ALLIES WARN GERMANS FOR THE LAST TIME

ote Declares It Is Useless to Plead for Modification

ERMANS HAVE NO RIGHT TO IT

gree to Hold Inquiry Into Scapa Flow Incident

PARIS, Dec. 6.—The supreme coun's notes dealing with the peace eaty were delivered to Baron Von ersner, head of the German dele tion, this evening.

The first note denies the German mand for modification of the treaty the surrender of Germans charged ith crimes against international arfare and the return of prisoners, agrees to consider the economic ffects of the indemnities required r the sinking of the warships in he Scapa Flow of Germany in pirit of equity' after a hearing by e reparations commission.

The note warns Germany "for the st time" that denunciation of the rmistice would give the allied arms all latitude for necessary military easures and adds: "In the spirit e await without delay, the signature of the protocol and the exhange of ratifications."

Regarding the coercion clause of he protocol, the supreme council onsiders that the signature of the rotocol and ratification will make he treaty effective and that the protocol execution will be guaranteed by he terms of the treaty and by ordiarily recognized methods.

It rejects the Germans' "pretended ight" to modification of the treaty lauses as compensation for the abence of United States citizens from he commission. It declares that it s in vain for Germany to seek to elay the treaty's effectiveness beause of the position of the United States with regard to the commission. The second note deals entirely with he Scapa Flow incident. It places he responsibility on the Germans.

The note cites the secret message f the chief of the German admiralty, Admiral Von Trotha, to Admiral Von Reuter in command of the German crews on the Scapa Flow ships, dated May, telling him that the fleet's disposition "cannot be decided without us. It will be finished by us and delivery to the enemy avoided."

Country Is Anxious for Peace, Declares the Italian Senate

ROME, Dec. 7.—The reply of the Italian senate to the speech from the throne delivered at the opening of parliament by King Victor Emmanuel, declares Italy has no imperialistic aims. The senate's answer to the king was written by Senator Nortis of Trieste, and says: "With decided firmness we want all of Italy's children freed and legitimate reclamation of the land usurped by foreign greed.

"We are not inspired by a desire for domination, not avidity for gain, but by a generous feeling which would be useful for that peace which all humanity desires.

"Our victory, annihilating a powerful adversary, has lent the peace which should be insured us and our brethren so that their cry of sorrow shall no longer affect Italy and Europe."

PHYSICIAN HAS SOLVED SECRET

Sir Ernest Rutherford Discovers What Alchemists Sought

PARIS, Dec. 6.—Sir Ernest Rutherford since 1907 Longworthy professor and director of physical laboratories at the university of Manchester, England, has solved the riddle of transmutalition of matter, the secret sought by the ancient alchemists, according to the Matin.

Sir Ernest Rutherford is one of the best known physicians in the world, holding degrees from upwards of a dozen universities in the old and new worlds and having received medals of honor from a number of institutions of higher learning. Sir Ernest has devoted much attention in recent years to radio activity and has written a number of books on the phenomena of radio-active substances and their radiations.

Sir Ernest Rutherford was in Victoria, B.C., Dec. 16, 1914, with Lady Rutherford and his daughter. He had arrived on the liner Niagara from New Zealand, where he had been visiting relatives, his native country being the southern dominion, where he was born in 1871.

He had spoken at numerous meetings of the British association for the advancement of science, which held its session that year in the leading Australian cities, but at its height was interrupted by the outbreak of the European war. For nine years Sir Ernest was at McGill University, Montreal, as MacDonald professor of physics.

REPUBLICANS AT WASHINGTON

Meet to Set Time and Place for Convention Next Year

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—Republican leaders from every state were coming into Washington today to take a hand in the numberless conferences on conditions and privileges incident to the meeting of the Republican national committee Wednesday. These conferences easily overshadowed in interest the real purpose of the meeting, which is to select a time and place for the 1920 convention. With the arrival today of Chairman Hayes and other officials of the national committee talk about the convention city began to forecast an early decision. It was thought likely that in their conferences during the day the leaders might virtually settle the question. Chicago and St. Louis are making fights for the honor.

A striking feature of the election was the defeat of some strong labor candidates and the closeness of the majorities. J. Fletcher, the candidate selected by labor, was only elected by four. While Ald. Watson and W. McAllister, president of the local G.W.V.A. were defeated by 12 and 6 respectively, W. E. Stephenson, another strong labor man, was defeated by the majority of 129. J. JACK CLEMENTS DENIES SHOOTING

Said to Have Admitted He Was Present at the Time

VANCOUVER, Dec. 8.—Though the police will not divulge the exact nature of the statement made by Jack Clement, arrested here today by Detective Imlah, it is said the captured man has admitted he was present at the shooting of W. J. Deforge in Winnipeg, although he claims the actual shooting was done by others.

Clement, with another man, was seen walking along Cordova street by the officer, while the latter was on a street car. Asking the motorman to slow up he got off and gave chase, locating his men in an employment bureau. Taking no chances, Detective Imlah drew his gun and ordered the men to hold up their hands. The bureau clerk, when convinced the affair was not a holdup, telephoned for the police automobile.

All the local officers had to go on was a vague description of Clement and of another man who might be travelling with him but who had nothing to do with the shooting of the former dominion police officer at Winnipeg.

Clement, it is said, has informed the local police where the gun with which the shooting was done could be found in Winnipeg. A wire has been sent to the prairie city and an officer will be sent from that place to escort the man back for trial.

VETERANS TO COMBAT REDS

Grand Army Protests Action on Canadian Patriotic Fund

OTTAWA, Dec. 8.—As the result of an emergency meeting at Grand Army headquarters at Montreal, when the deputation was appointed, Captain Andrew McDuff, president, and W. E. Collier, secretary of the Grand Army of Canada, Montreal, arrived in Ottawa last night for the purpose of protesting to the government against handing over the Dominion Patriotic fund and the disbursing of the soldiers' unemployment fund.

The delegates will attempt to meet the premier and Hon. J. A. Calder today for the purpose of placing before them the feeling of the soldier organizations who were represented at their meeting. Resolutions passed will also be presented to the government. One of these prays the government to leave the disbursment of the soldiers' unemployment fund to the soldiers civil reestablishment department. Another calls for the disbanding of the Canadian Patriotic fund as the objects for which the fund was established have ceased. A third resolution, which has been made giving the support of other returned soldiers organizations it is stated by Collier and McDuff, requests the government to take prompt action to effectively counter attack the spread of bolsheviki propaganda carried on throughout the dominion. The resolution points out that the Grand Army of Canada, which has always stood for law and order, has on several occasions requested the government to take action, and has asked for a royal commission to investigate the matter, but nothing has ben done, and it is now asked that the government declare itself on the matter, and failing this, the Grand Army will itself attempt to interest all patriotic organizations in an effort to combat the menace.

NATION-WIDE CURTAILMENT OF LIGHT AND HEAT ORDERED BY UNITED STATES FUEL ADMINISTRATOR GARFIELD; ORDER GOES INTO EFFECT IMMEDIATELY

Only Street Lighting Absolutely Necessary for Public Safety Will Be Permitted; Manufacturing Plants Ordered to Cut Down Operations to Three Days a Week; No Heat in Electric Cars During Rush Hours

INTENSE COLD WAVE GRIPS SOUTHWEST MIDDLE STATES

Worst Storm in Years Sweeping Through Nebraska; Thermometer Registers 22 Below Zero in Butte, Montana; Result of Conference of Representatives at Indianapolis May Be Announced Today

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—Drastic nation-wide restrictions in lighting and heating, similar to those in effect during the coal shortage in 1917-18 were ordered tonight by Fuel Administrator Garfield. The limitations, which were made effective immediately will be enforced by the railroad administration.

All street lighting, other than that necessary for the safety of the public must be curtailed and stores, office buildings and industrial plants with a few exceptions, are put on reduced rations as to both lighting and heating.

Another of the restrictions provides that all manufacturing plants except those engaged in the making of necessary products, shall reduce their operations not to exceed three days in any one week. Electric railways are required under the fuel administration's order to reduce schedules to minimum requirements and no heat shall be provided in electric cars during rush hours.

Many of the restrictions contained in the orders have been in force in some states for several days, having been placed in effect by regional coal committees and state authorities. The order issued tonight, which will affect more persons than any coal rationing measure taken since the strike began more than five weeks ago, will make itself felt, however, in every community in the nation. Issuance of the order, officials explained, did not mean that hope of settling, possibly tomorrow, at Indianapolis, had been given up, but restrictions were necessary as a precautionary measure.

Cold Intense

CHICAGO, Dec. 8.—Central and western states, where scores of towns have reported that they are virtually without coal tonight are experiencing extremely low temperatures and heavy snow fall. Railroad officials in Nebraska reported that the worst storm in years was sweeping over that state, with train service on the C.B.&Q., between Lincoln and Denver at a standstill. The southwest middle states are in the grip of a gathering blizzard with the mercury falling rapidly in Missouri, Kansas, Eastern Colorado and parts of Oklahoma and Texas.

The coldest december day in Butte, Mont., was reported today, when the thermometer registered 22 below zero, while in the northwest temperatures as low as 27 below zero prevailed. Severe suffering among livestock is expected as the pasturage is covered by snow and ice. Attempts are being made to round up cattle and drive them to shelter.

No relief for the next 24 hours was indicated in weather forecasts. The cold wave is reported to be moving eastward and is expected to reach Chicago and the lower lakes by Tuesday night, with zero temperatures Tuesday morning.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 8.—Following a conference of more than two hours' duration this afternoon of representatives of the department of justice headed by Attorney General Palmer with United States District Judge Anderson, Mr. Palmer declared that there would be no announcement on the coal situation before tomorrow. It was stated that miners' representatives cited for contempt of court, will be required to appear in court at 10 o'clock tomorrow, but no statement was forthcoming as to whether the hearing will be postponed pending the outcome of the meeting of the executive board of the mine workers tomorrow afternoon.

COL. PRIOR TO BE HEAD OF PROVINCE

Will Succeed Sir Frank Barnard as Lieutenant-Governor

VICTORIA, Dec. 8. — Lieut.-Col. E. G. Prior of Victoria has been appointed lieutenant-governor of British Columbia to succeed Sir Frank Barnard, whose term of office expires Dec. 15.

Col. Prior, who is 66 years of age, is a native of Yorkshire, Eng. He came to Canada when 20 years old and almost immediately was appointed mining engineer and surveyor for the Vancouver Coal Mining and Land Company. In 1878 he was appointed inspector of mines for British Columbia, a post which he held for two years, when he established his present business as E. G. Prior and company, wholesale hardware.

In 1886 he was elected to the British Columbia legislature, resigning his seat two years later to become a candidate for the house of commons. He was returned by acclamation and reelected in 1891, 1896 and 1900. He was controller of inland revenue with a seat in the federal cabinet in the Powell and Sir Charles Tupper ministries. From November 1902 to June 1903 he was premier of British Columbia. While in Ottawa he acted as extra aide de camp to Governor-General Lord Stanley and Governor-General Lord Aberdeen.

He has always taken a keen interest in the militia force, which he joined in 1874 as a member of the Nanaimo Rifles. In 1888 he became lieutenant-colonel commanding the 5th regiment. His knowledge of artillery led to his appointment twice as president of the Dominion Artillery association. In 1890 he commanded the Canadian team of marksmen who went to Bisley.

Col. Prior's wife, whom he married in 1889, was Miss Genevieve Wright, daughter of Captain Wright of San Francisco.

SPENT HUGE SUM FOR EDUCATION

Over $13,000,000 Expended by Saskatchewan Government

REGINA, Dec. 8.—The government of Saskatchewan has expended no less a sum than $13,200,000 for educational purposes since the province was erected in 1905, was the announcement made by Hon. Chas. Dunning, provincial treasurer, in the legislative chamber this afternoon. Mr. Dunning stated that public accounts showed a total expenditure for education during the period mentioned of $8,831,000.

A further $4,369,000 represented the proceeds of the supplementary revenue tax used for the advancement of education. The statement was made during consideration of the bill to amend the supplementary act and an amendment which is designed to insure that the province secure credit for all monies expended on education, the handling of the supplementary revenue in a different manner to other educational expenditures.

With the commencement of the second week of the session the legislature has got into stride, a considerable number of legislative measures in various stages being before the members today.

The first bill to complete its course at the present session was given its third reading and finally carried. This is the bill to amend the act respecting commissioners to administer oats, providing for the appointment of British subjects only as commissioners and asking the appointments be made permanent.

Mr. Turgeon told the assembly that it was the intention to continue the appointments at present in good standing.

Another interesting bill which was given its second reading today makes provision for the reduction of the assessment on stocks of local merchants in villages from 100 to 60 per cent for local taxation purposes.

MAYOR GRAY ON WITNESS STAND

Submitted to Lengthy Cross-Examination at Strike Trial

WINNIPEG, Dec. 8.—When Dr. M. H. Gardiner, a dentist, on finding that his water supply was cut off as a result of the strike, went to talk to the strike committee of the seriousness of the situation for patients of doctors and dentists, he was told that if privileges were granted to some they would have to be granted to others, that this was what the strike committee were not prepared to do and that it was inevitable when great issues were involved that some should endure hardships and even death.

Testimony to the above effect was given by Dr. Gardiner at tonight's session of the strike trial of R. B. Russell, charged with seditious conspiracy. Mayor Charles F. Gray was on the stand for most of the day. His lordship was subjected to a gruelling cross-examination by E. J. McMurray, K.C., counsel for the defense.

Mr. McMurray dealt with all phases of the trouble, his questions being put with the object of making out that the principle of collective bargaining was the great issue of the strike, that there was nothing sinister behind the call of the workers to lay down tools, and that nothing so very dreadful that it could not be easily accounted for if only one could look at the thing from the other fellow's standpoint, had occurred.

The admission was made by the mayor that he had been asked to call out the military, but had refused to do so, and that General Ketchen "had been jammed and jammed to put the military on the streets, but had kept his head and would not do it."

Pressed by Mr. McMurray to say who had made these representations, the mayor said, "There were a number of hotheaded people on both sides," and that they had urged him to to do this and that the position of the iron masters in connection with the strike having been raised by Mr. McMurray, Mr. Justice Metcalfe made a declaration regarding it to the effect that the main question before the court had nothing to do with the iron masters.

The question was whether the general strike was lawful or unlawful. There was no doubt about it that the strike with the iron masters was a lawful strike. The question was whether the general strike, commencing in a lawful way, had become unlawful.

The citizens' committee of 1000 figured prominently in the cross-examination. Regarding it, Mr. McMurray put the question point blank if it was not the case that it had intervened at one period of the strike and declared that it was bound to be heard before any settlement could be effected. His worship's reply was that, so far as he was concerned as mayor, no outside body had intervened. He had acted according to his own judgment. Wm. Marshall, manager of the C.P.R. western telegraphs, told of the attempts of the strike committee to gain censorship control of telegraph messages passing in and out of the city.

Evidence as to how the milk supply was cut off and how, by means of volunteer aid, it was soon restored, was given by James Carruthers, general manager of the Crescent creamery company. Mr. Carruthers testified to writing let-

SENATE ACTION IS DEFERRED

Versailles Treaty Question Put Off Till After Christmas

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—Action by the senate, both on the Versailles treaty and on the resolution of Senator Lodge, Republican, proposing to declare the war with Germany at an end, tonight appeared improbable until after Christmas holidays, scheduled to run from Dec. 20 to Jan. 5.

The deadlock over procedure as to the Versailles treaty, apparently has lightened and Republican leaders agreed today to defer action temporarily on the Lodge resolution, although a meeting of the foreign relations committee was arranged for Wednesday. Senator Lodge said his resolution probably would await disposition by the house of a similar proposal.

FLOAT CAPSIZES; WOMAN DROWNED

SEATTLE, Dec. 8.—Forty persons were thrown into the icy waters of Puget Sound when a landing float at Manette, five miles west of Seattle, capsized under the weight of passengers leaving a ferryboat. Mrs. Margaret M. Armstrong, of Spokane, was drowned and Mrs. Elizabeth Chase of Bremerton was rescued in a serious condition and taken to a hospital. Several others are suffering from shock and exposure.

About 25 persons were waiting on the landing float to board the ferry. As the passengers from the ferry stepped from the ferry it suddenly capsized, throwing the persons upon it into the water. Screams of women attracted the attention of deckhands of the ferryboat, who leaped over the side of the craft and joined the men passengers in rescuing the women and children. All were brought to shore except Mrs. Armstrong. Her body was recovered.

ters to the trades and labor council and the strike committee asking consideration for "the innocent babes, the sick and the hospitals and the wounded soldiers, who would suffer greatly if the milk supply were cut off." To these letters he showed no attention had been paid, in any case, he got no acknowledgment and the desired action was not taken.

At the Afternoon Sitting

Mayor Gray declared that he issued a proclamation telling the public that the riot act was in force. He said that after the riot he had attempted to overcome the large amount of intimidation that was going on. Mr. Andrews read two heads from the Western Labor News, "The Mayor Rescues Gunmen," and "The Mayor Goes Crazy." Explaining this incident, Mr. Gray stated that Major Howard had been arrested. This officer, said the mayor, was under the dominion government and had every right to carry a gun, under permission from the federal authorities. He had, he said, gone a once to the scene of the arrest and informed the two constables that Major Howard had every right to carry a gun. The policemen had replied, "the mayor said all right, Sir,'" and explained that they would only take him to the police station and let him go.

The mayor then said he found himself faced by an angry mob and had to defend himself. He said that he had laid about himself with his cane and noticed two policemen with their noses up in the air taking no notice of his peril. When he shouted for assistance, he said, they came and helped him to get as far as the police station. The policemen, the mayor explained, belonged to the regular force and were apparently on duty.

McMurray, for the defense, took the cross-examination of the mayor. The causes of the strike, Mayor Gray states, he believed to be the right of collective bargainng and the gaining of a living wage. The employers wanted to arbitrate the strike with their own employees, the witness stated, but the employees refused to arbitrate the principle of collective bargaining. He stated he had done his best to secure a settlement.

Premier Norris, Mayor Gray said, had also made attempts to secure a settlement. Mayor Gray stated that the night before the general strike was called he made a final effort to avoid the difficulty. He had, he admitted, heard rumors of the strike a week before it occurred. He was notified, he said, of the strike at 11 a. m. on May 15. The strike, he said, was orderly at the outset.

Mr. McMurray asked the witness if there was any real danger to the public during the strike.

Mayor Gray: "Never in my life have I ever seen greater intimidation than during the strike. As a matter of fact this intimidation exists yet."

RETURNED SOLDIER SHOT BY INDIAN; BELIEVED ACCIDENT

SASKATOON, Dec. 8.—Anthony Gould, a returned soldier, homesteading near Tisdale, was shot by an Indian and is now lying in the hospital at Big River with a bullet hole through his left side. Gould, after being shot, struggled along for three miles, when he was lifted into a wagon by a party of Indians and brought to the hospital. It is said the Indian mistook Gould for an animal.

MOUNT ASO IN JAPAN IN VIOLENT ERUPTION

HONOLULU, Dec. 3.—(By mail)—Mount Aso, in the prefecture of Kumamato, Japan, recently burst into violent eruption, according to wireless advices received here from Tokio by the Japanese training cruiser Yakuma, which has been visiting the Hawaiian Island. The volcano is pouring out clouds of poisonous ashes, which are killing cattle and horses, the message said.

Windsor is face to face with a fuel famine as the result of the natural gas supply showing signs of exhaustion.

PRESS FLAYS LLOYD GEORGE

Independent Liberal Papers Against Continuing Coalition

LONDON, Dec. 8.—The independent Liberal press naturally criticizes at some length the Lloyd George Speech at Manchester in which he advocated the continuation of the coalition government.

The Manchester Guardian recognizes the unmistakably Liberal tone of his speech and readily admits that the case for a coalition government has force, for it has carried franchise, education and semi-socialist legislation more easily, swiftly and probably more completely. On the other hand the coalition called into being to give us peace has given us a bad peace and has grossly mismanaged Irish affairs."

In conclusion, the Guardian declines to be terrified by Lloyd George's assertions regarding the possibility of a labor government and declares that thorough liberalism will be no party to a Liberal-Conservative coalition against labor. Such a prospect only shows how essential it is to maintain a wholly unpledged body of Liberal opinion which will find in labor aspirations and efforts far more to support than oppose.

The Westminister Gazette regards the speech as the premier's most pronounced attempt thus far to soften outside Liberal opinion, and says the weakest point is the premier's assertion that coalition makes possible some solution of the Irish problem in the direction of home rule. The state of Ireland, says the Gazette, during the years of coalition government has gone from bad to worse and the only inference is that the agreement in the commons reaches only to measures upon which agreement can be reached in the cabinet.

The Bradford Observer considers the speech throughout that of a minister upon his defence, conscious of weakening among his own followers, and anxious to check any tendency to break away.

The Daily Graphic speaks of the premier's difficulty in riding two horses, and asserts that the speech leaves him free to take any course which monetary expediency may any time suggest.

The Daily Telegraph (Unionist) opens with the declaration that reflective readers may consider the premier has almost too good case and supports his intentions throughout but the Morning Post heads its editorial, "The Acrobat," and also

LIEUT.-COL. SIR WILLIAM PRICE

Who, Reduced from Lieut.-Col. to Captain so as to be able to Proceed to France.

COLONEL ARTHUR MEGNAULT

Father of the 22nd "French Canadian Battalion."

draws the illustration of the premier riding two horses.

The Daily Express, speaking of the premier's political egg dance, and declares that he has dealt with puerilities, not realities.

The Daily Mail heads its editorial "Still Talking," and its news bill "Trying to Fool Everybody."

The Times condemns the speech and says however strongly the premier fulminates against the labor party, it has at any rate definite principles and is gaining strength, as the bylections show.

HOW TO REEL OFF A WEATHERBEATEN FACE

It's really a simple matter to renovate a face soiled by dirt, wind or cold. Ordinary mercolized wax, used like cold cream, will transform the worst old complexion into one of snowy whiteness and velvety softness. It literally peels off the outer veil of surface skin, but so gently, gradually, there's no discomfort. The wornout skin comes off, not in patches, but evenly, in tiny particles, leaving no evidence of the treatment itself. The younger, healthier underskin forming the new complexion is one of captivating loveliness. One ounce of mercolized wax, to be had at any drug store, is enough to remove any coarse, chapped, pimpled, freckled, faded or sallow skin. Apply before retiring, washing it off in the morning.

STOCKS ADVANCE ON WALL STREET

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—Although many important factors influencing the stock market remained unsettled over the week end, prices were disposed to move forward during the greater part of today's dull and uncertain session.

Another slum pin foreign exchange with sterling, francs and lire at the greatest discounts ever known, was neutralized in part by the six per cent for call loans. In the last 15 minutes of the session, however, call money advanced to 8 per cent, 10 per cent being quoted at the close. Reactions of one to three points accompanied the money flurry, the tone changing from firmness to irregularity in the final dealings. Steel, motors and shipping led the moderate reaction.

Sales amounted to 1,000,000 shares.

Two groups of stocks, sugars and metals, especially the former, derived material benefits from trade conditions. Active sugar shares were one to five points higher at their best, and coppers rallied from their recent depression, with an advance of ½ to one cent per pound for refined metals.

Movements elsewhere were chiefly due to the operations of pools or the caprices of the short interests, rails yielding moderately to the pressure of professional origin.

Liberty, Victory and foreign bonds were mixed as to trend, but local utilities and several of the convertible railroad bonds were firm to strong. Total sales, par value $25,875,000.

Old U. S. bonds were unchanged on call.

SOUND AND FURY FROM BERLIN

Germany is behaving just about as might have been expected. Instead of taking its defeat like a nation of men and accepting the peace treaty and all its terms involved, it is by means of propaganda and threats endeavoring to find a way of evading the consequences of its failure to bring the world beneath its heel.

Just now Defence Minister Noske is to the fore with a declaration that the protocol to the treaty which is now under discussion should not be signed, that the German people would rise against it and so on.

The allies know the German people and the German government too well to take any notice of all the sound and fury, poison gas and smoke clouds which arise from Berlin. They will enforce the peace treaty and its collateral terms and enforce them to the hilt.

If Germany wants to try any monkey business let it first remember that in an hour the allied nations can deal Germany a blow almost as deadly as armed destructive invasion. They can reimpose the blockade and prevent Germany doing trade with the world.

The allies can do this without firing a shot, without shedding a drop of blood.

NO QUACK REMEDIES ANY GOOD

Depreciation of sterling exchange in the United States, which has taken another tumble, is not due to lowering of British credit but to the fact that Great Britain has purchased and is continuing to purchase more goods in the United States than it is selling. Its position in this respect is made the more acute because it has acted as purchasing agent for its allies in Europe, using its credit to assist them.

The exchange situation, as affecting either British sterling or the Canadian dollar, cannot be improved by any quack remedy. Canada might gain temporary relief by floating a loan in the United States, but that would only make things worse in the long run.

The way out is not easy, but it is sound. It lies in the direction of greater production at home and smaller imports from foreign countries. Directly British production is sufficiently increased to enable it to reduce its exports to the necessary figure sterling will rise to par. The same thing applies to Canada. This country must produce and export more.

THE SINN FEIN GAME IN THE UNITED STATES.

Senator Williams of the United States congress declared in a letter a few days ago that the Sinn Feiners were endeavoring to foment trouble between the United States and Great Britain with the object of strengthening the position of the Irish rebels, and that in this movement they were being aided by the Germans who would delight to be able to break the bonds of friendship which exist between the British Empire and Uncle Sam.

The Sinn Feiners are anti-British and time and time again, therefore, have shown themselves to be pro-German. They have consistently tried to arouse distrust between the United States and Great Britain. They are enemies of the Empire and should be treated as such.

TOO MANY GOVERNMENTS

The maritime provinces are continually canvassed in their efforts to promote adequate government services, says S. Magee, of St. Magee, N.B., Post Elgin, N.B. Mr. Magee has been a strong supporter of a legislative union of the three provinces under such a name as "Acadia." Writing to the Monetary Times, he says:

"No sound arguments have been advanced against this project. Sentiment is the only drawback. People speak of the loss of provincial identity, of provincial legislatures, of historic buildings, of governors and government houses, of old officials and their associations, etc., always sentiment. Members of the different legislatures are theoretically favorable but cannot be enthused. Perhaps they doubt their ability to secure a seat in a new maritime legislature, which may not require one hundred and forty-two representatives as now, including the twenty-one members of the legislative council of Nova Scotia), to conduct the affairs of about 950,000 people, or a representative for about every 7000.

"We occupy in the vicinity of 50,000 square miles of eastern Canada in which is situated the two winter ports through which Canadian products must be exported. We are endeavoring to maintain and perpetuate three distinct governments and all that this entails: three different policies in education, agriculture, public works, administration of justice, etc. No unison. No united effort to better our conditions. We subscribe to the doctrine of "watchful waiting." We have at present two governments grappling the problem of the development of our water powers. We doubtless will have two distinct policies. It is common engineering knowledge that we have at Cape Split, N.S., and in the Petitcodiac River, N.B., sufficient undeveloped power to electrify the maritimes many times, and those who think, realize the immense possibilities of cheap power and the industries it establishes. One legislature might grapple with these problems, three cannot. One legislature could make "Acadia" known throughout the world and could secure for the maritimes practical attention at Ottawa. Offices could be maintained abroad that would be effective. What have we today? What means of placing eastern Canada before the people of any country? United we can become a factor in the world's activities—disunited we remain stagnant.

"Confederation has not proved to be any particular blessing to us and there are many who realize that there were four provinces only in the original pact ,that Ontario and Quebec have both been given immense territorial additions. Prince Edward Island, which came into confederation in 1872, has had its federal subsidy increased, but Nova Scotia and New Brunswick plod away on the same old basis of 80 cents per head. They annually demand more of Ottawa and their demands are taken into consideration.' In the meantime, they exhaust every effort to secure sufficient revenue to maintain the services of the provinces in a modern manner; they are unable to do so and the public debts are being enlarged annually.

"These conditions cannot go on indefinitely. We must unite to protect ourselves. It is to be deplored that the public conscience of the maritimes cannot be aroused to its needs. We are suffering from 'dry rot.' Communities are doomed if they are too easily satisfied and their desires based on necessity alone. We must not permit ourselves to succumb in the international struggle for a place in the sun."

Mrs. Dodson's Butter Recipe

Heat a baby size tin of Pacific Milk to the boiling point.

As it is cooling, about lukewarm, put in ¼-pound of butter and allow it to melt. Add a pinch of salt.

When about cool heat it thoroughly until cold. It will be like soft butter.

Put in refrigerator or outside these cool days and allow it to set. It will get as firm as the original butter—and taste fine.

AINSWORTH ROAD NEARLY FINISHED

Work Being Hard Pushed on New Denver-Three Forks Section

Less than two weeks will finish the wagon road between Kaslo and Ainsworth, all the earth work has been completed and there being some rock work yet to be done at three points around bluffs, William Ramsay, district engineer, stated yesterday. The road is a little over four miles in length, and is being built by Rawlings & LeBrash, contractors. It includes a bridge over Woodbery creek. The work was started at the Kaslo end, and in a few days the new highwayw illbeinf ullus e new highway will be in full use.

In spite of the wintry conditions prevailing in the country, Mr. Ramsay states, road crews are still actively working at various points.

O nthe New Denver-Three Forks road, five miles in length, the first mile only requiring widening of the existing road, the road has been completed half way to Alamo, and it is Mr. Ramsay's ambition to get it through as far as Alamo before road work ceases for the winter. This is dirt wor kat present. When the Ainsworth road is completed ,a compressor will be available for use at this point, and with this, and dynamite, the frost can be defied.

The camp for the construction crow on the Thrums-Brilliant cutoff is nearly completed at Brilliant. Dirt work is still possible where the land pitches, but on the levels a plow cannot be used on account of the frost.

In the Revelstoke section, the camp working on road construction west of that city was closed down four weeks ago, but the one working on the two-mile stretch north of Arrowhead, to connect with Hall's Landing, is still in full swing, and will soon complete its task.

The contract was recently let for the concrete piers for the Goat river bridge, recently authorized, and it is the intention to construct the superstructure this winter.

One Kitchener citizen suffered an attack of sleeping sickness while sitting in a local theatre.

The 125th anniversary of Lundy's Lane Methodist Church was celebrated by special services.

"The Time Please"

At the present time this question is asked of our operating staff in the larger offices 15,000 times each day. Time calls comprise nearly 4% of all telephone calls.

As the equipment required at the Central Offices is based on the number of calls handled, it will be seen that 4% of the equipment is used for time calls.

Because of the shortage and delay in securing equipment, and also the necessity, at present of conserving the time of the operating staff, the saving of this 4% in both material and time, is a large factor in these offices.

On this account, the giving of time by central will be discontinued after December 1, 1919.

FIVE UNITS FOR COAST

Kootenay May Have One Under Proposed Militia Scheme

VICTORIA, Dec. 8.—Vancouver, under the proposed militia reorganization plan will have total number of troops amounting to 2891, or approximately 2¼ per cent of the population according to a statement made by Maj.-Gen. Leckie yesterday.

"It is suggested that the headquarters of the 15th Field Artillery brigade be stationed in Vancouver," said Gen. Leckie, "Also the 31st field battery, the 5th Siege battery and the 68th field battery. This last would be in North Vancouver, where there is to be a field company of engineers or whatever the equivalent is to be in the new militia organization. In the machine gun corps there would be the headquarters of the 2nd Canadian Motor Machine Gun brigade and two batteries. Also there would be one half company of the 11th Canadian Machine Gun brigade which has its headquarters in Victoria."

It was originally suggested that there should be four infantry battalions in Vancouver. But the number has been increased under the late plan to five. There would be a field ambulance in the army medical corps, and there would be the equivalent to a company in the Canadian army service corps, making a total number of troops in Vancouver of 2891, as already specified.

The proposed scheme calls for one battalion with headquarters in Northern British Columbia also a battalion with headquarters in New Westminster and another wwith headquarters in Kamloops or Kootenay. I think that as soon as Ottawa has had time to consider the matter a little further we will be given authority to go ahead with the organization," said Gen. Leckie. Probably the beginning of the new year will see the thing go into effect. The matter of headquarters has not been decided up to the present.

CURLING FIXTURE IS FOR THURSDAY

President vs. Vice-President Match Drawn; 26 Rinks Made Up

With the gleaming sheets of ice reflecting the electric lights hanging from the rafters, with the two middle sheets marked off and in use, with the rows of boxes containing curling stones laid out in orderly array, with "rocks" hissing down the ice and kissing, with banners flying, with wise onlookers wisely on-looking, with a baby watching the opening games as mascot, and with the club room, the holy of holies to curlers, foggy with smoke from both fragrant and unfragrant weeds, while eht annual draw was in progress, the curling season in Nelson was most auspiciously launcred last night.

Twenty-six rinks were made up, as they will go through the season.

After this vital task was out of the way the draw was made for the annual opening fixture, the president vs. vice-president match. It was decided to play this Thursday night, starting at 8 o'clock.

In the course of the evening the majority of the members on hand took a turn with the stones, and a large number of scratch games were played.

The evening developed a challenge, the Guthrie rink challenging the president's rink to play the annual game for the gold buttons. This game will be played this afternoon at 4 o'clock, and wil consist of 10 ends.

Got Rid of The Cough That Sticks

Some coughs seem hard to shake off—stick right to you in spite of all you do to get rid of them.

Those are the kind of coughs that are dangerous—that weaken the lungs so that the germs of consumption find a ready foothold.

We know of no remedy that will cure stubborn coughs—coughs that won't let go—like Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup.

It allays the inflammation, soothes the irritation and heals the diseased mucous lining of the lungs and bronchial tubes.

Mrs. Geo. Allen, Petite de Grat Bridge, N.S., writes:—"Last winter I had an awful cough that kept me in the house for over two months. I tried several cough remedies, but got no relief. I was almost discouraged when a grocer here offered me a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. After taking that one my coughing began to cease. I took two more and they cured me completely."

Get the genuine Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup; put up in a yellow wrapper; 3 pine trees the trade mark; price 25c. and 50c.; manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

RESTORE NELSON-MARCUS SERVICE

Only One Train Missed; Company's Reply to Board Protest

After a suspension of only one day and the missing of only one regular train, the Great Northern daily passenger service between Nelson and Marcus, with Spokane connections, has been restored, and starting this evening the train will depart and arrive on the old schedule. The triweekly mixed train, due for its first run today, did not have a chance to start service.

"No further interruption is expected, "E. L. Buchanan, Great Northern freight and ticket agent, stated last night.

News of the restoration of the service was contained in wires to President J. R. Hunter, of the board of trade, from C. O. Jenks, assistant general manager of the western district of the Great Northern, and A. B. Lantry, superintendent of the Spokane and Marcus division.

Mr. Jenk's wire read: "Your wire to date. Have arranged to reinstate passenger service between Nelson and Marcus."

The wire which President Hunter sent off to both officials Saturday night was as follows:

"Understand your company intend cancelling Nelson-Marcus daily passenger train on account of coal shortage, to be replaced by triweekly mixed service. On investigation we find no coal shortage in British Columbia, your source of supply for this division. We are wiring Canadian board of railway commissioners, protesting against such action. In view of lumbering activities along the line, we will use every effort with the board to have present service continued. We suggest deferring action until given an opportunity of stating our case. Please advise."

No reply has ben received to the wire sent to the chairman of the railway commission as yet.

Word has been received that a new official is about to be appointed to handle the work of the vocational section of the department of soldiers' reestablishment in this city.

For the past year W. A. Burton of the local office has been doing the work of a full vocational officer in adidtion to his duties of the information and service branch.

As the vocational section has now assumed such prooprtions as to require the full time of a vocational officer, an expert in that branch is expected to come to the city this wee kto take charge of the work.

Being relieved of that work, W. A. Burton will in future confine his attention to matters relating to information, complaints and employment.

It is suggested that communications could be forwarded to W. A. Burton of the local office of the Department of Soldiers Civil Reestablishment for transference to Mr. Butterworth.

Crosscut Approaches Vein; Property Is An Old Shipper

According to word from Sandon, work is progressing favorably on the long crosscut of the Cinderella group, near Three Forks, the face now being in 350 feet. George Dean and associates are working the property with a crew of eight men, and should soon reach the vein on which they are getting depth.

FUEL SHORTAGE AFFECTS NELSON

Quantity of Coal in the Hands of Local Dealers Is Low

Only a few tons of coal are in the hands of Nelson coal dealers and the largest bulk of this is steam coal.

Dealers questioned yesterday in regard to the situation stated that the outlook is none too good and that though, of course, a little coal filters through to the city from the mines, neither the quality or quantity desired can always be supplied to customers.

The quantity of split dry wood on hand is also dwindling fast and is not likely to be replenished until enough snow for hauling arrives.

MINISTERIAL TEAM GO DIRECTLY EAST

Rev. D. T. McClintock received a wire yesterday cancelling arrangements for the inter-church conference in Nelson tomorrow, wwhich was to have been participated in by six prominent preachers, representing the five protestant denominations. It was found to be necessary for the ministerial "team" to proceed direct east by the main line, without giving a day to the interior.

BIG SUMS HANDED OVER AS CONSCIENCE MONEY

HALIFAX, Dec. 9. — The Morning Chronicle today states that L. R. Acker, proprietor of various theatres throughout Nova Scotia was handed $11,500 conscience money Saturday night by a Roman Catholic priest, who declined to state from whom the money was obtained. The Halifax Herald announces that a prominent business man was given $11,000 in conscience money Saturday night by a clergyman, who had received it from a man who said it had been stolen in a poker game.

SUGAR SALES

Wholesale houses are only supplying merchants with sugar in proportion to the amount of groceries they buy, and then that is only part of full requirements.

Therefore we will have to limit our sales at present to one pound of sugar to each dollar in groceries. That is better than we are getting. The more groceries you buy from us the more sugar we can get. We hope to serve you well.

Regular customers will be supplied in usual way.
