ROADS MAY GRANT FREE TRANSPORT

DOMINION RAILWAY COMMISSION AT VANCOUVER HANDS DOWN JUDGMENT

Deputy Ministers, Fire Rangers, Former Employes Are Among Those Who Will Have Advantage

VANCOUVER, Nov. 23 — Dealing with the right of railway companies to grant free or reduced transportation to ministers of religion, members of local legislatures, newspapermen and others, the following judgment, accompanied by a memorandum by the chief railway commissioner has been handed to the Canadian Press.

The judgment reads as follows

In the matter of the application of the Canadian railway war board, on behalf of the railway companies subject to the jurisdiction of the board for free transportation under section 345 of the railway act, 1919:

Upon reading the application dated Oct. 16, 1919, and considering what has been urged in support thereof it is ordered that the railway companies of Canada, subject to the jurisdiction of the board be permitted, until further orders to carry free of charge, the following persons

(A) Department of immigration of the Dominion of Canada. For such representatives of the department as may be required by the minister or deputy minister.

(B) Departments of immigration and customs of the United States. For such representatives of the departments as may be required by the commissioner or deputy commissioner of immigration or collector of customs in charge of the district.

(C) Fire rangers. Fire rangers within their respective districts, employed or authorized by provincial governments.

(D) Families of former or deceased employes of railways.

(E) Former employes of transportation companies and their families.

(F) Deputy ministers of departments of the federal government and those having the rank of deputy ministers.

In the memorandum attached to the foregoing judgment, the chief commissioner, Hon. F. B. Carvell, says:

"After having considered this section carefully, I have come to the conclusion that the whole purpose of the section was to give to the railway companies within certain limits, the right to carry traffic at free or reduced rates; and to such classes of persons and, in some cases, individuals as the companies may decide upon, subject in certain cases to the approval and permission of this board. The whole section is preceded by the following words "Nothing in this act shall prevent, • • • It then refers to five specific classes of persons and a cereful examination shows that there is no great change between present act and its predecessor, excepting that in sub classes (a) and (c) a limitation is placed upon the power of the railway companies and sub clauses (d) and (e) an extension is provided for.

"Under clause (a) the most which the railway companies can do toward reduced fares for ministers of religion is to carry them at one half the regular fare, and in clause (c) the most they can do for members of the provincial legislature is to carry them free within points in the province to which they belong.

It is not clear whether members of the press can be carried free beyond the province in which they reside, but, as there is no comma after the word legislatures, and nothing to designate a difference in the two classes, I am rather inclined to the opinion that the limiting words "between points within the province" apply to the latter as well as the former. Clause (c) also extends the privilege to dependents members of the families of any persons who are entitled to free transportation under section 346 of this act, and clauses (d) and (e) also extend the right to employes of the department of railways and canals and to the governor general and staff.

"This narrows the question down to the interpretation of the last line of the clause (c), viz, " or to such other persons as the board may approve or permit," and to the proviso immediately following sub section (c) both of which are to be found in the previous act. These words evidently mean something, and it is my opinion that a railway company may decide to grant the privilege of free transportation to any person, or class of persons, subject always to the approval or permission of the board, and also subject to the provision herein referred to, which, in my opinion, is a regulating power rather than an exacting one.

"To apply this opinion specifically

VETERANS WOULD OUST MARRIED WOMEN FROM JOBS

WINNIPEG, Nov. 23. The Manitoba Veteran, the official organ of the Gr W. V. A., suggests a canvassing of all the city offices to discover the cases of married women holding down jobs the returned soldiers might fill, while their unpatriotic husbands are also getting sufficient salaries elsewhere. The Veterans assert there is considerable unemployment now among the soldiers, and the winter will not improve conditions, and that the employment of wives to get the double salary is grossly unfair and unpatriotic under the circumstances. The banks are said to be chief offenders.

CANADA ON MAIN BODY

Election to Governing Body of International Labor Office is Considered Remarkable Triumph

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—Canada has been elected to the governing body of the international labor office and her election is regarded here as a remarkable triumph. It came after a struggle which has lasted now for several weeks. The first phases were unfavorable. The organizing committee of the conference declined to include the dominion among the eight nations of "Chief Industrial Importance" and therefore entitled to direct representation on the governing body. The dominion government filed a formal protest for consideration by the council of the league of nations.

During the weekend government delegates from 34 nations have had the election of the four under consideration. They met on Friday morning and evening, but came to no decision. After four hours on Saturday afternoon they discussed the situation once more and eventually took a ballot. The result was the election of the four following: Canada, Spain, Poland and Argentine.

In actual voting Canada came third, victory generally conceded to be a tribute to the forward position which the Canadian delegation taken at the conference.

The above affects representation of the dominion. Canadian workers have won similar success. The governing body consists of 24 persons. Twelve representing governments, six employers and six workers. The employers and workers representatives are nominated by the conference employers and labor groups respectively.

After discussions as protracted as those of the governmental delegates the labor group has selected P. M. Draper, Canadian workers delegate, as one of its six nominees. The other five countries nominated to send a labor delegate, are: France, Holland, Great Britain, Denmark, and Germany.

Mr. Draper took fourth place. Should the United States join the international labor confernce, however, Mr. Draper will cede to Mr. Gompers, president of the American federation of labor. The conference expects to terminate its work by the end of the present week, and with this in view, will begin morning sessions on Tuesday. Delays in ratification of the peace treaty however, have resulted in a curious situation.

The international labor conference meets under the Aegie of the league of nations. But the necessary ratifications have been deposited and the peace treaty comes into effect the league itself does formally exist. When the conference opened it was expected that the peace treaty would begin to operate before any decisions of importance were reached by the labor conference. This expectation has not been realized.

The question is now asked now fat decisions of the conference will be binding. The situation, it is understood is under careful consideration. Although no official announcement has been made it is likely that the conference after voting on the proposed conventions will adjourn to meet again in London or Paris early in the new year for formal cofirmation of decisions reached in Washington.

OWNERS AND MINERS NEAR COMPROMISE

MINERS WILL ACCEPT THIRTY-ONE PER CENT—OPERATORS OFFER TWENTY.

Believe Figure Will be Between — Coal Scarcity Has Reached State of Famine.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—The intervention of Fuel Administrator Garfield tomorrow in the lagging negotiations of bituminous operators and miners of the central competitive field, was expected tonight to bring to a climax the long drawn out conflict and clear the way for speedy settlement of the strike situation which has put the country on the verge of a coal famine.

Although the day brought no new developments here, as mine owners and workers waited action by the administration tomorrow, it was evident that both sides recognized that a settlement could not long be delayed. No formal meetings of any sort were held. Thomas Brewster, chairman of the operators, and John L. Lewis, acting president of the United Mine Workers of America, remained here, but many of the operators spent the week-end out of the city.

Reports received by operators from middle western states showed that the coal scarcity already had reached the famine stage, and that the cold weather had brought suffering and hardship. Several operators today declared their willingness to accept whatever proposition the government might offer. With the entire country aroused to the need of obtaining the production of coal on a normal basis, neither the miners nor the owners of the properties, they said, could afford to turn a deaf ear to the recommendations of the government.

As the situation now stands as regards wage advances, the operators have offered an increase of 20 per cent, and the miners have agreed to accept the 31 per cent proposed by Secretary Wilson. The possibility of a compromise between these figures, part of the increase to be paid by the public in higher prices and some to come out of the margin of the mining companies, was suggested in some circles, and it was said this would be placed before both sides tomorrow.

Urge Greater Conservation

CHICAGO, Nov. 23—A prospect of more suspensions in industry as a result of the coal miners strike, confronted Chicago and the middle west tonight. Greater conservation was emphasised by regional coal directors.

D. F. Honeld, secretary of the coal operators association returned from Washington and expressed the belief that the operators would not accept secretary Wilson's compromise offer of a 3 per cent increase in wages. He declared the secretary's eplan would mean an increase of 75 or 80 cents a ton at the mines. The only way the proposal would be accepted he said, would be in the form of a government action. The operators are wiling to turn over their properties to the government any time it will take decisive action to resume production he said.

Dr. Honeld said the present supply of soft coal probably did not average more than enough for one week's supply for necessary users.

ARMENIAN HERO IN NEW YORK

With Gen. Bagaratunia in America on Special Mission From Armenia to United States.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Gen. Antranik, "hero of Armenia," and Gen. Bagaratunia, who refused the governorship of Petrograd when it was offered to him by Premier Kerensky just before the Lenine-Trotsky forces struck for power in Russia, arrived here Saturday on the steamship Lasavoie on a special mission from Armenia to the United States. Gen. Antranik, who heads the mission, won his popular title of "Hero of Armenia" for holding out with his small force at Zangezsur, where he defended 30,000 starving Armenian refugees until relieved by the British at Baku. This was in December, 1918, after the armistice was signed.

OTTAWA, Nov. 23—The Canadian trade commission has announced that it is prepared to receive applications from Canadian firms requiring German dye stuffs, upon which the allied governments have an option under the peace treaty. The applicant is required to sign a declaration that the dyes asked for are unobtainable on reasonable terms from United States or Swiss sources.

BOAT SINKS WITH CREW

Eighteen Are Lost When Steamer Founders in Furious Gale Off Whitefish Point

SAULT STE. MARIE, Mich., Nov. 23.—Eighteen persons, comprising the crew of the steamer Myron, are believed tonight to have been added to victims of Lake Superior's fury of the past two weeks. Caught in a terrific northwester, the Myron foundered a mile and a half of Whitefish Point last night and early today sank in four fathoms of water. Futile efforts were made by two steamers to throw lines to the men clinging to the cabin.

So wild was the sea, however, that the men could not hold the lines and for their own safety the two steamers were compelled to leave the scene. Tonight coastguards are patrolling the shores of Whitefish bay for 40 miles, hoping the Myron's two lifeboats will be blown ashore.

At five o'clock tonight the steamer Calumet arrived at the Soo and reported passing a yawl boat waterlogged about one mile below Whitefish Point and a great deal of other wreckage between the point and the Parisian Island. Another steamer is reported towing the Miztec under the point.

The submarine chaser 438, whose crew figured so heroically in the search for the crew of the John Owen, left the Soo tonight, to make a search for the crew of the Myron, or any trace of them.

The wind which yesterday blew a gale, is very light tonight. The tug Alabama and Lighter Reliance left the Soo this morning for the steamer Baker which went ashore on MacKin Island last night. The Iowa and a deck scow were sent to the steamer Argo, which also is ashore on Watson Reef at Detour, Mich.

Steamer Drifting

HALIFAX, Nov. 23—Further word was received here late yesterday afternoon from an unknown steamer stating that the German barque Paul is drifting to the southeast and that her remaining sails and masts are being further damaged by the wind. She again asks that help be sent from here, but help is unavailable.

JAPS UNEASY OVER RUSSIA

Believe That Victories of Bolsheviki so Menacing That Japan Cannot Remain Indifferent.

TOKIO, Nov. 23.—The opinion is growing in Japanese army circles that the retreat of Admiral Kolchak and the increasing ascendency of the bolshevik in Siberia are so menacing that Japan cannot remain indifferent. The Jiji Shimpo says therefore, Japan may make a new proposal to the powers regarding the Siberian problem, and likewise strengthen Japanese forces in Siberia.

The statement declared that the request of Col. Avaloff-Bermondt, commander of the West Russian armies in this region, for an armistice has been refused. M. Tonnison, the new Esthonian premier, in announcing his policy, says Esthonia will continue her efforts to obtain peace providing there is no objection on the part of the allies to whose policies Esthonia will conform.

TWENTY-FIVE BURNED IN DANCE HALL

MOST OF VICTIMS WERE WOMEN AND GIRLS TRAPPED BY FIRE

Fifteen Others Seriously Hurt—Several Caught in Mad Rush To Exist

VILLE PLATT, La., Nov. 23.—Twenty-five persons, most of them women and girls, lost their lives here last night in a fire which quickly destroyed a frame building in which 300 of the village folks were making merry at a dance. Fifteen others were seriously hurt and search of the ruins is expected to add to the list of dead.

Ten of the dancers were burned to death and the others were crushed in a wild rush to reach the street down a narrow stairway, while the flames were sweeping rapidly from the lower floor. More than a score of babies, tucked safely away in a little nursery on the same floor with the dance hall, were rescued by mothers who had taken them there along with their children of dancing age. Some of the young children were picked up and hurled bodily into the outstretched arms of people in the streets below. The fire started in a grocery store and a tongue of flame reached out and started a crowd in a moving picture theatre in the same building as the dance hall.

A man standing near the door shouted to the audience to move out quickly and no one was hurt. The flames spread so rapidly that the whole lower floor was a roaring furnace. Then the dancers in the big hall above were aware of their danger. Instantly there was a panic and the whole crowd, men, women and children made a mad rush for the single exit, the narrow stairway leading down the side of the burning building.

This soon was choked, and many of those who were trapped, escaped through windows to the roof of an adjoining building. Many of the victims were burned beyond recognition and bits of jewelry were the only means of identification of the bodies.

The Prince waved his farewell from the fighting, top to the great crowd gathered on the banks of the Hudson to bid him God speed. Airplanes dipped and circled overhead and salutes boomed from the United States warships in the river as the Renown got under way. The Prince remained at his post in the fighting top waving his hand in answer to the cheers which reached him faintly across the water until the shadows had finally hidden the shores.

As the battle cruiser and her consort the cruiser Constance, entered the bay seven United States destroyers and the American battleship Delaware closed in or her wake each with the British naval ensign waving from the main peak. They will escort the royal ship to the vicinity of Halifax, where the Prince due Monday morning.

MAIN COLLEGE BUILDING BURNS

Medical Department of Laval University at Montreal Destroyed—Estimated Damage $400,000

MONTREAL, Nov. 23—The main building of the University of Montreal, better known as Laval University, containing the medical departments, was destroyed by fire last night. The damage is estimated at $400,000 and is covered by insurance. The cause of the fire has not been definately settled but a smoking concert was held in the building in the early part of the evening, and it is thought by the firemen, that a lighted cigarette may have been left around afterwards.

Several of the medical students had a narrow escape when the fire broke out. They were counting the ballots for the class election., which took place Saturday and bits of plaster from the ceiling fell and they were later notified that the top, or sixth floor of the building was ablaze.

They rushed for their hats and coats and made their way out a short time before the occurrence of an explosion, which set the entire fourth and fifth floors ablaze in the center of the building.

The explosion is believed to have been caused by a tank of alcohol.

Several firemen had placed a ladder on the gallery over the entrance and led by District Chiefs Martin and Gauthier, were about to climb in the fifth floor, when the explosion came and they were knocked off the ladder, which broke. None of them were seriously injured. Every man and mechanical device of the Montreal brigade were used to fight the flames.

The medical museum which contained the body of "Giant" Beaupre was considerably damaged and the medical laboratory was destroyed.

On the lower floors the students and some of the professors who had rushed to the scene of the fire managed to save some of the most precious articles. Valuable paintings, photos and other articles which would have been impossible to replace, were taken out.

The copper dome of the Notre Dame Lourdes Church nearby grew red hot from the excessive heat. The church was slightly damaged by water.

The fire lasted over nine hours. The blaze was one of the most sensational ever seen in Montreal. So vivid was the reflection in the sky that numerous alarms were turned in elsewhere for supposed fires.

TROOPS PATROL CAIRO STREETS

British Soldiers Placed at all Strategic Points—Armored Cars Used—Conditions Quiet.

CAIRO, Nov. 22.—British troops have been posted at all strategic points beyond the city and armored cars and cavalry are patrolling the streets. There have been no disorders in the city today, however. At the funeral of a man killed during the disturbances late last week there was an innovation, girls walking by the coffin and boys forming a rearguard for the cortege. An officer was saved by a conductor when members of the mob entered a street car last night, the officer hiding in the folds of his protector's robes. There was a general search for officers in the street cars during the night.

CAIRO, Nov. 23.—Field Marshal Viscount Allenby, British high commissioner of Egypt, today paid a visit to the sultan. The sultan has as yet made no reply to the premier regarding the resignation of the cabinet. Advices from London, Nov. 19 said the Egyptian ministry had resigned because of dissatisfaction with the mission appointed by Lord Milner, British secretary for the colonies to investigate unrest in Egypt.

CAIRO, Nov. 23.—Gen. Allenby, the British commander in chief, has requested four prominent Egyptians in the nationalist movement, including the local president of the nationalists, Mahmoud Pasha Suliman, to quit the city and retire to their provincial estates. They all have decided to ignore the request.

TWO KILLED IN HEAD-ON TRAIN SMASH

OTHERS HURT WHEN SPECIAL AND MONTREAL-QUEBEC EXPRESS COLLIDE.

Dead Were Members of Train Crews —Passengers on Special Escaped with Bruises.

MONTREAL, Nov. 23.—Two men are known to have been killed and six were injured Saturday night when a head-on collision took place near Terre Bonne, on the C.P.R., between a special carrying passengers from the Empress of France, which docked yesterday at Quebec, for Toronto, and the Montreal-Quebec express. The men killed were members of the train crews, while the injured were with one exception in the Montreal-Quebec express. Passengers on the special escaped with nothing more serious than bruises.

The dead are: J. M. Sanche, Quebec, fireman of the boat special, and A. Milner, Montreal express messenger on the Montreal-Quebec express.

The injured are: Alphonse Leclerc, 70A. Champfleur street, Montreal; Ed. Daoist, Charlemon street, Quebec; Joseph Marcheldon, 107 St. Johns street, Montreal; N. Frachette, 78 Seventh street, Lomoulou, Ont.; Geo. A. Premont, 217 Prince Edward avenue, Quebec; all of the Montreal-Quebec express, and Leon Leclerc, Quebec, engineer of the special.

Passengers Knocked About

The two trains were travelling at a fair rate of speed when the collision took place. The boat train remained on the track but two baggage cars and the second class coach of the express were derailed and subsequently caught fire. The passengers in the express were knocked about, people in the dining car being thrown across the tables.

The accident happened about 6:30 in the evening and within an hour the C.P.R. had despatched an auxiliary train, with wrecking outfit and hospital car, the latter manned with doctors and nurses, to the scene of the collision. The body of Sanche was found in a ditch. Milner was alive when recovered from the wreckage, but died soon afterwards. The injured were brought to Montreal and taken to the Royal Victoria hospital.

The boat special, which was carrying about 300 passengers, was consolidated with a second special following, and was sent on to Toronto this morning. The passengers on the Quebec express were brought back to Montreal and those for Quebec were sent home on the train leaving at midnight Saturday.

An inquiry has been opened by the railway authorities into the cause of the collision.

LIVESTOCK HIT BY DISEASE

Serious Outbreak in Manitoba Causing Considerable Anxiety to Owners of Herds

WINNIPEG, Nov. 23—A serious outbreak of hemorrhagic septicemina is reported among cattle, horses and sheep along the western border of the province and so acute and general has the disease become that it is causing considerable anxiety among livestock men in the parts affected. Owing to it being confused with black leg the malady has had an opportunity of gaining much headway. It is thought it may be a sort of offshoot of hog cholera which has been virulent in the United States, or a form of disease which first broke out among the buffalo in the national park and which caused the wholesale vaccination of the buffalo.

VICTORIA, Nov. 23.—The raising of the wreck of the Princess Sophia which sank in Alaskan waters 13 months ago, with heavy loss of life, will not be attempted before next spring, it is stated by J. S. Byron, who has just returned from Juneau. The equipment that has been collected for the big job will lie in shelter at Bridges Cove, three miles from Vanderbilt Reef, until next May, when it is planned to proceed with the work. Bad weather and intense cold made it impossible to proceed this year.

VILLA LEADER HAS NOT BEEN EXECUTED

EL PASO, Texas, Nov. 23.—Gen. Felip Angeles, a leader of the Villa movement, who was captured recently by the Carranza troops has not been executed, according to travellers who arrived here today. These informants, who left Chihuanaua City, Mexico, this morning asserted that the general was to be tried by court martial in that city tonight.

The Japanese Give Good Example

It is a proverb of Cherry Blossom Land that beauty of face and figure depend on womanly health.

What is it that makes our Canadian women often pale, sallow-faced, with dark circles under the eyes, and very often old at forty-five when they should be in their prime?

Women suffer in girlhood from backache, spine-ache and headaches, followed by irregularities and as a result diseases of the womanly organs are more common than any one but a physician in active practice could suppose.

ONTARIO WOMEN TESTIFY

Chatham, Ont.:—"Dr. Pierce's medicines have been used in my family at home (especially by my father and mother) ever since I can remember. They always proved very satisfactory. Through overwork I at one time became all run-down in health, was on the verge of a complete nervous break-down. I went on ailing for about two years, during which time I suffered terribly. I took Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and it soon built me up in good health and cured me of the nervous condition. I consider it an excellent medicine for the ailments of women."—MRS. CHAS. SLOCAN MILL MEN ALL WEAR SMILES

"All the mill-men in the Slocan wear happy smiles," said W. H. Turner, who returned Saturday night from a trip into that country.

"While the compressors are assured of water, by reason of the snow melting, the mills were also in a precarious position, but now have all the water they require for power purposes.

"The Silversmith, at Sandon, particularly needed the increased flow of water. Almost all the other mills also felt the shortage, except of course the splendid plant of Clarence Cunningham's at Alamo, which has more than one source."

SAYS UNREST IS JUSTIFIED

Returned Fighting Parson Supports Demand of Soldier at Winnipeg — Scores Food Conditions

TORONTO, Nov. 23.—"A lot of unrest is quite justified," said Lt. Col. Canon Geo. Frederick Scott, in an interview here today. "I supported the demands of the returned soldiers at Winnipeg, who were working 10 hours a day, and had no time for recreation. There was no bolshevism in Winnipeg among the soldiers. The cry of bolshevism was made by the capitalists and the press to terrify the people," he said.

"This unrest is quite right, while there are girls working 10 hours a day in cotton factories in Quebec, while dividends of one hundred and fifty per cent are being made to the capitalists. What is the good of praying for rest, when impure milk is being sold and the people are living in an unsanitary condition?" The milk is fairly decent in Toronto, said the interviewer. I don't know about Toronto, but in Montreal 60 per cent of the milk supplied the people has been condemned as impure," Mr. Canon replied.

GIVE MANDATE TO POLAND

Arrangement Settles Question Agitating Allies For Some Time—Is For Twenty-Five Years

PARIS, Nov. 23.—The arrangement in the supreme council to grant Poland a mandate over Eastern Galicia under the league of nations settles one of the most disturbing questions with which the allies have had to deal, concerning Poland. By the terms of settlement Poland is to be the mandatery for 25 years, which is believed to be long enough to secure immediate peace in the troubled territory.

Suggestions of a mandate of five years were vetoed by the Poles, who declared that this would mean five years of disorder in Galicia and that it would not satisfy Poland's national ambitions. At the end of 25 years, the league of nations will have the right to decide how Galicia's future is to be dtermined, or whether a plebiscite will be held. But the Poles say, in 25 years they will have had time to reconcile the race differences and give an effective administration, which they believe will win over the Ruthenian population and reconcile them to Polish sovereignty.

Under the agreement Galicia is to have a certain amount of autonomy and eastern Galicia will in a way be federated with Poland. Lemberg and several other cities of considerable size in the territory will be affected by the settlement.

MRS BERRY DIES AT VANCOUVER

Wife of Former Mayor and Publisher —Brother Was Former Member for Grand Forks

VANCOUVER, Nov. 23.—Mrs. Alice H. Berry, wife of Louis D. Taylor, former mayor of Vancouver, and at one time publisher of the Vancouver Daily World, died this morning at St. Paul's hospital after a long illness. She is survived by her husband and three sons, Frank Berry, Seattle; Archie Berry, Anyox, nd Jack Berry, Vancouver. She is also mourned by three brother, E. Miller, Victoria, former member of the legislature for Grand Forks, F. T. Miller, Seattle, and Walter Miller, Seattle, and two sisters, Mrs. Hirschfield, San Francisco, and Mrs. E. Todd Lees, Vancouver.

Deceased was a daughter of the late Jonathan Miller, pioneer postmaster of Vancouver. She was born at New Westminster, in 1872. In 1890 she married Harry A. Berry. It is estimated that one in every thirty of the allied soldiers who entered France married a French bride.

PRESS SCORES D'ANNUNZIO

All Newspapers in Italy Express Disapproval of Poet Captain's Expedition Against Zara.

ROME, Nov. 23.—Disapproval of Capt. D'Annunzio's expedition against Zara is expressed by the entire press of Italy. Maj. Giuristi, an Italian officer who has been with the forces along the Dalmation coast, arrived here and has distributed to the press a statement saying that D'Annunzio's act was necessary because he feared Italy would withdraw her troops from Zara and leave the city at the mercy of the Jugo Slavs.

Serbs Will Oppose

VENICE, Nov. 23—A Serbian division 10,000 strong composed of picked men has been consolidated at Spalato, on the Dalmation coast, ready to oppose Gabriele D'Annunzio if he approaches that city accoreding to information reaching Rear Admiral Andrews, comonder of the United States forces in the Adriatic on board the armored cruiser Pittsburg.

The American comander is in wireless communication with the entire Dalmatian coast and is able to receive an answer to a message to any point within five minutes,

No incident has occurred at any place on the coast, according to the reports, and tranquility prevails everywhere.

FOSTER SPEAKS AT BANQUET

NEW YORK, Nov. 23—The Canadian society of New York held its annual banquet last night in the ball room of the Biltmore hotel with its usual large attendance of members of both sexes. British and American flags were the sole decorations of the ball room, and on the tables. Arthur Knowlson president of the society presided.

At the conclusion of the repast, toastmaster Knowlson introduced Sir George Foster, Canadian minister of trade and commerce. Canada's methods of showing gratitude to her demobilized soldiers was related by Sir George Foster. The generous response of Canadians to their Victory loans was proof of the solidarity and unity of the people, he asserted. The war is still on, he added, until the blessings of peace and good government have been established.

"Away with all petty strifes and national controversy he said. "If they are selfishly inclined and if the torch of liberty is not to be destroyed by lack of action."

to the request made by the Canadian railway war board under date of October 16 last, it would seem to me that the railways would have a right, subject to our approval, or permission, to grant free or reduced transportation to those parties mentioned in clauses (b), (d), and (e) as well as to all others. Thus, if the railway companies decide to grant free transportation to the immigration and customs officials of the United States, to the families of former and deceased employes of transportation companies, then if this board approves or permits, they will be within the law in granting such transportation.

"I am not so clear as to the real intention of parliament with reference to the provision herein before referred to because, taken in its general sense we are given the right to extend, restrict, limit or qualify the carriage of traffic by the companies as provided under this section, but I have come to the conclusion that this is only meant as a regulating clause, and our powers are restricted to extending, restricting, limiting or qualifying what the companies propose to do and therefore gives us no originating jurisdiction, but when the railway companies come to us asking that certain persons or classes of persons, be given the privilege of free transportation, we would have the right to extend, restrict, limit, or qualify the same. If I am right in my general interpretation of the clause, then I think we have the power either to approve or disapprove of all the requests made by the Canadian railway war board in their letter of October 16, hereinbefore referred to, and, as they seem to me to be proper requests, I am in favor of approving the same and permitting the issuing of transportation as requested."

Suffered With Boils Last 5 Years

Boils are simply a breaking out of bad blood, and anyone who has suffered from them, knows how sick and miserable they make you feel. Just when you think you are cured of one, another seems ready to take its place and prolong your misery. All the poulticing and lancing you can do will not get rid of them.

While the skin appears to be the cause of the irritation the real disease is rooted in the blood, and to get rid of these painful pests it is necessary to get right at the seat of the trouble.

When the blood is purified, cleansed and vitalized, by Burdock Blood Bitters, the boils will quickly disappear, your misery is at an end, and health and strength come back again.

Mr. Robt. Johnson, Barkway, Ont., writes:—"I have suffered very much, during the last five years from boils, having as many as five at once. I tried different remedies without any relief. I was advised to try Burdock Blood Bitters, which I did, and after taking just one bottle I have had no more boils."

SPECULATIVE SHORTS COVER

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—Trading in stocks Saturday was dull and alto- gether professional. The only inter- esting feature was presented by sev- eral highly speculative issues in which further covering of short con- tracts was under way. Foremost among the shares were General Mo- tors, Pierce Arrow, Crucible Steel, and some of the seasoned oils at extreme gains of 2 to 10 points. This advantage in several advances was materially reduced at the close. The active list was 1 to 3 points higher at its best, but rails and coppers were inclined to sag. Sales amounted to 375,000 shares. There was considerable activity in bonds, especially Liberty issues, where fur- the selling was noted at new low quotations.

Total sales par value, totalled $12,- 650,000.

Old United States bonds were un- changed on call.

ODE TO HIS MISTRESS' INVISIBLE EYEBROW

O Mistres Mine,
I would, for old-time's sake,
To those imagined maddening brows
of thine
A verse of homage make:
Apostrophize,
Like earlier love-lorn loons,
Those bows that arch the heaven of thine eyes,
Those hirsute crescent-moons!
The trouble is,
I've never seen them yet;
For modern hats conceal those mysteries
Of amber or of jet—
Or hatless, then
Thy bobbed hair makes a shrine
Which hides thine eyebrows from the eyes of men;
Yet I'll risk all my honor in one line
And swear they are divine,
O Mistress Mine!

EXTRA POWER BELTING

You can find no safer guide in selecting your belting equipment than the experience of others.

In over one thousand of Canada's plants Goodyear Extra Power Belting is being used with marked success. Scores of these have written us telling of their experience with Extra Power Belting.

Read this letter from The Dominion Steel Products Co., Limited, of Brantford, a concern noted for its progressive methods. It tells of a belting experience which must impress you.

Price was a minor factor with Dominion Steel Products, but on this alone they made a saving of $4,000.

Length of service, general efficiency, continuous operation and power saving were the determining factors in their decision to use only Extra Power Belting in their plant.

It may be that your plant is much smaller; that your saving would only be $400, but even this plus the greater efficiency of Extra Power Belting is too important for you to disregard.

You can easily prove to your own satisfaction that Extra Power would serve you as faithfully as it has the Dominion Steel Products Co.

Phone, wire or write our nearest branch, so that a man carefully trained in belting problems by Goodyear may call on you and present further evidence of the superiority of Extra Power Belting. No obligation other than fair investigation.

The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. of Canada, Limited, TORONTO, ONTARIO.

Gentlemen:

Our experience with your extra power belting has been so extremely satisfactory that we feel sure you will want to hear about it.

When we opened our steel plant in 1917, the question of belting was an important one. We had to have reliable belts. So we bought some of every kind of belt offered us. We tested them. Extra Power was so superior to the others that finally we specified it exclusively. Now, every belt in the entire plant with one exception is Extra Power.

So far we have purchased over 10,000 feet of your Extra Power belting. We figure that the next best belt would have cost us close to $4000 more in the first place – and would not have given us such good service.

Most of the Extra Power belts in our plant have been in use for over two years. Little signs of wear on any of them. In fact practically all the original Extra Power Belts are in use still, excepting on such severe drives as we had on our ... contract.

You can gather from this just what we think of Goodyear Extra Power Belting.

Yours very truly,

Chas. W. Grampen
Superintendent.

THE DISGRACEFUL AGITATION IN KITCHENER

An agitation has been begun in Kitchener, Ont., according to Ontario newspapers, to change the name of that city back to Berlin.

It will be recalled that during the war, after a great fight against the pro-German element in the city the name was changed to Kitchener. The Germans continued their agitation and on at least one occasion very nearly won the day in favor of a return to the Prussian name.

Canada generally is getting pretty sick of this sort of thing.

If the Germans in Kitchener prefer a German name for their town instead of a Canadian or British name, then they have no right in Canada. This country does not want a lot of hostile foreigners, even though some of them may be wealthy, who are so adverse to everything British that they will maintain such agitation as that which disgraces the Waterloo county metropolis.

The doors of Canada are open to immigrants who desire to become British subjects in spirit as well as name. But the country has no use for a lot of anti-British foreigners who desire to establish colonies, which are alien in speech, spirit and patriotism, and whose members desire nothing more of Canada than to be able to milk its people of the means of a better livelihood and greater freedom and opportunities than they could obtain in their own countries.

THE ACTION OF AMERICAN SENATE

American participation in the league of nations has been withheld by the United States senate in order to provide what appears to senators to be a useful political issue for the 1920 presidential election campaign.

That has been patent from the commencement of the discussion. Domestic politics has been far more to the fore in the discussion of the covenant than have the vast international considerations which are at issue.

American senators have talked largely of international matters, but obviously underlying the talk was the thought of internal politics.

The effect of it all, of course is to give the league of nations peace movement a set back, but that movement could not sensibly have been expected to have a smooth path. As has been pointed out time and time again, those who assumed that universal and perpetual peace could be established by the drawing up of a covenant such as that of the league was too idealistic to be of much value to the cause which they held at heart.

It is the practical student of international politics who realizes that perpetual world peace or its nearest practical equivalent, can only be established by much hard work, hard thought and years of education and wise statesmanship, who will in the long run be of most help to the cause.

THE MAN WHO SLEW RASPUTIN

Great Britain must have rubbed its eyes when it learned recently that the prince who slew the Monk Rasputin had been robbed of rare gems in a London flat. Still greater, no doubt was the shock which followed the description of this young Prince Felix Youlsoupoff. Says the report, chronicling the incident: "A most charming and light hearted young man, but the terror of flat landlords in London." Apparently this young member of the former Russian Royal family has yet to discover a type of architecture to harmonize with his own originality. He does as he takes a flat he transforms the interior by pushing out the walls and ordering such other structural alterations as may disguise it completely. He is said to be the originator of the black carpet craze in London. Whatever may be the whims of Youssoupoff, however, civilization, thinks the Victoria Times, will forgive him. His was the hand which removed one of the most sinister influuences ever admitted to a European court.

A BACHELOR'S ASSURANCE

The Canadian Press party visited the Canadian Red Cross hospital in the gardens of Clivedon, the ducal palace in which the Astors live, in August of last year, and were dined by Lady (then Mrs.) Astor, and escorted by her and the matron through the several wards of the hospital. They were photographed in the little Canadian cemetery that has been consecrated in the Italian garden. Mrs. Astor, arm in arm with the editor of this paper, smilingly asked him: "Will there be any heartburnings at your home when this picture appears in the newspapers?" He assured her that it was all right, as he was a bachelor. "But what will Colonel Astor say?" asked one of the English gentlemen. "I'll make it all right with him," she responded laughingly.—Chatham World.

ARCHDEACON BEER FARES AFIELD

LETTER NO. 2

To The Editor of the Daily News:

Sir: The last letter I wrote was from Buffalo N. Y. and this letter as you see is from Halifax, N. S., so I have progressed this far on my way to the West Indies. I am to take the steamer Chaleur on Friday next and am bracing myself up for a siege of sea sickness. I see by the papers that the Chaleur was in trouble during the last few days.

After spending a week in Buffalo, I spent another in Toronto with my nephew Rev. N. D. B. Lamouth who is curate at St. Matthews Church. I preached for him and addressed his Sunday School of 600 children. I also preached at Barnabas' church.

Prefers Country Life

In Toronto I had the novelty of seeing political campaign literature scattered from an airplane. It took two or three minutes to reach the ground, and by that time was well scattered. The noise and bustle of a city such as Toronto or Buffalo is deafening, and I contrasted it to its disadvantage with the quite of my little home in Kaslo among the silent hills of Kootenay. Some delight in the roar of the city life, and I am content for them to have it, provided I can have the peace and quiet of a country life.

From Toronto I went on to Ottawa, and after a few days with my relatives there I went to Carleton Place to renew my acquaintance with friends whom I had known 45 years before. Some of them had been coming to me as school children but are now well advanced, married people, with hair almost as thin and gray as my own. I was taken by one of my some-time pupils over his foundry and he told me they employ about 175 men daily in makingstoves. Others have done well in the world, but alas many have gone on in the prime of life to join the great majority.

From Carleton Place I intended to go to Franktown, where I oncetaught school for $20.00 a month or $140.00 a year, and I was a married man at the time, when I removed I left no debts behind. How is that for the simple life; quite a contrast is it not with with present style of high living.

However, I had to cut out my trip to Franktown because of rain.

Meets Antartic Explorer

I went on to Perth where I was entertained by my old friend, F. L. Milchel, inspector of schools. He and I enjoyed a long evening's chat about times 40 years ago. Here also I met his son, Rr. Michell, who had the privilege of being with Scott in his Antatic voyage. You may be sure I had an interesting time with these friends of mine. I saw other friends in Perth but must briefly mention the fact. The town had grown greatly by the introduction of a soap factory and other industries and I wondered if Kootenay could not do likewise.

From Perth I went to Pakenham intending to call on a friend whom I had not seen for more than 50 years, but when I reached Pakenham I learned to my great regret that my friend had been buried acouple of weeks before, I therefore hired a buggy and went by way of Fitzroy Harbor to the Ottawa river, and crossed over to the Quiyon on the Quebec side. At the Quiyon I saw the benefit of the prohibition in Ontario. The hotel was dirty and comfortless with the usual profanity of drunken men and we were entertained with an incipient fight between a drunken man and a young man who had been teasing him. I was very glad when the time came for me to take the train for Shawville.

Scenes Half-Century Old

Next day being Sunday, I preached in the morning and drove to my sister-in-law's in the evening, and again preached, and next day I drove to Portage-du-Fort, where I taught school over 50 years ago and where I met and married her with whom I lived long enough to celebrate my golden wedding. Only a few of those I knew in the long ago remain today, and those few are like myself tottering towards the end.

From Portage-du-Fort I drove to Bryson to see another friend, whose wife, still alive, was the girlhood companion of my wife. After an evening spent in reminscences of happy days gone by, fringed with a melancholy recollection of friends who have long passed out of our lives, I drove back after dark, in the rain, to the Portage, and next morning at 6 I took train and returned to Ottawa. Where in 1865 I first drove from Ottawa to the Portage, it took more than a day, but now I did it by train in less than three hours. This shows the progress we have made in transportation, and we have made equal advance in almost every other direction.

I remained in Ottawa until last Monday morning, and although the Prince was there, I did not see him. He did not ask for me, so I did not think it incumbent on one to call on him. He has I learn, won the hearts of Canadian by being just jolly good young man with as little side as possible in his circumstances.

There is just one thing more to mention before I close this letter. One or two fkms in Ottawa bought $50.00 Victory Bonds which they announced would be dropped from an air ship on a certain date. Of course many people kept their eyes glued on the airship as it sailed over the city I did not learn who secured the lucky bond. It was not I at any rate

Burmuda Next

My next letter will be from Bermuda, where I intend to stay for a fortnight. I suppose the real novel part of my trip will begin with my steamship voyage. I shall then enter upon a new world and I was warned yesterday, by those who have been over the trip, to be prepared with thin clothing for I shall find it is very hot as soon as we get in the Gulf stream.

BRITISH COLUMBIA'S OIL POSSIBILITIES

VANCOUVER, Nov. 21.—That the oil possibilities of British Columbia are of great importance is the opinion expressed by a party of eastern officials of the Imperial Oil company, headed by President C. O. Stillman, A. M. McQueen and Victor Ross of Toronto. Mr. Stillman said that the oil which is used by the company throughout the dominion must be brought long distances and it is the purpose or his company to investigate all of the supposed fields in Canada to save long freight hauls.

The company is at present prospecting fields in Alberta close to the British Columbia line where most promising reports have been made by the company's geologists. There is no reason to believe, he says, that the oil deposits should stop at the British Columbia boundary. He said that at the present moment it happens that the British Columbia section is under reserve, and a research has been undertaken by the government, but it is to be expected that the government fully appreciates the possibilities, and that these resources will not be permitted to lie dormant.

A MEMORY

This is just the weather, a wet day and blowing,
All the shining, shimmering leaves tossing low and high,
When my father used to say, "'Twill be the great mowing;
God's weather's good weather, be it wet or dry."

Blue were his eyes and his cheeks were so ruddy,
He was out in all weathers, up and down the farm,
With his pleasant smile and the word for a wet body,
"Sure, the weather's God's weather, who can take the harm?"

With a happy word he'd silence all repining,
While the hay lay wet in field and the cattle died,
When the rain rained every day and no sun shining,
"Ah, well, God is good!" he'd say, even while he sighed.

In the parched summer with the corn not worth saving.
Every field bare as your hand and the beasts to feed,
Still he kept his heart up when other folks were raving,
"God will send the fodder; 'tis He that knows the need."

Now 'tis just the weather, a wild day and weeping,
How the blackbird sang and sang mid the tossing leaves,
When my father used to say, "'Twill be the great reaping,
God sends fine weather to carry home the sheaves."

MAIL SERVICE IS EXCELLENT

Inquiry Shows That Service Between Great Britain and Canada Is Satisfactory

OTTAWA, Nov. 23.—An inquiry into the mail service from Great Britain to Canada instituted by the Canadian trade commission, has revealed that, under ordinary circumstances the service is excellent.

Th inquiry was occasioned by a brief dislocation of service during the recent railway strike in England. Investigation however, showed that later mails were dispatched from London to Canada twelve times during September and nine times during October. The average from port to port was eight days. The British premier advises the trade commission that he is fully alive to the need for frequent and rapid communications with the dominions and that every effort is made to secure the most satisfactory service.

OPPOSITION IS NOT EXPECTED

Drury government being opposed, fident of Being Returned Without Fight at Byelections

TORONTO, Nov. 23.—The likelihood of any of the ministers of the rDury government being opposed, either those who go back to their constituents in December or those who do not do so until January is remote. A conference of Liberal members elect and defeated candidates is to be held in this city on Tuesday, and this is one of the matters to be discussed by them, but there are said to be few who think it is a good policy to put up opposition to any of the ministers. Conservative leaders have said repeatedly since the general election that they would not oppose the ministers at the by-elections.

The matters to be considered at the Liberal conference on Tuesday include the attitude to be adopted in the by-elections as to whether or not any of the elections should be protested and also to confer with the leader, Hartley Dewart, K.C., as to sessional subjects.

While the Liberal party is not likely to oppose the ministers it is quite possible they will show fight in the way of protests. December 4 is the last day on which protests may be filed, it was learned last night that action may be taken to upset the elections in both Rainy River and Sudbury. In the former constituency J. Mathieu, Conservative was elected over E. J. Callaghan, and in the latter Charles McCrea, Conservative was elected over Dr McArthur.

BELIEVE WOMAN'S LIFE COULD HAVE BEEN SAVED

OTTAWA, Nov. 23— The finding of the police commissioners who probed the circumstances of the death of Mrs. Sarah Shipman, who was arrested on the night of Nov. 14, and after several hours in the cell died in a hospital, Tuesday has issued its findings. The report states:

"That Mrs. Shipman was not intoxicated when placed under arrest; that, in fact, there is no doubt she never used intoxicants at any time.

"That the police officers mistakenly but reasonably concluded the unfortunate lady was intoxicated, in placing her under arrest.

"That Sergt. Maj. Barlo showed a want of judgment under the circumstances in that even if Mrs. Shipman had appeared to be intoxicated, her condition warranted medical attention which was not sought.

"That it was entirely probable Mrs. Shipman's life could have been saved had she received medical attention at the first availabe opportunity. "The police officers mentioned are under suspension."

ELEPHANTS RACE ON GYMNASIUM FLOOR

Many Comedy Stunts in Splendid Program Given at "Y" Saturday Night

Although one turn was omitted from the advertised program at the Y. M. C. A. entertainment on Saturday night, due to the late arrival of the motion picture machine, the general excellence and wide variety of the numbers given dispersed any feeling of disappointment on the part of the crowded audience and left them well satisfied with their two hours of solid enjoyment.

Promptly at 8 o'clock, two teams of high school girls, the Live Wires and the Whirlwinds, lined up on the gymnasium floor, for a tussle for honors in basketball, the line-up being as follows: Lives Wires: Catherine Brodie, Jean Turner, Mamie Moore, and Janet Carrie, led by Helen Whitmore. Whirlwinds: Grace Miller, Catherine Black, Belle McGauley, Esther Scott, led by Gladys Jelfs.

Throughout the game the Live Wires were hopelessly outclassed, showing a lack of co-ordination in their play as well as being much slower on the ball than their swift antagonists.

Final scores were: Live Wires, 1 goal; Whirlwilds 25 goals.

An Italian dance by Miss Grace Brett and R. Bray was the second, and judging by the applause evoked, the most popularly appreciated turn of the evening. They were costumed to represent a young Italian couple, and their dance was a terpsichorian interpretation of an episode in the progress of a courtship, in which the advance, repulse, anger, efforts at reconciliation, pique, and finally, mutual agreement were most admirably portrayed.

In response to much hand clapping these talented young people gave two short dances of Grecian origin.

Miss I. Steed kindly officiated at the piano.

A three round, no decision, exhibition boxing bout, each round of one minute and a half duration, was staged by Fred Whitfield and Fin Campbell, and was refereed by G. Roberts. This was marked by lively exchanges, both men mixing things well and keeping up a lively pace throughout.

Comedy was let loose in the fourth turn when three teams took the floor in an elephant race. Two men composed an elephant by the tall man locking his legs round the head man's waist, and passing head and shoulders through his partners legs to grasp him b the heels, while the head or lead man prepared to run forward on his hands and feet. These grotesquely contored pairs proved irrisistably funny when in motion. Laughter reached its climax when one elephant after running forward, uncoupling and reversing positions, found they did not know how to couple up again for the return journey.

Jack Morris and Fin Campbell proved to be the light-foots' in this race, winning two heats.

Jiu Jitsu, the famous Japanese system of self defence, was the subject of a very interesting exposition by Grif. Morris and H. Simmons, in which a number of holds, breaks, and falls, were explained and illustrated to the evident appreciation of the audience.

Advanced apparatus work on the parallel bars and the "horse" by the senior members of the gymnasium class was another interesting bit of work, in which the seniors shewed, by their fine muscular control and general smartness, the advantages in the way of increased efficiency and vim, to be derived from a systematic course of physical exercise.

The humorous touch was added to this turn by the improvised bit of nonsense of J. Notman, who, in a clown's regalia, attempted, more or less seriously, the stunts of the gymnasts to the huge delight of the junior members of the audience.

Senior basketball was the last item on the program, and was played by the Match Sticks and the Telegraph Poles.

Both teams put up a fast and furious game in which good combination was displayed by both sides, smart passes and fast scoring being the order of the day.

At half time, the match sticks were leading by two goals, the score being fifteen to thirteen and at time the Telegraph Poles had evened the score at twenty-five goals apiece.

Players and onlookers being a trifle disappointed at the indecisive turn of events, a few more baskets were played, which results in a win for the Telegraph Poles by a score of 29 goals to 25.

Next week the High school girls will put on a novel kind of entertainment that is going under the name of a social evening; but what the program is, no one can discover.

FARRIS TO RESIGN IF NOT NEW ACT

Attorney-General Tells Nelson W.C.T.U. Liquor Law Must be Changed or He Will Go.

A declaration by Hon. J. W. DeB. Farris, attorney-general, that he would refuse to continue in office if new liquor legislation were not placed on the statute books of the province at the coming session of the legislature, was a feature of the public meeting held at the city hall Saturday night under the auspices of the W.C.T.U.

Hon. J. H. King, minister of public works, was also present, but the attorney-general was the sole orator of the occasion. Mayor J. A. McDonald and Commissioner T. L. Bloomer represented the police commission, and Rev. J.P. Westman and Rev. D. T. McClintock of the ministerial association, were also on hand. About 40 members of the W.C.T.U. were present, and Mrs. Hugh Ross, president of the order, occupied the chair.

The attorney-general reviewed at some length the history of prohibition legislation in this province, going extensively into the Findlay case, and the subsequent developments, and gradually bringing the subject up to the present time, with its great volume of liquor sold through the drug-stores and the government vendor, on prescriptions obtained from the medical fraternity.

It was frankly admitted by the minister that conditions at present were bad, in respect to the volume of prescriptions issued, in respect to illicit trade in liquor, and in respect to the effects of this trade. The hardest feature to control, he said, was that of the prescriptions.

Present conditions, however, could not be allowed to continue, and something must be done. Either there would be new liquor legislation at the next session of the legislature or he would refuse to remain a cabinet minister.

Touching on the topic of child welfare, the attorney-general asserted that the government had done a great deal in this field, providing various institutions and doing everything possible to encourage development of this work.

Rev. Mr. Westman asked the minister if he had stated that the majority of the people of the province wanted liquor. The attorney-general replied that this was a slip, and not what he meant.

Mr. Westman asked the minister if he could indicate in a more definite and detailed way what the government proposed to do. On this point the minister did not extend what he had already said.

Mayor McDonald stated that the police commission of Nelson had made a thorough investigation of the hotels, and it was completely established that the hotels of Nelson were observing the law, and were free of liquor. Nelson's problem, the mayor said, was to be traced to the drug-stores and to illegal selling.

RETURNED MEN MEET MINISTERS

Attorney General and Minister of Public Works Approached on Housing and Industrial Assistance Schemes

The returned soldiers' housing scheme and the matter of assistance to returned men who were starting up, in business or industries on their own initiative were matters that were brought to the attention of Attornew General J. W. DeB. Farris and Hon. Dr. J. H. King, minister of public works, by a deputation of local returned soldiers on Saturday evening.

Regarding the housing scheme the deputation was informed that the money was lent by the dominion government to the provincial government who in turn lent money to the cities and municipalities of the province. The responsibility for this assistance therefore lay with the municipality, which, if desired or thought feasible could avail itself of the opportunity.

With reference to the industrial or business assistance scheme several local cases were pointed out and they were referred to Major D. B. Martyn, industrial commissioner for the province, within whose province such applications came. Dr. King wired Major Martyn to forward data to Nelson and it is expected this will be to hand in a few days.

TIME LIMIT IS SET FOR VOCATIONISTS

According to a recent order-in-council issued from Ottawa, a time limit has been set for applications for vocational re-training. The order reads: Limiting time for application for re-training courses three months from Nov. 1, 1919, or discharge, whichever i later." The officials of the department S. C. R. wish this fact to become known to all returned men, who may be yligible for a course.

Registration forms have been provided and all who suffer from a disability which prevents them following their former occupation should obtain and fill in a form; these may be obtained at any S. C. R. representatives' office, either personally or through the mail. On completion, the form should be mailed to the department S. C R., Vancouver.

Any ex-member of the forces who is now at work, but who has a disability, should register and thus protect his interests. The fact that a man registers does not mean that he is compelled to take a course at once. He may continue at his present position and can at a later date apply for a course, but he must be registered within the time mentioned.

The order-in-council also covers the case of those men who enlisted prior to attaining their 18th birthday, and they also must register within the period before stated.

Registration does not mean that a course must be started immediately; if at a later date an ex-member finds that his disability prevents him from carrying on and he is eligible for vocational training, he may make application for the course, however he must have registered with the Vocational Branch Department S. C. R., before Jan. 31, 1920, or three months after discharge.

Those who enlisted under 18 years are also governed by this ruling.

She—I appreciate the compliment, but I'm afraid I could never make you happy.

He—Oh, yes you could. You don't know how easily pleased I am.

FOUR CLUBS PLAY IN NATIONALS

National Professional Hockey League Schedule will Include Canadiens, Ottawa, Toronto and Quebec.

MONTREAL, Nov. 23.—Four clubs will operate this winter in the National professional hockey league. This was assured at the first executive meeting of the professional executive here on Saturday. The season's schedule will comprise Canadiens, representing Montreal. Ottawa, Toronto and Quebec.

A new franchise was granted to the Quebec club which will be looked after by Mike Quinn, former manager of the club prior to the suspension of hockey during the war. The old Quebec charter, which was sold to Percy Quinn of Toronto, who refused to operate it last season was cancelled.

Application for second teams from Montreal and Toronto were tabled, as the scarcity of professional players makes it hard to pass on them for the moment.

Games will be played on Wednesday and Saturday nights. Montreal and Toronto clubs will have eight Saturday night fixtures at home and four Wednesday night fixtures. Ottawa and Quebec will have four Saturday night fixtures at home and eight Wednesday nights. The agreement with the Pacific Coast league in which there are three years yet to run, was not changed.

The games will be played under the same rules as a year ago.

HARVARD TEAM GAINS VICTORY OVER YALE

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 23—The Harvard team, versatile in attack and sturdy in defence, yesterday turned back by a score of 10 to 3, Yale's football invasion. The crimson victory came as a result of a strong offense in the early periods and a stiffened defence later.

Harvard at the outset scored a touchdown and field goal, with Casey and R. Horween as the individual performers. Yale obtained its three points by a remarkable kick for a field goal by Braden, in the final period. Braden booted the ball 53 yards squarely between the posts.

Yale's players had robbed the Blue of many chances to score, some of which were turned to Harvard profit and the record of the game will be one of Harvard's success and Yale errors.

W G. Gaunce of Victoria Appointed Controller of Licenses for British Columbia Coal

VICTORIA, Nov. 22—W. G. Gaunce of Victoria, was today appointed from Ottawa controller of coal export licenses for British Columbia. Before any coal can be exported out of the country or foreign ships bunkered, the exporter or ship owner has to get a license from Mr. Gaunce.

Mr. Gaunce is given his authority under the Canadian commission. He is authorized to issue export licenses of two kinds:

1.—Cargoes of coal destined to points in the United States and Alaska.

2.—Bunker coal for ships flying any flag and sailing to any destination. But these licenses are to be issued only for the quantity necessary for the ship to reach the foreign port. Presumably, coal for the return journey has to be arranged for at the foreign port.

One of the first actions of Mr. Gaunce in his new office today was to issue permits to a number of ships waiting at Ladysmith and Nanaimo, instructing the collectors of customs there to let them load and proceed to foreign ports.

Such were the decisions arrived at Saturday by Hon. F. B. Carvell, chairman of the commission, after listening to arguments of counsel for the province, city and municipalities, who attacked the jurisdiction of the federal board. The application of the telegraph companies of Canada for permission to increase rates was heard again. No new factors in the situation developed, and decision was reserved.

BIG MEET IN MASSEY HALL

About 2000 Persons Attended As a Protest Against Amendments to the Immigration Act.

TORONTO, Nov. 23.—About 2000 people attended a meeting in Massey Hall Saturday night, called by the political defence committee to protest against orders in council and amendments to the immigration act.

Rev. Dr. Salem Bland said the orders in council prohibiting free speech were un-British and un-Canadian and he demanded that the federal government should open the prison doors and set the political prisoners free.

Rev. Father Minehan said he had seen enough orders in council in Ireland. While the orders in council might have been justified in this country during the war, there was no excuse for continuing them, he said.

J. . Gunn and James Simpson, labor advocates, and Lindley Crawford also spoke.

A resolution was passed asking the government to grant a general amnesty to all political prisoners in the country; to repeal the amendment to the immigration act whereby a person could be deported without trial and to return to democratic government. A good deal of confusion was caused by some returned soldiers asking questions and making remarks, showing that they were not in sympathy with the speeches made. Cries of "throw him out" greeted one veteran who asked why exception should be taken to the deportation of the foreigners who had caused the Winnipeg strike.

Elements of an incipient riot were present at the close of the meeting a large number of returned men having gathered in a spirit of indignation in the immediate vicinity of the hall, but they finally dispersed without disorder.

TOO PROUD TO TAKE HELP OFFICER SUICIDES

LONDON, Nov. 123—Suicide with no evidence to indicate the state of mind of the deceased, was the verdict of Captain W. H. Dowler, of the Canadian Medical Corps, found dead behind a hay rack in Surrey. The deceased was 38 years of age and belonged to Southern Ontario. He was in straightened circumstances and very proud, having refused monetary assistance.

SHOOTS COUPLE THEN SUICIDES

Visitor at Prairie Home Kills Hosts, Wounds Boy, and Finally Shoots Himself.

REGINA, Nov. 23.—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hanson were shot dead in cold blood in their home between Lemberg and Abernethy about 3.30 this morning by J. R. Sullivan, a grain buyer of Lemberg, according to reports which have reached the provincial police. The oldest boy is between life and death with a bullet wound in his neck.

Details of the crime are to the effect that the Hansons visited Lemberg on Saturday evening and invited Sullivan, who was a friend of the family, to spend Sunday with them. Arriving at their home Sullivan went to the barn to help his host with the chores and returned to the house saying that Sullivan had been killed by a horse. Mrs. Hanson went to the barn with her son Alfred, aged 18 years, and on entering, was at once shot dead by Sullivan.

The boy took refuge in a manger but was dragged out by Sullivan, who ordered him and two children to get off the place. They went to a neighbors and returned with help to find Sullivan lying dead on the floor with a bullet hole in his temple.

MAY REVISE LISTS BY IMPROVED PLAN

Premier Oliver Has Matter Under Consideration, Attorney-General Tells Nelson Liberals—Ministers Leave.

Arriving in Nelson Saturday evening from their two-day tour of the Slocan, Hon. J. H. King, minister of public works, and Hon. J. W. DeB. Farris, attorney-general, spent a fairly busy night in the city. After receiving a delegation of returned men the ministers attended a special meeting called for their benefit by the W.C.T.U. at the city hall and wound up the evening with a lengthy conference with the local liberal executive at the board of trade rooms.

At the conference with the Liberals, both ministers spoke at great length enlarging on the same topics they covered at last Wednesday's public political meeting.

Attorney-general Farris informed the meeting that Premier Oliver was giving his personal attention to the matter of improvement of the voters' list. While the present act, the attorney-general said, pretty nearly made plugging impossible, it did not entirely do so, and it was desired to make this restriction absolute. The most important point under consideration, however, was that of assuring that every person was on the list and it was the premier's idea to have this done, even if it should be necessary to go out and hunt up the names that should go on the list.

The ministers went on board the Crow boat Saturday night, and left yesterday for Cranbrook. Their itinerary is understood to include political meetings at Cranbrook, Fernie, Inverness and Golden.

HITS TUNNEL SLIDE NEAR GRAND FORKS

Railway Mishap Devoid of Accidents —Passengers Were Transferred— Road Now Reported Clear.

The C. P. R. passenger train which left Nelson on Friday night met with a mishap at Fisherman tunnel, seven miles west of Grand Forks, according to information which has reached the city from Grand Forks.

The train ran into a rock slide in the tunnel but was fortunately going slowly, and there were no accidents either to members of the train crew or passengers. The engine turned on its side and was covered by falling rock.

In the morning a yard engine went out and brought the train back to Grand Forks. Passengers were transferred past the slide and the transfer train arrived in Nelson Sunday morning at 2.4.0 o'clock.

The line was reported clear again for traffic yesterday at 10 o'clock, so that passenger service will carry on uninterrupted further.

The passenger train due to arrive in Nelson last night at 11.15 o'clock will not reach the city till an early hour this morning owing to delayed connections on the Kettle Valley.
