ROSSLAND FAMILY BARELY ESCAPE AS HOME BURNS

Fire Believed Caused From Overheated Stove Destroys A. Smith's Residence

ROSSLAND, B.C., Nov. 1.—Fire completely destroyed the six-roomed bungalow, corner of Columbia avenue and Davis street, owned and occupied by Anthony Smith, at 8 o'clock this morning.

Mrs. Smith and their four children barely escaped with their lives.

The fire is believed to have been caused by an overheated stove. A little before 8 o'clock Mrs. Smith built a fire in the dining room heater and put her five-months-old baby out on the front porch for its nap. She then returned to the kitchen to get the older children ready for school.

Smelling smoke, she opened the dining room door, to find the rooms in a mass of flames. She had scarcely time to get the baby and other children out when the whole building was a roaring furnace. Absence of wind kept the flames from spreading to nearby buildings. Loss will run over $2000, on which there was $1200 insurance.

LABOR LEADERS MAKE GAINS IN MUNICIPALITIES

Gain 101 Seats on Councils Outside London Early Returns Indicate

MOST OF GAINS ARE FROM CONSERVATIVES

Three Twickenham Seats Turn to Labor From Conservative Fold

LONDON, Nov. 1.—Late return from the voting in today's municipal elections in London saw the following gains and losses by the parties having candidates in the field for the municipal elections.

	Gains	Ls.
Reforms	1	34
Labor	31	1
Progressives	6	4
Independents	1	0

LONDON, Nov. 1.—Labor leaders were elected over again in the municipal elections today in cities and towns throughout England. Incomplete returns indicate that Labor candidates have made a net gain of 101 on municipal councils outside of London, while these centers registered a loss

Returns from London were slow and of 71 and independents a loss of 31. the results in many of the boroughs will not be known until tomorrow, although counting of votes was still proceeding at a very late hour. What changes have occurred in London are in favor of the Laborites. The municipal reformers and the socialists suffered losses.

CREATE INTEREST

Results of the elections created exceptional interest this year, some leaders professing to believe that vote would indicate in some degree what could be expected at the general elections throughout the country next year.

Labor gains, partial returns indicated were made largely at the expense of Conservatives. At Twickham the Labor party gained three seats from Conservatives. Twickenham is the parliamentary constituency of Rt. Hon. Sir Joynson Hicks, home secretary.

A feature of the election in London was the candidature of 450 women as compared with 346 who stood for office in 1925.

The 1925 elections resulted in the return of 140 of the women candidates. While returns from today's election are far from complete, it is known that a number of the women head the polls in the districts. Seven women have been elected. The 21-year-old daughter of the mayor of Fulham was elected.

Unemployed men ran for office in a number of the boroughs and this type of candidate fared worse at Southward and at Shore Ditch.

The mayor of Bermondsey was defeated in his own division.

In Twickenham, Labor's outstanding success in that the party obtained representation on the Twickenham council for the first time. The party candidates scored an even greater success at Liverpool. Labor gained 11 seats, six of which were taken from Conservatives of the party.

VICTORIA, Nov. 1.—Hon. R. H. Pooley, attorney-general, today said laxity in liquor law enforcement in New Westminster was so serious that the situation could be described only as rotten. He gave the authorities of that city one week to clean up the liquor situation, stating that if conditions had not been improved in that time the provincial police would clean New Westminster themselves.

Mr. Pooley said he had already given the civic authorities ample time to remedy the situation without interference.

HOOVERITES SAY WILL HAVE LEAD OF TWENTY-THREE

Republican Forecast Gives Mr. Hoover 285 Votes in the Electoral College

NEW YORK, N.Y., Nov. 1.—On the eve of his departure for California, the Republican national committee to Herbert Hoover today made their forecast for Tuesday's presidential election.

The forecast gives Mr. Hoover a minimum of 286 votes in the electoral college, or 23 more than are necessary to win. It claims 27 states for Hoover and concedes 11 southern states to Governor Smith. Ten states are classed by the representatives as doubtful. The 10 are Kentucky, Maryland, Massachusetts, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Mexico, New York, Rhode Island and Wisconsin.

But Governor Smith is equally confident that he will carry the Democrats to victory. "Victory is in the air," he joyfully told a group of newspaper correspondents.

LANGSNER SAYS HE WON'T QUIT

Will Solve Small Mystery; Is Lecturing in Saskatoon Now

EDMONTON, Alta., Nov. 1.—Dr. Maximilian Langsner left Edmonton Thursday afternoon for Saskatoon where he is under contract to deliver a series of lectures on crime detection and experimental physcology.

Questioned before leaving Edmonton as to when he would return to Toronto for final developments in the Ambrose Small case, the Viennese scientist said he expected that several factors over which he had no control, made it impossible for him to give an exact date. Dr. Langsner explained one of the facotrs was the luke warm attitude of the Ontario authorities who appear reluctant to extend the cocperation which will insure the solving of the case in the criminologist's opinion.

"One thing you can say definitely, I have no intention of giving up this mystery," Dr. Langsner declared emphatically.

That the prisoner suffered from amnesia was the defence offered.

Hon. James Malcolm Sitting at His Desk in Ottawa Talks to Crowds at Empire Trade Exhibition at Cardiff

CARDIFF, Wales, Nov. 1.—Today was Canada day at the British Empire trade exhibition and a crowd estimated at 1000 persons listened to an address by Hon. James Malcolm, Canadian minister of trade and commerce. Mr. Malcolm spoke into a microphone in his office in Ottawa and every word was carried by an intricate hookup of wireless and land wires to the exhibition grounds. Loud speakers made the address clearly audible to the listeners who cheered Canada to the skies.

It was estimated that the cost of transmitting the speech amounted to $175 a minute. It proved valuable as an experiment in transmission, and as a result, wireless officials believe more direct communication with Canada can be worked out. Experiments would be conducted to that end.

Mr. Malcolm's speech was relayed by telephone from Ottawa via New York to Rocky Point, S.I. From the wireless station there it went to the station at Cupar, Fireshire, Scotland. This station passed the speech over land wires to the general post office at London, where it was amplified for the last stage of the journey which was completed when loud speakers carried the words to the people at the exhibition. At one stage when wires failed temporarily, a gramaphone record of the incoming speech was made, while a special line was strung from the Cardiff broadcasting station to the exhibition hall.

It was hoped that the voice of the crowd had been heard in Canada, efforts having been made to transmit the sound back across the route used to transmit Mr. Malcolm's address.

The robbery took place on voting day.

Chief Dorais, of the provincial police department, stated the man was known as "Mike" and the warrant for his arrest gave him no other name. Police stated he had made a sworn statement concerning the affair.

Six men have already pleaded guilty to the charge and three others have pleaded not guilty. Sentences are scheduled for November 7 by Chief Judge Perreault and preliminary inquiry in the case of the men who deny the charge will be heard tomorrow.

GETS LIFE FOR MANSLAUGHTER

LaFlamme Took His Brother's Life; Mentality of Eight-Year-Old Child

CORNWALL, Ont., Nov. 1.—Raoul Laflamme, farm worker of Glengarry county, was sentenced to life imprisonment by Mr. Justice Raney early tonight, after an assize jury found him guilty on a charge of manslaughter in connection with the shooting to death of his brother, Charles Laflamme.

Rcaul, who was described by medical doctors testifying for the crown as "a man with the mentality of an 8-year-old child," betrayed considerable emotion in receiving the sentence.

Charles was shot to death on the Laflamme farm at St. Raphael, Glengarry county, early on the morning of Sunday, June 10 last. Suspicion first fixed on Raoul when it became known that he left the nearby farm where he was employed early on the morning of the murder and disappeared entirely until five days later when arrested by a posse.

The prisoner had not lived at home for two years previous to the murder.

BRAKEMAN KILLED

Alleged Attempt of Employers to Rob German Harvester of His Cash Failure; German in Hospital, Employers in Jail

EDMONTON, Alta., Nov. 1.—When a young German immigrant received his pay for work done in the harvest fields, he thought that he had earned it and no doubt believed that he had. Tonight he is in a local hospital, cannot tell police his name, and is badly bruised and cut about the face—and he had no doubt earned his money.

The young Germon was the victim of a fake holdup staged here, it is alleged, by his employers and one other man, all of whom were arrested.

Coming into the city from Stoney Plain, Walter Nichols, farmer, and his brother, William, accompanied by a man named George Shower, and the young German, decided how the harvest hand could go east without having to pay any money. It was finally agreed among them that Walter Nichols would drive the German to the packing plants and endeavor to send him back east in charge of a cattle car.

Leaving the auto, William Nichols and Shower agreed to meet brother Walter later. After having gone to the plants and finding that he could not secure transportation east Nichols and the German returned up town. They were waved to a stop by two pedestrians at the corner of 95th street and 118th avenue. Getting out the two pedestrians immediately grappled with the German. Walter Nichols jumped in his car and, despite the fact that he had a flat tire, he drove his auto at a terrific pace to a place where he reported that he had been held up.

Policemen were immediately on the scene were things had happened aplenty. When Nichols left for the police station, a driver for a local drygoods store, arriving on the scene of the holdup, took part in the fight and between him and the young German, who put up a gallant battel, they managed to subdue the would-be robbers.

When the police arrived, the German was sent immediately to the hospital. The two men were taken to the police station. And therebyhangs a tale. Brother Walter had not yet left and it was just as well for the police that he had not, as the two men taken in as the robbers were William Nichols and George Shower.

All three, two of them considerably damaged were lodged in the cells tonight awaiting trial Thursday morning.

TELLS OF HAZARDOUS MOMENTS OF THE TRIP

Had Just as Bad Storms Going East; Wind Blew Ship Out of Course

FRIEDRICHSHAFEN, Germany, Nov. 1.—The Graf Zeppelin rested tonight in its home hangar for the first time in many days while its master, Dr. Hugo Eckener, planned mightier and faster lighter-than-air craft for the day when his dream of transatlantic passenger service will have become a realization.

"This ship is finished for me as far as general passenger traffic is concerned," Dr. Eckner said tonight. "We must have faster and stronger airships if we want to carry on a regular passenger service."

TOUGH LUCK

"Never in my life have I had such bad luck as on this round trip," he said. "Starting from here, which I had to do quickly, I got into the worst weather situation imaginable. The return trip from Lakehurst, too, brought such a string of unusual wind, weather and other difficulties as seems almost incredibable."

Dr. Eckener said that he had hoped to complete the home trip in 40 hours with favorable winds.

Declaring that the trip would have taken 15 hours less had the weather been anything like normal, he added, "but we have shown that the ship and motors are proof against any weather. We must, however, now set about building a constructionally stronger airship."

The doctor concluded: "After by experiences, the ship is finished with as far as concerned regular passenger traffic is concerned. We must have faster and stronger airships if we want to carry on a regular passenger service."

Passengers on the dirigible were unanimously enthusiastic over their voyage. The only woman aboard, Mrs. Clara Adams, of Tannersville, Pa., asked to rest, with the announcement she was "exhausted" but the men, Hans Nolde, of Reading, Pa.; Donald Casto, of Columbus, Ohio; Paul Marko, of Brooklyn, and Joseph Jessel, of New York, said they had had the time of their lives.

SO EXCITED

"We were so excited last night when we stayed up and played cards as we traveled across France," one of them said.

"When the Graf Zeppelin was brought to her hanger at 7:06 this morning (1:06 a.m., E.S.T.) she had completed a round trip across the Atlantic of more than 10,000 miles with several record-breaking features."

At a banquet tonight in honor of the crew of the zeppelin by the Zeppelin corporation, Dr. Eckener declared: "We have not conquered the ocean yet."

Then to prove his point, he recounted how on the flight from America he suddenly seen below him a "wicked looking object" which he at first took for a fog formation. Then he said he decided it was a cloud but was astonished a moment later to discover he was flying over the cliffs of Newfoundland. This, he said, despite having taken a course several hundred miles to the southeast.

TREACHERIES MANY

The treacheries of ocean flying are so numerous and so unexpected, he said, that it would be thoughtless for airmen now to rest on the laurels they have already won.

He pointed out that in one gale during the trip he avoided disaster only by throttling the motors to a minimum; continued high speed, he said, would burst his airship asunder.

"All your energy and ability must be concentrated now on elaborating plans of the present zeppelin to provide more endurable, more powerful dirigibles to insure more reliable transatlantic service," he said.

OCEAN IS CRAFTY

He described his Newfoundland experiences in detail. "When we saw those mountains of ice underneath us we knew and recognized that the craft of this old ocean is greater than we had imagined. It is true that the zeppelin steadied itself but it was only after we had first repaired one of the engines which had broken down. We must learn from our experience to build stronger engines for our airships which will enable us to cross the ocean not solely by avoiding storm centers."

Dr. Eckener told tonight of a second gale encountered off the coast of Europe not much less fierce than the first storm over Newfoundland. The accounts of some others aboard the zeppelin indicate that it was at this time several of the passengers became air sick. "I did not sleep a wink all that night," Dr. Eckener said, " but the navigation of the ship never failed for an instant. Of course the zeppelin rose somewhat but you should have seen the ships below tossing like corks with their decks awash.

Nelson Is Center Leading Province Mineral District

O'Grady Tells Legion District Produces Over Half of B. C. Total

"Mineral survey district No. 5, of which Nelson is the strategical center, produces over half the mineral wealth of British Columbia, although it is the smallest district, geographically, in the province," stated B. T. O'Grady, assistant resident mining engineer, when he addressed the Nelson branch of the Canadian Legion at a dinner last night. Mr. O'Grady outlined the work of his department and sketched mining development in the district.

Twelve mining divisions were contained in the district, he stated. The Sullivan mine at Kimberley, producing 10 per cent of the world's lead and a similar proportion of its zinc, was the outstanding property. The mill connected with the mine was being increased to handle 6000 tons of ore a day, he said.

UNUSUAL ACTIVITY

The past year, remarkable for renewed activity in mining, saw construction, reconstruction or rebuilding plans at seven mills in the Slocan, at the Hewitt, Ruth-Hope, Lucky Jim, Whitewater, Noble Five, Galena Farm and Cork-Province properties, and at the Paradise in the Windermere. There were also innumerable smaller ventures.

The engineer traced a mineral belt extending from the international boundary, through the Salmon valley and surrounding districts, through Nelson the Slocan and Lardeau districts, and continuing north.

Outlining the work of his department, he said the act governing it provided for construction of roads and trails to prospects of merit; supplying powder at cost to prospectors; making reports on prospects free of charge; and investigating properties to prevent misrepresentations.

Members of the audience expressed the opinion when Mr. O'Grady had outlined his duties that the district was entirely too large for two men, himself and the senior engineer, A. G. Langley, of Revelstoke, to thoroughly cover.

J. W. Mulholland's poem, "A Prospector On Evolution," which opened the program, was a roaring success.

SOAKS RIGHT IN AND LIMBERS UP STIFF JOINTS

Pharmacists Call it 'Joint-Ease' Because It's for Swollen, Sore, Painful, Creaky Joints Only

It took a good many years to get together a combination of pain subduing and swelling reducing agents declared to be the one remedy that almost instantly penetrates through skin and flesh and starts right in to make swollen, inflamed, creaky, pain-racked joints as good as new.

They call this new and wonderful preparation "Joint-Ease" because the medical man who turned the trick, worked for years to perfect some low-priced remedy that would really benefit the millions of people wha have one or more joints that need helpful attention.

So "Joint-Ease" is prepared only for people who have a swollen, painful creaky distorted or stiff joint, whether it be in knee, elbow, shoulder, ankle, neck or finger and whether it is caused by rheumatism or something else.

Of course, it can't help but quickly put an end to such superficial ailments as lumbago, neuralgia, neuritis, aching muscles, stitch in the side, crick in the neck or sore feet because of its penetrating action, but what it is really recommended for is joint ailments of any nature whatever.

Ask for a tube of "Joint-Ease". You can use it several times in one evening for quick results, because it goes right through the skin with only a few seconds' rubbing. It surely is a swift penetrator and when it gets under the skin, it starts right in to clean up all joint troubles.

All druggists dispense it daily for about 60 cents a tube, as do first class druggists everywhere.

COLONY HEAD IS SENT UP TRIAL

Bound Over to Appear for Misappropriating Foundation Funds

NANAIMO, B.C., Nov. 1.—Following the appearance in the witness box of Mrs. Mary Connelly who came from the eastern United States to give evidence in favor of E. A. Wilson, Brother XII. of the Aquarian foundation, the latter was bound over in the sum of $5000 in police court today to appear at the next supreme court assizes on a charge that he misappropriated $13,000 of the foundation's funds.

Mrs. Connelly is the donor of $25,000 to the foundation, a colony located about seven miles from here at Cedar-by-the Sea, which Wilson headed until other members took exception to his establishment of another colony and the promulgation of his views on marriage.

Mrs. Connelly testified today that she gave the $25,000 to Wilson for his exclusive use, to be used for carrying on the foundation work under his own personal direction. The donation was made following a meeting between them in Toronto last August, she said. What ever he did with the money would be all right with her, she explained. Asked why she donated this sum, she replied that she was a member of the cult and desired that its work should expand. She considered the colony at Cedar only a small beginning of a larger work to be undertaken.

When asked what she considered the settlement was for, Mrs. Connelly replied that it was a place of refuge for people in time of real trouble.

Western States in Clutches of Snow and Cold

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 1.—Winter made a determined assault on the west today in a blizzard that gripped the Rocky mountain region, spreading snow and cold in the upper Mississippi valley and southwestern states, causing a tieup of transportation lines, air mail service, and blocking and delaying trains.

Heavy snow fall extended eastward into Kansas, Nebraska, Iowa, South Dakota and Minnesota, while to the south rains were general with the prospect that falling temperatures would bring snow to many sections tonight and tomorrow.

The blizzard raging in Wyoming where wire communcation suffered, made it impossible for transcontinental air mail flyers to buck the storm.

Near zero temperatures were reported in the mountains and railroad officials feared that mountain passes would become blocked by snow.

Denver police were asked to search for William Hendricks, 70, missing since yesterday in the storm.

Seeks Information Plans for Keeping Roads Open Winter

Definite information as to the government's plans for supplying equipment to keep district roads open through the winter will be sought imediately by the council of the board of trade.

At a meeting of the board council yesterday, it was pointed out that if the proper equipment to handle the first fall of snow was not received, it would be almost impossible to do the work. Snow might fall at any time within the next two weeks, it was stated, and the equipment should be at hand.

They escaped in an automobile, which the police later learned had been stolen earlier in the evening.

SOCIAL SERVICE SECRETARY HEARD TRAIL AUDIENCE

Lecture of Dr. J. Phipps Jones Is Well Attended; Tells of Council

TRAIL, B.C., Nov. 1.—Dr. J. Phipps Jones of Toronto, general secretary of the social service council of Canada, which is the federal council of churches and other organizations, addressed a largely attended meeting in St. Andrew's church here tonight. He will deliver another address in Trail before leaving for Nelson, where he will address a meeting.

The council, of which he is secretary, was for the supression of evils, such as commercialized vice, bad literature, gambling, betting, and drugs, the doctor declared, and was for the development of a higher standard of home life.

The council, he continued, had done great deal toward socializing courts, particularly juvenile and probation courts. It was interested in strict censorship of motion pictures and in securing legislation for children born out of wedlock. It had secured several amendments to the criminal code for young girls, he stated, and was a pioneer in this work in Canada.

Dr. Jones has been lecturing in British Columbia for about two months. He is on his way home.

FIRST AID CLASS POPULAR AT TRAIL

TRAIL, B.C., Nov. 1.—Dr. J. B. Thom addressed a men's special first aid class in the Memorial hall this morning. The class was well attended.

The lecture was the third of a series which started on Monday. The doctor dealt with a general description of the heart and the blood vessels, emphasizing his explanations with actual incidents.

Experiments were tried by the pupils at the conclusion of the lecture.

The ladies' classes, which are being held in the evening, have been well patronized, as well as other men's classes under instruction.

Eight Degrees Frost Recorded; Forecast Unsettled, Milder

After two days during which the temperature did not drop below the freezing point, eight degrees of frost were recorded when the mercury dropped to 24 during the 24-hour period ending at 5 p.m. yesterday. This equalled the low mark of the season to date, which was set about the middle of last month.

The maximum temperature yesterday was 48.

A break in the generally fair and cold weather experienced in Nelson and district for more than two weeks is promised by the forecast issued from the weather bureau at Victoria. The forecast is: "Generally becoming unsettled and milder."

Now Is Time to Take Borings of Bridge, Assert

Board of Trade Council Decides to Send Resolutions to Victoria

Urging that the present low water level in the West Arm presents an excellent opportunity for taking borings for Nelson's promised bridge, the board of trade council yesterday decided to recall the attention of the new Conservative government to the need of a bridge.

A resolution to this effect is to be sent to Hon. Nels Lougheed, minister of public works, and copies to Premier S. F. Tolmie, Dr. L. E. Borden, M.P.P. for Nelson; Colonel Fred Lister, M.P.P. for Creston, and William Ramsay, district engineer.

It was suggested efforts should be directed toward completion of the Kuskanook-Grey Creek transcontinental road link. This, it was pointed out, would force construction of the bridge.

Trail Swimming Pool Is Being Covered Over

TRAIL, B.C., Nov. 1.—The Jubilee swimming pool, recently popular among Trail citizens, is receiving its final touches for the winter.

The work of covering over the overflow drains was started this morning. Tarred roofing paper is being tacked over the drains and it is expected a quantity of salt will be placed in the lower drain to prevent freezing.

It is hoped by next year to have a movable roof, which can be placed over the pool at the close of each season.

Dr. Jones Tells Rosslanders of Work of Council

ROSSLAND, B.C., Nov. 1.—The work of the social service council of Canada was divided into three section, educational, legislative and research, stated Dr. J. Phipps Jones of Toronto, field secretary of the council, speaking in the United church Wednesday evening. The council was a federal body made up of representatives from all denominations, and from other organizations, with the sole aim of promoting the social welfare of Canada. It had been functioning for about 20 years.

One of the things it accomplished along legislative lines had been acts providing for the support of the child born out of wedlock, he said. In 1920 there was no law in Canada providing for this. Today, in every province except Quebec, the father must provide for the child according to his station in life, until it reaches the age of 16.

Volunteer committees, under direction of experts, were working to solve such problems as "the man out of work", "Canada's child immigrants", "mental hygiene", and kindred subjects, the doctor declared. Booklets covering these had been issued and more were in process of preparation. In mental hygiene greater progress had been made during the past year than in the previous 10.

BETTER HOUSING

Housing conditions in the Dominion was another subject receiving attention. In a survey of conditions in one city 447 families were found living in basements, 42 in cellars, and 48 in rooms with only artificial light. This state of affairs must be remedied, he stated.

The increase in gambling was another challenge to the law-abiding citizen. During the last year, the number of racing days in British Columbia had been increased by 10 in spite of protests registered by the Vancouver and Victoria boards of trade, he said. Raffling was another practice going on in direct contravention of the law.

Rev. C. H. Daly acted as chairman of the meeting and the following committee was appointed to receive and distribute literature dealing with the work of the council: A. D. Christie, Alexander Kelly, Mrs. T. L. Bloomer and Mrs. H. Ferguson.

But the Actual Mining Goes Steadily On

"What's the matter with the mining market?"

The question is asked pretty often. Why don't mining stocks go skyward?

As a matter of fact, activity in mining stocks as represented by actual sales in the various stock exchanges is greater than at any time in the history of Canada.

Prices are going up in many cases. In other instances they have fallen; in others they are practically stationary.

But the thing that really counts is that mining activity is continuing on a greater scale than ever and especially in Kootenay. Whether the stock market is active or whether it is dull; whether Pend Oreille is $27.50 or $10.50 does not affect the really basic fact that scores of mines are today under operation which were idle a couple of years ago.

Production is increasing, too, but the large increased production which would be a logical effect of the present era of development is not yet apparent, and will not be for some time to come. It takes many months, sometimes many years, to develop a big producing mine.

So if the market is occasionally in the doldrums, it is not a cause for worry. Mining development is progressing just the same.

What Is Beauty, Anyway?

Sir Francis Dicksee, president of the Royal Academy of London, criticizes what he calls the "worship of ugliness" apparent in some present day schools of art.

It's an old criticism.

But what is ugliness and what is beauty in art?

There are those who can see beauty in a cabbage and others who find a pink orchid hideous.

In days not long past, the flowing moustache in the strong virile male appealed to some women as the height of attractiveness and beauty; to others it merely looked like an advertisement for the necessity of moustache cups and large serviettes.

When the Canadian "school of seven" burst upon astonished Vancouver a few weeks ago; some thought its works both stupid and ugly; yet there were those who saw in them an esoteric beauty and meaning, though these latter were inclined to admit that recognition of these qualities was reserved for the elect.

Let Sir Francis define "Beauty" and then listen to the chorus of disagreement with his views.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

(From The Daily News, Nov. 2, 1918)

At a meeting of the city council last night it was decided that the city should lease property on the waterfront to the Kootenay Motor Boat company. Arrangements were also made with the Kootenay Jam company regarding the opening of a street to the factory which the company is building. This means the establishing of two new buildings in the city.

At last night's meeting of the city council a bylaw was introduced and advanced to the third reading allowing users of electrical light, a free porch light.

The deep-cut backs of new evening gowns are not all on the "V" line, for one velvet model has a deep "U" at the back, partly filled in with pink chiffon, which at a little distance was practically invisible, while attached to the chiffon in the center of the top of the "U" filling is a bow of velvet to match the gown.

Models showing skirts with fold-over drapery or gored efects like a half closed umbrella are an interesting departure from the usual type of pleated sports skirt.

Some time ago a reader asked for recipes for cottage cheese pie. In response, other readers have sent in the following:

Cottage Cheese Pie—Line a pan with bread dough and fill with this mixture: Brown one cup of sliced onions in two tablespoons of butter in a frying pan, then mix these onions with one-half cup of mashed potatoes and one-half cup of cottage cheese. Season to taste. Cover top of pie with more dough, leaving a hole in this crust for the escape of steam. Grease top with melted butter and bake till the dough is done, in a moderate oven. Mrs. C. B. J.

Cottage Cheese Pie (or Cottage Cheese Cake)—I make a pie pastry from any good recipe, and line a pan with it. Then I mix together the following ingredients: Three-quarters of a cup of cottage cheese, two beaten eggs, two cups of cold, sweet milk (or you may substitute one cup of evaporated milk and one cup of cold water), three tablespoons of sugar and a few drops of vanilla. Beat well with an egg beater of the wheel type, then turn this mixture into the uncooked under crust. (There is no upper crust). Slip the pan into a hot over just for a few minutes, to allow pastry to set, then reduce heat as with any egg filling, so that the filling will not bubble up and whey. Test with a silver knife, as with a simple baked custard pudding, and when pie filling is firm remove from oven at once. Mrs. S. M. C.

Cottage Cheese Pie—Line a pan with ordinary uncooked pie crust. Into it pour the following mixture: One-half pound of cottage cheese, three egg yolks, one-fourth pound of butter, one cup of cream (either sour or sweet), one teaspoon of vanilla extract, and salt and sugar to suit taste. This should form a thin paste (if necessary, add a little milk). Beat the two egg whites stiff and fold them into the filling, then turn all into the uncooked pastry which lines the pan, and bake till filling is set. Mrs. A. Z.

Andrew Life, 52, late of Nelson and for 18 years a Kootenay resident, and a lumberman well known throughout the district was killed at a sawmill at the Cork Province mine, Kaslo, on Monday last. The Committee Meets to Decide Mother's Fate

"WE would be glad, of course, to have mother come and live with us," says one of the sons. "But the trouble is our house is so small."

"We haven't a spare room," adds the daughter-in-law regretfully.

And so it goes. One after the other makes excuse. Each has his or her own problems, and responsibilities.

Widowed at 65, Mother's fate would have been vastly different had father left any estate, or adequate life insurance. Mother could have had a nice little monthly income of her own if father had planned aright—an income guaranteed by the Mutual Life of Canada, and payable as long as she lived.

This Mutual Monthly Income policy is one every man with family responsibilities should seriously consider. Any Mutual Agent will be glad to tell you the advantages of this policy. Let us send you our folder "The Greatest Thing in the World of Insurance."

Playing With Fire

The Story of a Social Climber

By LUCILLE VAN SLYKE

Leading Characters in This Story:
ROSALIE BLANCHARD, a pretty little country school ma'am who has many ambitions, and
CHARLES FERGUSON, whose only ambition seems to be to marry her, and EUNICE FERGUSON, his middle-aged cousin, who is a teacher in a fashionable boarding school for girls. A sudden attack of appendicitis makes it impossible for her to return to the school and Rose eagerly offers to go for her. Soon after her arrival at Pendleton Hall, Rosalie meets,
E. STUYVESANT CONVERSE, a bachelor cousin of Mrs. Stuyvesant Perry's who is entering her granddaughter, Nanette, at the Hall. Converse, a squire of dames, finds Rosalie's youthful prettiness and pertness decidely entertaining.

CHAPTER IV.

A LOVE SET

While Rosalie spoke so modestly of her ability at tennis she was really secretly proud of what she thought she could do at the game. There had been rather good tennis courts at the normal school and she had played with youthful vigor and enthusiasm. She had easily beaten her friends on those courts many times.

So she tilted back her pretty head sidewise and archly contemplated Dick Converse thinking that she was a little sorry for him.

When Nanette came back with a pair of sneakers, Dick knelt rather heavily before Rosalie and insisted upon helping her change shoes, keeping the giggling Nanette shouting with laughter at his droll mimicry, of a shoe clerk.

The sneakers were actually a bit large for Rosalie but he tied them on snugly, jumped to his feet and held out his hand. But Rosalie jumped up quickly without putting her hand into his.

She liked this big, rather stout person, but she was really a trifle afraid of his excessive friendliness. She had guessed wrong when she suggested that he was forty. Dick was thirty-five. He boasted that the only thing he had to fight in life was his encroaching waist line. This particular summer he had cautiously rested on the laurels of his former reputation as a polo player for he was secretly aware that any self-respecting polo pony would resent his increased weight. But his golf remained consistently good and Rosalie was due for the surprise of her young life when he leapt lightly to the opposite court and began playing tennis. He might look heavy but he could still move very quickly.

He let her win a set first, deliberately fumbling his balls. Smiling at her lithe little figure and making no comment at all on her amateurish way of playing.

And then he began to play.

There were tears of vexation in her eyes when the next set was ended.

"Love set!" screamed Nanette from the side lines. "Now, Dick, take us both on, will you?"

And even with the scraggly little 11-year-old to help her, Rosalie couldn't keep up with Dick Converse's swiftly flying balls.

From the bottom of her heart she was thankful she hadn't claimed anything before she started!

She was tired out after this third set and said so. Dick went over to his coat, pulled out a flask, walked to a hydrant near the side line benches, found a battered old cup there and let the water run until it was reasonably cold.

And Rosalie, who had never had an intoxicating drink in her life, watched with much curiosity, while he let a little Scotch slip into the cup.

"But I don't drink—things," she faltered as he held it toward her.

"Not enough in it to hurt you," he assured her. "A matter of fact I only put it in for your protection. Don't believe this water out here is safe to drink."

She tested the mixture tentatively, made a pretty grimace and handed it back to him.

"I think it tastes perfectly awful," she told him. He laughed good humoredly.

Nanette, who was banging balls into the net, screamed, "You better change your bootlegger, Dick!"

Rosalie glanced apprehensively toward the house beyond the rhododendrons that screened the tennis courts. She was sure that Mrs. Hartswell would be shocked if she knew that her substitute teacher and her new pupil were playing tennis with Dick Converse. Dick saw her glance and grinned.

"Have to tone that kid's voice down a few, eh?" he laughed. "Heaven help you if she is in many of your classes. She is a handful. Her nickname is Limb and is explains her."

"But I shan't have her very long," Rosalie explained. She was bending over to loosen the borrowed tennis shoes. "I don't belong here really, you konw. I'm helping out in Miss Ferguson's place because she is in the hospital with appendicitis. I'll probably only be here about two weeks."

"H'm," said Dick contemplatively. "That is too bad. Live anywhere around here?"

Rosalie laughed. Rather a rueful little laugh.

"I wish I did. Where I really live is too stupid for words. A hateful little town way upstate that you never even heard of."

She had her own shoes on now and she stood rather awkwardly holding out the racket.

"Thanks a lot for that, I enjoyed it very much," she said stiffly.

"Oh, keep it, Nanny will want somebody to play with, I—er—will stop in for it some day." He was pulling his sweater over his head. "Do you dance?" he asked, sotto voce.

"I adore it," Rosalie spoke impetuously.

"There's a rather good floor and some decent music at an inn down the road from here. Quite a crowd of us go there, I'll phone for you some night."

"Maybe Mrs. Hartswell wouldn't like it," Rose said.

"Tut, tut,! You're not afraid of her! You're your own boss—but of course she is a regular old cat. Tell you what, I won't come here for you. I'll meet you in the village."

Rose didn't commit herself at all but her dark eyes were shining with anticipation.

A STILL BETTER HALLOWEEN IS AIM NEXT YEAR

How to Improve on the Wonderful Celebration Is Topic of Discussion

SUGGESTIONS MADE TO GAIN IN EFFICIENCY

Many Citizens Helped in Various Capacities; Some of the Workers

Review yesterday of all the angles of the mammoth Halloween celebration of Wednesday night yielded nothing but satisfaction, and disclosed only two or three points at which improvement might be obtained at future celebrations.

While the souvenir packets presented by the city to the young generation ran out, it was not becausc of any shortage in the original supply, but because numerous children presented themselves repeatedly while the presenting was good, the final and senior section of the monster juvenile parade being thus left in the cold.

IMPROVE DISTRIBUTION

Next year this detail will be closely organized and a fair distribution assured. It is suggested that the main entrance to the Recreation grounds can be divided into four or more lanes, by parallel rails, with a distributing unit for each lane, that only children entering the grounds by these lanes or by the ticket entrance be given packets, and that no children be permitted to leave the grounds after once obtaining entrance, until the distribution is completed.

In connection with placing all the public on an equal footing for viewing the parade, opinion yesterday strongly favored prohibition of parking on at least the two principal business blocks of Baker street during the parade period, at future celebrations. It was also suggested than an embargo might be placed on all motor movement at that time, the cars used for sight-seeing purposes being given permission to mass on the intersecting streets until the procession passed.

NO ACCIDENTS EITHER YEAR

A remarkable record has been made of two mammoth celebrations, enjoyed by thousands, being pulled off in successive years without an accident, large or small, being reported in connection with either. Yesterday a boy with a scorched hand reported to a doctor for treatment, as a result of studying the inflammable quality of oil, but he did not obtain his burns at the celebration. As a matter of fact, the most complete precautions were taken to deal with anything that went amiss. The fire department had 450 feet of hose laid from the hydrant at the corner of Front and Hall streets, as was the case also the previous year, while there were also elaborate first aid precautions.

While the elevated platform swayed, sagged and creaked with "Big Bill" Freno and "Pat" Defero bounced about it in their "Russian ballet", and many expected them to go throught it, there was no real danger of that, as the floor of the newly built structure was of two-inch plank, with extra battens beneath. The sagging of the floor was, therefore, no sign of its weakness, but, on the contrary, only a tribute to the weight of Nelson's elephantine clowns.

MIGHT SHORTEN ROUTE

Consideration is being given to a suggestion that next year the route of march be shortened by a few blocks, to lessen the demands on the juvenile marchers.

Improvement of the group fires, it is also suggested, might be obtained by giving permission to build up the piles for a couple of days preceding Halloween. Maintaining of a guard on the grounds during that period would assure the piles against molestation.

The one disappointment of the late celebration, the necessity of dropping the acts arranged by the grandstand program committee, following a partial curtailment of last year's lengthier program, will lead to further efforts to save time wherever possible. It may prove feasible to start the grandstand program earlier, or perhaps to give the acts an earlier place.

PENNANT EVERY YEAR

Provision of the pennant for the school group making the best general showing was a happy idea that will no doubt be perpetuated. Group 5, which was awarded the current pennant, was composed of divisions 4 and 5 of Central school, both in grade V, and the two divisions will probably take turns in having its custody. It is the present proposal to perpetuate the groups if feasible—that is to say, from now on, Group 5 each year should consist of the grade V divisions of Central school. Each year's pennant, it is proposed, will become the property of the group winning it.

Those who gave their services in various ways to assist the management of the celebration and make it a success included:

PSYCHOLOGY THEME DR. MOBIUS' TALK

Subconscious Mind Directs Actions; Responsible Success and Happiness

"Our Great Inheritance," was the theme of a lecture given by Dr. Robert M. Mobius, phychologist and character analyst, at the Eagle hall last night to an interested and appreciative audience. Demonstrations of character analysis constituted the latter part of the program.

"Our actions are the result of impressions formed on our subconscious minds, through the gateway of the ears," stated Dr. Mobius. "The ears are the gateway to the subconscious mind just as the eyes are the gateway to the conscious mind," he explained.

The subconscious mind was "our great inheritance," stated the doctor. It was the cause of success in business and happiness in daily life.

"It is a psychological crime to talk illness and crime when one should talk health and virtue. Health, happiness and success are the fruits of applied psychology, and every one can read these fruits if only they will sow the seeds of applied psychology to the everyday things of their daily life.

Children up to the age of six, especially were most sensitive to the impressions formed on their subconscious minds. Off all moulders of the characters of children the Jesuits were the most successful because they cast the right impressions on the minds of the children.

Dr. Mobius concluded the first of a series of lectures by giving practical demonstrations of judging people at sight.

COLEMAN DENIES C. P. R. TO BUILD INTO MINE AREA

Reports From The Pas That Roads to Be Extended North Denied by Officials

RUMOR WAS THAT C. P. R. GOING NORTH MANITOBA

Idea to Tap Sherritt-Gordon Fields; Consolidated Interested in North

THE PAS, Man., Nov. 1.—The Canadian Pacific railway has at last decided to extend its lines to the Lac La Ronge mining field in Saskatchewan and the Sherritt-Gordon area in Manitoba, according to advices received here by financial and mine circles. The building of the two million dollar C. P. R. bridge at Nipawin, Sask., is understood to have been undertaken for the express purpose of a northern extension. From Lac La Ronge, the proposed line would go almost directly east to Cold Lake in Manitoba.

Further plans, according to reports received here, are sketchy. Mining men give the opinion, however, that the C. P. R. will not extend the line past Cold Lake but would route ore shipments back into Saskatchewan. Extensions to the Hudson's Bay railway, or directly to the Hudson's Bay are considered possibilities.

LINK FIELDS

All recent developments point toward the C. P. R. planning a link with northern mine fields. The promising Hall claims on Lac La Ronge and Rotten Stone lake were recently opticned by the Consolidated Mining & Smelting company which has its headquarters at Toronto and mine offices at Trail, B.C.

Through its directorate the Consolidated is closely allied with the C. P. R.

IS DENIED

WINNIPEG, Nov. 1.—Denial that the C. P. R. was considering the immediate extension of its lines into the northern mining area of Manitoba and Saskatchewan was made here tonight by D. C. Coleman, vice-president in charge of western lines.

In a statement to the Canadian Press, Mr. Coleman said:

"It was announced by President Beatty during a recent visit to Saskatchewan that the C. P. R. had some survey parties working north of the Saskatchewan river and that the company was watching with interest the mining development in northern Saskatchewan. These parties are still in the field and their reports will be received in due course.

"In the meantime," concluded Mr. Coleman, "no plans have been determined and no action has been taken."

START IS MADE ON TAKING OF CENSUS, NELSON

Officials Arrive and Get Start; Ask Cooperation of the Citizens

A start was made yesterday on the taking of an official census in the city of Nelson. Headed by W. D. Turner, supervisor of census taking for Wrigley's limited, three men will comb the city during the next 10 days or two weeks, securing names of all men, women and children who are bona fide residents of Nelson. The census is being taken by Wrigley's limited, under authority of the provincial government.

When approached yesterday Mr. Turner asked that Nelson citizens do all in their power to aid the enumerators in their work. The agents will make a house to house canvas. At each house they will secure the names of the residents and any boarders, etc., who are bona fide residents. Trnasients will not be included in the population figures.

Among the questions which must be filled in are: surname, christian name and initials, whether married or single, occupation, with whom employed, street address, nationality, religion, age.

Mr. Turner reached Nelson on Wednesday night from Salmon Arm, where he has just completed taking the census.

Prior to that he had secured official figures on the population of Trail, Kelowna and Kamloops.

Four Functions to Commemorate the Armistice

Four functions are planned by the Nelson branch of the Canadian Legion in celebration of the 10th anniversary of Armistice day, November 11.

At 10:30 all members will parade to the cenotaph on Vernon street, and to the Rigby memorial tablet at the city hall to place wreaths.

When the wreaths have been placed the ex-soldiers will parade to the Memorial hall, where Ven. Archdason Fred H. Graham of St. Saviour's church will give a special sermon.

At 3.30 in the afternoon a public service will be held at the Capitol theater.

The annual dinner of the branch will be given November 12.

Helped Distribute Halloween Candy

Among those who helped distribute candy to children at the big community celebration of Halloween Wednesday night were Jack Thomas, Molly Thomas, Fred Angrignon, Paul De Crost, Irene Kerr, Marion Kirby, Dereen Hirst, Viola Sandine, Harold Austin, Norman Lauritz and Elmer O'Gray.

Records of the Woodmen of Ardon, who hold their ancient game of archery at Meriden in Warwickshire, Eng., each year, go back nearly 200 years, but the club is believed to be over 600 years old.

Another French-Canadian Harvester Is Hailed Into Court; Charged Trespass

An active and successful year was reviewed by Mrs. C. I. Archibald, president of the Nelson Women's Conservative club, at the club's annual meeting at the institute rooms, Victoria street, yesterday.

The year was doubly gratifying, Mrs. Archibald said, because of the success in Nelson of the Conservative candidate, Dr. L. E. Borden, and because of the province victory of his party.

Officers elected were: Mrs. James Johnstone, honorary president; Mrs. C. I. Archibald, president; Miss Elva Hanna, first vice-president; Mrs. A. H. Crossley, second vice-president; Mrs. G. B. Matthew, third vice-president; Mrs. James Brodie, secretary pro tem; and Mrs. W. O. Rose, treasurer.

Invite British Commissioner Visit District

Sir William Clark, newly appointed British high commissioner to Canada, will be invited to visit the southern interior when he makes his proposed cross-Canada trip to aquaint himself with conditions in the Dominion.

The board of trade council at its luncheon meeting at the board rooms yesterday decided to point out to the commissioner the desirability of visiting the Trail reduction plant of the Consolidated Mining & Smelting company. He will be advised that this is the largest smelting plant of its kind in the British Empire.

The importance of West Kootenay as the leading mineralized area of British Columbia will also be urged.

ARRANGEMENTS COMPLETED TO RETAIN STARS

President Smith Gladdens the Hearts of Fans With His Announcement

TEAM HAD FINANCE TROUBLE TO HURDLE

Arrangements Made for Suitable Employment for Team Players

ROSSLAND, B.C., Nov. 1.—Rossland Miners are in the running again. Rossland will have a hockey team in the West Kootenay league this winter—announcements similar to the above gladdened the hearts of local hockey fans today.

Following the announcement Tuesday night that Rossland would have to withdraw from the West Kootenay Hockey league, on account of financial troubles, President A. W. Smith announced this morning that other arrangements had been made and that the Golden City will be able to care for her players as originally scheduled. This is good news for local fans who were disappointed over prospects for no hockey this winter.

Rossland has a promising lineup ready to take the ice and "Big Jim" Hanson has been chosen as coach and manager for the season. Work will now go forward on improvements to the rink in anticipation of an early and excellent season.

HARLOW LOOKS GOOD, WORKOUT CALGARY BOUT

Has More Speed and Heavier Punches; Battles in Fortnight

With more speed and a heavier punch than ever before, George Harlow, Nelson heavyweight, went through one of the stiffest workouts of his career at the Tremont last night. He is in preparation for his bout with Augie Sauer, heavyweight, of Calgary, at the Glenmore Community hall on November 12.

Ever since he went into training for the bout he has torn into his workouts with an added vim and a ferocity which was missing in his training for other bouts in Nelson. He was unable to unlace in those workouts through lack of sparring experience. But now, with Dean Pearce, his trainer, and Ted McVicar as sparring partners, he can open up.

LONGER WORKOUTS

His workouts are longer also. Last night he took four rounds at the bag, four at shadow boxing, four at skipping, and two rounds with each of his sparring partners. In addition, he does between eight and 10 miles of road work every morning.

Fast though he was in his past battles, George has developed speed, both in footwork and punching, that has surprised even his trainer. With big 16-ounce gloves, he knocked Pearce down and all but out on Wednesday night, and last night landed a right to the body that hurt.

The contract for the battle with Sauer was received last night, signed, and returned to Tommy White, who is promoting the bout. Practically everything is arranged now for what will be the biggest bout of Harlow's career.

Harlow and Pearce will leave Nelson either next Thursday or Friday morning, and will not return until about November 20.

BOUT LONG SOUGHT

The bout will be the termination of several months of efforts to bring the two heavyweight battlers together either at Calgary or Nelson. Last spring Sauer wrote The Daily News claiming the western Canadian heavyweight championship, and throwing out a challenge to Harlow in particular and any British Columbia heavy in general.

George was tied up with two battles coming up in Nelson and was unable to accept a bout then. Later R. E. Kirby received a letter from Tommy White asking for a battle.

The winner of this bout has been promised a battle with Lew Kesler of Lethbridge, heavyweight of repute. The bout will be staged shortly after the Harlow-Sauer mix fest.

NELSON FANS TO SEE LAST RUGBY GAME ON SUNDAY

Final Nelson-Trail Game to Be Played Here; Will Be Best of Year

Although having suffered three successive reverses at the hands of the Trail squad this year and thereby losing the first Canadian rugby championship of the West Kootenay, Nelson rugbyites have not as yet given up hope and will clash with the Trail team at the Recreation grounds here Sunday in the fourth and last game of the season with a determination to win.

That determination will be greater than in any of the first three games this season for having failed to lift the only championship of the season left for Nelson, they now have to prove to Nelson fans that it was only lack of experience that caused the fumbles which in turn cost the Nelson boys the three games.

EACH GAME BETTER

As in each of the first three games the local team showed improvement over the preceding game and as each game was hailed by fans and players alike as better all around than the preceding one, Nelson fans are assured by the rugbyites of seeing the best game of the season this Sunday. The boys have promised that and more—they have promised to fin as well.

Fumbles in the first three games were disastrous to the Nelson twelve and the only alibi offered was lack of experience for which they hold they are not to blame. Every player on the Nelson team is a local boy, who is either playing this year for the first time or who started when the game was introduced here last fall.

ON HOME GROUNDS

Nelson will be on its home grounds this Sunday and that is something the squad claims. At Trail Nelson lost the first game of the season 19 to 1, and the third game 17 to 0. In the second game at Nelson the local team was ahead 10 to 5 at half time, but slipped in the second half to lose out 20 to 10.

The team has been practicing since its most recent defeat and will be considerably stronger than earlier in the season.

The game will be called for 2:45. L. Piper of Trail, who refereed the first three games this year will again handle the whistle.

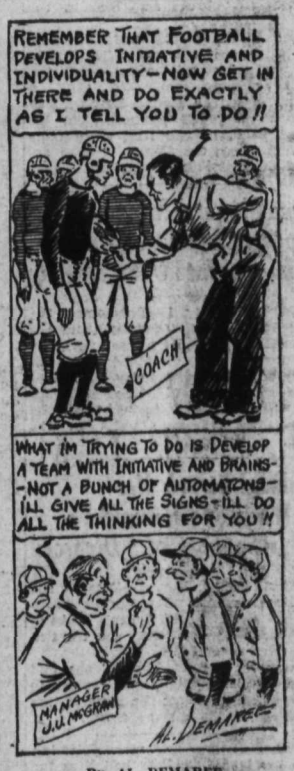
Average Coach Does All Brain Work for Team



By AL DEMAREE
(Former Pitcher New York Giants)

The line of hokum handed out by the average football coach and generally accepted by the public as true about football developing the individuality, initiative and leadership that will fit the players to become leaders in the business world when they graduate, is only equaled by the line of chatter that most major league managers affect.

The football player with too much initiative and individuality doesn't make a good football player in these days of intricate offensive and defensive formations of team play in which the cooperation of every one of 11 players means success or failure on that play.

Manager John J. McGraw of the New York Giants bemoans the fact that there are few great, individual, brainy present ball players as compared to the old-timers. "If they keep on getting dumber," he laments, "you will wind 'em up like 'robots' and stick 'em out on the field in the near future."

But McGraw and other managers in lamenting the dearth of modern ball players with real initiative and individuality, in the next breach will order their players not to make a move at the bat or on the bases, unless they are signaled exactly what to do from the bench.

"I'll do all the thinking for this ball club," McGraw often says, "and if anything goes wrong I'll take the blame!"

PORTLAND 'BUDS' SIGN PROMISING OTTAWA PLAYER

Earl Armstrong, Youthful Defence Man of Gunners, for Pacific Coast League

OTTAWA, Nov. 1.—Earl Armstrong, who attracted considerable attention from Toronto experts who saw him play on the defence for Gunners in the national junior finals against Regina Monarchs, has decided to make the leap to the monied ranks and has left for Portland, Ore., where he will make his professional debut with the "Rosebuds" in the newly organized Pacific coast league.

Armstrong was one of the best prospects in the junior league here and starred throughout the season on the Shrapnel defence. He may be a trifle light for defence duty in big league hockey but he packs a good body-check and is a smart puck-carrier. There is a possibility that he will be developed into a front line player with the Portland team. Armstrong is a fast skater and packs a good shot.

LEADING TEAMS ARE FAVORED

Should Have Easy Victories in Old Country Soccer Games Tomorrow

LONDON, Nov. 1.—The leading teams in the English soccer league, first division are expected to keep their positions after the matches next Saturday. The leaders, Blackburn Rovers, would appear to have an easy task with Sheffield United, even though the match will be played in Sheffield. Derby County, runners-up, go to Aston Villa and ought to win by a comfortable margin. Leeds United are at home to Portsmouth, who have a very poor outlook to win.

Notts County and Hull City, who have taken over the leadership in the second division from Chelsea, both play at home on Saturday, while the pensioners must travel. No shake-up among the leading teams is expected as Notts County should beat Barnsley and Hull City beat West Bromwich Albion. Chelsea meets Wolverhampton Wanderers and need points to keep safely away from Stoke City and Southampton, which teams will probably win, the former from Reading and the latter from Blackpool.

In Scotland, with the international match between Wales and Scotland and the inter-league game between Scotland and Ireland out of the way, attenton returns to league struggles. Rangers, leading the first division, have not yet been beaten in a league match this season.

The betting was seven to four against 10 to 10 against, 100 to six against.

Ku Klax Klan May Have Had Part in Branding Crime

NEW YORK, N.Y., Nov. 1.—A man identified by the police as Frank Kirpatrick of Germantown, Pa., was found tonight near an old reservoir in the Bronx, his arms and legs were tied and he had brandings on his chest, arms and legs. The police report described the brandings as representing the insigna K. K. K.

Stuffed in Kirpatrick's mouth, apparently as a gag, was a pamphlet on the subject of Governor Alfred E. Smith and his connection with the Catholic church.

The injured man was taken to a hospital, where his condition was reported critical.

LECKIE RETURNS FROM THE NORTH

Sees Great Possibilities for Hudson's Bay District; Declares it Play Ground

TORONTO, Nov.1—Col. J. E. Leckie, Vancouver, returned to Toronto today after four months in the Hudson's Bay district as leader of a mineral exploration party sent out by the Northern Aerial Mineral Explorations corporation.

He reported that when the area becomes frozen sufficiently to allow planes equipped with skiis to land on the ice all members of the expedition will be flown back to civilization with the exception of two men who will be left behind to look after stores. Members of the crew of the expedition schooner wrecked in Chesterfield inlet will also be brought out.

Colonel LecKie forecast that the completion of the Hudson's Bay railway would result in the north country becoming a tourists' play grounds. Big game hunters, he believed, would travel from the terminus of the railway on an air journey of a few hours in search of the big game of the subarctic regions. On account of the remoteness of the district, and the short summers, mineral fields would have to show a high precious metal content before working would be advisable, he said.

Colonel Leckie pointed out that members of the expedition had flown hundreds of miles and that the value of the airplane in the northern exploration work had been proved.

Eskimos, he said, had gained in wonder on what they call "Big goose with an engine" while Indians fled in terror at the approach of the flying boats used by the expedition.

Newfoundland May Sell Labrador to Canada or U. S. A.

ST. JOHNS, Nfld., Nov. 1.—Sale of Labrador either to Canada or to an American syndicate will, in the opinion of Sir William Coake, leader of the Fisherman's Protective Union, and an ally of Sir Richard Squires, be among the results of Sir Richard's victory over the Alderdyce government in Monday's election.

In meeting a request by the Canadian Press for his opinion on the outcome of the election Sir William sent the following reply from Port Union:

"The results of the election of the Liberal government will be in my opinion a fishery policy, the sale of the Labrador either to an American syndicate of Canada, a policy to encourage agriculture and road building, and the establishment of new industries."

Sir Richard Squires has not yet returned to St. Johns, nor made any statement on the result. Hon. Mr. Alderdyce yesterday said the people of Newfoundland had had their choice of rpresentatives and he trusted they would be satisfied with the elections outcome.

Judge Refuses Try Youth as Accessory in This Murder Case

MELFORT, Sask., Nov. 1.—Deciding that the accused youth came under provisions of the Juvenile Delinquency act of Saskatchewan, Mr. Justice MacDonald, in court of king's bench here today, refused to try Henry Allison Day, aged 16, on a charge of being an accessory after the fact of murder. His lordship turned the case over to the juvenile court.

A cheerful youngster and a favorite with his guards and the police, Young Day was not at all worried about the charge against him, laid after a brother, now in a mental hospital, had confessed that his mother killed his father, Captain John Day, three years ago. The boys are alleged to have assisted their mother in murder.

ISSUES FIRMER ON WALL STREET

Coppers Again Go Forward; Brokers' Loans Heavy; Rails Firmer

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—The stock market checked its retreat today and again started forward with a firm pace, despite the enormous increase in brokers' loans of $134,000,000 announced after the close, which carried the federal reserve total to a new high record of more than $4,900,000,000 in contrast to $3,370,000,000 a year ago.

A firmer tone in the rails was an outstanding feature. Union Pacific led the advance with a spurt of more than six points, selling up to 209½, the highest price in about 20 years. Canadian Pacific, Pittsburgh & West Virginia, Deleware & Hudson, St. Louis Southwestern and New York Central went ahead 2 to 4½ points.

Westinghouse sold up more than 2 points and General Electric made a three point gain.

Coppers as a group again went forward. Anaconda and Granby stepped up about a point to new peak prices, and Kennecott sold up nearly 3 points to a new top at 126⅝, while Greene Canaea made an extreme gain of nearly three points. International Nickel was again a strong point, climbing 4¾ points to a new record price at 195¼, but cancelling most of its gain on realizing.

American Express made a spectacular advance of 27 points to a record price at 260, and American Radiator extended its gain by about 6 points. Barnet Leather jumped ahead 13 points.

The automotive group made good recovery, General Motors going ahead more than four points and Briggs Manufacturing and Chrysler about three points.

Montgomery Ward made an extreme gain of 6½, and Sears Roebuck of nearly four points. First National Stores jumped more than 3 to a new high at 57½.

Oils also rallied, American Republic, Atlantic Refining and Pan-American pushing up more than 3 points. Other strong points were Dupont up 12; Shubert Theater up about 7; A. M. Byers, International Harvester, and Columbia Gas & Electric, about five up.

Total sales 3,571,000 shares.

KOOTENAY FLATS IMPRESS BURDEN STATES MEMBER

Idaho Reclaimed Land Opens Minister's Eyes, Tells Tory Women

NECESSITY GOOD ROADS FORCIBLY DEMONSTRATED

Dr. Borden Declares Must Have Highways; New Ferry Apparatus

Idaho reclaimed land was the most valuable tract in that state, asserted Dr. Borden. Twelve acres produced over 90 tons of alfalfa hay, and the wheat grown in this area brought 25 cents more per bushel than the grain of the Palouse country, which was considered the best in the northwest United States.

IMPRESS NEED ROADS

At least one member of the new cabinet would realize the need of better roads in the southern interior, Doctor Borden said when describing the trip taken b yhte minister of lands. The party travelled from Nelson to Creston over the Nelson-Spokane highway and through Idaho. The poor condition of the southern interior roads, as compared with the Washington and Idaho highways, was brought forcibly home to the minister.

Stating that Hon. F. P. Burden, minister of lands, was very favorably impressed with the possibilities of converting a large area of the Kootenay flats at Creston into valuable agricultural land, Dr. L. E. Borden, M.P.P., told the Nelson Women's Conservative club at its meeting yesterday at the institute rooms of a recent trip over Idaho reclaimed land and over the flats at Creston, on which he accompanied Mr. Burden.

Reviewing work that has been done since during the short time the Conservatives have been in power, Doctor Borden stated it was necessary to issue special warrants to raise money when the new government took office. All money in the treasury had been exhausted. In spite of the difficulty thus encountered at the outset, it had been possible to do a little work on roads.

MUST HAVE ROADS

"I stand strongly for good roads," declared the doctor. "We must have good roads if we are to attract tourists. Good roads are equally important in developing district trade."

The member declared the road from Nelson to the international botindary would be in first class shape within two years. Considerable work has been done this fall south of Salmo

Doctor Borden was able to obtain new life saving apparatus for the Nelson ferry when he learned that the craft was altogether inadequately equipped in this respect. The new ferry would be built and in use before ice formed on the West Arm, he said.

So far, the doctor asserted, the Nelson district has had absolutely fair treatment from the new government. He was confident this treatment would continue, and that the district would prosper greatly.
