CONSERVATIVES HAVE AN ABSOLUTE VICTORY

Labor Gains Put Joint Liberals in the Shade

RESULTS STEAL THUNDER FROM LLOYD GEORGE

Change in Leadership, but Not in Probable Policy; Limits Attack

APATHY OF VOTERS PROVES LABOR GAIN

Bonar Law, Lloyd George and Clynes Satisfied; Asquith Critical

LONDON, Nov. 16.—(By Canadian Press Cable).—The Bonar Law government is likely to go on with a policy so close to that of the coalition government that little chance will be given Lloyd George to make attacks. Labor's gain constitutes a new menace and unless both Lloyd George and Asquith ultimately decide to join forces with the Conservatives against Labor, it seems that there is nothing left for either but the role of a sort of futile critic of both sides unable to influence the decisions of either.

With 607 out of 615 returns in, the parties stand: Conservatives, 345; Labor, 141; Liberals, 62; Georgians, 44; others, 15.

Ignoring the influence of the coalition, the former house under the present classification would have stood: Conservatives, 368; Liberals, 33; Georgians, 119; Labor, 76; others, 19.

Material Considerations Count

A careful analysis of the results seems to indicate that it was material considerations that influenced the voters. The midlands and Lancashire, where Lloyd George had counted on considerable support, turned Conservative on Bonar Law's and Lord Derby's assurances that they would not for the present alter the free trade policy of the country.

In Wales and Scotland, Labor gained through the general dissatisfaction, unemployment and depression in the large mining and industrial districts.

One-Third Fail to Vote

One of the most important factors in the Labor gain, however, was the apathy of the voters. Out of 21,000,000 voters only about 14,000,000 went to the polls, of which the Conservatives drew 5,340,000; Labor 4,250,000; Liberals 2,750,000; Georgians 1,380,000 approximately.

Had the proportion of Labor gains at the expense of the Conservatives, as indicated last night, been maintained, Bonar Law would not have had a majority at all.

Comments of Leaders

Following are the comments made by the leading figures in yesterday's general elections.

Prime Minister Bonar Law:

"I am greatly satisfied with the results of the elections, demonstrating that the country is ready for a Conservative regime."

Rt. Hon. David Lloyd George:

"The result coincides with the anticipations of my headquarters. I am quite satisfied."

Rt. Hon. H. H. Asquith:

"The enormous Labor poll and the tremendous turnover in Scotland are due to widespread unemployment and the consequent acute distress, and the house of lords' decision regarding the rent restriction act."

Frank Hodges:

"I am greatly pleased with the miners' poll as demonstrating allegiance to the Labor party"

Files New Motion on Restriction of Asiatic Immigration

VICTORIA, Nov. 16.—Still another motion for restriction of Asiatic immigration into Canada was filed in the legislature today. Captain Ian MacKenzie (Liberal), Vancouver, moved that orientals be prevented from owning land in British Columbia, and that the federal authorities be asked not to engage in any international treaty which would limit the authority of the provincial legislatures.

Captain MacKenzie gave notice of this motion after Mr. Speaker Pauline had ruled out of order an opposition amendment to a government motion. The motion aims at further restrictions in Asiatic immigration. The amendment asked that the federal government be asked not to make treaties without consulting the provinces. Mr. Speaker ruled that the amendment did not materially change the effect of the resolution.

Neither motion came to debate today.

United States Accepts Invitation to Attend Lausanne Conference

PARIS, Nov. 16.—A message confirming the acceptance by the United States of the invitation to be represented at the Lausanne conference was received at the United States embassy here today. The message names Richard Washburn Child, ambassador to Italy; Joseph C. Grew, minister to Switzerland, and Rear-Admiral Mark L. Bristol United States official representative at Constantinople, as observers.

EGYPT IS DIFFICULT PROBLEM

Delegates From the Nile Have Sweeping Demands for Conference

WANT THE BRITISH OUT OF COUNTRY

Claim Sole Rights to Guard Neutrality of the Suez Canal

LAUSANNE, Nov. 16.—Great independence for Egypt and the Sudan, with evacuation of the British troops and no special privileges there for Great Britain, is the demand of the Egyptian people which will be placed before the Lausanne conference, Hassid Pasha, head of the unofficial Egyptian delegation, told the Associated Press today. His statement revealed the fact that Egypt, if the Egyptians have their way, will form one contentious problem of the conference.

Demand Sagloul's Release.

The Egyptian association, which claims to represent the voice of all Egypt, today adopted resolutions demanding the release of Said Sagloul Pasha, former Egyptian minister of justice, who was arrested last year for Nationalist activities and deported to Ceylon, and the giving of permission to him to come to Lausanne and head the "real" delegation, which consists of Sagloul's colleagues and the Nationalist committee led by Hassid Pasha.

Egypt for the Egyptians.

"Egypt for the Egyptians," that is our national shibboleth, with freedom for all and special favors to no foreign power.

He will demand, first, the right officially to sit in the conference as the real representative of Egypt; second, independence of the entire Nile valley, namely, Egypt and the Sudan; third, evacuation of the British troops in Egypt and the Sudan; fourth, nonrecognition of English privileges in Egypt and the Sudan; fifth, solution of the questions of capitulations by direct negotiations with interested powers, and, sixth, the right of Egypt alone to safeguard the neutrality of the Suez canal.

Riordons Form New Corporation to Find Funds for Operations

MONTREAL, Nov. 16.—At today's meeting of the executive committee here of the Riordon company, limited, Chairman R. M. Davey stated that in order to provide much needed working capital for the coming season's cut of logs a new corportion had been formed under the name of the Riordon Pulp corporation, which advanced money and took a lease of the properties in order to allow the lenders of the money to work up the inventories so created, vesting in the Riordon company the right to take back the properties upon repayment of the advances.

Deputation Requests Cosgrave to Release Mrs. Mary McSwiney

DUBLIN, Nov. 16.—A deputation from the Dublin corporation visited the government buildings today to urge President Cosgrave of the dail eireann to release Mary McSwiney, now on her twelfth day of her hunger strike in Mount Joy prison. Mr. Cosgrave was unable to see them, being engaged in government duties, no appointment having been made, it was explained.

WAR ENTENTE MUST ENDURE OR COLLAPSE

Fascisti Premier Declares Italy Will Take Strong Hand at Lausanne

TURKEY MUST HALT AT DEFINITE POINT

Insists on Guarantees of Straits Traffic and European Interests

ROME, Nov. 16.—Either the entente of war will become a truly homogeneous group of forces with the same rights and the same duties, or it will sound its last hour for Italy, which will take another course to defend her interest with a different policy, declared the new Fascisti premier, Mussolini, in explaining the government's foreign policy before parliament today.

In regard to Turkey, the new Italian premier said that at Lausanne it was necessary to recognize what is an accomplished fact, insisting upon the necessary guarantees for the traffic of the straits and the interests of Europeans and Christian minorities.

Thus Far and No Further.

"When Turkey has obtained that which she should have, she must not ask for more," he continued. "It is necessary to have courage to declare to Turkey thus far and no further."

The new premier said that methods adopted up to now were not good.

"It is better to make commercial treaties in place of holding grand plenary conferences which are useless," he said. "I propose, in the conferences that I will have with the ministers of France and England to envisage with all clearness the problem of the entente and all its coplexity and the consequent problem of the situation of Italy in relation to the entente. In the examination of this question two hypothesis present themselves, either the entente of war will become a truly homogeneous group of forces with the same rights and the same duties or it will sound its last hour for Italy, which will take another course to defend her interests with a different policy."

Will Maintain Engagements.

Italy will maintain her engagements with Austria, he said and will outline her action of an economic order toward Hungary and Bulgaria.

REDUCE PRICE OF CHAMPAGNE

VICTORIA, Nov. 16.—Champagne prices for Moet and Chandon are being cut from $7.50 a quart to $6 by the liquor control board. The price of pints is being reduced from $4 to $3.50. The new prices are being brought into effect in time for the Christmas trade.

Attorney-General Manson has put through a price list according to which Vancouver breweries' ale will be sold on the coast at $20 a barrel, the same price as beer.

DEFENDS CONDUCT OF PENSIONS BOARD

OTTAWA, Nov. 16.—Dr. Gordon Henderson, K. C., continued his argument before the Ralston royal commission this afternon, defending the board of pensions commissioners administering the Pensions act and claiming that instead of the board trying to make the act as regards pensions more stringent, they frequently went farther than the letter of the law in interpreting its provisions so that the ex-service men would benefit.

SAYS PROVINCE NOW THE LAND OF CORKSCREW

Vancouver Prohibitionist Waxes Bitter in Denunciation of Control

WINNIPEG, Nov. 14.—A vigorous attack against the British Columbia Liquor act was launched at a temperance convention here tonight by Rev. A. E. Cooke, Vancouver, president of the British Columbia Prohibition association, who said the measure had made British Columbia "the sink hole of the Dominion, plunged much of the social and moral life into debauchery, was forcing the government deeper and deeper into the mire and made the name of Canada a byword along the Pacific coast." He was enthusiastically applauded by the delegates, who are organizing to fight the coming referendum in this province.

Whisky Fleets Carry Crime.

Battalions of those who could not live a mile from a bunghole had marched upon Vancouver and were still coming from all quarters, dragging Vancouver down to degradation. Organized fleets of whisky boats were carrying crime, even murder, down the coast, and making Canada's name a byword, Mr. Cooke said. British Columbia was becoming famed as the land of the corkscrew, wheer the government stood behind the bars and handed out the liquor to all who had the price. The liquor influence was steadily increasing its grip and instead of government controlling liquor in British Columbia, the liquor drinkers of all Canada were using it as their bartender.

Carry Silver Flasks.

Respectable apartment houses were selling liquor, public dances were becoming open scandals, and young women were carrying liquor in silver flasks to the fashionable parties. Two rings, forming the biggest combine west of the Rockies, were doing their utmost to smash the laws and were endangering international relations with the United States by carrying on illicit traffic across the border in defiance of both United States and Canadian regulations. Blind pigs were wide open.

Mr. Cooke paid a tribute to Attorney-General Manson, who, he said, was making a splendid attempt to restore the majesty of the law when its moral force was dead, and asserted had Mr. Manson's predecessor been of the same mould the province "would not have become the sinkhole it now was."

Little Headway on Natural Resources Prairie Provinces

OTTAWA, Nov. 16—(By Canadian Press).—The conference between representatives of the federal and provincial governments with respect to the return of natural resources to three prairie provinces continued again this afternoon and will extend throughout most of tomorrow, it was stated tonight.

No statement of progress was made today, but it is understood that little headway was made in reaching anything that could be considered as a satisfactory basis of settlement.

Premier Greenfield and Attorney-General Brownlee of Alberta were in consultation with Premier King and members of the federal government this afternoon and the full conference will continue tomorrow. Difference of opinion between the Manitoba representatives and the federal government as to a feduciary accounting for all alienated resources exists, it is understood, and this is delaying progress of the negotiations.

NOTABLE MEN GO UNDER IN ALL PARTIES

Churchill Drops Out; Henderson's Defeat Surprise for Labor Party

HAMAR GREENWOOD ALSO IN DISCARD

Conservative Whip and the Health Minister Among Unexpected Reverses

LONDON, Nov. 16.—(By Canadian Press Cable.)—British voters apparently refused to be influenced by tradition when they cast their ballots yesterday, with the result that many apparently firmly established political figures were cast into the discard. Perhaps the most amazing development was the defeat of Rt. Hon. Winston Churchill, formerly colonial secretary, in Dundee, a constituency which he has held for many years. Not only was he defeated by the only prohibition candidate who sought election, E. Scrymgeour, but he ran fourth in the count.

Has Brilliant Career.

After a long and brilliant career as a soldier Mr. Churchill entered political life in 1900 and has been a prominent figure in British politics for more than 10 years. This, together with his able record as minister of munitions and secretary of state for war, seemed to assure his place as a permanent figure.

But Winston Churchill is young—he was born in 1874, so yesterday's result is probably only a temporary setback. Little less surprising was the defeat of Arthur Henderson, the Labor leader, in the face of heavy Labor gains. Labor, in turn, defeated Sir Donald MacLean, Asquith's principal supporter in Peebles, where the Labor candidate, J. Westwood, got 6394 votes, the Conservatives, 5992, and MacLean, 5377.

Falls to Asquithian.

Also there is the case of Sir Arthur Griffith Boscawen, minister of health in the Bonar Law cabinet and minister of agriculture under Lloyd George. He was unseated at Taunton by P. H. Simpson, an Asquith Liberal.

The defeat of Edwin S. Montague, former secretary of state for India in the Lloyd George cabinet, was not so much of a surprise, following the difficulties he got into last March by authorizing the publication of dispatches from the government of India calling for the revision of the treaty of Sevres, an act which caused Lloyd George to demand his resignation and caused him to be rebuked also by Lord Curzon and parliament.

Greenwood Goes.

Another figure long prominent in British politics who went down to defeat yesterday is that of Sir Hamar Greenwood, former chief secretary for Ireland, who was beaten by the Conservatives in Sunderland. Sir Hamar used a strong hand in Ireland and in some of his public utterances proved himself more of a soldier than a diplomat, which did not serve to increase his popularity.

Another notable loser was Col. Leslie Wilson, chief Conservative whip and secretary to the treasury in the Bonar Law cabinet.

Taxes, Confiscation and Fines Exceed the Cost of Enforcing Liquor Act

VICTORIA, Nov. 16.—Although the cost of enforcing the Liquor Control act since it became operative amounts to $105,967, receipts from taxes on imported liquor, confiscations, fines and estreated bail amounts to $227,267 at the end of September, showing a surplus of $121,300.

These facts came out before the legislative public accounts committee today in its investigation of liquor affairs.

Earthquake Shocks Still Prevail in the Afflicted Zones

SANTIAGO, Chile, Nov. 16.—Earthquake shocks in the afflicted zone still continue. Copiapo reports three strong shocks during the night, which shook down a number of the ruined walls and caused a panic among the residents.

The Chilean authorities characterize as groundless the report regarding the disappearance of Easter island.

YUKON CLOSES UP

DAWSON, Nov. 16.—The Klondike freeze-up officially began. The Yukon river in front of Dawson closed completely over between 8 and 10 o'clock this morning. This is the latest closing on record except in 1916, when the river closed on the same date.

For two weeks ice has been running in the Yukon, gradually getting heavier.

ELECTION RESULTS AT A GLANCE

With only eight returns still to come in, the British general elections give results which show that the Conservative majority cannot be less than 75 over all other parties combined and may be increased by accessions from the outstanding eight. Following are the figures:

Conservatives	345
Labor	141
Liberals	62
Lloyd Georgians	44
Independents	15

DEMANDS PROBE INTO ALLEGED BRIBE OFFERED

Rev. Gordon States $50,000 Offered Attorney-General of Manitoba

WINNIPEG, Nov. 16.—Commenting today on the statement of Rev. C. W. Gordon before the Presbyterian synod Wednesday afternoon that Hon. R. W. Craig, attorney-general of Manitoba, had been offered a bribe of $50,000, Major F. G. Taylor, leader of the Conservative party in the provincial legislature, declared the attorney-general should reveal the name of the man who attempted the bribery.

Major Taylor said: "It is a serious thing to admit that the chief law officer of the crown in this province has been approached with a bribe and the facts should be fully disclosed."

John T. Haig, leader in the last house, endorsed Major Taylor's stand.

Dr. Gordon's revelation makes it a grave public issue, he said "and the attorney-general should reveal the name of the man who tried to bribe him or should be compelled by the government or the legislature to do so."

Professor Tells of Blue Sky Laws to Protect Investors

VANCOUVER, Nov. 16.—At today's session of the annual western meeting of the Canadian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy, Professor R. C. Wallace, of the University of Manitoba, explained the "blue sky" legislation of that province devised to protect the investor in industrial projects from illegal schemes and eliminate unfair methods of promotion. While not important as a mining province, he said, Manitoba had for years been flooded with promotion schemes and schemers.

Research Work Needed

Research work to discover new methods of treating the primary ores of this country further any systematic study of the geological formations of the province, and systematic appreciation of the natural difficulties in imposing taxation, are essentials to the development of the mineral resources of British Columbia, Professor S. J. Schofield of the University of British Columbia told the members of the Canadian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy at the morning session.

Little Progress in 20 Years

Mineral production in the province had been practically stationary during the last decade, he declared, and quoted figures to show that the annual value between 1900 and 1909 had averaged approximately $13,000,000, while between 1910 and 1919 the average had been but $19,203,620. While the actual returns had been higher, he said the higher prices and forced production during the period of the war had been responsible for this condition. A close study of the figures would reveal but little progress had been made in the extent of the mining in the province for 20 years.

"I believe that the government should thoroughly investigate the subject," he stated, and seek to devise methods of selling claims. When there is a market for the properties, the hills will be full of prospectors.

Expect Reparations From Greece and Compensation for Allied Occupation

PARIS, Nov. 16.—Ismet Pasha, head of the Turkish delegation to the Lausanne conference, told the Associated Press today that the Nationalists expected to obtain reparations from Greece as well as payments for the allied occupation of the last four years.

BONAR [illegible]W WILL HAVE SUBS[illegible]TIAL MAJORITY

Former Premier's Downfall Is Outstanding Feature of Contest

LONDON, Nov. 16.—The long drawn out fight between former Premier Lloyd George and Sir George Younger has for the time ended with victory for the chairman of the Unionist party. Younger and his adherents staked their political fortunes at the famous Carlton club meeting when they smashed the coalition and sent Lloyd George into the wilderness on the contention that the country was ripe for straight party politics and in the firm belief that the nation should support their conviction by sending the Conservatives to the house of commons with a good working majority.

In the new parliament, Premier Bonar Law will command a majority over all parties combined of approximately 80.

Almost Same as Landslide

While this cannot properly be described as a landslide as the Conservatives at the time of dissolution of parliament numbered about 300, it amounts, considering the peculiar circumstances of the time and the high hopes held by Labor and Liberal parties to the return of the country to Progressive views, almost to the same thing, and it may be supposed that the Conservatives themselves hardly expected such favorable results.

It means a parliament with little changes, except that Bonar Law replaces Lloyd George as prime minister and the former premier's following, reduced by the elections to under 50, will presumably henceforth be in the opposition instead of working in cooperation with the Conservatives.

Lloyd George's Downfall Feature

The downfall of Lloyd George is the outstanding feature of the elections. The coalition Liberals at the dissolution numbered 129. They are represented in the new parliament by only 44 members. There will be many regrets among the former premier's admirers that he failed to take the advice of some of his well-wishers and retire for a time entirely from the political stage.

The Asquithian Liberals lately improved their position, rising from 34

IF BACK HURTS BEGIN ON SALTS

Flush your kidneys occasionally if you eat too much meat.

No man or woman who eats lots of meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Too much meat may form uric acid, which clogs the kidney pores so that they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood; then you get sick. Rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders often come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to help neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus often ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink, which everyone can take now and then to help keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby often preventing serious kidney complications.

in the old parliament to 62 in the new, but they did not do so well as they expected.

On the other hand Labor, although it failed to fulfill the high hopes the party entertained at the dissolution, has done exceedingly well, rising from 76 to 136 seats. It is generally believed that Labor would have done far better but for the tactical mistake in its advocacy for a capital levy.

Another striking feature of the elections is that the women voters have taken quite an unexpectedly strong interest in the struggle, their participation probably accounting more than anything else for exceedingly heavy polling.

Still 10 Returns Outstanding

There are still 10 seats the results of which will not be announced tonight, namely, some of the universities and distant scattered Scottish constituencies, from which the results may not be available before Saturday. The defeats of Rt. Hon. Winston Churchill, Sir Hamar Greenwood, former chief secretary for Ireland, and Frederick G. Kelaway, former postmaster-general, were severe blows to Lloyd George, who, however, had the satisfaction of seeing his son returned by a big majority, while both his secretaries, Edward M. Grigg and G. H. Shakespeare, were elected.

Numerous defeats were due to three-cornered contests. Labor suffered a bad one in the loss of Arthur Henderson, but, on the other hand J. Ramsay MacDonald, Phillip Snowden, Sydney Webb, chairman of the Independent Labor party and other Labor stalwarts have been returned.

Change Toward Pacifist

A notable feature was the changed attitude of the country toward men of pacifist persuasion, who were rejected in the patriotic war wave of 1918. Among these successful candidates are Ramsay MacDonald, Snowden, Arthur Ponsonby, Charles P. Trevelyan, Noel Buxton and George Lansbury, former editor of the Daily Herald.

Lloyd George said tonight that he was "quite satisfied with the results" but declined to be interviewed. Mr. Asquith declined to express any opinions on the results until he had an opportunity to examine them in detail. The Labor party issued a manifesto stating that they find "abundant reasons for satisfaction."

Labor's success is believed largely attributable to Sidney Webb, who has been in a great measure responsible for the campaign organization of the party for the past 30 years.

Frank Hodges, secretary of the miners' union, expressed delight tonight at the fact that with one exception, all the miners' candidates were successful, and predicted that parliament would have to reconsider the question of nationalization of the mines.

Following are details of the additional returns received last night:

MOCK ELECTION PROVES FUNNY

Hickville's Officials Are Chosen After Many Brilliant Speeches

Election of civic officers for the ancient hamlet of Hickville took place on Wednesday evening at St. Paul's church. Seventeen candidates in all sought election for the nine official positions. A huge crowd of the hamlet's residents turned out and heard the respective candidates before casting their votes.

Those chosen by the electors were: Mayor, Miss Burridge; aldermen, Miss B. McKenzie and Miss H. McDonald; police commissioner, Miss H. Laurie; trustees, Miss E. Brown and Miss G. Steeves; traffic cop, Rev J. B. Stirling; dog catcher, George Fleury; silent policeman, Miss O. Abbey. As most of the registered voters of the community were of the fair sex it was little wonder that a majority of the lady candidates were elected, and it is thought that the men of the community will now have to stand around and do as they are told. Miss M. Simmons acted as returning officer, Miss B. Ingram as poll clerk, Miss McClure as registrar, and Miss E. Ross as assistant registrar.

Following is a summary of the speeches put forth by those seeking office:

Chairman's Remarks

Jack Morris, chairman: Of course, ladies and gentlemen, the most important item on tonight's program is the chairman's remarks, but as we have so many speeches tonight and such a wonderful array of talent for you to hear I will be very, very brief.

First let me remind you that the welfare of our fair city lies in your hands and that you must mark your ballot, keeping this idea in mind, and when you enter the polling booth by yourself you will be alone, and remember, do not vote for any others that are here tonight, for if you do you will be just voting for a pig in a poke.

Your committee realizes that politics are a very, very peculiar thing. Those taking part must acknowledge this and you all know that the candidates must be a combination between a laughing hyena and a rhinoceros and we kept this in mind when choosing them for the different offices.

I will now introduce to you our first candidate for mayor, Miss Burridge.

A New Mayor

Miss Burridge, aided by several volumes of the Encyclopedia Britannica:

Ladies and gentlemen, it is all very well when a man wants to speak first and he says he will give the women the last word because she will take it anyway.

My friends said to me all that Hickville needs is a mayoress. My whole desire is to appeal to you for your vote, to look never backward and never forward.

I should hate to retract from the character of the other candidates, but, ladies and gentlemen, look at their clothes. Clothes such as that I never wear and never shall. Do you think that wearers of such clothes can be fitted for such important offices?

As I look upon this noble assembly before me I see many women, I see more women than men. I appeal to your righteous indignation, put men in their place, which, I admit, is their own home, by 10 o'clock every night.

I appeal to you, the women can do it, it is the women's turn to do it.

Successful Aldermen

Miss M. McDonald: Ladies and gentlemen, there is only on stipulation I would like to make before starting and that is that George Fleury, dog catcher, be put to one side.

For many years I have watched and deplored the state of our city's affairs.

My friends in asking me to be a candidate for the position of alderman stated that I was the only one that was really fitted for the position.

When elected, my first attempt to remedy the affairs of the city will be directed on the good roads and better streets committee. The first road to be made is a paved road to the golf links. A good road to Pulpit rock with tea rooms scattered along the way.

I can assure you that I am more than the others 100 per cent better, and if elected I will give a supper at the L. D. restaurant at the expense of the board of trade.

Miss Bessie McKenzie, an ideal country hick:

I have not many points tonight for my platform, I feel that my very presence here is platform enough.

I want you to realize that above all other things I am progressive. If I am elected as alderman I assure you that nothing under the sun will remain the same as it is now.

Next year, when I am an alderman, I shall plant the length of Baker street with rows of potatoes.

If I am elected there shall be no new theaters. Theaters are wicked. People would go to church instead if there were no theaters to go to.

Ladies and gentlemen, there shall be a stone wall built across the highway into the United States and there shall be no more bootlegging unless I have charge of it.

I shall see that the school board expenses shall be curtailed.

If I am elected and there is gentleman mayor elected I shall institute myself a self-appointed committee to look after his interests.

The Police Commissioners

Miss Laurie: I feel the call of duty in standing before you tonight. My city needs me. We need a good, strong, resolute, noble, energetic, tenacious, significant, thorough, penetrative, mindful, lawful, intimate and irresolute police commissioner.

You see before you the one in whom all these best mentioned virtues [illegible] of my opponents [illegible] the audacity to stand before you and say likewise? I advise them not to, for they are too well known. Perhaps some of my opponents will ask you what I know about a police commissioner.

Citizens, I stand before you for your best interests and mine.

Mr. C. Morris: It is a great honor for me to be able to address such a large intelligent audience, in fact since prohibition has become the vogue I notice how intelligent the ladies are beginning to look. In fact they are almost human, and now, ladies and gentlemen, for my credentials as police commissioner. We have in our family history a policeman and a prize fighter. I ask if any of my opponents can put before you as his standby a dead policeman and the ghost of a prize fighter. I gave you the vote, ladies and gentlemen. I was the majority and now give me back that vote that I gave you tonight, because I need it.

Gentlemen, close your ears. Ladies, the debatable question is as to how long or how short you should wear your skirts.

I shall introduce a new procedure on the part of our police force, they shall be delegated to pull the bobsleds after they have reached the bottom of the hill. A policeman likes a job with a little pull in it.

Coming down to serious matters, each policeman will join the B. S. K. order, more popularly known as the Banana Skin Kickers. Our policeman will kick the banana skins from the sidewalks so as to make it safe for Democracy.

School Trustees

Miss Erma Brown, an eminent suffragette:

Mr. Chairman, ladies and gentlemen, I stand before you as a candidate for the board of school trustees and I should like to say from the start that I stand on my own feet.

It is edderrcation that we need. It's them as has been a school marm that will be a good school trustee.

Some games is all right, but you got to learn something besides games if you are going to make a living We cannot all be Babe Ruths.

I will see that our school teachers pay more attention to school work and less to jazz. We don't want jazz artists to lead our children, being fully versed in the necessities of schools I would gladly seek election over my opponents.

James Notman: At the request of a number of electors of this city I have allowed my name to be placed before you as candidate for school trustee, and in support of my platform I wish to make a few statements, of which I have the facts before me in black and white, which cannot be disputed.

As far as I can discern from reading and discussions in my spare time there seems to be too large a gap between the public and high schools, and, if elected to school trustee I am in favor of giving the pupils, on coming out of public school, a year at playing hockey and baseball before entering high school.

I am in favor of lady teachers in the public schools in preference to men, as they are more diligent in their work and cannot hit as hard.

I do not want to blow about what a good man I am or what great things I can do, but I know, and you know, that I am the man best fitted to be placed on the board of school trustees for the city of Hickville.

Miss Steeves: I would suggest that we adopt the old custom of our grandfathers and do away entirely with teachers' salaries. I would also see that each class room had a telephone installed so that parents could call up at least once a day to see how the pupils are progressing. We need gramophones in our class rooms as well as radio machines, with the latter we could do jazz from India and the latest song hits from New York. We also need four holidays per week. I am also for the installation of movie machines in the schools so that the pupils could become more conversant with such well-known persons as Lloyd George, Jack Johnson and Doug Fairbanks.

Traffic Cop

Rev James Barr Sterling: Ladies and gentlemen, I stand before you tonight on this important occasion and want to inform you that one of the first things for a traffic policeman is speed, and I am certainly speedy.

Do you need further proof than by looking at us that I am the man. My opponent is too long for a policeman. In the Kootenay when the mists hang low his head would be above the clouds, the traffic would run over his feet. I am low down. The traffic can see me and get out of the way.

In the next place this man here will not do for a traffic cop, he is too brave and would be run over by the autos before he would get out of the way. As for me, I would hike as soon as I saw any coming my way.

In the next place, if I am elected as traffic cop I will allow not parting on Baker street and no sparking in Ward street. You ought to elect me, because I believe in equal rights for women. I would allow the ladies to go as fast as they can, and faster, and I solicit your votes tonight.

You could not put my opponent up as a traffic cop, I have got my uniform. I supply it free and I have got my bottom.

I want to be a policeman and a copper in Hickville town. To become a traffic cop one needs a little education, I have several degrees, I am P. A. and also a D. A. D., my wife is a M. A., as for my opponent, Mr. McIntoch, what is he?

Appointed Silent Policeman

Miss O. Abbey, who was the successful candidate for the above office, demonstrated her abilities to keep silent, and gave a wonderful speech that was inaudible to the large number of electors.

At the announcement of the winners in the election each successful candidate was presented with a healthy cabbage by George Fleury, the dog catcher, who gave a wonderful illustrated speech of his ability at handling dogs.

ALL THE FAMILY HAD BAD COLDS

"Did you ever notice that if one of the family contracts a cold it generally runs to all the other members?"

Many people when they contract a cold do not pay any attention to it, thinking perhaps it will pass away of itself in a day or two. This is a great mistake for before they know it, it has become settled on the lungs.

Never neglect the first symptoms; get a bottle of

and see how quickly your cold will disappear.

Mrs. A. Coghlan, Magnolia, Alta., writes:—"Last Winter we all had bad colds in our family, and I didn't know what to do. Some friends told me to try Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, so I went and got a couple of bottles, and in a short while our colds were all gone. Now we always keep a bottle on hand in case one of us might catch a cold."

"Dr. Wood's" is 35c and 60c a bottle, put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

ACTIVITY AT INVERMERE.

INVERMERE, Nov. 16.—There has been a marked activity in the turning over of mineral claims this year, greater than has been the case since the commencement of the Great War.

Isadora Has Alibi—Isadora Duncan has a perfect alibi. Charged in Boston newspapers with having taken off her dress, waving it and crying, "I am a red," she declared that this would be impossible, because the dress was fastened with three elastics over the shoulders and needed the services of a maid to remove it.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

Nurse Recommended Use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Bothwell, Ontario.—"I was weak and run down, had no appetite and was nervous. The nurse who took care of me told me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and now I am getting strong. I recommend your medicine to my friends, and you may use my testimonial."—Mrs. D. Maxwell, R. R. No. 2, Bothwell, Ontario.

The reason why Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is so successful in overcoming woman's ills is because it contains the tonic, strengthening properties of good old-fashioned roots and herbs, which act on the female organism. Women from all parts of the country are continually testifying to its strengthening, beneficial influence, and as it contains no narcotics nor harmful drugs it is a safe medicine for women.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "Ailments Peculiar to Women" will be sent you free upon request. Write to The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

HALLETT GETS GOOD MARKET OLD COUNTRY

Will Net One Eighty Per Box on Car of Cox's Orange and Newtons

WILLOW POINT SHIPS THIRTEEN CARS ACROSS

Returns From United Kingdom May Materially Change Outlook

In vivid contrast to the rumors going around as to the unsatisfactory returns on early apple shipments on the domestic market, is a cable advice received by Lieut.-Com. Gordon Hallett, as to the prices secured for a car of later varieties—Cox's Orange and Yellow Newtown—from his ranch at Longbeach, in the old country market. The 300 boxes of Cox's Orange in the shipment brought the equivalent of $4.50 a box when sold at wholesale by the commission merchant to whom the car was consigned, and the 400 boxes of Yellow Newtowns brought the equivalent of $4.10 a box.

In the case of the Newtons, Mr. Hallett, who has not yet had the detailed returns, figures that freight charges were $1.35 a box, that picking, packing and hauling cost 43 cents, that the container cost 18 cents, and the paper in which the apples were wrapped 10 cents, the total expense between tree and market being $2.06, exclusive of commission. Most of these items were heavier in the case of the Cox's Orange, but the price received was also greater. On the whole car Mr. Hallett figures that the net returns, exclusive of commission, will be about $1.90 a box, and allowing an outside figure for commission that the car will net him $1.80 per box.

Second Car Arrives.

This particular shipment was received in the old country on November 2, and was disposed of on the following day. A second car, which left here 17 days after the first one, was due to be received in the United Kingdom yesterday, according to notice received by Mr. Hallett from the C. P. R.

Incidentally, Mr. Hallett's crop was handled in the orchard by Mr. Fitzsimmons of Willow Point, a returned man who picked, packed and delivered it for transportation.

The net returns from this car, in a year when old country apple prices are regarded as low, should tend to reestablish confidence in the essential stability of the apple industry in this district.

The Willow Point Fruit Growers' union has shipped 41 cars of apples to date this fall, all through the Okanagan United Growers, and 13 of the 41 have gone to the old country. Under the terms under which the O. U. G. operates returns will not be made until the end of the season, and they will be averaged. The people of Willow Point, who have been fairly regular shippers to the old country, are following the published old country prices with interest, and though those prices are lower than in normal years, it is expected that the returns from that market will do much to counteract the unsatisfactory early markets elsewhere.

Late Varieties Sent Over.

Included in the 13 cars was one of Wealthies and Gravensteins. All the others were of regular winter varieties. There was one car of McIntosh Reds, and the balance of the shipments consisted of Jonathans, Cox's Orange, Spies, Wageners, Newtowns, Baldwins and Spitzenburgs, according to the records of Manager Guy Greenwood.

That the early markets were less favorable than the later ones now seems to be agreed, and returns coming in from later shipments seem to alter the outlook.

Set Date for Dinner and Distribution of Prizes to Winners

This year's annual dinner and presentation of prizes won by local and district fishermen and huntsmen will be held on Monday, November 27, according to a statement made yesterday by one of the members of the Rod and Gun club.

The dinner at which the prizes are to be given out was formerly planned for a date earlier in the month, but it was necessary to postpone it till a later date. It is expected that fishermen and hunters from al over the district will take part. The winners of the cups in these contests will be announced at the beginning of next week. At present all the returns from the official weighers-in are not at hand.

At the recent French races at least half of the women present wore veils attached at one side of their very simple cloche felt hats, with the ends swirled about the neck, and many were noted in deepest shades of brown.

A Return to Single Party Responsible Government

BONAR LAW'S government has been returned with a larger majority than was generally expected. The new prime minister and his party have full control of the house.

Not since 1905 has Great Britain possessed a government that could depend upon its own party alone. From Campbell-Bannerman to the Lloyd George coalition the government of the day has to depend upon some other party, which was the Labor group or the Irish group up to the time of the coalition, for the support necessary to enable it to carry on.

The result has been bad for the country. No government which has to depend upon the lukewarm and sometimes semi-hostile support of another party can give a country as good administration as a government holding office by a solid majority of its own party.

When a government depends upon men outside its own party for votes in the legislature, it is compelled to trim, to make deals, to be eternally compromising between the policy it believes to be right and the policy its morganatic partner desires.

Group support makes for a weak government in two ways. It prevents full play being given to the principles in which the government believes and for every crime of omission or commission it provides the government of the day with an excuse. It was always possible for Asquith to say, "I wanted to do this or that because I believed it to be right, but the Irishmen, or the Labor men would not permit it." Group government, or coalition government, is never fully responsible government.

Bonar Law has a straight party government. He and his party are free to carry out their policy to its logical endeavors and they will be stimulated to wholehearted endeavors to make their policy a success because they believe in definite principles and because there can be no escaping responsibility.

Buying the Toys

SOME little girls will have big, flaxen-haired dolls smiling from their stockings on Christmas morning. Some little boys will have toy airplanes, bomb-throwers and all the other paraphernalia of modern warfare.

Some other little girls and boys won't.

But those whose dollies are the ordinary sawdust kind with eyes staring rather stupidly, in front of them, and those whose toy soldiers are just everyday fellows, are to be congratulated.

The toys have known it all along. They have known, too, that the humbler ones of their assemblage, now so shiny with new paint in a thousand toy shops over the land, are due for a far happier life than their pretentious brothers and sisters who are destined for the homes of the rich. For a toy's happiness is measured by the love that is lavished upon it. And the child who has one simple toy thinks far more of it than he or she who has a new trinket for every mood.

Psychologists are beginning to find this out. They have worked out a whole involved system of toy teachings, in which the child mind dwells principally on simple objects, plain contours and brave, not delicate, colors.

So if a momentary sigh comes to you because you cannot afford to have Santa Claus bring "the best there is" to your little lad or lassie, smile instead. They will be all the better for it.

Wives are people who fill closets with useless junk they hate to throw away.

Efficient Housekeeping

A HARVEST HOME PARTY

Two column readers have asked me to write upon the subject of a Harvest Home Party. Original invitations for such a party are made by pasting a small piece of corn-husk on a correspondence card and writing with ink, the following:

Our folks want your folks, one and all,
To help us celebrate
The bounties of the Harvest time
Next Monday night, at eight.

In cases where this invitation goes to a single person, the first two lines may be changed to read: "We hope that you'll be free to come, and help us celebrate," etc.

For this party the living room is decorated with pumpkins, baskets of grapes, apples and nuts, corn husks (if available), and autumn leaves.

When all the guests have arrived the women are provided with sun bonnets and the men with bandana handkerchiefs (to tie around their necks!) and an old-fashioned Virginia reel or Sir Roger de Coverly is begun, to either victrola or piano music.

After this strenuous exertion, the guests will be ready to enter into the following quieter, but more ridiculous diversion:

Quilting Contest for Men—A small quilting frame is rigged up and onto it is tacked a yard or so of doubled calico with cotton between. Each man present is given a needle and long thread and directed to start quilting! The hostess, of course, explains to them that the needle must be run in and out in very fine stitches. The man who quilts in the finest stitches, making the straightest diagonal line, wins a prize.

A tufting contest for the women follows. Another small frame is produced, to which more double calico with cotton between, is tacked. A crewel needle threaded with a long piece of worsted is given each woman. At a signal all start tufting the little quilt, each woman making her tufts two inches apart and going in a straight line from her edge of the frame directly across to the opposite edge. To make each tuft the needle must be put down through the quilt from the top and drawn up to the surface again near the place where the needle went down then the wool tied and cut off. The contestant who finishes her row first wins a prize. (To make this contest fair, the hostess must, before the party, make ink or pencil dots on the calico to indicate where the tufts are to be put.)

Refreshments follow in the dining room, where the table centerpiece is a crepe paper "horn of plenty" filled with apples, oranges, nuts and candy. Old-time dishes are served, such as baked ham (sliced), cornbread, hot apple fritters, doughnuts, coffee and "punkin" pie.

Tomorrow—Some Good Recipes From Readers.

All inquiries addressed to Miss Kirkman in care of the "Efficient Housekeeping" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So if a personal or quicker reply is desired a stamped and self-addressed envelope must be enclosed with the question. Be sure to use YOUR full name, street number, and the name of your city and province.—The Editor.

The Lighter Side

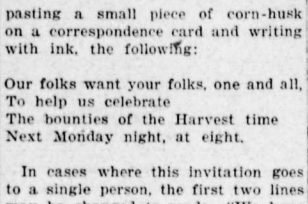
The hard part is to love your neighbor as your self.

—o—

Right-of-way: The peculiar privilege of five-ton trucks.

—o—

Matrimony is just an endless business of wondering what to fix for dinner.



There wasn't so much talk of high costs in the old days when they used flour sacks to make underwear for the children.

—o—

Almost everybody knows at least one fussy little man who reminds him of a minority report.

—o—

As a general thing, conservatism is an intellectual conviction and radicalism an empty stomach.

—o—

Well, if they really must wear these ribbed wool stockings, long skirts may be a blessing after all.

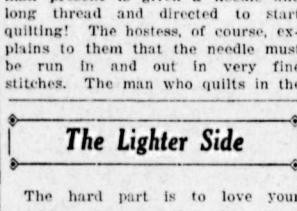
—o—

The process of deflation also affects some of the heads that got that way during prosperous times.

—o—

Daughter isn't wholly selfish. She never calls mother from the kitchen to wind the phonograph for her.

—o—



When a male creature begins to feel sorry for another man's wife, the devil rubs his hands and calls it a day's work.

—o—

Another thing this country needs is a cigarette that won't scar the edge of the table as soon as your back is turned.

—o—

Correct this sentence: "I wish," said the wife, "that you wouldn't keep telling me that you love me; I get tired of it."

—o—

Somehow, it would seem more tactful if immigrants to Canada would wait at least six months before telling us what is the matter with the country.

Use Lemon and Salt to Whiten a Scorched Garment

Even a careful laundress will sometimes scorch a garment. To whiten it again soak the garment in luke-warm water. Sprinkle the scorched place with salt. Then squeeze lemon juice over it freely. Expose it to the sun. Apply the lemon juice again if it does not whiten the first time.

Styles

by Lenore

While it is true that other colors have usurped the place that navy blue and black have so long held, neither of these cloors has been entirely abandoned. Some houses are still using a great deal of black, though a compromise is often made by combining it with bright colors, and navy blue is still considerably used, especially for street wear. In browns, which range from the somber seal shades to light caramel, the shade said to be most popular in Paris is a light tawny color with a lot of red in it. However, even there, black and dark blue are still "among those present" on the season's color card.

The trim-looking frock shown in the sketch today will look equally smart in any of the fashionable colors. It was shown by Lanvin recently, in dark blue duvetyn, with an exquisite bit of creamy shadow lace in a pleated frill high up around the neck, a charming setting for a youthful face. The bodice is not unlike a middy, with a deep upturned cuff that fits snugly around the hips.

United States Tariff Barriers Favorable to Intercolonial Trade

VANCOUVER, Nov. 16.—The Province carries the following special cable from Sydney, Australia:

"Hon. J. A. Robb has arrived here and was given an official reception. He was interviewed on the subject of what would be the effect of the American tariff on instituting direct trade between Canada and Australia.

"With the rates of the new American tariff in effect," said Hon. Mr. Robb, "direct shipment from Australia into Canada should result, because if this product now is to enter Canada free of duty, if imported direct, it is obvious that a great saving will be made by sending shipments from Sydney to Vancouver.

"There is also a good market in Canada for Australian fruits," continued the Canadian minister of trade. "A recent shipment of Australian oranges has been favorably commented upon."

"When entertained at a luncheon of the Sydney chamber of commerce, speakers emphasized the importance of Hon. Mr. Robb's visit and their appreciation that Canada had sent a minister of the crown to negotiate a trade arrangement.

"Hon. Mr. Robb in his address commented on the need of migration of Britain's surplus population to other parts of the Empire. If the United States has room for 100,000,000 he said, Australia and Canada should be able eventually to absorb quite as many.

"Hon. Mr. Robb will go to Melbourne on Sunday."

Has Hard Words for South Saskatchewan as Rum Running Area

WINNIPEG, Nov. 16.—Describing conditions in southern Saskatchewan where rum running is alleged to be prevalent, H. L. Montgomery, of Deloraine, Man., told the delegates to the Temperance convention here that "all the cut throats between the Gulf of Mexico and the 49th parallel" are operating there. He applied to Winnipeg to come to the rescue of the residents of southern Manitoba by refusing to allow a return to conditions in this province similar to those prevailing in Saskatchewan.

Reported Discovery Missing Millionaire Lacks Confirmation

RIO JANEIRO, Nov. 16.—No confirmation can be obtained here of the report from New York that Ambrose Small, the missing millionaire theater owner of Toronto, had been brought to this city. The report stated that Mr. Small, for whom the police of Canada and the United Staes have been searching for the past two years, died here recently from natural causes. The officials of the Rio Janeiro police declare they have no knowledge of Small's presence in this city or of his reported death. Inquiries at the Canadian office here and at the various consulates also fail to substantiate the story.

Excavate Bed in Creek to Divert Water in Spring

NEW DENVER, Nov. 14.—Men, under the supervision of Mr. Campbell are excavating a bed in Carpenter creek for the stream to take, hoping to direct its course straight to the lake. However, as the whole broad creekbed slopes now toward the main part of the town, it is feared that the freshet next spring will jump toward the north bank, as it did last spring, making of no avail the work that has been done. The only permanent thing would be to build a strong wall along the north bank, but this, of course, would mean a vast expenditure of money.

PROVINCIAL ASSESSOR SIZES UP THE VALLEY

CRESTON, Nov. 15.—Edward Ferguson of Nelson, provincial assessor, was an official visitor here this week, motoring down via Kuskanook, on his usual fall inspection of the district, to get a line of building operations and other developments with a view to revising the assessment before the tax notices go out at the first of December. A number of new residences have been erected, but the most pretentious structure is new Fruit Growers' Union warehouse, on Canyon street.

Windermere Out to Capture the Potato Prizes

INVERMERE, Nov. 16.—There will be a large local exhibit of certified and uncertified seed potatoes made at the provincial potato show to be held in Grand Forks this year on or about the close of this month.

The members of the Windermere District Potato Growers' association, cheered by the good results of their primary efforts in this line last year, are out in force to capture everything in sight. They have made a large number of entries in the following classes: Certified seed potatoes, 5; uncertified seed potatoes, 9; commercial seed potatoes, 13, gives a criterion of what to expect. In addition to this they are out after the provincial cup and first prize offered for the best district potato display.

One of the judges will be R. Gladwyn Newton, superintendent of the Dominion government experimental station here. Joseph Heath will likely go along as well and have an eye to the exhibits.

Though 1921 was only the first year for the association, yet its members were successful in gaining many of the coveted prizes which were offered at the then provincial show.

Markets and Finance

Market Recovers From Its Recent Acute Depression

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—The stock market made further recovery from its recent acute depression in the early part of today's active and varied dealings, but fell back sharply later. Dealings were largely porfessional and suggested a more general readjusment of traders' contracts.

Money conditions also favored the market's constructive side. Call loans opened at 5 per cent, but eased to 4½ per cent before noon and 4 per cent in the final hour as a result of the flood of offerings from local and interior financial institutions. Leaders of the steel, equipment and motor divisions, as featured by U. S. Steel, Baldwin Locomotive and Studebaker made their usual substantial contributions to the sessions at gains of 1 to 4 points, but these were more than canceled later.

Movements of oils were confusing. General Asphalt, for example, being the objective of another severe drive on familiar rumors of adverse financial conditions. Other foreign oils were irregular or uncertain, with many of the domestic groups.

Shippings represented the market's weakest side. International Mercantile Marine preferred soon reacting from its firm opening and suffering an extreme decline of almost 5 points to 44¾. The tone of the market was heavy, verging upon weakness. Further heavy liquidation of the independent steels, asphalt, Marine preferred and Industrial Alcohol finally extended to United States Steel, American Can, Corn Products and numerous specialties. Net losses ranged from 1 to 6 points among popular stocks.

Sales were 1,100,000 shares.

Pronounced strength was shown by European currency, sterling rising over 1 cent, presumably on the outcome of the British elections. The Paris rate was at its highest level in over a fortnight.

Proclaim Martial Law in Judenburg

VIENNA, Nov. 15.—Martial law has been proclaimed at Judenburg, in Styria, where the military and police, reinforced by students, hold the city and bridgehead, while across the river Mura 2000 workmen face them threateningly. These are the workmen made angry by repeated parades of the newly organized heimwehr, who began raiding the homes of peasant members of the organization and confiscating their arms. Several members of the attacking parties were arrested and the workmen assembled when the authorities declined to release them.

Red Mountain

The quick recovery made by these shares in the past week clearly indicate that the production performance of the mine is responsible for the heavy buying.

Buyers have not been stampeded by the short interests into parting with their stock. On the contrary they are steadily increasing their holdings, which accounts for this rapid advance.

Those who made purchases a week ago already have a profit of over 30 per cent on their investment. We believe larger profits are still to be made in Red Mountain at present market quotations.

There is a splendid description of Boundary Red Mountain in last week's Issue of the Spokane "Mining Truth." Fill out this coupon and a copy will be sent you free.

Red Mountain

Shares of this Company have given two remarkable demonstrations of basic strength. The first advance offered a profit of 30 per cent in a month. Following a recent reaction to 43c Boundary Red Mountain rallied to 62c in eleven days—a profit of 44 per cent.

The mine is now producing bullion at the rate of $565 per day. At prevailing quotations we have no hesitation in predicting a quick profit.

Boundary Red Mountain is listed on the Stock Exchange of Vancouver, B. C., Spokane, Wash., and San Francisco, Cal.

The shares command an instant sale on these markets.

LOCATION OF ORE TESTING PLANT OPEN

Cranbrook Board of Trade Wires Dr. King; Will Protect Interior Interests

CRANBROOK, Nov. 16.—According to word received from Hon. J. H. King, federal minister of public works, by the Cranbrook board of trade, it would appear that the location of the proposed ore testing plant for this province has not yet been decided on. The local board recently wired Dr. King, as their representative, to ascertain if the matter was still open and has received the following wire in reply.

"Ottawa, re ore testing plant. Understand press dispatches arise in answer to memorandum submitted by Vancouver board of trade to prime minister. Vote of hundred thousand carried for three or four years for ore testing plant in province of British Columbia, but never any decision made by department of mines as to location. Am hopeful investigation of mines department this summer will result in amount being placed in estimates this coming session, although location of plant must be left judgment of officials with a view to having location so mining industry will be best served. Can assure you interests of interior and east Kootenay will be fully guaranteed. J. H. King."

Commissions Novice to Construct New German Cabinet

BERLIN, Nov. 16.—Wilhelm Cuno, director-general of the Hamburg-American steamship line, was commissioned by President Ebert this afternoon to constitute a new cabinet, and immediately Herr Cuno got into formal touch with the party leaders for the purpose of ascertaining their attitude toward supporting "a cabinet of work" which he proposes to organize. This will comprise members of the middle and Socialist parties, but, according to Herr Cuno, will not have an outspoken partisan complexion.

After this advanced survey he informed President Ebert of his readiness to accept the chancellorship and then left for Hamburg for the purpose of adjusting affairs in connection with his position with the Hamburg-American line.

Old Friend of President.

Upon his return to Berlin tomorrow he will resume negotiations with the reichstag leaders. Although the reception accorded him in reichstag circles thus far has been reported as of a cordial nature, it is not believed that he will succeed in definitely constituting the new ministry before Monday. Herr Cuno is an old friend of President Ebert's and was first in line among the so-called neutral public leaders whom the president had in view as meeting his conception of leader of a ministry which would undertake the nation's economic reconstruction along broad and nonpartizan lines.

Unencumbered by Party.

The opinion in reichstag circles is that Herr Cuno, who is wholly a novice in parliamentary affairs, at least has the advantage of being unencumbered by party affiliations and that he is qualified to deal objectively with the acrimonious situations growing out of the present crisis, and might even succeed in reconciling the warring factions to a patriotic program of national reconstruction based on mutual interparty good will and understanding.

Herr Cuno's talk with the Socialist leader, Mueller, is said to have proceeded along sympathetic lines and the party's reichstag delegation voted tonight that it would not oppose his endeavors to construct a new government.

Walter Runciman, president of the board of trade in the Asquith ministry, was defeated for Berwick, the Georgians capturing the seat. The figures were: Captain Hilton Philipson, National Liberal, 11,933; Runicman, Liberal, 7354.

SNATCHES CHILD FROM FIRE DEATH

CALGARY, Nov. 16.—Mother love triumphed over fear of certain death Wednesday afternoon, when Mrs. F. Mosely, wife of a C.N.R. signal man at Lyall snatched her child from beneath the wheels of a C.N.R. train. The woman, with her baby clasped tightly in her arms, attempted to throw herself clear, but the big engin struck her down. The child escaped injury.

Thursday night the woman lay in the Holy Cross hospital battling bravely for her life, while local physicians, spurred by the story of the mother's heroism, exhausted every means known to medical science to save her. Dr. Coleman, her physician, stated her condition was critical.

WINNIPEG, Nov. 16.—The remaining athletes of the Edmonton professional hockey team arrived here this morning under the care of Manager MacKenzie, and immediately got down to real serious training on the artificial ice. There were about 13 on the ice, enough for two teams, and they looked pretty good to the large number of railbirds who were on hand to look them over.

The Edmonton team expects to perform against Regina here on Saturday, November 25, and the winner will meet the Toronto St. Patricks on November 28.

JUDGE DECIDES BOTH ARE RIGHT

Gives Judgment for Both Claim and Counter Claim Logging Case

That the plaintiff should have judgment in his claim of $810.29 and that the defendant should have judgment in his counter claim for $1335.15, was the decision reached by Judge J. R. Brown in the case of Acomb vs. Rady, in which Acomb sought to secure excess advances to the amount of $810.29, made to J. C. Rady in a logging contract. James O'Shea asserted a counter claim in favor of the defendant which was granted by his honor.

"I find that instead of 182,000 feet of logs being put into the boom, there was only 140,000, and I therefore reduce the claim for white pine logs to $504.00. As to the defendant's claim for 11,037 feet of spruce, cedar, larch and fir, I think is a large claim, as I have no means of checking, and as the plaintiff did wrong in not scaling certain logs when he turned them out of the boom and down the river, I mean the boom at Murphy's landing. The defendant shall have judgment in his counter claim for amount claimed less $504, that is $1899.15 less $504.00. Or $1395.15 and costs. The costs of the counter claim are to be taxed on the same scale as the plaintiff's costs therein.

Awards Damages

In the case of John Scott Wardle, who sought to recover damages from Crozier W. Bourke, in the case of a cow sold under a guarantee that she would freshen, the judge allowed damages to the extent of $50 and costs. "I find that there was a warranty breach and I fix damages at $50," said Judge Brown.

An application was made in chambers before Judge Brown for an order absolute in an action of foreclosure of an agreement, in Sharp vs. Kootenay Gold mines et al. C. R. Hamilton of Hamilton & Wragge appeared for the plaintiff. The order was granted.
