AUPHIN, Man., Nov. 20.—(By adian Press staff correspondent.) remier cMighen's election campn, in so far as western Canada is cerned, closed last night. The ne minister addressed two meet- here in the interest of Robert ise, former member and governt candidate in Dauphin constitu y, the first in the town hall and overflow in the Dauphin theatre. remier Meighen discussed a numof issues, some of which he med were not issues at all, but ely blinds.

I often think," he said, "that opition speakers want to see that the ple's minds are not too closely cen- d on what really counts in this tion." In this category he placed rges made against the government t it had discriminated in favor of interests by accepting promissory s of the Riordon company, that it been extravagant in expendi- s; that it had built up a mercanmarine without the sanction of liament, and that it was wedded to great industrial organizations of country.

Traces Grain Abuses.

The real issues of importance to stern Canada primarily, but also to whole Dominion, were the handg of the grain crop and the tariff, isted the premier. He dealt with first at some length, tracing the ises which led up to the formation the Grain Growers' company, now United Grain Growers, as a pana.

Instead of removing the evils the ited Grain Growers has taken its t on the grain exchange and pros- ed because of the very practices nplained of," he asserted. Mr. Cre- 's claim that the profits of this mpany returned to the farmers who oduced the crop was unfounded. fact, a large proportion of these d, he said, found their way into an anization called the Public Press, ited, a subsidiary of the United ain Growers, which financed the ain Growers' Guide, now being ed to advance the political interests the Progressive party. ewspaper Disperses Complaint of Lack of Friendship for Quebec.

QUEBEC, Nov. 20.—In connection th complaints said to have been ade by Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, n. Dr. Beland and other leading berals in this province, that the govment's lack of friendship for Queb is proven by its failure to name ench Canadians as representatives Canada at the peace conference or members of other federal commis- ns, the Quebec Chronicle publishes ast styles as a bit of hitherto unitten history.

The Quebec paper asserts that it s reliable authority for the statent that Hon. Dr. Beland himself s asked if he was willing to act as e of the Canadian representatives th Sir Robert Borden at the peace nference.

According to this information, the hronicle claims that Dr. Beland first peared to be gratified at the invi- tion, but explained that before aching a decision he would have to nsult his chief.

DEFY THE ELEMENTS IN YUKON

Candidates Carry Campaign to All Parts by Dog Team, Packhorse and Auto.

DAWSON, Y. T., Nov. 19.—Difficulties of Yukon winter travel have no terrors for the two candidates for federal honors—Major George Black, Conservative, and F. C. Congdon, K. C., Liberal—and they are making excellent progress in carrying their campaigns into every section of this vast constituency. Most of the traveling is done with dog trains, but horses and the modern automobile are not neglected.

Mr. Congdon spoke at Whitehorse Friday night. He is expected to reach Dawson by horse team within a few days, after a journey of 360 miles over ice and snow. The first half of the trip will be made by automobile to Yukon crossing.

Major Black reached here Saturday after mushing with his dog team 16 miles overland from Mayo City, Yukon's new silver camp. He tramped all night from Gravel Lake to Dominion Creek and motored to Dawson. Accompanied by Bob Miller, a miner, he went into Mayo camp by a new route, crossing from Selkirk for a distance of 90 miles, and five days were required for the trip.

Major Black stated that all the rich veins opened up at Keno hill are being developed this winter. Galena hill, he said, has been "stampeded" within the last month and 60 new claims have been staked, bringing the total claims in the district discovered two years ago up to 1500, with a population of 600.

Westbound rates from Hamburg are reduced from $125 to $102.50 and those from Danzig from $135 to $105.50. The extra charge for disinfection and transit expense is abolished. The American head tax and American and European vise charges are additional and must be paid by passengers.

OLIVER WILL NOT TALK YET

Silent on Subject of Mrs. Ralph Smith's Resignation From Ministry.

VICTORIA, Nov. 20.—"I regard a cabinet minister without portfolio as a sort of a fifth spoke in a wheel—a superfluity," remarked Hon. Mary E. Smith, first woman to hold a cabinet portfolio in the British Empire, who tendered her resignation to Premier Oliver yesterday.

Hon. Mrs. Smith intimated she did not care to be an ornament or wallflower when the matter of shaping the policies of the government was under consideration. She believed her constituents wished her to make her opinions known even in the executive council or on the floor of the house.

As matter stood she was precluded from doing either, and in order to be at liberty to carry out the wishes of her constituents she felt impelled to take the course adopted yesterday.

Hon. Mrs. Smith declared she sympathized with the government in the tremendous task set before them, but felt she could no longer remain inactive in the matter of criticism or advice and continue to truly represent the largest single group of electors in the province.

Hon. John Oliver said tonight he had nothing to say apropos of Mrs. Smith's resignation. He declared he would be prepared to issue a statement after he had an interview with Hon. Mrs. Smith tomorrow.

FIRST WOMAN CABINET MINISTER IN BRITISH EMPIRE RESIGNS BECAUSE UNABLE TO CRITICIZE GOVERNMENT

VICTORIA, Nov. 19.—Hon. Mrs. Ralph Smith, member without portfolio in the Oliver government, and the first woman cabinet member in the British Empire, has resigned her office. In her letter of resignation, made public Saturday night, Mrs. Smith said:

"I herewith tender my resignation as a member of the executive council and minister without portfolio. For some time I have felt, as you know, that I should take this course, as I have been in the unfortunate position of having to assume the responsibility of acts of the government without being in a position to criticize or advise.

"As a member of the council I have been precluded from criticism and that is, perhaps, a good thing in one's constituency. Any other reasons I can give in due course.

"I am primarily interested in women and children, and no matter what government has the power, as long as I can serve the people whom I have the honor to represent, then I shall find the happiness that public life gives."

GHANDI, CONSCIENCE STRICKEN, TAKES BLAME FOR INDIAN RIOT

BOMBAY, Nov. 20.—In a statement issued yesterday Mahatmas Gandhi, leader of the noncooperationists, deprecating the disturbances which occurred on the occasion of the arrival in India of the Prince of Wales, declared that it was impossible to describe the agony he had suffered during the past two days, which events "stink in my nostrils."

Ghandi finally blamed himself for having instigated the spread of revolt and announced he would refuse to eat or to drink anything but water until peace is restored.

Disturbances occurred Friday at several points in the native quarter of the city. A mob burned a police station and military patrols were called into action. They fired upon and dispersed the rioters, who suffered some casualties.

On Sunday morning the trouble started afresh in a number of places, the police being again forced to fire into the crowd.

Both disturbances were confined to the native section, affairs in the European business quarter going on as usual.

DECLARES WAR ON HOME BREWED ALE

TORONTO, Nov. 20.—Ben Spence of the Dominion alliance has declared war on home brewed ale. He says:

"We have a disease in our social system which we are trying to eradicate. It keeps breaking out in some other place. The brewing of home brewed beer is a matter within the law and at the moment my opinion is of no moment more than that of any other man. This must continue until the law is altered. We are aiming at the total elimination of this disease. All we can do is to keep working until the law prohibits the possibility of this disease in every shape and form. One day I am convinced we shall achieve success."

BRITISH STANDING ARMY OF TWO HUNDRED THOUSAND IS ENTIRELY VOLUNTEER FORCE

Unfriendly Press in United States Astonishes With Announcement "British Army Abandons Conscription;" Declares Army Exceeds 700,000; Conference Delegate Corrects Misrepresentation Designed to Throw Monkey Wrench Into Negotiations; Land Armaments Subject of Today's Debate; France Will State Her Case.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—(By Canadian Press staff correspondent.)—Tomorrow will be France's great day at Continental hall. It will mark the opening of discussion upon the question of land armaments—the phase of the conference on the limitation of armaments which is of paramount importance to France. Tonight everything is in readiness for the third plenary session of the conference, which, it is believed, will be devoted exclusively to Premier Briand's declaration of his country's position in regard to military requirements.

Objective to State Position.

Whether this question of army strength will be discussed by the conference with the idea of establishing a basis of limitation is problematical. The French delegates have been determined that it shall be introduced, but their objective is believed to be to place France's position before the world rather than to seek any agreement as to military strength. There is noindication that either Britain or France are particularly interested in initiating a move for the reduction of land armaments, though all nations represented as understood to be prepared with data regarding their own armies, and all delegations have military experts included in the personnel of their advisory boards.

Although this will be the first declaration on military power within the conference, much has already been said and written upon the subject outside the official circle of the delegates. Unfortunately much of what has been said and written is wrong and this inaccuracy of the gossips has principally applied to the military position of Great Britain. A story was broadcasted in United States papers to the effect that Britain's army numbered, 700,000 men. Some papers which have been notoriously anti-British even magnified this figure.

Glaring Misrepresentation.

A statement was issued by an official connected with the British contingent giving the truth regarding Britain's army, presumably lest the public mind might be laboring under amisapprehension when the question of land armament was placed before the conference and public attention thus focused upon it. This statement showed that Great Britain's standing army numbered about 200,000. Incidentally this spokesman recalled the fact that except for a short period during the war Britain's army had always been and now is recruited on a strictly volunteer basis. And yet one United States paper came out with an eight-column heading printed in heavy type announcing to an astonished public, "British Army Abandons Conscription." This is the sort of misrepresentatoin which occurs daily in a certain section of the United States press which apparently is out to throw a monkey wrench into the negotiations of the conference. Fortunately it is a comparatively small section and one which wields no influence whatever within the decent element of the United States public, which means, of course, with an overwhelming majority of the people of the country.

Britain Endorses Naval Ratio.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Great Britain has indorsed, without reservation, the "5-3" ratio proposed in the United States naval limitation plan, it was learned tonight on highest authority. While accepting the plan as a whole only in principle, because of their desire to put forward proposed modifications of the submarine and replacement features, the British delegation is said to have approved the suggested relative capital ship strength for Great Britain, the United States and Japan without equivocation.

Adherence of the British representatives to the capital ship ratio became known tonight as an aftermath of the conference yesterday between Secretary Hughes, Mr. Balfour and Admiral Kato, at which the naval question was canvassed thoroughly in the light of Japanese reservations.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Sir Robert Borden, Canada's representative on the British delegation to the Washington conference, is quoted in the Herald today as declaring that Canada is in favor of the banishment of the submarine as a war weapon.

The Herald quoted the former Canadian premier as saying:

"Abolition of the use and construction of submarines would represent a long step in the direction of world betterment.

"Canada, although dependent upon the Empire for naval protection, would bring her full influence to bear in favor of the proposal to banish the undersea boat."

FALSE BOTTOMS NOT TO INJURE GRAIN SHIPPER

Crerar Gives Version of Injunction Against Grain Enquiry.

BASSWOOD, Man., Nov. 20.—(By Canadian Press staff correspondent.)—Charging the managers and speakers of the government election campaign with deliberate attempts to undermine confidence in the National Progressive movement by besmirching his own reputation and making unfounded charges against the United Grain Growers, Hon. T. A. Crerar devoted a long address here last night to refuting statements made by R. J. Henderson at the Fort William hearing of the grain inquiry commission and other statements which have appeared in the public press.

Mr. Crerar said that the injunction of the grain inquiry commission had only been brought about when it seemed to become evident that its purposes were merely political. The United Grain Growers, he said, with their 36,000 shareholders, did not intend to become "the political football of a discredited party."

He was assured, he said, that the Fort William hearing of the commission, which he characterized as "secret," was designed merely to permit the circulation of statements damaging to the farmers immediately prior to the Medicine Hat byelection.

Mr. Crerar introduced arguments intended to show tht if false bottoms or slides had been used in an elevator of his company than it could only have been a conspiracy to defraud the company itself and not the shippers.

His salary, said Mr. Crerar, had been the obpect of much speculation and he informed his audience that it amounted to $15,000.

SAYS FARMERS BLED TO DEATH

Independent-Liberal South Winnipeg Candidate Says Freight Rates Excessive.

WINNIPEG, Nov. 20.—(By Canadian Press.)—"I stand four square for the rights of the western provinces, and if other provinces have just claims they should be settled as well," declared Hon. A. B. Hudson, independent Liberal candidate in South Winnipeg, when dealing with the subject of the control of natural resources at a meeting here Saturday night.

Mr. Hudson advocated the lowering of the tariff and the reduction of freight rates, claiming that they at present prevented the proper development of Canada's agricultural lands. The farmer was not and could not be protected by a tariff and was "bled to death" by excessive freight charges, Mr. Hudson declared. The speaker stated that the claim made by the government that it could not remedy the situation created by the present high rates was unfounded and contrary to facts.

"High tariff and high freight rates mean an unfair discrimination against a particular industry, the basic industry in the country," said Mr. Hudson, "and as such they should be removed."

SHERRILL INGRAHAM IS FOUND SHOT IN HILLS ABOVE TRAIL

Went Out Hunting Tuesday Morning in Fog; Over One Hundred Searchers Out Friday; Was Nelson Boy and Served Overseas.

Sought for through the hills surrounding Trail by 120 volunteer searchers on Friday, till finally his partially obliterated trail was picked up, Sherill W. Ingraham, agged 22, was found yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock lying dead in the hills seven miles from the smelter city, with a bullet in his head. The party of six, which found him was headed by Harry White, the man who found his trail on Friday, the party entering th bush Saturday with four days' provisions. It was impossible to bring out the body yesterday, but a larger party will go out this morning to reenforce those out there, and the body will be brought in to Trail today.

Young Ingraham came off shift at the smelter Tuesday night, and was to change shifts the next day, this giving him time for a day's hunt. He left on his hunting trip at 5 o'clock Wednesday morning, this being the first day of extreme cold after Tuesday's heavy snowfall. When he failed to return Wednesday night, great anxiety was felt, and a search was organized Thursday, under the guidance of the police—city, provincial and Mounted. Friday a huge volunteer force scoured the hills.

The young hunter was shot in the face. Whether it was by the accidental discharge of his own rifle, or whether the bullet was from the rifle of a brother hunter of whom he was the unintended victim, was not clearly apparent yesterday. The hills were inveloped in a heavy fog when he set out, and there was plenty of room for accident.

Sherrill Ingraham was the son of Mr. and Mrs. "Bart" Ingraham, who resided in Nelson for many years, removing to Trail about two years ago, when Sherrill returned from overseas. Before the war he was on the staff of the Canadian Bank of Commerce in Nelson. Mrs. Ingraham is widely known as a nurse.

ROSE WILL SPEAK AT RALLY TONIGHT

Dr. W. O. Rose, National Liberal and Conservative candidate for the West Kootenay riding, returned to Nelson at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, having come down from Kaslo to Proctor by the Moyie, crossed the lake by rowboat, walked a few miles and then been met by a motor car arranged for by Mrs. Rose. The candidate was completely fagged out and went to bed almost immediately. He reported that Senator R. F. Green, his companion on the five-day political tour in the Slocan, would come down from Kaslo this morning. To keep their Sandon engagement they had to go there from Kaslo by speeder Saturday, returning by the same means that night.

There will be a rally in the party committee rooms tonight at 8 o'clock, when Dr. Rose and others will speak.

LIVER TROUBLE

BAD BILIOUS ATTACK

When your liver becomes sluggish and inactive your whole health suffers. Your bowels become constipated, the tongue coated, the breath bad, the stomach foul and sick, and bilious spells occur on account of the liver holding back the bile which is so essential to promote the movement of the bowels, and the bile gets into the blood, instead of passing out through the usual channel.

The only way to keep the liver active and working properly, and thus get rid of the nasty bilious attacks, is to keep the bowels regular by using

MILBURN'S LAXA-LIVER PILLS

They are purely vegetable, small and easy to take, work smoothly and gently, and there is nothing of the griping, weakening, sickening effects of the old fashioned purgatives.

Mr. John S. Caron, Donavon, Sask., writes: "I was troubled with my liver and had severe bilious attacks. A friend advised me to try Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills, so I took two vials and I have had no more attacks."

Police Carry Out Well Planned Coup; Three Establishments Reveal Booze.

Making an organized drive on illicit liquor traffic in the city, city police, provincial police and Royal Canadian mounted police raided six different premises in the business section simultaneously on Saturday. Liquor was unearthed in three establishments, the Tremont hotel, T. Galiano's pool room on Baker street, and the store of Mrs. D. Montelcone on Vernon street. The three other houses raided were the Queens hotel, Klondyke hotel and the Rex cigar store.

FIRE DEPARTMENT GETS THREE CALLS SATURDAY

Three hurry up calls kept the city fire department on the hop on Saturday and brought such speedy responses that material damage from fire was practically nil.

About 7 o'clock in the morning the fire auto whirled off to the old city fire hall in response to a summons, where a city motor truck had caught fire in some unknown manner. Shortly after the truck engine had been started there was an explosion and the wooden parts of the body began to burn. The flames were soon subdued by the firemen.

In the evening there were two fire calls, one for a chimney fire in a private house on Observatory street, and the other a small fire that had started from an overheated stovepipe at the Mack billiard parlor. Both were put out before much damage had been done.

"The vast hall was a blaze of dazzling light. From the center of the ceiling, almost touching the heads of the guests, hung a magnificent chandelier, fashioned like a huge rose, boasting a hundred gleaming electric bulbs, which cast a wondrous radiance over the great assembly. Every niche in the ornate walls had a gleaming bulb and every alcove was a miniature palace of light! It was magnificent!" At this point the struggling author dropped his pen and called out to his wife: "Rosie, for goodness' sake bring me another candle!"

KING ANSWERS QUESTIONNAIRE

King Tells Veterans Government Duty to Be Generous —More Than Just.

COBALT, Ont., Nov. 20.—Replying to the Great War Veterans' association questionnaire which was placed before him at last night's meeting here, Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, leader of the Liberal party, declared that he would favor, if returned to power, having the whole matter of soldier reestablishment thoroughly investigated by a special committee of parliament to see whether there was anything which Canada could do for her returned men which had not yet been done.

"Our duty to the returned men, their dependents and the dependents of those who have not come back is clear," Mr. King stated. "It is a demand that we treat their requests with generosity which is more than mere justice. To the men who sacrificed their all in that fight for freedom we owe all the freedom we have today; though we must default the interest on the national debt, which would mean national bankruptcy, we can not afford to let one of our returned men or their dependents suffer."

Mr. King declared he was wholeheartedly in favor of "a reasonable measure of housing for ex-service men; immediate legislation looking toward the solution of unemployment conditions; endorsation of the proper reestablishment of 100 per cent of our returned soldiers after an equal division and an immigration and naturalization policy conducive to the continuation of British traditions and employment for Canadian citizens."

Cautious on Oriental Question.

Dealing with the resolution requiring "endorsation of the principle of future exclusion of Chinese and Japanese, and prevention of sale or lease directly or indirectly of land to same," Mr. King reminded his audience that the present was a bad time for discussion of such a question. The Chinese and Japanese questions were prominently before the world at the disarmament conference and for any Canadian public man, at this time, to make public statements with regard to the exclusion of orientals would perhaps lead to serious differences at the great conference.

"If there had been less spending of public money needlessly in the past," Mr. King declared, "I do not think it would have been necessary to tell the returned men, as the government did, that we could do no more for them because there was no money. Their requirements should be a first charge on this country and I would favor seeing if there was not some way in which money now being spent needlessly could not be saved and made available for reestablishment."

Alleges Interlocking.

COBALT, Ont., Nov. 20.—That Hon. J. A. Stewart's statement on Canadian National railway contracts had only served to strengthen the case made out by the Liberals against the "interlocking of directorates" on the Canadian National management was the declaration of Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King at two meetings in the Temiskaming riding last evening.

"We find from Mr. Stewart's statement," said Mr. King, "that instead of the Eastern Car company getting $11,000,000 in contracts from the Canadian National railways, as we had supposed, they got $14,000,000. And Mr. Stewart is attempting to show that other companies, which were not represented on the Canadian National board, got big contracts also, quoting the Montreal Locomotive company as having received a $10,000,000 contract. But the minister did not tell the people of Canada that Hon. C. C. Ballantyne, minister of marine and naval affairs, was one of the directors of the Montreal Locomotive company."

Says Contracts Secret.

The Liberal leader disputed the claim that tenders had been properly called. They were not advertised, but contracts were secretly given, Mr. King stated. The board of management, he said, was able to draw down to two or three the companies notified of the impending contracts, which were not always let to the lowest bidder. There should, he said, be public tenders called, and there was not a reason for not making public all the details. By means of these secret contracts, he declared, the friends of the government were able to make millions out of the public funds.

Referring again to the contracts awarded the Eastern Car company the Liberal leader stated that a director of that company who, at the time the contracts were awarded, was also a director of the Canadian National, "was running as a Tory candidate in the county of Pictou, N. S., Colonel Cantley."

"That," he declared, "does not fit in very well with the professions of keeping the railways out of politics."

MERCURY SINKS BELOW TWICE

Twice the past week the mercury descended below the zero mark by the thermometer of J. S. Goulding, meteorological observer at Nelson. In the 24 hours ending at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon the mercury touched one degree below zero, and in the previous 24 hours it went to five below. It is freely predicted that these extreme temperatures will not be duplicated again this winter.

For the past six days the readings were as follows.

UMPHREY'S PLATFORM IS A FREAK ONE

Rose at Sandon Shows Inutility; Senator Green or Aid to Mining.

NDON, Nov. 20.—Before an au-ce of 100 electors of Sandon and ict, in the Miners' Union hall last t, Dr. W. O. Rose, candidate of National Liberal and Conservative y, eloquently set forth the plat- of protection of Canadian mar- and Canadian workmen, on which s standing for election. The can-te also devoted a portion of his ress to a discussion of the freak ks which the Labor party in this ng is putting before the public. ator R. F. Green dealt with the re-ements of the mining industry in shape of tariff and also outlined work done for the returned men, which to date nearly half a billion ars had been expended. Ewen eron, president of the Sandon Na-al Liberal and Conservative asso-ion, occupied the chair. T. D. erts, the O. B. U. secretary, asked e questions relating to the neces-sity for a tariff and was duly enlight-ened.

After outlinging how Canada's in-dustries had multiplied under the na-toinal policy, and how hundreds of United States firms had been obliged to open factories in Canada and em-ploy Canadian workmen. Dr. Rose showed that with one accord other countries were either adopting pro-tective tariffs or were raising them still higher. In Canada alone were there parties to be found who wished to throw down the modest barriers imposed against foreign goods, and to swamp Canadian industries in a wel-ter of dumping, undoing all the con-structive work of the last 45 years. The wreckers would receive small support from the people of Canada, he predicted, and the national policy, which had embarked Canada on the road to industrial independence, pros-perity and stability, would be contin-ued as the keystone of the country's policy.

Million Dollars for Measure.

That the policy put before the elec-tors of this riding by the party that brought out L. W. Humphrey merited little attention as a serious factor in Canada's system of government was suggested by the candidate, who showed, for instance, that the initia-tive, one of Mr. Humphrey's cardinal planks, would cost the Dominion $1,000,000 for each measure enacted through its process. It was hard to imagine one-quarter of the electorate of the Dominion signing a petition for a particular measure, which was merely the first stage in the process of enactment of legislation by this process, an election having to be held at which the measure would be adopt-ed or rejected. If Mr. Humphrey were to legislate by the initiative for 50 years the sum total of his legislative accomplishments would not be worth looking at.

The recall was another of the fads from across the line that Mr. Hum-phrey's platform called for. This was the negation of representative govern-ment as understood in all British countries and in all countries whose constitutions were founded on the British model, the member not being the representative of his constituents, but holding his post on the suffrance of those who might at any time con-clude to visit their displeasure upon him by precipitating an election for his recall.

If the people at large favored the theory of proportional representation, another of the planks in this strange platform, it was certainly not popular in the three British Columbia cities that had tried it, and that united in petitioning the British Columbia legis-lature for a law that would enable them to put that system in the dis-card, which they had finally done. If this were applied to Canada, constit-uencies would have to be many times larger than they were at present, with several seats for each, and the district character of a representative would be entirely done away with.

Other planks of this platform were mere play upon words, and were meaningless. Dr. Rose said, such, for instance, as the demand for abolition of "government by order-in-council." There was no such thing as "govern-ment by order-in-council." Orders-in-council were the instrument by which the executive or cabinet ex-pressed its decisions on routine mat-ters, and under any possible form of government there would have to be these written documents embodying the decisions taken in the course of cabinet business. Only in extraordi-nary emergencies were these powers used for purposes that ordinarily would belong to parliament, such as voting relief for the Halifax disaster, in which instant action was required.

Duties on Metals.

Senator Green, who preceded Dr. Rose, showed to what an extent the metalliferous mining industry was in-terested in the principle of protection. He argued that such light duties as there were on the base metals, while of great utility as far as they went, were not sufficient, and that in par-ticular further protection must be granted upon copper and zinc.

There was capacity at Trail, he said, to refine all the copper needed by Canada. At the present time, how-ever, United States rod mills turned out copper rods and sent them into Canada to be drawn into copper wire, while the copper refined at Trail had to be exported to find a market. With a little more protection the newly constructed rod mill at Trail could operate, while the copper refinery could operate to greater capacity. Higher duties were also desirable on all articles that sheet copper and sheet zinc entered into, so that these arti-cles could be manufactured on Cana-dian soil, and from Canadian metal.

It was unlikely, Senator Green pointed out, that either Mr. Crerar or Mackenzie King would grant these de-sired duties. On the other hand, the Meighen government, which stood on the protective principle, when the matter was put to it in the right way by Dr. Rose, would undoubtedly be disposed to extend reasonable protec-tion for the development of these newer industries, based upon the mines of British Columbia.

KING ALEXANDER NOT TO ABDICATE

BELGRADE, Nov. 20.—All reports that King Alexander has any inten-tion of abdicating may be put down as pure fiction. The King has never given the slightest thought to the subject and indeed it may be said that no cause ever existed for such a step. The young Serbian ruler al-ready has taken the oath to support the constitution and his coronation plation of the new palace, which is probably will occur soon after com-expected to be ready for the event some time next summer.

The king, in an interview granted yesterday, declared that stories fore-casting his abdication were quite as absurb as other reports concerning him while in Paris. He said his health was excellent and that he was glad to get back to Jugo-Slavia to take up the reins of government and help in the solution of the country's problem.

The robust, fresh appearance, quick step and buoyant, cheerful spirit cer-tainly supported the statement that he was in excellent physical condi-tion. Alexander sought news of the Washington conference, in the out-come of which he said he was deep-ly interested. He expressed the wish for its fullest success.

To be angry with a weak man is to prove that you are not strong your-self.

MYSTERY SURROUNDS BEAUTIFUL CONTESTANT

Among other entrants a strikingly beautiful lady who declines to make public her name until the Variety En-tertainment has entered for the big beauty contest that is causing such a furore of speculation and comment among the girls of Nelson. Her un-signed photograph has excited each member of the selection committee in turn. The photo seems familiar, yet not one of the committee can be posi-tive of the identity of the fair un-known. That she is a Nelson lady she herself states. As such she cannot be ruled out of the contest, and as a mat-ter of fact the committeemen are des-perately anxious to retain her photo-graph among the selected 12, if for no other reason than to see her in the flesh and learn her name. So, who-ever she is, there seems to be no doubt but that the mysterious beauty will smile on a Nelson audience at the Va-riety entertainment.

Friendship—Yes! But—

"The Bill will not let in Canadian wheat, but will save to the American farmer the right to raise a bushel of wheat instead of transferring that right to Canada"—Mr. Fordney, in introducing the Fordney Emergency Tariff Bill which has shut millions of dollars worth of Canadian foodstuffs out of the United States market.

"If we are to build up a self-sustaining agriculture here at home, the farmer must be protected from unfair competition from those countries where agriculture is still being exploited."—President Harding. The very spot chosen to deliver this speech—Minnesota—shows that Harding had the Canadian North-West in mind.

WHILE ties of friendship unite Canada and the United States, the attitude of Uncle Sam is that of "Business First", and Canada cannot and should not hope for any consideration from the United States where the interests of the farmers and business people of that country are involved.

Uncle Sam has built the Fordney Tariff directly against Canadian agriculture, and new additional Tariff proposals are now under consideration to shut out from the United States Canadian goods of every kind.

These measures are due to the insistence of the American farmer that the United States market shall be retained exclusively for him and that the influx of Canadian farm products into that country must cease. They are also due to a like insistence of United States manufacturers and workers, who have seen their country develop tremendously and grow rich under a Protective Tariff, and who believe that a still further increase in Tariff is the only means of assuring continued prosperity.

CONTRAST THE ATTITUDE OF THE UNITED STATES LEADERS WITH THAT OF CANADA'S WOULD-BE LEADERS, CRERAR AND KING

Crerar proposes to allow American goods to enter the Canadian market free of duty.

King proposes that the present reasonable Tariff on the products of the American factory and farm shall be greatly reduced, and that the home market of the Canadian farmer and manufacturer alike shall be thrown open to our Southern neighbour, in the face of the United States Emergency tariff, which practically shuts out Canadian farm products from these markets, and also in the face of the permanent tariff now under consideration at Washington, which gives every promise of being even more drastic than the Emergency Tariff so far as our products are concerned.

In view of the attitude of the United States, what folly it is for Crerar and King to propose throwing open the Canadian market to a flood of both agricultural and manufactured products of the United States when there is not the slightest possibility of any compensative advantage to Canada.

Does any sane Canadian believe that Crerar or King, hat in hand, could persuade the United States Government to completely reverse its Tariff policies and agree to reciprocal trade in face of American public demand for a high protective Tariff?

The people of the United States conduct their affairs and protect themselves by the principle that "Business is business". Why should Canada do otherwise?

Unlike Crerar or King, MEIGHEN stands firm for a reasonable Tariff to protect all our industries—those of the farm, the sea, the mine, the forest, the factory, and for the building up of a bigger and better Canada through the full development of the home market.

FRIENDSHIP WITH THE UNITED STATES? YES, BY ALL MEANS!

BUT—— let us defend our home market, our industries, our farms, our workmen, our homes by the same methods as are used so effectively against us.

Let us work out our own destiny—that of a strong, self-contained nation within the British Empire group of Nations, courageous, masterful, self-reliant.

The Japanese Position.

In "The Influence of the Sea on the Political History of Japan" a valuable account of the present strategic position of Japan is given by Vice-Admiral G. A. Ballard, whose authority is great as a former director of the operations division of the British admiralty war staff.

He points out the immense change in Pacific conditions brought about by the war

Only three naval powers of any serious consequence remain—Great Britain, the United States and Japan. And yet again the war left Japan in a condition of relative freedom from debt as compared with the other belligerents which was almost tantamount to a doubling of the national capacity to spend.

The admiral thinks that Japan geographically is almost "impregnable to direct attack:"

Separated by 10,000 miles of water from Europe and nearly 5000 from America, and having no great military neighbor near at hand, her situation is such that no power in the world can seriously threaten her in her own regions in the near future. For any attack on Japan as matters now stand the enemy must be in possession of a fleet about three times as powerful as that of defense, because no other country has a fully equipped modern naval base and arsenal in the eastern Pacific.

In the tremendous strength of this position there is only one weak point—Japan's Korean frontier,

Although Japan will certainly offer which, like the British frontier in India, requires defense by an army dependent on sea communications, and cannot be held by sea power alone. But until that joint in her harness is threatened by a first-class military power firmly established in Asia, its security cannot be seriously disturbed.

As for the outlook:

a determined opposition to any policy injurious to her vital interests, her own policy is not based in aggressive intentions. The Japanese are quite sane enough to realize the madness of attempting to attack any civilized state in Europe or America. No war can take place if neither side assumes the offensive.

He dismisses the view that "a conflict between Japan and the United States is one of the probabilities of the not very remote future," and gives the following reasons against it:

Theodore Roosevelt never agreed with it, and no man was ever in a better position to judge or more ambitious for the good of his country. Causes of friction may undoubtedly exist, but none lying beyond hope of settlement if reasonable forbearance is exercised on both sides.

In the unfortunate event of conflict:

Japanese naval policy relies on the very largest form of battleship, but it is at least an open question whether the greater part of the money thus spent would not be better invested in submarines, for Japanese waters are particularly well suited for their operations on account of the great depth, which precludes the possibility of submarines being "mined in" as they were in the North sea.

Labor Is for Protection, Because Protection Means Employment.

No matter what may be said during the present election, the policy of labor in Canada is not free trade. Labor is no more for discarding protection of industries than are railwaymen for the reduction of freight rates, which are based on railway costs, including railway wages.

On the question of labor's attitude toward free trade evidence of Tom Moore and P. M. Draper, president and secretary-treasurer, respectively, of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, before the tariff committee on behalf of the congress is clear enough. They said:

The development of Canada and the establishment of an ever-improving standard of living are the immediate concern of every citizen, and we are convinced that this would be impossible under a system of free trade unless, and until, the whole world adopted free trade and an equal standard of living which are as yet outside the realm of practical affairs.

Canada is placed in the center of competition. To the south, the United States, with its huge and fully-developed industries turning out products in mass and with a great home market full protected to supply; to the east the workshop of the world, Great Britain, with a century of industrial development behind her and numberless workers whose wage standard was far below that which Canadian workers should be expected to accept; while to the west, the Orient, with its hordes of cheap laborers able to flood our market at any time, if there were no bars against them.

Mr. Moore and Mr. Draper spoke for labor as a whole, but all over the Dominion there has been individual testimony to the truth of their argument. J. T. Foster, president of the trades and labor council of Montreal, has said for his organization:

We are fully aware of, and widely awake to the fact that we depend for our existence upon the development and expansion of Canadian industrial establishment. We consider it our heritage, our inalienable right as citizens of the Dominion to build our homes and to plan for the future in the rearing of our families on Canadian soil. We believe that it is the duty of our government to so manage our fiscal policy that the Canadian workman will not be compelled through idleness in industry to migrate to foreign lands to find employment and earn his living.

Just as the present we are in the usual dilemma of tariff excitement. There is a great contraction in industry. There is spreading unemployment. The plans are unfolding for a real tariff campaign for indiscriminate tariff reduction and for free trade with considerable alarm. We protest that our connection with industry is more intimate than that of the western farmer. Many of us have worked in American industries. We realize the vastness of their wealth, their tremendous industry organization, their huge commercial ramifications. By experience we have learned to appreciate the comparative development of Canadian with American and foreign industries. We fully realize that Canadian industry needs to be protected exactly the same as American industries have been protected if we are to be in a position to compete.

Labor, in fact, is even more vitally interested in maintaining Canadian industries than is capital. It would be much easier for capital, if driven to it, to move out of the country than for working men and their families to find new jobs in a non-British country.

Efficient Housekeeping

DOES YOUR CHINA HARMONIZE WITH ITS SURROUNDINGS?

Two young housekeepers have written to ask me for an article on the choice of china. "I would like a handsome monogramed set of china," reads one of these letters, "but I am just married and we have hardly enough money for necessities." The other letter contains this question: "Our dining room is furnished in mission and our living room with stained willow furniture. Would a set of china with embossed gold bandings be appropriate for our home?"

Now, I don't think one needs a knowledge of interior decoration to agree with me that "showy" china such as these two readers want, is not for the simple home. A small, inexpensively furnished home should have china in keeping with its simplicity. China with a striking pattern is just as much out of place in the modest home, as china bearing a coat of arms would be in a farmhouse. Anything that "simply screams money" should be left to palatial houses.

What then, is appropriate for the average young housekeeper who starts her married life in a "cottage for two" where economy is a most important consideration?? I can recommend some of the following wares:

Almost everybody is familiar with "Sedji" ware. It is of one tone (a cool, refreshing green), whose glaze is satin-like in texture. Other solid colors—yellow, old-rose, old-blue and mauve—may also be found in Oriental pottery, but these colors are perhaps better suited to the tea-tray than to the dining table. The green Sedji, however, may be used day in out on the home table for all meals, without grating on the nerves.

Canton china in the familiar "willow" pattern is also a well-known ware. It is inexpensive and may be replaced—like the Oriental ware mentioned above—when pieces are broken.

Still another Oriental ware called "Howo" ware comes in an "open pattern" and this is simple and dignified for the little home; this ware comes in blue and white.

At the present moment there is a reversion to primitive peasant pottery, which although too crude for use at dinner, is very effective on the luncheon or breakfast table—especially when used with coarse linen doilies or runners that have the tones of the pottery repeated in a simple embroidered design. The young housekeeper should not hesitate to buy odd pieces of china which are simple in shape, color and design and which will harmonize with other pieces she has. For it is considered quite proper today to have odd pieces grouped together, if the general effect is pleasing.

Another drastic departure from the conventions of our forebears, is the use of different wares of china for the various courses of a meal. Great-grandmother, who prided herself on her hundred-piece dinner set, would gaze with horror on our plain white soup plates, our cool green salad plates and our glass dessert dishes—none of which wares "match" in any way!

Indeed, about the only set rule we must follow today in choosing our china, is this: Make a choice that looks appropriate with the general interior of the house.

Tomorrow—Answered Letters.

All inquiries addressed to Miss Kirkman in care of the "Efficient Housekeeping" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped and self-addressed envelope must be enclosed with the question.—The Editor.

PARIS.

Have you an old cloth or velvet skirt that is too shapeless to wear and too good to throw away? Here's a suggestion which will make it yield to you its last bit of usefulness. With the material cut away from the top the strip around the neck and down the front of the silk bodice may be contrived.

Foulard, a colorful figured silk or Canton crepe may be used for the bodice, in any desired color that would harmonize with the skirt, and for the girdle a novelty belt may be used, or a girdle made of the skirt material. And, voila! as the French say, you have a very serviceable and attractive frock. The French model which suggested the idea was of navy blue and cherry red top.

Roy B. Staples

FARMER AND MERCHANT

Liberal Candidate for West Kootenay

His Public and Business Activities

If the swing to Liberalism is anywhere near as marked at other points throughout the riding as it is in Creston Valley since Friday's announcement that R. B. Staples had accepted the nomination at Liberal standard bearer in West Kootenay, certainly there is ample justification for the optimism that exists in well-informed party circles that this constituency is about due to return to Ottawa a supporter of Liberal principles—and a supporter who is exceptionally well qualified in every respect to worthily represent the diversified interests of the Kootenay district.

About ten years ago Roy B. Staples—a farmer's son—was in business in a Manitoba town. This was in 1911 when the outstanding administrative ability of the Laurier Government had made Canada a hive of agricultural and industrial activity, and the lure of fruit growing in B. C. was more potent than it is today. Mr. Staples succumbed to the call of the orchard and with his parents located at Erickson, taking up a twenty-acre tract of raw land in that favored section of Creston Valley and with little or no capital after paying for his acreage started in to transform twenty acres of stumps into a fruit farm, and at the same time bring up a family of very young boys. Just how well he combined intelligence with industry can only be appreciated by a look over that same twenty acres of orchard today—and the knowledge that no orchard of the same age and extent has shipped a bigger or better crop of apples than has been harvested on the Staples ranch this year.

Mr. Staples, during the first half dozen years' residence on the ranch in addition to demonstrating his ability to get the maximum result from his labor, also displayed a keen grasp of the difficulties under which the growers operated in the sale of the fruit products, and this study of the marketing situation, coupled with the experience he had enjoyed in retail business life led to his unanimous choice as manager of the Valley's big cooperative fruit selling agency Creston Fruit Growers' Union, Ltd., in 1916—Mr. Staples at the same time continuing to operate his ranch, as he is still doing today.

Taking over the Fruit Growers' Union business at a time when cooperative selling seemed absolutely hopeless, and shares in the Union had a paper rating that made them worth hardly twenty-five cents on the dollar, in his four years' management Mr. Staples so successfully handled the steadily increasing volume of trade that at the end of the year 1919 shares in the Union, on the strength of the profits earned and the reserve fund and assets, were figured by independent accountants to be worth almost 100 per cent in excess of their face value. Not only did Mr. Staples put the Union on an excellent financial basis in every way, but the prices at which Creston Valley fruit products sold in the last three years Mr. Staples was in charge, were, without exception, the highest obtained by any district in all B. C. The past two years Mr. Staples has been at the head of the Staples Fruit Co., Ltd., Creston, in which he holds the controlling interest, and in the conduct of his own company his clients unhesitatingly state that he is showing even more marked ability than formerly.

One hears much these days about developing the community spirit and so active has Mr. Staples been in all effort of this sort that already there is a tendency amongst those rallying to his support all over the Valley to style him the Liberal and community candidate. Being himself a farmer it was natural that he should ally himself with anything that might be helpful to the agricultural industry, and he became a member of Creston local of the United Farmers. Being equally solicitous of the welfare of Creston town it was but natural to find him a member of the executive of the excellent board of trade Creston boasts. Being a family man and a great believer in the younger generation having the best possible education, he was for several years trustee of Erickson school, and at the present time is chairman of the Creston school board. When the Creston Valley Agricultural Association was formed R. B. Staples was its first secretary, and the fall fair has a no more consistent booster and advocate than the present Liberal candidate. In athletics he is actively to the fore in every line. For the past two years he has managed the Creston baseball team, and on all hands it is admitted than for 1921 Creston had more and better baseball than at any time in the town's quite long history. In musical circles Mr. Staples has given freely of an excellent bass voice for concert and church purposes—and has rendered equally valuable aid in this direction to any and all churches and organizations. He also enjoys some reputation at staging and appearing in amateur theatricals and has always been able to find time in a very active business career to further the ends of all worth while concert and dramatic effort. Mr. Staples' temperance principles are as outstanding as his other community effort, while in religion he is Methodist and exceptionally active in the work amongst the young people and in all musical activities.

While this will be Mr. Staples' debut at political platform work, he has shown considerable ability as a local speaker, having to a marked extent the happy faculty of being able to very clearly and at the same time briefly state his case in a fashion that it is quite pleasurable to listen to. Along with this accomplishment goes the faculty of being a good listener to his opponet's arguments and an aptness at response. Being of Irish extraction it goes without saying that he has quite a sense of humor that he makes quite good use of on seemly occasions.

On top of this ability as a speaker Mr. Staples is not at all timid in expressing his views and meeting the arguments of those who differ with him on every necessary occasion, and it is this willingness and ability to state a case and refute any contrary arguments that makes Mr. Staples' candidature so exceptionally popular. In the past it is felt that West Kootenay's representatives have been disadvantageously lacking in this respect.

Contrary to the old saying that has it "that a prophet is of some account save in his own country," Mr. Staples is on all hand receiving the unsolicited assurance of support from citizens of all shades of political beliefs. Townspeople are pleased to forget their former party ties to ensure the election of a business man and public spirited citizen of his proven ability, while the host of farmers in Creston Valley are rallying around him in the fullest confidence that in Staples, the farmer, the best interests of the farmers will be stoutly and 100 per cent efficiently safeguarded.

large profits which it had been alleged were made from this source were dealt with exhaustively. Mr. Crerar was sure, he said, that the elevator companies would "jump at the chance" to charge half a cent a bushel for cleaning the grain and allow the shippers to recover any amount received for screenings.

Mixing grain, he said, was legal and highly beneficial to the farmers. If tough and rejected grades were sold without treatment British and United States firms would get the whole benefit instead of this accruing to the Canadian producers.

Mr. Crerar alleged that while the audit of the terminal elevators made by the Price-Waterhouse company three years ago had never been printed, the government party was misquoting it for the purpose of discrediting the United Grain Growers and the Progressive movement generally.

Refutes Henderson Charges.

Mr. Crerar categorically refuted the four charges made by R. J. Henderson at Fort William. Eight years ago, he said, the Grain Growers company had leased an elevator from the Canadian Pacific railway at Fort William, and engaged Henderson as its superintendent. About a year later, on account of irregular practices, said Mr. Crerar, Mr. Henderson had been asked to resign and had done so. The allegation by Henderson that the company had at one time transferred $50,000 from the Terminal Elevator company to the export department was absolutely false, Mr. Crerar said. Henderson, as a matter of fact, had nothing to do with the bookkeeping. Had such a transaction been on the books it would have been noticed by the company's auditors. the John Scott company.

Henderson's statement that two million bushels of the farmers' grain had been shipped out without the surrender of certificates was equally false, said Mr. Crerar. In the fall of 1912 the steamer Utley had been loaded without warehouse receipts being surrendered. This had been done by Henderson himself, on his own responsibility. The Winnipeg office had been advised of the matter by wire from the commissioners at Fort William and Mr. Crerar said he had himself immediately remedied the matter.

The charge by Henderson that the G. G. G. company had hiverten 40,000 bushels of grain from the Canadian Pacific railway company was of the same entirely ungrounded kind, said Mr. Crerar.

Has Photo of Receipt.

When his company had taken over the elevator from the C. P. R. the auditors of both parties were present to witness the transfer. It has been necessary to take over the amount of grain that was contained in the elevator, and Mr. Crerar said he had in his hand a p hotographic fac simile of the receipt by the C. P. R. bearing Henderson's signature. In order to invite scrutiny Mr. Crerar had, subsequent to Henderson's lharge, suggested that the C. P. R. make an investigation. This had been done and Mr. Crerar read a letter from D. C. Coleman, vice president of the railway, saying that everything had been found entirely in order. Mr. Crerar said upon investigation he had reason to believe that no false bottoms, but false slides, had been put in some of the bins of the rompany's elevator. This, however, he assured his audience, would in no way affert the interests of shippers. The grain received from the shipper was always weighed by government officials before it entered the storage bins. Grain shipped out was also weighed by government officials.

Only to Deceive Government.

The false slides had been introduced, if at all, to deceive the government officials when they made their periodical inspections of the grain in the elevator. The loss thus would be that of the company. Mr. Crerar had heard rumors that grain had been shipped out of the elevator at night but there had been no confirmation of this. The period spoken of was that of eight years ago. The company had been handicapped in its investigation by the fact that it had not the power to subpoena witnesses and question them under oath. Accordingly, the board of grain commissioners at Fort William had been asked to deal with the matter.

At this meeting, as well as at one which Mr. Crerar addressed in the afternoon at Clan William, other speakers were Miss Katherine J. Cameron of the women's political organization, Shoal Lake, and R. A. Parker. Winnifred, Alta., a director of the United Grain Growers.

On Monday night Mr. Crerar will be at Rossburn and on Tuesday night at Roblin. These will be the final meetings for the time being in his constituency of Marquette.

GRAIN CROP AND TARIFF

producing a paper for similar purposes in the maritime provinces, the premier said. Mr. Meighen stated definitely that the voluntary grain pool, which he proposes as a solution for the marketing problem, would be established in time to handle the crop next fall if the government was returned. He contrasted this definite undertaking with the suggestions of the other party leaders regarding the grain problem.

"Mr. King scarcely knows the difference between a wheat board and a pine board," he said, "and his promise is that he will consult with the wisest heads of his party as to what is the best thing to do, if he is the next prime minister." As to Mr. Crerar, the premier said that the Progressive leader offered a solution which meant nothing. His policy was to let the farmers help themselves, a privilege which they always had, "with such reasonable assistance from the government as was necessary." Mr. Meighen asked what Mr. Crerar meant by reasonable assistance. "Even to this day Mr. Crerar does not favor a wheat board," he declared. "Even to this day he will not commit himself to establish a wheat board, a grain board or anything else."

Population Would Dwindle.

"If all the industries in Canada were at the stage that those are which have no protective tariff we would not have five and a half million people in Canada," the premier insisted in discussing the probable effect of tariff reduction or elimination in this country. Assertions that he advocated a high tariff were false. The party which he headed was determined to have a tariff which would permit the legitimate industries of Canada to compete with those of the United States, and no higher. He declared that every candidate of the National Liberal and Conservative party from coast to coast supported this policy, while candidates of the opposition were running on the platform which suited the particular county in which they were located. There were very few candidates running on the platform which Mr. King was pledged to support in the province of Quebec. In Ontario they were supporting protection in the industrial sections and free trade where they thought it would win votes. "I say that is a dishonest course for a leader to countenance, and a leader who countenances it has no moral right to power," the premier asserted.

Dealing with the charge that he had allied himself with the big interests of Canada, Premier Meighen said that the government taxed the wealthy here beyond what they were taxed in Great Britain, even though the debt of the mother country is four times that of the Dominion. Farmers were paying less than 1 per cent of the $83,000,000 direct taxation collected in this country. The rest came out of industry. "As a matter of fact, the weight of taxation on capital today is tremendous," he said.

Remove Last Interned Irish Sympathizers From Spike Island Under Guard

CORK, Nov. 20.—The last of the interned Irish sympathizers have been removed from Spike island. In a bunch of 400 they were taken by train, guarded by 300 troops, to the former convict settlement of Maybrough. One of the most insistent complaints the Sinn Fein officials had made of Spike island was that it was unsanitary.

Ten thousand persons today attended the funeral of the late Alderman Barry, who was shot and killed while leaving the Ballykinlar camp recently. The cortege was three miles long and included thousands of volunteers and eight bands. Volleys were fired over the grave.

EASY TO DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

You Can Bring Back Color and Lustre With Sage Tea and Sulphur

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is mussy and troublesome. At little cost, you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, and look years younger.

Markets and Finance

FAVORITES INCLINE TOWARD DULLNESS

Minor Shares Conspicuous; Chief Trading in Junior Oils; Rails Easier.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Minor shares were conspicuous under pool auspices in today's inconclusive stock market, the favorites inclining to dullness when not reactionary.

Junior oils absorbed a considerable part of the trading with minor rails, the latter including several cheaper coalers and cotton carriers.

Seasoned transportation, industrials and specialties cased under week-end realizing and occasional pressure. The latter tendency was noted in Bethlehem Steel and several popular motors, these proving susceptible to advices indicating further letdown of production. Sales, 400,000 shares.

Weekly reviews of financial, commercial and railway conditions were mixed, but pointed anew to long prevailing uncertainty. Preholiday trade at important distributing centers was reported as only fair and advices received by the American Railway association disclosed an increase in idle freight cars.

Gains ruled among Liberty issues and the general bond market retained or enhanced its recent advances among rails, utilities and several of the international group. Total sales, par value, $8,875,000.

An actual increase of loans and discounts by clearing house banks for the week of $53,000,000 measured the shifting of funds in connection with various new underwritings. The actual cash decrease was small, leaving excess reserves at a liberal margin over totals recorded in the corresponding period of recent months.

CUT GOVERNOR GENERAL'S PAY

New Zealand Public Service Retrenchments Include the "Higher Ups."

LONDON, Nov. 20.—Included in a proposal of general reduction of public service salaries in New Zealand, as announced by Premier Massey in the New Zealand parliament Saturday, according to a cable from Reuter's correspondent at Wellington, will be the salaries of ministers of the government and members of parliament and also the salary of the governor general, Viscount Jellicoe. Premier Massey announced that Viscount Jellicoe had requested that in the general salary reduction schedule he be not excluded.

Economies to the amount of £2,000,000 had been effected already by the government, Premier Massey announced, and it was expected that further economies would amount to £1,250,000 additional.

The proposal to reduce the salaries of public officials, the premier stated, was based upon figures commensurate with the lower cost of living.

Premier Massey emphasized the fact that he intended to have the country's finances maintained on a sound condition and he added that he intended to reduce the taxation. He declared that he staked his political existence upon this action and he predicted a surplus at the end of the Dominion's financial year.

VICTORIA MAN WAS FAST LOSING OUT

Anderson Says He Was So Weak He Was Ready to Give Up.

"Tanlac built me up about a year ago and I have been in the pink of condition ever since," said W. Anderson, 1727 Davie street, Victoria, B. C.

"I had been losing ground for about a year on account of stomach trouble, and to make matters worse, had a severe attack of the 'flu.' When I began taking Tanlac I was so weak and worn out I had little strength or energy and was about ready to give up.

"After taking a few bottles of Tanlac I was like a new man, had the best sort of an appetite and could eat anything I wanted without any bad after effects. I have been in tip-top shape ever since, too."

Tanlac is sold in Nelson by the Canada Drug & Book Co., and by leading druggists everywhere.

SYD DESIREAU GOES TO COAST

"Kootenay Wild Cat" Signed Up for Pacific Coast League Hockey.

Syd Desireau, whose brilliant break into Pacific Coast league hockey last year delighted all hockey fans in Kootenay, left for Vancouver last night for his second year and with him will certainly go the well wishes of a big crowd of sports in this city, his home town.

Syd is reserved on the subject of his playing. All he knows is that he likes hockey, will play hockey, and if given half a chance will play star hockey. He realizes that this is his chance to make good and he is out to do it, if for no other reason that that he is "a native son."

The manner in which he is watched at the coast may be gathered from the following paragraphs from the Vancouver World:

"Syd Desireau will be amongst those present when the Millionaire lineup responds to the rollcall at the opening practice. Syd came in from the bushes last year, heralded far and wide as the "Wildcat of the Kootenays." Syd's home is in Nelson. So far, he is the only native son who has broken into the Pacific Coast Hockey league and for that reason if for no other, he will get plenty of opportunity to show coast fans what he can do in the keenly competed race for championship honors.

"The sturdy little lumberman comes to the coast this year for the second season and his advent rouses mixed feelings amongst the fans who are openly divided concerning his qualification. One camp believes him to possess the makings of a first-class performer, while the other doubts his ability to establish his position permanently with players of high caliber. One thing Syd has upon which all fans are agreed and that is an abundance of energy, his whole-hearted war dances on the ice last year demonstrating this fully.

"It is just possible that should Vancouver secure one or two men whose services are now being angled for, Syd may be loaned to an eastern or prairie league for a year, with a string attached to him. He is just 21 and undoubtedly will develop greatly during the next season. If for nothing else, Syd will go down in hockey history as the man who introduced the famous scythe check. There is one good sign, so far as his future hockey career is concerned—his opponents dislike playing against him.

Capital and labor would get along better if there weren't so many men trying to get capital without labor.

LIVERPOOL AT TOP OF SOCCER FIRST DIVISION

Bromley Ties With Sunderland for Second Place; Varsity Rugby Excites.

LONDON, Nov. 20.—(By Canadian Press cable.)—As a result of the fine win over Middlesboro Saturday by a score of 4 to 0, Liverpool goes to the top of the first division in the English soccer league, and Burnley, which was dispossessed of the leadership, is tied for second place with Sunderland.

The new division leaders have been most consistent, having lost only one match.

There have been few changes at the other end of the table, where Arsenal is back again with West Bromwich among the fatal two from which Cardiff at last emerges.

The most dramatic of football yet was witnessed by spectators at the Chelsea-Bradford City game, where the home team, in the last minute of play, converted an apparently drawn match into a victory by a great goal from a penalty kick by Howard Baker, the goalkeeper.

Curiously enough, Baker's erratic kicking recently has been the subject of much comment.

Attendance Very High.

The attendance at the various matches continues as high as ever, the highest yesterday being at Tottenham, where 45,000 were present, closely followed at Liverpool with 44,010.

Barnsley continues to head the second division, despite the fact that they have not scored a goal in the last five matches.

The University Rugby match in December 8 promses to be of exceptional interest.

Cambridge took the field at Blackheath yesterday and although their men were tired, as this was their fourth match in eight days, they defeated Blackheath, 17 to 6.

Cambridge's steady progress and Oxford's comprative falling off make the light blues the firm favorites for the final contest.

WIND AND ERRORS FAVOR ARGONAUTS

Inter-Provincial Champs Win From Varsity in Thrilling Game.

TORONTO, Nov. 20.—(By Canadian Press.)—Piling up a lead of 11 points in the first period, when they took advantage of the wind, Varsity backfield errors and the breaks of the game, the Argonauts, champions of the interprovincial union, defeated Varsity, winner in the intercollegiate circuit by a score of 20 to 12 at Varsity stadium on Saturday afternoon before 15,000 spectators. The contest was a good exhibition of the fall pastime despite the unfavorable weather conditions.

By winning this game the scullers lengthened their string of successive victories this season to seven and progressed into the next round of the Canadian championship series.

The exhibition was well up to the standard of championship Rugby and even if there were some fumbles—and the few that were played a big part in the scoring—there were not as many as could be expected considering the slippery condition of the ball.

Greatest Difference in Backs.

There was not a great difference between the two teams. The winners were outscored nine to twelve in the final three periods. The greatest difference lay between the two back divisions. At the last moment Coach Maynard sent Harry Hobbs to quarterback and replaced him with Patterson, leaving Snyder the only backfield player of the students who had had senior experience before this year. Patterson was injured during the game and replaced by Ketchum, and while both acquitted themselves well they lacked experience. Hobbs at quarter strengthened the Varsity attack and Snyder played a great game even if he did make one costly fumble, which resulted in a touchdown. Somerville kicked well at times, but fumbled badly on several occasions. Varsity backs, however, did not show the teamwork of the scullers.

Both Bathstone and Connacher appeared little hampered by footing. While Connacher's play was perhaps the most spectacular of the two, he had nothing more in all around effectiveness than Bathstone.

Varsity can say with considerable pride that they are the only team this season that has prevented Connacher from crossing their line.

SKI JUMPERS ENTHUSIASTIC

Revelstoke Club Lays Plans; Anxious for Nelson to Take Part.

REVELSTOKE, Nov. 18.—The annual meeting of the Revelstoke Ski club, held Friday night, was the most enthusiastic one since the inauguration of that body. The citizens of Revelstoke feel extremely proud that all the world's records were broken on their hill last year, and displayed their confidence in last year's officers by reelecting them. The officers for this year are again Len Howson, president; Pat Skene, secretary, and Ivor Bassett, treasurer.

In their desire to stand behind the officers of the club over 100 citizens have signed a guarantee so that if bad weather or other unforeseen occurrences should in any way precent the coming tournament from being a financial success, the deficit will be fully covered by the guarantors. This action has been taken in addition to the usual donations toward the expenses of the club.

Edmonton Interested.

President Howson left for Banff immediately after the meeting. While there he will arrange with representatives from Calgary, Edmonton and Banff the details of the coming western ski circuit. Last year Banff and Calgary were in the circuit with Revelstoke. This year Edmonton, too, wishes to come in, and the officers of the club are keenly desirous of seeing Nelson included. Last year several of our jumpers visited Nelson and their jumping was greatly enjoyed. It will be necessary for an organization to be formed immediately if Nelson citizens again desire to see a wonderful exhibition of ski jumping.

The coming tournament at Revelstoke will be bigger and better than ever. With the additional improvements which have been made to the hill it will be possible to break last year's famous records, as a jump of 250 feet can now be made with ease if weather and snow conditions are favorable.

The officers of the Revelstoke Ski club are hoping that the citizens of Nelson will be as enthuiastic this winter as they were last winter, and that Nelson will also be included in the western ski circuit.

FAMOUS PAPER CHANGES HANDS

Sir John Leigh Buys Pall Mall Gazette, Independent Evening Paper.

LONDON, Nov. 20.—Sir John Leigh, first baron of Altrincham, which was created in 1918, has bought the Pall Mall Gazette. The paper has undergone several vicissitudes since its best days, when John Morley, (Viscount Morley of Blackburn), was its editor. Sir John Leigh intends continuing the publication of the paper.

Sir John Leigh is a wealthy retired manufacturer. He donated and maintained the club in London for Canadian officers during the years of the war. He was a trustee of the King's fund for disabled soldiers and sailors, and was a member of the council of the "Beyond Seas" association.

The Pall Mall Gazette is an independent evening newspaper. The first number of which was issued on Feb. 7, 1865. Its first proprietor being George Smith of the publishing firm of Smith & Elder and its first editor Frederick Greenwood. The paper was intended to realize Thackeray's picture in Pendennis of one "written by gentlemen for gentlemen." Two attempts to issue a morning Pall Mall Gazette were made unsuccessfully in the course of the history of that journal. There have been famous contributors to the Pall Mall Gazette. It was the first to announce the surrender of Napoleon at Sedan.

When Viscount Morley became editor of the Gazette the late W. T. Stead was assistant editor. When Lord Morley, then Mr. John Morley, exchanged journalism for politics he was succeeded by Mr. Stead with Alfred Milner, afterwards Lord Milner, as his assistant.

Mr. Stead's paper was the first London journal to introduce the American method of interviews. Mr. Stead retired from the editorship of the Gazette in 1889.

NIGHT COUGHS

Terribly wearing on the system is the cough that comes at night and prevents sleep.

The constant coughing keeps the lungs and bronchial tubes in such an irritated and inflamed conditon that they get no chance to heal.

You will find in

a remedy without an equal for soothing the lungs, loosening the phlegm, strengthening the breathing organs and fortifying them against serious pulmonary disease.

Mrs. John McKerney, Lower Montague, P. E. I., writes: "About three years ago I caught a very bad cold, accompanied with a sore throat and hoarseness, and was so hoarse you could hardly hear me speak. I could get no rest at night with the terrible annoying, hacking cough. I tried several remedies, but they did me no good. Finally I saw Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup advertised; got a bottle, and at once it gave me relief, and after using four my cough had all gone. Now I always keep "Dr. Wood's" in the house, and shall recommend your wonderful remedy to others."

LENDING LIBRARY CLOSED AS PRECAUTION

As a preventative measure the Nelson Library board has decided that no more books shall be taken out from the municipal library by borrowers while there is a number of cases of scarlet fever in the city. During the last two weeks a borrower returning books wisely notified the librarian that a case of scarlet fever had been found in the house. The books were segregated and later disposed of according to instructions of Dr. Isobel Arthur. The library board proposes to deal the same way with any books returned from quarantined houses and not issue any more for the present.
