ATTLESHIP IN ARKNESS RAMS A DESTROYER

anks Explode and Seaman Drowns in Oil; Six Rescued From Same Fate

/ARSHIPS MEET BY CAPE COD CANAL

nited States Manoeuvers in Progress; Rammed Vessel Limps to Port

BOSTON, Sept. 19. — One man was killed and several injured when the United States destroyer McFarland was rammed by the battleship Arkansas in manoeuvers near the eastern entrance of the Cape Cod canal today. The McFarland, with her bow shattered, reached the Charlestown navy yard tonight, escorted by the destroyer Sturtevant.

The man killed was Spencer William Brown, seaman, of the North Carolina.

Sixteen Are Injured

Sixteen other members of the McFarland's crew were injured, but none dangerously.

The crash occurred at 4 o'clock in the morning when the McFarland was moving slowly with her riding lights on. The battleship struck her in the bow, smashing in the prepart of the destroyer and causing the oil tanks to explode. The oil flooded the sleeping quarters of the crew forward, and Brown was drowned in oil as he slept. His body has not been recovered.

Officers of the destroyer report that the night was clear, but dark, when the collision occurred.

Firemen Stack and Smith were hailed as heroes on the destroyer for having at least six lives. The escaping oil had flooded the forecastle, and many members of the crew were unable to get out. Some could not swim. The two firemen tied a rope to the forward stanchion and, clinging to this, went into the hell of oil several times, each time bringing out a man. The bow of the destroyer was twisted into the shape of a huge letter "S." Her bridge was carried away and her wireless dismantled.

PARIS, Sept. 19.—(By Canadian Press Cable.)—Members of the Canadian exhibition train mission were given a luncheon at Bordeaux by the mayor, who expressed regret that difficulties owing to the exchange were in the way of France buying from Canada.

Soldier's Mother Is a Billionaire in Russian Rubles

OTTAWA, Sept. 19.—At least one billionaire has been created already by the Canadian soldiers' insurance. The billions are in Russian roubles, but the billionaire is in reality a beneficiary under the Canadian Soldiers' Insurance act.

The son of a Russian peasant woman was a soldier in the Canadian expeditionary force. He recently died, and his mother is receiving the insurance in the form of a lump sum of $1000 and a five-year annuity of $98.52. At the time the first payment of $1000 was made it took 1,000,000 roubles to equal $1. Thus the first payment was equal to 1,000,000,000 roubles, and each of the annual payments will nearly reach the same value.

GRAND FORKS, Sept. 19.—The home of Sheriff Mike Moran at Republic, Wash., 30 miles from here, was dynamited at 2 o'clock this morning, one end of the building being blown away. Moran and four other members of his family, who were sleeping in the house, escaped with minor injuries.

Moran was recently appointed sheriff to supplant ex-Sheriff Barker, who was deposed for connection with the illicit liquor traffic.

Rudolph Lugent, R. W. Lugent and Helmer Holmes lost their lives when the White apartments at Republic were destroyed by fire yesterday morning. Holmes went to the rescue of the other men, and was entrapped in the flames.

Larkin, Canadian high commissioner in London, has been advised by the British ministry of agriculture that Manchester is included in the foot and mouth disease controlled area, into which only animals for immediate slaughter may be moved, according to a cable received here today.

NEW YORK PAPERS KEEP PONY GOING

Call on International President to Straighten Out Pressmen's Strike; Will Keep Up Joint Editions

NEW YORK, Sept. 19. — Owners of metropolitan newspapers affected by a strike of web pressmen tonight served notice on George L. Berry, international president of the Pressmen's union, that they would not deal further with the local organization. They characterized the strike as illegal, and the men "defiant."

The owners told Mr. Berry that they would await his promised action to revoke the local union's charter and form a new organization. Until that time they said they would continue to print limited editions of the combined New York newspapers as they are now doing.

The owners' action followed a conference that lasted late into the night, during which proposals for settlement submitted by the union were discussed.

CANADA SELLS LARGEST ISSUE IN ITS HISTORY

Fifty Million Loan Taken by Canadian Houses; Conversion Scheme

OTTAWA, Sept. 19.—The finance department this evening announced the sale of $50,000,000 5 per cent bonds, to meet maturing obligations. The issue was announced in the following statement:

"In connection with his plans for meeting maturing obligations, the minister of finance announces the sale of $50,000,000 5 per cent 20-year bonds. The issue is to be Canadian, principal and interest payable in Canada. The purchasers are a Canadian syndicate. The price to the government is a little more favorable than that of the recent very successful loan of $22,500,000 for railway purposes.

Beats Recent Railway Loan

"The railway loan was the largest operation of the kind ever handled in Canada. The present transaction is even larger, and again testifies to the strength and enterprise of our Canadian financial institutions. The plan is practically one of conversion, inasmuch as it is the intention of the syndicate to at once offer the bonds, on terms which, it is believed, will be deemed favorable, to the holders of the Dominion bonds which fall due November 1. Details of the syndicate's plan of operation are being prepared, and a public announcement will follow immediately.

"The syndicate which will offer the bonds will include practically all the important financial houses in Canada. The names of the syndicate members will be announced in the course of a day or two."

The alleged libel referred to Sketcher's activities under the Saskatchewan Temperance act. The case will be tried again at the next assizes, and Dealtry has been freed on $2000 bail.

DE VALERA AND FRIENDS WILL STAY IN JAIL

New Dail Backs Cosgrave in Refusing to Release Enemies of State

FARMER PARTY IS BEATEN ON ISSUE

House Reelects Cosgrave to Presidency With a Great Demonstration

DUBLIN, Sept. 19.—The opening sitting of the new dail Eireann was an uneventful one, aside from one exciting incident. This was when the Farmers' party, representing the opposition, in the absence of all the Republican deputies, sought unsuccessfully to induce the government to liberate imprisoned Republican members of the chamber, so as to enable the Republican party to hold a meeting and discuss its future policy.

This proposal provoked brief debate, which showed that the government had not the slightest intention to recede from its previous attitude toward the Republicans.

As was anticipated, William Cosgrave was reelected president of the executive council of the Irish Free State by acclamation, and Michael Hayes was unanimously chosen speaker. Mr. Cosgrave was the recipient of a great ovation on his election. All the members of the house stood and cheered him.

About 100 members of the dail attended the opening sitting.

Independents May Fuse

In general appearance the chamber differed little from the preceding dail. The independents sat together in the center. Prominent among them were Capt. William Redmond and Maj. Bryan Cooper, both former members of the Westminster parliament. As the independents generally approve of the government's policy, there is a tendency toward fusion, and already two prominent Cork members of the group, Richard Beamish and A. D. Shaughnessy, have joined the official government party.

A conspicuous gap in the Labor benches showed the defeat suffered by the Laborites in the last election. In the last dail, Labor acted as the official opposition, but now the Farmers are more numerous, and hope to play that role.

One noteworthy difference in today's session from the last sessions of the dail was the admission of people to the public gallery. This was crowded with men and women, who had to be called to order by the speaker for indulging in applause.

Farmers Urge Lenience

Deputy Gorey, leader of the Farmers' party, in urging the liberation of De Valera and the other Republicans under arrest, argued that 44 Republicans had been elected to the dail by the people, and that they should at least be given the opportunity to meet together in order to determine whether they would obey the rule of the majority and adopt constitutional methods.

Mr. Wilson, also a Farmer, in seconding Mr. Gorey's resolution, contended that it was desirable for the 44 deputies to be in a position to advise the other 12,000 Republican prisoners. He declared that their release might facilitate an undertaking to enable a general release of prisoners.

Minister of Agriculture Hogan replied that it had cost £15,000,000, and the lives of many gallant men, including Michael Collins, to jail these prisoners, and argued against release.

Then Mr. Cosgrave spoke. In quiet tones he began by saying that the present was not the proper time to raise such a question. He also revealed the fact that the government was aware of the midnight visits by Republicans to certain members of the dail, to have the question of the prisoners and the question of the abolition of the oath raised in the chamber.

With increasing warmth, the president declared that the government would not yield to sentimentalism in favor of men who had done their utmost and failed, and now hoped for positions as generals or presidents. He pointed out that there were only 18 members of the 44 members of the dail, in jail and asked what the others were doing. He added that there must be evidence of a real change of heart on the part of the Republicans before the government would change its tactics.

It was evident that Mr. Cosgrave had the house with him, and no division was requested.

The house adjourned without further incident.

It will reassemble at 3 o'clock afternoon, when the president will nominate his cabinet, and a committee will be elected to choose ministers not members of the cabinet, who will be directly responsible to the house.

Vessel in Distress Long Island Sound; Navy Ships Wanting

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 19. —An S.O.S. call from a steamship 10 miles east of this city tonight was picked up by a radio operator at Milford, who stated that the name of the steamer apparently had been garbled and that he had received it as Occident. An intense fog prevails in the region indicated by the call.

CAN'T LOCATE NAVAL SHIP

NEW YORK, Sept. 19. — Efforts were being made by the naval communication radio station to reach steamers plying through Long Island sound to send them to the aid of a vessel in distress. Although at least one of these is ordinarily at a point opposite New London, Conn., at about the time the S.O.S. was received no answer had been received to the relayed distress signal.

MANIAC FATHER SLAYS FAMILY, THEN HIMSELF

Minnesota Creamery Manager Splits Wife's Skull While She Sleeps

BATTERS IN HEADS OF LITTLE GIRLS

Then Hangs Himself From Beam of Unfinished Room Upstairs

ALEXANDRIA, Minn., Sept. 19.—Wielding a small hand axe, J. Willis Knox battered out the life of his wife and one daughter, probably fatally injuring his other daughter, and hanged himself in his home, early today.

With the cunning and stealth of a mind demented Knox stalked his victims as they lay asleep in their beds, splitting his wife's head with one terrific stroke and crushing his children's skulls with repeated blows.

Neighbors Hear Groans of Dying

The tragedy was discovered shortly after noon, when neighbors, hearing the pitiful groans and cries of the dying children, forced entrance into the Knox home.

In one downstairs bedroom, lying on her bed, was found the body of Mrs. Knox, apparently instantly killed, while in another room Dorothy, 10 years old, and Virginia, 8 years, were gasping faintly for life. Upstairs was found the body of Knox, suspended by a rope from a beam in an unfinished room, apparently almost instantly strangled to death when he leaped off a baby's high chair that had held him as he fixed the fatal nooze.

The children were rushed to a hospital, where death ended Dorothy's suffering an hour later and where Virginia died late tonight.

Nothing Wrong With Books

Knox, who was 40 years old, was employed as office manager for the North American Cream company here, but officials of this company declared an investigation of his books failed to disclose any reason for his crime. Mrs. Knox was 36 years old.

Sunday School Superintendent.

Knox was a graduate of Carleton college at Northfield, Minn., and he had played football there. He was superintendent of the Sunday school of the Alexandria Congregational church, recently being elected to that position after long and continuous service for the church.

MOTHER CAN ASSIST HER SON TO ESCAPE

Magistrate Rules Saskatchewan Act Is Ultra Vires, Encroaching on Domain of Criminal Code

REGINA, Sask., Sept. 19.—Holding that the provincial act under which she was charged was ultra vires of the Saskatchewan legislature, J. C. Martin, provincial magistrate, dismissed Mrs. Annie Flitch, when she was arraigned in the provincial police court on a charge of assisting her son, Andrew Flitch, to escape from the boys' detention home.

According to Magistrate Martin, the act usurps power covered by the Criminal Code.

At her first arraignment, last week, Mrs. Flitch admitted supplying the boy with food and clothing on the day following his escape, July 26.

LONDON SCOTTISH COLONEL BOOSTER

On Returning from Trip to Eastern Canada He Describes Dominion as "That Go-Ahead Country."

LONDON, Sept. 19. — (By Canadian Press Cable) — Discussing his impressions obtained on his trip to eastern Canada as secretary to a detachment of the London Scottish regiment, Lieut.-Col. Webb said one of the things which struck him most was the intense patriotism of the people.

"Everywhere and in everything the people stand by the mother country. Their devotion is really touching; so is their hospitality. In our case it was unbounded, and we came back with warm gratitude for the kindness shown us."

"I saw no evidence of unemployment or hard times in Canada," continued Colonel Webb. "In Toronto, certainly, there was plenty of work for any man who would give a decent day's return for a decent day's pay. If I were a younger man and had something to start with, I would not hesitate to take up life in that go-ahead country."

Radio Compass Station Ignored by Squadron

Navigators Would Not Believe Signals and Plotted Course That Put Seven Destroyers on Rocks

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Sept. 19.—Absolute certainty that they were right, and a radio compass station on Point Anguelio was wrong, led navigators of United States destroyer squadron No. 11 to plot a change of course that hurled seven ships on the rocks off Point Ronda and cost the lives of 23 enlisted men, a naval court of inquiry was told here today by Lieut. Lawrence F. Blogett, navigation officer of the squadron's flagship Delphy.

Named Thirteenth Defendant

The frank admission that "little weight was attached" to radio signals from Anguello furnished the chief sensation of the hearing today, and ended in the interpretation of the witness' account by Admiral Pratt, presiding officer of the court, long enough to name him the 13th defendant in the case. Lieutenant Blogett was the first new defendant to be named in connection with the disaster under investigation since Monday when 12 naval officers were cited in the precept of the court of inquiry as "interested parties in the status of defendants."

FRANCE-CANADA TRADE PACT IS NOW IN FORCE

In the Main, "Most Favored Nation" Treatment Is Given Each Other's Goods

OTTAWA, Sept. 19.—(By Canadian Press.)—The French-Canadian trade treaty, having been ratified by the two countries, is now in force, according to a member of the customs department. Previous conventions, dated 1907 and 1921, regulating commercial relations between France and Canada, automatically cease to be effective. The new treaty is to continue in force indefinitely, subject to termination on six months' notice by either country concerned.

Under the present treaty, Canada accords France her intermediate tariff generally, with special rates on four groups of commodities. Canada, in return, receives special rates on four groups of items, and the French tariff of 1910 on other articles, so long as that tariff is applicable to imports from the United States. Two articles in the agreement are designed to secure to Canada equality of treatment with the United States on the French market.

France Makes Exceptions

In general, the agreement provides for the 'most favored nation" treatment, reciprocally between Canada and France. This, however, does not entitle Canada to concessions made by France to her protectorates, or to border states. Another exception is such benefits as France may grant with regard to imports designed to facilitate financial settlement with countries with which France was at war.

In case of goods now on the free list being made dutiable by either country, the lowest rate of duty in force shall apply.

It is provided that imports from France or her colonies must arrive at a Canadian sea or river port, without transshipment, from a port of such countries, or from a port of a country enjoying the benefit of preferential or intermediate tariff. Similar regulations govern exports from Canada to French territory.

The French minimum tariff is secured to Canada on a number of food products, as well as lumber, paper, coal, copper and nickel.

Big Grain Bookings Made at Vancouver

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—Chicago's youngest speeder was found, with the arrest of Peter Kolitch, 11 years old, after a chase of two blocks along Michigan avenue. Throughout the chase Peter was zigzagging along the boulevard at a speed of 36 miles an hour.

Two women and a man were killed, and four other persons were seriously injured, in automobile accidents late yesterday and last night.

NEW VERSION OF ARTICLE TEN DRAFTED

Canada's Amendment Is Shelved by Committee for More Detailed One

MEMBERS TO DECIDE OBLIGATIONS SELVES

Two Commissions Work on Question of Military Assistance

GENEVA, Sept. 19. — An important feature of today's activities of the League of Nations was the adoption of a resolution interpreting article X. of the covenant. The committee on technical organization adopted a new compromise formula replacing the Canadian amendment. It begins by emphasizing the existence of a general desire for precision of meaning of article X., and recommends that the assembly adopt several clauses in the form of a resolution.

To Consider Geography.

The first clause is that in case the council of the league deems it necessary to recommend military measures because of an aggression, or a menace of aggression, the council will take into account the geographical situation and special conditions surrounding each state.

The second clause declares that it is the right, by the constitutional powers of each member state, to decide the nature and the extent of its obligation to maintain the independence and integrity of territory of members, and to what extent it should furnish military assistance.

The last paragraph reads:

Council View Predominant.

"However, a recommendation given by the council will be considered of the highest importance, and will be taken into consideration by all the members, with a desire to execute in good faith their engagements."

This interpretative resolution now goes to the assembly. It is regarded as removing many of the existing fears that article X. would force states too far into possible military adventures abroad, without the sanction of the home parliaments.

The question of military assistance was also treated by the disarmament commission, which achieved further progress in drafting the text of a new international treaty of mutual assistance, which starts from the fundamental principle that the signatories will really help one another in the event of unjustified aggression.

LONG SERIES OF THEFTS END IN AN ARREST

Watchman at Doukhobor Community Said to Have Robbed Store Two Years

Charged with having systematically robbed the Doukhobor Community store at Brilliant of goods valued at more than $500, J. Zibin, who has been employed for some time as community watchman, was yesterday arrested by Hugh King, provincial constable, on complaint of the community.

For more than two years, it is stated, large quantities of goods such as bolts of cloth, dozens of suits of underwear, and other articles have been disappearing from the store, but all efforts to trace them proved unavailing.

A close watch was kept on all customers, and all goods carefully were checked, but merchandise continued to vanish.

Recent thefts resulted in the provincial police being consulted, and Constable King took up the case. Suspicion fell upon Zibin, and as a result of some systematic work on the part of the constable, a large quantity of the stolen goods was found and identified in his daughter's house at Glade.

Just how so large a quantity of goods was removed from the store without attracting the attention of the community has not been disclosed. Zibin, upon the goods being found, was placed under arrest at Brilliant yesterday.

He appeared before John Cartmel, stipendiary magistrate, and was remanded eight days. In the meantime further investigation is being made.

ANTI-UNIONISTS ARE AGGRESSIVE

Presbyterian Church Association Plans an Aggressive Campaign for Every Province

TORONTO, Sept. 19.—At the close of the second day of conferences here of the Dominion council and the general committee of the Presbyterian Church association, with representative members present from all parts of Canada, it was announced that at the general committee meeting the lines of policy suggested at the meeting of the association held in Port Arthur at the time of the general assembly were carefully considered, and it was decided to carry out at once an aggressive policy in every province of the Dominion.

The action of the recent general assembly was considered very fully, and it was claimed that "the assembly was in no sense a representative body, and its action therefore could not bind the church at large, as no efforts had been made to obtain the mind of the church, and as the bills had never been submitted to the people for their consideration."

May Avoid the Courts

The finance committee reported and recommended a budget of $50,000 for the current year, which was adopted.

It is understood that there is feeling among some of the strongest of the anti-unionists that they should avoid any course, legal or otherwise, that would take the issue into the court, owing to the unseemliness of such litigation.

Toronto, Ont.—"From the time of my earliest girlhood I had always heard my mother speak in highest praise of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for women's ailments, so it is not at all strange that I should remember what my mother had always said of this Prescription, and I found it relieved me of my aches, pains and nervousness. It gave me renewed health and strength and so greatly benefited me that I have no hesitancy in saying that Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription is absolutely perfect as a tonic and nervine for women who are ailing or nervous."—Mrs. Rose Craig, 257 Sackville street.

FRUITVALE IS WINNER WITH FINE DISPLAY

Keen Contest for Honors Is Staged Against Boswell and Fire Valley District

First honors for the finest display at the fair by farmers' organizations outside Nelson have been awarded to Fruitvale, in keen competition with Boswell and the Fire Valley district of Edgewood.

Of such a high class were all three exhibits that the judges found they had a most difficult task, and the final decision was not made until yesterday.

Boswell, despite the fact that the display was intended for a center pavilion position, with two sides on view, and was instead placed up against a wall, scored highest honors for display and arrangement, being awarded 175 marks by the judges as against 170 for Fruitvale and 150 for Fire Valley.

Strong in Variety.

Fruitvale scored high in variety of roots and vegetables, receiving 70 marks, while Boswell was awarded 40 and Fire Valley 25.

The Fruitvale exhibit was in charge of A. C. Webster and J. Benton. Most of the items exhibited were grains and grasses, A. C. Webster and E. Cole; pears, C. Achurch; apples, W. Sharpe and S. Brewster; honey, E. Cole; dairy produce, E. Cole; vegetables, A. C. Webster; potatoes, J. Benton; pumpkins, E. Cole and A. C. Webster; artichokes, S. Brewster; pumpkins and squash, A. C. Webster and E. Cole; citrons, Mrs. R. Rushton; sweet peas, Mrs. A. C. Webster. The name "Fruitvale" over the exhibit, which was made of crab apples on a green background, was the work of J. Benton, who has come to Nelson three times with similar exhibits and had had the good luck to have a winning display each time.

A feature of the exhibit was artistic straw work by E. Jarrett, who also supplied peaches and apples.

From Recent Fair.

The Boswell display, which won second and was in charge of Capt. F. J. Oatts, M.C., J. Coupland, F. Kuntz and Mrs. A. Hepher, was made up of the prize-winning exhibits at the recent Boswell annual fair, among the competitors being J. Holiday Smith, Miss E. M. Oatts, J. Coupland, A. Mackie, G. A. West, Mrs. C. B. E. Russell, Tom Wall, La France; and W. Ginot.

Prominent contributors to the Fire Valley display were W. J. Loughey, Captain Forsland, Adam Scaia, L. J. Degans, L. C. Morrison, J. Langill, H. Olds, W. Jowitt, O. Jowitt, E. Minton, D. McCulloch, W. A. Calder, W. Wilson, H. Degans, Mrs. Ford, Mrs. Williams, John Egloff, F. J. Bangs, H. J. L. Eggleston and B. Lockwood.

BRITISH POLO TEAMS BEATEN

States Army Team Beats British Army Four; Meadowbrook Eliminates Hurlingham From Tourney

WESTBURY, N. Y., Sept. 19.—The American Meadowbrook polo team today won the opening game of the international series for the national open championship by defeating the Hurlingham club of England, 11 to 4, eliminating the Englishmen from the tournament.

Gallop to Victory

WESTBURY, N. Y., Sept. 19.—The United States army polo team gallopped to a 10-to-3 victory over four British armymen today, in the deciding contest of the three-game international series for the military polo championship of the world.

DRUGLESS PHYSICIAN DENOUNCES MEDICINE

Dr. Benedict Lust Attributes Cancer, Sleeping Sickness and Infantile Paralysis to Vaccination.

LONDON, Sept. 19. — "The use of medicine is degrading, and vaccination or injection of serums of any description is a menace to civilization," stated Dr. Benedict Lust of New York, president of the American Naturopathetic association, who arrived in the city today to attend the annual convention of the "Drugless Physicians of Canada," and incidentally to pave the way for affiliation of the latter body with the American association.

Vaccination was dangerous to the health of the nation, he said, in tracing the origin of cancer, infantile paralysis, sleeping sickness and other diseases, it had been found that vaccination was the cause. The injections of serums in the blood of soldiers had left a countless army of unfits behind, he said.

"Medicine does not restore health," he contended, "nor does it give health. It only serves to relieve the ailment for a while, but does not remove the cause."

BROWN CORE IN M'INTOSH IS WIDELY NOTED

Horticultural Branch of Department of Agriculture Reports Pests in Fruit

The final weekly bulletin of the horticultural branch, department of agriculture, states that the tonnage of the apple crop in Kelowna district will not be as large as had been expected. The bulletin continues:

The general condition of the apple crop in the Kelowna district is good, but the tonnage is not expected to run as high as at first anticipated. The Jonathan crop, especially where thinning was not practiced, will run small. During the last two weeks winter varieties in many orchards have stood still.

Brown core in McIntosh is more in evidence this year than in any previous year. The damage done by this trouble is chiefly confined to light soils, and spots difficult to irrigate. Normal development of the apple seems to be greatly interfered with by the rapid and extreme changes in the supply of moisture to the fruit.

Penticton and Keremeos.

The prevailing weather for the past week has been clear and bright, with cool nights.

Apples are now coloring well, and there should be no delay in picking due to lack of color. Cox's Orange and Kings are still coming in freely and a good start has been made on the picking of McIntosh.

Elberta peaches are almost finished in Penticton and will be cleaned up in a few days at Keremeos.

Summerland.

With ideal weather conditions the harvesting of the main apple crop is now commencing. McIntosh will move in volume the first of next week. Elberta peaches are about over, also prunes and late plums.

The orchards generally, with a few exceptions, are in a good, healthy condition. Tree growth has been above the average, the rains during the early part of the growing season very materially assisting in this direction.

The fire blight situation is, fortunately, good, excepting where odd orchards are showing this disease, mainly amongst pears.

Vegetable growers have had small encouragement this season, prices being unsatisfactory, tomato growers being probably the worst sufferers on account of their semi-ripes being too late for best prices.

Okanagan District.

With the prevailing hot days and cool nights, all fruit is now coloring fast. Where good moisture conditions have been lacking, or where poor thinning methods have been practiced, Jonathan apples and some of the later varities are not sizing as well as was expected from the growth conditions earlier in the season.

As an indication at this date of the condition of the apple crop of the various districts throughout the Okanagan Valley, the following percentage estimate, in comparison with previous estimates, is published.

On account of heavy hail damage there will be a decrease of at least 20 per cent in the Armstrong district, and if none of the hailed fruit is moved out in crates, the percentage will probably be greater.

In the Vernon district it is estimated there will be a decrease of approximately 12 per cent, caused chiefly by scab and "internal browning" in the McIntosh.

The district of Kelowna reports a possible decrease of 15 per cent from previous estimates, due to lack of sizing in the Jonathans, and pest injury to this and other varieties.

Summerland and Naramata districts report that previous estimates hold good.

Pest Injury.

Penticton and Keremeos district reports approximately a 10 per cent decrease from previous estimates, chiefly on account of pest injury.

On account of lack of sizing in the Jonathans, there will be an approximate decrease of 10 per cent in the Okanagan Center and Winfield district.

Owing to the unavoidable absence on urgent departmental duties of the official in charge of the Salmon Arm and main line points, no reliable report is available covering these points.

The early summer apples have apparently dropped below the first estimates, but from the information that is to hand at the present time, Wealthies will run very closely to the figures as given in the first estimates, excepting in isolated instances where scab or hail caused considerable damage.

The prune crop appears to be holding up to earlier estimates, and if all are shipped there may possibly be a slight increase when the season is finished. Stone fruits in the Vernon district are practically cleaned up, and from this on apples will be moving in heavy volume.

Vegetable crops are maturing rapidly, and from all available information, the tonnage of winter potatoes will be considerably under the crop produced for several years. The same applies to the onion tonnage. The bulbs of this vegetable are maturing fast, and harvesting is becoming general in the more favored localities.

ANTI-BETTING ACT FOUND ULTRA VIRES

Appeal Court Being Unanimous on Matter, Ontario Government Accepts Decision on Drury Legislation

TORONTO, Sept. 19. — In view of the unanimous decision of the judges of the appellate division this morning, that the Ontario Anti-Betting act was ultra vires of the Ontario legislature, Hon. W. F. Nickle, attorney-general, stated late today that he had directed that all prosecutions cease under the act. The government would not pursue the matter any further.

Nickle Lifts Ban

"It is practically nonexistent," the attorney-general said, when asked what position the law was in now as a result of the judges' decision. He added that the Dominion law was still in existence, but as far as the Ontario statutes were concerned all prosecutions would cease.

Ontario newspapers are now free to publish racing news, even to the extent of odds and tips.

American sheets which publish betting odds and selections, it is claimed, are barred by the recently passed federal law. In order to evade it, legal men argue, they would have to get out editions published on this side of the line.

LADIES' WEAR SPECIALISTS

THREE NATIONS STILL IN WOMEN'S OPEN GOLF

Canada Has Four Representatives, United States Three, and England One in Third Round

MONTREAL, Sept. 19. — Four Canadians, three United States players, and one Englishwoman, were left in the running for the Canadian women's open golf championship at the end of the play in the second round at the Mount Bruno course today.

The Canadians are: Mrs. D. C. Hurd, Hamilton; Miss Ada MacKenzie, Mississauga; Mrs. Harold Hutchings, Winnipeg, and Mrs. Hope Gibson of Hamilton. The United States players are: Miss Glenna Collettee, Providence; Miss Alexa Stirling, Atlanta, Ga., and Miss Helen Meehan, Cedarbrook, Pa. The Englishwoman is Mrs. Gavin, present Canadian champion.

Tomorrow Miss Collette meets Mrs. Hurd, and it is believed the present United States champion will meet with an opponent worthy of her steel in the former British, Canadian and United States titleholder. Mrs. Hutchings is opposed by Miss Stirling; Miss MacKenzie meets Mrs. Gibson, while Mrs. Gavin meets Miss Meehan.

The Scores

Today's scores follow:

Miss Collette defeated Miss Edith Leitch, England, 6 and 4.

Miss Stirling defeated Miss Helen Paget, Ottawa, 8 and .

Mrs. Hutchings defeated Mrs. Spaulding, Niagara Falls, N.Y., 4 and 2.

Miss MacKenzie defeated Mrs. R. J. Dawes, Montreal, 2 and 1.

Mrs. Hurd defeated Mrs. M. K. Rowe, Toronto, 8 and 7.

Mrs. Gibson defeated Miss Sarah Meehan, Cedarbrook, Pa., 3 and 2.

Mrs. Gavin defeated Mrs. Fox, Quebec, 6 and 4.

Mrs. C. Armstrong of Victoria was eliminated from the championship consolation event by Miss Annabelle, Montreal, 4 and 2.

English Girl Badly Beaten

The Collette-Leitch match caught the gallery when play began, and quite a large group of spectators followed it. At the twelfth hole Miss Collette drove a ball out of bounds, and Miss Leitch won in six, this being the second hole taken by the English player. It also proved to be the last. The thirteenth and fourteenth were halved in fives and fours, and thus the match terminated on the fourteenth green, with Miss Collette winner 6 up and 4 to play.

TORONTO, Sept. 19. — "We are not thieves or pirates; what we are doing openly and deliberately we believe we have a right to do," said Edmund E. Adcock, counsel for the sanitary district of Chicago, to the Toronto harbor board today, in stating Chicago's case for the diversion of 10,000 cubic feet of water per second from Lake Michigan.

The witness failed to make any noticeable progress, however, except to give the harbor commissioners a somewhat clearer idea of Chicago's ambition to sweep its sewage to the south by taking some of the Lake Michigan waters to flood the Chicago river.

Cholera Infantum

A FATAL DISEASE OF CHILDREN

Cholera infantum or summer complaint of children is one of the most dangerous bowel complaints during the summer months.

It begins with a profuse diarrhoea, the stomach becomes irritated, very often accompanied by vomiting and purging, and the matter excreted from the stomach has a bilious appearance. The child rapidly loses flesh, is soon reduced to languor and prostration, and in a great many cases death ensues.

Mothers, if any of your children become sick with cholera infantum do not endanger their health, perhaps their life, by experimenting with some new and untried remedy; get one that has stood the test of time; one that will quickly offset the vomiting, purging and the diarrhoea. This you will find in Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, a remedy that has been on the market for the past 78 years.

Mrs. W. A. Harrison, 10 Elevator court, Halifax, N.S., writes: "Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry saved the lives of three of my children when all other remedies failed. It stopped the vomiting and terrible diarrhoea with which they were troubled. I always keep a bottle of it in hand in case of emergency."

"Dr. Fowler's" is 50c a bottle; put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

LARGE CROWD ATTENDS FAIR ON SECOND DAY

Various Attractions and Midway Center of Much Attention; Inspect Building

Visitors' day at the twenty-first Nelson fruit fair drew a much larger crowd to the grounds and buildings yesterday. During the afternoon especially, hundreds of people passed through the doors.

Probably the chief attraction of the grand stand events for the afternoon was the horse racing, these events proving more exciting than on any previous occasion.

The Trail-Nelson football game, which ended in a 1-all draw, was also an attraction which brought many visitors out. The performance of the 15 Trail naval cadets, under the care of Instructor Percy Halliwell, was accorded much applause. Their program varied a little from that offered on the opening day. A dumbbell drill, tumbling, gymnasts on the wooden horse, boxing and pyramid building were all intermixed on their offering. A fencing duel between two of the older members was something new to local people.

The midway attracted more attention than on the opening afternoon, the merry-go-round and Ferris wheel in particular being well patronized.

Last night, community singing in the grand stand, led by Fred L. Irwin and accompanied by the City band, together with the Trail naval cadet program and the stunts of Chum Hope, the canine wonder, provided much merriment for those present. The rain somewhat hampered the attendance last night, but nevertheless the midway attracted hundreds.

REPARATIONS FIRST URGES FEDERATION

GENEVA, Sept. 19 — World reconstruction is dependent upon early settlement of the reparations problem, declares a manifesto distributed to all the delegates to the League of Nations by the International Federation of Labor Unions of Amsterdam, which claims to represent 20,000,000 organized workmen in various countries.

The manifesto says the recurrence of incidents like the occupation of Corfu, with consequent violation of international engagements, demonstrates the state of insecurity in which the people are living, and by reason of which the great question of reparations remains unsolved, the menace of armed conflicts will continue to hang over their heads.

QUEEN BESS SHOWS HEELS TO OPPONENTS

Local Horse Wins Two Spectacular Heats at Fair Program

Yesterday's racing program at the fair attracted more attention and created far more excitement than on the opening day. Two races in particular were well worth witnessing, both proving that Alex. Stewart's horse, Queen Bess, had the goods.

As on the first day, Queen Bess again proved a winner yesterday, Jockey Jimmie McDonald winning great praise from the race fans. Alex. Stewart did not start his horse in the quarter-mile heats, as he saved her for the purses with the bigger money in them. Queen Bess won the one-half-mile event in the two heats, and also captured the three-quarter-mile dash. In the one-quarter-mile, in heats, Idaho Boy proved the winner on two starts.

The race of the afternoon was the first heat in the half-mile race, which was contested by four horses—Queen Bess and Thelma, both locally-owned horses, and by First Principal and Idaho Boy, owned by the Indians from the Creston district.

Bess Behind at Start.

At the start, all horses got away with a good chance, with the exception of Queen Bess, which left the line last. At the end of the first lap Queen Bess had passed Idaho Boy, and in the last lap caught up and passed Thelma, leaving only First Principal in the lead. Some excellent jockeying by Jockey McDonald on the last curve brought his horse up even with First Principal, which was leading, and in the last 25 yards he stepped Queen Bess ahead enough to win by half a length. The crowd, which was on its feet the whole time of the race, gave the winner a great hand.

The second heat, for a time, proved just as exciting. Queen Bess again receiving a bad start, and being crowded by Idaho Boy and First Principal. At the end of the first lap Bess was third, and was blocked squarely by the two leading horses. McDonald, however, pulled his mount between the leaders and took the lead on the last one-eighth of a mile.

The final standing of the horses in the half-mile event was Queen Bess, first; First Principal, second; Thelma, third; and Idaho Boy, fourth. In the second heat Thelma came up from last to third position.

In the quarter-mile event, three horses started, Idaho Boy winning easily, followed by Thelma and Princess Pat.

The three-quarter-mile dash proved exciting, but Queen Bess was too superior for her rivals. She headed Red Wing easily, while Castlegar Boy, which made his first appearance, came in a rank third, having been left a long ways behind. Thelma did not run in this race.

Today will be the last day on which races will be staged, and an interesting program has been drawn up by the program committee. One-quarter, one-half and three-quarter-mile races will be staged.

Mustn't Photograph the Japanese Dead

Foreign Office Advises Foreigners to Avoid Collisions; Quake Scrapped Japanese Warship Mikasa

TOKIO, Sept. 19. — The Japanese foreign office has advised foreigners that, because of the difference in language and customs, they should avoid walking about the devastated areas, except in case of absolute necessity. They also are requested to refrain from taking photographs. The Japanese consider photographing the dead a sacrilege.

The Japanese warship Mikasa, awaiting scrapping under the provisions of the Washington treaty, went on the rocks during the earthquake; suffered a bad leak, and gradually submerged. It was decided to beach her, popular sentiment deciding that parts should be saved as a souvenir of the battle of the Sea of Japan.

The raw silk market has reopened.

The 5500-ton Japanese cruiser Naka, which was ready for launching at Yokohama, was destroyed in the earthquake and fire.

Half of the 500 telephone operators at Tokio were reported today as missing.

The Coast Freight Rate Case

The request of the privy council to the board of railway commissioners to reconsider and revise export grain rates from the prairies to Vancouver is taken as the equivalent of instructions to the commission to make a revision downward. Undoubtedly that is what it means.

Lower rates on grain to the Pacific coast are a logical development. With the opening of the Panama canal and the growth of trade with the orient Vancouver must become the port of outlet for a very large proportion of Canada's grain crop.

No action on the demand of Vancouver for lower rates eastward on products shipped out by coast manufacturers and wholesalers has yet been taken. The coast people have been demanding that the rate eastward from Vancouver, which enjoys exceptionally low rates on account of its position as a port, be made as low as the rates westward. If Vancouver gained this point it would enable it to extend its wholesale territory eastward, which would not be to the advantage of centers like Nelson which cannot afford to have their distributing territory further restricted.

Germany to Attempt to Reform Currency

Announcement that the German government proposes to establish a special bank which will deal in gold notes which will be exchangeable for paper marks at a set rate shows that the government is really attempting to stabilize the currency.

Undoubtedly this action would have been much longer delayed, if taken at all, but for the French occupation of the Ruhr, which forced the Germans to move. But for the French invasion it seems extremely improbable that the Germans would have continued to manufacture paper marks just as long as they could unload them, and then finally declare repudiation.

If Germany will continue on the course upon which it appears now to have embarked it will find France and the other allied nations willing enough to cooperate in bringing an end to the present impossible situation.

The establishment of a gold currency for use at the same time as the debased marks may, however, cause unforeseen difficulties. Sir Thomas Gresham discovered in the 16th century that debased coinage drove good coinage out of existence. The Gresham law has since often been proved sound. Germany may find that those who get hold of the currency which is backed by gold will immediately put it in hiding or send it out of the country. But perhaps the government has in view some plan which will overcome this weakness in the new scheme.

"Creston On the Job, as Usual"

Creston is very much on the job, as usual.

It has sent to Lord Renfrew a shipment of apples, pears, peaches, canteloupes, etc.

That is good advertising, and it is also a thoughtful action, which it is certain the prince will appreciate.

The Lighter Side

Personally we prefer the old-fashioned square dances and square wrestling matches.

Some people feel cheated unless the list of victims contains the name of somebody they knew.

If it's an old, ramshackle building that should be torn down, any amateur fire department can save it.

A critic says Canadians have lost their nerve. Has he noticed the entries in beauty contests,

Ah, well; that kind of people never get a chance to feel important except when they monopolize the highway.

Home: A sleeping place adjacent to the garage.

There are no sentimental songs in which the writer yearns to be taken back to the dear old wheat farm.

The parties to an industrial controversy are never as far apart as their rival statistics.

About half of loyalty is just the delight of basking in the reflected glory of a great man's greatness.

If there were no half-baked political theories, what would men espouse when they have a grouch?

The middle class is the one halfway between Easy street and a sheriff's sale.

The funny thing about Who's Who is that it mentions so many great people nobody ever heard of before.

Correct this sentence: "I simply won't have any more clothes," cried the flapper, "until mother gets the things she needs."

Every time I see a picture of a French boudoir, with its luxurious silks, its shaded lights and its frivolous frills, I find myself thinking: "Well, it may be overdone—but it's got the right idea! It is soothing and restful and feminine."

Of all the rooms in the house our bedroom should be the daintiest. We may not, with good taste, have delicate pinks and blues in our downstairs color schemes, but in our bedroom these tints are entirely suitable. Imagine a gilded droplight with a rosebud decorated shade on your living room table; yet, in your bedroom such a lamp would merely add charm.

Why may we not have delicate colors and frilly ornaments downstairs? Because they destroy the dignity of a living room. But in the bedroom we need not think of dignity. The bedroom is the place where we let down our hair and slip on a dressing gown—where we relax for a period of rest. It should, therefore, be furnished and decorated in an informal manner.

I once overheard a woman, standing before a shop window, say—"Look at those telephone shields with china dolls at the top—aren't they ridiculous. What full-grown woman would buy one?" And I just longed to argue with that critical person! I wanted to say to her: "I would like one of those in my upstairs hallway. If we can't have intimate, personal things around us upstairs, where can we have them? Must we always be straightlaced and dignified? It is restful to our nerves to have surroundings upstairs that are in contrast with those downstairs."

The upper part of the house is the proper place for dainty surroundings. Let us not be ashamed to express our femininity there in ruffled curtains, lacy bureau scarfs, decorative bedspreads, delicate colors, shirred lamp shades, dainty workbags, a chaisse-longue (if you can afford one!), unusual doorstops (there are many sold nowadays—kittens and bunnies and other animals prop a door open), quaint, old-time mirrors for the hallway, and anything else that will make the upstairs seem more intimate.

Downstairs we must wear a mask. Upstairs we can be ourselves—dropping the poise which we wear for callers, and just relaxing.

WHITE RIBBONERS URGE ALBERTA DRY

British Columbia Convention Advises Alberta Women to Fight to Retain Prohibition.

VANCOUVER, Sept. 19.—The women of Alberta were urged yesterday by members in British Columbia, of the Women's Christian Temperance union, to do all in their power to oppose the sale of liquor in Alberta, when the plebiscite is held there on the question of government control of liquor sales.

The provincial W.C.T.U. went into convention here this morning with representatives from 43 unions in the province.

A resolution was adopted urging the women of Alberta to try and retain the Prohibition act in that province. It will be transmitted to the Alberta division by Rev. W. W. Peck, who leaves here shortly to tour that province in the interests of prohibition.

The year's receipts were shown as $2987, and disbursements as $2401. The convention continues tomorrow.

Styles

by Lenore

No woman who is wise in the ways of distinctive dressing ever minimizes the importance of accessories. Her gown may be of the simplest, but each detail will be selected with studious care. Her veil will be suitable for the style of the hat; shoes and stockings will be appropriate to the rest of her costume. Gloves, handbag, bits of jewelry, all will harmonize.

This season the short glove, especially with turned-over cuff, will be especially smart. Two-toned effects, in browns and tans, are most in demand, and some of the trimming ideas are most exciting. Green circles set in latticed stitching of the same color are revealed in the cut-out treatment of the tan glove in the center of the above sketch. Brown kid stimulates a puffed effect in the beige glove given below, and green and buscuit stripes give dash to the glove with turn-back cuff.

THEY LIGHTEN WORK

That Body of Yours

By James W. Barton, M.D.

Is Your Child Delicate?

(Registered in accordance with the Copyright Act)

I have often wondered why parents will say, "You know John or Mary is delicate, and so I don't ask them to do much around the house." John gets out of cutting the grass or taking out ashes, and Mary is not required to do any household chores.

Now, if John or Mary is delicate the family doctor should be consulted. Don't ask him for a good tonic for them, but ask him to take a look over them. There must be a reason for calling them delicate, and let him help you to find it.

Youngsters that are considered delicate lose a large part of the necessary training in life.

From the moral and mental standpoint they lose heavily indeed.

A "delicate" boy can be just a little slack in his attendance at school, in his general care of clothes and body, and in his general conduct in school or in the home, and the old cry goes up, "Oh, he's delicate."

Now, the mental and moral is hardly my field, but I believe you'll agree with me in the above statement.

Now, what about him physically?

The same old error occurs. He is allowed to get up when he likes, eat what he likes, go to bed when he likes, and does not indulge in any exercise or games because he doesn't like them.

Now, when you come to think of it, isn't it absurd?

Why, the youngster, after being overhauled by the family physician, should have more thought and care spent on him, from a hygiennic standpoint, than a normal child.

And, as a matter of fact, he has less, because the bugbear, "He is so delicate," is allowed to interfere with progress, mental, moral and physical.

So, if you have a "delicate" child, see that he gets outdoors every day, gets good food and only at mealtime, that he gets at least 10 hours' sleep, and that he is encouraged to play like other children.

Now, isn't that a reasonable proposition?

Congratulations From a Friend in England Upon the Ymir Road

To the Editor of The Daily News:

Sir—I have this week received the news that the new Ymir road was to be officially opened for traffic on August 29. That is an event upon which the citizens of Nelson should be heartily congratulated.

Shortly after I arrived in Nelson, about two years ago, I was permitted to attend a public meeting when Mr. Oliver and other gentlemen dealt with the question of making this road. The arguments in favor seemed to me to be overwhelming, and now it is an accomplished fact.

The increase of visitors from the south to your fine city and its beautiful surroundings should at once be manifest, threby bringing increased business and benefit to all classes of the population. It is certain the district will richly repay a visit, nay, many visits.

Nelson is well situated to be made a center from which tours to the lakes and mountains can be easily arranged by steamer, rail and road.

May I be allowed to express my humble congratulations to the citizens of Nelson upon their energy and enterprise, and to wish them the prosperity they are seeking, and so well deserve?

WINNIPEG BROKER FALLS SIX STOREYS

Goes Out on Fire Escape of Grain Exchange Building for Breath of Air, and Faints

WINNIPEG, Sept. 19. — Benjamin J. Ostrander, aged 41, a prominent member of the Winnipeg Grain exchange, fell to his death late today from the fire escape on the sixth floor of the Grain Exchange building. Police officials stated tonight they did not consider the tragedy other than accidental. Friends of Ostrander state he went out on the fire escape to get a breath of air, and they presume he had a fainting spell and toppled over the balcony. He was not looking very well at the time, they state.

Mr. Ostrander had been in the grain brokerage business for about 25 years. Ten years ago he established the B. J. Ostrander Grain company here.

Merchant Marine May Carry Gift of Lumber to Japan

VICTORIA, Sept. 19.—The provincial government has arranged with the timber industries council of British Columbia to supply a cargo of lumber at cost, and is now negotiating with the Dominion government for means of transportation for the shipment across the Pacific to the stricken cities of Tokio and Yokohama.

An emergency shipment of 125,000 feet of dimension lumber and shiplap is being put into the hold of the Canadian government steamship Canadian Skirmisher for immediate carriage to Japan as a gift of the provincial government.

Victoria sawmill operators received inquiries yesterday for 2,000,000 feet of lumber for Japan.

The Canadian government merchant marine now has two steamships in Vancouver that could be used in carrying lumber from British Columbia to Japan, and the provincial government is now negotiating with the federal authorities for the employment of one of them in carrying a relief cargo.

In the meantime, British Columbia sawmills have been ordered to go ahead with the preparation of 1,200,000 feet, which will be bought at cost by the government and sent to Japan.

ANTHRACITE MINING AGAIN IN PROGRESS

At Most Collieries a Large Proportion of Men Return but in Some Cases Response Is Weak

SCRANTON, Pa., Sept. 19.—Mining operations in the anthracite fields were resumed today after having ben suspended since September 1, pending the negotiation of a new wage contract for the miners. There was far from a full response, however, to the order lifting the suspension after the ratification of the new agreement by the tridistrict convention of the United Mine Workers of America.

In some sections less than 20 per cent of the men reported for work, and in a few instances collieries failed to reopen because of the small forces, while others operated only a few hours.

At most of the mines, however, between 50 and 70 per cent of the men returned to work. There was considerable cleaning up to be done, and the miners and other workers went to their tasks determinedly.

Social Happenings In Nelson

This column is conducted by Mrs. M. J. Vigneux. All news of a social nature, including receptions, private entertainments, personal items, marriages, etc., will appear in this column. Telephone Mrs. Vigneux.

Trinity Methodist church furnished a bright scene last evening at 8 o'clock when a large number of guests attended the wedding of Miss Erma Eugenie Ferguson, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Ferguson, 722 Stanley street, when she became the bride of Gilbert Conrad Arnesen, only son of the late Mr. and Mrs. O. Arnesen, of Manistique, Mich., with Rev. J. H. Wright officiating. Those present overflowed to the sidewalk.

The bride, who was given away by her father, looked exceedingly well in a creation of white beaute satin, draped and caught on the left side with a large satin bow and pearl ornament. Her court train of white satin was delicately lined in a shell pink georgette, edged with pearls. She wore a silk tulle veil, kept in place with a wreath of orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of cream sweet peas and shell pink sweetheart roses. Her going-away costume was of nigger brown duvetyn, with hat of silk and velvet to match. The bridesmaid, Miss Helen Hodgson, wore a most becoming French frock of orchid altyme crepe with white picture hat to correspond, and carried a bouquet of pink sweet peas. Little Miss Joy Ferguson, the bride's niece, acted as flower girl, dressed in a dainty frilled rose voile and flower-trimmed rose tulle hat, and carried an exquisite basket of lavender sweet peas. The bride's mother was attired in a cinnamon canton crepe with velvet and ostrich hat to match. The groom was supported by John A. Ferguson, brother of the bride. The ushers who did the honors at the church were W. Brown and Arthur B. Gilker.

A number of the young people of the church displayed great taste in the elaborate decorations, which were carried out mostly in pink and lavender asters, quantities of greenery and huge embankments of flowers around the various flowers.

The ceremonies at the church concluded with the signing of the register, Miss Lottie Annable singing "Oh, Fair, Oh Sweet and Holy," with Miss Ina Steed playing the organ.

The invited guests then assembled at the home of the bride's parents, Stanley street, where a reception was held, with Mrs. W. E. Wasson and Mrs. A. T. Walley in charge. The living rooms were most attractively arranged with profusions of autumn flowers. The table from which refreshments were served was centered with a pretty basket of pink roses. Among those who assisted in serving were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Tyler, Mr. and Mrs. G. Douglas Nagle, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. McBride, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Cuhran, Miss Maude Elliott, Miss Kathleen Irving, Miss Freda B. Hume, Miss Jeannette Higginbotham and Miss Nellie Colclough.

Oklahoma Editors Issue Joint Bill Against Governor

TULSA, Okla., Sept. 17.—An address to "the people of the United States," declaring that "the supreme issue in Oklahoma today is constitutional government or despotism," was made public tonight by a group of Oklahoma daily newspaper publishers, following an all-day meeting called by a local editor with a view to "placing the true situation before the country."

Publishers of several of the largest dailies in the state signed the statement.

"Governor Walton, by his own acts, has attempted to nullify rights guaranteed under our constitution, and to halt the lawful processes of republican government," the publishers declared.

A second declaration addressed to "members of the legislature," said: "The editors of Oklahoma urge that the legislature meet immediately."

Martial Law a Year?

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Sept. 19.—Governor Walton is ready to keep Oklahoma under martial law a year if necessary to stamp out lawlessness, according to a story published in the Oklahoma City Times today. The governor was quoted as declaring he had the men and money and could last a year.

..Huge Mob Riots in .. Detroit in Attempt .. to View Girl's Body

DETROIT, Sept. 19.—A riot call was sent by police tonight when a mob estimated at 5000 persons attempted to gain entrance to the home of John Lornec, to view the body of his 13-year-old daughter, who, the father alleges, died from ill treatment at the hands of police after her arrest September 11 on a charge of larceny.

Three patrolmen were slightly injured by the crowd, who fought the officers attempting to maintain order.

Stated Put in Ice Water

Before her death, according to her father, she told him she had been abused by the police, put into ice water three times and that attempts were made to put her in an electric chair to make her confess the robbery. The father asserted the body of the girl bore marks on it, indicating bruises.

According to a statement issued by James Sprott, assistant superintendent of police, the girl was sent to the juvenile detention home immediately after her arrest, and the next day removed to a hospital. The statement says death was caused by pleurisy. An autopsy was held after the death.

The statement says marks on the body were caused by hypodermic injections given before the girl's death, and the incisions by surgeons during the autopsy. The story told by the girl to her father is said by Sprott to have been given while the girl was delirious, just before her death.

Klondyke Navigation Is Now Nearly Over

DAWSON, Y.T., Sept. 19.—The Klondyke's brief season of navigation is nearing its end. The last steamer for Nenano and Fairbanks, Alaska, left here last week. About one more trip is all that is possible for the steamers now plying on the Stewart river from Dawson to Mayo.

Four more steamers are scheduled to sail from Dawson to Whitehorse this season, but if the weather continues good there may be a couple of additional sailings before the Yukon river closes.

The usual exodus of Yukoners going south for the winter is under way.

STOCKS DEVELOP SOME STRENGTH

Weakness and Strength Alternate Early, but List Later Turns Upward After Industrials.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17. — Stock prices developed moderate strength in today's fairly active market. Alternate periods of weakness and strength featured the morning session, but the general list turned unmistakably upward under the leadership of the so-called pivotal industrials.

A drop in the call money rate to 3½ per cent, the lowest of the year, and a sharp rally in cotton prices which carried all months 63 to 100 points above last night's close, also were regarded by some as contributing factors. New low records were established in the oil group by Marland at 20¼, Cosden at 22¾, California Petroleum at 17⅛ and the preferred at 91. Pierce Oil preferred 18⅜; Atlantic Refining at 98¾; and Pacific at 31⅛; Atlantic Refining closing at its lowest figure of the day, off ⅜ of a point. Pierce Oil preferred recorded its lowest and closed unchanged at 19, and others showed net gain on the day, ranging from ⅛ each in the case of Marland and Cosden to 2 points in the case of Pacific Oil.

Baldwin and American Locomotives, Studebaker, American Can and Gulf States Steel showing net gains of 1 to 1⅜ points.

United States Steel rallied to 88¾, up ¾; Bethlehem was under pressure in the afternoon, being forced down to a new low of the movement, but snapped back later to 48⅜, or within ⅛ of last night's close. Crucible and Republic closed fractionally higher.

Total sales were 890,200 shares.

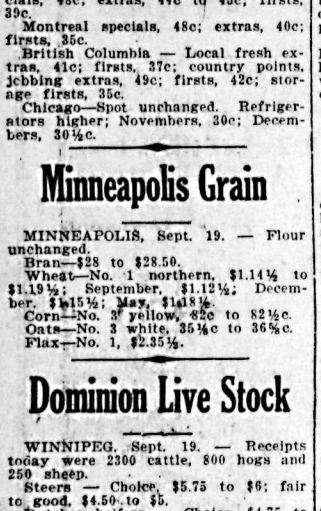
Money AT WORK

Brief But Important Lessons in Finance, Markets, Stocks, Bonds and Investments.



Current assets minus current liabilities leave working capital.

At the bottom of most balance sheets is an important item, termed working capital. Even if it is not stated, it can easily be determined by subtracting current liabilities from current assets.

Current assets are liquid capital—that which can be turned into cash immediately or which will be turned into cash in the current operation of the business.

Cash, marketable securities, accounts and notes receivable, and inventories (which may include raw material, goods in process of manufacture, and finished goods) are the main current assets.

Current liabilities are just the opposite—obligations that will require an expenditure of cash either at once or in the near future.

Accounts and notes payable, interest and wages are the common current liabilities.

FOOTBALL ENDS A ONE-ALL TIE

Trail, However, Captures Championship for West Kootenay

Footer fans and fair patrons yesterday witnessed a rather slow but interesting football game, the final in the West Kootenay league series, when Trail and the local eleven played to a 1-to-1 draw.

Aside from a few spectacular stops by goaltenders on either side, there was little excitement. Trail in the first half seemed to have things considerably their own way, while in the last period the locals seemed to liven up some, and the Trail nets were endangered on several occasions.

Play opened with the Nelson team in on the Trail backs, but the Trail backs, who played a steady game the whole of the afternoon, broke up the play. Hardly had seven minutes of the first period elapsed before Trail had tallied when Patton on a scramble in the Nelson goal mouth planted the ball to the nets. Talbot, for the locals, had a chance at evening the score shortly after, but Marshall was right on the job, blocking the shot in fine style.

Leaming Ties Score

About five minutes before the end of the half, Leaming scored for Nelson on as pretty a shot as has been seen in the local grounds. Taking Talbot's pass on the right wing he fooled Kitchen, the Trail back, and, aiming beautifully, shot for the net corner. Marshall, in the Trail nets, tried to stop the shot, which, however, bounded far into the goal, sending Marshall backward into the nets. Leaming was afforded a great ovation from the crowd.

There was no scoring in the last half, although the teams pepped up somewhat and tried hard for goals. To Notman goes the credit of saving the day for Nelson, as his timely saves were creditably made. Trail's combination was truer and more effective than was that of the Nelson squad, their passes being more accurately handled.

Following the game, the Trail eleven which has again won the cup emblematic of the championship of West Kootenay was presented with the silverware by Alderman A. S. Horswill. Three hearty cheers from the crowd followed the presentation.

The game was handled by J. Draper, while E. J. Fowler of Trail and H. Ward of Nelson ran the lines.

DONOGHUE WILL STEER PAPYRUS

SOUTHAMPTON, Sept. 19.—It is definitely settled that Steve Donoghue, Great Britain's premier jockey over the flat, will ride the Derby winner Papyrus, when the English thoroughbred races the best three-year-old in the United States at Belmont park, October 20.

TOPNOTCHERS ELIMINATED

Jones, Open Champ, Fails Before Philadelphia Man; Ouimet Checks Britisher

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—Two former national amateur title holders and the national open champion, Bobby Jones of Atlanta, were eliminated today in the second round of the United States national golf championship tournament at Flossmoor. The defeat of Jones by Max Marston of Philadelphia furnished the thrilling upset of a day replete with startling developments.

Jesse Sweetzer of New York kept in the race to defend his title, over*coming Dave Herron of Chicago,* 4 and 3, and Gardner of Chicago also survived by ousting W. C. Fownes of Pittsburgh, 2 and 1. Francis Ouimet of Boston outgolfed Willie Hunter of Los Angeles, former premier golfer of Britain, and won, 1 and 2.

Jesse Guilford of Boston had a comparatively easy time in defeating Dexter Cummings of Chicago, intercollegiate champion, 7 and 6.

Hunter Gives Ouimet Great Race

The defeat of Jones, following that of Evans, who had tied with Jones for low qualifying scores at 149, caused the greatest excitement of the day, although the prospects for a time, that Hunter would down Ouimet, as he had Evans, kept the followers on edge until the Bostonian, by shooting par on the third nine, and three better than perfect golf on the last quarter up to the finish, finally disposed of the British entry.

Jones' downfall was all the more impressive because he not only shot a record 70 for the 6704-yard course in the morning, but kept within two strokes of par in the afternoon, only to lose a collection of birdies that netted Marston the advantage.

Ouimet, two down at the end of the first 18 holes, started the afternoon round without great promise of overtaking Hunter, but he picked up at the 552-yard (21st), and by bagging a birdie four, squared the match with a par four on the 23rd, where Hunter was in the rough. Ouimet dropped back one at the short waterhole by pitching his tee shot in the muddy bank, while Hunter got a birdie two. Hunter then threw his chances away by getting enmeshed on the 26th for a five, and taking three putts at the 27th for another five, putting Ouimet one up as they started on the home stretch. After halving the 28th, Ouimet took the next with a par four, and settled the match three and two when Hunter took three putts from 25 feet.

Guilford will play Sweetzer, Gardner will meet Shutte, Marston will contest Wells, Ouimet will take on Von Elm.

What care do clubs require?

Answered by

LAURIE AYTON

Always a consistent place winner in the big tournaments — National Open, Metropolitan Open, Western Open and sectional tournaments. Famed for his accuracy and steadiness under fire.

After playing, it is a good practice to wipe the clubs free of any moisture which might cause them to warp. The shafts should be lightly oiled every week or so. Any fraying of the grip or binding threads should be tended to immediately by an expert. The best way to keep the clubs when not in use is to place them across a table as shown above.

DECISION ON FOUL GIVES FOX VICTORY

Fast Bout Comes to Unsatisfactory End in Fourth Round

LOCAL BOY FLOORED IN FURIOUS CLINCH

Spokane Opponent Was Outclassed in Three Rounds; Took Count of Nine

Who won the fight? Such was the questio nasked by many fans last night after Bob Fox and Mysterious Smith had ended their little show in the opera house. Bob Fox, stretched out on the floor after the middle of the fourth round had passed, was boosted to his feet by his manager, Johnny Gannon, and awarded the referee's decision as victor on a foul. Just what happened previously to that in the fourth round is hard to say.

Hand it to the boys! They put up a good scrap for three rounds, and anyone who witnessed the affair received a treat. In the fourth the bout became hot and furious, Smith taking a lead early in the round and playing with Fox's jaw. Fox, however, came back strong and Smith took the count of nine, coming up from the floor with a rush, he pasting Fox with rights and lefts to the body. The pair became pretty wild, and clinched, both, it seems, hitting in the clinch. Referee Holland ordered the two to break, and the next seen was Fox stretched on the canvas, adjudged a winner on a foul.

Referee States a Foul

Numerous other versions of the fight were voiced last night, and it is hard to say just what happened.

Referee Holland's statement, following the decision in favor of Fox, was as follows:

"I ordered the men to break. They kep on fighting. I went in to separate them, and while doing so Smith put over a knockout. I gave the fight to Fox. Further proof of Smith's wanting to get at Fox was shown by him continuing to rush him after Fox was down to his knees," stated the referee.

Fox took the count, and was down for 67 seconds, while the ring became crowded with excited fans. Fox, who was taken in charge of by his manager after regaining his poise walked across the ring. He was booed loudly by the crowd as he went to his rooms and as he left the theater. Several fans in the ringside seats became excited, and a free-for-all nearly started, the police nipping the row in the bud.

Fox Has Best of Fight

Taking the fight by rounds, Fox had a little better of the argument, the second and third rounds being in his favor, while the first could be called a draw.

The battle, by rounds:

Round 1.—Smith tried a right to the jaw. Fox lead with a right to the head. Smith connected with his left to the jaw. Fox put over a right to the kidneys. Smith backed away, and came up with a left, but missed the blow. They clinched. Fox sent in a right and left to the body, Smith returning a left to the head. Fox landed on Smith's chin with a right, repeating the blow and adding a light left to the face. Fox played on Smith's kidneys. Smith closed the round with a right and left to the head and jaw.

Round 3.—Smith put over a left to the face, Fox returning the same punch. They clinched, both going to the ropes. Fox put over a right and left to the face, then playing on the body. Fox put over three to the body and a left to the jaw. He connected with a right to the face. Smith missed a left swing. Smith showed signs of weakening toward the end of the round.

Round 4.—Both boxers clinched. Smith connected with his left on Fox's jaw, repeating the identical punch on the next move. Fox advanced a right, and Smith covered up. Fox following him about the ring, hammering in right and left uppercuts to the head. Smith went to the floor and took the count of nine. He sprung to his feet and rushed at Fox, delivering a left and right to the jaw and body. Fox was in difficulty, and they clinched. The referee ordered the men to break. At this juncture the foul blow was struck, and Referee Holland awarded the decision to Fox, who was then chasing butterflies.

Smith Protests Decision

After the fight, Smith protested that the decision of Referee Joe Holland was wrong. He stated: "In the clinch which lead to the unsatisfactory finish of the bout tonight I was struck, not once, but twice, by Fox while we were clinched.

"Naturally I had to strike back, and that was all I did. It was too much to expect that I should stand in a clinch and let him wallop away at me.

"I am ready to fight Fox at any time again under Marquis of Queensbury rules with the referee strictly enforcing them."

Preliminaries Good

Previous to the main bout the fans were treated to two good preliminary bouts, the first in particular being a whirlwind affair in which Allibone was awarded the decision over Young Passecreta. Allibone was at his usual good form, and seemed more bent on offensive tactics than in his previous appearances in local bouts.

Ted McVicar and Alex Ionian put up a fast three rounds, to a draw. Although outweighted by his opponent. Ionian used his left hand to good advantage on McVicar's jaw. W. Christoverson refereed the preliminaries. Tom Wilson acted as official timekeeper for all bouts.

*A good crowd was on hand to wit*ness the card, a large sprinkling of ladies being present.

OTTAWA WON'T HAVE ANY HOCKEY WAR

Opposing Forces Join Hands in New Organization That Controls Players and New Rink

OTTAWA, Sept. 19.—As a result of a conference here today, hockey war clouds reported to have been gathering for some time have been cleared away, and all is in readiness for a big season in Ottawa.

Tommy Gorman and Ted Dey today disposed of all their assets and goodwill of the Ottawa Arena club to the Ottawa Hockey Association, Ltd., of which T. F. Ahearn is president. As the latter body already has all of last year's world's champion Senators under contract, all will now be clear sailing.

Both Mr. Gorman and Mr. Dey will be directors in the new company, and it is further reported that the former will be appointed active manager of the Senators.

This deal places the new association in a strong position, as they have a contract with the new auditorium which will run for 15 years, at the end of which is an option for a further extension of five years. The rink will have one of the finest artificial ice plants on the continent, and has a seating capacity of 10,000. It is rapidly nearing completion, and will be quite ready for the opening of the approaching season.

Winnipeg and Lake Towns Will Play Hockey Together

PORT ARTHUR, Ont., Sept. 19.—A new four-club hockey circuit came into being this afternoon when the Selkirks, the Falcons of Winnipeg, and Port Arthur and Fort William clubs agreed to play together during the next and subsequent seasons.

The oranization will seek affiliation with the Canadian Amateur Hockey association, and even if not successful at the commencement of the season will carry on in accordance with all the playing and residence rules of the big association in the expectation that it will be given the right to enter the Allan cup playdowns.

An annual meeting will be held shortly for the election of officers and drawing up of a schedule providing for 10 or 12 home games for each club.

SACRAMENTO MOBS BASEBALL UMPIRES

President of League Will Bar Further Ball There Till City Assures Proper Protection

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 19. — A riot in the Sacramento baseball grounds during today's game brought an ultimatum tonight from President W. H. McCarthy of the Pacific Coast league to the Sacramento chief of police, that coast league teams will play no more baseball in Sacramento this season unless proper police protection for umpires and players is assured.

When Umpires Byron and Ward gave a decision today, adverse to Sacramento, they were mobbed by players and a section of the spectators.

Sacramento police were accused by McCarthy of standing by and making no attempt to check "10 or 15 hoodlums" who started the trouble.
