BOOSTING NOW FOR AMATEURS

Thomas Boyd of Athletic Association Holds Meeting at Regina, Which Favors Amateurism

REGINA, April 29.—Thomas Boyd, president of the Amateur Athletic association, was in the city yesterday and talked over amateur affairs with members of the sporting fraternity of Regina. An open meeting was held and it did a great deal of good, inasmuch as matters heretofore misunderstood were made clear.

Four resolutions were made during the meeting, which will be brought before the Saskatchewan branch of the S.A.A.U. One of them is the endorsation of the motion made by the Manitoba branch, to the effect that "all returned soldiers who fought with the allies in the war be re-instated upon personal application."

Another is to the effect that "any professional who remains out of sport for five years be re-instated into amateur ranks."

The meeting also recommended that a Canadian amateur baseball association be formed, and the fourth was to the effect that "a person suspected of transgressing the laws of amateurism be not made to prove his innocence, but rather that the accuser prove his guilt."

Mr. Boyd told of his trip to Calgary, which he termed as "very satisfactory."

BETTER CARE FOR STOCK PROPOSED

Meeting at Winnipeg Discusses Questions on Shipping of Cattle.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

WINNIPEG, April 28.—Matters pertaining to the betterment of shipping and transportation of cattle and other livestock were discussed at a meeting held this afternoon, when the executive committee of the western Canada livstock union met the general freight agents of the three transcontinental railways. Delegates were also present representing the Canadian council of agriculture, the United Grain Growers, Western Canada Shipping association, the livestock branch of the federal department of agriculture and the Union stockyards.

The different subjects under discussion were:

The general facilities at stock yards, the livestock contract, especially in contact with valuation of stock and the railway's liability for the attendant; refunds without application of overpaid freight accounts; accommodation for attendant accompanying stock; installation of transport telephones in railway stations and prompt spotting of cars at terminals. A committee was appointed to co-operate with the railways in connection with the erection of proper hog chutes for counting animals, shelter sheds and providing of water.

It was decided that box cars would not be provided for shipment of hogs when going to exhibitions.

By mutual agreement it was decided that the changes asked for in the livestock shipping contracts should be referred to the railway commissioners for their consideration.

The following livestock men leave here tomorrow for Ottawa to meet the eastern Canada livestock union to consider the question of forming a national livestock council: W. H. Auld, deputy minister of agriculture for the province of Saskatchewan, and vice-president for Saskatchewan on the executive of the western Canada livestock union; Andrew Graham, vice-president for Manitoba; George Hoadley, M.L.A., vice president for Alberta; and E. L. Richardson, Calgary, secretary of the union.

CONTINUING THE DEBATE ON BILL TO INCORPORATE

M'KENZIE INSISTS THAT OPPOSITION IS NOT OFFERING UNREASONABLE OBJECTIONS TO CLAUSES.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

OTTAWA, April 28.—With speeches strictly limited to terms under the closure rule, the debate on the bill to incorporate the Canadian National railway system continued throughout the afternoon and evening sessions of yesterday and the early morning hours today in the commons. The goal towards which the house was driving was reached at 2 a. m., when clauses of the bill still undisposed of passed the committee stage automatically.

As generally anticipated, the fight centered particularly on clause 20 of the bill which renews the charters on 44 Canadian National railway lines in western Canada.

While arguments advanced by members of both sides of the house were much the same as those heard in debate last week, the discussion was enlivened by opposition protests against the enforcements of the closure rule. Several western Unionists during the course of the debate strongly supported the government and accused the opposition of being enemies of public ownership.

At midnight D. D. McKenzie, opposition leader, speaking for the first time, asserted that the opposition was not offering unreasonable objection to the bill. Their chief desire was to safeguard the rights of the pople.

Hon Arthur Meighen followed. He thought the information asked for regarding the ownership of the lands along the route of these railways was the most amusing feature of the request. Ever since this railway was owned by the government, the townsites had all been owned by the government.

Mr. Meighen claimed that every particle of information that had any bearing on the question had been given.

The burdens of the people would be further increased, he thought, by taxation due to the acquisition of the C. N. R.

Frank S. Cahill, Pontiac, declared that Mr. Meighen could not name 10 of the 44 railways whose charters were to be renewed and challenged him to state where 10 of them started or finished.

He would like to go to the country now on this issue to find out what the people thought of public ownership under the control of MacKenzie and Mann and Hon. Dr. J. D. Reid. The opposition was not objecting to the public ownership of this railway, but what they wanted was honest management.

J. H. Burnham, West Peterboro, said the government would stand or fall by the people on public ownership. He challenged any member of the Liberals to come into his constituency and run an election on it.

Mr. Burnham then offered to resign his seat and made the direct challenge to the opposition.

Mr. Cahill stood up and accepted the challenge, amid opposition cheers. He said he would contest the seat of Mr. Burnham on this issue if the government would open it.

C. A. Fournier, Bellechasse, said Sir Thomas White's friends, who were responsible for the C. N. R. being on the hands of the government, were Toronto magnates, malefactors of wealth and unscrupulous bondholders.

W. F. Cockshutt, Brantford; T. Kien, Lotinbiniere; W. A. Buchanon, Lethbridge; Joseph Archambault, Chambly-Vercheres, and S. F. Glass, East Middlesex, followed.

The clause then carried, and in rapid succession theother clauses were adopted until No. 29 was reached.

Hume Cronyn, London, suggested that words "and dispose of," stricken out, should be restored. Mr. Meighen supported this view, on the ground should the government find itself in possession of an undertaking it was desirable to sell, it could do so by selling shares under approval of the governor-in-council.

Mr. McKenzie, just before 2 o'clock, rose and made the final speech for the opposition. He said he resented the attempt of the acting premier to lead the country to believe the opposition was opposed to the public ownership of this railway; it was not so. He attacked Sir Thomas White, declaring that he was on record as a private ownership supporter as against public ownership, he was "everything by turns, and nothing long," he was godly when godliness pays, and that he was "shifting from one leg to the other."

A vote was taken on clause 31 as proposed by Mr. McKenzie, which provides for penalties, but it was defeated by 93 to 41, the vote being a straight party vote, except that Don-

ALLIES TO ASK FOR KAISER'S EXTRADITION

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

PARIS, April 28.—At today's plenary session of the peace conference the council of four presented the text of a peace treaty providing for the prosecution of former Emperor William by a court of judges "for a supreme offense against international morality and the sanctity of treaties."

This court is to be composed of representatives of Great Britian, France, Italy, Japan and the United States. It will fix the punishment of the accused, whose extradition is to be asked.

EXECUTE PRIEST IN HUNGARY

Revolt Which Began on April 10 Stamped Out by the Communist Government in Hungary

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

ZURICH April 28. — An anti-Communist uprising in Fueles, Hungary, began on April 10 and ended a few days later, with the execution of a priest and the imprisonment of fifteen others for participation in the revolt. This news has just been received here from Vienna, having been held by the censor at Budapest.

The revolt began among the peasants, who defeated a Red army force sent from Sopron. Reinforcements finally enabled the troops to suppress the revolt. The Communist government immediately sent a revolutionary judge to Fueles to punish the rebels.

The tribunal caused the arrest of all the young men of Fueles and from them selected twelve of the wealthiest. They were told they would be shot unless they betrayed the name of the real leader of the uprising. After conferring among themselves the young men, it is reported, unanimously denounced Rev. Anthony Szedeniker, a Catholic priest, as the intellectual orginator.

The trial of the priest lasted less than an hour and there were no witnesses except the young men.

He was condemned to death and shot a half-hour later.

Subsequently the young men, it is added, said that they had denounced the priest only because they were convinced that his calling would protect him from violence.

BRITISH BATTALION AT FIUME LEAVES TO AVOID FRICTION, DESPATCH SAYS

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

GENEVA, April 28.—(Associated Press)—The battalion of British troops which occupied Fiume with the Italians after the armistice, left Fiume when the Italian delegates to the peace conference left Paris, according to advices from Agram, capital of Crotia and Slavonia.

The reason for this action by the British is reported to be a desire to avoid friction with the Italian troops.

The dispatch adds that the Italians are reinforcing their troops in central Istria.

The newspaper says that details concerning the future status of the Kiel canal have not yet been settled, but that an agreement has been reached on the principle of internationalization.

The physcians added, however, that because of his advanced years, his two fractured ribs and other injuries "may prove fatal."

COST OF LIVING CAUSES UNREST SAY WITNESSES

Unemployment Is Another Factor, Mathers Commission Is Told at the Victoria Session

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

VICTORIA, B.C., April 28.—Unemployment and the cost of living are the principal factors in existing unrest in labor circles in Canada, according to the trend of evidence heard today before the Mathers commission, which is investigating the relations between workmen and employers. About 20 witnesses were heard in three sessions, the commissioners concluding in time to take the night boat to Vancouver, where the next two days will be spent.

The institution of public works by the federal government, so that employment might be found for those now idle was advocated freely. State insurance against unemployment was popular it appeared. While no witnesses heard claimed to have studied the Whitley and other co-operative schemes deeply, yet most of them agreed that a system in which the workmen would share the responsibilities and the possible rewards of industrial management might be expected to accomplish a good deal in the solution of industrial and economic problems. A suggestion was made that the government operate a sawmill for training returned men in lumbering. The importance of better housing and social conditions for workmen was emphasized.

Most Radical Views

The most radical views came from E. S Woodward, president of the Victoria Trades and Labor council, who gave his personal views after the council as a body had refused to recognize the commission. If he were "dictator of Canada," he declared, he would start work by expropriating the Canadian Pacific railway "at the actual amount of money invested in it." He would look upon the roadbed as a public highway and would advertise for tenders for the operation of trains. The second act of his dictatorship would be the cancellation of all land titles.

Mr. Woodward told the commissioners frankly that he had little faith in the government which appointed them; little faith in them themselves and none whatever in their mission. He declared that the collapse of the present economic system was due sooner or later, and he only favored the present commission because it might "ease the sore places and make the operation of the system a little less onerous during the transition from this system to the next."

The commission operated with none of the formality of a court. Evidence was voluntary and not given under oath. It is stated that no witnesses will be subpoenaed. After each witness made any statement he desired to deliver, he was examined informally on pertinent points by the chairman and such other members as desired. It was principally the labor representatives — Tom Moore and John W. Bruce—who conducted the examinations.

The morning session was given up to employers and most of the afternoon session to representatives of labor.

Start Public Works

"Give a man a good meal at a decent price and he wil be satisfied. Give him a poor meal at a high price and he will be discontented." This was a view of A. Gonnason, head of a sawmill, who advocated starting public works in an effort to relieve unemployment.

George R. Duncan, proprietor of a sawmill near Duncan, advocated "some system of co-operation" and a government training lumber mill for veterans. He said most white men objected to learning the lumber business beside Orientals, as was the necessity if they took their instruction in ordinary mills at present.

"If the Orientals were removed entirely from this province, would that remove a cause of unrest?" inquired Mr Moore.

"Undoubtedly, if industry could stand this removal," replied Mr. Duncan. In his mill there were about 30 per cent. of white employees.

Says Wages Higher.

A Yarrow, representing a firm of shipbuilders and engineers, advocated the standardization of hours and wages throughout the Dominion. He suggested that British Columbia was under an industrial handicap by reason of the fact that wages were higher and working hours shorter than in eastern Canada. He was ready to approve of a national council of employers and workmen in an effort to affect this standardization.

ACCEPT REVISED DOCUMENT WITHOUT DISSENTING VOICE; NAME OF ITALY IS IN LIST

SIR JAMES ERIC DRUMMOND IS THE SECRETARY GENERAL

GENEVA IS SELECTED AS SEAT DESPITE PROTESTS OF BELGIAN PLENIPOTENTIARY—REPORT ON WAR RESPONSIBILITIES IS SET FOR CONSIDERATION AT A LATER DATE

PARIS, April 28 (Associated Press).—The covenant of the league of nations in revised form, moved by President Wilson, was adopted by the peace conference in plenary session without a dissenting voice.

The president's motion also named Sir James Eric Drummond as secretary-general of the league and provided for a committee to inaugurate the league. Thus one of the notable works of the conference passes its final stage and is incorporated in the peace treaty.

Demands Not Pressed

The French and Japanese amendments, after a brief discussion, were not pressed, and the way was thus cleared for unanimous acceptance of the league.

Italy was not represented at the session, but the name of Italy appears as one of the members of the league in the covenant as finally adopted. Nine labor principles were adopted for insertion in the treaty.

The session adjourned without considering the report on responsibilities providing for the trial of the former German emperor by five judges from the great powers. This report was handed in by the council of four and embodied on the peace treaty a provision for the former emperor's prosecution.

Unusual Interest

The session opened at 3 o'clock this afternoon in the French foreign office under circumstances of unusual interest, because it was to be one of the last sessions before the meeting with the German delegates at Versailles; that final action was to be taken on some of the main features of the peace treaty, notably the league of nations, responsibility for the war and the trial of the former German emperor and others, and because important labor clauses were to be inserted in the treaty.

President Wilson was recognized at the outset for a detailed explanation of the new covenant of the league. His speech was without oratorical effort and confirmed the explanation of the textual changes, and named Balgium, Brazil, Greece and Spain on the league council and also on the committee to prepare plans for the first meeting of the league.

Baron Makino, head of the Japanese delegation, in a brief speech, called renewed attention to the Japanese amendment on racial equality. He said that the race question was a standing grievance which might become a dangerous issue at any time, and announced that an effort would be made to have the principle of racial equality adopted as part of the document.

Paul Hymans, representing Belgium, expressed the regret of the Belgian people at the selection of Geneva as the seat of the league of nations, while approving the high aims of the league.

The Uruguayian delegate announced the adhesion of his country to the league.

Leon Bourgeois, for France, renewed two amendments tending to give France additional security. One provided for the creation of a committee to ascertain and exchange military and naval programs, information regarding armaments and similar matters. The other provided for "a permanent organization for the purpose of considering and providing for naval and military measures to enforce obligations arising for the high contracting parties under the covenant, making it immediately operative in all cases of emergency."

M. Bourgeois argued that such security was essential to France because of the extended frontiers of that country which, as President Wilson had declared in the French senate, were the frontiers of the world's liberty.

The amendments of M. Bourgeois, representing France, were not passed.

M. Clemenceau then put the question of the adoption of President Wilson's motion, which prevailed without a formal vote.

The covenant was declared adopted and the session proceeded to labor, reciting nine principles for inclusion in the treaty, which also was adopted.

After setting aside the report on war responsibilities for later consideration, the session adjourned.

Regarding the composition of the executive council, the president said that Belgium, Brazil, Greece and Spain would be represented on the council of the five great powers until a permanent choice had been made.

Presentation of the amended league of nations' covenant by President Wilson marked the opening of the session. He then explained the various changes.

Wilson Moves Action

The president moved that the powers representative to form a committee of nine to prepare plans to organize the league and establish the seat of the league.

He said it was not necessary to emphasize the significance of the great covenant and the hopes entertained that a conference of the free nations of the world would maintain justice in their relations between the nations.

Baron Makino, of the Japanese delegation, spoke after President Wilson and said he regretted that the president's speech had not been translated. He then moved the Japanese amendment of racial equality.

He said it was a race question with the possibility of becoming acute. The equality of nations should be a fundamental one of the league.

Leon Bourgeois spoke for France. He said that the French amendments to the league, including a demand for a national army and police force and the limitation and verification of armaments of all nations, had not been adopted. France, however, would sign the pact, M. Bourgeois declared. The Japanese and French amendments were withdrawn and it is understood that they have been left for decision by the league of nations itself.

M. Clemenceau announced the withdrawal of the amendments and President Wilson's proposal that the covenant of the league of nations be adopted was carried.

There was not more than a moment's pause in honor of the creation of the league of nations, the conference then proceeding with the regular program.

The text of the labor principles for insertion in the treaty was adopted, and the conference adjourned without considering responsibilities.

George Nichol Barnes, British delegate, explained the nine points which the labor commission wish embodied in the peace treaty.

Sir Robert Borden, the Canadian premier, then read the revised nine points. The revised clauses say that the standard set by law regarding conditions of labor should have due regard for the equitable and economic treatment of all workers lawfully resident in the country, and also that a 48-hour week should be aimed at. The commission had asked for this, except where climatic conditions interfered.

Sir Robert Borden said that the changes in the phraseology were the result of suggestions by different delegations and they had been accepted by all the great industrial nations.

M. Clemenceau, the president, declared the nine revised points carried.

COST OF LIVING CAUSES UNREST SAY WITNESSES

berland, and a member of a local grievance committee which settles difficulties with the management, said no Asiatics were employed at the mines in Ladysmith and South Wellington, though more than 35 per cent were Orientals in Cumberland. Present relations with the management in the Cumberland works were fairly harmonious he said. The men had no union organization, however, and this gave them a feeling of weakness. Referring to the proposed "One Big Union," he said the men did not like the existing trade unions, probably because of a feeling that some union officials were corrupt. Out of 169 voting on the "One Big Union," only five had opposed it, he stated, and only 12 had opposed the suggested general strike to enforce a 6-hour day and a 5-day week. There was some unrest over working with Orientals, he added.

William G. Fraser, a Ladysmith miner, agreed with those who put much of the blame for unrest on the cost of living. If industrial councils were properly constituted he had no doubt they would be able to better conditions. Most Ladysmith miners owned their own homes, he said.

509 of 2200, Idle.

Out of 2200 men he represented, 509 are idle, according to Charles Wylie, buisiness agent for the Victoria union of shipyard laborers, riggers and fasteners. "The workers demand not only steady employment but a higher standard of social living," he declared "Unrest is very pronounced among a great number." He highly favored a 6-hour day and insurance against sickness and unemployment.

The working men had arrived at the conclusion that it was futile to approach existing government bodies, said A. Watchman, labor adjuster at the Foundation shipyards. He held it to be the duty of the state to care for each person in it, and to see that none were hungry or improperly sheltered. He agreed that there were 2500 unemployed men in Victoria.

C. T. Cross, chairman of a local reconstruction movement, suggested the absence of the working man's glass of beer as a contributing factor in the unrest, but the cost of living was given the most of the blame.

The commission sat until 6 o'clock, and then adjourned until 7:45 o'clock.

The only solution of the present situation is for the Dominion government to take over the industry of the country and produce for us, not for profit," said J. D. McDonald, builder and contractor, the first witness this evening. "The main thing is to feed the people of Canada first and sell anything left. The working class has the brains of the world and ought to use them. It is useless to attempt any other solution of our social and economic problems."

James Dakers, president of the Victoria Metal Trades council, expressed the opinion that no industry should be allowed to exist which could not pay a living wage. The rate of 30 to 40 cents an hour paid Orientals in the lumber mills was not a living wage, he said, and he suggested the enactment of a minimum wage for the industry below which no employer might go.

"There is bound to be serious trouble unless something is done to relieve unemployment," he said.

Mrs. Sutton, speaking for the retail clerks, said there was a good deal of unemployment among women in Victoria.

J. H. Hawthornthwaite, M. L. A. for Newcastle, the last witness before the commission here, held that the world today was passing through a change in the methods of production. The world had suffered from over-production of goods in the last few years, and from the standpoint of reconstruction he considered the situation absolutely and positively hopeless. Unemployment was becoming greater over the world.

"Civilization demands that this must stop," he said, 'and a better method substituted. With the establishment of monpoly and the failure of competition no more progress is to be looked for from this system."

If representatives of capital would view the matter rationally, Mr. Hawthornthwaite thought some means could be devised to avoid a catastrophe such as had occurred in Russia. Germany and Great Britian were ready for Socialism, for a change in the methods of production by which the worker would obtain full value of what he produced.

"Collective ownership and democratic operation is confronting you," he said. The first step would be the enactment of a 7-hour day, then some of the larger industries coal mines, etc., should be taken over.

"You recognize state capitalism as one transitory stage?" asked Mr. Moore.

"It is one step in evolution," was the reply.

aid Nicholson, Queens' P. E. I., voted with the opposition

The schedules were adopted by 51 majority. Mr. Nicholson again voted against the government.

The bill was then reported and the house adjourned at 2:15 a. m.

Question of Mails

Hon. N. W. Rowell made a statement regarding Canadian mails which had arrived on ships which landed at Halifax and then proceeded to New York with these mails. He said that owing to the interruption of ocean navigation the greater part of the mails for Canada had been coming by way of New York.

The mails referred to were on steamers, the regular route of which was from Liverpool to New York, but special arrangements had been made for them to carry Canadian troops. The postoffice department was not aware that Canadians were on these ships, otherwise arrangements would have been made to land mails at Halifax. The British postoffice department had been communicated with.

Mr. Archambault was told that the pamphlet entitled "One Year of Union Government," an address of H. N. Rowell at Bowmanville on December 17 last, had been distributed in the country, but the government had nothing to do with the preparation, printing and distribution of the pamphlets.

Copies of the address were sent through the mails franked by John Harold, M.P., and H. Mowatt, M.P., no postage was payable and copies of the address were sent out under the franks in accordance with the provisions of the statutes which had been in practice for years.

Limit of 20 Minutes

Hon. Arthur Meighen, in reply to D. D. McKenzie, leader of the opposition, said that each member would be allowed to speak twenty minutes on any clause of the national railway bill as long as the debate did not extend later than 2 o'clock on Tuesday morning. He then moved the closure motion, which was carried by a majority of 64 on a standing vote.

Fred Pardee, West Lambton, and Donald Nicholson, Queen's, P.E.I., voted with the opposition.

E. B. Devlin, Wright, said that once more the government had resorted to the rules of the game. The cost of the Canadian National to Canada, said Mr. Devlin, was tremendous. At a time when the people were clamoring to reduce the high cost of living this government did nothing. It was a government for the rich people. The poor people were having difficulty in getting enough food. The price of Canadian butter was now so high that it was cheaper to buy New Zealand butter in Canada than our own product. This, said Mr. Devlin, was not because Canada was short of butter. It was due to the fact that butter was being hoarded by cold storage dealers.

Girls! Use Lemons! Make a Bleaching, Beautifying Cream
The juice of two fresh lemons strained into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white makes a whole quarter pint of the most remarkable lemon skin beautifier at about the cost one must pay for a small jar of the ordinary cold cream. Care should be taken to strain the lemon juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan and is the ideal skin softener, smoothener and beautifier.
Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any pharmacy and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quarter pint of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands. THIN PEOPLE SHOULD TAKE PHOSPHATE
Nothing Like Plain Bitro-Phosphate to Put on Firm, Healthy Flesh and to Increase Strength, Vigor and Nerve Force.
Judging from the countless preparations and treatments which are continually being advertised for the purpose of making thin people fleshy, developing arms, neck and bust, and replacing ugly hollows and angles by the soft curved lines of health and beauty, there are evidently thousands of men and women who keenly feel their excessive thinness.
Thinness and weakness are usually due to starved nerves. Our bodies need more phosphate than is contained in modern foods. Physicians claim there is nothing that will supply this deficiency so well as the organic phosphate known among druggists as bitro-phosphate, which is inexpensive and is sold by the Canada Drug & Book company in Nelson and most all druggists under a guarantee of satisfaction or money back. By feeding the nerves directly and by supplying the body cells with the necessary phosphoric food elements, bitro-phosphate quickly produces a welcome transformation in the appearance; the increase in weight frequently being astonishing.
This increase in weight also carries with it a general improvement in the health. Nervousness, sleeplessness and lack of energy, which nearly always accompany excessive thinness, soon disappear, dull eyes become bright, and pale cheeks glow with the bloom of perfect health.
CAUTION:—Although bitro-phosphate is unsurpassed for relieving nervousness, sleeplessness and general weakness, it should not, owing to its remarkable flesh-growing properties, be used by anyone who does not desire to put on flesh.

MORE CAUTIOUS AT NEW YORK

Quiet in Conference Circles, However, Tends to Encourage Broader Dealings

(By Daily News Leased Wire)

NEW YORK, April 28.—A note of caution prevailed today in the stock market, but the absence of fresh complications in the foreign situation and the publication of the revised league of nations covenant furnished the incentive for another broad movement, including many substantial gains. As is usually the case of the quarterly meeting the course of the United States Steel was followed with keen interest for some news respecting the extra common dividend, but after fluctuating within extremely narrow margins, Steel closed at a large fractional loss.

The market's course was mainly guided, however, by Oils and so-called Oil Rails. Conspicuous in the first-named division were Royal Dutch issues, at net gains of 7¼ points, Texas Company 9½, and Sinclair 3¾.

Minor rails were prominent, but failed to retain more than part of their one to 3½ point rise, and investment rails reacted moderately. Independent rails were hesitant, but related equipments strong at the end.

Sales amounted to 1,500,000 shares. Minor rails were the strongest issues of the bond market, Liberty's and Internationals also improving. Total sales, $12,675,000.

Old U. S. bonds unchanged on call.

MRS. LOVE RIDES UP IN THE SKY

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

SASKATOON, April 28.—Mrs. Love was the first lady passenger to go up in the airplane owned by Lieut. McClelland today, but unfortunately her flight was of very short duration and nearly ended in death.

The cars surrounding the starting point were so close tha the aviator failed to over clear and collided with a Ford car carrying away the top of the car and smashing the propeller and wings of the airplane. Fortunately no one was hurt outside of a severe shaking up.

A muskrat was killed on one of the main streets in Oxbow last week.

MEN ARE MORONS, BUT OF HIGH GRADE

CHICAGO.—Yea, verily! Man never lives up to his moral code! The majority of men are morons!

Thus decreed the women of the Woman's forum, 20 West Randolph street, in a heated controversy with the male sex. Here are some of the high spots on the question, "Resolved, that the majority of men are high grade morons."

"Man invented chastity, but has never lived up to it. Every man expects women to give to him. Men don't want women with minds of their own. That is the reason militant suffragettes never get married. No woman knows a man until she has been married to him. Men are elusive creatures, but still life is not worthwhile unless he is being chased.

"Man has always feared the physical strength of woman (coffee pots and crockery). He seeks to circumscribe her strength by making her a clinging vine. A woman's conception of hell is a world in which man never exists."

That is what the woman said.

Now harken to the male argument.

"Woman makes herself odious when she starts thinking. Wives sit around with the knitting needles while the man is making a total eclipse of the sun with his shovel.

"Dame nature is always on man with a pitchfork urging him to marry. Woman never had a similar urge. She expects only pecuniary advantage from any compact. Woman never finishes anything. She herself is an unfinished product."

The debate at this stage reached its climax. The chairman—no, chairwoman — announced that no more men speakers would be permitted to speak. Their arguments were too convincing. An uproar resulted, and the meeting adjourned with the vote in favor of the male species.

Work the Hook Slowly to Recall the Telephone Operator

A small signal lamp flashes in front of the telephone operator when you work your receiver hook slowly up and down to attract her attention. A quick rattling of the hook does not operate the lamp.

The filament of an incandescent light will glow for a fraction of a second after you turn the switch. Give the switch two turns, rapidly, and the light seems to burn without interruption.

So with the switchboard signal lamp. It operates when—and only when—the receiver hook is worked slowly.

Had Severe Cold AND TICKLING SENSATION IN THE THROAT.

This trouble is most distressing and is caused from a cold that has settled in the throat.

How many people have lost a good night's sleep by that nasty, tickling, irritating sensation in the throat?

The dry, hard cough keeps you awake, and when you get up in the morning you feel as if you had had no rest at all.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, which is composed of the most soothing and healing expectorant herbs and barks, combined with the lung healing virtues of the world-famous Norway pine tree, will give almost instant relief in all cases of this nature.

Mrs. G. C. Routley, Bright, Ont., writes: "I take great pleasure in writing you of Dr. Woods Norway Pine Syrup.

For several weeks I was troubled with a severe cold, and a tickling in the throat. I tried numerous remedies but found no relief until I used Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, which I had heard so much about and on taking one bottle got instant relief. I highly recommend it to those who need a quick cure."

So great has been the success of "Dr. Wood's" in curing coughs, colds, bronchitis, etc., it is only natural that many imitations have been placed on the market. The genuine is put up in a yellow wrapper, three pine trees the trade mark; price 25c and 50c. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

As Old as his Arteries

The doctor can't help it.

He knows that the man has hard arteries, high blood pressure, and beginning kidney and heart disease, due to long neglected chronic constipation.

It isn't the other man's fault—directly. He's only 45—but he never realized that his constipation was a serious thing.

He never knew how to treat it. He has taken bushels of pills, gallons of castor oil, mineral waters and salts, which have battered and tortured his alimentary canal from one end to the other; and he wonders why his health keeps getting worse. He doesn't know that his food waste has poisoned him, and has bred disease that is going to "get him" before his time.

Nujol is for just such a man—for every person whose bowels do not move easily and thoroughly at regular intervals—especially for those in advancing years whose body machinery will not stand rough treatment.

Nujol softens the accumulated food waste in the large intestine, and moves it gently out of the system, carrying those poisons with it, which, if allowed to remain, cause over 90% of human illness. Nujol supplies the lubrication that Nature can't supply as age begins to make itself felt.

This man might have known in time—but Nujol is new—the accepted modern treatment for constipation.

You can avoid such a misfortune as his. Get a bottle of Nujol from your druggist today and send for free booklet "Thirty Feet of Danger" expressing clearly the soundest medical authority on constipation and self-poisoning.

Warning: Nujol is sold only in sealed bottles bearing the Nujol Trade Mark. At all druggists. Insist on Nujol. You may suffer from substitutes.

MAKING NATIONS AS CIVILIZED AS INDIVIDUALS

The adoption of the covenant of the league of nations is an epoch-making event. It brings international relations to almost the same condition of peaceful intercourse and peaceful argument, when argument may be necessary, as has for centuries existed in civilized countries between individuals.

When an individual has a dispute with another individual it is not the custom for him to take off his coat and immediately try to destroy the other man. He argues that point; then, if an agreement cannot be reached, he submits the matter to lawyers. If they can't bring the parties together the dispute goes before the courts, and the disputants, whether they like it or not, abide by the ultimate decision. If they, by chance, fly to blows the police interfere.

There is no reason under the sun why nations should not be equally sensible and civilized. In this age a nation which runs amuck, as did Germany in this war, should be outlawed by all the world, in the same way as would a criminal individual.

SOUND IN PRINCIPLE AND PRACTICAL.

The most vital sections of the covenant of the league of nations are 10, 11, 12 and 13. Section 10 provides that all the members of the league undertake to respect and preserve the territorial and political integrity of all other members of the league against external aggression. It gives every signatory nation a similar guarantee to that enjoyed by Belgium and carried out by Great Britain and France in 1914, as against aggression by Germany. Section 12 provides that no member of the league shall go to war with any other member without first submitting the question at issue to arbitration under conditions which absolutely prevent any hasty action. They further agree, in section 13, to carry out the award of the arbitrators and to "propose" what steps shall be taken against any nation which acts contrary to an award. Under section 11 the signatory nations agree that any matter threatening to disturb the peace of the world is the concern of the league and provision is made for action to be taken, if it should become necessary.

Section 14, providing for the establishment of an international court of justice, is also of the utmost importance. It is likely to have before it many more cases than will go before an arbitration board.

The main strength of the league of nations plan lies in the sentiment of the peoples of the world who stand behind it. It loses nothing by the fact that its provisions are in some respects general rather than specific. In fact, if it were less general in its terms it is doubtful if many nations would join.

Wisdom of a high order was shown in the provisions with regard to disarmament. The league of nations will deal with this question, but any decision to be effective must be unanimous, which means that there can only be disarmament or reduction of armament with the consent of the nation which is to be disarmed. No other scheme, however attractive it might sound in theory, would be practical.

THE FIRST SECRETARY IS A BRITISH DIPLOMAT

The first secretary-general of the league of nations is a Britisher with a long experience in foreign affairs. Sir James Eric Drummond has been either directly or indirectly in touch with foreign questions involving the empire since 1900.

He was private secretary to the under-secretary of state for foreign affairs from 1906 to 1910. From that time until 1908 he was precis-writer to the foreign secretary. He gave up the work for two years and then acted again in that capacity for another year. From 1912 until 1915 he was secretary to the prime minister and in 1915 became private secretary to the foreign secretary, holding that office up to the present time.

HEROES OF THE THIRTEENTH— The first picture shows officers arriving at Valcartier in 1914. In the second picture a field piece in action. In the third, some of the N. C. O.'s and mascot "Billy."

The German howl is due.

One thing about the flight across the Atlantic is that it won't be such a long drawn out affair once they get started.

Now that the Germans are staying at Hotel Reservoir, perhaps it would be in order to throw a little cold water on them.

When Baron Makino talks of the "principle of racial equality" he assumes the existence of something which does not exist.

The allies have stated that all black lists against Germany have been withdrawn. This does not mean that Germany may now do whatever it likes.

COMMUNICATION

THE LAW AND THE DOUKHOBORS

To the Editor of The Daily News.

Sir,—Referring to your description of the nude parade by the Doukhobors at Grand Forks, and the assertion by neighboring farmers that this is a frequent occurrence, I am led to wonder why it is that the police authorities have not interfered. We have it on the best of authority that the Doukhobors are treating their school attendance as quite optional, and that they are also failing to mak any report of births and deaths.

It is quite unnecessary to mention any further instances of law-breaking than these three referred to. These are illegalities openly known to everyone, yet the police are seemingly blind, deaf and dumb, or else they refuse to see them. Unless a private citizen will take the time and interest to "lay information" these gentlemen, the paid guardians of the law, will not move.

We pay our police for the specific purpose of bringing the criminal to justice. The criminal is every man who disobeys any of the laws of the land. This includes not only murderers, thieves and bootleggers, but members of obscene parades; delinquent parents on matters of irregular school attendance, and those who should fail to register births and deaths.

Law is not a matter for any official to settle as to whether it shall or shall not be enforced. Such action would be contrary to the whole principle of constitutional and democratic government. All law should be held with equal respect and treated as the sacred trust of the people. To discriminate between various offenses, and to decide that one piece of legislation shall be enforced and not another is to assert a most unlawful arbitrariness, shows a total disrespect for the principle of law, and a lamentable ignorance of what official duty means.

There are times (and this is one) when one feels that the police are aware of this obvious criminality. They may throw the blame upon authorities higher up, which may be quite true. But, I answer, what right has anyone, be he plain constable or attorney general, to interfere with the prosecution of the laws of our land. Such a principle of action or non-action puts us on a level with the most barbarous and unconstitutional of ages.

If we have laws to protect the interests of each individual, and the country as a whole, we should have all of them enforced and carried out by all the people without distinction or discrimination. If we do not like our legal code we have the power to rescind what is obsolete and bring in laws that are of value.

It is the experience of many people that the laws of our Dominion are very hard to equal, but that their administration is appalling. Very largely, however, officials in charge, take upon themselves the self-appointed task to say what shall and what shall not be enforced.

Apart altogether from the alien question in which we are all deeply interested, you can hardly blame the Doukhobors for being breakers of the law, when they find they can do so without interference. There are plenty of our own people who would do the same if they could get away with it.

Yours truly,

N. EMMS READ.

Don't Load Up the Storekeeper

Sometimes you can make a merchant believe your goods will sell, even though you know better, Mr. Traveling Salesman.

Sometimes you merely have to say, "These are advertised goods," to get an order.

How is your line advertised?

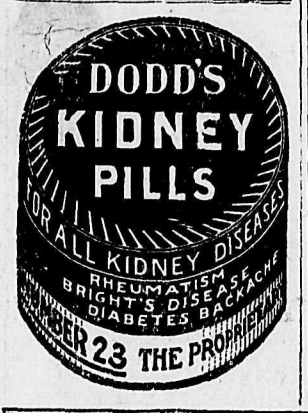
Are your goods advertised by your house in the newspaper of this city where the customers of your trade will read about them?

If they are, you may be sure your concern has done its level best to make business for your friends behind the counter.

If they are not, be careful what you promise.

One way to lose the good will of a merchant is to persuade him to buy a lot of "shelf clingers."

Newspaper advertised goods are never "shelf clingers."



TAKE HOOD'S NOW

You Need It This Spring as Never Before in Your Life

You have overdrawn your reserve strength, worrying during the war. You may have done this unconsciously, but you have done it nevertheless.

You must get that reserve strength back again.

There is no better medicine for you than what has been so universally satisfactory as a Spring medicine.—Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Get this medicine of your druggist today, and begin to take it at once.

Hood's Sarsaparilla combines the best blood-purifying, stomach-toning, strength-giving substances, all of which are prescribed every day by prominent, and successful physicians.

In cases where a laxative is needed, Hood's Sarsaparilla is very effectively supplemented by Hood's Pills, relieving billiousness, constipation, morning and sick headaches. Purely vegetable.

FARMER DIED FROM A BOIL

The death of a young farmer was recently reported from blood-poisoning, which developed from a boil. Such a small beginning to end so disastrously! Yet this is liable to happen to anyone who allows a sore or wound to become infected.

The surest and easiest way to safeguard yourself is by using Zam-Buk. As soon as it is applied to a sore or wound it destroys all germs and acts as a protection, thus preventing infection and possible blood-poisoning. At the same time, Zam-Buk ends pain and draws out inflammation. Then its action on the tissues results in the quick growth of new skin, so that sores and wounds are healed in the shortest possible time. Get a box to-day and be prepared. 60c. box.

SUMMARY OF INTERNATIONAL SITUATION

NEW YORK, April 28.—The Associated Press tonight issued the following:

The revised covenant of the league of nations has finally been adopted at a plenary session of the peace conference.

Sir James Eric Drummond is to be the first secretary-general of the league, the headquarters of which will be Geneva, Switzerland.

Japan's ambitions for a clause in the covenant dealing with racial equality were not satisfied, and the desire of France for an international police force and limitation and verification of armaments were not fulfilled.

Both France and Japan withdrew their proposed amendments, and it is reported that the league of nations itself later will pass upon the merits of the respective claims.

Incorporated in the peace treaty, which is shortly to be delivered into the hands of the German delegates at Versailles, are two momentous clauses. These call for the trial of the German emperor by an international tribunal consisting of five judges on a charge of "a supreme offense against international morality and the sanctity of treaties," and for the trial by military courts of German officers who may be accused of having violated the laws and customs of war. The surrender of William Hohenzollern, who is now in Holland, and of other persons required by the courts is to be demanded by the powers.

The German peace delegation is reported to have left Germany for Versailles to receive the peace treaty, which is virtually completed. The only big issue still outstanding is Italy's claims with regard to Fiume and the Dalmatian coastal region. President Ador, of Switzerland, has arrived in Paris, and one report is that he had been requested to become the arbitrator in the dispute. Another report, however, says his visit is in connection with the inauguration of the work of the league of nations.

Considerable fighting has taken place in Bremen, where Spartacan forces made an unsuccessful attempt to capture the city.

JURY DOES NOT ATTACH BLAME TO ANYONE

REVELSTOKE, B. C., April 28.—Responsibility for the death of J. Augustson, watchman of the Rogers Pass tunnel, who lost his life in the tunnel last Monday night, remained unfixed by a coroner's jury, which inquired into the case here tonight. The jury, however, recommended that the Canadian Pacific railway company should provide devices for the protection of workmen in the tunnel in the way of gas masks, telephone and alarm systems, whereby watchmen and others may be apprised of accident or danger

WOMEN WITH MEN SUPPORT BIG UNION

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

REGINA, April 28.—At the largest meeting of the trades and labor council and at the first meeting at which women took part, a motion supporting the One Big Union carried unanimously, the women supporting it with the men.

Recommendations passed to submit to the industrial commission on labor and capital which sits here shortly include one that all women workers should get minimum wages of $20 a week for a 40-hour week. The council also asked that the local unions take a sympathetic strike vote to ascertain if the unions will support the strikers in the building trades.

TO CONSOLIDATE TAX ARREARS

System of Collecting Arrears by Distributing Over 5 Year Period Is Favored by Council.

At the city council meeting last night a resolution was passed favoring the system of consolidating arrears of taxes and allowing the ratepayers the privilege of paying his current taxes and extending the payment of the arrears over a period of five years. Eight per cent interest will be charged on arrears.

In the discussion which arose over the question, Ald. W. O. Rose pointed out that this system of collecting was in existence in Victoria and that it worked out well.

A bylaw will be presented before the council in the usual manner and the enactment will come into force on third reading.

A tax sale will be held this year.

WINNIPEG BALL CLUB, IN SOUTH WINS GAME

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

WHITEWATER, Wis., April 28.—The Winnipeg baseball club went to Milwaukee Sunday and beat the Lake Shore league club of that city by a srore of 10 to 1. Sheehan and Morrison made home runs. On account of rain only seven inning were played. Predictions that Winnipeg has a hard-hitting aggregation was proven in this team.

Moll and Sheehan brought back a good looking catcher and a fast outfielder who just returned from the army.

Morrison, the big pitcher, looks fine and made the longest home run ever made on the local grounds.

Saskatoon is also training here and generally getting a good looking club lined up.

Price of a Good Time

"The Price of a Good Time," which comes to the Gem on Wednesday and Thursday, is beyond doubt one of the most powerful dramas the screen has thus far produced. The story has to do with a young shop girl who in order to taste, be it ever so briefly, those pleasures she long has coveted, consents to become for one week the companion of a wealthy young batchelor. Six wonderful nights follow—visits to cabarets, roof gardens and other haunts of pleasure, her cup of joy seems overflowing, until the seventh night comes with its complications, which all but wreck the life of the little pleasure seeker. However, don't worry, every thing ends happily.

Mrs. Charlie Chaplin, nee Mildred Harris, has the role of the shop girl. All her work in this picture is perhaps the best of her short but bril-

TORONTO HIRES NEW CHIEF AT $4500 SALARY

TORONTO, April 28.—The council this afternon appointed Deputy Fire Chief William Russell as fire chief, at a salary of $4500 a year.

'PEG COUNCIL UP LATE; OPPOSE TIME SAVING

(By Daily News Leased Wire)

WINNIPEG, April 29.—Sitting through until almost 1:30 this morning, the city council finally voted against daylight saving 8 to 5.

WAVE OF CRIME IS SWEEPING CHICAGO

CHICAGO—Forty-eight hours of extreme violence caused Chief of Police Garrity to summon all the commanding officers to his office and warn them that unless there were unremitting efforts to check the crime wave some of them would face a trial board. Up to today the records of the Chief's office showed that since January 1 there had been 43 murders in the city, 29 deaths from manslaughter, and eight homicides, a total of 80 killings in 108 days. In addition, 202 stores had been robbed, 24 saloons held up and looted and three ticket sellers in elevated railway stations forced to surrender their cash. Three major causes were given by the Chief for the reign of lawlessness—discharge of criminals from the army, unemployment and too few policemen.

ACTOR PREVENTED PANIC IN THEATRE

TORONTO. — When a small fire broke out in the Grand Opera house, Adelaide street, the presence of mind of Oscar O'Shea, who was playing "Father O'Kelly" in "The Rosary," and the bandsmen undoubtedly prevented a panic. The fire was caused by a lighted pipe or cigar in the pocket of a coat in the cloak room. When it was discovered the theatre attendants, without interrupting the performance, called the firemen, who entered stealthily and strove to stem the blaze without alarming anyone. One of the audience, however, happened to see the smoke and rushed for the exit. Others followed. Seeing there was danger of a panic, Mr. O'Shea stepped to the footlights and begged the stampeders to resume their seats as there was no danger. The band ably assisted him in his efforts by playing several lively airs. The damage was $5.

Visitor—Thanks, but might I, do you think, have a look at the one in which Robinson, or Jones, or Smith put up when down this way?—From the Passing Show, London.

A stick of real walnut appeared in a Chatham factory last week. It was 12 feet long and 6 by 9 inches. There was not a flaw of any kind in the lumber cut from it. The timber is believed to have been cut nearly fifty years ago, but no definite information as to its whereabouts since then is known.

TALK ONE-MAN CAR SYSTEM

Council Refers Question to Committee —Want to Cut Down Expenses.

Nelson may have one-man street cars on the pay-as-you-enter system, if suggestions brought up at the city council meeting last evening bear fruit. The object of the change would be to increase the revenue of the street railway.

The first suggestion made at the meeting was that the fares should be raised as something would have to be done to make the street railway pay, but this did not meet with much favor.

Alderman R. Andrew said that he did not believe that that system would go any good, as people would stop using the cars if the fares were increased. Mayor J. A. McDonald said that most of the persons using the cars were persons who could not afford to pay an increase and in the event of the increase they would walk, which would leave the street railway system worse off than ever.

Ald. C. F. McHardy said that something would have to be done, either the fares would have to be raised or the city would have to run one-man cars.

Ald. W. O. Rose brought up the question of having to remodel the cars if the city adopted the one-man car system, but Mayor McDonald pointed out that they would not require a great deal of remodeling.

On motion of Ald. McHardy the question was referred to the street railway committee, which will report at the next meeting of the council.

MUST CLEAN UP ALL ALLEYS

Council Passes Resolutions Instructing Sanitary Inspectors to Be About Back Yards, Too

Nelson citizens will have to keep their backyards and alleys clean from now on, for the city council passed a resolution at the meeting last night instructing the chief of police, who is the sanitary inspector for the city, to go around on a trip of inspection.

If the alleys and backyards are not kept clean enough to conform to the sanitary laws warning will be given by the inspector.

R. Smillie and R. Bishop waited on the council as a deputation from the new organized Athletic association. They asked for control of the recreation grounds and that the city put them in shape. Mr. Bishop reported that the dressing room was in need of repair. The grounds were not so bad, he stated, but the track had become overgrown. Ald. McHardy moved that the city grant the request of the association with a provico that the city could have the use of the grounds on days of fairs, etc., and that the matter of the repairs should be left in the hands of the public works committee. The motion was seconded by Ald. Choquette.

The question of providing a free cab for conveying returned soldiers from the boat came up for discussion and the city clerk was instructed to make arrangements for the vehicle.

As a result of activity by the Women's institute with regard to fixing up the city park at the car terminal, the city council decided to engage a man from May till September, to do the necessary work, such as planting flowers, and acting as superintendent of the park.

The question of obtaining a team to do the required plowing came up, and it was suggested that the fire team could be used. The fire, water and light committee were instructed to look into the question.

"LISTENING POST" PULLS LAST PROOF IN EUROPE

Publication on European soil of the trench paper of the 7th battalion, "The Listening Post," ceased with the March issue of the magazine, copies of which have reached Nelson. According to an article which it contains, it is the intention of those responsible for the publication to "carry on" the magazine in Canada.

In the issue to hand a noticeable feature is that many subjects are mentioned which, before the cessation of hostilities, were under a rigid censorship.

DUNN PASSES THROUGH CITY

Game Conservation Board Member Will Ask Sportsmen What They Want in Way of Regulations

F. A. Dunn, member of the Game Conservation board of the province, was in Nelson last night on from Victoria, where he attended the last meeting of the board held on April 22. In speaking to A. M. Black, secretary of the Nelson District Rod and Gun club, he said he expects to return to Nelson in May to take up all questions pertaining to the Game act, for the purpose of getting the view of the members of the club with regard to the game regulations to be submitted to the board at its next meeting, which is to be held in Victoria in July.

Mr. Dunn is member for the district east of the Cascade and south of the Grand Trunk Pacific railway to the Alberta end of the U.S. boundaries. LIFT OFF CORNS!

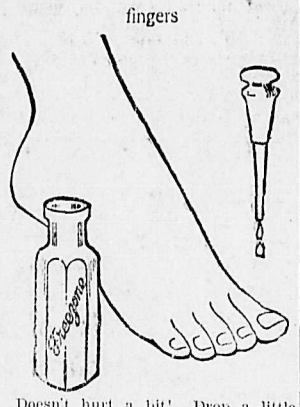
Apply few drops then lift sore, touchy corns off with fingers



Doesn't hurt a bit! Drop a little Freezone on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then you lift it right out. Yes, magic!

A tiny bottle of Freezone costs but a few cents at any drug store, but is sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the calluses, without soreness or irritation.

Freezone is the sensational discovery of a Cincinnati genius. It is wonderful.

Printed Butter Wrappers

Either With Your Name or With the Words

Dairy Butter

According to the Dominion government regulations all farmers who sell butter either to stores or privately are required to have it properply covered in a wrapper on which MUST appear in prominent letters the words

"DAIRY BUTTER"

The fact is also emphasized that all butter in such packages must be of the full net weight of sixteen ounces and in default of same a fine of from $10 to $30 for each offense is imposed. Whey butter must be so labelled even when mixed with dairy butter and dairy butter retains its label even though it be mixed with the creamery product.

If you have your own name or brand on your wrappers you gain valuable advertising for your butter. It causes people to ask for the same brand again.

DECIDE TO REVIVE LACROSSE IN MONTREAL

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

MONTREAL, April 28.—A general revival of lacrosse for this season was decided on at a meeting of the National Lacrosse union, held on Saturday. Six clubs were represented and five will figure in the schedule this summer. The schedule will comprise the Shamrocks, Nationals, Ottawa, Cornwall and Caughnawaga, the latter having been admitted to membership at the meeting.

The schedule will probably be played in two halves, the winner of each to play off at the end of the championship. The union will be conducted on the same plan as in former years, the clubs having the privilege of playing some or all of their players. The following officers were elected:

President, R. Dumouchel, Nationals; vice president, Mayor Fetterly of Cornwall; second vice president, G. Booth, Ottawa. secretary-treasurer, D. Brown, Montreal.

It was announced that the schedule would start the first week in June and thence continue until September.

Keep the Bowels Regular And You Won't Be Sick

If the bowels do not move regularly, they will sooner or later become constipated and constipation is productive of more ill-health than almost any other trouble.

The sole cause of constipation is an inactive liver and unless the liver is kept active you may be sure that headaches, piles, heartburn, biliousness, jaundice, floating specks before the eyes and many other troubles will follow the wrong action of this, one of the most important organs of the body.

Milburns Laxa-Liver Pills will regulate the bowels so that you will have a free and easy motion every day, and one pill at night for thirty days will cure the worst cases of constipation.

They do this by acting directly on the liver and making the bile pass through the bowels instead of allowing it to get into the blood, thus causing many stomach and bowel troubles.

Mrs. Jos. Labrec, Louise Apts., Calgary, Alta., writes: "I have been troubled with constipation for the last two years. I have tried numerous treatments, but have never been relieved by anything until I used Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills which are helping me wonderfully.'

We do not claim that Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are a "cure-all' but we do claim that there is nothing better for a sluggish liver.

Price 25c a vial at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

RITCHIE SAVED BY THE REFEREE

Fast Bout Is Viewed by Spectators at Newark, N. J., When Benny Leonard Gets Busy.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

NEWARK, N. J., April 28.—Willie Ritchie was saved by the referee from a knockout at the hands of Benny Leonard, lightweight champion, 40 seconds before the end of the eighth and final round of a bout here tonight. Ritchie was on the ropes when the match was stopped.

Leonard receives credit for a technical knockout. Ritchie fought gamely throughout the contest, but was outclassed all the way.

Leonard floored him in the second round and punished him severely in the seventh. The men agreed to weigh in at 3 o'clock at 142 pounds, but Ritchie weighed 138½ pounds and Leonard 136. Each was probably a pound heavier at ring time.

Leonard had the better of every round with the exception of the third, in which Ritchie sent effective right-hand blows to the body, but went to his corner himself with his nose bleeding from a hard right. Ritchie tried to carry the fighting to his opponent, but when he let up Leonard kept right after him, giving no rest.

Leonard sent Ritchie down for a count of nine in the second round with a right uppercut. Three seconds after he rose the bell rang, ending the round.

In the fourth Leonard landed several hard lefts and Ritchie appeared all-in, but came back in the fifth trying to force the pace.

Leonard took the aggressive in the sixth and staggered his man in the seventh when he landed a right to the stomach, followed by a right cross to the jaw. Leonard sent across right and left hooks, but Ritchie came back for more.

TROUT SEASON OPEN MAY 1

Local Fishermen Point Out Important Clauses Which They Say Are Not Generally Known.

In connection with the opening of the trout fishing season on Thursday, local fishermen point out three sections of the regulations which they state are not generally known. According to the law, it is not permissable to catch more than 25 of certain species in one day, nor is it permissable to catch and keep trout less than eight inches long, and it is not legal to buy or sell trout weighing less than three pounds. The sections follow:

Section 1, Clause E reads as follows:

No one shall take in one day by angling or trolling or by both means, more than 25 cut-throat, rainbow or Dolly Varden trout, salmon trout or Rock Mountain whitefish, or the different species named, than will in the aggregate amount to more than 25 fish.

Sec. 18-2.—No trout of any kind under 8 inches in length shall be taken from the waters of British Columbia, and if taken shall be immediately returned to the water alive, uninjured.

Sec. 18 A.—No trout of any kind under three pounds in weight, shall be bought, sold or exposed for sale in the Province of British Columbia.

MISS M'GREGOR GIVES ADDRESS

Field Secretary Presbyterian Church Speaks to Women on Conditions in Remote Parts.

Miss McGregor, field secretary for the Women's Missionary society of the Presbyterian church, spoke to a large gathering of women in St. Paul's church yesterday afternoon. Several representatives from other congregations were present. Miss McGregor spoke of many hardships and privations suffered by the people who lived in remote parts of the dominion, especially among the foreign settlements, where even the actual necessities of life were wanting. She said that the children were growing up ignorant of any religious training.

She also spoke of the great need for more workers in both home and foreign fields.

One of the subjects dwelt upon by Miss McGregor was the loyalty of the Indians to the King and to the British Empire in the recent war.

It could no longer be said of the Indian that "the only good Indian is a dead Indian," she declared.

"They have fought and died for country, can we deny them the gospel?" she asked.

Miss McGregor appealed for more sympathy in missionary work, saying, "what does money or position amount to if we do not do the work that is worth while."

A thank offering collection was taken up at the meeting and amounted to $40.

Miss Graham sang a solo entitled, "My Task." Refreshments were served by a number of women.
