STEAMER SINKS AFTER COLLISION; TEN ARE MISSING

WEST HARTLAND ARRIVES AT SEATTLE WITH SURVIVORS OF SUNKEN STEAMER GOVERNOR

Seven Passengers and Two of Crew Missing; Collision Occurs Within Mile of Shore; Governor Cut in Two Lies in Twenty-five Fathoms of Water; Only Log and Payroll Saved; Searching Enquiry Begins Behind Closed Doors to Determine Responsibility for Accident; Still Have Hopes Missing List May Be Reduced.

List of Missing.

Passenngers—Mrs. W. W. Washburn and two daughters, Sadie, aged 12, and Ione, aged 14, Neah Bay, Wash.; V. Brulsema, San Francisco; F. Sheek, San Francisco; J. Claney, Los Angeles; Alfred Kazeau, Los Angeles.

Crew—Grant Christensen, second assistant junior engineer; C. M. Aurbrettan, fireman; H. Webster, waiter.

Mrs. Susan Crane, aged 60, of Los Angeless, was so badly injured that she was taken to a hospital upon the arrival of the steamer West Hartland. Her back was badly wrenched and her ankle sprained, physicians, said.

SEATTLE, April 1.—The West Hartland, which arrived here today with survivors, struck the Governor in a slanting direction, according to ship's officers, crumpling the freighter's bow, and cutting the passenger boat almost in two from the starboard side.

According to passengers, the West Hartland partly supported the Governor with her nose driven deeply into the Governor's side, but as soon as the freighter backed clear, the passenger vessel began to sink. The collision occurred less than a mile off shore, directly opposite the Point Wilson lighthouse near Port Townsend, in the Straits of Juan de Fuca. The Governer is believed to lie in about 2' fathoms of water. According to Purser Holser, the Governor was on her course, it being customary to steam close to shore in making the Point Wilson lighthouse. Ship's officers declared the night was fairly clear with a light fog overhanging.

Only Saves Log and Payroll.

Purser Holser saved only the log and the payroll of the ship's papers. Other records, including the passenger list, went down in the purser's safe, which also contained a considerable amount of money.

A cold drizzle added to the misery of the survivors huddled on the West Hartland's deck throughout most of the slow journey from the scene of the collision. Few of them had been able to escape completely clothed. A number were in their night clothes and some were wrapped in blankets sent by members of the West Hartland's crew.

Neither Capt. Bartlett of the Governor, nor Capt. John Alwen of the West Hartland, would discuss the affair, except to say order was maintained on the sinking vessel.

Grant Christensen, second assistant engineer of the Governor, is believed by the ship's officers to have gone to his death when he insisted on going down to the engine room to see if he could keep the ship's engines running.

Several children were included among the survivors.

Federal steamboat inspectors late today began a preliminary investigation into the collision, off Point Wilson, Washington, early this morning, between the Admiral line passenger steamer Governor and the freighter West Hartland, which resulted in the sinking of the Governor with the probable loss of ten lives.

The inquiry, which was called to determine whether officers of either ship should be charged with responsibility for the accident, was held behind closed doors. Witnesses called included Capt. John Alwen, master of the West Hartland; Capt. E. P. Bartlett, of the Governor, and Capt. Harry Martin, Puget Sound, who was in charge of the passennger liner when the collision occurred.

United States District Attorney Robert C. Saunders also ordered a sweeping investigation. The West Hartland is a shipping board ship, although under charter to the Pacific Coast Steamship company, owners of the Governor, and the liability of the freighter, if any, Mr. Saunders said, might eventually fall on the government.

Ten persons—seven passengers and three members of the Governor's crew—were counted as missing tonight. Officers of the Admiral line said it was possible this number might be reduced.

BRITSH COAL MINERS DOWN TOOLS; NEITHER SIDE MAKES ANY ADVANCE

LONDON, April 1.—The universal cessation of work of coal miners has taken effect with remarkable quietude and under circumstances of strong contrast with all recent labor disputes whether on the part of the railwaymen, the miners or in industries, which were characterized by active conferences and negotiations between the parties concerned and ministers or other members of the government, all of whom displayed anxiety to find a path of settlement.

On this occasion there has been nothing of the kind since Thursday's meeting of the board of trade. Neither side has made the least approach toward negotiations. This is explained partly, as far as the government is concerned, by the fact that the abolition of control of the coal industry is considered to relieve the ministers of responsibility or intervening in the dispute. The government holds that it is a matter to be settled between the miners and the mine owners.

Pumpmen and Engineers Remain.

Up to the present the order withdrawing the engineers and pumpmen from the mines has been largely ignored. Whether this is with the cognizance of the miners' federation leaders, owing to the general depreciation against removing the men on the part of the newspapers, is not known, but the general belief expressed is that the men have not been withdrawn owing to a desire not to prejudice the situation pending a conference between the triple alliances next Wednesday. Until then they probably will mark time.

As a sequel to the dispute the house of lords will reassemble eight days before the time stipulated for them to do so.

House Gets Emergency Call.

The house of commons had adjourned until April 4 and the house of lords until April 12. Under the emergency proclamation the government is bound to convene parliament within five days. A senatorial proclamation was issued tonight convening both houses for Monday. Lively debates are anticipated in parlaiment, as not only the Laborite but the Liberal party, while conceding that the miners, under the present depression, must expect some reduction in wages, throw the whole blame for the dispute upon the government on the ground that the abolition of government control of mines five months before the proper time, merely because the industry is suffering adverse conditions, is unjustified and unfair toward he miners. It is also argued that instead of the mine-owners having given the miners an ultimatum to accept wage reductions settled by the mine owners themselves, an opportunity should have been given for joint discussions.

No Trouble So Far.

Board of Trade President Succeeds Chamberlain as Chancellor of Exchequer

LONDON, April 1.—Sir Robert E. Horne, president of the board of trade, has been appointed chancellor of the exchequor in succession to J. Austen Chamberlain. J. Baldwin, parliamentary secretary to the treasurer, will become the new president of the board of trade.

WHEAT BOARD DEBATE STIRS HEATED BLOOD

Claims Hundred Million Lost Through Non-Support of Progressives.

PROPOSES DRIVE FOR UNITED STATES TRADE

Major Mowatt Urges Large and Efficient Force of Canadian Trade Agents.

OTTAWA, April 1.—A somewhat monotonous session of the house in supply on the department of trade and commerce estimates today was illuminated with a lively dispute between government and progressive members whether or not the suspension of the activities of the Canadian wheat board had lost $100,000,000 to the farmers of the west. The flicker of drawn steel occurred when a vote of $1,175,000 for administration of the Canadian Grain act was under discussion.

Col. J. A. Currie, North Simcoe, had charged the Progressives with not supporting the wheat board, intimating that as a consequence Great Britain purchased grain in the United States when the business should have come to Canada. Hot blood was further stirred by H. B. Morphy, who declared farmers were clamoring for free trade in everything that did not affect "their own bread basket."

W. D. Cowan, Regina, asserted that Hon. T. A. Crerar, leader of the Progressives had opposed the continuance of the board.

Levi Thompson, Qu'Appelle, Progressive whip, defended his leader. Mr. Crerar, Mr. Thompson said, had only opposed the board's permanent continuance.

Doubts Use to Farmers.

J. A. Maharg, Maple Creek, challenged government members to prove their assertions, while Dr. Michael Clark, Red Deer, doubted if the wheat board had been of any use to the western farmers. During a discussion on general trade conditions, H. B. Morphy, declared the time was opportune to launch an aggressive drive for United States trade as people in that country were exploiting Canadian trade and at the same time making Canada pay for the expenses of their consular services.

Urges Trade Agents.

Major Mowatt urged the appointment of a large and efficient force of Canadian trade agents in the United States. Sir George Foster agreed that the United States system of charging $2.50 on each invoice passed more than paid the entire cost of the United States consular and trade services in this country. But for Canadian trade agents in the United States to make charges on invoices would involve the adoption of a similar course in other countries. However, the question would be considered.

The prime minister announced his intention to move for a special committee on government-owned railways and merchant ships and the house appointed a special committee to consider Canada's future fuel supply.

NO DATE FIXED FOR OPERATION OF LIQUOR ACT

Probably Effective May 1; Sales Under Permit Only; Sealed Packages.

TO MAINTAIN STORES WHEREVER ADVISABLE

Annual Permit Five Dollars; Single Permit for Two Quarts Fifty Cents.

VICTORIA, April 1. — The liquor control bill, which has been passed by the British Columbia legislature, is expected to go into effect on May 1, although the date has not yet been set. Under the measure, the government will establish and maintain stores wherever in the province it is considered advisable, and at these sales will be made under permit system and only sealed packages of liquor will be sold. A package is defined to mean any receptacle used for holding liquor.

The administration of the act, including the general control, management and supervision of all government stores, will be vested in a liquor control board consisting of three persons, one of whom shall be chairman. Most of the powers of this board will be subjected to the lieutenant-governor-in-council, but in the purely administrative end, it will have certain rights.

Annual and Single Permits

Under the permit system residents of the province of adult age, and who have resided here for one month, can take out yearly permits, the cost of which shall be $5 each. Another permit costing 50 cents, allows for a single purchase limited to two quarts. There are special permits covering the cases of druggists, physicians, dentists and veterinaries and also affecting wines for sacramental purposes.

The act provides for a tax on all liquor imported for private use under the federal law. This tax will be equal to the profit which the government would have made had it sold such liquor, plus 10 per cent. It will be incumbent on all those importin for private purposes to notify the liquor control board of any shipments so that provision may be made for taxation.

Another taxation provision is contained in the act. Every person engaged in importing liquor into the province or exporting it from the province, shall pay a yearly license fee of $3.000.

Safeguard Against Abuse

There are safeguards to prevent the abuse of the permit system. Persons convicted of drunkenness can be interdicted and have their permits cancelled. There are heavy penalties attaching to those who violate the law by selling liquor,

CARL DEPARTS HUNGARY FOR SWITZERLAND

Attempted Coup d'Etat Dismal Failure; Royalist Army Phantom.

ALLIED POWERS OPPOSE HAPSBURG RESTORATION

Ex-Ruler Issues Proclamation to Magyars Confirming Horthy's Regency.

PARIS, April 1.—The attempted coup d'etat of Former Emperor Charles of Austria, has been a complete failure, according to the impression prevailing in official French circles this evening. While not yet officially determined, the officials believe that the effort of Charles to regain the throne of Hungary has been successfully blocked. This view is based on dispaches from diplomatic sources in Hungary and the opinion that the former ruler will soon be escorted through Austria and back to his Swiss retreat.

French officials say they have found it impossible to locate the army of 15,000 soldiers reported to be marching on Budapest. If such an army existed, the French say, its movements were amazingly well concealed.

Ministers Present Protest

VIENNA, April 1.—Austria has granted a safe conduct to Former Emperor Charles to go to Switzerland, not only in principle, but in fact. The British, French and Italian ministers called upon Chancellor Mayer this morning and presented the protest of the powers against a Hapsburg restoration.

Declares Horthy Regent

STEINAMANGER, Hungary, April 1—Former Emperor Charles declared here this morning that his departure from Hungary would be conditioned upon permission to issue a proclamation to Magyars, explaining the "unfavorable circumstances compelling his withdrawal," and saying that he , as king, temporarily confirmed the regency of Admiral Horthy.

"The former ruler made this declaration upon receiving a refusal from Admiral Horthy, the regent, that he be allowed to return to Budapest, coupled with a threat of military measures against him.

Leaves for Swizerland

PARIS, April 1.—A dispatch to the East European agency form Budapest says Former Emperor Charles, accompanied by two officers has left Steinamanger for Switzerland. There is no confirmation of this report from other sources.

CATHOLIC CIVILIAN PEER TO SUCCEED LORD FRENCH AS LORD LIEUTENANT OF ERIN

Lord Edmond Talbot to Try His Hand at Popular Unionist Whip for a Generation, Says Times; as Foremost Lay Catholic in England Government Apparently Expects This Will Commend Him to Irish; Considerable Reconstruction of Ministry Becomes Necesssary; French's Rule Was Never a Happy One.

LONDON, April 1.—Field Marshal Viscount French of Ypres, will be succeeded as lord lieutenant and governor-general of Ireland by Lord Edmund Bernard Talbot, who has held the post of joint parliamentary secretary of the treasury.

The London Times, referring to Lord Edmund Talbot as "the most popular chief Unionist whip for a generation" says editorially:

"Whether his qualifications as the foremost lay Catholic in England will recommend him as strongly to the Irish people as the government seems to expect, is an open question, but as he would scarcely have accepted the appointment without some assurance that the system of administration which marks the latter years of Viscount French's viceroyalty will hardly be maintained in all its rigor, he may enter into his important office under favorable auspices."

The Times further remarks that the Irish problem cannot be solved by a change in persons unless there be a change in policy, and concludes by speaking of the new appointments as a whole, as:

"The comparative insignificance of the extensive shuffle and deal lies in the circumstances that it contains no clear indication of policy. It is a whirl of persons affected apparently without intelligible method or plan."

Redistribution of Ministry

The appointment of Lord Edmund was due to the necessity, under the Home Rule act, of appointing a civilian viceroy.

These changes necessitated a con*siderable re-construction* of the ministry. Among the changes and new appointments are:

Capt. Frederick Guest, aide de camp to Field Marshal French, becomes air secretary.

The Right Hon. Frederick Kellaway becomes postmaster-general.

Charles A. McCurdy, food controller, becomes joint parliamentary secretary to the treasury.

Major Sir Phillip Graem, parliamenary secreatry to the board of trade, becomes director of overseas trade.

There are also a number of changes in the minor posts.

Albert Hillingworth, who held the post of postmaster-general, is retiring on account of ill health.

Lord Edmund Bernard Talbot was born 1885, the youngest son of the Thirteenth Duke of Norfolk. He is the uncle and heir presumptive of the present Duke of Norfolk. He assumed the name of Talbot in compliance with the will of the Seventh Earl of Shrewsbury in 1876. Lord Talbot's wife is a daughter of the Seventh Earl of Abingdon.

Viscount French was appointed lord lieutenant of Ireland in 1918. At the outbreak of the world war, he was in command of the British forces in France and Flanders, a position he held until he was relieved by Field Marshal Sir Douglas Haig in December 1915. One of his greatest achievements was in the famous battle of Ypres, the winning of which barred he channel ports from a German invasion and saved England from invasion. On his retirement in France, he was created Viscount French of Ypres.

Escapes Assassination

Much surprise was evinced when French was made lord lieutenant of Ireland. The Irish Nationalists expressed the belief that his administration would be characterized by repressive measures. His rule in Ireland never proved a happy one, because of his srong stand against the radicals and his declaration that a Sinn Fein republic would never be established there. In December, 1919, an unsuccessful attempt was made to assassinate Viscount French while he was motoring in Ireland. His party was ambushed and fired upon, but the lord lieutenant escaped injury. For some time there have been rumors of the possible resignation of Viscount French.

BOMB OUTRAGE GROUP KNOWN

NEW YORK, April 1.—Agents of the United States department of justice have known for some weeks the identity of the radical group responsible for the Wall street explosion last fall, W. J. Flynn, chief of the bureau of investigation, declared tonight.

He asserted that it was the same group which had plotted the widespread bombing of 1919, when explosions occurred in Washington, New York, Boston and other cities, and the home of Attorney-General Palmer was attacked. Its members have scattered and some are in foreign lands, according to Flynn, who added that his agents were pressing their hunt for the fugitives both in the United States and abroad.

COAL MINERS DOWN TOOLS

throughout Great Britain's coal area today because of the miners' strike thus far has not been productive of trouble in any of the mines, where the enginemen are reported to have stuck to their posts to prevent the pits being flooded. This raised the belief in some quarters that the fight will not be long, especially as the miners lack the funds necessary to continue a long struggle.

Meantime, certain of the big iron and steel industries, in order to preserve the works from the consequences of a stoppage of coal supplies closed down today. Others on the northeast coast of England are expected to shut down next week.

So far as negotiations between the miners and the mine owners are concened, some membes of the coal mines' association with authority to negotiate have emained in London, while Frank Hodges, secretary of the miners' union, is here authorized to treat for the men if a favorable opportunity occurs. Government circles are reported to be slightly more optimistic regarding the situation in view of the action of the owners in safeguarding the pits from flooding.

Swells Unemployed Ranks.

The coal strike has come at a difficult time for industry generally. Official statistics show that there has been an increase of 30,000 in the ranks of the unemployed this week as compared with last week. The total on the registers of the unemployment exchanges is now nearing 1,500,000, exclusive of more than 800,000 who are on short time. These numbers have been increased by more than a million in the coal fields.

John J. Jones, labor member of parliament, in a speech at Ilford, Essex, tonight asserted that within recent weeks, notices have been issued in 60 industries that wages were to be reduced by from 10 to 20 shillings a week.

A conference in the shipbuilding trade was held at Carlisle today to discuss the claims of employers for a reduction of six shillings on time rates and 15 per cent on piece work. The workmen demanded that the matter shoud be submitted to arbitration. The employers refused to eentertain the demand and the conference ended without a settlement having been eached. The workmen ar now asking the ministry of labor to intervene, but it is expected a strike may result.

an individual being subjected to imprisonment for six months with hard labor for a first offense and a corporation being subject to a minimum fine of $1000.

Under the act all private stocks of liquor must carry the government seal. The object being to prevent bootlegging in this way.

The liquor control board among its powers will have the right of prescribing the kinds and quantities of liquor which may be kept on hand by the holder of any special permit and the kinds and quantities of liquor for which a prescription may be given and also the kinds and quantities which may be purchased under permits of any class.

The act, when it comes into operation, automatically repeals the British Columbia Prohibition act and all its amending statutes.

Medical Bill Amended

The bill to fix the terms upon which chiropractors and drugless physicians may practice their profession in British Columbia, was given its third reading today in the legislature It was amended so as to strike out toxicology, bacteriology, obstetrics and minor surgery from the subjects in which they are required to pass examination, and medical jurisprudence was inserted.

A bill to aid members of the legal profession in collecting their costs was introduced by the attorney-general. It provides that where a solicitor has been employed to prosecute or defend any case, he shall have a right to payment of his costs out of the property which has been recovered or preserved through his services. He will not, however, be able to recover against the property if it has passed a bona fide purchaser for value without notice.

The poll tax act is amended by a bill which received its third reading, today. It provides that where a poll tax is levied by the municipality it cannot also be levied by the province.

Among the amendments to the Taxation act put through today is to the effect that the homesteader shall have freedom from taxation for five years. There also is a provision to levy annually 75 cents a head on cattle and 25 cents a head on sheep brought into the province for pasturing.

The bill to regulate the practice of optometry received its third reading yesterday.

ESMONDE BREAKS LANDING PAROLE

Makes Anti-British Speech to Vancouver Audience; Attacks Hamar Greenwood

VANCOUVER, April 1.—Condemning the British administration of Ireland, by "criminally incompetent politicians," and declaring Ireland never would "give in," O. T. Grattan Esmonde addressed a meeting of 200 persons in Columbus hall here, tonight, the Vancouver Sun states in its issue this morning.

Commenting on the fact that Mr. Esmonde is supposed to have pledged himself not to address any public meetings in his passage through Canada, the Sun states that its representative gained admittance to the meeting which had not been announced and heard the anti-British speech of the young Irishman. Esmonde was given the right to land in Canada only in order that he might proceed to England at once. He had been previously refused entry to Australia and other British countries in the Pacific because of his Sinn Fein leanings.

Esmonde is quoted by the Sun as accusing the "drunken viceroy" of Ireland and the "murderous gang" of the British government, with particular reference to Sir Hamar Greenwood, as being responsible for Ireland's troubles.

Esmonde closed the address with a plea for the same systematic organization in Vancouver as he had found in Australia "in the cause of Ireland."

The chairman of the meeting informed the reporter that th meeting was an assembly of a private club and non-members were not welcome. The Knights of Columbus here, interviewed, after the meeting, stated that the meeting had nohing to do with their society. The hall had been engaged for the occasion by private individuals who were believed to represent the Irish Self-Determination League.

MRS. S.—"Oh, how do you do my dear Mrs. Gilchrist (welcoming her with handshakes and kisses). It is perfectly sweet of you to come. Do sit down.

MRS. G.—"Do you know Mrs. Seudomonds, as soon as I received your note I could not rest. I thought to myself that sweet women is always thinking what she can do for other people."

Mrs. S. (Shaking her finger in mock anger). "Mrs. Gilchrist you are as always the flatterer."

Mrs. S. (Again goes forward and welcomes Mrs. Braithwaite very effusively with handshake and kisses). "My dear Mrs. Braithwaite how perfectly lovely of you to come. With all your adorable family to look after time is indeed valuable."

MRS. B.—"My dear Mrs. Seudomonds you should know by now I never let my family stand in the way of public service."

MRS. S.—"My dear it was only my little joke. It was but yesterday that I told Mrs. Higgins, "Whatever you may think of Mrs. Braithwaite you can never accuse her of thinking of her own." So you see I am a True Friend. Do sit down".

MRS. S.—(Jumps up and welcomes Mrs. Egleton with handshakes and kisses). "My dear Mrs. Egleton how adorable of you to come, especially as it means leaving that wonderful baby of yours."

MRS. E.—"My dear Mrs. Seudomonds have you ever known me fail when duty calls: it it not my one desire to leave the world a little better than I found it? As soon as I got your note I phoned to John to come home and mind the baby."

Mrs. Seudomonds (smiling) "My dear I never for one moment doubted you. It was only yesterday I said to Mrs. Utop "Whatever you may think of Mrs. Egleton you must admit she is brainy I knew, my dear, what a resourceful woman you are." But now I expect you are all anxious to hear why I sent for you so gather around I will tell you.

(The ladies move their chairs up near Mrs. Seudomonds and that lady commencing as if she was telling news of the utmost importance begins).

MRS. S.—"I received this letter this morning (she holds up a letter. It is from Mrs. Cuzner."

Mrs. Braitwaite, Mrs. Egleton, Mrs. Gilchrist. (in chorus) "From Miss Cuzner the great reformer?"

MRS. S.—"Yes from Miss Cuzner the great reformer."

Mrs. Braithwaite, Mrs. Egleton, Mrs. Gilchrist, (in chorus), "How wonderful".

MRS. S—"Wait until I have read it. It is more than wonderful. Listen.—Dear Mrs. Seudomonds.

I have never had the pleasure of meeting you; but you may have heard of me by report. I am on the point of launching out on a new crusade, the greatest ever, at least from a woman's standpoint and I propose making a round of the Women's Institute in this province to first interest them on my project. I have been told that the Humpty Dumpty Women's Institute has some of the keenest brains in the West, and so I have chosen your Institute as my starting off ground.

Could you invite a few of your leading members to meet on Wednesday next. I will then explain my project to them."

MRS. S.—(looking at her watch). "Why it is now one minute passed four now."

(Knock comes at door and the maid announces Miss Cuzner. All the ladies rise and gaze at Miss Cuzner with a look of rapt attention as she enters.

Mrs. Seudomonds goes forward to meet her and holding Miss Cuzner's hand between her own for a few seconds says with great earnestness)..

MRS. S.—"This is indeed an honor and a pleasure."

MISS C.—"The pleasure is mine."

MRS. S.—"Let me introduce you to three of our most prominent members. As soon as I received your letter I wrote and asked them to come."

(Mrs. Seudomonds then introduces the three ladies).

MISS C.—"And now I would like to deliver my message, I would love to to have a chat to you all about those little things so dear to a woman's heart; but time is precious—the world is crying out in its turmoil. We women fail if we turn a deaf ear to its cry. Might I use this table for my notes?"

MRS. S.—Anything you like my dear."

(Miss Cuzner places the table on front of her where she can command a view of the other ladies. Placing her notes on the table she wipes her eyes with her handkerchief before commencing: putting her handkerchief away she looks up and smiling says).

MISS C.—"After all I am only a woman." (all the ladies present are visibly moved).

MRS. B. (aside to the lady sitting next to her) "How very human."

MISS C.—"Is it possible some of you may have heard of my small effort in the cause of progress."

Chorus—" Indeed we all have'

MISS C.—"I mean first of all to tell you a little about my early life. I find that most people are interested in the more personal side of my personality. Once, and I almost shudder to think of it, I was just an empty headed, frivolous girl. I loved pretty frocks, and I was beautiful, like a butterfly I basked in the sunshine, and then one day an incident occurred which altered my whole future. I remember the morning quite well. The sun was shining. All nations was wooing my young heart. Suddenly four men passed by me carrying a stretcher. On it was a boy, not more than ten years old. I can see his pale face now. It was too horrible. I found out afterwards the boy had picked up half a Woodbine cigarette and having smoked it had to be carried home in the manner discribed. This incident so altered my outlook on life that I decided their and then to devote my time to an anti-cigarette campaign.

At that time the annual consumption of cigarettes per head was 49.6 now I am glad to say it is only 2.5.

Mr. Johnson forstalled me in his temperance campaign: but I believe the two per cent beer now on sale is far too strong and I hope in time to get it reduced to a fiftieth of one per cent.

But my little fellow workers there is a greater reform which needs our attention. Has it ever struck you that in despite of all that has been done their is still something vitaly wrong with our civilization. I have pondered long in trying to find an answer to the riddle and it is because I believe I have found it that I am here today. (all the ladies clap)

There is something that causes more harm than cigarettes, more unhappiness than strong drink. Something that it behooves every woman to banish from her life. It is a husband. If we would make this planet the ideal place we hope for we woman must start a campaign for our sisters to give up their husbands. it is sad. but its true.

This is not a wild statement but one which I have proved up to the hilt. In the last three months I have asked twelve hundred women their greatest cause of unhappiness and without an exception they have all said their husbands. In no one case have I heard of a husband who was really satisfactory.

If I might do so I would like to ask the opinion of the ladies here of, course for private purposes only, as regards their husbands, Mrs. Seudomonds would you favor me with yours?"

MRS. S.—"Bad, couldn't be worse."

MISS C.—"I am not surprised, Mrs. Braithwaite, would you mind?"

MRS. B.—(putting her handkerchief to her eyes) "I would sooner not talk about him: it is too painful."

MISS. C.—"Never mind my dear your tears tell me more than words could possible do.,, "Mrs. Egleton is it too painful for you to talk about yours?"

MRS. E.—"Painful nothing. it relieves my feelings: if he was only bad I wouldn't mind. One expects that in a man: he's diabolical, you would scarcely believe it, but time after time he goes down to the store of an evening and does not return until nearly ten o'clock.".

MISS CUZNER—"I wonder if men knew the suffering they caused if they would be different? Mrs. Gilchrist how about yours?"

MRS. G.—"Well I must say Reginald might be worse. He often brings me a cup of tea of a mornings before I get up."

MRS. C.—(leaning forward and speaking very intently) "Brings you a cup of tea does he: then I am sorry to tell you Mrs. Gilchrist your husband is one of the worst, he covers his badness with a cloak. Mrs. Gilchrist I can feel some respect for a man who is honestly bad: but none for a man who in one hand, holds a cup of tea, and in the other a dagger to pierce you to the heart. maybe as yet you have not noticed the dagger out, believe me it is there." You see my dear sisters what you have all said only confirms what I have said, namely that husbands are the great obstacle which prevent us women taking our rightful place in the sun. Now have I got you with me? Can I go away from here feeling that the splendid intellects of the Humpty Dumpty Women's Institute are behind me? I can see by your faces that I have. It is well.

Will you call a meetng of all your members and fire them with some of your own zeal in this great cause. Then will generations of women yet unborn come to worship at Humpty Dumpty and when they speak of freedom they shall mean Humpty Dumpty, and when they speak of Humpty Dumpty the world will know they speak of freedom." (Mrs. Cuzner sits down amid vigorous applause).

(Scarcely has it died away when she rises and goes across to Mrs. Seudomonds).

MRS. C.—"My dear if you will excuse me I must be going at once I am due to lecture at a "Childs Welfare Centre," this evening."

MRS. S.—"Must you really be going, couldn't you stop for a cup of tea.

MISS C.—"I am afraid not: much as I should like to I am a servant of the public."

MRS. S.—"Well if you really must go Good bye you can rest assured of our support.

MISS. C.—"Good bye Mrs. Braithwaite.

MRS. B.—"Good bye my dear Mrs. Cuzner: It has been a most inspiring time.

MRS. C.—"Good bye Mrs. Egleton."

MRS. E.—"Good bye. It has been an intellectual treat for us all.

MISS C.—"Good bye, Mrs. Gilchrist" I feel I shall never want a cup of tea again. I am so full of great thought."

MRS. S.—"A perfectly lovely woman."

MRS. B.—"A striking personality."

MRS. E.—"A unique character."

MRS. G.—"Joan of Arc Fought for her country, Miss Cuzner would free her sex."

—CURTAIN—
(End of Scene I.).

—SCENE II.—

Knock at door.

MISS C.— "Come in" (door opens and in comes a rather dirty maid.)

MISS C.—"Well Jane".

MAID—" Mrs. Smith sent me up to say she did not want her house turned into a fryed fish stall, and she said if you was a bit of a high brow you had low ideas, and says she, you tell Miss Cuzner to vacate that room two weeks from today, and says she, you might take the fish and the smell with you,, there I've told you." (as soon as she had finished speaking the maid turned quickly round, and starts to leave the room; suddenly recollecting she pulls a letter out of her pocket "nearly forgot this" she exclaims, flinging letter on the table, and then bouncing out of the room slaming door behind her.

MISS C.—(leaning over a picking up letter) "I really cannot understand Jane's behavior; she does not smoke, drink, nor is she married" (Miss Cuzner having opened the letter reads it aloud.)

My Dear Miss Cuzner (I already feel as if the "Miss" was missing)

MISS C.— (aside) "frivolous old boy".

"Your last letter decided me: something tells me here (I need hardly say that I refer to my heart) that you are my twin soul, it is the mysterious working of providences; how else can it be explained. What I ask made me—as I sat waiting for the chicken mash to warm up—pick up the "Middle West Farmers Friend" and gaze right at your advertisement saying you are single and would consider proposals. "Gee" I said to myself, that girl is modest; she does not ask for a husband; but she just gives a man the right amount of encouragement, and so as you know I just sits down (after having fed the mash) and having some Scotch in me writes for further particulars. Then you writes back and answers all the further particulars in a straightforward manner, and ends up with a bit of poetry.

Now I don't mind telling you it was the poetry that got me. The further particulars went to my head: but the poetry went to my heart, and now Annie I feel all worked up, I wander about all day and don't do nothing, the cow has gone down on her milk and the chickens are not laying (that too when wheat is over four dollars bought through the Farmer's Institute), and so Annie, as a business man with ruin staring him in the face I ask you to marry me. Will you be at Spokane Depot under the clock not later than ten a. m. Saturday next. We will get married and catch the train home in time to feed the chicken before they go to roost.

Annie say yes to a humble, honest

Annie wire reply.

MISS C.—(putting letter back in enevelope) "Yes—Horatio Thedore. A thousand times Yes, It is a clever woman who marries a fool: this is a good chance of her keeping him one. Then a home of her own seems necessary to a woman who is fond of fish, moreover I am not at all certain of the success of my last crusade. So many men are becoming domesticated and so few Chinese are allowed to come into the country." (rising she goes to the door and opens it)

MISS C.—"Jane! Jane!"

JANE—"Wha's the row?"

MISS C.—:"Tell Mrs. Smith I leave

HOW about it? Are you able to keep up to your prescribed task? Is the boss watching your time sheet? Has he reason to think you are slipping back?

The efforts put forth to keep up to the new scale of work in conjunction with "high pressure" mode of life these days soon tells on the strongest system, shatters the nerves and weakens the heart.

Thousands are finding life a burden and others an early grave. The strain on the system causes palpitation of the heart, nervous prostration, sleeplessness, faint and dizzy spells.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills have helped hundreds just in such a condition by making rich new blood, strengthening and regulating the heart, renewing the nerve centres and infusing new life and energy into the system.

This remedy builds up and maintains a healthy, vigorous constitution, according to the testimony of hundreds who have used them.

Mr. Alfred Arsenault, Lot No. 6, P.E.I., writes:—"I was very nervous and run-down, and was so bad I could not sleep at night. I used two boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and I was relieved. That was one year ago, and I have been well ever since."

The Memorial to the Soldiers.

The people of Nelson now have before them three proposals for a memorial to the soldiers who fell at the front.

The choice is between the bluff, the public school grounds and downtown as a site for the memorial. All three proposals have merits, some of which will appeal to some citizens and others to others.

There is a wide difference of opinion both as to the form of the memorial and the site and good judgment has certainly been shown in the decision to take a plebiscite on the question.

No matter which proposal is adopted, the citizens generally can be depended upon to unite in making the campaign to raise funds for the memorial a success. Nelson has lacked a memorial too long.

Some Road Building This Year.

Interest in road construction all over British Columbia is this spring more keen than ever. For nearly seven years there has been practically no new road building in the province. Every year highway construction has lagged farther behind the general development of the province, which has not been inconsiderable in spite of the retardment of development which has resulted from inadequate road communication.

The whole interior particularly is suffering from lack of good roads.

Now that construction costs are down it is naturally hoped that the present year will see a resumption of road building on a large scale. Most of the money must, of course, be raised by provincial bond issues, but the Dominion government is ready to assist to a substantial extent. The special appropriation made several years ago is still awaiting expenditure by this province, which must raise its own share before the money can be released.

Twenty Years Ago Today

(From the Tribune April 1, 1901.)

For some weeks past several railroad men on the C. P. R. have been quietly investigating the sources of what they believe to be an oil spring. It is no breach of confidence now to say that their attention was first attracted by the varied colored hues in the eddies some yards west of what is known in railroad geography as bridge 41, Bonnington falls.

Col. Topping is paying Nelson a visit. There are not many in the city now who knew the colonel when he was one of the pioneer storekeepers, but nearly every one has heard of his connection with the Le Roi in the Rossland camp.

Arrangements are being made to induce Goff and Burns, the pugilists who recently met at Rossland, to visit Nelson and here give an exhibition of the noble art of self-defense. A 20-round bout is suggested.

Efficient Housekeeping

BY Laura A. Kirkman

INTERESTING LETTERS FROM READERS

Young Housekeeper—"Since reading somewhere that kerosene rubbed on windows with a cloth then wiped off with a dry cloth will polish and clean a window beautifully without the use of soap and water, I have tried it and will never again bother with the soap and water method. Of course the old housekeepers of my acquaintance are shocked, but its really not their business! They maintain that it would leave a window greasy—but this is not so; my windows are as bright, shiny and greaseless as anybody's. And I hope other young housekeepers, if you will print this in your column, will follow my example and save themselves trouble through this quicker, easier method.

Two Business Girls—"You might tell your readers of our way of getting around having to polish furniture—when we have no time for such things! We have taken a small place together and have furnished it throughout with willow fruiture; this needs only to be a dusted and yet it is very pretty."

Mother Reader—Here is a supper dish I serve often and which is a family favorite: I put 1 quart of milk in a baking dish and add to it ¼ cup of sugar and 2 cups of grapenuts (not cooked); then I break an egg into the dish, stir it in well and slip the dish into a hot oven. In twenty minutes the grapenuts have swelled and the pudding is soft and solid and ready for the table. Just serve it by the spoonful on a plate like potatoes. Hot cocoa and corn muffins go well with it, with preserves to finish the meal."

Mrs. C. B.—"Thank you for the recipe. In return I will give you a hint which may help other mothers: Since I hung a large map of the world on the nursery wall, the children's studies have been easier for them. For, unconsciously they have absorbed a food idea of the world's bodies of water, sea ports, et cetera. I often overhear them playing a little guessing game they have invented in which one asks the other where a certain country or part of a country lies on the map and the other, without looking on, must answer correctly. As you can see, interest of this sort will teach them much."

Mrs. S. A.—"For years we had our porch painted brown, but last fall my husband tried painting it sand-color and we like it so much better. We find that sand color does not show the dust and mud tracks as the brown did."

Miss E. G.—"My sister has just bought some side-light shades for our sleeping porch which we think are ideal. They are shaped like small square lanterns and are made of parchment with a delicate wooden frame, which is of black-stained wood. The parchment is soft amber in color. We are now going to buy a wire frame and some parchment and water-color paints and try to make a shade for our living room drop-light. We thought you might like to publish this."

Two Readers—"We tried your suggestion of using green and brown side drapes for windows in sunny rooms and using Colonial yellow and rose for this purpose in rooms which do not get the sun. We are so satisfied with our rooms now that we have done this!"

FOSTER'S WEEKLY WEATHER BULLETIN

In a ceaseless round and in a half circle around the magnetic north pole, with more or less regularity, averaging 5.8 days, the master, or male mate, the positive of nature's pair, called the high, driving its other half, the negative, the receeptive, or female, called th low—the two constituting the storm —comes into telegraphic view in the extreme northwest of North America. These two in one are nature's twins, born, live and die together. Should the impulse that produces them cease it would be as disastrous to earth as a heart failure is to human life.

In early part of week centering on April 8 one of these weather makers will appear in Alaska, its warm wave crossing meridian 90 near April 8, its center passing eastward a little south of the Great Lakes and reaching the Atlantic near April 10. Storm wave will follow and cool wave bringing up the rear guard, these weather features being one or two days apart.

This will be an important storm, closing out the old crop-weather period of about 180 days and inaugurating the new of near the same length. That change will determine the 1921 crons and I expect a fair average will result; an average that will be higher than that of 1922.

I regret that, in these general forecasts, it is impossible to give all the desired details. For that reason I have asked every one to study the causes that I am publishing and thereby become able to assist in their own local forecasts. The valleys, ridges, mountains, rivers, have much influence on local weather and the place where the moisture is to be evaporated is the all important cause of the local good and bad crop weather.

One serious error lies in the reader who overlooks the fact that these forecasts are not for inches of fain nor degrees of temperature, but are for above or below the normal, or general daily and monthly averages of each locality. The reader who does not know the general daily and monthly averages of rain, snow, temperature for his locality is too ignorant to understand anything about the weather. In order to understand it is not necessary for you to have any other help than your own sensation to tell you whether it is warmer or colder than the general average. In like manner you certainly should know the general average of rain.

Severe storms are very important, as they cause the rain, snow, frosts, cold, warm, etc. The storm mentioned in this bulletin will cause more rain and greater extreme of temperature than usual in sections where these have occurred during the past five months. But this is the last severe storm that will be controlled by the past weather period. Next severe storm, which will cross meridian 90 during the week centering on April 22, will be controlled by the new weather period which will bring better crop weather to large sections of this continent.

MR. STARKEY UNRESERVEDLY CONTRADICTS MR. HEDLEY

To the Editor of The Daily News:

Sir—May I ask you to be so kind as to publish the following at your earliest convenience?

In the Western Canada Mining, Engineering and Coal Age for March, 1921, an article on silver appears, over the signature of Mr. Robert R. Hedley of Slocan district (more truthfully Vancouver), in which the statement is most barefacedly made that he, Robert R. Hedley, early in December last suggested to the Nelson Board of Trade that the Dominion government should be petitioned to purchase all silver offered, the product of domestic ores, as a means of removing the present condition of stagnation in mining existing in the Kootenays, and further that he prepared a brief on the subject and presented it to me, both of which statements I hereby most emphatically and unreservedly contradict.

Styles BY LENORE

A petite brunette with creamy complexion will look charming in this quaint dress of brown taffeta with the faintest yellow organdie collar to blend with the skin. Drawn snugly to the figure, the old-fashioned little pointed bodice falls but slightly below the normal waistline in the back, where it fastens with a long row of novelty brown buttons. The skirt, which, more than most of the styles, approaches the width that had been promised for the spring dresses, is built up on a series of graduated tucks.

PATTERN NO. 127

A pattern for the above model (No. 127) can be obtained in sizes 34, 36, 38 or 40, by sending to The Daily News your name and address, the number of this pattern and size required, and 25 cents in postage stamps. Be sure to keep this newspaper clipping of the sketch and description of the garment to use as a working model when the pattern reaches you—which will be within two weeks.—The Editor.

84 Per Cent. of all Failures Were Non-Advertisers

These are the 1920 figures of the big commercial agencies.

They are interesting stastistics, yet there is nothing remarkable in the facts disclosed.

The concern that advertises recognizes that advertising is the greatest and cheapest selling force we have today.

And moreover, the advertising is in itself evidence of business life. It is enthusiasm for quality and service bubbling out into print.

All advertising does not succeed. Sometimes it is badly done. Advertising in the right place, at the right time, backed by the right goods will invariably win.

The foundation of advertising success is picking the right markets and the right medium. The national advertiser who starts on this basis plans intelligently and has the battle half won.

The right medium for reaching the largest number of customers, at the lowest cost, in any market, is the daily newspaper.

CONSIDER SITE OF NEW HIGH SCHOOL

Trail Board Engages Architect; Will Shortly Call for Tenders.

TRAIL, April 1.—The regular meeting of the school board was held in the city hall on Wednesday night, those present being Chairman G. R. Thompson and Messrs. Oughtred, Tyson, Dockerill and Williamson and Secretary Moneypenny.

In reference to the appointment of a janitress for the East Trail school Mr. Tyson suggested that in future any similar vacancies should be made public to permit any persons so desiring to submit their applications, this being agreed by the board.

Correspondence with other cities showed that the cost per year for medical examination of school pupils is: Nelson, 871 pupils, $500; Rossland, 575 pupils, $180; Trail paid last year $596 for 596 pupils.

A letter was read from the superintendent of education stating that Mr. Kyle will shortly visit Trail to confer with the board in reference to the proposed technical and high schools.

A telegram was also received from the minister of education stating that the government is prepared to contribute toward the construction of the high school and 50 per cent toward the technical school.

In reply to a letter from Messrs. Bell & Curtis re building plans the secretary was instructed to advise that the board has engaged the services of an architect and that tenders for construction of the building will be called for in due course and thanking them for their many courtesies in connection with the plans submitted.

The secretary reported that arrangements have been made with Mrs. F. J. Morrish to take over the Central school class of Miss Verchere to complete the term from Easter to midsummer, Miss Verchere having resigned.

A letter from M. A. H. Hopkins advising gongs of not less than eight inches diameter for fire alarms was read and a committee was appointed to have fire alarms installed in all the schools without delay.

C. A. Broderick, architect for the proposed high school building, submitted a report on the suitability of the several sites under consideration for that purpose and submitted an estimate of the difference sin costs of construction for each site.

A lengthy and exhaustive discussion took place as to the advantages of each location and a committee, consisting of the chairman and Mr. Dockerill, was appointed to make further investigation and report back to the board.

The same committee was instructed to interview the tenant of house on present school site re purchase of all or part of site.

Accounts totaling $4201.71 were submitted and approved for payment.

MILITARY WHIST PROVES SUCCESS

Enthusiasm Grows to Frenzied Finish at Veterans' Social Evening.

SLOCAN CITY, April 1.—On Easter Monday evening the Slocan Valley branch of the G. W. V. A. held a military whist drive in the I. O. O. F. hall. Many drove in from nearby ranches to attend. Over 100 people were present.

As it was the first military whist drive held here some of the players at the onset not understanding the game were not enthusiastic, but after a hand or two had been played and flags won and lost more eagerness was displayed until at the end it wound up with Mrs. William Kirby, Mr. and Mrs. R. Casley and Harold Swan, who represented Japan, winning in a perfect frenzy of excitement.

After the ladies' auxiliary had served refreshments generously to all present a number of cakes left over were auctioned. J. T. Tipping proved a very able auctioneer, enticing from the public a goodly sum to swell the coffers of the G. W. V. A.

Dancing till early morning brought the entertainment to a close.

Financially and socially it was a complete success, due to the efforts of Comrades J. W. Crom, Harry Graham, Howard Parker, William Harris, Joseph Greenwood and the ladies of the district generally. Mrs. Howard Parker presided at the piano, E. Graham accompanying with his trap drums. Mrs. Tallant and Miss Sweedeburg played a few extras.

SOUTH SLOCAN NOTES

SOUTH SLOCAN, April 1.—The fortnightly meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary was held on Monday, March 21, Mrs. Murray in the chair. Arrangements were made for the sale of work to be held on today.

After the business of the meeting a social hour was spent. Mrs. Murray and Mrs. Georges were hostesses for tea.

St. Matthew's church was beautifully decorated for Easter with daffodils and lilies. Rev. W. Ramsay officiated at the service, at which there was a large congregation.

The Cinderella dancing class held a very enjoyable dance in the hall on Easter Monday. Mrs. Ashby and Miss Brown were in charge of affairs.

Miss Lillian Oats of Nelson is the guest of Mrs. E. Watts today.

Big Fight Offers Ruse to Keep Ball Rolling; Jersey City the Venue

MONTREAL, April 1—All the talk about considering a new offer from Montreal to hold the Carpentier-Dempsey fight here appears to be little more than another scheme to keep the ball rolling. That the fight would definitely go to Jersey City, was the statement made by Jack Kearns to a well known sporting promoter of this city over long distance telephone today before Dempsey's manager left New York for the west. This promoter is a man who made the best offer made by Montreal yet, and had a chance of "pulling off" the battle outside of the city.

Regarding the third offer said to have been made by Montreal interests, it is understood that he bid was no high enough. Though it is reported in New York that Montreal men will confer with Rickard, next week, it is doubtful if the matter will go that far.

NEW YORK, April 1.—Tex Rickard, promoter of the Dempsey-Carpentier contest, declined today to comment on a dispatch from Montreal stating that the bout would be staged in Jersey City.

Red Cross Associations to Gather Complaints Against Belligerents During War

GENEVA, April 1.—The Red Cross assembly, which held its closing session here today, adopted a proposal by R. G. Bennett of Canada to nominate a commission to gather complaints of national Red Cross associations during the next six months against the belligerents during the war.

The commission, which will be composed of six of the most prominent delegates to the assembly and representatives of Holland, Switzerland, Spain, Sweden and Norway and Denmark, all neutral during the war, will get expanations from the various governments and publish its conclusions.

REMITS LASHES IN DRUG ADDICT CASE

Returned Men Secure Remission of Corporal Punishment for Kehoe.

VANCOUVER, April 1.—The sentence of 24 lashes on Joseph Kehoe, confessed holdup man serving a prison term here, has been remitted by the governor-general. A telegram from Ottawa tonight informs the United Soldiers' council that his excellency has canceled the sentence so far as corporal punishment is concerned, in view of the representations which the returned men here have made to him.

Medical men's evidence at a rehearing of Kehoe's case proved that Kehoe was in a subnormal state of health as a consequence of his addiction to drugs. The magistrate's sentence aroused great indignation amongst returned men here and aroused a general protest against what is alleged to be wholesale trafficking in opium on the Pacific coast.

It is feared the little lad ventured out on the thin ice of the creek and his body was carried away by the current.

DAME PETER LAMARRE

Pointe St. Pierre, P. Q.

"I think it my duty to tell you how much your medicine has done for me. I suffered for three years with terrible Eczema. I consulted several doctors and they did not do me any good.

Then, I used one box of 'Sootha-Salva' and two boxes of 'Fruit-a-tives' and my hands are now clear. The pain is gone and there has been no return. I think it is a marvellous cure because no other medicine did me any good and I tried all the remedies I ever heard of, without benefit until I used 'Sootha-Salva' and 'Fruit-a-tives.'

'Fruit-a-tives' cooled the blood and removed the cause of the disease, and 'Sootha-Salva' completed the cure."

INCOME TAX IS DUE THIS MONTH

Dominion Statute Fixes Staggering Penalties for Non-Compliance.

Penalties of $120 per day became operative yesterday on seven classes of federal income tax payers who were supposed to have filed their returns on the last day of March.

Other penalties of an addition of 25 per cent to the tax will be imposed on the ordinary individuals who fail to file their returns by April 30. When filing their returns, they must remit at least 25 per cent of the tax, and pay similar instalments by June 30, August 31 and October 31. Failure to pay at least 25 per cent on any of these occasions will mean a special penalty each time of $5. Interest on deferred payments is apparently calculated from April 30.

The heaviest penalties of all are incurred by those who understate their incomes. This drastic clause of the act reads: "If the income omitted exceeds 10 per cent of the correct income, but is under 20 per cent, such person shall pay an additional amount equal to one-half of the deficiency. If the deficiency amounts to 20 per cent or more of the correct income, such person shall pay an additional amount equal to the amount of the deficiency." Thus, on an income of $2,000, if the return stated $1,600, the deficiency would be 20 per cent, and the whole deficiency of $400 could be collected as penalty.

Married Have Larger Exemption

All unmarried persons whose gross incomes exceed $1,000, and all married persons whose gross incomes exceed $2,000, are required to file the returns. All incomes upon which returns are made are those that were enjoyed in 1920.

The returns that should have been in by March 31 are:

Of income, required from trustees, executors, administrators, etc.

From employers, showing salaries, wages, commissions, fees, bonuses, and all other remuneration of directors, officials, agents, etc., who received $500 during the year, or who are paid at a rate equal to $1,000 per annum.

Of amounts paid to operators of threshing and tractor outfits.

From persons purchasing agricultural products, railway ties, pulpwood, lumber, fish, furs and other commodities direct from the producer.

Dividends paid out by corporations during the calendar year.

From persons paying interest on bonds, notes, mortgages, loans, etc.

Of interest, dividends and rents received by financial and real estate agents, brokers and other persons on behalf of clients.

There is a special return for farmers and ranchers, and one for corporations and joint stock companies.

Forms may be obtained from D. O. Thomas, assistant inspector of taxation, Nelson, or from any postmaster.

Nelson Veterans Will Issue Propaganda on After-Treatment of Ex-Patitents

Steps are being taken by the special committee of the Nelson G. W. V. A. on treatment of tuberculosis, to bring before various organizations the proposal for special post-sanatorium treatment, which the branch is placing before the provincial and Dominion governments. All organizations whose scope could conceivably include representations on this subject will be asked to consider the matter.

The resolution which the committee drafted for submission to the provincial and Dominion governments, is as follows.

"Whereas, a considerable number of tubercular cases break down again after discharge from sanatoria, thus creating the necessity of a further, and, in many instances, a longer period of retreatment; and

"Whereas, these cases breaking down after return to private life must constitute a menace to public health if allowed to mingle with people at large; and

"Whereas, there is no provision at present in this province for the proper supervision of discharged tubercular patients; and that, in many cases, these patients are financially unable to provide for themselves the necessary precautions against the danger of infection amongst their families and friends.

"The Nelson branch of the G. W. V. A. is strongly of the opinion that some form of post-sanatorium care is absolutely necessary if the advance made in sanatoria is not only to be maintained, but also improved.

"Therefore, be it resolved, that the governments be asked to seriously consider some form of colony scheme that will give these discharged tubercular patients an opportunity to carry on light outdoor work, under competent supervision, such as truck gardening, poultry and bee keeping, and the raising of small fruits.

"It is felt that as the kind of buildings necessary for those suffering from tuberculosis need to be of the simplest type only, the outlay for a colony scheme would be reasonable and the results obtained would be of incalculable value."

YOUNG HIKERS TEMPT FATE, BUT ARE IMMUNE

A special providence must have watched over a party of Y. M. C. A. boys that went for a hike to Cottonwood lake yesterday morning in charge of Captain W. T. Tait. There were thirteen in the party of Friday hikers, all of whom saw a magpie en route and yet returned safe from any mishap. Possibly the fact that it was April 1 had something to do with their immunity. At any rate the boys had a great old time all the way. They left at 9 o'clock, discovered that Cottonwood lake was still frozen over, gazed longingly at some fine trout in the stream leaving the lake, had an alfresco meal, and then returned to the city, arriving at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon. They all boasted it was just as good fun as when a similar party hiked to Troup Junction on Good Friday, took their lunches along and played ball at the junction.

HUNDREDS THRONG FETE OF NATIONS

West Meets East in Cosmopolitan Gathering at Methodist Church.

Over 600 people thronged the hall of the Fate of Nations at the Methodist church yesterday afternoon and evening and jostled shoulders with gipsies, Welsh and Irish men and women in national costume, Italian girls. Doukhobors, Indians, Chinese and Japanese and others all dressed and colored true to life and all busy selling their wares from the Orient, from Europe, and even from the hustling factories of everyday Canada. From meditative Chinese tea houses to their Japanese prototypes, and to the gaily decorated booths and stalls, they meandered, picking up bargains, indulging in social chat over their cafeteria style refreshments or else observing the cosmopolitan panorama spread before them.

In the evening a concert program was put on in which a sketch, "The Bulwarks of Britain," vied for popularity with Japanese fan drills, recitations. Among other solos were recitaitnos. Among others solos were sung by Miss Genievive Walley, and Gordon Keatley. Miss Freda Hume was one of the elocutionists.

Mrs. A. Higginbotham was the general convenor of the affair. The program committee consisted of the Misses E. Hanna, I. Steed, E. Ferguson. N. Oxley, and Annette Higginbotham. Those in charge of the different booths were: Chinese booth Mesdames W. E. Wasson and R. L. Norman; Canadian booth and cafateria, Mrs. N. Fallis and Mrs. A. Higginbotham; Japanese booth, Miss E. Etter; fishpond. Marjorie Keron and Frances U'Ren; bake sale booth, Mesdames A. G. Lambert and J. Kettlewell; fancy work booth, Mesdames H. Amas and J. C. Grummett.

Mrs. A. Brown, of Mill street, returned to the city from Kaslo, yesterday where she has been spending a few days on vacation.

H. A. Lowe of this city, has returned from a three month's absence, during which he visited relatives in and around London, England.

TO BE DYSPEPTIC

IS TO BE MISERABLE

The poor dyspeptic suffers untold agony after every meal, and any one who has dyspepsia knows what joy it would give to eat three square meals a day and not be punished for it after. Nearly everything that enters the weak stomach acts as an irritant, and even the little that is eaten causes such torture and is digested so imperfectly that it does little good.

Before you can eat heartily, and not pick and choose your food, you must put your stomach into such a condition that it will manufacture its own digestive ferments.

For over forty years Burdock Blood Bitters has been toning up and restoring weak stomachs to a normal healthy condition so that the food no longer causes distress, but is thoroughly digested and assimilated, and enables one to partake of all the wholesome food required without fear of any unpleasant after effects.

Mrs. Alice Becknorth, Fesserton, Ont., writes:—"I have been a great sufferer from indigestion and dyspepsia for several years. I could not eat anything without almost dying from the pain in the pit of my stomach. Seeing Burdock Blood Bitters highly recommended I tried a bottle, and can gladly say it relieved me. I can eat anything now, and am in perfect health."

A third collection of ores from this district, at Seattle, made for the convention there last year, will also be at Portland, taken by Milnor Roberts, dean of the faculty of mining of Washington university.

Mr. Starkey and J. W. Mulholand will leave for Portland today. It is expected that the numerous Slocan contingent will include Pat Maguire and W. H. North. S. S. Fowler is down on the program for an address.

ROBERTSON WINS CHAMPIONSHIP

Defeats Smyth's Rink in Final of Local Curling Club's Tournament.

Winning the curling tournament final by a margin of 44 pins at the Y. M. C. A. bowling alleys yesterday, the rink skipped by Hugh W. Robertson seized the championship of the Nelson Curling club and all the honors that go with the distinction. Herculean efforts were made by Skip Smyth to stave off defeat, but his splendid work—he made the no mean total of 221 for 10 frames—was unavailing to pull his rink out of the hole. The game was the windup to the club tournament which started three months ago at the curling rink and was continued as a bowling contest on the disappearance of ice. The results were:

TENNIS TO START EARLY THIS YEAR

Courts Probably Ready in Fortnight; Club Fixes the Closing Date for Members.

At a meeting of the committee of Nelson Tennis club held last night the list of intending members was reviewed and found to be so satisfactory that with the limited playing accommodation available it was considered the courts could only take care of a few more members.

In view of this fact the committee decided to fix April 15 as the last date on which applications for membership should be received.

On this date it is hoped some of the courts will be in condition for play. H. A. Lowe, the secretary of the club has returned and will receive applications up to the date fixed.

PROVINCE CASE NOT YET FILED

Chairman Brown of Freight Committee Will Pursue Inquiries.

That particulars of the British Columbia application for freight rate revision have not yet been filed with the railway commission, is the information wired to Commissioner Fred A. Starkey, of the Associated Boards of Trade, by the assistant secretary of the railway commission.

Mr. Starkey's request for information was wired Tuesday night, as follows:

"Would appreciate copies of all applications made by government solicitor on behalf of board of trade, Vancouver, and date of hearing such applications. Interior is very vitally interested."

The answer just received is as follows:

"Your night lettergram 29th, G. G. McGeer, Standard Bank building Vancouver, is government solicitor on behalf board of trade, Vancouver. He had not yet filed particulars of his applications. Would suggest you communicate with him regarding copies."

If the submission of a separate case on behalf of the upper country becomes necessary, the duty of submitting it will probably devolve on the Nelson board of trade, which has usually handled such matters in the past.

Chairman George A. Brown, of the freight and transportation committee, wrote last night to Mr. McGeer, the government's counsel asking for information as to the exact representations he proposes to make.

"It is quite possible," said Mr. Brown last night, "that the views to be officially put forward from the coast will be such as we can heartily agree with. On the other hand, they may be such as would justify us in making representations on our own behalf. At the present time I am following up the lead of Mr. Starkey, in seeking information.

"When I have definite information, it will be laid before the board, and it will of course be for the board to determine the course to be pursued thereafter."

If the hearing on British Columbia's application falls on either of the dates already announced for hearing of the Canadian Freight association's application for revision of classification 17, it will take place either next Wednesday, or on the following Monday at Victoria, during the period of international mining convention at Portland.

CITY FIRE DEPARTMENT GETS HURRY UP CALL

Sparks escaping from a chimney of the Strathcona hotel ignited the shingles on a roof at the rear of the building and caused a hurry up turnout of the city's fire department yesterday noon. The rapidly spreading flames were speedily brought under control and extinguished after one or two yards of shingles had been torn off the roof by the firemen.

It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Any one who has Catarrhal Deaefness or head noises should give this prescription a trial.

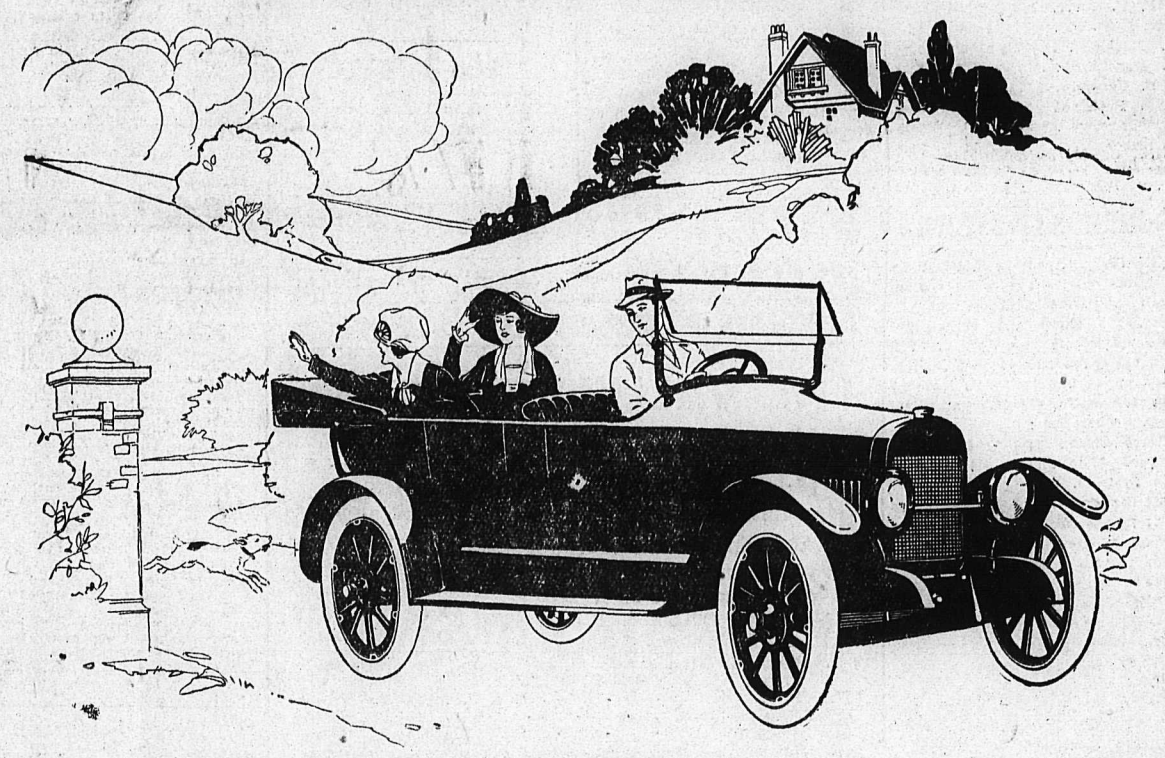
GRAY-DORT

Its Value Is Intentional



EACH added Gray-Dort which goes into use serves not only to provide fresh evidence as to the quality of the car, but also emphasizes anew the high ideals of the Institution which builds it.

A surprising majority of the thousands of motorists who have selected the Gray-Dort as the biggest value in the motor car field tell us that the reputation of the men responsible for the car has been the most important factor in their choice.

And this is natural, because only by deliberately intending to give heaping value could we hope to produce such a car as the Gray-Dort at its price.

START WORK ON WESTLEY YARD

This is the yard that will handle the company's output on the Lower Arrow.

The company has 55,000 poles in the Fire valley, at points eight and 12 miles up, waiting for the big drive down Inanoaklin creek and by flume over the famous falls at Edgewood. The drive, which General Manager A. C. Yoder expects to start in about two weeks, will consume approximately 40 days.

Markets and Finance

LOSSES CHIEFLY FEATURE MARKET

Confusing Conditions and Wavering Tendencies Produce Irregular Close.

NEW YORK, April 1.—In its salient and more material characteristics, trading on the stock exchange today covered the ground made more or less familiar by recent confusing and wavering tendencies, losses predominating at the irregular close.

Trading was most active in the last hour, when heavy selling of Atlantic Gulf at a net loss of 6½ points was the outstanding feature. Oils as a class were heavy throughout, the so-called Doheny group reacting one to three points with General Asphalt, Texas company, Royal Dutch and others of less prominence.

Studebaker, Harvester and United Drug at net gains of 1 to 5½ points comprised the few elements of comparative strength.

Sales amounted to 575,000 shares.

Time funds evinced a firmer tne on less liberal offerings and labor conditions here and abroad became more involved or unsettled.

London's markets were depressed by the strike of the coal miners and the decision of the Manchester spinners to continue short time in mills and use United States cotton, was not without effect on that staple in home markets.

Dealings in foreign exchange were curtailed and rates on London and other European centers were inclined to ease.

The bond market was dull; Pennsylvania 6½s made another low record at 95¾. Liberty issues and foreign war flotations were mixed.

Total sales $8,750,000.

MONTREAL LIST

MONTREAL, April 1—A new record turnover for the year was registered today on the local exchange, and on this, a few stocks were prominent by reason either of substantial gains or losses, but the bulk of the list was notable only for its extreme dullness and lack of feature.

The largest gain was scored by Bell Telephone, which netted 4¼ points, including its dividend at 108. Dominion Textile moved up a point to 120, while Royal Bank advanced a point to 292.

Sugar was the least inactive stock, dealings amounting to 655 shares with selling more urgent than buying and the price registered a net decline of 1¼ points. Smelters were third in activity and sold at 16, a new low for the year, and a net loss of a large fraction from Thursday.

The bond list was without change. Total sales—Listed 2893 shares; bonds $209,900.

TORONTO BOARD

TORONTO, April 1.—Continued strength in Duluth-Superior and Twin City on the local exchange today was still accompanied by no adequate explanation. Duluth's advance was 1⅛ to 19⅛, while Twin, after selling up to 48, closed at 47½ a gain of 1¼.

Papers were inactive.

Canadian Pacific railway firm up and closed ¼ higher at 128¼.

General Electric preferred was Another slight loss occurred in the Another slight loss occurred in the 1934 Victory bond, which closed at 94¼, the low for the day. This brings the yield on this victory up to 6.12. It is said that a number of loan companies have been releasing victory bonds of late in order to get money to meet the demand for mortgage loans. Some industrials have also disposed of holdings.

EGG MARKET

OTTAWA, April 1.—It is reported that cables have been received from Great Britain offering 16 shillings per ten dozen for eggs, which figures out at about 35 cents. This price is too low to allow any profit to the exporter.

BRINGING UP FATHER

By George McManus

MONDAY'S RESULT HARD TO GUESS

Thursday's Game Inclines Opinion to Back Coast; Plenty Support Senators.

VANCOUVER, April 1.—Never was a hockey game harder to "dope" than that which will be played here on Monday evening next to decide the championship of professional hockey. This seems to be the concensus of opinion in hockey fandom tonight, following one of the most exciting games seen on this coast, when the Vancouver Millionaires, last night, defeated the Ottawa Senators in the fourth game of the world's series, and prevented the eastern champions from closing the series with a three-to one claim to the Stanley cup.

A bewildering bout of quick thinking and quick acting it was. Spectators were kept on the edge of their seats by a display of speed and finesse, in which both teams shared the credit for tip-top play. Both teams also shared the blame for the rough tactics which unfortunately predominated and alone marred the exhibition.

Monday's game will be seven-man hockey under western rules. Both teams will be at full strength, it is expected, and the odds would seem to be in favor of the coast champions, at their own game and on home ice. But Ottawa has carried off one game under western rules in this series, and allowing for local prejudice, there is a lot of opinion here at this stage of the series that the Ottawa Senators will keep the Stanley cup for another season.

Upward of 36,000 persons have witnessed the series so far. Monday's game will almost certainyl bring out a bunch of fans that wil pack the arena to its 10,000 capacity and shake its rafters with their cheers.

SOCCER PLAYERS ARE SCEPTICAL

Want to Know Financial Details of Scottish Team's Dominion Tour.

MONTREAL, April 1.—Regarding the forthcoming Scottish football tour, the Star today says:

"Soccer people in his part of the country are still a bit skeptical about the financial arrangements for the Scottish team trip, a feeling fanned into flame by the insistence of President McNeill, of the Dominion Football association on a flat one dollar admission fee. They think this is injudicious in view of the many soccer followers who have been out of work.

"They also still look upon the thing, on account of delayed detailed information to the contrary, as a private business enterprise of Messrs McNeill and Roy and not only want to know at once in detail what will become of the financial surplus of the tour after the Scottish team's expenses are paid, and hat guarantee they have that they will get a fair share of the surplus and that the expense account will not be extravagant, but will probably insist on having the debts which the Dominion Football association owes to the province of Quebec football association, some $500, taken as a first lien, out of the receipts in this city."

DOMINION TRADE

WINNIPEG, April 1 (Canadian Press)—The general trade situation throughout Canada might be summed up in two words, "gradual improvement," states the weekly trade report of the Canadian Credit Men's Trust association.

Montreal an Quebec province advices state that wholesale houses are finding the improvement maintained but more gradual than expected. The improvement is by no means general. Merchants seem to be buying very carefully, and ordering in small lots only. Costume manufacturers are, however, busy and of the other trades, boots and shoes report an improvement.

Weather in the east has, as a whole been fair and springlike and merchants report a good Easter business which, although slowing up a little after the holidays, seems to be continuing, so that he wholesale trade as a whole, is optimistic.

Winnipeg and Manitoba province find trade a little better in the larger cities and towns, but still quiet in country towns, mainly owing to heavy snows.

The change to springlike weather which has taken place this week is expected to have a beneficial effect on business.

Saskatchewan and Alberta trade is still quiet. Merchants in these two provinces are, as a rule, still endeavoring to sell on the old basis rather than on replacement values.

Collections throughout Canada are still slow.
