Solloway, Mills Face Trials

BROKER HEADS MAY FACE THE COURT IN MAY

Face Five Criminal Charges Following Completion Preliminary

WITNESSES ARE EXAMINED IN CASE

Witness Says Company Lost $402,756 by Being Short on United, New

CALGARY, March 21.—Isaac William Solloway and Harvey M. Mills, president and vice-president respectively of the Dominion-wide brokerage house of Solloway, Mills and company, limited were committed to stand trial at the next court of competent jurisdiction to sit in Calgary, probably in May, on five criminal charges, by Magistrate G. E. Sanders here late today.

The hearing commenced at 10 o'clock Monday morning. A total of 23 witnesses were examined by the senior crown counsel, A. L. Smith, K. C., and the leading defence lawyer, A. A. McGillivray, K. C., over 400 bundles of papers, documents and books, seized in the company's office at Toronto and Calgary, were entered as 199 exhibits.

At the conclusion of the evidence Mr. Smith stated that, with the knowledge of the defence counsel, it had been agreed that the evidence apply to all five charges.

These charges were—common law conspiracy to defraud the public; conspiracy to affect the market price of stocks; conspiracy to defraud the public under the criminal code of Canada; conspiracy to commit and indictable offense, to wit, gambling in stocks, commonly known as "bucketing," and gambling in stocks under Section 231 of the criminal code. The second and third charges are based on section 444 of the code and the other on section 231. The first is a common law accusation.

IN ON STAND

David Dunn, assistant manager of the Vancouver branch of the company, was the first witness called this afternoon. Replying to questions put to him by Mr. Smith, witness said that as far as he knew no books of the Vancouver branch had been moved from the office.

Witness also denied that following the arrest of the two accused, members of the branch office opened an office in the Georgia hotel, in the coast city. He said that to the best of his knowledge all transactions were put through the exchange, but admitted he had nothing to do with trading.

George Kimmerly, chief trader of the company, stated that a house account was operated in Vancouver and in Calgary and that they had been transferred to Toronto. He did not give orders for the removal, but surmised that the reason for their removal was that the staffs would not see them.

INSTRUCTION TO "RIG"

Witness admitted to Mr. McGillivray that the policy of the company as told to him by Mr. Solloway was that all transactions had to be made on the exchange. The house account was used in connection with the buying and selling shares of clients, when their orders could not be put on the exchange, or could not be filled on the exchange floor. He admitted that such transactions were as good to the clients, and sometimes better than the prices realized on the exchange. There was no advantage to the company, he merely said.

"Did Solloway ever instruct you to make any arrangement with any broker whereby you could 'rig' the market, price it up or down?" Mr. McGillivray asked.

The witness replied that no such instructions had ever been received.

David Holden, Toronto, accountant for the firm, was the next witness. He explained certain documents entered as exhibits and was questioned regarding the company's financial position.

Mr. Matthews said that the company had lost $402,756 through being short 12,548 shares of United new on November 30, 1929.

SIBBALD OF TRAIL DIED WHEN ACCIDENTALLY TOOK CYANIDE DRINK

Such Is Jury's Verdict; Stomach Analysis Proves Theory of Death

TRAIL, B. C, March 21.—A verdict of death through accidental drinking of cyanide was the verdict returned tonight by a jury investigating the death here March 11, of James Sibbald, pioneer jeweller of Trail

Sibbald was found dead in his room at the Palace hotel about 8 p.m., March 11.

Evidence tonight was to the effect that a glass found on a chair at the bedside had contained sodium cyanide, a chemical used for cleaning jewellery; and an analysis by D. E. Whittaker, of Victoria, provincial analyst, disclosed large quantities of cyanide in the stomach.

The jury consisted of Alex W. Smith, foreman, and George Cady, B. J. Naud, H. H. Wiley, Stan Hermiston and J. Hanley.

John Morrison, one of the proprietors of the Palace hotel, described finding the body when he went to Sibbald's room to endeavor to borrow an alarm clock.

Sibbald had been complaining of heart trouble for some time. Constable J. McMillan told of the glass found at the bedside. There was a substance scattered on the chair and a glass nearly full of water in addition to a glass which had contained a solution. The substance appeared to have been dropped on an overcoat lying on the floor at the head of the bed and on the man's clothes.

Dr. L. E. Cockle, who performed the post mortem examination, stated there was no contusion nor marks of violence He described conditions leading to the theory of cyanide poisoning.

Chief of Police B. Downes read the report of the provincial analyst, which stated one of the glasses found on the chair had contained cyanide and that there was cyanide in the stomach. Dr. J. B. Thom, coroner, had charge. The inquest opened March 12, when the jury viewed the body and was adjourned to tonight to permit analysis of the stomach contents

SCHOOL BOARD REFUSES RAISE TO DR. ARTHUR

Chairman Notman Accuses Him of Attempting to Intimidate

VETERAN OFFICIAL ASKS CONSIDERATION

Employees Superannuation Up; New Contract on Wiring Wing

Having turned down in January a request by Dr. E. C. Arthur, school medical health officer, for a $500 increase to his present salary of $950, the school board last night refused to consider Dr. Arthur's request to reopen the matter, though that request was earnestly supported by Dr. H. H. MacKenzie. A warm debate on the matter consumed nearly an hour.

In answer to Dr. MacKenzie's assertion that the board was paying Dr. Arthur for highly important and skilled work at the rate of pay for common labor, and that the board could not possibly get any other medical practitioner for what it was paying him, Chairman John Notman asserted that Dr. Arthur was a member of the school board at the time the remuneration of the office had been fixed, and that there had been two or three raises since then.

Chairman Notman asked Dr. MacKenzie whether he supposed the board did not know its own mind. He said the board would be ridiculous in the eyes of the ratepayers if it gave one increase of $500. He stated there was only one line on which Dr. MacKenzie, as one ratepayer, could make a suggestion that the board would consider, and that was that the board should submit the question of whether Dr. Arhur should have a raise, to a referendum of the ratepayers.

Trustee J. V.. Ramsden, commenting on Dr. MacKenzie's point that earlier health officers had private practice to supplement their salary, said Dr. Arthur's salary should be considered with the fact that with his salary from the city he got $2000 a year, and that it was open to him to take private practice also.

Asserting that he was broadminded, Chairman Notman said he was willing Dr. Arthur should be heard, and invited the veteran health officer to express himself.

NO PRIVATE PRACTICE

Dr. Arthur said while Trustee Ramsden's statement on its face was quite correct, the unfortunate fact was that by a certain step he had taken, probably a mistake in judgment, it was not open to him to supplement his salary in the way he had suggested. He said the school's medical health officer of the Trail-Tadanac board received $1500 for his duties, which were no more onerous than his work in Nelson, and he figured he was entitled to that figure.

"Don't use that word," cautioned Dr. Arthur.

The chairman asked why Dr. Arthur had seen the others and not him, and if he thought they couldn't arrive at a judgment themselves. He also accused Dr. Arthur of misrepresenting the facts to the board in having spoken of Trail officials receiving $1500, and not making it plain it was from two municipalities.

Answering these charges, Dr. Arthur said he called on the other trustees because he was not sure that they knew all the facts, while he knew that Chairman Notman knew them. Possibly he did not mention Tadanac; if so, he certainly did mention it in his application to the city council for a raise. Dr. Arthur said that his work for the schools was three times his work for the city, and when he asked the council for a raise, it refused on the ground that he ought to get a raise from the school board.

Trustee James May protested when the chairman said Dr. Arthur had been unanimously turned down, declaring he himself took the opposite view. On the point of Trail and Tadanac, he pointed out that the Nelson schools equalled their combined schools.

Taxed by Trustee John Benson, he admitted he did not record his opposition in the minutes or cast a vote against the board on the matter of the increase.

Trustee May later put in a plea for sympathetic consideration.

Trustee Benson said if all the points had been brought out at the previous hearing, perhaps the decision would have been different, but with the estimates in, nothing could be done.

HOUSE CONFIRMS TRANSFER OF B.C. RAILWAY LANDS

Hon. R. B. Bennett Protests Against Denying of "Home Rule" in Park Areas

OTTAWA, March 21.—(C.P.)—After some discussion, during which a constitutional point was raised, the house of commons today approved a resolution confirming the agreement between the federal government of British Columbia in respect to the transfer of lands in the railway belt and the Peace river block to the province. This agreement was entered into on February 20 last. Following approval of the resolution a bill based on it received first reading.

The question of federal jurisdiction over Dominion parks, located as they are in the western provinces, was raised by Hon. R. B. Bennett, Conservative leader. Mr. Bennett protested that, under the agreements entered into for the return of the natural resources to the western provinces, persons residing within the park areas would become subject to regulations passed at Ottawa. Such regulations would "deny home rule" to the citizens in thes park areas. The creation of an area within a province not subject to provincial laws was wholly wrong, Mr. Bennett said.

Shingle Makers to Start Campaign of Merchandising Soon

VANCOUVER, March 21.— Approxmately two-thirds of the shingle mills of British Columbia are shut down, according to Goldwin Johnson, chairman of the board of directors of the Consolidated Shingle Mills of British Columbia, limited. He anticipates a further shut down which will bring the curtailment to about 75 per cent of total production capacity.

Shingle mills in the state of Washington are operating at a 50 per cent curtailment according to Mr. Johnson, although they have been offering shingles to the trade at lower prices than those asked by the British Columbia mills.

Mr Johnson attributed the lack of demand to the aggressive advertising and merchandising policy of the manufacturer of substitute materials. The Consolidated mills, however will shortly put into operation again merchandising efforts which were suggested in 1928.

SEIZURE BROKER BOOKS SCORED BY CHIEF JUSTICE

"High-Handed Procedure" Declares Sir William Mulock in Toronto

TORONTO, March 21. — Seizure of the books and records of Solloway, Mills & Company, prominent Canadian mining stock brokerage firm, under an Ontario search warrant and shipping to Alberta without first bringing them before an Ontario magistrate was termed a "high-handed procedure" by Sir William Muloch, chief justice of Ontario. in first divisional court at Osgoode hall today. The court was hearing the appeal of the brokerage firm against the decisions of Justice Middleton, Orde and Garrow, who refused to quash the three respective search warrants.

"I may be wrong in so expressing myself, but it so shocks my sense of justice that the crown should adopt such methods in the handling of other people's property," His Lordship added.

Port Arthur Makes Great Comeback to Tie Up Series 3-1 and Win Game in Overtime Session; "Dub" Mackie Gets Trail's Only Score

PORTS TRAVEL TO TORONTO TO ENTER CANUCK FINALS

Houbregs Bowls Port Goalie Several Times With Terrific Shots; Trail Not Outplayed; Veteran Port Skaters Spur Team to Victory

PORT ARTHUR, Ont., March 21.—(C. P.)—Hockey revolt sprung up from the little mountain stronghold of Trail, B. C., was rudely crushed tonight, Port Arthur seniors, proud rulrs of amateur hockey in Canada, humbled by 4 to 1 the Trail Smoke-Eaters who had scored a defiant 3 to 1 victory Wednesday.

By a lone goal on the two game round, the western Canada title went to the thrice crowned Dominion monarchs.

Only in overtime was defeat imposed on the valiant smelter men, who have four times gained the British Columbia championship to be ousted each time before the western title could be gained.

Two youngsters and a pair of veterans were the standouts as the lakehead men erased the two goal lead set up by the westerners and then set up a margin of their own. "Phat" Wilson, who has played in three Allan cup teams, and Frank Hacquoil were the old timers who shone in hard won victory; chubby Johnny Salonen and goalie Gordon Hacquoil were the youngsters who did their bit.

While the fighting westerners peppered his net with dead on shots, young Hacquoil did not falter. The lad who collapsed in the midst of last Wednesday's game with a nervous breakdown, came through perfectly when his mates threatened to yield before the steadily systematic Trail attack. He missed but one of almost 50 drives and he had no chance to make the stop.

Norman Friday, one of the new survivors of last year's championship team at the lake head, joined with Salonen and Wilson in adding up the quartet of winning goals. He started the thundering onrush of the champions in the first period by snatching the puck from a defence man's stick and hoisting it into the net as he was bodied to the ice.

In defeat, Trail refused to appear a beaten team. From the outset, they bored in on the Port Arthur net holding a wide margin on the territorial play in the first two sessions, though they were subjected to an adverse 3 to 1 score. During the last period and the over time, they were even up on the exchanges but Gordon Hacquoil's excellence could not be frustrated.

"Big Boy" Johnny Hourbregs, 195-pound truck driver at the smelter in Trail, proved the most dangerous attacker for the westerners. Rarely did his rushes fail to end in a burning drive directly on the net. On a couple of occasions, Hacquoil was actually bowled over by the force of the speeding shots.

NAVAL PARLEY IS STRANDED

Italian and French Demands Tie Up Proceedings in London Confab

LONDON, March 21 — (By George Hambleton, Canadian Press Staff correspondent)—The naval conference remains stranded on the shoals of the French demand for a big naval tonnage and the Italian claim for parity with the leading continental power—which means France. Another week of discussion and conversation ended tonight in decision and uncertainty.

The delegates deny there has been a definite rupture. They are all hoping a solution of the difficulties will be found.

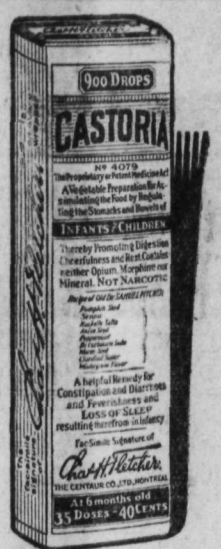
The upsets of Children



All children are subject to little upsets. They come at unexpected times. They seem twice as serious in the dead of night. But there's one form of comfort on which a mother can always rely; good old Castoria. This pure vegetable preparation can't harm the tiniest infant. Yet mild as it is, it soothes a restless, fretful baby like nothing else. Its quick relief soon sees the youngster comfortable once more, back to sleep. Even an attack of colic, or diarrhea, yields to the soothing influence of Castoria.

Keep Castoria in mind, and keep a bottle in the house—always. Give a few drops to any child whose tongue is coated, or whose breath is bad. Continue with Castoria until the child is grown! Every drugstore has Castoria; the genuine has Chas. H. Fletcher's signature on the wrapper.

Needless Pain!

People are often too patient with pain. Suffering when there is no need to suffer. Shopping with a head that throbs. Working though they ache all over.

And Aspirin would bring them immediate relief!

The best time to take Aspirin is the very moment you first feel the pain. Why postpone relief until the pain has reached its height? Why hesitate to take anything so harmless?

Read the proven directions for checking colds, easing a sore throat; relieving headaches and the pains of neuralgia, neuritis, rheumatism, etc.

You can always count on its quick comfort. But if pain is of frequent recurrence see a doctor as to its cause.

SPRING IS USHERED IN WITH AN EARLY MORNING SNOWFALL

Falls to Depth of 2.7 Inches; Rain and Warm Atmosphere Drive It Off

Spring in Nelson was ushered in yesterday with an early-morning snowfall that gave more of a wintry touch to the landscape than Nelson folks approve of at this time of the year. However, the mild atmosphere which was accompanied by intermittent rains throughout the day made short work of the snow and by mid-afternoon there was practically no evidence of snowfall at all.

Though blue sky was visible through the low cumulus clouds at various times throughout the day the sun was never permitted to shine.

SNOW FALLS HEAVILY

Early yesterday morning with the temperature hovering in the vicinity of 27 degrees the snow began to fall and continued to do so for several hours to a total depth 2.7 inches. Several hours later with the rising temperature the snow turned to rain which fell intermittently all through the day. Rainfall amounted to .10 inch.

For the 24 hour period ending at 5 o'clock yesterday the minimum temperature was 27 degrees and the maximum 42 degrees.

FORMER NELSONITE DIES AT CRANBROOK

Frederick Knight Hurry, Creston Rancher, Passes; 68 Years Old

CRESTON, B. C. March 21—Creston has lost a well known and quite old-time resident in the death of Frederick Knight Hurry, who passed away at St. Eugene hospital, Cranbrook, late on Tuesday evening. He had been taken to the hospital almost three weeks previously suffering from a badly broken leg, which he sustained in a runaway mishap on February 27.

Mr. Hurry who was in his 68th year, was a native of Prince Edward Island, and came to British Columbia in 1884, finding employment as a cook on C. P. R. main line construction camps. The finishing of the line in 1885 found him in the restaurant business at Donald. The following year he shifted south and landed in Nelson where he conducted a very successful dairy business prior to going across the line to make his home for a few years, and where, he was alater married at Daisy, Washington.

In 1905 he again became a resident of Nelson, where he remained until 1907, when he removed aand engaged in the dairy business on an extensive scale, his trade including shipments of milk and cream to Nelson, and necessitated the erection of a quite extensive dairy plant and ranch which is now the property of A. Comfort.

In 1916, when his eldest son, Fred, went overseas, Mr. Hurry took charge of the Kootenay River ferry, where he remained until about 1922, when he purchased the farms of the late Dan English and the Late G. M. Benney at West Creston, where he engaged quite successfully, in general farming until the time of his death.

FAMILY SURVIVES

He is survived by a family of eight children; five daughters, Mrs. Bell of Strathmore, Alberta; Mrs. Baston of Hong Kong, China; Mrs. E. Stirliny, Acme, Alberta; Mrs. Abrahamson, Kimberley, and Mrs. Bestwick at home and three sons, Fred and Victoria, Phil of Spokane, and Arthur at home.

During his long residence here Mr. Hurry took a part in public affairs, serving on Creston school board for a number of years, and was at one time a director of the former Farmers' institute as well as the Stockbreeders' association. Industry and plain speaking in Creston cemetery,

GRANBY TAKES OVER OKANAGAN PROPERTY

VERNON, B. C., March 21—The Granby Consoldated has completed a deal for taking over a copper property located on the west side of Okanagan lake.

The Okanagan Copper Mining company during the last year, has spent considerable money in surface trenching and shallow tunneling. The ore body contains copper and gold values over an area a mile in length and between 500 and 700 feet in width.

DISTRICT PRUNING IS WELL ADVANCED

E. C. Hunt, District Horticulturist, Says Tree Survey Postponed Till Fall

E. C. Hunt, district horticulturist, states that throughout the district fruit growers are well advanced with the business of pruning their trees. The first of April should see this work completed.

Mr. Hunt has also intimated that the proposed fruit tree survey will be postponed until fall in the Kootenay district. A similar survey was made last fall in the Arrow Lake district.

NEW DEVELOPMENTS ABSENT IN THE OILS

TORONTO, March 21.—New developments were absent in connection with the movement of the oil stocks today. The higher priced list held an edge of firmness and this also appeared in some of the western issues. British American moved up 20c to $36 and Imperial rose 25c to $26.25 and International Petroleum fell 40c, closing at $21.10. Ophir was the feature issue on the board for the day with total sales of 32,500 shares closed at 3c, for a fractional gain. Mayland recovered 10c to $1.35; Calgary and Edmonton jumped 14c to $1.80 and Associated moved forward 6c to $1.09.

According to growers, the peach crop will be short in Ohio.

CARNIVAL QUEEN CRANBROOK BRIDE

Miss Gracie Ethel Higgins Weds Stanley Laroy MacNeill, Lumberton

CRANBROOK, B. C., March 21.—One of the prettiest of spring weddings was solemnised on Wednesday at 11 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. MacPherson on Lumsden avenue when Grace Ethel, only daughter of J. S. Higgins and the late Mrs. Higgins, was united in matrimony to Stanley Laroy MacNeill of Lumberton, Rev. J. C. McLean-Bell officiating.

The house had been handsomely decorated for the occasion with a profusion of pink and white flowers, greenery and white wedding bells. In the absence of Mr. Higgins, John Pingall Smith officiated in giving the bride away. They entered the room to the strains of Lohengrin's bridal chorus played by Mrs. F. M. MacPherson.

For her wedding frock the bride had chosen a charming ensemble of beige shaded lace with matching shoes and hose and a smart fitting hat of stitched georgette in the same tones, finished with a fetching bow at the back. She carried a handsome bouquet of roses and sweet peas. Mrs. A. R. MacPherson, the bride's attendant, wore a costume of cocoa georgette with matching shoes and hat, and carried a bouquet of combined carnations and sweet peas.

Bill Taylor supported the groom.

During the signing of the register Mrs. MacPherson sang "Because" in excellent voice. She also played Mendelssohn's Wedding March at the conclusion of the ceremony. After congratulations were offered by the many guests, congratulatory telegrams were read from the bride's father, J. S. Higgins, of Boston, and Mrs. Higgins, from the bride's brother and his wife, and an aunt and cousin, all of Boston, and from F. M. MacPherson, M.P.P., at Victoria.

The father and mother of the groom, residents of Lumberton, were present. Mrs. MacNeill wore a handsome costume of black with a corsage of sweet peas. Mrs. F. M. MacPherson's frock and hat were of the new deep blue shade. Mrs. J. F. Smith, who presided at the tea urn wore a costume of rose beige. Mrs. J. S. Johnson poured coffee, wearing a fawn ensemble, while Mrs. George Taylor, who cut the ices, wore a frock in dahlia shades.

The bride's table was centred with a handsome wedding cake and lighted with tall pink tapers. The delicious refreshments were dispensed by friends of the bride: Miss Madge Keer, Miss Eva Watson, Miss Florence Findlay, Miss Nora Findlay, Miss Kathleen Edmundson, Miss Hope Taylor, Miss May Kennedy and Mrs. George Lunn.

The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome fox stole, to the matron of honor a rope of pearls and matching earrings in a green shade, to the best man a silver belt buckle and to the pianist, two dozen daffodils.

Following the reception the bride and groom left on the noon train amid the blowing of sirens and throwing of confetti. The honeymoon will be spent in Seattle. For travelling the bride chose a frock of black and rose with a close fitting black hat. Over this she wore a coat of green with a grey squirrel collar. On their return Mr. and Mrs. MacNeill will reside on Cranbrook street in the city and Mr. MacNeill will motor each day to Lumberton where he is employed by the B.C. Spruce Mills, Limited.

Both Mr. and Mrs. MacNeill are well known in the district. The bride has resided in the city almost all her life, having lived with her grandparents, the late Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Grace. She has been employed in the government offices for several years and as a public servant has been unfailingly obliging and deservedly popular. She was chosen queen of the first big Rotary carnival and was crowned with ceremony as Cranbrook's most popular lady. After severing her connection with the government offices some months ago, Mrs. MacNeill left for an extended visit with her father and other relatives in the city of Boston.

The array of wedding gifts received by the happy couple was one of the finest ever assembled in the city. Among these was a handsome silver tea service and tray presented to the bride by her associates at the government offices.

Invited guests at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. D. MacNeill of Lumberton, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. MacPherson, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McLean Bell, Mr. N. A. A. Wallenger, Judge and Mrs. G. H. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Taylor, W. A. Drayton, T. Stewart, W. Ratcliffe, C. Foote, J. S. Stewart, B. Taylor, C. Taylor, R. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Aggas, Mr. and Mrs. Woolley, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. MacKinnon, Mr. and Mrs. Bidder, Mr. and Mrs. James of Kimberley, Mr. and Mrs. Lunn, Mr. and Mrs. Selby, Mr. and Mrs. R. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Power, Mr. and Mrs. Hunter, Mrs. Simpson, Hugh Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Armstrong, Miss Lauretta Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. J. Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. H. FERNIE BOARD MUM, HIGH SCHOOL TERM

Letters Ask Object to Four-Year Term; Light Cast on School Act

FERNIE, B. C., March 21.—A letter from the department of education of Manitoba at Winnipeg, stating that Mr. Bailey, a lecturer on scientific prohibition instruction, was arranging a tour of lectures through the west for a nominal charge was read and filed.

The Consolidated high school board of Salmon Arm and school board of North Vancouver wrote asking support to their objection to prospective change from three years to four years in the high school course. These boards claimed that this would increase the cost of high school education to the city and to the parents, of from 15 to 20 per cent. The board seemed to be of the opinion that the pros and cons of the question had been thoroughly examined by the educational department and took no action.

In answer to a letter sent to the superintendent of education by the secretary of the board, asking if it was compulsory for the school board to take into the school during the term all children who reach the age of six years after the opening of the term, the superintendent replied that an amendment to the School act was being introduced into parliament this session, which would only make it compulsory for a board to receive children who became six years old within two weeks after the term opened. They might use their discretion in all other cases. In some cases he pointed out, it might be advisable to do so.

A new septic tank is to be made ot receive the waste water from the sink of the west Fernie school. Trustee Hesketh was asked to superintend this work.

Mr. Stainsby, manual training instructor, was commended on the good job he had done in the building of the dust proof varnishing room in the manual training training class room.

Accounts amounting to $6474.67 were authorised paid.

THE NINTH PLANET IS NOW A CERTAINTY

Finding of the ninth planet, years after its existence had been determined mathematically, is a new feather in the cap of astronomical science and a new wonder of the universe.

Such discoveries do not come with frequency—it is nearly 84 years since the existence of Neptune was verified; and in fact, only three planetary strangers have been introduced by astronomers in the past 300 years.

This one was not found until a special instrument had been built for the search and trained upon the skies for nearly a year, and as yet nothing much concerning its course through the heavens as yet has been learned. Its distance has not been definitely computed, but it must be considerably more than 3,000,000,000 miles away, since Neptune is nearly that far.

There need be no doubt of its existence, however, since it has been under observation since January 21, when it was first glimpsed, and its position has repeatedly been checked and verified. That other astronomers throughout the world will be able to find it is not doubted.

The honor of the discovery, says the Los Angeles Times, belongs to Prof. Percival Lowell, who began the mathematical search for it in 1905 and announced his results in 1914.

Dr. Lowell is dead, but the verification of the soundness of his work must give great satisfaction to his living friends and to those to whom he turned over his observatory at Flagstaff, Ariz.

These will presumably have a say in naming the newly discovered member of the sun's family, which, if precedent is followed, will be tagged with some designation drawn from pagan mythology. It would be more appropriate to name it for its discoverer. The Greco-Roman gods and heroes mean very little to the present-day world; the Lowells, Newtons Einsteins, Millikans and their like a great deal.

But whatever it may be called, it will have to be accepted into the family of planets. Nothing else can be done about it.

FOSTER'S WEEKLY WEATHER BULLETIN

WASHINGTON, March 22. —As spring officially arrives, March 21, a period of above normal temperatures is expected to cover the continent, but a reaction to lower temperatures and increasing precipitation will occur as moderately severe storms cross continent during week centering on 22, cutting this warm wave short. Cool wave expected to follow storm center of 22 will not cause unusual extremes, nor will it be expected to cause as low temperatures as will follow moderate storm wave expected to centre on 30. Warm wave expected to cover continent during and preceding storm center of 30 will cause unusually high temperatures and increasing precipitation to be general. This should benefit the northwest somewhat, as it will probably cause a slow melting of snows and furnish some moisture for subsoils of that area that are now dry. March 20 to 31 is expected to be a period of rising average temperatures and precipitation for the continent, both temperatures and precipitation averaging above normal for the period: most precipitation for this period will be expected in central and east Great Central valleys, central and east Gulf states and in central and south Atlantic coast states.

During April, change of minor evaporation points will cause a more even distribution of moisture, but precipitation of month will be mostly from local storms east of Rockies. West of Rockies, a general increase in precipitation will be expected during the month, relative to local normals, greater increase on north than on south Pacific slope. It must be remembered, however, that during the average year, Pacific slope precipitation during April is only about half that of March.

Summary of expected cropweather features during April will appear in next weekly bulletin. Moon phases during the near future will occur as follows, given to nearest hour of Greenwch Civil time; to chane Greenwich Civil time to your local standard time, count one hour earlier for each fifteen degrees of longitude you are located west from Greenwich: New Moon March 30 at 6 hours; First Quarter April 6 at 11 hours; Full Moon 13 at 6 hours; Last Quarter 20 at 22 hours; New Moon 28 at 19 hours; First Quarter May 5 at 17 hours.

Orthodox scientists review influences credited to the Moon, consider the facts that the Moon travels around the Earth in less than a month and is overhead at all points on the Earth once each day, then decide that the Moon can have no particular influence on any given area of the Earth at any given time. They would be surprised to know how many intelligent and successful farmers reulate part of all of their farm work in accord with Moon positions. Moon phases are relative positions of Sun. Moon and Earth; thru such relative positions, all Moon influence, even the tides, is established.

That Body of Yours

By JAS. W. BARTON, M.D.

YOUR YOUNGSTER AND SCHOOL PHYSICAL

Your youngster comes home from school and either boastingly, or otherwise, tells you that the doctor or dentist seemed to think there was something wrong with him.

And sure enough you receive a note from the school notifying you that your youngster has an obstruction of the nose, his eyesight is poor, he has decayed teeth, or that his tonsils should be removed.

Your first feeling as a parent is likely one of resentment. You feel that you have been careful of your child's health, and you are still capable of doing so. And yet what do we find?

For some years previous to the war I examined boys in a private preparatory school.

A report of the examination was sent to the parents, with the recommendations that the family doctor or dentist be consulted.

Now although the parents were able to correct some of the conditions found, nevertheless there were other conditions where the neglect of teeth and tonsils and other defects had left a lasting impression on the face, and to some extent upon the physique, of the child.

Much of this could have been avoided had the parents looked after these things before the youngster ever started to school.

Perhaps you think that the school should confine itself to the mental training of the child, and leave the physical condition and training to the parents.

But if your youngster has some little physical defect, that prevents him from attending regularly, or prevents him seeing or hearing properly, or otherwise interferes with his mental progress, you can see how this affects the entire class or school. It is thus the business of the school.

School physical examinations have shown that about ten in every hundred children need glasses; that two or three are hard of hearing, that four or five have an obstruction of the nose, that five or more have bad tonsils capable of causing rheumatism or heart ailments, that ten of them have round shoulders, and that at least fifty have decayed teeth.

Now any of these conditions can interfere with mental progress, so why wait until your youngster goes to school to find out about these conditions.

Have your youngster examined every year before he ever starts to school.

It will help him mentally, but what is far more important you may thus prevent physical conditions that would be a liability all his life.

BUYING OUR FURNITURE

"Are sets of furniture in better taste than 'occasional' pieces grouped together?" writes a reader of this column.

My answer is: both are in good taste. For the small room, for instance, I personally do not care for the large "overstuffed" sofa, with its matching overstuffed arm chairs, for these massive pieces make the room look still smaller. In such a room I like slender furniture, or light weight furniture—a small size chair of the "wing back" order, a "pie crust" table (which has the type of top which lets down when not in use), a small bookcase, and, if there is room, a desk with slender lines and straight chair to match.

But in the large room—what could be more luxurious than an overstuffed sofa, with two matching chairs? Also a "library table," several bridge lamps, or a floor lamp, perhaps a piano (certainly a radio!), with desk, bookcase and other pieces which make for comfort. "Occasional" pieces if properly chosen, will blend harmoniously with sets of furniture. Of course, woods of different colors should not be combined,, nor should two different figured tapestries in upholstery. But figured tapestry may be used with plain upholstery.

This is where the "color scheme" of a room proves its effectiveness; a good color scheme, well carried out will link the room-furnishings together into an artistic whole no matter how many "occasional" pieces are grouped together or combined with regular sets.

It is a good plan for the housekeeper who has never studied the subject of interior decoration to go to her local public library before attempting to elect new furniture at the shops and look through books on period furniture and also on other phases of this subject. We should not too hi buy a piece of furniture with whic expect to live perhaps for the rem der of our life!

McLaughlin-Buick reproduces its Famed Standards of Performance in Marquette

WHEN, with power to spare, Marquette accelerates from 10 to 60 miles an hour in seconds less than other cars in its price class . . it reflects the brilliance of McLaughlin-Buick's own performance. And where, but in a car designed and built by McLaughlin-Buick, could perfect comfort and safety be enjoyed at such great speed as Marquette attains?

Both Marquette, in the moderate price field, and the new McLaughlin-Buick are heirs to the same rich heritage of automobile achievement . . and both are backed by the Dominion-wide service facilities steadily built up by McLaughlin-Buick.

Remember, too, that far more McLaughlin-Buicks are sold than any other car in the same price class . . enabling McLaughlin-Buick to pass on to Marquette, as well as to the three new series of McLaughlin-Buicks, unusual savings in the cost of manufacture. Hence it is that Marquette, with its fine performance and full complement of fine features, is able to offer extra value.

Hence it is, too, that the new McLaughlin-Buick, with three new wheelbases in three new price ranges, is able to present such radical advancements as Weather-proof, Mechanical Four-Wheel Brakes . . Frictionless Steering Gear with Road Shock Eliminator . . and new Lovejoy Double-acting Shock Absorbers.

See these cars. Drive them. A demonstrator awaits you at our Showroom. And the G.M.A.C. Deferred Payment Plan enables you to become an owner economically and conveniently.

BULLS HURDLE BARRIER AT N.Y.

Call Money Renews at 3 Per Cent and Advances to 4 and 4½ Per Cent

NEW YORK, March 21.—(By Claude A Jagger, Associated Press financial writer)—The bull movement on the stock market was forced to hurdle a barrier of higher money today, but acquitted itself with fair success, after momentarily shying away from it. Call money renewed at three per cent, and advanced successively to four and 4½ per cent, as about $100,000,000 in loans was called. Heavy selling profit taking swept into the market around midday, and bears launched the telling drives against a small group of issues. Bulls regained control of the price movement in the late afternoon, however, and closing prices were mostly higher, net gains running from one to nearly eight points in the more active issues.

BRAZILIAN AND MASSEY GAIN, TORONTO LIST

TORONTO, March 21—Brisk advance in Brazilian Traction and Massey Harris featured the Toronto stock exchange today.

Brazilian Traction in the afternoon jumped into feature trading when more than 8,000 shares carried it forward to a new high for the year of $43½ and a close of $43.

Other utilities were irregular, British Columbia Power "A" at $39¾, International Utilities "A" at $42¾, and Shawinigan at $75, gaining 1½, ¾ and ¼ points respectively on odd lots.

The wheat stocks were decidedly stronger. In sympathy with the announcement of a 75-cent quarterly dividend made by the directors, Massey-Harris came in for heavy buying during the last hour and simultaneously sold up rapidly to $36¼, up 2¾. Sales aggregated 1,182. Cockshutt Plow gained almost a full point to $19½ a heavy turnover.

WEAKNESS HOLDS ON TORONTO LIST

TORONTO, March 21.—While there was a firming up in prices of the more prominent issues traded in on the Standard stock and mining exchange today, the undercurrent of weakness in trading continued to hold.

The demand for International Nickel and Noranda fell off and while the former remained unchanged in price at $41.10, Noranda moved up 25c to $40.25. Lake Shore which broke $2 on Thursday regained this loss on Friday when 123 shares changed hands and closed firm at $22.50. uHdson Bay dropped 20c to $11.75, and McIntyre lost 10c to $18.25.

MUCH STRENGTH SHOWN, MONTREAL

MONTREAL March 21.—Not since the partial recovery after the November break has the local market given such a display of strength as that of today, when easier money, a robust rally in wheat futures and decided strength in the New York market all combined to give the local market a much-needed stimulus.

The power group was conspicuously strong, with Montreal Power the outstanding performer, advancing to $139 and closing 3¾ higher at $138½.

The New Durant—"6-14"

THE new Durant 6-14 has such striking APPEARANCE and is so apparently a COMFORTABLE car that it only requires a test of its PERFORMANCE for one to fully realize its true VALUE.

Admiration for its appearance is accounted for by its attractive colors and general design . . . . a low-built car with long, flowing lines and spear-point decorative theme throughout. Large doors, wide seats, deep cushions and a surplus of interior roominess immediately suggest a new standard of riding comfort.

The merits of the new motor are best appreciated when the 6-14 is in actual road performance. After you have seen this new car, ask your dealer to give you a demonstration in order that you may judge its new riding and driving qualities for yourself.

Wheelers Take 7-2 Victory Over Hamilton in Unspectacular First Game

MONTREAL, Que., March 21.—(C. P.) —The Winged Wheelers, Montreal's amateur athletic association squad, Quebec hockey champions, advanced another notch in the ladder towards the Allan cup here tonight when they defeated the Hamilton Tigers, Ontario champions, 7-2. The game was the first of a home and home series for the eastern final and the right to meet Port Arthur in the final for the Allan cup, emblem of amateur hockey championship of Canada.

The Tigers showed little but an ability to skate fast. The Wheelers outclassed them from every angle, outskating and outscoring them with ease.

Dess Roche and Glennie Brydson were the stars of the game. Each scored two goals apiece and generally made themselves useful throughout. Desse's brother Earl got another counter while Ahearn was responsible for the seventh.

None of the Hamilton squad showed anything like the class of hockey the local squad played tonight The defensive work was poor, the forwards slow. The goalie, although he let seven tallies get by was probably the best of the Hamilton team. He was practically without a defence all evening and his forward line offered no protection by back checking.

The Wheelers return to Toronto with the Hamilton outfit where the second game of the series will be played. The winner will play Port Arthur best two out of three games for the Allan cup.

PORT ARTHUR DEFEATS TRAIL TO WIN TITLE

Lone goal by the lads from British Columbia's interior went to "Dub" Mackie, who delivered two of three Trail's tallies in the first match. Mackie counted on a solo sally that led him to the Port Arthur goal mouth, and he did not leave young Hacquoil a chance. Frail "Mickey" Brennan was more effective than any of the other forwards from the Rockies. Old Carroll Kendall, crafty boss of the invaders, failed to hit the stride of his first-game form.

Only four penalties were handed out by Referee Ted Blondel, Winnipeg, in a game remarkably clean for a title play-down.

First Period—In two hectic minutes that came midway through the first session Ports tied up the round on a pair of dramatic individual thrusts. Blonde Norman Friday sliced the westerns two goal edge in half when 12½ minutes had gone and just two minutes later burly "Phat" Wilson added the counter that sent the round at three all.

FAST ICE

Fast ice sent the Allan cup holders speeding through a systematic attack highly improved from their first game showing. Out-speeded, the Trail men were nevertheless scarcely outplayed. They lined at Goalie Gordon Hacquoil, recovered from a nervous breakdown that forced his retirement Wednesday. Twice as many shots as Garland was called on to halt.

Second Period—Less than a minute after the second session opened the Canadian champions were ahead on the round and again it was Wilson who engineered the play. Down into the corner sped "Phat" and he lashed the puck backward to Johnny Salonen coming fast down right wing. The little Finn caught the net corner with a fast snap shot.

BACK TO DRAW

Battling undaunted the British Columbians struggled back to a tie shortly after mid period. "Dub" Mackie, who scored two of the series when he wended a brazen way through the Port Arthur team. Young Hacquoil playing a marvel game in a harassed net, had no chance on Mackie's lift.

Only a single penalty was imposed in this period. It went to Friday for tripping.

Third Period—Two tired teams toiled through a trying third session that failed to break the dead lock. By midsession Trail had lined but a brace of shots at Hacquoil, though Farland had turned aside 10 dead-on shots, two were from Wilson after sallies that carried him into the goal mouth. During the latter part of the third period the tide of battle turned but the goalies remained impregnable. As the time waned Hacquoil foiled half a dozen thrusts that had penetrated to his citadel. Johnny Bates and Doug Hall, off for holding and tripping, were the period's only penalties.

"Big Boy" Houbregs, 195 pound truck driver on the coastmen's defence plunged through unhalted finishing each time with a burning shot on the net, but he could not defeat the youthful goalie.

THE GRAND FINALE

Overtime — The winning goal came after three and one half minutes of overtime play from the stick of Johnny Salonen. The chubby Finlander recorded his second tally of the night when he pushed goalie and puck together into the net after the disc had lodged between "Tuffy" Garland's skates. Frank Hacquoil, veteran defence man who starred with "Phat" Wilson on the attack throughout the game, made the play passing to Salonen from behind the net.

For the remainder of the contest Trail fought in vain to even the count, but the Ports' regular forward string played out the futile session and staved off the western offensive. No penalties were imposed in the extra period.

TILLIE THE TOILER A Loan of Convenience. By Westover

BRINGING UP FATHER By George McManus

Barberry Bush

By Kathleen Norris

INSTALMENT 31

Barbara went into the spare room and closed the door. She straightened Kate automatically, automatically undressed and put on her old wrapper, her bright hair loosened on her shoulders.

When Amy knocked at the door, a few minutes later, Barbara sprang into bed, extinguishing the bedside lamp as she did so, and answering her sister with elaborate sleepiness from the dark.

But Amy had heard the thud of bare feet and the snap of the light, and she was not deceived.

She entered the room confidently.

"Barbara," she commanded, "light that light!"

Amy hooked an opening magazine over the crib rail to shade the eyes of the sleeping Kate, and came to perch on the foot of her sitter's bed, answering Barbara's desperate look with one almost equally despairing.

"Ward hasn't come back yet," she said inconsequentially.

Barbara made no reply.

"What I'm wondering," Amy began again, 'is exactly what Barry intends to do."

Again Barbara refrained from answering. She continued to regard Amy with bright, hard, feverish eyes, her under lip lightly bitten, her face pale and tense.

"Oh, yes," Barbara said unexpectedly, with a hard little laugh, "he can do everything!"

Amy's heart sank.

"You mean," she asked fearfully, "you mean that you aren't going on with your wedding tomorrow, that it's really going to make a difference in your plans?"

"Amy—in the name of everything sensible, what else could it do?" Barbara demanded impatiently, in turn.

The older sister flushed, paled. There was a silence.

"Barbara, you can't be so silly! Oh, dearest, dearest, please don't take it this way!"

"I'm not aware that I'm taking it in any special way," Barbara said wearily, with a touch of scorn. "I'm simply facing the simple fact, Kate is Barry's child and Barry did marry me in good faith. I don't know how much claim he has on her, or exactly how much trouble he could make—But I do know this," Barbara added, after a pause in which Amy had looked at her with a mixture of fear, exasperation and pleading, "I know that the whole situation will be infinitely less complicated if I don't marry Link!"

"I could kill Barry du Spain!" Amy said, in a burst of tears.

Barbara was sitting erect, her hands locked about her knees, her eyes infinitely bitter, as they stared into space.

"I suppose it was remarkable that we didn't see this coming!" she observed mildly.

"Barbara!" Amy implored her, "remember that he has no claim on you at all!"

Barbara rested an elbow on her knees and lightly beat her forehead with a clenched fist.

"He has every claim!" she whispered, with shut eyes.

"Dearest," Amy begged, "don't break my heart. Don't let him influence you this way. The circumstances are unusual, but what of it? That doesn't make any real difference."

Barbara appeared not to hearing her. Amy's voice faded to a dismayed silence.

"I can't share Kate with him!" Barbara breathed. "That—that I could not do! That would be intolerable!"

"You won't have to share Kate with him. Kate has nothing to do with him!" Amy argued eagerly.

"Dragging Link into it!" Barbara muttered.

"You marry Link tomorrow,' Amy began suddenly and firmly, "you leave Kate with Lucy and me, you go on your trip. He'll loaf around here for a few days——"

"Amy, can you imagine me as settled in the Mackenzie house, just married, with Barry du Spain coming to see his daughter—with all the town saying that, while he thought himself married to me, I turned round and married Link Mackenzie! Can't you see the weapon it would give him against me and against Kate, and against Link, for all time! You don't know Barry; that's just what he'd like! That's just the position he would like to take in this community."

NEW CORPORATION WILL HANDLE SOME OF CROP, CRESTON

CRESTON, B. C., March 21.—An announcement of great interest to the orchardists of Creston Valley is contained in the latest issue of the B. C. Gazette, which carries official notice of the incorporation of the firm of Long, Allan & Long, Ltd., whose chief business activity will be conducting a fruit marketing business.

From enquiry made at the company's office in Creston it is learned that the company directors are R. J. Long, C. W. Allan and W. R. Long. The company is already completing plans for handling some part of the 1930 crop, and already negotiations are under way for the purchase or erection of a suitable warehouse and the securing of needed equipment for grading and packing fruit.

All of the directors are well known. R. J. Long, president of the compnay, has for years been recognized as the valley's foremost fruit producer, his Delicious apples having brought the Valley fame on both the prairie and export markets. In addition to his success as a grower he has for the past few years been president of Creston Co-operative Fruit exchange, and the Creston district representative on the directorate of the Associated Growers of British Columbia.

His son, W. R. Long, like father, has had a successful career as an orchardist, combined with which is much practical knowledge of the packing and shipping end of the business.

In commercial circles no one is better known than C. W. Allan, who so successfully established the local branch of the Imperial Bank in 1919, and continued as manager until early this year. He has a splendid grasp of general business, and a Scotch shrewdness along commercial lines that eminently qualifies him for the position of managing director of the new firm.

BAPTISMAL FONT COVER PRESENTED INVERMERE CHURCH

INVERMERE, B. C., March 21.—During the evening service of Sunday last Rev. J. Gordon Holmes, vicar of Christ church, Invermere, dedicated to the glory of God, a handsome quartered oak baptismal font cover that had just been presented by Commander J. Copley Powles, R.N., J.P., of Wilmer, in memory of his mother, who died last year in Keswick, Cumberland, England. The cover is a most magnificent piece of hand work in quartered oak.

The heavy base is hexagonal in its form and is deeply carved with a conventional design of trefoils. Three pillars rise from the outer edge of the base and are each connected with delicate workings in oak, which give the effect of a flying buttress and a mullioned screen, with a central column that rises from the base and is surmounted by an angel whose wings outstretched are turned above his beautifully carved head. Each of the three pillars in its turn is surmounted by a well balanced carving in oak typical of a torch or symbolical of the burning bush which appeared to Moses on Mount Sinai.

The whole work is beautifully proportioned and gives an admirable finish to the splendid baptismal font which was made locally from colored stones and ore gathered up by the children who were attending Christ church Sunday school at the time the font was constructed.

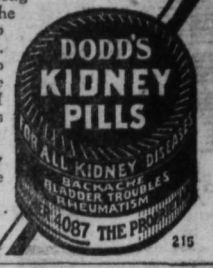
Drinking Water Affected Her Kidneys

Manitoba Lady Found Relief in Dodd's Kidney Pills

"I have just completed an automobile trip from California to Canada," states Mrs. G. Locke, of Whitemouth, Man. The different water that we had to drink along the way affected my kidneys terribly. By the time we got to Winnipeg my back ached so that I could hardly sit in the car any longer. The first place I went on arriving here was to the drug store. I got a box of the old reliable Dodd's Kidney Pills. In just over a week I was my old self again—thanks to Dodd's Kidney Pills."



For over a third of a century Dodd's Kidney Pills have been highly recommended as the best treatment for Ailing Kidneys.

A New and Better Shave by Gillette

A new Blade
A new Razor

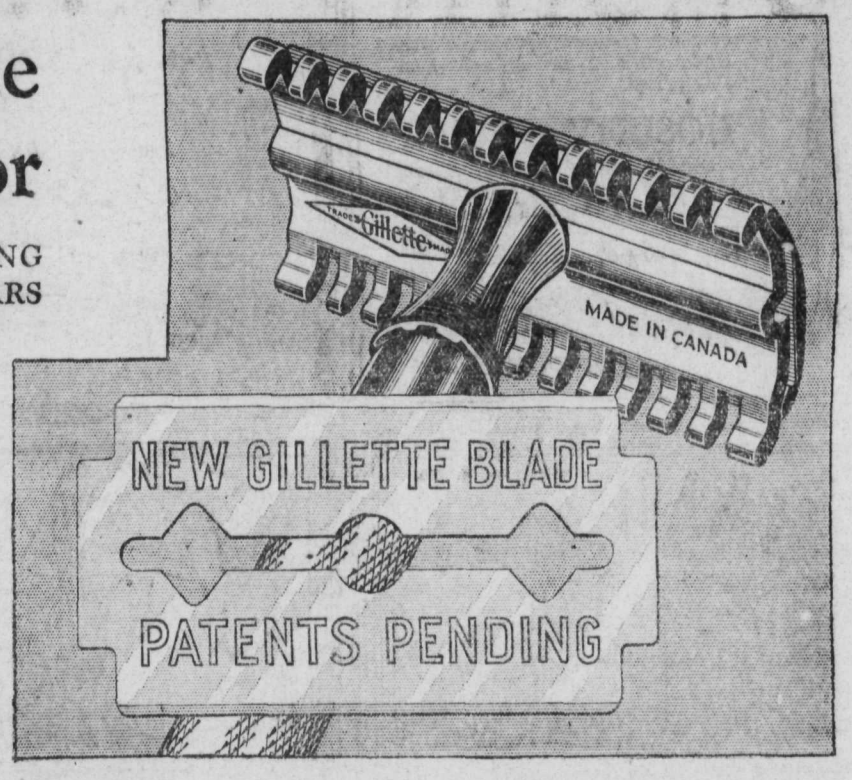
THE GREATEST SHAVING IMPROVEMENT IN 28 YEARS



MILLIONS of well-worn Gillettes are now going to win an honorable discharge. Sure — they're good old razors! And if you have to wait for your dealer to get his supply of the New Gillette Razor, your old Gillette will operate with the new blades.

What have we done to the Gillette Razor and the Gillette Blade? Not just one thing, or two things or three. We have made a dozen important changes.

Take "razor pull," for example. Our laboratories examined tens of thousands of used razors; our engineers talked to twenty-seven thousand hard-to-satisfy shavers.

What did they find? A razor "pulls" because its working parts have been dropped and dented on floor or wash basin.

Perhaps the dent is microscopic. Just the same it makes a difference. When you handle a Gillette, you are dealing with a fine precision tool. Even the smallest dent can throw it out of alignment. Hence "pull." Now look at the corners of the new razor. See those heavy lugs? You can't dent those corners by any ordinary accident. But suppose, by some terrific abuse, you should dent them. Never mind. The ends of the blade have been cut out. The blade is no longer held at the corners. Therefore, a dented razor-corner can't possibly affect the smoothness of your shave.

Another thing. The new blades are processed to resist rust. Think what that means in convenience and time saving. No more do you have to take the razor apart to wipe the blade. No more cut towels. Just loosen. Turn guard at right angles. Then retighten. Hold under hot running water for rinsing. Shake well. Lay on the shelf.

The old posts are gone. How many a good edge was lost by bumping against those posts. Now the razor blade turns at right angles for rinsing. No taking apart for cleaning.

Notice the new guard teeth . . . longer . . . turned back farther. They glide over the skin like velvet. You hardly feel the razor slide over your face.

See the ends of the blade . . . square . . . not round. Much easier to handle with slippery fingers. And, being almost flush with the cap, the blade shaves much better around the difficult corners of the mouth, ears, and nose. The famous guard channel beneath the blade edge allows the blade to meet the beard full and clear, yet with perfect safety.
