CALL ON WILSON TO DECIDE BETWEEN DEPARTMENTS ON O'CALLAGHAN'S DPORTATION

Secretary of State Insists on Exclusion of Stowaway Cork Mayor; Labor Secretary Refuses to Acknowledge State Department's Jurisdiction; Seeks President's Advice at Cabinet Meeting.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Decision as to the deportation of Lord Mayor O'Callaghan of Cork, who arrived in Newport News, Va., last week as a stowaway without a passport, was referred today to President Wilson.

President Wilson's advice was sought at today's cabinet meeting, upon to decide between the decision of Acting Secretary Davis of the state department, who had insisted on exclusion of the lord mayor from the United States for attempting to enter without a passport, and that of Secretary of Labor Wilson, who has refused to acknowledge the jurisdiction of the state department until the case has been formally presented to it by the labor department.

RANKS OF LONDON UNEMPLOYED GROW; LABOR PARTY OPPOSES SUGGESTIONS

LONDON, Jan. 11.—Reports from the labor exchanges show an addition of 35,000 to the ranks of the unemployed in the past week, but there are no signs, despite the many cabinet deliberations, that the government is any nearer a solution of the problem.

The government's principal suggestions, giving an insurance benefit of 15 shillings a week to the unemployed, and placing government establishments on short time, with a reduction of the weekly wage, are declared by the labor party to be totally inadequate, and the party refuses to cooperate with the government on any such basis, demanding that if short time is adopted, there shall be no reduction in wages.

A joint meeting of the parliamentary committee of the trades union congress and the executive of the labor party has adopted a resolution refusing to nominate representatives to the proposed government commission of inquiry into unemployment, because they consider the government's terms not sufficiently wide, and providing for the appointment of their own commission for formulating practical schemes for submission to the national conference on Jan. 29, with the intention of pressing these schemes as soon as parliament reassembles.

A deputation from the London council of the unemployed associations, advocated a national "down tools" policy unless the government recognized Soviet Russia within seven days, but the proposal received no support. The conference strongly protested against a scheme which it was reported the government had under consideration, of requiring each separate trade to become responsible for its own unemployed by the institution of short time to absorb the idle.

ALLAHABAD RIOTS UNDER CONTROL

FEDERATION HAS BUSY SESSION

Unemployment, Insurance, Bunk Houses, Rents, Profiteers, etc. Discussed,

EDMONTON, Jan. 11.—The Alberta Federation of Labor, in their sessions here, dealt with a wide variety of subjects, including unemployment, immigration, farmers' topics and teachers' problems.

At the afternoon meeting, H. Greenfields, representing the United Farmers, spoke of the benefits of organization, while H. H. Hull, secretary of the Social Service league, asked help in the prohibition movement.

W. A. Irwine, provincial secretary of the G.W.V.A., outlined the work of his organization and assured the convention of cooperation between the two organizations.

A strong case on behalf of the Teachers' Alliance which has recently been criticised by the minister of education, was presented by the secretary of the alliance, J. W. Barnett. If teachers were scarce, he stated, it was only by paying high salaries that the profession could be kept in an efficient state. The speaker vigorously attacked the policy of the minister of education in withholding recognition of the teachers' organization and explained the campaign for the proposed teachers' agreement.

A resolution asking that the natural resources be returned to the province, was submitted but was left to the executive to outline a policy discriminating between private and community ownership.

Other resolutions passed favored a national system of insurance for unemployment abolition of bunk houses in mining camps, regulation of rents and a cooperative movement as a means of protection for the workers against the depredation of the profiteers.

BANKER HITS ROUNDLY AT EXTRAVAGANCE

Bank of Commerce President Predicts Prosperity in Proportion to Good Sense.

TORONTO, Jan. 11.—A call for sanity of action to meet the exceptional and not encouraging outlook of the coming year, was sounded by Sir Edmund Walker, president of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, at the annual meeting of that institution today. Sir Edmund, after a detailed review of trade and industrial conditions, summed his address up with the following:

"Among the lights and shadows of the world there are at the moment too many shadows to warrant anything but anxious care. You have heard from the general manager the results of the best year the bank has ever had and thus far we have not had much evidence by a decline in the spending habits of our people of the hard times that are ahead of us.

We know, however, that here, as elsewhere, all prices, whether of commodities or of labor, must be reduced to a more reasonable basis and the effect of the world's lower price for farm produce is already in plain view. When this readjustment has reached the retail shop and a new basis of values has been generally accepted, a genuine prosperity will arise throughout the world in which we shall have a large share. We shall merit and we shall secure that prosperity in proportion to our good sense in realizing, however, that our particular sin is extravagant expenditure and willingness to incur debt."

Sir Edmund spared none in his address. He pointed out the immediate necessity of correcting our trade and flayed certain existing taxation.

MINISTER URGES SMALLER FARMS

Old Days of Land Hunger Over; Small Holdings Foster Home Life.

SASKATOON, Jan. 11.—Hon. Duncan Marshall, minister of agriculture for the province of Alberta, was the speaker at the evening session of the Saskatchewan Agricultural Societies' convention, proceeding at the University of Saskatchewan in Convocation hall.

The minister made an urgent plea for smaller farms and for mixed farming, stating the general principle that no man should farm more than he and his family could work. The old days, he said, were over, when the farmer suffered from land hunger, and he was coming to realize that a quarter section was better than a whole section, both from financial and family point of view. The land hunger had made of a highly scientific operation a deadly drudgery.

The speaker drew and analogy by giving a detailed account of his summer trip to Scotland, alternating rhapsodies on the shorthorn with vivid passages from Burns adapted to his impressions in visiting his birth place and haunts. Moving pictures were also shown, illustrating the work of the farm boys' camp at the summer exhibitions, a project to which the speaker gave the highest credit. Bringing up a family was, after all, he said, the highest and best of farm life, while agricultural education was the forerunner of a wonderful development within the next 10 years.

CANADA MUST SWING BALANCE OF TRADE

Denounces the Extravagant Spending of Money in the United States.

BROCKVILLE, Ont., Jan. 11.—Speaking before members of the Eastern Ontario and Ottawa district branch of the Retail Merchants association of Canada, at their annual banquet here tonight, Sir Henry Drayton, minister of Finance, conveyed to the citizens of Canada a strong denunciation of the extravagant spending of Canada's money in the United States.

First dealing with the now dead luxury taxes, Sir Henry stated that the tax was a blister applied in the time of need, but like a mustard plaster which had served its useful purpose, was not left on too long.

He spoke of the distribution problem and warned that unless Canada swings the balance of trade in her favor by buying more at home or in Great Britain, she is merely postponing the inevitable end.

Quotes Imports

Our importations of fruits from the United States jumped from $176,000 in 1919 to $374,000 last year; canned vegetable importations jumped 124 per cent, pickles and sauces 50 per cent and textiles products 66 per cent. Despite the fact that many of our shoe factories are closed Canadians imported last year $13,000,000 in shoes from the United States. He told the merchants that only the people can bring about a change and he asked their assistance in bringing them to their senses, by pointing out the reason why we should buy at home.

Hon. R. Wigmore, minister of customs and inland revenue, stated that the government of Canada is anxious to be advised by the people whom they represent and are devoting their best efforts to the service of Canada as a whole.

ANNULMENTS CONTRARY TO CONSTITUTION

Montreal Presbytery Presents Report on Quebec Marriage Laws.

MONTREAL, Jan. 11.—The marriage laws of Quebec province formed the subject of a report which was presented to the Montreal Presbytery at its meeting here today by a committe which has been considering the legal position raised by various recent decisions of the courts, annulling mixed marriages.

After hearing the report and the statements of Rev. Dr. Hanson, a protest was entered against such annulments.

The report cited that part of the constitution of the Dominion, which states that "no foreign prince, person, prelate, state or potentate, spiritual or temporal, shall exercise or enjoy any manner of power—spiritual or ecclesiastical," and concluded therefrom that no decree of any ecclesiastical authority can have any force in this country.

The report added that the general assembly should be memorialized to urge on the federal government that passing of a law which shall remove any possible doubt on the subject of mixed marriages.

The Presbytery further instructed other ministers to warn members and adherents of its churches against the perils of mixed marriages, the risks involed of the betrayal of the innocent, the repudiation of the marriage vows, the breaking up of homes and the proselytizing of children.

REMOVE BOLSHEVIKI TROOPS FROM ARMENIA AND GEORGIA; RETIRE TO WINTER QUARTERS

Find Provisioning Difficult; Peasants Refuse Supplies; Troops Will Occupy Railway Line Between Baku and Tiflis; French Help to Crimean Refugees Ceases on February First; Wrangel Decrees No Longer Heeded Since White Army Ceases to Exist.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 11.—Reports that the eleventh Soviet Russian army has been withdrawn from Armenia and that the Bolsheviki troops in Georgia had likewise been ordered out are confirmed here. The troops have been ordered to take up winter quarters along the railway between Baku and Tiflis.

Provisioning conditions for the Soviet forces were found difficult, the advices state, because of the ineffectiveness of the transport arrangements and the refusal of the peasants

The government has declared its intention to retire Jan. 15 and place the administration of the country in the hands of the reparation commission, the dispatch adds.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 11.—Announcement by General Wrangel, former anti-Bolsheviki leader in the Crimea, that France's material assistance to the Crimean fugitives here will cease on Feb. 1, is causing consternation among the Russians, who are stripped of the means of subsistance and are depending on French help. It is impossible to forecast what the multitude of Russians here will do when this assistance is withdrawn.

General Wrangel has lost his authority and his decrees are not carried out because the White army no longer exists.

BAD BLOOD BETWEEN BROTHER BALLOONISTS LEADS TO BLOWS

MATTICE, Ont., Jan 11—(By Staff Correspondent of the Canadian Press, Ltd., Copyright)—Lieutenants Walter Hinton and Stephen Farrell came to blows here this afternoon in a sensational climax to the American balloonists' trip, and only the interposition of the standersby prevented a more serious finish to their differences.

Farrell had arrived shortly after his brother officers and had gone to the home of the Hudsons Bay manager, where he was talking to newspapermen who had come to interview him. During the relation of his story Lieut. Hinton arrived and told Hinton not to speak further until official messages had been sent to Washington, at the same time handing him a number of letters and telegrams. In reading these, Farrell learned that Hinton, in a letter sent out, had written of Farrell in a manner which the latter resented and he accused Hinton of sending out false information.

Takes off his Coat

Hinton admitted writing letters which were afterwards published in New York, but said they must have been exaggerated. Farrell was quick to retort and emphasized his position by taking off his coat and squaring away for a fight. Farrell struck Hinton on the jaw and knocked him down. At this stage friends and newspapermen intervened and the combat was avoided, but the officers parted without making up again.

Exaggerate Statement

The trouble arose over information regarding an alleged suggestion that he be sacrificed to aid the others which Farrell is credited with having made by Hinton in a letter which the latter wrote and which was published in New York. Hinton admitted authorship of the letter, but claimed in Farrell's presence the statement had been greatly exaggerated in publishing. Later when Farrell had gone out the other man declared he had said this only to pacify his companion, and when the other returned, more words passed between them.

Falls to Uppercut

The latter staggered and fell over a table throwing up his hands. Farrell had his left ready to follow up, but Hinton would not fight. Arthur Stevens, president of the Cochrane board of trade, who had come here to welcome the airmen, to the north country, intervened between the pugilistic officers and the scene was closed.

One important scientific fact has been discovered as a result of the American balloonists' trip to Moose Factory, Lieut. Kloor told the correspondents today on his arrival here. He explained that it had been demonstrated that a balloon with a capacity of 35,000 cubic feet could have buoyancy enough to travel 1200 miles, something that had been thought impossible for a dirigible under 90,000 cubic feet capacity. The crew of the balloon had thrown away everything in the balloon to keep her up in the air, Lieut. Kloor said, including their instruments.

The naval officers confirmed the story already sent out that they had been travelling through the clouds most of the time during their trip from Rockaway and they had no idea of their location when they came down. In making the descent, the balloon struck a number of trees, before finally lodging in the topmost branches of one.

There was no truth in the "suicide pact," story, Lieut. Kloor said. "If there had been, I would not have spoken of it, but there was not," he said emphatically.

Hinton Double Crosses

Farrell says Hinton persuaded them all to promise not to talk when they reached the railway so that he and Kloor could write "the stuff" and pay their expenses, but he claims the others were double-crossed by Hinton.

"I wrote a letter to Frank Bent, the commissioner of contracts in New York City, and he (Hinton) asked me to write on it that it was not to be published."

Bent, Farrell said, was a "great pal" of his and respected his wishes, which was the reason his letter was not published. He thought the others were writing under the same agreement.

Could Lick Them Both

"As a matter of fact, I could have licked both of them then, and could do it now in this room," he declared.

Partly as a result of the clash between the officers, none of them will speak further tonight. But Lieut. Farrell had already given very considerable information on the trip. His narrative was very complete in detail from the time Rockaway Point was left until the airmen encountered Tom Mark, the Cree Indian, in the woods near Moose Factory.

The airmen, after reading dispatches from Secretary Daniel of the United States navy department, handedu to them by Lewis McLaughlin, Royal Canadian Mounted Police, waiting for them here, decided to remain here until tomorrow afternoon.

Encounter Hardships

The party left Moose Factory on Dec. 26th, arriving here about two o'clock this afternoon. Although the Americans practiced snow shoe traveling before they left James Bay, they found the going on the Missanabie trail very heavy at the outset of their journey and a week ago today they had to send back for more dogs; the first Sunday out a storm compelled them to return to camp after making only one mile.

They encountered blizzards on the early stages of the trip. The day's delay behind schedule time in leaving Moose Factory is explained jokingly as being caused by "too much Christmas." Moose meat formed an important item of the party's daily fare on the trip out. The entire trip was declared by Lieut. Hinton as more exciting than the flight across the Atlantic, which he made on the N.C.4.

According to Lieut. Farrell, there were "lots of quibblings" in the three days the airmen were lost in the Northern Ontario bush, but he claims that he was in better condition than either of his companions. He had walked while the others rode. He says it is absurd to make out Hinton as a hero and declares that every night in the woods he had to lie on the outside of him and beside him to keep the later warm.

CIVIC MEETING PROMISES WELL

Ald. McHardy Ready to Meet Criticism; Mayor Will be Present.

Indications point to a packed opera house at the annual civic meeting tonight, called in the interests of the citizens' ticket, and the meeting gives every promise of being up to its long line of predecessors in interest.

Ald. C. F. McHardy, candidate for mayor on the Citizens' ticket, has announced that he will be prepared to face any criticisms or questions that are being used against him in canvass, from the platform tonight.

Mayor J. A. McDonald, who is a candidate for a third term, in opposition to Ald. McHardy, stated last night he would accept the invitation to be present and speak, having reached this decision after reading the criticisms made on him at the Citizens' rally held Monday night.

T. J. Scanlan, chairman of the Citizens' committee, will wield the gavel and hold the stopwatch on the speakers, who will include one or two members of the committee, in addition to the various candidates for office. The time allowance for the mayoralty aspirants will be comparatively generous, but aldermanic and other candidates will be expected to limit themselves to five minutes.

ASSOCIATED BOARDS POSTPONE SESSIONS

In consequence of the change of date for the convening of the legislature to late in February, the date for the convention of the Associated Boards of Trade of Eastern British Columbia, to be held at Penticton, has also been changed.

The new dates will be Feb. 22 and 23, according to Commissioner Fred A. Starkey, who is sending out notices to the various boards of trade on the matter.

FOLKS ACROSS LAKE TO VOTE TOMORROW

Once a year, on the occasion of the civic election, property owners living above the city limits, and in Rosemont, and across the lake cast their votes at the city hall, for school trustees, for the Nelson school district. The school trustees thus have a larger constituency than the mayor or police commissioners, who receive no votes from outside the city limits, while the aldermen, who are voted for in wards, are only rural members, compared to the trustees with their wide-flung district.

The Nelson school district is administered by a school board of five members, the members being elected for two years, three being elected one year, and two the next. At the present election there are three vacancies to be filled.

The ballot in tomorrow's election will bear the names of four candidates, of whom three will be elected. Voters will receive the school ballot at the same time as they receive the ballot for aldermen, in their home ward. Voters, however, many only vote for trustees in one ward, even though qualified to vote in both wards for aldermen. Voters from portions of the school district outside the city limits will cast their votes at the city hall.

The four candidates standing for the school board are Mrs. Hugh Ross, who has served three terms of two years each, and George Horstead, who has served two terms, both of whom are offering for re-election, and F. R. Jelfs and Marcus Martin, who are contestants for the third seat, lately filled by Major Gilbert Anderson.

HOCKEY LEAGUE HAS SCHEDULE DRAWN UP

Owing to Rossland being unable to line up a hockey team to play in the West Kootenay league only four league games will be played, with Nelson and Trail contesting for honors, according to the league schedule just drawn up. The local seniors, however, are planning to stage as many games here as can possibly be crowded into the season. To this end offers are being made to Grand Forks and to teams in the Slocan, including Kaslo and New Denver. There is also a probability that one or two games with teams from across the line will be staged here.

The league secretary, Waldo Ferguson, is in communication with the Pacific Coast Amateur association and hopes to register a composite Kootenay team with the association. In that event there will be a chance for a game with some of the coast teams.

The schedule of West Kootenay league games drawn up as as follows:

Nelson vs. Trail, at Trail, Jan. 18.
Trail vs. Nelson, at Nelson, Jan. 24.
Nelson vs. Trail, at Trail, Jan. 28.
Trail vs. Nelson, at Nelson, Feb. 2.

KILTIES DISCUSS COMING PROGRAM

At the quarterly meeting of the Kootenay Kilties Pipe Band association, held last night at the band room, the treasurer, Leslie Craufurd, reported that the funds were in good shape, and Pipe Major William McLeary reported that the boys in training were making good progress, and that the band could be enlarged as soon as the new kilts, ordered in Glasgow, arrived. An active program for the coming season was discussed with keen interest.

Speaking at a public meeting held in Halifax, N. S., on July 15, 1851, the Hon. Joseph Howe said: I believe that many in this room will live to hear the whistle of the steam engine in the Rocky mountains, and to make the journey from Halifax in five or six days.

Heroditus said Xerxes' army which crossed the Hellespont numbered 2,500,000.

HOSPITAL BOARD HAS A LIGHT SESSION

With the exception of a resolution of thanks to the numerous donors of Christmas cheer to the staff and the patients of Kootenay Lake General hospital, only routine business occupied the attention of the board of directors at their meeting last night. The matron's report drew attention to the large number of donors, which included many local societies and private citizens, besides members of the board.

Those attending were George Motion, A. S. Horswill, D. O. Thomas, William Irvine, A. D. Emory, J. A. Irving, Ald. Mrs. W. Garland Foster, Mrs. N. M. Cummings, G. N. Gilchrist and Secretary George Johnstone.

RED TRIANGLE WILL BANQUET AND ELECT

Six men, whose names were submitted by the nominating committee at the meeting of the Y.M.C.A. board of directors on Monday night will stand for election to the board to fill vacancies occasioned by the retirement of members, at the annual meeting to be held at the Y.M.C.A. on Jan. 24.

A social side to the annual meeting is planned. It will take the form of a banquet to the board, senior members of the association, and a number of private citizens. Music and an address by some prominent Y.M.C.A. official will also be on the program.

The main business to be dispatched will be the election of officers, and the presentation of the annual reports of the secretary, Capt. W. T. Tait, and the physical director, Griffiths Morris.

The nominees to stand for election to the board are A. S. Horswill, Dr. A. H. Wallace, E. Y. Brake, W. B. Bamford, Gerald Rees and W. H. Jones. Those remaining in office are J. Holland, A. Smith, R. Smillie, R. W. Hinton, E. H. Evans, F. R. Jelfs, W. Kettlewell, I. R. Poole, and E. J. Stobo. The retiring officers are W. A. Burton, D. O. Thomas, F. J. Boles, J. R. Hunter, F. C. Calvert and W. S. Stanley.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS INSTAL OFFICERS

An installation of officers for the current year followed by a whist drive in which 70 persons took part, featured the meeting of the Knights of Pythias last night.

Those officers installed were E. T. Cope, C.C.; W. Holmes, V.C.; A. Laviolette, prelate; W. Bartholomew, M. of W.; D. Laughton, K. of R. and S.; R. J. Steel, M. of F.; J. W. Gallagher, M. of Ex.; A. Nelson, M. at A.; F. Deacon, I.G.; A. Cookson, O.G.

The winners of the whist drive were Mrs. R. Campbell and J. H. Jones, first; Mrs. W. Rowe and E. Thouret, consolation prize.

FAMILIES DIVIDE ON SECESSION QUESTION

TORONTO Jan. 11.—Speaking further on the loyalty of South Africa to the British Empire and pointing ont that there were divisions even among families on the loyalty question, Hon. Mr. Rowell said;

"Among those who came down to see me off when I was leaving Capetown, was President Reitz, of the senate, the secretary of the Transvaal, and one of Britain's staunchest enemies and supporters of Kruger in the South African war. I was travelling as a private citizen, but Mr. Reitz came as secretary of the South African branch of the British parliamentary society. He gave me letters of introduction to his two sons, one of them a member of the Nationalist party and the other a loyalist member of the South African parliament. That is the way South Africa is divided today. Families are divided against each other by th's question of secession or loyalty to the Empire."

The story f the loyalist son of Mr. Reitz seemed to Mr. Rowell to sum up the whole spirit of the British empire. So intensely anti-British was he at the end of the Boer war that he, with a friend, left South Africa for Madagascar vowing never ot live under the British flag. But after the granting of self-government by the Campbell-Bannerman government in 1906, he responded to the appeal of Gen. Smuts to come back "because we have as much liberty as before the war."

"I ask you under what other empire, under what other flag will you find such miracles as I have related?" asked Mr. Rowell.

QUOTES SCSIPTURE SUPPORTING MOVE

"Prince of Abyssinia" Refers to Books in Court at Murder Trial.

CHICAGO, Jan. 11.—Oscar McGavick, one of eight defendants on trial for murder in connection with the Abyssinian movement riot last June, admitted on the witness stand today that he had shot Policeman J. Owens, but declared he had done so after the policeman had opened fire and was struggling with McGavick's brother, also under indictment.

McGavic quoted passages from the Bible which he showed conclusively that the scripture proved that the negroes were to go back to Abyssinia in 1920.

Grover C. Redding, self-styled prince of Abyssinia, another defendant, is a Jew, and not a negro, according to a declaration made by McGavick. McGavick testified that Redding told him the Abyssinian government had appropriated $...,000,000 to bring negroes back to Abyssinia.

When testimony was offered against him, Redding tossed books around the court room and attempted to disrobe.

TO TEST STRENGTH OF LEYGUES CABINET

PPARIS, Jan. 11.—A test of strength of the government of Premier Leygues is foreshadowed in the chamber of deputies tomorrow by the determination expressed tonight by several groups of deputies that they will insist upon an immediate interpellation of the government on its policy, without awaiting the outcome of the conference of the allied premiers concerning matters still outstanding with Germany, which is to begin Jan. 19.

It had been understood that the opposition would delay its attack so to give M. Leygues a free hand in the allied conference, but many deputies had changed their minds tonight at the end of the opening session of the chamber today.

CALDWELL FOR JOINT INQUIRY

Suggests Royal Commission on Smelting and Free Silver.

Writing from Kaslo, C. F. Caldwell, general overseer of the Christian Catholic Apostolic church in Zion, has sent The Daily News the following communication:

To the Editor of The Daily News:

Sir:—The inspiration of this letter was a religious service held by myself in Kaslo on Sunday, Dec. 28, subject, "Righteousness and Righteous Laws for Slocan," and in humble thankfulness to God I am again writing, with the prayer that all I write may be acceptable unto God, and then it shall accomplish that for which it is written, in the interest of righteousness and righteous mining laws, which shall bring good and prosperous times to the homes, business men and mines of the Slocan.

An editorial in the Kaslo paper said that was all hell needed. I replied that I was pleased to note that he agreed with me, and I could agree with him, for when our Lord was crucified and died He went to hell and preached to the spirits in prison (or hell) who had been there since Adam's time, and as the Bible says, that by the sin of Adam all men are lost, even so through the death of Christ all shall be saved, even those in hell.

The time has not come for those in hell, but now is the time for us in the Slocan to save ourselves from starvation and death.

So far as the independent mines and mine owners are concerned, we can do this by uniting and acting as one body, and letting our wants and wishes be known to both the provincial and Dominion governments. Each are willing and desirous to give us our just demands and rights when we unite in one body and of one mind in what we need. We are of one mind in that our ore should be milled or smelted in Canada. It should be done in the interest of mines, miners, mine owners, and business men, and not alone for the smelting trust, who, with the C.P.R., are destroying the value of all mines not owned or controlled by them. We can't prove this statement to the government, although we know it is true, unless we unite as one man and ask the government for a royal commission, namely, one chosen by the Independent Mine Owners' association, one by the smelter, one by the government. Any other solution is a delusion, a snare, and a trap, inspired by the smelter's emissaries, similar to the recent investigation committee to deceive and destroy us. A royal commission would be in the interest of prosperity and life. Any other solution or kind of commission not allowing the mine owners one man chosen by themselves will keep us in our present deplorable condition—abandoned and idle mines, slow starvation, and death to the Slocan. With this independent body of mine owners and operators united, excluding all mine owners and operators in any way affiliated with the smelter, success will be sure in getting this commission, and will give them influence and standing by which their voice can be raised and heard in behalf of remonetizing silver.

Remonetize Silver

And now is the time of all times for the agitation for the remonetizing of silver, in the interest of the Canadian silver mines, as and for the only means of saving the world from bankruptcy. Twenty-five years ago I gave up a valuable contract I had with an English syndicate for examining and buying mines, to work for the silver cause, and worked for all I was worth in Spokane, and as far as Yakima, Wash., and saw the cause go down to defeat by the same money power that now has the world in its corrupting liberty destroying grasp.

Well do I love my Lord and Master, the great Shepherd, Jesus, as I follow in His steps, and learn through His spirit of His wonderful love and courage in standing against all the powers of darkness and hell, in the interest of humanity, when He said: "I am the light of the world. All who do not follow me walk in darkness."

And now, as I am giving my mind and life in upholding His teaching, I realize, by His spirit, that to be right is to be victorious; that the centralized money power acting as a unit under one head, and in one mine, succeeded in demonetizing silver in 1873, was one of the most successful but demoniacal acts, destroying one-half of the basic money of the world, doubling all the debts of the world, and enslaving the debtor nations and all money borrowers, in the interests of the money-lending Jews and shylocks. It was the greatest crime that ever was committed against commercial civilization, and in time will be shown to be prosperity, peace and happiness, which are the fruits of righteousness.

The fruits of the Prince of this world, the devil, are bankruptcy, failure, suicide, dispair, death.

By working for free coinage of silver we are working in the interest of Canadian mines, and in the cause of the liberty and freedom of hundreds of millions enslaved starving people brought in by the money-loaning shylocks.

BENWELL MEETS WITH SUCCESS IN CANVASS

That he is meeting with uniform success in his canvass for the office of police commissioner, was stated yesterday by George Benwell, whose nomination papers were filed Monday morning.

Taking over the Hume hotel 10 years ago, Mr. Benwell is now one of the best known figures in the district. This is the first time however, that he has stood for public office. He has been a strong backer of amateur sport, has been active in the automobile club, and is associated with various activities of a more or less public nature.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE PAYS COMPLIMENT TO PRESIDENT, MRS. PITTS

No higher compliment could be paid to the president of a women's institute than that accorded to Mrs. H. H. Pitts, who was yesterday re-elected by acclamation to control for another year the destinies of the Nelson Women's Institute. Many members and notably Hon. President Mrs. Howe, spoke in terms of praise and affection of Mrs. Pitts, and her devotion to the cause and untiring zeal.

When it came to the election of officers a vote for the reinstatement of the entire personnel of the executive having been passed it was discovered to be unconstitutional; but it did not make a scrap of difference because the nomination slate was completed exactly "as you were." So, of course, there was nothing to vote about.

Reviews Year

Mrs. Pitts in a presidential address reviewed the work of the year, a remarkably successful year, as the secretary's report showed, and thanked each one of her executive assistants for loyal cooperation and support. In particular she referred to Mrs. Garland Foster, who as an alderman ably added civic weight to her own sincerity in the "Home and Canada" movement on which the institute is founded.

They were starting the new year well with 53 new members, but could look back on the year just passed as one of accomplishment to be copied in the coming year.

In aiding those in distress in the matter of undertaking, hospital, mending and providing chairs for the patients and other social activities the institute's efforts had been greatly appreciated, and more than that, those who had helped with service had genuinely enjoyed the work.

Wide Field of Endeavor

Secretary Mrs. Hector Mckenzie read her report for the year, showing the great diversity of educational lectures and demonstrations held during the year, comprising child welfare, cloth weaving, candy making and a host of other subjects of art and utility. The cash balance to the credit of the institute would be about $290 when the $50 prize won at the fair was paid over.

Hon. President Mrs. Howe remarked that recently $25 had been donated to European war sufferers while distress actually existed in Nelson, and she thought the "Home and Canada" plan required that out of their funds they should give immediate aid here and now. She proposed $25 as a grant to the local relief fund.

Mrs. Lammedee wanted to increase the amount to as much as could be spared, but Mrs. Foster pointed out that the council gave relief, and the original $25 was voted.

Mrs. J. J. Walker, speaking for the Local Relief fund, said the council only aided with'n the city, and cases of distress in Fairview for example had no claim.

Here Mrs. Foster cleverly interpolated an eulogism of one Nelson extension bylaw which was greeted with laughter and applause.

The question of Mrs. Howe's status as honorable president was solved by a declaration that she was elected "For Ever."

"You won't lose me for a long time yet," said Mrs. Howe, "I'm not going to get married." Then, observing The Daily News man taking notes, she convulsed the audience by raising a query as to whether he was married already or "looking for comfort."

Thereupon the meeting dissolved with mutual congratulations for a successful year passed and a more successful one in prospect.

The executive stands exactly as before, namely: Hon. President, Mrs. W. Howe; president, Mrs. H. H. Pitts; vice-president, Mrs. James Brodie; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Hector MacKenzie; other executive officers, Mrs. Garland Foster, Mrs. Hugh Ross and Mrs. E. Y. Brake.

NEW COOPERATIVE ELECTS DIRECTORS

Meeting in the hall at Shirley yesterday afternoon, the shareholders of the Nelson and District United Farmers' Cooperative association, recently the Shirley Farmers' Institute, received reports of the past year's operations, and elected directors to hold office for the ensuing year.

The annual report showed a turnover during 1920 to have been $50,000. Of the profit of $1175 a portion was turned back into the business, another portion was set aside as the nucleus of a reserve fund, and shareholders were voted a dividend of 8 per cent and a stock bonus of 20 per cent.

The new directors elected were Joshua Marsden, Taghum; Thomas Gough, Granite; W. Calbick, Shirley; W. A. Robertson, Hall Mines Road; and John McPhail and T. Wright, Nelson. The auditors for the ensuing year are A. A. Armstrong, of Hall Mines Road, and Harry Orchard, of Shirley.

Twenty-nine shareholders were present at the meeting.

SPOKANE TRIBUTE TO COAST GENERAL

Under the heading, "Man Praised by Foch is Visitor," the Spokesman Review, in its news columns gives prominence to the visit to that city of Major-General Leckie, of Vancouver. The article says:

When Marshal Foch was asked what in his opinion was the most outstanding incident of the great war, he is said to have replied: "The charge of the 10th and 11th Canadian regiments at the second battle of Ypres, this magnificent counter-attack kept the enemy from breaking through to Calais and altered the whole tenor of the war."

The man who led the 16th Canadians in this remarkable feat of arms is at the Spokane hotel in the person of Major General R. G. Edwards-Leckie. He has mining interests in the Portland canal district and oil holdings in the Flathead country. His visit is in connection with these interests.

General Leckie first saw active service in the South African war, when he was an officer in the Canadian mounted troops. Subsequently he had command in the Somaliland expedition. During the latter period he was victor in a hand-to-hand encounter with a leopard and still wears the marks of the terrible battle.

When the great war opened in 1914 General Leckie was in command of the 72nd Seaforth Highlanders at Vancouver, B. C. Practically the entire battalion enlisted and was mobilized as part of the 16th battalion C. E. F., General Leckie in command. His battalion was one of the units which held the line on April 22, 1915, when the Germans made their first gas attack. Subsequently the regiment took part in the famous charge at Saint Julien, referred to by Marshal Foch.

Soon after General Leckie became a brigadier in command of the 3rd Caandian brigade. He was severely wounded while inspecting front line trenches and was invalided to England. On his return to Canada he was made district officer commanding for British Columbia and resigned from active service eight months ago, with rank.

REVIEW POLICE WORK FOR YEAR

Commissioners Wind Up the Business of Term; Commend Work of Department

Holding their annual meeting in the city hall yesterday afternoon, the city police commissioners received and adopted the annual report of Thomas H. Long, chief of police, and passed a resolution of confidence in, and appreciation of the work of the police force. The commissioners were all present, being Mayor J. A. McDonald, T. L. Bloomer and Samuel Barton.

The report showed that there had been 134 cases brought up in the police court, and a consequent imposition of fines totalling $603.53 during 1920. The expenditure of the police department for the same period had been $6497.765. By far the most common offence dealt with was drunkenness. This was possibly attributable to the fact that for two full months, or since the prohibition plebiscite, people had felt at liberty to imbibe freely should they be so disposed.

There were 48 cases of drunkenness and 21 cases of infraction of the prohibition act; five convictions of vagrancy; one of insulting language; two of keeping a common gaming house; two of being found in a common gaming house; two of false pretenses; two of uttering forged documents; six of theft; one of being in possession of stolen property; five of breaking and entering a shop; four of breaking and entering a private dwelling. There were six cases of common assault, two of wilful damage to property, one of indecent assault. Eight convictions of aggravated assault, and two arty; one was of infraction of the Railway act, and three were of infraction of the bound bylaw. Two cases were of beating board bills; one was of failing to support a family. There was one case of infraction of the Lodging House bylaw. Four were of infraction of the Revenue act, and two of the Adulteration act. One conviction was of failure to report under the Alien Enemy act; one was of harboring a vicious dog, and one was of insanity.

The report further stated that many minor complaints had been disposed of without recourse to the court, and that the police had made every effort to keep the city free from undesirables by ordering them to leave on pain of prosecution.

Five destitute transients had been lodged and boarded in the city lockup at various times. One insane person had been placed in the hospital for the insane at New Westminster, at the city's expense. The Curfew bylaw had been rigidly enforced, as had also the street traffic laws. The city had been singularly free from street accidents, there being only one, that of a boy knocked down by an automobile. That one had fortunately been unaccompanied by injury. One accident had happened in the C.P.R. yards here, a man being killed. No blame was attached to anyone.

INDICT REVENUE MAN FOR SLAYING EASTMAN

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—Jeremiah Bohan, former inland revenue agent, today was indicted by a grand jury charge of murder in the first degree for the alleged killing of Monk Eastman, gangster-soldier, on December 26. Bohan, police allege, confessed to them after surrendering last week that he shot Eastman following an argument in a restaurant.

The seizure by Spain of Sardinia in 1717 brought on the quadruple alliance in 1718-19.

HEARTBURN, LIVER TROUBLE

When the liver becomes torpid and inflamed, it cannot furnish sufficient bile to the bowels, thus causing them to become constipated.

The stomach is also affected. In the case of heartburn there is a gnawing and burning pain in the stomach, attended by disturbed appetite, caused by great acidity. Whenever too much food is taken, it is liable to ferment, and become extremely sour, vomiting often occurs; and what is thrown up, is sour and sometimes bitter.

Other liver trouble symptoms are pain under the right shoulder, yellowness of the skin and eyes, floating specks before eyes, coated tongue, bad taste in the morning, foul breath, water brash, jaundice, constipation, etc.

Keep your liver active by using Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills and you will have no heartburn or other liver troubles. Being purely vegetable they do not gripe, weaken or sicken like the old-fashioned purgatives generally do.

Mrs. Mary Strome, Glasnevin, Sask., writes:—"I have used Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills, and they have cleared me of heartburn and liver trouble. I don't think they can be beaten by any other medicine, and I can highly recommend them."

Union With Fairview

For years efforts have been made to bring about the union of Fairview and Nelson, always without success owing to the opposition of Fairview absentee property owners who feared that their taxes would be increased if they came into the city. Last fall an effort to secure the necessary number of signatures from Fairview property owners succeeded, it evidently being felt by Fairview property owners that even if they had to pay slightly more taxes the advantages of being a part of the city of Nelson would more than counter-balance the extra expenditure of a few dollars a year.

On Thursday Nelson property owners will vote on the question as to whether Fairview should be admitted and become part of the city. The reasons which have made it desirable in the past for union between the two districts are just as strong today, if not stronger, than they were several years ago, and supporters of the bylaw believe that it will carry. It is felt that union which will make for a greater city of Nelson is a progressive step which will make for the advancement of Nelson as a whole.

About the only opposition to the bylaw comes from those who fear that the admission of Fairview might mean heavier taxes for those owning property in Nelson. It would seem, however, that this objection has been pretty fully answered by the statement of the Fairview committee. This statement emphasizes the fact that if sewers are to be built in Fairview it would be on a frontage tax basis, which would take the burden from the general taxpayer and place it on the shoulders of owners of Fairview property served by the system. A few hydrants and 1000 feet of hose would provide the necessary fire protection which Fairview wants, while the cost of any extra street lighting equipment would not be large on account of the fact that the street car route is already lighted.

And there is the important point that Nelson taxpayers are bound to hold the majority vote in case of the submission of any improvement bylaw. If they considered it would raise taxes without any corresponding advantages they will have the power to defeat it.

From the viewpoint of the Nelson taxpayer the proposed union does not appear to present any dangers and it does offer the very substantial advantages which have always been admitted in discussions of union as a progressive step which would make for a greater, more powerful and more prosperous Nelson.

GUEST MEALS FOR TWO DAYS

"I have a friend coming next month to stay with me two days," whites a reader of this column, "and while I can plan a single guest meal without asking assistance, I am baffled by the problem of planning four consecutive meals (not counting breakfasts—she eats only toast and coffee in the morning). She will arrive on a Thursday morning around eleven o'clock, and will leave early the following Saturday morning—so just plan lunch and dinner for Thursday and the same two meals for Friday. I don't want formal meals, but I want them good. I plan to have leg of lamb for Thursday night dinner and to serve it cold on Friday night."

The following menus will, I hope, prove of use to other women readers who are confronted with the problem of planning guest meals covering a two-day visit.

Thursday noon's Luncheon
Either Escalloped Oysters
or Cold Beef Loaf
Thursday night's dinner
Bean Soup
Leg of Lamb, Brown Gravy
Potatoes Roasted in Pan Cauliflower
Coffee Indian Pudding
Hard Sauce
Friday noon's luncheon
Creamed Peas Cottage Cheese
Tea Date Cup Cakes
Friday night's dinner
Tomato Bisque
Cold Leg of Lamb
Mashed Potatoes Baked Onions
Coffee Cottage Pudding
Lemon Liquid Sauce

The Escalloped Oysters, in Thursday noon's menu, will be a less expensive dish than the Cold Beef Loaf, and I would advise the use of the latter; for, in this day of exorbitant prices, guests do not expect the delicacies which hostesses thought so necessary to entertaining when prices were lower. I would advise the hostess to have on her table on Wednesday (the day before the guest"s arrival) a hot beef loaf (for dinner) and baked beans; she should use the following recipe (which makes two meat loaves—keeping one of the loaves for the next day's luncheon) and the left-over baked beans can be easily made into soup on Thursday.

Beef Loaf: Have your butcher put through his meat grinder 3 pounds of beef off the rump (about 35c per pound). Put this meat into a large bowl and mix with it 6 soda crackers rolled fine (or 1 cup of any kind of unsweetened-cracker crumbs), 2 well beaten eggs, 1 tablespoon salt, 1 teaspoon sage, ½ teaspoon pepper, and ¾ cup milk. Divide this mixture into two halves, putting each half in a bread tin; cover the tops of the loaves with bread crumbs dotted over with bits of butter, and bake from 1½ to 2 hours in a moderate oven.

WANT "AMERIND" INSTEAD OF INDIAN

A committee of the Osage Council which is in Washington to urge legislation to have the name "Amerind," which is a word composed of the first syllables of "American Indian," adopted as the official designation of the original inhabitants of this continent. It is the contention of the Osage tribe that the name Indian is a misnomer, as shown in the World War when American Indian members of the A. E. F. were referred to by the foreign press as Red Indians to distinguish them from the Hindu or East Indian.

Corn Soup

Stew a knuckle of veal and strain the broth. Add to it the corn grated from twelve uncooked ears or three fourths tin of canned corn and a teaspoonful of farina. Add a cup of milk and the yolks of two eggs, beaten together, and serve the moment it reaches the boiling point.

Styles BY LENORE

It is here! The revolution in sleeves. Here is another model which favors the long sleeve, and no doubt bare arms will soon find themselves quite out of the picture.

The young girl in her twenties or the youthful matron will find this an engaging frock for the usual occasions of daytime wear—paying calls, card parties, the accasional matinee or tea party. It is made of satin crepe in in alluring shade of sea green, a color most becoming to the blue-eyed blonde type. Brass colored beads and tinsel stitching add a wee bit of glitter which is not unwelcome in a frock of such extreme simplicity of cut.

Combs seem to be insinuating themselves into favor, and very attractive they might be on a shapely head. The bowknot comb being posed in the sketch is of amber shell studded with topaz

ASKS CITIZENS TO RESPECT ANTHEM

Kokanee Chapter Will Interview Various Personages; Nominations Held.

That proper deference was not being accorded by the residents of Nelson at the singing of "God Save the King," was asserted at a meeting of Kokanee Chapter I. O. D. E., held i nthe Y. M. C. A. yesterday afternoon. People were in the habit of disrespectfully laughing, talking or walking out during the playing or singing of the National Anthem, it was stated, and a committee composed of Mesdames A. L. McCulloch, C. V. Gagnon and W. S. King was detailed to interview the managers of the theatres, and the Y. M. C. A., principals of the schools, and chairmen of various organizations, for the purpose of calling this fact to their attention and doing everything possible towards remedying this grave lack of respect on the part of the public.

Nominations of officers took place for the ensuing year, with elections to take place at the annual meeting in February.

A report was read from the committee who had charge of the arrangements of the Christmas cheer for the soldiers in the Kootenay Lake General hospital, stating there were 17 returned men in the soldiers' ward, and that $38 had been expended in buying baskets of fruit and candies for each man. Curtains were proided for the matron's sitting room, $5 of this fund having been donated by the Wood Vallance company. Letters of thanks were read from the soldiers and from the matron. On this committee were, Mesdames Alex Leith, Gilbert Hartin, W. O. Rose and George Kurtz.

It was ordered that the last $100 towards Nelsons $1200 quota for the national war memorial fund be immediately forwarded to headquarters.

Regent Mrs. A. L. McCulloch was in the chair.

HUNT BUFFALO ON ANTELOPE ISLAND

SALT LAKE, Utah, Jan. 11.—Two hundred and thirty-five buffalo which now run wild on Antelope island, otherwise known as Buffalo island, in Great Salt Lake, will be exterminated, beginning today, by hunters from Los Angeles and elsewhere who will pay $200 a head for every bison they kill, according to J. W. Thornley, president of the Buffalo Island Livestock association.

Hunters from California arrived here today prepared to depart to the island. They are expected to be followed by others within the next two weeks.

The reason assigned by Mr. Thornley for the granting of permits to kill the buffalo was that the company desired to put cattle to graze on the island. He asserted that the bison were ferocious and that some of the hunters were likely to have stiff battles.

BOOSTS KOOTENAY POULTRY INDUSTRY

An appreciation of the poultry industry in the West Kootenay appears in the current number of the Farm and Home, from U. S. Asmundson, who judged the district poultry show at Nelson.

"The possibilities for poultry raising in the interior are very great," says Mr. Asmundson in the course of his report, "as the local markets are good. Fruit is probably the most important branch of agriculture there, and poultry goes well with fruit, as there is little conflict of labor. Many are finding it profitable to keep poultry in large numbers, some having as many as 600 birds. The average size of the flock ranges from 50 to 200 birds.

"Leghorns are the most popular breed, but many keep Anconas and Minorcas. The Wyandottes, Rocks and Reds are also popular. Undoubtedly these latter breeds would be even more widely kept if good utility stock was easily obtainable. There is a good demand for breeding stock and baby chicks, but the supply is limited.

"The people of the district are interested in poultry, and are increasing the number of birds kept rapidly. The poultry breeders of the district are also alive to the possibilities of increased poultry and are breeding for eggs as well as fancy. Prospective buyers would, therefore, do well to investigate the available stock in their own district and province before going elsewhere.

"It was a pleasure to meet so many old and experienced poultrymen, but equally so to see the large number of enthusiastic beginners. This augurs well for the future of the poultry industry around Nelson."

During the year 1919 there were produced in Canada 917,345 tons of pig iron, having a value of $24,536,000.

NAKUSP BECOMES CENTER OF NEW INDUSTRY; GROWS IN IMPORTANCE

NAKUSP, Jan. 10.—A new industry is being started in Nakusp which will add greatly to its importance as a lumber manufacturing center. A Spokane firm, headed by Wm. Powell, has bought outright from the C.P.R. two blocks of town land measuring three acres alongside the track and extending to Broadway.

Store White Pine

It will be used to store, season and convert into match blocks as much white pine as can be obtained on the Arrow Lakes and an arrangement has been effected between the new company and the Nakusp Lumber company for the supply of five million feet of white pine annually.

As soon as sawn at the mill it will be hauled by cars to the manufacturing site, where spurs will be built, in C.P.R. cars, and there unloaded and piled until thoroughly seasoned. It seems that the storage ground has to be of a peculiar nature, absolutely free of moisture, and the acreage just purchased specially lends itself for this purpose, being sandy high and dry.

Plan Ten Machines

A factory is likely to be built with a capacity of 10 cutting machines, which turns out the blocks in an absolutely clean state, free from knots and of any stain.

The shipping blocks will be 2x2 by two and one-eighth, which will be loaded into cars of large capacity in bulk and will be transferred to the match factories of the eastern States. The wastage will be sold in town for fuel—particularly cook stoves—and will find a ready demand.

May Make Boxes Also

It is just possible that the manufacture of fruit boxes will be a part of the industry. A gang of men started to work this morning clearing the site, and until the tracks are laid two and a half million feet of white pine will be hauled by sleighs to the new site from the mill immediately.

Mr. Nelson, who is in charge of the work, after making all arrangements, left for Spokane on Monday and will return within a week to supervise the operations.

Citizens Congratulate

With this new industry in view and the turning on of the electric light in town the past week the citizens of Nakusp feel as if they have entered upon a period of new life and progress. Everybody proclaims to his neighbor, "This is now the town worth living in."

Collect Railway Data for Commission; Want an Agent Provided

KITCHENER, Jan. 10.—A committee of citizens is gathering data to be placed before the board of railway commissioners with the object of forcing the railway company to provide an agent at this point. It is estimated that the revenue received by the company during the past year for freight and passenger traffic far exceeds the amount required by the rules of the commission, which would make it compulsory for an agent to be located here.

More speedy shipments of fruit between the Arrow Lakes and Calgary was effected and arrangements had been made for a weekly refrigerator service next fall for less than carload shipments.

Mr. Aboril was nominated for the directorship on the provincial board for the ensuing year.

George Heaton of Needles was elected a delegate to the annual convention to be held at Nelson next week. Capt. G. T. Dunn was elected president of the local association, and H. W. Herridge, secretary.

CREW BUSY ON LUMBER MILL

KITCHENER, Jan. 10.—A crew of men under the supervision of L. Cardiff are at work placing the machinery for the Paulson-Mason mill in position at the site situate on Goat river, one mile west of town. A dam will be constructed with an overhead waggon bridge, and a modern fish ladder installed. The site chosen will facilitate the logging of a large area of timber on both sides of the river and allow the logs to be driven via the water route to the mill.

SENATORS SORT THEMSELVES OUT

Conclude Fordney Emergency Tariff Bill Hearing; Opponents Concentrate.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Hearing on the Fordney emergency tariff bill was concluded by the senate finance committee tonight after another day of appeals, either to be excluded or included, had opened up what supporters of the measure feared, and opponents hoped would be the means of adding amendments to the bill as it passed the house.

Senators McCumber, North Dakota, and Lafollette, Wisconsin, Republican members of the committee, at the conclusion of the hearings announced they had statements to make relative to the subject matter of the tariff. These will be read at a session on Thursday, it was indicated, several other senators would also declare their attitude.

Mr. McCumber's statement will concern the wheat duty, he said, and Mr. Lafollette said his would be with respect to cheese, on which the bill provides no additional protection.

The close of the hearings brought indications of a concentration of effort among opponents of the bill, and the turbulence with which some of them discussed was accepted to mean that they would go far in their passage of the measure, which is designed as an aid to farmers.

Many Amendments Pending

Already a dozen amendments are sors openly assert, are intended to be facetious, but for the direct purpose of taking up the time of the senate, and if possible, killing the bill.

Senators Thomas, of Colorado, and Harrison, of Mississippi, Democrats, said today they would seek to have the soldier bonus and immigration bills tacked on to the tariff measure as amendments.

Another senator, however, was prepared to introduce an amendment which would include the bill to recodify the country's laws and to demand that this amendment be read.

Efforts also are being made on behalf of sugar growers, dairy interests and other agricultural groups, to have the bill broadened to include certain products omitted from the house bill. Representatives of dairy interests, numbering more than a score appearing before the committee today, asked for duties on imported fresh and condensed milk and butter.

Growers of livestock asked that frozen meats of all kinds be subjected to an import levy, and cane sugar producers of Louisiana likewise urged protection against what they feared would be ruinous price reductions in the future.

British Columbia's salmon pack for 1920 was less than that of the preceding year. The deficiency is due principally to the small quantity of chums handled by the canneries during the past season, because of the difficulty in marketing this variety.

RANEY ATTACKS PRIVY COUNCIL

Says Right of Appeal to the Throne is a Time-honored Myth.

TORONTO, Jan. 11.—"A myth and a superstition is the so-called inalienable and time-honored right of carrying appeals to the foot of the throne," declared Hon. W. R. Raney, attorney-general for Ontario, in an address to the Toronto board of trade today.

Mr. Raney stated at the outset, that he was speaking not as the attorney-general, but as a private member of the board. Such a privilege as appealing to the privy council did not exist in England or in Scotland, Mr. Raney added, and in his opinion, it should not exist in Canada.

Hon. Mr. Raney quoted Professor Keith, of Edinburgh University, as pointing out that such appeals inflicted injustice on poor litigants who could not carry appeals to the foot of the throne, and he cited the case of a widow in northern Ontario, whose suit for $1000 damages for timber cut on her property was carried to the privy council, where the hearing had cost $3560. He pointed out that eminent judges in this country held opposite views on this question. As to the right of appeal to the privy council being a link of empire, Hon. Mr. Raney contended that this was not the case.

Mr. Raney argued that Canada was big enough and had judges big enough to adjudicate all questions of law that arose in connection with the Canadian courts.

Strong Arm Squad Pays Nightly Visits to Crook's Resorts

MONTREAL, Jan. 11.—That this city is fully determined to rid itself of all undesirables was further proved last night when six more foreigners were arrested on a charge of loitering and being unable to give satisfactory accounts of themselves. The strong arm squad of the Montreal police force is making nightly visits to low pool rooms, bar-rooms and other resorts where crooks are known to assemble, and the men arrested appear in the courts the next day, and in most cases are deported.

RUMANIA NOT HOSTILE TO RUSSIAN SOVIETS

PARIS, Jan. 11.—T. Janiseu, Rumanian minister without portfolio, has notified the Russian Soviets that Rumania has no hostile intention toward them and considers there is no reason for negotiations between Russia and Rumania, according to dispatches received in diplomatic circles here today. This is taken here as amounting to a formal refusal to take up the question of Bessarabia.

In the value of field crops in 1919 Saskatchewan led with a total of $414,406,000; Ontario was second with $396,183,000, and Quebec third with $327,063,000.

Mothers' Advice

The responsibility for a daughter's future largely rests with the mother. The right influence and the information which is of vital interest to the daughter imparted at the proper time has not only saved the life but insured the success of many a beautiful girl. When a girl's thoughts become sluggish with headaches, dizziness, or a disposition to sleep, pains in back or lower limbs and a desire for solitude, her mother should come to her aid and remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, will at this time prepare the system for the coming change and start this trying period in a young girl's life without pain or irregularities. Thousands of women residing in every part of the United States bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtues of this medicine, and what it has done for their daughters.

Brooklyn, N. Y.—"I cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound enough for what it has done for my daughter. She was 15 years of age, very sickly and pale and she had to stay home from school most of the time. She suffered agonies from backache and dizziness and was without appetite. For 3 months she was under the doctor's care and got no better, always complaining about her back and side aching so I did not know what to do. I read in the papers about your wonderful medicine so I made up my mind to try it. She has taken five bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and doesn't complain any more with her back and side aching. She has gained in weight and feels much better. I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all mothers and daughters."—Mrs. M. Finora, 516 Marcy Avenue, Brooklyn, N.Y.

Markets and Finance

MARKET STRONG; LARGE TURNOVER

Forward Movement Largely Speculative in Origin; Crucible Steel Leads Gains.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—On the largest and most varied dealings so far this year, approximating a turnover of 1,200,000 shares, the stock market today stregthened its forward movement of the preceding session. In its general aspects the advance appeared to be largely speculative in its origin.

Factors which again contributed to the advance included the increased strength of foreign exchange although the British rate was somewhat erratic and the trend of money easier. The latter development extended to time funds, which were in more liberal supply than at any period in the past six months.

Associated with the further raise of international remittances, were rumors of impending loans or credit extensions to France and Switzerland, but in well-posted quarters, these were regarded as somewhat premature.

Steels, shippings, equipments and specialties, comprised the strongest issues, Crucible Steel again leading the list at a net gain of 9½ points.

Otherwise, gains of 2 to 5 points were impaired by realizing sales and the backwardness of rails which at no time kept pace with the general market and closed for the most part at moderate recessions.

Aside from some of the foreign municipal issues which enhanced recent gains, the bond market lacked definite trend, many popular issues reacting with the liberty groups and convertible rails.

Total sales $12,650,000.

Old United States bonds were unchanged on call.

TORONTO BOARD

TORONTO, Jan. 11.—On the Toronto exchange today the feeling of brokers and traders was distinctly buoyant over the prospect of a coming bull market. It was a big day for the steel stocks, led by Steel of Canada, which gained 3 points. Dominion Steel was 1½ higher and Dominion Foundries 1¼; Nova Scotia Steel was off 1 point.

Winnipeg railway perhaps attracted most notice from the usual small volume of trading, which ran up to 335 shares, accompanied by an advance of a fraction. Toronto railway sold up to 65, equal to the high point reached last December, immediately following the announcement of the purchase of the company's subsidiaries. The close at 64½ left a net gain of 1½.

Atlantic sugar sold up to 30, the highest since November. The close at 28½ left a gain of over 2 points.

During most of the day, the victories continued their unbroken strength, but towards the close, most of them receded slightly from the day's high.

Some of the bank stocks enjoyed a remarkable demand, the Dominion going up no less than eight points and the Union four, while Commerce and Royal were also higher. There was a strong demand for Consumers Gas at 125, with many buying orders at that figure, which would give a yield of eight per cent.

WHEAT STILL RISING

CHICAGO, Jan. 11.—Foreign buying together with indications of better domestic milling demand, brought about an advance today in the price of wheat. March delivery touched $1.80 a bushel, the top most point since November 11th. The close was unsettled at ½ to 1¼ cents net higher with March $1.76 to $1.78¼ and May $1.68¾ to $1.69.

Corn finished unchanged to ⅛ cent higher. Oats were off ⅛ to ¼ cent and provisions showed an upturn of 12 cents to 40 cents.

EGG MARKET

OTTAWA, Jan. 11.—From the standpoint of stocks of storage eggs, the market at the present time is in a very healthy condition. On January 1st, stocks in Montreal amounted to 14,000 cases and in Toronto 9000 cases, which is considerably lower than a year ago.

MINNEAPOLIS FLOUR

MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 11.—Flour $10.10 to $10.40; shipments 48,932 barrels.

Bran—$26.00 to $27.00.

Wheat—No. 1 Northern $1.76⅞ to $1.78⅞.

Corn—No. 3 Yellow 61 to 63 cents.

Oats—No. 3 white, 42⅜ to 43⅛.

Flax—No. 1, $2.04 to $2.05.

MONTREAL LIST

MONTREAL, Jan. 11.—Today's trading on the local market was active and strong and in some cases, substantial gains were marked up. Sugar was the leader in point of activity and moved up three points to 29.

Montreal Power was again heavily dealt in and moved off a point to 84½, after selling as high as 86. Winnipeg railway added 1¼ points at 40¾.

There was no definite trend in the paper stocks.

The steels were strong; Dominion finished the day at a net gain of 1½ points at 48¾, and the preferred rose 2¼ points to 70⅝; Steel of Canada closed 2¾ up at 63.

The bank stocks were again strong with net gains ranging from a fraction, in the case of Royal, to 6¾ points in the case of Union, the latter closing at 152¾.

Bonds were again in good demand the turnover amounting to $339,100, with net changes on the higher side of the market.

Total sales: listed 10,625; bonds $339,100.

BEWARE OF BRONCHITIS

Bronchitis is generally caused by neglecting a cold, or exposure to wet and inclement weather. It begins with a tightness across the chest, difficulty in breathing, and a wheezing sound comes from the lungs. There is a raising of phlegm, especially the first thing in the morning. This is at first white, but later becomes a greenish or yellowish color and is occasionally streaked with blood.

On the first sign of bronchitis you should check it immediately by using Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, thereby prevent it becoming chronic, and perhaps developing into some more serious lung trouble.

Mrs. Bruce Culham, Sheffield, Ont., writes:—"In December, 1919, I was very sick with bronchitis, and had to stay in the house all winter. One day I saw Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup advertised, so I got a small bottle which helped me very much; I then got a 60c size, and it completely relieved me. I cannot praise 'Dr. Wood's' enough for what it did. Two of my neighbors are now using it for colds."

Don't accept a substitute for Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup; the genuine is put up in a yellow wrapper; three pine trees the trade mark; price 35c. and 60c.; manufactured only by the T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

CHATHAM, Ont., Jan. 11.—Two men giving the names of Dingman and Morris, will appear in the county police court as the result of a raid made on illicit stills this afternoon by Revenue Officer Lamont, accompanied by Chief Peters and policemen. At the end of the French regime in 1760, when Governor Vandreuil surrendered to General Amherst, the population of Canada did not exceed 60,000.

The first Canadian coin was issued in 1858, seventeen years after the union of Upper and Lower Canad and nine years before confederation.

TROUBLE COST HER A SMALL FORTUNE

At Last Found Relief and Wants Other Sufferers to Know What Tanlac Did in Her Case.

"During the five years I suffered with stomach trouble and rheumatism I spent a small fortune trying to get well," said Mrs. Margaret Bond, of Riding Mountain, Manitoba, wife of a well known farmer and is well known throughout that section.

"My stomach was in such bad condition," she continued, "that I couldn't eat scarcely anything without suffering afterwards. I often had such painful attacks of rheumatism in my limbs that I couldn't help crying. I was so nervous that I tried to take a drink of water my hands shook so the water would spill and I was never able to get a good night's sleep. I took all kinds of medicines and treatments, but nothing seemed to help me.

"During the 'flu' epidemic I was taken down with it. I was in bed five weeks and when I got up I wasn't able to leave the house for ten weeks and I didn't have any hope of ever getting well again.

"I decided to try Tanlac as a last resort. I have taken eight bottles of this medicine and the results have been just wonderful. My appetite began to improve after the first few doses and I felt hungry all the time. I am now able to eat anything I want and don't suffer in the least with indigestion, am no longer nervous and can sleep all night and when morning comes I am feelig fine and ready for a hearty breakfast. I haven't a rheumatic pain about me, in fact I feel as well as I ever did in my life and my health seems to be perfect in every way. I have gained eleven pounds in weight and am so much stronger that I can do my housework with ease.'"

Tanlac is sold in Nelson by Canada Drug & Book Store, and by the leading druggist in every town. Advt

Dairy Butter

According to the Dominion government regulations all farmers who sell butter either to stores or privately are required to have it properly covered in a wrapper on which MUST appear in prominent letters the words

"DAIRY BUTTER"

The fact is also emphasized that all butter in such packages must be of the full net weight of sixteen ounces and in default of same a fine of from $10 to $30 for each offense is imposed. Whey butter must be so labelled even when mixed with dairy butter and dairy butter retains its label even though it be mixed with the creamery product.

If you have your own name or brand on your wrappers you gain valuable advertising for your butter. It causes people to ask for the same brand again.

THIRTY-TWO RINKS ARE DRAWN FOR NELSON'S CURLING SEASON

Draw Is Made for Annual Match, President vs. Vice-Vice-president; Two Sheets Will be Ready Tonight.

Between 50 and 60 curlers, veterans and green hands, attended the drawing for rinks at the curling rink last night, where 32 rinks were lined up, and a second drawing, for the big annual match between the president and the vice-president, was made. Much good-humored chaff attended the proceedings, particularly when A. T. Walley made the suggestion, likely to be carried out, that, as in former years, the losers of the president versus vice-president match should stand a supper to the winners, but with the added proviso that the supper should be a banquet to mark the end of the season's curling.

Hopes of immediate games ran high and there were good prospects last night of two sheets being ready for the stones tonight. All the rinks were given a flooding last night which, it is believed, will put the two center ones in first-class shape. The two other sheets will need a little further coaxing yet.

The result of the drawing for the rinks was:

Strong Men Have Acid Stomach

And They Relieve It With Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets Instead of Senseless Diet

Consider the bulk of a big man. He needs a lot of good food. And yet a simple dish may so distress him that he will throw his entire machinery out of order by denying himself the very means of sustaining strength. A better plan, far better, is to follow a meal with a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet.

It aids digestion, supplies the stomach with an alkaline effect and thus prevents or relieves the distresses of gassiness, sour stomach, lumpy feeling in throat, billiousness, intestinal indigestion and other such misery due to dyspepsia. Get a 60 cent box at any drug store and be fortified, no matter what you eat or drink.

Farmer Speaker Is Die-hard; Appeals to Higher Court

VICTORIA, Jan. 11.—Hon. John Keen, former speaker of the house, who was finally declared defeated by Col. Lister in the recount at Kaslo, because of spoiled ballots, has telegraphed Premier Oliver that he may not be beaten even yet. He says he has appealed to a higher court against the result of the recount.

TORONTO DEATHS DUE TO DRUG, NOT SERUM

TORONTO, Jan. 11.—"It was not a serum with which they were treated," said Dr. Hastings, minister of health, today, discussing the death of two Toronto women, following the use of a certain preparation, "it was a drug," he added, "an arsenical preparation, and not a serum at all. It is important that the public should know this, lest prejudice be aroused against such serums as the antitoxine, which is used in diphtheria with wonderful results."

Thibet Government Grants Permission to Scale Mt. Everest

KRASSIN TAKES NEW AGREEMENT

Complains Trade Proposals Are Fenced Round With Limitations; Not Hopeful.

LONDON, Jan. 11.—Leonid Krassin, the Russian Bolshevik minister of trade and commerce, who has been in London on a trade mission, left this evening for Moscow. He carried with him modified propsals fr a trade agreement between Geat Brtain and Soviet Russia.

M. Krassin, prior to his departure, told a representative of the Daily Herald that the latest conversations with Sir Robert Horne, president of the board of trade, had not brought an agreement appreciably nearer. This, he explained, did not mean a final deadlock, but, although a number of minor points had been cleared up, there were still three great difficulties—the preamble, the gold price question and the question of immunity of gold or goods from Russia.

"The last two points," said M. Krassin, "are not mentioned in the draft of the agreement, and unless settled, there can be no trade, however many agreements we may sign. Great Britain has agreed to issue export licenses for Russian gold brought here, but this proposal is so fenced by conditions that it would confirm instead of remove the gold blockade against us. Unless Great Britain changes her attitude, I am very pessimistic."

SECURE STEWART FOR SASKATCHEWAN

Chairman of Canadian Wheat bord to Advise on Marketing Plans.

REGINA, Jan. 11.—The Saskatchewan government has enlisted the services of James Stewart, chairman of the Canadian Wheat board and F. W. Riddell vice-chairman of the board, and general manager of the Saskatchewan Cooperative Elevator company, as advisers to it in the wheat marketing proposals. This announcement was made tonight by Hon. C. A. Dunning provincial treasurer.

What the exact duties of Mr. Stewart and Mr. Riddell under the arrangement which has been consummated, has not been disclosed. It is understood, however, that they will prepare for the government a report on the wheat marketing question so far at it affects Saskatchewan. Whether the scheme will include suggestions for a provincial government wheat marketing scheme, or will recommend some one of the several propositions for cooperative pools which have been advanced recently could not be learned.

"The government," said Mr. Dunning, "has taken full cognizance of the tentative proposals of the Canadian council of agriculture for a pooling system based on long-term contracts with producers, and the action of the government should not be taken as necessarily implying opposition to these proposals."

The value of the wheat crops in Canada last season was greater than those of 1919, owing to the increased production, for the price per bushel was considerably less.

CLEAN UP POKER SCHOOL

SHAUNOVAN, Sask., Jan. 11.—Two masked men with revolvers raided a shack in the downtown district about one o'clock this morning, where about a dozen citizens were engaged in the favorite pastime of poker. The players and a few innocent onlookers were lined up against the wall and relieved of about $500; a pot of $300 was quickly grabbed up. One player was lucky enough to toss a roll of $300 under the table, which was overlooked by the bandits. It is reported that a high powered car awaited them on the outskirts of the town and they escaped before any alarm could be turned in to the police.

BILL AIMS TO BALANCE TARIFF

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11—Should Canada impose a tariff of more than 30 cents a box on apples imported from the United States, the tariff on Canadian apples shipped to the United States would be increased automatically until it was equal to the Canadian duty, under a bill introduced by Senator Jones, Republican, Washington.

CONVICT BURGLARS

HAMILTON, Jan. 11.—Thomas Goddard, William Gardner and Michael O'Connor were convicted here today at the county court on a charge of having burglarized Arthur Patrick"s store, this city, on the night of Nov. 7th, last, and stolen goods valued at between $800 and $1000. Judge Gould sentenced each of the trio to Portsmouth penitentiary for ten years. They used an automobile in connection with the burglary and took the goods to Trent.

CIVIC ELECTIONS

MAYORALTY

In response to a largely signed petition from many citizens, and to personal requests from many others, I offer myself once again as candidate for the mayoralty of Nelson. Whether elected or not, I believe that all the people, not simply a few, should have the opportunity of choosing their mayor. This is a democratic age, when all government should be "of all the people, by all the people, for all the people."

I appeal to you for your vote on my record for the last two years. All governing bodies must be judged by what they have accomplished. I ask no other test. Under the management of this year's council the affairs of the city have been conducted in an effective business manner. Our streets have been greatly improved at very reasonable cost, our Park has been made attractive, our Street Railway has been made to pay, and the finances of the city are left in a much better condition than two years ago.

If elected, I will, to the utmost of my ability, work for the interests of Nelson as a whole, and in discharging the duties of my office will be the tool of no party or clique.

It is not my purpose to hold public meetings, solicit any campaign funds or ask anyone for his vote. I leave the matter with the people, who know my record, and shall be satisfied with their decision.
