They will be simply expressions of opinion by the leaders of the church which the various branches of the Anglican communion may or may not adopt as they please. When the conference was inaugurated forty years ago, the fear was expressed that in time to come the foreign and colonial churches might be able to outvote the mother church even on important points of doctrine and it was decided then that the decisions of the conference should be purely of a recommendatory nature.

The archbishop of Canterbury, the primate of all England and the spiritual head of the English church will preside at this great gathering. The Protestant Episcopal church in America is, of course entirely independent and is democratically governed, the bishops being elected by their people, while in England they are appointed by the king, who is the nominal head of the church. The American bishops trace their ordination, however, to the Anglican church and the sentimental tie is very close.

The churches in Canada, Australia and many of the other colonies are entirely independent of the mother church and are governed by their own synods and metropolitans or archbishops, while in some of the smaller or newer colonies the bishops are directly under the control of the archdiocese of Canterbury.

PROTECTION IN ENGLAND

John Bull's Latest Dodge to Encourage Manufacturing—New Patent Law

(Montreal Star.)

It is funny to see "dear old England" coquetting with protection. It takes as much pleasure out of it as an elderly party does who begins to get "flirtatious" with an attractive person of the opposite sex. There was the embargo on Canadian cattle. The excuse gravely given was that Canadian cattle might bring disease along with them. For a time we took that excuse seriously. We were not "wise" to the tendency of our staid old free trade friend to fly a handker chief in the direction of bight eyed protection. So we hustled around and collected tons of evidence that our cattle were not diseased. We proved to a demonstration that it was absolutely safe for Britain to let them land. But nothing budged. Britain kept this umbrella down to shut out curious eyes and went on flirting with protection for her cattle growers.

Now we are informed that there is great rejoicing all over the United Kingdom because the new patent laws are compelling German and American houses to arrange to manufacture their goods for the British market in Britain. The new patent laws simply declare that, if foreigners wish to get patents on their inventions, in Britain, they must manufacture them there. This is a pretty clever piece of legislation. The British government deserves great credit for the skill which devised it and the courage which carried it out. It is not protection in the sense that it shuts other goods out of the British market. The foreign manufacturer can still manufacture as many goods at home as he likes and ship them to Britain. The foreign article which competes with the article patented in Britain, can still be sent in as freely as ever. This device will never enable the "home manufacturer" to raise his price. But it will compel the man who has a patented article which he desires to protect in Britain, to open a branch factory there.

It gives the British people some of the benefits of protection without any risk of suffering its possible losses. It is a shrewd stroke of business quite worthy of John Bull. Of course, a smaller country could not protect itself in this way. Many firms would rather go without its market than establish branch factories there. Many firms already establish branch factories in Canada, brought hither by our protective tariff; but we could hardly risk a patent law only for shutting out all dangerous competition. We get our results with a tariff; and Britain, with its commanding market, gets hers with a patent law.

Whether this is the end of the flirtation or not, only a prophet could tell. Mr. Lloyd George has a scheme for helping home industries by special railway rates which may be regarded as another "squeeze of the hand." The alien labor laws have the effect of shutting out the competition of cheap foreign labor. And so it goes. The tariff reformers say that it will go much further. But even they do not talk of marriage as yet. They are more inclined to let protection be "a sister" to them, while they wed with an imperial preference.

REVIVE TOP HATS

A Procession to Take Place in London This Afternoon

LONDON, July 3.—A crusade to revive the vogue of the top hat will be inaugurated in London tomorrow, when a great procession, in which all members will wear the latest styles of top hats, wil march through the Franco-British exposition. For some years the silk hat has been declining in favor, even in the most fashionable circles, and has been superceded by straws and derbys. The silk hat manufacturers, seeing their business threatened, have organized the public crusade.

This ground, so far, has not been formerly transferred over and therefore still belongs to the Chinese owner McGregor explained that he was under the impression that the land belonged to the government and that one of the local militia had given him permission to take the trees which had been abandoned. The magistrate directed that the Chinaman should be paid the worth of the trees at 50 cents apiece and that McGregor should pay the costs of the case, altogether amounting to $15.

COMMUNICATIONS

Letters to The Daily News on current topics are cordially invited, subject to the following terms:

The letters must be plainly written (typewritten preferred) on one side of the writing paper only, of reasonable length and must be signed by the writer for publication.

The Daily News is not responsible for the views expressed by correspondents.

EDITOR THE DAILY NEWS:

In your issue of today there appears an account of the failure of the council of the Olympic games, such council being headed by lord Desborough, to raise $50,000 towards the entertaining of the foreign delegates to the said games. In case it might be thought that the old country was inclined to be very stingy and mean, it will be as well to explain only the money was not forthcoming. In the first place it must be remembered that at the present time in England there are literally thousands of people actually starving; men, women and children, and in some old country papers I have just received, it is stated that men are actually gathering food to sustain life out of pig tubs. I don't write to take up your space with details, but can do so if anyone doubts that statement. In the face of such poverty can you wonder at the refusal of the people to respond to the appeal of lord Desborough.

It is all right for the London Mail to head the list, seeing that lord Northfield has almost swallowed the entire newspaper world in the old cuntry and makes millions of dollars, but it is a different matter with the workers, and I would like to ask where is the rich of the west end of London. Why not let them pay the piper?

Yours truly
FRED OGLE.

"Sunshine" Furnace

Where Shaking is Respectable

A Draft off furnace dome, with no other assistance, is powerless to overcome the dust nuisance in shaking time. Only surplus dust rises of itself above the fire. Great bulk descends into ash-pit, and unless legitimate outlet is therein provided, dust will escape through ash-door slits and into operator's face.

In "Sunshine" Furnace the legitimate dust outlet is provided. It's a great big dust-pipe running straight from ash-pit to dome, thence to chimney. When big pipe damper is opened, all dust in ash-pit ascends to dome; then, when direct drafts are opened, all dust passes up chimney.

Always the clean and quick dust route in "Sunshine" Furnace — via grate, to pan, to dust-pipe, to dome, to chimney, to open air.

Write to us for "Sunshine" testimonials received from your own townspeople.

FIVE BANKS WRECKED

GOVERNMENT RESPONSIBLE FOR PRODIGIOUS EXTRAVAGANCE

A COMMISSION IS MADE AS TO INVESTIGATIONS

Sir Wilfrid Laurier used to say that under liberal rule it was not necessary to argue that the country was prosperous, as the people knew it. But the premier usually went on to tell of increasing revenue, of industries working night and day, of abundant capital for Canadian investment, low interest on the Canadian securities, the increasing number of Canadian banks and decreasing record of failures. Ministers are now explaining that falling revenues, decreased transportation earnings, paralysis of the woolen industry, closing of iron and steel plants, scarce money and bank failures are all due to causes beyond government control.

But the government is responsible for adversity more than it was for prosperity, since its prodigious extravagance, its withdrawal of money from productive industries by increased taxation, and its protection of public dishonesty, have assisted to undermine the prosperous conditions.

When the premier next talks about banks he will have to say that within a few years five have been wrecked.. these are the Bank of Yarmouth, Ontario bank, Banque de St. Jean, Banque de St. Hyacinthe.

As expected, the government majority in the Hodgins' committee report in favor of quitting the enquiry. They say that major Hodgins has withdrawn the charges of improper conduct on the part of commissioners, and that questions of classifications can be tried by arbitration between the government and the Grand Trunk company.

Mr. Barker and Mr. Lennox, the conservative minority, do not think that charges involving millions of over-payment should be treated so lightly.

They show that stronger charges in respect to over-payments and false classification have been made against the commission by G. T. P. engineers than were made by major Hodgins, and that these over-payments are of serious concern to the dominion.

Therefore the minority "recommend that the subject-matter of the investigation be remitted to the committee with instructions to proceed therein until completion."

This request was the more reasonable as the committee had brought at great expense from all parts of the line a dozen resident engineers to testify about classifications in their respective districts.

But these witnesses have all been sent away without giving evidence.

Now that the Hodgins' enquiry has been knocked on the head, the Cassels' enquiry suppressed for the summer, and the record of government obstruction in the committees has been examined, it is interesting to recall the course of another government of Canada in dealing with charges of a somewhat similar character against one of its departments. At the close of a long enquiry into the McGreevy scandal in 1891, Mr. Tarte, who had preferred the charges, and prosecuted them before the committee, made this statement in the house of commons. (Hansard 1891, page 5800.)

"I must say this must to the credit of the minister of justice (Sir John Thompson). Fro mthe moment that the minister of justice perceived that I had a case he sent to me the two counsel for his administration, Messrs. Henry and Osler. They came to me and to my lawyer and they said: 'It is better not to say publicly that we will work together as much as we can, but we have been authorized to come to you.' I asked them: 'By whom are you authorized?' They told me they had been authorized by sir John Thompson. I asked them: 'Are you going to take your orders from the minister of justice or from sir Hector Langevin?' (Osler and Henry said: 'We are taking our orders from the minister of justice and we are prepared to work with you and find out the truth as much as we can.' I say that they have helped me, and my lawyer, Mr. Geoffrion, will tell you the same thing. They have helped me as much as their delicate position and the delicate position of the minister of justice allowed them to do. I think, sir, it is well that we should know, and that the world should know, that when a grave and momentous question like this is thrown upon parliament, the representative of justice is prepared to stand by his duty, however delicate and difficult may be the position in which he is placed."

According to present appearances and the record of two sessions, it will be a long time before Mr. Aylesworth will earn such a tribute as this.

The government paid Mr. Tarte's own counsel as well as the counsel who helped him. It followed up the finding by criminal proceedings against the offendsr and by civil action to recover the over-payments. Yet the total profits in the transaction involved in the McGreevy enquiry, including the salaries of the partners, political contributions and all doubtful expenses, were less than 30 per cent of the cost of the work, while the marine department, in 1906, gave profits of 187 per cent to Merwin for purchasing articles common to the trade, 900 per cent profit was paid to the Canadian Fog Signal company, and perhaps equal profits to the International Signal company on nearly a million dollars. If the statement of the Grand Trunk Pacific engineers is true, the over-payments on the Transcontinental contracts are many times greater than the total gains of the Larkin-Connolly firm.

REGICIDE PLOT

True Story of the Killing of King Carlos and the Crown Prince

LISBON, July 3.—Jose Maria de Alpoim, chief of the Progressive dissidents, created a sensation in the house of lords today by revealing what he asserted to be the true story of the regicide plot. He asserted that the assassinations had been decided upon at a meeting of the progressive and regeneratorist parties a few days before they were carried out. He charged that it was proposed to wipe out the entire royal family with the exception of Maria Pia, mother of king Carlos, but the monarchists insisted that such a general slaughter would be useless. Finally Manuel Silvia Bossia and Alfredo Costa were given $20,000 and $10,000 respectively to kill king Carlos and premier Franco. Arrangements were made by the other men to cover the flight of the assassins, but when Bossia and Costa fired, their friends lost their heads and fired also, the result being the death of the crown prince.

Nothing Did Good

Until She Tried "Fruit-a-tives"

Madame Rioux is the wife of M. Jos. Rioux, a wealthy manufacturer of lumber in St. Moise. Madame Rioux is greatly esteemed in her home town and her testimonial in favor of "Fruit-a-tives" carries conviction with it, as it is entirely unsolicited.

St. Moise, Quebec.

I have much pleasure in testifying to the marvelous good which I have received from the use of the famous tablets "Fruit-a-tives". I was a great sufferer for many years with serious liver disease and severe constipation. I had constant pain in the right side and in the back and these pains were severe and distressing. My digestion was very bad, with frequent headaches, and I became greatly run down in health. I took many kinds of liver pills and liver medicine without any benefit, and I was treated by several doctors but nothing did me any good, bloating continued. As soon as I began to take "Fruit-a-tives" I began to feel better, the dreadful pains in the right side and back were easier and when I had taken three boxes I was practically well. 150

REGINA FIRE

Newly Arrived English Family Burned Out—Husband Away

REGINA, July 3.—Fire this afternoon destroyed the house and home of Edward Stewart, newly arrived from England, and consumed every article of wordly goods owned by the family. Mrs. Stewart, in her efforts to put out the flames, was severely burned about the arms, and when help arrived she fell in a faint. The five young children were taken to a neighbor's home and are being cared for there. Everything they owned except the clothes on their backs was destroyed. The husband was absent at the time of the fire.

Minard's Liniment Cures Colds, etc.

The Knock-out Blow.

The blow which knocked out Corbett was a revelation to the prize fighters. From the earliest days of the ring the knock-out blow was aimed for the jaw, the temple or the jugular vein. Stomach punches were thrown in to worry and weary the fighter, but if a scientific man had told one of the old fighters that the most vulnerable spot was the region of the stomach, he'd have laughed at him for an ignoramus. Dr. Pierce is bringing home to the public a parallel fact; that the stomach is the most vulnerable organ out of the prize ring as well as in it. We protect our heads, throats, feet and lungs, but the stomach we are utterly indifferent to, until disease finds the solar plexus and knocks us out. Make your stomach sound and strong by the use of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and you protect yourself in your most vulnerable spot. "Golden Medical Discovery" cures "weak stomach," indigestion, or dyspepsia, torpid liver, bad, thin and impure blood and other diseases of the organs of digestion and nutrition.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" has a specific curative effect upon all mucous surfaces and hence cures catarrh, no matter where located or what stage it may have reached. In Nasal Catarrh it is well to cleanse the passages with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy fluid while using the "Discovery" as a constitutional remedy. Why the "Golden Medical Discovery" cures catarrhal diseases, as of the stomach, bowels, bladder and other pelvic organs will be plain to you if you will read a booklet of extracts from the writings of eminent medical authorities, endorsing its ingredients and explaining their curative properties. It is mailed free on request. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. This booklet gives all the ingredients entering into Dr. Pierce's medicines from which it will be seen that they contain not a drop of alcohol, pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead.

Dr. Pierce's great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser will be sent free, paper-bound, for 21 one-cent stamps, or cloth-bound for 50 stamps. Address Dr. Pierce as above.

FRIELERICKSHAVEN, July 3.—For the first time in history a reigning king and queen today made an ascension in a dirigible balloon. The royal passengers were king Wilhelm of Wurtenburg and queen Charlotte, who are staying in the castle on the shores of Lake Constance and who accepted count Zeppelin's offer to make a trip in his airship. His majesty was the first to ascend and sailed for half an hour over the waters of the lake, and found the experience so delightful that he requested count Zeppelin to return to the floating shed, where he prevailed upon queen Charlotte to take his place on the platform for an aerial excursion. The queen enjoyed her trip fully as much as her husband.

QUEBEC TERCENTENARY

Railway and Militia Officials Make Arrangements for Camp

OTTAWA, July 3.—In a conference today between general superintendent Murphy and general passenger agent Stitt, representing the C. P. R., and brigadier general MacDonald and Col. Biggar, representing the militia department, arrangements were made whereby a siding will be constructed from the main line, which passes Savard park into the camp grounds about three miles from Quebec, where the troops will assemble for the Tercentenary celebration. The military department is highly pleased with the arrangements, which will greatly facilitate the convenient transportation of the troops to and from the camp ground. The men travelling by the north shore will be saved nearly three miles march in each direction and will enjoy a decided advantage in the way of comfort over those who will be brought into Quebec by the south shore route and obliged to cross the river and march to the grounds.

TEDDY BEARS

Story of a Montreal Wine Party and What Followed

MONTREAL, July 3—Charles Shaw of Zanesville, Ohio, was today set at liberty by the police magistrate after being detained for nine days on the complaint of Charlotte Webster, a young woman who declared that he had promised to marry her and was intending to leave the country for the purpose of evading his promise. Shaw's story was that he had been taken to the residence of the young woman's mother by a friend named Bayne, who wanted to introduce him to the "Teddy Bears," as he designated the girl and her sister. There was considerable wine consumed at a supper that followed and Shaw does not remember any promise of marriage. Anyway he could not marry the girl as he was a ready a married man. The magistrate accepted his story.
