HEROIC SOLDIERS HOLD FLANDERS LINE

ENEMY MULTITUDES HURL THEMSELVES AGAINST GUNS

Allies Stand Steadfast Against Attacks

GERMANS FALL OVER OWN DEAD

British and French Troops Hold Lines With Great Courage

LONDON, April 14.—(Via Reuter's Ottawa Agency.)—Reuter's correspondent wires from British headquarters in France this evening:

"A bitter east wind is raging in Flanders and visibility is very low. The situation is generally unchanged. The enemy continues to employ fresh troops and we are likewise steadily increasing our forces. Consequently, the battle is more stationary, although as intense as ever.

UNSUCCESSFUL ATTACKS

"Today the Germans launched a heavy attack against a length of front they have been attacking continuously and unsuccessfully for the past two days, undoubtedly calculating that the British were worn out and that another smashing blow would finish up. But fresh reinforcements helping the defenders, held the enemy back with terrible losses.

BODIES IN WAY

"The enemy's losses were absolutely innumerable in view of his method of attack. His formula for shock tactics consists in pushing forward in succession dense waves at close intervals and as the front line is killed off the others press on by the sheer weight of the men behind. Frequently his advance has been checked by the barrier of piled up corpses.

VALIANT REARGUARD

"Our rearguard fighting has been skillful and valiant beyond words. While the machine gunners holding a series of little posts have poured bullets into the enemy until their ammunition has been exhausted, the main body has slowly fallen back upon prepared positions.

EXACTED FULL PRICE

"Each backward step has been made perfectly methodical and we have exacted the full price for what we have yielded. Never have troops fought with such superb courage and tenacity as our men are now displaying. They have got their backs to the wall,

GEN. FOCH TO BE COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

PARIS, April 14.—An official note issued tonight says:

"The British and French governments have agreed to confer the title of commander-in-chief of the allied armies in France on Gen. Foch."

BATTLE TALE IS TOLD IN LINE

Strategic Situation Remains Unaltered Although Enemy Has Scored Tactical Achievements

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, April 14.—(Via Reuter's Ottawa Agency.)—A Reuter despatch from British headquarters in France Saturday reads:

"The general position at the moment seems to justify the hope that the Germans will achieve no more toward a decision in Flanders than they have done in Picardy and Artois. They have overrun a lot of territory and scored a success of tactical achievements, but the strategic situation in Flanders remains unaltered. For so long as the allied armies continue to face the enemy with an unbroken line of men and guns the issue for them remains as clear as before they were pressed out of the positions occupied to March 21.

"The situation at the weekend was steadily progressing in our favor. Although the Germans delivered several heavy attacks today at various points, all were repulsed. Not only has the enemy made no progress anywhere, but the retaking of Neuve Eglise by our troops may force him to relax his efforts in the direction of Bailleul. There is a tendency toward a lull in the offensive, which probably means that the Germans are very tired."

OVER 200,000 IN CANADIAN LABOR UNIONS

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

OTTAWA, April 13.—The total membership in Canadian labor unions at the close of 1917 was 204,360, according to statistics collected by the labor department for its seventh annual report on labor organizations. The number of organized workers increased by 44,343 and the local branch unions by 132, the latter totaling 1974 at the close of last year. The voluntary enlistment of trade unionists in the military forces continued, there having been an increase of nearly 5000 over the number reported in 1916. This brings the grand total of trade unionists who have volunteered and been accepted for overseas service since the outbreak of the war to 26,416.

GERMANS CLAIM ONLY FEW GAINS

Berlin Official Statement Shows Advances on Lys Front and Capture of Some American Soldiers.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

BERLIN, April 14.—(Via London)—The German official communication today says:

"On the Lys battlefront we gained ground as a result of hard fighting. South of the Douvue river Gen. Erberhardt's troops penetrated the enemy's position southwest of Wulverghem and took Nieuwerwerke by storm after a desperate struggle with bodies of British troops, who counter-attacked.

"An attack carried through in the evening hours under the leadership of Gen. Maercken brought us into possession of a height to the west of the town. Near Bailleul fighting occurred with variable results. Merris and Vieux Berquin were taken.

"Enemy forces which were pushing forward toward the battle front sustained heavy losses by our fire, which was effectively directed by ground and air observations.

"On the battle front on both sides of the Somme, there have been artillery duels. An attack by several French battalions against Hainvillers sanguinarily collapsed; numerous prisoners remained in our hands.

"North of St. Mihiel, we carried out a successful thrust against American troops. We inflicted heavy losses on them and brought back prisoners.

"In aerial battles during the last few days, 37 enemy airplanes and three captive balloons were shot down.

"Lieut. Menckhoff attained his 24th aerial victory."

Evening Statement.

BERLIN, April 14—(Via London)—The evening statement from general headquarters says:

"On the Lys battlefield there have been successful engagements at Nieuwerkerke and Vieux Berqu'n."

JOSEPH MARTIN GOES TO ENGLAND

"Coal Magnate" Will Reenter Political Life with Labor Party in the Old Country.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

VANCOUVER, B. C., April 14.—Joseph Martin, K.C., who has been attorney general of Manitoba, attorney general and premier of British Columbia and member of the British house of commons, and who has practised law in Vancouver for the past few years, is going back to London to reenter British political life. Announcement to this effect was made yesterday by Mr. Martin, who said he had made his last appearance before the bar in Canada. He added that he expected to reenter the house of commons of the United Kingdom as a labor member. "Things in the Labor party in Great Britain," he said, 'have taken a turn where it would be possible for me to associate myself with the Labor party in the British house. I've had some correspondence with Arthur Henderson and some of the other Labor leaders and I'm leaving for England in two weeks."

Mr. Henderson is termed by a local paper as "a coal magnate in the millionaire class or thereabouts" and it is stated that he is the principal owner of coal mines formerly operated by the Inland Coal company at Merritt and for which Lord Rhonda offered $1,500,000 less than two years ago.

BISHOP OF CORK PLEADS THOUGHTFUL ACTION

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

CORK, April 14.—In the city churches today a letter from the Catholic bishop of Cork was read, advising the young men of Ireland to avoid playing into the hands of their enemy by joining a formal military rising, which the bishop said would be quickly crushed. The letter said the bishop thought that at the coming conferences between the Nationalist and Sinn Fein leaders, a program would evolve. The bishop, therefore, advised the people to defer action pending the action of the confreres.

FORMER PREMIER'S DAUGHTER DEAD

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

QUEBEC, April 14.—The death occurred at Chicoutimi today of Mrs. Narcisse Gauthier, at the age of 75 years. She was the only surviving child of the late Sir H. N. Tache, a former premier of Canada and aide-de-camp to the late Queen Victoria. She was a sister of the late Mrs. Courzol, wife of the late Hon. John Courzol, a former mayor of Montreal.

BRITISH KEEP FLANDERS TOWN

Enemy Fails to Get Neuve Eglise

MEN ARE FED TO ALLIED GUNS

Brave Troops Fight Off Attacks Along Wide Front

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, April 14.—E.O.S.—The Germans continue their powerful attacks against the British line in Flanders. The town of Neuve Eglise, an important strategical point, which has changed hands several times, remains in possession of the British, Field Marshal Haig's report tonight says. The statement follows:

"At the close of many hours of obstinate fighting during the night and again this morning, about Neuve Eglise our troops remained in possession of the village. The enemy's attacks in this sector have been pressed with great determination and his losses throughout have been heavy. Today the enemy renewed his attempts to gain possession of the village and the fighting continues."

Reciprocal Bombardments.

PARIS, April 14.—The war office announcement tonight says:

"The day was marked only by reciprocal bombardments at various points along the front; there was no infantry action.

"Eastern theatre, April 13: Our artillery was active along the whole front, successfully carrying out methodical fires of destruction against the enemy batteries and organizations. In the course of the aerial fighting, during the day, two enemy airplanes were forced to make a landing.

Lines Remain Intact.

LONDON, April 14.—'On this portion of the battlefront and northwestward as far as Lacon numerous bodies of hostile troops were effectively engaged during the evening at short range by our infantry and artillery fire.

"At the end of the day of continuous fighting and frequent assaults, many of them delivered with great strength on all parts of the Lye battlefront, our lines were reported to be intact.

"The enemy's losses throughout yesterday's fighting are reported to have been most severe.

In the course of the night fighting was renewed about Neuve Eglise and this morning the enemy recommenced his attacks in the neighborhood of Bailleul. Fighting is continuing on this front."

PARIS, April 14.—Lively artillery activity during the night on the front between Mont Didier and Noyon, where the French also have been actively conducting reconnoitering raids, is reported in today's war office statement. Otherwise, except for raids here and there, the front was quiet.

Repulse Bailleul Attacks.

"An attack commenced by the enemy early this morning in the neighborhood of Bailleul was repulsed by our troops and another hostile attack, which developed later in the morning in the neighborhood of Mores, was equally unsuccessful.

"During the morning, hostile infantry attempted an attack northwest of Merville, but was caught and dispersed by our artillery. The hostile artillery has been more active in the neighborhood of Albert.

On the remainder of the British front there was nothing of special interest."

French Reconnoiter.

LONDON, April 14.—A statement tonight says:

"The artillery was somewhat lively between Montdidier and Noyon, French reconnoitering parties operating in this region brought in prisoners.

"North of St. Mihiel and Lorraine and in the region of Embermenil and Bures the French penetrated the German lines and took half a score of prisoners.

"The French repulsed tentative raids by the Germans north of Hill 304 (Verdun front), in the region of St. Mihiel and in the Woevre and at Col Du Bon Humme.

"The night was quiet on the remainder of the front."

2 DIE, BIG LOSS IN EAST FIRES

Two Children and Much Property is Toll of Fires at Toronto, Montreal and London

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

TORONTO, April 14.—Two children were burned to death and several firemen severely burned in a fire which completely destroyed dwellings at 124, 126 and 128 Sheridan avenue about 5 o'clock this evening.

The blaze is believed to have broken out in 124 Sheridan avenue, occupied by Arthur Ellicock. Three Ellicock children were in their home when the fire broke out. Only one of three, a tot of three, was got out safely.

Fireman Jack White was badly burned and two other firemen were injured.

Montreal Loss $200,000

MONTREAL, April 14.—Five fires, with a total loss of more than $200,000, all in the northeast part of the city, in which seven firemen were injured by falling walls and smoke, kept the fire brigade on the run here this afternoon. The numerous outbreaks make the police say the work is that of an incendiary.

The heaviest sufferers are J. Charlebois, hay and grain, and the establishment of J. Robert, in the same neighborhood. The other three were residences.

London Loss $100,000

LONDON, Ont., April 14.—The Ontario garage, containing 50 cars and large quantities of oil and gasoline, was completely destroyed by fire last night. The loss is $100,000. The company's loss of about $60,000 is fully covered by insurance. The stock included 35 new cars belonging to the firm and 15 belonging to local business houses, which were kept in the garage. There was no insurance in many cases.

ENEMY PLANES BROUGHT DOWN

Two German Air Machines Are Bagged —London Reports 1200 Bombs Dropped on Enemy Troops

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, April 14.—(By the Associated Press.)—Two German fighting planes were shot down this morning inside the American lines by Lieut. A. S. Winslow of Chicago and Lieut. Douglass Campbell of California. Each man bagged one machine.

Both the enemy aviators were made prisoner. One of them was slightly wounded.

The machines, which formed part of a patrol of five aircraft, were brought down after six-minute engagement. One of the enemy machines fell in flames, but the other was only slightly damaged.

The French general commanding the zone in which the machines were shot down congratulated the Americans.

Both lieutenants were awarded the War Cross.

Active in Asiago Plateau

ROME, April 14.—"The activity of the hostile artillery was confined to desultory, intermttent concentrations of fire along the entire front," says today's war office report. "We carried out effective concentrations against enemy batteries in the Asiago plateau and along the Planve.

"Enemy patrols were dispersed by bursts of rifle and machine gun fire in the Lagarina valley, or engaged or repulsed by detachments of our allies in the Asiago basin."

Bomb Enemy Troops

LONDON, April 14.—"On Saturday it was cloudy and misty," says an official statement on aerial operations tonight, "but our low flying machines dropped 1200 bombs on enemy troops on roads leading to the front. Only a few fights occurred and the results were indecisive. One of our machines is missing."

Berlin's Statement

BERLIN, April 14, via London.—The official statement on the recent air raids on England says:

"Friday night Frigate Capt. Strasser, with one of our marine airship squadrons, attacked important stores, manufacturing and shipping places connected with war industries in central England, Birmingham, Nottingham, Sheffield, Leeds and Grimsby.

"Despite the extraordinarily strong gun fire encountered and pursuit by airmen, all of our airships returned safely."

Lieut. Harry Penrose, a popular Newmarket officer, was killed in action.

AMERICAN TROOPS REPULSE HUN ATTACK

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, April 14.—By Associated Press.—Preceded by an intense bombardment of high explosives and poison gas shells, picked troops from four German companies hurled themselves at the American positions on the right bank of the Meuse north of St. Mihiel early this morning but were completely repulsed after terrific hand to hand fighting.

SEES CLOSE OF FINNISH TROUBLE

Enemy Closes in on Helsingfors—Red Guards Conduct Reign of Terror.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

STOCKHOLM, April 14.—The closing scenes of the Finnish revolution may soon be enacted, according to the indications in the latest reports from the strife-ridden area. A portion of the German fleet is now lying in Helsingfors harbor and German troops which have been landed have taken Hyving, which is the railway junction south from Rikidaakia. This severs the communications of the Red Guards in Helsingfors with Viborg. The Germans are also closing in on Helsingfors from other quarters and are now within 12 miles of the city at one point.

The Svenska Dagbladet's Vasa correspondent reports that important operations have been begun on the Viborg front, where Gen. Mannerheim, the White Guard leader, has assembled strong forces, a vigorous campaign is being conducted against the Reds on the entire Karelen front. Bjornborg also has been taken by the White Guards, leaving the Red Guards only one important place on the west coast, namely, Abo.

The Red Guard is reported here to be conducting a reign of terror in Abo, marked by all the grimness characteristic of the early days of the revolution in other cities under their control. A traveler who has reached Vasa from Abo reports that the Reds have dynamited the state bank in the latter place and that the homes of the Bourgeoise are being plundered. Two hundred and fifty persons, he asserts, are known to have been murdered.

SAMMIES SHOW METTLE TO FOE

Justifies Hope That Battle Tide Has Finally Turned

(By Associated Press.)

The entire allied line in Belgium and France is holding firm. Nowhere have the Germans been able, notwithstanding the great numbers of men hurled against it, especially that portion of Flanders where the British are holding forth, to gain an inch of ground, Field Marshal Haig's order that no more ground be ceda to the enemy is being rigidly complied with, as is attested by the thousands of German dead now lying before the British positions southwest of Ypres, where it is the ambition of the German high command to break through and envelope Field Marshal Haig's forces and gain an open highway to the English channel.

U. S. TROOPS IN ACTION.

Northwest of St. Mihiel the American troops have been compelled to withstand a series of persistent assaults and the honors at the end rested with the Americans, who met the foe at every style of fighting he offered and decisively defeated him.

BIG GUNS FIRE.

Along the front held by the French Sunday saw nothing of greater importance than reciprocal bombardments on various sectors, the troops on both sides remaining in their trenches. Likewise, in Italy the big guns were doing most of the work, although at several points enemy patrols attempted to carry out diversions but met with no success.

ACTIVE AT EGLISE.

At Neuve Eglise, northwest of Armentieres, where the Germans are endeavoring to drive their wedge in farther in order to outflank Ypres, the heaviest fighting has taken place. Throughout Saturday night and Sunday battles of a most obstinate character took place, the Germans throwing thousands of men into the attack, notwithstanding their wastage in killed or wounded. Several times the village changed hands, but at last

ARMENIA SCORES GERMANY IN APPEAL

National Council Strongly Protests Against Invasion by Death Dealing Turkish Troops

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, April 14.—Russia has followed her protest to Germany against Turkish operations in the Caucasus which have resulted in wholesale murders of the Armenian population by forwarding a similar protest by the Armenian national council, addressed to the German ministry of foreign affairs and the president of the reichstag. This protest, received from the Russian wireless system and given out by the British admiralty through the wireless press, reads:

"The Armenian national council, as a supreme body for the expression of the will of the Armenian people, is addressing you in connection with the tragic state of things in Armenia. Armenia is flooded with blood and only recently saved from slavery, is again condemned to fresh sufferings. Following upon the withdrawal of the Russian troops, Turkish troops already have invaded the undefended country and are not only killing every Turkish Armenian, but also every Russian in Armenia.

"In spite of the terms of the peace treaty, which recognizes the right of self-determination for these Caucasian regions, the Turkish army is advancing toward Kars and Ardahan, destroying the country and killing the Christian people. The responsibility for the future destiny of the Armenians lies entirely with Germany, because it was Germany's insistence that resulted in the withdrawal of Russian troops from the Armenia regions and at the moment it rests with Germany to prevent the habitual excesses of the Turkish troops, increased by revengefulness and anger.

"It's hard to believe that a civilized state like Germany, which has the means for prevention of these excesses of her ally, will permit the Brest-Litovsk treaty to be used by the German people, who have been involved in war against their own will, as a means for the creation of incalculable sufferings. The national council firmly believes that you will undertake the necessary measures, which depend solely upon you to influence the Turkish authorities with a view to saving the Armenian people from fresh horrors."

REVIEWS WEEK'S WAR ACTIVITY

Official Report Is Given of Operations at the Front During the Past Week.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

OTTAWA, April 14.—The official report of operations at the front during the week which ended April 11 has been received by the governor general and has been issued to the press by the chief censor's office:

"During the week which ended April 11 the fighting for Amiens and the railway to St. Just resulted in very little change, the chief alteration of front being further east where the French retired from an awkward salient southward of Le Fere, made by the old and new lines. North of Arras the enemy advanced appreciably. On April a violent bombardment on the line between La Bassee and Armentieres seemed to indicate an attack but it did not develope. On April 9, however, an attack was launched on a 15,000-yard front aiming at the Portuguese division in the centre with a British division on either side. The wings at Givenchy and Fleurbaix held, but the enemy, assisted by a thick haze, took the centre and penetrated beyond the rivers Lys and Lawe. Givenchy was taken on April 10 and later retaken by the 55th division with 700 German prisoners.

Active at Armentieres.

A further attack made north of Armentieres between a point east of that town and Garde Dieu, north of Messines. On the Messines front the enemy was checked but further south he penetrated the British lines, capturing Ploegstraete wood. Salients were thus driven on both flanks of Armentieres, which made the retention of that ruined town inadvisable. A withdrawal to conform with the line north and south was ordered, resulting in one large salient, approximately 20 miles long and five miles deep. To destroy the British army is clearly the enemy's aim. He failed to separate the armies of the allies and failed to take Amiens while the solid wall of Arras made it imperative for him to find a weaker spot. Vimy is the stronghold, which, more than any other, blocks his way west and since Arras holds firm, he has tried to win his way to the rear of Vimy ridge through Givenchy, thence to Bethune.

"Although there is no sign of a cessation of the enemy's offensive against Amiens, which he renewed in due course, it is clear his main effort was checked and his second effort north of the Somme defeated.

Repulsed on Somme.

His fierce, though brief, attacks on the Somme, being repulsed, he is now diverting attention from the main front, to which he will ultimately return with all the forces available.

"The rapid rotation of his divisions is calculated to allow him to keep in reserve a great number of fresh ones. The more quickly he can reform them the more temporarily he has available.

REVIEW WEEK'S WAR ACTIVITY

Such a system obviously has its drawbacks, as it can only be carried out for a limited time. It is one more sign of Germany's determination to win the war in this battle and risk all in doing so.

"The destruction of the British army is his object. There is, therefore, satisfaction in noting that so far the destruction of his own army has proceeded more rapidly, though the situation is still serious. To date the British army has been attacked by double its number of enemy divisions, supported by an enormous mass of artillery of all natures. In those circumstances, it is not surprising that the enemy gained undeniable success, but at a great price.

"On the other fronts there have been no operations of importance. In Italy an attack is expected to develop in due course and will no doubt coincide, as nearly as possible, with the maximum German pressure in France and Flanders.

Beat Foe in Palestine.

"In Palestine, Karak, east of the Dead sea, was occupied on April 7 by Arabs. A successful raid on the Hedjaz railway was magnified into an enemy victory. Nevertheless the British made a further advance on a 5-mile front, capturing villages.

"There has been less activity in the air this week on the western front owing to the broken weather. Raids on hostile troops and transports have been productive of satisfactory results. Air fighting has been less intense owing to unfavorable weather. But scouts have engaged the enemy on every possible occasion, bringing down 53 and driving down 31 hostile machines out of control.

"Luxemburg has again been raided, a ton of bombs being dropped.

"In Palestine our aircraft successfully cooperated in the operations against Herjaz railway, bombing an important station on the Annan railway and destroying trains and other enemy materials.

"In home waters, the Adriatic and the Mediterranean, seaplanes and airplanes continue their effective cooperation with the naval forces on an ever increasing scale.

"From the beginning of this week the whole of Great Britain is under the operation of the compulsory plan for meat rationing.

Food Rationing.

"The institution of a partial scheme for the London area, six weeks ago, practically abolished the meat checks and it is expected that they will now disappear throughout the country.

"Seven-eighths of the people are now subject to local rationing schemes for butter and margarine, while the whole country has been for sometime rationed in sugar. The conviction of the absolute equality of sacrifice has caused the public to accept the necessary restrictions singularly good-naturedly and has encouraged the demand for rationing of other foodstuffs in which scarcity is found or expected. It is intended to reduce the butchers' meat ration after May 5 and to substitute an additional bacon ration, thus leaving birds and flocks to fatten during the grazing months. The supplies of lard having improved, it is proposed to include this in a slightly increased fat ration. Cereal imports are still far below requirements of the wheat executive.

Active measures are being pushed forward by the government in concert with employers and workmen's associations to promote the formation throughout the country of representative joint councils to deal with matters of interest of various trades such as labor, materias, etc., during the period of transition following the war. The first series of conferences in Leath commence this week.

FACE NOTHING BUT RUNNING SORES FROM ECZEMA

No rest day or night for those afflicted with that terrible skin disease, eczema, or, as it is often called, salt rheum.

With its unbearable burning, itching, torturing day and night, relief is gladly welcomed.

There is no remedy like Burdock Blood Bitters for giving relief to such sufferers! no other remedy has done, or can do so much for those who are almost driven to distraction with the terrible torture. Apply it externally and it takes out the stinging, itching, and burning and promotes a healthy healing.

Take it internally and it gets at the source of the disease in the blood and completely and permanently drives it out of the system.

Miss Mary V. Chambers, Anagance Ridge, N.B., writes: "I used Burdock Blood Bitters for eczema. I had it when an infant, but it left me. Two years ago it came back. I used doctor's medicine but it did good only while I used it. At last my face was nothing but a running sore. I saw in the paper what B.B.B. did for people. I took it, and today I am free from that terrible disease."

ENEMY MULTITUDES HURL AGAINST GUNS

indeed, and Gen. Haig's assurance of French support in the struggle has vastly heartened them. The British have learned to value the fighting qualities of the French. The French are indeed brave, their morale is comparatively one of the irresistible confidence.

"The enemy is apparently endeavoring to gain command of the line of communication between Bailleul and the north. He is fighting desperately with a mechanical bravery and iron discipline.

Balk Enemy Plan

"It is also apparent that the enemy is hoping to envelope the big forest of Nieppe by thrusting through Hazebrouck and thence southward, but the latest intelligence shows that he is progressing very little in this direction. Our resistance at certain points along the line of advance is balking the plan. After the fourth repulse at Neuve Eglise last night the enemy made a heavy attack and gained a little ground at a few points east of the village. At a few points near Bailleul fighting has continued since morning."

Crisis Was Withstood.

Yesterday morning the enemy attempted to advance on a 1000-yard front from south of the Lys but was smothered by our artillery. Another advance from Merville was likewise flung back, while an intense bombardment heralding enemy infantry attacks came to naught by our concentrated barrage.

Our withdrawal near Lacon toward La Bassee canal was to more favorable defensive positions.

I judge that the most critical period of the battle was on Friday last. It was at a stage then that, had the enemy pressed his advantage, the consequences would have been serious. His failure to improve his opportunity was presumaby because he could not. Since then there has been a steady improvement in the general position.

CONDUCT RAIDS IN NEW YORK DISTRICTS

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

NE WYORK, April 14.—A second sensational Sunday morning raid on all-night restaurants in the white light district was conducted early today under the direction of District Attorney Swann. It was another step in he anti-vice crusade now well under way.

The places raided included 30 chop suey restaurants from 42nd to 110th streets, nearly 1500 persons being questioned, while 100 women and 150 men were arrested. Some of the prisoners were held and others were ordered to appear for examination Tuesday.

CABINET MEETS TO FIX ARMY BILL

Sunday Sitting Is Held to Complete Amendments to the Military Service Act

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

OTTAWA, April 14.—Cabinet council was in session for four hours this evening. Sunday sittings of the cabinet are quite unusual, but when the ministers dispersed at midnight, Sir Robert Borden said he had no statement to make as to the nature of the deliberations. It is understood, however, that the cabinet met to put the final touches on a number of amendments to the Military Service act which are designed to increase the flow of reinforcements of the Canadian army in France.

It will be recalled that when the Quebec situation was discussed in the house, Sir Robert announced that the government would introduce a number of amendments to the Military Service act. It is understood these were under consideration on Saturday and again tonight. In the absence of an official announcement it is impossible to say whether the amendments have been definitely framed. If they have, their purport will doubtless be announced in parliament without delay.

The object of the government is to speed up the working of the act so that additional fighting forces may be secured with the least possible delay. It is certain that all exemptions granted will be subjected to revision, the urgency of the situation being emphasized by the serious developments on the western front during the past fortnight.

Lloyd George, in his recent speech in the British house of commons, said that the greatest need for men would probably occur at the end of May or in June. The government is determined to do everything possible to have Canada's army maintained at its present high state of efficiency when the need is greatest.

TROOPS COMPLY WITH DEMAND

reports the British were still in possession of it and holding tenaciously under repeated German attacks.

BEAT OFF HUNS.

Nowhere along the eight-mile front where the Germans are trying to drive through have they met with any but repulses and the price they have paid for their efforts to break British line have been enormous. On no other sector have they been able to surmount the stonewall defense and for the moment at least, there seems to be justification for the hope that the turn in the tide of battle is at hand.

Documents captured from German prisoners show conclusively that the new great offensive of the Germans was launched with intention of separating the British and French armies and the crushing of the British.

The latest German official statement dealing with the situation in the region of St. Mihiel, where the Americans are defending the line, says that the Germans inflicted heavy losses on the Americans in a successful thrust and also took prisoners. The same reports give the Germans credit for the gaining of ground on the Lys battlefront, where the British are opposed to them.

Finnish Reverse.

In Finand the Germans are continuing to overrun the country and the fall of Helsingfors is daily to be expected, according to advices from Stockholm. Detachments of the enemy already are within 12 miles of the Finnish capital in the harbor of which German warships are lying.

"CASCARETS" FOR A COLD, BAD BREATH OR SICK HEADACHE

Best for Liver and Bowels, for Biliousness, Sour Stomach and Constipation

Get a 10-cent box now.

Furred tongue, bad colds, indigestion, sallow skin and miserable headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a swill barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret tonight will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then to keep their stomach, liver and bowels regulated and never know a miserable moment. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing too.

ville sector after a night of the most intense fighting, during which numerous heavy enemy attacks were repulsed and the invaders were driven back from Robecq by a counter stroke.

The Germans today were continuing to drive forward in masses against the defending positions which block their way to Hazebrouck with its railway lines, but at the latest reports the British lines had not wavered in the face of the terrific onslaughts by superior numbers. While no one could predict the outcome of the fierce battle now raging, the British position this morning seemed more firm and settled than at any period since the Germans began their onslaught west of Armentieres.

Active at Montdidier.

The attacks in this region have been carried out with steadily increasing forces. The troops employed on the opening of day were few as compared with those now in the attacking lines.

Between St. Venant and the Ypres-Comines canal the enemy last night had at least 17 divisions in line, with six more divisions held in reserve.

There has been no cessation in the desperate work which has been going forward since April 9. All last night the opposition's forces struggled at close quarters at numerous points and when daylight came, the Germans launched two more tremendous drives, ont south of Bailleul and Meteren and the other against the bloodstained zone about Neuve Eglise.

"We are holding," was the cheering import of the news received by the correspondent of the Associated Press about noon concerning the sector involved.

Unabated Fury.

During the day the enemy launched three separate attacks against Neuve Eglise and each time was hurled back without making any gains. At 7:20 o'clock yesterday evening the Germans again surged forward, but they came under such punishment from machine guns and rifles that they were forced to fall back. This was only an introduction of the night's work. Throughout the long dark hours the battle continued and when daylight come it proceeded with unabated fury as the enemy rushed up fresh troops and flung them against the grimly holding British.

It is hard to conceive how the comparatively weak forces of the British have been able to withstand these heavy shocks, especially in view of the fact that the Germans almost continually kept bringing new troops into action against the long-suffering defenders. But they have held and the record of the defense of the Merville-Bailleul sector will form one of the most graphic chapters in the history of the war.

Situation Stays Same.

The fighting below Bailleul has differed little from that at other points. The Germans made a heavy push here last night about Merris, but could make little progress. The British gave a tiny bit of ground below Moolenacker, but the situation was virtually unaltered.

Southwest of Vieux Berquin yesterday the Germans made four big attacks accompanied by an intense bombardment. The onslaught was a terrific one and there was at that time only one British brigade facing several divisions of Germans. How the British held probably they themselves could not tell, but they did hold, although their line bent a little in places. The German casualties in this sector yesterday were appalling.

Attacking Huns Mowed Down.

A heavy concentration of Germans about Vieux Berquin who were about to be employed in an assault against a long suffering British brigade, were caught in an artillery barrage and literally ripped to pieces. For two hours the British shells ploughed through the enemy ranks and veritable slaughter resulted. The same sort of thing has been going on for days. Prisoners verify statements that the British harassing fire is frightful. For two nights before the Germans began their present drive west of Armentieres the British artillery worked havoc. Prisoners say that when the advance started they had to walk over bodies and the wreckage of munition and supply wagons.

Bodies a Protection.

Another instance occurred northeast of Estaires, where British riflemen killed so many of the enemy that the advancing troops were piling dead bodies and using them as protection against the fire.

The first wave of attacking troops thus far in the fighting almost invariably has been broken and even the second wave has been smashed. This is expected by the enemy, who depends upon subsequent waves for success.

British airmen continue to do marvelous work in fighting the enemy at close quarters. Not only are they doing great execution in bombing raids, but they have been sweeping down into the mouths of the machine guns annd engaging effectively with their rapid-firers.

Battles in the air are numerous and thus far the British have maintained vast superiority in this method of warfare.

DAY'S TOPIC IS THE TIME

Moving Hands Around Caused No Little Reason for Questioning in City Yesterday.

"What time is it?" was the question of the hour yesterday. The hotels conformed with the change as made by the Canadian Pacific railway and most of the citizens remembering that Sunday was the day to start saving daylight moved their time ahead an hour before retiring. Many people were at a loss to know when to go to church, but with few exceptions the change came about with no trouble at all.

"Who found the lost hour?" is a question one joker asked last evening. The change came about so quietly at 2 o'clock in the morning that few people felt they had lost one.

The telephone operators were busy all day giving the time and were always asked if it was the new time or the old time and invariably the reply was that it was "the" time.

Not a few forgetting the change found themselves one hour late for breakfast. A story is told about one young man who was to visit his young lady at 5:30. They are not speaking now because he failed to arrive until 6:30.

"Y" SECRETARY OPTIMISTIC

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

WINNIPEG, April 14.—G. S. Warburton, general secretary of the Toronto P.M.C.A. and director of the Red Triangle fund campaign for $1,250,000 left for Toronto tonight after visiting all western Canada's chief points.

"Canada will raise its share," said Mr. Warburton in an interview tonight. "I was more than delighted with the ready response which our preliminary organization has been given. The Y.M.C.A. overseas is now known to everyone and the war work appeal will, I am sure, be oversubscribed in the west. The western spirit is behind the campaign and that means success."

GENEVA TRIBUNAL JAILS AMERICAN

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

GENEVA, April 14.—The federal penal tribunal has condemned Raymond Swoboda, who claimed American citizenship when arrested last winter in Switzerland on an espionage charge, to 10 months' imprisonment, payment of a fine of 2500 francs and two years' exclusion from the country.

Swoboda, who was arrested in Paris in March, 1915, on the charge of having set fire to the French liner La Touraine, but later was released when an investigation by the French authorities failed to substantiate the charge, went to Switzerland on his expulsion from France. After his arrest by the Zurich police in June last year, it was announced he had been identified as a native of Hungary whose real name was Geschwindt. He was released on bail, but was rearrested in Geneva last February, when he was said to have been identified as a German officer.

EXTREME LABOR PARTY ISSUES MANIFESTO; STRIKES

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

AMSTERDAM, April 14.—The Telegraaf says that the extreme labor party is circulating a manifesto among the proletariat, inciting them to strike and demanding that the authorities seize all food stocks in private hands and regulate the distribution of the reserve. The manifesto fixes the responsibility for the food disturbances on "unscrupulous persons who have bartered Holland's foodstuffs for 300,000 florins, German and Austrian bills" and denounces the profiteers "who are coining millions by the starvation of Dutch children."

STOCKS TEND TO REVERSE ON MART

War Bulletins Precipitate Further Liquidation—Rails Yield but Recover Before Close.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

NEW YORK, April 14.—Stocks experienced moderate reversals during the earlier part of yesterday's short session, the war bulletins precipitating further liquidation.

Equipments and a few standard industrials and rails yielded all the way from large fractions to 1½ points, but recovered just before the close to a considerable extent.

United States Steel was under a persistent pressure, but the stock threw off its heaviness at the end, closing at a loss of a small fraction.

Sales amounted to 122 000 shares.

Bonds were irregular, some of the foreign issues again hardening while domestic rails and industrials were mixed. Steadiness marked the smaller dealings in Liberty issues. Saturday's sales, par value, aggregated $2,475,000. Old issues of United States bonds declined from 1 to 2½ per cent on call during the week.

The bank statement reflected the enormous shifting of funds incidental to the new Liberty loan, actual loans expanding by almost $168,000,000, reserves of members in the local federal bank meanwhile showing an increase of $22 500 000. Excess reserves gained about $21,500 000, restoring the total to the largest amount since the early part of February.

TORONTO MARKET REMAINS STEADY

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

TORONTO, April 14.—Tension due to the critical war situation continues to be reflected on the Toronto exchange in contraction of transactions rather than in lower prices. On Saturday dealings fell below 200 shares, but stocks in general remained steady as on other days during the great German offensive.

The most interesting incident of the trading was a sale of Toronto Railway at the minimum price of 58. The transaction in rails was the first since the dividend was cut in two on Feb. 20 last. Steel of Canada was firmer at 58⅜ and Smelters at 24⅝. Imperial bank held its ground at 186, while Bank of Hamilton, Dominion bank and Canada Bread preferred shares sold at the minimum. The war loans were steady.

CORN AGAIN BREAKS SHARPLY AT CHICAGO

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

CHICAGO, Ill., April 14.—Prospects of liberal receipts and of greater pressure from hedging sales brought about sharp breaks Saturday in the value of corn. Prices closed nervous, ¾ to 3¾ cents net lower, with May at $1.27 and July at $1.50⅝ to $1.52.

Oats underwent a setback of ⅞ to 1⅝ to 1¾ cents net. The outcome in provisions was unchanged to 17½ cents down.

PRICES STAY STRONG ON MONTREAL MARKET

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

MONTREAL, April 14.—Notwithstanding the nervous tension on the stock market on the war news, prices were steady to strong for the most part of Saturday's trading.

Montreal Power was again the chief feature, displaying buoyancy. In the late trading Friday it rose sharply from 75¼ to 77, and the initial transaction yesterday was at 78, a new high for the movement. Steel of Canada was strong at 58⅜ but Iron was neglected.

FRENCH COMPANY GETS GUARANTEE

Government Will Back New Bond Issue of $25,000, States Thomas French.

Thomas French returned last night from Victoria and announced that the government had decided to guarantee an additional $25,000 bond issue for the operation of the French Complex Ore Reduction company's smelter at Fairview.

The guarantee is being made with the stipulation, Mr. French stated, that the greater part of the issue be absorbed by the people of this district. The interest rate will be 6 per cent and payment of both interest and principal is to be guaranteed by the province.

Mr. French stated that in his efforts to secure the guarantee he had received valuable support from Dr. W. O. Rose, member for Nelson.

He discussed with Hon. William Sloan the question of securing the return of the transformers which had been loaned to a company at the coast and which are now required for the proposed manganese smelter here, but no decision was announced by the minister.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

EDMONTON, April 14.—The following message has been sent the soldiers from Alberta fighting on the western front by the speaker of the legislative assembly:

"The members of the Alberta legislature in session assembled deem it an honor to place on record their heartfelt appreciation of the valorous deeds of Alberta's sons, which have placed Canada high on the scroll of national fame and proved conclusively that the western fighting men are worthy of the best traditions of the British Empire. We are dealing with war problems at home as well and have passed legislation in favor of providing for the relief and comfort of your dependents and are confident that in the final issue now pending, Alberta's soldiers will show the same unconquerable spirit that has planted the Empire on the plains of the west and that has so often won the victory on the field of battle for freedom and public right."

MINES TAX HOLDS UP CONSTRUCTION

Building of Princeton-Copper Mountain Branch Hangs Fire Pending Government's Action.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

VICTORIA, B.C., April 14.—Construction of the 14-mile branch line from Princeton on the Kettle Valley railway to Copper mountain, the scene of considerable mining activity and prospective development, is held up pending the decision of the government with regard to the income tax on mines. This contract has been let to W. P. Tierney and involved the expenditure of considerably more than a million dollars. Mr. Tierney is a well known railway contractor of Vancouver whose outfit, laid up for some time at Nelson, is being moved to the new work. Another large undertaking in connection with the mining plans on Copper mountain is the extension of the power transmission line from Greenwood, a distance of about 150 miles. This is also said to depend on what the government decides to do in the way of granting taxation relief to the mining industries.

NO VICTORY FOR GERMANS IN SECOND PHASE

Up to the time covered by last night's cables, victory in the second phase of the great offensive of the Germans on the western front rested with the British. The enemy has won some ground, but he has failed to win a decision. Anything less than a decisive victory over the British or French armies represents a defeat for the Germans. There is no middle path. They must destroy the fighting power of the allied armies or their tremendous preparations, their tremendous sacrifice of lives, their tremendous expenditure of munitions counts for little. In fact, on a balancing of accounts the advantage rests with the allies.

It is men, it is armies, that count in this war, rather than indecisive gains of territory.

The power of the British and French to strike back remains intact. As long as it so continues, Germany can never force a German peace on the world.

JOSEPH MARTIN TO CROSS ATLANTIC AGAIN

Joseph Martin, who states that he is returning to Great Britain to associate himself with the Labor party, may be welcomed by the Labor politicians of the mother country and, yet again, he may not. If they know much about him they will be very chary of too close associations with the former premier of British Columbia in any political way.

Joe Martin is the great outstanding failure in Canadian public life. He has considerable ability but he is too much of a stormy petrel, he is too lacking in stability and balance. He is capable of rising to great heights, but not of staying there.

That is his whole political history. Joseph Martin, except in recent years, has been able to secure what he wanted in public life, but he has never been able to hold it. He rises fast, but tumbles faster. In his fall he usually takes his associates with him. Hence the British Labor party's opponents are more likely to welcome his return to Great Britain than is the Labor party itself.

PHYSICAL STANDARD IN CANADA IS HIGH.

Either the Canadian military standard of physical fitness is much lower than the American, or Canadian young men are considerably superior in physique, says an eastern student of statistics. There are facts that seem to support this statement. The average of rejections for physical unfitness are proportionately very unteering period, was roughly 25 per cent. The cream of the Canadian young men then went into khaki. But even taking the examinations under the Military Service act, and comparing them with results in the United States, the fact is established that Canadian rejections on the ground of unfitness are proportionaely very much lower.

In the first 1,300,00 volunteers in the United States, for the army and navy—of men between 21 and 31—only 448,000 were accepted. That is, the percentage of rejections was 66 per cent. This is accounted for, partly at any rate, by a stiffer set of requirments, but the fighting ability and capacity of endurance of Canadian soldiers is second to none. It may be that the course of training sets up a young man who has weaknesses caused by environment, occupation, etc., and that only incurable organic or muscular troubles need be a bar to training. It would be pleasant to conclude, however, that Canadian young men are more physically fit than their United States cousins—perhaps not so much in appearance as in organic soundness. Life insurance charts show that in the decade of 1900 to 1910, the death rates of United States men and women over 55 years of age—white sons and daughters of white parents—increased nine per cent; while in England and Wales the rate decreased 22 to 17 per cent. The large percentage of physical unfitness in young men between 21 and 31 is worrying United States health authorities, and bringing forth a call for more attention to physical development.

A NEW CANADIAN INDUSTRY.

Previous to the war, the miner's safety lamp glasses used in Canada were imported from Germany and Austria. They are made from a special kind of glass having a high resistance against breakage from a blow or sudden change of temperature. The material used in safety lamps must necessarily be of a high quality, as a defective lamp may be the means of causing a mine explosion. The United States was also dependent on enemy countries for supplies of safety lamps and lamp parts, but, through the cooperation of the bureau of standards and the bureau of mines, these are now being manufactured in that country.

The price of safety lamp glasses has increased from $6.50 per 100, before the war, to nearly $10 f. o. b. New York. The demand for them in Canada is increasing year by year, and the present requirements are in the neighborhood of 50,000 glasses per annum. There are a number of glass manufacturers in Canada and the production of these glasses would not only prove to be an additional source of profit to the manufacturer, but would also make Canada independent of foreign sources of supply.

Safety lamp glasses and many other imported products now used in Canada may, or may not, have been standardized in Germany, the United States and elsewhere. If it is intended to manufacture these products in Canada it will be necessary, however, to provide some means for guaranteeing their standard of purity. The importance of the subject, and the increasing purchases made by the different departments of the government demonstrate the value of a Canadian national bureau of standards, similar to that in the United States.

COLD STORAGE

"Bobby," said a friend to a six-year-old boy, "I hear you are going to school now."

"Yes, sir," was the reply.

"What part of school do you like the best, then?"

"Comin' home," was the prompt reply.

A pawnbroker in a small country town was awakened in the middle of the night by a furious knocking at his shop door. He opened the window and looked out.

"W-h-w-h-at's the matter?" he asked breathlessly.

"Come down," commanded the stranger.

"Who are——"

"Come down," interrupted the other. The pawnbroker hastened downstairs and peeped through the door. "Now, sir," he demanded.

"I wansh know the time?" said the bibulous one.

"You blinking idiot. Do you mean to say you woke me up for that? How dare you?"

The midnight visitor looked injured.

"Well, you've got my watch," he explained.

CAPITAL AND LABOR JOIN HANDS.

Press despatches from the Pacific coast carry significant and encouraging news. They report "the first step in a movement to exert a permanent and helpful influence toward lessening industrial disturbances on the coast." Specially appointed committees of the Vancouver board of trade and the Vancouver trades and labor council met in a two-hour conference. It was an initial step. Other meetings are to be held regularly from time to time, "and," the despatches say, "it is believed that the more intimate acquaintanceship with the aims and ideas of both capital and labor on the part of rival leaders will do much to maintain industrial peace and cooperation."

The conference was in no sense an emergency one. There was no particular strike, or threatened strike, under consideration. The meeting dealt with "general principles, with a view to getting closer together." This will be the purpose of other meetings to follow. After the conference President Shallcross of the board of trade issued a statement declaring that "both sides had already learned a great deal about the other's viewpoint, and good is bound to result."

The example of Vancouver might well be followed with great national advantage by the representatives of capital and labor in other large manufacturing communities throughout Canada. War's industrial problems are present and persistent. After-the-war industrial problems will be even more difficult and acute. This time of national unity in endeavor is particularly appropriate for the inauguration of permanent representative bodies to discuss plans for cooperation and agreement. This getting together means, as Mr. Shallcross says, that each side of the industrial combination which has so much of Canada's future development and prosperity in its hands will learn "a great deal about the other's viewpoint." Knowledge and understanding are more effective methods of building up Dominion industry than strikes or lockouts.

Let other Canadian cities follow the inspiring lead of Vancouver.—Toronto Globe.

THE SCHOOLS IN THE NON-ENGLISH DISTRICTS.

In the course of a recent address before the Manitoba legislature, Hon. R. S. Thornton, minister of education, gave a summary of the methods adopted to improve the school facilities in certain non-English neighborhoods.

Within a triangular district of about 10 miles to each side not far from Winnipeg were many sections where the school buildings were old and greatly lacking in proper accommodation. Other sections had no school buildings. Everywhere there was difficulty in securing teachers because no suitable boarding places were available.

The department grappled with the problem by putting the official trustee, Mr. Ira Stratton, in charge. Since 1915 he has been instrumental in building 112 new schools, each accommodating fifty children. The enrolment now includes about 4200 children, of whom 3400 were heretofore without school accommodation. Forty-five teachers' residences have been built, each with three airy rooms and a sun porch. Teachers are available for every district with a residence. The teacher comes with her mother or sister and establishes a Canadian home in the midst of a Ruthenian or Polish settlement.

Frequently she starts work with 30 or 35 children of assorted ages none of whom can speak English. Within three months they have a fair English vocabulary. They soon become intensely interested not only in the school work with its manual training, its domestic science, and its school garden, but in the practical "settlement" in full operation in the teacher's residence. The problems which Manitoba faces are peculiar and thorny, but it is becoming clear to all eyes that in breaking the bilingual shackles which hampered the school system the province made a short cut to the highway of efficiency.—Toronto News.

WHY ALSACE IS FRENCH

A large part of Alsace, including all the important cities except Strassburg, became French by the treaty of Westphalia, in 1648, says a letter to the New York Evening Post. Strassburg, declared a free city, was virtually outside the empire from that date on. In 1674 and 1677 its inhabitants allowed it to be used as a gateway for the invasion of France, and Louis XIV. cannot be greatly blamed for annexing it on that provocation. All this was before the days when the right of a people to choose its own rulers was recognized.

But the true French claim to Alsace is not that of conquest; it is that on July 14, 1790, the representatives of Strassburg and of all Alsace and of all the cities and provinces of France, at the ceremony of the Federation, voluntarily made public declaration of their adherence to French nationality. The nationality first imposed upon the Alsatians by agreement between rulers was on that day ratified by them of their own free choice.

The real reasons for the German seizure of Alsace in 1871 were, first, that it was worth taking, and, secondly, that its loss would weaken France. The linguistic claim no more entitles the Germans to Alsace than to Switzerland; the "historic" claim, based on the assumption that the German empire of 1871 should be co-extensive with the Holy Roman Empire of the Hapsburgs, no more entitles them to Alsace than to Bohemia.

Since the beginning of the war, Alsace has been terrorized by arbitrary arrests, deportations and executions of natives suspected of French sympathies. What further inflictions would follow if the German authorities had any reason to believe that a popular vote to decide the question of nationality was to be taken after the war, can easily be imagined.—Detroit Free Press.

HAS DONE WELL

For a year now the United States has been a war partner of the allied powers. It has been a year of strenuous work for the government and people of the United States and in view of all the difficulties that had to be overcome the end of the twelve months finds the republic to the south commendably forward in the game.

Those who are prone to complain of the slowness of our latest ally and wonder why, with all the wealth in men, money and machinery at her command she has not long before proven a deciding factor in the great conflict, are either in ignorance, of, or are forgetting for the moment, many things. It will not be possible to appreciate to the full all that Uncle Sam has done in the war during the year just past until some ante-war date when historians gather and set down all the facts in their proper sequence. Meanwhile men who know something of all that has been happening, affirm that the surprising thing is not so little had been accomplished, but rather that so much has been done.

Not the least important of Uncle Sam's war contributions during the year have been President Wilson's remarkable addresses to congress. As a result of these, Germany has been forced into the open and her ghoulish schemes laid bare to the gaze of the world. Hun duplicity has not been able to explain away the clear cut, definite charges made by the President against the German war party. The war has seen President Wilson—an eminently fair neutral with a peace loving temperament—changed into one of the most determined of all the many allied advocates of war to the end against Prussian autocracy. Crooked diplomacy and inhuman German war methods are responsible for the president's conversion. That this conversion has been complete may be judged by his latest public utterance in which he announces that America's answer to Germany is "Force, force to the utmost, force without stint or limit."—Calgary Herald.

THE AMERICAN MULE.

The mule has found a champion. The Minneapolis Journal comes to his defense and glorification. It points out that wherever a western allied army fights the American mule is a big factor in the second line of defense. Now that French veterinarians have learned to silence his unmusical bray by an easy surgical operation, it maintains that he is destined for great military service behind the front lines.

Heretofore the mule has been generally regarded as a joke more or less flavored with danger. As a domestic neighbor he was to be held at good arm's length because about him there was always a potential war zone. Our Minneapolis contemporary does not see him that way. It seriously argues that the real American mule is a domestic jewel, and that the raising of the mule ought to receive the same intelligent study given to the rearing of a horse. The mule, it maintains, will outlive the horse, will work more and eat less for his weight, can safely be herded in flocks where horses would injure each other, is less liable to be stampeded, and rarely maltreates himself as frightened horses often do. The mule's hoof is more perfect, his health is proverbially better, and he can endure greater atmospheric extremes than the horse, according to the Journal's final summary of comparison. It proclaims the mule as a big factor in war winning, both in the zone of conflict and in the home work of production.

So, all hail to the mule! We may never have any equestrian statues of great generals mounted on mules, but, if our contemporary speaks by the books, in the decorations about the pedestals of such statues the American mule should stand out in high relief in a prominent place of honor.—Toronto Globe.

The retiring president, John McKie, thanked all those who had rendered him assistance during his term of office and stated that through their efforts much work had been accomplished. Various addresses were then listened to by a number of those present, all speaking of the efficient manner in which Mr. McKie had conducted the affairs of the association during his term as president.

A war time lunch was then served by the members of the Oddfellows order, when more speeches were listened to. This was augmented with brief talks by Mrs. J. N. Currie, district deputy president of the Rebekahs, and Mrs. Dan Fleming. After lunch a pleasing event took place when three members of Gateway lodge were presented with past grand jewels. These were given to those who had passed through the chief chair of the order. The presentation was made by W. S. Macpherson, past grand, and those receiving the jewels were Dan Fleming, Frank R. CRANBROOK VETERANS HOME

(Special to The Daily News.)

CRANBROOK, B. C., April 12.—Two local veterans, both of whom have seen service in Saloniki, have returned on leave during the past few days.

George Cam, an Imperial reservist, left for England Aug. 4, 1914, and saw considerable service in France and was later transferred to Saloniki, being twice wounded.

Pte. J. A. Ferguson left here a few months after the outbreak of war and unable to join the infantry, enlisted with No. 5 Canadian general hospital corps. He was at Saloniki for nearly two years.

It is stated that the Canadian Northern car shops at Port Mann will be put in operation shortly. A large quantity of material now lying at Winnipeg is to be forwarded to the coast immediately. The shops have a capacity of five cars a day.

Saskatoon business men and property owners are complaining of the increase of the rate of taxation to 33.50 miles on the dollar, from 21.80 last year. It has been suggested to the council that collections for the depreciation funds should be suspended until after the war.

BIG LEAGUERS START SEASON

Annual Pennant Campaign Begins This Week—Several Games Are Slated for Tomorrow.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

NEW YORK, April 14.—With many players missing, due to voluntary and draft enlistment into war service and startling changes of uniforms since the close of the 1917 season, the major leagues will open their annual pennant campaign this week under conditions which have not existed at any previous period in the history of the organizations. True to tradition and bravely facing the uncertain future, the 16 clubs composing the National and American leagues begin their 1918 schedules confident that the niche which baseball has hewed for itself in the national life will be found a safe foothold even in the perilous times of the present day.

Season Starts Today.

The American league, weather permitting, will have the honor of marshalling its forces to the first call of "play ball" today. On Monday the New York club of the junior association will face the Washington club players at the national capital city, while the Philadelphia Athletics will oppose Boston on the home diamond of the latter team. The following day the four remaining clubs of the American league and all eight of the National league will swing into action in the various cities of the circuits, providing the weather man cooperates with the players and the fans.

Tomorrow's Games.

The schedules for Tuesday call for the following opening games:

American league—Cleveland versus Detroit, at Cleveland; Chicago versus St. Louis, at Chicago.

National league—St. Louis versus Chicago, at St. Louis; Cincinnati versus Pittsburg, at Cincinnati; New York versus Brooklyn, at New York, and Philadelphia versus Boston, at Philadelphia.

Opinion Favors Sox.

What the outcome of the pennant races in the two leagues will be only the future can disclose. In the American league, the Chicago White Sox, world champions, are conceded to have the edge in playing strength and confidence which comes with the capturing of a championship. One or two of the rival combinations, particularly the New York Americans, have been strengthened as the result of trades and cash purchases and it is likely that the race for first place will be fully up to the standard of the past years.

In the National league the New York Giants, winners of the 1917 pennant, are still the favorites for the flag, but on paper, at least, the team does not appear to be quite as impressive as a year ago. In addition there is certain to be greater opposition on the part of two or three clubs which have built up stronger teams than were available last season. In a general way Cincinnati and St. Louis appear prominently in this particular with at least one other combination in the role of a dark horse.

JERSEY CITY TO GET EVERS OF BRAVES FAME

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

NEWARK, N. J., April 14.—Just before the International league club owners finished their schedule making here last night, it was announced that Dave Driscoll, owner of the Jersey City franchise, was negotiating with Coach John J. Evers of the Boston Braves, to become player manager of that club. In order not to stand in the way of the veteran, it is understood that the Boston club will release him.

President Farrell announced that the schedule for the coming season had been completed and adopted. It consists of 140 games, beginning on May 8 and closing on Sept. 15. The opening games on May 8 were arranged as follows:

Toronto at Binghampton, Buffalo at Baltimore, Rochester at Jersey City and Syracuse at Newark.

SUFFERED TERRIBLY WITH HER HEART

The terrible smothering and choking up sensations and sinking spells, the feelings of dizziness and faintness that come over those whose heart and nerves are deranged causes the greatest distress of both mind and body.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills give prompt relief and effect a complete cure in cases of such severity.

Mrs. A. M. Powell, Norval Station, Ont., writes: "I cannot speak too highly of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. I suffered five years with my heart and nerves, but the last two years I have suffered terribly. If I went to bed I would wake up as if I were smothering. I did not get one night's sleep out of seven. I got so very weak that the doctor was called in and he said it was my heart and that must take great care of myself. I saw your advertisement in your almanac for Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and said I would try them. I have only taken two boxes of them and I feel a new woman. I will recommend them to anyone afflicted with heart trouble."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c a box at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

BISHOP OF LONDON IS IMPECUNIOUS

LONDON.—Speaking to a patriotic crowd from the top of a battle scared tank, which was doing a roaring trade in war bonds, the Right Rev. Dr. Infram, Bishop of London, announced that he had only £500 and that he had just received it for a new book he had written. As soon as he had finished his speech he said he intended to invest it in war bonds at the tank to encourage others to do likewise. Furthermore, he announced that his Episcopal residence, Fulham Palace, was soon to be turned into a Red Cross hospital and he was giving up half of his other establishment in St. James Square.

The bishop is used to being out of funds. According to his own statement, he has been in a chronic state of impecunosity ever since 1901, when from a suffragan he was promoted a full-fledged bishop. He once published a statement of his accounts to show how difficult it was for him to make both ends meet on his salary of £10,000 a year.

Although a bachelor and a man of simple tastes, he was compelled to live at Fulham Palace, with its 44 bedrooms, maintain it in good condition and not neglect the Scriptural injunction to be "given to hospitality." He hinted that he would much prefer living in a small flat at a much reduced salary. But he was not allowed to rid himself of his Episcopal white elephant. Now that the Red Cross is to take it off his hands he may be able to save something out of his income.

By using a tractor to pull water wagons on Saskatoos streets, the city will effect a saving of $25 a day, according to Commissioner C. J. Yorath. The commissioner sai dthat eight teams of horses were required to float the streets¼ costing $39 a day. If a tractor were purchased it would do the same work for $14.95.

J. A. Jackson, formerly general secretary of the Ontario Sunday school association, died at Toronto. He used to be principal of Iroquois high school.

AT THE THEATRES

Lessons from "Little Mary."

When George M. Cohan appeared at his motion picture studio the first morning of his screen career to produce "Broadway Jones," now at the Starland theatre, everyone expressed surprise at his familiarity with the technical workings and expressions of the plant.

The mystery was finally explained when the famous actor-author-producer imparted to Director Kaufman the information that he obtained his first lessons in motion picture work from none other than Mary Pickford. The productions of both Mary Pickford and George M. Cohan are distributed by the Arteraft Picture Corporation, so naturally George felt that he and "Little Mary" were in the same family, so to speak.

The fact that George M. deserted Broadway for an entire day in order to journey to Mary Pickford's studio in Fort Lee, N.J., readily indicates with what energy he took up his new field of endeavor. Under the capable teaching of the popular girl whose experiences before the camera have been crowned with the greatest success ever achieved by a screen star, George soon learned the inner workings of the film studio. A special matinee performance of "Broadway Jones" will be given this afternoon.

Dorothy Gish in "Her Official Fathers"

A spirited young woman whose guardian is an entire trust company, to which she must render account of every expenditure, however small, is the part played by Dorothy Gish in the new Triangle-Fine Arts photoplay, "Her Official Fathers," which will be featured at the Gem theatre tonight.

On one occasion the determined young lady engages in a hot argument with the bank's vice-president concerning a pair of silk stockings which she claims to need desperately, though her wardrobe contains some twenty pair to match each of her suits and gowns. Before gaining her demand she starts a run on the bank, alarming the passersby with her frantic shouts of "I want my money."

Miss Gish wears bewitching clothes through the scenes that include her roguish activities at a boarding school, her flirtatious beguilement of two greedy bank officials, both of whom she has promised to marry, and her denunciation of them on her eighteenth birthday, when she assumes charge of the fortune left by her father to the company's care.

TENNESSEE IRISHMEN ENDORSE CONSCRIPTION

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., April 14.—Resolutions protesting against the opposition of Irish Nationalist leaders to conscription in Ireland were adopted here at a mass meeting of Irishmen and citizens of Irish lineage. A copy was mailed to John Dillon, Nationalist leader in parliament. The resolutions said that home rule and other questions that affected Ireland must be subordinated to the more pressing duty of successfully prosecuting the war against Germany.

GERMANS WEAR CAMOUFLAGE SHOES

Wooden Shoes With Paper and Rag Uppers Make a Poor Foot Covering.

LONDON.—The lack of leather in Germany has become so acute that common leather shoes have become a luxury within reach of only those privileged by wealth or rank. For the average German subjects of both sexes the German government has just invented a "uniform shoe" (Einheitschuh.) This shoe is made of paper, wood, old rags and scraps of leather, and, even in the opinion of the most ardent pan-Germans, is something to which it is impossible to get accustomed.

To get an idea of what the horrible discomforts of the new German substitute for shoes must be, it is sufficient to hear the opinion on this matter of the Berliner Tageblatt, one of the staunchest supporters of the military click. It says:

"The new uniform shoe has nothing of the elegance, lightness and beauty of the former plain street shoes. The leather and cloth trimmings of ladies' and gentlemen's shoes are now lacking completely, as are also the leather soles, which have been substituted by other raw materials.

"The new shoe is crude and clumsy, uncouth, and very rough, heavy and thick, and will be a source of discomfort and annoyance to unaccustomed feet. The sides are made of impregnated paper; sometimes old military coats and uniforms, remnants of cloth and rags are employed when military authorities can supply them. The toe caps and the vamps are made of leather.

"The so-called better uniform shoes have their sides trimmed with narrow strips of leather. The soles of all shoes are entirely of wood. The so-called vocational soles for workmen have their wooden soles protected with nails or tacks from being too rapidly used up. These shoes will cost according to the size from 17 to 22 marks ($4.25 to $5.50). Before the war a good pair of leather shoes could be obtained for 8 to 12 marks."

GOOD OLD 51st DIVISION, MESSAGE SENT BY HUNS

LONDON.—Gen. Sir Julian Byng is one of the heroes of the day, for in the great events of the last 14 days nothing has been finer than the stand made by the Third Army against the enemy's onset.

All the indications are that the main German offensive was launched against that part of the British line held by Gen. Byng's army. Nevertheless, Von Bulow's hammer blows made practically no impression on this force. The Third Army did not give way for more than 100 yards under the weight of greatly superior numbers, and only retired in order to conform with the new dispositions rendered necessary by the great bend in the line on its right.

Every division in the Third Army fought gloriously against great odds. None fought better than the 51st division, composed of Highland Territorials, whose valor was gratefully and admiringly acknowledged by the King during his recent visit to the front.

A German Tribute

One of the most striking tributes to the bravery of the British was the compliment tendered by the enemy to the famous 51st division. The division had been fighting for six days and was almost exhausted. It was ordered to fall back to the Beaumont Hamel line, a little farther west, but many of the men could not walk. they were so tired from the lack of sleep. Then came over from the German side one of those little red balloons, which the enemy had been using to carry out propaganda. The balloon was shot down, and here is the message it contained:

"Good old 51st division, sticking to it yet. Cheer up."

The division was holding a section of the line in the vicinity of Demicourt, near the Bapaume-Cambrai road, on the first day of the battle, when the Germans surged forward. The enemy attacked in a southwesterly direction under cover of the mist and outflanked the 51st on its left in rush.

A Gallant Officer

The tremendous struggle continued at Doignies, which the Germans succeeded in taking the first day, was here that a British officer fired a thousand rounds from a machine gun before his legs were shot off by a big shell. The British immediately counter-attacked with infantry and tanks and stormed their way through the shell-shattered hamlet, which they held mainly with machine guns until night, when the enemy again surged forward and recaptured Doignies.

Clever German Scheme

The 51st was forced to fall back because of the situation on its flanks. It retired slowly, fighting every inch of the way. The Germans now introduced a new scheme for advancing their troops. They blasted shell-craters along the front of the 51st, and into these holes they dribbled their infantry, who found them good protection.

The 51st reached Hermies, where a bitter fight was waged. The enemy made a frontal attack in three waves on March 22, but the assault broke against the stone wall of resistance. The day the enemy got a hold of Morchies it was only to be smashed out again by the gallant 51st, but despite the successes the 51st were forced to fall back throughm Beuguy and then to Bapaume, and finally to the line between Pruisleux and Miraumont, on March 26.

It was then that the division was ordered to fall back to Beaumont-Hamel.

Demand Proves Equal to Supply at Weekend Market Place—Waterglass is Popular

Everything was pretty well sold out at the market on Saturday. Butter at 50 cents retail and 45 cents wholesale and eggs at 50 cents received a good sale. The quantity of meat and fowl was very small and quickly bought up. There was a great demand for seed potatoes, especially in the early varieties. New vegetables put in an appearance although not in very large quantities. A pretty display of flowers was exhibited in one stall.

That now is the time to waterglass eggs seemed to be the general opinion. Owing to the high price of chicken feed it was thought that eggs had reached their minimum price for this season and that the opportunity for storing them was now, while the supply was at its best.

MANY CITIZENS ATTEND PRESENTATION CEREMONY

MAJOR-GENERAL LECKIE PRESENTS TO MRS. J. E. GOULDING AND MRS. EDWARD PETERS MEDALS WON ON THE FIELD BY THEIR SONS—CROWDS THRONG ARMORY TO SEE HONOR BESTOWED TO BRAVE MOTHERS FOR VALIANT DEEDS OF SOLDIER BOYS.

Major-General R. E. E. Leckie yesterday afternoon presented to the mother the military medal which was won by Sergt. J. S. Goulding of this city. The medal which was won by Pte. D. A. Peters was presented to Mrs. Edward Peters for safekeeping until the return of her son.

The armory was packed with citizens anxious to show their appreciation of the brave deeds of these two heros. Major J. A. Forin, Major L. E Borden and Capt. W. H. Wilson were on parade. The following local returned soldiers paraded for the occasion with Major Gilbert Anderson in command: Capt. M. J. Vigneux, Lieut D. O. Thomas, R. Q. M. S. Carruthers, R. S. M. Holmes, Sergts. Parcoe, Smith, MacInnis and Dee; Corp. Robinson, Pte. Foss, Pte. McAlmon, Pte Davidson, Pte. Bloomer, Pte. Swannell, Pte. Roberts, Pte. Braithwaite, Pte. Langill, Pte. J. Goulding, Pte. T McDonald, Pte. H. C. McDonald, Pte A. Cater. From Proctor were Capt Olson, Capt. Bell, Capt. Shaw, Lieut Fletcher and Sergt.-Major Will. Veterans of other wars were C. Sutcliffe Indian Mutiny; D. A. McFarlane, Riel rebellion, and S. B. Beyts, South African war. The local organizations of the Boy Scouts and Cadets were present, and the mayor and the aldermen were on the platform.

Mayor Introduces General.

Mayor M. R. McQuarrie introduced the major-general by saying that he was so well known to every household in British Columbia that it was unnecessary for him to relate anything pertaining to the wonderful career he had had in the present war.

Major-General Leckie said that he had been requested to make, on behalf of his majesty the king, the presentation of the Military Medal won by Sergt. J. S. Goulding of the 16th battalion to Mrs. J. E. Goulding and that he felt a keen interest in making the presentation because he himself was in command of that battalion. He remarked that he regretted very much that Sergt. Goulding did not live to receive the medal from the king himself. Mrs. Edward Peters was next presented with the Military Medal won by her son, D. A. Peters. It was presented to her for safe keeping till her son's return.

Particulars Not Known.

David A. Peters, a 19 year-old Nelson boy, who is a son of Edward Peters, who is now in France with a forestry battalion. He is brother of Errol Peters, at present in the Kootenay Lake General hospital, having lost his left leg on being wounded. David is a battalion runner in a Kootenay battalion and has been twice recommended for the medal, which was received by his mother on Saturday. The medal, given for bravery on the field, was awarded to the youthful soldier for his actions on Nov. 17 last. The boy's modesty has prevented him from even telling his parents the particulars of the brave deed but it is surmised that it was for carrying despatches through shell fire.

The major-general added that it was for conspicuous bravery in the field and devotion to duty such as was shown by these lads which had given the Canadians the reputation which they now enjoy.

Major-General Leckie was accompanied by his orderly officer, Capt. A. E. Jukes of Victoria, and after the presentation an inspection was made of the returned soldiers, boy scouts and cadets assembled. After the inspection the returned soldiers' club rooms on Stanley street were visited.

MUSICIANS MEET IN UNION FEAST

Members of Kootenay Battalion Hear Program on St. Patrick's Day Somewhere Near the Huns.

DRINK SILENT TOAST TO DEAD.

Marks First Meeting of British Columbia Bandsmen Since Arrival in France.

On St. Patrick's day somewhere near the firing line, the musicians of the British Columbia battalions celebrated a reunion at which the members of the 54th were royally entertained by the members of the Canadian divisional band, F. V. Wiebber of New Denver states in a letter written to The Daily News immediately after the close of the program.

The program was of a lengthy nature, the first two hours being devoted to a play staged by the divisional concert party. On the drop of the curtain the musicians adjourned to another room where a real bang-up dinner was ready and waiting for them. Incidentally, Bandsman Wiebber remarks that the national beverage of France had its own, but not large place on the table.

On conclusion of the meal, toasts were drunk to the future welfare of the respective bands in attendance and one, a silent toast, to those who had paid the supreme sacrifice. The remainder of the evening was spent in the usual usual miscellaneous and cheery program which features the get-together of the evening was spent with the meetings of the Canadian boys "over there."

WILLIAMS WRITES CHEERY MESSAGE

Gunner in France Sees Bright Side of Soldiering and Looks Forward to Return.

That he has good food, good quarters and a good job is the cheery message of Gunner W. Williams in a letter to The Daily News. Gunner Williams some months ago transferred from the signallers and is now a groom in the Canadian field artillery. In thinking back to 1914 he says it seems a long time since he, with several other Nelson boys, were given a sendoff in the Eagle hall. He remembers well Mrs. Howe's speech on that occasion.

He says that Sergt. Hepple is on his way back to Canada with the married men of the first contingent and that Lieut. Guille is out of the line at present. That being next in line for leave, wounded twice and having the Military Medal all at once is a "hoodoo" is his expressed opinion, proven by the fact that that was the last he heard of his old chum, Dick Griffiths.

Boost Reclamation.

He says: "Try to boost up the Kootenay land reclamation scheme. Will at a fine place for me to locate. I am going to be a rancher when I return."

He adds that he gets The Daily News once in a while and although he does not know who pays for it, wishes to thank the kind person.

"Good luck to all in Nelson," is the hearty wish he sends.

W. H. North of Silverton, spent the weekend in the city and was a guest at the Hume.

"He who wastes a crust of bread prolongs the war," says the Canada Food Board.

Economize in Wheat

Waste in the use of wheat can be avoided by eating bread from Choquette's Bakery. It is an established fact that there is less loss making bread in a bakery than at home in small quantities. In these times of economy wheat can be conserved by using bakery bread. There is no waste in our bakery.
