Canada, U.S. Call Joint Production Plan

Want Canada to Supply $300,000,000 Worth of Defence Goods in Year

By J. F. SANDERSON—Canadian Press Staff Writer
HYDE PARK, N. Y., April 20 (CP).—President Roosevelt and Canada's Prime Minister, W. L. Mackenzie King, declared tonight in a joint statement that they had discussed the "most prompt and effective utilization" of North America's productive facilities, both for assistance to Britain and other Democracies and for hemisphere defence.

Alexander Backs Sending of Men to Greek Battle

Increasing Toll of Germans at Sea Predicted

LONDON, April 20 (CP).—The first Lord of the Admiralty, A. V. Alexander, today attacked "arm-chair critics" of Britain's decision to send troops to Greece and declared to his London audience that tonnage of Italian transports destroyed by the navy runs into "six figures."

Mr. Alexander enumerated Britain's African victories and said: "It seems wrong in the circumstances for an arm chair critic to tell us we ought not to have risked our position in Libya to go to the aid of Greece. . . . I do not think the Government has any need to apologize for its decision."

He declared Britain would have to go on struggling "to get back to something like the escort position we had in the last war when we worked not only as a single fleet but had five powerful allied fleets and five times the number of destroyers we have now."

Late Flashes

LONDON, April 21 (Monday) (CP).—Three thousand Durham miners struck at midnight in sympathy with 10,000 others who have been on strike for two days on the question of a minimum wage for coal cutters.

BELFAST, Northern Ireland April 21 (Monday) (CP).—Nine districts covering the whole of Northern Ireland have been declared defence areas under an order by the Northern Ireland Minister of Public Security.

TOKYO, April 20 (AP).—A portion of the Japanese Press said today "it no longer is a crazy dream to expect a great war with Japan, Germany, Italy and Soviet Russia on one side, and United States, Britain and China on the other."

LONDON, April 20 (CP).—Three Italian planes were shot into the sea at Malta today and a fourth "is unlikely to have got home," the British Broadcasting Corporation reported tonight.

SYDNEY, April 20 (CP-Cable).—Fadden, condemning what he termed the exaggerated space given to sport in the Australian Press "when the Empire is fighting for its life," hinted tonight that compulsory subscription may be exacted if Australia's forthcoming war loan is inadequately supported.

By J. F. SANDERSON—Canadian Press Staff Writer

HYDE PARK, N. Y., April 20 (CP).—President Roosevelt and Canada's Prime Minister, W. L. Mackenzie King, declared tonight in a joint statement that they had discussed the "most prompt and effective utilization" of North America's productive facilities, both for assistance to Britain and other Democracies and for hemisphere defence.

"It was agreed as a general principle," they said, "that in mobilizing the resources of this continent, each country should provide the other with a defence article which it is best able to produce, and, above all, produce quickly, and that production programs should be coordinated to this end."

The decision was reached while Mr. King was a guest of the President for nearly eight hours at Mr. Roosevelt's Hudson Valley home.

They said in their statement that it was hoped Canada, during the next year, could supply the United States with $300,000,000 to $500,000,000 worth of defence articles "urgently required by the United States."

They mentioned "certain kinds of munitions, strategic materials, aluminum and ships."

While technical and financial details remain to be worked out, it was understood between the leaders of the two nations that Canada would receive payment for the supplies so as to meet part of the cost of Canadian defence purchases in the United States.

Canadian purchases, the joint statement said, would be even greater in the coming year than in the past.

"Insofar as Canada's defence purchases in the United States consist of component parts to be used in equipment and munitions which Canada is producing for Great Britain," the statement said, "it was also agreed that Great Britain would obtain these parts under the Lend-Lease Act and forward them to Canada for inclusion in the finished article."

The statement also said the decision for utilization effectively of production facilities was "among other important matters" which the President and Prime Minister discussed.

What those other matters were was not disclosed, but there were numerous other topics which the President and Prime Minister could have considered.

The statement tonight was given to reporters shortly before the two statesmen went their different ways. Mr. Roosevelt was heading back to Washington and Mr. King to Ottawa.

It was believed the President and Mr. King discussed topics ranging from Canada's financial position, the final plan of the Canada-United States Joint Defence Board and steps that might be taken by Washington to relieve the shipping position in the Atlantic. In this regard, the possibility was discussed by observers that Halifax would be removed from the congressionally-declared combat zone.

The Prime Minister arrived in Poughkeepsie early in the afternoon from New York and was driven to Hyde Park in a White House car. The conferences started soon after his arrival at the Roosevelt family home on the Hudson.

Export Permit Branch to Centralize Control

OTTAWA, April 20 (CP).—An export permit branch is to be established in the Department of Trade and Commerce to centralize control of the issuance of export permits, it was announced tonight by the Prime Minister's office. Order-in-council establishing the branch becomes effective May 5.

The order provides that the Trade Minister (Hon. J. A. MacKinnon) may issue regulations governing the granting of permits. A consolidated and revised list of export permit regulations will be issued shortly, tonight's announcement said.

DIES FOLLOWING CRASH

EDMONTON, April 20 (CP).—W. S. Jones, 55-year-old veteran of the imperial army in the first Great War, died in hospital today from injuries suffered a day earlier when the motorcycle on which he was riding collided with an automobile in Norwood District. His death was the first fatal traffic accident in Edmonton this year.

C.I.O. Seeks Wage Boost in Canada for Steel Plants

MONTREAL, April 20 (CP).—The Congress of Industrial Organizations' Steel Workers Organizing Committee decided tonight to seek a minimum wage of 62½ cents an hour for laborers in Canada's steel plants.

The rate, recommended in a resolution adopted by a wage, hour and policy conference of the S.W.O.C. which met here this weekend, compares with existing wage minimums varying from 30.7 cents an hour in some plants to 45½ cents in the Dominion's major steel mills.

In addition to recommending the wage increase, which would compare with a 72½-cent minimum recently granted workers in major United States steel plants, the conference adopted a resolution opposing a Dominion order-in-council which set 1925-29 wage levels as the top limit for wages in all industries during the war but provided for bonuses in the event of increases in the cost of living.

The conference recommended all representatives of the Canadian Congress of Labor on the National Labor Supply Council resign immediately in protest against alleged misuse of the body by the Government.

HAILE SELASSIE TO GO BACK TO ADDIS ABABA

LONDON, April 20 (CP).—Arrangements for the return of Emperor Haile Selassie to Addis Ababa, the Abyssinian capital, "are progressing with all speed," the British Broadcasting Corporation reported tonight. The Emperor has been in Abyssinia for some time with native patriot forces.

BE READY TO GO TO EGYPT WARNS SMUTS

CAPE TOWN, Union of South Africa, April 20 (CP Reuters).—Prime Minister Smuts said in a speech here Saturday that South African troops must be ready to "go right up to Egypt" when the call comes.

SYDNEY, N.S.W. (CP).—Government inspectors and police have seized thousands of pairs of defective army boots intended for Australian overseas forces.

GERMANS MAY BE FORCED INTO CONFERENCE

BERLIN, April 21 (Monday) (CP).—Reports were current in Berlin tonight that despite the fact the Greek campaign is in full force, the Germans may be forced to call a "Balkan adjustment" conference, presumably in Vienna.

28 Men Escaped From Northern Ontario Camp Through Tunnel; Police to Join Hunt; Snow Hits Area

PORT ARTHUR, April 20 (CP).—Reports from the snowbound Northwestern Ontario District where 28 German prisoners of war escaped from an internment camp Friday night indicated tonight that three of the escaped men are dead and that only nine remain at large.

The reports were meagre and details were lacking but one report from Schreiber, Ont., 130 miles East of Port Arthur, said three of the escaped men were understood to have been killed and that it was believed in Schreiber they were in addition to the 16 Germans previously reported recaptured.

Officers in charge of the internment camp refused to give any information on the intensive manhunt in the rocky bush country North of Lake Superior.

It was learned the men escaped through a tunnel from their quarters in the camp, probably about midnight Friday. The Schreiber report tonight said the beginnings of several tunnels had been discovered in the camp but that all but the escape tunnel had been abandoned because they apparently had encountered underground obstructions such as large rocks.

The Schreiber report said "eight or 10" Ontario Provincial police officers had left Schreiber tonight for the camp and that "they apparently were expecting trouble" in their efforts to recapture the men remaining at large.

Officers at Ontario Provincial Police district headquarters here said that reports late tonight showed only 18 of the escaped men had been recaptured although they said they had been advised earlier that 18 had been retaken.

Eleven of the men were captured yesterday as a cordon of police, soldiers and civilians circled a wide area around the camp. Today a raging snowstorm blanketed the district.

The reports here said seven of the escaped men were taken this morning but go details of the captures were given.

Mrs. Dave Duncan of Schreiber, Ont., correspondent of the Port Arthur News-Chronicle, told The Canadian Press she had learned that the prisoners escaped some time after roll call at eight p.m. Friday by tunnelling from their quarters in the camp. The men had left camp guards, she said, and it was believed the escape occurred about midnight.

Those engaged in the manhunt believed the heavy storm, one of the most severe in this district this year, would assist in foiling efforts of the Germans to make their way out of the district.

Rain and wet snow fell during the night and early today, as the temperature dropped, the snow continued, piling up drifts three feet deep, swept before a strong North wind. It was still snowing late today with no prospect of an immediate let-up.

War Is in "Very Grave Phase" Is Weygand Belief

By WILLIAM McGAFFIN Associated Press Staff Writer

ALGIERS, April 20 (AP).—Gen. Maxime Weygand, Commander of French forces in North Africa, expressed the belief during an interview today that the war had entered a "very grave phase" and reaffirmed his determination to defend French North Africa against any invader.

He said unity of both Empire and the French Motherland remains constant.

"In your opinion as one of the world's best known military experts, has the war entered a real decisive state?" I asked him.

"That would be difficult to say," he replied. "Modern weapons offer a strong offensive method but permit also an equally persistent and prolonged defence. But if the war has not reached a decisive point it has reached a very grave phase."

The conversation turned to President Roosevelt's decision to declare the Red Sea no longer a combat zone and thus permit American ships carrying war materials to go there.

Gen. Weygand agreed this created a new situation for North Africa. Asked about the reaction of French North Africa he said:

"The word reaction involves two things: one physical, the other mental. The physical side poses the question of defence, the mental side the question of opinion. I don't know what the opinion is."

Two Royal Air Force Men Killed, Manitoba

CARBERRY, Man., April 20 (CP).—Two Royal Air Force men, Lacs Joseph Horace Giles, 21, and Lacs John Arthur Camp, 21, both of England, were killed Saturday afternoon when their Harvard training plane crashed during instrument flying practice 12 miles West of this town, 100 miles West of Winnipeg.

Royal Canadian Air Force officials in charge of the No. 33 Service Flying Training School said cause of the accident was not determined.

Lacs, of Croxley Green, Hertfordshire, was pilot of the plane at the time of the accident, and Lacs Camp of Ilkeston, Derbyshire, a passenger.

Scottish Towns Hit by Raiders

LONDON, April 20 (CP).—German daylight raiders strafed two Scottish towns today, killing a boy and injuring 10 persons, then returned to British skies tonight.

London sirens sounded an alert after dusk quickly followed by the raiders' searchlight.

Other high-flying Nazi formations, soaring through cloudless Channel skies, also attacked the Southeast coast, where the sound of machine-gun fire and cannons of diving planes were heard. One raider headed toward this area was intercepted and shot down into the Channel.

The Royal Air Force staged day-long raid on German shipping in the Channel and against Brest and other targets on the Nazi-held French coast.

The Air Ministry announced British bombers Saturday sank a 5,000-ton Axis supply ship and damaged another of 7,000 tons off the Netherlands coast.

RETREATING ITALIANS SHOT DOWN BY NAZIS

NEW YORK, April 20 (CP).—Edward Chorlian, Cairo correspondent of Columbia Broadcasting System, said in a broadcast Saturday night that Italian troops attempting to fall back during an attack on the British defences at Tobruk were shot down by German supporting forces to the rear.

Canadian Budget May Come Down in Week

OTTAWA, April 20 (CP).—Methods by which the Government will meet its heavy war expenditures at home and in the United States are expected to be disclosed when Finance Minister Fliley presents his budget.

This may be some time next week, possibly April 28.

With war expenditures now authorized up to $1,300,000,000 for the current fiscal year and ordinary estimates of another $400,000,000—with the likelihood that both may go much higher—the ways and means of raising this huge amount of money are of unusual interest.

Line Is Unbroken; New King-Premier Urges Greeks On

Axis Attacks in Albania "Repelled With Heavy Losses;" British Abandon Mt. Olympus; Retreat Orderly

By J. WES GALLAGHER—Associated Press Staff Writer

ATHENS, April 20 (AP).—King George II in the dual role of Monarch and Premier called upon all Greeks tonight to defend their nation "to the very end" as British and Greek troops fell back before the massed charges of German "blitz-men."

Just after completing a streamlined cabinet, the King-Premier in a broadcast message appealed "to the Greek people, to all who are fighting at the front, as well as to all who are contributing to the war efforts behind the lines, to remain united and steadfast, to carry on the fight for the country's honor and independence."

The King indicated he would continue in his twin capacity only temporarily and urged all Hellenes to help perform their "supreme duty to the country."

"God Save Greece," he said in conclusion.

British troops abandoned Mount Olympus to the Germans in a retreat covered by heavy rearguard fighting. To the West, the Greeks also were reported falling back.

Informed British military sources acknowledged that the situation was "serious" but said that the Allied Forces are retreating in orderly fashion and maintaining an unbroken line.

All arms were brought into action. The Germans were giving the heaviest possible air support to their armored units charging British and Greek lines.

King George entrusted the posts of Vice-Premier and Minister of Marine to a veteran naval career man, Admiral Alexander Sakellariou, after two other leaders failed to form a cabinet.

The Greek High Command said two attacks in Albania on the Greeks were "repelled with heavy losses" and added the enemy was "chased beyond his original positions."

The High Command also noted great activity of enemy aviation in Macedonia and Thessaly, where the Germans are pressing the Allies.

The Ministry of Home Security reported dive-bomber raids on Piraeus, Port of Athens, and the Elis and Megara regions caused damage and casualties but cost the Germans five bombers. Other sections of Greece also were attacked by Italian and German raiders.

The Greek Press Ministry in a radio bulletin said that "all violent efforts by the enemy to force a decisive and immediate issue have failed" and that German losses are "enormous."

The Ministry reported the Germans "attempted at all costs to force passes" in the Kaimaktsalan area but they "failed" and paid dearly for the failure in casualties.

The Germans also sacrificed soldiers "by the thousands" in the Olympus area, the Ministry said.

Mount Olympus, where British sources have told of pulling up German dead with murderous fire down its shell-blackened slopes, was abandoned by the British and Imperial troops before it was taken by the Germans, British sources declared.

The Germans continued to hurl masses of troops into battle regardless of cost, but in spite of the fighting the retreatment was said to be proceeding according to plan.

"By able handling and determined fighting, the rearguards have succeeded in delaying the German advance and have inflicted heavy casualties on the enemy," a British communique said.

The Royal Air Force is playing a major role in fighter patrols intercepting German dive bombers escorted by Nazi fighters when they attempted attacks on Allied forces and shot down, without a single loss, 10 German planes and seriously damaged "many others."

ATHENS, April 20 (AP).—Admiral Alexander Sakellariou, a navy career man, tonight formed a half-military, half-civilian cabinet with King George II as Premier.

The Admiral took the post of Vice Premier.

The Cabinet was reduced from 20 posts to 10.

It was disclosed Saturday that Premier Alexandros Koritsis, who died Friday, took his own life because of anguish over Greece's unequal struggle with Germany and Italy.

The 56-year-old Premier, less than three months in office, shot himself at his home.

BERLIN, April 20 (AP).—German troops have pushed back the British troops and their crazy mountain defences to Trikklala on the Thessalonian Plains, the German High Command claimed today while Greeks on the West are falling back "apparently disbanding in some place" before advance of the Italians.

Trikklala is an important railway centre 45 miles Southwest of Mount Olympus.

Population of this town of 22,000 would mean Nazi command of a 40-mile strip stretching Eastward to Larisa. Both towns are connected by the East-West railroad cutting through Central Greece and touching the ports of German-held Salonika and Volos.

Reposition of the motor transport in the Dodecanese islands, a general headquarters communique said today, and in the latest assault lost four out of a dozen tanks which penetrated the outer defences.

The other eight tanks hastily retreated, the communique said.

Fighting still went on in the area of Salum, the little post just within the Egyptian frontier. A British communique said British mobile columns and patrols "again caused the enemy serious losses and a number of prisoners has been taken."

The Royal Air Force Middle East Command told of extensive British air raids in Eastern Libya and Tripolitania.

"Motor transport vehicles were destroyed in numerous localities, including Acroma, El Adem, Bardia and Menastir by bomb and machine-gun attacks," a communique said. Axis planes were bombed and damaged at Derna airbase and an attack was made on the Berka airbase, it added.

British airmen raided Bengali and Tripoli harbors on Friday night and started fires on moles and quays.

A German bomber was shot down over Tobruk and several others damaged in aerial combat.

British columns were still advancing on Dessie, Ethiopia, the headquarters communique said. Capture of 200 additional prisoners was reported. In Southern Ethiopia, it added, "our pursuit of the retreating Italian forces is proceeding in increasing degree by patriot (native Ethiopian) activities."

British and South African fighters continue to machine-gun motor transports in the Dodecanese islands as well as Italian fortifications and military buildings.

BERLIN, April 20 (AP).—Hitler celebrated his 52nd birthday today in a flower-festooned railway dining car surrounded by his military leaders "somewhere on the Balkan front."

U.S. Forest Fires Threaten City; Homes Destroyed
By The Associated Press
Fires swept over thousands of acres of forests in New Jersey, Massachusetts and Maryland Sunday and wardens kept watch all along the Eastern seaboard of the United States as a two-week dry spell made a tinder-box of wood-land preserves.

The most serious fire was in the Jersey pine-lands near Lakewood, where the business and main residential sections of the resort town of 8000 was threatened before firemen turned the blaze aside.

Twenty-five homes in Lakewood, many of them in the vicinity of the Kibbutz Hospital, a 45-bed institution, were destroyed. The hospital was saved.

Firemen from scores of municipalities, some 50 and 60 miles away, fought the Lakewood blaze and used dynamite to halt it.

Thirty fires broke out in New Jersey during the day. Three thousand soldiers battled one major and two minor fires on the Fort Dix artillery range.

Fanned by 40-50 mile winds, fires for a time endangered the barracks at Fort Devens, Mass.

Some homes were destroyed and many families forced to flee.

Vzvolod Glazoff, 52, former officer in the Russian Imperial army, died of a heart attack while defending his Lakewood home.

Eight persons received hospital treatment for smoke inhalation here, but no serious injuries were reported.

Hundreds of acres of Leominster, Rutland, North Andover, Dover, Woburn and Wilmington were burned over in the Massachusetts fire.

Scores of homes and some churches were reported destroyed in Maryland as strong North winds swept flames through tinder-dry forests carrying one blaze out of control toward Baltimore. A fire line was set out near the Baltimore city limits.

Rossland Total Drive for War Services $2720

ROSSLAND, B. C., April 20 — A total of $2720 has now been collected in Rossland for the Canadian War Services Fund. This is the report of the treasurer, W. G. Mura. As there are still three teams to bring in their final figures, it is expected that the drive will eventually reach the $3000 mark.

It was announced last week that the objective of $2500 had already been oversubscribed. The exact amount at that time was $2356. Since then a further $100 has been collected.

Mayor John E. Gordon, Chairman of the Local Committee, expressed his thanks to the canvassers and team captains and to the citizens who have responded so well to the appeal. It is hoped that a similar response will be given to the Fall drive which will amalgamate all community and patriotic appeals for 1942 with the exception of War Savings purchases.

The Committee for the War Services Fund campaign was as follows: Chairman, J. E. Gordon; Secretary, E. E. Perkins; Treasurer, W. G. Mura; Campaign Manager, L. V. McLeod; Team Captains, J. Wright, L. DeLong, W. McKenzie, L. Hamilton, H. Christian and Capt. E. Robertson. L. Hamilton took over the office of Campaign Manager following the illness of L. McLeod.

Funeral services were W. J. Reynolds, R. W. Gillespie, Harry Crowe, C. W. Hartley, J. L. Beattie and H. M. McGowan.

Mr. Longden died Wednesday.

Urge U.S. Doctors to Serve Britain

HYDE PARK, N. Y., April 20 (AP). — President Roosevelt tonight urged young American doctors to volunteer for service in military and civilian hospitals of "our British friends."

He said that the British Red Cross had appealed through the American Red Cross for as many as 1000 young United States doctors to help it meet "an acute shortage" of physicians in British hospitals.

"As President of the American Red Cross," Mr. Roosevelt said, "I heartily approve this request."

He said his views were shared by the surgeons general of the army, and public health service and that the doctors whom Britain "so desperately needs can do much to heal the wounds inflicted alike upon civilians and military in this cruel war."

The physicians who volunteer, the President explained, will be enrolled by the British Red Cross and be protected by the Red Cross Treaty of Geneva.

"I am also informed that the division of medical sciences of the National Research Council, the American College of Surgeons and the American College of Physicians have offered their assistance to the American Red Cross in meeting this emergency," Mr. Roosevelt's statement said.

Details of the plan, ready for immediate operation, were announced in an editorial of the Journal of the American Medical Association.

Successful applicants would serve for at least a year with the emergency medical service, treating principally civilian air raid and service casualties in Great Britain, or at Royal Army Medical Corps stations in Egypt, Palestine, India, Burma, Malaya, China and East and West Africa.

The volunteers, the editorial said, would not be obligated to enter military or naval service or to take an oath of allegiance to Great Britain.

Britons Are Determined to Ensure Better, Warless World Rees Tells Churchmen; Talks on "This Freedom"

"This Freedom" was an address to St. Saviour's Churchmen's Club Sunday evening by Gerald S. Rees in which he outlined some of the fundamentals for which Britons stand in relation to the world-spreading war.

"Motherland," he said, "in this her finest hour, has come to see that the essential qualities of honorable living can only flourish in the soil of freedom. It is the core of the Christian Faith. 'We must be free or die, who speak the tongue of Shakespeare' spoke. The island Kingdom, standing in ashes but not in sackcloth, is civilization's only actual champion as the clock ticks off the seconds of this fateful year. The chalk cliffs of Dover and the ocean highways are the bastions that must be held. Come win, come weather—if 'This Freedom' is to be preserved."

Mr. Rees said the front line had now become the last ditch, and the last ditch was the exact spot where every man, whether on the home or fighting front, had to show the sort of stuff from which he was made.

"We see as never before the absolute determination of the British people—without any sense of defeatism—to ensure that from this conflict shall emerge the blueprint of a better and warless world."

Quoting the couplet—"Not once or twice in our rough island story, The path of duty was the way to glory," the speaker stated where no detours were allowable on the glory road. It was hard going and would be harder still. Journey's End would find Britain and the Empire with but little margin to spare, yet the longer the war lasted, the clearer became the fundamental issues involved.

The speaker concluded with: "This may well be the darkest hour before the dawn; the bells of the Homeland churches, symbolic of the virtues of the Christian Faith, no matter what the creed, are tonight sad and silent in their sleep. But some day at the appointed hour, they will peal forth the gladsome refrain—'Peace on Earth, Goodwill toward men.' Let us therefore lift up our hearts on this peaceful Sunday evening and know through our innermost inspiration that when twilight comes to end the fantastic day's caprice we, not only as individuals but as a people and race, shall endure beyond all these immediate bewilderingments, and continue, in perseverance, the onward and upward march toward our pre-ordained Divine Destiny."

Pedal Way to Kimberley as Easter Outing

Nelson Boomer and Ian Currie, Nelson High School students, returned Sunday from an unusual "biking" holiday in East Kootenay. Leaving Nelson Tuesday afternoon to catch the last Main Lake ferry, the boys spent the first night at Creston, and reached their destination, Kimberley, by 6 p.m. Wednesday. They were the guests for two days of Allan DesChamps, a hockey team-mate, who was at Chapman Canyon for the week visiting his father.

Leaving frost-bound Kimberley at 5 a.m. Nelson time Saturday, the boys decided to push right through, and would have made home that evening but for Boomer's bicycle suffering a break at Kitchener that required welding. In the end it was decided that Boomer should try to get a lift, as his bicycle could only be carried, and that Currie should push on the delay was just sufficient to make Currie miss the ferry, and he spent the night at Gray Creek. Meantime Boomer obtained a lift to Creston, unexpectedly found a machinist who was able to repair his bicycle, and then pushed on at night to within nine miles of Gray Creek, spending the night in the barn of a friendly rancher, who lent him a blanket. He caught up with Currie for breakfast at Gray Creek, and the boys came on by the first ferry, making Nelson in time to complete their round trip just five days from when they left. By way of a change, they were pedaling around Nelson Sunday afternoon.

For Currie it was his second trip of the Easter holidays, as he and Bill McDermott completed Good Friday a two-day circle trip up the Main Lake, through the Slocan from Kaslo to New Denver, and back to Nelson by the Slocan Valley.

Rumania Threatened by New Civil Strife; Break With Axis Is Hinted

BUDAPEST, April 20 (AP). —Hungarian circles said today that German-occupied Rumania dangerously near a new outbreak of civil strife and interpreted a strongly worded patriotic message by the Rumanian Premier, Gen. Antonescu to his people as indicating a break with the Axis.

The Rumanians were reported in a Transylvanian dispatch to have halted traffic along the Bulgarian and Hungarian borders, with shots heard day and night by guards firing at anyone who attempted to leave the country.

Antonescu, in an Easter message Saturday (today is the Orthodox Easter) spoke of Rumanian reverses and loss of territory, but said "justice and God's love will save us and the Rumanian people will rise again from death."

He also said the Rumanian army was ready to fight and quoted an order of Gen. Gheorghe in which the commander-in-chief declared that "it is the holy duty of the army to wipe out the shameful blot of 1940."

If the Premier's message meant that he has broken with the Axis, some Hungarians asserted he was running the risk of being crushed between the millions of the Iron Guard and the Axis powers.

Inflammatory leaflets strongly reminiscent of former Iron Guard writings again are being distributed by the thousands, Hungarian reports said.

One Rumanian newspaper commented the order, calling also for "the army to blot out the shame of 1940."

St. George's Day to Be Memorable One for Nelson

Plans to make St. George's Day—Wednesday—a memorable one in Nelson, are well advanced. Decoration of streets, residences and business houses will set the scene for a huge parade Wednesday afternoon from the business section to Lakeside Park, where a program emphasizing the significance of the day and giving Nelson's Salute to Britain will be staged.

The program, involving the Veterans Guard, war veterans, Women's Training Corps, Civilian Voluntary Training Corps, High and Junior High Cadets, school children generally, and other organizations, will be one of the highlights. It is expected the parade will leave the business section at 2 p.m. As many bands as are available will participate.

At the Park community singing of patriotic songs and brief addresses by Nelson's best speakers will be featured. A public address system will be installed.

Wednesday afternoon has been proclaimed a civic holiday.

Honor Saint in Church Services

St. George, patron saint of England was honored by commemorative services in Nelson churches Sunday. The services, together with the war veterans' Ypres Day ceremonies, also marked the opening of the Salute to Britain Week, which will be climaxed locally by a city-wide commemoration on St. George's Day, Wednesday.

Centra of interest were the services at the Church of Redeemer and St. Saviour's Pro-Cathedral to where Scouts, Cubs and Guide units paraded for their annual St. George's Day commemorative services. Ex-service men and Canadian Legion members, following their parade to the Cenotaph and ceremonial, paraded to the Pro-Cathedral where further honor was paid.

St. George's Day of the First Great War and of the present struggle. Rev. J. G. Holmes also dedicated a flag presented to the Girl Guide Company by Kokanee Chaplain, I. O. D. E.

Patriotic services were also held at St. Paul's and Trinity United Churches.

Atonement Theme of Lesson-Sermon

Christian Science Churches have no preachers. They have the same service everywhere. The subject of the Lesson-Sermon on Sunday was "DOCTRINE OF ATONEMENT."

The Golden Text was: "All things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given us as the ministry of reconciliation." (II Cor. 5: 18).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "And they shall teach no more every man his neighbor, and every man his brother, saying, Know me; for they shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the Lord; for I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more." (Jeremiah 31: 34).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Every pang of repentance and suffering, every effort for reform, every good thought and deed, will help us to understand Jesus' atonement for sin and all its efficacy; but if the sinner continues to pray and repent, sin and be sorry, he has little part in the atonement—in the at-one-ment with God—for he lacks the practical repentance, which reforms the heart and enables man to do the will of wisdom."

British Houses of Parliament Hit During Raid

LONDON, April 20 (CP).—Both Houses of Parliament were damaged in recent air raids, it was announced officially last night. All of the windows of the House of Commons library were destroyed, a large water tank was smashed and Nazi bombs ripped a hole in the roof over the Members' lobby.

The Parliament Buildings had suffered damage from bomb hits last autumn.

The latest damage included bomb hits on the Speaker's House in the inner quadrangle. The Speaker, Capt. E. A. Fitzroy, was not in the residence and no one was injured.

The Commons suffered more than the Lords. In addition to the windows of the library, where members spend much of their time even when Parliament is not sitting, being blown out, the contents were damaged.

Along the terrace by the Thames hundreds of windows were shattered and the apartments of the Office Keeper were struck.

Neither House was in session. There were no casualties among the staff or the firewatchers on duty.

Newsmen assumed the United States was the fourth party meant.

WOODEN SHOES REPLACE LEATHER IN NORWAY

WASHINGTON, April 20 (AP).—Wooden shoes are replacing leather-soled shoes in German-occupied Norway as a result of a leather shortage, authoritative information received in diplomatic quarters here showed yesterday.

The wooden shoes, it was reported, are another indication of a growing list of inconveniences, hardships and prohibitions which beset the Norwegians under Nazi domination.

Imperial Forces Arrive in Iraq

LONDON, April 20 (CP).—Britain moving to forestall any possible Axis thrust toward the prized oil fields of Iraq, has landed strong imperial forces to "open lines of communication" through that country which was the scene of a government overthrow 18 days ago.

An official British announcement said the troops landed at Basra, at the head of the Persian Gulf.

The announcement said that the "new Iraq administration, true to Sayid Rashid Ali Al Gailani (Iraq Premier) are affording full facilities and have sent a high officer to Basra to welcome the commanding British officer and to collaborate with him."

Authorized sources said the imperial troops had been given a warm welcome by the population at Basra, and that the cooperation of the Iraq Government in making possible the execution of this new move had made a favorable impression here.

They added that the circumstances gave rise to the hope that "more normal relations" between Great Britain and Iraq might soon be established.

The welcome given the troops by the natives was attributed in part to Iraq's memory of British and Indian soldiers of the last war.

The announcement said the new Iraq administration of Sayid Rashid Ali al Gailani was cooperating in receiving the British expedition, and foreign circles expressed belief that this might result in early recognition of his regime.

It was considered probable that Britain's step would strengthen Turkey's hand in resisting any German encroachment toward the Middle East.

Informed sources said it was unsafe to speculate on whether the development would have any possible bearing upon the status of Syria, a French mandate which separates Palestine from Turkey.

Anti-Vichy sentiment has been strong there.

HUNGARY EXCLUDES JEWS FROM ARMY

U.S. Seeks to Remove Restrictions Against Canadians Travelling in U.S.

WASHINGTON, April 20 (AP).—A conference will be held early next week with a State Department representative in an effort to work out a plan to remove Canadian Government restrictions against Canadian citizens travelling in the United States, Representative James Oliver (Rep. Maine) said yesterday.

Oliver and Senator Wallace White (Rep. Maine) have asked the U.S. State Department to intercede with the Canadian officials in an effort to eliminate restrictions and limitations on amounts of money Canadians are permitted to bring into this country. State Undersecretary Sumner Welles has agreed to cooperate with the Maine Congressmen.

After next week's opening conference, Oliver said, it is planned to confer with Treasury officials to determine whether the American stabilization fund could be used to bring the Canadian dollar to parity.

"Certainly," said Oliver, "if good neighborliness and State Secretary Hull's activity during his term of office means anything at all, they must mean the constructive use of every single agency of this Government to implement the good-will policy."

"On that basis the stabilization fund should be used for that objective," Oliver said he had "no preconceived ideas on details of a plan for using the stabilization fund but that he did believe something should be done about it."

"I don't want to make any premature statements as to what possibly could or could not be done and I don't want to discuss the matter too much until after we have talked with Treasury officials," he added.

An exchange problem has been a vexing one, Oliver said, adding it had been studied for many months. He expressed belief officials of the Canadian Government are as much concerned about the situation as the Maine Congressmen and there "should be some way to get together."

Many View War Situation Lightly

By FRED DANKS
(Central Press Canadian)

With the war now in its twentieth month, I was amazed the other day to learn how lightly some Canadians regard the situation.

The fact that there are still some Canadians who are willing to "let George do it" was brought home to me rather forcibly by an acquaintance who has repeatedly bemoaned the fact that she could do nothing to aid the war effort. When I suggested that she spend some of her spare time driving her car for the Red Cross or some other war charities, the answer was that "I would love to, but I simply have not got the time!" She only attends, on a conservative estimate, an average of three bridges a week.

Being of a rather, shall we kindly say blunt, instead of inquisitive nature, the same party only a few days previously had come right out in the open and demanded to know how much money a week I was turning into war savings. Countering with a shrewd right, I asked her how much she was contributing, only to receive another inane answer. "I would like to contribute, but simply cannot afford it." This, despite the fact that she and her husband recently built a modern home, paid cash for it, and her husband has entered the "retired businessman's" class, although just turned forty.

I do not suppose that hers is an exceptional case. There must be dozens of others throughout the country, who persist in playing ostrich. They make a big noise about what they would like to do to aid Canada's war effort, but simply never get around to doing anything. Their intentions are the best in the world, but they have been living in such a comfortable, self-complacent existence that they simply cannot realize that their self-complacency is definitely being threatened by Herr Hitler.

BRITISH DESTROY ENEMY VEHICLES

CAIRO, Egypt, April 20 (AP).—A British mobile column engaged an enemy convoy at Salum, Esvol, and destroyed a number of vehicles, including an armored car, British Middle East headquarters said yesterday.

British patrols in the Salum area "again inflicted casualties on the enemy," the communiqué said, while other patrols in the Tobruk area of Libya "vigorously harassed the enemy."

Middle East Air Headquarters announced that Axis mechanized units and troop concentrations were attacked continuously yesterday in Cyrenaica by Royal Air Force and Royal Australian Air Force units.

Many motor vehicles, including some containing ammunition, were destroyed in the attacks.

ITALIANS CLAIM 2 TANKERS SUNK

ROME, April 20 (AP).—The Italian High Command claimed yesterday that two large tankers were sunk with torpedoes and a cruiser was hit with bombs in an attack by Italian fliers on a heavily escorted convoy in the Eastern Mediterranean.

In North Africa, the daily war bulletin said, patrol clashes were reported East of the Egyptian village of Salum, and Axis planes bombed British positions at Tobruk, 80 miles West of the Egyptian-Libyan border.

"In Yugoslavia," it added, "our troops are continuing a movement to complete the occupation of Dalmatian territory."

An Army commander with his staff and five other generals were claimed as prisoners.

FRANCE WITHDRAWS FROM LEAGUE OF NATIONS

VICHY, France, April 20 (AP).—The Vichy Government announced yesterday that France has withdrawn from the League of Nations under the provision which gives any member the right to withdraw after two-year notification.

Italians Would Blame Roosevelt if U.S. Enters War

ROME, April 20 (AP).—Virginio Gayda, Italian Editor, declared yesterday that it would be President Roosevelt's fault if the United States became involved in war with Italy and Germany by "violating the Axis blockade of Great Britain."

"Italy and Germany already have precisely defined the sea area subject to their blockade," he wrote in the newspaper Il Giornale d'Italia.

"In the Atlantic the area includes Ireland, and extends within a few miles of the Greenland coast. Also subject to the blockade, along with the Mediterranean, is the entire Red Sea."

"Does Roosevelt then want to challenge the right of the Axis to apply an effective blockade even against America ships bringing war supplies to Britain?" he wrote.

"The United States by deliberately violating the blockade, gets into war the responsibility will rest entirely and solely on the shoulders of its President."

Germans Report Larisa Captured

BERLIN, April 20 (AP).—The German High Command claimed yesterday the capture of Larisa, 40 miles South of Mount Olympus, the Eastern anchor of the Greek-British defense line.

Larisa, smashed by a recent earthquake and by bombings, is an important junction on the main rail line heading from Salonika to Athens.

The Nazis claimed that British forces were "pushed out of strongly fortified mountain positions after a stubborn fight" and declared that the Nazi troops were keeping on the heels of the British despite desperate efforts to stem the advance by blasting bridges and mountain roads.

They acknowledged that the German forces were encountering "extraordinary difficulties."

Fine Shows Put On for Soldiers in Old Country

In his latest letter, dated March 21, to The Daily News from England where he is serving with the C.A.S.F. Pte. Joseph Buckna of Trail writes:

"The Canadian Legion scores again. They really sponsor some wonderful programs for the Canadian soldiers throughout England, free to all the lads from Canada."

"These shows have operas, band concerts, variety programs, and dance band performances. Stars such as Ben Lyon, Vivien Leigh and Bebe Daniels do their stuff on the stage. Bebe Daniels and her husband, Ben Lyon, have one of the most popular radio programs over here. It is called 'Hi, Gents!'

"The First and Second Divisions have completed a series of boxing matches to determine champions in the various classes. The winners for the Canadian Corps will be run off next week, and a large crowd will be in attendance, as the matches have been of top-notch calibre."

"Hockey results are coming to us now via radio, and the Trail lads were pleased to hear Trail had won the B. C. title once again. Foster Hewitt will soon be telling us of the playoff games in the N. H. L. in re-broadcasts from Toronto to the Canadian troops here in England. Let her go—Foster, we're all listening."

FINE WEATHER

"March in England has really been nice, and with this warmer weather the lads appear to be in their best health since coming here."

"The stress blow every night, but for over two months damage has been nil in our area."

"All the boys here send greetings to all their friends and loved ones in the Kootenays. Mail has been regular here, so please keep your end up and write often. News from home gladdens our hearts."

"One of these days soon, we will perhaps see one or more of those flying fortresses around. The Lease and Lend Bill has met approval indeed with the English."

"Leave time is here once more, and I'm sure you will hear all about it upon the lads' return. It's a happy day in a soldier's life."

KETCHIKAN STAGES REALISTIC BLACKOUT

KETCHIKAN, Alaska, April 20 (AP).—Firemen scamped up ladders to the top of a three-story building last night to extinguish an incendiary fire.

"Bombs" exploded in the street and smoke pots and flares sent eerie lights flickering on the faces of the populace.

National guardsmen took stations in the streets, with rifles ready, while sirens wailed and firecrackers popped in imitation of machine-gun fire.

HOUSEHOLDERS! THESE ARE YOUR WAR WEAPONS

Save them, Give them, and help WIN THIS WAR

We cannot all march into battle—but we can march into the attics, the cellars and store-ways places in our homes.

There are war weapons in these places—and in your household waste, which can be turned into a valuable contribution to Canada's war production and into funds for war auxiliary services.

Many local volunteer organizations have already completed plans for a Salvage Campaign in their districts. More will follow. Quickly, we hope, all Canada will be organized to "clean out and clean up on Hitler!"

Every day of every week until this war is won, every scrap of material which can be profitably salvaged in the area in which you live must be saved, collected and turned into war production material and money.

A careful study and survey is being made throughout Canada by this Department as to the type and class of salvage which will realize the greatest return in your community. If this information is not now in the hands of your local Salvage Committee or your Municipal Council, have them communicate with the Supervisor, National Salvage Campaign, New Supreme Court Building, Ottawa.

The complete facilities of the Department are at the disposal of local community organizations to aid in making their Salvage Campaigns a success.

When the Campaign starts in your community, we ask that you give it your unqualified support.

When Baby 'Won't Take Medicine'

By GARRY C. MYERS, Ph.D.

My doctor advises that my ... daughter five years old should have ... a teaspoonful of cod-liver oil every ... day. But she gasps and cries and ... struggles as soon as she sees the ... bottle. It's been such a fight that I ... have given it up.
Now, you are not a weakling. ... Mother. You will not run away ... from such a little problem as this ... one. Choose a time each day for ... giving her the cod-liver oil when ... fed or some other assistance will ... be on hand. Pour the oil into the ... spoon so the child does not see it. ... Keep it out of sight until ready for ... action. Then, as the assistant firmly ... but quickly seizes the child, you ... will put it into her mouth, pushing ... the spoon back far enough into her ... mouth so she will have to swallow. ... It might be well to have a trained ... nurse or a public health nurse on ... hand once to train you in this ... skill. And don't pinch the child's ... nose.
As soon as the job is over, say ... nothing about the oil or the child's ... resistance. Keep wholly quiet or ... talk of something which will ap- ... peal to the child's interest. The ... oil may be less repellent to the ... child if it is kept cold. Proceed ... in like fashion each succeeding ... day, until the child volunteers to ... cooperate. The less emotion and ... more skill you evince the better ... your results will be.

FRIGHT
My baby is 17 months old. He ... has developed awful fright at the ... carpet sweeper.
Be sure someone is with this ... little child while the sweeper is ... operating, and keep him far enough ... away. Then he will feel pretty safe. ... When it is not in use, put it near ... where he plays most of the time so ... he will learn to be comfortable with ... it when it is still. He might even be ... induced to touch it, or push it or ... to push the button which operates ... it, while it is not connected.
Next time it is turned on, be sure ... the baby is at a comfortable dis- ... tance. Gradually, during several ... more days, he might be induced ... to come closer and closer to it. ... And the time will arrive when he ... stops and starts the thing. Then ... the problem is practically solved. ... But be patient. It sometimes takes ... weeks and months and even years ... for a child to rise above a fear ... that began in the twinkling of an ... eye.

SOLVING PARENT PROBLEMS
Q. What home education would ... you advise for the child of five ... for whom there is no kindergarten?
A. Opportunities to play with ... children his age; to make things ... with crayons, paper, paints, card- ... board, paste, beads; to make things ... with wood using saw, hammer, ... vise; to hear well-selected stories ... read daily and good music played ... from selected records on a phono- ... graph.
Q. Please suggest some ways of ... preventing fears of the dentist in ... the child.
A. Take him as early as two ... years of age to a dentist, merely ... getting acquainted on the first visit ... to provide a toy for the dentist to ... give the child on each visit. As early ... as possible leave the child alone ... with the dentist. Expect to pay ... the dentist for the time he spent ... in winning the friendship and co- ... operation of this child.
Q. My son will enter school in ... September. I am 37. I completed ... only one year and three months of ... High School. Do you think I, too, ... might go to school and try for a ... High School diploma?
A. Yes. Excellent idea.

SERIAL STORY ... EVELESS EDEN

By Allen Eppes

CHAPTER THIRTEEN
"I hope I'm not going to be too ... heavy," she said.
"I think not." Joel straightened ... up, holding the girl very close and ... noting, as he did so, that she used ... an extremely effective perfume. ... "Comfortable?"
"Oh, yes—I rather like it. So ... sort of old-world, and all that. We ... modern girls seldom get such at- ... tention." The girl laughed softly. ... "Sprained ankles have been due ... to death in the movies and fiction. ... I'm sorry I wasn't more original."
"Yes," said Joel. "you might have ... broken your neck. That would have ... been different. But let's be grate- ... ful it wasn't your neck." He lifted ... her and moved up the garden path. ... "I'll have you fixed up in a jiffy, ... Miss—"
"Allgood," said the girl. "Eve ... Allgood."
"You're kidding," said Joel.
"Why on earth should I kid ... about my own name?"
"I mean the—Eve part of it."
"I don't understand."
Joel grinned.
"This," he said, "is supposed to ... be an Eveless Eden."
"Oh, I see," said the girl. "It is ... funny, isn't it, me entering the ... scene like this?"
"It is that," said Joel. "And you'd ... had to have the name of Eve."
"Sorry," said the girl. "If I've ... spoiled things for you. You may ... call me Lizzie." He reached the ... cabin porch and mounted the steps. ... "Eve will do nicely, thank you."
Then, oddly enough, as he en- ... tered the living room of the cabin ... he found himself feeling a decided ... sense of satisfaction in its neatness. ... He was glad that he and Bill had ... done such a good job of house ... cleaning. And then he was annoyed ... with himself for caring a darn ... whether the girl liked the place or ... not.
He deposited her upon the lower ... bunk and went to a chest of draw- ... ers to get a roll of tape.
Eve Allgood watched him.
"You seem to be prepared for ... such emergencies as this," she said.
"Oh, a little first-aid training and ... a medical kit come in handy when ... one is living in such an isolated ... spot," said Joel. He rejoined her ... and was soon busy binding up the ... injured foot, where, he announced ... presently, "that ought to make it ... feel much stronger."
"It does," said Eve. She wiggled ... her toes experimentally. "And ... thanks a lot, Mr.—"
"Randall," said Joel. "Joel Ran- ... dall."
"Thank you a lot, Mr. Randall."
"You're more than welcome, Miss ... Allgood."
"Go on, call me Lizzie, if you ... like."
"I will not—Eve."
The girl smiled. "It sounds sort- ... er nice when you say it, Joel," she ... said.
"Thanks, Eve," said Joel. And ... then he thought of Bill. ... Gosh, all-hemlock, he thought, he ... had to get rid of the girl before ... Bill got back from Asheville. She ... was too darned attractive and ... charming a person to be there ... when Bill returned. He knew Bill. ... And even though Bill had been ill- ... ed so recently he was quite cap- ... able of lingering long around a ... girl like Eve. And lingering was ... something Joel didn't wish Bill to ... do.
He spoke just then.
"I'm hungry," she said.
"I've got her a quick look—but ... he hesitated about inviting her to ... have lunch with him.
"Darned nervy of me, I suppose," ... Eve went on. "But I AM hungry. ... This mountain air—"
"Like scrambled eggs?" Joel ... asked.
"Love 'em," said Eve.
"Like toast and blackberry ... jelly?"
"Adore 'em."
"Drink coffee?"
"Desired on it."
"Then you can stay to lunch," ... said Joel. "Coffee, jelly, toast and ... scrambled eggs are all on the ... menu."
"Oh, thanks!" said Eve. "You ... must let me come and help you get ... them ready."
"No," said Joel. "you sit there ... and take care of the ankle. I ... can manage. Besides, my lean-to ... kitchen is pretty small." He smiled ... at the girl upon the bunk and ... walked to the door opening into the ... kitchen. "I won't be gone long."
Eve smiled back at him.
"Joel Randall," she said very ... softly, "you're very sweet."
And as Joel went on about the ... business of preparing lunch for his ... guest and himself he had a funny ... sort of feeling in the region of his ... heart. Darned if he could ever re- ... member anyone telling him he was ... "sweet." That is, no one but Aunt ... Sallie. And the way Eve Allgood ... looked when she said it.

Excess Pounds ... Cutting Calories to Lose Weight

By ALICE WADE ROBINSON

There is never any question as to ... whether or not you are overweight. If ... you are overweight, you do. Every ex- ... cess pound means an additional 450 ... calories—and the scales give you ... away.
The argument that you do not eat ... very much may be perfectly valid. It ... may be that you have such an eco- ... nomical metabolism you can't ... use many calories. If you have an ... easy going disposition, are built for ... comfort rather than speed, and take ... slight exercise, you probably do not ... burn more than 16 calories per ... pound of normal body weight. Let's ... say your normal weight is 130 ... pounds. Multiply that figure by 16 ... and the answer is 2080 calories—all ... you can use in a day.
An active person may stay nice ... and slim on the same amount of ... food that causes you to store ... pounds. While you wait for trans- ... portation, she dashes up the stairs, ... sprints up the escalators, or walks ... several blocks because she can beat ... the bus. Anyone that energetic can ... easily burn 20 calories per pound ... compared to your 16.
Weight and structure must also be ... given their due in calculating your ... requirements. The greater the pro- ... portion of active tissue (muscle and ... glands), the more calories you burn; ... the higher the percentage of fatty ... tissue for total weight, the fewer ... calories you use. Once you under- ... stand that fat is just "dead" ... weight, you begin to realize what ... you are up against. If you are short ... and plump, you may burn one- ... third less calories than a tall thin ... person weighing the same.
We'll assume your appetite is big- ... ger than your requirements and that ... you tip the scales at 150 pounds ... instead of the normal 130. You have ... 20 pounds to be turned back into ... energy. This you can do at a steady ... rate by clipping from 300 to 1000 ... calories off your daily menu.
On a restricted allowance of 1000 ... calories per day, you can burn up a ... good two pounds of fat per week. If ... you are a bit short on will power, ... allow yourself 1500 calories daily ... and lose a pound a week. That num- ... ber is so liberal you'll scarcely ... know you're dieting.
The best trick is to do your cal- ... orie cutting in the form of the high ... calorie foods. Fat counts two and ... one-fourth times as many calories ... as protein or carbohydrates. An ... ounce of sugar yields 113 calories, ... an ounce of protein 113 calories, an ... ounce of butter 218 calories. It pays ... to restrict the cream and butter ... and to leave off the gravy, mayon- ... naise French dressing and pastry.

WHILE LONDON SLEEPS

Throughout the night, while Nazi bombers roar overhead, tin-hatted Canadian Press editors work behind blackout curtains in their Fleet Street office so Canadians may read of the latest air raid, a new British naval victory in their morning papers.
Maintaining a 24-hour service, sheltering only in the heaviest raids, they scan reports of The Associated Press, Reuters, the Press Association and government announcements to meet Canadian newspaper deadlines around the clock.
But this is only part of the work of The CP's eight-man London staff. They cover Westminster and Downing Street, report bombing raids whether they are in Liverpool, Plymouth or in London's East End, give Canadians a true picture of Britain at war. Here you meet three of them.

HAROLD FAIR.
CP Parliamentary Correspondent, covered the Atlantic a week after war broke out to join London Bureau after experience in three Provincial Legislatures and the House of Commons at Ottawa. As CP representative at Westminster, Fair is the only Dominion newspaperman regularly reporting the British House of Commons from a Press Gallery seat.

PAT USSHER.
Member of the London staff since the Bureau's establishment in 1936, interrupted his coverage of the bomb blitz only once—to get married in a "quiet" wedding, while two bombs dropped in the neighborhood. Ussher, 32, has been with CP since 1931, was cable editor at New York before his London appointment.

FOSTER BARCLAY.
Newcomer to the London staff, who crossed to England on a troop transport last December and was greeted with the great bombing that sent fire sweeping through the City section. A native of Ottawa, Barclay, like other members of the CP staff, spends his spare time atop his apartment house, ready to quench Nazi incendiaries.

Daily, Canadian Press member newspapers demonstrate the value of CP's London coverage by wide use of the bylined stories of these staff men and Ross Munro, War Correspondent with the Canadian Corps; Sam Robertson, London Superintendent; D. E. Burritt, Louis Hunter and Doug Amaron. All young Canadians, all unmarried but two, they sought their London appointments eagerly. They will be followed in time by others as eager to take their places, as well-equipped to do their jobs, so that the unequalled service Canadian Press is providing its 90 members in Canada shall continue.

New American Battleship Most Powerful Afloat

For many years the Hood and the Repulse have stood for the maximum of power and efficiency in battleships, and it has been a matter of pride to Canadians that this has been so. But now there is a new leader.

The most powerful battleship in the world was commissioned by the United States Navy on April 9—the North Carolina. How long the North Carolina will retain that title is uncertain, for both the Germans and the Japanese are building new battleships, not to speak of the British. The German Bismarck and Tirpitz are reported to be larger, and the Japanese is suspected of being.

But there is no evidence that any ship built or building just now will have a more powerful main battery than the nine 16-inch guns of the North Carolina. And her sister ship, the Washington, will be commissioned next month, both far ahead of schedule.

North Carolina is a name that has been borne by few ships in the American Navy. But one of the most powerful ships of her day was the 74-gun ship-of-the-line North Carolina, launched in 1818 and retained in active service until 1867. One of her most important voyages was to the Mediterranean in 1825, under Commodore John Rodgers, while that area was being disturbed by a Greek fight for freedom. Another North Carolina, an armored cruiser, was on the Navy list during the World War.

The North Carolina is the first of 17 battleships eventually to be added to the United States' first line of defence.

From the present trend of American opinion, and of the "Battle of the Atlantic," the new No. 1 sea fighter of the world may be in combat far earlier than anyone could have anticipated when her keel was laid.

Dust of Gold

"By faith Enoch was translated that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God. But without faith it is impossible to please Him: for he that cometh to God must believe that He is, and that He is rewarder of them that diligently seek Him."—Heb. 11:3, 6.

Faith is the ground of life. It enters into business as well as into man's relation with God. By it are men successful, through it are men healed, by it men cast out fear and become great. Faith is for all who will cultivate it.—R. B. H. Bell.

Words of Challenge

"I have seen men, women and children, old and young, left without anything but the clothes they were wearing. If by staking my titles I can earn money quickly, I will gladly risk them."—Jackie Peterson, British and Empire Flyweight boxing champion.

Ontario Sports Note

Recently police in an Ontario city raided a cockfight and seized both human and feathered participants. The spectators paid their fines, but the birds, after remaining in custody for a few days, were sold for $30. On the authority of fanciers it is stated that the price is ridiculously low, but it is a high enough figure to suggest that the purchaser did not intend to serve the fowl on his Sunday dinner table.

Apparently the net result of the raid was the spotting of an evening's amusement for several persons and the collection of a few hundreds dollars in fines and proceeds of sale. The reprehensible sport of cockfighting will continue to flourish in Ontario as it has for many years.

In one town, at least, the sport is unchecked as long as a decent pretense of secrecy is observed. A generation ago, a new chief of police decided that moral reform was overdue, and he raided two or three cockfights, much to the chagrin of some members of the town's best families, who were enthusiastic breeders of gamecocks. They made no open complaint, but one evening the chief learned that a really gala affair was being planned in the near future. The place was Blank's livery stable, which he had raided successfully once before. The time was midnight on Sunday evening.

Hidden in a doorway on the Sunday appointed, the chief had the satisfaction of seeing several old acquaintances sidle furtively into the stable. He looked at his watch, and allowed fifteen minutes to elapse for the fun to get under way. Then he blew his whistle, and he and his force, Constable Hennessey, burst into the stable.

At opposite sides of the ring, two men were holding birds in readiness. The case was complete. "Everybody stay where you are," commanded the chief. "Hennessey, seize the birds." Hennessey moved forward to obey. The handlers released the combatants. With a sickly grin, Hennessey moved back. The birds were stupefied.

For months afterwards the chief never stepped out on the street without hearing a "Cockle-doodle-do" from one or more urchins as they vanished around the corner. Moral reform in that town received a setback from which it has never recovered.—The Printed Word.

Press Comment

RIGHT OF CRITICISM

Deeply concerned as we are to see the St. Lawrence Waterway agreement carried through to ratification, we cannot agree with Hon. Gordon D. Conant, Attorney General for Ontario, that Canadians should refrain from criticizing the plan, pending action by the Congress of the United States. There can be no excuse for thus muzzling public discussion of an important matter.

Mr. Conant, of course, holds to the view that opposition to the plan voiced here might have the effect of injuring the chances of getting the agreement through Congress. We do not believe that. The Members of Congress know at this moment how they are going to vote on this matter. Anything that may be said in Canada is unlikely to throw one vote one way or the other, any more than a speech in New York will influence the views of any member of our Parliament.

Even if comment would have any such effect, we should still say that criticism should not be stifled. Opponents of the plan have a right to their opinions, and they have a right to voice them. It is the only proper way to deal with any public problem in a democratic country.—Windsor Star.

TWO TONGUES WORTH WHILE

The English-Canadian and the French-Canadian should be generous rivals in the study of each other's language.

Nothing would do so much to promote the perfect understanding that is possible between fellow citizens of different races and tongues but of equal goodwill.

To talk of a war of languages in this country, of a language boycott or a language crusade, is to exert influence not of national harmony, but of discord. French-Canadians of light and learning advise young men and young women of their Province to study English. English-Canadians should feel that the way to span the cleavage between the two races is to build a bridge of good understanding, and for this purpose each side must be able to talk the language of the other.—Guelph Mercury.

The Hen, Sacred and Profane

(From Agricultural and Industrial Progress in Canada)

In the social customs, religion and literature of all nations from time immemorial, poultry has played an important part, particularly in literature. Among the best known references is that to the hen, and the gathering of the chickens under her wings, in the Gospel according to Matthew; and the stark drama of the cockcrow also referred to in Matthew. Before Christian times, the rooster was the war emblem of the Goths, and later in Christian times was placed on church steeples to remind man not to deny his Lord.

In the English language, poultry references and phrases are numerous. For example, there are: birds of a feather, in full feather, showing the white feather (from the assumption that no game cock has a white feather); feather an ear (from the motion of a bird's wing); feather his nest (his feathers make fine birds; feather in your cap (from the old custom of adding a feather to headress for every enemy slain); cut a feather (said when a boat travels fast); chicken hearted; she's no chicken; don't count your chickens before they are hatched; fussy as a hen with one chicken; a hen party; hen-pecked (from the fact that a rooster is a brave bird at large but is frequently under hen government, and all pecked at that in the coop); hen and chickens, a very old name from the Fletchers, the "Seven Sisters" by which the Romans were said to have named their first voyage to invade Britain; and then there is "a whistling maid and a crowing hen are neither fit for gods nor men."

The goose also comes in for its literary share, in cooking your goose; kill the goose that lays the golden eggs; Old Mother Goose; and in Egyptian hieroglyphics the goose was the emblem for a silly fellow, while the rooster, among his many references, has cock-a-whoo; cock and bull story; cocksure; don't crow before you are out of the woods, and many others.

In olden times, poultry figured prominently in omens, sacred and profane. In Henry IV, Shakespeare writes, "By Cock and Pie, Sir, you shall not away tonight." In the days of chivalry, it was the practice to make solemn vows for the performance of a certain enterprise. This was usually done at a festival, when roasted poultry was served in a dish of gold and silver and presented to the knight who then made his vow with great solemnity.

In the temples of the oracles of the Greeks and Romans, chickens were sacred birds. There is an old Roman story that when the soothsayers, or augurs, told Publius Clodius Pulcher, the Roman Consul, who was about to engage the Carthaginian fleet in battle, that the sacred chickens at the temple would not eat and that he had better not start the battle, he replied in breezy, sailor-like fashion, "Then toss them into the sea that they may drink."

The rooster was a revered bird in ancient times. Because it gave notice of the rising sun, it was dedicated to Apollo, the sun god, and because the rooster also summoned men to business by his crow, it was also dedicated to Mercury. "Never sacrifice a white rooster" was one of the doctrines of Pythagoras, because it was sacred to the moon. The Greeks said "Nourish a rooster and sacrifice it not," for all roosters were sacred either to the sun or the moon, because the birds announced the hours. The rooster was also sacred to the goddess of wisdom and to Anacaulapia, the goddess of health. Therefore, the rooster represented time, wisdom and health, none of which were ever sacrificed.

In Mahometan lore, Mahomet found in the first heaven a rooster of such enormous proportions that its crest touched the second heaven. The crowing of this celestial bird arouses every living creature from sleep except man. The Moslem doctors say that Allah lends a willing ear to him who reads the Koran, to him who prays for pardon, and to the rooster whose chant is divine melody. When this rooster ceases to crow the Judgment Day will be at hand.

The chief interest in poultry nowadays is that it is an excellent food product at any time of the year.

Hardy Norsemen Insist on Being Openly Pro-British

Authentic reports of German plans to expand Norwegian industries have reached Canada. The Nazis are particularly interested in the aluminum industry, and it is reported that the Norwegian Nazi Government will be asked to appropriate four hundred million crowns as a governmental subsidy to industrial expansion. The new factories will pass into German hands in accordance with the suggested changes of the concession laws of Norway, it was learned.

The new industrial centres will be laid in Glomsfjord, Sauda and Aura. It has been announced that seven thousand men will be employed in the construction work at Aura, and that the new plant will be ready in eighteen months. The Nazis have requested that the large Norwegian hydro electric concern Norsk Hydro build three new plants at Haeroya, near the city of Porsgrund.

An interesting commentary on the industrial situation in Norway is contained in an order of the day issued by the German Reichskommissar for Norway Herr Terboven the other day. Hitler's personal representative stated with amazing frankness that all Norwegian organizations and parties, particularly those connected with industry and commerce are openly demonstrating their friendliness to Great Britain.

Tschaiakowski

Fifty years ago, on April 27, the S.S. Bretagne arrived in the United States with a distinguished visitor, George Marek writes in Good Housekeeping. Peter Ilyich Tschaiakovsky had been invited by the then young Walter Damrosch to come to New York and help with the opening festivities of a new concert hall.

This hall had been financed by an unmusical but exceedingly generous Scotsman. He wanted it built according to the newest, most advanced principles, and he had chosen for its site, over the protests of New York society, a residential and genteel neighborhood far uptown near Central Park. Now that it was ready, it was to be opened with a five-day festival, complete with singing societies, orchestras, soloists, guest conductor, and a bishop to pronounce the dedication.

After half a century, Carnegie Hall is still the musical centre of the United States, and today perhaps the musical centre of the world. Its exterior has become besotted, the carlicies of the facade now seem ugly to our simpler taste. But the interior is still an ideal place in which to hear music, and still the goal of every singer and conductor.

Tschaiakovsky, the star of that occasion, has since become—like the hall itself—a "classic". His music is now a part of our most elementary musical equipment. Because he is in the classic tradition, it is particularly interesting to read the diary he kept when he was here, and to realize that the great Tschaiakovsky was just another tourist, awed and bewildered—a genius and also a visiting fireman.

The first night he was so homesick and depressed that he stayed in his hotel room and wept. But after that, New York, the United States and Americans began to exert their magic spell.

Strangers paid for his drinks, gave him cigarettes. Andrew Carnegie was particularly friendly. "He embraced me (without kissing me; men do not kiss over here!)"

SYDNEY CAPTURES FIRST ALLIANCE CUP FINAL GAME

Sydney Shook Off Home Bad Hockey States Snowdon

Refereeing Lax Says Regina's Coach Metcalfe

CALGARY, April 20 (CP).—All the Sydney Millionaires could talk about after beating Regina Rangers yesterday night was how "lousy" they had played.

As the boys tramped into their dressing room after winning 5-1 in the first game of the Allan Cup finals, they sounded as if they were laughing with their performance.

"We'll never play that bad again," said goalie Bill Dickie.

Talk about being lousy," said captain Mel Snowdon. He added that the team had got a lot of bad hockey out of its system in the game and announced, "That's the worst game we played since Glace Bay beat us 4-0 in the playoffs."

In the Regina dressing room there wasn't much talking among the players. When Grant Warwick, stocky little forward, stuck out his chin and said "we can beat that club," he others agreed.

Coach Freddy Metcalfe felt his fingers had "given away" at least three goals and told his players they deserved that game.

Metcalfe said the refereeing was lax and added that in the Saskatchewan League there would have been numerous penalties for the holding, holding and illegal interference which he said the Millionaires used.

The youthful Coach agreed that he was probably the style of hockey played in Eastern Canada and did not blame either of the referees specifically, stating both should be caught it.

Regina's M. A. Currie, President of the Regina club, was outspoken. He stormed into the Regina dressing room and shouted the work of a referee from Montreal, Eastern referee, was so poor he would resign if no change was made for the second game.

McPhail Devises New Headgear for Baseball Players

While meandering from one camp to another during the Big League Spring training season, John P. McPhail of the Chicago Daily News found his way to the Brooklyn Dodgers' camp, and heard of Larry McPhail's plans to reduce hazards for the players, such as the beating which laid his own Joe Medwick low for most of last season.

Following is an excerpt of a recent column:

At this juncture Leland Stanford McPhail hove in sight, bearing an oval-shaped plastic composition, molded to fit the side of the head inside a baseball cap. "You are watching history made today," he said. "Every man on the Brooklyn club is wearing these over each ear. First time in history an entire team has taken the field with these. And from now on it's an order on my outfit."

The new Dodge caps, light blue, represent the 15th piece of headgear which McPhail has had made up in his quest for a combination cap-helmet for his men. The protection inserts on either side of the cap are about six inches long, an eighth-inch thick and weigh less than an ounce. They can be dipped in hot water and shaped to fit the quirks of the individual cranium and McPhail claims that not even the heat of a St. Louis day will cause them to straighten out or curl away from the head.

"We have requests from 30 ball clubs and 250 individual players for these things," commented McPhail. "Granted improvements can be made, but this at least is the germ of an idea. Now we're working on shinguard."

In the action, adjourned after a preliminary hearing several weeks ago, Coulson seeks $300 from the defendants for services he said he rendered them. He was engaged by the Artistic Ice Company last year to coach the Maple Leaf Club, operated by the company. On January 18 he was dismissed.

Quinn Syndicate Finally Lined Up

BOSTON, April 20 (AP).—President Bob Quinn of Boston Bees tonight announced the successful completion of his five month campaign to form a syndicate to purchase C. F. Adams' controlling interest in that National League baseball club, which represents about 75 per cent of the club.

Quinn said all but two of his new associates are New Englanders, the exceptions being Casey Stengel, the Club's Manager, and his intimate friend, Max Mayer, Brooklyn pearl manufacturer.

The others are Francis Oulmet, former national open and amateur golf champion; Joseph Conway, the President of a Boston sporting goods store; Dr. William Wang of Middletown, Conn.; J. W. Powderell, a Dartmouth, Conn., manufacturer; Richardson, Conn., manufacturer; and a Boston automobile dealer, Frank McCourt, of Boston; C. Joseph Maney of Somerville; Louis Perini of Framingham; and Guido Rugo of Milton. The latter four are engaged in the contracting business.

Quinn refused to divulge the price the syndicate paid for Adams' controlling interest. It has frequently been mentioned that the latter's price was around $350,000.

Boston Wins 5th Straight Game; Yankees Winners

Big Yankee Bats Slam Hard to Beat Out Athletics

WASHINGTON, April 20 (AP).—Boston Red Sox, riding at the head of the American League parade, defeated Washington 14-8 today for their fifth consecutive victory.

The Red Sox, undefeated so far in the 1947 campaign, landed on young Sid Hudson for seven runs and 10 hits in the first six innings.

Boston collected 15 hits, including three doubles and a single by Dominic DiMaggio.

Ringer Cramer poked a homer for the Senators with bases full in the eighth.

Boston 14 15 1
Washington 8 11 2
Ryba, Hersh (7) and Peacock; Hudson, Anderson (7), MacFayden (6), Dean (9) and Evans, Barry (7).

PHILADELPHIA, April 20 (AP).—The big bats of New York Yankees cracked ominously today as Yanks staged an 18-hit assault for a 19-5 victory over the Athletics.

Led by Joe DiMaggio who drove in six runs, four of them on a homer with the bases full in the ninth, and Joe Gordon who hit for the circuit twice and drove in five runs, the Yanks shelled two A's hurlers from the mound before 28,374 fans.

New York 19 18 1
Philadelphia 5 10 1
Ruffing and Rosar; Dean, Besse (6), Johnson (9) and Hayes, Wagner (6).

DETROIT, April 20 (AP).—Mel Harder and Joe Heving teamed up today to enable Cleveland Indians to rap out a 4-2 victory over Detroit Tigers before 19,497 in the final game of their series here.

Harder held the American League champions to four hits and one unearned run in eight innings, but had to give way in the ninth to Heving when the Tigers threatened.

Lynwood (Schoolboy) Rowe, making his first start of the season for Detroit, led the game in the sixth after yielding all of Cleveland's hits.

Cleveland 4 7 4
Detroit 2 6 3

Pawson Victor in Boston Grind

BOSTON, April 20 (AP).—Thirty-six-year-old Leslie Pawson of Pawtucket, R. I., won the 46th annual B. A. A. marathon Saturday, sprinting across the finish line of the 26-mile, 385-yard grind to become the second man in the history of the race to mark up three victories.

Pawson's time was 3:30:38, about two minutes behind the record set last year by Gerard Cole of St. Kyaline, Que.

Johnny Kelley, 38, of Arlington, Mass., was second after running neck and neck with the winner over much of the course under a hot and wilting sun. He was timed in 3:31:35, duplicating his runner-up performance of 1940.

The leaders were blocks ahead of the rest of the original field of 124 who plodded along before 500,000 spectators. Don MacKee of Baltimore captured third place and Cole finished fourth in 3:37:59.

In duplicating his winning races of 1935 and 1938, Pawson became the first man ever to approach the seven victories of Clarence DeMar, 54-year-old sprinter, who was far back in today's race.

Freed Dodger Rooter Goes Back to Idols

NEW YORK (AP).—That Brooklyn baseball fan who mixed with Umpire and 200 if he were going to a close game with the Reds last Fall was freed of assault charges—was the admonition that the ump is always right.

"When an umpire calls a strike, it's a strike," Magistrate Joseph D'Andrea told Frank Gernano, 21, 5 feet and 100. "You can not substitute your opinion for his. The umpire is the gentleman in charge of the ball game."

The magistrate then asked "Maje," 6-foot-4 and 200, if he were going to "call a strike" on Gernano.

"No, no strike," said Maje, who reputedly was laid low by one of Gernano's roundhouse rights. "I've got a boy of my own."

With the case thus dismissed, Gernano headed straight for Ebbets field — to yell for the Dodgers against the Giants.

Kimberley Sees Movie Films of Game Dept.

KIMBERLEY, B. C., April 20.—Commissioner J. G. Cunningham of the Game Department of Vancouver was guest of the Kimberley Rod and Gun Club last Tuesday to show interesting movie films on wild game birds and fish life in B. C. to large gatherings of children and adults at afternoon and evening sessions respectively.

The Game Department was congratulated on its program of conservation that has been in effect in the Province, making B. C. the only Province where big game, sport fish and wild game birds might be found in such great numbers.

Toronto Captures Hoop Opener in Eastern Series

TORONTO, April 20 (CP).—Striking a devastating blow in the opening minutes from which Montreal Rocklands never recovered, Simpson Grads of Toronto opened on a 39-27 victory in the first game of the Eastern Canada senior basketball championship series here Saturday night.

Grads took a commanding 11-1 lead in the first five minutes. The Quebec champions were caught unaware but made a gallant stand.

Second game of the best of three series will be played here Monday night. The deciding game, if necessary, will be played the following night and the series winner will travel to Vancouver to meet University of British Columbia there late this month.

Rocklands were forced to play the first 14 minutes without one of their crack forwards, Ben Hocken, who arrived late after flying from Montreal. It was after Hocken came on the floor that they made their best showing, bagging five successive points to cut Grads' lead to five points by the end of the first half.

Unknown Horse Upsets the Dope

NEW YORK, April 20 (AP).—The New York end of the Kentucky Derby was decidedly scrambled to night.

The highly-rated Dispose and Curious Coin, kings of the three-year-olds in the Florida Winter campaign and high up among the Derby favorites, looked like a pair of selling players in one feature on Jamaica's program Saturday. And in the other, Robert Morris, a 200-to-1 shot in the first Winter-book callover—won like a champion the hard way, against older horses.

The performances of Dispose, Curious Coin and Victor Emanuel's Omission, the only three Derby eligibles in the six-hour field of the Experimental Handicap sprint—and the only three to finish out of the money—was a shock to the 30,203 fans who jammed Jamaica.

Dispose, backed down to co-choice at 4-1 in the Derby futures, finished last, 16 lengths back of the victorious Meteliosome.

Meteliosome, who was not nominated by Mrs. Isabel Dodge Sloane for any of the big three-year-old stakes, led Air Brigade and Zaccatone to the wire in 1:11 1-5 to pick up the $3750 winner's end of the purse.

Winning Goal Is Gained on Penalty Shot; Five Goals Scored by Walton

Sydney Power Plays Effective Against Reginas

By LORNE BRUCE Canadian Press Staff Writer

CALGARY, April 20 (CP).—Sydney Millionaires outscored Regina Rangers 5-1 in the first game of the Allan Cup finals here Saturday night with Remi Van Daele scoring the winning goal on a penalty shot midway through the third period.

Van Daele, a Winnipeg product, who went to Millionaires two years ago from Hershey Bears, shared honors with Bobby Walton, a dashing centre who slapped five goals into the Regina net and assisted in another. Walton was picked up late in the season from Niagara Falls under the military replacement regulations.

Grant Hall, a 22-year-old forward from the University of Manitoba, scored the other two Sydney goals. Regina marksmen were Garth Bush, rookie rearguard, with three, Frank Mario with two and Johnny Kennedy.

The hectic scoring battle, watched by a crowd of about 5000 fans who saw each team lead twice and the score tied three times, installed the Eastern champions as favorites to take the best of five series for the Canadian Senior Hockey Championship. The second game will be played at Regina Monday and the third at Saskatoon Wednesday.

Although complete records were not available for checking, it was believed that Walton's five goals were a record for Allan Cup finals, and that Van Daele's marker was the first scored on a penalty shot in modern Dominion Senior finals.

Sydney was awarded the penalty shot after Gord Davidson, Regina defenseman, had pulled down Hall as the Sydney forward was racing in on Jim Henry in the Regina net. The game was held up several minutes while programs and peanuts were cleared from the ice and the delay apparently made Henry nervous.

Van Daele, a left-hand shot, took the puck at centre ice and circled slowly toward the right boards and then as he skated parallel to the red line, fired a foot-high shot that beat Henry cleanly and gave Sydney a 7-1 lead.

The game was played at a terrific pace with Sydney staging a power-play every time Millionaires got the puck into the Regina end and in addition the 14 penalties allowed the teams to play all out for almost the full 60 minutes.

Regina went ahead 2-1 in the first period and retained a 4-4 margin at the end of the second but in the third the Eastern champions counted four times while holding Rangers to one goal.

The Sydney power play was particularly effective as five of Millionaires' goals were scored from scrambles on almost identical plays. The puck would be passed out from behind the net and before Henry had moved, the puck would be slammed past him from 3 to 10 feet in front of the crease.

Scotty Cameron, a 18-year-old centre, was playing in great form and had made the play for both of Sydney's goals in the first period when Mel Snowdon hit him with a crushing bodycheck at the Regina blue line. Scotty was severely shaken up and although he came back later in the game, he was never very effective again.

Rangers were forced to use Sandy Sandelack, junior defenseman, after Davidson was stunned by a hit on the head in the third. Sandelack, who was believed to have been out for the season after suffering a shoulder injury played a good blocking game but he could not shoot. He was in alone once and his one shoulder prevented him from getting a shot away.

Dick Kowclnak, Sydney centre, retired midway through the second period. The Sydney trainer said his arm became tired because of a recent injury but Kowclnak will play in Regina Monday.

Officials — Leo Heffernan, Montreal, and Dick Davis, Winnipeg.

Summary:
First period — 1 Regina, Bush (Cameron) 3:37; 2 Regina, Bush (Cameron) 4:03; 3 Sydney, Hall (Walton, Atchison) 8:58.
Penalty — Snowdon.
Second period — 4 Regina, Kennedy (Gruhn) 2:2; 5 Sydney, Wal-

Crow Shoots Are Kimberley Plan

KIMBERLEY, B. C., April 20.—The first of organized Crow shoots under the auspices of the Kimberley Rod and Gun Club will take place shortly, and a committee has been appointed to be in charge of arrangements.

Although more crows than ever were shot last year, they are back in seemingly greater numbers this year. Interest in this sport increased tremendously last year so that with the increase in crows and shooters, the Club anticipates a good cleanup of the black predators.

Marian Martin
PATTERN 9697

Fresh as the proverbial daisy is this gay frock, Pattern 9697. It's a real Marian Martin "fashion first" that shows delightful originality. Buttons and a back-tying sash are optional on this stunning afternoon dress that you'll finish in double-quick time with the Sew Chart's aid.

Pattern 9697 may be ordered in misses' sizes 12, 14, 16, 18 and 20. Size 16 requires 3 yards 39 inch fabric and 1/4 yard contrast.

Planting Early
and Late Crops

By DEAN HALLIDAY

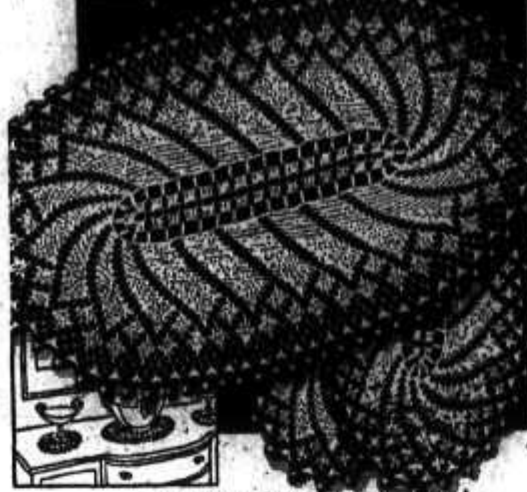

"Succession cropping" is the growing of two or more crops in sequence on the same area of land in just one year. In other words, it means planting a late-maturing crop where an earlier crop has already matured.

As illustrated in the Garden-Graph, early peas are followed by late cabbage. They might also be followed by cauliflower, beans or tomatoes. With liberal fertilization, often a third crop can follow such as lettuce or spinach. Early lettuce followed with beans could have a third crop perhaps of fall beets. Onion sets followed with fall beets might later be followed with radishes.

Succession cropping is another form of crop rotation, which is a means of helping to control plant diseases.

CONTRACT ... By Shepard Barclay

MUST LEAD A TRUMP

"WHEN IN doubt, lead trumps" was never meant to be taken seriously. Ordinarily it would be better to revise that into "When in doubt don't lead trumps," as usually a trump lead is the one thing a declarer would like the most, unless it be the dummy's suit when no other suit had been bid except that and the trumps. But there is one time when a trump lead is almost obligatory upon you. That is when the side has got together on a suit contract after each partner had shown one other suit. Then it looks very much like a cross-ruff, which can be broken up best by making the declarer use two trumps on a trick instead of one.

Diagram showing card play and scores for a contract bridge game.

East: 10 9 8 4 3 2
West: 7 6 5 4 3 2
North: A K Q J 10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2
South: A K Q J 10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2

That kind of bidding developed at two tables of a duplicate game. One of the 3-Spades declarers made his contract and the other was slaughtered. It all depended on the opening lead. Where the contract was made, North chose the worst lead in the deck, the dummy's suit, leading the heart 9. The A won that, West shedding
