CENTRAL WASHINGTON EXPERIENCES QUAKE

MONTREAL HAS FLOODED AREAS IN RIVER RISE

Longueuil and Maisonneuve Districts Bear Brunt of River Backup

BLOCKS OF ICE JAM MAIN THOROUGHFARES

People Paddle About in Boats; Retreat to Upper Stories of Homes

MONTREAL, Dec. 30.—River waters, backing from an ice jam, rose seven feet off Longueuil, on the south shore of the St. Lawrence, tonight, and filled the cellars of more than 200 homes on eight streets. Furnace fires were quenched and, families, fearing the water might continue to rise, retreated to the upper floor of their buildings.

Weeping children, nervous old ladies and anxious mothers, bundled in overcoats, blankets and other available clothing were huddled in shivering groups about their windows and viewed cheerless scenes in the streets below. Huge chunks of ice floated over the roads and at high water mark, five hundred feet from the river's edge, blocks of ice jammed the thoroughfares.

Paddle in Boats

The men folk paddled about in boats attempting to remove horses, cattle and barnyard fowl from the threat of the rising waters. As far as can be learned there was no destruction of horses or cattle, but the loss in fowl was considerable.

Shortly after 11:30 o'clock the rise of the water stopped, but it had not receded and it was feared that it might again mount before daylight. The ice was piled 40 feet above the summer water level and was on the railway along the river front.

On the north shore, Maisonneuve was the only sufferer, according to late reports. Cellars of homes, and stores were flooded, the highwater mark being three feet below the street level. One store-keeper reported that there were seven feet of water in his cellar.

City Institutions Commissioner Kinney tonight announced that Arthur J. Cole, 55, and John J. Carsman, 60, were dead.

Patrick Lynch, 60, is still in a serious condition although his recovery is looked for.

Italian Aviator After Making Altitude Record Takes New Speed Mark

SESTOCALENDE, Italy, Dec. 30.—Alessandro Passaleva, Italian aviator, who established a world altitude record for an airplane carrying a useful load on December 22, today established what is claimed to be a new world speed record for a plane also carrying a useful load. Piloting an S-62 hydroplane, carrying 2200 pounds of useful load, Passaleva averaged 190.389 kilometers (119 miles an hour).

Examination of the instruments of the machine in which Passaleva established his altitude record showed that he reached a height of 6137 meters or about 20,450 feet, instead of the 5930 meters originally announced.

Accused of Murder but Cannot Be Put Under Arrest, India

VICTORIA, Dec. 30.—When the Danish ship Parana sails from this port for Australia this week, she will take with her Lee Kee Chin, Chinaman, who is accused of killing another member of the crew, but whom the law is powerless to arrest it was learned today.

Despite requests from the Danish consul general in Montreal that the Chinaman be arrested here and tried for killing Gotfred Andreson, chief steward of the Parana, the British Columbia officials cannot interfere with the oriental's liberty as the alleged crime was committed on the high seas, and comes under the jurisdiction of the courts of Denmark.

BRITISH NAVY IS PROTECTOR CIVILIZATION

So States Premier Bruce of Australia; Guest of Ministers

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—As long as naval power is a dominant factor in world peace Great Britain will maintain an adequate navy and the British navy will never go into action except to protect civilization, Premier Stanley M. Bruce of Australia, told 100 naval officers of the United States forces today. He was convinced, he said, that a conflict which brought the British fleets into action would find the United States navy fighting by their side.

Mr. Bruce was the guest of Secretary of Navy Wilbur and the United States naval forces at luncheon. The officers present were among those who were entertained by the premier and Mrs. Bruce when the United States fleet visited Australia two years ago. Secretary Wilbur, Admiral Coontz and Vice-Admiral Wiley expressed appreciation of the hearty reception Australia had accorded the fleet.

Sir Esme and Lady Howard called at the White House today to pay their respects of President Coolidge and it was arranged that Mr. and Mrs. Bruce should be White House luncheon guests tomorrow.

Sir Hugh Denison, Australian high commissioner, entertained the visitors tonight at a dinner at which were present Secretary Kellogg and other cabinet ministers.

'BIG BOB' BRINDLE IS DEAD IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—"Big Bob" Brindell is dead. Robert P. Brindell, who held the New York City building trades in the hollow of his hands and squeezed them dry was a native of Quebec, and was only 47 years old.

The body of the great hulk of a man who fought his way up from a dock carpenter to the somewhat doubtful fame of "Czar of the building trades" lay on a hospital cot tonight, shrunken by disease from its former 196 pounds to hardly more than 100.

Premier Oliver Is Indisposed; Will Not Receive Guests

VICTORIA, Dec. 30.—Premier Oliver is still suffering somewhat from the effects of a severe cold contracted a couple of weeks ago. He will spend the New Year's day quietly resting with other members of his family, who will not be at home to visitors on New Year's day, as is their usual custom.

KEYES DENIES WILL DROP THE AIMEE ACTION

Bewildered Public Wonders What Is Going On in California

NEW CHARGES MAY BE FILED FOR THE OLD

Second Grand Jury Closes Sessions for Day; Keyes Surprises

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 30.—The next step in the Aimee Semple McPherson case, whether it will be in dismissal of the conspiracy charges against the evangelist and her three codefendants or the filing of new charges, remained undecided as the second county grand jury to investigate the affair closed today's session.

A bewildered public, vainly attempting to follow the intricate case, was further puzzled tonight by a statement by District Attorney Asa Keyes, denying that the case against Mrs. McPherson, her mother, Mrs. Kennedy, her former radio engineer, Kenneth G. Ormiston, and Mrs. Wiseman-Sielaff will be dropped.

Yesterday the prosecutor declared that the dismissal of the conspiracy charges was imminent.

Keyes' statement today was "emphatically I will not drop this case."

LARGE TIMBER DEAL AT COAST

27,000 Acres Standing Fir Is Sold for Sum of $2,000,000

VANCOUVER, Dec. 30.—One of the largest timber deals in recent years was closed here today when Eric W. Hamber, as president of the British Columbia Mills, Timber & Trading company, limited of Vancouver, disposed of a about 27,000 acres of standing Douglas fir timber at a price said to be $2,000,000. A syndicate of Seattle and Portland men were the purchasers and they plan to hold the timber as an investment.

The timber stand is located in the Sayward district, Vancouver island about 100 miles north of Vancouver and has been held by the Hamber interests for upwards of 30 years.

No details were given out as to the total number of feet of timber in the block, or as to the price paid per thousand. Timber men here, however, said that the timber in that district ran around $3 to $3.50 a thousand.

The Vilac family came here from Calgary four months ago.

Fire and Vapor Bursts From Mount Makushin, Near Dutch Harbor, Alaska

DUTCH HARBOR, Alaska, Dec. 30.—Fire and vapor today burst from Mount Makushin, southwest of Dutch Harbor, and a heavy smoke tonight continued to pour from the peak.

Fears were felt for the safety of residents of Makushin, a village near the mountain.

A slight earthquake was noticed here about the time the eruption was first seen.

Mount Makushin, an active volcano, 5691 feet high, is on the northwest shore of Unalaska island, the largest of the eastern Aleutians. As early as 1792, it was seen in eruption.

FLOODS STILL RISING OVER IN NASHVILLE

Total of 4000 Homeless; 200 Blocks Inundated; 1500 Unemployed

NASHVILLE, Dec. 30.—The Cumberland river, in record flood stage at Nashville, continued a very slow rise today in its majestic, expensive trail through Nashville, as the current glistened against a clear sky.

The official reading at 2 p.m. today was 55.7 feet, a rise of only one-tenth foot in seven hours. The weather bureau's latest prediction was a crest for Nashville of about 56 feet by Saturday with receding waters next week.

Revised estimates of 4000 persons homeless in Nashville, 200 city blocks inundated and 1500 persons out of work were not added to today.

The Cumberland was a mile wide from Fifth avenue west of the river into East Nashville and its backwaters extended for 3 miles over the north Nashville and Edgefield sections, submerging hundreds of homes and inundating industrial plants and business blocks.

The water tonight was approaching the street car rails on Woodland. Eight thousand dollars has been raised in relief funds for the needy and appeals continued for $7000 additional.

KELOWNA, B.C., Dec. 30. — East Kelowna fruit growers in large numbers, and the various packing interests, both cooperative and independent, were represented at a general meeting called to discuss marketing problems on Wednesday. Much discussion took place which was more or less centralized in the following suggestions by John Reckie:

"Uniform contracts between grower and shipper to be compulsory; a value setting board to be constituted, whose chairman is appointed and paid by the government."

WASHINGTON IS HARD SHAKEN BY EARTHQUAKE

People Run From Shaking Buildings in Central Washington

CHIMNEY TOPPLED FROM HOUSE; YAKIMA SHAKEN

Desks Move About Rooms; Shock Recorded Lasted Two Minutes

SPOKANE, Wash., Dec. 30.—Violent earth tremors, which sent persons running from shaking buildings, were felt throughout central Washington this morning.

The disturbance centered around Entiat in north central Washington, where a chimney was shaken off a house on one of the main streets and where many residents reported that dishes were rattled and furniture moved about.

Employees in the Federal building at Yakima reported that their desks were moved back and forth by the shock. Other Yakima residents also felt noticeable shocks.

A shock lasting two minutes was recorded at 9:57 a.m. by the seismograph at the University of Gonzaga here. Its center was located 500 miles away. A few minutes later residents of Yakima and Wenatchee felt the tremors.

Similar earth shocks were felt here December 4, when western Washington and western British Columbia experienced tremblers.

WENATCHEE, Wash., Dec. 30.—A pronounced earthquake shock was felt here at 10:04 a.m. Buildings shook and many occupants ran into the streets.

LIBERALS WIN CLEAR VICTORY OVER GEN. DIAZ

About 70 Killed in Battles; Wounded Reach Succor; Useless, Says Diaz

MANAGUA, Dec. 30.—The Guyamel Fruit company's power barge arrived at Blue Fields today from Las Perlas with 71 wounded Liberal troops and 58 wounded Conservative troops, many of them in a serious condition. Some of the soldiers had suffered for two or three days without medical attention.

The killed on both sides are estimated at 70, though exact figures cannot be obtained. Many of the dead are lying half-buried, on the beach at Las Perlas.

Advices received here indicate a clear Liberal victory, but President Diaz said today: "I gave my generals orders to withdraw two or three days before the battle, but on account of poor communication the order did not arrive until after the fighting began. I knew we were outnumbered and that the enemy had more guns, and it was useless to fight."

Conservative troops who were disarmed by the United States marines are proceeding to Rama to join the forces there. Three large detachments of Liberal troops are reported on their way to La Cruz, 160 miles from the mouth of the Rio Grande.

Gregorio Solorzano, the coachman who was almost cut to pieces while defending President Diaz against an attempt to assassinate him several days ago while driving, died yesterday.

CANADIAN RAILWAYS' REVENUES INCREASE

OTTAWA, Dec. 30. — Canadian railways as a whole recorded an increase of $2,059,650 in their gross revenues for October, as compared with the corresponding month in 1925.

Frenght revenues increased $1,772,550 during October as contrasted with October of last year; but passenger revenues fell off $167,893. The number of passengers was less by 227,004; but the average journey increased from 77.7 miles to 80.1 miles, making the reduction in passenger miles only 4.4 per cent.

The light grain movement, according to a report issued tonight by the Dominion bureau of statistics, was the principal factor in a decrease of 5.58 per cent in revenue ton mile.

Operating expense accounts all showed increases except "general," which was reduced by $33,795.

Net operating revenues were increased by $690,831; and the operating ratio was about the same as last year.

The total payroll was heavier by $979,212.

Wounded Men Rushed 45 Miles to Cranbrook Hospital; Wish Get Chinese Alive

FERNIE, B. C., Dec. 30.—Provincial Constable Sharpe of the Elko detachment and Frank McNab, an American resident, were tonight rushed 45 miles to the Cranbrook hospital, suffering from gunshot wounds. Both are serious. Meanwhile a posse, surrounding an empty shack, in which a demented Chinaman has barricaded himself near to Waldo, is being enlarged by additional men. The constable and McNab were victims of bullets fired by the barricaded Chinaman, who is heavily armed.

Sergeant Greenwood and a corps of provincial constables left here this afternoon by motor car in response to a call from Provincial Constable Sharpe, then near Waldo, B. C., where an unnamed Chinaman had run amuck or become violently insane. Armed with a rifle, he barricaded himself in a shack, and was shooting at anyone who attempted to approach his retreat.

The meager details reported here are that the Chinaman acts as a laundryman at Waldo, and early in the day, when a party called for his laundry, the Chinese opened fire on him, fortunately without causing any injury.

Driven Off by Bullets

Constable Sharpe went to the scene from Elko and, seeking to gain admission to the shack, was met with a fusilade of three shots. The constable, accompanied by Frank McNab, again sought to get into the building, but were driven off by gunfire.

Sergeant Greenwood included in equipment, when leaving here today,

MEXICO STANDS FIRM ON OIL REGULATIONS

Theoretically Mexico Will Become Richest Oil Company in World

OWNERS MUST GET NEW CONCESSIONS OR LOSE

Deadlock Continues Unchanged; Cannot Take Lands at Once, Anyway

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 30.—The Mexican government theoretically will become one of the biggest owners of oil lands in the world on January 1 unless there is a last minute alteration in the situation brought about by promulgation of the new petroleum and land laws and the failure of the oil companies thus far to accept the laws.

Under the terms of the new regulations all oil lands under foreign title, the holders of which have not applied for confirmatory concessions before January 1, will automatically revert to the Mexican government.

President Calles has refused to grant an extension of time for making these regulations effective.

Neither government officials of the oil companies have accurate statistics regarding all the property involved by unofficial estimates are that many thousand of acres with a potential value of perhaps billions of dollars are effected.

Deadlock Exists

Fundamentally the deadlock between the Mexican government and the most important foreign oil companies continues unchanged.

There is a feeling among some that although the law provides that the titles shall revert to the Mexican government, they may not actually take over the lands at once, thereby affording no grounds for direct complaints from foreign interests of confiscation. Thus the present status of uncertainty might remain indefinitely.

Senor Moronez, secretary of commerce, has announced that the government will not turn over to third parties the leases on the oil lands reverting to the government because of failure of the present titleholders to apply for new confirmatory concessions.

MOTHERS AND THEIR CHILDREN

MARKING THE RUBBERS

One Mother Says:

In teaching a child to put on his own rubbers it will be found helpful to mark the right rubber with a large R and the left one with an L on the lining. Then he can put them on correctly without bother or assistance.

Keep this Resolution and leave the rest to the "little daily dose"

Hand on heart, please. Now pipe up—

"Resolved that every morning of the new year I will tip into my first cup of coffee or tea just as much Kruschen Salts as will lie on a ten-cent piece."

No sooner resolved than forgotten is a pretty general rule; so in with you at the very next druggist's you see for a bottle of Kruschen Salts before you've chance to forget it. Start the "little daily dimeful" to-morrow. Never miss a day.

Each tiny pinch of Kruschen, tasteless in your coffee or tea, is a full day's supply of those six vital mineral salts which nature prescribes for the well-being of your inside.

With Kruschen's gentle aid your organs of elimination work as regularly and smoothly as if you were leading an ideal life in the open air with exercise in abundance, a simple, balanced diet and no rush or worry to upset you.

Every scrap of poisonous waste-matter is surely expelled from your system. Clear, refreshed blood is sent coursing to your very finger-tips. And every little fibre of you is set tingling all over with "that Kruschen feeling."

The chances are just now, with the Christmas jollifications so lately ended, that your liver is reminding you more forcibly than this advertisement about your need of Kruschen Salts. All the better for you, if you make that reminder strengthen your resolve to prove for yourself that—

It's the little daily dimeful that does it!

Tasteless in Coffee or Tea

Put as much in your breakfast cup as will lie on a 10 cent piece. It's the little daily dimeful that does it.

Kruschen Salts

Good Health for Half a Cent a Day

The dose of a dimeful taken every morning is found in practice just the right amount for a most invigorating daily tonic. The medicinal dose for persons suffering from pains of rheumatism, gout, lumbago, or sciatica, or habitual constipation, with inactive liver, etc., is half to one teaspoonful in a tumbler of hot water before breakfast. Every druggist sells Kruschen. A 75c. bottle lasts nearly six months. This works out at half a cent a day for health and happiness. Get a bottle at your druggist's to-day and start to-morrow. It's the little daily dimeful that does it!

HIGHER TAXES FOR TRAILITES, THE BILLS SHOW

REVALUATION MAKES AN HEAVY INCREASE

Gross Valuation of Property Is $3,316,830 or an Increase of $1,250,000

TRAIL, Dec. 30. — Property owners in the city are due to learn the worst tomorrow. Sheaves of tax notifications were mailed from the city office today. They will show many higher tax bills as the result of the recent revaluation for municipal tax assessments.

A summary report of the revaluation was presented in council tonight by W. E. B. Monypenny, city clerk. It showed that the gross valuation of all property, land and improvement, within the municipality for the year 1927 totals $3,316,830 as against a total taxable valuation in 1926 of $2,066,730. The increase is $1,250,000. From the gross value $3,316,830, there is yet to be deducted certain expenses for hospitals, churches and other tax immune property.

The most startling increase is in the valuation of land, which shows a total value almost double that of 1926, an actual increase of $543,850. The total assessable land valuation in 1926 was $592,105. The gross valuation for 1927 is $1,135,955.

Improvements More

There is, however, a very considerable increase in the value of improvement, actually $706,250. In 1926 the total assessable valuation of improvements was only $1,474,675. For 1927 the gross valuation of improvements is $2,180,875.

Though these figures will doubtless mean numerous increases in the taxes of individuals consequent of the rise in value of their property with the rapid expansion of the city, there are two other obvious factors for the big jump at this time. One is the fact that several years have elapsed since a general revaluation for assessment was made. The other is that there are many more property owners, most of them home owners, in the city than there were when the last revaluation was made.

There was recorded also a normal increase in the assessable valuation of land and property in the extra municipal school district amounting to $3275. The total valuation of property in this class is $41,470.

When the report was submitted to the final meeting of the 1926 council tonight it was accepted without comment. Authority to settle accounts payable, totaling $14,409.64, was given. The city's books are now closed for the year. Mayor Herbert Clarke presided. There were present Aldermon A. G. Harvey, S. J. W. Wyatt, J. A. McKinnon, A. A. Milligan and A. Saunders; and W. E. B. Monypenny, city clerk.

So far as is known no candidate is in the field for the post of police commissioner, to succeed Walter Brady, retiring commissioner, who declares that after four years' service on the board he is not seeking reelection.

'JUDY'S MAN'

Washington's Social Whirl and Official Life Are the Background of This Fascinating Love Story

By HELEN BERGER

Copyright, 1926, by the Penn Publishing Co.

He helped her in and crowded in, himself. Judy looked at him curiously. Her moments with him, of late, had been crowded with other people, but even through the confusion she had been conscious of a change in him. Now restfully at liberty from the necessity of entertaining him, she appraised him curiously. He was changed.

For one thing he was thinner. And there was a faint trace of a bruise on his cheekbone. But the change was deeper than that.

There was a new quietness, a new steadiness about him. In a way this change terrified her. In this guise, perhaps, he might find it easier to move her. And she owed him so much! Perhaps it would be better if he could move her, thrill her.

She did not see any way of escape open from her obligation to him, and it would be hideous to marry him with merely the desire to pay her debt as the motive of her act! She gave a little shudder.

The exhibition had not been mentioned between them, but she never forgot it for one moment. The few seconds of happiness that she had snatched just before Olney had admitted to her that Tommy was paying for the exhibition were pushed away into an inner place. She would not let herself think of them, nor of Jack Darien. She was engaged to Tommy! She owed him everything in the world! It was not possible that she could fail him now. And the thought of another man was disloyalty.

Suddenly, willfully she said: "There's a bruise on your cheek, Tommy! Where'd you get it?"

He flushed. His eyes avoided hers. "I got into an argument about a picture!" he said flatly.

Cecily laughed. "How perfectly absurd! Did you back your judgment on a picture with your fists? I thought all such ardor for art was a thing of the past!"

Tommy's voice deepened. "This was a very special picture!" he said.

A very special picture! Judy's heart sank. What did it mean? She remembered how she had felt when Tommy and Darien had argued about her picture at the exhibition. Was that the picture? Had he and Jack Darien fought over her picture? Her cheeks flew crimson flags of shame. She was glad when they drew up before the building where the benefit was to be held.

There was a mighty clamor inside the hall. Carpenters, painters, well-dressed women with hats awry, girls everywhere, giggling, the noise of hammers and of saws.

Cecily made a little mouth of disgust. "Why on earth do you suppose people have to be so noisy when they work?" she demanded. "I thought real people were always quiet when they worked."

"I am a shining example!" said Tommy smugly. "I'm the realest person on earth and I'm as silent as the grave!"

He and Cecily both laughed. Judy gave them a faint, far-away smile. How little they mattered to her!

Cecily, in the midst of the disorder, was very capable. "Sit here!" she ordered Judy, turning a box on end. "You'll lose your way in this noise. I should, too, if I hadn't been here before. When I locate the space I've selected for our booth I'll come back and get you."

"Shall I go with you or am I to stand in a corner till you come back for me, like a faithful rag doll of story?" Tommy demanded.

"You may come with me if you want." How camly Cecily appropriated him!

Annexation a Nightmare to Many English Folk

A worthy English professor, visiting Canada, and having got as far as Montreal, has discovered, to his surprise, that Canada is not yet ready to fall into the lap of the United States.

"I am surprised at the strong feeling in Canada at the present time against annexation to the United States," he puts it, in an interview. "This feeling will save you from any fear of annexation at least for a while," he admitted.

But he is still uneasy. He figures that the growth of American commercial influence is a serious problem for young and callow Canada, and that if it continues to gain, then in about 40 years "the now impossible" might "come to pass then."

Apparently Professor Urwick of London university will for the rest of his days live in apprehension of Canada's absorption by its neighbor. His preconceptions are too strong to die out, even in the face of the fact that in all Canadian history no statesman has ever advocated such a move as he fears, and that there is no record of the suggestion ever having been debated on a public platform, except in the way of furnishing debating society entertainment.

He is apparently self-doomed to always have this nightmare.

Mrs. Pankhurst Was Worried, Too

It is a constant wonder to Canadians that so many educated English people theorize upon this subject and imagine it a real issue in Canada.

When Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst was in the Kootenay to address the Kootenay Women's institutes in session at Crawford Bay, she admitted in many conversations that she regarded that issue as very real, basing her views particularly upon the American element in Alberta. She smiled in amused tolerance when assured that there was not the remotest chance of native-born Canadians, who constitute the overwhelming bulk of Canada's population, being successfully wooed by the United States. Whether her further residence in British Columbia tempered her views is not known, but if it did not, perhaps her residence later in ardently British Toronto had some effect.

No doubt for every misconception regarding Canada that English people have, the native Canadians have as good a one regarding the British people, so perhaps the score is even.

'Parallel Lines Never Meet'

If our English well-wishers would only pause to reflect that for 50 years Canada has been accustomed to a large section of the United States people imagining that Canada pined to join the great republic and to throw off the hated "British yoke," and that for 50 years Canadians have laughed at that conception, which nowadays is at a lower ebb across the line than ever before, their night's rest would not be further disturbed, at least regarding Canada's future.

It is nearly 40 years since Hon. Peter Mitchell went on some mission to the United States, and was promptly interviewed on the question of annexation.

"Annexation," he remarked, "is not worth discussing. No statesman in Canada regards it as a matter of practical politics."

Then at the world's fair at Chicago in 1892, at a big banquet by the directors on Canadian day, some eloquent American orator expressed the conviction that Canada would soon come under the Stars and Stripes, making frequent use of the fact that the two countries were developing on parallel lines.

"Parallel lines never meet," retorted the Canadian orator who followed, and who broke it to the Americans that they were cherishing an illusion when they imagined that there was the smallest sentiment in Canada in favor of annexation.

Those lines are as parallel as they were then. They have not converged in the slightest.

Generation after generation of Canadians have lived alongside this terrible issue without knowing that it existed. Which should be a pretty good indication of how it should be appraised.

That Body of Yours

By JAMES W. BARTON, M.D.

Your Spare Time

What do you do with your spare time?

This, of course, is your own business, but President Cutten of Colgate university tells us that the progress in the industrial and economic world has outstripped the ability of the human race to keep pace with it.

Increased production gives more time for personal recreation and amusement, and the indulgence in those activities that have been suppressed by the long working hours of the past years.

He tells us that the present generation with all this leisure time on its hands is not only not making use of it, but is actually misusing it. Instead of improving the mind with reading, art, music, and other inspiring and uplifting work, folks seem to get their greatest enjoyment in movies, joy riding, late hours and so forth.

Now what about this?

Most of us have been rather proud of the fact that the workingman's hours have been cut from 11 and 12 to about eight, and the office man's hours to seven. We have perhaps gloried in the fact that he has more time to spend with his family, and more time for recreation.

And that many individuals spend these extra hours in the outdoors with games and walking is no doubt true.

However there is no denying the fact that this extra time, these extra hours of leisure are not used by the majority of people in the all round development.

And right here I want to put in a word for that body of yours. It gives you the power to work, and gives you the enjoyment of all there is to be gotten from this world, from this life on earth.

What about using some of this extra time of which Dr. Cutten speaks in giving some thought, some care to the body?

What about just one hour a day in the outdoors, with walking as a regular standby and other forms of exercise to give variety?

Remember Gladstone's words, "All time and money spent in training the body gives a larger rate of interest than any other investment." Use some of your spare time, your leisure time, in this way.

FERNIE'S MAIL THEFTS SOLVED BY THE POLICE

Two Twelve-Year-Old Boys Held for Thieving From Post Office

BOYS HAD SYSTEM WHICH WORKED TO PERFECTION

Had Christmas Articles Hidden Away in Caches in Various Parts City

FERNIE, B.C., Dec. 30. — Chief Anderson of the city police announced today that following investigations made by him and his men in connection with suspected petty thefts of mail and packages from local post office boxes, a most amazing situation had been uncovered, and prosecutions will be very promptly proceeded with.

According to Chief Anderson, the first intimation that mail matter was being pilfered from the boxes came to him 10 days ago, when a lady complained that articles had been stolen from her postal box. Even then the local postal authorities and the police were completely unaware of the magnitude of the cunningly systematic thievery that was going on. It has been disclosed that letters and packages of unknown number have been taken, and while dozens have been recovered from numerous caches throughout the business section of the city, many others are yet to be located.

By Young Boys

The thefts are alleged to be solely the work of a pair of small boys of 12 years of age, but with whom were also associated several other younger lads. All the names are being withheld by the police until court proceedings are commenced. The methods by which the plunder was secured, according to confessions made to Chief Anderson, were that boxes which did not lock securely were looked for by the boys, and the contents indiscriminately removed. Other boxes where the glasses in the doors were loose, if they contained large amounts of mail, or if parcel cards were visible, the lock catches were sprung by the insertion of knife blades or other suitable instruments. The unfaltering nerve of these unfortunate juveniles, who have thus embarked on wayward careers, is forcibly displayed by the fact that they deliberately took the purloined parcel cards, and, presenting them at the wicket without attracting suspicion, obtained the packages.

Christmas Presents

The loot recovered and now on display in Chief Anderson's office is for the most part Christmas gifts and includes fancywork, baby clothing and articles, pillow cases, ties, handkerchiefs, aprons, toys, toilet articles, purses, linen goods, hosiery, lingerie, and so forth. Eleven letters have been traced, while many others, some containing checks, are known to be missing. According to Chief Anderson, while he has hopes to recover much more stolen goods, his information is that quite a lot has been destroyed or lost.

The postal inspector at Calgary has been communicated with in connection with the matter, and further proceedings will be conducted in cooperation with those authorities, Chief Anderson states.

Kimberley Well Provided for Sports Indoors This Winter

KIMBERLEY, B.C., Dec. 30. — The new recreation hall at Chapman Camp is being put to very extensive use these days, there being something on there almost every night. Arrangements are now being made to carry on a badminton club, and gymnastic classes will also most likely be a feature on their program for the balance of the winter.

The Chapman Camp Christmas entertainment activities centered at Oughtred hall, also, taking the form of the customary jolly gatherings replete with a big Christmas tree for the children and adults as well. The activities at Warren hall, the similar building at the Sullivan mine, are also getting into shape for the winter. Altogether, it looks as though Kimberley will be well provided with indoor recreation for the next few months.

Cranbrook Veterans Enter New Home Free of Any Debt

CRANBROOK, B.C., Dec. 30.—Members of Cranbrook post, Canadian Legion, are expected to be occupying their new $10,000 home this week, and a formal opening is to be held shortly. The veterans are taking possession of their new building, free of all debt, and some of the honorary members of the legion in the city are donating furnishings of various kinds. Along with the new furnishings which the returned men are purchasing, the place is to be equipped in first-class style.

Suitable quarters have been provided for the canteen, and an inspector of the liquor board, looking over the building in respect to its arrangements for the club licence, made the statement that the place is the most suitable built for properly carrying on under the act.

Let's All Go Golfing, Suggest Skaters and Curlers at Cranbrook

CRANBROOK, B.C., Dec. 30. — Another spell of very mild weather has struck the district and while the ice is still holding in the rinks, prospects do not seem very bright for a prolonged winter's season for ice sports. Hockey enthusiasts are hoping things will tighten up so as to get their games going properly. The curlers, who have just got going this week on their competitions, are hoping for better things from the weatherman, so that a good representation can go to Kimberley for the Selkirk bonspiel, shortly, which is to be followed very soon after the big Selkirk spiel, if there is any ice to play it on. At present it looks as though the golfing season will be opening, instead.

Pupils at high school in Taunton, Mass., will soon "go to jail" to attend classes, as means of relieving school congestion.

SOCIETY

This column is being conducted by Mrs. M. J. Vigneux. All news of a social nature, including receptions, private entertainments, personal items marriages etc, will appear in this column. Telephone Mrs. Vigneux at her home.

An event of the social year took place Wednesday evening when Miss Helen Murphy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. Murphy, was hostess to the members of the younger set at a decidedly chic dancing party. The affair took place in the drawing room of the Strathcona hotel. The young hostess was assisted in receiving by her mother, Mrs. N. Murphy and Mrs. R. Thompson. Vari-colored streamers, balloon and evergreen trees were the main decorations in the lounge, while the tea table in the dining room was centered with an artistically arranged Christmas tree, about which were four silver candlesticks holding lighted red tapers. One of Nelson's junior younger set, Miss Esther Donaghy, distributed the novelties, which consisted of quantities of serpentine, balloons and finger snatchers, and all of which added greatly to the scene of jollification. Much merriment was created by the broom and finger snatchers dance, and the balloon dance was also thoroughly enjoyed. TEN EVENTS ON CARD FOR THE BIG BONSPIEL

Handsome Prizes Accompany Trophies; Many Clubs Invited

KIMBERLEY WILL COME IN FORCE

Large Representation From Unaffiliated Clubs Is Expected

Ten competitions are on the card announced for the thirty-second annual bonspiel of the British Columbia Curling association, which opens at Nelson January 10, the new one being the Kimberley cup. With the completion of the prize list, the preparations for the big spiel are nearing completion.

The Competitions

The first event will be All Comers against Nelson, the first prizes being four mantle clocks, with four silver trays as seconds.

Next will be the Grand Challenge, first prizes being four leather clubbags, and the seconds, four electric toasters.

With the Grand Challenge will be bracketed the Cammel-Laird event, drawn under the Chisholm progressive draw, which means that the winners of the Grand Challenge will not be eligible to compete in the Cammel-Laird event, the prizes for which are four suitable firsts, with four boxes of cigars for seconds.

The next two events, under the Chisholm draw, will be the Rossland cup and the Trail cup, both cups being supported by prizes from the respective clubs.

The Kimberley cup will be supported by that club, with silver cups as firsts and second prizes. This event will be coupled with the Nelson cup, under the Chisholm draw. The Nelson cup will have four casseroles as firsts, with four cut glass bowls as seconds.

In the consolation event, the first prizes will be four hams, with four Irish linen bridge sets as seconds.

The Grand Aggregate will be supported with first and second prizes of handsome pipes, and six individual prizes will be given in the Points competition.

Arrangements are under way for the annual meeting and banquet at the Hume hotel on the evening of Thursday, January 13, and a good program is in view.

It is expected that several of the invitations to clubs not affiliated with the association, will be accepted, and that rinks will take part in the spiel, from Penticton, Vancouver, Creston, Cranbrook and Bull River.

The clubs which are at present affiliated with the association are the Kimberley, Rossland, Trail and Nelson Curling clubs.

The Kimberley club, whilst the baby club of the association, is the most flourishing and energetic, and at present has the largest membership of any curling club in British Columbia, and has already signified its intention of sending a large delegation, and it is expected it will have the largest number of rinks from any outside points.

ELEVEN WOMEN ENTER CATALINA ISLAND SWIM

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 30.—The icy coldness of the Santa Catalina channel's waters and its turbulent elements which have thwarted the attempts of nearly a score of swimmers this year, appear to hold no horrors for women, for 11 have entered the Wrigley Marathon swim, scheduled to be staged January 15.

One of the feminine entrants, Mrs. Alma Moore of Los Angeles will be teaming with her husband, Leland B. Moore, in an effort to take both prizes, totalling $40,000 offered by William Wrigley Jr., millionaire manufacturer, and sponsor of the swim.

NIAGARA FALLS BEATS HAMILTON

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., Dec. 30.—In a keenly-contested affair, Niagara Falls defeated Hamilton in a Canadian Hockey league fixture here tonight 4 to 3. The locals scored twice in the first period.

Hamilton opened the second session with a rush and before the Falls could hold them, had scored three goals.

Ken Randall tied the score for Niagara in the third period, when his two long shots slipped past Lockhart. With less than a minute to go, Speyer put the Falls one up with his shot to the open net.

Charles W. Diehl, farmer near Tiffin, Ohio, has appealed to the courts to keep his wife from his farm, as she interferes with his work.

CANADIENS SCORE ANOTHER WIN

Blank Pirates by Lone Counter in Final Session of Play

MONTREAL, Dec. 30.—Canadiens scored their fourth consecutive National league triumph here tonight, when they defeated the fast skating Pittsburgh Pirates 1 to 0. Pittsburgh played speedy hockey, but they were shaded by the Flying Frenchmen, who held a margin in the play.

Worters, Pittsburgh goalie, was never better. He was cut over the eye in the final period and had to take time out. It was after the accident that Canadiens scored.

Thorns for One Team in Roses Game

By AL DEMAREE
(Former Pitcher New York Giants)

Pop Warner's undefeated Stanford eleven meets Wallace Wade's likewise undefeated Alabama aggregation tomorrow for the unofficial championship of the planet at the annual tournament of roses festival in Pasadena, Cal. Lafayette and the Navy will be the only other two powerful undefeated elevens.

At least 60,000 wild-eyed football enthusiasts will have their last chance till next fall to root for the Pacific Coast champions and the team which has won the southern title for three successive years.

Notre Dame proved by their 13-12 defeat of Southern California that a good football team can play good football no matter how far it has traveled either in the east, north, south or west.

Both Washington and Alabama proved it last New Year's day. It ought to be a great game as Pop Warner will fight hard to regain the coast prestige to the plane it was developed by the late Andy Smith at the University of California.

TORONTO, Dec. 30.—A rejuvenated St. Patrick hockey team, playing brilliantly in all departments of the game, defeated the Boston Bruins in decisive fashion by a score of 4 to 1 in a National Hockey league fixture here tonight.

The game was of the crowd-pleasing type, fast hockey that fairly sizzled at times, interspersed with strenuous play which resulted in a large number of penalties.

St. Pats were better fortified with subs with the acquisition of Keeling from London and Pudas from Windsor of the Canadian Hockey league. Both players showed up well.

RISEBERG SAYS CAN GIVE SOME SCANDAL DOPE

Will Meet Landis and Inform Him of 'Cooked' Baseball in Big Leagues

CHICAGO, Dec. 30.—Charles (Swede) Risberg, former shortstop for the Chicago White Sox, tonight was invited by K. M. Landis, baseball commissioner, to come to Chicago and formally place before him the information Risberg may have in connection with the Cobb and Speaker charges. Risberg's fare, compensation and expenses were guaranteed by Mr. Landis.

"The earlier the better" was the Landis reply to Risberg's "Challenge to the commissioner" printed in today's newspapers.

The telegram respects what the commissioner wants. Risberg has announced that he can prove many charges of crooked work by the major league stars which have never been investigated.

More fuel was heaped on the baseball bonfire today by the arrival here of Frank D. Navin, president of the Detroit club, who slipped into Chicago unheralded for the purpose of conferring with Commissioner Landis and Ban Johnson, president of the American league. Navin and Landis discussed the latest turn of events in the scandal today.

Glad to Accept

ROCHESTER, N.Y., Dec. 30.—Charles (Swede) Riseberg, former White Sox shortstop, said tonight he will be glad to accept the invitation to go to Chicago and place before Mr. Landis, information he says he can give regarding "crooked baseball." Just when he would go was not learned.

Roughest Game of Season at Windsor; Score Is Two-Nil

Nels Stewart, husky Maroon center, rushed, from the penalty box into a Montreal play early in the first period, eluded the Cougar defence and carried the puck into the net. Dunc Munro scored the second marker late in the second period by slipping the puck between the feet of both the Detroit defence men and the golie.

Seventeen penalties, imposed by Referee Bobby Hewitson of Toronto, failed to prevent the game from being one of the roughest in the Windsor arena this season.

SOCCER TEAMS PLAY NEW YEARS

Tottenham Spurs and Aston Villa Only Idle Teams in First Division

LONDON, Dec. 30.—With the exception of Tottenham Hotspurs and Aston Villa, all the teams in the first division of the English Soccer league are engaged on New Year's day and since the first half of the season has now been put behind, the return games are the order of the day. The race for the honors has settled down in real earnest and from now until the end of the season some strenuous and relentless struggles may be looked for.

Having played consistently well so far, with the exception of a brief period spent in the doldrums around the turn of the month of November, Burnley are leading the league, a remarkable recovery from their form of last season.

On Saturday they are the guests of Everton. The latter team are in a position where they will have to put every ounce of energy into their games from now on. With West Bromwich Albion, Everton are in occupancy of the basement in the league standings and in view of the fact that their immediate neighbors have several games in hand over them, they are in a bad fix.

Castles Up

Newcastle United are in the happy position of runners up to Burnley, one point in rear, but with one game in hand. From indifferent beginnings the Northumbrians have gradually forced their way up the ladder until they are Burnley's most serious challengers.

On Saturday they are at home to Leeds United.

Sunderland's chances against Blackburn Rovers looks rosy.

The league champions, Huddersfield Town, have done nothing brilliant this season.

On New Year's day they visit West Bromwich, the lowest team of the division.

Other scheduled games follow:

Cardiff City at Arsenal; Leicester City at Birmingham; Liverpool at Bolton; Sheffield United at Manchester United; Bury at The Wednesday; Derby County at West Ham.

GLASSES IMPROVE VARDON'S PUTTING

TOTTERIDGE, England, Dec. 30.—Horn rimmed glasses have restored Harry Vardon's putting eye. For some time this veteran English golf stylist had been steadily losing his skill due to defective vision, causing much anguish to all golfers who had watched him play faultlessly from tee to green despite his 56 years and then fritter putt after putt.

Vardon was fitted with glasses a few days ago and yesterday staged a great comeback, shooting a 66, which is five under par, on his home course here. He went out in 31, with 12 putts and came home in 35 with 17 putts.

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—McGill university of Montreal defeated Yale 4 to 1 in an international collegiate hockey match tonight. The visiting Canucks displayed the more finished brand of hockey, outclassing the New Haven squad in every department of the game.

a quantity of a chemical composition which it is proposed to use as tear gas in order to drive the demented man from his retreat.

Seriously Wounded

FERNIE, B. C., Dec. 30.—At 9 o'clock tonight word was received that Constable Sharpe and Frank McNab had been seriously wounded by bullets fired by the Chinaman.

Further Reinforcements

FERNIE, B. C., Dec. 30.—Latest developments from the Waldo lunatic siege, received at 11 o'clock, are that further reinforcements have been called from Cranbrook and Wardner detachments.

The wounded men, Constable Sharpe and Frank McNab, are being conveyed by motor ambulance to Cranbrook hospital, a distance of 45 miles.

Constable Sharpe was wounded in the neck, the bullet passing through and out his jaw, while the seriousness of the other wounded man has not been reported.

Mr. McNab is a brother of C. D. McNab, lumber man, of Waldo, and is only there on a visit during the holidays. His residence is in the United States. The purpose of concentrating a large force of police is, if possible, to capture the crazed Chinaman alive.

NO ALIBIS; HARD LUCK THAT'S ALL

Nelson Team Put Up Good Game at Trail; Ice Bad and Combination Fails

"Why should we be downhearted?" That was the question put by Jocko Anderson who is fathering the local senior puckchasing crew, on his return from Trail yesterday with the hockey team. Jocko, former star in the big game who was kayoed last winter and who will probably be off skates for the rest of his natural—has taken a fatherly interest in the local team since his arrival from Calgary.

In looking the Trail game over Jocko says the result was just what he expected when he saw the condition of the ice at Trail. Combination was almost an impossibility and three of Trail's goals were gifts he said. A bouncing puck is always a menace and poor Scotty Notman was just the goat that's all, he stated. No alibis are offered.

From all appearances Jocko says that the Nelson team is a hard ice team and he warns Trail and Rossland of this fact. Indications are that unless the weather tightens some, Saturday afternoon's game here with Rossland may be called off.

GALT LOSES

GALT, Ont., Dec. 30.—In a scheduled senior Ontario Hockey association game the Kitchener Green Shirts tonight defeated the Galt Terriers 4 to 2.

Two Montreal men and three Russians were arrested at St. Alban's Vt., and charged with attempting to smuggle jewelry and aliens into the United States.

WALL STREET HAS IRREGULAR TRADE

Call Money Rate Up; Industrials Lose Ground; Rails Also Yield

NEW YORK, Dec. 30. — Frequent shifts of speculative sentiment characterized today's stock market which closed irregularly lower. The price movement was confused by the extensive year-end readjustment of speculative accounts, some of which was believed to be for the purpose of registering income tax losses. Today's trading was only moderate in volume.

The calling of over $40,000,000 in loans, incidental to the heavy month-end demand for funds and the desire of many institutions to strengthen their reserve positions on the last day of the year sent the call money rate from 5½ to 6 per cent, duplicating the high level attained only a few days during the year. The higher rate was generally regarded as temporary. The New York Federal Reserve bank announced that the rediscount rate was unchanged at 46c. Refusal of the Mexican government to grant an extension of time on oil leases inspired rather heavy liquidation in the stocks of companies having large property in Mexico. American Smelting broke over 4 points and rallied 1; Pan-American B closed 2 points lower; and smaller recessions were recorded by Standard Oil of New Jersey and others.

Practically all of the standard industrials lost ground. Pools were active in a number of specialties despite the high money rates.

Rails yielded with the industrials.

Time money and commercial paper rates were unchanged.

Sales—1,376,400 shares.

FRECHETTE IS AGAIN HEAD OF HOOK COMPANY

Snap Hook Firm Elects Officers; Past Year Has Been Good One

The annual meeting of the Frechette 2-1 Snap Hook company, limited, was held in the board of trade rooms Wednesday afternoon. There was a large attendance of shareholders present. A. A. Frechette, the president and general manager, presided. After the usual order of business had been transacted the president gave a brief outline of the company's development during the past year, enumerating the many difficulties that had been encountered throughout the year. In spite of this, the company has been able to show that the hooks could be manufactured in Nelson, and could be sold at a substantial profit, although remarking, by the way, that the present machinery could be improved upon to facilitate faster production. The hooks at present being made are those principally used in mining camps. Other dies for various other kinds of hooks and sizes, are in process of being made, and are being completed just as rapidly as finances will permit.

Several shareholders addressed the meeting, among them being Dr. W. O. Rose, L. H. Choquette and Alderman A. S. Horswill, who expressed their entire confidence in and support for the new project.

Officers Elected

The board of management elected for the ensuing year was as follows: A. A. Frechette, president; Dr. W. O. Rose, vice-president; directors, L. H. Choquette, G. F. Motion, Alderman A. S. Horswill, D. Male, all of whom are well-known business men in Nelson, and L. E. Groutage, a well-known business man of Trail, B.C. The newly appointed directors assured the shareholders present that everything possible would be done to get the plant properly established in the very near future. Greater efforts in the new year will be concentrated on the production of the jewelery swivel hooks and harness snaps, as both these latter products are being urgently demanded by large manufacturers in this country and the United States.

CAPT. PLUNKETT'S REVUE GOES OVER WITH BIG BANG

Opera House Packed to Capacity; Comedy Good; Playettes Make Hit

Laughs, thrills, keen applause and a real good show, that is how the appearance at the opera house last night, of "Captain Plunkett's Revue of 1926," could be described, in as few words as possible.

Owing to the late arrival of the Crow boat the Revue did not get away on time but the management thought it better to keep the audience waiting and then present a full bill, rather than cut into the program. It was a little weary waiting, but after the show got started there was never a minute wasted.

Probably the greatest hit of the evening was the able and well presented dancing of little Miss Jeanette Garrette, the junior member of the players. "A Winter Episode," a special solo dance conceived and staged by Florence Hogge was cleverly presented by the young dancer.

"The perfume number" was the hit of the evening. Gorgeous gowns, sprightly steps, excellent settings and a beautiful solo by Jean Haig were only the background for the beautiful solo dance of Tiny Miss Jeannette Georgette as "perfume of youth." The little dancer captivated her audience from the minute she was taken from a tiny perfume box, till she left the stage. Her dancing was the feature of the whole Plunkett revue. This feature wound up with the presentation of Miss Toronto and Miss Winnipeg, beauty contest entrants from those Canadian cities in the United States.

Comedy Good

There were two comedy turns which kept the house in almost convulsions. "The Test," a new angle on the eternal triangle, was a scream. "The Hospital Sketch" with the famous characters, the patient, doctor, nurse and a friend, brought the house down. Fred Karno scored a hit when he and Curley Nixon, "reshuffled."

The three outstanding numbers of the night were: "The Perfume Number," featuring Jeanette Garrette, the young dancer, and Miss Toronto, Jean Ford Tolmie; "Venitian Night," "The Card Dance."

The scenery throughout was beautiful and the music thrilling. The packed house thoroughly enjoyed the revue. Captain Plunkett was not with the company and it is being managed by Les Appleby former managed by Les Appleby, former They play again this afternoon.

NELSON HEARS AUSTRALIA ON RECEIVING SET

Mr. and Mrs. William Brown Hear Three-Hour Program

"Station 2 B L, Sydney," came the faint voice of the radio announcer through the air to the eager ears of Mr. and Mrs. William Brown, residing at 704 Third street, Fairview, yesterday morning, Mr. Brown was reclining on the couch and Mrs. Brown was operating the radio.

The voice from the other side of the world came very faintly at first, but under Mrs. Brown's guidance grew in volume until it could be heard quite plainly.

Altogether, Mr. and Mrs. Brown heard the announcer give the address of the Sydney station eight times, and for the most part could hear the Australian station more clearly than several neighboring stations that are picked up nightly in Nelson.

Once Before

Some weeks ago Mr. Brown tuned in on what purported to be an Australian station, from which he heard a fragment of a program. Fearing a hoax, he wrote San Francisco to get confirmation. The California people were only able to assure him that the Australian station was "on the air" that night, but not having its program on file were unable to confirm the selection he reported hearing. He thereupon wrote to Australia, but the reply, of course, cannot be received for several weeks.

Since the occurrence of yesterday, however, there is little doubt in his mind that the former program was also genuinely Australia.

The Program

Yesterday's program, as recorded in Mr. Brown's notes, starting at 2:45 a.m. Thursday and broadcasted from station 2 B L, Sydney, Australia, wave length 353, power watt, 5000, was as follows: Soprano, orchestra, fox trot, news item, male voice singing, "When Other Lips," and "When You Remember Me;" male and female duet, "Madam, Will You Walk?" and "Way Down Upon The Swanny River;" recitation by female voice, two songs by lady; comedian, W. B. Watson, "That's How I Saved My Life;" mixed comedy, "It's a Long Way to Tipperary;" two dance numbers, market report, announcer spoke of having better cable service, item regarding train wreck, dance numbers, theater programs for Friday night, fox trot "How Could Little Red Riding Hood," etc. End of program 5:10 a.m., Nelson time.
