British Labor Organizer's Views Cheered by Trades and Labor Congress

URGES INVESTIGATION OF PENITENTIARIES

Commission to Consider Prison Labor in Competition with Free Workers

WINDSOR, Sept. 16.—A decision to request an investigation of all federal penitentiaries and instruct provincial executives to request an investigation of the conduct of all prisons, jails, and asylums including the disposal of the output of prison labor, and that at least one representative of organized labor be included on the board making investigation was arrived at by the delegates to the Trades and Labor congress today.

It was decided to give any representative of the congress who might be appointed to such a commission, authority to use his own judgment as to what class of labor should be engaged in by prisoners, even though it might conflict with the platform of the congress regarding the competition of the product of prison labor with free labor.

Other features of the afternoon were an attack on President Tom Moore by former President J. C. Watters, on complaints arising out of the trip of Canadian delegates to the peace conference, in which Mr. Watters failed to have the question, though closed at the Hamilton convention, re-opened by a roll call vote of 101 to 23; the adoption of the executive council's report of the cost of living, in which the opinion was expressed that the primary cause of the increased cost of living was due to speculation, manipulation and profiteering without reason, except by Peter Leckie, of Ottawa, who characterized the inflation of currency as criminal, and offered the removal of financial institutions of the world from the hands of private interests as a solution, and an unsuccessful attempt of James Simpson, of Toronto, to have the high tariff interests included in the report which was sent two days ago.

CONFIDENT OF ITALY'S FUTURE

Canadian Trade Commissioner Has Optimistic Views on Italian Outlook

OTTAWA, Sept. 16.—An optimistic view of Italy, despite recent industrial upheavals, is taken by W. M. Clarke, Canadian trade commissioner in Miland, who has arrived here on a vacation. Within a few years, in Mr. Clarke's view—and the view is shared, he says, by British business men resident of Italy—Italy will be strong industrially and financially. "Bolshevist ideas," Mr. Clark added, "do not represent the mass of Italian opinion."

INCORPORATE MILLING COMPANY AT VERNON

VERNON, B. C., Sept. 16.—The latest Vernon business concern to be incorporated is the Okanagan Farmers Milling Co., Ltd. It is the intention of the company to establish a flour mill here to manufacture the products of Okanagan wheat. It is stated that this will effect a saving of $11.80 per ton in freight alone, and will considerably cheapen the price of chipped or crushed feed.

GOVERNMENT OPPONENT WITHDRAWS

Leaves Field Clear for Rupertsland Election by Acclamation

THE PAS, Man., Sept. 16.—Henry McKay of Grand Rapids, prospective Conservative candidate to oppose John Morrision for Rupertsland, withdrew yesterday and will not contest the seat. This practically assures Mr. Morrisons election by acclamation, adding another seat to the Government benches of the Manitoba cabinet.

ACT BARS JUDGES; EXTRANEOUS FEES

Increased Salaries Stipulate Against Payment for Other Work Accepted

OTTAWA, Sept. 16.—(Canadian Press)—It is understood that a ruling has been made that, under the amendment to the Judges act, passed at the last session of parliament, judges are prohibited from receiving fees for sitting as members of conciliation boards under the Industrial Disputes Investigation act.

In the past judges have frequently been appointed to fill chairmanships on conciliation boards established by the minister of labor. In view of the above ruling, however, it seems likely that the number of such appointments will be materially reduced.

While there is no doubt that in some cases judges would be willing to act without remuneration, it is a question whether parties to a dispute would feel justified in calling upon them to devote their leisure time to dealing with difficult questions arising out of industrial disputes on such a basis. It is understood that during the past summer, and of course, subsequent to the passing of the amendment, several judges acted on conciliation boards. The amendment to the Judges act, while providing for increased salaries for judges, stipulated that fees were not to be accepted by them for other work.

EXPORTS DECLINE; IMPORTS INCREASE

Total Trade Volume of Dominion for Five Months Greater Than Last Year

OTTAWA, Sept. 16.—Although the grand total of Canadian trade for the five months of the fiscal year which ended on August 31 shows an increase of $202,329,835, as compared with the same period in 1919, the value of Canadian merchandise exported declined by over $20,000,000. The grand total of Canadian trade for the five months period of the present year was $401,353,170, while in 1919 it was $861,023,335.

The total value of Canadian exports during the five months this year was $454,390,487, and during the same five months in 1919 it amounted to $474,448,690, being a decrease for the year of $20,058,202.

While exports are below those of last year, the figures issued from the customs department show a great increase in the value of goods imported into Canada, as compared with a year ago. During the five months ending August 31, this year, the total value of goods imported into Canada was 597,890,603, while last year for the same period it only amounted to $366,254,398. This is an increase of $231,636,205 this year. Duty collected on imports this year has already reached the figure of $90,351,955, as against $67,046,584 a year ago, an increase of $25,305,371.

PEACEFUL SOLUTION POSSIBLE

Miners' Conference With Board of Trade Regarded as Favorable Advance

COAL MINERS ASK FOR A TRIBUNAL

Would Advance Wages If Increased Output From Mines Assured

LONDON, Sept. 16.—The conference of the coal miners' executive with Sir Roert Horne, president of the Board of Trade, adjourned late this afternoon without an agreement having been reached in settlement of the controversy between the miners and the government.

Sir Robert Horne declared, however, that new proposals made by the miners constituted an advance toward a peaceful solution of the trouble. The miners proposed that the government forthwith grant the increase in wages demanded by them, but declared that an increase should not be put on the price of coal for consumption in the household.

He also asked that a tribunal be appointed to inquire whether the financial situation of the country's industry would stand a reduction in the price of coal, an inquiry into the declining output of coal, and an investigation of the present wage system with a view to granting up to the standard wages.

Sir Robert Horne replied that the only method of deciding the selling price of coal was that already adopted, and on this point he declined to accede to the miners' proposal.

He also said he could not recommend that the miners should have two shillings advance under the present circumstances, but added that if an increased output were assured an advance in wages could be given.

Robert Smillie, the miners' leader, had previously said that unless an advance was granted the executive could not advise the delegates at Tuesday's conference to postpone or call off the strike.

HUNGER STRIKERS' CONDITION SERIOUS

Emaciated, Restless and Pulses Failing, Says Cork Physician

CORK, Sept. 16. — With the exception of Zan Hennessey, the 19-year-old boy, all the hunger strikers in Cork jail were conscious this morning. Peter Crowley, 18 years old, the youngest, was reported to be in a critical condition today, as also was Kenny.

The prison officials today reported that the prisoners were emaciated, that their restlessness was marked, and that there was a gradual failing in their pulses.

MacSweeny Nearly Worn Out

LONDON, Sept. 16.—The evening bulletin of the Irish self-determination league quotes Mrs. MacSweeney, wife of the lord mayor of Cork, who is on a hunger strike in Brixton jail, as saying her husband is "nearly worn out." Mrs. MacSweeny visited her husband this afternoon. "He is extremely weak," she said.

ADVOCATES DOMINION INCLUSION

Urges Reorganization of Foreign Office to Include Overseas Representation

ST. JOHN, N.B., Sept. 16.—The time was ripe for the re-organization of the British foreign office so that the overseas dominions could be represented in it, Lord Beaverbrook, who materially assisted in the formation of the union government in Great Britain, told an audience at a civic banquet tendered him yesterday.

Lord Beaverbrook also announced that England would presently be sharply divided over the question of Mesopotamia, whether to abandon the mandate or to carry on.

MOVING BOX CAR KILLS DOUKHOBOR

Nick Pezenecoff Steps to His Death in Local Freight Yards

Nick Pezenecoff, a Doukhobor laborer about 70 years old, an employee of the Canadian Pacific railway company, was knocked down and instantly killed last evening at 6.30 o'clock, when he stepped in front of a refrigerator car being backed to the ice house by a switch engine in this city. The engine was driven by Charles Lindsley.

According to James Brassfield, the night foreman of the yards, who was riding in front of the refrigerator car, Mr. Pezenecoff was walking in front of the car, about two car lengths ahead, and at the side of the track when he was first observed. For some unknown reason, he stepped right in between the tracks on which the refrigerator car was running, just prior to the moment when the car reached him.

Mr. Brassfield signalled frantically to the engineer to stop on observing the perilous movement of the walking man. The car was stopped in a few feet, but the movement had been too sudden. The car knocked the man down and the first pair of wheels ran over him, completely severing his legs at the thews, and one arm. He died instantly.

Coroner Dr. Gilbert Hartin, Dr. L. E. Borden, and Ernest Gammon, provincial chief of police, were immediately summoned, and the body was later taken to the undertaking parlors.

INFERNAL MACHINE OUTRAGE IN WALL STREET WRECKS BANKS AND GOVERNMENT BUILDINGS; KILLS AND INJURES MANY

Believed to Be Work of Radicals; T.N.T. Explosive and Reinforced Iron Slugs Were Used; Streets Crowded at Noon Hour; Damage Exceeds One Million; Stock Exchange Closes Business; More Than Twenty Killed and Two Hundred Wounded

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—(Associated Press)—A mysterious explosion this noon in Wall Street, near Broadway, believed by trained United States department of justice and police investigators to have been caused by an infernal machine, rocked the heart of New York's financial district, leaving death and destruction in its wake. At least 20 persons were killed, more than 200 were injured, the banking house of J. P. Morgan & Co., the sub-treasury and the assay office were partially wrecked, and property damage estimated in excess of $1000,000 was caused by the blast.

The noon hour had struck and an endless stream of office workers had just started pouring into the street from buildings in the neighborhood. Suddenly a cloud of yellowish, black smoke and a piercing jet of flame leaped from the street outside the Morgan offices. Then came a deafening blast. A moment later scores of men, women and children were lying prostrate on the ground and the streets were covered with debris from thousands of broken windows and the torn facades of adjacent buildings.

Two minutes later the stock and curb exchanges had closed.

Panic and confusion reigned in the heart of New York's financial district.

Office Workers Fly in Terror

The few police on duty in the district were unable to cope with the crowds and a hurry call for police reserves was sent to all downtown police stations.

Treasury Sends for Military Aid

Sub-treasury officials, fearing that an attempt might be made to rob the building, all the windows of which were broken, requested assistance of the military authorities at Governor's Island and a company of soldiers was sent to guard the institution. Hurry calls were also sent to all hospitals in the downtown section of New York and scores of ambulances were soon speeding through the narrow streets.

Dressing stations were established in the lobbies of buildings nearby where the less seriously injured were given treatment.

Evidence tending to confirm the theory that the explosion was caused by a bomb or other infernal machine came from several sources.

Police Hold Bomb Theory

Chief Police Inspector Deny reported that he had evidence to justify the conclusion that the explosion was caused by a huge bomb loaded with T.N.T. reinforced with iron slugs fashioned from window weight bars. Pieces of these slugs were found in several adjacent structures. This type of weight bars, a close inspection by police and detectives disclosed is not used in any building within a radius of several hundred feet from the explosion.

Warning that radicals planned a renewal of bombing outrages were sent less than a month ago to all eastern clients of the William Burns Detective Agency, according to a statement by Mr. Burns, who said he was convinced that today's explosion was a premeditated attack and was not accidental.

Believes Timed Bomb Brought in Wagon

P. Burns, who said he should be engaged by the Morgan firm to make an investigation of the accident, stated that his personal investigation convinced him that a wagon containing a bomb or bombs was left in front of the sub-treasury building, with a timing device so fixed as to cause it to explode precisely at noon. No trace of the driver of the wagon has been found, he said, and added that in his opinion, the man escaped a few moments before the explosion. Fire Chief Kenton and officers from the bureau of combustibles also expressed the belief that the explosion was caused by a bomb after examining fragments of metal found in the street in front of the Morgan offices.

Dr. F. Wm. Doyle, chief of the bureau of combustibles, pointed out that the small hole found in the street near the Morgan offices and the widely scattered scars on the facades of nearby buildings, also indicated that the blast was caused by the bomb rather than by an explosion of any dynamite or other explosives.

"It was a crash out of a blue sky—an unexpected, death-dealing bolt, which in a twinkling turned into a shambles the busiest corner of America's financial center and sent scurrying to places of shelter hundreds of wounded, dumb-stricken white faced men and women—fleeing from an unknown danger."

Press Reporter is Eye-Witness

It was a reporter for the Associated Press who was an eye-witness of today's explosion in New York's financial district, who thus described the scene:

"I was just turning into Wall street from Broadway," he said, "when I first felt rather than heard the explosion. A concussion of air similar to that experienced by a passenger on the subway when a train dashes into one of the under-river tubes, was felt. Its force was sufficient to all but throw me off my balance. Instantly, following the concussion, came a sharp resounding crash, that shook to their foundations the monster buildings facing either side of Wall street. With the roar of the blast came the rattle of falling glass and from the junction of Wall, Nassau and Broad streets, a block distant—screams of injured men and women.

"I dodged into convenient doorway to escape falling glass and to reach a telephone and call the office. Looking down Wall street later I could see arising from the vicinity of the sub-treasury building and the J. P. Morgan and Company bank a mushroom shaped cloud of yellowish green smoke which mounted to a height of more than 100 feet, the smoke being licked by darting tongues of flame.

"I reached the scene a few moments after the explosion took place. The smoke had partially cleared in

MILLERAND INTERVIEWS DESCHANEL

Expected That Premier Will Have Difficulty Avoiding Nomination for President

PARIS, Sept. 16.—Deputies by the score returning to Paris have been informed through the newspapers of the presidential crisis, although no official invitation for consideration of the matter has yet been sent out by M. Peret, president of the chamber.

The name of Millerand is uppermost, despite the premier's emphatic statement that he will not accept the presidency, he even mentioning M. Jonnart as a candidate whom he would ask his followers to elect. It is considered that Millerand will have a hard fight to avoid nomination.

Committees have been formed for the purpose of formally informing the premier that he has been chosen as the countrys candidate.

M. Millerand's interview with President Deschanel at Rambouillet today was pathetic. The president replied to M. Millerand's encouraging and soothing remarks with a discouraging shrug of the shoulders, saying in a tone of infinite sadness: "I know it is all over."

SPARE NO EFFORT TO SOLVE CRIME

All Department Experts Impressed to Solve Explosion Mystery

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—Nearly half a dozen agencies of the United States government were at work tonight in an effort to solve the mystery of the explosion in New York City's financial district, and to safeguard government property from similar damage.

In an effort to bring to justice any person or persons responsible for loss of life, agents in the department of justice, secret service, operatives of the treasury inspectors' department of agriculture, were ordered to the scene of the explosion. The feeling at the departments, as well as among other officials of the government, was that the explosion resulted from a radical bomb plot.

the street but in the Morgan building there was belching forth through the broken windows clouds of dust and white vapour. In the street an overturned automobile was blazing furiously and nearby, close to the body of a dead horse, was another fire, evidently from a pile of wreckage.

"Almost in front of the steps leading to the morgan bank was the mutilated body of a man. Other bodies, most of them silent in death lay nearby. As I gazed horror stricken at the sight, one of these forms half naked, and seared with burns started to rise. It struggled then toppled and fell lifeless into the gutter.

Street Is Scene of Horror

"On the opposite side of the street were other forms. One of them that of a young woman, her clothing torn and burned away. It was moving —noting an effort to rise, but in the agony of death. I started toward her —but as I did she became still. Glancing down I saw that the pavement was discolored with blood In plain sight, within a radius of thirty to fifty feet were nine lifeless forms.

"The body of the dead horse in the middle of the street showed plain evidence of having been in very close proximity to the scene of the blast. It was literally torn to pieces.

"The windows of the Morgan building were blown out and through the openings could be seen the smoke-blackened interior of what, but a few moments previous had been one of the handsomest banking rooms in the city. Opposite the entrance to the newly completed white exterior of the sub-treasury annex was battered and torn as if having been subject to a bombardment of muca gunfire. The doorway with its massive steel grill work was shattered and the stone surrounding the door cracked and battered away.

"By this time, the crowd was pressing in, held in check by the hastily gathered policemen. At the doorway of the Morgan bank was a uniformed guard, apparently half dazed but sticking to his post and holding the crowds who sought to enter.

Washington Statue Is Scarred

"The crowd was strangely quiet—and over it seemed to hang a feeling of awed horror. At the commands of the police it moved back silently On the steps of the old sub-treasury building—the spot where years ago stiring scenes connected with the American revolution were enacted,—stands a statute of George Washington—looking down from its pedestal from the massive granite columns, scarred by missiles from the explosion, the outstretched hands of the father of his country seemed to carry a silent command to be calm

"Then came the ambulances. Nearby trucks and automobiles were first pressed into service. Volunteers, heeding blood—smeared hands and clothing tenderly lifted into the vehicles the bodies of the dying and dead. The lead that remained for additional conveyances were charitably hidden from sight by coverings torn from awnings, or by robes from arriving motor cars.

"It was such a scene as I had pictured as a possibility during the war should the enemy succeed in dropping on the financial district, one of his deadly aerial bombs."

Morgan Heads Were in Building

Five members of the Morgan firm were in the building when the incident occurred. Thomas W. Lamont, Dwight W. Morrow, Elliott C. Bacon and George Whitney were in a conference on the second floor of the Broad street side. They were shaken up but all escaped without injury. Julius Spencer Morgan, son of J. P. Morgan head of the firm, who is now abroad, was at his desk on the lower floor. The explosion shattered the glass partitions of his office, showering him with fragments. He recovered slight cuts on the hands and arms.

Lamont Describes

"The explosion threw the conference upstairs into disorder. "Mr. Lamont said. "We were jarred by the concussion and rather excitedly ran down to the main floor where the most confusion prevailed. There were about fifty employees more or less injured and those who had escaped injury from fallen debris were courageously devoting their attention to assisting those less fortunate.

Ready for Business Friday

"One of our valued employees, Wm. Joyce, was killed. He was the son of Thos. Joyce, who has been in our employ thirty years and who was himself badly hurt. All our large windows on the first floor and some on the second floor were blown in. The offices will be ready for business tomorrow."

There were between 400 and 500 employees in the Morgan building at the time of the explosion.

French High Commissioner Worried

A letter giving warning of today's explosion was dropped Wednesday morning through the mail slot of a door in one of the offices of the French high commissioner at 65 Broadway, it became known tonight. This letter, apparently written by a man formerly in the employ of the commission, was torn into small pieces soon after it was read and dropped into a waste basket.

Today, after the explosion, these bits of paper were taken from the basket, pasted together and turned over to the police. The letter, which was addressed to Lieut. Arnaud, who is attached to the commission, began with the word "Greetings."

Mystery Letter May Give Clue

The writer said he thought he was rendering a service to the French commission by advising Maurice Casenavea, minister plenipotentiary, and his assistants of the fact that a catastrophe would occur in Wall street about 2:30 o'clock. No date was mentioned. The writer suggested that Lieut. Arnaud advise minister Casenavea to have the offices of the commission closed and unoccupied at 2:30 o'clock so that the lives of the office staff might be spared.

The letter also maintained, between two and four o'clock at daylight time as the probable hour for the explosion.

It was also said that some people had grievances and wanted to take revenge.

Lieut. Arnaud read the letter several times. Feeling assured that it had been written by an alarmist and should not be taken seriously, he tore it up and threw it in a waste paper basket. He gave no further thought to the letter until after the explosion today, when he rushed into the offices, emptied the contents of the basket in a heap on his desk, sorted the bits of the letter, pieced them together and turned them over to the police.

Efforts to learn whether the letter bore a signature proved futile. Soon after the letter had been handed to the police it was learned that detectives had been sent to an address in West 92nd street to a man formerly in the employ of the French commission. It was said that he had left the service of the French government on September 1, 1919.

The writer of the letter, the police believe, was familiar with all plans for the explosion and would be able to point out the responsible party.

TO WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

This Woman's Letter Tells You How To Pass The Crisis Safely.

Lascelles, P.Q.—"During the Change of Life I felt so weak and run down I could hardly do my work. The perspiration would pour over my face so that I couldn't see what I was doing. We live on a farm, so there is lots to do, but many who felt as I did would have been in bed. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it did me a world of good. I tried other remedies but I put Vegetable Compound ahead of them all, and I tell every one I know how much good it has done me."—Mrs. DUNCAN BROWN, Lascelles, Prov. Quebec.

Such warning symptoms as sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, dread of impending evil, timidity, sounds in the ear, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness and dizziness should be heeded by middle-aged women, and let Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound carry them safely through this crisis as it did Mrs. Brown.

You are invited to write for free advice

No other medicine has been so successful in relieving woman's suffering as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Women may receive free and helpful advice by writing the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Beauty's Ambition

To Rid the Face of Pimples and Such Blemishes is a Step Toward Life's Chief Accomplishment

One of the most aggravating conditions to any woman is the presence of pimples and blemishes. Her ambitions are first a home, then children and then her appearance.

One of the greatest blessings she can have is a fine, fair skin on face, neck and arms. The use of Stuart's Calcium Wafers now and then for the blood condition makes this possible. Women are great sufferers from skin disorders and hence their complexions are marred because of this fact.

Stuart's Calcium Wafers give you a complexion that rivals the ideals of an artist to produce. By acting upon the skin and blood they thus contribute to a more beautiful complexion.

Get a 60-cent box of these wonderful wafers from any druggist anywhere.

CHEAP BUS RIDES IMPRESS AMBASSADOR

LONDON, Sept. 16 (Associated ess).—Baron Frankenstein, a for- r attache of the Austrian em- ssy in London, has arrived here as e first representative of the Re- blican Austrian government after e war, and has taken up his arters at the beautiful mansion in lgrave Squqare where successive strian ambassadors entertained mptuously before the war.

The requirements of the Austrian lomatic representation are on a ch more modest scale now, and the former embassy is extremely pensive to maintain, the new min- er is looking for smaller quar- s. The German legation is also xious to find less expensive pre- ses than the palatial mansion in rlton House terrace which it now cupies.

One of the things that struck ron Frankenstein most on his rival was, so he said, that for a nny he could have quite a long s ride which in Vienna would st 30 times as much, at the nor- l rate of exchange.

Wireless to Be Made More Simple

The recent strike of wireless operators showed what serious results might flow from being obliged to rely upon highly skilled men for the working of apparatus now regarded as essential to the safety of ships at sea. The necessity of carrying operators is also an obstacle in the way of the adoption of wireless telegraphy on smaller vessels. Practical interest is therefore certain to be taken in any simplification of wireless operation. A British firm has recently produced what it describes as an "automatic" wireless transmitter. All that the user has to do in order to send certain signals is to pull down certain handles on the apparatus. The inner part of the device consists of a drum carrying electrical contacts which move over fingers, each one of which sends a special signal. With the aid of a small additional drum as many as 60 signals can be obtained. These signals can be coded in any desired way so that a large variety of messages can be sent. This instrument might be used by a pilot on an airplane to indicate his position, or by the skipper of a fishing vessel to signal information about his catch. The user need have no knowledge of wireless telegraphy or of the Morse alphabet. In connection with wireless progress it may be noted that wireless telephony is making such strides in Great Britain that a large news agency has agreed to experiment with it in the distribution of news from one point to a number of newspapers.

Canada Should Become a Great Maritime Nation

Great Britain became great because through ships and sailors she commanded the trade routes of the seas. Her foreign trade never was done on suffrance or through the good-will of another power. History has recorded that Britain has stood alone against an alliance of every European power; but so long as her hearts of oak ruled the waves, so long was her invulnerability as an insular power never in doubt. Sea power, the Sailor, the newspaper of the Navy League, points out, moulded the British people from a nation of islanders into a race of world colonists and empire builders. That they subsequently developed into the greatest nation of world traders was merely a step in the evolution of their race. Ship and sailors chart the world's trade routes; ships and sailors keep these sea communications open. They at once are the source of protection and prosperity to the nation.

The fundamental source of Britain's greatness was not erected upon the structures of stores or industries; trade itself was only a secondary consideration. The British people are essentially a seafaring race. Ships and sailors made Britain great and ships and sailors hold that greatness secure. Today we have the unique picture of a small island in Northern Europe, not much larger than some of our counties, supporting a population of 40,000,000 people and playing the dominant role in world affairs, and all because she has ships and men who go down to the sea in ships to reach out and secure foreign markets for her trade and to control those trade routes when they are established. British mariners and British ships made Great Britain mistress of the seas.

Canada can do what Britain has done! Make and control her own trade routes with Canadian ships. And if we are to develop into a first class power we must do so. Our trade must not be governed by the dictates of a foreign power. We must be in a position to chart our own routes by Canadian ships, manned by Canadian seamen. In other words, we must be in a position to make a profit upon every ton of our exports and imports "from the grass roots up." But are we putting into practice this policy today? We import every year from the United States goods valued at more than $900,000,000. A very large proportion of this importation consists of products which we can secure from one of our kindred nations within the British Empire by direct trade with us. Upon these products we pay freight and wharfage, which goes into the coffers of the United States merchant marine and railroads and at the same time piles up an adverse trade balance, which seriously reduces the value of the Canadian dollar on the Exchange. Not one cent of this outlay goes to promote or upbuild Canadian enterprise.

EDITORIAL NOTES

As one writer puts it aptly, much condemnation of Britain is in "broken English."

To get new people to come to Canada is absolutely necessary if this country is to prosper, but Canada in return owes them the duty of assuring them contentment and well-being as far as this is possible, the Regina Post sensibly suggests. In the attainment of this object the individual citizen must do his bit. He can do it as a neighbor in town or country. He should not hold aloof from the newcomer, but should get acquainted with him, and should show him by personal interest that Canadians are glad to welcome him to this country.

$100,000 SNATCHED FROM BOY

A mail pouch containing $100,000 in one, five, ten and twenty dollar bills was snatched from a boy of 13 in a Chicago station. The boy was temporarily in charge of the bag when an elderly man in glasses snatched it out of his hand and made his escape in a motor car.

STYLES

By LENORE

Latest Solutions of the Clothes Problem

Every woman should aim for individuality in dressing herself. Too often, however, this signifies style of ancient vintage to the woman advanced in years, and to her daughter strange, eccentric effects that have nothing in their favor but that they are "the latest fashion." But this is going to extremes. There are new fashions which are pleasing to individuals in themselves, but becoming only to particular types of figure. Take for example the long waisted frocks which seem to be crystalizing into a definite feature of the new fashions. It is not for the young woman whose largest measurement is at the hips. Nor may the figure which is either too flat chested or too well developed in the bust indulge in this line, which is, instead, best adapted to the straight, supple body of the athletic type, medium height. To be dressed in a style that particularly suits one's self—that is the test for individuality. The navy blue serge frock above which illustrates our subject is made over black satin, old blue crocheted bandings trimming the four panels and bodice.

URGES LEARNING GERMAN LANGUAGE

"Learn German," is the advice former President Poincare has given the French through the Association of Language Professors. He said: "To dominate German science we must understand it. And to maintain the independence or the superiority of our literature, we must not close our eyes to foreign literature, not even that of Germany." M. Poincare said German must be known by those who undertake the administration of the occupied regions and also to restore French to its proper place in Alsace-Lorraine. Army officers recently were urged to learn German. The government has reinstated that language in the officers' training schools.

KITCHENER SOCIAL IS GREAT SUCCESS

Substantial Sums Raised for School at Merry Meeting of Residents

KITCHENER, Sept. 16.—A basket social and dance was held on Saturday evening at the Kitchener hotel for the benefit of the Kitchener school and although the weather was very unfavorable for a turnout, financially it was a huge success, the baskets buying at a total of $187.00, while Trustee Frame raffled a duck donated by E. Driffill, which brought an even $20. Mr. Frame is certainly a money getter and a booster for Kitchener school.

The ladies of the district may well feel proud of their baskets, Miss Laura Gerioaixs' having realised $31, while Miss Simpson's sold for $20.

P. A. Poulson, not being able to attend, donated $10, making a total of $217 for the school. This no doubt helped to account for the pleasant smiles of the trustee, Hunt, Frame and Johnson.

Mr. Schonert acted in his usual high class manner as floor manager and as auctioneer ranks second to none in the district.

Music was supplied by Jenny Booth on the piano and Eliver Summers with his violin. That they made a good etoain for the occasion goes without saying.

Dancing was indulged in. "Thanks very much, boys," said the trustees, "and as for the ladies we can't thank you enough."

Miss Irene Smith of Rossland has arrived to take charge of the Kitchener school.

Miss Anderson and Miss Silvert of Creston came to attend the basket social.

Catarrh Of TheStomach Is Dangerous

"Thousands Have It and Don't Know It," Says Physician. Frequently Mistaken for Indigestion—How to recognize and Treat.

"Thousands of people suffer more or less constantly from furred, coated tongue, bad breath, sour burning stomach, frequent vomiting, rumbling in stomach, bitter eructations, gas, wind and stomach acidity and call it indigestion when in reality their trouble is due to gastric catarrh of the stomach," writes a New York physician.

Catarrh of the stomach is dangerous because the mucous membrane lining of the stomach is thickened and a coating of phlegm covers the surface so that the digestive fluids cannot mix with the food and digest them. This condition soon breeds deadly disease in the fermented, unassimilated food. The blood is polluted and carries the infection throughout the body. Gastric ulcers are apt to form and frequently an ulcer is the first sign of a deadly cancer.

In catarrh of the stomach a good and safe treatment is to take before meals a teaspoonful of pure Bisurated Magnesia in half a glass of hot water as hot as you can comfortably drink it. The hot water washes the mucous from the stomach walls and draws the blood to the stomach while the bisurated magnesia is an excellent solvent for mucus and increases the efficiency of the hot water treatment. Moreover the Bisurated Magnesia will serve as a powerful but harmless antacid which will neutralize any excess hydrochloric acid that may be in your stomach and sweeten its food contents. Easy, natural digestion without distress of any kind should soon follow. Bisurated Magnesia is not a laxative, is harmless, pleasant and easy to take and can be obtained from any local druggist. Don't confuse Bisurated Magnesia with other forms of magnesia, milks, citrates, etc., but get it in the pure bisurated form (powder or tablets), especially prepared for this purpose.

PORTUGAL FACES FOOD PROBLEMS

Riots Occur All Over Country; Government Controls Vital Necessities

LISBON, Sept. 15.—(Can. Press).—Portugal is suffering from a shortage of coal and provisions which have resulted in the looting of food stores in some parts of the country and in the reappearance of the formerly familiar long lines of women standing outside of bakeries waiting for bread. The situation has been complicated by an announcement of the Minister of the Interior published in the Seculo that the government has become aware of a Bolshevist plot to provoke disturbances all over Portugal so as to lead up to a general movement later. The minister made it known that the government had taken precautions to frustrate these plans.

Mob Attacks Fish Merchants

There have been sever conflicts at Santarem, Setubal and in other parts of the country where stores have been looted and emptied of their contents. The military authorities assumed control in Santarem, and order was restored, but subsequently fish riots occurred, the Santarem fish market was attacked by a mob which seized the fish and divided it amongst themselves. Dry cod formerly was the chief and favorite food of the people, but is now so expensive that only the well-to-do can afford it. One shopkeeper appeased the mob by distributing his supply of cod fish and thus was allowed to retain his other wares.

The seriousness of the shortage of food and fuel has been emphasized by a statement of Premier Granjo made in parliament, in which he said that there was a lack not only of coal, but of all other articles indispensable for living. Since there was only 10,000 tons of sugar to supply the country, the government was going to prohibit its sale in restaurants and pastry shops so that the hospitals of Portugal might not run short.

Dearth of Cereals is Acute

"Butter, lard, coal, oil and even vegetables have disappeared from the mraket since government prices were fixed for those articles," said the premier. "The bread question is even more desperate than the others. The wheat in this country will barely suffice to supply bread for the next five days. Wheat contracts are being closed by the government at a very high price. The maize harvest is so bad that we have already imported 100,000 tons of it. There is not coal in the city of Lisbon where the poor are tearing up their floors to cook their food and the foreign coal is sold at such an exorbitant price that it does not allow our fishing vessels to go to sea for fish."

In view of this crisis, the premier appealed to parliament for aid, and efforts are being made to obtain wheat from the big farmers in Ribatejo district.

COSTLY CARPETS

The genuine Persian rug is the most valuable thing of its kind in the world, a really fine specimen fetching anything from five pounds to twenty thousand pounds. Shiraz and Kerman are the chief centres of the industry, through the products of Meshed and Rejid are also held in high esteem. The trade is largely in the hands of certain families, who have handed down the art and its secrets from one generation to another. To the making of even one comparatively small rug ten or fifteen years of patient labor may be devoted. In the reign of Muzaf-el-Din, however, this great and beautiful industry was threatened with extinction. This was when the aniline dyes of Germany burst upon an astonished world. These chemical products — German-made dyes—found their way to Persia, and, incredible though it may seem, the beauty-loving nations took kindly to them, and in their favor the weavers abandoned the dyes that had been in use for thousands of years. Fortunately the Shah had an artist's soul, and was also a good business man. He saw that his country's carpet export trade was in imminent danger of being ruined by these aniline atrocities, and, under appropriate penalties—boiling oil and so forth—he forbade the importation of the German dyes, or their use if already in the country, in the carpet trade.

BOMB EXPLOSION STOPS BUSINESS

Broad and Active Market Halted at Noon by Wall Street Outrage

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—Trading on the stock exchange today came to a sudden halt a few minutes after noon because of the Wall street explosion. The governors of the exchange ordered immediate suspension of business for the day and similar action was taken by the consolidated exchange, the curb or outside markets.

Oils and rails were the outstanding features of the brief trading period, but the list, almost as a whole, gave promise of developing into the broadest and most active movement of recent days.

Extreme advances of 1 to 3 points were scored by Mexican and Related Oils, shippings gaining ont to four points, and steels and equipments about as much. In the several classes of specialties, pool activity probably accounted for the strength of sugars, tobaccos, textiles and kindred issues.

Sales amounted to 375,000 shares.

Only one rate, seven per cent, was quoted for call money and time funds were unchanged. Moderate reactions from yesterday's rally were shown by British and French exchanges, but remittances to Germany were distinctly heavy.

Heavy trading in the new French eights, which changed hands in large individual lots, was the feature of the active bond market, other leading issues, including liberty bonds, inclining to irregularity.

Total sales $7,150,000.

Old U. S. bonds were unchanged on call.

NATURE'S ACROBAT

The weasel has been called the acrobat of nature. It performs every kind of acrobatic feat. It does not, however, perform merely for the pleasure to be obtained from the performance, nor yet to give pleasure to others. There is a far more deadly purpose behind its somersaults. The weasel adopts the method of approaching its victims by turning over and over, with a view to attacking them. It does not attempt to hide itself from its prey, but gradually, performing all the time, approaches nearer and still nearer until within striking distance of its unsuspenting prey. The blood thirsty little villain is by no means a coward. It will attack human beings; and cows that trespass for the purpose of feeding on grass within the vicinity of the home of these little creatures do not escape. The weasel can climb as easily as run along the road, and it is equally at home on any surface. The top of a hedge presents no difficulties to the weasel; it will travel along this as quickly and easily as along the smoothest pathway.

BRINGING UP FATHER — By George McManus

WAS REWARDED AFTER FIFTEEN YEAR SEARCH

Halifax Woman Says She Will Never Cease Praising Tanlac for the Way It Has Restored Her Health

"I have been fifteen years looking for something that would relieve me of my awful sufferings, but it was only when I got Tanlac that I found just what I'd been needing all the time," declared Mrs. Frank Walker, 144 Duncan St., Halifax, N.S.

"For many years I was in a terribly run-down condition and my nerves were in a dreadful fix. I had such awful spells of sick headaches that I was in bed for days at a time. At night I was so restless I could lie awake for hours, and I felt tired and worn out all the time. Every time I tried to do anything it was an effort, and I was so weak I had to lie down and rest. I was advised to go away for my health, but when I returned I was worse off than before. My friends were all worried over my condition, and as I could find nothing to help me I was almost desperate.

"One day after hearing so much about the good Tanlac was doing others I decided to give it a trial, and it is surprising the way four bottles of the medicine built me up. My nerves are as steady as a clock and I sleep good and sound all night long. I never have a sign of a headache and have regained my strength and energy and my housework is now a real pleasure."

Tanlac is sold in Nelson by Canada Drug & Book Store, and by the leading druggist in every town. Advt.

STAR BALL TEAMS RACE FOR PENNANT

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—Cleveland slipped into first place in the American league pennant race today, while the battle between the other two contenders, Chicago and New York, resulted in a victory for the White Sox. Brooklyn widened the gap separating it from Cincinnati to six full games by scoring first blood in the series with the Reds.

The New York Nationals who split even with Pittsburg, are still a possibility. The Clevelanders were held to three hits by Zachary of the Senators, but the Indians won, as they scored the only run of the contest.

Chicago pulled New York from its top position by batting Quinn and Collins hard in the opening contest of their series.

Cincinnati's star pitcher, Ruether, lasted only one third of an inning before the onrush of the Dodgers sluggers.

If Brooklyn wins six of its 11 remaining games the Reds, to nose them out, would have to win 16 out of 18 and the Giants task would be 15 straight with no defeats.

PREFERS USING THE BALLOT BOX

was the one held this morning, when Fraternal delegates were heard, and notable addresses delivered by J. E. Davidson, national organizer of the Iron Founders of Great Britain; D. J. Shea, representing the American Federation of Labor, and Eugene J. Brock representing the Detroit, Michigan, Federation of Labor.

Defends British Miners

Mr. Davidson came out strong for the use of the ballot in preference to direct action as a means of securing the objects of organized labor, for which he was cheered to the echo by the delegates, who also cheered him when he declared that the British Labor party was determined to gather the full fruit of their industry to themselves and not let the capitalists have it. He defended the British miners, and said their loyalty was unquestionable, but they objected to having excess profits which their speeding up production during the war had created, go into private bank accounts in stead of developing the industries of the Empire.

He intimated that the visit of the British Press association and financial magnates to Canada was worth watching as it was no doubt planned to use the excess profits made during the war in exploiting Canada's natural resources.

Slashes Winston Churchill

Mr. Davidson also made a slashing attack upon Hon. Winston Spencer Churchill, whom he alluded to as "The gambler of Gallipoli; the raider of Russia; first a Tory and then a Liberal and finally a Coalitionist, the jackanapes of politics, the hero of the Dardanelles.

D. J. Shea and E. J. Brock declared that union labor in the United States was menaced by the American plan of the open shop, and declared that employers were laying off hundreds of thousands of workers with the intention of glutting the labor market and reducing wages. Mr. Shea also told the convention that the United States congress was elected by monied interests and represented views unfriendly to labor.

Predicts Cox for President

He said that was why the United States was still out of the league of nations, but he predicted the election of Governor James Cox, whom he described as a friend of labor and said that the United States would then take its place in the league.

A resolution favoring proportional representation was laid over until the next convention and one asking for a change in the election of officers was not concurred in.

The election will take place tomorrow.

alarmed, and noticed the warning only with a thought of sympathy for his friend Ed Fisher.

Fisher, the broker said, was a particularly good friend, was a brilliant mind, but had been unable to practice his profession as a lawyer for the last 15 years because of frequent attacks of pneumonia.

His paranola had always taken the form of an intense hatred for Wall Street, the broker said.

Predicted Upheaval

TORONTO, Sept. 16.—E. P. Fisher, who stayed at the Queens hotel here for sevaral days, leaving on Tuesday, the 14th, and was earlier registered at the Queens hotel, Niagara-on-the-Lake, is said while here to have predicted that there would be an upheaval in New York today. He talked wildly, denouncing millionaires. There would have been time since he left Toronto to reach New York before the explosion.

STREET CAR CRASHES INTO TREE; KILLS ONE

ITHACA, N. Y., Sept. 16.—J. C. Berger, Springville, N.Y., was killed, and 20 persons injured here today when a runaway street car, loaded with passengers, crashed into a tree, after running down hill for four blocks. Three more are expected to die.

Labor Paper Credits Soviet Minister as Having Protested to United States

LONDON, Sept. 16.—M.Tchitcherin, the Bolshevik minister of foreign affairs, has issued a protest against United States Secretary of State Corby's recent note to Italy with regard to Russo-Polish affairs, according to the Daily Herald, the Labor organ. The newspaper this morning summarizes the protest but does not give the date of it nor the souce from which it was received. M. Hchitcherin, in the note, says Mr. Colby makes it a condition of American friendship to Russia that the Russian government shall not be a soviet government, yet any other government would inevitably represent capitalism and in view of the present economic unification of the world that could only mean a government connected with the interests of the dominating financial groups.

"Of these, as a result of the war, the most powerful are the financial groups of the United States," says the protest. "It is therefore obvious that Mr. Colby's condition for friendly relations with Russia is that the Russian government shall be one which will allow American financiers to dominate Russia."

BABY FARMER ABANDONS CHILD

WINNIPEG, Sept. 16.—Charged with abandoning the infant child of Mrs. Mabel Read on the night of August 29, Daisy Brown, the keeper of a licensed home for children at 418 Simcoe street, was arrested today.

According to the police report the accused stated that the mother had neglected to pay the childs keep for three months, and on the night in question it is alleged, though rain was falling and the air was cold, the woman took the child to a house on Simcoe stret and thrusting it through the fence left it to its fate.

Minnesota Judges Award Verdict to Claimants in Cloquet District

DULUTH, Sept. 16.—Judges of the district court, sitting on the case today handed down a decision in favor of the plaintiff in the Cloquet fire case against the United States railroad director. W. D. Hines, as war time manager of the Great Northern railroad.

The decision gives damages to 278 plaintiffs and involves approximately $3,000,000, resulting from the forest fires of October, 1918.

The decision is looked upon as of great importance, because it fixes the liability and origin of the fires in the Cloquet district, and has a direct bearing on other suits involving $10,000,000.

FIRE LOSSES LESS THAN OTHER YEARS

OTTAWA, Sept. 16.—Loss of life throughout Canada by fire during 1919 was slightly less than in some former years, according to the annual report of the superintendent of insurance on insurance companies other than life insurance companies, issued today. Deaths due to fire during the course of the year were 239. Of this number 131 persons lost their lives in burning buildings, 35 through kindling fires with coal oil or gasoline, 24 through ignition of clothing from open fires, and light, 23 through playing with matches, 14 in bush fires, and 12 by explosions.

PRESENT POWERFUL CASE FOR ARROW LAKES TRANSPORTATION IMPROVEMENT

Delegates to Nakusp Board of Trade Urge Restoration of Pre-War Daily Service; Demand Winter Service on Lower Arrow; Present Conditions Unbearable; Wire C.P.R. Officials

NAKUSP, Sept. 16.—Strong resolutions, demanding from the C.P.R. respectively a winter steamer service on the lower Arrow lakes, and restoration of the pre-war daily passenger service on the Arrow lakes generally, were unanimously adopted tonight by a mass meeting of 40 business men and ranchers of the entire district, assembled here at the call of the Nakusp board of trade. A Nelson delegation headed by Fred A. Starkey, was also present, and the Slocan was represented.

It was expected that representatives of the C.P.R. would be present, but a wire was received from Captain Douglas Brown, superintendent of lakes and river services, expressing his regret at being unable to leave Nelson.

A committee session in the board of trade rooms in the forenoon went over the whole question of lakes communication, and decided to recommend a formal appeal to the transportation company for the betterment of services, particularly in the lower Arrow lakes, where the conditions in winter, with only a tug service, were described as unbearable. This step, if bringing no result, to be followed by an appeal to the Dominion government.

At a luncheon at the Grand hotel this evening, 19 speakers dealt with various phases of the question of district communication, and resolutions embodying the decisions arrived at in the forenoon were adopted.

Will Send Delegates to Nelson

President J. Morrison announced that the Nakusp board of trade would probably send a delegation to Nelson to lay the resolution before President E. W. Beattie and Vice-president D. C. Coleman on their approaching visit; in the meantime they are wiring to Captain Douglas Brown and Superintendent W. O. Miller at Nelson, General Superintendent F. W. Peters, Vancouver, and General Manager C. Murphy and Vice-president D. C. Coleman at Winnipeg.

Representative Delegates Attend

Those present were A. B. Clyde, Robson; H. Aalten, Prowse; A. A. Burton, R. Islip Burton; W. R. Colegrave, C. H. Rollings, Edgewood; A. J. Threkeld, Deer Park; J. A. Slade, West Demars; Colin Campbell, New Denver; Fred A. Starkey, A. C. Yoder, George Swannell, Nelson; C. J. Barron, C. Cuesnel, G. Armstrong, C. Dilley, L. J. Edward, G. S. Carlson, A. V. Carlson, T. B. Cuesnell, A. Macnab, J. W. Wood, F. Lunn, L. H. Rawlings, T. H. Abriel, J. C. Clark, D. T. Dunn, A. Harvey Smith, J. H. Morrison, W. F. H. Waterford, J. Thew, F. Sellows, W. H. White, C. Ehl, W. R. Rogers, E. W. Sommers, Sidney Leary, E. C. Carver, F. W. Vipond, T. Anthony, A. E. Powell, A. M. Pearman, A. H. Stevenson, A. H. Freeman, H. W. Herriee, F. Hughes, Nakusp.

The following was the resolution on the lower Arrow lake:

Terms of the Resolution

At a mass meeting of the citizens of the Arrow Lakes, under the auspices of the Nakusp board of trade, attended by members from various points on the lower lake, and representative members of the Nelson and Slocan boards of trade, as well as the Associated Boards of Trade of Eastern British Columbia, the following resolution was passed:

Whereas great hardship and inconvenience has been caused to the centers of the lower Arrow lakes by the change in the passenger and freight services, which took place in 1915, from daily to tri-weekly, and by the substitution of a tug in place of the regular passenger steamer, which tug is totally inadequate to accommodate the pasenger traffic on the lake, and

Whereas we are given to understand by officials of the Canadian Pacific railway company that ample provision would be made for the passenger traffic by the said new craft, and

Whereas the present service is most detrimental to the program of settlement on the lakes and causes serious injury by retarding the growth of the mining and lumbering industries, as well as the fruit and agricultural development of the district;

Protest at Makeshift Service

We would therefore resolve that this meeting strongly protest against the continuance of this makeshift service, and that the company be requested to change their plans and make proper provision for giving more adequate service to the lower Arrow lake during the coming winter, and;

Reserve Recourse to Government

Be it further resolved, that in the event of the company not acceding to this our request, the matter be taken up strenuously with the Dominion government for immediate relief.

Want Daily Service

The resolution for the restoration of a daily service was as follows:

Whereas this meeting has had submitted to it data as to the increase of population and production and settlements on the Arrow lakes which is conclusive evidence of the necessity of the boat service being restored to that in existence for 25 years, and

Whereas the existing tri-weekly service without doubt retards the growth and prosperity of settlements in general, and

Whereas in curtailment of this daily service the information given by the C.P.R. company officials was that it was purely a war measure and in keeping with similar curtailments throughout the province, and

Whereas all such services with the possible exception of that of the Slocan lake have been restored to normal, and

Whereas transportation from the Arrow lakes to points in all directions necessitates the loss of two days with its incidental expense and inconvenience, and

Whereas the shipment of fruit and perishable goods has been greatly handicapped to the detriment of the growers, and

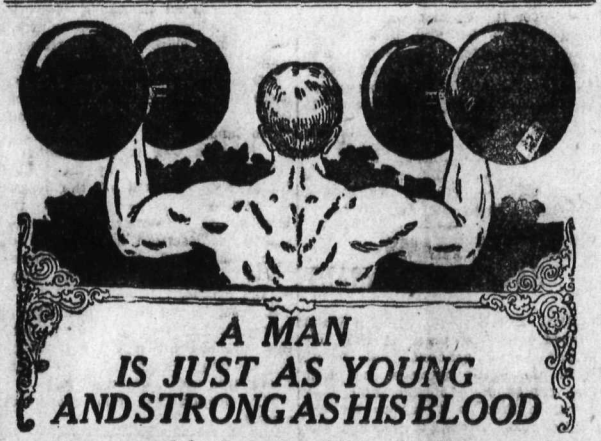
Whereas it is generally recognized that the heavy tourist traffic which the Arrow lakes used to enjoy in former years has largely been diverted to other channels, and

Whereas the Dominion government are urging the growth of population and traffic by building suitable wharves at several points on the lake,

Be it therefore resolved that this be given immediate consideration so that proper and adequate daily service be restored.

Send to Other Boards for Endorsement

In addition to being sent to various officials, this last resolution is being forwarded to the Nelson, Slocan and Revelstoke boards of trade for their endorsement.



A MAN IS JUST AS YOUNG AND STRONG AS HIS BLOOD

No man can fight the battles of life and hold his own if his blood is not pure, for rich red blood is what strength is based upon. When you see a strong, vigorous man, who never knows when he is licked, you may wager that such a man has coursing through his veins rich, red blood. Many people have thin, pale blood. They are weak, tire easily, become discouraged quickly, and sometimes feel like giving up the struggle. Such folks need Dr. Pierce's Golden Discovery, which is prepared in Dr. Pierce's branch Laboratory, Bridgeburg, Ont. Sold by druggists. Liquid or Tablets.

It adds vigor to the heart beats and tones up the nerves in a wonderful way. This "Medical Discovery" of Dr. Pierce's is made from Blood root, Oregon Grape root, Stone root, contains no alcohol—yet tones up the stomach, stimulates the liver and puts the blood making glands in the best of condition. Many people write Dr. Pierce at the Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y., as follows:

CHATHAM, ONT.—"For many years I suffered with stomach trouble. I tried many remedies but they seemed to be a failure—my stomach seemed to be getting worse instead of better. One day I came in possession of a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and took it. My stomach seemed completely cured. I have great faith in this medicine, and hope any sufferer that reads this will give the 'Discovery' a trial. Once tried, never without it."—C. TITUS, JR., 28 Duke Street.

IMPERIALS LIKE CHANCES IN WEST

OTTAWA, Sept. 16.—The Soldier Settlement Board of Canada has received many letters from prospective Imperial soldier settlers giving an account of their experience while training with farmers preparatory to taking up land of their own.

F. H. Woods brought his wife to Canada and secured employment on a farm near Qu'Appelle, Sask. "We are both very happy here and have struck the very best people. Mr. Booth seems very satisfied with me and says I am doing fine." This settler expects to qualify to go on the land next spring. He has a very good chance to buy a quarter-section. The land, he says, is of the best quality and he thinks the proposition is an excellent opportunity for him.

There are many soldiers similarly located throughout the west. Their years working on a farm has given them an opportunity not only of gaining the necessary experience, but of selecting a farm of their own.
