CUSTOMS AND EXCISE DUTIES TO MEET WAR TAX CANADA WILL BEAR

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

OTTAWA, Aug. 20.—Canada's war tax will fall principally upon coffee, sugar, spirits and tobacco. The minister of finance announced today in the commons that $68,500,000 over and above the estimated revenue for the current year of from $130,000,000 to $135,000,000 would be required to meet the increased expenses occasioned by the war. This money will be raised partially by increased customs and excise on the articles mentioned. The government has already borrowed $25,000,000 by the issue of June which leaves a balance of $43,500,000 to be raised.

Mr. White stated that, owing to the Franco-Canadian treaty no increased duty could be placed on wines and champagnes.

The estimated increase in revenue from cigars, cigarettes and tobacco is $2,000,000.

The increased excise revenue for the present fiscal year is estimated at about $7,000,000. The changes in the taxation of liquor become effective from Aug. 7.

There was no serious criticism of the government proposals on the part of the opposition. A. K. Maclean thought it would be well for the government to reduce the duties on foodstuffs. Increased imports would have produced a large revenue, he said.

Dr. Michael Clark regretted the decision of the government to place (?) increased tax upon sugar and coffee, which he described as necessities of the poor. He thought that the government might have imposed a graduated income tax on incomes over $1,500 as a war tax.

The debate was concluded and the tariff resolutions will be considered tomorrow.

Budget Statement.

Mr. White's budget statement was probably the briefest ever delivered in parliament. He said:

"I shall preface the introduction of the fiscal measures which I have to propose to the house by a brief statement of the financial position of the Dominion and of the new situation, as it presents itself to me, with which we are confronted as a result of the outbreak of war.

"Owing to widespread financial and economical conditions, to which I referred at length in my budget speech in April, our revenues since September last show a marked decline. During the first four months of the present fiscal year, April, May, June and July, we have experienced a reduction as compared with the same four months of the previous fiscal year of over $10,000,000.

"In consequence of a general increase in commercial activity due to easier money conditions a marked improvement became perceptible about the end of July. The extent of this improvement is reflected in the returns of the first 10 days of August, the loss of revenue being $500,000, or at the rate of $1,500,000 for the month, as compared with an average decline of $2,700,000 for each of the preceding four months.

War Changes Outlook.

"As the decline in revenue for the last fiscal year had begun in October we had calculated that during the remainder of the calendar year we would gradually overtake the revenues of the corresponding months of the previous year and could look forward to gains in January, February and March, which would have recouped in some measure our earlier losses.

"This outlook has been wholly changed by the war. Its startingly sudden outbreak between Austria-Hungary and Servia, and the appalling rapidity of its extension to Russia, Germany, France and Belgium and Great Britain threw the civilized world into a panic such as never was known before. The shock to finance was immense. With general loss of confidence there arose an instantaneous and universal demand for gold. Huge volumes of securities were thrown upon the market and sold for what they would realize. Liquidation proceeded upon a colossal scale until the prodigious loss of it resulted in drainage of gold from all great financial centres, compelling the closing of the bourses and the exchanges of the world. The demand for gold still continuing in the financial world and general hoarding having begun on the part of the public, widespread suspension, accompanied in Great Britain and elsewhere in Europe by moratorium proclamations whereby the payment of maturing obligations was proposed, and by reason of the fact that the gold could no longer be shipped across the Atlantic owing to the menace of hostile cruisers, the exchange system of the world at once experienced collapse. In the meantime international trade was prostrated by the blow which severed at once all intercourse between belligerents and caused immediate cessation of commerce between Europe and America.

Cataclysm in Three Weeks.

"All these cataclysmic events have been compressed within the period of two or three weeks and yet, such is the flexibility of the financial organization of the world, that already order is emerging out of what seemed hopeless chaos and the vast and complicated machinery of commerce and finance is hourly increasing in efficiency and resuming its normal function.

"For the purpose of protection it remains for me to estimate so far as possible our expenditures for the year, indicate my view as to revenue and submit the measures proposed by the government to meet the altered conditions with which we are confronted. I should not be frank if I did not say that I publish my view with the utmost diffidence, because it is not possible for anyone to forecast with any measurable degree of certainty what lies ahead of us under either of these headings.

"At the outbreak of the war we had calculated on a revenue of $145,000,000 and an expenditure of about $175,000,000, from which $135,000,000 would have been upon consolidated fund account and $40,000,000 upon capital, special and investment accounts.

Cash Position Normal.

"Our cash position is normal, our bank balances both in Canada and London being well maintained.

"I proceed now to deal with the situation as changed by the war. As to revenues for the remainder of the year it is with much hesitation that I venture on an estimate. For some time past I have had the tariff experts of my department and of the customs department considering the question. That we shall experience a sharp decline in customs revenue due to the decreased importations seems certain. The war itself shuts off automatically our trade with the enemy. The increased risk of ocean traffic must have a most serious effect upon our sea borne commerce. Above all, the temporary cessation of the stream of our borrowings in Great Britain will diminish our capital and other expenditures and express itself in a marked diminution in other imports.

"The enhanced price of our grain, food and other products will give us greater buying power than we should have had otherwise from this source. After consideration of all these aspects of the question we are of the view that our revenue from present sources for the year should reach $130,000,000 to $135,000,000.

To Continue All Possible Work.

"With regard to expenditures, it will be the policy of the government, so far as possible, to maintain the existing program of public works under construction. New works will not, however, be undertaken until the financial situation clears and in connection with this we ask the forbearance and the co-operation of members on both sides of the house. On the one hand we do not desire to shut down construction now under way with the consequent result of unemployment and on the other hand we must have in mind existing financial conditions and embark upon new expenditure only when we have in view the source of funds with which it may be defrayed.

"Under this policy I estimate that our revenue will just about suffice to meet our ordinary running expenditure; at least, I am hopeful that it will do so.

Spare Neither Blood Nor Money.

"This leaves to be otherwise provided for capital, special and investment expenditure totally probably $30,000,000, together with such expense as we may make for the common defence of Canada and the Empire. We are asking parliament for a vote of $50,000,000. What portion of this may be expended during the remainder of the fiscal year is problematical, but we must assume at least the greater part. With the world at war and our national existence at stake, it is not the part of patriotism to spare either blood or treasure and the government may be depended upon to continue to uphold to the utmost of its power the arm of Britain in the fateful contest in which she is now engaged for the preservation of the Empire and the freedom of the world.

"Assuming a capital and special war expenditure of, say, $50,000,000, we must further provide $8,500,000 for the retirement of treasury bills maturing in November, making a total of $68,500,000, which must be met by the proceeds of borrowing or special taxation. We have already borrowed $25,000,000 by the issue of June. This leaves a balance of $43,500,000 which we must now devise ways and means

PURPLE CROSS TO SUCCOR HORSES

LONDON, Aug. 20 — The British Red Cross service may be supplemented by another humane mission to the battlefields. The humane society asks for funds and volunteers for the Purple Cross, to engage in relief work for horses. It proposes to send men to the front for the purpose of killing badly wounded horses and rescuing others.

GERMANS BOMBARD RUSSIAN PORT

Squadron of Kaiser's Fleet Said to Have Attacked Great Harbor Fortresses.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, Aug. 20.—Nothing of importance has been heard of the operations of the German fleet in the Baltic since the beginning of the war and the reported occupation of Aland island by the Germans.

An English engineer who has just arrived from St. Petersburg and who is a competent authority on naval and military matters, reports that when he left the Russian capital, seven days after the declaration of war, the ships of the German squadron were bombarding Kronstadt, Viborg and Reval. This is important information because Kronstadt is a famous fortress and naval base at the approach to St. Petersburg. Reval is a great naval base at the entrance to the Gulf of Finland, where large sums have been expended in forming docks and providing for all the requirements of an important naval establishment. Viborg is a port in Finland, not far from the Russian frontier of St. Petersburg.

ENEMY MENACES PRINCE RUPERT

Hon. J. D. Hazen Warns City to Face Bombardment Rather Than Aid German Cruiser.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

VANCOUVER, B. C., Aug. 20.—A despatch just received from Prince Rupert states:

"All banks have been notified by Hon. J. D. Hazen of the near approach of a German warship stated to be coming to secure coal. Authorities have been notified not to give aid to the enemy, even under threat of bombardment of the city."

An earlier despatch from New York stated that a German cruiser had already paid its visit, secured coal and gold and left. This was immediately denied at Prince Rupert, which from the Pacific side has not yet had any intimation from fishing boats or other vessels of the presence of a German cruiser on the north coast.

Monmouth Arrives.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Aug. 20.—A man returning from Esquimalt today says he saw the British cruiser Monmouth, 10,000 tons, 21 knots, in harbor there Monday. She had steamed across from the China station and has now gone south along the coast. She is of the same class as the Essex and Suffolk on the Atlantic coast. The two submarines have also left Esquimalt.

Had Coal for Leipzig.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 20.—The Jelison line steamer Mazatlan was held up today as she was about to leave port with coal, allegedly for the Leipzig.

The Mazatlan is owned by Frederick Jelison & Co., shipping agents of this city. She was ostensibly to clear for Mexican ports on the west coast, which is her regular run.

John Rothschild of a firm of wholesale dealers in supplies admitted to Collector Davis that the coal on board the Mazatlan had been ordered by him from the Western Fuel company on Aug. 11 for delivery on board the cruiser Leipzig at sea.

If the original plan had been followed the coal would have been towed to sea by the tug Retriever, whose captain was to have received $500 for his services after the coal had been safely delivered on board the Leipzig.

The Retriever, however, gave up the venture. It is alleged the attempt to smuggle the coal by the Mazatlan was planned later. Fuller investigation has been placed in the hands of W. H. Tidwell, a special agent of the treasury department.

AMERICAN PLUTOCRAT MISTREATED BY GERMANS

THE HAGUE, Aug. 20—Archer Huntington, New York millionaire, and his wife, arriving today from Germany, say that they were arrested as spies mistreated and refused permission to appeal to Ambassador Gerard. Their belongings were confiscated. He is president of the American Geographical society. They had maps and these were held as evidence of spying.

A number of firms in Victoria, Vancouver and New Westminster have been holding sweepstakes on the principal English horse races, in some of them the aggregate amount of money taken in being nearly $100,000.

GERMANS MAKE GOOD TARGETS

Close Formation Proved Fatal Against Russians

AUSTRIANS ARE DRIVEN BACK

Kaiser May Use Navy to Cover Landing of Troops in Baltic Provinces.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, Aug. 21.—3:50 a.m.—A St. Petersburg despatch to the Mail says the Novo Vremya publishes an account of the fighting at Eydtkuhnen, near Prussia, by an eyewitness, who says:

"The fighting here seemed to prove that the German army's military qualities did not justify its reputation. The men in the skirmish lines huddled together, making excellent targets for our fire.

"The German cavalry avoids ours, retreating when the Russians advanced for the charge. The German infantry likewise retired before our charges."

On Germany's eastern frontier there has been considerable outpost fighting which would indicate that the Russians are completing their work of concentration. There has, however, been no big collision in this region as yet.

Austria is too much engaged with Russia and with the need of helping Germany to make much progress in her campaign against Servia.

German Ships May Cover Movement.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, Aug. 21.—5:15 a.m.—The Times' St. Petersburg correspondent, reviewing the recent fighting on the Russian frontier, says:

"If the Austrians decide to take the offensive it will be difficult to menace the Russian flank unless, like the Germans, they decide to violate the neutrality of a smaller state, Roumania. The position on the Russian right invites the theory that the Germans are planning to use their warships to cover the landing of troops in the Baltic provinces."

Austria Calls Out Last Line.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, Aug. 21.—6:55 a.m.—A despatch to the Exchange Telegraph sent from Vienna under date of Aug. 20 says that the Austrian government issued a final call to arms for all able-bodied men from the ages of 20 to 42 years.

Russians Claim Successes

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, Aug. 20, 10:25 p.m.—A despatch to Reuters from St. Petersburg gives a communication issued by the Russian general staff covering the operations of the army from Aug. 15 to Aug. 19, in which successes are claimed for the Russian armies in skirmishes both on the Austrian and German frontiers.

'Austrian cavalry which entered Russian Poland at Kielce, Rjbnika and other points," says the communication, "were driven back with great casualties, while Austrian infantry which attacked Klasnik was defeated and lost heavily. The Russians took 25 prisoners. On the Prussian border the Russians took the offensive near

WILL GERMANS BE BETWEEN TWO FIRES

NEW YORK, Aug. 20—Have the British-French allies made a secret treaty with Holland and already landed in that country a great army to operate on the Holland-Belgian frontier and trap between two fires the invading German armies that are being permitted to press forward towards Brussels and Antwerp?

This is the proposition being put forward here by military critics today on receipt of the British war office denial that the British army is operating with the Belgians in defense of Namur, Brussels and intervening points. This seems to confirm the feeling that Holland is more friendly toward Great Britain than Germany. Should the attempt fail, however Queen Wilhelmina's people would likely suffer a terrible revenge at the hands of the German troops.

ENGLISH GIRL WOULD HAVE FOUGHT FOR ALLIES

DIJON, France, Aug. 20—French gendarmes today stopped a young girl, who, disguised as a man, had left with a group of Pau aviators for the war. She was wearing a military aviator's uniform and had cut her hair short. It was found that she was an English girl of 26. She will be sent back to her parents.

BULLETS RIDDLE FRENCH AEROPLANE

Noted Aviator Returns to Paris After Making Great Observation Tour —Britain Issues Notice.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, Aug. 20.—Adolfe Pegoud, the noted French aviator, has returned to Paris from the war zone to get a new aeroplane.

According to a Paris despatch to the Exchange Telegraph the wings of Pegoud's old machine were riddled by 97 bullets and two shells when he made a flight with a military observer of 300 kilometres (186 miles) into German territory. Pegoud would not say just where he had been, except that he recrossed the Rhine and blew up, by means of bombs, two German convoys.

Capt. Fink, a military aviator, Pegoud said, has destroyed a hangar near Metz and wrecked a Zeppelin and also destroyed three tube aeroplanes which were in the hangar.

Aeroplanes now are playing the part in war which formerly only carrier pigeons could perform and seem to cover greater possibilities than pigeons. An official notification issued tonight to the people of England requests them to be watchful for messages dropped from aeroplanes, describes the peculiar wrappings which will enclose the messages and directs the finders to forward immediately to the addresses they bear.

French aeroplanes scattered messages to the inhabitants of Alsace in the early days of the war and the Russians adopted the same methods for announcing the proclamation of the emperor to the Poles.

GERMANY WILL DEFEND KIAO-CHAU

Casts Die for War With Japan—United States Suggested As Intermediary

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, Aug. 30.—Germany has cast the die for war with Japan. An official despatch from Berlin, via Rotterdam, says Germany has rejected the Japanese ultimatum demanding the surrender of Kiao-chau to China.

Confirmation has been received of the report that Emperor William has ordered resistance to any effort Japan make to seize Kiao-chau.

A Copenhagen despatch states the Japanese ambassador to Germany has left Berlin.

"The enemies of our enemies are friends. The cry of the yellow peril is not justified. The yellow race, even

CALMNESS, PATIENCE AND COURAGE NEEDED—WHITNEY

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

TORONTO, Aug. 20.—Sir James Whitney gave out the following statement today:

"The present is the time when calmness, patience and courage should be displayed by corporations, governments and individuals. The government has been studying the situation since the outbreak of the war with a view to rendering aid in the most effective manner possible at the time when such aid will be of the greatest benefit to the motherland. With this object in view the government is in communication with the Dominion government at Ottawa so as to ascertain the views of the imperial government and when the proper time comes the people of Ontario can rely on the government of the province doing its full duty and aiding the Empire in the most effective manner possible. What aid should be given now or later and whether directly or in co-operation with the Dominion government remains to be determined."

ALLIES CARRY OUT PLAN OF ALLOWING ENEMY TO OCCUPY CITY OF BRUSSELS

Belgian Field Army Retires After Fulfilling Function of Delaying German Advance and Now Threatens Kaiser's Flank from Antwerp Fortresses

BY BRILLIANT BAYONET CHARGE FRENCH SWEEP GERMAN ARMY FROM MULHAUSEN

Liege Forts Still Hold Out--Teuton Horde Caught Between Two Fires--War Lord's Fighting Machine Captures Louvain After Losing Thousands Mowed Down by Quickfirers--Butchery Fearful

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, Aug. 21.—1:20 a.m.—The Germans have at last occupied Brussels but in Alsace they seem to be making no advance.

The latest report is that the French have recaptured Mulhausen at the point of the bayonet and it still seems true that, after 18 days of fighting, there are no German troops on French soil.

The German army last night was pressing its advantage in Brussels by throwing large numbers of troops into the city, while the Belgians were retreating unmolested on Antwerp, to which city the seat of government was moved a few days ago.

An official French statement says:

"Our troops have met with brilliant successes in Alsace, especially between Mulhausen and Altkirch. The Germans, retreating on the Rhine, left in our hands many prisoners and 24 guns, six of which were captured after a sharp struggle by our infantry.

"In Lorraine the day was less fortunate for us. Our advanced troops were forced by a counter attack to fall back on a body which is strongly established on the Seille and along the canal from the Marne to the Rhine."

Brilliantly Fulfilled Plans.

The official statement continues:

"In conformity with a prearranged plan the Belgian field army retired after brilliantly fulfilling its duty as dictated by the strategical situation and delaying for a fortnight the German passage of the Meuse.

"Antwerp has a double role. It is a formidable entrenched camp, fortified on most modern lines and is the base from which the Belgian army can threaten the German flank and co-operate effectively with the allies.

"The Antwerp defences consist of three fortifications whose power of resistance is great. To besiege the fortress the Germans would have to bring up tremendous forces and a large siege train. This they are not likely to do. If they do not they will be obliged to cover themselves against the operations of the Belgian army which is intact, thanks to the skilful retreat and augmented by the Antwerp garrison.

Liege Forts Still Hold Out.

"It is to be added that the Liege forts still hold out. Those at Namur have not yet been attacked. From this it would seem that the advancing German armies are caught between the positions of Namur and Antwerp, a distance from each other of only 65 miles as the crow flies. The German situation is then a difficult one, since they lack the chief postulate of a plan of march through Belgium, namely, free passage of the Meuse, a route by Liege and Namur, and inaction on the part of the Belgian army."

A despatch to the Central News from Brussels says that one long line of burning villages marked the German advance.

Germans Enter Brussels

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

PARIS, Aug. 20, 10:10 p.m.—The German cavalry has occupied Brussels. This official announcement was made tonight. Strong columns are following up this movement. The Belgian army is retiring on Antwerp without having been engaged by the Germans.

German Flank Now Threatened

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

PARIS, Aug. 20, 1:20 p.m.—An explanation of the Belgian field army's backward movement toward Antwerp was given tonight in the following cablegram from London, made public by the British embassy:

"The Belgian field army, being based on Antwerp, has fallen back in that direction in order to cover its communication with that fortress. In anticipation that this might become necessary, the seat of government had already been transferred from Brussels to Antwerp. As Brussels is an undefended city and no longer the seat of government the fact that the Germans may have occupied it is not of great importance. Moreover, the present position of the Belgian field army is a menace to the right flank of any further German advance westward."

Why Moved to Antwerp

Le Temps this afternoon explains why the seat of the Belgian government was transferred from Brussels to Antwerp. The statement, credited to an anonymous member of the Belgian cabinet, is as follows:

"The Belgian army has not sufficient cavalry to engage or resist the vast curtain of German horsemen which covers the two banks of the river Meuse and which is advancing toward Brussels. The capital was exposed to a sudden raid and it was simple prudence to retire."

German Loss Heavy

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

BRUSSELS, Aug. 20.—Trustworthy reports have been received of an engagement near Charleroi and the Belgians assert 6,000 Germans were killed in battle. There was severe fighting also in the forest of Soignc, southeast of Brussels, near Wavre.

The Brussels hospitals are filled with wounded.

May Change Strategy

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

PARIS, Aug. 20.—Germans gained ground today on both banks of the river Meuse and are in contact with the allies. They, finding the routes to the southward strongly held, discovered an opening to the north. This may change the strategy on both sides.

East of Namur the Germans have attained a line between Dinant and Neufchateau. German outposts have crossed the Dyle and large forces continue to cross the Meuse between Liege and Namur. The French army is making a rapid advance along the Seille river.

There has been continued fighting since the Germans crossed the French frontier at Cirey-sur-Vesouse. The French were finally victorious, inflicting a decisive defeat and driving the enemy back across the frontier east of Luneville.

Fight in Antwerp Suburbs

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

ANTWERP, Aug. 20.—German cavalry attacked the Belgians in the outskirts of Antwerp today. It was driven back, according to an official announcement, which says the enemy's cavalry was also repulsed at Turnhout and Herenthals.

Mowed Down in Close Formation

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, Aug. 20.—The Louvain headquarters of the Belgian army was captured by the Germans, King Albert's troops falling back before the steady advance of the "war machine" perfected by Emperor William.

The British forces sent to help the French troops are engaged with the enemy. The exact location of this conflict, which is the opening of the greatest battle the world has ever known, is hidden by the censors, but is believed to be in the vicinity of Namur.

"When the Germans brought their heavy artillery in play in front of Louvain," says the Central News correspondent, "the Belgians decided to evacuate in order to save the beautiful historic city and therefore took a strong position on the road to Brussels.

"The German losses around Louvain were terrible. They persisted in advancing in close formation, whereupon the Belgian machine guns swept them down like nine pins.

"The Germans moving forward in overwhelming numbers, the Belgians gave ground slowly, evacuating advanced positions, which the Germans occupied as a result of a cavalry charge."

A Maestricht despatch says masses of German troops, infantry and cavalry are pouring into central Belgium.

A Brussels despatch states the Germans set fire to Tirlemont after entering the town in the advance on Louvain.

Inflict Decisive Defeat

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, Aug. 20.—The correspondent at Ghent of the Exchange Telegraph has sent a despatch saying that the troops of the allies have inflicted a severe defeat on the Germans, who retired last night from Tirlemont with heavy losses. Tirlemont is 18 miles direct east of Brussels and just beyond Louvain. It is 10 or 12 miles south of Aerschot, where a desperate fight last night between Germans and Belgians was doubtless part of the same movement.

Battle Veritable Butchery

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

GHENT, Aug. 20.—The battle at Aerschot yesterday was veritable butchery. The Germans, repulsed on the previous evening, renewed the attack and outnumbered the Belgians. The troops on both sides fought like demons. Both were losing heavily when the retreat was sounded. A big battle between the allies and Germans is now on.

LESS MEAT

Advice of Family Physician

Formerly people thought meat necessary for strength and muscular vigor.

The man who worked hard was supposed to require meat two or three times a day. Science has found out differently.

It is now a common thing for the family physician to order less meat, as in the following letter from an eastern man:

"I had suffered for years with dyspepsia and nervousness. My physician advised me to eat less meat and greasy foods generally. I tried several things to take the place of my usual breakfast of chops, fried potatoes, etc., but got no relief until I tried Grape-Nuts food.

"After using Grape-Nuts for the cereal part of my meal for two years, I am now a well man. Grape-Nuts benefited my health far more than the medicine I had taken before.

"My wife and children are healthier than they had been for years, and we are a very happy family, largely due to Grape-Nuts.

"We have been so much benefited by Grape-Nuts that it would be ungrateful not to acknowledge it."

POSSE PASSED BY HIM IN WOODS

Alleged Rossland Murderer Tells of Hunger Experienced—News Notes of City.

(Special to The Daily News)

ROSSLAND, B. C., Aug. 20.—Joe Decesare, who is accused of shooting Louis Bianci on Saturday night and who was captured near Trail last night, was brought to Rossland by Chief of Police Long and Constable Stewart and lodged in the city jail. When questioned as to why he came so close into Trail Decesare said he was hungry. He had made a fire in the woods above Trail and had tried to cook some potatoes, but he said they were hard and so he went closer in to town to see what he could find to eat. He claimed that the day after the shooting he lay all day in the woods to the north of the city and that at one time some of the posse passed right by him. Decesare appeared to be quite cheerful when brought in from Trail and laughed and joked with the officers. A preliminary trial was called for this morning, but the court adjourned until tomorrow morning.

H. O'Brian; guessing doll's name, Miss M. Hawkins. Mamie O'Brian was given a watch Helen Bonner a jewel case and Agnes Serephine a statue for selling the most chances on the raffles.

On last Monday night a large number of members and friends of the Rossland Epworth league spent an enjoyable evening, the program consisting of patriotic songs and addresses. Martin S. Morrell, president of the league, occupied the chair. The first and principal speaker of the evening was Capt. Roe, who gave an address, speaking on the subject, "War From Two Sides." The captain, who was one of the first Canadians to go to the front at the time of the South African war, told of his various experiences during that war. M. S. Morrell gave an interesting address showing why it was necessary for Great Britain to take an active part in the present war. G. T. Moir denounced the kaiser and his war party with considerable heat. John Sherman sang "The Veteran." Thomas Ralph also sang a patriotic solo.

GERMANY SETS PRICES FOR SALE OF FOOD

BERLIN, Aug. 20.—German mobilization having been completed, express trains are resuming service, but still only between the principal towns. The prohibition on the export of meat and provisions from Berlin has been almost totally withdrawn.

Maximum prices have been fixed by the authorities on rye flour, wheat flour, salt and other commodities.

KAISER WAVES HIS UNSHEATHED SWORD

LONDON, Aug. 20.—A marconigram from Berlin tells of the German emperor's farewell address to the first regiment of footguards. They had assembled, the emperor said, to pray that German arms might be blessed so that they should be able to keep flying the flag of the fatherland ever the envy of the enemies, even if this entailed the sacrifice of the last drop of German blood.

The sword which he had allowed to remain in its sheath decade after decade and which he now drew, must decide, and, he declared, it could not be sheathed again without victory and honor. This war found the nation trusting in Almighty God and remembering the glorious days of old.

The commander of the regiment renewed the oath of loyalty and proclaimed the regiment's unquenchable thirst for victory.

GRAND FORKS TO SECURE PUBLICITY

Will Get Government to Exhibit Ore From Franklin Camp—Sharpshooters Ready to Entrain.

(Special to The Daily News.)

GRAND FORKS, B. C., Aug. 20.—A meeting of the board of trade was held in the board rooms last evening. W. Mark De Cew, president, was in the chair. A committee was appointed to secure specimens of ore from the Franklin camp for the Dominion government to be shown at Vancouver, Victoria and the Panama exposition. Four resolutions to come before the associated boards of trade at their annual convention to be held here on Sept. 28 and 29 were laid before the board, discussed and approved.

The independent company of Grand Forks sharpshooters is holding itself in readiness to entrain at a moment's notice. Every evening sees it out at drill and the company is now up to its full strength.

A blaze of rubbish between the Sun office and the opera house this morning about 8 o'clock gave the brigade a run.

In appreciation of his energy and zeal in raising the Grand Forks sharpshooters Capt. S. G. Kirk has been presented with a purse by the citizens for the purpose of purchasing the uniform necessary for an officer of his rank.

BRITISH CAPTAIN BRAVED GUNS OF GERMAN CRUISER

Refused to Sign Document When Captured by Enemy—Would Rather Sink, He Says.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

HAVANA, Aug. 20.—The British steamer Hostilius, which arrived here today from Buenos Ayres, reports that the German cruiser Dresden captured her about 75 miles off Cienfuegos.

The Dresden tried to compel the captain to sign a document swearing that he would not take up arms against Germany in the present war. The captain refused. He told the Dresden's commander that he could make any disposition of the ship desired, but that he (her captain) would sign no document even to save her from being sunk. The ship was finally released.

The Hostilius reports that the Lincoln Drange, another British vessel similarly captured, did sign the document.

CALLS ON CANADIAN GERMANS TO BE LOYAL

(By Daily News Leased Wire)

REGINA, Sask., Aug. 20.—Theodore Schmitz, president of the German Canadian Provincial alliance, has written a message to his countrymen in Saskatchewan calling upon them to avoid all causes of friction in order that the Canadian government may not suffer embarrassment during the continuance of the war.

"All Germans will agree with me," he says, "that it is almost unbelievable that two nations so closely related as Great Britain and Germany should be at war with one another. I think they will also agree that we should pray to God who guides all things that He may bring a speedy end to the animosity which exists between the two greatest tates in the world. Bitter, indeed, it is for us who love our new home to see this war, for our hearts still continue to cling to our old homeland, where our gredles stood. But this country is our adopted home and there can be no doubt that all our German friends sincerely wish the best for Canada."

WAGE STERN TRADE WAR ON GERMANY

Vigorous Movement to Capture Export Business of Austria and Germany Is in Progress.

(Special Cable to The Daily News and New York Times.)

LONDON, Aug. 20.—While England's army is fighting the Prussian advance and with the German commerce swept from the seas, there is being initiated a movement of great importance to capture the German and Austrian trade by invading the world markets to procure for Great Britain great permanent increase of commerce. The lists of German exports which fill the newspapers demonstrate the opportunity that is at hand and suggest the possibility that the American continent, too, may profit by the situation. It is obvious that German commerce will be paralyzed for many months, probably for more than a year, during which time the requirements of the world hitherto met by Germany and Austria must be filled.

The scheme to capture Germany's trade is being taken up with splendid vigor. The board of trade, which is a government department, is doing everything possible, while the colonial office is gathering information from the dominions as to the character of all previous imports. The chamber of commerce is arranging meetings between manufacturers and the former importers of German goods.

Every newspaper has devoted much space to the situation and enthusiastically urges the British manufacturers to fight for the trade. The war causes loss in the English market in central Europe and the manufacturers must make this up elsewhere. The most available place is where Germany and Austria-Hungary formerly predominated.

When England during the last week began to investigate the situation figures were produced which astounded the public. Germany's total exports were nearly $2,500,000,000, which was rather disconcerting to those who had been complacently believing that England was really the greatest manufacturing nation of the world.

It was also found that Great Britain had been importing great quantities of goods from Germany, even such goods as could be found here. Germany exported twice as much cutlery as England, which hitherto had been held to be predominant in the field. The government and the business men now figure that the loss of central European British trade can be more than balanced by invasion elsewhere. The newspapers are discussing the possibility of England grabbing Germany's $10,000,000 worth of American trade. One thing that is being emphasized is England's opportunity in China, particularly Kiaochau, which has the distinction of being Germany's greatest colonial commercial centre. The German toy trade is one field which England will invade. It runs into millions, as England alone imports millions of dollars worth of toys yearly. There is no chance of England grabbing all of Germany's export trade, many articles being non-competitive, but it is possible to compete in a great number of things, thus keeping the British factories going and compensating for the losses in Europe.

SEND ON SMOKES IS THE S. O. S. SIGNAL

Motor delivery vans of one of London's largest tobacco firms have been equipped with wireless apparatus in order that help may be rushed to needy smokers on the receipt of the signal, S. O. S.—meaning "Send on Smokes."

This firm claims to be the only one in the world using the wireless in its delivery system. The firm communicates through a station on the roof of the building. Aerials are placed on the vans, manipulated by an operator inside.

As a time saver, the wireless is said by the firm to more than save its cost. Very few messages are missed because of atmospheric disturbances.

In instance of its usefulness, one of the wealthy west end clubs ran out of tobacco supplies at 5:40 o'clock in the afternoon, within 20 minutes of closing time for the firm. The S. O. S. signal flashed from the roof on receipt of the order. At one minute to six the motor van, after a mad race up the street, threw on its brakes in front of the club. The wireless, therefore, not only saved a large order, but relieved the club men from distress.

GERMANS SHOOT CATHOLIC PRIEST—CALLED HIM SPY

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

PARIS, Aug. 20.—La Croix, the Catholic newspaper, declares that the blind bishop, Mgr Kannergieser, alleged to have been shot by the Germans at Istein, in Baden, was an Alsatian and anti-German.

He was accused by the Germans of having in his possession plans of the fortress of Istein-Glotz, where a large German force is awaiting the advance of the French army now marching through upper Alsace.

Istein-Glotz is regarded as almost impregnable and is the centre of a ring of German fortifications in that region.

Good Times Ahead

THE sudden breaking out of war caused many to "run to cover." Like the chicken on whom the rose leaf fell, some of us became a prey to fear and were ready to declare "the sky is falling."

Now our vision is clearing, our alarm has fled, we have recovered our poise and our courage. We are seeing, also, our opportunity. Swiftly and almost overwhelmingly has come to us the perception of the fact that the competition of Continental Europe has been taken away. We are faced with a condition and an opportunity both tending to our advantage as a country of industry, agriculture and trade. Good times are ahead, if Canada and Canadians see and seize the present opportunity for enlarging their industries and trading.

We must be careful. We must have courage

WILL PAY WAR TAX WILLINGLY.

The imposition of a war tax by the Dominion government will come as a surprise to most Canadians, but it is a step which, under the circumstances, will be generally approved. Money is necessary to carry on war. The Empire being at war, Canada is at war and is prepared to do her full share in the struggle into which the German kaiser has plunged Great Britain as well as most of Europe.

As matters stand the raising of money by way of loan is practically out of the question so far as this country is concerned, while current revenue will not supply the amount of money necessary and it is possible to raise only a limited amount by way of note issue.

In arranging the special war tax the government has seen to it that it should apply principally to what may be regarded as luxuries. Sugar is the one exception. It is in general use by practically every family, rich or poor, so that this tax will affect most families.

The new tax will be paid cheerfully by Canadians, for they know that the money to be so raised will be spent in the Empire's cause.

BUT PRELIMINARIES TO REAL BATTLES.

During the past few days there has been little news of a nature reassuring to the public mind in this country. Germany appears to be pushing her forces onward across Belgium toward France. Her way is being contested, but she advances nevertheless.

This, however, does not mean that the German forces are going to reach their destination, Paris. They have not as yet come up with the main body of the allies. All the fighting so far has been of a preliminary nature. Some of these days word will come of the real struggle toward which all that has occurred so far is but leading up.

In the meantime people must possess their souls in patience and hope for the best when the first real battle does take place.

WHAT THE PRESS IS SAYING

With British Empire.

Germany, having grasped her sword, is laying about her with a high hand. She is playing the outlaw against western Europe. Her ultimate purpose in violating international treaties is clear. If she could have beaten the armies of France and Russia, with Britain holding aloof, she would have attained the complete dominance of Europe and become a menace to both American continents. Thinking people in the United States are with the British empire of freedom and liberty against the German empire of autocracy and suppression.—New York Post.

May It Prosper.

The much advertised Irish firm of "Redmond & Co." has been enlarged for the purpose of defence of Ireland against the enemies of the empire, and will be hereafter known as "Redmond, Carson & Co." May it live long and prosper!—Edmonton Journal.

Can't Be Hurried.

You can't hurry John Bull, but when he acts you can count his decision came after deliberate and sane consideration.—Lethbridge Herald.

Not Without Compensations.

The prune crop in Bosnia will be checked by the war. Apparently the calamity is not without compensations.—Winnipeg Telegram.

COMMUNICATION

WRITES REGARDING ARREST OF GERMAN

To the Editor of The Daily News:

Sir: With reference to the item in your issue of Aug. 13, referring to the arrest of an ex-officer of the German army, may I be permitted to state through the medium of your columns that the gentleman in question left his place of residence in Canada before war was declared.

Courtesy to her enemies placed hors de combat by force of circumstances has always been an instinctive quality of which all true Britishers have been inordinately proud, and rightly so.

One regrets very much to think that any Britisher, who presumably wishes to be regarded as a gentleman, should so far forget what was due between one gentleman and another as to lay information behind the ex-officer's back and cause him the ignomy of suffering arrest by the civil police.

What makes it worse is the fact that upon the day previous to his arrest the ex-officer had journeyed to Nelson and there notified the government authorities of his position and intentions.

I may say that a precedent cannot be quoted from the annuls of international law; but enough, permit me to state the true motives underlying the case.

It was an opportunity not to be missed by would-be patriots, who have no doubt reached the conclusion that "discretion is the better part of valor," actuated by feelings of petty spite, jealously and dislike, to offer insult to the lady, of whose hospitality the ex-officer was partaking, by causing his arrest while under her roof.

Numerous opportunities occurred whereby the fears and doubts of the would-be patriots could have been allayed had they chosen to make use of them and behave in a straight forward, open and gentlemanly manner.

The fact that the ex-officer traveled part of the way to the states in the company of a naval reserve officer, to whom he made known his intentions, and also the impossibility of intending belligerents leaving either Canada or the United States to fight against us tends to stamp with ridicule the melo-dramatic endeavors of the person or persons who laid the information.

JUST APPLY THIS PASTE AND THE HAIRS VANISH

(Helps to Beauty)

A safe, reliable home-treatment for the quick removal of superfluous hairs from your face or neck is as follows: Mix a stiff paste with some water and powdered delatone, apply to objectionable hairs and after 2 or 3 minutes rub off, wash the skin and the hairs are gone. This simple treatment is unfailing and no pain or inconvenience attends its use, but to avoid disappointment be certain you get genuine delatone.

CUSTOMS DUTIES TO MEET WAR TAX

"To partially meet the special war expenditure I have to propose certain increases in customs and excise duties upon articles and commodities, to the taxation of which resort is usually had in the emergency of war."

States Changes in Tariff.

The following is an analysis of the tariff changes then announced to provide war revenue: Cocoa or chocolate paste, sweetened, general tariff raised from 4 to 4½ cents; preferential tariff from 3½ to 4. Preparations of the same in powder form, general tariff 25 per cent to 27½ per cent, preferential tariff 20 per cent to 22½ per cent. Cocoa or chocolate n.o.p., and chocolate confectionery, increased from ½c to 1c per pound in all tariffs. Chicory, roasted or ground, is unchanged in the general and preferential tariffs at 3c and 2c per pound, respectively, but the intermediate tariff is raised from 2½ to 3c. Coffee extract is raised from 3c to 6c in the general tariff and from 2c to 5c in the preference. Coffee, roasted or ground, is increased from 2c to 5c in the general tariff and from 1½ to 4c under the British preference. If not imported direct from the country of production, the rates are the same as those just given except for an ad-valorem duty; under the general tariff this ad valorem duty remains 10 per cent, but under the British preference there is a reduction to 7½ per cent. Coffee, green, is now free if imported from the country of growth or purchased in bond in the United Kingdom. Under the tariff changes it will pay 3 cents per pound as the general rate and 2 1-4c under the British preference.

Coffee to Pay More.

Coffee, n.o.p., retains the present ad valorem duty of 10 per cent and there is an addition of 3c per pound under all three tariffs. The duties on tea remain unchanged. Condensed milk is increased from 3 1-4c to 3 3-4c per pound on the general tariff and 2c to 2½c under the British preference. Condensed coffee with milk is increased from 30 to 35 per cent under the general tariffs and 20 to 25 per cent under the British preference. Biscuits, sweet, go up from 17½ to 30 under the general tariff. Fruits, preserved in brandy, are increased from 50 to 60 per cent in all tariffs, if they do not contain more than 40 per cent of proof spirits. If containing more than that, the increase is from $2.40 to $3.35; the ad valorem duty remaining at 30 per cent. Canned fruits are increased from 2 1-4 to 2½ cents under the general tariff and 1¼c to 1¾c under the British preference. Jellies, jams and preserves and condensed milk are increased from 3 1-4c per pound to 3¾c under the general tariff and 2 1-4c to 2¾c under the British preference. Preserved ginger is raised from 30 to 35 per cent general and 20 to 25 British preference. Desiccated cocoanut is increased from 4 to 4½ cents per pound general and 2 to 3½ preference.

Sugar Increase Heavy.

Raw sugar is increased 57½ cents to $1.57½ per cwt. under the general tariff and from 40¾ cents to $1.03¾ British preference. Refined sugar is increased from $1.07¾ to $2.07 2-3 per cwt. general and 83 cents to $1.06 preference.

In the case of both raw and refined sugar the estimates for the rate of duty are based upon the customary standard of imported sugars.

Sugar candy and confectionery retains its present ad valorem duties and in addition there is imposed a specific duty of ½c.

Higher on Tobacco.

On cigars and cigarettes the specific duty is raised from $3 to $3.50 per pound, the ad valorem duty remaining unchanged.

Manufactured tobacco, n.o.p., and snuff are increased from 50c to 60c per pound.

Ale, beer, porter and stout, not bottled, are increased from 16c to 30c per gallon. In bottles the increase is from 24c to 42c per gallon. Lime and fruit juices having not more than 25 per cent of proof spirits are placed under a duty of 75c instead of 60c per gallon. If the per cent of spirit is more than 25 per cent the specific duty is raised from $2.40 to $3 per gallon, the ad valorem duty remaining unchanged at 30 per cent.

Lime juice and fruit juice, n.o.p., are increased from 20 to 22½ per cent general and from 15 to 17½ per cent preference.

Alcohol is increased from $2.40 to $3 per gallon.

On alcoholic perfumes in small bottles the duty is raised from 50 to 60 per cent; in larger bottles the specific duty is raised from $2.40 to $3. The ad valorem duty remains unchanged.

Spirits of nitre is raised from $2.40 to $3 per gallon. On medicated wines the increase is from 50 to 60 per cent. On malt flour a special tax of 3c per pound is imposed in addition to the existing ad valorem duty of 35 per cent. Chemical preparations, including patent medicines, when dry, remain unchanged, but on all others the duty is raised from 50 to 60 per cent. If they contain more than 40 per cent of proof spirits the specific duty is raised from $2.40 to $3 per gallon.

Paints and colors, ground in spirits, are increased from $1 to $1.25 per gallon.

*The excise duties on spirits and to*bacco are increased as follows:

Malt liquor, from 10c to 15c per gallon; malt, from ½c to 3c per pound; spirits, from $1.90 to $2.20 per gallon; cigars, from $2 to $3 per 1,000; manufactured tobacco, from 5c to 10c per pound.

Some of Act Retrospective.

Mr. White then continued:

"In connection with the increases which I have proposed in customs and excise rates upon liquors and tobaccos it has come to our knowledge that certain brewers, distillers and dealers, in expectation that a special war tax would be necessary upon these commodities, have, during the past two weeks, taken exceedingly large amounts out of bond. I have particulars of the abnormal increase in customs and excise revenue under my hand, which I shall later lay before the committee. If we failed to deal with the situation thus created our fiscal measure, so far as it relates to the commodities in question, would be defeated and we should be deprived in large part of the revenue which for the remainder of the year we have calculated upon from these sources. I have to propose, therefore, that part of the legislation relating to duties of customs and excise be deemed to come into effect on Aug. 7 last.

"These special war taxes, representing only a small fraction of our increase in military and naval expenditure due to the critical situation which has arisen, will fall upon the entire community. In paying them each citizen will feel that the amount he pays is a direct contribution to the defence of Canada and the Empire.

More Trade With Britain.

"As to the effect of the war upon industrial and commercial conditions in Canada I do not regard it necessary that I should upon this occasion make any special pronouncement. Injury there will no doubt be to some of our enterprises, but such injury may be most marked at the beginning and not of long duration. In the circumstances I feel that I can confidently appeal to all employers of labor to continue to carry on their operations to such an extent as may be feasible to them in order that the distress of unemployment may be eliminated as much as possible and that the first brunt of war may not fall too heavily upon the working community.

"To many of our industries and notably to agriculture there should be pronounced *stimulation and quicken*ing of activity. Trade between Canada and the motherland will undoubtedly receive an impetus the importance of which to our future returns would be difficult to overstate. If I have any general advice to offer, it is that the people of Canada will, as I am sure they will, continue to maintain the calm, sane judgment for which they have always been noted.

"Above all, confidence is a supreme patriotic duty, confidence in one another; confidence in our country and its institutions, in the Empire, in the righteousness of our cause, and, under providence, in the certain ultimate triumph of our arms."

To Amend Immigration Laws

Hon. C. J. Doherty announced the following special committee to consider the amendments to the Immigration act:

Sir Robert Borden, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Sir George Foster, Hon. William Pugsley, Hon. L. P. Pelletier, A. K. Maclean and Hon. C. J. Doherty.

Considerable discussion took place when the resolution empowering the government to enact moratorium legislation was in committee. Mr. White explained that it appeared at the present time that there was no necessity for a moratorium either in general or limited scope. The legislation proposed was simply precautionary and would enable the governor-in-council, if he saw fit, to apply a moratorium in general or limited scope.

E. N. Macdonald, Pictou, believed that under present conditions the government should have such power.

Hon. W. Pugsley, St. John, however, objected strongly and thought it was unwise even to pass enabling legislation. He thought it was better not to run the risk of a few people being allowed to create a condition by which debtors could snap their fingers at creditors. He thought it was a grave step to take and would affect the credit of every individual in Canada and the United States.

Mr. White declared that discussion of the question might well be postponed until later. All the resolutions on the order paper passed the committee and the bills were introduced.

It was announced by the premier that all but one of the striking coal miners in jail at Nanaimo had been released.

LABOR CONGRESS ASKS LEGISLATION

Makes Appeal to Dominion Government for Protection of Working People During Crisis

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

OTTAWA, Aug. 20.—"What about the common people," is a question in an appeal sent by the Dominion trades and labor congress to every member of parliament.

Appeal is made for due consideration for the workers of Canada in which legislation will be enacted at the present session whereby they are likely to be affected.

"The maximum of protection is given to the great financial interests," states the open communication, which is addressed to Premier Borden and members of the cabinet, and reads further:

"You have made legal tender the note circulation of the banks. The legislation is proposed to extend the credit of the banks enormously. You are about to suspend the redemption of Dominion notes for gold. A great many workers never earned a chance to purchase a home. Many, by struggles they themselves made, have purchased homes by a deposit of cash and assumption of mortgages. Their only means of revenue is the selling of their labor power. They pay interest and principal out of wages they earn. Now big industries are shutting down, adding to a fearful unemployed problem existing. Failure of the workers to be able to sell their labor means they will be unable to meet the payments on mortgages. The loss of the home is inevitable if the great financial institutions and others take advantage of legal rights.

"Inasmuch as the government is protecting the great interests to an enormous extent, we desire the protection of the government shall be extended to the common people whose interests are as dear to them as are the interests of great corporations to the shareholders. We ask that you afford that protection now to the common people at this session."

THOUSANDS TO SEE BODY OF POPE

Impressive Ceremonies Are Conducted at Rome—Sister of Pius Dies of Grief

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

ROME, Aug. 20.—The body of Pope Pius X., whose end came peacefully this morning, has been laid out in state for thousands to look upon. The pathos of his passing has been accentuated by the death tonight of his sister Anna. Always she was at his bedside in times of sickness and she was kneeling near him when he died.

Within the Vatican preparations were in progress for the funeral ceremonies, which will be of a simple nature, and for the holding of the conclave for the election of a new pope. It is expected that the conclave will be held early in September. The cardinals met at the Vatican this afternoon. All wore violet capes as a sign of mourning. Cardinals Della Volpe and Merry del Val went to the pope's apartment to affix seals on the late pontiff's private papers and belongings. The chamberlain took possession of the fisherman's ring, which was renewed when Pope Leo died, the old fisherman's ring having been lost at that time. The cardinals visited the death chamber, where they viewed the body of the pope, which lay on a sloping bier, covered with a white cloth, under a rich red canopy. The body was clothed in a white robe and red hat. White silk gloves covered the hands on the fingers of which glittered the rings of his office.

The face of the late pontiff was startlingly waxen. In profile it was recognizable but sadly changed. All knelt and after prayer some of the cardinals handed to the monsignors standing on each side of the bier their crucifixes and medals, which the monsignors laid for a moment on the dead fingers. Some, and those privileged, themselves placed the crucifixes on the hands and also kissed the feet clad in red slippers.

Had Life Insurance

It is reported the pope shortly before his death arranged for life insurance to the amount of $10,000 in favor of his surviving sisters. Nothing else goes to his family. The will of the pope was read today in the presence of Merry del Val but it has not been officially made public.

Contrary to custom, the cardinals, up to noon, had not received an invitation to go to the Vatican for the first meeting after the death of the pope. The delay was due to the absence of Cardinal Seraphin Vannutelli, dean of the Sacred college, by whom such invitations must be issued. Cardinal Vannutelli was in Naples when he received the message from Cardinal Merry del Val announcing the grave condition of the pope. He took the night train for Rome but shortly after leaving Naples a dynamite bomb exploded in the train, wounding 10 persons. The cardinal was not injured but was obliged to wait for the next train. Cardinal Vannutelli is almost blind and is stone deaf.

Cardinal Sebastian Martinelli, prefect of the congregation of rites, is ill at Genzano. He is suffering from a mental affliction and it is doubtful whether it would be possible for him to attend the conclave or, if he does, whether he will be allowed to vote.

Officially Recognize Death

Part of the formal ceremonies today consisted of official recognition of the pope's death. Amid deep silence the chamberlain sprinkled the body with holy water, at the same time thrice calling the pope by name—Guiseppe Sarto—then turning to those who knelt by the bedside, he announced solemnly: "The pope is really dead."

At 4 o'clock in the morning the celebration of masses began in the death chamber for the repose of the soul of Pius X.

Discuss Conclave.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

ROME, Aug. 20.—The matter of a conclave for the election of a new pope was discussed today. It is said that a majority of the cardinals are in favor of holding it in Rome as is usual, and further because of the neutrality of Italy in the present war. Others, however, suggested that it would be better to meet in Holland, a country which they regarded as even more neutral than Italy. Among the candidates that were mentioned are Cardinals Maffi, Delai, Ferrata, Agliardi, Pompili and Serafini, the last named ex-nuncio of Mexico.

Perley* had offered a residence in Ottawa for headquarters and Col. H. Burland had contributed one at Montreal. Col. BLAME SUGAR RISE ON MANIPULATORS

United States Investigation Into War Prices Shows Large Profits Reaped in Chicago.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

CHICAGO, Aug. 20.—Responsibility for the recent advance in the price of sugar was placed primarily on alleged manipulators of the New York markets in reports made here today by investigators to James L. Bruff, chief of the bureau of investigation of the department of justice. Chicago wholesalers, the investigators reported, made corresponding raises on their own account and reaped large profits.

The federal investigation into war time prices was again centred in the books of the meat packers.

WHAT WAR MEANS

There are few men who possess so wide an outlook on international affairs as Sir Harry Johnston, G.C.M.G. When the question "War or Peace" was trembling in the balance he wrote in a London paper an article with the caption "What War Means," in which he forecast with single prescience what would happen if Emperor William threw his sword in the scale and declared for war.

Sir Harry Johnston feared that "the least blunder of our diplomacy and statecraft" might involve Great Britain in a struggle by sea, land and air. He did not anticipate at that time that Germany would have the madness to violate the neutral territory to such an extent as would array the world in arms against her. Well would it have been had the powers that be had Sir Harry Johnston's vivid imagination—an imagination which enabled him to see what war does really mean for nations who engage in it.

The prosperity of Russia, had it continued, would have stimulated British commerce. Russia must as an outcome of this war have a setback and Great Britain suffers in consequence. Peace and prosperity in Germany and in Austro-Hungary would not only have been good for those countries but good for our imperial trade.

Sir Harry Johnston recognized, as all observers have recognized, that France could not rest until she had revenge for her defeat in 1870—could not rest until she had got back, or at any rate tried to get back, her lost provinces, Alsace and Lorraine. Suppose that attempt made and failed. It would have meant a German control over Belgium and Holland and a disastrous strategic position for Great Britain on the North sea.

Since Sir Harry Johnston wrote events have moved rapidly. The evils he feared became inevitable—Great Britain had no power to avert them. The one thing patent is that Great Britain accepted the inevitable and rose to the occasion. Great Britain knew—as well as Sir Harry Johnston—what war means, and that is why the attitude of the Empire has been according to the precept of Polonius:

"Beware of entrance to a quarrel, but being in it bear it so that your opponent may beware of you."—Vancouver News-Advertiser.

HYMN BEFORE ACTION

By Rudyard Kipling.

The earth is full of anger,
The seas are dark with wrath,
The nations in their harness
Go up against our path,
Ere yet we loose the legions,
Ere yet we draw the blade,
Jehovah of the Thunders,
Lord God of battles, aid.

High lust and froward bearing,
Proud heart, rebellious brow,
Deaf ear and soul uncaring,
We seek thy mercy now.
The sinner that foreswore Thee,
The fool that passed Thee by,
Our times are known before Thee,
Lord grant us strength to die.

From panic, pride and terror,
Revenge that knows no rein,
Light haste and lawless error,
Protect us yet again.
Cloak Thou our underserving,
Make firm the shuddering breath,
In silence and unswerving,
To taste Thy lesser death.

E'en now the vanguard gathers,
E'en now we face the fray,
As Thou didst help our fathers,
Help Thou our host today.
Fulfilled of signs and wonders,
In life, in death, made clear,
Jehovah of the thunders,
Lord God of battles, hear.

ALLOW ENEMY TO OCCUPY BRUSSELS

Brussels Draped in Black

(Special Cable to The Daily News and New York Times.)

GHENT, Aug. 20.—By Martin H. Donohue.—The Prussian cavalry this morning was active along the whole front of the allies, small bodies of Uhlans have been close around Brussels and also in the neighborhood of Malines (13 miles northeast of Brussels). My information does not enable me to say whether Malines is still occupied by the Belgians. A German aeroplane flew over Brussels this morning and was seen at Ghent just as I was leaving for the coast.

(The censor here has evidently deleted the words "German cavalry entered Brussels.)

They met with no resistance, in accordance with instructions from the Belgian authorities. They were, however, coldly received.

The streets were deserted and some persons manifested their grief by draping the national flag with black. Late last evening the main road from Louvain toward Brussels was packed with retreating soldiers and fugitives. Everywhere people had turned light carts into account. To some of these were harnessed teams of dogs, which one sees everywhere in Flanders. Others had attached horses and when animal traction failed, some had harnessed themselves to vehicles and were laboriously toiling toward succor, dragging carts, laden with the aged and infirm or weeping mothers with young children and babies in arms.

Driven from Blazing Home

I conversed with many of these homeless ones on the side of both the roads to Brussels and to Ghent.

One man said that he lived just outside of Louvain and had been working in the fields until aware of the proximity of the Germans. He turned around and saw his house in flames and heard the cry of the Uhlans. It was impossible for him to approach his home, so he fled in complete ignorance of the fate of his wife and children.

Enormous Prussian forces were flung against the weak points of the line at Louvain. Talking with a French officer west of Wavre on Tuesday, I was informed that it was estimated that a force composed of two or three German army corps was moving between Hasselt, Tongres and Watteme, its object being to break through at any cost.

The advance of this huge force was covered by an immense cavalry screen. It was this advance cavalry with which the French and Belgians were so hotly engaged all day Tuesday.

Allies Have Little Loss

The allied cavalry, pursuing the retreating Germans, far beyond the advance post of the allies, suddenly discovered the presence of a large army. There was nothing to it but to fall back rapidly and this was accomplished in good order and with practically no loss. The main German advance over a front of about 30 miles appears to have begun at daylight yesterday. At 6 o'clock in the morning I reached an advance post, anticipating from some of the operations of the previous day that I was about to witness the first great battle of this war. I then found that during the night the situation had completely changed, as it often does in war. The pickets of the allied cavalry had been driven in by the German cavalry. They were sent to reconnoitre and returned with the information that they had come in contact with large bodies of Germans moving on a route parallel with the Belgian-French lines.

Germans Carry Diest and Louvain

The first of the invader was encountered at Diest. This place, which heroicaly resisted last week, was fiercely attacked. The old forts and the water moat which are at the north formed but weak protection from the heavy fire of the Germans. Shell fire soon rendered the defences untenable and the garrison retreated, evacuating the town.

The Germans then advanced cautiously. The Belgian cavalry, which was covering the rear guard, had several brushes with their foes, which repeatedly sought to cut them off. The impetuosity of the Belgians led to their charging the foe and incurring great losses.

Louvain was the next place against which the Germans, as I related last night, flung themselves. Here their task was comparatively light and Louvain, where until yesterday the Belgian headquarters staff had been located, is undefended.

It is a sleepy looking little town, noted for the beauty of its Gothic architecture and the profundity of Catholic learning. A force of infantry and cavalry held the place as long as possible and then retreated. I am informed that later the invaders made the slight resistance the excuse for burning houses in the vicinity of Louvain. In the high wooded country the Belgians found an excellent defensive position. Having cleared Louvain of its forces and occupied the town itself, the Germans pushed forward with great celerity.

Germans Hurry to Cover

Reinforcements were hurried up and the Germans, with a view to holding on, started to get themselves under cover. They seemed to be meditating a vigorous attack on the Belgians. The German guns came into action, but though their shooting showed considerable improvement as compared with last week, they were unable to make any impression on the Belgians, who were protected by farm lands and marshy ground. Later in the afternoon the Germans withdrew their advance forces to the other side of Louvain. A Belgian patrol which had pushed its way forward found the town deserted by Germans.

Owing to a fear that they might be outflanked if they held on, the Belgians in the afternoon received imperative orders to evacuate their position. To prevent its being cut off, the force holding Wavre was also ordered to carry out simultaneous retirement.

Since yesterday I have been without reliable news of the German column which fought at Diest and vicinity. Our difficulties in this campaign are really great and for the most part it would be an impossibility to follow accurately the varying phases over a front of 30 miles. The last I heard of the Germans who took Diest was that they had passed westward to Aerschot. From this point they advanced anew, carefully reconnoitering and were last night and early this morning reported to be threatening Malines, 13 miles northeast of Brussels.

Note.—This story shows evidence that the censor has cut out that part describing the German cavalry's entry into Brussels. It is printed as received, brackets indicating what evidently was cut out. The entire first section of the story was held up by the censor.

Suggests America As Medium

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

PEKING, Aug. 20.—China today inquired of the United States what its attitude would be toward the cession by Germany to the United States of the territory of Kiao-chau for immediate cession thereafter back to China. The inquiry of the Chinese government was made to the American charge and it was understood to be based on an intimation from Germany that such a course might solve the problem.

The Chinese government is not sure that such a proposition would meet with the approval of Japan and Great Britain. But China has informed the United States that no matter what action Japan may take as a result of her ultimatum, the Chinese republic will preserve an absolutely passive attitude.

Fear Boxer Rising

In the belief that those classes from whom the Boxers sprang might succeed in forming small groups which would take advantage of the war to attempt once more to expel foreigners from China, the government today instructed the provincial authorities to afford foreigners all necessary protection.

The press was at the same time warned against exciting the people by articles on the war, while discussions on the war are forbidden in public places. Further measures have been taken against the revolutionists who have begun to renew their activities in several places. All Japanese subjects departed from the German protectorate of Kiao-chau yesterday.

Think Germany Inspired It

(By Daily News Leased Wire)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—Officials here were silent today with regard to the inquiry of the Chinese government as to whether the United States government would undertake the transfer of Kiao-chau from Germany to China.

It was predicted in official circles, however, that the United States would not assent to the proposal unless it had previously been assured that such a course would be approved by both Japan and Great Britain. It was believed here that the Chinese inquiry was made to sound the United States government on behalf of Germany.

Only two days ago Daniel von Haimhausen, the German charge d'affaires, expressing what he termed "his personal views," suggested that the territory might be ceded to China and a war averted. The Chinese minister here also has been in conference with Secretary Bryan, seeking to learn whether the influence of the United States could be exerted to prevent an outbreak of hostilities at the doors of the Chinese republic.

Publish Partial List of Killed

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, Aug. 21, 4:10 a.m.—Telegraphing from Copenhagen, the correspondent of the Mail says that the third list of German casualties, aggregating about 1,000 men killed or wounded, mainly infantrymen, has been published in Berlin. The correspondent adds that the Cologne Gazette confirms the report that Prince Frederick William of Lippe was killed before Liege.

NO NEWS OF FLEET RECEIVED IN LONDON

LONDON, Aug. 20.—No news whatever has been received of any naval movements either in the North sea or the Mediterranean.

The death of Pope Pius will be made the occasion for another effort to bring about peace. It is stated that when the conclave meets in Rome to elect a new pope it will send an appeal to the warring nations for peace and will ask the United States to aid it in bringing about tranquility.

WILL NOT DELAY ELECTION OF POPE

Conclave Must Be Held in Accordance With Laws of Church, Catholics Explain.

(Special Cable to The Daily News and New York Times.)

LONDON, Aug. 20.—There will be no difficulty in holding a conclave to elect a new pope owing to the war. In the opinion of English Catholics, postponement of the conclave is unthinkable. A prominent Catholic here today said that every cardinal, including those of the belligerent nations, will consider it an imperative duty to make every effort to reach Rome within the 10 days' limit.

"But even if not a single cardinal except the Italians manage to reach Rome the conclave will still be held and the election be binding. The conclave meets automatically 10 days after the death of the pontiff. If there is no quorum those who get there within 10 days are locked up and proceed to elect a new pontiff.

"We do not know what the French, German and Austrian cardinals are doing, but presume that they will do their duty and make every effort to get to Rome. Still we are all up in the air as present conditions are unprecedented in the history of the church. It is understood that Cardinal Gasquet is also planning to make an effort to get to Rome. It has been suggested that the belligerents may allow special conclave cardinals to pass through the lines, but in the event of a considerable proportion of the foreign cardinals being unable to get to Rome in time it is thought there will be no possibility of a foreign pope being elected."

NAVY DESERTER WISHES FOR CHANCE TO FIGHT

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

REGINA, Sask., Aug. 20.—A deserter from his majesty's navy went to the magistrate tonight to give himself up in order to go to the war. He was induced to do so by the offer of pardon to those who volunteered to fight. He was pardoned by the King but placed in the cells by the police and they wired to Ottawa to see what is to be done with the man.

BLACK POPE, HEAD OF SOCIETY OF JESUITS, DEAD

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

ROME, Aug. 20.—Father Francl Xavier Wernz, known as the "black pope," died early this morning from diabetes. His final illness was superinduced by his anxiety over the war. He had constantly prayed that victory should rest on the Austro-German arms, but he was equally anxious as to the fate of the Jesuits in France, Germany and Belgium.

Father Wernz was general of the Society of Jesuits and it is considered doubtful whether a conclave for the election of his successor can be held during the war, as the provincials of the different countries must come to Rome for that purpose. This would be difficult as they do not enjoy the same privileges as the cardinals.

BRITISH GENERAL DIED SUDDENLY IN FRANCE

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, Aug. 20.—The body of Gen. Grierson of the British army, who died suddenly a few days ago in France, where he had been sent to command a British army corps, passed through London today on the way to Scotland. The entire garrison turned out and lined the route from the train to the steamer which conveyed the coffin to Scotland.

Vancouver Doubtful of Danger

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

VANCOUVER, B. C., Aug. 20.—It is believed in the city that there is absolutely no foundation for the rumor that a German cruiser has called or is about to call at Prince Rupert for coal. At present there is a detachment of Irish Fusiliers under Lieut.-Col. McSpadden at that port and up to the present no intimation has been received from him at brigade headquarters of anything untoward. The German vessel, the Leipzig, did not pass through the straits to the north, as she would have been engaged by the Rainbow and the submarines, neither was she seen on the west coast of Vancouver island. It is questionable whether she would have been able to steam so far north from the time she left San Francisco.

STOCK EXCHANGE DEADLOCK UNBROKEN

American Finances Moving Along into Smoother Water—Bank of England Statement Better.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

NEW YORK, Aug. 20—Except for the stock exchange and the foreign exchange situation, where the deadlock remains unbroken, there is increasing evidence that the domestic financial situation is moving into smoother waters. Financial institutions all over the country are releasing bonds with more freedom than was thought possible a week ago.

In the money market today some loans were renewed at 6 per cent but the prevailing rate was nearer 7 per cent.

The foreign exchange situation was made more complicated by the utter lack of reichmarks, suggesting absolute interruption of communication with Berlin. Sight drafts on London cable at 5.05, a rise of 3c, attested to the security of bills. Brokers in the exchange were discouraged at the failure of definite results from yesterday's conference and now look to Washington for a solution of the problem.

Regarding the stock exchange situation, there were rumors of the formation in a tentative way of a banking syndicate aggregating at least $200,000,000 designed to support the market, once operations are resumed.

Communication with Italy was more open today, a leading bank announcing its ability to forward credits to the country in moderate amounts. The most interesting news from abroad was the statement of the Bank of England, which showed increased gold holdings of $25,000,000 and a gain in other securities of $140,000,000, despite a further marked decrease of clearings.

HEART'S ACTION IS RECORDED ON PLATE

Instrument Installed at Hospital Promises to Revolutionize Medical Treatment of Heart Diseases.

An electro-cardiagraph, an instrument which promises to revolutionize medical methods and theories in regard to the treatment of diseases of the heart, has just been installed in St. Paul's hospital by Dr. E. Newton Drier of Vancouver. This is the first instrument of the kind to be used in western Canada and follows closely after the Montreal general hospital and the Toronto hospital in providing such equipment.

In discussing the instrument Dr. Drier said it was now fully recognized among the medical experts of the mother land that one of the most important recent advances in clinical pathology had been the application of electrical methods to the study of the heart. The vital part of the electro-cardiagraph was the galvanometer, which recorded with a high degree of accuracy the minute electrical currents of the heart.

The most important feature of the galvanometer was the fibre case. A light silvered glass fibre was stretched inside this case and its deflections due to the small cardiac currents passing through it were magnified by means of the optical system of the apparatus and projected on to a camera to produce a continuous photographic record of the current variations, or in other words the heart's action.

By means of this record the medical attendant could see at a glance whether the muscular action of the heart was regular or otherwise, could note irregular or too rapid action of the auricle and ventricle, or if one or both were being overworked, and prescribe treatment accordingly. By former methods the heart specialist had to depend largely on his ear for knowledge of the heart action and this method was often misleading. A variation of the instrument also provided a record of the sounds produced by the heart.

Dr. Drier said it had long been known that all muscle movements were accompanied by electrical currents, but it was not until a few years ago that a way of securing a record of them was made possible. He said a record of the heart's action could be secured over any wire and that there was no need even of a patient being moved to a hospital for the purpose. It would be even possible to take a heart record of a person living in Victoria from here. He pointed out that the general use of the electro-cardiagraph would be of great value in the identification of criminals, as every heart record was distinct and unmistakable, and also be of great value to insurance companies in the testing of candidates for insurance.

LAUNCH NELSON BREAKS CLUTCH

Up-Lake Trip Yesterday Cancelled—Resumes Today—To Crawford Bay Tomorrow.

The breaking of the clutch on the Canadian Pacific railway's passenger launch Nelson shortly after her arrival in the city yesterday necessitated the cancelling of her up lake journey yesterday afternoon. The officials of the British Columbia lake and river service of the company announced last evening that the service will be resumed this afternoon, leaving the city at 3 o'clock. Arrangements are being made by the company to provide a launch from one of the launch liveries in the city to take the place of the Nelson, for the break yesterday necessitated the wiring to Chicago for a new clutch for the launch. It is expected that this will take some four or five days to reach the city.

The round trip to Crawford Bay which is scheduled for today has been postponed until tomorrow by the company.

TROOPS TO REACH VALCARTIER TODAY

Preparations at Camp Have Broken All Records for Rapidity in Canada.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

QUEBEC, Aug. 20.—The arrival of Col. Williams, adjutant-general, to take over the mobilization, the connection of the water service with the main camp and the preparations for the arrival of between 4,000 and 5,000 troops tomorrow, were the chief events in the situation at Valcartier today.

All day long tomorrow the troop trains will pour their passengers into the little station in the cup of the Laurentian mountains. There is where an incessant stream of khaki clad men jostle each other as they come and go earnestly intent upon their business.

Motor cars, big transportation wagons and every kind of modern conveyance have changed the aspect of the country; the activity apparent everywhere is such as has never before been displayed at a military camp in Canada. The progress made so far unquestionably breaks all records.

TRAIL BUSINESS MAN DIES HERE

Horace M. Bailey, Branch Manager for McQuarrie & Robertson, Passes Suddenly—Service Tonight.

The death occurred in Nelson about noon yesterday of Horace M. Bailey, formerly a resident of the city but for the past two years manager of the Trail branch of the firm of McQuarrie & Robertson. Though Mr. Bailey had been ill for several weeks past and had taken up residence across the lake from the city, where he might be away from the cares of business, death came as a shock to his many friends both in Nelson and Trail. In the latter city Mr. Bailey was considered among the most popular of business men, was a member of the board of trade and friends state that he was the moving spirit in any movement which tended toward forwarding the best interests of the smelter city.

Son of Rev. John Bailey and Mrs. Bailey of Sheffield, England, he was born just over 31 years ago and in his early manhood came to Canada, settling in Regina, where he was located for some time. From Regina he came west to Seattle, Wash., and from Seattle he came to Nelson, where he was connected for some time with the firm of J. T. Andrew & Co., which conducted the Star grocery.

After severing his connection with the latter company he identified himself with the firm of McQuarrie & Robertson and its Nelson office, latterly being transferred to Trail to take charge of the office there.

Besides his parents Mr. Bailey leaves a widow.

The body will be taken to Trail this evening for burial under the auspices of the Knights of Pythias, of which Mr. Bailey was a member, having been prominently connected with Trail lodge. A service will be held at 6:45 o'clock at the undertaking parlors of the Standard Furniture company on Victoria street under the auspices of Nelson lodge, Knights of Pythias. Rev. Fred H. Graham of St. Saviour's church will conduct the services in Nelson and a party of members of Trail lodge, Knights of Pythias, will, it is expected, reach the city this morning to accompany the body to the smelter city. Interment will take place at the latter city tomorrow afternoon, when Rev. E. A. St. G. Smythe will conduct the services.

Canadian postoffices will not receive for transmission any mail matter for Germany, German colonies, Austria Hungary or Luxemburg whether by Canadian service, New York or any other route according to official notification which has reached J. A. Gibson, postmaster at Nelson.

VOLUNTEERS ENJOY RIFLE PRACTICE

Lord Aylmer Watches Work at Rifle Range—Squad Will Shoot This Afternoon.

About 40 of the men who have enlisted for service with the Kootenay corps of the first Canadian contingent paraded at the armory yesterday afternoon and proceeded to the rifle range for musketry practice. An excellent showing was made by the men, whose work was supervised by Capt. Alex Carrie and several of the members of the Legion of Frontiersmen Civilian Rifle association.

Lord Aylmer, who is in charge of the work of mobilization, attended at the range yesterday.

Today all men who have passed the doctor's examination and who were not present at the shoot yesterday and those members of yesterday's squad who did not come up to the required test as to marksmanship will again march to the range for musketry practice. They will parade at the armory at 1:30 o'clock.

Under supervision of the officers in charge of the recruiting the armory has been placed in ship shape for the volunteers and about 10 o'clock each evening, the hour for the order "Lights out," the building takes on a decidedly war time appearance. About 18 men are enjoying the privilege of bivouacking at the armory.
