Royals Trounce Colombos 47-26 In Circuit Hoop

ROSSLAND, B. C., Jan. 22 — Rosland Royals played a "cat and mouse" hoop game with the Trail Colombos in a league encounter at the Armory here Saturday night and won by a wide margin, score being 47-26.

Play was rough during most of the game, which was slowed up by constant interruptions of Referee John Gidinski's whistle as seven personal fouls were credited to each side. After making six personal fouls in the first half, the Colombos became more cautious. The home boys made two personals in the first half and the remaining five in the second. Bob Scott drew three for the Royals and Mino Angerilli one for the Colombos.

Establishing an early lead, the Royals made a half-time count of 26-6. A wild attempt to even the score on the part of the Colombos was unsuccessful.

McCONNELL 16 POINTS

George McConnell occupied the top notch with a total of 16 points gained from six field baskets and four penalty shots. Sniping but one basket in the first half, Ross Saundrey really went to town in the final session when he nabbed 10 points, all from field shots. Roger Quinn, the fast-improving former Myerson squad man of Vancouver, made several spectacular leaps for points, but lacked the sinking ability. He added five points. Pete Williams

MORE ABOUT MUSSOLINI

Italy's firm insistence on a new deal from France in the Mediterranean was proclaimed at the same time by the weekly review of foreign affairs, Realizom International.

The magazine said the visit of British Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain Jan. 11-14 to Rome did not change Italy's objectives "by a single centimetre."

Mussolini described as "nonsense" a rumor the Vatican had advised the French to "stand firm" against Fascist cries for French territory and remarked:

"Stand firm is easy to say and what if in the future there is an Italian — and there will be — who tells Italians that they must stand even firmer?"

GOOD HARVESTS

Il Duce said foreign anti-Fascists who expected his regime to be troubled by famine did not know Italy. He said Fascism's enemies had been dismayed by two good Italian harvests of 298,870,000 bushels of wheat.

(Italy's wheat needs have been estimated at 282,500,000 bushels annually. Self-sufficiency in wheat has been one of the cardinal points in the Fascist autarchy program.)

Nobody could say with certainty that Italy would have a third big harvest this year, the premier said, but he promised a fixed wheat price of about the equivalent of $2.15 a bushel.

Taking a jocular attitude, Mussolini said that if he told his listeners of the childish speculation, slanderous fantasies and ridiculous hopes of Fascism's adversaries' their laughter, "despite the Alps," would shatter the window of "western metropolises."

The nearest insurgent columns were moving up the Mediterranean coast behind a protective fan of tanks and armored cars only 18 miles airline from Barcelona's gates.

BARCELONA BOMBED

From the air, massed squadrons of insurgent General Franco's bombers circled over the government capital in unceasing relays, dropping tons of explosives. By mid-afternoon Barcelona had been bombed 14 times since the furious air attacks started Saturday.

(The insurgent high command at Burgos said tonight its Catalonian offensive had occupied 500 government towns, conquered more than 15,000 square miles and seized almost 60,000 prisoners since Dec. 23.)

Insurgents said Igualada, 30 miles west of Barcelona, was captured early this morning. Twice within three days it had changed hands while veteran government troops under General Enrique Lister fought desperately to save it.

Between Igualada and Manresa, about 14 miles northeast, insurgents said they had crossed the Llobregat river, cutting a road which not only linked Barcelona to the northern sectors of the front but which also was one of the two main highways to the French frontier.

"While proceeding to one of the positions given by radio of lost plane at 10:30 p.m., voices of survivors were heard calling.

FLOATING IN BELTS

"No. 1 lifeboat, in charge of Chief Officer C. Anderson, found survivors floating in rubber life belts and took them into life boat, bringing them alongside where they were safely taken on board.

"All survivors are able to travel by motor car."

"Five men and five women require overcoats, shoes and trousers for temporary transfer."

Those were the facts, but they hardly depicted the dramatic rescue of 10 persons from the Bermuda-bound flying boat.

Practical mariners and fliers were losing hope. The sea was rough and darkness made the search for an empty nature.

The tanker, the Esso Baytown, loomed up in the darkness. It was about to pass by the little group fighting to keep its heads above water.

Two of the men struck out for its bow, yelling someone heard them. The tanker hoove to.

THREE LOSE GRIP

They watched helplessly in the darkness, struggling to keep afloat in the Gulf Stream, while three of their companions weakened, lost their feeble grip on life preservers and sank from sight.

That much of the dramatic picture was supplied by the Coast Guard Cutter Champlain in a report to headquarters here. The stricken craft, the message said, The missing men disappeared, one by one.

"Because of strain and terror," the cutter radioed. "They (the survivors) could give no coherent accounts of the time and disappearance."

The message added the wife of one of the missing men saw her husband in a boat and picked up the five women and five men wallowing helplessly in the choppy water.

Having saved none other than the clothes they were wearing the survivors were destitute.

The eight coast guard vessels on the scene at dawn found neither the three missing men nor the wreckage of the Cavalier.

Those rescued — Mrs. Donald Miller, Lincoln, Neb.; Charles Talbot, Brookline, Mass.; Miss Nellie Tucker Smith, Pembroke, Bermuda; Mrs. Gordon Noakes, Malba, N.Y.; Mrs. Watson and Mrs. George Ingham, Bermuda.

Crew — Captain M. R. Alderson; Neil Richardson, first officer; Patrick Chapman, radio officer, and David Williams, steward.

MORE ABOUT BOMBINGS

At Sandringham, the King went shooting Saturday and Their Majesties were at church today.

A recent series of bombings and discovery of bombs that failed to explode at various points throughout the British Isles has created considerable alarm. In most instances the destruction was directed at public service, but damage was not great.

Increased police protection was provided during the week-end for Sir Samuel Hoare, home secretary, and for Malcolm MacDonald, dominions and colonial secretary.

BATES TO CONFER

Sir Dawson Bates, home secretary for Northern Ireland, who arrived in London Saturday, will continue his conferences with Scotland Yard and British government officials this week.

He has with him an "execution list," allegedly drawn by terrorists in Belfast, naming many Northern Ireland officials for decimation.

It is believed by some observers the bombings were a form of protest against imprisonment in Belfast without trial for 34 months of agitation against Viscount Craigavon's Northern Ireland government.

Five nurses who served with a British medical unit in government hospitals were unable to gain admittance to Chequers Saturday. They sought to present a letter to Mrs. Chamberlain telling of bombing of civilians in Spain.

Police arrested two women in Manchester after discovering a big cache of explosives in the basement of a store.

Speaking in Dublin last night Sean McEntee, minister of finance for Eire, said the partition problem must be settled for the future happiness and security of Great Britain and Ireland. In apparent reference to the bombing incidents, Mr. McEntee said that to condone the suggestion that every man is a law unto himself means the overthrow of law by anarchy.

"We do not want such upheaval in Ireland," he said.

Song Ended Sadly

Mary Martin, latest toast of Broadway, recently danced to her dressing room with the sound of applause ringing in her ears after singing "My Heart Belongs to Daddy," only to receive the news that her father had died in Texas. News of his death was kept from her until after her performance, for fear the shock would be too great.

Hon. Randolph Bruce Honored by Emperor of Japan

In recognition of the work of Hon. Randolph Bruce as Canadian minister to Japan, His Imperial Highness, the Emperor of Japan bestowed upon Mr. Bruce, left, who recently returned to Canada from his Tokyo post, a pair of silver Japanese Cloisonne vases. Baron Tomii, Japanese minister to Canada, presented the gift to Mr. Bruce, on behalf of the emperor, at the Japanese legation in Ottawa. Mr. Bruce, who previous to his ministerial appointment was lieutenant-governor of British Columbia, was a resident of the Kootenay for 20 years or more, and for many years operated the Paradise mine in the Windermere.

"Stratoliner" Ready for First Tests

Officially known as model-307, Boeing Aircraft company's 33-passenger "stratoliner," is shown after being wheeled into the open at Seattle, Wash., for the first time to be prepared for a series of engine tests. The silver four-engined craft is 74-feet long with a 107-foot wing spread, weighs 42,000 pounds and is designed to cruise at 300 miles per hour at a sub-stratosphere altitude of 20,000 feet.

Two super-chargers will maintain a cabin pressure greater than that of the rarified air outside at that altitude, allowing the passengers perfect breathing comfort at all times. The dirigible-like fuselage is perfectly streamlined without a break for the windows of the control compartment. This is the first of nine of these high-altitude land planes built for Pan-American Airways.

Robs Bank by Threatening to Blow It Up

A woman who said her name was Mrs. Mary McCollum, 36, and then changed her name to Bess Carney, and who says she is a fiction writer unable to sell her stories lately, rivalled any plot she might conceive when she walked into the Drexel State Bank, in Chicago's south side, and threatened to blow the place up with TNT unless she received $5000. She got the cash, but was trapped before she could leave with it. The two bottles which she carried and which she threatened to use in blowing the bank up proved to contain water, instead of TNT. The woman is shown here, also the bottles which served as her weapons.

A wise friend of mine says that one of the most important points of congeniality between a husband and wife is having mutual friends; that whenever good a time they may have together at home, when invitations are issued or accepted each of them is out of luck if either one doesn't appreciate, enjoy and accept the other's friends.

Toronto Born Stars Are Well Represented on New York Stage

By TED FARAH NEW YORK, Jan. 21 (CP).—The name of another Canadian-born star went up in lights on a Broadway theatre marquee this week and things reached a point where you could flush a thespian from the Dominion on more than half a dozen stages in the "Roaring 40's."

Beatrice Lillie, Toronto's contribution to the meritment of nations, moved in at the Music Box heading Noel Coward's gaudy and diverting revue, "Set to Music," and the critics were quick to acclaim her as the reigning belle of metropolitan.

With the birth of the New Year and the "Dawn of a New Day" still ringing in all ears as a result of the tumultuous welcome to the first 1939, the time is propitious for merrily — be she young or old — to take stock of herself — her features — her figure.

Education... Encourage Child To Talk at Meals

By GARRY C. MYERS, Ph.D. It seems to me there is nothing at school or in the home that offers so many possibilities for the education of the growing child as the family meal.

But the dinner hour cannot be educationally wholesome in a hasty atmosphere. There must be an air of calm, poise and composure. How can it be with the radio roaring? If the "straws" are fair samples, at least a third of the families of America have the radio turned on during the dinner hour.

Most specialists in the field of child guidance, advise parents to keep children away from the family dinner table until they are eight or nine. They, of course, are thinking of the child's eating problems, not his social education.

At his table he liked to have, as often as he could, some sensible friend or neighbor to converse with, and always took care to start some ingenious or useful topic for discourse, which might tend to improve the minds of his children.

ENGLAND OPENS TOURNEY WITH 3-0 RUGBY WIN

TWICKENHAM, England, Jan. 21 (CP Cable).—Humbling Wales for the 28th time since the countries first met in 1880, England got away to a good start in the current international rugby tournament, edging out a 3-0 decision in a gruelling contest here today.

Rugged, forward play was a feature of the match played before 65,000 excited rugby enthusiasts in drizzling rain and mist. At times spectators found it hard to follow the play through the mist and players found the greasy ball difficult to handle.

Although England kept the visitors penned in their own territory most of the first half it was not until midway through the second period that I. E. Tedon plunged over in the corner for the only score of the game. The Richmond forward who was playing in his first international match, followed up a short punt to gain the try. J. Heaton, Waterloo three-quarter, made a grand effort to convert the ball striking the upright.

Despite the inspiration and brilliance of Wilfred Wooller, Cardiff centre three-quarter, the Welshmen failed to dispel the Twickenham bogey. They have not won there since 1933. In some respects they were unfortunate, splendid defence work deserving a better reward.

Frequently the Welsh three-quarter attacked hotly but lost good positions repeatedly by failing to get the ball back from set scrums. Vivian Jenkins' long touch-finders were a feature of the visitors' defence which was deadly in tackling.

England's forwards played a grand game and it was chiefly their efforts that put at home team on top. R. M. Marshall of Oxford university was outstanding. He engineered several rushes that were only nullified by the formidable Welsh defence.

Last year at Cardiff, Wales won 14-8. In the long line of matches the Welshmen have won 19 times and six games ended in stalemates.

DICK METZ TAKES 'FRISCO OPEN

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 22 (AP).—Dick Metz of Chicago won the $5000 San Francisco match play open golf tournament today by defeating Horton Smith, Oak Park, Ill., one up in the 36-hole final. The winner received $1050, the loser $550.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 22 (AP).—Ben Coltrin, San Francisco, professional, turned in a stunning upset Saturday by defeating Harold McSpaden, Winchester, Mass., two and one in a quarter final match of the $5000 San Francisco match play open golf tournament.

McSpaden teed off as the favorite, because of brilliant sub-par golf in earlier rounds. Friday he was six under par while eliminating the defending champion, Jimmy Demaret, Houston, Tex. They were even at the ninth, with McSpaden carding a 38 against Coltrin's 37.

Horton Smith, Oak Park, Ill., veteran with his match from his former caddy, Leonard Dodson of Springfield, Mo., 4 and 3.

Smith was three up at the ninth with a 39, one under par for the 35-36-71 Lakeside course. Dodson went out in 38.

HEAVIES LOUIS AND LEWIS FIT FOR REAL SCRAP

POMPTON LAKES, N. J., Jan. 22 (AP).—Joseph Louis Barrow, a determined young specialist in various assortment of mayhems, has made up his mind to play for keeps when he tangles with John Henry Lewis for the heavyweight boxing title Wednesday night.

John Henry can look for the roof to fall in on him at Madison Square Garden shortly after the party gets under way at approximately 8 o'clock MST.

Joe in his final heavy workout before the fight went through 11 rounds of action, six against sparring partners, and wound up looking in fine physical condition as at any time in his career.

After he polishes off John Henry Joe thinks it's a cinch to wind up in a knockout—he'll be ready for any and all opposition.

From gossip around his camp, it seems possible Joe may meet Bob Pastor in March, and there's a chance Two-Ton Tony Galento, the kick-shaped gent, may have a crack at him in June or July.

One observer asked Joe mildly how far he thought the fight against John Henry would go.

"Well," drawled Joe, "it won't go as far as that, if I have my way."

One and all agreed the gag was terrible but that Joe was getting the point across.

McGERRIGLE RINK, TRAIL, WINS WAY INTO B.C. BRIER PLAYOFF

Robert C. McGerrigle's rook-busters from Trail have but to sweep aside competition at the Macdonald-Brier playoffs in the B. C. Curling association bonspiel here this week to trot off to Toronto to represent this province in the Dominion playdown. Sunday they own their way into the provincial competition by ousting Nelson and Rossland representatives in the West Kootenay Zone playoffs.

They did the West Kootenay zone playoff in two straight. McGerrigle's men took out T. A. Wallace's Nelson rink, 13-12; and J. A. Wright's Rossland rink, 23-1.

A BIG "BUT"

There's a mighty big but to their sweeping aside opposition in the provincial playdown however, for they have to face "Rolly" David's crack team and besom outfit from Vancouver, and H. R. Bank's curlers of Chapman Camp, winners of the East Kootenay. David previously skipped B. C.'s team in the Dominion playoff and will be making every effort to do what no other has done previously, skip a B. C. team for a second time in Dominion finals. Besides Trail's men were forced to 13 ends to push aside the Nelsonites.

The score by ends in the Sunday playdown was:

Trail	400 110 100 500 1
Nelson	332 001 031 011

Fine Display of Curlers' Prizes, Wood, Vallance

A magnificent showing, the trophies and supporting prizes for the B.C. Curling association bonspiel at Nelson this week are on display in the windows of the Wood-Vallance Hardware Co. Ltd., Baker street. It's not just a glittering display, but an interesting and unique one for it pictures a curling game in progress in true bonspiel fashion, and a special curling "stone".

The game, complete to miniature stanes and besoms, shows "Link" Tyson of Trail and Al Jeffs of Nelson in the role of skips; Bill Lindsay of Kimberley and "Eight-end" Whimster of Nelson sweeping a rock up the ice; Bert Banks of Kimberley watching the rock he has just thrown; and Roy Stephens of Rossland waiting to throw his rock. "Scotty" Marr of Nelson and Bill Forrest of Trail, brooms beside them, are bonspielling at one side, while Dave Garnum of Vancouver, complete to the fiery hatch which distinguishes him at bonspiels, looks on.

Miniature Game and Natural "Stane" Eye-Catchers

Made of wood, the figures are cleverly done. The rink also, and the stones, are "like-like".

Another eye-catching exhibit is a "natural curling stone" labelled the "Pimple", and placarded as the property of J. B. Gray. It is whispered that Alderman A. G. Ritchie had something to do with this.

The entire window is a gleaming exhibit, showing in spectacular manner the magnificent trophies and supporting prizes of the B.C. bonspiel. Each of the major trophies is shown with supporting prizes, which include coffee percolators, silver casseroles, blankets, waffle irons and many others of marked value and interest. Gold and silver medals support the Consols trophy.

Sheep Creek Men Refuse Lie Down; Defeat News 11-10

SHEEP CREEK, B. C., Jan. 22.—Knute Rockne of football immortality, once said: "A team that won't be beat, can't be beat." There were no Rocknes at Sheep Creek Saturday night, but there was a whole lot of his philosophy applied by the Sheep Creek Miners when, after dragging at the rear for two periods, they staged a great comeback in the final canto and edged out the Nelson News Inskalers for an 11-10 hockey victory.

It was a great night, with some great hockey masterminding and some heroic efforts that kept spectators on their toes. The new Sheep Creek rink, 70 feet by 170, was a splendid setting for the game.

The Inskalers, highly touted by Sheep Creek fans recalling their invasions of previous years, put up a fine game in the opening period, and held off the Miners' challenge in the second, but the home club was in better shape and really burned them in on the visitors in the third.

Rally in Third Canto Wipes Out Deficit Three Goals

Previous to the engagement the visitors were supper guests at the Kootenay Belle and Queen dining halls. When the formality of the actual hockey was over the boys got together in grand style, progressing from the Kootenay-Belle staff house to the Sheep Creek community hall for a dance. The fun level at the dance was even higher than at the game and the Inskalers enjoyed the evening so much they proposed playing the return game at Sheep Creek instead of in Nelson.

Teams:
Sheep Creek—Langille and Moir, goal; Thompson, McDowell and Leibscher, defence; Carrington, George Hlasney and Louis Hlasney, Herman, Bremner and Armstrong, forwards.

News: Stark goal; Aitken, Nelson, Jardine and Matheson, defence; Hooker, Burgess and Wallace, Ramsden, Gibbon, Brown and Heighton, forwards.

New Manufacturing Process for Planes Disclosed, Chicago

CHICAGO, Jan. 22 (AP)—George Meyercock, veteran of the aviation industry, disclosed here he had developed a secretly developed process based on plastics to manufacture eight or 10 planes. They had been flown successfully for more than a year, he said.

The new method was based on the moulding of thin veneers of wood into compound curvatures under heat.

Meyercock, president of the Gas-kette company here, said by using this method "one plant of average floor space could turn out more fuselages than all the airplane manufacturers in the world."

"Mass production of 10 fuselages a day could be started in two weeks or a month."

Wings and fuselages thus made were described as being waterproof, much lighter and without rivets or other projections which cut speed.

The financial statement was submitted by H. E. Taylor and indicated that contributions to all departments of church work had been well maintained.

Rev. Mr. Smythe reported on the Sunday school established at Kit-chener early this summer, and on the church services now held there each Tuesday evening.

The Sunday school work was reported on by Miss Jean Henderson; the Women's Missionary society by Mrs. T. W. Bundy, with the treasurer, Mrs. R. J. Forbes, reading the financial statement. Mrs. J. W. There were the usual hearty votes of thanks to the Sunday school workers, the choir and organist, especially Mr. Sims, who had been active in the musical side of Sunday worship. Kaslo Liberals Reelect Officers

KAASLO, B.C.—The Kaslo Liberal Association held its annual meeting Monday evening in the committee room, a large number attending. Opening the meeting, President J. W. Webster asked members to stand in a moment of silence in memory of E. Ward and O. Augustine, two members called by death during the year.

The secretary gave a resume of the last annual meeting. The treasurer's report showed a good balance in the funds. The president spoke briefly on legislation enacted during the last session of the B. C. Parliament, touched on general political and matters pertaining to the local association as well as on district matters. He expressed pleasure in seeing so many at the meeting and thanked officers and members for support and cooperation during the three years as president.

The secretary gave a short report covering the activities and accomplishments of the association during the past year. The committee of 1939 officers reported as follows: Honorary president, Prime Minister Mackenzie King; honorary first vice-president, Premier T. D. Pattullo; honorary second vice-president, Capt. C. S. Leary, M.L.A.; president, J. R. Tinker; first vice-president, E. H. Morphet; second vice-president, Floyd Garrett; secretary-treasurer, J. P. Latham, all elected by acclamation.

There were four nominees for members of the executive committee. A secret ballot elected E. H. Latham, James Speirs and A. W. Bayington. James Speirs and E. H. Latham were re-elected by acclamation to represent the Kaslo association on the executive committee of the Kaslo-Slocan District Liberal association.

Two new members were elected. A general discussion on matters relative to the good of the association and the district followed, and the meeting adjourned to Feb. 27.

Proposed Housing Scheme During Royal Visit, Van.

VANCOUVER, Jan. 22 (CP)—With 100,000 visitors expected during the visit of the king and queen at the end of May, Mayor Lyle Taylor announced plans Saturday to coordinate hotels, rooming houses and apartment buildings into a careful scheme to house the influx.

In an interview he suggested that, if the worst came to the worst, the city might even set up tents. Coinciding with his intention to provide needed accommodation, his workshop issued a warning that "profligating or racketeering" would not be permitted.

Toronto Golds Down Sat. Mkt.

TORONTO, Jan. 22 (CP)—A selling flurry, prompted, evidently by European turmoil, turned Toronto golds down Saturday. Other groups extended Friday's losses.

Nevada sold at 77 for a loss of 1 1/2. Nickel at 52 1/2 was down a half. Waite-Anulet, Ventures, Sherritt and Bend Oreille all posted minor losses. Eldorado eased down to 2.07 for a loss of 7.

Crabrook to Build Two More Bungalows

CRABROOK, B.C.—Some $2200 will be spent by the city early this spring to build two more bungalows at the city tourist park. This will bring the number to 12.

Last year's tourist season showed a marked demand for improved accommodation. The cabins in the camp were consistently occupied, but a reservation list was maintained for bungalows all season.

The camp's records for the season showed a slight increase over 1937. A much larger increase is expected this year with the Kingsgate-Radium highway nearly completed.

It was caught in the trap by only one talon, so that the carcass is in perfect condition for mounting.

C., Jan. 22—Falling off the sled on which his mother, Mrs. Charles Laff, Columbia avenue, was pulling him, two-and-a-half-year old Charlie Laff narrowly escaped serious injury when a passing car picked him up with a fender and dragged him for a yard, at the intersection of Columbia and Washington streets Saturday afternoon.

Apart from shock and minor bruises, he was not hurt.

ROSSLAND
SKI SLANTS
By "SNOW FLEURY"

ROSSLAND, B. C., Jan. 22—Perfect snow condition made perfect skiing in Rossland over the week-end. Literally hundreds from Trail and Rossland dotted the hills in the reservoir area like hungry ants—hungry for new ski thrills. And they got them.

It seems each week skiers advance farther and farther into the mountains, blazing and discovering new ski runs. The Squaw Basin run is a popular course.

Bob Lloyd, Scoutmaster, accompanied by Scouts George Luchin, Edward Taylor and Earl Taylor and Geoffrey Woodhams made a 14-hour trip to Grey mountain Saturday. They left town at 6 a.m. and returned at 8 p.m.

MIDNIGHT REVEL

Seized by a passion to go skiing by moonlight—there was no moon that night—Allan Currie, Winston Churchill and Douglas Toplit, Rossland high school students, awoke sprained and left at 8:30 a.m. Friday on a midnight revel. They struck the reservoir trail and hiked out to Squaw Basin. From there they skied to Grey mountain and to Kirkup mountain. After reaching Green mountain, Winston's ski harness came off his ski entirely. What to do?

They continued to ski around the hills and had a jolly time. Winston was unable to fix the harness, and so enjoyed himself on his remaining ski.

Rossland Skier
