ALL RECORDS SMASHED BY ATTENDANCE AT FRUIT FAIR

Thousands Surge Through Buildings and Cover Grounds in Black Mass at Greatest Exhibition Ever Held in Interior—Splendid Exhibits in All Sections Again Create Tremendous Interest—Free Attractions Will Take Place Today Wet or Shine—Rock Drilling and Band Contests Begin

All records in the history of the Nelson fruit fair were broken by the attendance yesterday, the number passing through the doors approaching 3,500. And this was in spite of the fact that during the morning and afternoon the weather was somewhat unfavorable.

As on the first day everything passed off without a hitch, atnough a few of the free attractions had to be cancelled in the afternoon owing to the rain. Today there will be a roof on the platform in front of the grand stand so that all the acts will take place as scheduled. The Midway drew big crowds all day, every show doing a tremendous business.

So great was the crowd in the exhibition building, on the main floor, in the annex and in the galleries that it was with the greatest difficulty that some of the more striking exhibits could be approached. As on the first day the fruit displays were the centre of attraction, everyone expressing the strongest appreciation of the magnificent showing which has been made. Although the plate exhibits in this section proved the greatest attraction to the public the fruit growers and expert horticulturists showed most interest in the commercial pack of apples and other fruits which this year is very far in advance of that of any previous exhibition in the interior of the province.

Bands in Competition

Much interest was shown in the band contest, the Lethbridge and Nelson bands playing delightful selections. Today the Cranbrook city band, the third and last of the contestants, will give its rendition of an excellent program upon which it has been practicing for months. Prof. Camillo Zaccaro, conductor of the Fernie band and one of the foremost musicians in the west, is here as judge and last night at a banquet held in the fair building expressed his appreciation in glowing terms of the splendid playing of the Nelson band.

Packing Contest

In the afternoon the apple packing contest, for which the provincial government offers special prizes, drew a large crowd among which was W. T. Scott, deputy minister of agriculture. The judges were Prof. Lewis and J. F. Carpenter. Mr. Greenwood took first prize with a high score and J. T. Bealby was second.

Banquet Winds up Day

The day was brought to a fitting and successful close by a banquet of the fair directors and pioneer fruit growers of the district which was held in the western gallery of the exhibition building. Guests of honor at this event were A. S. Goodeve, the recently elected member for Kootenay; W. E. Scott, deputy minister of agriculture, and some of the judges.

J. E. Annable president of the association was in the chair, and spoke of the tremendous efforts that had been necessary nine years previously to organize the Nelson Agricultural and Industrial association. Press and public alike, he said, ridiculed the idea that Nelson could successfully hold a fruit fair. He credited James Johnstone with being chiefly responsible for the first show having been made a success and spoke eloquently of the later work of Mr. Johnstone, John Hyslop, W. R. McLean, A. D. Emory, William Irvine, W. S. Pearcy, Alex. Carrie, J. J. Malone and F. A. Starkey which had resulted in the magnificent exhibition which was now delighting so many thousands of visitors.

In a brief speech Mr. Johnstone said that the president had given him too much credit and claimed that it was to Mr. Annable that the thanks of the community were very largely due for the inauguration of the annual fruit fair.

Building Must be Enlarged

W. E. Scott, deputy minister of agriculture, eulogized the exhibits at the fair in Kootenay's wonderful fruit growing possibilities and spoke of the work of the provincial government which had established a number of experimental fruit farms in British Columbia. These, he said, were not so much for the benefit of the experienced fruit grower as for that of the new settler.

The fruit fair was growing so enormously he declared, that the present exhibition building was quite inadequate to accommodate it; the exhibits were altogether too crowded and a larger building would have to be erected.

With a glowing compliment to the ladies of the city for the splendid work which they had done in forwarding the interests of the city, A. S. Goodeve said that it was the energy, industry and talent of the fair sex that had made such a great exhibition possible. Without the ladies, he said, there would be very little growth, progress or prosperity. He complimented them on the excellent banquet which was provided by the Ladies' Hospital aid.

Magnificent Exhibition

He congratulated the fair directors on the magnificent exhibition and spoke of the great strides that had been made in the fruit growing industry in the glorious Kootenay valley, where its mineralized soil supplied with waters from the primeval glaciers in which were collected the fertile strength and power of ages, had made the district such a great agricultural country. The provincial government, through its department of agriculture, was doing a great work in assisting the industry, said the member-elect.

Prof Lewis spoke of the fine fruit exhibited and of the importance and stability of agriculture. The great need in the industry, he declared, was organization, the exercise of business skill and business methods.

Short speeches were also delivered by W. M. Coats, poultry judge, H. Guy Woodward, manager of the Parker shows, Camillo Zaccaro, F. G. Fauquier, James Johnstone, F. A. Starkey, J. J. Malone, William Irvine, Edward Grizzelle, P. J. Gleazer, W. G. Foster, W. R. McLean, Raymond T. Hickes, John Hyslop, A. D. Emory, O. B. Appleton, Hugh W. Robertson and J. R. Hunter.

Votes of thanks were passed to the udges, to Mr. Goodeve for his presence at the fair, to the secretary, who was complimented upon the splendid organization of the fair arrangements, and to the president and directors of the association.

Among the others present were D. C. McMorris, J. F. Carpenter, J. F. Thompson, Alex. Carrie, and W. S. Pearcy.

Good Showing of Manufacturers

Not the least interesting of the galaxy of exhibits is the manufacturing section in which some of the chief industries and businesses of the city and district are represented. The majority of these exhibits are in the main building and are attracting a great deal of attention.

Of the various exhibits in this class it is safe to say that none caused more favorable comment nor aroused more interest than those of the Nelson Jam factory and the Kootenay-Columbia Preserving works, both Nelson industries, relying almost entirely upon the fruit grown in Kootenay for their business.

Nelson Jam Factory

J. A. Macdonald, the proprietor of the Nelson Jam factory, has a remarkable exhibit of jams and jellies, all made of pure fruit and sugar. This booth is situated near the entrance from the main building into the annex and hundreds of persons stopped in front of tastefully arranged tiers of bottles and cans, and took advantage of the opportunity which is offered to sample the products, yesterday.

Mr. McDonald is showing jam made of peaches, gooseberries, raspberries, green gages, strawberries, huckleberries, crab apples and other fruits. This is put up in both bottles and cans. The small individual bottles of strawberry jam excited much interest. Beautifully clear and tasty jellies, made from apples, crab apples, red currants and other fruits are also much in evidence.

The exhibit of lemon marmalade and orange marmalade and mince meat is also a feature of the showing at this booth, while Mr. McDonald is showing in bottles of unusual size crushed fruit put up specially for the use of soda water fountains. Mr. McDonald said last night that he had just received an order for a carload of the products of his factory from a big house on the prairies.

K.-C. Preserving Works

Another splendid advertisement for Kootenay fruit is the display made by the Kootenay-Columbia Preserving works, which is in a large booth near the main entrance. Here are to be seen dozens of bottles and cans, effectively arranged in tastefully decorated surroundings, filled with jams, jellies and canned products from practically every fruit that can be obtained in the Kootenays.

Some of the varieties of fruits in bottles and cans are strawberry, raspberry, blackberry, black currant, red currant, green gage, red plum, crab apples, apples, gooseberries peaches, cherries and huckleberries.

This company is making a big display of canned tomatoes, gooseberries, pears, cherries, rhubarb, crab apples and gooseberries, while cherries are to be seen bottled in syrup in natural form and ready for the table.

Visitors to this exhibit will meet Harry Beach, superintendent of the company, who will be pleased to show the jams. In passing the booth the beautiful show cards upon which is displayed in colors a reproduction of a photograph of a Proctor ranch should be noted.

Next to this exhibit is the display of Singer sewing machines. As usual this booth was one of the centres of interest among the feminine visitors who were shown all the latest improvements to this modern labor saving device.

Exhibit of Young Trees

Fruit growers are displaying great interest in the display of young trees from the famous Coldstream ranch at Vernon and from the well known Riverside Nurseries at Grand Forks. G. Leece, local agent, is in charge of the former display and is showing a number of apple trees oof different growths. All appear to be most healthy and show a virility of growth which is eloquent testimony to the fertility of the soil in which they are raised and to the care which must have been expended upon them. Black currant and red currant bushes are also to be seen here.

At the Riverside Nurseries booth is another splendid display of young trees, all of which show a remarkably healthy and vigorous growth. The trees with three year old roots and one year tops are particularly fine. It was a revelation to many people yesterday to know that at Grand Forks, within such a short distance of Nelson such splendid young trees were being produced and the agent in charge took many orders. The roots of the trees are unusually healthy and long and the tops show a similarly satisfactory growth.

The only exhibit typical of Nelson as a boating centre is made by the Elford Boat company which is displaying a beautiful light launch, tastefully finished and with a guaranteed speed of nine miles per hour.

Brackman-Kerr Milling Co.

The Victoria Chemical Co., Ltd., the local agents of which are the Brackman-Ker Milling Co., has an interesting exhibit of chemical fertilizers and spraying material. At this booth are shown specimens of vegetables grown on ranches where the company's fertilizers are used. M. H. Dobie, for some years a lecturer on chemical fertilizers for the provincial government, and author of several books on the subject, is n charge of the display.

Soft Drinks Galore

Thorpe & Co. have one of the most tastefully arranged booths at the fair. Here are displayed hundreds of bottles of soft drinks in a variety which is little less than astonishing. Drinks of all kinds are to be seen here. Champagne cider, wines made from raspberries and other fruits, soda waters, mineral waters in endless variety, ginger beer, ginger ale, and dozens of drinks too numerous to mention are arranged tier upon tier in a gayly lighted and prettily decorated booth.

Fine Electrical Display

At Ringrose's display of electrical materials, which includes chafing dishes, irons, heaters and toasters, is a complete model switchboard, fitted up as if the booth were a mine or mill with many rooms. Much interest is being shown in the electric vacuum carpet sweeper, which is said to be the most perfect cleaning machine in the world. The whole is prettily lighted with lamps in vari-colored shades.

The Bell Trading Co.'s booth is proving a haven of rest for many tired persons who are provided with refreshments in the form of delightful cups of tea and biscuits. Every visitor to this stand is invited to sample the fragrant bohea.

Other Exhibits

A large display is that made by the Kootenay Lake Sash & Door factory, which is making an exhibit of woodwork of all kinds. Mouldings, stained glass windows and cabinet work is a feature in this booth.

Flour and a dozen varieties of chicken food are the main features of the splendid exhibit of the Taylor Milling & Elevator Co. Bags of snowy white flour from the big mill of the company at Lethbridge fill the greater part of the stand which is in charge of S. P. Pond, local manager of the company.

James Malcolm has a fine display of Studebaker delivery wagons, small and large buggies and children's miniature express wagons.

A large and attractive display is made by J. M. Ludwig, who is showing a vast variety of leather goods which includes grips, purses, harness, large travelling trunks and similar articles. Suspended in the centre of the booth is a model of one of the fastest motor boat on the lake, the "Wonder" owned by Ludwig & Fesser.

Representative of Kootenay's Mines

Although the mineral exhibit is not quite as large as in former years it is very fairly representative of the different classes of ore produced in the Kootenays and the territory adjacent. The districts making the greatest showings are the Slocan and the Sheep creek and the Bayonde camps. The individual mines with the greatest showings are the Perrier on Cottonwood creek, which has a magnificent showing of free milling ore and the Granite-Poorman, which is displaying a large number of specimens of the same class of ore.

Solid Block of Silver

The exhibit in this section by the Trail smelter was the centre of interest. It takes up about one-quarter of the space of the booth and shows the various stages through which the ore passes before being sent to the bullion market.

In the centre of the exhibit is a large block of solid refined silver which tips

EVERYONE MUST REGISTER.

It is pointed out in connection with the registration of electors that is being carried on at the Conservative committee rooms, which will be kept open for this purpose until Saturday next, that there is no property qualification for voters in this province and that everyone who wishes to exercise the franchise must register.

All that is necessary to be placed on the list is that the elector shall make affidavit before a commissioner for taking affidavits for election purposes stating that he is a British subject of the full age of 21 years, of the male sex, that he has been domiciled for six months in the province and that he has lived for one month in the electoral district. He must also affirm that he is not registered in any other district in British Columbia.

If registered in any other district a transfer should be obtained immediately.

CALGARY PLACES ORDER FOR COAL

Will Purchase Fifty-five Thousand Tons—Now Impossible to Obtain Domestic Coal

CALGARY, Alta., Sept. 27—Arrangements have been made by the city to secure 55,000 tons of hard coal and Mayor Mitchell has issued a letter through the papers urging those who possibly can to place their orders as soon as possible. This coal is being sold to consumers at a small profit so as not to enter into competition with regular dealers.

A visit to the chief coal offices in the city reveals the fact that is is impossible to obtain domestic coal for at least four days, while in many cases orders booked for 10 or 15 days cannot be filled. Some agents have a good supply but they cannot obtain teams to deliver it fast enough, while others will not take any further orders as they are already behind owing to inability to get their supply through. Most of the supply is coming from Alberta mines. The chief sources are Taber, Lundbreck and Edmonton.

GOODEVE'S MAJORITY STILL MOUNTING

A. S. Goodeve's majority, with a number of polls still to be heard from, is 1,112, and it is believed that it will reach at the final count, 1,200.

DEPARTURE IS POSTPONED

Earl Grey Promises to Revisit Canada

MANY BILLS WILL FALL BY WAYSIDE

Change of Government Will Affect Many Bills—Toronto Majorities

OTTAWA, Sept. 27.—The announcement that Earl Grey has postponed the date of his departure from October 6 to October 12 in view of the political situation now existing at Ottawa, was made by the governor-general himself tonight at a farewell banquet tendered him by the Canadian club of Ottawa.

The banquet was held in the restaurant of the house of commons and was presided over by Judge McTavish, president of the club, and attended by 300 club members and consuls-general of various countries represented at Ottawa.

R. L. Borden and Sir Wilfrid Laurier occupied positions to the right and left of the chairman and Earl Grey.

The health of Lord Grey was proposed by Sir Charles Fitzpatrick.

Earl Grey, in responding after personal references and after bearing testimony to the affection with which he would regard Canada announced his intention of disregarding all written convention, which forbids a former governor-general from revisiting Canada. He gave a warm eulogy of Canadian clubs, describing them as a church of civic and national righteousness. Speaking in warm terms of the empire he spoke with the utmost satisfaction of the Canadian action during his term of office in taking over the garrisons of Halifax and Esquimalt. This, he said, was evidence of a new spirit. Canada was dependent for the continuance of her political liberties on the supremacy of the British navy. Some might say that her liberties depended on the Monroe doctrine, but the Monroe doctrine, like the independence of the Dominion, floated on the British navy. He did not know at what price the Monroe doctrine could be valued if the British navy were swept from the sea.

Time was coming when the people of Canada would demand to be admitted into fuller participation in the obligations and responsibilities of the empire. The people of England, he added, were content to carry the burden sngle handed until the people of the Dominions chose to come to their assistance.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier, in responding to the toast of Canada, paid graceful tribute to his excellency, coupling with him the names of Lady Grey and daughters.

First Speech Since Election.

Mr. Borden, in his first public speech since the election, opened with a cordial personal tribute to the splendid energy and vigor which Sr Wilfrid Laurier displayed in the struggle just terminated. He spoke in eulogy of Earl Grey's career in Canada and agreed with Sir Wilfrid Laurier that there were laurels still to be won by him in the empire. Turning from personal matters, he dwelt on the splendid way Canada had surmounted the difficulties of the past; those difficulties he said had been greater than those which had confronted the United States in earlier periods of their career. The growth of Canada would proceed upon autonomous lines in the development of the empire. No Dominion would be called upon to surrender any powers of self government, but progress would be made in the organization of trade and defense.

Bourassa Independent.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—Henri Bourassa, in a cable to the Financial News, declares that the Canadian Nationalists will continue to fight for the principles for which they have been struggling and will maintain an attitude of complete independence. "If any government," asserts Mr. Bourassa, "despises the rights of the people we shall fight it as we did the Laurier government."

Legislation Fails.

OTTAWA, Sept. 27.—A great deal of proposed legislation will fall by the wayside or be amended as a result of the change in government. Bills left over include a proposal to guarantee the bonds of the Canadian Northern for that section of its line from Edmonton to the Barzeau coal fields at a rate of $13,000 a mile for the first 50 miles and of $25,000 a mile for the remainding 100 miles; a bill to amend the Chinese immigration act; a bill to amend the weights and measures act; a bill to regulate the sale and manufacture of explosives; a bill to amend the companies act; a bill respecting copyrights; a bill to extend bank charters for another 10 years; a bill to prohibit the use of white phosphorous in the

DEMONSTRATION AGAINST WAR

Italian Mobs Stop Trains Carrying Troops

BUILD BARRICADES STONE CAVALRY

Thousand Arrests Made--Milan Newspapers Unable to Publish

CHIASSO, Switzerland, Sept. 27.—Today's advices from Rome state that the anti-military demonstrations have assumed a grave character in the provinces of Ravenna and Forli, Italy, where the Socialist and Republican elements predominate.

A mob, after stopping the trains which were transporting the troops being moved in connection with threatened trouble with Turkey over Tripoli stoned the cavalry. The rioters used stones to form barricades in the streets.

At Vigevano, province of Pavia, the manifestants paraded led by a woman, and singing anarchistic songs. They stoned the carabineers who attempted to head them off, wounding some of the soldiers. A Jew who sought to interfere got his ears boxed. The revolutionarists are backed by the anarchists and are attempting to provoke anti-military disorders and have compelled the government to make a real display of force to check their plan.

The general strike proposed for today in protest against a possible war with Turkey failed. Only a portion of the workmen deserted their posts.

The Milan newspapers failed to publish today, lacking news because of the censorship, and this led to alarming reports. The extremists among the agitators being prevented from holding public meetings, had recourse to private reunions where there were inflammatory harangues. Some of the speakers went so far as to say the expedition to Tripoli was prepared entirely in the interest of the dynasty. In a meeting at Rome Mary Ryger, the Socialist, caused a storm of invectives by crying "Long live Bresci," the murderer of King Humbert, and adding that the movement regarding Tripoli had been planned by King Victor Emmanuel to assist his father-in-law, King Nicholas of Montenegro, "who wished the defeat and humiliation of Turkey in order that he may enlarge his own dinky kingdom."

At Rome and Florence there were insignificant disorders in the streets.

Lie on Rails.

About 1,000 arrests have been made throughout Italy. All the reservists answered the call and entered their barracks without untoward incident, but trains used to carry them were held up by mobs. The women and children were particularly desperate and in one instance threw themselves across the railway tracks in front of the trains daring the engineers to run over them.

Excitement at Tripoli.

LONDON, Sept. 28.—The correspondent of the Chronicle sends a late dispatch from Tripoli. It says:

"All business here has stopped and great excitement prevails. The Turkish steamer Derna entered the harbor within view of the whole fleet, which apparently had been watching her for many miles. She landed 100 soldiers, several boxes of ammunition and rifles. It is said that the fleet will now take steps to occupy the place. At any moment the fleet could have stopped the Derna, but refrained, I understand, under orders from the Italian government.

Like Wild Fire.

"The news spread like wild fire and the Turkish soldiers were swarmed about the harbor yelling their threats against Italy and the Italians. The letter are momentarily in fear of attack. The Italian consul is withholding all newspapers from Italy in order to avoid increasing anxiety. Turkish families were preparing to flee, but the local committee of the union of progress issued an order that Turkish subjects must on no account leave the town. They should be forcibly restrained if necessary.

"The Turks are endeavoring to induce the Arabs to contribute to the defense of the town with men and goods but have not met with much success. The Constantinople correspondent of Renters Telegram company sends a dispatch dated Tripoli which gives the report of an impeding Italian landing. It is confirmed that Germany is using her good offices to secure a settlement."

The British foreign office at a late hour last night was without news of fresh developments in the crisis.

Italy Seeks Satisfaction.

MINISTER WEEPS OVER WRECK

Angrily Criticizes Defective Organization

DEFLAGRATION THEORY SCORNED

Congratulates Captain of Republique on Promptness in Flooding Magazine

TOULON, Sept. 27.—Now that the work of rescue is over the attention of the authorities is occupied in establishing the cause and the responsibility for the disaster to the battleship Liberte and in devising a means to prevent a recurrence of such accidents.

M. Delcasse, the minister of marine, who visited the wreck today, was moved to tears at the sight. It is said that he was exceedingly angry and vehemently criticized the defective organization which was not adapted to modern progress, evidences of which met him at every turn.

M. Delcasse believes that it was not the deflagration of "B" powder that was responsible for the explosion. The causes ,he said, were to be sought elsewhere. He congratulated the captain of the battleship Republique for his presence of mind in flooding his magazines as soon as he heard of the explosions on the Liberte, saying he was quite at a loss to understand why the commander of the battleship Brennus had once been censured for similar action.

Landing Ammunition.

In conformity with the order of Vice-Admiral Bellu the warships were active all day in landing their own ammunition. The Liberte carried in all 125 tons of powder, of which 20 tons for the forward 3.05 guns was stored in the magazine next to a room containing paint and other inflammables. An officer of the Liberte expressed the belief today that the fire was smoldering in this storeroom for a long time. It gradually heated the partition of the magazine against which were stacked the 3.05 shells. When these became sufficiently heated they exploded, thus accounting for the first explosion, which preceded the blowing up of the magazine.

Ten bodies were taken out of the wreckage. Navigation in the harbor is dangerous on account of the huge masses of wreckage which the force of the explosion hurled in all directions.

The battleship Gaureguiberry in the channel moorings today ran on a fragment but got off unaided. The warships accordingly have been ordered not to change their position for the present. The damage done to the Democratic by the explosion has been found to be more serious than at first thought and the vessel will be dry docked. Divers have found a large steam launch sunk between the armored cruiser Pothua and the battleship Massena.

Decomposition of Powder.

PARIS, Sept. 27.—La Patrie today quotes Admiral Marquis, formerly commandant of the Toulon naval station, and now inspecor general of materials and member of the superior council of the navy, in an interview as attributing the explosion on the battleship Liberte to the chemical decomposition of old powder. So far as he knows the admiral says there was no evidence of a fire except from the magazines.

Adds to Mystification

TOULON, France, Despite the opinion of the naval officers it is confirmed that fires broke out on two other battleships on the same morning that the Liberte was destroyed. This adds to the general mystification.

Lieut. Granier who was temporarily in command of the Liberte at the time of the explosion was asked by one of the junior officers some time before the final explosion if the magazines ought not to be flooded. He replied "wait." When Lieut. Granier finally gave the order to flood the magazine it was too late.

The launch from the cruiser Leon Gambetta, which was sunk by the explosion was raised today and found to contain three bodies. One was that of the engineer whose hand still held the motor lever.

HINDUS WANT WIVES

VANCOUVER, B.C., Sept. 27—A delegation of Hindus will shortly leave for Ottawa in a final effort to persuade the federal government to so amend the immigration regulations as to permit wives of Hindus to enter Canada. The decision to make the appeal was reached at a meeting of the Sikh Temple here. Though subjects of the King they declare they are deprived of any semblance of home life. There are 6,000 Hindus in British Columbia.

Danderine

Makes your hair grow long, heavy and luxuriant and we can prove it

Get a 25 Cent Bottle Now and Forever Stop Falling Hair, Itching Scalp and Dandruff

Hair Becomes Soft, Fluffy, Lustrous and Abundant After a Danderine Hair Cleanse

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow abundantly long, strong and beautiful. It at once imparts a sparkling brilliancy and velvety softness to the hair, and a few weeks' use will cause new hair to sprout all over the scalp. Use it every day for a short time, after which two or three times a week will be sufficient to complete whatever growth you desire.

Immediately after applying a little Danderine all dandruff will disappear, all itching of the scalp will cease and there will be no more loose or falling hair.

If you wish to double the beauty of your hair in ten minutes surely try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one small strand at a time, this will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or any excessive oil—In a few moments your hair will be wavy, fluffy and abundant and possess an incomparable softness, lustre and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

If you care for beautiful, soft hair and lots of it surely get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter—A real surprise awaits you.

SPOTS SPURIOUS BILLS AT GLANCE

For Years Mrs. Leonard Has Been Arbiter in That Line in United States Treasury.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27—Mrs. Willa A. Leonard, for 47 years a detector of counterfeit paper money in the treasury, has resigned at the age of 71 because Secretary MacVeagh ordered that she put her hat and wraps in a locker in the basement.

The locker was too small for Mrs. Leonard's big hat. Besides, the treasury people were taking up carpets, having bare floors, which clattered as they were walked on, disturbing her and her co-workers in the delicate operation of looking out for counterfeits.

During her 47 years in the treasury Mrs. Leonard handled $1,500,000,000, with a loss of but $10.

Mrs. Leonard was born July 28, 1840 in Pennsylvania. She attended private school until she was 14. At that age a phrenologist told her she possessed wonderful preception of form, color and distance. In 1858 she graduated from an academy near Philadelphia. She taught school until 1860, when she married. In 1861 her husband enlisted and went to the front. She never saw him again. She doesn't know just where he was buried, but it was on one of the battlefields of Tennessee.

In 1864 General Frances E. Spinner, then United States treasurer, offered her employment in the redemption division of the treasury at $600 a year. She accepted, and in July, 1864 her official career began.

Getting Acquainted.

"I was put to work counting money paper," said Mrs Leonard, at her home in D street, southeast.

"I did this for two years, and then was shifted to the work of redeeming paper currency. This is where I utilised the bump the phrenologist said I possessed,

"My instructions were to count accurately the bills and look out for counterfeits, there being a number in circulation at the time. Getting to know a bank bill is like getting to know a person. If you see a person several times a day and every day for years you will know the color of her eyes and hair, whether she uses rouge and whether her teeth are even. I knew what each bill issued by the government should look like. Many people do not know that every one dollar bill issued is exactly like another, the features of the portraits, the numbers, the letters and the lather engraving border, everything on them. The same is true of the $2 and $5 silver certificates, $10 notes and $20 gold certificates. If the printer gets too much ink on his plate and the bill shows up dark or smudged it is cancelled. I never had to take a second look at a bill to tell whether it was good or bad.

Her First Counterfeit

"The first counterfeit I discovered was a $500 bill, a counterfeit of the issue of 1896. It was almost perfect, having but two what might be called great imperfections. It was in a batch of bills which had come in from New York for redemption. In the batch was a bundle of $500 bills. I had got half through the bundle when I noticed that one of the buttons on the coat of the bust portrait on one of them was not perfectly round. I caught it at a glance. I took a second look and found that there was a blurred toe on the Goddess of Liberty's foot. I extracted the bill from the bundle and when I had finished with the counting I again took up the imperfect bill. I found that it was printed on genuine fibre paper. Nowhere else could I discover a blemish. The bill was sent up to the treasurer and a further examination was made. Later when the counterfeiters were run down it was found that all the counterfeit bills of denominations of $500 had been made of $1 bills washed and bleached.

A Bad $1,000 Bill

"I discovered a counterfeit bill of $1,000 denomination much in the same way. It was a counterfeit of the issue of 1860. There were not many of them out. I was counting a batch of bills when I noticed that in the word "treasurer," a part of the line of letters below the registrar of the treasury's signature reading 'Registrar of the Treasury was 'pied' or jumbled. There never was a bill issued by the government where the figures were not perfectly aligned. A second look showed that there were a number of imperfections.

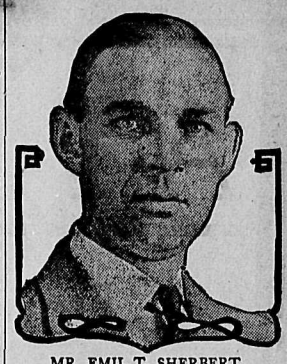
"The general run of counterfeiters, however, fall down on the portraits. This is particularly true of the $1, $2, $5, $10 and $20. There never were two artists who could get the same expression on a subject's face, and there never was an engraver who could make an exact duplicate of his own work. The features of the subject would not be the same. That is how bad bills of these denominations generally are caught.

"In the counterfeit $1 bills there is something different about the features of Grant and Lincoln, who adorn all bills of that denomination. There never was a counterfeit $2 bill on which the portrait of Washington was exactly the same as that on those issued by the government. The same is true of the $5 bills and the portrait of the Indian and of the $10 bills and the portraits of Lewis and Clark and the bison.

"The detection of counterfeit $20 bills also is comparatively easy. On this bill there is a large portrait of Washington, and a slight imperfection of the features is easily seen at a glance.

Few People Know This.

"One of the simplest methods I used in detecting counterfeit bills was to watch the serial number of the bill and the check letter in running a bundle over. This is something the laity ought to know. It will aid them in detecting counterfeit money. The last two figures of a serial number always determine the check letter, which is in turn found in several places on a bill. You take the last two figures and divide them by four and the remainder, one, two, or three, indicates the check letter, A, B, or C. If there is no remainder the check letter will be D. The numbers are so made up that they always will divide this way.



MR. EMIL T. SHERBERT

Ludington, Mich. (Special): "Two years ago I consulted 19 physicians and each and every one informed me that I had about six months to live, being badly affected with tuberculosis. I started using Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey for relief at the suggestion of a friend, and to-day I am entirely cured, and I know it is because of this medicine, as I took nothing else. When I started using it I weighed 139 pounds, and to-day I weigh 184 pounds."—Emil T. Sherbert, 427 Dowland St.

In 1860—more than half a century ago—the formula of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey was discovered. It was also discovered that it was a great curative agent in the treatment of tuberculosis, pneumonia, grip, coughs, colds, other throat and lung troubles and in all stomach troubles. The merit and honesty of an article that has been before the public for such a length of time cannot be questioned. Its fame has spread the world over, and it stands to-day the most celebrated and most successful medicine known.

All liquor dealers, or direct, $1.50 a large bottle. Medical booklet and doctor's advice sent free on request.

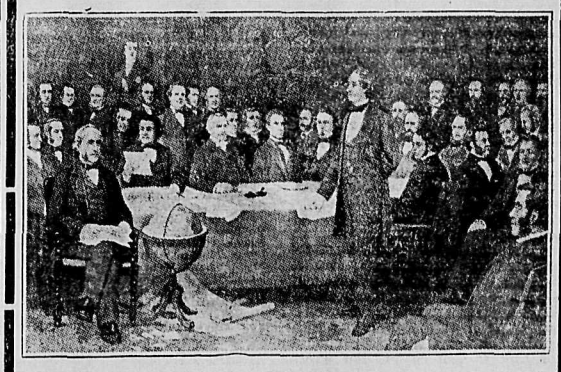
This Great Historical Picture Should Be in Every Canadian Home



Founders of the Dominion

Size 19 by 25 inches, suitable for framing.

The illustration above unfortunately gives very little idea of the clearness and beauty of the fine reproduction we offer.

Sir John A. Macdonald, Canada's great statesman, stands in a characteristic attitude in the foreground. Grouped around him are Hon. George Brown, Sir Oliver Mowatt, Sir Charles Tupper and the other famous Fathers of Confederation. Evidently they are discussing the terms on which the weak and scattered provinces shall unite to form one great Dominion, the 44th birthday of which we celebrated on July 1st.

The different faces are clearly shown and the attitudes are natural and lifelike. On the panel below are printed the names and a few facts about each, the whole forming a very valuable and complete record.

All the members of this great group have passed away with the single exception of Sir Charles Tupper, but their work lives after them.

Some of the new tailored serge dresses are showing broad bands of embroidery around the hips. Blue serge is trimmed with light blue; red with a brighter shade, and so on.

Silk seal plushes are extremely well suited for making up long outer garments to cover the many veiled costumes that will be worn next fall and winter by fashionable women.

In the water, theatre and boudoir caps have their counterpart in the rubber bathing cap, edged with a coquettish frill; and the satin bandeau that on land is worn everywhere to prevent the ravages of the breeze, gives a very fetching touch to the swimming costume, making beautiful an otherwise ugly headgear.

Tremendously high stocks will, it is predicted, take the place of the V-shaped neckwear of the summer and these tall stocks are made of the sheerest laces, well boned and finished at the top with a satin hem or cording which keeps the thin material from getting shapless and slimpsy. Such stocks should be fitted well to the neck, and at the back there should be tiny loops and buttons, the only pin allowable being a handsome brooch, which may be thrust in at the top more in evidence than ever. PLENTY OF CHANCE FOR WOMAN FARMER

John Craig of Cornell University Says There's Room For Her in Garden and Field.

Is there a real opportumry for women in gardening? asks John Craig of Cornell university, in the Tribune Farmer. His answer is an emphatic yes. There are very few phases of gardening work which women cannot actually do themselves. Prof. Craig tells of spending a very interesting day a short time ago in looking over a German horticultural school for women managed entirely by women. This school, a private institution, almost wholly supported by the fees of its students, is located on a fertile tract in the valley of the Rhine not far from the historic city of Bonna. Here we find a tract of 30 or 40 acres devoted to fruit, vegetable and flower growing having substantial school buildings, with well equipped laboratories for plant studies as well as for home economies.

All the instruction in kitchen, garden or orchard was given by women and all the planting, pruning, cultivating. It was not a school to which pupils were sent by their parents, but where young women with a love for the plant and a desire to learn the art of growing came of their own free will. There were two workmen on the place who did the heavy spading and trenching, of which under German systems of gardening, there is a good deal. The joyous way in which the pupils engaged in the outdoor work was a revelation to the visitor.

What lines of horticulture endeavor offer the largest inducements to women who wish to engage in gardening? There is a wide range. There may be omitted from the discussion such positions available to women, as those which are found in florists' establishments, with seedsmen, with nursery men and the like, for these partake more specifically of the purely clerical type of labor. It is more agreeable for the plant lover to come in direct contact with the live and growing organism than the purely commercial phases of the business.

Among the various departments in the group of commercial possibilities open to women in the field of horticulture we may recognize three special opportunities. For the person who has a love for growing fruits, the entire range of bush fruits (or, speaking more generally small fruits) are in the language of commerce, feasible propositions for the average woman. Special markets for these fruits can be developed in all the moderate sized towns and the great world's market of the big cities is ever open but the special market is the particular type which the woman gardener ought to cultivate.

Strawberries for special purposes, as for canning, those having richer color and well marked flavor characteristics and firmness of flesh; strawberries for table, possessing handsome appearance and high quality, though the texture may not be firm enough to make them good commercial varieties, and strawberries which are adapted for special form of culture, can all be patronized, studied and cultivated to advantage by the woman gardener who aims to develop a high class personal market.

One man in the small fruit business has for many years made a specialty of marketing raspberries with the hulls on. He grows a variety suited to this manner of handling, and markets his variety in pint boxes at the price ordinarily secured by other growers for quart boxes.

Our point of view in growing gooseberries should largely be changed, for up to this time we have been cultivating them for the green fruit market, but not to be eaten ripe out of the hand, as strawberries and raspberries are eaten. A person who is acquainted with the luscious quality of a large well ripened gooseberry will appreciate these remarks. There is an opportunity for developing a market for the ripe fruit as well as for the green "jammed" article. Women should lead the way in this departure from old habits.

At first sight, when realizing that our markets are freely supplied with garden and truck stuff grown in the south, it would appear that there is comparatively little opportunity for the special market gardner, but what has been said in reference to fruits is equally true in this department. There is always a market and always a demand for the well grown attractively packed radish, for the high quality garden pea and for the sweet and pleasant flavored corn notwithstanding the competition of the southerly located trucking regions. Products for the masses are essentially different from products for the high class, personal type of market.

There is also an opportunity for women to utilize space in cellars and in greenhouses for the growing of mushrooms. There is constant demand for this nutritious and interesting type of the fungus vegetable.

When we consider the tremendous variety of attractive inhabitants of this great field, the great difficulty is to select our plant companions. Each group has so many attractions from the intrinsic point of view as well as from the commercial outlook that a choice is exceedingly difficult. Perhaps those which lend themselves more particularly to the qualifications and ability to the woman gardner are violets, carnations, asters, peonies, sweet peas and roses. The first two are greenhouse crops. Violets, it is true, may be grown without greenhouse equipment by using pits and properly prepared frames.

For carnation culture of course, the glass house is essential. The demand for violets and carnations does not seem to be affected by the fads and fancies of fashion. It is steady and continuous. The efforts of the florist in improving these two interesting and beautiful groups of plants are rewarded with such abundant success that fashions from within are constantly brought to the public, and this fact is almost sufficient to justify a prophecy of perennial continuance of favoritism toward these plants by the public.

The majority of dressy waists are made with three-quarter sleeves, though some full length styles are noted, these models are made with some fullness at the elbow, tapering off to a snug finish at the waist.

For a Small Investment

We recommend the purchase of a couple of lots within the city limits of the city of Moose Jaw. We consider Moose Jaw has the best possibilities of any city on the prairie at the present time, and anticipate a very great increase in the population within a very short time. When you consider the payroll at the present time is about $300,000 to a population of from 17,000 to 20,000 you will realize what we mean

Lots one block from Main street selling at $250. Terms, $25 cash, balance monthly. This is an A1 investment.

Call and see us in our new office in the Madden Block about October 1st. We want to get acquainted. You may have something to sell, and we may be able to help you. Or we may have something to sell which is just the thing you have been looking for. Call anyway and look around.

NELSON SECOND IN AUGUST BUILDING

Next to Medicine Hat in List of Thirty-one Canadian Cities in Percentage of Growth in Volume

TORONTO, Sept. 27.—Building permits taken out by 30 Canadian cities for August, says the Financial Post, show a total of $11,796,411 as compared with $8,349,254 in August, 1910, an increase of $3,447,157, or 41.3 per cent. Seven cities, including Fort William, Lethbridge and Moose Jaw, report a decrease. In percentage of increase, Medicine Hat is far in the lead with 734 per cent, Nelson, B.C., taking second place with 461 per cent, and Edmonton following with 356 per cent. Five other cities, Stratford, Kingston, Calgary, Vancouver and Victoria, show an increase in excess of 100 per cent. In actual figures of increase Vancouver takes first place with $781,883, Calgary coming next with $486,552. Edmonton follows with $477,540. The next city is Winnipeg, with $455,200, and Montreal with $415,668.

GOES TO NELSON—IS GIVEN FAREWELL PARTY

(Special to The Daily News.)

SALMO, B.C., Sept. 27—The recent rains are beginning to tell on the roads.

A large number from Salmo have gone from Salmo to attend the fair.

Salisbury & Lakey, Salmo's livery men have several teams at work hauling pipe from town to the Mother Lode mine.

A large party from Salmo and Erie picnicked at the Meadows Sunday and report a splendid time.

Last Tuesday night the tin can brigade appeared in full force to welcome Mr. Isnor and bride.

D. McK. Murphy is soon to leave for Vancouver. His many friends wish him success. He is a general favorite and will be greatly missed.

On Sept. 25 the youth and beauty of Salmo and Erie spent a most enjoyable evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCaslin the occasion being a surprise party for Miss Mabel, who has gone to take up duties in Nelson. The evening was spent in games, music and dancing, vocal solos were rendered by Messrs. R. W. Muffiin, M. Donaldson and R. B. Bell, an excellent supper was served by the ladies at a late hour the many friends of Miss McCaslin after wishing her good luck, returned to their homes, feeling that they had spent a delightful evening.

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. W. A. Bustin entertained the wee tots in honor of the first birthday of her little son, Arthur. A number of ladies were present and report a splendid time.

The bureau drawer can be made to open easily and noiselessly by rubbing it with common soap, and the same device can be used upon doors that stick.

To keep sliced Spanish onions from falling apart, take toothpicks and stick them through each side to center, then dip in eggs and cracker crumbs and fry in batter.

If shelves and floors of closets are wiped with water which is hot with cayenne pepper, insects will be kept away. Borax and alum are good to put into the cracks.

To save gas, remove the tip and insert a small piece of cotton in the pipe and replace the tip. This lessens the pressure, and a more even and softer light is obtained.

FASHIONS AND FADS

NEW YORK, Sept. 27—The fall season is rapidly approaching, and the big shops display a large variety of autumn goods, in anticipation of the demand for such goods with the coming of cooler weather. The models shown in the shops, however, are of the most commonplace type, without being intended to foreshadow the fashionable styles of the coming season. The models shown by the more exclusive houses along Fifth avenue are somewhat more definite in style, but the ideas expressed are all more or less tentative. Nothing of the authoritice character is to be expected until later, after the famous Paris designers have had their autumn openings.

Double faced materials are much in evidence and there is every indication that they will be extremely fashionable during the coming season. Some of these new double faced stuffs are wonderfully beautiful in texture and color. Many of these materials in roll have a fleecy zibelline finish, and the color contrasts in the two faces are admirably harmonious. Some particularly good color effects are obtained in the rich browns, backed by tawny yellow tones and indeed the yellows play a rather important part in the season's color chart.

The late summer has brought yellow into decided prominance abroad, tones of lemon, straw and various brownish and greenish shadings having been exceedingly modish in combination with white, and this tendency, as well as the vogue of beige in combination with white or gray will doubtless find reflection in the autumn fashions.

The most beautiful double-faced materials seen so far are certain silk serges of pronounced diagonal cord and of wonderfull lustre, softness and richness, having body without bulk. These silks are in decided yet perfectly harmonized color contrasts. A beautiful deep taupe, for example, may have for backing just the right tone of violet, or green or blue. A seal brown shows a reverse side of exquisite purple or dull, soft orange. A very deep blue is combined with rich fuchsia, red or malachite green. Iron gray consorts with the deep straw yellow, which has been a summer fad in Paris. Black is faced with any and all of the soft yet glowing fashionable colors.

Changeable colorings also promise well not only in the taffetas, which have been a summer mania abroad and have been taken up to a considerable extent here, but in other silks as well. Moires showing more or less pronounced cording in their weave and changeable coloring are among the loveliest of the new silks, and there are also changeable bengalines and some very effective louisines in color shot with black or white.

Two especially successfully offerings in the louisine weave, which has not been much to the fore in recent seasons, and which is much more supple than it originally was, are in a light silvery gray, shot with black and white, which merely needs shifting shadowy play over the moonlit surface, and in a yellow approaching the new biscotte tone, though with a touch more of bronze shot with black.

One is inclined to put confidence in the success of the grays this season. Exquisite shadings of this color are to be found among the loveliest of the new materials which cannot fail to appeal to the taste of the fastidious.

Purple seems to be extremely popular and is likely to be done to death on that account. Much of the early millinery and many of the advance model frocks and accessories sound this purple note, and while one must admit its effectiveness, the woman who cannot afford to buy early in the season and throw aside later, will do well to be cautious and to avoid the lure of the purple.

Wash suits are featured for the fag end of the summer season by nearly all the big shops. Judging from the numbers displayed, women are favoring suits of linen particularly the rough weaves, which do not wrinkle so easily as those of smoother texture. Aside from the large collars and cuffs made of contrasting colors or striped linen, there is little or no trimming on the most popular models. Many, in fact, are built on manish lines and have the simple, notched collar and coat sleeves typical of a man's garments.

Natural colored linen seems to be most popular, although white and the varying shades of purple and lavender are seen to some extent. Havana brown, navy, delft and light blue and a few of the darker shades are also included in the list of popular colors.

The newest suits from abroad show a jacket averaging from 28 to 30 inches in length. These are to be the most notable in early fall designs. They are shown in varying styles, some being straight out from the shoulder to the hips, while others are made to give the short-waisted effect. This short-waisted style is principally used on the dressier suits, while the straight cut is used on the plain and practical ones.

A good deal of attention is paid the collars, revers and cuffs, which are frequently of satin or silk, while some are of linen in a contrasting shade. Plain black satin remains in favor for trimming.

The incroyable revers are again much in evidence and some of the new models show a rever on one side only. While the sailor collar is not so prominent as it was, it has not been entirely eliminated. Many pointed collars are shown, and the full models will probably show the large round collars with hood effects at the back. The skirts adhere to the present fashion of straight lines, close fitting about the hips, but show a little more width at the hem.

The new double collarettes are made of tulle, mousseline de soie or of embroidered handkerchief linen. Most of them show edges of beads or of fine black fringe joined to the material with rows of French knots or beads.

Embroidered muslin fichus of tulle, with a narrow flounce outlining them, are the order of the day. They give a novel character to the tunic, and make a dress of broderie anglaise or embroidered lawn of last season seem quite up to date. The sleeves are short and the elbow finished with a narrow flounce of either tulle or muslin to match the fichu, and the neck is "filled in" with plain tulle or net, surmounted by a high collar band well boned and neatly fastened at the back.

ADDITIONAL SPACE REQUIRED.

One of the things which this year's fair has demonstrated is the absolute necessity for an addition to the present building before another year has passed. While it has been possible to house all the exhibits this year, the fact remains that there is considerable crowding, which in some cases has to a certain degree, at least, spoiled the effect.

Were next year's fair to be of the same magnitude as this year's, increased accommodation would be a necessity. But there is no reason to doubt that next year's fair will be as far ahead of this year's in the point of the number of exhibits as this year's is ahead of last year's. The history of the Nelson fruit fair has been one of increasing success. Each year's fair has been bigger and better than that of its predecessor, so that a furtner improvement may be looked for in 1912.

The duty of the directors is to prepare their plans with the least possible delay. Having done this they should lay their necessities before the provincial department of agriculture, which has always shown such interest in fairs of this kind and such readiness to assist in every way possible. While The Daily News cannot in any way be taken as speaking on behalf of the government, it still believes that any reasonable request will receive attention. But whether it does or not, additional space for exhibits must in some way be provided before the next annual fair is held.

Ten Years Ago.

(Extracts from the Nelson Daily Tribune of Sept. 28, 1911.)

The secretary of the Ymir Mines, Limited, has issued a circular showing that the profit for the last month was $26,000.

There are 40 cases on the list for the county court on Monday. Of these 19 are new cases since the last sitting and there is but one which is for a greater amount than $100.

The Tribune is supposed to be a business enterprise. It pays all its obligations, whether for labor, supplies or machinery. It tries to treat its patrons fairly and liberally. It is not under obligations to anyone aside from its patrons. From and after this date the deadheads and deadbeats who imagine they have the free run of the office will be made to understand that their room is better than their company.

Mayor Carlson of Kaslo arrived in Nelson yesterday on his way to Winnipeg. His mission is to pick up men for the construction of the Lardo branch for which he and "Dick" Porter have the contract.

Each week sees long skirts comin, more and more into favor.

RECORDS SMASHED AT FRUIT FAIR

the scales at 1,144 ounces. There are also iron concentrates, refined lead, flue dust briquettes, copper matte, blue stone, pig lead and a cathode of refined lead.

The Copper-gold mines exhibiting are the Queen Victoria at Beasley, the Horseshoe in the Lardeau district, the Dandy on Toad Mountain, the Snowshoe at Phoenix, the Le Roi, the War Eagle and Iron Mask and the Idaho at Rossland.

Silver-lead is represented by the famous Payne mine near Sandon, the Gallagher at Ainsworth, the Olson at Ainsworth, the Lucky Boy at Trout lake, the Molly Gibson, near Nelson, the Big Hope in Lardeau, the Steele group in East Kootenay and the Lightning Peak in Fire valley.

Gold Ores

From the Bayonne gold camp are exhibits from the Deleware, Jackpot, Ray and Josephine, Alaska-Yukon, Echo, Carolina, Ohio, Bayonne and Sunrise; and Sheep creek is showing specimens of gold ore from the Golden Belle, the New Discovery, the Ore Hill, the Devlin group, the White Sign, the Pipe Dream, the Vancouver, the Clyde-Belt, the Bonanza, the Sunshine, the Summit, the Bullfrog and the Joint group and a specimen of gold-silver ore from the Silver Dollar mine.

Other gold-silver ores shown are from the Arlington at Erie, the Liby at Ainsworth, the Monument in the Slocan, the Handy group in the Lardeau, the Providence at Greenwood and the Athabasca near Nelson.

There is a fine specimen of antimonial silver from the Reco near Sandon, of gold-silver-zinc ore from the Richmond-Eureka near Sandon, the Glen*garry at Ainsworth and the Minnie L* on Cottonwood creek. The Fern mine is represented by a good specimen of free gold ore and other mines sending gold ore are the King George V, on 49-Creek, the Shoestring on Eagle creek, the California and the Gamble on 49-Creek.

Many Others Represented

There is a specimen of iron ore from Crawford bay and gold-silver-copper ore from the St. Louis and the Ymir Belle at Ymir and of copper carbonates from the Eureka on Eagle creek. From the Highlander at Ainsworth is silver-zinc ore while specimens of silver-lead and zinc are from the Old Timer, the Tenderfoot and Highland at Ainsworth. The Enterprise on Slocan lake and the Broadview and Silver Cup in the Lardeau contribute specimens of silver-lead-gold ore and from the Molly Hughes in the Socan is a specimen of native silver and the Ottawa in the Slocan is showing high grade silver ore. From the Abion at Ainsworth is a specimen of silverzinc ore.

One of the most interesting specimens is that from P. A. Lindgren's property the Linson View, in the Lardeau. This is grey copper ore in which the values, according to an assayer's certificate exhibited, total $418.65 to the ton.

Floral Decorations

The section devoted to flowers and to floral displays is always one of the most attractive at the Nelson fair. This year the display is no exception to the rule large crowds congregating around the exhibits morning, afternoon and evening.

By all odds the prettiest display made is in the table decoration class in which first prize is carried off by Miss Bealby who has designed a most pretty exhibit. The display is of pink hothouse flowers, dainty ferns and the glorious golden red Virginia creeper.

Virginia creeper takes a prominent place in the exhibit of Mrs. C. W. Bourke of Harrop which wins the second prize in this section. Mrs. Bourke has taken the creeper as a background with nasturtiums of practically the same colors as the creeper to complete the design. It is, perhaps, not quite as dainty an exhibit as that which carries off the first prize but it is unquestionably one of the most artistic table decoration exhibits that have been made in Nelson. The selection of the colors and the arrangement of the flowers and creeper is perfect.

Dahlias are not seen in quite as great a profusion as usual, though F. E. Homersham has a nice showing of the cactus. There is a good showing of asters in which H. E. Rock takes first prize and Mrs. D. C. McMorris second honors.

Mrs. William Rutherford has a fine display of hardy perrennial flowers and J. T. Bealby makes a good showing with annuals.

Professionals Make Big Displays

In the section open only to professional florists J. T. Bealby and E. Grizzele divide honors about equally. Each has a splendid display, especially of flowers and plants which are not for competition. Such exhibits always add greatly to the attractions of the flower sections.

Manual Training Exhibit

In the main building one of the most interesting exhibits and one which is very much out of the ordinary at a fruit exhibition, is the manual training demonstration by Nelson school boys which is being conducted every day under the tuition of R. F. Goldfinch, teacher of this branch at the public school.

In this booth there are eight benches at which the boys' work is in full view of the public. The youthful carpenters are divided into three classes, the senior and junior and the beginners.

Class A consists of Henry Johnson, Smith Curwen, Charles Reilly, Charles Bradshaw, Hilton Nagle, W. Scott, Geo. Roe and Arthur Symons.

Those in class B are Allan Dill, Gordon Bradshaw, Tommy Madden, Glen Wick, Lloyd Newburn, Bernard Schermerhorn, Alex. Swannell and Tony Deferro.

Class C consists of Nelson Ball, How*ard Murphy,* William Barker, Frank Arnald, Frank Cryderman, Reggie Dill, Robert Sanderson and David Douglas.

Work for Prizes

For their work during the fair a prize is to be offered to the best worker in each class, three prizes having been donated by the Nelson Hardware Co. and R. G. Joy. The seniors in class A are making a tooth brush rack, class B is engaged on a round ruler and class C is to be seen engaged in what is known as the first exercise. This morning the beginners will work from 10 to 12; the juniors will give a demonstration from 2 to 4 this afternoon and in the evening from 6:30 to 8:30 the seniors will be at work.

Adjoining this booth is a display of work done by the scholars at the schools which includes clay modelling, fancy paper work, drawing and sewing.

Sandon Team Best Drillers

In the first heat of the rockdrilling contest last night which was witnessed by one of the biggest crowds ever seen on the grand stand W. Oates and P. Cawley of Erie drilled 32 inches; A. J. McGillivray and H. Burg of Sandon, made 39 1-8 inches, and the top notch was reached by Erickson & Johnson, a team from Sandon who drilled 40 3-4 inches. Tonight Germain & Ross of Wallace, Ida., and Rozeck and Nyberg of Rossland will be the contestants.

E. W. Widdowson and J. J. Walker are the time keepers and Frank Phillips is the judge.

FAIR NOTES.

The lighting of the fair buildings and grounds and the illuminations outside the building, which were arranged under the supervision of R. A. Brown, city electrician, are remarkably good this year.

The merry-go-round, recently purchased by the fair association, is doing a tremendous business. It is on Vernon street, immediately adjoining the fair building to the west.

SUCCESSFUL DANCE

There were about 80 couples present at a very successful dance given in the Eagle hall last night by the I.O.F. During the ball A. S. Goodeve, who is a charter member of the order, addresssed the gath*ering. W. E. Scott, deputy minister of* agriculture, was also in attendance. An appetizing repast was served by the lady companions of the order in the Eagle banqueting hall.

FIVE YEARS SENTENCE FOR ATTEMPTED MURDER

MONTREAL, Sept. 27.—Joseph Viallancourt, the school teacher who was found guilty in the court of the King's bench *last week on a charge of attempted mur*der, was this morning sentenced to five years in the penitentiary by Judge Trenholme.

Villancourt was arrested some months ago on a charge of attempting to murder Alfred Colmbe whom he met on the street and invited to his room to have a drink. Colmbe accepted the invitation and after several drinks had been served a fight started in which Colmbe was severely wounded.

CONDITIONS SATISFACTORY IN DISTURBED CHINESE PROVINCES

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—Conditions in the disturbed Chinese province of Sze-Chuan continue satisfactory as far as foreigners are concerned, in the opinion of Rear-Admiral Murdock, commander of the American Asiatic fleet.

He cabled the navy department today announcing the arrival of the New Orleans, his temporary flagship, at Shanghai from Hankow, which was as far up the Yang Tse river as it was able to go safely. He reported that the torpedo destroyers Bainbridge and Barry, Dale and Vulture, which it was thought might be required for service on the Yang Tse if the trouble extended, also had arrived at Shanghai.

FARMERS' BANK SECREARY BACK IN TORONTO

TORONTO, Sept. 27—Clark Smith, secretary of the board of directors of the defunct Fermers' bank was brought back this morning from Vancouver by Detective George Guthrie. He appeared in the police court when the magistrate examined the warrant which had brought him from Vancouver and which showed that he had been indicted in the other court on a charge of conspiracy in connection with the promotion of the defunct bank. The prisoner was remanded until Friday.

DUKE WILL WATCH MINTO CUP MATCH

(Special to The Daily News.)

VANCOUVER, B.C., Sept. 27—The Duke of Sutherland and Lord Charles Beresford and party will attend the Vancouver-Tecumseh Minto cup game on Saturday. Ten minutes after the reserved seat plan was opened this morning the entire seating accommodation of the grand stand with the exception of 50 tickets was sold out. The opinion is growing that the Tecumseh team will prove much more dangerous opponents than was at first believed.

DRILLED INTO MISSED HOLE

(Special to The Daily News.)

VANCOUVER, B.C., Sept. 27—The Britannia Mining & Smelting Co., is defendant in a suit being heard here which was not concluded in which Peter Collins, a miner, seeks $20,000. While drilling he accidentally struck an unexploded charge of dynamite and lost the sight of both eyes. He alleges negligent inspection of missed holes in the tunnel, while the company reply that the plaintiff is guilty of contributory negligence.

EARL GREY GOING

QUEBEC, Sept. 27—So far as is known here there will not be any change in the date of Earl rey's sailing for England after relinquishing his office as governor general and arrangements are being made to give his excellency an enthusiastic sendoff on Oct. 5. It is announced that he will hold an official reception at the citadel in the morning, lunching later with Sir Francis Langelier at Spencerwood. In the afternoon a garden party will be given in his honor by the lieutenant governor and Lady Langelier. The mayor and city council will invite his excellency to a civic reception at the city hall at night when an address and presentation will be offered the retiring governor general.

HOUSEHOLD NOTES.

Covering a pan when fish is frying is apt to make the fish soft. A solid firm meat, which is at the same time flaky, is what a good cook likes.

Ammonia should not be used in the evening, or near a fire if the bottle is uncorked. It is unflammable and the fumes are not specially healthful.

If a plate of sandwiches is prepared beforehand for a luncheon it is a good plan to pile them on a plate and then wrap the plate and all in waxed paper.

A good rule for making sponge cake is to devote exactly the same time to beating the yolks of the eggs as it takes to beat the whites to a perfect stiffness.

In place of grape fruit for the first course at luncheon, serve the pulp of orange, ice cold, in sherbet glasses. Add a little lemon juice and chopped mint.

Fresh green vegetables will retain their bright color best if cooked uncovered. The steam confined beneath the cover of the kettle deadens any fresh coloring.

If furniture has grown dull and streaked, try rubbing it with a mixture of equal parts of turpentine and coal oil. It polishes quickly and is much less expensive than the prepared polishes.

If a piece of woolen material is scorched, rub the spot with soft bread, when the scorch disappears, follow with a soft brush.

Not everyone knows that tan shoes can be died black. The cost is small and the result is that the shoes will serve through the winter.

If a sweater needs washing, try drying it on a coat hanger. It will not be so likely to stretch and will keep its shape much better.

Make Your Shopping Easy

You can save many weary steps and much time and trouble by reading the advertisements in The Daily News even more carefully than you have before.

They are well worth reading, and most of them are mighty interesting, too.

Some of them tell of special prices, others mention new goods or articles regularly carried in stock that perhaps you never knew could be had there.

You might be actually inside a store and still not know that they were offering certain special prices, or had just opened up certain fresh goods, or new styles. But if you read their ads. you will be kept posted.

Perhaps there are some stores you ought to know better than you do. Read their ads in The Daily News and you may find that it vill pay you to deal there more.

It is safe to say that there is hardly a day that The Daily News does not carry some ad that would save you money—sometimes a few cents, sometimes a few dollars.

Is it not worth your while to find that saving?

manufacture of matches; a bill to amend the telegraphs act; a bill to amend the civil service act; a bill to authorize the creation of a commission to operate terminal elevators; a bill authorizing the taking over of certain branch lines of railway in the maritime provinces by the intercolonial.

So far as the greater number of these measures is concerned they will have to be gone over by the incoming government and considered in council as matters of policy, but there are some of these bills which are purely departmental and others are non-controversial, which may be taken up by the new government, the explosives bill and that regarding white phosphorus, for example. The principles of either of these measures have been accepted by Conservatives and it would not be surprising to see them taken over and pushed to a passage. The copyright bill may also come in the same category. But the terminal elevator measure and branch lines proposals will certainly be redrafted, because they involve high questions of public policy. The bill to renew bank charters may possibly be adopted by the new finance minister, it being well threshed out in committee two sessions ago, but some amendments may be made to suit the view of the new administration.

Date of Resignation

OTTAWA, Sept. 27—It is not likely that a definite decision as to the date the government will resign can be arrived at until Hon. Frank Oliver and Hon. William Templeman arrive in the capital, as it is not known what business they have to dispose of. George Parent, defeated Liberal, says he will not be a candidate in a bye-election.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier drove down to Rideau Hall this morning to see Earl Grey with the object, it is understood, of ascertaining whether it would be possible for his excellency to delay his departure for a few days.

May Lower Tariff

NEW YORK, Sept. 27—The New York Journal of Commerce today says:

"We are at liberty to open the door or lower the barrier to Canadian products for our own benefit. Canada cannot help sharing in it and will take more of our products in return unless she wilfully increases obstruction and that would hurt her more than us. The best response to Canadas' refusal to trade on better terms is to make the same concessions to all the world that we offfered to her without asking anything in return. There would be positively an advantage in it for us and it would do no harm that others would benefit too."

Referendum on Navy

OTTAWA, Sept. 27—The majority of politicians who have been in the capital since the elections express the opinion that the navy question will be settled by a referendum vote. French Conservatives and Nationalist members from Quebec say they are willing to abide by the decision of the majority of the people. In the meantime nothing is likely to be done by the incoming government with the contracts for 11 vessels which were on the point of being awarded by the retiring administration.

for a series of incidents. Among the incidents are the arbitrary arrest of Italian subjects at Constantinople and their imprisonment, despite the Italian government's remonstrances; the seizure of an Italian barque in the Red sea by a Turkish gunboat; the abduction of a young Italian girl from her parents by an Ottoman and the refusal of Turkey to compel her release, and finally the insecurity of Italians in Tripoli.

Italy, the embassy set forth, demanded satisfaction for these affronts and guarantees for the future. An inquiry was lodged as to whether Germany would make a friendly intervention. It was answered that a definite reply to that question was not easy. Italy, it was said, was able to treat alone with Turkey and did not solicit assistance from any other power, even that of her good ally.

CLAIMS STAKED AT BOUNDARY LAKE

Boundaries of Bayonne Camp Are Extended Southward—Claims Recorded Last Week.

The mineral belt to the south of the city, in the Salmo, Ymir and Erie districts, had practically a monopoly of the prospecting activity last week. Near Boundary lake, south of the head of Summit creek and about one and a half miles north of the international boundary line two claims were staked by Hiram S. Remer and Colin Smith in what is believed to be an extension of the Bayonne camp. Following are the claims recorded with Stephen H Hoskins, mining recorder:

The Abalone at Beasley, by John Smallwood; the Magazine No. 1, near Salmo, by A. W. Myers; the Magazine No. 2, near Salmo, by John Mitchell; the Tiger, on Lost creek, by J. J. Malone; the Pittsburg, on Fawn creek, by Alex McGregor; the Blue Bird, near Boundary lake, by Colin Smith; the Boomerang, near Boundary lake, by Hiram S. Remer; the Silver Clef, on Ymir mountain, by John Swanson; the Bertha on Ymir mountain, by Charles A. Swanson; the Hidden, on Sproule creek, by Dan McKiernan; the Slick, near Salmo, by Joseph Dunn and Sarah J. Cawley; the Red Cross, near Erie, by Louis Matassa; the Blue Bell, near Hall Siding, by J. J. Hickey; the I. O. U. on Deer creek by Murdock McLeod; the Budget, on Deer creek, by P. Wilson; the Spokane and the Spokane No. 1, near the head of Cultus creek, by K. K. Laib and R. M. Laib; the Beach, on the south side of Kootenay river, by J. O. Patenaude.

INTERESTS IN DEER CREEK AND YMIR CLAIMS SOLD

A. H. Tuttle of Ymir has sold the J. B. C. fraction, on Wild Horse creek, to Joseph C. Boeese of Evanston, Ill.

H. M. Billings has purchased the interest of M. S. Horton in the Aspen, Zincton and Marie claims on Deer creek.

Charles E. Desrosiers has sold a half interest in the Ymir Mint claim on Wild Horse creek to Archibald Boemner.

VEINS OF EXCELLENT COAL HAVE BEEN UNCOVERED

(Special to The Daily News.)

FERNIE, B.C., Sept. 27—The strike and its possibilities have again become a matter of much concern to the people of Fernie and all the Pass district.

The coming election of next year's officers for district 18, seems to be the only thing of much interest to the miners, but that is quite a long way off and it is hoped that a settlement may be reached before that event comes round.

While the mines have been idle Mr. Wilson has been pushing investigations for new seams of coal at all the camps of his company and has been rewarded by some very encouraging results. At Coal Creek, a fine vein of excellent coking coal has been uncovered about 260 feet above No. 1 seam, which in quality it resembles very much.

At Morrissey a seam of coal running from 80 to 90 feet in thickness has been uncovered and tunnels are now being run into it to determine its commercial possibilities. Preparatory work is also being pushed at Michel and Mr. Wilson will have all the big mines of his company ready for extensive operations whenever the labor situation has been satisfactorily cleared up.

CROWDED OMNIBUS CRASHES THROUGH BRIDGE INTO SEINE

PARIS, Sept. 27—An auto omnibus occupied by about 20 persons was crossing a bridge over the Seine near the Notre Dame cathedral today when suddenly it left the roadway and crashing through the parapet, fell into the water. The omnibus was closed with the passengers inside. The bodies of five persons who had been drowned were recovered and 12 persons, alive but unconscious were taken from the water.

Y. M. C. A. WORK IS BRANCHING OUT

Bookkeeping and Shorthand, With Business English Will Be Taught —Boys' Department.

Every department of the Y. M. C. A. is branching out in its work this year. Two new courses will be given in the educational department, one of which is bookkeeping. This class will cover two hours each week under G. H. Playle, chartered accountant, the first meeting being Tuesday, October 2, at 7:30 o'clock in the Y. M. C. A. building. The other course will be shorthand and business English, under the direction of J. Cotter, a former teacher in the Success business college of Winnipeg. The Pitman system will be taught, and the first meeting will be held Monday evening, starting at 8:30 o'clock. This class will meet twice a week, and both courses will extend over a period of six months.

Several new classes in Bible study will also be instituted, and a boy's department will be opened, the large front room on the second story being set aside for their use, social evenings being scheduled at stated intervals. Games and plenty of good reading matter will be provided.

THESE COMPANIES MAY BE STRUCK OFF REGISTER

Having failed to meet the requirements of the provincial companies act, the following will be struck off the register unless cause is shown to the contrary at the end of two months from September 19.:

The Canadian Pacific Navigation Company, Limited; Vancouver Improvement Company, Limited Liability; the Victoria Theatre Company, Limited; the Cambrian Coal Company, V. I., Limited; Point Comfort Hotel Company, Limited; the French Co-operative Company, Limited; the Sayward Mill & Timber Company, Limited; the British Pacific Construction Company, Limited; the Victoria Electric Illuminating Company, Limited; the Kootenay Mining and Smelting Company (foreign); the Kootenay Lake Reduction Company (foreign); the Duluth & St. Paul Mining company (foreign); W. H. BAD SPILL AT COLUMBUS MEET

Two Horses Fall Just in Front of the Grandstand—Drivers Escape Serious Injury.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 27.—Following the sensational accident which occurred to the mare, Pansy Silver, there was another sensational spill yesterday at the fall trotting meeting of the Columbus Driving association.

It occurred in the first heat of the three-year-old trotting division of the horse review futurity and caused a thrill of horror, as it occurred almost directly in front of the crowded grandstand. The horses were finishing their mile with Margaret Parish in front, when Main Leaf, which was second, stumbled and fell within 50 yards of the wire, throwing Curtis to the track. At almost the same time Baroness Helen, just back of the distance flag, also stumbled and went down, throwing Tommy Murphy over the rail. The other drivers by good work managed to get around the fallen horses.

Neither of the horses was hurt and Curtis escaped uninjured, but Murphy was badly shaken up. With assistance he walked from the track, but was placed in bed at once. Among other injuries it is known that he sustained a broken rib. The judges placed Main Leaf fourth, as it fell inside the flag, but Baroness Helen was distanced. Margaret Parish won the heat, but Main Leaf took the next in slow time and was cheered by the crowd. Then Atlantic Express, an equal favorite with Main Leaf, won the third heat and the race went over until tomorrow on account of darkness.

UNITED STATES POSTMASTER MAKES SUCCESSFUL FLIGHT

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—Frank Hitchcock, postmaster general of the United States, qualified as an aerial mail carrier on Long Island yesterday. While a large crowd cheered vociferously the postmaster general took a seat beside Captain Paul Beck of the United States army, in the latter's aeroplane at the Nassau boulevard aerodome, carrying 78 pounds of mail matter, without the slightest mishap. The two made a seven-minute flight to Mineola, where, upon signal the postmaster general dropped the mail sack to one of Uncle Sam's carriers.

When the postmaster general returned to the aerodome, he was roundly cheered and the large crowd rushed onto the field to greet him.

"The time is certainly coming," he said, enthusiastically, "when we must depend upon the aeroplane for carrying mail. It is not effective yet, but it is being developed in a marvelous way, and I think we shall soon find it practical." Another feature was the flight by Lieutenant Milling, U. S. A., who broke amateur records for carrying a passenger. He and a private of his regiment were aloft for one hour 51 minutes and 42 seconds.

STRAY TOPICS FROM NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Meat prices have gone up and are still continuing their upward movement as if they intended to establish an altitude record. The poor consumers of New York will have the choice between bankrupting themselves to buy meat and pulling their belts tighter after having stricken meat from their bill of fare. It is alleged that the higher prices of corn "compelled" the meat trust to raise the price of meat. Whatever the primary cause may be or may have been, the fact remains that the trust has given the jack-screw forcing up the prices another turn and the retailers, not to be outdone, gave the same screw not one but two or three turns. If the packers raise the price one cent a pound, the retailers promptly charge to the consumers from two to five cents more per pound. Many people are of the opinion that it is about time to reopen the cold-storage investigation.

Three New York detectives, attached to some of the Brooklyn police stations, distinguished themselves the other day by a clever piece of work, for which they deserve considerable credit. A physician, returning from a confinement case at night, was run down on his way home by a speeding auto and killed. The auto, which carried five men at the time, sped on after having run down the physician and was quickly lost in the darkness. With practically no clue for a working basis the three detectives began their investigation and search for the machine and before 24 hours had passed they had not only found the machine, but arrested every one of the five men who had been in the machine that night. What made the achievement of the detectives even more noteworthy was the fact that they found the machine and arrested the men in spite of the assistance given to them by some eyewitnesses, friends of the doctor who was killed. Two of them stated positively that they saw the license tag of the machine and could swear that the license number contained the figures 3 and 7 although they were not sure which relative positions the figures occupied. As a matter of fact the license number of the machine was 16,545, containing neither a 3 nor a 7.

New York city is seriously threatened with a water famine, and the authorities are considering the expediency of reducing the pressure to diminish, as much as possible, the wasting of water. The citizens have been requested to be economical in the use of water and to reduce the number of their baths. There are some sections in the city where such a request would be entirely superfluous and where, on the other hand, an order for bathing at any time would cause a riot. It is not in those sections, however, where any considerable amount of water is wasted.

Trunk Mystery.

The police authorities of New York are confronted with a "trunk mystery" which has some rather peculiar features. The other night a good sized trunk was found on the street at Fifteenth street and Fourth avenue. When it was opened it was found to contain four coats, nine vests, 11 outing shirts, four night shirts four towels, 20 ties, four pairs of shoe laces, 19 pairs of socks, seven suits of underwear, nine handkerchiefs, one pair of white kid gloves, 96 collars 21 pairs of cuffs and but one solitary pair of trousers. The clothing was of good material and bore the tags of Paris tailors. Many of the articles were embroidered with the name "S. Koaras," which name also appeared upon the tag of the trunk. How the trunk happened to be abandoned on the public streets and what has become of the owner of the trunk, who is supposed to have arrived here on one of the late steamers, the police have been unable, so far, to ascertain.

Koaras is a man of many accomplishments and of an outspokenness that is quite startling at times. The other day he gave the most convincing proof that he has the making of a good literary critic in him, a gift hitherto unsuspected by the general public. Some time ago the committee on book selection of the public library decided to exclude from the shelves of the library a new novel of stage life by an American author. Mildred Holland, president of the Actors Church alliance wrote a letter to Mayor Gaynor, protesting against this decision of the library board and contending that the novel was by no means immoral. Mayor Gaynor obtained a copy of the book and having read it, sent a letter to Miss Holland, answering her protest. With the utmost candor he informed Miss Holland that he had read the book and had found it quite harmless but very stupid and that he felt sure the book had been excluded for no other reason than its stupidity.

Some of the magistrates and justices of New York are not particularly famous for their knowledge of legal phraseology. The other day a fruit peddler was being tried in special sessions for selling decayed fruit. The lawyer for the defence announced to the court that his client pleaded "nolo contendere," but the presiding justice had never heard of such a thing and wanted to know what it meant. The lawyer explained but the justice informed him that he would not permit any quibbling and would accept only a direct [illegible] guilty or not guilty. The defendant pleaded guilty and was promptly sentenced to a fine of $100 or two months in the workhouse.

When the trained dogs, which form part of the police force of Greater New York, and assist in protecting the sparsely settled districts on the outskirts of the city, were sent to Parkville about a year ago, the residents were overjoyed. Choice titbits were left on the front stoops on which the dogs might regale themselves on their midnight patrol, for the residents were certain that the presence of the watchful dogs would keep all burglars and other evil doers out of their district. The dogs made a fine record, helped to make many arrests and kept burglaries at a minimum, yet there is growing dissatisfication among the residents, who have complained to the board of health that the police dogs disturbed their slumber with their raucous barking. As the residents of Parkville seem to prefer burglars to barking dogs, the police dogs will be transferred to Staten Island, where the people do not mind the barking of dogs half so much as the safety of their homes.

There is again springing up a feeling in favor of borders.

It's a Bad Habit--

That of taking tonics for digestive troubles.

Indigestion is usually caused by wrong food.

Drugs won't and can't cure the trouble so long as the cause is continued, and anyone who tells you that they will is evidently ignorant of the facts.

The sure, quick way to relief is to remove the cause—change your mode of eating.

A good start is to begin on

Grape-Nuts

with cream for breakfast.

Chew the crisp granules of this food thoroughly, as Nature intended food should always be eaten.

Grape-Nuts is made of wheat and barley and contains all the food elements in these cereals, including the Phosphate of Potash (grown in the grain) put there by Nature for rebuilding Brain and Nerve cells.

Get into good habits. Eat right and let the change show you

FOOD FACTS

What an M.D. Learned

A prominent physician of Rome, Ga., went through a food experience which he makes public.

"It has been my experience that first led me to advocate Grape-Nuts food and I also know from having prescribed it to convalescents and other weak patients that the food is a wonderful rebuilder and restorer of nerve and brain tissue, as well as muscle. It improves the digestion and sick patients always gain just as I did in strength and weight very rapidly.

"I was in such a low state that I had to give up my work entirely and go to the mountains of this state, but two months there did not improve me; in fact, I was not quite as well as when I left home. My food absolutely refused to sustain me and it became plain that I must change. I began to use Grape-Nuts food and in two weeks I could walk a mile without the least fatigue and in five weeks returned to my home and practice, taking up hard work again. Since that time I have felt as well and strong as I ever did in my life.

"As a physician who seeks to help all sufferers I consider it a duty to make these facts public." Name given by Canadian Postum Co., Windsor, Ont.

Trial 10 days on Grape-Nuts when the regular food does not seem to sustain the body will work wonders.

Look in pkgs. for the famous little book, "The Road to Wellville."

To Get the Full Value
Of Your Daily News Subscription

There are two principal ways in which a good paper such as The Daily News may be of benefit to you.

Its news columns keep you in touch with what is happening from day to day. They bring the latest news, not only of your local district and province but of all Canada and the United States and the more important events all over the world.

But the advertising columns of The Daily News bring to you each day information still more valuable, because of more real assistance in your everyday life. They help you to spend your income so as to get the greatest possible benefit from every dollar. They make shopping easy. They keep you posted on prices, and bring you timely notice of any especially low prices which enterprising merchants are able to offer from time to time. They inform you promptly of the arrival of new goods and of the latest styles.

If you need plumbing done, or electrical fixtures put in, or your watch repaired, or your lawn mower sharpened, or most anything else fixed up about the house, a glance through the ads in The Daily News will quickly find someone who makes a specialty of doing what you want done.

If you wish to rent or buy a house, or purchase a piece of land for cultivation or investment, the real estate announcements in The Daily News will save you lots of time and trouble.

In fact, no matter what you want, the advertising columns will help you find it. It pays to read them regularly and carefully.

ELLISON FUTURE CITY OF NORTH

G. T. P. Selling Lots in Nelson Through H. & M. Bird—Superb Soil in Surrounding District.

Great interest is being taken all over the west in the new towns along the line of the G. T. P. railway. One of the most promising of these is Ellison, which is named in honor of the provincial minister of finance and agriculture.

This townsite is actually owned, and is being sold, by the G. T. P. Railway company. The general agents for the sale of the townsite lots in this province are the Canadian American Realty Company, Limited, of Victoria, whose manager, A. H. Blackburn, was in Nelson yesterday, when he appointed H. & M. Bird agents for Ellison in this district.

G. U. Ryley of Winnipeg, the G. T. P. land commissioner, is now in the north on a visit of inspecton to the several townsites, and in an interview published in the Prince Rupert Empire he says:

"An inspection of the townsite at the second divisional point, near Aldermere, will be made, it will be surveyed, and placed on the market this year or next spring.

"Other G. T. P. townsites in British Columbia now are Ellison five miles west of Hazleton, at the head of the navigable waters of the Skeena, which will be a very important point, and Houston, 28 miles east of Aldermere.

"Another townsite placed on the market is that of Fraser Lake, 360 miles east of Prince Rupert, and about 100 miles west of Fort George. Another townsite will be located at about the centre of Fraser Lake shore.

"Between Calgary and Edmonton is a townsite named Mirror, so named after the London daily paper of that name.

"About $250,000 of English capital was invested at this point when it was put on the market. The G. T. P. until the advent of the railway, does not advertise these townsites very extensively, but a ready sale is being experienced for what has been placed on the market."

Mr. Blackburn states that a large number of Ellison lots, something over 1,000, have already been sold, and the lots east of the station grounds will be placed on the market very soon. He says the demand for lots is very active and there is no doubt that when the latter lots are put on the market they will be rapidly bought up.

In an interview with the Prince Rupert Optimist J. R. Anderson, late deputy minister of agriculture, says of Ellison:

"You can safely say that in my opin*ion the soil there is for fruit* growing as good as any in the province, even fully better than that of the Okanagan, though to compare it with the Okanagan would be hardly fair, as it possesses the advantage over the Okanagan that it requires no artificial irrigation. The sub-irrigation is ample even in the driest year. It was ample this year, and I am told this is a particularly dry year.

"I saw some splendid apple trees growing at Kitsumkalum, and plum trees and cherries flourish there.

"One remarkable thing I noticed about this valley, That is that no frost has yet attacked the most delicate plants. The potato leaves are all green there.

"Of course, the ground is well wooded, but principally with poplars and cottonwood, which are easily cleared. There is an abundance of water supply for all purposes. I went over the ground in the vicinity of Ellison townsite and the ground in the upper branches of the valley which is even more easily cleared and at a very moderate expense. The soil gives ample depth for fruit of all kinds.

"All the soil of these valleys needs is geration by means of cultivation to make it magnificent for producing fruit without any manuring. That is my opinion after specially traveling the district to test the soil with some friends who mean to take up fruit ranching there."

FASHIONS.

This is not a season for ostrich plumes, but of all other feathers.

Flowers, and especially roses, are richly favored in late summer millinery.

Fewer colored pumps are seen. Either white or black to be in tune with the times.

New colored embroideries are very attractive, many embodying East Indian effects.

A large number of draped crowns are used in the new fall millinery, particularly on the turban-bonnet shapes.

The all-white hat is pressing forward to victory.

Wide bands of embroidery are a strong feature with French women and all-over in eyelet is much used for tunics.

The latest "cry" of fashion demands either a large broad-brimmed hat with a sizeable crown, or a small, high-crowned affair.

Velvet is one of the most important fabrics for fall and winter millinery and it is used in the plain colors as well as in the two-form effects.

Fichus are in a better style position than ever, as the number of French gowns trimmed with them is increasing rather than diminishing.

Women find the foulards of this season especially charming. They afford the minimum of weight and warmth and yet are correct for all occasions.

Taffeta has a stronger place in fashion than for many years.

Rich and gorgeous blues have a masterful place in millinery.

For young girls natural colored pongee dresses are trimmed with scarlet or bright blue, giving at the same time simplicity and suggestion of brightness.

The use of the narrower flounces of shadow lace on fancy diner and evening costumes is a new style note that is expected to become as strong on this side as it is abroad.

Foundation gowns of eyelet lace are veiled with chiffon and vice versa, tunics and overdresses of embroidery are worn over dark and light colored satins and chiffons.

The side drapery effect on both corsage and skirt of evening gowns is immensely favored and lends a certain originality which would be difficult, otherwise to achieve.

There is little doubt that the coming autumn will bring along the little boldero jacket in numbers and variety.

Very wide taffeta ribbons are in great demand for millinery.

BOATS FILLED—DEMAND FOR WHEAT FALLS OFF

WINNIPEG, Sept. 27.—There was a noticeable absence of demand this morning. Cables were lower but exporters still complained that they could not do business though bids and prices were nearer together than they have been for some days. The absence of demand was apparently due to the fact that boats under charter have been filled, and as the threshing has been delayed and wheat is coming forward slowly, fresh charters are not being made at the moment. The sharp decline in American markets was credited to two causes; first, the natural reaction after the extreme advance, and second, the indication that the farmers will market early, and the heavy increase in receipts in spring wheat states.

Winnipeg declined ⅞c to 1c, Minneapolis 1⅜c to 1⅞c, and Chicago ⅞c to 1¼c. Flax showed an advance, but all coarse grains were lower. Corn dropped ½c to ⅝c and American oats ¼c to ⅜c, Winnipeg oats ¼c to ⅜c.

UNITED STATES STOCKS FALL MARKET IS DEMORALIZED

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Confusion prevailed throughout today's trading on the stock exchange. Fluctuations were wider than at any previous time during the turbulent sessions of the last few weeks. The range of prices of leading stocks in some cases reached 6 points. Not for many years from the times of panic have such fluctuations occurred within a single session. The total sales of stocks were 1,726,500 shares, by far the largest of the year.

The market soon gave way under severe attack. Gains were lost at the close, some of the leading issues being 2 points or more below the previous day's final range. The statement of the United States Steel corporation that it would not dissolve voluntarily proved ineffective in staying the tide of selling.

Further cuts in the prices of some steel specifications were reported. The steel trade reviews pointed out a further contraction in business, due largely to the uncertainty in regard to the steel corporation's affairs. Trading in bonds was again unusually heavy although the total fell below yesterday's huge sum. Quotations weakened after an initial showing of strength. The collapse of Wabash fours affected active issues adversely. Total sales, par value, $6,045,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

AT THE THEATRE

Eckhardt's Imperial Vaudeville company will be the attraction at the opera house on Saturday night.

So strong an impression did "Human Hearts" make upon a prominent clergyman in New York that he wrote to the gentleman impersonating "Tom Logan" vigorously endorsing the play and informing him of his intention of taking all the orphans of a local asylum out to see it at his own expnse. And he did. "You cannot conceive," said Manager Reno, "of the appreciation of those youngsters at the change of the sermon thus afforded them unless you had listened to the gallery the day they attended. With the 'gods' present," he continued, "as often as I have myself enjoyed sitting through it, it was as enjoyable as a box of monkeys sprinkled over with tears. Quite often since have city schools, whose principals were aware of the good merit in the play, been given a half holiday that the youngsters might enjoy a matinee. And what outspoken critics the tots have been. You can't get a favorable criticism or a padded eulogy for love or money from a juvenile. You must give him the goods, or he will denounce you broadcast, and I am really grateful to the tots of America for their appreciation of what all now agree to be one of the best American plays." "Human Hearts" comes to the opera house on Friday evening.

A program of exceptional merit is being shown at the Gem theatre this evening, each feature being distinctly good. The management are convinced that the new service will prove equally as good as the old. The great advantage is the change of efficient actors and actresses in the licensed companies films. The subjects are as follows: "The Cardinal's Edict," and Edison feature; "The Outlaw Samaritan," a splendid Essanay drama; "Ghost," and "Iniks Joins the Temperance Club," two rattling good Biograph comedies.

RESTRICTIONS ON YUKON MAIL

OTTAWA, Sept. 27—After Oct. 1, restrictions will be placed on the kind of mail to the Yukon to be sent onward from White Horse. This is owing to the closing of navigation. All letters, postcards and single wrapped newspapers, will be forwarded but newspapers and periodicals sent to news dealers for trade in bulk, books and merchandise, circulars, patterns and samples are excluded. Parcels may be sent to White Horse by mail to be transferred there to express companies and the department will transfer them to these forwarding agencies there but assume no responsibility.

For cool days at the shore stunning white serge and camel's hair suits are trimmed with many rows and arrowheads of colored silk, blue green, tan and black are principally featured.

Falling Hair

Mrs. Jas. Harris of Wappella, Sask., says:—

"I have found Parisian Sage to be the best scalp and hair tonic and dressing I have ever used. My hair had been coming out in combs full and was very dry and brittle and the scalp was always itching and full of dandruff. I have used two bottles of Parisian Sage and it has stopped my hair from falling, the itching and dandruff have disappeared and my hair is fine and soft and glossy. I would not be without this fine hair tonic for many times the price."

For women, men, or children Parisian Sage is without any doubt the finest preparation for the hair. Daintily perfumed, it is free from grease or stickiness and ought to be where every member of the family could use it daily. Large bottle 50 cents at all druggists or from the proprietors, the Giroux Mfg. Co., Fort Erie, Ont., postpaid. The Girl with the Auburn hair is on every package. Sold and guaranteed by the Poole Drug Co., Ltd.

Fair Notes

The cake given by Mrs. Leith to the Hospital Aid, and raffled at the fair yesterday by Mrs. R. L. Douglass, was won with ticket No. 19 by Miss Belle Hurry. One hundred tickets were sold.

A novelty in the vegetable section is a display of hops by J. Jerram of Harrop. Mr. Jerram believes that the Kootenays can raise hops as successfully as the Fraser valley and looks forward to the day when this branch of agriculture will be one of the most important in this district.

A fruit exhibit that should not be missed is that made by the ranchers of Crawford Bay, who are displaying, not for competition, 23 plates of apples, some boxes of apples, some blackberries and other fruits.

There will be a roof over the platform in front of the grandstand today so that the free attractions will take place whether the weather is favorable or unfavorable.

The big winner at the hospital goose game yesterday was Harry Wright, M.P.P., who landed three of the wily birds. But it was whispered that the big killing was due rather to guile than to the local member's skill at ring throwing. The birds were presented to the hospital. This sideshow was again one of the chief attractions on the grounds.

This is Visitors' day at the fair.

An interesting exhibit among the ores in the mineral section is a number of fine potatoes grown at a high altitude in the Bayonne country by "Pete the Packer."

AT THE THEATRE

"The Telephone Girl Delights Crowded House—Repeated Tonight.

No doubt "The Telephone Girl" is Max Bloom's greatest success. At least every one at the opera house last night thought so. The theatre was crowded to the doors last evening and the play was splendid from start to finish. Max Bloom as the telephone instructor fully maintained his excellent reputation here as a funmaker, but there were plenty of stars in the company; Jack Leslie as "Sauners," Johnnie Gilmore as "Dick Marvel, and Harry Lamonde as "Sniffles" kept the audience in fits of laughter, while Miss Sher as "Estelle," and Miss Hamilton as "Touts" were specially good. The best musical numbers were "Run Along Little Girl," Miss Hamilton and Mr. Lamonde; "Estelle," Mr. Lamonde, and Jack Leslie's "Kelly's Gone to Kingdom Come," all of which were repeatedly encored. "The Telephone Girl will be repeated again tonight and should attract another crowded house.

MYSTERY PILED ON MYSTERY

Interesting Evidence in Russell Case in Montreal—Claims Telegrams were Decoys.

MONTREAL, Sept. 27.—Further interesting evidence was given in the Russell case this morning. Dr. Pritchar, of Bellevue Hospital, New York, and Dr. Carlos McDonald, the well known alientist, told the court that they had been engaged as experts to examine Mr. Russell with a view of ascertaining if he ought not to be confined in an asylum. They communicated with Messrs L. Kellogg and A. Rose, New York lawyers, who stated Russell was perfectly sane. Thereupon the doctors dropped the matter and would not take it up again. The two lawyers named by the doctors were called to testify that a conspiracy had been planned to put Russell in the insane asylum.

Mystery on Mystery

MONTREAL, Sept. 27.—It was made plain at today's hearing of the action of David Russell against the Pinkerton agency that the hearing is going to be a long one. Most of the day was devoted to preliminary work and examining a few score of telegrams involved. The result was merely to pile mystery upon mystery, a great deal of the evidence being evidently of importance to the plaintiff's case but so shrouded in a remarkable tangle that just where its significance comes in will not be seen until the key to the whole thing is furnished.

John McNamara, Montreal manager of the Pinkerton agency, who is charged with having been engaged by Mr. Russell to unravel a conspiracy against him and then having joined with his enemies in a plot to have him incarcerated in an asylum for the insane, was the chief witness and was put through a long examination regarding a number of telegrams. These telegrams included a number sent to Mr. Russell in New York purporting to come from Silas Carpenter, chief of the Montreal detective bureau. They were delivered to Mr. Russell in New York and all were to the effect that Mr. Carpenter could not keep an appointment with Mr. Russell at once, but would be able to see him very shortly.

Decoy Telegrams

Mr. Russell alleges that these telegrams were decoys, to keep him in New York and to prevent him from leaving for Pittsburg, whither he wished to go to inquire into the status of one Patterson, whom he believed to have come from Montreal shortly before with a woman to attempt to play the badger game upon him with the object of ruining his social reputation.

The Pinkertons had attempted to show him that Mr. Patterson was a respectable business man who had no connection with any plot against Mr. Russell, but in this he believes the Pinkerton agency had played him false.

Mr. McNamara showed that the telegrams in question were sent not by Mr. Carpenter, who was no where near New York at the time, but by himself, though why there was need for this deception he did not find. Other telegrams inquired whether the bullets had been removed from a revolver and dealt with other mysterious affairs whose significance will have to be brought out later.

An effort was made by plantiff's counsel to show that in New York a plan had been arranged to have two medical experts who were being consulted by the alleged conspirators with others go to Mr. Russell's hotel, rush his room, and make a forcible examination of him as to his sanity, but no definite conclusion was arrived at as to this.

Mr. James, one of the witnesses, testified that he had been in the employ of Mr. Russell while in New York, and told of attempts made by Mr. McNamara and others to get him to admit that Mr. Russell was not exactly himself. The same witness introduced the name of D. D. Mann (now Sir Donald Mann), telling how he had been sent by Mr. Russell to inquire if the latter had arrived at his *hotel in New York, but there was no evi*dence to show whether the railway magnate had any real connection with the issue.

The case continues tomorrow.

TYPHOID FEVER PATIENT JUMPS INTO NIAGARA

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., Sept. 27.—Edward Hannon, one of the well-known young men of this city, late last night jumped from his bed, where he had been confined by typhoid fever, pulled on a sweater and a pair of trousers and ran down to the lower steel arch bridge over the Niagara gorge.

There he walked out and jumped off the bridge. His body was picked up from the stones near the old mill race this morning after his relatives had been searching all night. Death had been instantaneous, as he had landed upon the stones near the river instead of in the water.
