LISBON FEARS REBELLION IN ARMY AT HOME

President Carmona and Cabinet Take Artillery Shelter

CITY LOOKS LIKE AN ARMED CAMP

Madeira Revolt Spreads to Azores According to Cable

LISBON, April 10. (AP)—President Carmona and members of his cabinet took shelter tonight in the barracks of the Third artillery behind barbed wire entanglements and a battery of machine guns as the danger of rebellion in the army at home appeared menacing.

There they intend to stay for the period of the emergency.

Meanwhile, Lisbon has taken on the appearance of an armed camp. Soldiers are on sentry duty and armored cars rumble through the streets. Guns are mounted in the nearby hills, and the batteries of naval vessels in the harbor are trained on the city.

These extraordinary measures were taken when it became known the revolt at Madeira had spread to the Azores.

Tonight a cablegram came from Lieut. Aragoy Mello, who signed as head of the revolutionary movement at Angra do Heroismo on the island of Terceira in the Azores, announcing the garrison there had decided to sever relations with Lisbon. A similar message, unsigned, came from the island of San Miguel, also in the Azores, where the garrison was reported in revolt.

MISS TOLSTOY IS NOT ALLOWED TO VISIT PROVINCE

Provincial Government Tells Ottawa It Desires to Exclude Doukhobors

VICTORIA, B. C., April 9.—Miss Alexandra Tolstoy, daughter of the Russian novelist, Count Leo Tolstoy stoy, who wishes to come to British Columbia to edit a Doukhobor newspaper, will not be admitted to this province. This was stated officially at the legislative buildings today after the provincial government had discussed the matter with the federal immigration authorities. It is definitely understood here that Miss Tolstoy will not be admitted to Canada.

The provincial government has made it clear to Ottawa that it desires not only to prevent the admission of Miss Tolstoy but of all Doukhobors.

The cooperation of the federal government in this matter is the first result of negotiations which have been proceeding for some time between Victoria and Ottawa over the Doukhobor problem.

BESSBOROUGH IS A NAME FAMILIAR TO B. C. MARINERS

VANCOUVER, B. C., April 9.—Bessborough, the name which has been on Canadian lips since the appointment of the Earl of Bessborough as governor-general of Canada, has been known to British Columbia fishermen and mariners for 66 years.

This province's association with the name goes back to 1865. In that year Bessborough bay, in Sunderland channel, off Johnstone strait, which forms part of the inside passage, was so named in honor of the ancient British family.

The holder of the title at that time was John Brabazon Ponsonby, fifth Early of Bessborough and Baron Duncannon, whose nephew, Edward Ponsonby, R.N., was midshipman in the navy, serving then on the British Columbia coast.

Ekimo Life Is Filmed in North

OTTAWA, Ont., April 9.—(CP)—Several thousand feet of film showing the primitive life of the Eskimos in the Coppermine region of Coronation gulf have just been received by the Northwest Territories branch of the department of the Yukon. Much of what has been portrayed has never before been photographed by motion picture camera. The photographer was R. S. Finnie, who is stationed at Coppermine.

Hunting scenes, incidents of domestic life such as the building of igloos, and, as a contrast, the injection into the social life of the far north of the modern sport of football form parts of the film.

ALLEGED REPORTS OF GERMANS IN WAR HEARD AGAIN

War Reparations Commission at Toronto Hears Evidence of Former Prisoner

TORONTO, Ont., April 9. (CP)—Wartime reports of alleged cruelties inflicted by German soldiers on British men who fell into their hands were recalled today as hearings commenced here before the war reparations commission.

A gruesome tale was laid before the commissioner, Erroll McDougall, and H. Spencer Relph, deputy, by R. E. Codresco of the original Princess Patricia's light infantry. He claimed that his leg had been amputated unnecessarily and without his consent, after he had been picked up by German stretcher bearers following two days' exposure in no man's land. He had been wounded by machine gun bullets while cutting barbed wire. Codresco, who was repatriated in 1915, said he had to have another operation to remove a piece of bone jutting from the amputation.

Private Victor Allan said that he and other Canadians were compelled to stand rigidly at attention for hours, owing to their refusal to work on Christmas day, 1917, at Minden camp, where they were imprisoned.

VIVIAN GORDON MYSTERY CLEAR

New York Police Say Murder Followed Robbery; Five Men Arrested

NEW YORK, April 9 (AP)—"There is no longer a 'Vivian Gordon mystery' police exulted tonight as they saw five men safely stowed away behind bars.

One of them, listed in court records as a burglar who developed into a petty racketeer, was accused as the actual killer of the titian-haired witness in the Seabury vice investigation. She was strangled with a clothes line and tossed from an automobile into Van Cortlandt park six weeks ago.

The alleged slayer, police said, is known as Harry Stein, as Harry Saunders, as Alexander Norse and as Charles Lubin. He is an ex-convict and narcotics peddler with the instincts of a slugger, detectives said, and his motive was robbery. The mink coat, a diamond ring and the rectangular wrist watch of the victim trapped him, they declared.

The motive for the killing, high police officials said, was not revenge for blackmail suffered or a desire to still a tongue that threatened to wag about police and "frame-ups". It was just plain robbery, the police declared.

LARDEAU MINING DIVISION TAKES IN TROUT LAKE

VICTORIA, April 9—The Lardeau mining division, a consolidation of the former Lardeau division with that of the Trout Lake division, was established by order-in-council today. Henry J. Gunterman is named as mining recorder, with Hugh MacPherson his deputy. Other appointments listed included the return of the duties of Coroner T. Norman A. Watt, government agent at Prince Rupert, with incidental offices now restored to that official. Dr. George A. Charter, is named mining recorder and district marriage commission in the Queen Charlotte mining division. Mathew Harson, Armstrong, has been appointed a justice of the peace.

NORMAN A. WATT REAPPOINTED AT PRINCE RUPERT

VICTORIA, B. C., April 9.—Norman A. Watt, government agent at Prince Rupert, was reappointed coroner by order-in-council today.

He was also made official administrator for a portion of the county of Prince Rupert, and reappointed to other offices formerly held by him. It was in connection with his former office of coroner that Mr. Watt's conduct was investigated last year, and fully vindicated.

AULAY MORRISON SAYS DEER SAFER THAN B. C. HUNTER

NANAIMO, B. C., April 9.—Should he desire to return to this life after death and be free, Chief Justice Aulay Morrison would prefer to be a deer.

"Then I should be perfectly safe in the hands of the hunters of British Columbia," said his lordship addressing in the third manslaughter charge of the present assizes.

As in the two previous cases, also arising out of hunting accidents, the jury acquitted Fletcher Thomas of Wellington of blame for the death of his life-long friend and hunting companion, A. J. Rickard, whom he shot to death near Black Jack mountain on December 7 in mistake for a deer. Admission of the fatal mistake was made by Thomas between sobs.

Jurors deliberated only five minuets to reach their verdict of acquittal.

The price was 104.7, principal and interest payable in Canada and United States, and the successful syndicate comprises Royal Bank of Canada, Chase Securities Corporation, Wood Gundy Co., and Pemberton & Son, Vancouver, Ltd.

BANKS AGREE GIVE EXTENSION ON LOANS TO FARMERS ON PRAIRIES

Premier Brownlee of Alberta Makes Statement After Ottawa Conference

EXPECT LOWERING OF LOAN INTEREST

Understood That Banks Will Instruct Managers to Give Consideration

OTTAWA, April 9 (CP) — "Way has been opened for closer cooperation between the banks and the governments, declared Premier J. E. Brownlee of Alberta, commenting on the conference held here today between representatives of the chartered banks, Dominion government and governments of the three prairie provinces. Matters relating to back credits, especially as they affect farmers of the west, were discussed.

Only the board principles relating to credits were under review. Premier Brownlee said he was satisfied with the results and was hopeful that the basis of a working agreement had been reached. He intimated there will be further conferences held between the provincial governments and western executives of the banks.

NO OFFICIAL STATEMENT

Although no official statement was issued after the conference, it was understood the banks intimated their intention to instruct local managers in the west to give sympathetic consideration to farmers whose loans mature and who are not in a position to meet them. It also was understood the bankers promised consideration to representations made concerning loan rates. Farmers, it was believed they said, would be able to obtain money at reasonable rates of interest.

Premier R. B. Bennett represented the Dominion at the conference; Premier Brownlee, the Alberta government, Hon. W. W. Smith, Saskatchewan, and Hon. R. A. Hoe, Manitoba. The Banks of Montreal, Royal, Nova Scotia and Commerce were represented.

C. P. R. MAINLINE BLOCKED BY ROCK SLIDE, REDGRAVE

VANCOUVER, B. C., April 9.—The main line of the Canadian Pacific railway was blocked at 3:20 p. m. Wednesday by a rock slide at Redgrave, B. C., 58 miles west of Field, and trains are being delayed. Work trains despatched from Field are expected to clear the line by tonight, when traffic will resume.

High bluffs border the line at Redgrave and when a small slide was noticed Wednesday afternoon trains in the neighborhood of that point were ordered stopped in the interests of safety, Canadian Pacific officials said today.

Traffic is expected to be normal by tonight.

SAYS BRITAIN IS PULLING THROUGH DEPRESSION WELL

Premier MacDonald Thinks Country Has Done Better Than Other Nations

WOOLWICH, England, April 9 (CP cable)—"The public is increasingly realizing that Great Britain, despite her very formidable difficulties, is weathering the world depression better than other highly-industrialized countries," declared Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald in a letter of encouragement to George Hicks, Labor candidate in the East Woolwich by-election campaign, made public tonight.

The prime minister asserted that "higaly-protected" Germany and the United States were suffering far more severely from unemployment than is Great Britain.

Mr. Hicks, who is general secretary of the Amalgamated Union of Building Trades Workers, is opposed by E. S. Shrapnellsmith, Conservative. The by-election is necessitated by the elevation of Harry Snell to the peerage.

"We are endeavoring to provide as much emergency work as possible, and already schemes to the value of more than 160 million pounds ($800,000,000) have been approved," said the premier.

"Our position in the house of commons, and the hostility in the house of lords, have prevented us from doing all that we would have wished in the last two years. But at home and abroad we have done work of enduring value."

HURT IN TRESTLE FALL, CORRA LINN

H. Norvy Falls 15 Feet Into Loose Lumber and Injures Back and Ankle

Falling from a trestle at the Corra Linn dam now under construction by the West Kootenay Power & Light company into a pile of loose lumber, H. He was taken to the Kootenay Lake General hospital in Nelson, in the Howell ambulance, and was treated by Dr. R. B. Shaw.

PHYSICIANS SAY HAMAGUCHI IS NOT IN DANGER

TOKIO, April 10. (AP)—Premier Yuko Hamaguchi had a fair night after submitting to a second abdominal operation within a week last night, physicians said today. They declared "his condition is not alarming."

A majority of the vernacular newspapers asserted today Hamaguchi's resignation is imminent, although the independent Nichi Nichi contends the premier will cling to his post for the present at least, in order to prevent a cabinet crisis which might offer an opportunity for the Seiyukai party to gain power.

Five grams of pus were removed at the midnight operation, the second resulting from the wounding of the premier last November by a misguided patriot. The first operation was performed last Sunday. The premier is 61 years old.

ELINORE SMITH FLIES TO HEIGHT OF 32,000 FEET

ROOSEVELT FIELD, New York, April 9 (AP)—Eighteen-year-old Elinore Smith, thrice beaten in her assault on the women's world altitude record, swept down on this field from a twilight April sky tonight with an altimeter reading of 32,000 feet.

She believed she had broken the present official record of 28,418 feet held by Ruth Nichols.

U. S. TRYING TO DISCOURAGE THE RUSSIAN TRADE

WASHINGTON, April 9—(By Ken Clark, Canadian Press staff writer)—Sales to the union of Socialist Soviet republics from the United States fell off 30 per cent during the first three months of this year, according to Soviet agents here. The Hoover administration is apparently attempting to discourage Soviet-United States trade.

Not only has the treasury embargoed pulpwood and timber from Russia, but the labor department has given Feodor M. Zynovkin, general manager of Amtorg, four weeks to leave the country, charging he is illegally resident here.

The activities of Soviet agents in the United States are reported to be carefully followed by army and navy operatives.

KING GEORGE IS SLOWLY GAINING FORMER HEALTH

WINDSOR, England, April 9.—(AP)—King George is slowly but surely—apparently—recovering from the attack of sub-acute bronchitis from which he has been suffering for some days.

An official statement tonight said the king continues to make slow but satisfactory progress. The slight improvement made during the past two days has been maintained, it was said, and the king is continuing to gain ground.

SCULLIN'S LIEUTENANT TURNS TO CAUSE OF SAVING COMMONWEALTH

Hon. James A. Lyons Conducts Whirlwind Campaign Against Inflation

ADELAIDE, South Australia, April 9. (C. P. Cable via Reuter's)—Hon. James A Lyons, erstwhile lieutenant of Prime Minister Scullin, has become the most formidable opponent of the prime minister and his Labor government. Conducting a whirlwind campaign against the extremists within the Labor party and against the government's inflation proposals, Mr. Lyons is seeking to build up a great national movement, bound to no party but pledged only to the economic and financial restoration of the commonwealth by orthodox methods.

"We are striking the match that will set Australia ablaze," declared Mr. Lyons on his arrival here to inaugurate his nation-wide campaign. Strong bodies of moderate opinion have already rallied to his support, and he received a tumultuous welcome on his arrival here. Showers of flowers snowed his car under as he proceeded from the railway station.

ADDRESSES THREE MEETINGS

Mr. Lyons addressed three meetings, at all of which huge audiences turned out. He outlined the basic principles of his policy—balancing of the budget, restoration of "sound and sane" government.

Mr. Lyons proposed the appointment of an expert committee of economists and business men to investigate and determine the period over which the budget could be progressively balanced, for it is apparent that it will be impossible to balance the next budget.

Australia was unable to afford the present interest rates on her debt, Mr. Lyons said, though he condemned the repudiation policy evidenced by the action of New South Wales in defaulting interest payments in London on April 1. The proper method to reduce the rates was by conversion operations to loans at lower interest, he added.

CIVIL SERVICE CASE MAY END TODAY IN EAST

OTTAWA, April 9—Testimony for the defence in the civil service trial was completed today and the case, one of the longest ever heard in Carleton county, is expected to come to an end tomorrow. ASK FOR COMMISSION TO STUDY THE WEST

LONGWORTH DIES FROM PNEUMONIA AT AGE 61 YEARS

Famous Speaker of the National House Fascinating in History

TIKEN, S. C., April 9.—(AP)—Nicholas Longworth, speaker of the national house and one of the most fascinating figures in American statesmanship, died of pneumonia today.

The 61-year-old congress leader fought a valiant battle aided by Mrs. Longworth—"Princess Alice" to millions—but succumbed at 10:40 a.m.

The end came in a southern springtime at the colonial home of James Curtiss after a three-day siege of the disease. Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. C.S.T., Saturday at Christ Episcopal church, Cincinnati, where his body will be taken direct from Aiken. There will be no state funeral.

Mrs. Longworth expressed her desire that there be simplicity in the burial arrangements.

WIFE WAS WITH HIM

His wife was with him when death came. She reached his bedside early Wednesday after it had been learned his condition was serious. After Mr. Longworth's death she denied herself to visitors.

Her brothers, Archibald and Kermit, hurrying here by plane, failed to reach their brother-in-law's bedside before he died.

Government officials including President Hoover, have announced their intention of attending the funeral services. The president was expected to take a special train from Washington to pay tribute to one of the outstanding Republican leaders.

The body is to be placed on a train in Aiken tomorrow at 11:30 a.m., for the city were Mr. Longworth was born in 1869.

QUEBEC WOULD UNITE ALL THE CONSERVATIVES

MONTREAL, Que., April 9.—(CP)—With political party workers straining at the leash, needing only the formal announcement of Premier Taschereau of the date of the forthcoming general elections to send them into the heat of a campaign, the most recent development is the move to unit all the Conservative organizations in the province in one strong central association with headquarters in Montreal.

THREE SUICIDES OCCUR IN A DAY

MILTON, Ont., April 9.—Three suicides occurred in this town today. William H. Walter, peddler, tumbled inward when a resident opened the door of his home last night, his hand clutching a bottle of poison. Charles Hammond was found dead in his home today. He had taken his life by hanging. James Rowley jumped from a balcony of the hospital where he was a patient.

STEEL TRAIN OF TEN CARS VIA KOOTENAY

When Slide Blocks Main Line Two Expresses Combined

HANDLED ON AN EXACT SCHEDULE

Utility of All-Rail Route Contrasts With Old Barge System

First use of the Canadian Pacific's all-rail route through southern British Columbia as an alternative main line was made yesterday, when, in the emergency arising through the blocking of the main line by a large mud slide at Beavermouth, a main line passenger train, consolidated from the two transcontinental expresses, No. 1 and No. 3, was handled through the Kootenay efficiently and expeditiously, and sent on to the coast with the minimum loss of time.

Beavermouth is about 25 miles west of Golden, the slide coming down and blocking the line Wednesday afternoon. When the second transcontinental arrived at Golden, a single train was made up, and rushed southward over the Kootenay Central line to Cranbrook, where at noon yesterday it took on a new train crew and then came on to Nelson.

18 MINUTES AT NELSON

At 6:35 last evening the steel train of 10 coaches pulled into Nelson, exactly on the schedule mapped out a dozen hours earlier, and just 18 minutes sufficed for icing the coaches, testing the car wheels, and changing engines, two being hooked on to hustle the train over the grades to be met with on the summits to the west.

The train, which consisted of mail and express car, baggage car, two day coaches, five sleepers, and a diner, had six porters on duty, and carried some 50 to 60 passengers, most of whom stepped off for a few turns about the platform and to buy papers.

As the train had only through business and through mails, on its entire schedule it has made and is making only necessary stops, being a special. Westward from Nelson its only stops in Kootenay division were at Farron, Eholt, where Grand Forks engine crews took

MANAGUA QUAKE LOSS ESTIMATE IS 20 MILLIONS

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, April 9 (AP)—Last week's earthquake and fire caused about $20,000,000 damage, it was estimated today. Property damage ran from $10,000,000 to $12,000,000, and loss of merchandise from $3,000,000 to $8,000,000.

Of the total about $2,000,000 was covered by insurance but only about $100,000 by an earthquake clause. Twenty blocks in the business section were razed.

In the evenings when the day's work among the ruins is over, many of the homeless gather about the wreckage of the market in the Campo de Marte and listen to the radio.

PRINCE ALBERT, Sask., April 9 Struck on the head by a golf ball two days ago, William Ernest Bonsher, 16, of this city, is dead today. While at play with friends, the lad was accidently struck behind the ear, but at the time complained of only a headache. Last night he began to experience severe pains and died shortly after a doctor had arrived. Death was attributed to a blood clot on the brain.

MARCH SUNSHINE LACKING QUALITY IN WEATHER HERE

Percipitation and Mean Temperature for Month Better Than Average

That Nelson and district was not over-blessed by sunshine during the month of March, is the fact revealed by the monthly weather report of J. S. Goulding, meteorological observer at Nelson. During the month only 81 hours and 24 minutes of sunshine were enjoyed, while during the same month in 1930 a total of 140 hours of sunshine was recorded.

What the district lacked in sunshine, however, it made up in precipitation and warm weather, for during the month the total precipitation of 3.01 inches was 1.18 inches greater than the average, and the mean temperature of 38 degrees was one degree more than an average.

Rain fell on 17 days, with the greatest fall, of .31 inch, on March 18, and snow fell on two days, with the heaviest fall of 2.2 inches occurring on the 29th. Hail fell on two days, and one thunder storm was experienced.

On March 27 the high wind velocity of 35 miles an hour, blowing from the north, was reached. High barometer reading for the month was taken when it was recorded at 30.59 on the second, and the low of 29.68 on the 31st.

BRAIN DISEASE MAY FIND CURE IN NEW VITAMIN

MONTREAL, Que., April 9.—(CP)—The dread disease known to the lay mind as "softening of the brain" may be caused by an ill-advised diet and may be banished if scientists now working on the problem are successful in isolating a new vitamin which is the present object of their search.

This and many other interesting medical facts were brought out at the sessions today of the annual convention of the federation of American Societies for Experimental Biology. More than 1000 medical and surgical doctors are attending the sessions and today addresses and papers were presented at the various sessions into which the conference has divided.

charge, and Grand Forks, where Grand Forks train crews took over The train also slowed down at Castlegar to drop off W. West of Nelson by special arrangement.

RUNS SLOW ON NEW LINK

In all respects the main line train conformed to local rules, running slow on the new 35-mile Kootenay lake link, and being put through on regular lines.

Both Kootenay lake and the West Arm were calm, and the scenic attractions of the lake appealed to the passengers, J. H. Campbell, of the Canadian Pacific press department, Winnipeg, stated. A. J. Ironside, assistant division superintendent, came on from Cranbrook to Nelson by the train.

Handling of the main line train like clockwork was in marked contrast, as older officials noted, to the experience on the last occasion when the southern route became suddenly the main line, six or seven years ago, when two or three successive trains taxed the barge transfer system across the lake, and when after the first 24 hours no more through trains were routed this way, being sent in preference over other railroads.

KOOTENAY CREWS TAKE OVER

From Cranbrook to Nelson, Engineer R. Bartholomew was at the throttle of the big locomotive, while Conductor Charles Parker and Brakemen W. Smith and H. Fyles handled the train.

At Nelson Conductor Joe Bradshaw took over responsibility for the train, with W. R. Smythe and Charles Murray as brakemen. When the two engineers hooked on for the westward run, Engineer George Trainor and Fireman Charles Munro were in the cab of the first locomotive, and Engineer W. R. Hunter and Fireman G. B. Russell were in the cab of the second.

For a time it was expected that a main line train from Vancouver would also have to be handled through, and a matter of fact it strated with orders for the Kettle Valley line. It did not, however, leave the main line until Spences Bridge, and after that it was almost immediately called back, and sent on by the main line, there being information that the slide would be cleared in time to let the transcontinental through.

WARM WEATHER JUMPS LEVEL OF WEST ARM HERE

With the warm weather of Thursday melting the snow in the water sheds and swelling the mountain streams of the district and the main lake, the water level of the West Arm of Kootenay lake at Nelson, took its first real climb of the season. During the 24 hours ending 5 p.m., the level jumped from half a foot above low water mark to .7 foot above.

Warmer weather and recent heavy rains are now swelling the main lake streams, with a consequent rise to the West Arm.

READJUSTMENT ON METAL BONUS IS MADE AT TRAIL

Sliding Bonus Depends on Market Conditions; Blaylock Announces

TRAIL, B. C., April 9.—Announcement has been made, through the Workmen's committee, by S. G. Blaylock, of a readjustment of the metal bonus of employees of the Consolidated Mining & Smelting company.

The announcement, as given by letter, follows:

Trail, B. C.
April 8, 1931

The Chairman,
Workmen's Cooperative Committee.

Dear Sir:

Confirming conversation with your committee yesterday, it will be necessary for us to readjust the metal bonus.

After May 1 a metal bonus of 5 cents per shift will be paid as soon as the monthly average, London spot price of lead and zinc, reaches £15 sterling. As soon as the average price reaches £1 sterling over £15, another 5 cents will be paid, and so on until £20 sterling is reached, when, besides the accumulated bonus of 25 cents per shift, there will be paid an additional bonus of 10 cents per shift, and as the market rises above £20 an additional 10 cents will be paid for each pound sterling above £20. For example—at £15 the bonus will be 5 cents; at £16 the bonus will be 10 cents; at £20 the bonus will be 35 cents.

The average price of metals mentioned above is to be the weighted average price of our lead and zinc. At the present time and until further notice, this will be obtained by taking 10 tons of lead to 9 tons of zinc.

Starting with the first of May, married men who receive less than an average of $3.90 per shift in that month, including all bonuses paid in that month, will have their wages made up to $3.90 per shift, but with a maximum addition of 20 cents per shift; in other words, if a man receives $3.80 from all sources, he would have his wages made up to $3.90, but if he only receives $3.50 from all sources, he would only be made up to $3.70.

Yours very truly,
S. G. BLAYLOCK,
General Manager

"The Magistrate" to Be Presented Tonight in Bonnington Hall

The three-act farce, "The Magistrate," will be presented tonight at Bonnington Falls hall. It deals with the unhappy predicament of Mr. Posket, a magistrate of the Mulberry police court, when he finds himself among the guests at a night club during a police raid.

His harrowing experiences while escaping; his endeavor to "sink the man in the magistrate" when he finds the case brought before him in the morning; his ignorance of the fact that his own wife and sister-in-law are two of those taken into custody; his sentence of seven days without option of fine; his dismay on learning the identity of the prisoners, and the network of events which conspire to cause him to "bring a stain on a spotless police court"—these and many other droll situations are well brought out in this famous play. The trying experiences of Posket are enough to thoroughly convince one that indeed "a policeman's life is not a happy one."

ARROW LAKES MEN FEAR HIGH RATE ON THEIR FRUIT

Is One of Protests at Proposed Steamer Change; Wire Esling

EDGEWOOD, B. C., April 9—A meeting of the Arrow Lakes board of trade was held Tuesday evening in the hall of the Arrow Lakes hotel Edgewood, with 30 members present from Nakusp, Edgewood and intermediate points. After disposing of matters of local interest the main purpose of the meeting was introduced by the chairman, R. Hall of Nakusp, viz., the consideration of the proposed change in the C. P. R. boat service on the Arrow Lake intended by the company.

The chairman stated he had been informed by J. Ivan MacKay, divisional superintendent, Nelson, that on May 1 the steamer Minto will run three times a week from Robson to Edgewood and possibly as far as Burton on the same day using the Minto during the summer months and the Bonnington not at all, and no steamer from Arrowhead to Burton the reason given being that the service was now maintained at a loss.

Consideration of this statement of affairs naturally caused a lengthy discussion as many of the settlers from northern points considered the proposals ruinous. Settlers had been attracted to the district by the C. P. R. and by a better boat service than that now maintained. The C. P. R. is sharing in the general depression. It was stated, instances of settlers having to feed to stock produce they usually sold for human consumption. It was maintained that the steamboat service was an intregral part of the railroad system, which paid an attractive dividend. It was stated that 90 per cent of the soft fruits produced on the Arrow lakes went out by Arrowhead and the same proportion of apples from Robson. If the proposals were carried out hay and other farm products would have prohibitive rates.

It was agreed that the executive committee should immediately get to work on the various proposals and that W. K. Esling, M. P., should be wired the facts submitted and strong protest sent to Mr. MacKay with a request for a meeting with the Arrow Lakes board of trade at Nakusp.

Following the meeting refreshments were served by Edgewood ladies.

on the purchase of Dominion Oilcloth & Linoleum Co. products

Here is a contest worth anybody's time. It is interesting, instructive; yet simple. You don't have to purchase goods or fulfill any special conditions to enter it.

Any time between April 11th and May 1st . . . the earlier the better . . . just drop into the nearest floor covering store displaying Dominion Inlaid Linoleum or Floor Coverings in its window and ask for a free Contest Book. The dealer will sign the back page of this book and hand it to you . . . thus making your entry official.

The book illustrates eight rooms in full colour excepting the floors, which are blank white space. In the back of the book you will find reproduced in full colour all the Dominion Inlaid Linoleum Patterns.

All you have to do is, study the patterns and select one for each room, marking the pattern numbers in space provided on the back page of the Contest Book; sign the page; tear it out and mail it to Contest Dept., Dominion Oilcloth & Linoleum Company Limited, Montreal on or before May 1st.

How the Contest will be Judged

The eight eminent interior decorators whose pictures are shown above, have each been assigned one room and have chosen a pattern for it. Their selections are deposited with The Royal Trust Company, Montreal. Each interior decorator is in complete ignorance of the other seven selections. In fact, the complete choice cannot be known until the eight selections are withdrawn from The Royal Trust Company on May 7th.

Your eight-room selection will then be compared with the combined secret selection of the eight interior decorators. Selections coming closest to the eight interior decorators will win the first prize. The other prizes will be awarded in order. In event of ties, the prizes will be divided. Winners will be announced on June 1st.

This contest is a TEST of TASTE. Study each room carefully. Consider the colouring of drapes and furniture. Consider the nature of the room itself. Then, decide which pattern you would like best on the floor.

Look for a store with a Dominion Inlaid Linoleum or Floor Covering window display. There you can enter this Contest and obtain contest books.

CHOCOLATE CAKE ICING

A young reader has asked for several different icing recipes for chocolate cake. Here are my best—

Chocolate Butter Icing: Mix two cups of confectioner's sugar with one-fourth cup of undiluted canned evaporated milk; add two squares of bitter chocolate, previously melted, and mixed with one-fourth cup of hot melted butter. Stir till smooth, then flavor with one-half teaspoon of vanilla and spread on cake which is still slightly warm from the oven. (Icing containing much butter, however, will melt and run off a really hot cake.)

Chocolate Cream Icing: This, also is an uncooked frosting. Cream one-half cup of butter with one unbeaten egg-white, one-half teaspoon of vanilla extract, and one teaspoon of dry cocoa-powder, until smooth paste is formed by these four ingredients, then thin the paste slightly by adding one-fourth cup of cold water, and when smoothly mixed again, stir in two cups of confectioner's sugar, which will form a stiff mixture (however, as eggs differ in size, a large egg-white may require the addition of slightly more than two cups of confectioner's sugar). This icing should be applied to a cake which is almost cold, after taking from the oven; it will stay soft for several days.

Cooked Fudge Icing: Melt two squares of bitter chocolate with one tablespoon of butter; add two-thirds of a cup of sweet milk, a pinch of salt, and two-thirds of a cup of granulated sugar, then let the mixture boil over mild heat, stirring every minute or two, add one-half teaspoon of vanilla and beat several minutes before spreading on the cake.

Another Fudge Frosting: Into a saucepan put two tablespoons of butter, one-half cup of sweet milk, and one and one-half cups of granulated sugar, boil without stirring, to the soft ball stage, then cool, add one-half teaspoon of vanilla and beat till the right consistency to spread.

The Beauty Box

BY Helen Follett

Recommend exercise to the lazy dollies and they offer a swell-elegant alibi. They say they don't want muscles. The word muscles brings on shakes, shivers and goose flesh. Foolish ones. Exercise is as necessary for the health of a woman as it is to the health of a man. She needn't get biceps, knots in her legs or welts on her ribs. But exercise will fill out her chest so her clothes will look right, grow curves where curves should be, insure against flabby tissues, such as a fiddle string neck. Upper arms that bulge and abdominal fibers that have gone saggy, will reform.

Spiral ringlets are new tricks. Make you think of poke bonnets and pantalettes. The bob is neither short nor long, but short enough and long enough to form curls at the rear, with which one can design ravishing and beautiful coiffure arrangements. Tres chic, if you ask us, especially for evening with the bouffant frock and new hair ornaments that are guaranteed to put the other woman's eye out.

Dry hair should be brushed vigorously every night. It perishes for lack of oil. The brush will extend the natural lubricating element the entire length of the hair shaft. After the shampoo, a small quantity of white vaseline should be rubbed into the scalp.

Do you know that a mixture of powder and cold cream—much more powder than cream, naturally—makes a good application. Rub it into the skin with the finger ends. In 10 minutes apply more powder. Elegant! Try it.

Pursing the lips, shrugging the shoulders, rolling the eyes! You see 'em done every day—one or the other, or still the third. Mannerisms they are, and not to be countenanced, considering that they are silly affectations. The grand girl of this day is real. She is as she is. No fake element in the composition of complexion, hair or figure. Aye, nor affectations in her manner. Counterfeit make-shift has gone into the discard, along with factory hair, corsets, cherry red lips and fainting spells.

His Wife Ran Away From Him

DEAR MISS AAIRFFX:

I married a girl who was only 17 years old and, while I was away working, she left me —without a pillow or sheets to sleep on, only a bare mattress. I do not know why she left me. I loved her ever since the day I met her. We were married in August and she left me in January. I have not seen or heard from her since. It's been very lonely since she left and I would give anything to hear from her. Everybody says I do not know what to do. I ought to be glad to get rid of such a wife—but I still love her. I do not know what to do. I am working for the city and am only getting three days' work a week. I am looking for another job but hmolding on to this one until my luck breaks. It is hard to know what to do.

TONY.

You've had a pretty bitter experience, my dear Tony, and I don't know but that the friends who tell you you're well rid of such a wife may not be right. To help herself to the household properties before leaving puts he in pretty bad light. Women of that type are bound to come back when they're broke. It will then be up to you, whether you want to take her back or not.

Everything but False Whiskers

DEAR MISS FAIRFAX:

A few days ago I met another boy (he is a resident of this city) and I met two young ladies at a skating rink. We gave them a line that we were brothers, and had been kicked out of two distinguished colleges, and had just come here on a visit.

Then to make things worse, we used names other than our own because I guess we were more or less afraid of making friends in this picked-up way. We were granted the privilege of taking them home. Here we met members of their family. Our story, which had been put together upon the spur of the moment, finally was told to their folks.

Since that time, we have planned on going back but we can't unless we explain. Should I go back and give an explanation of the whole affair to them How can we ever get them to believe we are not liars about everything else? Will they be vindictive toward us?

WONDERING

With the exception of wearing false whiskers or claiming to be the Lost Dauphin, you seem to have run the gamut of disguises. As the girls appear to be respectable, in spite of the way you met them, and live at home with their families, the only thing you can do is to explain that the whole escapade was just a lark and that you're sorry you yielded to the impulse of giving false names and false biographies. And perhaps it might be just as well to write this —if there are brothers or a father in the family, they may not see the joke eye to eye with you.

Wants a Good Time While She's Young

DEAR MISS FAIRFAX:

I am 19 years old and have been going with a girl a year younger. Lately she's been going to dances and parties with other boys, giving as her reason that she wishes to have a good time and enjoy life while she's young. But I've reason to believe she's just grown tired of me. Through perseverance, I have been able to maintain my love for her all this time, but that seems to help me no longer.

I too have another girl friend. Would you advise me to forget the one I truly love and try to build up a steady friendship with my other friend?

DISAPPOINTED.

It looks to me as of the girl you truly love had about decided to pass you up, in favor of someone else. And be thankful there's another girl nearby who is inclined to treat you better. At 19 you're likely to have many girl friends before you settle down for life with one, and it's better at your age to have a circle of friends than confine your attentions to one.

"Oh, I learned that secret when I discovered Shredded Wheat. It's the whole wheat, you know, and has iron for making red blood and all the elements for building healthy tissue and bone. And by the way, it's ready-cooked and ever so easy to serve for breakfast or lunch. I just pour milk or cream over the biscuits. To End RESTLESS, TOSSING SLEEPLESS NIGHTS

FRAYED and jangled nerves . . . nights of restless tossing and miserable wakefulness . . . fitful dozing crowded with anxious thoughts . . . awake at or before dawn and no more sleep till rising hour . . . mornings of listless weariness, forcing yourself to the daily tasks—no mere sedative can correct these conditions. You need Ovaltine, a tonic food beverage for nerves, body and brain.

Ovaltine—"The World's Best Night Cap"

Ovaltine corrects the causes of sleeplessness—feeds the worn-out nerves and fatigued body-cells. One cup just before retiring, immediately allays any digestive unrest that may be keeping you restless and awake, soothes and feeds the nerves, and allows the overly-alert brain to relax. Deep restful sleep follows quickly and naturally.

Ovaltine is a highly concentrated extraction of ripe barley malt, rich creamy milk and fresh eggs from our own and specially selected farms. Do not mistake ordinary malt and cocoa flavoured beverages for Ovaltine, or expect them to have the same beneficial effect upon your system. Ovaltine is the original and supreme Tonic Food Beverage. There is no satisfactory substitute for it.

Ovaltine is widely used in hospitals and nursing homes, not only for sleeplessness but for building up the health and strength of convalescents, for expectant and nursing mothers, and for aged folk who need extra nourishment. It is also widely used as a family beverage where there are growing children —at meals, between meals and at bedtime.

OVALTINE RUSKS

For firm teeth and healthy gums eat Ovaltine Rusks. They combine Canadian wheat flour and Ovaltine granules, and offer a much higher food value than ordinary rusks or biscuits.

Ovaltine is sold at all good stores, in 50c, 75c, $1.25 and special $4.50 family size tins; also served at soda fountains.

Start the Main Lake Ferry From Gray Creek

Captain Henry Hincks of Crawford Bay, appearng before the roads and bridges committee of the Nelson board of trade on Wednesday, made a suggestion that the main lake ferry service, which comes into operation on April 15, should make the first trip each day from Gray Creek westward of Fraser's Landing. At present the government has signified the intention of making the first trip each day eastward from Fraser's Landing.

The steamer Nasookin will make three trips daily. Each trip will take 55 minutes and on each trip the steamer will be able to accommodate 24 cars. While no doubt the service will be well patronized from each end, the logical starting point, is as Captain Hincks states, from the Gray Creek end.

At present ranchers from the main lake are cut off from the rest of the West Kootenay district except by a tri-weekly steamer service. With inauguration of the ferry service these settlers will have daily access to points west and to Nelson their market and buying center. With the ferry service starting from Gray Creek settlers will be assured of an early start from their homes. Having completed their business in the city at an earlier hour they can return in time to catch the last trip from Fraser's. This schedule would be of great convenience to the main lake ranchers.

On the other hand as Captain Hincks has stated, a tourist who misses the last westward trip can find suitable accommodation aboard the steamer if it is tied up at Gray Creek for the night. This is another great point in favor of a start from Gray Creek end. Travellers going eastward can always stay in Nelson overnight where accommodation can be easily procured, if they are too late for the final trip from Frasers.

Racketeering on the Run in U. S. A.?

New York is starting action against racketeering. Al Capone has been ordered not to return to Chicago. Chicago under its new mayor plans a cleanup campaign there. It seems that the racketeer is in for a tough time in the two large United States centers. Early in April the New York Crime commission brought in its report. Racketeering the report finds, is an industry with an annual turnover of $12,000,000,000 to $18,000,000,000.

The per capita payment to the muscle men is a minimum of $96 a year for each of Uncle Sam's family of 125,000,000 and half again that much if the commission's maximum estimate is correct.

The report declared a study should be made of what corrective measures could be adopted that would halt racketeering in the State.

"One racket in New York State alone—that of fake securities—is known to total approximately $400,000,000 a year," the report said. "Large surety companies say that crimes against property alone total nearly $700,000,000 a year."

Following the report of the commission New York started an active campaign. A special squad of about 50 federal operatives will investigate narcotic sales, bootlegging, night club operations, lotteries and pools, smuggling etc. The large bank accounts of policemen are to come under scrutiny.

It is time about some action was started in these centers. But cleaning out the racketeers only means that they will start their racket elsewhere. Al Capone, king of the Chicago gangsters, who has lived in an armour plate hotel, travels in an armoured car with snipers on either side of him, and at the same time is owner of a palatial hotel in Palm Beach, is appparently seeking other fields to conquer. That it was getting hot for him in Chicago is seen by the fact that Capone has had his eye on sunny California for some time.

But Capone may be turning over a new leaf. He may be fighting to become respectable. He has an eye on a vast rancho in California. Its vast domain is not new for its history dates back to the times of the Spaniards. If California accepts him his activities will be watched with a great deal of interest almost the world over. For Capone is a world known figure. As the public watch the activities of Capone, so with equal interest will they watch the attempts to clean out New York and Chicago.

In the United States the moral of the present depression for the people is that they have not solved the secret of perpetual prosperity. They thought they had, and thought, also, that they were free from the evils that afflict poor debt-ridden Europe. The effect of the present slump should be a chastening influence. The inter-dependence of international well-being has become so established a fact that there is no royal road to prosperity for any one nation. There is no such thing as aloofness on the part of the United States from the fortunes of Europe or of the rest of the world.

Seen and Heard in NELSON

(By J. B. C.)

Noticed in Thursday's issue of this paper that B. Townshend, Paul Lincoln and W. T. Fotheringham are members of the match committee of the Nelson Golf & Country club for 1931.

* * *

Just what is a match committee? Any golfer knows that. But there are a lot of non-golfers. For their information I will tell just what a match committee does not do.

* * *

The match committee does not supply matches to the golfers. Every golfer is supposed to carry his own cigarette lighter.

* * *

The match committee does not supervise any "matching" competitions to see who will buy the drinks at the 19th hole. Every good golfer who loses his game is supposed to give his victorious opponent a drink. They do not match for them.

* * *

A match committee is not responsible for the "flares" or "hot" arguments which golfers sometimes get into. That is a doing of the golfers themselves. Every golfer does that now and then if he takes the sport to heart.

* * *

A match committee does not "strike" anywhere. Good golfers do not strike either. They play the game, if they have paid their dues.

* * *

A match committee does not make matches, matrimonial or otherwise. These are just natural occurrences that come with the arrival of spring.

* * *

No, a match committee has no relation to a match or a match block, although some good golfers sometimes refer to the committee as blockheads.

* * *

A match committee is a necessary evil for every golf club. What they do, I cannot say. But it is an honor to be on the match committee whether the do anything or not.

* * *

Now, match that, darn it all.

* * *

The following happened in New York: "What excuse," said Magistrate William A. Farrell, peering severely over his glasses, "what excuse, can you possibly have for parking your car so long in a shopping district?"

"Well, you see, judge," said Mrs. Edith M. Schorr, smiling, "I dropped in to buy a hat and they were so lovely I stayed to buy three."

"Dismissed," barked the judge. "You're the kind of woman this country needs. You're helping to bring back prosperity."

* * *

A week or so ago local jokers were having their little fun on April Fools' day. Many a joke was turned back on the one originally thinking it up. Down in Washington, D. C., the other day a practical joker was busy. Aside from the fact that he was in the wrong apartment and talking to the wrong girl, Albert Morris' little prank late at night was quite a success.

Invited to a party, Morris hit on the bright idea of walking in and playing bandit. He unwittingly entered the wrong door, said "Stick 'em up," and awaited developments. They came.

1. He didn't know the girl he told to stick 'em up.
2. The lady next door heard him and yelled for the police.
3. Three carloads of police arrived.

They got it all straightened out after a bit. Morris apologized all around and went on to his party.

TOLD IN RIME

MY PUSSY

Who every morn, at break of day,
Creeps softly up the front stairway
And wakes me with his noisy play?
My pussy.

Who tears the paper off the wall
In parlor, sitting-room and hall,
And chuckles as he sees it fall?
My pussy.

Who clutters up the rugs in heaps,
The curtain tears with playful leaps
My home in great disorder keeps?
My pussy.

Who sleeps each day upon my bed
And leaves dark footprints on the spread
All over it from foot to head?
My pussy.

Who every day a-dreaming goes
As on my lap in soft repose
He sings to me the songs he knows?
My pussy.

And when the bedtime hour draws nigh,
Who loves within my arms to lie
And sing to me a lullaby?
My pussy.

HENRY A. PERSHING

WOMAN'S SONG

Kind kettle on my hearth
Whisper to avert God's wrath,
Scoured table, pray for me.
Jam and pickle and conserve,
Cloistered summers, named and numbered
Me from going bad preserve;
Pray for me.

Wrung dishclout on the line
Sweeten to those nostrils fine,
Patched apron, pray for me.
Calm linen in the press,
Far-reaped meadows, ranged and fallowed,
Clothe the hour of my distress;
Pray for me.

True water from the tap
Overflow the mind's mishap,
Brown tea-pot, pray for me.
Glass and clome and porcelain,
Earth arisen to flower a kitchen,
Shine away my shade ingrain,
Pray for me.

All things wonted, fleeting, fixed,
Stand me and myself betwixt,
Sister my mortality,
By your transient still renewed,
But more meek than mine and speechless,
In eternity's solitude,
Pray for me.

Manhattan Night

By William Almon Wolff

INSTALMENT XV

"He's out if she is, isn't he?" said Peter.

"I ain't so sure," said Charley. "Listen, fella—I'll give you the low down—and you keep it to yourself, see? We got a lot more dope on this case than the papers are gettin' yet—see?

"Here's what we know, so far. First off, Thayer was shot about 3 a.m.—that's as close as Doc Johnson can come to fixin' the time. He was shot with a .38 automatic—killed practically at once. He went upstairs around 3 o'clock—the Swede on the elevator can't come any closer than that to the time. Mrs. Thayer drove up in a cab, with this Ross, about half an hour later—that fits in pretty well with the time you called headquarters—3.38 that was. She said good night to him and went upstairs aolne. The Swede swears he didn't take any one up to the roof, except Mr. and Mrs. Thayer, all night, till the first cops came around from the house."

Peter stared.

"Then how did the murderer get up? How did Ross get up, for that matter? Where's the idea that he did the shooting and took the pistol away with him—if Axel's telling the truth."

"Oh, I guess he's tellin' the truth," said Charley. "He was too scared to lie."

"Could any one have walked up the stairs while Axel was running the elevator?"

"Not the way he tells it. He says the house door is locked after 11 p. m. and he has to open the door—the tenants don't have keys."

"That's right, too," said Peter. "I remember." He frowned. "Then—but then—at that rate—no one but Mrs. Thayer went up after her husband—"

"Like hell no one did!" said Charley, scornfully. "Some one got away with the gun. Don't forget that. They's no gettin' around that. Except—hell, there's one chance in a million that she did it, and chucked the gun off the roof, and some one picked it up and carried it away. But we searched the whole block within 15 minutes of the time she got in. Me, I'm forgettin' that. Besides, if that dame pulled it, and pulled it that way—well, I'm a Chinaman. It's not her style."

"Of course it's not, but I didn't think—" Peter stopped. Charley grinned at him and finished his drink.

"Didn't think a roughneck like me would be sizin' up a dame and figurin' what she's likely to do and not to do, eh? Listen, fella—I ain't much on the book stuff, but if you're goin' to get anywhere bein' a dick you got to know something about this here psyhology, take it from me. How's the cellar?"

Peter went to the door and called Manuel, and Charley, with a fresh drink beside him, went on.

INSTALMENT XVI

"Now, let's get back to what we know," said Detective Sergeant Mitchell. "The madam's been carryin' on a bit with this Ross, and Thayer didn't like it. He didn't like Ross, and Ross didn't like him. They was a row in the Fantomas Club about 11:30, and Thayer was all for beatin' Ross up, but that smooth guy that runs the joint talked him out of it. Thayer wandered around, drinkin', after that, till he went home—he was in Emma's the best part of an hour, and got into a fight with Benny because they wouldn't serve him no more drinks.

"Ross and the madam went over to Sanborn's where you seen 'em. An' they had a fight, too—seems like there was trouble in the air last night. He left her flat, with another dame—Jane called Gould—and was gone for about an hour. Then he came back, and they made up, and he took her home. Get that? Ross and she wasn't together for most of an hour—and, so far as we know, it was in that hour Thayer was popped off.

"But we don't know that. Doc Johnson's guess is that Thayer was bumped off about three—but if any one tells you they's any such thing as bein' sure of how long a stiff's been dead, within an' hour or so, he's lyin'. He might have been alive when the madam went upstairs — he might have been dead an hour, even then. No tellin'. But it's in the cards that Ross killed him while the madam was with another crowd at Sanborn's'.

"But—how could Ross or any one else get on the roof without Axel's seeing him?" asked Peter.

"Lots of ways. By climbin' the fire escape from either side—just for one—or the fire escape at the back. That's easy—easier than gettin' to an apartment on one of the other floors. That part's nothin' to worry about."

"I see," said Peter. "No—it's not, of course. I can see that for myself, now."

"Well, you see the case, don't you? It's a strong one. Only—me, I don't believe it's right. Neither do you. That's why I'm here. Connolly's dead set on it that it was Ross and the madam—one or the other, and probably both. He's got a motive—he can make out opportunity. He'll try for a confession. He can get an indictment on what he's got now, and the D. A.'ll go to trial on circumstantial evidence. He might get a conviction—he might not. I wouldn't be surprised, either way. But, even if she beat the chair it wouldn't be so good for the madam."

"My God—no!" said Peter. The vision of Martha, crushed, borne down under the weight of a verdict, even though it was of acquittal, that would be, in effect, only the old Scotch "Not Proven," appaled him.

"Yeah. Like that," said Mitchell. "That's why you'd like to help find out who done it. Me—I got my own reasons. I'm just an extra pair of legs for Connolly on this case. But if I turn up the right guy and pin it on him—well, it wouldn't hurt me any.

"And they'd things I want to know I ain't got a chance of findin' out myself. Some one bumped this Thayer off. You hear me. Wayne—whenever a guy's killed they's a motive. Some one's afraid of him, or they want somethin' he's got, or they want to get even with him. That's where those ashes come in—maybe. They don't mean a thing, maybe—then again, maybe they do.

"Connoly, he thinks he's got his motive. He thinks Ross and the madam bumped this Thayer off because they was nuts about each other and couldn't get married while he was around. Applessauce! What was the matter with a divorce?"

"Well—" Peter, once more, hesitated. But it seemed to him that he had to lay his cards down for Charley now. This might— the thought had crossed his mind—be a trap. But he had to take that chance. So he explained why Tack and Martha couldn't arrange a divorce. Charley listened attentively, but his own theory was only confirmed, not upset.

"Yeah?" he said. "That's why I'm here. Because you know things like that, that I couldn't find out if I spent a week tryin'. On that showin' Connolly's motive is weaker than ever. This Ross ain't got no money, you say—and neither has the madam? How much did Thayer have, on his own—that'd probably go to his widow?"

"I don't know, exactly. Not much though. Five thousand a year, at a guess. He had his salary, too, but that would stop when he died, of course."

"Yeah? And mamma made up the difference? She's the one has the real sugar, eh? Then what's it get Ross and the madam to bump this Thayer off? Five thousand a year! About enough to keep them in cagarettes! That's one in the eye for Connolly's idea, ain't it? How about insurance? Thayer carry much?"

"I don't know. I doubt it, though. No special reason why he should. They were always broke, and he figured he'd come in for plenty when his mother died, of course. I can find out, I suppose."

"So can I," said Charley, grimly. "I'll attend to that. No,—you goin' to play ball with me, fella? I ain't ready to hand you any special job yet. What I want you to do is nose around and see if you can get on to anythin'. Any mix-up Thayer had with a woman, for instance. Or any fights he'd had. Or if there's any sign that he had anythin' on anybody. How about it?"

"I'll try," said Peter. "Right now—I don't see any lead. But—you bet I'll string along with you. I—I was feeling pretty low until you came along."

That Body of Yours

By JAS. W. BARTON, M. D.

THE SKIN IS AN ORGAN

You may think the skin is just a coat or covering for the body, and that its appearance can be improved with paint or enamel just like the surface or coat of an automobile.

Now the body of an automobile has nothing to do with its working parts. The story is told of a car that went across the desert, without any engine in it. The driver simply asked to be towed by passing motorists who never asked why, and never lifted the hood of the engine. The car looked all right.

The skin however is an organ in itself and has blood vessels, nerves, muscles and fat. Its main job is to regulate the heat of the body.

As a covering of the body all these different tissues are necessary, and so the skin is soft and pliable enough to permit fre movement of all parts in and beneath it, and yet tough enough to withstand the ordinary wear and tear of life.

To do this work properly it has an outer hard or horny layer and beneath this a softer layer which are the blood vessels, nerves and so forth. About and beneath this layer is fat, which acts as a cushion so that many of the knocks and bumps we receive do no harm to the underlying structures.

Running from the outer surface of the skin down into the layer in which are blood vessels, nerves, and fat there are little channels from sweat glands and also from the fat gands; beside the fat glands are roots of the fine hairs which come up to the surface and cover the body. Thus the skin is a real organ pouring oil and water out on to its surface.

And like any other organ it depends upon the food you eat, the air you breath, sunlight, sleep, and exercise to make the right kind of blood to enble it to do its work properly.

Diet is big factor in keeping the skin in good condition but unfortunately due to peculiarities of some individuals in the way their system handles certain foods it is hard to lay out a diet suitable for all skins. You know how in some people such good foods as tomatoes, eggs, oysters, shell fish, pork, and fresh strawberries, cause irritation and sometimes hives or urticaria.

If your skin is rough, dry irritable, or has pimples, try cutting out certain foods, until you find the most suitable diet. Soaps, medicated ointments, creams and so forth are recommended quite properly by physicians for some local condition, but a good skin depends upon good health habits.

What the Press Is Saying

ENGLISH AND SPANISH

There are nearly as many people south of the Rio Grande as north. Indeed, allowing for omissions due to the impossibility of enumerators reaching various aboriginal tribes living in the remote interiors or on inaccessible mountain peaks, it is likely these two divisions of the all-American popupiation are about equal, which means again that the vogue of the English language and that of the Spanish is about on a par in the western hemisphere. It is true that in Brazil, Portugese is spoken almost exclusively by the educated native population, but this deduction is offset again by the fact that many millions, in North America speak French and not English. Besides, Portugese is much more analagous to Spanish than French is to English.—From El Nuevo Diario, Caracus.

CRIME AND PUNISHMENT

There may be alarm at the increase in crime that is officially reported for Canada. The Dominion bureau of statistics sets forth that convictions for indictable offences have increased the last year, and it is deducted from this that "crime is on the increase" from about 21,000 to about 24,000 in this country. What many will regard as a more satisfactory feature of the statistics from Ottawa is their reference to punishment of crime. It is indicated that the proportion of convictions to charges laid is 81.49 per cent, the highest in a decade. Prompt and fair trial and prompt and adequate punishment are among the greatest deterrents of crime. When either one of these conditions fails the result usually is immediate and serious. When they both fail it does not take long for the criminal to get practically beyond control. —Regina Leader-Post.

TRAIL BASEBALL CLUB WISH ENTRY IN LEAGUE BALL

President Cady States It Is Only Way in Which to Play Baseball

TRAIL, B. C., April 9.—That Trail must get into a league if it was going to play ball was the statement of President George Cady at the first meeting of the Trail baseball club at the Memorial hall tonight. Exhibition games were not worth while, and with united effort they could enter a league, he said. He saw no reason for importing players, and in this he was supported by L. Letcher and H. Lauriente.

Sam Stewart reported that last year a league with Nelson had been planned, but Nelson had entered the International league instead. Trail played only exhibition games, and due to the failure of the House of David team to appear for a scheduled game, the club had not had a successful year. However, all bills had been paid.

Plans were discussed by which the club might be financed, suggestions being made for a drive, sale of booster tickets and other means of raising money. It was decided to collect all the old uniforms that they could and to take steps toward entering the international league if possible.

New officers for the season were: George Cady, president; W. Ross, vice-president; H. R. Lauriente, secretary; E. Pisapio, M. Georgetti, Leo Letcher, Sam Stewart and Eric Ramsden, executive committee.

The consumption of cheese, milk and ice cream is increasing in Canada. In 1921 the average used per head of population was 2.51 pounds of cheese, 240.1 pounds of milk, and 5.26 pints of ice cream. In the following seven years this increased to a per capita consumption of 3.54 pounds of cheese, 470.8 pounds of milk and 7.05 pints of ice cream.

CANADIAN-U. S. TITLE GOES TO SPRINGFIELD

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., April 9 (AP) The Springfield Indians won the championship of the Canadian-American Hockey league and a year's lien on the Henri Fontaine cup when they turned back the Boston Bruin Cubs by a score of 3 to 2, here tonight. This represents Springfield's third championship in five years of the circuit's existence.

CLASSIFICATION OF SOCCER TEAMS NEXT IN ENGLAND

Final Leadership of Divisions Practically Assured at Present

LONDON, April 9.—(C. P. cable)—With the question of final leadership in all but one section of the English soccer league virtually settled, the question agitating fans is what teams will be demoted.

In the first division Manchester United will be one of the teams to go down, while Leeds United, Blackpool and Birmingham are all on the brink.

There does not look to be much chance of these clubs picking up points on Saturday as they all play away from home. Leeds go to Bolton, Blackpool to West Ham and Birmingham to Huddersfield.

In the second division, while Everton have won their promotion, Tottenham Hotspurs and West Bromwich Albion must battle for second place, which also carries elevation with it. Tottenham lead the Albion by one point, but the Birmingham club have a game in hand. Their next engagements take the Albion to Burnley, while the Spurs will be at home to Plymouth Argyle. Lincoln City and Tranmere Rovers are holding the center of the stage in the northern section of the third division. Both are tied on points at the top of the table. On Saturday Tranmere battle on their own grounds against Doncaster Rovers, while Lincoln go to York. At the bottom of the table Nelson are deep in the mire and will have to apply for readmission at the end of the season.

Notts County are elected for promotion among southern sections clubs, while Newport County and Norwich City are fighting for the booby prize. Norwich City on Saturday clash at Bristol with the Rovers, who are just above them in the table. Newport will get what may be their coup de grace at home from Queen's Park Rangers.

In Scotland all eyes will turn towards Hampden Park where Celtic and Motherwell will be engaged in the cup final of the Scottish football association. As both clubs are scrapping for the league championship there can be very little difference between them and a good even game should result.

CHICAGO BEATS CANADIENS, 2-1, LONG OVERTIME

Mervin Wentworth Breaks Tie After 53 Minutes of Gruelling Overtime

FORUM, Montreal, April 10—(By H. M. Peters, Canadian Press staff writer)—(Friday)— Mervin Wentworth, right defenceman of the Chicago Black Hawks, flicked in a high shot past George Hainsworth's shoulder at 12:20 this morning and broke up the longest National Hockey league game of the season. The game was 53 minutes and 50 seconds of overtime before Chicago beat Canadiens, 3 to 2, to take a two matches to one lead in their struggle for the Stanley cup, emblem of world's professional hockey championship.

The first 60 minutes of the game were played at a fast clip with Canadiens holding a decided margin in the first two periods and scoring twice. In the third period Chicago went all out to catch up and succeeded in a triumphant 18-second burst of speed which saw March and Adams netting.

Overtime was a grim, close-checking affair with both teams waiting for the break and missing opportunities through over-anxiety.

The end came when Adams, Wentworth and Cook burst in on a tired Canadien defence. A few short passes while jockeying for position and a brilliant shot by Wentworth gave Chicago a hard-earned victory and sent a disappointed crowd of over 12,000 homeward.

PROSPECTS GOOD FOR STADIUM AT VANCOUVER PARK

VANCOUVER, April 9—Prospects for a civic stadium at Little Mountain Park, with an auditorium in connection became decidedly brighter this afternoon when the park board accepted a tentative report from a special committee which has been conferring with the Lionel Dobell, former Portland, Ore., promoter.

Mr. Dobell has offered two alternative propcsals to the park board. He is willing to construct the stadium alone, or to go ahead at once with the combined project, at an estimated combined cost of $500,000.

The stadium would seat 15,000 people, and the auditorium 8000.

Without coming to a definite decision, the board instructed Commissioners E. G. Baynes, Johnathan Rogers and C. E. Tisdall to confer with the civic town planning and boulevards committee of the city council, and to bring in a final report at the next meeting on the board.

Double Plays

By AL DEMAREE
(Former Pitcher, New York Giants)

A shortstop making throws to second or first base when starting double plays, or to force outs or putouts, should always throw for the bag and not the first or second baseman. Time the second baseman when starting a double play and give him the ball waist high or higher, where it is easy to handle and get away quick. A low throw always puts the second baseman in an awkward position and often results in a fumble.

The double play in the above illustration is from shortstop to second base to first base. Broken line shows where second baseman left his position to cover bag.

Al Demaree has prepared an illustrated leaflet on "Base Running" which he will gladly send to any reader requesting it. Address Al Demaree in care of this paper and be sure to enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope.

CHIEF ENGINEER INSPECTING LINE BY TRACK-MOTOR

Arrives Here Tonight on His Annual Inspection of System

Returning to Nelson Thursday night from a trip of two or three days to the East Kootenay portion of the Kootenay division, Division Superintendent J. Ivan MacKay stepped off the westbound train to confer for a few minutes with Nelson officials, and then stepped on the train again to continue to Midway, where today he will meet J. M. R. Fairbairn, chief engineer of the Canadian Pacific system, and his party.

Chief Engineer Fairbairn, whose headquarters is Montreal, is on his annual tour of the system by track motor, and accompanying him are P. B. Motley, engineer of bridge construction; F. W. Alexander, engineer of maintenance-of-way, western lines; and Frank Lee, engineer for the British Columbia district.

The motor-car, which is equipped with flanged wheels in order to run on the track, should reach Nelson early this evening.

J. C. Clifford, assistant engineer of maintenance-of-way, western lines, with headquarters at Calgary, arrived from the coast Wednesday night, and spent Thursday here, conferring with Division Engineer H. R. Younger. He will leave for the Crow this morning.

REBEL THREAT IS WATCHED, LIBSON

LISBON, Portugal, April 9 (AP)—Lisbon was assuming the aspect of an armed camp tonight after it was learned the military rebellion at Funchal, Madeira, had spread to garrisons in the Azores which have repudiated allegiance to the central government.

Armored cars with Republican guards rumbled through the streets of the capital as infantry and marine companies patrolled the streets. All strategic points in Lisbon were under control of government troops, who have been kept in their barracks throughout the day.

Guns looked menacingly down on the city from surrounding hills while naval vessels in the harbor also had their cannon trained in this direction.

The Azores garrisons which are reported to have joined the Madeira revolt are on the island of San Miguel and Angra do Heroismo, where there are scores of political deportees.

Immigration Men Contradict Charge

OTTAWA, April 9 (CP)—Contradiction of charges of ill-treatment of deportees was made here today by the department of immigration in a statement issued to the press. Charges were made by members of deportees which landed in England two days ago from the S.S. Ausonia. Issuing of the statement was believed to be unique, as it has been the customary policy of the department not to come to its own defence when attacked by deportees or immigrants.

NELSON HIGH HOOP TEAMS BEAT NAKUSP

Girls Forced Into Overtime to Win; Nelson Boys too Tricky

NAKUSP, B. C., April 9—Nelson and Nakusp hoop teams clashed in Nakusp on Saturday evening resulting in a double victory for Nelson. Nelson sent two high school teams, one boys' and one girls', to play the teams of the Nakusp high school and returned home with two victories after thrilling hard-fought games.

Nelson and Nakusp girls' teams were evenly matched and put up a very fine game. Both teams were quick and played wholly offensive games, Nelson winning after two five-minute overtime halves were played. Score, 33-30.

Lineups:

Nakusp: Cen. Molly Islip; L. W., Jessie Ion (16); R. W. Florence Hartford (14); L. G., Kathleen Fowler; R. G., Margaret Jestley.

Nelson and Nakusp clashed once more when the boys' teams took the floor and this time Nakusp showed Nelson that they were not so easily beaten as was thought. The teams were fairly evenly matched as far as skill was concerned, but once more Nelson's superior weight and knowledge of the tricks of the game led the way. Most of the boys on Nelson's team have been playing for some years, while the Nakusp team is only new at the game. Nelson's team averaged about 160 pounds, and Nakusp averages between 130 and 140 pounds. The score, in Nelson's favor, 28-18.

Nelson: Cen. A. McLean (12); L. W., D. McQuaig (4); R. W., H. Clark, (6); L. G., J. Burns (2); R. G., J. Buchanan (4).

Nakusp: Cen., C. Howarth (2); L. W., R. White (9); R. W., D. Blyth (6); L. G. F. White (1); R. G., P. Alpsen.

A banquet was tendered the Nelson visitors by the Nakusp high school Saturday evening in the small hall. Covers were laid for 50.

Great thanks are due Mrs. A. B. Thompson and Mrs. G. C. Martin for the success of the affair.

GUN CLUB WILL DISCUSS LATER TROUT SEASON

Many Agree Protection Parent Fish; Others Indignant at Shorter Season

TRAIL, B. C., April 9.—Trail Rod and Gun club will hold a special meeting to discuss new fishing regulations, notably the amendment extending the close season for trout to May 31.

Opinion on the new regulation has been sharply divided since the announcement was made. While many feel that the parent fish should be protected as intended by the regulation, others are indignant at the late opening of the season.

It is understood Rossland will be represented. C. H. Robinson of Nelson, fishery inspector, may attend.

CANADIAN WHEAT FALLS IN FAVOR

European Markets Prefer the Argentine and Australia Grain Says Report

WINNIPEG, April 9 (CP)—Cheaper wheat from Australia and Argentina is filling Europe's bins and Canadian hard wheat, ticketed about 10 cents a bushel higher, is no longer the favored buy of the foreign miller. In a report issued tonight, E. A. Ursell, statistician to the Dominion board of grain commissioners, stated exports of Canadian wheat declined more than 3,000,000 bushels in March from February's clearances while southern hemisphere sales increased.

March export total was given as 13,739,313 bushels as against 16,844,555 bushels for February. Weekly volume of wheat arrivals in Europe from Australia and Argentina is more than 8,000,000 bushels.

Dominion wheat surplus, held in Canada and United States elevators, totalled 131,000,000 bushels on March 31, 13,000,000 bushels less than a year ago. Of clearances overseas during the month 5,662,615 bushels were from Vancouver, 1,845,698 bushels from Canadian Atlantic ports and 5,365,000 bushels from United States ports on the Atlantic.

GOETZ URGES A NELSON EXHIBIT AT SPORT SHOW

Free Space Guaranteed and Assurance of Getting Easy Clearance

That Spokane is extremely anxious for Nelson to enter an exhibit in the Sportsmen's Exposition, held at Spokane May 11—16, is the tenor of a message received from Harry Goetz, of Spokane, the well known Nelson booster.

Mr. Goetz states that 100,000 persons attended last year's exposition, and that the districts that had exhibits obtained invaluable publicity.

If Nelson will put in an exhibit of fish, or of game, Mr. Goetz says it can have its choice of unalloted space, and he guarantees there will be no charges to pay.

The publicity committee of the board of trade, which arranged the Nelson exhibit of frozen Kamloops trout two years ago, which attracted great attention, recently decided not to make an exhibit this year, largely on the ground of difficulty of getting the exhibit through the American customs.

Since then the management of the exposition has pointed out that the Canadian customs has an office in Spokane, whose good offices could be obtained to get the exhibit through without delay.

It is suggested that the publicity committee and the Rod and Gun club in cooperation might stage an exhibit.

GAR WOOD AGAIN READY FOR SHOT AT SPEED TITLE

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., April 9 (AP)—Gar Wood said tonight his Miss America IX was ready for an attempt to regain the world's speedboat crown held by Kaye Don of England.

Wood said he would wait until weather and water conditions were favorable before making his trial.

Wood drove his Miss America IX at an average speed of 102.56 miles an hour over the Indian creek course March 20, a mark that stood until Don piloted his craft 103.49 miles an hour at Buenos Aires.

GEORGE DUNLAP CONTINUES HIS WINNING STRIDE

PINEHURST, N. C., April 9.—(AP)—George T. Dunlap Jr., New York golfer and intercollegiate champion, continued his winning stride in the 31st annual north and south amateur tournament here today, but the defending champion, Eugene Homans of Englewood, N. J., fell by the wayside.

Dunlap, the medalist, won his quarter-finals match on the 18th hole, eliminating Howard Tyron, Elmira, N. Y., 17 and five.

Homans, who won the 1930 tournament, was one down to T. Suffern Taller, Newport, R. I., at the turn, but the Rhode Islander showed a more consistent brand of golf on the back nine to win five and four.

J. B. Ryerson, Cooperstown, N. Y., defeated Richards S. Tufts of Pinehurst, three and one.

CRESTON SCHOOL ATHLETES HOPE CONTEST, NELSON

CRESTON, B. C., April 9—Creston High School Athletic association has been reorganized, and for this year will operate along much more extensive lines than in the past. Hitherto tennis has been the only sport sponsored, but for 1931 boys' and girls' baseball, as well as football will be tried out, in addition to which attention will be given to the different events to be included on the card of the proposed field day. Frank Crawford is the new president, with Opal LaBelle, secretary and treasurer. The softball branch will be supervised by Betty Spears; tennis by Jean McCreath; girls' baseball Phillis MacDonald; boys' baseball, Early Christie; track events by Arthur Dodd. Market and Mining News

NEW YORK LIST INFLUENCED BY RAIL WEAKNESS

Quiet Rally in the Main Body of Stocks Is Cut to Pieces

NEW YORK, April 9.—A quiet little rally in the main body of stocks was interrupted by selling of the railroad equities today.

Weakness in that group, particularly during the last hour, induced professionals who had been supporting industrials and utilities to sidetrack their efforts and closing prices were lower all around. Volume remained small—only 1,900,000 shares.

The conspicuous losses were in the rails, many of which went to new lows for the year or longer on declines of 1 to 7 points. Such stocks as U. S. Steel, American Can, American Telephone, Bethlehem and Radio were down about a point; General Motors, General Electric, Westinghouse, Anaconda and Union Carbide closed firm. Half a dozen specialties were moderately strong to the end.

New York Central went through its December minimum and was off 3¼ net. Rock Island and Illinois Central were down as much, while Louisville and Nashville, Missouri Pacific preferred, Norfolk and Western, and Atchison lost 5 to 6. The break in Union Pacific and 'Frisco preferred amounted to 7 points.

Foreign exchanges were dull. The French franc eased enough to put it to a new 1931 low, while the Spanish peseta topped the previous year's high. Sterling was firm.

The bond market struggled to attain higher levels today, and did so for a time, but a settling tendency toward the close of trading cancelled many of the gains. The market as a whole ended the day narrowly and irregular.

CHICAGO WHEAT CLOSES FIRMER

Moisture Scarcity and Dust Storms Have Noticeable Bullish Influence

CHICAGO, Ill., April 9—(By John P. Boughan, associated Press market editor).—Big export buying of North American wheat, upwards of 2,000,000 bushels, lifted grain prices today, but active profit-taking sales wiped out the advance. Moisture scarcity northwest and dust storms both north and south of the Canadian boundary had a noticeable bullish influence.

Wheat closed firm, unchanged to ⅛ cent higher; corn unchanged to ⅜ to ½ up; oats ⅛ to ⅜ advanced, and provisions unchanged to five cents off.

Former Minister of Mines Struck by Freight Train

KAMLOOPS, B. C., April 9—Smith Curtis of Savona while walking on the edge of the C. N. R. track near his home, being deaf, did not hear the approach and tooting of a freight train until it was almost on him. By a quick turn, he escaped with only his shoulder, front and side being hit and his being hurled 12 or 15 feet to the outer part of a cattleguard, suffering minor contusions. Mr. Curtis sustained a broken collar bone and a few broken or fractured ribs and is not yet able to move, but is doing nicely at the Royal Inland hospital, where he arrived last Thursday evening right after the accident.

WINNIPEG WHEAT CLIMBS HIGHER

Bear Element Pulls the Gains Downward to Fraction Over Wednesday Level

WINNIPEG, Man., April 9.—(CP)—Wheat prices made a great bid for higher altitudes on the grain exchange today but the ever-present bear element reduced the one-cent gain secured around mid-session and final quotations were only ½ to ⅝ above Wednesday's figures.

Buying by exporters started the climb shortly after the opening and prices moved upward a cent but were forced back fractionally by heavy selling, mostly through Chicago interests. May was quoted at 58⅜ cents per bushel at the close; July 59¾ to ⅞ and October 61¾.

Quotes on cash wheat and coarse grains held firm in a dull market.

COST OF FAMILY ILLNESS SHOULD BE CONSIDERED

Hon. Dr. H. E. Young Tells Nurses of Evils of Procrastination

VANCOUVER, April 9—Taking as his subject "The High Cost of Sickness," and telling of the many problems facing the modern hospital of today, Dr. A. K. Haywood, general superintendent of the Vancouver General hospital, addressed public health nurses, attending the refresher course, in session here at the General hospital, and being held under the auspices of the provincial board of health and the department of nursing of the University of British Columbia.

The address followed a luncheon during the noon recess and the speaker, who was introduced by Hon. Dr. H. E. Young, provincial minister of health, launched into the subject of hospital charges, stating that the unwarranted and unfair criticism, could easily be refuted when all factors entering into such cost were thoroughly understood by the public. Urging the need of budgeting for sickness in time of health, and saying that sickness entered most homes every three years, Dr. Haywood flayed what he termed the cause of the instalment plan. People of moderate means obtained nearly everything they required, on installments, he said, but made absolutely no provision for the inevitable sickness. Neither the sick or the very poor were troubled with hospital bills, but it was the man of moderate means who spent his money so freely that in 1929 as much money was spent for cigars and cigarettes as on hospital bills, twice as much for movies and four times as much for gas and autos.

CHARGES NOT UP

Hospital charges have not gone up in proportion to running expenses, Dr. Haywood said and explained the hospital employees were not in accordance with the costs of living, getting better salaries than in the past, that the cost of linen and equipment had increased, and that two-thirds of hospital work was expensive surgery. During the past 25 years, the speaker said, the average stay in the hospital had been cut by 25 per cent and patients returned to economic life sooner. Also life's span, through advances made in medicine and science had been lengthened by 20 years. Dr. Haywood compared present day hospital cost with hotel cost, pointing out the wider and greater service given in hospitals for less cost than in hotels. "Today," he said "people want baths, telephones and radios in their rooms, and to meet the ever increasing demands, hospitals must give the best, and this adds to the cost of service."

HAROLD LLOYD OPERATED HAS APPENDIX OUT

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., April 9 (AP) Harold Lloyd, film comedian, successfully underwent an operation today for the removal of his appendix. He was on the operating table 30 minutes.

Dr. William E. Branch, who performed the surgery, said the appendix was chronically inflamed, but was not infected. Lloyd was in excellent physical condition otherwise and a quick recovery was expected.

The operation had been postponed several times in hope that the organ would respond to treatment but when the condition failed to improved Dr. Branch advised Lloyd yesterday that an operation was necessary and the comedian entered the hospital a few hours later.

NELSON MINE ON ORE STATEMENT OF TRAIL PLANT

Catherine Mine and Two Sandon Mines Are on the Smelter List

Appearing on the statement of the Trail smelter ore receipts for the period from April 1 to April 7, was the Catherine mine of Nelson, credited with eight tons of ore. Two Sandon mines, the Ruth and the Silversmith, the former down for 44 tons and the latter for 24, were also new on the list for this year.

SALES DROP ON VANCOUVER LIST

Mines and Oils Leaders Work Steadily Higher Under Handicap

VANCOUVER, B. C., April 9.—Although handicapped by restricted activity both mines and oils leaders quietly and consistently worked higher on the Vancouver stock exchange Thursday. Sales fell to 40,167 shares as compared with 70,573 shares for the previous day.

Interest was chiefly centered in East Crest, which attracted favorable support during the forenoon trading. The stock opened strong at 50 cents and reached a high for this movement at 53 cents, but the new peak was a signal for profit-taking and the price gradually dwindled to 46 cents until the final minutes when it snapped back to 47½ cents, to close at 47 cents bid, a net increase of three cents.

A gradual recovery featured the movement in home and before the noon close the stock crossed the "dollar-mark" to 1.02 from an initial price at 95 cents, to end the day at 98 cents, a gain for the day of three cents. C. and E. and Commonwealth both closed one cent higher, the former at 49 cents and the latter at 13 cents. Mayland rose three cents to 47 cents and A. P. Consolidated firmed fractionally to 30½ cents.

Base Metals were prominent in the gains column on the mines board, while the golds, with the exception of Premier, were inclined to ease. Pend Oreille, in a movement of 200 shares, sold up to 1.49, a net gain of 13 cents, while Reeves McDonald scored an advance of three cents at 47 cents. Premier rose one cent net to 72 cents, while Pioneer dropped a like amount to 1.57 bid.

COMMITTEE TO REPORT ON CUT ON ARROW LAKES

White Cross Society, Halcyon, Asks Nelson Board to Protest

A report on the proposal of the Canadian Pacific to curtail its tri-weekly steamer service on the Arrow lakes by eliminating the service on the Upper Arrow lake and having the steamer make Burton its northern terminus, will be made to the Nelson board of trade by the freight and transportation committee.

At Thursday's monthly luncheon of the board, a letter from the White Cross society, at Halcyon, through the secretary, Miss E. M. Bartle, was read, appealing to the Nelson board to make a protest to the governments on the matter, the letter evidently reflecting the views of Halcyon, which will be left without access of any kind under the plan proposed.

Public meetings at Edgewood Tuesday night and Nakusp Wednesday night, called by the Arrow Lakes board of trade, have also made public protest.

REFERRED TO COMMITTEE

The White Cross society's letter was referred to the freight and transportation committee, which was instructed to get the official facts from the Canadian Pacific, and then report.

It was pointed out that Capt. James Fitzsimmons' tug, the Beaton, which operates between Arrowhead and Beaton, might be in a position to give a service.

Miss Bartle wrote:

"The proposed suspension by the Canadian Pacific Railway company, of their steamer service on the Arrow lakes, is a matter of no little importance to the people of Nelson. If put in effect, it means that communication between north and south will be only haphazard in summer and non-existent in winter.

"We hope that the board of trade will take a strong stand in the matter and register a protest through their representatives at Victoria and Ottawa."

EXTEND TIME TO ENTER KOOTENAY MUSIC FESTIVAL

Trail Executive Decides to Receive Entries Free Up to April 15

TRAIL, B. C., April 9.—Decision has been made by the executive of the Trail committee for the Kootenay music festival to extend the time of entry. The festival will be held here in May.

The date was advanced with the idea that it would create more enthusiasm, and would give those who had forgotten an opportunity to enter their names without paying the penalty of $1. The closing date for entries without the penalty was set at April 22.

It was decided that Rialto theater, Knox United church and the K. P. hall would be used during the festival.

PLAN SCHEDULE

In the daytime, choral, band and orchestra events will be heard in the Rialto theater, closing at 6 o'clock. Violin and piano contests will be heard in the United church in the daytime. Elimination contests will be heard in the church in the evening.

The final concert, composed of numbers offered by the festival winners, will be held in the K. P. hall on the last night of the festival.

The city hall will be used as a central bureau. A reception committee will be appointed to guide and direct visitors to destinations.

It is expected that over 500 school children will compete.

TO TIME EVENTS

Arrangements were made for a meeting to be held in Nelson April 29, when timing of events will be arranged. Owing to the uncertainty of hours of arrival in Trail, it has been impossible to do the timing yet, but it is believed that all transportation will have been decided upon by that date.

Enthusiasm was reported by the committee, and entries were coming in fast.

B. A. Stimmel presided at the meeting. Others attending were Mrs. R. S. G. Anthony, W. Evans, S. S. McDiarmid, E. W. Hall and W. Ramsay.

LOSING STEAMER BUT WILL GAIN A BUS SERVICE

Daily Round Trip Service Nakusp to Nelson April 15

While Nakusp and points on the Upper Arrow lake with road connections will lose the tri-weekly steamer service, if plans of the Canadian Pacific are carried through, they will gain a bus service, of at least double the frequency, Gomer Jones, manager of Canadian Greyhound coaches, stated Thursday.

The bus service will be between Nakusp and Nelson, and will be in operation at least six days a week, and perhaps for the whole seven, that point not being yet settled.

Running time between the two termini will be five hours, with stops at Slocan lake points and other way points, the service between New Denver and Nelson being incorporated in the new service. A 21-passenger coach will operate, leaving Nakusp at 7 a.m. and arriving at Nelson at 12 noon. Leaving Nelson at 4 p.m. for the return trip, the bus will reach Nakusp at 9 p.m.

With the roads getting rapidly into traffic condition, it is planned to start the Nakusp-Nelson service about April 15.
