Addresses All Governments at Genoa; Inspires to Renewed Peace Efforts

JURISTS FIND FORMULA TO BRIDGE DIFFICULTY

Tackle Problem of Private Property Confiscated and Nationalized

GENOA, April 30.—Pope Pius, through Cardinal Gasparri, has addressed the governments and peoples of the world a letter which is described as a new spur to universal brotherhood and a new admonition of disasters likely to befall mankind if efforts for true peace and pacification should fail. This act by the holy see has created great interest and has commenced already to inspire all to renewed efforts to make the Genoa conference of lasting good to the world.

Commenting today, Premier Lloyd George said:

"I cannot say how pleased I am at this remarkable document, nor could I exaggerate appreciation of the terms in which it is couched.

"The pope speaks with first hand knowledge of conditions in eastern Europe and I feel that so clear and definite a pronouncement by the holy see in favor of peace with Russia is a great encouragement to the powers assembled at Genoa."

The ideals of the pope are being

LONDON, April 30.—It is learned that King George on his forthcoming tour of British war cemeteries during the state visit to Belgium will be accompanied by Earls Beatty and Haig and Sir F. Ware.

By his majesty's desire there will be no elaborate ceremonies during the visit to cemeteries. The King will also visit certain French and Belgian cemeteries and deposit wreaths as a tribute to Great Britain's allies, and will review British ex-service men now employed in the devastated areas.

PERCY GRAINGER'S MOTHER IS KILLED

NEW YORK, April 30.—Mrs. Rose Grainger of White Plains, N. Y., mother of Percy Grainger, the Australian composer and pianist, was killed today by a fall from an eighteen-story window in the Aeolian Hall building. Word was immediately sent to her son, who is said to be in Los Angeles on a concert tour.

Benjamin J. Vance, assistant medical director, tonight announced that his office had registered Mrs. Grainger's death as due to suicide.

VICTORIA, April 29.—Premier Oliver left this afternoon for the mainland and points in eastern British Columbia. He will visit Kamloops, Nelson and Cranbrook, and will be absent a week. While in Nelson he will confer with officials of the party regarding the coming Liberal convention.

MAY CLOSE ESQUIMALT COLLEGE UP

No Provision in Estimates for Carrying Royal Naval College Work

VICTORIA, April 30.—The commander of the Royal Naval college at Esquimalt has been warned of the possibility of the closing of the college at the close of the present term. No definite instructions have been received from Ottawa, it is understood, and Commander Nixon of the naval college says he has no information for publication.

The Royal Naval college was established at Esquimalt following the explosion of December, 1917, at Halifax, when the college buildings there were destroyed.

At present there are 43 boys in the Esquimalt college. No provision was made in the estimates for the carrying on of the work of the college, the maintenance of which, costs in the neighborhood of $250,000 a year in excess of the students' fees.

Rhodes Again Wins the Annual Stock Exchange London to Brighton Walk

LONDON, April 30.—(By Canadian Press Cable.)—Nineteen contestants started in the annual stock exchange, London to Brighton, walk at 7 o'clock Saturday morning and the winner was H. Rhodes, who covered the distance in 9 hours 13 minutes and 55 seconds. W. Murrane was second in 9 hours 24 minutes and 56 seconds, and H. St. George Taylor third in 9 hours 44 minutes and 56 seconds.

Rhodes has now won this contest three years in succession.

INVESTIGATE EXPENDITURE UPON MILITIA

Powers Amendment on Estimates Raises Crop of Questions

OTTAWA, April 30.—The amendment to the militia estimates, moved by Major C. G. Power, Liberal, South Quebec, has caused a large crop of questions in regard to militia expenditures in the past.

T. L. Church, Conservative, North Toronto, and J. E. Prevost, Liberal, Terre Bonne, are both active in this connection. Mr. Church is curious about militia expenditures before the war as compared with those during the last three years, while Mr. Prevost is investigating those made by the Conservative and Union governments.

Major Power's amendment, which calls for a reduction of $1,100,000 in the total vote of $1,400,000 for annual drill, is still causing much speculation along the corridors of parliament. It is understood that the Liberals will hold a caucus on Monday or Tuesday, when the amendment will come up for consideration.

Major Power moved his amendment on Tuesday last and the militia estimates have not been before the house since that time.

Files Question on Costs of Ministers' Visits to Europe

OTTAWA, April 30.—Roch Lanctot, Liberal, La Prairie-Napierville, has put a question on the order paper in regard to the cost of "trips to Europe of the ministers of the Canadian government during the war period and since."

He is inquiring particularly regarding the expenses of Canadian ministers at the conferences at Paris and Geneva.

DECLARES LABOR PARTY HAS A DEFINITE FOREIGN POLICY

LONDON, April 30.—In further enunciation of the Labor party's future program, J. R. Clynes, Labor leader in the house of commons, declares that the party possesses a definite foreign policy.

"An alliance with all," is Labor's motto, he says. Mr. Clynes declares for gradual reduction of armaments.

"Our dominions, for the purpose of all affairs of international government, are established nations, and Labor, for the more wholesome purpose of Empire progress, would bring them into the closest relations and sustain their contentment by increasing their right to cooperate with Great Britain in matters of mutual interest," adds the statement.

"This will be done, not by occasional conferences with the government, but by bringing dominion statesmen into closer touch with responsible parties acting for other shades of British opinion."

Mr. Clynes, in this connection, regrets that the earnest appeals of the late Keir Hardie, regarding Indian self-government, were not listened to.

Condemns Hereditary System.

Touching on the house of lords, Mr. Clynes condemns the hereditary system, but does not favor a one-chamber government.

The Daily Telegraph describes Mr. Clynes' recent utterances as a campaign of spoliation, and contrasts them with the plea by Arthur Henderson, "almost as influential a leader of labor," for a parliament of industry.

These policies, declares the Telegraph, are mutually destructive, and charges Mr. Clynes to note how the loan last week for New Zealand was subscribed 13 times over and how this proves there is an immense amount of money available to broaden the basis of home industry. Confidence, though, is being steadily undermined, says the Telegraph, by the shadow of the Labor party's declarations against personal thrift lying across British industry today.

France More Inclined to Give Concessions on Russia's War Debt

PARIS, April 30.—The Echo de Paris understands that M. Barthou, chief of the French delegation, is inclined to accept certain concessions to the Russians relative to war debts formulated by the British delegates, because he has received assurance that the British government is disposed to reduce or cancel, in the same proportion, France's war debts to Great Britain.

FIND DEAD BODY OF BABY

REGINA, April 30.—The dead body of a baby was found by provincial police in a manure pile at Fox Valley, Sask., Saturday. A man named Doh Beck has been arrested in connection with the finding of the body, although no definite charge has yet been laid against him.

Asks Concerning Excise Rates Upon Alcohol for Use of Retail Druggists

OTTAWA, April 30.—An inquiry whether the government will allow retail druggists to purchase alcohol for the manufacture of pharmaceutical preparations at approximately the same rate of excise as that paid by the large manufacturer is being made by H. A. Stewart of Leeds. Mr. Stewart asks further whether a request for legislation of this character has been received by the government from the Canadian Pharmaceutical association.

LABOR PARTY STATES VIEWS

Propose Council of State With Dail as Governing Authority

DUBLIN, April 30.—After sitting throughout Sunday to consider the breakdown of the Irish peace conference, the executive of the Irish Labor party issued a statement tonight setting forth the proposals submitted by the party, which were not accepted by either side.

The proposals suggested that representatives of the local authorities and economic forces be called into consultation by the Dail Eireann and a council of state be set to act as the council of the country, subject to the Dail Eireann as the supreme governing authority, and a council of state to control the army.

The statement of the Labor party says that Archbishop Byrne stated that the reason why an unofficial army council was not called into conference was that the request was not unanimous.

The Labor executive will resume the sitting and may issue a statement defining its future course of action.

TRAFFIC IN OPIUM STARTS TONG WAR

MONTREAL, April 30.—A tong war has started in Montreal's Chinatown. The reason for the feud, which is between the Wong and Hum factions, is said to lie in accusations laid against each other of having given information to the narcotic squad of the Royal Canadian Mounted police in regard to the traffic in opium.

Already four members of the two factions are before the courts and warrants have been issued for many more on charges of attempted murder and assault.

STATEMENT DEALS WITH BREAKDOWN

Griffith and Collins Issue Explanation of Failure of Conference

REFUSE TO ACCEPT PLEBISCITE BASIS

Proposals for Irish Election on Treaty Issue Are All Rejected

DUBLIN, April 30.—A statement signed by Arthur Griffith and Michael Collins and issued by the publicity department of the Dail Eireann in explaining the breakdown of the conference on Saturday says the Irish government submitted three proposals, all of which the opposition rejected.

The first proposition was that an election be held in June on the issues of the Anglo-Irish treaty and the new constitution, the opponents of the treaty to guarantee that no attempt would be made to obstruct the voters in the free exercise of their lawful right.

In the event of the issue being favorable to the government the constitution would be enacted subject to any amendments carried by the house. After the enactment of the constitution and other essential legislation, including adult suffrage, the Irish parliament would be dissolved and a general election held, in which every adult would participate on the question of whether or not the constitution should be ratified.

Suggest Election on Single Issue.

The second proposal was that an election be held in June on the single question of the treaty.

The third proposal was that a plebiscite of the people on the adult suffrage basis be held within a month on the issue of the acceptance or rejection of the treaty. The plan for the plebiscite was that on the day selected, probably on Sunday, all persons over 21 years of age should meet in the parishes of the counties and in the respective blocks of their residences in the cities and file through barriers to be counted for or against the treaty. This proposal, says the statement, was rejected by the opposition in both principle and detail.

"It is the right of the Irish people to say yes or no to the treaty," says the statement.

The representatives of the Irish government offered to discuss any proposals from the other parties to the conference based on acceptance of a plebiscite within one month and an election in June. The opposition refused to make or accept any proposals upon this basis. The conference then dissolved.

The following statement was issued by the publicity department of the Republican organization last night:

De Valera Intractable.

"Mr. De Valera, being informed of the publication of the Griffith-Collins proposals at the Mansion house conference, said that when he saw the public statement he would deal with it. In anticipation, however, he would say that every proposal advanced by the majority party representatives was based on the Partition and Plunder act of 1920, reenacted in principle last month in the measure passed by the British parliament, to legalize from the British viewpoint the position of the so-called provisional government.

"The Irish people, in the minds of the proposers, were not the Irish nation, but those living in 26 counties of mutilated Ireland set up by the British government."

Minister of Marine Files Notice of Further Loan for Harbor at Montreal

OTTAWA, April 30.—A further loan of $5,000,000 to the harbor commissioners of Montreal is announced in a notice of motion filed by the minister of marine and fisheries. The loan is for the purpose of carrying on the construction of terminal facilities in the harbor of Montreal.

No Work for This Year on the Highway to Connect Up Interior

VANCOUVER, April 30.—In reply to the recent resolution forwarded by the Vancouver Automobile club, Hon. Dr. Sutherland in a letter stated that no work would be done this year on the highway which is to connect the interior with lower mainland. Insufficiency of information as to routes is the reason given.

ALLIED TROOPS READY TO SEIZE RAILROAD IN CASE TRAFFIC IS INTERRUPTED

Hsu Shih Chang's Proclamation Calls Attention to Danger of Jeopardizng Foreign Interests

UNITED STATES LEGATION ASKS WASHINGTON TO SEND WARSHIP

Foreign Business Houses in Capital Conspicuously Fly Flags of Their Respective Nations

PEKING, April 30.—Martial law was declared in Peking today. The armies of General Chang Tso-Lin and General Wu Pei-Fu, fought continuously throughout Sunday. The fighting centered around Chang Sin Tien, 12 miles distant. A government communique says Chang Tco-Lin was victorious at the fighting at Machang.

The United States legation has requested Washington to send another war ship to Tien-Tsin.

President Hsu Shih Chang, in consequence of the hostilities today issued three proclamations calling attention to the serious consequences to China which might result from the jeopardizing of foreign interests.

The first proclamation demands that Chang Tso--Lin and Wu Pei-Fu immediately withdrew their armies.

The second proclamation declared that as Peking was the capital of the nation, peace and order must prevail. The gendarmerie, under the direction of the chief of the metropolitan area, must take adequate measures.

Must Protect Foreigners.

Emphasis was laid in the third proclamation on the necessity to protect the lives and property of foreigners and for compliance with treaties with the powers. It was added that the Chinese railroad administration had sent a protest to the government stating that the railroads of the country face bankruptcy in consequence of the suspension of traffic and that this fact involves foreign obligation.

The fighting on Sunday was sporadic throughout the war area. There were no signal gains by either side. The most persistent conflicts seemed to be centered around Chang Ein Tien, southwest of the Peking wall, where Wu Pei-Fu is concentrating for a drive in an attempt to turn Chang Tho-Lin's western front toward Tien-Tsin. Chang Tso-Lin's forces occupy the village of Chang Sin Tien, where 100 wounded have been taken into the houses of natives.

Some of the wounded in the fighting have been brought to hospitals in Peking. The dead were left on the battlefields. Reliable details as to the casualties are not obtainable, because the Chinese are keeping no record of them.

Opposing Armies Growing.

Chang Tso-Lin and Wu Pei-Fu each have 50,000 men under fire or in position. Chang Tso-Lin is sending forces from Mukden, which soon will increase the total effectives to more than 100,000 on each side.

The commanders of the allied troops at Tien-Tsin report that they are ready to seize the Peking-Tien Tsin railroad if the traffic is interrupted. The French cruiser Craonne has arrived at Tien Tsin, the residents of Peking feel safe, notwithstanding the bombing and the cannon heard from the direction of Chang Sin Tsin.

Guard City Gates

The gates of the city here are heavily guarded. They are being kept open, but it is expected they will be closed in the event of any indication of a rush toward Peking by defeated troops.

The foreign legations and foreign business houses and institutions are flying the flags of their respective nations conspicuously. During the fighting today the Wu Pei-Fu forces flew airplanes over the fighting line, dropping proclamations which denounced Chang Tso-Lin as a monarchist and a former bandit.

Chany Tso-Lin Claims Victory

TIEN TSIN, April 30.—Accord to a communication issued here today General Chanf Tso-Lin has won a victory in the fighting at Machang. It is claimed by the communication that General Wu Pei-Fu lost several hundred men killed or wounded or taken prisoner. It is added that General Chang Tso-Lin also suffered casualties.

HEARTBURN

A SEVERE CASE

Many people are troubled with heartburn who really do not realize just what it is.

In cases of this trouble there is a gnawing and burning pain in the stomach attended by disturbed appetite. It is generally caused by great acidity of the stomach, and whenever too much food is taken it is liable to ferment, and become extremely sour, causing heartburn. In such cases vomiting often occurs, and what is thrown up is sour and sometimes bitter.

The one way to get rid of heartburn is to keep your liver active by using and you will have no heartburn or other liver troubles, such as constipation, jaundice, water brash, floating specks before the eyes, coated tongue, foul breath, etc.

Miss Anges Cutting, Shallow Lake, Ont., writes: "I have had heartburn for a long time. There were gnawing and burning pains in my stomach, and then when I vomited there was a sour and bitter taste. I used two vials of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills, and they have cleared me of my heartburn. I don't think they can be beat by any other medicine."

AUTHORS ASK TARIFF UPON ADVERTISING

Elect Lady Byng President; Consider Standard Version of "O Canada"

OTTAWA, April 30.—Her excellency, Lady Byng of Vimy, was elected honorary president of the Canadian Authors' association at the closing session of the annual convention here Saturday afternoon. J. Murray Gibbons, Montreal, was elected president for a second term. Bernard K. Sandwell of Montreal was elected secretary. The election of officers, a business session at which several matters of importance to Canadian writers generally were discussed, and a banquet in the evening brought to a close a successful two days' convention of the association.

Among the resolutions indorsed at Saturday's session was one favoring application being made to the Dominion government for a grant of $5000 each year for an award for the most significant literary work of a Canadian domiciled in Canada.

Urgently Need Protection.

J. Vernon McKenzie, editor of McLean's magazine, and B. K. Sandwell sponsored a resolution asking the government to consider placing a tariff on advertising carried in foreign magazines imported into the Dominion. Secretary Sandwell stated that protection was urgently needed in this direction as much as in manufacturing industries.

For several months a subcommittee of the association, of which Florence Randall Livesay of Toronto is the convenor, have been going over the different versions of "O Canada." They found there are about nine that are actually used. Toronto has one it stands by. Vancouver has another. Montreal, Ottawa and other places have their particular fancies. The association is anxious to get one that will be a standard version and used throughout the Dominion. The committee was asked to deliberate another year and it is expected that at the next convention a version will be brought forward which the general public will be asked to approve and adopt.

France and States Send Messages.

At the banquet in the evening messages of kindly wishes from the authors' associations of France and the United States were read by President Gibbon, who acted as toastmaster.

Other officers elected include the following: Treasurer, Dr. G. R. Lomer, McGill university, Montreal; vice-presidents, W. T. Allison, Winnipeg; Austen Boswell, Regina; G. W. Kerby, Calgary; Nellie McClung, Edmonton; Isabel Ecclestone, Vancouver; R. Sheldon Williams, Victoria; council, Mrs. Francis Reeves (Onota Wantana), Calgary; Dr. C. W. Gordon (Ralph Connor), Winnipeg; Judge Howay, Vancouver; Mrs. Eustace McKinnon, Regina.

CUSTOMS AND EXCISE LESS

Three Million Difference Compared With April of Last Year

OTTAWA, April 30.—A further decrease of $3,000,000 in customs and excise collections during the month of April, as compared with April collections of a year ago, is shown by the comparative statement of revenue issued on Saturday by the department of customs and excise. Total collections were $15,506,750.82, as against $18,612,231.75 in April of last year.

Collections under the various headings were:

Customs import duties, April, 1921, $10,350,401.39; April, 1922, $9,410,085.20; decrease, $940,316.19; excise taxes, April, 1921, $5,220,144.39; April, 1922, $3,868,699.23; decrease, $1,351,445.16; excise duties, April, 1921, $2,982,670.17; April, 1922, $2,159,415.56; decrease, $823,191.61; sundry collections, April, 1921, $59,078.80; April, 1922, $68,550.83; increase, $9472.03.

FAR FLUNG NEWS SERVICE MEETS

Canadian Press, Ltd., Has Efficiency Record; Annual Meeting Tomorrow

TORONTO, April 30.—Daily newspaper publishers and editors are gathering here from all over the Dominion for the annual meeting of the Canadian Press, Ltd., the cooperative news gathering and distributing association, including within its membership practically every daily newspaper in Canada. Indications are that the annual general meeting on Tuesday next will be fully representative, members attending from as far east as Cape Breton and as far west as Victoria.

Twelve Thousand Miles of Wire.

Tomorrow is devoted to the final meeting for the year of the retiring board of directors, when a number of important matters affecting the welfare of the association will come up for review.

Founded on its present basis in 1917, largely by the urge of war necessity, which rendered it imperative that there be a free flow of news from one end of Canada to the other, the Canadian Press has since then made considerable strides forward, and is now an organization of which its members are proud. Modeled on lines a good deal similar to that of the Associated Press of America, it depends for its success primarily on the good will and hearty cooperation of its members in the prompt production of the news of their district for benefit of the membership at large. This exchange of news is rendered possible by the leasing of about 12,000 miles of telegraph wires, both day and night, from coast to coast, operated by the telegraphers of the association.

In a news sense, therefore, the whole Dominion is in close and instant contact, and the flash of a news story breaking in Vancouver is simultaneously available in Winnipeg, Toronto or Halifax. The head office is at Toronto, and editorial bureaus are situated at strategic news centers, such as Halifax, Montreal, Ottawa, Winnipeg and Vancouver.

It is of its very essence that the Canadian Press be strictly impartial and unbiased in its presentation of the news of the day, for its members include newspapers of every political stripe, and these critics of its news services, numbering over 100, are vigilant to see that their association maintains its reputation for scrupulous fairness. A striking illustration of this was afforded by the recent Dominion elections campaign, when staff reporters of the Canadian Press accompanied each of the three leaders, with the result that for perhaps the first time there was presented to the people of Canada day by day in just perspective a full picture of the progress of the campaign.

The Canadian Press also undertook, in collaboration with the telegraph companies, the collection and distribution of the election results, and in this a new record for speed and accuracy was set up. The association works in close cooperation with the Associated Press, and has access through the editorial staff in New York to the world-wide news reports of that great news agency. At the recent annual meeting of the Associated Press, its general manager, Roy Martin, congratulated the Canadian Press on its very excellent news service covering Canada, and said that as a result more Canadian news is being printed in the United States than ever before.

Empire Service Expanded.

A feature of the past year has been the building up in London, by an arrangement with Reuter's, of a Canadian Press cable service, which aims in particular to cover the news of the British Empire in more complete fashion than is done by the Associated Press, whose cable service is, of course, primarily designed for United States consumption. While still in its infancy, this special cable service has already achieved a considerable success, with the result that more and more news of Great Britain, Australia, New Zealand, India and the Empire generally is made available to the Canadian public. A valuable feature is that through Reuter's the Canadian Press has access to the very full reports of the British Press association, the cooperative organization of British daily newspapers, which covers very thoroughly news of the British Isles, including a full report of the proceedings of the Imperial parliament.

Retiring officers and directors of the association are as follows: President, E. Norman Smith, Ottawa Journal; first vice-president, E. H. Macklin, Manitoba Free Press; second vice-president, G. Fred Pearson, Halifax Chronicle; directors, F. B. Ellis, St. John Globe; H. Gagnon, Quebec Soleil; John Scott, Montreal Gazette; E. J. Archibald, Montreal Star; W. J. Wilkinson, Toronto Mail and Empire; W. J. McNair, Hamilton Herald; T. H. Preston, Brantford Expositor; A. R. Ford, London Free Press; Burford Hooke, Regina Leader; J. H. Woods, Calgary Herald; F. J. Burd, Vancouver Province; J. F. B. Livesay, general manager and secretary.

NO HOPE FOR MISSING SHIP

Wreckage Description Tallies With Lighthouse Tender Lambton Lost in Lake

SAULT STE. MARIE, Mich., April 30.—There is virtually no doubt that the Canadian lighthouse tender Lambton, with its crew and passengers, numbering about 19, sank in Lake Superior in the storm about 10 days ago. A description of the wreckage picked up by the U. S. S. Cook, wirelessed here tonight from White Fish point, apparently identifies the wrecked vessel as the Lambton.

The Cook was unable to get to the Soo because of ice conditions in the upper river, and sent the description by radio instead of bringing the wreckage here for identification. The description is said by local persons to correspond with parts of the missing boat.

No Trace of Survivors.

PARRY SOUND, Ont., April 30.—M. Braise, marine agent here for the department of marine and fisheries, has posted a final bulletin which removes the last basis of hope entertained by relatives that the crew and passengers on the missing lighthouse steamer Lambton might yet be found. The bulletin announces that the search for survivors has been exhaustive, but fruitless.

The Lambton, a small steamer bought by the late government during the war, with a somewhat larger boat, the Grenville, have been used by the department here for lighthouse and buoy service. Parry Sound loses six of her citizens, Andrew Valyear, the steward and cook, being the only married one of the six, and he leaves a widow and eight children.

List of Missing.

Personnel of the crew and passengers follow:

Crew, of Lambton: Alexander Brown, captain; Owen Soound; Jermy Mitchell, chief officer, Orillia; Leonard Lines, wheelsman, Barrie; Arthur Brunet, wheelsman, Plantagenet; Manly Breechin, chief engineer, Midland; Napoleon Columbus, second engineer, Toronto; Sydney Mumford, oiler, Amherstburg; Andrew Valyear, steward and cook; Fred Cole, cook's helper; Charles Virgo, waiter; Harold Christenson, deck hand; Andrew Christenson, deck hand; Fred Hayes, fireman, all of Parry Sound; Frank Sims, fireman; Stanley Liddle, chore boy, and Laverne Kibosh, deck hand, all of Sault Ste. Marie, Ont.

John Douglas, lighthouse keeper, Parisienne island, Soo, Ont.; assistant lightkeeper Parisienne island, name not known, Soo, Ont.; George Penfold, lightkeeper Caribou island, Soo, Ont.; assistant lightkeeper Caribou island, name not known, Soo, Ont.; William D. Reid, lightkeeper, Michipicoten harbor, St. Catharines, were passengers.

It is not known at this office yet whether the families of the above mentioned lightkeepers were on board.

Writes in Moving Terms of Sufferings in Eastern Europe

LONDON, April 30.—The pope's letter, as sent by the correspondent of the Morning Post in Geona, speaks in moving terms of the sufferings of the populations of eastern Europe, who, he says, will benefit in a special degree in the advent of a new era of humanity—populations who are now torn by internal struggles, famine and disease, while their country holds many springs of wealth.

"To these populations," says the letter, "although divided from our communion by misfortune, we, like our predecessors, address our message of compassion and comfort, and at the same time the ardent desire of our paternal heart is to see them rejoice with us in the same gifts of union an peace which result from joint participation in the sacred mysteries."

In 1921 there were two divorces to every five marriages in Oregon.

WOMAN TOO WEAK TO WALK

Now Works Nine Hours a Day.—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her Strength

Union Village, Vt.—"I was weak and nervous and all run-down. I could not walk across the floor without resting and I had been that way for weeks. I saw your advertisement in the paper and after taking one bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I felt the good it was doing me and I took seven more in all. Before I finished I was able to work nine hours a day in a steam laundry. I cannot say too much in favor of your medicine. I trust all sick and suffering women will take it. It has been two years since I took it and I am strong and well."—Mrs. L. A. GUIMANN, Union Village, Vermont.

This is only one of such letters we are continually publishing showing what Lydia E. Pinkham has done for women and whether you work or not Mrs. Guimann's letter should interest you.

Many women get into a weak, nervous run down condition because of ailments they often have. Such women should take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at the first sign of trouble. Good health is necessary and this splendid medicine will help you to keep it.

SAYS NEW AUTO NUMBER PLATES MUST BE SHOWN

Beginning today the city police, under instruction from the superintendent of provincial police, will rigidly enforce the regulations in respect to automobile license number plates and chauffeurs' badges, it was stated by Chief T. H. Long yesterday. Today there are very few cars running on the streets that are not licensed for this year. But those negligent in paying their fees have to checked up, and those who have paid their fees but have not hung out their new number plates will also have to be subjected to the unpleasantness attending the checking up, said Chief Long. Chauffeurs are required by law to display their badges on their caps or some other conspicuous part of their clothing.

JUNIOR BALL ARTISTS LIMBER UP FOR SERIES

Representatives of the four teams in the city junior baseball league, Reds, Pirates, Giants and Fairview, spent a busy time on the diamond at the Recreation grounds on Saturday limbering up and getting into shape for the ball season. The youngsters are splendidly equipped, but will not begin a regular series for several weeks yet, not until the danger of enthusiasm for ball retarding interest in school exams is over, according to the coach-manager, J. Ryan. But when they do hit out into the pennant series they will have all the ball they can digest, nine matches per team, besides various cracks at the "old timers."

PREMIER KING INVITED HERE

May Postpone Liberal Convention to Permit Ottawa Ministers to Attend

Instead of being held at Nelson on June 8 and 9, as originally planned, it is very likely that the provincial Liberal convention will be delayed until after the session of the federal parliament to permit of federal ministers being present, possibly including Premier King, who was recently invited by Premier Oliver to be present.

Announcement to this effect has been made by M. A. Macdonald, president of the British Columbia Liberal association, at the coast, but the final say is in the hands of the executive, which will hold a meeting this week.

Up to last night Kenneth Campbell, M. P. P. for Nelson, had not been advised on the matter.

MANY RUSH TO FILE INCOME TAX RETURNS

Owing to the last day of the month having fallen on Sunday, as is customary in such cases, the time for the filing of Dominion income returns and for payment of the first installment of Dominion income tax will be deemed to extend to today.

There was a great rush of applicants to file at the end of the week, as many persons had overlooked this compulsory duty. The penalty period immediately ensues.

ANGLERS MAKE FIRST DRIVE ON THE FISH

A big party of members of the Nelson District Rod and Gun club went out to Procter yesterday morning to have their initial go at the fish. The camp at Irvine creek was to be the headquarters, and the primary object of the outing was to fix up the grounds and appointments of the camp. It was also intended to put in a few hours with the fish.

Several parties are going out today for the opening of the season's fishing, T. R. Wilson being one of those bent on wetting a line.

REFER CASE TO HIGHER COURT

Bottomley Recalls Services During War; Indulges in Rhetorical Outburst.

LONDON, April 30.—(By Canadian Press Cable).—Horatio Bottomley, former member of parliament and publisher of John Bull, whose case of fraudulently converting funds of the Victory Bond club were concluded in the Bow street police court on Saturday and sent up for trial in a higher court, concluded a long statement issued after he was admitted to bail, with an extraordinary rhetorical outburst.

"The agony of the ordeal of listening to charges," he said, which, if true, render him unfit for the society of honest folk, is intensified in the case of a public man who commands a large following of people and who during the tragedy of Armageddon became conscious of a new awakening, putting all sordid things of the past aside, consecrated his whole being to the service of his country and the men who fought and fell.

"You are asked to believe that all this time I was scheming to rob the men of their savings; I, who was traveling the country night and day at my own expense and was the King's chief recruiting agent; who stood by the boys in the trenches and sat by their sides in dressing stations doing my best to comfort them; who held their hands at the base hospitals as they passed into eternity.

"If it be so, then, when my turn comes to cross the barrier, may all tortures be visited upon my soul. But the dear boys, whether sleeping or still with us, know I did not betray them and you shall scour the country and never empanel a jury which will say that Horatio Bottomley could be guilty of so cruel a crime against God and man."

BRITISH TRADE TO TOUR WORLD

Exhibition Ship to Sail the Seas and Display British Products

LONDON, April 30.—(By Canadian Press Cable).—Under the auspices of the British world trade expedition the 9000-ton steamship known as British Trade, will sail in June from the port of London on a cruise around the world with an exhibit of representative British manufacturers and industries. It was originally intended that this ship would leave on May 1, but the engineering dispute caused a postponement of the sailing and the actual date has not yet been definitely fixed.

The cruise will occupy 267 days, of which 113 will be exhibition days at the various ports, including Rio de Janeiro, Montevideo, Buenos Ayres and the chief South African, Australian, Tasmanian, South Sea islands and Japanese ports, also the Straits Settlements, India, Egypt and the Mediterranean.

The scheme of the British Trade is sponsored by Earl Grey, Sir Maxwell Hicks, senior partner in the firm of Maxwell Hicks & Co., chartered accountants, and others prominent in trade affairs.

NELSON IS NOW ON "CITY" TIME

Public Offices, Schools, Hotels and Apparently Whole Community Adopts Change

At midnight last night the clocks of Nelson were advanced one hour, and "city" time came into effect. Going to bed by Pacific time, many a little early, so as not to be robbed of their beauty sleep, the inhabitants awakened by the alarm clocks this morning on "city" time, and it is expected the extra zest that they will put into their activities will work up for everybody a normal appetite by the new "noon hour."

So far as has been ascertained every section of the community seems to be adopting "city" time. Provincial and Dominion public offices—including the post office—the mercantile community, and the hotels, are in line with the city offices and the schools. The Hume clock, for example, will show "city" time, and travelers will make their own adjustments. The wickets at the post office will operate on "city" time.

COLONIALS GIVE GOOD PROGRAM

Twenty Numbers of Sketches and Songs Please; Veterans' Orchestra Makes Bow

Saturday night saw two new aggregations of local talent make their bow to the public at the Dugout, the first being the Colonial concert party, and the second being the newly organized G. W. V. A. orchestra. Both made a good impression, and their combined program took two full hours in presentation. A walled-in stage with a curtain and footlights was built in the southeast corner, and had all the usual appurtenances.

The dramatic and musical program followed the regular whist drive, coming after the refreshment period, and as the main event of the evening proved a distinct treat for the keenly interested audience.

Musical Prelude.

A waltz, "When the Tide Comes In," by the G. W. V. A. orchestra, was the opening number of the musical prelude to the Colonial program. The orchestra, of which George Noble is conductor, was made up of Mrs. F. Blakeman and George Joy, violins; George Noble, corner; J. W. Turner, euphonium; A. McInnis, drums, and Miss Irene Blakeman, piano.

A mandolin selection by Brs. Blakeman was the second musical number.

Mrs. J. Milroy then sang one of her popular vocal solos.

An instrumental trio, employing violin, piano and cornet, by Mrs. Blakeman, Miss Blakeman and Mr. Noble, concluded the very interesting and much appreciated prelude.

The Colonial Concert party then took over the entertainment, and from that point on the mirthful "Scandals of 1922," through a score of numbers, full of jest and prevailingly tuneful, kept the audience in a state of emotion. There were numerous sketches and skits, and many vocal numbers, the chorus being a feature.

In the list of artists were little Miss Ruth Sindel, Mrs. G. Proudfoot, Miss Irene Blakeman, W. Coleman, W. Cartwright, J. W. Craggy, C. F. Haines, C. R. Choyce, Rred Roberts and George Noble.

The chorus consisted of Misses K. Black, E. Proudfoot, G. Proudfoot and A. Scott. The scenery was the product of C. H. Swannell's brush. W. Ingram was in charge of effects, and A. R. McInnis was manager of the production.

Twenty Numbers.

The program of the "Scandals" was as follows:

Salutatory, Messrs. Roberts and Craggy.

"Smiles," vocal solo, by Mr. Coleman with Colonial chorus.

"Catching Butterflies," sketch, Mr. Craggy.

"Princess Cauliflower," Mr. Craggy as fairy.

"Kismet," vocal solo, Miss Blakeman, Mrs. C. R. Choyce accompanying.

"Mr. Isaacstein," Mr. Roberts.

"Our Parson, Rev. Fibber," Mr. Craggy.

"Song Medley," Mr. Coleman.

Song, "So-Long, Oolong," by wee Ruth Sindel, as the "Little Japanee."

"Alice Blue Gown," vocal solo, Miss Genevieve Proudfoot and Colonial chorus.

"Weary Willie," sketch, Mr. Craggy.

"Nonsense," monologue, with song, "Abey," Mr. Haines.

"My Old-Fashioned Mother," vocal solo, Mr. Cartwright.

"The Reverend," Mr. Roberts.

"The Sheik," tableau, Mr. Noble, Miss Black and Colonial chorus.

"Keep Your Eye on Your Girl," vocal solo, Miss Blakeman.

"The Speed Hog," cyclist skit, Mr. Craggy.

"Old Pal," vocal solo, Mr. Coleman, assisted by Miss Black, a spirit.

Finale, "Smiles," sung by the company.

HAS FAITH IN EMPIRE UNITY

Borden Says Future Integrity Depends on Recognizing Equal Nationhood

LONDON, April 30.—A new toast, "Our Dominions," was proposed at the Royal Academy banquet at Burlington house last night by President Sir Aston Webb, who declared that Great Britain forgot the heroism of the dominions during the war. Sir Robert Borden, former premier of Canada, responding, said the dominions came into the war because they were free nations of a great commonwealth of nations, called for want of a better term, an empire, and because they believed not only that the great ideals of justice and liberty were being threatened, but the integrity, perhaps the existence of the Empire was at stake.

The future integrity and unity of the Empire, said Sir Robert, depended upon distinct and absolute recognition of the principle of equal nationhood. He had stood for that principle from first to last because he believed in the upity of the Empire and the continued adherence and membership of the overseas nations in the Empire. It was the boldest experiment in the government that the world had ever seen, but the principle for which colonial statesmen contended until 1914 was thoroughly and completely vindicated when the call came in August of that year.

MURDERS WIFE WITH AN AXE

SUTTON, West, Ont., April 30.—One of the most gruesome tragedies which the northern part of Cork has known for many years occurred yesterday afternoon when Robert Stevenson, who lives on a farm several miles south of here, killed his wife by battering her over the head with an axe, and inflicted such frightful injuries on his stepdaughters, 11 and 13-year-old children that their condition is grave and the recovery of one is most douttful.

The tragedy came as a climax to a series of domestic troubles which, it is understood, had been in progress for a long time. Stevenson was placed under arrest.

Lady Astor on the Sexes

Lady Astor says, "one sex cannot rule alone; men must borrow our mercy and we must use their justice."

She was speaking of the equal suffrage situation and its ideals. Lady Astor is hinting at a great general principal of mutual cooperation between men and women in many relations of life, though she is here alluding, merely, to one phase of one department of life in which now the the sexes find themselves equally privileged and equally responsible for obligations, to the state and to society.

The creator knew what he was about when he arranged the scheme of things and set over all laws to operate these schemes. He made man and women—the man with generally apparent and prominent characteristics of his nature, his manner of thinking and reasoning and acting; and the women generally as a class with patent differences in her make-up as to disposition, temperament, and manner of thinking and reasoning and acting. Each has something in this composition of mind and soul which is not found in the same quantity and the same quality in the other. Women generally, as Lady Astor inferentially suggests, are conceded to be characterized by the more refined and responsive, expressive and sympathetic sense of mercy. That is a feminine trait; it is ingrained in the being of a women's soul to be merciful.

But mercy, while a virtue, may be warped by sentiment and emotion and diverted by sympathy and so without counteracting, ballasting, steadying qualities of sterner sort turned to ill account. Man, Lady Astor intimates, has more generally developed the sense of justice—cold-blooded and rigid and severe. And justice, too, is a virtue—its basis is in right; it is the backbone of all law and order; though exact justice, thought out in theory to unerring and accurate verdicts and sentences, may be alone, in itself, not always the best way in practical operation.

Equal suffrage extends to more departments of life than the political. The ideal partnership between man and woman in that oldest of all institutions of organized government, has been from the very beginning one in which they were partners—not in contributing exactly the same amounts of the same qualities, but in exchange of those qualities of which one had more or finer kind than the other. Literature and art and industry have demonstrated this development of a new equality of cooperation in which one contributed what she had most of and the other contributed what he had in more emphatic quality. It is in the recognition of the broad principle which Lady Astor hints that there appears the possibility for infinitely greater achievements of the race in society, in industry and in political activities.

Walking for Pleasure

Everyone believes in the adage, "Every man should stand on his own feet." But when it comes to walking on those same feet many and varied are the excuses given. To those who are blessed with feet, instead of cursed with them, an afternoon or morning walk, whether the day be foul or fair, can indeed be a pleasure. For countless centuries walking was the only mode of transportation. With the advance of progressive and more rapid modes of travel the placing of one foot before another sufficient times to carry one to a given objective, should it be more than half a mile away, bids fair to be forgotten by some of the able-bodied of our generation.

But there are those of other generations who still can and do walk. Edward Payson Weston, the veteran pedestrian, who, by reason of great strength has achieved the age of fourscore and three years, is still reported now and then as taking a "hike," of no mean proportions. Last week a retired California minister began a trip across the United States with the avowed intention of seeing a president before he died. But many another long walk had he taken before attempting this.

A great number of famous men have been devotees of the open road. Macaulay, Coleridge, Dickens and Thoreau were extremely fond of walking. Medical authorities agree on the great benefit of walking, Dr. Brady prescribing "two miles of oxygen on the hoof twice a day." But if taken as a medicine, walking loses its charm. If one holds in mind the amount to be traveled as a task to be done, then it becomes work. If each block or each mile put behind means just that much less to be done, then one might as well spend the time walking back and fourth in a room with the windows open. It takes a brisk walk outdoors to bring the blood singing through the body.

The Lighter Side

The average novel isn't.

As a rule, when a man thinks he's original he has one original thought, at any rate.

The so-called smart set includes many members of the bore hundred.

The peace dove in Ireland has found out how a bull feels in a china shop.

When the sap is rising and the fish biting, it must be particularly difficult for the editor to write those clever pieces condemning idleness.

The man who invented the pogo stick must have got the idea by watching a flivver.

New York's "civic virtue" turns out to be a statue, and not myth, as commonly supposed.

The world is at last beginning to realize that arms are something to fight, not with, but against.

A bit of paraphrase: The best study of mankind is man; the best study of womankind is—useless.

About the only thing the amateur can raise in a garden at a profit is sweat.

Viewed in one light it's unfamiliarity that breeds contempt. To know a man is to admire him, usually.

Wedding Cake

Veal and Cabbage Salad—This is an excellent kind of salad to serve for a large gathering. It is hardly distinguishable from chicken salad—and deception is complete if a very little chicken and diced celery is added to it. You will need ten quarts of salad to serve 50 guests. To make it, cut enough cold, cooked veal into half-inch cubes to fill a quart measure five times; also shred enough raw cabbage to make five quarts. Marinate (that is, soak) the veal and cabbage in French dressing for three hours, or longer (you will need 3 cups of French dressing to moisten this amount of veal and cabbage thoroughly). Just before serving pile the veal and cabbage on crisp lettuce leaves on individual plates and cover with mayonnaise dressing. Three quarts of mayonnaise dressing is not too much to "top" 50 salad plates. (In other words, use one quart of the mayonnaise dressing for 17 plates of salad).

Nine dozen rolls will be needed to serve 50 guests—allowing about two rolls per guest. Any variety of unsweetened roll or bun is suitable.

Eight quarts of coffee will allow for a second cup if the guests wish it. Four quarts of whipped cream are sufficient to furnish a "dab" for each cup of coffee.

Vanilla ice cream is a delicious kind to serve. To make it, mix together 3½ cups of granulated sugar with ¾ of a cup of flour and stir in 3½ quarts of scalded milk; continue to stir till the mixture thickens, then add a little of it to six eggs, which you have beaten slightly, and when smooth pour this egg-mixture into the large saucepan containing the rest of the scalded milk and let cook over the fire three minutes. Now remove the pan from the range and let cool. Add 3 tablespoons of vanilla extract and 4 cups of heavy cream, and turn into your freezer. Freeze as usual. Serve small portions of this ice cream on individual plates, each portion surrounded with sweetened, hulled strawberries. (The berries make the ice cream "stretch.") If, however, you prefer to buy ice cream for the occasion instead of making it, you will need ten quarts without the berries.

To serve 50 guests with cake you will need a large wedding cake, two Brides' cakes and five plain loaf cakes. It is not necessary for me to publish a loaf cake recipe, for any kind may be used, but tomorrow I shall print recipes for both the wedding cake and bride's cake.

Ten Years Ago Today

From The Daily News May 1, 1912.

Bishop De Pencier of New Westminster and Mrs. De Pencier reached the city last night in order to attend the quarterly meeting of the executive diocese of Kootenay and the annual meeting tomorrow and Friday of the diocesan branch of the Woman's auxiliary. They are guests at the rectory.

Statistical proof of the record building activity in the city is given by the permits for last month and for the first four months of the year. For April the permits totaled $76,100, against $46,980 in the same months of 1911. The total for 1912 to date is $150,175.

Twenty Years Ago

From The Daily News, May 1, 1902.

Marc Gilliam of the Bayonne mine is spending a few days in the city. Marc reports crossing a bear on Summit creek. The circumstance was at once reported to W. A. Jowett of the Tourist association, but there appears to be an element of doubt as to whether Marc crossed a bear on Summit creek or whether he crossed the summit of Bear creek.

A dispatch from Winnipeg received last night says: "The C. P. R. special which will carry the western members of the fourth contingent to Halifax left Medicine Hat this morning and is expected at Winnipeg about 11:30 tomorrow morning. Three hundred men were on board at Medicine Hat, and when the train pulls out of here, about noon tomorrow, the number will be increased to 616."

RUSSIANS GROW OPENLY DARING

No Longer Speak With Bated Breath Against Communism

MOSCOW, April 30.—Opposition to policies laid down by the majority of the Communist party has become more open and daring in Russia recently than at any time since iron-handed methods were inaugurated in 1918.

Groups, extremely small numerically and perhaps devoid of any power to change the trend of things, which formerly aired their grievances, if at all, in secret meetings, and were promptly voted down, have recently, in several instances, surprised Moscow by coming right out in the open.

Principal among these was the group of 24 persons headed by A. Shliapnikoff of the metal workers groups, who, disappointed with the return of capitalism and the apparent abandonment of communism, dared to take their grievances to the Third Internationale. They were promptly sat upon and threatened with expulsion from the Communist party unless they obeyed discipline.

The two Mensheviki and two Social Revolutionists in the Moscow Soviet, generally timid folks, weighed down by the thousand or more Communist or "nonpartisan" fellow members of the Soviet, plucked up courage enough the other day to speak right out in a big public meeting.

They merely wanted to change the wording of a resolution anent the Third Internationale, but the fact that they stood up and voted against the scheduled plan, despite the hooting and jeering of the majority, and in the presence of Leon Trotzky, war minister, and dozens of foreign journalists and diplomats attending the meeting, seemed something new in Moscow.

Styles

by LENORE

White is undoubtedly the elegant mode for summer wear, but clever dressmakers do not permit it to go unrelieved by some brilliant contrast. Poiret, for example, creates a striking garden party dress of white taffeta striped with green. Drecoll embroiders the skirt of a stunning white crepe gown with small medallions of red, blue and gold; while Jenny, whose dresses are among the most beautiful and wearable each season, achieves enchanting effects with ornamental belts of ravishingly contrived leather petals to add color to her white dresses.

Charmingly individual is a design which offers an opportunity to those who favor black and white. As the sketch indicates, the gown derives its inspiration from one of the newest ideas this season, the combination of a low neck with long flowing sleeves for evening wear. Crepe Marocain is used with glistening jet for the shoulder supports and side trimming. The same gown has been shown in mauve with crystal beads.

TREAT PRINCE AS ORDINARY TOURIST

KYOTO, April 30.—Free from the maze of brilliant ceremonies which have marked his visit to Tokyo and other large cities of the north, the Prince of Wales will spend five or six days resting here before resuming his journey to the southern extremity of the empire. Word has gone out that aside from the brief welcoming ceremonies the prince is to be treated as an ordinary tourist.

This picturesque city, for many centuries ancient capital of the nation, still retains much of the air of sanctity which was everywhere apparent when royal families of the dim ages made it the scene of court life.

Even had it no associations with the past, Kyoto would still be attractive for the beauty of its location, situated, as it is, at the base of an amphitheater of precipitous mountains covered with great forests of pine, maple and flowering shrubs.

Several of the ancient imperial palaces will be open to the prince for inspection, as well as many famous temples containing relics of pottery and cloisonne which ante-date the old buildings by many centuries.

During his stay here the royal visitor will occupy the Omiya Gosho palace, situated in an extensive park. This building is noted throughout Japan for the beauty of its decorations and furnishings, contributed by the greatest masters of painting and carving in the empire.

ORGANIZE PRESS CLUB

WINNIPEG, Man., April 30.—Editorial men on Winnipeg's daily and weekly newspapers and trade journals, to the number of about 70, for social purposes have organized as the Winnipeg Press club, with Hay Stead as first president and Cecil Lamont as secretary. A series of dinners is being held.

The time difference between New York and London is five hours.

What Do You Think?

The Daily News invites letters from readers upon matters of public interest. A nom-de-plume may, if desired, be employed, but every letter must be signed by the writer as a guarantee of good faith, though not necessarily for publication. Questions Principal's Right to Send Home Certain of Students

Nelson, B. C., April 28, 1922.
To the Editor of The Daily News:

Sir—Would you kindly allow me a little space in your valuable paper?

Can you tell me what right the principal (L. V. Rogers) of the Nelson high school has to turn out of school my son, and several others, for what he terms, "lack of interest in their work"! and tell them to go home and stay there, or else go to work on the Ymir road?

After carefully studying the matter over, I am of the opinion that in order to clear himself, he thinks that if he gets rid of these students, he will have more to his credit at the end of the school term.

I would like to know, do we, as taxpayers of Nelson, think it right to turn these boys out at this time of the year, to loaf on the streets of Nelson?

We all know that there is nothing else for them to do.

If he has that right, why not let the public schools do the same?

Worrying Over Crown Granted Claims Waste of Time—Mulholland

Nelson, B. C., April 30, 1922.
To the Editor of The Daily News:

Sir—In your edition of April 25 I notice a letter signed by a J. C. Harris of New Denver, B. C., in which he himself admits that he is a rancher and not a mining man, yet his letter deals entirely with mining conditions, and seeing that his article might mislead the general public, I am taking the liberty of answering the letter in person. This is not meant to be offending nor personal, but, in order to answer this as it should be, I'm afraid I will have to be very brunt.

Mr. Harris says that many mineral claims are being held by speculators, and that by taxing them high enough, they would either be forced to work them, or abandon them. Quite right, and although it may seem to be a policy detrimental toward the development of the mineral resources of the province, that viewpoint in many cases is entirely wrong. For instance, large mining companies have held numerous claims adjoining the particular group they were operating, and which may have had no indication of mineral on the surface. Under those conditions, this ground would be useless, and yet the provincial government is deriving the benefit of 25 cents an acre, while the company may spend thousands of dollars diamond drilling, and exploring the ground at a great depth, and in many places large deposits of ore have been found, each being a boon to the community, and which produced a big source of revenue to the province.

Cannot Assess Prospects

Now let us look on the other side of the fence. What about the poor prospector, who as a rule has spent years under the most trying conditions before being able to locate a property that he considers worth settling down on and proving up? It is folly to even think of placing a valuation on 99 per cent of the original prospects found, and in every case much hard work is required before any definite results can be obtained, as the locator is lacking the necessary capital to accomplish what work is required to be able to place the property on the market. What better method can you find than to let him crown grant, to relieve him, and allow him to get away and go to work, his only means of acquiring the amount needed to develop his prospect?

To tax a mineral claim on a fixed value would be utterly impossible and even were it possible, the prospector would be unable to pay it, and consequently this would force the last prospector left to abandon his search for minerals, which would be the greatest calamity that ever struck the mining industry. And to tax the large operator and not the prospector would surely be the rankest kind of class legislation, and would have a tendency of keeping capital away, which the country so badly needs.

It is rather an amusing article, in which he refers to the poor prospector holding a claim between two others crown granted and held by a company. I would like to know how the prospector managed to split up the company's group in making it useless by holding the center claim. There is a nigger in the fence somewhere.

There is a way, and a right way, to improve, and to increase the number of producing mines in the province, but this cannot be accomplished by sitting on a piece of rocky land trying to scratch enough dirt together to grow a hill of spuds, and dictating or giving instructions on an industry one is unfamiliar with.

Don't Add to Prospector's Burdens

Those results can only be obtained by continual hard work, and the men who have the will and the spirit to keep on fighting this uphill game should, if anything, be assisted, and not even the slightest weight should be added to their already top-heavy burden.

The largest percentage of energetic and industrious mining men are not worrying about the paltry few claims tied up by crown grants. They know that, with but rare exceptions, those claims are worthless, and the province is getting 25 cents an acre for worthless ground.

It ill becomes a rank outsider to worry over a matter of this kind, and if those who do so are sincere in their well wishes for the future of this the province's greatest industry, I offer them an apology if my remarks in this letter seem rough, and would further advise them not to lose any sleep over the claims already located, and why should they? That is not the only ground left available for prospecting. There are millions and millions of square miles of virgin ground in the province, with several distinct mineral belts cutting through it, all the way from the United States' boundary on the south to the Alaskan boundary on the north, all this vast mineral area waiting only, with its unlimited mineral wealth, for the likes of such as you claim to be. If you are in earnest, why wait? Shoulder your pack and join the ranks of the so few who already are doing their share toward the increase of the metal production, and then you will be really aiding in the development of our mines. This is an industry where preaching availeth nothing. Continual rustling and hard work is what counts.

J. W. MULHOLLAND,
Prospector.

ESTATE DWINDLES

HAVANA, April 30.—Charges that a $2,000,000 estate had dwindled to less than $80,000 during the year it was in the hands of executors furnish the basis for a criminal suit which has been brought by Mrs. Elena Trupillo and her two minor sons, against the chancery court of Cienfuegos and the executors.

The property in dispute was left by Mrs. Francisca Toste Y Garcia viuda de Acea, who died in Cienfuegos on May 24, 1921, to five nephews living in the Canary Islands. One of the nephews died and his heirs have instituted the suit. The claims paid, it is alleged, include $125,000 for lawyers' fees.

CELEBRATE ALL BRITISH COLONY

LLOYDMINSTER, Sask., April 30.—The 19th anniversary of the arrival of the "all British colony" in this district will be celebrated here May 1, when a reunion of Lloydminster "old timers" will be held. Lloydminster derives its name from Rev. George E. Lloyd, now bishop of Saskatchewan, and a feature of the celebration will be a reception in his honor.

In April, 1903, the famous "all British colony," also known as the Barr colony, of some 2000 British colonists, detrained at Saskatoon and started upon a 200-mile trek by ox wagon across the plains. Some settled near Battleford and 1000 pushed on and finally pitched their tents where today stands the town of Lloydminster. The place was an outpost of civilization, 200 miles from the nearest railway, but the tents soon gave way to shacks and the prairie grass to acres of golden grain. The shacks in turn disappeared to give place to well built houses, churches and schools, and today Lloydminster is a prosperous, typical western town.

TURKISH PRINCES LACK EDUCATION

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 30.—Turkish princes have been found lacking in educational qualifications by the council for the affairs of the imperial family, which has decided to establish a secondary school exclusively for the use of young scions of royalty.

An investigation by the council disclosed that since 1908 only three imperial princes have been well educated in military matters, and they are graduates of German institutions. One of them now holds the rank of major, while the other two are captains. Omar orouk Effendi, son of the heir-apparent, is a graduate of the Vienna Theresianum.

Fifteen other princes are said to have little if any military education and but limited schooling in general subjects. Essad Pasha, ex-minister of marine, has been instructed to draw up plans for their education and select a site for the royal school.

HAS HER HEART ON WRONG SIDE

FORT WILLIAM, Ont., April 30.—A rare instance of anatomical misplacement was disclosed by an X-ray photograph here recently, which showed the heart of Mrs. D. R. Latreille of this city on the opposite side to that where normal people keep the seat of their affections. While this is a rare thing, local physicians state that occasionally the heart is displaced by some affection of the lungs and, cases have been known in which the heart was situated on the right side and the appendix on the left in persons who seemed otherwise quite normal.

Mrs. Latreille states she has never felt the slightest inconvenience from her abnormal condition, and, though she has a family of children, she does not think that any of them have inherited the peculiarity. Mrs Latreille brought a strong protest from one of her school-age children not long ago when she placed her hand upon her right side when complaining of a heart pain. "Why, mother," exclaimed the child, "you ought to be old enough to know where your heart is." Later, however, the X-ray in a local hospital revealed that mother was quite correct.

WINNIPEG, April 30.—Victoria and Toronto will entertain the champion swimmers of Canada during the next year. This was decided at the annual meeting of the Canadian Amateaur Swimming association held here yesterday, when the championships were awarded for the year.

NAKUSP, April 30.—There is a small building boom started in Nakusp this spring and prosperty is in sight at every angle. The contract has been let by the hospital board for the new hospital to G. H. Gardner, which will run into many thousands of dollars and work will proceed immediately. Already the basement is built and when finished the structure, which will be in view of the lake, will be an imposing one.

In a few days also, the local lodge of the A. F. & A. Hamer is nearing completion on Nelson avenue and will be a great addition to that part of the town. Other buildings are in view for early commencement, in addition to two more just finished by E. W. WILLOW POINT, April 30.—On Wednesday evening, April 26, the committee of Crystal club gave a very enjoyable dance at the hall. The hall was beautifully decorated with festoons of mauve and white flags and evergreens.

The supper and ice cream were served by the members of the committee, assisted by their friends. Mrs. Bayley had charge of the decorations. Mr. Corder gave his general supervision.

Dancing was kept up until a late hour.

An artist was noticed making sketches of the dancers, which will no doubt be very interesting, but probably not very easy to get a chance of seeing, as he was a stranger to the settlement.

POPE'S NOTE STIMULATES CONFERENCE

preached here by Don Luigi Sturzo, leader of the Italian Catholic party, who is attaining a unique position in an unofficial capacity at the conference. There seems to be a remarkable identity of views concerning international cooperation and international brotherhood proclaimed by Sturzo with those Lloyd George has recently been urging in connection with the necessity of making some cooperative arrangement with all the peoples of Europe, including especially Russia and Germany.

Private Property Is Problem.

Officially, the economic conference saw little activity today. The jurists who are striving to compose the differing views of France and Great Britain on the question of the settlement of the Russian war debts met this afternoon and made considerable progress. Their report will be submitted to the conference, as will also the plan to dispose of the vexing problem of private property in Russia which was confiscated by the Soviet government and nationalized. France wants it restored if it can be located, but Britain will be content with enjoying the use of it.

The jurists appear to have discovered some formula which, according to rumors, mentions neither nationalization, ownership of private property nor capitalization in a way to offend the Soviet followers of nationalism or the supporters of capitalism in other countries.

World Can Do Without.

GENOA, April 30.—The preamble of the proposals to Russia, adopted yesterday by the subcommittee on Russian affairs of the economic conference, begins by emphasizing the desire of all countries participating in the conference to consider earnestly and sympathetically the problem of the restoration of Russia in order to reestablish peace throughout the European continent. After setting forth the situation in Russia, the preamble carefully points out that the world, although temporarily embarrassed by the fact that Russia no longer exports foodstuffs and raw materials, can very well go on without her because this deficiency will be filled from other sources and "because commerce, like water, always finds new channels when the old ones are obstructed."

The preamble insists upon the necessity of foreign producers and traders reentering Russia, but says this is attainable only by insuring for foreigners who possess property in Russia their safety, and by acknowledging Russia's debts.

"Capital will flow into Russia the moment confidence is reestablished," it says.

PARIS, April 30.—There is absolute agreement between Vice-Premier Barthou and Premier Poincare and all the members of the cabinet regarding the attitude of the French delegation at Genoa, it was said semi-officially at the foreign office on Saturday.

OUST SWITZERLAND FOR CONDENSED MILK

LONDON, April 30.—Discussing the importation of condensed milk to Great Britain, the agricultural market report, issued by the minister of agriculture, today refers to the great modification in trade conditions in recent years, the change being mainly in one direction.

The publication shows that North America has now almost completely ousted Switzerland from the position it held 10 years ago, when that country practically supplied the whole English trade. Canada now takes second place only to the United States in the sweetened whole condensed milk trade. Canada's maximum exportation to Great Britain occurred in 1910. Australia and New Zealand, says the report, are now entering the market as shippers.

Dail Eireann President Has Cordial Reception All Along Line

BELFAST, April 30.—Arthur Griffith, president of the Dail Eireann, accompanied by two members, Milroy and Robbins, with a bodyguard, had a cordial reception at all the midland stations on his way to Clare last night. At Mullingar, where the two factions have been active of late, Mr. Griffith was met by a guard of honor of the First Eastern division, while at Mouate, West Meath, Robbins' native place, crowds packed the depot.

General McKeown, chief of staff of the troops and staff, joined the party at Athlone. It was at Athlone that Brigadier-General Adamson was shot a few days ago. Appeals for a speech were disregarded, but when asked about the failure of the peace conference, the Dail president said he would make a pronouncement before the elections and enlighten the people on the points of difference.

Insurgent troops have seized the customs house at Galway and the bonded ware house belonging to John Miller, of the same place, says the Irish Times. Commandant Fleming, it was also announced, took charge of the books of the Wexford custom house and announced he would take vigorous action to uphold the republic in the area under his control in the event of a satisfactory agreement not being reached.

MARKET SHOWS MORE STRENGTH

Oils Lead in Short Session; Rub Out Drop of Mid-Week

NEW YORK, April 29.—From the very outset today's short stock market session showed breadth and strength, net gains of one to almost five points going far to efface the partial reaction of the mid-week.

Standard Oils and similar shares, notably Associated Oil, Pacific Mexican and Pan-American Petroleum and several of the cheaper domestic shares constituted the most conspicuous features.

Independent steels again were favored on persistent reports of imminent announcement from a much discussed merger and coppers denoted a strong tone despite publication of additional statements which disclosed the precarious state of that industry in the past year.

Motors and accessories trailed along at one to two point gains, although Studebaker, one of the most active issues of the session, reacted on the news that the directors had not declared more than the regular dividend on the common stock.

Rails held their ground, but investment issues, with such exceptions as Atlantic Coast line and Illinois Central, gave way in prominence to the speculative group. There were especially heavy dealings in Wheeling and Lake Erie common and preferred at substantial gains, some of the better known coalers also strengthening. Sales amounted to 775,000 shares.

Foreign exchanges improved on the more reassuring advices from abroad, sterling holding at within half a cent of the week's best and the Paris rate rising on denial of the probable resignation of the French cabinet.

Actual loans and discounts of the clearing house for the week showed another large expansion, the increase of $67,000,000 making a total of about $125,000,000 in the past three weeks. Net and demand deposits increased by $25,000,000 and a moderate cash gain increased excess reserves to almost $13,500,000.

Contrary to the broad and active movement in stocks at higher levels the bond market was relatively restricted and irregular. The Liberty series registered narrow and uncertain movements and internationals were dull.

Moderate gains were made by coalers, especially Chesapeake & Ohio convertible 4 1-2s, Reading 4s and Erie general 4s. Western and southwestern rails were inclined to react, Chicago & Alton 3 1-2s falling 2 1-2 points. Local utilities also lost ground, New York, Westchester & Boston losing 1 1-4 and Consolidated Gas 7s 1 point. Total sales, par value, aggregated $9,847,000.

Toronto Board

TORONTO, April 30.—The week closed with a sharp upturn in the prices of a number of securities listed on the Toronto stock exchange, which have been under pressure recently. There were only one or two weak points in the list and recessions were unimportant.

Abitibi was the sensation and in heavy demand advanced 2¼ points to a new high of 54. Spanish River sold at 94, or 6 points higher.

Brazilian led the utilities, closing at 45½, representing a net gain of 1¼ points.

Atlantic Sugar sold slightly higher at 19½ or up .

Trading in Victory bonds fell away sharply but prices held firm.

Montreal List

MONTREAL, April 30.—Saturday's session of trading on the local stock exchange was a continuance of the upward drive of Friday and the papers were again prominent, both in activity and strength.

Howard Smith had one of the greatest gains, being 3 points up at 68.

Another large gain was one of three points in Montreal Tramways to 145. Losses were registered by five issues of which the highest were a point each in Atlantic Sugar and National Breweries.

WHEAT BREAKS

CHICAGO, April 30.—The shakedown in May wheat, looked for today, was delayed until during the last hour of trading, when prices broke nearly five cents, when selling orders came into the pit. The market lacked support but a few cash houses bought a little at the bottom, and that accounted for a recovery of part of the loss.

The finish was unchanged to 2¾c lower with May $1.39½ to $1.39¾ and July $1.26⅛ to $1.26¼. Corn was ⅜c to ⅝c down and oats were off ½c to 1c. Provisions were unchanged to 15c higher.

HONOR JOURNALIST

EDMONTON, Alta., April 30.—A tribute to the position held by him in journalism in the west was accorded to the Hon. Frank Oliver at the annual meeting of the Edmonton Press club, when he was elected lifelong honorary president of the club.

The resolution embodying the proposal was moved by J. M. Imrie, who said that in the Hon. Frank Oliver they had one who held a unique position in the city and one deserving of all the honor they could give him. He had taken part in the early development days of the city, had watched over and worked for its welfare. The resolution was seconded by C. R. Morrison and called by acclamation by the remainder of the members.

UNIVERSITY LACROSSE MEN LOSE LAST GAME

BROOKLYN, April 30.—The Crescent A. C. lacrosse team on Saturday defeated the Oxford-Cambridge players by a score of 6 to 1 in the last of a series of games arranged with the British visitors in the United States.

The international lacrosse cup goes to the Oxford-Cambridge combination, which scored the greater number of goals during the series.

The team will play several games in Canada before sailing for home.

BREAK RELAY RACE RECORD

DES MOINES, Iowa, April 30.—The University of Illinois relay team shattered the world's outdoor record in winning the Drake meet four-mile relay in 17:45 on Saturday. The former record of 17:51 1-5 was established by the Boston Athletic association in 1913.

HUDDERSFIELD WINS FINAL ON PENALTY KICK

Preston Captain Protests Against Penalty; Game Replete With Fouls

LONDON, April 29.—Huddersfield won the final for the English cup from Preston North End on a penalty kick 23 minutes after the second half of the game commenced this afternoon. Sixty thousand persons watched breathlessly while Referee Fowler carefully placed the ball on the dreaded spot and saw Smith drive it well out of Mitchell's reach for the only goal of the game.

The match was replete with fouls and the Preston captain vigorously protested that a penalty kick should not be given against the Lancashire team.

The playing of McCall, Preston's center half and captain, was one of the outstanding features of a strenuous game. Repeatedly he led the attack with brilliant passes and again he took staunch drives at goal, one or two of which were narrowly warded off by Mutch.

He held Islip, the Huddersfield skipper and center forward, practically throughout the game, and was a tower of strength, as he has been to the club all season.

Bradford City Relegated.

Considerable interest is still being maintained in the league tourney. Arsenal have now made their position secure by defeating Bradford City away from home and the latter team are now condemned to the second division next season. The other Bradford club is at the bottom of the second division and so will pass into the third division, thus enabling a new record of descent from the first to the third division within two seasons.

Tottenham Hotspurs are favorites for the position of runners up in the first league, Liverpool being the leaders.

Nottingham Forest are now the certain champions of the second league and are therefore due to be promoted to the first league. Stoke must beat Bristol City next week to retain a chance of promotion, otherwise Barnsley will accompany Notts Forest upward.

Second Division Interesting.

An interesting situation obtains at the foot of the second division, where Coventry, Blackpool and Bristol City are all fighting to escape relegation. Of these teams Bristol City appear to be doomed to accompany Bradford to the third league.

In the southern league Plymouth and Southampton are still battling for the championship, with the advantage to the former.

Stockport heads the northern section of the third league.

PITCHER ENTERS HALLS OF FAME

Robertson for White Sox Pitches No Run No Hit Game Against Tigers

AMERICAN LEAGUE

DETROIT, April 30.—In keeping the Tigers from first base throughout the nine innings Robertson, obtained by the White Sox from Minneapolis, paralleled the feat of Addie Joss, hurling against Ed Walsh of Chicago, on October 2, 1908.

Robertson was given faultless support, particularly by McClellan and Colins, whose snappy fielding retired six Tigers at first. Collins also retired four on flies. Only six balls were driven very far into the outfield and these were gathered in by Hooper and Mostil with little difficulty.

Robertson fanned six Detroiters as part of his contribution to a perfect day's work.

Manager Cobb called in two pinch hitters in the ninth in an effort to stop Robertson, but they went down as their teammates did before them.

Sunday.

DETROIT, April 30.—Charlie Robertson, Chicago American league pitcher, entered baseball's hall of fame today by pitching a no-run, no-hit game against the Tigers, the White Sox winning, 2 to 0. Not a Tiger reached first base.

Provincial Voters' List Closes on Saturday; Non-Voters in Byelection Off

Voters who omitted casting their votes in the late provincial byelection have not yet shown much interest in the fact that their names will be left off the provincial voters' list now being made up unless they reregister, and there remains just six days in which to attend to this matter.

"Some seem to be under the impression that byelections do not count in determining voting qualification," said Ed Ferguson, registrar of voters, last night in discussing this matter, "but in that belief they are quite mistaken. The act says 'the last election,' and makes no exception of byelections."

British subjects who have resided in the province for the last six months and in the riding for the past month are eligible to have their names added to the list.

Registration will close Saturday, which gives just six clear weeks before the court of revision, which meets on the third Monday in June.

Personal Mention

Daniel Herb, of this city, left last night on a visit to Vancouver. He expects to be away about one month.

Mrs. T. A. Traves is confined to Kootenay Lake General hospital with a severe attack of inflammatory rheumatism.

G. A. Edgcumbe, formerly of the Hudson's Bay company's staff, leaves this morning for Procter to go into business on his own account. He is taking over the general store business previously operated by Robert Walton

MUSIC LOVERS FILL THEATER

Laszlo Schwartz and Local Artists Are Heard at Sacred Concert

Last night's sacred concert in the Starland theater, featuring the farewell performance of Laszlo Schwartz, the eminent Hungarian violinist-composer, attracted a crowd of music lovers that filled the theater to standing room. Mr. Schwartz was assisted by local artists, Mrs. J. T. Andrews and Master "Jimmy" Benson, whose appearances here in the past have met with deservedly popular approval, and Miss Helen Hodgson, pianoforte accompanist, whose sympathetic playing was of great assistance to the soloists.

Mayor C. F. McHardy presided. In a brief introduction of the artists he touched on the need for good music in the life of the community, and commented that the appearances of good artists were all too few in Nelson.

The program was:

Vocal solos, Mrs. J. T. Andrews—"Land of the Sky Blue Water" (Cadman); "My Curly Headed Baby" (Clutsam); "On the Road to Mandalay (Kipling-Speaks); "By the Waters of Minnetonka" (Lieurance); "Gentle Shadows," with violin obbligato, (Ware-Schwartz), and "For You Alone" with violin obbligato (Geehi).

Piano solos, Master "Jimmy" Benson—"Valse Arabesque" (Lack); "Wedding March" (Grieg); "Pierrett" (Chaminade), and "Minuette" (Paderewski).

Violin solos, Laszlo Schwartz—"Gavotte" (Gossec); "Air" (Martini); "Ancient Dutch Dances" (Dittersdorfer); "Annie Laurie"; "Hungarian Melodies and Dances" (Ware-Schwartz), and another selection by special request.

SHAMROCKS WIN JUNIOR MATCH

Come From Behind in Second Half and Defeat Wolves Comfortably

Saturday's junior city league soccer match, Mountain Wolves vs. Shamrocks, was the prettiest junior clash seen here so far this season and was a delight to the good crowd of interest spectators. Play for the greater part was very even and was strongly contested, and the final score of 4-1 in favor of the Shamrocks was rather unexpected.

All through the first half the aggressive little Wolves held their opponents comfortably, and were leading with the only goal scored at half time. Luck was against them in the second, however, as they had to play against a growing wind. They battled up well, but were hardly a match for their first class opponents, favored by the wind.

Doubtless the Shamrocks would have come out on the long end of the score, but hardly to the tune of 4-1 had there been no wind. Both teams showed pretty good combination and were in good playing shape. They will make some interesting fixtures in the junior series.

The teams were:

Mountain Wolves—Goal, W. Freno; backs, W. Jeffs and A. Jeffs; halves, G. Houston, G. McLeary and A. Brown; forwards, J. Wallace, L. O'Neil, E. Whitfield, C. Wallach and G. Campion.

Shamrocks—Goal, G. Roynon; backs, M. St. Denis and G. Fawcett; halves, T. Meredith, F. McKenzie and J. James; forwards, O. St. Denis, H. Scott, K. Rees, K. Campbell and C. St. Denis.

Referee—C. W. Tyler. Coaches—Wolves, A. Wallach; Shamrockes, R. Campbell.

COMPLAIN LIQUOR CONTROL IS LAX

VICTORIA, April 29.—Administration of the liquor law in the northern part of the province by the present liquor control board is declared to be so "unsatisfactory" that an appeal is being made direct to Hon. A. M. Manson, attorney-general.

Townspeople of New Hazelton held a public meeting, where evidence in support of the charge of loose liquor administration was cited, including evidence of illegal liquor transactions taken at the recent fire inquiry.

FIGHT TO HOLD RIVER IN CHECK

Mississippi Floods Extend; Thousands Help to Stem Advances

NEW ORLEANS, April 30.—While water flowing through the crevasses in the lower Mississippi river continued to cover more land today, the fight to prevent other breaks in the levees was carried on ceaselessly. In the third Mississippi levee district alone, no less than 10,000 men were engaged in the fight to hold the swollen river in its channel. Church services were dispensed with in many places, the pastors leading their flocks to the levees.

Other hundreds spent the day in searching the flooded areas for marooned families and removing them in small boats to places of safety.

The enthralling story of three girls diametrically opposite, mentally, physically and socially.

CHRISTINE — Social butterfly, with a heart of gold beneath a cynical exterior.

BARBARA — A working girl with a consuming ambition to lift herself to a higher plane.

NELL — With good intentions, but weak with no strength to stem life's swift current.

Their lives entwined in a drama of absorbing interest, maganificent settings, elaborate gowns, and a dramatic theme of surpassing power.

Fatigue, says Dr. Harrington of the Massachusetts Industrial Bureau, "comes on more quickly from eye strain than from any amount of muscular work." Unknowingly—most workers are constantly straining their eyes—taxing their nervous system—sapping their energy.
