ALLIANCE HAS INFLUENCE ON DISARMAMENT

Anglo-Japanese Treaty Big Question Before Imperial Conference This Week.

POSITION OF CHINA IMPORTANT FACTOR

Meighen Holds to Cardinal Principle of Cooperation With United States.

LONDON, June 26.—(By Grattan O'Leary, staff correspondent of the Canadian Press)—With the coming week, the conference of prime ministers faces its crucial test, indeed, in the opinion of the most competent observers here, the decisions which the assembled heads of the Empire take within the next few days may well mark the turning point in the course of international affairs. This is not the one great hope for progress of the Anglo-Japanese alliance. They contend, and their voice appears to grow steadily in strength, that the one great hope for progress toward disarmament is an anglo-American-Japanese alliance.

Would Stimulate Naval Race

In support of their views they declare it to be inconceivable that the United States, faced with an Anglo-Japanese treat, will do other than carry out a stupendous naval program such as some of its leaders have proposed, this, in turn, compelling Great Britain and Japan to enter upon a madder race for naval supremacy. Nor is this school impressed by the claim put forward by Premier Hubhes of Australia, and others, that it would be possible to modify the alliance in such a way as will make it acceptable to the United States and of all others concerned. No matter what guarantees are given the United States, they argue, there will always remain room for doubt and suspicion, and the question is asked, what would Englishmen think if a special military alliance were being made between Japan and the United States?

Then, of course, there is ahe position of China. Under the Anglo-Japanese treaty as it exists, Great Britian would be forced to go to war with any country throwing its lot against Japan, or in the event of the latter engaging in war with some other nation. The United States, of course, is excepted from this treaty, but China is not, and opponents of the treaty are wondering what would happen if, in the event of war between the United States and Japan, China arrayed herself on the side of the United States.

That the possibility of such a development is not remote wsa made clear by Bertram Lennox Simpson, political adviser to the president of China and one of the most interesting personalities here watching the conference.

Indicates World Tangle

"The Anglo-Japanese alliance embraces the proposition that China is a subordinate nation," says Mr. Simpson, "and its renewal will create a feeling of tremendous unrest among the Chinese people. Renewal of the alliance will compel China to make defensive preparations, and it is not unnatural to expect the United States will assist her, if she sees that Chinese opinion is with her. Should such a condition present itself, a tangle will be produced threatening the peace of the world. Undoubtedly in the event of war between Japan and the United States, China would almost inevitably be

This took the form of unveiling a small model train. There will be eight cars on the exhibition train and one of them, showing the music, art, literature, education and theology of France, will be in charge of Senator Rallond Poincaire, ex-president of France. Others will be devoted to colonization, silk work, chemistry and perfumes, scientiele instruments, agricultural implements and jewelry.

TROTSKY SEES NAVAL WAR IN THREE YEARS

Predicts Conflict Between Britain and States Arising From Rivalry.

LONDON, June 26.—A naval war between the United States and Great Britain as a result of maritime rivalry will occur in 1924, according to a prediction made by Leon Trotzky, the Bolshevik minister of war, in addressing the Third Internationale at Moscow Friday, says a dispatch to the Daily Herald, the labor organ, from Moscow.

"A swollen gourmand" was Trotzkys description of the United States, while he declared Great Britain was losing her position of world significance and the pound sterling has been vanquished by the almighty dollar.'

RAID ATHLETIC CLUB AT COAST

Seize Bottled Beer Purchased on Permit From Government Vendor.

VANCOUVER, June 26.—The Scotia Athletic club of Vancouver was raided early this morning and two barrels of bottled beer were seized by the dry squad of the city police. Leonard Frank, who was in charge of the club bar, was arrested and charged with selling liquor illegally He stated that the beer which the club is alleged to have been selling over the bar was purchased from the government vendors who were aware of its destination. The purchase was made on an individual permit.

The Scotia club is the first to be raided in Vancouver since the Moderation act came into effect.

SOCIALISTS OPPOSE WORKERS' DICTATION

DETROIT, June 26.—Seized with what Morris Hillquit described as a "homocidal mania," the Socialist convention today killed three resolutions which sought in varying terms to define dictatorship by the proletariat, as a part of the Socialist policy and then overwhelmed two others which asserted dictatorship is not at this time an issue. A session which lasted three hours and a half in a sweltering hall ended with all reference to working class dictation barred from the party policy.

The fight against inclusion of the dictatorship was waged by Morris Hillquit, Victor Berger, Algernon Lee and Cameron King of California. They branded it as inseparably linked in the public mind with the red terror in Russia, and declared it was useless to fix a policy which never would be called into play unless in some distant future a Socialist revolution took place.

One resolution received only four votes and the second eight votes. The convention will continue tomorrow.

INVITE TENDERS FOR WOODEN BARQUENTINES

VICTORIA, June 26.....—Tenders are to be invited next week from British Columbia shipbuilders by the Dominion government for the completion of the wooden barquentines started at the Cholberg shipyard under an agreement between the federal authorities and the Victoria (B. C.) Shipowners, Ltd.

SUGGESTS INVITATIONS TO BRITISH COLUMBIA

VICTORIA, June 26.—The idea of the publicity organizations of Victoria and Vancouver to have a special British Columbia week set aside durinb which business firms and individuals would be asked to write to friends and other persons all over the continent and invite them to British Columbia, was declared to be a good one by the provincial government Saturday at a meeting of the executive.

The government, however, decided that it should hesitate in making this plant the subject of fan official government pronouncement.

POLICE AGAIN RAID VETERANS

Fernie Force Seizes Six Kegs; Query Whether Beer or Water.

FERNIE, June 26.—Owing to the defiant attitude of the management of the local G. W. V. A. club and its members relative to the situation developed from the proceedings under the Government Liquor act during last week, and the receipt yesterday by the major from the Victoria authorities, Chief Lawson, aided by a detachment of constables, instituted a second search of the club premises and seized a keg of beer on tap in the club bar and five other apparently unopened beer kegs stored therein.

Another charge will be preferred at once, it is stated, which upon conviction, renders the club liable to a minimum fine of $4000.

The unequivocal position now assumed by the Liquor Control board, and its solemn pledge to cooperate with the city authorities here as to the observance of the law as it now stands, it is stated by the latter, leaves no alternative but to follow the procedure adopted, and this the city intends to do.

While the outward attitude to the city exhibited by the G. W. V. A. has not receded, following yesterday's seizure, many of its members were responsible for the statement that the kegs appropriated by the police contained nothing more harmful than water.

Chief Lawson when questioned as to this possibility said as to the contents of the whole he would not affirm or deny a solution. But he had personally sampled the contents of the keg on tap and he was positive from sufficient general knowledge to positively declare it was beer.

Up to Local Authorities.

VANCOUVER, June 26.—Commissioner James H. Falconer of the liquor control board, upon his return from Victoria tonight, stated that so far as he knew the board had given no special authority for the charges against the Fernie G. W. V. A. and the Scotia club of Vancouver.

"I know nothing about these prosecutions," he said. "The enforcement of the act is up to the local authorities."

RATES HIGHER THAN UNDERWOOD TARIFF

WASHINGTON, June 26—(By Canadian Press)—The general level of the duties in the new permanent tariff revision bill will be slightly below the rates of the old Payne-Aldrich tariff of 1909, according to members of the house ways and means committee. They will be much higher than in the present Underwood tariff.

In some special instances the rates will even exceed those of the Payne-Aldrich measure.

The bill will be introduced probably next Wednesday and will be taken up in the house after July 24.

SUBMIT REPORT ON WATERWAYS

United States and Canadian Engineers Embody Results of Investigation.

DETROIT, June 26.—The report of Colonel W. P. Wooten, a United States engineer, and W. A. Bowden, Canadian engineer, as to the feasibility of a St. Lawrence waterway, will be taken to Washington by Colonel Wooten this week, and handed to the international joint commission, the officer announced here today.

Col. Wooten said the report dealt with all phases of the waterway project and was the results of 14 months of investigation by the two engineers and their assistants. The reports state that the whole project of providing an ocean-going steamship waterway from Lake Ontario to Montreal can be built for approximately $250,000,000 and that 1,750,000 horse power from the waterfall can be developed at the 10 locks planned.

The waterway is to be about 120 miles long, from a point opposite Prescott, Ont., and Ogdensburg, N. Y., to Montreal. It provides for the passage of ocean steamships as far west as Chicago and Duluth. Plans are submitted for water ways of two different depths, 25 feet and 30 feet.

The survey proposed four schemes for the improvement. These are:

By means of locks and navigation dams in the river.

By means of locks and side canals.

By a combination of these two methods.

By means of locks and power dams.

The report favors a combination of all four plans, declaring, in this manner, more than twice the power now developed at Niagara Falls can be developed. The report says that this power would pay for the entire project in a few years. Two important canals cutting off large bends in the river at Iriquois and Morisburg are projected. These will be an average of 300 feet wide at the bottom and will be entirely separated from the present canals around the rapids at these points. It is at these points and at Lake St. Louis above Montreal, that the principal power plants will be located.

One of the most favored plans calls for 48 power units of 400,000 horsepower, each developing about one-third of the theoretical power of the St. Lawrence, said to be about 5,000,000 horse power. Regulation of the levels of Lake Ontario and the discharge of the St. Lawrence river is provided for.

The capital cost and the development and maintenance of the water ways will be divided between Canada and the United States. An important consideration in the report is the effect the project will have on increasing the low water flow in the St. Lawrence ship canal. It is claimed that the regulation of the discharge of Lake Ontario will prevent some of the trouble existing there at present.

Greeks Decline Allies' Offer of Mediation in Trouble With Turks

ATHENS, June 26.—The note declining the offer of France, Great Britain and Italy to mediate in the trouble between the Turks and the Greeks in Asia Minor, says Greece finds herself in a position in which military interests must guide her conduct and decisions. An abandonment of the offensive against the Turks, it says, would compromise and prejudice the position of Greece and give courage to the Turks. The note adds that Greece will be ready to hear concrete proposals from the allies during every phase of the operations, and she hopes to obtain definite terms from the Turks.

Weather Ideal for Heavy Polling; Sharp Clashes Between Candidates.

CALGARY, June 26.—Weather conditions are ideal for a very heavy vote in the byelection in Medicine Hat riding tomorrow to elect a federal member in place of the Hon. A. L. Sifton. During the past week interest has been keyed up by sharp clashes between Candidates Cardiner and Spencer and their respective supporters. Mr. Danielski has been commissioned to select an area of about 30,000 acres of land in Manitoba, where mixed farming can be carried on.

It is the intention to bring into Canada probably 20,000 of these United States Poles and settle them on lands where they will engage solely in agricultural pursuits, Mr. Danielski declared. The company will extend its work into Ontario, Saskatchewan and Alberta and the movement will be large, he said.

FOLLOWS KING'S APPEAL FOR IRISH RECONCILIATION WITH INVITATIONS TO CONFERENCE

De Valera Asked to Come to London With Selected Colleagues Under Safe Conduct in Final Efforts at Solution.

SUMMONS MEETING OF ULSTER CABINET

General Feeling in North Ireland Demands Limitation of Discussion Expressly Excluding Question of Any Republic.

LONDON, June 26.—Dispatches Saturday announced that Mr. Lloyd George had sent a letter to both Eamonn De Valera, the Sinn Fein leader, and Sir James Craig, the Ulster premier, declaring the British government to be deeply anxious that King George's appeal for reconciliation in Ireland should not have been made in vain. The letter appealed for a conference between representatives of the government of northern and southern Ireland so that the opportunity for a settlement should not be lost.

The prime minister's letter to De Valera is dated June 24, and reads:

"The British government is deeply anxious that, as far as they can assure it, the King's appeal for reconciliation shall not have been made in vain. Rather than allow another opportunity for settlement in Ireland to be cast aside, they feel it incumbent on them to make a final appeal in the spirit of the King's words for a conference between themselves and representatives of southern Ireland.

"I write, therefore, to convey the following invitation to you as the chosen leader of the great majority in southern Ireland, and to Sir James Craig, premier of northern Ireland:

"First, that you should attend a conference here in London in company with Sir James Craig, to explore to the utmost the situation.

"Secondly, that you should bring with you for that purpose any colleagues whom you may select. The government will, of course, give safe conduct to all who may be chosen to participate in the conference.

"We make this invitation with the fervent desire to end the ruinous conflict which for centuries has divided Ireland and embittered the relations of the peoples on these two islands, who ought to live in neighborly harmony with each other, and whose cooperation would mean so much, not only to the Empire, but to humanity. We wish that no endeavor should be lacking on our part to realize the King's prayer and we ask you to meet us, as we will meet you, in the spirit of conciliation, for which his majesty appealed.

"I am, sir, your obedient servant,
"D. LLOYD GEORGE."

Craig Calls Cabinet Meeting.

BELFAST, June 26.—A meeting of the Ulster cabinet has been called for Tuesday by Sir James Craig, the premier, to consider the letter of Mr. Lloyd George inviting the leaders of north and south Ireland to a conference for the purpose of trying to bring about a reconciliation between the factions in Ireland.

The letter of Mr. Lloyd George reached Sir James Craig by special courier this morning, simultaneously with the Sunday newspapers commenting on the letter, Sir James replied immediately, informing Mr. Lloyd George that he was summoning a meeting of the cabinet for Tuesday and that he hoped to secure the attendance of all the members.

"You may rest assured no time will be lost in conveying the result of our deliberations," the message of

SWEPT TO DEATH IN LIZZARD CREEK

Fernie Fisherman Carried Away in Flood Waters; Two Narrowly Escape.

FERNIE, June 26.—A drowning accident occurred in the Lizard creek, about two miles southwest of this city, late Sunday afternoon, when John Horn Hewitt, a resident of Fernie Annex, was swept away is the flood-tide waters of that stream close to the junction of the creek with the Elk river.

Hewitt, accompanied by his father-in-law, Matthew Tully, ex-alderman of this city, and William Tully, a brother-in-law, left this morning on a fishing expedition down the Elk river and Lizard creek. About four o'clock this afternoon they attempted to cross to a small island, underestimating the depth, and a triple fatality was narrowly averted.

All three were swept about a hundred yards down the river. The younger Tully managed to grasp a tree stump and held on until his father came up to him and succeeded in holding himself and father, but Hewitt passed about twelve feet away and the Tullys were unable to reach him. The last they saw of Hewitt was as he passed another stump and was swept under, when no possible chance of rescue was left.

Deceased was a mechanic employed by the Crows Nest Pass Coal company in their Coak Creek shops, and always took an active part in young people's affairs here. He was the present noble grand of the I. O. O. F. and a number of Fernie choral societies. He leaves a wife and two small children here in Fernie. Up to the time of filing no trace of the body has been found. Large search parties have left here and every effort is being made to recover the remains.

FOLLOWS APPEAL WITH INVITATION

Sir James concluded. Today Sir James was in conference with his chief supporters. The general feeling in Belfast is that the Ulstermen will demand that the terms to be discussed at the proposed conference shall be strictly limited, especially excluding the subject of a republic.

De Valera Consults Colleagues.

DUBLIN, June 26.—Eamonn De Valera today was in consultation with his colleagues with regard to Mr. Lloyd George's letter.

The letter was variously discussed here today. One high Sinn Feiner said he thought it an insult and as implying acceptance of partition. Other political leaders saw in the letter an abandonment by the prime minister of his repeated bar against certain Sinn Feiners, as De Valera, they said, would be free to choose any colleagues he pleased, even men under sentence by courtmartial.

Cardinal Logue, primate of Ireland, said he could not see much use of a conference between Sir James Craig and De Valera, but as the government also was involved there might be some hope, although it would be desirable for the government to release from prison moderates like Arthur Griffith, founder of the Sinn Fein.

The Sunday Independent, referring to the letter, says:

"The prime minister's letter is a document of the greatest political importance. It is a welcome admission of the fact that we have insisted upon—that an honorable peace in Ireland is achievable only through direct negotiations with the elected representatives. It is for our representatives to guage the full and real significance of this appeal."

Press Pleasurably Surprised.

LONDON, June 26.—Pleasurable surprise was expressed by the Sunday morning papers over Lloyd George's invitation. It is pointed out that this peace move by the government is the most liberal made thus far in view of the fact that no conditions are imposed for the meeting.

A conference is regarded as opportune in view of the presence in London of the dominion premiers.

The Sunday Times refers to the proposal as the "last offer" the government can make to the Sinn Fein, and adds: "It is a political potentiality that Mr. De Valera will refuse to accept his offer. In that case the alternative of the government is clear. The resources of the British Empire to enforce peace are not exhausted—indeed they have not yet been invoked."

The Sunday Observer says the prime minister's letter is a counterpart and an indication of the cabinet's decision to increase the purely military pressure on the Sinn Fein.

"But," adds the paper, "full recourse to repressive measures will not be had until, or unless, the Sinn Fein leaders decline the offered conference."

The Express calls the invitation a radiant opportunity and a golden milestone of destiny, and says it represents a "fateful moment in the tragical, age-long alienation of the Irish and British peoples."

The Weekly Dispatch believes the King's visit afforded a psychological moment for a peace effort.

Shot While Dining

DUBLIN, June 26—Auxiliary Cadet Inspector Good, stationed at Northwall, was shot dead, and Section Leader White of the auxiliaries, quartered at Northwall, was seriously wounded tonight. The shooting occurred while the men were dining with their wives in a hotel in Dublin.

On Saturday night a number of men called at the home of Charles Trainor, outside the town of Monaghan, and informed his wife that he had been fined $10 by a republican court. She paid the fine. The men returned two hours later, took Trainor, outside the town of Monattached the label of "spy" to the body.

Press Generally Approves.

LONDON, June 26.—While there is some harsh comment by the irreconcilables, the majority of the London morning papers approve warmly the prime minister's invitation to De Valera and Sir James Craig, which they regard as a logical sequel to the King's generous appeal. Opinions with regard to the outcome hover between hope and fear.

The London Times declares that "the hour of peace has struck for Ireland." It says of the premier's letter to De Valera: "It breathes a spirit of conciliation which too often has been absent in the dealings of the government with Ireland. It lays down no conditions to which any Irishmen could reasonably take exception.

"In manner as well as in substance it is in accord with the King's speech. If its tone governs the negotiations, which we earnestly hope will follow, the dawn of a new understanding may be at hand, a dawn in whose light reconciliation and peace may be achieved."

De Valera May Ask Conditions.

The Times finds it impossible to forecast De Valera's answer, but can not imagine that he would commit "such a grave error" as to refuse the invitation, a decision which the paper believes many Sinn Feiners would learn with "heart-breaking disappointment." It conceives the possibility that De Valera will give conditional acceptance, asking a truce pending negotiations.

The Daily Telegraph says that the most fervid advocates of reconciliation can not complain of anything in the tone of the premier's letter to De Valera which would indicate either lack of sincerity or serve as an excuse for nonacceptance.

"Its chief value," continues the newspaper, "lies in the proof it gives of the genuineness of the British professions which have been unjustly challenged and doubted. It rests with the Sinn Fein to come out into the open and meet the representatives of the government and northern parliament and show in turn the sincerity of its desire to live in peace with Great Britain."

Not Unduly Hopeful.

Recalling previous disappointments, the Telegraph indulges in no undue hope of the success of the latest move of the British government. It is confident that the moderate Sinn Feiners will desire that De Valera accept, but says that a vital factor is to what extent De Valera is in the hands of the irreconciliables.

"If he refuses," the newspaper adds, "it can only be because he is not allowed to accept and because he dare not disobey his masters."

Nothing to Offend Irish.

The Daily Chronicle says: "There is nothing that could offend wounded Irish susceptibilities in this generous whole-hearted appeal. It speaks in the real spirit of the real Lloyd George, expressed at precisely the moment when it was most fitting it shou'd be expressed."

Whether De Valera accepts or not the Chronicle expects that Sinn Feiners will urge him to refuse, but disbelieves that it will be the attitude of the preponderant element of Dail Eireann that De Valera will condemn the cause before the world by "rejecting honorable negotiations."

Wise to Dispense With Conditions.

DUBLIN, June 26.—The Freemans Journal, commenting on the invitation of Mr. Lloyd George to the Sinn Fein and Ulster leaders, says:

"The premier has gone further than he or his colleagues ever have gone in the past.

"Lloyd George at last sees the wisdom of dispensing with conditions and restrictions which hitherto have proved inseparable barriers to negotiations.

"No limitations are imposed either regarding the matters to be discussed or the men selected to discuss them. This is a definite important advance. We have no doubt due weighth will be given to it by the Sinn Fein.

"Lloyd George's letter is addressed to De Valera as the responsible head of the movement. A majority of the other leaders in that movement either are in prison or are on the run. Naturally their opinion must be ascertained and if De Valera desires to confer with them the government can not refuse their release.

"The six counties are to be openly and fully represented at the meetings to discuss the premier's letter. Freedom must be granted as a matter right to the men to speak for the Irish people. If the government means business they will act frankly and boldly, turning a deaf ear to counsellors who meditate double dealing or seek to take the stand on points of punctilo.

Sincerity Best Solvent.

"Sincerity and openness are the best solvents of suspicion. If they are displayed the British government will not find Ireland lacking in responsiveness.

"We are confident also that Mr. De Valera and his colleagues will not stand on punctilo, but will view the problem in its broad aspect."

May Convene Dail Eireann.

DUBLIN, June 26.—After a day of conferences with colleagues in connection with Lloyd George's letter it was considered improbable that Eamonn De Valera will make any statement tonight regarding the invitation. It was said this evening that De Valera's conferences with his colleagues had not been completed and that possibly a meeting of the Dail Eireann members might be considered essential to the situation. Mr. De Valera served today at mass and took breakfast at Blackrock college, where at one time he used to teach.

In Sinn Fein circles it is considered probable that if De Valera goes to George and Premier Craig of Ulster London to confer with Mr. Lloyd one colleague he is sure to take along will be John J. McKeown, member of parliament, representing Longford, who recently was tried by courtmartial on a charge of murdering District Inspector McGrath.

Calls Southern Parliament.

DUBLIN, June 26.—Dublin Castle in a notice issued Saturday calls the new parliament for southern Ireland to meet in the council room in the department of agriculture in Marion Square.

DECLARES CHRIST TITANIC FIGURE

Blind Professor of Edmonton Preaches Powerful Sermon at St. Pauls.

Declaring that Christ, during His life on earth, was dominating and powerful, and only secondarily meek and lowly, Rev. A. T. Barnard, extra-mural professor in Robertson Theologacal college, Edmonton, developed a very unusual conception of Christ, in a powerful sermon in St. Paul's Presbyterian church last night. Th's listening to the preacher did not realize that he was blind.

The traditions that have been handed down, the speaker said, the pictures that artists have drawn, the erroneous conclusions drawn from the references to Christ as the lowly burden bearer, General Lew Wallace's "Ben-Hur," and much preaching aiming to change men's lives by an appeal to tears, the speaker declared, had given the world an impression of a yarning and gentle Christ, and completely missed His commanding presence. This general conception had alienated from Christianity many of the strong and noble men of the earth, men who love power and action, and who, "when presented with a wishywashy emasculated Christianity, said: 'This is a woman's religion. We want a leader with more red blood in his veins'."

Yet the word most used about Christ in the original Greek of the New Testament was "dyne," meaning "power." He talked "as one having authority." Paul exhausted all the metaphors of contest in describing His attributes. Every fact of His life showed His power. He was no weakling, to be pittde alone against the whole world. He faced the formalists of His day, calling them to their faces a generation of vipers. He cast the money-changers from the temple. Even when alone in the Garden of Gethsemane He confused and confounded His opponents, who came to seize Him. As He went forth upon His Calvary He was conquering up to the last minute.

Patience, gentleness, meekness, all were in His character, the preacher said, but they were as secondary to the power and magnetism of His personality as the rhythm is secondary to the chant.

Further developing the idea of Christ's power, Prof. Barnard said the Saviour was able to infuse His followers with His own power. Paul, weak physically, fought with beasts, endured stripes, endured shipwreck, and surmounted every handicap and obstacle, while propagating the wonderful gospel that had transformed him himself till his thorn in the flesh became the grain of sand on which the oyster built the pearl. This transference of power was expressed in many forms.

Transference of Power.

1. Christ conferred on His followers unlimited power of resisting sin. This was illustrated by Paul, Livingstone, and the martyrs.

2. He gave power to bear sorrow. Those nearest the throne were those coming through many tribulations. Some of those in Flanders drew from this power.

3. He showed men the power of love. Love could sometimes be terrible in its strength. The love from above was mightiest of all love. The human heart, said the preacher, looked up to God as the flower to the sun.

4. He showed His followers the power of faith, though they had learned it but dimly. Like children, they handled this power with dainty and timorous hands. Faith could cure sickness, and might some day cure even death. It might be that this century, as the nineteenth century was called the scientific century. Every day evidence was seen of the power of faith over material things. It was truly said that Christian Science was a pearl thrown out by the Christian church and picked up by a woman.

5. Christ, dying on the cross with eyes wide open and dauntless heart, gave men the power to die. Through him mankind triumphed over death. The hill on which he was raised to die was paralleled in Flanders by hills on which later thousands bravely died in willing sacrifice.

It was 1900 years since this man lived on the earth, but was His influence dead? Was there elsewhere in history such a personality, dominant, triumphant over all?

Like the explorer La Salle, who, a man of refinement, breasted the storm in a strange country and broke the trail for his followers and led them to safety, so, said the speaker, did Christ break the trail for those seeking to follow in His footsteps. He was of titanic proportions. Similarly His followers must have strength and courage, and these they could draw from His comforting assurance, "Fear not, I have overcome the world."

DR. BORDEN TAKES A COAST PARTNER

Dr. Mackenzie Was Overseas Four Years; Later in Charge at Resthaven.

Dr. L. E. Borden, whose partnership with the late Dr. A. H. Wallace was dissolved by death, has reorganized his business, taking into partnership Dr. H. H. Mackenzie, of Vancouver. Dr. Borden authorized announcement of this fact yesterday. Dr. Mckenzie has spent the last few days in Nelson.

The new Nelson physician is a native born British Columbian, New Westminster being his native city. He received his medical degree from McGill in 1914, becoming house surgeon in Vancouver General hospital. He went overseas in 1915, and was successively on the staff of a base hospital, a member of the surgical team of a casualty clearing station during the German drive in the spring of 1918, and with the 7th Canadias Cavalry Field ambulance. He was wounded when Amiens was bombed during the German drive.

Returning to British Columbia after the war, Capt. Mackenzie was in charge of the military hospital at Resthaven, and then practised at Anyox for a year and a half.

NELSON CENSUS IS COMPLETED

If You Think You Are Omitted Notify Commissioner Blackwood.

With four days of the census period left, Nelson's census is completed, except for mere formalities, and there is a report on every habitation in the city and the riding, in the hands of Commissioner C. D. Blackwood.

There is always a possibility of an omission, however, and Commissioner Blackwood stated last night that if any residents had any reason to suppose they had been overlooked, he would be glad to hear from them. His headquarters is in the old inland revenue office above the postoffice.

In the case of the West Kootenay at large, Mr. Blackwood states, in all but one one or two of the 30 districts the count is now completed. In one or two exceptional cases, a local enumerator may have to work a day or two in July to complete his task.

YOUTH DROWNS WHILE BATHING

No Witnesses to Incident; Reeover Body After All Night Search.

FERNIE, June 26.—Thomas Griffiths of Waldo, 18 years old, was accidentally drowned in a slough just behind the mill of the Ross Saskatoon Lumber company, Waldo, B. C., Saturday afternoon.

He had just had dinner and went bathing and apparently took cramp and went under. Nobody witnessed the accident and no anxiety over his absence was felt by his widowed mother until late in the evening, as the lad was in the habit of going on fishing expeditions without leaving any notice of his going. When he was still absent at ten o'clock his mother got several men to search for him. The lad's clothes were found at the edge of the slough and the search party immediately began dragging operations.

The body was recovered at 8 oclock this morning after an all night search.

JOCK HUTCHISON WINS GOLF TITLE

Chicago Professional Beats Oxford Amateur in Finals for British Honors.

ST. ANDREWS, June 25.—(By Associated Press.)—Jock Hutchison, veteran golfer from Chicago, won for the United States the British open championship by defeating Roger Wethered, 150 strokes to 159, in the play-off today of their ties for first place. It was the most sensational golf the famous old course has seen.

The first round ended with Hutchison leading by three strokes after a bitter battle.

It was only in the second round that Wethered began to fall behind, and after some troublesome holes returned an 82 as against Hutchison's 76.

A great crowd followed the players and fully 5000 were about the last green. Other spectators were on roofs, or were hanging out of windows.

At the close of the match Wethered smilingly congratulated Hutchison, who was raised shoulder high and presented with the championship cup amid cheers.

Missed putts by Wethered and wonderfully accurate pitches by Hutchison is in brief the story of the American's victory. Many times Hutchison played mashie shots up to 100 yards, which flew at a great pace to drop like a stone within a yard or two of the hole.

DEMPSEY PUTTING ON FINAL TOUCHES

Begins Tapering Off Tuesday for Great Battle; Crowds Watch Workouts.

ATLANTIC CITY, June 26.—Jack Dempsey tonight is at the wire edge of his training for the defense of his title against Georges Carpentier at Jersey City July 2. The champion ended his hard work with a 45-minute workout in his open air arena this afternoon.

Tomorrow he will rest and begin his tapering off process Tuesday. The program mapped out for the title holder leading up to the day of the contest calls for the last public boxing on Wednesday. He probably will not work with heavyweight sparring partners in his final two days of boxing, but will face smaller and lighter opponents to increase his speed and sharpen his judgment of distance. He will also cut down his road work to long walks, with an occasional sprint to sharpen his wind.

Dempsey balanced the scales at exactly 194 pounds before he climbed into the ring. He plans to take off three or four pounds in the two final workouts, but Manager Kearns said he may go into the ring around the 192-pound mark instead of 190 pounds, as had been expected. Despite overcast skies and a threatening continuation of rain a crowd of about 2500 persons sat on the rain-soaked pine seats of the arena to see the champion maul four sparring partners in seven rounds today.

CARPENTIER GETS HUNCH OF VICTORY

Thinks He Can Dodge the Hardest Blows and Stand All Others.

MANHASSETT, June 26.—Georges Carpentier will go into the ring at Jersey City next Saturday with only one thing in mind—an invincible determination to wrest the world's championship from Jack Dempsey. This was the assertion today of Gus Wilson, the challenger's chief trainer.

"There will be no snap for Jack Dempsey," Wilson said. "He will have to be more than a great fighter to beat Georges. Never before in his fighting career has Carpentier displayed such determination as he does today. When he talks of the fight he grits his teeth and clinches his fists and remarks, 'He shall not beat me. Something tells me that I can defeat him and I shall do it. His hardest blows will not find me and those that he lands I know I can stand.'"

The challenger's program today consisted of two hours' running, skipping and shadow boxing in the morning and a long cross-coutry walk in the afternoon.

JAPANESE STAR WINS AT TENNIS

Match Requires Sixty-four Games; Mavrogadato Suffers Defeat.

WIMBLEDON, June 26.—Major A. R. F. Kingscote of England, defeated D. V. Mavrogordato, the British Davis cup tennis player, in the fourth round of the men's singles for British open tennis championship here yesterday in straight sets, 60, 10-8, 6-4.

Major Cecil Campbell of England defeated Andre Gobert, of France, in this round, 97, 1-6, 4-6, 4-2. The Frenchman retired in the last set when the score was four games to two in favor of his opponent.

M. Shimidzu, the Japanese star, defeated Randolph Lycett, of England, in a hard fought match that required 64 games. The score was 6-3, 9-11, 3-6, 6-2, 10-8.

In the men's doubles, L. S. Deane and S. M. Jacob, of India, defeated the English players, A. A. Fazee and A. H. Fazee, 6-1, 6-4, 6-4.

In the womens singles, Mrs. McNair defeated Mrs. R. C. Middleton, 7-5, 6-2. Both players are English.

In the women's doubles, the English players, Mrs. E. S. Parton and Miss D. K. Betty, defeated their compatriots, Miss Collier and Miss Ingram, 6-4, 614.

ALLIANCE HAS INFLUENCE

drawn in on the side of the United States, a step which would oblige Great Britain to come into war against China."

Whether these views are sufficiently weighty to sway the premiers remains to be seen. They will be presented with force by Premiers Smuts and Meighen, but while there are reasons for stating that the British government, or at least an influential section of it, hold similar opinions, there is no doubt that the cause of the alliance has many powerful friends.

France Favors Alliance

France, for example, whose statesmen appear to put their trust in special alliances, and the doctrine of the balance of power rather than in the spirit and principle which underlies the League of Nations, is believed to desire to see the treaty renewed. At all events, it is regarded as significant that within the past few days the French press has laid down a heavy barrage of editorials in support of the alliance.

British statesmen, for their part, have contrived in their speeches to disguise what they feel, but hints that have appeared in the press within the past few days homehow leave the impression that whereas a week ago sentiment was running strongly against renewal of the treaty something has happened to bring the alliance new friends. The London Times, however, continues to print Washington dispatches emphasizing the bad impression the renewal of the treaty would produce in the United States, and suggest editorially that the alliance be allowed to stand over pending the calling of a conference between the Pacific powers.

Preaches Friendship to States

So far as Premier Meighen is concerned, his position has not changed. Since the beginning of the conference he lost no opportunity in preaching friendship and cooperation with the United States as a cardinal need of the Empire's foreign policy. In none of his utterances has he been more eloquent than on Friday night, when, addressing the Empire parliamentary association, he declared significantly and amidst cheers, that hardly any price is too great to pay to bring the United States within the League of Nations.

Consideration of the alliance which comes before the conference, either Monday afternoon or Tuesday morning, will bring Hon. Arthur Meighen in his first big effort since the sessions began. The British press, which is unanimous in regarding him as the dark horse of the conference, is evincing the greatest interest in the attitude he will take. Meanwhile Premier Meighen, although up to his ears in the international morass, is keeping one eye open for the results of the byelection in far-away Medicine Hat, Alta.

CANADA REQUIRES WEST INDIES LINK

Greater Benefits to Both by Closer Ties, Says Churchill.

LONDON, June 26.—"The more the West Indies are linked up with Canada, the more certain the future will be, said Right Hon. Winston Churchill, secretary of state for the colonies, at a banquet tendered H. R. H. the Prince of Wales by the West Indies committee on Saturday.

Mr. Churchill pointed out at the imperial conference that Canada really was not complete commercially or geographically unless associated with the tropical West Indies, and he was confident that the more these two great portions of the British Empire were interested in each other, the greater the benfits would be for both.

The problem of communication between Canada and the West Indies could not be left where it is at present, said the secretary, and he was ready to make the strongest representation to the British cabinet on that subject and hoped soon to make a definite announcement.

NAVY ISLAND AT NIAGARA

Has been leased to a United States company since 1872, but the lease having expired the Canadian government has taken possession and installed an anti-smuggling garrison. Navy island is famous as the spot where a few admirers rallied to the support of William Lyon Mackenzie, in the rebellion of 1837. Mackenzie proclaimed a republic of Canada on this tiny isle and had a flag containing one star and two stripes as the emblem of his "government."

DEFENSE INVOKES UNWRITTEN LAW

Bore Grudge Against Father-in-Law for Family Estrangement.

SASKATOON, June 26.—Isiah Mitchell, aged 40, will stand trial at the next criminal assizes for the murder of his father-in-law, Dan Armstrong, 55, farmer of Paradise Hill, Sask. Mitchell's preliminary hearing, held in the town hall at Fort Pitt Saturday afternoon, drew a huge crowd from all parts of the surrounding country. The case has proved the biggest sensation the district has had in years. The voluntary confession Mitchell made to the police on his arrest in Regina was not placed in evidence, but testimony produced by the crown was sufficient in the eyes of the court to warrant committal for trial.

One witness said he saw a loaded revolver protruding from Mitchell's pocket immediately before the shooting. Another witness declared the accused had remarked to him, "I should have clubbed him to death a year ago." And friends and neighbors of the murdered man all spoke of the enmity they alleged kindled in Mitchell's heart when his wife left him and the children were placed in the care of the grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong.

As he walked from the court room under police escort, the alleged murderer turned to his wife and said, "give my love to the children and say good-bye to them for me."

The defense will invoke the unwritten law, arguing that there was strong provocation owing to the estrangement between Mitchell and his family, for which Armstrong is alleged to have been responsible.

QUEBEC POLICE AND FIREMEN ON STRIKE

QUEBEC, June 26.—By a joint strike of employees of the Quebec police and fire department employees at midnight Friday, the city has since been without fire or police protection. Thirty-eight new police have been sworn in and the twenty-second battalion is ready to act if needed. There were some disorders during the night in which streets lights were smashed while boys entered several of the police stations today and broke the windows as well as causing other damage. Since the outbreak of the strike, 200 false alarms have been rung in.

The cause of the strike is the demand of police and firemen for an increase in wages.

The mayor and aldermen tonight decided that they would make no concessions to the strikers and to adhere to the terms of the arbitration board which awarded $10 a week increase both for police and firemen, which varies between $17 and $25 a week.

AUTO SMASH ON ROAD TO BANFF

Crashes Into Telephone Pole; One Killed, One Injured; Driver Arrested.

CALGARY, June 26.—Mrs. J. McDonald, Calgary, was almost instantly killed, Miss Boyer of Lethbridge, is seriously injured and Robert Ware, driver, and A. Finkelstein, both of Calgary, were badly shaken up as a result of an auto smash on the road leading to the Banff Springs hotel at Banff.

The car threw a tire, causing it to skid and crash into a telephone pole. The pole was broken off and the automobile turned a somersault. Mrs. McDonald died on the way to the hospital. Robert Ware, the driver, is under arrest.

Ware, the driver of the car, is being held on a charge of manslaughter. Finkelstein was arrested on a charge of being intoxicated and has given bail of $250. An inquest was held and adjourned to permit the recovery of the woman, Miss Boyer. W. M. Murray, of Winnipeg, was also in the car, but was uninjured.

SEEKS INJUNCTION TO PREVENT FIGHT

ATLANTIC CITY, June 26.—Clinton N. Howard, secretary of the international reform bureau at Washington, announced here tonight that he would appear before Chancellor Edwin R. Walker tomorrow in Trenton to seek an injunction to prevent the Dempsey-Carpentier match in Jersey City July 2.

Mr. Howard contends the state boxing commission exceeded its authority in that the state law permits boxing contests, and that the coming bout is to be purely a prize fight.

Make Sure You Have Been Counted.

It is in the interest of Kootenay and Boundary that the census which is now in progress should be complete. Every head should be counted.

Another census will not be taken for 10 years and the count which is proceeding will establish the popularion, as far as the official figures go, until 1931.

The larger appears the population of each city and town and of the district as a whole the better it will be. People are more attracted to towns and districts which show growth in population than to those which appear to be standing still.

The biggest possible population for Kootenay and Boundary will help to attract new settlers and new capital.

Enumerators all over the district are doing their duty conscientiously and well, but it is certain that some persons have been missed. It is humanly impossible for an enumerator to get 100 per cent results, close as most of them will undoubtedly reach to that ideal.

If you are in any doubt as to whether you have been enumerated get in touch with C. D. Blackwood, commissioner at Nelson, or if you live in the Boundary district, with Commissioner Knight at Vernon. Do all you can to insure that your town and your district will get credit for the population they possess.

Sims Gets His Formal Reprimand.

Admiral Sims has been called on the carpet and formally reprimanded by the United Secretary of the navy. "The incident is now closed," said the sturdy old seadog as he walked away from the navy building at Washington.

Undoubtedly Admbiral Sims feels that he got value for the reprimand. He must feel it to have been worth something to speak his mind. He is too good a naval officer not to feel that there was technical reason for the government to call his ation to the impropriety of a member of the service dealing with a subject of such importance in American domestic policies. But there is reason for feeling that the Harding administration rather sympathized with the admiral. With his view that the Sinn Feiners are a menace to the United States, the government at Washington probably agrees. The Republican party, while not blind to the need for winning all the political support it can, has no more reason for loving the American Sinn Fein agitators on political grounds that it has for their endeavors to stir up trouble with the British Empire, an Empire with which Washington is properly anxious to maintain the most friendly relations.

One can imagine the secretary of the navy's reprimand taking something of this form: "Really, admiral, as an officer of our navy which must know nothing of politics, domestic or international, you must not say this sort of thing. It is my duty, therefore, to reprimand you mostly sternly and to warn you of the consequences of another offense." And then, with a smile, "Of course, I'm speaking officially now, but I have no more use for those trouble-makers than you have, and your little indiscretion will do this country good rather than harm."

THE COURTS OF REVISION AT CRESTON AND CAMP LISTER.

To the Editor of The Daily News:
Sir—In your issue of the 21st inst. a communication from your correspondent at Creston states that this is the first year that a court of revision and appeal has been accorded the district in Creston.
first list was compiled under the new
This is not correct, for when the Elections act a court was held in Creston on the 14th of September, 1920, in the police court, and on the 15th of September at the school house in Camp Lister, 1920.
These two courts in 1920, and the one recently held at Creston and Camp Lister, were so held at my request, for the benefit of the voters, and which I hope and believe was very much appreciated by the people.
As I am sure that you wish to have all your facts correctly stated. I verify the abeve by sending you a copy of the notice which was posted in Creston and Camp Lister dated the 4th day of September, 1920, and signed by R. Hewat, the judge of said court.
Thanking you in anticipation that you will correct this error.
JOHN KEEN.
Kaslo, B. C., June 23, 1921.
(Note—Mr. Keen's enclosure was a statutory notice signed by R. Hewat, registrar of voters, Kaslo electoral district, providing for the holding of a court of revision at Kaslo, and for its adjournment to Creston, and for its later adjournment to Camp Lister.—Ed.)

NAPOLEON WAS GENERONS

The centendry of Napoleon's death, which was recently celebrated throughout France with much pomp, brought to light many new features of his career, not the least interesting of which was the discovery by Frederic Masson, of the Academie Francaise, that the "Little Corporal" was the world's most generous character, at least in so far as women were concerned.

While his generosity toward other women consisted chiefly of finding husbands for them, Napoleon nearly was brought to bankruptcy trying to keep Josephine's favor. In five years Josephine spent 225.000 francs on laces, 312,000 francs on silks, 110,000 francs with her modiste, 102,000 francs on gowns, 57,000 on perfumes and 50,000 francs on stockings and shoes. The annual outlay for her toilet averaged more than 1,000,000 francs. And that in the days when the purchase power of the franc was ten times that of today.

There should be a good future before the latest thing in walking sticks—a match box secreted in one knob end. Many will remember the old swordstick, where the walking stick was contrived a double debt to pay. But why not a pistol stock, or a campstool stick, or even a camera stick One of the most amazing constructions produced—apart from a conjurers stick—was a naturalist's stick. Made out of a piece of bamboo, it was the receptacle for a compass, a trowl, a net for fish or butterfly, hook, test tube, several phials, cotton wool, tube, nails, stringy fishing line, and dipping tube, besides other accessories. But when will some enterprising firm put a first-aid stick on the market? What a wide field there would be for such an article as that!

Efficient Housekeeping

MAKING ICE CREAM WITHOUT A FREEZER.

The day is past when housewives are ashamed to say "I haven't this or that piece of equipment." For in this day of the high cost of everything, few of us can afford all the conveniences. An ice cream freezer is one of those necessary, and yet, to some of us, inaccessible possessions.

But, luckily, it is not necessary to have a freezer in order to make one kind of ice cream. This kind that requiras no freezing, but simply packing in salt and ice, is called mousse, and it can be made either with heavy cream whipped to a stiff froth, or with thin cream and gelatine. Here are some fine mousse recipes:

Maple Mousse: Boil one cup of maple sirup for a minute or two, then pour it over four eggs that have been well beaten. put this mixture into the top of a double boiler and cook until quite thick, stirring frequently. Then cool, and fold in two cups of stiffly-whipped double cream. Turn into a mould which has been dipped in cold water (inside and out), lay a piece of paraffine paper over the top, press on the lid, letting the paper project, and pack this mould in equal parts of salt and ice, allowing it to stand in this way from three to four hours.

Before packing in the salt and ice make sure the cover of the mould fits tightly. If it is bent a little out of shape, or is loose in any way, it is better to cover the crack where it comes together, with adhesive tape, rather than take any chances of the ice and salt getting in through the aperture or you can smear the crack with lard and wind a strip of cloth around over this grease.

Chocolate Mousse: Shave two squares (two ounces, that is) of unsweetened chocolate finely, and combine it with one-half cup of sweet milk, three-fourths cup of granulated sugar, one-quarter inch of stick cinnamon, and a few grains of salt. Put this mixture into the top of double boiler and cook over hot water until the chocolate is melted, then cool, remove stick cinnamon, add one teaspoon vanilla, and fold in one pint of double cream which has beeen stiffly whipped. Turn into a wet mould and proceed as above.

Coffee Mousse: Whip one quart of thin cream with an egg beater of the wheel type, removing the froth and then whipping again till no more froth appears. Soak one tablespoon of granulated gelatine in two tablespoons of the cream that is left after the froth is taken off, and dissolve the gelatine in three more tablespoons of this cream heated. Now add one cup of strong, hot coffee to the mixture and let stand in a cool place until it begins to thicken, then fold in the cream. Turn into a mould and proceed as directed above.

Pineapple Mousse: Follow the recipe just given for coffee mousse, only use one cup of juice from a can of pineapple instead of the cup of coffee.

Vanilla Mousse: Boil together one-half cup of sugar and one-half cup of water until it spins a thread, then pour this sirup over the beaten whites of two eggs, just as you would for icing, beating well. Add to this one teaspoon of granulated gelatine that has been soaked in two tablespoons of cold water, and stir until it begins to thicken, then fold in one and a half cups of whipped double cream and one tablespoon of vanilla extract. Proceed to freeze as above.

LISTENING BY HER FINGERS

Miss Wiletta Huggin, 16-year-old girl, a student at the Wisconsin school for the blind, has learned to listen to the conversation of others through the medium of placing a finger on the vocal chords of the person with whom she is talking. Denied the power to see or hear, this girl through practice so keen, so accurate and so marvellous that she is believed to have a system of understanding which has never been equalled even by Helen Keller, famous blind girl. Wiletta, through some strange and unexplainable sense, can tell who is in the room with her or in adjoining rooms, if she has known the person for but a short time. Through this strange means of conversation, Wiletta may carry on a conversation with two people at the safe time, simply by placing any finger of one hand on the vocal chords, and telling by the vibration just what is being said, before the words are actually spoken.

"Is that the mother of ——?" How young she is!" and similar remarks. Surely it must be rated as, at least, a minor compensation of maturity to be able to make a mystery of one's age, and to betray it only by being pointed out as the mother of this or that married son or daughter. Many women, however, make the mistake of banking all on clothes and complexion—only to emphasize their age by wearing clothes too young and a complexion that deceives nobody.

The real secret of continued youth lies not in resisting the years, but in accepting and weaving into them a philosophy that makes for serenity and calm, and an unfailing interest in life and the people about one. After that, clothes may play their due part in creating a youthful appearance.

Good taste and a fine appreciation for the appropriate is illustrated in the modish gown shown in the sketch. Here youthfulness and matronly dignity are combbined. The materials used are white crepe de chine over heavyweight Georgette crepe, printed in a fine rose check on a white ground. Or this design makes an excellent foundation for plain silk and foulard combination in light or dark colors.

NO MORE SEA-SICKNESS

Sea-sickness may be unknown in the near future.

Interesting research work is being carried on in the experimental tank of the National Physical Laboratory at Teddington, Surrey, designed, amongst other things, to diminish the pitching motion of ships at sea, says Tit-Bits.

The tank is 520 ft. long, 30 ft. across, and about 12 ft. deep.

A firm submits the shape of one of their new boats to the tank Here an exact model of it, cast in paraffin wax in a clay mould, is constructed. These models are usually from 17 ft. to 20 ft. long, and weigh about a ton.

The model is towed through the water at various speeds, and its resistance under every condition carefully recorded. By these tests it is possible to tell whether the boat from which the model is taken will be efficient in propulsion; and if it is not, how or where it is defective.

There is an apparatus in the tank for creating regular series of waves. Often quite innocent looking waves will make a ship pitch heavily, while an ugly, choppy sea will not disturb her at all. This is because the small fierce waves are broken by the resistance of the ship, while the long waves are not.

One of the most valuable results of these tests is that they demonstate what improvements in the form of a vessel may be made to enable a reduction in the effective horse-power needed to drive it.

THE VEIL OF VENUS

What makes the planet Venus so silver bright? Many a one has put this question to himself these spring evenings, and must have been unable to find a satisfactory answer.

But the answer is that we see the silver lining to the cloud-mask which covers the features of Venus for, as dazzling as the planet a pears to us, it is enveloped in so bre clouds that never seem to bre and afford us a glimpse of what below. At least, there is no r proof that the markings which ha been seen are on the planet's act surface at all. Slow moving clo masses would be liable to be ve deceptive, and might well be m taken for something more solid.

The persistency of Venus' v cloud-envelope is remarkable; it present year in and year out, flecting the sunlight with mirr like brilliancy.

How Venus would appear witho it is hard to say, as we have knowledge whatever of the r composition of her globe.

All that can be said with any c tainty is that she would lose a lar share of her radiant beauty if t light reflecting shell of clouds we removed.

She might look like Mars or l Mercury, and would certainly fail bewitch mankind as she does no

The true secret of her peerl beauty, therefore, is her veil clouds.—Answers.

ADD CLASSROOMS CRESTON SCHOOLS

Call Tenders for Additions; Works Department Surveys Roads; Personal.

CRESTON, June 23.—At the meeting of the ratepayers of Creston school district on Friday night the decision of the trustees to provide a two-room addition to the local school at midsummer was approved, and endorsation was given as to the site of the new structure. Each room will be 30x24 feet, but only one of them will be finished throughout, the other only being finished up to the lathing stage. The new room will be used for the primary grade and the unfinished room will be available for a bad weather playroom for the junior scholars. Tenders will be called for at once so as to be sure of having the added accommodation for the opening of the term.

William Ramsay of Nelson, the provincial works department district engineer, was a visitor here this week, during which he looked over the survey Surveyor McCullough of Nelson is making for the road diversion at Arrow Creek, which will give a better connection with the new stretch of highway G. A. Hunt finished at Goat River hill a couple of years ago. While on the work Mr. McCullough will also run the line for the new road into Kitchener, which will provide a shorter and better grade than the one now in use, as well as being wider. The bit of new highway at Arrow Creek will be constructed jointly by the province and dominion and it is expected tenders will be called for it before the end of the year.

Mr. Bartlett of the federal geographical survey arrived a few days ago with a complete outfit, including a half dozen pack mules, and after completing some finish up work at a couple of points on the flats will proceed to the Corn Creek and Summit Creek areas, where they will be engaged for some time.

KASLO HONORS SCHOOL STAFF

Entertain Miss Laurie and Miss Kerr on Eve of Departure.

KASLO, June 24.—The parsonage grounds of the Kaslo Methodist church presented an animated picture on Saturday afternoon last, when a reception was given by Mrs. Robert Rughes in honor of Miss Hazel Laurie and Miss Margaret Kerr, who have been on the school staff for the last two years, and whose popularity was well evidenced by the large number present on this occasion.

After several games of croquet tea was served, the hostess being ably assisted by Mrs. Dr. Calvert and Mrs. L. Hanna.

Mr. Hughes spoke of the splendid work accomplished by the two teachers, both in the school and in the social life of the community, and assured them of the appreciation of the parents and the citizens generally of their efforts.

He regretted that they were leaving, but was sure they would take with them the good wishes of their many friends, and that they would ever have very pleasant memories of their stay in Kaslo. Both young ladies expressed their regret at leaving and their warm appreciation of many kindnesses received. Miss Kerr and Miss Laurie will likely attend the university in the near future.

.. Advertising is the Motive Power of Business ..

Survival of the Fittest

These are days to test men's mettle. It is so easy to ride when the tide is high and demand is greater than supply.

It is easier to "lie down" when the tide is ebbing and wait for it to rise again.

But the easy way is not chosen by the successful man. When the tide is high, he fights for the pinnacle of achievement.

When the tide is low he fights a thousand times harder to maintain the position he has won, and to hold it against all comers when it rises again.

This is particularly evident amongst those who have used Daily Newspaper Advertising to assist in building their business.

They have not quit advertising; they are not lying down Because business is good. They are going tooth and nail after every ounce that the market affords.

They don't strike a balance sheet every night, and get an attack of nerves because it happens to be on the wrong side for a few weeks.

They know how to stay on top.

Are you one of the fittest.

Markets and Finance

MARKET SHOWS STRONGER TONE

Sharp Upturn in Prices; Scattered Gains Throughout List.

NEW YORK, June 25.—Unlike previous sessions this week, today's abbreviated but active stock market showed a broad and sharp upward swing of prices.

Gains of 1 to 5 points, to which an overconfident short interest made enforced contributions, were scattered throughout the list. Oils, rails, shippins, steels, equipments and miscellaneous issues were impartially favored.

Conspicuous strength was shown by Mexican Petroleum, General Asphalt, Baldwin, United Fruit, Atlantic Gudf, American Woolen, American Sugar, Sumatra Tobacco, Sears-Roebuck, Reading and Southern Pacific.

United States Steel added almost two points to its recovery from the low record of Thursday and affiliated issues were two to five points above recent minimum quotations. Realizing for profit made only slight impression at the strong close. Sales, 435,000 shares.

Current news offered little explanation for the market's reversal, for most advices concerning trade and commerce again stressed conflicting conditions and the cautious attitude of buyers.

Trading in bonds was moderate and irregular, both in domestic and international issues. Total sales, par value, aggregated $4,650,000.

The clearing house weekly statement furnished no noteworthy features. Actual loans and discounts showed a very small decrease, considering the recent heavy liquidation. A cash contract of about $20,500,000 still left a margin of excess reserves.

SENTIMENT MIXED ON WHEAT MARKET

CHICAGO, June 26.—The feature of the market Saturday was mixed sentiment as to the future and scant speculative trade. The finish was ¼ lower to 1½ to 2 cents higher for wheat, 1⅜ cents for corn, unchanged to ⅜ cents higher fod oats, and from 5 cents to 50 cents higher for provisions.

If a motorist runs down a pig it is sure to be a blooded Berkshire, remarks the Boston correspondent. Every chicken slaughtered is a pedigreed bird worth $40 to $50. A yellow barnyard cur is a wire-haired fox terrier. A calf is always of Alderney or Guernsey blood—in fact, nothing seems to improve livestock like crossing it with an automobile.

SENIORS HAVE PRACTICE GAME

Rossland Senior Team May Be Brought Here for Wednesday.

In the absence of the C. P. R. baseball nine a pickup nine was found Sunday morning to play against the Nelson seniors at the Recreation grounds and a fine practice game was afforded.

Ed Langille, pitcher of the regulars, topped the mound for the scratch team, caught by E. L. Buchanan, while the regulars had the services of B. Anderson on the mound and Hughie O'Neil behind the bat. The game, being for practice only, went to 12 innings, the scratch team winning, 7—5.

There is a possibility that the Rossland seniors may come here for Wednesday.

ENGLISH HORSE WINS GRAND PRIX DE PARIS

PARIS, June 26.—The Grand Prix de Paris, over one mile seven furlongs, was won today by J. Watson's chestnut colt Lemonora, by Lemberg-Honura. Flechoir was second and Harpocratt third. The purse was valued at 400,000 francs, the largest stake ever put up on a French race course.

Lemonora came up on the outside after all the French horses had tired and won easily by two lengths. Seventeen horses started.

The victory of Lemonora was the third time in succession that an English horse won the Grand Prix de Paris.

President Millerand and the Japanese crown prince witnessed the race.

CANADA'S NATAL DAY AT TRINITY

Services Relate to Dominion Day; "Finding God in Canada" Is Theme.

That Christ did not come to the world to die and thereby save men from God's anger, and that God could not be fancied as refusing to be reconciled with erring sons until another who had not erred had been killed, was asserted from the pulpit of Trinity Methodist church yesterday morning by Rev. J. P. Westman, in his sermon on "Finding God in Canada," which was a part of the church's Dominion Day Sunday program. Christ's true mission in the world, Mr. Westman declared, was to prove to men that God was in the world. In reality, God was in the soul as light was in the body, and God was in society, was the sunbeam, was in Nature, all-pervading.

Carrying this idea further, the preacher declared that God was in everything, and in all the relations of life, and the time would undoubtedly come, after this was fully recognized, when such an ordinary act as eating one's breakfast would be a sacrament. At the time the Lord's Supper was instituted, wine was the common drink with meals, and bread was, as now, the commonest food. It was as if Christ, after eating a meal of the commonest food, said to those he had been partaking with: "You'll remember me won't you, when you have the common things of life?"

He said Christ was not a supernormal man, or an abnormal man, or an unnatural man, but "a simple, plain, common, normal man," in perfect possession of his faculties and powers. He had come to deliver men from sin, which was the subordination of the higher faculties to the lower appetites.

Nelson's Sunday

That Nelson was given to indulging in the lower rather than in the higher things on Sunday was suggested by Mr. Westman. A Scotchman had remarked to him Saturday afternoon: "You do not get Scotchmen to practice football on Sunday." A baseball enthusiast came into the conversation with: "What is wrong about Sunday ball?" To this Mr. Westman replied: "It is not what there is wrong about it, but what is best about it!"

Christ drove out a world of iniquity, and brought in a world of hospitals, said the preacher, summarizing the change wrought in the world by the Saviour's life and principles.

In the evening the program was more directly related to patriotic topics. The speaker spoke on "Undeveloped Resources." There was a chorus, "O Canada," and the anthem was the Recessional. "Pilgrims of the Night" was sung by Mrs. J. Milroy, and "King David's Lament" by J. P. Pither. The Trinity male chorus also rendered a selection, and the National Anthem concluded the service.

MEDALS ARRIVE FOR THE SPORTS

Capt. Tait Is Receiving Entries for First of July Athletic Events.

Eight silver medals, eight bronze medals and eight ribbons, to be the first, second and third prizes in the eight athletic contests that form part of the afternoon program at the recreation grounds in the Dominion Day celebration, are now in Nelson, in the hands of Capt. W. T. Tait, for award immediately after the events are held. After each event an order for a first, second or third prize will be given to each of the three winners, and they will walk up to the table and receive the proper award.

It is expected there will be the keenest competition in these various events, which include 100-yard dash, quarter mile run, mile bicycle race, one-third mile bicycle race for boys, pole vault, shot put and the jumps. Entries are advisable early, though post entries will be accepted.

For the tug-of-war, which will be one of the events of great interest to the Veterans, Nelson and Trail at present are the announced contenders, though it is thought Kaslo and Proctor may bring down teams on that day. The Nelson team has been practicing at the armory, tying the big rope to the telephone pole in front of the building, and heaving on it. On a recent occasion the rope did not stand the strain.

SOME HISTORICAL FIBS.

The famous Damascus blades that were fabled to cut iron bars were not superior to the Toledo blades of the present time, says the Dearborn Independent.

Seneca was not a half-Christian philosopher, but a grasping money lender, and died leaving a fortune equivalent to three million dollars.

Charles IX did not fire upon the Huguenots with a harquebus from a window of the Louvre, during the massacre of St. Bartholomew.

The Maelstrom is not a whirlpool which sucks down ships into the depths of the ocean. It is an eddy, which in fair weather can be crossed in safety by any vessel.

Hortius never defended the bridge. It was a story manufactured by the same Roman historian who put forth that other fabrication of history that Micius Scaevola put his hand in the fire.

Pitt never made the celebrated reply to Walpole beginning, "The atrocious crime of being a young man." It was composed by Dr. Johnson, who was not even present when the actual reply was spoken.

Alfred the Great did not visit the Danish camp disguised as a minstrel. There is excellent authority for asserting that he could neither play the harp nor speak Danish. He did not let the cakes burn, either, as history records.

The hanging gardens of Babylon did not hang and they were not gardens. They were terraces supported by arches and overgrown trees. They were erected for the amusement of a Babylonian queen who had come from a mountainous country.

Pocahontas, the Indian princess, did not save the life of Captain John Smith by standing between him and a club held by her father or by any other method. It is now considered but a romantic yarn spun by Captain Smith's imagination and perpetuated by the historians.

Hannibal did not send three bushels of gold rings taken from the hands of Roman knights killed on the field of Cannae back to Carthage as evidence of his victory. The fact was as follows: The messenger who carried to the Carthaginian senate the news on finishing his report, "opened his robe and threw out a number of gold rings gathered on the field."

Gazelles are largely preyed on by African lions.

The Ganges is constantly changing its channel.
