POPULATE AUSTRALIA AND MAINTAIN IT A WHITE MAN'S COUNTRY CRIES NORTHCLIFFE

Great Publisher Issues Appeal to People of Commonwealth; Oriental Nations With Teeming Millions Look on Island Continent Covetously; It Cannot Be Kept Vacant; Bold Immigration Policy Is Urged.

LONDON, Oct. 2.—An urgent appeal to Australians to keep Australia a white country, and a strong warning that unless white immigration was encouraged the country was likely to be swamped by Asiatics whether the Australians were willing or not, was issued by Lord Northcliffe at Sydney when he left there Saturday for the Philippines.

Rich but Weakly Garrisoned

"Australia's magnitude and riches, and the weakness of its garrison, are known to all over-crowded and ambitious nations in the near north," said the appeal. "Governments whose circumstances may one day make them hostile to the commonwealth probably know more about the possibilities of this country as the home of scores of millions of people, than is known by most Australians."

"Australians seem not properly awake to the fact that they live in an age which has lately proved itself not distinguished respect for international rights. Today moral right must be based on capacity in arms, and judged by this standard, Australia's present position and immediate future are precarious.

"I am amazed at your indifference to events and portents in the outside world, especially in Asia. Within a fortnight's steam of your commonwealth, there are thousands of millions, all of whom are crowded and restless, and some of them ambitious and powerful; yet you continue your work and play as though lust for territory had not, all down the centuries, been the cause of war, and though the history of the world had not been the story of the overthrow of the weak by the strong.

"The commonwealth may still be saved by the Anglo-Saxon race. You must increase your garrison by the multiplication of your people; only numbers will save you. The world will not tolerate an empty, idle Australia.

"This continent, like other continents, must carry its full quota of people; do its full share in production. Ten millions of people will come here, whether you wish it or not. You cannot hold a human flood by restriction clauses in an act of parliament. Acts of parliaments have little international force. Ambitions and passions are alive to this question."

Lord Northcliffe urged Australians to devise immediately a bold constructive immigration policy, and assured them that British investors would support the right sort of scheme which would attract suitable emigrants from Great Britain.

MELITTUR REBELS OFFER HINDUS ALTERNATIVE OF DEATH OR TURNING ISLAM

CALICUT, India, Oct. 2.—The situation in the Melittur is becoming very serious. The rebels are offering Hindus the alternative of death or Islam. In the Indians hesitate to choose, they are ordered to dig their gaves. If they refuse to embrace Islam they are shot and dropped into their graves.

Complete home rule has been declared.

In the fighting at Nyalla, last week, when tribesmen under the leadership of Abdullah El Soghayor, attacked the town, 600 of the tribesmen were killed. The British had 51 casualties.

REJECTING OF RECIPROCITY WAS A CRIME

Fielding Says Nothing Could Have Been Fairer Than Liberal Deal With States.

MACKENZIE KING SAYS MEIGHEN IS AUTOCRAT

Claims He Should Not Have Succeeded Borden; Should State Election Date.

BRIDGEWATER, N. S., Oct. 2.—"The prime minister asked at Montreal that I name a single autocratic act of his government; that I name a combine which his government has failed to break up. As for the former, it is not necessary to name any one action; the whole record of the government is one long record of autocratic acts, but I shall name many of them in this address. As for naming a combine, many of you know who they are. But I will give you an idea of what a man said who should have known."

With these words and, in addition, with quotations from the letter of James Murdock, former member of the board of commerce, to Sir Robert Borden, Hon. W. L. MacKenzie King Saturday afternoon replied to the Montreal speech of the prime minister, Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen. Hon. W. S. Fielding, Hon. Dr. H. S. Beland and William Duff also addressed the audience.

A Historic Crime.

Dealing with reciprocity Mr. Fielding declared:

"If ever there was a crime committed in the history of Canada it was opposition to reciprocity in 1911. This should not have been a political question. It was an economic question. Reciprocity had been sought by all Canadian governments and there never was a fairer arrangement than that we made in 1910. You realize now the need of reciprocity with the United States."

The present American tariff bill would practically shut out Canadian fish.

Dealing with British preference, Mr.

HAMILTON, Ont., Oct. 2.—The nomination of C. F. Woodley, a farmer of Lynden, as the Farmer-Labor candidate in the federal riding of Wentworth, was carried out at a joint convention of Labor of U. F. LABOR HEADS ARE REFUSED AN AUDIENCE

Sheffield Laborite Conference Will Not Hear Henderson and Thomas.

RAMSAY MACDONALD SIMILARLY TREATED

Thomas Says Communists Recognize He Is Against Revolution.

LONDON, Oct. 2.—(By Canadian Press cable.)—Figures on unemployment show a drop of 20,000 in the last week, making a total drop of more than half a million since the end of June.

Rt. Hon. Arthur Henderson, M. P., and late member of the war cabinet, and Rt. Hon. J. H. Thomas, M. P., and secretary of the railwaymen's union, while attempting to address a Laborite conference at Sheffield were refused a hearing, notwithstanding that Mr. Henderson, in the few words he was able to deliver, made it clear that it was his intention to blame the government for the present distress.

Mr. Thomas declared afterward that he accepted his reception as clear recognition that he would never be a party to the Communists' remedy of revolution as a remedy. The government though, he added, should see that the unemployed were not forced over to this class of leader.

It is significant that Ramsay MacDonald had a similar reception at the hands of Communists in Glasgow.

COUNT OF STRIKE VOTE DUE TODAY

Union Leaders Arrive in Chicago in Preparation for Handling Ballots.

CHICAGO, Oct 2.—Counting of the strike ballots of 259,000 members of four railway unions will begin here tomorrow, with the possibility of a general strike by more than 800,000 railway men in protest against the 12 per cent reduction recently ordered by the railroad labor board depending somewhat on the result of the tabulation of these votes.

Union leaders began arriving here tonight in preparation for the count of ballots cast by active members of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Order of Railway Conductors, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen and the Switchmen's Union of North America. It is believed the count will not be completed until the end of the week.

Two other railway organizations already have voted overwhelmingly in favor of a strike rather than accept the wage reduction, but their leaders have announced that there would be no walkout unless the other organizations joined in the strike.

The shop crafts employees favored a strike by a vote of approximately 325,000 to 48,000, while it was announced that 87 per cent of the 186,000 members of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen had voted for a strike, the figures being approximately 161,220 to 24,780. These two organizations, numbering about 560,000 men, are waiting for the result of the vote count which begins tomorrow, before deciding definitely what action will be taken.

DISSOLUTION COMES TODAY

OTTAWA, Oct. 2.—It was understood here tonight that his excellency, the governor-general, would sign the recommendation dissolving parliament tomorrow, thus terminating the life of the thirteenth parliament. It was further forecasted that the election writs would be issued almost immediately, with the surety of election day falling in the first week of December.

PREMIER LEAVES FOR EAST.

Premier Meighen left this morning on his eastern tour, where he will probably issue his election manifesto.

The present parliament, which will cease to function tomorrow, has been in existence for three years, seven months and four days.

The accused cared little about the evidence in court, but tried to discuss the political situation, which the magistrate declined to permit.

GREEN REPORTED A SENATE CHOICE

Thomas Crothers for Red Chamber From Ontario; Not Yet Approved.

Edwards of Ottawa was filled by the appointment of Hon. Thomas Crothers, former minister of labor in the Borden government. These appointments will probably be approved by his excellency tomorrow.

DIAGNOSTICIANS CLAIM OLD SPHEROID IS EMERGING FROM THE METEOROLOGICAL MUMPS

Year of Great Heat Has Recorded Many Unusual Terrestial Phenomena; March Was Hottest March on Record and April Was Hottest for Half a Century; Earth's Crazy Spells Started Thirteen Months Ago; List of Great Movements and Disasters.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—The old spheroid known as the earth is emerging from what some diagnosticians might call a severe attack of meteorological mumps. It has been accompanied by an intense fever, manifested in a world wide heat wave of unusual length and intensity. In spite of cries and relapses, earthquakes, tidal waves, cloudbursts, typhoons, water spouts, hail storms, floods and hurricanes in many widely separated parts from Kamchatka to Cape Horn and Guam to Guadalupe, the doctors are confident the patient will recover.

Heat and Aridity.

Meanwhile North America, for the last year, has been suffering chiefly from an excess of high temperatures, and a deficiency of moisture, a condition unprecedented in the 50 years' history of the United States weather bureau.

The persistent high temperatures, for which a number of speculative explanations have been given, began in August, 1920, and for the succeeding 12 months there was an average monthly excess above normal of 3.4 degrees. March, 1921, an unusually warm spring month, had an excess average of 10.8 degrees. The first slight break in the record occurred last August, which was slightly below normal.

Some time before the present phenomenon the nine months' period beginning October, 1918, and ending July, 1919, the average monthly temperature was 2.71 degrees above normal, and this was a record until sun spots, sea bottom upheavals, or other hypothetical causes, sent the mercury still higher. The highest average temperature ever recorded in the United States for the month of March, weather officials say, was 48.3 in March, 1921. The average temperature for April, 1921—55 degrees—was the warmest for that month in half a century. May and June were not unusual, but July broke all records for the preceding 11 years. A curious freak of the weather in North America for the week ending Sept. 22, was that, while every section of the continent from Bismarck, N. D., to Halifax, and from Phoenix, Ariz., to Miami, Fla., was suffering from abnormally high temperatures, large areas in Wyoming, Montana, Oregon and Nevada were having freezing nights.

Weather bureau officials here decline to discuss the possible connection between the present high temperatures and disasters of nature in many parts of the world.

What World Has Endured in Twelve Months.

It is a fact, however, whatever the cause, that this terrestial ball has been subject of late to rough usage, notwithstanding the war is over. A glance back at some of the recent disasters and natural phenomena shows the following:

Two million Koreans starving in Manchuria, owing to drought ruined crops.

Three hundred buildings wrecked and many killed by hail storm and waterspout at Baez, Cuba.

Three volcanoes, Villarica, Llaima and Lanin, spout flames more than 1000 feet from craters.

Drought kills fish in River Seine, and France suffering most from drought in 74 years. Rhine and Moselle river do great damage in highest flood in 136 years.

Cloudburst and hail storm damage Rome, Italy.

Mount Vesuvius shows activity, and earthquake shock is felt from Leghorn to Lake Lugano.

Italian destroyers carry inhabitants to safety as volcano Stromboli resumes activity.

Damage of several million drachmas done in Greece by severe hail storms.

Earth slide block Corinth canal.

Cyclone devastates three towns in Hayti.

Volcano Kilauea in Honolulu spouts immense fountains of lava.

Activity of Popocatepetl in Mexico increasing.

Earthquake shakes Vera Cruz and four other cities.

Lightning strikes oil wells, causing millions of dollars' damage in Tampico and other districts.

Mexicans pray to "water goddess" to end drought.

Volcano Colima in Jalisco is in eruption.

Many lives lost in waterspout which destroyed part of Tangiers, Morocco.

Volcano Massai in Nicaragua in eruption.

Typhoon and floods in Philippines, and especially on the island of Luzon, do great damage.

Six new craters opened in Mount Isalaco, Salvador.

Waterspout in Maia-Doura province of Spain, damages crops and villages.

Heat in the Alps causes glaciers to shrink, and nine mountain climbers are killed.

Seventy-five dead in torandoes which sweep southern United States.

Flood inundates Pueblo causing $10,000,0000 property loss.

Forty-seven perish in San Antonio, Texas, flood.

One consolation of the freak weather, however, is the prospect of an "open winter."

Wagonload Wheat Is Below Dollar First Time in Two Years

CALGARY, Oct. 2.—For the first time during the past two years, wagonload quotations for wheat dropped below $1 per bushel on Saturday, when the price was 96 cents at Alberta points, taking the 25 cent rate. Wagonload prices opened in September, 1920, at $2.37, and stood at $1.15 at the end of August, 1921.

ASSEMBLY IS NOW BUOYANT OVER OUTLOOK

Disarmament Attitude of France and Great Britain Revive Hopes.

GRIND OF SETTLING DISPUTES IS OVER

Doherty Wins Out in Securing Life for Amedment on Article Ten.

GENEVA, Oct. 1.—The assembly of the league of nations will begin the final week of its second session in better spirits than have prevailed since the opening of the deliberations. Up to this time it has been weighed down by the depressing influence of the Bolivian-Chilean dispute, the Greco-Albanian trouble, the Albanian-Jugo-Slavian question, and by disappointment not concealed by most of the delegations over the meager results of the league's efforts since the first assembly.

Comment on Vital Pledges.

If sufficied for the French and British to join their voices on the speaker's stand in favor of a conservative program of disarmament, to revive the hopes of the assembly of practical results in that direction. There has been much comment on the speeches of M. Noblemaire, of France, committing his country to a program including limitation of armaments, for the next two years to the figures of this year's budget, and Rt. Hon. H. A. L. Fisher's address, giving Great Britain's hearty support to the same program.

The agenda for the closing week comprises such questions as the league's budget, and distribution of its expenses, and amendments to the covenant.

Hon. C. J. Doherty, representing Canada, has won his fight against the rejection of his amendment to the covenant, designed to eliminate Article 10. The final conclusion of the committee, which it is considered certain the assembly will ratify, is that the amendment deserves careful study, and should be held over until the next assembly for further consideration.

An Exhibition from France

At the inauguration of the French train at Place Viger Station, Montreal. Amongst the officials shown in this photo are Prime Minister Meighen, Senator C. P. Beaubien, Senator Smeaton White, Senator Dandurand, Count d'Arnaud, president of the train; M. de Lalande, vice-consul of France in Montreal; Mr. E. Hebert of the C. P. R., and Mr. Morrison, of the C. N. R. Geo. Clemenceau's head by Rodin, the famous sculptor, which is on exhibit in the French train.

A Made-in-France" exhibition train is now touring Canada, over the Canadian Pacific Railway. It was opened at the C. P. R. Place Viger Station, Montreal, on August 29th, amongst those present being Premier Arthur Meighen, Mayor Martin of Montreal, and Senator C. P. Beaubien, who organized the bringing of the French exhibition goods to Canada and the tour of the train throughout the Dominion.

The object of the train carrying French goods is to promote cordial, social and commercial relations, reciprocally advantageous to both countries.

The train consists of a baggage car, eight exhibition cars, a tourist, a diner, and two sleeping cars. The eight coaches of the train carry goods representative of:

(1) The intellectual development of France;
(2) Industries, commerce and tours;
(3) French styles;
(4) Leather industries;
(5) Chemical goods, perfumery;
(6) Instruments of various kinds, electrical goods, toys;
(7) Agriculture, horticulture, food;
(8) Jewellery, objects of art, clocks, watches.

But this list only gives an idea of the hundreds of things on exhibition.

In the tour of the Dominion the train will travel a total of 7998 miles.

During the four days which the train remained in Montreal it was visited by thousands of interested persons. It was a huge success at the Toronto Fair and is attracting large numbers everywhere it goes through the country.

A member of the staff of the Canadian government commercial intelligence service is travelling with the train, partly in order to study the results obtained from a business point of view. The information gleaned is to be used in fixing up the trainload of Canadian products which it is stated is to be sent later on to tour France and probably the United Kingdom and other European countries.

ANDRE FAUTEAUX IS SOLICITOR GENERAL

New Member In Ministry Is From Quebec; Named in Terre Bon.

OTTAWA, Oct. 2.—Andre Fauteaux, K. C., of Montreal, has been appointed solicitor general in the new Meighen cabinet, and most likely will be sworn in by Lord Byng, governor general of Canada, tomorrow morning. The ceremony, which was expected to take place yesterday, was postponed over the week-end owing to the absence of his excellency.

Mr. Fauteaux is about 40 years old and is not new to politics. He twice contested Two Mountains against J. A. C. Ethier, and was defeated once. In his second attempt, in 1908, his nomination paper was rejected. Mr. Fauteaux is expected to contest the constituency of Two Mountains. It was rumored tonight that although the post of solicitor general does not carry full rank, the new appointee will be made a privy councillor. Th's would give him a seat at the head table.

ST. JEROME, Que., Oct. 2.—Hon. Andre Fauteaux, solicitor general in Premier Meighen's cabinet, was yesterday unanimously chosen to be the government standard bearer in Terre Bon county in the coming general elections.

HUNGARY IS EVACUATING BURGENLAND

BUDAPEST, Oct. 2.—A resolution was passed by the cabinet council today to comply with the ultimatum of the council of ambassadors, issued in Paris September 23, "inviting Hungary to evacuate Burgenland." The council expressed apprehension as to the extent to which it would be able to deal with the insurgents in western Hungary.

THROW BIBLES AND KILL INTERPRETER

Greek Orthodox Church in New York Is Scene of Pandemonium.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—Services in the Greek Orthodox church at 155 Cedar street today were broken up by a free for all fight among the congregation, which resulted in the death of Nicholas Versakokos, aged 40, a wealthy Greek fig merchant, and a trustee of the organization. The cause of his death has not yet been officially ascertained.

Rev. Kerrido Vafradakis and eight members of the congregation were taken to a police station and questioned, but all were later released. The priest and sexton, however, were served with summonses to appear at the district attorney's office tomorrow morning for further questioning. Members of the congregation told the police that the priest, who has been at odds with some of the trustees of the church, including Varsakokos, was making the usual Sunday announcements when the trouble started. The priest had declared that the church would be closed tomorrow, owing to debt, when Varsakokos started up the aisle toward the altar, shouting his dissatisfaction with what the clergyman had said. The congregation, numbering about 250, was thrown into an uproar. It immediately divided into two factions and in a short space of time Bibles, hymn books and candlesticks were flying across the seats. Finally the police reserves were summoned and quelled the disturbance.

REJECTION OF RECIPROCITY WAS A CRIME

Fielding claimed this had always been opposed by the Conservatives.

Mr. Fielding said he believed in the two-party system as the best that statesmen could devise. Unrest among farmers in western Canada had followed on the defeat of reciprocity in 1911. The west had become hostile to the east, and from that hostility and unrest the Farmer movement had sprung. Mr. Fielding did not look upon the farmer as a dangerous man, though many things in his political platform were not attainable.

King Denies Protection the Issue.

Hon. W. L. MacKenzie King dealt with the speech of Premier Meighen at Montreal. "Boiled down to a paragraph," he said, "it is another assertion that the sole issue before the people is protection."

There is no need singling out any one act of autocracy," declared Mr. King.

"The whole record of the government is a long record of autocracy. The taking over of government by Mr. Meighen was an act of autocracy." The people of Canada in 1917 elected Sir Robert Borden on alleged patriotic grounds, but they did not elect Mr. Meighen premier, nor did they intend doing so. There could be nothing more autocratic, he declared, than Mr. Meighen's refusal to inform the people as to the date of election. The prime minister asserted that unstable conditions were forcing unemployment, but, declared Mr. King, the government was largely to blame for that instability, which would continue until, as in 189 , there came into power a government having the confidence of the people and formed from the best men in the country.

FORMER KING OF WURTEMBURG DIES

William II Reigned Twenty-five Years, Abdicating After Armistice.

STUTTGART, Germany, Oct. 2.—Former King William II of Wurtemburg is dead.

William II., reigning king of the monarchy of Wurtemburg, abdicated in November, 1918. He issued a proclamation saying that his person would never serve to hinder the development of the wishes of the people. His abdication, along with that of many other German rulers, was a direct outcome of the war. He had reigned since 1891.

CONSTABLE IS HELD WHEN VICTIM DIES

REGINA, Oct. 2.—Jas. B. Dempsey, aged 47, believed to be a Regina man, was found dead at the union station tonight, and Constable Jolly, of the C. P. R., is being held by the city police until the result of a coroner's inquest in the case is known. According to the police, Dempsey and Jolly were engaged in a scuffle, Dempsey being found later in a dying condition.

OLD WINNIPEG LANDMARK GOES

WINNIPEG, Oct. 2.—The old St. Nicholas hotel property on Main street, which, since the days of prohibition has been converted into a drygoods store and billiard hall, was early this morning destroyed by fire. The damage will probably amount to $40.0000.

VETERAN MARINER DROPS DEAD

VANCOUVER, Oct. 1.—Captain A. J. Bjerre, master of the Vancouver tug Commodore, and one of the oldest seamen in these waters, dropped dead on his boat today at Prince Rupert.

GOATS HELP RANCHER TAMP DOWN SILAGE

A rancher in the southwest, finding it rather difficult properly to pack his silage for preservation, placed a number of goats in the silo while it was being filled. The goats, driven around and around, were at first confused by the stream of silage, but gradually became accustomed to the conditions of their work. After the silo had been filled the goats were lowered by means of a wide canvas sling.

BAYONNE MINE BEING DEVELOPED

Important Operations Follow Recent Reorganization of Company.

Very important mining operations have commenced in the Bayonne through the reorganization of the Bayonne Gold Mining company and the inclusion of a number of Washington financial men in the company.

James Grant, the veteran prospector, returning from a trip into the Bayonne country on Saturday, reported the Bayonne company is now in great shape to carry on development work on the mine all through the winter. A permanent new camp with bunkhouses completed has been made, and is at present occupied by a force of eight men. Thirty tons of provisions and supplies have been packed in to the mine and camp, and 10 tons more are en route.

Development work is being carried on under the direction of the brothers H. and B. Sharpe. A crosscut is being driven to tap the ore body at the 700-foot depth, the working force working in two shifts. It is expected the force will be enlarged shortly, when a third shift will be put in.

Mr. Grant, who made the trip to re-stake some of his claims, encountered boisterous weather conditions, a snow-storm and a windstorm, rendering his work difficult, not to say dangerous. On his way out he counted something like 45 trees blown down across the trail.

Will Dicuss Claims of Lower Paid Empioyees of Canadian National Railway.

OTTAWA, Oct. 2.—(By Canadian Press.)—One of the boards of conciliation which are to deal with the wage reduction issue between the managements of Canadian railways and their employees will commence its sitting Monday afternoon. This board will deal pasticularly with the claims of the lower paid employees of the Canadian National railways as represented in the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees, but its deliberations and findings will likely establish the basis for the conduct of the other boards appointed to deal with the claims of the same classes of employees on the Grand Trunk lines.

The points upon which conciliation is necessary were only established after negotiations lasting 10 days between representatives of the management of the National railways and the employees at Montreal.

Personnel.

The board of conciliation appointed by the federal department of labor consists of H. P. Hill, chairman; ex-Mayor Harold Fisher of Ottawa, representing the employees, and George D. Kelley, also of Ottawa, representing the Canadian National railways.

FOSS CASE TAKES STARTLING TURN

Accused Changes Plea to Guilty on Two Charges; Third Case Proceeding.

Developments in the police court case of William G. G. Foss, which was resumed before Magistrate William Brown on Saturday morning, took a startling turn. The accused, on the advice of his counsel, withdrew his plea of not guilty to the charge of beating a board bill incurred at the Occidental hotel, and to a second charge of obtaining money under false pretenses from Nils Nilson, proprietor of the Tremont hotel, which had not been proceeded with, and pleaded guilty to both. The case was adjourned until this morning for judgments on both counts

In a third case, a charge of obtaining $45 under false pretenses from Eli H. Julien, proprietor of the Nelson Cafe, which was adjourned on Friday for the appearance of the last witness for the prosecution, E. G. Matthew, counsel for the accused, requested the preliminary hearing be changed to a summary trial, following which his client would plead guilty. This case was also adjourned until this morning. James O'Shea prosecuted.

ST. SAVIOURS HOLDS HARVEST FESTIVAL

Special services marked the harvest festival at St. Saviour's Anglican church yesterday and very large congregations attended all three services. The church was beautifully decorated with the choicest offerings from a bountiful harvest in field, orchard and garden.

Archdeacon H. Beer of Kaslo conducted the morning service. In his address from the text "Love thy neighbor as thyself," he traced the causes of international conflicts, prejudices and misunderstandings down through party disputes to the life and personal conduct of the individual, and commended the Christian outlook for the individual as a panacea for all the ills and evils of the world.

In the afternoon the church was filled with children and a special children's service was held.

Assistant Priest Norman Larmonth conducted the evening service and made a strong plea for recruits for the ministry in his address, his remarks being especially directed to the ypung men and women in the congregation.

Gallagher was arrested on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of his children by living with a woman not his wife, and he pleaded guilty. He is being held without bail. He will give evidence on the murder at the inquest Friday.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody Can Tell When You Darken Gray, Faded Hair With Sage Tea.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied, with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through the hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color, and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.

MOND STATES THE BRITISH CREDIT PLAN

Government Will Order Forward Revenue Schemes to Help Ratepayers.

LONDON, Oct. 2.—(By Canadian Press cable.)—Sir Alfred Mond, first commissioner of works, when interviewed declared it was insufficiently realized that the government's proposals to assist local authorities to carry out productive works were far reaching and novel. He said:

"This is the first time the government has come into the field to order forward such revenue producing schemes as electricity, gas works and reservoirs, which will benefit the ratepayers as well as the unemployed."

Seek Many Foreign Markets.

The development and extension, he said, of the government's export credit scheme ought very materially to contribute toward stimulating export trade. The cabinet unemployment committee, Sir Alfred said, had endeavored to broaden the application of the credit scheme from a restricted number of markets, but had been handicapped by the collapse of exchanges in nearly all markets of the world.

The government would also, he said, provide for the government taking a larger share of the risks than in any former scheme by extending the period over which credits would run. The government thereby hoped to encourage exporters to facilitate trade.

Sir Alfred hoped the benefits of the government's proposals would be felt in a month or two.

LONGSHOREMEN OUT AGAINST REDUCTION

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—Leaders of the 6000 longshoremen who went on strike at the Trans-Atlantic Steamship docks yesterday in protest against the new wage scale today declared their grievance concerned not only reduced wages and the resumption of the 48-hour week, but the fact that their overtime pay had been abolished on Saturdays.

The walkout, according to Joe Ryan, vice president of the International Longshoremen's association, was participated in by only nine of the 29 local unions.

SULPHURIC ACID PLUNGE IS FATAL

VANCOUVER, Oct. 1.—A. MacGowan, a returned soldier of Port Moody, died in the New Westminster hospital tonight. While working on the roof of a building at the oil refinery at Ioco, B. C., he slipped and fell into a tank of sulphuric acid. He died later from burns.

UNEMPLOYMENT IN ITALY IS REDUCED

Figures Show Notable Shrinkage in Volume From Those Given in July.

OTTAWA, Oct. 2.—General business remains inactive in the United Kingdom, and such few signs of recovery as a visible refer to future prospects, according to the current Weekly Bulletin issued by the department of trade and commerce. The returns of overseas trade for August show an increase of £8,000,000 in imports and £9,000,000 in exports over July, but these are chiefly attributable to relief caused by the termination of the coal strike. Otherwise, the month's totals represent little more than half of the figures for the same month a year ago.

Regarding unemployment, the 2,170,000 wholly unemployed, and 988,000 on short time, which were reported in July, have been reduced to 1,527,000 and 400,000, respectively, as on September 2. Demonstrations and disorders among the unemployed during the past month in their endeavors to secure relief from municipalities and the government, has decided the government to open investigations which will probably lead to relief work.

SEATTLE MAN KILLS WOMAN AND SELF

SEATTLE, Oct. 2.—M. Ponzio, editor of Il Corrier di Seattle, an Italian paper, and leader of the American Italians, shot and killed Mrs. Georgia Mattice, aged 30, a waitress, and then turned the gun on himself with fatal effect, in a hotel room here this morning.

MINORITIES IN IRELAND WANT VOICE

Southern Unionists and Constitutional Nationalists Want to Be Heard.

LONDON, Oct. 2.—The cabinet meeting which is to be held this week as soon as Lloyd George returns to London is expected first to select representatives to the Irish conference. According to Dublin advices, the Sinn Fein delegation will be accompanied by Desmond Fitzgerald, minister of propaganda, and several of his assistants.

Want Prisoners Released.

Incident to the conference, the statement of the Sinn Fein spokesman as published by the south Ireland papers, indicate that a demand will be made for the release of Irish prisoners in jails and internment camps.

The feeling is reported to be growing among southern Unionists and Constitutional Nationalists that they are entitled to representation.

The Irish Times says:

"At least one representative of the southern Unionists sought to have a place at the conference table. We anticipate no objection from the Republican leaders, whose meetings with the southern Unionists were a most auspicious feature of the early negotiations. The time will come when this educated and influential minority must have policy plans of its own, if it is to play a proper part in the building of the new Ireland."

Member Audit Bureau of Circulations

MONDOY, OCTOBER 3, 1921

The Sensational vs. the Conservative.

The second of an admirable series of articles on journalism by Chester S. Lord, former editor of the New York Sun, appearing in the Saturday Evening Post, treats of "What to Print."

Mr. Lord well says that sensationalism is of the moment and has no enduring value.

It is further true that it creates an appetite that must be continually fed in increasing quantities of the same kind of news. In other words, readers become addicts.

Conversely, conservative journalism makes a newspaper an institution among its own clientele.

People who have become addicts to sensationalism do not read papers carefully; rather they read the headings and leading paragraphs, and feverishly jump to a next article in search of something of greater interest—except in the case of a happening that by its extreme sensationalism overshadows all else in the paper. That is read avidly and completely, but at the expense of the minor sensations.

That the public does not demand so-called yellow journalism is proved by the fact that the majority of the large and influential newspapers all over the continent, of an entirely different type, but have large circulations and are commercially successful. Further, their success is an enduring one.

The Basis of Enduring Peace

The London Daily Chronicle reminds all concerned that the coming conferences in Washington must provide solutions for the inflamed problems of the Pacific and the Far East before they approach the corollary question of naval disarmament. The American government doubtless has this necessity fully in mind, even if the tentative agenda does not always seem to suggest this order of precedence. The Americans are buildings a navy principally for a specific purpose—and that is to ensure the success of their policy in the Pacific; and they will certainly want to be left free after the conferences to fit their instrument to that specific purpose.

So the whole question as to the weight and character of the American navy hangs upon the uses to which it must be put in the Pacific; and this, in turn, hangs upon the number and character of the problems still left unsolved in that area. If the Americans emerge from the conferences under a settled conviction that they must eventually fight for what they regard as their rights and certainly their national interests in the Far East, they will buckle down to the building of a navy strong enough to defend their policy in Asian waters, no matter how much it may cost, points out the Montreal Star. But if a mutually satisfactory agreement can be reached, and guaranteed by some tri-partite insurance treaty between Britain, Japan and the United States, then the Americans will be quite ready to await the results of the vexed discussion as to whether battleships or airplane carriers are the true dreadnoughts of the future, and come to some understanding with British as to how many warships each shall have and what seas each shall police.

The basis of world peace can be stabilized by an agreement between the three powers as to the future of the Far East. That is the first thing to be done. Without that, any effort to limit navies is hopeless. With that, it would be obvious folly to build navies which will have nothing to do.

Efficient Housekeeping

BY Laura A. Kirkman

DO YOU KNOW GOOD SILK WHEN YOU SEE IT?

Because of the high price which must be paid for silk materials, every woman should learn to distinguish a really good quality of silk from a second rate grade so as not to be deluded in her purchasing. When she pays pure-silk prices, she should receive pure silk.

Silk is most expensive of all the fibers to cultivate. It is also the most beautiful and the strongest fiber. The best grade is called "reeled silk" and this is taken from the cocoon in one long, continuous thread (sometmies several hundred yards long). In manufactured reeled silk, many defective cocoons are found in which the fibers are not perfect or are broken; the silk from these cocoons may be treated like a short fiber and spun into threads verying in strength according to the length of the fibers; this so-called "spun" silk has not the high luster nor the strength of "reeled" silk, but is frequently used as warp with reeled silk filling, or in imitation crepes for back of stains and velvets, and in many other ways where it will not be as noticeably imperfect as it would be if woven alone as plain silk material.

In the raw state silk is sold by the pound. Three thousand silk worms are needed to spin one pound of silk—and a dress requires from one to two pounds. So it will be seen from these facts that a good grade of silk must be expensive. Do not for a moment think it possible to pay a low price and receive a fine quality.

Many of us—indeed most of us!—however, do not demand the finest silk for our garments because we cannot afford to pay for it. What we want is an adulterated silk at a moderate price that looks well. We are thankful that the manufacturers have found a way of adulterating it, for by so doing they have put a becoming fabric within our financial reach. But we do demand that they are fair and offer it to us inexpensively, not trying to conceive us that it is finest grade.

"Weighting" and "loading" are the names given a process of adultering silks. Silk has a great ability to absorb dyes and metallic salts without apparently changing the quality of the material, so that reasonable silks on the market contain more or less of this loading or weighting to make them seem heavier. It is a common practice to add 30 per cent of these elements, while it is possible to add 250 or even 300 per cent of them. To ascertain how greatly a certain piece of silk material is weighted, get a sample of it, take it home and put it in a hot oven on a tin dish, and note the amount of weighting left on the pan when the silk has burned away (only the weighting will remain and it will be in the original shape of the sample).

Another method of adulterating silk is with cotton and mercerized cotton. The fibers are not spun together here as they are with wool, but the threads of the two materials are woven together. In very cheap silks a fine cotton thread sometimes forms either warp or filling.

"Fiber silk" is an artificial silk. It is made from cotton or wood fiber put through capillary tubes, hardened in the air and so treated that it will withstand moisture. This fiber silk is used in many knitted sweaters, scarfs, dress braids, fancy ribbons and is combined with both pure silk and with cotton. It may be detected by its brilliancy and stiffness.

Lady Masterton-Smith, wife of Sir James Masterton-Smith, one of the joint permanent secretaries of the ministry of labor, fell from a bedroom window at her house at 43 Holland street, Kensington W., a few days ago and was killed. Lady Masterton-Smith had gone upstairs to her children's rooms, as was her daily custom, and it is thought that she fainted when opening the window of her son's room. At the inquest Sir James said that the sill of the window from which she fell was very low reaching just below the knees. His wife was tall. Sir James added that she might have felt hot after climbing the stairs and entering the hot room had gone to the window for air. She might have fainted and fallen out. Another possibility was that she might have reached out to draw down the window at the top and over balanced, or she might have tripped over the linoleum near the window and fallen over the low sill.

A plucky rescue from the sea was watched and cheered by hundreds of visitors at Brighton the other day. While fishing from the groyne near the palace pier, a boy of 12 slipped off the curved ledge at the extreme end while high seas were running. He was in imminent danger of drowning when his plight was noticed by a London man, who threw off boots and jacket and plunged in. When he reached the lad he struggled so violently as to drag his rescuer under, causing him to lose his grip. A lifebuoy was thrown, which the man grasped, seized the lad as he rose to the surface, and held him until both were hauled on board a motor launch.

PARIS.

In all the diversity of ideas that marked the many thousands of new models introduced by the Paris dressmakers last August, there was one feature on which nearly all were agreed, and that was their acceptance of the long waistline. Somewhere in the vicinity of the hips became the new normal line for the waist, though

Renee, who in one brief season two or three years ago established herself in the front rank of fashion authorities, introduced several evening dresses with the waistline placed below the hips.

It is for the woman who can wear a fairly low waistline that I have selected the black velvet evening gown illustrated. For herein lies its whole distinction. The effect is emphasized by a wide loose girdle of jet with pendant jet fringe at each side.

REFUSED TO RANSOM WIFE

The question of what a really good wife is worth has been brought up again by the action of William Demetropolous, of Chicago, who refused to pay $1000 ransom to get his wife back from her abductors.

William appeared in Judge Jacob's court and asked a warrant for Gus Granapoulis. William said Gus approached him and put the proposition to him.

"What, $1000 for a wife," William responded. "I don't want her. You can keep her."

Then, he says, Gus poked a revolver against his ribs and said that unless William produced $1000 he would shoot him. After some further argument, Gus beat William over the head with the revolver and then ran away.

"You want a warrant because he stole your wife?" asked Judge Jacobs.

"No because he threatened me and struck me," said the husband.

FIND HIGH GRADE ORE ON TAMARACK

Malcolm Cameron Gets Two-Foot Paystreak on Slocan City Property.

SLOCAN CITY, Sept. 29.—It is reported that two feet of high grade ore has been struck at the Tamarack mine on Springer creek. The Tamarask is under lease and bond to Malcolm Cameron of this place, who has been working the property single-handed for some time. Mr. Cameron is very much elated over his success, and this is just another instance to show that the Slocan City mining division will produce the goods if the necessary development work is done on the mineral veins of the camp. This requires not only capital, but labor intelligently directed.

WONDERFUL VARIETY OF EXHIBITS AT NEW DENVER FAIR CAPTIVATES

Visitors Greatly Impressed at Displays Shown; Judges Comment on Quality of Products; Residents May Try in Wider Field Another Year; List of Awards.

NEW DENVER, Sept. 29.—The New Denver fair which was held on Sept. 28, proved a pleasant and instructive surprise to those who visited it for the first time.

The judges, Messrs W. Hunter of Vancouver, and E. Greenwood of Victoria, and C. W. Kipp of Revelstoke, gave excellent satisfaction, and furnished many pointers to the uninitiated. Mr. Hunter was repeatedly heard to comment upon the first class quality and uniformity of the fruit, the splendid packing and care exhibited even in the children's exhibits, the marvelous variety and rich coloring of the flowers, and the excellent needle work.

Would Like to Show at Nelson

In fact his comments were such that some of the New Denverites now have visions of larger fields of conquest with keener competition and would greatly appreciate it, if the authorities of the Nelson fair could arrange their exhibition shortly after Oct. 12, that the Slocan and Arrow Lakes District might have an opportunity to forward their exhibits to a district fair in Nelson.

The Women's Institute, under its president, Mrs. O. V. White, arranged and carried out for the fair director, an excellent refreshment table, their efforts netting the directors about $80.

The Boys band, consisting of 13 members, under the leadership of C. W. Webber, not only added greatly to the enjoyment of the visitors but also gave the citizins justifiable pride.

H. J. G. Angell having resigned the secretaryship, J. H. Struckland gave excellent satisfaction.

Upon the wonderful section display of farm produce as exhibited by H. S. Nelson and J. C. Harris, compliments by the score were poured. Tier also demonstrated the natural adaptibility of the soil for timothy by showing a shock of timothy six feet high grown on his ranch, seven miles up Wilson creek.

One would think the citizens had a goodly number of first class nurseries attached to their private residences, from the display of immense and perfectly colored house plants. Mrs. William Davidson's hanging basket of Scotch moss, her Tritonia Lily with its brilliant cheerer and flame color flowers, Hyacinthus, Candicans over five feet high and Rex Begonia over five feet in circumference, made many admire, whilst Mrs. Nyman proved a worthy second.

Rev. D. W. Scott, Rev. Mr. Stevenson, and A. Shiltand, were the judges, clerks.

The fair board that did such good work is composed as follows: O. V. White, honorary president; J. B. Smith, honorary vice-president; H. E. Thomlinson, president; J. E. Angrignon, treasurer; J. H. Stuckland, secretary; directors, J. E. Angrignon, Ed. Shannon, A. H. Sanderson, T. Avison, George Trickett, Mrs. William Davidson, Mrs. J B. Smith, H. I. Angell, J. H. Struckland, H. E. NEW DENVER NOTES

NEW DENVER, Sept. 29.—The funeral of Jean McLanders, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Landers, of Sandon, took place here today, Rev. Mr. Stevens, Presbyterian minister, officiating. There were many beautiful floral offerings.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Craig and daughter Bessie from, Edinburgh, Scotland, are visiting George Trickett. Mrs. Craig is the sister of Mr. Trickett. They are delighted with the country, and have not recovered from their surprise at the enormous and various quantity and quality of the fruit.

An optimist feeling has taken hold here in the Slocan for the near future, and indications are of a revival of business and mining generally.

FOURTH ARREST IN LIQUOR HAUL

Another Gorrie Arrested in Utah on Warrant From Fernie; One Still at Large

FERNIE, Oct. 2.—In connection with the reported hold-up and robbery of William Kerr, rancher of Dorr, when about $8,000. worth of liquor was stolen, a few weeks ago, while the receipt of information from the police of Salt Lake City, Utah, that M. Gorrie, for whom a warrant had been issued here for alleged implication in this affair, the local headquarters of the provincial Police this morning announced that this makes the fourth arrest in connection with this case. It is now stated that within 36 hours following the receipt of the report of the robbery from Kerr through the assistance of the Montana state officials, and the Kalispel sheriff, three men were taken into custody, namely, H. A. Henderson, presumably a resident of Salt Lake, and who already has a record in police circles; Dave Gorrie, brother of M. Goorie just apprehended, well known in this city, and who have lived on the family ranch at Roosville not far removed from Kerr's premises; and J. Robinson, who gave the alias of Hansen when arrested at Kalispel, but who, according to local police records, under the name of Robinson, got into difficulties through alleged illicit trafficking. Also in connection therewith an automobile was seized by the customs officials and stored in a local garage, but it was discovered one morning that the garage had been broken into, and the said car totally disappeared since that time, as also did Robinson, until he was gathered in the toils through his association with the suspects in the present liquor capture.

There is still at large another suspect, well known to the police, but who so far has eluded the net spread out for the capture of the gang alleged to be responsible for the Kerr robbery. It is understood that all those at present under arrest will fight extradition back to Canada, but in view of the evidence so far gathered by the respective police departments, it is thought there should be no difficulty in bringing them back here to stand trial.

The showing of the Tigers was a great disappointment to the 7500 fans who witnessed the game, as it was expected the Tigers would prove to be the Argonauts' stumbling block in their quest for a second championship.

JUNIOR BATTLE TODAY SHOULD BE BEST YET

Today's junior city soccer league fixture, Y. M. C. A. Junior vs. Shamrocks, should be the hardest fought battle of the whole junior series, for on it depends the Y. M. C. A. boys' chance of coming up in the finals of the series. If the Shamrocks win today's battle the Y. M. C. A. boys' chances are almost certainly gone. If the "Y" boys win, they have a fine chance to tie with the Rangers and appear in the finals. The Shamrocks will most certainly give them the battle of their career.

The teams will be:

Y. M. C. A Juniors—Goal, W. Freno; backs, J. Madden and T. McVicar; halves, G. Long, A. Eldridge and F. Thorpe; forwards, A. Ioanin, A. Stringer, S. Allibone, T. Cherry and F. Risden. Reserves—G. Cherry and T. Black.

Shamrocks—Goal, K. Rees; backs, G. Fawcett and O. St. Denis; halves, M. St. Denis, G. Roynon and J. James; forwards, H. Scott, G. Thain, C. St. Denis, G. McKenzie and J. Shanks.

SOCIALISTS WILL FIGHT VANCOUVER

With Help of One Big Union Will Contest Various Ridings in Province.

VANCOUVER, Oct. 2.—Vancouver Socialists will enter politics in the forthcoming election, it was decided a meeting of Socilists and One Big union adherents here today. About 300 men attended the meeting, and placed themselves to support the political aspirations of the leaders.

It was tentatively proposed that W. J. Cavanaugh, well known One Big union leader, should be nominated by the Socialis party to contest South Vancouver riding. Candidates will be entered in other local ridings if possible. A collection was taken up at the meeting to form the nucleus of a political party fund.

There was considerable criticism in the meeting, of the plans of the economic council, recently formed to deal with the unemployment problem in this district. Complaint was made that under the council's plans the wages to be paid would be wholly inadequate. The meeting was orderly and businesslike, and it was noteworthy that the revolutionary anthem, "The Red Flag," was not sung, as it usually done at similar meetings in Vancouver.

RECORDER BLAMES LIVERPOOL COPS

Says Violence Was Not Justified in Art Gallery Disturbances.

LONDON, Oct. 2.—The Liverpool recorder, when trying several unemployed leaders in connection with the recent disturbances in the Liverpool Art gallery, made severe strictures on the conduct of the police.

There was nothing in the evidence, said the judge, to suggest that any violence had been necessary. "I do not expect the police to behave like angels always," he said, "but I do hope that their conduct on this occasion is not characteristic of the general manner of the police. The police should realize that they must not make their hand heavier on the public than is necessary."

Nominal sentences were passed.

INSISTENT BUYING DRIVES OUT SHORTS

Strong Tone Marks Close of Short Session of Stock Market.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—Trading during yesterday's brief stock session was made up largely of metals, domestic oils, steels, equipments and several conspicuous coal issues.

Coppers rose two points in recognition of the higher prices quoted for future deliveries, oils seemed to derive their impetus mainly from pools and Lehigh Valley's further gain was associated with the company's prospective segregation plan.

Shorts opposed the advance in the first hour, but retired when buying became too insistent, a firm to strong tone marking the close. Sales amounted to 275,000 shares.

Dealings in bonds were moderate, Liberty and Victory issues showing gains and losses at the end. Foreign issues were lower, especially French government 7½s and Cuba Cane 8s. Total sales, par value, aggregated $5,350,000.

An increase of $55,000,000 in actual loans and discounts by the clearing house reflected the heavy transfer of funds incidental to the turn into the final quarter of the year. Reserves of members at the feedral reserve bank decreased $37,000,000, and a contraction of $43,557,000 in cash holding resulted in a deficit of reserves of practically $10,000,000.

Business in foreign exchange was nominal, but fresh pressure was directed against the Italian rate and German marks, the latter again declining to .78c, their low record. Polish marks manifested increased weakness, with other central European rates. Far eastern exchanges were steady, the Shanghai rate recovering its loss of the previous day.

DOMINION LIVESTOCK

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—With liquidation on, wheat and corn sagged today. The close saw net losses of 3c to 3¼c in wheat, ¼c to ⅝c in corn and ⅝c in oats. Provisions remained unchanged to 2½c higher.

Wheat opened weak and with bearish sentiment, strengthened by the few news factors, and encouraged by absence of outside support nothing that the few longs could do had any effect on the market. Breaks at Winnipeg, caused by hedging, declines of around 5c in cash wheat at Minneapolis, and slow export demand, coupled with a report that New York interests bought 20,000 barrels of Canadian flour this week, combined to break the resistance of the most stubborn longs. May wheat made a new low record on the drop.

Victory bonds were firm.

BRITISH REVENUE SHOWS A DECLINE

No Immediate Prospect of a Reduction of Taxation in Old Country.

LONDON, Oct. 2.—(Canadian Press Cable)—The half year's revenue statement shows that whereas the exchequer calculated for a revenue decline amounting to £200,000,000 for the whole year, there has been an actual drop of £163,000,000 for the first six months.

Large expected items of expenditure have arisen in connection with mining, agriculture, railways and general unemployment. It is noticeable that whereas extra stamp duties were levied for checques, drafts, etc., there is a decline of 40 per cent in receipts from this class. Increased telephone charges, which encountered strenuous opposition, show a drop of nearly 30 per cent.

"No prospect before us for a generation of general reduction of taxation," is the reflection of one who is usually a sober commentator.

The government tomorrow will issue new 5½ per cent treasury bonds at 98. This is the first occasion since the beginning of the war that the government has been able to issue stock on cheaper terms for itself.

Stage Favorites Become Linguists

(By Ben Deacon, Canadian Press Correspondent.

NEW YORK.—One day, according to a yarn now current along Broadway, Henry W. Savage dropped in at a rehearsal of his revival of "The Merry Widow," selected a couple of chorus girls and gave them each a line to speak. This took place during the absence of George Marion, who was staging the piece, and at the next rehearsal the latter was somewhat surprised when the chorus ladies who had been given parts stepped down to the footlights and delivered their lines. They of course delivered them in true chorus girl fashion somewhat as though their mouths were filled with uncomfortably hot mush.

"What was that?" inquired Marion anxiously.

The girls mumbled their lines again.

"You know," remarked Marion, "if you can't speak the English language I shall be obliged to make you principals."

Evidently the tale was originated by some one who found the members of the "international cast" difficult to comprehend. As a matter of fact, in the early days of the production the struggles of Lydia Lipkowska and Reginald Pasch with the English language were disconcerting. Prince Danilo at times came very near to being a Dutch comedy role, while Sonia's pert remarks suffered from a Slavic slur. But the acting and singing of this pair more than compensate for any slight inconvenience which may be occasioned by their accent. Moreover, the little "foreign" mannerisms, the graceful little gestures and poses which accompany the foreign accent and which are absolutely inimitable by English or American players fit in admirably with the atmosphere of the piece and add a good deal to its charm.

It is a remarkable cast. Lipkowska, the pet of Petrograd when she was with the Imperial opera there, and famous on this continent as a concert singer; Pasch, from the Rembrandt theatre of Amsterdam; Frank Webster, a notable tenor from the D'Oyley Carte Opera company of London; George Dufranne, from the Gaiete Lyrique, of Paris; the Natalie, Dorothy Francis, formerly of the Chicago Opera company; and, finally, the dean of American comedians, Jefferson de Angelis in the role of Nish.

For this revival Savage gathered together a wonderful cast. But he did more than that. He gave that cast the support of a wonderful singing chorus. There is not a poor voice in the ensemble; not a grating, tinny tone to mar the gorgeous music of the famous operetta which first cheered and charmed us, and perhaps shocked a few of us, fourteen years ago. The waltz song, "Maxim's," "Vilya," "A Dutiful Wife," "Love in My Heart," and "In Marsovia"—all of which greet the ear delightfully and are as welcome as an unexpected visit from old and dear friends—are rendered with a precision and skill that make them doubly charming.

There is one other thing for which it is fitting that the gratitude of the producer has made no attempt to modernize the thing. The waltz, a one-time thriller, may fall a little flat in the eyes of those accustomed to the more strenuous dancing of the moment; the gaiety of Maxim's may appear tame without a single jazz artist to tear the melody to shreds; but Savage has manfully resisted the temptation to Broadwayize it and we have been spared the horrors of a "Merry Widow" of the kangaroo walk and the toddle, the saxophone and shimmy and the slide-trombone.

At the close of a seven weeks' season here "The Merry Widow" is to fare forth on the road—the present company intact, we are told. It is likely that several Canadian cities will be included in the tour, though the itinerary has not yet been announced. There is where you folks back home will have it over those of us who see our shows in New York. By the time "The Merry Widow" reaches you Lipkowska and Pasch will have conquered the English language—or at least enough of it to speak their lines distinctly—and the only uncomfortable wrinkle in an otherwise perfectly smooth performance will have been ironed out.

Revive the Easiest Way.

Another notable revival of this season is Eugene Walter's drama, "The Easiest Way," which is now being presented by David Belasco at the Lyceum theatre. It is doubtful whether Canadian audiences ever enthused over "The Easiest Way" as have theatregoers and critics on this side of the line, where it is hailed as "an American masterpiece," but undoubtedly it is a straightforward and forceful piece of writing which is entitled to a place in the dramatic literature of the continent. It was first presented in New York in January, 1909, with Frances Starr in the tempestuous role of Laura Murdock. Miss Starr appears in the revival, and Joseph Kilgour, the original Willard Brockton, is again seen in his old role. Only a few very minor changes have been made in the play. Present indications are that "The Easiest Way" is going to prove as popular with New Yorkers today as it was on its first presentation nearly 13 years ago.

One new theatre and several new plays were presented to New York this week. The new theatre is The Music Box, situated on Forty-fifth street. It was built by Sam H. Harris and Irving Berlin, and the latter, in conjunction with several others, coopered up its first show, a musical melange entitled "The Music Box Revue." The cast includes Sam Bernard, William Collier, Frank Gill, Rose Rolanda and many other more or less famous personages, to say nothing of Irving Berlin himself.

Other events of the week include the postponed premiere of "Bluebeard's Eighth Wife," a French farce by Alfred Savoir, adapted by Charlton Andrews, with Ina Claire as star, and "Blood and Sand," a play based on Ibanez's tale of El Gallardo, greatest of bullfighters, Otis Skinner portraying the Babe Ruth of the bull ring.

"Bluebeard's Eighth Wife" managed to get itself pinched in New Haven, Conn., where it was given a tryout. The event passed almost unnoticed by New York at the time, but Mr. William Harris Jr., the producer, rectified that. Briefly entering the literary field, he recounts in the program the adventures of the company in the New Haven hoose-gow. He makes absolutely no attempt to hide the fact that the New Haven constabularly considered it an indecent performance, but takes issue with them on that point. "I consider it wholesome and delightful," he declares. There is a sneaking suspicion that William Harris Jr. does not regret the painful New Haven incident as keenly as he might were his understanding of publicity values less acute.

Latest French Farce.

"Bluebeard's Eighth Wife" appears to be a typical French farce, with a somewhat stronger content of suggestiveness than is generally allowed to remain in French farces which have been denatured for the consumption of the American public. The Parisian wife of an American billionaire, in order to arouse the jealousy of her Bluebeard husband, gets a young fellow tight and arranges to have friend husband find them in a compromising situation in her boudoir. This lady does not believe in half-measures. Having conceived this plan, she carries it out with fine attention to detail. Opinions as to the merits of the play differ widely, but no one in New York appears to have been shocked badly enough to do much free advertising for the piece.

* * *

New York is trying to steal Marie Lohr. It is reported that a New York producing firm has been negotiating with George Driscoll, general manager of Trans-Canada Theatres, Limited, under whose auspices Miss Lohr begins her Canadian tour in Montreal next week, in an effort to secure the famous English actress for a New York season in "Fedora." Chicago is also said to be bidding for her.

There has been some difference of opinion as to just what the dramatist meant "X," the unknown quantity, to represent in "The Triumph of X," which opened a few days ago at the Comedy theatre. Evidently it did not represent the box office, for the play was withdrawn this week.

Another play that had a short shift was "Tarzan of the Apes," a dramatization of the film version of the novel by Edgar Rice Burroughs. The cast included a number of real live monkeys, but as the audience was not permitted to feed them peanuts the entertainment lacked the interest of an ordinary zoo.

John Sainpolis, one time a popular leading man in a Montreal stock company, is a member of the cast supporting David Warfield in Belasco's revival of "The Return of Peter Grimm" at the Belasco theatre.

Esther Ferrabini, remembered by Canadian music lovers as the prima donna of the old Montreal Opera company, sings "Carmen" with the San Carlo Opera company during its opening week at the Manhattan Opera house.

The Shuberts this week launched their vaudeville venture and solved one New York mystery: the disappearance of Belle Storey from the Hippodrome, where she was prima donna for four years. She is now a Shubert headliner.

"Main Street" is being dramatized. This should be easy. All it will require will be to be fitted out with a plot.

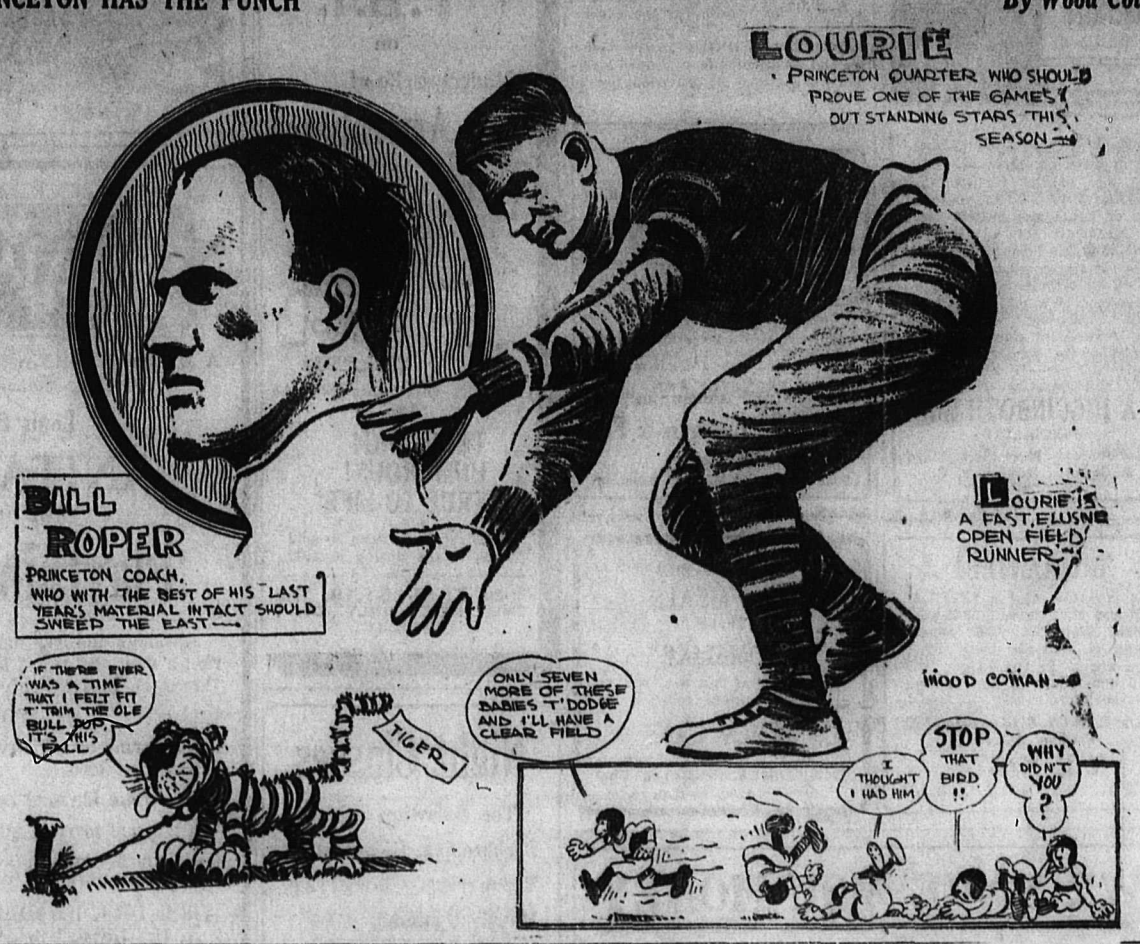
PRINCETON HAS THE PUNCH

By Wood Cowan



Back in 1911 it was Bill Roper who turned out a team that downed Harvard and Yale; and again it's ole Bill who has been pulling the Tigers toward the heights in football the past two seasons!

Maybe Sammy White had a lot to do with Roper's 1917 success when he picked up a loose ball in both games, and raced for the winning touchdown. But certainly Sammy can't claim the glory of Bill's last season's triumphs.

Roper has devoloped an attack in Old Nassau's game and that's more than can be said of most of his predecessors. With his wealth of good material Roper should sweep the east this season.

In Lourie, Roper as a worthy successor to Trimble, the ace of the 1919 Tiger eleven. Lourie is a grand football player—a great quarterback, an alert, elusive open field runner; good at throwing and receiving a pass; and a smart team director.

What could be sweeter?

Yanks Win, Then Burlesque.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—New York won its first American league championship yesterday by defeating Philadelphia in both games of a doubleheader. The second game went 11 innings. It was only necessary for New York to win one game to take the pennant.

Carl Mays won the first game for New York, his 27th victory of the season. Sullivan, a Three-I league graduate, pitched against Mays and made a good showing. Wild throws behind him handicapped his efforts.

The second game was a burlesque, in which Huggins used all of his extra players. Ruth shifted from left field to first base, then to pitcher. Philadelphia tied the score by making six runs on Ruth in the eighth, but New York won in the 11th on Rogers' double and Mitchell's single. Ruth made only one single in the double-header.

Frank Graham of the New York Evening Sun today was elected official world series scorer for the Giants and Weed Dickinson of the New York Morning Telegraph official scorer for the Yankees.

WORLD SERIES IS ALL IN NEW YORK

Both Giants and Yankees Win High Percenage of Six Weeks' Contest.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—The struggle for first division places in the major leagues was carried through to the final games today. With first place in both leagues decided only in the last few days of the season, the fight for second place in the National and third place in the American remained in doubt today, when the Pittsburg Nationals and the St. Louis Americans weer the respective victors.

Second Place the Prize.

The possibility of a tie for second place in the National race, with a consequently greater share in the world's series receipts, goaded the St. Louis Cardinals to try to repeat the feat of the New York Nationals in taking five straight games from Pittsburg. The Cardinals defeated Pittsburg twice Thursday, again Friday and played to a tie Saturday. Today the Pirates turned back the Cardinals in a game played on a muddy field, which prevented any chance of playing off yesterday's tie.

Splendid pitching enabled the Washington Aemricans to keep close to the St. Louis Browns. The Browns batted hard and won eight of their last 11 games, while the Senators captured 11 out of 12. Today St. Louis retained its half game advantage over Washington when both teams won.

Leaders Show Strength at Bat.

The two New York teams came through the final week displaying strength at the bat. The Yank pitchers were hit harder than the Giants' boxmen. In fielding there was little to choose between the two clubs.

A comparison of the two world's series rivals show that since the week of August 21, when New York pulled Pittsburg back within striking distance by taking five straight, the Giants have won 25 games out of 37 and the Yanks 30 out of 43, or percentages of .676 and .698, respectively.

Boxes Already Sold.

The New York American league club tonight announced that the boxes for the world's series games 2, 4, 6 and 8, over which it has control, are sold, but there still are plenty of reserved seats available. The Giants, who have control of games 1, 3, 5 and 7, recently announced that all reserved seats for these contests had been sold.

SUMMER TIME IN ENGLAND PASSES

LONDON, Oct. 2.—(By Canadian Press cable.)—Summer time in England ends tonight. The movement here was generally popular, save with a certain number of agriculturists, and others who have the care of large bodies of children.

No legal provision has been made, however, for continuing the experiment next year. The present rules lapse under the Defense of the Realm act and an attempt to introduce legislation to continue the provisions proved fruitless.

THE INIMITABLE STAR, IN

'Playthings of Destiny'

Although she was married to a man she loved, she married a man she didn't love, too. Was it cheating? "Playthings of Destiny" gives two answers—"Yes" and "No."

YOU'LL ENJOY:

—the drama of a girl who married once for love and once to forget love.

—an Arctic blizzard splendid in reality.

—a tropical tornado mighty in force.

—a famous star supported by HERBERT RAWLINSON and WALTER M'GRAIL.

—little DICK HEADRICK, wonder-child of "The Woman in His House," in a role of still finer appeal.
