ALDERMEN CUT SALARIES, CITY OF VANCOUVER

Meet in Camera and Decide $1200 Good Enough

PUBLIC OPINION TOO SCATHING

Mayor Taylor Is Left to Make Announcement Public

VANCOUVER, Feb. 6—Vancouver aldermanic indemnities will remain at $1200 per year.

By the unanimous vote of 11 of the 12 city aldermen, meeting in camera as the civic finance committee, this afternoon, the motion of Alderman Dean passed at Monday's council meeting to fix aldermanic indemnities at $2000 a year, was formally rescinded.

The resolution was as follows: "After a conference with the city comptroller and considering the present financial situation, in view of the increased demands on revenue in relation to taxable assessment of the city, it is recommended that the bylaw dealing with aldermanic remuneration be amended by substituting $1200 for $2000 in the said bylaw.

"Passed unanimously at a special meeting of the finance committee, held February 6, 1931, at 3:30 p.m., Alderman Loat being absent."

No comment was forthcoming from any of the aldermen present following the meeting. One and all hurried away, after depositing the resolution with Mayor L. D. Taylor. They did not even admit that they had reached any decision and it was left to Mayor Taylor to make the resolution public. He did so without comment.

The resolution will have to be passed by city council to become effective, but in view of the fact that it passed unanimously in finance committee it is regarded as certain that the indemnity bylaw will be amended.

Indignant outcries of ratepayers, who have been busy all week condemning the "salary grab", and demanding the resignations of the seven aldermen who voted for it, began to bear fruit early today, when the seven aldermen in question gathered with furrowed brows to talk matters over.

A hasty meeting was held in secret in the aldermen's chambers this forenoon, following the meeting of the bridges, committee. At lunch time the aldermen hurried away, refusing to say anything beyond that another meeting would be called to discuss the matter.

From two o'clock to four in the afternoon, all the available aldermen met as a finance committee, they did gathered once again. Although they not inform Mayor Taylor, who is always present at such meetings, as he was busy with a meeting of department heads.

DEFINITELY NOT "THROUGH" SAYS SCREEN'S REDHEAD

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 6.—(AP)—Clara Bow's studio allayed all rumors that the screen flapper is "through in pictures" because of sensational publicity during the Daisy De Boe trial with the announcement today that her next starring vehicle will go into production before the end of February.

Miss Bow's illness, which kept her away from court during the latter part of her former secretary's trial on charges of grand theft, is all that is holding up the production, studio officials said.

Miss De Boe said during the trial that studio officials had warned Clara "one more slam in the papers would finish her."

SOFIA, Bulgaria, Feb. 6 (AP)—Another and more serious clash between guards on the Greek-Bulgarian frontier occurred today. A fusillade across the border lasted two hours. Slight casualties were reported on both sides.

A similar engagement two days ago was said to have started when army mules strayed across the frontier. A Greek soldier was shot to death in this encounter.

New Power Plant of Vatican City Blessed by Pope

VATICAN CITY, Feb. 6. (AP)—Taking another step away from the medieval atmosphere and tradition of the Vatican into the modern world of science, Pope Pius today inaugurated the Vatican's new electric power plant. He recalled that 52 years ago when he first was ordained a priest, the papal palace was lighted by gas and candles.

The pontiff blessed the turbines, motors and generators which create enough power for the whole of the Vatican city, including the new radio station. Then he pulled a switch which started the dynamos.

LABOR MINISTER ANSWERS "SLAVE WAGE" CHARGES

Senator Robertson Says Roadworkers in Northern Ontario Better Paid

OTTAWA, Feb. 6 (CP)—Men working on road construction works in northern Ontario are getting five to 10 cents an hour more than was the scale before unemployment relief was inaugurated by the Dominion government and are working two hours a day less, according to a statement issued today by Hon. Gideon Robertson, federal minister of labor.

Mr. Robertson made his statement in reply to Hon. Peter Heenan, former minister of labor, who charged last night at Hamilton that the men working on the roads in northern Ontario were under slavery conditions.

In only one very small undertaking was it found that wages below 35 cents an hour were being paid, and this was rectified, Mr. Robertson said. Under Mr. Heenan, he said, the men worked 10 hours a day and received from 25 cents to 30 cents an hour.

DAGGER IS DRAWN IN JAPANESE DIET

Free-for-All Starts After a Bitter Discussion of Naval Treaty

TOKYO, Feb. 6 (AP)—Bitterness over the London naval treaty caused a free-for-all fight today in the ante room of the diet, during which a dozen persons, including two diet members, were injured.

The fighting started when a member of the Seiyukai (opposition) party wielded a dagger during hot criticism of Foreign Minister Shidehara's explanation in the Diet that Emperor Hirohito by approving the treaty had proved it did not endanger security of Japan. The explanation was regarded by government opponents as an effort to throw the onus upon the emperor for any defect in the treaty.

Fifty men milled about the anteroom, wielding clubs and hurling ash trays and anything else they could lay their hands on. Several were cut about the heads and hands. Others were bruised and cut by crashing glass.

The dagger wielder was arrested. He was not a member of the Diet.

ST. JOHN EDITOR IS PROMOTED

SAINT JOHN, N. B., Feb. 6—The management of The Telegraph-Journal and The Evening Times-Globe announce that F. F. Jennings, managing editor of both papers for the last four years, had been promoted to the position of executive editor. He will be succeeded as managing editor by David B. Rogers, of Amherst, N. S., formerly news editor and European news representative of The Toronto Daily Star.

WINNIPEG STRIKE AREA IS QUIET

WINNIPEG, Feb. 6 (CP)—Quiet eigned tonight over Winnipeg's small strike area after a hurried police investigation into picketting and near-riot last night. Five men were slated to appear in police court tomorrow. Three charged with attempting to stop a girl worker from entering the Jacob-Crowley Cloak Manufacturing company plant. Charges against the other two alleged assault.

ONE SMALL MISSTEP AND HIS BRILIANT CAREER CRUMBLED

LONDON, Feb. 6 (AP) From the humblest beginning T. I. Mardy Jones built up his little things—small determinations piled on one another—until he became a member of parliament, a respected citizen, a recognized economist and an honored figure in society, industry and politics.

And now when he is 52 and the typical handsome figure of self-made success, a paltry thing has caused the whole carefully erected structure to crumble. He used his non-transferrable parliamentary railway pass for his wife, and in the court proceedings which followed he resigned from parliament.

Through his lawyer he explained he was engaged in the South Wales coal strike negotiations and urgently needed an important document from his home. He did not care to entrust it to the mail, so he asked his wife to bring it to London. Thoughtlessly he sent her two of the privileged tickets and she used them.

Today he and his wife were fined each $20.

He must go back to Penury, humiliated, his public position lost, and a poor man, for his only income was his parliamentry salary of $2,000 a year.

As he stumbled out of the court with his wife today, some speculated on the possibility that he would be driven back to spend his last years as he spent his first, grabbing for a scant living in a coal pit.

SO THIS IS ART

Rev. Paul Jordan Smith (above at right) is having a big laugh way back in Los Angeles over his success as "Pavel Jerdanowitch," heralded in Boston, New York, Paris and other art centers as a great ultra-modern painter and founder of the "disumbrationist" school of art, a sample of which, called "Aspiration," is also shown above. Rev. P. J. Smith said his wife's bona fide work was coldly received by critics, and so, to show them how art was done in a big way, he borrowed one of his wife's canvases, slopped on a lot of paint and exhibited the work as a joke. Many art critics are reported to have commented profoundly upon the original of the above "work," and several art journals gave this picture and others by the same "artist" favorable comment.—Associated Press Photos.

Thirteen Others Rescued as Boat Catches Fire, Silver Springs, Fla.

OCALLA, Fla., Feb. 6 (AP)—Thirteen persons were rescued and one died today after an explosion set fire to a glass bottom boat on Silver Springs, largest known springs in the world.

Rescuers, who plunged into the water from boats and shore assisted those who could not swim to safety. J. A. Mrs. Perkins was in a hospital suffering from shock. Several persons were burned slightly, but no one was seriously injured.

PATIENT FLOWN VANCOUVER FOR HOSPITAL CARE

VANCOUVER, Feb. 6—Suffering from an infection caused by an injury to his back sustained a year ago, Cornelius Reilly was admitted to the Vancouver General hospital this morning after being flown here from Port Townsend in a specially chartered plane.

An ambulance was waiting when the plane landed and Mr. Reilly was immediately rushed to the hospital where he is undergoing treatment. He was accompanied by his wife and attending physicians on the flight from Port Townsend.

Gene Myring piloted the plane, leaving Seattle this morning and picked up the patient at 10:30 a.m. The flight was made without incident.

EVACUATION OF NAPIER HAS BEER COUNTERMANDED

OTTAWA, Ont., Feb. 6. (CP)—Evacuation of Napier, one of the cities razed by the New Zealand earthquake, has been countermanded, it was announced tonight by J. W. Collins, trade commissioner for that dominion. He received a cablegram tonight from his government as follows:

"It is not now necessary to proceed with the evacuation of Napier, and many of the people are remaining in that city. Supplies of food and essentials are now ample. The railway has been restored and the general position is rapidly improving. The majority of the injured have been removed and are receiving medical and nursing attention."

Auto and Motorboat Have Strange Collision in the Flooded Streets of Brisbane

CONSPIRATORS, MURDER, TO HAVE HEARING SOON

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 6—(AP)—Trial of Nelson C. Bowles, millionaire and Irma G. Loucks, his onetime secretary, probably will begin at Hillsboro, Ore., some time this month, attorneys connected with the case indicated tonight.

COMMONS PARTY HEADS COMPARED GANG LEADERS

Amery Says MacDonald and George Not Unlike Capone and Moran

MORECAMBE, England, Feb. 6.—(C. P. cable)—Rt. Hon. L. C. M. S. Amery, former secretary of state for the dominions, who, in the house of commons a few days ago, compared the Liberal support of a Labor government with a gangland compact between "Al." Capone and "Bugs" Moran, of Chicago fame, tonight followed up the simile by assigning specific roles to each of the three political leaders.

"Scarface Mac" and "Slippery Dave", said Mr. Amery, alluding thus to Prime Minister MacDonald and Rt. Hon. David Lloyd George, "have fixed up a deal to take 'Honest Stan' for a ride." Mr. Amery suspected the existence of an undisclosed compact between the prime minister and Mr. Lloyd George.

"Just as much, and no more, political principle is involved in a compact of this kind," continued the former secretary, "as is to be found in the compacts made between the rival gangs of the Chicago 'racket'." In both cases the main object is to share "the loot."

Terrific Rains Cease But Flood Waters Come From Up Country

BRISBANE, Australia, Feb. 6.—(C. P. cable via Reuters)—All available police in Brisbane were rushed to the south side of the city tonight to warn inhabitants of an impending flood. More than 1000 persons are already homeless. Although the rains have now ceased, there is an enormous quantity of flood water up country which has still to find its way seaward.

The coastal districts within 100 miles north and south of Brisbane are flooded.

An unusual collision took place 70 miles south of this city, when an automobile owned by T. C. Lismore collided with a motor-boat which was travelling on the flooded main street.

When the ground floor of the telephone company was flooded out, a plucky girl operator, dressed in a swimming suit, climbed through an upper window of the exchange and kept the lines open for several hours.

Jury Exonerates Driver, Company, in Bus Disaster

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif., Feb. 6—(AP)—A coroner's jury holding an inquest today into the deaths of three persons resulting from the buring of a motor stage near here yesterday, exonerated John Weston, the driver, and the Pacific Greyhound line, the owners, of blame.

Testimony failed to definitely establish the identity of a sailor known as "Whitey" who gave his life in the blazing stage that others might be saved.

(CP)—The bulk of the $20,000,000 unemployment relief fund provided at the special session of parliament for contribution to public works and special relief in the various provinces has already been earmarked, according to a statement issued today by Hon. G. J. Robertson, minister of labor.

PREMIER RAMSAY MACDONALD, A MAN OF INTRIGUE, HURDLES OBSTACLES

Observers Prophesy Easy Surmounting of Motion of Censure Filed by Baldwin: MacDonald a Hard and Interesting Man to Analyse

LONDON, Feb. 6 (AP)—As Britain's second Labor government approaches the end of its second year in office, its prime Minister, James Ramsay MacDonald, appears to have but one more hurdle to surmount in order to finish the lap. Politicians believe that he not only will make the hurdle but afterward will find a comparatively clear road for his ministry until early in 1932.

In the political maneuverings which saved the government last week, and those which pushed it through the political shows of the year before, the hand of the tall, distinguished looking prime minister can be seen. The final hurdle represented by the motion of censure filed by Stanley Baldwin, Conservative leader, generally is believed to stand practially no chance of success when it comes up for a vote next Wednesday.

Of all those figures who have played a leading part in the great drama of British public life, MacDonald is one of the hardest to analyze. His detractors call him vain—to which his admirers retort that what psychologists call the defense reaction of a fundamentally shy nature is often mistaken for vanity. He had the reputation of being a particularly shy man to work with—yet those who are admitted to his close intimacy hail him not only as one of the most brilliant but the most lovable of men.

Several influences can be traced in MacDonald's life—hard days as a youth and young student in his native fishing village of Lossiemouth, Scotland, the deep affection for his wife, Margaret Gladstone, whom he married at the age of 30 in 1896, and who died in 1911.

The former premier made no official announcement but, replying to interpellations in the chamber of deputies today, said the government was resolved to prevent, within the limit of things possible, any speculation in wheat.

If M. Tardieu carries out his plan, his friends said, the announcement would be made in Winnipeg, Chicago, Buenos Aires, Bucharest and Paris.

TAKES A DEATH SENTENCE WITH NOT A QUIVER

PRINCE ALBERT, Sask., Feb. 6 (CP)—Without the flicker of a muscle, Peter Knudson, middle-aged trapper, heard late this afternoon a telegram had been received from Ottawa that executive clemency had been denied and that the sentence of death meted out by the judge must take its course. He will be hanged early Monday morning. The doomed man was convicted of the slaying of Wallace Baird, former trapper partner, in the lonely Nipawin country of northern Saskatchewan last fall.

Sheriff D. R. Seath, who delivered the message to the condemned man, said Knudson nodded his head, and, without a quiver of the hands holding up a book, resumed reading.

MINISTER MAY BE SUSPENDED THREE YEARS OR TRIED

Charges Against Bishop J. Cannon, Jr. Are Somewhat Clearer

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6 (AP)—The hearings of charges against Bishop James Cannon, Jr., of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, near an end tonight with the prelate facing the possibility of a three year suspension and a church trial.

Testimony aimed at the personal character of the bishop has been introduced inside the Mount Vernon Place Methodist church before the 12 investigating ministers. Documents reflecting on his conduct have been identified by witnesses as furnished by Mrs. Helen McCallum, who later became Bishop Cannon's second wife.

PRESENTS OWN DEFENSE

The accused bishop presented his defense today in a morning and afternoon session and tonight the 12 ministers are expected to begin deliberations on their verdict. If five of them find that the charges have no weight, the bishop will stand cleared, but if eight believe them to be true, he will be suspended and brought to trial before the general conference of the church in 1934.

GALLOPOLI HERO BURIED, MONTREAL

Lieut.-Col. C. M. MacNaughten, "Fighting Mac," Dies in Private Life

MONTREAL, Feb. 6—Son of a Scottish knight and a gallant figure in the Gallipoli campaign of the great war, Lieut.-Colonel Charles Melville MacNaughten, who died while an employee in the Canadian Pacific railway offices here, was buried today.

It is only 15 years since "Fighting Mac", darling of fortune, was making military history and blazing his name across the sands of Gallipoli, since he was lauded in every newspaper in the allied world for his heroism, received signal honor from the hand of the king. Now, he is dead, and a strange people will have only a fleeting memory of a middle-aged man, broken by ill health.

PRINCES ENJOY VISIT, PANAMA

PANAMA CITY, Feb. 6.—(AP)—Two of the world's most travelled royalties, the Prince of Wales, and his brother Prince George, arrived in Panama today and enjoyed a crowded program that included an aerial view of the Panama canal; a reception at the palace of President Ricardo Alfaro, and a round of golf.

The princes landed at Colon from the liner Oropesa which is taking them on their "good-will" journey to South America and after a brief welcome by diplomatic and military officials took a 30-minute flight over the canal.

They will leave early tomorrow on the Oropesa for Tallara, Peru, on their way to Buenos Aires where the Prince of Wales will open the British trade exposition next month

SCHIRRU WILL STAND TRIAL FOR PLANNING

May Be Executed by Being Shot in the Back

MAKES ATTEMPT COMMIT SUICIDE

Alleged Confession to Effect Plans Made for Months

ROME, Feb. 6—(AP) — Michele Schirru, must face trial before a special tribunal on a charge of planning to assassinate Premier Mussolini with a bomb. Under the law he may be executed by shooting in the back.

Today the police gave out the gist of a confession they said he made yesterday in the hospital where he was taken after an unsuccessful attempt to suicide at the end of a battle in a police station. In the scuffle he wounded three policemen.

The alleged confession admitted a plan for the assassination, Schirru said he had been an anarchist for years and had been plotting against Mussolini since last summer. In a hotel where he lived police found two high explosive bombs. They said Schirru had an American passport and had lived in New York and in Latin-America.

For a time, they said, he was correspondent for an anarchist newspaper in New York called the Hammer.

1000 WOMEN ARE HELD FOR TIME IN JAILS, INDIA

Are Arrested and Released After Auction Liquor Shop Licenses

AHMADABAD, India, Feb. 6. (AP)—Nearly 1000 women, many of them from the families of millionaire mill owners, were arrested today for picketing during an auction of licences for liquor shops.

All were released after the sale ended.

Those arrested, volunteers mobilized during the night for picket duty, had disobeyed police orders that no one approach the place where the sale was held.

Today's incident recalled the recent resolution adopted by the workers' committee of the national congress, which declared that picketing of shops dealing in liquor and foreign cloth was no part of the civil disobedience campaign, but was "an exercise of the citizens' ordinary right, so long as it remained strictly peaceful."

BY-ELECTION AT ISLINGTON LOOKS LIKE NOISY ONE

LONDON, Feb. 6. (CP Cable)—East Islington, it appears, is likely to develop into one of the noisiest byelections of recent years. Complaints were made in United Empire Crusade circles today that the rowdyism at Lord Beaverbrook's meeting last night, when at least four men were thrown out, was created with malice aforethought by Conservative supporters.

The Conservatives and Liberals alike assert the rowdy elements were imported from outside the constituency. More noise was added to the of loud-speaker motor vans. Each campaign today by the introduction candidate has at least one van, and they all made their appearance together today, touring the main streets of the division in an appeal for votes.

NATURE MOWS DOWN HUMANS INDISCRIMINATELY, NAPIER

NAPIER, N. Z., Feb. 6 (AP)—With her usual impartiality, nature dealt death in Tuesday's earthquake without regard to rank, age, sex or other classification.

Among 100 bodies so far identified are persons of every category. Young girls just entering a life of usefulness met the same fate as 14 men living out their last tired years in the old men's home.

Convicts in jail died at the same moment as men and women kneeling at communion service at the cathedral and nurses tending the sick in a hospital.

Almost half the identified dead are women and girls, and the complete list runs the whole scale of human classification.

Poor and rich, good and bad, young and old, men and women, boys and girls, wise and impudent—death reached out blindly and mowed them down with indiscriminate hands.

While sailors continued patrolling the streets of the ravaged towns today to prevent looting, reinforcements to the squads of rescuers risked their lives among the leaning walls and tottering ruins reaping the sad harvest of the disaster.

The known dead totals slightly more than 150 but the full list, if indeed it ever is known, will, in the opinion of the relief workers be considerably greater.

POPE PRACTICES FOR BROADCAST NEXT THURSDAY

ROME, Feb. 6 (AP)—Pope Pius XI already has begun speaking into a microphone in preparation for his first broadcast next Thursday when he will inaugurate the new Vatican radio station.

Using the beautiful microphone installed in his private office, the pontiff is submitting docilely but whimsically to a course of instruction through which radio experts and monsignors of his household skilled in diction are putting him.

Thus far his voice has not gone around the world as it will next week, but it is being recorded in the radio station wdich the Marquis Marconi, of wireless fame, himself built.

AGREE ON FARM RELIEF LOAN

LOOK FOR TARIFF CHANGES IN NEW BUDGET, OTTAWA

Cabinet Has Given Much Much Attention to Duty Valuation of Autos

OTTAWA, Ont., Feb. 6.—(CP)—Events are expected to move with greater rapidity between now and the date of the parliamentary opening. Announcement of the name of Canada's new governor-general is expected almost immediately. Developments are forecasted in the negotiations between Canada and the United States looking to the construction of the St. Lawrence deep waterways involving power production on a large scale.

In the meantime, preparations for the session are going ahead with every indication that the government has not changed from the position taken at the emergency session and subsequently that there will be a general revision of the tariff in the approaching budget.

Next step in the negotiations for the St. Lawrence development will be a note from Ottawa to Washington which will go forward in the near future.

During the week, the cabinet gave much consideration to the proposals of the automobile manufacturers and importers respecting the prices at which cars would be valued for duty purposes on entry into Canada. One proposal is for the price to be fixed discount below the list prices, the same percentage to apply to all cars. Although it has been stated that the government had decided on this procedure this was denied at the Ast block today.

Among other matters which are receiving the attention of the government at present is included the selection of a minister to Washington. There is no indication when the appointment will be made, but the general impression is that it will come soon. It is expected that the preparations of the sessional program will occupy the attention of the cabinet during the coming weeks. A busy session is anticipated, and the government will naturally be desirous of having business on hand for the members when they meet.

It is claimed that there is not a sufficient surplus of milk to warrant a milk condensary plant being established at Edmonton.

"Great Britain has more money invested in the Argentine than she has in Canada," said G. B. Stevens, Canadian Trade Commissioner.

Tommy Lennon and L. Madden, Greenwood, Big Barrier for Forks

GRAND FORKS, B. C., Feb. 6.—The local puck chasers, the Indians, gave away to the Greenwood Gorillas, 1-0, here tonight in a strongly contested battle.

No goals were scored until the third period when T. Lennon tallied for the visiting team.

The fast hockey which was witnessed here on previous occasions this winter was no equal to tonight's game and the record attendance of fans was treated to plenty of thrills.

The stone-wall play of Greenwood's guards, Tommy Lennon and Leo Madden, defeated every effort of the Forks boys to break through

STATES ALBERTA RELIEF WORK IS HANDLED FAIRLY

EDMONTON, Alta., Feb. 6.—Alberta is handling relief work by the most efficient and logical methods it is possible to devise. Attacks of the type indulged in by D. M. Duggan, Conservative leader, are "unfair, unreasonable and unwarranted," Hon. O. L. McPherson, minister of public works, declared in a vigorous defence of his department's policies during the throne speech debate at this afternoon's session of the Alberta legislature.

WINNIPEG, Man., Feb. 6. (CP)—Information on government losses on 1929 crop guarantees to the wheat pool was demanded in the Manitoba legislature today, but refused by Premier Bracken. SHAW DEFENDS ELGAR'S MUSIC

LONDON, Feb. 6 (AP)—Bernard Shaw has joined other outstanding men in a public protest against the treatment accorded Sir Edward Elgar in an article on modern English music contributed to a German reference book by Edward Joseph Dent, professor of music at Cambridge university.

The Protestants term the references to Elgar as "unjust and inadequate." Pointing out that Professor Dent gave but 16 lines to the composer, and said of him, "for English ears Elgar's music is much too emotional and not free from vulgarity."

Said Shaw:

"Elgar's music holds the same position in England as Beethoven's in Germany and the vulgarity of his more popular tunes is the vulgarity of Handel's 'See the Conquering Hero', or the finale of Beethoven's fifth."

Sir Edward Elgar's best known work is the "Pomp and Circumstance" series.

He Has Used Them for Twenty Years

"I used to be bothered with my kidneys and sore back," writes Mr. James Henry Last, Perkins Mills, P.Q. "I then used Dodd's Kidney Pills and felt well. I wouldn't be without them and keep them on hand year in and year out as my family also use them. When I feel any sign of weak back I take a pill and it makes me feel O.K. I have used Dodd's Kidney Pills for twenty years."

Dodd's Kidney Pills act directly on the Kidneys. For nearly half a century they have been a standard family remedy because people have tried them and found them good. 329

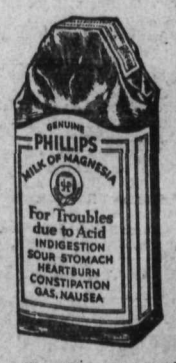
PAIN after eating



WHAT many call "indigestion" is very often nothing but excess acid in the stomach. The stomach nerves have been over-stimulated, and food sours. The corrective is an alkali, which neutralizes acids instantly. The best alkali known to medical science is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. It has remained the standard anti-acid with physicians in the 50 years since its invention.

One spoonful of this harmless, tasteless alkali will neutralize instantly many times as much acid, and the symptoms disappear at once. You will never use crude methods when once you learn the efficiency of this more pleasant way. A small bottle is sufficient to show its merit.

Be sure to get genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for more than 50 years in correcting excess acid. 50c a bottle; any drugstore. Complete directions for its many uses are enclosed with every bottle.

The genuine Milk of Magnesia is always a liquid—never a tablet. Look for the Phillips' name on bottle.

VENEER WORKS IS CREDITED WITH A SPLENDID YEAR

Output and Sales Maintained, Company on Dividend Basis

WORKING CAPITAL TRIPLE ORIGINAL

January Business Forecasts Good Year Ahead: Board Is Reelected

A highly successful business year from every angle was marked up by the British Columbia Veneer Works, Limited, in 1930, shareholders of this Nelson company learned at the annual general meeting, held at the city hall Friday night. This was evident both from the facts reported by the board of directors and the financial statement they submitted, and from facts given by word of mouth in the general discussion of the institution's affairs.

Among the facts emerging in the discussion was that local outlay of the company since it started, including for wages and material, apart from such expense as insurance and taxes, has amounted to $228,000, or practically a quarter of a million. Also, at the end of its third year of operation, and after paying the recent dividend in December, the company boasts a working capital that has tripled its original figures.

In addition to holding up production and sales in the face of a depressed condition in the timber industries generally, the Nelson veneer, made from mountain cottonwood of this district, is making steady progress in popularity, and constantly wider uses are appearing for the cottonwood panels, which beside being waterproof take a good finish. There are dealer agencies in every part of Canada for it.

ORDERS FROM COAST

A feature on which Manager George Dvorjetz was congratulated, apart from the outstanding success of the past year, was his recent securing of orders at the coast for three cars of Nelson veneer, this going into 1931's business. This business, secured competitively, came to Nelson, it is understood, because of the close texture of the cottonwood of this district, and because the Nelson plant has machinery for putting out the large sizes.

With these orders, the year 1931, in cars shipped and orders awaiting filling, is already ahead of 1930 at the same date, which is taken as auguring a good year ahead.

MAY START EARLY

If the stock of manufactured veneer warehoused at the plant keeps moving the way it has lately it is possible the plant will be started up earlier than last year, when manufacture was begun April 1.

So far as log supply is concerned, operation can start at any time, as the season's supply is already made. A contract has been given to boom the Lardeau logs that were lost in last year's high water, and they will be ready to move with the first rise. With those now yarded at Nelson, the season's supply can be said to be ready for manufacture.

In the report to the shareholders, which was signed by Dr. W. O. Rose, president, and W. M. Cunliffe, secretary, in submitting the annual statement for the year ending December 31 last, the board of directors said in part:

DIRECTORS REPORT

"The year just closed has been one of great uncertainty and depression in industry throughout the world, and it is therefore with considerable satisfaction your directors have to report that our business, in volume and profit, has very closely paralleled that of 1929. You will agree that this is exceptional.

"Everything possible has been done to increase business, with the result that sales in eastern Canada have practically doubled, and our product is establishing itself in that market. Sales on the prairies have been less, due to conditions there.

"Factory operations have been satisfactory and equipment kept in first class condition.

ON SOUND BASIS

"Points of interest on the balance sheet are that a net profit of $5,218.45 is shown for 1930, resulting in a total credit to the profit and loss account of $10,685.28, an initial dividend of 5 per cent was paid, depreciation has been provided for, the total remaining balance of organization expenses, $5613.44, has been written off, and debenture interest and sinking fund payments have been made.

"The policy to be pursued in 1931 will be one of holding down costs and continued effort to increase sales.

"Future prospects will of course be influenced by general conditions, but your directors have no reason to expect less favorable results in 1931.

"The directors would express their appreciation of the efforts of the management and staff under very trying conditions."

APPRECIATION

Dr. Rose, who was in the chair, paid a high tribute to Mr. Dvorjetz as manager, stating the directors were extremely pleased with the able way he had handled both the manufacturing and the sales side of the business.

On motion of W. S. King and C. F. McHardy, the meeting adopted a resolution congratulating the directors on the good showing, and thanking them for their efforts on behalf of the company.

ALL REELECTED

The entire board of directors was reelected, composed of Dr. W. O. Rose, G. F. Motion, W. M. Cunliffe, George Dvorjetz, J. A. McDonald and S. A. Williams, all of Nelson, and John Hunter of Winnipeg, with Mayor J. P. Morgan of Nelson ex-officio, representing the city's interest as guarantor of the bond issue.

At a meeting of the new board subsequently, attended by all but Mr. Hunter of Winnipeg and Mr. Cunliffe, the latter being in California, all officers were reelected, Dr. Rose being named again as president, Mr. Motion as vice-president, Mr. Cunliffe as secretary-treasurer, and Mr. Dvorjetz as managing director.

TWELVE APPEALS THROUGH LEGION DURING JANUARY

Month Saw 27 Interviews and 47 Letters on Adjustment Work

HELP IN HOSPITAL MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

Financial Report Shows Convention Cost Branch $788 Net

That 12 pension appeals were initiated, worked up, and formally submitted to the appeal tribunal through the machinery of Nelson branch of the Canadian Legion during January, was reported to the membership of this branch Thursday night by Secretary H. E. Thain. In connection with the branch's adjustment work, 27 interviews were held that exclusively related to pensions, and 47 letters were written.

This information came out as a result of a letter from the provincial command giving statistics on the adjustment work of the provincial office for November and December. Practically all the adjustment work for Vancouver service men is done through the provincial office, as well as a material portion of that for the rest of the province, over 300 appeals being handled in each of those months. The Nelson branch is one of the most active in the province in handling adjustment work, and it was decided in future to record statistics of this phase of the branch's activities.

CONVENTION COST

A report on the financial operation of the branch in 1930 was submitted by the executive. Staging of the provincial convention here last June, apart from some items borne by the provincial funds, cost $938, toward which the branch received a grant of $150 from the city. From its own funds the branch paid $788 on convention account.

The branch formally accepted a part in the coming membership drive for the Kootenay Lake General Hospital association, President Joe Holland naming E. M. Gillott, M. V. Allen, D. B. Crowther and H. H. Currie, to represent the Legion on the drive committee and to constitute two canvassing teams.

Six new members and two new associate members were accepted on ballot, and C. C. Nicolle was chosen sergeant-at-arms.

Is Your Back The Weak Point

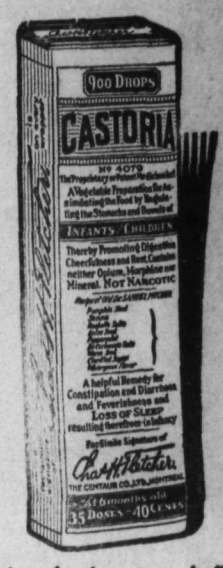
Then get your kidneys right by using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills

Very few people are in perfect health. There is a weak spot somewhere. When you get tired or your system gets a little run down you feel the effects at your weak spot.

If your weak spot is your back, then you may suspect that your kidneys are not in perfect order. The back aches or is weak and sore; you may have headaches; there will be dryness of the skin, pains in the limbs and disorders of the bladder.

The quickest way to regulate the kidneys is by using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. They are bound to be effective because they arouse the action of the kidneys, liver and bowels and thereby ensure the elimination of poisons from the system.

For TEETHING troubles



FUSSY, fretful .... of course babies are uncomfortable at teething time! And mothers are worried because of the little upsets which come so suddenly then. But there's one sure way to comfort a restless, teething child. Castoria — made especially for babies and children! It's perfectly harmless, as the formula on the wrapper tells you. It's mild in taste and action. Yet it rights little upsets with a never-failing effectiveness.

That's the beauty of this special children's remedy! It may be given to tiny infants—as often as there is need. In cases of colic and similar disturbances, it is invaluable. But it has every-day uses all mothers should understand. A coated tongue calls for a few drops to ward off constipation; so does any suggestion of bad breath. Whenever older children don't eat well, don't rest well, or have any little upset, a more liberal dose of this pure vegetable preparation is usually all that's needed. Genuine Castoria has Chas. H. Fletcher's signature on the wrapper. Doctors prescribe it.

A COLONIAL DINING ROOM

A reader friends has written to describe her Colonial dining room, which description she believes other women might find helpful:

"We moved into an old house which had a brick fireplace with one of those old ovens in the chimney (at one side). Taking my cue from this old-fashioned hearth, I have furished and decorated the room as follows:

"At the two windows I put ecru square-net glass curtains, reaching to the cream-painted sills (in fact, all the wood-work is painted cream). As this room gets only a couple of hours of sunshine, I first thought that I could not afford to shut out light by having overdrapes (which do hide a little light, don't they?). But I finally got round this trouble by fastening short iron 'cranes' at either side of each window and hanging my floral glazed chintz overdrapes on these cranes; each crane reaches only half way across a window, and is slender enough for the curtain rings to be slipped over it; when night comes, I swing the cranes in, close to the glass curtains, but during the day I swing them back from the window as if they were shutters, standing half open.

We repapered the soiled old walls with a plain ecru paper, which makes a fine background for our brown-framed etchings. Against the largest wall space we placed a chest of drawers, on which stands one of the now popular three-shelf closets for china (without glass doors—just with open shelves, except for a fancy edge molding which sort of frames the shelves all round). In the drawers I keep the table linens, silver, etcetera, and on the shelves, I have pewter plates standing upright, and lovely old blue-willow-pattern china.

Carrying out the blue note, I have used a figured blue rug on the floor, over sand-colored painted boards—(my floor, of soft wood, was our greatest problem! But after filling the wide cracks, painting it, and then varnishing over the paint, it offers a satisfactory narrow border around the large blue-and-buff colored rug.)

Our small dining table is of the old-fashioned drop-leaf design, accompanied by Windsor chairs. I also have a brown mahogany Governor Winthrop desk in one corner, where I keep recipes, make order lists and plan meals. My serving table is round, of "pie crust' design. A grandfather's clock adds dignity to the room, also. The blue note is further carried out in vases, candles, etcetera."

Eczema on Hands. Unable to Work. Healed by Cuticura.

"Eczema broke out on my face and was in the form of a rash. I used to scratch it and the irritation was sometimes unbearable. The eczema spread to my hands and I was unable to do my regular work or put my hands in water for over a month. They were so sore that I wore rubber gloves when I did any work.

"I read an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment so purchased some. After the first application I got relief and in two months I was completely healed." (Signed) Mrs. William Coward, R. R. 1, Lisgar, Que.

HEAD HURT?

WORK won't wait for a headache to wear off. Don't look for sympathy at such times, but get some Aspirin. It never fails.

Don't be a chronic sufferer from headaches, or any other pain. See a doctor and get at the cause. Meantime, don't play martyr. There's always quick comfort in Aspirin. It never does any harm. Isn't it foolish to suffer any needless pain? It may be only a simple headache, or it may be neuralgia or neuritis. Rheumatism. Lumbago. Aspirin is still the sensible thing to take. There is hardly any ache or pain these tablets can't relieve; they are a great comfort to women who suffer periodically; they are always to be relied on for breaking up colds.

UNIQUE HOBBY

A licence plate collector—Anita Page, well known movie player, is shown with a collection of "first editions" just by way of a novel hobby. Miss Page succeeded in securing the first licence plate of every state in the United States, so no matter where her fans live down there, she's got their number.

MRS. BRUCE SETS PLANE DOWN AT END WORLD TOUR

Concludes Flight in City of New York: Is Only 29 Years Old

NEW York, Feb. 6 — A 29-year-old mother looked up from a window of her country home in England last July, saw an airplane, and remarked: "I must learn to fly to keep from getting too old-fashioned. I am going to do just that this summer, and then I will fly around the world."

Mrs. Victor Bruce started her globe-girdling trip from Hastings, England, September 25, after only 40 hours of practice flight, and yesterday she put her 120-horsepower Bluebird biplane down on the turf of North Beach airport with the flying part of her trip practically ended.

She flew across Europe and Asia, took her plane by ship across the Pacific, and flew across North America from Vancouver, B. C.

A SMALL PLANE

The tiny airplane—too small for long flights over water, since it has a range of only 600 miles—will be put aboard the Ile de France, and Mrs. Bruce will sail with it Saturday to Havre, whence she will fly to Paris and then back to Hastings. She will get back to her husband and her 10-year-old son on St. Valentine's day.

The blue-eyed, brown-haired British woman, who is scarcely five feet, three inches tall, weighed 108 pounds when she left home, but lost 10 pounds during her 25,000-mile journey. However, she gained two medals and an automatic pistol.

MEDAL FOR DARING

One medal she received from the French authorities in Indo-China in recognition of her daring in the jungle. The other medal was given by Japan after Mrs. Bruce made the first solo flight over the Yellow sea, a distance of 500 miles. Incidentally, the Japanese decoration, a medal reserved for honoring feats in aviation, had never before been bestowed upon a foreigner.

The pistol was given to Mrs. Bruce by a British officer in India who was worried about her flying alone in the jungles without any protection.

MRS. OSBORNE IS HOSTESS, ROBSON

ROBSON, B. C., Feb. 6.—Mrs. Osborne was hostess at a charmingly arranged bridge party on Saturday arranged bridge party on Sated. The honors for the high score went to Miss Cameron and Bob Mayee, while consolations went to Miss F. Perrin and Mr. Mayee. Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Miss Mollie Cozens is the house-guest of her sister Mrs. Buchanan for a few weeks.

Miss Ruth McDiarmid is spending a week in Nelson.

SUN ROOM EXTRAS

FERNIE STUDENT MISS WEDDED TO GERMAN COUNT

Mis Audrey Mills Will Reside Shortly in East Africa

EDMONTON, Feb. 6—A romantic wedding and one of widespread interest in Alberta university circles, and in society took place at Edmonton on Sunday when Bernard Count Kern, a young German nobleman who is holidaying in Canada, married Miss Audrey Mills, a student in her third year arts at the University of Alberta.

Count Kern is a son of the late Leo, Count Kern and Louisa, Countess Kern of Berlin. He is a graduate in engineering of the University of Berlin and is at present holidaying in Canada after 12 years in the tropics, in South America, and in Africa.

Miss Mills is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Albert Mills of Fernie, British Columbia, and is very popular with the students at the university, and at Pembina hall where she has been in residence for three years. She is a member of Alpha Upsilon sorority.

It was during the summer holidays at Fernie that the young people first met and they did not see each other again until Count Kern's arrival in Edmonton, only two or three weeks ago. The wedding at McDougall church, Edmonton on Sunday afternoon was a very quiet one, the Rev. George Villett officiating.

Count and Countess Kern are stopping at the Macdonald hotel at Edmonton until Thursday. They will spend a few weeks at Fernie with the bride's family before going on to the coast, and expect to be a 12-month in Canada before returning to East Africa.

Mrs. Dunlop Falls on Cranbrook Street Breaking Shoulder

CRANBROOK, B. C., Feb. 6—Alan Wilmont, of Canfield and Wilmont of Woodstock, Ontario, and once of the East Kootenay Lumber company fo this city, is renewing acquaintances in the city en route for the east after a visit in Vancouver.

Mrs. Dunlop had the misfortune to fall on the ice on the sidewalk in front of the residence of A. C. Bowness, sustaining a very bady broken shoulder, the setting of which was a very difficult matter.

A Hobo party was staged by the members of the United Church Young People's society when a hilarious evening was enjoyed by about 30 members, clad in the garb of hobohemia. The guests were divded into hobo camps which held competitions and various games were indulged in. The evening concluded with a delicious supper.

Mrs. Alan Graham returned on Thursday from a months visit with her mother and sister in Vancouver.

CHAPTER THIRTY-THREE

Justin Kent left the room with Connie still sobbing on the bed. It was near the dinner hour, and presently the servant tapped on the door and announced the meal. Connie had no heart to appear at the table, and she sent word to her husband that she had a severe headache. This was the truth.

The early evening wore along and, spent emotionally, she fell into a light sleep. When she awoke it was near midnight. The house was perfectly still and dark.

Justin Kent, after he left her room, had not bothered her. For a time she lay on the bed looking out the window at the moonlight on the bay. In the garage, she knew Eddie Costello was waiting for her to come to him; drowsily she got up, in response to his silent summons, and obeyed.

Across the moonlit lawn Connie flitted like a guilty ghost. Not for long, she realized, could she bear the terrific nervous strain of his secretive double life. Even as her soft footsteps mounted the stairs to the room above, she told herself that soon, once and for all, it must end.

A faint stirring in the dark betokened the presence of Eddie Costello; at her coming he turned on the carefully shaded electric globe by his bed . it was strange that, in his presence, with his black record and all, she felt less under a strain than she was in the wondrous kindness of Justin Kent's company . . Strange, too, when she feared him so and was so repelled. But she did understand him—

He sat up on the bed with slow effort.

"The time seemed so long that I thought maybe you wouldn't come at all—but I knew, at that, you'd be here if you said you would," he told her, with a ring of satisfaction.

He put out his hands, and she went to him. The fever was gone from his grasp, and he pulled her down sitting beside him. He started, in his old habitual way, to put his arm around her but she forestalled him.

"You mustn't, Eddie. You forget that things are different now."

The pupils of his smoky blue eyes widened.

"Things will never be different with me, Connie—as far as you're concerned. I know you're married to somebody else, but I can't believe it. It drives me wild every time I think of it. I could kill that guy!"

Connie's heart jerked violently. If she could only calm him . . get him away . .

"If you loved me once—I don't see how you could want to make me unhappy now . ."

"I ain't got much religion, Connie," Eddie declared intensely, "but I believe that when two people loved each other like we did there is something to it more than just going through a marriage ceremony. You belonged to me once, and by God you belong to me forever!"

Something stormed inside Connie like a deep chord struck on a heavily stringed instrument. Never, even in their married days, had Eddie Costello vibrated with such feeling. A poignant, aching pity—not for Eddie alone but for anyone who had so squandered happiness—flooded Connie's heart.

"Why did you wait till it was too late, Eddie? And now—why do you keep on being crooked. In the name of God why can't you take your medicine like a brave man and leave me alone?"

His hands trembled.

"Because I'm a fool, sweetheart . . I've cursed myself a million times. Oh, I know I've done you wrong, but it was never because I didn't love you, Connie."

"Leave love out, Eddie—there was the robbery—after you'd given me your word of honor to go straight! You surely can't be all bad—yet you are never quite able to do the big, honorable thing."

"It's too late for that stuff now."

"No it isn't, Eddie. Everybody always has one more chance—no matter how bad things look."

Eddie Costello gripped his teeth. "I tried to go straight, for your sake, Connie, but I didn't have the stuff to go through with it. The old gang was too strong for me. I was flat broke. I thought I could pick up some easy money, and we could beat it for the west and start all over again. And it was only one chance in a hundred that I flopped! I lost on a hundred to one shot"

"You can still beat the game, Eddie."

"How?"

"By clicking all down the line on the level."

She looked at him steadily to judge the effect of her words. Slowly her heart began to sink. Eddie Costello's face hardened into a surly mask; there was a wolfish curl to his lips that was almost a sneer.

"Nothing doing," he said shortly. "What you think is the straight thing is to give myself the worst of it. You want me to surrender to the cops I've got a chance in a thousand to win this time, and if I win I'm after big stakes. I'm after my freedom, and money—and you!"

"You're licked before you start, Eddie."

He looked at her craftily. "You wouldn't turn me over to the cops. I'm sure of that! Yes, I'd bet my life on it! What you don't realize is that I'm a damned dangerous man at this minute, Connie!"

Eddie moved slightly on the cot, and suddenly Connie saw something darkly metallic in his hand—a blue steel automatic!

How Men Propose

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX

An Authority on Problems of Love and Marriage

A young man—in fact, several young men—have written me on the subject of proposals! One asks is there isn't some book from which he could get a few ideas. Another—and this a very shy one—wants to know if he hadn't better write as he's afraid his courage may lapse at the last moment. A third humbly asks. "What does a guy say, usually?"

There are as many different ways of proposing as there are proposers. If you're romantic you'll probably wait for a moonlight night with a Hawaiian orchestra sobbing out melting music; if you're practical you may delicately put a few questions as to the young lady's knowledge of cooking and the domestic arts. You may quote poetry, or you may quote your income.

Styles in proposals change, as styles change in everything—clothes, consciences, cookery, politics, morals and hair cutting. Once, and not so very long ago—about the time Napolean was making over the map of Europe—it was the thing for a young man to go down on his knees when he offered his hand and heart to a maid. There was a great deal of deference shown to women in those days—but, to balance that, her husband could sign away her property and her children.

Funny things happened (sometimes in regard to those kneeling proposals, Gibbons, who wrote "The Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire" and was one of the greatest historians, went down on his knees to propose to Mlle. Curchod, the mother of Madame De Stael. The learned gentleman was fat and not as agile as he once was. After suffering the humiliation of a rejection, he found he couldn't rise, and two husky men servants had to be summoned to assist him to his feet.

Today proposals are extremely offhand. One of my correspondents wrote me that she had given "all the help any girl could" to bring the young man to the point but without success. Then one evening after work—they were both employed by the same firm—they were walking home together, window-shopping. They paused to look at a glittering display of the latest things in electrical equipment.

"Look, see that nice little waffle-iron," the girl said without the faintest idea that it would lead to anything important.

And the young man said: "How would you like to bake waffles for me as a steady job?"

They were married and are both living happily from all appearances.

How different this waffle-iron proposal was from those of even her mother's day. Then, the young man was apt to consult the girl's family, before asking the girl. In fear and trembling he went first to her father and told him what his prospects were. And father inquired if he were sure his means were sufficient to maintain the girl in the state in which she had been accustomed to live. If these questions brought out satisfactory replies, then perhaps mother put in a timid oar and asked about smoking and other propensities.

The young man asked the girl, whose decision depended largely on what Mamma and Papa thought about her suitor. Unless she had a great deal of independence of character, she "took or left" according to parental advice.

A proposal is always a compliment—the highest compliment a man can pay a woman. So other things being equal—that is, if you're not positively aged or a widower with eight children, or the lady's an heiress and you're a near down-and-outer—she'll be flattered by a proposal, even if she doesn't say "yes."

B. C. Veneer Works Makes Progress

British Columbia Veneer Works, Limited, a Nelson company, completed another successful year and made plans for the coming year at an annual meeting last night. Annual reports show that the local plant has done exceptionally well in face of adverse times. The B. C. Veneer plant held up production during the year 1930 despite the fact that the timber industry in this province had a poor year. Its shipments were practically the same as the year previous. And as if to augur well for 1931, the company in January just past, has started with extra sales, these in the Vancouver market where the Nelson product must compete with a home product.

In three years of operation the B. C. Veneer Works has distributed a quarter of a million dollars in Nelson, outside of taxes, insurance, etc. This has been distributed in wages and in material. Another interesting feature of the reports is the fact that the working capital is now three times as much as when the plant was started, and after dividends have been paid.

This happy state of affairs in the local industry which is a growing one, is admittedly largely due to the ability of and hard work of George Dvorjetz, the manager, and the good judgment and backing shown by the directors of a purely Nelson company.

Unemployment in Canada

It is reassuring to learn from figures compiled by the Dominion bureau of statistics that there was less unemployment in Canada in 1930 than in any year since 1921, with the exception of 1929.

This may not be a perfect picture of employment conditions, for the reason that the statistics are made up from the reports voluntarily sent in by employers. Not all employers make reports to the bureau. Most of the large employers make returns showing the number regularly on the pay rolls. But no record is kept, and probably none is possible, of casual employment, nor of employment farms.

But when large established firms are carrying their usual number of employees, casual employment is commonly in proportion. Certainly when factory staffs are cut down, the same conditions tend to make temorary jobs scarce. The conclusion is that the outside field covered by the reports to the bureau employment conditions generally were much the same as shown by these reports.

One fact is plain: that, whether the total sum of employment was more or less than the report would indicate, unemployment has been getting more attention than it did in any preceding year. From the Dominion Government to the municipality, and from the transcontinental railways to local employers, there has been a disposition to co-operate in keeping men at work, and to give relief to those for whom work could not be found.

If, as the report suggests, the situation has not been as bad as some represented and many believed it to be, there has been and is national effort to curb unemployment and to avert it consequences such as has not been made before, and which beyond question has been largely effective. Canada has no reason to be ashamed of the way in which the unemployment difficulty has been handled, nor of the success that has been attained.

With surveys completed from Taghum hill road which will replace the present grade, it will not likely be long before construction work starts. After the new road is built motorists will have to find something new to boast about. For years a car that made Taghum hill on high had the motor and pep that could be bragged about.

Yesterday's news went to the extremes. In Kansas City a man died on the operating table, but they brought him back to life by injecting Adrenalin into the muscles of his heart. In Chicago a perfectly alive man was nailed up in a coffin and left to die. But he lived and was rescued.

Seen and Heard in NELSON

(By J. B. C.)

Brotherly love is a good title for anything from a Sunday sermon to a newspaper yarn. It was in a local restaurant the other morning attempting to eat a small salad and read a book while, he radio was booming and several chaps were enjoying a few arguments and discussing all sorts of happenings from Captain Campbell's daring race, to appendicitis operations and lung explosions. Among the crowd were two brothers. I have known them for years. Pretty soon one says, "let's hit the hay. I'm sleepy as the devil." No response from the brother. Again the question was repeated, but with a gentle slap to the back. He came out of his doze.

• • •

"What's the use of going to bed?" drously asked the brother so addressed. "You know darn well you swipe the covers every time you roll over. All I do is lay awake half the night freezing. And the other half of the night I am trying to pull the covers my way."

• • •

"Oh, you're no saint yourself," replied Brother No. 1. "Just because I have more avoirdupois than you, I am the goat." Then there ensued a long winded argument about just who owned the covers. And I thought to myself, they are really brothers. I have always thought that I was the only brother in the world who scrapped with my own brothers. In fact mother used to tell us that. But I have found out differently. I don't know of any two people in the world who scrap more than two brothers unless they are two sisters.

In passing down Water street yesterday afternoon I recalled a tremendous fire of some years ago which wiped out the engineering works, the shingle mill and several other places. This was when I was quite a youngster, and I can remember quite clearly the fierce blaze that kept Nelson's fire department so busy. Starting on the Water front the fire swept the engineering works and the shingle mill. Jumping the track it attacked several small shacks fronting the hospital. Fanned by a high wind burning embers were carried far. This resulted in the destruction of an old laundry of Water street, now residence, and finally in a fire in the residence on High street now occupied by Arthur Keeler. I can remember quite plainly going to the fire minus stockings, and how my little legs were blistered. That was a long time ago it seems.

And as I came up town on the car I noticed Fred Waters swinging down Front street with a hand in his overcoat pocket . . . And he nodded a greeting to Jim Joy, motorman on the street car . . . On Baker street Bert Rowley was hiking homeward with a parcel under his arm . . . And Pat Gallagher, with his hands in his pockets, was talking with a lady . . . And J. Young, recent arrival from Cranbrook, was taking his little daughter into the 15 cent store . . . And in the mayor's office I noticed Roy Sharpe buttonholing the mayor . . . And I wondered what was on foot anyway . . And then, in digging through an old file of 37 years ago, I came across a story which announced that the C. P. R. would carry any passenger from the Atlantic to the Pacific ocean . . . For the modest sum of $40 . . . And I thought how times had changed . . . And on reading further I learned that there was a rate war on and that the $40 . . . Entitled a passenger from the east . . . To be transported to Vancouver . . . On to Victoria . . . Or Seattle, Portland or California . . . And all at the same prime, $40 . . . Who said times have not changed?

A chap named William Sturgeon finished a jail term here recently, and following that was ordered deported to "his native land in Ireland". However, the day following the announcement of Sturgeon's deportation, the Mr. Sturgeon of Nelson became the guest at several farewell parties, so I have heard.

• • •

No. I hope this has corrected a wrong impression that has gone the rounds. Of course our Bill Sturgeon does not mind the parties in the least, and I do not believe he would pass up a trip to Ireland with all expenses paid. But never having been in jail . . . . that's what he says . . . . he of course can't qualify for deportation. On top of that he hangs his hat in Nelson. This is his home town. He can qualify, and belongs to the membership of the Old Timer's association. But with St. Patrick's day not so far away I would suggest that Bill then stages a coming-out party. It would be a real Irish affair. Bill could croon "Eleven more months and nine more years" and "Where the River Shannon Flows". I have one recommendation. Mr. Sturgeon might apply to have his name changed.

Mussolini is second "because he averted from his country a revolution and placed Italy in the first rank of world powers."

The third selection is Maurice Chevalier. Paramount film star, "because he is one of the few international stars of the talking screen to be unaffected by his success.

How often when we address someone, and ask them what they are doing, does the answer come back, "just thinking"? I'll bet the average Nelsonite hears that expression every day. Probably that same thing started the Colgate university in the United States on a funny mission. The university has started a research into the question of what a man thinks about when he thinks he thinks. That is just about as important as attempting to find out whether a baby that laughs is smarter than one that looks puzzled. Personally leaving old Colgate to its task, I think what you think should not enter my thoughts. Don't you think thoughts are private affairs? If you think I think the same thoughts you thought, think what a thoughtless world this would be. Wait a minute. I think I'll think this over.

"Traffic Accidents Caused by Defective Eyes"

An appalling number of auto drivers have defective vision. Because primitive man required vision which would be effective chiefly for distant seeing rather than upon near objects, there are thousands of automobile drivers who have defective vision operating cars in every city in the United States according to Dr. Edwin H. Silver, Chairman of the National Advisory Commission on Vision for Motor Drivers of the American Optometric Association. He indicated that many traffic violaters who appear stupid, clumsy and mentally deficient are actually so because of poor eyesight.

He said that the primitive people were required to focus their vision on near objects for a few moments at a time if the occasion demanded, but for the most part they looked at distant objects. Within the past few generations, he continued, the eye has been subjected to the tyranny of print and sentenced to a treadmill form action for which it was not originally intended.

"In five minutes of modern reading," Doctor Silver said, "the eye makes, ordinarily more than 100 separate movements and as many fixations, each with a remarkable degree of accuracy."

He said that a number of generations of evolutionary development would be required to develop eyes capable of performing the tremendous amount of work now being required of eyes.

"Traffic experts all over North America," said Doctor Silver, "point to the importance of good vision in the operation of a motor vehicle. None of the special senses plays so vital a part in the driving of a car as that of vision. Many of the accidents at railroad crossings are the result of defective vision. Stopping at a railroad crossing is a first essential in safety, but even that is valueless if the vision is so impaired that rapidly approaching danger cannot be seen.

"The eye works on the principle of the ordinary camera, with the retina, a delicate tissue in the inner portion of the back of the eyeball, acting as a photographic plate. The lens serves to bring the rays to a focus making a picture on the retina. If the eyes are defective, the result will be a blurred indistinct picture.

"To cut down the number of rapidly increasing motor accidents," concluded Doctor Silver, "a thorough optometric examination of the eyes of every motor driver should be made."

Find a Title of 1685

A copy of a faded, crinkled parchment, written and signed by Thomas Dongan, governor of the province of New York, in 1685, was an important exhibit set forth before Justice James A. Dunne in Richmond county supreme court, New York, recently by lawyers for the owners of property condemned for the Rockaway boardwalk, whose right to a 12-million-dollar award for their land is being contested by the city.

The parchment was the original copy of the Palmer grant, or title, to the land which was condemned. Leonard M. Wallstein, counsel for the city, had asserted that there was never a clear title to the land, signed by the governor, and the specific award of 1½ million dollars for land between high water and low water mark was excessive, because this land as not mentioned in the original grant.

Charles S. Noyes, one of eighty-nine lawyers engaged by the property owners, produced a copy of the original, showing not only Governor Dongan's signature, but the words specifying that the grant extended to low water mark. Mr Noyes did not say where he obtained the copy.

An auctioneer had been found guilty of gross fraud.

"The sentence is 10 years,' 'said the judge.

"Ten, I am offered," replied the prisoner absent-minded. "Any advance of 10?"

Foster's Weekly Weather Forecast

WASHINGTON, February 7.—Storm wave of moderate force, expected to cross continent during week centering on 2, was expected to cause seven day period following storm center to average below normal temperatures; this seven day period is expected to average cold and stormy, but precipitation during period is not expected to be heavy excepting central and northern Pacific slop where the average season brings a heavy increase at this time and established conditions for this period indicate above normal precipitation. Storm wave of moderate force, expected to cross continent in southern transcontinental storm path during week centering on 11, will cause moderate warm wave during passage of storm center and a moderate cold wave following storm center; this storm center is expected to increase as it moves eastward, causing greatest extremes in north-central Great Central valleys, Great Lakes and eastern part of continent. No very severe nor dangerous storms are expected in North America during February; greatest extremes and storm force during month will be expected on west coasts of Europe and northern Africa and on Atlantic ocean near these coasts. Moderately severe storm wave, expected to cross continent during week centering on 20, will be a warm storm center, move well into south and cause greatest storm force and precipitation of months; this storm wave will be expected to cause warmest temperature extremes of month, another one of the open periods of present winter forecasted to extend far into the north; this period may encourage very early planting in far south, but I believe it will be well to wait a few days for planting in southern frost belt or where frost is usual at this time of year or later. Precipitation of February is expected to be well distributed over the continent, furnishing early Spring moisture and some sub-soil moisture to most areas. Westward spread of precipitation, forecasted to occur during January and February, is taking place about as expected, bringing fair to good moisture to western parts of sections, 1, 3 and 5 and all of 7 and 8; this feature will be expected to continue during February and March, giving ample subsoil moisture to most all of Great Central valleys and west of Rockies countries for Spring planting, which will be muchly needed in most areas before end of season. But remember that I have forecasted no real drouth for any area in North America during 1931 season. Map of North American weather sections and some explanations will be sent to those who address Ned W. Foster, Box 1930, Washington, D. C., enclosing return postage; these are the sections, numbered from 1 to 9, often referred to in these bulletins. This offer does not include any special forecasts of any kind, but does include any explanations that may interest the reader.

That Body of Yours

By JAS. W. BARTON, M. D.

ULCER OF THE STOMACH

One of the commonest ailments is ulcer of the stomach or of the first part of the small intestine (duodenum) into which the stomach empties its contents. It is called gastric ulcer when in stomach the duodenal ulcer when in the small intestine.

An ulcer on the skin is bad enough, but you can see what a serious matter an ulcer on the lining of the stomach can be. What it needs is rest and freedom of irritation.

Now the individual has to eat, and this draws out the gastric of stomach intestinal juice to digest the food. For a long time it was thought that it was the food getting into the ulcer that caused the pain, but it was later shown that it was the acid in the stomach digestive juice (hydrochloric acid) that was the real cause.

Thus the use of an alkali, baking soda or other alkali, to overcome the acid, became the treatment for immediate relief of the pain, and alkalis are still the main factor in treating and curing the ulcer.

Now how does an ulcer get started? Research men are still unable to tell us the exact cause, but it is generally admitted that it is not the stomach itself that is so much at fault, but some general condition of the system.

As you know the outstanding symptom is distress in the region of the stomach which comes on at a definite time after eating. In some individuals it is two hours, in others three, and in others it may be four or more hours. In about half the cases it is really more of a discomfort pressure or fullness than pain, and in the other half it is an actual pain which may be a boring or gnawing, cramplike or cutting nature.

And the pain is always relieved by taking food or a dose of baking soda or other alkali.

Now there are two things for ulcer patients to remember. Dr. Ralph C. Brown, Chicago, shows that medical treatment results in a permanent cure in about 50 per cent of the cases and another 30 per cent get relief; about 20 per cent require surgery for a cure. Further, he states that the reason for the poor results in medical treatment in some cases was because the patients did not continue the treatment for the length of time that was really necessary.

The second point. The idea that cancer followed ulcer was not proven in his experience.

CAPT. MALCOLM CAMPBELL BREAKS WORLD'S SPEED RECORD FOR MIDGET CARS, SPEED OF 94.031 MILES, HOUR

Plans to Rest for a Week Before Returning to England

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla., Feb. 6.—Captain Malcolm Campbell, 46-year-old king of the world's fast race-car drivers, today established his second automobile speed record in two days, on the ocean speedway here.

Having hung up a record of 245 miles an hour for cars of unlimited piston displacement yesterday, the veteran knight of the roaring road came back today in a midget machine and established a new mark of 94.031 miles an hour for automobiles with a piston displacement of less than 45 cubic inches.

Campbell now plans to rest here for a week or so and then return to England to enter competitive automobile racing on speedways in that country.

He previously had announced he might try for new records for five kilometers and five miles before returning to England but today issued a formal statement, saying he had abandoned such plans.

ALREADY HOLDS DISTANCE RECORDS

Campbell said, inasmuch as he already holds the world's record for five kilometers and five miles, established in South Africa in 1929, "It will not be worth the time and expense involved, owing to the uncertainty of beach and weather conditions," to attempt to set new marks for those distances.

He said, however, that should his records for the mile, five kilometers and five miles be surpassed in the future, his Bluebird racing car will be called on to defend its title.

Campbell's first run south today over the measured mile in his midget car was clocked at 38.27 seconds for a speed of 94.069 miles an hour. His north run over the same course was timed at 38.30 seconds for a speed of 93.95. His average time for the mile was 38.285 seconds and his average speed 94.031.

The average speed over the kilometer, laid out within the measured mile, was 93.968 miles an hour. His speed on the first run south over the kilometer was 93.98 and on the north run 93.948.

KNOWING RULES GIVES EDGE

By AL DEMAREE
(Former Pitcher New York Giants)

The golfer who knows all the rules and observes all of them is as rare as a player without an alibi.

Here's the latest interpretations of the executive committee of the U. S. G. A. on some tricky questions that started arguments.

Heres' one—"A ball given up as lost may not be played if found later."

Here's another that causes argument.

"In match play there is no penalty for striking the flagstick when it has not been removed or is not attended by either side".

Here's a much disputed one:

"In any handicap match the honor is determined by the net score at the preceding hole."

And this— "The player is the sole judge as to when his ball is unplayable. It may be declared unplayable at any place on the course except in water or casual water."

Paste this in your hat and win some arguments next spring.

TOMMY LOUGHRAN STAGES COMEBACK

The former light - heavyweight champion stepping blithely around in the ring in the fleet style that made him the stylist of the 175-pounders, jabbed, hooked and crossed Baer with every punch in the boxing guide. He dazzled Max at long range, ridiculed him with his skill in the clinches, and teased him into flurries of wild swinging that set the whole crowd to laughing.

The decision of Referee Jack Dempsey, handling his second match of the night, and the two judges, was unanimous. The Associated Press score card gave Loughran all the 10 rounds.

In Algiers the people who have something to sell cry their wares from a little stall in the market place. And those who buy saunter from stall to stall making their purchases. But in Nelson we arrange things somewhat better.

When we want to sell something quickly we advertise it for sale in THE NELSON DAILY NEWS CLASSIFIED WANT AD SECTION—and attract interested prospects who are immediately in need of what we have.

BEAVERBROOK AND CANDIDATE HAVE TROUBLE, MEETING

East Islington Appearance Greets Empire Crusaders With Cat-Calls

LONDON, Feb. 6—(C P cable)—Empire Crusaders, Conservatives and Communists engaged in hot encounters at a meeting in East Islington division last night, called in support of Brig.-Gen. A. I. Critchley, by-election candidate of the Crusaders and Lord Rothermere's United Empire party. The general is a native of Calgary, Alta and had a notable record in the war.

Lord Beaverbrook, the chairman, was interrupted, booed and hissed and several members of the audience were so threatening that two policemen had to escort him from the hall at the close of the meeting. The majority sentiment of the gathering, however, was with the speakers.

BEAVERBROOK IS BOOED

As soon as Lord Beaverbrook ascended the platform the booing broke out at the back of the packed hall. This lasted several minutes. The rising of Lord Beaverbrook was the signal for a scuffle to break out in the middle of the hall. An anti-Crusader, causing most of the scuffle, was ejected.

The newspaper peer was interrupted frequently during his five minute speech as was General Critchley, at the start of his address.

General Critchley criticized the Conservatives for their "do-nothing Empire policy," while in power. The leader of the Conservatives, he declared, never moved unless he was pushed. At this point in the candidates address another fierce scuffle broke out and lasted for five minutes.

SPEAKS AGAIN

After the hall had been quieted and the general was finished, Lord Beaverbrook seized the opportunity to speak again and to refer to his differences with Mr. Baldwin. This time he was hardly interrupted at all.

The uproar started again, however, at question-time. The center of hostile operations shifted to the platform when a man attempted unsuccessfully to reach the table of the chairman (Lord Beaverbrook). This started general fighting which lasted for 10 minutes. Extra police had to be called in.

Several men refused to remove their hats during the national anthem and they had them knocked off.

SHORT CIRCUIT CAUSES FIRE BELL TO CLANG

Caused by a short circuit on the control board, the bell in the local fire hall disturbed the quiet atmosphere Thursday night between 9:30 and 10 o'clock. The bell rang at intervals for some minutes before the trouble was adjusted.

Imaginations of many Nelsonites were wandering as the bell continued its slow clanging. Many looked for a fire but could not find it. Numerous people called the office of The Nelson Daily New for information. Some thought it was a fire and others thought the Catholic church bell was tolling.

COMMUTERS SAY THEY SWIM TO WORK, BRISBANE

BRISBANE, Australia, Feb. 6—(AP)—It has been raining so hard in southern Queensland for the past week that some commuters from the suburbs said they had to swim from their homes to the railroad station and change there from bathing suits to business clothes before they went to work.

Sixteen inches of rain have fallen in the last 24 hours and many homes have been evacuated in the low-lying districts. The Brisbane river probably will exceed the level of the big flood of 1908.

WINNIPEG WHEAT CLIMBS HIGHER

Chicago Bullishness Bolsters Up Price Regardless Falling Export

WINNIPEG, Man., Feb. 6.—(CP)—Although export demand dwindled today the wheat market managed to climb fractionally on the strength of bullishness at Chicago. Canadian wheat was being neglected in the export field, it was reported, while Australia and Russia continued shipment of wheat at prices far below Canadian levels.

Advances of 1½ cent to ⅝ cent were marked up at the close of trading. May wheat moved ½ cent higher to 60¾. July and October scored gains of ⅝ cent each, the former at 62¼ and the latter 66½ cents per bushel. Cash wheat also succeeded in reaching fractionally higher points but coarse grains were unchanged.

TRADERS BID THE NEW YORK BOARD UP IN SPECIALS

United States Government Bonds Climb to a New Level

NEW YORK, Feb. 6 (AP)—Professional traders saw fit to bid the stock market up today, but most of their interest was in specialty shares.

Late weakness of the rails attracted selling in other departments and final prices throughout the market were under the top, with net gains in the leaders reduced to fractions.

The strongest stocks were those favored with special sponsorship. Auburn Auto soared 8 points and held most of the rise. Worthington Pump, U. S. Industrial Alcohol, Diamond Match, Burroughs Adding Machine, Curtis Publishing, Ingersoll Rand and Radio "B" preferred closed 1 to more than 3 higher. A few tobaccos also rallied. At their best prices American Can, American Telephone, U. S. Steel, Westinghouse, New York Central and a few other pivotal issues had somewhat more than recovered Thursday's losses. But in the late selling Central broke 2¾ net, Atchison 1¾ and Baltimore and Ohio, 1 and members of the industrial and utility families finished the day with nominal improvement. Oils, motors and coppers were steady and dull. Sales approximated 1,700,000 shares.

Government obligations of the United States and Germany shared the spotlight in the bond market today.

Corporate investment issues again displayed a firm tone but the bulk of the activity was concentrated in a comparatively small list. Second grade bonds were uncertain in their movements.

The notable strength United States governments have displayed this week enabled them to climb quarter of a point on the average today.

The vitality of German issues including some municipal and industrial obligations was attributed to reports Germany will obtain a $32,000,000 loan from French and American bankers.

GRADER MAKING A NEW SURFACE

Rutted Earth Surface of the Trail-Castlegar Road Is Being Planed

Grading a Kootenay highway in the dead of winter is not often done, but it is now in progress between Trail and Castlegar, on the Nelson-Trail highway

Until the snowfall of Thursday afternoon, the greater part of the road from Trail to Castlegar, including all the low portions, has been denuded of snow and ice by the warm weather, and the heavy traffic has deeply rutted the actual ground itself.

Wednesday the grader that had been planing down the ruts of frozen snow on the Rossland-Trail highway, was started on the Trail-Castlegar section, in actual earth, to give a new surface. This work was still in progress Thursday when the new snow fell.

TORONTO STOCKS SHOW LEANING TOWARD GAINS

Five New Highs and Six New Lows Are Established in Session

TOONTO, Ont., Feb. 6.—(CP)—While losses exceeded gains by a narrow margin in today's session of the Toronto stock exchange the line of least resistance appeared to be toward higher levels. The majority of representative issues remained unchanged. Some made fractional gains while a few closed slightly lower. Weakness was most noticeabel in the miscellaneous section and with those issues that appear only at odd intervals.

Total sales 10,990 shares.

Some indication of the difficulty experienced in trying to strike a trend may be had from the fact that Consumers Gas gained 2½ points to 185½, one of the largest gains of the day, on a turnover of only one share. Similarly in Consolidated Smelters, the issue lost 1½ points on a turnover of only two shares.

Five new highs were established on the day's movement and six new lows. The new highs included Bell Telephone at 150½ (with the close at 150, down 1), Canada Dredge at 34½, up 2¼; Dome Mines at 10.95, up 35 cents, and Canada Malting at 15, up ½. The new lows included Canada Car, Canners Convertible, Canada Smelters, Power Corporation and Standard Paving preferred at 77, off 2¾.

WORK COMMENCES ON VERNON FILL

Will be About 130 Feet Long: Near 90 Feet Cribbing Is Needed

ayubrfgu usinLedcoostess et es

Work has now commenced on the Vernon street fill adjoining the Union Garage which was recently gutted by fire. Some 90 feet of cribbing will be required, besides an extra 40 feet which will be filled. Electric light poles taken down by the city last year, when a new line system was installed, will be used in the cribbing. The fill will be about 10 feet in width and about 15 feet deep at the lowest part.

Cribbing only, will be done at present. Material taken from the work to be done on Baker street between Hendryx and Cedar streets, will be used. The fill-in will be gravelled over until the ground has settled and macadam will probably be laid on the new section in a year's time.

The Baker street work should commence within the course of a few weeks, according to Boyd C. Affleck, city engineer.

B. C. Municipalities' Finances Are Good

Marked Improvement Shown Municipalities Past 10 Years, While Total Debenture Debt Has Shown Only Small Increase

By E. B. McDERMID
President of the British Columbia Bond Dealers' Association, in the Monetary Times

Stupendous development which has marked the past 10 years throughout Canada has been particularly evident during the period in the case of British Columbia. While the development there has, possibly, been more rapid in proportion to the population, yet because of that smaller population it has also been more noticeable. The accompanying statistics will serve to illustrate.

For the moment we are particularly concerned in the financial development of our municipalities and industries. At the end of the year—1930, the now familiar saying "No investor has ever lost a dollar in B. C. municipals," still holds good. We have had but one default in the history of the province—the city of Greenwood, for $54,000, and this will, I think, in time, pay interest, and sinking fund in full. The city of Port Coquitlam has for several years been one year behind in interest payments but is gradually improving its position. All other municipalities are in a very healthy condition and providing the same conservative control of the past 10 years continues—the buyer of British Columbia municipals need have nothing to fear.

On December 31, 1920, with 62 municipalities in the province, 28 were short in their sinking funds and 17 had a surplus. On December 31, 1929, only eight showed a shortage (three of these being for less than $1000), and 35 showed a surplus. The total net shortage in 1920 was $5,421,456 while on December 31 last, it was $613,872. The total sinking funds of all the municipalities, represented by cash in the bank or invested in municipal and government direct obligation or guaranteed bonds as at December 31 last, was $23,250,797.

Total debenture debt after deducting sinking funds only, on December 31, 1920, was $81,083,227; on December 31, 1929, $95,232,821—an increase of $14,149,594. For the same period the increase in the net debt of the city of Vancouver alone (including Point Grey and South Vancouver), was $13,519,219, so that leaving Vancouver out of the picture there has been very little increase in the net debt of our municipalities since the year 1930.

On December 31, 1920, tax arrears were $8,248,455. Nine years later they were reduced to $3,771,931—over half of which was in the cities of Vancouver and Victoria. Total assessment in 1921—$596,092,772, while now it is $741,632,232. It is interesting to note that the assessed value of taxable land declined during this period—$41,632,000, so that the increase in total assessment is entirely in the value of improvements.

Too much credit cannot be given to the wonderful work of our permanent municipal officials who, year after year, give of their whole time, thought and energies for the benefit of the public. In British Columbia we are particulary fortunate in having had in every municipality for the past 20 years or more, municipal officials whose honesty and integrity were of the very highest order, and to them must be given, to a large extent, the credit for the high regard in which British Columbia municipals are held today.

Industrial companies in western Canada are operating in a comparatively small way, and consequently western bond or preferred stock issues are, as a rule, small—too small to interest the large eastern institutions and consequently, this type of financing has to be done locally. Western bond houses have done wonderful work in this connection, but our market has about reached the absorption point. It seems strange that an eastern institution is willing to consider the investment of small amounts in western mortgages, but when it comes to a class of financing which provides jobs for the men who borrow their money on mortgages they are not interested.

CHICAGO WHEAT HAS A SETBACK

Snowstorm Reports From the Prairie Plus Drought Causes Falling Off

CHICAGO, Ill., Feb. 6.—(By John P. Boughan, Associated Press market editor)—Sudden setbacks in grain prices late today accompanied reports that snow storms were sweeping eastward from the Rockies on a 2000-mile front. Chicago weather bureau officials said the reports, which pointed to general drought, were grossly exaggerated, but this information did not become well known until after trading was ended.

Wheat closed irregular, ½ cent lower to ⅛ higher; corn ⅛ to ⅜ up; oats unchanged to ¼ off and provisions at 10 cents decline to an equal advance.

PENNY STOCKS IN TRADING LEAD ON VANCOUVER LIST

Fair Constructive Progress Made by the Precious Metal Group

VANCOUVER, Feb. 6—Due to aggressive buying in one of the "penny" stocks, Fabyan, the trading volume established a new high record for the year on the Vancouver exchange today, with a turnover of 85,566 shares. The action of the market as a whole was a repetition of the previous day's session. Prices held within narrow limits and net changes at close were insignificant.

Fair constructive progress was made by the precious metal group in the early dealings but a late liquidation movement in Premier shaded leaders from their best levels. Aside from professional accumulation in Fabyan, which rose nearly 1 point, the oils dragged aimlessly in indifferent trading. Losses and gains were evenly distributed in the final analysis.

Under a weight of comparatively heavy offerings Premier receded from an opening price at 72½ cents to 70 cents before the noon bell. On resumption of trading in the afternoon the stock sold at the forenoon closing quotation, to end the day with a net loss of 4 cents at 68 cents bid. Pioneer succeeded in marking up a new peak for the year at 1.48, but eased on the closing bid to 1.45, a net advance of 5 cents. Reno dropped 1 cent to 16 cents, while Big Missouri closed unchanged at 43½ cents.

Fabyan, which accounted for 45,500 shares of the day's volume, opened at 3¼ cents and rose fractionally to 4 cents, to close at 3¾ cents up ⅜ cent net. Home lost 9 cents to 1.59 bid, while minor losses appeared in Calmont, Erland and the Flathead Valley issues. C. and E., at 68 cents and Lowery Pete at 71 cents gained 2 cents and 1 cent respectively.

TRIAL SHIPMENT OF MATCH BLOCKS TO OLD COUNTRY

Powell Company Ships Five Cars: Compete With Scandinavia

A trial shipment of Nelson white pine match blocks, which are already in use in every part of Canada that carries on match manufacture, has been made by the W. W. Powell company, to Great Britain. Manager R. E. Horton stated, before leaving Friday for the east.

Five cars of match blocks, packed in special containers, were shipped via Vancouver and the Panama Canal, two of the cars having already reached the Old Country, while three are still on the ocean.

British match manufacturers have hitherto drawn their match material exclusively from the Scandinavian countries.

MAY MEAN EXPOT

If the Nelson match blocks, sawn from match planks from selected Kootenay white pine, are found to compare favorably with the Scandinavian match blocks, when tried out in the British plants, it may be the beginning of a substantial export business to Great Britain.

After an alleged attempt to hold up the Bank of Montreal at Weyburn, Tom Lang manager of the Weyburn Bottling Works, was placed in custody on a charge of conspiracy to rob.

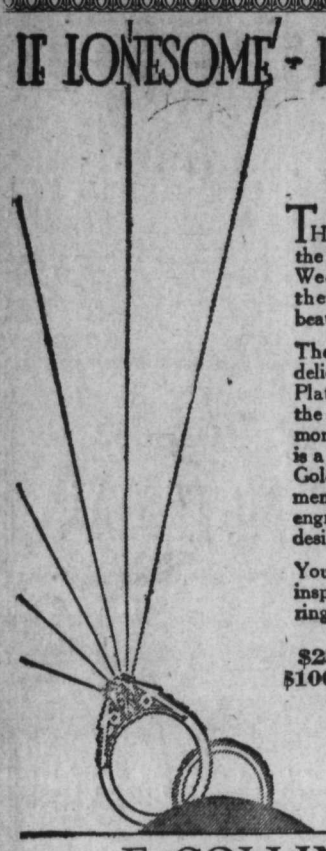
IF LONESOME - RING TWICE



THE two rings of romance—the Diamond Solitaire and the Wedding Ring—nowadays they combine the highest beauty with sentiment.

The engagement Ring is delicately pierced, engraved Platinum or Gold, set with the finest of sparkling Diamonds. The Wedding Ring is a slim band of Platinum or Gold to match the Engagement Ring, artistically hand-engraved in an appropriate design.

You are cordially invited to inspect our new showing of rings.
