SERVIANS APPEAL TO PETROGRAD FOR HELP

Country in Danger of Conquest, Envoy Says

GERMANS FORCE VANGUARD BACK

Critical Battle of Campaign Now Being Waged In Poland

(Central News Cable to The Daily News and Montreal Star.)

PETROGRAD, Nov. 18.—A plea for help from Russia is brought by M. Tzemovitch, special envoy from Servia, who has arrived here. He declares that Servia's army has been reduced from 300,000 to 100,000 during the three months' fighting against Austria and that Servia is in danger of conquest.

It is believed an effort will be made to lessen the pressure of the Austrian army on Servia, either by sending troops to Servia's relief or to Austria-Hungary on the north, to compel the withdrawal of troops from Servia to meet the invaders.

Advance Guards Fall Back.

The following official communication from general headquarters was issued tonight:

"Between the Vistula and the Warthe our advance guards in an engagement with the Germans who took the offensive, fell back in the direction of Ezoure. The enemy succeeded in gaining a footing in the region of Lentchitza (Lenozcyca) and on our left in throwing our advance guards in the direction of Pientek.

"In East Prussia our troops continue to make progress and fighting is going on near the Gumbinnen-Angerburg front which the enemy is defending.

"In the trenches which we captured near Varschlaghen the enemy abandoned more than 300 dead. Among the officers whom we took prisoner here was an artillery officer sent to the infantry because of a lack of officers in that branch.

Take Carpathian Passes.

"On the front along the Mazurian lakes our troops reached the wire entanglements of the enemy's position and forced them.

"On the front between Czenstochow and Cracow we have attacked important forces of the enemy, detachments of which operating at Lodovitze were routed.

"In Galicia we have occupied successively the passes over the Carpathians."

Polish Struggle Most Important.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, Nov. 18.—In the east the Germans and Austrians have turned after their retreat from the Vistula to face the Russians in East Prussia, in Poland and before Cracow. Each of these regions will probably provide a big battle, but the most important will be that in Poland, where the Germans are sending their strongest and best armies in the hope of smashing the Russian centre.

This would compel the Russians to fall back again to the Vistula and relieve Silesia from the immediate danger of an invasion.

Of the fighting in the Balkans and the Near East only scraps of information are reaching the outside world.

Battle Now Raging Critical

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, Nov. 19, 2:05 a.m.—A Petrograd despatch to the Daily Telegraph says:

"The battle now being fought in the northwest corner of Poland may be regarded as possibly the most critical yet fought in the Russian campaign and although little information is obtainable it looks as though the victorious Russian advance has suffered a check, as it is evident that the German counter-attack has compelled the Russians to concentrate a considerable distance to the rear of the line reached by their right flank.

"One of the ablest critics, in the Army Messenger, admits that a new phase of the war has opened which is likely to have a decisive influence on the whole campaign."

Kaiser Stakes His All

The Post's Petrograd correspondent says:

"Emperor William is staking his all on the great battle in Poland. He has brought his finest troops from France, borrowed the best cavalry, namely, the Hungarian horse, depleted his garrisons by moving their guns wherever possible, and now strikes for victory or death. Having based all his hopes on crushing France he is now similarly turning on Russia and this battle must decide the fate of Germany's whole adventure."

From Petrograd, by way of Paris, comes the statement that a "terrible battle of unexampled violence has been proceeding for four days around Soldau, the Russians endeavoring to avenge their former reverses at this place, throwing themselves upon the Germans with indescribable fury and carrying position after position by assault, despite the infernal fire of the Germans."

Capture Russians

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, Nov. 19, 1:41 a.m.—An official statement issued at Vienna and transmitted to Reuter's via Amsterdam says:

"In the southeastern war theatre several battles have resulted in the destruction of the Koluban passages but our forces had already crossed to the opposite banks. A telegram dated Monday says that 1,400 prisoners and much war material were taken.

"The operations of the allied troops in Russian Poland have forced the Russian main forces to battle, which has developed along the line under favorable conditions. One of our divisions captured 3,000 prisoners.

"The advance of the Russians against the Carpathians is of secondary importance. Near Grybow a strong Russian cavalry force was dispersed by our artillery."

Important Change Likely.

LONDON, Nov. 18, 4 p.m.—The situation in East Prussia today presented apparently the greatest opportunities for a quick and important change, although Russian and German statements were still in sharp conflict. The German war office announced officially that the operations against the Russians were proceeding favorably. The Russians, it was said, have been compelled to fall back from Wloclawek and Lipno. The latest statement from Petrograd, however, asserted that the Germans were retiring along the whole East Prussian front.

It was also indicated in a despatch from Petrograd that an important Russian force had penetrated to the

(Special Cable to The Daily News and Montreal Star.)

ROME, Nov. 18.—The Japanese ambassador left Constantinople last night.

His leaving is undoubtedly on instructions from Tokio rather than as the result of representations from the porte, and may be indicative of an intention on the part of Japan to extend her activities against the enemies of the European powers with which she has allied herself.

Australia Gets Islands

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, Nov. 19, 2:30 a.m.—A despatch to the Post from Sydney, N. S. W., says Japan has notified Great Britain of her readiness to hand over the Marshall islands and other German islands in the Pacific now occupied by the Japanese to Australia, which will send forces to occupy them until the war is ended, when their ultimate disposition will be decided.

Makes Statement in House

(Western Associated Press Special Cable.)

MELBOURNE, Nov. 19.—Japan is quite willing to hand over to Australia the islands formerly belonging to Germany in the northwest Pacific ocean and which are now occupied by the Japanese forces.

This announcement was made by the minister of defense in parliament in a statement.

The minister said that according to this assurance, Australia had appointed Col. S. A. Pethelbridge as Australian commissioner for the northwest Pacific islands for the duration of the war.

Find He Is German

The commission of Capt. Edwards, the supposed German spy who was arrested as a suspect here this week, has been canceled by the government. Remarkable disclosures have been made as the result of the investigation. It now appears that Capt. Edwards is really a German of name of Eichengrun and that he had written private letters to friends in which he expressed the opinion that he wished Germany had 15 or 18 Emdens operating against the British steamers.

Senator Pearce, the minister of defense, added that yacca gum, one of the ingredients of picric acid, extensively used by the Germans in the war, had been exported in great quantities to Germany. He would investigate this and have the export stopped if necessary.

TURKISH PLOT AGAINST TEUTONS

Assassination of Commander of Army Planned--Arabs in Revolt

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—A special cable to the Tribune from Petrograd, via London, says:

"Three Turkish destroyers have appeared before Sulita and are reported actually to have entered the Sulita arm of the Danube delta, with the object of getting into communication with representatives of Austria and Germany, or possibly merely as a protest against the governance of the Danube delta. The Sulina arm of the delta with other mouths of the Danube, is under the public law of Europe, protected by a series of treaties from 1841 down to that of London in 1883.

"Rumania, as a result if this action has the question put broadside on as to whether she takes sides with Germany and her ally, Turkey, or whether she maintains her own rights and supports the right of the public law of Europe. In the latter case these Turkish warships, attempting to utilize the protected waterway running through Rumanian territory as a base for war-like activity against Russia, will be disarmed and interned. Rumania's action in this matter is being closely watched."

Turks Plot Against Germans.

LONDON, Nov. 18.—The incipient plot of Turkey against the Young Turks and the German domination of the army and navy has reached such a state that Dr. Hans von Miquel, the German ambassador at Constantinople is in constant fear of his life, according to a Rome despatch to the Standard. The ambassador, who formerly was stationed at Petrograd, constantly receives threatening letters.

A conspiracy, says the despatch has been discovered for the assassination of Gen. Lyman von Sanders, the German officer who reorganized the Turkish army and is now practically its commander and a number of high German officers. Resentment against Turkey's entrance into the war, which was laid to German designs, grows

Prince Burn Edde, third son of Abdul Hamid, it is declared has been implicated in the plot. He is known to resent keenly being subordinate to German officers. He is a lieutenant in the navy.

Timber firms in the province are now figuring on this preparative business.

ALLIES SMASH HOLE IN PRUSSIAN FRONT, TAKING STRONG POSITIONS

WARNED BELGIUM OF COMING ATTACK

Minister of War Spoke of German Plans at Secret Meeting of Deputies Last Year.

(Central News Cable to The Daily News and Montreal Star.)

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 18.—The Vlas Dias agency has been authorized to publish a speech of Baron Charles de Broqueville, Belgian premier and minister of war, made during a secret session of the Belgian chamber of deputies in 1913, when the military bill came up for consideration in parliament.

The war minister is said to have convened the secret session to communicate information not intended for publication at that moment. In his speech the baron said:

"I do not desire to influence anyone in this matter and everyone is free to vote as he pleases. The bill owes its origin to the German bill introduced in 1912, representing the greatest exertion of German in a military way since 1870. Germany will have in her first line troops 200,000 more men than France. We learned last summer that the object of this increase was to enable the German army to break through Belgium. This is learned from various powers."

The minister then read reports on the strategic railways which made it possible for Germany to send 50,000 men into Belgium in less than 24 hours after a three hours' march. Baron de Broqueville then poceeded:

"We shall have to be on our guard against Germany. Regarding France let me remind you that Maubeuge has not maintained, but that Lille has maintained new fortresses, constructed on the southern frontier and that France has increased the number of cavalry and infantry regiments.

"I do not fear the violation of our independence by France, but I assert that the French general staff has had to study out the hypothesis of a march through Belgium. Various powers, indeed, have expressed the opinion that were we unable to discharge the duty of self-defense there would be the greatest danger of foreign powers establishing themselves in our territory in order to 'protect' us.

"During last July a friend of Belgium, the chief of a certain state, declared in writing to the king: 'I give to Belgium the advice of a friend when I urge her to devote herself seriously to the problem of her own defense, for the miracle which happened in 1870 when Belgium remained unharmed between two hostile armies will not be repeated."

The Vlas Diaz agency is informed that the chief of a state not mentioned by name by Baron de Broqueville was the late King Charles of Rumania.

Reports that he possessed $1,000 in cash when he disappeared are declared untrue.

PELLETIER GOES TO QUEBEC BENCH

Former Postmaster-General Becomes Superior Court Judge—Health Is Improved.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

OTTAWA, Nov. 18.—The appointment of Hon. L. P. Pelletier, former postmaster-general, to the vacancy on the superior court bench of Quebec caused by the resignation of Judge D. E. Loremiere is taken to mean that the health of the former minister is so much improved that he does not desire to go permanently on the shelf.

Before Mr. Pelletier retired from the government he was advised by his physician that if he persisted in carrying on his shoulders the load of work and worry which falls to the lot of ministers of the crown he would likely break down completely. It is said that a month's rest has so improved the condition of the ex-minister that he feels well enough to attempt to undertake the less trying work of a judge. Mr. Pelletier has been for many years a leading member of the Quebec bar.

TORONTO ARMS AGAINST INVASION

TORONTO, Nov. 18—The city will purchase arms and ammunition in order that the home guard may be properly equipped against any possible filibustering raids from the other side of the border. The first order for rifles was placed today.

No Danger, Says Hughes.

OTTAWA, Nov. 18.—"A few people in Toronto, few indeed, are panicky without need," Major Gen. Hughes, referring to the action taken by the mayor of that city in ordering Winchester rifles to equip the home guard.

What's the use in getting excited? There is no more danger in Toronto than there is in the central parts of the United States."

Franco-British Soldiers Drive Enemy from Defenses of Great Strength from which Raids Against Canals Were Being Made in Effort to Check Flooding

ATTACKS BY FOE IN FORCE WHICH FOLLOW CANNONADING ARE EVERYWHERE REPULSED

Fresh Troops Pushed Forward to Drive British from Ypres Meet with Same Fate as Prussian Guard--Kaiser's Troops Suffer Terrible Losses--Zouaves Dislodge Enemy by Dashing Charge

(Special Cable to The Daily News and Montreal Star.)

PARIS, Nov. 18.—French and British troops today smashed the kaiser's battle front near Arras, capturing positions of great strength from which the Germans had been launching raids against the canal routes to the French sea coast. All the highways and canals to the north of the Armentieres-Arras region are now held by the allies.

The Germans today sent heavy reinforcements to the Dixmude region, where they are battling desperately to drive the French and British from the canal dykes. The kaiser's troops are endeavoring to gain a foothold on the Belgian canals to check the continued flooding of the battleground, which has made their capture of Dixmude merely a barren victory.

Allies Retain Positions.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, Nov. 18.—The latest official communications regarding the operations on the western battlefields are much the same as those of preceding days. There has been fighting all along the front but without any important change in the situation. From the east of Flanders to the river Lys on the Franco-Belgian border, much of which has been flooded by the allies to hinder the German attacks, there has been a repetition on a smaller scale of the bombardment which the invaders invariably resort to in the hope of breaking down the allies' resistance before infantry attacks, and in isolated spots there have been attacks in force but, according to the French and British reports, all these have been repulsed.

The Anglo-French forces which have been holding the territory around Ypres have again been subjected to determined attacks, fresh German troops having attempted what the Prussian guards a few days previously had failed to do—force the allies out of their trenches. As was the case with the Prussian guard, the Germans who made the latest effort appear again to have taken the first line of trenches but, like the guards, found themselves attacked on the flanks and were compelled to give back the ground gained after holding it for a short time.

Teutons, Enfiladed, Lose Enormously.

Both sides, as shown by the casualty lists of the officers, are losing heavily in the fighting, but the Germans, being on the offensive and being so often enfiladed after success was so nearly in their hands, are said to have suffered enormously.

The French Zouaves, who have frequently distinguished themselves by dashing charges, have again been utilized to dislodge the Germans from a position near Bixschoote over which there has been much fighting and, according to the French communication, have against been successful.

These incidents are just a sample of what has been occurring in northern France along the Aisne valley, in the Argonne forest and on the banks of the river Meuse. First the one and then the other gained an advantage, but when all is told the general situation remains about as it was.

Reports come from France that the Germans are preparing to make another attempt to get through to the coast by way of La Bassee, but there is no confirmation of it.

Cannonade Is Violent.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

PARIS, Nov. 18, 10:38 p.m.—The following official communication was issued tonight:

"The day has been marked by a violent and almost uninterrupted cannonade on our front in the north.

"In the region of St. Mihiel the Germans have blown up the west part of Chauvincourt, which they had mined.

"There is nothing to report from the other parts of the front."

Warships Do Much Damage.

In Belgium the Germans have begun another fearful onslaught in a region which is becoming more and more restricted, this afternoon's statement indicated.

The allies have succeeded in flooding a further area so that heavy infantry fighting is almost impossible from the seacoast nearly to Ypres.

A new bombardment of Belgian coast towns by British warships is said to have inflicted heavy damage on the German positions and to have destroyed large quantities of ammunition and stores.

The French government, according to unofficial advices, intends to carry out the plan announced some time ago for its early return to Paris. It is reported today that the legislative and administrative staffs of the chamber of deputies will return to Paris tomorrow.

BARON CONGLETON IS AMONG KILLED

Another Member of British Aristocracy on Casualty List—Gen Shaw. Wounded.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, Nov. 18, 9:25 p.m.—According to casualty lists dated Nov. 11, 12 and 13, 25 officers have been killed and 50 wounded. Fourteen officers are reported missing. Among the killed is Henry Bligh Fortescue Parnell, fifth Baron Congleton, a lieutenant in the Grenadier guards. In the list of wounded is the name of Brig.-Gen. Frederick C. Shaw of the 9th infantry brigade.

Baron Congleton was born in 1890, was the eldest son of the Fourth Baron Congleton and Elizabeth Peter, daughter of Dugald Dove, Nutshill, Renfrew, N.B. He was educated in Eton and New College, Oxford, receiving his B. A. degree in 1912. He succeeded his father in 1906.

TELLS HOW SALE OF VODKA WAS STOPPED IN RUSSIA

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

PETROGRAD, Nov. 18.—There is prohibition in Russia today, prohibition which means that not a drop of vodka, whisky, brandy, gin or any other strong liquor is obtainable from one end to the other of a territory populated by 150,000,000 people and covering one-sixth of the habitable globe.

The story of how strong drink has been utterly banished from the Russian empire was related to the Associated Press by Michael Demitrovich Chelleshеff, the man directly responsible for putting an end to Russia's great vice, the vodka habit.

It should be said in the beginning that the word prohibition in Russia must be taken literally. Its use does not imply a partially successful attempt to curtail the consumption of liquor resulting in drinking in secret, the abuse of medical licenses and general evasion and subterfuge. It does mean that a vast population, which consumed $1,000,000,000 worth of vodka a year, whose ordinary condition has been described by Russians themselves as ranging from a slight degree of stimulation upward, has been lifted almost in one day from a drunken inertia to sobriety. The nation has been compelled, virtually overnight, to abandon its enormous daily consumption of vodka, liquor that is almost pure alcohol, and become abstemious to the extent of letting no liquor pass its lips.

On the day when the mobilization of the Russian army began special policemen visited every public place where vodka is sold, locked up the supply of liquor, and placed on the shop the imperial seal. Since the manufacture and sale of vodka is a government monopoly in Russia it is not difficult to enforce prohibition.

WASHINGTON ASKS TURKS TO EXPLAIN HOSTILE ACT

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—The United States government has instructed Ambassador Morgenthau at Constantinople to ask the Ottoman government for an explanation of the firing by Turkish land forces at a launch from the American cruiser Tennessee, proceeding to the American consulate at Smyrna, Asia Minor.

Secretary Daniels, with the approval of President Wilson, simultaneously cabled the commanders of the Tennessee and the North Carolina, also in the Mediterranean, to take no action which might embarrass the American government and to await specific instructions from Washington concerning the general situation.

These steps followed the receipt of a message from Capt. Benton C. Decker, commander of the Tennessee, which was pharaphrased in this statement from the navy department:

"Capt. B. C. Decker, in command of the Tennessee, wired Secretary Daniels this morning that while proceeding from Vourlah to Smyrna to make official calls, boat was fired upon. Consul anxious for safety of consulate. Tennessee proceeded to and left Vourlah, at request of ambassador and is now anchored in the harbor of Scio (Chios) Greece, from which Capt. Decker's telegram was sent.

"Secretary Daniels wired for fuller information."

Although without definite details as to just what occurred, high officials of the Washington government had no doubt that the incident, no matter where the responsibility lay, would be promptly adjusted through diplomatic channels. President Wilson is determined that under no circumstances shall the United States be involved in war with Turkey. If the Turkish officers acted without authority of the Ottoman government and the firing was not justified by naval procedure in a closed port, it is confidently be-

SOME CANADIANS WILL COME HOME

Names of Few Who Are Rejected for Offenses at Salisbury Will Not Be Published.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

OTTAWA, Nov. 18.—The names of the members of the Canadian contingent who are to be returned from Salisbury Plains will never be known, save to those to whom they return at their homes in Canada. The department of militia believes that to those who have been struck from the strength for insubordination, excessive drinking, disorderly conduct, etc., the punishment of being banished from their fellows in the ranks is sufficient without their reatives being given unnecessary pain in Canada by the publication of names.

The return of a certain number of misfits from the Canadian contingent is not taken by the department as being any serious reflection upon the force as a whole. It is recognized that there must be black sheep in every flock and when it is considered that a large proportion of the men who went from Canada had never been accustomed to discipline of any kind, the proportion of rejects is small.

"You may say for me," said Gen. Hughes today, "that no man who allows himself to be carried away by intemperant habits can hope for preferment or promotion of any kind in the Canadian overseas contingents. If a man drinks to excess in the force he is capable of any kind of insubordination or worse. He is not a desirable man in the ranks and he certainly is not the kind of a man to be entrusted with a commission. Every recruit who enters the ranks of the Canadians for overseas service has the same opportunity for promotion as exists in the British army. It rests with himself."

While a strenuous weeding out process was instituted at Valcartier in the dying days of the big camp and many a man was sent back to his home for various reasons, it is recognized that the short time at the disposal of the authorities and the haste with which the troops in their entirety were despatced militated against a thorough weeding process. It is therefore not considered to be surprising that there should be further weeding out at Salisbury Plains.

A private letter received by an Ottawa resident from a member of the force at Salisbury contains a report that two members of the contingent were sentenced to five years' imprisonment for a serious offense. The names are not given nor the place from which they came.

They were embarked on a Donaldson liner for Canada.

TRAINING LASTS THIRTEEN WEEKS

Canadians Have Completed About Half of Course at Salisbury—Patricias Still in England

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

MONTREAL, Nov. 18.—The Princess Patricia Canadian Light infantry regiment has not yet left England, according to a Salisbury camp correspondent's despatch to the Star. He says, however, that all arrangements for departure are complete and it will leave for the continent after a few days' training with British brigades.

The correspondent also says the training course at Salisbury for the rest of the contingent gives them six or seven weeks more work there. The despatch continues:

"The regiment has not yet left England but all preparations for departure are under way.

"The men will be brigaded with their regiments at Winchester and after some days of brigade training will leave for the continent.

"The training course for the entire force is now known and gives 13 weeks' steady work. It is estimated six or seven weeks are now concluded. All battalions train steadily under a definite program each day."

HUNDRED MILLION ANNUAL WAR BILL

Cost to Canada Estimated—Finance Minister to Arrange for All the Money Required.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

OTTAWA, Nov. 18.—From the statement made some time ago by the minister of finance here and the announcement made by Premier Asquith in the commons, it is believed here the financing of Canada's war expenditure will be accomplished without undue strain. The minister of finance said that the Bank of England would make advances as required for military and naval expenditure. The British prime minister announces that an amount will be included in the imperial war loan to cover such expenditure. It is clear that the money raised by the imperial government for Canada will be used to liquidate the indebtedness to the Bank of England and that the imperial government will become the creditor of the Canadian government.

Later, as stated by the finance minister, a Canadian loan will be made in London at a time to be agreed upon by the minister and chancellor of the exchequer and from the proceeds the imperial government will be paid. No doubt the arrangement will continue throughout the war.

It is known that from the outset the minister of finance has taken the position that Canada's first business is war until the war is ended and that no matter what other interests suffer money must and will be provided for Canada's military and naval expenditures to the utmost limit required for equipping and sending to the front every available man who may volunteer for service.

An appropriation of $50,000,000 was voted last August for the balance of the financial year. The minister has already arranged for funds in excess of this amount. It looks as though Canada's war expenditure would reach or exceed $100,000,000 per annum. The minister expects to be able to provide this and whatever more is necessary.

Washington Avoids Trouble.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—Secretary Daniels late today cabled the commanders of the cruisers Tennessee and North Carolina to act only on instructions from Washington and to take no steps which might be calculated to embarrass the United States government.

The Tennessee, whose commander was reported last night to have threatened to enter the port of Smyrna by force after a launch from the warship had been fired upon by the Turks, has been sent from the scene on the orders of the American ambassador.

He arrived at the island of Chios, a Greek possession in the Aegean sea. Capt. Decker, the ship's commander, reported to the navy department at Washington on his arrival at Chios that the launch had been fired on while proceeding from Vourlah to Smyrna to make an official call.

VIOLATE PUBLIC LAW OF EUROPE

Churkri Pasha, who defended Adrianople against the allied Balkan state. He is seconded by Field Marshal Fausd Pasha.

The rancor felt by these high military men extends all down the line of Turkish officers whom Germans have superceded.

Officers Make Protest.

A large number of army and navy officers went in a body to the war office and complained that the German had taken all authority out of their hands. They pointed out that ever the German non-commissioned officer in the Turkish army refused to recognize their right to give the men orders. This deputation told the war office in emphatic terms that it would resign in a body unless the Germans were put in their proper place.

An influential committee of Turkish military authorities has been formed to endeavor to counteract the present policy of the Young Turk government and to rid the country of German domination.

Djavid Pasha, vice-president of the chamber of deputies, and former editor of Tanina, is taking part in this movement and exerting his influence, as he puts it, to prevent Turkey from committing suicide.

The Italian government is uneasy at the unrest displayed through Lydia and the Bellicose attitude of the Arabs. Preparations are proceeding apace for energetic intervention if necessary.

Turkish Port Shelled.

PETROGRAD, Nov. 18.—A Russian official statement says:

"On Nov. 17 the Russian Black sea fleet, which had been cruising off Trebizond, steamed close to the town and bombarded the barracks, radio station and harbor and set fire to buildings along the coast.

"No Turkish ships were sighted off the coast."

Musselman Rebels Beat Turks.

(Central News Cable to The Daily News and Montreal Star.)

ROME, Nov. 18.—A despatch from Petrograd states that the Arabian Mussulman leader Abdul Kazor Bederkani rebelled and dispersed the Turks in the region of Maku.

The Kurdish chief Simko sustained an engagement against the Turks on the Persian front several days and ultimately with the assistance of the Russians dispersed the enemy, the despatch adds.

HYDRO MAY OPERATE DEFUNCT RAILWAY LINE

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

TORONTO, Nov. 18.—The Ontario hydroelectric commission is now engaged in making a survey of the route of the defunct Ontario-West Shore railway. The engineers went out yesterday to appraise the line and make an estimate of the material on hand. It is said they will report on the eligibility of the route with a view to incorporation in the provincial radial system.

The line runs from Huron to Goderich and some of the grading was completed before the failure occurred.

TRY THIS IF YOU HAVE DANDRUFF

Or Are Bothered With Falling Hair or Itching Scalp.

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly and your hair will be fluffy lustrous, glossy, silky and soft and look and feel a hundred times better.

If you want to keep your hair looking rich, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for nothing destroys the hair so quickly. It not only starves the hair and makes it fall out, but it makes it stringy, straggly, dull, dry, brittle and lifeless and everybody notices it. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.

Picture post cards containing congratulations and best wishes were in the majority, but the king's mail contained poems, drawings, paintings and even original musical compositions. Children were heavy contributors, as also were wounded soldiers in the hospitals. All ranks from the nobility to the peasantry were represented.

LUMBER BUSINESS IMPROVES.

Th campaign which is being conducted by the forestry department of British Columbia and the Dominion department of trade and commerce to open up new markets for the lumber of this province and to extend those now existing is bringing results.

A revival of activity in lumber conditions on the coast has been recorded during recent weeks and H. R. Macmillan, chief forester, yesterday stated at Victoria that bids were now being asked for eight million ties for the railroads of the United Kingdom, while Hankow, China, is in the market for a large amount of lumber for use in the rebuilding of that city which was almost destroyed by fire recently.

Railway ties are a product which the forests of the mountain district of British Columbia are exceptionally well able to supply and it is to be hoped that the quotations given by lumbermen of the district will result in a substantial portion of this business coming to the interior of the province.

In any event the revival of lumber ctivity at the coast augurs well for n improvement in the market condi- governing the operations of mills ootenay and Boundary.

SERVIA APPEALS TO CZAR.

The Herculean battles in France nd Belgium, in Russia, Galicia and ast Prussia have by their magnitude, nd because it is in those regions that the military supremacy of the great powers involved is at issue, detracted attention from the gallant efforts of the Servians to stem the Austrian invasion of their country.

During the few days of uncertainty which preceded the outbreak of war Servia appeared to be one of the chief actors in the drama of European politics, but later events have proved that the little Balkan state was merely a "super" and that the Prussian determination to bring about war governed the plot. Since that time Servia has been reported as having achieved successes of some importance against the Austrians, as having sustained some reverses and recently it has been said that the Austrians were advancing well beyond the Drina and the Save rivers, along which the Serbs had been clinging to positions.

Now comes the announcement from Petrograd that Servia is calling upon Russia for assistance, an envoy from Nish stating that the nation is face to face with the menace of Austrian occupation and conquest.

That the Servian army of 300,000 men should have been able to check an Austrian force generally believed to total 500,000 soldiers for three months appears, under the circumstances, to have been a creditable performance.

Austria commenced the attack only 16 months after the signing of the peace articles which brought the first Balkan war to an end on March 31, 1913, and less than 14 months after the close of the second Balkan struggle. The cost in men and money of these two struggles was heavy and although the Serbs had the advantage of being able to place in the field last August an army which included many officers and soldiers trained by practise in the art of war it is probable that this army had a counter-balancing weakness in the raw recruits who had been called out to fill in the places of those killed in the wars which had ended a few months before. The nation was also handicapped by the financial weakness of the too short period of recovery since the middle of 1913. Money was loaned by Great Britain, but this assistance was, of course, chiefly valuable for the maintenance of the forces in the field; it of necessity came too late to aid in constructing a strong foundation for a military machine.

Under these conditions the Serbs, who place their losses at 200,000 men —which leaves but 100,000 at the front—now are asking that Russia take action to relieve the pressure of the advancing Austrians.

Subject to the exigencies of the military situation the czar's general staff is not likely to fail Servia in its hour of need. The reported activity of the Russian forces in southeast Galicia may mean that the cry for help has already been heeded and that the plan is to attempt to force a way through eastern Austria and take the army operating against Servia in the rear.

THE HARD HITTING MONITOR.

The British monitors which are causing such heavy damage to the German forces along the Belgian coasts with the 100-pound shells from their guns and the 35-pound projectiles from their howitzers may be compared to miniature battleships. The Humber, Severn and Mersey, the three new monitors which have been employed in the bombardment, are heavily-gunned and well-armored, speed having been sacrificed to these ends.

Each carries two 6-inch guns, two 4.7-inch howitzers, four 3-pounder guns which can fire 80 rounds per minute, and six machine guns.

Like a battleship, each has a conning tower thickly armored for protection against shells and its armored belt will stand a lot of pounding. Being of slow speed the monitor does not require much engine room space and the displacement can be kept down, while the light draught enables the hard-hitting war vessels to maneuver in shallow water in which other vessels of equal armament would run aground. The monitors for this reason have been able to run close to the coast and up rivers during the battle in Belgium.

The latest British destroyers, of about 1,000 tons, though having no armor and carrying but three 4-inch guns, throwing a shell of 31 pounds, draw 9½ feet of water. These monitors with a full load have a depth of 8½ feet and their mean draught is 4½ feet only; and yet they have a displacement of 1,250 tons and are provided with a belt of 2½ inches of armor. The speed of the monitors is 11½ knots an hour.

The resumption of shipments of lead from Trail to the Orient is good business for Kootenay and Boundary.

A box of Kootenay-Boundary apples will make an acceptable Christmas present for a friend living in a less favored district.

Carranza has removed his seat of government from Mexico City to Orizaba. He has evidently tak en a hint from France and Belgium.

Japan by handing over the control of captured German islands in the Pacific to Australia gives convincing proof of the sincerity of its promise to occupy the islands for military purposes only.

The kaiser is said to have decided to make a supreme effort to smash the Russian army in the battle which has just commenced in Poland. These "supreme efforts" are happening quite frequently these days.

The disregard of the public law of Europe by the Turkish destroyers which are reported to have steamed up the Sulina arm of the Danubian delta enables the sultan to claim real comradeship with the kaiser.

The Turks having failed to bring about uprisings of Moslems in British possessions have apparently decided to have a little revolt all of their own against the German militarists who have taken charge of their army, navy and civil government.

The speech of Baron Broqueville, premier of Belgium, to the chamber of deputies of that country in 1913 at a secret meeting of which the public is now informed is another proof of the deliberate and carefully planned manner in which the Prussians violated Belgian neutrality.

The Literary Digest, the pro-German New York publication which pretends to give an unbiased review of current opinion, makes another bid for increased circulation in Canada by prefacing an article on the naval battle off Chile with the sapient observation that it is "the most serious blow to British naval prestige and the most impressive demonstration of German naval prowess to date." Count von Bernstorff could hardly do better than that.

The retirement of the supervisory committee appointed to control the sale of unlisted stocks and bonds in New York during the period of disturbance caused by the outbreak of the war, a further increase in the price of copper, larger purchases of pig iron and manufactures of steel and iron, a higher average daily production of the steel mills and the purchase by railroads of new equipment are indications of activity in yesterday's financial despatch from New York which make cheering news for those who are watching the rapid improvement in conditions on this continent.

WHAT THE PRESS IS SAYING ..

Strategy Broken Down.

German strategy had broken down almost before a short was fired, because the calculations upon which it was based proved entirely wrong. The issue of the war was decided at the moment it began, and no isolated events can now affect its irresistible conclusion.—London Times.

When Peace Comes.

When the day for peace proposals does come we may be sure that German arrogance will be conspicuous, and it is equally certain that no agreement will be concluded which does not provide for the guaranteed removal of the menace which has so long troubled Europe and the world.—British Empire Review.

What Germany Has to Face.

Her (Germany) victories have not carried with them the quality of decision and definiteness. British money is abundant and Russian troops are plenty. France may meet the fate of Belgium, but an invasion of England is hardly possible while the British fleet exists, and a winter expedition into Russia would only be engineered from Bloomingdale (an asylum).—Brooklyn Times.

Tightens Bonds of Empire.

So far as Britain is concerned, the bringing of Indian troops to the battle line in France has benefits and advantages far outweighing the mere military value of the troops, high though that may be. The participation of the splendid native troops gives the Indians a consciousness of a real place in the Empire.—Revelstoke Mail-Herald.

Owens—It's against my principle to pay interest on my bills.

Tailor—Well, pay the principal then.

Owens—No; it's against my interest to pay the principal.

The visiting lady had kept her hostess at the open door fully half an hour saying good-bye. Finally an irate masculine voice indoors called out:

"Sar, Maria, if you're going out go; if you're staying, stay; but for heaven's sake, don't ooze out.

A suffragette meeting was in progress.

Among the speakers of the evening was a tall, thin young woman utterly unattractive in every respect. During the course of her remarks she questioned:

"Do I make myself plain?"

"Somebody has, if you haven't," came a male voice from the extreme rear of the hall.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

ASCOT, England, Nov. 18, via London, 7:10 p.m.—Covered with the Union Jack and with his khaki hat and sword upon it, the coffin containing the body of Field Marshal Lord Roberts of Kandahar now lies in the small room in his modest residence here, in which the great soldier was wont to conduct family prayers and in which there is a small altar and a crucifix.

The coffin arrived from Folkestone this afternoon. The ceremony was of a most simple description. The coffin was borne by employees of the field marshal to his house, where a brief service, attended by Lady Roberts and her daughters and a few privileged friends, was conducted by the rector of Ascot.

MANY BOXERS HAVE ENLISTED FOR WAR

Boxing Editor Mentions Some of the Pugilistic Lights Who Are Serving With Colors.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, Nov. 18.—Somebody's complaint about the lack of patriotism among the pugilists has brought out a spirited letter from a boxing editor who says that were he to give a list of all the professional boxers who have joined the colors since the declaration of war he would have to fill several newspaper columns. He gives a few names of men who have exchanged the 24-foot ring for a less circumscribed arena. They were worth recording: Dick Smith, lightweight champion; Bandsman Rice, challenger for that title; Bandsman Blake, who may be said to have a really sound chance of annexing the middleweight belt; Pat O'Keefe, the actual holder; Tom McCormick and Johnny Basham, both of whom have been promised chances of contesting for the welterweight title; Petty Officer Carron, the leading heavyweight; Seaman Hayes, the famous featherweight, with a host of engagements; Symonds of Plymouth, a practical certainty for lightweight honors.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

Al Adamson, a crack Winnipeg player, will cover coverpoint, and Jack Aldous, another western star, will take care of rover.

Peter Campbell, another 'Varsity man, will play centre, and for right and left wings, respectively, are found Scotty Davidson, who helped bring the Stanley cup to Toronto last year, and Harmon Baker, Winnipeg Victorias. They hope for several games in London rinks.

BRESNAHAN WILL LEAD CHICAGO CUBS

Catcher Becomes Manager—Weegham Declares Federals Will Continue to Wage Football War.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—Developments affecting the Chicago National league club—and through it the state of baseball war existing between the Federal league and the parties to the National agreement—came fast today. First was the revelation that Charles Murphy, despite his having been "ousted" last winter, still has a large influence among those directing the club's affairs; then came Charles P. Taft's declaration of a break in Charles Weeghman's negotiations for the purchase of the Taft interests, and third was the first definite announcement that Roger Bresnahan would be manager of the Cubs in 1915.

Murphy's influence became apparent in the success of his fight to keep the Cubs on their west side playing ground, of which he is half owner, with Taft holding the other half.

On returning from Cincinnati Murphy declared there was no chance of Weeghman's buying into the club and it was confirmed soon after by Taft that negotiations had ended. Finally Murphy stated positively that Bresnahan would succeed Hank O'Day as west side pilot. Partial confirmation of this came later when President Thomas was requested by Taft over the long distant phone to bring Bresnahan to Cincinnati, there to attend a special meeting tomorrow of the Cub directors and discuss with the catcher terms under which he would take over the management. The news of these developments brought from Charles Weeghman a declaration that war would continue, with the Federals in a better position than ever to wage it.

INSPECTS PROPOSED SITE FOR FEDERAL PARK

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Nov. 18.—After inspecting the proposed site for a federal league baseball park in Cleveland President James A. Gilmore of the league stated late this afternoon that no decision would be announced until the regular meeting of the league in December. The local men interested the proposition, however, were assured a definite answer at that time.

President Gilmore confirmed the report from Chicago that war between organized baseball and the Federal league "would be waged to the bitter end."

COVER GROUND RAPIDLY IN SIX DAY CYCLE RACE

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—Sprints for money prizes caused the miles to be reeled off rapidly in the 6-day bicycle race tonight and records kept falling while trailers in the race were being repeatedly lapped.

At 11 o'clock the 10 leaders had made 1449 miles and 6 laps, having drawn still further away from the remaining five teams in the furious sprinting.

Thomas and Hanley were the most fortunate of the trailers, losing only one lap, putting them two laps behind the leaders. Millen and Anderson and the Bedell brothers were lapped twice and were three laps to the rear. Piercey and Dupuy and Kopsky and Hansen were losers of three laps and were well toward a mile back of the leading ten.

SALE OF VODKA STOPPED IN RUSSIA

Drunkenness Vanishes.

From the day this step was taken drunkenness vanished in Russia. The results are seen at once in the peasantry; already they are beginning to look like a different race. The marks of suffering, the pinched looks of illness and improper nourishment have gone from their faces. There has been also a remarkable change in the appearance of their clothes. Their clothes are cleaner and both the men and women appear more neatly and better dressed. The destitute character of the home of the poor has been replaced with something like order and thrift.

In Petrograd and Moscow the effect of these improved conditions is fairly startling. On holidays in these cities inebriates always filled the police stations and often they lay about on the sidewalks and even in the streets. Things are so different today that unattended women may now pass at night through portions of these cities where it was formerly dangerous even for men.

This miracle has been virtually accomplished by one man. He is Michael D. Tchelisheff, a peasant by birth, originally a house painter by profession, then mayor of the city of Samara, and now a millionaire. Physically he is a giant, standing over 6 ft. 4 in. and of powerful build. Although he is 55 years of age he looks much younger. His movements display the energy of youth, his eyes are animated and his black hair is not tinged by gray.

In Petrograd M. Tchelisheff is generally found in a luxurious suite of rooms in one of the best hotels. He goes about clad in a blue blouse with a tasseled girdle and baggy black breeches tucked into heavy boots. He offers his visitors tea from a samovar and fruit from the Crimea. Speaking of what he had accomplished for the cause of sobriety in Russia he said:

"I was reared in a small Russian village. There were no schools or hospitals or any of the improvements we are accustomed to in civilized communities. I picked up an education from old newspapers and stray books. One day I chanced upon a book in the hands of a moujik which treated of the harmfulness of alcohol. It stated among other things that vodka was a poison. I was so impressed with this, knowing that everybody drank vodka, that I asked the first physician I met if the statement were true. He assured me it was. Men drank it, he explained, because momentarily it gave them a sensation of pleasant dizziness. From that time I decided to take every opportunity to discover more about the use of vodka.

"At the end of the '80s there came famine in Russia, followed by agrarian troubles. I saw a crowd of peasants demand from a local landlord all the grain and foodstuffs in his granary. This puzzled me; I could not understand how honest men were indulging in what seemed to be highway robbery. But I noted at the time that every man who was taking part in this incident was a drinking man, while their fellow villagers who were abstemious had sufficient provisions in their own homes. Thus it was I observed the industrial effects of vodka drinking.

Decides to Fight Habit.

"At Samara I decided to do more than passively disapprove of vodka. At this time I was an alderman and many of the tenants living in my houses were workingmen. One night a drunken father in one of my houses killed his wife. This incident made such a terrible impression on me that I decided to fight vodka with all my strength.

"On the supposition that the government was selling vodka for the revenue I calculated the revenue received from its consumption at Samara and then introduced a bill in the city council providing that the city give this sum of money to the imperial treasury, requesting at the same time that the sale of vodka be prohibited. This bill passed and the money was appropriated. It was offered to the government but the government promptly refused it.

"It then dawned upon me that Russian bureaucracy did not want the people to become sober for the reason that it was easier to rule a drunken people than a sober people. This was seven years ago. Later I was elected mayor of Samavora, capital of the Volga district, with over 250,000 inhabitants. Subsequently to holding this office I was elected to the duma on an anti-vodka platform. In the duma I proposed a bill permitting the inhabitants of any town to close the vodka shops and providing also that every bottle of vodka should bear a label with the word 'Poison.' At my request the wording of this label, in which the evils of vodka were set forth, was done by the late Count Leo Tolstoi. This bill passed the duma and went to the imperial council, where it was amended and finally tabled.

Czar Is Sympathetic.

"I then begged an audience of Emperor Nicholas. He received me with great kindness in his castle in the Crimea, not far from the scene of the recent Turkish bombardment. He listened to me patiently. He was impressed with my recital that most of the revolutionary and social excesses were committed by drunkards and that the Sveaborg, Kronstadt and Sebastopol navy revolts and the Petrograd and other mutinous military movements were all caused by inebriates. Having heard me out, his majesty promised me to speak to his minister of finance concerning the prohibition of vodka.

"Disappointed at not being able to get through a government bill regulating this evil, I abandoned my seat in the duma. It was evident that the bureaucracy had been able to obstruct the measure, Minister of Finance Kokosoff regarding it as a dangerous innovation depriving the government of $500,000,000 yearly, without any method of replacing this revenue.

"While I lobbied in Petrograd the emperor visited the country around Moscow and saw the evils of vodka. He then dismissed Kokosoff and appointed the present minister of finance, M. Bark.

"Mobilization precipitated the anti-vodka measure. The grand duke, remembering the disorganization due to drunkenness during the mobilization of 1904, ordered the prohibition of all alcoholic drinks except in clubs and first-class restaurants. This order, enforced for one month, showed the Russian authorities the value of abstinence. In spite of the general depression caused by the war, the paralysis of business, the closing of factories and the interruption of railroad traffic, the people felt no privation. Savings banks showed an increase in deposits over the preceding month and over the corresponding month of the preceding year. At the same time there was a boom in the sale of meats, groceries clothing, dry goods and house furnishings. The $15,000,000 a day that had been paid for vodka were not being spent for the necessities of life.

Paradise Now, He Says.

"The average working week increased from three and four days to six, the numerous holidays of the drinkers having been eliminated. The working day also became longer and the efficiency of the worker was perhaps doubled. Women and children, who seldom were without marks showing the physical violence of the husband and father, suddenly found themselves in an undreamed of paradise. There were no blows, no insults and no rough treatment. There was bread on the table, milk for the babies and a fire in the kitchen.

"I decided to seize this occasion for a press campaign, so far as this is possible in Russia. I organized delegations to present petitions to the proper authorities for the prolonging of this new sobriety for the duration of the war. This step found favor with his imperial majesty and an order was issued to that effect. Another similar campaign to remove the licenses from privileged clubs and restaurants was successful and strong liquor is no longer available anywhere in Russia."

MAY BUILD SHOPS AT TRANSCONA IF TERMS GOOD

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

WINNIPEG, Nov. 18.—New railway shops may be established in Transcona if the council of the town can come to terms with the directors of the Hudson Bay, Peace River & Pacific Railway company. This company was incorporated by Dominion charter some years ago and empowered to building from Hudson bay to the Pacific. Later it applied to the local government and obtained a charter to build from Winnipeg to Hudson bay. No construction has been commenced, but at a meeting of the Transcona council last night a letter from the company was read stating that arrangements were under way to begin construction next spring. It was added that the intention is to construct the first 100 miles of the line to Hudson bay, that one of the projected routes ran through Transcona and that in the event of the road being constructed in accordance with this plan the company would establish its shops in Transcona.

Before deciding on the route it wishes to know what inducements Transcona will offer as a terminal.

JAPANESE CREPT CLOSE TO TRENCHES

Germans Looked up When Bombardment Ceased and Gazed into Muzzles of Guns.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

PEKING, Nov. 18.—Tsing-tau was no longer defensible when the Germans surrendered it to the Japanese, according to a correspondent of the Associated Press who was in Tsing-tau during the siege and who arrived here tonight. His delay in reaching here was due to the Japanese holding him in Tsing-tau after its fall as a method of censorship.

At the time of the capitulation the Japanese artillery had shelled the trenches until the infantry was on the brink of them. When the shelling ceased the Germans looked out upon bayonets and the muzzles of machine guns.

Where the Japanese broke the line they crossed over the dead and wounded. Of the three big fortresses only Bismarck was able to continue firing. Its guns were dynamited as the Japanese scaled the fortifications.

The Japanese rushed into the city streets, pickaxes and shovels in hand, shouting "Banzai" almost simultaneously with the hoisting of the white flag.

The Germans had destroyed all their vessels, including three merchantmen in drydock, and all the cannon and military stores.

The German losses were 170 killed and between 500 and 600 wounded.

The Japanese and British actually engaged in the land attack numbered respectively approximately 17,000 and 15,000. The Germans in their last line of trenches had 3800 men.

The conduct of the Japanese was admitted by the Germans to have been conspicuously considerate throughout the siege.

WOULD HAVE GOVERNMENT DEVELOP WATER POWERS

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

TORONTO, Nov. 18.—To the engineering society of the university of Toronto, in Convention hall tonight, Sir Adam Beck, speaking on the work of the hydro-electric power commission, said that the time had arrived when the Dominion government should declare its policy in respect to granting a subsidy for the construction of a publicly-owned radial railway and should see to it that the great national assets in water powers were safeguarded for the people and made available for development under the impulse of public ownership.

IS MOST COLOSSAL MODERN CALAMITY

Hypocrisy, Atheism and Ghoul Sensuality Stalk Abroad in Land, Says Correspondent—Millions Hungry

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

HALIFAX, N. S., Nov. 18.—The Morning Chronicle publishes a cablegram regarding conditions in Belgium from a correspondent who accompanied to Rotterdam the relief ship Tremorvah, which carried supplies contributed by the people of Canada. The Tremorvah was placed at the disposal of the Nova Scotian government by the admiralty expressly for the service.

"Not a tithe has yet been told of the appalling misery and suffering of the Belgians," says the correspondent. "It is beyond the power of the human mind to grasp and pen to describe. I have been in Holland three days. What I have seen and heard is only a page in the most colossal national calamity of modern times. It overwhelms one with its enormity until one is utterly dwarfed beside it. If we look to the heavens they seem almost to be impotent and the end is nowhere in sight. Louvain, Malines and their citizens—perishing waifs in this great war—are but incidents in the suffering of the Belgian people. Thinking it is the night of the world, they wander amid the glimmer of smouldering ruins and the sun and stars of heaven are as blotted out for a season and immeasurable phantoms, hypocrisy and atheism, with ghoul sensuality stalk abroad over the earth and call it theirs."

The correspondent says the boat's cargo was handed over to the Belgian committee for relief but the American committee, which is allowed by the Germans the privilege of entering Belgium and distributing food and clothing, furnishes protection, he says, and guarantees safe delivery. Continuing, he says:

Seven Millions Need Food

"Potatoes are to be sent to Liege, where they have none. The flour will be sent to Limburg, a district of 50,000 people, where they have had no bread for 40 days. The apples and groceries will be sent to Brussels with some of the general cargo from which place the goods will be delivered to the surrounding districts.

"The clothes will be distributed throughout Holland under the personal supervision of E. B. Elderkin, Nova Scotia commissioner in charge. A request for clothing from Flushing came early yesterday morning and has been responded to. The whole of the Tremorvah's cargo is in splendid condition."

In concluding the despatch he says: "Wheat flour and rice are wanted in large quantities. The Belgians are able, if they had it, to grind in their little mills a considerable amount of wheat."

There are, the correspondent says, 7,000,000 people to feed, requiring, at the least, nearly 2,000 tons of wheat a day.

Hungry Children Devour Bread

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, Nov. 18.—Cardinal Francois Joseph Mercier, primate of Belgium, who has just returned to his own country after a visit to England, where he received an enthusiastic reception, sends a stirring appeal through the American commission for relief in Belgium for assistance to his starving parishioners of Malines and the surrounding country.

In the city of Malines alone, the cardinal says, 12,000 mouths have to be fed daily. In his telegram to Capt. C. F. Lucey of the American commission the prelate says:

"Children come to the German soldiers and tear bread from their hands; they are really famished. Every stranger who comes to the city or goes into the country is surrounded by a great number of women and children begging him for something to eat. There is hardly a single laborer who can find any work to gain his daily bread.

"Everything is lacking—we are in want of potatoes, peas, grain, flour, meat and bacon. No petroleum is obtainable. Coal can be obtained in the district of Charleroi but the railways cannot carry the coal because the communication is interrupted. The cattle of the people of the country have been sold to the soldiers but with the receipts received for the cattle the Belgians cannot obtain any food until after the war.

"Cardinal Mercier and all the members of the Belgian clergy hereby make a strong appeal to the American people so that the neighborhood of Tournot and Malines may be relieved as soon as possible."

Capt. Lucey adds that in addition to those in the city there are 25,000 people in the surrounding country who must be cared for and he says he is forwarding 400 tons of provisions.

LOCAL RELIEF TEA PROVES SUCCESSFUL

The tea in aid of the local relief society held yesterday proved very successful and about 150 were in attendance. During the afternoon music was rendered by an orchestra and vocal selections were given by Mrs. J. P. Winter and little Margaret Moore, aged four, who sang "Tipperary." The following articles were raffled: Large pincushion, won by Mrs. R. C. Barker, No. 10; small pincushion, won by Mrs. I. G. Johnson, No. 9; centrepiece, won by Mrs. G. H. Scott, No. 39. The cushion raffled by the Pythian Sisters in aid of the society was won by A. E. Cornyn, No. 14. The society wishes to thank Mrs. Winter for her services and the Knights of Pythias for the use of the hall.

Copper Advances; Steel and Iron Business Continues to Grow Better—Loan Danger Eliminated.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—President Wilson's reassuring statement to the secretary of the treasury in connection with the inauguration of the new federal banking system was almost the main topic of discussion in financial circles today.

It was hailed as an augury of betterment in other directions.

One more step toward the restoration of normal financial conditions was recorded during the day when the committee of bankers and bond dealers which was organized soon after the outbreak of the war to supervise dealings in unlisted bonds and unlisted guaranteed stocks, announced its retirement. The well established market now prevailing for these securities and the absence of all danger to the loan situation enabled the committee to take this action.

There was another conference between leading banking interests and authorities of the stock exchange relative to the advisability of an early reopening of that institution but the result was once more inconclusive. The suggestion that a beginning be made by having daily "calls" in bonds and guaranteed stocks, as was the custom in the early days of the exchange, was reported to have met with little favor in influential circles.

Industrial conditions offered greater promise, according to authoritative advices.

Copper metal scored another fractional advance and purchases of pig iron have increased materially. Buying of finished steel and iron thus far this month was considerably in excess of the corresponding period of the preceding month and leading mills were increasing their average production.

Incidentally, some of the larger railway systems were coming into the market for new equipment.

Exchange on London was a trifle easier, with little demand.

Business for Paris and Berlin was the smallest in some weeks. All continental rates were higher. The Imperial Bank of Germany again showed an increase of gold holdings with a large expansion of discounts.

The more detailed statement of the country's exports for October disclosed the fact that shipments of breadstuffs for that month were almost three times as large as in the same month of 1913.

CONSERVATIVE ELECTED IN WEST HAMILTON

The total vote polled was about 600 less than that recorded at the last election.

PRICE OF TEA AND BEER HERE NOT AFFECTED

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

OTTAWA, Nov. 18.—The price of tea in Canada will not be affected by the extra duty of 6 cents per lb. just imposed by the British government as a war measure, so it is learned from large importers here. They say practically all the tea used in Canada is purchased through British planters and dealers and passes through London in bond on its way to Canada. Since the war began tea has advanced from 2 to 5 cents per lb. in this country owing to the increased rates of exchange and the advance in the insurance on ocean cargoes. The new British tax on every half pint of beer falls only on the consumer and will be paid in the way of a stamp duty, so that imported beer from Great Britain will not go up in price in this country for that reason.

A Message to Thin, Weak, Scrawny Folks

An Easy Way to Gain 10 to 30 lbs. of Solid, Healthy, Permanent Flesh.

Thin, nervous, undeveloped men and women everywhere are heard to say: "I can't understand why I do not get fat. I eat plenty of good, nourishing food." The reason is just this: You cannot get fat no matter how much you eat, unless your digestive organs assimilate the fat-making elements of your food instead of passing them out through the body as waste.

What is needed is a means of gently urging the assimilative functions of the stomach and intestines to absorb the oils and fats and hand them over to the blood, where they may reach the starved, shrunken, run-down tissues and build them up. The thin person's body is like a dry sponge—eager and hungry for the fatty materials of which it is being deprived by the failure of the alimentary canal to take them from the food. The best way to overcome this sinful waste of flesh building elements and to stop the leakage of fats is to use Sargol, the recently discovered regenerative force that is recommended so highly by physicians here and abroad. Take a little Sargol tablet with every meal and notice how quickly your cheeks fill out and rolls of firm, healthy flesh are deposited over your body, covering each bony angle and projecting point.

Good druggists have Sargol, or can get it from their wholesaler and will refund your money if you are not satisfied with the gain in weight it produces as stated on the guarantee in each package. It is inexpensive, easy to take and highly efficient.

Caution—While Sargol has produced remarkable results in overcoming nervous dyspepsia and general stomach troubles, it should not be taken unless you are willing to gain ten pounds or more, for it is a wonderful flesh-builder.

TWENTY TWO MEN AT GOLDEN FAWN

Good Ore Encountered—First Gold Brick Brought to City—Driving Tunnel on Property.

Twenty-two men are at work at the Golden Fawn mine at Sheep creek, which is being operated by H. Y. Anderson and W. B. Burnham of Nelson, states Mr. Anderson, who is in the city for a short visit. The men are working three shifts driving a tunnel on the property and fine ore is being encountered. In fact, states Mr. Anderson, the whole camp is looking better than it has for some time.

With him Mr. Anderson brought a gold brick, the first one turned out at the Nugget mill since it was taken over by himself and Mr. Burnham. The ore from the Golden Fawn is being treated through the Nugget mill, which is close at hand. The brick was the product of some of the ore which was already at the mill when it was taken over and of some of the first ore encountered when they commenced operations on the Golden Fawn.

The mill has been closed down for some time while the tunneling is being done at the property, but Mr. Anderson expects that it will resume operations in about 10 days.

He expects to return to Sheep creek on Monday.

Sore Defied Doctors

Zam-Buk Worked a Marvellous Cure.

Mr. Earle G. Appleby, of Big River, Sask., writes: "Two years ago, while at work, I injured my left heel. The wound did not heal, but left an open sore about an inch and a half long. As you can imagine, this was extremely painful. I tried every salve that was mentioned to me, but could not get relief, and so I then tried several old-fashioned remedies, such as wax dropped in the sore, hot tallow, etc., and finally went to a doctor who stitched the sore. This was fairly successful for a time, but last winter the wound opened up again and was as bad as ever. To say I was discouraged would be putting it mildly. I started in again trying all kinds of remedies and suffered hours of agony.

"My predicament was noticed by a fellow workman, who persuaded me to give Zam-Buk a trial. I did so, although I did not expect it would prove any better than the other remedies I had tried. In a short time after Zam-Buk had been applied the inflammation and pain were practically gone. Within a week the sore showed signs of healing. I continued with Zam-Buk and it finally closed the sore and healed it completely. I consider this cure so marvellous that I am sending this unsolicited testimonial, hoping it will influence other sufferers to give this wonderful ointment a fair trial."

Zam-Buk is purely herbal, and is healing, soothing and antiseptic. Does not contain animal fats or poisonous coloring matter.

Use Zam-Buk for cuts, burns, bruises, obstinate sores, eczema, piles, chapped hands, cold sores, rheumatism and all injuries and skin diseases.

All druggists and stores, or from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, on receipt of price, 50 cents box, 3 boxes for $1.25. Refuse substitutes.

DEVOTE PROCEEDS TO MEN AT FRONT

Entertainment of Patriotic and Military Nature at Starland Tonight —Auspices of Veterans.

The proceeds from the concert and entertainment which will be given in the Starland theatre tonight by the Nelson and District Veterans' association will be devoted to the purchase of Christmas gifts for the men who have left the district with the first and second contingents. The idea of the veterans as expressed by a member of the executive of the association yesterday is "That the men though gone from our midst shall not be forgotten."

He declared that after the men leave the district and are with millions of other soldiers there is a tendency on the part of the public who have not relatives with the men to forget that they have sacrificed everything for the Empire and it is to keep their memory fresh in the minds of those at home that the veterans will devote their efforts.

An excellent program of patriotic and military numbers has been arranged for the evening, including one particularly original and novel feature. Tickets may be procured at the theatre or from Capt. R. J. Steel, and two shows will be given, the first commencing at 7 o'clock and the second at 8:30 o'clock.

Prior to the show the bugle band will parade the main streets of the city.

A second concert is already being arranged for by the veterans with the object of devoting the proceeds for the provision of a good time for the women and children of the men who have left for the front.

BELGIAN ADVISED TO ENLIST HERE

Expects to Leave With Third Contingent if Call Is Made—Communicated With Consul.

Mr. Morel is anxious to get to the front and has communicated with C. J. Archer, secretary of the Nelson and District Veterans' association, who acted as recruiting officer in West Kootenay for the second contingent.

BOURASSA MAY BE HOWLED DOWN AT OTTAWA

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

OTTAWA, Nov. 18.—The people of the capital are busy figuring on the probability of a serious disturbance when Henri Bourassa speaks here on Sunday night.

A number of citizens were interviewed today and while the majority were of the opinion that Mr. Bourassa should be allowed to have his say, others were of a distinctly different opinion, one saying: "Bourassa's record is such no matter how pacific his style or the tone in which he proposes to address the audience next Sunday evening at the Imperial theatre under the auspices of the Peoples' Forum of Ottawa, there is not the least possibilty of his getting a hearing."

It is possible that the meeting may be called off.

An Old, Family Cough Remedy, Home-Made

Easily Prepared—Costs Very Little, but is Prompt, Sure and Effective

By making this old-time cough syrup at home you not only save about 50%, as compared with the ready-made kind, but you will also have a much more prompt and positive remedy in every way. It overcomes the usual coughs, throat and chest colds in 24 hours—relieves even whooping cough quickly—and is excellent, too, for bronchitis, bronchial asthma, hoarseness and spasmodic croup.

Get from any drug store 2½ ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth), pour it into a 16-ounce bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Full directions with Pinex. Keeps perfectly and tastes good.

You can feel this take hold of a cough or cold in a way that means business. It quickly loosens the dry, hoarse or painful cough, and also heals the inflamed membranes. It also has a remarkable effect in overcoming the persistent loose cough by stopping the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes.

The effect of pine on the membranes is known by almost every one. Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, combined with guaiacol and other natural healing pine elements.

There are many worthless imitations of this famous mixture. To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex," and do not accept anything else.

A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

MILITARY HONORS ARE GIVEN ENEMY

German and French soldiers who die in the Paris hospitals are buried with military honors. Their graves are marked in precisely the same manner in the cemeteries of Pantin and Bagneux. French soldiers are buried in one section and Germans in another.

The graves are simple. At the head of each is a black wooden cross with the soldier's name, regiment and date of death. Graves of French soldiers are covered with flowers. Visitors buy them at the entrance and throw them upon the graves of the French soldiers. Not a flower is to be seen on those of the Germans.

BUGLE BAND DANCE ATTENDED BY MANY

In Aid of Patriotic Fund Armory Is Crowded—Decorations Are Exceptionally Good.

At the dance given last evening in the armory by the bugle band in aid of the Nelson branch of the Canadian Patriotic fund over 100 couples were present. The armory was beautifully decorated with bunting and the flags of the various countries interwoven about the walls. At intervals the drums, bugles and other military equipment were used in the decoration scheme and imparted a martial aid to the scene, while the bright colors of the dresses and the music added a touch a gaiety. The lighting effects were also very pretty, indirect lighting chandeliers being used extensively. At the rear of the hall was stretched a banner with the inscription, "It's a Long, Long Way to Tipperary." The large dancing floor was well covered with people and among others were many members of the Nelson and District Veteran's association.

The opening number of the evening was a grand march led by the members of the bugle band and during the remainder of the evening several other original numbers were introduced. A two-step, the music for which was supplied by the band, was well received, as also was a moonlight waltz, with the moon cleverly imitated in an electrical effect. Leslie Craufurd rendered several songs.

The supper was served in the lower part of the building, which was also adorned with flags, while the tables were prettily decorated.

GENERAL HUGHES RAPS KNOCKERS

Minister of Militia Says Critics Answered by Patriotic Response to Call for Recruits.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

OTTAWA, Nov. 18—Major Gen. Sam Hughes tonight warmly defended his course of action in regard to raising and equipping the first contingent and its despatch abroad and also his procedure to date with respect to the second contingent and incidentally referred to some "knockers."

The minister formally opened the new rooms of the Ottawa Liberal-Conservative association.

"When the first call for 19,500 men was made," said Gen. Hughes, "some papers said Canada could not get them together and that 'Sam Hughes talks too much.' But his talk met with the approval of the Dominion of Canada as is shown by the fact that 33,500 men responded to the call and not on 'hot air' artist made a dollar. It is easy to sit in an office and condemn men ready to go to the front at any time. Show me a 'knocker' and I'll show you a coward. Sam Hughes never held back himself where he was ready to send other men."

Gen. Hughes also referred to the secrecy with which the first contingent had been despatched and the ruse adopted to fool several newspaper men. He said that these newspapers were so enthusiatsic as to charter a steamer and set sail for the supposed mobilization ground of the contingent fleet on the north coast of Newfoundland after being informed by an officer that the fleet would concentrate there before setting sail.

"I suppose they are still up there hunting for the first contingent," said Gen. Hughes, "for they have not informed the department of their return."

Tribute was paid by Gen. Hughes to the premier, Sir Robert Borden, for his care of the contingent.

Sir Robert had wired the English authorities to use extreme care in the landing of the contingent and this had resulted in the discovery of four German submarines off the Isle of Wight and the contingent was landed at Plymouth instead of Southampton.

He was also instrumental in having the 33,000 men instead of 22,000 sent, as first proposed.

CLOSE UNION FOR WINTER MONTHS

Collections for All Fruit Shipped Will Be Made Immediately and Remittances Sent to Growers

A meeting of the board of directors of the Kootenay Fruit Growers union was held in the offices of the union in Nelson on Tuesday last. Dr. N. Wolverton, the president, was in the chair.

Following the yearly custom of the majority of similar organizations throughout the province and to reduce every possible item of expense, it was decided to close down the union for the winter months as soon as possible, the services of the manager being retained during the period of closure at a nominal salary.

Collections for all fruit shipped will be made as speedily as circumstances permit and remittances made to the growers as collections are made.

In the event of the annual convention of the British Columbia Fruit Growers association being held during the winter, the president, Dr. Wolverton, was appointed delegate to represent the union, with James Johnston as alternate.

Right from England.
ALL our finer Suitings — those at $20, $22.50, $25. up — were made expressly for us in the great English mills and brought to Canada before the war.
Thus, they cost us no more—and will cost you no more — than similar grades cost in previous years.
Let us show you the new Blues, Browns and Grays —in plain effects, as well as in the new Pin Stripes and small Checks.
