SUSPENDS THE RESTRICTIONS ON ORIENTALS

Constitutionality of Order-in-Council Questioned; Employment on Timber Limits

VANCOUVER, Sept. 8.—(By Canadian Press)—Until the constitutionality of the Oriental order in council Validation act is passed upon by the supreme court of Canada, the government of British Columbia is restrained by injunction granted today in supreme court by Mr. Justice Murphy from prohibiting the employment of Japanese and Chinese by the holders of timber licenses in this province.

Attorney-General J. W. deB. Farris explained that a hearing of the case will be sought before the supreme court of Canada, probably in October. The minister of justice, Right Hon. C. J. Doherty, in view of representations from the Japanese consul general at Ottawa, seeking disallowance of the act, decided to refer the whole matter to the supreme court, and the case previously heard here by the court of appeal and litigation concerning the present act, will be heard at the same time.

Decision will turn on the constitutionality of the act and whether it is an infringement of the Japanese treaty provisions and discriminates against Japanese of British Columbia.

The case ultimately will be carried to the judicial committee of the privy council, it is stated.

JOBLESS MEN OFFERED AT AUCTION SALE

Men Stripped to Waist as in Old Slave Mart; No Bidders for Unemployed.

BOSTON, Sept. 8.—Jobless men were placed on the auction on Boston common today. Stripped to the waist, after the custom of the old slave auctions, they declared their willingness to work by standing before a crowd of thousands, offering their services to the highest bidder.

"Shorn lambs, of unemployment," their auctioneer, Urbain Ledoux, called them. Ledoux a philanthropist worker, who recently opened the church of the unemployed in the west end, led a group of 50 to the common, to bring home, he said the people of Boston their stories of human misery. Ledoux's efforts to get work for his men was not rewarded. He announced that the auction was to be a daily event, to be continued at least for the remainder of the month.

UNEMPLOYED MOB SMASHES WINDOWS

Dundee Police Have Difficulty in Dispersing Demonstrators.

DUNDEE, Scotland, Sept. 8.—For the third consecutive night a mob of unemployed engaged in window smashing. The entire police force and a body of special constables had difficulty in dispersing the mob, but small parties continued their campaign of destruction. Scarcely a shop window in some of the districts was left untouched. Damage amounts to many thousand pounds. Numerous arrests were made.

SANITARY ASSOCIATION CHANGES DESIGNATION

OTTAWA, Sept. 8.—The Canadian Sanitary association will henceforth be known as the Sanitary Inspectors' association of Canada. The change was decided on at the concluding session of the association's annual convention here tooday. Winnipeg was chosen as the next convention city.

G. O. S. Laflamme, of Ottawa, was elected president. Vice-presidents for the ensuing year are as follows:

Ontario—A. J. Bolus, Fort William.

Manitoba—H. G. Trigg, Winnipeg.

Saskatoon—M. K. F. Durrant, Moose Jaw.

Alberta—J. J. Dunn, Calgary.

British Columbia—W. S. Sturgess, Vancouver.

The executive council will be composed of F. O. Austin, T. J. Booth, A. Barclay and C. Hargrave, all of Winnipeg.

CELEBRATE CONSTITUTIONAL ANNIVERSARY

GERMAN PRESIDENT REVIEWS TROOPS

President Ebert, resplendent in a shiny topper, and Chancellor Wirth, are here shown inspecting the honor regiment of the German security guard on the occasion of the second anniversary of the new German constitution. Since that time Ebert and Wirth have become uneasy over the growing resentment of the masses against the ever-increasing activities of the junkers.

DISCUSSES PROBLEM OF HARNESSING SUN

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—The next great achievement of science will be utilization of the sun's rays to provide light, heat and power. This prediction was made today by Arthur D. Little of Boston, in an address at the international convention of chemists.

According to Dr. Little, the sun alone is worthy of scientific investigation as a source of energy. He rejected wind, waves and tides.

Attacking the claim that labor is a greater producer of energy, Dr. Little asserted a few men with brains would apply scientific principle to accompany what mere muscle would not.

BLEEDS TO DEATH

PORTAGE LA PRAIRIE, Man., Sept. 8.—The body of a man, believed to be John Coughan of Toronto, was found in the bush alongside the Canadian National railway in the neighborhood of Onah, yesterday, according to word received here tonight. His left foot was cut off and he had apparently bled to death. The only means of identification was a receipt from the Loyal Order of Moose, Toronto, Lodge No. 160.

DISCOVER SKELETON IN COLUMBIA RIVER

REVELSTOKE, Sept. 8.—This morning provincial police officers of the Markland, City Chief of Police W. W. Spratt and Robert Blackmore took the skeleton of a female from the Columbia river at the foot of the old dock, near R. Sawyer's mill. The skeleton was practically nude, except for the remains of a portion of a pair of corsets clinging to the waist. The body was located last evening by David Sturdy and Rodger Foote, but darkness prevented the removal of the remains until this morning.

The body is believed to be that of May Clelland, who lost her life in the unfortunate boat accident of Sunday, June 27, 1920.

ONTARIO TREASURER OFFERS NEW LOAN

TORONTO, Sept. 8. — Provincial Treasurer Smith will advertise immediately for tenders in his new loan. Contrary to original announcement which heralded a $15,000,000 loan, the amount to be sought is only $10,000,000 although less figures may be somewhat incrased if the offerings are favorable. The new loan is to be a 20 year loan, six per cent venture in the market.

For the most part, the new money is required to retire treasury bonds issued in April last, and a little of it for hydro expenditure.

QUEER RESULT OF PROHIBITION

Lack Destitute Bodies for Dissecting, Says Professor of Anatonmy.

TORONTO, Sept. 8—Prohibition is working a severe hardship on the medical colleges of the country, as it is causing a dearth of bodies for dissecting purposes, Dr. J. D. McMurrich, professor of anatomy, said when addressing the convention of the Canadian Embalmers' association today.

Since prohibition, Professor McMurrich had found that men belonging to the class which formerly died destitute through indulgence in liquor were now leaving estates sufficient to give them burial. The professor appealed to the embalmers to assist the suffering colleges as much as possible in their present difficulty.

LEAGUE CONSIDERS AND CRITICIZES UNITED STATES MANDATORY POWERS

GENEVA, Sept. 8.—(Associated Press).—The United States mandatory powers and countries that are continuing to arm came in for trenchant criticism in the first day's debate in the assembly of the league of Nations on the work done by the council of the league.

Hjalmar Branting of Sweden, accused the council and the secretariat of the league of partiality and extravagance. Lord Robert Cecil, representating South Africa, defended both the council and the secretariat. Lord Robert was very severe, however, about the countries, which he said, according to statistics are spending about 20 per cent of their energies on armaments and at the same time complaining of economic instability and bad trade conditions. He blamed the United States for the delay in the adoption of the A. and B. mandates, and introduced a resolution that these terms be immediately defined.

Article X to Stay

The committees continued their work this afternoon. The council's commission of amendments finished its labors by deciding not to recommend the adoption of an amendment by Hon. C. J. Doherty, delegate from Canada, eliminating article 10 from the covenant of the League of Nations. At the same time it passed an interpretative resolution intended to meet United States objections to the clause.

That a president of the United States cannot alone, under the constitution bind his government on a question of mandate, is brought out briefly in one of the paragraphs of the last note from that country on manadates, copies of which are circulating among the delegates of the assembly. The note is dated August 8.

The note begins with a statement of the general United States position on mandates. Mandates respecting the former German colonies, it says, were only made possible by the victory of the principal and associated powers, of which the United States was one.

Affirms Equal Voice on Turkey

The United States government although it did not take part in the war against Turkey, affirms the right to have a voice equal to that of any other power in deciding the madates over former Turkish possessions such as Syria, Lebanon, Mesopotamia and Palestine, because the distribution of these mandates was made possible only through the victory over Germany, in which the United States shared.

The note, in a clear and firm manner, requires equal opportunities for concessions and commerce

RAILWAY PRESIDENT OPTIMISTIC FOR CANADA'S FUTURE PROSPECTS

FORT WILLIAM, Ont., Sept. 8.—C. P. R. Officials here this morning included President E. W. Beatty, Senator Beiuque, K. C., director and vice-president Bank of Hochelaga, Sir Herbert Holt, president Kam Power company, all of Montreal; General Superintendent, J. J. Scully, Master Mechanic, J. S. Allan, North Bay, Vice-president, A. D. MacTier, Montreal; W. C. Guthrie, Superintendent, Screiber, and E. F. McKee the president's private secretary. The party came in at 6:15 this morning and left for the west at 10 o'clock.

A. D. McTier and other eastern officials returned east at 8 o'clock. Western officials meeting the party here were D. C. Coleman, vice-president, A. E. Stevens, general superintendent, F. Pennefather, master mechanic all of Winnipeg; J. J. Horn, supt., and J. J. Alan, master mechanic Kenora. Many local men called upon the president this morning. In course of an interview President Beatty said,

"While there still exists pronounced quietness in business, especially in eastern Canada it is possible, indeed probable, that during the fall months of the year there will be an improvement largely due to the stimulus and increased purchasing power because of the excellent western crop. It is not to be expected that the revival in general business will be other than gradual and it may easily be next spring before a general tendency towards normal conditions is observed.

Prepare for Unemployment

"Unemployment exists in particular localities to a considerable extent but it will not I think become acute during the fall months. There will undoubtedly be considerable unemployment during the winter but the possibility of this has been thoroughly appreciated for some months past, and the government, municipalities and corporations are prepared to take such steps as they legitimately can to reduce it by the only proper means, namely, by wherever possibly providing work. Any other method of relieving the situation should only be considered because of absolute necessity.

"There is still some shortage of labor on the railway for maintenance work, and while good weather prevails the forces may be increased and thus provide employment for those who are willing to undertake this kind of labor. There is also, I am glad to say, a steady improvement in the financial situation and a good demand for high grade securities, especially in the United States which conditions will undoubtedly be reflected in a short time on those existing in Canada.

No Cause for Pessimism

"There is nothing in the situation which should cause pessimism. The problems we have to face are known, and therefore capable of being dealt with. The period of rigid economy which we have gone through was not without its advantages, in no other way could an adequate appreciation of the situation be obtained, and while avoidable expenditures of necessity been deferred they will have to be incurred later, which will mean the carrying out of all those that the necessary as soon as the conditions warrant. Work deferred is not work completed, and extensions and additions to existing plants will be necessary even to meet a normal expansion of business next year.

Conditions Fundamentally Sound

"The conditions in Canada are fundamentally sound. There has been nothing in the nature of an acute depression especially as compared with other countries. It is I think a fact however, that the two great necessities for this country's advancement, namely, the obtaining of suitable settlers in as large numbers as possible and the attraction of capital for the extension of Canadian enterprises should be most serious condition now and not later. It is politics which are initiated in time of depression that are usual those of super-caution and not founded on either hopes or courage, but there is nothing in Canadian conditions to warrant the lack of either.

Economy Still Necessity

"Governmental economy still should be a watchword and the monies necessary for the maintenance of the country's institutions and the meeting of its obligations should

Oliver Denies Rumor of Calling Off Fall Session Account Federal Election

VICTORIA, Sept. 8.—Premier Oliver this afternoon denied the rumor emanating from Vancouver that the provincial government has decided to call off the fall session of the legislature and not meet until after the New Year as a result of the Dominion election coming off before Christmas.

"There is nothing in it as far as I know," said the premier.

According to present plans the fall session will be called about the end of October.

OVERPOWER ZAGERSDORF AUSTRIANS

Hungarians Led by Priests March on Burgenland; Government in Flight.

VIENNA, Sept. 8.—Superior Hungarian forces this morning captured Zagersdorf and are advancing on Mattersdorf, the temporary seat of the Burgeland government, which is in flight.

Priests Lead Troops

Hungarian troops led by two parish priests, Stephen Varga, of Zagersdorf, and Karlschmidt, of Drassburg, last night overpowered the sentries of the Austrian garrison at Zagersdorf. Two members of the garrison were killed and many wounded, while the others were blindfolded and taken away in motor trucks. Reinforcements overtook the Hungarians this morning and the Austrians were released. The priests were made prisoner and taken to Weiner Neustadt, where they were almost lynched by an angry crowd.

MEIGHEN BUSY WITH CABINET CONSTRUCTION

Announcement in Week or So; Ballantyne Will Probably Retire.

OTTAWA, Sept. 8.—Cabinet construction is proceeding apace, but so far the prime minister has not announced his reorganized ministry. It is expected, however, that definite announcement will be made within a week or so. As a preliminary and following the usual custom, it is understood that resignations of all present members of the cabinet are being placed in the hands of the premier. The idea is that Mr. Meighen is thus given a free hand in the work of reorganization. It does not mean that all present ministers will retire, although from present indications it is probable that a number will do so. The resignations would not take effect until accepted.

The name of Hon. C. C. Ballantyne, minister of marine and fisheries, is mentioned today as one of those who have definitely decided to retire.

CORN CROP RECOVERS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—Recovery of the United States corn crop during August from the serious damage sustained from July weather conditions featured the September grain report of the department of agriculture issued today. Favored with good growing temperatures and plenty of rain in practically the entire corn belt, the production forecast made a jump of 154,000,000 bushels, bringing the indicated production to 3,186,000,000 bushels, or only 48,000,000 bushels less than last year's crop, the largest ever grown.

PROHIBITION AN ELECTION ISSUE

Dominion Alliance, Ontario Branch, Takes Steps Appealing "Dry" Candidates.

TORONTO, Sept. 8.—Steps have already been taken by the Ontario branch of the Dominion alliance to make prohibition an issue in the approaching federal election. At a meeting of the executive committee of the branch held here today, a resolution was adopted urging the Dominion executive to make an appeal for the nomination of candidates who will support Dominion-wide prohibition.

TRACTOR KILLS CHILD

SASKATOON, Sept. 8.—Charles Russell, aged 7, was run over by a tractor on his father's farm near Wilkie, today, dying almost instantly. No inquest will be held.

SEES REVERSAL TO TRIBALISM IN SINN FEIN INTERPRETATION OF CONSENT OF THE GOVERNED

Premier's Note to Republicans Asserts Rejection of Latest Proposals Without Conference Repudiation of Allegiance to Crown; Asks Definite Reply; Believed De Valera Will Accept; Basis Is Untramelled Parley With Single Condition of Ireland Remaining Within British Empire.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—The text of Lloyd George's letter, which was dispatched to Dublin from Inverness, Scotland, yesterday, in answer to the latest message from Eamonn De Valera, the Sinn Fein leader, follows:

"His Majesty's government has considered your letter of August 30, and has to make the following observations upon it:

"The principle of government by the consent of the governed is the foundation of the British constitutional development, but we cannot accept as a basis of a practical conference an interpretation of that principle which would commit us to any demands you might present ,even to the extent of setting up a republic and repudiating the crown.

Basis Impossible

"You must be aware that a conference on such a basis is impossible, the principle of government by the consent of the governed would undermine the fabric of every democratic state and drive the civilized world back into tribulism.

"On the other hand, we have invited you to discuss our proposals on their merits, in order that you may have no doubt as to the scope and sincerity of our intentions.

"It would be open to you in such a conference to raise the subject of guarantees on any points in which you may consider Irish freedom prejudiced by those proposals. His Majesty's government is loath to believe that you will insist upon rejection of their proposals without examining them in a conference.

Refusal Repudiates Crown

"To decline to discuss a settlement which would bestow upon the Irish people the fullest freedom for national development within the Empire, can only mean that you repudiate all allegiance to the crown and all membership in the British commonwealth.

"If we are to draw this inference from your letter, the further discussions between us could serve no useful purpose and all conferences would be in vain. If, however, we are mistaken in this inference, as we still hope, and if your real objection to our proposals is that they offer Ireland less than the liberty we have described, that objection can be explored at a conference.

"You will agree that this correspondence has lasted long enough. His Majesty's government must, therefore, ask for a definite reply as to whether you are prepared to enter a conference to ascertain how the association of Ireland with the community of nations known as the British Empire, can best be reconciled with Irish national aspiration.

"If, as we hope, your answer is in the affirmative, I suggest that the conference should meet at Inverness on the 20th instant."

Desires Untrammeled Conference

LONDON, Sept. 8.—Mr. Lloyd George's letter to Eamonn De Valera, the Irish Republican leader, which was sent to Dublin after the meeting of the British cabinet at Inverness yesterday, seems at least to insure that the Sinn Fein plenipotentiaries will meet the special committee of cabinet ministers at Inverness on Sept. 20 for the purpose of clearing up any ambiguity the Sinn Fein leaders may entertain about the six conditions the British government stipulated as reservations in granting Ireland a dominion status.

The prime minister's letter, like all his communications since the Irish negotiations began, is characterized by consideration for the Sinn Fein. While it suggests a date for the proposed conference, it is in no sense an ultimatum and sets no time limit to the negotiations. In fact, it tends to prove what has been maintained throughout by those close to the premier, that he earnestly desires a settlement.

The belief is almost universal tonight that De Valera will accept—that what the premier offers is what De Valera desires, namely, an untrammeled conference with the single condition that Ireland remains in the British Empire.

Agreeable to League Membership

The guarantees which De Valera is supposed to have in mind are membership in the League of Nations and the Imperial conference, and these, it is believed, the government would be willing to grant.

Assuming that the conference will meet as suggested, there is still the question of Ulster, which is not touched on in the premier's letter. Lloyd George's original proposal was for a conference, including Ulster, but up to the present there is no suggestion that Ulster has yielded in the slightest in its determination to base itself on the Home Rule act and the northern parliament. A representative of the government, in an interview at Inverness, said today that in the event of the conference failing, the government would proceed with the Home Rule act, which, by inference, may be interpreted to mean that the government regards the act in partial abeyance.

Ulster Problem Remains

Even should the proposed conference at Inverness surmount the initial difficulties, there will still remain Ulster on which De Valera holds strong views. The question of the desire of Fermagh and Tyrone to be separated from the northern parliament also is lakely to be raised in the conference, and this would bring a bitter conflict with Ulster.

SIGNS FOR CIGARS WITH PEACE PEN

United States Tourists Anonymously Send Gift to Premier Lloyd George.

LONDON, Sept. 8. — Mr. Lloyd George, it was learned today told the messenger boy who recently delivered to him and the members of his cabinet a box of cigars from anonymous tourists as he signed the receipt:

"This is the pen with which I signed the peace treaty, and I hope to sign the Irish agreement with it."

The messenger brought back to the donors of the cigars a letter from Mr. Lloyd George addressed to "my anonymous American friends," saying:

"It is genuinely helpful, at a critical moment like the present to receive this really delightful token of sympathy and good will from a group of Americans and I trust we may succeed this year in founding lasting peace and harmony between the two great races which have both contributed so largely to the life and history of your great Republic."

SPECULATORS RUSH BOURSE IN BERLIN

DUBLIN, Sept. 8.—An onslaught today by speculators forced the governing board of the bourse to close the institution for the balance of the day. The avalanche of buying orders attained such dimensions that they could not be accommodated through the regularly established channels.

The mark sold for less than one cent on the curb for a brief period during the afternoon. Later it was quoted officially at .2765 cents.

not only for all citizens of non-mandatory powers, but also the fullest equality with the nationals of mandatory powers both of A and B mandates.

The note stipulates that no mandate shall be agreed to without the approval of the United States government and that no mandate after its approval, shall be changed without the consent of that government. It was requested in the note that wherever in mandates it is mentioned that equal rights are to be given to "members of the League of Nations" a phrase shall be substituted referring to countries mentioned in annex 2 of the treaty of Versailles, among which is the United States.

Electioneer for Judges

Electioneering for the 11 judges of the international court, created by the League of Nations already has begun and is developing considerable ardour, This is particularly true among the South American delegates, which, basing their claims on their numerical strength in the league, are asking for four judges.

The four principal powers—Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan—are conceded one by election forecasters. It is generally conceded that one of them will come from the United States and one from Holland.

League leaders aim to give all-round information to the nations of the world, which raises the difficulty in their object of giving one seat to Scandinavia, one to the Slav countries one to the British dominions and one to German speaking countries. This leaves only one for South America.

The method of the election is being studied and probably will be public. The assembly and council, it is understood will hold elections consecutively, after which the lists chosen by each body will be compared at the first election.

be obtained by measures which will bear as lightly as possible upon the individual tax payer. I think it will be found that a reduction in the income taxes will be part of wisdom and as in the United States, reductions in these taxes will be highly desirable because of the consequence.

"The aggregate monies for investment thus mare available will be considerable and while it is impossible for us to meet the capital demands of the country with Canadian capital alone, the more of our own monies which are invested in Canada the better for the country. The best Canadian is he who has a personal stake in the enterprises of his own country.

Decreased Rates Necessary

"There is nothing special to announce as to the company's program for 1922, as that will not be determined until a later date."

Asked what he though of the rate situation, Mr. Beatty stated that undoubtedly decreases in rates would be necessary just as soon as financial conditions of the companies warranted it. He pointed out that during the period of strict economy the purchases of the larger systems were very greatly reduced, and from the standpoint of the welfare of the country it was highly undesirable that the finances should be so contracted that fairly free spending of money in Canada should be prevented. He pointed out that all railways preferred to make reasonable earnings through the free movement of traffic at moderate rates rather than a restricted movement under higher rates; moderate rates rather than restricted movement under higher rates; but that regard must be had to the earning power and consequent effect on the credit of the companies if monies were to be readily obtained to enable them to meet the natural expansion of the country which was inevitable and not, in his opinion, in the distant future.

SEES REVERSAL TO TRIBALISM

It will thus be seen that there are yet many difficulties ahead.

Sinn Feiners Impatient

DUBLIN, Sept. 8.—Arthur Griffith and other Sinn Fein leaders awaited at the Mansion House this evening with some impatience the arrival of Robert C. Barton, who is carrying the British cabinet's reply back to Ireland, because, although the terms of the reply are known, the Sinn Feiners are anxious to learn further details.

The Sinn Fein leaders are still silent respecting their intentions, but in other Irish political circles the opinion is expressed that Lloyd George has shown a disposition to meet all difficulties. Although the Republican leaders decline to discuss the matter publicly those in touch with them regard it as certain that they will accept the invitation to meet at Inverness. In such event, plenipotentiaries would be selected.

Consider Plenipotentiaries

Arthur Griffith, as foreign minister, certainly would be one of them, while Michael Collins, commander of the Irish Republican army and finance minister, is a possibility. Professor John MacNeil is considered a likely selection as he is a distinguished scholar and speaker. He is also a native of county Autrim and a member of parliament for Derry, both within the area of the northern parliament.

Therefore he is considered the best exponent of the attitude of the Ulster Nationalist minority.

Replies to Labor Congress

INVERNESS, Sept. 8.—The prime minister today sent a reply to the message from the trades union congress as Cardiff in which he declares that nobody is more opposed than His Majesty's government to bloodshed, and most of all to war between citizens of the same Empire.

"But," he added, "I have the authority of the greatest democratic statesman in history for the belief that even bloodshed is better than the disruption of the living political organism, whose strength and energy are essential to the freedom of the world."

Lloyd George probably will remain several weeks in Scotland and in the event of De Valera's accepting the invitation to the conference, will call a preliminary meeting of the cabinet to arrange details.

GAMBLE RATIONS FOR MOONSHINE

Far North Indians in Danger of Extinction From Hereditary Diseases.

EDMONTON, Sept. 8.—There is actual danger of the Indians in the far north becoming extinct unless measures are taken to safeguard them against their hereditary diseases, according to a report to the provincial health department by Dr. W. W. Bell, health inspector, who states that better health conditions there are urgently needed. Dr. Bell has just returned from an inspection trip through the Wabaskaw district, northeast of Lesser Slave lake, where he investigated the prevailing conditions among Indians and half breeds.

Not only were large numbers of the Indians found to be tubercular, but veneral diseases were prevalent and scores of children were showing symptoms of them. It was particularly to look into the smallpox situation that the trip was undertaken.

Dr. Bell is in favor of a regulation providing that only one family shall live in any one-roomed house. Another remedial measure proposed is that a detachment of mounted police be stationed in the district to enforce health and other laws.

The granting of rations to the northern Indians through the Dominion Indian department is criticized by Dr. Bell in his report. In his opinion this has done more than anything else to degrade the natives. In many cases he found that the rations had been gambled away for prunes and raisins, out of which to make moonshine whisky.

COAST LACROSSE MEN WANT MATCH

Sapperton Club Plans Tour of Interior; May Play Locals in Nelson.

Considerable excitement in lacrosse circles here yesterday over a letter from W. S. Simpson, secretary of the Sapperton Amateur Lacrosse club, a New Westminster aggregation that is trying to arrange a tour of interior towns including Vernon, Kelowna, Penticton, Revelstoke, and Nelson. The club requested information as to the possibilities of a game with Nelson.

Members of the Nelson club got together and eagerly discussed the matter, and were very much in favor of a match with the New Westminster invaders if it can be arranged to take place as a part of the Nelson Fair sports program. Accordingly, negotiations regarding terms and the date, are on, with Secretary Harry Ferguson doing the dickering.

EXPECT BANNER FLORAL SECTION

Nelson Gardeners Report Rains Have Helped Immensely; Vegetables Also.

Nelson gardeners were enthusiastic yesterday as to the possibilities of a banner floral section at the Nelson fall fair, which opens week after next, or on Sept. 21. The rains have made some differences in the outlook, and while they expected to make a good showing anyway, the precipitation gives the flowers just the needed stimulus to bring them to perfection.

The vegetables will also benefit, R. V. Ramsden pointed out yesterday, and the showing of the kitchen gardens ought to be exceptionally good.

PUT TERRITORY ON MAP AS LATE CHERRY DISTRICT, SAYS HUNT

"Finer cherries do not grow anywhere than around Kootenay lake, and the other waters of the Kootenay district. Everyone will admit this, for it is a fact undisputed. This is a natural cherry territory," declared E. C. Hunt, assistant horticulturist, yesterday, with conviction.

"That point being carried unanimously," continued Mr. Hunt, "and it being obvious that the district's ability to grow cherries is a natural resource that ought to be turned to special account, the next thing is to see what varieties should be grown, in order to get the best market. As stated by Mr. Emory and Mr. Norman, this is a late district, and by growing Bings and Lamberts, especially the latter, it can enjoy an exclusive market on the prairie, or one nearly so. The first of our Bings come on with about the last of the Okanagan Lamberts, and our own Lamberts have no competition at all.

"Practically speaking, our late Bings and our Lamberts have the prairie markets all to themselves, with, of course, all the advantages of high price. When the district gets to the stage of shipping its delicious late cherries in car lots, more distant and still higher priced markets will, of course, be then within reach.

"There are said to be some spots in our lake district where cherries have not been successful. I think if these statements are examined it will be found in almost all cases that a remedy exists. In many instances, for example, the growers have relied on the Bings and Lamberts to pollenize themselves. They are very poor pollenizers. One tree in six or perhaps one in eight, in an orchard of Bings and Lamberts should be a Black Tartarian or a Black Republican. This will ensure the proper yield.

"A distinct advantage possessed by the cherry is that it is an early fruit, and is developed and in many cases out of the way before the dry period develops, if it does so. At any rate, the effect on it of a dry spell is a minor matter. Of course, they will do better with moisture.

WILL REPAY ATTENTION

"While cherries require less attention than most fruits, growers should not submit them to abuse. They will respond to attention—cultivation, for instance, and considerably more of this is good for them than most growers seems to suppose. There should also be pruning to get the best out of a tree.

"Some of the oldest cherry orchards in the West Kootenay have just had the best yields in their history. The trees, if properly cared for, come in at about five or six years.

"I have every sympathy with the movement to put the Kootenay on the market map as a late cherry district, and would advise the systematic planting of the late varieties named, with observance of the necessary conditions as to pollenizing. They step will be a paying one, I am convinced."

BOARD OF TRADE COMMITS ITSELF TO DEFINITE PUBLICITY PROGRAM

Adopting the recommendations of its delegates to the Fernie publicity conference, the Nelson board of trade last night decided to become responsible for $600, the sum alotted ot it. of this amount, $100 must be paid at once, to provide funds for carrying on, and $500 will be required next March, when the big booklet being prepared by J. F. Spalding, of Fernie, will be ready for distribution. The board, by confirming the acts of its delegates, becomes automatically a member of the Tourist association of Southern Alberta and Southeastern British Columbia, which they assisted in forming, and which will include all the boar of trade between Rossland and Lethbridge and the trans-provincial highway route, together with Calgary.

Delegates Report Plan

W. Rutherford, chairman of the publicity committee, reported verbally on the conference, and outlined the publicity plan adopted, which was almost wholly the work of Mr. Spalding, who was subsequently appointed commissioner. Various amounts were assessed against the different boards, to defray the cost of the joint illustrated booklet, and the expense of its distribution. In addition to the big booklet, Mr. Rutherford said Nelson should subsequently print a small booklet devoted to Nelson and district, using the same cuts as in the larger production, and that the small booklet could be sent to prairie farmers.

H. W. Robertson, the other Nelson delegate, described the system of mapping the tourist routes, the trans-provincial highway being a part of the red route across the continent. The blue route came up from California, and included the Windermere, Banff and Calgary. It was Mr. Spalding's idea, Mr. Robertson said, as soon as the Rossland-Cascade link was completed, to arrange for cars that came up from the United States one way to go back another, the commissioner predicted that next year the traffic would be double its recent figures.

Annable Looks to Spokane

J. E. Annable said while it was desirable to do something on this line he did not favor spending very much on that particular plan. Some 500 touring cars arrived in Spokane every day, the majority following a map, which at present showed no connection with Nelson. The important thing was to get the Ymir road, when the motorists reaching Spokane could be brought, via Metalline Falls and Ymir to Nelson taken east as far as Proctor, and then sent home via Trail and Rossland.

This would give them a round trip which would have anything in the province beaten. Eventually, when the road was completed to Kaslo, that city could be included in the scope of the trip. If only 100 cars out the 500 came daily to Nelson, it would be an immense thing. On the other hand, traffic from the Crow would have to be limited, as, after local cars requiring transfer were taken care of, there would be room for not more than four on the Crow boat each trip. To take full advantage of the Spokane traffic, it would be desirable to station a man there, who would visit the motor camp, distribute literature, and give information.

In reply to Mr. Annable, Mr. Rutherford contended that if the Crow traffic developed, the C. P. R. could be relied on to provide barges or make other arrangements to take care of it. He also contended that the Fernie scheme, being cooperative, would furnish valuable publicity at the cheapest cost. It would also help settlement from Kaslo to Castlegar.

A. S. Horswill expressed a high regard for both plans. He thought the city council to be relied on to come through with a portion of the necessary funds.

H. A. Johnston said those preparing the booklet should see that the Ymir road was mentioned.

On motion of A. S. Horswill and A. L. McCulloch, the board adopted the recommendations of its delegates in full.

Formally Affiliates

The resolution adopted at the recent luncheon to the British Columbia Associated Boards of Trade party, purporting to bring the board into affiliation with the provincial organization, was read in the minutes by Secretary E. F. Gigot, the luncheon being reported as a meeting of the board of trade.

W. H. Jones took exception to this construction, pointing out that the constitution had not been complied with in advertsing it as a meeting of the board, and also that it cost 75 cents to be present.

President F. J. Boles asked if the bylaws of the board had always been complied with in other matters. He stated he had given everyone a chance to vote on that occasion, and intimated if the board did not uphold his acts as president he would resign the office.

He then directed the deletion of the minutes of the luncheon gathering relating to affiliation, stating the matter of affiliation could be brought up under the order of new business.

When the order was reached, a brief discussion on affiliation took place, all who expressed themselves being favorable to it, and a formal resolution of affiliation was adopted, without dissent. The motion was offered by J. A. Irving and A. S. Horswill.

Entertain President Beatty

President Boles raised the question of entertaining President E. W. Beatty of the C. P. R. when he is in Nelson next Wednesday.

The president and Secretary Gigot were appointed a committee to ascertain from Superintendent W. O. Miller the details in connection with the president's visit, and to invite him to be the guest of the board of trade at a luncheon.

It was decided to invite the Boards of Trade of Western Canada to meet in Nelson, for the conference which is now being talked of, and to forward the board's affiliation fee.

The freight and transporation committee reported that three Nelson manufacturing firms—the Nelson Iron Works, the Kootenay Wire Works, and W. W. Powell—had answered the questionnaire in connection with the campaign to secure equalization of freight rates.

Industrial Report

A report from the industrial committee stated that it had notified the patentee of the new type of hinge that it did not seem probable that anyone would undertake the manufacture of that article in Nelson just at present, but that it would keep the matter in mind and would advise him of any new developments.

A letter from the Forbes Vibratone company, which wishes to establish a toy factor somewhere, and a letter from H. E. Reynolds of Repress, Cal., who wants information on paper mills, were referred to J. E. Annable, chairman of the industries committee.

President F. J. Boles was in the chair, and there were also present Secretary E. F. Gigot, A. D. McLeod, I. R. Poole, A. L. McCulloch, W. S. King, A. S. Horswill, W. H. Jones, A. B. Kryscher, H. D. Kenny, E. W. Widdowson, J. A. Irving, J. A. Annable, W. Rutherford, . W. Robertson and H. A. Johnson.

NELSONITES WILL EXHIBIT AT TRAIL

Numerous Growers Will Cooperate in Sending Exhibit to Fruit Fair

Five or six of Nelson's flower growers have already promises to participate in Nelson's exhibit for the Trail fruit fair of three days, which opens next Wednesday, A. Wigg stated last night. Beside Mr. Wigg, who is getting up the exhibit, H. Selous, R. V. Ramsden, Alf Wood, E. Frost, and George Fletcher will be represented, among others.

It is expected that the vegetable men will also try for the Trail prizes, and several are thinking of taking a shot at the collection of potatoes, four varieties strong.

Mr. Wigg will take some exhibits, and others will be billed to his address at the fair.

The Ymir Road to Be Built

Nelson public bodies, notably the board of trade, have worked for years to secure from the provincial government the construction of the Ymir road. Hitherto the efforts have been without success.

It is gratifying to learn from the dispatch from Victoria, sent out by the Canadian Press leased wire service, that Premier Oliver has promised the delegation now at the coast that work shall be commenced this year and the road completed next year.

That is definite enough and very satisfactory.

It is pleasing news to the people of Nelson and the district as a whole and must be especially so to those who have been foremost in the fight to secure the construction of the highway, a necessary development in the highways of the district, which has been too long delayed.

The Redistribution Question.

There is ground for the argument that it would have been better for redistribution to have taken place before a Dominion election. Premier Meighen has expressed himself clearly enough to this effect. But there are weightier reasons why the election should be held as early as possible.

As Mr. Meighen has pointed out, the country is in a condition of political and economic uncertainty and will continue to be so until an election has been held and the tariff question definitely settled.

While redistribution was desirable it is infinitely more desirable and more important from the practical viewpoint of the prosperity of the country that the present condition of uncertainty should be brought to an end as rapidly as possible.

In any event, it comes with ill-grace from the two opposition groups and their spokesmen to criticize the government for calling an election before another session. On at least two occasions the opposition in the Dominion house has moved and voted for resolutions demanding an immediate dissolution and election. To say now that there should be no election before redistribution is rather obvious insincerity.

Efficient Housekeeping

BY Laura A. Kirkman

READERS' DISCOVERIES

Mrs. A. B. H.: "When I boil plain potates in salted water, then drain off the water, to serve them, I fold a napkin and put it over the potatoes and then put the cover on tight. In this way, the potatoes do not get dry as they do without a napkin over them."

Reader Housekeeper: "I believe more housekeepers would like to know of the little fluted paraffine cups now on the market, which I buy and put into the 'wells' of my cup-cake baking pans before pouring in the cake batter. By using these, one does not have to grease the pan; one never breaks the cup cakes in getting them out; and one saves having to wash a greasy pan after the baking. Small paper drinking cups may be used in the same way, cut down halfsize."

Bride: "When I bake a berry pie I always put my meat pan under it, in the oven, so that if any of the berry juice bubbles over, it won't get all over the oven. It is so hard to clean an oven! And when I broil slices of ham or chops I always do the same; that is, I put the meat pan under the dripping meat instead of the regular pan which comes for this purpose with every stove—and thereby save the nuisance of scouring a large dripping pan. If I broil only 1 chop, I use a pie pan under it to catch the grease."

Newly-Weds: "We have no chaffing dish yet, but we serve all the delicate chafing-dish dishes by cooking them in the top of our double boiler, over water. So many people think they can't have chafing-dish dainties because they own no chafing-dish. For a guest supper I make a Welch Rarebit, for instance, and put it on individual plates, on crackers, then bring these plates into the dining room."

M. L. "Here is my husband's favorite tomato relish, which has a rather 'hot' taste Tomato Relish: 18. ripe tomatoes skinned by blanching, then put through the food chopper; 3 red peppers, 1 small onion (chop these two vegetables small also); 2 cups granulated sugar, 1 teaspoon mace, 2 tablespoons ground cinnamon, 2 teaspoons allspice, 2 teaspoons ground cloves, ½ teaspoon mustard unprepared, 1 teaspoon celery seed, 1 teaspoon ginger. Simmer these ingredients together for 2 hours, then turn the mixture into hot, sterilized jars and seal while hot."

Reader-Subscriber: "Just try my original recipe for Apple Chutney: Peel core and chop 10 sour apples, discarding seeds. Seed and chop 2 green peppers and peel and chop 2 large onions. Put these all into the preserving kettle, add 1 cup seedless raisins, 1 cup brown sugar, 1 tablespoon salt, 1 cup vinegar and 1 tablespoon mustard seed and let simmer for 30 minutes. Then turn at once into hot, sterilized pars and seal while hot."

A Mother: "I kept washing and ironing my little girl's dresses constantly until I hit upon the idea of making her a 'Cow Girl's costume (it is just like a cowboy's suit, only with skirts). My husband then made her a small tent of canvas, for the back yard—and she plays happily almost all day, dressed in this little Khaki dress! It has been such a help to me, for now I have only a few light dresses each week to wash for her."

Tomorrow—Two Fish Suppers.

All inquiries addressed to Miss Kirkman in care of the "Efficient Housekeeping" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped and self-addressed envelope must be enclosed with the question.—The Editor.

DESCRIBES SCENE OF GREEK ACTION

Advance on Angora Through Inhospitable Drought Stricken Mountains.

ANGORA, Sept. 7.—(Associated Press)—The Asia Minor campaign of the Greeks to break the power of the Turks, the decisive battle of which may take place near this city, is staged on fields among the richest in the world with battle memories. Midas, Alexander the Great, Zenobia of Palmyra, the Romans of Augustus and Caracalla, Mithriadates, Cyrus the Great, Harun-el-Raschid and a host of others passed here with their armies, robbing and plundering, sometimes stopping to build fortresses and castles, making the place a stronghold and transportation center midway betwen Persia and the seas.

The fortune of war may have it that General Ismet Pasha will deliver battle on the plains of Chibukabad to the north of this city, on the very plains where Tamerlane, with his Mongol hordes, in 1736 defeated Bayezid, the latter marching from Constantinople to stop the Mongol.

Waterless Malarial Valleys.

The advance of the Greeks is through a thinly settled country of treeless, rolling ranges of limestone mountains two to four thousand feet in height, rising dry and hot out of well nigh waterless, malarial valleys. At dawn and sunset the face of the country is mantled with a velvety screen of rose coloring which the traveler learns to love and almost repays for the stifling heat and dust of broad day, hardly untempered by the scorching winds that blow steadily across the limitless, broad distances.

"Ours ies a rather unhappy country in summer," explained a Turkish army doctor at one of the halts along the railway to Angora, where the soldiers were poisoning and filling in the well after taking the last supply of water. "I spend my days and nights feeding quinine," he added. "About here only Turks, sheeps and shepherd dogs can live."

Nearer Angora, or in the districts distance from the valleys through which pass the railway, however, are sometimes discovered villages and towns seeming like little paradise by contrast. They are planted in valleys beside streams or springs of living water which the heat of summer does not entirely devour. Seen from the mountain tops as the traveler approaches with their loft poplar trees and green gardens and white mosque, there is a brief fear that they are but mirages seen in the desert countries.

Once in a long while the valley is made fertile by abundance of water, as at Tschibuk and then are seen silvery olive trees quivering in the heat, delicious grassy prospects, horn larks with cardinal red tops twittering by the roadside, green and brown jaybirds, darting magpies with handsome black and white bodies, pink sweet Williams peeping from the bushes and, if the season be not too far advanced, ripe melon patches and orchards of white and red cherries.

LUNCHROOM PROFITEERS

BOSTON—The average plate of baked beans served in armchair lunchrooms in Boston contains 295 beans, which, together with bread and butter furnished with it, cost about two and one-half cents, the state commission of necessaries of life reports. The usual charge to the public is 15 cents, the commission's investigation found.

Frankfurter sandwiches, popular with those patronizing quick lunches, cost an average of two and four-fifths cents, including mustard, and usually sell for ten cents, the report said.

PRESERVE ANTIQUES

LIMA—Exportation of archaeological objects, particularly those belonging to the ancient Inca civilization, has been prohibited by government decree. It supplements a similar decree issued years ago which limited the removal of Peruvian antiquities to foreign countries and provides for a heavy fine for wilful destruction of objects of this character.

CRAB COCKTAILS IN TOMOTO CUPS

Peel, cut slices from the stem ends of six firm, medium-sized tomatoes; with a teaspoon carefully scoop out the soft pulp and seeds, to form cups. Use fresh or canned crab meat. If the latter is used turn into a bowl and mix with the following dressing: Finely chop one medium-sized mild green pepper and one-half a mild red pepper, then pass through the meat chopper. Add one-half cup of tomato catsup and one tablespoon of grated onion. Mix thoroughly with crab meat and fill tomato cups, slightly rounding the mixture above cups. Serve each in a nest of curly chicory leaves arranged on small plates; garnish each with a plume of celery. If fresh crabs are used the crabs should be cooked twenty to twenty-five minutes, drained, chilled and the meat removed from the shells.

HOW PREMIERS VARY MONOTONY

Scribble and Draw Things; Journalist Rescues Samples From Waste Basket.

PARIS, Sept. 7.—The hours dragged monotonously for the allied premiers during the last meeting of the supreme council at Paris, while the interpreters were translating the various speeches from French into English and Italian and, to while away the time, the prime ministers scribbled and drew various figures on pieces of paper which they later threw into the waste basket. A journalist rescued them and this is what he found:

Lloyd George probably inspired by the designs on Marshall Foch's uniform right across the table from him, had drawn a perfect oak leaf.

Lord Curzon's effort proved to be a geographical map, but the country which it purported to bound remained a mystery; it might have been Upper Silesia and then again it might have been India, as the noble Lord was just preparing a speech on famine in that country during his viceroyalty as compared with the present Russian famine.

Briand's thoughts were evidently far away from matters of state, while Camerlynck, the official interpreter, was translating into English a speech the French premier had just delivered, for he drew a picture of a wedding couple just emerging from one of the Parisian churches. The French premier is a bachelor.

Styles

BY LENORE

Whatever may be finally accepted by the fashionable women of Paris as the smartest length for street wear, it seems reasonably established that the threatened ankle-length skirt is still a thing of fashion—for the average American. At least this season skirts will remain fairly short, though longer, of course, than during the Spring and Summer. In New York, which may be said to set the fashion standards for—shall I say Main Street?—they do not travel so fast up and down the scale of skirt lengths.

In the above illustration it is the slender pencil silhouette which gives distinction to the model, a suit typical of many to be seen this Fall. It is of soft velours de laine in Sorrento blue, with beaver collar and self-color embroidery in simple border.

PATTERN NO. 254

A pattern for the above model (No 254) can be obtained in sizes 34, 36 or 38, by sending to The Daily News, your name, address, and 50 cents in postage stamps. Be sure to keep this newspaper clipping of the sketch and description of the garment to use as a working model when the pattern reaches you—which will be within two weeks' time—The Editor.

LENINE EXPLAINS NEED OF CAPITAL

Concessions Necessary to Secure Development of Resources; Soviet Guides

LONDON, Sept. 8.—In the first number of the new Labor Monthly, Premier Lenine explains the discovery of the Soviet government of Russia that it could not get along without capitalism in some form and why it has compromised on what it calls "state capitalism."

"State capitalism," he said, "is incomparably higher economically than our present economic system—that is one point; and secondly there is nothing in it that is terrible for the Soviet government, for the Soviet state is a state which guarantees power to workers and the poor.

"One of the simplest cases or examples of how the Soviet government guides the development of capitalism along the path of state capitalism—of how it 'plants' state capitalism—is concessions. Everybody now agrees that concessions are necessary, but not everybody fully appreciates the significance of concessions.

Soviet Reaps Advantage

"The Soviet government secures the advantage in the form of the development of productive forces and an increase in the quantity of products available immediately or within a short period. We have, say, hundreds of enterprises, mines, forests, etc., we cannot develop them all; we have not enough machinery, food or transport.

"In 'planting' state capitalism in the form of concessions, the Soviet government strengthens large production against small production, the advanced against the backward, machine production against hand production. It increases the quantity of products of large industry in its hands and strengthens the state regulation of economic relations as a counter-balance to the petty bourgeoise to anarchic relations."

RESISTS ARREST; SHOOTS POLICE

Criminal Escapes, Followed by Posse of Several Hundred Men.

HIBBING, Minn., Sept. 8.—Chief of Police Daniel Hayes and Chief of Detectives Gene Cafferty are dead, and William Clark, a traffic officer, all of Hibbing, is in a local hospital, thought to be fatally injured, from rifle shot wounds inflicted by John Webb at Nelson, just south of Hibbing, late today. The officers were attempting to arrest Webb on a statutory charge. Webb made his escape toward Wilpin and is being pursued by a posse of several hundred men.

An 18 year old son of Webb's came here this afternoon and swore out a warrant against his father, alleging an offense against Webb's young daughter. Haynes, Cafferty and Clark immediately went to Webb's home at Nelson.

Kills Two, Injuries One

When Chief Hayes opened the door, he was shot through the heart and killed by Webb, who used a 30.30 rifle. As Cafferty stepped in he was shot in the shoulder, dying within a few minutes. Clark was hit in the shoulder and was brought to a Hibbing hospital, where it was stated tonight his recovery is not expected.

When news of the tragedy became public, several hundred men set out in pursuit of Webb, who had fled. Webb has the reputation of being a crack shot and the posse were warned about this.

Webb is a widower and the father of six children. Recently neighbors said, he had been acting in a peculiar manner. Last night he terrorized his children and they slept in the woods.

APPOINT BLACK NEW COLONIZING MINISTER

OTTAWA, Sept. 8.—W. J. Black, former chairman of the soldier settlement board is to be appointed deputy minister of immigration and colonization.

Mr. Black has had a long experience in connection with colonization and agricultural problems especially in the west. He was deputy minister of agriculture for Manitoba from 1904 to 1905 when he was entrusted with the task of organizing the Manitoba agricultural college, being professor of that institution for 10 years. In 1915 he was appointed secretary of the economic and development commission which did important war work.

On the death of Dr. C. C. James, federal commissioner of agriculture in 1916, Mr. Black was appointed to take office, and in 1918 he was asked by the government to undertake the organization of the soldier land settlement scheme. Under his chairmanship, the work of the board developed rapidly and over 19,000 returned soldiers were settled on the land with loans approximating $76,000,000.

INTERNATIONAL CHEMISTS MEET

Subjects Range From Filtration Water to Vitamines; Prominent Speakers.

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—Chemists of Great Britain, Canada and the United States began an international conference here today which was heralded as the greatest meeting in the history of their science and industry. More than 3000 of them were expected to attend the series of addresses, symposiums and exhibits which will continue through September 10, embracing all phases of chemical work, with particular emphasis on post-war problems.

The following seven days will be devoted to the seventh national exposition of the chemical industries.

Prominent among those scheduled to address the gathering were Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover, Sir William J. Pope, president of chemistry professors from universities of the United States, England and Canada and heads of research departments in many industries of the three countries.

The British and Canadian delegations came here from Montreal, where the Society of Chemical Industry of Great Britain recently held a convention. In New York they were joined by the American division of their organization and hundreds of members of the American Chemical society.

Broad Field of Endeavor

Unemployment among chemists was scheduled as one of the foremost topics for discussion. In this connection chemists expressed hopes of absorbing many of the unemployed graduates of chemical schools in research work in preparation for expected freshening of industrial activity.

Tariff legislation affecting the chemical industry in America also was booked for consideration.

A broad field of chemical endeavor is represented in the various symposiums. These will include subjects as old as the filtration of water and as new as vitamines which like appendicitis may always have existed but were late in being recognized.

ACCEPT REDUCTION AS NOTICE OF DISMISSAL

LONDON, Sept. 8.—Canadian Associated Press)—In connection with the impending crisis in the printing industry, due to the proposed reduction of seven shillings and six pence in the weekly wages of the printers, the secretary of the master printers' federation states that many members of the trades unions are accepting the intimation of the reduction as a notice of dismissal. There will be little printing after next week unless wiser counsels prevail, as the employers feel that they have gone as far as they possibly can. Notices were posted in the printing shops last week announcing the reduction in wages to take effect after next week.

TRADES UNIONS ADOPT SUPPORT FOR ACTORS

LONDON, Sept. 8.—Following the appearance this afternoon before the British Trades Union congress at Cardiff of representatives of the Actors' association of England, the congress passed a resolution urging that labor representatives on local governing bodies give the actors' associations the fullest support in regard to the wage question.

The spokesman for the actors had alleged working conditions in provincial theaters which "would not be tolerated in any factory or workshop."

Congress also passed a resolution favoring legislation for the licensing of all theatrical, vaudeville, concert and circus managers and agents, and the "unionizing" of every place of amusement in the United Kingdom.

TRAP CHURCH THIEF

TORONTO—After a series of thefts extending over many weeks from the collection plates of St. Basil's Catholic church here, the theif —a member of the church—was trapped in the vestry by detectives.

Operations in apprehending the thief involved the use of high powered binoculars, a considerable amount of marked bills and silver, and the detectives keping a viligant watch from positions of vantage in St. Michael's college tower, a distance of about 140 feet. By means of the binoculars they were able to see his movements in gathering the money off the plates and when confronted with the thefts the man admitted his guilt. The marked money was found in his possession.

It is understood the church will not prosecutet and the shortages have been made up.

EVENING STANDARD CRITICIZES AWARD

Declares Grand Trunk Shares Worth $2,000,000; Expected Justice at Least.

LONDON, Sept. 8. — (Canadian Press Cable).—Regarding the majority of the Grand Trunk arbitration commission made public Wednesday, the Evening Standard says that after the manner in which British investors in Canadian utility companies have been treated during the last few years, it was hardly to be expected that any more consideration would be shown the Grand Trunk shareholders.

However, if generosity was not expected, says the Standard, it was thought that justice would be done at least. While stating that, in declaring the ordinary and preferred stocks valueless, the arbitrators have elected to wipe out capital amounting to $37,000,000, the Standard admits that about two millions is the real nominal value of this, and the fact that the stocks are worth anything is because "there are always people who are ready to gamble on a possibility."

APPOINTS COMMITTEE UPON ENCAMPMENT

LONDON, Sept. 8.—(By Associated Press)—The government's decision to appoint a committee, comprising Sir Robert S. Horne, chancellor of the exchequer; T. J. MacNamara, minister of labor; Alfred M. Mond, minister of health, and Robert Munroe, secretary for Scotland, to deal with the unemployment question, probably indicates the intention to meet the problem raised by the imprisonment of the councillors in the borough of Poplar.

The government's unemployment insurance plan has failed, owing to the remarkable depression in trade. The insurance pay, which was inadequate to the present cost of living, has lapsed until November, when the new year will begin. In the meantime all unemployment bureaus are to be thrown upon boards of guardians.

THIEVES FIGHT IN SEWER

VIENNA, Sept. 8.—In a raid on the sewers for thieves who were suspected of availing themselves of those short cuts into houses they intended to rob, a number of men have just been captured by the police after a fight with revolvers.

Women clad in black tights were among them.

MAKE PILGRIMAGE TO MOUNTAIN TOP

War Veterans and Others Climb to Reconsecrated Statue of Madonna.

MONTE GRAPPA, Italy, Sept. 8.—This mountain, 5000 feet high, amid the rugged crags of the Alps, has just been the scene of a vast pilgrimage of 15,000 veterans of the world war, women and children, who for days have been climbing to reach the summit where the statue of a Madonna and child was reconsecrated in memory of the Italian heroes who fought in these mountain fastnesses.

The road to the summit is 18 miles in length and winds through passes, skirts the edge of bottomless ravines and rises finally to giddy heights, where to the south one sees the plains of Isonzo to the sea, to the north continue chains of towering Alps. It was thus that during the war, the army that occupied Monte Grappa controlled the plain. It was the mountainous battleground of the Italian and Austrian armies and its changing of hands during the course of the war is the story of the whole campaign.

Taken Away During War.

The Madonna which has now retaken her place on the summit, was placed here in 1910 by Cardinal Sarto, patriarch of Venice. In May, 1918, while the stronghold was in possession of the Italians, an Austrian bomb struck the pedestal on which the statue rested.

A captain of engineers and a handful of men left their dugouts among the rocks and in a terrific bombardment lifted the statue and took it to a place of safety. On a convenient day, it was taken down from the mountain and carried back to the rear to remain until the end of the war so that it could be erected with safety.

Recounts Italian Exploits.

For the ceremony of replacing the Madonna, which has just taken place, the King was represented by the Duke of Gergamo, who delivered an address on the sacrifices made by Italian troops in the defense of Grappa. Former Premier Orlando made the principal speech, in which he recounted the heroic exploits of the Italian army in overcoming the seemingly unsurmountable difficulties of the mountain strongholds. There were special commissions at the ceremony from the senate and the chamber of deputies. After the addresses, a mass was celebrated. The cardinal of Venice with five bishops of the Veneto officiated in the religious ceremony.

General Giardino, known as the "Defender of Grappa," received a gold medal from the city of Treviso. While the ceremonies were performed a huge Italian dirigible hovered over the mountain heights signaling to the mountain villagers. It also carried a message to Grappe from the city of Venice, which read as follows:

"The bulwark of the air salutes the bulwark of the mountains."

The circular skirt comes bobbing its way into the realm of fashion with a peculiar persistency, and it will not be downed.

CLEANSING BUENOS AIRES

BUENOS AIRES—Sunrise every morning finds Buenos Aires in the downtown section in particular fresh washed, clean as a Dutch housewife's doorstep and smelling like a hospital. This is a result of the thorough washing given all the streets every night and the liberal doses of disinfectant that are spread about in order to check communicable diseases.

About midnight every night gangs of white clad men, armed with brooms and hose, appear and undertake to rout out any chance germs that may be lurking in gutters and dark corner. But this is only a part of the city's constant war on disease. It also carries on educational campaigns, using posters principally in orders to warn the people of the means by which disease is spread.

MAIN STREET WANTS STARS

CHICAGO—"Nellie—the Beautiful Cloak Model" and her sisters of melodrama, heroines of the gallery gods, have been buried by the Central Managers' association, representing theaters in more than fifty small towns.

The curtain has been rung down on the shop-worn thrillers, the theater owners said, as Main street wants the same shows New York and Chicago see.

"We are going to insist that some of the Broadway stars stop off at our towns," Nathan Appell, secretary of the association, said.

UPWARD MARKET MOVEMENT HALTS

Shorts, on Foreign Advices, Renew Aggressive Tactics; Leaders Fall Back.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—The upward movement in the stock market today was halted, shorts renewing their aggressions partly as a result of foreign advices which bore more or less directly upon home markets. Private cables from London hinted at another crisis in the Irish situation, although this was not reflected in the British exchange rate. The collapse of marks to virtually the lowest quotation since the armistice, however, directed attention to Germany's strained economic situation. Unsettlement in the local cotton market, where options suffered another setback, also served to restrain bullish operations.

Gains exceeded recessions at the outset, but market leaders soon developed a backward trend. Motors and equipments, as well as chemicals, fertilizers, tobaccos and sugars, led the decline at gross depreciations of 1 to 4 points. Oils, rubbers, junior steels and the less prominent food specialties seemed to draw their irregular strength from the manoeuvers of pools, but broke sharply in the final hour. Mexican Petroleum was most adversely affected.

Sales wer 475,000 ssares.

Because of the light inquiry for funds, call money fell from 5½ to 5 per cent before noon. Later, in the open market, these accommodations were obtainable at 4½ per cent. Sterling was firm, as also Dutch and Scandinavian bills, but French and Belgium rates eased, and all central European quotations were adversely affected by the break in German and Austrian exchanges.

The better trend of the bond list confirmed the impression prevalent in many quarters that investment money continues to seek an outlet.

Liberty issues showed mixed gains and losses.

Total sales, $13,650,000.

TORONTO BOARD

TORONTO, Sept. 8.—The stock market lost some of its snap today, and while there was moderate firmness, there was no continuation of the forward movement on the scale of the previous two days. Bread sold up to 25, a gain of 2¼, while steel products gained 1¼, closing at 52¼. It is only a weeks since this stock was selling at 32.

Victory bonds were inclined to softness.

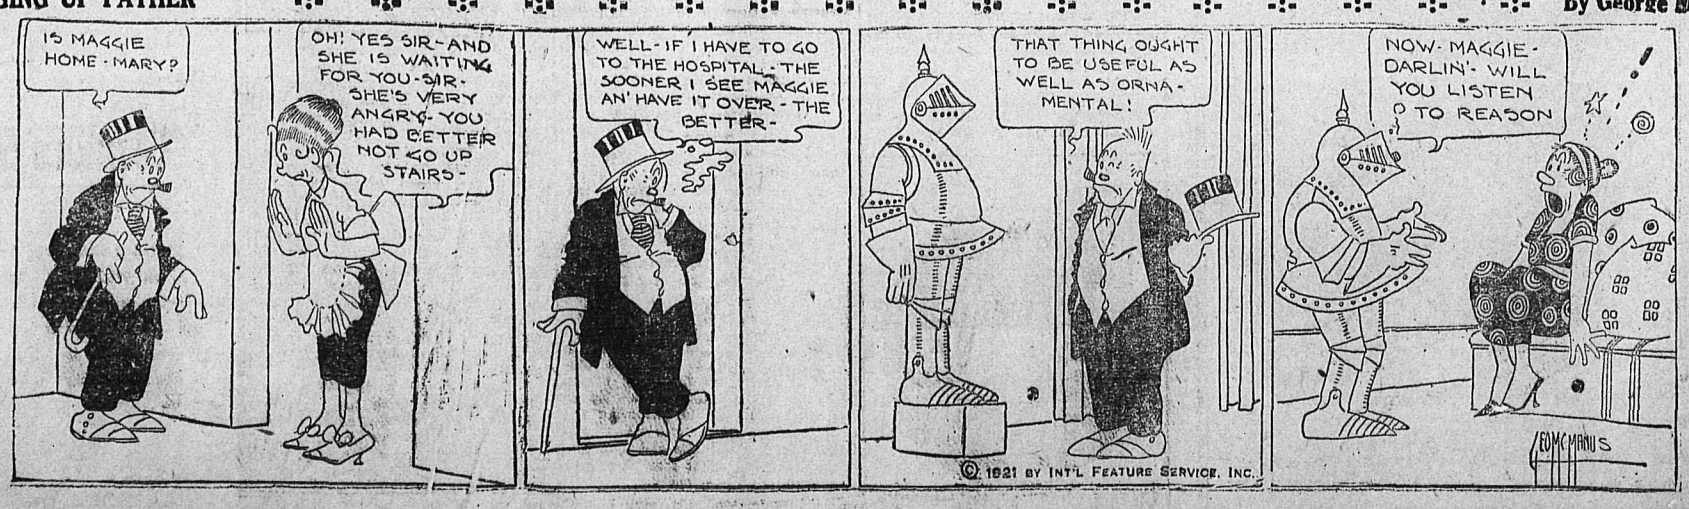
BRINGING UP FATHER By George McManus



PUBLIC IS URGED TO HEED NATURE'S WARNING

Thousands of People Suffer Perament Loss of Health Because of Neglest—Nature Has Set the Danger Signals for Us and We Cannot Afford to Pass Unnoticed the Warning That She Gives Us.

Good digestion means good health; bad digestion means bad health.

A sound stomach is worth a hundred times its weight in gold. Probably eighty per cent of all diseases originate in the digestive organs. Dyspepsia, or what is more commonly known as indigestion, is not only one of the most prevalent, but it is one of the most difficult to treat of all present day diseases, and has for years baffled the skill of leading specialists everywhere.

Stomach trouble is almost always followed by a complication of diseases. One of the first being an overworked liver, with all the symptoms of biliousness, followed in turn with headaches, coated tongue, nausea, dizzy spells, pain in the back, palpitation of the heart and other distressing symptoms. Sooner or later the kidneys will become involved and that is just why these danger signals should be heeded in time. A wise man puts out the fire before there is too much destruction; the same theory should apply to stomach trouble.

Gas in the stomach means fermentation instead of digestion; decay, instead of nutrition for fermentation produces poisons, which are absorbed by the blood, and which frequently bring on the condition known as autointoxication or self-poisoning. This is also why we develop acidosis, which brings on so many complications, such as rheumatism, hardening of the arteries, high blood pressure and other conditions, which may mean permanent loss of health. Acidosis is one of the main forerunners of Bright's disease and diabetes hence it is evident that if we have stomach trouble, however slight, we are foolish indeed if we do not take prompt steps to correct it.

If we are not fit as a fiddle in the morning; if we don't feel better than when we went to bed; if our breath is offensive: and we have that bad taste in the mouth; nature has set the danger signals for us and we cannot afford to neglect the warning that she gives us. That is just why the demand for Tanlac, the great Stomachic, Systemic and Reconstructive tonic, has broken all world's records. The American people have learned that it probably provides the surest, safest and quickest remedy for all such troubles, and millions upon millions have taken it with the most astonishing and gratifying results.

Tens of thousands of men and women of all ages and in all walks of life afflicted with stomach, liver and kidney disorders, some of them of long standing, as well as thousands of weak, thin, nervous men and women apparently on the verge of collapse, have testified publicly that they have been fully restored to their normal health, strength and weight by its use. Still others who seemed fairly well, yet who suffered with indigestion, headaches, shortness of breath, dizzy spells, sour, gassy stomachs, coated tongues, foulness of breath, constipation, bad complexion, loss of appetite, sleeplessness at night and terribly dejected, depressed feelings, state that they have been entirely relieved of these distressing symptoms and restored to health and happiness by Tanlac.

NOTE: Tanlac Vegetable Pills are an essential and vitally important part of the Tanlac Treatment wherever constipation is present.

You cannot hope to get satisfactory results from the Tanlac Treatment without first establishing a free and regular movement of the bowels. It stands to reason that no treatment can do the greatest amount of good when you are suffering from constipation or biliousness, or when your system is clogged up with waste products and poisons.

Tanlac is sold in Nelson by The Canada Drug & Book Co., and by leading druggists everywhere.

ROWELL TALKS TO BAR ASSOCIATION

Deals With International Court of Justice; Traces Arbitration.

OTTAWA, Sept. 8.—(Canadian Press)—In an address before the Canadian Bar association at luncheon today, Hon. N. W. Rowell dealt at length on the establishment of the international court of justice, tracing the methods of arbitration from its earlier forms down to the present day. This development was steady and progressive and first took the form of arbitration treaties covering particular disputes.

The second step forward was the inauguration of The Hague arbitration tribunal, and general arbitration treaties with respect to questions of vital importance and international honor. The third move was the agreement among the nations, to the conventions establishing permanent peace commissions whose duty was to investigate and report on all questions not covered by arbitration treaties, and containing an agreement not to resort to war until the report was received. The establishment of the covenant of the League of Nations covering the submission to arbitration or to conciliations by the council on all questions and an agreement not to resort to war until three months after the arbitrators had made their award, or the council had made its report, was one of the most recent measures against war. The establishment of the permanent court of international justice, would, he felt, go far to prevent serious conflicts in the future.

Must Appeal to Bar

Everyone recognized that the world was passing through a period of depression and reaction following the noble idealism and high enthusiasms which had marked the early days of peace, but better conditions were in store. To no body of men would the international court of justice make a stronger appeal than the members of the bar in all parts of the British Empire.

Banquet Brilliant Affair

OTTAWA, Sept. 8.—(Canadian Press)—Inspiring addresses pointing to the lofty ideals which must animate all members of the legal profession marked the sixth annual banquet of the Canadian Bar association held in the Chateau Laurier this evening. The position of the profession was declared to be is the van of the forward march of humanity and in the upbuilding and maintenance of civilization.

In the absence of Sir James Aikens, K.C., the president, who was recalled to Manitoba on public business, H. W. Atwater, K.C., Montreal, presided. The speakers included Right Hon. Sir John Simon, K.C.; Hon. H. L. Carson, Philadelphia; Sir Francois Lemieux, chief justice of the superior court of Quebec; on. W. L. Mackenzie King and Mr. Justice Hodgins, Toronto, is excellency, Baron Byng, was present, as were leaders in the legal, political and social life of Canada.

Elect MacNaughton

One of the pleasing features of the banquet was the unanimous election of Sir Malcolm MacNaughton, a prominent member of the British bar, to an honorary membership in the Canadian Bar association. The speeches which were marked throughout by graceful references to the energy and ability of Sir James Aikens, all carried the forceful opinion that law and justice were two of the predominant factors in the binding together of the British Empire. This was particularly stated by Sir John Simon, who declared that the British Empire was not held together by formula or machine-made constitution, but by the friendship between man and man, woman and woman and the justice of common law.

HAND OVER ECREMONT

MONTREAL, Sept. 8.—Arthur Ecrement, former federal member for Berthier county, Quebec, was today ordered handed over to United States officers, to be taken to Buffalo to face charges of being implicated in a fake betting scheme, by Judge Choquette, extradition commissioner.

Ecrement is accused with others of stealing amounts aggregating $125,000 from Michael Connelly, a local contractor, since dead. He has already been acquitted on a similar charge in the Montreal courts.

Application for a writ of habeas corpus was granted this afternoon and Ecrement was released on $10,000 bail pending hearing of argument on the writ, which will come up in court Tuesday morning.

WIFE HIDES DOLLARS FROM ARMED BANDIT

WINDSOR, Ont., Sept. 8.—Menaced by a gun in the hand of a bandit, Mrs. Allan, wife of George Allen, caretaker at the race track of the Windsor Jockey club, today saved her husband $6000 by quick thinking. Compelled to open the safe by the thug, who called at the house asking for work, Mrs. Allan crouched in front of the safe with the bandit's gun pressed against her head, swept a wallet containing $6000 in bills into her clothing and with her left hand she gave the thug $900 from a cash box on the top shelf of the safe. The bandit made his getaway in an automobile driven by a confederate.

BAKER STREET, NELSON, B. C.

WORLD WILL COME TO SEE GLACIERS

Fair Alpinists Pay High Tribute to Attractions of Selkirks.

"They draw you to Banff to see the famous Johnson canyon. But in your district I have seen the equivalent of half a dozen Johnson canyons. Your people do not realize what you have got here. You have scenery that the world will come to see. Because you live in the midst of it, perhaps, you do not appreciate it."

The speaker was Dr. Cora J. Best of Minneapolis, retired physician, writer, lecturer and mountain climber, who was one of the members of the Kokanee Mountaineering club's expedition to the glaciers, and nodding approval to her remarks stood Mrs. Audrey F. Shippam, of Ann Arbor, Mich., wife of Major Shippam, of the United States coast artillery, and Dr. Best's companion and collaborator in both mountain climbing and scientific pursuits. Mrs. Shippam is an artist, with both brush and camera, pursuing these activities as a pastime, and such glimpses of the glorious Kokanee ice field as she was able to obtain on the recent trip will be preserved in permanent and artistic form.

"We are very enthusiastic over your magnificent peaks, the immense glacier that we visited, your beautiful lakes and the many wonderful vistas that tourists are bound to appreciate," contributed Mrs. Shippam.

Not Excelled by Rockies.

"While there are higher peaks in the Rockies than you have adjacent to you, the country from which they rise is also higher. Relatively your peaks in the Selkirks are just as high as those in the Rockies, for their bases are lower. To the mountain climber they are just as attractive as famous peaks in the Rockies. Do not let anyone belittle them."

Dr. Best has had four season of mountain climbing in Canada, and Mrs. Shippam has had two. Both also have pursued this exhilarating pastime in both the United States and Alaska, and are also familiar with the Swiss Alps. While the United States boasts many organizations that are addicted to mountaineering, it has no Alpine club of its own, and when these visitors get back to Minneapolis they will take up the organizing a branch for Minnesota of the Alpine club of Canada. New York is the only state at present with such a branch.

Next year these visitors will come back, with reenforcements, and will play among the crags and glaciers of what may by that time be called Kokanee park.

Says Nelson Needs Jolt.

"You have the nucleus of a very important organization in your Kokanee Mountaineering club," declared Dr. Best. "The people of Nelson should join it en masse, both for the benefit they will gain from following the cult of the great outdoors, and in order to give it support, for the results of its endeavors will be very far reaching. Make no mistake about this—the time will come when great numbers of tourists will come here specially for the mountaineering attractions and the people of Nelson can considerably hasten or retard the arrival of that day.

"There is such a thing as an automobile festing on dead center. If it is given a push it will go ahead. Nelson seems to be in that position of equilibrium.

"What Nelson needs principally is a good, stiff jolt. It is the principal town of a district that has wonderful scenic resources, and it should organize itself to take advantage of and develop those resources. What has Banff to show tourists in comparison with what you have here?"

Dr. Best and Mrs. Shippam spent a portion of Wednesday at Brilliant, becoming posted on the Doukhobors. Yesterday afternoon they were the guests of Mrs. J. A. Gilker and A. B. Gilker on a motor trip to Upper Bonnington and last evening kept an appointment to become intimately acquainted with huckleberry pie, the basic material for which came from some altitude.

They will leave this morning for the Crow, en route to Cardston, Alta., from which point they will try to find a feasible route to Glacier national park, Montana, which route, if found, will be boosted by the Great Northern railway.

Are Naturalists.

Persons so conversant with the outdoors could not help but be naturalists. The two women, for instance, have a hobby for studying baby birds, and in many cases have spent hours in getting one photograph of nestlings. Dr. Best is also an authority on mushrooms, and belongs to a university society that studies that edible fungus. Yesterday she gathered several specimens of the Inky-Top Coprinicus, a relative of the Shaggy-Mane Coprinicus, growing on the Granite road. Fossils also command her interest, particularly crustaceans of the Cambrian period, which she has found in the Rockies. These pets of hers are from three to six million years old. She and her husband are both physicians and specialists and 16 of her ancestors were doctors. After giving up active practice, which was unnecessary in her case, she devoted five years to voluntary practice among the poor as a memorial to her mother.

Mrs. Shippam was unable to get overseas with the American expeditionary force, but did the next best thing, and operated a farm of 300 acres, plowing, seeding and harvesting, and participating fully in the hard work. Her husband, Major Shippam, is a lecturer at Michigan university, to the university unit, upon gunnery.

Both the little women prefer the freedom of male attire and use their alpenstocks as canes.

MONSTER NELSON GROWN APPLES EXCITE GROWERS

Five magnificent specimens of Nelson grown apples, every one weighing over one pound, are causing much speculation among horticulturists and fruit farmers here as to their variety. The prize dumpling fillers are being exhibited in the window of the Thurman cigar store on Baker street, and are from the trees of Thomas E. Nelson of Fairview.

Mr. Nelson himself is in doubt as to the name of the variety, although he has made a number of shipments to eastern points in the past, some of which ran 47 apples to the box. The most authoritative pronouncement on the vexing question yesterday was made by E. C. Hunt, assistant provincial horticulturist, who declared the giant apples belonged to the Peas Good Non-Such variety.

Social and Personal

Capt. Gerald K. Ashby, the South Slocan rancher, is a city visitor.

Mrs. J. F. Sindel and two daughters returned Wednesday night from a visit to coast cities.

I. R. Poole and family arrived Wednesday night from Edgewood, where Mrs. Poole and the children have been spending the summer.

M. C. Monaghan and J. C. Devlin left yesterday for Sheep creek to examine the Iron Mountain group of claims, with a view to bonding the property.

Sidney Norman, editor of the North West Mining Truth, in company with W. B. Poole, one of the owners of the Reno Mines on Faun Creek, left yesterday to make an examination of the Reno Property.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Currier, formerly of Lethbridge, have come to the city to reside. Mr. Currier, who was previously with the Assiniboia Music company, will take over the management of the Heintzman Piano company's store here. Mrs. Currier will be on the staff also and will look after the clerical work of the store. F. W. Whitfield will remain with the staff in the capacity of salesman.

GLASSES that were not made to fit the exact measurements of your eye deficiencies are worse than useless and should not be worn.
