21,000 Parcels for Overseas Smashed in 1942

OTTAWA—More than 21,000 parcels for members of the armed forces arrived at the Base Post Office in 1942 either smashed or else so damaged that many precious articles for the boys overseas were spoiled. Postal authorities attribute this damage to lack of thought by senders of the immense amount of handling imposed upon packages. A bag of parcels placed at the bottom of a pile sustains considerable weight from the bags on top, with the result that frail packages are easily crushed and the contents damaged.

Lake Level Touches Bottom at -1.62 Feet!

Level of Kootenay Lake, which achieved an exceptional low on account of the reduced flow consequent on the severe winter, apparently touched bottom Sunday, with a mark of 1.62 feet below the low water mark or official zero, Monday showing the first rise. Usually when the water is so exceptionally low, a very small increase in flow will quickly make up the deficit below the official zero. In its decline from the high point of 7.72 feet above the low water mark, recorded Oct. 2, the lake level got down to the zero mark March 1; was -.78 foot March 10; -.96 foot March 15; -1.20 foot March 20; and -1.52 feet March 25. Daily readings at 1 p.m. since have been: Friday, -1.47; Saturday, 1.80; Sunday, 1.82; Monday, 1.48. The Kootenay is still in the cycle of low water years, following a number of years that were above zero. Low water figures for recent years are as follows:

Bomber Command Promises Dire Year for Huns If Raids Maintained

By LOUIS V. HUNTER Canadian Press Staff Writer LONDON, March 29 (CP)—A confident prediction that "catastrophic" results will follow if the 1943 goals of Bomber Command's offensive against the Axis, particularly Germany, is maintained and intensified this year, is made in an authoritative review of the Command's work last year. There is no reason to believe that the prediction will not be fulfilled. The total bomb load carried to Germany last year was 37,000 tons, and it is understood that more than half that total has already been dropped in the first 15 weeks of this year. Bomber Command, too, is becoming stronger. Numerical expansion has been negligible—Bomber Command ended the year with less than 10 per cent increase in the number of its aircraft—but steady increase in the proportion of heavy bombers made possible a substantial improvement in the tonnage of bombs dropped. The increasing power of the bomber forces arises largely from the advent of the Lancaster, and the hopes of Bomber Command for 1943 are based to some extent on expectation of greatly expanded Lancaster production. The outstanding lesson of the year was that against highly organized and well defended Germany two initial requirements must be met before any great measure of success can be expected. It was stated. "These are high performances and numbers. "It is not obvious, but it is true that bombers can be outnumbered on the ground as well as in the air. The experience of 1942 clearly demonstrates that casualties do not increase proportionately to the number of aircraft operating over the target. On the contrary the rate declines because in these circumstances it is the defence and not the attack which is outnumbered and consequently overwhelmed. "Important lessons in bombing strategy, tactics and technique were learned and all that is now required for final success is a sufficiency of aircraft and crews to turn these lessons to good account. "The survey does not cover completely the results achieved by bombing in 1942, but "it is sufficient to indicate that the results achieved by this offensive on an over-strained industrial and economic system are very great."

Schoolboys of Halifax Tops in Ship-Spotting

By FRANK LOWE Canadian Press Staff Writer HALIFAX (CP)—Plane-spotting might be the favorite wartime sport of United Nation's civilians, but not in hard-boiled seaport Halifax. Here grammar school specialists wishing to sharpen their eyes go in for a more complicated sport of ship-spotting and the shore-bound tars are amazingly good. Of course, they do not include such organizations as Sea Scouts. Those boys qualify for the professional class, even going so far as to rhyme off what a carrier float will hold in the form of emergency rations. A true ship-spotter is not one of these. A strict amateur, he is a young fellow who gets out of school and makes his way on clear days to Citadel Hill, or some similar vantage point where he can get a good view of ships entering and leaving the harbor. There, without benefit of glasses or charts such as make easier the work of plane experts, he calls off the types of vessels he sees. Checking him will be his companions, and the rivalry is keen to see who gets the most correct. It's not simple. To the inexperienced eye a minesweeper looks suspiciously like a corvette, or vice versa, from the distance of half-a-mile, while both can be taken for a trawler or even a gun boat. Similarly, light cruisers could double for destroyers, while heavy cruisers resemble battleships. But those ships of war have fairly routine designs, and practice soon straightens out their identifications. The competition gets tough when it comes to defining all the hybrid bottoms of the seven seas that call here loaded with freight. There are liberty ships and hog Islanders and boats that were designed for the South Pacific runs. Freighters and tankers built along solid English lines, and others doing the same job but whose lines have been altered by Celtic imaginations and Oriental concepts. FISHER-CRAFT DIFFER Then, of course, there are minute differences that mark coasting craft from their ocean going brethren and, believe it or not, all fishing craft are not built along the same lines. A Newfoundland product might well differ from a Lunenburg, N.S., Grand Banker. But the kids are good, and when a freckle-faced 10-year-old points to a ship and says it is a U.S. product, about a year old, it's a safe bet he's right.

Bombers Blast Big Nazi Sub Base at St. Nazaire

By ALAN RANDAL
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON, March 29 (CP Cable)—The Royal Air Force, accompanied by many Wellingtons and Halifaxes from R.C.A.F. bomber squadrons, struck last night at the German submarine base at St. Nazaire, France, in a "concentrated attack," it was announced today.

The raid marked resumption of the assault on enemy submarine bases after the greatest raid of the war on Berlin Saturday night in which the R. C. A. F. also played a large part.

Of two bombers missing after the St. Nazaire raid, one was Canadian. The raid was carried out in considerable strength and added new damage to a U-boat haven which has been attacked often and heavily in the past.

Squadrons of bombers, escorted by fighters, crossed and recrossed the Southeast coast this morning, hinting at a continuation of the intensive blows directed at Germany and her satellites on the continent during the week-end.

The German radio meanwhile claimed that German bombers, retaliating for the Saturday night R. A. F. raid on Berlin and a daylight raid yesterday by American heavy bombers on the railroad yards at Rouen, France, smashed at Norwich, England, during the night.

Hit-and-run German raiders appeared over the South coast this morning and made a direct hit on a school clinic in a coast town. Rescue workers began digging in the wreckage for anyone who might have been trapped.

Authorities said two enemy aircraft were destroyed during night raids on Britain.

The German high command broadcast from Berlin said Allied air attacks against occupied Western territory caused "heavy losses" among the population.

(The communique claimed destruction of 18 planes there and over the Norwegian coast, an area that the Allies did not mention.)

Last night's attack on St. Nazaire was the forty-sixth of the war and the fifth this year. The base was hit by the R. A. F. last Monday night and by the U.S. Army Air Force in daylight Feb. 16 and March 1.

Reuters heard a broadcast by the German-controlled Paris radio reporting "considerable" damage to private homes in yesterday's raid by United States planes on Rouen. This report said 80 bodies had been recovered.

Last night's raid completed a week-end of vigorous day and night blows by Allied aircraft. Besides the terrific plastering of Berlin, operations in the past 36 hours included attacks on Rotterdam, Dusseldorf, and Aals communications in Holland and Germany. During the previous two weeks, heavy fog had given the enemy a brief respite.

Londoners Elated Over News of Raid on Berlin

LONDON, March 29 (CP)—Londoners were elated today at news of the R.A.F.-R.C.A.F. smashing raid on Berlin Saturday night but most of them expected quick reprisals by German air raiders and made preparations accordingly.

Many workers were observed carrying their steel helmets as they started for work "this morning—something they haven't done for two years or more.

Report Germans "Take Over" Italian Navy

LONDON, March 29 (P)—The diplomatic correspondent of Reynolds News asserted today that Germany had "taken over" the Italian navy following conferences in Rome between Admiral Karl Doenitz, commander of the German navy, and Admiral Arturo Riccardi, commander of the Italian fleet.

Doenitz, the correspondent declared, has been placed in command of the two navies.

While authoritative British sources said they had no confirmation of this report, observers saw some significance in a report by D.N.B., German news agency, that the two admirals had "reached complete agreement on the role of the Axis navies for the coming months."

Such a statement, it was felt in some quarters, might well be camouflage to hide a German assumption of command.

The Reynolds News correspondent said that Doenitz, in his conferences with Riccardi, had "insisted that the Duce's fleet must be used partly as an anti-invasion force and partly as a striking weapon."

Nazis Claim Fake Food Tickets Dropped on Berlin

NEW YORK, March 29 (CP)—The Berlin radio, said last night that R.A.F.-R.C.A.F. airmen who handed the German capital the heaviest bombing of the war on Saturday night, also dropped fake food rationing tickets.

The broadcast declared that persons attempting to use the worthless cards could be charged as deserters, and reminded persons finding them to surrender them immediately to the authorities.

Plan Beer Rationing in Ontario

TORONTO, March 29 (CP)—Hon. A. St. Clair Gordon, Ontario Provincial Treasurer and Chairman of the Ontario Liquor Control Board today said that rationing of beer for home use and regulation of hours of sale in beverage rooms are "under consideration but plans are indefinite at the present time."

Mr. Gordon intimated that authorities felt that some measure will have to be taken to bring about orderly marketing of beer.

W. Macgillivray to Head Land Army in This District

VICTORIA, March 29 (CP)—Appointment of Wm. Macgillivray, Government Agriculturist for areas between Kootenay and Okanagan Districts, as director of the newly formed Provincial Land Army, was announced today by Agriculture Minister MacDonald. Mr. Macgillivray's headquarters will be in Vancouver.

An inter-departmental committee, composed of Lieut.-Col. Geo. Edricott, Dr. S. J. Willis, Superintendent of Education, and Ernest MacGinnis of the Agriculture Department, will supervise the scheme. Dr. MacDonald announced last week urban women would be organized to help on the land this year.

Dr. MacDonald returned to Victoria today after a visit to the interior. He was accompanied home by W. T. Straith, K.C., M.L.A.

B. C. Liquor Quota May Be Cut Again

VICTORIA, March 29 (CP)—Indications that British Columbia is headed for a liquor ration which will allow each permit holder only five bottles of beer a month in addition to one pint of spirits, were given today following an exchange of communications between Prime Minister King and Mayor Andrew McGavin.

In seeking personal action by the Prime Minister to relieve the alcoholic shortage in British Columbia Major McGavin recently queried reports that liquor quotas varied in different provinces.

In a letter the Mayor made public today Mr. King gave "the most categorical assurance that there has been no discrimination whatever between provinces in the administration of the wartime alcoholic beverages order, and that the rumor that supplies in Quebec have not been curtailed to the same degree as elsewhere is not only untrue, but is obviously calculated to weaken national unity, and can only injure the war effort of our country."

Mayor McGavin in reply cited statements that quantities of spirits available in Quebec and Ontario are much higher than on the Coast and adding that Liquor Commissioner Kennedy had advised him the proposed rationing in this province would work out at one pint of spirits and about five bottles of beer a month.

C.N.R. Revenue Record High During 1942; $25,063,268 Paid to Government

OTTAWA, March 29 (CP)—The Canadian National Railways had its most profitable year's operation during 1942 and was able to turn over $25,063,268 to the Government after payment of taxes and interest to the public and Government, it was shown today when the lines' annual report was tabled in the House of Commons by Transport Minister Mich. Auld.

Gross revenues reached $378,654,543—more than $1,000,000 a day and an all-time high. The report said the C.N.R. traffic this year, on the basis of present indications, will be greater still.

"The traffic of the railway rose to unprecedented levels," said the report prepared by R. C. Vaughan, C.N.R. Chairman and President.

"Freight traffic was more than double that of the peak of the last war and 40 per cent in excess of the peacetime record of 1928. Passenger traffic was 90 per cent greater than 1928. The Railway hauled 71,545,000 tons of revenue freight and carried 30,363,000 revenue passengers.

"The cash surplus, after payment of taxes, interest paid to the public and the Government, was $25,063,268 an increase of $21,646,941 over 1941.

Greatly increased demands of the armed forces, war industries and civilians for transport, communications and other services were "fully met." The company markedly extended its production of ships and munitions.

"Difficulties in obtaining railway supplies and equipment are, however, increasing as the war goes on, and it is the view of the directors that the provision of priorities to enable the railway to maintain its operating machine an efficient state will continue to be of vital importance."

Passenger transportation service to war plants had become increasingly important and the C.N.R. now is transporting 20,000 workers to and from such plants each day.

Average number of employees during 1942 was 94,962, including express and telegraph but exclusive of hotel and subsidiary company employees. The total payroll during 1942 was $177,942,773.

Operating expense totalling $286,998,674 showed an increase of 357,230,237 or 215 per cent over 1941.

"The operating ratio in 1942 was 76.93 per cent, the lowest in the system's history," said Mr. Vaughan.

The wartime cost of living bonus cost the railway $15,346,000 in 1942. Cost of protecting its railway from possible sabotage was $683,000, compared with $532,000 in 1941.

Total requirements for interest on funded debt held by the public were $34,949,000 during 1942, a decrease of $9,749,000 from 1941, but interest payments to the Government on loans for capital purposes were $14,032,000, an increase of $3,336,000.

"The primary reason for the decrease in interest paid to the public and the increase in interest paid to the government lie in the repatriation of securities, ..." said the report.

Heroic Action of Louisburg Chief Saves Many of Crew's Lives

OTTAWA, March 29 (CP)—Thanks to the prompt action of Lt. Cmdr. W. F. Campbell of Saskatchewan, many members of the crew of the Canadian corvette Louisburg were saved when the ship was sunk in the Mediterranean recently, it was disclosed today when naval service headquarters released survivors' accounts of the sinking.

The commander of the vessel himself, however, was among the 29 who lost their lives and survivors attributed this to his care to see that all his men got off the corvette, which sunk in four or five minutes from the explosion of an aerial torpedo.

Campbell, it was said, saved many lives giving the order "abandon ship" as soon as the torpedo hit. The last man to see him was Leading Sick Berth Attendant James Gormell, of Fort William, Ont., who encountered his commanding officer as he came up from below decks.

"Is there anybody left below?" he asked, said Cornell. "I said I was the last, and he replied, 'I'm going down to check up anyway. You jump over.' He disappeared beyond the blackout curtain leading to the men's messdecks and I jumped overboard. Half a minute later the ship went down."

The survivors, one officer and 37 ratings arrived at an East coast port recently, and now are on leave in Canada. They reached the Dominion wearing miscellaneous pieces of clothing with which they had been supplied by the Red Cross at Algiers where some of their comrades are still in hospital.

Another tribute to the commanding officer came from Lieut. R. A. Jarvis of Toronto, who said: "He Campbell took a quick glance over the ship, saw that she was going and gave the order to abandon. There can be no doubt that his prompt action enabled many to get away who otherwise might not have done so.

The ship was attacked during a routine "action stations" which took place shortly before dawn. Consequently the guns were manned and some good shots obtained at the plane which dropped the fatal torpedo, but it is not known whether it was hit.

Lieut. M. Tingley of Fort Gary, Man., now in hospital in Algiers suffers from two broken legs, swam 150 yards to a float despite his injuries, and on the way helped and encouraged other survivors.

This is the kind of a cough it is hard to get rid of, the kind that bothers you during the day and keeps you awake at night.

Why not get a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup and see how quickly it will help to relieve you of this coughing condition?

It acts promptly and effectively, going to the foundation of the trouble, loosening the phlegm, soothing the irritated air passages, and stimulating the bronchial organs.

Possessiveness Girl Is Worried Over Her Long Engagement

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX

Dear Miss Fairfax:
I'm 25 years old and my fiance is 31. We have been keeping company for four and one half years. He gave me a ring three years ago, and many other expensive things which I wouldn't have accepted had I known we wouldn't be married by this time.
At first, being an only child, he didn't want his parents to know about the engagement but in the last year he has told them, and I visit his home and we are all good friends. They approve of me, and we're both from strictly religious families. The reason he hasn't been taken in the army is that he's in a business which defers him.
At first our reason for not marrying was that I had to support my family, my father being dead, but now my brother is able to take care of them. So my fiance's excuse is "I want to get married. He loves me very much and expects me to go with him when he goes leave for the army, and all that. But people are beginning to talk about our long engagement. My fiance is a very jealous person. I've even given up my girl friends because he was so afraid they might persuade me to go out with other boys. He's very good to me, takes me wherever I want to go, and still I can't understand why he doesn't want to get married now. Puzzled.

When a man insists on his fiance giving up her girl friends for fear she may meet attractive men through this source, it's just as well for the girl to call a halt on such high-handed behaviour. Especially in this case when a man seems to prefer a continuous engagement to marriage. In the present case it would be a good thing for the girl to say if the marriage doesn't take place before her fiance goes into the army, the engagement is off. Dilatory engagements which continue two or five years, very often conclude with a man falling captive to a younger and more attractive girl. Jealousy and possessiveness are unfortunate qualities in a fiance or husband.

WASHINGTON (CP) — "A million or more by 1944". That is the goal of the American Girl Scouts who announce a current membership of nearly 500,000 on their 31st anniversary. Enrollment of 400,000 new Girl Scout members means a need for at least 20,000 adult leaders. The organization is appealing to community-minded women throughout the United States to organize troops in their own neighborhoods.

Hints for Housewives

By BETSY NEWMAN

A stuffed sausage roll will stretch your ration of meat and provide a tasty meal. I'm giving you the recipe today.

(350 degrees F.) until done, about 45 minutes. Serves six.

TODAY'S MENU
Stuffed Sausage Roll
Baked Sweet Potatoes
Cabbage and Tomato Salad
Beet Greens
Chocolate Cottage Pudding
Coffee

STUFFED SAUSAGE ROLL
1 pound bulk pork sausage, 2 cups diced raw apples, 2 cups bread crumbs, 2 small onions, diced. Into a flat, triangular shape about 1/2 inch thick. Mix apples, onions and bread crumbs and spread this over meat. Roll into a jelly roll, tucking edges in. Place in baking dish and bake in a moderate oven.

CHOCOLATE COTTAGE PUDDING
1 1/2 cups sifted flour, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon soda, 2-3 cups sugar, 1 egg, unbeaten, 1 1/2 squares chocolate, unsweetened and melted, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1-3 cups shortening, 1/2 cup milk, 1 teaspoon vanilla.
Sift flour once, measure and sift again with baking powder, soda and salt; sift 3 times. Cream shortening, add sugar slowly, beat until light. Add egg, beat well; add chocolate and mix well. Add dry ingredients alternately with combined milk and flavoring, mix well after each addition; beat well after last addition only. Listlessness... Speculates on Causes of Spring Fever

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M.D.

Spring fever falls upon the just and the unjust, the vigorous and the lazy about equally. It seems to affect everybody but children and the aged. Herein probably lies the explanation for it.
If one lapsed into sentimentality, he could define it as a feeling of mild fatigue, attended by a feeling of wellbeing, (euphoria) and an interest in the going on of all his friends and neighbors. I say mild fatigue, for it amounts to no more than listlessness.
The feeling of wellbeing and alert intellectual interest differentiates it from the chronic fatigue of the neurotic. The victim of Spring fever enjoys seeing other people working. He is quite amused by life. He is at one with nature.

What is the cause of it? This is a query at which science balks, or at least always balks. It is beneath the gigantic intellect of the professors to inquire into this. We have no statistics and no recorded experiments to guide us.
Would that some industrious candidate for a degree would take a thousand victims of Spring fever and make a complete examination of their blood chemistry and hormone reactions. But this has not been done, and we can only speculate.

THE DOCTOR'S SPECULATIONS
Well, man is a cyclic organism. All animals and plants are. We rotate in our internal workings in unison with and response to the sun. Our Spring festivals are lineal descendants from the most ancient ceremonies when primitive men welcomed the return of the great, flaming orb of day.
But preceding this period of activity there is a time when the hormones prepare themselves. They throw off — I am speculating now — some drowsy syrup to prepare the body for the active chore that is to ensue when all the days are bright and warm.

That, according to my theory, is why the children are not affected. Their hormone glands are not yet developed; their pituitaries and thyroids are semi-embryonic. It is with amused despair that the Spring feverish watches them at play. How can they be so incessantly active? And the aged, of course, have long since bade an affectionate and tearful farewell to their glands of internal secretion.
As to treatment, it is unnecessary. It would be resented. The Spring feverish does not want to be cured. The people who should be treated are those who aspire to treat him. Let all teachers of the young — high school instructors, college professors, etc. — realize that just about now their charges should not be pressed to explain why the square of the hypotenuse of a right-angled triangle is equal to the square of the other two sides.

Loosen Up to Break Tension

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Susan Hayward, has a tension breaker that is worth knowing these trying days. Next time you feel the nervous jitters coming on, try it: Start with your toes and try to wriggle each one separately. Then swirl on your ankles. Rotate your knees, your hips, shoulders and neck. Do all this loosely, with the least possible effort. It will calm you right down.
Susan also has some figure fixers worth knowing. If I were nominating the gal with the cutest figure in Hollywood, or anywhere, I think it might be Susan. She is five feet, three and one-half inches tall, weighs 112 pounds, and the distribution is perfect—bust, 35 inches; hips, 34 inches; waist, 24 inches.
You can't have that kind of figure without muscle tone and flexibility. Susan is so flexible she can tuck her leg back of her head. You try and do it! But she has some less difficult ones. She suggests a five-minute, daily workout that is all the exercise you need for keeping fit.

1—Lie on your back, full length on the floor, and come up to sitting position, then reach over and touch your fingers to your toes. Try to lower yourself backward without letting your feet come off the floor. Repeat 10 times.
2—Detach the handle of your carpet sweeper and use it as a wand.

Stand on knees on floor, wend up, wend in the crook of the elbow, back of your shoulders.
3—Finally, to slim the hips, kneel. Forward and backward kicking slims the hips, and side-to-side leg swing tone and firms the thigh muscles. Susan prefers to stack a couple of wastebaskets, one on top of the other, to kick over. Swing the leg up and over the wastebaskets without touching foot to floor, then back again. Repeat 20 counts with one leg, then with other.

Peppy Susan Hayward, Paramount star, demonstrates two of her "keep fit" exercises. Top: On knees, carpet sweeper handle held overhead. Stretch upward, then do a side-bend, touching wand to floor. Repeat on other side. Bottom: Holding wand in back of shoulders, twist to one side, then the other.

Foods You Enjoy— but Balance Your Diet

IN TIMES LIKE THESE choose foods not only for taste, but also for their value in your daily diet. Post's BRAN FLAKES are a valuable ready-to-eat cereal that you'll enjoy... but you should eat them also for their special benefits.

- 1 These nourishing, golden-brown flakes have a crisp, nut-like flavor so delicious that you will want to eat them for taste alone.
- 2 But they also help to correct what is sometimes a serious lack-in the modern diet—insufficient "bulk." They supply just enough natural bulk, in the form of bran, to keep the food wastes moving promptly. Eaten regularly, they are a natural, safe way to prevent the "all-in" feeling that comes from a sluggish system.
- 3 Post's Bran Flakes also supply useful quantities of minerals that your body needs—iron for the blood, phosphorus for the bones and teeth.

Picture of Too Many People Trying to Phone at Once

You can see from the picture that too many cars are trying to cross the bridge at one time. Some are held up, because the capacity of any bridge is limited.

A telephone exchange is like a bridge, and telephone calls are like cars crossing the bridge. If a lot of people reach for their telephones at one time, too many calls try to get through the telephone exchange, so some have to wait... and among these may be some very important calls.

Why not build a bigger bridge? Why not expand the telephone system to take care of the abnormal surges of traffic which may result from wartime excitements? The Government restricts expansion of this sort to save manpower and materials. Therefore we ask your co-operation to prevent telephone traffic jams. When there is excitement, please resist the impulse to telephone about it, unless this is absolutely necessary.

A telephone traffic jam at a crucial time may have serious consequences!

Joe Haley, R.C.A.F. Corporal, Is P.T. Instructor at Calgary; School Paper Outlines His Career

Joe Haley, outstanding trail athlete who has represented Canada in Olympic Games in Berlin and in British Empire Games in London and Australia, is now a corporal in the Royal Canadian Air Force and is stationed at No. 2 Wireless School at Calgary. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Haley, 2143 Topping Street, Trail.

Pat Haley, his athletic younger brother, is at the University of Washington and starting in athletics and his second brother, Paul, also an outstanding trail athlete when inter-school competition was at a high ebb in this district, is with the Tadanac Police Force.

In the W.A.G. Signal, a memorandum news sheet compiled at No. 2 Wireless School, Corporal Haley is described as follows:

"Joseph Brennan Haley was born on a farm in Cape Breton in 1913. The Irish Canadian came West with his family to Trail, B.C., in 1928.

OVERCOMES HANDICAP

"At the age of six feet he Haley was stricken with infantile paralysis. This is usually enough to disable most boys permanently. When 14 years old he was advised to do some track work for the sole purpose of building up his leg. We will see that Joe not only built up his leg but that he has also built up a fine record as a high jumper.

"In his early school days Col. Haley took part in hockey and basketball as well as track. Later years found him doing some coaching in these sports.

"In 1930-31 Haley won the Jun'or Olympic high jump at Vancouver. At the Olympic trials in Hamilton in 1932 the Irishman was nosed out by Jack Portland of N.H.L. hockey fame. On this occasion Portland established a new native high jump record. Again at Hamilton, in 1934, we find our P. T. Instructor the winner of the British Empire Games trials. Later in the same year he tried with Thacker of South Africa in a meet in London where they leaped six feet three inches.

"When the Olympic trials were held at Montreal in 1936 it was

F.A.C. Bantam Line Sets Scoring Record With 142 Points in Season

Baseball Camp Notes

MUNCIE, Ind.—The Pittsburgh Pirates so surprised Manager Frankie Frisk in Sunday's intra-club game that he ordered another contest for today.

The regulars, with Eble Fletcher at first, Pete Cocorati at second, Frank Gustina at short and Bob Elliot at third, handled 48 chances without a miscue. The team opens its exhibition schedule Wednesday against the Ball State Teachers College nine.

BLOOMINGTON, Ind.—Manager Bill McKeehin of the Cincinnati Reds is confident that Bob Usher, 18-year-old speedster picked off the California sandlots, will be a great outfielder some day. Usher placed second in the 60-yard baseball players' dash at the Purdue relay Saturday.

LAKEWOOD, N.J.—The New York Giants played a 1-1 tie in their Sunday camp to everyone's satisfaction—except Carl Hubbell. The veteran Southpaw was ready to twist three innings but Manager Mel Ott refused permission until warmer weather sets in.

CAIRO, Ill.—Outfielder Harry Walker arrived in the St. Louis Cardinal camp just in time to play the full 12 innings of the 1-1 game. Outfielder Stan Mustel, in training only two days, also went the entire route.

BEAR MOUNTAIN, N.Y.—Joe Medwick, who says that 1943 will be his best year in the majors, blasted out a double and a home run as the Brooklyn Dodgers lost a 3-7 verdict to a team made up of Montreal and Durham N.C. players. Medwick drove in four runs.

Big League Player Sticks to Shipyard

SEATTLE, March 29 (AP)—Alan Strange, second baseman for St. Louis Browns of the American League last year, has given up big league baseball for shipyard work.

Strange has returned his contract unsigned to the Browns and with the announcement he will not quit his job here. Instead, he will act as player manager of the Sea-Tac baseball team in the newly formed war industries baseball league.

A.H.L. Title Series to Open Wednesday

NEW HAVEN, Conn., March 29 (AP)—League President Maurice Podoloff today set Wednesday, March 31, as the date for the opener of a best-of-five game American Hockey League championship series between Indianapolis and Buffalo.

Both the opener and the second game, set for Saturday, April 3, will be played at Buffalo. The teams then move to Indianapolis for the third game, Sunday, April 4.

Orlando Pleads Guilty to Charge of Posing as Essential Worker

DETROIT, March 29 (AP)—Jimmy Orlando of Montreal, 28-year-old star defenseman of the Detroit Red Wings National League hockey team, pleaded guilty today to a charge of obtaining draft deferment by posing as an essential war worker.

He was arraigned before United States Commissioner Clarence Pettit shortly after agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation arrested him as he was enroute at the Michigan Central Depot, with other members of the Red Wings squad, for Toronto and Tuesday night's Stanley Cup hockey playoff.

John S. Bugas, Chief of the F. B. I.'s Detroit office, said Orlando faces two specific charges of violating the Selective Service Act, failure to notify his board of a change in his occupational status and falsification of later information provided on the board.

Kenneth Wilkins, Assistant U.S. Attorney, said Orlando—known as the "Bad Man" of the National Hockey League because of his frequent trips to the penalty box—represented himself as a machinist employed by the Lincoln Tool & Die Co. of Detroit when he registered with his draft board last September.

Wilkins said the ice star actually was employed as a machinist for only two weeks, and later was transferred to office work, although he was classified 3-B on the strength of his statement that he was a machinist.

Wilkins said David Ferguson, part owner of Lincoln Tool & Die, was charged in a separate warrant with aiding Orlando to establish an erroneous selective service classification.

Orlando was freed under $2000 bond to await grand jury action on his case.

Orlando took a later train for Toronto to rejoin the Red Wings. As he left the court, he said reporters had misunderstood the affidavit he was accused of falsifying and planned to join the Canadian army, or the United States forces should he be called, at the end of the current hockey campaign.

He is a Canadian citizen.

Cubs Well on Way to Setting Up Team

FRENCH LICK, Ind., March 29 (AP)—Big Bill Nicholson signed up today and the Chicago Cubs outfield begins to look more like a victory garden, less like a vacant lot.

Nicholson, the Maryland farmer, had been roaming the hotel lobby for several days, now and then bumping into General Manager Jim Gallagher for salary conferences. It was reported they were $1000 apart, and it still was undisclosed who gave in first.

Big Nick knocked in 78 runs last year compared with 88 in 1941 and swatted 31 homers against 24 the previous season, but nevertheless, led the club in both categories.

Now, if the club wins its mon-

Montreal Club Beats Sydney Bruins 14-3

SYDNEY, N. S., March 29 (CP)—Scoring a half dozen goals in each of the last two periods, the powerful Montreal Canadiens overwhelmed the Sydney Bruins 14-3 tonight in the opening game of their Eastern Memorial Cup semi-final series. Seattle Ski Jumper Leaps 211, 213 Feet

SEATTLE, March 29 (AP)—Olay Ulland, Seattle, leaped 211 and 213 feet yesterday to break the former record of 210 feet in the Snoqualmie Pass Beaver Lake Ski Jump. Bill Healy, Portland, won the slalom race and was second in the downhill to win the combined championship. Mac Boehl, Portland, beat him in the downhill.

NEW STITCHES NOTHING TO FANS

DETROIT, March 29 (AP)—It takes more than physical hazard to dampen the ardor of Mr. and Mrs. Lou Reese of Lansing, Mich., for hockey.

They sat along the boards at Olympic arena last night watching the Detroit-Toronto Stanley cup game. In the second period Mrs. Reese was cut by a wild-flying puck. She went to the first-aid room for four stitches. Just as she returned to her seat her husband was struck on the nose by another puck. He went out for two stitches. Bandaged, they were reunited to cheer through the third period as Detroit rallied to win 4-3.

"Poor Fish" Kept Alive on Brandy in Days Long Since Gone

There's an old saw about fish out of water, and an equally familiar saying about a poor fish, and the connection between them and the cup that cheers may or may not be clear. But there is a connection of some kind or another in a London Daily Mail paragraph clipped some years ago by T. E. Peters of Gray Creek.

Mr. Peters recently rediscovered this clipping and in view of the keen interest in fishing in this district he thought it might be of interest. It was apparently one of those noted "letters to the editor," and it is reproduced here as it appeared in The Daily Mail.

"To the Editor of The Daily Mail:

"The other day I discovered in a drawer an old notebook in which was written this quaint way of keeping a fish alive out of water for 10 or 12 days:

"Take a small piece of bread soak it in brandy, and put a bit in each of the fish's gills. Pack the fish in clean straw, and you may move it as you like, with indifference to the fish, as it is in a state of drunkenness, as may be proved by putting it into water at the end of the said time, when it will thrive."

NO ARGUMENT IN THIS AS REGARDS a play which produces an extra trick if it works, but beats your contract if it fails, you have no argument. Go for the contract. But sometimes the play for the extra trick is also a safety play for the contract. It may enable you to pull through, even if an absolutely necessary move in another suit misses fire.
