EMPIRE NAVY

Press Conference Discusses Problem of Hour

DUTY OF THE COLONIES

SIR EDWARD GREY CONCURS IN FULL WITH LORD ROSEBERY'S VIEWS—HON. REGINALD McKENNA, FIRST LORD OF ADMIRALTY, SPEAKS.

LONDON, June 8—The second meeting of the imperial press conference was held here today under the presidency of Reginald McKenna first lord of the admiralty. Foreign secretary Grey also was present and both ministers spoke on the navy.

"If the navy fails," declared the foreign secretary, "it will be useless to discuss any other subject. He called attention to the words spoken by lord Rosebery in his recent speech to the newspaper men and said he endorsed every word of his address. Continuing sir Edward Grey summed up the policy of the foreign office as follows: "To keep what we have got, to consolidate and develop and to quarrel as little as possible with other people and to uphold in the councils of the world the ideals of Great Britain. With so much at stake the maintenance of the navy must be the first consideration not only for the home government, but for all the self governing dominions of the empire." In conclusion the foreign secretary said that the present excessive expenditures for armaments made the political weather "sultry." He deprecated the idea that the foreign office was more prone to compromise where the interests of the self governing colonies were concerned than in cases where they were directly affected. Rather the opposite was the case.

Mr. McKenna also spoke in a serious tone. He said he foresaw the possibility of the empire being called on to unite its whole strength in the common defence of the home country. He declared he would assist the development of the local navies of the overseas dominions in every way in his power as the maintenance of supremacy on all seas was essential. Mr. McKenna anticipated that, as a result of the conference, ideas could be cleared and a way be opened. He dealt exclusively with naval supremacy and admitted diversity of local naval problems. To Britain's naval defence covered the whole globe. "We cannot," he said, "force our strategic ideas upon you, we should fail if we attempted it. If you come to ask us we shall be ready to answer you, but we should not necessarily expect you to accept that answer. It is only by working out your problems yourselves that you can get the experience we have." Concluding Mr. McKenna appealed to the press to maintain the navy above all party dissensions.

Mr. Ward of Sydney, Australia, vigorously urged overseas assistance to the imperial navy.

Mr. Gwynne of the London Standard, deprecated the happy-go-lucky naval policy and advocated an imperial admiralty.

Mr. Park of the Capt Town Times, anticipated that when the union of South Africa is completed that country would do more for the navy.

Mr. Alfred Lyttleton deprecated annual contributions to the imperial navy. He reiterated that Great Britain would spend her last shilling in construction of Dreadnoughts in defence of the empire but times and circumstances had changed since Trafalgar. The time might come for overseas assistance in some tremendous struggle in the future and the empire might depend upon its unity and its consolidation for defence. He thought monetary contributions should take the form of the cost of warships and the contributors' ideal should be ultimately to man it with natives, so that it should form a nucleus for its naval aspirants. The discussion was adjourned.

The following resolution was passed on the agenda: "That it is the duty of the press to do everything in its power to co-operate with the naval and military authorities organizing the defence of the empire and to take all possible precautions to avoid injury to the public interest in publishing news in time of war and that it is desirable that the press of Great Britain and the colonies should act in concert in the wise direction of emigration."

The Daily News referring too the speeches of lord Rosebery and sir Edward Grey says the statesmen who see so clearly ought to have some resource beyond a despairing appeal to the conscience of the workingman. The workingman is not to blame. It points out that if the struggle, constant talk whereof it deprecates, is to take place it will be in the home waters and if the colonies wish to assist they can take a useful partonly by contributing money or ships to fleets maintained in Europe. A fleet of second class cruisers, such as Canada is supposed to be contemplating would represent money wasted.

Jack London Very Ill.

NEW YORK, June 8—A Honolulu despatch to the Tribune says that Jack London, the novelist, in a letter to Dr. E. S. Goodhue of Honolulu, writes in a gloomy way of his physical condition. He mentions five different diseases from which he has suffered and tells of being delivered of two of them by operations in Sydney, but he still has malarial ever, while a nervous trouble has wrecked his strength and prevented him from doing any work. London says that the doctors understand some of his nervous diseases, but the others, the ablest Australian specialists confess they do not understand. London was in hopes that when the operation was performed he would recover his nervous equilibrium, but says this mysterious malady, when the attack comes, makes him helpless. He expects to sell the Snark and come home at once

REMEMBER GREAT FIRE

ANNIVERSARY OF VANCOUVER'S FIRST DISASTER

WILL BE MARKED BY CHURCH PARADE THIS YEAR

VANCOUVER, June 8—Next Sunday, June 13, will be the 23rd anniversary of a fatal fire which left the then baby city of Vancouver an ash strewn scene of desolation, with only one house standing to mark the site of what had been a busy go ahead, bustling place. It is interesting to note that the devastating conflagration occurred on a Sunday. It had been the custom of the surviving veterans of the old Vancouver volunteer fire brigade and the hook and ladder corps to hold an anniversary banquet each year. In view of the date falling this year on Sunday it has been decided to abandon the banquet and hold a church parade instead. The full details have not been decided upon.

Deadman's Island was the scene of a gallant rescue this morning when P. C. Tuning, saved little Keith Hargias from drowning. The youngster was playin on a pier and fell into the water which at that point is 14 feet deep. Officer Tuning was out on sentry about 200 yards away but heard the lad's cries and ran to the scene. Without divesting himself of any clothing he plunged to the rescue and reached the boy as he was sinking for the third time. The lad soon recovered from the shock of his immersion.

The city council was formally served today with notice of motion for judgment for Deadman's Island by the lawyers for the other side.

The wireless telegraphic apparatus for establishing communication between Prince Rupert, Port Essington and Vancouver, is now on the way to the coast, and J. T. Phelan, superintendent of government telegraphs, and D. Minard, electrical engineer in the public works department, Ottawa, left on the Rupert City last night to select suitable sites for the stations at the two northern cities. The cost of installation will be $3000 and it is intended to show that the cost of wireless communication with the north is cheaper than the present system.

Mayor Jamieson of Calgary, accompanied by his wife, is in the city today and will remain over until tomorrow. They are on their way home after visiting the Seattle exposition.

Mayor Douglas this morning received a letter from H. F. Parrott of Waterloo, secretary of the national editorial association stating it would be impossible for that organization to hold its annual convention in Vancouver. On receiving an invitation from his worship through the dominion officials it had been arranged for holding of the convention here, but it was found that satisfactory traffic arrangements could not be made Mr. Parrott adds that the organization intends to make a strong effort to come to Vancouver for a day in connection with its trip to the coast despite the fact that the Seattle authorities are arranging for entire trip to be made within the limits of the state of Washington.

New Vessel for Rithet's

VICTORIA, June 8—To be registered under the ownership of R. P. Rithet & Co., the British bark British Yeoman is about due from Sydney for the Royal Roads. She was formerly the Chilian bark Stefano Razeto and was bought by an Australian firm which sent the vessel to San Francisco two years ago with a cargo of coal, and owing to the glut of fuel at the Bay city at the time, the venture was not a profitable one. The vessel was eventually sold at San Francisco to satisfy a claim against her and arrangements are being now made to have her pass into the hands of R. P. Rithet who will register her as the British Yeoman at Victoria. The bark left Sydney on March 27th.

WANTS CABLE

Premier McBride Favors Proposal

FOR STATE OWNED SYSTEM

DECLARES THE SCHEME IS PERFECTLY PRACTICABLE AND WOULD BE ADVANTAGEOUS COMMERCIALLY AND PROFITABLE INVESTMENT.

(Special to The Daily News.)

VICTORIA, June 8—Discussing the suggestions of the imperial press conference premier McBride endorses the establishment of state owned cables uniting Britain and her colonies as thoroughly practical and an important step towards imperial unity and a profitable commercial investment for the empire. Its greatest function, he says, would, however, be as an agency in the upbuilding of a greater British empire. The trouble now is that cabling is so restricted, owing to excessive rates that the several Anglo-Saxon peoples are unable to keep informed as to the important events occurring, perhaps of an historic character, outside their own circumscribed circles.

State owned cables conducted as public utilities and cheap telegraph rates throughout the land, are much needed. With these will be inaugurated a comprehensive and reliable news service.

TO DEVELOP PROPERTY

HEAD SYNDICATE IS FORMED IN OLD COUNTRY

HEAD & MARTIN COAL LANDS AT BLAIRMORE PURCHASED

The Head Syndicate, Limited, has been formed in London ,England, with a capital of £55,000, to develop the property in the Blairmore district, in Southwest Alberta ,long known as the Head & Martin coal lands.

For some years a one-half interest in this valuable coal property, which lies immediately south of and adjoining that of the International Coal & Coke company of Coleman, Alta., has been owned by the Hastings (British Columbia) syndicate Limited, of which Leslie Hill, of Nelson, is consulting engineer and manager, the other half interest having been owned by the Kootenay Supply company, represented by Martin & Pollock. The latter interest having been acquired by the Head Syndicate, Mr. Martin no longer has any business connection with the property. Mr. Hill is manager in Canada for the Head Syndicate, which also holds under option of purchase, the half interest of the Hastings Syndicate in this property. It is expected that development work will shortly be commenced, under Mr. Hill's direction

The Head & Martin property has long been regarded as one of the most promising in the district. The lands run for practically eight miles on the coal measures, overlapping for two miles those of the International Coal & Coke company . There are known to occur on the property five workable seams of coal, the biggest of which is 43 ft. 6 in. thick, there being first 24 ft. 8 in. of clean coal, then 13 ft. 4 in. in which there is some shale, and then 5 ft. 6 in. more of clean coal. This seam has been opened about two miles south of the International company's southern boundary line, and, where cut by a 60-foot cross-cut tunnel through soft rock, is undisturbed. It has the mountain rising about 700 feet above it, consequently the coal is superior in quality to that where the measures are nearer the surface. The quality of the coal has been proved by the International company, which has extensively worked the northerly continuation of these seams.

In the Head Syndicate's property there is a large tonnage of coal above adit level 700 feet above the south fork of Old Man river.

The property is advantageously situated in regard to comparative nearness to railways, for the C. P. R. Crow's Nest railway is within four and one-half miles in one direction, while the surveyed route of another railway is within two miles in the opposite direction. This field of good coking coal will, therefore be tributary to these, as well as to other railways, to be eventually constructed through the Kootenay Pass and directly into Montana, while railway connection with the Grand Trunk Pacific will, it has been stated, be sooner or later given this district.

Epidemic Grows Worse.

BAPTIST HERESY TRIAL

PROF. FOSTER OF CHICAGO UNDER FIRE

CHARGED WITH DENYING DIVINITY OF CHRIST

CHICAGO, June 8—Prof. George D. Foster of the university of Chicago, whose writings, denounced by some as "a bitter indictment of the Christian religion before the bar of skepticism" have harrowed the clergy of Chicago, today at a meeting of the Baptist preachers of Chicago was called upon by Rev. Johnston Myers, pastor of Emmanuel Baptist church, to withdraw from the Baptist ministry and to yield up his ordination papers.

The fire of criticism was directed chiefly at Prof. Foster's recent book "The Function of Religion." The motion was put before several hundred preachers and laymen gathered at the conference of the Baptist church. The objection of Prof. Parker, who, like Prof. Foster, is an instructor in the university of Chicago, prevented the eviction of the author of "The Function of Religion." Prof. Parker prevented action by calling attention to a constitutional provision, preventing action without a week's notice. The case accordingly was postponed until June 14.

It was after Prof. Foster had been characterised as an "undesirable Baptist," and as a teacher who would depress the church and defy evolution, that the effort was made to eject him from the councils of the denomination. Rev. Mr. Matthews of the Tabernacle Methodist church in the course of a review of Prof. Foster's book, declares that in this book Prof. Foster says God did not make man in His own image, but that man made God in his own image, that we are not fallen angels, but developed animals, that miracles have always been the result of ignorance and that modern technic must take the place of magic. "I wonder what he means by modern technic. He declares that modern science has undermined the Trinity, that Jesus was a child of his time, and that to copy Jesus is to kill the soul. He makes a tirade against the clergy. He says that the book of humanity is greater than the bible. He is guilty of supreme conceit in ranking self greater than Christ. He styles our grand old book as the petrified remains of the Christian religion.

While Mr. Matthews was speaking the situation was tense. Through it all Prof. Foster's 17 year old son sat with flushed cheeks and shining eyes. At last, unable to restrain himself longer, he half rose and cried: "Why don't you review the book and not the man?" A buzz of excitement spread over the room but the speaker paid no attention to the interruption.

When the motion was made to expel Prof. Foster, there were cries of "second" from all over the hall. After the meeting Prof. Parker said: "this conference has nothing to do with the university of Chicago Two-thirds of the university's trustees are Baptist laymen, but they could not vote to expel a member of the faculty without moral grounds."

WARM WORDS ON UNION

PRESBYTERIAN SYNOD'S SECOND HEATED DEBATE

BIG MAJORITY FINALLY FAVOR DR. PATRICK'S MOTION

HAMILTON, June 8 — The Presbyterian general assembly concluded its deliberations on church union yesterday morning and adopted Principal Patrick's motion. The vote indicated a large preponderating opinion in favor of the principals of the union in the ranks of the clergy and elders of the church. The afternoon was devoted to the consideration of augmentation and church life and work committees' reports and the evening to the reports of the Sunday school and the french evangelization committees.

This morning the assembly at once got down to a continuance of the debate on church union.

Rev. Dr. Taylor of New Westminster said they were not the united people they were supposed to be. He challenged the extraordinary doctrinal basis placed before him by the supporters of the union and he styled the report of agreement of the joint commission as one of shreds and patches.

Rev. Dr. Pringle, Sydney, said that as a start, he was out and out for union. Those supposing it were not going to be scared by the little bills from the street or the street car. He would not be ashamed to belong to a united church which had for its roots a Knox, Hampden, Cromwell and John Wesley.

J. Lawson, Charlottetown, said if the Methodists wanted union let them join a church equal to themselves.

Edward Brown, Portage la Prairie, thought if union was submitted to the people it would be voted down by an overwhelming majority as they were not ripe for it. At the same time he could conscientiously vote for Principal Patrick's motion and still preserve his right to vote against it or for it as he deemed fit, when it went to the people.

Chance for Shareholders

TORONTO, June 8—It is reported that the committee in charge of the liquidation of the Sovereign Bank are negotiating with an English syndicate for the sale of the Alaska Central railway in which the bank has $2,000,000 in shares. If this goes through the shareholders will not only escape a double liability call but will recover 75 per cent. of their investment.

Speaking of his experiences today, General Gamacho, the leader of the party, said: "I was able in two days to get together 240 men. Murphy was confined in a padded cell at the police station and was considerably calmer today than he has been since his frenzied outburst of Saturday.

When taken before judge Homer Wentworth in Somerville today charged with murder in the first degree on five counts, he appeared to be perfectly rational. He pleaded not guilty, waived examination and was held without bail for a hearing later on, no date being set.

OLD NELSONITE IS DEAD

E. A. SMITH, ONCE PROPRIETOR OF TRILBY CAFE.

CAUGHT IN AUTOMOBILE COVERED WITH BURNING OIL

Old-timers in Nelson will learn with regret of the death of E. A. Smith, known as Gus Smith and "Trilby" Smith, from the name of his place of business. He came to Nelson in the spring of 1896, having for several seasons in the canneries at Steveston. In Nelson he opened the Trilby Cafe in the premises now occupied by the Manhattan saloon. After running the cafe successfully for several months he sold out and returned to the coast. There he invented a fish cleaning device, known as the "Iron Chink," a result of his cannery experience.

His death occurred in Victoria last week as the result of an accident of which the Colonist gives the following account:

Mr. Smith and his sister, Mrs. J. Sutcliffe, were on their way out to the Jubilee grounds, where he was going to make a final inspection of his exhibit of the "Iron Chink," a fish cleaning machine which has revolutionized work in the salmon canneries. He found himself up a blind alley and in backing the machine out it struck a boulder and the gasoline tank was perforated. In an instant the two occupants were covered with the flaming oil. Mr. Smith was wedged in by the steering wheel and was unable to extricate himself, but he helped his sister to get out of the car and thus no doubt saved her life. It was some little time before he could be released, by which time he was severely burned on the hands, arms, chest and face.

Both were rushed to the Pacific hospital but the injuries were not considered serious in either case. Yesterday, however, Mr. Smith succumbed as a result of the shocks to his system. Mrs. Sutcliffe had a slight collapse yesterday due to nervousness but is much better today. Mr. Smith, though in great pain, made light of his injuries and joked with doctors, nurses and newspaper men who saw him.

The "Iron Chink" was patented five years ago and is in general use in canneries. It is a great labor saver, doing away with the work of half a hundred Chinamen, and from its sale Mr. Smith made a large fortune."

A brother, William Smith, was for many years city electrician of Kaslo.

STORM AHEAD

Time for Taking Over of Part of Line

COST MUST BE REVEALED

RUMOR THAT COMMISSION HAS SPENT $125,000 PER MILE ON CONSTRUCTION — OFFICIALS OF G. T. P. EXPECTED TO OBJECT TO AMOUNT.

WINNIPEG, June 8—The following appears in the Tribune tonight:

"The street is alive with rumors regarding the Transcontinental railway and it looks as if there was about as big a row on hand as the most fastidious could desire. Railway men and others who have received a hint as to what is doing are greatly excited over the prospects of trouble

The time has come when the Grand Trunk Pacific are expected to take over that portion of the Transcontinental line running from Winnipeg Junction to the city of Winnipeg. Winnipeg Junction, as is no doubt generally known, is the point north of Portage thur where the branch line from Port Arthur connects with the main Transcontinental road which runs from Moncton to the city of Winnipeg. This portion of le great Transcontinental has been built by the government commission. The balance of the road from the Junction down to Moncton is also to be built by the railway commission. Under the terms of the contract the Grand Trunk Pacific people are supposed to take over the road at whatever it has cost the commission to build it and the rental which the Grand Trunk Pacific is to pay on the road is based on the cost thereof. As the time has arrived for taking over that portion from Winnipeg Junction to Winnipeg the Grand Trunk Pacific people are naturally interested in the figures as to the cost thereof. Popular rumor has it that when the Grand Trunk Pacific people found the actual figures they were astounded and are preparing to raise the biggest kind of a row with the government. It is whispered that the cost has been three times what the Grand Trunk Pacific people expected.

It will go far to bear out the suspicion to which voice was given by the engineer who recently made exposures which were ventilated in parliament. It is understood that Colingwood Schreiber, deputy minister of railways, accompanied by Mr Lumsden, the general engineer of the Transcontinental railway, and also Mr. Kelliher, the engineer of the Grand Trunk Pacific, tramped over the line from Winnipeg Junction clear to the city of Winnipeg with the object of discovering what the cost of the road should be. It is reported that the road constructed as it has been by the railway commissioners, Messrs. Young, Reid and Parent, has cost in the vicinity of $125,000 per mile. Mr. Young has been here for some time and it is understood that some interesting meetings have taken place between the engineers and parties interested, interesting developments are expected

CORRECT MISSTATEMENT

EXPRESSIONS ATTRIBUTED TO AGENT GENERAL TRACED

MR. TURNER DID NOT GIVE VOICE TO THEM

VICTORIA, June 8—On April 8, the Manitoba Free Press, Winnipeg, contained the following editorial:

NEIGHBORLY

"The Free Press is in receipt of a typewritten notice of a lecture on the attractions of British Columbia delivered before the Connaught club in London on March 18th, by Hon. J. H. Turner, agent general of British Columbia.

"This notice which is from Mr. Turner's own office, after outlining the lecture pleasantly observes: 'Mr. Turner's lecture should have the best of all possible results in inducing those who leave England for Canada to go beyond the zone of eight months of Arctic and four months hell to the soft and pleasant climate of the western sea.'

"Isn't this neighborly kindly and truthful? Surely Canadian provinces can better employ their agents in London than in having them 'knock' other Canadian provinces."

Mr. Turner's attention having been called to this reckless statement he furnished the following explanation. Writing on May 19th to the secretary of the bureau of provincial information Mr. Turner says:

Dear Mr. Clarke—Your letter of the 26th ultimo received with copy of clipping from the Winnipeg Free Press of April 8th which refers to a lecture delivered by me at the Connaught club in this city on the 18th of March last, and which goes on to state that a circular notice of the lecture was issued from this office containing the following offensive words about the prairie provinces: "Mr. Turner's letter should have the best of all possible results in inducing those who leave England for Canada to go beyond the zone of eight months Arctic and four months hell to the soft and pleasant climate of the western sea."

I think it is hardly necessary for me to inform you that no such notice was ever sent from this office ,nor were such words ever used by me at any time.

On receipt of your letter I at once supplied the Connaught club to get an explanation of such a charge and to obtain the original letter from the secretary of the club of which I enclose a copy. I also enclose a copy of the Connaught club Weekly Record issued on April 3rd, some weeks after my lecture. In this a short sketch of the lecture is given on the last page, but on the first page under the heading "Editorial Chat" the objectionable words referred to do appear, but not as mine nor as coming from this office, but as the editor's own special remarks. This record I have never seen until today, nor was it ever issued from this office.

I may add that in my lecture at the club on the 18th March, which was practically the same as one I delivered at Chelmsford, appears the following words referring to the fruit from British Columbia that was being exhibited here:

"I have said that the fruit sent was not mainly to try and find a market for its sale as such a new market is not at present required for the whole product is rapidly sold to the other provinces of Canada—the great wheat growing countries which in a very few years' time will grow more than sufficient wheat than the mother country can use in addition to the requirements of the provinces."

And further, on the 20th April I received a letter from the mayor of Winnipeg, copy of which I enclose. It will be seen by this that about the time I was charged by the Winnipeg Free Press with running down the prairie provinces I was taking the trouble to inform the mayor of Winnipeg and ask for a denial of shameful statements that appeared in Reynold's Paper here about that city.

I may further add that I have many time advised young men who particularly wish to take up wheat farming to go to one of the prairie provinces.

In summing up, I may state that the objectionable words referred to were not mine, that no notice with these words was ever issued nor seen in this office until the receipt of the Connaught Club Record today. Yours faithfully,

J. H. TURNER.

CONNAUGHT HOUSE
Marble Arch,
London, W., May 18, 1909

Dear Mr. Turner—In reply to your letter this morning I am pleased to be able to give an absolute denial of the statements you are alleged to have made at the Connaught club on the evening of your lecture on March 18 last. I enclose two copies of the Connaught Club Weekly Record in which appears a reference to this lecture and a brief report copied from the Morning Post of March 19 in which there appears no reference to any such statement. It does, however, appear on the first page in the Editorial Chat, which of course has nothing to do with you or what you said.

I am sorry that this should have occurred and I trust my explanation and the enclosures will put the matter right. Regretting the inconvenience.

Hoping you are quite well. I am,
Yours truly,

(Sgd.) A. H. TEE, Secretary.

MISS MYRTLE DELOY
Who Appears With Deloy's Comedians in the Opera House on June 10

The objectionable statement, which appeared in the Connaught Club Weekly Record of Saturday, April 3rd under heading "Editorial Chat," follows:

MR. TURNER'S LECTURE ....

At a social meeting of the Connaught club, and under the auspices of the Connaught colonial circle, there was delivered on Thursday, the 18th March last, by Mr. J. H. Turner, agent general of British Columbia, an interesting lecture on the past and future of that wonderful New England of the Pacific slope. Mr. Turner's remarks were illustrated by lantern and cinematograph pictures of great interest, those of the latter dealing with its poultry farming and salmon fisheries and canneries being specially admired. In the days before the moving pictures were produced no clear idea could have been formed in this country of huge swarms of magnificent living fish that can be so easily caught and turned into shiploads of valuable food for export.

Mr. Turner's lecture should have the best of all possible results in inducing those who leave England for Canada to go beyond the zone of "eight months Arctic and four months Hell," to the soft and pleasant climate of the western sea. We refer to this lecture in another column.

Mayor's Office,
Winnipeg, April 7th, 1909

J. H. Turner, Esq., Agent General for British Columbia, Salisbury House, Finsbury Circus, London, E.C.

Dear Sir—I beg to acknowledge with thanks your letter of March 24th enclosing correspondence with the editor of Reynold's Paper. We very much appreciate your action in bringing this matter to our attention and in taking the steps you have in the endeavor to put it right. This appreciation is shared by the council and citizens generally. Yours truly,

W. SANDFORD EVANS,
Mayor.

DEFINITION OF WHISKEY

Taste and Effect, Not Color or Flavor, Are the Criteria

WASHINGTON, June 8 — Lloyd W. Bowers, solicitor of the United States today submitted to president Taft his opinion as to what the term "whiskey" means in law. In effect solicitor general Bowers, after discussing at great length what the term whiskey means at the time of the passage of the pure food law, says that the public does not consider that added coloring and flavoring matter can make whiskey out of what otherwise is not whiskey. Whiskey is regarded generally and naturally as having a flavor and properties of its own. "There is no more reason for saying that alcohol becomes whiskey because colored and flavored like some true whiskey, than for saying that alcohol becomes brandy because colored or flavored like some brandy." He says on the other hand that the mere addition of harmless coloring or flavoring matter in what is previously whiskey does not destroy its whiskey character unless such addition unduly dilutes or otherwise affects the essential properties of the whiskey. The mixture of whiskey with alcohol or neutral spirits is entitled to the name of whiskey, Mr. Bowers holds, provided the mixture retains a substantial amount of by-products in proportion to the volume of the mixture giving distinctive flavor and properties. He says the addition of alcohol to whiskey is not the introduction of a foreign substance but is merely an enlargement of the properties of the constituents.

President Taft authorized the opinion of solicitor general Bowers to be made public, but announced himself that it was his desire to hear further testimony taken from what is known as "straight whiskey" distillers.

RUSH TO ARROW LAKES

Tide of Settlement to Districts Continues Unabated

G. F. Hammond is having an office built at Nakusp and will move to that place shortly where he will continue to deal in fruit lands. Speking to a representative of The Daily News yesterday Mr. Hammond pointed out that Nakusp was growing at a great rate. An opera house was in course of construction ,the C. P. R. shipyards were located there and it was surrounded by some of the best fruit land on the Arrow lakes while good timber was plentiful. The great influx of settlers of which he had spoken in a former interview granted to The Daily News was continuing. They were coming in from all parts of the American continent and Europe and it was noticeable that a large number were migrating from fruit growing districts in Washington and others of the states.

Mr. Hammond stated that the freight and passenger service given by the C. P. R. on both Arrow lakes was splendid. Superintendent Allan Purvis and Capt. J. C. Gore were making special efforts to give the ranchers along the shores of these two sheets of water every possible facility for the sale of their goods and for the carrying in of stores and farming materials. The C. P. R., continued Mr. Hammond, were to be very highly commended for the improvements they were making in this direction. They were assisting very largely in building up the country and in encouraging settlers to locate there.

Object to Strong Medicines.

Many people object to taking the strong medicines usually prescribed by physicians for rheumatism. There is no need of internal treatment in any case of muscular or chronic rheumatism, and more than nine out of every ten cases of the disease are of one or the other of these varieties. When there is no fever and little (if any) swelling, you may know that it is only necessary to apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely to get quick relief. Try it. For sale by all Druggists and Dealers.

PLEASED WITH DISTRICT

ARIZONIAN TALKS OF ARROW LAKES FRUIT LAND

IS ALSO PLEASED WITH PROSPECTS HERE.

W. H. Hammond, a well-known mining and real estate man of Douglas, Arizona, is spending a few days in the city. Interviewed at the Hume yesterday Mr. Hammond mentioned that he had been spending a couple of weeks on the shores of the Arrow lakes. He found it difficult to express in sufficiently eulogistic terms his appreciation of that part of the country both as a place of residence and for profitable fruit growing. For many years he had been interested in the fruit lands of Southern Texas and he could not help comparing the two countries very much to the advantage of the Arrow lakes. The soil there was ideal for growing fruit and vegetables, the climate was equable, irrigation was practically unnecessary and there was a plentiful supply of pure drinking water and fuel, while in Texas the climate was unpleasantly dry, irrigation was almost essential, fuel had to be imported and water for drinking purposes was frequently little better than ditch water. Again there was the question of price. In South Texas good land cost from $200 to $400 per acre while along the Arrow lakes it could be obtained for from a quarter to one half the cost. Frequently it was stated that the cost of clearing in this district of British Columbia was heavy. Mr. Hammond advised persons holding such opinions to take a trip to southern Texas and to study the difficulties of clearing the scrub brush there. The chief produce of the latter district was oranges, which was a far less profitable crop than apples. Altogether Mr. Hammond said that he considered the Arrow lakes incomparably far ahead of any place in the United States.

Many British Columbians, continued Mr. Hammond, would be surprised to learn of the interest which was being taken all through the republic in their province. Both in fruit growing and mining the tide of capital was certainly coming British Columbia's way. Personally he had a number of friends in San Francisco who were coming to the province later in the summer for the purpose of seeking opportunities for investment and from what he had seen during his trip westward there would be many others from different points arriving here with the same object in view. He was heavily interested at present in copper properties in Arizona but intended becoming interested in similar properties in this country. He had for three years employed a prospector in Queen Charlotte islands locating copper claims and some of them had already made excellent showings. With regard to the price of this metal, Mr. Hammond did not consider that it was likely to go beyond 15 cents. The production was more than equal to the demand and there were mines, in Arizona for instance, which could turn out ten times their present production, if necessary. Nevertheless copper mining in British Columbia had a great future and he would not feel surprised if at the end of ten years from now this province were producing more of the metal than the United States. Mr. Hammond has been watching with a great deal of interest the Sheep creek gold camp and has also kept his eyes open for opportunities in the Lardeau. He has not yet, however, made any investments in either of these districts. Mr. Hammond goes east this morning and will return to this district within the next few weeks.

BIG LONDON HORSE SHOW

THEIR MAJESTIES PRESENT YESTERDAY—WELL RECEIVED

FRENCH TEAM WINS KING'S CUP FOR JUMPING

LONDON, June 8—Olympia was packed to its utmost capacity this afternoon for the gala performance of the third annual international horse show given in honor of the visits of their majesties, the king and queen. The building was elaborately and beautifully decorated with flowers and had the appearance of a huge conservatory. The bright costumes of the women varied with the uniforms of the officers present and made a color scene that was strikingly picturesque and animated. All the foreign officers who were present to compete for the King Edward challenge cup were lined up in the reception hall and saluted their majesties as they entered the building. Practically all the ambassadors and ministers in London were present accompanied by their wives and daughters. The event of greater interest on the program was the jumping competition for the King's cup, a trophy valued at $2,500 in which teams representing the Argentine, Belgium, Canada, Great Britain, France and Italy took part. In this competition teams composed of three officers of the same nationality in uniform riding their own or government horses covered the entire course and took a number of hurdles. This cup is to be held for one year by the winning nation and to be returned to the international horse show by June 1, 1910.

In the competition for a horse exceeding 15.2 hands high to be shown to a broughman, the first prize of $150 was given to Judge Morris's Marie. C. W. Watson's Moonshine was given second honors and a cash prize of $100 Judge Morris also took fourth prize with Sylvanus. American exhibitors also got first and second honors in class 66, pair of horses to be driven by ladies and shown in phaeton with rumble. C. W. Watson was awarded first prize, $200, with Norena and Kittie Grey, while Judge Morris got second money, $125, with Phyll and Mesalla.

The king's cup was won by the French team, the Canadian and English teams running close up.

At the international horse show this morning Judge Wm H. Moore of New York secured second prize with Berkeley, Batum, in class 11, judging of seven pony stallions foaled previously to or in 1906 and not exceeding fourteen hands.

Free and Easy Justice

PITTSBURG, June 8—Taken forcibly in a house in West Pike township near here yesterday by five men, Mollie Ridge was stripped of clothing, covered with tar and feathers and thrown into Pike river, while H. C. Wright, found in the home of the woman was also stripped, beaten and thrown into the same stream. Today Wright and the woman appeared before Justice of the Peace McKean and laid information against J. F., Charles and Clifford Wright, brothers of the male victim and Playford Wright, a cousin. The charges are aggravated assault and malicious mischief. At midnight five persons had been arrested in connection with the tarring and feathering of the Ridge woman and the beating of Wright. All were held in $400 bail for a hearing before Justice McKean.

A WORTHY INSTITUTION

The annual report of the Children's Aid society of Vancouver, just to hand, shows that as time goes on that organization is increasing in usefulness and service to mankind. During the seven years of its existence the society has taken charge of 213 children in various parts of the province, while 12 others have been looked after temporarily. Last year 56 children were received into the institution, the number in it at the close of the year being 61, as against 49 twelve months previously.

That the work of the society expands all over the province and is therefore deserving of general support is shown by the figures for last year. The children committed to the society's charge came from the following places: Nelson, 5; Creston, 1; Fernie, 9; Cranbrook, 1; Kamloops, 1; Meadows, 6; Chase river, 7; Port Simpson, 1; Vancouver, 26. In addition there were 12 children from Vancouver received in charge temporarily, making a total of 32 from that city and 36 from other parts of the mainland.

The object of the society is to take neglected children from surroundings that are demoralizing, such as homes, in which the father or mother or both are confirmed drunkards, or where the mother or father is dead and the surviving parent for any reason is not looking after his or her offspring. The children are first received into the home and in due time are placed with respectable people for adoption, an effort being made to secure homes for them in the country. While the children are in the home they are given a course of instruction such as are children in the public schools and are otherwise prepared to start the battle of life.

The work of the society is one that should appeal to all, but apparently the society is not getting the support which it deserves for it ended last year over $1300 in debt on current account. It is to be hoped that the people not only of Vancouver, but also of Nelson and other mainland cities and towns, will during the present year give this institution the support which it deserves.

CONFUSION IN MILITIA

The unexpected announcement by the government that a limit had been placed upon the number of men who may drill with each regiment in the various camps of instruction this year is causing the greatest confusion in military ranks in the east. Arrangements had already been made by most units to go into camp full strength. Now comes word that only a certain number of men must be taken along while some regiments will not go into camp at all.

An instance of the confusion caused is given in a news despatch to the Toronto Star, the junior government organ in Ontario. This dispatch was dated London, Ontario, and tells of the effect of the order to reduce the number of men to be taken into camp there. This order was issued only a week before the camp was to open. The various regiments who had been ordered there for instruction had already made arrangements for the transportation of their full strength and the contracts had even been let for the various supplies required, including provisions, feed for horses, etc., on the same basis. At the last minute all was changed and the officers were forced to weed out a portion of their men to whom the opportunity to drill will be refused while new arrangements must be made for transportation, supplies, etc.

Proceeding the Star's dispatch says: "For weeks the officers of rural regiments have been using every effort to get every man possible to enlist for the camp. Most of them had all arrangements complete for bringing their regiments at full strength. How all these men are to be notified that they are not wanted is a task that is puzzling the officials, as many of them live in out of the way districts. What they will say when they are told why, and when the process of weeding out those who are to go and those who are not commences is causing the officers great anxiety. They claim that there is no question that many of the young men will drop out of the militia for good, and as every year it is becoming more difficult to secure the right class of young volunteers in the rural districts, the problem is a serious one."

Is not this a most peculiar way of encouraging young men to join the militia and does it not tend to discount the government's assertion that it is anxious to place the militia of this country on the best possible footing?

EDITORIAL NOTES

Says the Coleman Miner: "If the Alberta government still persist in neglecting the Pass, what's the matter with us handing over this Rocky mountain strip to British Columbia and good government?"

The Ottawa Free Press the government organ at the capital says: "Dingley chastised the maritime provinces with tariff whips; Aldrich would chastise them with tariff scorpions. The remedy is to be found in an agreement between the transportation agencies and the maritime producers. Canada can consume all the Canadian potatoes and all the Canadian oysters which Canada can produce if Canada will but apply to the United States the same tariff treatment which the United States applies to Canada."

Mr. J. H. Jackson, the man who was given a job by the dominion government as trade commissioner at Leeds, England, as a reward for his attempt to bribe witnesses to perjure themselves in order to unseat Mr. Donald Sutherland as member for South Oxford, has now been transferred to Shanghai, China. Some people may rise to remark that he has been properly shanghaied.

According to a Winnipeg paper trouble is already brewing between the government and the Grand Trunk Pacific over the cost of construction of the line from Winnipeg to Moncton. Under the agreement the Grand Trunk Pacific is to lease this line from the government for 50 years paying as rental interest for forty years at the rate of 3 per cent on the cost of construction. It is stated that as a result of the graft that is going on portions of the road are costing as high as $125,000 per mile and that the the company, as a result will refuse to pay rental on any such such basis. Just what the outcome will be it is, of course, impossible to say, but it is most likely to be the company's refusal to take over the line at all or at a much lower rental than contemplated in the original agreement.

NOTHING FOR CARRIERS

Transatlantic Steamers Refuse to Carry Grain.

MONTREAL, June 8—An unusual condition is now prevailing in the grain export business. Steamers sailing from Montreal are refusing to carry grain at rates offering and are going out with water ballast. This is due to the fact that the passenger boats sailing from New York are carrying grain at the cost of placing it on board and discharging it. The railways have also reduced the charge for haulage between Buffalo and New York by a cent and the new rate plus the handling charged by New York steamers makes the rate Montreal would have to meet so low that steamship men have come to the conclusion that water ballast is a cheaper freight to carry. The situation is not expected to last very long and as a matter of fact there is very little grain now offering for export, most of the movement being back to the west, where it is required for local consumption.

Madame Stoessel in Default

ST. PETERSBURG, June 8—The Port Arthur benevolent society held a meeting here today and as a result of an investigation found a deficit of $7,500 in the accounts of the society under the presidency of Madame Stoessel. It was decided to lay the matter before the crown prosecutor. Madame Stoessel is the wife of General Stoessel who was in command of the Russian forces at Port Arthur, at the time of the capitulation to the Japanese. It was during this period that the deficit occurred.

SAN FRANCISCANS LEAVE

CONCLUDE TWO DAY ENGAGEMENT IN NELSON

PRESENTATION OF "KING DODO" DELIGHTS LARGE NUMBER

The San Francisco Opera company produced "King Dodo" for the first time in Nelson last night and were greeted with a capacity house. The "book" is bright and the opera contains many delightful musical numbers while the parts of King Dodo and Piola gave Teddy Webb and Miss Mable Day great opportunities to display their exceptional talent. The first and second acts were all that could be desired though the third fizzled out somewhat tamely. This, however, casts no reflection on the acting and singing of the company last night though it was to be regretted that owing to its being the last production during the visit of the Friscans to Nelson on this occasion the management saw fit to cut several songs and to shorten the play by about 45 minutes.

The company left after the show on a special train for Robson en route to the coast.

The play itself was wholly enjoyable. Teddy Webb as King Dodo the first a ruler by divine right only, was extremely well cast in several scenes, notably in the second act when he meets and proposes marriage to or rather has marriage proposed to him by, Queen Lili, cleverly played by Miss Amy Leicester, quite carried away the house. The scene was excruciatingly funny and was one of the greatest successes of the evening. Miss Mabel Day as a gay and youthful soldier of fortune with a propensity for breaking into song and delivering delightfuly amorous ditties was in her element. Miss Day's method of delivery and her beautifully clear voice are inimitable and never fail to hold the audience entranced.

Miss Lucille Palmer as Anette looked as pretty as ever and was in excellent voice. In a duet with her lover Pedro, well acted by Francis K. Lieb, entitled "I Shut My Eyes and Think of You" she was quite at her best and received round after round of applause. J. Russel Powell as the prime minister to Quen Lili played with restrain and care a part well suited to him. Miss Marieta Smith was given a great opportunity as Angela and showed that she possessed a clear and attractive city for playing light parts. Her pretty duet with Piola in the first act "Two Hearts Made One" was one of the brightest and best song numbers in the play. The remaining parts of a lengthy cast were adequately filled. The chorus again showed the improvement mentioned in yesterday's Daily News with regard to singing and could in this respect hardly be improved. Nelson playgoers will be glad to see the San Franciscans here on another return visit.

The company left on a special train for West Robson where they caught the boat for Arrowhead en route to Revelstoke where they appear tonight

NEWS OF THE DOMINION

PENETANGUISHENE, June 8—Albert LaBonte, aged 15, was killed by a bursting fly wheel in the Beck company's mill today.

HAMILTON, June 8 The ratepayers voted today in favor of a civic contract with the hydro-electric commission, also for a board of control. The hospital bylaw to borrow $30,000 was rejected.

BELLEVILLE, June 7—The body of Roswell N. Prost, aged 19, was found in the bay this morning. In the pockets of an overcoat there were four heavy stones and suicide is suspected. The coroner will hold an inquest.

MONTREAL, June 8—The Y.M.C.A. today started a campaign by which it is hoped to raise within the next ten days $300,000 for the purpose of building an annex to the present building and a branch in Westmount. The subscription was opened with a donation of $25,000 from Henry Birks & Sons.

QUEBEC, June 8 — The man who jumped into the river yesterday at St. Levis and drowned himself has been identified as Charles LeComte, aged 30, a reporter on Le Canada of Montreal. His wife is an actress and is playing in a company here. Both were from France.

MONTREAL, June 8—Property adjoining McGill university, sold for the erection of a palatial hotel, was purchased for the university today by sir William Macdonald for a quarter of a million dollars. Hon. Lionel Guest of the hotel syndicate says they relinquished the property at cost price because of sympathy for sir William Macdonald's great benefactions to McGill.

STRATHCONA, June 8—That Alberta college made the provincial university possible was one of the statements made yesterday by Dr. Riddell in his report. He showed that the college had awakened an interest for higher education, that the government had to either give university powers to Alberta college or found a university itself. The college is now affiliated with Strathcona university. A more successful year in every department was shown and announcement was made of a faculty of theology which is being added this year. The conference loyally pledged its support and congratulations.

PEMBROKE, June 8—The governor general was severely criticized for patronizing the Woodbine races by Dr. Choate in addressing the Montreal conference. Dr. Choate denounced the betting evil and said that next session if the government failed to introduce a prohibitive bill a private member would, as they had promises to that effect already. Dr. Choate also commented on the white slave traffic and said that the penalty should be death. He would like to see a law passed making adultery a crime. The speaker was very optimistic regarding the growth of the temperance sentiment in Canada and was thankful for the prohibition of liquor from military camps.

NOT IN THE FLESH.

Mrs. Eddy Will Be With Her Children But Not "in propia person."

BOSTON, June 8—Yesterday the board of directors of the mother church of Christian Science elected Wm. F. McKenzie president, Stephen A Chase of Fall River, treasurer, and John Dittemore of New York, clerk.

The following letter was received from Mrs. Mary Baker G. Edy addressed to the board of directors:

"Beloved Students:—

I thank you for your kind invitation to be present at the annual meeting of the mother church on June 7, 1909. I will attend the meeting but not in propria persona. Watch and pray that God directs your meetings and your lives and your leaders will then be sure that they are blessed in the results. Lovingly yours,

Mary Baker Eddy."

"One Touch of Nature Makes the Whole World Kin."

When a rooster finds a big fat worm he calls all the hens in the farm yard to come and share it. A similar trait of human nature is to be observed when a man discovers something exceptionally good—he wants all his friends and neighbors to share the benefits of his discovery. This is the touch of nature that makes the whole world kin. This explains why people who have been cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy write to the manufacturers for publication, that others similarly ailing may also use it and obtain relief. Behind every one of these letters is a warm hearted wish of the writer to be of use to some one else. This remedy is for sale by all Druggists and Dealers.

That's Where This Store Comes In!

Men, as well as women, like to be well dressed, but many of them don't know how to go about it.

The majority of Clothing stores can't help them much, either—they clothe them, 'tis true—but they certainly don't dress them.

We dress Men well—we spare no pains to do it.

Clothes quality, these days, counts for as much as price in the way of an inducement, when asking for patronage.

If you care for Clothes excellence, Sir, come here.

FERNIE'S PATIENCE GONE

Absurd Delay in Rebuilding Customs House and Post Office

(Special to The Daily News.)

FERNIE, June 8.—Cooler weather has had the effect of lowering the water in the Elk river and all danger of further damage by floods is considered by old timers as passed. The principal bridges in the vicinity have withstood the strain of the turbulent waters well, and very little repair work will be necessary to put them in first class condition. The mill owners have been the heaviest losers owing to the quantity of logs that have broken away from their booms and been carried down the river. It is hoped, however, that a fair proportion of these will be recovered. The school in West Fernie, which has been closed for the last several days owing to the flood, will be opened again on Tuesday, the water surrounding the building having subsided.

A runaway team of horses attached to a wagon load of brick caused quite a little excitement on Victoria avenue on Saturday morning. Fortunately they kept to the roadway, and though bricks were scattered promiscuously over the course taken, no one was injured. The frightened animals were captured after colliding with a lumber pile.

The coroner's jury last night brought in the following verdict in the case of E. Oldacre, who was killed in the coal mines on June 1st: "That the said E. Oldacre came to his death on the first of June about 4.30 p. m. in No. 5 mine at Coal Creek, by being crushed under five mine cars that had broken loose from the tip because the coupling had not been properly made. We do not attach any blame to any one." The members of the jury were: J. D. Quail, Foreman, J. H. Scott, J. L. Gates, H. Gould, A. Cruickshank and Geo. F. Pedlar.

The board of trade held a very successful meeting in the city council chamber last night, over fifty members being present. The question of the post office was taken up, and a resolution was passed instructing the secretary to wire to the minister of public works asking when the work on the new post office and customs house would be proceeded with. The patience of the citizens is being tried to the limit in regard to the completion of the buildings, especially as the accommodation in the temporary building is entirely inadequate to the needs of the public and they would like to know why the government is not going ahead with the building. Another important question was that of the appointment of fire wardens. Only two fire wardens have as yet been appointed for the district and a resolution was passed asking that at least seven be appointed, as at least that number will be necessary to properly safeguard the district. The committee appointed to look after the Arbor day arrangements also made their report and everything is in good shape for the cleaning up of the city.

"A MESSAGE FROM MARS."

Famous English Comedy—Drama to Be Presented Here Monday

The famous English comedy drama "A Message From Mars" will be the attraction at the opera house on Monday evening next.

This play has had a remarkable history. It was originally produced by Charles Hawtrey at the Duke of York's theatre, London, in the fall of 1901. It remained in London three years, one thousand consecutive performances being given. Mr. Hawtrey then brought the play to New York where it remained five hundred nights at the Garrick theatre. It has had four highly successful "road" seasons and is this year making its last tour of the United States. Although business is fully up to the high average of other seasons the present producing company will next season place "A Message From Mars" on view in Australia. Four weeks each will be played in Sydney and Melbourne, twenty-five weeks in the provinces, and four weeks in New Zealand.

"A Message From Mars" has been known for eight years as "The Play Beautiful" and has always deserved the title.

It is being presented this season by a notable special company including the famous English comedian, Beresford Lovett, and Margaret Doane, who was leading lady with the original London company. The scenic investiture is elaborate.
