Report Perth Sunk Not Yet Confirmed

MELBOURNE, June 6 (AP). — Prime Minister R. G. Menzies said today he had heard a report emanating from Berlin and claiming that the Australian cruiser Perth had been sunk in the Mediterranean but he said that the report was not confirmed.

Navy Minister William Hughes said Thursday that the Perth, a 6980 ton vessel, was damaged by German planes during the evacuation of Crete. He said the ship was among other plying between Alexandria and the South shore of Crete removing British troops.

The Navy Minister said that on at least one trip when the Perth took aboard 1200 troops it was steadily attacked for 13 hours.

Grain Business Probe Demanded

OTTAWA, June 6 (CP).—A demand for a full Parliamentary inquiry into "the whole grain handling business" when Parliament reassembles in the Fall was made by E. E. Perley (Con. Qu'Appelle) in the House of Commons tonight.

"The whole grain business as carried on today is a racket and won't stand the light of day," said Mr. Perley.

"There are certain things going on on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange with which the Wheat Board has something to do that will not stand investigation."

Trade Minister MacKinnon said he saw "no objection whatever" to inquiry by a Parliamentary Committee.

Mr. Perley also charged Canadian grain firms refused to handle a recent wheat shipment to Nortn China and that it was handled by three international Jew firms", which he named as Continental Grain Company, Dreyfus Company and Bunguy Company.

"That is not correct," said Mr. MacKinnon. "The Canada Grain Company of Vancouver, a wholly-Canadian concern, handled that shipment."

Late Flashes

NEW YORK, June 6 (CP). — The BBC said tonight in connection with the Cairo announcement that forces of the Union of South Africa have joined the British lines in Egypt that "South African troops have been moving steadily Northwards to Egypt since the capture of Addis Ababa."

LONDON, June 7 (Saturday)—(AP).—German planes raided the southwest of England last night and early today, loosing bombs upon the town.

A SOUTHEAST TOWN IN ENGLAND, June 7 (Saturday—(AP).—British bombers attacked the German-occupied French coast in the region of Calais in the bright moonlight, early today and German planes at the same time tried to cross the Channel in this region.

Stibbs to Cable His Reply When Nelson Goes Over Top

From Nelson, England, to Nelson, British Columbia, have come greetings and a spur for the Victory Loan campaign by recalling Lord Nelson's famous signal.

Mayor N. C. Stibbs on Friday received the message from this city's front-line namesake in the form of a cablegram which said:

"Nelson, England, sends cordial greetings to Nelson, British Columbia, and hopes in connection with Canada's war loan effort that Lord Nelson's signal to his fleet at Trafalgar in 1805 will be emulated in 1941, so that freedom and liberty may survive."

The cable was signed by the Mayor of Nelson, England.

Mayor Stibbs stated that his reply would be to cable to Nelson, England, immediately Nelson went over the top in the campaign.

"This is a call for everyone to live up to Lord Nelson's signal, 'England expects that every man this day will do his duty'," said the Mayor. "We want to be able to cable the Mayor of Nelson, England, that we are not letting them down."

His Worship indicated he would send the following verses, by air mail, to the English city:

"To steel our souls against the lust of ease;
To find our welfare in the general good;
To hold together, merging all degrees
In one wide brotherhood,

"To teach that he who saves himself is lost;
To bear in silence though our hearts may bleed;
To spend ourselves, and never count the cost
For others' greater needs."

Central Authority to Assure Defence, Help Britain Willkie Urge

CHICAGO, June 6 (AP). — Wendell L. Willkie called tonight for creation of a "coordinated centralized authority under the direction of one man responsible to the President" to assure national defence and as a step toward providing Great Britain's requirements.

He coupled that appeal with an assertion that "America must insure the safe delivery of at least her own production to England" because "unless those losses of shipments to England are stopped or greatly reduced — and at once — England cannot survive."

Vancouver Develops Its Own Propaganda

VANCOUVER, June 6 (CP) — Books and pamphlets bearing such titles as "Life Under Hitler" and "The Nazification of the German School Child," will be given to seamen on all foreign ships putting into port here, and distributed on the waterfront and the coast under a plan of the Board of Trade's Port Committee.

The scheme is part of a propaganda campaign against the Nazis Some of the literature outlines the Empire's war effort and posters carry warnings to defence workers.

Premier Ready for Conference if Province Heads Want One

Matters Proposed for Discussion by Hepburn Would Have Had Full Consideration at Last Meeting Declares King

OTTAWA, June 6 (CP).—Prime Minister Mackenzie King said tonight in a telegram to Premier Mitchell Hepburn of Ontario that if the "Premiers of the several Provinces should unite in a request for another Dominion-Provincial Conference, the Dominion Government will be prepared to give immedite consideration to any such request."

The telegram was in reply to one received by Mr. King *late yesterday in which Mr. Hepburn suggested a Dominion-*Provincial Conference be called to discuss outstanding problems to ensure the fullest possible war effort.

Mr. King's telegram tonight said that matters which Mr. Hepburn proposed as subjects for discussion at a Dominion-Provincial conference "would have been among those which it was hoped and expected would have had full consideration at the conference in January last had that conference proceeded."

Since the January conference on the Sirois report ended after two day's discussion, no suggestion for another conference had been received by the Dominion from any province until Mr. Hepburn's telegram arrived yesterday, Mr. King said.

Neither had the Federal Government noticed any failure on the part of any province to cooperate in Canada's war effort, he said, unless the exception taken by the Ontario Government to the proposed increase from five to 15 per cent in the tax on interest payable to non-resident holders of provincial securities could be regarded in that light.

"As the Minister of Finance (Hon. J. L. Ilsley) has restored the tax in question to its level of the past eight years, it is hoped that all cause for complaint on that score has now been effectively removed," Mr. King said.

The Government was of the opinion that unless there were general agreement on the part of all provinces on the desirability of holding another conference, such a conference might only serve to accentuate difference raised at the January session.

"Were such to be the case it would certainly prove prejudicial rather than helpful to Canada's war effort," the Prime Minister said.

VICTORIA, June 6 (CP)—Premier Pattullo of British Columbia said tonight he had no comment to make on Prime Minister Mackenzie King's announcement that the Dominion Government would be prepared to give immediate consideration to a request for another Dominion-Provincial conference should the premiers of several provinces unite in asking for such action.

Army on Western Coast Impresses Visiting Scribes

By SAM G. ROSS
Canadian Press Staff Writer

A CANADIAN WEST COAST DEFENCE STATION, June 6 (CP) — Canada's army, with big guns pointed toward the sea and mobile units at strategic points, is being geared for a war of movement in defence of the West coast.

Linked with the Royal Canadian Navy and the Royal Canadian Air Force patrols over British Columbia's cost line, the army units are being drilled in long hours of action over rugged terrain and this week a group of newspapermen saw the army at work.

Guided by Major-General R. O. Alexander, Officer Commanding-in-Chief, Pacific Command, the party underwent a dive bombing attack with one-pound bags of flour for bombs, felt the sting of gas in a test hut and experienced being trapped in a smoke screen.

Officers and men of the Pacific Command, established eight months ago to embrace British Columbia and Alberta, have been working night and day to bring the area to a poin of preparation for anything that may happen.

Defence batteries, manned 24 hours a day, and the mobile units that are being drilled to know every crevice and twist of trail in their area, are part of the army's contribution to the welcome planned for enemy units.

Soldiers with steel helmets and rifles and units with heavier arms appeared from nowhere along the highways, and road posts went into action on the approach to the military areas. Fortress crews engaged approaching ships.

The job of maintaining constant guard on a quiet front that has the possibilities of actual combat is a tough one, But in the words of the officers it is being done effectively.

Japanese Turned Down by Indies; No Sign of Crisis

BATAVIA, June 6 (AP).—The Government of the Netherlands East Indies rejected today important sections in Japan's demands for a large share of the rubber, oil and tin of these islands, but there was no sign of the subsequent crisis which the Japanese had intimated would come in event of an unfavorable answer.

While terms of the Indies reply were not disclosed, the chief Japanese negotiator, Kenkichi Yoshizawa, emerged from a 90-minute conference with Indies negotiator J. Van Mook to express disappointment and to predict it would not suit Tokyo.

"It is my impression," said Yoshizawa, "that agreement will be very difficult."

Informed persons said the Indies had in fact taken a middle course, attempting to maintain normal trade relations with Japan without furnishing to the Japanese so much rubber, tin and the like as to make trans-shipment to Germany possible.

It was added, the Indies insisted that British and United States needs

In Tokyo, the newspaper Nichi Nichi after a telephone interview with Yoshizawa thus quoted him:

"I expect to hold several more meetings. The Indies' attitude is very strong. If my sincerity won't be accepted I will leave the Indies."

Kaslo Great Dane Leading Galgary One Merry Chase

CALGARY, June 6 (CP).—Rungmook Rub'Dar, a Great Dane from Kaslo, B. C., has led this town a merry chase for eight days now and has everyone including police just about at their wits' end.

Rub'Dar, owned by Col. and Mrs. J. de Cowan of Kaslo was sent to the Stampede Dog Show here, but decided he'd like to do some roaming. He has been on the loose in the West End for eight days, eluding all efforts at capture and when last reported was rapidly growing thin and weak.

Today a trained police dog was sent out to drive the elusive big fellow into the hands of would-be captors.

*There was talk of getting a cow*boy to rope him but not a cowhand could be found, so if other methods fail, authorities have a plan they hope will snare Rub'Dar.

Tomorrow people on foot, on horses, and in cars will be asked to form a circle around the area where Rub'Dar is in hiding. Then everyone will close in on the big Great Dane—they hope.

B. C. Forest Fires Up From Last Season

VICTORIA, June 6 (CP). — Unsettled and cloudy weather, with scattered showers in most areas, was reported last week by the Provincial Forest Service in the forest fire report for the period. A total of 161 fires were reported to date this season, compared with 114 fires at the same date last year.

By areas, the fires were recorded as follows: Vancouver Island and Coast area, 29; Prince Rupert 20; *Fort George 27; Kamloops and Dis*trict 64; and Nelson District 42 outbreaks. Thirty-nine fires occurred during the last week of the report, 27 of which were burning as the period ended.

VANCOUVER, June 6 (CP). — Street Railway employees of the British Columbia Electric Railway Company will decide by referendum vote, tentatively set for June 23, whether they will accept the majority award of a Board of Arbitration yesterday.

U. S. AMBASSADOR FORESEES WAR ENTRY

TOKYO, June 7 (Saturday)—(AP).—The United States Ambassador, Joseph C. Grew, today told a group of American church workers that under certain circumstances he could foresee United States entry into the war and said a just peace with Germany at this time "is utterly impossible."

"Germany," Grew said, "has prepared the way for and has set in motion in the last 75 years five wars—one cannot temporize with a cancer. . . ."

NAZI ENGINEERS BUILDING PLANE BASE IN SYRIA

Eight Submarines Seen in Harbor of Beirut

RAIL SERVICES IN RUMANIA SLASHED

ANKARA, June 6 (AP).—German air corps engineers are constructing a fighter plane base at Latakia, No. 3 Syrian port, only 62 miles from the tip of Syprus, British island base in the Eastern Mediterranean, foreign military attaches reported tonight.

The purpose of the base, according to military sources, was two-fold: to protect the little Syrian port against the Royal Air Force and serve as a base from which Cyprus could be attacked.

The Columbia Broadcasting System's Ankara correspondent said German pilots, technicians and officers walk about the town of Aleppo in shorts "apparently disguised as sportsmen."

"German transport planes, presumably carrying ground crews, are shuttling daily between Syria and Rhodes," the correspondent, Winston Burdett, added.

LONDON, June 7 (Saturday)—(CP). — Eight German "pocket submarines" were reported to have been seen in the harbor of Beirut, Lebanon, during the last week, Reuters News Agency reported today in a dispatch from Ankara, Turkey.

BUCHAREST, Rumania, Saturday, June 8 (AP).—A drastic reduction of passenger service on Rumanian railways, effective Sunday, was announced today. The new schedule, eliminating 12 express trains, 70 other passenger trains and 65 local and motor trains, is necessary to intensify the transportation of freight, the announcement said.

(This dispatch, via Berlin, made no mention of the reasons for heavy freight transportation. It was recalled, however, that reports Thursday in Ankara said heavy German and Rumania troop concentrations had been arranged on the Russian border. Authoritative Bucharest quarters acknowledged some troops normally are recalled at this time of the year for training).

ROME, June 7 (Saturday)—(AP). —Premier Benito *Mussolini is ex*pected to inform his Cabinet today of the results of his talk with Adolf Hitler last Monday at Brenner Pass, but no public disclosures are probable, it was said. The Cabinet meeting is a regular monthly session.

Dead Earl Saved Valuable Secrets

LONDON, June 6 (CP).—Rescuing valuable scientific secrets from under the noses of invading Germans provided exciting episodes in the life of the Earl of Suffolk, killed in an enemy air raid on London.

A laconic official report, now in the hands of Government authorities, tells stories rivalling the adventures of the Scarlet Pimpernel, and supplies important scientific information.

Lord Suffolk was appointed to the Ministry of Supply's Scientific Department in France when the war broke out and held that post until the collapse of France.

A close friend said "when the Germans went into Norway he knew a vital chemical was in danger of falling into their hands. He set off to rescue it. Until the report of his amazing journey through territory already partly occupied by the enemy is published after the war nobody can realize the risks he ran or the adventures he had."

The friend added that the scientific peer also saved "a consignment of another secret chemical and a bagful of diamonds from Paris more or less under the noses of the invaders."

SAYS HITLER ADMITS HE CAN'T DOWN BRITAIN

LONDON, June 6 (CP)—Labor Minister Ernest Bevin, speaking tonight at Wimbledon, declared that Hitler "has acknowledged he cannot bring Britain down before 1942 and that brings to the Germans the fact that by then the whole weight of the United States will be thrown into the struggle."

Ottawa Declares Mines Essential Services in Order

Heavy Penalties Provided for Impeding of Production; Order Aims at Agitators Halting Work for Trivial Causes

OTTAWA, June 6 (CP).—Civil authorities adminstering the Defence of Canada Regulations were given far-reaching powers to prevent slowing up or unauthorized stoppage of coal mine production by an order-in-counci adopted today and announced by J. McG. Stewart, Coal Administrator.

All coal mines in Canada were declared to be "essential services" under the Defence of Canada Regulations, and heavy penalties are provided for those who impede production or impair the efficiency of coal mines.

It was emphasized by officials that this order in no way interfered with the rights of trade unions to bargain or to strike, but if a strike is called the men must keep on working until all the conciliation machinery provided by the Government falls down.

They said the order is aimed at agitators, small groups who might create a partial stoppage of production based on trivial causes, and all illegal interference with production.

It was stated by an official of the Coal Administrator's Branch that there had been a great deal of production time lost in Canadian *coal mines, and this order strength*ened the hands of the civil authorities to prevent much of the trouble.

At present time there are no coal mine disputes causing stoppage of production, he said.

Any delay in the flow of coal from the mines was a serious factor in the war effort, this official said, because of the great increase of industrial demand and the shortage of rolling stock and shipping bottoms to bring in imported coal.

"From this date anyone who impairs the efficiency or impedes the working of coal mines will bring himself directly within the Defence of Canada Regulations," Mr. Stewart said.

Section 27 of the Defence of Canada Regulations says: "No person shall do any act with intent to impair the efficiency or impede the working of any vessel, aircraft, vehicle, machinery, apparatus or other thing used or intended to be used for the purposes of any of His Majesty's forces, or for any undertaking engaged in the performance of essential services."

The section explicitly says that no person shall be guilty of an offence "by reason only of his taking part in, or peacefully persuading any other person to take part in, a strike."

Hanson Says All Must Join Drive

OTTAWA, June 6 (CP) — The Empire goes forward assured of ultimate victory, but triumph over the enemy cannot be attained *without an effort without paral*lel in history, Conservative House Leader Hanson said tonight in a radio address.

His speech was in support of Canada's $600,000,000 Victory Loan campaign—a campaign which he was positive would be fully subscribed.

"We Canadians, in common with all other subjects of the Empire, are *undismayed by the enemy's tem*porary gains—his so-called victories over helpless and unarmed peoples."

Mr. Hanson said that as leader of the Conservative party he had often taken issue with the Government, "but neither I nor any other member of our party has held any view of Canada's part in the present conflict but that it must be prosecuted with the utmost vigor."

"Tonight," he said, "I want to say that party interests must be laid aside as we all go forward together in the launching of this Victory Loan drive for $600,000,000. The interests of Canada, of the Empire and of humanity must come before all personal or party considerations."

He said he believed all Canadians would welcome the opportunity provided by the loan "to prove to the world that Canada is undivided—that it has but one single aim in this war, and that that aim is the same as that of the Mother Country and all the Empire."

Gov't Control for Plane Co. Coming

WASHINGTON, June 6 (AP).—A high Government official confirmed reports tonight that the Government would take over the strike-bound North American Aviation Company by presidential proclamation on Monday if striking employees did not return to work tomorrow.

700 Chinese Die in Stampede to Air Raid Shelter

CHUNGKING, June 6 (AP). — Seven hundred Chinese were killed by suffocation inside and by a bloody stampede at the entrances to Chungking's biggest air raid dugout last night during a disastrous Japanese aerial attack.

Rescue squads still were bringing out the mangled bodies of whole families late today. There were still more tragic scenes when relatives and friends located their dead.

It was the greatest blow yet in this oft-bombed capital.

When the first wave of Japanese bombers passed, thousands emerged from the vast underground structure which has entrances whole blocks apart.

But the sound of motors heralding a fresh onslaught sent these fearful thousands of men, women and children rushing back to the shelter. Jamming at the entrances, they fought and clawed each other, and were crushed underfoot.

Those who managed to fight their way inside the shelter soon were choking to death when the piled up bodies in the entrances cut off ventilation.

The Japanese for the first time this season dropped bombs on the South bank of the Yangtze River, across from capital proper in what once was regarded as a safety zone. Several exploded within a few hundred yards of the U. S. Embassy, but it was undamaged.

Canadians Rough on "Parachutists"

SOMEWHERE IN ENGLAND, June 6 (CP). — Two 1st Canadian Division units in an all-night exercise designed to test the defence of a Western Canadian Infantry Brigade gave a rough reception to "parachutists."

An Alberta and a Western Canada Regiment played the role of defenders in the realistic manoeuvre, first of its kind held by the Canadians and the fore-runner of a larger scheme in which Home Guard, A. R. P., Searchlight and Anti-Aircraft Batteries will take part. Members of a British Columbia Regiment represented the parachutists.

PAPER WORKERS APPROVE WAGE INCREASES

PORTLAND, Ore., June 6 (AP) —Pulp and paper mill workers of Washington, Oregon and California ratified by a 13 to 1 vote margin a contract granting pay increases and a liberalized vacation program, union officials announced here today.

Victory Loan Continues Pace

Subscriptions Reach $237,000,000 Friday

OTTAWA, June 6 (CP).—Reports from all parts of Canada indicate that Friday's subscriptions to the $600,000,000 Victory Loan 1941 were "fully up to the average for the week" but no actual figures are available, National Campaign Headquarters announced tonight.

Total of cash subscriptions in the first four days of the nation-wide drive which opened last Monday was $190,067,950, it was announced earlier today.

With that figure as a basis, cash subscriptions to tonight would be in the neighborhood of $237,000,000 if Friday returns are up to expectations.

This figure does not include a $20,000,000 subscription from Metropolitan Life Insurance Company through conversion of Dominion of Canada five per cent bonds maturing next November.

In every Province loan officials reported enthusiasm at a high level, and the widespread acceptance of the loan by large and experienced investors, as well as the smaller investors, was said to be of "considerable satisfaction" to National Headquarters.

Great-West Life Assurance Co. of Winnipeg subscribed for $6,000,000 of 10-year term bonds, Swift Canadian Co. Ltd., of Toronto, subsidiary of the United States packing company of the same name, placed an order for $2,000,000.

Subscriptions for $1,000,000 each were received from Lever Brothers Ltd., Toronto; Chrysler Corp. of Canada, Windsor, Ont., Shell Oil Co. of Canada Ltd., British Columbia Sugar Refining Co., Vancouver, British Columbia Telephone Company, Vancouver; Hollinger Consolidated Gold Mines Ltd., Montreal; and Consolidated Paper Corp., Ltd., Montreal.

The City of Toronto purchased $1,500,000 worth of bonds for its sinking fund.

Drumheller, Alta., became the first city to go over its objective, and a number of smaller centres such as Carbon, Alta., had earned as many as five honor pennants. An honor pennant is awarded when a unit exceeds its objective and another is awarded every time a unit goes 25 per cent over its objective.

Sunday will be "Victory Loan Sunday," and churches will emphasize the needs of the campaign. The canvass will be continued Monday despite the holiday. Victory Loan officials said they considered there could be no better way to celebrate the King's birthday than by buying a bond.

B. C. and Yukon Over the Third Way Mark

VANCOUVER, June 6 (CP).—British Columbia and the Yukon were over the third way mark tonight in the sixth day of the drive to raise a quota of $60,000,000 for Canada's $600,000,000, war loan.

Late today Provincial headquarters here reported a total of $22,000,000 in bonds had been sold and several points had topped their objectives.

The Princeton area, which subscribed $63,050 on a $60,000 quota, today increased its total to $100,000.

Alberni, on Vancouver Island, reported it had taken in a total of $42,500 to top its $40,000 quota.

Vancouver's total, exclusive of the suburbs, stood at $3,800,000, 22 per cent of its quota of $15,000,000 The suburbs added $500,000 more of a quota of $2,000,000.

Okanagan division led the Province with $572,000 garnered of an objective of $1,300,000. Nanaimo division stood next with a total of $462,000 of a $1,100,000 quota.

Nanaimo City and district had gathered $158,000, Ladysmith, $26,850 and Parksville-Qualicum, $73,600.

Trail Bruins Win Second Straight From Leafs 14-6

TRAIL, B.C., June 6—Trail Golden Bears widened their margin over the Nelson Maple Leafs Friday when they defeated the Nelson team 14-6 in the first senior boxla game of the season at Trail.

Nelson travelled over to the Smelter City seeking revenge afted an 11-8 licking taken from the Trail boys last Friday night in the opening game at Nelson, but in spite of four periods of heavy checking and snappy passing, the visitors failed to click with many of their shots, and a last period rally, in which they staged a hot and desperate battle, failed to close up the Bears seven-goal margin which marked the end of the third period.

Bryant earned enthusiastic applause with two unassisted goals, both opening counters in the second and third. His second goal was the most sensational of the game. Gathering up a loose ball near the side boards in his new defence zone, he squirmed his way up the side to centre, and fought a diagonal course across the floor and slammed it in past Morq's reach.

CAGEY LACROSSE

First period opened with the boys playing a cagey game, but throwing was inaccurate. Nick Turik whipped in Trail's first goal while Nelson was still trying to break through for a score, and Ralph Temple got the second on a pass from Bobby Kendall. Glen Price came in with Nelson's first counter, and the first period closed two minutes after Nick Turik scored from Roland Sammartino.

Kuhn halted proceedings in the middle of the first when he went down in centre with an injured shoulder but came back into the game before the period finished.

Play in the second stanza speeded up, and both teams settled down to passing plays that were neat and snappy but Nelson's shots bounced too far in front of the Trail goal to be effective, and the Bears shot in four goals to avenge Bryant's lone tally.

BOB KENDALL STARS

Bob Kendall, who boosted Trail's final count six points with three goals and three assists, sank in a discounted goal just as the second period closing gong sounded.

Wide-open play, with heavy checking and improvised acrobatics, which drew surprisingly few penalties, started toward the end of the third session and increased in tempo until the last gong.

Scuby in the Nelson goal made several pretty saves, and Nelson staged several hot frays around the Trail citadel, but shot wild.

Windsors May Visit Alberta in Summer

CALGARY, June 6 (CP). — The Duke and Duchess of Windsor are planning to visit the Duke's ranch at Pekisko, possibly during the first week in August, it was reported here today.

It was learned on good authority that the Duke's secretary had communicated with a number of the Board of Trustees entrusted with the administration of the Duke's ranch properties, concerning the cost of renovating the ranch house at the E. P. Ranch.

It is also reported that if the Duke and Duchess did decide to holiday in Alberta, they would spend at least two months here in order to escape the hottest season of the year at Nassau in the Bahamas.

Kimberley Man Director K.C. Huts in England

Capt. Walter F. Slade of Kimberley has been appointed Director of the Canadian Knights of Columbus huts in England, filling the post left vacant at the death of Lieut.-Col. Claude Browne, former Director.

Capt. Slade has been in England some time engaged in Army hut work. The huts are recreation centres provided and maintained by the Knights of Columbus.

Outline Program Rossland Visit Recruiting Party

ROSSLAND, B.C., June 6—"It's about time this system of voluntary recruiting for overseas service was abolished, and total conscription introduced, to take everyone, including conscientious objectirs," was the opinion expressed by Principal Wesley McKenzie, to the Citizen's Committee to encourage recruiting which was held in the City Hall Wednesday evening, in connection with a two-day visit the coming week by some 35 members of the Veterans Guard of Canada from points throughout the district.

The meeting was generally inclined to agree with Mr. McKenzie in view of the fact that voluntary enlistments have been so slow and so comparatively few in number, but Mayor John E. Gordon pointed out that the present Dominion Government was re-elected in 1940 with the understanding that it would not resort to conscription in order to secure men for army service overseas, and that until the people expressed themselves in favor of conscription, the Government was not likely to alter its present policy. Of course, said His Worship, there should be no difficulty in settling the question by a referendum.

It was arranged that a parade to be composed of the Veterans Guard of Canada, the Voluntary Defence Corps and Bugle Band, and the City Band will assemble on Tuesday evening, June 10, at 6:30 p.m. at Esling Park. The route will be from the Park along Spokane Street to Columbia Avenue, thence along Columbia Avenue to Davis Street, back along Columbia Avenue to St. Paul Street, West along Columbia Avenue again to Washington Street up Washington Street to First Avenue, and along First Avenue to the park again.

The parade on the next evening, Wednesday, June 11, will assemble at the same point, and follow a similar course, xecept that after turning on to First Avenue from Washington Street, it will proceed East thereon to the Armories.

Victory Bond Total for Kootenays Is $890,000

Incomplete returns Friday boosted the Kootenay-Boundary Victory Loan total to date to $890,000. Subscriptions reported during the day amounted to $160,100, this figure being made up as follows: East Kootenay, $47,350; Nelson Unit, $88,500; and Trail Unit, $24,250.

Current totals for the three units are: East Kootenay, $266,500; Nelson, $324,500; and Trail, $306,950.

Two mines in the Sheep Creek camp, major producers of gold for years, have made substantial subscriptions to the Victory Loan but it is not yet known whether they will be credited to the Salmo centre, in which territory the mines are located, or to the Coast, where their head offices are situated. Sheep Creek Gold Mines Ltd. subscribed for bonds to the value of $100,000 and Reno Gold Mines Ltd. for bonds to the value of $150,000.

EAST KOOTENAY GAINS

East Kootenay unit added $47,350 during the day to make its district total $266,550, well on the way to the $650,000 goal.

Cranbrook was close to its objective of $135,000 as its total reached $127,850. Creston added $1050 to make its total $21,300; Fernie-Michel-Natal $15,200 to bring its figure to $53,300; and Kimberley $9850 to make its aggregate $50,000. Golden and Invermere showed totals to date of $9650 and $4450 respectively.

NELSON ADDS $88,500

The Nelson unit was nearly half way to its $700,000 objective Friday night when subscriptions reached $324,500. The total for the district for the day was $88,500.

Nakusp entered the district picture with $5900 reported by canvassers, and it was expected the figure would increase materially with the receipt of bank returns.

New Denver, first centre in the Kootenay-Boundary to exceed its quota and this on the second day of the campaign, reported its total to date had reached $49,650. This was $4650 over its quota.

Kaslo added $650 to its total to reach $10,600.

In Nelson the day's subscriptions amounted to $33,000, bringing the total to date to $258,350. The Nelson quota is $525,000.

TRAIL TOTAL $230,000

TRAIL, B. C., June 6—Trail's Victory Loan total reached $230,000 tonight, an increase of $20,000 for the day.

TRAIL TOTAL $306,950

TRAIL, B. C., June 6—Rolling along toward the objective, Trail Unit headquarters reported a total of $306,950 in Victory Loan subscriptions up to noon Friday. The quota is $750,000.

Figures reported at that time, with the quotas for each centre listed, follow:

		Quota
Trail	$230,600	$525,000
Rossland	23,300	110,000
Castlegar	8,150	7,000
Grand Forks	29,950	63,000
Greenwood	14,950	25,000

These figures do not include conversions and "special names."

CHINESE BACK DRIVE

TRAIL, B. C., June 6—Harry Wong, who is canvassing all Chinese in Trail, for Victory Bonds, reports that 80 per cent of those called on subscribed.

COAST FIRM BUYS AT TRAIL

TRAIL, B.C., June 5—A gesture in appreciation of its business dealings in Trail will result in the purchase of $20,000 of Victory Bonds, to be credited to the Trail unit, by McLennan, McFeely & Prior Ltd. of Vancouver.

S. S. McDiarmid, Chairman of the Trail Victory Loan Committee, was advised of the intended subscription in the following telegram:

"As a British Columbia institution closely associated with your district we would be gratified to have the privilege of participating with the citizens of Trail in subscribing wth them to your quota for the 1941 Victory Loan. Mailing you our application for $20,000 bonds. Wishing your campaign every success."

Grand Forks to Have Drumhead Service Sunday

GRAND FORKS, B. C., June 6—Victory Loan Sunday in Grand Forks will be featured by a military arade and drumhead open air religious service.

For the Victory Loan parade, to be led by the City Band and the Legion Bugle Band, the touring Veterans' Guard platoon with a personnel of 50 men in uniform will augment local efforts. The Guards will be accompanied by the Trail Pipe Band and the Guard Bugle Band. There will thus be four bands in the procession. The parade will march from the Legion Hall to the cenotaph for a brief ceremony and will go on to the school grounds, where a drumhead service will be held with Capt. A. H. Hugill in charge. A special service has been arranged, with Rev. Mr. Keyworth and Rev. Mr. Collins taking part. Loud speaker equipment will be used.

The Sunday service is to be followed by a recruiting concert on Monday evening in the Legion, followed by a dance.

Rossland and Grand Forks Mayors Wager Lemon in Victory Loan Race

TRAIL, B. C., June 6 — "Lemons to you" could be the slogan adopted by the Mayor of Rossland and the Mayor of Grand Forks, who got together Friday on an intercity contest resting upon which city reaches its quota first in the Victory Loan Campaign.

Mayor J. E. Gordon of Rossland started the ball rolling by wiring Mayor Frank Miller of Grand Forks to this effect; "Rossland challenges Grand Forks to reach the quota first, the Mayor of the losing city to eat a lemon in a public square of the winning city."

Came Mayor Miller's reply: "Challenge accepted. Have nice juicy lemon for you."

Quotas are: Grand Forks $63,000, population 2000, per capita, $31.50; Rossland, $110,000, population 4000, per capita $27.50.

Hayor Herbert Clark of Trail has wagered Mayor Norman C. Stibbs of Nelson that Trail will reach its quota first. Both cities have quotas of $525,000.

VICTORIA TO HAVE SKATING IN FALL

VICTORIA, June 6 (CP).—Victorians can look forward to ice-skating on October 15, according to a statement by H. B. Olson who announced today his plans for the coversion of the horse show building into an arena had received the go-ahead signal.

Queen Touches Wood

LONDON (CP). — Queen Elizabeth believes in "touching wood".

During a visit to the King George and Queen Elizabeth Club for Service Women of the Empire Her Majesty asked a young Irish cook in the basement kitchen if the gas supply had been cut off as a result of air raids. "Oh, no," the Irish lass replied. "We have not been without gas yet."

The Queen promptly touched the table and said, "we had better touch wood then, just to be on the safe side." Her Majesty spent a half hour chatting with uniformed women in the club quarters. They included Canadian nurses, Wrens and Waafs.

MINNEAPOLIS, June 6 (AP). —Bleeding from a bad eye wound Lou Nova, California heavyweight rallied tonight to knock out Jim Robinson, Philadelphia in the third of a scheduled 10-round bout.

Dario Lodigiani, playing third base for Chicago White Sox, used to play amateur ball at Vancouver.

M. Jorgensen Is New Premier of the High School

Climazing a three-year Parliamentary career, rising from House B. Member through the Speaker's office, Marjorie Jorgenson Friday afternoon was elected Prime Minister of Nelson High School Parliament for the 1941-42 term. She will appoint her cabinet next week, and will probably announce the personnel at a school assembly on Wednesday afternoon, when yearly awards are presented.

The new Prime Minister succeeds Arne Henrickson, who stepped up from Minister of Finance to take over the office when Helen Alexander, first girl Premier, left in January, to reside at Vancouver.

Popular inside the school and out, Miss Jorgenson is the only present member of the Parliament who has been in it since the form of school Government was instituted in the 1937-38 term with Howard Campbell as Prime Minister.

SHINES IN DRAMATICS

Miss Jorgensen has enjoyed a career of varied activities in and out of school, shining particularly in dramatics. Coming to Nelson in 1937 from Shaunavon, Sask., with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Jorgenson, and brother, Earl, she first attended Nelson Junior High School. Entering High School, she was immediately elected House B Grade X Member of Parliament. She was elected again in Grade XI and this year was appointed Speaker of the House by Helen Alexander.

She was Secretary of the School Social Committee part of the year until she relinquished her position because of a constitutional ruling which stated that one could not occupy two positions at once. She then continued as Speaker.

Among her school activities, she has been a member of the Dramatic Club, this year writing, directing and acting in the House B play, "London Carries On," which won the inter-house competition; a member of the Choral Group and school pianist; and Secretary of the High School Junior Red Cross. She took part for House B in the school track meets the past two years; was a member of the House B debating team this year; and won her class with a monologue, "Betty at the Baseball Game," in the inter-house music festival this term. She was awarded a scholastic award two years ago, and last year was given a second year scholastics bar and a social award.

ACTIVITIES VARIED

Outside of school, she has been prominent in Nelson Little Theatre work, directing and acting; as well as entertaining with monologues and recitations at clubs and social gatherings on several occasions. She is a member of the Theta Rho Girls Lodge; is a leader in the St. Paul's United Church Canadian Girls in Training Organization; and has delivered sermons and talks in church and at the 1941 Kootenay Youth Conference at Rossland in April. She is a member of the Trinity Young Peoples Society, and is now on the Trinity Girls Softball Team.

LIFE SENTENCES ON MANSLAUGHTER CHARGE

RIMOUSKI, Que., June 6 (CP) —Roland Dallaire and Emile Lessard were sentenced today by Mr. Justice Lucien Cannon to life imprisonment after they pleaded guilty to charges of manslaughter arising from six deaths in a hotel fire in 1938.

The men originally had been charged with murder, the charge upon which Elisee Roy, proprietor of the hotel was convicted and sentenced to hang last Saturday.

FIRE DESTROYS LUMBER STORES IN CONSTANTA

BUCHAREST, Rumania, June 6 (AP)—Fire today destroyed a quantity of lumber stores and threatened warehouses full of cotton, rubber and grain at the Black Sea port of Constanta.

German troops and Rumanian firemen asserted they were able to localize the fire after a four-hour battle.

Origin of the blaze was unknown.

Bill for Permanent Labor Deputy Given First Reading; Amendment to Investigation Act Is Considered

OTTAWA, June 6 (CP)—A bill to authorize appointment of a permanent associate deputy minister of labor was given first reading today in the House of Commons and other Labor legislation was advanced.

Arthur MacNamara, former Manitoba Deputy Minister of Labor, will be the first associate Deputy Minister of the Federal Department, Labor Minister McLarty announced.

The second labor measure, an amendment to the Industrial Disputes Investigation Act, was given second reading and considered in committee of the whole.

This provided that no person having a pecuniary interest in a labor dispute may serve on a board of conciliation set up to deal with such dispute.

Mr. MacNamara, who has been assisting the Labor Department since early in the war and now is Acting Chairman of the Unemployment Insurance Commission, will become Associate Deputy Minister at a salary of $9000 a year when the bill becomes law.

Mr. McLarty said there were reasons for creating this new post: the increased scope and functions of the Industrial Disputes Act, the addition of unemployment insurance to the Department's activities, and the war emergency training scheme administered by the Department.

Mr. Hanson agreed that Mr. MacNamara was doing "excellent work" and he had hoped he would be confirmed in the position of chairman of the Insurance Commission in which he has been acting since the death of Dr. Joseph Sirois.

But he did not believe the Minister had justified the appointment of a permanent associate Deputy Minister. The Industrial Disputes act, he hoped, would be required less and less as harmonious relations were restored between employers and workers.

Mr. Hanson said he was not opposed to strengthening the Department but did not want it "top heavy" with executives.

Up until this year the Department was administered by a Minister with a salary of $10,000, a Deputy Minister at $8000 and an Assistant Deputy at $5220, a total of $23,220.

Now there was a Deputy Minister at $10,000, an Associate Deputy at $9000 and an Executive Assistant at $4200 bringing the total salaries to $38,420.

Mr. Hanson approved the principle of the amendment to the Industrial Disputes Investigation Act but said he would like to hear any argument that could be brought against it.

Mr. MacInnis criticized the proposed exclusion o fpersons with a pecuniary interest in either side of the dispute from membership on a Conciliation Board as too sweeping. Almost any person could be excluded because every member of society had an indirect pecuniary interest in an important industrial dispute.

"This amendment is directed at the representatives of labor who have been appearing on these boards," he said.

Mr. McLarty said Mr. MacInnis was mistaken if he thought the amendment was directed at certain counsel who had been representing labor. The whole reason and purpose of the act was being thwarted by counsel representing corporations.

The purpose of the amendment was to make boards as impartial as possible.

ROOSEVELT REFUSES STATEMENT ON STRIKES

WASHINGTON, June 6 (AP). — President Roosevelt said today he was considering new steps to reduce labor stoppages in defence industries but was not prepared to do anything now while the defence mediation board was working on the West Coast aircraft and lumber disputes.

Asked at a press conference flatly whether he was planning to do something about the North American Aviation strike and the controversial International Woodworkers Union walkout, the Chief Executive said there was no statement today.

Over 10,000 Young Men Join Up in Answer to Call

OTTAWA, June 6 (CP) —To day more than 10,000 young men have volunteered for active service in response to the Defence Department's call for active service of 32,000 recruits, the recruiting committee said in a statement today.

"Within the past two weeks the campaign has swung into its full stride," said the committee. "Reports received from the various military districts indicate that all local committees have completed the organization and are starting to produce results. Recruiting figures during the past two weeks have shown a steady daily increase.

"These volunteers now are in the various stages of being medically examined and documented to see if they measure up to army requirements. Returns show that all sections of the Dominion are responding to this call and it is expected that with local committees now functioning recruits will be received in even greater numbers as the drive continues."

Roosevelt Signs Order to Take Foreign Ships

WASHINGTON, June 6 (AP). — President Roosevelt signed today legislation permitting the Government to take over and operate approximately 80 foreign ships now idle in United States waters.

He immediately thereafter ordered the Maritime Commission to carry out terms of the Act.

The measure, sponsored by the Administration, provides that the Government ca nacquire ships by requisition or purchase or may charter them for the duration of the emergency. "Fair compensation" would be made to the owners, but funds paid would be held in the treasury for possible application against foreign debts to this country.

One restriction forbide the Government from taking over, except by outright purchase, any vessels which actually were owned by a foreign government upon the outbreak of the war, Sept. 3, 1939. Only an Italian tanker and a small Danish training ship fall into this category.

Besides those two vessels, foreign ships in American harbors are as follows: 35 Danish, 14 French, two German, two Estonian, 25 Italian, one Lithuanian and one Rumanian. The French vessels include the giant luxury liner Normandie, pride of France's pre-war merchant fleet, which now is tied up in New York.

Preliminary Hearing on Perjury Charge Is Adjourned to Tuesday

Preliminary hearing of Fred Kabatoff, Glade Doukhobor, charged with committing perjury during the trial of John Chernenkoff of Castlegar for assault, was adjourned to Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 when he appeared before Stipendiary Magistrate John Cartmel in Provincial Police Court Friday morning.

Five witnsses were heard Friday, and one more will be heard Tuesday.

Constable J. L. DeVoin prosecuted.

Penticton Man to Be Stationed at Ottawa as Farmer's Officer

WINNIPEG, June 6 (CP).—Walter E. Haskins of Penticton, B. C. today was appointed Secretary-Treasurer of the Canadian Federation of Agriculture at a meeting of the Federation's National Executive here.

A national office for the C.F.A. will be opened at Ottawa immediately, it was also anounced, and Mr. Haskins will be installed there as a full-time officer for Canadian farmers.

A prominent British Columbia farm leader, Mr. Haskins is known throughout the Dominion as a specialist on producer marketing.

Warns Against Installing Oil Heating Plants

TORONTO, June 6 (CP)—G. H. Cottrelle, federal oil controller, today said on his return to Toronto from Washington where he conferred with U. S. Secretary of the Interior Harold Ickes the "oil problem is now a matter of government policy and I am not able to speak further on the subject until such time as I have submitted my report to my minister at Ottawa."

However, Mr. Cottrelle said he was convinced some form of price control will be intfoduced.

Mr. Cottrelle had no comment on the outcome of his conference with Mr. Ickes and he declined to discuss the possibility of the supply of gasoline for pleasure driving being rationed.

"People who are considering the installation of oil-heating equipment would be well-advised to reconsider some other means," said Mr. Cottrelle, warning that his existing order prohibiting delivery of fuel oil to new installations using more than 4000 gallons yearly may be revised to prohibit all fuel deliveries to new oil burners.

"We don't want to interfere with oil heating but we may have to prohibit new installations in order to protect those already depending on oil heat."

Creston Cadet Corps Parades Before Officers

CRESTON, B. C.—Creston High School Cadet Corps of 180 men of all ranks, in command of B. B Crawford, paraded for official inspection by Major Critchley of Vancouver, and his aide, Sergt. Major Henry, also of headquarters, at the golf course, Wednesday morning, with quite a large turnout of citizens to witness the exercises.

The corps looked snappy in their new uniforms of dark green drill and executed a considerable variety of manoeuvres as a battalion, in companies, platoons, and in even lesser units in a fashion that elicited praise from the reviewing officers. The march past and salute of Major Critchley was particularly well executed. For good measure there was one "casualty," which necessitated the work of the first aid men and stretcher bearers who were promptly in action.

Music for the drill feature was by the cadets' bugle band, and the high brass band also livened up proceedings. Along with the strictly military effort the students also gave a demonstration of their physical training.

Considering the corps is less than six months in existence the showing was certainly all that could be expected and Major Critchley was enthusiastic in discussing the work with the company commanding officers. to whom he also drew attention of certain weaknesses.

The officers left here the same day for an inspection of the corps at Kimberley.

Soldiers Avoid Unique 'Order of the Bowler Hat'

SOMEWHERE IN ENGLAND, June 6 (CP)—Khaki closeups:

Officers at headquarters of a 1st division infantry brigade from Western Canada are steering clear of the "order of the bowler hat" As unique an order as any in existence, the O.B.H. is "awarded for outstanding oversights, blunders or such other causes" as the brigadier, a former University of Saskatchewan professor, may designate.

It was instituted by the brigadier early this year after a series of what he called "stupid mistakes". So far there have been only two awards, both to Edmonton lieutenants—the first for misleading a night convoy" and the second for "failing to deliver a rum issue."

The order is conspicuously placed on the mantle in the officers' mess at brigade headquarters. The bowler hat is there too, for all to see and remember.

Some of the furniture at headquarters of the same brigade was supplied by Mrs. Churchill, wife of the Prime Minister. When he House was requisitioned the furniture was left there but the owner is a prisoner of war in Germany and his executors decided recently to clear out the house.

'We let some of our good friends know of our predicament," the brigadier said. A few days later Mrs. Churchill's offer of furniture was received and accepted.

Canadians from a 1st division Alberta regiment formed a guard of honor for Jan Masaryk, Czecho-Slovakian minister of Foreign Affairs, when he visited an English city during war weapons week. Forty per cent of the Canadians were of Central European descent, most of them from Czecho-Slovakia.

REMANDED 8 DAYS ON MURDER CHARGE

BIG RIVER, Sask., June 6 (CP) —Frank Patrick, 40, was charged last night with the murder of Mrs William Milliken, 38, killed Wednesday night at her home nine miles from this town, 80 miles North of Prince Albert. Patrick was remanded eight days.

Mrs. Milliken's husband is serving overseas with the Canadian (active) Army.

St. Paul's Has List of Famous Names In Exclusive Fire Watching Squad

By LOUIS V. HUNTER

LONDON, June 6 (CP). — St. Paul's Cathedral has one of the most exclusive squads of firewatchers in Britain, but their names, many of them famous, are kept secret.

The squad of 80 firewatchers includes distinguished architects, churchmen and engineers and so great is their love for the hallowed building that they risk their lives repeatedly to save it from destruction by fire bombs.

The Cathedral has been bombed twice and on more than one night it has stood like a gigantic stage silhouetted against a backdrop of flames. The vast dome and its surmounting cross continue to ride the skyline of London because of the success of a firewatching system ranked among the most successful yet devised.

A man in the shadowy crypt is linked by a nerve system of telephone wires with the most distant cranny of the building. From his control room in the crypt the shift officer issues orders, drafts men to their patrols and summons help from one part of the Cathedral to another.

Each squad is divided into three patrols — the "top men," the "church floor patrol" and the "crypt patrol."

At commanding points on the roof are two or three "top men." From there they must telephone news of a fire bomb they cannot reach and extinguish themselves.

Each firewatcher was provided with a set of plans of every part of the Cathedral — the dizzy triforium level, the stone gallery, the main roof, the church floor and the crypt.

They were encouraged to memorize every staircase, window and ledge that might harbor an incendiary bomb and were given tests of their knowledge.

They were drilled in getting to all parts of the roof and taught where every stirrip pump, sandbox hosepoint and tap, bucket, rake and shovel — all-important in combatting incendiaries — was placed.

Normally between 14 and 16 watchers are on active duty each night.

There are beds in the crypt for use of some of the men during quiet intervals.

Court Martial on Prisoners' Escape to Be Held June 9

OTTAWA, June 6 (CP). — The Defence Department announced today the report covering investigation into the escape of 28 prisoners of war from a Northern Ontario internment camp in April has been received.

The Court was presided over by Brig-Gen. Justice J.F.L. Embury of Regina. Details of the report are not being made public, the Department said because further action is being taken and a general court martial is being held at the camp concerned.

The court martial will be held June 9.

Mine Workers Get Attendance Bonus

LONDON, June 6 (CP Cable)— The Executive of the Mine Workers' Federation, governing Britain's 750,000 coal miners, accepted today the owners' offer of a shilling per shift bonus for good attendance.

It is designed to remedy absenteeism which is estimated to cost 10,000,000 tons a year. The bonus is retroactive to June 1.

Some sources argued the bonus will provide only a partial cure for the coal shortage resulting from heavy industrial demands. The said there are not enough miners to meet the coal needs, declaring 150,000 miners have either drifted to better paying jobs or have been called ur by the armed services.

Three Fliers Killed in Air Collision

SAN DIEGO, Calif., June 6 (AP) —The United States Navy reported today that three fliers were killed and one injured in a mid-air collision of two planes from the heavy cruiser Chester near San Clemente Island.

Naval authorities said the accident occurred late yesterday. The injured man was brought to the naval hospital here.

GERMAN AIR CORPS LEAVES ISLE OF SICILY

ROME, June 6 (AP)—The newspaper Il Giornale d'Italia today said the German Air Force has left the island of Sicily.

With the Axis now in control of Orete the Germans' presence on Sicily may be considered no longer necessary, since the Greek island is much nearer the present war zones.

Polish People Die by Hundreds From Starvation

LONDON, June 6 (CP)— The British Broadcasting Corporation said today that an average of 450 persons died every day last month in Warsaw because of lack of food while at the same time the Germans published lists of food and other materials they had taken from Poland.

In a review of life in Europe under Nazi rule the BBC added that German authorities have closed the University of Leyden in Holland because of a protest meeting of the staff and students following dismissal of a Jewish professor.

"Despite the presence of the Gestapo at the meeting, a fellow-professor made a vigorous attack on the Germans and was loudly cheered to the strains of the Dutch national anthem," the BBC said.

A secondary school in Amsterdam also has been closed because of anti-German feeling.

New Jewish laws had been passed in Croatia and thousands of laborers have been sent to Germany.

In Germany itself, 1496 persons had been arrested during the year ended March, 1941, for disobeying the law against listening to foreign broadcasts.

One man was sentenced to death for distributing copies of foreign radio reports.

TAX COLLECTIONS INCREASE IN MAY

OTTAWA, June 6 (CP). — Net revenue in Canada collected by the three divisions of the National Revenue Department — Customs, Excise and Income tax — totalled $218,215,923 in May compared with $131,490,550 during the same month last year, an increase of $86,725,373 the Department announced today.

Income tax collection amounted to $165,253,523, an increase of $70,141,152 and customs and excise collection were $52,962,400, an increase of $16,584,220.

PLEADS WITH U.S. TO HURRY DECISIVE STEPS

CAPE TOWN, South Africe, June 6 (CP). — Prime Minister J. C. Smuts in a speech today pleaded for the United States to "hurry up" and take decisive steps before it is too late.

Argentine Drops Aloof Attitude Toward Defence

BUENOS AIRES, June 6 (AP)— Argentina apparently abandoned today her lukewarm attitude toward intercontinental defence by inviting military leaders of seven American nations, including the United States, to tour her defence establishments.

Brazil, Paraguay, Uruguay, Bolivia, Chile, Peru and the United States were asked to send delegations, headed if possible by War Ministers, to this country July 9 when Argentina celebrates her 125th anniversary of independence from Spain.

It was considered significant that the delegations would be welcomed by Enrique Ruiz Guinazu, Argentina's new Foreign Minister.

Argentina has been the only American nation standing aloof from joint hemisphere action.

SASKATOON FLIER KILLED IN CRASH

DAUPHIN, Man., June 6 (CP). —Lac. Robert G. Alexander, 26, of Saskatoon was killed last night when the Royal Canadian Air Force Harvard training plane he was flying solo crashed two miles Northwest of the No. 1 relief field of No. 10 service flying training school here. A court of inquiry has been set up to investigate cause of the accident.

Nazis Thank Spain for Rescue After Bismarck Sinking

MADRID, June 6 (AP). — Foreign Minister Ramon Serrano Suner today announced that German Grand Admiral Erich Raeder had thanked Spain for the action of the cruiser Canarias in taking German seamen from the sea after the Bismark was sunk.

This was the first intimation that any of the Bismark's men had been saved except for approximately 100 picked up by the British warships which destroyed the German battleship May 27.

It was also the first inkling of the sinking, 400 miles West of Brest, France.

What the Canarias was doing there, and how many men she rescued were unanswered questions.

MADRID, June 6 (AP). — The Spanish cruiser Canarias picked up a number of dead German sailors from a sea literally covered with bodies after the battleship Bismarck was sunk, and gave them burial at sea with full honors, it was announced tonight.

Roosevelt Accuses Nazi Propaganda for Rumor Winant Brought Peace Talk

WASHINGTON, June 6 (AP)—President Roosevelt declared today that Ambassador John G. Winant had brought from Britain not even "a tenth cousin of a peace offer", and added that German propaganda was responsible for peace talk.

The President was asked at a Press conference whether he cared to say that Winant had brought no peace terms and he authorized this direct quotation:

"Not even a tenth cousin of a peace offer or anything like that or any discussion of peace.

"Absolutely nothing like it, provided you use this not as a denial by the President but as an accusation by the President."

Asked whom he was accusing, Mr. Roosevelt said persons being duped by Germany.

He volunteered the information that he had on his desk two orders which he said had been issued by the official German propaganda agents in Berlin to what he called Nazis and Fascists in this country.

The first order, Mr. Roosevelt said, told them to stress the idea that Germany had no thought of ever doing anything against any country of the entire Western Hemisphere.

The second, he said, ordered Nazi and Fascist sympathizers, as soon as Winant arrived back in the United States, to spread the story that he was bringing a scare-head story that Britain was about all in and was talking peace.

Mr. Roosevelt asserted furthermore that it was an amazing coincidence that stories of the types recommended by Germany had appeared in a certain type of newspaper in the United States.

Told by a reporter that there was an impression being spread that Britain had said she could not last more than a few months without increased United States help, the Chief Executive declared that this never had been said unless it was by Berlin. It did not come, he added, from a responsible source.

A reporter remarked that people would be shocked to hear that Germany was sending orders to this country, and he asked how orders were sent out and how the system operated.

Mr. Roosevelt declined to go into details, because, he said, it might disclose how he got his information. But it does come, he said, from the German Propaganda Bureau in Berlin.

Mr. Roosevelt, responding to a question, said he could give a virtually complete account of Winant's mission back home from the American Embassy in London.

First, he said, the Ambassador came to report on 25, maybe 50, major topics and items relating to the conduct of the war by Britain.

Second, he said, Winant came to get information on 25 or 50 topics relating to defence to take back to England.

FRENCH PEOPLE FEEL ISOLATION UNDER THE NAZI RULE

Betty, Lately a Brownie, Writes Mary All About Her Girl Guides

By BETTY

Dear Mary:

At last I am big enough to join the Guides. I have been looking forward so long for that day. I worked hard when I was a Brownie so that I might be a real Guide. Have you ever thought what we have to promise. "On my Honor I promise to do my best to do my ruty to God and the King, to help someone every day and obey the Guide Law."

Our Company is called the 32nd I.O.D.E. Girl Guide Company, and, Mary I wish you could see our Flag. It was presented to us by the Kookanee Chapter, I.O.D.E. We belong to them you know. Rev. Mr. Holmes of the Anglican Church dedicated the Flag. Imagine our Flag coming all the way over from Britain in these times! It makes me so proud when I see it flying in the in the breeze when we march, to think that our sailors brought it over for us. Flags are such grand things, aren't they?

MEANING OF TREFOIL

Ours is a bright blue Flag with a gold trefoil in the middle with 32nd I.O.D.E. Company Nelson B. C. above it. In middle leaf of the trefoil is a needle, and that represents the compass needle which will always give us the right course or way in Guiding; it points upwards. On the two bottom leaves are stars, they are the leading stars which we will always keep before us — the Promise and the Girl Guide Law. The base of the stalk is an exact copy of the heraldic "feu" and represents the "Flame of the Love of Mankind" and will always burn high, brightly, and intensively in the hearts of all Girl Guides. The Golden trefoil represents the sun shinning in a blue sky which is over all the Guides of the World. Haven't we a lot of things to live up to?

We have new ties, they are a nice blue, and now we wear berets instead of hats; they look a lot smarter. Do you know we have 36 Guides now and we are all looking forward to going to camp in August. Our Captain, Miss Macfarlane, is in charge of the Camp this year, and nearly all our Guides want to go, so we are hurrying to get our tenderfoot pins. We can't go to camp unless we have our pins.

On St. George's Day we were on Parade. We marched out to the Park and we carried our Company colors for the first time. We had a double color party, Margaret Donaldson, Colleen Fletcher, Joyce Rees, Mary Low Donaldson, Bernice Burgess. I forgot to tell you that the color party for the Dedication Service were for the Union Jack, Frances Boyes, Verna Blackwell, Effie Small, and for the Company Flag, Grace Stewart, Kathie Paddon and Peggy Grimes.

Our next parade was down to the Ball grounds for the "Torch Parade." The color party for that was Margaret Jane Mann, Frankie Boyes, Kathie Paddon, Joyce Rees and Colleen Fletcher.

MOC KAIR RAID

At our last Guide meeting we had a visit from Mrs. Motley, the Commissioner. We had a mock air raid. As soon as "Cappy" blows the whistle (that's supposed to be the siren) we all scram downstairs except the "casualties". When we hear the "all clear" we come up and find our patients lying on the floor and pinned on them is a slip of paper written what they are suffering from. We had broken ribs, broken arms, burns (facial), arterial bleeding, shock, and I can't remember the others. Anyway, we didn't do too badly at all, especially when we didn't have enough bandages and we couldn't get any more. I bet you didn't know a belt made a good sling, or that you can pin a person's sleeve to their coat and that does for a sling too.

After that we had a quiz contest, we do that in Patrols, and we have to answer all kinds of questions—Guide work, knots, Compass, Laws, morse, First Aid etc. Francis Boyes' Patrol won that. We ended up with a singsong around a camp fire. Mrs. Motley enrolled Pat Birkbeck and Rheta Nelson; they are both in Margaret Donaldsons' Patrol.

On the 26th we were drilling, practised knots, whistles and tracking, that was for the benefit of the new Guides, Elaine Langstaff and Anne Hamilton were enrolled, then Elaine, Anne, Pat Birkbeck, Rheta Nelson and Joan Donaldson, were instructed for the color party. This was a surprise for the Company.

Well, tonight was our meeting, and the five Guides were in the Color Party, is is called a "Scotch Color Party," and is the first time we had even seen it done, and the new Guides were very smart indeed. As a matter of fact we couldn't help it, but we all started to applaud when Ann dismissed the Color Party. Mary Lou Donaldson, Bernie Burgess, Colleen Fletcher were in charge of the meeting; they had a real nice program arranged—First Aid, morse and games. "Cappy" and "Lefty" were busy passing tests, so that when we formed the horseshoe, Mildred and Margaret Parker and Dorothy Wallace were enrolled and they received their tenderfoot pins. Then Mary Lou got her gymnast and first aid badges.

A DAY AT TROUP

Friday 23rd was a holiday and we went up to Troup Junction. There were 16 of us, and it was a lovely bright sunny day. Francis Boyes was passing her test for 1st Class Hike, so she went ahead with Margaret Donaldson and Pat Edwards. They made a trail and we had to follow it. When we arrived the fire was burning nicely and they had a piece of tin over the top of it and a pot of water boiling, and were we ever ready for our lunch! We had a new dish, it is called "Blushing Bunny," and it sure was a swell dish. It was just too bad if someone was waiting for anything we left. Rheta Nelson, Pat Birkbeck, Ann Hamilton, Elaine Langstaff, Pat Edwards, Dorothy Wallace and Mildred Parker all lit their fires, most of them had only to use one match. Then we were shown the right way to put out a fire. I used to always just throw sand over mine, but if you do that the fire will still burn under it, and sometimes the wind will fan it up again, and that is how forest fires start. We had to bring buckets of water up and throw it on the fire until the ashes were cold, then cover the fire with sand. Did you know that the correct thing to do with a tin can was to throw it on your campfire and burn it out, then place it on a stone and pound it flat with another? Then you bury the cans, and if at any time they do happen to get uncovered, no one will cut themselves if they step on them. It doesn't sound very much, but it is things like these we learn at Guides, and it does help to keep our country clean and tidy. We were quite proud of the condition we left the place where we were camping; no old papers left lying around, they were all burned before we left. No cans left with decaying food for flies to feed on. How about yo utelling your chums about this and help us to help others to keep this country of ours from looking like a dump yard?

KNITTING CLUB BUSY

We still have our knitting club, we meet every Thursday at the different Guide homes. Up till the present we have turned into the Red Cross nine sweaters, one sleeveless sweater, three suits, three shirts, three pair mitts, two berets, three pair socks, one dress, one shawl, one scarf. Then I told you before about the whist drive we had, well we bought wool with that money. Then we got some material cut in squares. We are asking people to write their names on our squares. It costs five cents to write your name. Then we embroider them. We are going to sew the patches all together and make a back for a quilt, we have collected over $5 already for that. With our own material we have made four pair socks, two boys' suits, one face cloth, five pairs bootees, two pair mitts, one pair rompers, five bonnets, one soaker, two sweaters (baby). Then from the different stores we collected patches and we sewed them together and made a big quilt. Mrs. Paddon gave us the back for the quilt, is is a nice bright cherry print design. Then we made a wee baby's crib quilt. We are going to send all our things away soon, then we will be ready to start on another lot. We aren't going to quit knitting in the Summer, we want to "Carry On" for what we make in the Summer will be needed over there in the Winter, and we have to work hard so that they will get them in time for their cold weather.

Our Company has got so big that we have had to make fiv patrols. Joyce Rees has been made a Patrol Leader, and Colleen Fletcher is her Second. There is one more Second to be promoted yet; we are all waiting to see who it will be.

I almost forgot to tell you our special piece of news. A couple of weeks ago Mrs. Glover gave the Guides two of the grandest benches. They are long wooden seats divided by arms and they hold four people. The seats are all padded with leather. They sure make a difference to the Hall. They make it look quite cosy and, boy, are we proud of them! It means something to own seats like these.

Well, Mary, I think that is all the news just now, but I will write again next month and let you know how we are getting along.

Lovingly Yours,
Betty

P.S. — We are still buying War Saving's Stamps. We do want to get a certificate before we close for the Summer.

Accidents Far More Numerous During Holidays

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

The United States is the healthiest large nation in the world. That statement recently appeared in the Pennsylvania State Medical Journal, and is something we should ponder. In the first place it is worth while pointing out to the bureaucrats that this was accomplished largely under private practice of medicine. In the second place it is a good thing to show to those who are trying to scare us about how we are starving from lack of vitamins and how we have eight or nine different kinds of shadows on our land.

The United States today has reached the highest peak of health that has ever been accomplished in the history of the world in an area as large. This is not saying that there is not a good deal left to do, but at any rate that is the record to date.

APRIL HEALTHIEST MONTH

We are entering now the healthiest period of the year. Beginning with April and extending on to about the first of October the incidence of disease falls astonishingly. With the beginning of school in the Fall and the greater contacts that means, the contagious disease begin. With the tendency to crowding indoors into theatres, movies and concerts, respiratory infections begin again in the Fall, but these things drop out with the beginning of Summer.

The healthiest of all months is April because then even accidental injuries fall.

The first month for accidental injuries is July when the daily average rises to 367 deaths from accidental injuries. This is almost entirely preventable. The roads are not dangerous so far as nature makes them dangerous in July. They are only dangerous because man is careless. Later on also the Summer hazards of swimming, boating, electricity and lightning cause a rise in the toll.

The longer days of Midsummer add to the dangers of that period. This is a rather sad reflection meaning simply that the more time man has, the oftener he kills himself from carelessness.

It is not the daylight itself which is dangerous, because figures show that fatal automobile accidents and in fact drownings occur more frequently in the twilight period when people are inclined to think they can cheat the darkness and push on just a little bit further.

MRS. YERBURGH HEADS NEWLY FORMED BROWNIE PACK AT INVERMERE

INVERMERE, B. C. — The first meeting of the newly formed Brownie pack was held in the school annex Wednesday. Mrs. R. Yerburgh who is responsible for the organization of the group is to be Brown Owl. As there was a Brownie pack here some years ago this group will be called the 2nd Lake Windermere Brownie pack.

CRESTON

CRESTON, B. C.—Mrs. J. G. Connell of Trail visited her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Crawford.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Speers left Tuesday for a short stay at Calgary and Lethbridge.

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Heal of Armstrong, accompanied by the latter's sister, Miss Edith Jacks of Vancouver, visited at Creston.

Miss Margaret Sadler has left for Vancouver, where she expects to make an extended stay.

British Girl Evacuee From China Tells of Abject Poverty In Orient and the Evacuation of the Women

Vast Masses German Jew Refugees Now at Shanghai

Conditions in war-torn China and resultant evacuation of women and children were explained by Miss Valerie Buckler, whose home is in China, in an interview with the Daily News. Miss Buckler, who arried in Canada late last Summer, has been working at Vancouver, is just now spending a few days in Nelson on business.

Her home is Hong Kong where her father is a British customs officer, but she was spending a short holiday at Shanghai when conditions took a bad turn for the worse. All British and American women and children were requested by their respective countries to leave China and she was unable to return to Hong Kong.

Most of the evacuees went to Australia but she had an alternative of Canada. She chose Canada for she then planned to go to San Francisco where she has relatives. But on arriving in British Columbia, she found she could not gain admittance to the States. When that hope was blasted she got a job at Vancouver as a stenographer, her profession.

TELLS OF EVACUATION

She gave an interesting description of the evacuation. The women and children were given 48 hours notice to leave, about the end of June last year. A C.P.R. boat was just in and there wasn't even time to clean the decks and so forth. Three or four hundred women slept on the decks or shared the cabins all classes of society having to share alike. There were three boatloads altogether with about 400 refugees on the boat.

The refugees landed in Manila on the way to Australia.

American soldiers turned their barracks over to the women, who then were forbidden to leave the compound of the barracks. After three weeks there, they were sent aboard ships for Australia.

Miss Buckler told of a new problem for China.

"Shanghai is simply infested with Jewish refugees," the girl said. "There are about 30,000 of them and they are living on the outskirts of bombed Shanghai. They are building up a settlement by going back to their old trades. And in their various occupations, they are ruining industrial conditions in Shanghai by cutting their rates.

ABJECT POVERTY

"There is abject poverty, and the prices are soaring in Shanghai," Miss Buckler stated. And money is low, a Chinese dollar being worth about 13 cents in Shanghai. "And it may be even less by now," she said.

She cares not at all for the Japanese.

"They are very overbearing," she explained. "They treat the average Britisher like dirt and with contempt."

Regarding the situation in Japan which she saw at first hand when she had to pass through the country on her way to Canada, she said that the people were poverty-stricken and had virtually nothing to eat. There were no luxuries and few necessities.

Miss Buckler, who was born in China, now hopes to return to China in the Fall. She feels a little out of place in Canada and plans to go back to Shanghai where her brother is working. Her mother and a sister have now taken up residence in Singapore.

Before she left Shanghai, she had an offer of a job there, but she had turned it down because the $400 a month salary was really very small in terms of Canadian money.

Male Crimes That Irritate a Wife

By CAROLINE CHATFIELD

I once heard a woman say that the best thing any wife had, her most prized possession, was her husband's dignity. Naturally nothing irritates her more than to see him part with it. Th alcohol method of losing dignity is one of the commonest. But there are others. Some men have a mistaken notion that being buffoons renders them attractive. The more the crowd laughs the harder the wife takes it.

Then there are men who are run absolutely crazy by the smooth compliments of a flirtatious female. They think they sense the challenge. They are ready to accept, pursue it and dignity is forgotten.

Following close behind this is a woman's invitation with a man for personal untidiness. And incidentally there's a close connection between tidiness and dignity. Self-respect isn't emphasized by an unshaven face, touseled hair, dusty shoes and soiled linen. And as for bad table manners, there's a prime method a man may use to annoy and humiliate his wife, even though she may not be a stickler for etiquette, in the strict sense of the word.

And then we haven't mentioned a man's tendency to disregard the meal hour at home, to be unduly familiar with the waitresses in the restraurant, his refusal to take up the little woman's misunderstandings with her friends, his impatience with her tears, his failure to remember her birthday.

Well, isn't the list long enough? Lucky is the woman who has a husband to irritate her. Even though she could frequently kill him without a qualm of conscience, even though she gets mad with him for lowrating her mentality, for discounting the importance of her duties, for losing his dignity and appearing unshaven and unshorn, she wouldn't take a million for him nor swap him for any other husband.

Down deep in her heart she knows (what we all know) that women who permit irritation with men to swell into hatred of men are those who have failed to please the men or those who can't find men to please.

Vitamin B1 . . .

Maybe It's Your Diet—Not Laziness—That Causes That Chronic Tiredness

By ALICE WADE ROBINSON

Laziness is one thing, lack of energy another. If you are a victim of chronic inertia, or even a long-drawn-out case of Spring fever, it may be that you are not getting enough Vitamin B1, the vitamin which acts as the essential spark in the liberation of energy.

Unless there is enough Vitamin B1, the fuel for energy supplied by the carbohydrates in your diet cannot be released to its full extent. Since the accumulation of partly burned carbohydrate results in a nervous disturbance, this vitamin plays a part in the smooth functioning of the nervous system.

Its vital importance to strong, steady nerves has gained for B1 the reputation of "the morale vitamin". Bread, one of the staples of a national diet has been enriched in B1 by two methods. One is through restoration of the vitamin to the flour, the other through reinforcement of yeast. As a result of this improvement, enriched white bread supplies the same number of International Units of B1 as whole wheat bread. There are 25 units per slice.

Vitamin B1 cannot be stored in the body. It must be provided daily. Since its is one of the water soluble vitamins, it is easily lost in cooking. One of the strongest arguments for using the water from fresh and canned vegetables is to get the full vitamin value. This water should never be thrown down the drain. In some instances, it would be better to throw the vegetable down the drain and drink the water.

Requirements for Vitamin B1 vary with energy output and also with calorie intake. The harder you work or the more you eat, the greater your need for Vitamin B1. Generally speaking, the average man needs 666 International Units daily; the average woman, 600; adolescent girl, 666; boy, 833; children from six to eleven need about 500 units; from one to five, 333 units; infants under one, 167 units; expectant mothers, 833 units; nursing mothers, 1000 International Units.

It is extremely difficult for the person on a low calorie diet to include enough foods rich in B1. As a dietary safeguard, the daily menus may be supplemented with one milligram of thiamin chloride, which furnishes 333 International Units.

To see whether or not your family is receiving its full share of Vitamin B1, check your menus by the list.

Emotions . . .

Save Child From Jealousy Evils

By Garry Cleveland Myers, Ph. D.

You might suppose, from reading, that children are only jealous of a new baby. But the emotion is bigger and broader than that. It applies to all ages and no person escapes it all the time. Jealousy widens into feelings of not being worthy or acceptable, even into an inferiority complex. It is well to look for jealousy as a possible source or contribution to any problem you find in the child's attitude or behavior, even if he has no brothers or sisters—shyness, sulkiness, stubbornness, bullying, teasing, tantrum, impudence, stealing, lying, even stuttering and nail biting.

You can do no harm if you suspect jealousy and proceed wisely with your guess. You could help the child to win more friends and enjoy them. You could try to set the stage so he might gain more successes and meet with fewer failures. You could try to help him compete with himself rather than with others and to build on his successes rather than his failures. Therefore you would not compare him unfavorably with himself or others. You could be more generous with honest praise and less liberal with blame and punishment.

CHILDREN NEED AFFECTION

You could strive to be more affectionate, gentle, patient toward him, proving to him you could put yourself, in your imagination, in his place.

A mother writes of her bright boy, Freddy, 5½, who is "sassy" and very mean to his brother. The younger brother makes up with any one while Freddy is shy. People go out of their way to speak and joke with him and more or less ignore Freddy.

I told her to see that the younger child respects Freddy's rights. Have him go to bed earlier than Freddy. In every possible way, prove to both boys that you consider Freddy much the bigger and older. Be patient about Freddy's sassiness. Praise him more when he is good and try to find ways of reducing your rebukes and punishment of him. As Freddy feels more secure emotionally and more worthy in the family and among his playmates, he will feel more at ease and will be kinder to his younger brother. Moreover, he will be happier, more cooperative and more lovable.

SOLVING PARENT PROBLEMS

Q. Do you know a good way to help a two-year-old who has fear of getting into the bath?

A. Bathe him with a sponge while he has within his reach a basin of water with some toys floating on it. Later sponge-bathe him while he sits on a box in the empty tub with the basin of water and toys before him. Have these toys in the tub of water when he finally is put there gently with a towel about him to reduce the shock. Proceed from step to step slowly, gradually, patiently.

Patrolman Paul Thome has returned from a trip to New York.

Y.W.C.A. Reports on Conditions State of Work in Unoccupied France

OTTAWA (CP) — Greatest reaction among the people of France unoccupied by German troops, but feeling the burden of the Nazi domination, is of a metal and moral order, says a report received by the Canadian Y.W.C.A. officials from Mrs. E. B. Fox of the American Y.W.C.A.

"While enduring great privations and worry in the daily struggle for existence because of insufficient fuel, food, medical supplies, clothing and blankets," she writes, "the real suffering is caused by the uncertainties and instabilities, the prolonged isolation from the outside world, the continued separation of families and lack of communications.

Comparing conditions with those of last September Mrs. Fox said, "living and travel conditions have become more normal for citizens of the country and privileged foreigners. Most of the overcrowding and congestion has been solved by the concentration in camps of tens of thousands of refugees, most of whom are without means of support. Hotels, pensions and trains, however, are still crowded."

WORK OF GIRL GUIDES

Mrs. Fox described the work of the Girl Guides and Boy Scouts, both Catholic and Protestant. "The outstanding impression of my contacts with these young leaders is of their courage and perseverance in constantly making known their views and the carefree manner with which they accept the hard physical conditions under which they live and work."

In connection with the privations of the people in general she said one is "constantly amazed" at the ingenuity shown in discovering food and fuel substitutes. "Among the people there is a noticeable stiffening of spirit, a quiet dignity and determination and a kind of heroic living, especially among the young people."

In spite of difficulties the "Y" workers have carried on their work and met at the Nimes conference, Mlle. Barot, well-known to "Y" workers, was appointed Counseller of the National Y.W.C.A. in the unoccupied zone and organizer of work for the Committee of Christian Associations in the refugee camp of Gurs.

Three other secretaries, Mlles. Nicoel de Ferron, Marie Bouniol and Erica Brucker who had been doing field work during the Winter months were able to reach 150 out of the 196 Y.W.C.A. centres and reported that the work was being carried on with "devotion and tireless energy."

SERIAL STORY . . . By Allen Eppes

EVELESS EDEN

CHAPTER THIRTY-ONE

"Did Bill tell you he's got a new kind of heroine now?" asked Joel.

"No," said Rita. "Has he?'

"Oh, yes, and a heroine who ought to make his next book a best seller.'

"Well, well!" said Rita. "You must tell me about her, Bill."

"I did," said Bill. "Her names Eve."

"Oh! That one!"

"Yes, that one," said Bill. "And now if you two are through swapping compliments and discussing me—suppose we be on our way."

"But aren't you staying to supper, Rita?" Joel asked.

"Not today, thanks," Rita said. "Bill's going to drive me back to the Inn. We've got a lot to talk over."

"That's easy to believe," said Joel. "Be good children. And come up to see us sometime, Rita."

Bill, frowning, started the car with a jerk.

He drove off, as Rita, looking back, waved to Joel.

"He certainly has grown good looking," she remarked. "Out of doors has done wonders for him." She glanced at Bill's rather stern profile. "Or maybe Eve's the reason. What do you think, Bill?"

"Eve's quite capable of making any man blossom out," he said. "She's a swell person."

"She must be,' said Rita, "to get you and Joel both on her string."

"That's not unusual," Bill reminded. "Joel and I were always falling for the same girl. He had an eye on you before I fell."

"Good old Joel!" said Rita, sighing.

Neither spoke for a time.

"It was when they were driving along a narrow road, thick with shadows, that Rita touched Bill's arm.

"Stop the car for a moment, Bill," she said.

"What for?" Bill asked. "I'm in a hurry to get down to Asheville."

"Please, Bill.'

"Oh, all right."

When the car had come to a standstill Rita moved closer to the man beside her.

"Bill, I want you to do something for me," she said.

"What is it?"

"I want you to kiss me."

"But, Rita, I—we—that is—"

"Just for old times' sake, Bill, darling. I think I can go back home quite happy and content, once you've kissed me. I'll know you aren't bitter, that you don't despise me."

"I never have despised you, Rita," said Bill.

He took her in his arms. Their lips met. Rita's arms went up and around Bill's neck. She held him to her. And Bill, with his almost wife there with him among the lonely mountains, found himself thinking of Eve!

"Thank you, Bill," Rita said presently. "Let's be on our way now."

Hints for Housewives

By BETSY NEWMAN

TODAY'S MENU

Baked Fish — Hot Rolls
Salad — Green Peas
Fresh Berries — White Cake
Iced Tea

PENNY SALAD

One cup small spinach leaves; ½ cup diced celery or cucumber; ½ cup shredded cabbage; ¼ cup of sliced radishes; salad dressing.

Combine vegetables and toss together with French or your favorite dressing and serve very cold.

VEGETABLE SALAD

Lettuce; green pepper rings; ½ cup diced celery or cucumber; cooked asparagus tips; ½ cup diced, cooked beets; French dressing.

Marinate the asparagus — 3 or 4 tips to each serving — in French dressing for a few moments. Arrange lettuce on salad plates; combine other ingredients, moisten with dressing and arrange small mound on lettuce on each plate; garnish with asparagus tips and green pepper rings. Add more dressing if needed.

SUPPER VEGETABLE SALAD

One cup shredded crisp cabbage; 1 cup diced cooked green beans; ¾ cup cooked green peas; ½ cup asparagus; ½ cup sliced radishes; ½ cup sliced uncooked carrots; 2 tablespoons minced onion (if liked); French dressing; lettuce, chicory or watercress.

Combine cabbage, green beans, peas, carrots, radishes, onion and diced asparagus, toss lightly together and moisten well with dressing. You can arrange individual salads by arranging lettuce, chicory or the watercress on each plate, or line salad bowl with same, then fill the centre with mixed greens.

WHITE CAKE

Two cups sifted cake flour; 3 teaspoons baking powder; ¼ teaspoon salt; 1 cup sugar; ½ cup of shortening; 2-3 cup milk; 1 teaspoon vanilla; 3 egg whites, stiffly beaten.

Sift flour, measure and sift again with salt and baking powder. Cream shortening, add sugar slowly and cream until fluffy. Add sifted dry ingredients alternately with milk, stirring well after each addition, then add vanilla and fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Bake in 2 greased 9-inch layer cake pans, in muffin tins for cup cakes, or in square pan, and bake in 375 degree oven for 25 to 30 minutes for cup cakes and layers; at 350 degrees for 50 minutes for loaf.

COAST WOMAN TELLS KASLO CONGREGATION OF AUXILIARY WORKS

KASLO, B. C. — Following the regular Sunday morning service in St. Mark's Anglican Church, Miss Hilliard of New Westminster addressed the large congregation.

She outlined the founding and expansion of Women's and Girl's Auxiliaries and stressed the need for missionary work and brought out many interesting facts regarding this work, both in Canada and other countries. She stated that Anglican Missions had been closed in Japan, also some in China and India. One most interesting statement was that China had given more aid to Indian Missions during the past year than had Canada.

While in the city Miss Hilliard was a guest of Rev. M. C. T. and Mrs. Percivall.

Nakusp Institute Discusses Rally

NAKUSP, B. C.—The June meeting of the Nakusp Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. M. Embree, Glenbank. Mrs. F. L. Morton was in the chair.

A report of the recent successful wild rose tea was heard and arrangements were made for a Strawberry Tea to be held at the home of Mrs. H. C. Waterfield at Crescent Bay later this month.

Tentative arrangements for a District Institute Rally to be held in August were discussed. The secretary was asked to contact the various district institutes seeking their voice in the matter.

It was decided to again take charge of the making of jam for the Red Cross and Mrs. F. Rushton was appointed convener of the committee in charge.

Another box of refugee clothing was sent to Nelson it was reported. Work on quilts for refugees is also continuing. Mrs. O. Salstrom, Secretary, donated a part of her salary for the purchase of quilt materials.

A vote of thanks was extended to Mrs. W. H. White for her "Bundles for Britain" shower, at which a worthwhile collection of clothing was gathered.

Mrs. J. Parent, Sr., reported for the Cemetery Committee, stating that a refuse box is to be built for old plants, wilted flowers, etc.

Mrs. E. C. Johnson, Convener for Community Betterment, spoke on "Citizenship."

A quiz contest on old time happenings in Nakusp, arranged by Mrs. A. Stanley, proved very entertaining.

Tea hostesses were Mrs. Embree, Mrs. E. Brown, Mrs. O. Harper and Mrs. M. Kerr.

At the close of the meeting "O Canada" was sung and the pledge of the torch was made by all present.

Creston High Holds Annual "Open Day"

CRESTON, B. C. — The spacious High School auditorium was none too large for the turnout of parents from village and surrounding district, Wednesday afternoon, for the annual "Open Day" which provides opportunity to inspect the school as well as enjoy a variety of entertainment.

The outstanding feature was the Fashion Show directed by the Home Economics teacher, Miss M. Horn, and a group of girl students who gracefully displayed many school made costumes in all lines of home, dress and sports wear currently fashionable. Some of the lighter features was a display of girls' tumbling by students in charge of Miss Henderson, girls' phyical teacher, and a Ball Rhythm by another group of girl students.

In the library the Junior Red Cross had a bazaar and tea which attracted generous patronage. Music was dispensed generously with Jean Bale and Donald Andrews contributing piano solos, and a vocal trio by Joan Langston, Rene Lachat and Barbara LaPointe.

Two Bands for Victory-Loan Church Parade

Nelson's Victory Loan Church parade will fall in Sunday morning on Kootenay Street between Baker and Victoria, and led by two bands will march through the business section and up Stanley and Silica Streets. Six Nelson churches are participating. Eight units will be in the parade and at least three additional organizations will attend the churches although they do not parade.

One change has been made in the order of the units in the first section. Led by the City Band, this section will include the Nelson Platoon of the Veterans Guard, the Masonic Lodge, Canadian Women's Training Corps and Canadian Legion. Instead of following the Masonic Lodge as originally planned the women's detachment will march behind the Veterans' Guard. This will mean that as this section marches along Silica Street the Veterans Guard will drop out to enter St. Saviour's; the trainees will continue to Trinity United; the Masons will drop out for St. Saviour's, and the Canadian Legion will go on to Trinity.

SECOND SECTION

Second section of the parade will be led by the Junior High School Cadet Bugle Band. At the East end of Baker Street the Vasa Lodge will drop out to attend the service at the Scandinavian Church. At the Stanley-Silica intersection Pythian lodges will drop out to go to St. Paul's United, and the Odd Fellows and Eagles will continue on to the First Baptist Church.

Knights of Columbus will attend the Cathedral of Mary Immaculate in a body, while the Order of Eastern Star goes to St. Paul's and the I.O.D.E. to Trinity.

There will be no return parade. The various units will dismiss or march back to their quarters as they desire.

NAKUSP

NAKUSP, B. C. — Miss Beth Rushton, who was eight years old Monday, was the guest of honor at a delightful children's party given by Mrs. F. Rushton. A merry round of games followed by the birthday supper, served at a table decorated in red, white, and blue. Each guest was the recipient of a balloon and a favor. Guests were Bernice and Bruce Sunstrom, John Brown, Allan and Kenneth Stanley, Ruby Harper, Sonja Dolman, Laura Robson, Doreen Parent, Edmund Parkinson, and Douglas Horrey.

Mrs. T. Simpson of Burton was a Monday visitor to Nakusp.

H. Davis and J. Davis of Carroll's Landing were business visitors to Nakusp.

E. Duckworth was in town from Arrow Park, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. James of Arrow Park were motor visitors to town, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Rollins of Fauquier were Tuesday visitors to Nakusp.

Robin Cresswell arrived from Halcyon and is visiting Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Horsley for a few days.

NAKUSP, B. C. — Complimenting Miss Margaret Yeager, who leaves to spend a month at Swift Current, Sask., Mrs. E. Munn and Mrs. M. Barrow entertained at an afternoon tea and handkerchief shower at the home of the former. The guests included Miss Yeager, Mrs. R. Barlow, Mrs. A. Matheson, Mrs. McKelvie, Miss A. McLeod and Miss I. Ferguson.

Red Cross Gets More June Space; Urge Rush Work

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 6—Owing to the fact that additional shipping space has been secured for June, Mrs. H. A. Ramsden, Provincial Chairman of the Red Cross Work Committee, is urging all workers who are making civilian clothing and knitted comforts, to re-double their efforts and ship everything as fast as possible to the Provincial Warehouse, Marine Building, Vancouver, so that they may be shipped at once overseas.

"It is earnestly hoped that there will be no slackening on the part of workers, since the needs grow more urgent hourly," says Mrs. Ramsden. "We beseech the Canadian women to rally to the cause of our brave defenders, and while we realize that it is a difficult time of year for many people, it should be remembered that for them the war is gathering momentum, and for us it is little enough to give a few hours each day to a job we can still accomplish from the safety of comfortable workrooms or the shelter of our own homes. . . .

"Urgent needs are warm clothing, quilts, knitted comforts, for civilians and sailors, especially long sleeved sweaters for Army and Navy—color khaki and navy blue—gloves and mitts. What we do now will hardly arrive in England before cool weather again. Work groups should plan now so that they can keep a steady flow of supplies all through the Summer."

The Ships That Were Not Built

The Battle of Crete is ended. There is no point in sugaring up what has happened; the battle was lost by Britain and won by Germany. This is not the first defeat the democratic cause has sustained since the war began and it is not likely to prove the last.

Yet the Battle of Crete, and indeed any battle taking place in the Near East, is not the crucial one, writes Richard J. Needham, in the Calgary Herald. The only truly crucial struggle is one in which gliders and parachutists play no part; the Battle of the Atlantic. This is a continuous battle. It has been going on since September 1, 1939; a swift succession of rising and ebbing fortunes. Every ship that crosses unharmed is a victory for the democratic cause; every capture or sinking a harsh defeat. How does the battle go? President Roosevelt hinted in his recent address that the battle went none too well. Shipping losses sustained by Britain, he declared, represent three times her productive shipbuilding capacity; double the combined capacity of the American and British yards.

Britain is not losing this battle. But she is not winning it. Her tonnage is falling: priceless stores of weapons and foodstuffs and munitions lie at the bottom of the Atlantic. True, scores of ships escape, for each one sunk. But each loss is heavy in this sort of battle: grim and heavy. Ships, in this stage of the war, mean more to Britain than divisions.

These are, in part, the fortunes of war. There is no need to lay blame or find a scapegoat. The submarine slips through the dark waters; a chance encounter, a lucky torpedo may easily outweigh all manner of skill and bravery and ingenuity on the part of the U-boat's prey.

But there is another part to the story. And this is it. A scant few years ago, the shipyards of Britain were idle, the skilled workmen stagnated on the dole, and seaworthy craft were actually being broken up "to provide work". The ships that might have been built in those years, the ships that might have been kept out of the boneyard—these ships could be saving Britain today. These things seem strange to us today. Yet we accepted them, as part of the moral collapse, the ignoble cringing of the depression years. Was Britain alone guilty?

Look at Canada. We are desperately short of skilled men today. Tradesmen of any kind are seriously lacking for the manufacture of war materials, for the staffing of the services.

What happened? This: Our skilled workmen till the war began, had been spending year after year rotting on relief; our young men and women, leaving high school in the pre-war years, had found the doors of employment closed to them. Not only that; even the chance of training was, till very recently, denied them.

The past as described by Mr. Needham is of only academic interest to us at this stage. Our problem is to make up what we are behind, and, without thinking of the cost, make sure that we win the victory that alone will assure us a continuance of freedom, and the wretched victims of Nazified Germany a restoration of it.

Today's Horoscope

Those who have birthdays today may gain through military matters, but suffer some loss or annoyance through an elderly relative or friend. Unexpected gain or pleasure will come to them. A child who is born on this date will be full of energy and enterprise. He or she will be of keen perceptions and ready wit, somewhat impatient of progress at times, but generally successful.

HOROSCOPE FOR SUNDAY

If you are celebrating a birthday today, beware, because unexpected heavy expenditures, perhaps through the law, threaten you. Guard against extravagance and accidents. Your business affairs will prosper, but you should avoid making sudden and unnecessary changes. Born on this date a child will be subject to fluctuations in money matters, being liable to sudden losses and trouble thereby. Such a person should make important decisions only after much cogitation.

?? Questions ?? ANSWERS

Open to any reader. Names of persons asking questions will not be published.

H. P., Bonners Ferry—Would you please tell me if the following statements are correct? If they are incorrect please tell me why. "The British Empire and its people are living under a representative form of government. They have the privilege of electing their representative to the House of Commons. They also enjoy the benefits of a Bill of Rights, such as free speech in exercising their religious beliefs. Supreme power is vested in the King. He has the power to declare war." I am most interested to learn if the King has the power to declare war.

These statements are, in effect, true. The Crown (the King in Council) "makes peace, war, issues charters, increases the peerage, is the fountain of honor, of office and of justice." The Sovereign entrusts the executive power to Ministers of the Crown, appointed on the advice of the accredited leader of the party in Parliament which enjoys, or can secure, a majority of votes in the House of Commons. The King has the right to veto Bills in both Houses of Parliament, but in practice his veto is almost obsolete. With the development of constitutional practise the King does not declare war except on the advice of his ministers, who are the heads of the Government of the day and subject, to the control of Parliament. The power of the King therefore, to declare war, is theoretical. It actually rests with Parliament.

Wondering, Salmo—How should I care for celery plants after having transplanted them into a ditch?

From the time the plants are set out in the ditch until ready for blanching, frequent cultivation is necessary to keep the soil mellow and free from weeds. In general, shallow cultivation is recommended, sufficient only to kill weeds and maintain a dust mulch. Weeding in the rows is done by hand. In all cultivations care should be taken to disturb as little as possible the shallow fibrous root system. It is important that ample and uniform moisture be maintained throughout the growing season, as an insufficient or intermittent supply produces an inferior product and, by causing a check in growth, tends to force the plant to form seed heads rather than edible stalks. For further information on this subject we suggest you write to the Horticulture Branch, Department of Agriculture, Victoria, for its booklet on celery culture.

Where would be the best place to send a Shaeffer fountain pen that leaks?

Return the pen to the firm where it was purchased or any Shaeffer pen dealer to be fixed.

H. J., Nelson—My passport expires at the end of June. In obtaining a renewal must I send in new photos or will turning in my old passport be sufficient?

If your old passport was for a one year term, then a new application must be made and new photos would be required. If your passport was for five years and not previously renewed, renewal may be obtained without new photos.

G. F. D., Procter—Please state the formality necessary for an enemy alien to conceal his nationality by changing his name. Is such a person permitted to be in possession of real estate?

There can be no concealment in changing a name. The law calls upon all those who wish to change their names to make formal application to the Government at Victoria and the application involves publicity through the B. C. Gazette. Any alien may own real estate.

Press Comment

THE PEOPLE RALLY

American opinion is swinging more and more to the support of the American Government in the war crisis.

The Saturday Evening Post, long bitterly isolationist, has now committed itself editorially to the cause of defeating Hitler, at whatever cost. It is too late now to turn back, says the Post. "To go back is to face the possibility of national death."

And meanwhile the Gallup Poll reveals a sudden and conclusive upswing in popular suport for convoys, even though convoys mean war. In April, 41 per cent favored convoys. The poll for May, just concluded, shows 52 per cent for convoys—a clear majority.

This increase of 25 per cent in the number of those favoring the use of our Navy to see that our aid really reaches Britain followed speeches by several Cabinet members urging use of the Navy.—Chicago Daily News.

FEAR OF GESTAPO

Fear of the Nazi Gestapo is advanced as one reason for an Austrian-born Windsor man taking his own life this week. If that is the case, there is a challenge there to all the police forces in the Dominion. If the enemy Gestapo is operating in this country so actively that men kill themselves rather than risk its revenge, it is time to catch he agents. And, when they are captured, summary punishment should put them out of the way in a hurry.

Words of Wisdom

A hundred men may make an encampment, but it takes a woman to make a home. —Chinese proverb.

Test Yourself

1. What is a salaam?
2. What woman was given permission by Congress to wear male attire?
3. In what States do cranberries grow?

TEST ANSWERS

1. A common form of salutation among Mohammedans and in British India; also a low obeisance.

2. Dr. Mary Walker, who was the first woman assistant army surgeon in the U. S. Civil war.

3. In the peat bogs of Massachusetts, parts of New Jersey and New York, Wisconsin, Michigan, Washington and Oregon. The mountain districts of Virginia and West Virginia also yield some cranberries.

Milking the Rich Is a Beautiful Thought

To the Editor:

Sir—Milking the rich! A gem of allegory. A gentle, beautiful thought, conjuring such visions as in Coleridge's Kubla Khan. A land of milk and honey where storm and tempest are magnificently terrible, and the rage of the elements but an enriching experience to the dwellers thereof.

To misquote Shakespeare: What is a rich man? Is he not a man? Like any other man born to live, to joy, to suffer, and eventually to die It would seem the adjective qualifying man depends on his possessing one or perhaps two cars, one or perhaps two domiciles, one or perhaps two cars, one or perhaps two pends too on his outlook of the economic structure of the world.

The ordinary mortal balances an increase in taxes with a decrease in the number of slices of bacon for his breakfast, and extracts his modest amusements from the money set aside for the butcher or the grocer. His economics are very simple. He has no surplus to juggle with as has the man whose complicated calculations reveal the deplorable state of affairs of an unfortunate and allegedly singular being paying out more than he has, albeit keeping up his one or perhaps two cars, his one or perhaps two domiciles, his one or perhaps two servants.

Milking the rich is indeed a suitable expression. For the bovine origin of the phrase never loses its equanimity, nor its reputation for contentment in the process.

Blood, sweat, and tears is what Churchill promised, and the ordinary man is already realizing it. For every added ounce of blood and sweat from the brow of common men there is one less Nazi to encumber the earth. But not until every man has added his quota of blood and sweat, has stripped his class consciousness from him, and bared his arms for the fight, can the cause gain its necessary and greatest momentum.

To retain a decent standard of living in the meantime, necessitates not that the so-called rich be maintained in the style to which they are accustomed, but that now is the chance for democracy to prove its adaptability to the equality it supposedly embraces.

It takes an inexhaustible amount of money to build and maintain a country's war effort, but three square meals a day, a place to rest his head, his hands, and the possession of his faculties is sufficient for the sustenance of a man's ambition and purpose, and also his will to victory.

To the Victory Loan and Democracy!

Nelson, B. C., June 4, 1941.

JEAN DAVENPORT BURGESS.

Why I Am in the Army

By K. W. L., a Recent Recruit.

I am a soldier now. I recently enlisted in the Canadian Army, and I am glad I did and in fact I am proud of it. I was brought up in a generation that had learned to detest war and all that it stood for. When this war started, it was remote and did not seem to affect me, my family or my friends. The reason for this war, and the cause for which we were fighting, was not very clear to me, particularly as it applied to me, myself. I always felt that in an emergency I would do my share and pull my own weight but that has been an abstract matter and one that I had never analyzed. The fall of France was a shock to me but the war did not come any closer.

One day I wondered what would happen to me if the Germans won the final battle. I commenced to examine as best I could, the life the people of Germany have lived since Hitler came to power. And particularly the life of the people in the countries the Germans have overrun—in Austria, Czecho-Slovakia, Poland, Denmark, Norway, Belgium, Poland, France Hungary, Rumania, Bulgaria. My lot would be no different from theirs. Would I like to be separated from my family? Would I like to see my church closed and be told that my religion was wrong? Would I like to be told what I could eat, what I could wear, what I could do without? Would I like being told what I could read in books, papers and magazines? Would I like being told the radio stations I could listen to, at the risk of jail? Would I like to be moulded into a cast designed by a diabolical mind?

There is only one answer. I would give my life to avoid that fate.

My understanding of what we are fighting for became clear and tangible, as it affected my family, my country, and all the other freedom loving peoples of the world. What was my responsibility and what could I best do? The answer came quickly and clearly. The Canadian Army needed men; I enlisted. I have found my place where I can be of best use. My conscience is clear in the knowledge that I am helping in the fight, the only fight in the world worth fighting—the Defence of Human Freedom.

I like the Army. I have never in my life felt better physically or mentally. I am well cared for, my family is taken care of, I am well clothed, well fed and well housed. Medical and dental services are available at no cost. I am exceedingly interested in my job and I shall have to think and work hard to master it. I have commenced to supplement my education by the carefully planned courses that are offered. This training will increase my earning potential when I return to civilian life. Some of the chaps are learning completely new trades, a chance they didn't have before they joined the Army. I am enjoying sports, just as I did at school, there is a avried program and everyone has the opportunity to join in. I know that I am going to make friendships which will be lifelong. The men in my unit are real men.

As I said before, I am glad that I joined the Army and I know that I shall never regret it as long as I live.

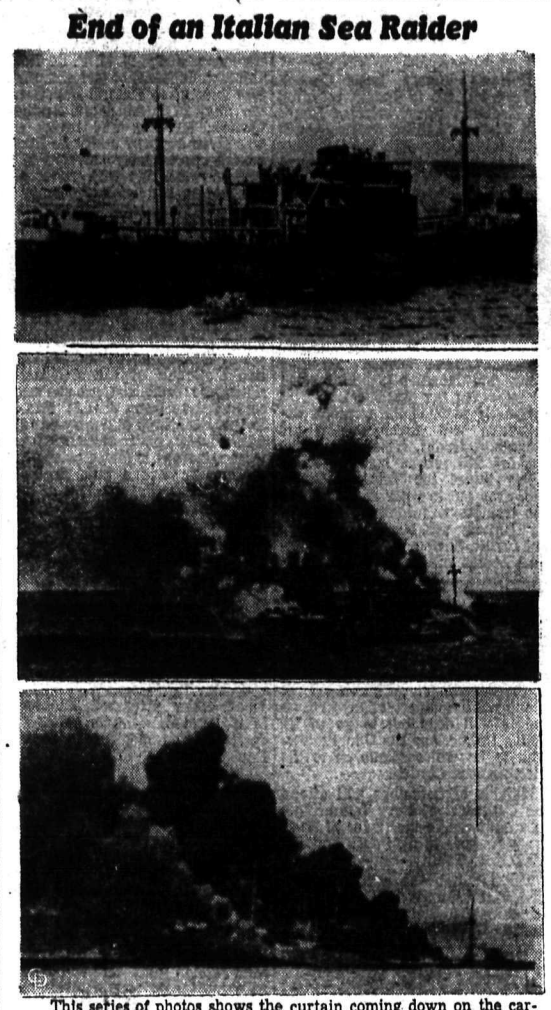
End of an Italian Sea Raider

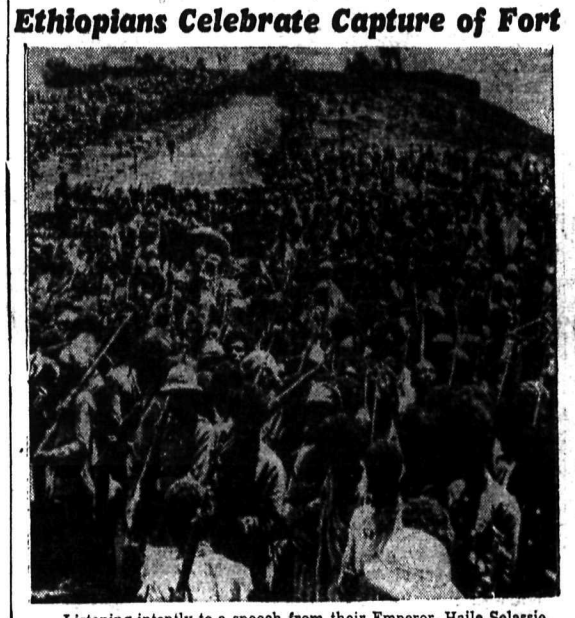


This series of photos shows the curtain coming down on the career of the Italian commerce raider Ramb I. The Fascist ship was sunk in the Indian Ocean by the New Zealand cruiser Leander in March, but the photos have just been released in Australia and sent to North America. At top, after a few salvos from the Leander, the Italian ship has struck her colors and the crew is taking to the lifeboats: centre, the Ramb I, well ablaze from stem to stern, and bottom, abandoned and ready for her death plunge. Action took only 54 minutes. The Leander was not damaged.

Ready Gold Coast Squadron for Action

Money collected from the Gold Coast colony has supplied the R.A.F. with a squadron of Hurricane fighters. The pilots, many of whom have already been decorated, consist of Canadians, South Africans, Australians, Englishmen and one Irishman. One of the machines is reloaded with ammunition after returning from a patrol.

Ethiopians Celebrate Capture of Fort



Listening intently to a speech from their Emperor, Haile Selassie, are officers and men of the Ethiopian patriot army which captured Fort Debra Marcos from the Italians in the combined Allied and Ethiopian campaign in East Africa. The picture was taken inside the fort after the Ethiopians had beaten the Italian defenders and reoccupied the town.

Panzer Troops Captured in Africa

From the fighting front somewhere-in-Africa comes this picture of Nazi panzer troops captured by the British in Africa. The Germans are some of those who were rushed to Libya to stiffen Il Duce's beaten forces. The dejected captives are guarded by an Australian soldier.

Parades Mark Opening of Loan Drive at Creston

CRESTON, B. C.—The 1941 Victory Loan campaign, with Creston's quota placed at $115,000, was impressively inaugurated Wednesday afternoon with military, musical, oratorical and religious features.

Outstanding was the parade of a squad of 30 of the returned-soldier home guard from Fernie, along with the High School Cadet Corps with a turnout of 175 in charge of commanding officer B. B. Crawford. The parade took its way through the business and part of the residential section with music by the high school brass band and the cadets' bugle band. Sergt. Major M. R Joyce was parade marshall, the cadets looking particularly smart in their new uniforms of dark green.

Returning to the school athletic field there was a march past and flag raising, with proceedings in charge of Reeve Col. E. Mallandaine, who spoke briefly. The invocation was by Rev. H. J. Armitage, Rev. A. S. Partington offered the Victory Prayer, and Rev. W. J. Robertson led the concourse in the "Taking of the Pledge."

The Victory Loan talk was brief but timely and was given by Col. Fred Lister. Col. Philpott of Cranbrook, who is in charge of recruiting in the Kootenays was also heard in an appeal for support of the loan and for a greater volume of recruits.

The high school choir with band accompaniment provided the hymn, "Onward, Christian Soldiers," and led in the singing of "O Canada" and the National Anthem.

The concluding feature was the signing of the scroll. Reeve Mallandaine signed on behalf of the village of Creston, and the heads of many local organizations also attached their signatures.

Although the weather was threatening the people of village and surrounding points were out in large numbers.

Hon. K. C. MacDonald Attends Farmer's Institute, Invermere

INVERMERE, B. C. — Delegates from many points in East Kootenay, from Donald to the International Boundary gathered at Invermere Monday for the annual convention of Farmer's Institutes comprising District 1. Lending particular importance to the proceedings was the presence of the Honourable K. C. MacDonald, Minister of Agriculture. He was accompanied by J. B. Munro, Deputy Minister and W. McGillivray or Salmon Arm, District Agriculturist.

W. M. Dicken, Fernie, President, was in the chair during the afternoon business session which was adjourned to Tuesday morning. Monday evening was occupied by a banquet for the official party and delegates held in the Invermere Hotel and sponsored by the Windermere District Farmers' Institute.

K. M. Marples, Invermere, presided, and as a token of appreciation of the long service of E. E. Tunnacliffe, invited him to welcome the guests of the evening. Mr. Tunnacliffe is probably the only charted members of the local Farmers' Institute still active.

The Honourable K. C. MacDonald was the chief speaker and gave an informative talk on agricultural conditions in the Province generally.

Other speakers were Thomas King, M.L.A., Golden, J. B. Munro, Deputy Minister of Agriculture. Victoria, W. McGillivray, Salmon Arm, and W. M. Dicken Fernie.

A pleasing interulde was provided by the presentation to Miss Betty Stathan, Wilmer, of a replica of the H. H. Stevens Trophy, which had been won by her for three years in succession.

Navy Band Aid to Victory Loan Drive, Cranbrook

CRANBROOK, B. C. — The Royal Canadian Navy Band from Esquimalt which is travelling in aid of the Victory Loans drive put on a free concert in the Cranbrook arena Tuesday afternoon. Mayor Balment introduced the band and its leader, Lieutenant Cuthbert, and spoke a few words on behalf of the Drive. Reverend Frank Patch and Reverend Callum Thompson also spoke and urged the people to buy these bonds. One of the highlights of the concert was a trombone solo by Clifford Rutledge, "Out of the Dusk to You.' In the morning the band paraded to the hospital and in the early afternoon there was a parade of school children, High School cadets, Rangers, Guides, Brownies, Scouts, Cubs, and the Navy band, lead by Cranbrook's largest fire truck. In the evening there was a dance in the Auditorium with the 12 piece swing section of the band providing the music.

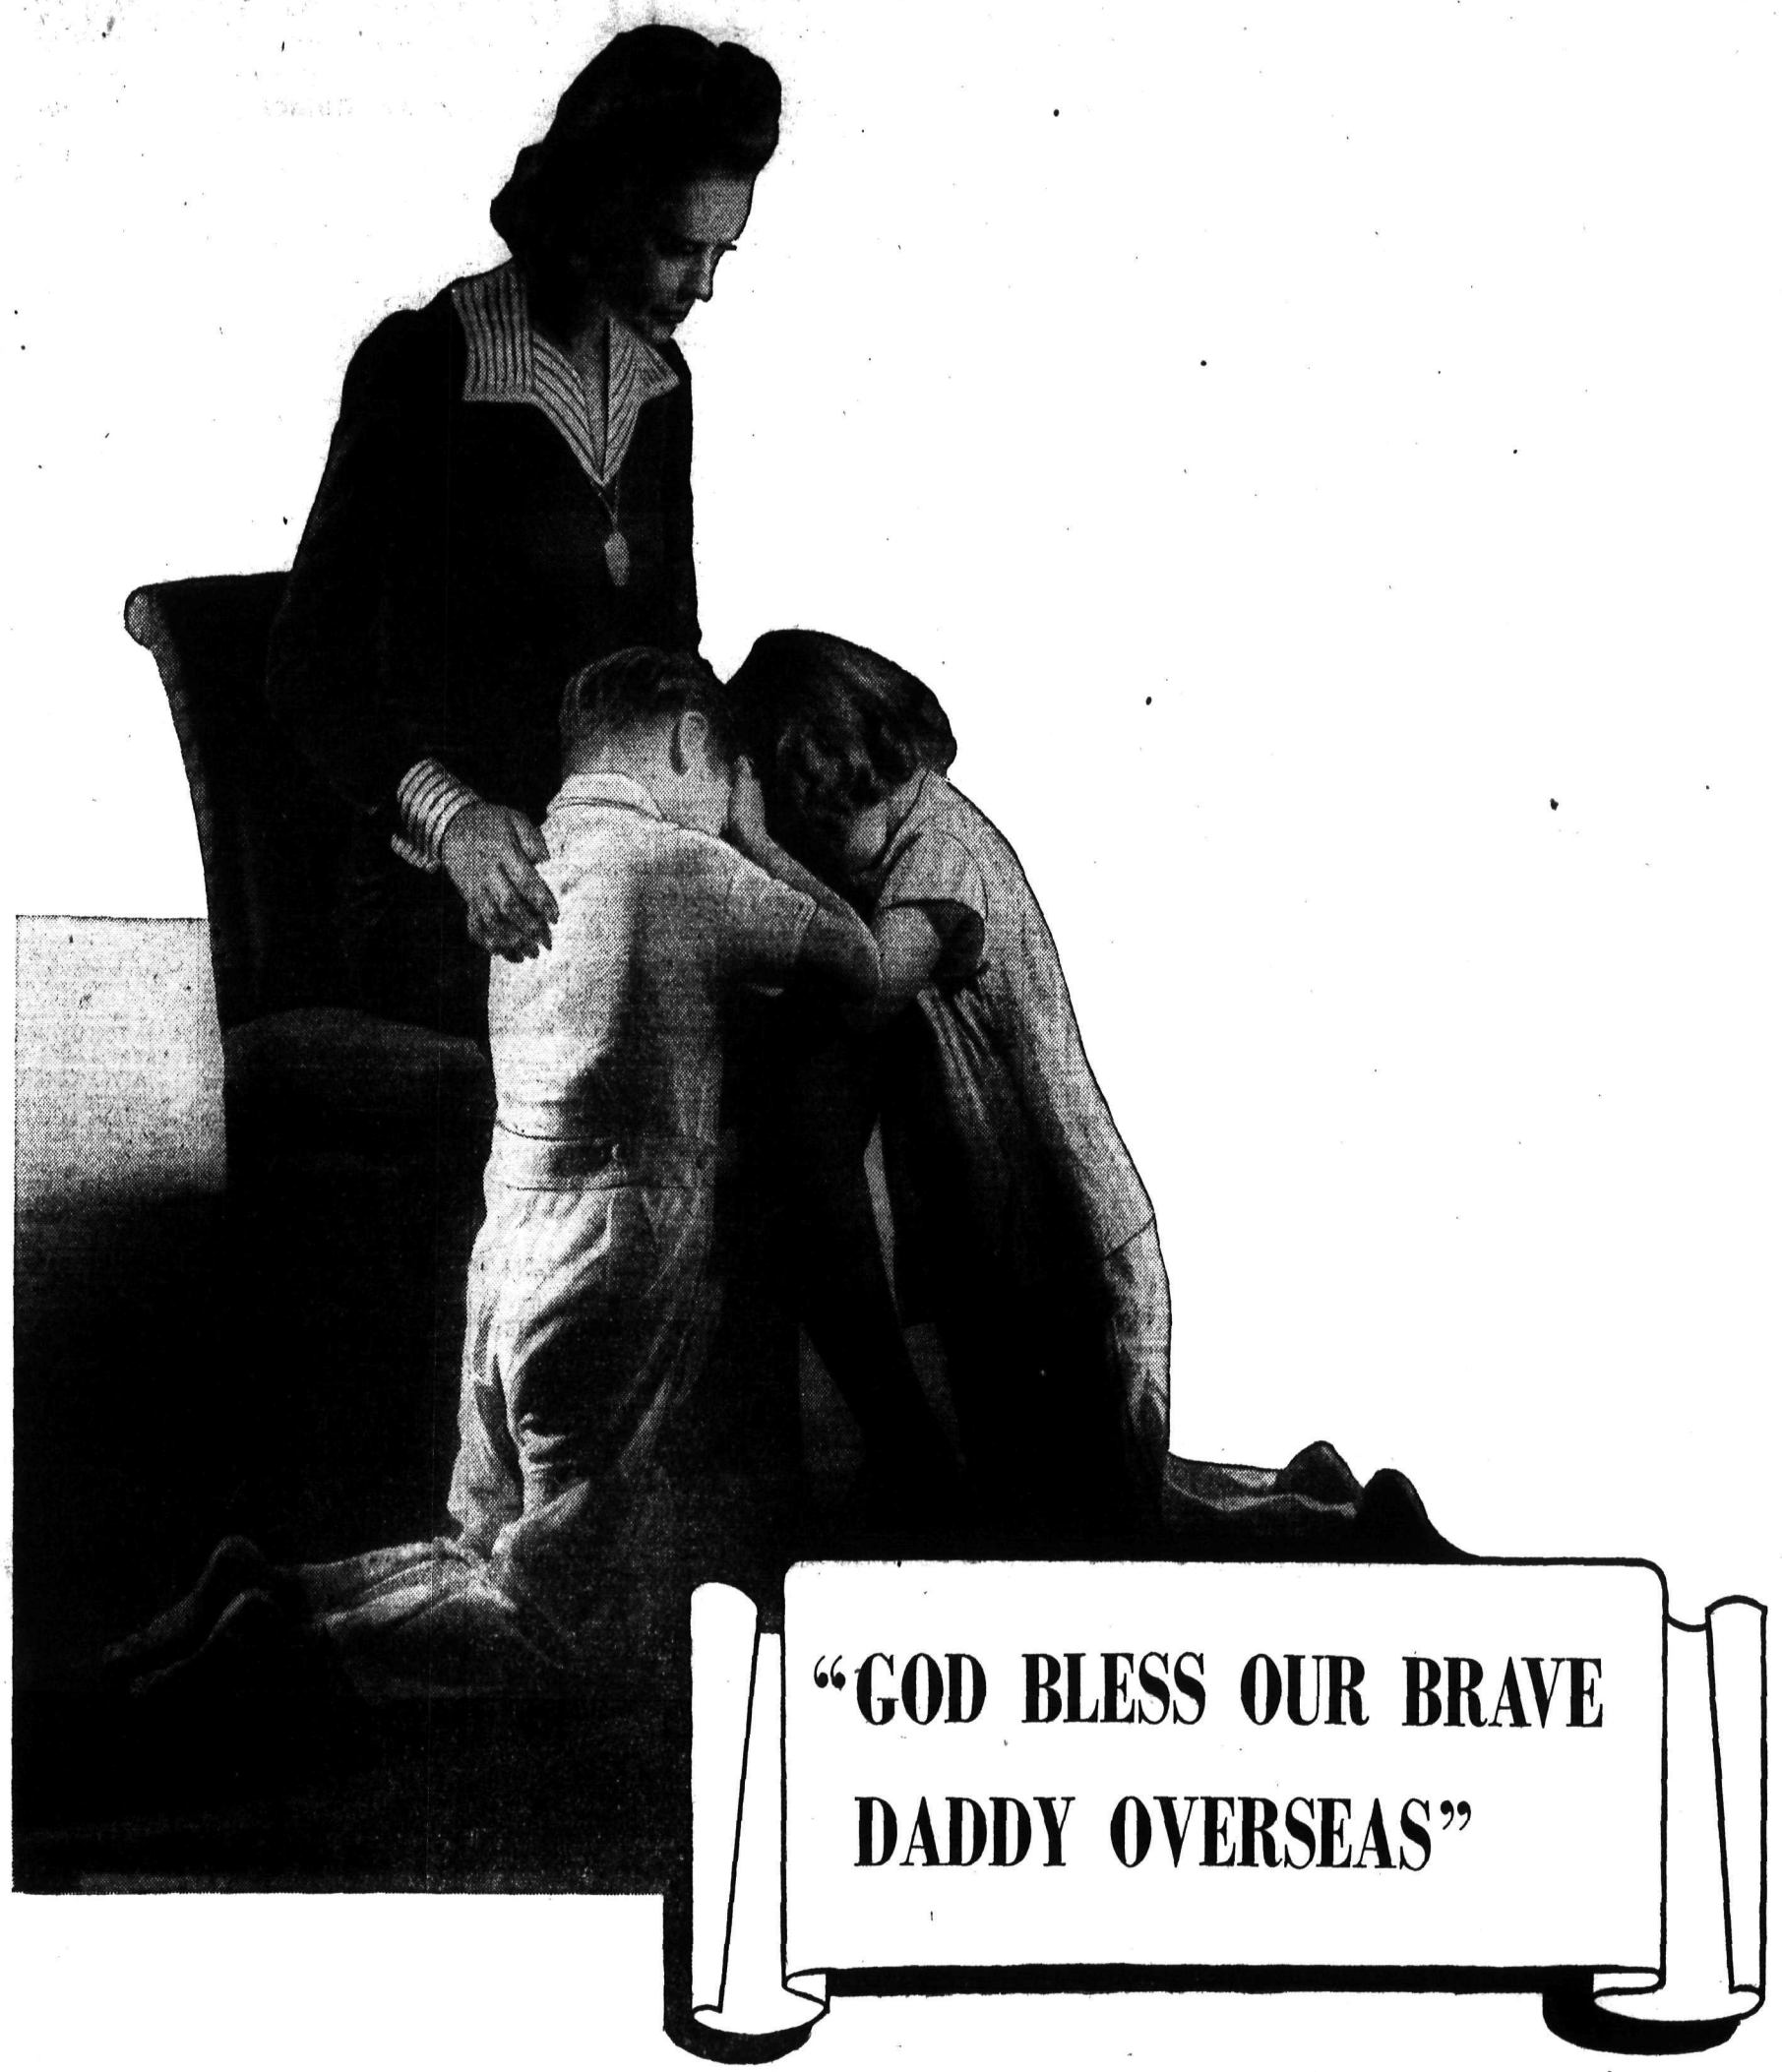
INDICATE CHANGES WILL BE MADE IN PROPERTY SEIZURE LEGISLATION

WASHINGTON, June 6 (AP)—Administration leaders concluded today there is no chance of passing the United States War Department's property seizure bill in its present form. Indications were entirely new legislation would be proposed as a substitute.

One of the objectives of the bill was to provide the Government with a legal weapon that could be used to cope with strike deadlocks in important defence industries.

Nakusp Plans for Dominion Day

NAKUSP, B. C.—Discussion of the annual Dominion Day celebration was the business reason for a meeting of the Nakusp Recreation Association held here this week. D Hummon, President, was in the chair. The day's activities, it was decided, would commence with a parade which will feature patriotic floats, decorated cars and children's fancy and comic costumes. Baseball and softball games are being arranged and children's sports and track events are being lined up. An added attraction this year will be aquatic sports which will be held late in the afternoon. A dance, which is being given careful planning, will climax the day's events.



FOR EVERY CANADIAN who sails the deep, for every airman who flashes through the skies, and for every other man in the fighting forces, the prayers of the nation "rise like a fountain, night and day."

In times of crisis our people stand steadfast. In daily devotions they renew the flame of faith and arm with unseen powers their warriors in the field.

Oftentimes they discern the Unseen Hand. Witness the miracle of Dunkirk. Witness, too, in the darkest hours the emergence of great inspiring figures to steady the ranks of Democracy and fire its courage and confidence.

Church bells are ringing throughout Canada calling men and women to worship and sacrifice in defence of our freedom, the sanctity of our homes and the future of our children.

Translate your faith into works by buying Victory Bonds.

New Apple Named Winston Churchill Because It Has "Lots of Endurance"

Palmer Tells Farmers of Summerland Experiments

ROBSON, B. C., June 6—Development of new types of apples at the Summerland Experimental Farm was described by R. S. Palmer, Superintendent, to the West Kootenay Boundary Central Farmers Institute Thursday. He displayed samples.

The three types were based on the McIntosh, a favorite variety, and were aimed at "toughening" it for longer storage. The McIntosh and Winesap were combined to produce the "Winston Churchill", an apple which Churchill appeared to have "lots of endurance."

From the McIntosh and Yellow Newtown the "Spartan" had been developed, and from the McIntosh and Grimes Golden the "Jubilee". They were still being tried out, and "may do well."

GRAPES DOING WELL

A number of varities of grapes from various parts of Europe were growing well at Summerland, and "very nice wine" had been made from them, Mr. Palmer said.

Present work on vegetables emphasized hot weather varities.

The object of the experimental station was to produce higher yields of better produce at less expense he stated.

Mr. Palmer invited farmers to visit the Summerland station or the new station at Creston, and to make inquiries at any and all times.

GERMANS CLAIM THREE MERCHANT SHIPS SUNK

BERLIN, June 6 (AP). — The German High Command claimed today that German air raiders, striking at British convoys off the East Coast of Scotland last night, sank three merchant ships totalling 15,800 tons and damaged four others. (British confirmation of this claim is not available.)

London Has First Daylight Alarm Since April 22

LONDON, June 6 (CP). — Anti-aircraft guns roared into action this morning in the London area shortly after sirens had signalled the end of the Capital's first daytime air raid alarm since April 22.

Several German planes swept across the City, but scattered to avoid sharp bursts of shellfire and disappeared without another alarm being sounded.

The alert lasted less than 30 minutes, ending after a small formation of Nazi planes flew over London area, wheeled and returned South.

Their purpose evidently was weather reconnaissance. There were no reports of any bombs dropped.

Raiding during the night was limited to an attack by a small number of invading planes on parts of Scotland. The Government said damage was slight and casualties few.

Idaho Judges Pay Goodwill Visit to Creston Board

CRESTON, B. C. — The familiar '3000 miles of borderline, 100 years of peace" spirit was to the fore early Wednesday evening when more than a score of probate judges of the State of Idaho and their wives were guests of Creston Board of Trade at a goodwill luncheon at the power house grounds at Goat River canyon, which also attracted the attendance of 35 Board members, who were accompanied by their wives and lady friends.

The judges had concluded a two-day convention session at Bonners Ferry, at which the new courthouse was formally dedicated and opened, with the jurists taking the afternoon off for a motor trip through the Kootenay River Valley in Idaho as well as British Columbia.

Addresses eulogistic of the long-time and unbroken international friendship were given by Chief Justice Budge of the Idaho Supreme Court, and was replied to by Frank Putnam, M.L.A. Col. E. Mallandaine, who presided, spoke in similar strain, and Probate Judge E. B. Schlette of Bonners Ferry was also heard, who was loud in his praise of the hospitality extended the visitors.

"O Canada", "My Country 'Tis of Thee' and "God Save the King" were the musical features and all were given a very hearty rendering.

CANADA BANS MORE FOREIGN NEWSPAPERS

OTTAWA, June 6 (CP). —Le Mois Suise, French-language magazine published at Montreux, Switzerland, and A Minkas (the worker), Hungarian-language newspaper published at New York, were added today to the list of publications banned from entry to Canada under Defence of Canada Regulations.

GOV'T OUTLAWS KHAKSARS BAND

Jaffray First Aid Class Successful in Passing Exams

JAFFRAY, B. C. — The Jaffray First Aid Club, which has been conducting lectures for several weeks under the direction of Dr. Workman of Coal Creek, took their test in the Institute Hall Wednesday evening.

Dr. Simon-Chuck of Fernie presided. Successful candidates were as follows:

Label Certificate — Miss L. Johnson of Kimberley. Senior Certificate—Miss Olga Rosen, Miss Norma Damstrom, Miss M. Voisey, Arthur, Einar and Edgar Damstrom, and H. Fletcher of Galloway. Junior Certificate—Miss Irma and Miss Verna Atwood.

Accompanying Dr. Simon-Chuck were Dr. and Mrs. Workman and son Alan of Coal Creek, and Miss Thornton of Fernie Hospital staff.

TWO AIRMEN DIE IN PLANE CRASH

YORKTON, Sask., June 6 (CP)—Two Royal Canadian Air Force men were killed early today when the Harvard training plane in which they were flying crashed three miles Northeast of No. 11 Service Flying Training School here.

The men killed were Flt. Lt. J. E. MacDonald, pilot of the machine, and Sgt. T. S. Sharples, passenger, R.C.A.F. officials gave Flt. Lt. MacDonald's next of kin as Mrs. M. B. MacDonald, mother, Regina, while Sgt. Sharples' next of kin was listed as Mrs. A. Sharples, mother, of Winnipeg.

Both men were attached to No. 11 School as instructors under the British Commonwealth Air Training Plan. At the time of the crash, which occurred at 12:45 a.m., Flt. Lt. MacDonald was coaching Sgt. Sharples on night flying. The aircraft dived to earth from a height of 1000 feet shortly after it had taken off.

Turks Report Nazis Moving Into Syria

ISTANBUL, Turkey, June 5 (Delayed) (AP). — The Ankara radio said today Germany is moving troops into Syria "by land, sea and air almost daily."

It was understood here also the Vichy Government is trying to get control of a number of tugs which formerly were used by the French on the Danube and which were taken to Turkey and leased to Britain after the French-German armistice.

Official Note Declares French Needs Are Misunderstood by U. S.

VICHY, June 6 (AP)—An official note issued by the Foreign Office spokesman tonight in answer to State Secretary Hull's declaration against French cooperation with Germany said the United States misunderstood France's needs in a difficult situation.

"The French Government for its part wants to preserve friendly relations with the United States but the Federal Government cannot understand that the first task of the French Government, in the particularly difficult situation in which it finds itself, is to safeguard the vital interests of France" the statement said.

"It is surprising to see the American Secretary of State describe as a policy of aggression and oppression one which is directed against nobody and harms the interests of no other powers."

The spokesman argued collaboration with Germany was due only to a desire "to establish better relations in Europe" and "maintain the freedom of the French Empire and its communication lines against all attack."

Cripps to Confer in London Before Returning to Post

LONDON, June 6 (CP)—Sir Stafford Cripps, British Ambassador to Russia, "will return shortly" for consultation and will go back to his post after a few days in London, it was announced authoritatively today.

Sir Stafford and his wife have left the Soviet capital, flying to Stockholm today on the first leg of their trip home.

Italian Plane in Syria Destroyed

CAIRO, Egypt, June 6 (AP). — Royal Air Force bombers destroyed an Italian plane on Aleppo airdrome in Syria yesterday, the R. A. F. Middle East Command announced today in the first definite disclosure that Fascist aircraft were in the Vichy-ruled State.

The presence of the Italian planes at the Northern Syrian air base led informed quarters to believe these craft were being sent from the Island of Rhodes in the Dodecanese. They said this theory was strengthened by the same R. A. F. war bulletin that told of another raid yesterday on Rhodes itself.

The attack was the fourth on Aleppo and the 17th against Syrian objectives since Britain learned the Germans were using airdromes there as way stops en route to Iraq.

Besides hitting planes on the landing field, today's war bulletin said, hits were registered on hangars and runways, columns of smoke arose from the asphalt runways, it added.

In a heavy night attack on Kattavia airdrome, Islands of Rhodes, Wednesday night, the R. A. F. set off a number of explosions which were followed by fires.

Still other raids were made on Derna and Bengasi, the latter a major port of entry for Axis supplies in North Africa, and the High Command said buildings and harbor facilities were hit.

Masons From Across the Border Visit Creston Brethren

CRESTON, B. C. — Wednesday was International Night with the Creston Masons, on which occasion the lodge was favored with a fraternal call from a score of members of the craft from Bonners Ferry, Idaho, headed by the W. M., W. O. Brookaway, and some from other points South of the line.

After lodge work was completed adjournment was taken to the banquet hall for dinner, which was followed by the usual toasts and responses in all of which international goodwill was eloquently stressed by most of the speakers.

The guests were welcomed by the W. M., Stanley Hendren and R. W. B., Col. E. Mallandaine. Visiting brethren responding included R. W. B.. H. I. Monks, and W. B.'s, M. D. Pace and W. O. Brockaway.

Windermere Scouts Make Camp Plans

INVERMERE, B. C. — The Lake Windermere Boy Scout Troop, now in it's fourth month of existence, is busy preparing for its Summer camp, which is expected to be held at Thunderhill Ranch, Columbia Lake, by the courtesy of J. Ballamy. At each troop meeting for the past few weeks items of campcraft have been a prominent part in the program.

The troop now has three patrols, the Marmots, with Joe Fuller as Patrol Leader and Delbert Mitchell as Second; the Eagles, with Gilbert Cartwright as Patrol Leader and Donald Owens as Second; and the Cougars with Calvin Lake as Patrol Leader and Albano Pellegrin as Second. The Scout Master is E. R. Yerburgh and the assistant Scoutmaster, G. Rossington. The troop now has a membership of 19, with two second-class Scouts and several boys very close to that standing. The troop has been pleased to welcome Leslie Oliver, an English Scout, who is in Invermere for the duration and Albano Pellegrin, a Scout from Cranbrook.

FORMER EGYPTIAN ARMY CHIEF CAUGHT

CAIRO, Egypt, June 6 (AP)—General Azis el Masri Pasha, former Chief of Staff of the Egyptian Army, and two companions, missing since May 16 when they attempted to flee from Egypt—allegedly headed for Syria with important secret documents — were found today.

Their hideout was a house in the Cairo suburb of Embabeh, beside the river, near the Kit-Kat Night Club.

CHEVROLET, PIONEER MOTOR MAN, DIES

ST. PAUL'S CHOIR ON VICTORY LOAN BROADCAST

Twenty members of St. Paul's Boys' Choir will broadcast over CKLN Monday evening in the sixth Victory Loan broadcast presented by the Daily News station. The programme, under the direction of Mrs. T. J. S. Ferguson, will commence at 8:30 p.m. The group will consist of 12 boy sopranos and eight older boys, the latter to be heard for the first time as the Choir Octet.

The boys have prepared a special number, "An Ode to King George", written at the time of the coronation by the famous Canadian composer, Dr. Healy Willian. Donald Beattie, winner of the Men's Senior Vocal Challenge Shield in the recent Kootenay Music Festival, will be heard in a duet with Donald Brown, winner of the Junior Vocal Challenge Shield. Brown has the distinction of having this shield four times, first as a boy soprano, at the time of his tenth birthday, twice afterward, and this year for the first time as a baritone.

Mrs. Ferguson is putting forth a special effort to celebrate the occasion in a way fitting to the King's birthday.

The programme follows:

1. Opening Chorus: "Freedom for All, Forever".
2. Solo and Chorus: "My Own Dear Land", George Spencer, Stanley Fisher, and the Boy Sopranos.
3. Octet: "Cradle Song".
4. Solo: "To Music", Donald Beattie.
5. Chorus: "John Peel", the Boy Sopranos.
6. Reading: Rev. T. J. S. Ferguson.
7. Duet: "Oh Breathe Not His Name", Donald Beattie and Donald Brown.
8. Chorus: Healey Willan's "Ode to the King", the Choir.
9. Octet: "O My Dear Heart"
10. Reading: Rev. T. J. S. Ferguson.
11. Solo: "Song of Good Courage".

Navy Sinks Three Axis Supply Ships

LONDON, June 6 (CP). — The Admiralty announced today that the Royal Navy had sunk three supply ships and an armed trawler intended to suppl the German battleship Bismark and other Nazi warships.

The Bismark, sunk May 27, three days after destroying the British battle cruiser Hood between Iceland and Greenland, was believed to have a range of about 15,000 miles without refueling.

Therefore, informed sources said, she must have been bound on a long raiding cruise, for supply ships would have been unnecessary for operations merely around Greenland.

With three supply ships — a couple of tankers and a munitions carrier—she could have roamed the oceans for a year without having to put into port.

They declined to say when or where the supply ships were sunk or to indicate their size.

OPPONENTS MAKE COUNTER PROPOSAL ON SEAWAY PROJECT

WASHINGTON, June 6 (AP). — President Roosevelt's appeal for speedy United States Congressional consent to the projected St. Lawrence Waterway Development brought a counter proposal from opponents today that only the hydro-electric power portion of the program be undertaken at this time.

SYRIAN SENTIMENT FOR FREE FRANCE

NEW YORK, June 6 (AP)—Gen. de Larminat, High Commissioner of Free French forces in Africa, declared today in a broadcast over the Brazzaville radio that sentiment in Syrian is strongly for the Free French. He appealed to all Frenchmen everywhere to oppose the Government of Vichy.

"Many have crossed the border because they cannot tolerate a German Syria and because they feel they should resist the 'new order.'

Proposes Common Citizenship by British Empire and United States

EDINBURGH, June 6 (CP)—Leslie Hore-Belisha proposed today recognition of common citizenship by Great Britain, the British Empire and the United States as the most hopeful assurance of the determination of the democracies to establish a new order.

The former war secretary also suggested the industrial effort of the British Empire and the U. S., in order to reach its most intensive pitch and pullest scope, should be directed as the military effort of France and Britain was directed in the last war—by a single allied council fortified by expert knowledge.

The proposals were made in a speech before the Scottish National Association.

The former minister sharply criticized the Government's handling of the Defence of Crete, which he characterized as a military disaster.

"We suffer defeat after defeat," he said. "and always for the same reasons—lack of appreciation, lack of preparation and imperfect execution of the project. Each reverse is glossed over by the same series of incompatible explanations, and the narcotic of false confidence in the future is invariably applied.

Turning to the home front, he said productivity in factories and docks is falling at an alarming rate.

"We must win this war and we will back any government that will go all out to win it. Let us realize, however, that you cannot win a 1941 war at a 1914 pace."

French General Issues Command to Defend Possessions

VICHY, June 6 (AP)—Gen. Henri Dentz, Commander of French forces in the Levant, in a broadcast reported here today from Beirut, Lebanon, declared: "The command is clear; defend our possessions and defend them with our own forces."

"I simply ask you—the Marshal (Petain) demands this—to maintain our possession of the territories belonging to us or entrusted to our protection. Nothing more, nothing less.

He denied that German forces were landing at Latakia and relieving French troops.

Referring to the recent passage of German aircraft to Iraq, via Syr*ian air bases, he claimed the same* planes now were returning.

Elaborating on Vichy's collaboration policy, the General warned against "seductive promises" — a reference to pro-British and Free French sentiment—and asserted "They dazzle you with the alluring image of hypothetical victory which in the coming years would restore greatness to France."

PLAN TO PUT SHIPS ON GREAT LAKES 2 YEARS AFTER CONSTRUCTION

WASHINGTON, June 6 (CP) — United States Army engineers are working on a plan to assure that ocean going merchant ships can be put on the Great Lakes two years after the start of construction of the St. Lawrence deep waterway scheme, President Roosevelt said today.

KRIESLER WALKS AGAIN

NEW YORK, June 6 (CP) — Fritz Kriesler's wife, Harriet, told today how the great violinist, 66 on his last birthday, walked yesterday for the first time since he was knocked down by a truck April 26.

"He will be completely well," she declared. "He will be able to play again just as he played before."

...ller Hurls Indians to 2-0 Win Over A's; Pittsburgh Takes Two

By The Canadian Press

Bob Feller proved again yesterday that Cleveland Indians can't get along without him. He hurled a four-hit, 2-0 triumph over Philadelphia Athletics for his 12th of the Indians' 31 victories this season. Feller has been beaten only twice this year. Yesterday's victory pulled Cleveland two games ahead of the losing White Sox in the American League.

Detroit Tigers scored seven runs in the third inning and went on to beat Washington Senators 11-8, in the opener of a three-game American League series. The victory put Detroit .001 points behind the fourth-place Yankees.

Home runs accounted for all of Boston's runs as the Red Sox topped Chicago White Sox 6-3 for their sixth straight victory, and nabbed within one game of second place. Jimmy Foxx collected his 8th homer of the season with one on base in the first inning. Ted Williams got his 10th with one on in the third and Jim Tabor followed with another in the fourth.

Pittsburgh Pirates swept a doubleheader from New York Giants on the fine pitching of Max Butcher and Truett (Rip) Sewell. They won the first game 5-4 with Butcher yielding six-hit ball and took the second 4-3 behind the five-hit pitching of Sewell, who tied the major league record for pitchers with 11 assists.

He also had one putout, giving him a dozen fielding chances handled cleanly for a new National League record. His three assists in the third inning tied another record and the 21 putouts by First Baseman Elbie Fletcher of the Pirates also tied a league mark.

Two of the hits off Sewell were home runs by Mel Ott, bringing the Giants' total to 14. Frankie Gustine homered for the Pirates in the second encounter. In the first game a homer by Arky Vaughan in the seventh provided the decisive blow.

Lona Warneke scored his sixth victory of the season by letting the Boston Braves down with six hits as they bring St. Louis Cardinals a 3-1 decision.

Southpaw Johnny Vander Meer, who hurled two consecutive no-hit games for Cincinnati three years ago, almost turned the trick for the Reds again in a night game, shutting out the Phillies 7-0 with one scratch hit and striking out 12.

Danny Litwhiler got the Phils' lone hit in the second inning, beating out an infield tap to Shortstop Eddie Joost. Altogether Vander Meer permitted only two Phils to reach first base and hurled perfect ball after Litwhiler's safety, retiring 23 men in a row. Stan Benjamin, who walked in the first inning, was the other Phil to get on base. He was promptly caught trying to steal.

Kirby Higbe pitched dazzling five-hit ball and blasted home two runs with a double in the sixth inning of another night affair to lead the Brooklyn Dodgers to a 4-1 victory over the Chicago Cubs and keep his team in first place by half a game.

Bombers Win on Jorgenson's Tenth Inning Double Over C.Y.O. by 6-5

...h School Blue Bombers and C. Y. O. staged another extra inning thriller in Nelson Softball Association play Friday evening at Recreation Grounds that was finally broken up in the last of the tenth with one out when Earl Jorgenson doubled to left centre to score the winning run of a 6-5 score for the Bombers.

It was the Bombers' first victory of the season in three starts, and sent them into third place, half a game ahead of C. Y. O. In their first start, Bombers had been beaten by 11 innings by the Pucksters.

The teams were never more than a run apart all the way, even though they battled for several of the middle innings in a drizzling rain. Carl Locatelli worked the first six innings for C. Y. O. before giving the game with the score tied at 4-4. Art Ross came in to relieve the job, and was charged with the loss. Locatelli struck out seven and walked one, and Ross allowed six. Ernie Colman, although troubled with his control in the first few innings, hurled five-hit ball, struck out nine and issued seven free passes.

Bombers Winlaw opened the scoring in the third inning when he caught the Catholic infield to steal home. C. Y. O. went ahead in the fourth when Kohar came home on a passed ball and Prestley doubled home DeLucrezio. Bombers tied it up in the last of the fourth when Jorgenson hit the first of his doubles to bring in Hopland. A double by Locatelli in the fifth scored Art Ross, who had walked, but Bombers came back with two in their half when Henrickson homered, and Colman, who had tripled his previous trip to the plate, doubled in Winlaw.

Corky Ball tripled with DeLucrezio on first, but when he tried to score on the hit, he was thrown out at the plate, Jorgenson to Tattrie to Collinson.

Each team scored in the eighth, Ball doubling with French on base for the Catholics, and Jorgenson tying it up again when he singled, went to third on Prestley's wild throw to second, and scored on a passed ball.

Tattrie opened the last of the tenth with a single, but he was forced at second, French to Frocklage. Tattrie blocked Frocklage from making a good play to first, and the second baseman's wild throw allowed Hopland to go down to second. Then Jorgenson came through with his second double.

Score by innings:

CAGNEY TO BE RACER

BROCKTON, Mass., June 6 (AP).—Jimmy Cagney, the movie's little tough guy, will make his debut tomorrow as a harness horse driver at informal races at the Brockton Fair Grounds, scheduled as a warm-up for the opening of the New England harness racing season.

Wartime football raises problems that could never occur in peace time. In a rugby league game Huddersfield beat Castleford 8-3 in overtime, scoring the winning points without opposition. The Castleford players had to go to work at the end of the regular time. In an association football cup tie — supposed to be played to sudden death — The teams left the field without reaching a decision. The referee, a flying officer, couldn't stay for more than an hour of overtime because he was due back at his station.

First Half Schedule for City Men's and Girls Softball Has Been Revised

Since more time is available for games now that Senior baseball has folded up, the schedule of the first half of the Nelson Softball Association has been revised.

A doubleheader has been scheduld for Sunday afternoon, Bombers meeting Pucksters at 1:15, and Aces playing C.Y.O. girls at 5:30. Games are scheduled Sunday, Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings, all starting at 5:30.

No games are scheduled for either the High School Blue Bombers or Bomberettes during examination time, which is from the 16th to the 25th. Those two teams are thereby forced to play heavy schedules during the rest of the time.

The first half gives three games against each team in the girls' league, and two games against each team in the Men's League.

SCHEDULE

Following is the remainder of the first half schedule for both boys and girls, home team being last named:

June 8 — Bombers vs Pucksters 1:15 p.m.; Aces vs C.Y.O. (girls) 5:30 p.m.

June 9—Savoys vs C.Y.O.

June 11—Bombers vs Savoys.

June 12 — Aces vs Bomberettes (girls).

June 13—Savoys vs Bombers.

June 15—Pucksters vs C.Y.O.

June 16—Pucksters vs Savoys.

June 18—C.Y.O. vs Aces (girls).

June 19—Savoys vs Pucksters.

June 20—Bomberettes vs C.Y.O. (girls).

June 25—Bomberettes vs C.Y.O. (girls).

June 27 — Bomberettes vs Aces (girls).

Nelson Ball Juniors Go to Salmo Sunday

Slim Porter's Nelson junior baseball team plans to play its opening game against the Salmo Juniors at Salmon Sunday morning.

A return game will probably be played in Nelson the following Sunday.

C.Y.O. Girls Win 2nd From Trinity

C. Y. O. girls took their second victory in six starts in the Nelson Church Softball League when they defeated Trinity 18-17 at the Junior High Wednesday evening.

Irene Payie pitched for the Catholics, striking out three, compared to one by Genevieve Grizzelle, Trinity chucker.

Score by innings:

C. Y. O.	321	023	034	—	18
Trinity	140	414	021	—	17

Lineups with runs scored follow:

C. Y. O. — Marie Stangherlin 4, Maxine Cady 1, Phyllis Payie 2, Irene Payie 1, Eleanor Vulcano, Mary Kubin 1, Mary Ryan 4, Violet DeLucrezio 2, Mariette Maglio 3.

Sports Roundup

By EDDIE BRIETZ
Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, June 6 (AP). — Broadway is saying Arthur Donovan won't be in there when Joe Louis goes against Billy Conn. Arturo seems to be in very Dutch since the Buddy Baer fight . . . There isn't a thing wrong with Jimmy Foxx that a few lusty base-hits won't cure . . . We're still sticking to Byron Nelson to come through at Fort Worth . . . Fellows who knew Bud Taylor when he was going good say he earned nearer $1,000,000 than $100,000, as we had it.

To date this column has received 178 tributes to Lou Gehrig (both prose and poetry), which gives you an idea how the old Iron Horse rated all over . . . Eleven members of Washington's Varsity and Junior Varsity crew which will row at Poughkeepsie have yet to participate in a losing race.

Aces and Rebels to Meet Newsies Softball Today

Daily News softballers, rained out of their last two Saturday games, will engage their usual rivals, the Rebels, and the Aces of the Girls' softball League in a doubleheader at the Recreation Grounds today.

The game with the Rebels will start at 2 o'clock, and then the Newsies will meet the Aces at 5:30.

For the Aces, it will be another game in their schedule against men's teams so as to get them into good shape for the rep team battles against Trail late in the Summer. Most of the Aces will win places on the Nelson Reps.

46 Golfers Play Qualifying Round at Trail for Kootenay Men's Open

TRAIL, B. C., June 6—Qualifying round for the West Kootenay men's open golf championship being played at the Rossland-Trail golf course this weekend starts Saturday morning. Forty-six entrants will compete in the tournament which will be divided into three flights, championship, second, and third, the first 16 in the qualifying round being placed in the championship class, the second 16 in the second class and the remainder in the third flight.

Competition for the Schwengers Cup, now held by Trail, awarded to the city team having lowest score in the qualifying round, will also be decided Saturday. Trail will be represented by P. F. McIntyre, Roy Stone and two other players not yet announced. The Kaslo team will comprise, S. J. Reuter, C. W. White, J. Sutherland and C. R. Fahrni, and Nelson players will be Ken McBride, L. M. McBride, J. Allen, W. A. Duckworth, and T. R. Wilson, alternates.

Entry list shows one Vancouver man, G. W. Wilson, competing as well as six Rosslanders, nine from Nelson and the four players forming the Kaslo team. The remainder are Trail men.

Ball Grounds Are Realloted Since Seniors Disband

Through an agreement between softball and baseball officials, a new allotment of the Recreation Grounds has been made for their use by sport organizations in the hours previously allotted on week nights by Denis StDenis, Secretary-Manager of the Nelson Civic Centre.

Since Senior baseball is at an end, bantam and junior baseball will use the grounds Tuesday afternoons from 4:30 on, Thursday afternoons to 5:30, and Saturday mornings. Softball will use Monday evenings, Wednesday evenings, Thursday from 5:30, and Friday evenings. The Sundays previously allotted to softball and Senior baseball will be divided up between softball and kid baseball.

Wednesdays, however, will be immediately turned over in case of some major attraction, as provided for in the regulations issued by Mr. StDenis.

Four Take Lead In Stormy Open Golf Contest

FORT WORTH, Tex., June 9 (AP)—After a day of confusion, thunder, lightning and pouring rain, the end of the second round of the U.S. open golf championship found a four-way tie for the lead at 36 holes among Craig Wood, Clayton Heafner, Denny Shute and defending champion Lawson Little. Their 144's were fou over par for the Colonial Club course.

Wood holed out on the 18th green 11½ hours after the first man in the field had whipped his drive off the first tee this morning. Those 11½ hours were packed with more confusion and saw more people drenched than any golf tournament has been able to boast for years.

To make things even more interesting, Wood, Heafner, Shute and Little didn't even have the definite knowledge that they had led the field to the halfway mark. For a slim youngster named Johnny Morris, former amateur star from Tuscaloosa, Ala., elected to stop play after he'd holed out on the 15th green in almost total darkness, and therefore will play out his round tomorrow, needing one birdie in those three holes to oust his four famous colleagues from first place.

At one point during the aftrnoon's most violent rain and most severe electrical storm U.S.G.A. President Harold W. Pierce said he was ready to call for cancellation of the day's play and what would have been the first postponement of a championship round in the history of the open.

But Francis Ouimet, himself a former open champion, made an inspection of the course in his role of championship committee chairman and decreed it was playable. That being his decision and in order not to deprive the leading players already in of their praiseworthy rounds, Pierce ordered that the day's firing continue to its bitter, dark and soggy end.

Bud Ward of Spokane, finished with 76-77 for 153.

Scribe Changing Mind About Conn

By GAYLE TALBOT

POMPTON LAKES, N. J., June 6 (AP). — Billy Conn, the classic young boxer from Pittsburgh, is so convincingly certain he will win the heavyweight championship from Joe Louis June 18 that he has even this charter member of the Louis-Is-Terrific-Club beginning to waver.

Billy has grown up remarkably in recent months. Not physically, for he finally has given up hope of outgrowing his natural 180 pounds, but mentally.

Now, instead of making flip cracks about his opponents and refusing to admit that anybody else can fight a lick, he sits and tells with the cold detachment of a surgeon how he will defeat the big Negro. He sounds like a much more dangerous Billy Conn than was the slim-waisted firebrand who used to fly into a rage when hit solidly and slug away like a back-alley fighter.

"I've always been that way," Conn said today. "I know, you think I'll do that with Louis, too, and get my head knocked off. But I won't. I'll fool you and Louis and everybody else this time."

TRAIL WILL OPEN ROSSLAND'S HOME SCHEDULE TUESDAY

The home schedule for the Rossland Redmen, champions of the West Kootenay Lacrosse League, will be opened Tuesday night, instead of Wednesday as previously set. Trail Golden Bears will supply the opposition.

The only other game next week will be Rossland at Nelson Friday night, and then the following week the home-game-a-week schedule will get under way.

Colman Brilliant as Beats C.Y.O. in 10-0 Shutout

Allowing only three men to get on base and none of them to get home, Ernie Colman pitched Prospectors to a brilliant 10-0 victory over C.Y.O. Thursday evening at the Junior High to strengthen their hold on first place in the Nelson Church Softball League.

Prospectors took a 2-0 lead in the very first inning, and were never in difficulties as Colman mowed through the C.Y.O. lineup, registering 13 strikeouts in the seven-inning game.

Kelly and Colman each scored three runs for the winning squad.

Score by innings:

Prospectors	201	050	2	—10
C.Y.O.	000	000	0	— 0

Lineups:

Prospectors — Martin McLennan 3b, Bernard Kelly lf, Chuck French 2b, Ernie Colman p, Joe DeLucrezio 1b, Bernard Jarbeau rf, Bob Collinson c, Corky Ball ss and Linus Morrison rf.

C.Y.O.—Louis Gagnon 2b, Frank Kohar 3b, Al Frocklage p, Shorty DeGuglielmo rf, Bob Hunden 1b, J. Arnott c, George DeGuglielmo ss, Ed Ingam lf and Henri Choquette.

Doubleheader In Softball Planned in Nelson Sunday

A softball double-header is scheduled for Nelson sport fans Sunday.

High School Blue Bombers will meet the Pucksters at 1:15 in a Men's League game, and at 5:30 the Aces and C.Y.O. will clash in the Girls' League.

It will be the second game in three days for the Bombers, but officials are giving them a heavy schedule now so as to avoid games during examination time.

Only Three Colts to Test Whirly

By SID FEDER
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, June 6 (AP)—Three other colts were entered along with Warren Wright's Whirlaway today for the 73rd running of the Belmont Stakes tomorrow, but even the diehards were ready to admit they were along either just for the ride or for a crack at the $5000 second money.

But that $5000 second money, that $2500 third and $1000 fourth aren't to be sneezed at, so J. Fred Byers, the Pittsburgh steel man, entered his Robert Morris, a consistently good horse on New York tracks; Robert J. Kleberg of Texas did the same for his Itabo, a son of Bold Venture who has never been defeated in his career of three races, and Sonny Whitney decidd to have a go at it with his Yankee Chance, who has won one race.

So completely has Whirlaway dominated the three-year-old picture by his smashing scores in the Kentucky Derby and Preakness, as well as his easy victory over the handicappers Mioland and Hash and his flashing workout Wednesday, that only these three are left to go with him out of the original list of 47.

If he wins, Whirlaway will pick up just under $40,000 and bost "Whirly's" total earnings over the $230,000 mark.

Salmo Public and High Schools and Erie Are Trophy Winners of Fourth Annual Salmo Valley Schools Meet

Rain Falls to Dampen Enthusiasm of Big Entry

SALMO, B. C., June 6 — By compiling 117 points, Salmo School athletes made a triumphant sweep through the events for the larger schools and captured the Knights of Pythias Shield in the fourth annual Salmo Valley Schools track meet here today.

The athletes labored under unfavorable weather conditions, but their enthusiasm made up for it to make the meet a success.

In winning the Knights of Pythias Shield, Salmo defeated Ymir, Sheep Creek and Fruitvale schools.

The Association Cup for one-room schools was taken by Erie with six points, and the Cawley-Curwen Cup for the High Schools was won by Salmo with 82 points.

HAS TOUGH LUCK

Tough luck contestant of the day was Ian Sprinkling of Fruitvale. On the way to Salmo, he lost one of his "spikes," so he was forced to run bare-footed. He gave a good account of himself, though.

Ten medals were awarded to the athletes compiling most points in their respective classes, the winners being as follows:

Juvenile Girls — E. Miller, Fruitvale, 13 points.

Juvenile Boys — Chester Christenson, Ymir, 10 points.

Junior Girls — M. Skehor, Sheep Creek, 11 points.

Junior Boys — B. McNab, Sheep Creek, 15 points.

Intermediate Girls — G. Bath, Fruitvale, 11 points.

Intermediate Boys — B. McNab, Sheep Creek, 11 points.

Senior Girls — M. Macdonald, of Salmo, 12 points.

Senior Boys — A. Larsen, Salmo, 20 points.

High School Girls — M. Lindow, Salmo, 16 points.

High School Boys — C. Lindow, Salmo, 28 points.

Arrangements for the meet were in the capable hands of J. K. Trecarter and J. V. Macdonald, President and Secretary respectively of the South Kootenay Schools Track Meet Association.

Officials for the meet were C. A. Cawley of Salmo, starter; A. Walsh, of Salmo, announcer; Gordon Moir of Salmo, D. Reid of Erie, O. Christenson of Ymir and Mr. McNab of Sheep Creek.

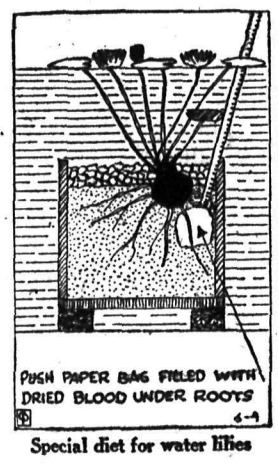
A Special Diet for Water Lilies

By DEAN HALLIDAY

All water lilies are gross feeders and require much rich plant food to keep them at their best throughout the growing season. In fact, in order to produce a profusion of blooms it is often necessary to provide a special diet.



Special diet for water lilies

One method of making extra food available for lilies planted in boxes or tubs is to push a small paper bag containin' dried blood, or one of the special lily fertilizers, down under the roots, as illustrated in the Garden-Graph.

A layer of clean sand or gravel placed on top of the box in which water lilies are planted will help to hold the soil down, and thus help to keep the water in the pool clean.

HOW TO WORK CRYPTOQUOTES

Cryptoquotes are quotations of famous persons written in cipher. A substitute character has replaced the original letter. For instance, an "R" may substitute for the original "E" throughout the entire cryptoquote, or a "BB" may replace an "LL". Find the key and follow through to the solution.

CONTRACT . . . By Shepard Barclay

AN EXTRA ADVANTAGE

EVERYBODY knows that a defender, making the opening lead against a slam, a game or even a part score contract, usually hates to start the suit which was bid first by the declarer's side. There are plenty of good reasons for this, most of them obvious. Consequently, if the first suit bid was one not topped by high honors, the defenders are more than likely to lead a different suit and therefore give the declarer an advantage, especially if the led suit is well topped. Isn't that an extra advantage you obtain from opening the bidding with a suit not strongly headed, when the logic of your distribution also dictates it?

What would you lead against that bidding? Wouldn't you pick the unbid suit—diamonds? Certainly most players of high rank would. The actual lead, in the duplicate tournament where this hand was dealt, was the diamond 2, and East set the contract at once with his two tops.

At another table, a sound bidder, Arthur L. Pulver, desiring to show both of his four-card suits so as to throw any possible No Trump contract into his partner's hand, to cause a probable spade lead to be up to the queen if the side had it, made an opening bid of 1-Diamond. His partner answered with 1-Spade. Mr. Pulver then bid 2-Clubs and North 2-Hearts. Now fearing no suit, Mr. Pulver jumped to 3-No Trumps. North invited slam with 5-Spades.

If the game had been rubber bridge, Mr. Pulver said he now would have bid 6-Spades, but it was duplicate and top might be earned by making the slam call in No Trumps, so he bid 6-No Trumps. He felt especially sound about this because, having opened with diamonds, he considered a lead of that untopped suit very unlikely, unless the opening leader happened to have the ace.

West was effectually scared away from the diamond lead, choosing, instead, his heart 7, so the slam was made, plus an extra trick, as poor East "went to bed" with his diamond ace-king.

Your Week-End Lesson

What are the three different kinds of situations, in play of a suit contract, wherein one defender can show by use of a high card his preference regarding his partner's switch to the higher-ranking of the other two side suits, and can indicate his probable preference for a switch to the lower-ranking one by use of a low card?

New Company to Put Up Mill at Chemainus

VANCOUVER, June 6 (CP)—The Tyee Mining & Smelting Co., has been formed for the purpose of financing and building a flotation mill at Chemainus, B.C., with a daily capacity of 100 tons, to mine and mill ore from the Tyee Consolidated Mine of Mount Sicker, Vancouver Island, on which a lease has been arranged.

Officials of Tyee mine report estimated tonnage available at 125,000. The ore contains gold, silver, copper, zinc lead and barite. A large percentage of gold will be saved for bullion and concentrates of other metals will be shipped to different smelters.

National Income Gain 11.6 Per Cent

OTTAWA, June 6 (CP)—A gain of 11.6 per cent in the national income during the first four months of 1941 over the income during the corresponding period last year reflects the expansion in economic activity throughout the country, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics reported today.

The national income during the four months was $1,683,000,000 compared with $1,508,000,000 in the same period of 1940.

Economic Index Up

OTTAWA, June 6 (CP)—The Dominion Bureau of Statistics today reported its weekly economic index advanced to 111.1 during the week ended May 31 from 108.5 in the previous week. During the corresponding week last year the index stood at 105.3.

Toronto Trade Holds Strength

TORONTO, June 6 (CP)—Stocks followed through to register another moderate advance Friday on the Toronto Exchange with volume holding up.

Pickle Crow was strongest of the golds, selling 21 cents higher at 2.66. Pioneer came through with a gain of 13 cents. Kerr-Addison weakened about 10 cents.

Hudson Bay, Smelters and Falconbridge were base metal group gainers while Ventures and Coast Copper weakened narrowly.

Steel and miscellaneous issues held to the up side in the industrial section and the tone was a bit soft for senior oils and utilities.

Home Oil and Calgary & Edmonton advanced 5 to 10 cents and minor gains appeared for penny Western oils, including Calmont and Brown.

Gold Output $67,000

VANCOUVER, June 6 (CP)—Island Mountain Mines Ltd., reports production for May totalled 1928 fine ounces of gold from the milling of 4650 tons of ore, valued at $67,480 at $35 per ounce.

IN ELECTRICAL BLASTING OPERATIONS

Always Test the Circuit Before Firing!

A galvanometer is one of the essentials in electrical blasting operations. It should always be used to test the blasting circuit, regardless of the type of hook-up.

Always use dependable blasting equipment. C-I-L products—both explosives and accessories—are noted for their reliability. Their proper use will eliminate misfires and so result in increased efficiency and greater safety in blasting operations.

FOR MAXIMUM SAFETY AND EFFICIENCY USE C-I-L EXPLOSIVES AND ACCESSORIES

Small Gains in Coarse Grains

WINNIPEG, June 6 (CP)—Apparently due to a firm trend at Chicago, sellers remained out of the coarse grain pit during most of today's session on Winnipeg Grain Exchange and prices made small gains while July wheat failed to move off its peg. July wheat—the only wheat future on the board—is pegged at 77½ cents a bushel.

Oats, barley and rye values posted only fractional gains. Flax was aided by light crusher support, however, and climbed about two cents.

TORONTO (CP)—Annual weeds, such as mustard, lamb's quarters, pigweed, stinkweed and so on, may be killed in seedling stage by timely use of the spike-toothed or lever harrow.

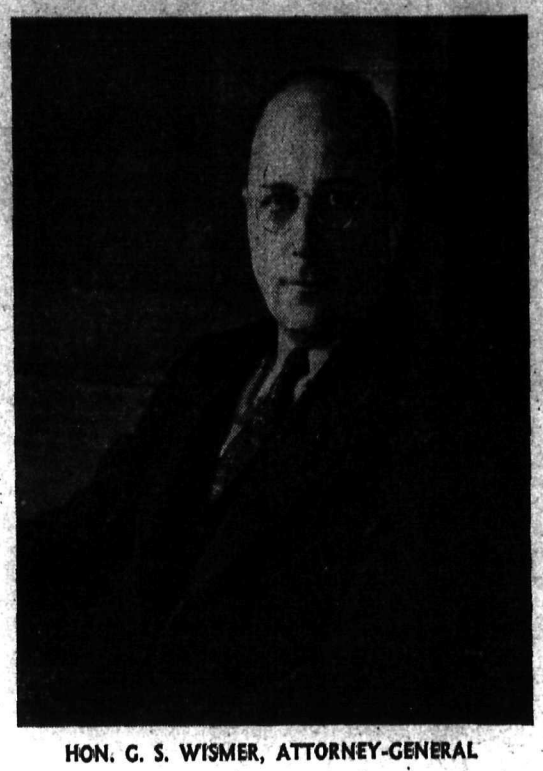
Seeking Family Peter McDonald

In or about the year 1902 Peter McDonald, then living at Nelson, formerly of Silver King Mine, left his wife and five children and lived at Terrace and Remo until his death in 1927. It is reported the family, in company with D. M. Dobbins, moved to a ranch South of Colville, Washington, U.S.A. The children are Kate, Norman, Nellie, Claude and Flora. Any information which any person may be able to give as to the present whereabouts of Mr. Dobbins or any members of the McDonald family will be appreciated by Norman A. Watts, Official Administrator, Prince Rupert, B. C.

Attorney-General to Discuss A.R.P. Organization for Nelson on Monday



HON. G. S. WISMER, ATTORNEY-GENERAL

ALD. G. M. BENWELL

Organization of an Air Raid Precautions unit at Nelson is under way, and will be discussed at a public meeting Monday night when Hon. Gordon S. Wismer, Attorney-General, visits Nelson with T. W. S. Parsons, Commissioner of the Provincial Police, and Inspector S. F. M. Moodie, Chief Provincial Civilian Protection Officer. The party is expected to spend the weekend in Nelson.

Formation of a Nelson A. R. P. was proposed by Ald. G. M. Benwell at a City Council meeting and he and Ald. T. H. Waters were appointed to take preliminary steps under Council sponsorship. Organization proceeded quietly to the point where H. E. Thain was elected Chief Warden and Reeve Harper Secretary, and further organization was delayed pending the visit of the Attorney-General with Commissioner Parsons and Inspector Moodie.

Monday's meeting is expected to pave the way to complete organization. In the meantime a Nominating Committee is listing the names of individuals suited to the various sections of the general setup.

Steel Issue Only Action on Wall St.

NEW YORK, June 6 (AP)—Stock prices sidled unevenly lower today in a timid market. Turnover was about 350,000 shares.

Running in sharp contrast to the general trend was stock of Jones & Laughlin Steel. The preferred jumped more than 5 points in the Stock Exchange and the common climbed around 2 in the curb on a rumor that $47 of accumulated preferred dividends might soon be paid, clearing the way for common dividends.

As far as actual news developments were concerned, there was none sufficiently significant to force operators into anything approaching real action.

Even the Jones & Laughlin exhibition was accomplished on the basis of only a moderate number of shares.

Walkers, up ½, was the only issue among Canadian stocks to show any change.

Memory of Sir John A. Macdonald, First Prime Minister, Honored Today

By R. K. CARNEGIE
Canadian Press Staff Writer

KINGSTON, Ont., June 6 (CP)—Fifty years ago today Sir John A. Macdonald, Canada's first Prime Minister died in Ottawa and tomorrow from Kingston where he grew up and which city he represented almost all through his Parliamentary career the people of Canada will be reminded how much they owe him for the heritage they now enjoy.

In a solemn ceremony in the City Park Prime Minister Mackenzie King, Conservative House Leader Hanson, Justice Minister Lapointe and Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, Conservative Leader in the Senate, will pay tribute in a nation-wide broadcast to the statesman who played so big a part in laying the foundations of the Canada of today.

On the great platform near the Macdonald monument in the park will be seated men who sat in Parliament with Sir John and many others now prominent in Canadian and world affairs.

Five men who sat in the House of Commons with "John A." received special invitations to attend Two of them, Sir William Mulock and Judge Emerson Coatsworth, have notified Dr. E. H. Coleman, Under-Secretary of State who has arranged the ceremony, that they hope to be present. R. S. White of Montreal advised his health will not permit him to attend and the remaining two—Senator Rufus Pope of Cookshire, Que., and P. O. Choquette of Quebec City—may be present.

J. Pierrepont Moffat, United States Minister to Canada, and David de Waal Meyer, South Africa's accredited representative to Canada, will represent the Diplomatic Corps.

Speeches of the Parliamentary leaders will be five minutes each. A prayer will be read by Rev. J. Forbes Wedderburn, minister of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church of Kingston, of which Sir John's father was one of the early elders.

A massed choir of 200 voices from Kingston city churches will lead the singing of hymns. After the speeches, troops in the Kingston Garrison, with the band and troops of the Signal Corps stationed at Barriefield, near Kingston, will march past.

Afterwards there will be a motor parade to Cataraqui Cemetery near Kingston where Sir John is buried A permanent wreath of oak and maple leaves, as a tribute of the nation will be placed on the grave.
