BRITAIN MAKES BIG CHANGES IN MILITARY SETUP

Admiralty, War Office Air Ministry Aids Named

AIR PRODUCTION TO BE SPEEDED

By J. F. SANDERSON Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON, April 22 (CP Cable)—The Government tonight strengthened the headquarters staffs of the three fighting services and ordered a general speed-up in aircraft production.

In the biggest change in the military setup since the outbreak of hostilities, the Government appointed Vice Chiefs of Staff for the Admiralty, the War Office and the Air Ministry to relieve the chiefs of staff of some of the physical strain of directing operations 24 hours a day.

Here are the new appointments: Vice Chief of Naval Staff: Vice-Admiral Tom S. V. Phillips, veteran of 38 years in the navy with great experience in the work of destroyers. He will assist Admiral of the Fleet Sir Dudley Pound.

Vice Chief of the Imperial General Staff: General Sir John G. Dill, now commander of the First Army Corps in France and one of the most able of Britain's military leaders. He will assist General Sir Edmund Ironside.

Vice Chief of Air Staff: Air Marshal R. E. C. Base, who served as pilot of bombers in the First Great War and has since commanded the Royal Air Force in Palestine and Transjordan. He will assist Air Chief Marshal Sir Cyril Newall.

The new Vice Chiefs will be members, respectively, of the Board of Admiralty, the Army Council, and the Air Council. It was learned that Sir Samuel Hoare, recently appointed Air Secretary, plans to resign his position as Chairman of the Vickers group of armament companies.

E. J. H. Lemon, who has been Director General of Air Production for the last two years, will return to his railroad job, but will continue as a member of the Supply Board.

Sir Samuel has ordered a big increase in Britain's aircraft production which will mean new factories, new airdromes and more skilled labor at work. The new administrative changes spring from this new program which has a production objective higher than anything ever contemplated in this country.

British Sink 24 Nazi Warships

LONDON, April 22 (CP)—An official British statement tonight announced German warship "casualties" totalled 24 since the outbreak of war.

The total was apart from a "large number of submarines," the statement said. Britain has lost 18 warships, including five submarines and the armed merchant cruiser Rawalpindi, the summary said.

The statement said the British losses were one battleship, one aircraft carrier, one armed merchant cruiser, 10 destroyers, and five submarines. The British total did not include trawlers and minesweepers. The German casualties were listed as one battle cruiser reported sunk, one damaged, one pocket battleship sunk, one hit by torpedoes, one heavy cruiser sunk, one hit by torpedoes, three cruisers sunk, one reported sunk, one hit by aircraft, one hit by torpedo, 10 destroyers sunk, one hit by aircraft and a "large number" of submarines sunk.

An additional destroyer was said to have been "probably hit" by aircraft.

NEW BATTLESHIPS LARGEST BUILT BY BRITAIN

LONDON, April 23 (Tuesday) (CP-Cable) — Hector Bywater, regarded as one of the best-informed commentators on naval matters, wrote today in The News Chronicle that the Royal Navy is about to be reinforced with five of the world's "largest, most powerfully armed and most strongly-protected battleships."

These five — the King George V, Prince of Wales, Duke of York, Jellicoe, Beatty — which were launched last year, "now are undergoing their trials," Mr. Bywater wrote. "They are the largest battleships ever built by this country."

BELGIUM PLANS DEFENCE TAXES

BRUSSELS, April 22 (CP Havas) —The Belgian Cabinet in a seven-hour meeting today decided on new national defence taxes and instituted a weekly mealless day beginning next Monday as war waged in the air above the Lowlands and struck two Dutch vessels at sea.

Three French pursuit planes shot down a Nazi machine above the Neufchateau region of Belgium this morning. One German was killed, a second wounded and a third lightly hit. The Defence Ministry announced it would make "the necessary protests."

Foreign airplanes, two of which were identified as German violated Belgium neutrality "several times" during the day, the Ministry said. Belgian defences went into action.

The Dutch steamship Bernise, 951 tons, was sunk off the coast of Norway. Her crew of 18 were rescued. The Dutch trawler Erin was bombed and machine-gunned by a German plane but succeeded in making port.

Canadians Lead Trondheim Drive

By ROBERT RIFFEL Havas Staff Writer

WITH THE ALLIED FORCES ON THE TRONDHEIM FRONT, April 23 (Tuesday), (CP-Havas)—Canadian troops with French Alpine Chasseurs today formed the spearhead of an Allied army driving Southward along the railway running from Namsos to German-held Trondheim.

The Canadian and French units—right at home in Northern Norway's deep snow—were said to be playing an important role in the heavy fighting which started last night and still was under way early today near Stiklestad, midway between Namsos and Trondheim.

The Allied forces occupied Steinkjer, at the head of Trondheim Fjord about 40 miles South of Namsos, and then pushed on to Stiklestad, another 20 miles to the South.

The Germans fled in a desperate attempt to strike from the rear and cut the Allied column in half. German ships tried to land troops at Steinkjer behind the Allied vanguard but a strong detachment had been left in the town and this force proved adequate to foil the German landing.

Norway Gaining Ground—Colban

LONDON, April 22 (CP)—Erik Colban, Norwegian Minister to Great Britain, said tonight during a broadcast that "we feel that all the fighting forces, including the air force, are gaining ground" in Norway.

This led some observers to speculate on the possibility that the British and French forces may have begun to establish air bases in Norway coincident with widening Allied land drives in Scandinavia.

Mr. Colban expressed full confidence in the success of Allied action in Norway.

"I know that the Allied Government have taken vigorous action for the battle to be fought on Norwegian soil," he said. "I trust I can commit no indiscretion in saying that I have his Britannic Majesty's Government with me in this, that the action will be very strong and rapid."

"We all know that every day and every hour counts. The sacrifices we all must face may be lessened if we do not hesitate to make them now. Action must also be strong and rapid to prevent Norway's economic life from coming to a standstill. Its seaborne trade must be reopened without delay."

Populace of Narvik Urged to Leave Before Bombardment to Drive Out Nazis Begins; Railways Objectives

By THOMAS F. HAWKINS—Associated Press Staff Writer

STOCKHOLM, April 22 (AP)—British authorities, in broadcast warnings to the populace of Narvik, threatened to bombard that Northern ore harbor today, and with their Norwegian Allies clamped a slowly closing vise on German-occupied Trondheim, vital West coast port and railway centre 400 miles farther South.

The Germans and Norwegians were reported fighting at Melhus, only 20 miles South of Trondheim on the Trondheim-Oslo railway. British troops were reported at Storen, five miles to the rear.

A main force of British troops, working South from the other side of the port, was reported to have reached Steinkjer, reported Norwegian concentration centre 50 miles North of Trondheim.

This was about 15 miles North of Vardalora where fighting between advance detachments was reported yesterday.

To the East of the city, the Norwegians were reported still in possession of Hegra fortress guarding the railway to the Swedish border. Allied forces were said to control the important railway district between Trondheim and Oslo, and at the same time to be driving at the city from the North with forces landed at Namsos.

In gaining control of the railways, it was reported, the Allies had recaptured Elverum, 60 miles North of German-held Oslo, and Hamar, 20 miles to the West.

They also held Dombas, 120 miles North of Hamar, and thus were in command of three key points along the lines of communication between Oslo and Trondheim, two of the principal centres of the German occupation.

Railways appeared to be the key objectives in all three of the Allied major operations. At the terminus of the railway line over which the Germans could, in the past, obtain Swedish iron ore.

South of Trondheim, the Norwegians, British and French were reported to be using the railways for troops transport. They were said to be moving toward contact with the other forces coming from the North for a joint offensive on the German position.

The British broadcast warnings three times today to inhabitants of Narvik to leave the town before a British naval barrage was laid down to drive the Germans out.

The Germans there were reported in semi-official Norwegian reports here to be virtually trapped. The Norwegians were said to be to the Northeast, the British to the East and South and the British fleet stationed off the fjords and islands seaward.

Norwegian semi-official sources said the British could take Narvik any time, but up to now have been sparing in their efforts in the hope of avoiding any serious damage to property and harm to the people.

A detachment of Germans who attempted to drive North from Narvik was said to be trapped at Gratangen Fjord, where they were trapped in the snow and surrounded by sniping Norwegians who take pot shots when the Nazis emerge from their farm house hideaways.

Sweden, meanwhile, seeking to maintain her neutrality, sent a strong protest to Berlin against flights by German warplanes over her territory.

The note said these flights had been "especially numerous and grave" yesterday, and asked that measures be taken to prevent any repetition.

PARIS BATTERIES GO INTO ACTION; NO ALARM

PARIS, April 23 (Tuesday). (CP)—The sound of airplane motors was heard in the Paris region early today as anti-aircraft batteries went into action and searchlights swept the skies.

The firing faded out after 15 minutes and there was no air raid alarm.

Eastern Coasts Damaged by Gale

BOSTON, April 22 (AP) — A howling Northeast gale, accompanied by giant tides, raging seas and a potpourri of rain, snow and sleet, left many sections of the New England coast strewn with wreckage tonight, while several northeastern Maine communities repaired communications after being isolated.

Damage estimates throughout New England ran to hundreds of thousands of dollars. Indications were that the weekend storm had blown itself out.

The old navy wharf and several boats, wharves and buildings used in the sardine fishery were demolished at Tuoddy, Me.

The patrol boat Travis was sent to Eastport, near the Canadian border and close to the stalemated Passamaquoddy tidal power project, to assist in eradicating damage.

Thames, Humber Estuaries Scenes of Aerial Battles

Air Ministry Reports 14th Stavanger Air Raid; Danish Base Again Bombed; Churchill Talk, Budget Awaited

LONDON, April 23 (Tuesday) (CP)—German planes, apparently attempting to lay mines, flew over the Thames and Humber Estuaries last night. Royal Air Force planes went up to intercept them and drove them off.

An Air Ministry bulletin, issued early this morning, said that "anti-aircraft batteries and naval units opened fire at several points" as searchlights stabbed the sky.

The bulletin was issued after inhabitants of Southeast and East coast towns reported hearing heavy gunfire and seeing brilliant flashes over the water as if bombs were exploding.

In one East coast town anti-aircraft firing was heard for 90 minutes and some shrapnel fell in the streets but no alarm was sounded.

In the strategic Orkneys North of Scotland air raid sirens sounded last night for the second time. During the 25-minute alarm no German aircraft was sighted and no gunfire was heard. British fighter planes went up to patrol the skies. Previously British fighters drove off two German planes which appeared over the Shetlands.

Britain announced "considerable success" for the Allied Expeditionary Forces after landings at "many places" in Norway, while British bombers hurled explosive destruction on Germany's aerial troop ferry route between Denmark and Norway.

The report of land success came from the War Office in a brief statement. It said the triumphs were achieved "in the face of great difficulties," and that British Tommies have made contact with the Norwegian forces and are giving the hard-pressed Norsemens "all the support in their power."

Before the War Office report on the activities of the troops, the Air Ministry told of new Royal Air Force raids on Stavanger airport in Southwestern Norway and Aalborg airport in Denmark last night.

It was the 14th time the German-occupied Stavanger airport has been raided by British bombers and has been the second time in two nights that Britain has struck at the only large German-held airfield in Denmark.

The air force reported six German transport planes were believed destroyed at Stavanger and a building smashed and runways broken at Aalborg.

British fliers on the second raid said several fires were burning from the raid the night before at Aalborg.

The Air Ministry said the Stavanger airdrome was "bombed and machine-gunned" and a number of enemy aircraft destroyed when the R. A. F. swooped down on a group of 50 machines lining the crater-pocked field.

Along the rocky coast of Norway, the naval patrol went on ceaselessly and silently. Britain boasted that the "lobe" of Norway's Peninsula had been cut off from all but air communication with Germany.

Britons followed the march of events with keen interest while awaiting two important happenings tomorrow.

First, in point of time, will be the luncheon speech that Winston Churchill, First Lord of the Admiralty, will make at a St. George's Day function.

A few hours later, Sir John Simon, Chancellor of the Exchequer, will arise in the House of Commons and ask the nation in his budget for money to carry on the war.

The Allied Expeditionary Force in Norway was reported to have found the Norwegian equipment poor compared with Allied outfitting, but the Norwegian morale was reported as "excellent."

The Home Office became worried about possible bombings in Britain. To householders went warnings repeating those of last September, and it was expected the blackout will be enforced more strictly.

The Press Association's aviation correspondent estimated German plane losses from British raids on Danish-Norwegian fields at 80 to 100 planes destroyed or put out of commission. British losses were reported slight.

While road traffic in virtually every section of the Province was at a standstill due to mud, snow, slush and water, trains remained little affected. Telephonic communication was restored and all towns "blacked out" Sunday evening by power loss through power lines collapsing were again with lights. Many general telephone circuits were still out of action.

Nazis in Norway Before Offering Plan Says Book

LONDON, April 22 (CP) — A Norwegian white paper published here today on the invasion of Norway disclosed that German warships had entered vital fjords and engaged Norwegian defenders before Germany approached the Government on a conciliation plan.

The 3000-word account also said that the German Minister in Norway, Dr. Kurt Brauer, knew the German expedition had left some ports in Germany before the Allies mined Norwegian territorial waters April 8 and made no effort to represent the Nazi actions as a reprisal for the mine-laying.

The white paper said Norway offered to accede to German demands for a new regime by "creation of a friendly Government which could collaborate with Germany," but would not stand for Vidkun Quisling, Nazi Party leader, for Premier. Hitler insisted on Quisling.

The Norwegians said German demands on Norway to submit to "defence" from Allied "machinations" for the duration of the war were "presented at 5 p.m. April 9 after five large German warships already had passed the outer fortifications at Bergen," others had entered Trondheim Fjord, Oslo Fjord and fighting "already was in full swing."

King Haakon II received the German Minister, Dr. Brauer at Elverum at 3 p.m. April 10, the paper said, after attacks on Elverum had been repulsed and was "informed that the situation now is so altered that the demands presented in the memorandum of the previous day could no longer satisfy the German Government."

IRON LUNG IS DEMONSTRATED TO CITY GYROS

Practical jokers of the Nelson Gyro Club Monday evening were seeing the iron lung not only as a life-saving appliance, but as a boon to the hen-pecked husband for halting the verbal bombardments of talkative wives—at least for four and a two-tenth second intervals—after seeing the first public demonstration of the Kootenay Lake General Hospital's new iron lung by Dr. F. P. Sparks, Medical Health Officer, and J. G. Bennett, Constructor, with the help of an obliging news reporter. The scribe was the "patient."

"How do you feel now?" queried the doctor after the lung or respirator had been in operation a few minutes. "Feel just fine," the "patient" started, and after a four second interval—"just fine. Say that thing shut me off."

MACHINE EXPLAINED

Describing the respirator, Dr. Sparks explained how it took the place of tiresome artificial respiration by humans. An expert could only keep up artificial respiration about 20 minutes, he said, and it was easily seen what a benefit the tireless machine could be when respiration for hours was necessary to save a life. Respiration should be kept up on an asphyxiated person until the victim recovered or until rigor mortis set in, the doctor claimed, and this sometimes meant hours of hard work beyond the strength of most men.

He also explained the theory of the lungs operation, after telling briefly of the public fund-raising campaign to purchase the lung. Mr. Bennett demonstrated the mechanical workings of the large machine as well as the small inhalator-respirator, also recently added to the equipment of the Hospital. Considerable research and trouble was necessary in the planning and construction of the two machines, he said, and at times it was necessary to conduct month-long searches to obtain necessary parts from factories. For the most part however the parts were made by his firm locally.

The two machines differed not only in size, but in that the small machine was a respirator as well, having a thermostat-controlled heating system.

Three Teams Are Slated in Nelson Bantam Baseball

Three teams are at present planned for the Nelson Bantam Baseball League this Summer, Slim Porter who has taken the lead in his organization said Monday. About 40 players have been turning out for practices since last Friday, but he would still like more.

Prospects were also bright for a good junior team, there being a number of strong players available. Those who would be turning out would be Alsd Desreux, J. Walley, Bud Smith, Bob Peacock, Doug Winlaw, Ernie Wilson, Don Gibben, Mickey Prestley, Barney Priestley, Ernie Defoe, Ted Huyck, Phil Brewer, George Ioanin, and Yommy Griffiths. Three practices have been held so far—Friday, Saturday and Monday. Porter hopes to secure a couple of Sundays this season so that he can put on intercity kid games so as to restore public interest.

Ken McBride Is on Varsity Golf Team

Ken McBride, a Nelson youth who has captured a large number of tournaments in the district golf play, has made the University of B. McBride, who also starred in Varsity badminton, won the U. B. C. golf title during his freshman year a few months ago. Kapak has lined up with the Senior C. Y. 20 Turn Out for First Workout of Lacrosse Seniors

Twenty players turned out for the first practice of the Nelson Maple Leafs lacrosse team Sunday morning under the temporary direction of Manager Jack Reid, and prospects of a hustling young team, with strong emphasis on speed, were good. The choice of this year's Coach hasn't been made yet, but that isn't stopping the boxla players from really settling down to work. Tonight they will practice again at 7 o'clock and at least nine more are expected to display their wares. Sunday there were four candidates for rovers—Fred Saunders, formerly of Vancouver; Doug Blais, Bud Cooper and Ernie DeJong. At centre there were Rege Miller, Glen Price and Pete Bonneville. Wingmen were Art and Niven, Bill Barwis and Fred Arnold. Horses in spots, Vic Delluppo, Everett Kuhn, Stan Morf and Bill Townsend were on defence and Tommy Cookson in goal. Many of these players were promising junior players of last year. Tonight others expected are Harold Mayo, Ernie Defoe, Bud Emery, George Milne, Cecil Maloney, Dave Gibbons, Jack Bishop, Jimmy Eccles, Gordon Strzaker, Harold Tapana and several more. Leo McKinnon, who gave a brilliant performance in early games last season before moving with his family to the Coast, has been in contact with the club enquiring as how his chances were of making the team this season, so he might be back. At present he is trying out with Richmond Farmers of the Intercity Coast League.

Boards of Trade Brief Rouses the Rossland Council

ROSSLAND, B. C., April 22—Recommendation from the Senior and Junior Sections of the Rossland Board of Trade toward improving the financial situation of Rossland were submitted in a brief to the Rossland City Council Monday night.

Several Council members expressed their appreciation of this gesture of cooperation. J. A. MacLeod, City Clerk, was instructed to write the two bodies stating the majority of the recommendations had already been put into practice. This decision was a compromise between an order to file the brief and a motion to send a letter of appreciation. Following reading of the brief Ald. A. C. Ridgers presented a motion to file it. Mayor J. E. Gordon thought the spirit of cooperation shown by the Board should be acknowledged. Ald. Leo Nimsick failed to see why the Boards should "get the glory for what the Council had already done. He did not agree with the manner of presentation, saying it would be reported in the Press and it would "look as if the Boards were laying down the rules and the Council following up." Alderman Nimsick asserted the Council was elected to represent the taxpayers, and that the Boards were only a small proportion of the taxpayers. Ald. William Cunningham said that if there had been any good suggestions in the brief it would have been appreciated, but eight of the 10 suggestions had already been adopted by the Council. Mr. MacLeod pointed out that the letter accompanying the brief stated that some of the suggestions had already been put into effect by the Council, and that the Boards in this respect endorsed the Council. An amendment by Ald. W. G. Mara proposed that the brief should be filed and a letter of appreciation should be forwarded. Ald. R. T. Fraser, who had come in during the discussion, seconded the amendment. His right to do so was questioned by Alderman Nimsick, who suggested he should not second the amendment without knowing what the brief contained. Alderman Fraser declared he knew what the two Boards were trying to do, and the spirit in which the brief was presented, and had no hesitation in seconding Alderman Mara's amendment without knowing the brief in detail. The brief was read again for his benefit, and he replied: "I still second it."

High Track and Field Workouts 3 Days a Week

The Recreation Grounds Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons will be the scene for track and field practices of the Nelson High School under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Carrie, Roy Temple and Derek Tye. Approximately 50 have been turning out for the workouts, which commenced last Wednesday. The sprinters and distance runners haven't really opened up yet, but it is expected they will develop a galaxy of stars such as Dave Fairbank, Delbert Smiley and so on. Practice for field events haven't started yet because the pits aren't in shape. Miss Carrie is in charge of the girls, and Tye and Temple of the boys, in putting them through a variety of exercises. Tuesdays and Thursdays the Blue Bombers and Bomberettes softball teams hold practices at the Junior High.

Western won Saturday night's opener 40-26. Accurate shooting under the basket paved the way for Westerns as they grabbed an early lead that was never threatened. Gradettes passed well throughout but were short on their shots. Edmonton: V. Ewasluk 5, F. Gordon 6, L. Strachan 14, M. Colville 3, L. Hepper 2, D. Allan 1, H. Hughes, P. Cavanagh, L. Allan. Encouraging Better Sport Is Urged by Smillie, Brotherhood

Urging them to aid in stimulating a greater interest in sport and sportsmanship, R. Bert Smillie, Nelson High School Teacher, addressed members of the St. Paul's United Church Brotherhood in the Manse Monday evening. Mr. Smillie gave a comparison of sport now and sport in the past, and while he described the present attitude of the student athletes as "fine," he said it could be lifted and improved to bring it up to past standards. A discussion on the subject followed. A Strawberry Jamboree to be held in July was planned, along with a repeat performance of a Mayor Bowes program in conjunction with the K.P.-D.O.K.K. Playground Association, to raise funds for the development of the new Fourways Park. The 12 members competed in games of Chinese Checkers at the close of the business meeting, after which refreshments were served by Mrs. Foster Hilliard and Mrs. Leo Gansner.

No Work Available Council's Reply to DeSantis at Trail

TRAIL, B. C., April 22—After a letter from his wife pointed out that they were behind four months in payment of water, taxes and two years per-pty taxes, Joe DeSantis asked the City Council Monday night for employment. He was informed that there was none to be given. He said he had been on relief nine years ago. He had tried to get jobs in various places but was refused when he stated he was 50 years of age. When it was suggested he again apply for relief he refused, although it was pointed out he was entitled to it. "If we had work he certainly would get it," said Ald. J. R. Anderson, Acting Mayor, who presided in the absence of Mayor Herbert Clark.

General Fishing to Open May 1st

Although no official notification has yet been received from Ottawa, it is expected that general fishing in the major waters of the district will open on the first of May as usual. In fact it is believed that there will be little change from last year. Arrival of the usual posters with detailed regulations of fishing has been delayed.

McBride, who also starred in Varsity badminton, won the U. B. C. golf title during his freshman year a few months ago. Kapak has lined up with the Senior C. Y. 20 Turn Out for First Workout of Lacrosse Seniors

Twenty players turned out for the first practice of the Nelson Maple Leafs lacrosse team Sunday morning under the temporary direction of Manager Jack Reid, and prospects of a hustling young team, with strong emphasis on speed, were good. The choice of this year's Coach hasn't been made yet, but that isn't stopping the boxla players from really settling down to work. Tonight they will practice again at 7 o'clock and at least nine more are expected to display their wares. Sunday there were four candidates for rovers—Fred Saunders, formerly of Vancouver; Doug Blais, Bud Cooper and Ernie DeJong. At centre there were Rege Miller, Glen Price and Pete Bonneville. Wingmen were Art and Niven, Bill Barwis and Fred Arnold. Horses in spots, Vic Delluppo, Everett Kuhn, Stan Morf and Bill Townsend were on defence and Tommy Cookson in goal. Many of these players were promising junior players of last year. Tonight others expected are Harold Mayo, Ernie Defoe, Bud Emery, George Milne, Cecil Maloney, Dave Gibbons, Jack Bishop, Jimmy Eccles, Gordon Strzaker, Harold Tapana and several more. Leo McKinnon, who gave a brilliant performance in early games last season before moving with his family to the Coast, has been in contact with the club enquiring as how his chances were of making the team this season, so he might be back. At present he is trying out with Richmond Farmers of the Intercity Coast League.

U. S. Destroyers to Check British Ships

MANILA, April 22 (AP)—Two destroyers of the United States Asiatic fleet, authoritative sources revealed today, sped Northward late Saturday to investigate activities of a British warship operating in the channel between Formosa and the Philippine Islands.

Reports here said the warship was halting merchant shipping, presumably as part of the British blockade against Germany. The United States destroyers were ordered to see that the British ship does not violate the neutrality of Philippine waters. Some observers believed the British craft was looking for a net of German submarines reported en route, with full cargoes, from Java to Vladivostok.

11 Sessions Are Slated for Music Festival, Nelson

A total of 11 sessions have been scheduled for the four days of the Kootenay Music Festival Wednesday through Saturday of this week at the Civic Theatre, there being morning, afternoon and evening sessions every day except Saturday when there is no morning program. All the elocution will be run off tomorrow, and there will be considerable pianoforte and violin and a little vocal, and one orchestra class. Thursday will be devoted almost entirely to vocal and pianoforte, and Friday to choirs, more particularly school aggregations. On Saturday afternoon, there will be three classes of choirs, two of bands and two of orchestras. Except for one orchestra class the final session, Saturday night, consists entirely of vocal classes.

Hope for Cooler Weather, Alberta

EDMONTON, April 22 (CP)—Flood-threatened spots throughout Northern and Central Alberta hoped for cool weather without rain tonight while the three major flood fronts reported better conditions and in Southern sections efforts were made to resume communication and power lines disrupted by snow and sleet storms. Flood waters were receding slowly in Drumheller where scores of homes became partly submerged when the Michichi Creek overflowed. At Whitecourt, 135 miles Northwest of Edmonton, the danger of further flooding was believed past but ice still was packed over "The Flats" low farmlands East of the town, 30 feet deep in some spots. Forty persons including a mother and her one-day-old baby were rescued when ice jammed on the Athabasca River and a wall of ice and water, 10 feet high in some places, roared over the flats, killing hundreds of head of livestock and sweeping away farm homes and granaries.

RED CROSS NOTES Red Cross Volunteers Will Visit Canadians in English Hospitals

TORONTO — Almost a million pieces of hospital and surgical supplies and clothing have been shipped overseas by the Canadian Red Cross Society during the past two months for the use of the Canadian forces, and for distribution by the Red Cross Societies of war-torn parts of Europe. From February 1 to March 31, 1702 cases were shipped to the Canadian Red Cross Society in London, England. They contained thousands upon thousands of the articles made by the women of Canada—hospital necessities and knitted articles. Thirty cases of hospital supplies were sent during the same period to the French Red Cross Society; 244 cases, including clothing for refugee women and children, to the Finnish Red Cross; 44 cases to the evacuee children of London; 34 cases for Polish refugees. Large quantities of woollen articles of clothing so necessary in the English Winter climate have been distributed to the Canadian men in the Aldershot area by the Society's Comforts Committee in London, and grateful appreciation of the comfort of home-made socks has been expressed by many officers on behalf of their men. Dr. Fred W. Routley, National Commissioner, received a report from the Overseas Visiting Committee that volunteer visitors had been recruited and were now attached to many hospitals in England and Scotland. It is the duty of these women to look after Canadian men lying wounded in these hospitals and relay their needs to the London office, from which parcels are forwarded regularly. Wherever necessary, messages may be sent by the hospital visitor to the patient's anxious parents in Canada. "This service, which, unfortunately, must grow to large proportions as the war goes on, is one of the most important pieces of work done by the Canadian Red Cross Society," Dr. Routley stated.

More Nazi Planes Downed by Allies

WITH THE ROYAL AIR FORCE IN FRANCE, April 22 (CP Reuters)—Wreckage of two more German planes, both Messerschmitt 109 fighters, brought down by British Hurricanes during the weekend, was located behind the French line today. This brings the R.A.F. total "bag" in 48 hours to 10. One of the German machines accounted for, at first believed to have been a Heinkel, has proved on examination to be a bomber reconnaissance plane of a newer type. The plane fell near the Swiss frontier on Saturday after being crippled in a running chase for 100 miles over French territory by a 27-year-old Irish Flying Officer from London. Its crew of four were taken prisoner. French Curtiss planes tackled a Dornier 17 bomber and a Heinkel 111 in the British force area during the day. The Dornier was forced down over the Belgian frontier. The pilot was killed. It is not known whether the Heinkel managed to escape a fall, too.

U. S. Citizens in Hungary Advised to Return Now

BUDAPEST, April 22 (AP)—The United States legation today advised American citizens in Hungary to "decide as to the advisability of leaving for the United States while there still are means of egress available." The legation notice said United States citizens should "consider the effect" which extension of the war to this part of Europe "would have upon the possibility of travel." A prefatory declaration said the legation "has no information which should lead it to believe that the war will be extended to Southern Europe." There are about 400 American citizens in Hungary, but the legation said that most of these were Hungarian-born persons who went to the United States, were naturalized and then returned to this country to live. The notice asked Americans to advise the legation of their plans, adding: "If you are remaining in Hungary, please give reasons."

2 CHILDREN BURNED
GORE BAY, Ont., April 22 (CP)—Two children were burned to death when fire destroyed their parents' frame home early today on Barrie Island, 15 miles West of this Manitoulin Island town.

Ella Campbell, 14, and her five-year-old sister, Louise, were trapped in a second-floor bedroom when the fire started at seven of eight members of the family slept. Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Campbell, had to watch from the ground as the girls tried to escape from a window only to be overcome by smoke and fall back into the room.

Kootenay Lake General Hospital Has Two "Iron Lungs" to Fight Death

One Adult, One Baby Size Constructed by Nelsonite

FUNDS SUBSCRIBED

Kootenay Lake General Hospital now has two "iron lungs"—one for adults and another for babies. They were constructed by J. G. Bennett of Bennett's Ltd., the only parts purchased being motors, gauges and castors. They have been tested by Dr. F. P. Sparks, City Medical Health Officer, who has made a special study of "iron lungs" and their uses, and have passed with flying colors. One of them, the smaller one, has already been used for treatment of a condition far removed from its original purpose and has proved so effective that it may mean the saving of a woman's arm.

Construction of the two "lungs" was made possible through public subscription, about a year ago, of a fund to supply a "lung" for Kootenay Lake General Hospital. At that time it was intended primarily to afford equipment for treatment of infantile paralysis patients whose lungs or throat were affected. Then, when it was announced Lord Nuffield, British philanthropist, would build and supply "iron lungs" to Empire hospitals, the trustees of the fund delayed their intended purchase, making application for one of those to be supplied by Lord Nuffield.

FEARED DELAY
A few of these "lungs" have recently arrived in British Columbia, going to smaller hospitals, but it appeared it might be some time before one was available here. Trustees of the "Iron Lung Fund" then decided to proceed with construction locally, and the final result was two—an adult and a baby size—instead of one. Both have measured up in tests.

Enamelled in gleaming "hospital white", the two "iron lungs" look like nothing so much as pictures which have appeared in many publications since these new aids to medical science became news.

Briefly, their specifications are: Adult "lung"—Length overall seven feet, six inches; length inside six feet; diameter two feet, six inches; height five feet, six inches. Baby "lung"—Length two feet; width one foot; height three feet.

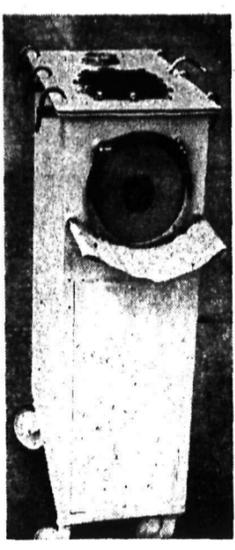

EMERGENCY LEVERS
Both are powered by quarter-horsepower electric motors, and are equipped with hand levers for emergency operation in case of power failure.

The purpose of the "iron lung" is to supply mechanically, and without injury to the patient, the power of breathing when such power has been interrupted or impaired by disease. It provides, through varying air pressure upon the body, the chest and lung action of natural breathing. Hence it operates chiefly as an aid to Nature.

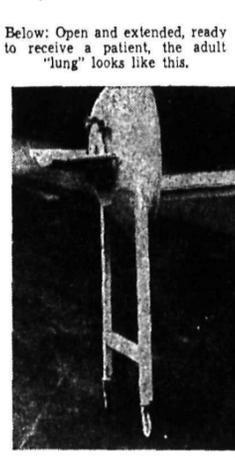

The principle of the "iron lung" is this: With the patient in it, the head only being exposed, the motor operating through reduction gears expands and contracts bellows, and these in their turn create a vacuum within the cylinder of the "lung." By means of gauges and valves the air pressure within the cylinder is automatically and rhythmically reduced and then permitted to return to normal. When the air pressure is reduced, air enters through the patient's nostrils and mouth and inflates the lungs; the ordinary pressure of air being sufficient for this. When air pressure in the cylinder returns to normal the natural collapse of the chest expels the air from the patient's lungs in the same manner as natural exhaling. Thus by varying the air action the "iron lung" causes a patient's lungs to inflate and deflate, and the chest to rise and fall as they would naturally.

All this is done by the motor, bellows and cylinder, regulated by gears, valves and gauges.

"PATIENT" FOR TESTS
Jack Dawson, employee of Bennett's Ltd., served as "patient" for tests of the adult "lung." He experienced no discomfort while the regular breathing pace was maintained by the machine. He had to breathe regularly and evenly and when speaking his words were cut off short when the "lung" made him inhale. He had no difficulty when exhaling.

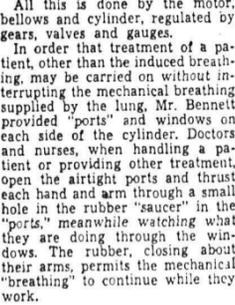

The adult "lung", as in use.

The baby "lung"

Below: Open and extended, ready to receive a patient, the adult "lung" looks like this.

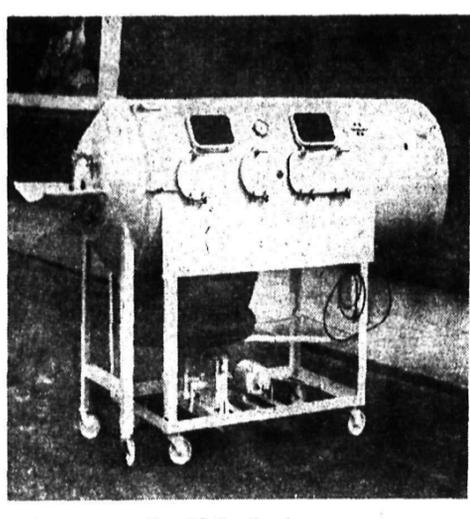

The deep breathing induced by the "lung" gave him a feeling of exhilaration which lasted until he went to bed, he stated.

All this is done by the motor, bellows and cylinder, regulated by gears, valves and gauges.

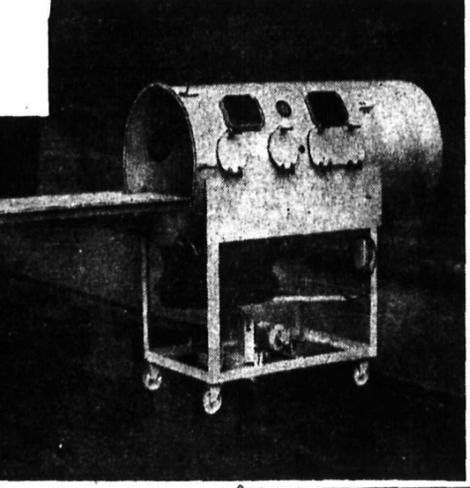

In order that treatment of a patient, other than the induced breathing, may be carried on without interrupting the mechanical breathing provided by the lung, Mr. Bennett provided "ports" and windows on each side of the cylinder. Doctors and nurses, when handling a patient or providing other treatment, open the airtight ports and thrust each hand and arm through a small hole in the rubber "saucer" in the "ports," meanwhile watching what they are doing through the windows. The rubber, closing about their arms, permits the mechanical "breathing" to continue while they work.

"PATIENT" ENCLOSED
To place a patient in the adult "lung" the front is detached and pulled forward, and a stretcher bed as pictured above slides out. The patient is placed upon a comfortable air mattress, head through the "port" at the detachable end, and with a soft rubber "collar" fitting around the neck. The "lung" is then closed and locked, and the machinery set in motion. From that point forward the motor takes care of the patient, eliminating even the necessity of trying to breathe, and anything that has to be done by nurses or doctors is done through the "ports."

Employing the same principle, but naturally smaller and hence requiring less elaborate "ports" and so on, the baby "lung" has even wider uses, for it has been constructed to serve either as a respirator or an incubator, or if necessary, both at the same time. Instead of opening at the end to place a patient in it, the baby "lung" has a lid. It will probably be of greatest value in saving the life of premature babies who enter the world under a handicap and who need the arm and it seemed likely, her doctor said after the treatment had been given, that the arm might be saved.

It is probable that the use of the baby "lung" in this manner may lead to the development of still another machine, designed to be used upon an arm or a leg. Such a machine would be smaller, possibly lighter, and so designed that it might be placed in the patient's bed, enclosing an arm or leg, instead of the patient being placed inside the "lung." Mr. Bennett is now working on such a "machine."

ONLY A START
Actually, the incident of the woman's arm serves only to illustrate the wide field in which "iron lungs" may prove of great value in warding off the effects of disease or accident. Certainly it is of first value in pulmonary cases such as infantile paralysis affecting the lung or throat, diphtheria, pneumonia, and so on; but it also has proved its value in treatment of carbon monoxide poisoning, lockjaw, food poisoning, gas poisoning, electric shock, smoke suffocation, heat prostration, blood clots alcoholic coma and so on. In stirring life in newborn babies its value has been proven over and over again.

It is eminently fitting that, in a progressive institution such as Kootenay Lake General Hospital, equipment of this nature should be available, and that residents of Nelson District should have at their command a machine that, through the cooperative genius of medical and mechanical science, provides another weapon in the continuing fight against disease, accident and death. It is, possibly, a spoke in the wheel of modern progressive methods that this great boon to humanity should be based primarily upon assisting Nature to do her work; and should find its greatest successes in cases where assistance to Nature has enabled that great power to effect cures still beyond the scope of today's advancing science.

SAVES AN ARM
It was the baby "lung" which, pressed into service, has probably saved a woman's arm already. The patient was suffering with a disease which interfered with circulation of the blood, and was threatened with the loss of her arm. She had already lost a leg. The arm was thrust through the collar of the lung, and the machinery was set in motion. The action, similar to that upon chest and lungs, revived circulation in

Canadians on Guard as King Returns
By FRED BACKHOUSE (Canadian Press Staff Writer).
LONDON, April 22 (CP Cable).—The King met his Toronto Scottish guard for the first time this morning when he returned to Buckingham Palace after a brief holiday at Windsor Castle.

There was no ceremony as the monarch, accompanied by the Queen, swept into the palace in an automobile. The battle-dressed Canadians smartly presented arms as the King saluted and the Queen acknowledged the cheers of a small crowd gathered before the gates.

Princess Elizabeth, 14 yesterday, and Princess Margaret Rose accompanied their Majesties. Later Queen Mary arrived for a family birthday luncheon party.

A Sergeant of Toronto Scottish was detailed to serve as orderly to the King and two other named as messengers will carry the Royal commands for the next four days.

Sightseers noted the Toronto Scottish have been allowed to retain their distinctive headgear while guarding the palaces. They carry the steel hats, now part of regulation equipment of the Royal Guard, slung at the left shoulder.

It is understood their Majesties will be present when the Toronto Scottish hand over to the next Royal Guard Tuesday. A large crowd yesterday watched the regiment take over guard duty at Buckingham and St. James's Palaces from the Royal 22nd Regiment of Quebec.

In every way, at the club's luncheon meeting at the Hume Hotel Monday.

Firemen in the Nelson Department worked 60 hours a week, and when they were not out practicing or otherwise working with their hands, they were studying matters which, Chief McDonald said, "even the best professors would say were hard."

It was up to the Fire Department of the modern day as a proving ground, to try out new equipment which was constantly being developed by scientific minds.

As someone said, "you can buy new buildings, but you can't buy life," the Chief quoted, so it was vitally necessary to practice constantly. This practice included rope knots, saving of life, ladder drill, hose drill, and so on. No two fires and no two hose hookups were exactly the same, the Chief said, so it was necessary to practice under new conditions at different times.

Some might believe it was a fireman's job to put out fires, and sometimes wondered why the departments were so interested in fire prevention. Many people thought that fire could never strike them, but Chief McDonald gave an instance of a building of concrete, with steel sashes, in which 115 lives were lost—"so it could happen to anyone." Some treated fires lightly because usually not a great amount of flames could be seen. Ninety-nine per cent of fires were on the interior of a building—"but look at the damage they do," he said.

A fire department needs cooperation in every possible way, and it was at a big disadvantage when civic authorities began to cut down costs to such an extent that they reduced the department staff and reduced water services. "Why, it jeopardizes the lives of your children and mine," the Chief said.

He suggested ways such as clearing out rubbish from the rear of stores, removing oily rags, and so on. Cigarettes caused 40 per cent of mercantile fires, so he urged the Rotarians and others to take particular care with smoking.

"It is your Fire Department, yours to be called on any time you want it, so let's work together," the Chief concluded.

R. W. Dawson thanked Chief McDonald on behalf of the Club for his address.

R. A. Peebles was in the chair in the absence of President George A. Hines, who is attending a Rotary International District Conference at Portland.

Mr., Mrs. E. J. Cook, in Nelson Since '21, Celebrate Their Golden Wedding

Married in Ontario; Saw Pioneer Days of Alberta

Fifty years of married life was celebrated by Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Cook of Nelson Monday. They were guests of honor at an "at home" at the residence of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Murphy, 719 Latimer Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Cook, who lived in Alberta to see the last big roundup of range cattle go South to the United States, and the coming of automobiles to the Prairies, have lived in Nelson since 1921, coming here from Lethbridge. They lived above the ferry on the North Shore on a ranch for 13 years, giving the up three years ago to live in the City. As soon as it is completed, they plan to move into a new house on Cedar Street, between Robson and Gore Streets.

Mr. and Mrs. Cook have lived under five British Sovereigns—Queen Victoria, Edward VII, George V, Edward VIII and the present George VI.

Mr. Cook who was a cheese maker and farmer by trade, was born July 4, 1861, at Unionville, Ont., 79 years ago. Mrs. Cook was born December 22, 1868, as Mary Ellen Squires at London, Ont., 72 years ago. They were married by Rev. Stephen Bond at the King Street Methodist Church, London, Ont., on April 22, 1880.

After living in London for 16 years, they travelled West to Alberta, settling just outside Lethbridge, in the "hard winter" of 1896-97. In the following Spring the last big drive of range cattle South Medicine Hat was present to celebrate the occasion. The eldest daughter, Mrs. Kirkwood Watson of Oakland, Calif., was unable to attend. Another daughter, Myrtle, died just before her seventh birthday, and a son, Leighton Cook, who taught school at Castlegar, died about three years ago.

There are eight grandchildren. The house was ablaze with cut flowers and posied plants, the gifts of their friends. Mrs. Cook's bouquet, made of a huge carnation surrounded by roses, was made in Medicine Hat by the same girl who made a bouquet for Queen Elizabeth when Her Majesty passed through the Alberta City on her Canadian tour last year.

WORLD'S GREATEST SHIPYARD CARVED FROM BELFAST MUDBANK

The greatest shipyard in the World, in Northern Ireland, is now working to capacity and employing over 20,000 people.

Few outside the British Isles realize the great part Northern Ireland is playing in Britain's wartime industry, including the production of "peaceful" goods for export all over the World. The famous Irish linen industry, for example, is now manufacturing solely for overseas customers.

Mention of shipbuilding is usually associated with thoughts of Tyneside, Merseyside, and Clydeside, the latter producing the Queen Mary, yet much of Britain's mercantile prestige was born on an Irish mudbank, in Belfast Lough.

Ships have been built at Belfast since 1636, and the World's greatest yard is now Harland & Wolff's, at Queen's Island. The word "island" was used because the earliest shipyards were little more than a waterbound patch of mud. After 200 years of minor developments, Edward James Harland, a very determined Briton, arrived in 1858 and began large-scale expansion works. Harland's difficulties in reclaiming land and carving a harbor and extended shipyards from the mudbanks were so great that he was advised to give it up.

"I have mounted a restive horse and I will ride it into the stable," was his reply, and his faith in himself and in the inherited skill of the Ulstermen working under him was justified.

Although passenger and merchant shipping is Belfast's specialty, it has also turned its hands to work successfully for the Admiralty, whose confidence it enjoys today.

NORWEGIAN LIVES DECLARED FORFEIT!

Germany has graciously given back to Norwegian prisoners their forfeited lives, as one of the items in the celebration of Hitler's birthday.

If the Germans should massacre defenceless Norwegian prisoners because they defended their country after being warned by the German Commander-in-Chief not to do so, the act would surpass in infamy anything recorded of a civilized country in modern times, in war practice.

In the Great War, it is true, the German forces seized hostages in every hamlet as they advanced in France and Belgium, and every shot fired by a civilian defender was answered by the execution of the hostages. Thousands of inoffensive persons were summarily executed in that campaign of terrorism.

But in the present case Germany decrees death to every Norwegian soldier or sailor, openly defending his country in uniform, and not capable of being accused, even by the wildest imagination, of acting deceitfully or treacherously. Hitherto, prisoners of war, once captured and rendered defenceless, have been considered entitled to honorable treatment.

Perhaps the capacity of the World to be shocked by German atrocities has been exhausted.

But if it can be further shocked, this proposal of the Germans to execute all Norwegians they capture in open warfare, if put into practice will be the crowning infamy that will have that effect.

Saint George

By GERALD S. REES

"They sailed wherever ships could sail"

It is said that the Welsh know all there is to be known about St. David, and the Irish something of St. Patrick; the man from Glangary knows very little of St. Andrew, and the Sassenach knows "nowt" about St. George, save that he is the patron saint of England which he thinks is high enough honor. However, long ere the Union Jack became the heraldic banner of the United Kingdom, the meteor flag of St. George—cross of red on field of white—flew at mast-head of all English ships as they roamed the seven seas on their more or less lawful occasions, and the White Ensign flown by the stately warships of the Royal Navy ("The Navy's in Norway") is based on it.

"STURM UND DRANG"

This anniversary, in the light of world conditions in our chaotic civilization, any observance of St. George's Day assumes special significance. England and her Empire's fight for freedom in the widest sense, from the Baltic to the Balkans, will be brought closer than ever to the hearts of many hundreds of Britons at home and overseas as they observe traditional ritual with a bit of a banquet (including "ye roast beefe of old England" (Pass the mustard, Bert!), a tankard of nut-brown ale (if procurable), and a bit of a pow-wow may be. All in honor of their patron saint of the sea and chivalry, Saint George of England.

"A rose by any other name would smell as sweet," wrote William Shakespeare, whose natal day coincides with this particular anniversary. This saying may be true, but a rose it is, England's national emblem, a lovely cluster of fragrant crimson, white and yellow petals. The rose will be worn today where available, even as the heather, the leek and the shamrock with true-blue-ites on their respective commemorations.

Perhaps the Sassenach chose Saint George because he felt the need for more color in his somewhat colorless career; he wanted, as it were, more sunshine with his showers, so he visioned a gallant Sir Galahad in knightly armor of silver and gold, with a magic shining sword, riding a gaily caparisoned charger across a sunlit landscape; and emblazoned his passage with the light and dignity of doughty deeds—and a few romantic escapades!

ST. GEORGE AND MERRIE ENGLAND

Records tell that martyrdom came to this slayer of Dragons in the early centuries, and history relates that the English people accepted him as their Number One Saint in the lusty reign of Richard Coeur-de-Lion; for long years after, the standard of St. George was invariably borne to battle before the Kings of England.

Looking back through the luminous years, and with the memory of our troublous times since the commencement of this streamlined century—well within the remembrance of this generation—one concludes that, all in all, the Sassenach of today is much the same kind of "stout fellow" who with sword and spear, spike and ball, fought with Henry at Agincourt, and cried "God for Harry, England and St. George!" and has ever since, justly or unjustly, been chasing dragons all over the world; at long last, he has caught up with the fiercest and most dangerous of them all, and faces the stiffest task imaginable in the Anglo-Saxon chronicles.

JUSTICE AND WORLDWIDENESS

The legend of St. George and the Dragon is hidden in the mists of antiquity with other hoary folk-lore, and is simple allegory. Let it be said that, in the past no dragon, however hideous or poisonous, has been able to prevail indefinitely. Truth will not remain "forever on the scaffold, wrong forever on the throne!" The mills of God grind slowly, but they grind exceeding small. Always by Eternal law, the despotic destroyer, especially if dependent on physical force as the medium of human will, has carried within itself the elements of its own annihilation and thereby encompassed its certain defeat. The era of the dragon was also the epoch of the crusader, and at whatever sacrifice, the latter, in individual or collective form, operating against injustice and intolerance, has finally conquered. Thus, the story of humanity until, under Divine Providence, the process of overturning comes to an end with the "Pax Christiana" and mankind emerges with a clear sense of brotherhood and with constant respect for the eternal verities, his thoughts wholly freed from the binding claim of racial and religious prejudice, hatred or fear of any class or group. There will be no return to the Dark Ages for Europe and the world at large. H.M.S. Great Britain is making heavy weather at present and roller-riding to cross seas; over yonder across the Western ocean, John Bull will be too much concerned with more urgent affairs than to make much ado over the legendary George, except perhaps to recall that the same associate qualities that enabled Britons to hold firm in the face of the "invincible" and equally fast for Armageddon Two. (Two cataclysmic wars on this dusty old planet in any one man's life is a plenty.)

LAND OF HOPE AND GLORY

The overseas Anglican however may give the occasion a passing celebration, for long voluntary exile cannot weaken his affection for the land of his birth, even if he now prefers the compensations and opportunities of life in the newer lands. "This realm, this England" abides as doth any other land in its solid soil, its history and in the words that poets have weaved around its achievements on land sea by its far-wandering people. But in each of her children, how- ever distant they may be from the land of their birth, there remains a vivid conservation of individual memories and impressions that survives all mutations of time and space; some differing fragment of that which for them is "Forever England", and which they carry in their hearts and cherish that it may be preserved from oblivion. . . . This love of native land is just one of those other things that he—and she—keep hidden within the inner recesses of the heart, and is seldom revealed in the blinding glare of accents and sights and sounds, of colors, tones, deep and splendid—like the lap of the wave on pebbly beach, or may-blossom in a trim-treed orchard in the Spring of the year; like the call of the cuckoo from the copse in an English dusk, or cloud-shadow on velvety slope of green, treeless down ribbed with Southland chalk . . . like some headland where the coastwise lights of England watch the ships of England go; the red earth on the rounded hills of Devon newly plowed, or a white winding road in the West Country, leading into the sunset "over the hills and far away" . . . the strong beat of the pulse that lies at the very heart of the Homeland.

THERE'LL ALWAYS BE AN ENGLAND!

And so "For all we have and are" in these terrible times, in this war of total obliteration and blitzkrieg bewilderment, on this genial day of Spring, let us quaff a loyal toast to ye memory of ye ancient George and for what he symbolizes in his more ancient realm of the Sassenach; for the men and women of "This England", the gateway of the years has been gently swung apart that this tiny bit of remembered England may be given them in their anniversary of the gallant George.

ONLY A MESSAGE FROM HOME SWEET HOME

Out on a Western ranch one night There met a reckless crew, When one said to another, "Jack, this letter came for you," "Spose it's from a sweetheart, boys," Said one among the crowd With laugh and jest they gathered round And Jack replied aloud:

Chorus: "It's only a message from home, From loved ones down on the farm, From wife and mother, sister and brother, Praying to guard me from harm. And baby is lispin a prayer tonight To bless me where ever I roam." "Well welcome you, Jack, If you'll only come back."

It is quite correct for an elder sister to announce the engagement of her younger sister. There is no specified time between the formal announcement of an engagement and a marriage. However, it is not usually announced until the wedding date is set.

THE IDEAL DIVISION
WHEN YOU have four trumps in one hand opposite four in the other, you have the most pliable distribution of eight cards of the suit. It empowers you to play the hand in a wider variety of ways than with any other division of the suit. For cross-ruffing it is by far the best arrangement, and on hands not adapted to that form of play it has another special value. Either your own holding or the dummy may be treated as the mester, using the trumps of the opposite hand for helping set up a side suit by ruffing out the opponents' winners.

Only Beginning of War Sacrifice Says Towers

Canadians Must Provide Cash for U.K. to Buy Supplies; Sacrifice of Material Things but Not Liberty of Thought and Action

MONTREAL, April 22 (CP)—Graham F. Towers, Governor of the Bank of Canada, told Canadians today their "sacrifices are still to come" and they must spend their money to buy shells, guns, ships, and airplanes rather than for private purposes.

Addressing the Montreal Canadian Club, Mr. Towers said increased incomes from war activity "must be returned to the State in the form of taxation or subscription to war loans. In the case of many, a larger percentage of pre-war income would have to be contributed or lent."

Canadians must provide Canadian dollars to the United Kingdom to enable the Mother Country to buy supplies from Canada and they must save enough to repatriate Canadian securities now owned in the United Kingdom.

He said this would be the reply to the claim of totalitarian states that Democracies "can't take it" in other words pull in their belts.

"The people in this country are going to have to think twice before they make expenditures that are not essential. They the going to have to ask themselves, 'can I do without this article— or this service—this cruise or this imported luxury?'"

"We shall only be asked to give up some material things—not our liberty of thought and action. If this situation is well understood, I have no doubts in regard to our ability to solve the problem."

The real cost of the war, Mr. Towers said, must be met out of current production. "There are no countries from whom we can borrow. We have to stand on our own feet."

The response to the first war loan was gratifying and it represented the very highest of distribution. "The Minister of Finance has stated that plans are being considered for the issue of War Saving Certificates. These will give the vast majority of our people the chance to play a real part in the war effort."

In a review of the operations of the Foreign Exchange Control Board Mr. Towers made the following summary of the past six months:

1. There has been no export of capital of any importance.
2. Stability has been preserved in the security markets and war financing has been successful on a large scale at reasonable rates.
3. Exchange rates have remained unchanged since Sept. 15.
4. We have a commencement of the task of providing Canadian dollars to the United Kingdom.

In other words the financial machinery is in good order. But what has been accomplished so far is only a fraction of what must be done before we reach the goal of victory.

He said that in operating exchange control every effort had been made to play fair as non-residents are concerned. "We have met all our obligations; indeed, we have gone further and allowed the withdrawal of Canadian dollar income at official exchange rates. In effect, what we have done is to ask the non-resident to leave his capital in this country, so that we may avoid curtailment of the resources which are needed for the conduct of the war."

"In doing so, I believe we are serving the non-resident's best interests as well as our own. Each of us, or no control, the great bulk of the foreigners' capital would have remained at risk in this country; and so foreigners were bound to have a vital stake, both in our ultimate success and in that degree of efficiency of organization which will leave us with a sound structure when peace comes."

Mr. Towers said those connected with the Control Board do not underestimate the inconveniences arising from "control" and he expressed appreciation for cooperation which had been shown in this country—and in the neighboring country as well.

If Canada did not provide Canadian dollars for the buying of war supplies in this country, Mr. Towers continued, then the United Kingdom would either have to forego the purchase of the supplies or use gold or United States dollars to pay for them.

But the treasure chest of the United Kingdom—that of France, was not bottomless. "We can assist by repatriation of Canadian securities now owned by residents of the United Kingdom. A start has been made on this program, the most important single transfer so far being the redemption of the Dominion Government 3 1/2 per cent loan which was outstanding in the London market in the amount of approximately £20,000,000. In carrying out this transaction, we bought sterling from the United Kingdom Control with which to pay off the bond holders, and the United Kingdom Control received $91,000,000 of Canadian money for use in this country."

Repatriation is not limited to Government bonds. Provincial, Municipal and corporate securities which are brought home to this country all contribute something to the stock of Canadian dollars reaching the hands of the United Kingdom authorities.

"A few weeks ago the Minister of Finance announced that arrangements had been made to permit sales of a limited volume of such securities through the normal channels of trade. I need hardly say that the whole process of repatriation requires and will receive careful supervision.

"This method of providing Canadian dollars is obviously not the same thing as granting credits—although it provides the same immediate results. Nor is it the same thing as spending money on our wartime activities. For when we repatriate securities, the country acquires a new asset. Nevertheless, the initial economic effect of repatriation are the same as if we were granting credits or spending the money ourselves.

"We are producing materials and supplies for the use of our people. Our production is, in fact, being exchanged for pieces of paper—valuable pieces of paper representing debts we had incurred in past years or shares of our corporations.

"It has recently been indicated that our war costs for the fiscal year which has just commenced might be at least $500,000,000. I cannot mention a definite figure for repatriation during this 12-month period. But whatever the figure may be, it has to be added to the $500,000,000 to give the total which our people must provide in taxes or savings to cover wartime requirements.

"The sum involved is extraordinarily large—so large that it presents a problem which can only be solved consciously and as a result of good organization and nationwide cooperation.

"In peace time we have great difficulty acting as a nation. Each segment of the people, each section of the country, each industry, tends to feel that it has special claims for consideration.

"In the hope that all these special claims will be shelved for the common good, and that while we demand equality of sacrifice we do not spend our time thinking up reasons why someone else should bear the burden.

"The call to serve in the armed forces is one which anyone can hear and understand. The call to serve on the economic front is often not so clear.

"But no one who knows the temper of the Canadian people can doubt for one moment their willingness to respond to any and every call which in their minds is related to the wholehearted and successful prosecution of the war."

British and French Ready to Discuss Problems With Italy

LONDON, April 22 (CP)—Although it is true that the Allies would not tolerate any unilateral change by Italy in the status quo of the Mediterranean area, it is premature to say that formal warning to this effect has been made in Rome, it was stated in diplomatic quarters today.

So far the British government has confined itself to indicating at Rome the unfavorable impression created in London by the tone of Italian newspapers and to seeking to ascertain whether the press campaign presages a change in Italy's policy of non-belligerence. So far these feelers have produced no response from the Italian Government.

The British and French Governments have already indicated to Italy that they are ready to undertake discussion of any question relating to the Mediterranean area.

The Anglo-French attitude is clear. The two governments are ready to discuss any question but hold that an unilateral act, especially intervention by Italy in a neighboring country, would lead to generalization of the war.

Reds Beat St. Louis and Ohio River

DETROIT, April 22 (AP)—The Cleveland Indians of the American Baseball League as they defeated St. Louis 5-2. Almost before South-paw Howard Mills had completed his warm-up tosses, the Indians had scored five runs in the first inning.

Hal Trusky was passed intentionally, filling the bases for Jeff Heath of Fort William, Ont., who cleared the bases with a triple. Harter Trotter stepped in and yielded a double to Ken Keltner, scoring Heath.

Harland Clift drove in all the Browns' runs, hitting a homer with Walter Judnich on base in the second inning.

Earl Averill's pinch single in the ninth inning sent two runs home and gave Detroit Tigers a 6-5 victory over Chicago White Sox in the other American League baseball game.

Detroit, trailing by three runs, punched across single tallies in the seventh and eighth to set the stage for the winning run.

Vallie Eaves, rookie White Sox righthander starting his first major league game, was effective part of the way but wildness annulled his efforts. Injuries forced Tiger Pitcher Lynn Nelson and Shortstop Luke Appling of the White Sox out of the game.

Continuing their undefeated and errorless way, Cincinnati Reds beat St. Louis Cardinals in the Ohio River flood as well yesterday, pouring out a 6-1 National League baseball victory behind Bucky Walters' seven-hit pitching as water lapped into Crosley Field.

Two three-run innings did the job, aided in each case by a Card miscue. A crowd of 5197 had to "puddle-jump" their way into the park.

Water stood a foot deep in both dugouts. The flood seeped into field-level seats behind third base as play started and with the Ohio River rising promised to cover the park by tomorrow.

Pittsburgh finally opened its 1940 baseball season at home, beating Chicago Cubs 9-5 before 10,461 fans in the only other National League game.

The Bowman received credit for the Pirates' triumph, although he was replaced in the seventh by Mace Brown. The Bucs took command in the fourth when Pop Young doubled to score two mates and Bowman singled sending Young home.

Old Man River Puffs Crimp in Cincy Ball

CINCINNATI, April 22 (AP)—They postpone games for rain, snow, dust storms, cold and in disguised form, lack of attendance, almost anywhere in the baseball world but this is the only town in the major leagues where a flood can be blamed.

Cincinnati Reds and St. Louis Cardinals are in an exciting race today to see who gets to the ball park first, the teams of the old Ohio River backing up Mill Creek.

The game was set up an hour to 2 p.m., in hopes of getting in nine innings. The two pitchers, Bucky Walters and Bill McGee have to throw fast before water starts welling up through the outfield drains.

No game has been postponed here in modern times because of flood, although there have been some close calls, but tomorrow's game, and maybe Wednesday's look like the river's.

Blue Devils Move to Game of Allan Cup With 9-1 Win

By WILLIAM H. DUMSDAY Canadian Press Staff Writer

TORONTO, April 22 (CP)—Kirkland Lake Blue Devils moved with a game of amateur hockey's highest award when they swamped Calgary Stampede 9-1 here tonight. The young miners from Northern Ontario's gold belt won the first of the best of five games series 8-5.

The Blue Devils removed any doubt as to their superiority as they outplayed and outscored the game Stampede in every period. The signal for their crushing triumph came half-way through the first period when they counted three well-earned goals within two minutes and 20 seconds.

Royals Take 2nd in Row From Cats

MONTREAL, April 22 (CP) — Gerry Heffernan scored three goals tonight to lead Montreal Royals to a 9-7 victory over Port Arthur Bear Cats, giving the Eastern Canada hockey team its second straight victory in a best-of-three exhibition series with last season's Allan Cup champions.

Duplicating the feat of Johnny Acheson, who led Royals to a 6-3 victory in the opening game on Saturday night, Heffernan got two of his goals in the last period and the other in the second session.

Royals, Eastern Canada champions in 1939 and semi-finalists this season, scored three goals in each of the periods while the Bear Cats, eliminated in the Western final this season by Calgary Stampede, scored two in the first, two in the second and three in the last session. Two of Port Arthur's third period goals came in the last 40 seconds.

Calgary's lone marker came late in the first period after a three-goal spurge by the Blue Devils. Howie Hill scored when he deflected Sid Fenn's shot from the blue line. Hill was just outside the crease and Bill Durnan, who performed brilliantly in the Kirkland Lake net, had no chance to save.

"The main idea . . . is to permit closer cooperation and interest between the various clubs in the district, and to gather information and recommendations from the clubs and submit same to the Game Department."

"We are in possession of a copy of the East Kootenay Rod and Gun Clubs Association constitution, and a brief synopsis will give you an idea of the association."

Canadian Goods Helped to Equip Troops in Norway

LONDON, April 22 (CP Cable)—Leslie Burgin, Minister of Supply, disclosed today that Canadian manufacturers helped equip the British forces fighting in Norway.

The Minister said Arctic equipment required for the expeditionary force was assembled by Canadian and United Kingdom manufacturers "in absolute secrecy within a month from the word go."

"I don't think any force has been so splendidly equipped in so short a time," he said. "I cannot praise too highly the manufacturers of Canada and England."

The equipment includes special vests, socks, footless stockings, arctic tents, mittens, gloves, goggles, fur caps, sleeping bags, sledges and everything connected with skiing and camouflage.

OTTAWA, April 22 (CP)—Purchases in Canada of munitions and war supplies for the British Government amounting to some $70,000,000 in the past six months, covered materials useful to a military campaign in Norway, officials of the British Supply Board said today.

The Board was interested in a cable from London quoting Leslie Burgin, Minister of Supply, in praise of Canadian manufacturers who co-operated in producing special equipment for the British forces in Norway.

Latest figures of Canadian purchases indicated the supply board already has contracted for materials to the extent of $70,000,000 in Canada for war essentials during the first year of the war.

Report Famous Officer Commands Army in Norway

LONDON, April 22 (CP)—One of the most distinguished of combatant officers of the first Great War, Major-General Adrian Carton de Wiart, is reported to be commanding the British forces in Central Norway.

Like General Viscount Gort, the Commander-in-Chief in France, the Commander in Norway is a holder of the Victoria Cross, won for conspicuous bravery in the war of 1914-18.

General Carton de Wiart, member of a distinguished Belgian family, was born in Brussels 60 years ago and joined the British Army from Oxford University.

He went to South Africa in 1901 to fight in the Boer War and twice was wounded. At the outbreak of the first Great War he served in Somaliland, East Africa, and was severely wounded, losing an eye. He was awarded the Distinguished Service Order.

The same year he re-entered active service in France and in three years of campaigning was wounded eight times. He lost his left hand.

In 1916 he won the V. C. at La Boisselle on the Somme when, during a German counter-attack, he walked toward the enemy trenches, leading his men who were beginning to falter.

He was a member of the British military mission which visited Poland last year.

Recaptured Prisoner to Stand Trial in Higher Court

VANCOUVER, April 22 (CP)—Norman Martin, prisoner at Okalla jail who is charged with escaping from custody, appeared before Magistrate H. S. Wood in Police Court today and was formally committed to stand trial in a higher court.

The prisoner, who had been sentenced to jail by a Victoria Police Magistrate on a charge of possessing narcotics, escaped from a downtown dentist's office in February and was at large more than a month.

2 Canadian Airmen Killed in Auto Crash

SYDNEY, N. S., April 22 (CP)—Two members of the Royal Canadian Air Force, both natives of Ottawa, were killed today when a Canadian National Railway's freight train struck their automobile at a level crossing three miles from here.

The dead are Corporal Hugh Powers, 28, and Corporal Cecil Hale, 32, Aircraftsman Thomas McLean, 30, Ottawa, and Harold Musgrave, 23, North Sydney, N. S., the other occupants of the car, were injured seriously.

A blinding snowstorm was blamed for the crash.

The car was owned and driven by Musgrave, employed at the C. N. R. Roundhouse at North Sydney. He was driving the three B. A. F. men to that town from Sydney.

The freight locomotive crumpled the light car like tissue paper. Wreckage was strewn along the right of way.

Powers and Hale, who had suffered fractured skulls, died shortly after being brought to the hospital here. McLean and Musgrave regained consciousness. Physicians said they had been seriously hurt.

NAZI PILOT KILLED

BRISBANE, April 22 (AP)—A German warplane shot down in a duel with three British fighters crashed today at Narcomont, near Neufchatel, in the Belgian Province of Luxembourg. The pilot was dead in the wreckage.

R.A.F. Planes Flown 800,000 Miles in War
LONDON, April 22 (CP)—British reconnaissance planes have flown 800,000 miles in 800 flights over Greater Germany since the start of the war, a Royal Air Force informant said today.

He declared that the losses had been small and that the scouting value of the flights amply justified them.

"Even at night Europe is not invisible from the sky," he said. "Under the moon the rivers, gleams and metal flashes, and the lighter mass of a town is plainly distinguishable from the darkened countryside around it."

In the first days of the war Royal Air Force flew over Wilhelmshaven and other naval bases. In the first weeks they flew over Berlin, in spite of searchlights playing over the city.

Royal Air Force planes also flew over Prague, Vienna and Bratislava, coming so unexpectedly that the lights of Vienna and Prague could be seen from a distance of 30 miles.

Photographs and important information were brought back by the planes.

OPPOSE DESTRUCTION OF B.C. BLACK BEARS
NEW WESTMINSTER, B. C., April 22 (CP)—The Pacific Northwest Bird and Mammal Society opposes the destruction of black bears and sea lions in British Columbia.

A resolution to this effect was passed at a meeting of the Society here Saturday at which 30 delegates from Washington, Oregon, Idaho and British Columbia were present. Dr. Ian McTaggart Coxon of Victoria was Chairman.

Dr. Coxon spoke on mountain sheep in North America and said there was an urgent need for conservation of these animals.

Aircrafts Active; Steady at Close

NEW YORK, April 22 (AP)—Stock market buying mainly was in specialties today, most leaders encountering difficulties in extending Saturday's rally.

Aircrafts and steels stepped out in the forenoon. They found the going a bit rough and the majority eventually subsided. Early selling was absorbed fairly well, however, and gains of fractions to more than a point predominated after midday. The pace slowed appreciably in the latter part of the proceedings and prices were no better than steady at the close. Transfers approximately 900,000 shares.

Touching new highs for the year—some eventually backed down—were Allied Mills, Celanese, Armour, Wilson & Co., International Paper, preferred, American Bosch and Bush Terminal.

Resistance was shown by United Aircraft, Curtiss-Wright, Du Pont, Allied Chemical, General Motors, Great Northern American Car & Foundry, Radio Corp., Studebaker, and Eastman Kodak.

Others were American Airlines, Lockheed, Sears Roebuck, Chrysler, Anaconda, International Mercantile Marine and American-Hawaiian Steamship.

Little Planting of New Trees at Creston

CRESTON, B.C.—Weather up to Monday continues backward, with unusually chilly nights. But even with only the minimum of sunshine the cherry trees are coming into bloom and give promise of an abundant crop.

Pruning operations are completed for the year in most orchards this has received careful attention having in mind a slim export trade and the necessity of producing apples in the sizes in demand on the domestic market.

From all points in the valley comes the report that the set out of new trees has been the lightest in years. Replacements have received the necessary attention, but nursery company agents state sales of trees for new orchard planting has been negligible.

Along with the attention to pruning, sales of fertilizer are exceptionally heavy. Much of this, of course, is going on the grain fields on the dyked area, but by no means all of it. A check on the sales to orchardists indicates more fertilizer is being used by the tree fruit and vegetable grower than was the case in 1939.

Brit. Gov't Bonds Are Strong

LONDON, April 22 (AP)—Stock market prices held firm today despite the restrictive influence of the pending budget statement. Government bonds finished on a strong note. General buying lifted.

Caribbean trends in tobacco, Breweries and store shares continued upward movements elsewhere. High light of trade in foreign issues was strength in German potash issues.

Belgium Bonds Gain

NEW YORK, April 22 (AP)—Near midday Belgium 6 1/2% had risen nearly 4 points and the 6% held unchanged on the bond market.

Italian bonds had losses running to around 2 points. Chopped down among the Italians were Rome 6 1/2%, Italian Public Utility 7s, Milan 6 1/2% and Italy 7s.

Chicago Prices Slip at Close

CHICAGO, April 22 (AP)—Wheat prices were more than a cent higher at one time today, establishing the best quotations posted here since 1937, but the market reacted sharply to news and contracts representing the 1940 crop closed fractionally lower.

Nervous and rather wide price fluctuations reflected buying conditions over the grain belt, with rains reported in some localities while showers were forecast overnight. Principal markets received almost twice as much wheat as they did a year ago.

When closed 1/4 cent lower to 3/4 higher compared with yesterday's finish. May 1 1/4-1 1/2, July 1 09-1 1/4; corn unchanged to 3/4 higher. May 65, July 65 1/2-66; oats 1/4-3/4 lower.

MONTREAL STOCKS CLOSE ON PLUS SIGNS

MONTREAL, April 22 (CP)—Stocks jogged along with plus signs in the majority in late dealings today. Nickel, Smelters and Hudson Bay Mining strengthened. Algoma Steel was slightly higher.

St. Lawrence Paper pfd., St. Lawrence Corp. pfd. and Bathurst and Dryden were minus narrow fractions. Canada Steamships issues, Imperial Tobacco, Mary Harris and National Breweries boarded moderate gains while Canadian Celanese and Distillers slipped small amounts.

Winnipeg Wheat Widens at Close

WINNIPEG, April 22 (CP)—Lack of selling pressure proved sufficient to hold wheat futures prices at higher levels throughout most of today's quiet session on Winnipeg Grain Exchange.

Quotations were up almost a cent at times, but slipped a little to finish 1/4 cent lower to 1/2 higher, May at 95, July 92 1/2 and October 94 1/2. With only light export sales of Canadian wheat reported, commission houses and domestic spreading supplied most of the pit activity. Extent of the market's underlying strength was demonstrated when it held firm while Chicago was slipping to lower levels.

It was not expected that overseas business in wheat would exceed 150,000 bushels.

Eastern Canadian interests were credited with picking up fair quantities of Nos. 1, 3 and 4 Northern.

Coarse grain operations were featured by a drop of six cents in flax. Country marketings totaled 283,000 bushels Saturday compared with 190,000 delivered to rural loading points on the same day a year ago.

BACON BOARD TO CONSIDER ACTION ON HOG PRICE DROP

WINNIPEG, April 22 (CP)—Hon. J. G. Taggart, Chairman of the Canadian Bacon Board and Saskatchewan Minister of Agriculture, today said the Board was considering what action could be taken in regard to the drop in hog prices.

He said no decision would be reached until next week's meeting of the Board.

Basic reason for the hog price decrease was that Canada still had more hogs coming to market and larger bacon supplies than the British contract would absorb.

1939 Steel Production Highest in History

HAMILTON, Ont., April 22 (CP)—President Ross McMaster reported today at the annual meeting of the Steel Company of Canada that steel production in 1939 reached the highest levels in the history of the company.

Mr. McMaster attributed the increase to the "extraordinary demand" which followed the outbreak of war.

The President reported that unfilled orders, though lower than at the close of last year, still "promise to support operations at a very satisfactory rate."

Reports for 1939 were approved and directors were re-elected. Mr. McMaster was reelected President.
