RITISH HOUSE BACKS CABINET ON RUHR ISSUE

mpathizes With Plan for eague Inquiry, but Votes It Down

OYD GEORGE FEARS DISASTER FOR FRANCE

serts Britain and States hould Pull France Out of Dangerous Impasse

ONDON, Feb. 19.—The house of mmons tonight by a vote of to 196 rejected the joint Liberal endment to the address in reply the speech from the throne, pro- ing an investigation by the league nations with United States co- eration into Germany's capacity pay reparations. The debate on question was lifted above the linary by the brilliant speech former Premier Lloyd George, o revealed undiminished parlia- ntary energy.

Thus, through parliamentary eti- tte which regards an amend- nt to the address as a vote confidence gainst the govern- nt of the day, the house rejected proposal which probably had the ong sympathy of the majority of members, because a contrary e wou'd have meant the fall of government.

Mr. Lloyd George, displaying all old mastery of apt phrase, took line that the action of France the Ruhr had developed be- nd anything the French govern- nt ever conceived, and that it s the business of Great Britain d the United States to etricate nce from an impossible and dan- rous position. He repudiated any a of censuring or criticizing the nar Law government, which had ne its best as a faithful ally. ery creditor had to choose be- een cash and mash, he declared. ance was trying both, but she ist decide upon one or the other. The French action was ill-con- ived, betraying lack of vision. He used to believe that any military viser of France had ever com- tted himself to the opinion that nce ought to seize the Ruhr.

Fears Irretrievable Disaster

The Ruhr was an open salient, thout natural frontiers and with hostile population. France was ing hostage to a possible enemy, ich might invite disaster in a litary sense.

n brief, Mr. Lloyd George con- ered the French government com- ted to a policy of irretrievable aster. There had been nothing the reparations problem which his opinion demanded such a lent step, and the disquieting ture was that there must be ne reason beyond reparations, since arly, reparations was not the ob- t in view.

t would be very difficult for nce to retrace her steps while pride of both countries were aged; the pride of France and rmany had been aroused; these ntries stood in a position of aming defiance.

Sees Danger of Revolution

Arguing that revolution in Ger- ny would be a greater danger France, Great Britain and Europe an militarism in Germany, and that French action was a repetition Germany'c blunder in 1914, the mer premier said he was only treating Bonar Law to take ther step and take it now. He not believe that Great Britain ld succeed alone; it was impos- le for the reparations and restor- on program to succeed without United States.

The United States had the world's ld locked in its chests, and was ffering from indigestion and sur- t. The United States had a ral responsibility; it had shared the war and helped to break Germany. The president had ned the peace treaty, and al- ough the senate had rejected it, t action was not on the ground reparations, but because it was able to accept the league of tions.

The United States had morally epted the whole position.

ASKS IF WOOD ONLY HONEST GRAIN BUYER

Attorney-General Boyle Wants More Evidence Before Believing Charges

EDMONTON, Feb. 19. — Without dissent, the legislature Monday afternoon adopted the resolution of W. C. Smith, Redcliffe, asking that a full and complete inquiry into the grain trade of Canada be instituted by the federal and provincial government concerned, the vote being preceded with admissions from various speakers that the Domonion investigation already authorized by the federal government would likely cover the field and that the Alberta resolution could have little more than a supporting effect.

Sensational charges made against the leading grain companies of the west, which were voiced by W. C. Smith, through an affidavit of W. Morrison, Edmonton, came in for criticism at the hands of Hon. J. R. Boyle, Liberal leader, and were referred to by Attorney-General Brownlee as allegations which should be supported by more facts before criminal action was started by the crown against corporations with long established business reputations.

"If these charges are true, and I hope sincerely they are not, that all the grain operators in the west but Mr. Morrison of Elmonton, are perjurers, thieves and blackmailers," declared Mr. Boyle, "then we have reached a serious state of affairs. If they are a fact, then the farmers of the west had a narrow escape when many of these same operators were being approached last fall to become members of the wheat board. If we believe these statements, then H. W. Wood was the only honest man approached." Mr. Boyle suggested that the whole matter was a "family row" between the U. F. A. and their former friends, the United Grain Growers, and hesitated "to take sides" in favor of the resolution.

Dr. J. S. Stewart, Conservative, Lethbridge, charged that the failure to have a full inquiry into the grain trade in 1921 could be laid at the doors of the farmers themselves because they had upheld the action of the United Grain Growers in filing the injunction on behalf of the Winnipeg grain exchange which put an end to the inquiry authorized by the Dominion government that year.

FRANCE LOOKS FOR ENGLISH VOLUNTEERS

Poincare Says British Engineers Expected to Aid in the Ruhr

DENIES INTENT TO REPLACE DeGOUTTE

No French Rolling Stock in Occupied Area; Chamber Wants More Data

PARIS, Feb. 19.—The foreign relations committee of the chamber of deputies today heard Premier Poincare for three hours and a half, but the information it wished to obtain was not completed, so the premier will appear again before the committee on Monday next to continue his explanations.

The premier stated that the French and Belgians occupied 2800 square kilometres in the Ruhr basin, leaving 500 square kilometres outside the occupation district. The occupied district produed 90,000,000 tons of coal yearly, and the unoccupied part of that territory produced 8,000,000 tons. The government mines represented only one-fifth of the total production.

Coke ovens numbered 14,500, of which 14,200 have been taken over; these were capable of turning out 8000 tons daily. The population of the Ruhr is 3,5000,000, of which 3,000,000 are in the occupied area. The persons engaged in the management of the mines in the occupied area number from 1000 to 1200. After praising General de Goutte declaring there have never been any questions about replacing him, M. Poincare continued:

Mission Purely of Control

"It is not questioned that our mission is purely one of control. This mission is entrustd to 60 engineers, mostly French; some English engineers and volunteers are expected shortly. As a reply to sabotage, we have expelled 283 high officials from the Ruhr and 55 from the Rhineland; they were replaced by officials of lower rank as we must not replace them with French.

"Before our occupation, there circulated daily in the Ruhr 585 passenger trains and 620 freight trains; today, owing to disturbances caused by orders form Berlin, there are only 70 trains altogether daily. There are 4000 railroad employees in the Ruhr and 120,000 in the Rhineland. France has only sent 9640. There is no French rolling stock in the occupied zone.

"To the present, 1926 cars of coal have been sent to France and Belgium."

The premier dealt with the negotiations with Great Britain regarding transport by train through the British zone in the Rhineland. He gave it as his opinion that the British official feeling was not so opposed to French policy as seemed to be believed in France.

Egyptian Government Closes Door of Tomb Against the Surging Crowds of Curious

LUXOR, Feb. 19.—King Tutankhamen's dust will not be disturbed this season. By theend of the week it is most probable that the aperature in the sealed door of the tomb will be screened with wadding on a wood framework and that the debris of centuries will be piled into the tomb shaft as the most effective protection against theft. A police guard will remain throughout the summer. The crowds seeking admittance to the fourth chamber Sunday were of such proportions that the Egyptian authorities this morning forbade any further incursions.

DUKE DECLARES TAXES CAUSE OF UNEMPLOYMENT

Points Out State Takes Twenty-four Pounds Out of Forty Thousand Income

LONDON, Feb. 16.—(By Canadian Press Cable)—The Duke of Bedford, addressing his tenants today, said:

"In the year 1921, my taxation amounted to 12 shillings and threepence to the pound. If I wanted to employ 200 men for one year at 30 shillings a week, I should require an income of £40,000, out of which the state would take £24,000 the men £15,000 and myself the value of the men's work, but not sixpence for any other purpose. That is an impossible situation. Money taken by the state from employers cannot be spent by them on labor."

CONGRESS IS SPEEDING UP WAR DEBT PACT

Funding Agreement Will Be in Effect by the End of This Month

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—The agreement between the United States and British government, under which Great Britain will have 62 years for the payment of its $4,600,000,000 war debt to this country, will become effective before the end of this month.

This was made certain today with the action of the house ways and means committee instructing Chairman Fordney to move tomorrow in the house to accept the senate changes to the amendment to the debt funding act giving congressional approval of the agreement.

Saskatchewan Solon Thinks Maharg Leads Motley Crew

REGINA, Feb. 19.—Hon. J. A. Maharg's political position in the country and his position in the house as leader of the opposition were under fire in the Saskatchewan assembly today during the continuance of the debate on the resolution in reply to the speech from the throne.

Mr. Maharg's position was assailed by Hon. G. Gardiner, minister of highways, who referred to Mr. Maharg's open-mindedness as a suitable qualification for leading the opposition in that house. "I believe," said Mr. Gardiner, "that so far as the opposition is concerned, they are under the leadership of the only type of man who can lead that kind of opposition," referring to the wide variety of platforms on which members of the opposition were elected to the house.

Replying to Mr. Maharg's criticism that members on the government side of the house were not elected as Liberals but were now members of a Liberal government, Mr. Gardiner said that Mr. Maharg himself was elected a supporter of the Martin government, Premier Martin and his followers having been elected as Liberals in 1917.

On the same subject, P. L. Hyde, government member for Maple Creek, stated that as the policies of the provincial Liberal government under Hon. Charles Dunning were the same as those of the Martin government, he should be a supporter of the present government. "It would be just as reasonable," he said, "for him to leave the Progressive party and turn another political somersault."

HOUSE KILLS PROPORTIONAL VOTE SCHEME

Farmer Motion Beaten 90 to 72 on Division; Party Lines Break

MEIGHEN SAYS WOULD CREATE MORE GROUPS

Gouin and Dr. King Vote Against; Other Cabinet Ministers For

OTTAWA, Feb. 19.—An all-day debate in the house ended in defeat, shortly before midnight, of a motion by W. C. Good, Progressive, Brant, that one or more multi-member constituencies be created under the redistribution bill for the purpose of demonstrating the working of proportional representation.

The house divided: Against, 90; for 72; majority against, 18.

The vote struck across party lines, and divided the cabinet. The prime minister, with Hon. Messrs. Fielding, Lapointe, Robb, Murdock, Motherwell and Stewart, voted in favor. Sir Lomer Gouin and Dr. King voted against.

Members of the Liberal rank and file divided for and aganist. Conservatives voted against with the exception of W. F. Maclean, South York, who supported the resolution.

Progressives voted for with the excepion of T. G. McBride, Caribou, who voted against.

Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, leader of the opposition, was opposed to proportional representation, he said, on the ground that it multiplied and continued groups in politics. On the other hand, Premier King declared his belief in proportional representation, although admitting he was impressed with the argument that its application to one constituency might create an injustice.

Debate on proportional representation was preceded by a brief speech by Mr. Good on another resolution of his, favoring the alternative vote in single member constituencies. The resolution was adopted without a division.

It states that the last general election demonstrated many serious anomalies of the existing electoral system, and also that the time is appropriate for the introduction of this reform in view of the fact that the government intends to pass a redistribution bill. Therefore, Mr. Good asks the house to agree that the alternative vote method should be adopted for use in future elections in all single member constituencies where more than two candidates are running.

Mr. Good Explains Idea

Speaking in favor of the alternative vote system, Mr. Good explained the method by which the electors were given the opportunity of naming their first, second and third choice candidates. In the federal elections in 1921 there had been 140 constituents out of 234 where there were three, four and five-cornered contests. In these, under the present method, it was impossible to secure a true expression of what the voters desired.

When Mr. Good took his seat, Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen rose to ask Hon. W. S. Fielding, who was leading the house, "if the government had no attitude on this question."

Mr. Fielding replied that last year the prime minister had spoken in favor of a similar resoluton introduced by Mr. Good. This, he said, was a private member's resolution, and the members of the government were free to vote for or against it as they desired. 'For myself, I shall support the resoultion," said Mr. Fielding.

Rt. Hon. Mr. Meighen expressed astonishment that no opinion as to its policy on the subject had yet been given by the government. He wondered if the government had any policy. Such an attitude, said Mr. Meighen, was without a parallel. In a subject of such magnitude, affecting as it did the whole Canadian electoral system, he firmely believed that it was the duty of the government clearly to state its attitude.

It was true, he said, that in 1919, the Liberal party had committed itself to the principle of proportional representation. If this constituted the government's position, the people should be made aware of the fact. Perhaps the governments' attitude was in favor of the principle, but not of the practice. They had a precedent for this attitude on the question of free trade. Mr. Meighen said he was opposed to the resolution because proportional representation fostered, or at least multiplied and continued groups in politics.

Objects to Log-Rolling

He had not opposed the resolution regarding the alternative vote. It was true that the alternative vote might lead to "log-rolling" in a constituency, but that was better than "log-rolling" in parliament.

Mr. Meighen said he would not deny that proportional representation would tend to more accurate representation of public opinion, but it would be purchased at too great a cost. Even if proportional representation were right, he would be opposed to its isolated application. Its isolated application was unfair between parties and as between constituencies. If it were applied where one party was strong to take away

STATES PLAN TO HANDLE GRAIN AT VANCOUVER

Montreal Expert Urges Two Jetties, New Elevator and Larger Facilities

VANCOUVER, Feb. 19.—Two jetties, a new elevator, additional storage and equiment at the present elevator, an unloading shed, and a system of carriers to jetties, Ballantyne pier and the government dock berths are among the recommendations of John Rolph, president of the John Metcalfe company, grain elevator owners of Montreal, who made personal investigations of the grain handling facilities of this port last week, and handed his report to the commissioners before he left last Saturday for home. The report is to be considered by the commissioners upon their return from Ottawa.

Mr. Rolph's recommendations provide berth space for more than a dozen ships, including the present docks of the Canadian Government Mercantile Marine, limited. The expert's suggestions regarding elevators would increase the present capacity of 1,250,000 by 2,200,000, as the new proposed elevator is of 1,500,00 capacity.

Offers New Elevator

VANCOUVER, Feb. 19.—Provided the Dominion government approves of a scheme whereby the Vancouver harbor board will acquire property of which he now holds control, and resell to him on 21-year terms, and the city will grant certain tax exemptions on the site and improvements, E. A. Woodward, Winnipeg and Fort William grain man, will build a 500,000 bushel grain elevator costing approximately $400,000, here, according to a statement made by A. B. MacDonald, K.C., his solicitor, today.

A site having a frontage of 150 feet has been acquired by Mr. Woodward, who wants the harbor board to take over this property for $100,000, which he will pay back in 21 years at interest. During this period the board will have title to the property and to the grain elevator which he will immediately erect upon the site.

Lt.-Col. G. H. Kirkpatrick, chairman of the harbor board, and Sam Prenter, commissioner, have approved of the scheme, Mr. MacDonald stated, and left for Ottawa on Sunday night where they will seek government sanction for the deal.

"The investment which Mr. Woodward's scheme would entail is about $650,000," said Mr. MacDonald. "Of this amount Mr. Woodward would find about $400,000 at once for the construction of the elevator and the harbor board about $250,000, which would be paid back in 21 years at interest."

In addition to this a local paper says two more grain elevators, each exceeding in size and facilities the present government elevator, and a 500,000 bushel capacity added to the latter structure are included in the present plans of the Vancouver harbor board.

Poles Claim Only Police Fought With the Lithuanians

WARSAW, Feb. 19.—The fighting in the neutral zone lying between Poland and Lithuania consisted of attacks by Lithuanians on police of Poland, of whom 10 were killed and two wounded, according to an official statement issued tonight.

The statement adds that Poland is not engaged in any military enterprise and thus far is not using a single soldier of her regular army.

PARIS, Feb. 13.—A Havas dispatch from Warsaw says that continued concentrations of Lithuanian forces in the direction of Vilna indicate attempts against the city of the same character as Memel. Troops supported by artillery, attacked near Orany. Among these troops wereV numerous Lithuanian German volunteers, employed as reserves.

Hon. F. M. Black Expects Over Million Deficit for Present Year

Gasoline, Au[illegible] Amusements, Marriage [illegible] Racing Bets, All [illegible] Pay More

WINNIPE[illegible]eb. 19.—Explaining the deficit of [illegible]6,182.15 for the past year, foreca[illegible]g a deficit of $1,151,090.25 for [illegible] present year and announcing [illegible]taxation which, by 1924, will mea[illegible] added burden of $2,000,000 per[illegible]um, Hon. F. M. Black, provincial [illegible]easurer, made his maiden budget speech in the legislature tonight.

The estimate submitted allowed for an expenditure of $11,224,134.01 for the year ending August 3, 1923. The estimated revenue from existing and new sources was placed at $10,073,043.76.

Revenue estimated at $325,000 is expected to result from new taxes, effective this year, on gasoline, trading in futures, and on aerated waters and other beverages. Increased taxation under existing levies on marriage and game licenses, motor vehicles and an extension of the Amusements Tax act to include billiards and pool wagers on race courses, is expected to yield $524,500.

Mr. Black announced the government had decided to enact income tax legislation to be collected in 1924 on incomes earned this year. The expected yield of this tax is $1,000,000, which would make the total new revenue in 1924 about $2,000,000, after allowing for the new taxes to be put on this year.

The treasurer declared this increase, with economies, should balance the budget and leave surplus by 1924. These surpluses, he declared, would take care of the big deficit this year. The accumulated deficit of the Norris government would be taken care of through an issue of debentures for $2,000,000, so that this could be paid off on an amortization basis.

Capital expenditures to complete public works now under way are estimated at $1,150,000. The total capital expenditure to be authorized will be $2,200,000.

Vancouver Thugs Rob Three Stores; Leave No Trace

VANCOUVER, Feb. 19.—At an early hour tonight Vancouver police were absolutely without trace of the bandits, believed to be identical, who bound and gagged two employees of the Central theater here early this morning and rifled the office safe of $2500, smashed open the safe of Almonds, limited, ice cream wholesalers, and took $300, and robbed the store of S. K. Puseyo, silk dealers, of goods worth $1000.

HOW TO SLEEP ON A BARE FLOOR

IT is more a matter of SLEEP, than of bed or board.

Some people can sleep sitting up, standing up, even while walking.

Many people can't sleep in the softest of downy beds; and all of us suffer occasionally from nerve-racking, wearing, tiring wakefulness at night.

There is always a reason for sleeplessness. Usually, it is a "sour" stomach, a liver that has "lain down" on the job, congested bowels, or biliousness.

Then, just before retiring, take Beecham's Pills. They soothe an uneasy stomach, encourage the organs of digestion and elimination to natural activity, and assure restful sleep no matter what!

TORONTO, Feb. 19.—Hugh Thompson, general production foreman in charge of station B of the Consumers' Gas company, where 10 men were suffocated by escaping gas on February 8, at the inquest tonight, accepted full responsibility for the accident.

He had sent men to open an 18-inch gas main in order to attach a "booster" pipe after assuring them that the smaller pipe feeding into this main had been cut off. He had, however, he told the jury, overlooked valve No. 8, and by the time the mistake had been discovered and the valve turned off, the men employed in the room below were either dead or dying.

Thompson, who has been an employee of the company for 35 years, declared he was taking the blame freely and voluntarily.

Chief Coroner Dr. Graham's jury after midnight brought in a verdict that the disaster was the result of a frankly admitted oversight by Hugh Thompson, general foreman of station B, in neglecting to give instructions to James Brooks, an assistant, to close a valve, thereby permitting a return flow of deadly gas.

Sun Life Assurance Company Concludes Its Best Year Yet

The financial statement issued by the Sun Life Assurance company of Canada this week affords a demonstration of activity and strength which will be gratifying alike to its policyholders, and to the large public who take pride in the predominant position occupied by Canadian financial institutions. This company, for many years, has pursued an aggressive policy not only in Canada, but far beyond its borders, being firmly established on five continents and having active agencies in more than 50 countries.

The statement covers the transactions of the company during 1922, the 51st year of its operation. In all departments, substantial advances are recorded as compared with the previous year. New business written reached $107,225,248, and the total assurances now in force reach the impressive figure of $631,404,869. These figures emphasize the company's position as the leading life company of the Dominion, and as the largest company, doing an ordinary life business exclusively, in the British Empire.

This expanson is accompanied by corresponding increases in income, assets and surplus. From premiums, interest and other sources a total cash in come of $36,251,322 for the year is recorded, an excess over the 1921 figures of $5,144,172—by far the greatest advance ever recorded in a single year. Assets now reach the sum of $174,088,858, an increase of $44,716,731; another record, both relatively and absolutely, for the company. After providing for all liabilities and capital stock, and setting aside substantial sums to provide for investment fluctuations and other contingencies, a surplus of $14,269,420 is disclosed, being a gain of $3,885,511 over the year 1921. The care and forethought with which the company's investments have been chosen in the past is reflected in an average interest earning rate of 6.27 per cent.

That the Sun Life of Canada is fulfilling its mission is demonstrated by its payments to policyholders or their beneficiaries during the year, a total of $15,615,505 being reached. This represents a payment of $6500 for each hour of the year on the basis of a working day of eight hours. The sum of $2,673,816 was paid, or allotted, in respect of dividends. The company has now paid to its policyholders or their representatives since organization, a total of $129,770,509.

The statement justifies the claim that the Sun Life of Canada has enjoyed the most profitable and saitsfactory year in a history remarkable for its progress. Its figures indicate that the public are deeply sensible of their domestic resposibility, for the large underwrit-

Egg Exchange Lays Plans for Opening at End of Month

Nelson and district poultry owners have responded well to the call for organization of an egg and poultry exchange and about 3500 birds have been signed up. In addition, Slocan and several other districts have been signed up 100 per cent.

These reports, with a number of others, will be presented tonight at a meeting in labor hall of all local poultrymen to which the public is invited.

The meeting will be addressed by G. C. Milnes, secretary of the board of directors of the Vancouver exchange, and by C. W. Traves, formerly provincial government instructor, but who will be manager of the new exchange in this district. Both speakers will tell of preparations for the opening of the exchange on March 1. It is expected that by tonight a total of 20,000 birds will have been signed up.

Nelson is to be headquarters for the new exchange which is to be known as No. 2. It is expected that it will be shipping about March 10. It will sell on grade right from the start and all eggs will be graded according to the government standard so that the exchange will be in a position to enable a merchant to guarantee the products of the exchange in every way.

Premier King announced that he was in favor of both the alternat vote and of proportional represen tion.

"What about representation by p ulation?" asked W. F. MacLean.

"Yes, I believe in that, too," Mr. King's reply.

He added that though he beli in proportional representation, was much impressed by Hon. H. That's Why Nova Scotian Lady Recommends Dodd's Kidney Pills

Mrs. Leo Gaudett Found Relief and Tells All Suffrers to Use Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Saulnierville Sta., N. S., Feb. 19.—(Special).—The value of Dodd's Kidney Pills as a household remedy is shown by the following statement of Mrs. Leo Gaudett, a well known resident here.

"I suffered with kidney trouble," Mrs. Gaudett states, "I took Dodd's Kidney Pills and have received great benefit from them. I think they are very good."

What Mrs. Gaudett states is all that has ever been claimed for Dodd's Kidney Pills—that they are good for sick kidneys. The road to good health lies through the kidneys. If they are kept strong and well, all the impurities are strained out of the blood. If they are weak and out of order the impurities stay in the blood and disease is the sure result. Dodd's Kidney Pills keep thue kidneys in good condition to do their work of cleansing and purifying the blood.

Ask your neighbors if Dodd's Kidney Pills do not make sound, healthy kidneys.

KEEN INTEREST IN CONVENTION

Nelson Party for Boards of Trade Sessions Leaves for Trail Tonight

Representatives of Nelson at the convention of the associated boards of trade of eastern British Columbia which opens tomorrow in Trail, will leave tonight and from present indications this city and district will be largely represented.

The last few days have seen many important resolutions submitted for consideration and it is likely that the meetings will prove of most practical benefit.

Commissioner Fred A. Starkey, who has been making arrangements, has issued a request that all those who are to make the trip will communicate with him as soon as possible in order that he may take steps in regard to accommodation.

Tuberculosis Test Has Been Put to Ainsworth Cattle

AINSWORTH, Feb. 19.—Dr. B. R. Ilsley, provincial inspector of cattle, paid Ainsworth a visit last week to inspect the cattle for tuberculosis. All successfully passed the test with the exception of one milk cow owned by W. E. Lane, which was badly infected and was destroyed immediately.

Mrs. Fred Brown, who is visiting her mother from Saskatoon, left Saturday for Nelson to spend the weekend with her sister, Mrs. George McPherson, before returning to her home.

John Tonkins is able to be back to work at the Lake Shore mine, after having been laid up for a week through a slight accident.

Monday and Tuesday of last week was the coldest in Ainsworth for years, the thermometer registering 5 degrees below zero.

Although there is 18 inches of snow violets are in bloom in several gardens here.

AUDITOR'S REPORT CONFIRMS SURPLUS

The report of the civic auditor, Charles F. Hunter, on civic finances for 1922, and tendered to the city council at its meeting last night, confirms a civic surplus for the year of $57,601.51.

MOVE MADE FOR NEW SCHOOLS

City Council Authorizes By-law to Issue Debentures for $80,000

A bylaw to issue civic debentures for $80,000, of which $40,000 will be spent this year in the provision of additional school accommodations, was authorized by the city council at an adjourned meeting last night. Present were Mayor L. H. Choquette; Aldermen A. S. Horswill, A. T. Walley and Ross Fleming. Also present was Alderman W. M. Cunliffe, who has recovered from an illness which confined him to his home for some days.

The special estimates of the school board were accompanied by a communication from the board declaring that at the present time the board was utilizing outside accommodation, which was not at all satisfactory. Classes were being conducted in the attic and basement of Central school, but these were wholly unsuitable for this purpose.

Of the expenditure planned, the government will contribute $20,000. The construction planned by the school board provides for a new school on Robson street and an addition to Hume school in Fairview.

The Fairview sewerage system by-law was given third reading.

BRITISH HOUSE BACKS CABINET ON RUHR ISSUE

orities demanded, but that everything essential could be carried within the four corners of the treaty. Mr. Lloyd George concluded:

France and Britain Together

LONDON, Feb. 19.—Following are excerpts from the speech of former Premier Lloyd George in the house today:

"Upon one statement * * * I should like to express my view. And that is that it is extremely desirable that France and Britain march together. * * * I have never departed from that principle—it is essential that the democracy of France and the democracy of England should walk together and act together insofar as they can.

"Friendship for France does not mean that we must support every act of every French ministry. On the contrary, I think the truest friendship for France, the sincerest friendship for her people, is that which dominates those who are now entreating the government to take some action that will save France from disaster, a disaster inevitable sooner or later, and the later the greater.

"I agree with the noble lord (Lord Cecil) when it comes to the question of the reparations problem being not so difficult, but it is that which makes me suspect it is not reparations and that there is something beyond reparations—that is the disquieting feature. There is nothing in the reparations situation demanding such violence as this."

He then detailed the negotiations regarding reparations and France's rejection of any proposals put forward by his government and later by the Bonar Law government.

"It is difficult to believe, having due regard for these facts, that reparations was the only purpose for which France took this grave step (the invasion of the Ruhr)."

Psychological Blunder, He Says

"It is really a psychological blunder of the first magnitude. It is the same psychological blunder the Germans made in 1914.

"But France has committed herself to it. Two brave nations, each capable of endurance and sacrifice, have been roused. They stand today in a position of gleaming defiance.

"If Germany breaks up, reparations, at any rate, will break up. You will be dealing with six states instead of one, and disarmament goes. You cannot control six different states, many of them hundreds of miles from the French frontier. If you have a revolution in Germany, so much greater the danger to France and Britain and Europe than it is to Germany.

"The French are pursuing a course of unutterable peril. Security. I am for security for France—I was the first to propose a pact by which the might of America and Britain and the whole Empire was to be behind France if attacked by Garmany. * * * I am all for security either by Britain or by the League of Nations, but what security is there in seizing the Ruhr?

"If we are a real friend to France—and I think we are—we shall do our best to extricate France from this enterprise ere it becomes too late. I hope it will come to an end and I entreat the government to take the initiative of the first step in approaching the United States of America; then, together, approaching France and both those two great countries will be able to get rid of the difficulty which has been hanging cloud-like over the fortunes of Europe."

"I entrust the government to take the initiative, first by approaching the United States and then, with the United States, approaching France. Then I believe, both together will be able to surmount the difficulty."

Arthur Henderson, Labor, appealed to the government not to make the amendment a vote of censure, but to leave it to a free vote of the house.

Sir John Simon, supporting the amendment for the Asquithian Liberals, argued that when the Versailles treaty was made, the world lacked all the experience of a transfer of wealth from defeated to victorious nations; hence, a great miscalculation was made for which it was not just to blame anybody in particular. Therefore, they were justified in asking that the whole problem be referred to an independent expert tribunal.

Bonar Law Says French Wrong

Premier Bonar Law, in winding up the debate, emphasized that like the supporters of the amendment, he disapproved of the French action, but was unable to see that it would help matters to take steps actively opposing France, as Mr. Lloyd George proposed. He reminded Mr. Lloyd George that he had himself, less than two years ago, proposed in an ultimatum to Germany that the Ruhr should be occupied on the ground of Germany's default.

The premier contended that if France, last August, refused to listen to a proposal to submit the question to the league of nations, it was quite unlikely that she would listen now, when French pride was involved.

On the question of United States participation, there was a wide variety of opinion.

Lord Robert Cecil thought that a formal invitation to Washington might cause Washington to restate that government's opinion that Europe must first compose her own quarrels.

System Run Down Blood Out of Order

Many people become run down, but don't know just exactly what their trouble is, when, as a rule, it is improper circulation of the blood.

All they need is a good tonic to build up the system and put the blood into proper shape.

For this purpose there is nothing on the market to-day to equal

Burdock Blood Bitters

It regulates the stomach, liver and bowels, purifies the blood and tones up the entire system.

Mrs. H. Poole, Port Dover, Ont., writes:—"My system was run down and my blood out of order, and I suffered a great deal from pains in my head which made me feel very miserable. A friend told me to try Burdock Blood Bitters, so I got a bottle and before it was used I found it was doing me good. I kept on until I had taken three, and now I feel like a different woman.

My husband also took it and it has built him up."

Moscow's Backdown

The enthusiasm for the Moscow government is much on the wane, both in Berlin and Angora. After allowing themselves to be used as a bogey to influence both the Lausanne conference and the policy of France in the Ruhr, the bolshevists have suddenly "gone back" on their German and Turkish friends and repudiate all belicose intentions.

It is now announced from Moscow that Russia will only defend herself if attacked, but will give no active aid to anyone beyond her own frontiers. She will not even aid the German workers if they should bring off a social revolution. Nothing has transpired as to the message sent to Angora, but there is every reason for believing that the Turks, too, are to be left to fight their own battles.

This change of front has probably come as a cold douche to Angora, where the vague threat of Russian support was Mustapha Kemal's trump card in dealing with the powers. The nationalist army, unaided, does not count as a very formidable fighting force against allied troops.

With a million or so of Russian troops looming up vaguely behind the Turkish contingents, Mustapha Kemal was a power to be reckoned with. But his badly equipped army opposed single-handed to seasoned British, French and Italian troops would have no chance of victory. The collapse of the Moscow bubble will mean the end of the Angora "bluff."

Riches of Pharaoh

Read the latest description of the banquet table of a modern Croesus or of the "den" of a movie star or operatic diva, peer into the deposit box of a pet danseuse and catalogue her jewels, read Pizarro and give imagination full play—then multiply the composite impression by a thousand, and approach realization of the wealth that went into the making of Tutenkhamen's life.

Excavations in Egypt continue to reveal evidence of luxury almost unimaginable. The treasures that have been found huddled in the dead Pharaoh's tomb stagger moderns who estimate values in terms of dollars. Jewels, massive gold ornaments, vases of beautiful workmanship, colorings of marvellous beauty, fabrics of rarest texture—so runs the catalogue of Tutenkhamen's treasures that have set the world wondering.

Of Tutenkhamen's reign little, if anything, is known. The outgivings of his tomb lit before the eyes of men in mockery of the death-defying pride of greed that prompted him to attempt to carry them with him in his exit. All is vanity, saith the preacher.

Custom

Several widely-circulated books on polite behavior and the customs of fashionable society have lately been published, but none has anything to say on the etiquette of the hold-up. The traditional method of procedure was simple. The man with the pistol said "hands up," and his victim put them up, keeping them elevated more or less tremulously until the holdup man had gone through his pockets and decamped. Most persons without special instruction on the subject would instinctively put hands up in such a emergency without the command from the highwayman, because it seems the proper thing to do. But that custom appears to be passe. To put hands up any more is to commit a social solecism. "Hands down" is now the accepted procedure, sometimes reinforced by the adjuration, "and keep 'em down." There's a reason.

The highwaymen, who in accord with the spirit of the times, have been studying "efficiency," have discovered that the "hands up" business attracts too much attention. It is an illustration of 'high visibility." Ever unostentatious, preferring to pursue their profession without becoming conspicuous, modern footpads, have changed their tactis. Scholars say there is a logical reason behind every custom. "Hands down" is due to an incident which caused the capture of a pair of highwaymen. A pedestrian in Toronto at a distance observed the victim's elevated palms, which he intercepted as a signal of distress and called the police. Since then several victims have received the command, "Don't put your hands up. Hands down and keep them down."

It is true that in one or two instances lately, persons thus accosted have refused to abide by the conventions and, instead of putting their hands either up or down, have launched out vigorously with the right and the left and put their assailants to flight. But this is not a method that finds favor with the life and accident insurance companies. In the main, it will be found safest to conform to custom, whatever the custom.

Edna—"Kindly advise me concerning mahogany furniture which has been scratched and marked."

Answer—"Any good furniture polish well rubbed into the blemishes on the mahogany, in several applications, will darken the scratches so that they hardly show. For most good furniture polishes contain stain or dye enough to cover up such marks. If this simple method fails, however, you can successfully darken the scratches with a little permanganate of potash. To use this, dissolve one ounce of potassium permanganate crystals in one quart of water (the water will soon turn brown after mixing, and can then be used on the scratches). Let the stain dry in the scratches, before polishing with oil or wax.

Mrs. J. W. D.—"I saw a recent request in your column for information concerning a good stove polish for a coal or wood stove. What the Press Is Saying

The Passing Swallowtail

The merchant tailors may consider themselves in luck if they succeed in getting their customers out of business cuts in the evening except for the most formal occasions. Once it was otherwise, but today, the man who is "dressed" in so much as a "tuxedo" at the theater, is a marked personage. People stare and "wonder why." Yes, gone are the days when he sat in the parquet without exhibiting an expanse of "boiled shirt" was a pariah among brahmins. The casting aside of the shackles of conformity and convention is something more than a temporary lapse. It is a symptom of the average man's growing impatience with ceremony and "nonsense" that the tailors will be wise in bowing to. They cannot turn the tide. They can only check it a little. This is particularly the case, because in spite of all the tailors may say or think, the women are also against them. The "emancipation" of the sex has brought about a new fredom and informality in social intercourse that naturally expresses itself more or less in terms of dress.—Detroit Free Press.

Ku-Klux

Open dealing is the best proof of good intentions. For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved.

It is easy to pile up aphorisms and quotations from holy writ tending to condemn the methods of that sower of evil in a land of democratic ideals, the Ku-Klux klan. But the besheeted brotherhood unceasingly protests that it is law-abiding and benevolent and that modern generatioons and other sayings by dead philosophers cannot make it otherwise than beautiful, and virtuous.

The fact remains, however, that good intentions count if they inspire deeds that are not good deeds. Hell is paved with good intenntions.

When a procession of men syathed in bedsheets marches silently into a church and, in the name of the Ku-Klux, makes a substantial contribution to the church funds the action is impressive enough. But why the anonymity? Why the mystery? Why the hugger-mugger? It is lawful to put money openly into a church's contribution box.

The shocking state of things in Mer Rouge and the surrounding country furnishes an extreme illustration of the evil that comes from masked and oath-bound mummery. Living a bedsheet existance is as mischievous as it is silly. Free Americans have the privilege of doing in the open and by daylight any lawful thing. To be an American is a greater privilege than to be a Ku-Kluxer. An organization that inspires hatreds and suspicions and religious prejudices is un-American, no matter how good may be the intentions of individual members of that organization.

To be a "joiner" is an ordinarily a sign of good nature and a love for excitement and mystery. But even a confirmed "joiner" ought to draw the line at masks and bedsheets as outing costumes.

KuKluxers should doff the bedsheets in the intrests of sound Americanism and cease to daily with the temptation to spell conspiracy with a "k." —Chicago News.

Toronto Foolishness

A Toronto girl, four years of age, had been adjudged "Canada's loveliest child" in a competition conducted by a Toronto newspaper. And that in spite of the fact that the loveliest child in all the world is to be found in every home where there is a child! —St. John Telegraph.

Makes Glad

The reductions in the passage rates to and from the United Kingdom and India, Australia and the Far East, which are now announced, will be very welcome to the commercial community, as well as to the individual in their private capacity. In so far as they will be of real value to commerce.—London Times.

Vain Pursuit

A vast part of the world's striving is striving for things that are not worth yhile, for prizes which are ephemeral, or which turn quickly to dust and ashes. Man has enthroned the artificial at the expense of the revealed to him. Humanity, after all, is learning the hard lesson and if the leaven works slowly, let us never forget that it is working.— St. John Telegraph.

Setting an Example

Japan has carried out her promise to withdraw from Shantung, and is scrapping naval vessels, in accord with the Five-Power pact made at Washington. It is reported that she has reduced her land army by five divisions, though there was no agreement as to this. Will all the Christian nations who were parties to the Washington conference show equal good faith.—Moncton Transcript.

Think Nationally

Somebody has advised Canadians to stop calling the Canadian National railways the C. N. R. because the shorter term omits the important suggestion of "national." Thereis a lot in it. None of us think nationally enough. If we did it more the country would grow quicker.—Victoria Times.

Styles

BY LENORE

Because it is the fashion to do so, all dressmaking establishments show their models on youthful mannekins, and all illustrations portray young, even skittish looking women. But here is a dress that will gain, because it has so much to give, if worn by just a certain type of woman—

An autumn woman. A woman tall, or fairly so, not too robust. Hair that is turning gray, or is already white, dark shining eyes, and a ruddy complexion. Perhaps it is the autumn leaf coloring of the printed chiffon which suggests her, but at any rate this is the sort of costume with which late maturity may triumph in the realm of beauty.

Soft cream lace fills in the V-neck and masks the arms above the elbows, and around the waist old blue velvet ribbon forms a girdle with a rosette in front and long ends that extend to the hem behind.

That Morning Cold Bath

(Registered in accordance with the Copyright Act.)

Exery textbook on body training recommends the morning cold bath. The writers have been prescribing it for so many years that it seems a pity to take issue with them. As a matter of fact, I agree with them that a morning cold tub or shower both is an excellent thing for a number of people. But if my experience is any guide, then it is only an excellent thing for one person in four. There need be no argument in the matter. It isn't necessary to try it on the dog. Simply try it on yourself and be guided by your own experience. The test as to whether it is suitable for you is simple. Everybody feels better immediately after the morning cold bath. There is a feeling of well being and you assail your breakfast and the world in general with the courage of a lion. But how do you feel about 10 or 11 o'clock in the morning? If you still have your buoyancy and clearness of head, then your bath has been a help to you. But if an hour or two after breakfast there is a feeling of lassitude and weakness, then the morning cold bath for you is a mistake. Why? Simply because your system, low in animal heat at that time resents the shock of the cold bath and the consequent loss of heat. It affects you like any shock on the system—a real jar to the nervous system and heat centers. And yet you want to continue that cold bath, don't you? Well, here is a simple method used by a great many people. Put in three or four inches of warm water, or enough to cover your ankles. Then put the cold spray on your body. You will then get the reaction of the cold bath with all its benefits; and not lose so much animal heat so early in the morning. Try it.

Prevent Paint From Evaporating

After a can of paint or other liquid has been opened it exaporates or spoils. You can prevent this if you place a piece of thin paper over the container; then pour paraffin over the paper. This will seal the can perfectly until wanted again. THE HOUSEWIFE.

HER HEART SKIPPED EVERY THIRD BEAT

Mrs. James Burleigh, 248 King St. E., Chatham, Ont., writes:—"I think it my duty to let you know what Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills have done for me.

I suffered for years with palpitation of the heart, my nerves were very bad, and I could not be left alone at any time. I doctored for over a year, and the doctor said my heart was very bad as it skipped every third beat.

I gave up, just at this time, and then my mother advised me to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, saying my eldest brother had been relieved by using them when he was very bad with his heart and nerves. I got a box and started to take them, and when I had used it I felt a lot better; could sleep a little and felt stronger. I continued taking them for about three months, and felt better than I had for years.

When I think of the misery and suffering I went through before I started Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, I feel like letting everyone know what they did for me."

PROVINCE MAY KEEP ORIENTALS OFF CROWN LAND

Privy Council Decision Is Victory for Manson in Timber License Case

VICTORIA, Feb. 19.—The decision of the privy council in London in the Brooks, Bidlake & Whitaal, limited, appeal against the British Columbia government prohibiting the employment of orientals on provincial timber leases, in favor of the province, affects about 50 timber firms who employ about 1000 Chinese and Japanese.

Attorney-General Manson, who has been leading the anti-Oriental fight in this province since he took office a year ago, claims that the judgment supports him in his stand for the development of the natural resources of this province by white persons.

"This decision helps to clear the air," Attorney-General Manson said. "It is quite a victory for the province. The judgment will do a good deal to clear the air as to the powers of the province in dealing with the Oriental problem, although this particular decision is really confined to the right of the province to stipulate that Orientals shall not be employed on public property.

"The judicial committee of the privy council did not find it necessary in deciding the case to determine the effect of the Japanese treaty upon the situation. This, however, probably will be cleared up in the other Oriental case which the province hopes to have argued in London in June. This is the case regarding Oriental orders in council.

"The privy council has gone further in its judgment than the court here," said W. D. Carter, K. C., deputy attorney-general, in examining the synopsis of the judgment. "They have held that the province has a perfect right to regulate the management of public property of the province or to determine whether [illegible] or licensee of that property shall or shall not be permitted to employ persons of a particular class."

"If I had known of Zam-Buk five years ago, it would have saved indescribable misery," says Mr. F. Astridge, of 3, St. Paul St., St. Catharines, Ont. "The intense pains often caused me to cry out aloud in agony.

"During my years of suffering I tried just about everything that I heard was good for piles. It was quite useless, however, and I despaired until one day, after using a sample box of Zam-Buk that a friend happened to bring along, I felt such pronounced ease that I was encouraged to persevere with the treatment. I got through three boxes of Zam-Buk in all and by that time to my great joy, all evidence of the piles had completely gone."

In piles, abscesses, ulcers, etc., no one should ever submit to an operation before trying Zam-Buk. This renowned herbal balm with its unique soothing, healing and germicidal properties cannot be equalled for dealing with pain, soreness, swelling or inflammation.

Zam-Buk is also splendid in eczema, poisoned wounds, chaps, cold-sores, ringworm and scalp sores, burns, scalds, cuts, cold on the chest, rheumatism and other winter aches and pains.

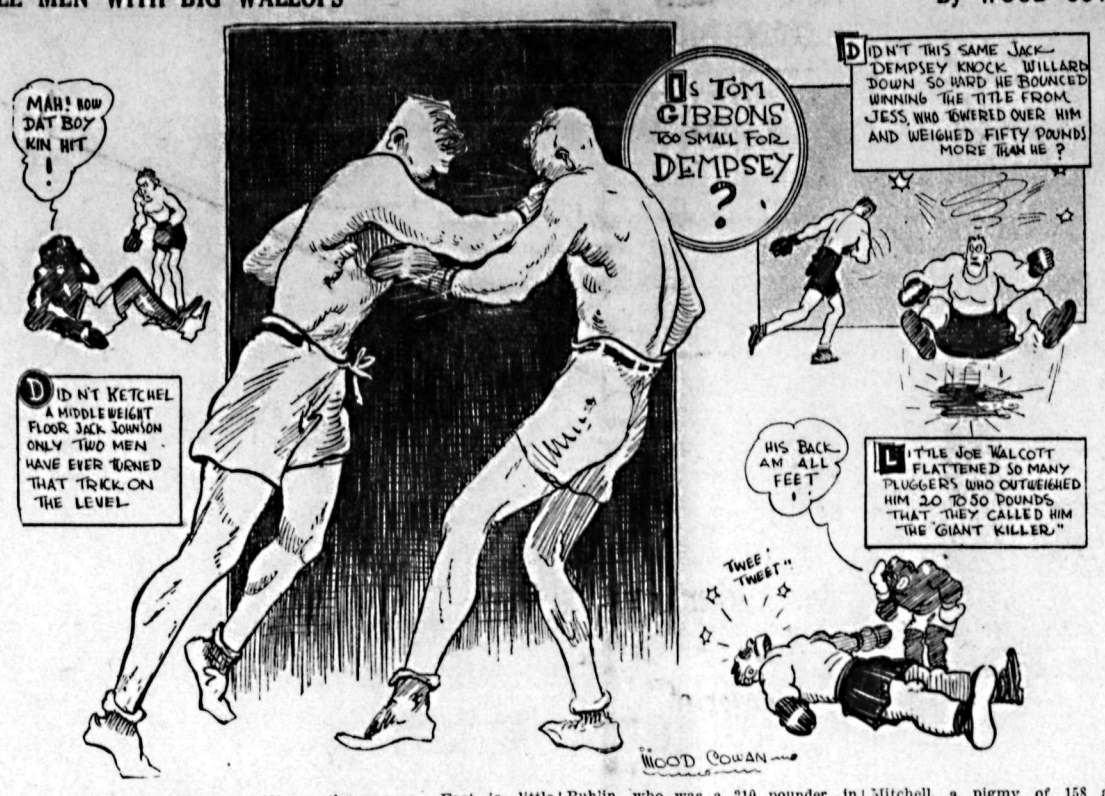
LITTLE MEN WITH BIG WALLOPS

By WOOD COWAN



A big, fast, defensive boxer, with a good left hand, is the fighter that could give Jack Dempsey the most opposition. In a decision fight he might even win on points.

Tom Gibbons is about the only heavyweight who embodies all these requirements, and the argument against Gibbons' ability to cope with the champ is that Tom is too small to even hope for victory.

Is that so! !

Just take a slant at the records and you will find that many a thumper who out-weighed his opponent from 10 to 50 pounds, has been sent to the canvas and in many cases K. O.'d by a smaller man.

Joe Walcott, who stood 5 feet 1 inch in height and weighed around 145, used to maul Sandy Ferguson to a standstill, and Sandy was 6 feet 3 on his legs and weighed over 200 on the canvas. Fact is, little Joe flattened so many pluggers who outweighed him 10 to 60 pounds that he won the name of "Giant Killer." Then Walcott in turn was defeated by Kid Lavigne, a lightweight.

Look over old Bob Fitzsimmons' list of victories, all of them won from men heavier than himself. Fitz often gave away 40 pounds. Peter Maher, Joe Godfrey, Jim Corbett, Gus Ruhlin and Tom Sharkey were all much heavier men than he, but Bob licked everyone of them and others not so well-known.

There's Joe Choynski, a 165 pounder—Jim Jeffries once said that Joe hit him the hardest blow he ever received in the ring. And it was this same Joe that defeated Jack Johnson and many others who tipped the beam around the 190 mark.

Tom Sharkey at 180 once K. O.'d Ruhlin, who was a 210 pounder, in one round. And how about Gunboat Smith winning a decision over Jess Willard, and he Gunner was fat at 185!

Sam Langford pasted a K. O. onto "Iron" Hague's record of wins and he was a 195-pound giant and one of the best prospects England had developed in many a day. Sam climbed through the ropes at 175.

Willie Lewis was so ambitious he used to flatten colored heavyweights just to keep in condition, and Willie developed a double chin if he scaled over 160.

If our memory serves us right, Jack Dempsey won the heavyweight crown from a man who towered over him in height and outweighed him 55 pounds or so. Many thought Jack was too small.

John L. Sullivan, weighing close to 200, couldn't lick little Charley Mitchell, a pigmy of 158 avoirdupois. That fight went 39 rounds to a draw. Corbett also gave Sullivan 20 or more pounds when he won the crown from him.

And so to say that Tom Gibbons—weighing 178 and a more experienced ring man than Dempsey even, a more clever boer with a strong of K. O.'s to his credit that only the champions can match among present-day heavies—to say that Tom is too small to tackle a man 15 pounds heavier is a little of the bunk.

Not for one minupte are we convinced that Tom can take Jack's measure, but we do believe that a big clever defensive boxer with a good left hand will give Dempsey an interesting time—and Gibbons is the man who has all these qualifications.

Would Let Canadians Accept Honors That Do Not Carry Titles

OTTAWA, Feb. 19.—L. J. Ladner, Conservative, Vancouver South, has given notice of a motion in the house of commons to modify the famous Nickle resolution on titles.

Nearly four years ago, the house, after long and keen debate, adopted a resolution proposed by W. F. Nickle, then member for Kingston, calling for an address to the king wherein it requested that no more titles except naval and military decorations be conferred in Canada.

Under the motion of Mr. Ladner, the Nickle resolution would be so far modified as not to preclude the granting "by any foreign ruler or government of decorations (save those trrying titles) for distinguished service or high attainments in education, literature, art and science."

As the situation now stands, it is urged not only cannot titles granted by the king be conferred in Canada, but decorations cannot be accepted from a foreign government. The case of Dr. H. Ashton of the University of British Columbia is cited as particularly in point. The French government, it is stated, has expressed a wish to confer the Legion of Honor on Dr. Ashton for his research work in French literature, but, owing to the resolution adopted by the house in 1918, cannot do so.

Mr. Ladner's motion is regarded as certain to give rise to some keen debating.

33 English School Teachers Arrive for Western Provinces

ST. JOHN, N. B., Feb. 19.—The Canadian Pacific steamer Montclare arrived at St. John today.

Rev. Mr. Andrews, formerly of Humboldt, Sask., who succeeded Rev. Social, moral, and religious betterment is aimed at.

Slow Corrosive Is Poison Is Used on Dog Derby Winners

THE PAS, Man., Feb. 19.—Investigation has shown that the poisoning attempted on Morgan's dogs, winners of the 1921 and 1922, and favorites to win the 1923 dog derby here Thursday, has a slow corrosive effect which might not be visible for two or three days. The dogs appear healthy up to the present, but are being carefully watched for signs of sickness, and precautions are being taken to frustrate any attempt to interfere with them on the trail.

Police are investigating and expect to arrest the culprits shortly.

LABOR MEMBER RAPS POLICY OF FRANCE

CARDIFF, Wales, Feb. 19.—Ramsay MacDonald, leader of the Labor group in the house of commons, in a speech here Sunday, said it was erroneous to suppose the Labor party held any antagonism toward France. But, he added, if France was able to afford the expense of sending soldiers to the Ruhr, she also was able to afford to pay her debts to Great Britain.

Indian Mohammedans Split in Their Attitude Toward Turk Situation

DELHI, India, Feb. 19.—Indian Mohammedans are divided into two factions in their attitude toward the situation in the near east. The Nationalists, who constitute the larger element, have approved of the change in the Sultanate and have indicated their loyalty to the new Sultan of Turkey. There is a minority, however, who give no support to the Turkish Nationalists. These are mostly Mohammedans who have held themselves aloof from the noncooperation movement in India.

The conservative section has disapproved of the change on the ground that it will impair the prestige of Turkey in the eyes of the Moslem world. This action, they say, is entirely opposed to the very precedent which the Angora government pretended to follow, for even during the earlies period of Moslem history the elected khalifs were heads of both the state and the church. Though the news of the threatened prosecution of the sultan and his flight from Constantinople has not yet had time to reach all Indian Mohammedans, many have expressed misgivings as to the future intentions of the Angora national assembly with respect to the khalifat.

Nationalist opinion, which is unanimously in favor of accepting the decisions of the Angora assembly, has been voiced by Moulvi Kifayatullah, president of the Jamait-ul-Ulema. He condemns the sultan's flight as proving the correctness of the Angora assembly's apprehensions as to his attitude toward the welfare of Islam. by his action the sultan, in the opinion of Moulvi Kifayatullah, forfeited the sympathies of the Islamic world.

In the larger cities of India a Burma, mass meetings have been he to congratulate the new sultan. T meeting at Rangoon, though held at Mohammedan mosque, was attend by a number of Buddhist monks, o of whom appeared on the progra The attendance at this meeting w said to be more than 20,000.

IF GERMANY HAD WON

French methods of collecting indemnities may not appeal to certain interested people who appear to think that as France bore the brunt of the fighting during the war, France should also bear most of the burden that follows the war. But if Germany had won: Would the kaiser have been content with a peaceable collection of the reparation agreed to? Would Germany have left France saddled with only a financial defeat? France knows Germany better even than the pacifists who spend most of their time spreading German propaganda. And France, having once been dealt with by a German conqueror, knows best how to deal with a defeated Germany.—Toronto Telegram.

Coppers Hit New High Mark Despite Some Profit-Taking

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—Heavy profit-taking, particularly among the usual leaders, failed to prevent speculators for the advance from continuing their operations in other sections of today's stock market, giving the list a decidedly irregular appearance during most of the session.

The improvement in sterling exchange, demand bills selling at $4.69 15-16, a new high record since the "pegged rate" of $4.75 was abandoned in March, 1919, had a cheerful effect on sentiment.

New high records for the year were made by a number of stocks, including Anaconda Copper at 57¼, Utah at 71, Chile at 30¼, Stromberg at 77, American Bosch Magneto at 43¼, General Motors at 15½, and Western Union at 99¾.

Failure of the American Locomotive company to earn all the preferred dividend and none of the common, resulted in some selling of the equipments but buying support was forthcoming on the strength of the unusually large volume of unfilled orders on hand. American Locomotive closed one point lower, at 124⅞, and Baldwin dropped 1½, to 139.

The high record for sterling, which reflected a scarcity of commercial bills and general satisfaction over the terms of the British debt settlement, was the feature of the foreign exchange market. French checks again sold above 6 cents and moderate improvement was noted in the other allied rates.

Total sales, 1,206,000 shares.

"BRINGING UP FATHER TEN YEARS AGO" By GEORGE McMANUS

Tanlac Never Failed to End Her Troubles Declares Mrs. Rose

"I have tried Tanlac twice and each time it did just what I wanted it to do," recently affirmed Mrs. Alice Addie Rose, of 2755 School Road, Vancouver, B. C.

"During the summer of last year my appetite failed. I lost much weight, and all my energy and strength seemed to leave me. Being too nervous to sleep much I got up mornings with that tired feeling and by night I was completely exhausted.

"I knew Tanlac was fine, for I had taken it about three years before, but, like a half-sick person will do, I neglected myself until I was in a very badly run-down condition. However, when I saw myself gradually getting worse I bought more Tanlac with the result that I soon felt just right again. I have learned by this experience not to wait so long any more before taking Tanlac."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Over 35 million bottles sold.

COUGARS BEAT CAPITALS IN CHECKING FEST

Regina Loses on Shot Backfired Into His Own Goal by Bill Laird

REGINA, Feb. 19.—Regina Capitals sustained their fifth successive defeat here tonight, but it was only the toughest kind of luck that caused them to strike their colors before Lester Patrick's Cougars from Victoria. With the score 1-1 in the third session, Bill Laird had the misfortune to backfire a shot from Harry Meeking's stick into his own net, and this proved to be the break that decided the game.

It was one of the fastest contests seen at the stadium this year, and was certainly the greatest exhibition of close checking.

The teams watched each other so closely that there was very little open play, and combination work was almost excluded from the repertoire. However, there were enough spectacular individual sallies to make up for the lack of team work, and while the result was highly disappointing to the fans, they all enjoyed the hostilities. But it was not up to the standard of either the Vancouver or the Seattle match, one reason being that the milder weather and the huge crowd had the effect of softening the ice, making the puck difficult to control.

Two better balanced teams never took the ice at the stadium, and the issue hung in doubt until the last gong, with the Capitals launching a wild and whirling eleventh hour drive on the Victoria fort in a futile effort to avert defeat.

The first period resulted in two goals. There was a tremendous roar when Charlie McVeigh, skating in fast fashion in front of the Cougar's goal mouth, slapped a pass from Stanley that beat Fowler, putting the home team one up early in the game. But the Patrick gang came back with a rush and Meeking evened the score.

Summary

First Period—1, Regina, McVeigh from Stanley, 11:59; 2, Victoria, Meeknig from Halderson, 4:16.

Second Period—No score.

Third Period—3, Victoria, Meeking, 8:44.

Continental League Joke of the Winter, Declares Ban Johnson

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 19.—Failure to consummate the proposed deal between the owners and the Chicago American clubs, involving Eddie Collins, the Chicago second baseman, and reference to the proposed continental league as the "joke of the winter," by Ban Johnson, president of the American league, were the outstanding features of the meeting of the league magnates here today.

TWO FLUKES GIVE EDMONTON WIN AT COAST

Visitors Have More Luck With Easy Shots Than With Fast, Heady Play

VANCOUVER, Feb. 19.—Two league leaders met here tonight and the Western Canada league champions, Edmonton Eskimos won over the Pacific Coast league leaders, Vancouver Maroons, 2 to 1.

The visitors held the fast Vancouver forwards scoreless through two periods. Campbell started the scoring for Edmonton with an easy glider in the first period. Lehman clicked his heels leisurely in the Vancouver goal, but Campbell's shot reached the nets. Edmonton's second goal was another flukey one. Keats passed out to Gagne, who flipped the rubber past Lehman. Thus Edmonton won with two easy goals, while they failed to make several more difficult ones which they deserved for fast and heady play. Neither Keats nor Simpson scored, but then justified their advance notices with keen and brainy hockey throughout.

Vancouver's single goal followed a bit of brilliant individual work by Lloyd Cook.

Only three penalties were handed out. Keats was chased off in the first period and collected an additional eight minutes for sassing the referee.

The audience gave the visitors an ovation and paid them the compliment of packing the house to greater capacity than any interleague game has brought out this season.

Blairmore Wins Right to Represent Alberta in Allen Cup Contest

EDMONTON, Feb. 19.—By a score of 12 to 7 Blairmore won the second game of the final series in the Alberta Allan cup eliminations at Blairmore tonight. On the two games Blairmore won 19 to 8 and will represent Alberta in the western playdown. Mackie and Renalck were the outstanding players for the winner, securing eight goals between them.

Young Liberals Beat Victoria; Bluebirds Lose

VICTORIA, Feb. 19.—Young Liberals of Vancouver put their hooks securely into the intercity ice hockey championship here tonight when they trounced the Victoria Pacifics, 4 to 2.

The Vancouver lads now have a clear lead of four goals. Harry Smith of Victoria netted the first goal, but before the first period was over, Slim Shaw tied the score and the rest of the game was decisively the property of the visitors.

VERNON, Feb. 19.—Telephone advices from Enderby say the semi-final amateur hockey match there resulted: Enderby, 5; Vancouver Bluebirds, 1.

Calgary Tigers Beat Saskatoon Crescents in a Thrilling Game

SASKATOON, Feb. 19.—In a thrilling game that went 3½ minutes overtime, and which was marked by the fighting finish of the visitors, Calgary Tigers tonight defeated Saskatoon Crescents, 5-4. It was Harry Oliver who turned the tide of battle in the Tigers' favor when the Crescents had a two-goal lead and were holding the Bengals in check. Oliver broke away twice in rapid succession and with two counters brought the score to 4-all. In the overtime, Oliver again bored in on top of Murray and then passed back to Anderson who delivered the winning shot.

The match produced alternate flashes of lightning hockey and listless play. Newsy Lalonde started hostilities with a zip when he scored within a few seconds of the faceoff. The Crescent defence had not yet pulled itself together, and Gibson netted a stray puck while Carey slammed in a rebound. Just before the gong sounded, Elmer evened things up on a pass from Lalonde. An assisted goal by Rose was the only tally in the second. Cook put the locals further ahead half a minute after the opening of the third chapter.

Then Herb Gardiner came to life and the crowd saw victory turned into defeat when Oliver made the home defence look foolish.

Summary

First Period—1, Saskatoon, Lalonde from Cook, 1:42; 2, Calgary, Gibson from Carey, 13:25; 3, Calgary, Carey, 1:15; 4, Saskatoon, Elmer from Lalonde, 2:56.

CUBS VICTORS IN FAST GAME WITH TRAILITES

Smelter Boys Nearly Even Score by Quick Scoring in Last Period

Nelson Cubs last night went into the lead for the West Kootenay intermediate hockey honors, when they handed a 3 to 2 beating to the Trail Tigers, in a fast game. So enthusiastic were the players of both teams that a steady string of players were on the way to the penalty bench all through the game.

In the first two periods the penalty timekeeper had his hands full, as Referee Matthew and Judge of Play A. Saunders banished player after player for tripping, slashing, and heavy checking.

Nelson's team play and aggressiveness were great factors in the game. In the first period Ringrose had only a few stops to make, while Marshall, in the visitors' nets was kept continually on the job, blocking shots from the local forward line.

Last night the ice was in first-class shape and before the game started the officials warned the players of both teams that no dirty work would be tolerated and that no warning would be given the offenders, who would be sent to the penalty box for enforced rests.

Many Penalties

In the second period, especially, did the players run amuck, and a steady string called for a rest. Tripping was the great offense last night. Several more goals would have re*sulted had not the men been tripped* up when passing the defence line.

In the first period play was very close, each team checking up the opposing side very closely, and little breaking away being done. Play was continually around the visitors' nets. Stan O'Genski, however, broke the monotony after 18 minutes, beating Marshall on a shot from close in.

In the second period play livened up a great deal and some nifty work was demonstrated. Wilfred Marquis, the hustling forward man for the Cubs, who played an excellent game last night, secured Nelsor's second tally, after 17 minutes of the period had elapsed. No further scoring was done in this period.

Last Period Fast

In the last period play was fast and furious, both teams putting up an excellent game, Trail in particular forcing the pace. After four and a half minutes of play, Clark secured Trail's first goal, beating Ringrose from well out on a bullet-like shot, which was never seen by the net guardian. Five minutes later, Dovey beat Ringrose on an easy shot from well out which the local goalie should have got, thus tying up the score. At this point play became very fast, each team putting up a lightning-like exhibition. Gordon Armstrong put the locals up one when he scored the prettiest goal of the night. Grabbing the puck in front of the local nets, he skated down the wing, crossed to center, outwitted the two opposing defence men, and placed the puck behind Marshall when the goalie came out to stop the rush.

No further scoring was done.

Fans last night declared the game to be one of the best played in the city this winter, and the rink, which was packed with both local fans and nearly 200 who attended on a special from the smelter city, fairly rocked with noise when the teams made any score.

The result of last night's game gives Nelson a one-goal lead in the race for the championship. The second exhibition of the series will be played in Trail on Wednesday night. Efforts are being made to get a special train in line to take a number of Nelson boosters to the game.

The officials last night had a bad time as offenses were numerous, and, according to reports from both camps the teams were satisfied with the way the game was handled.

SAYS TOO MANY LEAVE CANADA

Resolution for Trail Convention Calls for an Investigation

A strong demand that steps be taken immediately to check the exodus from the country of men whom the Dominion can ill spare is embodied in a resolution from A. E. Watts which will be brought before the convention of the associated boards of trade of eastern British Columbia which opens at Trail on Wednesday.

The resolution asks that plans for further immigration for Canada be deferred until an investigation has been held as to why so many people have left and are leaving the Dominion.

In this connection it is specially urged that the present banking system be thoroughly probed.

Discussing migration from Canada, the resolution says: "The residents of Canada want to know, and have the right to know, why the United States, though possessing less undeveloped resources, has increased to 110 millions, and Canada stands at aboue eight and a half millions."

Accompanying the resolution is an expression of appreciation of the efforts of Fred A. Starkey, commissioner of the associated boards of trade of eastern British Columbia, on behalf of the industries of this province.

GROWERS SIGN NEW CONTRACTS

Cooperative Scheme Is Enthusiastically Supported in Okanagan Valley

VERNON, Feb. 19.—Reports received tonight from every valley district where canvassers have been out signing up growers for five years in the Cooperative Growers of British Columbia, the big new cooperative fruit marketing organization, indicate that at least 90 per cent of the growers will be loyally behind the new concern.

Lavington is signed up 100 per cent, Coldstream, 85, and will certainly go 100 per cent, while Vernon district went 70 per cent today. Naramata reported 85 per cent with Winfield, Oyama and Okanagan Center all showing enthusiastic support. Not one grower, says a message from Kelowna, refused to sign a contract there on Monday.

The growers' committee is more than pleased with the spontaneous response in so many districts. Contracts, it was hoped, would all be signed by Saturday, but if work is carried on as energetically as it was today, the entire Okanagan will be completed by Wednesday noon.

TOBACCONIST PASSES AWAY

James (Dad) Young Dies in Local Hospital After Brief Illness

After an illness of only a week, James D. Young, more commonly known as "Dad Young," passed away yesterday morning at 2:30 o'clock, in the Kootenay Lake General hospital.

Mr. Young, who was a well-known tobacco merchant of this city, was taken ill only last week, kidney trouble causing his death. He is survived by two sons who reside in the United States, one living in San Diego, Cal., and the other being a railroad employee. His wife predeceased him about a year ago.

Ten days ago, Mr. Young returned from a visit to his sons, and he had been in the city only two days when taken ill. He was 70 years of age, and was a prominent member of the Masonic and Shrine orders.

Mr. Young formerly lived in Toronto and Winnipeg, coming from the latter place to this city. He was known throughout the Kootenays for a number of years, having been a travelling representative of a cigar firm in the east.

No funeral arrangements have been made as yet, and will not be made until word is received from the sons, who were communicated with yesterday.

M'INTIRE HERE THIS EVENING

Spokane Boxer Who Meets Fox on Saturday Is Due in Nelson Tonight

Chet McIntyre, the well-known heavyweight of the Pacific coast, will arrive in the city this evening, from Spokane, and will here round off his training, for his ten-round go with Fighting Bob Fox of this city.

According to word received in the city yesterday Chet is in first-class condition, and is tipping the beam in the neighborhood of 185 pounds, which is about the same weight as the local youth.

Billy Wells, the first opponent of Fox's in this city, has arrived here, and mauled the big lad around yesterday afternoon, and will continue to put Fox in shape for the bout which takes place on Sunday next. Another sparring partner by the name of Reid is also working out with Fox. As McIntyre is a man with a reputation well known in the west, and the local lad has been seen in action here, a lively bout is looked forward to.

Peter Stok, a Russian, hailing from Cranbrook, on Saturday afternoon was seized with a sudden illness and collapsed on the corner of Baker and Ward streets about 4 o'clock.

He was removed to the office of Mayor L. H. Choquette where Dr. David Hartin rendered medical treatment. A large crowd of curious spectators gathered on the street corner. The man is an epileptic.

Predicts a Record Tourist Season for Pacific Northwest

That the Pacific northwest is bound to enjoy this summer one of the greatest tourist seasons it has ever had is the belief of the Ask Mr. Foster service, an organization that has 45 tourist information offices in the United States.

Writing to A. B. Howe, Tacoma, vice-president of the Pacific Northwest Tourist association, the service states:

"Before the organized efforts to advertise the Pacific northwest, it was seldom that we had a direct inquiry about any particular city or resort in that section of the country, only in a casual way when selling round-trip tickets, but now we have more inquiries for the Pacific northwest tourist association literature during the spring and summer months than for any one organized summer resort in the United States, and I feel that the interest has been created almost entirely by advertising done through the efforts of the Pacific northwest tourist association.

"It might interest you to know that during the past year our offices were visited by 2,950,297 persons; that we gave direct information about the Pacific coast to 104,767 persons; that we purchased tickets for 15,202 persons, and turned over to the railroads $737,701.21.

"Approximately 60 per cent of these people were directly interested in the Pacific northwest and a far greater number were given information and literature about the Pacific northwest. The indications are that the interest in the Pacific northwest this year will be far greater than in any previous year."
