CHILDREN MUST ATTEND SCHOOLS

Doukhobors Must Register Births and Deaths

PROPERTY OF COMMUNITY LIABLE

Sixteen Millions of Estimates Passed—Cooperative Methods of Irrigation.

(Special to The Daily News.)

VICTORIA, B. C., March 1.—Morning and night sittings of the legislature on Saturday were productive of more interest and more notable for the progress made than any previous day since the present session commenced. So far has the program of legislation been advanced that prorogation is expected to be reached on Wednesday next.

Doukhobor Regulations.

Last night a bill which is intended to regulate the government of communal settlements in the province and which will directly affect the Doukhobor colony was introduced by the attorney general. It provides that every person who is a member of the community shall be under obligation to register the birth of a child born in the community and give notice of death in any case of which he may have knowledge. It also obligates upon every member of the settlement or community the duty of seeing that every child in the settlement between the ages of seven and 14 shall attend school and also provides that every member shall be liable for the enforcement of the Health act in the same way that the owners or occupants of houses are now liable. The penalty for infringement of any of these provisions shall be not less than $25 and not more than $100, which may be levied upon the goods and chattels by distress and sale. It further provides that for offences under the act the property of the community shall be liable to distress and sale to the same extent as the property of individuals.

The bill was given its first reading and will come up again tomorrow.

The second reading of the bill giving further aid to the Canadian Northern Pacific railway was passed on a straight party vote, the figures being 27 to two.

Parker Williams moved an amendment urging the appointment of a select committee to investigate the whole matter of the guarantees given to this company in British Columbia. On a show of hands only the Socialists voted for Mr. Williams' amendment. At the evening session the bill was advanced through committee and made ready for third reading tomorrow.

Trust Companies.

The attorney general introduced an act relating to trust companies which was read a first time. The bill proposes to deal in a thoroughly upto-date manner with the incorporation of trust companies in the province and contains special provisions regarding their registration, the management of trust funds, inspection and other matters. The leading section provides that notwithstanding any law to the contrary no company shall, after July 1 next, continue to carry on a trust business in the province unless it has deposited with the minister of finance a sum of not less than $25,000. Careful provision is made for the identification of all funds so that from the system of inspection, which the bill proposes to inaugurate, it will be easily possible to tell at a glance how the various moneys handled are being invested.

Fisheries Act.

A bill to be known as the Fishery act, introduced by Mr. Bowser, is an outcome of the recent decision of the privy council regarding certain questions referred to that body as to the respective rights of the province and the Dominion in the fisheries of British Columbia. In introducing the bill the attorney general said that the rights exercised in the past by the province have been in no wise curtailed by the judgment. In effect, it was decided, he said, that the province possesses the property rights in the fish and fisheries above tidal waters, whether rivers are navigable or not above that point, provided, of course, that the beds of the rivers are not in the railway belt and owned by the Dominion.

In tidal waters there is no property right vested in either the Dominion or the province since under Magna Charta this fishing remains a common right of all the people. The Dominion and province may raise a revenue from those engaged in fishing, but exclusive privileges under the guise of regulations cannot be given by the province. The judgment further declares, said Mr. Bowser, that with the transfer of the solum or property rights in the lands of the railway belt to the Dominion the fisheries therein passed with them.

In explanation of the bill which he has introduced the attorney general said:

"In the past our sole license fees have been collected from those engaged in the salmon fisheries. We have no intention at the present time of extending that tax to other fish-

MUST VENUS WEAR CLOTHES

Montreal Jury to Decide Whether Classical Statues May Be Exhibited for Sale

(By Daily News Leased Wire)

MONTREAL, March 1.—A grand jury is to be called on to decide whether statues of Venuses and other mythological ladies who despised clothing are to be allowed to be exhibited for sale in Montreal.

One case is that of David Rubin, an art dealer with a store on St. Catherine street, who is being prosecuted at the instance of Capt. Roberts, of the police force, for having exposed for sale a miniature of a celebrated statue of a nude Venus. The case was heard before Judge Lanctot.

Counsel for the defence said several city clergymen had invested in the Venus statue and that copies of it had been ordered and were being prepared for the Montreal art gallery.

Judge Lanctot remarked: "The question must be definitely decided. We must know once and for all whether merchants can legally be allowed to exhibit and offer these and like statues for sale. It should be left to a jury to decide on this point. It is a fit question for a test case. Since creation, after the fall of man, it was decided that all should dress."

HALF HOUR OLD BABY KIDNAPPED

Taken Out of House By Midwife—No Trace of Woman or Child Found.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

WINNIPEG, Feb. 28.—Winnipeg has a mystery of a half-hour old baby. The police have been working on the case since last Wednesday but have not been able to form even a theory. Last Tuesday afternoon the wife of J. B. Jones, 200 Good street, gave birth to a baby. The only one with her in the house at the time was a midwife, Mrs. J. M. Anderson, the husband being out looking for work.

The newborn babe was seen by the midwife and cried lustily. Half an hour after its birth Mrs. Anderson said the house was too cold for it and she would take it to her home. Accordingly she wrapped it in a comforter and disappeared.

Since that time the parents have been unable to secure a trace of the child or the woman.

Mrs. Anderson left two notes at the Jones home, one to Mrs. Jones, telling her not to worry as the baby would be all right, and the other to the husband, telling him to take good care of his wife.

The Jones family is in poor circumstances and she could have no hope of a ransom being offered.

NEW DESTROYER RUNS ON ROCKS

Crew Rescued and Salvage Operations on Vessel Now in Progress —Is Stuck Fast.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.)

GLASGOW, March 1.—H.M.S. Laverock, one of the newest and finest torpedo boat destroyers of the British navy, went on the rocks today in Skelmerlie bay, on the Firth of Clyde, and stuck fast. The crew were taken off safely. Salvage operations are in progress and a naval inquiry will be held.

H.M.S. Laverock is one of 20 ocean-going torpedo boat destroyers included in the naval construction program, as announced by Mr. Churchill in his naval budget speech last spring. It was actually ordered some months previously from Messrs. Yarrow & Co., Scotstown, on the Clyde, and apparently it was while engaged in its trials that the accident happened. It figured in the estimates as the Haverock. A decision later was reached to call all destroyers of each program by a single initial letter, and the Laverock belongs to the L or Laertes class. The boats now under construction belong to the M class. The Laverock has a length of 260 feet, with 27 feet beam and in sea-going trim has a displacement of 945 tons. It is driven by twin screws and its 24,500-horsepower under-feed draught gives a nominal speed of 32 1-3 knots, which has actually been exceeded by most of its sister ships under official steam trials.

The armament includes three four-inch guns and two submerged tubes for discharging 21-inch torpedoes. Officers and men number 100. Messrs. Yarrow specialize on these craft and they are fitted with modified Yarrow water tube boilers for using oil fuel.

MAY BE BANDIT WHO HELD UP TRAIN

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

VANCOUVER, B. C., March 1.—In Hardy Sullivan, arraigned on the charge of robbing John Watson in his shack on Salisbury drive, two weeks ago, the police suspected that they may have one of the bandits who held up a Great Northern train near Samish station, Wash., and murdered three passengers who attempted to interfere with them. Partial identification of the man was made last night by passengers on the train.

FIRE IN OFFICE OF FIRE EXTINGUISHER COMPANY

(By Daily News Leased Wire)

VANCOUVER, B. C., March 1.—Damage to the extent of some $7,000 to $10,000 was done to the Perceval building and its contents, 1150 Main street today, when a fire broke out in the second story leased by the General Fire Extinguisher company. The smoke was so dense and the situation of the building such that only the ladder and one line of hose could be used to fight the flames.

WIND'S PRANKS AT CLARESHOLM

Exhibition Buildings Swept from Foundations

BLIZZARD RAGES OVER NEW YORK

Five Injured When Side of Building Collapses in Montreal.

(By Daily News Leased Wire)

CLARESHOLM, March 1.—At midnight last night a twisting wind struck Claresholm and did damage amounting to $3,000. Starting at the west end of town and traveling in an easterly direction, it swept the buildings off their foundations at the fair grounds, consisting of the main exhibition building, grand stand and curling rink.

A two-story house standing near the curling rink caught the full force of the current and numerous pieces of the wreck were blown through the side and roof of the house, narrowly missing the family who lived there.

The roof of the curling rink and one side of it were strewn over the ground for a distance of several blocks, pieces of heavy timbers being carried into the main streets of the town.

Windows were blown out of houses adjacent to the fair grounds, small buildings were strewn about like chaff and wagons, buggies, cutters, and the like, were found several blocks from their starting point.

All the buildings at the fair grounds except a stable were totally destroyed. The grand stand had the centre torn out, leaving the two ends standing, although slightly twisted.

Buildings in the main part of town were unharmed, although several were well shaken up.

In the residential part of the town the wind played many peculiar pranks, but did little damage except to small property.

In the country reports at hand show little damage to buildings, but several farmers report total loss of windmills, which in some cases were carried considerable distances and broken into bits. No injuries to persons have as yet been reported, although several close calls were experienced.

Iceboats Scattered.

(Special to The Daily News)

TORONTO, March 1.—Toronto escaped serious damage in the wind storm which stirred things up in this city today to an unusual extent.

Between 7 and 8 o'clock tonight the wind was blowing at the rate of 72 miles an hour at the storm signal station at the eastern gap, and iceboats on the bay were scattered and damaged.

No person has been hurt. Many railway trains were late entering the town owing to the telephone and telegraph wires being down and the necessity of despatching trains from station to station.

Utilities in Toronto were not disturbed by the storm.

Storm in New York

(By Daily News Leased Wire)

NEW YORK, March 1.—A northeast storm, swerving to the northwest, which brought first rain, then snow, raged over New York and vicinity, cutting the city almost completely off from telegraph and telephone communication. Reports showed its effects to be widespread. Three deaths due to the storm occurred here, two of them occurring together when a roof over a sidewalk collapsed under the weight of wet snow, crushing a man and a boy. Another man, blinded by snow, was killed by a train. Several persons were overcome by exposure and a number were injured in street accidents. Trains, for the most part, left their terminals, but with wires down, they were lost completely at times.

Nothing could be learned of in bound trains, wet snow sapping the wires, and with a gale blowing 72 miles an hour at times many poles toppled over. On some lines the poles fell across railroad tracks, blocking traffic.

At local offices of the telegraph companies, it was said, conditions were among the worst in years. The Western Union's 50 wires to Chicago and most of the 150 wires to Philadelphia were down.

Communication in the early evening hours was possible only as far as Syracuse to the north, and Chicago was reached by a few remaining wires by way of Philadelphia and Pittsburg. The Postal Telegraph company reported wire trouble of similar seriousness. To the east the wire were working normally through to Boston, but in other directions the traffic was so crippled that it will be nearly a week, it is said, before the service can be wholly resumed.

Ships Delayed

Ships due here today were held outside Sandy Hook. Washington advised the local bureau to warn vessels not to put out to sea.

The storm started in the vicinity of Cape Hatteras, moving north and gaining intensity. In Jersey the effect of the rain on the wire service was especially serious. At Elizabethport, N. J., a Western Union tower, through which a great number of wires passed, was destroyed by fire,

TOWN SAVED BY BUCKET BRIGADE

Hundred Thousand Dollars Damage by Fire at Chaplin—Whole Town in Danger.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

MOOSE JAW, Sask., March 1.—A disastrous earl morning conflagration which broke out shortly before 5 o'clock, and before checked occasioned in the neighborhood of $100,000 damage, destroyed six stores, buildings and dwellings and threatened for a time to wipe out the entire town of Chaplin, situated on the main line of the Canadian Pacific railway west of Moose Jaw. Good work on the part of a bucket brigade organized by the villagers undoubtedly saved the whole town from going up in smoke. Burroughs' store, Wells & Parkers' store, Thurtell's store and Burroughs residence were destroyed and it was only after a fight that the depot, the hotel and the livery barn, all of which were badly scorched, were saved, although the loss is fairly covered by insurance. A number of the principal losers have stated that they will not rebuild.

CHORUS GIRLS ACT ATTACK ON PREMIER

Police Find Invaders Wearing Suffragette Colors—Are Working for Moving Picture Company.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, March 1.—An enterprising attempt by a band of militants to raid Premier Asquith's official residence in Downing street today, was frustrated by the police, who are always stationed in strong force in the vicinity. Several automobiles containing a dozen women wearing the colors of the militant organization, dashed suddenly into the street from Whitehall, and the occupants were about to enter the house when the police surrounded them. It transpired afterwards that the "operations" had been promoted by an American moving picture concern which had hired a number of chorus girls to represent the militants.

ONTARIO REPRESENTED ON GEORGIAN BAY COMMISSION

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

OTTAWA, March 1.—It is stated that the commission to inquire into the commercial feasibility of the Georgian bay canal, of which Sanford Evans, of Winnipeg, is likely to be the chairman, may be increased from three to five members. In addition to Mr. Evans, it is understood that Col. F. Meighen and Edmund Gohier, of Montreal, have agreed to accept. It is understood that representations have been made to the government that as three-fourths of the canal will be in Ontario, that province should be represented on the commission. The result is likely to be that an official announcement of the personnel of the committee will be delayed until two representatives of Ontario can be added to those already named.

BELGIANS MUCH INTERESTED IN BRITISH COLUMBIA

VANCOUVER, B. C., March 1.—Former Consul-General Von Breyssel, of Germany to Canada, arrived here today for the purpose of making a tour of British Columbia with a view to obtaining sufficient data to interest Belgian capitalists to invest their capital in this country. He has brought with him a moving picture apparatus. He stated that his countrymen were more interested than ever in the Dominion, and that the influx of capital from Belgium would be larger than it had been before. He leaves for the north in a few days.

GOES TO JAIL INSTEAD OF PAYING FINE

NEW WESTMINSTER, B. C., March 1.—Joseph Tepping, formerly postmaster of East Burnaby, was sentenced yesterday to one month's imprisonment in default of paying a fine of $25 for theft by conversion. An additional sentence of two months was imposed but was allowed to be suspended.

Helping the Manufacturer Who Helps You

Mr. Merchant:—Work with the manufacturer who is enterprising enough to help make a market for you rather than with the one who does nothing.

Of course, you must keep the kind of goods the public wants.

But where all things are equal you should let it be known that you will be more friendly towards the goods of the man who helps you market them than to the one who stocks up your shelves with his goods and lets you get rid of them the best way you can.

As a rule, advertised goods under a standard name are of better quality than the mondescript kind, because the manufacturer of the former is striving to build up a reputation.

When you put your own name on a brand of goods you are pretty certain as to the quality—are you not?

The manufacturer has more at stake than you have.

The reason the public favors advertised goods is that it has come to know that advertised brands are usually the best.

The Bureau of Advertising, American Newspaper Publishers' Association, World Building, New York, solicits correspondence with manufacturers interested in newspaper advertising and co-operative dealer work.

DEMONSTRATION IN HYDE PARK

South African Labor Leaders Address Gathering

HALF MILLION MEN PRESENT

Speeches Over Before End of Procession Reaches Park.

(By Daily News Leased Wire)

LONDON, March 1.—The deported South African labor leaders addressed a great demonstration in Hyde Park on Sunday afternoon which had been organized by the labor syndicalist "rebels." The meeting was the direct antithesis of Friday's gathering in the London opera house. The absence of the Labor M.P.s from the platform was most noticeable, their places being taken by Socialists and Labor extremists.

The Standard indicates the sort of gathering it was by quoting a reference of one of the speakers to a "person named George, supposed to be King of England."

The demonstrators marched to the park in a procession which is estimated to have been seven miles long and to have numbered 500,000 men; in fact, so great was the parade its rear guard only entered Hyde Park long after the speeches were over and the demonstration ended.

The Daily Citizen, Labor, enthusiastically declares that the spectacle was staggering in its magnitude and displayed the overwhelming moral might of the multitudes which "formed England's imperial answer to Botha's sentence of banishment."

Special comment is made of the changed tone of the speeches of the deportees. Baine, for one, showed syndicalist tendencies, while Poulsma dropped his apologetics and hit right out from the shoulder. Several observers declare that the large percentage of the vast crowds were merely curious sightseers, anxious to see the "men of the moment."

The bulk of the crowd could not hear the speeches.

As one result of the demonstration the interesting suggestion is made that while the nine deportees remain in England their places shall be taken in South Africa by nine English labor firebrands. If the South African organizations are agreeable, Tom Mann is ready to start, and it is hoped Jim Larkin and Ben Tillett will be persuaded to go. The fruition of the scheme is, however, doubtful.

Storm Brewing.

(Western Associated Press Special Cable.)

LONDON, March 2.—The newspapers are still inclined to ridicule the South African leaders and to minimize the gravity of the situation. The Daily News, Radical, attempts to check this attitude by noting the magnitude of the brewing storm and wondering whether popular instinct possesses sufficient steadiness to make its irresistible weight felt.

The Daily Chronicle notes indirect invitation by Baine to the British workers to join in the general cessation of labor planned for South Africa on July 5, the anniversary of the shooting at Johannesburg.

The Herald, the mouthpiece of the Labor "rebels," characterizes the Hyde park gathering as an "inspiring profession of faith, a prelude to action." It adds, "the vital things are action, stoppage of work throughout the industrial areas and unrelenting war on the government by the Labor party at Westminster. As the next logical steps we must stop the wheels and paralyze tyranny. Tom Mann and other rebels must go to South Africa. That will be one direct answer to the challenge of Bothaism on his own ground, while the laying down by the workers of their tools will bring the backers of Bothaism in these institutions to their senses."

Gustave Hamel, the aviator, continues to move in air circles. He looped the loop five times yesterday at the Worcester airdome with a passenger, in the presence of a crowd of 8,000, including the Marchioness of Anglesey, the Duchess of Rutland, Lady Diana Manners and Baroness de Brienne.

Viscount Hythe celebrated his silver wedding yesterday. In thanking his tenants at Catsfield for the congratulatory address he announced that he had not sold his estates, though he could have done so, out of consideration to them.

The King and Queen attended the great railway men's concert in the Albert hall last night, accompanied by the Prince of Wales, Prince Albert, Prince Henry and Princess Mary. The choir numbered 760 and the orchestra 180, all railway men or members of their families.

Lord Claud Hamilton, whose speech announcing the appointment of an American manager for the Great Eastern railway, caused a public protest two weeks ago, was among those who received their majesties. The King chaffed Lord Claud, remarking that he was "glad that there is harmony in the railway world again," and promised to patronize the suburban trains of the Great Eastern when under the new management.

NAVAL ESTIMATES BREAK RECORD

Two new Battleships and Many Smaller Vessels for United States Navy

(By Daily News Leased Wire)

WASHINGTON, March 1.—With appropriations carrying $129,964,333 for two new battleships, six torpedo boat destroyers, one big sea-going torpedo submarine, three coast defence submarines, and four small torpedo boats, the annual navy appropriation bill was reported to the house yesterday. It reduces the departmental estimates by $4,500,000. The navy increases authorized will cost ultimately $43,338,000, for which initial appropriations of $17,508,000 are made. The two new dreadnoughts will cost $15,000,000 each and will be built in private yards, instead of the federal navy yards. The three new coast defence submarines will be built on the Pacific coast.

The four small torpedo boats are to be stationed on the Gulf coast.

Representatives Witherspoon, Hensley, Buchanan and Grey, of the house naval committee, filed a minority report today, denouncing the appropriations as an "inexcusable extravagance and criminal waste of the public funds."

They declared that the appropriations exceeded the largest amount ever spent in one year and asserted that there was no need for construction of any more battleships.

SUDDEN DEATH OF QUEBEC MINISTER

Had Been Improving in Health Until Last Friday—Was Sufefring from Bright's Disease

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

OTTAWA, March 1.—Hon. Charles R. Devlin, M. P. P. for Temiskaming and minister of colonization, mines and fisheries in the Quebec government, died at the family home at Aylmer, Que., at 7:30 o'clock this morning.

Three weeks ago, when he was informed that he was suffering from Bright's disease, he came to his father's house, thinking that he would be sure to recover there. Indeed, his death was totally unexpected until Friday evening, for he had begun to show progress toward recovery. Yesterday the immediate relatives were summoned and in the presence of his family he passed peacefully away at the age of 55.

At the death bed were his wife and son, Bernard, his father, his brother, E. B. Devlin, M. P., and his wife, two other brothers and two sisters. The remains will be interred in the family burial ground at Aylmer on Wednesday.

LABOR CONTROVERSY UNSOLVED PROBLEM

South Africa Will Be Left to Solve Own Problem—Compromise on Ulster Improbable.

(By Daily News Leased Wire)

LONDON, March 1.—Ulster is for the moment obscured by the controversy over the deportation of the South African labor leaders by the Union government. This is not so much because of questions regarding its legality, which will, it is understood, be tested both in the British and African courts, but more on account of the belief that the affair will still further separate the ministerial and Labor parties. It has been apparent for some considerable time that the trades union and parliamentary leaders are losing their control of the mass of trade unionists and workers. So strong has the pressure become that leaders in and out of parliament have been compelled to appear to lead movements with which they are not wholly in sympathy.

Six seats have been lost to the government because of the intervention of Labor candidates. This has been unusual by the act of local organizations, both Liberal and Labor, and their determination to act independently. This local antagonism, general throughout the country, is in the main due to unsatisfactory working conditions.

Gen. Botha has followed up his drastic action by introducing a measure conferring legal rights on the government little distinguishable from the extraordinary powers exercised under martial law. There is no doubt, however, that South Africa will be left at liberty to work out its problem in its own way.

An attempt to fetter its government would result in questions of deepest concern to the whole empire.

It is the effort to turn the Ulster situation into party capital which renders it almost impossible to effect a compromise. But for the internal troubles of the coalition the government would probably be strong enough to compel a compromise, for, although seats have been lost, there is no evidence that the country had responded in any considerable degree to the Ulster appeal. Labor candidates and Liberal candidates have stood together on home rule, and the other leading features of the ministerialist policy. Where they differ is on the measure and scale of social and political reform.

LORD MINTO DIES IN LONDON

Former Governor General of Canada

CHIEF OF STAFF IN REBELLION

Two Attempts Made on Life While Viceroy of India.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, March 1.—Lord Minto died at 4 a.m.

Lord Minto was governor-general of Canada from 1898 to 1904, and both he and Lady Minto were popular with all they met generally throughout the Dominion, as well as at Rideau hall. In India, too, all members of the family were extremely popular, both with Europeans and natives, though Lord Minto was called upon to use a strong hand in fighting the sedition which was spreading throughout the country, and twice, once at Barrackpore and once near Ahmedabad, attempts were made on his life with bombs.

Educated at Eton and at Trinity college, Cambridge, Lord Melgund, as he was then, entered the Scots Guards in 1867. He was for a short time in Paris during the communist rising in 1871, and three years later acted as correspondent for the London Morning Post during the Carlist rising in Spain in 1874. During the Russo-Turkish war he was assistant military secretary with the Turkish army on the Danube, when he was present at the bombardment of Nikopolis and the crossing of the Danube.

In 1879 he served as a volunteer on the staff of Field Marshal Lord Roberts during the Afghan campaign. In 1881 he accompanied Lord Roberts to South Africa as his private secretary. When the Egyptian war broke out in 1882, Lord Melgund was appointed a captain in the mounted infantry, was wounded at the action of Magfar, and afterward commanded the mounted infantry in Cairo, for which he was mentioned in despatches and thanked in general orders.

When the Marquis of Lansdowne was appointed governor-general of Canada in 1883, Lord Melgund accepted a position in which he won many friends in the Dominion, that of military secretary. This friendship was accentuated by the action of Lord Melgund when the Riel rebellion broke out. At once he gave up his duties at Rideau hall and became chief of staff to Lieut.-Gen. Sir Frederick Middleton, in which capacity he did good service and endeared himself to all the Canadian military men with whom he came in contact.

Lord Minto's active participation in Canadian life began with his appointment as military secretary. In 1885 when the northwest rebellion broke out, he at once volunteered and went to the front as chief of the staff of Major-Gen. Middleton. Soon after he arrived at the front he earned a place in the commanding officer's diary. Lord Melgund, which was then his courtesy title, was engaged in scouting. The official report of the major-general contained the paragraph under date of April 18: "Halted. I sent Lord Melgund out with Major Boulton and his scouts to reconnoitre toward the enemy. They returned in the evening having captured three Indians of White Caps, the American Sioux band."

At the battle of Fish creek, he found himself two miles from the scene of the encounter with the river lying between. Lord Melgund improvised a ferry and landed his force on the other side, but too late to take part in the engagement.

Lord Melgund continued as chief of staff, taking charge of the general arrangements. Just before the decisive battle at Batoche he was sent back to Ottawa to lay the situation before the government as to the necessity for reinforcements as it was then thought the campaign would last much longer. Major Boulton, in his "Reminiscences of the Northwest Rebellions," thus speaks of his departure:

"We were sorry to lose him, for a kinder or more gallant officer no troops ever served under."

Lord Melgund was among the specially mentioned by Major-Gen. Middleton as deserving of credit for their conduct during the rebellion.

Tribute from Premier.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

OTTAWA, March 1.—When informed of Lord Minto's death this evening, Premier Borden said:

"The news of Lord Minto's death will be received with profound regret by his friends in Canada. He served the empire faithfully and well, both as a soldier and a diplomat. As governor general of Canada and viceroy of India he filled the high and sometimes difficult positions with ability, firmness and discretion. His associations with this dominion both in early and later life, won for him a well deserved place in the affections and respect of the Canadian people, whose deepest sympathy will be extended to Lady Minto and her family."

NO EXAMINATION OF BENTON BODY

Investigation Committee Prevented From Proceeding by Rebel Orders—Further Complications.

JUAREZ, March 1.—The Benton investigation committee today was prevented from proceeding to Chihuahua to examine the slain Briton's body by rebel orders. Col. Fidel Avila, military commander here, declined to permit them to board the regular passenger train, which was waiting.

More Delay.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

WASHINGTON, March 1.—No examination of the body of Benton will be made by the commission composed of American and British government representatives, pending the outcome of an exchange of notes between Gen. Carranza, chief of the constitutionalists, and the United States government. Gen. Carranza's declaration that Great Britain, instead of the United States should deal with him, concerning the death of a British subject, coupled with the broad intimation that all communications of international affairs should be addressed to him instead of Gen. Villa or any other of his subordinates, indicate a new complication in the situation, and the expedition to Chihuahua, arranged to start from El Paso today, was postponed.

President Wilson and Secretary Bryan had a long conference, reading the news from Carranza and other despatches. Afterward Secretary Bryan visited the British embassy and informed Sir Cecil Spring-Rice that the expedition to Chihuahua, where Benton's body is buried had been abandoned until satisfactory arrangements could be arranged with Carranza.

Just what instructions have been sent to the American consul at Nogales, who is in touch with Gen. Carranza, was not divulged, but representatives of Carranza, who understand the American viewpoint, were busy telegraphing the constitutionalist commander tonight, urging a change of attitude.

Villa Not Recognized.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

NEW ORLEANS, La., March 1.—Great Britain will never recognize the constitutionalist party in Mexico, even to the extent of requesting that Gen. Carranza investigate the death of William S. Benton, according to Sir Lionel Carden, British minister to Mexico, who was here today on his way to Washington.

Shot by Soldiers

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

VANCOUVER, B. C., March 1.—A letter has been received here from a member of Gen. Villa's staff in Mexico. It throws an illuminating light on the death of William Benton, the Scotch rancher who was killed in Villa's camp recently, and whose death has caused diplomatic officials of three nations a great deal of worry. The letter follows:

"Judging from the papers all of you Britishers and Canadians in Canada and elsewhere are up in arms over the killing of the Scotch rancher, William S. Benton, at Juarez, Mexico. Herewith I give you Gen. Villa's side of the story. A special messenger of Gen. Villa's told the story last night at a meeting of constitutionalists junta, of which I am an honorary member.

"Benton entered Villa's headquarters armed and pushing the guard, who attempted to stop him, rudely aside. With boisterous language and oaths he made demands which Villa refused to comply with and when the general leaped to his feet and ordered him out he yelled back: 'I'll stay until hell freezes over unless you pay me for the stolen cattle.'

"Then Villa ordered him thrown out and the soldiers being much excited and fearing a second attempt on the general's life, shot the Scotchman to death.

"Those of us who know and respect Gen. Villa have always been given a square deal, but like most Mexicans he is hot-headed and it will not do to bully him. Many Britishers and Americans slight him because he has Indian blood, and he is quick to resent an insult. Mr. Benton's act in forcing his way into the general's private office was a mistake which cost him his life. Everyone regrets the incident.

"Respectfully,
"GUSTAVE H. SCHOOF."

adding to the difficulty. Albany reported a six-inch snowfall. In New York city the weather bureau recorded a fall of nine and one-half inches, although this was not apparent to the eye as much of it was melted by the rain. Snow and colder weather was the forecast for tomorrow.

Fatal Collapse.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

MONTREAL, March 1.—Five persons were injured, one fatally, and the dying hours of an old man hastened, when the side of a four-story building, weakened by the storm, collapsed on top of a shack, 27 Emery street, occupied by three families. Here several relatives and friends are keeping a death watch over an Italian, Antonio Chiapa. One of the watchers, Mrs. Maffei, aged 38, was taken to the hospital with a broken back. Four others suffered from serious injuries and 17 people had narrow escapes.

death, though late reports were by no means reassuring. As governor general he won our good opinion by the quiet, unassuming way in which he moved among us, but the great good sense and business tact with which he performed the duties of his office and the firm and patriotic spirit which characterized the government in a somewhat critical time in our history.

"In India during a restless and troubled period, he proved himself equal to the responsibility and delicate task of administering that composite dependency of the empire and since his return to Great Britain he has proved himself an able and unwavering friend of Canada and a sturdy supporter of the best Imperial traditions.

"To Lady Minto and the surviving family, the hearts of many thousands of Canadians will go out in deep sympathy in this hour of their affliction."

A NEGLECTED BARD

Correspondents send me further examples of strange and bad verse. These are from the published works of the late Mr. William McGonagall, of Dundee, the autumn of whose days was cheered by acknowledgments from the Duke of Cambridge and Lord Wolseley of a poem on the battle of El-Teb. The poem deals with the leader of the British forces and says:

"His name will go down to posterity
without any stigma
Because at the Battle of El-Teb he defeated Osman Digna."

Another epic by this too-long neglected bard has as subject the Perth flower show, and there are these lines:

"And there were chrysanthemums,
some of them short and some of them tall,
And some of them the property of Lord Provost Ballingall."

Naturally, the Greenland whale that was misguided enough to visit the Tay when the whalers were at home, has a McGonagall masterpiece all to itself. There is this about its spouting and the pursuers:

"Then the water descended on the men in the boats,
Wetting their trousers and also their coats."—London Observer.

Kootenay and Boundary

ELKO NOTES

By Fred Roo

The Ladies' guild gave a concert in Hirtz' hall on Friday which was very well attended, the hall being comfortably filled. The dance after was said to be a humdinger and was very much enjoyed.

Thomas Prentice, manager of the A. Macdonald company, was in Elko this week.

Chief of Provincial Police Minty of Fernie district was in Elko this week-end and Kootenay river points. We understand the department will put on mounted men in this district and the idea is a good one. The Tobacco Plains country is without police protection at all.

The writer was away visiting Roosville, Flagstone and Tobacco Plains country last week-end and in our absence the Fernie hockey boys came down to our picturesque and hyacinth-tinted burg and pulled the feathers from our braves on Sunday, February 22; score 9-0 in favor of Fernie. The attendance was small and the game one-sided and very poor for spectators. The ice was in a very poor condition on account of the mild weather. Report says our braves had several shots on the Fernie goal, but their goalkeeper was invincible and every bit as good as a village wake in County Cork, and cut rings around our boys. The rooters, report says, had frogs in their throats and it was a very mild affair. We sincerely hope the commercial element of this district, also the train jumpers, will excuse us handing our braves any more lemons this trip. Both teams dined at the Columbia hotel and were as sociable as a couple of strange pups.

Mrs. Fred Roo of Roosville is visiting Elko and Fernie this week.

Times are hard and time may be money, but, suffering cats, we can't exchange provisions for it.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Burgess and family, Winlaw, Slocan valley, moved to Elko this week and will take up their residence in the vicinity of Waldo.

Charlie O. Beard was in town visiting old friends.

Harry Abrahams is expected in Elko about Sunday.

Mr. Coolridge, who is looking for land, left for Baynes lake and Tobacco plains on Wednesday.

They have found another bank president in the United States $50,000 short, but what about it. Aren't most of us $50,000 short?

The tango dance is taking up considerable space in the papers now among the clergy from the pope down. The Bishop of Nancy will have something to say to this.

Mrs. J. Thompson of the Columbia hotel was visiting Krag and Waldo this week.

BAPTIST PASTOR WILL OPERATE RANCH

(Special to The Daily News)

ROBSON, B. C., March 1.—At the business meeting of the Baptist church on Wednesday evening last, the pastor, Rev. J. C. Hobson stated that he was severing his connection as pastor of the church on March 1. On Sunday he will preach his farewell sermon and leave on Tuesday or Wednesday for Slocan Park, where he will operate his fruit ranch during the coming season.

A meeting of the Baptist congregation of Robson will be held in a few days to make future arrangements.

The monthly meeting of the Farmers' institute will be held on Thursday next at the Columbia house at 7:30 p. m.

Dr. A. P. McDiarmid spent Sunday in Nelson, officiating at both services in the Baptist church there.

A number of Robson ranchers regret that the prospects of holding a pruning school for this season are not very bright, owing to the large number of engagements ahead for the department instructors in pruning. It is hoped that a one-day demonstration will be available.

The monthly meeting of the Robson Women's institute was held on Saturday afternoon last at the home of Mrs. Arthur Lundy and was fairly well attended. A most interesting paper was read by Miss Maggie Clyde on "The History of the Kootenay," which dealt with the leading events of the West Kootenay since 1881 and made reference to events in the East Kootenays as far back as 1820. The address which was greatly appreciated by the members present, was followed by a general discussion on the "Preparation of supper dishes," numerous suggestions being offered. The next meeting will be held on Saturday, March 21 at the home of Mrs. H. P. Golden, the hour of meeting being 3 p. m. instead of 2:30 as heretofore. The subjects for discussion will be "Gardening and Treating of the Soil" and "Bulb Planting," and will be led by Mesdames C. Berry and A. Hartford respectively.

FOR DELICATE CHILDREN

A Mother's Letter to Mothers.

Mrs. E. W. Cooper of Bloomfield, N. J., says: "My child, seven years old, had a bad cold and was weak and quite run down in health. She had been in this condition for about six weeks when I began giving her Vinol. It was a wonderful help to the child, breaking up her cold quickly and building up her strength beside. I have also found Vinol a most excellent tonic for keeping up the children's strength during a siege of whooping cough."

Vinol is a wonderful combination of two world-famed tonics—the medicinal body building elements of cod liver oil and iron for the blood, therefore it is a perfectly safe medicine for children, because it is not a patent medicine, everything in it is printed on every package, so mothers may know what they are giving their little ones.

Therefore we ask every mother of a weak, sickly or ailing child in this vicinity to try Vinol on our guarantee. Wm. Rutherford, Druggist, Nelson, B. C.

A large number of settlers are expected here in the spring.

Hockey Teams Disagree On Inter-League Game Tonight

POSSIBILITY OF NO GAME BETW EEN GRAND FORKS AND TRAIL—TRAIL WANTS HOME GAME; GRAND FORKS DESIRES TO PLAY IN ROSSLAND

Owing to the inability of the two teams to come to a satisfactory arrangement as to where the second game of the series between Grand Forks and Trail for the possession of The Nelson Daily News cup should be played it is doubtful whether or not there will be a game for the coveted silverware tonight.

When the championship of the two leagues had been decided it looked as though there would not be ice for a play-off at either Grand Forks or Trail and it was suggested that both games should be played at Rossland. Later, Grand Forks got ice and Trail went over there to play a sudden death game for the McBride cup, which was also to serve as the first of two games for The Daily News cup. Tonight was set for the second game for the News cup. In the meantime a change in the temperature produced ice at Trail and that team took the ground that as the first game for The Daily News cup series had been played in Grand Forks the second should be played in Trail.

In anticipation of playing in Rossland, the Grand Forks team had arranged for a special train over the Great Northern to that city for tonight. When notified of the desire of the Trail team that the second game should be played in that city the Grand Forks team asked that the arrangements for playing in Rossland should be adhered to. The two teams were unable to come to an agreement and the matter was submitted to Dr. M. J. Vigneux, of Nelson, president of the West Kootenay-Boundary Hockey league, who submitted the matter to the presidents respectively of the West Kootenay and Boundary leagues, S. G. Blaylock, of Trail, and F. S. Norcross, of Greenwood, and A. E. Black, of Phoenix, secretary of the West Kootenay-Boundary league, as trustees for the cup. After considerable telephoning had been done, Messrs. Norcross and Black wired Mr. Blaylock as follows:

"If definite prior agreement by both parties to play in Rossland and Grand Forks second game should be played in Rossland. If not Trail should name place. If Trail claims no such agreement made then play game in Trail. Do not think you will ask for game in Trail unless your ice is good and you are not bound by above agreement. We will leave decision to you."

Following this Dr. Vigneux got in touch with the various parties interested, but was unable to make any satisfactory arrangement, Trail refusing to play in Rossland and Grand Forks refusing to play in Trail.

That is how matters stand at the time of going to press. It is to be hoped, however, that some arrangement may yet be made for the play-off, if not tonight at least some time within the next couple of days.

Over the long distance telephone from Trail last night S. G. Blaylock stated that Grand Forks had placed a proposition before the Trail club in which Grand Forks agreed to hand the cup over to Trail without a further game, if in return Trail would consent to play an exhibition game in the golden city. Trail would not accept the proposal, according to Mr. Blaylock, but made a counter proposal that Grand Forks play the final game of the series for the Daily News cup at Trail and in return Trail would play an exhibition game in Rossland with the Boundary champions.

Grand Forks Case.

(Special to The Daily News.)

GRAND FORKS, B. C., March 1.—When the Trail team left here on Friday night it was arranged between the officials of each team that the next and last game was to be played on Monday at Rossland, on Saturday an excursion was arranged for Monday and on Saturday afternoon word was received from the Trail club that it expected the game to be played in Trail, according to the management of the Grand Forks team.

"Nelson's game with Trail last Wednesday was played in Rossland owing to the poor condition of the ice in Trail and there has been no frost of any account since then the ice cannot be any better than it was then," it is declared. All through the arranging of these games Grand Forks has allowed Trail to have what it asked for, the dates being changed to suit Trail was. The manner of playing the games as suggested by Trail was agreed to by Grand Forks. Where the games were to be played as suggested by Trail was also agreed to by Grand Forks.

"The officials for the game on Friday last were changed to meet the wishes of Trail and, the president of the Grand Forks hockey club states in every manner open for discussion in the arranging of these games, the wishes of Trail have been conceded.

Grand Forks does not claim to have a better hockey team than Trail but claims to have as good. The ice in Trail cannot be in good condition. That at Rossland is in first class shape and it is only reasonable that Grand Forks should expect and wish to play the game on the best ice, is the claim made.

TRAIL TEAM NOW HOLDS INTERIOR CHAMPIONSHIP

WIN OVER GRAND FORKS GIVES SMELTER CITY POSSESSION OF McBRIDE CUP—SERIES OF TW O FOR DAILY NEWS SILVERWARE.

By virtue of its win over Grand Forks at the Boundary city on Friday the Trail hockey team carries now the title of "Champions of the interior of British Columbia," and is in possession of the Sir Richard McBride trophy emblematic of the interior honors. By ruling of the executive of the Kootenay-Boundary hockey association it was decided to settle the interior championship and possession of the McBride trophy by a sudden death game to be played on the ice of the team holding the trophy and by winning the game in Grand Forks on Friday, the Trail team is now the interior champion and is open to challenge from any team in the interior, whose right to challenge is recognized by the trustees of the cup.

For The Nelson Daily News trophy emblematic of the Kootenay-Boundary championship, it was agreed that two games be played, the total goals scored in the series to count so that the destination of the Kootenay-Boundary championship has yet to be determined. The Trail boys brought the McBride trophy back from the Boundary with them.

CANADIENS WIN HONORS IN DOUBT

Eastern Championship May Rest With Result of Wanderer-Toronto Game Wednesday Night.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

MONTREAL, March 1.—Battling for nearly three minutes overtime, the Canadiens made it four straight when they defeated the Wanderers in their National Hockey association fixture at the arena on Saturday night by six to five. The water-covered surface put combination play out of the question, both teams depending altogether on the individual rushes of their forwards. On three occasions the score was tied, the winner leading at the end of the first period, while at the end of the second session the Wanderers had assumed the lead. The only goal scored in the final 20 minutes of the regular time was secured by Scott, which placed the teams on equal terms.

The players mixed it up generally at times, getting beyond control of the officials shortly after the commencement of play, and from then on almost all regulations were forgotten. Men of both teams got away with numerous offsides and used the "butt-end" and cross-checked almost at will in the second and third periods, Ross and Scott were the only players to draw majors.

From an offside play near the Wanderers' goal in the overtime, Berlinquette secured the puck from the face-off and taking a shot from long range scored the winning goal, giving the Canadiens a new lease of life in the championship race. The honors are now in doubt again and the Wanderers control the situation. Should they win from Torontos on Wednesday it will bring about a tie in the standing, as there is no doubt about the flying Frenchmen beating the Ontarios in their final game here.

TORONTO, March 1.—The Royal Military college at Kingston defeated Varsity on Saturday in the intermediate series of the intercollegiate union, six to two.

VICTORIA MAY SEE PRO LACROSSE

Capital Officials Negotiating With New Westminster Stars—Players Await Con Jones' Return

(By Daily News Leased Wire)

VICTORIA, B. C., March 1.—Victoria will have a professional lacrosse team this year if several players now in New Westminster can be induced to come here. Among those with whom the officials here are now negotiating are: John Howard, Grumpy Spring, Len Turnbull, Hughie Gifford and Buck Marshall. Rumor has it however, that the local officials are building aircastles and are signing the players without first consulting them. The possibility of Con Jones' returning to the game caused all coast players to hold off signing until he returns from the old country and has a chance to bid for their services.

FEDERAL SEASON OPENS APRIL THIRTEENTH

(By Daily News Leased Wire)

CHICAGO, March 1.—The Federal league's playing season, which will be opened April 13, one day before the National and the American leagues begin their campaigns, will include 154 games. The end of the season, President Gilmore said, would come early in October, owing to the time of the National and American windup.

"We will be ready to play for the world's championship the second week in October," said one of the club owners. Manager Phillips of Indianapolis was pleased with yesterday's apportionment, which brought him Jimmy Hammon, the former Cincinnati and Montreal second baseman.

In the church bowling league on Saturday night the Presbyterians took three straight games from the Baptists. H. Gibbs, of the Presbyterian quintet, was high man during the evening with the score of 183 pins. He also carried off high average.

NEW DENVER WINS FROM SILVERTON

Best Game of Season Witnessed at Silverton—Both Teams Furnish Snappy Hockey.

(Special to The Daily News.)

SILVERTON, B. C., March 1.—The best hockey game of the season was the general verdict of the large crowd that witnessed the last of the Slocan league series at this place on Friday evening, between New Denver and the home team. The game was won by New Denver by a score of eight to seven, which, however, hardly represented the play as the war raged in the vicinity of the New Denver net a large share of the time and but for the very clever work of their goal-tender the bombardment by the Silverton forward line would have changed the complexion of the score, although the visitors were usually successful in their attempts to locate the Silverton net.

Both teams played good hockey and showed material that, with a little practice, should hold their own with any team in the Kootenays.

WIN FOR SENATORS IN OVERTIME PLAY

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

TORONTO, March 1.—Ottawa won from the Ontarios three to two in a close game last night. When the regular playing time was up each team had scored two goals and another 20 minutes' play was made without a rest, the result being a victory for the Senators. Neither team extended itself, as nothing depended upon the game, but it was interesting, nevertheless.

Lee Austin Will Arrange Bout for Great Falls Scrapper—Looks for Win in Coming Bout

(Special to The Daily News.)

FERNIE, B. C., March 1.—Young Maxwell and his manager, Lee Austin, leave here today for Nelson, where Austin will make arrangements for Maxwell's coming fight with Lucca. Austin claims his man will be in good condition and will beat Lucca inside of 20 rounds. In their last meeting which went the full 20 rounds, Maxwell claimed to be in no condition for such a tough man as Lucca, who was in splendid form.

A great crowd is expected when these men meet again, as much depends upon the result for either man. The winner will be in line to meet the best in the ring. The result of their bout will be watched with much interest by the sporting men of the west.

THE CANADIAN NORTHERN BOND GUARANTEE.

The decision of the provincial government to further assist the Canadian Northern railway in the construction of its main line through British Columbia to the extent of $10,000 per mile for 511 miles of road has quite naturally and quite properly given rise to considerable discussion throughout the province. The political opponents of the government are, as might be expected, opposing and criticising the government's course in the matter.

The situation, as it stands, is that four years ago the government granted the Canadian Northern railway aid in the shape of a bond guarantee to the extent of $21,000,000, or at the rate of $35,000 per mile for 600 miles. In 1912 the government still further assisted the enterprise by a bond guarantee at the same rate for 339miles, or a total of $11,865,000, while in 1913 bonds to the extent of $10,000,000 for the purpose of constructing terminal facilities were guaranteed. The bill now before the legislature provides for an additional guarantee of $5,110,000, making a total of $46,865,000 of the company's bonds which the province will have endorsed. As security against failure on the part of the railway the government holds a first mortgage on all the company's undertakings in British Columbia under the guarantees of 1910, 1912 and 1913, while in connection with the guarantee now under discussion the government will take a second mortgage on the portion of road in respect to which the bonds are being issued.

It will be seen that should the Canadian Northern become bankrupt at any time during the life of the guarantee of the bonds the worst that could happen to the province would be that it would be forced to foreclose its mortgages and take over the railway. The average cost of the line through British Columbia is approximately $70,000, making a total of $58,000,000, to which must be added the cost of the terminals, $10,000,000, or a total of $68,000,000, so that the province with a mortgage of $46,865,000 against the company's undertakings in British Columbia is absolutely safe. Were the worst to happen the province would have a railway equipped with oceas terminals for $20,000,000 less than it cost. And should this come to pass and the government have to take over the lines and not care to operate them would it not be an easy matter to get another company to take them over? Would not the Canadian Pacific, for example, be only too glad to take them over, even at a much higher figure? Undoubtedly it would, for it would thereby eliminate competition and secure additional territory from which to draw traffic for other portions of its system.

On the question of the wisdom of a government guaranteeing the bonds of any railway there may be honest differences of opinion. This applies to the case of British Columbia and the Canadian Northern railway, as well as to any other. There may be those who believe that it would have been better for the province had not the government in the first place guaranteed that company's bonds and consequently had not the construction of the company's lines in British Columbia been undertaken at all, or at least for many years to come. These people may honestly believe that it would have been better that the development of the province should have been delayed indefinitely rather than that the Canadian Northern should have been assisted by way of a government guarantee of bonds.

There are others, however, who have sufficient faith in their province to believe that the development which is bound to follow the construction of this road will amply repay the assistance which the government is extending to the enterprise, and that as a result of that development the lines so built will be enabled to earn sufficient revenue to pay all interest charges as well as operating expenses. To those with this faith in their province the additional guarantee which is provided for in the bill now before the legislature will not present any cause for alarm.

Even these people may, however, very properly ask why this additional guarantee should be necessary and to this the government has a most reasonable answer. In the first place the work of construction has proved more costly than expected, while in the next the general condition of the money market has made it extremely difficult, to say the least, for the Canadian Northern or any other railway to raise money for construction purposes on their own security. In order to finish the work which it has under way in British Columbia the Canadian Northern requires more money. This it must get if its lines now under construction are to be completed without delay. In view of these circumstances the action of the government in granting the additional guarantee required for the completion of the Canadian Northern across the province must be acknowledged as the only course which, in the interests of the province, it could pursue. Let the opponents of the government's policy say what they would have done and would do under the circumstances if in power. Would they have refused to guarantee the Canadian Northern railway's bonds in the first place, and thus have delayed the development of the province for years at least, or would they refuse the additional guarantee now asked and allow the work of construction to close down?

Judging by the attitude which they have adopted this is a phase of the situation which some of the leading opponents of the government's policy refuse to face. Instead they are resorting to misrepresentation and exaggeration. In discussing the government's guarantee of Canadian Northern bonds, for example, opposition papers, particularly the Vancouver Sun, the Vancouver Sunset and the Cranbrook Herald, make the bald-headed statement that the province's liability under the guarantees given the Canadian Northern railway, and to be given under the bill now before the legislature, is no less a sum than $126,358,475, or nearly three times the actual amount. This sum is secured by adding to the principal the entire interest during the life of the bonds and absolutely and entirely neglecting to take into consideration the fact that the province holds a mortgage on the company's whole undertakings in the province under which it may foreclose should the company default in its payment of the interest as it comes due.

Looking at the matter from a business standpoint, what would anyone say of a person who, in making out a balance sheet for the city of Nelson, for example, or of any other city, should include in the city's liabilities on account of revenue-producing utilities not only the amount of its outstanding debentures on account of these, but also the interest on the debentures until their respective dates of maturity. The situations are identical, for the Canadian Northern will be revenue-producing as soon as completed, and yet the people of British Columbia are asked to apply a rule in respect to the government's guarantee of that railway's bonds which no one would think of applying in the case of a municipality, or even in the case of any ordinary business enterprise. Surely those who attempted to juggle with the facts in this matter have a better opinion of the intelligence of the people of British Columbia than to expect them to be taken in by such means.

An attempt is also made to convince the people of British Columbia that the Canadian Northern is being built entirely out of government assistance. Here is a misrepresentation of the most unblushing description. As a matter of fact the entire Canadian Northern system up to December 31, 1913, had cost $303,000,000, the company having at that time 7,152 miles of railway in operation, while another 1,542 miles were completed ready for operation and it is hoped to have another 1,149 miles completed by the end of the present year, giving the company a total mileage of 9,843 by that time. Of the cost of construction $21,000,000 has been contributed by the Dominion and provincial government and municipalities in the way of cash bonuses. The company had also realized up to that time $17,000,000 from the sale of land given as bonuses for the construction of various portions of its system in the prairie provinces and in eastern Canada. In addition the company had received $131,000,000 from the sale of bonds guaranteed by the Dominion and various provincial governments. The difference between these amounts and the amount which the company's lines had cost up to December 31 last, which was $134,000,000, had been raised without government assistance of any kind whatsoever.

These are the facts regarding the financing of the Canadian Northern. The company up to two months ago had itself supplied $134,000,000 toward the cost of construction, $131,000,000 had been raised by bonds guaranteed by various governments and $38,000,000 had been received in cash and from the sale of land received as subsidies. It is now over 15 years since the Canadian Northern, then in its infancy, received its first assistance in the way of a guarantee of bonds. Since then it has received similar aid from almost every government in Canada, but in no single instance has there ever been a default in the payment of interest on bonds. Every payment has been met as it fell due. This is most remarkable showing for a company during its period of construction and while operating only isolated sections in various parts of a country so widespread as is the Dominion. If the Canadian Northern has been able to meet its interest obligations under such circumstances surely there should be no question as to its ability to do so when the various parts of the system are connected up as it is expected they will be during the present year and the volume of traffic thereby increased.

A man who thinks otherwise is lacking either in business sense or in faith in the future of this country, or both. And the same can be said of the man who is afraid the additional guarantee of bonds now under discussoin will become a charge upon the people of British Columbia, or that the province will ever be one cent the loser under its previous guarantees.

AT THE THEATRES

At the Gem theatre tomorrow night will be shown vitagraphs special two reel comedy "Our Wives." This special feature is one of the finest plays shown in Nelson. Harry Morey, Lillian Walker, Wallie Van, Ada Gifford and Louise Boudet certainly make things hum in "Our Wives." Their bubbles run after an actress, get locked in her trunks and are mourned as dead. Fun runs riot before everything is straightened out.

eries, but we want to have the power to do so when necessary. Of course, such taxes have only fallen upon the commercial fisheries. Anglers within the province are not affected. Under a provision in the Game act we collect an anglers' license fee from non-residents of the province."

Mr. Bowser further explained that the revenue through the fisheries would be devoted, as in the past, to the encouragement of the industry.

Estimates Passed.

Early on Saturday morning at the conclusion of the Friday night session, which was of a prolonged character, estimates totalling over $16,000,000 were passed in the space of two hours and a quarter. These included the appropriations totalling $13,700,000 for the fiscal year 1914-1915, together with over $2,000,000 of supplementary estimates for the present year.

Third Readings.

The following bills passed their third readings: An act to regulate theatres and cinematographs, the Trespass act, an act respecting the Methodist church and an act respecting the Line Fences act.

Second readings were accorded to the following: Deserted wives maintenance, an act to increase the revenue of the crown, acts to amend the provincial Fisheries act, the Land Registry act, the Public Schools act, the Water act, the Summary Convictions act, the Sheriffs act and an act respecting municipalities, draining, dyking and irrigation.

Co-operative Irrigation.

Hon. W. R. Ross, in moving the second reading of the amendment to the Water act, said it was proposed to have returns of all claims made and also to limit the period of tenure of water rights to 50 years and also to institute some control over the capitalization of operating companies. In regard to clauses relating to irrigation the minister said it was proposed to create co-operative methods in the irrigation areas.

Women on School Boards.

Hon. H. E. Young, in speaking on the second reading of the bill to amend the Public Schools act, said it made provision for the extension of technical education. It also defined qualifications for trustees and he showed that it corrected the previous measure in regard to the qualification of women to sit on school boards.

Petition for Senators.

A petition that the number of senators from this province be increased to six is contained in a motion to be introduced by the premier at tomorrow's sitting. It proposes that the lieutenant governor be requested to forward the prayer of the British Columbia legislature that this province be given equal standing in the upper house with the other western provinces. The claim is based on the proposal at Ottawa to make provision for an additional number of senators, the legislation drafted in this connection providing for an increase in representation for Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, each of which are to have six members in the senate. Under the terms upon which the province entered confederation British Columbia is on a different footing and hence the premier's proposed motion

An agreement was signed last night between the provincial government and the Kettle Valley railway permitting the railway to join the Great Northern line near Princeton and to operate a joint section with that company from Princeton to Otter summit, 30 miles south of Merritt. The agreement further relieves the Kettle Valley railway from the construction of a line between these two points. There are other provisions in the agreement dealing with the construction of branch lines to the Aspen Grove district, to Copper mountain and to Franklin camp, west of Grand Forks. A bill covering the agreement will be introduced in the legislature tomorrow.

NO FRAUDS IN LOCAL OPTION ELECTION

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

WELLAND, Ont., March 1.—In connection with the scruting by Judge Livingston of the ballots cast in the Canada Temperance act in Welland county last January, his honor on Friday decided that the temperance people had failed to establish any act of wrongdoing. The scruting today confirmed the count at the polling place in Thorold township, in each of which the "wets" made a gain of eight, and the "wet" majority still stands at 31.

George Storey, poll clerk at No. 2, Bridgeburg, where E. Coulthurst, the deputy returning officer, who is accused of tampering with the ballots, was in charge testified that he and Coulthurst counted the ballots after the rest had left the booth and found a mistake in the count. This corroborates Mr. Coulthurst's story that a mistake of 15 had been found when it was too late to notify the scrutineers. Coulthurst will be called tomorrow to explain the discrepancy at the poll.

OPERATORS AFRAID TO GO HOME IN DARK

(By Daily News Leased Wire)

MONTREAL, March 1.—Proper police protection for girl operators in the districts where it has telephone exchanges is a problem the Bell Telephone company is now forced to add to its other worries. The first case in this district to be attended to has occurred in Outremont, where the company has found difficulty in getting operators for a new exchange, owing to the lack of light and police protection. Complaining of this to the city council of Outremont, the company says women have refused to work at night at the new exchange, because they are afraid of being attacked on their way home.

NO INDIGESTION, GAS OR A SOUR STOMACH

"Pape's Diapepsin" Stops Fermentation and Makes Your Upset Stomach Feel Fine in Five Minutes.

Wonder what upset your stomach—which portion of the food did the damage — do you? Well don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; your head dizzy and aches, belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Diapepsin and in five minutes you truly will wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapepsin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest most harmless relief is Pape's Diapepsin which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Please, for your sake don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach; its so unnecessary.

CLEAN YOUR LIVER AND 30 FEET OF BOWELS WITH "SYRUP OF FIGS"

More Effective Than Calomel, Castor Oil or Salts; Gently Cleanses the Stomach, Liver and Bowels Without Nausea or Griping. Children Dearly Love It

You know when your liver is bad, when your bowels are sluggish. You feel a certain dullness and depression, perhaps the approach of a headache, your stomach get sour and full of gas, tongue coated, breath foul, or you have indigestion. You say, "I am bilious or constipated and I must take something tonight."

Most people shrink from a physic—they think of castor oil, calomel, salts or cathartic pills.

It's different with Syrup of Figs. Its effect is as that of fruit; of eating coarse food; of exercise. Take a teaspoonful of delicious Syrup of Figs tonight and you won't realize you have taken anything until morning, when all the clogged up waste matter, sour bile and constipation poisons move on and out of your system without gripe, nausea or weakness. Nothing else cleanses and regulates your sour, disordered stomach, torpid liver and thirty feet of waste-clogged bowels like gentle, effective Syrup of Figs. Don't think you are drugging yourself Being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatics, it can not cause injury.

If your child is cross, sick and feverish, or its little stomach sour, tongue coated, give Syrup of Figs at once. It's really all that is needed to make children well and happy again. They dearly love its pleasant taste.

Ask your druggist for the full name, "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna," and look on the label for the name—California Fig Syrup Company. That, and that only, is the genuine. Refuse any other fig syrup substitute with contempt.

QUEBECS LOWER TORONTO'S COLORS

Prospective Champions Suffer Defeat In Game Featured By End to End Rushes.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

QUEBEC, March 1.—In a match that was remarkable for its numerous end-to-end rushes and fierce attacks on the respective goals, the Toronto hockey team, prospective champions, went down to defeat last evening before the Quebecs, five to three. The ice, owing to the mild weather was in poor condition. Notwithstanding this drawback, the match was stubbornly contested, both teams showing the greatest determination to win, and every man played as if on him alone rested the issue of the contest.

CREATES NEW AUTO RECORD

Pullen Wins Grand Prix in Record Time—Driver of English Entry and Mechanician Injured.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

SANTA MONICA, Cal., March 1.—Edwin Pullen, driving a Mercer car, won yesterday's Grand Prix race and incidentally broke the world's record by averaging 77.25 miles an hour, Tis total time was 5:13:30.

Guy Ball, in a Marmon, was second, 5:53:13, mantaining an average speed of 69.4 miles an hour.

Blaylock in an Alco was third, 6: 08:29, and Ralph De Palma, who won the Thursday's Vanderbilt cup, took fourth money with his Mercedes in 6:09:08.

J. B. Marquis, driving the English entry, the Sunbeam, was seriously injured in the 33rd lap and his mechanician, Harry Hough, was stunned when the car turned turtle and jumped astride of the seven-foot fence at Death curve. Marquis had just taken the lead in the race. His car was running with perfect smoothness and it appeared that he would finish the race without a stop. In this very lap, however, he was drawn into a speed duel and went into the curve at 50 miles an hour.

The front wheels and axle tore loose, spinning the car sideways through the air and throwing the rear end on top of the fence. Marquis was pinned beneath the front of the car, while his mechanician was thrown clear. Physicians at the hospital tonight expressed hopes of both men's recovery.

MINISTER OF AGRICULTURE FACES OFF PUCK

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

Hon. Martin Burrell, minister of agriculture, faced the puck and formally welcomed the Princeton team on the occasion of its first appearance in Canada.

COAST TEAMS OUT AFTER EASTERN SCALPS

VANCOUVER, B. C., March 1.—Vancouver and Victoria pro hockey players were given a rousing reception last night by several hundred fans who gathered at the depot. The teams go direct to Winnipeg, where they will play on Tuesday. From there they go east, the Victorias going to Toronto to prepare for the world's series, while the Vancouvers go to Ottawa to open their exhibition Saturday.

JUDICIAL BREVITY

If brevity is the soul of wit, Judge Taylor, K.C., has not many rivals among his judicial brethren. Summing up a case which lasted several hours, he said no more than this: "Gentlemen, you have heard both sides. It is for you to say which you believe."

Even this does not represent Judge Taylor's best effort in the way of saving his breath. A few years ago he delivered himself of what is supposed to be the shortest summing-up on record. He turned to the jury, raised his eyebrows inquiringly, and remarked: "Well, gentlemen?" The art of brevity could no further go.—Liverpool Post.

BY WAY OF A CHANGE

"Good gracious," exclaimed a vicar as he met a village laborer wearily pulling a loaded wheelbarrow, "it would be much easier if you pushed it."

"Dare say," was the answer, "but I'm sick of the sight of it."—Western Mail.

LOOKING FOR MORE

WITCHCRAFT IN MODERN TIMES

A woman tried for witchcraft! We hold up our hands and wonder at the bigotry of these narrow-minded Puritans in Salem, Mass. Such a situation seems so remote from anything that would be possible today. So we are in the habit of saying, but it is not an impossibility.

Only a short time ago a woman was tried for witchcraft in a court of law in southern Pennsylvania. That was not the name used in the charge that was brought against her, but that was the accusation that was lodged in the minds of everyone who was interested in the case, which was tried in a region so thoroughly saturated with traditional superstition that not even the present prosperity and general education can destroy them. Technically the woman was convicted of obtaining money under false pretences, but actually she was convicted of being a witch—a "hex," doctor who "powwowed."

In the home of a prominent lawyer in Camden county there is a hole in the post of a mahogany bedstead filled with salt which witnesses to his belief in witchcraft. At one time he prosecuted a case against an old woman, who, when convicted and fined left the court muttering incantations and vowing vengeance. That night the lawyer was suddenly attacked with violent pains in the head. The curse had come upon him and he feared the wretched old woman whom he believed to be responsible for it. Only witchcraft can drive out witchcraft. No doctor or medicine would do in such a case. A dry laborer, who was born with a caul over his face, was brought in through the back door and taken to the bedroom of the suffering lawyer. The electric lights had been extinguished and a candle flickered at each side of the bed. Looking at the patient through the veil, which he avers is the identical one which he was born with, the "hex" doctor muttered his peculiar ritual, tied a rattlesnake around the sufferer's neck and bored a hole in the northeast leg of the bed, filling it with salt, over which he had chanted incantations. This done he announced that the evil powers had notified the witch, who lived in a hut at some distance, that she could no longer hold dominion over the body of her enemy, the lawyer. The patient believed that his pains ceased from that hour.

A prosperous merchant in Carlisle permitted the body of his infant child to be covered with a coating of green paint in obedience to the orders of a "hex" doctor who had been called in to ward off the evil spirits.

A stranger in Carlisle pretended that he had suffered from pain in the stomach which he believed to be due to the evil eye of an old woman of the town who was generally believed to have the ability to exercise this baleful power. A "hex" doctor visited him, and when he thought he had discovered a faith in their mysteries the stranger withdrew and later summoned him to his house, where he was informed that he had discovered that an old witch had made a wax image of the stranger and stuck pins in certain portions of it. Hence the pains.

Could he be cured? asked the patient. The "hex" doctor assured him that his powers were superior to those of the witch, and he undertook to prove it. Getting a wax image he placed it in front of the fire place, shoved a brass bullet into an old muzzle-loading pistol and extinguished all the lights but that made by the fire. The doctor knelt upon the floor and the patient was told to hold his hands upon the seat of his pains. The bullet was then fired into the abdomen of the wax figure, while incantations were said, and the man was assured that he was cured. With all truthfulness he could say that he had no more pain, and for himself had proved the existence of witchcraft in Pennsylvania in the twentieth century.—New York Herald.

3-in-One oil for all Talking Machines

Pure, light 3-in-One oil lubricates perfectly the delicate mechanism of phonographs, gramophones and commercial talking machines. It makes the motors work easily and noiselessly---gives better, clearer tones and prevents squeaks, squawks and "whir".

Protects and Preserves Bearings

3-in-One oil is absolutely free of grease and acid. It never collects dirt, gums or clogs the bearings, as common greasy oils do. Grease and dirt grind into the bearings, wearing them out.

3-in-One also cleans, polishes the case and horns. It keeps bright all metal parts, absolutely preventing rust and tarnish in any climate. A few drops on a soft cloth wiped gently over your disc records, keeps all the dust out of the minute channels where the needle runs.

NEWS OF THE MARKETS

MARKET IRRITATED BY DOMINION LOAN

Anxiety as to Situation in Paris Removed—Embarrassed Firms Strongly Assisted.

(Western Associated Press Special Cable.)

LONDON, March 1. — Brilliant weather emptied the stock markets on Saturday, but the tone was cheerful, though narrow, and the prices were lifted against the bears. The lists for the new Canadian loan of $25,000,000 open tomorrow.

The scrip is not yet quoted. The public response is uncertain, owing to the fact that the $20,000,000 loan issued in December has hardly yet been digested. The announcement of the loan, coming so unexpectedly, irritated the market because rumors that a loan was intended were recently officially denied.

These things prejudice the atmosphere materially. The news might have injured gilt-edged securities seriously but for the coincidence that the sum of $23,400,000 had been allotted to the sinking fund in consols. Consols closed on Saturday below the best at 76 1-16. The small loan for Point Grey, Vancouver, is partially unsubscribed. Home rails and Americans were repurchased.

Canadian Pacifics closed below the best of the day at 217, despite the fact that the January statement was better than expected. Grand Trunk hardened narrowly, but the public is awaiting the half-yearly report and the half-yearly meeting.

The South American tractions and Canadian industrials were strong in spots. Hudson's Bay closing at 10 1-8, and land shares firm.

The question of land ownership in the Rhodesia is being actively discussed between the government and the British South African Chartered company, but it has been decided to postpone the annual meeting of the company till June in the hope that an agreement will have been reached by that time.

Call money was quoted at 3 3-4 and bill rates were easier, with three months quoted at 2 3-8. Tax payments continue and calls for new capital are heavy, it being estimated that no less than $115,000,000 will be asked for during March.

The financial position in Paris is much stronger. The embarrassed firms have been strongly assisted and anxiety as to the situation is said to be now ended.

STOCKS

NEW YORK MARKET IS CLIMBING SLOWLY

(By Daily News Leased Wire)

NEW YORK, March 1.—The level of quotations were lifted yesterday. It was a slow progress among the principal stocks, whose gains were limited to fractions, and there was a slight reaction just before the close. Some of the specialties, however, advanced from 1 to 5 points.

The upturn was largely at the expense of the shorts. In Steel it was evident that selling had been over-extended. Cessation of foreign liquidation and lessening of the tension over the Mexican situation encouraged buying, but traders on the long side were cautious.

Possibly of fresh trouble in Mexico over the week-end, the freight rates situation, the New Haven tangle, the Rock Island readjustment and the business outlook, tended to enforce a conservative policy. Rock Island securities were again weak. The collaterals fell nearly two points, touching 44¾ compared with the week's high price of 48⅝; both issues of stocks were forced down about a point. Express stocks developed exceptional strength.

Bond markets steady, aside from the fall in Rock Island. Total sales, par value $2,807,000. U. S. bonds unchanged on call.

MONTREAL MARKET SHOWS STRONGER TENDENCY

(By Daily News Leased Wire)

MONTREAL, Feb. 28.—Local stocks were quiet but firm today, the slightly improving tendency of the market toward the end of the week being well maintained in the short sessions. Changes for the most part were small but almost entirely on the side of gains.

C. P. R. and Brazilian closed fractionally higher at 211½ bid for the former and 81¼ for the latter.

Power rose ½ to 229¼, but fell back later to 228½ and closed 228⅝. Laurentide was firm at 191½ to 191¼, and closed ¼ up on the day. Shawinigan rose 1 to 141 and finished with a gain of ½ point. Iron was a feature showing an improved tone, and for the first time in several days, the recent slump appeared to be meeting some check. The closing bid went out 35⅜ against 34⅞ the previous day.

TRADING LIGHT ON WINNIPEG GRAIN EXCHANGE

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

WINNIPEG, March 1.—Trading was light on the wheat market yesterday in options and prices were easier for May, while July was firmer. May opened unchanged and July 1-4c higher, and later fluctuations were narrow and in sympathy with American figures. Local oats were steady, while flax options for May advanced 1 3-8c, while July advanced 1 1-4c. It was rumored that the states will be importing flax soon.

Cash trading was practically nil, although the demand continues good and offerings were scarce.

Winnipeg wheat options closed 1-8c to 1-4c lower. Minneapolis opened unchanged to 1-8c higher and closed 1-8c to 7-8c lower. Chicago opened 1-2 to 7-8c lower and closed 1-8c to 1-2c lower.

Winnipeg cash wheat closed unchanged to 1-8c lower for contract grades. Lower grades were unchanged. Oats unchanged to 1-4c higher; barley 1-4c advance, all grades; flax 1 1-2c higher for all grades.

Winnipeg wheat close—May 94⅛; July 95⅝; Oct. 90¼.

Flax—May 1.39¾; July 1.42¼.

CANNOT DISSOLVE SHIPPING TRUSTS

All Lines Operated Under Agreements to Restrain Completion—Under Interstate Commission.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

WASHINGTON, March 1.—Foreign and domestic shipping of the United States is so combined by agreements pools, etc., that an attempt to dissolve the combinations would cripple trade.

That is the conclusion reached by the house merchant marine and fisheries commission in a report on the so-called trust investigation, made public today. The commission, after two years of exhaustive inquiry, recommends that both foreign and domestic shipping combines be placed under the strict control of the interstate commission, and that, if necessary, the commission be enlarged to care for the additional work.

Final recommendations set forth that shipping lines in practically every trade route are operated by agreement or by conference to restrain competition. The report declares that the advantages accruing to both shipper and ship line through these agreements are so great that the combinations should be allowed to continue. It would be futile, the commission states, to attempt to restore competition by ordering existing agreements terminated. The report deals with 800 foreign and domestic navigation companies and 200 railway lines. Nearly three-fourths of the line tonnage operating in the American coastwise and great lakes trade is owned and operated or controlled by railways and shipping consolidations. Even as regards bulk carriers, there is a strong tendency toward the establishment of a community of interest.

"As to foreign shipping," says the report, "the commission recommended that all understanding between navigation companies and railways be filed with the interstate commerce commission; that the commission be used to determine the reasonableness of the rates and to order rates changed or that rebating be prohibited by law; that the commission be empowered to enforce fair treatment of all shippers and that the use of cut-throat 'fighting ships' and rebates, be prohibited.

The committee recommended that jurisdiction of the commission be extended to port-to-port traffic with full powers to regulate and fix rates.

The commission's recommendation will probably be embraced in bills to be introduced at a later date, though it is probable that no effort will be made to produce such legislation at the present session of congress.

LAMB AND LION BOTH SHOW FACES AT MONTH'S ENTRY

But Lamb Has Rather Better of Situation on First Day of Month —Weather Mild.

Those who believe in the old saying that when March comes in like a lion it goes out like a lamb, and vice versa, will have difficulty in coming to any definite conclusion as to how this month will end.

In Nelson March entered in a somewhat lamblike manner, but on Saturday night there was a flurry of snow that was sufficient to give a reminder that there was still a kick or two left in the dying winter, or lion, as the case may be.

Yesterday the weather was particularly mild, the temperature at no time during the 24 hours ending at 3 o'clock in the afternoon touching freezing point. The streets are now in such a condition that it appears improbable there will be any further sleighing this season.

REVOLUTIONARY STRIKE IN PORTUGAL IS AT END

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LISBON, March 1.—An announcement of the conclusion of the present revolutionary railway strike in Portugal was made yesterday by the leader of the movement. The strikers have been ordered to return to work.

The action of the committee is regarded in official circles as certain to bring about tranquility throughout the country where railroad, telephone and telegraph communication has been interrupted for several days in consequence of acts of violence by the strikers.

CHURCH DAMAGED BY BOMB EXPLOSION

Believed to Be Work of Suffragettes—Had Been Placed Beneath Seat in Gallery.

(By Daily News Leased Wire)

LONDON, March 1.—A bomb was exploded in St. John's church, Westminster, tonight, half an hour after the service had ended and the congregation departed for their homes. The bomb had been placed beneath a seat in the gallery, above the pulpit. The explosion, which is attributed to suffragettes, caused considerable damage to the interior of the building. The church is near the houses of parliament, and faces the home of Reginald McKenna, the home secretary. Archdeacon Wilberforce is rector of the church.

PLUCKY WOMAN SAVES FAMILY

Rescues Children and Imbecile Sister From Blazing House—Fights Flames Single-handed.

(By Daily News Leased Wire)

OTTAWA, March 1.—A remarkable story of the pluck and endurance of a woman of Wakefield, a small village in the Gatineau district, revealing how, single-handed, she saved the lives of her six small children when her home was totally destroyed by fire on Wednesday last has reached Hull through the medium of Bailiff de Colle.

In addition to saving her children, Mrs. Constantineau, the woman in question, who is the wife of a prominent farmer in the district, had to battle with her sister, who was mentally deranged, and refused to leave the burning building except by force, and only after a long struggle did she succeed in carrying her to safety.

After locking her in a stable some distance away Mrs. Constantineau, undaunted by the flames and smoke which filled the burning house, succeeded in carrying some of her household effects out, consisting of a heavy sewing machine, an iron bed and some trunks filled with clothing. Then, seeing her children to safety, she valiantly attempted to fight the blaze, carrying pails of water from a nearby well, but her efforts were of no avail and the house was burned to the ground. She then placed her salvaged furniture in a shed and dressed in scanty attire walked a distance of nearly two miles to her nearest neighbor, whose house she and her children reached in an exhausted condition. The neighbors then went back to the scene to search for the demented woman, whom they found badly burned. The woman died shortly after reaching the neighbor's house.

The fire, it is said, was caused by a defective stovepipe.

A GERMAN WAR PROPHET

Scheidermann Says No More Strife in Western Europe.

Philip Scheidemann, first vice-president of the German reichstag and a distinguished leader of the Social-Democratic party of Germany, visiting St. Louis, assured the Post-Dispatch there will never be another war in western Europe. The workingmen of Germany, France and Great Britain, he said, are organized, as Socialists, in opposition to war and are resolved not to fight each other at the command of their rulers.

This prophecy, if perhaps premature, is encouraging. The heaviest burden borne by the workers of Europe is the cost of military armaments. The fear of war dictates ever-increasing expenditures to prepare for it. The widening scope of free public education and the rise of a free press has armed the workers with the facts. Even the great armies of Germany and France are schools educating the rank and file to detest militarism. The Socialists may never realize their dream of common ownership of all the sources of wealth, but if their propaganda will abolish, or even in large degree abate the cost of militarism, it will have conferred an enormous benefit upon mankind.

NOT SO LONG AGO

Nowadays, when a chub weighing 1 pound 10 ounces is caught off Waterloo bridge, the fact is chronicled in many newspapers. Less than a century ago that part of the Thames afforded better sport. The "Annual Register" records that on June 11, 1821:

"A fisherman was charged at the Mansion House, before the Lord Mayor, with using an unlawful net. He pleaded in his defence that the discharge from the gas factories had ruined the Thames fishing. He used to catch large quantities of shad and smelt off the Temple, but these fish had almost entirely disappeard, and he was compelled to use an illegal net to catch the few there were. Salmon were formerly caught in abundance, but during the past year only one had been caught. The Lord Mayor expressed his regret at the distress to which the fishermen had been reduced and mitigated the penalty."—London Express.

LAST OF THE CAMPANIA

The Campania, the old record-breaker of the Cunard line, is to be sold to ship-breakers next July, following the first voyage across the Atlantic of the new Aquitania. The vessel is only 21 years old and is capable of crossing the ocean in less than five and a half days, yet her owners are selling her for scrap at a price of about $200,000. She cost $2,000,000. The merchant steamship of today does not hold her honors long. In this respect she is like the battleship.—Montreal Gazette.

A meeting held in Trinity Methodist church after the regular service last night was unanimously of the opinion that a Trinity Methodist brotherhood should be organized to take into its membership all the men of the congregation. The following committee was appointed to look after the details of organization: A. D Emory, George Steed, H. R. Buswell, D. G. Smith, F. E. Higginbotham, J. Evans and Rev. R. J. McIntyre.

FOOTPAD CANINES OUTWIT JERRY; STEAL MEAT

British Bulldog, Trained to Carry Parcels from Butchers, Falls Before Numbers

How Jerry, a British bulldog, so well trained that he has been accustomed to carry home the family roast from the butcher and deliver it safely, was held up by a gang of five highwaymen canines, who had apparently carefully planned their onslaught, was told by H. W. Sharp, the owner of the dog, last night.

Frequently Jerry had been held up by other dogs, but he always dropped the nicely wrapped up package of meat between his fore legs and then, standing over it, issued growiful warnings that any dog who wanted trouble would get it in more than homeopathic doses if he attempted to secure even a smell. And Jerry always delivered the goods.

But last week the footpad element in the canine world put their heads together and in a gang of five made a sudden onslaught on Jerry and while he engaged in battle with four of them, a big Airedale grabed the meat and got away with it.

Jerry went home hours afterward and showed his disgust with himself at being outwitted by refusing all human sympathy.

COMPLETELY BROKEN DOWN

Another Lady Thinks "Fruit-a-tives" Greatest Tonic In The World.

HAGERSVILLE, ONT., Aug. 26th. 1913.

I can highly recommend "Fruit-a-tives" because they did me an awful lot of good. About four years ago, I commenced taking "Fruit-a-tives" for a general break-down and they did me a world of good. We bought a good many dollars' worth, but they did all that your advertising claims for them, and as I said before, I cannot speak too highly for them. Their action is so pleasant, compared with other medicines, that I am glad to say so and I trust that some other woman may start taking "Fruit-a-tives" for I know the results will be all that you claim".

The mother discovered her home in Hilliard, a suburb, on fire, and rousing her two sons, went to her daughters' bedroom. The flames spread so rapidly that she did not have time to save her girls or escape herself, and the three bodies were found in the ruins of her home.

The boys, 12 and 14 years old, escaped by jumping from the second-story window.

HIGH SCHOOL TEACHER SPEAKS ON SUFFRAGE

The Nelson Equal Suffrage league held its weekly meeting in the Miners' Union hall on Friday. The hall was well filled and many new members joined the league. The speaker was R. W. Scott, M.A.,F.C.S., of the high school, Nelson, who declared that Canada was behind the times in its attitude toward woman franchise. Mentioning the different countries that, on this question, were, he said, in the van of progress, he challenged any one in the audience to bring forward any good arguments on the other side. A very animated discussion followed. The Y.W.C.A. rooms being now too small for the weekly meetings, it has been decided to hold them at the Miners' Union hall, which has been offered for the meetings of the league on Friday evenings. The next meeting will take place on Friday at 8 o'clock.

Patents have been secured of a new lifesaving suit which has been invented by Capt. John E. Moore, formerly of Nelson and for the past 12 months a resident of Vancouver, and who is now visiting this city.

The invention is an improved lifesaving suit for use in preventing persons from drowning and from being chilled by water. It is made of rubber cloth or other waterproof material and is inflated with sufficient air to support a heavy body. In form the suit is of the union style, the trousers and coat being connected. It is inflated by means of a flexible tube into which the wearer can blow. It opens in front and can easily and rapidly be affixed to the wearer.

1913 Fire Losses

The fire losses in the United States and Canada for the year 1913 are reported to have been $224,000,000.00, of which $205,000,000.00 represented the share of the United States. This was above the normal loss, and hence 1913 was a poor year in underwriting results. The loss record has been steadily going up, as it is only some five years since the highest figure has been $175,000,000.00. All this justifies this comment in the "Insurance Field":

"A great deal more property has been brought under contribution, while the average rate has steadily declined about three points. This, with the decline in the value of securities for the year, largely accounts for thirty-eight companies having retired, and may explain sun spots in annual statements to come later."

After reading the above clipping insurers should be convinced that it is wise to insure in the strongest companies only. I have some of the best.
