BOUGHT SHARES WITH PARTY FUNDS

Were Not Transferred to New Whip.

DISCLOSURES HAVE STUNNING EFFECT

Winston Churchill Let Fuel Contracts Then Bought Oil Shares.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, June 10.—An entirely new chapter in the Marconi inquiry opened at yesterday's sitting of the committee when the evidence given surpassed in sensation anything previously revealed. Percy Illingworth, chief Liberal whip, gave evidence as follows:

First, that Lord Murray of Elibank, former chief Liberal whip, purchased out of the Liberal party funds 2,500 American Marconi shares on April 18, 1912, and 500 more on May 14, 1912.

Second, that the first Illingworth had heard of this was on May 31 this year, when he was told of it by John Murray, a brother of Lord Murray.

Third, that the chief whip for the time being had absolute control of the party funds, and was answerable to no one for them.

Fourth, that when Lord Murray had handed over the office of chief whip to him he had also handed over the list of securities in both of the Liberal party's funds, but that the American Marconis referred to were not among them.

Fifth, that he believed the shares in question had not been sold, but were in the hands of Lord Murray's representative in England. Who that was, he said, he did not know.

Mr. Salamon, trustee of the estate of Fenner, the bankrupt stock broker, said he believed Lord Murray was a creditor against the estate for about £30,000.

The effect of these statements was stunning. The affected air of boredom which some of the Liberal members previously exhibited at the Unionist questions gave way to the strictest concern. Additional revelations are promised for today, when evidence will be given by Captain Murray. What every one is now asking is where are the shares; why were they not handed over to Illingworth; why were they not mentioned in the list of securities?

There never has been such scandal in the history of a British political party. It is the fear of what is remaining untold as much as the fear of the effect of what has already been told that is causing a panic in the Liberal ranks. There is a movement to stop the Marconi inquiry on the plea of the irrelevance of the inquiry to the terms of reference, and to transfer the discussion to the house, where a solid party vote would proclaim that there was nothing wrong in the transactions.

Another Political Scandal.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, June 10.—Another political scandal of the Marconi type is to be common gossip within a month if Winston Churchill, first lord of the admiralty, fails to unload a large number of shares now in his possession. Churchill recently had an adventure on the Riviera which resulted in the loss of his pocket-book containing, besides money, some important naval data. A short time ago, it now is said, he gave to the continental oil firms, one in Budapest and the other in Bucharest, huge contracts for the supply of oil fuel for naval use. He followed this, it is said, by purchasing 2,500 shares in each company and profited heavily.

DEATH BY MISADVENTURE

Verdict of Jury in Inquest on Suffragette—No Evidence of Unsound Mind.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

EPSOM, England, June 10.—The coroner's jury inquiry into the death of Miss Emily Wilding Davison, the militant suffragette who died on Sunday from the effects of injuries received during the running of the Derby last Wednesday, when she rushed onto the course and stopped the King's horse, brought in a verdict today of "death by misadventure." The courtroom was crowded with suffragettes. Jockey Jones, who was riding Anmer, King George's entry, has not yet recovered from his injuries and was unable to attend the hearing. The evidence given by Miss Davison's brother and others showed there was nothing to indicate that Miss Davison's mind was unhinged.

OPEN THREATS OF WAR IN ULSTER

House Passes Second Reading of Home Rule Bill

CANADA NO RIGHT TO INTERFERE

Ulster Will Not Submit After General Election--Irish Nationalists Withdraw

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, June 10.—The house of commons tonight passed the second reading of the Home Rule for Ireland bill without division, an amendment moved by Mr. Balfour for the rejection of the bill having previously been defeated by 368 to 270. The announcement of the figures was received with an outburst of cheering by the Liberals and Nationalists. The debate was marked by fiery declarations by the opposition speakers, who predicted that the imposition of home rule would result in civil war in Ireland. Sir Edward Carson, the Irish Unionist leader, said: "For my part, I will continue to support the Ulster men and will take full responsibility for their resistance. You may seize their arms or send troops, but you will not settle the Irish question. You know that you are crowing about peace when there is no peace, and you will fail in your object."

Lord Charles Beresford declared: "If the government sends troops to Ireland I shall offer my services, poor as they may be, and help my fellow countrymen."

The opposition leaders assert that even if the country was appealed to and a general election favored home rule, Ulster would not submit.

John E. Redmond, the Irish Nationalist leader, said that Sir Edward Carson's speech was the most violent he had ever delivered. Sir Edward had taken upon himself a grave responsibility, and did not represent Ulster's opinion. The Nationalists were willing to make any concessions, "but," added Mr. Redmond, "24 counties will not allow themselves to be intimidated by four."

Canada's Attitude.

Dissenting from John Redmond, who declared that the overseas dominions were overwhelmingly in favor of the bill, Major Morrison Bell said the issue had never been clearly put before the Canadian people. He challenged the Nationalists to get a resolution in favor of it passed through the house of commons at Ottawa.

Hamar Greenwood said there was not a single public man in Canada who was not in favor of home rule for Ireland. Because the principle had worked well in Canada it was regarded there as a long stride in federation of the empire.

Andrew Bonar Law, leader of the opposition, said: "Anyone who has the smallest acquaintance with Canada knows that the statement made by the last speaker is absolutely wide of the mark. If he had said that the majority of Canadians were in favor of home rule I should not have contradicted it, but to say that the whole of Canada is in favor of home rule is utterly at variance with the facts. The honorable member said further that no member of Premier Borden's cabinet had taken any part in the anti-home rule demonstration. I hope and believe that is true. There is not one of them who is not wise enough to recognize that just as we have no right to interfere in their domestic affairs, they have no right to interfere in ours.

"The honorable member tells us that the Canadian parliament have passed resolutions in favor of home rule. When was the last resolution passed? I defy him to obtain from any Canadian parliament today an expression of opinion on this subject. No one knows better than the hon. member what nonsense it is when he said that the Canadians approve of this home rule because they like their own. Let him propose to Canada that one provincial parliament should be given separate customs houses and separate post offices and see what the Canadian people will say."

The bill now enters the stage before its inevitable rejection by the lords. The house of commons, under the parliamentary act which provided the means of passing Liberal bills over the veto of the house of lords, cannot amend the bill. It must go to the lords in exactly the same shape as it reached that chamber last session. Members of the lower house may, however, suggest amendments to the lords, which the latter may insert at their discretion.

Unionists Withdraw.

Sir Edward Carson, after the passage of the bill, said the Irish Unionist members would refuse to take part in any further debate, because it was merely an elaborately staged farce in which their suggestions would certainly be rejected. These members in a body will proceed to tour the principal cities of England and Scotland, and will hold meetings in protest against the bill. The Nationalists are downhearted at the possibility that the government will not last for the third passage of the bill necessary to make it law.

Andrew Bonar Law, leader of the opposition, said that if it were a bargain between the government and the Nationalists in the commons the house ought to know. Mr. Redmond denied the existence of a bargain, and Premier Asquith supported the denial.

Mr. Law, proceeding, said: "The government is compelling the whole Unionist party to take the side of Ulster. If the government forces the bill through under present conditions it will be a self-constituted revolutionary committee, and Ulster can only meet revolution by counter revolution."

Mr. Balfour's amendment for the rejection of the bill was defeated by 368 to 270.

Rifles for Ulster.

The police raided a warehouse in London tonight and discovered between 3,000 and 4,000 rifles and a similar number of bayonets, packed in boxes ready for shipment. The raid was a sequel to the seizure of a consignment of rifles and bayonets on board a steamer arriving at Dublin on June 6 from Liverpool. This consignment was addressed to Baron Farnham, an Irish peer, at his county seat in County Cavan, and were traced to the same warehouse.

EXTRADITION OF CHARLTON GRANTED

Prisoner Must Return to Italy to Face Murder Charge—Supreme Court Decision.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Porter Charlton must return to Italy to answer the charge of having murdered his wife in June, 1910, at Lake Como. The supreme court so decided today.

Charlton has been a prisoner in the Hudson county, N. J., jail nearly three years while the fight for his extradition has been going on. The supreme court's decision today affirmed the action of former Secretary Knox, who determined to turn Charlton over to Italy. The prisoner now probably will be turned over to the Italian authorities after the observance of a few formalities.

Charlton's father, who conducted a gallant fight for his son, was a former United States judge for Porto Rico and a class-mate of ex-President Taft.

FAMOUS ASTOR HOTEL NOW IN HANDS OF THE WRECKERS

After 77 years the famous old hotel in New York is being levelled because a new subway is to pass under the site. It has sheltered kings, princes and the most distinguished old world visitors in New York for three-quarters of a century. The head waiter for 44 years was C. Albert Kauffman, shown in the inset picture. He has made unfortunate investments, and now, almost broke, is seeking new employment.

Lonely Life Drives Homesteader to Murder

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

EDMONTON, June 10.—The police this morning received a telephone message which seemed to tell of another Fonberg case. It came from Dr. E. T. Armstrong of Coronation, saying that Robert Metcalf had been shot and killed by a homesteader, who was barricaded on his ranch 10 miles from Coronation.

The mounted police say that the slayer's name is Main. His victim also was a homesteader. Main is surrounded by the residents of the district under the leadership of three mounted policemen. The mounted police say that Main was driven insane by his lonely life, and that for some time he has been shooting at persons who ventured near his shack. Coronation is southeast of here.

Dragging Lifeless Body.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

CORONATION, Alta., June 10.—R. G. Metcalf, a farmer, who was killed by Alfred Main, a homesteader, sacrificed his life in saving Mr. and Mrs. Smith, an elderly couple in whose shack the murder was perpetrated. Metcalf was over at the Smith house when Main came over to the shack, leaving his team standing attached to the plow in the field. Picking up the gun belonging to Mr. Smith, a No. 10 shot gun, Main put a shell into it and looked at Mrs. Smith in a queer way.

Main has been subject to periodic fits of insanity, and during the spells he has often threatened Metcalf. When Main picked up the gun Mr. Smith remarked that it was foolish to load it, as the children might get hold of it. Smith thought at first that Main would shoot at his wife, and he signalled her to leave the house, which she did, going over to a neighbor. Smith, an elderly man, troubled with rheumatism, was afraid of Main, and told Metcalf that he was afraid to stay with him alone. He then left the shack saying that he would look after Main's team. When he was some distance from the house Smith heard the sound of a shot, and went back to see what had happened. He met Main dragging the lifeless body of Metcalf to the trail about 70 yards away. Main opened the granary door, evidently with the intention of putting the body in there, but closed it again and took the body around to the back of the granary, and left it there. Main remarked to Smith:

"I don't want anything to do with you," and went away to McNeil's shack, about three-quarters of a mile away, where he shut himself in. An examination of Metcalf's body showed that the shot which caused his death was fired at close range. The top of the head was almost blown away. No motive can be assigned for the crime other than the ravings of a crazy man. "Homestead insanity" is the name applied to Main's case. Main is an unmarried man, 47 years old, who came from Ontario. He stands 5 ft. 8 in. high, and is described as good looking. He is said to be considerably more intelligent than the average homesteader. He has a brother who only left the farm yesterday, and a sister at Fleet, named Mrs. Brisette.

Murderer Captured.

At 1 o'clock this afternoon Major Cuthbert of the mounted police said that Sergeant McBraine had notified the barracks that Main had been captured and taken to the headquarters at Stettler.

No Duty to Empire Is Bourassa's View

EDMONTON, Alta., June 10.—Henri Bourassa, the Montreal Nationalist, today said that apart from the question of breaking pledges he did not blame Mr. Borden for not declaring for a general election, for he did not consider that such a course was best calculated to ascertain the real opinion of the people in the matter. He added that he had always favored a plebiscite, as in the case of the naval bill. There were three distinct views, some favoring the Laurier policy of a Canadian navy, one supporting the Borden scheme of contributing to the British navy, while other were opposed to both schemes. In these circumstances, Mr. Bourassa thought that a plebiscite offered the only satisfactory method of arriving at a solution.

"If Mr. Borden really has faith in his naval bill," said Mr. Bourassa, "why does he allow it to be destroyed by some 50 old gentlemen in the senate instead of appealing to the 7,000,000 or more people of Canada?"

That it was not the actual sum concerned, but the principle at stake, that the Nationalists were opposed to was stated by Mr. Bourassa.

The statement that there was an emergency was regarded by Mr. Bourassa as a childish argument, which he would not deal with. Mr. Bourassa, however, denied that no principle was involved in an emergency contribution. Presuming there was an emergency and Canada contributed, the principle would be established that the Dominion was bound to come to the aid of England every time an emergency, or supposed emergency arose.

This situation had become the more acute, Mr. Bourassa added, in view of the definite statement of Mr. Asquith and the Right Hon. L. Harcourt, that Canada would not be given a decisive voice on the committee of imperial affairs. Canada would be represented by one delegate, but he would simply be a colonial delegate who would be useful in taking the commands of the English government back to Canada. Going on to define the Nationalist view in regard to the naval policy, Mr. Bourassa stated that the party now held the principle which had long ago been endorsed by Joseph Chamberlain and all other English imperialists, that each integral part of the empire was only called upon to provide for the defence of such territory as it had adequate control over.

According to that theory, a self-governing colony like Canada was not called upon to make provision for imperial defence, that duty having been acknowledged as devolving on England by the late Premier Campbell-Bannerman at the imperial conference of 1907.

There was one point that had struck him since he left Montreal which seemed more important to the general welfare of the Dominion than the granting of $35,000,000 to England, and that was the preventing of the gradual cleavage between the east and the west.

"To a great many people in the older provinces," said Mr. Bourassa, "Canada begins at the great lakes and ends at the mouth of the St. Lawrence. The eastern view of the west in too many cases is like that held by a certain class of Englishmen for the colonies as a sort of desert place where the standard of civilization is very much lower than their own. Like that class of Englishmen, however, they are always interested in the west, just as soon as any profit is to be made out of it."

On the other hand, according to Mr Bourassa, many westerners were inclined to think that their country was chronically neglected by the east and by parliament and were always ready to grumble. While he was in perfect sympathy with the west when she protested against exploitation for the benefit of eastern capital, Mr. Bourassa thought that sacrifice should be made on both sides to ensure the stability of the Dominion.

"The Old Order Changeth"

This is an oft-quoted phrase, but nowhere is it more truly applicable than in regard to advertising. We need not be so very old to remember the day when we eyed all advertisements and advertisers with suspicion. The advertisements we regarded as traps to catch the unwary and the advertisers as "quacks" or "fakers."

Not so many years ago a woman picked up a newspaper and exclaimed:

"Just listen to this: 'Blank & Blank desire to call the attention of their patrons to their Fall importations of suits and wraps.' I never saw Blank & Blank advertise before. I wonder if they are going to get cheap!"

A few weeks ago the same woman said to a friend: "I had been hunting all over for that Oriental embroidery and had given up finding it when I just happened upon the very thing I wanted at Blank & Blank's. I told the man it was a pity they had not advertised it and saved me tramping all over the city."

This is a true story. The same woman, the same shop, nothing changed but the time and the point of view.

Women today feel aggrieved if the dealers do not keep them informed of their stock through the medium of the good newspapers.

MAJORITY FOR UNION LARGE

Resolve to Strengthen Majority Report.

FINAL VOTE TO BE TAKEN TODAY

Wawanesa Forms a Union Church Without Sanction of Presbytery.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

TORONTO, June 10.—At the close of a protracted meeting today it was made evident that any motion which the friends of union thought it wise to submit could be carried by an overwhelming majority. It is believed here that when the Rev. Dr. Gordon of Winnipeg introduces his motion tomorrow it will state definitely when the union is to be consummated, and that it will be carried by a large majority. The motion of Dr. Christie of Winnipeg to alter the majority report and make it more certain for union was carried today almost three to one, and the minority report from the union committee was defeated more than three to one. It was not announced tonight when the union debate would be resumed. It is probable that the final vote will be taken tomorrow afternoon.

By a vote of 251-75 the assembly of the Presbyterian Church of Canada for the eighth time put its imprimatur on the movement for organic union with the Methodists and the Congregationalists. The vote was taken on the consideration of the report of the minority in the union committee. After it was taken, and before the majority report was submitted, Rev. David Christie of Winnipeg presented an amendment to this majority report. He was dissatisfied with the majority report because it was not decisive enough in favor of union. His amendment was submitted to a vote and carried by 181 to 65. Rev. Dr. Gordon of Winnipeg was still dissatisfied, and wanted the report of the majority made still stronger. He had a new amendment to suggest, and was ready to lay it before the assembly when the hour of adjournment arrived. It is considered certain that the amendment of Dr. Gordon will also be carried, and that the statement which came from the union committee will be made considerably more decisive in tone in favor of the proposed change.

Prominent Toronto men told of the gradual alteration in the manner in which the matter was regarded in the east, and western ministers spoke of the demand which was being made in Manitoba and other provinces for the union congregations. Rev. D. D. Miller of Sperling, Man., said that in his presbytery of Glenboro there were 12 self-sustaining charges, and that in five of these a demand was being made for practical union with the Methodists. In one of the congregations the people had taken the bit in their teeth and had proceeded without reference to presbytery or conference. This was the case in the town of Wawanesa. In that place the two congregations had got together, and had advertised in the church papers for a pastor. Other places in the same presbytery in which practical union was under consideration were Glenboro, Cypress River, Elgin and Elm Creek.

Rev. S. E. Beckett of the presbytery of Brandon spoke along the same lines. He suggested that if the Presbyterians were going to hesitate, the Methodists and Congregationalists could go forward and form a united Canadian church, and such action would absorb a large number of the new union churches of western Canada.

Rev. A. W. Smith of Silverton, Man., told of the action which had been taken in the presbytery of Minnedosia, where an honest effort had been made to work out a scheme of co-operation. This had, however, failed, and had served only to show the need of an organic union. J. K. Macdonald, a well known Toronto financier; John A. Patterson, a lawyer of the church; and Dr. J. A. Turnbull, minister the Presbyterian church, also spoke for union.

John A. Patterson, after describing himself as a unionist from the sole of his feet to the top of his head, declared that Scotland had not lost its fine traditions and history when it entered into union with England, and that the Presbyterian church would not lose any of its traditions and history when the union now contemplated was affected.

E. L. Ash said he had voted on the question of union in 1874, when the proposition was made to unite the old kirk and the Free church in Canada. He had been on the wrong side that time, but he thanked God that he was on the right side this time. A number of the churches in 1874 had elected to stay out of the union, but they had found it very cold outside, and they had gradually all come in.

SERVIANS SLAIN IN FIRST FIGHT

Bulgarians Threatened With Bombardment.

POWERS EXERTING EVERY EFFORT

Czar Implores Two Kings to Avoid Fratricidal War.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, June 10.—Many Servians were killed today in a serious encounter between Servian and Bulgarian troops near the small town of Makres. News of the encounter came in a special despatch to the Belgrade Mail Journal forwarded here. Further conflicts are expected in the same vicinity as the Servians on Monday sent a note to the Bulgarian commander giving him until 7 o'clock in the evening to evacuate the town of Volodan, failing which the Servian general declared he would bombard Istip, now occupied by the Bulgarians.

Great Powers Anxious.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, June 10.—The great powers are exerting every effort to prevent the Balkan states from flying at each other's throats and reports from Vienna indicate, with some success. Since Servia has definitely declared that she will avoid all provocations toward Bulgaria, even should the latter refuse ratification of the treaty of alliance, and will wait before proclaiming annexation of the occupied territory, and since Bulgaria has also expressed readiness to do everything possible to maintain peace, it is still hoped that war may be averted. The Neue Freie Presse learns that Dr. Daneff shortly will form a new cabinet at Sofia, no military reasons for further delay existing, as the Bulgarian army is ready for action on the Servian and Macedonian frontiers.

A Bucharest despatch to the Telegraph says that if war occurs Roumania will mobilize her army, but at present has no understanding with any of the allies.

Servians Want War.

The official Mir at Sofia says that the Servians want war and that this being so, no middle course is open to Bulgaria, which must demand the immediate evacuation of the territory in the uncontested zone while awaiting the agreement of the arbitrator and must send to all parts of the disputed zone as many troops as the Servians have there.

A Belgrade despatch says that the Russian emperor has addressed agreements to King Peter and King Ferdinand imploring them to avoid a fratricidal war and expressing the hope that they will accept the intervention of the arbitrators.

SMUGGLER AND VETERINARIAN

Liberal Candidate and Government Official Accused of Wholesale Smuggling Operations.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LETHBRIDGE, Alta., June 10.—Smuggling operations extending over a period of several years, in which the central figure is Dr. W. T. Patton, formerly government veterinarian at Coutts and Liberal candidate for Warner riding at the recent election, has been unearthed by Special Customs Officer Harris. All Patton's books and papers, together with a quantity of live stock and horses in his possession, were seized. Also a number of horses at High River, Alta., once owned by Patton.

It is understood Patton is making a clean breast. The full extent of operations is not yet known. Patton gave up a government position at Coutts shortly after the election of Conservatives to power at Ottawa.

CASE IMPORTANT TO WESTERN SHIPPERS

Railway Board to Hear Western Freight Rates Case This Month—Lower Rates Asked.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

OTTAWA, June 10.—On the 18th of this month the now ancient western freight rates case will probably come up before the railway board, which meets at Ottawa. The Regina board of trade some time ago charged the railways with not having complied with the orders of the government in regard to freight rates. This case is of great importance to eastern as well as the western shippers.

"If the contention of the Regina board of trade is correct," said James Walsh of the Canadian Manufacturers Association of Toronto today, "there will most likely be a reduction in freight rates in this vicinity. This will mean lower freight rates between Saskatoon and Regina and points east."

RIFLE DISCHARGED BOY IS SHOT

Dead Ten Days Before Body Found—High Water Brings Free Fuel at Kaslo

(Special to the Daily News.)

KASLO, B. C., June 10.—August Lostedt, who returned on Saturday after a trip to the Elk river, where his stepson, Robert McKinney, was found dead, says that the unfortunate young man who was carrying a rifle at the time, must have jumped down off a windfall lying near and the mechanism of the rifle catching in the timber caused the discharge of the rifle.

The bullet entered the trunk at the low r end and came out through the shoulder. The accident must have happened 10 days before the boy's body was found.

Water continues to rise and at 5 p. m. Sunday stood at 20 ft. 7 in. It is 12 in. deep in the basement of the Canadian Pacific railway office. Col. Hendersons tennis court is covered with water. The lower part of F. E. Archer's garden is covered. Nearly an acre of carrots and potatoes in A. McQueen's garden are destroyed.

On the other hand a great many are reaping a harvest of drift wood. Hundreds of logs have come down Kaslo creek and are thrown up on the shores. About 10 cords of wood have floated in to the yard of the King George hotel and many others will receive smaller consignments of free wood.

Many bets are laid on the expected rise, the most extreme being that the lake would rise 6 ft. higher than it stood on Friday.

TRAIL MAN MAKES INTERESTING TRIP

Journeys Through Central British Columbia on Bicycle—Trip of Five Hundred Miles.

(Special to The Daily News.)

TRAIL, B. C., June 10. — C. H. Bickle of Trail arrived home on Thursday last after making a remarkable tour through central British Columbia, covering most of his journey by bicycle, which was a new mode of travel for that part of the country. He was the first man to make the trip from Ashcroft to Aldermere, B. C., a distance of about 470 miles, in such a manner. He left Trail about May 2, and arrived in Ashcroft the next evening. There he purchased a bicycle, and made plans to start north the next morning.

On May 4 at 9 o'clock he left Ashcroft on his tedious journey north, and practically bid farewell to civilization for a couple of weeks. From Ashcroft he took the old Yale-Cariboo road to Quesnel, a distance of 220 miles. When about 20 miles north of Ashcroft his troubles began. The pedal on his bicycle broke and rendered the machine useless. After a 10-mile walk he reached the next road house late in the evening, and there stayed during the night. In the morning he repaired his bicycle and set out on his journey. After four days of fairly good riding he arrived at Quesnel. While there he was informed that if he took the old telegraph trail he would save time and have better roads. Taking this advice, he resumed his journey the next day about noon. Twenty-one miles north of Quesnel he came upon a road house, and soon made arrangements to stay the night. The next morning saw him well on his way north, and after encountering fairly good roads arrived at Blackwater that evening. The next day remarkably good time was made, passing through a good deal of flat country, where a number of new farms were under cultivation. In passing through the Stoney Creek Indian reservation he caused excitement among the Indians there, to whom a bicycle was a new invention. The machine was demonstrated for their benefit, but none of the braves cared to have a try on the mysterious two-wheeled vehicle. Fort Fraser, a distance of 65 miles from Blackwater, was reached that evening, where he remained for a three days rest.

Here a party of four was made up for a fishing trip to a near-by lake, where, after about two hours fishing, they secured 150 trout averaging 2 lbs. No fishing tackle was to be had at Fort Fraser, so telegraph wire was fashioned into crude hooks, which answered the purpose.

Mr. Bickle found produce here very high in price, hay costing from $100 to $125 a ton; oats 10c to 12c per lb. and potatoes $7 to $8 a sack, and other goods in proportion, the cause for this being the high freight rates and lack of local farms.

On May 12 he left Fort Fraser, rode to Burns Lake, a distance of 48 miles, where he took passage on a small motor boat plying between there and Deckar Lake, 21 miles north. Owing to recent rains, he encountered very muddy roads from here on, and traveling was hard. Several prairie schooners were overtaken heading for the Peace River district. About 112 miles from Hazelton he sold his bicycle to a telegraph linesman, as it was impossible to use it further, and walked the remaining distance, making it in three and a half days. This was practically the end of his self-imposed journey of 580 miles, having made this interesting trip from Ashcroft to Hazelton in 17 days. He came home by way of Prince Rupert and Vancouver, spending two weeks in the latter city before returning to Trail.

WOULD PREFER LOCAL LABOR

Evidence Given Before Agricultural Commission at Penticton—Fruit Exchange Stock Subscribed.

(Special to the Daily News.)

PENTICTON, B.C., June 9.—In giving his evidence before the royal commission on agriculture Reeve E. Poley-Bennett stated that he was of the opinion that the average fruit grower used far too much water, as an excess of moisture tended toward a poorer quality of fruit. He stated that last year he had not irrigated his orchards at all, but had mulched with dry mulch with the result that he had a crop of the best flavored stone fruits in the district. However, in spite of this, the district was developing to such an extent that the conservation of water and the building of additional reservoirs was something that would have to be seriously considered. He was of the opinion that the government should assist in this work by a guarantee of bonds. He emphasized the necessity for more mixed farming, cheaper money, and the opening up of the Indian reserves west of the Okanagan river.

Major G. H. Feldtman complimented the government upon the steps they were taking to assist the growers to market their fruit.

S. J. Kinney, a director of the Penticton Fruit exchange, the organization just formed to handle Penticton fruit, stated that their stock was being very well subscribed, and that the outlook was very hopeful. The Kettle Valley railway were providing them with temporary quarters for this year, and had intimated their willingness to put up a modern building with cold storage facilities, which they would lease to them on a 4 per cent basis, provided all their fruit was routed over the Canadian Pacific railway as far as possible. He said there would be a very good crop of apples this year, but that pears and cherries would be a light crop. The agricultural industry needed cheaper money and cheaper labor.

M. C. Kendall thought that some steps should be taken by the government to give out information to intending settlers as to the best varieties to plant. J. J. Campbell replied that this was being done, when a discussion arose between him and the witness as to whether or not the Yellow Newton Pippin grown in British Columbia was as good a flavored apple as the one grown in Hood River. The witness concluded by emphasizing that pre-empters should not be allowed to fence off watering places for cattle, which rendered large ranges of little value.

George J. Fraser, manager of the local cannery, was questioned about the difficulties his firm has with regard to labor. He replied that if they could get local labor—women and girls—they would rather not import Chinamen from the coast. Local labor was always the most satisfactory, but it could not always be obtained.

FIRST POLO GAME WON BY AMERICAN DEFENDERS

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

MEADOWBROOK CLUB, WESTBURY, L. I., June 10.—Outriding and outplaying the English polo challengers, the American cup defenders today won the opening game of the sixth international match by a score of 5½ goals to 3. A better idea of the actual difference in the playing ability of the two teams is shown by the gross score, which was 7 to 3 in favor of the defending four. Much to the surprise of the spectators and polo experts, the English players did not show the team work which had been credited to them before the game. Neither did their ponies outclass the American mounts.

SCANDINAVIAN SOCIETY PICNIC IN GRAND FORKS

(Special to The Daily News.)

GRAND FORKS, B. C., June 10.—Arrangements are now being completed for the annual picnic of the Scandinavian Aid and Fellowship society of America, which will take place at Grand Forks on Wednesday, June 25. An elaborate program of sports is being arranged, chief features among which will be the tug-of-war for the British Columbia championship, and a trap shooting contest. Special trains will be run to this city from Nelson and Phoenix.

FERNIE WILL CELEBRATE DOMINION DAY

(Special to The Daily News.)

FERNIE, B. C., June 10.—The citizens of Fernie propose to put on the finest line of amusements and sports for Dominion day that have ever been held here. The new athletic grounds at the city park are being rapidly put into shape under the supervision of Alderman Robicundi. These will be spacious when completed as there will be a half mile race track surrounding the field. Children's sports will be held on the grounds in front of the coal company's office and the various attractions are expected to be of the best. The arrangements are in the hands of the executive of the Fernie Athletic association. In the evening the concert of the veteran's, which was postponed from Empire day, will be given in the Grand theatre.

In a hard fought wrestling match held in Ingram's gymnasium W. Sansom of Pincher creek was given the decision over G. R. Johnston of Fernie, after an hour and 45 minutes of work that tested to the utmost the skill and endurance of both participants. Johnston got the first fall and during the second period his shoulder, which has been giving him considerable trouble for some time, caused him so much pain that, after he had been thrown he refused to continue the match. The decision therefore was given to the Pincher creek man. A considerable amount of money changed hands.

FISHING GOOD AT PROCTOR

Good Catches Being Made—Proctor Tennis and Cricket Clubs in Full Swing

(Special to The Daily News.)

PROCTOR, B. C., June 10.—Fishing at the outlet and on the main lake is now in full swing, and good catches are being made every day. The best fish brought in last week were a 14½ lb. salmon by W. Grice, a 13 lb. salmon by H. E. R. Bedford, and four salmon and a char by T. G. Proctor, the largest being a 10 lb. fish. A visitor at the Kootenay Lake hotel had a good day with C. W. Bourke, capturing a fine basket of rainbow trout and a small char, weighing in all 14 lbs. A visitor from Nelson also got a nice 12 lb. salmon.

The club house for the Outlet Sports club is almost a "fait accompli," as the notice for tenders appeared in The Daily News on Saturday. It has been decided to build a stage and dressing rooms at the same time as the main building, and not add them afterward as was originally proposed. The club house will be completed within three months of the date of its commencement, so that it can be used for concerts, theatricals and dancing by the time fall arrives.

The club has made arrangements with Mr. Alford, manager of the Kootenay Lake hotel, Balfour, for the use of the tennis courts at the hotel by the club members every Sunday during the next three months. There are at present two good courts, and a third is being made and is already half completed. Members of the club will have the use of the courts free.

Application has been made to the Nelson Cricket club for two consecutive days in the Nelson cricket week which is to be held either from Aug. 4 to 9 or during the following week. The secretary of the cricket subcommittee saw A. C. Butler, the captain of the Nelson Cricket club, on Saturday and he is very sanguine of getting the Friday and Saturday in the cricket week for the Proctor club.

The Cricket club has also been invited to send a team to Fruitvale for their cricket week, which will be either at the end of this month or early in next month, but as the strawberry season will probably be in full swing just then it is doubtful if sufficient members will be able to spare the two and a half days necessary for the visit.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 11.

A GAME IN TARIFF LEGISLATION

The American Senate, or at least the Democratic members of that body, have hit upon what they probably regard as a happy solution of their difficulties in regard to several of the more important items in President Wilson's new tariff schedule. The idea apparently is to play to the lower-cost-of-living cry of the consumers, and at the same time remain friends with the farmers. The proposal of the Democratic majority in the Senate is, in brief, to put a countervailing duty on imports of live-stock and grains, fresh meats, flour and other grain products instead of putting these articles on the free list as had previously been suggested.

The effect of a countervailing duty, so far as Canada is concerned, would be that the articles named could be imported from this country into the United States free of duty only when Canada abolished the duty on these articles when imported into this country from the United States. In other words, the proposal of the Democratic senators is another form of reciprocity along certain lines, although, it must be admitted, without some of the most objectionable features of the proposals rejected so emphatically by the people of Canada a little less than two years ago.

Of course, the suggestion by the senators of a system of countervailing duties in connection with the president's tariff reduction proposals does not guarantee their adoption. At the same time, there appears a reasonable likelihood of the incorporation of this principle in the tariff bill when it comes into effect.

Looking at the senators proposals from an outside standpoint—that it should be remembered that the countervailing duties would apply to other countries as well as to Canada—it would look as though the legislators are trying to shift the responsibility for the changes in the American tariff from their shoulders to those of the governments of other countries. If reductions are not secured the consumer can be told that the Canadian or some other government is to blame; if they are secured the farmer can be satisfied by its being pointed out that the removal of the tariff was brought about by the action of foreign governments, and that, in any case, he is competing with foreigners on an even basis.

From the standpoint of party expediency the proposals of the senators have much to commend them. The only doubtful point appears to be as to whether or not the producers and consumers will see through the game. This much, however, can be said that the proposals are worthy of the astute politicians who have advanced them.

PAVE TO WHARF AS WELL AS BAKER STREET.

The proposal that Baker street should be paved on the local improvement plan, the city and the property holders each contributing 50 per cent. of the cost, instead of the work being done entirely at the expense of the citizens as a whole, is one that must appeal to fair-minded people. There is no question whatever but that the paving of Baker street will enhance the value of the property fronting on that thoroughfare, but at the same time this work will benefit the citizens as a whole, for no portion of the city streets is more generally used. In addition to this, the paving of Baker street will be to all visitors a good advertisement of the city's enterprise and of the confidence of its people in its future.

The chief objection to the city's present proposals is that they do not go far enough. In addition to the seven blocks on Baker street, they should include the paving of Ward street from Baker to Front street and Front street from Ward to the Canadian Pacific railway tracks on Josephine street at least. This would give a first class roadway from both entrances to the city, the Union station and the City wharf and would, in addition, make the extent of paved streets coincide with that lighted by the standard system recently installed.

With the portions of Ward, Front and Josephine paved and lighted by the standard system, Nelson would impress itself upon the visitors as would no other city of similar size in the whole broad Dominion. Already Nelson has a reputation for progressiveness. In the paving work which is about to be undertaken the city's reputation in this respect should, at least, be lived up to. This can be done by paying not only seven blocks of Baker street, but also the portions of Ward, Front and Josephine, connecting that thoroughfare with the city wharf.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Judging by his views expressed at Edmonton yesterday, Mr. Henri Bourassa's policy in regard to naval matters may be summed up in two words, "No nothing."

If the game cocks of the Balkans are determined to fight one another it is to be hoped that the powers will not intervene. Until some one of the belligerent states has beaten the others into submission permanent peace in that section is unlikely.

What the Press Is Saying

Why Money Is Scarce.

Money is uncommonly hard to get, and many are asking what has become of it. No one has eaten it, or burnt it, and there is just as much money as there was a year ago. Why, then, is it so very tight? The present difficulty is not an actual scarcity of money. There is plenty of money for all business purposes. The trouble is that people had been doing business on credit on very narrow margins, counting on continued expansion and and an unfailing market.—Montreal Witness.

Deadly Substitutes.

The canteen controversy has now been enlarged by the evidence of Brigadier-General Clarence R. Edwards and Surgeon-General G. H. Torney. General Edwards, speaking at the army conference recently held at Washington, said that the cocaine habit is rapidly sapping the manhood and efficiency of the rank and file of the United States army, and Surgeon-General Torney, speaking from the medical point of view, confirmed this sinister opinion. The cocaine habit, said both these experts, was acquired in the dives that have grown up like fungi around the army posts since the abolition of the orderly and supervised canteen. The owners of these dives are in the habit of giving an added horror to their liquid poisons by a drug still more insidious and still more fatal.—Argonaut.

A Clever Suffragist Retort.

Question-time comes. The speaker deals sympathetically with earnest inquiries, and sharply, but lightly, with those of the impertinent order. Then, on her left, a male individual in a crushed felt and a skyscraper collar puts what is meant to be a killing question: "How would the speaker like to be a man?" As if stung by an electric needle, the speaker faces round to the questioner. A steely glitter lights her eyes, the muscles of the erstwhile glowing face grow taut as a bent rapier. For a full half minute she stays her reply, her eyes meanwhile striving to pierce through the outer wrappings of the masculine person. Then, in low but clear staccato tones, that ring like pistol shots across the silence, comes the retort: "How would you?"—London, Eng., Citizen.

This Day in Canadian History

Upon the eleventh day of June, 1806 or 1807 (there seems some little doubt about the year) Philemon Wright, the founder of Hull, in Quebec province, started at the mouth of the Gatineau river "with the first raft of square timber ever floated on its surface." It was a far more difficult and perilous undertaking than at first appears. The rapids in the Ottawa were dangerous and unknown to the men he had with him, and he had but seen them from the shore. The raft itself was poorly constructed and ill-equipped to withstand the storms and other difficulties which might occur during the voyage to Quebec. He had neither chains nor "snubbing ropes," and only birch withes to lash his cribs together. He possessed one anchor made of a large stone to which split pieces of wood were tied with hempen cord, and a second cut from the fork of an elm tree, which he used to fasten the raft to the shore. The raft, which was regarded as a great curiosity, entered the st. Lawrence at "Bout de l'Isle," and by alternate use of oars and sails safely reached Quebec after a voyage of 35 days.

ORDER WATER PIPE FOR ROSEMONT MAIN

Twelve Hundred Feet Are to Be Laid Down by Property Owners to Connect With City System.

Orders were sent to the coast yesterday for 1,200 feet of 4 in. pipe for the water service which is to be installed for the convenience of residents of Rosemont. During the afternoon G. C. Mackay, city engineer; James Harris of the water department, M. R. McQuarrie and Hugh W. Robertson visited the suburb and made the necessary measurements.

It has been arranged that the property owners of Rosemont are to pay for the pipe and for the work of laying it down. The city will repair the existing main which runs under the bridge and this will be connected with the new 4 in. main.

Pipe for the improvement is expected to reach Nelson in three weeks.

EVIDENCE BEFORE LABOR COMMISSION

Contractor For Kootenay Central Will Soon Have Eight Hundred Men at Work.

(Special to The Daily News.)

WILMER, B. C., June 10.—H. G. Parson, ex-M.P.P. of the district and chairman of the Labor commission, arrived on Saturday afternoon, coming in from the north. He was accompanied by J. A. McKelvie, A. M. Harper and John Jardine, all members of the commission, and F. R. McNamara, the secretary. It had been the intention of R. A. Stony, the fifth member, to accompany them, but he was detained. From here the commission will today journey by car to Cranbrook via Windermere and Wasa. On the way from Golden a stop was made at Sinclair, where an examination was made of work on the Banff-Windermere automobile road and the irrigation works now being built on the lands of the Columbia Valley Orchards, Limited. The night was spent at Invermere, and the morning session was held on Monday, when evidence was presented by E. R. Ennis of this place, manager for Burns & Jordan, contractors for the Kootenay Central railway, and Edward Mallandaine, manager of the Columbia Valley Irrigated Fruit Lands, Limited. Both witnesses dealt with the rate of payment for wages for laborers, sanitary conditions of camps and arrangements made for workmen's attendance by a doctor and at the hospital. Mr. Ennis said his firm at present had 200 men working for them in the district, and that number would shortly be increase to 800, but that very few serious accidents of any kind whatever had occurred during the whole time they had been working, and that as far as he was concerned he would not offer any opposition to the government taking over the workmen's insurance entirely, all claims to be adjusted by a commission. The visitors spent yesterday in making an informal inspection of work in the neighborhood. They all expressed themselves as much pleased with the general surroundings and future prospects of this part of the country, which were new to all save Mr. Parson.

PRESENT PURSE TO REV. C. W. KING

Young People of Baptist Church Express Regret at Approaching Departure of Pastor.

At the close of the regular meeting of the Young People's society of the Baptist church last evening a presentation was made to Rev. C. W. King, the departing pastor of the Nelson Baptist congregation.

The young people of the church had been of great assistance to Mr. King in his work in Nelson, it was said.

The presentation of a purse of gold was made by S. G. Newell, president of the society, together with the following testimonial:

"On behalf of the Baptist Young People's union of this church we, the undersigned, wish to express our deep regret that you are about to sever your connection with us in this our work for the Master.

"We also wish to express our sincere appreciation of your kindly assistance and faithfulness to us, and in recognition of the same kindly permit us to present this small gift as a token of our esteem and fidelity.

"May the God of our hope and salvation watch over and bless you in your new fields of labor most abundantly, and while we are about to say a formal goodby, God grant that we may all so live as to hail the coming of Christ with joy, and have an eternal home where there will be no more partings or goodbys.

"Yours very sincerely,
"Stowell G. Newell, President.
"B. R. Wolverton, Vice-President.
"Annie M. Mastberg, Secretary.
"Mrs. Geo. M. Bartlett, Treasurer.
"Nelson, B. C., June 10, 1913."

This was the third presentation of the kind which had been made to Mr. King during the past week. In a brief reply he reviewed the work carried on during his two years sojourn in Nelson and pointed out some of the difficulties with which the local Baptist congregation had to contend.

He urgently entreated the young people not to be discouraged, but to steadfastly and faithfully work and lay the foundation for a larger church and greater work in this city. He had reason to be proud, he said, of the Baptist church workers, and in conclusion expressed his deep appreciation of the kindnesses shown him during his stay in Nelson.

AT THE THEATRES

A genuine musical comedy attraction, one with plenty of laughing material, and an abundance of good musical numbers put over with that vim and get-up is just what you will see in "Variety Isle." The "Ten Sunshine Girls" constitute the chorus, and are of that petite type that pleases, having plenty of elaborate wardrobe, good voices and a personality that lends much to a musical comedy. Miss Dorothy Raymond, the prima donna, and Miss Margorie Mandenell are exceptionally clever and are supported by a well selected cast. During the week's engagement of the Frank Rich company a change of bill occurs nightly. Curtain promptly at 8:30 o'clock on Monday, June 16.

BODY FOUND IN MILL POND

Employe of King Lumber Company Had Been Missing for Month—Cranbrook Fire.

(Special to the Daily News.)

CRANBROOK, B. C., June 10.—The body of Basil Thurrot, 24 years of ag and an employe of the King Lumber company at Yahk, B. C., was found in the company's mill pond this afternoon by Melville Upton. Deceased had been missing for one month and had apparently lost his way after nightfall, when returning from Yahk to the camp. Search for deceased had been kept up for many days, the company closing down their mill to assist. Appearances would indicate that the body had been floating for about two weeks, but the mill has now been closed down for that length of time, owing to the high water.

A fire this afternoon on Van Horne avenue, near the power house, destroyed two frame shacks. J. Fitzgerald, the occupant of one of the buildings, had a narrow escape. The blaze is supposed to have started from a match carelessly thrown down.

A runaway horse with buggy, the property of the Hillside dairy, collided with a telephone pole in front of the Canadian Bank of Commerce this afternoon, damaging the buggy.

The Cranbrook Sash & Door factory had an escape from fire this afternoon, when the grass on the grounds caught fire from sparks from the Kimberley fire. S. L. Williams extinguished the fire.

W. A. Nesbitt returned this afternoon from Ontario.

An employe of the Yankee Robinson circus, which played here yesterday, was found to have smallpox and was taken to the isolation hospital. It is just a mild attack.

Murdock Maceachern, one of the oldest citizens of this city, is under the doctor's care.

R. E. Beattie of Calgary and formerly of this city, will return here, having disposed of his drug business in Calgary.

Freckle-Face

Sun and Wind Bring Out Ugly Spots; How to Remove Easily.

Here's a chance, Miss Freckle-face, to try a remedy for freckles with the guarantee of a reliable dealer that it will not cost you a penny unless it removes the freckles; while if it does give you a clear complexion the expense is trifling.

Simply get an ounce of othine—double strength, from the Poole Drug company, and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of the homely freckles and get a beautiful complexion. Rarely is more than one ounce needed for the worst case.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength othine, as this is the prescription sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles. 2

LACROSSE LEAGUE NOW PROPOSED

Cup Will Be Donated for League Comprising Nelson, Fernie, Rossland and Cranbrook.

(Special to the Daily News.)

CRANBROOK, B. C., June 10.—An organization meeting of the Cranbrook Lacrosse club took place this evening, and practice will commence at once. Arrangements will be made to fit up a lacrosse ground down town. Communications to hand from Nelson, Rossland and Fernie make it assured that a league will be formed between these cities and Cranbrook to play for a cup which will be put up by A. MacKenzie of Victoria. Officers were elected as follows: Hon. president, Thomas Caven, M.L.A.; James Doyle of Calgary; W. Greaves; president, Mayor A. C. Bowness; first vice-president, R. E. Beattie; second vice-president; A. K. Lietch; secretary, R. S. Garrett; treasurer, James Brechin; business manager, A. A. McDermott; team manager, E. H. McPhee; executive committee, R. P. Moffatt, J. W. Burton, William Erler, Ira Maning, together with the other officers. The lacrosse team will, as last year be strictly amateur, and everything points to one of the most successful lacrosse seasons experienced in this city. Advantage will be taken of Joe Lally's offer to provide lacrosse sticks at cost to the school boys, and it is likely a team will be formed among the pupils of the public school.

KING LOSES BY FALL IN STOCKS

Slump in Canadian Pacific Results in Loss of Hundred Thousand Pounds.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, June 10.—Heavy losses suffered by King George in the recent big slump in the stock market were the occasion for the prolonged audience Sir George White, the king's private solicitor, had with the King the morning after Derby day. The consultation was to arrange for the realization of certain securities held in trust for the King by Lord Stamfordham and another member of the household, and the Queen took part in the conference. The King's loses are understood to have resulted from extensive operations undertaken on his behalf in Canadian Pacific railway stock. Last week that stock declined 14 points in the London market, and the King's loss is stated to be £100,000.

Lord Revelstoke is the King's private adviser, but the operations in Canadian Pacific railway were undertaken contrary to that banker's advice.

ANOTHER TROUBLED DAY ON NEW YORK EXCHANGE

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

NEW YORK, June 10—The stock market passed through a troubled day as a result of the rendition by the supreme court after the close yesterday of its decision in the Minnesota rate case. The decision was construed as adverse to the railroads and the market experienced a violent decline. In the afternoon a partial recovery was made. The Hill stocks, which were immediately concerned in the outcome of the suit, were the heaviest losers among the prominent shares. Northern Pacific and Great Northern, preferred, broke about 7 points. Among the other prominent stocks there were drops of 2@5 points and some of the inactive issues fell as much as 10 points.

The market rallied after the shock of the opening break, prompt support being given, but quickly went off again. Then came another rally which was followed during the noon hour by the severest break of the day at which bottom prices were touched all through the list. Steel fell to 50⅛, within ⅛ of the low price made at the time of the filing of the dissolution suit. St. Paul broke below par, touching 98⅝. Southern Pacific fell to 89½, Union Pacific to 138¾, Reading to 151⅜, Great Northern, preferred to 115½, Northern Pacific to 101¾. In many instances the lowest prices since the panic of 1907 were reached. After the noon day break there was a gradual recovery. Buying by investors, who were attracted by bargain prices, increased in volume as the day progressed. Short covering toward the close aided in the upturn. Some stocks entirely recovered their losses and in other cases there were rallies of 2 points or more. It was the largest day's business of the year, with sales exceeding 850,000 shares.

PRICES AGAIN DOWNWARD STOCK PRESSURE LIGHT

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

MONTREAL, June 10.—In line with movements in outside markets the course of security prices here today was again downward but the market was quite on the decline and comparatively the pressure on stock was light. Losses among recognized leaders on the market ran a little more than 1 point and Montreal Power, whose movement exercises a good deal of influence over the course of prices among the purely domestic issues, wound up the day unchanged from Monday. C.P.R. finished 1 down, Brazilian 1¼, Textile, Detroit and Iron each ¾, Richelieu only ¼ and Toronto Rails 1. The severest losses were recorded among stocks of limited activity in the present market, although features in the bull markets of last year. Among such stocks were Laurentide, which broke 5 to 185; Spanish, which broke 3½ to 46; Canners, which broke 5 to 64½, and Soo down 2¼ to 117½. Prices mentioned in all these stocks represented new low levels for the year. Among other issues to lay claim to the same doubtful distinction were Brazilian, which set up a new low of 85¾, Lake of the Woods, which at 124, of 7 points below last sale, also broke into new low ground, and Detroit, which touched 65¼ and closed ¼ higher.

Under the pronounced weakness of outside markets stocks that were prominent in the liquidation of last week gave, on the whole, a good account of themselves. Power rose 1 point in the face of weakness elsewhere in the morning session and, as already stated, closed the day unchanged after a drop of 2¼ points from its highest. The improved tone of C.P.R., which touched its highest price, 216¼, in the afternoon, being as low as 214¾ in the morning, was of assistance in a slight rally, on which most of the leaders closed above their lowest.

Total, 5,594 shares, 2,550 mining shares and $14,600 bonds.

MONEY SCARCE AND DISCOUNT RATES FIRMER

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, June 10.—The much dreaded settlement on the stock exchange commenced today with the announcement of the Engelbedt & Schlosser failure, brokers with German connections, and the recent slump in Americans, C.P.R. and Rio Tintos is now attributed to the liquidation of their holdings. This selling ceased at noon and under covering operations the whole market improved from the lowest. Consols regained ⅛ and Rio Tintos 1¼, but the losses on balance in other directions were severe, especially in Argentine and Mexican rails. American securities declined sharply during the forenoon. Stopless orders were executed, adding to the weakness, which was greatest in Amalgamated Copper, United States Steel and Union Pacific. Prices hardened a fraction at noon but the general tone was weak. Money was scarce and discount rates were firmer.

Billett, secretary-treasurer. The transactions of the exchange for the past year showed a big increase over those of the previous year.

GRAIN

WHEAT MARKET STEADY

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

WINNIPEG, June 10.—The wheat market held fairly steady on reports of dry weather and fluctuations in October were narrow, while July declined 1c, recovering slightly, showing tightness in this month was off for the present. Winnipeg closed ⅝c lower to ⅛c higher. Liverpool's closing cables were ⅛d higher, while continental markets were irregular; Paris unchanged to ¼ lower, Berlin ½ up, Budapest ½ lower and Antwerp unchanged. American markets were all decidedly weak. The Minnesota rate decision weakened stocks, and the bearish United States government report together affected wheat values, and Minneapolis declined 1⅛c@1½c. Chicago, ½@⅞c from opening points, recovering fractionally near the close. Minneapolis opened ⅛c lower and closed ⅝@1⅝c lower.

FUNDS PLENTIFUL FOR STRIKING MINERS

(Special to The Daily News.)

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 10.—"Will forward $15,000 weekly and more if necessary as long as the strike lasts," is the message received today at the local labor temple from Secretary Edwin Perry of the United Mine Workers of America. This is in reference to the coal strike at Nanaimo and elsewhere on Vancouver island. The news was immediately telephoned to the island. As matters now stand, there is not the slightest probability of the dispute terminating within the near future.

SMITH PROBABLY UNION PRESIDENT

Has Substantial Majority From Five Polls—Smaller Camps Not Yet Heard From.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LETHBRIDGE, Alta., June 10.—With five polls heard from Smith leads Stubbs by 458 votes for the presidency of the United Mine Workers of America, district 18.

The election of J. H. Smith of Fernie is practically assured. The following are the figures so far received:

City—	Smith	Stubbs
Fernie	483	370
Michel	215	61
Hosmer	148	43
Bellevue	160	90
Lethbridge	38	54

There are still to hear from Diamond City, Taber, Bankhead and Canmore, every one of them termed insurgent camps. These will more than offset any majorities Stubbs may get in camps favorable to him, such as Kipp, Chinook, Blairmore, Corbin, Carbondale, Frank, Maple Leaf, Passburg, Burmis and Beaver Creek, which are all small camps. Some of these are expected to poll an almost solid vote for Stubbs, but not enough to cut down a 500 lead.

COMPANY PROMOTERS HELD ON FRAUD CHARGE

(Special to The Daily News)

FERNIE, B. C., June 10.—J. Davidson and E. Williams, promoters of the Anglo-Canadian Trust & Savings company, who have been up for trial before Judge Thompson for the greater part of the last week on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, were found "not guilty" on Monday. His honor, however, ordered that they be held on a new count, which was that of obtaining a check for $600 from Mrs. Julia Kobus of Hosmer, with intentions to defraud. They are still in jail, bail not being forthcoming. They have been defended by A. Macneil of Fernie.

Very severe thunder storms passed over the city on Monday, but so far as can be ascertained no damage was done. Several fires were started in the mountains, but these soon went out, as the rain fell in torrents.

The Misses Belle and Hazel Rogers, daughters of Elias Rogers of Toronto, president of the Crows Nest Pass Coal company, who have been visiting their brother, John Rogers of Fernie, have left for the east.

RHEUMATISM KEPT HIM IN BED

Suffered Tortures Until "Fruit-a-tives" Cured Him

McMillan's Corner, Ont., Sept. 30th. 1910

"Your remedy, "Fruit-a-tives" is a perfect panacea for Rheumatism. For years, I suffered distressing pain from Sciatica or Sciatic Rheumatism, being laid up several times a year for days at a time. I went to different doctors who told me there was no use doing anything—it would pass away. They gave me mustard plasters and other remedies that did no good. Plasters took no effect on me—except to blister me and make raw spots. I took many advertised remedies without benefit, but fortunately, about two years ago, I got "Fruit-a-tives" and they cured me.

Since then, I take "Fruit-a-tives" occasionally and keep free of pain. I am satisfied "Fruit-a-tives" cured me of Rheumatism and they will cure anyone who takes them as directed. If this letter would be of value to you, publish it" JOHN B. McDONALD.

REVOLVER OF MURDERED CONSTABLE IS FOUND

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 10.—Systematic search by the city police ever since the murder of Constable Archibald has laid bare at last the revolver of the murdered officer. The gun was found concealed among bushes on the lot where the unfortunate man's body was found. What This Sectional Fire-pot Means to You

The "Sunshine" has a straight-sided semi-steel firepot, extra heavily ribbed and made in two sections. The two sections allow for contraction and expansion—which prevents cracking. The heavy ribs and semi-steel give extra strength and added radiating surface. Ashes cannot adhere to the straight sides which assures an all-over clear fire. This means the greatest heat from the fuel consumed.

These are some of the advantages of the Sunshine Furnace. Our agent will be pleased to show you others, or write for booklet.

(Special to The Daily News.)

Flint, who was left behind by the Barnes outfit, as he was gathered in by the police, was sentenced by Judge Thompson to spend one year in the jail at Nelson for the theft of a suit case and other articles from the Northern hotel. He is by occupation a clown. When he had opened the case at the Canadian Pacific railway freight sheds and taken account of stock he sold some of the goods at from 5 to 10 per cent of their value. This aroused suspicion and the police were notified and Flint taken into custody. When he received his sentence he seemed not perturbed.

On Saturday a meeting of the Proctor and District Farmers' institute was held in Gallup's hall. The meeting was not largely attended and it was decided to leave the appointment of delegates to the royal commission of agriculture to be held at the Kootenay Lake hotel, Balfour, on June 24, in the hands of the directors.

After the meeting C. C. Thom of Pullman, Wash., gave an interesting address on "Soils and Crops," and H. E. Upton of Victoria an address on "Poultry." S. S. Fraser, president of the institute, was in the chair.

On Saturday there will be a meeting of the Proctor and District Conservative association in Gallup's hall at 7:30 p.m.

The Hon. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Holmes a Court left by the Kuskanook on Thursday for Nelson with their daughter, Mrs. R. Holmes a Court. Mr. and Mrs. a Court will sail from Vancouver on Wednesday for Australia by the new Australian-Canadian liner Niagara, and should arrive in Brisbane about three days before the opening of the Queensland parliament.

Mr. and Mrs. McMurray of Winnipeg and their three children are staying with Mr. and Mrs. Harry T. Cherry of Balfour in their new bungalow.

DEER PARK NOTES

DEER PARK, B. C., June 10.—Mr. McLean, government road superintendent, was here on Saturday making final arrangements for the local road construction. Work will be started this morning on the approaches to the wharf.

The fishing match, which took place on Sunday, did not turn out as successful as was expected, owing to the driftwood now floating on the lake, thus making trolling very difficult, and to the heavy thunder showers in the afternoon. Some very fine specimens of trout and char were among the catches made.

J. Kelly of Edgewood has been in Deer Park for the last few days.

Rev. Mr. Montgomery, from Edgewood, held services here on Friday night and also christened the baby of Mr. and Mrs. F. Hamblin.

Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Siemens, from Syringa Creek, were visitors in Deer Park on Saturday.

Come Up Where You Belong!

In the human body, "man-power" comes from food.

But the food must be right.

The gray tissue cells of Brain and Nerves are composed principally of water, albumen and Phosphate of Potash. The first two exist in every-day food, but phosphate of potash is often lacking.

This necessary element is supplied in

Grape-Nuts
FOOD

Made of choice wheat and barley, it contains all the vital mineral salts of these grains, including the phosphate of potash so essential for proper nourishment of Brain and Nerves.

Grape-Nuts food is thoroughly baked, digests easily (in about an hour), and thus forms a perfect complement to ordinary food in the dietary of the average person.

Grape-Nuts---more than any other one factor---supplies both body and Brain with nourishment up to the standard of Nature's requirements.

If health and the efficency which comes with it appeal to you, try Grape-Nuts.

Ready to serve direct from the package with cream and sugar—and wonderfully appetizing.

INCREASE SALARY OF HOSPITAL MATRON

Miss E. E. Kidd to Receive Eighty-Five Dollars Per Month—Head Nurse Resigns.

Directors of the Kootenay Lake General hospital last night voted to increase the salary of Miss E. E. Kidd, matron, from $75 to $85 per month, and to recompense her for travelling expenses from Winnipeg to Nelson, with the proviso that if she leaves before having been here 12 months the money is to be returned. Precedent for paying travelling expenses to Nelson for a new matron was the case of Miss M. S. Vogan, whose place was taken by Miss Kidd.

J. A. Irving, the president, brought up the question of increasing Miss Kidd's salary and spoke in appreciative terms of the manner in which she was working in the interests of the hospital. A. S. Horswill, Ald. Edward Kerr, E. F. Gigot and the secretary, George Johnstone, also spoke highly of the matron's work.

In the matron's monthly report it was stated that Miss McKay, head nurse in charge of the maternity hospital, had resigned and would leave at the end of this month. Endeavors were being made to secure a successor, said the report. During the month 60 patients were treated, the total number of days' reatment being 640.

The president stated that the plans for the new building, which had been sent to Hon. H. E. Young, provincial secretary, for approval, has not yet been returned from Victoria and it was decided to defer consideration of the question of commencing the construction work until next month's meeting.

A. T. Walley and A. S. Horswill were appointed visiting directors.

Those present were: J. A. Irving, George Johnstone, A. T. Walley, A. S. Horswill, Ald. Kerr, E. F. Gigot and E. H. Smith.

EXTEND WELCOME TO NEW PASTOR

Reception Is Held in Honor of Rev. R. J. McIntyre of Trinity Methodist Church.

The parlors of Trinity Methodist church were well filled last evening, the occasion being the reception to Rev. R. J. McIntyre, the new pastor of that church. The reception was given under the auspices of the Ladies' aid of the church. There was a musical program and refreshments were served. H. Amas occupied the chair.

Charles F. McHardy said that he was probably called as the representative of the trustee board and assured the new pastor of the present splendid standing of the church. Enthusiasm was needed, he said, just as Rev. A. E. Smith had stated before leaving, and that was now going to be the endeavor of the church —to create enthusiasm in the work. There were a great many strangers in the church, he said, and together with the new pastor they should be made welcome. A great deal was expected of a pastor, he went on, among the things required being that he should be a good visitor, a fluent speaker, abreast of the times, a good thinker, a financier, and a friend to both the young and old—indeed such a man was looked for the Lord never made. Even if he were perfect he would not suit, said Mr. McHardy. He testified to the excellent character of Mr. McIntyre as a friend of long standing, and in conclusion urged the church workers to rally around their new pastor and give him all the assistance possible.

F. P. Elliott, president of the Trinity Builders, the young people's society of the church, welcomed Mr. McIntyre on behalf of the younger church members. He referred to the situation such as the present as a trying time for a preacher. It was to him a new community and new friends were to be made. The congregation was critical, or at least seemed critical to the preacher, he said. He assured Mr. McIntyre that the people of Nelson would be sympathetic and would help him with his work. "They will not expect or want you to do it all," he said. Trouble was not found in getting the young people to work but to find work to do, and he promised hearty co-operation from this source.

S. J. Booth testified to the sympathy of the people of Nelson and assured him of the sympathy and wholeheartedness with which he would be received here. A. T. Walley also spoke a few words of appreciation at attaining Mr. McIntyre as pastor.

Mr. McIntyre then spoke in appreciation of the welcome that had been extended to him—a preacher in a new field. He urged the co-operation of the laymen and said it was better for 10 men to do one mans work than one man to do 10 mens work; all could be busy and do a little toward making the work easier.

He did not wish his congregation to expect him to be omniscent nor omnipresent—he could not be everywhere at once and it would take him some time to get his bearings. He would visit those who were irregular in their attendance at church first and would call on those who were already settled in the church later, as they would stay settled in the church, anyway.

He would plan as the days passed by and during the summer months his sermons would be short. He thanked the choir and said he would look for them Sunday after Sunday.

He was keen on the encouragement of the young, he said, and in conclusion referred to the good clean sporting side of church life.

The following program was rendered during the evening: Solo, Mrs. D. Chapman; piano solo, Miss I. Steed; recitation, Miss Queenie Annable; solo, Mrs. A. T. Walley; solo, Miss S. Phillips; solo, W. O. Rylett.

CAUSE OF THE GRIPPE
How to Escape Its Dangerous After Effects.
With so much grippe prevalent this winter a few words of advice regarding its cause and treatment will not be out of place.
Grippe is an infectious disease easily taken when the system is in a tired or run-down condition.
The best means of prevention are to keep the blood in good healthy condition, and if the system gets into a weak, run-down condition, take Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic.
A lady from Long Branch, N. J., says: "Grippe left me in a nervous, weakened, run-down condition. After taking three bottles of Vinol I am better and stronger than I have been for years, and I cheerfully recommend Vinol to all who have suffered from the grippe and need strength." (Name furnished on request).
We have never sold in our store such a valuable strength creator and health restorer for the convalescent, the weak and run-down as Vinol, and your money will be returned if it does not do all we claim for it. Rutherford Drug Co., Ltd.
