JAPS DRIVE 40 MILES; CAPTURE SUBANG

JAPS PREPARING FOR BIG ATTACK ON BURMA CITY

Lose Heavily in Air as 51 Planes Downed

PRESSURE ALONG RIVER INCREASES

LONDON, March 1 (CP)—An Army communique from Rangoon announced today that Japanese pressure along the Sittang River is increasing and informed quarters expressed belief a big Japanese assault on the Burma capital is about to begin.

Although informed quarters here gave the weary British defenders little chance to hold out against the picked Japanese divisions indefinitely, there was an encouraging item in the continued success of British and United States aircraft in clearing the air of Japanese planes.

A delayed communique received from Rangoon today said 22 Japanese planes were destroyed over Rangoon Thursday with a loss of one Allied machine and that enemy losses for two days, Feb. 25 and 26, were 51 planes compared with two Allied planes. This communique was believed to have been issued Saturday.

"No enemy air activity has been reported," said the communique issued today, and it added that Allied fighters and bombers were active over forward areas.

The delayed communique said reports indicated the Japanese were working northward along the East bank of the Sittang, evidently seeking a weak spot to force a crossing. These forces were described as picked troops of excellent physique.

Military government is functioning in virtually deserted Rangoon and a curfew has been imposed.

LOAN CAMPAIGN UP TO $540,000,000; DAY'S SALES OFF

Over-Subscription Desired Says Ilsley

OTTAWA, March 1 (CP)—Subscriptions to Canada's $500,000,000 second victory loan reached $538,789,000 at the weekend, National loan headquarters announced tonight. The three-week campaign still has a week to go.

Saturday's total bond sales totalled $12,517,430, the smallest total on any day since the drive opened Feb. 15.

Number of subscribers Saturday was 62,439, bringing cumulative total for the first two weeks of the campaign to 444,311.

Results of the first two weeks of the drive brought today from Finance Minister Ilsley a statement indicating a substantial over-subscription is desired.

"I am sure that all Canadians are gratified at the progress of the second victory loan," Mr. Ilsley said. "For my part, I am happy to know that so many people are buying the bonds."

"While the showing to date is encouraging I should like to point out that in no sense whatever is there ground for complacent attitude. We still have a long way to go and there are still great numbers of people in this country who are able to buy bonds who have not done so as yet."

"I regard the dollar of the small investor as of equal rank with the dollar of the large subscriber and so far as I am concerned not one of the small subscribers who desires to buy a victory bond shall be disappointed."

"The Victory Loan Committee is making every effort to canvass the people of Canada from the Atlantic to Pacific within the allotted period of four weeks. This is an Herculean undertaking and if anybody is being missed I hope they take the initiative in their own hands and place their subscriptions early this week with any of the victory loan offices or any bank or trust company."

"The time is short and the distance to travel is still long. The bad news from abroad has made Canada all the more determined to play its part to the limit."

"Let us see to it that we have some good news of our own making."

RUSSIAN TROOPS WITHIN SIGHT OF STARAYA RUSSA

Escape for Huns Cut Off; Food Running Low in Garrison

FIGHT VIOLENT

By EDDIE GILMORE Associated Press Staff Writer

MOSCOW, March 1 (AP)—Soviet forces drawing an ever-tightening noose about the shattered 16th German Army now are within sight of Staraya Russa City, keystone of all German communications on the Northwestern front South of Leningrad, front line dispatches said tonight.

These accounts said that Red forces could see wrecked houses and the tall spires of the Cathedral in the city where 90,000 Germans are trapped.

One captured German said all avenues of escape had been cut by the encircling Red troops and that food was running low in the Nazi garrison.

Soviet officers quoted this prisoner, Karl Horst, as saying the German morale had crumbled in the last few days. Dread and often deadly frostbite is almost universal, he said.

Farther to the North the Russians reported slaying 600 Germans in a continuing Red drive to break Leningrad's siege lines while other Soviet columns surged on toward Smolensk on the central front and toward Dniepropetrovsk in the South.

The southern fighting exploded violently with both sides hurling planes, tanks and artillery at each other as signs of Spring appeared. Operations were hampered by rain and melting snow which turned the battlefield into a vast quagmire.

The Russian advance, aimed at Smolensk, continued on the central front in the face of desperate German resistance. In some sectors the Germans have launched fierce counter attacks supported by tanks, the Moscow radio said.

Morton of Victoria was elected First Vice-President. Executive includes Theed Pearce, Vancouver Island; Capt. Cory Wood and Mrs. H. Melson, Victoria; Mrs. H. J. Caldwell, East Kootenay; W. H. FIREMEN FIGHT ALL NIGHT TO BRING BIG FIRES UNDER CONTROL

QUEBEC, March 1 (CP)—Firemen, after an all-night fight, brought under control today fires that gutted one business block and damaged three other buildings.

While the firemen fought against a stubborn outbreak in the Seguin block on Lower Town Charest boulevard, others were kept busy by a blaze that broke out in a St. Pierre Street building which housed a typewriter store, a restaurant and five dwellings.

Channel Guns in Duel; Report News of Commando Raid Known in Advance

LONDON, March 2 (Monday) (CP)—Big guns, planes and smaller aircraft or naval weapons engaged in sharp duels over the English Channel last night and early today. Watchers on the cliffs between Dover and Folkestone heard machine-guns firing between the explosions of the big rifles, indicating aerial duels, but the action was obscured by heavy mist.

The spurt of fiery activity coincided with the first published reports of leakage of advance information concerning the British raid early Saturday on the French Coast and the disclosure of new checkups of service and civilian identity cards at the Coastal re-

BELIEVE SIX TO NINE SHIPS OF GROUP ATTACKED

Survivors of Four Ships Sunk in Atlantic Report Losses

ATTACK FIVE SUBS

AN EAST COAST CANADIAN PORT, March 1 (CP)—Seamen from four Allied ships sunk by U-boats in mid-Atlantic, brought to this port by rescue ships, reported today the possibility that between six and nine ships in a convoy heading westward, were torpedoed.

A crewman from one of the sunk ships—a tanker—said seven vessels were torpedoed the night his ship was sunk and two more were struck next morning. He did not know how many had sunk.

Submarine detection devices had indicated five underwater craft took part in the "wolf pack" attack, the sailor said.

Another man, from a small freighter, said he believed six ships in the convoy were torpedoed, with three sinkings and three making other ports. The attack went on for three days, he said.

One hundred and 11 survivors from four ships reached here. Some had been picked up by a United States warship after being afloat only briefly after their ships were torpedoed. Others had been saved by a merchant ship.

All four vessels apparently were in the same convoy. The lost ships consisted of three tankers and one freighter.

Two groups of 43 and 30 men represented the full crews of their ships. None aboard them had been lost. Another group of 11 were survivors of a crew of 49. One band of 19 reported 20 aboard their vessel had been lost.

Some of the seamen said they believed eight of the ships in their convoy had been sunk by the submarines, which "let loose almost enough torpedoes to sink the British Fleet."

In the convoy was what the survivors called a "rescue ship," a fast British coaster assigned to the convoy especially for rescue work. This vessel picked up 13 men from three of the torpedoed ships, the men said, describing the work as "one of the most heroic acts by the Merchant Marine in this war." The rescue ship carried a crew of 40 men.

MASS MEETING URGES REMOVAL OF EVERY JAP

Want Curfew Order Immediately Enforced

VICTORIA, March 1 (CP)—A mass meeting of 2500 Victorians held in Beacon Hill Park today unanimously endorsed a resolution calling on the Dominion Government "to remove or intern to zones remote from all protected areas, all Japanese men, women and children, wherever born, whether Japanese nationals or naturalized."

The resolution also asked that in the meantime, the Dominion Government carry out immediately the order-in-council calling for a dusk-to-dawn curfew for all Japanese within the defence zone West of the Cascade Mountains, and for the seizure of Japanese-owned cars, radios, firearms and explosives.

The meeting was called by the Immediate Action Committee, a group of Victoria citizens formed to speed action on removal of Japanese from the Pacific Coast. Brigadier J. Sutherland Brown, retired, was chairman and addressed the meeting along with two other speakers, Col. Ross Napier, retired and Captain J. H. Law-Beattie, retired.

Captain Law-Beattie told the meeting that "in every Japanese in the province we have a potential fifth columnist," and Brigadier Sutherland Brown said that "if Japanese forces arrived here, they would be greeted by the children of local Japanese, waving flags of the rising sun."

Col. Napier asserted that statements have appeared in the Press "to the effect that British Columbia cannot and will not be defended in event of attack" and he said an immediate investigation should be made as to the source of these statements.

"Whoever was responsible for the spreading of that statement is a Quelling and a traitor," he said. "British Columbia will be defended if we have to do it with peavies and axe handles."

SEIZE RELINGINGS

PRINCE RUPERT, B.C., March 1 (CP)—Provincial police at this northern port in a swift weekend action completed the seizure of all automobiles, radios, cameras and firearms owned by Japanese and enforced the Dominion government's dusk-to-dawn curfew under which all Japanese must remain in their homes during the hours of darkness.

17 Jap Transports And 9 Warships Smashed in Battles

Allies Lose Two Netherlands Cruisers, Two Destroyers; 50 Transports, 20 Warships Pour Out Jap Troops for Java Invasion

By WITT HANCOCK Associated Press Staff Writer

BANGUNG, Java, March 2 (Monday) (AP)—Striking swiftly through plantations and estates of a broad coastal plain, Japan's invading forces have driven 40 miles to capture the city of Subang which lies about the same distance North and slightly East of this headquarters of the Netherlands East Indies Army, the defenders said today.

Subang fell to the troops which landed at Indramaju, the middle of three main points at which the invaders poured out troops during the weekend from 50 transports and 20 warships under a heavy Allied aerial, naval and land fire.

In taking Subang the Japanese presumably cut the main Northern coastal railway linking Batavia and other principal cities to the East. The Japanese also made penetrations, apparently of less distance, from the other two points.

The defenders, including Netherlands, British, Australian and United States forces, meanwhile launched their main striking force into a counter-offensive late last night after pounding the Japanese defensively all day Sunday.

Faced by furiously pedalling cyclists and light armored cars, the Japanese drove their spearheads into this volcano-studded island from landing places on the North and West coasts.

One penetration from the vicinity of Rembang, about 90 miles West of Surabaya, the naval base, had been driven approximately 10 miles in from the coast of Biora where an action against cyclists was said to have taken a huge toll.

Biora is on the main road of the railroad connecting the vital naval base with the rest of Java. It was apparently in this vicinity that the Japanese had landed in strongest force on a wide beach front.

To the West, in the vicinity of Indramaju, which is about 100 miles East of the Capital, Batavia, an announcement said that a rather great part of the plains of Rawang is now in Japanese hands despite very heavy losses which had been inflicted.

The plain is the centre of large productive plantations and estates. The third spearhead at the North-western Bantam district, Southwest of Batavia, which completed a Japanese strategic plan to cut this 600-mile long, 150-mile wide island into three parts, apparently had made less progress following its hop across Sunda Strait from Sumatra.

THREE NAVAL BATTLES

The enemy won his footholds Saturday night despite sacrificial challenges of outgunned United States and Netherlands warships in three separate naval battles and a terrific hammering from Netherlands and American airmen which had taken a toll of at least 17 transports sunk and damaged and nine warships sunk and damaged.

Of these at least two heavy cruisers had been sunk or put out of action, another badly damaged, another warship of an uncertain type blown up, and three destroyers left sinking and burning. Two other cruisers had been hit by bombs.

The Allies paid a high price, however, losing two Netherlands cruisers and two destroyers. A great loss of life among the attackers was believed, to have been exacted in the three days of naval warfare and by the pummeling taken by transports and landing barges from the streams of Allied planes which all day long streaked over the beachheads with bombs and machine-guns.

Nevertheless they continued their landing operations and were estimated to have put ashore as many as four divisions, or 60,000 men.

The Netherlands at once blew up and fired the oil fields and refinery installations around Tjapoo, 30 miles Northeast of Rembang, the last remaining oil field in The Netherlands East Indies, and began demolishing railroad and motor bridges which would facilitate the enemy's advance into the interior.

To oppose the Japanese, the Indies had an army estimated at anywhere from 100,000 to 250,000, largely composed of native Javanese, together with some thousands of Britons, Australians and Americans.

They began putting into effect at once their long-rehearsed, methodical plans, and from one end of the island to the other great troop movements were observed.

Drive Japs Back in Philippines

WASHINGTON, March 1 (AP)—An American-Filipino guerrilla force, operating from a mountain vastness in Northern Luzon, has attacked and driven Japanese out of River Valley, the United States War Department said today.

While army experts here discounted the military value of the manoeuvres as of "little consequence" they did emphasize that it was new evidence of the opposition to the invader carried on by the natives and troops outside Bataan Peninsula where Gen. Douglas MacArthur's main army is making its stand.

The stann front itself continued quiet.

Only $19,000,000 in Bonds Purchased by Public of B.C.

VANCOUVER, March 1 (CP)—Subscriptions to Canada's second Victory Loan in British Columbia, and the Yukon Territory totalled $48,000,000, loan headquarters announced here tonight, with but another week to raise the $14,000,000 necessary to reach the area's quota of $62,000,000.

Headquarters said that the largest amount has been subscribed through special subscriptions, the general public having purchased only a little over $19,000,000 in British Columbia and the Yukon so far. The Yukon-Atlin division and the most of the Yukon units are well over the top of their quotas, but no divisions in British Columbia have yet scored 100 per cent in the general canvass.

Rossland Boy's Arm Broken in Elevator Shaft

ROSSLAND, B. C., March 1.—Frank Spring, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Spring, Rossland, had his left arm broken in three places on Saturday morning at Hunter Brothers Ltd., where he is employed in the grocery department. Young Spring was manipulating, through an aperture in the side of the freight elevator, a cable which controls the direction of the cage, and got his arm wedged between the elevator and the wall of the shaft. Prompt action of Harold Fox in stopping the elevator saved the boy from even more serious injury.

Dr. L. B. Winch treated the boy at the hospital and he was later removed to his home.

Riding on the freight elevator is prohibited however, and all controls are intended for manipulation from the floor.

Victory Bonds Return Twice as Much as Savings Accounts and Can Quickly Be Turned Into Cash

Victory bond canvassers in Kootenay find that the chief points upon which instalment buyers ask questions are:

Q. I want to buy a bond but I can't pay cash. What should I do?

A. You may buy on one of two instalment plans.

(1) Government's plan provides, on a $100 bond, for a down payment of $10; payment of $15 on April 15 and $15 on May 15; $20 on June 15 and $20 on July 15; and $20.82 on Aug. 15. For a $50 bond divide these amounts by two.

(2) You may go to your bank, pay 10 per cent down, and make arrangements for the balance. You can extend payments over as long as 15 months, with a monthly payment of $4 on each $100 bond purchase.

Q. Supposing I am unable to keep up my payments. Will I lose what I have already paid in?

A. No. You may sell at any time you wish and recover what you have paid up to that time, less a small brokerage charge.

Q. How can I do that?

A. Simply by going to your bank and asking that the bond on which you are making payments be sold.

Q. I try to keep a little in the savings bank for emergency. What would happen if I put this into a Victory Bond instead? Could I obtain the money I might need quickly?

A. You could sell your bond immediately; or you could borrow on it, meet the emergency, and afterward pay back the money you have borrowed, thus meeting the emergency and keeping your bond at the same time.

Q. How much can I obtain on a loan against a Victory Bond?

A. Any bank will loan up to 90 per cent of the face value of the bond. It is backed by the Dominion of Canada, and you cannot find better backing.

Q. Is it a good investment, looking at it purely from an investment point of view?

A. A Victory Bond will pay you twice as much interest as a savings account.

Q. Is a Victory Bond safe?

A. A dollar bill is "a promise to pay" backed by the guarantee of the Dominion of Canada. So is a Victory Bond. If you think a dollar bill is safe, you have your own answer.

Here Are Names of Over 500 District Recruits

$500,000 From the Nelson District Would Be Equivalent of $1000 for Each; So Far Public Has Bought $300,000 Bonds

There are 505 names on this page—each the name of a man who placed himself in the hands of military, naval or air authorities and prepared to give himself entirely to the cause of freedom. They are the men who are supplied with arms and equipment, with weapons of offence and defence, through the money and labor contributed by those at home.

If for each of the 505 names listed $1000 were subscribed by district residents in Victory Bonds, a total of $505,000 would be raised. So far the general public has provided $300,000—the total of the general canvase for Nelson Unit Saturday.

This list is not complete. It is the list kept by the Nelson Women's Auxiliary to the Active Forces, the men to whom gifts are sent at Christmas and at other times during the year. It is the most complete list available, but it does not include men from the district who went to other points to enlist unless the relatives of these men have given their names to the Auxiliary.

R.A.F. Strikes Again at Big German Ships

LONDON, March 1 (CP).—British bombers struck again at the already damaged 26,000-ton German battleships Gneissau and Scharnhorst by moonlight Friday night at the great naval bases of Kiel and Wilhelmshaven in a developing campaign to hold the Nazi fleet at home and hit it there.

The raid, described as effective because of an improvement in weather over the continent, was the third in succession on Kiel where the Gneissau reported in a floating dock. The Scharnhorst is reported at Wilhelmshaven.

War Not Likely to Affect Japanese Serving in Army

OTTAWA, March 1 (CP).—The fact that Canada is at war with Japan is not likely to affect the status of Japanese now serving with the Canadian Army, it was said here yesterday at the Defence Department.

There are only a few Japanese in the Canadian Army, most of them Canadian born, and, if their character is known to be good, they are treated in just the same manner as Germans and Italians who are soldiering for Canada.

SOLDIER REMANDED ON CHARGE OF MURDER

CHESTER, Sussex, England, March 1 (CP).—Pte. J. W. Moore, 18, of Chatham, Ont., was formally charged with the murder of a police officer today and was remanded for 21 days. He faces a second charge of causing grievous bodily harm to another policeman.

IMPERIAL POLICIES

—to men who work in industry

Among the 8,000 new policies issued by Imperial Life during the past year, 1,000 went to industrial and skilled workers. They were purchased by mechanics, miners, factory workers, building craftsmen, railway men—those who "furnish the tools".

These men realized that when lunch-boxes are full, that is the time to make sure the family cupboard will never be empty. Now, they are forearmed against future money uncertainties—against old age—death.

Imperial Life policies match each individual need. They bring to a man and his family a new outlook on life. To a constantly growing cross-section of the people of Canada. The Imperial Life is "my insurance company".

National War Finance Committee, Ottawa, Canada

Gov't. to Finance Charities' Funds

OTTAWA, Mar. 1 (CP)—The Government announced today its decision to finance from Public Treasury the requirements of the Canadian Legion, the Knights of Columbus, the Salvatio Army, Y.M.C.A. and Y.W.C.A. and the Navy League of Canada for auxiliary war services. The hostel operations of the Navy League of Canada for men of the Navy and the Mercantile Marine will also be included.

War Services Minister Thorson made the announcement which was forecast some time ago.

These organizations have appealed for contributions in National Drives in the past.

The Minister said similar action in respect to Treasury assistance was not possible in respect to the Canadian Red Cross, which must continue to be of a voluntary nature.

The Red Cross will make a drive for funds in the late Spring and it was estimated more than $5,000,000 will be sought.

Prior to 1941 these organizations carried on separate public appeals, but in March, 1941, they united in a joint public appeal. Their objective was set at $5,500,000, but this objective was exceeded and approximately $7,000,000 was received from the Canadian Public. These funds were held by the Canadian War Services Fund Incorporated and released from time to time to the organizations as required.

It had been agreed that the Navy League of Canada should join with the other National Auxiliary Services organizations in a joint public appeal for funds to be made in the Spring.

It had also been planned that the Canadian Red Cross Society should join in the united public appeal with the above mentioned National Auxiliary Services organizations.

The total budgets of all these organizations were estimated at from $17,000,000 to $20,000,000.

Gov't. Orders Bus Tours Be Stopped

OTTAWA, March 1 (CP)—Elimination of all "mystery" and "no-where" bus tours, curtailment of the chartering of buses and a forecast that further curtailment of bus service would be ordered were announced Saturday by Munitions Minister Howe.

The aim, he added, is to conserve rubber and gasoline and make available more buses for essential transportation.

Instruction covering the new bus order have been sent to all bus companies in Canada by W. J. Lynch, Transit Controller, and "will go into effect immediately," Mr. Howe said.

Those charter trips which may still be made will be confined to trips of a special nature only, for services to the armed forces, and for other purposes clearly identified with the war effort. All such trips and all requests for such trips which have been refused, must be reported to the Controller.

The question of sightseeing is being given further study, and it is probable such tours will be prohibited entirely, Mr. Lynch told reporters.

He urged competitive transportation services to make careful studies with the object of eliminating duplication of service.

Short and Kimmel to Be Tried on Charge of Neglect

WASHINGTON, March 1 (AP)—Secretary of War, Stimson announced Saturday that a court martial trial had been directed for Maj. Gen. Walter C. Short, Commander of Army defences in Hawaii at the time of Pearl Harbor attack.

At the same time Secretary of the Navy Knox announced that charges for a court martial of Rear Admiral Husband E. Kimmel, former Pacific Fleet Commander, were being prepared.

Stimson said in a brief announcement that on the basis of the findings of the Roberts inquiry commission he had directed the preparation of charges alleging dereliction of duty.

This was the charge made against Admiral Kimmel.

The trials, it was said, will not be held until "the public interest and safety" permits.

Australia Gov't. Takes Over All Supplies of Tea

CANBERRA, Australia, Mar. 1 (AAP)—All supplies of tea held by merchants and traders, including retailers, were requisitioned by the Commonwealth Government yesterday.

"There is little prospect of regular supplies in the immediate future and it is essential that the Government conserve stocks for the military forces and equitable distribution among consumers."

Flight Sergeant Gray First Nelson Youth to Give His Life for Empire

Flight Sergeant J. B. Gray, 21, reported killed in action overseas on Friday.

Flight Sergeant John Balfour Gray, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Gray of Nelson, was killed overseas on Friday.

Word that he had paid the supreme sacrifice was received by his parents Saturday in the following cable from London:

"Deeply regret to inform you that your son Can/558223 Flight Sergeant John Balfour Gray is reported to have lost his life in action on Feb. 27th, 1942. Letter confirming this cablegram and giving all available information follows. The Air Council express their profound sympathy."

The first youth from the City of Nelson to graduate under the Commonwealth Air Training Plan, he was also the first from this city to die in action. Two Nelson district youths who preceded him in winning their wings, Sgt-Pilot E. H. Foxlee of Robson and Sgt-Pilot Henry P. Hartridge of Balfour, have also made the supreme sacrifice.

First air casualty from this district was Flight Commander John Alexander Campbell of Willow Point, who was lost in France in the early months of the war.

BORN IN TRAIL, EDUCATED IN NELSON

Flight Sergeant Gray was born in Trail 21 years ago, and had resided in Nelson since 1924. He was graduated from Nelson High School in June, 1940, and immediately enlisted in the Royal Canadian Air Force. Training in wireless and gunnery at Calgary and then at Moosebank, Sask., he was graduated as a wireless air gunner, and a year ago was in Nelson on embarkation leave. He left Nelson March 7 to proceed overseas.

Two months ago he cabled his parents to advise them of his promotion to flight sergeant, the equivalent of an army sergeant-major.

BROTHER WITH FLEET AIR ARM

Flight Sergeant Gray leaves his parents in Nelson; a brother, Sub-Lieutenant R. Hampton Gray, R.C.N.V.R., who is with the Fleet Air Arm; and a sister, Mrs. Henry Gutsch of Calgary, formerly a nurse in Trail.

A cousin, Lt. Thomas Gray, who was on the Aircraft Carrier Ark Royal and who received the Distinguished Flying Cross from His Majesty for gallantry in action over the North Sea, is a prisoner of war in Germany.

The youth, active in almost all sports while a student at Nelson High School, carried the same enthusiasm into his work in the air force. When he was in Nelson a year he declared "It's a grand life, and great training."

He appeared in the R.A.F. movie, "Target for Tonight," which showed the preparation by Bomber Command of an attack, and the actual bombing of a target in Germany. The movie was shown in December.

No Refuge From Love

SERIAL STORY By JERRY BRONDFIELD

SYNOPSIS

MOLLA GLENDON comes to New York seeking refuge from the war that has swept across her native Norway, and from the bombs that shattered London where she had fled from Oslo. She goes to work in the office of the Whitworth Construction company.

BURTON WHITWORTH, head of the company, was a friend of her deceased father. Molla meets TAYLOR WHITWORTH, handsome and dashing son of Burton, and NEIL LUNDQUIST, young field engineer of the company.

YESTERDAY: Molla is offered a moving picture contract by a talent scout.

CHAPTER EIGHT

Molla stared at the contract she was to sign, then back at Eddie Bryan. She shook her head in bewilderment. Her thoughts were too scattered to collect into one intelligent comment, but she finally managed to say something.

"This is impossible," she whispered. "I did not come to America to become a moving picture star. I have no desire. I—I could not."

Eddie Bryan closed his eyes and pressed his lips together expressively. "There isn't a girl in America who doesn't sometime dream of what I am offering you now," he said. "Why, you'll be rich," he exploded. "You'll have more money than you ever thought was in the world."

He calmed down then. "Sure, so money isn't everything. But did you ever think," he said pointedly, "that with money you could do a lot for your family and friends back home?"

Molla moistened her lips. Her head started clear. This man was serious. He knew the right people in Hollywood. Back in Oslo, people considered Hollywood a fairland. That piece of white paper before her was a contract with a Hollywood agent.

But this was all too swift, too incalculable. "You must give me time. I must think about it," she said.

"Sure—sure. Think it over. I'll phone you in a couple of days."

Molla did her work mechanically at the office the rest of the afternoon. A couple of times Miss Crump looked at her queerly, but she said nothing.

Twice Neil asked her to bring him some estimates, and both times she brought the wrong figures. He chided her good naturedly about it, and then looked at Molla sharply.

"Something troubling you, Molla?"

She looked up quickly. "No—no, of course not. I—just got confused in the files."

She returned to her desk, intent upon getting a grip on herself, but the emotional pitch was too great.

Molla wasn't vain, but she knew she was pretty. She knew, too, that she could skate as well as most of the stars who toured with the American skating shows.

Hollywood—Hollywood—Hollywood! The name ran through her brain. Fame. Fortune. Money with which to bring her mother to America. A hazardous and expensive proposition right then, but money could do anything, even in occupied Norway.

She thought of what her mother would think. And, of course, Mr. Whitworth. He might not like it, especially after he had gone to all this trouble in her behalf.

Molla knew suddenly that the problem was too much for her. She had to talk to someone. Never had she needed advice so desperately. But who?

Mr. Whitworth would be kindly and considerate, but she knew he would urge her to accept the opportunity whether he thought it was the right thing or not.

Enid Blair! No—not Enid, she would be too thrilled to offer level-headed advice. Enid would be carried away by it all and insist that she take the chance.

Tay—carefree, ebullient Tay Whitworth—wouldn't care to explore the depth of the problem. He would be a carefree snap judgment.

That left only Neil. She wondered if she knew him well enough to go to him with a matter like this. His was a scientific, impersonal mind. No doubt he would feel at ease if she approached him.

MAKE YOUR DOLLARS FIGHT

WHEN you buy Victory Bonds you are lending money to Canada to provide weapons for the men who are doing the actual fighting.

LET us make possible, by lending our money, weapons that are equal or superior to those of the enemy... "Given equal weapons" said Mr. Churchill, "we can beat the life out of the enemy!"

OUR fighting men can do it! And we at home can help... But only if each of us does our share by lending our dollars to Canada to the very limit of our ability. That means that we must buy as many Victory Bonds as each of us can—not next month, next year, but NOW!

Come on Kootenay! We Must Do Our Part

Nelson and some other parts of Kootenay, East and West, in this Victory Loan campaign are not living up to their past reputation and performances.

In Nelson, for example, about as much has to be raised in general subscriptions during this week as has been subscribed during the first two weeks of the campaign. Otherwise Nelson will fail to reach its quota. "Special names" subscriptions are good, but general subscriptions by the public need stimulation.

It is not that the money is unavailable. Ask any banker. Bankers report that savings accounts are at a figure which would put over the loan with a bang in Kootenay, and leave huge sums in reserve.

We are in a fight for survival. If we lose this war we lose our money as well as our freedom.

A Canadian $5 bill has the security of all Canada, behind it. So has the Victory Bond. And the Victory Bond pays 3 per cent interest every year. It is always saleable. Money can, if necessary, always be borrowed against it. Canadian banks are safe, but no one could say they were safer than Victory Bonds, which are backed by all the resources of the country.

We will win this war, but we won't win it by sitting back and letting someone else bear the burden. Quite properly we demand a bigger air force, a bigger army and more tanks, a larger navy and more merchant ships. It is illogical to make that demand unless we accompany it by investing our money to help pay the cost.

AUXILIARY FIRE-FIGHTING EQUIPMENT

Should fire break out in Roseland, as it has done several times during the past year, the present personnel and equipment of our fire department would no doubt be able to take care of the situation. In other words if there is such a thing as a normal fire under normal conditions we have reason to feel a considerable sense of security.

What we may easily face in the next few months is not likely to be normal—for never was even war so terrifically abnormal as it is being waged today. Fire bombs may fall here and in Trail, not just one spot will be endangered, but the whole areas of the two cities will be showered with them.

Our present source of water supply for fire fighting is the reservoir which pours its gallons of water into the city mains. If anything happens to the mains or the hydrants it is plain to see that we would be deprived of our most essential weapon for fire-fighting—a flow of water for the fire hose.

Last week we illustrated in the Miner a suggestion for the use of the Austin pump, designed and used by the B. C. Forestry Department in forest fire fighting. Where the conventional fire-fighting apparatus of the modern city leaves off, this auxiliary equipment carries on. A water main bursts, or a fire hydrant is blown off, the Austin pump, with its suction intact, feeds on the uncontrolled runaway of water to bottle on in the emergency.

This equipment, owned by the government of British Columbia, is in the district. Experienced operators for the pump are either resident in the city or live near by. If the suggestion as to the workability of this scheme has merit, and we believe it has, then the ARP officials of Trail and Roseland should make it their business to attend to it at the earliest possible moment—Roseland Miner.

WEST INDIAN PLANNING

After the war the temptation will be to let things slide, on the pretext that after years of conflict and untold hardships everyone is entitled to a rest. This natural impulse will have to be resisted, and it is most important that the groundwork should be laid now for constructive advances after the cessation of hostilities, so that a start will be made from which further progress can logically follow. It is to be hoped, therefore, that West Indian governments will not neglect the suggestion contained in Lord Moyne's circular despatch and statement of policy sent to Colonial Administrators last year, but will begin at once to erect at least some part of the framework within which the new edifice can later take shape.

PUT THE LOAN OVER ANYWAY

We must win the war in spite of the government, and lay the foundation upon which subsequent administrations may reconstruct a solid and stable community after the war. We owe this to our fighting men now and to our children later—Mr. Haley at all events is doing his best under the most discouraging circumstances, and he deserves the public's support—Toronto Globe and Mail.

THE LEAST THAT CAN BE DONE

Let every Canadian citizen get busy and each do a small part in making the new Canadian war loan a success. This is the least that can be done by the Canadian people, who have as yet suffered very little adverse effects and discomforts from the war—The Calgary Herald.

Today's Horoscope

Those whose birthdays are on this day must guard against restlessness and dissatisfaction with their surroundings. They have great personal charm, speak well before others and are popular with those of their own sex. In the next year they should guard against giving offense to employers or those in authority through erratic conduct and extravagance. If they heed this warning they will meet with a fair measure of success and popularity. Born on this date a child will be moderately fortunate throughout life, through travel and literary activities but will hold rather unusual and unorthodox views, and may in consequence be misunderstood.

Wants Nelson to Live
Up to Its Reputation;
Save by Beating Japs

To the Editor:

Sir—May I trespass on the space in your valuable and widely read paper to help to clear up some misunderstandings and uncertainties in the minds of some of the readers in connection with second Victory Loan bonds?

As a resident of Nelson now for a considerable number of years, I have always taken pride in her patriotic spirit and generous response to calls for men and money for all patriotic and philanthropic needs. But I must admit a feeling of disappointment in the response to the Government's appeal for funds to carry on the war to its successful conclusion through the second Victory Loan.

One reason for this is, I fear, a lack of realization of the imminence of the danger which threatens this Western Province of British Columbia. We have lived here so long peacefully, that it is hard perhaps to realize the danger that may so easily come to us, and I fear there is a tendency to be complacent about the situation and to say "It can't happen here", or "well, it is George's job to look after us." Recent events show that it can happen here, and it is quite certain George cannot look after us unless we supply him with the money to provide the necessary arms and equipment. If we do not supply the funds for our own defence, we may find ourselves under the heel of the Japs, who are plainly copying the Nazi methods in which case such money and property as we may have will be taken from us. If we let our Government have the use of it now we will defeat the enemy, and when the bond matures we will receive our money back at a premium, and will receive good interest in the meantime, our investment being backed by all the resources of Canada. The bonds therefore are the soundest and safest investment we can make, and it seems to me therefore only good common sense for everyone to buy bonds to the limit as the soundest insurance for our own assets.

There is, I fear in some minds, the idea that in buying a bond the money is locked up so that it cannot be got at if required for an emergency. This is really not so, as the Government has stated, and made arrangements, that they can always be sold, and any bank will undertake to dispose of them for a customer, possibly at a very small discount, and in the meantime will advance 90 per cent of the par value, as an accommodation, the balance being paid over when the bond is sold, probably in the course of only a day or two. So the fear of not being able to get at the money need not worry anyone, and the small loss taken is probably offset by the accrued interest, and if not, is only a small contribution to the war effort, as the Government has been helped by your purchase.

I hope this may clear up any misunderstanding in the minds of some, so that they feel satisfied as to the necessity to supply the funds to the Government for our own protection, and as to the fact that the money is available at anytime. Let Nelson maintain its reputation as a loyal and patriotic City. She has given freely of her sons, and of her daughters, and we who stay at home must see to it that they are supplied with all they need to adequately do their bit to bring about the victory we all so sincerely desire.

A Master Passes

From Chicago Sun

When John Drew died, his crown as America's greatest living actor passed by common consent to Otis Skinner; there was no question or hesitation. But now that Otis Skinner has gone, who is there who would dare to claim it?

Say, if you will, that he was of the past. But has the present, with its vast ramifications of the theatre, encompassing screen, radio and television, improved on the past in that one all-important attribute—the voice? We are blessed with many competent actors, but if any of them—yes, even all of them—were to pass on tomorrow, could we, in good faith, apply to them, as we apply to Otis Skinner, those deathless words of the Odyssey:

He could, but left no pleasing on the ear. His voice that, listening still, they seemed to hear.

Otis Skinner is dead—and we thumb through scrapbooks the pages of which are powdered, through yellowed, musty programs to find a glorious company which the greatest of all American dictators has gone to join: Januszek, Mary Anderson, Lotta Crabtree, Edwin Booth, Lawrence Barrett, Modjeska, Fanny Davenport, Mr. and Mrs. Drew, James Lewis, Ada Rehan, Virginia Decker, Edith Kingdon, John Mason, Mrs. Pat Campbell, John Raymond, John McCullough—and many more.

Otis Skinner came of a long line of country clergymen—presumably born elocutionists; yet his mother almost broke the boy's heart when, at the age of 19, 64 years ago, he announced that he intended to be an actor.

"Otis," she said, "you cannot even enunciate properly."

From then on, he lived and had his being, you might say, for "proper enunciation." He came in time to give his countrymen and countrywomen a real and distinct American form of talk—not nasal, not shrill, not an English upper class imitation—but words that were smooth and clear, well rounded, clean as a freshwater stream, entrancing to the ear. Otis Skinner was an emissary—for has it not been written:

God weaves a web of loveliness,
Of clouds and stars and birds,
But made not anything at all
So beautiful as words.

YOUR VICTORY LOAN DOLLAR GOES INTO MAKING MUNITIONS FOR CANADA AND HER ALLIES

Special buses carry workers to the explosives plant at Quebec, to their homes wherever they live, within a range of 30 miles. This, the largest explosives plant in Canada, covers an area of 5,500 acres. It uses as much water as a city of 50,000 people. One-third of workers are women.

This is not cotton picking. These workers are dumping nitro-cellulose into a washing and purifying vat. Canadian chemicals and explosives enjoy a very high rating. Output is expected soon to reach 70,000,000 pounds per month.

In plant parlance, these are known as ash cans. They are some of the famous depth charges used so effectively by Canadian corvettes to sink sinking enemy submarines. Here, workmen are busy filling the brightly painted cans with TNT.

Empty smoke boat canisters about to be filled with hexachlorethane, one of the many chemicals made in Canada. Hexachlorethane makes dense smoke screens.

Packing cordite—macaroni the workers call it—in a chemicals and explosives plant in Manitoba to be sent east for cutting, bundling and wrapping.

This harmless looking material is quick-firing cordite, used as a propellant in the heavy calibre land and naval gun shells. These young women in a large Canadian explosives plant are placing cordite in specially prepared silk bags.

The upper part of this photograph is reminiscent of bakers filling pies with butterscotch. In reality, it is TNT, one of the deadliest explosives known. It is being poured into heavy shells at the rate of many thousands per day.

A giant ammonia storage sphere. Plants set up for military purposes in wartime have an output equal to Canada's entire peacetime chemical production.

Fed by the factories in the country it helps to protect, this big coastal defence gun roars a challenge out over the waters of the Pacific. The massive shells fired by such guns are entirely made from materials produced in Canadian plants. The tons of explosives now being turned out in this country are sounding a thunder on practically all the war fronts of the world. This year alone the production of explosives will equal the entire Canadian output during the whole Great War.

Bruhn Urges Jap Labor On Nelway-Nelson Road

VICTORIA, Mar. 1 (CP)—The British Columbia Department of Public Works is moving rapidly to get Japanese labor working on interior roads and highways. Public Works Minister R. W. Bruhn said Saturday.

His Department, Mr. Bruhn said, is urging Ottawa to improve, with Japanese labor, sections of the trans-Canada and Nelson-Nelway highways.

Plans have now been received from Ottawa for the camps to be constructed at the Western end of the Hope-Princeton highway and the materials were ordered at once a building of accommodation for the workers will be undertaken as quickly as the supplies are delivered.

The Nelson-Nelway highway, Mr. Bruhn said, would be a most important artery, especially since it is necessary to move heavy traffic in an emergency between the United States and the Kootenays.

VICTORIA, Mar. 1 (CP)—Japanese, whether born in Canada or not, are now in the process of being moved from strategic areas of B.C. Capt. M. C. Robinson, head of the Vancouver Citizens Defence Committee, speaking for Major Austin Taylor, Chairman of the commission for the evacuation of Japanese, said today.

"We hope there will be no untoward demonstration by the public in view of the complete cooperation of the Federal and Provincial Governments."

VANCOUVER, Mar. 1 (CP)—Royal Canadian Mounted Police said yesterday they had received instructions from Ottawa to enforce a dusk-to-dawn curfew against people of Japanese race in the Coast Defence area, and that it would go into effect immediately.

An order decreasing the curfew was made public at Ottawa yesterday but in the absence of definite instructions was not enforced by R.C.M.P. last night. Nevertheless most Japanese obeyed the restrictions and "Little Tokyo," Vancouver's "Japdown" was a miniature ghost town as its residents stayed close to home.

Gibson Wins Rossland 'Spiel'

ROSSLAND, B. C., March 1.—Murray Gibson emerged victorious Friday night in the finals of the Rossland Ladies Curling Club. Gibson, who formerly played in the Pacific Coast League, had been reinstated as an amateur. Dudley said he understood Gourlie will play with the Vernon Club in the Intermediate Section of the British Columbia Association.

A total of 28 mixed rinks participated in the Spiel, and from club room chatter it appears the experienced skips had just as much fun initiating the non-members into the mysteries of the game as the novices had in learning. Prizes will be in the form of war savings certificates and stamps, and it is understood that profits on refreshments served during the Spiel by the Rossland Ladies Curling Club are to be donated to the Red Cross.

In the quarter-finals of the primary event, H. Pollock beat Angus McLean, J. A. Wright beat B. Vermeire, K. Martin Jr. beat J. Hanson and Murray Gibson beat R. G. Boyle. In the semi-finals, H. Pollock and Gibson beat Martin.

McNaughton Says Bren Guns Best

TORONTO, Mar. 1 (CP)—Lt. Gen. A. G. I. McNaughton praised the Bren gun during a press conference yesterday after he had inspected one of the latest plants manufacturing them, the 2nd India Ltd. plant here.
"The Bren guns turned out in Canada are the best Bren guns in the world. They have been so far off in quality as to make mass production, either."

CONTRACT . . . By Shepard Barclay

DON'T GIVE BARGAINS
WHEN YOU enable the dealer to take a trick with a small card which would have been worthless to him except for your action, you are giving him a bargain. That is what happens frequently when a player leads a fourth-best card against a No Trump contract when he could have led some honor-in-sequence from a three-honor combination in the same suit. When the honor lead is made, the dealer can't possibly take the trick with a small card, but must use up an honor of his own.

He came in with the A on the spade K and then fired back the diamond 8. With the K-Q to stop the suit, the dealer took all four tricks in diamonds, four in spades, one in clubs and two in hearts by winning the heart finesse. West had made game easy for him, not only by presenting a trick to him with the spade 9, but by thus enabling him to retain positive control of the suit.

Notice the result, if West had made his correct lead of the diamond 10. To win that, South would have had to use one of his honors. Then, when he led spades, he would have had to hope that West had the A. When East bobbed up with it instead, he would have sent the diamond 8 through the dealer's last honor, and West would have captured it with his tenace. That would have given the defenders four tricks in the suit, plus the better in spades.

Plebiscite May Be Taken May 4-11

OTTAWA, Mar. 1 (CP)—Possibility was seen Saturday that the proposed manhood plebiscite would be taken May 4 or 11, following the action of the House of Commons special committee which completed study of the bill and recommended its adoption.
The committee completed its review of the bill and will report it to the House for third reading Monday.
It was estimated 30 weeks would be required after Parliament approves the bill to permit arrangements for taking the overseas and Canadian vote but it was understood efforts would be made to reduce this time.

For purposes of the Plebiscite, the Northwest Territories Administrative District of Yellowknife will be recognized as a new electoral district, permitting the 1,400 residents there to cast ballots.

Scott Secretary McPartty, Committee Chairman, said he believed much of the work connected with taking the vote would be done voluntarily at Yellowknife and the additional cost of bringing in the area would be small.

LONDON (CP)—Hairdressers have complained to the government about being left out of the reserved occupation schedule. They say hairdressing is an essential public service important in the maintenance of hygiene and morale.

Canadian Units Must Be Together Says McNaughton

By SCOTT YOUNG Canadian Press Staff Writer

TORONTO, Mar. 1 (CP)—Lt.-Gen. A. G. L. McNaughton said today the Canadian Corps overseas will not be trained extensively in the specialized methods of warfare such as Commando and Paratroop warfare because the Corps "is a force of shock troops which must be able to strike a single unified blow in any emergency."

He said the Canadians in Britain were committed to defend "the most important and most dangerous position of our wide battlefield—the citadel of Britain."

"The suggestion has been made that we attach Canadian soldiers permanently to Commando units, but I don't agree with that. We must keep the Canadian units together, for apart the men lose much of their value. We must retain the esprit de corps which has been built into the daily life of those units since the War began."

"We must guard against whitewashing our strength across too wide a field, and spreading it so far that it is seriously diminished. We must keep the entire corps available as shock troops. We must not break it up."

To the Citizens of NELSON

Our Quota	$415,000
Received to Date	$224,000
We have yet to Subscribe	$191,000

You are not asked to give but to secure your future by investing in the soundest security in Canada — Dominion of Canada
Victory Loan Bonds which bear interest at 3% payable to you every six months. At the maturity of the bond the amount invested will be returned to you in full. In the meantime should you require money the bond may be sold and you will in addition receive accrued interest to date or your bank will gladly loan you up to 90% of your investment.

Nelson and district have just over 500 on active service. If we see to it that $1000 is invested in Victory Bonds for each of these boys to provide them with the equipment they require we will have done our duty and probably saved their lives. If we fall short we will have failed. We still require $191,000 to fulfil our duty and only six days to obtain the amount.

There is no doubt the money is available in our district from accumulated savings in the banks, in your future earnings or out of your present income. All bank managers are ready and anxious to take your application or loan you the money for the purchase of a bond or you may place your application at the Victory Loan Office or give it to a Victory Loan salesman.

Nelson, which has always been regarded as the leading financial centre in the Interior, is far behind in her subscriptions as compared with other centres similarly situated and unless we act at once we will lose our proud distinction of leadership.

• Today . . . the free peoples of the world are banded together in a gigantic battle to preserve freedom. The foes of freedom are strong, well prepared, ruthless.

To defeat them we must become stronger, better prepared. The only way we can do this is to provide our fighting forces with stronger weapons, better weapons—and more of them!

That's the reason Canada is borrowing money . . . and that's the reason why you should lend your money to Canada.

So let's "beat the life out of the savage Nazis" by investing in the new Victory Bonds to the full limit of our ability.
