415 NAZI PLANES BAGGED BY RUSS IN 8-DAY PERIOD

221 Destroyed in Two Days; Only 84 Red Planes Lost

SLOW THAWING BOGS WAR FRONT

By EDDY GILMORE
Associated Press Staff Writer

KUIBYSHEV, Russia, April 6 (AP). — Russian airmen and ground batteries, scoring one of the biggest bags of the war, destroyed 415 German planes in blazing aerial war during the eight-day period up to and including yesterday, a Soviet communique announced tonight.

This tremendous toll was rolled up, a Moscow communique said, at a cost of only 84 Soviet planes. On Saturday and Sunday alone, it added, 221 Nazi craft were destroyed.

The biggest day's total was reported Sunday, when 119 Nazi craft were listed as destroyed in the air and on the ground after Saturday's count reached 102.

The communique said briefly that "no essential changes took place at the front."

A supplement to the Moscow communique said that in the last two days of fighting on the Leningrad front 2300 German officers and men were killed.

A Russian guards unit in the Kalinin sector recaptured seven more inhabited localities from the Germans, taking much equipment, it added.

NAZI HOPES DIM

Worse-than-usual weather of a sodden Russian Spring and the Red army's unbearable pressure on the key German forward bases was regarded as jeopardizing German hopes for an early Spring drive to the East.

An unprecedented Easter snow on some parts of the battlefront emphasized the lateness of the season this year and underlined the prospect of weeks of slow thawing that will turn roads into strips of mud and fields into quagmires.

Although the Germans apparently have started feeling out the front for weak spots, Russian dispatches reported the Red army still pushing doggedly to the West in their offensive which has cost the Germans important forward positions and sapped the Nazi striking power.

U. S. SUBS SINK THREE MERCHANT SHIPS IN PACIFIC

Two Heavily Laden Tankers Sunk Off Jap Islands

FREIGHTER SUNK

WASHINGTON, April 6 (AP)—American submarines battering steadily at Japan's long supply lines in the Western Pacific have sunk three more enemy merchant ships, two of them heavily laden tankers, the Navy reported today.

Destruction of these vessels raised to a total of 61 the number of Japanese ships blasted by far-roving U. S. undersea raiders—a total made up of 30 sinkings, 10 probable sinkings and the damaging of 11 other ships. The over-all score of Japanese vessels sunk and damaged both Army and Navy forces mounted to 269 in the four months of war ending today.

The two tankers were sunk by a submarine on extended patrol in the vicinity of the Caroline Islands, Japanese mandates lying East of the Philippines. One of the tankers fired on the submarine but, the Navy said, failed to damage it.

The cargo of the tankers, whether oil or gasoline, was not given, but it was considered possible that they were transporting fuel for enemy fleet units. Truk Island in the Caroline Group is a great Japanese naval base.

The third ship reported sunk was a freighter, blasted by a submarine on patrol in constant operation there, thousands of miles from their bases.

OPERATIONS GAIN

That operations over the whole of the enemy-dominated Western Pacific are constantly increasing was indicated by the fact that in recent weeks the Navy has made more and more frequent reports of American undersea attacks. Only last Saturday it was announced that two light cruisers had been torpedoed South of Java and that five noncombatant enemy vessels had been damaged by submarine attacks in Dutch East Indies waters.

Easter Monday Wash Water Helps to Save Home

SMITHERS, B. C., April 6 — (CP). — Easter Monday was washday just the same for at least one Smither's woman—a fact which probably saved the home of Mat Norton from destruction by fire.

Flames which broke out on the roof of Norton's home while he was absent were noticed by a neighbor doing her washing. With the aid of her family—and the weekly wash water — the fire was kept under control until the village fire equipment arrived to douse the flames.

NORWAY SHIPS' DASH TO BRITAIN FULL OF THRILLS

Torpedoes Seemed to Fill Sea Sailor Reports

FOG SAVED THEM

A BRITISH PORT, April 6 (CP) —A number of the 11 Norwegian ships which last week made a daring dash toward Britain from Goteburg, Sweden, have reached this port safely after being attacked repeatedly by German airplanes, naval surface craft, and submarines.

A combination of heavy fog, skillful seamanship, and plain luck enabled the ships to run the German blockade. But some of them were sunk by the Germans.

(Copenhagen German-controlled dispatches said that from two to four of the ships were sunk, and that two tuned back to Goteburg.)

A young Norwegian sailor who came through the gauntlet said "those torpedoes seemed to fill the sea."

The ships had been in the Swedish harbor opposite the Northern tip of Denmark since the German invasion of Norway, and were chartered formally to Britain by the Norwegian Government.

The problem was to get them through an alert German blockade.

The attempt was made last Tuesday.

"We knew we were taking tremendous risks, but we did not expect things to happen as quickly as they did," the young Norwegian said.

"The Germans had been tipped off. They were waiting just off the Swedish Coast in the heavily mined Skagerrak, and opened up on us immediately.

"Our ships kept on at full speed. Above us we could still hear the roar of German bombers, and every now and then the thud of exploding bombs.

"Torpedoes seemed to fill the sea, but all missed us. We were chased for hours and attacked with every form of weapon — bombs, shells, torpedoes.

"But that fog was our salvation."

JAP WARSHIPS, PLANES OPERATE IN BENGAL BAY

Two Ports Bombed; War Also Coming Closer by Land

JAPS 15 MILES NORTH OF PROME

NEW DELHI, India, April 6 (AP)—Bombs fell among the people of India proper today when Japanese planes, attacking the Indian coast for the first time, raided two ports in Madras Presidency, and worse to befall was hinted in the disclosure that a Japanese naval force is ranging the Bay of Bengal.

The naval force, which includes at least one aircraft carrier, already has attacked commerce both with its surface ships and its planes, said a communique.

hese first direct manifestations of war came to India as its people still were torn with hesitation on their political future.

The raiding force which attacked Vizagapatam, a city of more than 40,000 and site of a British naval base, sand Cocanada, nearby provincial capital of 40,000, was officially described a small.

Vizagapatam sand Colombo, capital of Ceylon and sixth largest port in the British Empire which the Japanese attacked on Sunday, are two of the points from which the Japanese might expect allied war supplies to move to Burma and to China.

Slight damage to the Vizagapatam harbor area, which was attacked twice, was reported sand only few casualities occurred at Cocanada—possibly because the raiding force had been dealt with so severely as it attempted to execute blow at Colombo only to be ambushed by a waiting R.A.F. which shot down 27 of the 75 raiding planes and damaged 30 more.

Vizagapatam and Cocanada, almost half way up the Eastern Indian coast between Madras and Calcutta, are about 900 miles from the Andaman Islands where Japan obtained her first foothold in the Bay of Bengal.

he towns are just North of Masulipatam where Britons made their first settlements in India, and North of the region where Robert Clive began the conquest of India nearly two centuries ago. Cocanada has a large export trade.

A hint came from London naval quarters that the Japanese naval force included two aircraft caarriers and that British warships already might be searching for the Japanese ships.

British sources said Japanese warships and planes had attacked merchaant ships several times in recent days.

War also was coming closer to India by land.

In Burma, Japanese patrols had pushed forward to Nyaungbinzaik, 16 miles North of Prome, on the Irrawaddy branch of the Japanese drive.

The Japanese were massing forces West of the Irrawaddy in a possible flanking move to threaten the British connections with the coast. The invader hasd the advantage of continued air superiority.

The Weather

Nelson had another glorious Summer day Monday when, after a night with just a touch of frost when the mercury recorded 31 degrees, the day's high point was 62 degrees, within two degrees of the high reached the previous three days. The rain Sunday night amounted to .04 inch.

The lake level at Nelson was .70 foot below the low water mark all day Monday, that is to say, at all readings from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., a drop of .03 foot from Sunday's level. Its being stationery suggests the Spring rise may start at any time.

LONDON, April 6 (CP).—The Moscow radio reported tonight that 60 German parachute troops attempted a landing behind Soviet lines but before they reached the ground 57 of them had been killed by Red Army machine gunners.

U. S. STRIVES TO FIND ANSWER TO INDIAN PROBLEM

New Urgency Given to Talks by Envoy

POST FOR WAVELL IS STILL RUMORED

By H. R. STIMSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW DELHI, April 6 (AP) — Louis Johnson, special emissary from the U. S., sought in a round of conferences today to assist in solution of the complex Indian independence question.

Friendly assurances of the Washington government's interest in India's future were believed to have been given by Johnson in talks yesterday and today with Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru and Maulana Bul Kalan Azad, leaders of the All-India Congress Party, the major political group of Indians.

Johnson then conferred with Sir Stafford Cripps, British Cabinet minister who brought to India an offer of post war dominion status.

While the American position was described as in no sense involving guarantees, Johnson was reported striving to see what could be contributed toward a solution, and his attitude imparted a sense of vigor and urgency to the negotiations.

(In London, well-informed sources said a decision one way or the other was expected this week after Sir Stafford explains the British government's revision of the plan for India's defence.

To meet Indian objections to this defence remaining in British hands, one suggestion under consideration was said by these sources to be appointment of Gen. Sir Archibald Wavell as viceroy with Nehru or the moderator Sir Tej Bahadur Sapru a sdefence Minister. Gen. Wavell would retain his position as commander in chief for India.

Thus a temporary solution would be founded upon the desperate nature of the military situation rather than on the complexities of Indian politics, with Britain underlining a promise of post war government of, by and for Indians, these London quarters asserted.

Johnson did not hand to Nehru a letter which he has brought from President Roosevelt to some unidentified Indian native leader. When and to whom he will deliver it remained a secret. He plans to see leaders of various other Indian groups.

he Congress working committee heard reports today from Behru and Azad on their talks with Johnson.

The committee adopted a memorandum to be given to the British emissary, inviting an unequivocal declaration on India's future status, and Azad said the Committee's view on British proposals might be made public Tuesday night.

8 Lost, 20 Wounded as Ship Torpedoed

Score Direct Hits On Large Ships in Harbor of Rabaul

Several Jap Bombers Damaged in Attack on Port Moresby; Raid Failure; New Landings Made by Japs

MELBOURNE, April 7 (Tuesday) (CP)—Several Japanese bombers were damaged yesterday in attacking Port Moresby, New Guinea, and two of the defending Australian fighter planes were lost, a communique said today.

One of the Allied pilots was saved, however, and the raid on Port Moresby was declared a failure.

By VERN HAUGLAND
Associated Press Staff Writer

UNITED NATIONS HEADQUARTERS IN AUSTRALIA, April 6 (AP)—Raids described as "among the heaviest yet made by the Allies" were reported carried out today by flying Australians and Americans striking at Rabaul and Gasmata in New Britain where Japan is said to be reinforcing her badly wrecked and overmatched air forces.

The Sydney Herald, which reported the raids, said direct hits were scored on large Japanese ships in Rabaul harbor on the Northeast New Britain coast, where the Japanese obtained their first foothold on Australia's outer island rim.

Both at Rabaul and at Gasmata, on the South coast of New Britain, aircraft were said to have been damaged on the airdromes.

Earlier it had been reported that Japan was strengthening her air forces in that area to bolster her faltering Australian offensive, and it was assumed that the Allies were determined to destroy the new planes before they could get in action.

It remained for official reports, however, to tell whether the raid had been as successful as that of March 21 when the Japanese suffered one of the most devastating blows of the Southwest Pacific with 23 ships sunk, burned, beached and damaged and the equivalent of two squadrons of planes knocked out.

The raid was in line with Army Minister Francis M. Forde's advice today to the defenders not to grow overconfident because of their recent sharp successes.

This warning was emphasized by reports received in Sydney that the Japanese had taken up positions in four places in Bougainville and nearby islands at the Northern and of the Solomon Islands.

These places were given as Kieta, Kessa, Buka and Maisi. Some small forces already had been reported on Bougainville, Southwest of New Guinea and Northwest of Australia, and the new landings were said to have ben accomplished by small forces from destroyers.

The Japanese could use the positions to patrol the seaway approaches to Australia from North America, and possibly to project attacks upon the Free French Islands of New Caledonia, the New Indies or the Fiji Islands in an encircling movement East of the Australian continent.

Hostile action was limited to a Japanese raid, the 23rd, on Port Moresby, Northern defence centre in Southern New Guinea. Of seven Japanese bombers with fighter escort which attacked just afternoon, the defenders shot down one zero fighter and damaged a second one and a bomber. Only one casualty, a wounded sergeant, and slight damage to a gasoline dump were reported.

Allied headquarters expected that word from a Sunday attack by Australian and American fliers on the Japanese base to the Northwest at Kupang, Netherlands Timor, would show further damage inflicted upon the Japanese, already reported to have suffered 20 planes destroyed and 19 damaged in a series of smashing weekend successes for the United Nations.

Italian Liners In Gibraltar Pick Up Group of Civilians

GIBRALTAR, April 6 (CP). — The Italian liners Saturnia and Vulcania, showing large red crosses on their foremasts, dropped anchor in Gibraltar today in accordance with a plan to repatriate part of the white population of Italian African colonies now under Allied control.

LONDON, April 7 (Tuesday)—(CP).—The Italian liners Vulcania and Saturnia are in Gibraltar in connection with a British plan to repatriate a large number of Italian colonists who have been under British control in the Middle East since the conquest of Ethiopia and Eritrea, an informed source said today.

The two ships will be given safe conduct by Britain to embarkation points, presumably in the Suez region, to take aboard a "substantial number" of non-combatant Italian men, women and children, he said.

Canadian Naval Man Dead, Two Missing From St. Nazaire Raid

OTTAWA, April 6 (CP)— The Royal Canadian Navy announced tonight one of its lieutenants died during last month's Commando raid on St. Nazaire and that two others are missing as a result of the operation.

Lieut. Graham M. Baker of Toronto lost his life in the assault on the Nazi submarine and naval base.

Lieut. D. L. Davies of Montreal and Surgeon Lieut. W. J. Winthrope of Saskatoon are missing.

All are members of the Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve.

"The recent announcement from England that the R.C.N. had emgave added color to the news of these losses," the Navy said.

"It had been known for some time that over 500 Canadian Naval officers had been lent to the British Admiralty for special work chiefly on the Channel area. Mostly aboard MTB's (Motor Torpedo Boats) and Motor Gunboats they have been present at every major action in that vital field of war.

The attack on St. Nazaire brought the first losses to this group to be made public."

Nazi Parachute Troops Expert Goes to Mediterranean; See New Attack

LONDON, April 7 (Tuesday) (CP) —Morley Richards, military correspondent of the Daily Express, reported today that Lt.-Gen. Student, who commanded German Parachute troops during their assault on the Netherlands, had joined German Field Marshal Albert Kesselring in the Mediterranean area. Richards observed that a new adventure for an air-borne German Army was indicated.

Kesselring commanded German Air Forces in the French campaign and in the bombing of Britain in 1940 and 1941. The correspondent said it was known that hundreds of German gliders and transport planes are concentrated on the North Mediterranean shores and in North Africa.

He said Student has visited Sicily, Greece and Crete recently and might be organizing one of three adventures. One possibility, he said, was a two-way air-borne attack from Libya and Crete on the rear of the British 8th Army in Libya while Marshal Erwin Rommel's North African land forces launched a full-scale offensive against the British forces by land.

Another possibility, he said, was anassault on Suez to forge a link with the Japanese in the Indian Ocean.

The third was an air-borne assault on Syria and the British Island fortress of Cyprus in the Eastern Mediterranean to skirt Turkey and reach the Mosul oil fields.

Russian Horse-Coming Into Its Own as Front Becomes Quagmire

By EDDIE GILMORE
Associated Press Staff Writer

KUIBYSHEV, Russia, April 6 — (AP).—The next six or eight weeks are expected to see the Russian horse really reach its fighting gait as the battle front becomes one vast quagmire.

A good example of what machines will be up against was given on a ride through the country today when our automobile got stuck in the mud but hundreds of horse-drawn vehicles moved on uninterrupted.

A large tractor pulling a piece of machinery bogged down. In desperation the drivers finally abandoned their tractor for six horses.

A Russian sled turned out by hand by two men in two hours will play an important part in the war during the thaw.

It's of such simple design that its primitive. This contraption consists of two stout wooden runners atop which is a wooden framework. It is pulled by a single horse.

The sled is called a "Rozvalni" and its construction has been unchanged for centuries. Drivers ride —even sleep—on them, hence the name which comes from the verb razvalista, maning relaxing.

During the coming operations the Rozvalni is going to be as important as the highest perfected weapon, tank or plane.

Here's a prediction — look for increasing cavalry operations as the Russians continue to carry the attack to the invader.

Hard-riding Cossacks already have proved thei worth in this war but military authorities say what they have accomplished in the Winter is nothing to what they can do in the Spring.

Union Suggests Six-Day Week in B. C. Shipyards

A WEST COAST CANADIAN PORT, April 6 (CP)—A plan for institution of a six-day week in British Columbia shipyards under which shipyard employees would work five days and lay off on the sixth, has been submitted to the Federal Department of Labor by union officials here.

The scheme would replace the 24-hour day, seven-day work week which had been scheduled to go into effect in British Columbia shipyards on or before April 1. It was agreed to by shipyard operators and union officials following a visit to the Pacific Coast recently by Labor Minister Humphrey Mitchell.

Shipyard operators and union officials have been meeting continuously in an effort to get the seven-day plan in operation. To date they have been unsuccessful.

All shipyards closed down here Good Friday and one of them closed Saturday at noon. Confusion over the rights of workmen to overtime pay during the holiday and Saturday was given as the reason for the shutdowns.

In a statement issued today, Harold Winch, Leader of the C.C.F. Opposition in the British Columbia Legislature said union agreements entitled shipyard workers to double pay Good Friday. He said the employers wanted them to work for straight time.

Mines Hope People Will Take Advice and Order Coal Now

LETHBRIDGE, Alta., April 6 (CP)—Colliery operators in domestic coal fields of Southern Alberta hoped consumers would take advantage of the federal fuel controller and place their orders for next Winter's coal supplies without delay.

Mines have filled all their orders, operators say, and now are working on very slack time, being in a position to meet any demand which they may receive. Some producers are only working one or two days per week and, unless order sare received, crews may be further reduced and working days cut.

If people order their coal now instead of waiting until the Fall they will be sure of getting their fuel without any difficulty.

Gandhi Would Greet Beneficial Foreigners

BOMBAY, India, April 6 (CP)—M. K. Gandhi, writing in his weekly newspaper "Harijan," says that "if I have any influence over India's policies (in the future), foreigners will be welcome provided their presence is beneficial to the country."

He said he was replying to a letter received from a resident of Vancouver, B. C., who read Ghandi's articles in an American magazine. The Vancouver resident's name was not given out by the Indian leader.

The letter writer had asked what a new Indian Government's attitude would be toward resident Britons and whether British and other foreign trading firms would be allowed to operate in India.

"They will never be allowed to exploit and impoverish the country as they have done hitherto," Gandhi added.

Quezon Chuckles Over "Murder" Story; Japs Hated by Filipinos

By CLARK LEE
Associated Press Staff Writer

MELBOURNE, Australia, April 6 (AP). — Manuel Quezon, dynamic leader of the Philippine people, is working hard with military authorities in Australia on preparations for eventual reconquest of his island commonwealth.

Looking 20 years younger than when I last saw him in the Philippines, although he is suffering from a bad cold, he is obviously healthier than when he was under constant bombing and shelling.

Quezon so far has granted no interviews, but from sources close to the president it has been learned he is still chuckling over the Tokyo radio's claim that "Gen. MacArthur had him murdered."

The Tokyo reports were apparently fabricated when a Japanese warship captured a small Filipino boat somewhere in inner Philippine waters with part of Quezon's luggage on board. Disgruntled at the president for slipping through their hands, the Japanese invented the story.

Details of Quezon's trip to Australia still cannot be published beyond saying that he had the opportunity of conferring personally with many of his people and assuring himself of their firm loyalty to their commonwealth and United States governments.

Information reaching the presidential party from the occupied portions of the Philippines is that the Japanese are proving their own worst enemy by brutal treatment of the people.

Throughout the occupied areas the people are reported unanimous in their hatred of the Japanese and enduring their ordeal in the hope that the United Nations will come to the rescue before long.

The Japanese are said to have built a wall around Santo Tomas University where 1500 American men, women and children are interned. Filipino servants there are denied direct contact with them but may throw packages over the wall from time to time.

On the island of Masbate, the Japanese were reported to have captured a number of American mining engineers who tried to dynamite their property to prevent it from falling into the invaders' hands. They were removed from the island by boat and have been unreported since.

Two Hams Cause Near-Riot, Italy

BERNE, April 6 (AP)—Two succulent hams hanging in a Milan store window caused a near-riot among ration pinched Italians who couldn't believe their own eyes.

The incident was related today in a Milan dispatch printed in the Fascist newspaper La Stampa of Turin.

The newspper said a brumbling crowd gathered in front of the store at the spectacle of "two marvellous hams" and began asking one another if the hams were real or a joke.

The crowd grew, traffic was blocked and police were called. Finally the authorities learned that, sure enough, the hams, described as "gifts from God," were real and had been acquired legally.

The proud owner, who had put the hams in the window early for show purposes, was ordered to hang them out of public view.

Gen. Miles said parachute troops probably "will be sent on sabotage, the seizure and destruction of some important plant or essential utility. They may, they probably will be, aided by their agents and secretly organized groups now in our midst."

Rabaul Defenders Took Bloody Toll 600 Survivors Tell

MELBOURNE, April 6 (CP)—The bloody story of the Japanese conquest of Rabaul, New Britain, in which 150 Australians mowed down some 1500 Japanese in a single 200-yard stretch of beach, was told today with the arrival at Australian bases of some 600 survivors of the Australian garrison.

Rabaul, former capital of New Britain, fell Jan. 23 after the Japanese had pitted a landing force of 20,000 men, a formidable naval force and an air fleet of at least 150 bombers, dive bombers and fighters against Rebaul's Australian garrison of 1400 men and an air force of five planes.

Rabaul's casualties were 700 killed, wounded or missing while Japanese losses were in excess of 2000.

It was at Ralaana Beach that a unit of 150 Australians blazed away at a Japanese force caught in barbed wire at the Water's edge.

Over a 200-yard beach front, it was reported, Japanese dead were stacked six feet high as an estimated 1500 fell before the Australian fire—and the Australian cost was only 30 men slightly wounded.

The aerial attack on Rabaul, 800 miles Northeast of the Australian mainland, began Jan. 20 with 60 bombers and 20 fighters.

Against them the defenders were able to put into the air only five Wirraways—single-engine, general purpose monoplanes. The Australian planes accounted for two enemy planes before they were shot down, leaving Rabaul entirely without air protection. Anti-aircraft fire brought down five other planes.

Two days later, refugees from the island said, 110 Japanese aircraft bombed Rabaul heavily—blasting Praed Point fortress for an hour. They attempted to land on the airport but demolition charges were exploded and two of the invading planes were destroyed. Machine gun fire brought down a third.

The actual invasion began at 2:30 in the morning by a force of Japanese with blackened arms and faces and clad in shorts and singlets.

That force was repulsed but at dawn thousands of troops came, covered by the guns of warships and 100 dive-bombers and fighters.

The Australian garrison caught many landing barges with 50 to 100 men in each before the terrific slaughter of Ralaana Beach.

By noon the Japanese were swarming everywhere, survivors of the defence said, and further resistance was seen to be useless.

Some Australian troops, then withdrew through Okopo toward the bush.

Four hundred others took the Malabonge road toward Rabata, a village 30 miles distant, harried by Japanese planes. At Rabata food was picked up and the troops moved into the jungle for what turned out to be a struggle of many weeks with mud, mosquitos, malaria, rain and crocodile-infested rivers.

On many days, veterans of the struggle said, each man had only a single biscuit and 1-12 of a tin of beer. Later, natives helped them supplement their food supply with yams and coconuts until they could reach Australian-held points on the island.

TO PUNISH SIT DOWN STRIKES ON VESSELS IN U.S. AS MUTINY

WASHINGTON, April 6 (AP)—Sit-down strikes on vessels docked in United States ports were outlawed by the Supreme Court today in a 5 to 4 decision which said that "a rebellion by seamen against their officers on board a vessel anywhere within the Admiralty and maritime jurisdiction of the United States is to be punished as mutiny."

TORONTO, April 6 (CP)—Believed the first Canadian to die while helping Britain's Commandos harry the Nazi-held European coast, Lieut. Graham M. Baker, 26, R. C. N. V. R. was killed in the raid on St. Nazaire March 28.

Parents of the officer, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Baker, received news of his death Friday.

France to Turn Out 5000 Planes for Huns in '42

LONDON, April 6 (CP)—The Free French Press Service asserted today that France was scheduled to produce 6000 planes in 1942 and that all but 1000 were for Germany.

The remaining 1000, it said, were for Vichy's armed forces.

Other military aid being given to the Axis by the Vichy Government, the statement continued, included the manufacture of torpedoes for the Germans at Toulon and for the Italians at St. Trope.

The seaplane works at Toulon, the statement said, have produced three prototypes of troop-carrying planes and "are now making plans for their mass production."

The statement also said three German ships arrived at Marseille "a few days ago."

It added that night work in the Doeville aero engine works at Marseille had ceased since the R. A. F. bombed the Renault factories near paris.

159 Axis Planes Destroyed, 2 Days

By The Canadian Press

Germany Italy and Japan suffered one of their costliest weekends of the air war during the past two days, according to official Allied announcements listing at least 159 Axis planes shot down or destroyed on the ground, with 31 or more others damaged.

The heaviest toll was taken on the Russian front. The Russians said 102 German planes were shot down or blasted to bits on the ground Saturday alone, and the Red air force was credited in a communique today with knocking down four more.

JAPS LOSE 47

Japan took the second heaviest loss—destruction of at least 27 of the 75 planes she hurled against Ceylon Easter morning. The British defenders, who met the raid with a hard-hitting fighter plane and anti-aircraft defence, said five more Japanese planes probably were destroyed, and 26 damaged.

Twenty more Japanese planes were destroyed, others were damaged in the trading of aerial blows with United States and Australian fighting forces. Of these, 11 were destroyed and 14 damaged in U.S. and Australian raids on Kupang, Timor, Saturday. Seven were destroyed in Japanese attacks on Darwin and Port Moresby the same day, and two others were shot down near Port Moresby Sunday.

At the British mid-Mediterranean stronghold of Malta six Axis planes were shot down, a seventh probably was destroyed, and six more were damaged during attacks by German and Italian planes Saturday and Sunday.

Canucks With 300 Bombers Smash on Rhineland, Coast

BY ALAN RANDAL

LONDON, April 6 (CP Cable)—R. C. A. F. graduates of the Commonwealth Air Training Plan whacked the German war effort on two widely spread fronts in night raids which took more than 300 bombers with 1000 tons of explosives over enemy andenemy-held territory.

A spokesman said that while one R. C. A. F. squadron formed part of the striking force attacking the German Rhineland, with Cologne as one principal objective, other Canadians flew over a factory in Genevilliers near Paris which has been producing aero-engines and other war materials for the German army.

The squadron commanded by Wing Cmdr. Johnny Fauquier of Ottawa was among the first to launch the Cologne attack. Last week Fauquier's squadron took a prominent part in the smashing assault on the Matford Truck Works at Poissy, Paris suburb.

B. C. MEN GO OVER

"This was the best of nine trips I've made," said Flt. Sgt. Ken Field of Montreal, second pilot of one of the Canadian-manned bombers. Wireless operator with Field was Flt. Sgt. R. E. Campbell of New York.

PO R. P. Locke of Vernon, B. C., whose crew included Flt. Sgt. N. Leftley of Ottawa and Flt. Sgt. J. W. Sanderson of Vernon, reported he got his plane right over the objective.

"They shook us up a bit," he said, commenting on the ground fire. "We have a hole in the bomb flap door."

Among the rear gunners praised is Sgt. J. P. Morrison, Winnipeg, tail-end Charlie for PO W. A. McKay, Vancouver.

"A Jerry night fighter followed us right into the target but Morrison's direction were so good we were able to keep beyond range," said McKay.

"I was able to spot him, that's all, and the skipper followed my directions," morrison added. When we reached the edge of the target, Jerry had faded as the flak appeared."

Canucks in the Rhineland attack included Flt. Sgt. L. Sidney, Armstrong, B. C., Flt. Sgt. R. A. Gorier, Domremy, Sask., Squdn. Ldr. L. G. Fraser, Winnipeg bush pilot, and Sgt. Tubby McEwan, High River, Alta.

LONDON, April 6 (CP)—More than 300 Royal Air Force bombers, an air fleet approaching the record number of more than 400 enemy raiders which attacked London less than a year ago, smashed hard during the night at the German arms industry in the Rhineland and in the Paris area, it was reported authoritatively today.

Cologne was one of the main targets of the R.A.F., but British bombers also attacked the Gnome-Rhone works at Genevilliers, about three miles from Paris, which is making aero-engine parts and other war material for the enemy.

Indicative of the weight of the attack, it was reported more than half of the 300 planes took part in the bombing of Cologne, raided for the 105th time.

British sources estimated the big R.A.F. bomber squadrons unloaded about 1000 tons of high explosives and many incendiaries in the raids which spread from Le Havre, on the occupied French coast, to the Rhineland.

ONLY 5 LOST

Scores of four-engined Stirlings, each carrying eight tons of bombs, were believed to have taken part.

The loss of only five—less than two per cent—of the air armada, one of the heaviest raiding fleets ever sent out, was called "very satisfactory."

By contrast, Britain lost 37 bombers last November in a raid on Berlin of a similar heavy scale.

That more than 300 bombers participated was fully and quickly advertised—contrary to the usual policy of concealing numbers—suggesting the attack ranged among Britain's biggest.

A patrolling British fighter was reported authoritatively to have shot a German fighter down over the channel this morning.

1st Canadian Army Overseas Formed

OTTAWA, April 6 (CP)—Formation in the United Kingdom of headquarters for the 1st Canadian Army, under Lt.-Gen. A. G. L. McNaughton, was announced today by National Defence Headquarters.

Formation of the Headquarters is efective from today.

Acting Lt.-Gen. H. D. G. Crerar, Acting Corps Commander during Gen. McNaughton's recent trip to Canada, was named Commander of one of the New Army's two corps. Commander of the other corps has not been named.

EIGHT OTHER PROMOTIONS

Eight other promotions and appointments were made public in the Departmental statement on formation of headquarters for the first Army in Canada's history.

The announcement came almost 25 years to the day after the First Great War battle of Vimy Ridge.

Three brigadiers were promoted G. R. Turner and Brig. C. S. L. Hertzberg, apointed to the Army Staff, and Brig. J. H. Roberts who becomes a Divisional Commander.

Four colonels were promoted to brigadier—Col. J. E. Genet, appointed to the Army Staff, Col. J. L. Melville and Lt.-Col. A. E. Walford, appointed to Corps Headquarters, and Lt.-Col. E. C. Plow, named to command the artillery of a Canadian Division.

Brig. H. O. N. Brownfield was appointed to Corps Headquarters from a Canadian Division.

The announcement said:

"The establishment of the 1st Canadian Army Overseas will create a thoroughly modern, self-contained and hard-hitting fighting force capable of operating in any theatre of war.

"It is particularly strong in armored fighting power.

"It will prove a worthy successor to the traditions of the Canadian Corps in the last Great War."

Intention to form a two-corps Army Overseas was announced by Prime Minister Mackenzie King in the House of Commons last Jan. 26, but the step was forecast months ago by Defence Minister Ralston.

Mr. King's statement, however, disclosed the new Army set-up would mean a new armored division—to be created by conversion of the existing 4th Infantry Division—and a new Army Tank Brigade both to be sent overseas this year.

Transformation of the 4th Division into an Armored Division now is proceeding at an Eastern Canadian camp.

The Canadian Corps of three infantry divisions, an armored division and an Army tank brigade thus will become an army of two corps containing three infantry divisions, two army tank brigades and two armored divisions.

In the last war Canada had an Army corps of four divisions but there were no special anadian tank formations. The 1st Army is Canada's first venture in development of a specialized formation as large as an armored corps.

EXPECT PROMOTION

The expectation had been right along that Gen. McNaughton would command the new Army upon its establishment. The belief is he will ultimately be promoted to full General's rank.

Gen. Crerar, who reverted from rank of Lieutenant-General to go overseas to take command of a division and subsequently assumed his Lieutenant-Generalcy again as Acting Corps Commander, had been slated unofficially for command of the 2st Corps of three infantry divisions.

The present Commander of the Overseas Armored Division, Maj.-Gen. E. W. Sansom, has been considered the probable choice for command of the new armored corps when it is set up.

In the modern Army establishment, the armored division operates independent of infantry and in operations may operate far ahead of the rest of the Army, as did the German armored divisions in the drive through France and the Low Countries in the Spring of 1940 and in other campaigns.

The Army tank brigade, on the other hand, works in cooperation with infantry serving something the same purpose as cavalry used to before the day of mechanized warfare.

Australia's Position Much Safer-Forde

U. S. ARMY HEADQUARTERS IN AUSTRALIA, April 6 (AP)—The encouraging word that Australia's position is much safer after two months of acute danger was given by army Minister Francis Forde today after a series of weekend successes in which Australian and American airmen destroyed at least 20 Japanese planes and damaged 19 others.

But he warned Australia must be everlastingly prepared against attack.

"I am encouraging nobody to believe the tide has turned," he said after inspecting an American troop camp.

"We must be vigilant and ready. There is a long way to go yet.

He said Australia owed her easier position "to speedy and generous help" from Britain and the United States plus measures taken by the Dominion itself.

Army Minister Francis Forde extended control regulations to Thursday Island and all islands in the Torres Strait within 100 miles of the mainland. The regulations will give the military power to act swiftly in any emergency.

Netherlands Sub Gets Jap Tanker

A PACIFIC PORT, April 6 (CP)—A Netherlands submarine has reached this port after torpedoing a 14,00-ton Japanese tanker in a strong convoy in the Java Sea and then slipping through a net of pursuing warships and aircraft despite considerable damage from depth charges.

A total of 67 depth charges exploded near the submarine, according to the story disclosed today by Aneta, Netherlands News Agency, and in addition there were numerous bomb attacks by Japanese aircraft.

Damaged fuel tanks leaked and the submarine left a trail of oil in her wake—but she managed to slip from the Java Sea through Sunda Strait into the Indian Ocean.

More Japs Land Solomon Islands

NEW YORK, April 6 (AP)—The all-India radio broadcast Sydney dispatches today saying the Japanese had made additional small landings in the Solomon Islands, threatening New Caledonia and the New Hebrides, on Australia's Northeast flank.

The forces were said to have been landed from destroyers, the broadcast, heard by CBS, said.

The New Hebrides are jointly ruled by the French and British. New Coledonia is under Free French control.

Those Who Don't Enlist in Reserve May Be Conscripted

WINNIPEG, April 6 (CP)—Defence Minister Ralston, en route to Ottawa after a tour of Pacific Coast defences, issued a warning here to men who fail to enlist voluntarily in the Reserve Army.

At a press interview last night, Col. Ralston urged enlistment of every able-bodied man in the Reserve Forces, and said:

"Unless their enlistment is voluntary, they will soon find themselves in the position of joining the army by command instead of choice."

R.C.A.F. OFFICER GOES TRANSFERS TO U.S. ARMY

LONDON, April 6 (CP)—Group Capt. Harold Fowler, director of United States personnel in the Royal Canadian Air Force, was transferred to the United States army today, the first officer of the R. C. A. F. to do so. He was sworn in with the rank of colonel at a ceremony in the United States Embassy.

BAKED RHUBARB

Cut rhubarb in one-inch pieces and place in covered casserole with a small pinch of baking soda and just enough water to cover bottom of dish. Cover and bake in moderate oven for ten minutes. Add sugar or honey to taste and continue cooking till rhubarb is tender. This method requires less sweetening. Some prefer a pinch of salt to the soda.

HONEY BREAD PUDDING

2 cups small bread cubes, 3 tablespoons butter, 2 eggs, 2 cups milk, ½ cup honey, pinch of salt, ½ teaspoon lemon extracts or grated lemon rind.

Place the bread cubes in a buttered casserole. Mix the milk, butter and honey and heat just enough while stirring, to melt the butter and dissolve the honey. Beat eggs lightly, add salt and then stir in the warm milk and lemon extract or grated lemon rind. Pour over the bread cubes. Set casserole in a pan of hot water and bake, in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for about an hour, or until set. Serves 4 to 6. May be served hot or cold.

JELLY ICING

Half cup stiff jelly (crabapple is good) to one egg white. Put together in top of double boiler over hot water, and when warm beat with a dover beater or until the mixture begins to stiffen. Then spread over the cake.

And here's another of Miss Patterson's new recipes for sugarless cooking, just perfected.

SYRUP UNCOOKED ICING

Two egg whites, a few grains of salt, ½ cup corn syrup. Beat the egg whites and salt, adding the corn syrup gradually until it stands in peaks on the spoon. The color will be light amber, but you can add coloring to suit the decorative scheme.

When vegetable gardens are planted on ground which slopes, the rows should run across the slope rather than up and down.

Raisins, currants and other dried fruits, besides being nutritious when added to baking, contribute sweetness and take the place of sugar.

Only Six Months' Supply Wool Left

WOODSTOCK, Ont., April 6 (CP)—Ontario Agriculture Minister P. M. Dewan today warned there now is less than six months' supply of wool requirements "ahead of us on this continent," and urged that "not one ewe lamb fit for breeding must be slaughtered."

Addressing a service club here he said the United States produces only on ehalf of the supply it requires in normal times while Canada produces only 18,000,000 pounds annually toward an annual need of 140,000,000 pounds.

No Single Cure for Arthritis

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M.D.

The person with chronic arthritis is liable to get it into his head that somewhere, some place, somebody has a single, certain cure for every case. The most important fact for his peace of mind and happiness is for him to know that no single method of treatment, but a combination of different things, with the added effect of time, is the way for him to regain his health.

REST AND EXERCISE

Let it be remembered that the principle of treatment for arthritis is a combination of rest, alternated by periods of manipulation or exercise.

The rest should be of three kinds: first, physical rest in bed; second, mental and emotional rest and, third, rest from pain.

Now as to diet, some people with arthritis are overweight, but most of them are underweight. The object of most diets in arthritis is not a specific one, but simply to overcome the bad nutrition of the arthritic. The old idea that meat and protein should not be used has long since been abandoned.

On the basis of the nutrition of the arthritic a number of studies have been made concerning the vitamin balance of these individuals. A group of physicians in New England thought they detected a definite vitamin A deficiency.

VITAMIN BE DEFICIENCY

The popular deficiency in the treatment of arthritis today is vitamin B deficiency. Dr. R. O. Muether found that vitamin B was somehow rejected by the arthritic and was deficient in the diet. While it has not been proved that vitamin B is as much of a specific as is popularly believed, results with a vitamin B reenforced diet have been quite successful in obtaining some measure of relief for these patients.

Chivalry . . .

Women Become Good Mechanics

By IDA JEAN KAIN

From now on, there won't be any appealing females waiting by the roadside for some strong, chivalrous man to come along and change that flat rear tire. Or will there!

At any rate, the women pitching into defence work are learning to change their own tires, even in a blackout, and to clean cylinders and take a motor apart and put it together again without having any spare parts left over.

Although tinkering with a car has always been regarded as a man's prerogative, it is all in the night's work for the various voluntary services recruiting women. The mystery of mechanics is turning out to be surprisingly simple.

As observed by one competent housewife, down on her hands and knees on a garage floor to see what made the wheels of a truck go around, "Why, it's no more complicated than a steam cooker!"

You might expect the women who enroll for such heavy duty to be on the hefty order—and some of them are. But the majority are the average, sedentary workers who want an active outlet for their energy after a long day at the office or taking care of a home, but who want, more than anything else, to help out in the defense program. Since they have been working with their muscles, they agree that they feel 100 per cent better. Instead of being more fatigues, as might be expected, they are actually boasting of how fit they are.

How does one get into good enough condition to take over this hard work? Exercise, of course. Every one of these units has a good course in calithenics to strength all the muscles but particularly those concerned in the maintenance of balance during heavy lifting. You can't handle a tire or jack up a wheel unless you keep your balance. Otherwise, there is danger of strain. In addition to calisthenics, the trainees have to pass posture tests—walking up ladders with heavy bags of sand, [illegible] of water, and carrying tubs of water or sand.

SERIAL STORY . . . . . By JERRY BRONDFIELD

No Refuge From Love

CHAPTER TWENTY-THREE

She looked at him and made up her mind, suddenly. "I'll marry you, Tay. Tonight, if you wish, but I can't disappoint Mr. Bryan. You—you can come along and we'll spend our honeymoon in California."

"A beautiful arrangement," he said sarcastically. "But then again," he mused, "maybe it wouldn't be bad. I'll be able to keep an eye on you and keep the wolves away from your door. That's it exactly. Whitworth, Inc., can get along beautifully without me for a month. By then," he predicted, "you'll be ready to come back to New York."

Molla was excited then. "Phone Mr. Bryan and tell him while I get dressed." Then she rushed upstairs.

"I don't see what business it is of his, but I will," Tay called after her.

From the time Eddie Bryan put down the receiver it took him exactly 16 minutes to get to Molla's place.

"What's going on here," he screamed. "You can't do this. You're out of your mind?"

"Nope. We're quite normal," Tay assured him calmly. "Marriage vows are being taken every day of the week. And night, too," he added. "What's un-normal about that?"

Bryan glared at Molla. "Normalcy, he says it is! Normalcy! I suppose it's normal for a girl just starting on a movie career to get herself married. I got a sweet picture of you stepping off that mainliner and facing ten photographers with a husband dangling from your belt. You need a husband right now like you need an extra nose."

His voice took on a cajoling note. "Look, you can't get married right now. It's bad for the publicity buildup. You've got to be built up as a sweetheart for seven million auto mechanics, shoe clerks and frustrated street car conductors. You can't get married for two years yes. Get what I mean? Why, they'll toss you right out on your ear in Hollywood."

Eddie Bryan ran out of breath and mopped his brow.

A cold light had come into Molla's eye and her voice was brittle. "So Hollywood also will tell me when I can get married and when I can't. Well, Mr. Bryan, I don't think I care to be the sweetheart of—of—seven million garage mechanics, as you put it."

She ran upstairs and came down in a minute. "Here's your contract, Mr. Bryan, in seven million pieces. I'm through once an forever with your horrible publicity." She ripped the paper into shreds and flung them at him.

Bryan's face turned red. He puffed as though he would explode, turned and stomped out.

"Ho, hum," Tay said. "Here we go again. In again, out again, Finnegan. But this time it's out again—and for good."

He took Molla's face between his hands. "Let's be off to Conet—Conet—you know where."

She closed her eyes and shook her head. "Tay, do things always happen like this in America? I mean, dont' people get a chance to think about things before they act?"

"Sure, lots of people do, but they never have much fun."

"I believe I prefer not having much fun, then, Tay, because tonight has convinced me I've never been so bewildered in all my life."

She put her hands on his shoulders. "Tay—I think I'm in love with you—and I think I want to marry you. But not tonight."

He looked at her steadily for a moment, then smiled. "Maybe you are right. Maybe it isn't fair to you. But we CAN announce our engagement, can't we? And maybe get married along about May? That's three months."

She nodded and he kissed her.

"Come on, pack a few things—we're going out to the house to break the news. Wow, won't that throw Aggie for a loss!"

"That's what I'm afraid of, but I guess I've got to face it sooner or later," Molla said. "I'm ready."

Self-Consciousness . . .

Blushing Causes Embarrassment

By Garry Cleveland Myers, Ph.D.

"DEAR Dr. Myers:—I have a boy 19 and a girl 7.

"My son seems to blush over so many little things. I would appreciate it if you would write me some cure for this so-called silly habit; also its cause.

You should realize that your son does not blush because he wishes to. It is not a silly habit. He would give anything to get rid of the affliction. Your embarrassment over it is not comparable to his.

Even in your eagerness to help your son feel more at ease socially, you have hindered him and caused him to blush more and feel more self-conscious.

Feelings of self-consciousness at any age, and more especially in the teens, express themselves in all sorts of ways — irregular, rapid breathing, pounding of the heart, a choking feeling in the throat, awkward movements of the hands and feet, inability to look another person squarely in the eyes, confusion of speech are some of them.

Some youths, like your son, blush when feeling very self-conscious. When about to meet friends or strangers, this dread of blushing haunts him and renders him more sure to blush.

If only this young fellow could get it out of his head that blushing is anything to be ashamed of or to bother about, if he could take a don't-care attitude toward it, he would blush less often and less violently by and by.

Attract his pals to your home. Do everything you can to make your son feel more worth while, and as secure emotionally as your daughter whom he probably thinks you love more. Don't expect miracles. Be happy to see improvement in him after a few months.

In making tea biscuits, to 2 cups of flour allow 2 tablespoons finely sliced citron peel, adding the citron after the flour has been sifted with the baking powder and salt. Finish in the usual way.

The addition of citron peel or raisins to plain tea biscuits or adding dates or raisins to muffins seems to make them a more acceptable substitute for cake as part of a dessert. And this substitution saves sugar.

MAPLE RICE

½ cup rice, ¼ teaspoon salt, ½ cup whipped cream, 2 eggs, ¾ cup maple syrup.

Cook rice and salt in 2 quarts rapidly boiling water until kernels are soft. Drain and pour cold water through in a sieve. Fold in the stiffly beaten egg whites. Put in sherbet glasses and pour a Maple Sauce over it.

To make the Maple Sauce, warm ¾ cup of maple syrup and pour over the well beaten egg yolks. Return to the saucepan and stir and cook until slightly thickened. Cool and fold in ½ cup whipped cream. Pour over the rice in the sherbet glasses.

NEVER BEFORE has news been so important, so necessary, to the men and women of this country . . . and to the children, too.

Never before have people turned to newspapers so eagerly, trustingly, hungrily, and in such large numbers . . . for all the news, for full reports, for complete details.

Total war has added immeasurably to the responsibility of Canadian newspapers . . . a responsibility they have been quick to meet, regardless of the cost and the effort.

It is a two-fold responsibility . . .

A responsibility, first, to the public . . . to keep it fully informed in these critical days, to bring it the vital news of the day, completely, accurately and quickly.

A responsibility to advertisers, too . . . to give them the best means of telling their story, presenting their merchandise and services to the public where and when it will do the most good. In fulfilling this responsibility, newspapers are serving not only manufacturers and retailers who have things to sell . . . they are also serving the millions of readers who must continue to buy the countless things they need and want.

In newspapers the advertising is news, too . . . more so today than ever before. In newspapers the advertising is received as a welcome, helpful service. That is why, as The Continuing Study of Newspaper Reading shows, people read the ads as well as the news so thoroughly.

And the Study shows that big news, war news, increases the reading of newspaper ads . . . that when big news breaks, the advertiser can count on even closer attention to his message by even more people than in normal times.

To the men and women of this country the newspaper is more valuable today than ever before. That's what makes it so valuable a medium today for all advertisers . . . whether their problem is to produce more sales, build good-will, describe their part in the war program, advise consumers on the war-time use of their products, or to maintain brand identity, dealer friendship, and public acceptance for the peace-time years to come.

Jap Invasions Practised for Years

Japan's plans for conquest have been in preparation for 20 years on a scale far bolder than any campaign conceived by Nazi Germany, Mark J. Gayn, veteran Far Eastern correspondent, reveals an article in the April issue of The Reader's Digest.

The Island of Hainan, off the South China coast, was seized by the Japanese in 1939 as a base and drilling ground for troops especially trained for an assault on Malaya. In the greatest secrecy, unpenetrated by even the Chinese intelligence service, the best in the world, Japan filld the island jungle with handpicked soldiers and top generals, who put to severe tests the tactics which have since succeeded amazingly against the British. It was these same infiltration troops that broke up the defences of Malaya and Burma.

Gayn further asserts that the Philippine invaders were trained for two years on the Island of Formosa. Landing operations, under conditions identical with those of the actual invasion, were rehearsed thoroughly by land, air and naval forces.

All these dress rehearsals were supplemented by the most vicious and long-ranged fifth column activities that war has yet seen. Japanese fishermen, long known to the Philippine and Hawaiian waterfronts, greeted the invaders in naval uniforms. Inland operators revealed the location of air defence sites. The puppet rulers of the Philippines and Malaya were established as tradesmen and shopkeepers years before the outbreak of hostilities.

NEIGHBORLINESS

"One person I have to make good: myself. But my duty to my neighbor is much more nearly expressed by saying that I have to make him happy—if I may—Robert Louis Stevenson.

"Teach me to lose my selfish need,
And glory in the larger deed,
Which smooths the road and lights the day,
For all who chance to come my way".—
—Edgar A. Guest.

"The rich in spirit help the poor in one grand brotherhood, all having the same Principle, or Father; and blessed is that man who seeth his brother's need and suppleth it, seeking his own in another's good."—Mary Baker Eddy.

"It is one of the most beautiful compensations of this life, that no man can sincerely try to help another without helping himself" —Shakespeare.

"Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." —The Bible.

Words of Wisdom

The life of every man is a diary in which he means to write one story, and writes another; and his humblest hour is when he compares the volume as it is with what he hoped to make it.—James M. Barrie.

?? Questions ?? ANSWERS

Open to any reader. Names of persons asking questions will not be published.

M. H., Bonnington—Where can girls of Nelson enlist in the Women's Auxiliary to the Air Force?

Write to the Director of Auxiliary War Services, Ottawa.

Q. A., Trail—Are legacies classed as income? They certainly are.

A. N., Rossland—Please give the address of the Misericordiae Hospital in Chicago.

Misericordiae Hospital, 2916 W. 47th Street, Chicago, Ill.

B. D., Nelson—How are sweetbreads prepared for cooking?

Sweetbreads should be plunged into cold water as soon as they are received, and soaked for one hour. Then they should be parboiled for 20 minutes in acidulated, salted water prepared by mixing a teaspoon of salt and one tablespoon of vinegar to a quart of water. After draining plunge into cold water again to make them firm. The little strings and membranes which are easily detached after parboiling are then removed.

Reader, Kaslo—When was Mussolini's son killed?

Capt. Bruno Mussolini, 23, was killed August 7, 1941 while experimenting with a bomber that had been assigned to the squadron he headed. The crash occurred as he was preparing to land near Pisa, Italy.

By G. S. REES

Britain's A.R.P. defences have been time-tested and truly-tried; a cooperative citizenry, with Governmental blessing, is doing a magnificent job of work. Front-line stuff with a vengeance! Remember the breath-taking film, "London can take it," with the voice of Quentin Reynolds, symbolically passive and gritty.—"The Greater Fire of London", when the metropolis buckled on its most gorgeous armor and became as strong as its people. And its people were indestructible!

Today, winds of spring blow dust from ancient shrines and buildings into Londoners' eyes; acrid odors from blackened fire-scarred rubble, freshly wet with an April shower, mingle with scents of spring, evoking bitter but proud memories. Memories of a monstrous manhandling by the demoniacal legions of the Luftwaffe with intent to raze the city to sackcloth and ashes. Then, a bomb-blasted Sockney, amid ruins of his humble home, shouted to George of England, "You are a great king," and his majesty replied, "You are a great people."

But still the red motorbuses roll around Trafalgar Square, past the pigeons, the bronze lions and lofty column on which Lord Nelson stands, his one good eye cocked Southward toward the salty shallow waters of the silvery streak which is the English Channel!

London stands ready for further vigil in defence of hearth and home; they know from bitter experience, "It can happen here"!

VOLUNTEER CIVILIAN SELF HELP

In this peoples' war, global and total, earlier reservations melt away; precautionary measures are clearly indicated through clear realization that enemy air-borne action is possible, if not probable, over the vulnerable area of the Upper Country, not nearly as remote from the holocaust as a few weeks since. A "nuisance" raid is as potentially disastrous as any other kind. Australia's hinterland knows this now; it too thought, "It can't happen here!" Nelson, within the zone of expectancy, moves steadily towards it self-protection, though no menacing drone or earthward catapulting bomb immediatel ythreatens its orderly existence. Maybe soon, the slaphappy Japs of Hirohito's Islands will be too busy tending their own barkyards and blackening their own beacons to bother with any continental cut-ups!

Our local A.R.P. with coordinating auxiliary services, including the indispensable Red Cross, forms a natural link in the long chain of defence between Panama and Dutch Harbor for international protection from spherical impact of the toothy Nipponese plan of co-prosperity!

BETTER SURE THAN SORRY

Welcome the visit of your patrol warden when he knocks gently on your door. He is neither the brush man, nor the man with the plebiscite (vote yes) nor selling his way through college; do not brush him off. Accord him necessary information, as his sole endeavor is to keep you "calm and collected" at the zero hour; study now the simple technique of fire-protection from incendiaries. Supply sand (free from civic bin) with your spinach, a shovel or rake, flashlight and garden hose, and some black-out stuff.

A.R.P. volunteers should visualize every nook and corner of their patrol beats, every shin-barking obstacle by prior practice; blacked-out areas confus all customary viewpoints. Learn to see in the dark; if you accept the theory, eat oodles of raw carrots! It is claimed your cat and yourself can then go out together after dark with the greatest of ease!

Patrol wardens must endeavor to appreciate the implications of being front-liners, and fortify themselves, each after his own manner. Any who experienced the minor air-raids over Britain during the last wear, and all veterans who endured the blitz-barrages of trench-warfare, can vouch for the battering effect on human sensibilities of such mortal storms of steel and fire. They seem to shred apart one's inner being, and successive blastings imperilled morale of even hardened and finely disciplined troops almost to the breaking point. The banshee wail of sirens is the call-to-arms, to—"action stations"; your better 'ole becomes the jump-off spot for your straight-away joh of succor, your zero hour, with or without a "barrage bowler"!

Prince Rupert Rotary Wants Curtailment of Wet Goods in Rupert

To the Editor:

Sir—The Rotary Club of Prince Rupert today unanimously adopted the following resolution. Please give this the widest publicity and if thought necessary endorse in principle and apply locally.

"It is resolved that:

"The Rotary Club of Prince Rupert hereby condemns the excessive and unrestricted sale and consumption of beer and liquor now prevalent in the city of Prince Rupert.

"Because of the demoralizing effects of this on the community life of this city, on the morals and health of our boys and girls, young men and women, on the efficiency of workers, on the discipline, organization and utility of our military, naval and air forces, the Rotary Club of Prince Rupert considers this deplorable condition a definite and serious handicap to the defence of this city and to an effective and complete effort to win the war.

"Because of these considerations the Rotary Club of Prince Rupert requests that immediate action be taken to restrict the sale and consumption of beer and liquor through the curtailment of the activities of the Government Liquor Store, beer parlors, licenced clubs and wet canteens, and further requests that the issuance of licences for beer and liquor establishments be drastically curtailed.

"It is further requested that adequate measures be taken that will lead to the proper and efficient enforcement of liquor laws and restrictions and the elimination of 'bootlegging' activities.

"It is further moved that this resolution be immediately forwarded to the proper authorities for action and be given the widest publicity."

W. L. COATES,
Secretary.

Prince Rupert, B.C., March 26, 1942.

GREATER CONFIDENCE IN DEFENCES

There have been several developments of late tending to greater confidence in the state of Canada's Pacific defences.

First, there has been created a unified command, not only on this coast, but also on the Atlantic seaboard. The need for this has been pointed to by events on many battle-fronts, and its attainment here is a big step forward.

Second, there is the gradual rounding up of Japanese. It has been no small task to arrange for the removal of 24,000 persons. Preparations of camps are going ahead apace to take care of some; other plans are afoot to take care of others. The accomplishments to date can only be considered as a start, but nevertheless they represent real progress. Japanese have been combed up from the islands and inlets along the British Columbia coast for one thing.

Public demand has been a big factor in this move, and there is only quiescence now because things are being done.

QUISLING'S NEW OFFICE

We can rule out the possibility that Hitler was led to invest Quisling with an empty title and a meaningless post (minister-president) through a perverted sense of humor.—Nor can it be assumed the appointment of Quisling was designed to placate the Norwegian people. It will have the contrary effect.—Faced by an increasing shortage of men, Hitler hopes, through the establishment of a Norwegian government ostensibly operated by Quisling an dhis traitor band, to be able to remove part of the garrison he has had to maintain in Norway. Yet it is doubtful whether the Quislings will be able to maintain order very long without the full supoprt of Nazi bayonets.—Washington Post.

Today's Horoscope

Mixed influences prevail during the coming year for the persons who have birthdays today. Changes, beneficial and otherwise, are portended. They should guard all documents well and deal tactfully with elders, despite provocation. If they heed these warnings gain will result. They are clever and resourceful folk, very imaginative, but they very often accomplish much less than they plan. They should be popular with friends. Many obstacles will have to be overcome by the child who is born on this date. Relatives will prove trying and retard his or her progress, but perseverance and courage will insure eventual success.

Coach Day of Leafs Sick; Powers May Dired Team at Toronto Tonight

By DICK SHERIDAN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

TORONTO, Aril 6 (CP)—A sick coach only added to the troubles of Toronto Maple Leafs today — troubles that started when they dropped the first game of the Stanley Cup Hockey finals to Detroit Red Wings.

Clarence (Hap) Day, fighting off an attack of flu for the past few days, finally yielded to his doctor's orders and went to bed yesterday. Whether he will be able to carry on from the bench for the second game of the best-of-seven series tomorrow night will not be known until just before game time.

As one observer put it "Hap has been under continual pressure since the playoffs started but that awful game the Leafs played Saturday night really put him away."

Both clubs worked out today, shaking off the effects of one of the roughest contests witnessed here this season. The Leafs went through their paces under the direction of Maj. Conn Smythe and Eddie Powers.

Smythe has to leave Toronto tonight to rejoin his unit and it is just possible powers may be in charge of the club if Day is unable to leave his bed.

Powers, former menior of Syracuse Stars in the American League, has a reputation for developing the younger players. Many of the Leafs players have been under his direct control at one time or the other.

Talking about the mistakes the Leafs made in the first game of trying to outrough the Red Wings, he said "We'll just have to beat them to the puck tomorrow night and try and evade the rough stuff."

After the second game, the series will switch to Detroit where games are slated for Thursday and Sunday.

Oshawa Swamps Royals 7-2 to Take 3-0 Lead

By ROBERT CLARKE
Canadian Press Staff Writer

MONTREAL, April 6 (CP). — The power-laden Oshawa Generals turned on the juice tonight to swamp Montreal Royals 7-2 in the third game of their best-of-seven series for the Eastern Canadian Memorial Cup final. It was the third straight victory and virtually assured them of entry into the cup final.

Victors over the Royals in the first two games by 3-2 and 4-3 scores, the Generals gave a superb all-round display to trounce the Montrealers. The teams play the fourth game of the round in Toronto Wednesday night and if a fifth game is necessary it, too, will be played in Toronto on Saturday.

The Montrealers started off with a bang with a goal less than two minutes after the start by Jimmy Blanche. But after that the best they could do was a goal in the second period by Eddie Emberg. Buck Davies rammed home two goals for the Generals while their other scores went to Ken Smith, Floyd Curry, Ken McNaught, B. Guilfoile and Ron Wilson.

Just before the end of the contest, comparatively mild throughout, a free-for-all broke out after defenceman Bob MacFarlane of the Royals and Forward Ron Nelson of the Generals began to nudge each other around behind the Royals net. Guilfoile rushed to the aid of his teammates and quick as a flash the players from both sides were involved in the fist swinging. When the referees finally managed to straighten out the scramble MacFarlane, Johnny Gauthier and McKnight were given major penalties.

Hogan Favored to Win Masters Golf

AUGUSTA, Ga., April 6 (AP)—Because the Augusta Masters Tournament is no bingo party, William Ben Hogan is the man of the moment tonight. But whether he'll win the coveted Master Golf crown is quite another story.

William Ben tried the Augusta national course today, warming up for the 72-hole competition starting Thursday.

Hogan, fresh from victories at Asheville, Pinehurst and earlier championships at Los Angeles and San Francisco, was the form-player's favorite to succeed Craig Wood as winner of the Master's. But veteran observers speculated that the next champion might be a dark horse contender.

Coast Girls Win From Winnipeg in Hoop Opener

WINNIPEG, April 6 (CP). — Experience spelled the difference between Vancouver Hedlunds and Winnipeg Altomahs here tonight as the West coast champions scored a 43-20 triumph in the first game of a three-of-five series for the Western Canada women's basketball championships.

Cool and collected, the Hedlunds made a show of the young Winnipeg team right from the start. Accuracy around the basket was their forte as the teams turned out to be fairly evenly matched in other departments.

While the British Columbians were sinking a good percentage of their shots, the Winnipeg girls appeared rattled and frequently wasted good scoring chances with over-anxiousness.

Twenty-seven fouls were called by the officials, 14 against Vancouver. Winnipeg converted only four free throws and Hedlunds seven.

The teams play the second game here Wednesday and the third Friday. If further games are necessary, they will be played next Monday and Wednesday.

Lineups:

Vancouver: Burnham (8) Dalgleish, Guy, MacArthur (9), McRitchie (5), Panasis (14) Smith (7), Taylor. Total—43.

Winnipeg: Hampton (3), Duncan, Jones (1), Flower (4), Wallins, Brook, Kresey (3), Jack (9). Total —20.

Officials: Dave Rose and Doug Whittle, Winnipeg.

Hextall Again Places on All-Star Team; Brimsek, Apps Move Up From Alternate; Egan Makes Second Team

By SYDNEY GRUSON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

TORONTO, April 6 (CP)—The brilliant toil of a dozen National Hockey League super craftsmen over a full season's play was rewarded tonight with the announcement of their selections for the 12th annual Canadian Press All-Star teams. The teams were selected by 36 writers in the N.H.L. cities.

They chose two clubs combining experience of four to 11 seasons in the League with the first-rank ability these players must possess to obtain consideration. Only one man of last season's first team retained his place, although two moved up from the alternate squad.

Here are the CP Teams:

First Team	Position	Alternate Team
	Goal
Brimsek (Bos.)		Broda (Tor.)
	R. Defence
Selbert (Chi.)		Egan (Am.)
	L. Defence
Anderson (Am.)		McDonald (Tor.)
	Centre
Apps (Tor.)		Watson (Rgr.)
	R. Wing
Hextall (Rgr.)		Drilon (Tor.)
	L. Wing
Patrick (Rgr.)		Abel (Det.)
	Coach
Boucher (Rgr.)		Thompson (Chi.)

Hextall, the League's 56-point scoring leader, retained his left-wing job on the first team easily, and Frank Brimsek, the Vezina trophy winner, switched jobs with Walter Broda while Syl Apps replaced Bill Cowley of Boston, out most of the season with injuries, as the first string centre.

Only the second-team defence jobs provided the selectors with trouble. Taking to the veterans, 31-year-old Earl Seibert and Tommy Anderson, also 31, with ease after their fine all-season work, the selectors tossed their ballots for the other two jobs among Boston's Johnny Crawford and Dit Clapper, Toronto's Bingo Kampman and Bucko McDonald and Pat Egan in almost equal numbers.

The "weighting" of the vote—a system which gives equal value to the votes from each N.H.L. City, no matter how many voters there are in each—gave the positions to McDonald and Egan with Bucko drawing 116 points and Egan 104 to 84 for Kampman and Clapper and 80 for Crawford.

PATRICK TOPS ALL

There was never any doubt about the other jobs, especially on the first team. From the time the first ballots came in, the six players of the No. 1 club and Boucher as coach piled up an ever-widening margin. Patrick topped them all, the 22-goal left winger getting 29 of the 30 votes for the first team and the other vote for the alternate club.

Brimsek coasted in with 23 votes, Broda and Chuck Rayner of Americans splitting the other six. Seibert was returned to the first team for the first time since the 1934-35 season although he had made the alternate club every season since. This time, with the great Clapper injured the last six weeks of the season, there was no one to give Seibert much opposition and he polled 18 first-team ballots.

Anderson, whose first-year as a defenceman after 10 as a forward was marked by his setting a scoring record of 41 points for defencemen, was the first choice of 12 selectors and bolstered this with 12 second-team votes. It was Anderson's first appearance on the All-Star team.

DEBUT FOR EGAN

It also was the All-Star debut of Egan, the hard-shooting 24-year-old firebrand of Americans' rearguard, and the burly McDonald, whose comeback to the top after being sold to the minors by Detroit Red Wings three years ago amazed everyone except Bucko.

The enlistment of Boston's famous Kraut line — Milt Schmidt, Woody Dumart and Bobby Bauer—simplified the job of selecting six in the Royal Canadian Air Force simplified the job of selecting six forwards. Apps earned the centre job, which he took for the first time in the 1938-39 season, by his masterful leadership of the Leafs and his 41 scoring points. He got 20 votes to nine for Phil Watson, the playmaker for Hextall and Patrick. Don Grosso of Detroit received the other vote.

Hextall, choice of 26 selectors, won the right-wing position on the first team for the third straight year. Gord Drillon got two votes for the first team and 17 to the alternate club. The single left-wing vote that didn't go to Lynn Patrick was given to Schmidt, a centre, and Detroit's Syd Abel took the second-team with 10 votes to seven for Toe Blake of Montreal Canadiens, Red Hamill of Chicago got five.

Boucher got the first-string coaching job with 15 votes to seven for Thompson and six for Happy Day of Toronto. This was a tribute to Boucher's work in molding the Rangers into one of the highest-scoring units in N.H.L. history even though they had three rookies in their lineup.

NEED PUBLIC HELP TO COMPLETE BACON ORDERS TO BRITAIN

OTTAWA, April 6 (CP)—Large gains in hog production in the Prairie Provinces with declines in British Columbia, Ontario and Quebec were reported by the Agriculture Department today in comparing 1942 production March 26 with the same period last year.

Bacon shipments to the United Kingdom in the year ending in October will total 600,000,000 pounds against 452,000,000 in the 12-month contract period ending in 1941.

Canadian Bacon Board officials said that although required shipments have been met so far, continued reduction in Canadian bacon consumption is essential to make sure the supplies needed by Britain are available.

"Please repeat Saturday's football results. Heavy bombing interfered with our reception."

MacNichol Again in Scoring Lead for R.C.A.F. Puck Team

OTTAWA, April 6 (CP)—Allison (Pickles) MacNichol would win few prizes for form but the scoring figures vouch for his effectiveness.

The 22-year-old centre of Ottawa's Royal Canadian Air Force Flyers has led his league in point-getting for the last three years and though the company is tougher now the story is the same—MacNichol first and the rest nowhere.

Even with Milt Schmidt and Woody Dumart of the Kraut line MacNichol at Air Force Headquarters—has built up his point total in 13 playoff games to 26 on six goals and 22 assists, five points better than Dumart. Schmidt and MacNichol's linemate, Buddy Hellyer, are tied for third with 20 points.

Kimberley Goalie Plays Against His Old Club Tonight

CALGARY, April 6 (CP)—Claude Small of Saskatoon and Pete Sande, Calgary, will be the officials for tomorrow's game at the arena, which will mark the return of Kimberley Dynamiters to Calgary ice in a Western championship final with Port Arthur Bear Cats.

It will be the first of a best of five game series, second game being scheduled at Regina Thursday night and remaining game or games at Port Arthur.

A feature of the series will be Jakie Nash, former Port Arthur goal keeper, performing against his old club. He joined Kimberley this Winter after guarding the Cats' nets for many years.

The style of hockey promises to be entirely different than the rugged type played between Bear Cats and the rugged checking Maple Leafs. Dynamiters have no hard-hitting defencemen like Slobodian, Millen, Boesch and Lane. However, they have fast-breaking rear guard performers.

Probable lineups:

Port Arthur: Dertell; Makl, Bert La Prade; Kelly, McKenzie, McDougall. Subs — Edgar La Prade, Woochy, Wright, Manahan, Kolvisto.

Kimberley—Nash; Swaney, Sullivan, Redisky; Calles, Sanderson. Subs—Wilson, Hunt, Redding, Barker, Cavanaugh, Holditch.

American League Teams Exhibition Game Leaders; Win 55 of 105 Games

NEW YORK, April 6 (AP)—Teams are going home from Spring training, pitchers are going the route in exhibitions and the fans are going in circles—all of which means that Major League baseball is about ready to get going in the pennant races of 1942.

With little more than a week to wait until they start playing for keeps, the teams in the American League are out in front of the National Leaguers in exhibition competition today by five games.

Representatives of the Junior circuit have won 55 of the 105 Spring training battles involving oponents from oposite sides of the Majors.

On the basis of their showing against all forms of competition in exhibition games Pittsburgh Pirates, St. Louis Cardinals and Brooklyn Dodgers top the Senior circuit while St. Louis Browns, Washington Senators and New York Yankees look like the class of the American League.

The Pirates are on top of the grapefruit standings, just two percentage points ahead of the Browns, with whom they have been running neck and neck for a couple of weeks.

Pittsburgh has won 17 of its 23 games to date, including 10 out of 13 against the American League teams and four out of six in the National League.

The Browns, who own a record of 14 victories and five defeats, have won nine of their 10 inter-League tilts and two out of three against other American Leaguers.

More impressive, however, and possibly more surprising is the record of the Senators, who have played 25 games, only one of which was outside the Majors, and won 18 of them.

West of Argos to Live in Vancouver; May Play Football

TORONTO, April 6 (CP)—Art West, one of the backfield heroes of Toronto Argonauts drives to the Canadian Rugby Football Championship in 1937 and 1938, said today he will leave in about a week to make permanent residence in Vancouver.

Out of football for two years because of a pre-season knee injury suffered in 1939, West hopes to play football again. He said tonight his knee was right again, after a Winter of basketball, and he would turn out with Greg Kabat's Vancouver Grizzlies if they'd have him.

COAST RACING PLANS ARE NOT COMPLETED

VANCOUVER, April 6 (CP) — Sam Randall, President of the Vancouver Thoroughbred Association, said today that lack of transportation was the only problem facing racing officials here this summer, and he was not yet prepared to say if any meetings would be held at the three Vancouver tracks.

At the Willows track in Victoria, however, the usual two-week meeting will be held Sept. 12 to 28, Randall said.

Preston Ousted From Soccer Race as Everton Wins

LONDON, April 6 (CP Cable)—Huge Easter Monday crowds turned out today to watch games deciding the first round in the football league championship and saw Preston, last year's winner, eliminated from the race as the Northerners lost to Everton 2-1.

Preston, which tied Everton 2-2 in the opening game of the series Saturday, was beaten on a goal four minutes from the end of overtime.

Though league-leading Blackpool withdrew from championship play Saturday because of player difficulties, other favorites stayed in the running. Second place Cardiff tied Southampton 1-1 but won the second round 4-2. Northampton, which was third, lost 3-1 to Bristol City but won out on the aggregate, 4-3.

In the London warcup, play produced West Ham unit's surprise 4-1 victory over top notch Arsenal before nearly 10,000. Brighton, after nine successive defeats, trounced Clapton Orient 5-2.

Games between Millwall and Brentford, and Chelsea and Fulham, both resulted in 2-2 draws.

In the only games scheduled in the Scottish Southern League, unbeaten and United Glasgow Rangers downed Clyde 6-2 and Celtic beat Partick Thistle 3-1.

Terriers Trounce Alberta Juniors

WINNIPEG, April 6 (CP). — Portage la Prairie Terriers, Manitoba contenders in the Memorial Cup playdowns, unleashed a flashy offensive tonight to defeat Edmonton Maple Leafs, Alberta champions 13-3 in the first game of the best-of-five Western Canada junior final.

Playing before a capacity crowd of 5000 fans, the score at the end of the first period was 3-1 in favor of Edmonton. Portage made it 5-3 at the end of the second and skated off with their 13-3 victory. All games in the series will be played in Winnipeg. The teams meet again Wednesday night.

Jack McDonald, husky winger for Terriers, was high scorer in the goal-packed victory with four counters. Bill Gooden ran him a close second with three tallies, Joe Bell and Bobby Love with two each, Wally Stefaniew and Lin Ben completed the Portage la Prairie barrage.

Russ Kleako, Johnny Black and Art Michaluk scored for Edmonton.

CONTRACT . . .

By Shepard Barclay

WHY IS HE DOING IT?

GIVE THE declarer credit for having some kind of reason for what he does. Putting yourself in his place, then figuring out what kind of holding would cause you to make the same moves as he—that is often the prescription which enables you to read his holding, and therefore your partner's holding. So, when the late stages of the play arrive, and you have to select a discard, your job may be made childishly simple instead of difficult or a pure guess.

West led his club 3 to the J. South finessed the diamond 10 to the Q and won the returned club 6 with the A to succeed with the second diamond finesse, then dropped the K with the A and cashed the 2. East discarding a heart. West a spade and South a spade. The heart 2 was sent from dummy to the 10 and Q, and the club 9 knocked out dummy's K.

The declarer, having seen a K and Q from West and only a Q from East, decided East was the more likely to have the heart A, so led the K from dummy to throw him in and make him then lead up to the spades. But West had the heart A and won it. When West now cashed his club 10, dummy putting on the heart 2, East had his chance to make a mistake, which he certainly did.

Thinking West had a heart to lead, and expecting him to lead it—as he said later—he decided to hold his heart J, and so got rid of one of his three spades. West had only spades, however, so had to lead one to the dummy, the two tops dropping the Q and the J making the game trick. A simple question would have made East's discarding job easy for him. Why would the declarer have led hearts from the dummy, unless he had four of them himself? If East had asked that question, he would have realized his partner had no more hearts, so would have discarded his J on the tenth trick and would have taken the setting trick with his spade Q.

Tojo Warns India of Calamities to Come Through War

TOKYO (From Japanese broadcasts), April 6 (AP)—Premier Hideki Tojo asserted today that "great calamities" in India would be unavoidable "in the course of our subjugation of British forces in India."

"The grim determination of our Empire to crush the United States and Britain is thus being steadily translated into action.

"If India should remain, as before, under the military control of Britain, it would, I am afraid, be unavoidable in the course of our subjugation of British forces there that India suffer great calamities."

At another point he commented that "British influence in India is now about to be exterminated."

CHECK BUYERS OF MORE THAN THREE SUITS SINCE FEB. 1

EDMONTON, April 6 (CP)—Clothing dealers in Edmonton have been asked by the Federal Government to supply the names of men who have purchased three suits or more since Feb. 1, it was learned today.

No reason was given for requesting the names but it is understood that similar action is being taken in the rest of the Dominion. It was presumed that the Government was checking up on any men who might have hoarded suits because of the new wartime clothing restrictions.

Bataan Attack Repulsed; A.A.F. Gets Jap Ships

WASHINGTON, April 6 (AP)—The United States War Department announced today that American-Filipino forces in Bataan had repulsed another heavy attack on the right centre of their line and frustrated a new attempt by the Japanese to land troops on the East coast of Bataan under cover of darkness.

An assault against the line yesterday was made with great force a communique reported, with the support of tanks, artillery and bombers, but the defenders stopped it after hard fighting. The Japanese were unable to extend the slight gains they had made the day before, the Department said, and suffered heavy losses, including a dive bomber shot down by anti-aircraft artillery.

The landing attempt on the East coast of Bataan was halted by light artillery fire from the American-Filipino beach defences.

Corregidor was free of hostile air raids, but two Japanese dive bombers attacked Forts Frank and Drum, the island fortifications near the Cavite shore of Manila Bay, but without inflicting either damage or casualties, the communique reported.

The Department said a delayed message confirmed reports from New Delhi reporting a successful raid by American heavy bombers on the Andaman Islands in the Bay of Bengal April 2.

Led by Maj. Gen. Lewis H. Brereton, commanding American air forces in India, the planes scored direct hits on a Japanese cruiser and a transport, leaving them both in flames and observing heavy explosions on them.

Three American planes were damaged slightly, but returned to their base.

"THROUGH WITH FRANCE"

VICHY, April 6 (AP—The Paris Nouveaux Temps said today that United States pressure had blocked a rapprochment of Marshal Petain and Pierre Laval and the Axis powers are "through with France" because of her failure to collaborate. Sugar Provisions for Canning Set Out for Housewife

OTTAWA, April 6 (CP)—Special provisions for use of sugar in home preserving of fruits, forecast when the rationing order was put in effect last January, were announced today by E. R. Noble, Sugar Administrator of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board.

In addition to the amount of sugar allowed under rationing regulations any person may purchase such quantity of sugar as necessary for the household preserving, canning or making into jams and jellies of any fruits, subject to these provisions:

Purchases of sugar for preserving or canning shall be on the basis of one-half pound of sugar for every pound of fruit weight. All home canning or preserving by syrup methods must be done in a light syrup, defined as a syrup made of one part sugar to two parts of water.

Purchases of sugar for jam or jelly are to be on the basis of three-quarters of a pound of sugar for every pound of fruit weight, and all homemade jams and jellies are to be preserved with three parts of sugar to four of fruit or juice.

The order does not apply to industrial users of sugar.

As sugar "has no preservative value in the curing or preserving of meats," it is provided that no person may hereafter purchase or otherwise acquire any sugar other than that quantity already allowed under the rationing order, for the purpose of curing or preserving meats.

The normal sugar ration is three-quarters of a pound a week per person.

Alaska Route Is Military, Not a Tourist Highway

EDMONTON, April 6 (CP)—Hon. James A. MacKinnon Minister of Trade and Commerce, in an interview here last night said that the Alaska Highway is a military highway, it is not a tourist highway, no "unanticipated" difficulties have been encountered and that the estimated cost is "tremendously greater than any published figures."

Declining he wanted to emphasizes the road is not a tourist highway, the Minister said this point should be stressed because Chambers of Commerce and some commercially-interested organizations are pressing for the route to go one way and another and because there were protests because particular points were not included in prospective routes.

"It is a military highway," he said. "That should be definitely understood. It is being built by United States Army engineers and by United States money. The agreement between the Canadian and United States Governments is that following the war it will become part of the Canadian highway system.

"The route was selected by United States Army engineers for various reasons, one of which was that it was desirable to follow the line of air fields already established.

To Rehabilitate Slocan, Sandon, Kaslo Buildings for Coast Japs; Others Go to Prairie Beet Farms

OTTAWA, April 6 (CP)—Plans are nearing completion for placing 1000 Japanese families being moved from the "protected area" along the British Columbia coast on sugar beet farms in Alberta and Manitoba, it was learned today.

A large number of women and children, with some older men, physically unfit for work, are to be placed in three or four abandoned British Columbia mining towns under another scheme which is already well under way.

At present there are 1849 Japanese men in British Columbia camps and 132 in a Northern Ontario camp. Housed in the Exhibition Buildings at Hastings Park, Vancouver, are 3000 men, women and children.

RELIEVE LABOR SHORTAGE

Final arrangements for placing Japanese on sugar beet farms have not been completed but are expected by Ottawa officials to materialize shortly.

It is estimated 1000 families can be placed on farms, stepping up sugar beet production and giving assistance in relieving the current sugar shortage.

Orders have been given to rehabilitate buildings in three interior British Columbia towns, Slocan City, Sandon and Kaslo. A fourth town, Greenwood, may also be used. Preliminary estimates place the number that can be accommodated in the four towns at 5000.

These towns were thriving gold and base metal mining communities but as the mines became worked out business and population dropped away. It is proposed to move women and children to these towns as well as older or physically unfit men. Many of these people now are at Hastings Park.

New Army Provides Canadian Force to Plan for Continent Offensive

SOMEWHERE IN ENGLAND, April 6 (CP Cable)—Lt.-Gen. A.G.L. McNaughton said today that establishment of a headquarters of the 1st Canadian Army "provides a Canadian organization of competent to undertake planning for eventual offensive operations on the continent when the time becomes appropriate."

"It will keep the closest liaison with British organizations set up for similar purposes," the General said. He spoke to The Canadian Press at Army Headquarters, which were opened in Southern England this morning and announced in Ottawa.

"Formation of an army is clear recognition that the war can only be won by attack—aimed at the heart of Germany," Gen. McNaughton said.

He added that formation of the headquarters "supplies a very necessary link in command and administration needed for the Canadian forces in the United Kingdom."

"Previously much of this work had to be shared by the Canadian organizations with tasks not strictly within the orbit of their duties," Gen. McNaughton said.

One of the important duties which will be carried out by the army and Canadian military headquarters will be to accelerate technical development of new weapons and improved methods, the General added.

TO CUT ADMINISTRATION

One of the purposes of the army headquarters is to relieve the fighting formations of a lot of cumbersome administration detail which now will be done at army headquarters and by other organizations more remote from the field.

"As regards the fighting troops, we plan to cut administration until it hurts," Gen. McNaughton said. He indicated the new army organization probably will include some radical new departures aimed at meeting the latest war developments and keeping ahead of the enemy.

The General pointed out appointments to army headquarters staff include senior officers greatly experienced in England since the first Canadian contingent arrived.

Asked what is being done regarding air support for the new army, he said: "air support for the army in the field is an absolute essential and the necessary components of the R.C.A.F. will be provided."

"Regarding artillery all requirements are being made available and special attention is being the development of new technical methods to ensure that our infantry receives the most intimate artillery support," he said.

The general added that the new army would have a high proportion of armoured units' fire power.

The army will distinctly be Canadian and no British formations will be put under its command, as was the case when the Canadians were expanded to corps proportions in the Summer of 1940.

Hun Reserves for Spring Campaign Being Exhausted to Stem Red Tide

KUIBYSHEV, Russia, April 5 (delayed) (AP)—German reserves intended for Hitler's Spring campaign are being exhausted, dispatches from front lines, swept in some areas by unprecedented Easter snows, reported today.

From the Southwest front, where the fighting lately has been described as violent, as Marshal Timoshenko struck forward, came reports the German 9th and 7th armies are being used for defensive work.

Red Star, Russian army newspaper, said these armies had figured prominently in Hitler's plans for the Spring.

The 12th and 24th divisions, said to be exclusive Spring units, already are fighting and are tired, it was said.

RUSH UP RESERVES

The dispatches said the Second army under Col.-Gen. Baron Maximilian von Weichs had to hurry to the help of the defeated 34th army corps near Yelets, 220 miles South of Moscow in the Don River region.

The army of Von Weichs was one of the group commended in a German communique last Oct. 18 for what the Germans declared was the annihilation of the Grand Army under Marshal Timoshenko in the encirclement battles of Bryansk and Vyazma.

It was said the 229th and the 112th divisions also were rushed up to stem Marshal Timoshenko but that the Soviet defender of South Russia still was moving forward.

Red Star said the Germans are moving up "strategic reserves" from the deep German rear.

AFTER JAP CARRIERS

LONDON, April 6 (CP)—British warships were believed scouring the Eastern Indian Ocean today for at least two Japanese aircraft carriers from which the Easter attack on Colombo, Ceylon, was launched, informed naval experts said.

WINNIPEG, April 6 (CP)—Listless trading included only minor mill demand and local transactions. Wheat futures on Winnipeg Grain Exchange today closed unchanged with May at 79¼ cents a bushel and July at 80⅝A.

Good demand for all grades of oats in the coarse grain pit and about 100,000 bushels of this commodity were taken from pits by shippers and mills.

CHICAGO (AP)—After tumbling almost 2 cents early in the session to the lowest prices quoted here since last December, wheat futures rallied today and recovered the lost.

Wheat closed unchanged to ⅝ higher compared with Saturday's finish, May $1.23⅞-¾; Corn ⅛-¼ higher, May 38¼-⅛; Oats ⅝-⅞ higher; Soybeans 1⅛-1¼ higher; Rye ⅝-¾ higher.

NEW YORK (AP)—Stock market today extended its earlier week rise. The blue chips and specialties carried gains of two or more points to the close.

Coca-Cola pushed up about six points and Pepsi-Cola edged up a point or so.

MRS. GOLDSMITH IS ADVISED OF SISTER'S DEATH

Mrs. F. Goldsmith, 117 Richards Street, has received word of the death of her sister, Mrs. Jordan Crow of Calgary. She had been ill for about a year.

Mrs. Crow leaves her husband, a daughter Ruth and a son Jack, the son being in the Canadian Army in England.

Mrs. Crow visited Nelson four years ago.

"Mickey" Byrne, Early-Day Hack Driver, Is Dead

Michael James (Mickey) Byrne, old timer of Nelson and the Slocan, died Monday morning at Kootenay Lake General Hospital, aged 72. He boarded the eastbound train Saturday night, intending to go to Calgary for examination by a specialist, but became ill before the train left and was removed to hospital.

Born in Ireland, Mr. Byrne came to this country 46 years ago. He was well known to, and popular among, early-day residents of Nelson at the time he worked as a hack driver and teamster for "Big John" Linebaugh.

From Nelson he went to Sandon, and for a time he lived at Cody, near Sandon. Following the discovery of a huge boulder of galena in Sandon Creek, Mr. Byrne embarked upon a unique type of placer mining—searching for galena boulders of high grade. It is understood this enterprise was quite successful, and that while engaged in it he found some exceptionally rich galena.

More recently he was employed as watchman at the Noble Five Mine, quitting this work in October. He spent part of the Winter in hospital at New Denver and recently came to Nelson.

Mr. Byrne was unmarried. As far as is known there are no relatives in this district.

More Than 400,000 In Canada's Active Forces; Near 1918 Peak

OTTAWA, April 6 (CP)—Canada's armed forces of the land, sea and air are approaching the maximum strength attained in the last year of the First Great War.

Something more than 400,000 men now are believed to be on active service in Canada and overseas which compares with a force of more than 450,000 in the Canadian army at Nov. 1, 1918. That figure, considered about the peak for the last war, included 418,000 overseas and 27,423 in training or on other duties in Canada.

Exact figures for the present strength of the forces are not released by the authorities but the latest official statement, in February, reported more than 28,000 in the navy, more than 266,000 voluntarily enlisted in the army, more than 16,000 conscripted for home defence and on active service for duration of the war in the army, and more than 100,000 in the air force, a total of more than 409,000. Enlistments have been proceeding since then.

Canada's total enlistments in the First Great War were 619,663 and of these 424,589 served overseas. he corresponding figures for the present war are not available but it is somewhat above 450,000 allowing for casualties and discharges to date.

124,588 DRAFTED

There is some uncertainty about the total number actually drafted into the forces under conscription in 1917-18 but a recent return to the House of Commons placed it at 124,588, of whom a certain number were on harvest or other leave and never actually entered training. It is estimated 31,000 drafted men served overseas.

The present compulsory system made no provision for exemption when introduced in the Summer of 1940. Men between 21 and 24, single or widowers without children, were liable to call.

There now are more than 44,000 men who were called up compulsorily on active service with the Canadian forces. Many of these have volunteered for service anywhere and many others are in the air force and the navy.

CHINESE LEAVE 3700 JAP DEAD, TOUNGOO BATTLE

NEW DELHI, April 6 (CP)—The Chinese announced today that 3700 Japanese were killed in the 12-day battle of Toungoo, the Eastern anchor of the United Nation's Burma line which the outnumbered Chinese have been forced to yield.

A Chinese communique said Japanese losses also included six mortars, one mountain gun, one field gun, 70 horses and some bicycles and rifles captured.

The enemy now has launched a small attack on the Mawchi-Toungoo Highway with about one battalion of infantry, it said. Two air raids were made yesterday on Chinese positions in which one truck was destroyed and some troops injured, it added.

Asks That Post Be Compelled to Abandon Policy

PHILADELPHIA, April 6 (AP)—A stockholder of the Curtis Publishing Company asked United States District Court today to compell Saturday Evening Post to abandon what he termed its "isolationist policies and to cease publication of articles he said tended to stir up racial feeling.

In one of the most unusual suits ever filed in the Federal Courts here, George E. Wanderman of New York declared that such policies are injurious to the financial interests of the 25,500 Curtis stockholders and ultimately will result in "complete dissipation" of the Company's good will.

Wanderman, who owns 50 of the 3,293,821 shares of Curtis common stock, said that already the Post's "isolationist" policies had caused numerous subscription cancellations and that numerous advertisers had refused to renew their contracts.

Wanderman asked the court not only to compel the Post to change its policies but also to direct the Company to withhold the salaries of 10 officers and directors whom he also named defendants.

A. B. Gilker "Talks Shop" and Tells Rotary Club the History of a Hat

A. B. Gilker "talked shop" Monday when he addressed the Rotary Club at its luncheon and told the members about hats, their history and the story of their make-up. Delving into the centuries and exploring the ways of the Egyptians, Mr. Gilker brought to light the connection between hat felt and an Egyptian.

"The felt from which the hat is made is the same stuff the Greeks, the Persians, the Egyptians, the Phyrgians and the Assyrians made into horse trappings, helmets and tents to make themselves comfortable during their gory days of slaughtering."

CREDITS ST. CLEMENT

Turning first to the process of felting, Mr. Gilker told of how this process was lost with the passing of the Roman Empire. "The holy corns of good St. Clement receive credit for the re-discovery," he said. Journeying shrinewards, saintly feet were cased with rabbit fur, and when he removed his sandals he found a solid insole of felt."

Tracing the history of the shape of hats, the speaker told of how the Virginians and Dutchmen brought Europe to America with the ornate Stuart hat marked by the colored sweeping plume. He told of the round black hats of the Quakers, the coon-skin of the Kentucky frontiersmen, and the 18th century Colonial American cocked hat.

"By the beginning of the 19th centrury," said Mr. Gilker, "the high hat had supplanted the cocked hat. In 1840 when Prince Albert popularized his famous coat, the stovepipe silk hat came into favor and reached complete acceptance. hese were well enough for the East, but not for our Western frontiersmen, who adopted the Mexican Sombrero, from which no doubt has come the cowboy ten gallon hat of our Canadian prairies. In 1849 America was visited by the great Hungarian patriot Kossuth, wearing a soft felt hat, and the Kossuth became a country wide favorite. Again in 1890 hat styles were upset with advent of the Derby, called after Lord Derby, who aparently was the first to wear one."

EVOLUTION OF THE HAT

Mr. Gilker then began with the story of the make-up of the hat, from the raw fur to the finished product. "The first actual process is called 'tarroting', the skins being treated with a solution of nitric acid which causes the felting scales to open," he explained. Back to the factory again the skins are fed into a fur cutting machine, in which the skin is shredded from the fur by whirling knives. The sorters, who next received the fur, separate it into the different grades, and pack it into five pound bags. The fur is now fed into a blowing machine, where it is caught by rapid revolving cylinders equipped with thousands of steel teeth. Coming from these blowers the fur is thoroughly cleaned and is now ready to enter the hat factory to be turned into a hat body.

"The final course comes at the hat factory," he continued, "where the first step is blending, then follows a series of blending, forming, sizing, stiffening, 'pulling and pouncing' and flangeing of the brim, until the hat finally reaches the blocking stage."

Mr. Gilker concluded his talk with a highly interesting and instructive film showing the 40 distinct operations required to produce a high grade hat.

Before the program President J.R. Mclennan appointed a committee to arrange for the district canvassing in the Red Cross salvage campaign. They were R. A. Peebles, H. D. Dawson and H. Farenholtz.

Passport Rules Halt Woman That Enemy Guns Couldn't Stop

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., April 6 (CP)—Mrs. Ruth Peake, Canadian nurse who ran the gauntlet of Japanese machine-guns with her two small children to escape from Malacca to Singapore at the start of the far-Eastern war, today was separated by passport regulations and a few miles from a reunion with her mother and sister.

Mrs. Peake arrived yesterday at Niagara Falls, New York, with her children, Christopher 5, and Judith 2, after her journey home via Australia.

Mrs. Peake decided not to cross into Canada until the validity of her passport is established for herself and the children who were born in the Orient. Her mother here, Mrs VanAlstyne, lacks the necessary passport and visa to cross to the United States, delaying the reunion.

Captain Certain Italian Sub That Got His Vessel

MIAMI, Fla., April 6 (AP) — The captain of a medium-sized British freighter, sunk in East Indian waters March 13, is convinced that an Italian submarine was taking its toll of shipping in the Western Atlantic.

One member of the crew who died of a heart attack was the only casualty when the submarine torpedoed and shelled his vessel, Capt. J. J. Egerton said. The remaining 57 in the ship's company were picked up after 42 hours in lifeboats and were taken to Nassau, where the sinking was announced March 17.

"I am certain the sub was of the large Italian class," said Egerton, a graying, 65-year-old veteran of more than 40 years at sea, after he and the other survivors were brought to Miami.

"After we abandoned ship, the sub circled our four lifeboats and the captain shouted out to ask us whether we were all right, whether we needed anything. He spoke very good English, but it was easy to tell that it was an Italian talking English and not a German.

"Then he hoisted the Italian flag just before waving goodbye."

Many of the crewmen had been on torpedoed vessels before. One of them, Anthony W. Cox, 21-year-old senior wireless operator, said he "wasn't nearly as worried as the last time, when I was aboard a benzine tanker that I was afraid was going to blow up."

Two Netherlands Forces Battling Japanese in Java

U.S. ARMY HEADQUARTERS IN AUSTRALIA, April 6 (AP)—Two Netherlands forces of considerable size still are battling the Japanese in Java, Lieut. Gen. Hubertus J. van Mook of the Netherlands East Indies told General Douglas MacArthur today.

The forces, under command of Generals Schilling and Pressman, were well supplied with food and munitions and should keep the Japanese forces occupied for some time Van Mook said.

The Netherlands official conferred at length with MacArthur on the role which the Dutch are expected to play henceforth in the war in the Pacific.

U.S. Pacific Fleet Stronger Than Before Pearl Harbor Claims

CHICAGO, April 6 (AP)—Lynn Stambaugh, National commander of the American Legion, in a radio address last night quoted a statement he credited to Navy Secretary Knox saying that "the Nation's Pacific Fleet in ships, planes and men is even stronger today than it was before Dec. 7."

He quoted a statement from former Commander Ed Hayes, now a special assistant to Secretary Knox, which said:

"The Navy Department is aware of the many rumors which have arisen about the Jap action at Pearl Harbor, rumors so fantastic in some cases as to include the whispered statement that the Pacific Fleet was completely wiped out. I am authorized by Secretary Knox to state for the first time that as of this date and for some time past, the Pacific Fleet in ships, planes and men today is even stronger than it was before Dec. 7."

Interpreting

The War News

By KIRKE L. SIMPSON
Associated Press War Analyst

Headlined by a smashing British air victory at Colombo, Ceylon, the Easter weekend piled up a significant toll of Japanese air casualties on the Pacific-Indian Ocean war front.

United Nations official figures from that sector accounted for some 100 enemy planes down or damaged within a three-day period. Figures for Allied losses are not complete but ratio of 10-to-1 or possibly even double that against the Niponese is indicated.

That comes close to being a record plane bag in this war, excepting onl ythe German surprise attack on Poland which caught the Polish Air Force on the ground. A far smaller ratio of losses by the German Air Force—4 to 1 or 5 to 1—won the Battle of Britain for the Royal Air Force in 1940.

Japan's plane replacement capacity from reserves or new production is the least of any of the major belligerents. That and her lines in waging two-front war simultaneously against Australia and the British in Burma and India are the most encouraging factors for United Nation leadership in the struggle.

The extent to which the Japanese are keeping the double strain of air casualties and extended communication lines is becoming clear. Recent raids against the Port Moresby pivot in New Guinea and Darwin in Australia have been little more than nuisance affairs. Half a dozen planes have come over, and have been savagely dealt with each time.

Perhaps the most significant aspect of the Colombo operations, however, is what it implies as to British air and sea reinforcements reaching India and the Bay of Bengal. Unless the Japanese had reason to believe there was a considerable British naval force at Colombo, the 75-plane raid against that port would have little meaning.

The Japanese struck there, presumably on the theory that the heavy British naval reinforcements which Rome reported 10 days ago were steaming around the Cape of Good Hope into the Indian Ocean might be caught napping there.

There is no word from Britain to indicate a naval concentration at Colombo.

It is assumed the enemy planes came from carriers lying far off Ceylon. If more than two-thirds of those planes never got back to their carriers, those several carriers are more of a liability than an asset to the Japanese in the opening battle of the Bay of Bengal. And they are in deadly peril from heavy land-base bombers or British carrier-based planes undoubtedly making every effort to find and destroy them.
