NEAR EASTERN AFFAIRS HAVE MANY TWISTS

Constantinople Easier, but French and British Have Difficulties

MANDATES BITTER SUBJECT TO TURKS

Curzon Schemes to Circumvent Maneuvers Against British Prestige

LONDON, Nov. 14.—(By Canadian Press Cable).—Although the near eastern crisis has taken a distinctly favorable turn tonight with the news from Constantinople that Lieut-Gen. Sir Charles Harrington thinks it is not yet necessary to proclaim military law, Anglo-French difficulties have have not been settled.

While Lord Curzon, the British foreign secretary, is delighted with the implication in the French semi-official statement, that France will fight if the Kemalists attack the allied troops in violation of the Mudania agreement, he sent Premier Poincare today a long and detailed questionnaire, asking just what he will do at Lausanne. This seeks the French attitude on Moseur, the Dodecanez, Syria, the protection of minorities, turning over Constantinople to the Turks, assuring the freedom of the straits and capitulation. It is not believed here that M. Poincare, in view of his announced desire to go to the Lausanne conference with a free hand, will give a firm and binding declaration of policy on any of these questions.

Thorn in Turks Side

Lord Curzon's program is to get what he can now and try to straighten out the remainder in Paris, Friday night on the way to Lausanne. Moseul, with its oil and other resources, is certain to provide one of the bitterest points attempted in bargaining with the Turk, but the British attitude in that is not discussable on this angle, as Great Britain holds the mandate.

The campaign of Premier Bonar Law's chief supporter, Lord Beaverbrook, to give up both the Palestine and Mesopotamia mandate, however, will embolden the Turk to demand both. The Sofia correspondent of the Jewish Chronicle here wires that Kemal tried to get the chief rabbi at Constantinople to demand that Palestine be transferred to a Turkish mandate and when the latter refused to interfere in the political affairs Kemal turned the subject over to a committee of Turkish Jews who will make the same demand at Lausanne.

Queries French Attitude

Lord Curzon wants to know whether France will keep the Syrian mandate, thus protecting the flank of the British mandates; and a thorough query on the Dodecanez seeks to line up the French with or against the Italians.

French consuls having been driven out of Anatolia, M. Poincare having given assurance today that he would not discuss with Ismet Pasha in Paris anything that might compromise the Lausanne proceedings, there is a distinct hope here that the French attitude will be like the British on the question of minorities, Constantinople, the straits and capitulations. There is a disposition to believe, however, that M. Poincare wants to wrest from the British the prestige in the near east on this occasion; and Lord Curzon's note is said to be carefully devised to prevent any manoeuver at Lausanne which would enhance French prestige there at serious expense to the British.

Bonar Law Cautions

Notwithstanding the demands by Lord Beaverbrook, Bonar Law has refused to promise whether he will withdraw immediately from the near east. Lord Rothermere has taken up the campaign now, however, printing a long series of articles by Sir Percival Phillips, formerly a Pittsburgh journalist, detailing how the mandates cost money and mean only a scramble of agile arabs for jobs while refusing to pay taxes. Should the demands be pressed in the new parliament, however, it would find the Lloyd George Liberals lined up straight with Bonar Law, and the possibility of fusing into a new coalition on such an issue is likely to deter the Mail and Daily Express from pressing their demands for Britain to get out.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—The pilotless army airplane, equipped with an automatic control device, said to be more accurate and dependable than any human pilot, has been developed to a point where it has made successful flights of more than 90 miles, it was announced today by the United States army air service.

FOOD QUESTION IS URGENT ONE FOR GERMANY

May Hasten Settlement of Reparations; Two Million Tons of Grain Needed

PARIS, Nov. 14.—Germany must find some way of getting 8,000,000,000,000 marks' worth of grain to feed her people during the next year, the reparations commission learned in its investigation in Berlin.

As this amount is about double the present total of paper money in circulation in Germany, purchase of the grain is deemed obviously impossible except through speedy financial rehabilitation of the country or food credits from abroad. It seems to be quite generally considered that both the credits and the food would have to come from America.

Minimum to Prevent Starvation

The 8,000,000,000,000 marks represents Germany's import requirements for the next 12 months of two million tons of grain, the minimum amount thought necessary to prevent starvation. Any attempt to buy this cereal in a foreign market would, in the opinion of experts, cause a complete collapse of the mark, with a serious reaction in the exchanges of the other European countries.

The only way in which Germany can be saved from such a problem, it is declared, is by stabilization of the mark at a figure which would restore, in a measure, international confidence.

Look to America for Supplies.

The allied nations, including France, realize the seriousness of the situation in Germany, but no European country is able to export the needed grain because of domestic shortages. There is a possibility, the experts say, that some grain may be had from Russia, but America is expected to supply virtually all the German needs.

The food question may serve to hasten an agreement among the allies concerning Germany's reparations, although up to the present there has been no indication that Premier Poincare has changed his mind about the necessity of exacting further rigid guarantees as a means of compelling the Reichsbank to meet its indemnity payments.

LAUSANNE, Nov. 14.—Ismet Pasha, head of the Nationalist delegation, left for Paris tonight to discuss conference matters with the French. His departure has created all kinds of speculations concerning attempted reconciliation of the views of France and Great Britain.

FORCE ENTRY INTO CONVENT, ASSAULT NUNS

French Complain of Kemalist Soldiers' Excesses in Brusa

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 14.—Another disagreeable aspect to the general situation has arisen from reports from Brusa that two French sisters of charity have been assaulted by Kemalist soldiers, who forced an entrance into a convent. The French authorities here have vigorously protested to Rafet Pasha, the Nationalist governor of Constantinople, demanding an immediate explanation and assurance against a repetition of such assaults.

Concedes Right of Allied Forces to Control Nationals

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 14.—Rafet Pasha, Natoinalist governor of Constantinople, today conceded in principle the right of the allied forces of occupation to exercise police control over their own nationals. The allies are understood to have pressed for similar jurisdiction over the minority populations, but Rafet refused. He agreed to a further discussion of the subject tomorrow with the allied generals.

VICTORIA, Nov. 14.—Maj R. J. Burde's eight-hour day bill was again introduced in the legislature today and given its first reading.

The mother of the boy was the only witness of the accident.

BONAR LAW HAS STRONG OPPONENTS

Independent Liberal and Labor Candidate in Field Against Premier

OTHER MINISTERS ARE FAIRLY SAFE

Churchill and Asquith Likely to Carry Their Constituencies

LONDON, Nov. 14.—The Glasgow Herald regards with some concern Premier Bonar Law's prospects in his old constituency of Glasgow, where there is a considerable vote and a Labor candidate, Roslyn Mitchell, also an Independent Liberal, with an enthusiastic following, Sir George Paish, the noted economist, who has vigorously advocated his free trade and reparations views.

However, there was a difference of about 13,000 votes between Bonar Law and his Laborite opponent in the last election and this should give the premier a margin even with two candidates against him while his new dignity and prestige should be a valuable factor in his favor.

Baird Runs Biggest Risk

Most of the other members of the new government appear to be fairly safe. Sir John Baird, the new commissioner of works, who is a candidate in Ayr district, perhaps runs the biggest risk. He is opposed by a Liberal and a Laborite.

Rt. Hon. Winston Churchill, despite, or because of the churlishness of the reception he was given last night at a meeting in Dundee, is considered safe for election in that constituency.

Rt. Hon. H. H. Asquith, the former premier, is likely to be returned again for Paisley, and his chief lieutenant, Sir Donald MacLean, is being closely beset in Peebles and southern Midlothian.

CHARGE INDIANS WITH ATTEMPT TO WRECK TRAIN

Five Redskins From Rainey River Said to Have Removed Switchlight

FORT FRANCES, Ont., Nov. 14.—Five Indian youths from the Indian reserve on Rainey river will appear before Magistrate Holland here tomorrow morning for preliminary hearing on the charge, under section 282 of the criminal code, of attempting to injure persons traveling on the Canadian National railways. The men are Robert McGinnis, Peter Cyr, Gilbert Blackbird, Charles Namahuk and Tom Namahuk.

It is alleged the five men on November 6 last attempted to wreck train No. 4, Winnipeg to Toronto, by removing the switch light at Tobas siding, about five miles west of Emo, Ont., and breaking the lock open. The rails were thrown apart so as to derail the train.

Engineer Acted Promptly

Noticing the absence of the switch-light, Engineer Smith applied the emergency air brake and the train skidded almost a full train-length before stopping. Fortunately the engine crowded the rails at the switch point over to the siding and the train was brought to a standstill after some four or five coaches and the engine had run onto the siding.

The authorities took the matter up immediately with officials of the Canadian National railway and within a short time the five Indians were arrested.

Gold Shipment Only Temporary Movement to Balance Exchange

TORONTO, Nov. 14.—With reference to the large shipment of gold from the United States to Canada, Sir John Aird, vice-president and general manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, today said it was only a temporary movement, the explanation of which was that Canadian funds were at a premium. He said it was cheaper for the time being to send gold to Canada than to Canadian exchanges in New York.

Sir John intimated that it was probable the gold movement would be in the other direction before long, indicating that Canada and the United States at least have once again returned to normal.

As to Canadian money being above par in the United States, Sir John said it was probably due to the sale of Canadian securities in the United States and were the sales to cease this country might once more return to the adverse exchange rate.

FOG MAY SPOIL SURE MAJORITY FOR BONAR LAW

Lloyd George Makes Telling Attacks on Opponents of Both Camps

LONDON AND HOME COUNTIES SOLID

Firm for Conservatives; Scotland Doubtful; Lloyd Georgians Cherish Hope

LONDON, May 14—The final guns of the election campaign were fired tonight and if a heavy fog that enveloped London and the rest of southern England in gloom for three days, persists tomorrow, it may overturn what looks like a sure small majority for Bonar Law. For the labor party will vote, fog or no fog, but the comfortable Tories may not wish to expose themselves to the damp when they can with greater comfort sit by their firesides. This is particularly dangerous, as most Tories have felt that success was assured. But late tonight the mists have held up much wheel traffic, all trains were late and the stations jammed with mobs struggling to go home.

Lloyd George's own headquarters concede unofficially 320 Conservative seats in the next parliament, but still believe the former minister will have between 500 and 100 devoted followers behind him who, with defections from the Conservatives, will suffice to throw out the Bonar Law government if it yields to reaction.

Premier Has Hard Fight

Bonar Law himself is having a hard fight in Glasgow, where Sir George Paish has developed unexpected strength, and Scotland generally is doubtful ground. But the main strongholds of the Conservatives—London and home counties—seem likely to present serried ranks of Unionists.

Lloyd George made a very telling attack upon his opponents of both camps today when, at Bolton, he declared that both Walter Runciman and Herbert Asquith warmly fathered anti-dumping tariffs when agreed to by the allies in Paris, and presented them in the form of a resolution in the commons. "What a fine child" they said of them," said Lloyd George. "And now they say:

"Turn him out because he is not in favor of the very proposals we drafted with our hands in Paris.'"

The surprise of Mr. Bonar Law's last day of the campaign was the appearance of Sir Robert Horne, chancellor of the exchequer in the former government, with him in the Conservative club in Glasgow, while last week he appeared on the same platform with Lloyd George in the same time. There is no such machinery for gathering unofficial returns as prevails in America, for the ballot boxes are not opened until the time set for counting and then all are counted at a central point of the constituency.

Old times scenes with modern embellishments are promised for Wednesday night, the prominent hotels cooperating for a festival which, they say, will be livelier than that of Armistice night. The results will be flashed at many busy points, and announced in cafes and theaters. A band will play in Trafalgar square during the evening.

CONDITIONS OF ELECTION PERPLEXING

No Outstanding Political Issue; Voters Face Puzzling Situation

LONDON, Nov. 14.—(By the Associated Press).—The most uneventful election campaign in modern times, and also the most orderly—for there has been but little of the usual accompaniment of disorderly or interrupted meetings—came to an end tonight with the leading figures in the struggle engaged in speech-making up to the last minute.

The campaign has been unique, in that there is no great clear-cut question before the public, therefore, the electors who will record their votes tomorrow must be in a puzzled mood, for not only is there no outstanding issue, but in the present perplexing and divided condition of the political parties, they cannot base their decisions on mere party lines.

Electors Reticent

The election canvassers confess themselves hopelessly unable to make forecasts on account of the unprecedented reticence of the electors concerning their preferences. This is usually attributed to the desire to hide their sentiments, but it more likely is due to the fact that the electors themselves are unable to express an opinion where there are no plain issues.

If the elections themselves have not greatly excited the country, there is almost unprecedented curiosity to know the results of the polling which begins at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning, closing in most cases at 8 o'clock in the evening, but in many of the urban districts at 9 o'clock, in order to give the workers ample time to vote.

Arrangements Elaborate.

Never before have such elaborate arrangements been made to give the public an early tally of the pollings. For instance, in London, the suburban train services, busses, trams and tubes will be kept running to an unusually late hour for the convenience of citizens waiting up to learn the outcome, which will be flashed from the newspaper offices,

STOMACH TROUBLES ARE DUE TO ACIDITY

Tells Safe, Certain, Speedy Relief for Acid Indigestion.

So-called stomach troubles, such as indigestion, gas, sourness, stomach-ache and inability to retain food are in probably nine cases out of ten simply evidence that excessive secretion of acid is taking place in the stomach, causing the formation of gas and acid indigestion.

Gas distends the stomach and causes that full, oppressive, burning feeling sometimes known as heartburn, while the acid irritates and inflames the delicate lining of the stomach. The trouble lies entirely in the excess development or secretion of acid.

To stop or prevent this souring of the food contents of the stomach and to neutralize the acid, and make it bland and harmless, a teaspoonful of Bisurated magnesia, a good and effective corrector of acid stomach, should be taken in a quarter of a glas of hot or cold water after eating or whenever gas, sourness or acidity is felt. This sweetens the stomach and neutralizes the acidity in a few moments and is a perfectly harmless and inexpensive remedy to use.

An antiacid, such as Bisurated Magnesia, which can be obtained from any druggist in either powder or tablet form enables the stomach to do its work properly without the aid of artificial digestments. Magnesia comes in several forms, so be careful to ask for and take only Bisurated Magnesia, which is especially prepared for the above purpose.

Will Indicate Trend

In more than half the constituencies the ballots will not be completely counted or announced until Thursday, but the figures from over 200 constituencies will be declared Wednesday night between 9 o'clock and midnight. These should be amply sufficient to give a good indication of how the count is going. The complexion of the new parliament, however, will not be definitely known until Thursday. Perhaps what is being decided, above all, in the polling booths tomorrow, is whether Great Britain shall return to the party system in politics or follow most of the European countries in the adoption of a group system.

Premier Bonar Law and his adherents profess great confidence in the return of their party with a working majority but this is not shared in other quarters.

Agricultural Vote in Doubt.

The exigencies of the war gave agricultural laborers high wages such as they never enjoyed in the past, and thereby gave them new standards of life and a new outlook; they were placed in an almost similar position as the town industrial workers, with wage boards to regulate the scale of wages. In the past year, in conformity with the universal fall in wage and reduction in the price of wheat and agricultural produce, agricultural laborers lost their advantage; the wages board disappeared and conditions reverted to something approximating prewar conditions.

It remains to be seen whether these conditions will draw the rural voter from his time-honored alliance to the Conservative party. If so, it will be the Asquithian Liberals who will benefit, as the Labor party concentrates its attention on urban constituencies because the appeal of Labor is mostly to the industrial workers in the town. There is general agreement that the Asquithian Liberals will come much better out of the elections than was expected a few weeks ago.

Two Unknown Factors.

To sum up, the two unknown factors in the most open election for many years is now the women will vote and to what exent advocacy of a capital levy has injured the prospects of the Labor party.

Another point is how far Lloyd George retains his old ascendancy with his countrymen.

ELECTION HAS MANY ANGLES

School Children Happy; Women's Vote Depends on Weather; Actions Pending

LONDON, Nov. 14.—(By Canadian Press Cable).—School children at least, always welcome a general election. Thousands of them will get a holiday tomorrow, polling day, because the schools will be required for the purpose of polling stations.

A dense fog prevails over a considerable part of the country. Consequently the candidates who fancy themselves secure in the women's vote are quaking, because the experience in the recent municipal elections show that the women will not turn out to vote unless the weather is kind to them.

Crop of Libel Writs

A fairly large crop of writs for libel in different parts of the country has resulted from speeches of candidates, but probably nothing will be heard from the threatened legal actions, in the majority of cases after election day.

Rather different, however, is the police court proceedings instituted against James Seddon, Independent candidate for Hanley, Staffordshire, for alleged illegal practices, "by making a false statement against personal character."

Seddon is charged with having stated that his Liberal opponent went to America, when conscription was instituted in this country.

Miners Endeavor to Arrange Terms on Edmonton Field

CALGARY, Nov. 14.—Miners' and operators' officials will confer in Edmonton on November 20, when the miners will try to arrange terms for an agreement governing working conditions in the Edmonton field similar to the agreement existing between the Western Canada Coal Operators' association and the United Mine Workers of America, district No. 18, was stated Tuesday by William Sherman, miners' president in district No. 18, today.

One hundred per cent organization of approximately 1100 miners in the Edmonton field, U.M.W.A., is expected shortly. All of the miners in the field except at Cardiff were organized by the mass meeting in Edmonton Sunday, and organization of the Cardiff miners was expected Tuesday, President Sherman said. "We have won all of our points regarding wages and agreements in district No. 18 up to the present, and I don't think we will fail to obtain an agreement with the operators."

Comedy Actor Dead in Bronx

NEW YORK ,Nov. 14. — Lying against the mossy bank of a secluded ravine in the Bronx, a lighted cigarette dangling from his smiling lips, the lifeless body of Arthur Crawford, actor, humorist, "the man of a wealth of funny ideas," was found today, a bullet wound in the heart. A revolver lay at his side.

In Crawford's pocket they found a letter addressed to his son and a will. The letter contained a key to a safety deposit vault and informed the son he would find $8000 in the Bank of Montreal.

Presbyterian Synod of Manitoba Warmly Urges Church Union

WINNIPEG, Nov. 14.—(By Canadian Press).—The Presbyterian synod of Manitoba, in session here today, adopted a resolution reaffirming its repeated declaration in favor of organic union with the Methodist and Congregational churches; and further declared that it was the conviction of the synod that, in harmony with the resolution of the general assembly in 1921, immediate steps should be taken as may be deemed best to consummate organic union as expeditiously as possible. An overture to the general assembly at Porth Arthur next June setting forth the opinion of the synod, will be prepared.

National Problems Need Union

"The problems, political, social, educational and religious, arising from the presence of so large a proportion of non-English speaking people in Canada, in the upbuilding of our national life, are so grave, so complex and so pressing as to demand the thought and action of a united Protestant Canadian church and every effort toward the realization of such a church should be earnestly made. Denominational churches can never deal successfully with those great national problems on the question the resolution states.

The non-Christian world would never be won to Christian faith by denominational church and in both home and foreign fields, the cry for a united church was insistent and imperative, the resolution continued and could not be longer disregarded.

Assumes Large Dimensions

The movement for the creation of union congregations had assumed very large dimensions, the resolution continued. In three synods of eastern Canada, there were in existence 228 union charters and in two synods of western Canada, 197 union charters, although this movement had been greatly retarded by the expectation of organic union. It was an impressive fact that, outside of the cities within the bounds of the Manitoba synod, there were only seven purely Presbyterian charges, as against about 100 united charges.

"This movement cannot be ignored nor checked and any suggestion of unnecessary delay in the consummation of organic union will inevitably vastly accelerate among denominational charges the movement toward union congregations," the resolution said.

JUDGMENT IS RESERVED IN LOGGING CASE

Action Is to Recover Excess Advances Made by Acomb to Rady

DEFENDANT PUTS IN A COUNTER CLAIM

Question Is Who Owned the Logs When Boom Broke and Some Got Away

Judge J. R. Brown of Grand Forks who is presiding at the sitting of the county court here, yesterday reserved judgment in the case in which H. L. Acomb sought to recover excess advances to the amoutn of $810.29, made to John C. Rady of Cooper Creek, who is represented by James O'Shea of O'Shea & Irvine, in a logging contract on the Duncan river.

This case lasted from the morning till late in the afternoon. Three witnesses were called to the stand by E. P. Dawson of Brown & Dawson, for the plaintiff, during the afternoon—Capt. Malcolm McKinnon of the C. P. R. tug Hosmer, James C. Forbes, a former bookkeeper of H. L. Acomb, and John Mansfield, a certified scaler employed by Mr. Acomb for three months at his mill at Murphy's Landing. The two principals were also in the box for some time.

Asserts Counter Claim.

James O'Shea, acting for Mr. Rady, asserted a counter claim, as by a contract drawn up in August, 1921, the plaintiff was to purchase from Rady a quantity of white pine saw logs, to be got out on the Duncan river, and to be delivered in a boom at the mouth of the Duncan river, on Kootenay lake. At that time Mr. Acomb was contemplating the building of a mill at that point, to which Mr. Rady was to deliver 300,000 feet of logs by November 1. Later on, in January, 1922, there was another contract between the parties, by which Rady was to sell white pine, spruce, hemlock and cedar, to be delivered to the plaintiff.

Mr. Rady started work on the contract in August, as Acomb wanted some of the logs by September 15. Mr. Acomb then changed his mind as to the location of the mill, which was to have been located at Nine Mile, on Kootenay lake. Owing to the necessity of the plaintiff having logs to saw, Rady hurried along getting out the timber. Acomb, according to Rady, then asked if he could not put the logs in a boom on the river near to the place where they were being got out. This was agreed to, and the bom was prepared in order to have the logs ready for the mill. Mr. Acomb did not get his expected millsite at Nine-Mile, and in October Rady had got a lot of logs, approximately 200,000 feet in the boom, which he had constructed from his own boomsticks, until such a time as Acomb should be ready for the logs.

Freshet Causes Trouble.

A freshet on October 30 caused the logs boomed further up the river by Mr. Newcomen to come into Rady's boom, which broke, causing the logs to go down the river. A telegram received by Mr. Whitemore, Mr. Acomb's deputy, at Rady's camp, requested that he save as many logs as possible, as the logs were to be scaled as soon as they were taken to the mill. However, no mill was built until the end of December, all being scaled before being put into the boom by Mr. Rady or his men.

The plaintiff, said Mr. O'Shea, in the deal under the contract had credited the defendant with the logs he actually got, and did not have to make good for the lost logs. Since then many had been picked up. Mr. Rady had a scale of all logs delivered during contracts and claims a difference.

Rady Takes Stand.

Mr. Rady, who next took the stand, stated that he had entered into contract with Robert Bell and H. L. Acomb. The latter afterward took over the contract and accepted all responsibilities. The Acomb mill, stated Mr Rady, was to be built on the Duncan river about a mile from Kotenay lake. On the withdrawal of Mr. Bell as a partner, the deal fell through, and the Nine-Mile site was talked of. This also fell through. He then told of putting in a temporary boom, which was to be securely fastened and anchored on each side of the river. This boom was to remain until such time as the Forest mill boom chain could be brought from Nelson.

About October 8 or 9 the boom became quite full, and it was necessary to deck the logs on the river bank. He had at this time approximately 182,000 feet in the boom.

Rady at this point began to wonder if a mill was to be built, and received a telegram from Mr. Newcomen, the owner of the timber being boomed, to cease operations. The late Joseph Deschamps then looked over the boom and assured Mr. Newcomen that all was well, and accordingly Rady proceeded with the work. The freshet later raised the water 20 inches, and caused the break in the boom. On Acomb's request, that he try to save all the logs possible, Rady secured a launch and two men and proceeded to pick up the logs which remained in the Lardeau. Acomb paid for the men's labor, charging the bill to Rady, who had received no pay for his share of the work.

A mill was finally erected by Acomb about a quarter of a mile down the river from where the skidding operations were going on, and operations started about January 7, and the logs were then floated to the mill, where Acomb had put in a boom in December. Comparison of scaling by both men showed that the scale taken at the mill overran that taken by Rady himself, as he had kept a statement of scaling, which was produced in the court room. Rady stated that he had been credited with 94,048 feet of white pine, while his scaling showed that 105,085 feet had been put in the boom.

Asks for Dismissal

[illegible] appealed for a dismissal of the counter claim. If the logs were to be boomed, then, as Rady was holding the boom, it had nothing to do with Acomb. The logs were never placed in Acomb's boom, as there had been no evidence to show that.

Mr. O'Shea, however, pointed out that Rady had shown that there was a contract. It had been changed that the logs should be delivered in a boom, as Acomb was not sure where he wanted the logs. That Acomb was interested was evident by his telegram to Whitemore, and by his spending $300 to pick up the logs. According to the contract, all Rady needed to have done was to put the logs in the river. If Acomb's boom wasn't there, he would have to pay for the logs. It was Acomb's temporary arrangement.

His honor reserved the decision on the counter claim.

Cross-examined by E. P. Dawson, Rady stated that Acomb financed his operations, and that he was paid according to figures of a licensed scaler employed by Acomb. He admitted that he was not himself a licensed scaler, nor were any of his men. The boom was a double one, which, the previous winter, had held 1000 telegraph poles, and would have stood any ordinary weather conditions. All acounts, he stated, were settled by orders to Acomb, and he did not ever remember of any dispute over being charged with a bill for picking up logs.

"I would have picked up the logs anyway, as I wouldn't see a man's property going to waste," said Rady.

Acomb's Statement

H. L. Acomb, who took the stand in the afternoon, although he would not deny it, stated that he had no recollection of asking Rady to put the logs in a boom. "Had he decked them, I would have willingly met him half-way on the cost," said Acomb. He told of the way the business transactions were carried on between himself and Rady, stating that the boom was not a proper one for the river at that point. He had seen the boom but once, but Mr. Whitemore, who remained at the Rady camp, looked after his interests.

Cross-examined by Mr. O'Shea, he stated that although he knew the boom to be weak, he relied more upon the judgment of Mr. Rady, who knew the river and methods of handling logs better than he. He stated that he had sold a quantity of logs to the W. W. Powell company of Nelson last sprihg. These logs were mainly white pine, larch, fir, cedar and spruce, with marks "K34" and "B31." He admitted having spent $300 in clearing the Lardeau-Duncan river, from Marblehead to its mouth, of logs which were boomed there. After the mill was established, he had let the larger logs which could not be handled go down the river, where, on account of the low water, they stranded on the bars. Rady was not credited wtih these logs so let by.

"There is no evidence of the number of logs recovered from the broken boom?" asked Mr. O'Shea. Acomb replied in the negative.

Captain Malcolm McKinnon, who was in charge of the Ymir, which towed the big boom to Nelson, stated that he had left Nelson for Lardo on May 3 with boomsticks, later going back to Kaslo on May 7 for more sticks. He then made the return to the city in 67 hours, not losing any of the logs. He stated that he had not seen any "K34" logs floating around Kootenay lake.

James C. Forbes, Acomb's bookkeeper for nine months, from November, 1921, till June 1922, had never heard of any kicks from Rady, and had received his scale tally every night.

John Mansfield, a licensed scaler employed by Mr. Acomb, stated that he had scaled logs at Cooper creek for the months of January, February, and March, and had scaled all the logs but deadwood and other defective sticks. He stated to Mr. O'Shea that logs had been sent down the river without being scaled, but that he had no idea of the number sent down that way.

"It took me all my time minding my own business," stated the witness.

His Honor Pays Compliment

After the summing up of the case by both lawyers, Judge Brown stated that the difficulty in the case was that he was unable to get evidence of the number of feet in the boom, and the number of feet salvaged. The only one who should know how much was salvaged could not state it. "A pleasing thing about the whole case is that both parties are honest and frank witnesses," said the judge. "I feel that the claim is a large one. I will, however, work on the evidence, and reserve judgment."

HER THREE CHILDREN HAD WHOOPING COUGH

Many mothers make the mistake of thinking that whooping cough is not of serious importance, but it is one of the most dangerous diseases of infancy, and yearly causes more deaths than scarlet fever, typhoid or diphtheria, and is more common in female than male children.

DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP

is highly recommended by mothers everywhere for the relief of this trouble as it helps to clear the clogged-up air passages of the mucous and phlegm that has collected, and in this way brings on the "whoop" which brings the so-much-sought-for relief and heals and soothes the lungs.

Mrs. H. W. Maher, Kentville, N.S., writes: "My three children had whooping cough. I tried every medicine I could think of until an old gentleman told me to try Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. Before they had one bottle taken the cough seemed better, and after two bottles they were about well. It loosened the cough and relieved them of that hard, distressing and strangling feeling that goes with it."

"Dr. Wood's" is 35c and 60c a bottle. Put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

COW LITIGATION STILL UNHEARD

Judge Brown Grants Adjournment of It; Siamese Wanted

Though Judge J. A. Forin two months ago adjourned the hearing of the case of the cow that did not freshen, "for the last time," he was not here yesterday to act up to his intention of "determining it," and once more the case went over, Judge J. R. Brown of Grand Forks, who acted in his stead, granting an adjournment. The defendant, Crozier W. Bourke, has returned to England to reside, while John Scott Wardle, the purchaser of the cow, resides on the West arm.

The other case in which Mr. Bourke was defendant also went over. He is sued by W. J. Turner, who seeks valid title to land purchased. In this case the inability of court officers or the legal fraternity to read Siamese introduced the delay.

In both these cases Hamilton & Wragge acted for the plaintiff, and Brown & Dawson for the defendant.

Judgment for the plaintiff, with costs paid in court, was given by Judge Brown in the case of W. H. Cawley, the Salmo merchant, represented by E. G. Matthew, who asked for settlement of claims against John Smith of Salmo, unrepresented, for $28.15 for goods sold and delivered.

The case of Sterling vs. Pierre, involving payment for goods, was settled out of court.

Applications Heard

Several applications were also passed upon by his honor.

An application by Emily Henrietta Boyer, through E. P. Dawson of Brown & Dawson, for orders of probate in the estate of Charles Joseph Boyer was granted.

An application in the matter of the estate of William Anderson Allen for resealing letters probate issued in Ontario, by E. C. Wragge of Hamilton & Wragge, was granted.

In Neale vs. Carl Mohr, the plaintiff applied for speedy judgment. Judgment was given for $110 and costs, E. C. Wragge appearing for the plaintiff.

An application by James Nelson Pennock, through E. Dawson for letters of administration in the estate of Clara Monda Pennock, deceased, was granted.

An application by E. G. Matthew, in St. Amour vs. Andres, for payment out of money in court, was granted.

Famous Old Recipe for Cough Syrup

Easily and cheaply made at home, but it beats them all for quick results.

Thousands of housewives have found that they can save two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, by using this well-known old recipe for making cough syrup at home. It is simple and cheap but it has no equal for prompt results. It takes right hold of a cough and gives immediate relief, usually stopping an ordinary cough in 24 hours or less.

Get 2½ ounces of Pinex from any druggist, pour it into a 16-oz. bottle and add plain granulated sugar syrup to make 16 ounces. If you prefer, use clarified molasses, honey or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, keeps perfectly, and lasts a family a long time.

It's truly astonishing how quickly it acts, penetrating through every air passage of the throat and lungs—loosens and raises the phlegm, soothes and heals the membranes, and gradually but surely the annoying throat tickle and dreaded cough disappear entirely. Nothing better for bronchitis, spasmodic croup, hoarseness or bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known the world over for its healing effect on the membranes.

Avoid disappointment by asking your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

If It Were Feasible It Would Be Disastrous

Ex-Premier Asquith told an audience in England Monday that if a levy were made on capital "liquid capital would take up wings and fly away."

The metaphor is a little mixed, but the idea is correct.

There is nothing which can more easily disappear into hiding, or across international boundary lines, than capital.

But that is only one aspect of the levy on capital fallacy.

Those who advocate a levy do not seem to realize the fact that there is very little idle capital in the world. Practically every dollar, every pound, every pence, every mark, is working. If a levy on capital were made it would take capital out of employment and would so cripple industry that it would enormously increase unemployment and, in addition, so weaken the economic strength of the country where the experiment was tried that competing countries would gain an overpowering advantage in world trade.

A levy on capital is not practical, because capital would successfully hide itself. And if it were feasible it would be disastrous.

Should Cancel Proposed Tax on Receipts

Municipalities of Canada, through their organization, have expressed to the Dominion government their feeling of irritation at the impending imposition of a tax on receipts. A deputation from the Union of Canadian Municipalities called on Hon. Jacques Bureau, minister of customs and inland revenue, and emphasized the fact that the new tax would add insufferably to the burdens of carrying on civic business and would necessitate increases in staff and greater overhead costs out of all proportion to the sum which would be collected.

Everything that the municipalities have to say against this tax insofar as the expense and nuisance of handling it applies to the business of the country.

Overhead costs of doing business in Canada have already been enormously increased by government measures calling for collection of taxes by businesses for the government, the making out of returns and responding to an unending flow of demands for reports on this, that and the other thing.

The overhead cost, has, in the final analysis, to be paid by the public. It has, of necessity, to increase the cost both of manufactured articles and of distributing them to the consumer.

The proposed new receipt tax will add to these costs, and add to them out of all proportion to the amount which the government will realize. It is safe to assert that the receipt tax will so increase office work that in the Dominion as a whole it will add dangerously to office staffs and to office expense.

The government at Ottawa should give very serious consideration to the question as to whether, in view of the waste of money and energy which this tax will cause to Canada as a whole, it would not be sound policy, economically, to rescind the portion of the taxation act applying to receipts. Certainly it cannot be good business for Canada to enforce a tax which will cost the public more to collect than it will realize to the government.

Efficient Housekeeping

By Laura A. Kirkman

KNITTING YOURSELF A SCARF FOR WINTER

From time to time I have given directions for crocheted or knitted garments which the housekeeper could make for others; today I am going to give suggestions for something she can make for herself. Too often, daughter, son, and father are well equipped for the cold weather—and mother, who put herself last—is unequipped.

I think there is no prettier garment a woman can wear than a wool neck-scarf which goes over a coat (used in place of a fur neckpiece). Personally, I prefer such a scarf to having stripes running lengthwise rather than across.

So, today I am going to tell you how to make such a scarf. You will need a pair of the longest knitting needles you can get. If you like a loosely-knitted scarf, buy the large wooden needles which all fancy work stores now sell. Otherwise buy bone or celluloid needles about the size (around) as an ordinary lead-pencil. Of course, if you like a very closely-knitted scarf you can use still finer needles.

The next consideration is the wool. A friend of mine who recently made such a scarf (we worked it out together, using no directions) bought five balls of luster wool—(four balls of black and one ball of gray). She wanted a black scarf with a narrow gray stripe in it, to harmonize with a gray coat she had. When finished, her scarf was 38 inches long and 12 inches wide.

To make a scarf of these dimensions, cast on 325 stitches. Knit back and forth lengthwise of the scarf for 2 ribs. And that is all there is to it—except putting in the fringe.

Different women prefer stripes of different widths. My friend had only four gray stripes in hers (very narrow stripes) well separated by wide black stripes. The best way to go about it, is to cast on your 325 stitches (to get the proper length), knit about six ribs (knitting lengthwise, of course) of some dark, plain border-color, and then begin putting in a stripe of some harmonizing color; when you have made this stripe as wide as you think you want it, go back to the border color and make a strip of this. Alternate these two colors to suit your fancy until you have knitted a strip about six inches wide, in all; this constitutes half the scarf. So now, to get a symmetrical whole, you must work backwards from the center of the scarf (the end of the six inches), making the other half exactly like the first half.

But, as I said before, there need be no set rules for such knitting. You may have the scarf narrower or wider than 12 inches, if you wish. So long as you have the length, you can experiment with the width. If you are very venturesome, you can even try having some of the color stripes wider than others, thus gaining a Roman scarf effect.

To make the fringe, wind the wool over a five-inch card 20 times. Cut and tie into both ends of scarf.

All inquiries addressed to Miss Kirkman in care of the "Efficient Housekeeping" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped and self-addressed envelope must be enclosed with the question. Be sure to use YOUR full name, street number, and the name of your city and province.—The Editor.

Prevent Red Borders From Fading

Many housewives prefer dish towels that have red borders. These, however, often fade in washing. You can usually prevent fading if you put a little borax into the water in which you are going to wash the red-bordered towels.

Styles

By Lenore

Many of the leading costumers have been showing new models for mid-winter wear. Though lines are not particularly new, there is a world of novelty in details and trimmings which, in some instances, at least, are perhaps more amusing than ornamental. A dark green velour coat, for example, imported from Paris, has its only trimming in a large pocket on which is embroidered a charming little house in gay colors.

Though the majority of street coats are made up of winter materials familiar to the average woman, some of the smarter models feature matelasse or cloaky materials, and the patterned woolen fabrics, like velours de Smyrna or broche de laine, both the plain and the patterned being combined as in the Drecol coat illustrated above.

One of the most marked features of the fashion is the generous use of velvet for the more formal tailored suit, the afternoon and evening wrap, and all types of dresses. Indeed, some of the most beautiful afternoon dresses shown in Paris were almost mere slips, so far as design was concerned; but they were made of the gorgeous Bianchini Persian print velvets, or the gaufre crinkled velvet in some rich color.

Stop for 10 Days

Stop brushing teeth in ineffective ways

See what new beauty this new way brings

Nearly all the world over, leading dentists are advising people to brush teeth in a new way. Millions of people now do it every day.

You see the results wherever you look. Teeth now glisten which once were dim. Women have new charm, new beauty. They show teeth when they smile.

This is to urge all other people to try this method now. Your druggist will present you with a ten-day tube. Cease your old methods for a few days and see what this new way does.

Why teeth look dingy

Your teeth are coated with a viscous film. You feel it with your tongue. It clings to teeth, enters crevices and stays. Food stains, etc., discolor it. So that film, if left, soon forms the basis of thin dingy coats. Tartar is based on film.

No ordinary tooth paste can effectively combat it. So millions of teeth brushed daily were clouded more or less.

Film also holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay. Film forms a breeding place for germs. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea.

All these troubles were constantly increasing. Very few escaped. The tooth brush, used in old ways, left much film intact.

The war on film

Dental science then began a war on film. After long research, two effective film combatants were discovered. Able authorities amply proved their efficiency. Then they were announced, and since then leading dentists everywhere have been urging their adoption.

One acts to curdle film, one to remove it. And this is done in scientific ways, not by harmful scouring.

A new-type tooth paste was created, based on modern research. It brings other new results now considered essential. It avoids several old mistakes. In this tooth paste are embodied these two great film combatants. The name of the tooth paste is Pepsodent.

Two other new effects

Pepsodent brings two other effects which research proves essential. It multiplies the starch digestant in the saliva. That is there to digest starch deposits which may otherwise ferment and form acids.

It multiplies the alkalinity of the saliva. That is Nature's neutralizer for the acids which cause decay.

It was found that tooth pastes based on soap and chalk brought just opposite effects. That is one reason why they proved so ineffective. They reduced the tooth-protecting agents which Pepsodent increases many fold.

These results mean a new dental era. They mean that your children need not suffer what you suffered from your teeth. They mean that film-coats can be combated.

A few-day test will prove this to you. Make that test in fairness to yourself.

Some Fifty Nations

Use this new way now

Careful people of some fifty nations now use Pepsodent, largely by dental advice. To millions of women it has brought new charm, new beauty. To men of many races it has brought teeth they love to show. To children it has brought protections which your childhood did not know.

Present the coupon for a 10-Day Tube. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth whiten as the film-coats disappear.

What you see and feel will very soon convince you. You will be delighted and amazed. Cut out this coupon so you won't forget, for this test is important.

ARMISTICE DAY WELL OBSERVED

Sell Many Poppies; Gather Round Trophy Gun for Two Minutes' Silence

TRAIL, Nov. 14.—Armistice day was celebrated in Trail in a fitting manner by various societies and the general public. The G. W. V. A. had procured 1000 small poppies and 200 large ones, and judging from the number of people wearing them they could have had none too many. The majority of the poppies were sold by the pupils of the high school through the kind efforts of the I. O. D. E.

One of the main features of the day was the gathering around the base of the trophy gun, where the I. O. D. E., a guard of honor from the local G. W. V. A., naval cadets and several hundred citizens, gathered together to join in the Empire-wide observance of the two minutes' silence in memory of those who fell in the Great War.

Place Floral Tributes.

Floral tributes were placed at the gun by both the I. O. D. E. and the G. W. V. A.

The smelter whistle, which blew at 11 o'clock and again at two minutes past was the signal, and during the period of silence not a sound was to be heard throughout the city. At the conclusion of the silence Rev. William B. Willan offered up a paryer, the whole concourse then singing the national anthem.

Awards Prizes for Essays.

After the ceremony the prizes given by the Arthur Chapman chapter of the I. O. D. E. in an essay competition were awarded, Rev. Field Yolland explaining the nature of the competition, which was an essay upon "Canada as a Nation," or "Turkey the Sick Man of Europe." The prizes, which were presented by Mrs. T. W. Bingay, regent of the order, were awarded as follows: High school, first prize, Miss K. M. Cairns; second prize, Miss Maxine Chapman; public school, first prize, Miss Ruth Dovey; second prize, Miss Louise Robertson.

The guard of honor furnished by the G. W. V. A. was commanded by President W. J. Williams, and the guard furnished by the naval cadets was in charge of Warrant Officer H. Jackson.

The boys of the district have been looking for this scout opportunity for some time and now that they have a scoutmaster and are really down to troop work they are all keyed up and looking forward to having a good time this winter.

Cease Work Upon Government Road; Funds Exhausted

SALMO, Nov. 14.—Work on the government road below Salmo was stopped today. All available funds for the year have been exhausted.

There is two and a half miles more to complete to connect with the road on the other side of the line.

About 60 men have been let out by the closing down of this work.

Celebrate Armistice With Social Evening and Entertainments

BURTON, Nov. 14.—Armistice day was celebrated at Burton by the holding of a social evening in the Burton hall. A large number of the residents attended. The entertainment features were community singing, songs and recitation and guessing competitions, for which prizes were awarded.

A good supper was served and a few dances enjoyed, Mrs. Fraser supplying the music. The whole entertainment was thoroughly enjoyed by the large number in attendance. It was, however, strangely lacking in items appropriate to the occasion, with the exception of the two song numbers by F. Job of Arrow Park, and the fact that five persons present were wearing the red poppy.

A good lunch was served and a few dance numbers, with music by Mrs. Fraser.

*The whole entertainment was thor*oughly enjoyed by the large number in attendance. With the exception of the song numbers by F. Job of Arrow Park the items were strangely lacking in being at all appropriate to the occasion. An odd red poppy could be seen in the audience, but what its presence meant was in no way brought out during the evening.

HEAR LECTURE ON SOCIAL HYGIENE

NAKUSP, Nov. 12.—On Tuesday evening a public meeting was held in Abriel's small hall, when Rev. H. T. Archbold, executive secretary of social hygiene for the province, delivered an interesting address covering the work being done by the hygiene council. While all admit the necessity for an awakening of the public on the vital importance of this question, those who heard him were amazed at the statistics Mr. Archbold placed before the meeting. Discussion which followed was taken part in by Rev. Mr. West, Dr. McLean and others. As a result of the facts stated by Mr. Archbold and the discussion following it is probable that local action will be taken along the lines laid *down by the speaker, when classes of in*struction in public health will be formed during the winter.

Rev. Mr. West occupied the chair.

After the lecture Rev. A. R. Wiseman rendered a vocal solo, "This Is My Task." Mrs. E. W. Somers acted as accompanist throughout the evening.

Bear Speculators Discourage Bulls, Force Recessions

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—Speculators for the decline forced recessions of 1 to nearly 5 points in a majority of the active issues in today's stock market, being aided by heavy liquidation on the part of discouraged holders of long stock and the closing out of the accounts of large brokerage houses.

United States Steel, which established a new high for the year at 112½ about a month ago and came within a point of that figure last week, dropped as low as 102⅜ today, later rallying to 103⅜ or 1½ points below last night's close. Crucible continued to yield in reflection of speculative disappointment over the annual report, today's net loss being 5⅞ points. Midvale dropped nearly 3 points.

Mexican Petroleum dropped 8 points on a turnover of less than 1500 shares. California Petroleum and the Pan American issues were off 1 to 2 points and Houston Oil continued in free supply, dropping nearly 4 points.

General Asphalt climbed a point.

Total sales were 1,296,000 shares.

Call money opened and held at 5 per cent throughout the day.

Time money continued at 5 per cent, with renewals comprising most of the business.

Commercial paper commanded 4½ per cent.

Toll of Dead in Chile Earthquake Rapidly Growing

SANTIAGO, Chile, Nov. 14.—Each hour brings further details of the great disaster to Chile caused by the earthquake and tidal wave, and each new report received from the provinces which suffered the full force of the convulsion adds to the list of dead and the enormous damage already recorded.

Advices this afternoon from Vallenar, in the province of Atacama, say that the total dead recorded thus far at that place number 1500 while the adjoining town of Freirina is in ruins and casualties unknown.

Stretch of Coast Laid Waste

An official compilation by the ministry of the interior, based on reports received by that department early in the day gave the number of dead in six towns as 886 and the injured 2419. These towns were Vallenar, Copapo, Coquimbo, Huasco, Charnaral and Freirina. Reports indicate that a stretch of territory along the coast for 140 miles and to a depth of 25 miles has been almost denuded of human habitation. Witnesses of the Valparaiso earthquake of 1906, which destroyed most of that city, say this is far worse.

Railroads Twisted

Destruction of sections of the main railroads in this district and the branch lines which serve the inland territory as well as the twisting and cracking of the wagon roads, makes it impossible for relief to reach the destroyed towns, except by packing the supplies on mules.

Relief committees are being organized in all parts of the country.

OTTAWA, Nov. 14.—In accordance with the judgment and order of the railway board, dated January 14, 1921, the rate of exchange in connection with shipments of freight between points in Canada and the United States from November 15 to November 30, inclusive, will be 3-32 of 1 per cent. There will be no surcharge assessed on international business, freight or passenger.

Only Operation Can Cure Cancer Says Professor

TORONTO, Nov. 14. — Professor Francis Carter Wood, director of cancer research at Columbia university and director of the radium theraupautic department of St. Luke's hospital, New York, in an interview here today, said the surgeon's knife was the only cure for cancer. "The only cure we know is to cut the cancer out," he said. "To do that, we must catch the disease before it goes too far." He said that in the greater number of cases of cancer the patient keeps it secret until too late.

"I have no hesitation in telling you, said Professor Wood, "that 2000 Canadians die unnecessarily from cancer every year."

The extent of cancer in the United States was indicated by Professor Wood, who said that of women between the years of 45 and 65, one in eight died from the disease, and of men of the same age, the proportion was one in 13.

Dr. C. J. Hastings, medical officer of health of Toronto, in a bulletin issued today from the local department of health, says:

"Cancer is curable. Cancer is a local condition at first and as such is positively curable. But, on the other hand, if neglected, it means death, probably preceded by months of suffering.

Red Mountain

The prompt recovery of Red Mountain shares from the low level of 45c to Tuesday's close of 62c has partially fulfilled the prediction we made in these columns.

We are advised by the Boundary Red Mountain management of a second bullion production record amounting to $3985 in nine days. This was at the rate of $565 per day, and showed a material improvement over the preceding nine days, when the daily gross output was $493.

If you will contrast this output of gold with the present quoted value of Boundary Red Mountain shares you will understand our advice to enter your order at today's market.

Full particulars concerning the property furnished on request.

Red Mountain

The intrinsic worth of Boundary Red Mountain shares is shown by a recovery in price from 45c to 62c in nine days. Professional speculators on the selling side of the market failed to take into account the buying power created by announcement of prevailing bullion production at the rate of $565 per day.

We believe that this production record will lift the shares to figures far in advance of their recent level of 66c. Tuesday's close was 57c bid—62c asked.

HOPPE GIVES FINE DISPLAY OF BILLIARDS

Easily Outplays the Belgian Champion in International Tournament

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—Willie Hoppe gave one of his mose impressive exhibitions with the cue and ivory globes while engaged in defeating Edouard Horemanns, the Belgian champion, tonight, in the international 18 2 balkline billiard championship tournament. He outplayed the Belgian by the score of 500 to 177.

Hoppe's employment of English, angles and speed so completely mastered Horemanns as to leave him hopelessly trailing after the early innings. Hoppe's average was 55 5-9, the best of the tournament so far, and his high runs 134, 99 and 97.

Horemanns did not employ his famous masse with the usual success. His average was 19 6-19 and his best runs 70, 62 and 25. Quebec Treasurer Estimates Surplus Over Five Millions

QUEBEC, Nov. 14.—A surplus of $5,033,419.45 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1922, and an estimated surplus of $557,908 for the year ending June 30, 1924, were announced by Hon. Jacob Nichol, the Quebec provincial treasurer, when he delivered his budget speech in the provincial legislative assembly this afternoon.

The treasurer stated that the ordinary revenue during the year ending June 30, last, was $21,609,396.10, and the ordinary expenditure $16,575,976.65, thus leaving a surplus of $5,033,419.45.

Unique in Annals.

The financial situation in the province of Quebec, said the provincial treasurer, was unique in the annals of the province and nothing like it had ever been equaled in any other province in the Dominion.

Quebec was not only not obliged to issue any new debentures, but was even able to redeem bonds and stocks to the amount of $249,687.26.

The treasurer gave an estimate of the revenue for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1924, as follows:

Ordinary revenues, $18,291,316.36; ordinary and extraordinary expenditures, $17,733,437.61, leaving an estimated surplus of $557,908.75.

The total profits from the operations of the liquor law had amounted to $4,000,000, said the treasurer. The trading profits represented $2,860,010.64, to which must be added the revenue from fines, duties, permits, etc., bringing the total to $4,000,000.

CANADA NOT DISLOYAL TO DECLINE WAR

Minister of Defense Defends Government's Hesitation on Near East

CARLETON PLACE, Ont., Nov. 14.—(By Canadian Press.)—Outside of a very few the people of Great Britain expect Canada, through her parliament, to have the say as to what attitude this country is to assume in matters that affect her interests and her well being, declared Hon. G. P. Graham, minister of militia and defense, speaking here tonight on the near eastern situation as it affected Canada. It was the first time in the history of Canada that this country was asked to participate in war in which Great Britain might be involved, he said. In the other wars, the offer came from Canada when the need was seen to exist. The Canadian people can be loyal to British traditions and the British crown and yet say "no" to proposition made by the men who happen to be in power.

Agrees With Bonar Law.

The attitude of the Canadian government, he said, in asking for further information before committing the people of Canada to another war is confirmed absolutely by the attitude of the new prime minister, Bonar Law.

Hon. Mr. Graham addressed a largely attended meeting here in support of the candidature of David Findlay, who is Liberal candidate in the Lanark byelection.

Not Giving Away Secrets.

The present government, Mr. Graham said, had been criticized for not immediately saying "yes" to a proposition made to it through Hon. Winston Churchill, concerning the situation in the near east. "I am not giving away any secrets," Mr. Graham stated, "because the new Conservative prime minister in Britain has stated all these things publicly. Bonar Law, himself a member of that government, tells us in a recent speech that he was not a party to that proposition and believes it was all wrong."

The question of empire relationship was one which would surely be discussed at the coming session of parliament.

Conduct Own Affairs.

The people of Canada, with their parliament and their government, formed a strong combination to decide what was best for this part of the Empire and what strengthened Canada would strengthen the Empire. "It is in the best interests of the Empire that the overseas dominions be allowed to conduct their own affairs," he said, and this, the leading men of Great Britain recommended be done to the fullest extent.

To Confer on International Water Levels

OTTAWA, Nov. 14.—The governments of Ontario and Manitoba will be represented at a conference between these provinces and other interested parties and the Dominion government, on the question of regulating the levels of the Lake of the Woods and other international waters.

Governor Preus, of Minnesota, will also attend the conference, as will E. W. Backus and his counsel.

The conference between the federal government and the western provinces on the matter of natural resources, will probably be postponed for a day, as Premier Bracken and Attorney-General R. W. Craig will attend the waterways meeting.

Proposes Building Wireless Station Near Vancouver

VANCOUVER, Nov. 14.—Application has been made to the Dominion government by the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Company of Canada, for a license to erect and operate in the vicinity of Vancouver a continuous wave wireless telegraph station, costing approximately $2,000,000 and capable of communication with Great Britain, Australia and the orient, according to an announcement made here today.

The Vancouver station is only one of a number to be erected by the Marconi company in various parts of the Dominion. Others will be situated at Montreal, Toronto and Winnipeg, but the British Columbia plant will be much larger than the others. A total expenditure of $5,000,000 is planned by the company in this new system of modern communication.

Various Parties Give Estimates of the Results

LONDON, Nov. 14.—While the political managers decline flatly to make any of their predictions as to the result of tomorrow's elections, the London Evening Star succeeded today in getting unofficial estimates from the various representatives of what their managers expect.

According to the Star, the Independent Liberals claim 140 seats for themselves in parliament. The Laborites claim 160, the National Liberals 75 and the Conservatives 365, including Unionists of all sorts. These figures total 745, so it is apparent somebody is going to be disappointed as there are only 615 seats to be filled.

Chinese Widows Seek Declaration of Their Status

VICTORIA, Nov. 14.—An application seeking to determine the status of two Chinese widows of an oriental, once domiciled here, was made before Mr. Justice MacDonald today, his lordship reserving judgment.

Counsel of behalf of the two widows of the late Lee Chong, who died here a few years ago, made application for declaration of the court that the two widows were entitled to be treated as the lawful former wives of the testator, for the purpose of succession dues in British Columbia. Both were married according to Chinese custom.

Radioactive Ores May Exist but Value Doubtful

TORONTO, Nov. 14.—Dr. W. G. Miller, provincial geologist, considers it more than probable that traces of radioactive ores may have been found on the Petawawa river, near Pembroke. But whether such ores are of any commercial value is another story altogether. It is not an unusual thing to make discoveries of this kind, Mr. Miller states. Radium has been reported in Haldimand and Hastings counties, near Parry Sound, and also in Butte township, but in none of these places were there sufficient quantities to make it an attractive commercial proposition.

FINDS SPANISH TREASURE.

NEW YORK.—(By Canadian Press.)—Word comes from Barnegat, N. J., of buried treasure—gold pieces in an iron chest, Spanish parchments, and the like, all true to tradition, found by Walter Ridgeway while employed by Capt. Walter Thompson, in digging the foundation for a new house.

Eighty gold coins of the size of an American dollar, worth $4000 or $5000, bright as new pennies, it is reported, were in the chest. The parchments have yet to be deciphered.

TWO GROUPS COMPETE TO GAIN UTICA

Thompson Wants Eighteen Months' Option at Nine Cents

ARMSTEAD OFFERS CASH IN ONE YEAR

President Caldwell Leaves for United States Money Centers; Calls Meeting

After arranging for a general meeting of the Utica shareholders for November 29 at Kaslo, to adjudicate upon competing offers for the Utica property on Paddy's Peak, respectively from Major Henry H. Armstead, the well-known Washington operator, and O. C. Thompson of the North Star mine, and present lessee of the Utica, Charles F. Caldwell, president of Utica Mines, limited, and general overseer of the Christian Catholic Apostolic Chuch in Zion, passed through Monday for Spokane, from which point he will leave tomorrow night on an eastern tour. On this trip Mr. Caldwell will take in Toronto, New York, and Washington, D. C.

In local mining circles the fact that the two first class offers have been made for the Utica in the space of two or three weeks is commented upon. In the case of the Armstead offer, Major Armstead has sold his interest in the Armstead mines, and is free to devote his capital and time to the Utica, if his offer is accepted. Under its terms, the shareholders would net 7½ cents per share for their stock, and could either receive this in cash at the end of one year, or take stock to the same amount in a company to be formed by Major Armstead within a year from the acceptance of the year.

Sir Donald Mann Behind It.

Mr. Thompson, on the other hand, is an experienced Kootenay mine operator, one of the owners, and at present lessee of the well-known North Star mine at Kimberley. He also is leasing the Stemwinder, of the same camp. It is well known that his associates include Sir Donald Mann. Thus there is no question of the ability of those behind the latest offer, to make good.

The Thompson offer is 9 cents per share at the end of 18 months, with a 50 per cent royalty on ore shipped during the life of the option.

President Caldwell and his association hold the majority of the Utica Mines stock, and therefore will control the situation at the special general meeting called to deal with the two offers.

During Mr. Thompson's lease of over a year, he has shipped to Trail smelter seven cars of ore, all from the old workings, whose development has been continued. In addition to this work, another crew has been driving on the long tunnel which was started some three years ago on the recommendation of W. M. Archibald, then acting managing director. This is now in 2400 feet, and it is figured some 600 feet further will have to be driven to reach the rich ore bodies of Paddy's Peak at a depth of 350 feet, or on the fourth level.

Mr. Caldwell's Baby.

The old Utica has a long and interesting history, not the least interesting part being the way rich ore was discovered in the upper portion of the mine by the leasers a couple of years ago. For many years past it has been Mr. Caldwell's baby, and since he has been the great mogul of Zion City, founded by the late John Alexander Dowie, the "prophet," it has been his chief preoccupation outside the interests of the church, and of the Portland Canal railway.

Of the latter project, Mr. Caldwell, in a letter received yesterday by Fred A. Starkey, says, "I hope to build the railroad in Alaska in the spring."

Mr. Caldwell, who is well known for his advocacy of free silver, expresses, in his letter to Mr. Starkey, the hope that "we will yet see silver made money."

Much favored in Paris is the simple evening frock with its straight bodice rounded at the throat, short sleeves, and very full bouffant skirt; and this, in the latest models, gives the appearance of a hooped skirt, by the judicious use of whalebone and padding on the hips.

Mining Affairs in the Kootenays

ENGINEER EXAMINES.

ROSSLAND, Nov. 12.—M. E. Purcle, M. E., is making examination of claims in the vicinity of Paterson, but it is not known for whom the examinations are being made. In the early days of mining here there were some excellent showings on the properties there.

IMPORTANT FIND AT RENATA

An important find of ore was made at Renata by Messrs Blurton and Rickward, during development work on their claims which join the Mountain Chief. They have stripped the ore body a distance of 50 to 60 feet long and 15 to 20 feet wide, the whole of it being ore containing bornite, chalcopgrite, molybdenite and gold and silver values. The ore body is apparently large, and indications show about 75 to 100 feet wide as copper has been found on both sides as well as above and below their present working.

They encountered one seam an inch and one-half thick of molybdenite without much copper in it. Two other ore bodies of large dimensions are known to exist on these claims—one other they are developing. The owners expect to extend their operations in the spring.

Daughters Appeal for Parcels for Needy in Nelson

At the home of the regent, Mrs. W. O. Rose, the regular monthly meeting of the I. O. D. E. was held yesterday afternoon, when it was reported that the thanksgiving dance had yielded $125.

Two-thirds of the annual budget has already been raised by the ways and means committee, and a series of auction bridge parties are planned for the winter months to raise the balance.

The poppy day committee reported the collection of $96, which had been turned over to the G.W.V.A.

For education work a vote of $50 was passed—mainly for the supply of patriotic pictures to hang in schools.

A special appeal was made by the relief committee for clothes for the poor. There had been a great many requests from the needy, and it was asked that parcels be sent to Mrs. Alexander Leith.
