PREMIER BREWSTER PASSES AWAY AT CALGARY HOSPITAL

Conscious Almost to End in Fight With Death

NOTABLE CAREER ROSE FROM RANKS

Elected to Parliament in 1907--Made Premier Nine Years Later

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

CALGARY, Alta., March 1.—Conscious to the last moment and fighting bravely against the grim reaper, Premier H. C. Brewster of British Columbia, died at 10:15 tonight at the Holy Cross hospital. His death was caused by an attack of double pneumonia which he contracted while attending the conference of provincial premiers at Ottawa last week.

At his bedside at the time of his death was his brother, Capt. G. W. Brewster, who arrived from the coast this afternoon, and his private secretary, W. W. Baer. Hon. J. D. Maclean, provincial secretary and the other members of the parliamentary party did not arrive in time to see the premier while still alive.

Dr. Stewart McKid, who attended the premier, stated that he had been a fine cheerful patient and that his battle with death was remarkable.

During the afternoon he suffered a relapse and although he rallied about supper time, his temperature rose again and the congestion became more acute during the evening.

Funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

Sketch of Career.

Harlan Carey Brewster, premier of British Columbia since September, 1916, was born at Harvey, Albert county, New Brunswick, on Nov. 10, 1870. He was educated in his native province and started out in his business life to become a printer. When he left school he became the proverbial "printer's devil" in the office of the Observer of Harvey Bank, New Brunswick. In the year 1892 he settled in Boston, Mass., and for four years worked in the office of the Boston Herald. Failing eyesight compelled him to relinquish the "stick" for fresh fields and pastures new.

Mr. Brewster had visited British Columbia several times, and in 1896 he decided to make his home in this province. He became associated with the transportation business and was an officer in the old Canadian Pacific Navigation company. For a time he was manager of a general trading and fishing business, and in 1902 he went into the fishing business at Clayoquot, on the west coast of Vancouver Island.

Enters Legislature.

Shortly after he became a resident of British Columbia Mr. Brewster interested himself in politics, and in 1907 he was elected to the legislature for Albernia constituency. He was reelected in 1909, but defeated by a small majority in 1912. During the sessions of 1910, 1911 and 1912 he was the only Liberal member in the legislature. In 1912 Mr. Brewster was CALGARY, March 1.—The last words of Premier Brewster were expressive of solicitude for his brother, Capt. G. W. Brewster, who was at the bedside.

NEW PREMIER MAY BE CHOSEN TODAY

Special Cabinet Meeting Called—Sorrow at Mr. Brewster's Death Expressed.

VICTORIA, B. C., March 1.—The death of Premier Brewster has cast a deep gloom over all his colleagues in office who were in informal session until long after midnight discussing the event and its consequences on the administration of the province. Tomorrow a cabinet meeting will be held to decide about the leadership and the conduct of the session, the program of which may have to be altered. The ministers will consult with Lieutenant Governor Sir Frank Barnard, who will attend the parliament buildings for the purpose, but it is not known if any definite conclusion will then be reached regarding the successor to the premiership.

Hon. William Sloan, minister of mines, who for many years was a close personal friend of the late premier, expressed deep sorrow on learning of the death of his chieftain. "My admiration for him as a man and a leader was unbounded," he said. "His death will prove a severe blow to the welfare of the province, the interests of which he had so much at heart."

Hon. W. J. Bowser, leader of the opposition, said:

"Premier Brewster's death will be universally regretted. I always regarded him as essentially a man of fairness in criticism, a strenuous opponent but always straightforward and one whose personality everywhere won for him friends. His loss at this juncture will certainly be severely felt, not alone by his confreres and party, but by the whole province. The sympathy of everyone will go out to his family in their bereavement."

HALIFAX, N. S., March 1.—Senator Dennis, president of the Halifax Herald company, has presented Dalhousie university with $60,000 for the purpose of founding a chair of government and political science in memory of his son, Capt. Eric Dennis, M. C., who was killed in action at the battle of Vimy ridge.

STEAMERS COLLIDE BUT WILL REACH PORT

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

SPIRIT OF CANADA IS SPIRIT OF U. S.

Premier Borden Speaks of Washington Trip

IS SATISFIED WITH RESULT OF MISSION

Expresses Regret at Howling Down of Bryan at Toronto

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

NEW YORK, March 1.—Sir Robert Borden, premier of Canada, in a statement here tonight regarding his conference with President Wilson and other government officials in Washington concerning coordination of efforts in prosecuting the war, declared that "the spirit of Canada seems to be the spirit of the United States."

"The purpose of my visit to Washington," said Sir Robert, 'was to discuss with the British ambassador and the government of the United States the utilization of the resources in the United States and Canada in the most effective way for the common purpose of winning the war. The relation of conditions effecting production, the most effective employment of natural resources for essential industries and other matters of a kindred nature were considered.

"The reception accorded to the acting minister of finance, Hon. A. K. Maclean, and myself was most cordial. The discussions which took place were very intimate and interesting and we have a very warm appreciation of the attitude of the United States in its manifest desire to cooperate with us in every reasonable way. We are well satisfied with the result of our mission and will leave for Ottawa tomorrow night."

Regrets Howling Down Bryan.

Regarding the affront to William J. Bryan at a prohibition mass meeting at Toronto last night, when the former secretary of the United States was hissed and prevented from speaking by returned soldiers, Sir Robert said:

"I observed with deepest regret the occurrence at Toronto, but was very glad to note that it was due to various small portions of the audience. Doubtless the incident arose out of a misunderstanding."

Although not possessing any authoritative figures regarding the amount of food that would be saved annually as a result of national prohibition, Sir Robert stated it had been variously estimated at 15 to 20 million bushels of grain and that this economy would continue for the duration of the war and for an indefinite period afterward. The distilleries, he said,

YIELDED MILLIONS IN LEGAL CLAIMS

Counsel for C. N. R. Speaks of Sacrifices by Mackenzie & Mann to Make Line Successful

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

TORONTO, March 1.—Resuming his evidence before the Canadian Northern railway arbitration commission this afternoon, Z. A. Lash, K.C., emphatically reiterated that Sir William Mackenzie and Sir Donald Mann, in their desire to see the Canadian Northern a successful transcontinental railway enterprise, relinquished millions in legal claims in handing over their railway interests in return for stock in the C. N. R.

In 1914, just before the war broke out, said Mr. Lash, it was found impossible to sell the various securities on hand and an application was made to the Dominion government for further assistance.

Although Mackenzie and Mann had claims for their services, for their part, particularly in financing and pledging their own credit and for commissions, they released all that, Mr. Lash declared, that they might get the government to bring forward further assistance.

"Were those claims legal?" asked Sir William Meredith.

"In my opinion, they were absolutely legal," replied Mr. Lash.

The attitude of the provinces toward the company's effort to build a transcontinental line was always favorable, Mr. Lash said, generally speaking. So far as the Dominion was concerned, there was continuance of assistance and encouragement to go on and finish the work.

"I do not think there was ever a bill thrown out in the private bills committee in the house, where I often appeared."

RUSSIA GIVEN HUN ULTIMATUM

Three Days Allowed for Signing Peace Treaty

NEGOTIATIONS ARE REPORTED BROKEN

Germans Carry on With Invasion--Embassies Quit Petrograd

(By Associated Press.)

An ultimatum has been handed to the Russian Bolsheviki government by the German commander on the eastern front who has given the Russians three days in which to sign the peace treaty demanded by the Teutons. Coincident with this demand, the German advance into Russia has been resumed. There are apparently three columns of Germans advancing into Russia. One is near Luga, midway between Pskov and Petrograd. One is said to be at Polotsk and the other is at Sebezh, 80 miles east of Dvinsk. An official report says that the German troops had reached the right bank of the Dneiper river, north of Kiev.

That the situation in Petrograd has become critical is reflected in the report that the American and Japanese ambassadors have reached Vologna, the capital of the Russian province of the same name, lying far to the east of Petrograd. The British and French embassies have also left the Russian capital, but nothing is known as to their destination.

Austrian Troops Advance

Reports forwarded by the way of London say that the Russian troops are destroying railroad property and burning stores as they retire before the Germans. At no point is there serious fighting reported, but the advance of the Teutons is said to be cautious.

It was announced in a despatch that Austrian troops have begun to advance into the Ukraine. This movement, it is said, is in response to an appeal from the Ukraine, probably due to the operations of the Bolsheviki there.

Dr. von Seydler, the Austrian premier, said last week that Austria was not participating in the invasion of Russia, adding that Austria is at peace with the Ukraine.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

PETROGRAD, March 1.—The occupation of Roslov-on-Don by the Bolsheviki after a sanguinary battle and the forced retreat of the troops of Gen. Kaledines and Gen. Korniloff is reported by the semi-official news agency today.

Are Peace Negotiations Broken?

LONDON, March 2.—A message received by the Bolsheviki government in Petrograd from Brest-Litovsk, dated Friday, ordering a train under military guard to meet the Russian delegates at Torosaelsa was considered by the government as probably significant that the peace negotiations have been broken off, according to a wireless communication received from Petrograd tonight.

The wireless communication follows:

"To all the councils:

"The following message was received Friday from Brest-Litovsk:

"'To the council of commissaries in Petrograd:

"'Send us a train to Torosaelsa, near Pskov, escorted by sufficiently large forces. Communicate with Krylenko concerning the bodyguard.

"'(Signed) KEARAHAN.'

"This message most probably signifies that the peace negotiations have been broken off by the Germans. We must be fortified against a German advance against Petrograd. It is necessary that all the people rise and strengthen their nerves for defense.

"Signed) LENINE."

AMERICANS WIN IN DESPERATE HAND TO HAND FIGHT WITH FOE

ALLIES URGE ACTION BY JAPAN IN FAR EAST

New York Paper Says U. S. Must Prevent Land-Grabbing by Germany in Siberia.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, March 1. According to the Daily Mail, it is understood that the allies have decided to ask the Japanese to take any steps necessary for the protection of the allies in the Far East.

Stress is laid on the fact that the British and Japanese governments hold that Japan's intervention in the Russian affairs is not to be construed as an act of hostility to Russia or the Russian government. Its purpose is to safeguard menaced allied interests and to protect stores and munitions at Vladivostok and to assist Russia to lighten and eventually lift the burden of the German yoke.

May Give Japan Task

WASHINGTON, March 1.—Indications now point to an agreement between the entente powers and America to confide to Japan alone the task of taking such measures as may be necessary to combat German aggression in Siberia and to protect the military stores at Vladivostok. No final conclusion has been reached, however, and it was said in high official quarters tonight that conditions were changing so rapidly and so many new factors were entering into the problem that it would be unsafe to predict overnight what the issue might be.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

NEW YORK, March 1.—The Evening Sun, commenting editorially on the proposal for Japanese military action in Siberia, says:

"Japan will doubtless and quite properly send an expedition in a short time over the trans-Siberian railway from Harbin to take and hold Irkutsk. In such an operation the United States should acquiesce and in our view might cooperate. The Russian applecart is upset and whatever the nearest bystander cannot salvage, the Germans bid fair to pocket. Japan is the nearest of military powers, we are next.

"Whether or not we send a force to Irkutsk there is another corner of Siberia which concerns us far more closely. That extremity of Siberia which approaches Alaska must not be allowed to fall into the hands of Germany or any other power than Russia. To forestall any such calamity military steps are in order. All the Asiatic shore of the Behring sea and the coasts must be safeguarded against the uncertainties that beset No Man's Land, such as the territory in question has become, upon the collapse of Russian domination."

SMOKED AND SANG IN COURT HOUSE

Extraordinary Scenes Occur at Sligo—Eight Irrepressibles Jailed for Contempt.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, March 1.—Via Reuter's Otawa Agency.—Another sidelight on the condition of affairs in certain parts of Ireland was the scene in Sligo court house, when eight young men, charged with participation in an unlawful assembly, being required to remove their hats began to smoke cigarettes. Then one said they would have a song, whereupon they stood up on the seats and sang a number of songs referring to the freedom of Ireland.

The magistrate left the bench and consulted the district attorney. The singing was renewed when he returned and threatened to commit them unless they apologized. One said they had no regard for any representative of the British constitution. The magistrate then sentenced them to seven days for contempt of court. When they were about to be removed they threw themselves on the floor and had to be removed by the police.

The crewd filling the court assumed a threatening attitude and a detachment of militia was summoned. Even the defendants were conveyed to jail amid great excitement.

EIGHT HOUR DAY FOR ALL MINERS

Provided for in Legislation Introduced in Provincial House by Minister of Mines.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

VICTORIA, March 1.—Eight hours will be the limit of a workman's day in, or around, coal or metal mines in British Columbia, if legislation which Hon. William Sloan, minister of mines, introduced to the house today, becomes law.

In an amendment to the Coal Mines Regulation act, it is provided that all men employed above ground shall be employed for eight hours only. Heretofore this rule has applied only to the miner employed in digging below ground. His day is eight hours from "bank to bank," the change limiting the working day of those engaged on the surface to eight in the 24 hours. It is estimated that between 1500 and 1600 men will be affected.

The Metalliferous Mines Inspection act is to be amended to provide for a general eight-hour day for men employed above and below ground. The latter's day, as in the case of the coal miner, will start from the moment he leaves the surface and conclude when he again sees daylight.

MRS. SMITH MAKES HER MAIDEN SPEECH

Heard by Full House and Crowded Galleries—Has to Remove Hat by Ruling of Speaker

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

VICTORIA, B. C., March 1.—Mrs. Ralph Smith, the first woman to sit as a member in the British Columbia legislature, made her maiden speech this afternoon in the course of the debate on the speech from the throne. She was heard by a full house and crowded galleries.

"I have come to you neither with a chip on my shoulder nor with a sword in my hand, but with a willingness to meet you on equal ground as representatives of the people," she told her fellow members.

Prayers for Premier Brewster, who at the time was fighting death at Calgary, were said at the opening of today's session.

By the ruling of the speaker, Mrs. Ralph Smith had to remove her hat before speaking in the legislature today in the course of the debate on the address.

Crowded galleries heard her, listening with interest to her declaration that while she came to the house with decided Liberal tendencies, she was there solely with the purpose of working in the best interests of the people and especially of the women and children. Only, she said, when the woman's viewpoint was taken into consideration could the best results in

Repulse Strong Onslaught North of Toul

GERMANS SUFFER HEAVY LOSSES

Number of Americans Are Killed or Wounded Including Officers

(By Associated Press.)

American troops, in a desperate hand to hand battle, have repulsed a heavy German attack on the salient north of Toul. There were a number of Americans killed and wounded, including some officers, one of whom was graduated from West Point last year. The Germans suffered heavily, leaving 10 dead in the American trenches, while the ground in front was strewn with the bodies of the enemy. In addition, three German prisoners remained in the hands of the Americans.

In the same sector, the American artillery has been taking revenge for the German gas attack early in the week, and German positions have been demolished by the storm of shells sent over by Pershing's men. In addition to fighting in the Toul sector, the Americans have been active just north of Chemin des Dames, where they have taken part in repulsing a German attack.

A German official statement says that 10 Americans were taken prisoner in the latter sector. The fighting in which the Americans participated was near the village of Chavignon. It has been known for some time that Americans, probably members of one of the National Guard divisions taken to France some time ago, were along the famous Chemin des Dames sector, but the German statement reveals their location more exactly than anything as yet received from the fighting front.

German trench raiding operations have been repulsed by the French in several sectors of the line. An attack by the Teutons near Butte du Mesneil resulted in the capture of a section of a French position, but an immediate counter-attack ejected the Germans.

The British troops carried out successful raids north of the Ypres-Staden railroad and captured a few prisoners. On the other sectors of the front, nothing of interest is reported.

GOVERNMENT MAJORITY IS INCREASED TO 69

135 Candidates Lose Deposits Through Failing to Get 50 per Cent of Vote

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

OTTAWA, March 1.—Apart from the Yukon and Port Nelson, Man., where the elections are deferred until April, the government as a result of the civilian and soldier vote has a majority of 69. Should the elections committee of the house of commons overrule the objection to the soldier vote in the Yukon, which would mean the election of Dr. Thompson, and should Port Nelson be carried by the government, as generally expected, the government's majority will be 71. The result by provinces now stands as follows:

	Gov.	Oppn.
Prince Edward Island	2	2
Nova Scotia	12	4
New Brunswick	7	4
Quebec	3	62
Ontario	74	8
Manitoba	13	1
Saskatchewan	16	0
Alberta	11	1
British Columbia	13	0
Totals	151	82

It is officially stated that 135 candidates lost their deposits because they did not secure 50 per cent of the vote cast for their successful opponent.

The record by provinces is as follows:

	Gov.	All Others.
Nova Scotia	0	2
New Brunswick	2	4
Quebec	22	19
Ontario	1	41
Manitoba	0	9
Saskatchewan	0	9
British Columbia	0	17
Alberta	0	9
Totals	25	110

Returns give Dr. Thompson a total of 959 votes in the Yukon as against 808 cast for Congdon, a majority for Thompson of 151.

HUNS WERE DETERMINED TO FORCE WAR ON FRANCE

German Document Revealing Dastardly Attempt to Dishonor Nation Made Public

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

PARIS, March 1.—Two historic documents, one showing the German government's determination to force war upon France and the other setting forth the reasons which induced Germany to take Alsace-Lorraine were made public today by Stephen Pichon, the French foreign minister. The minister was speaking at the Sorbonne upon the anniversary of the protest made by representatives of the national assembly of Alsace-Lorraine against annexation to Germany.

"I will establish by documents," said M. Pichon, "that the day the Germans deliberately rendered inevitable the most frightful of wars, they tried to dishonor us by the most cowardly complicity in the ambush into which they drew Europe. I will establish it in the revelation of a document that the German chancellor, after having drawn up, preserved carefully—and you will see why—in the most profound mystery of the most secret archives.

"We have known only recently of its authenticity and it defies any sort of attempt to disprove it. It bears the signature of Bethmann-Hollweg, German imperial chancellor at the outbreak of the war, and the date of July 31, 1914. On that day Von Schoen, German ambassador to France, was charged by a telegram from his chancellor to notify us of a state of danger of a war with Russia, and to ask us to remain neutral, giving us 18 hours in which to reply.

"What was unknown until today was that the telegram of the German chancellor containing these instructions terminated with these words:

"'If the French government declares it will remain neutral, your excellency will be good enough to declare that we must, as a guarantee of its neutrality, require the handing over of the fortresses of Toul and Verdun, that we will occupy them and will restore them after the end of the war with Russia. A reply to this last question must reach here before Saturday afternoon by 4 o'clock.'"

"That," said M. Pichon, "is how Germany wanted peace at the moment when she declared war. That is how sincere she was in pretending that we obliged her to take up arms for her defense. That is the price she intended to make us pay for our baseness if we had the infamy to repudiate our signature as Prussia repudiated hers by tearing up the treaty that guaranteed the neutrality of Belgium."

"Our mortal enemy in the war of 1871, Von Moltke, declared on the morrow of the treaty of Frankfort," said Foreign Minister Pichon, on taking up the question of Alsace-Lorraine, "that it would require no less than 50 years to win the heart of her lost provinces from France."

PREMIER BREWSTER PASSES AWAY

elected president of the Liberal party at a convention in Vancouver, and in the following year a convention at Revelstoke selected him as provincial leader. He led the Liberal party in the election campaign of 1916 when, on Sept. 14 the government headed by W. J. Bowser—who had succeeded Sir Richard McBride as premier a short time before—was defeated by a large majority. Mr. Brewster was called upon to form a government, and the Liberals held power in the province for the first time in 13 years.

Premier brewster was taken ill on his return from Ottawa, where he attended a conference of provincial premiers called by Sir Robert Borden to discuss war measures. He was forced by his illness to enter a Calgary hospital, while the British Columbia legislature, adjourned to permit of his attendance at the Ottawa conference, proceeded in his absence with Hon. John Oliver as acting premier.

Was Son of Shipbuilder.

Premier H. C. Brewster was the son of Gilbert and Amelia Brewster. His father was for many years collector of customs at Harvey, N. B., and was a shipbuilder and shipowner. His mother was a member of the Wells family, one of her brothers being the late Professor James E. Wells of McMaster university, Toronto.

One son and three daughters survive: Corp. Raymond Brewster, who left here last year with the 15th battery for overseas; Edna, aged 18; Marjorie, 15, and Annie, 4, the latter being born just prior to the death of Mrs. Brewster. There are two brothers, J. H. Brewster, press telegrapher at the Seattle Post-Intelligencer, Seattle, and Capt. G. W. Brewster, of Vancouver.

Premier Martin Pays Tribute.

REGINA, Sask., March 1.—"I am extremely sorry to hear of the death of Premier Brewster," said Hon. W. M. Martin, premier of Saskatchewan tonight, when he was informed of the sad news by the Canadian Press representative.

"Premier Brewster was an exceptionally fine type of man and his death will be a distinct loss to British Columbia and Canada at large. He possessed high qualities of leadership and was greatly respected in both public and private life. I learn of his sudden death with the deepest regret."

Carried Heavy Burden

CALGARY, March 1.—Mr. Baer, the late premier's private secretary, speaking on his most beloved leader said last night:

"Since the premier assumed his office in November, 1916, he had carried a heavy load, his responsibilities being such as to make demands on his time and strength and constitution, often taxing his powers of endurance to the limit. His sudden call to Ottawa, when his mind was engaged with the policies of the approaching session, added furthermore to his care and during his stay in Ottawa in addition to the subject matter taken under consideration affecting the relationships of the premiers to the federal government ,which made further demands on his strength and energy, he left Ottawa thoroughly wearied, though he had shown no signs of not feeling well, until stricken suddenly early on the morning of Feb. 23."

DON'T SCOLD, MOTHER! THE CROSS CHILD IS BILIOUS, FEVERISH

Look at Tongue!—If Coated Clean Little Stomach, Liver, Bowels.

Don't scold your fretful, peevish child. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with sour waste.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach ache, indigestion, diarrhoea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs" and in a few hours all the foul waste, the sour bile and fermenting food passes out of the bowels and you have a well and playful child again. Children love this harmless "fruit laxative" and mothers can rest easy after giving it, because it never fails to make their little "insides" clean and sweet.

Keep it handy, mother! A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs" which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plain on the bottle. Was Off Work 4 or 5 Months a Year With CONSTIPATION

If the truth were only known you would find that over one-half of the ills of life are caused by allowing the bowels to get into a constipated condition.

When the bowels become constipated the stomach gets out of order, the liver does not work properly and then follows the violent sick headaches, the sourness of the stomach, heartburn, water brash, etc.

Keep your bowels regular by using Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills. They work on the bowels gently and naturally and will cure the worst cases of constipation.

Mr. Sylvester Clements, Galt, Ont., writes: "I desire to express my heartfelt thanks for what Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills have done for me. I have been suffering from a bad stomach and constipation and would be off work 4 or 5 months a year. I was hardly able to be inside without getting a severe headache. I tried doctors' medicine and other remedies, but got no relief until a friend advised me to use Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills. Now I can work inside without any headaches or pain. I would not be without your remedy for anything. I write this so that anyone suffering the same as I did may use them and be cured."

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c a vial at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

which he thought would be put out of business as a result of the change, were not idle, but were now busy making alcohol for war purposes.

Referring to the Military Service act, Sir Robert said its enforcement was proceeding satisfactorily. "In some portions of the country there had been a number of appeals," he said, "and this has tended to delay. Recently steps had been taken to expedite the hearings and distribution of these appeals and we have reason to believe our steps will be approved. It was said there were 54,000 appeals from the draft law in the province of Quebec."

Silent About Siberia.

Canada has sent overseas, so far, he said, about 400,000 men. The casualties will run well up to 150,000, of whom 40,000 have been killed. The new military service law will enable the conscription of 100,000 more men, after which authority for additional levies will have to be made by parliament.

Compared with the population of the United States to equal Canada's record, it was pointed out by the premier, this country would have to place 5,500,000 men in the field.

Sir Robert declined to discuss the probable length of the war or the advisability of approving Japanese intervention in Siberia.

"Whether the war is to be continued for a considerable period or otherwise," he said, "I am perfectly confident that the cause to which your country and my own have consecrated their energy and their purpose will be triumphant and that the untold sacrifices that have been endured for the preservation of civilization and institutions built up during many centuries of slow and sometimes painful effort, will not be in vain."

graduated from West Point in 1917. The raid was a complete failure, three Germans remaining in American hands.

The ground in front of the American trenches was strewn with German dead.

WEST WAR ONE

Hold Line Everywhere.

PARIS, March 1.—German troops especially trained for raiding operations, attacked the American salient last night and this morning, but the Americans maintained their entire line everywhere and in addition caused heavy casualties among the enemy. The Americans also took prisoners on both positions attacked.

The above is contained in the French official communication made public tonight.

The communication follows:

"During the day, artillery fire was of great intensity in the region north and northwest of Reims and also in Champagne, especially in the region of the Monts, near Tahure, on both sides of the Suippes.

"Southwest of the Butte du Mesnil, after having been pushed back by our counter-attacks at points where they had entered our positions this morning, the enemy came back with new forces. After several fruitless attempts, which cost him heavy losses, he succeeded in gaining a footing again in a part of the position we conquered Feb. 13.

"On the right bank of the Meuse and in the Woevre, the enemy violently bombarded our first lines on the Beaumont and Bois le Chaume fronts, as well as in the Seichsprey region, where a strong attack was repulsed and gave us a few prisoners.

"On two of the points attacked by the enemy during the course of last night and today, Germans especially trained in raiding, came in contact with some elements of American infantry. Our allies maintained their lines intact everywhere and inflicted heavy losses on the enemy and in addition took prisoners from him at each of these points."

BERLIN, March 1.—(British Admiralty, per Wireless Press.)—An official statement reads:

"Western theatre: Army group of Crown Prince Rupprecht: Attacks launched last night north of Poelcapelle by British infantry after violent artillery preparation broke down. On the rest of the front artillery activity was revived at many points in support of minor engagements.

"West of La Fere, a detachment brought back prisoners as the result of an attack across the canal.

"An enemy air raid on Korkijk caused considerable losses among Belgians.

"Army group of the crown prince: Near Chavignon storming troops forced their way into the enemy trenches and captured 10 Americans and a few prisoners from the French.

"Early this morning, fighting activity was revived at isolated sectors in the Champagne."

Found New HEALTH

Of greater value than gold and silver is health restored. Up in the mining district of Larder Lake, Ont., Mr. Sid Castlemen discovered something—that the high words of praise given to Gin Pills are true. Here is his story, in part.

"I had heard of your

and decided to give them a trial at once, as I had been suffering for some time with my kidneys and urine. I sent my chum out to get them (about 60 miles) and I am pleased to inform you that in less than 6 hours I felt relief. In two days the pain had left me altogether. . . . Today I feel as well as ever I did and my kidneys are acting quite naturally." (Full testimonial sent on request together with FREE SAMPLE of Gin Pills.)

legislation be accomplished. Referring to the problem of the returned soldier, she said the exemption of the property of soldiers and sailors from taxation was very necessary and she also hoped the moratorium would be extended and its provisions made short, sharp and decisive so that there should be no doubt of its meaning.

Problem Must Be Tackled

The care of the returned soldiers would, she thought, involve large expenditures but it must be grappled with. She hoped opportunities would be made to enable the men to go on the land with prospects of earning a decent livelihood. She suggested that the women of the province should be utilized in every way in increasing production. The situation in British Columbia with respect to neglected and destitute children was serious in her opinion. She was glad to see the government was dealing with it. The institutional phase of the legislation should give place to the domestic. On some questions the province needed to change to the right about.

The debate was adjourned by W. R. Ross, Fort George.

A number of measures having to do with neglected children, juvenile courts and kindred matters were introduced this afternoon.

WERE DETERMINED TO FORCE WAR ON FRANCE

Makes Significant Contrast.

M. Pichon contrasted the German acceptance then that the provinces were in reality French, with the reiterated pretension of German statesmen since, especially the assertions of former Chancellor Bethmann-Hollweg and the present chancellor, Count von Hertling that most of the provinces were always German.

The foreign minister made public for the first time the full text of a letter written by William I, the grandfather of the present German emperor, to Empress Eugenie. The letter is dated Versailles, Oct. 26, 1870:

"After the immediate sacrifice for her defense," read M. Pichon, "Germany desires to be assured that the next war will find her better prepared to repel the aggression upon which we can count as soon as France shall have repaired her forces and gained allies. This is the melancholy consideration alone and not a desire to augment my country, whose territory is sufficiently great, that obliges me to insist upon the cession of territories that has no other object than to throw back to the starting point the French armies, that, in the future will come to attack us."

After reading this passage, M. Pichon asked:

"Can one better destroy the legend Von Hertling tries to establish that the annexation of Alsace-Lorraine had for its origin in the minds of its authors the wish to return to Germany German provinces of which she had been dispossessed by French usurpation?"

The foreign minister pointed out that Prince von Bismarck in subsequent conversations with the Marquis de Garbias, then French charge at Berlin, confirmed what his sovereign had written in his own hand. M. Pichon then cited the words of Frederick II when entering Silesia:

"I take possession first. I shall always find dependents to prove my right," and added, "but the rights of the Germans over our provinces have never been proved by any pedant because it cannot be done."

M. Pichon recalled that in the times of Louis XIV, Alsace-Lorraine had been generally known as French and he quoted the words of Gen. Maximilian Foy, 150 years later, when he said:

"If ever the love of all that is great and generous weakens in the hearts of the inhabitants of old France, it will be necessary that they cross the Vosges, come to Alsace and temper again their patriotism and their energy."

"What was true under the Restoration," added M. Pichon, "is none the less true now."

BRITISH MAKE SURPRISE ATTACK IN MACEDONIA

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

PARIS, March 1.—An official statement reads:

"Army of the East, Feb. 28: There have been mutual artillery actions west of the Vardar. As a result of a surprise attack in the Struma valley, a British detachment brought back a few Bulgarian prisoners. Enemy encampments were bombarded by allied aviators in the Vardar valley, in the Struma valley and around Krupel."

CHILL STARTS COLD

WAS SICK FOUR WEEKS.

JUST ABLE TO CRAWL ABOUT

Mr. Weldon T. Hawkes, Curryville, N.B., writes: "Last spring I was taken very ill with a severe cold. I got wet and it started with a chill. I was sick four weeks and was just able to crawl about. People all said I had inflammation of the lungs, and I think I did. I told a friend to get me two bottles of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup and before the first one was taken my cold and cough were broken up and the second did its work completely. I am raising a family and I find that it is a good medicine for the children.

There is no remedy that will cure stubborn colds or coughs, the kind that won't let go, like Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup.

It allays the inflammation, soothes the irritation, heals the diseased mucous lining of the lungs and bronchial tubes and rids the system completely of the bad effects of lingering coughs and colds.

There are so many spurious "Pine" preparations on the market that you should see you get "Dr. Wood's" when you ask for it.

Put up in a yellow wrapper; three pine trees the trade mark; price 25c and 50c; manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

TRADING ON STOCK MARKET IS QUIET

Price Changes, Except for Speculative Issues, Are Limited to Fractions.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

NEW YORK, March 1.—Trading in stocks today was quiet, price changes, except in certain of the more speculative issues being limited to fractions. The few isolated features of strength again included shares that receive their propulsion from pool operations.

A moderate degree of short selling was introduced during the morning on the further complications in the foreign situation, but the market for foreign remittances was unaltered, aside from another break in Italian exchange.

Adoption by the house of the administrator's railroad bill brought out no response in the rails, dealings in that division being light.

The poor earnings of the Pennsylvania system for January, lines east and west of Pittsburg showing large deficits in net income, doubtless had their origin in the unfavorable industrial conditions prevalent at that time. Utah Copper's dividend, cut from $3.50 to $2.50, occasioned no surprise, such action having been foreshadowed in the recent downward trend of metal shares.

New York Airbrake's decline of almost 5 points followed the publication of the company's annual report, disclosing a large shrinkage in net profits.

Tobaccos, General Motors, Beet Sugar, Sears-Roebuck, Industrial Alcohol and Pittsburg Coal embraced the heavier miscellaneous shares offset in a manner by Lackawanna Steel, Oils and American car. Sales totaled 335,000 shares.

Bonds eased again, Liberty issues displaying firmness. Total sales, $2,575,000.

ITALIAN REMITTANCES HAVE FURTHER COLLAPSE

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

NEW YORK, March 1.—Italian remittances suffered another severe collapse in today's market for foreign exchange, demand falling to 8.74 and cables to 8.85. On this basis it takes almost 9 lires to purchase an American dollar against the normal rate of 5.35 prior to August, 1914.

Today's quotations are the lowest since the outbreak of the war and represented a discount of 41 to 42 per cent. Except for Russian exchange, in which dealings have been little more than nominal at an extreme depreciation of about 75 per cent, the Italian rates show the greatest loss of any foreign exchange.

BRISKER BUSINESS DONE IN DOMINION IRON SHARES

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

MONTREAL, March 1.—The local market plodded along today without creating any stir in business or prices, the only notable feature being a little more trading in Iron. All told, 350 shares changed hands during the day, but there was no move in the price, which seemed to be stalled at 60.

Scotia, which has not figured recently in the local list, was down 1 from the last sale at 67 to 66. Riordon continued strong at 120¾ to 121. Bell Telephone, which rose 2 points on Thursday to 132, held the advantage in the day's dealings.

VICTORY BONDS HOLD ATTENTION OF PUBLIC

Invested in to Virtual Exclusion of Stocks and Bonds Listed on the Toronto Mart.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

TORONTO, March 1.—Victory bonds and recently issued provincial and municipal debentures are occupying the attention of the investing public at present to the virtual exclusion of stocks and bonds listed on the Toronto exchange.

The market today was quite as featureless as on preceding days, the most hopeful sign being that the offerings of those issues not held in oblivion by the minimum barrier are about as limited as is buying power.

Dominion Steel and Steel of Canada were a shade firmer than on Thursday. Brazilian was unchanged and Smelters, in which there have been no transactions recently, sold around the established level of 25. Canadian Salt, despite an unfavorable report of earnings, sold 8 points above the minimum of 120, while Toronto General Trust, another security rarely dealt in, was marketed at 199¾ or 2¼ above the minimum. There were no transactions in the war loans, the day's business being confined to 335 shares of stock.

CERTAIN EXPORT DEMAND STIFFENS CORN PRICES

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

CHICAGO, March 1.—Virtual certainty of a liberal and sustained export demand gave firmness today to the corn market. From the outset prices showed a slight advance and there was a steady close at the same as yesterday's finish to a shade higher, with March at $1.27¾ and May $1.27.

The outcome in oats ranged from a shade off to gains of ½ to ⅝ cent. Provisions rose 5 to 7½ to 22½ cents.

SATURDAY, MARCH 2, 1918.

THE DEATH OF PREMIER BREWSTER.

Premier Brewster's death will be deeply regretted by the people of British Columbia without respect to their political views.

The late premier possessed a pleasing and attractive personality and his course in public affairs was such as to convince the public, whether in agreement or opposition to his views, that he was sincere in his purpose and anxious to do what was right and just.

His personal character was such as to command respect from all parties.

Mr. Brewster's public career has been a notable one in the sense that from compartive obscurity he rose to the possession of the greatest honor and responsibility in the gift of the people of British Columbia.

His untimely death marks the passing of a prominent figure in the public life of the province.

DR. ROSE URGES NEEDS OF THE DISTRICT.

The member for Nelson made good use of his opportunity in the debate on the address in reply to the speech from the throne. He advocated the establishment of normal schools in the interior, and in order to bring about this much to be desired improvement at the earliest possible moment suggested that schools of a temporary nature be first established. If that were done, there is no doubt that they would become permanent. Their advantages would be seen to be so great that no government would later return to the present system of forcing teacher-students from the interior to go to the coast for training.

Dr. Rose urged the necessity for the completion of the Ymir road and dealt with the question of the inaugurating measures to combat industrial diseases, a subject upon which his profession and his wide experience in Kootenay and Boundary give him especial qualifications to speak.

THE JAPANESE TO TAKE HOLD IN THE EAST?

If the statement of the Daily Mail that the allies have asked Japan to take any measures that may be necessary in the Far East to correct developments during the next few months may place an entirely new complexion upon the Russian situation.

Patriotic Russians will be inclined to welcome the intervention, though they will naturally feel some suspicions. These should be allayed as far as it is possible to do so. It should be emphasized that the Japanese are taking action only to protect entente interests in Asiatic Russia and to prevent strategic points from falling into the hands of the Germans, or supplies now stored at points on the Siberian coast from being shipped to the interior of Russia, where they would be as likely to be employed against entente interests as in support of them.

There has been talk of the United States joining Japan in the movement to establish order in Asiatic Russia. The United States, next to Japan, is the most vitally interested country and it would not be surprising if it decided to cooperate with its Oriental ally.

TO GOBBLE UP RUSSIA, IS ENEMY PLAN.

In view of the strong efforts Germany has directed toward the complete domination of Russia, the revelation at Paris that Bethmann-Hollweg on the eve of the outbreak of the war made a bid for French neutrality is of particular interest. Germany tried to buy off Great Britain by promising it some of the French colonies.

It is now shown to have attempted to persuade France into breaking faith with Russia, but to have demanded the possession of the French fortresses of Toul and Verdun as security.

In the year before the war Germany had 50 per cent of the total Russian trade. Apparently realizing the immense possibilities of the development of Russia and being determined to secure complete domination of that country, Germany, it is becoming evident, had a double plan. It intended to carry out its pan-Germanic scheme for a German empire extending from the North sea to the Persian gulf and at the same time to make Russia its handmaiden. German ambitions were even greater and more vaunting that has been generally realized.

It is Germany against decency.

Sir Rabindranath Tagore, the noted Indian poet, is accused of having been connected with pro-German plots in India, What a code a man could conceal in a name like that.

Russian exchange shows an extreme depreciation of 75 per cent. That shows to what extent the chaos has hurt Russian credit. It could not possibly do business on that basis with the outside world.

Dr. W. O. Rose, M. P. P., did well in his speech in the legislature at Victoria to call attention to the fact that the interior, as well as the coast, deserves consideration how that the question of the development of the iron ore deposits of the province are under consideration. East Kootenay has large deposits of iron ore and, of first importance from a smelting viewpoint, they are close to the coal fields. The interior, if electric smelting is a factor in the situation, also possesses the advantage of having immense developed and undeveloped water power.

WHAT THE PRESS IS SAYING

Bolshevikism Defined.

Toryism would "maintain the established order;" democracy would invite the maid of all work to the family councils and the common table; Bolshevikism would put the maid in the parlor and relegate the family to the kitchen and the coalbin.—Chicago Daily News.

Not Very Illuminating.

There was nothing very illuminating in Lieut.-Gov. Brett's address at the opening of the legislature with respect to the sessional program. Incidentally, why the speech at all? Would it not be quite as effective and much more democratic for the lieutenant-governor to call the house to order with the minstrel interlocutor's well-remembered request, "Gentlemen, be seated?" —Calgary Herald.

Where Extremes Meet.

Bolsheviki are too terribly in earnest about liberty that whoever differs from the Bolsheviki gets suppressed. —St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

A MILD MEASURE OF REFORM

The civil service bill introduced by the attorney-general of Ontario is good as far as it goes, but it stops short of attacking the patronage evil. It is not a root-and-branch reform—it touches only the branches. The commissioner to be appointed may make patronage more respectable, but he will be the servant of the party, not of the public. Within the limits of the present system he will have an opportunity to effect improvements, but the greatest improvement would be the abolition of the system itself. The new regulations stipulate that no person shall be appointed to any office, clerkship, or service until the commissioner has certified that the appointment is necessary, and the person properly qualified. By means of this rule he may, if he is impartial and otherwise qualified for the post, raise the standard of admission to the civil service. Mr. Proudfoot put his finger on a radical defect when he asked whether the commissioner could consider applications from those who were not recommended to him by the government. The reply shows that the government has no intention of throwing open the doors of the civil service to applicants not of its own choosing.

There is no valid reason why civil service reform should not be as thorough-going in the provincial as in the federal sphere. The Ontario government has refused to follow in the footsteps of the Dominion government because it is not prepared to forego at present a doubtful party advantage. With the extension of the life of the legislature by mutual consent, it would have been an opportune time for the administration to banish partyism and place the public service on a merit basis, subject, of course, to preferential treatment of returned soldiers. The present arrangement cannot be regarded as a finality by civil service reformers.—Toronto Globe.

COLD STORAGE

When little Teddy bumped his head, Uncle Harry gathered the youngster in his arms and said:

"There, I'll kiss it, and then the pain will all be gone."

Cheerfully smiling, the youngster exclaimed:

"Now, Unken Hawy, come down into the kitchen, poor cook has the toothache."

At a certain public school it was the custom for the teachers to write on the blackboard any instructions they desired the janitor to receive.

One evening, while cleaning a room, the janitor saw written:

"Find the greatest common denominator."

"Hello!" he exclaimed. "Is that darned thing lost again?"

Barry was confiding a heart secret to his most intimate friend.

"Yes, Edith accepted me—on one condition, however."

"And what's that?" queried his friend.

"That she doesn't get a better offer between now and spring."

SPEEDING UP IN QUEBEC.

The announcement that the ordinary business of the civil courts in Quebec has been suspended to facilitate the disposal of appeals under the Military Service act in that province will be welcomed as a clear intimation of the government's determination to secure the uniform application of the measure throughout the Dominion.

The suggestion recently made that Class 2 might soon be called undoubtedly occasioned disquiet in some quarters. The contributions which Quebec, exclusive of Montreal, has made to the draft, have been negligible, owing to wholesale exemptions now under review by the appeal judges. A call issued to the second class in these circumstances, without any effort first to speed up the machinery which has yet to dispose of the bulk of Quebec's appeals from the call issued to Class 1, would have done gross injustice to the men of other provinces and would have given to the spirit of obstruction in Quebec a measure of encouragement fatal to the fair enforcement of the law.—Manitoba Free Press.

MEN OF 1837 AND TODAY.

Three young Canadians have furnished a stirring page in Canada's illustrious war annals. The blood in their veins was "rebel" blood. They sprang from sires who, nearly a century ago, were laying the foundation for the most notable and dramatic uprising in the country's history. In 1837 William Lyon Mackeenzie and Louis Joseph Papineau and Samuel Lount rose against Britain in their battle for responsible government. When the present war broke out their actions hastened to her defense for civilization and human liberty.

British cables two days ago carried another list of gallant Canadians decorated for distinguished war service. That list included Major Samuel Kenyon Lount, who received the bar to his previously-won Military Cross. Major Lount enlisted at the outbreak of the war as a private, and went overseas with the 76th battalion. Having secured his commission he proceeded to France in a reinforcement draft, and was despatched to the fighting front. He was wounded on the Somme. On his recovery he returned to service, and has shared in every engagement in which his new battalion took part. At Vimy he won the Military Cross and his captaincy. At Passchendaele he won the bar and his majority. At present he is in a military hospital "worn out."

Major Lount is the only surviving son of the late Samuel Lount, registrar at Barrie. In that town his widowed mother and sister now live. He is also a grandnephew of Samuel Lount, one of the outstanding figures in the stirring times of 1837, who might have saved his life had he chosen to reveal the names of those who took part with him in that historic rising.

Major Lount is the third link in the blood tie that binds the "rebels" of that uprising to the patriots of the great war of today. Major Charles Bethune Lindsey, D. S. O., son of Mr. G. G. S. Lindsey, K. C., who won his decorations on the fields of France, is the great-grandson of William Lyon Mackenzie. Major Talbot Papineau of the Princess Patricias, who won the Military Cross, was more than once mentioned in despatches, and finally gave his life in heroic service on the battlefield, was the grandson of Louis Joseph Papineau.

It is to the glory of these young Canadians—descendants of the men of the history yesterday who fought Britain in the cause of responsible government—that they were among the first to spring to her defense in the cause of liberty and justice. The names of Mackenzie, Papineau and Lount loom large in the history of the past. The names of their young descendants add lustre to the new pages being written in the stressful present.—Toronto Globe.

CREW OF ANDANIA BEHAVED BRAVELY

Thrilling Story of Torpedoing of Cunard Liner Told By Vancouver Survivor

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

VANCOUVER, B. C., March 1.—"Being torpedoed by a submarine on an Atlantic liner even under the most favorable circumstances does not give one an appetite for more of the same thing," declared Harold Seddon of the city, who was aboard the big Cunarder Andania when that ship was given her death stroke Jan .27, when one day out from Liverpool and with the Scottish coast still discernible.

"The terrible shock of the explosion is indescribable," says Mr. Seddon.

"The list that the boat takes and the difficulty in launching the life craft even in smooth water, and the grisly sight of the submarine's periscope meandering around among the lifeboats with the uncanny knowledge that Hun captains have fired upon defenseless passengers even before this, really affords no compensation for being able to tell friends of experiences."

Seddon takes issue with newspaper accounts to the effect that a perfect calm prevailed upon the torpedoed liner; neither was he impressed with the behavior of the ship's stewards, but he declares that the crew acquitted itself with credit.

There was no sign of a submarine before the fatal blow was struck.

"The signal was given to 'lower away' the boats available, many of them having been wrecked by the explosion. As soon as they were launched we discerned the periscope of the attacking diver coming on cutting a wake as she traveled about five knots an hour in and out among us, passing around the stern of the Andania, where the diver gradually submerged. It was surmised that the submarine was attempting to read the name of the vessel on the stern, for our lifeboats were of an assortment that gave no clear clue."

The survivors were picked up by trawlers within an hour. The Andania remained afloat for nine hours.

BOTHA DECLARES STAND FOR EMPIRE

South Africa's Future Depends Upon It, Premier Says in Defending Gen. Smuts

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

CAPE TOWN, South Africa, March 1.—(Via Reuter's Ottawa Agency.)—The Union of South Africa assembly has adopted Gen. Botha's motion to grant Gen. Smuts leave of absence by a vote of 7 to 22. The minority consisted of Nationalists.

Premier Botha defended Gen. Smuts against criticisms for acquiescing in decisions on minor war questions affecting South Africa. He challenged the Nationalists to say that they were not a part of the British Empire. They might either do their duty or establish a republic. He intended to stand by the Empire because he realized that South Africa's future and prosperity depended upon it.

LIEUT.-COL. MACHIN GETS NEW POSITION

Made Director of Military Service Branch of Department of Justice

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

OTTAWA, March 1.—Official announcement is made today of the appointment of Lieut.-Col. Machin as director of the military service branch of the department of justice. He has since its creation been a member of the military service council. In his capacity as director, the announcement reads, Lieut.-Col. Machin "will administer the branch as a executive officer subject to departmental directions, the duties of the military service council and Lieut.-Col. Machin, as one of its members, remaining as heretofore."

A further statement issued by E. L. Newcombe, chairman of the military service council, states that "there has been no reorganization of the branch, involving a redistribution of duties among the members of the military service council or otherwise. The council remains, and is intended to remain, constituted as heretofore, and the joint and individual responsibilities of the members of the council continue the same."

After praying in a Brooklyn church, a Toledo woman, who had been looking for her son for six years, walked out and found him.

A special school for United States chaplains is to be established at Fortress Monroe.

CLAIMS HIGHER RATES JUSTIFIED

Counsel for Railways Speaks at Inquiry—Government Control Urged by Opposition

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

OTTAWA, March 1.—The hearing of the appeal from the judgment of the railway board granting an increase of approximately 15 per cent in freight and passenger rates was concluded before the cabinet this afternoon.

Hon. N. W. Rowell, president of the privy council, who presided in the absence of Sir Robert Borden, expressed the thanks of the government to those who had expressed their views and promised that the representations made would receive consideration.

Counsel for the railways strongly objected to any interference with the decision of the railway board. They claimed that the board had rendered judgment only after full and impartial consideration of all the circumstances. They argued that operating costs had increased so much that unless some relief were afforded they would be unable to meet their obligations.

Oppose C. P. R. As Test

On behalf of the Canadian Pacific railway, it was argued that its financial condition should not be taken as a test for the regulation of railway rates. The unsuccessful, as well as the successful, companies should be considered.

In a general reply, Mr. Symington, representing the petitioners, pressed his plea that all the lines should be unified during the war. He claimed that while the allies wanted wheat, interior elevators in the west were loaded with grain which could not be moved for lack of transportation facilities. He urged government control of rails as the best solution of the existing railway problem.

R. Mackenzie, on behalf of the Canadian council of agriculture, supported this view, while N. G. Noel advocated complete and immediate nationalization of all railways.

Says Rates Less in U. S.

A. E. Boyle, secretary of the Winnipeg board of trade, quoted extensively from rate schedules to show that for equal distances, the United States railways carry traffic at lower rates than the railways of Canada. Taking up the question of losses sustained by diversion of traffic and bad management, he said this was a question to be worked out by the government with the assistance of experts.

Hon. F. B. Carvell asked Mr. Boyle if he had any figures to show the saving that could be effected by coordination in railway effort.

"No man can calculate the loss caused by present methods," Mr. Boyle replied.

R. Mackenzie, secretary of the Canadian council of agriculture, said that the body which he represented was opposed to the judgment of the railway board because it was not a solution of the railway problem. The judgment would give the Canadian Pacific railway 13 to 20 million dollars per annum in increased earnings and the Grand Trunk and Canadian Northern railways only about $5,000,000. This was not sufficient to meet their needs.

Mr. Mackenzie maintained that the physical condition of the Canadian Northern railway line between Winnipeg and Port Arthur was such as to greatly reduce its hauling power. "We object," he said, "to such a line being made the standard for the fixing of rates."

Not Question of Rates.

Referring to the prosperity of the Canadian Pacific railway Mr. Mackenzie said that the people of Canada should not be called upon to pay dividends upon the proceeds from the land grants to that company. The railway problem, he said, was not a question of rates, but of government policy. The government should decide what is to be done with the railways that have fallen down.

LANGLEY CENTENARIAN, JOSEPH MAYO, DEAD

Was One of Party That Met Steamers Otter and Beaver at Hudson's Bay Fort

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

NORTH VANCOUVER, B. C., March 1.—Joseph Mayo, born in Langley, B. C., 100 years and eight months ago, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. P. Hernandez, last night. His father was a Hawaiian, the first to arrive on the coast of North America. In his early days, Joseph Mayo followed trapping and hunting and when the Hudson's Bay company established its fort at Langley he assisted in its construction. The dead pioneer was one of the party that met the steamer Otter and the steamer Bever, when these vessels arrived at the fort with Governor Douglas, Rear-Admiral Gaynes and other distinguished visitors for the purpose of establishing the mainland capital. On Nov. 19 the Union Jack was floated over the fort. Aside from Mrs. Hernandez, he leaves another daughter, Mrs. C. Champion, who lives in Spokane.

HUNS WANT RUMANIAN KING TO ABDICATE

LONDON, March 1.—Among the terms of peace communicated to King Ferdinand of Rumania by the central powers was a demand that Ferdinand abdicate in favor of his brother, Prince William of Hohenzollern. Prince William renounced all claim to the throne on the accession of his uncle, Prince Charles.

He was in command of a part of the Teutonic army which invaded Rumania in 1916, and at that time issued a proclamation declaring himself the rightful heir to the throne.

WHY ARE SO MANY PHYSICALLY UNFIT?

By William A. Griffiths, Phm. B.

Did you ever stop to think why so few of our men recently examined for military service have been able to qualify in Class A, which means "In good physical condition?" The fact is much less than one-half of our young men are placed in his class.

The large percentage of men physically disqualified by the examining boards does not reflect creditably on the health of the average physical condition of our Canadian people.

This should engage the serious attention of every man or woman and cause them to look into the condition of their individual health, as there never was a time when healthy, strong, robust men and women could make themselves so useful to their country and homes as at present.

The government demands efficient men and nurses for overseas service and in no less degree should these same results be looked for in the men and women engaged in the regular home and business pursuits of everyday life.

Health is undoubtedly our greatest national asset and at this most trying time in the history of the world should be our first consideration. Efficiency was never more needed in all vocations than at the present time.

Your physician will tell you that practically every form of physical deficiency can be originally traced to one source, and that is accumulated waste in the colon, or large intestine. This accumulation acts as a gradual poison to the system and is known in medical practise as Auto-Intoxication, and results from imperfect elimination or constipation.

The great disadvantage is that nature does not warn us that our system is gradually being poisoned by this accumulated waste matter—until some physical trouble sets in. Constipation, Biliousness, Intestinal Indigestion, Headaches, Nervousness, sleeplessness, Rheumatism, Skin Eruptions, Impure Blood, Kidney Trouble, High Blood Pressure, Hardening of the Arteries, Appendicitis and many other serious disorders are traced to this one source, which could all have been avoided had the colon been kept in a clean and healthy condition.

This gradual poisoning of the system sometimes goes on for years without making itself felt until all power of resistance is overthrown and then some form of disease is readily contracted.

Our present mode of living is, I believe largely accountable for most ill-health. We eat too much, work sitting most of the time, do not take sufficient of the right kind of out-of-door exercise and in other ways do not heed the demands of nature.

There is only one way to assist Nature and keep the system at all times free from any possible accumulation of poisonous matter and that is not by the use of drugs of any kind, but in a more pleasant and natural way. Bathing internally. By means of purified warm water the Colon (or large intestine) can be kept clean and free from any accumulated waste, as nature demands it should be for perfect health.

I firmly believe not only from personal experience but from that of thousands of others, that if this practise of internal bathing by the "J. B. L. Cascade" was resorted to by mostly every person the average life would not only be prolonged many years but on account of the resulting healthy condition of our bodies, our lives would be so much more enjoyable and nine-tenths of the present suffering and doctors' bills would be avoided.

The "J. B. L. Cascade" is an original and efficient appliance for internal bathing invented and perfected by Dr. Chas. A. Tyrrell of New York. Hundreds of our best physicians use it in their practise and for the benefit of their own personal health. It is the most convenient and cleanly appliance ever devised for this purpose and the only one which when using leaves both hands free to massage the abdomen which is most necessary in accomplishing the desired results.

Dr. Tyrrell has not only restored his own health some twenty years ago by internal bathing but has prolonged his life some fifteen years beyond that predicted by his physicians and has since devoted all his studies and energies in this direction. The doctor has published a wonderful and interesting book on the subject, called, "The What, the Why, the Way of Internal Bathing" which he will gladly send you absolutely free if you mention having read this article in The Nelson News. Address Dr. Chas. A. Tyrrell, room 808, 153 College street, Toronto, Ont., and the book will come to you by return mail.

Internal bathing during the past twenty years has done more to restore health and lessen disease than all other means combined and the enormous demand for the "J. B. L. Cascade" has been created mostly by those who use it, recommending to their friends. If you want to be healthy always, bathe internally, or at least write for the book mentioned above and you can learn much more on this subject that will certainly be to your advantage.

HIGHER SALARIES FOR CLERGY URGED

Conditions Discreditable to Country in Which Pioneer Ministers Have Done So Well

Why does the Christian ministry not attract more young men of talent? The question is often asked, says a writer. Bishop Gray has pointed out that the salary of the mass on clergyman in the towns is $900 per year, and in the country $800. It is inconceivable that anyone could ever have entered the ministry as a money-making proposition, despite what malevolent and ill informed cynics sometimes say along this line. But a man, however unselfish his motives may be, has a right to a financial reward which will give him something like a decent living. The wonder is that so much excellent service is given under these conditions. They are discreditable to the country in which pioneer clergymen have done so well. At a time when we are hearing much about wages in other occupations, Bishop Gray's statement should not be overlooked.

FEWER ATHEISTS

Some years ago there were many men pronounced atheists; they did not believe there was any God, nor did they believe in the supernatural in any sense; they were materialists. At the present time, says Rev. Dr. T. S. Linscott, I do not know any man of outstanding ability who will say there is no God. There may be such man but if so, they are not very well known. The type of mind which, in the past, adopted atheism as its creed, is now agnostic, that is, these men will not say there is, nor will they say there is not a God; they content themselves by saying that they do not know. With a little more scientific investigation, and a little deeper thinking, most of them will come to admit that God is.

The belief in Jehovah, while based upon reason and common sense, is more an intuition than a reasoned conclusion. When men are true to human instinct they believe in God as naturaly as ducks take to water. Jesus was God manifest in the flesh, and he lived a life, and manifested a character such as the best of men have always ascribed to divinity. He spake of his father in such a natural and self-manifest way, that he has profoundly impressed thinking men from then until now with the fact of God. As these thinkers have studied the wonderful life of Jesus they have drawn to him, and whenever they have become his followers, believing in God has become to them as natural as breathing.

A multitude of things which were not dreamed of in the past, and which when hinted at were thought not to be possible, are now matters of assured certainty. The telescope the microscope, the testing tube, and scientific experiments, have demonstrated things which were thought to be impossible. Who would have thought possible a hundred years ago the telephone, and the flying machine? Who would have thought of the existence of life as evidenced in biology? These are but samples of thousands of other things which have made the impossible become the facts of every-day experience. Every advance in science in every department is a step nearer to the absolnte proof of the existence of God.

TO REAP YOU MUST SOW

A great many people are trying to harvest crops which they never have taken the trouble to sow the seed. They want positions and preferment for which they never have qualified themselves. And they want friendship and the goodwill of their fellows, but they do not seem to understand that these are precious fruits not indigenous to every soil, but growing where love and unselfish kindness have been sown. The harvests of material welfare, of mental wealth, of the treasures of the heart, and the soul's garnering of faith, peace and eternal life come all of them from the seed-sowing that has preceded them. It is useless to look for the harvest where there never has been a seed-time.

Walking alongthe Trongate in Glasgow a visitor saw a crowd, and asked what the trouble was.

"Flaflafflarry," he answered.

"What?"

"Flaflafflary."

He shook his head and turned to another man:

"What's the trouble here, friend?"

"Flaflafflarry," this chap, too, answered.

"I can't make you out."

A third Glasgowegian glowered at the stranger:

"Ho t mon, yer a fule!" he hissed. "I heerd 'em tellin' ye fower times over that a fella fell off a lorry!"

WAR FLOUR VEILS IDENTITY TWO WEEKS

Edward Kerr Buys New Grade, and Nobody at Home Knows Anything About It

One of the striking features about the new war flour is its sameness to the old kind. At the home of Edward Kerr it was used for over a week before they knew they had it.

"Nobody would have known then if I hadn't told them," Mr. Kerr said, last evening. "We ran out of flour about two weeks ago, so I dropped into a store and bought some of the new flour. Somehow I didn't mention it, and no one knew anything about it. I gave the secret away a day or two ago."

The only difference is that the baking is a little darker. As far as the material difference is concerned there is none at all, Mr. Kerr observed. Several city families who have tried out the new brand report the same finding. That the new standard bread is just as good as the kind that has been used, is the opinion of all of those who have used the war flour.

SHOULD NOT WAIT TILL FAMINE COMES

We Are Just Shirkers if We Do Not Help Right Now in Conservation

All kinds of economies are being practised in the motherland, of which we are quite conscious, writes Helen Ball in the Toronto Daily News. In England the shortage of paper is such that some people have actually resorted to the ancient custom of merely folding the letter and sealing with sealing wax, thus avoiding the use of envelopes. In other cases they gum labels on old envelopes. There are no half sheets of note paper wasted now.

Soap is another commodity which is not easy to procure. In many shops a customer can get only one pound at a time. It is prophesied that as the output of margarine increases, that of soap will diminish, because palm kernel oil in England is used for both. Soap, it is urged, must not be wasted.

Hundreds of people in England have been fined for hoarding food. When suspicion attaches to any person, actual search for the food is made in the houses.

The slaughtering of horses to provide food is going on. This fact merely gets a brief announcement in the London daily press, but the significance should not be lost sight of by Canadians.

We talk—talk—talk a great deal about food conservation, but could we not do—do—do—do something definite and practical?

Are YOU using carrots and onions, instead of canned vegetables, in your house?

If not, why not? It seems hard to get it home to us that there are more forms of disloyalty than being a shirker who evades fighting.

And just at present one shirker is the woman—or the family—that does not use carrots and onions. It sounds foolish, perhaps you think, to associate anything so mundane as carrots with a thing so lofty as loyalty. But ask any returned man if he had any things of the earth, earthy, which he had to endure in his service in the trenches. Mud—rats—soaked garments—army biscuit, all sorts of wretchedness our men have known in their everyday loyalty. Incidentally what do you suppose any man in the trenches would say if he was offered fried onions or creamed carrots in place of bully beef.

For one thing he would have learned from experience and the lack of these fresh foods, their importance to health.

If we are not assisting—not only once a week, but three or four times a week—in utilizing the surplus vegetables on hand, then we are nothing but shirkers.

If we eat these vegetables—we probably eat less bread, and conserve even that little bit for overseas. And it is the thousand of little conservations that go to make up the provisions which will keep that gaunt spectre, famine, from our allies and our motherland overseas.

Everyone who has any definite knowledge about food conditions over there talks very seriously about the conditions. When we realize that it actually rests with us to prevent famine is there one of us who will not do her part? It will not only be stupid but wicked, if we wait until famine has come before we fall in line, and help to our limit in conservation of food.

CRESTON, B. C., March 1.—War flour made its appearance in Creston this week, the Farmers' Institute getting in a shipment for its trade. It sells at 10 cents a hundred cheaper than the standard brand previously handled. Those who have used it say the bread thus made is in every way equal to the prewar flour staff of life.

CONSERVING FOOD.

I took an axe and killed nine rats, and left them in their gore;
and then I borrowed Johnson's cats and killed a dozen more. And thus I did more lasting good, the kind of good that pays, than I could by shunning food on meatless, wheatless days. We gladly do without our steak, and our accustomed bread; we're trusting that our course will make the kaiser soak his head. But what's the use if we allow the rats to be alive? The grain they eat each day, I swow, would make an army thrive. So let us have a ratless day, a day on which we'll rise, and chase the beastly rats and slay until the last one dies. Then we'll conserve to beat the band, and feed the largest host, and every man in this broad land may have his loaf and roast. No meatless days or wheatless days we'll need to win the war, if we get busy and erase the pest all men abhor. While men are tightening their belts, and knowing hunger's pain, the nasty rats, doggone their pelts, are eating up our grain. And so I take down from its perch the sword of Bunker Hill, and through the house for rats I search, and kill, and kill, and kill. —Walt Mason in Manitoba Free Press.

HOW PRIVATE TOMMY HOLMES WON HIS V. C.

OWEN SOUND.—In a letter received here from Lieut. J. M. Dobie, the officer commanding the company in which Pte. Tommy Holmes, V.C., eighteen years old, won his honors, the full details of the heroic exploit are given.

It was at Passchendale that the unprecendented act of heroism took place. The morning of the attack the first wave, consisting of two companies of the battalion, had gone forward, had captured their first objective, and were consolidating the captured position. While they were still making their position secure, the second wave went through them, moving up the slope to the second objective, which was the crest of the ridge.

This wave included a company in which was Tommy Holmes. Ploughing through the mud and water, plugging from shell-hole to shell-hole, advancing over ground swept by a relentless fire from rifle and machine-gun, they went forward, but that death dealing hail of bullets was taking an awful toll. Finally, in order to save themselves from what seemingly was going to be complete annihilation, they were forced to take cover in convenient shell-holes. Unceasingly the enemy fire raked the ground where they were, and over which they had to pass in order to reach the position that had been assigned to them to take.

Observers Cause of Hold-Up

It was during this halt that Holmes noticed that the fire which was holding up his company came from a concrete pill-box fort on their right flank. Inside the pill-box the Hun sniper and sharpshooters were keeping up a steady fire from the loopholes, while just beside the pill-box two machine-gun crews, with their guns, had taken up a position, and it was quite apparent that it was the fire from these guns that had temporarily checked his company's advance.

Armed only with a Mills bomb, and without waiting for an order from anyone, his comrades crouching in the shell-holes saw Holmes rush forward through the hail of bullets and spring into a shell-hole some yards ahead of the company. A moment later he appeared, and on he rushed again, and again he disappeared. He did this several times, each little spurt bringing him closer to the Hun machine guns.

Watchers Were Spellbound

The sight of the lad's slight figure making straight for the guns held the men behind who were watching him spellbound, thinking that he could not possibly get through the terrific fire. Every time he showed himself the fire grew more intense, and bullets pattered around him and tore up the mud and dirt, but apparently he bore a charmed life.

As Holmes got nearer to the guns he noticed that occasionally there was a lull of a few seconds in the firing of one or the other of the guns, and he knew that each pause indicated that the crews were changing the belts—in other words, reloading their guns. Then suddenly there came a moment when both guns ceased firing simultaneously. Holmes knew what it

WHEAT FROM COAST REACHES BRITAIN

First Stage Reached in Experiment Which May Mean Much for Canadian West.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

OTTAWA, March 1.—With the arrival of the steamer War Viceroy in England at London on Feb. 16, with a cargo of wheat from Vancouver via the Panama canal, the first stage has been completed in an experiment which may have far reaching benefits for the great grain producing areas of western Canada.

In the summer of 1917, Sir George Foster, the minister of trade and commerce, arranged with the British authorities to use the steamer War viceroy, which was built on the Pacific coast for the British government, to take a trial shipment of wheat to England via the Panama canal. Instructions were, therefore, sent to the board of grain commissioners at Fort William to load the steamship and to take every possible precaution that full data should be obtained as to the condition in which the grain was shipped, and for this purpose to send an officer on the voyage, from the grain laboratory of the department, so that from the beginning to the end of the voyage all information might be duly recorded. For this purpose electric thermometers were installed in the ship in order to closely watch the grain and make all possible observations in connection therewith.

The grain was sampled at Calgary and placed under laboratory supervision when removed from the elevator to the cars. Samples were again taken at Vancouver as the boat was loading, and the moisture subsequently determined on these samples by the laboratory at Winnipeg.

The War Viceroy cleared from Vancouver on Nov. 14 last, for Nanaimo, whence she sailed on the 16th, making a call at Portland. She thus took 92 days to complete the voyage to London from Canada. She had 100,000 bushels of wheat on board.

A full report is expected in due course from the special officers who accompanied this shipment to England.

AT THE THEATRES

Billy Oswald, Noted Comedian Coming

Billy Oswald, the famous Scottish comedian who plays the part of the henpecked husband in "Henpecked Henry," is without doubt the best and most favorably known comedian in Canada. His early theatrical training was received in Scotland but for the past few years he has been seen in Canada with such attractions as "Aladdin," "The Girl from Nowhere," "Florodora," etc. Mr. Oswald with his attraction has been surrounded with a number of first class artists, including Katherine Sheldon, an old favorite in western Canada, Beatrice Carmen, another former members of the Aladdin company, Claire Coupet, Chas. Bates, Phil Ainsworth and a big "Sunshine Girls" chorus. The plot of the play is farcial and deals with the trials and tribulations of a henpecked husband, who incessantly gets into a number of compromising situations that cause further henpecking, much to his disgust. The story is told in a very novel and out of the ordinary way and is a scream from start to finish. A number of the late song hits will be interpolated during the action of the piece, by the different principals of the company and the "Sunshine Girls' chorus." The United Producing Company, Limited, which is controlling this attraction, is offering it to theatre patrons with full confidence that it will prove a decided novelty and will give more than usual satisfaction. It will be seen at the opera house one night only, Thursday, March 7.

Russia's Recent History.

"The Fall of the Romanoffs," which is coming to the Gem theatre on Monday and Tuesday,, with a matinee Monday at 2:30 p. m., is without a parallel both from the point of view of the subject and the photography. Russia's history for the past 15 years is vividly told. All the characters, who by their ruthless deeds helped to bring about the state of affairs which led up to the revolution are shown as in actual life. Rasputin, the most notorious of these characters, his life and death and those with whom he was associated, are met face to face. Illodor, the "mad monk," appears personally in the picture, and it was many facts which he was able to bring from Russia that formed the basis of this truly historical drama.

Female Impersonator at Starland.

Hailed by women as the most beautiful example of their sex, Julian Eltinge, the famous feminine impersonator, will be seen at the Starland theatre on Monday. This is his initial Paramount appearance, in a scenario written especially for him by Carolyn Wells and Gelett Burgess. For a number of years Mr. Eltinge has made a sensation on the stage by the number and gorgeousness of his gowns and it is said that in his first photodramtic production he introduces an entirely new wardrobe of unusual variety and style.

Following Massachusetts's example, the state of New Jersey has passed a law compelling idle dollars to turn their hand to useful work.

CLAIMS HIGHER RATES JUSRIFIED

alization of railways," said Mr. Mackenzie, "we believe that the present situation should be met by the government taking control of all the railways and operating them as one system."

Mr. Carvell asked if the council of agriculture would favor increased rates if it were found that the revenues were not sufficient.

"Put the roads into proper condition. Then if they do not meet expenses impose an additional tax on the traffic," Mr. Mackenzie replied.

Urges Nationalization.

W. G. Neil, on behalf of the Western Retail Merchants' association, advocated the immediate nationalization of every mile of railway in Canada. He believed that if the government would guarantee interest on bonds to cover the cost of the railways, the people of Canada would buy the bonds just as readily as they purchased Victory bonds.

F. H. Phippen, K. C., challenged a statement made by Mr. Symington to the effect that the condition of the Canadian Northern railway tracks between Winnipeg and Fort William is such that wrecks are a daily occurrence. He quoted Mr. McLeod, general traffic manager, as having stated under oath at the Toronto inquiry into the value of the Canadian Northern railway stock that this was not so. For the three months ending November, 1917, the Canadian Northern had moved 23,875 cars between Winnipeg and Fort William or only 89 less than during the same period in 1916.

Mr. Symington said his authority for the statement was a report made to the railway board. This concluded the hearing.

WANTS NATURAL RESOURCES CONTROLLED BY ALBERTA

Retention of Indian Reserve Lands Sold Urged for Soldier Settlement Scheme.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

EDMONTON, Alta., March 1.—Possession of Alberta of its natural resources in order that the coal industry particularly might be properly developed was advocated by J. L. Cote, Grouard, in continuing in the legislature this afternoon the debate on the conference of the western premiers at Ottawa.

Martin Woolf, Cardston, having brought to the notice of the house that the 100,000 acres of the Blood Indian reserve had been sold to the government, on the motion of George Hoadley, Okotoks, it was decided to send in accordance with the action of the legislature on Thursday, a memorial to Ottawa requesting that all Indian reserve lands sold should be retained for the purpose of the soldier land settlement scheme.

The Ontario government is appointing a general purchasing agent.

With Fingers! Corns Lift Off

Doesn't hurt a bit to lift any corn or callus right off. Try it!

For a few cents you can get a small bottle of the magic drug freezone recently discovered by a Cincinnati man.

Just ask at any drug store for a small bottle of freezone. Apply a few drops upon a tender, aching corn or callus and instantly all soreness disappears and shortly you will find the corn or callus so loose that you lift it off with the fingers.

Just think! Not one bit of pain before applying freezone or afterwards. It doesn't even irritate the surrounding skin.

Hard corns, soft corns or corns between the toes, also hardened calluses on bottom of feet, shrivel up and fall off without hurting a particle. It is almost magical.

Ladies! Keep a tiny bottle on the dresser and never let a corn or callus ache twice.

OVERSEAS TROOPS IN GREAT BRITAIN

By Rev. Alured F. Ozanne

Their uniform is so similar to that worn by the sailors of the Royal Navy that the casual observer might take them for men belonging to the British fleet. Not until they have passed can one see the two stars in the bottom corners of their collars, and not every pedestrian cares to look behind him in the present crowded state of the streets. Every day these little groups of American bluejackets can be seen "doing London."

They are given leave in batches of about 80 at a time, and the hour that their train is due to arrive in London is telegraphed beforehand to the American Y. M. C. A. headquarters, in order that they may be met by officials of that institution. The men are guided to the Y. M. C. A. hut, where they can obtain good and cheap board and lodging. If a man does not want to have too much cash in his possession, he can leave the balance of his money in the charge of the secretary, a wise precaution which many of the men are very glad to take.

Motor char-a-bancs are at the disposal of those who want to go sightseeing, and it is becoming one of the regular features of London to see these vehicles, laden with the boys from the U. S. A. going along the embankment bound for the abbey and the houses of parliament, or sometimes towards the Tower of London. Those who know tell us that the tower has a special attraction for the visitors from across the Atlantic, and no American bluejacket considers that his trip to London has been a success unless he has seen this relic of a sterner age.

American residents in London and Londoners themselves are alike bent on making these men feel at home during their brief visits. There are very many houses in London where the sailor or soldier from the States is always sure of finding a welcome. A list of such houses is kept at the Y. M. C. A. hut, and the men always know where to go. One of them told the writer, only a few days ago, that he was never given a chance of feeling "lonesome;" in fact, said he, if a chap was out of sorts it was hardly possible for him to go off by himself and have a good "grouse" at things in general.

There are plenty of good, healthy attractions for these visitors to London. The men say that the "movies" in London compare favorably with those of New York. They are astonished, too, at the restaurants in London, where for a reasonable sum they can sit down to a really well appointed table, whereas at home they would have to lunch at the counter.

They are pleased with London and London is pleased with them, for the behaviour of the men, as a whole, is exemplary. We are informed on good authority that the cases of drunkenness which occur during these trips to London do not emount to 3 per cent. This is a fact which speaks well for the training and discipline of the United States navy, and for the steadiness and trustworthiness of the men themselves.

Of course London, like every other city in the world, has its temptations, but particularly in these days of rigidly enforced war time restrictions, they certainly are not more numerous than those of New York or any other large capital, and it is just as easy to get into trouble in America as in England. In England, owing to the present liquor control regulations, the few men who are out for liquor find a great difficulty in obtaining it. They often do not know the strictly limited hours for the sale of liquor, but no matter what the circumstances, they find that the restrictions are most rigidly enforced.

But on the whole the American visitors are very sensible men and as the rules of their service do not permit them to drink liquor in America, they do not drink it in England. As regards the others, a very small minority, be it understood, the opinion of those who are competent to judge is that even in America they will find ways and means to set served with liquor, and no amount of legislation will deter them from their purpose. As a quartermaster of the American navy told the writer, there are other ways of buying a drink that by going into a saloon. In such cases the blame lies neither with the service nor with the country which befriends them, but with the men themselves.

Whooping Cough

"The disease I most dread is Whooping Cough, for children are often permanently injured by the awful straining of the cough. You should never neglect it, and treatment should be started at the first symptom. You cannot mistake the symptoms: protracted coughing, worse at night; peculiar whoop; labored expectoration of mucus; apparent suffocation after coughing.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a positive remedy for this disease—repeat the dose frequently, for if given freely it liquifies the tough mucus, makes it easy to expectorate and counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. There is no danger whatever from Whooping Cough when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is freely given."

Yours for Health.—Granny Chamberlain

Elko Notes by Fred Roo

Most editors fight the paper borrowing habit, but Jim Thistlebeak says if you don't take this paper, borrow it from your neighbor. You don't know what mention you might get in its columns, and the only thing that makes money without advertising is the mint, and you cannot afford to miss reading these notes.

Notable among the social events of the week was the annual meeting of Elk Canyon chapter of the I. O. D. E., which was held at the home of Mrs. L. Foisy, Cardigan place, Canyon park. The new officers were elected as follows: Regent, Mrs. H. C. Waters; first vice-regent, Mrs. Thomas Roberts; second vice-regent, Mrs. Raymond G. Hirtz; secretary-treasurer, Miss E. May Roo; standard bearer, Mrs. Eli Cooper. There was a large attendance and the affair passed off as smoothly as a Wednesday evening prayer meeting. At the close of the meeting, which was voted one of the best ever held in this historic burg, Mrs. Foisy, assisted by the newly appointed officers, entertained them all to a most delightful tea, which was greatly enjoyed by all present.

Outsiders might not suspect it, but the town of Kelly, on the Grand Trunk Pacific railway, is settled chiefly by HUNS.

George Mallet, who owns the Carnation restaurant in the Hoffman block, had the George Earle company of decorators and the flower garden wall paper hangers of Fernie down last week fixing up the eating corral, and making other improvements.

One of the lumberjacks working near Elko sent his clothes to the laundry and forgot he had left his watch in his shirt pocket. The wringer changed the appearance of the timepiece considerably, but it is still keeping accurate time.

J. L. McKenny of Calgary was down to Elko this week, the guest of O. C. Thompson, manager of the Burton mine.

The patriotic dance at the Roosville school house last Saturday night was well attended and a financial success. These Saturday night dances are getting to be very popular, as Sunday gives the boys a chance to rest up.

On with the dance, let joy be unconfined.

Miss Irene McKee, postmistress, Elko, is just in receipt of a letter from Sergt. James Osborne, well known along the Crow, and who for years worked with the B. and B. department of the C. P. R. and also with the B. C. government bridge crew, but who, at the time he enlisted, was head mixologist and wine steward at the Waldorf hotel, Fernie. Thirty-one months in the trenches, he is now with the British military mission at Camp Dodge, Iowa, U.S.A., instructing the Sammies for overseas service.

O. C. Thompson, manager of the Burton mine, Elko, was down the Roosville valley looking over some of the copper properties down in that El Dorado.

An old lady in Spokane, Wash., who wished to back up Hoover, the United States food controller, in every way she could, said to a lady friend, "When Mr. Hoover said he wanted every housewife to save a loaf of bread every week, I made up my mind to do just what he wanted. I have now saved a loaf every week for 26 weeks, and I wish Mr. Hoover would tell me what he wants me to do with the loaves."

J. Broley of Sunkist orchards, Roosville, was in Elko this week.

T Letcher of the Square Deal ranch, Roosville valley, is logging on Red Canyon creek for the Downs and Rinecke Lumber company. Alex McIntosh, champion mouth harp soloist, is the chief roller and canthook man.

The rubber men are out in full force this week from the prairie provinces and coast points and are still stretching the price on account of the war, with 20 per cent off for cash.

Fred Roo is down at Flagstone and Roosville this week with the intention of putting in a portable mill on his timber limits, and will plant the clearing to sunflower seed and two handled pumpkins.

Chief Okum, alias Fred Ryckman, of Cranbrook, passed through Elko on his way to Tobacco plains, Indian reserve.

Lemons Beautify! Make Quarter Pint of Lotion, Cheap

What girl or woman hasn't heard of lemon juice to remove complexion blemishes; to bleach the skin and to bring out the roses, the freshness and the hidden beauty? But lemon juice alone is acid, therefore irritating and should be mixed with orchard white this way: Strain through a fine cloth the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing about three ounces of orchard white, then shake well and you have a whole quarter pint of skin and complexion lotion at about the cost one usually pays for a small jar of ordinary cold cream. Be sure to strain the lemon juice so no pulp gets into the bottle then this lotion will remain pure and fresh for months. When applied daily to the face, neck, arms and hands it should help to bleach, clear, smoothen and beautify the skin.

Any druggist will supply three ounces of orchard white at very little cost and the grocer has the lemons.

PROVINCIAL STAFFS TO BE REORGANIZED

Nelson and Cranbrook Are Among Commissioners' Districts That May Be Formed.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

VICTORIA, March 1.—Plans for a complete reorganization of the departmental staffs throughout the province are now being considered by a special committee of the civil service reporting direct to the government.

Under the reorganization scheme now being considered, it is suggested that for the improved operation of the outside service the province be divided into eight commissioner's districts with headquarters at the following places: Cranbrook, Nelson, Penticton, Kamloops, Fort George, Vancouver, Nanaimo and Prince Rupert. Charts are provided to show that under such a scheme the outside service could be reduced from 818 officials to 263. One proposal is to appoint a district commissioner at each centre, who would be the local authority having charge of departmental work of all kinds for that area.

It is regarded as doubtful if the project will be carried through in its entirety, as it is said to be somewhat complex. The difficulty of doing away with the government agents, one in each electoral district, is also realized.

HOW PRIVATE TOMMY HOLMES WON HIS V.C.

meant: that the crews of both guns were reloading at the same instant.

Kills Gun Crews

It was his opportunity, and, quick as a flash, before the Hun machine gunners could get their guns working he rushed forward to within about fifteen yards of them, just in time to take cover in a shell-hole before the hail of bullets from both guns opened on him again. But he was within bombing distance now, and, pulling the pin of the grenade he carried, he hurled it with unerring accuracy into the midst of the Hun machine gunners, then crouched and waited. He had not long to wait. "Ping!" sang out the bomb. At the same instant the firing from both guns ceased, and the groans and shrieks of the wounded and dying Huns told of the havoc the bomb had wrought.

Attacks the Pill-box

But there was still work to be done, for the pill-box remained full of Hun riflemen. Without hesitating a moment, and again risking his life, back Holmes went towards his company, some of whom were beginning to advance again. From the foremost of his comrades he secured another bomb then turned around and ran straight for the pill-box. Through the entrance at the rear he threw the bomb. There was another explosion, and those of the Hun garrison that survived, nineteen in number, came out with their hands up, terrified, shouting "Mercy, Kamerad," and surrendered to their youthful captor, who was standing outside the pill-box alone.

But by this time the company was coming forward, for the Hun resistance in that particular place had been overcome, and that part of the ridge was in the hands of the Canadians, thanks to the heroism of the young Gwen Sounder.

Won Honor Hundred Times Over

Through the remainder of the attack he carried on in the same gallant manner, and when it was over, and his recommendation for a decoration was sent in, there was not a more popular award in the battalion, for those who saw what he did unanimously said he deserved the honor a hundred times over.

Besides his decoration, Pte. Holmes has a little souvenir of the Vimy Ridge battle in the shape of a "wounded" stripe, for he was wounded in that engagement, and got back to France just in time to take part in the action in which he won the V.C.

There Is a Message In This Lady's Story

She Tells What Dodd's Kidney Pills Do for Women.

She Was Troubled with Weakness and Her Daughter Had Nervous Trouble —Dodd's Kidney Pills Proved the Remedy They Both Needed.

HAMILTON, Ont., March 1.—Special.—The story told by Mrs. H. Dickens of 70 Tom street, this city, carries a message of hope to every suffering woman in Canada.

"After my baby was born," Mrs. Dickens states, "I used to suffer with my back and had no heart to do my work around the home. But I read about Dodd's Kidney Pills and what they had done for others, so I thought I would get a box and see what they would do for me.

"I am pleased to say that after taking two boxes I found such great relief I would not be without them in the house.

"My daughter, too, had been very sick on and off for a long time. Her nerves got so bad we were afraid we would see her in the hospital. But I am pleased to say she is better through taking Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"I never thought Dodd's Kidney Pills could have done such good work and I am telling all my friends about them.

Women's troubles, or nearly all of them, come from sick kidneys. The cure for them is the old established remedy for sick kidneys, Dodd's Kidney Pills.

commencement of an advance in Russia.

German Advance Stopped

LONDON, March 1.—According to a despatch received here from a semi-official news agency at Petrograd, dated Thursday, the German offensive has been stopped by serious resistance which has been offered by the revolutionary troops. The despatch says that the Bolsheviki forces are destroying all bridges, railways and roads by which various threatened points may be reached. The troops are proceeding to the front prepared to resist any further attempt on the part of the Germans to advance.

The Germans at some points, particularly at Rosenovsky, are already rebuilding bridges and roads.

Another despatch from Petrograd says the advance on Orsha continues and a battle is expected there between the Germans and thousands of armed workmen who have arrived in the city.

Kaledines Adventure Ends

PETROGRAD, March 1.—The news agency says that Kaledines' adventure has been definitely brought to a close. Rosvo was occupied by the revolutionary troops Monday afternoon after a bloody fray and the Soviet troops then advanced to Novo Tcherkask, which they entered. The enemy retired on Askaiskai, under the command of Generals Alexieff and Korniloff and attempted to withdraw into the interior of the military district of the Don.

RED CROSS MAKES ANOTHER RECORD

Beats Previous Month's Contribution Report, Which Had Held Honors of the Year.

The monthly meeting of the local branch of the Red Cross society was held at the city hall yesterday afternoon. The president's report showed that the month had beaten last month's record, which took first place for the year. The total was 1011 articles completed, 91 having been contributed from outside. This was 192 more than for January. More socks had been knitted than before, 300 pairs being finished, five of which were donated.

The Juniors also reported a record month, beating by 22 articles the previous banner month, which was April 1917. Six hundred and thirty-five articles were handed in through the Pythian Knights and Sisters. Mrs. Laughton was made a life member of the society. The treasurer reported receipts for the month to be $654 64. This, with a balance of $989.01, made a total of $1643.65. SISTER MOTION GOES TO ENGLAND

Toronto Globe Publishes Talk With Nelson Nurse While She Was Staying With Her Sister

TELLS OF WORK IN HOSPITAL

Speaks of Visits of Princess Patricia to Orpington and Her Desire to Help

Nursing Sister Mary Motion, who recently spent a few days in the city with her brother, George F. Motion, left Canada a few days ago on her return to duty at Orpington hospital in England. Since leaving Nelson, Sister Motion has been spending a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. George Wright, at Walker House, Toronto. Before her departure from the Ontario city the following appeared in the Toronto Globe:

"Canadians who know a good deal about the restoration to normal of those soldiers who have lost arms and legs on the battlefront have only the faintest conception of other miracles of surgery that are being wrought in 'blighty.' A brief chat with Nursing Sister Mary Motion of Orpington hospital, who came out with a convoy of 800 returned men recently, and has had a few days leave, gave a little insight into this side of the work.

Prefers Surgery

"Like most nurses, the sister has a preference for surgery, but her real enthusiasms, just now, are for that particular phase of it which has to do with what she calls in professional parlance, 'jaw cases.' These are cases of injury to the face or throat, and the nurse's story is of the marvelous way in which skilled surgery and nature's recuperative power work together to knit the splinter taken from a shin bone into that portion of the nose shattered by a bullet, or into the jaw which has been shot away.

"In the end, when the healing work has been completed, no one would dream that the remade features had once been wreckage, and that the lad, who returns to his home with face unmarred, might have come back terribly disfigured and an object of pity even to his dearest friends, had it not been for the skilled devotion of doctors and nurses.

Visits of the Princess

"Sister Motion is very definite in her conviction that Canadian surgeons are quite the equals of the best in England or on the continent, and declares that Orpington is considered the finest military hospital in England.

"Sister McAdam? Oh, yes, I knew her. Everybody loved her,' exclaimed the sister, 'and we western women are so glad a western government is to hove her help.'

"Among the sister's pleasant reminiscences are stories of the Princess Patricia, who visits Orpington constantly, and has classes in embroidery and other handicrafts.

"'She is so interested,' said the sister, 'and never seems to expect any extra consideration because of her rank—she just counts herself as one of the women trying to do everything possible for our wounded men.'"

WELL KNOWN CITY WOMAN IS BURIED

The funeral service of Mrs. Robert Reid of Fairview was held yesterday afternoon at the Standard undertaking parlors. Rev. D. T. McClintock officiated at the service. Numerous floral tributes were given by relatives and friends.

The pall bearers were: Charles Maltby, Albert Irwin, Ross Fleming, James Robertson, A. Balcom and H. Perrett. Interment was made in Nelson cemetery.

TREADS PATHWAY HE MADE 25 YEARS AGO

Pioneer Prospector, Who Located Yakima Mine in Early Days, Again Walks Trail

C. M. Parker, a mining prospector, walked down Toad mountain to Nelson. It was springtime and it was hard footing even for the sturdy man that he was. He had just staked out a claim on property from which he held hopes of obtaining copper and silver. On his way down the mountain he thought of his boyhood days and the state of Washington. So he decided he would call the new find the "Yakima." That was 25 years ago.

Today, Mr. Parker is 71 years old and a citizen in Idaho. He is in the city at the Hume hotel on business in connection with the Yakima mine. Quite a bit of new work will be started this spring. He has made arrangements for the development to be commenced as soon as the snow goes. When he completed arrangements he walked down Toad mountain to Nelson. It was springtime and hard footing for the sturdy man that he is. He had just been looking over property from which he is obtaining copper and silver. On his way down the mountain he thought of the trip he had made long ago. And this happened yesterday.

Social and Personal

Nelson C.G.I.T. has been granted permission by the school board to use the assembly hall of the school for floor work, which is a part of their program.

F. F. Ratcliff of Medicine Hat is staying at the Hume while in the city in connection with arrangements for spring development at the Yakima mine. Mr. Ratcliff is a prominent business man of Medicine Hat.

During the month of February the Rebekahs finished the following for the Red Cross: 14 pairs of socks, 36 hand towels, 12 suits pyjamas, 10 property bags, 10 pillow slips, 14 operation stockings, 3 day shirts, and 10 arm slings.

Envelopes for a special offering were distributed by the local ministerial association at the Nelson schools. Tomorrow has been set aside as a special offering for destitute children in Palestine, Asia Minor, Syria and Armenia.

The school board will put the high school gymnasium in shape for use by the athletic association. The boys asked permission to put on a dance to raise the required funds, but as the amount would be small the trustees decided to complete the work.

In a letter received in the city from A. E. Graham, mention is made of several of the Kootenay boys who are now battling the Germans in France. Graham says that Johnnie Ferguson, Clyde Emory and Hank Johnson are all getting along well. Tommy Brown of Nelson is doing his bit and "Hoot" Stuart is described as "still on deck and going strong in a labor battalion."

Nelson lodge of the Sons of England has elected the following officers: Past president, W. R. Campion; president, A. Woods; vice-president, P. L. Joy; secretary, W. H. Ramsden; treasurer, William Cutler; chaplain, H. Stirzacker; first commiteeman, A. Cuthbert; second commiteeman, E. Woolls; third commiteeman, H. Townshend; fourth committeeman, F. Rowley; inner guard, A. S. Horswill; auditors, T. L. Bloomer, W. R. Campion and P. L. Joy. The officers were installed by the district deputy, R. G. Joy.

A. E. Miller of Revelstoke was a guest at the Strathcona while in the city last evening.

A. Connelly of Revelstoke, was in the city at the Strathcona last evening on his way to Revelstoke from Rossland where he has been visiting friends for a few days.

At the last meeting of the Sons of England Nelson lodge, a letter from W. J. Astley, ofrmer president, was read. Mr. Astley mentioned that he is now in charge of a Red Cross boat on the Tigris and that he met Capt. McKinnon of Nelson about every two weeks and that they together enjoyed reading The Daily News. E. Norman, Jr., of Mirror Lake, he stated, was with him.

As the result of a meeting last night of the Camouflage Minstrels, it was decided to give a performance in the city on or about March 20. The presentation will be given under the auspices of the Great War Veterans' association. The cast will be composed of local men who have had considerable experience in minstrelsy. There will be an opening chorus, rapid fire jokes, comic and popular songs, monologues, selections by the famous camouflage quartet and burlesque productions, finally concluding with a screaming farce by the returned veterans of Balfour. The farce will be entitled "The Rest Hour."

RED CROSS NOTES.

The following donations have been received:

Harrop Women's institute, $10; Mrs. Charles H. Maynard, Edgewood, proceeds of dance, $30; Winlaw, proceeds dance, $10.50; citizens of Salmo, proceeds of dance $10.50; Robson Women's institute for prisoners of war, $20; Ymir Red Cross workers, proceeds of social, $25; Mrs. P. NEW DENVER TAKES THE HONORS 6 TO 5

Visitors Win Over Nelson Hockey Team on Home Ice—Lots of Fast Work.

The New Denver hockey team "put one over" Nelson at the local rink last evening when the visitors walked off the ice at the end of the third period with the heavy end of a 6-5 score in their favor. Both teams displayed lots of vigor and the game throughout was lively and fought to a finish. Both Shannon and Bishop made some spectacular stops in goal, Grant, for Nelson, worked like a demon to boost the local tab during the last part of the game and was successful in putting the puck through the Ned Denver defense twice.

In the first period Murphy scored for Nelson and Bishop held down the net in fine shape when the after rush came. Then "Babe" Blumenauer got through for the visitors. Thomlinson followed up with another for the New Denver team and Grant slipped one in while no one was looking. With the score 2-2 Bishop was called upon to do some fast thinking and considerable stopping and in two minutes he frustrated six perfectly good intentions. Ray Blumenauer whisked one in for the visitors just before the bell. Score, 3-2.

The second period started off with nice combination work on the part of the New Denverites. Thomlinson was put on the fence. Steel grabebd a chance and brought the score even up on a clear sweep down the rink. In the clash that followed Grant wound up on the fence but got on again in time to boost the Nelson bid another and in the meantime New Denver got in two. Score, 5-4.

In the third both teams made a goal. Blumenauer was put on the fence and the game ended 6-5:

SAYS TORONTO HAS NOTHING ON QUEBEC

Prominent Prohibitionist Scores City for Treatment of Bryan at Massey Hall Meeting

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

TORONTO, March 1.—J. H. Roberts of Montreal, well known prohibitionist, today expressed warmly his resentment of the treatment accorded W. J. Bryan at Massey hall last night.

"Toronto has nothing on Quebec after that. If it had happened in Quebec, in the heat of an election, a howl of protest would have gone up from Ontario for free speech. Here in Toronto you out-Prussianized Prussianism by denying Mr. Bryan the liberty for which my son and other boys fought in France.

"I hope the people of Ontario will offer no criticism of the people of Quebec for what they did in the past election. Mr. Bryan's prewar views were no justification for the treatment given him. I consider it was an insult to American people by a pack of hoodlums."

Rev. Ben Spence expressed indignation. "Whatever we thought of Mr. Bryan in the past, every British subject who loves fair play realizes the accent is today on the 'hon in his name."

Hon. I. B. Lucas deprecated t fair. "It was a regrettable in and I am sorry it happened," h

Oliver Hensel Wood said the were not opposing Mr. Bryan's perance views, but his former a toward the war.

Two Deliveries Each Day.

Standard Bread

A standard weight of 18 ounces per loaf of bread having been ordered by the food board to be made all through British Columbia, instead of the usual loaf, we are forced to raise to the prevailing price in British Columbia for this loaf, which will be ten (10) cents, from March 1.

The price is not an increase. The consumer will simply pay the same price for 180 ounces of bread as before. The increase in size of loaf equalizes the cost.
