WILSON SAYS, CARRY ON

Urges Citizens Not to Lessen War Effort

(By Associated Press.)

There have been sent broadcast further reports that Austria-Hungary and Turkey, seeing that the trend of events spells ultimate defeat, have informed Germany that they will accept President Wilson's peace terms. Notwithstanding the advantages that are being achieved over the common enemy on the battlefronts and the peace feelers in the air, President Wilson, Secretary Lansing and Secretary McAdoo, in fact all the high officials of the American government are warning the American citizens that the situation still is critical and that everyone should rally to the support of the loan which is being floated in the United States.

FRANCO-YA[illegible] GAIN SEVE[illegible]ILES AT SOME POINTS

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

WITH THE FRENCH ARMY IN CHAMPAGNE, Oct. 11—(11 p. m.)—Cavalry joined in the pursuit of the Germans by Gen. Gouraud's army today, being the first to enter Laneuville. The advance on the eastern part of the battle front, was much accelerated by the French and Americans at some points gaining about seven miles. The Americans, notwithstand a heavy bombardment of the region with gas shells, took Machult.

Gen. Gouraud's troops advanced to the river Retourne over most of its length and took Savingny-Sur-Aisne, only 2½ miles south of Vouzieres, which is in flames. Guise and all of the villages south of Laon are in flames.

37-Mile Line Abandoned.

PARIS, Oct. 11—The enemy has been compelled to abandon all his positions on a front of 37 miles north of the Suippe and Arnes rivers.

French troops have captured several more villages in the Champagne sector and are within two miles of Vouzieres. Italian troops are cooperating with the French in an advance along the Chemin Des Dames.

FIRST U. S. FIGHT IN ADRIATIC

Durazzo Raid Has Been Complete Success—War Correspondent Reviews Naval Attack

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

AN ITALIAN SEA BASE ON THE ADRIATIC, Oct. 9.—For the first time in the history of the world, American ships have fought in the Adriatic, participating in the attack upon the destrucion of one of the greatest Austrian naval bases, Durazzo, founded by the inhabitants of the Island of Corfu over 2000 years before the discovery of America. The whole Italian fleet took part in the attack, aided by American submarine chasers and French and British destroyers.

The expedition started from an Adriatic port at 8 o'clock in the morning and immediately divided in two groups. The large unit sailed northward to take up positions between Cattaro, where the bulk of the Austrian fleet lay and Durazzo, for the purpose of nipping in the bud any attempt at interference. The remainder of the fleet headed straight for Durazzo. The American chasers and allied destroyers went ahead in fan shaped formation on the lookout for submarines, while the airplanes which accompanied the expedition all the way, kept a sharp watch from the air.

At 11 o'clock the Albania hills were sighted and shortly afterward the white houses of Durazzo hove in sight. Half an hour later the fleet was on the edge of the Austrian minefield. A highly perilous task was now entrusted to the submarine chasers, namely to steam ahead and explore and ine safe passages for the larger craft with white flags fixed on small floats. The work was rendered all the more perilous by the heavy sea running. Throughout the whole operation fearlessly picking their way between sunken mines, the small vessels kept steadily on their way until they had crossed the whole danger

BOATS COLLIDE; 500 MISSING

Transport, Otranto, Is Destroyed

ROCKS CUT IT IN PIECES

Accident in the North Channel--Other Disasters

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

AN IRISH PORT, Oct. 11.—Delayed since Wednesday)—Two hundred and ninety-five American soldiers from the transport Otranto and 236 of the crew have been accounted for, but the fate of nearly 500 more of the ship's company, who were aboard the stricken steamer when she drifted ashore is still unrevealed.

In the hope of succoring those who succeeded in fighting their way ashore through the raging surf, a party of eight, including doctors, left here for a point farther north, when they embarked this morning for Islay island, carrying clothing, medical and other supplies, furnished by the American Red Cross. It will be a day or two, perhaps, before news is received of the outcome of the mission.

In North Channel.

A BRITISH PORT, Oct. 11.—A large number of American troops have been lost as the result of the sinking of the transport Otranto, in the north channel between the Scottish and Irish coasts in a collision with the steamer Kashmir.

The Otranto, after the collision, was dashed to pieces on the rocks off the south Scottish coast with a probable loss of 372 American soldiers.

Three hundred and one men were taken to Belfast by the British destroyer Mounsey, the only vessel which made an attempt at rescue in the terrific gale when the Kashmir, another vessel in the convoy with the Otranto rammed the Otranto ship.

Seventeen men were picked up alive on the Scottish coast.

Of the 699 American soldiers on board the Otranto, 310 were landed, 17 were rescued alive at Islay, leaving 372 unaccounted for.

Fierce Storm.

The Otranto and the other vessels of the convoy were battling with the heavy seas and high winds Sunday morning. The storm was so severe and the visibility so bad that the Kashmir, a former Peninsular and Orient liner, crashed into the Otranto squarely amidships. The Kashmir backed away badly damaged, but was able to make port. As the bows of the Kashmir were pulled from the great hole in the side of the Otranto the water rushed in but for a time it did not serve to stop the engines. The Otranto tried to proceed, but made no headway against the gale and within a short time the water put out the fires and she drifted helplessly toward the rocky coast of Islay island, where most of the Tuscania victims met their deaths.

Thirty minutes after the crash the British destroyer Mounsey, herself badly damaged by the heavy seas, appeared out of the haze in answer to the distress calls of the Otranto. When the destroyer maneuvered to get alongside, Capt. Davidson of the Otranto

ITALIANS WIN IN 7 ATTACKS

Capture Over 600 Prisoners on Asiago Plateau During Morning—Active Along Piave

ROME, Oct. 11.—On the Asiago plateau this morning, Italian and Franco-British troops carried out seven vigorous surprise attacks," says the Italian official statement today, "penetrating deeply the enemy's trenches at Canova, at Anev on Sosemol, to the right of the Frenzella valley, at Saso Rosso and at the end of the Brenta valley.

"The hostile batteries have been surprise, opened a violent artillery fire and pushed ahead his supports but did not hinder complete developments of the full success of the action, which inflicted heavy losses on him. More than 600 prisoners have been counted.

"The hostile batteries rave been more active along the Piave from Montello to the sea."

All Strikes Are Now Prohibited

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

OTTAWA, Oct. 11.—Provisions having already been made for the prompt and equitable settlement of all matters of dispute between employees and employers in industries affected by the Industrial Disputes Investigation act, an order in council was passed today forbidding for the duration of the war strikes or lockouts and imposing severe penalties for violation of the law. Any person violating any of the regulations is made liable upon summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding $1000 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months, or to both.

Any male person, employee or employer of military age who violates any of the regulations and any director of a company who, being of military age, acquiesces in violation by the company of any of the regulations shall be deemed to be a soldier enlisted in the military forces of Canada and subject to military law, for the duration of the war and of demobilization thereafter. He shall furthermore forfeit any exemption granted to him and any right to apply for, or obtain exemption from military service under the Military Service act.

Result of Cabinet Meet.

Announcement of these important regulations was made by Sir George Foster, acting prime minister, following a meeting of the cabinet today. The action taken may be regarded as the corollary of measures already enacted providing facilities for the equitable settlement of industrial disputes, but not penalizing those who fail to avail themselves of these facilities or who refuse to be governed by the decision reached.

There is the Industrial Disputes Investigation act, under which provision is made for the establishment of conciliation boards for the adjustment of dsputes between employees and employers. There is also a board of appeal to which any interested party that

WHITE SPEAKS AT SASKATOON

Minister of Finance Says Great Task Must Be Completed Before Allies Quit.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

SASKATOON, Sask., Oct. 11.—"Gentlemen, this is the second Victory loan, and it is a victory loan indeed," said Sir Thomas White, when addressing one of the largest audiences ever seen in this city, on the coming campaign for the Victory loan. No mention was made by the minister of finance as to what objective had been set for Saskatchewan.

Sir Thomas spoke with regret that the Hon. Charles S. Dunning, provincial treasurer and chairman of the Victory loan committee, was unable to be present, owing to illness, and spoke of the invaluable assistance he had given in his work.

The minister spoke of the magnificent work that is being done in the Uited States toward the Liberty loan, expressing the hope and confidence that Canada would follow that nation's footsteps.

Vital National Problems.

Sir Thomas White said there were some good things the war brought. It had taught us that politics was only skin deep, and when faced with national problems, men were ready to divest themselves of their politics, take off their coats and join wholeheartedly for the common good of the country. The prime ministers, the treasurers, the members of the governments of the different provinces had cooperated heartily with him and made possible the carrying out of the heavy loans the war had imposed on the finance minister of Canada.

The main purpose of the Victory loan was to enable Canada to carry on. We have set our hands to a great task and do not propose to withdraw until a decisive victory has been finally and conclusively achieved. There was no use of speaking of Canada's achievements, of the valor of our soldiers, which commanded the admiration of the whole world, and for all time to come would shed lustre over the name of Canada, and whose heroic deeds would be the heritage and traditions of generations to come.

Lloyd George, the great prime minister of Great Britain, had told the world that at the second battle of Ypres in 1915 the Canadians had saved France by stopping the German drive on Calais. If they had saved France on that occasion it was not too much to say that they had been largely in-

HUNS BLOCKING OSTEND AND ZEEBRUGGE HARBORS

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, Oct. 11, 6 p.m.—Latest allied reconnaissances show that the Germans have nothing of a military nature afloat and nothing in the air along the Flemish coast. The Germans are now engaged in blocking the harbors of Ostend and Zeebrugge.

SERBIANS WINNING.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, Oct. 11.—An official Serbian statement says:

"In spite of strong resistance Wednesday we reached the right bank of the Totritza. We have advanced to the massif of Selitchevitza on the right bank og the Morava.

"French cavalry have advanced to the Babocvhinitza. Our cavalry have occupied Zitnoptik."

War Summary

(By the Associated Press.)

On the wings of necessity the Germans are flying eastward from their old battle positions from Douai to La Fere and northward from La Fere to the Meuse river. Their flight is toward some haven of safety from the talons of the allied hawks which everywhere are menacing them.

All along the battle front the allied troops are advancing. From the south of Douai to the east of Laon the enemy is giving round eastward. The famous Chemin des Dames, the ridge which the Germans had believed to be an insuperable barrier to an advance northward from Soissons, is being evacuated, while in Champagne and along the Meuse river farther eastward the French and American troops are pushing further northward their lines into great converging movements which are fast driving the enemy from Belgium and the greater portion of invaded France toward his own border.

Douai Outflanked

Douai is now completely outflanked by the latest operations of the British while between Cambrai and St. Quentin the British and Americans are still chasing the enemy. To the south of St. Quentin, the French over a wide front have crossed the Oise river and, in conjunction with the retirement of the enemy from the Chemin des Dames, are forcing the Germans to give in the great St. Gobain forest the bastion at the bend of the line where it turns eastward, and also the stronghold of Laon, the keystone of the entire southern German line.

While from the war maps it would appear to the casual observer that the Germans in this bend are likely to be cut off, it seems more probable that they will be able to use railways and highways leading in all direcctions from Laon like the main branches of a spider's web and effect their escape without great loss in prisoners. Nevertheless, the retrograde movement here of necessity must have strong bearing on the stability of whatever new line the Germans may choose to stand upon and on their still relatively strong front in Belgium and from Verdun to the Swiss border. The Italians are taking a great part in the driving of the enemy from Chemin des Dames.

Suippe River Crossed

East of Reims, the Suippe river has been crossed by the French at numerous places. West of the Argonne forest, which now is held by the French and Americans, the Germans are in retreat and a number of towns and villages have been taken by the Franco-Americans. East of the Argonne and along the Meuse valley the Americans are still progressing satisfactorily. The retreat of the enemy along the 35 miles of the western line from Douai to the southeast of St. Quentin is still too fast, except on isolated sectors, for the British, French and American infantry to keep in contact with him. The cavalry and tanks on the plains and through the wooded sectors, have taken a terrible toll from the rearguards, while still farther back allied airmen are cutting to pieces the columns of the bewildered foe as they try to make their way to their next defense line. Virtually no infantry opposition is being encountered. The machine gun seemingly is being chiefly depended upon by the Germans to hold back the foe as their main forces retire.

HECKLE WHEN COLONEL TALKS $5 MORE ALLOWANCE

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

VANCOUVER, B. C., Oct. 11.—Major-Gen. Mewburn, minister of militia, Hon. Dr. Reid, Hon. Mr. Carvell and Hon. Martin Burrell jointly addressed a large audience here tonight at which women predominated. Policies of the government were discussed. There was some attempt on the part of women dependents of soldiers to heckle the general on his suggestion of raising the allowance of dependents by $5 a month. Applause from the main body of the audience silenced the hecklers.

AIRMEN BOMB RAILWAYS IN GERMAN TERRITORY

ALLIES WIN GROUND ALL ALONG WEST BATTLEFRONT

Huns Retreat Eastward From Douai to Laon --Chemin des Dames Is Being Evacuated-- Big Salient Gap in St. Quentin-Cambrai Line Is Made Larger as Germans Retire In Haste

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, Oct. 11.—North of the Scarpe river in the direction of Douai the British have passed the Drcoourt-Queant line and reached the Lens-Douai railway in the vicinity of Beaumont and at Quiery-La Mott, further north, have arrived at Henin Tietard, on the Douai-Carvin road.

The enemy evidently is retiring from Douai. The British have captured St. Aubert and thus are within seven miles of the main German lateral line of communications — namely, the Valenciennes-Lille railway.

The enemy is retreating on the entire front from the Soissons-Laon road to Graadpre, north of the Argonne forest and also from the north bank of the Suippe river in Champagne. Gen. Gouraud's army in Champagne advanced four miles this morning and, captured Machault. The enemy is falling back toward Vouziers.

French Make Big Gains.

PARIS, Oct. 11.—The Germans have been compelled to abandon their positions north of the Suippe and the Arnes on a front of 60 kilometres, according to the official statement issued by the war office tonight.

To the north the advance at some points has reached a depth of 10 kilometres.

The Franco-Italians are continuing their progress on the Chemin des Dames. Three villages have been captured along the Chemin des Dames and the advance has reached the region of Ailles. In the Oise valley, near Le Fere, the enemy is burning a number of villages.

British Sweeping Ahead.

LONDON, Oct. 11.—British troops, pressing into the southeast of Douai toward Denain, have captured the village of Iwuy, according to the official report from Field Marshal Haig tonight. The capture of Fressies, to the northeast of Iwuy also is announced.

The Germans are withdrawing from their strong positions north of the Sensee, in the face of the deep advance of the British south of that river. The text of the statement says:

"Between Bohain and Solesmes the enemy is offering strong resistance on the line of the Selle river. Hostile attacks against positions held by up east of the Selle in the region of Le Cateau were repulsed. We took the village of Briastre.

Repulse Counterattacks .

"In the angle between the Selle river and the Scheldt canal we captured Iwuy this morning and made progress on the rising ground east of the village. Strong counterattacks in the area, with the assistance of tanks, were repulsed. West of the Canal de l'Escaut we captured Fressier.

"Following upon our deep advance south of the Sensee, the enemy is hastening his withdrawal from the strongly fortified position held by him north of that river.

"We have driven the enemy rearguards from the northern portion of the Rrocourt-Queant line between the Scarpe and Quiry-Lamotte and captured the villages of Sailly-en-Ostrevent, Vitryen-Artois, Izel les Equerchin, Drocourt and Foquires also were captured."

Huns North of Suippe.

WITH THE FRENCH ARMY IN CHAMPAGNE, Oct. 11.—This morning the Germans still held most of their positions north of the uippe. Berthelot's troops had forced a crossing between the east of Boult-Sur-Suippe and St. Etienne, while north of Berry-Au-Bac the situation was unchanged.

While the Germans are taking whatever risk there may be in clinging to this line, they are braving the sentiment of the world and the consequences of which they have been warned by the continued devastation of the regions they still hold.

All along the line between the Suippe and the Aisne and farther east and north of the Arnes smoke clouds are seen in the distance, drifting together into immense billows that cover large areas. Dozens of these smoke columns appeared today to rise from the enemy's huts and barricades built in the forests. Others that shot up immediately following reports that were louder and carried ffarther than the sound of cannon, evidently were the detonation of munition dumps. Many others that developed more gradually could be traced to the sites of town throughout the region. On all the heigts and in the ruined villages along the lines from which this bruesome spectacle of the war could be seen there are the most impressive examples of the power of modern explosives and the thoroughness of the destruction of the Germans.

ALLIES WIN 18 MILES IN FIVE DAYS DRIVE

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

PARIS, Oct. 11. — (Havas Agency.)—The victory in the Cambrai region increases daily in magnitude, producing indirect repossession over the whole front. The wedge driven into the German lines to a depth of 30 kilometres in five days menaces the Douai-Laon massif. The enemy front on the Chemin des Dames and the Aisne, under the assaults of Gen. Mangin's forces and the army operating northwest of Reims, was shaken, despite energetic resistance, the enemy intending at all costs to protect the retreat of his forces delayed on the Aisne. The enemy was obliged to abandon enormous booty in the Argonne.

The ruins of Berru, a fort about four miles northeast of Reims, is a most striking instance of this destruction. It was one of the forts raised for the defense of the plains of Champagne. Since 1914 it had been one of the strongest German positions. Today its stones are still on top of one another, but not one of them is its proper place. The explosion of a slow fused mine about 36 hours after the enemy abandoned the height, not only threw the fort in the air, but raised with it a small mountain of earth, mingled with the rocks, now forms a mound rising high above the original level of the highest point of the fort.

Poilus In Pursuit.

WITH THE FRENCH ARMY IN FRANCE, Oct. 11.—The rapid advance of Gen. Debeney's forces in close pursuit of the retreating enemy has brought them to the Oise in the region of Berneville, where they are meeting with strong resistance from infantry and machine guns.

Gen Mangin's troops, after encountering lively opposition, have reached the Chemin Des Dames region of Courtecon and have crossed the Ailette at Grandpont. Chivy has also been taken.

Gen, Gouraud was closely pursuing the enemy in retreat this morning over nearly the entire front of his army west of the Aisne toward the line of the Suippe. He occupied Brieres, east of the Versuiers railroad line and north of Grandpre gap took Corbon, Mont St. Martin and Semide on the Vousieres-Chatelet railroad line.

The German troops still resisting on the line of the Suippe are in another dangerous position.

Americans Fight Hard.

WITH THE ANGLO-AMERICAN FORCES EAST OF CAMBRAI, Oct. 11.—(Noon)—German resistance and artillery fire increased today in the area north of Cambrai-Le Cateau road. Nevertheless the advance of the allied troops continued here as well as to the south of the road. It was American troops from Tennessee and North and South Carolina who captured Vaux-Andigny and St. Souplet and the country just to the north and south of these towns.

The Americans quickly left Vaux-Andigny behind, but upon reaching the headwaters of the River Selle, they encountered a heavy enemy machine gun fire from the east bank. Hot fighting is in progress here and the enemy is gradually being thinned out by the American fire.

Liberate 10,000 Civilians.

WITH THE ANGLO-AMERICAN FORCES EAST OF CAMBRAI, Oct. 11.—Nearly 10,000 French civilians have been liberated from the Germans by the advancing British and Americans.

Four thousand civilians were found in Bohain alone. They were in a pitiful condition, having been without food for three days when rescued. Tears of joy coursed down the cheeks of the liberated men and women.

Caudry Citizens Joyful.

NEED MORE MEN FOR LOAN DRIVE

Chief Guthrie, Chairman of Canvass Committee, Asks for Volunteers to Get Bonds

Although the number of volunteers received at a meeting of the canvassing committee of the Victory Loan drive, held in the headquarters last evening was small, enthusiasm marked the plans made for the canvass of Nelson and district.

Chief Donald Guthrie, chairman of the canvassing committee, pointed out that the canvassers are not confined to business men alone or to any other particular class or section. The names already published do not represent all of those who are needed to take part in the work and any one, the chairman says, who will render assistance in making the coming loan campaign a big success, is urgently requested to say so. There is room for two or three score more men than have already volunteered in addition to those named at the organization meeting.

zone. Then the remainder of the fleet entered the mine field.

At this point the Austrian coast batteries opened fire and great spurts of water were caused by the striking shells. The projectiles kept coming nearer and nearer the American craft, which were unable to maneuver owing to the mines. The men stood the test splendidly and aroused great admiration by their cool and cheerful bearing · they stood at their guns awaiting the order to fire. The order was given to increase speed and the fleet emerged from the mine field unscathed. It immediately fell into battle formation and began to bombard the land defenss.

The American chasers and the allied destroyers were ordered to proceed into Durazzo harbor and attack two large and three small steamers, two destroyers, one torpedo boat, a number of submarines and a quantity of smalled craft lying within the harbor. One of the larger steamers immediately put off to the north, but as it was recognized as a hospital ship it was allowed to proceed. The other steamers were quickly sunk. The torpedo boat, heavily in action, was run ashore, while the two destroyers tried to run away, hugging the coast line. The submarine chasers and British destroyers headed them off and sent both to the bottom after a short but lively action.

The fire of the Austrian ships was slackened when two enemy submarines appeared on the surface and fired two torpedoes, one of which hit a British destroyer without sinking her. This was just what the Americans had been waiting for, and before they could do any more mischief swooped down on the submarines and sank them both with superguanery.

By 12:30 all the shore batteries had been reduced to silence and the whole town was one immense blaze. Signals were sent to the fleet, which had vainly waited two hours for the Austrians to come from Cattaro, that the action was over. Threading their way again through the narrow passage in the mine field, marked by the American submarine chasers, the whole fleet steamed majestically homewards. Behind, the great Austrian sea base was nothing but a heap of smoking ruins, its port a cemetery of sunken ships.

A dance program of 21 numbers and three extras has been arranged and 12 pieces comprise the orchestras which will play in two parts of the building where the dancing is to take place.

Excellent response has been reported in the sale of tickets and the committee report marked cooperation from district persons.

ALL STRIKES ARE NOW PROHIBITED

feels aggrieved by the decision of a conciliation board may appeal.

There has furthermore been constituted by the Canadian railway board with the assent of representatives of organized bodies of railway employees engaged in railway work and their a board of adjusters for the settlement of disputes arising between employers

In these various measures, guaranteeing emeployer and employee just and ready means for adjustment of their differences, there has been no provision for enforcement of the orders and decisions of the board. Neither has there been prohibition of strikes or lockouts after report has been made by the board of conciliation.

Lockouts Included.

The new regulations absolutely prohibit during the continuance of the war strikes and lockouts in connection with industries or operations which are essential to the efficient performance of Canada's duty in the prosecution of the war.

By the regulations it is unlawful for anyone during the war to order or participate in a lockout or strike as defined by the Industrial Disputes Investigation act in any industry mentioned in that act or in connection with the operation of any Canadian railway board during or after an investigation by a board of conciliation or by a board of appeal, or the board of adjusters.

Any employer of labor is guilty of an offense and liable to the penalties stated who, during the war, shall discharge or refuse to employ workers (other than those holding positions or employment which shall be by the judgment of the board of appeal or the board of adjusters determined incompatible with membership in a union) merely because they have membership in trades unions or for legitimate trade union activities outside of working hours.

Every work is guilty of an offense and liable to the above mentioned penalties, who, in the exercise of his right or organize, uses either coercion or intimidation of any kind to influence any person to join his organization.

Thirty Days to Appeal.

Every decision or order of any board of conciliation while binding if not appealed from within 30 days after it is rendered, every decision or order of the board of appeal or board of adjusters will be binding on all persons affected thereby. Any person who, during the war, fails to comply with the orders of these boards will be guilty of an offense and liable to the penalties aforementioned.

Strike Anyway, Report.

CALGARY, Oct. 11.—The press despatches from Ottawa tonight telling of the order in council, passed today forbidding strikes or lockouts during the period of the war and imposing a penalty of a fine or imprisonment, or both, was received in Calgary too late for recognition by most leaders of labor.

At 11 a. m. 1200 workers will walk out, even if the fine were made $5000.

Regina to Consider Strike.

REGINA, Sask., Oct. 11.—The trades and labor council will meet the executive of the Canadian Brotherhood of Railroad employees on Monday night and the executive of the International Brotherhood of Clerks, Freight Handlers, etc., and all other railway organizations represented in the city to consider the advisability of taking a general strike vote in Regina in sympathy with the striking freight handlers.

JOHN BANNISTER DIES SUDDENLY

Old Time Resident of City and District Falls Dead of Apoplexy While at Work.

John Bannister, aged 46, fell dead at the Canadian Pacific railway shipyards yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Apoplexy was pronounced the cause of death by Dr. Gilbert Hertin who was immediately called. Mr. Bannister had been a resident of the district for the past 22 years and had been a planerman in several mills in the district, including Winlaw and Nelson. He leaves a widow and one son, George, who is three years old.

Mr. Bannister was born in Collingwood, Ont., and had lived in Michigan. He worked at the local mill of the Forest Mills, Limited up until recently and yesterday was his first day at the shipyards, where he was engaged in building a barge.

Mr. Bannister had gone to work when he was seized by the stroke. He fell and the men around him ran to his assistance but he was dead when they reached him.

Mr .Bannister owned several timber tracts in the district and also some city property as well as a residence at Four-Mile. Mrs. Bannister had just returned from the Kootenay Lake General hospital and has only been home two days. Word of the death has been sent to a brother, William, at Calgary and a cousin, Neil McColeman, at Davidson, Sask.

The funeral has been arranged for Monday.

NAVY LEAGUE FORWARDS PARCELS TO DISTRICT MEN

At a meeting of the Navy league held on Thursday, the secretary reported thatnine Christmas parcels had already been forwarded to district men in Mesopotamia and Egypt. The parcels contained plum pudding, chocolate, cigarettes and tobacco. The secretary was instructed to forward the balance of the parcels to men located in less distant fighting areas.

Rev. W. M. Geer, vicar of St. Paul's church, New York for 30 years, has announced that he will resign.

The High Cost of Whims

THE United States Government has found it necessary to issue strict orders regulating the styles of shoes. Why? Because the high cost of fads imposes a burden all along the line—upon manufacturer, dealer and consumer, and upon the Government itself.

Such action may be avoided in Canada, if you—the consumer—will co-operate with the manufacturer in reducing the demand for extravagant styles—if you will buy prudently, for service rather than for effect.

To do this will be a direct benefit to you. You will get better and longer service, more comfort, and your shoes will be quite as neat and attractive. You will need fewer pairs of shoes in the course of a year.

More than that: you will help to cut down needless extravagance, to reduce superfluous stocks on the dealers' shelves, to keep prices down, and to release essential supplies of leather for our forces overseas.

Steel Gains from 2 to 5 Points—C.P.R. Rises in Value—Bonds Are Strong.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—Regardless of the approaching holiday, which ordinarily begets caution and resultant covering of long contracts, trading in stocks today was attended by unusual activity and many substantial gains.

United States Steel fluctuated between 105½ to 108, its final quotation 107⅞ representing a net gain of a large fraction. Kindred shares closed at gains of 1 to 2 points, but some of the greater advances in shippings and oils were materially reduced.

Marine preferred yielded all but a point of its 3⅝ advance and Texas company and Mexican Petroleum forfeited much of their 3 to 4 point gains, specialties of the better grade scoring highest quotations in the active operations of the last hour.

Bonds were strong in the main, with an extension of dealings in Liberty issues. United States old 4s declined ¼ per cent on call.

NATION MUST HELP SETTLER

Dominion Government Prepared to Assist in Development, Says Calder, Provinces Should Cooperate.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

VANCOUVER, B. C., Oct. 11.—Hon. J. A. Calder, assured the members of the Vancouver Canadian club at a luncheon this afternoon, that the presence on the Pacific coast at one time of four or five federal cabinet ministers did not mean that an election was in sight.

Mr. Calder declared that one of the reasons of the efficiency of the Canadian corps in France was found in the fact that Sir Arthur Currie—"a fine fellow and an able general"—commanded his own corps without political or other outside interference. The Canadians, he said, were known at the front as "Foch's pets." The minister set out as among the accomplishments of the union government that waste and extravagancies in connection with contracts had been eliminated, that the army was well provided for in every way, and that the military administration was on a basis of efficiency.

Mr. Calder declared that the carrying of three transcontinental railways presented a staggering burden for a population of 8,000,000 people; and more people must be secured and great development encouraged, especially since there would be also the great war debt. "There is one basic principle in this problem of population—the state must come to the aid of the settler," he said. "The land problem can only be solved by the government lending its credit to those who lack capital but who otherwise are fitted in every way tosettle our country. The Dominion government stands prepared to lend that credit, and I am conferring with the provincial governments working out the details of the general problem."

Hon. Martin Burrell also addressed the club, speaking on mining problems.

CUSTOM SERVICE EMPLOYEES WAIT ON GOVERNMENT

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

OTTAWA, Oct. 11.—A committee representing 2500 members of the outside customs service, who are members of the Dominion Customs association waited on Hon. A. L. Sifton, minister of customs, today and presented a revised schedule of salaries for this class of government employees. The committee received a hearing and the minister promised earnest consideration of their requests. The committee also presented suggestions with regard to the reorganization anr reclassification of the service which is now going on.

The amendment to the Civil Service act was one of the matters taken up. The committee had an interview with Hon. Dr. W. J. Roche of the civil service commission.

TRAVELERS IN GERMANY SAY GUNS POUND RAILWAYS

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

BASEL, Switzerland, Oct. 11.—Travelers arriving from Germany assert that they encountered considerable risks because the French and American heavy guns are bombarding with considerable effect the railways connecting the southern Rhine cities. Near the Swiss frontier the railway struck by shells several times at different points. Panic and a state of nervousness continue in the southern Rhina cities despite the efforts of the newspapers, which admonish the people to remain calm.

BOATS BRING BIG LOADS OF FISH TO PACIFIC PORT

Armed to the teeth

"Troops who travel alongside of them have their work cut out. General Currie seems to carry light railways in his pocket, and if the Canadians have to stop anywhere for a day or two, transportation facilities spring up behind them as if by magic. Germans will go miles out of their way to avoid the Canucks."

CHARLES H. GRASTY, in N.Y. Times, Sept. 2, 1918.

The Canadian Army is fully equipped for War.

Nothing that could help our army in their task is lacking. If this were not so, their great initiative and courage would avail them nothing. For this is "a mechanical war."

The Canadian Army as it stands to-day is a marvel of organization. In guns, in ammunition, in transport, in equipment for the grim work of war—for efficiency of man and beast—it lacks nothing. If a railroad is needed—one is immediately available. When the Canadian Army starts to move—the movement is accomplished with certainty and rapidity. When it attacks—there is no lack of ammunition. It has gas masks and aeroplanes of the latest and most efficient types.

The Canadian Army is a highly disciplined, efficient, thoroughly equipped engine of war. It unquestionably is—as the Hun very well knows—"armed to the teeth."

Canada's war loans have made the glory of the Canadian Army possible—they have been Victory Loans in fact, as well as in name.

It is unthinkable, is it not, that our men should lack any implement of war that money will buy!

It would be a greater shame than the mind cares to dwell on, that our men should suffer death or disaster—or just fall short of complete Victory, because we now hold back the money necessary to maintain their full fighting efficiency.

The money for the needs of our army will be provided by Canada's Victory Loan, 1918.

Canadians at home will see to that

Issued by Canada's Victory Loan Committee in co-operation with the Minister of Finance of the Dominion of Canada

THE VOICE OF VIENNA, THE HAND OF BERLIN?

It is reported that Turkey and Austria-Hungary have informed Germany that they will accept the terms of peace outlined by President Wilson.

It is possible that this development, if it has occurred, may mark the disruption of the central powers. It is possible that Austria-Hungary and Turkey have been forced by military pressure from without and by internal disturbances within to make peace, even at the cost of breaking away from Germany, to whom they have for four years been bonded in economic, political and military slavery.

But Turkey and Austria will have to show the allies that this is the case.

The word of Austria-Hungary and the word of Turkey are both of the same value. The word of neither is worth anything.

There is one way in which they can show their good faith. That is by disarming their forces, surrendering their arms and munitions and giving the allies such military control as would assure the allies against being stabbed in the back while details of peace were being arranged.

But the move by Austria and Turkey may be nothing but a German "plant." The voice, it is true, is the voice of Vienna and Constantinople, but the hand may be the hand of Berlin.

Germany wants a breathing spell from the disasters which are overwhelming it on the western front. It would like to start some "discussions" with the allies with the hope that out of such discussions might arise a German peace, or that it might be able to create division among the allies, take up the war again and defeat each one separately. In other words, carry out its original scheme.

Again Germany might have a second object in ordering Turkey and Austria to take the alleged action. If Turkey and Austria fell away from Germany, could not the junker-kaiser-militaristic clique go before the German people with the declaration that the German policy of militarism was sound and efficient, that it would have succeeded if Austria and Turkey had not weakened, that peace should be made now, but in a few years Germany would try again and win? Such a scheme may well be in the minds of Germany's rulers. If they could carry it out they would save their own faces with the German people, keep the barbaric, militaristic, liberty-destroying spirit alive in Germany and retain their control sufficiently to enable them to fight another and perhaps successful war later which would place them again firmly in the saddle.

Peace may be near, but there is not yet any very convincing evidence of it.

Foreign Minister Balfour goes to the root of the question of dealing with Germany when he says that brutes were the Germans when they began the war and brutes they are today, as witnesseth the Leinster outrage. Crimes of this kind would be impossible, even in Germany, if they were not approved by the German people.

That is the case in a nutshell. The German people, as well as the German government, have not changed. They are still obsessed with the theory that no German can do wrong. And that is an infinitely more dangerous condition of mind even than that of the autocrat who holds that a king can do no wrong.

All discussions of the situation come back to the fact that the German people have not yet learned their lesson. And it seems that they will not learn it until they have been punished into submission by invasion of their own territory. They must have it proved to them beyond possibility of doubt that their theory is wrong and incapable of being carried out by a word embattled on the ramparts of liberty and determined to destroy the enemies of liberty.

426 YEARS OF LIBERTY.

Four hundred and twenty-six years ago this morning at sunrise Columbus landed in the New World. It was early in the morning that one of his ships announced with one of its signal guns that land had been sighted.

Columbus thought that he had discovered the short rout to the West Indies when he gazed on the shoreline that morning in 14922.

Little did he think that he was ushering into history a new era. But during all of the centuries since the Puritan and Pilgrim tide first began to flow liberty has played a big part in the happenings on the continent which he discovered and now after 426 years have passed the peoples of North America are engaged in the mightiest struggle of all time—and still for liberty.

And in naming the day in which Columbus landed in the New World as Liberty Day, President Wilson of the United States said:

"We now know more certainly than we ever knew before why freedom brought the great nation and government we love into existence, because it grows clearer and clearer what supreme service it is to be America's privilege to render the world."

Three things nobody wants: Peace on German terms, Spanish influenza or a forest fire.

Austro-Hungarians in southern Serbia and the Huns in the Cambrai-St. Quentin zone seem to have a common object and that is to see how far north they can go in the least possible time.

The situation on the Flemish coast is changing rapidly. Not long ago the British made raids in order to block the ports to keep the Germans from coming out. Now the Germans are busy blocking the mouths of the harbors to keep the British from getting in.

Of the 150 women and children aboard the steamship Leinster 15 have been accounted for. Murderers of women and children may have peace when their future conduct is determined by stronger influences than treaties which they described as a "scrap of paper."

WHAT THE PRESS IS SAYING

History Repeats.

Gen. Allenby's feats in the Holy Land read like some of the triumphant marches of some of those armies of Bible history.—Peterboro Review.

Legs, not Arms.

"Our victorious arms" is one of the kaiser's pet phrases, but most people will agree with a Canadian paper that it's the German legs which have deserved most credit lately.—Sydney Record.

COLD STORAGE

Uncle Toby was aghast at finding a strange darky with his arm around Mandy's waist.

"Mandy, tell dat niggah to take his ahm 'way from round yo' waist," he indignantly commanded.

"Tell him yo-self," said Mandy haughtily. "He's a puffect stranger to me.'

"I want some cigars for my husband for Christmas.'

"What kind, madam?"

"Well, I don't know; but he is a middleaged man and always dresses in black."

A man who had been convicted of stealing was brought before a certain "down east" judge, well known for his tender-heartedness, to be sentenced.

"Have you ever been sentenced to imprisonment?" asked the judge, not unkindly.

"Never," exclaimed the prisoner suddenly bursting into tears.

"Well, well, don't cry, my man," said his honor consolingly; "you're going to be now."

TOLD IN RHYME

THE LETTER THAT NEVER WENT

You've heard of the letter that never came,
The eyes that watched in vain,
You've heard the old excuses lame,
Again and yet again.
Ah! many a soldier far from home,
Many sad hours has spent
Awaiting the letter that never came—
The letter was never sent!

Homesick he, in the trenches drear,
Beside the field of flame,
Awaited throughout the days of fear
The letter that never came.
Alert at call of troump or drum
'Twas sorrow his great soul bent,
He knew that letter would never come—
Because 'twas never sent!

No wound received by the monstrous thing
Where bullets swarm and hiss,
Oh, never a wound can burn and sting
Or bayonet hurt like this!
Behold him by his graveside pause,
His strength is nearly spent,
He moans, "It did not come, because
The letter was never sent!

Perhaps it is not yet too late,
Sit down and write—and write,
'Twill make his weary heart elate,
Write him a letter tonight!
Hurry! ere death shall reach the boy,
Ere his young life is spent,
'Twill fill his last red hours with joy—
The letter his loved one sent!

FOR THE AIR SERVICE OF THE ALLIED ARMIES

An immense R. A. F. machine ready to start with its load of bombs for Germany.

A Sitka (silver) spruce log cut on the Queen Charlotte Islands off the coast of British Columbia for the Imperial Munitions Board.

THEY are cutting spruce in British Columbia. The silver spruce forests, long neglected because of lack of market and transportation, have found their place. The straight, fine-grained, tough wood is the ideal material for the manufacture of aeroplane parts. The silver spruce grows only on the islands and ocean coast of British Columbia and the northwest United States. The American timber of this species is being used exclusively for war purposes of the States, the needs of the other allies in the great war are supplied by the wonderful forests of B. C., this supply being made possible through a splendid organization perfected during the past ten months by Major Austin C. Taylor, director of the Aeronautical Department of the Imperial Munitions Board. Hundreds of camps, scores of tug-boats, thousands of men are at work on the forests, while scores of mills cut the logs. Canadian Pacific Railway Company tugs haul great rafts across the waters of the Pacific Coast and discharge the cargo at the mills and terminals. Hundreds and hundreds of Canadian Pacific Railway cars roll eastward monthly loaded with prime aeroplane lumber, bound for the aeroplane factories in the east. The wants of France and England, Canada and Italy are filled by the logger of British Columbia, and the industry will grow even beyond its present tremendous volume.—L. V. K.

TRADE DECREASE IN CANADA

Six Month Period Shows Slackening in Business Against Same Period of Last Year.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

OTTAWA, Oct. 11.—A decrease of $250,192,230 in the total trade of Canada for the first half of the present fiscal year, as compared with the same period in 1917, is shown by the trade statement issued from the customs department today. The trade of the Dominion for the first six months of the present fiscal year, which ended on Sept. 30, amounted to $1,087,232,880 while on the same date last year it had reached a total of $1,337,424,910. For the month of September alone, however the trade figures showed an increase of more than $20,000,000 over the same month a year ago, the totals being $212,054,292, as against $191,370,412 in 1917. This is largely due to a jump in the export of domestic manufactured articles during the past month, which increased over $35,000,000.

The falling off in the six months is chiefly in exports. The statement shows a decrease in exports during the six months' period of $176,278,208, when compared with the first half of 1917. Imports during the same period show a decrease of $65,290,310 in comparison to 1917. Domestic merchandise exported from Canada during the first half of the present fiscal year totaled $590,585,514, while in 1917 it amounted to $766,863,722. Imports entered the country to a value of $484,532,214 this year, while in 1917, they were $539,925,224.

Agricultural products exported from Canada during the first six months of the present fiscal year amounted to $133,683,806, while a year ago they reached a total of $260,654,960. This is a decrease of $126,971,154. Exports of domestic manufactured articles show a falling off of $57,000,000 when compared with 1917. On the other hand the exports of forest products this year were more than $12,000,000 greater than in 1917.

DOWN 32 BALLOONS AND AIRPLANES ON U. S. SECTOR

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, Oct .11.—Thirty-two enemy balloons and airplanes have been brought down by American anti-aircraft cannon and machine guns since the beginning of the St. Mihiel offensive according to the figures just compiled. The guns which have achieved this result were distributed in the rear areas, at the front and with moving infantry units. Eight German planes were accounted for on the morning of Oct. 4, near Mont Faucon, by two sections of the anti-aircraft artillery alone. Of the 32 German aircraft brought down, 20 were accounted for by machine guns and 12 by the heavier guns. The machine guns averaged a success in every 2500 shots.

That the milk shortage has brought the goat into deserved popularity was proven by the exhibition opened at the Zoological gardens, London. The few for sale could have been sold many times over.

2 SOLDIERS TAKE 8 MACHINE GUNS

Lieutenant and One Man Bomb Trench Forcing 55 Huns to Surrender.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

WITH THE CANADIAN FORCES IN FRANCE, Oct. 9.—(Delayed)—(By J. F. B. Livesay, Canadian Press Correspondent)—Stories of personal heroism teem in connection with the present battle. Here is one: A central Ontario battalion was taking part in the attack on Stolle, the suburb of Cambrai, commanding the city from the north. It had gained a footing in the western end of the village on the Cambrai road, but its advance was held up by a formidable trench line manned by machine guns. A lieutenant, formerly in the ranks, who holds the Military Medal, lined up his men in front of this position under a rise of ground and then worked around on his left into the village. With one machine gun, which he established to enfilade the trench, he proceeded with one man along the entire rear of the German trench. The two bombed the trench as they went along and 55 of the enemy were compelled to surrender. Eight machine guns were captured by these two.

Later, when his battalion pushed out almost into Ramilles, this officer led his men to the bridgehead, but, meeting there a pointblank fire of the enemy batteries, was forced to retire.

Rev. Thomas Eakin of New St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, Toronto, will go overseas as a chaplain.

Government Restrictions Demand That Newspapers Use Less Newsprint Paper

Canadian and United States government restrictions on the consumption of newsprint paper became necessary on account of the shortage of supply.

Restrictions on consumption formed the only alternative to the actual closing down of a percentage of newspapers.

The restrictions affect all newspapers alike and assure each sufficient paper to continue operations, although the price, of course, has advanced enormously.

Must Reduce 15 to 20 Per Cent

Under the government restrictions newspapers have to use 15 to 20 per cent less paper than in 1917.

This means a reduction in the size of newspapers.

Already the newspapers have begun to reduce their size in conformity with the regulations.

It does not necessarily result in the reduction of the amount of telegraph and local news published.

Cut Out Non-Essential Matter

The Daily News, for example, is publishing at the present time more telegraph and local news than at any time in its history. But it is cutting out much of the non-essential matter.

That is what the government wants.

Government restrictions demand other measures to reduce non-essential use of newsprint.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

VANCOUVER, B. E. Burns, chairman of the commission. Whether the commission will make use of this power and hold sessions in Nelson depends on developments. The commission will hold a meeting here within the next few days and take evidence regarding the situation at Nelson, and if in the judgment of the commissioners this evidence shows the necessity of a sitting at Nelson or at other lake points, the hearings will be adjourned there. In the meantime, there is nothing definite as yet regarding the Nelson inquiry.

ELKO NOTES

(By Fred Roo.)

Are we downhearted? No. Sell your little hammer and buy a horn.

Fred Roo, Jr., writing from overseas, says the American troops have their line placarded, "Hell, Hell or New York by Christmas, 1918," and it looks like it.

R. J. Smith, Great Northern agent, Spokane, and Mr. Holmes of the Great Northern, Kalispell, Mont., called on the writer this week.

Yes, Mabel, Marshal Foch must be an expert golfer by the drive he is making on all the allied fronts.

Grandpa Ed Clay was in Elko this week. He missed getting a shave to catch the train, but it might have been worse, Ed, old boy. Jack Berrington was in from Victoria, picking up lost business for his firm and getting lots of it. Wilcox of the Pacific Milk company, whose patronize home industry talks would make a Vancouver soap box orator get down and saw wood, wearing a nice white pepper colored suit, a cream colored vest and a peachy complexion, was here. Charlie Walker of Nelson, "the Man with a Smile," between trains; Smith (no relation to George Smith), with Brack's teas, coffees and cocoas.

Jim Thistlebeak says if you want to have more fun in living resign from the crepe hangers' union and the knockers' club and sign up with the joy riders' league.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Graham and daughter, Fred Roo and Miss E. May Roo motored to Flagstone Sunday and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ray G. Hirtz, who later joined the party and motored to Roosville and were the guests of Mrs. Roo at the ranch, returning to Elko via Flagstone.

Jim Thistlebeak says, speaking of peace moves, by the Rhenische Wastfaelische Zeitung of Essen, the Cologne Volks Zeitung and other Hun papars, Marshal Foch is signing every day the only peace move satisfactory to the allies. What was it that he said, "an eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth" and the allies are saying a town for a town. That's the dope. Foch, give the Huns their own medicine and lots of it. If we don't thrash the Germans now we must go on paying heavy taxes and maintaining huge armies for years to keep Germany from thrashing us later.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Worthington and family of Cranbrook are the guests of Mrs. John Todhunter, Cumberland house, Riverside park, this month.

Jim Thistlebeak says that it often happens that the woman who is a chronic bargain hunter has a husband who looks like she got him at the 19-cent counter.

CRESTON FRUIT WINS PRIZES

Valley Contributes Large Share of Cranbrook Fair Exhibits—Local and Personal Notes.

(Special to The Daily News.)

CRESTON, B. C., Oct. 11.—Creston entries, principally in fruit, account for almost one-fourth of the entire show at Cranbrook last week, according to those who were at the East Kootenay exhibition. Close to 300 entries were made from local ranchers by Messrs. E. C. Gibbs and W. V. Jackson, who took charge of the board of trade displays there. In fruit Creston carried off every prize, as well as some of the prize tickets in vegetables. In the dairy section Mrs. Cook and Mrs. Walmsley got firsts on everything shown in butter and cheese, and the latter also scored in the fancy work section.

Creston valley had the first touch of frost on Tuesday morning and this will shortly wind up the tomato shipping season. The valley has had a phenomenal crop of them, the Littlejohn, Kemp, Fraser & Son, Long and Staples Bros. being heavy exporters. The latter seemed to entirely escape the frost dip and if the prevailing weather holds they will have a year's outgo of not less than 8000 crates themselves, cropped from a 10-acre patch.

Creston Presbyterian church, which has been without a pastor for the last three months, is again supplied with a minister, Rev. W. R. McCord arriving this week from Winnipeg to take charge.

Christ church had the annual harvest thanksgiving service on Sunday last, and the day's collections of $16 will be given to the Anglican overseas chaplains' fund.

Creston Valley Red Cross society had its annual meeting on Tuesday afternoon when most of the old officers were re-elected for another term. Mrs. W. A. McMurtrie was reelected president; Mrs. Mallandaine and Mrs. Bronson, vice-presidents, with the former also chosen work secretary, and Mrs. Cherrington treasurer and recording secretary. During the year just closed the society had cash contributions of one sort and another of $1204, while the supplies manufactured and shipped were about 50 per cent greater than for the previous term.

At the board of trade meeting on Tuesday night, President Speers, C. O. Rodgers and Guy Constable were named delegates to attend the Associated Boards of Trade convention at Revelstoke next month.

Final returns for the Knights of Columbus canvass for funds in Creston valley, which was in charge of Mrs. C. O. and Floyd Rodgers, shows total contributions of $264.50. On fair day a tag day was staged for the Navy league, when a half dozen girl taggers gathered in $41.45 for that good cause.

September vital statistics in the valley show five births—three boys and two girls—and no marriages or deaths.

The heavy western front fighting the fore part of September has put another Creston soldier on the casualty list, Corp. Campbell Dow, word reaching his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dow on Monday that he had been admitted to hospital wounded in the back. Corp. Dow has not only been at the front for three years, but has been through all the heavy fighting this year. He went across with the 54th battalion, joining up at Revelstoke.

J. H. Walkley, a Cranbrook butcher, bought up a couple of cars of beef cattle here this week, shipping yesterday.

Miss Nellie Wilson is spending the week with firends in Cranbrook. Miss Jennie Arrowsmith is also a visitor to the same city at present.

Mrs. Remington left yesterday to spend a month with Blairmore, Alta., friends.

Miss Johnson has returned to Metiskow, Alta., after spending the summer with her mother on the Quist ranch.

Mrs. Dr. Munns of Regina, Sask., is here on a visit with her sister, Mrs. J. R. Rose.

Mrs. Blinco returned yesterday from a week's visit with Cranbrook friends.

Holy Cross church is now in charge of Father Desmari, who succeeds Father Kennedy, who had the pastorate for almost two years previous.

John Torchia moved his family to Bull River this week, at which point he has lately been made section foreman.

Mr. Worthman, assistant C. P. R. superintendent at Cranbrook, and R. J. Collins, chief despatcher at the same point, were here on an official visit this week. In view of Creston's apple crop alone being double that of 1917, with all other lines showing a considerable gain, the railway officials are planning to give this point greatly increased freight handling accommodation. Every day now the business is so heavy that the east way freight takes from three to four hours to load local freight shipping.

YMIR SOCIAL BRINGS $70 FOR SOLDIER BOXES

(Special to The Daily News.)

YMIR, B. C., Oct. 11.—On Wednesday evening a very successful basket social was held in the assembly hall under the auspices of the Ladies' guild. The baskets furnished by the ladies were greatly admired. One supplied by Miss Lizzie Peters in the form of an airplane, and one by Miss Jessie Grobe in the form of a boat attracting special admiration. The baskets were auctioned off by Mr. Bass. Progressive whist and other games were indulged in, Mrs. J. T. Price securing the ladies' prize.

Dancing concluded the proceedings and was kept up till the small hours. The music was supplied by Mrs. T. Wilkinson and Miss Emlaw.

The proceeds of the social, which amounted to over $70, will be used for the purpose of providing Christmas baskets for the local boys at the front.

No Humbug! Lift Off Corns

Doesn't hurt a bit to lift a corn or callus off with fingers

For a few cents you can get a small bottle of the magic drug freezone recently discovered by a Cincinnati man.

Just ask at any drug store for a small bottle of freezone. Apply a few drops upon a tender, aching corn and instantly, yes, immediately, all soreness disappears and shortly you will find the corn or callus so loose that you lift it out, root and all, with the fingers.

Just think! Not one bit of pain before applying freezone or afterwards. It doesn't even irritate the surrounding skin.

Hard corns, soft corns, or corns between the toes, also hardened calluses on bottom of feet, just seem to shrivel up and fall off without hurting a particle. It is almost magical.

Ladies! Keep a tiny bottle on your dresser and never let a corn or callus ache twice.

SHORTER BIBLE TO BE PRINTED

New Translation Is Being Prepared—Aim Is to Make It More Easily Understood

As we write these words we are conscious of the fact that there will be some who read them ready to exclaim that the Bible as it is is short enough, and who will hold up their hands in solemn rebuke of any effort to curtail or modify in any way the Sacred Book of God, says the Christian Guardian. But even remembering that, we would like to express our unqualified appreciation of the enterprise.

"The Shorter Bible," of which the New Testament only has yet been prepared, aims to give, in simple, dignified modern English, and, as far as possible, in logical and chronological sequeace, a new translation of such portions of the Scriptures as seem to be of the most vital interest and of the most practical value for our present day and time. The motive back of such an undertaking is easy to understand, and altogether worthy of the earnest Christian scholars who have projected it. All serious students of the Bible know it to be one of the most up-to-date books of our time, with a message for our very day of incalculable vitality and effectiveness; but they know, too, that it still remains to many an old-world piece of literature, that they venerate indeed, and would not have spoken against for the world, but that they do not appreciate in any real and living way and very seldom read. The aim of this new translation and compilation is to make the Bible a more modern, a more easily understandable and a better appreciated book. That is surely a worthy aim, and one which everyone might hope would be successfully carried out.

One could hardly too highly commend the literary quality of the new translation appearing in "The Shorter Bible." The work has been done by Dr. Charles Foster Kent of Yale university. The English is simple and dignified and, while the effort is made to keep closely to the original, there is a sensible and generous use of modern idiom.

Examinations for the Rhodes scholarships are being held at the University of Washington at Seattle, but the successful applicants will not be allowed to take the scholarship courses in Oxford university until after the war.

TOMATOES WILL SAVE MEAT BILLS

Can Form Principal Dish of Meal—Combines Well With Other Ingredients

Tomatoes, variously cooked, as well as eaten raw, appeal especially to the home caterer. They ripen daily in many of the kitchen gardens and may also be purchased at low cost in the markets.

Properly cooked, tomatoes may often form the principal dish for luncheon or supper, and as the piquant flavor of the vegetable is almost universally liked and it combines so well with a host of other ingredients it makes an ideal medium for "extending" fish and meat and a great variety of appetizing made dishes.

Economical and wise catering means to take advantage of any food supply that is in season, and consequently at its cheapest and best; so shop for your tomatoes, buying them by the basket and then divide them according to your requirements.

When they arrive from market wrap the least ripe in tissue paper, placing them in a cool, dark place. Grade the remainder and use them daily according to their state of ripeness. You will be surprised to find how fast the basket will disappear and how the meat and fish bill will decrease in size.

French Tomatoes

Place ripe, smooth tomatoes of uniform size in a saucepan and cover with boiling salted water. When the skins crack and the vegetables can be pierced with a fork lift them out with a skimmer. Drain well and lay each on a crisp slice of buttered toast in a deep saucer. With a sharp knife score the top in the form of a cross. Season with salt, paprika, a tiny pinch of ground spices, a bit of sugar and a generous piece of butter and set back in a hot oven for three or four minutes.

Stuffed Tomatoes.

Choose large, firm tomatoes, not over-ripe. Cut off a slice from the stem end of each, remove a portion of the pulp and chop finely. Drain and add to the pulp any of the left over mackerel (any cold meat or poultry can be used) flaked into fine particels and half the quantity of crushed cracker crumbs. Season highly with grated onion, salt, minced green pepper, celery salt and add a little chopped parsley, also tablespoonful of vegetable oil for each tomato. Blend the filling, fill into the tomatoes and arrange in a baking dish. Sprinkle with bread crumbs mixed with melted oelo; bake.

Frozen Tomato Boullion.

Place in a saucepan one quart of tomatoes cut into small pieces, a bay leaf, two or three springs of parsley, two small carrots, half of a minced chill pepper, one tablespoonful of brown sugar, some celery seed, salt to taste, and half a teaspoonful of whole mixed spices tied in a cheesecloth bag. Barely cover with cold water and simmer for half an hour. Strain through a fine sieve; and a cupful of boiling water in which has been dissolved a boullion cube or a quarter of a teaspoonful of beef extract. Cool and freeze slowly as for sherbet.

Tomato Souffle.

Melt two tablespoonsful oleo, add one tablespoonful of cornstarch and when blended pour in gradually one cupful of tomato puree. Cook, stirring constantly until well thickened and add three-quarters of a cupful of grated cheese. When the cheese is melted remove from the fire, fold in the beaten yolks of two eggs and half a cupful of very moist cooked hominy. Season to taste with salt and paprika and when almost cold fold in the stiffly whipped egg whites. Bake the mixture in a buttered souffle dish.

Tomatoes With Mushrooms.

This is a very good meat substitute, although it does not, of course, contain the food value of a meat dish. Peel and cut in cubes the desired amount of tomatoes and add half the quantity of peeled mushrooms broken in small pieces. Saute lightly in a little hot oleo and season with salt and pepper. Moisten with highly seasoned brown sauce and turn into buttered scalloped dishes. Cover the tops with browned bread crumbs, dot with oleo and brown in a hot oven.

MUST BE STRANGERS STILL

Some of the budding romances are being taken out of the war by the prosaic rules of censorship. The lonely soldier in France can no longer advertise for correspondence with the equally lonely maiden at home through our "personal" columns in classified pages. Those prosey military powers have discovered that these delicate little correspondences between strangers are the source of some military information getting into the hands of German sympathizers while the pro-German propagandists were also using the method to circulate enemy literature. Accordingly all officers and other ranks are forbidden officially:

(a) To insert advertisements or letterss in any publication inviting strangers to communicate with them.

(b) To enter into communication with strangers in response to advertisements.

(c) In any way to communicate, by letter or otherwise, with strangers regarding any military matter.—Regina Leader.

CLASSIFIED ADS BRING RESULTS EVERY TIME.

SEND PARCELS TO BOYS FOR DES. 25

Christmas Box Time Has Arrived and Local Organizations Are Sending Gifts.

All Christmas parcels for Canadian soldiers with the expeditionary forces in France must be mailed in time for them to be shipped from Canadian ports by the end of this month. Several of the organizations in the city have already mailed their parcels.

The Red Cross sent away a shipment of 50 Christmas stockings in September and $50 to the Red Cross Kitchen at Hamilton for shipment of jam.

The Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire also sent a donation of $50 to the Red Cross Kitchen for Christmas puddings and $150 to the Canadian War Contingent association for purchasing comforts. They forwarded the last consignment of socks and sweaters this week.

Money may be sent to the Canadian Field Comforts commission which undertakes the purchasing of supplies to be sent to individual soldiers at the front. It has been pointed out, in a pamphlet received by the local I.O.D.E. that parcels from Canada containing biscuits, fruits and homemade sweets sometimes arrive in a stale condition and the purchasing of these articles in England not only saves time and economizes shipping space but as the commission buys direct from manufacturers and wholesale houses, more and better articles can be obtained for the money.

A complete list of names and addresses of soldiers for whom parcels are to be purchased must be sent with order and money to be expended, together with cards or messages to be enclosed with parcels. Parcels for Canadian or foreign units in the navy, in hospitals or at private addresses must have postage allowed for.

Parcels for those serving in Canadian units only are sent free in bales, but these parcels can be posted separately if postage is allowed for.

It is important to give names, numbers and units of men as correctly as possible; to state number of parcels ordered and full amount sent for parcels and postage; to make all checks and drafts or money orders payable to the Canadian Field Comforts commission; to suggest articles for parcels and to send letter giving directions the same time as order.

Parcels cannot be sent to prisoners direct, but sums of money may be forwarded to Mrs. Sillitoe, provincial secretary of the Prisoners of War department of the Canadian Red Cross society, Vancouver. She sends the money to headquarters in London where the money is expended.

LEGGINGS A DANGER

The unusually large percentage of officers in the United States casualty lists has moved the Army and Navy Journal to suggest that perhaps the fact is due to the conspicuous appearance of leather leggings worn by commissioned officers and flaring chevrons in non-commissioned officers.

"A study of the lists of casualties among officers of the United States army in action in France," says the Journal, "shows an unusually large number among lieutenants.

"This fact raises the question as to whether the leather leggings, which it is presumed are worn by officers in battle as it is worn on duty in the United States, may not be one of the causes of the casualties. The leather legging is extremely conspicuous, and makes it easy for the enemy to distinguish between officer and enlisted man."

Free membership in the Honolulu Y.M.C.A. has been granted by the directors to all men wearing American uniforms.

MOTHER! DON'T TAKE CHANCES IF CHILD'S TONGUE IS COATED

If Cross, Feverish, Sick, Bilious, Clean Little Liver and Bowels.

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated or your child is listless, cross feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless and in a few hours all this constipation poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is oftimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

GIFTS TO QUEEN WORTH $153,125

Formal Presentation of Silver Wedding Presents Took Place in St. James Palace

The picture gallery, St. James's palace, never held just such a gathering as met one afternoon to make a formal presentation to Queen Mary of the innumerable gifts in honor of the royal silver wedding. The 125 branches of Queen Mary's Needlework guild were represented as well as others who had contributed to the shower. Replying to a formal speech of presentation by Princess Beatrice, the Queen expressed both surprise and pleasure at the wonderful contribution for troops both in and out of hospital. Gifts valued at £30,625 7s. 6d. were exhibited in Queen Anne's drawing room and £9268 7s. 1d. was contributed in money. In addition, 66 cases were received from overseas and many beautiful pieces of silver donated for sale.

Magnificent stacks of blankets pleased the Queen particularly. There were 30,000 pairs of socks and these reached almost to the ceiling in one corner of the room. There was an equally immense supply of soap which war had made valuable enough to be given place of honor in a king's palace. Love for the Empire, for the Queen and for the soldiers would necessarily arouse no lack of sentiment in the assembling of these gifts. Children and tiny tots claimed the privilege of sending something for the shower and countless old ladies sent their tokens of love. Among these was an old christening spoon from the one to whom it was given 85 years ago. Another dear old woman of 88 sent a tifully knitted set of "washers." China, Hawaii, California, Falkland Islands, Rio de Janeiro and Tasmania represented, literally, the four corners of the earth, anxious to do honor to the Queen and the cause dearest to her heart.

ENGINEER BLOWN OUT; TRAIN RUNS ALONE

NEW YORK.—A. H. Devall, a fireman on the New York Central railroad, of Albany, but who for the past three years boarded in this city, was killed instantly, and Howard Snyder, the engineer, of Rensselaer, received serious injuries when the water bar on the engine burst while the train was going at high speed.

Both Devall and Snyder were blown out of the cab. The train, minus the engineer and fireman, sped on its way and went as far as Castleton, a distance of three miles, before it came to a stop, and then only because the steam had died down.

Two boats to be launched at wooden shipbuilding yards at Seattle soon for the Emergency Fleet corporation, are to be given Indian names. Rumor has it that an Indian maiden will act as sponsor for the boats. The Yakima, Nez Perc, Walla Walla, Umatilla and other tribes are anxious to have girls from their tribes do the honors.

Two Minutes to Clean

The burnished steel-like surface of the top of the Kootenay Range needs no polishing. The dusting off or wiping with the stove cloth which always follows the dishwashing, and is done in a minute, will keep the Kootenay Range bright and shiny all the time. That is the only "polishing" it will ever need.

No dirty blacking—no cooling down of the range—no back breaking toil—no soiling of the hands.

And the Kootenay nickel-plated oven is just as easy to clean as the outside of the range. On its smooth, bright surfaces unbroken by rivets or bolts—sanitary as the inside of your bake pans—there is no hiding place for dirt or grease.

Just wipe it down occasionally with a cloth, less than a minute, and it will be always sweet and clean.

strumental in saving England. He never realized fully the significance of what the Canadians had done until in 1916 he had seen the thousands of ships crossing and recrossing the channel with men and munitions and realized what it would have meant if the lies of communication had been cut and the Germans were using Calais as a submarine base.

To Keep Men Equipped.

The first thing to do with the money raised in this loan would be to keep the men in the trenches properly equipped. The war is now costing Canada $1,000,000 a day and up to today it has cost over $1,000,000,000. He read a telegram he had received from Gen. Currie urging the people to send help by taking the bonds. He then told of the objective for the loan which was $500,000,000 and spoke of the benefits to be derived from long term bonds. He declared that one good thing the war had done was to teach people to save.

Dealing with the war Sir Thomas stated that never in the history of the British Empire had it stood in such grave peril as it did in March, 1918, when 800,000 German soldiers launched one of the greatest offensives the world had ever known. "Our troops were pushed back in an effort which had as its objective to drive the British out of France and sweeping the French to the sea. Today things have changed. You know what has happened during the past few weeks. The Huns have been pushed back to the Hindenburg line and this line has been made so that if Hindenburg could see it he would never recognize it. They are being pushed back to the German border and even further than that until the allied troops are well into German territory.

"Gentlemen, this is the second Victory loan, and it is a victory loan indeed."

Chronic Diseases Take Hold Slowly

Kidney and Bladder Troubles don't attack you suddenly. Chronic diseases of these organs are generally the results of neglect. Nature gives you plenty of warning when your Kidneys are out of order and need assistance; you notice a dull pain in the back; you are dizzy, have headaches, feel languid, tired and lifeless.

There is no mistaking the symptoms, and when Nature warns you—obey—or later you will regret it.

Putting off never cures. Gin Pills do. At the first sign of Kidney or Bladder Trouble, buy a box of Gin Pills and take them. They will help your Kidneys to perform their proper function and renew your previous strength and vigor.

Among our hundreds of testimonials is one from Mr. B. C. David, King's Co., N.S. Mr. David writes:

"I was suffering from a dreadful lame back and hips, so much so that I could hardly straighten up. I got a box of Gin Pills and they helped me immediately. I have continued to take Gin Pills, and now the pains in both hips and back are gone. I shall always recommend Gin Pills to my friends and other sufferers."

Mr. David's case is only one of the many to which Gin Pills have brought immediate relief. Sufferers from Kidney or Bladder trouble should heed what has been done in such cases and try Gin Pills.

BOATS COLLIDE; 500 MISSING

warned Lieut. Craven, commanding the destroyer, not to make the attempt.

Men Doffed Clothes.

When it was seen that Craven would make the attempt anyway, the men were ordered to remove their shoes and heavy clothing and try to save themselves as best they could.

The destroyer stood off about 100 feet and then gradually came nearer, against the great odds of high waves and the winds which threatened momentarily to carry her entirely away from the Otranto or dash her to pieces against the side of the wounded vessel.

The Otranto struck the rocks Sunday night south of Islay bay, Islay island, in an uninhabited section where the coast line in many places rises straight out of the water to the rocky peaks many feet above. As the destroyer neared the side of the Otranto, the men began to jump thirty to forty feet from her decks. The more experienced sailors of the crew of the steamer had better success than the soldiers, many of whom had never seen the sea until this trip.

Some Leaped Too Soon.

As the destroyer steered toward the side of the steamer many of the men leaped too quickly and missed their reckoning, dropping between the boats. Some of these disappeared in the water, but others of them were caught and crushed to death between the boats and the life boats, which had been lowered to act as buffers. The destroyer was badly battered.

The commander of the destroyer, each time it was brushed away from the side of the Otranto, again would push near near enough for many men to jump to the deck of his vessel. He described as a veritable rain the number of men landing on the destroyer.

Many of those who reached the decks of the vessel suffered broken bones or otherwise were hurt. Those who missed the deck of the destroyer went to almost instant death.

Four Times to Rescue.

Four times the battered destroyer came alongside, and each time the previous scenes were repeated. At the end of the fourth trip she had 310 Americans, 236 of the crew, 30 French sailors and one British officer on board. The boat was full and, having done all possible, she started for port.

The survivors saw the Otranto drifting helplessly toward the rocks as they pulled away toward the Irish coast. The destroyer had barely time to send a brief message when her wireless was carried away. The little vessel had a rough trip to port.

The news of the collision reached London today, but nothing was known of the fate of the Otranto until this morning when the first reports came from Islay. The storm continued to make further attempts at rescue impossible. Ships pass close enough near that coast in rough weather to see the stricken vessel ashore.

Berlin's Report.

BERLIN, Oct. 11.—American forces on the east bank of the river Meuse continued their attack between Sivry and Haumont wood, but the assaults were driven back, says today's official statement issued by the German general headquarters staff. Between St. Etienne and the river Aisne, the war office said, "our troops have been withdrawn, according to plan, to positions in the rear." It is added that newly arrived troops are in fighting contact with the French and Serbian forces south of Nish. The text of the communication follows:

"Southwest of Douai, the enemy advanced to the attack against the Tortequenne sector south of the Scarpe Canadian regiments which endeavored to advance beyond Sailly were thrown back with heavy losses.

"On the battlefield east of Cambrai and St .Quentin strong attacks of the enemy against our new positions and outposts in the forefield broke down.

"The enemy has occupied approximately the line of Naves, St. Vaast, the heights west of Colesmes and Le Cateau; west of the line of St .Souplet, Vaux-Andigny and Aizonville and to the west bank of the Oice between Origny and La Fere.

"Partial enemy attacks near Berry-au-Bac, on the Aisne, on the Suippe and on the Arnes were repulsed.

"Between St. Etienne and the Aisne, we withdrew our troops, according to plan undisturbed by the enemy to the positions in the rear on both sides of the Grandpre on the north bank of the Aire.

"On the west bank of the Meuse, the enemy again launched strong attacks in vain on both sides of the Charpentry Romagne road.

"On the east bank of the Meuse the Americans attacked with strong forces throughout the day between Sivry and the Haumont wood.

"During September 11 enemy airplanes and 96 balloons were destroyed on the west front."

"Enemy attacks before our new positions between Cambrai and St. Quentin and on both sides of the Meuse failed. Northeast of Cambrai new fighting developed."

LEAGUE OF NATIONS URGES LORD GREY

British Press Strongly Upholds Viscount's Address at Westminster.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, Oct. 11.—Commenting on the speech made by Viscount Grey, former secretary of foreign affairs, at Westminster last night on the subject of a league of nations, the Daily Telegraph refers to criticisms that the allied governments had not devoted much thought to a league of nations, criticisms with which Lord Grey disassociated himself. The newspaper says:

"The ministers are fully occupied with the war but the prime minister has most strongly declared himself a believer in the project and Lord Curzon has given a considered statement in the house of lords on behalf of the government favoring the league, while Lord Robert Cecil has declared he would join no government opposed to the realization of this ideal.

"There have been many references by ministers and political leaders to the same effect and none in the opposite sense. The ideal of which President Wilson is the foremost advocate, is already in the hands of the people and we believe its practical realization is assured."

The Daily Mail says:

"Lord Grey supported President Wilson's views on every important point and he did well to emphasize that the league of nations is not a substitute for victory. In the meantime, we have in the present great alliance the germ of a league and there is no reason why its 21 members should not devise machinery for using their immense power against malefactors among the nations."

The Daily News says:

"Viscount Grey voiced the unhesitating endorsement by every element of sober opinion in this country of President Wilson's historic definitions of the purposes of this war and the conditions of peace."

The Times says:

"No public man not in office could have spoken more authoritatively or with a better right to interpret the national thought and feeling than Viscount Grey. His speech lifted the league of nations ideal to the level on which it is esesntial that it should be kept.

"We associate ourselves very heartily with Lord Grey's conclusion that the main hope for a peaceful development of mankind lies in an enhanced sense of international security which a well organized league of nations can give. With his treatment of the fiscal issue and the question of disarmament we fully agree."

GRIPPE SPREADS; DEATHS INCREASE

More Populous Districts Suffer Most—More Cases at Coast and in United States.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

TORONTO, Oct. 11.—Optimistic reports received locally regarding the epidemic of Spanish influenza in the province were overshadowed today by despatches from thickly populated districts showing considerable increases in the number of deaths. Drastic precautionary measures have been adopted in this city and at Ottawa.

The situation in Hamilton is little worse than yesterday but 2500 cases are reported in Brantford and the board of health has requested all places of assembl closed.

Finds a Cure.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 11.—Dr. G. F. Baer of the Homeopathic hospital staff here, announced this afternoon that he has found a successful cure and preventive for Spanish influenza. Dr. Baer says tests on patients suffering from the disease and having a fever of 103 have recovered under the treatment, which also has proved a successful inoculation in the malady.

In announcing results of experiments since the epidemic began, Dr .Baer said the preparation used is not a scientific secret but a combination of iodine and creosote.

Bar Toronto Gatherings.

TORONTO, Oct. 11.—Owing to the prevalence here of Spanish influenza Dr .Hastings, officer of health, has put the ban on all conventions in the city for one month.

Abating in Camps.

NIAGARA-ON-THE-LAKE, Ont., Oct. 11.—The influenza epidemic in the Canadian camp as well as in the Polish camp appears to be abating. No cases in the Canadian camp were reported yesterday or today and this afternoon Capt. Armstrong, acting A.D.A.M.S., stated there were 50 cases ready for discharge from the hospital. This leaves 220 influenza casts still in the camp hospital. The Polish camp has about 10 0influenza cases yet but there have not been any deaths for a couple of days. The total number of deaths in the Polish army from influenza is 18 and in the Canadian 3.

Is Severe in Africa.

CAPE TOWN, Tuesday, Oct. 8.—The worst plague that ever visited South Africa was nothing in comparison with the recent epidemic of Spanish influenza, according to medical testimony here. As a result of the influenza epidemic, there were more than 140 burials in Maitland cemetery today. At Johannesburg more than 100 new cases were reported Monday, with 11 deaths.

The spread of Spanish influenza is diminishing in the mining districts, where the hospital cases have been reduced from 20,000 to 3000 since last week. Eight thousand cases have been reported at Durban. Some of the coal mines in Natal have been closed and the local railway service curtailed. Thousands have been inoculated against the disease with good results.

$500 a Sneeze Without Hanky.

NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—Dr. Bigg, state commissioner of health, was directed by the public health council of the state department at a meeting here today to take charge of he Spanish influenza situation in the sate.

The council adoped a rule making it a misdemeanor for any person to cough or sneeze in a public anywhere in the state without covering the nose or mouth. Violators will be rigidly prosecuted. Punishment will be $500 fine or one year imprisonment, or both. Every new case will be placed immediately under state control.

From Sept. 18 until today there have been 25,082 cases of influenza in the city and 2752 cases of pneumonia. Deaths from influenza numbered 1052 and from pneumonia 1509.

Halts Football Games.

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 11.—Already staggering under the new military regulations, middle western football was dealt another blow tonight when a score of colleges and universities cancelled contests scheduled for tomorrow on account of Spanish influenza. MINISTERS WILL GET MORE MONEY

Methodist Conference Decides That Pastors Are to Be More Generously Paid.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

HAMILTON, Ont. Oct. 11.—More generous treatment for its ministers, both in the active service of the church and in the retired list, was authorized today by action of the Methodist general conference. Minimum salaries were fixed at $1200 a year for married ministers, $1000 for unmarried ministers and $800 for probationers.

At the same session, the conference approved the revisin gof the scale of superannuation. Retirin gallowances of $15 for each year of a minister's service and $10 for minister's widows were definitely decided on. At least $1,000,000 will be necessary to met these increases. In proposals to relax the Dominion prohibition measures during the present influenza epidemic met with unqualified condemnation by the conference which decided to wire protests to the prime minister of the Dominion, of all the provinces of Canada and of the dominion of Newfoundland. The appointment of a specia secretary of evangeist was authorized.

No change will be made in the four-year itinerary. Rev. W. Hobson Smith of the Wesleyan Methodist church of Great Britain addressed the evening session, telling of what has been accomplished toward church union in Britain and making a plea for closer political union of the British Empire and all English speaking people.

Rev. Dr. Graham, secretary of education, in moving the report of the educational convention, called the attention of the conference to the financial state of the secondary colleges, especially in the West.

"All have a burden of indebtedness," he said. "At least the eMthodist hurch should wipe out this burden of debt. The board does not ask the general conference to raise the money but it asks your hearty endorsation."

The endorsation was unanimously given.

The conference decided to urge on all districts and circuits to come to the financial assistance of Trinity hurch, Calgary, the bondsmen of which are being pressed by the bank for a debt of $42,000.

THEY SHALL NOT PASS.

"They shall not pass." The inspiring words ring out,
Speaking of fearlessness and undying trust,
"They shall not pass," in them there is the shout
Of victory over wrong and warring lust.

"They shall not pass," the line remains unbroken,
Though mighty hosts with shot and shell assail,
"They shall not pass," then let this be the token,
Might, fighting right, is sure at last to fail.

"They shall not pass," our hearts within are strong,
We war for Love, the conquering side is ours,
"They shall not pass" their struggle's all forlorn,
Defeat is theirs who helpless one devour.

"They shall not pass" though guns may roar and rattle,
We dare not, will not falter in the strife,
"They shall not pass," however strong they battle,
Conquerors we are, in this our holy fight.

"They shall not pass," they cannot quench our spirit,
Our souls shall live, though death our bodies claim,
"They shall not pass," our deeds will prove our merit,
No act of ours shall cause our loved ones shame.

"They shall not pass," if you at home keep praying,
And working for the victory we so much desire,
"They shall not pass," if you keep on believing,
That God still reigns, this will our hearts inspire.

"They shall not pass," thus history is repeating,
God is our help, our hope for years to come,
"They shall not pass," we think not of retreating,
We'll "carry on" until we hear the great "Well done.'

—Sergt. J. P. Barrie, Toronto.

MME. F. GAREAU

158 Papineau Ave., Montreal.

"For three years, I suffered great pain in the lower part of my body, with swelling or bloating. I saw a specialist, who carefully examined me and gave me several tonics to take, which did not help me. Then he told me I must undergo an operation. This, I refused to permit.

I heard about 'Fruit-a-tives' and the wonderful results it was giving because this medicine is made from fruit juices, so decided to try it.

The first box gave great relief; and I continued the treatment, taking six boxes more. Now, my health is excellent — I am free of pain and swelling—and I give 'Fruit-a-tives' my warmest thanks".

GIVE THANKS!

Thanksgiving in Canada should most certainly not be limited to one day. We have only to think of the splendid record of our soldiers, of the sure defeat of Prussian militarism and of the assured welfare of the Dominion, and we will give thanks every day and all day.

As individuals, too, we should "count our blessings". Here in the midst of the most terrible struggle the world has witnessed, we are enjoying comforts unthought of 20 years ago.

No one, 20 years ago, even dreamed of a razor where you could replace in a few seconds an edge that had been slightly dulled by hard service with another edge of perfect keenness—

Gillette Safety Razor

Shaving is now a JOY, where it used to be a JOB. Gone are the days of honing and stropping, operations which sometimes improved the shaving edge, and sometimes failed, as your chin showed afterwards.

We have letters of Thanksgiving from the men in the trenches, full of the most cheery optimism—and there are days when the Gillette furnishes the only bright spot in the day's routine.

Any dealer will be glad to show you an assortment of Gillette Razor Sets. Decide today to purchase a Gillette for your own daily benefit, or that of a friend "over there".

LECTURES BOYS FOR STEALING

Police Magistrate Allows Youths to Go After Givin, Them Severe Reprimand

After hearing considerable evidence in the case of four boys charged with breaking into a Canadian Pacific railway storeroom and stealing about $60 worth of merchandise, Magistrate E. A. Crease yesterday allowed the boys to go with a severe reprimand. Restitution to the amount of $21.30 was made to the railway ompany for the amount of goods missing. The remainder was recovered by the police.

Magistrate Crease pointed out that, as the boys were just at the age where they were entering into their careers as citizens, he hesitated to send them to a reformatory on this account. He told the boys that they had made fools of themselves and warned them that it would go hard with them if they failed to follow the right path in future.

Mr. Crease said that it was on account of boys being allowed to be out and congregate during the hours of the night that got them into trouble. He said he doubted the evidence of one of the boys as it was contrary to the confessions of two of the others.

One of the boys was sent to the city from Revelstoke to attend school. He had not gone to school and the police are making arrangements to have him sent back to Revelstoke.
