Fernie Man Cuts Hand When Chopping Wood; in Fernie Hospital

FERNIE, B.C., May 30.—Frank Bough of Fernie sustained a severe injury to his hand this evening when he cut it while chopping kindling at the Corbin road camp, near McGillivray, where he is employed as bull cook. He was brought to Fernie hospital tonight to have the wound dressed.

ENTERTAINMENT FUND WAS NOT OFFICIAL ONE

Resolution Was in Connection With One Specific Case He States

VANCOUVER, May 30.—Evidence that a resolution of the Vancouver police commission of September, 1921, was not intended to authorize inauguration of an entertainment fund with offered bribe money to police officers, was given by Former Police Commissioner J. J. McRae, mover of the resolution, at this afternoon's session of the inquiry into Vancouver police affairs.

Mr. McRae said that when he moved the resolution, he meant it to refer to one specific case. He had believed, he said, that the man who offered the money had been prosecuted, but the action had failed, and the money had been "forfeited."

Denial that any bribe money had been placed in the entertainment fund after a prosecution had failed, was given by Frank Amor, secretary of the police commission, and to Chief of Police H. W. Long. He had never even tried to obtain such money for the fund, he declared.

A report from Police Inspector John Jackson to Chief Long describing an alleged attempt to bribe Jackson by Georgie Chow, Chinese, was filed by G. G. McGeer, K.C., counsel for Police Commissioner T. W. Fletcher. The report contained a notation signed "C. C." in which Mr. Amor was instructed to place the bribe money referred to—$100—in the entertainment fund.

Mr. McGeer drew attention of Commissioner R. S. Lennie to the signa- of, he said, the chief constable. One ture of Jackson and the indorsement was of recent date, declared Mr. McGeer.

WISHES READ WIRE

Alex. Henderson, K. C., asked permission to read a telegram from Revelstoke, which he said, was signed by Maxwell and J. M. Hamilton, of Revelstoke. It was in connection with evidence given recently before the commissioner by R. L. Demarcos, he said. A. H. MacNeill, K. C. counsel to the commissioner, objected to the telegram being introduced unless it was a matter of evidence. Mr. Henderson then asked for subpoenaes for the men who had signed the telegram, but Commissioner Lennie suggested that Mr. Henderson had better discuss the matter with Mr. MacNeill after the session adjourned.

Senate Passes Bill Amending Immigration Act

OTTAWA, May 30.—The bill to amend the Immigration act passed the senate without division.

The bill when it reached the senate proposed to eliminate section 41 of the Immigration act. Under this section a British subject born without Canada, but who had become a resident of this country could be deported for seditious practices without trial.

The senate eliminated this section, but substituted in its place the section on the same subject which was in the act of 1910 which moves the descrimination against British subjects in Canada. And as the act now stands, no British subject born outside Canada and a resident in Canada for five years, can be deported for sedition or like offence.

SUTHERLAND WAS CHOKING HE SAYS CRANBROOK CASE

Fired Gun to Frighten Nicholson; Testifies in Own Behalf

MR. JUSTICE MURPHY CHARGES JURY TODAY

Evidence Corbin Shooting Is All in; Two Defence Witnesses

CRANBROOK, B.C., May 30.—Taking the stand in his own behalf at his trial on a charge of murdering Patrick Nicholson at Corbin on April 6, James Sutherland stated Nicholson was choking him, and that he fired the gun to frighten Nicholson. He had been threatened by Nicholson, and was in fear of him.

Arguments by counsel concluded the third day of Sutherland's trial.

Mr. Justice Murphy, stating it would take him some time to sum up, adjourned to 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Two witnesses, Gilbert William Cousens and Sutherland, were called in defence.

Testimony of Sergeant Greenwood of the provincial police as to the shells in the gun used concluded prosecution evidence.

Sutherland explained that the gun with which he shot Nicholson had been given to him in Moose Jaw some years before by a harvest hand in return for $2, which he asked the prisoner for, being "broke." He had never fired the gun before, and it was loaded as he got it when he dug it out of his suit-case on the night of the shooting, sutherland said.

FEARED THREATS

He described in detail his actions on the night of the shooting and the fear he was in from the threats made by the deceased, at various times. He stated that he heard Nicholson, in the sitting room of the bunkhouse, state that he would get up and "get" the bull cook and that he had sprung out of bed, taking his gun from beneath his pillow. In his underclothes and barefeet he started down stairs with the sole purpose of getting over to the boarding house to advise Sid Knight, the proprietor.

He was stopped at the foot of the stairs by Nicholson, whom he ordered to stand back. He produced the revolver with the idea of frightening Nicholson The later did not scare but dared him to shoot. He attempted to push Nicholson back in order to reach the door, but Nicholson prevented him, seizing him by the throat. Nicholson backed him against the partition near the door and feeling that he was being choked, he fired the gun with the idea of causing Nicholson to let go.

SERVED IN NAVY

Sutherland stated that he was born in North Wales. His age was 60 years. He was sent to Canada at the age of 14 and worked on a farm in Ontario for two years before beginning to drift. Since that time he worked at pretty near everything, and served 12 years in the marines, from which he received a "V G" discharge. During the war he served eight months in the navy at Esquimalt, but was discharged on account of disability, caused by kidney trouble and rheumatism, from which he still suffered.

Under cross-examination by Mr. Fisher the prisoner was not shaken in his story and the case closed with this evidence.

Cousens described assualts made on him by Nicholson in the boarding house on the night of, and previous to the fatal shooting. He also described in some detail other unprovoked attacks which Nicholson made on him at different times.

Sergeant Greenwood, testifying as to the shells found in the gun of the accused, stated on shell had been exploded, and 2 others of the five in the gun showed marks of the firing pin. Sergeant Greenwood stated that he had experimented with the gun, shooting 20 rounds of ammunition. In his opinion the gun was defective. If the trigger were pulled quickly the gun was very apt to misfire.

This evidence closed the case for the crown.

Mr. Herchmer addressed the jury briefly, summing up the evidence given by the various witnesses and expressing his confidence in the result of its judgment. Mr. Fisher spoke at greater length, addressing the jury for over an hour.

SMALL TORNADO DOES DAMAGE

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 30.—A small tornado uprooted trees and damaged small buildings in the vicinity of Eagle-wood and Maywood, between here and independence, Mo., this afternoon. No casualties were reported.

Pilot of Army Balloon Killed When Bag Is Struck by Lightning

GREENSBURG, Pa., May 30.—Lieut. Paul Evert, pilot of army No. 3 balloon which took off from Pittsburgh today in the national elimination race, was killed when his balloon was struck by lightning at Youngwood, near here. U. G. Ent, Evert's aide, was injured.

The balloon was destroyed by fire. The body of Evert was taken from the wreckage an sent to Greensburg. Youngwood is six miles south of here and less than 50 miles from Betty's Field, where the balloons took off.

FOKKER PLANE WILL TAKE OFF FOR AUSTRALIA

First Stop Honolulu; May Leave Early This Morning

TWO AUSTRALIANS AND TWO AMERICANS ABOARD

Excellent Weather Prevails; Kingsford-Smith and Ulm Co-Pilots

OAKLAND, Cal., May 30.—The giant tri-motored Fokker monoplane, Southern Cross, was ready tonight for its projected flight to Honolulu, the first stop on an aerial journey that will take two Australians and two Americans to Australia, if successful. Captain Charles Kingsford-Smith and Captain Charles Ulm, co-pilots of Australia, and Lieutenant Harry Lyons, navigator, and Radio Operator James Warner, will attempt the flight.

Final tests of the monoplane were made today and everything was in perfect condition, it was stated. Captain Kingsford-Smith reassured his crew tonight that he would start some time between 9 and 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Excellent weather conditions prevailed today and were expected to continue tomorrow.

The first hop will be to Honolulu, a distance of 2400 miles. The second hop will be from Honolulu to Suva, Fiji islands, about 3138 miles. The third will be from there to Brisbane, Australia, 1730 miles.

As the huge ship takes off tomorrow it will weigh approximately 14,000 pounds.

Light, Power and Heat Rates Will Be Same at Coast

VANCOUVER, May 30.—Reporting to Mayor Louis Taylor today on their interview with George Kidd, president of the British Columbia Electric railway, limited, in regard to the recent financial changes in the company, A. J. Pilkington, city comptroller, and J. B. Williams, city solicitor, said:

"Mr. Kidd felt satisfied that no increase of light, power and heat rates would follow the present financial operations.

"Incidentally, and quite apart from the question of recent changes in the control of the company, Mr. Kidd stated that the street railway or transportation branch of their activity was on a different footing from others, and that the present fares in the city of Vancouver did not give what was recognized as an adequate return on the capital invested. In other words, that transportation at the present rates was not a paying branch of the company."

Police Charge Students Taking Part in Big Anti-Italian Show

BELGRADE, JUGO SLAVIA, May 30.—Police with fixed bayonets charged students participating in anti-Italian demonstration here today and forced bloody fighting in which the demonstrators eventually were dispersed. There was considerable shooting, the number of casualties not being known.

MORE PLANES WILL BE USED LOCATE NOBILE

Norwegian Government Approves New Plans for Search of Arctic

GARBLED MESSAGES ARE TAKEN FROM THE AIR

First Believed From Nobile; This Later Is Discounted by Officials

OSLO, Norway, May 30.—Plans for a new auxiliary expedition to search for General Umberto Nobile and his companions on the ill-fated dirigible Italia have been approved by the Norwegian government. The steamer Ingefour has been taken over for the transport of one, perhaps two navy airplanes. These will be piloted by Captain Reiser-Larsen, who has charge of all the rescue planes, and Lieut. Lief Dietrichson, both of whom accompanied Captain Roald Amundsen on his polar expedition in 1925. The Ingefour will probably be able to leave for the north Friday.

Norway is making every effort to send aid to the Italian explorers.

Lieut. Holm is now aboard the sealer Hobby with his airplane bound for Spitzbergen. He will search the northern section of Spitzbergen, following out plans drawn up by Captain Reiser-Larsen and the minister of defense. It is thought that the outcome of his investigations is what the Italian government is waiting for prior to approving more extensive search.

WIRELESS MESSAGES

CORDOVA, Alaska, May 30.—Three wireless messages purportedly from the Citta Di Milano, mother ship of the Italian arctic expedition were intercepted by the naval radio station here today. One of the messages was signed "Nobile" and seemed to indicate that the crew of the dirigible was safe. The message was intercepted as follows:

"Presid Rome: "We give thanks to God all are well. Your telegram is a great relief to our minds. Nobile."

One of the other messages was addressed to Marguerita Nobile wife of the explorer at Torino, Italy. It was translated as follows: "Returned to King's bay we have waited in vain for your telegrams. Amede."

The third message was garbled but was interpreted as follows: "Failing news we still had hope today."

It was thought possible this was a portion of the message which was signed Nobile. Operators at the naval radio station said they were sure the messages had been transmitted by the Citta Di Milano.

Messages intercepted by the United States naval radio station at Cordova, signed "Nobile" and "Amede" evidently were from the brother of the Italian explorer, lost now a week on the Italia in the actric, observers believe.

Context of the message was accepted as showing they had been filed from the Citta Di Milano but not as indicating the ship had had any contact with the lost dirigible. Cable dispatches from King's Bay declared on her return there she found no trace of the Italia.

The intercepted messages possibly referred to matters of interest to Mrs. Nobile and her brother-in-law, it was thought.

TAXI DRIVER ADMITS MURDER

Kidnaped Girl and Killed Her He Admits in Toledo Prison

TOLEDO, Ohio, May 30.—Charles Hoppe, aged 26, taxi driver, confessed late today, according to Detective John Hovey, that he was the man who kidnapped 7-year-old Dorothy Sielagowski from her home and strangled her to death early yesterday morning.

Hoppe, who is married and has a child, formerly lived at the Sielagowski home. He made a full confession, Detective Hovey said when he was confronted with some of his own blood-stained clothing, which was dug up this afternoon in the rear of his home, where he had buried it.

The child was taken from her bed, while she slept, about 4 o'clock yesterday morning and was carried away in an automobile, which had been stolen.

Teeth marks in the child's flesh also were the means of tracing the killer A plaster cast of the prints, which showed that one tooth was missing, was made by dentists. This cast was found to correspond identically with Hoppe's teeth.

West Arm Rises But Three Inches; Five Inch Rise at Trail

Bridge Washed Out on Slocan River Near Passmore; Does Not Hinder Traffic; Castlegar Ferry Still Tied Up; Damage at Perry's

RISE OF FOOT WILL PUT BAY AVENUE, TRAIL, UNDER WATER

Furniture Moved From House in Veregin Subdivision; Piano Is on Stilts; Trail Residents Hopeful That Peak Is Reached

Washout of a bridge over the Slocan river at Passmore, was reported yesterday by District Engineer William Ramsay. This cut off ranchers on the west side of the river, but temporary relief will be provided by a crew going out today to construct a temporary crossing. This did not interfere with traffic to Slocan City.

Castlegar ferry is still tied up. Mr. Ramsay reported the level of the Columbia had not risen a great deal, and expressed the opinion that the peak had been reached, provided the weather did not turn warm again. Quantities of drift wood coming down the river, and the height of the water, made resumption of the ferry service dangerous, he said, and the tie-up would continue until the danger was past.

NEAR PEAK

Water in the West Arm rose but three inches yesterday, bringing the level up to 19.05 feet. It was generally conceded that if the weather remained cool, the peak would be reached very shortly. Weather forecasts were for generally clearing weather, with stationary or higher temperatures.

Considerable damage has been done by the Slocan river overflowing its banks at Perrys Siding. Crops and fencing have suffered most, Messrs. Nixon, Bentley and Scovil being the greatest losers. Much fencing has been washed out on the Bentley ranch.

Traffic was still being diverted over the Winlaw bridge to escape flooded road on the Nelson-Slocan City highway.

Water over the road at Willow Point was causing inconvenience, but traffic was being routed over a road at a higher level, so there was no actual tie-up at Willow Point.

No new developments were reported in the Ymir and Salmo areas. Repair work on bridges and washed out sections of road continues.

HEAVY RAINS, FERNIE

FERNIE, B.C., May 30.—The basement of the high school was flooded today owing to exceptionally heavy rains the last few days.

There were nine inches of water on the floor of the manual training room, and almost as much in the chemistry laboratory. The gasoline pump of the forestry service was requisitioned to get rid of the water.

LOSES BUILDING

BURTON, B.C., May 30.—Rising level of the Arrow lakes at Burton has at last begun to check. The raise between Tuesday morning and Wednesday morning was only about 6 inches, compared with an average of a foot or over during the last few days.

Wednesday morning the reading was 28.05 feet, which was about 8 feet short of the 1884 record high water. It was enough to flood the Burton-Nakusp and Burton-Fauquier roads.

Cariboo creek got out of bounds and did considerable damage to J. Mante's ranch. He lost one building, but the volunteer workers saved the rest of his plant, and his poultry.

Little more damage is expected unless exceptional developments take place.

Bill to Amend Naturalization Act Killed by Senate

OTTAWA, May 30.—The government bill to amend the Naturalization act was killed in the senate today. The bill would have placed authority for the granting of naturalization certificates in the hands of the secretary of state without its being necessary for the applicant to make prior application to courts, as now required.

The bill met stormy opposition in the commons. It was discussed at some length by the senate today in committee of the whole. Senator Laird moved that the committee rise. This was carried by 38 to 20. The effect was to kill the bill.

TRAIL, B.C., May 30.—Residents are hopeful that the peak rise of Columbia river now in flood condition will pass without extensive damage to river front property. A gain of 5 inches only was reported at Trail bridge in the 24 hours ending at 7 o'clock here to night, as compared with gains of from 15 to 18 inches for the last 10 days.

In the 24 hours ending at 7 o'clock this morning, readings taken by Charles Williams at the Consolidated's pumping station on Stoney creek showed a rise of eight inches. The level was 32 feet 1 inch, as compared with yesterday's 31 feet 5 inches.

MAY FLOOD BAY AVENUE

Overflowing its banks in the lane behind Rialto theater, the river has flood*ed the basement of the* theater and houses in the vicinity to several feet in depth and made proportionate rise in Verigin subdivision, where gardens are covered and basements are flooded. A further rise of one foot would probably put water on Bay avenue in that vicinity.

Many garages and stores in the district are having trouble with a reverse flow of drainage water through the mains into their basements. Some are flooded to a depth of 20 inches.

ROAD WASHED OUT

South of the city on Riverside avenue, the roadway to a score of residences, and to the city dump grounds half a mile beyond, is being undermined, and the basements of homes are being flooded. Over one section 100 yards in length, half the roadway has caved into the river in several places, making vehicle traffic farther south hazardous.

In one house in the Verigin subdivision a piano has been raised on stilts so as to be above the rising waters of flood conditions. In the same house the furniture has been moved from the ground floor to the second floor.

As in the Verigin subdivision many houses along the east and west side of the river are flooded to within a half an inch of the living floor, while other residents are uneasy with the water as high as the verandah.

Indianapolis Speedway Dinner Scene Holdup

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 30.—More than 200 guests attending a speedway dinner dance at the Broadmore Country club northwest of Indianapolis tonight were held up by a number of bandits. Club officials estimated that between $150,000 and $200,000 in money, jewelry and other valuables was taken.

INQUIRY INTO IMMIGRATION IS CONCLUDED

Work of Women's Division Related; Publicity Activities Shown

OTTAWA, May 30.—The parliamentary immigration inquiry concluded the hearing of evidence late today. A meeting of the subcommittee appointed to draft a report will be held in camera later today, and a further meeting of the whole committee will be held in private tomorrow, with a view to assisting in preparation of the report.

W. J. Egan, deputy minister of immigration, was on the stand all afternoon. He detailed the work of the women's division of the department in conjunction with hostels located in the different provinces. Hostels were located at Halifax, Saint John, N.B., Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg, Calgary, Vancouver and other points, Mr. Egan stated. The hostels were supported by federal grants with provincial aid in some instances.

"These hostels serve as clearing houses and homes," Mr. Egan stated.

"If the newcomer has difficulties with her employer, the hostels serve as a means of finding new domestic positions. If a woman immigrant happens to be in town for a day or two, she may use the hostel as a club house."

COMMITTEES IN CHARGE

Local committees were in charge of the various hostels.

The publicity activities of the department of immigration were touched on by Mr. Egan.

Publicity activities were carried on in countries likely to supply the proper type of settlers, Mr. Egan stated. The chief publicity work was conducted in the British Isles, some states in the United States and certain countries of northwestern Europe. At the suggestion of Chairman W. F. Kay the memo of Mr. Egan of the department's publicity work was placed on record for study without being read in full.

Questioned by W. T. Lucas, U.F.A., Camrose, Mr. Egan stated that newcomers must be literate, although there were exceptions in some cases. "Considering the fact that our policy has been a failure, can you give us any light on how to improve the situation?" questioned Dr. Peter McGibbon, Conservative, Muskoka.

Hon. Charles Stewart, minister of the interior, disagreed that the policy was a failure. Mr. Egan was not prepared to make a general answer to Mr. McGibbon's question, and he was supported in this by Mr. Stewart.

MATERNAL CARE I. O. D. E. SUBJECT

Victorian Order of Nurses Doing Great Work in Canada Says Speaker

TORONTO, May 30.—Dealing with maternal mortality in her report of child welfare committee of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire, the convener, Mrs. John Stewart of Perth, Ont., at this afternoon's session of the order said:

"In one year we lost 1532 Canadian mothers in child birth, or more than four Canadian mothers a day. Some 5073 children have been left motherless of whom 768 were babies, mostly newly born. It has been estimated that had proper precautions been taken at least 1000 of these mothers could have been saved. I mght add that these statistics are quoted from the valuable study on maternal mortality in Canada issued this year by the Dominion department of health. This is an appalling situation. How can we help?"

"I can urge no finer child welfare work upon our primary chapters than such assistance in the establishment of maternity wards and nursing facilities in communities in need."

Miss E. Smillie, superintendent of the Victorian Order of Nurses, brought the thanks and gratitude of the Victorian order for the assistance rendered in their work with mothers and children by the order.

DEATHS RARER

Deaths were rare among mothers who had prenatal care. The visiting nurses did not confine their visits entirely to the homes of the poor, but rendered service wherever and whenever possible. When the visiting nurses had been proved to be of inestimable value the question naturally arose "then why not more Victorian nurses?" said Miss Smillie.

"Inadequate finances" was the one and only answer, according to Miss Smillie.

Communistic schools were dealt with in the report of the committee on child welfare. The British Columbia convener, Mrs. R. D. Hawkshaw, drew attention to "the urgent necessity of our provincial governments through their departments of education, taking cognizance of the existence and activities of the communistic schools organized throughout many of our provinces teaching doctrines subversive not only of our organized systems of justice and government, but of fundamental doctrines of our civilized Christian life."

GIRL GUIDES ARE HOSTS TO WOMEN

TORONTO, May 30.—A reception given the delegates attending the annual convention of the National council of women at Annesley hall tonight by the Canadian Girl Guides, capped a day which saw many topics of interest to women under discussion.

Mrs. J. A. Wilson of Ottawa, national president of the council, called upon the presidents of local councils from many parts of the Dominion to extend greetings and report the progress made last year in their own communities.

One member discussed the progress made in promoting religious education in the schools. The reading of the Bible without comment on its contents had been secured in the Calgary schools, she said, and the "ten commandments" were to be used for the lower grades. Other presidents told of the advance made in various welfare measures and reforms through efforts of the local councils.

Following the program of speeches, the guides entertained the delegates at supper.

SAYS MENTAL HOSPITAL BEING RUN EFFICIENTLY

WINNIPEG, May 30.—Dr. A. T. Mathers, head of the psychopathic hospital, Winnipeg, in giving evidence before the commission investigating employment conditions at the Brandon mental hospital today, declared that the efficiency of the staff was such as to provide the best care for the patients. Dr. Mathers considered the staff capable and willing and of the opinion that Dr. Barrager, medical superintendent at Brandon mental hospital, was giving "a high degree of honest, faithful service."

I. O. D. E. MEETING ENDS AT TORONTO

Speakers Express Loyalty to Empire; Mrs. Smith Speaks for British Columbia

TORONTO, May 30.—The third day of the annual gathering of the national chapter, Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire, was brought to a close with a banquet given tonight by the Toronto chapter, which was attended by women from all parts of Canada. Today's sessions were marked by discussions of the reports of the national educational secretary, the child welfare committee and of the provincial chapters of Ontario and British Columbia.

At tonight's banquet women from every province brought greetings and renewed assurance of loyalty to the order.

Miss R. M. Church, national president, in proposing the toast to the Empire, referred to the British Empire as the greatest illustration of family ties the world has ever known. Canada was bound to the motherland, not only by the blood relation but by ties of citizenship.

Miss Jessie Baker, young Canadian orator, gave a stirring message on citizenship in her speech "Canada's future."

SPEAKS ON B. C.

Mrs. Gordon Smith, of British Columbia, on her first visit to Toronto, expressed herself as delighted with the welcome and inspiration received here and hoped to see the national meeting some day in the beautiful climate of the far western province.

Mrs. R. C. Marshall, of Alberta, expressed pleasure at coming back to Toronto and referred to the early days of pioneering in this province. The pioneering work being done today, she considered to be of equal importance. Unlike Ontario, however, it was not being entirely done by people of British stock. She believer I. O. D. E. members had done a great work in assisting the newcomers and she made a plea for a united immigration.

Mrs. George Black of the Yukon, was a charming and witty speaker. "I known of the wonders of Canada and we in the Yukon take a back seat to none of the older province in loyalty and fidelity and good will," she said.

WOULD DECREASE LIQUOR TAXES

Cut Duty on Cigarettes Would Tend Reduce Smuggling Says Member

OTTAWA, May 30.—All main estimates of the department of national revenue went through the house today. All that remains for this department is a small vote in the supplementaries. Discussion on the revenue estimates ranged today from seized ships to ships under charter by the government to excise taxes on liquor and cigarettes, departmental dismissal and appointments. Pleas were heard that the best way to combat liquor smuggling was to reduce the duties. Hon. W. D. Euler, minister of national revenue, observed that one of the real obstacles to securing convictions for smuggling was a general sentiment not to regard smuggling as a serious offense.

The item under consideration, one of $2,200,000 to provide for the administration of the business profits war tax act and the income tax act, carried.

During the discussion, Hon. H. H. Stevens, Conservative, Vancouver, said that in the interest of temperance itself it would be a sound move to reduce the excise tax from $9 and the import tax from $10 a gallon. The revenues of the country would suffer very little.

SUPPORTS STEVENS

Hon. Dr. Manion, Conservative, Fort William, supported Mr. Stevens in his position that a great deal of good would be done by decreasing the taxes on liquor. Henri Bourassa, Independent, Labelle, advocated reducing the duty on liquor and on cigarettes. High duties resulted in increased smuggling, he said.

J. L. Brown, Liberal-Progressive, Lisgar, wanted to know for sure that a reduction in duties would not increase drunkenness before he would support such a reduction.

THE GUMPS—WHAT EVERY MOTHER WOULD LIKE TO KNOW

LIBRARY MOVES TO COMMODIOUS NEW QUARTERS

Forced Out by Growth; Highly Rated Biographies, Histories Added, Trail

TRAIL, B.C., May 30.—Unable to meet the demands for expansion made on it by Trail's growing army of readers, Memorial hall lending library has been transferred from the library room to quarters almost twice large in the former public meeting room in the building.

All wall book-cases have been installed in the new library quarters, and workmen are busy fashioning extra stands. The change will result in no discontinuance of service, states Librarian Mrs. Miller Mason, who says the work of rearrangement is practically completed. The library will be open tomorrow.

During the week, a score or more of highly rated books of serious purpose have been added. Some of them are biographical, as "Bismark,"—Ludwig, a portrait of the fighter and an absorbing character study as well as a chapter of world history. "Napoleon", is a similar study by the same author. These two volumes, and "Powers and Pillars", being a journalistic study of famous contemporary Britishers by the German writer, Kirchmen, offer an interesting incidental study of points of view if read in conjunction with "Nuda Veritas", Claire Sheridan, who observes many of the same personalities with the eye of an artist in stone.

"Tolerance", Van Loon is a study of history from a new angle. In "The Day After Tomorrow", Phillip Gibbs tries to analyse what is going to happen next in this world. What would happen if by some cataclismic movement of the earth, populous countries were suddenly overwhelmed? is an interesting speculation which "Deluge" —Wright attempts to answer in dramatic and absorbing entertaining way. "Sons and Lovers", Lawrence, a novel, comes very close to the springs of emotion in the lives of everyday people. There are many others well selected.

A scratch could put 24,000 telephones out of order

You are in the basement of our largest exchange. That black creature there is a motor generator, charging the big storage batteries. Inside the generator a copper cylinder, known as a "commutator," is whirling.

If that commutator were to be scratched slightly, within 15 minutes every one of the 24,000 telephones served from this building would be useless because of the noise.

But maintenance men, watching diligently over this and all the other complicated equipment, detect the scratch before damage is done.

"Catch trouble before it happens." That is the slogan throughout our system.

TRAIL LEADS INTERIOR IN POPULATION

City Officially Credited With 7000; Ranks High Industrially, Commercially

TRAIL, B.C., May 30.—Trail is now credited with having the largest population, and with being the greatest industrial center in the interior of British Columbia, by Wrigley's Directories, limited.

In the compilation completed late in 1927, the directory manufacturers estimate Trail's population at 7000 and Nelson's at slightly under that total. Kamloops ranks third in the interior with 6000.

Trail and Nelson stand far ahead of other communities in Kootenay, as the following figures for the larger centers show: Fernie 4500, Cranbrook 3500, Creston district 2000, Rossland 1500, Grand Forks 1500, Kaslo 1000, Nakusp 700.

The directory credits this city with being "one of the most firmly established communities in the province, the home of the largest smelter of its kind in the British Empire, and with now being one of the best commercial centers in western Canada. It has modern public schools, technical high school, five churches, railroad service by the Canadian Pacific and stage connection with the Great Northern line, good auto roads in all directions and large and small game hunting and superb fishing within easy reach.

TRAIL PHONES CONTINUE GROW

Seventy-Nine New Telephone Users in First Four Months of This Year

TRAIL, B.C., May 30.—With a gain of 79 telephones since the first of the year, Trail again stands high in the percentage of growth in exchanges of the British Columbia Telephone company throughout the province. Trail's percentage of growth was 8.6. At January 1st the number of telephones in use here was 917, while at May 1st there were 996 in use.

Outside of the larger centers of population at the coast, such as Vancouver, New Westminster and Victoria, Trail is now the fourth exchange in point of view of size in the province. Kamloops has 1462 telephones, Nanaimo 2249 and Nelson 1374. At May 1st the company had 103,820 phones in use and the average percentage of increase over its entire system for the first four months of the year was 2 per cent.

Trail was only exceeded in percentage of increase by four exchanges—Balfour, Kaslo, Michel and Gordon Head.

CROWN POINT HOTEL UNDER NEW OWNERSHIP

James Hanns, Veteran Hotel Man of Drumheller, Acquires Trail Hostelry

TRAIL, B.C., May 30.—Reports of the sale of Crown Point hotel, one of the best known hostelries in this city, to James Hanns and associates of Drumheller, Alta., were confirmed by Mr. Hanns this morning.

As a result of negotiations begun in Vancouver two months ago with Andrew McDermott, former proprietor, Mr. Hanns, with his associates, is now proprietor of the hotel and subsidiary business.

Mr. Hanns is a veteran hotel man of Drumheller. He operated the Waldorf hotel in that city for the last 15 years, and is well known to commercial men operating from Alberta.

Extensive redecoration and some alterations are now being made to the hotel. Mr. Hanns has assumed operation. George Dimock, well known locally, will be clerk.

To aid in the curtailment of betting, a move has been started on the Pacific coast to curb the announcement of batteries until just before the game time.

SOAKS RIGHT IN AND LIMBERS UP STIFF JOINTS

Pharmacists Call it "Joint-Ease" Because it's for Swollen, Sore, Painful, Creaky Joints Only

It took a good many years to get together a combination of pain subduing and swelling reducing agents declared to be the one remedy that almost instantly penetrates through skin and flesh and starts right in to make swollen, inflamed, creaky, pain racked joints as good as new.

They call this new and wonderful preparation "Joint-Ease" because the medical man who turned the trick, worked for years to perfect some low-priced remedy that would really benefit the millions of people who have one or more joints that need helpful attention.

So "Joint-Ease" is prepared only for people who have a swollen, painful, creaky, distorted or stiff joint, whether it be in knee, elbow, shoulder, ankle, neck or finger and whether it is caused by rheumatism or something else.

Of course, it can't help but quickly put an end to such superficial ailments as lumbago, neuralgia, neuritis, aching muscles, stitch in the side, crick in the neck or sore feet because of its penetrating action, but what it is really recommended for is joint ailments of any nature whatever.

Ask for a tube of "Joint-Ease." You can use it several times in one evening for quick results, because it goes right through the skin with only a few seconds rubbing. It surely is a swift penetrator and when it gets under the skin, it starts right in to clean up all joint trouble.

All druggists dispense it daily for about 60 cents a tube, as do first class druggists everywhere.

MAHR'S SERVICE TEAM AND TRAIL PLAY TIE GAME

Called in Sixth Owing to Heavy Rain; Score Is 7-All

HEAVY HITTING IS FEATURE OF GAME

Pitchers Twirl Well; Freddie Lauriente Is Hitting Star

TRAIL, B.C., May 30.—Trail Reps and the visiting Mahr's Service Station nine of Spokane battled to a seven-seven draw in six innings in the first international baseball fixture of the season at the Trail ball park here this afternoon. With a heavy down pour of rain at the start of the game, umpire Fred Morrish was forced to call the game at the end of the sixth inning on account of rain.

With Spokane two runs up in the first half of the sixth the Trail boys came back with some heavy hiting to tie the score previous to a heavy rain storm. The game was featured with heavy hitting by both teams and clever twirling by both pitchers.

BEEVOR GOOD

"Lefty" Bevor ,Trail chucker, won the pitcher's duel and struck out 15 batters. He put plenty of smoke on the ball and pitched one of his best games of the season. Klice, on the mound for the Spokane team, also pitched a good game and sent eight batters to the bench by the strike-out route.

Fred Lauriente was the hiting star of the game with a home run and a three bagger which should have been a home run in three times to bat. At the third time to bat Lauriente slammed the ball into the left field, it landed among a number of automobiles—and a youngster chucked the ball to the Spokane pitcher to put Lauriente out at the home plate. Johnson, of the Spokane nine poled out the longest drive of the game into center field and was also credited with a home run.

The visiting team opened the scoring in the second inning. Mills walked and stole second. Klice connected for a two bagger and scored Mills. Metler was hit by pitcher and got to first base. Gorman struck out. Campbell struck out. Castle struck out.

Spokane collected five runs in the third inning from two hits and a couple of errors. Johnson poled out a homerun into deep center field. Woods got to first when hit by pitcher. Webb played out to Moliski at second. Mills walked, advancing Woods to second. Klice got to first on a fielder's choice, and Mills and Woods scored on Reddicks overthrow to second. Gorman struck out. Metler walked and scored on Ross's error, Campbell singled. Castle singled, advancing Campbell to second. Campbell stole third and Castle second. Johnson struck out.

TWO FOR TRAIL

Trail got two runs in the third inning when Moliski got to first on Metler's error. Lauriente poled out a circuit drive and scored Moliski. Morgan struck out. Drew got to first when hit by pitcher. De Pesquale went out, Castle to Webb. Beevor went out, Castle to Webb.

Holding the visiting nine down Trail collected three runs in the fourth inning. Ross got to first on Gorman's error and advanced to second when Reddick singled. McTier struck out. Beevor connected and got to first on a fielder's choice, Ross scoring, and Reddick going out at second, Castle to Gorman. Moliski singled. Lauriente connected for a hit which should have been a home run, scoring Moliski, but was put out at home plate when a non-player threw the ball into the catcher.

Spokane got their seventh run in the sixth inning when Johnson walked. Woods went out, DePasqule to Reddick, Johnson going to second. Johnson went to third on a passed ball. Webb flyed out to Morgan in center field, Johnson scoring when he beat the throw in to the catcher. Mills struck out.

THREE BAGGER

The Trail boys laid a slab to the pill at their time to bat in the sixth. Reddick opened with a three bagger into left field. McTier singled to score Reddick. McTier stole second and third. Beevor struck out. Moliski walked and went to second. Lauriente sacrificed to score McTier but went out at first, Gorman to Webb. Morgan struck out.

The teams were:

Spokane—Klice p; Campbell c; Webb 1b; Gorman 2b; Johnson 3b; Castle ss; Mills lf; Woods cf; Metler rf.

Trail—Beevor p; McTier c; Reddick 1b; Moliski 2b; De Passuale 3b; Drew ss; Ross lf; Morgan cf; F. Lauriente rf; Matovich and Houbrigg spares.

Umpire—Fred Morrish of Trail.

BRONZE MEMORIAL TABLET UNVEILED AT BOSWELL HALL

Tablet Carrying Names Men Who Died in Great War Unveiled

BOSWELL, May 30.—Empire day was a red letter day in the history of this settlement, for it saw the unveiling of the permanent bronze memorial tablet in the Boswell Memorial hall. Chairman B. Holiday Smith, in opening, said it was nine years ago that the first meeting was called in Boswell to consider a war memorial, and it was decided to erect a Memorial hall. Captain Ellis presided at that meeting.

At a later meeting, after the hall had been opened for use, it was decided to install a permanent memorial tablet, and Empire day saw the completion of that object.

The hall itself was far from being completed, but Boswell would carry out this work in the spirit in which it was begun.

The small Union Jack covering the tablet had peculiar interest attached to it. Lawson Hepher picked this small flag out of the mud of the trenches at Fostubert in 1915, during his first visit to the front line trenches and sent it to the Boswell school.

UNVEILS TABLET

"Whilst on active service," said Lawson Hepher, who unveiled the tablet, "it was my privilege to meet several of the men whose names we shall find inscribed on the bronze, and I know of no higher tribute one could pay them, and none they would more readily have, than to say that they were typical of the hundreds of thousands of men who during the eventful years between 1914 and 1918 went from the four corners of the earth in answer to the call of our motherland.

"This tablet will, through the coming years, look down on the social gatherings, the business meetings, and the spiritual devotions of this community, and if it is to serve any greater purpose than that of a mere expression of sentiment, then surely that purpose must be that it serve as an incentive to us to carry out our duties as citizens with the same cheerful devotion that characterized the men whose memory we seek to perpetuate today."

Following the unveiling, one minute's silence was observed. Mrs. Lawson Hepher sang "In Flanders Fields," accompanied at the piano by Mrs. S. R. Sherman.

Captain C. R. Higgens, hall secretary, read messages of regret at inability to attend from Rev. J. S. Mahood of Queen's Bay, Rev. C. Harvey of Procter, Mrs. W. Harrison Bowman of Spokane, and Mrs. James Johnstone of Nelson.

FUTILITY OF WAR

Captain Ellis was very pleased indeed that he was able to be present at the ceremony. Although he had left the district he was still very interested in the progress of the Boswell Memorial hall and the completion of the memorial tablet.

He had seen hundreds of war memorials both in the old country and on the continent. One which he had seen had 20,000 names inscribed upon it, and he thought possibly the Boswell memorial might serve as a reminder of the futility of war, which left the world worse than before.

The ceremony terminated with the singing of the national anthem, Mrs. Lawson Hepher at the organ.

Following a social period, afternoon tea was served. The arrangements for the ceremony were in the hands of Mrs. A. Kennedy, representing the Women's institue; Mrs. K. Wallace, representing the Women's auxiliary; A. Mackie, representing the Boswell school board; S. J. Cummings, representing the Farmers' institute; W. Lawson Hepher, representing the Boswell fruit growers; and the hall directors, T. Tait, president; B. Holiday Smith, vice-president; Captain C. R. Higgens, secretary-treasurer; Miss B. Johnson and E. Bainbridge.

At the top of the bronze tablet is the inscription "In Memory of Our Men Who Died in the Great War, 1914-1918". At the bottom an inscription reads: "They Fought The Good Fight".

The names of the Boswell men who fell in the Great War with the place of their death and the date are inscribed on the tablet. They are Percy Rigby, March 10, 1915, Fleurbaix; Rupert L. Wilson, April 10, 1917, Vimy Ridge; H. Alan Coomber, April 29, 1918, Passchendaele; Henry Beaumont, April 24, 1915; St. Julien; Hubert J. Mahood, April 28, 1917, Arleux en Gohelle; John G. Halliday, August 8, 1918; Amiens; James Matheson, April 24, 1915, St. Julien; Carl C. Wilson, December 6, 1917, Halifax explosion; Raymond T. Hickes, gassed on Somme, died February 9, 1921.

The hall was decorated with festoons of evergreens and spring flowers, whilst directly underneath the memorial tablet was a large wreath of laurel leaves and poppies.

Constipation! Piles!

Are completely relieved by "Fruit-a-tives"

MR. JAS. PAGE

"I suffered from constipation for five years and from piles for about six months, but one box of "Fruitatives" gave me complete relief. I had remedies from Quebec, Montreal, New York, Kansas City and Michigan, but all without results. "Fruitatives" gives results as nothing else does, and I sincerely recommend them to every other sufferer," writes Mr. Jas. Page of Cabano, Que.

The bowels, stomach, liver and kidneys are cleansed and strengthened by the intensified juices of fresh ripe fruit and the health-building tonics of which "Fruitatives" is made. There is nothing else like it. Try it. 25c and 50c a box at all druggists.

Churchmen's Club Hosts at Whist and Dance, Trail

TRAIL, B.C., May 30.—Members of the Churchmen's club of St. Andrew's Anglican church entertained their wives and a number of friends at a delightful whist drive and dance here tonight. T. H. Ollis, president, presided.

The winners of the whist were: Ladies' first, Mrs. D. L. Davies, ladies' consolation, Mrs. T. Hinton; men's first D. Underwood; men's consolation, E. Meacham.

Following the drive tasty refreshments were served after which a large number joined in for the dancing. The music for the dance was supplied by Rev. N. D. B. Larmonth, pianist; and Miss Alice Hopkins, violinist.

NAKUSP, B.C., May 30.—For a second time Frank Surina lies in hospital with an injured leg. This time it is a fracture, sustained when the horse he was riding in rounding up cattle at Glenbank, slipped and fell. Previous leg trouble caused the boy, who is the 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Surina, to be confined in a Vancouver hospital for two years.

Airplanes Would Have Traveled to Nelson Yesterday If We Had Possessed an Airport

Nelson is losing business through its lack of an airplane landing ground.

Yesterday was a case in point. If we had possessed an airport, Decoration day would have brought planes from south of the line.

The loss in business is not merely through the airplanes and their passengers which are unable to land here, but we are losing the business which we would obtain as an indirect result of airplane travel to Nelson.

The lake does not fill the bill. In the first place, the majority of planes cannot alight on water. Secondly, until we establish an airport, recognized by the Dominion government, no foreign machine has any legal right to land here. It would be subject to seizure for violation of customs regulations.

Dimming Headlights Is a Remedy Worse Than the Disease

The glaring headlights is a traffic problem of increasing difficulty and inconvenience.

Dimming is not a satisfactory remedy. It is too dangerous. Scores of accidents have occurred to cars whose drivers have dimmed their lights. With his lights dimmed, the driver can't see the road and may run over the bank.

Anti-glare devices have their merits and some of them give fairly good results, but invention has not yet produced a really satisfactory anti-glare light. The problem is to abolish glare without losing so much light that the driver cannot see the road ahead of him.

A really perfect anti-glare light would make the inventor many times a millionaire.

In the meantime all we can do is to exercise the strictest care when meeting other cars at night. If the driver focuses his eyes on his own side of the road, the other carlights' glare will not usually be too blinding. If the road is narrow, stop, and pull in to the side. When you stop, then it is safe to dim the lights. Have your lights frequently tested to ensure that they are set at the correct height.

Remember that the driver on the outside of the road or coming up a hill is entitled to the right-of-way. Make things as easy for him as possible.

Ten Days by Stage, Six Hours by Plane, in Yukon

That the progress of time, is bringing about surprising improvements in transportation facilities even to the most remote corners of the Dominion—improvements which serve greatly to minimize the drawbacks and bind Canada's broad spaces relatively closer one to another—is indicated, points out the Victoria Times, by a recent message received by the director of the Northwest Territories and Yukon branch of the department of the interior.

The communication states that Mr. George I. MacLean, who was appointed gold commissioner of the Yukon, April 1, and who left Ottawa on April 2, arrived at his destination, Dawson, on the eighteenth, or nine days after leaving Vancouver. This represents normal saving of time of at least nine days, which was made possible by the circumstance that after making the trip up the coast by steamer and on by rail to Whitehorse, Mr. MacLean completed the journey from Whitehorse to Dawson by aeroplane in only six hours. Usually at this time of year this 450-mile leg of the journey takes 10 days to negotiate by stage.

"Monkey's Paw" Will Be Presented South Slocan Hall Tonight

South Slocan and district theater lovers will receive a treat tonight when "The Monkey's Paw," a wierdly dramatic play by W. W. Jacobs will be presented in the South Slocan hall. In addition to the play will be an excellent musical program assisted by Alston Laurie's orchestra. Those contributing to the program will be: Leslie Crauford, Leonora Everett, mezzo soprano; Mrs. Dorothy Bennet, chalk talk; Alston Laurie, violin solo; Colin Seabridge, basso. The entertainment will wind up with a monster dance.

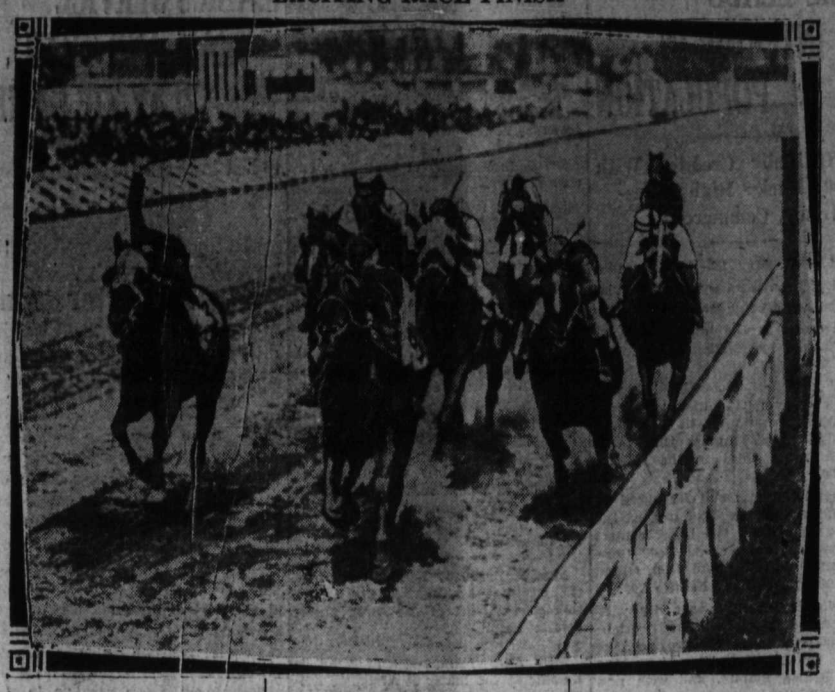
EXCITING RACE FINISH



Here is some action at the Woodbine spring meeting at Toronto when the third race provided an exciting finish. The winner was J. Mascia's Tommy Foster, which beat N. Grupstein's Lannie a nose, F. F. Joyce's Saratoga Maje was third, beaten a length. Straighened out for the final run for home, Jockey Schaefer sent Tommy Foster to the front. The latter hung on gamely under punishment and just managed to last long enough to finish a nose in front of Lannie. The photograph shows the field of the horses in the stretch. Lannie (No. 3) is on the outside with his rider whipping hard; next is Tommy Foster (No. 9), Gymkhana is on the rail and Saratoga Maje (No. 7) in a pocket behind the leaders.

"You have often written on the subject of birthday parties for children," writes a reader of this column, "and now I am wondering if you will publish an article on the grown-up's birthday party? I am particularly interested in a June affair."

You did not say whether the party might be held out of doors, on lawn or porch, so I shall have to confine myself to an indoor affair. If you are planning it for somebody else why not have it a surprise party? Ask your friends to appear at 8 o'clock in the evening and be as surprising in dress, manner and speech as possible. Award a prize to the most surprising costume.

If you do not care to have some sort of card game, start a contest on the subject: "The Most Surprising Thing That Ever Happened to Me." or the most surprising thing one has seen or heard, also giving a prize for the story (told in five minutes) which brings the most laughter.

Nuts, fruit, orange skins filled with ice cream (as a surprise) coffee and cake would be good refreshments, although something heavier such as sandwiches or a salad might also be included.

Surprise "stunts" are great fun and your guests should be told in advance that they may be called upon to stage such a stunt, then they will come prepared, any bit of acting, singing, dancing, etc., being suitable to offer. Once more a prize should be awarded to the best performer.

If you do not care for a surprise party (or if you are giving the party in honor of your own birthday), I would advise you to prepare for some simple card game such as rummy, which all can play. A game of this sort fills up an evening nicely and although it is not especially original, it is nevertheless great fun and is not so deep a game that it prohibits gay talking as one plays.

No matter what one's age, insist that it is sweet 16, and decorate your cake with 16 candles, and have the place cards bashful looking young girls or boys—get the spirit of youth into the affair! Nobody cares how old one really is. Fun is the thing.

New York reports that velvet and velveteen have attained unexpected importance in the coating field this spring, and sheer velvets, chiefly black and colored velveteens are the items specifically demanded.

White velveteen is cited by a smart Fifth avenue shop as the latest fabric its clientele is demanding in evening wraps and the call was so decided that the shop was forced to have a number of models especially designed, trimming of dark furs being made favored.

That Body of Yours

By JAMES W. BARTON, M.D.

Discrediting Exercise

I sometimes get annoyed when I hear those engaged in taking regular exercise or teaching others how to take it, criticized by physicians and others who should know better. They say that too much stress is placed on exercise.

The doctor who knows his work will tell you that if the muscles of the body are kept in shape, it reacts upon the whole system, heart, lungs, intestine, skin, in fact upon every part of the body. The muscles of the abdomen and of the stomach and intestine are usually found in the same condition as the outside muscles.

Most of the trouble that comes to the body comes directly or indirectly by the stomach and intestine. Even where there is lung trouble, good eating and good digestion is a big factor in fighting it successfully.

As you know, the mouth, the stomach, the liver, the pancreas, and the intestine itself, all pour out substances to aid in digestion. These are called secretions, and their action is of a chemical nature, acting upon the food in such a way that it can be absorbed into the blood.

Because food in its natural state could never be absorbed into the blood.

Dr. C. J. Drueck of Chicago says that although this chemical action is most important, it is not from this standpoint that there is so much trouble in the stomach and intestines, but part of the small intestine into which the food stuffs go from the stomach, is followed by trouble in the gall bladder.

Weakness or slowness of the muscles of the first part of large intestine from which waste of the food goes from the small intestine, is considered the most potent factor in appendicitis.

Cancer at lower end of large intestine follows constipation or failure of muscles here to expel their contents.

What is my thought?

That although the exercise may seem uninteresting, it gives mental and simply because the muscles that control the stomach and intestine and muscles of the abdominal wall, become weak.

A stomach whose muscular walls are weak permits the gastric juice to start an inflammation or an ulcer.

Weakness of the walls of the first physical buoyancy, and prevents that long train of troubles mentioned above.

SPOKANE FETED AT BIG BANQUET CONCLUDING DAY

Great Trip, Say Visitors; Mr. Batchelor Praises Draper's Refereeing

Spokane visitors here yesterday were feted by the Nelson Football association at a banquet at the Canadian Legion building last night, following the drawn soccer match between Nelson and Spokane. Mayor R. D. Barnes presided.

The banquet was a happy affair without formality, and with the spirit of good fellowship very much in evidence.

Harry Goetz of the Spokane chamber of commerce, and Dan C. Batchelor, secretary of the Spokane Soccer Football association, were Spokane speakers. Alex. Leith, president of the board of trade, Mayor R. D. Barnes, W. S. King, C. W. Tyler and H. W. Robertson, district representative of the Automobile Club of British Columbia, spoke for Nelson.

Mayor Barnes, welcoming the visitors, regretted the weather man had not been more kind. He was not sorry the game resulted in a draw—it was a gentleman's game.

PIONEER TRIP

Mr. Goetz expressed the pleasure of the Spokane people at being able to visit Nelson, and expressed their appreciation of Nelson's hospitality. He forecast yesterday's trip was merely the forerunner of many to come, and described it as the pioneer excursion to a real summer playground.

Canadians and Americans were one, except for an invisible line that had never had a fort on it for more than a century. If results of games between Spokane and Nelson teams were always drawn, "we won't mind," said Mr. Leith.

PRAISES REFEREE

Mr. Batchelor had nothing but praise for J. Draper's refereeing of the game. He wished Mr. Draper lived in Spokane. Mr. Batchelor hoped to return and become better acquainted with Nelson. The Spokane boys had enjoyed their trip here as much as they enjoyed entertaining Nelson in Spokane.

Expressing his great pleasure at being able to help, Mr. King declared it was only right that the international boundary should be an imaginary line. The interests of the two countries were so similar that business and sports should continue to be interlocked.

Mr. King commended the Spokane team on its combination. If Nelson men were a little less selfish, and if they would pass more frequently, they would make a better team, he said.

COMPLIMENTS BACKS

Mr. Robertson was sorry the road had not been in first class condition, for had they been in better shape Spokane supporters would probably have been more numerous. He complimented the Spokane backs on their extraordinarily good play.

C. W. Tyler, organizer of the day, was disappointed that the crowd had not been larger. He asserted the game was a good clean exhibition of sportsmanship, and hoped for more matches.

Ed. Boge of the Spokane team gave accordion solos, and Arthur Stringer sang.

Cheers for Spokane were responded to by the visitors singing "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows."

CONCERTS GIVEN BY LOCAL BANDS

City Band and Kilties Entertain Crowd as Part of Celebration

Gathering on the four corners of Baker and Ward streets in answer to the call of the fire siren, the C. P. R. shops' whistle and the brewery whistle, a crowd of Spokane and Nelson citizens yesterday enjoyed a concert by the Nelson city band and the Kootenay Kilties as the opening events of the celebration of an international day of sport.

The two bands gave selections alternately to an appreciative audience for about 20 minutes. The City band then proceeded to the Recreation grounds while the Kilties marched to the Canadian Legion to follow behind the Legion Bugle band in leading the parade of the two soccer teams. Following the bands were several cars conveying the teams in uniform. The parade proceeded via Stanley, Baker and Josephine streets, to the Recreation ground.

The Kootenay Kilties and the Canadian Legion bands disbanded at the grounds but the City band took up quarters in the band stand and gave selections until the game started. They played during the rest at half time and when the game ended.

BEAVERDELL BRIEFS

BEAVERDELL, B.C., May 30.—H. B. Morley is a visitor to camp from Penticton and is looking over the Sally mine.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Nordman motored to Nelson on Sunday, accompanied by Mr. Nordman's mother and two children.

Mrs. Mabel Hosking has returned from several months' visit to Vancouver and is the guest of her mother at the Beaverdell hotel.

C. D. Collen was here from Oliver over the week-end looking after his business interests.

H. J. McHaffie, local K.V. operator, has been sent to West Summerland as relieving operator and his place here is being filled by Allen Clark.

Precipitation Total Near Two-Inch Mark for Past Four Days

Intermittent showers of rain gave a total precipitation of .11 inch during the 24 hours ending at 5 o'clock yesterday. This brought the precipitation for the past four days up to 1.76 inches.

Tuesday night was the coldest night for over two weeks. The mercury went down to within three degrees of the freezing point. The high mark was 59.

There was less moisture in the air than for several days past. The humidity readings ranged from 50 in the morning to 63 at 5 o'clock in the afternoon. At 2 o'clock it was 55.

Saskatchewan Calls On Premier for Good Rain Supply

OTTAWA, May 30.—Premier King has a new mission. The latest request is that he shall appoint himself rainmaker extraordinary to Saskatchewan.

"We have had a wonderful seeding time and everything is now in the ground in good shape," runs a letter from Saskatchewan, which was read in the senate today. "I wish you would draw the attention of the prime minister to the desirability of arranging for a copious supply of rain each week for the next three weeks, and we will guarantee to deliver the greatest crop western Canada has ever produced.

Senator Laird expressed the hope that the premier would see that a supply of rain was delivered in strict time and ample quantity.

Senator Dandurand, government leader, was somewhat doubtful. "It may be somewhat difficult," he said, "for the premier and his colleagues to bring about that state of things because they are smiling rather than weeping."

Former Klansman Fails in Regina Meeting

REGINA, Sask., May 30.—Pandemonium raged in the city hall tonight when Hugh (Pat) Emmons original organizer of the Ku Klux Klan, in Saskatchewan, attempted to carry on his meeting.

For a little over an hour, Emmons made a vain effort to get started on his scheduled expose of the Klan, but jeers, boos and cat calls of all sorts made it impossible for him to do more than make himself heard occasionally above the uproar.

'They Call It Love'

By LOUIS JOSEPH VANCE

A quick tempo story of the modern girl's quest for romance in a big city.

CHAPTER XXV.

Fay Lascelles, a girl of the south, attends a gay studio party in New York, where she meets Don Gerould wealthy young blade engaged to Letty Delevan, society girl. When Mr. Reseda, Fay's employeer, attempts to take her home in a taxi, Don interferes, and saves her from an embarrassing situation. Eventually both fall in love and Don breaks his engagement to Letty, who readily turns to Paul Manquist, another suitor. At the party Fay also meets and particularly admires Lona Schell, a beautiful girl formerly secretary to Carl Lander, one of New York's wealthiest men. Fay does not know that Lona has become Lander's sweetheart, although her brother, Beau Lascelles, working in Lander's employ, tries to warn her, with little success. Beau himself seems infatuated with Lona. Meanwhile Don proposes to Fay, but they quarrel over Lona's status and Fay refuses to believe the worst of her friend. Piqued, Don marries Letty, and both are unhappy.

Don's back took that barb without a quiver; and in her impatience, Letty played out the fag end of her hand so awkwardly that the tale of penalties ran up to seven instead of 500.

"I don't care," she declared in bravado, watching Audrey jot down the score. "It's all Don's fault. If anybody can put me off my game, it's my husband."

"That's what every bridge wife knows," Audrey commented, as a veteran eyewitness.

And Manquist made a poor stab at an epitaph for the incident: "Hence the widespread prevalence of bridge widows."

"Oh!" Letty in the darkness of her heart suggested—"what with the mortality among husbands due to bridge, bootliquor and their bits of fluff, nowadays, it's no wonder wives have so much freedom." Beneath the table a stockinged foot which had left its slipper to find Manquist's instep made its pressure more meaning. "And," Letty added, "use it."

"Don's cards." Audrey cut the still pack on her left. "Suppose you deal for him, darling, while we're waiting."

"Not I," Letty laughed. "Maybe he won't come back; I hope not; then we can find some better way to kill time."

"Of course he'll come back!" Audrey protested, who not only saw a profitable night's play imperiled, but well knew it wasn't for Don's sake, or Manquist's, either, she had been asked down to fill out a week-end foursome.

"Don't be so sure. Three to one that's some glitter-snipe of his is calling Don up from town, and your perfect host will come back with an armor-plate excuse for leaving us at loose ends till the cows come home. Any takers?"

"Letty!" Audrey remonstrated. "Not that I'm not hardened to hearing women talk right out loud about their husbands, but for a girl not yet a year married you certainly are the limit!"

"I suppose I am," Letty morosely admitted. "All the same, a short course under Joel's a liberal education."

"Don't be fulsome, Tish," Don observed, returning. "I know it's hard to refrain from singing my praises but for your guests' sake * * * Sorry I had to hold up the game." He took his place and began to deal. "So many have buzzed back to town already. I had to call up half the neighborhood before I could snare an understudy."

"Then you mean to leave us flat? I knew it!"

"I must if Audrey and Paul will forgive me, as soon as we run out this rubber. But Perley Rex and Jill are coming along to cut in, so you won't miss me. I shall bid four spades."

"That's too many," Manquist grunted, "I pass."

Letty slapped her cards down. "Who's the woman?" she flatly demanded, "Or don't I know her?"

"You know her," Don said in wicked urbanity. "I do wish, my dear, you'd listen to me and cure yourself of this habit of kicking your slippers off under the table. First thing you know, you'll catch your death. Did you bid or pass? I didn't hear."

"What a question Joel! Who ever heard of a dutiful bride overcalling her lord's pre-emptive?"

But behind that unruffled mask all was riot, and sight as well as wits underwent an eclipse which, passing, left Letty to find that she had, without waiting for the lead, spread the dummy.

"It doesn't matter," she heard Don say to Manquist's look of hesitation. (Fool that she was to have presumed so much too far on Don's self-complacense!) "Lead anything you like, old son; it's a grand slam, however * * * We've all the aces and a hundred honors; I go up on the first trick, draw the trumps, ruff two rounds of diamonds and discard the rest on dummy's clubs; game and rubber."

"Tote it up, Audrey; I think you'll find it's a break without bloodshed."

He thrust back from the table, raised his highball glass to Letty in mocking salute, and put on a slightly apologetic air.

"Daresay there's nothing to be gained by holding up what you'll all see in the headlines tomorrow. That was my doting mother on the phone just now. She called up to tell me Duke's gone and went and done it. So it's up to me to blow in and double as her dead public while Edda remembers bits that were wows in the palmy days."

"What," Audrey demanded as though her imagination balked at trying to think of any crime which Duke had not committed already—"what has Duke done now?"

"Proved he's, at heart, and given his head, a practicing monogamist. Duke came into a pot of money yesterday when a post-dated bequest of grandma's fell due; and getting married today without notice was his first act of independence, now he's no longer beholden to the Old Boy for bounty."

"But who on earth did he marry?"

"A lady who first came into his life in the capacity of German governess to my kid sister, not a bad sort, I should say, and pretty certain to keep Duke in the straight and narrow as long as any woman could; that's if anything can mangle Edda into giving Maria Valeria a fighting chance, now she's a lawful wedded Gerould beyond hope of salvation."

"That's going to take a bit of doing," Audrey ventured. "If I know Edda. What do you think, Letty?"

"I think she's perfectly justified; it's simply insane for Duke to marry beneath him."

"I don't know," Don mildly remonstrated. "So do you, Tish dear, unless you've been deceiving me shameful'! But see here, you people; it's an hour's run up to town, and that's only if I can manage to give the cops a miss; so if you'll excuse me, I think I'll buzz along without waiting for the Rexes."

He had already ordered his car round and was in the coat closet, routing out something to slip on over his dinner jacket, when a voice of singular diffidence said behind him:

"Don * * *"

"Oh, hullo!" He swung about, wonderstruck. "Mean Joel, don't you Letty?"

A fatigued smile passed that over: and he saw the eyes newly fathomless that had seemed of late to grow a shade more shallow daily.

"This isn't just an excuse you're making Don—?"

"Don't do your good sense so much injustice. Is it likely I'd drag this scandal into the limelight with any petty personal motive?"

"I don't know," Letty said with a vagueness that wasn't like her * * * "You've been drinking such a lot of late, I was just a mite worried."

"And very touchin', I'm sure! But what of it?"

"Well—after all—you are my husband—"

"Not your fault, my dear—just your misfortune."

"And yours."

"Call that fair? Appealing to my innate chivalry, if any, ain't sporting if all you're interested in is an argument."

Amiably skeptical, he saw Letty start to speak and reconsider, her baffled eyes wavering.

"I was only wondering," she was unhappily moved in the end to explain, "if you really do mean to come back tonight."

"Oh, yes, my dear, I really do. But don't you be nervous—I'll blast the hush of night with the horn as soon as I turn into the drive."

Still she persevered; "No, Don! don't misunderstand me. It's only * * * Your mother can do without you till tomorrow * * *"

"Oh, here now!" He was tired pretending to be patient. "Hanged if I know what you're driving at, Tish; but whatever—it's no go. I haven't forgotten, and I don't think you have, our private prenuptial compact made when it dawned on us our families were bent on spoiling a beautiful friendship. I haven't forgotten, and you may depend on my not going back on it. And now we understand each other * * *"

Before she could grasp his intention, he had planted a chaste kiss on Letty's forehead.

"Bless you, my child! You deserve to be happy. And I wish you luck! And now, with permission, I really must go."

"Oh, go!" a hard laugh sped him—"go to the devil!"

"I'll do my best, sweetheart—might do worse."

She did not move to follow till she saw him pull up on the veranda to bid their guests goodnight.

"Be wise, Audrey—don't overbid your hand. Manquist m'lad; I leave my women with you in blind confidence that you will show them every consideration which their virtues merit."

Quebec Villages, Flood Menaced, to Be Evacuated

CHICOUTIMI, Que., May 30.—Petit Saguenay, one of the flood swept areas of the Lake St. John district will be evacuated by its population of farmers unless conditions improve within the next 24 hours, according to reports reaching this section tonight. Conditions are equally bad at L'Anse St. Jean which is still without communication with the outside world. Both Petit Saguenay and L'Anse St. Jean were faced with a shortage of food.

Preparations wereunder way at Roberval tonight to remove the patients from the hotel Dieux hospital to this city. The town of Roberval was practically isolated with no trains entering the city.

The little town of St. Joseph De Alma which had been threatened with destruction was declared out of danger tonight with the closing of the sluices and gates of the Little Discharge river.

Finger Prints on Broken Glass Sent O'Brien to Penitentiary

Linked with a store burglary at Creston in February by finger prints, James O'Brian pleaded guilty to a charge of shopbreaking before Judge J. A. Forin in speedy trial here yesterday.

When a shop at Creston was burglarized on February 18, Constable H. McLaren picked up a piece of broken glass and sent it to the criminals investigation department at Victoria. The finger prints of O'Brian ,taken when he was arrested, tallied with the prints on the broken glass.

O'Brian was committed for trial by Magistrate E. Mallandaine at Creston on Monday.

MY KITCHEN NOTEBOOK

by Mary Blake

Domestic Science Counselor

Delectable Fish and Egg Dishes

I want to give you some suggestions today for fish and egg dishes—nourishing, appetizing foods that provide a welcome change from the usual menus and are so complete a food in themselves that only a simple dessert and a beverage are necessary to complete the meal.

Dishes of fish, egg or cheese combined with milk supply proteins, minerals and vitamins. There are any number of variations in these groups. Eggs in themselves offer unlimited possibilities. In omelet form they can be combined with tomatoes, asparagus, cheese or jelly; they can be creamed or made into souffles. Among the sea foods there are creamed lobster, tuna fish, shrimp, scalloped salmon, salmon mould and salmon souffle; scalloped oysters. Macaroni and cheese, rice with cheese and cheese souffle are other important possibilities for the main dish of the meal.

Milk Adds Its Extra Nourishment to Every Dish

There's one thing to which I do want to call your attention, however. That is the generous quantity of milk that all these recipes require. Every time you use milk in the preparation of a dish, you add decidedly to its food value. Milk is a complete food in itself, contributing generously all the elements needed for bodily health, growth and activity.

I always use Carnation Milk in all my cookery—and for very definite reasons. Milk—our most important food is also the most easily contaminated. I want milk that is absolutely dependable—uniformly pure, uniformly rich. Carnation Milk is that milk.

It is simply the purest whole milk, evaporated to double richness and kept safe by sterilizing. Double richness means that there is twice as much cream as in ordinary milk. That is an economy—saves on butter and cream—just as the dependable quality of Carnation saves waste and prevents food spoilage.

Another thing that makes me prefer Carnation Milk is the uniformly better results which it gives. Soups and sauces are smoother, puddings more fragile, ice cream creamier and cakes finer textured because Carnation Milk is "homogenized"—the cream particles broken up into minute fragments and distributed uniformly all through the milk, making every drop rich in cream. You have only to try it to discover what domestic science experts already know, that in cooking results it far surpasses milk in any other form.

Below I give a recipe for Carnation Cheese Souffle. It's simple to prepare and extremely delicious. I've many more delicious recipes for you in the Carnation Cook Book—"My Hundred Favorite Recipes." Write Carnation Milk Products Co., Limited, Aylmer, Ont.

Carnation Cheese Souffle

3 tbsp. butter, 4 tbsp. flour, ¾ cup Carnation Milk diluted with ¾ cup water, ¾ cup grated cheese, 1 tsp. Worcestershire sauce (if desired), 3 eggs, few grains pepper, ½ tsp. salt, ¼ tsp. baking powder. Make white sauce of butter, flour, salt, pepper and milk. Add cheese, place over hot water until cheese is blended into sauce. Cool; add egg yolks, well beaten; fold in stiffly beaten whites and baking powder, blending well. Pour into oiled baking dish; bake in 300° F. oven 45 minutes.

For All Cooking

PRODUCED IN CANADA

YOU'LL find Carnation a wonderful aid in all cooking—in achieving greater smoothness, richness, flavor—and in convenience and economy. Being double rich, it saves butter and cream. Because it keeps, you can have it always on hand and never waste any.

(See recipe above)

Spokane-Nelson Soccer and Heavy Bout Are Draws

TERNATIONAL FOOTBALL GAME ENDS ONE-ONE

on and Spokane Soccer Teams Battle 90 Minutes to Draw

LMER IN SPOKANE GOAL IS REAL GOOD

kane Halves and Backs Are here; Nelson Boys Work Hard

r the second time Spokane and on senior soccer squads battled through 90 minutes to a 1-1 tie in an exciting and splendid exhibition of football at the Recreation grounds yesterday afternoon. A fair crowd of Spokane and Nelson supporters turned out to witness the game.

The two teams battled to a 1-1 tie at Spokane on April 8, and the return game here was for the purpose of breaking that tie one way or another.

BULMER GOOD

Vic Bulmer in goal for the Spokane eleven, was wonderful. It was his great work in the second half that saved his team from certain defeat. In the first half he was only called on to exert himself three times, and none were really close—but in the second he was called on to save 11 times and only failed once—and anybody would have failed. Hinges in goal for Nelson had a comparatively easy time of it. He was called on to save three times in the first half and twice in the second.

Spokane backs and halves were in the game every minute. They cut short rushes, they saved goals by heading and got around the Nelson forwards by some of the neatest combination and footwork seen here for some time. If there was a weak spot in the team it was the forward line. They worked hard and also put up a great brand of combination and footwork but they couldn't seem to get through the Nelson stonewall backs very often.

The forwards seemed always to be just there to receive a pass and were good at heading. If they got possession of the ball they generally didn't lose it until they got well down the field. It was when they began to shoot for the goal, that Nelson was more than equal to them.

Nelson played a great game but lacked the finish to break through the Spokane backs to lodge the ball and shot repeatedly high and wide from well out on the field in the second half.

The first half was fairly even, although Spokane got their goal in that period while Nelson was unable to score.

FIRST HALF

Spokane won the toss, but didn't get far with the ball. Nelson went up the field and shot wide. They shot again and Bulmer saved. Spokane began to press but Nelson again went up the field and forced a corner. Spokane staged a rush and looked dangerously like scoring but a man was offside. Spokane shot wide and then forced a corner. Nelson cleared and went up the field and Bulmer saved. In the next second, a back saved by heading the ball over the bar for a corner.

Spokane set out on another rush and came near scoring but for a miskick. A few seconds later a neat pass from the left wing to center almost resulted in a score. Hinges saved only by making a corner. It was a great save. He flung himself out full length and just deflected the ball around the outside of the post. He saved again in the next few seconds. Nelson's rushes were being cut short at the Spokane full back line repeatedly.

GOOD PLAYING

The Spokanites were neatly taking the ball from under the feet of the home team and loud applause and cheering from the sidelines and grandstand showed the spectators' appreciation.

Spokane pressed and had one shot from close in blocked by a fullback and on the rebound the ball was shot over the bar. Nelson forced a corner on Spokane. The kick was neatly placed but was shot over the bar. Nelson continued to press and Bulmer was called on to save. In the next minute Spokane had forced a corner. The kick was nicely centered. There was a mixup in front of the goal and Hinges emerged with the ball, while a Spokane player went sailing into the net. It was a close save.

SPOKANE SCORES

Nelson staged a rush but got nowhere, then Spokane came down again. Nelson went up and Spokane took their turn again at rushing. Nelson went up again but couldn't get past the backs and Spokane took possession of the ball in their own goal area, went down the field and scored.

Receiving the ball in front of the goal, Alf Boge shot for the corner of the net. Hinges made a gallant try but it was a nearly impossible one to save. Nelson and Spokane supporters cheered—the visitors for Boge and the home spectators for the splendid try made by Hinges. The score came after 32 minutes of play.

NELSON STORMS

From the center-off, Nelson stormed the Spokane goal unmercifully. They shot high several times and then getting the ball down they shot just a half inch or so too wide. The ball hit the post and bounced out on the field to be driven into the ever-ready hands of Bulmer in goal. He cleared nicely but the next second Nelson had forced a corner. Nelson kept up the attack but the backs were equal to it till the whistle blew for half time.

During the rest the City band rendered a selection.

NELSON EVENS

With the resumption of play, the Nelson players were attacking with the half backs and backs of the Spokane team taking the brunt. Repeated shots at the goal were blocked by the backs who always seemed to be there for just that purpose. Finally Davidson bulged the net with a neat shot from close in. The ball had been sailing toward the goal from all directions and no one could have saved Davidson's shot for nobody saw it. It came after eight minutes of the second half.

EXCITEMENT HIGH

With the score tied excitement was at a high pitch. The Spokane players seemed to be tiring out. They rushed occasionally but for the most part were forced to play a defensive game. H. Ingham was hurt and was replaced by J. Kelly at right half back for Spokane.

With 20 minutes to go, Nelson was menacing the Spokane goal but the staunch full backs and the goalie weathered the storm. Bulmer was called upon to save 10 times in that last hectic 20 minutes. Nelson shot wide and high often from well out from the goal. In rapid succession Bulmer cleared what looked like two sure goals.

BALL SLIPPERY

It was raining and the ball was slippery yet Bulmer held on to it and got rid of it safely. Nelson was now cutting short nearly all the Spokane rushes at the Nelson half back line. On the rebound a Spokane player put the ball in the goal—but he used his hands to do it.

Nelson kept storming the Spokane goal and forced two corners in rapid succession. Spokane went up again and Hinges saved. Nelson was keeping the ball pretty well in Spokane's goal area and a pause in their repeated shots only came when the ball was finally shot wide.

REDOUBLE EFFORTS

With three minutes to go Nelson was determined to break the tie. Again and again they shot but the Spokane backs stood up under it. A minute to go and the Nelson boys redoubled their efforts and Bulmer was called on to save twice in as many seconds. The ball was right in front of the goal but Nelson couldn't score.

Nelson was still attacking when the final whistle blew and the game was over amid the loud cheering of the spectators.

The teams were taken to the Canadian Legion to prepare for the banquet in honor of the Spokane team which started at 6 o'clock.

THE TEAMS

The teams were:

Spokane—V. Bulmer, goal; C. Murguia and C. Boge, backs; H. Ingham, B. Swenson and Bob StDenis, halves; E. Boge, A. Boge, H. Haglund, J. Latham, captain; and D. Jowett, forwards, J. Kelly substitute.

Nelson—Hinges, goal; Roynon and Bradley, backs; Barwood, M. Major and Bendle, halves; Tyler, Wallach, Davidson, Nutter and C. Major, forwards.

GIANTS DEFEAT AND TIE ROBINS; REDS BEAT CUBS

Braves Defeat Phillies Twice in Decoration Day Ball Contests

NEW YORK, May 30.—The Giants defeated the Brooklyn Robins 9-2 at Brooklyn this morning and tied with the locals at 2 to 2 in the afternoon game, halted by rain after one man was out in the New York half of the seventh.

Hendrick's Cincinnati Reds conquered the Cubs in both ends of the doubleheader before an aggregate audience of 70,000 fans, increasing their leadership in the National league race to three full games and dropping Chicago from second to fourth place. With Rixey on the mound, the Reds took the first contest 6-0. In the afternoon game they rallied to tie the score in the ninth and won in the tenth.

The Boston Braves decorated the Phillies with double defeat at Philadelphia, taking the second game 11 to 5 after winning the opener 5 to 3 in 10 innings. Hornsby's second home run of the day started the Braves off fast in the closing game. It gave Botson a three-run start and the Braves were never headed.

The St. Louis Cardinals made a clean sweep of the holiday games at Pittsburgh, winning the afternoon game 4 to 3 after having humbled the Buccaneers 10 to 1 in the morning.

Loughran and Latzo Battle Is Postponed

NEW YORK, May 30.—The light-heavyweight championship battle between Tommy Loughran and Pete Latzo which was postponed today on account of rain will be staged next Friday night, June 1, Promoter Humbert J. Fugazy announced tonight. The postponement was first announced until next Wednesday, but Fugazy decided later to put on the show as soon as possible in view of the rapid succession of fights on schedule for the champion.

Fifteen thousand persons attended the opening of the bullfight season in Lima, Peru.

GEORGE HARLOW GETS DRAW WITH SPOKANE BOXER

Orville Darr Gives Local Heavy a Stiff Battle Before Capacity House

TEN ROUNDS CRAMMED FULL OF CLEAN ACTION

Three Draws and a Decision in Prelims; Wilson Gets Broken Thumb

Orville Darr, heavyweight flash of Spokane, Wash., and George Harlow of Nelson fought through 10 fast gruelling rounds to a draw in the international heavyweight battle, before a record crowd that packed the opera house to capacity last night. Darr, experienced ring general, fought through from the second round with his left eye gradually closing, until in the ninth it was useless.

John Wilson and Leslie Skinner, both of Nelson, battled three rounds to a draw in the opening bout. Wilson fought with a broken thumb from the first round. "Fat" Deferro and Big Bill Freno, 250 pounders, went through three side-splitting rounds to a draw in the second bout.

Jack Edwards of Bonnington and Max Heckler of Nelson also fought three rounds to a well-deserved draw.

In the semi-final bout, Frank Becker of Bonnington got the decision over Jimmy Weir of Trail in a good three-round exhibition of boxing.

As the battlers in the main bout were introduced to the packed house by Jim Curran, announcer, each received a great ovation.

ROUND ONE

Early in the round Harlow opened an old cut over Darr's left eye with successive lefts and rights. Darr countered and bored in to Harlow. Harlow rapped in lefts and rights to the face and to the body. They fell into clinches frequently and both were warned to break clean. Harlow took the offensive, but could not land a blow that would put Darr away. Harlow staggered Darr with a left to the chin just before the bell.

ROUND TWO

Harlow tore in, but Darr let him have it back. Darr ducked a mighty left swing that might have done the trick if it had landed. Harlow drove in a left to the chin and Darr let drive lefts and rights to the body. George started a trip hammer action of rights and lefts to Darr's chin. Darr countered with a right to Harlow's face that brought blood. George was bleeding from the nose freely at the bell, and Darr's eye was swelling and the cut was widening.

ROUND THREE

Both battlers met in the middle of the ring and exchanged punches. Darr drove in a right and left to Harlow's face in rapid succession. With a left he staggered George. George was landing on Darr as often as he was taking them. Darr drove in rights and lefts to Harlow's face and George returned blows to the body. With his eye bleeding freely, Darr was driving them in to George's face at the bell.

ROUND FOUR

With the opening of the fourth, Darr went out to meet George and put over a left to the face. Harlow returned a short left jab to the chin. Darr drove in a right and a left to Harlow's face and ducked George's sledge-hammer left. Harlow drove in body blows and Darr gave him another right and left to the face. Harlow shot through a left to the face and received one back. With a resounding smack, Darr slapped George with an open glove on the neck. Darr's eye was bleeding fiercely as the round ended.

During the rest Doctors J. H. Bennett and J. P. Gussin attempted to stop the increasing flow of blood. Darr's eye was rapidly closing.

ROUND FIVE

For the first part of the round both were exchanging blows freely and in quick succession. Darr was ducking many of George's best sleep-producing wallops. In ducking one he rammed his head low in Harlow's solar plexus. Harlow's knees sagged and he nearly went down. Darr backed away and as Referee Joe Holland started to count on George as he stood doubled up with pain, Darr tried to tell him what had happened. The referee kept counting and George went in again before the count. He back-peddled the balance of the round.

ROUND SIX

Darr sailed into George at the bell and George forced him to the ropes under a barrage of rights and lefts. Both were exchanging blows like wildfire. George got in a left hook to the chin that slowed Darr up. They exchanged blows, head to head. Darr staggered Harlow with a smashing right to the chin. They were exchanging blow for blow at the bell. Darr's face was covered with blood from his damaged eye, which was gradually getting worse. The doctors worked furiously to stop the flow between the rounds.

ROUND SEVEN

ROUND EIGHT

Harlow tore in in an attempt to finish Darr. Darr let George have a couple of heavy rights and George clipped him with a left to the face. Darr's eye was nearly closed and his face and George's arms and body were smeared with blood. Harlow drove a left to the body and a right to the chin, followed by another right and a left to the chin. Darr was showing signs of weakening at the bell.

ROUND NINE

With the opening of the round, Darr went to George. George piled in a left and right to the face and then they milled around exchanging blows. With a quick left and right to the jaw, Darr staggered Harlow. Harlow drove a left to Darr's face and Darr countered with a left swing that caught George on his toes and sent him flying. George was up again by the count of one. Darr was raining in lefts and rights to George's head and body at the bell. Darr's left eye was useless.

ROUND TEN

Coming together in mid-ring at the beginning of the final round, Harlow stormed Darr's face with blow after blow, forcing him to the ropes. Darr countered with lefts and rights. Harlow staggered Darr with a mighty left and Darr started to pile in a barrage of jabs that began to tell on George. Darr forced the fight during the last of the round, following George all over the ring. A left to the solar plexus put George in a bad shape and for the dying seconds of the battle he covered up and kept clear of Darr. Darr's eye was completely closed when the round ended.

DARR HIGHLY RATED

Darr is highly rated across the line and has a good record. He has, among many others, the scalp of Big Bill Nearing, a flashy heavy, well known in the northwest. Darr also just lost the decision to Young Firpo, a heavyweight streak, who has a wonderful record. By holding the Spokane battler to a draw, George has proved once again that he is a battler to be reckoned with.

The battle was conceded to be cleanest and most exciting exhibition of boxing seen here in years. It was a great battle between two really good boxers, and, although handicapped by the damaged eye, Darr showed that he could take plenty of punishment without going under. And George took some hard blows from Darr, but was not damaged to any great extent.

Joe Holland refereed all bouts. E. C. Wragge and T. R. Wilson were timekeepers.

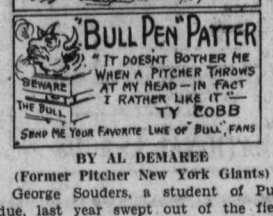
Who Will Be Dark Horse of Auto Race?



BY AL DEMAREE
(Former Pitcher New York Giants)

George Souders, a student of Purdue, last year swept out of the field of racing demons to capture the annual Indianapolis Speedway classic. Who will be the "dark horse" of this year's whirlwind dash?

Frank Lockart, a former champion, met his death recently in a smash, putting out one favorite and opening the race that much more for new blood. Souders last year's winner, will be back, however, although this year he will be a marked man, without the chance to slip up and whisk into glory unheralded.

CROWD WELCOMES EXCURSIONISTS FROM SPOKANE

About 125 Happy Visitors From "Across the Line" Invade Nelson

With greetings of "Hello, Nelson!" from the passengers, the Kuskanook with around 125 excursionists from Spokane, who came to Nelson to see the Spokane and Nelson soccer teams clash in a return game here yesterday, docked at the city wharf at 10:30 yesterday morning. A good sized crowd of Nelson citizens was at the wharf for more than half an hour before the boat pulled in.

It was a happy crowd of holiday makers that stepped off the boat, with big red feathers with the name of their city printed on, in their coat lapels, their hats, or anywhere they could find a place to hold them. Some even had the feathers stuck in their shoes.

Cars rushed the team and soccer officials to the Canadian Legion, where preparations were made for the game. The other visitors streamed to Baker street and generally made themselves at home until the parade in honor of the visiting team.

Many Spokane young men were seen on the street in the afternoon with the red feather of Spokane in the lapel of their coats and a sailor cap with "Nelson" on the band on their heads. Two players of the Spokane team appeared on the field with the sailor hats on.

SENATORS LET YANKS DOWN BY FIVE-NOTHING

New Yorkers Lead in Second, but Game Off; Philadelphia Beats Boston

NEW YORK, May 30.—The Yankees suffered a third shutout and eighth defeat of the season in the first game of a double-header here with Washington today, when Garland Braxton, former New York pitcher, let the champions down with three safe hits, to win by 5 to 0. Shealy started for New York, but gave way to Urban Shocker, who made his first appearance in the box this season.

The second game was called off on account of rain in the second, after the Yanks had piled up a lead of 7 to 0 on Lisenbee.

Before a crowd of 36,000, Philadelphia took both holiday games. The scores were 8-1 and 9-2. In the first game Ehmke's pitching was the deciding factor. The former Red Sox star held Bostn to five hits. The second game was a free hitting session, but Boston was unable to bunch hits off the veteran spit-baller, Jack Quinn.

Detroit took two one-run victories from Cleveland today, winning the morning game 4-3 with an eighth inning attack and the afternoon piece 6-5 after a 12-inning struggle.

Gehringer and Luke Sewell hit homers inside the park during the morning fray and Brother Joe Sewell smoked one over the right field wall in the second game.

The afternoon game resulted in a 5-5 deadlock in the fourth inning. In the 12th Gehringer tripled and Fothergill scored him with a sacrifice to right field.

Superior hurling by Johnny Ogden and Alvin Crowder gave the Browns both ends of a double-header at St. Louis today over the Chicago White Sox. The first game went 3-1, while the final was won 5-2, giving the Browns four straight victories.

Flamingo and Fairway Epson Derby Choices

LONDON, May 30.—In the public eye chief contention for the great Epsom derby which will be run next Wednesday lies between Lord Derby's fine colt, Fairway, champion of the 2-year-olds last year, and Sir Lawrence Phillip's speedy Flamingo, winner of the classic Two Thousand Guineas two weeks ago.

WEAKNESS HOLDS COAST MARKET

Oil Issues in Demand; Price Changes Lower; Cork and Florence Active

VANCOUVER, May 30.—The stock market continued to display weakness again today, despite the fact that a much better demand existed for a number of issues including the oil shares. Practically all price changes were lower. On a trade of 8500 shares, Home Oil closed with a net loss of 5c at $3.01; Dalhousie eased off 8c to $3.22 on sales of 3700 shares after touching a high of $3.40. A. P. Consolidated was 1½c lower at 63½ on a trade of 3500 shares.

In the mines, Cork-Province and Kootenay Florence were the active issues the former on a turnover of 12,500 shares declining 1c to 31½c, while the latter, on sales of 14,500 shares was 1c stronger at 29. Premier was in good demand and closed at $2.20, unchanged on sales of 4100 shares. Pend Oreille was quiet and unchanged at $16.00.

Grandview forfeited 3c to 47 on a turnover of 8000 shares and Topley Richfield eased off 1c to 57 on a similar trade. Big Missouri weakened 2c to 61, while Whitewater common fell off 5c to $2.40.

NO DECIDED MARKET TREND

Malartic Active Leader; Noranda Reaches Mark of $27.55

TORONTO, May 30.—With the exception of a half dozen features on the Standard mining exchange today stocks showed no decided trend.

Malartic was the active leader with sales amounting to 211,590 shares. Opening at $1.45, the shares soared during the final half hour to a peak of $1.63, and finished $1.60, a net advance of 15.

Short covering and interest in the fact that two new levels would be opened up shortly were said to be the chief factors in the movement.

Noranda reached an extreme high mark of $27.55 a new high for the year. Closing sales were at $27.05, a gain of 45. Sudbury Basin opened at $9 and jumped to a top of $9.45 with the finish at $9.40, up $45c. Wright Hargreaves soared to $4.65, and closed at $4.50, an advance of 45. Lake Shore moved up 50 to $23.35 while Teck Hughes was 8c higher at $9.95.

McIntyre declined 20 to $26.75. Hollinger dropped back to $14.75, the lowest point at which this issue had sold since 1925.

Only a few shares of International Nickel came out but the price stood at $44.50, an advance of $1.50. Treadwell Yukon recovered to $17.10, up 75c.

San Antonio was strong at the close, moving up to 47½ a gain of 3½. Mandy Mines held steady at $2.60. Sherritt-Gordon was 10c lower at $5.70, Hudson's Bay Mining 5c lower at $17.95 and Central Manitoba Mines a cent lower at $1.27. Pend Oreille dropped to $15.95, and finished at $16, off 10c. Big Missouri was down 2c to 60c, Premier down 5c to $2.20 and Kootenay Florence unchanged at 30c.

SASKATCHEWAN HAS GOOD RAIN SHOWERS

REGINA, Sask., May 30.—With the exception of a strip of 50 to 60 miles in the extreme southeast section of Saskatchewan, rain covered the province in varying degrees of intensity Tuesday night and today.

The rain covered a distance of about 20 miles south of Moosomin. Enough moisture fell to guarantee safely and good growing conditions in most districts for at least two weeks.

TWO-GUN ROBBER TAKEN, TORONTO

Pawn Broker Puts Up Game Fight and Lands Culprit Who Got Cash

TORONTO, May 30.—After a successful holdup of a pawnshop on Queen's street west in which he obtained $2000 worth of jewels and $4000 in cash, a two-gun robber was captured here today. The man said his name was Wilfrid Leverette, and told the police that he came to Toronto about a week ago from Ottawa.

The holdup took place in H. Simonski's pawnshop only a few yards from police headquarters. The man was captured by Cecil Simonski, one of the men in the store, at the time, who, after an exciting chase, overtook him near the city hall.

Leverette had tied up the two men in the store, Cecil and Harry Simonski, and was busy collecting his booty when Harry broke loose from his bonds. The gunman ran from the store pursued by Simonski. Cecil Simonski later freed himself and joined the chase.

Standing on the running board of an automobile, which picked him up, Cecil pursued his man, and overtaking him, jumped off and grappled with him. The man, however, succeeded in freeing himself and the chase was renewed. When Simonski again came to grips, he was assisted by two bystanders and the gunman was held until the police arrived.

YANKEE GIRL TO GETS ITS POWER AT BONNINGTON

West Kootenay Power & Light to Extend Silver King Line to Ymir

NO DEVELOPMENT ON WILD HORSE

Enterprise Consolidated Accepts Terms; Mill Ore of the Entire Group

Electric power to operate the proposed mill of the Yankee Girl gold mine, a mill intended also to serve the Goodenough-Ymir grouping, will be generated at Bonnington, and not in Wild Horse canyon. This is the decision taken by the management of the Enterprise Consolidated, whose president, R. B. Lamb, M.E., was here last week

When Malcolm Stobie, vice-president of the company, was here some weeks ago, he expressed the view that the Yankee Girl was "a power proposition," and indicated that the company might either utilize rights it had on Wild Horse creek, or buy power from the West Kootenay Power & Light company, with the city of Nelson plant a third possibility. Apparently the figures quoted by Lorne A. Campbell, general manager of the West Kootenay Power & Light company, have appealed to the big mining corporation when compared with the presumably large investment that would be necessary to develop the Wild Horse power.

USE SILVER KING LINE

Only the broad lines of the deal, it is said, have yet been completed, but the contract, it is understood, will result in a transmission line being built from the Silver King mine, on Toad mountain, south of Nelson, to the Ymir camp, a distance of approximately 2 miles, the power company already having a transmission line to the Silver King, which it formerly supplied with power.

Literature of Enterprise Consolidated speaks of a 200-ton mill as a probability, but the impression has been gathered here that a smaller plant, to be later incorporated in the larger, might be put up at first, as being a sound method of preparing for eventually very large tonnage.

In the meantime, development every week or two seems to be enlarging the ore possibilities. Last week, for instance, a spur from the main vein, that was being explored, opened into high-grade ore.

An interesting angle of this new move is that it will be the advent of West Kootenay Power & Light company among the mining camps of the Salmon valley, and the introduction of a new factor into mining calculations in at least the central part of that area.

Colonel Cooper Takes Issue With Minister Justice

VANCOUVER, May 30.—Declaring that the minister of justice must again have been misinformed by his permanent officials regarding administration in the British Columbia penitentiary, Colonel H. W. Cooper, former warden of that institution, takes issue with statements made by Hon. Ernest Lapointe in the house of commons Monday.

"When Mr. Lapointe states that three inmates escaped during my tenure of office, he can only refer to the attempt made by three men on November 10, 1923, a few weeks after my transfer to New Westminster," Colonel Cooper stated today. "These men took advantage of faulty previous construction and secreted themselves in the prison buildings, hoping to escape in the prevailing fog, but the staff maintained a steady patrol around the yard and prison until the fog lifted and the men were finally discovered."

Colonel Cooper complains of political patronage and stated a demand was made upon him last fall "which would have handed the filling of penitentiary appointments over to a political officer."

"About the same time I was driven to protest to the minister against a policy of interference from another quarter which was undermining the warden's authority and rendering efficiency impossible."

WHITECOMBE IS GOLF LEADER

Seven Strokes Up; Compston and Mitchell in the Score

NEWCASTLE, Ireland, May 30.—Ernest Whitecombe scored 69 today in the second round of the Irish open golf championship, giving him 137 and a lead of seven strokes on the field. Whitecombe continued his brilliant play of yesterday when he broke the Royal County Down golf club course record of 68. Archie Compston also turned in a card of 69 today and is in a tie for second place with a 36-hole score of 144. Abe Mitchell with 71 today compiled an aggregate of 144 with Compston.

Henry Cotton, the young London pro, started out to give sensational performance, but slipped at the close. He played the first four holes in 12 strokes, but a nine at the eighteenth gave him a score of 75 for the day and 148 for the first 36 soles.

Spontaneous combustion caused loss by fire of two barns and 80 pigs on farm near Kewanee, Ill.

Helen Wills and Francis Hunter Lose in Doubles

AUTEUIL, France, May 30.—Helen Wills and Francis T. Hunter, women's tennis champion, and number two ranking male player of America, were easily defeated today in the mixed doubles final for the international hard court tennis championship by the Anglo-French combination of Eileen Bennett and Henri Cochet. Hard stroking by Miss Wills and Hunter won them the first set, but superior court generalship enabled their opponents to carry the next two and the match, 3-6, 6-3, 6-3.

Both still survive in singles. Penelope Anderson, who ranks seventh among United States women players, turned back the Australian girl, Lois Bickerton, 6-3, 12-14, 6-2, after more than three hours of play.

LOU MEYER IS FIVE HUNDRED MILE WINNER

Youth Springs Surprise in Indianapolis Event; Lou Moore Second

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., May 30.— A baby-faced youngster just 23 years old, Lou Meyer of Los Angeles, won the 500-mile automobile race over the Indianapolis motor speedway today, defeating the crack drivers of the nation while a record-bearking crowd of from 135,000 to 150,000 roared their tribute.

The sheik from Los Angeles winning his first major race, rode the entire distance without relief finishing with a lead of about 2½ miles over Lou Moore whose car at the finish was being driven by Louis Scneider, relief pilot. George Souders, former Purdue university student, winner of the 1927 race, pulled up in third place about five miles behind Meyer. Ray Keech of Philadelphia, holder of the world's straightaway record for the mile, was fourth, trailing about 25 miles behind the flying leader. Fifteen of the original 29 starters finished the punishing grind but with all of the pre-race favorites hopelessly out of it.

ONLY ONE STOP

Meyer, bumping over the perilous 2½ mile track, making only one stop, covered the distance in 5:01:33.75 averaging 99.482 miles an hour. He stopped once for two minutes and 15 seconds to take oil, gas and water.

"Meyer's average of 99.482 miles per hour set a new record for the track for motors of 91 cubic inches piston displacement.

Pete De Paolo set the track record of 101.13 miles an hour in 1925 with a motor of 122 cubic inches displacement. Last year's time was 97:45 with the same size motor as was permitted today."

Meyer, who a week ago did not have enough money to buy a car, was enriched to the extent of about $35,000 as a result of his victory. He only succeeded a week ago in digging up a Boston friend as his angel to furnish the money to purchase his car.

ELECTRICAL STORM STOPS BALLOONISTS

Two Lives Lost and Another Pilot Injured; Only One Balloon Yet Racing

PITTSBURGH, PA., May 30.—A disastrous storm tonight beat down all but one of the 14 entries in the national elimination balloon race, and took a total of two lives while several other air navigators were injured.

Lieut. Paul Evert, pilot of army No. 3 balloon, was killed when the balloon was struck by lightning near Youngwood, Pa., while Walter Morton, aide on the Goodyear 4 was found dead, also near Youngwood. He made a free jump from the balloon when it was believed to have been struck by lightning.

Ward T. Van Ormon, pilot of the Goodyear V. suffered a fractured leg in a parachute leap when the balloon City of Cleveland was hit by lightning. James F. Cooper, aide to Carl K. Woollam, was injured, not seriously but the pilot escaped injury.

The storm was encountered soon after the bags took off from Bettes Field here. The lone bag unreported was the army No. 1, from Scott Field, Illinois.

NEW DENVER ANNUAL FLOWER SHOW AUGUST

NEW DENVER, B.C., May 30.—New Denver Women's Institute met in the K. of P. hall with the vice-president, Mrs. W. K. Gunn, in the chair.

The roll call was answered by anecdotes of the early history of the Slocan.

The date of the annual flower show this year was fixed for August 22.

Mrs. Vander Bogart read an instructive paper on the Schaefer method of resuscitation from drowning and electric shock.

The meeting closed with music and tea served by Mrs. W. K. Gunn and Mrs. Hugh Gunn.

DAYLIGHT SAVING IS VOTED DOWN AT COAST

VANCOUVER, May 30.—Vancouver residents will continue for the remainder of this year to work and play on standard time. By a vote of more than four to one, the citizens today voted against adoption of daylight saving for the summer months. The vote was 1039 in favor of daylight saving time and 4577 against.

MARRIED MEN AND CADETS TO CLASH

Cadets Enter Protest of Game Lost to Senators by One Run

Married Men and High School Cadets clash this afternoon at the Trafalgar grounds in a Trafalgar baseball league match. It will be the first time these two teams have met in the league and the outcome is causing speculation. W. D. Burlingham will umpire, it is expected.

The Cadets last night entered a formal protest with Boyd C. Affleck, president of the league of the game which they lost by one run to the Senators on Tuesday night. The basis of the protest was not known by the Senators last night.

'ROWLY' NEARLY CAME TO CANADA

British General Thought Seriously of Coming; Liked Canadians

LONDON, May 30.—Canada narrowly missed receiving as a permanent resident one of the most distinguished and experienced soldiers of the past 50 years, General Lord Rawlinson, as revealed in his story of his life, which will be published tomorrow. It is edited by Major-General Sir Fred Maurice, director of military operation, general staff, 1915-1918. Lord Rawlinson, who died on March 27, 1925, was commander of the army in India.

"Rawly," as Lord Rawlinson was familiarly known, while visiting Earl Grey when the latter was governor-general of Canada said in a letter that he was very much tempted to stay in the Dominfon, not only because he thought he could make money there, but because the development of the white portions of the British Empire always had a fascination for him.

General Rawlinson commanded the fourth army in France, where he first met the Canadian soldiers in March, 1915. "I am very much pleased with the Canadians," he wrote to Lord Kitchener. "They are magnificent men, as you know, very quick to pick up new conditions and learn the trick of the trade in trench warfare."

Lord Rawlinson's writings contain comparatively little about politicians, but he showed distrust of Lloyd George on more than one occasion. In 1917 he entered in his diary: "Lloyd George visited Foch the other day and invited criticism of Haig and our methods. Foch very loyally refused to do anything of the kind, and he let Haig know what had passed."

STEAMER BONNINGTON IN SERVICE ARROW LAKES

NAKUSP, B.C., May 30.—The summer tourist steamer, Bonnington, went into service on Monday between Arrowhead and Robson.

Transfer was made here from the Minto Saturday and the Minto will lie at Nakusp until the fall and receive repairs and general overhaul at the shipyards. A new boiler which is already at the shipyard will be installed and the usual coats of paint will be on.

C. Moore of Kaslo is visiting Mr. and Mrs. M. Hagen.

Woman in State of Collapse as Her Hubby Sentenced

VANCOUVER, May 30.—Shrieking hysterically and in a state of collapse, Mrs. J. McGillivary was carried from the court room after Magistrate Shaw had passed sentence of three months' imprisonment on her husband, who, until recently, was employed as a dry squad operator.

McGillivary was found guilty of agreeing to give false testimony in a liquor case.

GRAVES WASHED OUT IN HEAVY STORM

QUEBEC, May 30.—Graves were washed away, coffins laid bare and some of them carried from their last resting place, tombstones were overturned and smashed and other serious damages were caused by a terrific storm which swept over Chandler on Monday last, news of which has only been received here today owing to a complete breakdown in telegraph and telephone service, caused by the strong winds.
