CANCEL AIRMAIL SERVICES

CONQUERS THE NIAGARA RIVER AND IS ALIVE

William "Red" Hill Negotiates Rapids in a Barrel

YOUNG SON MAKES HEROIC RESCUE

Swims Into the Whirlpool and Pulls Barrel to Saftey

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., May 31. (CP)—Great is Niagara, but its perils hold no fear for William (Red) Hill, who for years has wooed the maelstrom of waters from the falls to Queenstown, and who today completed the challenge he started yesterday by floating inside a barrel from the whirlpool to Queenston docks.

The docks were his destination yesterday, when he narrowly escaped death. Only the heroism of his 17-year-old son saved the father's life then. As the barrel swirled and turned in the grip of the whirlpool, the young lad swam to it, fastened it with a rope, and with his father was hauled safely to shore.

But today's attempt was a surprise. At 11:15 a. m. Hill climbed into the barrel and was towed past the whirlpool and guided into the main stream. He got into the lower rapids which are rougher than those above the whirlpool, and there the barrel was tossed high into the air, turning over and over. Hill stated he received an unmerciful pummelling. The barrel moved quickly through to the deeper and smoother water, and there was grappled and held by men in boats. Then it was towed to shore and Hill removed from his stifling place of imprisonment.

IS DRAMATIC

Dramatic in the extreme was the river man's attempt to navigate the river yesterday. Already George Stathakis, a Buffalo man, had died in a daring attempt to negotiate the distance in the barrel Hill used. The barrel quickly moved downstream, with Hill pushing a Union Jack through an air hole to show that all was well with him. Then, as the barrel swirled in the vortex for over an hour, there were no further signs of life.

While thousands of persons along the gorge cheered, William Hill jr. who went to his father, perhaps understands the vagaries of Niagara's current better than any other. He stripped and plunged into the river, with a heavy rope tied to him. He battled his way with powerful strokes to the barrel. He made fast the rope, and father, son and craft were towed to shore.

The heroic swimming feat climaxed a day which will go down into Niagara's history. As the barrel had turned and swung in the whirlpool, desperate men attempted to reach it with ropes from above. The effort was futile, and an airplane was sought. It had been planned to drop a rope from the plane and try to hook the barrel. But the son's rescue was successful. The barrel had been circling the whirlpool for three hours when it was finally captured.

BARREL WAS SINKING

Hill himself informed people on shore the barrel was sinking as it swung in the swirling waters. For more than an hour there had been no indication whether he was dead or alive. But on one of the interminable circuits his voice was heard. "For God's sake get me out of this. I can't last much longer. Get a rope and pull me to shore," he had called.

Today he plainly showed the effects of his two gruelling experiences. He said that yesterday the barrel was nearly filled with water, and the water had, in fact, reached his shoulders. Another half hour, he declared, and the barrel would have sunk into the whirlpool's depths. Despite urgings to leave well enough alone, Hill returned to the river today and completed the trip.

Hill is through with stunting with grim Niagara now. The hours which he spent in the whirlpool, with certain death threatening, have eaten into his soul. Tonight he swore that never again would he attempt any daredevil river stunts.

IS SURPRISED

WINNIPEG, Man., May 31. (CP)—"I can hardly credit it," declared Jamse A. Richardson, president of the Canadian Airways, Limited, tonight when read a report from Ottawa that Premier R. B. Bennett had decided to cancel all air mail services in the Dominion. Mr. Richardson said he had received no official intimation that such action was even contemplated by the Dominion government.

PREMIERS CONVENE

REGINA, Sask., May 31—A conference of the premiers of three prairie provinces will be held in Regina late this week to discuss matters concerning the proposed establishment of a federal wheat board.

MARJORIE WHITE TO RETURN

CANADIAN ACTRESS WEIGHS BROADWAY OFFERS

Marjorie White, film star, hopes to re-visit Toronto and other Canadian cities in September. Her contract in Hollywood expires soon, but she wants to do one more picture. Then she might consider a couple of offers she has received to appear on Broadway.

Budget Is Tensely Awaited in Canada

Preparation Has Been Greatly Rushed; Tariff Changes

OTTAWA, Ont., May 31. (CP)—Canada awaits tomorrow with no little anxiety. It will be budget day. The changes in the tariff, the increases in the excise taxes—sales taxes for example—and the alterations in the income tax, will make the pronouncements of Premier R. B. Bennett in the house of commons of personal significance to a very large proportion of the people of the Dominion. Anyone in doubt as to the suspense that prevailed over the week-end need only discuss the budget with one or the other of the many people who have visited Ottawa in the past few months seeking changes in the tariff.

CABINET IS BUSY

For the greater part of Saturday, the cabinet wrestled with the problems the budget presents. Most days for Mr. Bennett are busy; many would describe them as hectic; but Saturday was particularly so. When he was not in the privy council chamber with his colleagues in the government, he was in conferences with officials of the department of finance or national revenue. Even at 9 o'clock last night some of the resolutions which will bring in tariff changes were still in the balance.

The preparation of the budget has been greatly rushed, and it is understood that with the hundreds of briefs submitted asking for tariff increases and the illness of Hon. B. Ryckman, minister of national revenue, the revision of the schedule will not be so comprehensive as was at first planned. Much of the suspense is due to uncertainty as to which intended changes have been dropped.

HAS RECOVERED

Fortunately, Mr. Ryckman has recovered from his illness, and was back in the house last week with his old-time vigor. He made a tour of the west last fall, when he studied the tariff wants of that part of Canada very carefully.

The great clash of interests in a country so vast in extent as Canada is appreciated when a cabinet sits down to work out a tariff schedule. For example, the east is urging more assistance in the coal and steel industry and this has been taken as meaning it desires a higher tariff on bituminous coal. This is exactly what the British Columbia mines do not want.

United States tariff on bituminous is reciprocal; that is, it is the same as the country from which the coal comes. If Canada's duty, which is now 50 cents a ton, goes up, the U. S. tariff goes up automatically against British Columbia coal shipped to western states.

When he brings down the budget when he brings down the budget will probably be an announcement of the totals in the conversion loan. He made a short statement to commons last week shortly after the subscriptions closed, that the total amount converted would run over $500,000,000, an oversubscription of $350,000,000. Returns were still coming in, and tomorrow's announcement may exceed the total he gave then.

PHONE THE DAILY NEWS FOR BUDGET REPORT AFTER 3

The budget will be brought down in the Dominion house on Monday. Readers interested in the budget proposals may obtain information by telephoning The Nelson Daily News any time after 3 p.m. today.

A full report of the budget will be published in The Nelson Daily News of Tuesday morning.

SETTLERS IGNITE MANITOBA FIRES

Forestry Officials Find Evidence of Arson; Try to Block Practice

WINNIPEG, May 31 (CP)—Bush fires that destroyed valuable timber areas in the Riding and Porcupine mountain reserves were deliberately started by settlers, according to Col. H. J. Stevenson, director of provincial forestry. Returning from an investigation of the fired district, Colonel Stevenson said he had satisfied himself that the blazes were incendiary. They were put under control several days ago.

"While no arrests have yet been made, we have sufficient evidence to satisfy us that settlers started the fires on purpose, even though the offenders have not been identified," the forestry director commented. Steps to block further arson attempts have been taken by the government, persons travelling through the reserves must have permits.

It is believed the fires were set so that settlers would be employed to fight them.

SHAVIAN HUMOR BRINGS DOWN A WRATH BARRAGE

LONDON, May 31. (AP) — The speech of George Bernard Shaw last night, in which he said, among other things, that Joan of Arc lacked "sex appeal," today brought down on his head the wrath of the Rev. Francis Woodlock, a well known Catholic priest.

Father Woodlock said, while preaching in London:

"I want to offer a strong word of protest against the impudence—I might almost say criminal folly—of British Broadcasting company authorities for issuing an invitation to Bernard Shaw to speak on St. Joan of Arc over the wireless last night.

"The British Broadcasting company has no right to let loose that irresponsible playboy and mountebank to preach on this solemn occasion a panegyric of a Catholic and national saint.

M. P. P. DEMANDS CONVENTION OF CONSERVATIVES

VICTORIA, May 31—Reginald Hayward, senior member for the legislature for Victoria, came out tonight with a strong demand for an early general convention of the Conservative party. He is the first Conservative member of the house to support this proposal publicly.

"If there are troubles in the Conservative party let us get together and settle them," Mr. Hayward urged. There is no use waiting till the eve of election."

Mr. Hayward's statement followed an official intimation that the government is opposed to a convention which will be discussed at the provincial Conservative executive meeting here on June 5.

CONSOLIDATED TO ACQUIRE PACIFIC TERMINAL PLANT

Think Move Is in Connection with the Export of Fertilizer Products

NEW WESTMINSTER, B. C., May 31—Within the next 30 days the plant of the Pacific Terminals, limited, two million dollar concern constructed here two years ago, will be taken under the management of the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Company, limited, according to reports in business circles here. The name of W. B. Lanigan, former traffic officer of the Canadian Pacific railway, and now retired and resident of Victoria, is linked up with the report as being the choice for general manager.

Strength to the report that the Consolidated Mining company is back of a proposed reorganization, is lent in the news that the subsidiary of the Canadian Pacific railway is planning to commence the export of its fertilizer product from its plant at Trail, British Columbia, about the beginning of August.

A meeting of the Pacific Coast Terminals, limited, is scheduled for the middle of June, when the transfer of management will likely be consummated, it is reported.

The Pacific Coast Terminal company was organized three years ago when it acquired considerable waterfront on the Fraser river, sufficient berth room for eight vessels to load at one time.

MacDONALD IS NOT IN FAVOR SWEEPSTAKES

LONDON, May 31 (AP)—A denunciation of sweepstakes as "robberies" and, incidentally, of the Irish derby sweepstakes, was made by Premier Ramsay MacDonald to the correspondent of the London Daily Mail at Lossiemouth, Scotland, today.

The premier said the government has been seriously considering the question of sweepstakes for some time, but that the difficulties of dealing with them seemed "overwhelming."

"It is most deplorable," he said, "and a reflection on the strength of mind of the majority of the people of this country that, especially in a time of economic depression, millions of dollars are devoted to this form of gambling on the pretext that it is to aid hospitals.

"Thousands of people are losing money that ought to be spent aiding British industry and providing the supports of life. It makes one almost despair and gives a feeling that civilization is crumbling."

TEXAS QUINAN NEAR COLLAPSE

HAVRE, France, May 31.—(AP)—Far from the bright lights of Broadway, "Texas" Guinan, travelling night-club hostess, tonight was near collapse from the strain resulting from detention in the Hotel Transatlantique here which is being patrolled by French police and detectives.

Meanwhile, Director Mourier of the general surete police announced that Miss Guinan and her troupe of 30 "Broadway belles" must leave France without putting on their performance in Paris.

Rigid restrictions have now been placed on the movements of the party.

SQUIRES OUT TO GET A BIG LOAN

TRURO, N. S., May 31.—(By Charles Bruce, Canadian Press staff writer)—A brisk, alert middle-aged man whose favorite topic of conversation is Newfoundland, changed trains here last night for Montreal. When Sir Richard Squires returns from Montreal, where he meets his minister of finance, and possibly New York, he expects to bring the $8,000,000 authorized as a loan at the last legislative session, for which no tenders were received when the loan was offered by the Bank of Montreal.

CANADA TO BE REPRESENTED

MONTREAL, Que., May 31.—For the first time Canada will be represented in this year's aerial race around England for the King's cup, John C. Webster, Montreal amateur aviator and sportsman, has entered the race with the small Curtis-Reid biplane in which Captain J. D. Parkinson established a Canadian altitude record of 22,000 feet last week.

MUSSOLINI TO STOP CATHOLIC ACTION, ITALY

Pope Will Appeal to the Vatican Treaty for Justice

BOMBING BRINGS MATTERS TO HEAD

Bishop's Palace at Verona Is Set Afire by the Fascists

ROME, May 31 (AP)—The breach between the Italian government and the Vatican widened tonight with the receipt of information that four bombs were exploded near Catholic property at Bologna, with Premier Musscini continuing to close the Catholic action clubs throughout Italy and with Pope Pius XI denouncing Fascist education as "given to hate, irreverence and to violence."

In an address before a group of ecclesiastics at the Vatican, the pope announced he would appeal to the Vaticon treaty and the concordat as a basis for a solution of the difficulties. He said the Catholic Action society "had been most precious" to him

A brigadier of the Carabiniert patrol was killed by a bomb at Bologna and another soldier and a civilian were injured.

CARRIES OUT ORDER

Premier Mussolini continued to carry out his order closing the Catholic action clubs throughout Italy and it was estimated that by tomorrow night 15,000 of the clubs would have been closed by the police, affecting 500,000 members of the organization.

The Papal newspaper organ Osservatore Romano today published a list, two and one-half columns long, of alleged anti-clerical incidents. The list included the invasion of monasteries, slapping of priests, an attempt to burn the bishop's palace at Verona, the trampling of the pope's portrait and the sacking of Catholic clubs.

The bishop's palace at Verona was set afire, the paper said, by a group of men who drove up in an automobile, sprinkled gasoline on the great doors, and set them ablaze.

TWO MONASTERIES INVADED

It is also charged two monasteries were invaded at Civita Vecchia Thursday and that the door of the Episcopal palace there was forced open by men who slapped the face of the vicar-general, Mgr. Compagnucci. At Cisalgo, it said, a parish priest's face was slapped it charged, and at the Tarcisio club it was alleged 100 Fascists operated under the eyes of the militia who made no move to restrain them.

The paper said posters were put up in Rome reading "Death to the pope, to the priests and to the Catholic Action."

Close as a complete rupture between the government and the Vatican seemed, however, it was believed the situation was still not without some hope of settlement.

CENSUS WILL BE EXCELLENT CHECK

OTTAWA, May 31 (CP)— The people of Canada will begin counting noses tomorrow. Early in the morning 15,000 trained enumerators will commence taking the seventh census since confederation. Every home in Canada will be visited in ensuing weeks and a long series of questions will be asked as to the age, sex, occupation and nationality of every person in the country.

In the rural sections farmers will be asked the acreage of their farms and will be called on to tell the number of farm animals and poultry he owns. In urban centers wholesale and retail businesses will be enumerated. At the end of the census taking, the government will know the location and ownership of every business grocery and hot dog stand.

A special feature of the census will be the checking up of unemployment. For the first time accurate figures will be secured as to the number of unemployed persons in the country, the reasons they are out of work and the length of time.

GROWING TESTS ELIMINATED IN GRAIN EXHIBIT

REGINA, Sask., May 31.—Entries in the winter wheat competitive classes of the world's grain exhibition and conference to be held at Regina will not be subject to growing tests.

This announcement was made by officials of the exhibition and conference Saturday following a meeting of the executive and finance committee under the chairmanship of Hon. W. C. Buckle, minister of agriculture for Saskatchewan.

Originally it was planned to have samples of all cereals entered in the competitive classes put through growing tests, but the rule is to be waived in connection with winter wheat classes, not matter from what country they may come.

APPROVE OF OPEN MARKET SELLING

WINNIPEG, Man., May 31.—(CP)—Open-market selling of wheat and coarse grains has been approved by Manitoba's wheat pool. The optional system, whereby members who wish to do so will be able to collect the full spot price on delivery to Pool elevators, goes into effect tomorrow, according to a statement tonight by H. M. Mahoney, general manager of the pool.

NEW C. P. R. SHIP MAKES EXCELLENT OCEAN CROSSING

Makes Land-to-Land Trip in Less Than 3 1-2 Days; Phone in Demand

Aboard ss. Empress of Britain at sea—(By radio to the Canadian Press, by Thomas T. Champion, Canadian Press staff correspondent)—May 31.—Peace of a sunny Sabbath is about this ship and the waters around her. The Anglican church service was taken today by the purser, and mass was celebrated by Rev. Conrad Latour of Ottawa, Ont.

The great news about the vessel's performance came when it was announced she would make the land-to-land passage in 3½ days. This she has now bettered on her first voyage by five hours 33 minutes. The Empress passed Bishop rock at 5:23 g.m.h., May 28, and passed Cape Race at 11:48 g.m.t. today. Therefore, she has done the land to-land voyage in three days, six hours and 25 minutes, the mileage being 1848. The result was naturally pleasing to Commander Latta and E. W. Beatty, K.C., president of the Canadian Pacific railway.

WILL DO BETTER

When the engines are tuned up, she will do better, says Captain Latta. "We have had good weather, of course, but even so she might have done worse," the captain said today.

At midday today we were in latitude 48.30 north, longitude 54.54 west, and during the past 25 hours the ship has travelled 592 miles. Father point is another 590 miles, and we expected to make it by midday tomorrow.

Tonight at lunch time, the Duchess of Atholl gave us the deep hail of a siren-congratulation as she passed us outward bound on our starboard side. We cordially answered hoot for hoot. Mr. Beatty received a telephone call from Lord Bessborough at Ottawa, the call coming through very clearly, and while Mr. Beatty was hoping his own reply was received as readily, he was inclined to wonder whether there was some reduction in service from ship-to-shore. Demands for calls homeward were piling in tonight.

SCHOOLS BURNED ON THE PRAIRIES

Four Doukhobor Schools Are Destroyed; One Other Attempt

YORKTON, Sask., May 31—Four public schools of the Verigin district were razed while damage to the extent of $15 was done to the Verigin high school by fires which R. C. M. P. officers are confident are of incendiary origin, during the early hours of Sunday.

The schools which were burned to the ground were Spring Valley, Terpena, Asin and Thunderberg, the former being west of Verigin, Terpena being east and the latter two almost north of Arran.

The fire in the Verigin high school which was only constructed last winter, was set on the outside of the building about seven o'clock in the morning. Some of the townspeople, noticing the smoke, turned in the alarm and a bucket brigade was quickly organized and the blaze extinguished.

Members of the R. C. M. P. are investigating the fires at the present time.

ATTEMPT MADE TO DERAIL A C. P. R. TRAIN

REGINA, Sask., May 31—Following an attempt made last night to derail C. P. R. train No. 2, about two miles west of Summerberry, Sask., August Miller, 22, farming near the spot, has been placed under arrest and will fact trial in R. C. M. P. court here tomorrow morning.

Hurtling along at a 60-mile-an-hour clip, the huge locomotive struck three tie piles placed across the track. The ties wedged themselves under the two small sets of wheels that carried the "cow-catcher" and the train was safely pulled to a stop at Summerberry station.

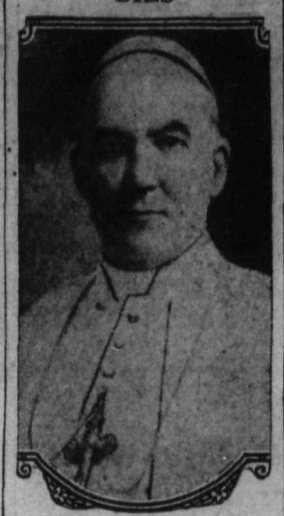
Most of the passengers had gone to bed and were thus unaware of the danger that had been met and passed.

So great was the force of the impact with the train that a heavy sledge was needed to dislodge the ties.

SOFTBALL RESULTS

TRAIL, B. C., May 31—Softball results today were as follows: Maple Leafs 12; Times 5; Company Store 6; Tadanac 1.

CARDINAL ROULEAU DIES



QUEBEC, May 31 (CP)—Third cardinal of the Roman Catholic church in Canada, his eminence Raymond Marie Rouleau, archbishop of Quebec, pictured above died at the Episcopal palace this morning following a heart attack. He was 65 years of age and had been in ill health since suffering serious injuries in an automobile accident near here last Sunday although at times since his accident Cardinal Rouleau seemed to recover.

Two days ago he again felt unwell and remained in his rooms. Last night his attack took a more serious form and his physician was hastily summoned. Extreme unction was administered by Canon Gagne and in spite of all medical efforts the stricken prelate died soon after 10 o'clock this morning.

Last summer, while motoring near Quebec in his car belonging to one of his parishoners, an accident occurred that resulted in serious injuries to the cardinal. His health had not been of the best and the shock nearly proved fatal. For months he was in a serious condition but health gradually returned to a degree that permitted partial resumption of his duties at times.

BODIES FOUND BURIED UNDER NEW CONCRETE

Scotland Yard Searches for Schoolmaster to Question Him About Affair

BELVEDERE, Kent, England, May 31.—(AP)—Scotland Yard's "big five" are pooling their efforts to find Charles Frederick, Lewis, 60-year-old schoolmaster, in order to question him regarding the finding of the bodies of his wife and stepdaughter beneath fresh concrete in a fish pond in the back yard of his home Friday night.

The mystery of the disappearance of Lewis and the finding of the bodies promised to be one of the most sensational with which Scotland Yard has grappled in many years. Lewis is a prominent educator, tall and distinguished, one of the assistant directors of education for the county of Kent, choirmaster at the local church and an active participant in civic affairs of the district.

Mrs. Lewis was 50 and her daughter, Freda, was a lovely, vivacious girl of 20 whom they adopted after her parents had gone down with the Lusitania. The women were buried in their night clothes under the fresh concrete and beside them was interred their pet dog. They had been dead several days when the bodies were found.

Yesterday friends of the family began to receive mysterious letters, one of which said the two women had been killed in an accident. The letters were turned over to Scotland Yard and an investigation was begun which resulted in finding of the bodies.

FROST DAMAGE NOT SERIOUS

EDMONTON, May 31— Retarded growth in areas where temperatures have dropped as low as 20 degrees during the last two weeks is reported in the regular fortnightly crop report released Saturday by the provincial department of agriculture. Frost damage has not been serious, however.

Seeding is now practically completed the report states and a fair amount of rain has been reported throughout the province. Pasture and water conditions in the dry areas of the province are becoming serious. Very little growth has taken place and in some instances drifting soil has practically covered pastures.

UNITED CHURCH PASTORS AGREE

TORONTO, Ont., May 31. (CP)—Agreement with the determination of Canon Lawrence Skey, rector of St. Anne's Anglican church, to continue giving birth control knowledge to married women in his parish has been voiced here by several United church ministers.

An official pronouncement on the question of birth control, it was learned at United church headquarters here, would be made next September by the general council.

BENNETT SEES WAY TO SAVE MUCH EXPENSE

Contracts to Be Set Aside by the Government, at Will

HEAVY DEFICITS CAUSE OF ACTION

Decision Will Have Profound Effect on Flying in Canada

OTTAWA, Ont., May 31—(CP)—All airmail services in Canada are to be cancelled at an early date. Decision of Premier R. B. Bennett to abandon the services was made known here tonight.

Airmail services now extend from the maritimes as far west as Edmonton. The transcontinental flights will be dropped within the next two months. A possibility remains the Rimouski-Montreal flight which carries mail to transatlantic liners may be retained, also the international link with the United States from Montreal to Albany. The expectation is, however, that these will only be continued if air companies consent to a revision of present contracts.

The contracts are to be cancelled under a clause which provides the government may set them aside when it appears in the public interest.

HEAVY DEFICITS

Heavy deficits in postal operations are understood to be the reason for the curtailment of the air routes. The department is facing a deficit for the past fiscal year in the neighborhood of $6,000,000. Airmail flights are known to be the least remunerative of the postal services.

The four chief lines, all of which have definitely been dropped, are: Montreal, Moncton and Saint John, N. B.; Montreal, Toronto and Windsor; Winnipeg, Regina and Calgary; Regina, Saskatoon and Edmonton. The link between Windsor and Winnipeg is through the United States. The junction flight between Winnipeg and the border will also go by the board.

The Rimouski-Montreal flight has been considered one of the most important because of placing Canada on a better competitive basis with vessels out of New York. If any part of the service is retained, the probability is this route will continue.

WILL HAVE EFFECT

The decision of the government will probably have a profound effect on the progress of aviation in this country. Many lines on which passengers were carried would not have been in regular schedule had it not been for contracts with the post office department. In general the sums paid by the government more than took care of operating expenses and passengers were an additional source of revenue. Without assurance of a steady income many of the routes will be entirely abandoned.

Although rumors have been afoot for some time services would be curtailed, it was not known the government proposed to make so decided a reduction. When the new link was inaugurated between Windsor and Winnipeg early this year, Canadian and United States postal officials were discussing the possibilities of extending operations into the far north and the flights to Japan were envisioned. An extension of the transcontinental facilities as far as the Pacific coast was regarded as a distinct possibility for next year.

CATHOLICS ARE ATTACKED WHILE STAGING PARADE

GLASGOW, Scotland, May 31.—(AP)—Several persons were seriously injured today in a clash between Catholics and others in various places in Lanarkshire on the occasion of the annual May Catholic procession.

The worst incidents took place at Mossend, where a large Catholic procession, including many children, was attacked and stones thrown at a statute of the Virgin Mary which was being carried in the procession. Police charged the melee but were unable to suppress the disorders until reinforcements arrived.

Another clash took place at Bellshill, near Carfin, in which several hundred participated.

A procession of 10,000 Catholics in the Gallowgate district of Glasgow was attacked and several hundred were involved in the fight but strong forces of police quelled the disturbance.

ARCHBISHOP IS A BIT BETTER

WINNIPEG, May 31 (CP)—Slight improvement in the condition of Archbishop Arthur B. Liveau, head of the Roman Catholic Diocese of St. Boniface, was reported tonight by hospital attendants. Totally unconscious for more than three days following a paralytic stroke late last Wednesday night, his grace recovered consciousness for a time today and raised hopes of thousands of members of his diocese that he might recover. He is 81 years old.

START TAKING CENSUS OF THE KOOTENAY TODAY

Forty Questions on the Sheet Which Enumerators Will Carry

MANY QUERIES ON EMPLOYMENT

Will Be in Progress a Full Month But Relates to June 1

Today the census enumerators start their rounds throughout the Kootenay, both cities and rural sections, as well as the entire Dominion, and begin a month's enumeration of those who were residents on June 1.

There are 40 questions on the sheets that the enumerators will be armed with, although not all the questions will have to be answered for all persons enumerated, for instance, questions relating to unemployment and to naturalization.

The following are the questions on which the Dominion is seeking information respecting every man, woman and child who was in Canada on June 1, with the instructions as to how they are to be answered.

THE QUESTIONS

Number in the order of visitation:
1. Dwelling house.
2. Family, household, or institution.

Name and residence:
3. Name of each person in family, household or institution.
4. Place of abode. In rural localities give parish or township; in cities, towns and villages give street and number of dwelling.

Description of home:
5. Home owned or rented.
6. If owned give value; if rented give rent paid per month.
7. Class of house.
8. Materials of construction.
9. Rooms occupied by this family.
10. Has this family a radio?

Personal description:
11. Relationship to head of family or household.
12. Sex.
13. Single, married, widowed, divorced.
14. Age at last birthday.

Place of birth. Country or place of birth of this person and parents of this person. If born in Canada give province; if foreign born give country.
15.—Person.
16. Father.
17. Mother.

Immigration:
18. Year of immigration to Canada.
19. Year of naturalization.

"SUNDAY" IS THE SERMON THEME AT ST. PAUL'S

Rev. T. J. S. Ferguson Gives Outline of Work Done at Conference at Victoria

In St. Paul's United church on Sunday morning Rev. T. J. S. Ferguson used as his subject, "Sunday."

"Man, if he is to be a real man, needs more than ever to get away every Sabbath from noise and the stress and strain of the daily rush and routine," asserted the preacher. "The art of music is mastered by practice; the art of worship is perfected in the same way," declared the speaker. "The Sunday cessation of work and the atmosphere of the church enable one to develop a living consciousness of God, which is the source of the noblest and the supremest peace and joy.

"The Lord's Day act is a humane law that seeks to give the laborer 24 hours of freedom and opportunity for physical recreation; for the mind, delight in best literature and art; and for the soul, through the privilege of worship, to come under those influences which inspire one to pay due regard to his duty, to himself, his fellow men and God."

Mr. Ferguson gave as example a saying by Mr. Gladstone, the great English statesman: "I go to church on Sunday, because I love religion, and I go to church on Sunday because I love England."

Sincere public worship Mr. Ferguson declared to be a high patriotic duty. "What shall we do with Sunday?" he asked. "Will we keep the Lord's day for a people's rest day, with its freedom and opportunity for highest joy and noblest fellowship, or shall we make it a mere weekly holiday, with its deviation of our leisure, and its wear and waste of body, mind and spirit?"

WORK OF CHURCH

Sunday evening Mr. Ferguson gave an outline of the work which 266 ministers and helpers of the United Church of Canada are trying to do in this province through the various agencies; first of all, through each church and Sunday school and kindred societies; through the fine vessels that sail the western coasts; and through two colleges, Columbia of New Westminster, and the Theological college of British Columbia university.

He told of the redemptive home for girls, of the Japanese and Chinese missionaries, of the hospitals and schools among the Indians; of the contribution made to the solving of all social problems through all great specialists like Rev. Hugh Dobson.

Mr. Ferguson told of the John Howard society, which has been founded to assist prisoners leaving the jails and prisons. Rev. M. Hohen has been chosen for this work, and will deal personally with each case. The field of the church, he said, was the needs of humanity under every condition and in every social relationship. He asserted this was the greatest work in the world, and the opportunity existed for everyone to help.

Miss E. Coleman Is Graduated From the Kamloops Hospital

VALLICAN, B. C., May 31.—Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Coleman, Eleanor and Donald Coleman, H. Coleman of Deer Park, Mr. and Mrs. C. Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Beaton and baby, left on May 20 by car to attend the graduation of Miss Ernestine Coleman, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Coleman, at Kamloops. Fifteen nurses graduated from the Royal Inland hospital. The party motored by way of the new road to Nakusp and Edgewood, and Vernon, returning Sunday by Penticton and Cascade highway. They report the roads in splendid condition. Miss Coleman returned to Vallican with her parents.

E. T. Coleman and H. Coleman of Deer Park motored to Nelson Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison, Mrs. Kleinzing, Miss E. Coleman, Mrs. J. Strachan, H. Coleman, T. Moore, C. Hermiston, attended the dance at Appledale on May 25.

H. Coleman returned to his home in Deer Park Tuesday.

J. Munck motored to Nelson Thursday.

E. Hird was a business visitor to Nelson this week.

Alfred Jones, of Kingston Herefordshire, an 18-year-old lad, whose imprisonment for poaching stirred the House of Commons, has returned to his village home after serving nearly all of his three months' sentence. His arrival was the signal for a prolonged demonstration in the village with parades and a football match in his honor.

PRESBYTERIAN ASSEMBLY WILL CUT EXPENSES

Saskatoon Presbytery Makes Charge United Church Claiming Name

TORONTO, May 31 (CP)—Drastic cuts in general expenditures will be considered by the 56th general assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada which opens here Wednesday, June 4.

The board of administration will recommend, it is understood, that the general assembly should meet every second year instead of annually as at present, and that the membership of the larger church boards and committees should be reduced.

The two theological colleges at Montreal and Toronto should be amalgamated for a limited period, according to the board of administration. By a motion unanimously adopted at a public meeting in Knox Crescent church, Montreal, on May 28, the Presbyterians of that city expressed their "emphatic disapproval of any movement which would necessitate even the temporary closing of the Montreal Theological college," the question is expected to arouse considerable discussion.

An overture from the Presbytery of Victoria, British Columbia, will ask the assembly to relax the rule whereby Presbyteries are not allowed to grant induction to a minister unless he is receiving the minimum stipend of $1800 and a manse. In cases where the congregation cannot raise this amount a supplementary grant is made from mission funds. The overture contends that, in view of the state of the budget, Presbyteries should be empowered to disregard the minimum stipend rule and stop the drain on mission funds.

ATTEMPT TO ESTABLISH STATUS

In view of the fact that the Presbyterian Church in Canada is a voluntary and not an incorporated body, an attempt will be made to establish its exact legal status. This question involves both the name of the church and its property rights.

An overture from the Presbytery of Saskatoon charges the United Church of Canada with persistently claiming the exclusive right to the name, "Presbyterian Church in Canada", without any judicial sanction for the claim. The claim seriously interferes with the work of the Presbyterians, says the overture, in such matters as bequests, charters and trusts, the proper tabulation of Presbyterians in the national census, and the recognition of the church by the pan-Presbyterian alliance. The assembly is urged to prepare "the prosecution of this matter to a final conclusion."

The Presbyterian book of praise having been awarded by the church property commission to the United Church of Canada, it is suggested by the Presbytery of Montreal that the assembly adopt the revised church hymnary of Presbyterian churches in Great Britain as the official praise book of the Presbyterian Church in Canada.

JAMES McCREATH DIES AT COAST

Former Resident of Rossland and Greenwood Came West Before the C.P.R.

VANCOUVER, May 31—The death occurred today in St. Paul's hospital of James McCreath, West forty-Fifth, a resident of British Columbia before the C. P. R. reached the province.

The deceased came to Victoria representing a hardware firm of Hamilton, Ont., before the completion of the Canadian Pacific railway. Later he lived in Rossland, and, in 1898 went to Greenwood. In October of last year he came to Vancouver. He was born in New York in October, 1848, and came to Canada 74 years ago.

He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. W. A. Webb of Vancouver and Mrs. Helen Thomas, formerly of Greenwood and now of this city. A son, James D. McCreath, of Trail, also survives.

The funeral will be held on Monday at 3:15 p.m. Interment will be in Ocean View Burial park.

INTERIOR FIRES REACH TOTAL 188

Fire Hazard Throughout the Province Increasing With Hot, Dry Weather

VICTORIA, May 31—Increasing fire hazard generally throughout the province was recorded by forestry officials Saturday as the week closed. The weekly summary of forest fire conditions, issued over the signature of P. Z. Caverhill, chief forester, showed a total of 493 fires to date this year in British Columbia woods, compared with 294 fires at the same date last year. Conditions in the Prince Rupert area have eased somewhat since the last report, but the hazard has increased at other places. The itemized report is as follows:

Cariboo, 27 fires, conditions hazardous; Kamloops, 52 fires, warm and dry; southern interior, 188 fires, warm and dry; Prince George, 46 fires, changeable; Prince Rupert, 70 fires, cloudy; and Vancouver, 110 fires, warm and dry.

Public cooperation in preventing camp fires from spreading is being appreciated by forest officials of the province. In this regard a very marked improvement has been shown in recent years.

"Love Is Fulfilling of the Law" Is Text in Science Church

"Ancient and Modern Necromancy, alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in the Christian Science church on Sunday.

One of the Scriptural texts contained in the Lesson-Sermon was, "Love worketh no ill to his neighbor: therefore love is the fulfilling of the law" (Romans 13:10).

Following the reading of the Bible texts, passages were also read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, one passage being the following from page 402: "We say that one human mind can influence another and in this way affect the body, but we rarely remember that we govern our own bodies. The error, mesmerism—or hypnotism, to use the recent term—illustrates the fact they cannot act voluntarily and handle themselves as they should do. If they yield to this influence, it is because their belief is not better instructed by spiritual understanding."

LANDSCAPE ARTIST DIES, VANCOUVER

VANCOUVER, May 31 (CP)—A hand that has translated some of the grandeur and fascination of British Columbia's mountains, streams and woods to canvas was still Saturday with the death of Thomas W. Fripp at his home here. He was 67 years of age. He had been ill since early winter with bronchial trouble.

Son of an artist father, Thomas Fripp was born in London, England, and turned to art early in life. He travelled extensively in Europe and later he became a student at the Royal academy. He also studied water colors under his distinguished father, George Aothur Fripp, R. A. In 1893 he came to Canada and took up residence in British Columbia, living for some time in the wilds of the province, clearing land and farming. An injury injured this phase of his activities and from then on he devoted more time to painting. Several of his pictures have been purchased by the Dominion government.

Mr. Fripp was the president of the British Columbia Society of Fine Arts. He is survived by his widow, two sons and a daughter.

SCIENTIST TELLS NEWSPAPERS OF TRIP TO HEAVEN

Prof. August Piccard Finds Cosmic Rays Stronger in Stratosphere

OBER GUR, Austrian Tyrol, May 31.—(By Wade Werner, Associated Press staff correspondent)—(Copyright, 1931, by the Associated Press)—A slim bespectacled scientist wearing gray suspenders, a white tennis shirt and mixed tweed trousers stood bareheaded under the Tyrolean sun here this afternoon telling a dusty audience of newspapermen what he had found out about the stratosphere on his phenomenal balloon flight of Wednesday to an altitude of almost 10 miles.

Although Auguste Piccard is professor of physics at the University of Brussels, there is little of the professional in his manner when interviewed. Questions about Wednesday's balloon trip into the outer layer of the earth's atmosphere were met with impatient snorts or with boyish enthusiasm, depending on whether they appealed to him as intelligent or not. Never once, however, did he revert to the tone of the classroom.

"What color was the daytime sky as it appeared to you 50,000 feet up," was one of the questions.

WAS A DEEP BLUE

"It was a deep dark blue," he replied, "but no stars whatever were to be seen." He said that the mysterious cosmic rays which he went aloft to study were decidedly more powerful at stratosphere height than at altitudes less than seven miles at which the stratosphere is considered to begin.

"However, until I have had time to study the notes of my flight I cannot say how much more powerful," he said.

Professor Piccard said that he had not discerned any difference between wind velocities and directions in the stratosphere from those in lower altitudes.

"They vary in the stratosphere as well as lower down," he explained. Asked specifically if he had found confirmation of the theory that the prevailing wind in the stratosphere blew in the direction contrary to the rotation of the earth, he snorted: "That's all bosh."

Another question amused him. It was about insects: "How high up did you observe insects? What was the maximum altitude of their flight?"

"What should they be doing up there with us?" he laughed. "However, I could tell you a good story about a flea."

"Oh, professor," exclaimed someone. "Did you find a flea in the aluminum gondola?"

"Oh, no," the scientist replied "I was just thinking of a funny story about fleas."

TOLMIE APPEALS ON BEHALF OF TOMATO GROWERS

VICTORIA, May 31 (CP)—Premier Tolmie renewed his efforts to obtain tariff protection which would save the British Columbia hothouse tomato industry from disaster. In a second telegram to Hon. H. H. Stevens, federal minister of trade and commerce, he said that the heavy importations of Texas tomatoes were "paralyzing the market for British Columbia tomatoes" and he urged "immediate action" by the government to stop this movement.

A valuation of 12 cents a pound on imported tomatoes for customs purposes was recommended by the premier, on the suggestion of tomato growers. "This matter," the premier said, "is extremely urgent as our tomatoes are ripening at a rapid rate and the prairie market is virtually being cut off."

NATIONAL I.O.D.E. OFFICERS CHOSEN

HALIFAX, N. S., May 31 (CP)—Completing a week of conferences, which saw the work of the I. O. D. E for the past year reviewed and a program mapped out for the next, delegates to the annual meeting of the national chapter left for their homes across Canada today. The final session yesterday saw Mrs. C. E. Burden, of Toronto, reelected to the presidency.

A sail around Halifax harbor and tea at the Navy league brought the official functions to a close yesterday. Next annual meeting will be held at Regina, Sask.

Among the national councillor are: Mrs. L. A. Genge, Victoria; Mrs. C. Grossman, Chilliwack, Mrs. Frank Stead, Vancouver; Mrs. J. Drumond, Calgary; Mrs. Duncan Smith, Edfonton; Mrs. R. Hawkins, Saskatoon; Mrs. A. Lay, Regina; Mrs. Homer Bunnell, Winnipeg. Mrs. Smith, Edmonton; Mrs. R. Hawkins, bearer.

MAKES $300 HAUL

VANCOUVER, May 31— Walking into a women's apparel shop on West Hastings street just before six o'clock Saturday evening, a robber held up the cashier at the point of a revolver and escaped with approximately $300 in currency. The man was pursued by two women, employees of the store, but managed to lose himself in the crowd.

MRS. BURDEN ELECTED

HALIFAX, N. S., May 31 (CP)—Mrs. C. E. Burden of Toronto, was reelected president of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire yesterday. First vice-president is Mrs James Ince, Toronto. The national secretary is Mrs. R. H. Brotherhood, Toronto, and the national treasurer, Mrs. W. H. Barker, Toronto.

FAIRS ANNOUNCED BY THE MINISTER OF AGRICULTURE

PRINCE ALBERT, May 31—Designation by Hon. Robert Weir, Dominion minister of agriculture, of Prince Albert exhibition as the first of three divisional fairs in the prairie provinces, has been announced by the local Agricultural society. Two other regional fairs are to be named, one in each of the other provinces, the announcement said.

The purpose, it is stated, is to encourage rivalry between farming communities, awards totalling $1000 in each regional fair to be for district exhibits of livestock, grains, grasses, etcetera. In addition points will be given for best equipped farms, farms with best horses, best grasses and clovers, and best fields of wheat, barley and oats.

Full details have not been worked out as yet, although it is believed the $1000 special grant to each of the regional fairs will be divided into prizes of $500, $300 and $200 for the districts in each of the provinces placing firsts, second and third, respectively in the competitions.

MUST COMPLETE SPRAY FOR THE CODLING MOTH

Cover Spray Should Be Put on by June 10 Entomologist Wires

That the first cover spray for Codling moth in the Kootenay and Boundary districts should be completed by June 10, was word received over the week end by E. C. Hunt, district horticulturist, from Max H. Ruhmann, entomologist for the provincial department of agriculture station at Vernon.

Mr. Ruhmann has Codling moth traps at different points in the Okanagan, and from these he is able to know when the moths are present and laying their eggs.

District farmers already have applied the calyx spray, but must now apply the cover spray, one pound of arsenate of lead to 40 gallons of water.

The Codling mother order effects the Robson, Brilliant and Thrums districts in this section, and Grand Forks in the boundary section.

MAX BASKIN OFF FOR MEXICO CITY

Will Meet Doukhobor Commission on the Land Question

Max H. Baskin, who is closely associated with the Christian Community of Universal Brotherhood, left Sunday morning, accompanied by Mrs. Baskin, for Verigin, Sask., en route to Mexico City, where he will meet the commission of six members of the Community who went to Mexico a couple of months ago to examine and report on lands that are being considered for possible colonizing by the Doukhobors still in Russia.

Mr. and Mrs. Baskin will be back in Nelson June 20.

APPLEDALE HAS CELEBRATION ON VICTORIA DAY

APPLEDALE, B. C., May 31.—The Victoria day celebration on May 25, put on by the Progressive association, was a great success. The weather being fine, the sports were enjoyetd by all. The baseball gmae between Appledale and Slocan was won by the Slocan team with a score 32-6. A. McInnes of Nelson was umpire.

The basketball game between Appledale and Slocan girls was won by the Appledale team with a score 18-5. J. M. Morley of Nelson was referee.

The dance at night was attended by a large crowd from different points in the valley.

Mrs. H. Currie of Trail arrived on Monday to spend a couple of weeks with her sister, Mrs. B. Lansdowne.

Mr. D. F. Peters is re-shingling and repainting his house.

SHRUBBERY ADDS CHARM

Carefully planted shrubbery adds charm and value to the home. Authorities agree that best effects are secured by confining the shrubs to the border and to the base of the dwelling, leaving an open lawn. In foundation planting shrubs of different heights should be chosen and the planting arranged irregularly and so placed as to conceal the alignment without completely covering the foundation.

POCKET TOOTHBRUSH SHOWN IN VEST POCKET, GENTLEMAN YEAR '89, NELSON SPRINGS UP

Toad Mountain Fades; Homes for Real Women Spring Up; "Jimmy the Goat" Lost at West Demars On Arrow Lakes

By E. PICARD

INSTALMENT THIRTY-ONE

Many of these travellers were from other parts of the country. They were different in many ways from the man of the West, and their customs and habits were soon adopted by many of the old timers. One of the things that was very noticeable at that time was a toothbrush stuck in the left-hand vest pocket. Everyone wore a vest in those days, but no working man ever thought of packing a toothbrush with him. There were no dentists in the country, and no one seemed to have toothache. But one first noticed the business man with a brush in his vest pocket, then a wouldbe business man fell for that style, and then we saw our gamblers, tinhorns, with one or two in their pockets, and soon you saw a pencil fastened with a clip alongside of the brush. Some of these birds could not write their own names, nor would they clean their teeth, but they packed these tools around with them.

SOME OUTSIDERS REFUSE A DRINK

The wild west days were gone. Quite a number of these outsiders would come through; up to that them talked about churches. Now and then a respectable woman woud come through; up to that time there had been very few in the district. Toad mountain was already out of date; the town of Nelson had taken its place, and here they were building permanent homes for real women.The old timers knew that their days of pork and beans grubstake were getting out of date. They would soon have to get good clothes to walk around town on Sunday, although the hotel bar-rooms would still be their homes, with drinking and gambling as part of their lives.

Jim McClary, my boss, came back after locating the Crow's Nest Pas railroad, with Chief Engineer Stewart, and he took charge of his ferry boat. I stopped with my old Gilpin a few days. He was the same old George; a good-natured gentleman, but otherwise hopeless.

"JIMMY THE GOAT"

While here these few days a little Irishman came in from down the river. He was but a handful of pep and grit. He had a heavy, almost red mustache, a long, narrow face with a big Roman nose, heavy chin, high, prominent cheek bones, small, piercing blue eyes, and his face and hands were covered with freckles. He had been drinking before he came here, and he kept drinking. His Christian name was Jim; his surname has left me, but he became well known later by the name of "Jimmy the Goat." But for the time, at least, I left "Jimmy the Goat" at Robson, after getting the grubstake together, most of which came from old Ike Stevens—pork and beans, flour, salt, tobacco, and a good gun. One had enough to pack around, even without prospecting.

However, I had done a lot of work for my friend George Gilpin through the summer, and I knew that his money was about gone, so part of my grubstake was 12 bottles of rye whisky, which cost about $15 at that time. Saying goodbye to George, old Ike Stevens and Tom Dunlop, the packer, and Nels Demars, I took the S. S. Despatch, Captain Bob Sanderson, and landed on the Upper Arrow lake, a mile above Demars. Here, being alone, Revelstoke being 65 miles away, no one to talk to, there was plenty of time for work.

"JIMMY THE GOAT" APPEARS

The first thing to do was to make a raft, so as to be able to go up and down or across the lake. Then a raft proved too slow and not safe enough in a storm. Then with an axe and round-nosed shovel I went to operate on a big cottonwood. The operation was to make a canoe out of it, and while chopping one bite out of it one afternoon, the lake calm, the air still, the echo of my chopping came back to me from across the lake, a fraction of a second after each stroke of my axe. It was one of those calm days that one could see over the water for miles, that everything looks big, every sound is rgeistered; the call of a loon can be heard for miles. Anyone who has had a little experience with outdoor life will recognize that particular atmosphere. At any rate, between the strokes of my axe and the echoes across the lake, a peculiar sound came to my ears. Dropping my axe, I listened; it came from across the lake. Looking across, a small brown object could be seen, moving along on the long sandy beach. Could it be a man, 65 miles from Revelstoke, and 75 miles from Nelson? How could a man be there and in need of help?

How was "Jimmy the Goat" finally rescued? "You are a no-good tramp; a quitter, I'll . . . " But that's another chapter. Where did Jimmy come from? Read about it in the next instalment.

RETIRING AGE TO BE LOWERED

OTTAWA, May 31.—(CP)—The retiring age of workers in the Dominion government service would be reduced from the present level of 65 years for employees having long and meritorious service, under a motion adopted at the civil service, federation annual convention, vention, here Friday. Workers whose labors had been particularly arduous, or performed under adverse conditions, also would be retired early.

A committee report which suggested among other things that $120,000 be the minimum annual salary increase for all ranks of the government service developed lengthy discussion. It will be voted upon later.

CHAPTER 15

"Come back here when it's all Paul can do to take care of his own family?"

"Temporarily, dear, until we think of something better. We'll manage someway. Corliss, you must not worry. . . ."

Must not worry with a letter like that staring her in the face. If only she had a profession. Anything to which she might turn, but her years at boarding school and college had fitted her to be nothing but beautiful and charming. She had been one of the most popular girls on the campus. . . .

* * *

The days dragged after that. Impossible to consider work of any kind now. Dr. Dutton and Charlotte praised her for her outward fortitude, but she knew they must have seen the fear which stared from her eyes.

Paul said, "We'll do everything we can for you, Corliss."

Dr. Dutton urged, "Better swallow your pride and let me call that husband of yours."

But she refused to even consider telling Jerry now. After going through the cruel months without him she felt he had no part in her child. And when the time came for her to face those last pain-wracked hours, she did so bravely, holding Charlotte's hand. . .

Centuries later she opened her eyes to see her son in Charlotte's arms.

"Mine. All mine!" she cried; but when she looked she saw a miniature Jerry.

Holding him upon her arm she became lost in an ecstacy of pain. All those dreary months it had been Jerry's image she held so closely beneath her heart. He was so deeply implanted in her life that even the child he would never see, resembled him.

That evening she saw a proud young father wheeling his wife up and down the corridor. Jerry would have been sweet to her if he had known. For a moment she pictured the way he would have looked if he could have stood beside her bed.

"I love you Corliss. Darlin' I'm sorry. . . ."

The thing he would have done. The things no one in the world but Jerry could have done to comfort her. Bitter tears fell upon her baby's face. She wept heart- brokenly, "If he would only come to me now. . . ." She did not know that Dr. Dutton had called every Newman in the telephone directory without success. Because at that moment Jerry was in San Francisco.

CHAPTER 16

It has been said there are compensations for ever misfortune. Corliss found hers in the tiny morsel of humanity that was brought to her bed every four hours. Each time with some new delightful quality she had not discovered before. He was so dear. So gravely, lustily intent on the business of feeding. Waving clenched red fists into the air. Screaming when forbidden. Nursing him she lost all sense of time. Slipped away into a drowsy vague contentment where she and her baby were complete. When the nurse came to take him away, Corliss was never ready.

"He's been sleeping most of the time. Please leave him a little longer."

No use! The nurse had a heart of stone. Persuasion, tears, smiles, were equally unavailing. Corliss longed for the day when she could walk out with her baby in her arms. She'd show them.

Dr. Dutton, however, insisted that she remain.

"You're not as strong as you feel. Unless you promise to take your nurse with you. . . ."

"That would be an unnecessary expense."

"Then you'll have to stay for a while."

Even the precarious state of her finances was not able to penetrate the delicious dreamy moments of contact with her child.

His eyes were blue like Jerry's. The nurse said a baby's eyes were apt to change in color. But his wouldn't. They would be blue like that always.

Would she name him after his father? No! She would call him something different. But she thought of him as "Jerry" until one day the name slipped out in Charlotte's presence.

"Oh, so you've decided on a name?"

Corliss blushed as if she had inadvertently revealed the identity of a secret lover. . . .

"I think Jerry is darling," Charlotte continued, pleasantly. "It just suits him."

Corliss stammered that she thought so too, but she hadn't decided definitely. . . From that hour he was never called anything else.

* * *

Other patients on the floor came and went. The young wife she had observed with her husband in the hospital corridor had departed long ago. Still Corliss under the doctor's orders lingered on. Until one day the baby was four weeks old.

"If you think I'm going to stay here any longer. . . ."

"It's been the only solution for you, Mrs. Newman."

Corliss reflected that he seemed more formal since the arrival of the baby. Perhaps because he realized her need was not so desperate now.

"It's costing such a lot," she scolded. "I must begin to economize."

"But disregarding your future health is not economy. I want you to be absolutely well before you begin this next period of your life."

She knew he was right and consented to remain for two more weeks. Paul sent word that he had been able to sell her car—and she left the hospital to return to Charlotte's. There seemed nothing else to do. But it was a temporary arrangement only. She knew Charlotte was too busy to have another baby in the house.

She was surprised, then, to see how fresh and well she looked. Her skin was as delicately clear as the lining of a shell. Her eyes were radiant. It was riduculous to think she couldn't support herself. Just because she hadn't done so up to date was no reason she couldn't when necessary. She asked Charlotte's advice and together they pored over newspaper ads where it seemed only skilled help was wanted.

"What do I look as if I could do?" questioned Corliss.

"Nothing. You're the most exquisitely useless looking person I've ever seen."

"Your hands are such idle, exquisite useless hands. I salute them! Jerry."

Answers by Beatrice

Would Leave Home

DEAR MISS FAIRFAX:

I am a woman of 27, and have a little bo of 6, who is a great care to me. He needs the attention of both parents all the time, but gets precious little care from his father. My in-laws say I'm jealous of my husband, but he did a great wrong in going with another woman one time, and I can't trust him or forget that. He never takes me out with him but always goes alone, and I surely get lonesome in the evenings and would like to have a good pal.

I have been separated from him a number of times, always taking the child with me. If you ever saw my little boy you would understand that I could not take him with me if I intend to earn my own living. I have decided at last to leave home and let my husband care for the child, but it would worry me to death if I thought he was not well cared for. Please give me some advice. I certainly need it.

PRICILLA.

You have not been frank enough in your letter for to give you any very substantial advice, I'm afraid. Your little boy undoubtedly needs a mother's care more than he does a father's. Why not try, in the interests of this child, to compose the difficulties with your husband? Try and forget about the other woman, as that seems to be over and past.

Favors Corporal Punishment

DEAR MISS FAIRFAX:

I am 18 years of age and dearly love a young widow 7 years my senior. My mother does not approve of this and has done everything in her power to stop it. Last Saturday my mother made a final command that, if she saw me with this person again, she would give me a sound spanking. I disobeyed her and we went to a party and had a wonderful time, but as we were coming home mother saw me from the window. She invited my sweetheart into the house and put her threat into execution. It hurt plenty and later I cried from humilation.

Do you think mother was right in doing this? My sweetheart keeps laughing and kidding me about it, I am really desperate and intend to run away or finish it all.

J. F. O.

It seems to me mother was a bit over-zealous. But a youngster of your tender years going about with a widow seven years older than you are, probably reduced Mama to a state where wrath got away with mercy. In your place I'd try for a sweetheart younger and with a more refined sense of humor. Don't think of doing anything foolish.

The Matter of Introductions

DEAR MISS FAIRFAX: We have been constant readers of your column and hope you will be able to help my friend and me in a weighty discussion. She says when introducing a man to a lady, the name of the lady's name should be mentioned first, thus: "Miss Smith, Mr. Van Alstine." I claim the introduction should be made in this manner: "Mr. Van Alstine, Miss Smith." Which is correct? Thank you.

RODA and JEAN

A gentleman is always presented to a lady, even though he is an old gentleman of great distinction and the lady a very young girl. No woman is ever "presented" to a man except to the president of the United States or a royal personage. The more formal way is: "Miss Davis, may I present D. Williams?" On less formal occasions use the word introduce."

NEW DISHES THIS WEEK

Stewed Apples: Pare eight medium sized cooking apples, quarter them (throwing peelings and cores into a small saucepan to use in making jelly, later), and put the raw apple-quarters into a fairly large saucepan in which two cups of granulated sugar and two cups of water have been boiled together, for five minutes. Let the apples cook in this syrup for 20 minutes, when they will be tender and the syrup will be fairly thick. Now add the juice of one lemon and turn the mixture into a dish, to cool. Chill before serving.

In order to make a glass or two of apple jelly from the cores and peels, barely cover these with water, cook till soft, turn through a jelly bag and for each cup of juice add one cup of sugar; cook for several minutes, till the jelly stage is reached, then turn into hot, clean glasses at once, and, when firm, put in the refrigerator to use soon.

"Butterscotch Rolls: (Contributed by Miss G.) Sift two cups of bread flour with four teaspoons of baking powder and one-half teaspoon of salt, then work in two tablespoons each of butter and lard with the fingers, and wet to a stiff dough by adding three-quarters of a cup of cold, sweet milk. Roll out on a floured board to one-third inch thick, spread this sheet with one-half cup of soft butter mixed with one cup of brown sugar till creamy, and roll up the sheet of dough like a jelly roll, before slicing it off in pieces one-half inch broad. Place these pin-wheels flat on a buttered baking pan and slip them into a hot oven to bake 15 minutes at a little over 400 degrees F. When milk sours, try this recipe—

"Sour-Milk Brown Bread: Dissolve one teaspoon of baking soda in two cups of sour milk (or same measure of buttermilk) then combine this with one-half cup of molasses, one-fourth teaspoon of salt, one cup of white (pastry) flour and two cups of either wholewheat flour or graham flour. Sometimes I add raisins, dates or nut meats (one cupful) but generally I don't add any of these. Bake for one hour in a very slow oven—at 325 degrees F."

The Beauty Box

BY Helen Follett

Smarty girls don't ply the lipstick and rouge compact in the presence of the best feller. Revealing the cosmetic source of beauty does not make for romance. The man who is in love regards his dear heart as not precisely of this common earth, but a radiant creature sprung from the ether. When the girl of his dreams hauls out the old beauty repair kit, brings forth her pulchritude props, makes for herself a new painted face, his idol takes a step from the pedestal upon which his sentimental emotions have placed her. Men are old-fashioned. Honest, they are.

To exercise when one is tired is to produce more fatigue bugs. The business girl who rushes pell-mell through the day, with scarcely a moment in which to take one long refreshing breath, is in no condition to go skipping around a gymnasium in the evening. She will regain quiet nerves by taking a hot bath, lubricating her complexion, brushing her hair, settling down with a gay little book, and then clipping off nine hours of sleep.

But development can be accomplished by gentle massage with any heavy oil, bathing with cold water every morning, going through vigorous calesthenics that pull hards on the muscles of chest and upper arms. Friction with alcohol is recommended.

Animation is the great little eye brightener. Expressionless eyes cause the face to take on the appearance of a mask. There is a sort of moulded rigidity of muscles and tissues. Not nice when observed on young faces. Something sad about blank, unseeing eyes.

"Guess What the Fortune Teller Told Me"

ALWAYS interesting to listen to . . . those fantastic futures told by crystals, cards or palms. But real fortune telling has turned scientific these days. "Read your future by your food", is the new teaching. And how sensible it is, when you think of it!

Because a single serving contains more varied nourishment than many a hearty meal, Grape-Nuts foretells an abundantly happy future for you. And a joyous today! For Grape-Nuts with milk or cream is the biggest flavour thrill ever brought to breakfast. And not only that ... Grape-Nuts is a great help to teeth . . encouraging, by its tempting crispness, the healthful chewing which means so much to teeth and gums.

Buy a package for breakfast tomorrow. Contains 19 satisfying servings. Grape-Nuts is made in Canada from Canadian wheat.

Everyone needs a strong, energetic body to really get the most out of life, and achieve the things they've dreamed of. And a strong, energetic body is built mainly by right food . . . food which gives your body every day a required number of vital nourishing elements in the correct proportion.

BREAKS FLYING STICK RECORD IN TRAIL MEET

Edward McLeod's Stick in Air One Minute, 13 Seconds; Models Too Heavy

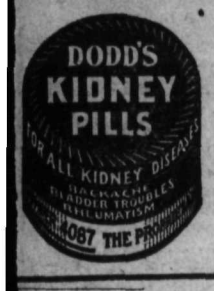
TRAIL, B. C., May 31.—Edward McLeod broke all model plane flying records for Trail with his flying stick at an outdoor meet in Tadanac Saturday morning, keeping his model in the air one minute and 13 seconds on one and one minute and five seconds on another attempt. The best record previously held in Trail was 23 seconds.

The small model had a balsam frame with bamboo ribs, Japanese tissue being used as fabric. Banana oil was used for cement. The wings were not doped.

Flights with model planes, including a tri-motored scale model, were not successful Saturday morning, the planes being too heavy.

She Feels Like A New Woman Now

Ontario Lady Used Dodd's Kidney Pills



"My back pained me but I found great relief in Dodd's Kidney Pills," writes Mrs. W. J. Hammond, Massey Station, Ont. "My kidneys were in bad order and after a few boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills I felt like a new woman. Consequently I recommend Dodd's Kidney Pills to all those who suffer."

Ninety per cent. of the ills from which women suffer come from weak or diseased kidneys. They are the organs that strain all the impurities out of the blood. If they fail to do their work, the impurities remain in the blood and are deposited all over the body. Dodd's Kidney Pills strengthen and stimulate weak kidneys. 288

AGITATING FOR CARMI ROAD

Beaverdell Also Interested in Finishing of Penticton Highway

PENTICTON, B. C., May 31.—A movement is on foot in Penticton to create a drive for completion of the Penticton-Carmi-Beaverdell road.

It is declared that Beaverdell mines have more silver ore in sight than ever before, that the Sally is contemplating operating shortly on a considerably larger scale, and that indications point to a revival of silver prices.

Completion of a road between Penticton, Beaverdell and Carmi would put Beaverdell within 40 miles of Penticton as compared with about 80 to Grand Forks and 60 to Kelowna.

People at both Beaverdell and Carmi are said to be anxious to get a road to Penticton, because this is the nearest large-sized town and furthermore, a highway in this direction gives them closer communication with Vancouver via the Hope-Princeton road.

They point out that considerably more work has been done on the Kelowna-Beaverdell road than on the one between Penticton and Beaverdell.

It is understood that the Penticton board of trade will be asked to call a meeting and take the matter up, Carmi and Beaverdell being willing to send representatives here to discuss the question.

According to the federal department of agriculture hogs turned into rape when six to eight inches high saves the farmer more than 00 pounds of meal with every 100 pounds of gain.

Social Events of Trail City

TRAIL, B. C., May 31.—Elks' hall Friday night was the scene of one of the most artistic and outstanding social events of the season, when the Masons of Fidelity lodge No. 32, A. F. & A. M., were at home to a host of friends.

Under a rippling canopy of blue and gold streamers, the spacious hall was transformed into a huge marquee of the east. At one end stood a golden painted palaquin, flanked by oriental lights and two black and glowing samovars bearing the Masonic emblem. Here two dark-skinned eastern maidens in pearls and chiffon gravely dispensed to the lady guests rosebuds, dewy and fragrant, and later, from laden trays, cigarettes and candy.

Masonic emblems shaded the lights and adorned the orchestra booth, while in one corner a six-foot emblem stood alone, completely covered with the blue and gold flowers of the iris.

The cool veranda, "Ye Olde Shibboleth Inne," invited all to partake of the delicious refreshment provided.

Downstairs, supper was served at small tables, daintily decorated with pinks. Further carrying out the color scheme, each place was laid with an individual supper basket of blue and gold, containing the best possible things to eat and covered with a serviette bearing the Masonic emblem.

GLOOMY DEAN HAS BRIGHT PICTURE FOR THE FUTURE

Says That in 3,000 Years Great Britain Will Have Fixed Population

LONDON, May 31—(AP)—The Very Rev. William Ralph Inge, dean of St. Paul's lecturing on "the future of the human race" at the royal institution tonight, drew a rather rosy picture of Great Britain in the year 3000 A. D. Belying his nickname, "The Gloomy Dean."

"In 3000 A. D.," he said, "the population of Great Britain will have been fixed at a maximum of 20,000,000. People will not be allowed to live in crowds. No person will be allowed to have children without of bodily and mental fitness and 'A-1' husbands or wives will be as much sought after as wealth and titles are now. Physical perfection will be cultivated.

"The rational costume for both sexes, cheap, becoming and scanty, will enable beauty to be recognized in the body and limbs as well as in the face.

"War will have been entirely abolished and all tariff walls. Most of the nations will be nearly self supporting. Since there will be no wars, no army or navy, no national debt, no foreign politics and no doles or class bribery, the functions of the central government will be almost nominal. Parliament, which will meet for a fortnight or so every year will be a dignified elderly senate of former officials and retired business men."

DISEASE STAMPED OUT

Asserting that infectious disease will be completely stamped out in 3000 A. D., Dean Ingle added that this did not include the common cold, "which will remain the opprobrium of medical science." Dean Ingle thought nevertheless than another great war might shatter all prospects of civilization surviving.

"Have we any reason to think that Russia would stick at anything?" he asked. "It looks like a race between common sense and catastrophe."

"Exhaustion of the earth's resources may come within our period," Dean Inge went on. "Another danger, much more invidious, is that all the civilizations that we know are appallingly disgenic. They are busily reversing the process of natural selection.

"We have popular journalists writing books called 'Eugenics and Other Evils'; we see a powerful church forbidding its members to join societies for the study of these problems. Let us recognize clearly that the battle that science has now to fight is not with religion or superstition. It is a war between science and the irrational forces which make for degeneracy and disintegration. Those forces become stronger with each victory.

"Christianity has much in common with eugenics. It aims at saving soul—the man himself. Religion must not be content to be one important factor in a complex civilization. Its function is to cooperate with other elevating influences in holding up and inculcating the higher values."

41-Pound Fish Is Landed, Christina

GRAND FORKS, B. C., May 31.—S. H. Creech, new manager of the Alpine Inn at English point, has the distinction of hooking the largest fish ever taken from Christina lake. He made the catch on Sunday of a Kamloops trout which weighed 41 pounds, and in spite of Doubting Thomases the size of the fish is properly vouched for. In the past there have been catches of fish from the lake that have run from 15 to 20 pounds, but even these have been exceptional, so that Mr. Creech's is quite remarkable in the matter of size.

During the week-end H. W. McInnes of Trail caught an eight-pound Kamloops trout and Ralph Smyth got a 12-pound salmon trout.

MONDAY MORNING, BAY 31, 1931

"Speaks Out in Meetin' "

Premier Tolmie has spoken out in meetin'. After having maintained silence in face of a great deal of criticism from within his own party ranks, he has told the critics where they head in.

The genial premier is easy-going and dislikes unpleasantness, but, while long-suffering, there are limits to his endurance. Those limits reached, he is capable of hitting out from the shoulder, and hitting hard.

It is a pretty husky series of uppercuts which he has landed on the chins of rebels within his own party, and most people, whether they happen to agree with him or not, will admire him all the more for it.

The government has been criticized for spending too much on highways; it has been attacked for spending too little. It has been accused of profligate expenditures and of having spent more than the province could afford; then it has been roundly scored for the one per cent income tax which the government found necessary to balance the budget, to make both ends meet.

Much of the criticism has been entirely sincere; it has come from those who honestly disagree with the government. With these critics Premier Tolmie says he has no quarrel.

But most of the criticism which has come from within the party, and particularly that which has made such resounding noises in Vancouver, has had motives that were not unselfish. At meeting after meeting the government would be attacked briefly for some public policy and then at great length and with plenty of bitterness concerning its distribution of patronage.

Patronage—that is what most of the trouble is over, insofar as the battling within the ranks is concerned. It is always the bane of parties, and patronage is particularly troublesome to a party which has reached office after hungry years in the wilderness. There are so many who feel entitled to rewards and so comparatively few awards to dish out. For every contract to be let there are a dozen good party supporters who feel they should get it. The Tolmie government has dealt with the problem insofar as contracts are concerned by opening all tenders publicly and letting them to the lowest bidder, whether, to use Dr. Tolmie's vivid phrasing, "he's Tory, Grit or Holy Roller."

Then for every job to be filled there are twenty applicants who all feel they are politically competent to get the appointment. It's the same when some supplies have to be purchased, or new machinery, or a carload of cement.

Governments have always looked after their friends, or have paid the penalty at the polls, but no government can look after all of them all the time.

The Census Taking Starts

Are you prepared to answer all the questions the Dominion census enumerator will ask you? Today, June 1, the machinery for the taking of the seventh comprehensive decennial census since Confederation starts its long grind. Enumerators will make house-to-house visits in the cities of the district. The enumerators will visit district points and farms. When census taking is completed there will be a record of every person in the Dominion. There will be an agricultural record. There will be a record of livestock and fruit growing in towns, etc. Merchandizing and service establishments, blindness and deaf mutism, and institutions such as hospitals, orphanages, etc., all come under the present sensus taking.

Be prepared when the enumerator calls. The information demanded by him, which must be given freely, is absolutely confidential. The enumerators have been sworn to secrecy. The census is first and last for statistical purposes, and cannot be made the basis of any administrative action. The enumerators have been ordered to use courtesy and tact, but refusal to answer their questions is penalized by statute.

It is expected that from two to five weeks from June 1 will suffice in normal localities for the completion of the field work. After the third or fourth month it should be possible to give out the first results for many cities, towns, counties, etc. As to when the final count by provinces for the entire Dominion will be available, so many unforseeable contingencies are possible that prophecy is dangerous, but it is expected that five or six months should enable a close approximation to be made. In the recent U. S. census the population count was announced in four months and seven days.

Altogether, the census will cost some millions of dollars. The amount set aside this year is about two millions and a half, but there was a vote of $135,000 last year for equipment and preparatory work, and at least another half million will probably be required in 1932 and 1933 to finish.

Help the enumerator by being prepaired, so that the work may be speeded up.

The Budget Comes Down Today

Today, east and west, north and south, in this great Dominion and a great portion of the world, will be straining eyes on Ottawa. For today Premier R. B. Bennett brings down his first budget since taking over the reins of office at Ottawa.

Advance notices from the capital are that there will be changes in several hundred tariff items, increases in sales and corporation taxes, and possibly a tax on stock trading by Canadians in New York.

Drop in revenue, loss in import and export trade will no doubt bring about additional taxation. Canadians will watch with interest today for Premier Bennett's first budget.

Seen and Heard in NELSON

(By J. B. C.)

A story going the rounds illustrates one of the things the matter with business. A country dweller who had never seen a mirror found one in the road one day, looked in it and exclaimed: "Blamed if it ain't a picture of Dad! I never knew he had his picture took." He hid it away but his wife saw him and rooted it out when he was gone. "Hum! So that's the old hag he's been chasing," she exclaimed.

Those who keep insisting that business is rotten may be looking at a mirror instead of a portrait.

After scouting styles in Milady's turbans in the smart Fifth avenue shops, Miss Mary Pawling decided she could do better—and cheaper down below the Macy-Gimbel line. So this inventive miss took a couple of 5 and 10 cent store dishrags, knotted them together, and made her own chapeau, starting a vogue in headgear which rapidly is "catching on."

Now watch the prices soar.

TAGS AND FLAPPERS

O cigarette, forbidden weed,
In youth thou were a sin indeed,
Quite unpermissable.
Nor did I dream in days of yore
That maids would puff thee by the score
To make them kissable.
—George E. Phair in the American

Oh wait another year or two;
As girlish customs swiftly grow
The more effaceable,
You'll find a big cigar or pipe
Will make a girl a certain type
That's more embraceable.
—H.I. Phillips in the New York Sun.

And after that, perhaps, 'twill be
The fashion for each "fair laydee"
To "chaw" quite blissfully,
Or take, as grandpa did, some snuff.
'Twill then take hardihood enuff
To greet them kissfully.

So perhaps some day along with their bobs
Our maidens, so gay and so demure
Will walk along smoking on their corn cobs
Puffing rings circling up to the azure
Or will they demand, with nonchalant gaze,
Your tobacco pouch, if that is permissable?
Then you'll find out, the man always pays.
But the girls will be just as kissable.
—Oh, Yeh!

Whereabouts of the Donor of Air Race Trophy Is a Mystery

To the Editor of The Nelson Daily News:

Sir—I note in recent issues of your newspaper that you refer to the Schnieder cup, this should be, I think the Schneider trophy. The trophy represents a winged figure swooping down to kiss the waves on the seashore.

The trophy was given by a Frenchman by the name of Schneider, and, I understand his whereabouts now are shrouded in mystery.

Yours truly, E. R. H.

What the Press Says

KING JOHN'S TREASURE

British school children for generations have heard the legend that King John, after his argument with the barons at Runnymede, lost the crown jewels in the Wash, an indentation of shallow sea in East Angelia. A land reclamation project has been carried out there recently and in the house of commons, a Conservative asked whether any trace had been found of King John's treasure during the operations. "King John's treasure," replied Christopher Addison, minister of agriculture, "is now a village several miles inland."—The Brandon Sun.

AUTHORS AND THE BIBLE

A list of authors whose work shows the influence of the Bible would be endless, but we cite a few examples: Coleridge said, "Intense study of the Bible will keep any man from being vulgar in point of style." Daniel Webster said, "If there be anything in my style or thought to be commended, the credit is due to my kind parents in instilling into my mind an early love of the Scriptures." A Scotch nurse taught Byron to love the Bible and his "Hebrew Melodies" are drawn wholly from the Scriptures. In Robert Burns' "The Cotter's Saturday Night" there are some 20 Biblical references.—Washington Star.

HIGH FINANCE

It has been officially proclaimed that Governor Montagu Norman of the Bank of England reached no "understanding" with the federal reserve authorities during his recent visit to the United States. Hence, it must be put down merely as an interesting coincidence that on the heels of his visit the New York Reserve bank inaugurates a financial policy for the benefit of the Bank of England, much like that through which in 1927 the federal reserve system led the country to disastrous consequences. —The Baltimore Sun.

FORTUNATE BRITISH COLUMBIA

If travellers from east and south are to be believed, British Columbia is isolated in a position of relative economic comfort compared with the rest of the continent.

It has been evident that the Pacific coast province felt the effects of the business depression later than Eastern Canada, owing to the carry-over of activities in numerous lines from the prosperity of 1928 and 1929. Will the province be amongst the first to record the stimulus of reviving general trade?

This is not the first occasion in which this business phenomenon has occurred. In 1907 British Columbia was left practically unscathed by the terrible depression that swept the rest of North America. In 1921 the recession in British Columbia business was not so severe as elsewhere on the continent.

Business is by no means good in British Columbia today. In lumbering and fishing, especially there is an altogether unsatisfactory condition. But revenue car loading in British Columbia has not shrunk as in the east or the United States, there have been fewer great factories to close down throwing hundreds of thousands out of employment, the mining industry has managed to hang on tenaciously with skilful management keeping costs still under returns, the pulp and paper industry is not demoralized, tourist traffic is good, crops are promising and livestock herds are on the increase.

The cycle of prosperity and depression apparently carries British Columbia neither so high nor so low as it does the more populous manufacturing and financial centers of the east.—Financial News.

A GOOD EXAMPLE

An English gentleman and his family passed through the wilds of New Brunswick recently. Trees were bare, patches of snow touched the forest floor here and there. Though the sun was bright, it was not a day for loitering.

But the English gentleman was true to his race and his station. The train was stopped at the village of Newcastle while the party attended church service. There in the interior of a slowly developing province, by the banks of the broad log-strewn Miramichi river, Lord Bessborough and his party, who recently reached Ottawa to take over the duties of governor-general's office, worshipped in the village church.

It is a little church, holding perhaps 125 persons, yet it perpetuates the traditions of the English race and promotes the beliefs of the Church of England. It was the Sunday home of an Englishman, whether he be in London, Sydney, Calcutta or the wilds of Canada.

A hurrying traveler might well have continued on his hurry across his continental domain,. Lord Bessborough revealed a better mettle and he showed a better example.—Toronto Globe.

DR. WILSON, THAT'S ALL

Because Dr. Clarence True Wilson disagrees with the conclusions of Miss Ada L. Comstock, president of Radcliffe college, as published in the Wickersham report on prohibition, he has told the New Hampshire Methodist Episcopal conference that Radcliffe is "one of the wettest smokiest and loosest colleges in the United States." How chivalrous of the gentleman and how utterly typical! It is an old black hend trick in seeking revenge against a recalcitrant victim to kidnap, murder or otherwise maltreat his children. Dr. Wilson merely refines the process. He takes it out on Miss Comstock by publicly slandering her charges.

He has, of course, no facts to substantiate his statement, and he makes no attempt to supply them. The Radcliffe student body, as it happens, bears a reputation for the exact opposite of the picture so charmingly presented by Dr. Wilson. That does not deter him. What are facts and reputations among mudslingers?

But it is possible to be too cross with Dr. Wilson. After all, this outburst is only the latest evidence of the hysteria that grips him and that has made him and his propaganda subjects more of pity than of censure. Certainly, Miss Comstock can afford to dismiss his tirade with a smile of tolerance. And as for the Radcliffe girls, they are probably happy to learn that there is a man with a megaphone who refuses to regard them as bluestockings.—New York Herald-Tribunal.

TRIUMPH AFTER DEATH

Spaniards, now that they have a republic, talk of bringing to the home land the body of Vincent Blasco Ibanez. Cynics will say that this will do the great novelist little good now that he can no longer hear the Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse riding along the winds of earth. But folk with the instinct for valiant citizenship in their hearts know better.

Ibanez was a republican when monarchy was in power, even as Ramsay MacDonald held to his own opinion even in time of war. MacDonald lived to be made the head of an empire. Ibanez died to have men think of his ashes when the Republic of Spain arose.

Joy lies not in living, but in living well and bravely. It was mere accident that the external triumph came to the Scot while he still lived, and to the Spaniard after death. The true triumph was in a realm above and beyond all accident, for it was inward.

Be sure that the Spaniard when he came to his last hour, was the happier for having held in his heart the Republic of Spain, and for having uttered stout words for him. Be sure that the Scot, when that ideal governance so dear to imperial power was given into his hands, was no more happy than when, proud in the consciousness of obedience to the best that was in him, he fed his heart upon self-respect when else it had had little food.—San Francisco Examiner.

WHAT ABOUT YOUR VACATION?

During the month of June I always like to say something about summer vacations.

Fortunately in most countries now the need of a vacation, for a change, is so well recognized that everybody tries to manage for it.

I think, generally speaking, that it is unwise for any health writer to advise his readers just how to spend their vacations, and yet there is one rule that I think I can advise and that readers can follow safely. That is that during your vacation "you do what you want to do." That you try and follow in so far as is possible, those longings of what you have been thinking or planning during the rest of the year.

One of the things that used to bother me somewhat, was to see young people, young men and women, go on a vacation, be outdoors swimming and boating all day, and then dance until the hour when the hotel lights were turned off. Where this was kept up for the entire two weeks, some of these young folks went back to their work more tired and worn out than when they started on their vacation. And yet as I think of it, they did what they wanted most to do, and the fulfillment of that desire, was perhaps of more benefit to them the rest of the year than if they had rested the entide two weeks.

The suggestion I make to patients or friends is that they simply rest and relax the first two or three days, keeping outdoors all the time; then for about ten days they lay out a plan of what they would like to do, walking swimming or boating till one hour before lunch time, getting an hour's rest before lunch, sitting around for an hour, then a rest of an hour before the eat. After the evening meal another period of resting dozing in a chair, but not lying down. The evening to be spent according to the means at hand for their enjoyment. Then the last couple of days spent resting entirely again.

Of course the ideal vacation where possible, is for each of us to try and be free in body and mind as when we were youngsters. You know, all a young animal does is to eat and sleep, but to this we must add exercise if we are to use up or burn up the large amount of food that the outdoor air has made us eat.

We can't enjoy a vacation or get a real benefit from it if we continue to think, worry, and plan as we do during the rest of the year. That is why tring to turn the years backward, and thinking ourselves carefree youngsters again, will give us the right point of view for a vacation.

SCHNEIDER WINS 500-MILE AUTO RACE AFTER LEADER HAS A CRASH

Billy Arnold, Winner of Last Year's Classic, Kills Young Lad in a Crash

SPEEDWAY, Indianapolis, Ind., May 31.—Fate catapulted Louie Schneider, one-time Indianapolis motorcycle policeman, into a stunning upset victory of the 500-mile automobile race over the Indianapolis motor speedway yesterday.

By the same stroke of fate Billy Arnold, 29-year-old Chicagoan, 1930 winner of the event, was robbed of almost certain victory when he met with an accident which resulted in the death of a boy and the burning of Arnold's car while he was speeding to apparent victory in the last 100 miles of the race. From 120,000 to 150,00 saw the race.

Arnold, seeking to repeat his triumph of a year ago, had led from the start, except for six laps, when his car, racing around the treacherous north turn of the track at terrific speed, threw a left front wheel and went crashing into the car driven by Luther Johnson of South Bend, Ind. The wheel hurtled a fence and killed Billy Brink, 11, standing on his front porch outside the track. The car caught fire and burned, but Arnold escaped death, with his mechanic, Spider Matlock, of Los Angeles. Johnson's car was wrecked, but he escaped with only a few scratches.

ANOTHER SMASH

Within a few seconds after Arnold cracked up, the machine driven by Tony Gulotta, Kansas City, who was running third, smashed into the retaining wall at the same spot where Arnold met with his accident. These two accidents, coming a few seconds apart, threw Schneider, the lanky 30-year-old son of an Indianapolis tailor, into the lead, which he maintained until the finish, crossing the line 2½ miles ahead of Fred Frame of Los Angeles.

Ralph Hepburn of Los Angeles was third, and Louis Meyer, South Gate, Cal., 1928 winner of the classic, driving for Myron Stevens, Los Angeles, was fourth. Russell Snowberger, Philadelphia, finished fifth, with Tommy Gleason, Philadelphia, "Stubby" Stubblefied, Los Angeles, eight; Cliff Berger, Los Angeles, ninth, and Chet Miller, Detroit, tenth.

Seventeen of the original 40 drivers survived the punishing test of speed and driving skill.

OTHERS FAR BEHIND

Schneider, who made his debut in the event in 1928, covered the 500 miles in 5:10:27.94, an average of 96.629 miles an hour. Frame's time was 5:11:11.12. He averaged 96.406 miles an hour. Hepburn, finishing third, made the trip in 5:18:23:25. The others were strung out far in the rear of the first two to finish.

By his victory, Schneider earns about $40,000 in cash, including about $2000 in lap money. Before the accident forced him out of the race, Arnold had won $8450 in lap prizes. Frame, who finished second, received $10,000.

Delayed by drizzling rains, the race finally got under way at 12 o'clock, two hours late. Arnold cracked the record for the first 85 miles, which he reeled off in 41:14.23, an average of 100.125 miles an hour.

PERCY WILLIAMS BEATEN AT MEET IN WASHINGTON

SEATTLE, Wash., May 31. — (AP)—Running "just to furnish competition," Bill Frisby, 20-year-old University of Washington freshman, stole the show at the annual northern division Pacific Coast track and field meet here Saturday, when he defeated Percy Williams, Canada's Olympic games sprint champion, in a 100-yard exhibition race. Frisby won in 10 seconds, one yard ahead of Williams.

The special century event was an added attraction to the meet and the young dark-haired orphan broke the tape a full yard in front of the "Canadian comet." Frisby led all the day. Williams made a great effort to catch the youngster in the last few yards, but his legs failed him.

Williams failed to finish in his exhibition 220-yard dash, dropping out of the race with a limp after travelling about 150 yards. Frisby took the lead at the start and held a yard advantage, over the Canadian boy when the latter gave it up.

The Olympic sprint champion has been having trouble with his knee, and has been working it slowly in training.

ENGLISH SOCCER BEAT TORONTO, 4-1

TORONTO, May 31 (CP)—The touring English soccer eleven yesterday won their third game in Canada when they defeated a picked team from Toronto by 4 to 1 in a game in which both sides displayed clever football. About 7000 enthusiasts crowded Ulster stadium to witness the game.

The first half was evenly contested, the tourists going off at the interval with a one goal advantage, through goals by Cookson and Smith while Toronto's lone goal came from the foot of White, local center forward. Cookson and Smith each scored in the second half, while the local team was held scoreless.

The visitors record for the tour so far shows three wins without a loss being scored against them. They have scored 19 goals while the total scored against them is two.

Mary Garden will not return to the Chicago civic opera next season, according to a statement made by the management.

Proximity of Stands Allows More Fouls

By AL DEMAREE
(Former Pitcher, New York Giants)

The lively ball and the elimination of trick deliveries has been held solely responsible for the epidemic of slugging during the last eight or 10 years. Now comes Dr. Harley Parker, the old Baltimore Oriole outfielder, with an entirely different and novel season.

"Do you remember, Al, in the old days," said Harley, "how the grandstands were at least 90 feet back of the catcher, and first and third base were practically as far. In those days the catchers caught most of the foul flys that fall in the stands today.

"In a game recently between the Chicago Cubs and Pittsburgh in Chicago I counted 43 fouls that fell out of the catcher's reach. The stands today are right on top of home plate and first and third base. Fifteen years ago most of the fouls were put-outs. Today they fall out of reach and the batter has virtually another time at bat with no penalty. Move the stands back 50 feet farther and watch the hitting fall off, even with the lively ball.

COCHRANE AND RUTH TIE FOR BATTING LEAD

Babe's Homer and Cochrane's Two Hits Bring Averages Up to .400

Two ties exist in the standing of the Big Six who compose the leading batters of the major leagues. Babe Ruth, who yesterday made one hit, his ninth homer of the year, and Mickey Cochrane, who got two out of six, both have .400 averages. Buzz Arlett, National league leader, pounded out three in five, and tied Al Simmons.

YANKEES BEAT THE CELTICS

Scotch Champions Meet First Pair of Reverses of American Tour, 4-3

BOSTON, May 31 (CP)—Glasgow Celtic team suffered its first reverse in its soccer tour of the United States Saturday, New York Yankees, U. S. champions and cup holders, coming out on top by a score of 4 to 3 before 10,000 wildly excited people.

William Gonsalves, inside left, starred for the winners by netting three great goals, two in the first half and the other after the interval, while Bert Patenaude, center forward, got the other.

McGrory and Alex Thomson scored for the Celtics in the opening period and Scarff drew level after the interval before Gonsalves drove in the winning goal.

N. Y. Yankees: Rider, goal; McGill, Moorehouse, backs; McPherson, Priestley, Ballantyne, half backs; McNab outside right; White, inside right; Patenaude, center; Gonsalves inside left; Burness, outside left.

TIVERTON, R. I., May 31. (CP)—The famous Glasgow Celtic soccer team met with its second successive defeat in its tour of the United States at the Mark stadium today, falling before the Fall River eleven by 1 to 0, before 7000 people. The goal was scored three minutes from full time when McGonigle fouled Scott just outside the penalty area.

Billy Watson took the kick, and planted the ball right under the crossbar, and J. Thompson, in attempting to clear, pulled it into his own net.

SUTTER TAKES A HARD-FOUGHT WIN IN ZONE TENNIS

Beats Second Ranking Argentine Player; Comes From Behind to Win

WASHINGTON, May 31—A dramatic four-set victory by young Clifford Sutter of New Orleans, making his Davis cup debut, yesterday enabled the United States team to score a clean sweep of five matches to none over Argentina in the final American tie.

By stamina and cool-headedness he came from behind to wear down the 28-year-old second ranking Argentine player, Guillermo Robson, 3-6, 6-4, 6-3, 6-3.

Service in the current Davis cup campaign, easily won his third match of the tie, defeating the giant Ronaldo Boyd, 6-2 6-2, 6-2.

SEATTLE LOSES TENNIS TO THE VANCOUVER CLUB

VANCOUVER, B. C., May 31.—Local tennis stars captured two singles and three doubles matches to win a five to three victory from Seattle players here today in a series of friendly matches on the courts of the Vancouver Lawn Tennis club.

Mel Dranga and Danny Lewis gave the invading forces a good start by annexing the first two events defeating Ossie Ryall and Dunc Williams. Dranga took Ryall 6-3, 6-2, while Lewis accounted for Williams, 6-0, 8-6. The count was squared when Dreyfus and Williams defeated Peterson and Little of Seattle, 6-0, 6-4, and 6-0, 6-3, respectively. Seattle again went into the lead in the doubles when Turenne and Langley took a hard-fought match from Goef Peers and Dixon, 8-10, 6-4, 6-4.

Brown and Muir evened it up again by winning from Little and Peterson, 7-5, 6-4. Dreyfus and Robertson put the locals one up by defeating Quillan and Warren, 10-8, 6-1. Russell and Lyford added the final victory by winning from Ketchum and Dupont in a hard battle, 6-8, 6-4, 6-4.

DERBY DOPE DECLARES TURF CLASSIC THIS YEAR IS A MATTER OF PUZZLE

Canadians Draw Horses in the Army and Navy Sweepstake on the Derby

SAINT JOHN'S, Nfld., May 31. —Among those who drew horses in the Army and Navy sweepstakes on the English derby were the following:

Leminition—G. C. Cope, Lethbridge, Alta.

Sandwich—M. Binne, East Kildonan, Man.

Sir Andrew—J. Doychuk, Canora, Sask.

EPSOM DOWNS, England, May 31. (CP cable)—The 148th renewal of the Derby stakes, blue riband of the turf, is only three days away, and the world is engaged in the old quest of picking the winner. About 30 horses are ready to race over the mile-and-a-half course on Wednesday afternoon, carrying the hopes and fortunes not only of their owners but of many persons who never even saw the thoroughbreds in their struggle over the historic stretch of turf, which has trembled before the thudding hoofs of the greatest horses of all time.

DERBY IS A PUZZLE

And the Derby this year is a puzzle. The year 1931 is not one of those "vintage" years which the turf discusses ardently for decades, a year which seems the entrance of a great horse and is again recalled by the victories of that horse's progeny. Ordinarily the Derby speculation eases itself upon the previous year's performance of leading 2-year-olds, with pointers from their pre-Derby races as 3-year-olds.

This year the turf has seen a comparatively unknown 2-year-old of 1930, J. A. Dewar's Cameronian, race away with the classic Two Thousand Guineas, the preliminary classic to the Derby, while ranking 1930 2-year-olds were belated in their training preparation. And it has seen the winter Derby favorite, Marshall Field's Jacopo, trounced by others in a preparatory race in which the Two Thousand Guineas field hardly figured. The winner of the Two Thousand himself rules favorite for the Derby, on pure performance, but the horse that ran second to him at Newmarket—Marcell Boussac's Goyesca — lost more ground in a bad start than the distance he was beaten by Cameronian.

B. C. SHOOT TO BE HELD, JULY

VANCOUVER, May 31—Marksmen from all parts of British Columbia will gather in July at Heals rifle range, Victoria, to participate in the oldest rifle shoot in this province—that of British Columbia Rifle association, which was organized in 1874. The meet, which will convene on July 7, will last five days.

At this gathering riflemen will be selected to represent British Columbia at the Dominion rifle meet, which will be held a month later in Ottawa. From the latter competition Canada's Bisley team will be picked.

It is anticipated approximately 130 crack shots will attend the Victoria meet.

The usual extensive prize list is provided. New features include the revival of the historic "Dorothy" medal in gold, for nearly 30 years presented annually by the members of the Helmcken family of Victoria, and a new medal, the "Captain Fletcher Memorial medal," presented in commemoration of the inestimable service of the late Capt. E. H. Fletcher of Victoria, secretary for over a quarter of a century.

FROTHBLOWER WINS AGAIN

TORONTO, Ont., May 31. (CP)—Frothblower, winner of the King's Plate for 1931 and also the Breeders' Stakes, annexed further honors at the Woodbine track Saturday by winning the William Hendrie Memorial handicap. R. W. R. Cowie's 3-year-old led the 1930 King's Plate winner, R. H. Newsaymond, to the wire by a neck. The race was for 3-year-olds and up foaled in Canada, with $3000 added, at a mile and a sixteenth.

BOROTRA WINS FRENCH TENNIS CROWN EASILY

Beats Fellow Countryman; Betty Nuthall Beats German Singles Star

AUTEUIL, France, May 31. (AP)—Jean Borotra, French Davis cup ace, beat his fellow-countryman, Christian Boussus, 2-6, 6-4, 7-5, 6-4, to win the men's singles crown of the French hard court tennis championships at Roland Garro's stadium today.

In the final of the women's singles Betty Nuthall, British youngster, took a surprisingly decisive beating from the German champion, Cilli Aussem, 8-6, 6-1.

Borotra's triumph over Boussus had been expected, but Miss Nuthall's defeat came as a stunning surprise to the experts. The German girl shook Betty's confidence at the start, taking the British girl's first service, and throughout the first set it was Betty's errors rather than Fraulein Aussem's earned points that won. In the second set the German champion again won Miss Nuthall's first service, and Betty, wilder than aver, took only the fifth game.

The Borotra-Boussus duel, lacking the tinge of international rivalry, was dull in spots. Boussus fought hard, but once Borotra had his game working he was in full command of the situation.

SCOTTISH GOLF CLASSIC OPENS

Championship Affair Wider Open This Year Than in Recent Years

CARNOUSTIE, Scotland, May 31.—(By Frank H. King, Associated Press staff writer)—Great Britain's greatest golfing competition, the open championship, gets under way in this ancient stronghold of the game tomorrow.

A heavy rain and high winds kept most of the more than 200 entrants storm-bound today in hotels, inns and cottages, where they crowded at the windows to watch the pelting rain and the rolling and tossing of the North sea. There was hope, but no promise, of more favorable conditions when play starts at 9:30 tomorrow morning.

Never in recent years had the championship been so wide-open an affair, with a dozen Britons, Americans and Argentinians conceded to be capable of winning the title, but not a single one of them an outstanding favorite.

United States entrants hope to maintain unbroken the record of their country's victories since 1923, when Arthur Havers, of Great Britain, won.

The hydro-electric power commission of Ontario sends out its power to 550 municipalities, which include 26 cities, 84 towns, 215 villages and 233 townships.

NELSON SENIOR BALL NINE DEFEATS COLVILLE 6-4 IN FIRST HOME GAME

G. Graham, Colville Catcher Starts Scoring With Home Run Slam

GAME IS OPENED BY MAYOR MORGAN

I. Kraft and K. Adams, Nelson and Colville Pitchers Hurl Well

Playing steady ball, the local nine won a well-earned 6-4 victory over Colville players in the opening of Nelson's senior ball season at the Recreation grounds Sunday afternoon. Sunday's victory is the second consecutive win for the local nine in the Canadian-Washington International league schedule. Nelson defeated Ione at Ione in the first game.

Mayor J. P. Morgan started the season off here by throwing the first ball. W. Freno umpired the game.

Colville started the scoring in the first inning when G. Graham, the visitor's catcher, and third man to bat, slammed out the ball for a homer with no one on base. The ball sailed far over the left field fence. Colville drew a blank in the next two innings but scored two in the fourth and one in the eighth. Nelson's team was held scoreless until the fourth, when Schumaker slid across the plate less than a second before the catcher clapped the ball on him.

H. Gillett and Schumaker scored in the fifth, J. Wallace and T. Harrison in the sixth, and Richardson in the seventh.

PITCHERS GOOD

Both Nelson and Colville pitchers played splendid games, the Nelson pitcher getting the best support. Adams and Kraft both struck out eight and allowed two to walk.

Tommy Harrison, playing the left field for Nelson, snatched heavy hits from the Colville players when he caught the ball within a few feet of the fence on several occasions. Harrison also proved a valuable hitter, bringing in one of the six runs scored by the Nelson team and getting a two-base hit. H. Gillett played a steady game on first, grabbing several wild throws.

GOOD CATCH

The only spectacular play made by Colville was in the third inning when E. McAmmon, right fielder, ran a considerable distance to grab a long fly.

LIFTS OVER FENCE

First inning, Colville—Gilbert fanned; McAmmon hit a grounder to Jeffs on third and was thrown out. Graham, catcher, slammed a homer well over left field fence. Smith knocked a fly which was caught by Harrison in the left field.

Nelson—Keiver fanned. Gillett drove a safe one to left field. Gillett was forced off on second when Schumaker hit past Claire at short. Richardson hit a slow grounder to Smith on third and was thrown out.

Second innings, Colville—Claire drove a grounder to Jeffs at third base and was thrown out. Jacobson knocked a left field fly which was caught by Harrison. Paxton fanned.

Nelson—Jeffs smashed a grounder to Smith at third base and was thrown out. Arcure knocked the ball to Adams, pitcher, and was thrown out. Wallace hit to short. Claire, second baseman, and Benson, first baseman, fumbled it, allowing Wallace to make first. Harrison fanned.

FUMBLE BALL

Third inning, Colville—Benson hit a fly which was caught by Wallace. Adams reached first when Gillett, first baseman, and Wallace, second baseman, fumbled his grounder. Gilbert went out on fly to Keiver. McAmmon made a safe hit, bringing Adams to second. Graham slammed out a two-base hit and Adams was thrown out by Schumaker in right field as he slid to home.

Nelson—Kraft went out on fly to McAmmon, stationed in the right field. McAmmon made a long run to get the ball. Keiver and Gillett struck out.

Fourth inning, Colville—Smith made a safe hit past Wallace on Third. Smith went to second when Catcher Richardson overthrew to first base trying to catch the runner. Claire walked. Jacobson fanned. Paxton made two bases when Keiver, short stop, missed his grounder. Smith came in and Claire went to third. Keiver nabbed Benson's grounder and threw him out at first. Claire crossed home plate for a run and Paxton went to third. Adams fanned.

SLIDES HOME SAFELY

Nelson—Schumaker made first, driving a fast grounder between first and second bases. Jeffs bunted and was thrown out and Schumaker went to second and to third. Schumaker slid for home and was safe when the catcher dropped a throw from the pitcher. Arcure walked. Wallace walked and Arcure went to second. Harrison drove a left field grounder, bringing Arcure to third and Wallace to second. Harrison was thrown out at second base.

Fifth inning, Colville—Gilbert drove a fine one to left field for a single, but was thrown out at second base. McAmmon made a safe bunt hit and went to second as pitcher threw to the catcher. Graham and Smith fanned.

Nelson—Keiver made a three-base hit but over-ran the base and was thrown out at home. Gillett hit for a single and ran to third base when Schumaker slammed out a two-bagger. Gillett scored the second run when the catcher missed a low ball thrown by the pitcher. Richardson fanned. Jeffs reached first when the first baseman stepped off to catch the throw from Smith on third base. Schumaker scored the third to tie the score. Arcure drove the ball to Smith at third and was thrown out.

HIT BY BALL

Sixth inning, Colville — Claire walked, and, proceeded to second when he was hit by the catcher's throw to first base, the ball glancing out of the field. Jacobson hit to Kraft in the pitcher's box and was thrown out. Kraft caught a low fly knocked by Paxton for the second out. Claire went to third. Benson fanned.

Nelson—Wallace made a single and went home on Harrison's two-bagger. Kraft fanned. Keiver knocked a right field fly which was caught by Paxton. Harrison went to third. Gillett got a fine left field drive and brought in Harrison. Schumaker was out on a fly to Jacobson at second base.

Seventh inning, Colville—Adams was thrown out by Jeffs. Gilbert got a center-field hit for a single. McAmmon drove the ball to Keiver at shortstop, who threw out Gilbert going to second. McAmmon died on second. McAmmon was put out when Schumaker in right field made a long throw to the base.

Nelson—Richardson drove the ball into center field for a single and went to second base on Jeffs' sacrifice bunt and scored when Arcure slammed the ball into the left field for a two-base hit. It bounced and McAmmon, left fielder, fumbled it. Wallace fanned and Arcure ran to third and made the base safely when the third baseman, Smith, missed a throw from Graham, the Colville catcher. Harrison fanned and ended the inning.

Eighth inning, Colville—Smith drove a fast grounder to Wallace on second. Wallace made a wide throw and Gillett, first baseman, had to step from the bag to catch it, allowing the runner to reach first. Smith went from first to third when Graham slammed out a clean hit for a single. Smith stole second. Jacobson fanned and Smith was thrown out running to the home plate by the pitcher, who nabbed Paxton's bunt. Benson hit the ball for a single. Gillett ran from his base, caught a fast grounder and putran Adams to the base.

PITCHERS CHANGE

Nelson—The Nelson nine went to bat facing Jacobson, who played second base during the first seven innings, and Adams, the pitcher, moved back to Jacobson's former position. Keiver and Gillett went out on flies and Kraft was thrown out when Claire at short grabbed his grounder.

Ninth inning, Colville—Gilbert knocked out a fly to Keiver, and McAmmon lobbed the ball into the air for Catcher Richardson to nab. Graham centered the ball for a single. Smith fanned, and the game was ended.

PAPAL COLORS FLY FOR FIRST TIME IN YEARS

Are Displayed in France for the First Time Since the Year 1905

ROUEN, France, May 31 (AP)—For the first time since the separation of church and state in France in 1905, the papal colors, yellow and white, flew over the Rouen perfecture alongside the tricolor of France in honor of the visit of the papal legate, Cardinal Bourne, who arrived from England Friday night to preside over tomorrow's commemoration of the martyrdom of St. Joan of Arc.

For this ceremony, on the 500th anniversary of the maid of Orleans' death at the stake, Premier Laval sent to Rouen the vice-president of his cabinet, Leon Berard, minister of justice, to represent the government. The distinguished company assembled here included also Lord Tyrrell, the British ambassador, and more than 60 French bishops, here Friday. Workers whose vigil by patriotic and religious societies in front of the monument recalling Joan's burning at the stake here on May 30, 1431. Throughout the night these organizations were prepared to relieve one another in the watch along the banks of the Seine, on whose waters the saint's ashes were strewn. Vessels in the port Os Rtuen showed all their lights, and the navy ordered a salute of 101 guns in honor of Joan's memory, a tribute normally reserved for the president of the French republic.

B. C. IMPORTS MUCH CANNED GOODS IN 1930

VICTORIA, May 31—British Columbia, last year, imported over 7,000,000 pounds of canned fruit and vegetables which could have been produced within the province, according to figures compiled by the provincial government. These figures were issued to show the great possibilities of canning here. The government has also received detailed information on the remarkable progress of canning in Britain, where, in the last two years, canning plants and their output have been quadrupled.

Two years ago in Britain there were five canning plants. Now there are 40. Last year over 17,000,000 cans of fruit and vegetables were canned, while beets, turnips, carrots, spinach, peas, beans, onions and young potatoes also are being canned in large quantities. Investments in fruit and vegetable canning plants now total over $15,000,000. The government believes that British Columbia should be able to expand its canning industry along the same lines to the enormous benefit of its agriculture.

VANCOUVER LIST TRADE LISTLESS

Stocks Cross the Board at Even Quotations; B. C. Oils and A.P. Leads

VANCOUVER, May 31 —With all other stock markets on the continent closed, the Vancouver exchange drifted trendlessly through an uninteresting abbreviated session Saturday. Stocks generally crossed the board at even quotations. The few changes recorded in the final analysis were slightly lower. Sales were below the usual Saturday average with 13,815 shares traded.

British Columbia oils, A. P. Consolidated and Oregon Copper accounted for most of the activity. Golds and the higher priced oils were dull.

Amalgamated and Crow's Nest both sold steadily at 10 cents, with the former closing at the selling price and the latter at 8 cents bid. A. P. Consolidated closed off 1 cent net at 15 cents after selling at 16 cents throughout the session. Mayland tumbled to a new low at 29 cents, down 1 cent below Friday's close. The remainder of the group ended the day steady.

Oregon Copper gradually rose from an opening at 5½ cents to a firm close at 6 cents at which quotation it closed. Big Missouri eased fractionally on the final bid to 24½ cents, while Cotton Belt recovered 1 cent at 14 cents. International Coal softened 2 cents to 8 cents bid.

CROP CONDITIONS ARE BETTER THAN LAST YEAR IN B. C.

WINNIPEG, May 31— Alberta, with highest favors going to the Peace River area, gives the best average in crop conditions in the three prairie provinces for the week just closed, according to the general report from the agriculture department of the Canadian Pacific railway today. Manitoba reports improvement, with unsettled weather and seeding nearing completion. Saskatchewan still looks for moisture and has suffered in same localities from soil drifting and high winds. Under proper weather conditions, states the report, Saskatchewan's affected areas would recover and there is still time for re-seeding to coarse grains, where it is considered necessary.

"Not as promising as at this time last year," is the comment covering prairie crops in general; nevertheless the farmers continue to cultivate for weeds and other annuals and are plowing and discing for summer fallow, and with improved moisture conditions expect increased acreage.

No forecast is possible at present, in the opinion of the department, which states from reports covering the entire prairie section of its western lines that general rains would create an entirely new outlook.

"Better than last year," is the general comment from British Columbia. Fruit trees are showing progress and practically normal yields in all districts are anticipated. Increase in early shipments of tomatoes and potatoes is looked for, and field crops appear promising and grass cattle from the interior ranges are expected on the market early in June.

Alberta Sugar Beet Industry Uses 300 Pounds Trail Fertilizer

More than 300 tons of fertilizers have been used this season in the sugar beet area of southern Alberta, according to Dr. R. E. Neidig, director of agriculture for the Consolidated Mining and Smelting company.

"Western farmers are realizing," he said, "that increasing the productivity of their soil by the use of fertilizers is one of the best means at their disposal for reducing their production costs."

GREATER PRODUCTION

VICTORIA, May 31—Greater production and lower values in the composite picture of British Columbia's agricultural business of 1930, according to the annual statistical report presented to Hon. William Atkinson, minister of agriculture, yesterday. The estimated value of production in 1930 was $55,957,734, compared with $62,632,890 in 1929.

Poultry and dairy products, fruits, vegetables, honey, seed and nursery stock all showed increases in quantity but almost uniform decrease in value of products. Fodder, grains, wool and hops showed decreases in quantity.

ARCHDEACON ASKS FOR MEN STEEPED IN THE KINGDOM

Kingdom of God Is to Come Silently and Without Notoriety

WILL BE DEVELOPED IN MEN'S HEARTS

Christians Should Be Imbued With Zeal for Reborn Nation

From the answer made by Christ to a question asked by one of His disciples, "The Kingdom of God cometh not with observation," Ven. Archdeacon Fred H. Graham preached a stirring appeal to his hearers of St. Saviour's congregation Sunday night, to reconsecrate themselves to the utmost effort to realize that Kingdom on earth.

The Kingdom of God, the archdeacon deduced from Christ's words, would not come when men were watching for it, nor would it come with outward show, so as to be recognized. If men said "Lo here!" or "Lo there!" pointing to great events as heralding it, they would be wrong. Neither the rigors of a reformation nor the terrors of a revolution would announce it. It was to come about unobserved and unmarked save in men's hearts and in the collective hearts of nations.

Many Christians, by their coldness and by their failure to militantly live Christ, were crucifying Christ afresh, affirmed the preacher. Christians were too apt to look here or there for what they should find in themselves and in the corporate body of which they were a part.

"KINGDOM AMONG YOU"

"Even if the Kingdom of God is not with you, it is among you, for Christ Himself is here," the preacher declared. He had a visible organization, the collective church of Christ, made up of all denominations of Christians. That organization ought to be a power in bringing about the Kingdom of God on each.

"Do we really want the Christ, or are our professions merely sentiments? Do we glory in the Christ, and are we in earnest in our work for Him? he asked.

Archdeacon Graham expressed a longing for Christians "shot through with the Kingdom of God."

"If we have a real regard for the Christian development of our national life, for its salvation from the forces of destructiveness, we will do our utmost to bring men to Christ and to bring about the rule of love, until in the end the whole world shall acknowledge God."

NELSON JUNIOR HIGH SOFT BALL TEAMS VICTORS

TRAIL, B. C., May 31. — Nelson Junior High boys and girls turned the tables on the Trail boys and girls yesterday afternoon when they defeated them in two softball games. The boys took their games with a 22-7 score and the girls 3—15.

The Nelson teams taking early leads and piling up runs all through the games, were in better condition and practice. They used a single pitcher in each game while Trail used two

BIG FISH HOOKED BY J. McCANDLISH; MANY ARE CAUGHT

Andy Kraft Brings Back 14 1-2 Pounder; Trail Men Get Good Catches

Fishermen who trolled the main lake at the Outlet during the past week found the big salmon responsive to their lures, and many fine catches were brought back to Nelson and Trail.

James McCandlish's 17½-pounder hooked on Thursday, dwarfed all others caught during the week.

During the week-end the largest fish known to be hooked was the 14½-pound prize brought back to Nelson by Andy Kraft.

Fish caught during the week-end included: Dr. R. B. Shaw, 12-pound salmon; Mr. Barnett, one 11-pound and one 12-pound salmon; C. J. Currier and Mr. Brickett, 10-pound salmon; A. Kraft, 14½-pound salmon; Steve Blaylock, 5-pound salmon; Mr. MacDonald, 9-pound salmon; W. Brown jr., 12-pound salmon; W. Brown, 6-pound char; A. Carlson, 10-pound salmon; Dr. R. E. Gray, one char and trout.

B. C. PENSIONS BILL MUST BE HANDLED ALONE

VICTORIA, May 31—British Columbia and other provinces can abandon all hope of relief from the cost of old age pensions through federal action this year, according to definite advices, received by the provincial government from Ottawa. This is a serious disappointment to British Columbia, which, while it did not budget on this supposition, hoped that at least half this year's pension bill would be taken over by the federal authorities. Some provinces, it is understood here, provided no money for pensions this year in the belief that the federal government would take over this entire charge shortly.

British Columbia expects to spend $600,000 this year to pay its 50 per cent share of the total pension bill. It had hoped that $300,000 would be saved if the federal government would take over the full payment of pensions half way through the year.

AMERICANS COME TO NELSON FOR DECORATION DAY

Over 100 Come Over During the Week End; Motor Up Lake and Shop Here

A large contingent of American holiday makers, hundreds strong, motored to Nelson and the surrounding district Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, to enjoy the Decoration Day holiday away from home. Washington cars were seen in large numbers on Baker street during the three days and the stores proved popular with the visitors.

Sunday afternoon a large number took in the ball game at the Recreation grounds when Nelson and Colville played in a Canadian-Washington International league game.

Before and after the game many of the visitors from across the line motored up the lake to Balfour, Ainsworth and other popular points. A number also motored to Bonnington and South Slocan to view the power plants of the West Kootenay Power & Light company, and the city

HOMEWARD BOUND

Sunday night the cars streamed through the ports at Nelway and Paterson homeward bound, the majority taking the Paterson port of entry.

During Friday, Saturday and Sunday, 55 American cars crossed the border into Canada at Paterson and although figures are not available for the number of entries by way of Nelway it is expected that a far larger number of cars entering Canada by way of Paterson for the three days is over double the number that came through Paterson during the same three days last year.

SPOKANE SQUAD WIN CLOSE BALL AT GRAND FORKS

Brown Gets Two Bagger, Steals Third and in on Bad Throw to Win Game

GRAND FORKS, B. C., May 31—The "Snow Flakes", a ball nine from Spokane nosed out the home team by one run in the ninth inning at the ball brounds today when the score was 11-10.

The Forks players started a rally in the seventh inning that netted them six runs and caused the Spokane team to hurry out their pitcher Davis, and replace his with Cedar. In the eighth Baillie trippled for the Forks and came home on a long fly by Ronald to tie the score. Spokane came to bat in the ninth and scored on a two base hit by Brown who stole third and came in on a bad peg to home made to catch him.

Davis, Cedar and Bergley were Spokane's battery and Savage, O'Keefe and Ronald, Grand Forks'.

Spokane made 11 hits, 9 runs and 2 errors and Grand Forks 10 runs, 9 hits and 4 errors.

LARGE TREE FALLS, BLOCKS YMIR HIGHWAY

Autos Tied Up for Period; Tree Measured Over Four Feet Through

A heavy gust of wind at about 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon blew a large tree across the highway about two miles on the Nelson side of Ymir. Traffic on the highway was tied up for some time until the tree was cut away. Some 20 automobiles destined for across the international boundary were tied up while seven coming toward Nelson had to wait.

A. Burgess, road foreman, was called to the scene and sawed the tree. Where he cut through the tree it measured four feet, two inches. After cutting it Mr. Burgess obtained help from the motorists before he could remove the heavy timber.

SOUP KITCHEN KAMLOOPS' PLAN

KAMLOOPS, B. C., May 31—Notwithstanding the fact that Vernon will not now start a soup kitchen, and that Kelowna, Enderby, Salmon Arm and presumably other Okanagan cities will follow suit, Kamloops will establish one as soon as possible, under the administration of the police chief, it was decided definitely at the city council meeting.

Mayor Moffatt asked that when this comes into force that citizens give neither meals nor money to drifters.

It was also decided not to have the kitchen at the arena but at the shed behind the city hall, where better administration can be carried out. Two meals a day will be served and after two days men must pass on

KOOTENAY GAINS 58 TELEPHONES IN FOUR MONTHS

Six Places Gain, Seven Lose, Two Even; Nelson Has Larger Gain

Seven Kootenay exchanges of the British Columbia Telephone company made an aggregate gain of 100 services in the first four months of 1931, and six had an aggregate decline of 42, making a net gain for the Kootenay system of 58, as the remaining two exchanges just exactly held their own.

Nelson continues out in front with a gain of 43, and a total of 1648, Trail being second with a gain of 34 and a total of 1434. On a percentage basis, Nelson's increase is 2.7, and Trail's 2.4.

OTHER EXPANSIONS

Rossland gained 11 phones, or a percentage of 3.9, bringing its total to 290; Kimberley gained six or 5.5 per cent, its total now being 116; and Grand Forks gained four, or 1.4 per cent, rising to 280. Kaslo added one phone, or .9 per cent, its exchange having now 112; and Balfour, with an addition of one, of 7 per cent, boasts a total of 14.

There was no change in the cases of Michel and Rock Creek, which remained stationary, Michel at 42 and Rock Creek at 41 phones.

Creston stands at 133, after a loss of one phone, or .7 per cent. CHEWELAH GOES TO DEFEAT IN GAME AT TRAIL

Score Is 9-7; Trail's Early Lead Serves Them Good Stead

TRAIL, B. C., May 31—Trail defeated Chewelah 9-7 today in Trail's first home game of the 1931 International League series, Mayor Bruno LeRose officiating at the opening. He wished the teams luck and then pitched the first ball of Trail's home game to W. A. Curran. The ball went wide, though the windup was good.

It was a heavy hitting game with a total of 24 legitimate hits being chalked up. It was loose baseball although comparatively few errors were made. Trail's early lead of five runs in the first inning had a great deal to do with the result for Trail scored only four runs in the remaining seven times at bat, while Chewelah got seven. The visitors did not get going until the third when they brought three men home. They scored one each in the 5, 6, 7, and 8 innings.

One of the features of the game was a two bagger by Martin in the 8th, when he went in as pinch hitter to score Ross.

Trail was in danger when Chewelah, taking its last bat sent two men home on Chapman's hit, Ochs reaching third on the play. With two en out however, Cox fanned and the game was over.
