Britain Bans Russian Imports

PUTS EMBARGO OF 80 PER CENT AGAINST GOODS

May Revoke Action If Sentences of British Prisoners Commuted

TAKE ACTION TO PROTECT CITIZENS

Britain Insists Primarily Concerned Over Safety of Subjects

By FRANK H. KING
Associated Press Staff Writer.

LONDON, April 19. (AP).—An 80-per-cent embargo on Russian imports was proclaimed today through King George as a result of the trial in Moscow of six British electrical engineers.

Shortly thereafter, there were authoritative indications that the action might be revoked if prison sentences of two of the Englishmen would be commuted to banishment from Russia.

Soviet Ambassador Maisky, chairman of the Russian trade delegation, and his chief assistants with Sir John Simon, secretary for foreign affairs, and officials of the board of trade today in an effort to avoid the break because of the crisis.

CALL CONFERENCE

The British Labor ranks, aroused by the threatened rupture, summoned leaders of trades unions to a conference with the Labor party and Laborite members of parliament to consider the whole question of the embargo.

George Bernard Shaw, returning home from a world cruise, immediately jumped into the controversy with the statement that "all people trying to provoke a war with Russia should instantly be hanged for practical treason to their own country."

The British government, empowered last week by parliament to declare the embargo, has insisted it is primarily concerned with the safety of its subjects in Russia.

Great public interest was aroused by this latest phase of the crisis in Anglo-Russian relations.

EXCEPT FURS

If the embargo is carried out, 80 per cent of Soviet goods intended for importation into Great Britain would be banned, including all important commodities except furs.

Commercial and credit relations between the two countries would be left in a tangled state.

The government's drastic action was based on a policy of protection for British citizens in the Soviet union, and so far it has been considered successful since the Metropolitan-Vickers employees received light sentences.

Irrigation Delegates to Be Called at Once

Program Offers Substantial Relief

VICTORIA, April 19—After years of uncertainty, the provincial government is about to put irrigation charges throughout British Columbia on a basis of ability to pay.

Under a new policy adopted by the cabinet the government will take over a substantial part of the debt outstanding against irrigation districts.

In each district the government will decide what the irrigationists can afford to pay, basing its conclusions on the productive capacity of the district during the last few years and its cost of operation. It will decide then what amount of debt the district can carry and will itself assume the remainder.

Delegates of all districts will be asked to come here immediately to confer with the government and explain their financial position in detail. After these conversations the government hopes to write down the irrigation debts without delay, so that reduced debt charge may be made effective on the current irrigation dues.

This program will offer the most substantial relief yet granted the irrigationists, it is expected, but the government emphasized that it intended to make the water-users pay as much as they could, based on their individual position and productive capacity.

In general this revision is in accordance with the report of Sanford Evans, special investigator, who proposed that water charges be revised according to ability to pay them.

FORMER NEWSPAPER REPORTER IS DEAD

VANCOUVER, April 19—Tom Putman, 62, veteran of the Boer war and former Vancouver newspaper reporter, is dead here, following a prolonged illness. The deceased came to British Columbia 20 years ago.

BIRD COVETS HAIR OF SLEEPING GIRL AS NEST MATERIAL

Coveting some of the titian hair of Jean Paterson, daughter of Corporal E. D. Paterson of the British Columbia police, for nesting material, a small bird, seen in the early light as white and black, alighted on her head, as she slept on the verandah, and tried to pull out a few strands. Her sister, Bunty, awakened, and shooed away the bird, but Jean slept through the attempted rape of the locks, which was on Sunday morning. It is thought the bird may have been either a vireo, or one of the small warblers, or possibly a male English sparrow with his black jabot.

LATEST TRENDS FAVOR CANADA

Wheat Rise, U. S. Inflation and Sterling's Advance All Boost

OTTAWA, April 19 (CP)—Good news flowed into Ottawa today. Particularly was the news good for Canada's exchequer, Hon. E. N. Rhodes, minister of finance, should be smiling tonight.

Canada heavily guaranteed the selling agency of the western wheat pools when the latter came to the support of the wheat futures market last fall, and naturally is interested in the price of wheat. It has been strong for several days and today held a full cent gain in a turbulent day.

The Dominion has heavy commitments in New York for which it has to provide payments in New York funds. The Canadian dollar moved up three cents today on Wall street.

A stabilization fund will be brought into operation in Canada soon to assist exporters of certain commodities to the United Kingdom, perhaps within a little more than a week. Through it the federal treasury will pay to the exporters of the products concerned the difference between the selling price of the product in sterling at its actual value and a fixed valuation of $4.60 to the pound. Cattle, dairy products, hams and bacon, canned vegetables and fish are among the commodities to be aided.

The lower the pound sterling drops the greater would be the drain on the fund and vice versa. Today sterling jumped from $4.18 in Canadian funds to $4.28.

BRITISH EMBARGO WILL AID CANADA

London Timber Importer Voices Opinion

LONDON, April 19 (CP cable)—An embargo placed by the British government on importation of Russian timber as announced in a royal proclamation today undoubtedly will assist the Canadian lumber trade, in the opinion of a member of a large London firm of timber importers.

He estimated supplies in stock would last for at least eight more weeks after which further supplies likely would be purchased from the Dominion. The embargo, however, should not mean an increase in lumber prices for some considerable time for, in his opinion, the best grade material comes from Russia. On the lower grades from Russia price and quality are about the same as those from Canada, he said.

Other competitors for the British market, of course, will be United States and Scandinavia, he added.

Embargo Will Cause Serious Situation

Hazards Meeting of Outside Obligations

MOSCOW, U.S.S.R., April 20—(Thursday) (CP cable)—Unofficial circles today expressed the opinion Great Britain's embargo on Russian imports would create a serious situation from the standpoint of the Soviet.

Russian observers and others pointed out the Soviet was unable to meet foreign commitments only by preserving a favorable trade balance. They valued Russia's export trade with the United Kingdom at approximately $120,000,000 annually. Without this revenue, they said, ability of the country to meet its outside obligations was questionable.

EDMONTON ALDERMAN FACES RESTRAINT OF TRADE CHARGE

EDMONTON, April 19 (CP)—Alderman J. T. McCreath, secretary of the Retail Merchants association of Edmonton, was remanded for trial to the supreme court of Alberta on restraint of trade charges when he appeared in police court today.

U.S. Embargo and Inflation Talk Send Markets Soaring

Pound Reaches Highest Point in a Year; Dollar Up Two Cents; Wheat Trade Improvement Imminent? Restore Prices

Leaping upward in violent strides to heights untouched in many sessions, British currencies today made substantial headway on foreign exchange markets.

Accompanied by reports of a United States gold embargo, which subsequently was followed by Secretary of the Treasury W. H. Woodin's announcement that forbidding of gold exports "sent the United States off the gold standard," both the pound sterling and the Canadian dollar advanced, the pound to its highest point in a year at $3.81. The Canadian dollar shot up more than two cents at 86½.

Anticipation of inflationary legislation at Washington and reported improvement in all lines of business also did much to encourage the wild trading on exchanges that sent prices on Canadian markets from fractions to two and one-half points higher.

STOCKS AND STAPLES BOOM

By CLAUDE A. JAGGER, Associated Press Financial Editor
(Copyright, 1933, by the Associated Press)

NEW YORK, April 19 (AP).—With latest moves in Washington interpreted in Wall and La Salle streets today as indicating determination to restore commodity prices through a managed United States dollar, stocks and staples boomed.

With gold exports definitely stopped, and the dollar declining swiftly in terms of other leading currencies, there was a rush in the New York stock exchange, in the Chicago board of trade and other domestic markets, to convert funds into shares and commodities.

GRAIN TRADE IMPROVEMENT

WINNIPEG, April 19 (CP).—Long-awaited improvement of Canada's wheat export trade seemed imminent tonight. At the end of a day of head-long rushes to higher levels in stock, grain and currency markets, exporters received further orders from foreign importers and reiterated their oft-repeated conviction Canada would ship large stocks of wheat abroad this summer.

As a preliminary, they reported the greatest day's business in months—1,500,000 bushels—which aided wheat futures on the Winnipeg grain market today in climbing, for a time, to levels they had not reached for six months, in a surging, boiling market, which bubbled over with bullish enthusiasm.

STOCKS RESPOND TO INFLATION OPINION

TORONTO, April 19 (CP).—Stock markets responded today to crystallized opinion in the United States that inflation was on the way. International Nickel and Smelters led the base metals, the former gaining about $1 and Smelters $2.50. Industrial shares were carried forward. Toronto exchange turned over 40,000 shares, the heaviest in six months. The jump of three cents per ounce in silver started the white metal stocks afluttering late in the day and all closed with small gains.

The flights, which required three hours, were made by the Marquess of Clydesdale, Lieut.-Col. L. V. S. Blacker, Air Commodore P. F. M. Fellowes and a motion picture cameraman.

Coast Breweries Working Overtime

Run at Full Capacity to Supply U.S.

VANCOUVER, April 19—Breweries in Vancouver and New Westminster are working overtime in an effort to keep up with the demands of a thirsty United States. It means work for many workmen in both cities.

Twenty-two carloads of beer for Seattle and 40 for Los Angeles are the large orders which are keeping the plant of the Vancouver Breweries, limited, humming.

Westminster Brewery, limited, at the royal city, is running at full capacity, having shipped 1500 cases to Seattle this week. Shipments of 2000 cases a day are anticipated and, in addition to bottled beer large quantities of draught beer are being exported. The beer is going south in trucks and by rail and shipments may also be made via the Fraser river.

Brewery officials state that U.S. importers are absorbing the heavy duty of 96 cents per dozen pints.

EXPORT BUTTER TO GET BOUNTY

DUBLIN, April 19 (AP)—The Irish Free State government announced tonight it would institute immediately an export bounty on butter of not more than 31 shillings per hundredweight, subject to specified conditions. One condition is that the net export value of the butter, including the bounty, shall not exceed 130 shillings per hundredweight.

The bounty will be drawn from public funds and will be retroactive to April 1 last.

VANCOUVER, April 19—The body of an unidentified woman was found in the Fraser river under the Marpole bridge this afternoon.

New Zealand May Ban Russian Goods

Government to Consider Steps Immediately

WELLINGTON, New Zealand, April 20.—(Thursday).—(CP Cable).—Prime Minister G. W. Forbes announced today his government would consider immediately steps to prohibit importation of Russian goods to New Zealand.

Such a measure would place New Zealand in line with the United Kingdom which yesterday declared an 80 per cent embargo on Russian imports after two British subjects had been imprisoned by a Moscow court which found them guilty of sabotage, espionage and bribery in connection with the Soviet electrification program.

Morgan Endorses Embargo Action

J. P. Morgan Makes One of His Rare Public Statements

NEW YORK, April 19 (AP)—J. P. Morgan, in one of his rare public statements today, endorsed President Franklin Roosevelt's action in suspending gold exports.

"I welcome the reported action of the president," he said in a written statement, "and the secretary of the treasury, in placing an embargo on gold exports.

"It had become evident that the effort to maintain the exchange value of the dollar at a premium as against depreciated foreign currencies was having a deflationary effect upon already severely deflated American prices and wages and employment.

"It seems to be clear that the way out of the depression is to combat and overcome the deflationary forces. Therefore, I regard the action now taken as being the best possible course under existing circumstances."

DECLINE COMMENT ON INFLATION

TORONTO, April 19 (CP)—Officials of Canadian bank head offices in Toronto tonight declined to comment on the statement by W. H. Woodin, secretary of the United States treasury, that prohibition of gold exports had sent United States off the gold standard.

Water Continues to Rise on Connecticut and Merrimack Rivers

BOSTON, April 19 (AP)—Five men were dead in New England tonight as a result of floods that have swept the region since Monday bringing widespread suffering and property damage. Swirling brown waters continued to roll through the river valleys tonight, but in most instances in lessening volume.

The water continued to rise, however, on the lower reaches of the big Connecticut and Merrimack rivers. Cessation of the prolonged and heavy rains checked the floods in the smaller river valleys and appeared to have ended danger to life and property in Vermont.

MAY MAKE PUBLIC CORRESPONDENCE

Sees No Reason for Not Tabling Correspondence With Provinces

OTTAWA, April 19. (CP).—No reason exists why correspondence between the federal government and the western provincial governments with regard to the financial conditions of these provinces should not be made public, Prime Minister R. B. Bennett told Rt. Hon. MacKenzie King, opposition leader, in the house of commons today. The correspondence tabled a few days ago in the Manitoba house covered that province and also the other provinces so far as the federal end of the matter was concerned.

One of the provinces had not yet replied, the prime minister added. However, in spite of that, he saw no reason why the correspondence should not be tabled.

ROOSEVELT ASKS CONGRESS FOR NEW POWERS TO EFFECT CONTROLLED INFLATION, U.S.

Withdrawal of Gold Support From American Dollar Brings Decline on World Markets; Stocks and Commodities Move Up

PUTS HIMSELF IN POSITION TO NEGOTIATE FOR REVISED BASIS

Has in Mind Bringing All Nations Back to the Gold Standard; Tackles Problems of Putting Idle Currency Into Circulation

By FRANCIS M. STEPHENSON
Associated Press Staff Writer.

WASHINGTON, April 19. (AP).—The United States swung away from the gold standard today as President Roosevelt prepared to ask congress tomorrow for new powers to effect a controlled inflation.

Withdrawal of gold support for the American dollar in foreign exchanges by the president was interpreted by his secretary of the treasury, William H. Woodin, as meaning temporary suspension of the traditional gold standard basis of currency.

The immediate effect was an upward surge in stocks, and commodity prices and a decline of bonds and of the dollar on world exchanges.

In his first move, the president adroitly put himself into a position to negotiate for a revised world gold standard by withdrawing support of the American dollar in foreign exchanges to combat the depreciated currencies of the foreign nations now off the standard.

BRINGING BACK GOLD STANDARD

He has in mind bringing all nations back to the gold standard as a measure of stability, but he is considering a new standard whereby the present ratio of 40 per cent

MAKE HEADWAY ON RAIL BILL

Flood of Amendments by Liberals Is Taken Under Consideration

OTTAWA, April 19 (CP)—The legislative mill was in high speed today, the house of commons making more progress with the government railway bill in the short sitting than it has in the past week of debate. The green light was shining all afternoon, about half the clauses in the long bill being discussed.

Once again there was a flood of amendments from the Liberal side of the house. Most of them concerned the three trustees who will manage the Canadian National railway system and were designed to increase parliament's power over them. It has been claimed by the Liberals parliament was abrogating its power over the National system, vesting it in the trustees whose word would be law.

All but one of the Liberal amendments were taken under consideration by the government, decisions being delayed. Major C. G. Power, Lib., Quebec south, ran foul of the rules of the house when he moved to empower parliament, not the railway company, to pay salaries to the trustees. This would give parliament a measure of control over the trustees but the proposal was declared out of order.

UNHAMPERED POWER

Among other amendments proposed by Liberal members was one giving the cabinet unhampered power to fill vacancies on the board of trustees. The bill would select the men from a panel named by the remaining trustees, the president of the exchequer court and the chairman of the board of railway commissioners. It was allowed to stand.

Hon. Peter Heenan proposed an amendment concerning the pooling of services by the railways. The former Labor minister who returned to a locomotive cab when the King government went out of office wanted, a 60-day notice to union officials when services were to be merged, shops closed or running rights granted.

TIENTSIN UNEASY

Numerous Casualties Reported Among Chinese Civilians

TIENTSIN, China, April 19 (AP).—Tientsin was decidedly uneasy tonight as the result of the newest Japanese-Manchukuoan activities in the Lwan river sector south of the Great Wall and reports of numerous casualties among Chinese civilians. Foreigners, however, discredited fears the city would be bombed by the invaders.

Meanwhile reports said Japanese and Manchukuoan officials were conferring with Japanese concession authorities here concerning the organization of a temporary regime in North China. This step, it was said, was to be taken pending the establishment of a permanent form of government.

A widespread belief that Japanese and their Manchukuoan allies intend to continue their advance toward the Tientsin-Peiping area resulted from the dropping of leaflets by Japanese airmen south of the Great Wall advocating a change in government in North China.

CONSIDER A PETITION FOR COMMUTATION

Under Verdict Handed Down Britons Not Entitled to Appeal

By STANLEY P. RICHARDSON
Associated Press Staff Correspondent

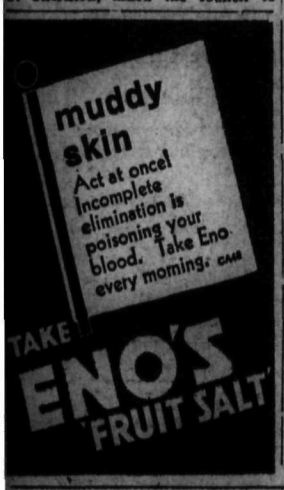
MOSCOW, April 19 (AP)—The Soviet central executive committee tonight was considering a petition for the communication of prison sentences imposed on two British electrical engineers, and the other three Britons convicted of sabotage were getting ready to leave the country.

B. Braude, defence counsel for L. C. Thornton, asked the council to change the punishment decreed for Thornton and William H. MacDonald to exile for life. They were sentenced to three and two years imprisonment, respectively.

The two engineers were the only ones of the five to receive prison sentences. Allan Monkhouse, chief of the Metropolitan-Vickers branch in Russia, and two associates, John Cushny and C. H. Nordwall, who were ordered deported from the Soviet Union, were considering asking for a review of their sentences.

They may petition the central executive committee for mercy but under the verdict handed down early this morning they are not entitled to appeal the cases.

The three men, together with A. W. Gregory, who was acquitted, conferred today with their Russian attorneys and British advisers they hoped to leave for Berlin Thursday evening and arrive in London on Sunday.



Reserve Power to Route Traffic

OTTAWA, April 19 (CP).—Power of the Canadian National trustees to direct through maritime seaports all traffic which was not specifically routed otherwise by its shippers was preserved in the railway bill by committee of the whole today.

Opposition was offered and an abortive amendment proposed by E. J. Young (Lib.-Weyburn) ruled out of order, but, following brief discussion, the clause in question was carried.

The bill instructs that "the trustees shall so direct, provide and procure that all freight destined for export by sea which is consigned within Canada for carriage to National railways either at point of origin or between that and the sea shall, unless it has been by its shippers specifically routed otherwise, be exported through Canadian seaports."

MAULERS WIN HOOP BATTLE

Beat Trail Rovers 28-26 in Exciting Game; Kaslo Unable to Come

In one of the most hotly contested inter-city basketball games played in Nelson in years, the Nelson Maulers defeated the Trail Rover Scouts 28-26 at the Junior high Wednesday night. Due to the inability of the Kaslo team to make the trip to Nelson, the Falcons and Toilers played a league game, the former winning 33-25 by staging a second half scoring spree. Although losing Skinner on personals during the last three minutes they held the Toilers safely.

The Maulers played their best game of the season and gave ample proof that the strengthened local rep team will give the strong Trail teams all they can handle. Starting off with a rush the Maulers ran up two fast baskets in the first minute of the game, but clever plays by Gibson and Askey tied up the score at the five minute mark. The score was close all the way through the first half the Trail team never doing better than tieing the count and the first half ending 14 all.

At the start of the second half Askey put the Trail boys in the lead for the first time, McDougall and Harrison by fast work gave the local boys a lead of 20-16 at the half way mark and scoring came faster in the latter part of the game. Askey and Lunde added 10 points to the Trail boys' total but McDougall and Kirby were always able to keep the local boys ahead by a slight margin; McDougall with 12 points and Kirby with eight, the high scorers for Nelson, were ably assisted by the Clark brothers and Tommy Harrison. McLeod, McLean and Minton proved a hard defense for Trail to pass.

Lunde, with 18 points, was the scoring ace for Trail, but the floor generalship of Des. Askey, a star of the senior Elks team, was very noticeable. He obtained nine points. The balance of the Trail team was J. Gibson, G. Mason, W. Baldrey, J. Hollington and J. Tonnelle.

Joe Wallach and Verne Vance refereed the game to the satisfaction of both teams.

The second game between the Falcons and Toilers was faster if possible, than the first game, at half time the score was 15-14 in favor of the Toilers and early in the second half they increased the lead to 19-15 but from then on found the pace set by Smith, Baker, Cooper, and J. Bishop too much to handle. The Falcons scored basket after basket and with two minutes to go the Falcons led 33-21. While pressed by the loss of Skinner, they held their opponents to four points. The final score was 33-25. Steve Smith was the high scorer with 14 points but all the winners played a fast game, and no star could be picked. Bert Clark with 11 points, played his best game of the season for the losers.

The teams and scorers were:

Falcons—S. Smith, 14; C. Baker, 8; J. Bishop, 6; B. Cooper, 5; L. Skinner, and A. Bishop.

Toilers—B. Clark, 11; T. Harrison, 4; D. Lucas, 8; A. Farenholtz 2; C. Thor, F. Clark, and G. Williams.

LAST GAME OF HOOP LEAGUE

The Maulers, city league leaders, meet the Millionaires in the last game of the season tonight and the game will be followed by a practice of the rep team. So far the Maulers have won nine straight games.

Canada is a generous country. She taught New Zealand how to establish the dairy industry, and Marquis wheat was a gift from heaven to the Argentine.

The estimate was $709,474 less than that in respect to these items last year. Of the total the sum of $1,071,700 was for the steamships, and $8,765,270 for the maritime freight rates act.

ARE YOU BOW-LEGGED? HERE'S A REPORTED CURE

LONDON, (CP)— A gland secret which reveals the cure for bow-legs, rickets and weak bones is said to have been discovered by a physician while treating a young woman at the London hospital, Whitechapel. When the patient was admitted to the hospital, it is stated, her bones were so bent and weak that they threatened to collapse.

The young woman in question was operated upon and the tiny parathyroid glands in the neck were found to be diseased. The glands were treated, and the woman is now making good progress. Further observations by the physician led to the discovery that the four glands control the bone-building supplies of the body.

Captain Harry L. Milsom, secretary of the hospital, told the following about the case:

"The London hospital is recognized as one of the foremost hospitals for the treatment of bone diseases, and patients come to us from far and near. The physician's name cannot be disclosed, but his discovery is important. Hitherto the purpose of these glands has been unknown. It now appears that the parathyroid glands ensure that the amount of calcium in the body is maintained at a correct level. When the glands become diseased calcium is taken from the bones, which are thereby weakened."

For several years Dr. J. B. Collip, of McGill University, Montreal—who, in conjunction with Dr. F. G. Banting, produced insulin for the treatment of diabetes—has been trying to find the secret of the glands.

Local authorities state the unnamed London physician has forestalled Dr. Collip.

B.C. Teachers Have Cause, Satisfaction

Thornber Elected President; to Hold Three-Day Annual Meeting

VANCOUVER, April 19 (CP) —At the closing session of the annual convention of the British Columbia Teachers' federation here this afternoon, C. L. Thornber, principal of McBride school, Vancouver, was elected president. He succeeds Clifton G. Brown.

The convention decided to hold a three-day annual meeting hereafter, in order to give more opportunity for various sections of the federation to discuss their particular problems. More than 1400 teachers registered at this year, the largest in the history of the organization.

Harry Charlesworth, general secretary, recovering from an operation was unable to attend any of the sessions.

In his annual report he stated that impartial survey of the situation in other parts of Canada and the continent showed that, as far as British Columbia was concerned, teachers have some cause for satisfaction.

"For example," he wrote, "in no part of our province even in remote rural districts, have schools been closed—nor has a teacher been forced to teach for board and lodging alone—as has been the case in other provinces. Again, it should be noted that the serious conditions which have resulted with us this year have prevailed in other parts for the past two years."

"At the same time however, it is nevertheless true that, in a considerable number of places in our own provinces, unfair advantage has been taken of the prevailing conditions to bring about a curtailment of educational services, and serious reductions in teachers' salaries, neither of which can in any way be justified by the financial position of such places.

CROW TO HAVE PLACER TALKS

O'Grady and Cartmel Off for Fernie, Cranbrook, Kimberley

B. T. O'Grady, resident engineer of the eastern mineral survey district, and Government Agent John Cartmel, 10 years a placer miner in the Yukon, the leading figures hitherto in the short placer course at Nelson, left Wednesday afternoon by motor for East Kootenay, to lecture before gatherings at Fernie, Cranbrook and Kimberley. They are taking with them the lantern slides, models of sluiceboxes, and maps and plans used in the Nelson course.

They will visit each center for one night only, Mr. O'Grady giving the talk on geology and Mr. Cartmel the practical talk on actual hand placering, which is the kind of interest in this district to unemployed. Fernie will have them Thursday night, Cranbrook Friday night, and Kimberley Saturday night.

Instructions were received by Mr. O'Grady to arrange the lectures, from the department, Mr. Cartmel being given a leave-of-absence by his department for the purpose of the tour.

VARIED SPONSORS

It is understood that Fernie's request for a short course emanated from the Canadian Legion, many of whose members are coal miners now without employment. The Cranbrook board of trade made the overtures for the Cranbrook date. In the case of Kimberley, E. G. Montgomery, general superintendent of the Sullivan for the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Company of Canada, at the instance of men negotiated for a course.

The Kaslo Prospectors association also asked for a course, and it is probable the speakers will visit Kaslo for the night of April 27.

JOHN McCORMACK OF BURTON DIES

Lived in Burton 29 Years; Well Known in Arrow Lakes

BURTON, B. C., April 19—The death occured on Saturday morning of John MacCormack after a very brief illness of only two weeks. Mr. MacCormack was well known throughout the Arrow Lakes district, having lived in Nakusp several years, where he was connected in C. P. R. work on the Nakusp-Kaslo division.

He came to Burton with his family 29 years ago, and took up ranching on quite a large scale, which work he was engaged in up to the time of his death. He took a keen interest in all the life of the then growing community of Burton, acting as school trustee for several years, also helping in all sport, being manager of the baseball team for a number of years. He was also road foreman and made most of the existing roads of the district. He was a prominent member of the Liberal party and took an active interest in the political life of the riding.

Until two weeks before his death he was busy with plans for the annual sports day here—May 24—and his passing will be keenly felt by all members of the sports day committee. He leaves to mourn his loss, his wife, one son, John MacCormack and two daughters, Laura and Mary. The funeral was held from Burton United church on Tuesday at 3 p. m.

NELSON LEADS IN ENTRIES AT THE FESTIVAL

Of Total of 181 Entries 80 Are From Nelson at Trail Event

11 POINTS FROM DISTRICT COMPETE

Four Bands to Compete; Group Entries Show Increase

TRAIL, B.C., April 19—One hundred and eighty-one entries for the Kootenay Musical festival May 4, 5 and 6 were listed Tuesday by the Trail committee in charge of the festival. They were from 11 district points. A few more additions to the list were probable, since a special clause in the festival rules and regulations permits late entries under a penalty. At least four were in prospect.

A feature of the festival will be the large number of individuals taking an active part. This number will be far in excess of the entries, for choir, orchestra, bands, quartettes and duets are listed as one entry, but include a number of individuals. There are 41 groups, not including duets and quartettes.

Trail predominates in the number of choir, vocal and piano competitions but Nelson leads in violin, elocution and challenge competitions.

DIPPERS ARRIVE ON COTTONWOOD

Dippers, the American counterparts of the European water ousels, have arrived on Cottonwood creek in Nelson for the season. These are the little gray-coated birds that bob on the water, swim through the water, and at times walk on the stream bottom, clinging to stones and roots to hold them down as they search for crustaceans.

SOCIALISTS PARTY TALKS OF RELIEF

Resolution at Silverton Deplores Conditions

SILVERTON, B.C., April 19.—The mass meeting arranged by the Socialist party of Silverton to consider the position and prospects of those working on relief drew a large attendance.

Delegations arrived from Nakusp, Brouse, New Denver and Appledale, so that the old Miners Union hall was crowded. Two resolutions had been prepared for the consideration of the meeting and after a lengthy discussion the one introduced by the delegates from Brouse was adopted as best covering the problems of the whole constituency. This resolution pointed out the miserable and desperate condition into which those working on relief were falling, as their homes and stock of clothing, etc., deteriorated and taxes and debts piled up.

One speaker described eloquently how the farmers who had been making a hard living only three or four years ago, but were nevertheless improving their properties, and then had the satisfaction of feeling that they were making headway, were now being driven, one after another, to seek relief.

The meeting strongly resented the action of the police in declaring that the calling of a similar meeting at Brouse was illegal. In answer to this "attack on the right of free speech" it was decided to hold a meeting at Brouse and organize a branch of the Socialist party there, those present pledging their support.

An Example for the World

The World Court has at least one triumph to its credit. There has been a bitter dispute between Norway and Denmark over possession of East Greenland. Denmark from time immemorial has had a footing in Greenland, and has taken for granted that this northern territory belonged to it. However, in recent years Norwegian expeditions have landed on the eastern coast of Greenland. It was claimed that Denmark had never exercised her sovereignty in this part of Greenland, and that it was no man's land. Norway proceeded to raise her flag and take possession. Denmark vigorously objected and finally it was agreed to refer the dispute to The Hague court.

The court has now decided in favor of Denmark. As Norway was the first of all countries to advocate that disputes be settled by an international verdict or by arbitration she will respect the decision. Norway has accepted the decision in a fine spirit and King Haakon of Norway has sent the following message to King Christian:

"I have just received the news of the verdict and congratulate Denmark on the result. That it will arouse disappointment here is beyond doubt, but I hope time will heal all wounds and thus that good collaboration will be established again to the advantage of fellow-feeling in Scandinavia."

Norway and Denmark have set an example for the whole world.

A Hopeful Sign

A hopeful sign is the advance made in the index number of wholesale prices from 63.6 in February to 64.4 in March. This is the first increase since September, 1932, and marked the most substantial advance since August, 1929.

Vegetable products moved up from 50.8 to 52.1, gains for barley, corn, flax, rye, peas, wheat, flour, bran and shorts, outweighing losses for canned fruits, onions, turnips, carrots, and potatoes. Animals and their products rose from 55.8 to 58.2.

Wood, wood products and paper at 63.2, were the same as in February, reduced quotations for cedar boards and groundwood pulp, just offsetting gains for spruce deals. Non-ferrous metals advanced from 58.8 to 59.8, due chiefly to better prices for antimony, copper, lead, silver, tin and zinc. Non-ferrous metals had moved up in February from January.

The fastest "start to stop" train in the world recently made its thousandth run. It is the "Cheltenham Flyer," which made the record in July, 1929. On June 6 last the train covered a distance of 77 1-4 miles in 56 minutes, 47 seconds, an average speed of 81.6 miles an hour. The highest authentic train speed ever attained was 102.3 miles an hour on a journey from Plymouth to Paddington, in May, 1904.

Dr. Bernard Hollander says that the way to promote longevity is to "come of a long-lived family" and "escape the greater ills of life." To this The London Morning Post very pertinently says that it is simply a matter of "choosing our ancestors" and "striking a bargain with fortune."

This debunking process is going too far. Now someone has arisen to say that Shakespeare's Juliet is only a legend and her balcony but a myth.

That Body of Yours

By JAMES W. BARTON, M.D.

ARTHRITIS OF THE SPINE

You may see a man walking along the street with his back bent or see one who is very straight, but in either case you detect a "stiff back."

This is one of the conditions that causes considerable discussion in damage suits and is usually due to arthritis (inflamed joints) of the spine.

An individual may have some infection in the system and it gets into the little joints between the bones forming the spinal column. It may be anywhere in the backneck, upper or lower back, but most cases are in the lower back.

After some time his pain gradually disappears and while the back may feel a little stiff at times, he goes about his daily work in his usual manner.

He has an accident of some kind—falls some distance, attempts to lift a heavy load, is struck by a motor car or has some other type of accident. He is laid up for some weeks or months, and then the damage suit gets under way.

What happens?

The defendant—usually an accident company—quite properly show by the Xrays that the claimant had had an inflamation of the joints of the spine and that his trouble is more likely due to this than to the accident.

Dr. A. J. Weber, Milwaukee, on the basis of a careful analysis of 100 cases of arthritis or rheumatism of the spine, says that the condition is usually found past the age of forty, and more commonly in men than in women.

It may not cause any real symptoms noticeable to the patient until an injury occurs and causes some disability.

An injury may aggravate this chronic inflamed condition, which is giving no pain, to such an extent that the individual is completely disabled insofar as the back is concerned.

Therefore Dr. Weber points out the need of a careful study of each case, not only by physical examination but by the Xrays as well, in order to determine the condition that was old and had existed at the time of the injury, and that which has been caused by the injury. In this way one can determine to a reasonable certainty what a man's disability should be and what part of this disability is directly due to the injury.

There are cases where the shape or build of the individuals is at fault when an injury occurs. Sometimes where the body is long and wide, or the lower back too "hollow" (bends forward too far) and an injury occurs it causes trouble in the joints of the lower back.

The use of the Xray will often show the cause of the trouble and point the way toward relief.

Why not capitalize on the Nelson bears? Bear hunting with binoculars in the Kootenays should be a good title suggested for an advertising campaign.

Another outdoor sport is being established by John McPhail of Silica street. "Worrying the woodpecker" would be a good title for his escapades. Being troubled by the bird which is trying to drill through his house Jack has been taking drastic measures to get the bird. But the saucy thing just flies away and chatters at him. I hope woodpeckers chatter.

Then there is that old one—In a spring when a young man's fancy lightly turns, etc., etc. Well here's a yarn:

Hiram walked four miles over the mountain to call on his lady fair. For a time they sat silent on the sofa in the parlor, but soon the spell of the evening had its effect and Hiram sidled closer to her and patted her hand.

"Mary," he began, "you know I got a clearing over thar and some hawgs an' a team an' wagon an' some cows an' I calculate on building a house this fall, an'"—just then he was interrupted by Mary's mother in the kitchen:

"Mary, is that young man thar yit?"

"No, ma, but he's gettin' thar."

"Yah," said Ole, "Ay put chalk mark on side of boat."

"Are you dumb!" exclaimed Gus. "Maybe ve don't get same boat after lunch!"

In my meandering—I talked with Bob Kirkland for a time on the theater robbery—Discussed baseball with Jake Rothery—Shook hands with George Fawcett—Noticed Constable George Irvine go up the street in uniform in his usual military manner—Noticed E. W. Somers tearing out a fountain at his home—H. H. Currie poking at his garden with his walking stick—Saw Charlie McHardy step out on the street to watch the fire truck go by—

They tell this one on Fire Chief M. H. Maloney when he was chief of a brigade down in Nova Scotia or somewhere in that locality. I hope I am right. Anyway the fire brigade of a small village had turned out in response to a fire call. While they were rushing their handcart through the village street an excited villager dashed up to the chief of the brigade.

"Chief," he shouted wildly, "another fire has started at the other end of the village."

The officer turned on the man and looked at him fiercely.

"Can't help that," he snapped. "We've got our hands full here. They'll have to keep the other fire going until we can get there."

Residents of Moscow, Russia, who have braved centuries of closed-window tradition, are now compelled to air all rooms of their homes at least twice a day. With as many as half a dozen families crowded into a single flat and using the same kitchen and other facilities, the enforcement of the ambitious programme of cleanliness is certain to prove almost as difficult as the five-year plan.

STATION L-O-V-E

By CRAIG CARROLL

INSTALLMENT TWENTY-NINE

Judy signaled a page boy who stood near by.

"How do I reach Mr. Flavin?" she asked.

"Call him on the house phone. Right there. I'll get him for you."

He rang, waited, rang again. "Here you are, Miss Allison."

"Mr. Flavin?"

"Yes?"

"This is Judy Allison."

"Oh, Miss Allison! Say, I've been wanting to tell you. That was a smart piece of work you and Day put over on Jenks the other day. Smart as could be! That's real salesmanship, all right. And you'll earn the money, too. Jenks is tickled to death with the mail. And everybody says your voice is a knockout. Why, if you weren't under exclusive contract now I could put you on another program today."

"Mr. Flavin. I'm calling about Dick Mason."

"Oh." There was a faint change in his voice, a lessening of enthusiasm. But Judy went on.

"Dick Mason—he's, he's gone, you know."

"Yes, I heard about it."

"Well, Mr. Jenks isn't satisfied with the announcer. He's in trying to get Dick Mason on the program now. And he says he'll not take anybody else."

"Oh. I'd better see him, then. Jenks is the kind that'll bust everything wide open if he thinks he's not getting what he's paying for. Thanks for the tip, Miss Allison. I'll get after him right away."

"But I wanted to tell you—"

"Yes. Yes. You bet. Thanks, Miss Allison."

He hung up. Calling back would do no good, Judy knew. Flavin would be on his way already through the various departments, hunting for Jenks, talking to him, soothing him.

Somewhere in one of the studios a canary with an amazingly strong voice was singing, happy, deliriously gay against the slow music of a piano. Somewhere else Paul Whiteman's bandsmen rehearsed, rehearsed, going over and over some new tune.

Judy Allison would have thrilled to all this a very few days ago. Would have waited to see Paul Whiteman emerge from the studio. Would have wondered about the distinguished, quiet man somebody said was Lowell Thomas. Would have wished to meet the energetic young man she knew—from pictures she had seen—was Fred Waring, hurrying to play somewhere with his orchestra. Not now.

Dick Mason mattered. Nobody else in the world. She knew that, for sure.

• • •

At 7:10 Elton Day telephoned.

"Tell him I'm not in," Judy asked Elsie. He was told.

At 8 he telephoned again.

"Tell him I won't be back at all this evening." He was told.

At 8:30 he appeared at the house, and Mrs. Malone, fluttering, excited, reported, "He's a very nice young man. And he's got a big box of flowers. Roses, I think. And—"

"Tell him I'm not in—."

"I did. And he said he'll wait."

"Then—"

"Might as well see him and get it over with," Elsie suggested.

"I don't want to see him!"

"Course not. And I don't want to see the sun go down. But it goes just the same. And that person will be sitting there from now on, if you don't talk to him."

"But—"

"I could throw him out for you, if you wanted me to," Elsie suggested, surveying her strong arms with considerable pride.

"No. That wouldn't do any good."

"Course it wouldn't. Just tell him to be on his way. You told him plenty today, anyhow. He ought to know when he's not wanted."

"He doesn't care if he's wanted or not. I think he honestly believes nobody can resist him, if he just keeps on trying."

"Maybe he's right," Elsie said.

"Not about me."

"Then—"

"All right. I'll see him. Tell him I'll be down in just a minute, will you, Elsie?"

"Sure."

Judy dabbed a little powder on her nose. No use putting on much. No use taking much trouble. She didn't care if Elton Day noticed she didn't look dressed up. Why dress up for him? Why bother at all?

Still asking herself that, she entered the living room. He jumped up quickly. "Judy!"

"Hello."

"Judy, I don't know if you like flowers or not. Silly, taking flowers to a girl. Like the hero in a book Well, I'll be a hero, then. Just once. Here's flowers."

"Thank you."

"But you ought to open the box and stare at the flowers and be overcome. That's the way they do it in the movies."

"This isn't a movie."

"Right you are. This is life. Life, my friends, is a problem. Life is a thing I can get along without seeing anything of. Life is a thing that grows darker and darker, life is a poem by Dorothy Parker. Life—"

Judy called Elsie. "Elsie, I've always wanted to give some flowers to old Mrs. Williams in the third floor front. How about these?"

Elsie surveyed the box dubiously. "Maybe," she said, "I wouldn't know. She's kind of particular. But, well, I'll ask if she wants 'em. And if she doesn't—" She made a gesture intended to picture the act of throwing things out of a window. "See you, Judy."

"Yes."

Judy saw the flush on Elton's face; she knew the small, unpleasant, childish gesture had hurt him more than honest cruelty ever could. She was glad.

"You—" he began, then stopped. "You don't even want flowers from me, then?"

"No."

"Then why did I come here at all?" he asked himself, out loud. "Why—"

WHAT DO YOU THINK?

GIVES DEFINITION OF REGISTERED NURSE

To the editor:

Sir—The word "nurse" is a much abused term. A girl engaged to take full charge of a small child is known as "nurse" or "nanny." A kindly neighbor with a gift for smoothing pillows and making beef tea is spoken of as a "born nurse," while a woman with few qualifications beyond a little practical experience in midwifery and a willingness to do the family washing is called a "maternity nurse." Even the name of "qualified nurse" and "graduate nurse" is sometimes assumed by persons not really entitled to bear it. But there is one designation which no unqualified person can use without involving herself in legal difficulties—that of "registered nurse."

A registered nurse is a woman who has successfully completed a three years course in an approved training school for nurses, and has passed her provincial registration examinations. She is a member of the Provincial Registered Nurses' association, and is entitled to the letters R.N. after her name. She is a professional woman, and recognized as such. A graduate nurse from another province must obtain her registration in British Columbia before she is entitled to nurse in this province; just as any other professional person, doctor, surveyor, and so forth, is required to register in his local organization.

The following question is often asked: "What advantage is there in employing a registered nurse?" The answer is obvious. By employing a nurse who is in good standing with her association, the patient is obtaining the services of a fully qualified sick nurse, and not an untrained person with an uncertain amount of practical experience in nursing.

During her three years of apprenticeship a registered nurse serves from eight to 12 hours daily on the wards, besides attending some 500 hours of lectures in the classroom. She is carefully drilled in every phase of bedside nursing, and taught the reason for each method employed. She is shown how to perform every treatment which a nurse is allowed to give; and taught the reason for giving that treatment, the effect it is intended to produce on the patient, and the dangers of improper administration.

She studies human anatomy, in order that she may understand the mechanism of the body she is treating. She is taught the symptoms, treatment, and general nursing care of all common illnesses, and how to guard against complications. She acquires a thorough knowledge of diet and disease, and is given a working knowledge of the action, dangers, and effect of drugs.

She is taught a very high standard of professional ethics, and learns to respect the confidence of her patient, and refrain from idle gossip. Above all, she learns to be conscientious, observant and self-reliant, to obey the doctors' orders implicitly and intelligently, and to place the welfare of her patient far above any other consideration.

Nelson is fortunate enough to have a Registered Nurses' association. Every graduate nurse living in the city is encouraged to belong, and any member in active practice is required to be in good standing in the provincial association. A list of private duty nurses is kept at the hospital, and every doctor is in possession of a copy. A registered nurse holds as her credentials her schoo' diploma and pin, and her provincial registration certificate. She has a set scale of fees, and cards bearing the new charges have been printed and distributed to the members. Any person employing a registered nurse is at liberty to ask to see these credentials, and may rest assured that she is employing a person who has been thoroughly trained in the work required of her.

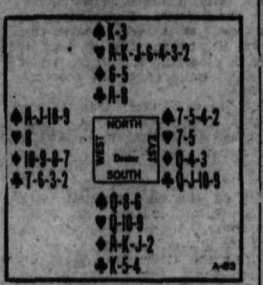
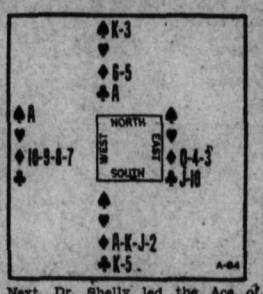
A SQUEEZE IN NEED



The above hand was played in a rubber game at the Franklin Bridge club in Philadelphia, Dr. I. H. Shelly occupying the North seat and Mr. Hugh Stewart the South. The bidding, East and West always passing, was: South one No Trump, North three Hearts, South three No Trumps North seven Hearts.

To say that the seven-Heart bid of Dr. Shelly's was bold would be to criticize it with extreme mildness, but it must be remembered that this was a rubber—not a duplicate game—and the bonus for a Grand Slam in the rubber game is so large that it pays to be venturesome provided there is a fifty per cent chance of making it. Whether such percentage of chance existed in this case is a question which the bidder had to settle with his own conscience.

The play of the hand was quite interesting. East's opening lead was the Queen of Clubs, and when the Declarer came to examine the hand he could see that he would probably meet the fate of most rash bidders who try for a Grand Slam when minus an Ace. The only chance was a squeeze and the Declarer proceeded to execute the squeeze play with rare skill. Dummy's King of Clubs captured the first trick, and then the Declarer ran his entire seven trumps, although the third lead of trumps drew two of Declarer's trumps (one from each of his hands) and none from the adversaries. When the trumps were exhausted, the cards of the four players were as follows:



Next, Dr. Shelly led the Ace of Clubs and as West he'd both the Ace of Spades and four Diamonds he was squeezed beyond help. If he let go the Ace of Spades, the Declarer's King became a winner and in addition dummy could take three Diamonds. What actually happened was that a Diamond was discarded, and then the Declarer led a Diamond, finessing the Jack in dummy, and romped home with his thirteen tricks by annexing four Diamonds.

AGRICULTURISTS VISIT FERNIE

Examine Lands; Discuss Question of Creamery

FERNIE, B.C., April 19—E. C. Hunt of Nelson and C. B. Twigg of Cranbrook, provincial agriculturalists, arrived in Fernie on Tuesday, with instructions to examine the possible local agricultural lands for the government. Their visit is in answer to requests to the government from the Fernie board of trade to examine into every possibility of and settlement in the vicinity of Fernie.

Messrs. Hunt and Twigg met members of the board of trade and Thomas Uphill, M.L.A. in the afternoon. The question of starting a creamery was discussed. It was stated that cream could be brought to Fernie from a radius of 60 miles economically. The possibility of bringing cream from the farms above Michel in the Elk valley on the one side and Jaffray, Roosville, Grassmere, and Newgate on the other as well as the many dairies near Fernie believed quite feasible. If this was done, it was said, there would be now at least the minimum of 400 cows necessary to supply a creamery.

Mr. Twigg stated the Elk valley in the vicinity of Fernie was well suited for dairying and cattle raising. He said they would have to figure on raising three tons of hay for each animal kept. The climate and land was suitable for green crops and roots. Beside this class of crop as a side line the farmer could raise chickens, eggs, honey, and small fruits. Raspberries was mentioned as a very heavy crop grown. He thought that at least 40 acres of good land should be farmed by each family to be an economic success.

E. K. Stewart stated that the hay of this district sold for $3 to $4 a ton more than hay brought from the prairie on account of its fine quality.

Mr Hunt and Mr. Twigg are to confer on the land question with W. R. Wilson, president of Crows Nest Pass Coal company, who arrived in Fernie Tuesday.

During the afternoon, accompanied by Alfred Cummings, B.C.L.S. and Thomas Shorthouse they visited some of the proposed areas of settlement.

Week of Services Impressive, Kaslo

Mrs. T. E. Higginbotham of Nelson Guest Soloist

KASLO, B.C., April 19.—"Passion Week" was observed in a very fitting manner in St. Andrew's United church, by a series of fine illustrated sermons, commencing on Palm Sunday, when the sacrament of the Last Supper was observed, there being an unusually large number of communicants. In the evening, "The Triumphal Entry" was the sermon subject, a beautifully colored, exact copy of the original painting, bearing the same title, and executed by Plockhorst being thrown upon the screen as illustrative of the sermon.

Monday evening the picture shown was "Christ in the Garden," by Hoffman, the picture being the incentive for the sermon.

Tuesday evening "Christ Before Pilate," from the painting by Munkacsy, was shown, and the sermon given on this episode.

Wednesday evening another copy of a Munkacsy painting, "The Crucifixion" was the incentive for a splendid sermon. At this service special music, by electrical transcription was a feature, this being the rendition of Sir John Stainers "Crucifixion" by the Trinity Church choir of New York, with Lawrence Tibbett and Richard Crooks as soloists.

By special request, all four pictures previously shown, were again thrown on the screen. These copies were in the original colors of the paintings made by the three 19th century artists, Plockhorst, Hoffman and Munkacsy. At this service Mrs. Jack Paterson gave a pleasing solo, "Beneath the Cross of Jesus." Special music for each of the above services was rendered by the senior and junior choirs of the church, with Mrs. A. L. MacPhee presiding at the organ and Miss Margaret Smith at the piano, playing together through the various numbers.

On Good Friday evening, F. A. Challinor's sacred cantata, "The Cross of Calvary," was presented by the combined, surpliced choirs of over 50 voices. Outstanding numbers were the quartette, "O Crucified," by the Misses Alice and Ruth Alm and Howard Perkins and Norman Leet; two choruses by the senior choir; and the chorus, "O Saviour Vainly Do We Strive," as sung by Peggy Sutherland, Clara Horner, Myrtle Leet, Gordon Reed and Teddy Horner in chorus with Donald Reed as soloist. Other fine numbers were "Tell the Wondrous Story," by Rev. T. W. Reed; "Deeper Than the Deepest Depth," by the junior choir; "Then Cometh Jesus" and "In That Same Hour," two duets by Rev. Reed and T. H. Robson; "Oh Direful Sin," "Oh, Thou Foresaken Saviour"; "He Is Guilty of Death" and "Thou That Destroyeth the Temple," by the senior choir; a solo by A. L. MacPhee, "And They That Laid Hold," and "When the Morning Was Come," a solo by Howard Perkins. Though the first three services were largely attended, the Good Friday service saw nearly 300 in the congregation.

The usual morning service was held on Easter Sunday morning, a special feature being the rendition of "There Is No Love to Me Like the Love of Jesus," by Mrs. T. E. Higginbotham, guest soloist of Nelson.

A fine Easter carol service, in the evening, was attended by about 300 persons. Mrs. Higginbotham was again the soloist, her numbers being "Open the Gates of the Temple" and "Praise," which were much appreciated by the large congregation. The processional of the combined choirs entering the church in the evening was most inspiring. Mrs. A. L. MacPhee was at the organ, and Mrs. T. W. Reed at the piano. Other than those of the guest soloist, the most outstanding number was the solo, "Angels Ever Bright and Fair," by small Billie Hendricks, with Mrs. Reed as accompanist.

Rev. T. W. Reed, pastor of the church, conducted all services and delivered the successive sermons and addresses. Mrs. T. W. Reed, trained, conducted and led the junior choir, T. H. Robson being the leader of the senior choir, which was also trained by Mrs. Reed.

The church presented a beautiful appearance for Easter Sunday, with banks and festoons of palms, ferns, daffodils and lilies, most effectively arranged. In each window Easter lilies were placed and a large illuminated cross was suspended above the altar, this also being enhanced with lilies. Mrs. William Bennett was the artist who planned and superintended the arrangement of the decorations, being assisted by many willing helpers. W. L. Billings was responsible for the beautiful lighting effects and J. A. Riddell handled the projecting machine.

The number of books recorded by the Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record as having been published during last year is 14,834, compared with 14,688 during 1931, an increase of 165.

NEW YORK LIST UP 1-9 POINTS

Wall Street Soars U. S. as the Dollar Dips Dizzily

By JOHN L. COOLEY
Associated Press Financial Writer

NEW YORK, April 19 (AP) — Stocks and commodities borrowed inflationary wings today as dollars swooped downward on foreign exchange markets in response to the government's move toward improving domestic price levels.

A tighter gold embargo and the apparent imminence of a renewed credit expansion campaign to which, it seems, are to be added measures for putting more money into the public's hands, gave speculators the impression higher quotations should logically follow and markets swept upward under increasing momentum.

With the dollar dipping dizzily, staples hastened to bridge the gap, especially between U. S. money and sterling which had an extreme rise of some 30 cents. Stocks endeavored and sucessfully to meet the pace, closing 1 to 9 points higher in a turnover of 5,079,676 shares, the largest volume since September 13 last.

Copper, silver, steel, rubber, tobacco, chemical and motor shares became buoyant as raw material markets soared. Utilities were troubled by rate reduction talk, though they largely retraced early losses. Rails, affected somewhat by another reorganization, tended to lag most of the day, but finally pushed upward.

WINNIPEG GRAIN LIST SWAMPED

Closing Prices Over Cent Up After Soaring Three

WINNIPEG, April 19. — (CP). — Lights glowed in offices of the Winnipeg grain exchange tonight as weary grain clerks worked until a late hour clearing up a day's business they had not seen since 1929 and only partially experienced during the stirring days of the United States banking holiday of early March.

Influenced by gains in sterling, local wheat futures scored near-record advances today. Booming upswings of three cents, however, were partially lost in a final 15 minutes of trading that saw prices skid rapidly downwards.

The closing range was 1¼ — 1⅛ cents higher, May future at 54⅜, July 55½ and October 57½ cents. Trading was at a feverish pace throughout the session and prices ebbed and flowed in a manner that taxed the exchange facilities.

Metal Prices Better in March With Substantial Decrease in Unsold Lead

MONTREAL, April 19 (CP).—Metal prices were a little better in March than during the first two months of the opening quarter of the current year, J. J. Warren, president of Consolidated Mining & Smelting Company of Canada, told the annual meeting of shareholders here today and there was a substantial decrease in unsold lead during this period. A slight increase in zinc stocks was shown, however.

The meeting was routine, with nine retiring directors returned to office for a period of two years. Reports were approved.

Production for the first quarter, according to figures given to the meeting by Mr. Warren, follows with comparison with the same quarter last year:

	1933	1932
Lead (tons)	28,726	31,870
Zinc (tons)	14,758	14,181
Gold (ounces)	6,639	6,743
Silver (ounces)	1,601,000	1,501,000

The president told the shareholders he could do no better than repeat his statement of a year ago when he said that prices for metals were at rock bottom and the upturn could not be long delayed. Japan, he added, was a good customer of the company, but the main market was in Europe. If anything comes of the forthcoming international conferences, Mr. Warren declared, consumption of lead and zinc would increase substantially.

WHEAT SOARS FIVE, CHICAGO

Closes 1¼ to 2¼ Above Tuesday Marks; Advance Feverish

By JOHN P. BOUGHAN
Associated Press Market Editor

CHICAGO, April 19 (AP)—Feverishly advancing 5c a bushel maximum today, wheat showed a gain of more than 25c since 1933 began.

Topmost prices today on wheat, 70c for September delivery, came just before trading ended after hours of tumultuous buying that rivaled Great War volume and was associated with spectacular jumps in foreign exchange and Washington reports of far-reaching measures about inflation. Season high price records were outdone by wheat, corn, rye, barley and oats, but part of the gains were lost in a wholesale rush to grab profits.

Wheat closed mild, 1¾ to 2¼ above yesterday's finish, corn ½ to 1¼ up, oats ½ to ¾ advanced, and provisions unchanged to a rise of 30c.

BUTTER DOWN HALF A CENT

Egg Market Firms Slightly

MONTREAL, April 19 (CP) —In keeping with continued increase in receipts, wholesale butter prices dropped half a cent on the Montreal dairy and produce market today.

No. 1 regraded butter in carlots or less sold for 26 to 26½ cents a pound. Offerings today totalled 1,676 boxes.

The egg market firmed slightly. Arrivals were heavy but a large part is being put into storage, so the price remained unaffected. Graded eggs in carlots or less were generally quoted 17 cents a dozen for extras, 15 cents for firsts and 13 cents for seconds. Arrivals were 3,563 cases.

BONDS IRREGULAR IN HECTIC DAY

Most Active Market Since Sept., 1931

NEW YORK, April 19 (AP) —The most active bond market since Sept. 29, 1931, today greeted the gold embargo with a wide variety of sharp slumps and rallies that left prices in a highly irregular condition at the end of the hectic session.

Heavy liquidation of United States government issues, together with pressure against many so-called "Glit-edge" corporation loans, contrasted with the accumulation of secondary or semi-speculative maturities. Recoveries and declines also permeated the foreign section.

Sales totalled $19,744,000, par value, of which the federal section accounted for around $8,450,000.

POUND UP 21, DOLLAR AT 86

Wild Trading at New York Whirls Pound Highest in Year

NEW YORK, April 19 (CP) — Wild trading on the New York foreign exchange market today whirled the pound sterling to its highest level since a year ago, and boosted the Canadian dollar almost two cents. The pound touched $3.31½ for cables at one point, but later reacted to close at $3.72½, exactly 21 cents higher than yesterday's close.

The Dominion's dollar shot upward in later dealings: ending the session 1⅞ cents stronger at 86¼ cents, representing a premium of 16 per cent on United States currency as against Canadian funds.

These quotations were nominal rates, traders said. Reasons for the market's trend included President Roosevelt's announcement that no more gold exports would be permitted from the United States, and the inflationary sentiment in Washington legislative circles.

SILVER AND BASE METALS GET ATTENTION

Vancouver Volume Largest in Months

VANCOUVER, April 19 (CP) — While the favorite gold stocks continued in good demand on the stock exchange today, silver and base metal issues occupied a great deal of attention, with prices ruling stronger. More than 500,000 shares changed hands, the largest volume in months.

After early weakness, Pioneer Gold came back from a low of $7.25 to $7.70 but closed with a net loss of 10 cents at $7.50. Premier Gold moved up 7 cents at 67, and Bralorne 7 cents to $3.72.

National Silver was the big trader of the day, a total of 120,000 shares changing hands up to 3¾ cents, a gain of one cent. Pend Oreille improved eight cents to close at 83, while Noble Five on heavy trading, firmed nearly two cents at 7½. Beaver Silver, on a trade of 34,000 shares was strong at 4½ cents. Numerous other base metal and silver issues scored gains of fractions to three cents.

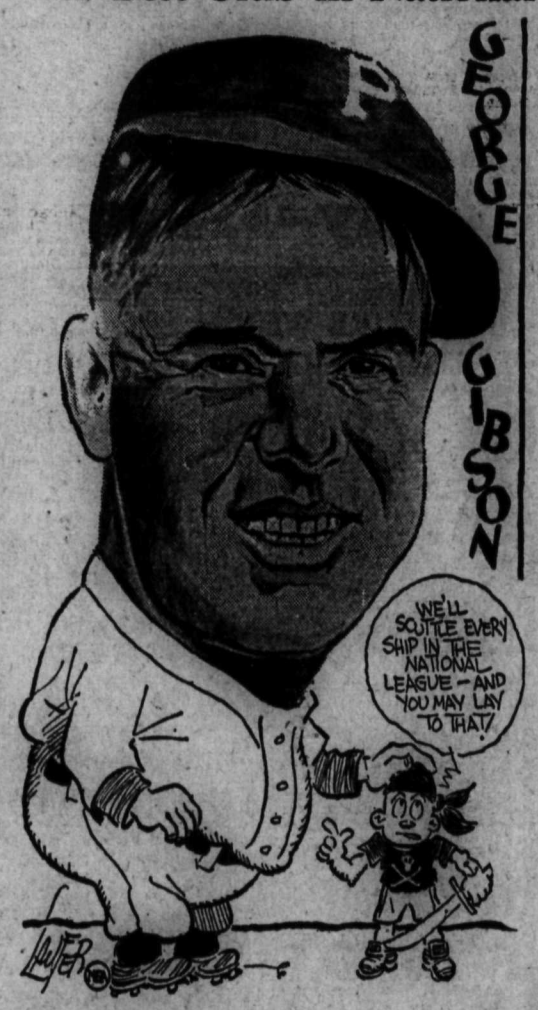
BRINGING UP FATHER: By Geo. McManus

Pirates, Plus Lindstrom, Is Best Club in National



NEW YORK—National League managers are agreed that the Pirates of Pittsburgh is the team they'll have to beat to win a pennant. When they say that they mean the Pirates is the best team in the league.

George Gibson's crew appeared the best team in the league last year up to the middle of July. The Bucs were comfortably in front of the pack when they dropped into a sudden slump, losing 14 out of 18 games in a couple of weeks. Even after their nose dive they found themselves only a game and a half out of first place.

• • •

Primarily the cause of that slump was the inability to beat southpaws. That weakness has been corrected by the acquisition of Freddie Lindstrom from the Giants, a seasoned outfielder who is pretty sure to hit above .300. Until last year Lindstrom had an eight-year batting mark of .326. He slumped badly with the Giants, largely through his inability to get along with Bill Terry. Lindstrom believed he, instead of Terry, should have succeeded McGraw as manager.

Both Paul and Lloyd Waner batted under their accustomed averages last season. Lloyd is about a .340 hitter. Paul's normal punishment of pitchers ranges around .350. It is probably the best outfield in the big leagues, both at the bat and afield.

• • •

Honus Wagner, returning to the game as coach after 15 years out of the Pirate infield, captained by the veteran star, Pie Traynor, at third, Floyd Vaughan at short and Tony Piet at second are starting on their second year in the big time. Both have been improving steadily. Vaughan hit .317 last year While Piet never will be the batter Vaughan is, he is a timely hitter, a more valuable asset at the plate than his .282 average indicates.

Gibson is sure that Gus Suhr will improve at the plate. Defensively the young first baseman is all that could be asked. Gibby believes Gus will hit 20 points better than his .263 of last year.

• • •

Bad breaks hampered the pitching staff last year, such as Meine's delay caused by his holding out and the arm injury of Steve Swetonic. Meine won 13 and lost nine. Swetonic won 11 and lost six. These pitchers can be counted on this year for at lease five more games apiece.

To quote Gabby Street of the Cards, the Pirate pitching staff is "better than fair." Swift won 14 games last year, and the young man is rapidly improving. Larry French carried the hod with 18 victories and 16 defeats. With a little rest now and then, French will win 20 games. Chagnon and Bill Harris got better than an even break last season and are counted on to do fully as well this year. Veterans Waite Hoyt and Ray Kremer will steady the corps.

The younger pitchers have been improving under the wise guidance of Coach Otis "Doc" Crandall, the old fox of the Giants.

• • •

There is not a great deal of punch to be expected from the catchers, Grace, Finney and Padden, but all are youngsters who have shown improvement and are counted on for more.

It is the best balanced team in the league, and with an even break in luck should win the National pennant without much trouble.

BLANK BROWNS

White Sox Win 3-0; Lyons Allows Only Four to Reach First

CHICAGO, April 19.—(AP)—Allowing no opposing runner to pass second only four to reach that base, Ted Lyons shut out the St. Louis Browns with three singles today and the White Sox won their home opener 3 to 0.

The Sox got seven hits, five of them doubles, off Coffman and Gray and utilized three of them, one each time, to pick up their runs singly. Al Simmons, making his first home appearance as a White Sox player, led the attack with two of the doubles.

10 CENT BALL—NO SIGNATURE—BABE

By AL DEMAREE

If there's one thing that Babe Ruth hates in addition to dubbing a tee shot or being given a base on balls, it is for some admiring fan to ask him to sign one of those ten cent boy's balls they sell in drug stores.

Gene Conley, one of Ruth's closest friends, usually does not make this mistake, but his brother wanted an autographed baseball, and as it was night, the sporting goods stores were closed, so it had to be a drug store ball.

Ruth started to sign it, and then realized that it was one of the hated, scorned, squashy balls.

Conley's brother in the next room just missed being "beaned" by inches as the ball sailed through the door.

Final Acceptors Made for Races

31 Horses for Two Thousand Guineas; 23 Fillies For One Thousand

NEWMARKET, April 19 (CP cable)—The final acceptors for the first two of the five classic turf events of the year were published tonight. The two thousand guineas and the one thousand guineas—dating back to 1809 and 1814 respectively—will be run here April 26 and April 28 and their running will compile another vital chapter of the glamorous history of English turf as a whole and of their own exciting records.

Thirty-one three-year-olds, including the "cream of the crop" of last year's two-year-old thoroughbreds, have given final acceptance for the two thousand guineas. The one thousand guineas, for fillies only, will have a field of 23, most of them top-notchers.

GOLF BALL IMPORTS HIGHER

There were 1,522 dozen golf balls imported in February compared with 135 in January and 1,035 in February last year. Last month's imports were 1,510 dozen at $4,686 from the United Kingdom and 12 dozen at $14 from the United States.

Base Metals Are Main Performers

U. S. Gold Embargo and Inflation Plan Boosts the Stocks

MONTREAL, April 19 (CP)—Announcement of the gold embargo in the United States coupled with inflation plans shot prices higher on the Montreal stock exchange today. Base metal issues were the main performers, both International Nickel and Consolidated Smelters establishing new high levels for the year.

Although the advance was extended to nearly three points in the case of Smelters the majority of stocks only registered fractional upturns. Gold shares on the exchange and on the curb market were depressed but later recovered.

Smelters opened at 74 and then rose to 76, where it closed with a gain of 2¾ points. International Nickel, active leader with approximately 18,500 shares turnover, advanced $1.10 at $13. Hollinger closed at $8.20, down 5c.

High-price gold issues on the curb registered fairly substantial gains. Dome came back from $17.75 to finish the day at $18.50, with a gain of 45c. Lake Shore at $35 and Noranda at $24.75 were both up 50c.

Many Advances Wholesale Mart

Flour Up 20 Cents; Teas and Coffees Advance

Notification of a long list of advancements in wholesale prices were received by the local houses this week. Mill feed was boosted $2 a ton and flour 20 cents a barrel. Toilet soaps and toilet effects were slated for an advance. A movement for higher prices for laundry soaps and soap chips is under way in the east and may be put through any time.

Teas advanced from four to five cents a package and a small upward trend occurred in coffee prices.

Hops have advanced 10 cents in the United States following the passing of the beer bill and as a large quantity of the British Columbia product is being used in the manufacture of the beverage in the states a similar change is looked for here.

A car of flour constituted the car arrivals for the wholesale grocers.

Feed distributors received two cars of fertiliser, a car of meat scraps, one of feed and one of potatoes.

Lamb prices were up a cent otherwise there was no change in the meat market. There is still a big surplus of eggs. Meats are moving well and during the Easter weekend the sale of smoked meats was exceedingly good.

Green garden truck from the south and from the coast is moving in fair quantities although at present there is a shortage of lettuce.

TEN-DAY TERMS FREIGHT RIDING

Arrested early Wednesday morning in the Canadian Pacific yards by C. P. R. Constable C. A. Brown, as they were pulling out on a westbound freight, John Rees and Hedley Adshead were brought before Stipendiary Magistrate John Cartmel in provincial police court and charged under the railway act.

The men pleaded guilty, were fined $5 each with the alternative of 10 days in jail, and took the jail term.

BRITISH BAR ON SOVIET LUMBER WOULD AID B.C.

If It Becomes Effective and Stands Will Mean Jobs for Thousands

VANCOUVER, April 19 (CP) — Britain's embargo on lumber from Russia, if it becomes effective and stands, will have the effect of providing work for thousands of British Columbians, it is believed.

In recent years Russia has been the most formidable competitor with Canada in the British lumber market.

The importing corporation in Britain which handles lumber imports from the Soviets had contracted for the delivery of 870,000,000 feet this season. That is about as much lumber as British Columbia's total cut last year. None of that Russian lumber has so far been delivered. It is a point of importance as to whether the British government would allow an import on a contract that had been completed. Lumber interests in Vancouver do not think it will, and if that is so the British market will have to look elsewhere for that supply of 870,000,000 feet.

GET LARGE AMOUNT

Some of it would almost certainly be secured from British Columbia. Not all, because of the available supplies in Sweden and Finland; but dealers here expect that a very large amount would probably come to British Columbia mills.

There is no saying how soon the effect of such a new order of things might affect the B. C. lumber industry, but the general assumption is that it will result in the recal of several thousands of men for the woods, and the mills.

Lumber products will also be affected. Russia has been shipping in doors to Britain at low prices.

NO MENTION OF SALMON

No mention is made so far of an embargo on canned salmon which is an important item in the British imports from Russia. While no exact figures of canned salmon imports from Russia to Britain have been available for the past two years, it is estimated at around 400,000 cases.

An embargo on butter would have the effect of raising the price of that commodity in London. It would open the market for the New Zealand supplies and also the shipments that are offering from Australia. At the same time, since butter prices in Canada are largely fixed on the London market, it would have the effect of raising the price here to the producer.

ACES TAKE LEAD

MONCTON, N. B., April 19. (CP)—London Aces, best of Ontario's intermediate basketball teams and conquerors of the Quebec champions, stepped out in defense of their Canadian title here tonight by trouncing Moncton Pawnees 56-36 in the first of a two-game total-point series for the Dominion crown. The second game will be played here tomorrow night and the Aces are top-heavy favorites to retain the title they won last year.

Indians Need Hurler and Hits

NEW YORK, April 19—The Cleveland Indians would be a pennant contender if they had:

(a) One more starting pitcher.

(b) Less talk and more pitching by Wesley Ferrell.

(c) More punch at the plate.

All three of these things are going to be hard for the team to get this year, not impossible, of course, but hard.

The starting pitcher may be Bean, Winegarner, Twogood or Perrin. The last named pair are southpaws, with fair to middling records.

Manager Peckinpaugh is sorely in need of a southpaw, having gone many seasons without a left-hander who was worth what he ate.

• • •

This spring Winegarner appears to be the best prospect. He is a made-over third baseman with a world of smoke. Bean also has considerable speed, but in his year in the majors he gave evidence that his fast ball was the kind Babe Ruth doted on.

The staff, composed of Hudlin, Hildebrand, Harder, Brown and Ferrell, would be a great deal better if Mister Ferrell would save his tantrums and give Peck the kind of break the old boy deserves. Peck has been lenient with his star pitcher, who has been somewhat in need of discipline ever since he first appeared in the big show.

Ferrell was handed a financial jolt on the chin by the club this year, and that is not likely to improve his humor. The club also assured him he is not going to be traded or sold. A great deal depends upon his attitude.

When the club moved into the new municipal stadium last year, Peck faced a hitting problem. His team had been powerful at the bat, shooting at the short right field wall of Dunn Field. The stadium offered vast reaches for roaming outfielders. Dozens of flies that would have cleared the old fence were caught easily in the new structure.

At the end of the season Cleveland's batting punch was represented by four men hitting barely above .300—Cissell, .315; Averill, .314; Vosmik, .312; Porter, .308;—and Burnett close up with .297. But these figures represented slumps from averages maintained at the old park.

Bargain hits in the new park will be rare. Peck must get more hits out of the team, without regard to homers. It will be a good trick if he can do it.

• • •

The Indians have a better balanced club this year than they have had since Peck took charge in 1928. Only two jobs are doubtful, short and first. At short a young man named Knickerbocker from Toledo, who set a world record last year with 69 two-base hits, is contesting with Johnny Burnett, who showed signs of becoming a regular last season. At first Harley Boss is trying to take Eddie Morgan's job.

Boss has been the talk of the training camp with his fine fielding. Morgan, never a star fielder, fell off badly in hitting last year, and realizes he has a fight on his hands.

Teachers Consider 43 Resolutions

Oppose Any Salary Reductions in Any Class

VANCOUVER, April 19 (CP).—A resolution introduced at this morning's session of the British Columbia Teachers' federation to give local associations of the organization authority to affiliate with the trades and labor council in their districts was defeated on a tie vote. The amendment to refer the matter to the executive was carried unanimously.

The defeat of the motion was not indicative of opposition to the trades union movement, but was due to desire of those in opposition to know more about what passage of the resolution would mean.

Such questions as sympathetic strikes, decentralization of the federation through giving affiliated bodies power to act independently on joining the trades and labor council and other such issues were raised by those who wished more consideration given the question such as would arise through referring it to the provincial executive.

Forty-three resolutions in all were brought before the session. The last motion considered was one emanating from Vancouver Teachers' council, Vancouver Elementary Teachers' association, Vancouver Junior High School Teachers' association and Vancouver High School Teachers' association which asked the federation to go on record as against further reduction of salaries of teachers.

The motion was amended to cut out the words "of teachers," placing the organization as opposed to further salary reductions of any class. This was carried with zest.

ADOPT RESOLUTIONS

Among resolutions adopted were:

Petition the government to press at the world disarmament conference for abolition of the private manufacture of arms and ammunition.

Favoring appointment by Dominion and provincial governments of a single royal commission to enquire into and report on the whole governmental system for purpose of recommending such changes in it as will fit it to meet more adequately needs of the Canadian people.

Mines Strongest in Many Months

Whole Market Moves Forward on Commodity Rise

TORONTO, April 19. (CP).—The Washington call for a marking up of commodity prices gave base metal shares, from Nickel and Smelters to the penny coppers, their strongest market they have experienced in many months. The jump of 3 cents for bar silver lifted mining shares of the white metal group and the gold stocks, after floundering about indecidedly until the late afternoon, moved forward also.

Gold shares were depressed in early trading by the U. S. move towards inflation, the pick-up of the Canadian dollar in New York and by switching from the golds to industrials. Later the gold revaluation idea predominated and these shares turned about and more than recovered their losses in most cases. McIntyre pulled up from a low of $25 to a high of 26.50 for a net gain of 1.10. Lake Shore showed a net gain of 25. Dome 30, Pioneer 5, Wright Hargreaves .14 while Teck finished 10 down and Bralorne 14 cents below the previous close.

JEBY-JONES BOUT IS "NO CONTEST"

CLEVELAND, Ohio, April 19 (AP)—A decision of "no contest" was made at the end of the sixth round of a 12-round non-title bout between Ben Jeby, New York middleweight, and Gorilla Jones of Akron, tonight, by Cleveland boxing commissioners who halted the bout from the ringside.

The commissioners said they ordered Referee Block to halt the fight because "both scrappers were stalling."

gold reserve for currency would be reduced.

He will look for a common action by all nations in establishing the new ratio, which will permit more currency to be circulated on the same world supply of the previous gold basis.

Meanwhile, the Roosevelt administration attacked the problem from its purely domestic angle. Governors of the 12 federal reserve banks reported promising outlooks to Secretary Woodin and then studied means of pumping available idle currency into circulation.

FIVE BILLIONS IN BANKS

The governors also tackled the task of freeing the four to five billions still locked up in closed banks. Quick action appeared in prospect tonight.

In his bold manoeuvres in the world of finance the president stilled for the moment, at least, the clamor on congressional hill for forthright inflation.

He appeared to have won command of the situation with his moves for inflation that will respond to control and place within the power of the government a counter-deflation program.

Senator Thomas, Oklahoma Democrat, leading advocate of broad currency expansion, revised his inflation bill after conference with the president and drafted it to give to the chief executive the power he deems necessary to put his program into effect.

PROPOSAL AS BASIS

The Thomas proposal undoubtedly will be employed as the basis for the administration legislation. His new bill gives the president discretionary power to do several things, including expansion of currency, the lowering of the gold content of the dollar, the creation of a dollar stabilization board and the arrangement for the increased use of silver through international agreement.

The startling Roosevelt program almost completely distracted the attention of congress. The senate plodded ahead with the farm commodity bill, while the house stood in recess.

A veritable wave of support and enthusiasm for the presidential plans came from capitol hill and particularly from the inflationist group.

Late in the day a delegation from the house called at the White House and arranged for a meeting tomorrow to promise support for the president.

On the senate floor the veteran Fletcher of Florida, chairman of the banking committee, hailed the cause of "controlled inflation" as a necessary step with international action to stabilize currencies and raise commodity prices.

CONTROLLED PRICE LEVEL

The whole attack is planned by President Roosevelt as one leading to a controlled price level—a level higher than that now existing, but restrained from rising to inordinate heights.

Many propositions are in mind. It was pictured today at the White House as a football game with Roosevelt as the quarterback. Several plays are in the bag, but until the effort of one is realized it is not certain what the next one will be.

SMELTERS UP 2 1-2

Nickel Is Bellwether as Stocks Swing Strongly Upward

TORONTO, April 19 (CP) —The Toronto stock market swung into a strong upward movement today accompanied by the heaviest volume in half a year. Duplicating on a smaller scale the bull market in Wall street, stocks reflected Washington's inflationary program and the definite steps to get commodities up in price. Volume exceeded 40,000 shares and 33 stocks finished higher, seven lower and 12 unchanged.

Nickel was the bellwether of the list, trading close to 22,000 shares, and recording an advance of $1 to $13. Smelters also had a big day and showed a net gain of 2½ to 75½. Other interlisted stocks did well. Brazilian gained 1 to 9¼, C. P. R. ½ to 10¾ and Ford A ⅝ to 6⅝.

Remand Confessed Robbers at Trail

Fitzpatrick and Morrice Do Not Enter Pleas

TRAIL, B.C., April 19.—Eugene Fitzpatrick and William Morrice appeared before Police Magistrate Binns this afternoon on a charge of robbery with violence in connection with the Liberty theater holdup Sunday night. They did not enter pleas, but were remanded to Friday at 11 a.m.

H. W. McInnes appeared for Morrice, but Fitzpatrick was not represented by counsel.

R. J. Clegg, city solicitor, took over the prosecution.

Arrested in Nelson yesterday morning, Fitzpatrick and Morrice were brought to Trail in the afternoon and have since been in custody at the city jail. They were apprehended by Chief Alex Stewart of Nelson after Arthur Joy, a former manager of the Liberty theater, and J. B. Curran of The Nelson Daily News, suspicions aroused, had communicated with Chief Stewart.

Signed confessions, it is said, are in the hands of the police.

DIOCESAN MEET NOW FOR JUNE

Change Doesn't Necessarily Affect Bishop

On account of the illness of O. St. P. Aitkens of Kelowna, treasurer of the diocese of Kootenay, the session of the diocesan executive, originally set for April 19 and 20, has been postponed to June 7.

It had been understood that Rt. Rev. A. J. Doull, D. D. bishop of Kootenay, proposed to take the formal steps to make his announced intention to resign effective, by handing his resignation to the clerical and lay secretaries, after the session concluded.

Whether Bishop Doull will adhere to his original intention to preside at the executive session, now that he has postponed it, is matter of conjecture. He can resign at any time, by placing his resignation in the hands of the two secretaries, and does not need to wait for the meeting of the executive unless he wishes.

LEGION YPRES PLANS MATURE

Community Commemoration at Cemetery; at Church, Morning

Nelson branch of the Canadian Legion is looking forward to a fully representative community observance of Ypres Day on Sunday, when the day's feature will be the parade to the city cemetery, and the public service before the soldiers plot.

The parade, with which many organizations are expected to associate themselves as usual, will leave Victoria street at 2 p.m., proceeding by way of Baker, up the hill, with cars following the marching units, the bands providing the music. The service at the cemetery will be of the usual commemorative character, with an address, and concluding with laying of evergreen crosses on the graves of over 100 soldiers.

In the forenoon the Legion will have its annual church parade, and will worship at St. Paul's United church, after the usual visit to lay wreaths on the war memorial and the Rigby tablet.

A fatigue party of Legion members visited the W. Pfeiffer ranch in Fairview Wednesday afternoon and gathered 14 sacks of Oregon grape and other decorative evergreen for use in making up the crosses, on which work the ladies committee will start Thursday.

The jubilative side of the victory won by the Canadian division—it was then only a division—at the Second Battle of Ypres on April 22 and 23, 1915, will be observed by the Legion by an Ypres at home within the membership, Friday night.
