Brazilians Close Three Largest Axis-Owned Banks

Order Confiscation of 17 Axis Vessels; Announce Loss of American Tanker; Argentina, Peru, Uruguay Support Brazil

By HENRY W. BAGLEY
Associated Press Staff Writer

RIO DE JANEIRO, Aug. 24 (AP)—Three of the largest Axis-owned banks in Brazil, with assets of nearly $35,000,000, were closed tonight by a war-time Presidential decree which also ordered the out-right confiscation of 17 Axis vessels.

The seizure of the vessels was ordered about the time the Government announced the sinking of the American tanker Louisiana, of 5,480 tons, understood to have been operated by the Texas Company. It was carrying a cargo of oil to Rio de Janeiro.

As the country welcomed indications of South American solidarity from Argentina, Peru and Uruguay, she turned also to the job of building defences in the strategic Natal bulge and hunting down submarines along the coast.

Informed sources said the government shortly would order a gradual mobilization of the army and confiscate additional German and Italian property.

The German Trans-Atlantic bank, the German bank of South America and the French Italian bank of South America were closed and liquidators were named. A presidential decree said the wealth of the banks "which no longer have reason for existence among us" would be distributed among the shareholders, with quotas belonging to Germans or Italians living abroad subject to confiscation.

Under the order 13 Italian and four German ships totalling about 90,000 tons become outright property of Brazil. Some of the vessels already have been used as Brazilian ships with new names. The largest German vessel involved was the 16,662-ton Windhuk which was sabotaged by her own crew while interned at Santos and now is being repaired.

The Argentine cabinet approved a decree of President Ramon S. Castillo granting Brazil non-belligerent status in the two-day-old war against Germany and Italy, povoked by the Axis submarine attacks.

Peru also declared Brazil non-belligerent, a move that grants Brazilian planes, warships and other forces the same rights in war as in peace.

Neighboring Uruguay sent planes of her tiny air force to hunt two submarines reported lurking near the mouth of the broad Plate River, where the German pocket battleship Admiral Graf Spee was scuttled nearly two years ago.

An authoritative source said three submarines were sighted today off central Brazil and one was attacked, presumably by a patrol plane. But there was no word of the results.

There was no sign of Argentina's wavering from isolationist President Ramon Castillo's policy of "prudent neutrality," despite attacks on at least three of her ships. Argentine and Chile are the only South American countries maintaining relations with the Axis.

The Brazilian Foreign Ministry and various South American embassies were exceptionally active amid general reports other nations on the continent would swiftly follow Peru in naming Brazil a non-belligerent. Many informed diplomats predicted Uruguay might soon go to war and there were similar forecasts about Colombia and Venezuela.

11 Killed, Scores Injured in Peru Earthquake

LIMA, Peru, Aug. 24 (AP) — At least 11 persons were killed when an earthquake rocked Southern Peru, the tremors were reported continuing tonight.

Ten persons were killed in the town of Nazca and 50 injured. A third of the village was levelled, and rescuers toiled into the night. Power facilities were disrupted in the town, 325 miles South of here.

A telephone communication to police in Nazca suddenly was interrupted with an announcement "another quake is beginning."

A 10-year-old girl was killed in Ica, where property suffered heavily. A strong tremor, lasting about two minutes, was felt at Lima, at 5:53 p.m., but there was no damage or casualties here.

FORTRESSES HIT SHIPYARDS IN LE TRAIT RAID

BOMBERS RETURN

LONDON, Aug. 24 (CP)—The United States High Command in Britain, ignoring the protest of the Vichy Government against last Monday's raid on Rouen in occupied France, sent flying fortresses back to the vicinity to attack Nazi shipyards at Le Trait today in the fourth daylight bombing of French territory in eight days.

The big bombers, escorted by fighters of the R.A.F., R.C.A.F., the U.S. Air Force and the Polish Air Force, all reached their target on the Seine River near Rouen, and all returned to their bases as in the previous raids.

American sources said 12 of the big fortresses took part in the raid.

Two Canadian pilots, Sqdn. Ldr. Norman Bretz of Toronto, who recently took over from Sqdn. Ldr. R. E. Morrow of Ottawa, and Flt. Lt. E. Bland of Calgary, each bagged one of the two Focke-Wulf 190s shot down by the escorting planes in the terrific dogfights that developed over the target area.

Bland received a head injury during one fight but waved aside help as he crawled from the cockpit at his base.

Two Allied fighters were lost, but the Spitfire screen was so effective the Germans were unable to penetrate it during the bombardment. At one time 40 German fighters tried unsuccessfully to intercept the bombers.

A communique issued by the Air Ministry and the U.S. Army Command said the bombing was carried out at a high level, as were previous U.S. raids. There was no indication as to the results, but in the American raids on Rouen, Abbeville and Amiens such precision bombing had been extremely effective.

Canuck Anti-Aircraft Unit in Alaska

DETROIT, Aug. 24 (CP.)—More than 12 of the 450 Royal Canadian Navy ships now in service are destroyers and more than 80 are corvettes, Defence Minister Ralston told the American Bar Association in an address here tonight.

Plans for expansion this year would bring the Canadian navy's strength to 45,000 officers and men against the 40,000 at present in service, and would increase the number of ships to 5000.

Col. Ralston, speaking of Canadian-United States cooperation in the war effort, said that a Canadian army anti-aircraft unit was in Alaska to assist United States forces, as well as squadrons of the Royal Canadian Air Force.

Coast Boy Hit in Eye by Shot

VANCOUVER, Aug. 24 (CP) — Twelve-year-old Melvin Critchley, of Vancouver was resting comfortably in hospital today after a BB shot had been removed from his right eye. Only 12 days ago the boy underwent an operation on the same eye. Young Critchley was hit during a fishing expedition to False Creek Saturday, when a pellet from a gun in the hands of two youths on Kitsilano Bridge struck him.

Russ Radio Warns of Great Danger in Caucasus

LONDON, Aug. 24 (CP)—The Soviet Radio broadcast a new warning of "great danger" in the Caucasus tonight, hinting that developments might jeopardize second-front chances. The Russian publicist, Yemelyan Yaroslavsky, speaking from Moscow, said the Germans were threatening to cut off the South from the rest of Russia.

"This would have grave consequences for the entire country and for all freedom-loving humanity," he said. "It would mean a new threat to Moscow and Leningrad.

"Hitler would also become more daring in the West, throwing released forces toward that front."

Expect London to Undergo New Nazi Raids

By ALAN RANDAL
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON, Aug. 24 (CP)—The approach of Winter's long-nights period together with lessons of the R.A.F.'s new bombing technique as they are learned by Germany heighten Londoners' belief that London, long virtually raid-free, must feel the heavy weight of Nazi bombs again.

It is only to be expected that German tacticians will eventually put into practice what they learn in the explosion and fire of the R.A.F.'s inexorable hammering at Nazi target towns.

Here it is suggested that when Winter sets in on the Russian front the Germans can do either of two things. They might concentrate on putting their battle-worn air facilities back into top form for an even greater effort against Russia in the Spring or divert a considerable number of planes to the West, to Britain.

The latter appears most probable if for no other reason than to satisfy the German people with lusty blows at the home of the R.A.F., which has subjected Germany to the greatest air attacks the world has known.

And nobody realizes better than Londoners that no matter how good British defences may be the damage will be heavy.

Undoubtedly the R.A.F. will take care of a great number of raiders. The R.A.F. for instance, has percentage figures on losses which, if attained, would make them "very happy" about the number of raiders they shot down.

But since the Nazis flew in force on London last year, bombs as well as raiding strength have grown and even a comparatively few raiding planes, avoiding defences and getting to the target with these giant bombs, would be sufficient to cause untold damage.

JAPS RETREAT BEFORE CHINESE DRIVE

Main Stronghold of Invaders in Kiangsi Threatened

JAPS CUT OFF

By SPENCER MOOSA
Associated Press Staff Writer

CHUNGKING, Aug. 24 (AP.)—The recapture of Linchwan (Fuchow), second biggest Japanese base in Kiangsi province, was announced tonight by the Chinese high command, while other Chinese forces smashed to within 30 miles of Nanchang, the invaders' main Kiangsi stronghold.

The Chinese central news agency later reported the Japanese forces retreating from Linchwan had been cut off by mobile Chinese units which gained control of communications in their rear.

Eastward to the Chekiang province border the Chinese held a reganied 115-mile segment of the important Nanchang-Hangchow rail line, and on into Chekiang they pressed in new drives that menaced Japanese-held Chuhsien and Lishui, sites of air bases from which Tokyo could be bombed.

Thus in a resurgence of offensive operations, Gen. Chiang Kai-Shek's forces either invalidated or threatened the chief fruits of the Japanese Summer campaign in the two key provinces.

There was no tendency among Chinese observers, however, to attribute the new gains solely to the prowess of Chinese arms.

Private reports received here indicated the Japanese were withdrawn considrable forces from parts of the Chinese front, leaving only garrison detachments in some places.

These reports said most of the forces withdrawn from Chekiang and Kiangsi were being moved south (whence operations against South China, Australia or India might be based), and the rest north to Manchukuo (where Japanese forces face Siberia).

The Chinese had laid siege for two weeks to Linchwan, on the Fu River 60 miles Southeast of Nanchang.

The Japanese had held the city since early in June when it fell to their drive along the Fu River toward Fukien Province to the South.

JUIHUNG TOTTERING

The Chinese thrust toward Nanchang was developing around the Southern shore of Poyang lake, just east of the city. Chinese forces were reported pressing hard on Juihung, 30 miles East of Nanchang, and Chinese dispatches said the fall of Juihung was expected shortly.

Today's communique announced the recapture of Yukann, river and highway town, in this area.

Weather

Monday was a moderately warm day in Nelson, with temperature extremes of 83.6 and 56 degrees for the 24 hours ending at 5 p.m.

The lake rose over a quarter of a foot, its level at 1 p.m. Monday being 5.28 feet above the low water mark, compared with Sunday's reading of 5.00 feet.

Indian Province of Assam Regains Autonomy

LONDON, Aug. 24 (CP.) — The important Indian province of Assam on the Burma frontier returned to provincial autonomy today under a ministry formed by Sir Muhammad Sadullah, a Moslem and former chief of government whose ministry fell last December.

At that time Assam was proclaimed a "governor's province" under the government of India Act—a province administered by a British governor without aid of a native government.

In this connection the India Office announced that Indian ministries now were operating in five of the 11 provinces—more than at any time since the Congress party of Mohandas Gandhi caused the provincial ministries to resign in November, 1939, in a non-cooperation move.

Fighters Control Coast Blaze

VICTORIA, Aug. 24 (CP) —Air raid precautions workers and forestry workers, including many Mennonites brought to B.C. from the Prairie Provinces as conscientious objectors, tonight were believed to have gained control of a bush fire which swept over a 400-acre area in the Happy Valley district, 15 miles North of Victoria.

Forestry department officials said the fire had been driven back over its former limits and away from a number of farm houses which had been threatened earlier.

The blaze, the largest of five bush fires North and West of Victoria, broke out Sunday afternoon and spread quickly. Four other fires which sprang up yesterday were under control tonight.

May Organize March of Canadian Teachers on Ottawa

SASKATOON, Aug. 24 (CP) — The possibility of organizing a march on Ottawa of teachers, school trustees and others interested in education from all parts of Canada to seek Federal school aid is to be probed by Woodrow Lloyd of Biggar, President of the Saskatchewan Teachers' Federation, who returned last week from the annual convention of the Canadian Teachers Federation in Toronto.

Dieppe Casualties Listed at 536

OTTAWA, Aug. 24 (CP)— The unofficial count of the Canadian Army casualties resulting from last Wednesday's battle of Dieppe was listed at 536 early tonight with the issuance of the seventh national defence department casualty list since the raid.

Tonight's list contained the names of 17 men, one of whom had been reported previously. This, added to today's sixth list of 102 names and the previous unofficial total of 418, brings the figure up to 536, of whom 82 were killed, 330 wounded and 124 missing.

Drive 50 Miles in Caucasus Toward Grozny

By HENRY C. CASSIDY
Associated Press Staff Writer

MOSCOW, Aug. 25 (Tuesday) (AP)—German tanks and mechanized infantry were acknowledged officially today to be only 40 miles northwest of Stalingrad after crossing the Don River Bend, and in a 50-mile Caucasian advance the Nazis reached a point only 85 miles from the rich Soviet oil city of Grozny.

"Particularly stiff fighting raged against enemy tank and mechanized infantry which had crossed to the left bank of the Don" northwest of Stalingrad, a communique said early today.

The Russians also were fighting desperately against "large tank and infantry forces which had driven a wedge into our positions" northeast of Kotelnikovski, or on the southwestern approaches to the Volga industrial city of Stalingrad.

Eleven German tanks, 300 Nazis, and two companies of Rumanians were destroyed and killed in the Kotelnikovski sector, the communique said.

In the Caucasus the Germans had driven 50 miles Southeast of Mineralyne Vody on the Rostov-Baku Railway to reach Prokhladnenski, the communique said. The latter point is about the same distance Southeast of Pyatigorsk.

RETREAT AT KRASNODAR

Soviet troops also fell back South of Krasnodar in a steady retreat toward Novorossisk, Black Sea port 60 miles away. Russian rear guards took a steady toll in the withdrawal.

The crossing of the Don Northwest of Stalingrad was the most dangerous and immediate threat for all of Russia, for conquest of the Volga River city would effectively cut Soviet army communications with the Caucasus.

A vicious battle of movement swirled over this level battlefield. The lines of attacker and defender were extremely fluid; there still were many Russians on the West bank of the Don, within the great bend, and they were counter-attacking with bayonets in an attempt to pinch off the armored formations which had been ferried across the river.

Below Stalingrad, in the wheatlands Northeast of Kotelnikovski, German tanks for the second successive day pounded a wedge in the Russian lines. To combat this German Pincers, Russian tanks now had come into action.

(In Berlin, a German foreign office spokesman asserted "the great and decisive battle for Stalingrad has begun.")

In the battle for Stalingrad the Nazi tank groups which were ferried across the Don Southeast of Kle'skaya constituted the greatest menace.

PORT ARTHUR, Aug. 24 (CP)—Premier Hepburn of Ontario criticized Canada's war effort in an interview here today, declaring "the people of this Dominion are not war conscious and still feel safely sheltered behind the American Eagle and the British Lion."

Council to Talk Today on Steel Head's Proposals

OTTAWA, Aug. 24 (CP)—Prime Minister Mackenzie King has advised C. H. Millard, National Director of the United Steel Workers of America (C.I.O.), that proposals in his letter to Mr. King will be discussed tomorrow at a meeting of the Cabinet Council, The Canadian Press learned tonight.

It was learned from the Prime Minister's office that such advice has been telegraphed today to Mr. Millard at Sault Ste. Marie, where workers of the Algoma Steel Corporation plant have voted to strike if necessary to enforce demands for a basic labor wage rate of 56 cents an hour. Workers of the Dominion Steel & Coal Corporation's plant at Sydney, N.S., decided to take a similar step if necessary.

SYDNEY MINES, N.S., Aug. 24 (CP)—Operations at Nova Scotia Steel & Coal Company's Princess Colliery here were resumed today as 900 men returned to work after a five-day strike.

Company and Union officials met during the day to negotiate the dispute. Point at issue was a deduction made from a worer's pay for failing to clean a section of the mine face. The strikers claimed the deduction should have been split among about 20 men.

Pangborn Flies Giant Lancaster to Canada for Demonstration

MONTREAL, Aug. 24 (CP)— First of Britain's mighty four-engined bombers to come to this continent, a giant Avro Lancaster landed at Dorval Airport here today after a Transatlantic flight.

Fresh from the production lines of a British factory, the Lancaster was flown from England for demonstration in Canada where the latest edition of this multi-motored bomber will soon be built in quantity for the Royal Air Force.

Captain of the aircraft was Clyde Pangborn, well-known American long-distance flier. He and his crew were welcomed by Air Chief Marshal Sir Frederick Bowhill, Officer Commanding the Royal Air Force Ferry Command here.

The Lancaster delivered to Canada today carried full armament —the most formidable yet fitted in any bomber and capable of dealing with at least two enemy fighters attacking simultaneously.

Canadian version of the Lancaster will embody improvements represented in the latest model.

Pangborn's crew included G. F. Harvey, Vancouver, radio officer

The aircraft, carrying special freight, left Britain with a maximum load of more than 60,000 pounds and no attempt was made to achieve an unusually fast crossing.

Germans Lost 4000 Men in Dieppe Raid Says French Commando

LONDON, Aug. 24 (CP Cable)— The commander of the Fighting French Commandos participating in the Dieppe raid estimated today the Germans lost 4,000 men, including flying personnel. The Commander, who was identified in a statement from the Fighting French Headquarters as "a big Alsatian who before the war worked five years in a New York bank," said his estimate of the losses was "purely personal."

The Commander said the Fighting French losses, which were slight were suffered mostly before landing at Dieppe when a heavy Nazi shell exploded on one of the landing boats.

He told how the Frenchmen were exempted at their own request from the order that the troops wear steel helmets so they could exhibit to the German defenders the red pompoms on their naval caps which they wore under the battledress. They also rejected suggestions that they should remove the "France" tags from their shoulders.

"There were not many of our men on the raid, but at least they were everywhere," the Commander said. "We had groups at Varengeville, Dieppe and Barneval.

"I think our men enjoyed themselves best at Varengeville on the right flank, where a German battery was silenced and an entire Nazi garrison of 200 men killed or taken prisoner."

ALLIED PLANES WIN NEW AIR VICTORY

Kittyhawks Find New Means of Dealing With Japanese Zeros

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, Australia, Aug. 25 (Tuesday) — (CP.)—Four of a group of 13 Japanese fighter planes encountered over Eastern New Guinea were shot down by Allied airmen and others were damaged, a communique announced today.

One Allied plane was damaged, but returned to its base.

Another Japanese fighter plane was set on fire and "probably destroyed" when two Japanese craft sought to intercept an Allied reconnaissance unit over Rabaul, New Britain, the communique said.

DISPERSE PATROLS

Japanese ground patrols were dispersed at Kukoda, inland point on the Papuan peninsula of New Guinea where the invaders after landing at Buna and Gona have been attempting to strike overland toward Port Moresby.

Three Japanese planes raided Darwin Monday night unsuccessfully. On the previous night 47 Japanese planes were beaten off by brilliant Allied fighter tactics in a battle described as the greatest single air victory in the Southwest Pacific so far in the war.

The Japanese lost four of the 27 bombers and nine of the 20 Allied fighters intercepted the Japanese long before they reached the combat area and they didn't lose a machine.

Military observers saw as one of the most encouraging features of the battle the fact that the Allies' Kittyhawk planes had found effective means of dealing with the Japanese Zeros. What the new methods of combat were was not disclosed but previously the Zeros' higher ceiling, swifter climbing rate and better manoeuvrability had given them the advantage over Allied fliers.

Rossland Not to Have Health Nurse at Present

ROSSLAND, B. C., Aug. 24—Miss Viola Davis, who was to arrive over the weekend to take up her duties as Rossland's first Public Health Nurse, was given a release by the City Council Monday night at the request of Dr. F. G. Amyot, Provincial Health Officer.

Her services were urgently needed elsewhere, said Dr. Amyot in a letter to the Council asking that Rossland cooperate by releasing her. Owing to the war there was a great shortage of nurses, he explained.

City Clerk J. A. McLeod was instructed to explain in his reply that the Council was unconvinced there was any great need for a Public Health nurse in Rossland, but the City was willing to make a fair trial and let the results speak for themselves. The nurse was to have come on one year's probation.

For the present the appointment of a public health nurse is to be left in abeyance.

SOMEWHERE IN ENGLAND, Aug. 24 (CP Cable)—The story of a Canadian Army corporal who "gatecrashed" the Dieppe raid and returned, only to die as the result of a road accident the following day was told at an inquest in a South coast town.

The soldier was Cpl. Victor Samuel Allen, 21, of Fairport, Ont., a former customs clerk. It was stated at the inquest that he joined the Dieppe raid by posing as a member of a field ambulance unit and took part in the heavy street fighting, escaping unscathed.

Some time later he was a messenger in an Army vehicle with other Canadians. The machine overturned and Allen received fatal injuries.

A verdict of accidental death was returned.

Reno Profit in Half Year Totals $63,706

SPOKANE, Wash. — Although the Reno Gold mine at Sheep Creek was operated only 5½ months of the period before being permanently closed, the net profit before write-offs in the year ended April 30, 1942 was $63,706. In addition Central Zeballos realized for Reno a net profit before write-offs of $24,222.

After $41,432 had been written off the Reno operation and $35,996 off the Central Zeballos operation and after allowing $19,039 for loss on the Hixon Quesnelle placer operations, a loss of $8538 was carried to the balance sheet for the year.

CLAIMS BEING SOLD

An interesting point of the statement is that net current issues, after allowing for $376,000 paid to shareholders as a capital distribution March 12, 1942, amounted to $118,527. Net current assets at April 30, 1941, were $393,599. Under agreement, 21 claims of Reno Mine property in the Sheep Creek camp are being sold for a total price of $25,000 and machinery and equipment is being sold at excellent prices, the report states.

Central Zeballos is shut down, but its No. 5 and No. 6 levels are being partly explored to indicate the behavior of the ore below the No. 4 level and thus determine the extent to which this property might be operated in more opportune times.

FIT CHURCHILL RETURNS TO WAR DUTIES

I Am Refreshed, Not Tired, He Tells Crowd of Admirers

WEARS "DISGUISE"

LONDON, Aug. 24 (CP Cable)—Prime Minister Churchill returned to London tonight from his historic Moscow conference with Premier Stalin.

Wearing the uniform of an air commodore, which he jokingly refered to as a "disguise," Mr. Churchill was accompanied home by Gen. Sir Alan Brooke, Chief of the Imperial General staff, Sir Alexander Cadogan, permanent Under-Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, Sir Charles Wilson, his physician, and W. Averell Harriman, who represented President Roosevelt at the Moscow conference.

Mr. Churchill's plane made a perfect landing on a ferry command airdrome as flares lighted a path. Looking fit and carrying a walking stick, the Prime Minister quickly climbed down the ladder and affectionately greeted his wife and son, Capt. Randolph Churchill.

A special train brought the Prime Minister and his party to London where he was welcomed by a large group which included members of the Cabinet, Ivan Maisky, Russian Ambassador, Lord Louis Mountbatten, Chief of the Commandos, John Winant, American Ambassador, Dominions' representatives and Senior Officers of the Naval, Army and Air Staffs.

Brendan Bracken, Prime Minister of Information and Mr. Churhill's former secretary, jumped onto the train, followed by the Prime Minister's daughters, Diana and Sarah, the latter attired in the uniform of the Women's Auxiliary Air Force.

A moment later Mr. Churchill, smiling broadly and smoking a big black cigar, appeared in the carriage doorway. Three rows of medals adorned his air commodore's uniform. He had a hearty word for all there to meet him.

The cry of a woman somewhere in the rear of the crowd for "three cheers for Winston" was swiftly taken up. Another woman asked him if he were tired after the long journey. "Tired", the Prime Minister replied. "Why should I be tired? I have been refreshed."

Huns Claim 17 Ships Sunk in Atlantic and Caribbean Sea

BERLIN, Aug. 24 (AP)—The German High Command claimed today that German submarines sank 17 merchant ships totalling 107,000 tons in the Eastern and Western Atlantic and the Caribbean. In addition, a communique reported, the Axis raiders destroyed a sailing vessel and scored torpedo hits on two other Allied vessels.

(The announcement did not specify the period in which the reported sinkings took place, thus making any comparison with Allied reports of losses impossible.)

Young Canadian Ace Wins Bar to Medal

VALETTA, Malta, Aug. 24 (CP Cable)—Sgt. George F. Buerling of Montreal has been awarded a bar to the Distinguished Flying Medal, it was announced today. He shot down his 18th German aircraft last week.

Newest of Canada's fighter aces, the 20-year-old flier, who builds model aircraft in his spare time, explaining the trick in air fighting "is to go straight for your man, anticipate his moves, shoot fast and straight, and always remember there is sure to be another on your tail."

ROMMEL MAY LAUNCH NEW OFFENSIVE

Hurricane of Death Promised by Rome Radio

U.S. PLANES BUSY

By NOLAND NORGAARD
Associated Press Staff Writer

LONDON, Aug. 24 (AP)—Increased air activity over the Egyptian desert and continued Axis efforts to get convoys across the Mediterranean led tonight to renewed speculation over the possibility of another offensive by Field Marshal Erwin Rommel.

The Italians have repeatedly intimated the present lull in the desert fighting will end soon. Today the Rome radio said "a hurricane of death may be unleashed any moment."

British Military critics expressed belief that Rommel, now bivouacked 80 miles West of Alexandria along the desert coast, has managed to get substantial reinforcements. Persistent Allied bombing of his supply lines may, however, prevent him from gathering full strength for his favorite strategem of attacking just at the time British forces are preparing to take the initiative.

Over the weekend United States army planes were active in the desert area while R.A.F. bombers blasted Tobruk, Rommel's Libyan supply base, and destroyed one enemy transport plane near Derna. A medium-sized Axis supply ship which has been bombed and stopped by an R.A.F. raider was sunk by a British submarine.

On the British side, it appeared doubtful whether Gen. Sir Harold Alexander, the New Middle East Commanding Officer, has had time to make final plans for an offensive, even if adequate armored equipment and transport are available.

The worst of the Summer weather is over now in the desert, however, and fighting conditions should improve steadily in the next several weeks.

There has been wide discussion here of the possibility that a new Nazi thrust might be timed to coincide with the supreme German push into the Caucasus.

Labor Congress Opposes Gov't Action in Giving Industrialists Authority

WINNIPEG, Aug. 24 (CP)— The 58th annual convention of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada today endorsed a resolution opposing the action of the Federal government in transferring authority to large industrialists and millionaires whose past has been one of hostility to labor and whose present power is a menace to Canadian democracy."

The resolution was submitted by the Vancouver, New Westminster and district Trades and Labor Council at the convention's first business session.

The convention passed unanimously a resolution submitted by the Vancouver Lodge No. 58 of railway carmen, urging the congress to use all its power and influence to secure the release of all anti-fascists, "providing they are not guilty of any criminal offence or infraction of the law, in order that we may unite our forces for an all out war against our enemies."

A further approved resolution, dealing with interned anti-fascists and trade union bodies, requested the Federal Government to provide "increased facilities by the Department of Justice to have these cases dealt with in a speedy and expeditious manner, thereby removing the cause for any injustice and strengthen the unity and morale for the winning of the war."

Canadians Must Give Up Lives Labor Men Told by Mitchell

WINNIPEG, Aug. 24 (CP)—Hon. Humphrey Mitchell, Federal Minister of Labor, tonight told more than 700 persons attending a banquet of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada that "to provide guns and tanks is not all that is necessary" to win the war. "You and I must give life itself."

He said "if some kid in an airplane . . . is willing to sacrifice his life that we should live, is it too much to ask that we older people, if necessary, burn out our flame on the altar of service to our country?"

There is no use building guns, tanks and airplanes, he added, unless we have ships to carry those machines to the front where they are needed.

Only Surface Ships Can Get Tons of Supplies to Men

WILMINGTON, Calif., Aug. 24 (AP)—Rear Admiral J. W. S. Dorling of the British Admiralty Supply Division declared today that only surface ships can get the millions of tons supplies that they need to United Nations soldiers.

"Although cargo planes are good and they can make deliveries to points inaccessible to surface ships," he said in an interview, "they can not be relied upon to deliver the vast tonnage needed to win a war.

"A combination of mines, escort ships and planes would reduce ship sinkings to nearly nothing."

Canadians Speak With Awe of Main Beach at Dieppe

BY ROSS MUNRO
Canadian Press War Correspondent

SOMEWHERE IN ENGLAND, Aug. 24 (CP Cable)—They speak with awe in Canadian Army camps of the "main beach at Dieppe" where three Canadian infantry battalions, tankmen, engineers and provost fought the longest sustained action of the raid on the old French town.

The battle of the beach was the main Canadian attack—boldly directed at the town itself. From the stories told by the men who came back this general picture has been pieced together.

The Essex Scottish landed about 5:20 a. m. on the Eastern half of the mile-long gravel and shale beach, 75 yards wide.

The Royal Hamilton Light Infantry went in at the same time on the Western half with the Calgary Tank Battalion, provost and sappers. Les Fusiliers Mont Royal landed later as reserve.

Halfway up the beach, stretched across the Canadians' path was barbed wire. The attackers faced a thick German fire pouring from a row of buildings looking to the beach across the broad promenade edge which was supported by a strong seawall.

The defenders had field guns and the row of buildings they occupied bristled with machine guns and trench mortars.

The R.A.F. and the Navy plastered Dieppe for half an hour before the Canadians swept in from small troop-carrying craft and bigger tank-landing boats.

The first wave of Canadians met blistering machine-gun fire and mortar fire as they swept up the beach, cut their way through barbed wire and then went on again to take cover behind the seawall, 10 feet high at the Eastern end and lowering gradually to two feet at the Western extremity.

In 10 minutes the long wall was lined with troops of the Essex Scottish and the Royal Hamilton Light Infantry. Some tanks had been landed by then but were having preliminary difficulty in getting a solid hold for their treads on the shale.

Heavy shelling and a torrent of small-arms fire prevented some of the troops from debarking from the tank-landing craft. German fire from the buildings along the promenade was strongly supported by Nazi artillery and machine-gun posts looking down from the tall headlands which rise up on either side.

The Hamilton attalion drove forward in force and finally captured the Dieppe Casino, a group of buildings at the Western end of the beach. Taking the Casino which was filled with German troops was one of the features of the main beach operation.

The Hamilton Battalion drove for the Casino into the town Capt. Denny Whitaker, former Hamilton Tiger football quarterback, led one detachment well into Dieppe proper and engaged in a terrific street engagement. There was hand-to-hand combat and at times the Canadians plowed into the Germans with bayonets. Whitaker was among the men who got back.

One of the Hamilton detachments battling in the streets reached the post office near the heart of the town despite exposure to Nazi snipers who were peppering away from rooftops and windows.

A number of Essex Scottish also are believed to have broken into Dieppe and fought around the edge of the harbor. Members of Les Fusiliers Mont Royal who came back say a number of these tough French-Canadians smashed right through Dieppe to Basin du Canada which is well back in the harbor. Their route took them clean through the town.

Street fighting is said to have gone on practically all over Dieppe amid ruined and blazing buildings which had been pounded by the R.A.F. and the Navy.

"German dead lay all over some of the streets," said Pte. Liss of Hamilton. "Snipers really were the worst menace. But our officers were cool as ice and we fought a rearguard action out of the town during the withdrawal."

Despite the heavy, unexpected German opposition in Dieppe itself, the Canadians fought with such gallantry the Nazis never could take the offensive and counter attack on the beaches. The enemy was forced to remain hidden in their buildings and harry the raiders from those vantage points.

The battle of the seawall was one of the grimmest of the entire operation.

Belgian Squadron Downed 6 Planes at Dieppe

OTTAWA, Aug. 24 (CP)—A spokesman for the Belgian Legation here said today the Legation had received word that a Belgian squadron operating with the Royal Air Force over Dieppe in the huge combined operations raid last Wednesday had shot down six German airplanes, probably destroyed, four others, and damaged another 11.

Vichy Protests U.S. Raid on Nazi Held Rouen

VICHY, Aug. 24 (AP)—The Vichy French Government has protested to the United States against the United States Army Air Forces' raid of last Monday on Rouen, it was disclosed tonight.

The protest was interpreted here as meaning that Pierre Laval's pro-Axis regime takes the attitude that all installations in occupied France not actually of a German military nature remain under protection of the Vichy Government.

Since the United States maintains diplomatic relations with Vichy, the Government adopted the position that the United States has no right to make assaults on regions under its protection, whether under German occupation or not.

Former Trade Commissioner to Hong Kong Reunited With Wife Enroute Home Writes Daughter at Cranbrook

CRANBROOK, B. C., Aug. 24 (CP)—Paul MacLane, former Canadian Trade Commissioner in Hong Kong, who with Mrs. MacLane will arrive in New York tomorrow aboard the liner Gripsholm which is bringing Canadian and United States nationals from the Far East, made the first leg of the journey to Lourenco Marques, in Portuguese East Africa, ignorant of the whereabouts of his wife.

In letters received by their 10-year-old daughter Margaret, who lives here with her aunt, Mrs. E. B. Paterson, Mr. and Mrs. MacLane told how he had been interned in Hong Kong and she in Manila. They were evacuated on separate ships which travelled half a mile apart to Lourenco Marques.

Mr. MacLane, who will proceed to Ottawa immediately after his arrival at New York, said he had lost so much weight during internment his friends did not recognize him. The letters were mailed from Brazil.

Little Plans to Set Up Manpower Advisory Committee to Adjust Hardrock Mining Industry

WINNIPEG, Aug. 24 (CP)—E. G. Little, Director of National Selective Service, announced here today preliminary steps have been taken towards setting up a manpower advisory committee in the hardrock mining industry, covering both gold and base metals.

Mr. Little, here from Ottawa to address the annual convention of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada tomorrow, said the first such advisory committee is already functioning in the pulp and paper industry.

In a statement, Mr. Little said that through committees composed half of management and half of labor, his department is endeavoring to arrange adjustments necessitated by the war without unnecessary hardship or injustice.

"In the pulp and paper industry, for example, less hardship may result from partially shutting down each plant than from shutting down entirely and allowing others to operate fully. The objective should be to slacken down gradually as essential war work is taken to each plant or at least into the immediate vicinity so that no man-hours will be lost and little hardship result.

"In the gold mines, a gradual reduction of operations generally would seem called for but the timing and speed of that reduction will have to be rigidly controlled. As other work becomes available, it will be desirable to divert a substantial percentage of men now engaged in the gold mines. Since these men are experienced hardrock miners and since our production of base metals such as copper needs expansion, it would seem only sensible to divert a certain number of men gradually from gold to base metal mining—"

Plan to Double Bren Gun Output and Quadruple Sten Machine Carbines

OTTAWA, Aug. 24 (CP)—Munitions Minister Howe anounced today facilities now are being provided to double production of Bren guns in Canada and that production of Sten machine carbines is being quadrupled.

Capacity output under the expanded Bren gun program, amounting to several thousand units per month, is expected to be attained between December, 1942, and March, 1943. Planned capacity output of Sten machine carbines utimately will equal that of the Bren gun, said the announcement, issued by the Munitions and Supply Department.

The announcement added that the new Browning tank type machine-gun now is in production, together with a 100-round Bren gun magazine, a 90-millimetre anti-aircraft gun barrel, and a 4.5-inch anti-aircraft gun carriage. By September, Lee-Enfield rifles will be rolling out at a rate of many hundreds a day.

Amplifying the announcement, Mr. Howe said: "Three years ago the manufacture of guns was virtually unknown to Canada. Only the Ross rifle was turned out during the First Great War, but today Canadian guns are in service on most battle-fronts."

The announcement continued: "Some of the guns, mountings, carriages, barrels, and small arms now being produced in Canada are as follows:

25-pounder field guns, with equipment, trailer and tractors; Bofors anti-aircraft gun barrels; Bofors anti-aircraft guns, mountings, equipment and predictors; 90 millimetre anti-aircraft barrels; 3.7-inch anti-aircraft gun barrels; 3.7-inch anti-aircraft guns complete with equipment; tank guns and mountings, 2 types; anti-tank guns, 2 types; anti-tank gun carriages, 4.5-inch anti-aircraft gun carriages; 2-inch trench mortars; 3-inch trench mortars.

"Bren guns; 100-round Bren gun magazines; Browning aircraft machine guns; Browning tank type machine guns; Lee-Enfield rifles; safety fuze pistols; 12-pounder naval guns; 4-inch naval guns; naval gun mountings, 9 types; depth charge throwers; 4-inch smoke dischargers; Sten machine carbines, Boys anti-tank rifles; bomb throwers; naval pompoms.

"In addition, work is in progress, and in most instances far advanced, leading to the production of the following:

"Vickers naval guns; 4-inch naval guns, second type; naval mountings, three types; secret equipment and weapons of various types; gun carriages, two types."

LONDON, Aug. 24 (CP Cable)—The Germans paid high tribute to Canada's fighting men when a speaker on the Nazi-controlled Paris radio Sunday said of the Dieppe raid, "the Canadians are endowed with magnificent courage," a Reuters dispatch received here today reported.

Said the announcer, "the first thing that emerges from the Dieppe fighting is the stubbornness of the Canadian soldier . . . One has the impression these men clung to the soil and fought to the last cartridge."

Slight damage was caused but there were casualties, an authoritative statement said.

Board Warns Action Will Be Taken to Stop Spreading of Mischievous Stories on Rationing

OTAWA, Aug. 24 (CP)— The Wartime Prices and Trade Board figuratively took off the kid gloves today and in a bluntly-worded statement warned that action will be taken against persons spreading false rumors of prospective rationing.

Asserting "we can give positive assurance that no critical shortage of any essential of life is in sight," Board Chairman Donald Gordon characterized the false reports as "definitely subversive, often causing runs on existing supplies and needlessly complicating the difficult task of equitable distribution."

"Such rumors, he said, "are often inspired by people who hope to obtain advantage out of them, and unthinking persons spread them without realizing the damage they are doing.

"Anyone who rushes around trying to acquire a hoard of this or that may be rated, in my opinion, as a fifth-rate citizen. I am sure no right-thinking Canadian seriously means to let greed over-rule his decent instincts.

"It is the duty of all citizens in this period of emergency to act honorably and to refrain from trying to steal an advantage over others."

In future, the Board would decline comment on any rumors of rationing and would bend every effort to punish those responsible for spreading "these mischievous stories."

Mr. Gordon did not mention any specific cimmodities which had been reported from various sources—and vigorously denied by the Board—that soap, butter and clothing would be placed on the ration list, along with sugar, tea and coffee.

Mitchell Says Tom Moore Has Given Most Help to Labor Movement

WINNIPEG, Aug. 24 (CP)—Labor Minister Humphrey Mitchell today told delegates to the 58th Annual convention of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada that their President, Tom Moore of Ottawa, "had made the greatest contribution of any single human being in this country" to the labor movement of Canada.

Accompanied by Elliott M. Little, Director of National Selective Service, Mr. Mitchell arrived by train more than an hour late and spoke only five minutes to the conventions' opening session.

Just prior to Mr. Mitchell's address, Mayor John Queen of Winnipeg told delegates that the Federal Government had "retarded production by ignoring the forces of labor movements by putting the direction of the war into the hands of dollar-a-year men."

Labor should be given an equal participation of production boards, Mayor Queen said. He said he does not believe corporation men who "only look after the balance sheet are men to be put into the direction of the war effort."

Mr. Mitchell, said "my good friend Mr. Little, a dollar-a-year man, will speak tomorrow," and added that he hoped the Director of National Selective Service was not included among dollar-a-year men who were not making a contribution to the war effort.

In reference to production and manpower in Canada Mr. Mitchell said "we cannot tolerate either idle men or idle machines."

Channel Guns Go Into Action

FOLKESTONE, Aug. 24 (CP)—British and German long-range guns mounted on either side of the English Channel exchanged fire across Dover Strait in the half light of dawn today and out in the strait the firing of machine guns could be heard.

The German guns on the coast of France opened the cannonading but the British guns were quick to reply and the exchange stopped suddenly.

(Sporadic outbreaks of firing by cross-channel batteries usually have marked the slipping of a convoy through the channel by one side or the other.)

Calls for Action From Peoples of U. S. and Canada

DETROIT, Aug. 24 (AP)—Attorney General Francis J. Bidle today called upon the peoples of Canada and the United States to brush away the "hesitations, distrust and jealousies," that he said were delaying the ultimate victory of the Democracies.

"The legions of the enemy march still as conquerors—in Russia, on the Mediterranean, in Asia," Biddle said.

"Time presses, and still they march. We have made our excuses, said we were unprepared, said that Democrats move slowly.

"Do Democracies move slowly to their death?" he asked.

He admonished the barristers to find words "to sting our hearts with action," and admitted the Canadians are in less need of such inspiration to fight than the people of this Nation.

SERIAL STORY . . . . . By ADELAIDE HUMPHRIES

YOU ARE THE ONE

CHAPTER 57

Tibby got up from the table. She had managed a swallow or two of her coffee. She wore her uniform. She had a flight schedule this morning. She was glad she had to leave in order to be on time. "Steena is right", she said to Marg. "She had told me about herself and Tommy." Steena had been fairer than Tibby, for Tibby had not told Steena about Wayne. She was thankful she had bound Marg to secrecy in telling her, or goodness knows what Marg would have said next. "Please tell Tommy for me that I congratulate him," she added, in what she hoped was a hearty tone of voice.

She still felt that shock, the way a person must feel when a bomb explodes close by, as if it simply could not have happened—not so close to him. It left her feeling the same, too, numbed, dazed, without actual feeling, really, so that even her legs felt wooden and stiff as she left the room.

Of course she would get over it, just as a person gets over everything. When you got used to a thing, even exploding bombs, you accepted them as reality.

She did think though, that Tommy, because of their having been childhood sweethearts as Marg had pointed out, might have said something to her, instead of leaving it up to Steena. He could have spared her that shock of seeing it in black and white. Tibby did not stop to realize, again that she was being feminely inconsistent. She had not said anything to Tommy about Wayne, either. There was that ring, hidden away in her dresser drawer. It certainly was as authentic, to quote Marg once more as an announcement in the papers, or at least it would be when she started wearing it.

She had tried it on, because she knew that Wayne was expected back today or tomorrow. It had been too large, but instead of worrying Tibby, that had consoled her. Now she had a legitimate excuse for not obeying the instructions in the accompanuying note; to put it on and wear it right away. She might have tried wrapping string around it to make it fit. She had done that once on an old signet ring that Tommy had given her when they had been in high school, but string did not go with a magnificent pearl. Tibby had worn the signet ring, fixed that way, for four long years. Then, during one of their many quarrels, she had yanked it off and thrown it at Tommy. It had rolled underneath something and she had never been able to find it, although she had looked and looked.

And now Tommy was engaged to someone else. He would get Steena an engagement ring, she supposed. He had managed, although Tibby had got engaged first, to show the world he was over his first love by making a public announcement that he was going to marry his new one, without even a decent interval between. He never would know that Tibby had got herself engaged to someone else first. That would have helped her pride a little bit, somehow, for there was no use denying that her pride was hurt.

At least Tibby supposed it was pride that smarted so, that felt like a huge weight within her breast. If Steena had not said she KNEW that Tommy was going to ask her to marry him, Tibby would not have come to her decision so quickly to give Wayne the answer he wanted. She had to acknowledge that now. She knew now that that had been a sort of retribution on her part—to even matters with Tommy Dare. She was ashamed of it—it had not been very fair to Wayne—but it was true.

Now that she had told Wayne she would marry him and now that it was an established, authentic fact that Tommy was going to marry Steena, everything was settled. Everything, therefore, should have been all right, just dandy, in fact.

However, it seemed more mixed up than before. Tibby was not sure she loved Wayne. She was not sure that Steena would make the right kind of a wife for Tommy. She was not certain that Tommy had not been influenced by Steena's beauty and cleverness and all the rest. Or that Wayne, when you came to him, would be getting the sort of wife he should have either.

Love certainly was a mess, as she had reflected before this, although not so bitterly. You never knew where it would take you, what it would lead to. The best way, she guessed was to just drift along, without wondering or worrying.

When she reached the field there was a request from Wayne for her to come to his office before she left on her flight. So he was back; her respite was over. She wondered what was so imperative that he had sent for her in the midst of his busy routine. Of course, it might just be his desire to see her after these few days' absence.

Taking Up Slack In Chinline

By IDA JEAN KAIN

When a screen star has her face lifted, she doesn't tell the world about it. But you can usually spot the good word by the change in her chin-line. Suddenly all the droop is gone and it is much lovelier.

If you have the determination, however, you can do a lot to avert this tendency to sagging. Your throat column is seven-eighths muscle and the trouble is mainly the lack of any exercise.

But before going on with our chin callisthenics, let's talk about cream. Don't expect to nourish the tissues. It won't. But it will lubricate the skin so that lines don't form so easily.

In massaging apply cream heavily to the hands and throat and work from the base of the throat upward. Place back of fingers about where the dimple in the throat is and "walk" the fingers up. Use the first and second joints of the fingers, just under the chin, knead deeply but gently, then separate hands and work outward along the jawline.

Leave on a film of cream and go into your exercises.

Tip your head backward, open your mouth in an oval and, resisting strongly with the muscles of the lower jaw, slowly close your mouth. Do this three times. Then let the tension ebb out of the muscles.

Now, poke your lower jaw forward in an exaggerated pout and hold it while you stretch your neck and slowly circle head until chin points over the shoulder, tip head back, and point chin hard over other shoulder, then face front, chin level. Do this slowly two more times and relax.

Finish with this difficult exercise. Cup your chin in both hands with fingers pointing up along jawline. Now push with hands and resist with chin as you slowly force head back. Reverse it—Relax the muscles slowly and repeat three times.

After you have exercised, remove all trace of the cream and pat chin and throat with a pad of cotton that has been dipped in ice water. Then splash the cold water over your face and throat.

All these measures are wasted unless you watch your head carriage. Keep your head up and your chin level Make a habit of lovely head carriage.

Vaccines Check Five Diseases

By LOGAN CLENDENING M. D.

In the list of preventable contagious diseases which I printed this week there were five diseases mentioned—whooping cough, diptheria, scarlet fever, smallpox and typhoid. Whooping cough is only about 90 per cent preventable, but is such a dangerous disease in infancy that a vaccine should be used.

For scarlet fever prevention I am not such a crusading advocate as I am for the others. In the first place scarlet fever is not very contagious—only about one-fiftieth as contagious as, let us say, measles.

For those two old murderous villains, typhoid fever and smallpox, however, the order is still imperative.

Although we have been giving smallpox vaccination for 150 years and in countries were vaccination is universal and compulsory smallpox has been practically exterminated, there are still about 10,000 cases yearly in the United States. Only 10 states have compulsory vaccination laws for smallpox. Our record is an enviable contrast with the 11 cases and no deaths recorded in the Dominion of Canada.

SECOND VACCINATION

As to the duration of smallpox immunity, about which many people write me, note that in the chart it is recommended that smallpox vaccination be given at about the age of nine months and then repeated at 6 years. It was found by Lay and Husband, working among college students, that those who had only one vaccination showed a susceptible reaction in a certain percentage of cases while those who had two vaccinations showed none.

Typhoid fever vaccination is also an imperative.

There are, incidentally, a number of other successful vaccinations, but they are not necessary for school children in a temperate climate. For the forces of the Army and Navy, however, tetanus (lockjaw) and yellow fever are regularly used, and typhus immunization is a possibility.

Homing pigeons have returned to their lofts from distances as great as 2,000 miles.

Need of Play Is Greater During Wartime

By GARRY C. MYERS, Ph.D.

Right now, more than ever before, young children, youths, even adults need more opportunities for recreation, especially of the sort which does not require transportation. There should be many more playgrounds for tots and older children, and wholesome places for teen-age boys and girls to have good times together.

Many parents could do much for their runabout children if they would take them to play places and train these children to play in the near-by safe places right in the block. Often children will play in dangerous streets with a good playground or play space half a block away.

HELPS FROM FATHERS

With less opportunity to get away from home, many young fathers can get out and play ball with the gang of the block or knock out "flies" for the boys and girls to catch.

I wish more dads might grow interested in Cubbing right now.

It isn't easy to stimulate constructive and creative amusement among children who have learned to be destructive. Nevertheless, as I have said before in this column, all creative and constructive play is the very opposite of destruction and therefore tends to cultivate good character and citizenship.

Q. Should boys as well as girls wash dishes and help about the house.

A. Of course; but to have this happen with success the father will need to believe in it and cooperate. Father should also help occasionally.

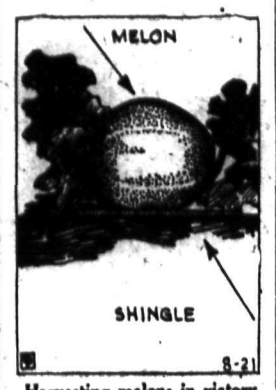
Place a Board Under Melons

By DEAN HALLIDAY

It is difficult for many amateur gardeners to know just when their melons are ripe. The one guide is that the stem parts readily from the vine, also the bright green color changes or tones down to gray.



Harvesting melons in victory gardens

As illustrated, placing a shingle or piece of board under the melons lessens the chance of decay and helps to prevent the wireworms from eating into the skin.

Melons are a tender crop and should be gathered before danger of the first killing frost. Turn them bottom side up to dry and clean off any dirt sticking to them. Then store in straw or leaves in a dark cool place, using them as they ripen. Some gardeners cut them leaving a section of the vine attached and hang them in a sunny window to ripen.

Is YOURS a "high tension" Job?

"YOU HAVE TO BE ON YOUR TOES in a radio control room. Putting programs on the air is tense, tiring work, but not much exercise. I don't dare let myself feel logy and careless, so I keep fit. This is my formula: I steer clear of harsh cathartics. Instead I make sure of getting plenty of needed 'bulk' in my diet. I start every morning with a big bowl of crisp, appetizing Kellogg's Bran Flakes."

KEEP FIT WITH KELLOGG'S every day in the year!

Kellogg's BRAN FLAKES

Don't let yourself feel "careless"

When you're feeling tired, listless, "below par," you're liable to get careless, make costly mistakes. Such symptoms are often the result of incomplete elimination. So if you have a "high tension" job that gives you little chance for exercise, take these two steps to health: (1) To get well, see your doctor; (2) To keep well, watch your habits! Make sure you keep food wastes moving promptly. But avoid harsh cathartics! Instead, get plenty of needed "bulk" in your diet. Start every morning with a bowlful of crisp, mellow-flavoured Kellogg's Bran Flakes With Other Parts Of Wheat. Gently laxative, they help supply valuable minerals and proteins too. And Kellogg's Bran Flakes are so good, so downright delicious you'll want to make them a daily habit. Try them tomorrow morning. Ask your grocer for the golden-yellow package. It comes in two convenient sizes. In restaurants, order the individual package with the inner, WAXTITE, sealed bag. Made by Kellogg's in London, Canada.

LIGHTING & BLACK-OUT REGULATIONS

TAKE NOTICE that the following additions have been made to the Lighting and Black-out Regulations:—

I, the undersigned, Premier of the Province of British Columbia, pursuant to authority granted to me by the Minister of Pensions and National Health under Article 35 of the Defence of Canada Regulations, do hereby amend the lighting and black-out regulations made by me on the 24th day of April, 1942, by inserting therein the following as Regulation 22A, namely:—

"22A. During a black-out (Precautionary or Imminent Danger) no person shall in the area in which the black-out is in force sound any siren, whistle or similar instrument unless he has authority so to do under these regulations."

DATED at Victoria, B. C., this 10th day of August, A.D., 1942.

(Signed) JOHN HART,
Premier of British Columbia.

BY VIRTUE of authority vested in me by the orders relating to black-outs within the Province of British Columbia made by the Premier of British Columbia on the 24th day of April, 1942, I hereby make the following regulations:—

1. No person shall operate any bicycle during any Precautionary Black-out unless such bicycle is equipped with a lighted front lamp which is completely blacked out with the exception of a horizontal slit one and one-half inches in length and one-quarter inch in width located in the centre of the front glass on the lamp and unless the light rays are directed downwards.

2. If, during any black-out, any local condition renders the use of a flashlight imperative, a flashlight may be used; but no person shall make use of a flashlight unless he has first satisfied himself that he cannot dispense with its use and unless the flashlight has been dimmed by at least one thickness of newspaper print or material having the same effect and he shall at all times direct the light downwards.

3. An exemption from the black-out requirements is hereby granted in respect of any automobile or motor-cycle that is operated by a member of any of the Defence Forces to whom permission to operate such automobile or motor-cycle during a black-out has been granted by authority of the General Officer Commanding in Chief, Pacific Command, provided such automobile or motor-cycle is equipped and operated in the manner specified in the permission.

Due for Wing-Clipping

There is a gentleman in the United States who, judging by the attention the American papers and magazines are paying to him just now, is extremely likely to have his wings clipped.

A few days ago, newspapers contained pictures of a noted American male singer who was fined $500 by Petrillo, the czar of the musicians organization, for singing the American national anthem at a fair or meet of some sort, without having obtained a permit from the union to do so.

Army and navy bands have been banned from concert appearances by Petrillo.

Juvenile music has been almost banished.

Petrillo is seeking to legislate "canned music" out of existence.

An anger has been welling up against this organization and this man that may result in some wing-clipping by Congress.

A sample of the feeling about this business is the following editorial comment by the Spokane Spokesman-Review in last Friday's issue:

"J. CAESAR PETRILLO IS QUITE A GUY

"This fellow, James Caesar Petrillo, is quite a guy. He is the big boss of music in the U.S.A. At his command music goes on or off the air. A word from him and no band dare play the national anthem at a patriotic rally. No music for the public unless he consents.

"He's bigger than the organized musicians of the nation. He's bigger than the broadcasting chains. He even acted as though he were bigger than Uncle Sam.

"When the Spokane War Savings Committee came to plan a War Bond rally they were amazed to find that no band could be had without Petrillo's nod. No local band or visiting circus band dared play unless permission came from music's Caesar.

"Quaintly fantastic fact it is that, in this "land of the free and home of the brave," no martial air or patriotic hymn may stir the souls of men unless and until we bow down to Caesar, make the prescribed obeisance to his power and beg his gracious condescension.

"These rites performed, mighty Caesar smiles, if the mood is on him, and gives his royal assent. And so it is that, appeal having been made, there will be band music at the Spokane War Bond rally.

"Yes, this fellow, James Caesar Petrillo, is quite a guy."

Today's Horoscope

The person who has a birthday today has a strong, forceful personality. Such a one has good ideas and the judgment to execute them efficiently. He or she has deep feelings but does not show them; a flexible nature and fastidious tastes; is slow in liking people, and will make an early marriage or none. In the next year this person should refuse to be drawn into conflict with elders and those in authority, and should also avoid erratic changes. If these warnings are heeded some good fortune will be experienced. Born on this date, a child will be liable to unexpected obstacles and reversals in business. Strangers and old people will prove trying, but young people will be the reverse.

Test Yourself

1. Who invented false teeth?
2. Can you tell when a mustache caused a workers' strike?
3. Can you fill in the blank in the following quotation: "Eat —— they feed themselves"?

TEST ANSWERS

1. The ancient Hebrews, who made them of wood, iron and gold for decorative purposes. Not until the 17th century were false teeth made so they could be used for eating.
2. In Paris, in 1907, when waiters struck against the civil law forbidding them to wear mustaches, and won.
3. "Eat fish—they feed themselves."

Etiquette Hints

When you shake hands, shake heartily—with your heart in it. Other people are lonely and discouraged, so your greeting is no mere polite gesture, but a real heart warmer.

American Flying Magazine Tells of R.C.A.F.

The valiant role played by Canadian flyers in the war in Europe is enthusiastically extolled in the special September issue of the aeronautical journal Flying. Especially prepared by the British Air Ministry for the information of Americans associated with the war effort, this special issue of Flying presents the first authoritative account to be published in the United States of the mighty British Royal Air Force.

"In September, 1939, the Dominions of the Commonwealth of Nations sprang to arms at the side of Britain. The arrival of the first squadron of the Royal Canadian Air Force in Britain in February, 1940, was preceded by hundreds of Canadians who were by then veteran members of the R.A.F.," the article reveals.

"These young men, who made their personal choice about the war, typify the spirit of the R.A.F. It is the spirit of free peoples making a free decision.

"In peacetime the strength of the Royal Canadian Air Force was about 2500 men; today its strength is about 100,000, and it has already more than 20 fully operational squadrons of its own in Great Britain alone. Great numbers of Canadians are also serving in every type of squadron in the R.A.F., and, in practically all its major operations aircraft manned by Canadian pilots and observers and tended by Canadian ground crews take part.

"The Canadians really went into battle and, in the few weeks of the Battle of Britain, destroyed between them no less than 150 enemy aircraft," the official report reads.

"Canadians have fought over France and the Bay of Bengal; over the North Sea and the Mediterranean; over Colombo and Libya; over Malta and Brest; over Lubeck and Cologne—They have worthily upheld the great traditions of their compatriots who fought in the Air Force in the last great war."

Visitors Astounded at "Gas" Waste Involving Japanese

To the Editor:

Sir—We are two Alberta farm women who came down for a holiday and to pick cherries at Kaslo.

We are astounded at the lax way "gas" is being wasted. We cannot, in Alberta, use our light delivery trucks to drive five miles to church.

Japanese enemy aliens are allowed to drive from Sandon to Kaslo for ball games.

The Commission drives young healthy Japanese boys half a mile so they can leisurely garden—three times a day—as well as doing odd jobs and garbage collection.

You people are saps to put up with it.

The police are lax to allow it.

Shame.

NO PRIVACY LEFT

The complicated business of making out an income tax return has bothered Canadians for many years. The complications increased from year to year, what with provincial and dominion tax, to which was latterly added the national defence tax. However, the last income tax return on the 1941 income was almost miraculously simplified. It appears that there are ways of making thing simpler in this life instead of more complicated still.

Now, however, the 1942 tax return bids fair to be a masterpiece of involved higher mathematics. The innovation last year of the employer deducting the defence tax is apparently to be but the prelude of an increase in the handling of the taxpayer's private business affairs by the employer.

In war, hard won individual rights have a tendency to be forgone, in the greater need of the moment. Never before, however, has the disclosure of private affairs to the employer been contemplated on such a scale as in Mr. Ilsley's 1942 budget proposals. In addition to income tax deductions at the source, that is by the employers from the pay check—not to mention, of course, the further deductions for the unemployment insurance—it is suggested that the employee in certain cases should supply the employer with other private details such as insurance premiums and mortgage dues.

This constitutes a radical change in direction of the free citizen's life. Nor does it seem exactly in keeping with all the rights of freedom established as fundamental in the Canadian mind. Surely the financial experts could devise some simpler system more consonant with this conception of freedom. Or are they so bound up in the toils of their figurations, that all they can do is to pass on to the employers of Canada a job that can hardly be a welcome addition to the already overcrowded business week?—Ottawa Citizen.

BAYONNE STRIKERS LEARN LESSON

A week ago a spokesman for workers who closed a Bayonne (N. J.) war production plant in a "wild cat" strike against a war labor board wage decision cheered announcement that the government would take over the plant, declaring." We will be happy to work for Uncle Sam."

Now that spokesman has joined with his fellow workers in a petition to President Roosevelt urging that the plant be returned to private management, with whom they want to bargain collectively.

It is apparent that the strikers have awakened quickly to the predicament they brought upon themselves by their "wild cat" walkout. In less than a week they have learned that when they welcomed Uncle Sam as master of the plant they lost all the advantages that organization and the law of the land gave them in dealing with a private employer.

Although the employing firm was an innocent party to this controversy which caused the government to take over its plant, it might be well for Uncle Sam to retain control for a time long enough to more thoroughly chasten the irresponsible agitators who called the "wild cat" strike and the heedless workmen who joined in the unauthorized walkout.—Spokane Spokesman-Review.

VITAL NEED OF SCRAP IRON

Our rate of ship construction in Victoria as well as elsewhere in Canada is governed largely by allotment of steel plate from United States producers. Their production is dependent on scrap iron, a proportion of which must be fed into the furnaces along with pig iron to make steel. In the first five months of this year, furnaces on this continent consumed 23,000,000 tons of scrap to make steel, with a consumption in May alone of 5,000,000 tons. Now the scrap stock pile is running short, with some furnaces already shut down for lack of this commodity. Steel production was forecast at 90,000,000 tons this year, but due to the scrap shortage it may fall 5,000,000 tons short of that total.

The ocean life-line to Britain is one of the first essentials of the continuation, let alone the prosecution of the war to victory. The U. S. Maritime Commission says production of ships could be increased by 25 per cent if the steel were available.—Victoria Times.

THERE'S REALISM IN OFFENSIVE DRILL OF U. S. MEN OVERSEAS

Somewhere in Northern Ireland U. S. troops have been holding attack exercises, preparatoy, perhaps, to their part in the commando raid at Dieppe, France. Men from a "Ranger" battalion participated in that attack. Gas-masked troops are seen at left, advancing through a smoke screen. Upper right, in "Tarzan" training for U.S. marines somewhere in Britain, the "leathernecks" are crossing a stream by rope ladder during a drill over the assault course where they set new records. This course, originally designed for the Coldstream Guards, is a mass of obstacles and traps. One of the phases of the training is a pause in the shell-pocked section, lower right, to deliver a few hand grenades.

Weather and Gas Ration Cut Trout Catches

Between the weather and gas rationing, reports of entries for the Nelson Gyro Club's 1942 Rainbow Trout Derby have been down sharply this month so far. Few boats are on Kootenay Lake, fishermen say. Owners of launches are believed to be saving gas for the Fall season, when fishing ordinarily is much better, rather than use it now in an off-season.

In the latest batch of reports received by Derby Statistician George Lambert a Rainbow weighing 11 pounds, 2 ounces is the leader.

Mrs. O. B. Appleton, Sunshine Bay reported a trout weighing 10 pounds 14 ounces to rank well up among the fisherettes.

SEZ WHO?

Players in the major leagues ought to know by now that an umpire is never wrong. As you might guess, Livingston, whose back is to the camera, of the Phils, who is arguing with Umpire Barlick, lost this one to his nibs. The Giants defeated the Philadelphia Phils in the first game of two at the Polo grounds by the score of 6-5.

Hunter Bros. Beat Junior Boards; Bow to City Nine

ROSSLAND, B. C., Aug. 24—Hunter Bros., softball nine, behind the ace hurler Paddy Dougan, handed the Junior Board of Trade a trouncing Sunday morning to the tune of 24-18.

Dougan had the Junior Board on the short end of 9-0, for the first four frames. Harold Clegg started a rally for the Board, and they collected five runs before retiring. L. Nicholson retired the grocerymen, in the sixth, and the Board came out and climbed on the merry-go-round, pulling in 10 runs, Dougan giving four free passes, each scoring. Dougan then settled down to business and held the Board to three runs in the rest of the game.

Verne Davidson of the Board started on the mound and was relieved by L. Nicholson in fourth.

Jack Corner and Tommy Jones turned in very good games on third. Clyde Seccombe and Henry Singer drew applause from the bleachers.

LOSE REFRESHER

After the game, the Hunter Bros' aggregation took on a team of local men, headed by Bud Piper, for a five inning refresher. This resulted in a score of 12-11 in favor of the City team.

The game was handled by Spud Martin, umpire, and Cliff Morris base umpire. Bob Craig was scorekeeper.

Lineups:

Junior Board—C. F. McKenzie, Mike Welykochy, Harold Clegg, V. Davidson and Jack Corner, Laurie Nicholson, Irvin Gurevitch, Alfred Woodhouse, Bill Darby, Babe Leface replaced Gurevitch in the 7th.

Hunter Bros.—Paddy Dougan, C. Seccombe, Ira Henderson, Pat Martin, Tommy Jones, Glyn Langdale, Allison Martin, Sunny Lins, Henry Singer, Ellis Nichols for Lins in sixth.

Batteries—Junior Board, Davidson, Nicholson, Clegg.

Hunter Bros.—Dougan, Seccombe.

The ones who work with planes (or make it machine-guns, tanks, etc.) for 12 or 14 hours a day are too tired for serious athletics . . .

Baseball Goes Over Top In War Relief Push

NE YORK, Aug. 14 (AP)— The major baseball leagues have gone over the top in their contributions to United States War Relief funds.

The majors had set $500,000 as their goal for the Army and Navy funds from games played in each of the league's parks. A compilation by the Associated Press today showed an unofficial total of $317,964.11 had been raised. The compilation was based on official figures from all of the National League's games and seven of the American circuit's contests. The New York Yankees, who played their relief games yesterday, have not completed the auditing of their receipts.

In addition the All-Star game at the Polo Grounds and the tussle at Cleveland between the American League and Armed Services yielded $100,000 for the majors' ball and bat fund and approximately another $50,000 for Army and Navy Relief.

The National League contributed $267,901.30 with the Dodgers-Giants series at the Polo Grounds and Ebbets Field topping the list.

The Yankees turned in approximately $80,000. The American League total was approximately $250,229.

NEW YORK, Aug. 24 (AP)—Ted Schroeder, Jr., of Glendale, Calif., who has been a standout performer in major tennis tournaments this Summer although he is only fifth in the U. S. rankings, today was given first place in the seedings for the National singles championships at Forest Hills, Aug. 27-Sept. 7. He also was given a somewhat tougher assignment than Frankie Parker of Los Angeles, the third ranking player who was seeded right behind him.

Placed in the lower half of the draw, Schroeder will meet Lieut. Russell Robbitt of Fort Knox, Ky., in the first round and then, if everything goes according to form, Sidney B. Wood, Jr., former Wimbledon champion who was seeded fifth and Lt. Gardner Mulloy of Jacksonville, Fla., Naval Air Station, seeded third.

Also in the lower half, are Ladislav Hecht, former Czecho-Slovakian Davis cup player, and Alejo Russell of Argentina, second and third on the foreign seeded list, and Calif., No. 8 on the domestic list.

In the upper half with Parker are Seymour Greenberg of Chicago William Talbert of Cincinnati, and Harriss Everett of Jacksonville, Fla., seeded sixth, fourth and seventh, respectively, and Francisco Seguar of Ecuador, top-seeded foreign entry and recent winner of the Longwood Bowl Tournament.

The eight seeded players in the field of 60 for the women's singles are Louise Brough of Beverley Hills Calif., Pauline Betz of Los Angeles, runner up last year to Mrs. Sarah Palfrey Cooke who will not defend her title, Margaret Osborne, San Francisco, Helen Bernhard, New York, Mary Arnold, Los Angeles, Mrs. Patricia Canning Todd, New York, Doris Hart, Miami, Fla., and Mrs. Helen P. Rihbany, of New York.

PREFER ONE CHANCE

IN PLANNING the play of a nand, you may see two alternative moves to gain tricks, each of which is an even money or 50-50 chance. But, if one of those chances, in case it succeeds, will produce only about one trick gain and the other can be worth several tricks, if it works, there is not much argument about which to choose. Furthermore, the situation may be such that, after trying one chance, you may still attempt the other, whereas trying them in reverse order may not be possible.

After North had cue-bid the clubs of the opponents, his Blackwood 4-No Trumps asked South how many aces he held in the other three suits. So North knew the 5-Diamonds response to show one ace indicated it was not in clubs and therefore had to be the spade top. As it was, however, North gave his partner a tough playing job to do, one which he could not accomplish.

South ruffed the opening club K in dummy and led to the spade A, so he could try the diamond finesse, which lost. The club return was ruffed in dummy, the diamond A and Q cashed for a heart discard, the heart A played and a heart ruffed, then a third club ruffed and a second heart. South scored two high trumps then, but had to give up the club Q at the end, being down one.

Safer play was available—a lead toward the heart Q after trumps were out. South, after ruffing the opening club K, could have taken the spade A and K, then led a small heart, hoping East had the K, an even chance, which would have worked. East would not have dared return a diamond, so would have chosen a club for another ruff in dummy. Then a heart to the Q, a diamond to the A, refusing the finesse, the heart A dropping the J, and additional hearts for discard of all losers in his own hand, would have made the contract. Even if the heart play had failed, the diamond finesse could still have been tried, whereas the contrary order could not have been essayed.

Harvesting Under Way Throughout Kootenay; Peaches Will Begin to Move Soon; Hay Crop Excellent

Harvesting operations are under way throughout the Kootenay-Boundary. The horticultural news letter issued by the Department of Agriculture shows that the recent warm weather is making up in large measure for earlier rain during the growing season, and although rain caused many crops to be considerably lighter than in normal years, the sun now is bringing fruit and vegetables along in fine style.

Early apples and plums are on the market and peaches will begin to roll shortly. Raspberries are over and blackberries are past their peak. Excellent hay crops have been cut. Grain harvesting is under way. Seed crops are being harvested.

The crop report follows:

KOOTENAY AND ARROW LAKES

The weather during the past two weeks has been generally fine and quite warm. There have been one or two quite severe rain and hail storms in some sections, but damage to crops on the whole was light. Soil moisture conditions are fair to good and irrigation is quite general throughout the district.

Raspberries are now over and the crop on the whole was an average one and of good quality. Prices were quite satisfactory and there was a good demand for the fruit throughout the season. Blackberries are now past their peak and there has been a good demand for the entire crop. Strawberry fields are now being cleaned up and put into shape for the 1943 season.

The picking of sour cherries is just about over and the crop has been very light, but quality in some sections was excellent.

Yellow Transparent, Red Astrachan and Duchess apples are now supplying the local markets in fair quantities. Wealthy and Gravensteins will be moving in about a week's time as cookers. Peach plums are now moving but all varieties of plums are light this year. The demand has been good.

Early varieties of peaches are being picked. Rochesters will be moving from some sections by the twenty-fifth.

Pears are sizing fair to good and Clapp's Favorite will be ready to pick in some sections by the end of August. Bartletts will not be moving much before the tenth of September. Most of the Winter varieties of apples are on the small size for this time of year, but with favorable weather during September this condition could improve a great deal.

The local markets are well supplied with a wide range of vegetables. Some few ripe local tomatoes are now being picked and table corn is being offered in fair quantities.

Most all hay crops have been cut and a very large tonnage has been put up. Grain crops are being harvested and threshing operations will begin soon.

Potato blight is more general than usual and this will no doubt affect potato yields.

CRESTON

The past two weeks have been decidedly warmer with an occasional thunder storm. It has helped greatly in harvesting second cut alfalfa. Combining of wheat and peas has been general.

Small fruits are practically over. Red Cross volunteers have been very busy for the past week preserving.

Early plums have made their appearance on the market, ten days later than usual. Shipments this week will be in greater volume.

Green apple cookers are on the market, and much brisker movement can be expected from now on. Carlot shipments will be light until the crabapples and Wealthies come in, which can be expected in another week. Thinning is about over as the crop is light. Very little irrigation has been needed this year in the orchards up to the present.

Early pears are sizing more rapidly now that the weather has turned warmer and movement will take place after the twentieth of the month.

Tomatoes and sweet corn are late . . . Early potatoes yielded well and onions will soon be sized enough for the tops to be laid down.

Second crop alfalfa has been cut and most of the crop is under cover. The quality is excellent.

The labor question is acute and it is possible that the high schools may not open until October so as to allow the pupils to help harvest the crop in the orchards.

GRAND FORKS

Favorable weather has prevailed throughout the district since July 15, with the exception of a few thunder-storms and one particularly high wind on the evening of Aug. 7. No severe damage was done to crops or buildings.

In small fruits, raspberries are still coming in, although there is a noticeable falling off in volume.

The apple crop, as previously reported, will be light, due to scab infestation and environmental factors. Crabapples, pears and prunes have not suffered to the same extent.

Late potatoes give promise of a good average crop. No serious blight has been noticed so far.

The harvesting of commercial onions will commence shortly on a small scale and the crop is sizing up nicely.

The tomato situation continues favorable. The set is light and some ripe fruit is now being picked.

Vegetable seed crops are approaching maturity. Radish pods are coloring, and some preliminary threshing trials have been made on a small scale. Some varieties of early lettuce are carrying seed. Recent winds laid over some of the more exposed onion and carrot seed plants in the fields. Carrot seed yields will run around average, but onion seed yields appear to be affected by climatic conditions with a consequent reduction in yield; the extent of which it is not yet possible to estimate.

Throughout the Western district haying is in full swing. A shortage of farm labor is slowing harvesting operations. Barley and Fall wheat is mostly cut and stooked. Fall rye is still standing, but ready for the binder. Spring wheat is coloring to the ripening stage, and yields should be well up to average.

Range cattle and sheep are still finding plenty of feed and the stock is in good condition. A few mixed cattle have been recently marketed and returns have been satisfactory. During the past two months several instances of horse-sickness throughout the Kettle Valley district have been investigated, especially where sleeping sickness or other disease was suspected. To date no definite proof of encephalomyelitis has been established.

Von Clemm Fined $10,000 on Diamond Charge

NEW YORK, Aug. 24 (AP)—Werner Von Clemm, 44, former German artillery officer, was sentenced today in Federal Court to two years' imprisonment and a $10,000 fine for conspiring to sell Dutch and Belgian diamonds in this country in violation of President Roosevelt's order of 1940.

Von Clemm, who is related by marriage to Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop of Germany, was convicted last week by a Federal Court jury.

Market Trends . . .

LONDON, Aug. 24 (CP)—Stock market prices held to a restricted range today with transactions in small volume.

British funds closed steady and in the foreign list Brazilian bonds lost further ground.

NEW YORK—Steel and rail stocks encountertd a little selling opposition but scattered buying of aircrafts and other industrial favorites served to keep the price scales pretty well balanced.

Ontario nickel in the final hour saved the market from a record for low volume. Prices generally were steady, as many gains as losses appearing on the board at the close.

MONTREAL— Gains and losses were fairly evenly divided.

Brazilian moved back fractionally in utilities and C.P.R. lost ground in carriers.

VANCOUVER—Prices showed an upward trend. Firming in the mines were Bralorne, up 5 at 6.00, Privateer, up 3 at 27, and Reno up ¼ at 4¼.

WINNIPEGDullness again characterized grain dealings and at the close the October wheat future remained at 90 cents a bushel.

Only one or two minor trades were transacted and were credited to Eastern Mill account.

CHICAGO— Although most new wheat harvested in the Spring crop zone is being held for Government loans, increasing receipts at Northwest terminals, spilling over in shipments to Chicago had a depressing effect on prices here today.

DEPTH CHARGE

This dramatic scene was snapped from aboard a U.S. navy boat during convoy escort duty in the Atlantic. A terrific explosion sends water spouting as a depth bomb is dropped overboard when suspicious object in water was thought to be a sub periscope. This action occurred after a collier in the convoy had struck a mine and capsized before sinking.

Trees Bent by Wind Cause Arcs, North Shore Power Line

Bent by a strong wind Sunday night, trees alongside the City's power line in the vicinity of Five-Mile came in contact with the "hot" wires and the resultant spectacular arcs caused considerable apprehension among persons living nearby. The electricity was "kicked off" the line two or three times. But there was no real damage.

The trees causing the arcs were on private property and the City Electrical Department previously had difficulty in obtaining permission of the owners to cut them. Monday morning several of them asked the Department to remove them to prevent a recurrence.

Nazis Becoming Doubtful of Outcome of War

LONDON, Aug. 24 (CP)— Increasing hammer blows of Allied air power are beginning to make Germany doubtful of the outcome of the war, the R.A.F. reported tonight in its third booklet recording historical phases of the war.

"This is an interim report," said the booklet which is entitled "Bomber Command Continues." "The enemy is not defeated—yet. He certainly is no longer exultant. It may be that he is beginning to feel doubtful of what the end will be."

The publication explains that Britain was forced to build from scratch plants to produce new heavy bombers and train personnel for the plants. It noted that British alone bombed Cologne, the Ruhr and Bremen with 1000-plane flights.

"If so much can be achieved by a force armed with British aircraft, nearly all of them manned by British and Empire crews, it surely is possibly to hope for great things when the air force of America begins to fly side by side with them toward the same targets," the booklet said.

One goal of British bombing is to aid Russia, it said, and another is to wither German morale "which is a strange plant more sensitive than sometimes is imagined."

W. Teggart, Early Columbia Valley Settler, Dies in U.S.

CRANBROOK, B. C., Aug. 24 (CP)—Word of the death of one of the earliest settlers in the Columbia Valley, Walter Teggart, 86, was recently received from California by Invermere friends.

A large birthday cake in pink and white, decorated with candles, centred the supper table. Novelty place cards supplied further ornament. Miss Louise Fredericksen and Miss Sheila Singer entertained with numbers on the piano. The guests included Miss Emma Besler of Trail, Miss Louise Laberge, Miss Doreen Gracie, Miss Betty Anne Myles, Miss Betty Jean Leface, Miss Louise Fredericksen, Miss Marilyn Turner and Miss Yvonne Fleury.

Archie McTeer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McTeer, is visiting his grandparents in Calgary for an indefinite length of time.

A wedding of much interest to Rossland friends was that of Miss Patricia Mullaney at Port Townsend, Wash. At a nuptial mass read by Rev. Robert Dillon on the morning of Aug. 3, at St. Marys Star of the Sea Church, Miss Patricia Adeline Mullaney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick F. Mullaney, became the bride of Mark Bernard Sullivan, son of Mrs. Nellie Sullivan of Seattle. The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose for her wedding gown, equisite white satin fashioned on princess lines with a sweetheart neckline edged in seed pearls, and a circular train. Her fingertip length veil was of illusion net and was caught in a coronet of seed pearls and tulle in tiny plaits. She carried a sheath of white gladioli and asters tied with wide satin ribbon. The bride's only ornament was a gold cross and chain, a gift from the bridegroom. Maid of honor and only attendant was Miss Lillian Sullivan, sister of the groom. Bernard Mullaney, brother of the bride, served as Mr. Sullivan's best man. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Mullaney chose a black dress and hat. Gardenias and pink rosebuds formed her corsage. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was held in the Marine Room of the Palms Cafe. Mrs. John Robert Bryan, sister of the bride, cut the wedding cake. For her going away costume the bride wore a powder blue wool frock with hat and accessories in navy. She carried a smart blue topcoat and her corsage was gardenias. Coming from out of town for the wedding were Mrs. J. R. Bryan and daughter Miss Roberta, of Rossland, B. C., Mrs. Emma Sullivan, Lee Sullivan, Marjorie Sullivan, Mrs. D. W. Bickford, Miss Aileen Sullivan, Mrs. N. A. Wright, Kathleen Wright, and Miss Genevieve Pohle, all of Seattle. Mark Storie was a visitor to Nelson on Saturday.

Sgt.-Observer D. Holmes, Harrop Boy After 11 Months' Service in Egypt, Tells Rotary Members of Life There

SGT. R. J. (DICK) HOLMES OF HARROP

Sgt.-Observer Dick Holmes, 21-year-old son of H. Holmes of Harrop, and nephew of H. M. Dronsfield Nelson, who has been on active service with the R.A.F. in Egypt for 11 months, answered a barrage of questions fired at him by members of the Rotary Club at their luncheon Mosday.

MALTA DEATH TRAP

Sgt. Holmes said he had spent three weeks in Malta, which he described as "living in a death trap. It's a peculiar little island, mostly farm land, and the natives seem to be a mixture of Turks, French, and Italian. Their language is very much like the Arabic language. No one on the island will evacuate; they all want to stay."

Asked to describe his trip home, Sgt. Holmes said that he had travelled by the Pan-American Airways, and left Cairo July 29. From there he went to Khartoum, to Liberia, to the Gold Coast, to a point on the West Coast of Africa, to Brazil, to Dutch Guiana, to Trinidad, Puerto Rico, Miami, Washington, and finally Montreal.

"But", he said later, "you can have it all for this one spot right here in Canada. I can't tell you how it feels to be back, there aren't any words to describe it.

"The flies in Egypt are terrific," he said. "They drive you crazy. There are millions of them and they pester you all the time."

WELLINGTON BOMBERS ON OWN

He said that he flew on Wellington bombers, and their main targets were Bengasi, Tobruk (after it was taken by the Germans), Crete and Greece.

"Our bombers have no fighter escorts," he said. "In night flying it's every man for himself. Each bomber is an individual squadron.

"We went out one night after the Italian fleet, but it wasn't there", he said, "they must have heard us coming."

He said he had seen Aussie and South African flyers, there, and also some of the Indian fighting forces, as well as a few Fighting French.

"An average of two out of each bomber crew of six men from England, are Canadians," he said.

Sgt. Holmes was born at Penticton and attended High School at Trail, taking his grades at Harrop, Procter and district schools.

He went into training with the R.C.A.F. in 1940 at Toronto, Regina, Mossbank and Rivers. He graduated as a sergeant-observer in March, 1941, and at the end of the same month was sent to England.

TO JOIN FERRY COMMAND

In October he was sent to Egypt, where he has been on active service ever since. He will soon leave for service in the Ferry Command.

His father, H. Holmes lives at Harrop, his sister, Miss E. Holmes at Trail, and his brother Thomas is with a Canadian Army unit. In Nelson he has been the guest of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Dronsfield.

J. D. Southworth, Rotarian of Trail, and H. M. Dronsfield, Nelson, were guests at the luncheon.

President K. C. McCannell was in the chair.

The War News

By EDWARD E. BOMAR

But for the successful defence of Moscow and Leningrad, the doom of Stalingrad would appear almost inevitable on the face of discouraging reports from the Caucasus.

At two or more points, the invaders have managed to ram armored spearheads across the Don River, 40 or 50 miles from the vital Volga city and its last remaining natural defence line. Ahead of the Nazis is only the narrow corridor between the two rivers, sloping downward to terrain which is below sea level.

Marshal Timoshenko's original Southern Army has in effect been cut in two while escaping entrapment, and the dire peril of the altered strategic situation has been duly recognized by the Churchill-Stalin conference and by the subsequent steps taken to bolster the Middle East.

This is only the seamy side of the picture. Actually it is definitely premature to count Stalingrad lost. The Germans themselves spea of the prospects in guarded language.

Assuming that the Russians will be obliged to fall back after having checked the foe at the Don Elbow, the whole nature of the struggle for the Caucasus suggests that they are prepared to make a continuing, back-to-the-wall fight perhaps matching in fury last year's defence of the capital.

The Russians appear to have a better chance of holding Stalingrad than of retaining the Grozny oil field and other threatened parts of the North Caucasus. At the Don the Red Army has shown itself to be both strong and stubborn. There have been weeks in which to strengthen fortifications. Beyond the Volga is an unbroken, paralleling railway artery for arms and reinforcements.

Possibly of greater importance, there is some evidence the Nazi war machine is losing much of its momentum. The original rate of progress eastward from Rostov would have carried the Germans all the way to the Volga early this month.

Von Beck's armies have pushed eastward in two months more than 300 miles, an advance nearly as great as last year's drive through the Ukraine which recoiled at Rostov in late November.

Nazi progress has been notably slower in the last week or so. Beginning next month the Fall rains of the steppes are due, with their promise of slowing up progress still further.

Lieutenant Curran Sends Airgraph Letter to Nelson

Sending an airgraph letter from England to C. D. Pearson, Lieut. J. B. Curran, formerly of Nelson, states that he is "enjoying life immensely."

"The weather is dampish, the work strenuous but enjoyable. Have not been to London or Scotland yet. Herb Pitts is about four miles away but I have not contacted him as yet . . .

"This country is not half bad. Had a wonderful crossing. Writing this reminds me of Fred Leno's rotaprint contraption . . .

"Have not seen many Kootenay boys yet because they are in the field and away from here."

The airgraph as received is a photo roughly four inches wide by five long. The original letter is photographed and the film flown across the ocean. Then a print is made from the film and the airgraph letter resulting is forwarded to its destination.
