WHILE MEIGHEN FIGHTS TO EXCLUDE JAPANESE QUEBEC LIBERALS OFFER THEM VOTE

ecord and Policy of Government and Opposition on Oriental Question Is in Tremendous Contrast; Capt. Carmichael Brilliantly Sets Forth the Record in Nelson Opera House; British Columbia Liberals Vote for Treaty Admitting Japanese; Stevens Asks Parliament to Exclude All Orientals.

That Premier Meighen's denunciaon of the Anglo-Japanese treaty, and his acts and utterances in connecn with the Orientals, showed him be for a white Canada, while the berals had admitted the Japanese, d the Quebec Liberal block, which uld dominate that party, now deanded that Orientals be given the te, was set forth in ringing terms, th the documentary evidence for ch statement made, Saturday night the opera house by Captain C. Carichael, who thus concluded his tour the West Kootenay in the interests Dr. W. O. Rose, National Liberal d Conservative candidate.

While Captain Carmichael also deted some attention to Mackenzie ing's ideas of citizenship during the ar, and to the attack being made on Premier Meighen in Quebec beuse he had fathered conscription, touched briefly upon the platform at would build up Canadian indusy and the platforms that would tear down, he gave the bulk of his time a discussion of the Oriental quesn, which proved of absorbing intert to the large audience.

The soldier orator came directly om the delayed Crow boat and was mediately introduced by Chairman E. Annable, who had spoken first. H. Wilkinson, the second speaker, aving just concluded. Dr. Rose, the ndidate, was absent at Proctor, here he was speaking, but there ere on the platform, in addition to hose mentioned, Mayor C. F. McardY, G. F. Motion, J. W. Robertn, Dr. L. E. Borden, C. D. Blanckood, J. A. Gilker, F. J. Boles and E. . Matthew, and Messrs. W. Garnd Foster, C. D. Blackwood, J. A. ilker, G. F. Motion, H. H. Pitts, Robt Thompson and W. O. Rose.

me Truth Was Told About Liberals.

As the Liberal candidates in Vanuver, Captain Carmichael said, were laiming to be in favor of the total clusion of Orientals, it was only fair hat the Liberal record on this quesn should be spread before the pubc. To start with, the present Liberal latform had a plank on the Chinese, ut studiously avoided the Japanese, ho were the real menace.

It was in 1906 that the Anglo-Japnese treaty was being discussed in he Canadian house of commons. J. . Kennedy of New Westminster, one f the "solid seven" Liberals from this rovince, asked for the imposition of head tax on the Japanese. Sir Wilrid Laurier, in reply, asked parliaent to "take a broad view," assured he house that under the "gentlemen's greement" which Hon. Mr. Lemieux ad negotiated with Japan only three r four Japanese would come in in a ear, and declared, "I must persistntly refuse to consider the head tax connection with the Japanese." The hinese head tax was and is $500.

At Sir Wilfrid Laurier's command he seven British Columbia Liberals thereupon voted for the treaty as it stood.

While Sir Wilfrid undoubtedly was sincere in his belief, said Captain Carmichael, the arrangement actually negotiated by Mr. Lemieux, the same Lemieux that was now the leader of the Quebec Liberals, opened the door to Japanese students and merchants, who could come in unrestricted, except that they were supposed to leave after two years.

Laurier's Open Door Flooded Province

As a result of the door thus opened, and propped open:

The Japanese now controlled British Columbia's fisheries.

They were on wholesale row in Vancouver.

They were deep into the retail business.

They were driving white settlers off the land in many old communities, such as near Mission, where today of 500-odd fruit growers 256 were Japanese, against 10 five years ago.

"In view of these conditions," declared Captain Carmichael, "we demand nothing less than an order for total exclusion of the Japanese." (Applause.)

"Why go back to 1906?" some of his Liberal auditors might ask. "For the reason that the reason for the present situation lay in 1906." (Applause.)

If his Liberal auditors preferred more up-to-the-minute evidence as to the attitude of their party on the Japanese, Captain Carmichael said he could oblige them. For instance, the debate in parliament in 1919, upon the Elections act, showed where the Liberal party in Quebec stood upon not only the Japanese, but the whole Oriental question.

Quebec Liberals Would Give Vote.

Mr. Lemieux, who was Sir Wilfrid Laurier's postmaster general and was now the leader of the Liberal party in Quebec, rose and said there was no reason why the Chinese, Japanese and Hindus in Canada should not be given the vote.

"I would like to hear any Liberal candidate in British Columbia advocate giving 50,000 Orientals in this province the vote," remarked Captain Carmichael.

Not only did Mr. Lemieux seriously advance this contention, but one of his principal lieutenants, who was stated to be cabinet timber, and a probable member of Mr. King's cabinet if he ever should have occasion to form one, Mr. McMaster, member from Brome, made a long speech upon this subject and advanced lengthy reasons why the Orientals should get the vote. In the course of this argument Mr. McMaster, Liberal cabinet possibility, made bold to state that the government only refused to enfranchise the Orientals because it was pandering to British Columbia.

But British Columbia Had Friends.

"I say it was a good thing for British Columbia that we had a government in power that had the courage

PREDICTS AN EARLY END TO PROGRESSIVES

Such Movements Have Their Day and Cease, Declares Meighen.

ASKS MONTREAL STAR TO PUBLISH PROOFS

Nails Newspaper Down, Demanding Publicity of Allegations.

PETROLIA, Ont., Dec. 4.—(By Canadian Press Staff Correspondent)—"This is the last federal election in which they will be of any substantial account. These movements have their day and then cease to be." This was the declaration of Premier Arthur Meighen made to the electors of South Middlesex here Saturday regarding the Progressive party. "I know of no such organization which ever entered the field of politics and lived," he asserted.

In predicting the passing of the Progressive party as a political factor he emphasized his belief in organization among farmers for mutual benefit, but he made it clear that he had no faith in such an organization after it entered on the turbulent sea of party politics.

Plans Busy Day.

STRATHROY, Ont., Dec. 4.—(By Canadian Press staff correspondent.)—There will be no letup in Premier Meighen's strenuous election campaign until late Monday night, the eve of election day. The prime minister's itinerary as originally drafted called for no meetings on Monday next, but demands have resulted in completely filling up the morning, afternoon and evening of the day preceding that on which the trial of strength will take place. In the morning Mr. Meighen will speak at Wallacesburg, in the afternoon at Chatham, and in response to a last minute request he has consented to speak in the evening at Windsor. Then the premier will rush back to Ottawa to vote. He will probably not reach the capital until Tuesday noon.

Wires Montreal Paper.

TORONTO, Dec. 4.—Right Hon. Arthur Meighen this evening made public the following telegram which he had addressed to the Montreal Star:

"You have for some days endeavored to lead your readers to believe that plans were under way by a board operating government owned railways to remove from Montreal a large number of officials and employees. In your issue of Friday last, front page, under-heading 'That Railway Removal Rumor,' the following paragraph appears:

"'If Mr. Meighen is in any doubt as to the authenticity of the report to which we have given publicity, we pledge ourselves to put him in communication with positive proof of its truth as soon as he can spare time to visit the city and receive it. The proof, being highly confidential, cannot be published, but can be submitted in confidence to the prime minister.'

No Knowledge of Plan.

"As I have previously explained to the press, I have no knowledge whatever of any such plans and having now read the denial of the present system mentioned, I do not believe any such proof exists. It is impossible, indeed, to reach any other conclusion than that your circulation of these alleged reports arise from a desire on the part of certain interested parties to injure the government candidates in Montreal and vicinity. Yo uare, and have been well aware that my engagements prevent my reaching Montreal until after election day. I deny your right to withhold as confidential all information upon which you base a public allegation of facts designed to affect election results and I hereby request you to publish your proofs forthwith. Your failure to do so will not be misunderstood by the public. This telegram I am sending to the press tonight.

(Signed) "ARTHUR MEIGHEN."

Vessels Take Shelter From Severe Storm Upon Lake Superior

SAULT STE. MARIE, Mich., Dec. 4.—Downbound steamers report the most severe storm on Lake Superior this season. During the past week most vessels took shelter where possible. The Pioneer, downbound, this morning lay in Baie de Gris, under Keweenaw point, for 48 hours. There have been no reports of steamers in danger, however.

No word has been received of the steamers Philip Minch or the Hydous.

The storm has subsided considerably, although a high wind still prevails.

DRAMATIC SESSIONS CONCLUDED

Provincial House Prorogues; Royal Assent to Fifty-four Bills.

VICTORIA, Dec. 4.—Winding up a session which stretched over nearly seven weeks and included more than one highly dramatic situation, the legislature prorogued at 11:30 Saturday morning, when his honor Lieutenant Governor Walter C. Nichol gave the royal assent to 54 bills passed since the house assembled Oct. 18.

The business of the house was concluded a short time after midnight Friday night and this morning's sessions was purely formal in character. After assent had been granted to the measures placed upon the statute books, Speaker Manson assured his honor of the loyality of the ligislature.

The royal thanks were tendered to the house for granting supply for the coming fiscal year.

SENDS LETTER TO PREMIER MEIGHEN

King Objects to Appointments and Commitments Since Nomination.

NEWMARKET, Ont., Dec. 4.—Hon. W. Mackenzie King yesterday sent the following letter to Premier Meighen.

"Dear Mr. Meighen:

"From the Ottawa press dispatches it would appear that since the day of nomination, your government, by order in council, has been awarding contracts, making new appointments, and in one direction or another, committing the country to vast expenditures in no way contemplated by any existing appropriations or other legislation of the parliament of Canada.

"In justified to all parties concerned, I wish at once to say committments of the kind made by an administration which, it is perfectly evident, in no way enjoys the confidence of the country, appear to be entirely at variance with what is right and proper under any system of responsible government, and should I as leader of one of the parties opposed to your government, be called upon to form a new administration, I shallr not feel that the new administration is bound in any particular by the appointments or obligations, for which there is not the fullest legislative sanction.

"Your 'sincerely,

W. L. MACKENZIE KING."

CONGRES OPENS TODAY

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—The sixty-seventh congress will convene for its second session at noon tomorrow.

After a 10-day rest from the labors of the extra session, house and senate return to the capital to face the tasks which leaders predict will occupy probably seven months, dovetailing into the next congressional campaign.

President Harding plans to give his message to the new session Tuesday.

ISSUE WILL NOT END ON TUESDAY

King Exhorts Farmers to Consider Effect of Relations With Liberals.

NEWMARKET, Ont., Dec. 4.—Upon the results of the polling in North York Tuesday depends something vastly more important than the selection of a parliamentary representative for the riding. The transient issue is a vital and national one, involving not the welfare of Canada's basic industry, but the very continuance in parliamentary practieve of those who constitutional principles upon which rests the political development of this Dominion. These twin facts Hon. Mackenzie King emphasized at two meetings in his constituency, King city and ueensville. The whole effect of the election in North York, he said at one of his meetings, is not going to end with Tuesday next.

Confident of Lead.

"And remember, the Liberal party is going to be in control of Canada's parliament after Dec. 6, as sure as we are gathered in this room. It is not only going to lead all others, but have so much lead that it will be independent of them, one way or another." Declaring bluntly that the whole future of the farming interests in Canada depends very much upon who is the leader of the Liberal party in this country, the speaker said:

"This is why I want our Progressive friends to think very carefully over the effect of their vote on next Tuesday, not only in North York, but on the whole relations of the Liberals and Progressives during the next five years."

FLASHES BY WIRE

Has Most Polling Stations.

OTTAWA, Dec. 4.—(By Canadian Press.)—Edmonton West, according to reports from returning officers, received by the chief electoral officer, will have the largest number of polling stations of any constituency in the Dominion. Edmonton West will have no less than 350 polls. Edmonton East reports 250 polls, and in the same province there are three other constituencies with more than 200 polls each. Lethbridge has the smallest number of polling stations of any Alberta constituency and has 117.

Generally speaking, constituencies in the prarie provinces have numerous polling stations, although Portage La Prairie, in which the prime minister is a candidate, has only 40, Nelson, Man., having the same number.

Auto in Canada; Six Drown.

TOLEDO, Ohio, Dec. 4.—Six persons, two men and two women with their babies, were drowned this afternoon when the automobile in which they were driving toward Toledo went over a high embankment on the river road two miles beyond Waterville, eight miles from this city, and dropped into the Erie canal.

Acclamation Null and Void.

EDMONTON, Dec. 4.—That the election of Andrew S. Shandro, Liberal candidate, by acclamation to represent the provincial constituency of Whitford, be declared null and void was the judgment of Mr. Justice Walsh, handed down in the supreme court Friday. By this decision Mr. Shandro is unseated and a new election will be in order.

The judgment declares that the returning officer erred in rejecting the nomination papers of C. H. Oronopus, United Farmers' association candidate, and characterized his efforts as a deliberate attempt to present the Whitford seat to Shandro.

Votes Swinging Over to Government From All of the Provinces

OTTAWA, Dec. 4.—Telephonic reports received by Sir James Lougheed from the prime minister tonight intimate every confidence that the government will win the election.

"Telegrams are pouring into me at Toronto," the prime minister said, "which indicate that voters are swinging to the side of the government in all the provinces, and that to a degree exceeding our expectation. They indicate further that we shall be overwhelmingly sustained at the polls."

CONFERENCE HALTS UNTIL WEDNESDAY

Naval Ratio Position Remains Secret; Japan Faces Important Decision.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—The armament conference is in recess until Wednesday, but for most of the delegates there is no rest from the increasingly prominent "informal consultations" in which individuals and small groups exchange views on important phases of the negotiations. For the present these interviews are concerned chiefly with collateral elements of the situation, while progress on the all-important subject of naval ratio awaits further word from Tokio. The Far Eastern discussions are to be resumed at a meeting of the committee of the whole on Wednesday, but it may be late in the week before the Japanese have received instructions from their government warranting a further step in the naval exchanges.

Like the deliberations of the lesser groups, the actual state of affairs in regard to the naval ratio remains secret, with the result that in its present phase the happenings of the conference must remain a mystery to the public. Even the delegates of some of the nations represented here are ignorant of what is in the minds of the naval delegates—the question between Hughes, Balfour and Kato—who are described as regarding it as a "matter of honor" not to divulge what happened at their two-hour conference on Friday night.

Communicate With Tokio.

Since the "big three" is not a regularly constituted sub-committee of the conference, its discussions are not dealt with as formal negotiations in the official public statements of the conference. Similarly, the statements do not take into account at all the many meetings between various national spokesmen at which some of the real business of the negotiations has been informally carried on. The long delay in carrying forward the naval discussions is explained by the time required for the Japanese delegates to communicate with Tokio, as well as by the importance which the Japanese attach to the present stage of the negotiations. It is said in Japanese circles here that the home officials doubtlessly will not desire to forward a definite statement of the national attitude until they have very thoroughly canvassed the sentiment through Japan.

By some Japanese the question of accepting or rejecting the proposal for a 5-5-3 naval ratio is regarded

ARBUCKLE MUST FACE NEW TRIAL

Jury Disagree After Long Deliberation; Majority Favors Acquittal.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 4.—A second trial of Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle, moving picture comedian, on a charge of manslaughter in connection with the death of Virginia Rappe, will commence in San Francisco January 9 next. The jury which heard the evidence in the first trial disagreed at noon today, after being out since 4:15 o'clock Friday afternoon. It is understood that their final ballot stood 10 to 2 for acquittal.

The jury was dismissed by Mr. Justice Louderback and a new trial ordered. Both prosecution and defense agreed to a postponement until after the Christmas holidays.

After 41 hours' deliberations the seven men and five women on the jury which tried R. C. Arbuckle on a charge of manslaughter in connection with the death of Miss Virginia Rappe were discharged today when they were unable to agree upon a verdict.

Will Not Change Till Hell Freezes.

August Feliz, foreman of the jury, issued a signed statement tonight, saying that one of the women jurors, who was in the minority, refused to consider the evidence from the beginning and declared that she "would cast her ballot and would not change it until hell froze over."

The jury was brought into court at its own request at noon, reporting a disagreement and asked that it be discharged. The foreman announced that the final ballot stood 10 to 2. Court officers said that the balloting favored acquittal throughout. The case was set for retrial January 9.

SINN FEINERS REJECT LATEST PEACE OFFERS

Dail Eireann Unable to Reconcile Differences; Turn Down Pla[illegible]

CAN NOT C[illegible]MOUFLAGE ALLEGIA[illegible]E QUESTION

Partition E[illegible]ally Serious; Ulster M[illegible] Declare Negotiations I[illegible]led.

LONDON, [illegible] 4.—Premier Lloyd George hurried back to London from Chequers court today to receive the report of the representatives of the Dail Eireann in the latest proposals of the British government respecting the Irish settlement. In the conference between the British ministers and the Sinn Fein delegates which followed the premier and his colleagues were informed that the proposals were not acceptable. They had been given full consideration by the Dail Eireann at Dublin, but no way had been found to reconcile the differences which had arisen.

The future is not considered promising. The members of the special committee of the British government who took part in the original conference are to meet tomorrow for the purpose, it is believed, of taking some definite action. Unless an agreement is reached by tomorrow at another meeting with the Irish delegates it is understood that the government will not submit its proposals to Sir James Craig. The Ulster premier will speak at Belfast on Tuesday, and if no proposals have reached him by that time will announce the negotiations ended.

Eamonn de Valera, who was present during consideration of the British proposals at Dublin, spoke significantly at Galway today, declaring:

"Freedom has never been won without sacrifice; the country must be prepared now to face sacrifices as it has been in the past."

Delegates Still in London.

There is to be said about the situation that the Sinn Fein representatives are still in London and Lloyd George has on many previous occasions shown himself capable of overcoming what appeared to be an almost unsurmountable barrier. No official word has yet been given out that an end has come to the negotiations.

Those present at the Irish conference this afternoon were Lloyd George, J. Austen Chamberlain, Viscount Birkenhead, lord chancellor, and Sir Robert Horne, chancellor of the exchequer, representing Great Britain, and Arthur Griffith, Robert Barton and George Gavan Duffy, representing the Sinn Feiners.

The meeting of the Dail cabinet in Dublin Saturday emphasized the principles involved in the scheme and the impression conveyed was that no principle would be sacrificed to gain Ulster's assent or to put Ulster in the wrong if it refused assent.

Lloyd George's difficulty, according to those in close touch with him, is that he can not ask Ulster to agree to any terms which British opinion would not endorse.

Can Not Camouflage Allegiance.

He is firm in the stand that the allegiance question can not be abandoned or camouflaged, and this, it is said, has proved the most insuperable of all the obstacles to a settlement.

The proposal that the King might be recognized as the head of a British federation of free states, but not as king of Ireland, was objected to by the British ministers. It was declared it would be scouted by Ulster and would not be intelligible to the British electors. An attempt was made to devise some form of allegiance the Sinn Fein might accept, but this aptly proved successful.

The crux of partition was almost equally serious. The Sinn Fein regards Irish unity as fundamental and

BIKANER NATIVES ENTERTAIN PRINCE WITH NAUTCH GIRLS AND FIRE DANCE

LONDON, Dec. 4.—A weird entertainment was given at Bikaner, India, in honor of the Prince of Wales, following a state banquet at the palace. The entertainment began with a religious fire dance in the courtyard of the fort. The big bonfire which had been lit in the center of the great quadrangle was then allowed to die down to a mass of glowing embers, through which barelegged natives, singing wildly, danced, kicking up a cascade of sparks and snatching portions of the fiery mass, which they placed in their mouths, although the heat of the fire could be felt 10 yards away.

Effect Demoniacal.

The weird fantasy lasted 10 minutes, presenting a perfectly demoniacal effect through the clouds of dull red smoke. The dancers subsequently pirouetted in front of the prince, clamoring for him to inspect their feet, which were found to be unscathed by the fire and actually were moits and cool as though the dancers had been paddling in water. Several members of the prince's staff attempted to pick up pieces of hot embers, but every attempt ended abruptly with a hurried snatching back of the fingers and sharp exclamations, amid the derisive laughter of the onlookers.

Thereafter a great company of nautch girls wearing heavily brocaded robes, transparent head shawls and massive gold armlets to the elbows, danced and sang a wild refrain welcoming the prince. Amidst barbaric strains a native juggler danced on sharp swords, spikes and saws. The entertainment concluded with the nautch chorus discordantly but enthusiastically singing "God Save the King" in the Marwar tongue.

HELP TO SECURE FULL FIGURES IN KOOTENAYS

The Daily News will as a matter of course, collect and tabulate elections returns of the East and West Kootenay tomorrow night. In addition to doing this on its own behalf, it will officially represent in this work the Canadian Press. All C. P. R. agents in these two ridings have instructions to forward all returns reported to them to The Daily News free of cost. The Daily News will tabulate them, and send out summaries.

In the work of getting returns from 176 polls in the two ridings, although the most complete arrangements have been made, it is probable a poll here and there may be missed, unless members of the public in a position to do so take part in the adventure of assisting to get a complete return of each riding on election night. The cordial cooperation of everyone is asked in this connection.

The Daily News will have both its regular leased wire and a special loop wire, with two operators, in order to serve the public to the best advantage.

Phone The Daily News for election returns as usual.

was firm that no proposal aimed at securing Ulster's assent should prove a possible permanent bar.

As things stand, the net reult, in the opinion of the commentators, would be to throw the onus of the collapse on the Sinn Fein, and this will bring back Lloyd George to the position he assumed before the negotiations started, that British law must be maintained and authority sought for drastic action. Meanwhile, dominance in the Irish administration would rest with the military.

Thus far no agreement has been reached for any prolonged extension of the truce.

Arrest British Officers.

BELFAST, Dec. 4.—During evolutions of the Republican army at Kilreekil, Galway, Saturday, in the presence of Chief of Staff Mulcahy, five British officers engaged in photographing the scenes were arrested by order of Mulcahy. They were deprived of their arms and cameras and films and then liberated. The protests of the officers were met by the reply that their action was a distinct breach of the truce.

IF YOU WANT THE JAPANESE VOTE LIBERAL

Sirdar Electors Learn What Quebec Block Intends; Rose and Carmichael Talk

SIRDAR, Dec. 3.—"If you want Orientals, vote for the Liberals and you will get them," was the advice given to the electors of Sirdar this afternoon by Captain C. Carmichael at a meeting held in the schoolhouse in the interests of Dr. W. O. Rose.

"The Oriental question must be coped with, and coped with now," continued the speaker. "The Orientals are making inroads into the life of Canada as the result to Sir Wilfrid Laurier's refusal to accept the invitation of Rt. Hon. Joseph Chamberlain to make a reservation in the Anglo-Japanese treaty respecting immigration, and of Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux's opening the door to those professing business and educational objects. If you want to know the attitude of the present day Liberals you may deduce it from the act of Quebec Liberal leaders in demanding the franchise for Orientals, and in accusing the government of catering to British Columbia because it would not give these foreigners the right to participate in the government of the country. The same Liberal leaders are appealing to Quebec to return a solid Liberal block so as to dominate the government.

"For their own political advantage Quebec Liberal leaders wish to give Orientals the vote, and to obtain that advantage they are willing to vote the menace of 50,000 Oriental voters upon British Columbia."

Mackenzie King Ineligible.

Mackenzie King could only occupy a ridiculous and impossible position as premier, declared Captain Carmichael. Canadians must be able to respect their public men. When confronted with the choice of aiding his country or aiding himself, Mr. King made the choice of self, being unable to find a place in Canada where he could serve and preferring to advise a great interest how it could use the war to exploit its labor. If records were the important thing in this election, as Mr. King claimed, his own record let him out as a possibility for the high post of guiding the destinies of this country, which had refused no sacrifice that the war demanded.

Dr. Rose, standard bearer of the National Liberal and Conservative party, devoted the few minutes at his disposal to discussing the fiscal policies of the three parties. While the government, he said, stood for a reasonable and moderate tariff, that combined the purposes of revenue with protection to home industries, the Liberals proposed to lower the tariff and have reciprocity with the United States, and the Crerar party was pledged to the complete elimination of protection and the initiation of free trade.

Protect Industries or Lose Them.

"If we don't protect our industries," declared Dr. Rose, "we will very shortly have no industries to protect." In a world that was protective, with every country building up its industries by giving them the home market, a country that was the sole exception, and that invited in foreign goods to displace the home ones, would fare ill indeed. Why should not Canada, with her natural resources, aspire like other countries to have her own industries, asked Dr. Rose. One-quarter of the people of Canada depended for their livelihood on the country's industries. Should these be sacrificed to the prejudices of a class, or for the satisfaction of a political theory?

Not Aiming to Be Adjunct.

Canada had her national aspirations, and they did not tend in the direction of becoming either an economic or a political adjunct of the United States, declared Dr. Rose. No less an authority than President Taft suggested this would be the result of reciprocity.

"In this time of national crisis," concluded Dr. Rose, "Canada needs at the helm the young man, Arthur Meighen, whose ability, courage and honesty of purpose have never been called in question, and whose policy, the same from one end of the country to the other, is the one Canadian policy before the people."

The audience, composed principally of the women of Sirdar, heartily applauded Dr. Rose.

R. J. Long of Creston, who brought Dr. Rose and Mr. Carmichael here in his car, presided over the meeting, which, having to be held between the closing of the school and the arrival of the train for the west, was less than an hour in length.

PACKING PLANT WORKERS STRIKE

Ready to Fill Vacancies; Two Hundred Police on Duty.

CHICAGO, Dec. 3.—Forty-five thousand union workers employed in packing plants throughout the United States will strike in protest against wage reduction averaging 10 per cent, authorized by plant assemblers under the shop representation plan in the packing industry, according to officials of the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen of North America, which authorized the strike.

Spokesman for the packers tonight expressed the belief that 95 cents of the workers will be on the job tomorrow and asserted that the walkout will not seriously affect operation of the plants. Representatives of the large plants said that only a small percentage of the workers were organized and that positions made vacant by strikers will be filled immediately. Two hundred policemen, including mounted police, motor cycle squadrons, patrolmen and plain clothes men, have been assigned to strike duty and were ordered to appear at the Chicago Stockyards tomorrow morning at 5:40 o'clock, 20 minutes before the official strike call goes into effect and union pickets takes up their positions.

NIGHT COUGHS

Terribly wearing on the system is the cough that comes at night and prevents sleep.

The constant coughing keeps the lungs and bronchial tubes in such an irritated and inflamed conditon that they get no chance to heal.

You will find in a remedy without an equal for soothing the lungs, loosening the phlegm, strengthening the breathing organs and fortifying them against serious pulmonary disease.

Mrs. John McKerney, Lower Montague, P. E. I., writes: "About three years ago I caught a very bad cold, accompanied with a sore throat and hoarseness, and was so hoarse you could hardly hear me speak. I could get no rest at night with the terrible annoying, hacking cough. I tried several remedies, but they did me no good. Finally I saw Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup advertised; got a bottle, and at once it gave me relief, and after using four my cough had all gone. Now I always keep "Dr. Wood's" in the house, and shall recommend your wonderful remedy to others."

MAHARG AT OUTS WITH GOVRNMENT

Minister of Agriculture Resigns; Disagrees With the Premier's Attitude.

WINNIPEG, Dec. 4.—(By Canadian Press.)—Hon. J. A. Maharg, minister of agriculture in the Saskatchewan government, tonight confirmed the report of his resignation as a member of the Martin government, in conversation with the Canadian Press over long distance telephone from Moose Jaw. The minister declared that the attitude of Premier Martin towards the platform of the National Progressive party, as set forth in a speech delivered in Regina last Thursday night, was the sole reason for him tendering his resignation and he had nothing whatever to add to it.

Mr. Maharg stated that he had not yet written his formal letter of resignation and would do so after the general election, probably on Wednesday. He informed the premier over long distance telephone Saturday that he intended to resign.

Became Crerar Supporter.

Mr. Maharg was elected to the house of commons in 1917 for the constituency of Maple Creek as a supporter of the Union government, and just previous to the close of the last session he became a supporter of the Progressive party under Hon. T. A. Crerar. Previous to the provincial election in June last, when the Martin government was returned to power, Mr. Maharg was appointed to the Saskatchewan government as minister of agriculture. He is president of the Saskatchewan Grain Growers' association.

In criticizing the Progressive platform Thursday night Premier Martin is reported to have said:

"They say that they stand for everything that is good in public life. Yet, in the last analysis, they are no better and, perhaps, no worse than the average man. They are only human and, if placed in power tomorrow on a platform with so many planks which could never fit into our system of constitutional government, I do not see how we could look for any better government than we have had in the past.

"The chances are that it might be a little worse, because men can not be pitchforked into the highest positions in Canada without some qualifications or some previous experience to qualify them to fit such positions and become fitted to deal with the many diverse and important problems that are bound to arise in Canada every year."

Fails to Keep Promise.

WINNIPEG, Dec. 4.—A Free Press special from Regina tonight says:

"Premier Martin of Saskatchewan induced the Hon. J. A. Maharg to enter the provincial cabinet with a promise that he and other members of his government would support the Progressive party in the federal election. This was the statement today to the Free Press correspondent by t former minister of agriculture. Fa ure on the part of Premier Martin keep his promise is the cause of t resignation."

The Liberal Party Today Appeals to the Electors on a Policy That Provides For the Welfare of Every Canadian.

Let every merchant remember the days of the Liberal regime, from 1896 to 1911; could he not then buy where he liked and profit by his knowledge of his goods and the market? Can he do so now? Does he like present conditions?

Let every farmer remember those days; could he not then produce at moderate cost and find sale for his grain or cattle? Can he do so now?

Could the lumberman sell his lumber then? Can he do so now at a profit?

Ask any manufacturer if those were not prosperous days with him. His profits may not have been as high, but his sales were greater. Are those the conditions now?

Did the workman have work then? Were the wages fair? Is there not unemployment now, with wages in many lines low? Did not all those prosperous conditions change before 1914, three years of Conservative rule? Only the war prevented the breadline and industrial troubles in 1914. We have now had three years of peace and conditions are not yet better.

The Liberal Party stands for advantageous conditions for all who develop natural products—the farm, the mine, the forests and the fisheries.

Did the labor people ever ask anything from the Liberal government and not get fair treatment? Did not the Liberal party when in power, under the direction of the present leader, Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, enact the most advanced labor legislation of any country in the world, arbitration, standard wages on public contracts, provision for health and comfort on railway construction? Hon. Mackenzie King has been the most successful adjuster of labor difficulties on the continent because he has caused both parties to realize they have a duty to the public, that they are citizens first. His success in promoting output of war material was acknowledged by the largest manufacturers; he succeeded where others failed.

When you mark your ballot on Tuesday remember the party and the man who used you right and that stands ready again to use you the same way. Be fair to yourself, to your fellow Canadians and to your friends of the past.

EIGHEN FIGHTS TO EXCLUDE JAPS

the patriotism to refuse this unadian demand," declared the solr orator, amid prolonged applause. On April 26 last H. H. Stevens, then rivate member, but now a member the next government, placed his ws on this question most forcibly ore parliament, and before the ernment he supported. In this ech, extracts from which were read Captain Carmichael, the future nister of trade and commerce owed how Chinese students, on ning admission, abandoned scholtic pursuits and took up other ms of labor. He argued that these sions by the Chinese government nstituted a sufficient reason for an mediate exclusion order against the inese, at least temporarily, while attention of the Chinese governnt should be drawn to its abandonnt of its pledges. The same treatnt as far as possible he advocated ainst the Japanese. In connection th the Japanese Mr. Stevens made following statement:

Stevens Demanded Exclusion.

"Within the last five years there s developed in British Columbia, as in California and other Pacific coast states, a problem which is becoming so acute that it matters not whether this government or parliament take cognizance of it now or not, they will certainly take cognizance of it before long. The part of wisdom is to take cognizance of it now. What I say as regards British Clumbia applies to California and other states. The problem is this:

"There are in my province districts which have been settled for 20, 30 or 40 years, the choicest districts in British Columbia, fruit growing districts, districts intensively cultivated for the production of vegetables and so forth. Three or four Japanese or Chinese will come and buy a piece of land, we will say 1000, or 100, or 300, or 400 acres, and will pay almost any price for it. Immediately that little group of Orientals settles in the center of that district, the land adjoining depreciates in value, and they buy that cheaply, and thus the colony spreads. They will work their coolies from daylight to dark; they work them under conditions under which no self-respecting white man can live or dare to live, and under conditions under which we as a parliament would not expect, and would indeed scarcely permit any of our people to live. Therefore it is impossible for our people to compete with them under those conditions, and furthermore, it is not reasonable to ask our people to live alongside of communities under such conditions of life as I have indicated."

Give Japanese Their Own Medicine.

*Outlining the views of British Co*lumbia, Mr. Stevens, in the same speech, stated:

"We hold in British Columbia that it is the duty of the authorities—I will come to the question of whose duty it is in a moment—to make it impossible for these Orientals to hold land by ownership or by lease. That may sound very drastic, and I was approached not long ago—I have no hesitancy in making the statement here, because we might as well be frank about the question—by the Japanese consul, who asked me if this question was likely to come up regarding Japanese holding land in British Columbia, as it has come up and been legislated on in California. I told him that I did not know whether it would come up or not; but I suggested to him that it should not be a very difficult question to solve, because the Japanese government could not possibly object to our passing the same laws and regulations regarding settlers in Canada as they in Japan pass regarding settlers in that country. This seemed to embarrass him somewhat, for this reason: No Canadian is allowed to buy or own land or settle in Japan; they will not allow the foreigners to take up land there. Therefore it is not unreasonable for us to pass in Canada a law or regulation similar to that which obtains in regard to our own nationals in Japan." (Prolonged applause.)

Eentertaining these views, which were also the views of British Columbia (Hear! hear!) Mr. Stevens had now been taken into Mr. Meighen's cabinet.

Capt. Carmichael said he had previously set forth the record and apparent policy of the Liberals upon this question. His hearers could now contrast it with the record of the Meighen government.

When Rt. Hon. Joseph Chamberlain, colonial secretary, cabled Sir Wilfrid Laurier asking whether Canada did not desire to make a reservation regarding immigration, in the Anglo-Japanese treaty, Canada's premier of that day replied that the treaty was satisfactory to Canada as it stood.

Meighen Denounces Treaty.

The treaty finally ran out last February. On Feb. 14, Premier Meighen wrote Premier Lloyd George that Canada was opposed to a renewal of the treaty, and that if the treaty should be renewed, the Canadian parliament would undoubtedly refuse its ratification.

Two months later Premier Meighen left Canada with the full authority of the Canadian people upon him, constitutionally bestowed, to proceed to the conference of premiers in London, there to debate upon Empire questions. Mr. King, however, was immediately out with one of his irresponsible statements, attempting to discredit the Canadian premier in the eyes of those he was to meet, stating that in going to the conference the premier did not represent the people of Canada.

Opposed by Solid Conference.

At that conference Premier Meighen found in favor of renewal of the treaty Lloyd George, the entire British diplomatic service, the entire British press, Premier Hughes of Australia and Premier Massey of New Zealand. The two latter were grateful to Japan for naval protection during the war, and in addition had full power to control their immigration under the Natal act given them by the imperial government in 1906.

Opposed by almost the entire membership of the conference and by diplomatic service and press, Canada's premier opposed with all the strength of his being the renewal of the treaty, and he gave such sound reasons why the treaty should not be renewed that, for the time being at all events, he won his point.

Fr[illegible], he showed that the treaty was negotiated with the express end in view of checking German and Russian aggression in the Far East, through the creation of an alliance with Japan, that would protect the interests of the Empire in that quarter. These nations, he pointed out, were not now world powers in that sense.

Solution Must Be Continental.

Secondly, Premier Meighen showed that Canada had many interests and problems in common with the United States. The United States, he pointed out, was insensed over the Japanese problem in California. For both geographical and commercial reasons Canada was bound to consider the United States viewpoint on this question. It was therefore quite clear that if Canada was to be saved from the Japanese menace, it must be by cating in conference with the United States.

Thirdly, the Canadian premier pointed out that the league of nations had been brought into existence to settle by peaceful means disputes between nations. One of its tenets was op*position to secret treaties.* To renew a treaty that related to matters of war was, therefore, not consistent for nations that were members of the league of nations. Premier Meighen therefore advised that the matter of the treaty should not be proceeded with until the nations had held a round-table conference on armaments.

It was the Canadian premier who gave the inspiration for the great armament conference now meeting, and by that act earned the gratitude of the world, a sufficient achievement even if fate denied to him any other. (Applause.)

This was the attitude of Premier Meighen, said the speaker.

Entitled to Return of Confidence

"So far as Premier Meighen has stood up for the interests of the Canadian people, and for keeping Canada white," declare Capt. Carmichael, "I say, he is entitled to a return of confidence from the Canadian people." (Prolonged applause.)

In turning from the broad gauge record of Premier Meighen on this subject, said Capt. Carmichael, it might be well to lavish a glance on Mackenzie King. A few weeks ago Mr. King was asked by the G. W. V. A. to reply to a questionnaire, and one of the questions was whether he was in favor of the total exclusion of Orientals. His reply was: "This is too delicate a question for me to discuss while the Washington conference is in session." Most questions of any difficulty were too delicate for Mr. King to take a definite position upon. (Hear! hear!)

The Liberals were appealing to Quebec to return a "solid 65", so as to control the government of the country. If that should happen, what would one or two Liberals from British Columbia count, if by accident they were elected?

"There is only one way for British Columbia to cope with the Japanese menace," declared Capt. Carmichael. "That way is to return to power that government, and those men, who have fought this issue, and have shown themselves to have the will and the ability to settle it in a Canadian way. To contribute to, and to assure that, let British Columbia send a "solid 13" supporters of the Meighen administration. (Applause).

Liberals and Tariff Pledges

Touching on the tariff question, Capt. Carmichael said that at a Liberal meeting in Vancouver, three Liberal candidates spoke.

M. A. Macdonald said: "If you elect the Liberals, the tariff will not be interferred with."

Gen. V. W. Odlum said: "Don't worry about the tariff."

Mayor R. H. Gale said: "Don't let the Meighen government frighten you about the tariff."

Yet the Liberal platform was most special on the tariff, and pledged the Liberal party to extend the free list, revise the tariff downward, and re*enact the reciprocity* measure that both the country at large and this province rejected so overwhelmingly in 1911.

Platform pledges did not trouble Mr. King either," said Capt. Carmichael.

In the Okanagan, on his tour last year, he was asked if he was in favor of a duty on apples. He said, "Yes, of course he was in favor of duty on apples—he could see apples all around." (Laughter).

On the prairie he was asked if he was in favor of free implements. He was.

In Quebec his lieutenant, Mr. Lemieux, asked him if he was in favor of revision. Of course he was, if he thought Quebec was in favor of it. Mr. King was in favor of anything and everything that was put up to him.

That was the kind of man who was appealing to the country to place him in charge of its affairs.

Refused Aid to Wavering Line

When the war broke out, Mr. King enlisted with the Rockefeller interests to help them get the better of their Colorado labor, and two days after the declaration of war wrote Mr. Rockefeller that, while obliged to conciliate *at present the glutting of the mar*ket with returned soldiers after the war would solve all his problems. He denied himself to his country during the war in any capacity, noble or humble, and when the enfeebled Canadian battalion looked vainly for reenforcements, he stepped on Canadian soil for the first time, to oppose the only measure that would supply aid to Canadian wavering lines.

Mr. King's standard of citizenship, Capt. Carmichael declared, did not measure up to the requirements that Canadians demanded of their leaders.

Don't Remind Crerar

As for Mr. Crerar, said Capt. Carmichael, after aiding to a point where the war was won but the country faced an exceedingly difficult situation, Mr. Crerar considered his duty to the government finished. If Mr. Crerar thought that, said Capt. Carmichael, surely it was not necessary for the people of Canada to revive that duty.

Mr. Humphrey, the Independent candidate in this riding, could not bring any effective service to the riding of elected, Capt. Carmichael said. An Independent, or a partial independent, who attached himself, to some extent, to a particular leader, but differed from him on many material matters, had no power in the house, being lost in the 235.

There were, however, definite issues to be settled in this election, as to what Canada required, and did not require. What she required was outlined in the policy of Premier Meighen. The basic plank in this policy was the retention of the fiscal system that had made Canada a country of industries, and that, if retained, would continue to bring to this country capital for her development, employment for an expanding population, and markets for the products of her soil.

"Vote for Meighen, and you will be voting for Canada," concluded the soldier speaker, prolonged applause being accorded his forceful and brilliant summary.

MINERAL ACT

Certificate of Improvement

NOTICE

RED ROCK, RENO, LATHAM, CURLEW and DANDY Mineral Claims situate in the Nelson Mining Division of West Kootenay District.

At head of Fawn Creek, about twelve miles from Salmo.

TAKE NOTICE that I, CLARENCE A. POOL, acting as agent for Reno Gold Mines, Ltd., Free Miner's Certificate No. 39418C, intend, sixty days from the date hereof, to apply to the Mining Recorder for a Certificate of Improvements, for the purpose of obtaining Crown Grant of the above claims.

And further take notice that action, under section 37, must be commenced before the issuance of such Certificate of Improvements.

Dated this 10th day of October, A. D. 1921. (5041)

Those Maxwell Telegrams

Telegrams have been sent to many parts of the riding signed "Winn Maxwell, Pres. West Kootenay," suggesting Liberals support Humphrey.

Mr. Maxwell was candidate of the Liberal party in the Dominion elections of4 1917 and drew his chief voting and financial support from the south end of West Kootenay riding.

Winn Maxwell was president of West Kootenay Liberal Association.

He spent three days in Rossland and Trail before the first Liberal convention, persu ding those places to support Dr. Hamilton, assuring them that Dr. Hamilton would obtain 75 per cent of the votes of Revelstoke.

At that convention he was reelected president.

He was the first to know of Dr. Hamilton's withdrawal.

He was put in charge of Rev*elstoke Liberal committee rooms.*

While Dr. Hamilton was at Kaslo at the unveiling of the soldiers' memorial he leased these committee rooms to the railwaymen's candidate's party.

He refused to call a second convention and refused to attend.

That convention consisted of representatives from every provincial electoral district except Revelstoke.

*That convention enthusiasti*cally resolved to stand by Liberal principles and the candidate nominated, Mr. R. E. Staples.

The Liberals of West Kootenay remain true to the support of Mr. Staples and Liberal principles.

They leave to the judgment of all people the conduct of Mr. Maxwell and the party with which he has associated himself.

DENIES DIPHTHERIA IS PREVALENT HERE

That there is absolutely no foundation for current rumors to the effect that Nelson is in the grip of a young epidemic of diptheria,, or of any other disease for that matter, was the statement of Dr. Isobel Arthur, provincial health officer for Nelson city, yesterday. Dr. Arthur said last night that there has not been a single case of diptheria reported in the city. The situation in regard to scarlet fever is also very much improved. No new case has been reported for a week.

WHEN IS A MAN UNDER ARREST

Knotty Problem Arises in Case of Assault on Patrolman; Adjourned.

Just what constitutes arrest is a knotty point for which a solution of which, Magistrate William Brown adjourned the case of Kenneth Hay on Saturday until Wednesday. Hay was charged with assaulting Patrolman D. T. DesBrisay when the patrolman endeavored to arrest him early on Thursday morning. There was a brawl in which Hay and James Stout mixed.

The evidence went to show that Patrolman DesBrisay laid hold of Hay to arrest him, and used his truncheon when Hay resisted; but did not in so many words place him under arrest. Hay struck the policeman.

E. G. Matthew for the defendant contended that as no formal words of arrest were said his client was not under arrest when he was struck by the patrolman and he retaliated.

James O'Shea, the prosecutor, contended that the mere fact that the patrolman placed his hand on the defendant constituted arrest.

The case was adjourne to allow Mr. O'Shea to produce authorities.

Hay was also charged with being intoxicated in a public place, but the charge was withdrawn following the testimony of W. J. Scroggie, Archie Ewing, James Stout and the defendant, each of who declared Hay was not intoxicated.

A charge against W. J. Scroggie, that he obstructed the patrolman in the performance of duty was also withdrawn, the evidence going to show that Scroggie endeavored to make peace and assist the partloman.

EDWARD POLLARD DIES IN HOSPITAL

Edward Pollard, known as "Kid" Pollard, a soubriquet that became attached to him when he arrived in Nelson in October, 1896, as the youngest member of a party, died in a military hospital at the coast the past week, according to information received by the Fraternal Order of Eagles.

Mr. Pollard, who lived in Nelson or the Kootenay continuously from 1896 up to his enlistment n the 225th battalion during the war; was a well known and popular miner. Since his return from overseas he has lived at the coast. He leaves a wife and child.

SCHOOL BOARD'S ACTION STANDS

Board Declines to Reinstate Principal Mather; Decides Petitioners Are Too Few.

Notwithstanding a petition asking for the reinstatement of A. J. Mather, principal of the high school, which was signed by over 100 parents of high school students, the Nelson school board in special session on Saturday afternoon decided to stand by its dismissal action.

In view of Inspector De Long's report, the board felt that the number of signatories to the petition was insufficient to warrant a reversal of its previous action dismissing Principal Mather. Mr. Mather's term will therefore expire on Dec. 16.

Kootenay Needs at Ottawa Men Who Will Stand Solid for Protection of Kootenay Industries

There is only one candidate in West Kootenay who stands foursquare for protection of all Kootenay industries. That candidate is Dr. W. O. Rose. He is supporting completely and without local modification the policy of Premier Meighen, which is the policy of protection of all Canadian industries, and those depending upon them, against foreign competition.

There is no other candidate in this riding who stands for protection of all our industries. The parties and leaders, the Liberal and Labor candidates follow are for immediate free trade in some products, including Kootenay's products, and for reduced tariff in other products. In an efforts to gain support some local variations have been made by opposition candidates, but both have accepted portions of their party's platforms which would result, if carried into effect, in destroying one or more of the three main industries upon which this district depends.

By electing Dr. Rose West Kootenay will be assured of a representative at Ottawa who will stand solid under all circumstances for the maintenance of the protection which Kootenay industries now have and the extension of protection to other Kootenay industries which require it.

The situation is the same in East Kootenay. Dr. Bonnell is unequivocally and without reservation for the Meighen policy of protection.

Neither West Kootenay nor East Kootenay can afford to send to Ottawa a representative belonging to a party whose platform calls for the removal of protection from Kootenay industries. It would be a fatal mistake from which the whole district would inevitably suffer.

Vote Early Tomorrow

Get your vote in early at the election tomorrow.

The number of voters on the list is the largest in the history of Kootenay and it will facilitate the work of the committees if the voters will go to the polls at the earliest possible hour of the day.

DEFECTIVE WIRE STARTS FIRE.

REGINA, Dec. 4.—Fire, which started from a defective wire, destroyed the residence of Dr. C. H. Edmunds, at Ceylon, about 7 o'clock this evening. The total loss approximates $30,000. The house was one of the finest in the southern part of the province.

Efficient Housekeeping

By Laura A. Kirkman

MAKING THE HOUSE COSY FOR WINTER

The woman who is a good home-maker realizes that the house must be made snug and cosy for winter, just as it must be cool and uncluttered for summer. It is interesting to see how different women obtain this result.

One housekeeper I know always puts old-fashioned hassocks in her living room during the cold months; she says that the floors are apt to be draughty and that her husband feels warmer, anyway, if he has his feet up on a hassock while reading in the evening.

Another housekeeper friend of mine insists that warm colors in a room—reds, rich browns, and deep greens—make on feel warm on a cold day. Every November she pasts a red crepe paper lining inside the china shade of her living-room drop light. And, there is no doubt about it, the old-rose glow which this gives to her room seems warm in itself!

Still another woman maintains that nothing gives a room a cosier, snugger look than valances at the windows. (I think we'll all agree with her on that score). Although she has just the straight plain scrim curtains at her windows all the other months of the year, during November, December, January and February she has up heavy, unbleached muslin curtains (with a short ruffle, or valances, of the muslin running across the top of the window between the two long side pieces) which are decorated with a wide band of figured ruddy-brown repp across the lower part of th valanc and at th bottom of ach sid-curtain.

Then I have a reader friend who writes that she is making large, "fat" cushions for her living room chairs. "I do this," runs her letter, "because I like to feel luxurious when the wind is howling outdoors! A cushion just fits into one's back and keeps one warm. One can't have too many cushions around in the winter time."

People who are blessed with an open fire in the living room have even greater opportunities to "cosy up" their homes for the cold weather. There is nothing that makes one feel quite as indifferent to Jack Frost as a crackling hearth fire. A fur rug (whether i tbe "fashionable," now-a-days, or not!) if spread in front of the fireplace will suggest warmth and will offer one's feet a downy place to rest. One of the popular brass wood boxes are picturesque. And an old-time highbacked settle makes a cosy nook if stood at right angles with the fireplace.

This is what one little bride did to obtain this settle effect; she went to a large department store and bought an unpainted pine "Colonial ironing table" in the kitchenware department—the kind that forms a table when four pegs secure the flat table-top to the lower part, and which forms a high-backed settle when the flat table-top part is released at one side and swung upward (so that it is held by only two pegs). Her husband painted this with a brown stain and they used it at the fireplace with a large piece of dark-green cushion at one end. It was an artistic triumph at little cost.

What are you doing to make your home more habitable for the cold weather?

Tomorrow—Answered Letters.

All inquiries addressed to Miss Kirkman in care of the "Efficient Housekeeping" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however owing to the great number received. So if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped and self-addressed envelope must be enclosed with the question.—The Editor.

Styles

BY LENORE

This is the sort of frock one acts gracefully languid in whether one feels that way naturally or not. Whatever you may say to that, it is a pleasing illustration of the use of lace, and an example of what is sold by one swagger shop as the thing to wear for a dress-up dinner accosion.

The lace is Chantilly. The dress proper is of henna colored crepe Canton pleated back and front. At the normal waistline it is drawn into the figure by a simple ribbon girdle, which carries a single color accent, in the language of the artist, in the blue velevt rose.

PATTERN NO. 322

A pattern for the above model (No. 322) can be obtained in sizes 34, 36 or 38, by sending to The Daily News your name, address and 15 cents in postage stamps. Be sure to keep this newspaper clipping of the sketch and description of the garment to use as a working model when the pattern reaches you—which will be within two weeks' time.—The Editor.

MAHARG RESIGNS.

REGINA, Dec. 4.—Premier Martin tonight declined to make any comment on the resignation of Hon. J. A. Maharg as minister of agriculture in the provincial cabinet.

Mr. Maharg's resignation was conveyed to the premier Saturday over the long distance telephone, with the explanation tht a formal letter of resignation was to follow. This the premier has not received.

CRERAR CONFINES HIMSELF TO TARIFF

Concludes Campaign; Urges Economy; Revenue Versus Protection.

BINSCARTH, Man., Dec. 4.—Explaining that he had come into the field at the express wish of Hon. Mackenzie King, who had expressed disappointment that there were so few Liberal candidates in the constituency of Marquette, L. G. Stubbs, Liberal candidate in Hon. T. A. Crerar's constituency, spoke at the latter's campaign meeting here Saturday. Mr. Stubbs was freely interrupted and heckled.

On Monday he speaks in Russell, his home town, which will conclude his itinerary.

The Progressive leader's address Saturday night was chiefly devoted to a discussion of the tariff issue and an appeal to the country to accept the Progressive party policy of a tariff for revenue purposes only in preference to the government's policy of a tariff for protective purposes.

Mr. Crerar emphasized the need for rigid economy in the administration of public business and claimed that $50,000,000 could be saved, if that were practiced, without impairing efficiency.

He described the campaign of misrepresenttaion, which, he said, had been carried on by the government in order to break the Progressive movement.

Mr. Crerar declared it was going to fail, "and fail miserably," next Tuesday.

as bringing Japan face to face with one of the most important decisions of her history. Bound up in the problem are many vital considerations of national security and the expectation here is that no hasty action will be taken.

Consider Consortium.

The latest suggestion to gain currency in unofficial discussion here is that the much discussed consortium of foreign powers for China may fuurnish the basis of a plan by which the powers can unite to aid China financially to stabilize political conditions in the Far East. No comment on the suggestion is forthcoming from authoritative sources, however, where the general attitude is that such questions must be threshed out along with the advancing discussions of the Far East problems. Most of the British delegates have left the city to be absent until Wednesday and many of the plenipotentiaries of the other nations will take advantage of the two-day recess to watch the opening of the new session of congress tomorrow and Tuesday. But it is expected that the informal conversations will continue to take up most of the waiting hours of everyone connected with the conference.

In Japanese circles it was predicted tonight that it would be some days before any important development advanced the naval negotiations beyond their present waiting stage. Emphasizing the importance of the decision Japan is making, her representatives indicated again that they regard the outcome of the naval question as bearing a close relationship to possible abrogation of the Anglo-Japanese alliance and the substitution of some agreement which would include the United States and be the basis of a permanent understanding between Japan and this country.

There was also increased indications that the question of fortifications in the waters of the Far East bore a close relation in the minds of Japan to the question of national policy, and therefore to the concrete question of how many capital warship Japan is to be permanently allotted.

Alliance Prominent.

Of all the questions that have come up at the present conference that of the Anglo-Japanese alliance has been the subject of the greatest discussion, yet the least has been heard of it.

No intimation of any kind has leaked out from official sources, nor has any unofficial indication been given as to the ultimate fate of the alliance.

As a result of this complete secrecy the newspapers have been filled with surmise and deduction, most of which has been erroneous. The present situation may be summed up as follows:

Britain has no wish to desert an ally who so gallantly supported her in the war, but in considering the question of renewing the alliance she has to bear in mind the strong anti-Japanese feelings existing in many sections of the United States, as well as in certain British dominions. Therefore, it may be presumed that Britain is seeking some form of modified agreement or treaty whereby the alliance itself might be abrogated, but which would substitute a modified form of understanding, always provided such understanding would be approved by other interested parties.

Discuss Guarantee Treaty.

It is reported that some discussion of this or a similar project took place at the meeting of the "big three" Friday, and that the suggestions made even went so far as to propose that Japan's national integrity be assured against wars of aggression by a treaty agreement or understanding among the four powers, including France. It is, however, impossible to obtain any worthwhile confirmation of such reports, although it is certain that some negotiations are in progress with a view to satisfying, if possible, Japan's wishes on the subject of the alliance.

EDGEWOOD HAS TWO ACCIDENTS

Auto Collision Breaks Axle; Blazing Oil Burns Hand.

EDGEWOOD, Dec. 4.—An accident occurred on Wednesday evening to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ellis, who were driving home, and rounding a sharp curve were met by an auto, driven by William Williams, Jr. The mud guard of the auto, struck Mr. Ellis' conveyance breaking the axle and pitching the occupants into the ditch, fortunately with no serious injuries to them.

Lamp Blazes

As a result of turning on a gasoline lamp to quickly, Mrs. Littlewood, of Edgewood, is nursing a badly burned hand. Blazing oil flooded out of the lamp and ran down and it was whilst carrying the blazing lamp out of the house that her hand was badly burned.

INSTALS ELECTRIC PLANT ON RANCH

W. P. Dickson Fixes Lighting System for Self and Willow Point Neighbors.

WILLOW POINT, Dec. 4.—W. P. Dickson, electrical engineer from Victoria, has completed his electrical plant, which he reports is working in a very satisfactory manner.

Mr. Dickson has been living on his ranch here during the summer months, and before returning to Victoria, for the winter, has installed a lighting system for himself and neighbors. The houses lighted are those of Messrs. D. Heddle, Malcolm Heddle, J. Macdonald, D. Doyle, A. Cruichshank, W. P. Dickson, Edward Applewhaite and Captain Applewhaite.

WILLOW POINT NOTES

WILLOW POINT, Dec. 3.—A meeting of the Women's Society of St. Andrew's by the lake, was held at the house of Mrs. Airey on Thursday. Mrs. J. J. Campbell was in the chair, the usual monthly business was transacted, and an additional sum of money was voted towards the stipend fund. Mrs. Airey served tea.

Captain Edwards had what might have proved a very nasty accident last week, he slipped on his doorstep and fell breaking a rib, fortunately he is not confined to the house.

Mr. Manning, inspector of schools, visited the Willow Point school last Friday, he expressed himself as very pleased with all he saw and heard. "The tone of the school" he said, "was 'good' and the progress of the pupils 'satisfactory.'" Subjects of special merit being reading and music.

The Venerable Archdeacon Graham held divine service on Sunday. He was motored out by Mr. Craufurd.

The Women's Auxiliary service of Intersession was held at the church on Wednesday afternoon.

A party motored up to Longbeach on Saturday night to a dance given by Commander and Mrs. Burrard Smith, in honor of Captain and Mrs. Edwards, before their departure for England, where they expect to spend the winter months visiting relations.

The last car of apples was shipped on Tuesday by the Willow Point Fruit association, they were sent to Regina.

Mrs. West is at the Kootenay Lake hospital she hopes to be able to return home shortly.

Mrs. Greenwood is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Manley-Power, at Thrums.

Mr. and Mrs. Masters and daughter left last Tuesday for Nelson, where will remain during the winter.

BURTON NOTES

BURTON, Dec. 3.—The Women's Institute, gave a concert and dance in Burton's hall, on Friday night, which was a most successful affair.

Although the roads were in a bad condition almost every person in the district attended, feeling assured that they could expect a good time, when the affair was under the auspices of the Women's Institute.

Capt. F. W. Armstrong, of Nelson, was a visitor here this week.

T. F. Lane spent a few days in town returning to Proctor Wednesday.

A. A. Burton is a Nelson visitor this week.

MORE ACTIVITY IN SLOCAN CITY MINES

SLOCAN CITY, Dec. 4.—Supplies are being taken to the Tilly B. mine and work is to be resumed at once by two of the partners Geo. Long, of this place and N. Tucker, of New Denver. They propose taking out some of the ore blocked out during previous operations. This makes another added to the number of properties working around Slocan City this winter.

LIVER TROUBLE

BAD BILIOUS ATTACK

When your liver becomes sluggish and inactive your whole health suffers. Your bowels become constipated, the tongue coated, the breath bad, the stomach foul and sick, and bilious spells occur on account of the liver holding back the bile which is so essential to promote the movement of the bowels, and the bile gets into the blood, instead of passing out through the usual channel.

The only way to keep the liver active and working properly, and thus get rid of the nasty bilious attacks, is to keep the bowels regular by using

MILBURN'S LAXA-LIVER PILLS

They are purely vegetable, small and easy to take, work smoothly and gently, and there is nothing of the griping, weakening, sickening effects of the old fashioned purgatives.

Mr. John S. Caron, Donavon, Sask., writes: "I was troubled with my liver and had severe bilious attacks. A friend advised me to try Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills, so I took two vials and I have had no more attacks."

MILBURN'S LAXA-LIVER PILLS

are 25c a vial at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

BONNELL DEFENDS MOUNTIES

Addresses Electors; Oriental Policy Wrong; Attack on R. C. M. P. Unjust.

FERNIE, Dec. 3.—Dr. Saul Bonnell, sitting member for Kootenay, East, opened his campaign in Fernie with a public meeting, held in the Grand theater here Thursday evening.

H. A. Bryant occupied the chair, and in calling the meeting to order invited any opposition speakers, who might be present, to come on the platform, however, there was no response to the invitation, and the chairman introduced Dr. Bonnell to the audience.

Dr. Bonnell stated that he had heard that Mr. Beattie, the Liberal candidate, had stated that, "Dr. Bonnell was afraid to go on the platform in his own town," and that it was insinuated that the National Liberal and Conservative party had been the cause of Scott McDonald's entering the field as a Farmer-Labor candidate. Dr. Bonnell stated that he met Scott McDonald for the first time in his life on the platform at Natal the previous evening and he stated on his word of honor that neither he nor any of his committee ever had approached any of the delegates to the Labor nominating convention with a view of bringing a third candidate into the field, and defied anyone in the audience to prove that his statement was incorrect.

Cites Tariff Questions

In dealing with the issues of the present campaign he declared that the tariff question, without a shread of doubt, the most important issue at sake. If the Liberal platform were adopted 19 articles would be placed on the free list, 50 per cent increase in the British preference and a gradual reduction in the entire tariff. A fine example of what free trade would do to the industry of this country should it be put into effect, was the binder twine indusry. In 1896 there were 23 binder twine factories in this country. Sir Wilfrid Laurier put binder twine on the free list, twelve factories went out of business, three were burned down and in nineteen fourteen only three binder twine factories were operating in Canada, scarcely managing to eke out an existence.

"Free Trade," he stated, "did not necessarily mean that the people of Canada would be able to buy these articles cheaper." Binder twine in 1896 cost the farmer three cents per pound, in 1914 it cost 23 cents per pound and now 30 cents. The United States manufacturer was no philanthrophist, once the Canadian industry is put out of business, the cost of these articles, which are proposed to be put on the free list, will soar to prices just as high as they are today, if not in excess.

Blames Laurier's Oriental Policy

He dealt at some length on the Oriental question, blaming Sir Wilfrid Laurier for not following out the policy followed by the New Zealand and Australian governments when the Anglo-Japanese treaty was about to go into effect. Sir Wilfrid Laurier negotiated with Japan through Mr. Lemieux, who made the agreement under the only 400 Japanese of ordinary character could enter, but providing for as many business men and students to enter and stay for a period of two years. If anyone was to meet a boatload of Japanese coming from the Pacific, they would all be students or business men: they could not be prevented from landing on our shores, and at the end of two years, these Japanese were beyond tracing. Mr. Meighen at the Imperial Conference stood alone, insistently demanding the abrogation of this treaty.

Defends Mounties From Attack

He read a pamphlet which is being circulated throughout East Kootenay attacking the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. This pamphlet, printed by the Cranbrook Courier, states that the traditions of this famous force are being degraded, that they are now being used to terrorize the working classes, that recently they arrested 23 unemployed men, mostly returned soldiers at Fernie. He stated that he had yet to see where the mounted police were terrorizing the people of Fernie. The 23 men who were arrested were taken off a C. P. R. train on which they were stealing a ride, more than half of these men were aliens, those of them who were British subjects were found employment and put to work, the aliens were deported. Were not the mounted police worthy of praise for preventing these aliens from coming into British Columbia to swell the ranks of the unemployed.

If the people returned the Meighen government to power, he stated, "and the home industry policy of this government, the mines of the Kootenays, and the vast timber industry of this province would take on a new lease of life, but should Mackenzie King be installed to power, he would only attain it by combination with the farmers and would have to bend totheir will, which would destroy such protection as the industries in this country now possess."

At the close of the address Chairman Bryant called for questions from the audience, stating that Dr. Bonnell would be only too pleased to answer as to his record at Ottawa or any of absolutely no response, a really surstandard bearer he was. This met with the platforms taken by the party whose prising state of affairs at a political meeting of any kind in Fernie.

LIBERALS FIGHT FAIR AT NAKUSP

Attentive Audience Hears Staples and Robley; Tariff Chief Question.

NAKUSP, Dec. 3.—A very good audience attended the speeches of Messrs. Staples and Robley, at the opera house on Thursday night. The audience was impressed with the personality and fairness of the speakers and they are complimented even by their opponents in politics on the clean fight they put up at Nakusp—abstaining from personalities, and making no false statement against their opponents. The tariff, of course, was the chief issues and no questions were asked. Capt Leary was chairman of the meeting and introduced the speakers. Messrs. Staples and Robley left by launch on Friday morning for Burton and Edgewood to catch the south boat at the latter place the same day.

MINER CRUSHED

FERNIE, Dec. 3.—Harold Mitchell, aged 25, employed as a driver in Number One South mine, Coal Creek mines, of the Crows Nest Pass Coal company, was seriously injured while on his first trip into the mine Thursday afternoon. As far as can be ascertained he was walking along his trip of cars, when one of the cars jumped the track and pinned him against a bridge beam. Mitchell was hurried to the Fernie General hospital where it was learned he was badly crushed about the hips, several bones being badly smashed.

EDGEWOOD NOTES

EDGEWOOD, Dec. 3.—Jack Sheil, of Needles, is laid up in Edgewood, with a broken ankle. The injury is the result of a logging accident in which the injured foot was caught between two logs which were being skidded.

A whist drive was held at the Elton house by Mrs. Ellis last Thursday. Besides a pleasant evening for the guests, St. Agnes church benefitted by the proceeds.

Mild weather prevails after the severe cold of a week ago.

Took "Redmac," The Great Tonic

GAINS 22 POUNDS

A Montreal Man's Amazing Experience

Mr. Tremblay, of Montreal, says, since taking Redmac, the Great Herbal Tonic, he has gained 22 pounds. I feel and people say, I look 30 years younger. I had been suffering from a rundown condition, nervousness, loss of strength, poor appetite and thinness; today I feel hungry, sleep well, nervousness has disappeared and hard work never bothers me. Redmac was a God-send to me. The reason REDMAC brings such wonderful results is because it feeds run-down glands, the cause of so many run down conditions, by supplying them with the extracts of Certain Herbs and Roots of Tropical plants, the glands are made strong and healthy—just like recharging a storage battery.

If weak, pale, thin, or run down, try REDMAC, the King of Tonics. This remarkable medicine brings results quickly. It has helped thousands to regain youthful health and strength, Try a bottle; a large generous bottle can be procured from your druggist at a reasonable price. If you have indigestion or stomach trouble, if you feel all out of sorts, REDMAC will put you on your feet in a short time.

STOCK EXCHANGE FINISHES QUIET

Uneven Price Trend Due Week-End Closing Speculative Accounts.

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—Trading on the stock exchange today was quiet in contrast with active sessions earlier in the week. The uneven trend of prices resulted from the customary week-end closing out of speculative accounts.

Steels and equipments again were favored because of consolidation rumors. Declaration of the regular dividend on International Harvester strengthened shares of that description. General Electric made a substantial addition to its recent advance and oils, some of the European group excepted, were strong.

Of the domestic oils Transcontinental was most prominent on confirmation of rumors that it had closed a deal with Standard Oil of California for joint operation of its large acreage in Colombia. Rails were apathetic, the few changes in that group being confined to coalers of secondary importance and the more popular Pacifics and grangers. Leather issues reacted, but chemical and paper specialties improved on better trade conditions. Sales approximated 365,000 shares.

Liberty and Victory issues comprised the greater part of the dealings in bonds. Several of the former scored new high quotations and both series closed at net gains. Foreign bonds were subjected to renewed pressure. Total sales, par value, $10,875,000.

Heavy transfers of funds incidental to December interest and dividend payments were not reflected in the clearing house statement. Loans showed only a moderate increase and the actual cash loss was slight, leaving excess reserves nearly $18,000,000 in excess of requirements.

EASTERN SHIPMENTS EMPTY ELEVATORS

PORT ARTHUR, Dec. 4.—The immense shipments of grain east, in order to locate as much of the stocks as possible in eastern lake ports and seaboard elevators, has resulted in decreasing the stocks of every kind of grain in public and private terminal elevators at the head of the lakes during the past week. A reduction in wheat alone amounts to over 5,800,000 bushels. While receipts continued to come in at about the same rate, wheat shipments amounted to over 14,000,000 bushels altogether.

CHICAGO CATTLE

CHICAGO, Dec. 3.—Cattle receipts 1000. Compared with a week ago, beef steers strong, mostly 25 to 50 cents higher with good, little unchanged; canners and cutters strong 25 cents higher; bulls steady; veal calves 50 to 75 cents higher with desirable stock mostly 25 cents higher and others little changed.

Hog receipts 6000; fairly active and steady to 10 cents higher than yesterday's average; top $7.25 for 140 pound averages; practical top $7.00; bulk $6.65 to $6.90; pigs steady to 10 cents higher; bulk desirables $7.10 to $7.15.

Sheep receipts 2000; fat lambs and sheep mostly 50 cents higher; yearlings and feeder lambs 50 to 65 cents higher.

MONTREAL LIST

Montreal Dec. 4.—Saturday's sessions witnessed a noticeable steadying in the prices of the paper group. This, with the decline in Asbestos and the firmness shown in Detroit, constituted the outstanding features of a market otherwise without special significance. The biggest loss of the day was in Asbestos common, down 3 points to 53½.

Among the stronger issues was Detroit, which closed at 73¾, a gain of 1¾ for the day. Wabasso Cotton gained 2 points to 52, a new high for the year.

The bond list was generally firm in tone.

DOMINION LIVESTOCK

WINNIPEG, Dec 3.—Receipts 94 cattle and calves, 200 hogs and 85 sheep, and with light offerings, trading on the cattle market was quiet. The few sales completed consisted mostly of butcher stock priced generally in line with yesterday's close. Hogs steady, selects, $9.25.

WHEAT DECLINES

CHICAGO, Dec. 4.—In a fairly active session Saturday, wheat registered a net loss of from ⅝ to ¾c. in December and May and of from 2¼c. to 2½c. in July, the latter breaking sharply just at the close.

Corn finished ¼c. lower to ⅜c. higher; oats ⅝c. lower to ½c. higher and provisions generally 2c to 7c. lower.

RED CROSS SHOWS MARKED ADVANCE

Report Details Success Attending Drives for Funds and Members.

VICTORIA, Dec. 4.—At the annual general meeting of the British Columbia division of the Canadian Red Cross Society held here Saturday night, the annual report of the secretary was presented, showing substantial advancement in the various departments of activity carried on by the society in the province.

Attention was drawn to the two special campaigns which were undertaken during the year; the effect for the British Empire relief fund, which resulted in the raising of $36,474, was $6474 more than the alloted proportion for the province. The other effort being the membership enrollment and educational campaign which in up to the end of Oct. 1. Forty-two of these were life members, 19,370 were the annual members and 3968 were junior members.

Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows:

Honorary president, Hon. Walter Nichol, lieutenant governor of British Columbia; president, Sir Frank Barnard; vice-presidents, A. P. Black, Vancouver; F. W. Jones, Victoria and Judge Young, Prince Rupert.

Secretary treaurer, A. J. Forsythe.

KING ISSUES HIS FINAL MANIFESTO

Sums Up Liberal Views of Issues in Message to All Electors.

NEWMARKET, Ont., Dec. 4.—Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King issued the following statement tonight:

"To the Electors or Canada: The political campaign now drawing to a close has demonstratec clearly that in the exercise of your franchise on December 6 you will be called upon to decide as respects the next five years:

"1. Whether the affairs of our country are to continue to be administered by an autocratic executive, indifferent alike to the will of the people and the rights of parliament, as the Meighen administration has been ever since its usurpation of power nearly a year and a half ago; or,

"2. Whether, at this critical time in our country's affairs and the unsettled conditions in other countries, we in Canada are to experiment in our federal politics, with government by class primarily in the interests of class; or

"3. Whether we are to have a return to representative and responsible government in the fullest meaning of the words, with a due recognition of the character of the house of commons as a deliberate assembly and of the supremacy of parliament in all that pertains to our domestic, interimperial and international affairs.

Sums Up Views.

"As matters stand:

"A vote for the so-called National Liberal and Conservative party is a vote for autocratic government.

"A vote for the so-called Progressive party is a vote in favor of government by class.

"A vote for the Liberal party is a vote in favor of a return to government of the people, by the people, for the people, irrespective of any privilege or special favor.

"What Canada needs today is, not Meighen, as the premier's publicity bureau asserts, nor any experimenting with group government or further attempts at coalitions; but a government of the country's ablest men, broadly representative of all classes and parts of our Dominion and with a mind and purpose of its own.

"Only by an administration which in all its policies is prepared to avoid the extremes of reaction and radicalism, and which in itself is broadly representative of all the constituent elements of our population—farmers and labor, the business and professional classes, the returned men and others—can we hope to secure in matters of government that cooperation between citizens of all occupations and callings which is necessary not less to a due consideration of particular needs than to the advancing of interests held in common, and which, moreover, is an adequate essential of national unity.

"If, in virtue of the confidence which I believe is about to be expressed by the people of Canada in the Liberal party through its candidates in the several constituencies, I should be called upon, as leader of the Liberal party, to form a new government, it will be my supreme aim to see that the administration of the nation's affairs is entrusted to a government of the character desired, that a spirit of moderation and toleration is evidenced in the furtherance of all its policies and that, in the expenditure of public monies publicity is substituted for secrecy as the only means of ensuring honesty, economy and efficiency in matters of national concern.

(Signed)

"W. L. MACKENZIE KING."

MISS FRANCES NEWMAN,
Chicago, Ill.

"Only a medicine of truly wonderful merit could have done what Tanlac did for me and there is nothing half good enough for me to say about it," said Miss Frances Newman, 2639 Hirsch St., Chicago:

"I don't think anybody ever suffered any more from indigestion than I did for over a year and I was in wretched health. I had smothering spells and my heart palpitated so violently I thought I had heart trouble, but I know now it was all caused from my stomach.

"Since taking Tanlac I feel and look like a different person. I have a splendid appetite and my digestion is just perfect. I sleep eight or nine hours every night and get up in the morning feeling fresh and happy. My friends tell me I'm always smiling now and I certainly ought to be, for I'm enjoying life again."

Tanlac is sold in Nelson by the Canada Drug & Book Co., and by leading druggists everywhere.

SOCCER SPRINGS SOME SURPRISES

Sunderland and Burnley Go Down to Defeat; Fast Scoring.

LONDON, Dec. 5.—(By Canadian Press cable.)—Yesterday's old country league soccer football was varied by the introduction of the fifth qualifying round for the English association cup, which produced exciting football, but reduced the program in the third division to three matches in the southern section, while in the northern section no games were played.

Several sensations occurred in the first division, notably the defeat of Sunderland by Cardiff City and the victory of Huddersfield over Burnley, while Manchester city lost its first game for two years at home, going down before Bolton by a score of 3 to 2.

Cardiff, on their home grounds, overwhelmed Sunderland, Clennel scoring the opening goal for the victors in brilliant fashion after 30 minutes' play, while Gill netted the second tally. Sunderland missed two good opportunities of equaling matters in the second half.

Three Goals in Three Minutes.

Three goals in as many minutes was the outstanding feature of the Manchester City-Bolton Wanderers contest. Jack, for Manchester, registered the first of the series, while Barnes and Roberts quickly reversed the situation by netting one each for the Wanderers.

The London clubs had a good day. Arsenal won over Blackburn by 1 to 0, the Rovers giving a disappointing exhibition and never getting going. Tottenham defeated Sheffield by 2 to 1, Johnson beating Jasues with a fine flying shot in the second half for Sheffield's single tally. In the fading light anything might haeve happened, but the home defense proved too strong for the velsitors to even matters.

Chelsea's scoreless draw with Preston was the result of neglected opportunities by both teams, neither of whom were able to take advantage of several chances to score.

Nottingham is still at the head of the second division through their draw with South Shields. Southampton leads the southern section of the third division after their splendid 1 to 0 victory over Millwall.

The English cup ties furnished few surprises, the only home teams to suffer defeat being Lincoln City against Northampton, Metro Gas by Norwich City and Mid Rhonda at the hands of Merthyr.

HOCKEY ASSOCIATION MEETING HARMONIOUS

TORONTO, Dec. 4.—The utmost harmony prevailed at the annual meeting of the Ontario Hockey association, held here Saturday. The reports received indicated that there would be 150 teams entered altogether in the senior, intermediate and junior series. A number of amendments to the rules were submitted, but those adopted do not change conditions to any great extent.

Last year's officers were reelected by acclamation. A. E. Copeland of Midland is president; W. A. Fry of Dunville and W. M. Easson of Stratford, vice presidents; Sheriff J. F. Paxton of Whitby, treasurer, and W. A. Hewiet, Toronto, secretary.

F. Nelson was made a life member of the association. W. A. Davidson of Toronto was elected governor of the A. A. U. of C.

OPEN HOCKEY SEASON ON DECEMBER TWELVE

CALGARY, Dec. 4.—Western Canada professional hockey league, at a general session held here Saturday, decided to open the 1921-22 season on December 12, when Saskatoon plays at Regina. The season runs to February 22 and each club has 12 home games. The circuit is made up of Regina Capitals, Saskatoon Crescents, Calgary Tigers and Edmonton Eskimos. Owing to the inability of Earl Woolfe of Edmonton to satisfy the league that he could put a capable team in the race and carry it through to the end of the season the Dominions were dropped. E. L. Richardson, who is president of the Calgary Exhibition company, owners of the Calgary Tigers, tendered his resignation as president of the league, but the outside delegates voted unanimously against this and he consented to hold office, although any decisions where the Tigers are concerned he will ask Frank Patrick, Pacific coast magnate, to make a decision.

WINS CHAMPIONSHIP INTERMEDIATE RUGBY

PETROLIA, Ont., Dec. 4.—Petrolia won the intermediate championship of the Ontario Rugby Football association here Saturday, when they defeated Galt 8 to 0. It is expected that Petrolia will now meet Hamilton Tigers for the Dominion championship.

The purchasing power of money in the 17th century was more than 10 times that of today.

ESKIMOS LOSE OUT TO ARGOS

Grey Cup Stays in Toronto; Victorious Argocs Set Fine Record.

TORONTO, Dec. 4.—Once again and for the last time this season did the Argonauts, champions of the interprovincial union, dispose of their opposition when, on Saturday afternoon, at the Varsity stadium, they defeated the Eskimos in the final game for the Canadian championship by a score of 23 to 0, thus in addition to winning the title and keeping the Grey cup in Toronto for another year at least, completing a season that is a record one for a Canadian football team and setting a mark that will take a lot of beating in future years. Starting on Ocotber 2, the scullers defeated the Hamilton Tigers in the opening game of the interprovincial collegiate and Ontario and Western Canada unions in succession. In the nine games played and won, the scullers scored 226 points to the opponents' 55.

In defeating the Eskimos on Saturday they did not win from the strongest team they have encountered this season, but they were victorious over a good team that represented Western Canada for the first time in the Canadian championship series, and a team that was a worthy representative of the west.

Superior Backfield.

In Saturday's game the Argonauts' backfield again proved too good for their opposition and it was largely the work of the running ball carriers that gave the locals their advantage. In all the Canadian championship series the new champions have had an advantage on the other teams owing to the superiority of the backfield players and this was very apparent on Saturday. Batstone, Connacher, Cochrane, Britnell, Sullivan and McCormick worked well together and it was their combination, mixed with fake passes, that allowed them to get away for substantial gains around the ends or in running back kicks.

Connacher Shines.

Connacher has the happy faculty of being able to take a pass ball while at full speed and some of his catches were sensational. The Argonauts' end runs were helped considerably by the high tackling of the westerners and the Eskimos were frequently shaken off in their efforts to stop the advancing of the ball.

In kicking the Argonauts had a big edge over their opponents. On the line the Eskimos had a great superiority in the earlier periods and constantly ripped holes in the Argonauts' line for gains of from five to 40 yards, but there was considerable holding and interference in the players. This was noticeable twice, when it looked as if the westerners would go over the line, but were called back both times owing to infraction of the rules.

Losers' Line Plunging Good.

The losers must be given great credit for ling plunging. It was the best exhibition of the smashing style of play that has been seen here in years. They hit the line hard and low and every time a man knew that he was about to be downed he dove forward for a gain of at least a yard or more. The great difference between the two trams were that the Eskimos were a team of line players and this practically their only method of advancing the ball, their few trick plays and end runs being more often than not thrown back, while the Argonauts played one of the best games of the season.

Sheard was the only sub to arrive from Edmonton and proved one of the Eskimos' stars. He did considerable of the kicking and looked better than Fraser and, in addition, was a good ground gainer on running back kicks and plunges. It is hard to select stars from the Argonauts, as all the men played a great game. The same can be said about the Eskimos, there being no players who played better than others, considering the positions and their opportunities. All are fine line plungers, but there was a lack of that open style which is pleasing to the spectators.

Summary—First period: Try, Cochrance, 5; try, Connacher, 3.

Second period—Dead line, Connacher, 1; drop kick, Connacher, 3.

Third period—Try, Connacher, 5; convert, Batstone, 1; rougle, Fraser, 1.

Fourth period—Touch in goal, Fraser, 1; rouge, Fraser, 1.

Total score—Argonauts 25, Eskimos 1.

THROWS LIGHT ON FOOTBALL MUDDLE

Seek Avenues of Escape From Finnancial Difficulties Over Scots' Tour.

WINNIPEG, Dec. 4.—Light has been cast into the gloom surrounding the financial statement of the Scottish football tour, and reasons have been advanced explaining to a great extent why Secretary David Roy has not issued the long promised report, the Free Press will say tomorrow.

The Dominion Football association official, according to the Free Press has been "seeking various avenues of escape from the maze of financial difficulty in which the Dominion body is imprisoned, and possibilities are that something to relieve the condition may be staged shortly."

The newspaper continues:

Suggests Canadian Tour.

"Thomas Bagnall, creditor of the D. F. A. to the extent of $2000, in a personal letter to Mr. Roy acknowledging receipt of $400 on account couches his letter in terms which would seem to disprove the statements attributed to him and circulated widely in the east. He has suggested and Roy is acting on the suggestion that a Canadian soccer team tour the eastern states during Christmas week, playing three games at Harrison, N. Y., and Philadelphia. He offers this as a method by which part of the indebtedness of the D. F. A. might be wiped out. He practically assures backing sufficient to establish a large surplus, and Roy has taken the matter up with Bob Muir of Toronto and also with President Healey of the U. S. F. A.

Not Yet Cleaned Up.

"Mr. Roy's appeal to the U. S. F. A. for assistance, owing to the failure of the Scottish tour in the United States finds much support from Bagnall, but unfortunately the Scottish trip there has still to be cleaned up, and this has been rendered virtually impossible through the complete disappearance of Jim Schofield, secretary of the U. S. F. A. Investigation is being instituted to find whether the books of the sister association are in order, but due to the fact that Schofield has never answered any of Roy's letters the whole will have to be repeated and forwarded to President Healey of Detroit for action. Schofield, according to Mr. Bagnall, disappeared on November 14, leaving no trace.

"The financial statement, giving reports and expenses incurred in connection with the various games played in Canada, will be forthcoming probably tomorrow night or Tuesday, according to Roy."

The newspaper also states that Mr. Roy has requested the Scottish Football association to stage a benefit game this winter on behalf of the D. F. A. in order to clear off some of its indebtedness.

NEW BOWLING RECORD.

CALGARY, Dec. 4.—What is believed to be a new record in Canadian five-pin bowling was made here in a match game Saturday, when Tommy Rideout rolled a 140 single. His total for five games was 490.

PENNSYLVANIA UNBEATEN.

SEATTLE, Dec. 4.—Pennsylvania State's unbeaten football team fought its way to a 21 to 7 victory over the University of Washington yesterday in a game that was hard fought in all periods. The eastern eleven scored a touchdown in each of the first three periods.
