U.S. Coal Miners to Go Back to Work for 2 Weeks

NEW YORK, May 2 (AP)—John L. Lewis announced tonight a two-week agreement has been made with the Government ending the work stoppage in the United States anthracite and bituminous coal fields as of Tuesday, pending further negotiations.

He made the following statement:

"The policy committee of the Mine Workers of America have just agreed by unanimous vote of the membership to restore all mines to immediate operation for a period of 15 days beginning Tuesday.

"This period is to be utilized in cooperation with the Coordinator of Solid Fuels for War on the authority of the United States Government to work out a new wage contract for the anthracite and bituminous coal industry.

"The agreement when worked out will be retroactive in all its terms and provisions to April 1, 1943, in bituminous coal and May 1 in anthracite.

"The mine workers recognize that they have a new employer who has not yet had time to appraise the immediate problems facing the industry.

"It is our desire to cooperate with the Government and to relieve the country from the confusion and stress of the existing situation.

"We are hopeful that this act will be accepted by our Government and the citizens of the nation as an act of wholesome good faith and secure for the mine workers at last that consideration for their wage proposals which they believe to be due.

"I ask the Press to carry ths message to the mine workers of the nation: Cooperate with your Government and with your policy committee and restore the mines to work on Tuesday morning.

"I salute you, coal miners. Your hearts are of oak, and your record of patriotism can never be challenged."

Lewis made the announcement extemporaneously at the close of the brief policy committee meeting behind closed doors. He said the agreement had been reached as the result of a conference starting at 9:55 this morning in Washington with Solid Fuels Administrator Harold Ickes and John R. Steelman, Head of the United States Conciliation Service.

Lewis said he had not seen President Roosevelt. "The basis of the arrangement," he said, "was the conference with Harold L. Ickes and John R. Steelman."

NEW YORK, May 2 (CP)— President Roosevelt, speaking from the White House in Washington 20 minutes after announcement of a 15-day truce in the United States' coal strike, declared tonight that "coal will be mined no matter what any individual thinks about it." He expressed hope that every man will be at work tomorrow as the mines resume operation under Government control.

Mr. Roosevelt addressed the country after President John L. Lewis of the United Mine Workers announced that the Union's Policy Committee had voted unanimously "to restore all mines to immediate operation for a period of 15 days beginning Tuesday."

The President spoke as the operators of 3850 mines, responding to a "call to service" dispatched Saturday by Ickes as nearly 500,000 miners stood idle in the coal fields, prepared to hoist the United States flag over their properties tomorrow and open them to a back-to-work movement.

Until Lewis' announcement there was no clear-cut indication in the coal fields of the response that might be expected tomorrow to the Government's appeal for uninterrupted production if it was not backed up by the nod of the Mine Workers' Chieftain. There had been straws in the wind but little more—11 Pennsylvania locals of the U.M.W. voted to remain idle until they heard from Lewis, while one local of 350 men voted to resume work.

Several governors had joined in the appeal to the miners to resume their work, and Ickes had reported a heartening response to his "call-to-service" telegrams to the operators.

Outwardly unmoved Saturday by Mr. Roosevelt's order taking over operation of the mines in the name of the Government, Lewis made a hurried trip to Washington today to confer with Ickes.

Lewis' Washington trip was made at "the request of Government officials," the Union said.

Not a single mine in Pennsylvania operated Saturday. About 83,000 anthracite miners were out as well as a total of 117,000 soft coal miners. Opinion among Union leaders in that State was that it would not help the situation for the Government to take over.

"We won't trespass on company property without a contract," said Daniel Ritters, Chairman of the Panther Valley General Mine Committee. "It would be useless for troops to come in. . . . The men are more united behind Lewis in this fight than any time before."

Mayor La Guardia, describing himself as "a friend of yours when you had only a few friends," addressed a radio appeal to Lewis asking him to order the miners back to work.

"John, I was a friend of yours when you had only a few friends," La Guardia said in a broadcast. "We have known each other more than 20 years, and I went to the mines on your behalf and on behalf of the miners who were exploited and underpaid many years ago. You have Commander-in-Chief. Heed him. Do Commander-in-hief. Heed him. Do it now, cheerfully and gracefully, and send the men back to work.

"If you fail, your leadership will be destroyed. Americans are behind their President and will give him every support in his determination to get the coal mined, to win the war in the quickest possible time."

VICTORY LOAN CAMPAIGN TOPS $370,000,000

People of Moderate Means Urged to Get Into Drive

ARMY SETS PACE

OTTAWA, May 2 (CP.)—Subscriptions to the Fourth Victory Loan Saturday brought the total for the first week of the three weeks' campaign to $372,844,900, National War Finance Committee announced tonight. The amount subscribed Saturday was $59,785,-550. The week's total was slightly more than one-third of the minimum objective of $1,110,000.

Loan headquarters said Saturday's figure was not considered low for a short business day. The corresponding figure for the first Saturday of the third Victory Loan last Autumn was $53,642,850.

The cumulative total for the first week of the third Victory Loan was $312,410,900, so that the present campaign has exceeded the previous one by some $60,000,000 for the week.

Pointing to the aim of obtaining $500,000,000 from the general public and payroll division, the headquarters statement said this required a 33 per cent increase in dollars, involving as well a sharp increase in the number of subscribers. Weekend analysis of the records, however, showed that the increase in dollars is as yet only 19 per cent and in numbers 13 per cent, which was described in the headquarters statement as "promising, but only moderately so." General canvass yielded a cumulative total of $83,-574,650 up to close of business Saturday, compared iwth $70,018,800 in the last loan. Payroll has yielded $6,507,400 compared with $5,130,000.

NEED TO DO BETTER

G. W. Spinney, Chairman of the National War Finance Committee, commenting on the weekend analysis, said:

"Canada as a whole is doing better than in any previous loan campaign, but is not doing well enough yet. The success of this loan cannot be measured only by dollars subscribed, but also and principally by the vast number of people of moderate means and moderate income who make it their special business to back up our fighting men by buying these bonds.

"Looking over the week's statistics, a really bright spot is the record of the armed forces—notably Canada's active army.

The army subscribed $2,700,000 in the whole of the last loan. They had subscribed no less than $4,560,000 by the end of the first week in the new campaign—a 68 per cent increase, with two weeks yet to go. This is indeed a brave showing.

"If Canadian civilians will but follow this noble example given by men who not only risk their lives but offer their dollars as well, we shall indeed have not only a great success, but also a demonstration of our national solidarity behind those men who shortly must go into battle on a great scale . . . we need the 2,000,000 Canadians who subscribed to the last loan to buy bonds in this one but we need many, many new subscribers as well."

Summerside, P.E.I., is the second city to reach its total objective. Officials announced the community had hit 101 per cent.

The navy's contribution was highlighted by a race by the East Coast Command to reach its objective of $1,000,000. Latest returns showed the Command with a total over $800,000 and the quota will likely be attained early in the week.

Chrysler Corporation of Canada at Windsor, Ont., subscribed $1,000,-000.

Locked out of the Boeing Aircraft Company plants at Vancouver because of a labor dispute over rest periods, workers opened an office in downtown Vancouver to accept Victory Bond applications. Brisk business was reported, the last available total for the aircraft workers being approximately $190,000.

Army's five-day total of $4,560,-400 subscribed in Canada was 87 per cent of its objective and totalled 40,-967 applications for an average of more than $111 per subscriber. Friday also saw it break its goal of $1,000,000 in a day, by rolling up $1,161,000.

"Latest available returns reveal that Vancouver is ninth and Victoria fourteenth among Canadian cities in percentage of general canvass and payroll savings quotas achieved," said Saturday night's statement. "Vancouver subscriptions totalled $4,932,500 or 26.2 per cent of the objective while Victoria's $955,900 represented 23.3 per cent."

Set Ceiling Prices on New Potatoes in Canada

OTTAWA, May 2 (CP) — The Prices Board tonight announced it was establishing retail ceiling prices on new potatoes, soon to appear on Canadian markets, and that the maximum at any point in Canada is 5½ cents a pound in May.

An order effective Monday sets the scale of prices. In June, July and August the maximum price anywhere in Canada is five cents.

These maximum prices apply to both imported and Canadian-grown new potatoes.

CHILE PRESIDENT TO VISIT CANADA

SANTIAGO, Chile, May 2 (CP)—It was announced today that President Juan Antonio Rios of Chile will visit Canada after his forthcoming trip to the United States.

7000 NAZIS DIE IN BLOODY CAUCASUS FIGHT

Week of German Attacks Ends in Failure

281 PLANES FALL

LONDON, May 2 (CP)—Russia announced tonight that its troops had killed 7000 Germans in the Novorossisk sector of the Caucasus in repulsing a six-day-old series of German counter-attacks.

Twenty-five German tanks and armored cars were knocked out and the "enemy units were bled white and, without achieving success, were forced to discontinue the attacks," said the midnight Soviet communique.

The Russians declared the Caucasus fight was a large-scale German effort to capture Red Army positions around the Black Sea Port area which is the last major enemy foothold in the Caucasus.

For days the Germans have attributed the fighting to Russian initiative, and claimed a "successful defence" fighting.

Heavy aerial action has been going on in the Caucasus in coordination with the ground fighting, and the Moscow bulletin said that in the week ending Saturday Red airmen had shot down 281 German planes compared to Russian losses of 105. Some Russian units have made offensive jabs in the Kuban River Valley on the Tamen Peninsula North of Novorossisk, and today's mid-day communique said the Red Army wiped out one enemy battalion in that sector.

But the midnight communique disclosed that the heaviest fighting has been near Novorossisk, and Russian Black Sea units have been operating off the Coast there in an effort to cut Axis supply lines to the Crimea. Hundreds of planes from both sides have been hurled into the fight.

The German communique today said Russian forces had landed in the "Northern sector of the bridgehead' in the Kuban, presumably the upper Coast of the Taman Peninsula opposite the Northern Coast of the Sea of Azov. Here the Russians hold a stretch of territory reaching from Rostov Westward almost to Taganrog.

With the ground fighting becoming firmer along other sections of the long front, Moscow dispatches said a resumption of widespread fighting was expected. These dispatches also have suggested that the Russians might beat the Germans to the punch.

One Soviet formation in the hitherto dormant sector of Orel, hinged between the Central and Southern Fronts, was reported officially today to have captured "a height of great importance" South of Orel.

The midnight communique announced the killing of 150 Germans on the front West of Moscow, the repulse of a German attempt to cross a river, presumably the Donets, in the Balakleya sector Southeast of Kharkov, and punishing artillery fire West of Rostov which was said to have destroyed five block-houses, partly wiping out a battalion of infantry, and the silencing of five artillery and mortar batteries.

The noon communique also suggested that the whole 1500-mile front was awakening after weeks of stagnation.

R.A.F. Smashed 90 Per Cent of Nazi Chemical Plant

LONDON, May 3 (Monday). (AP)— Ninety per cent of the buildings of one great chemical works in Stettin were destroyed in the R.A.F. raid April 20 when a single area of more than 100 acres was devastated, the Air Ministry News Service reported today.

The chemical plant covered 51 acres and only one of its buildings escaped damage, reconnaissance pictures showed.

SAYS TUNISIAN WAR WILL END IN MONTH

Giraud Declares "30 Years War" to End Next Year

By EDWARD KENNEDY
Associated Press Staff Writer

ALGIERS, May 2 (AP)—Gen. Henri Giraud predicted today that all Tunisia would be liberated this month and that the war would be ended victoriously next year.

The French military and civilian Commander-in-Chief remarked, in presenting diplomas to workers whose war efforts have been exceptional:

"This month of May will see the complete defeat of the Boche in Tunisia. The 30 years war which began in 1914 will be ended victoriously in 1944."

The General was asked: "What is this battle for?"

"If I were an American, I would say for the freedom of the world," he responded, "as a modest Frenchman, I say that it is for the liberation of France and for the release of those Frenchmen enslaved in Germany."

Outlining his ideas for post-war France, he said he favored a system neither Communist nor Fascist, but "a regime of participation" in which everyone would put the maximum effort into his work.

The General said he favored the establishment of minimum wages which would be sufficient to live on and extra rewards for those who did good work.

There will be no place in the new regime for "drones and professional agitators," he said.

German Province Shaken by Earthquake

NEW YORK, May 2 (CP)—The strongest earthquake registered in Germany in 40 years shook the Southwest Province of Wurttemberg Saturday night and Sunday morning and caused damage to buildings, the Berlin radio said.

Several tremors, most of them slight, were felt Sunday morning.

Light Sea Forces and Planes Blast Enemy Ships

American and French Troops Beat Closer to Mateur and Bizerte; Air Forces Keep Up Pace; 8th Army Renews Attack

By WILLIAM B. KING
Associated Press Staff Writer

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA, May 2 (AP)—British light naval forces, strengthening the blockade which Allied airmen have attempted to draw about the nearly-beleaguered Axis bridgehead in Tunisia, have swung into close-quarter, day-and-night action at the very doorstep of Tunis, Allied Headquarters announced today.

At the same time, the communique issued by Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower said American and French troops, fighting through hills so steep that advanced units were supplied with food dropped from planes, have pushed closer to Mateur and Bizerte.

French units mopping up the Northern coastal areas have reached the region of Marsa Douiba, a French communique said, and Southeast of Pont du Fahs have thrown back a "violent German counter attack" with "severe loss to the enemy."

Indicating that light British sea forces, in conjunction with airplanes were searching out the hiding places of every enemy craft venturing into Tunisian waters, the communique said the Allied sailors "operating around the Coast of Cap Bon Peninsula" rendered useless two Italian minesweepers and a German R-boat and sank a large motor vessel, while other naval forces sank a fourth ship, a merchantman, off the South coast of Sicily.

The R-boat is 75 to 100 feet long and armed with torpedoes and heavy machine guns.

The Allied gunners went in so close during the attack in a creek that they raked parked aircraft on the beaches with their shellfire.

ABANDON WARSHIP

The exploit was not without its cost, however, and one of the Allied warships had to be abandoned and sunk during the fierce fire of enemy shore batteries and fighter planes which attacked for more than an hour.

Although most of the crew were rescued under fire, one of the Allied dead was the young 26-year-old British unit commanders, Lieut. Phillip Francis Steward Gould.

While ground action along the Tunisian front, now shrunk from 140 to about 125 miles as a result of the Allied offensive, was described as at a "slight lull" by the Allied communique, the Northwest African and desert air forces again made hundreds of sorties on all sorts of missions despite unfavorable weather.

A headquarters spokesman said the troops made a "slight improvement in all positions without much interference from the enemy," but the brunt of the offensive action was carried in the second U. S. Army Corps in the Sidi n'Sir area, where the Southern branch of the American drive has reached to within 16 miles of Mateur, itself 18 miles from Bizerte.

The Americans completed their conquest of Djebel Tahent—Hill 609—the table-topped mass whose Northern slopes they had taken the day before. The Hill commands stretches of valley extending toward Mateur and is just East of Sidi n'Sir. Seventy prisoners were taken in this operation.

Assisted by Moroccan Goums and the French Volunteer Corps, the Americans also attacked and gained the Western slopes of Djebel Hazemat, on the Mediterranean flank 14 miles Northwest of Mateur and just to the Northwest of Lake Achkel. (This mountain apparently is about 22 miles West of Bizerte.)

They failed to reach the summit but inflicted heavy casualties and took most of their 600 prisoners here.

On the other flank, the Americans held against a fierce enemy counter-attack directed at Hill 476, eight miles due North of Medjez-el-Bab. The Americans had taken the position in a bayonet attack Friday.

In this sector to the South of Sidi n'Sir the Germans still hold a mountain salient on the North flank of the British 1st Army which has driven down the Medjerda valley to Djebel Bou Aoukaz, 20 miles West of Tunis, and they were trying desperately to hold dominating ground preventing tank access to the plains beyond.

The British 1st Army improved its position slightly in the Medjez el-Bab area, but to the Southeast had to drop back about a mile in bitter fighting which occurred four miles East of Goubellat Friday.

The British 8th Army made a renewed attack in the hills six miles North of Enfidaville yesterday when the Nazis had made some slight gains and flung the enemy back for a second time, but there was nothing official to confirm Axis broadcasts yesterday that Gen. Sir Bernard Montgomery had begun anything like a general assault.

In the course of hundreds of Allied sorties, Spitfires yesterday shot down eight enemy planes. Four Allied aircraft were lost.

Supplementing the air and sea attacks on enemy sea lanes, in which seven Axis vessels were sunk and at least two more hit Friday, fighters and fighter-bombers from the desert again bombed jetties at Sidi Daoud and Kelibia on Cap Bon Peninsula.

Long-range Allied fighters from the Cairo Command also attacked a small enemy merchant ship in the Aegean yesterday and left it motionless and aflame.

Battered Body of Coast Woman Is Found

NANAIMO, B.C., May 2 (CP)—An inquest will open here Monday morning into the death of Mrs. Margaret Hughes, 48, whose nude and battered body was found early Saturday morning in her husbands automobile in the Northern outskirts of Nanaimo.

Her husband, James Hughes, 50, of Cumberland, B.C., was charged with murder in connection with his wife's death. He appeared in police court Saturday for preliminary hearing and was remanded to May 8.

An autopsy showed the woman suffered a broken neck and broken vertebrae. Police said they found the body of Mrs. Hughes, badly beaten about the head, lying in the front seat of the car.

Police said Mr. and Mrs. Hughes had separated about a month ago, Mrs. Hughes coming to Nanaimo from their home at Cumberland to obtain employment as a waitress.

Hughes was formerly well known as a soccer player.

No Troops Hurt in Prairie Train Derailment

WINNIPEG, May 2 (CP.) — A large number of troops aboard a Canadian Pacific Railway Soo Line train which was derailed at Arnaud, Man., 47 miles South of Winnipeg late Saturday night, escaped injury but three members of the crew were hurt, it was announced tonight.

C. P. R. officials said that the engine and five coaches of the 14-coach extra Southbound train had overturned. An open switch at the North End of the Arnaud Station was believed to have caused the wreck.

204 AXIS SHIPS SUNK IN MEDITERRANEAN SINCE ALLIED LANDINGS

LONDON, May 2 (CP) — British submarines have destroyed or damaged 204 Axis ships on the Mediterranean "death run" since the Allied landings in French Africa last Nov. 8, it was announced today. Of these, 110 were listed as definitely known sunk and it was said many of the damaged vessels may have been unable to reach port.

EDMONTON BUILDING BURNS

EDMONTON, May 2 (CP)—A two-alarm fire of unknown origin today partially gutted a two-storey brick building housing the Capitol Cleaners in the city's Southern Bennett District and did extensive damage to machinery and clothing. Damage was estimated at $9000.

British Ships Sink Heavily Armed Patrol Craft

LONDON, May 2 (AP)—Light British naval forces sank one of four heavily armed Nazi patrol craft encountered early Saturday off Terschelling, the Netherlands, and left two others halted and burning fiercely, the Admiralty said today.

Nazi Storm Troops Chief of Staff Injured Seriously

NEW YORK, May 2 (AP)—Viktor Lutze, Chief of Staff of the German Storm Troops, was injured seriously in an automobile accident yesterday near Potsdam, the Berlin radio said today.

He was returning from an inspection tour. Hitler was said to have telegraphed Lutze his "best wishes for recovery."

Lutze formerly was Governor of Hannover.

R.A.F. STRIKES AT PLANTS IN NETHERLANDS

French Railways Hit; Americans Bomb St. Nazaire

18 PLANES LOST

By LEWIS HAWKINS
Associated Press Staff Writer

LONDON, May 2 (AP)—R.A.F. Bombers and fighters struck at industrial targets at Ijmuiden in the Netherlands today, following up a heavy raid Saturday by big American bombers against the German submarine base at St. Nazaire that cost seven planes.

Mosquito bombers later this afternoon darted in to hit railway targets in France. All returned safely.

(Radio stations at Paris and Calais were silent Sunday night 45 minutes to an hour, possibly indicating new raids on the continent).

The British raiders over Holland today destroyed six enemy fighters, but lost four of their own combat ships. This attack followed mining operations and reconnaissance flights spotting shipping off the Norwegian coast last night. Seven planes were lost in the latter flights, including one Canadian.

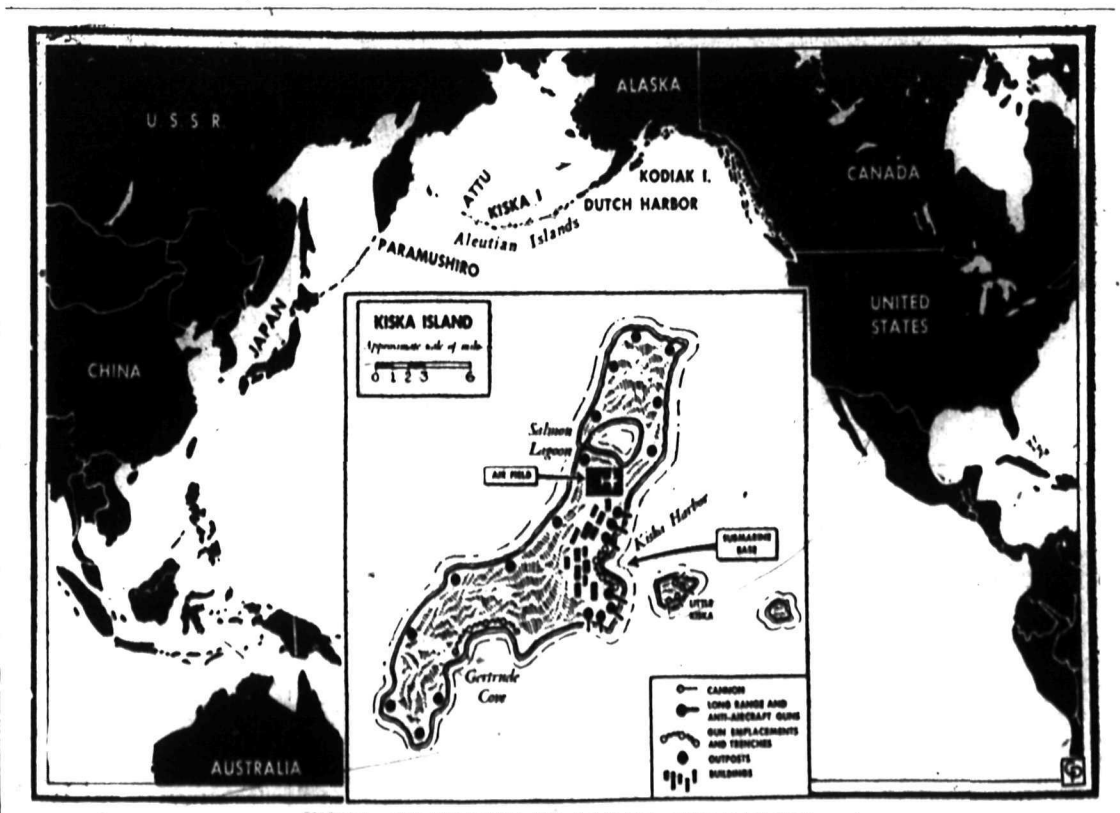
The raid on St. Nazaire, first expedition for American heavy bombers since they raided Bremen last April 17, brought unusually heavy loss. American hihgest losses previously were 17 aircraft on the Bremen raid nd seven in that on Wilhelmshaven. The loss over St. Nazaire was taken as an indication of increased Nazi defensive strength, leading observers to believe the Germans were worried about the pounding the port has taken.

The German radio claimed 11 four-engined American bombers and 12 British torpedo and destroyer planes were downed "in the course of thrusts made against a German strongpoint on the Atlantic coast and in Norwegian waters."

As the R.A.F. closed the books on the first third of the 1943 aerial offensive, these facts were recapitulated:

The R.A.F. is delivering as great a tonnage with 500 to 600 planes now as it did a year ago in the 1000-plus bomber attacks, one of which was delivered on Essen.

Almost 10 000 tons of bombs were dropped on Germany in 10 major raids during April and this was in addition to several heavy attacks on Italy and occupied territory during the month.



KISKA, JAP THREAT TO ALASKA AND CANADA

This map, inset, shows what the Japs have accomplished on the Aleutian Island of Kiska since they occupied it last June. Despite repeated bombings by Allied air forces, the Nips have succeeded in installing formidable military establishments on the island. Proximity of the major enemy base at Paramushiro makes it possible for Kiska to be reinforced with comparative ease.

NUMBER OF APPLICANTS IN NELSON UNIT UP

Addition of $26,900 in sales Saturday brought the Nelson District Fourth Victory Loan total to $139,-00, almost 16 per cent of the $700,-00 quota. The total compares with 146,000 at the same stage in the Third Victory Loan.

Nelson District Loan officials stated Sunday that one of the features of the current campaign is the increase in the number of applicants, indicating much wider participation.

New Denver shows the best standing in the campaign to date with $4,050 reported. This was nearly three times the total at the same time in the third campaign. Its quota is $42,000.

At the Emerald mine near Salmo, where Paul Lincoln is conducting a canvass, 38 individuals have been interviewed so far, and applications totalling $3500 have been made. This represents an investment of better than $90 by each applicant.

Bracken Will Be Honored Today at Trail, Nelson

John Bracken, Leader of the Progressive-Conservative Party of Canada, will be honored today at functions in Trail and Nelson. Accompanied by Howard Green, M.P., Vancouver, Mr. Bracken goes to Trail this morning. He will be entertained at a luncheon, and later in the afternoon will be guest of honor at a reception at the Masonic Temple.

Returning to Nelson, he will be guest of honor at a reception to be held in the Silver Room of the Hume Hotel at 8:30 p.m. The function will be non-partizan.

"I am here to meet people, to familiarize myself with conditions, and to strive to understand more fully the Canadian economy," Mr. Bracken said Sunday.

"I want to know what the people think, and what they believe can be done to improve Canada's economy."

He is particularly interested in the working man's viewpoint.

Mr. Bracken and Mr. Green arrived in Nelson Saturday night from Grand Forks. They were met by a party which included C. B. Garland, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Horswill, Mrs. H. H. Pitts, Mrs. Reginald Haggarty and Mrs. Albert Wallach.

Sunday morning, accompanied by Mr. Green and H. A. Matthews, the Progressive-Conservative Leader attended the Victory Loan Sunday service at Trinity United Church, and in the afternoon inspected the Civic Centre. For most of the day he seized the opportunity to rest.

Mr. Green Sunday afternoon went to Kaslo for a brief visit with his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Green.

Two Soldiers Die in Ladysmith Crash

LADYSMITH, B.C., May 2 (CP)—Two soldiers lost their lives early today when the military car in which they were riding failed to make a turn, crashed through the bridge railing at Diamond Crossing and fell 48 feet onto railway tracks. One man was killed instantly and the other died later in hospital.

Next of kin have been informed and their names will be released shortly.

BOEING PLANT WORKERS STILL IDLE

Battle on National Issue Says Union Head

VANCOUVER, May 2 (CP) — Eight thousand skilled aircraft workers tonight awaited the approach of a new week uncertain whether it would find them back at their jobs in plants of the Boeing Aircraft of Canada Ltd., closed since Wednesday by a dispute over rest periods.

"No satisfactory solution has been reached in the dispute and there is nothing to show that a solution will be reached on the weekend," Charles Whent, President of the Aeronautical Mechanics' Lodge No. 756 (A.F.L.) told a mass meeting of Boeing employees Saturday afternoon.

Other Union leaders instructed workers, who have been reporting regularly for their shifts although the plants are idle, to discontinue this practice and "save gasoline and tires for the war effort."

Decision to take a secret ballot of workers on whether to remain out or go back to work on the Government's terms of no rest periods won a favorable response from the meeting, but subsequently it was agreed to leave the matter in the hands of the Executive.

Whent said that "we did not intend to move out of the plants on the rest period question alone, but on the matter of agreement. However, we were jockeyed into a position where we had to take a definite stand on the rest period question.

"We have not reached any agreement yet," he continued, "and we will not make any rash decision today. To settle this matter we will have to back up a bit and the Government will have to back up a bit."

Whent said that Hon. C. D. Howe, Minister of Munitions and Supply, whose order was responsible for closure of the plants, had decided if the Government conceded the rest periods to Boeing employees, similar concessions would have to be made right across Canada to all workers.

"This shows," said Whent, "that we are not merely fighting on the question of whether we get rest periods here in Vancouver but on a national issue which vitally affects all Canadian workers and probably aircraft workers in the United States as well."

Allied Airmen Attack Japs Heavily in Burma

NEW DELHI, May 2 (CP)—British and American airmen attacked Japanese positions at many points in Burma Saturday, bombing and strafing troops, air fields and supply lines in widespread operations, communiques disclosed today.

Heavy American bombers pounded an enemy air field at Pagoda Point, South of Rangoon, and hits were observed on the runway.

Medium bombers attacked storage buildings and railway sidings in Mandalay and nearly 50 bombs were seen to burst in the target area. The warehouse area was reported completely destroyed.

Other medium bombers joined American fighters in an attack on enemy installations at Hopin. They started at least a dozen fires, many of which were large and some of which belched black smoke, indicating that oil storage dumps had been destroyed.

R.A.F. Wellington bombers started large fires at Taungup Saturday night.

The much-bombed Myitnge bridge near Mandalay, which the Japanese have been trying desperately to repair for weeks, was given another pounding by American medium bombers Thursday. They scored direct hits on the bridge and near hits on both sides of the span which were believed to have damaged supports.

F.D.R. APPEALS TO PATRIOTISM OF COAL MINERS

Production Stoppage Means Gamble With Lives of Men

BLAMES LEWIS

By J. F. SANDERSON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, May 2 (CP)—President Roosevelt appealed tonight to "the essential patriotism" of the striking coal miners of the United States to return to the pits without further delay.

The President declared that each idle miner "directly and individually obstructs" the war effort of the United States.

The President said the forward movement of the United States, and indirectly of the United Nations, "must not be hampered by any one individual or by the leaders of any one group here back home.'

He declared that production of coal "will not be stopped" and told the 500,000 striking miners they were gambling with the future of their country.

"We have not won this war," the President declared.

"We will win this war as we produce and deliver our total armed effort on the high seas and on the battle fronts.

"That requires unrelenting, uninterrupted effort here on the home front."

A stoppage of coal production, he continued, "even for a short time would involve a gamble with the lives of American soldiers and sailors and the future security of our whole people.

"It would involve an unwarranted, unnecessary and terrible dangerous gamble with our chances for victory."

In plain words, Mr. Roosevelt laid the blame for the coal crisis squarely on John L. Lewis and the other National Officers of the U.M.W. and said he had received messages from American soldiers and sailors overseas telling what they thought of a nation-wide coal strike in the middle of a war.

Not once did he mention Lewis by name but the whole tenor of his speech was in appeal to the miners, over the head of the U.M.W. President, to return to work coupled with a direct attempt to pin the responsibility for the strike on the Labor leader. It was an appeal to the patriotism of the miners, an appeal to place country before union, loyalty to the Government before loyalty to Lewis.

Mr. Roosevelt called attention to the no-strike pledge of the major Labor organizations. John L. Lewis, President of the United Mine Workers, who had said his union members would not trespass on coal company property after a labor contract expired Friday night, was a party to that pledge.

The United Mine Workers were a party, the President said, to a request for creation of the War Labor Board to settle any disputes which could not be adjusted through collective bargaining. But he said the National Officers of the U.M.W. had declined to have anything to do with the Board's fact-finding in the miner-operator dispute over a wage increase and other issues.

Furthermore, he said, the U.M.W. officials refused to participate when asked to attend a W.L.B. hearing last Monday.

While the American people have accomplished a miracle, Mr. Roosevelt said, "all of our mass effort is none too great to meet the demands of this war."

"We shall need everything that we have and everything that our Allies have—to defeat the Axis and the Fascists in the coming battles on the continent of Europe and the Japanese on the continent of Asia and in the islands of the Pacific," he declared.

Mr. Roosevelt declared that the war has reached a new critical phase in which the Allies have moved into "active and continuing battle with our enemies," after years of preparation. Reporting on his recent inspection tour of the country's war facilities, he said he had seen thousands of workers on production lines and men being trained for battle, and everywhere he found "great eagerness to get on with the war."

Apparently for contrast with the position of striking miners, he told how he had seen men and women working long hours at difficult jobs and living under difficult conditions without complaint.

He realized, he said, that the cost of living is troubling miners and millions of other families. The Government is determined not to let the cost of living go up as it did in the First Great War but to maintain stability of both prices and wages, Mr. Roosevelt said.

While prices of some necessities have not been held as low as was desired, the President said, he promised that where prices of essential commodities had gone too high "they will be brought down." Violators of price ceilings will be punished, he said.

Giraud Abolishes All Political Internment Camps

LONDON, May 2 (CP)—The Algiers radio said tonight that Gen. Henri Giraud had ordered all political internment camps in French North Africa abolished.

"General amnesty will be granted and measures to this effect will be taken immediately," said the broadcast.

Ford Plant Men Accept Decision

WINDSOR, Ont., May 2 (CP)—The United Automobile Workers of America (C.I.O.) in a closed meeting here today voted to accept the decision of Louis Fine, Chief Conciliation Officer of the Ontario Department of Labor, in a labor dispute at the Ford Motor of Canada plant here.

Mr. Fine served as arbitrator in the dispute between the Company and the Union, which last month resulted in a closing of the vast plant with a three-day loss of employment to 15,000 workers.

DARWIN HEAVILY RAIDED BY JAP WARPLANES

13 Shot Down, But Allied Plane Losses Also Heavy

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN AUSTRALIA, May 3 (Monday)—(CP).—Darwin was heavily raided by Japanese warplanes Sunday, the Allied High Command announced today.

Twenty-one enemy bombers and 30 fighters attacked the airdrome. It was the 54th raid on Darwin.

"Twenty-one enemy bombers, escorted by 30 fighters attacked the airdrome from high altitude," the noon communique said.

"Damage on the ground was negligible. Our fighters intercepted, destroying or damaging 13 planes. Our own losses were heavy."

There was no elaboration on the statement of Allied losses. Observers believed that possibly several Allied pilots had been rescued after having been shot down.

Allied medium bombers carried out a night attack on the Penfoei airdrome at Kupang, Timor, dropping incendiaries and high explosives and starting numerous fires.

A heavy reconnaissance plane routed seven Japanese Zeros which attempted interception over Gasmata, New Britain. Two of the enemy fighters were damaged.

Kimberley Vote Exclusively at Sullivan Mine

KIMBERLEY, B. C., May 2 — To clear the obvious confusion in the public mind away from Kimberley as to the nature of the recent voting here on bargaining agency—not all the news having had a Kimberley origin—it may be stated that the ballot was held by the Sullivan Mine Cooperative Committee, was participated in only by the mine employees and related only to the bargaining agency for the mine employees. The question posed was a choice between having the Workmen's Cooperative Committee perform this function, or having a local union of the C.I.O. assume that role. The vote was in favor of the C.I.O. alternative, 570-368.

The concentrator has its own Workmen's Cooperative Committee and so far there has been no announcement of an intention to hold a poll of this nature among the Concentrator employees with respect to the bargaining agency for the concentrator workers. J. MacKay is Chairman and C. Schulli is Secretary of the Concentrator Cooperative Committee.

No one can confidently predict what will happen next, but the C.I.O. local union is rapidly signing up members from both mine and concentrator and claims it has a majority of each.

Under the B. C. Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act, once a union can prove it has 51 per cent of employee membership paid up, it is in a position to call for a vote.

One thing is certain—the local union here has applied to Hon. G. S. Pearson, Minister of Labor, for recognition of bargaining rights for the Sullivan mine and concentrator employees.

A possible development could be a decision of the Minister to supervise a ballot, at which both the C. M. & S. Company, through its Cooperative Committees, and the Union, would be represented.

On the other hand, the ruling that the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Company's plants at Trail are exclusively under the Dominion during the continuation of the war might be found to apply also here, where the ore originates.

Hamilton District Struck by Fire

HAMILTON, Ont., May 2 (CP)—Damage estimated at $150,000 was caused by one of the worst fires in Hamilton's history which swept the East end of the city Saturday, destroying a large lumber yard and four houses and causing injury to five firemen and one civilian. The blaze, which raged for several hours, at one time endangered the whole district.

At least six families were made homeless.

WELSH COAL MINERS TO BOOST PRODUCTION

LONDON, May 2 (CP)— Thousands of coal miners attending delayed May Day celebrations through out the South Wales fields today pledged increased production and acclaimed a resolution praising the "magnificent fortitude and glorious courage of our Soviet Allies." The resolution urged immediate action in Europe "which will compel the common enemy to confront the whole weight of Allied might simultaneously."

Antonio Gallicano, 46 Years In Nelson, Drowns While on Fishing Trip to Beasley Vicinity

Antonio Gallicano, for 46 years a resident of Nelson, drowned Sunday about noon near Beasley, while fishing. It is believed he slipped on rocks on the bank of Kootenay River, and fell into fast water. Efforts to recover the body were unsuccessful Sunday, and will be continued today.

Mr. Gallicano, an enthusiastic fisherman, was making his first trip of the 1943 season, accompanied by Robert Kennedy. While Mr. Kennedy hunted locusts for bait Mr. Gallicano, supplied with locusts before he left home, went down to the river bank to fish.

James Stout and William Jones, nearby, heard a shout and ran to give assistance. They saw him in the water and pushed out a log, but he sank and did not reappear.

The two young men went to Taghum and called Provincial Police. Corporal John White of the Nelson office directed dragging operations.

Mr. Gallicano disappeared just above the boom near Beasley which prevents driftwood going down the river to the West Kootenay Power & Light Co. Ltd power plants. The boom, under wartime restrictions, is the limit of the open fishing area.

Born near Naples, Italy, 66 years ago, Mr. Gallicano emigrated to Canada at the age of 18. He became a Canadian citizen in 1907.

On his arrival in Canada he worked for a short time at Revelstoke. Subsequently he engaged in mining for a short time at Prince Rupert, then came to Nelson in 1897 and worked as a section man for the C.P.R. on construction work in this District. Then for a short time he was employed in the C.P.R. shops at Nelson.

For many years Mr. Gallicano was in the hotel business and also operated pool rooms. Some 15 years ago he started to work for the City of Nelson, and in the years since has been "powder man" on City blasting jobs.

Besides his wife he leaves four sons, William and Jack of Nelson; Carl, in the Army at the Coast; and Joseph, overseas with the Royal Canadian Air Force; and two grandchildren. Sergeant-Pilot Gallicano arrived in Britain only a few weeks ago.

Bracken Enjoys View of Forks Valley

GRAND FORKS, B. C., May 2 — "Where did you get all the flat land? I have not seen such a large area of level land since I left the Prairie, and this is certainly a grand sight with its abundant foliage and splendor of blossoms."

Such was the comment of Hon. John Bracken, Progressive Conservative Leader, when he got his first glimpse of Grand Forks Valley from Sunnyside hill while on a tour of the Kettle Valley District and which has followed a tour of the Coast Island areas of British Columbia. Mr. Bracken motored to the mining district of Greenwood as well as the productive agricultural areas of Grand Forks.

The former Manitoba Premier and Howard Green, M.P., were met at Midway by a group of friends and taken on a motor tour and shown the highlights of the Boundary District. Those meeting him were T. A. Love, M.L.A., for Grand Forks-Greenwood; D. C. Manly, President Grand Forks Board of Trade; Gordon McMynn, prominent merchant lumberman of Midway; J. B. McDonald, Road Superintendent, and E. R. Oatman.

First stop was made at Midway Hotel to shake hands with friends. Mr. Bracken was much interested in this ranching area and the lack of irrigation for its wide spaces with plenty of water in the adjacent Kettle River now approaching flood conditions.

The visitors were then motored to Greenwood, once-famed mining area where 1200 Japanese evacuees from the Coast are quartered.

At the City Office Mr. Bracken met a large group of friends, among them being City Clerk Mansfield, with whom he was intimate in Winnipeg some years ago.

Grand Forks was reached after a 30-mile motor trip over roads that were commented upon as being excellent. Here the former Manitoba Premier was greeted by Mayor F. J. Miller, fromer Brandon youth; City Clerk Hutton, who tended the same swimming hole back in Leeds, County of Ontario; Postmaster E.J. Reynolds, who was a pal at Brockville High School, and a host of others, many of whom also knew "Jack" Bracken.

Mr. Bracken was shown some of the fields sown to onion and carrot seed.

FOR KEEPS THIS TIME - SAYS MICKEY'S WIFE

LOS ANGELES, May 2 (AP) — "This time it's for keeps," said Actress Ava Gardner as she filed suit for divorce Saturday against Mickey Rooney, youthful film star. She charged in her complaint that 21-year-old Mickey had caused her "grievous mental suffering." She did not ask for alimony. Miss Gardner twice before had instituted the abandoned divorce proceedings.

Emerald Miners Put $3500 in Bonds So Far

Men engaged in the Emerald mine project near Salmo, working to bring into production a tungsten mine which will do much to supply the Allied Nations with this sorely-needed war metal, are also backing the Fourth Victory Loan.

Paul Lincoln of Nelson, in charge of the canvass, interviewed 38 men during the latter part of the week, and signed up applications for bonds to the value of $3500. This represented an average of over $90 invested for each applicant.

Emerald employees are now engaged in a guessing contest based on the total amount which will be subscribed by them.

Bombers Again Smash at Kiska Base

WASHINGTON, May 2 (AP)—Flying through weather so bad that results could not be observed, American fliers have hit twice again at the Japanese base on Kiska in the Aleutians.

The assaults—first in three days on the rocky island in the North Pacific—were made by Lightning fighters, the Navy reported today. It was assumed that they carried bombs to drop on the enemy runways and other installations there. Hits definitely were scored, but the ever-present fogs and storms in the Aleutians area made it impossible for the fliers to observe results of their attacks as they flew back toward their base.

Carried out Friday, the attacks broke a lull in the Aleutians which had continued since other groups of the Army's Lightning fighters roared over the island in the 143rd raid since March 31.

Meantime in the South Pacific Friday, Solomons Islands time, Avenger torpedo bombers, Dauntless dive bombers and Corsair fighters joined in an attack on Munda. Results of the raid—the 114th on that enemy airbase on New Georgia Island in the Central Solomons—were not reported.

Mrs. Burgess of Calgary, Ymir Old Timer, Dies

Mrs. Julie Ann Burgess, aged 89, for many years a resident of Ymir, died at Calgary Saturday. She was ill only a day or two.

Mrs. Burgess was well known in the Salmo-Ymir-Nelson area, the family home being at Ymir, where she was an old timer. Mr. Burgess died several years ago. Mrs. Burgess afterward made her home at Calgary, but returned for visits.

Two of her sons, Andrew (Sonny) and Matt, live at Ymir, and a third, Norman, is employed Hazelton. Her daughter Edna, married, is in Toronto.

Churches Mark "Victory Loan Sunday"

Nelson churches participated in the Victory Loan campaign on Sunday, which was set as "Victory Loan Sunday."

Messages from the pulpit emphasized the importance of the Fourth Victory Loan campaign and urged whole-hearted participation in it.

At Trinity United H. D. Dawson spoke on the loan during the service.

14½ POUND TROUT CAUGHT IN MOYIE LAKE

CRANBROOK, B. C., May 2—The biggest fish to come out of Moyie or any East Kootenay Lake for several years was landed today by Jack Atchison and Hubert Neily. It was a Kamloops trout and weighed 14½ pounds. They caught it on light trolling tackle and it took nearly two hours to land it in the boat without a gaff. A 10-pounder was hauled from Moyie Lake Saturday.

ONE WASHDAY MY AUNT CRIED—

"YOUR CLOTHES LOOK HALF-WASHED"

THEN SHE TOLD ME—

NO MATTER HOW YOU DO YOUR WASH YOU NEED SUNLIGHT'S "EXTRA-SOAPINESS" FOR EXTRA-DIRTY SPOTS

YOU DON'T HAVE TO BE an expert to see how much soapier Sunlight is. Just feel a fresh cake of Sunlight. Notice its grand extra-soapiness. It's this marvelous added cleansing power that gets even "toughest" spots brighter! No wonder women everywhere say Sunlight Soap makes the difference between clothes looking half-washed or brilliantly bright.

Safe for colors

JUST PUT A TOUCH of Sunlight at those extra-dirty places. Instantly a thin film of soap comes in contact with the dirt. As the clothes are washed, Sunlight's deep-cleansing power gets into the clothes—gets even play clothes and grimy work shirts brighter! Yet Sunlight is so pure, it's absolutely safe for washable colors.

FOR A COMPLETE WASHING JOB YOU CAN'T DO WITHOUT SUNLIGHT

EASIEST DISHWASHING EVER! Sunlight is all pure soap . . . and that's what makes it so marvelous for dishes and all cleaning, too. Cuts grease extra-fast. But it's kind to hands, too. And Sunlight goes a long, long way.

MacDonald Sees Canadian Army Units on Parade

BY ROSS MUNRO
Canadian Press War Correspondent

SOMEWHERE IN ENGLAND, May 2 (CP Cable)—Malcolm MacDonald, British High Commissioner to Canada, saw completely equipped battle-ready Canadian armored and infantry units in a tour of the Canadian training area which he described as "a fascinating visit".

Later Mr. MacDonald lunched with Lt.-Gen A. G. L. McNaughton, Canadian Army Commander.

In an interview, the High Commissioner praised both "the remarkable development work and and ingenuity" shown in the Canadian Army which he said he believed had kept the formations on their toes for the last three years in England.

He first inspected a guard of honor from the Westminster Regiment, New Westminster, B.C. Then he saw the British Columbia Dragoons, drawn up in battle formation in a sweeping valley with all their tanks and armored vehicles on parade.

A photo library of Nelson District men and women now serving in the fighting services was a novel feature—and one that attracted a great deal of comment—when the Nelson Women's Auxiliary to the Active Forces held a tea and bake sale at the Institute Room, Civic Centre, Friday afternoon.

Members and friends brought photos of relatives nd friends now on active service. There were so many that shelves, book cases and even chairs were used to display them, each with its name card attached. These and a large Union Jack emphasized the raison d'etre of the Auxiliary.

For the tea, the main table was centred with a crystal bowl of kashmirinas. Individual tables featured bowls and vases of Spring blossoms, including violets, primroses, snow on the mountain, daffodils, narcissi and others.

Mrs. W. O. Rose, Honorary First Vice-President, and Mrs. T. R. Mosher and Mrs. F. Thompson, who served in France in the last war, presided at the tea table. Mrs. A. E. Dalgas, Honorary President, and Mrs. H. H. Currie, President, received the guests.

Mrs. Albert Wallach was General Convener. At the bake table were Mrs. B. Ramsden and Mrs. D. G. Mosses. Tea arrangements were handled by Mrs. Thomas Cookson, Mrs. E. George, Mrs. E. Sutcliffe, and Mrs. George Sutherland. Serving were Mrs. E. M. Gillott and Mrs. A. D. Oliver. Mrs. James Dawson was Cashier.

Mrs. Wallach had charge of decorations and Mrs. Currie of pictures.

It was the Auxiliary's first combined tea and sale. It has held sales previously.

102 Silver Dollars From Thrifty Nelson Taxi Man

One hundred and two silver dollars clinked down on a table in Nelson Victory Loan headquarters Saturday; yes, sir, count 'em—102 bright and shiny Canadian dollar pieces.

It was 26-year-old John A. Morrison, 77 Taxi, who delivered them, in his taxi, when he made a $200 Victory Bond purchase.

Mr. Morrison has been saving since the last Victory Loan every silver dollar he had received from taxi customers.

This evidence of the number of silver dollar pieces in circulation in the District was a surprise at Victory Loan office.

Much More Than Rest Periods at Stake Says Bell

EDMONTON, May 2 (CP)—The issue at the Boeing Aircraft Plants in Vancouver which shut down after employees insisted on taking 10-minute rest periods, is "much more important than the mere question of rest periods," Ralph P. Bell, Director-General of Aircraft Production Branch, said in a telegram received in Edmonton yesterday.

Mr. Bell said the employees at Boeings had an agreement for the duration of the war in which there was no provision for rest periods or smoking in the plant. It provided that any infraction of the rules constituted cause for discharge or disciplinary action.

"The employees' request for rest periods was refused," he said in the wire. "The employees thereupon took the law into their own hands and deliberately violated the terms of their agreement and the company rules. On being warned that repetition would lead to closing of the plant, they again defiatnly walked out.

"The issue is plain and simple: are labor unions going to be permitted to break their agreement with impunity at will and is the Government in control or is it not. The foregoing does not mean that I favor rest periods on an eight-hour-shift. I definitely do not and will resist it with all my power. But I want to make it unmistakeably clear that the issue which brought about the closing of plants goes away beyond this."

Now that thousands of wives and mothers are working in war industries or busy on war service work, many men are having to do their own cooking. No wonder they ask their women-folk for easy recipes! Here are a few suggestions that will help solve the "what-to-eat" problem.

ON THE KITCHEN FRONT

Vegetable-Beef Stew

Time—Preparation 30 minutes. Cooking two hours.

Ingredients—½ lb. stewing steak, 1 lb. mixed vegetables (carrots, turnips, parsnips), a knob of dripping, a level tablespoonful Vitamin B flour or oatmeal, salt and pepper. Quantity—two helpings.

Method—Wash and cut up vegetables. Cut meat in small pieces and dip in flour, salt and pepper, mixed together. Heat fat in large saucepan, brown meat on both sides, take it out, and put in layer of vegetables. Put back the meat, cover with rest of the vegetables, and add boiling water to cover. Put on pan lid, simmer for two hours. Put in two scrubbed potatoes half an hour before serving.

Cooking Sausages

Place them in heavy frying pan and add a third of a cup of boiling water. Cover pan, place over heat and bring water to boil. Reduce heat and allow water to simmer, pan still covered, for about 15 minutes. Drain water off, return pan with sausages to heat, and brown them well on all sides, turning frequently.

Savoury Meat Balls

½ lb. of ground uncooked meat.
½ cup of soft bread crumbs.
1 tablespoonful of chopped onion.
½ teaspoon of salt.
Few drops of Worcestershire sauce.
1 egg.
1 10-oz. can of condensed tomato soup.
1 tablespoonful of hot chili sauce of catsup.
1 cup of cooked macaroni or spaghetti.

Mix ground meat, bread crumbs, salt and Worcestershire sauce thoroughly. Beat egg slightly, add to meat mixture and blend well. Form mixture into six small balls. Melt one tablespoonful of dripping or lard in frying pan, add meat balls and brown meat balls well on all sides. Add the tomato soup and chili sauce, bring to boil, cover pan, turn heat low and allow to simmer for 25 minutes. Serve on hot plates on mounds of hot cooked macaroni or spaghetti. Yield—three servings.

Hot Cocoa

For each cup of cocoa desired, use one teaspoon cocoa and one teaspoon sugar. Add three teaspoons cold water and stir to form a smooth paste. Then add this mixture to warm milk, stirring constantly until brought to boiling point—but do not boil!

Today You Need Healthful Food

GOOD FOOD is essential to good health—and never before was good health so important. Eat nourishing Grape-Nuts Flakes regularly, with milk, sometimes with fruit, too.

You see, Grape-Nuts Flakes is made from two grains—sun-ripened wheat and malted barley. So it provides high quality carbohydrates and proteins, useful quantities of iron and phosphorus, and other food essentials.

Decide now to make Grape-Nuts Flakes a "regular" on your breakfast table. Order from your grocer—either the regular package or the giant economy size.

Eat to Live and You'll Live a Lot Longer

By IDA JEAN KAIN

On all sides the rumors are flying that "the food situation is much more serious than we realize," that "we face a food shortage that is really acute,' 'and so on, until you'd think the national cupboard had been stripped bare.

The truth is, what is causing so much commotion is not the actual lack of food, but the lack of a food surplus. Most of the distress springs from the brand-new fact that it is no longer possible for us as a nation to keep on eating too much.

Let's not do our crying before we are hurt. We are not going to starve. There is no reason to believe that we will ever feel the probable effect the fainest pinch of hunger if lean days do come the probable effect will be to make us hard and healthy.

That is not optimism on my part. There is plenty of scientific evidence to support the statement. Right now, when many of you are alarmed over the food restrictions, I want to tell you again about the fat-versus-leanness experiments conducted by Dr. C M. Mccay, brilliant research scientist.

Dr. Mccay used white rats for his experiments. You may incline to take the stand that mice are not men. But, physiologically, they are amazingly similar and since 10 days in a rat's life is equal to a year in a human's, it is possible to find out from them just about what will happen to us if we eat certain foods or don't eat them, or eat too much or too little.

The rats were divided into two groups. Half of them were allowed to eat all they wanted and the others were put on a diet perfectly balanced as to vitamins and minerals but so low in calories they could not grow normally.

At the end of a year (which would be about 36 years in our lifetime), the rats that ate all they wanted were showing signs of age. Now, mark this: The other group of rats were smaller, but they were still young and spry.

After 900 days, only a couple of the rats that ate as they pleased were still alive and they were hardly able to get about. There was a group of the runts and they were still full of ginger—at a man's age of 90! Dr. Mccay carried the experiment with these super rats a step further and the results were even more astonishing. He began giving them all they wanted to eat and they started to grow. In a few weeks they were nearly normal in size. And one hale old fellow lived to be what we would reckon as 141 years old.

Repeated experiments tended to reach the conclusion that the fat be young, that leanness makes for a long life. Moreover, other work along this line has shown that susceptibility to disease and the ailments of old age increase with overweight.

None of this is meant to suggest that you put your children on a diet to stunt their growth or that you go on starvation fare. Such ideas are too fantastic even to consider.

But it should sell you completely on the advantage of leanness for a long life and a useful one and make you eager to follow the scientific principle of eating what you should first, then what you want within your needs.

Help Child Learn to Take Care While Working

By GARRY C. MYERS, Ph.D.

Suppose you have a 13-year-old boy with unusual talent at making things with his hands. Wisely, you wish to encourage him in his creative urges and craftmanship.

It may be, however, that he has not learned to be very considerate of the rights of others in the family; that, for example, when he is all worked up over some creative enterprise, he sets a metal box of tools right down on your polished diningroom table, scratching it. True, he has not done the damage on purpose. Yet you are sure he should be more careful of the furniture and you tell him so right then and there in very decisive tones. Nevertheless, he may only be angered and feel you are unappreciative of his undertaking and achievement.

SUGGEST PRECAUTIONS

Anyway, you hardly have done much through your angry rebuke to render him more careful in the future. Yet you might have been very effective, not only at protecting the table that time but at a future time as well, if you had reminded him to put a protecting cover on the table just before he was about to put the box upon it. Furthermore, you might do a great deal to help this lad to be more careful of the furniture in the future if at some time soon he and you should discuss the problem together, very calmly.

SOLVING PARENT PROBLEMS

Q. I have such a hard time getting my child, 15 months old, to eat vegetables. Please help me. A self-addressed envelope stamped with three cents is enclosed.

A. Let your child feed himself, even with his bare hands. Don't push the food into him. I believe you should have no trouble if you will carefully study and follow my bulletin, "Eating problems, their prevention and correction," which I am enclosing in your stamped envelope.

Wife Objects to So Much Time Spent Alone

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX

Dear Miss Fairfax: I am a married woman of 28 years, and my husband is 30 years old. We have two lovely children of 2 and 3 years. Since my husband has changed his job to night work, I see very little of him. I'm so lonesome that I cry most of the night.

I have a swell husband, but since he's been on this job he has shown me no affection, which I crave. Don't you think a wife is entitled to it? I keep the children well-dress and well-mannered and the house is always spick and span.

When he gets home in the morning, he goes right to bed, and when he gets up he eats, reads the paper and is off again. I have no companionship from him, and while I devote my time to the children, I need some older person to talk to. If my life is going to be like this I prefer to be away from my husband, although I do love him. Please, Miss Fairfax, tell me what to do.

LONELY MOTHER.

Please don't think I'm unsympathetic, but I'm afraid you are one of the wives who expects the honeymoon to continue—but it just does not my dear. I'll admit your husband might be more demonstrative. But he's probably worried by the state of things at present.

You'd be happier if you had some work in which you were really interested. Apply to your local Red Cross and see if there isn't something you could do at home, perhaps sewing.

Please explain the work of a librarian. What are the necessary educational qualifications? A.B.D.

It has often been said that "the library is the university of the people". Principally the librarian works with people for books are of no use unless they are read, and in a sense she helps others to educate themselves. The work consists of selecting and ordering books, reviewing and editing lists, classifying and cataloging. In the public work, there are branch libraries to be watched, children's books, general and specific reference departments, work with schools and of course, the main loan desk. Books for hospitals, stations, blind, foreign-born, and so on are other phases. Scholarship is the first and most definite requirement. Unless applicants have won an average of 80 per cent or more in high school, have a real interest in study, and enjoy reading books that make one think, it is not likely they can qualify for the position of librarian. There are many advantages in the work for a happy life, and there are several disadvantages, such as pressure and night work. Salaries run from $1300 a year for the beginner to $10,000 as chief of a large library.

How soon we come back DEPENDS ON YOU

▶ Sure! We know what the coming battles are going to mean to us. But we've thought it all out, and we're ready for whatever lies ahead!

We're prepared to give all we've got so that our children, our wives and sweethearts . . . all our loved ones . . . will never have to live in slavery. You see, we are determined to protect young Johnny's future, mother's choice of a church, father's personal views, grandma's and grandpa's peaceful old age—all those things, big and small, that make life worth living.

We know that Victory won't be cheap . . . for this time there can be no Armistice, it must be unconditional surrender—theirs! And that will take more than everything we can give. Our best won't be enough unless you at home back us up right now by putting all you've got into Victory Bonds.

Remember . . . the longer you delay in buying all the Victory Bonds you possibly can, the longer will Victory be delayed . . . and the longer it will be before we can be back with those we love.

OUR ALL WON'T BE ENOUGH—WITHOUT YOUR HELP!

Bacon Squares and Lima Beans
Scalloped Tomatoes
Watercress and Onion Salad
Honey Chocolate Cake
Coffee

BACON SQUARES AND LIMA BEANS

1 quart dried lima beans, 2 teaspoons salt, 1 tablespoon brown sugar, ½ teaspoon dry mustard, ½ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, 1 pound bacon square, ¼ cup dark molasses.

Wash beans and soak them in water overnight; drain, cover with fresh water and cook slowly until skins break, turn into baking dish. Pour boiling water over bacon square, scrape rind until white, cut into 1-inch squares and press into top of beans, leaving only rind exposed. Mix salt, brown sugar, molasses, mustard and Worcestershire sauce, add 1 cup boiling water and pour over beans, adding additional water if necessary. Cover and bake in slow oven (250-300 degrees F.) for 6 to 8 hours, adding additional water to keep beans just covered. Uncover during last half hour to brown pork and beans. One onion may be placed in bottom of bean pot if liked. Serves 6 to 8.

HONEY CHOCOLATE CAKE

2½ cups flour, 2 teaspoons baking powder, ¼ teaspoon baking soda, ½ teaspoon salt, ½ cup shortening, ½ cup sugar, ¾ cup honey, 2 eggs, separated, 6 tablespoons cocoa or 3 squares chocolate, ¾ cup milk, 1 teaspoon vanilla.

Sift dry ingredients together. Cream shortening, slowly adding honey and sugar. Add egg yolks and cocoa or chocolate, the latter melted, beating vigorously. Add flour alternately with milk and vanilla. Finally, fold in stiffly beaten egg whites and bake in two greased 8-inch pans at 350 degrees F. for about 35 minutes.

Y.W.C.A. Official to Discuss B.C. Farm Force

TORONTO, May 2 (CP)—Margaret Hockin, Executive Secretary of the National Y.W.C.A. Farm Service Force left Friday for Vancouver where she will meet Government officials to discuss the establishment of a farm force in British Columbia, similar to the one operating in Ontario, it was announced yesterday by Mrs. Allan Colerick, Chairman of the Farm Service Committee fo the "Y."

In requesting that a Y.W.C.A. representative be sent to the Pacific Coast, the B. C. Department of Agriculture said: "Due to the shortage of male labor in British Columbia, it will be necessary to rely largely upon female labor in the planting and harvesting of crops, and the province . . . requests the cooperation of the Y.W.C.A. . . . in carrying out this plan."

Slocan Honors Two Couples at Big Farewell

NEW DENVER, B. C.—Honoring Constable and Mrs. J. Dowling and Mr. and Mrs. H. George, who are being transferred from this District, residents of the Slocan held a delightful farewell party in the Bosun Hall here April 28. Over 100 persons from the District attended Dancing was enjoyed and supper was served under the direction of Mrs. J. L. Irvine and Mrs. F. Angrignon, assisted by other members of the community. Constable and Mrs. Dowling were presented by Neil Tattrie, assisted by I. Flint, with a lovely chest of flat silverware as a token of appreciation of their many activities for the community and district betterment. Miss Monica Butlin, on behalf of the New Denver Badminton Club, presented them with two lovely pictures of the Slocan. Constable Dowling answered to both presentations.

Sergeant H. N. Wood of the B.C. Police in Nelson gave an interesting account of police work and stated that the gathering was proof that Constable Dowling had carried out his duties and faithfully fulfilled all his obligations.

Mr. and Mrs. George were then called upon and Jack Taylor, assisted by James Draper, presented them with a beautiful tri-light lamp, wishing them success in their new post at Grand Forks. H. George replied.

Both couples received suitable addresses upon which all guests had signed their names, as a parting remembrance. All guests then joined hands around the two couples singing "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows." Dancing then continued.

Nelson Girl Graduates as Nurse

Miss Peggy Elizabeth Dunnett of Nelson was a recent graduate of the School of Nursing of St. Paul's Hospital, Vancouver.

FORMER NELSON NURSE IN WESTERN DESERT

MISS MURIEL AHIER

CAIRO, May 2 (CP Cable)—Believed to be the first Canadian women to undertake service in the Middle East as nurses, four members of the South African military nursing services have arrived in the Western desert where they are attached to a South African General Hospital.

They are Margaret Wastle of Oak Bluff, Man., Muriel Ahier and E. K. (Nell) Meagher of Victoria and Mildred Wright of Calgary.

These nursing sisters were members of the draft of 300 Canadian nurses who volunteered for service in South Africa soon after the outbreak of war.

Miss Ahier is well known in Nelson, where she was a member of the Kootenay Lake General Hospital staff for about two years. W. H. Ahier of Procter, Engineer on the Ferry Nasookin, is her uncle.

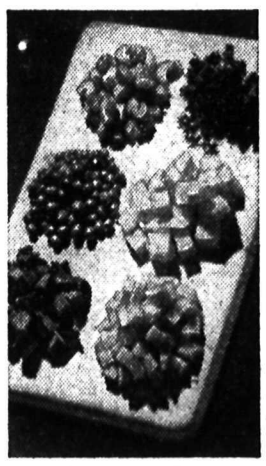
Stew Can be Glorified

Delicious and nutritionally tops, stew is economical in its use of cheaper meat cuts



It's such a pity that some people still don't appreciate stew! And such a mistake! At its best, stew is a dish for a king, besides which it has an important niche in the patriotic housewife's wartime menu, both because it uses the thriftier cuts, (not to mention left-overs), and because it offers a good way of meeting her family meat and vegetable requirements in one succulent dish. So, here we give four basic rules which will help you turn your stews into the family's favourite dinner.

FIRST—Brown the meat. Cut it into serving portions or cubes and brown in hot lard or beef dripping.

SECOND—Keep the heat low. Always simmer a stew. Never boil it.

THIRD—Don't overcook vegetables. Add the potatoes, the diced carrots and turnips, which are so good in stew, and the onions after the meat has simmered well. The vegetables will be nutritionally more valuable if the stew is served as soon as they are cooked. And don't hesitate to add celery, peas, string beans, mushrooms and other interesting vegetables that are on hand.

FOURTH—Experiment with flavourings. A bay leaf or a pinch of sage or thyme or a teaspoonful of Worcester sauce or ketchup . . . any of these can go a long way toward transforming plain stew into a culinary triumph.

And now, let's see where stew stands nutritionally. A good lamb, beef or veal stew made as above, with potatoes, diced carrots and turnips added, will take care of our minimum daily requirement of meat and part of our vegetable requirement. The other yellow or green leafy vegetable might be served at the same meal as a salad.

Then, with a slice or two of Canada Approved bread each, to soak up the gravy, and a glass of milk, you will have a meal that supplies so much of your family's basic needs that the balance (citrus or tomato juices—more bread—whole grain cereal—one other fruit) can safely be left to the other two meals.

Never Any Regrets

Has anyone ever seriously regretted the purchase of a Victory Bond?

Such a person would be very difficult to find, if he exists at all.

By their purchases Victory Bond buyers have helped themselves and helped Canada's cause.

Even those who have found it necessary to sell their bonds have realized in most instances that but for the investment in Victory Bonds they would probably have had no cash at all. They would have spent it and have nothing to show for the expenditure.

Greeks Must Be Fed

In a world in which suffering has become all too common, certain peoples have been called on to bear a burden of persecution and inhumanity more horrible even than others who have come under the conqueror's yoke. When one thinks today of Nazi frightfulness against an innocent people, Greece instantly comes to mind. It is there that the fiendishness of the Hun has been displayed in all its horrible completeness.

No people exist in the world with a greater desire for peaceful living than the Greeks. They constituted no menace to their neighbors, they had no territorial ambitions nor any desire for military aggrandizement. They asked only to be left alone. Yet they have been subjected to the most revolting attempt at racial murder the world has ever seen. Appalling tales of mass starvation, which would be unbelievable if they were not fully authenticated, have come from that enslaved country.

In conquering and occupying Greece, the Axis has brazenly and brutally ignored the fundamental principle of warfare, that a conqueror automatically becomes responsible for the sustenance of the conquered. There has been the most callous carelessness of the fate of the Greeks. The Nazi attitude is that these people can either starve or be fed by other nations who are in no way responsible for what has occurred.

This constitutes a challenge to the civilized countries of the earth. We in Canada, along with others who believe in fundamental humanity, have said that, regardless of the absence of any legal responsibility, we will not stand idly by and see human beings perish.

Germany's "Notloesung" Scheme

Hitler has the "Notloesung Scheme" prepared by Dr. Hjalmar Schacht as a weapon, when things get hot for Germany, writes W. L. Clark in the Windsor Star. It means the emergency scheme, and it was prepared by the famous German banker, whose friendships extend into the banking firms of the United Nations.

The emergency scheme is simple. Hitler passes from the picture, the generals take command, and they negotiate a peace by which Germany is left in control of Europe. It is all neat and tidy and trimmed with allure. It would end the war and leave the United Nations thinking they had achieved victory, but really only gaining an armistice during which the German generals would set to work to prepare for another war of conquest.

This scheme would be launched while the German armies are still intact and in the field. Our side will have to watch for it. When it comes it may be in one of many forms, depending on the actual situation of the time. But, the underlying purpose will be the same. It will give Germany Europe, which is what the Germans want.

Imagination in War

Christian Science Monitor)

Thus far, we regret to say, imagination has been chiefly a tool for the Germans. They have developed new submarines apparently undetectable by ordinary sonic devices. They have built submarines with double hulls that can resist depth charges. They are using them in packs and formations. And a word must be said about Nazi success with air attacks, especially along the route to Murmansk, where the rate of loss has probably been the heaviest in history.

Against these tactics the Allies have (1) used convoys, which are all right except that the supply of escort vessels has lagged, (2) used air patrols leaving a gap of about 500 miles in the Atlantic that the submarines have taken full advantage of, (3) used aircraft from carriers that have been outclassed by the superior numbers of land-based enemy planes, (4) bombed submarine bases, with only limited success because of the concrete covers over the submarine berths.

Only now is the American Navy getting around to the use of helicopters, and the Truman Committee indicates certain technological improvements are needed before these will be really effective.

There is, of course, one obvious way to overcome the submarines and the planes, thus opening the channels for the vast flow of men and munitions required to end the war. That is to invade the Continent, and seize the bases.

That is a costly step but in the end it might prove the least expensive, and best of the alternatives.

Looking Backward

10 YEARS AGO
(From Daily News, May 3, 1933)

A stunning blow to Socialist-organized labor was dealt by the surprise occupation by Nazi storm troopers of all premises throughout Germany of the free trade union, whose aggregate membership is about 4,000,000.

The British Government announced details of an Anglo-Argentine trade pact, third in a series of reciprocal agreements with foreign countries.

A Foreign Office spokesman declared Japan almost certainly would demand naval equality with the United States and Great Britain in the 1935 Naval Conference.

Today's Horoscope

If you're having a birthday today, you doubtless are of a happy, optimistic nature and also gifted with a rare business sense that augurs success for you. Tenacity of purpose induces you to expect too much of yourself and others. Be more lenient and tolerant, less demanding, and you will be happy. A night session of executives can culminate in a highly successful program on this birthday of yours. Or, if you are awake, think of an interview with a prospective employer, because it should lead to success.

Words of Wisdom

Etiquette Hints

Politeness has been called benevolence in small things. True politeness is kindness and consideration for everyone—from the family to the merest acquaintance.

Meat We Save Will Help Britain

One of the reasons for the forthcoming rationing of meat is need of additional supplies for overseas.

The meat ration in Great Britain is quite low and works out at about 15 ounces per week per person.

Some difficulties have developed over previous sources of supply and Britain has asked Canada if she can do something to help.

If, through rationing in Canada, any meat surplus is formed, that surplus will be made available for overseas shipment.

Part of it will take care of Canada's expanding Army overseas and part will help to maintain the existing low level of the meat ration of the British people.

Normally, in Canada, consumption of meat runs about 2½ pounds per person per week. Therefore, the proposed ration of two pounds is only a small reduction.

If some Canadians feel that meat rationing is inflicting some hardship, it is interesting to look over the menus on which the bomb-battered Britons live.

Advertisements of the Ministry of Food in London papers recently received show that in the Old Country people eat meat just once a week, and not very much at that.

BRITISH MENUS

Following are typical Food Ministry menus for two weeks:

Sunday: Stuffed breast of mutton, potatoes and cabbage.

Monday: Cheese and lentil cutlets, jacket potatoes, carrots, watercress

Tuesday: Cornish pasties with potato pastry, mashed potatoes, swedes sprinkled with coarsely chopped parsley.

Wednesday: Potato Jane, (sliced potatoes and cheese, baked), carrots, sprouts.

Thursday: Farmhouse pudding, (steamed vegetable pudding), potatoes, raw shredded cabbage salad.

Friday: Viennese fish cakes, mashed potatoes, spinach.

Saturday: Curried beans, jacket potatoes, raw sprout and beetroot salad.

Sunday: Lancashire Hot Pot, potatoes, sprouts.

Monday: Cheese-beans, potatoes, raw cabbage and cooked carrot salad.

Tuesday: Stewed mince and oatmeal, mashed potatoes, cabbage.

Wednesday: Farmhouse Scramble, (mixed vegetables, dried egg, cheese, fried), jacket potatoes, watercress.

Thursday: Sausage and bean pie, potatoes, spinach.

Friday: Pilchard pie, mashed potatoes, carrots, sprinkled coarsely chopped parsley.

Saturday: Potato Musaka (potatoes, cheese, carrot, dried egg, baked), swedes and greens.

BOMBING JAPAN

General Doolittle's plea for another chance to bomb Japan strikes a responsive chord in American feeling. Aside from any desire for revenge is the value of proving to the Tokyo terrorists that their barbarism is a mistake. If their purpose in murdering captured fliers is to prevent attacks, a good bombing would be the best way to show them that their method is not a preventer but a provoker of attacks.

Without possessing or divulging any military information, it is safe to say that Japan will be bombed before many weeks have passed. It is technically feasible. There are fields in China not much farther from Sasebo or Nagasaki than was the Hornet. Repetition of the Doolittle stunt would be possible, but even with the new carriers the Navy will have before the Summer is over, China seems the more logical starting point. Four-motored bombers could be used, such as the ships which travelled about 4000 miles to bomb Wake Island last Summer.

One great drawback is the difficulty of getting enough gasoline into China by air transport from India. Moreover, the military men want to deliver smashing and repeated blows. So far there is no indication that they have the resources for such raids. But the reasons for bombing Japan are now so cogent that it is likely that some way will be found to do it.—Christian Science Monitor.

POVERTY AND HUNGER

In his splendid articles about India, DeWitt Mackenzie deals with British rule in India and he writes of the hunger and poverty of millions of the people of India. That is one of the sad facts of India. There is so much poverty there and so much hunger.

Perhaps, as Mr. Mackenzie went through India, his mind reflected back to trips we are sure he must have made through the Southern States of his own United States. The terrible conditions of hunger and poverty among so many of the colored people of the South never fail to impress visitors. Back in the pre-war days when motoring was possible, many Canadians were depressed by the conditions of poverty they saw as they toured the South. The unfortunate colored people are kept in debt, share-croppers have to struggle for a bit to eat, families live in hovels, and the children go half-naked because they have no clothes.

Sometimes it is so easy to see the mote in the other fellow's eye—W. L. Clark, Windsor Star columnist.

3. There is no official limit to the size, weight or shape of a catcher's mitt.

Mackenzie Named Inspector Gen. of Western Canada

OTTAWA, May 2 (CP)—Maj.-Gen John P. Mackenzie, 58, Quartermaster-General for the Canadian Army, was named Inspector-General for Western Canada, and Brig. Howard Kennedy, 50, was promoted to the rank of Major-General and named Quartermaster-General in a series of Army appointments announced Saturday by Defence Headquarters.

Gen. Mackenzie succeeds Maj.-Gen. W. A. Griesbach, 65, who resigned recently on account of bad health.

Brig.-Gen E. deB. Panet, 61, District Officer commanding Military District No. 4, with Headquarters at Montreal, is promoted to the rank of Major-General and by reason of his age is being retired.

Brig. E. J. Renaud, 52, Deputy Quartermaster-General, succeeds Gen Panet as District Officer commanding M. D. No. 4 and is promoted to the rank of Major-General.

Other appointments announced by Defence Headquarters were as follows:

Brig. Sherwood Lett, 47, who won the Distinguished Service Order for bravery in the Dieppe attack last August, is appointed Deputy Chief of the General Staff in Charge of Training. He succeeds Brig. E. G. Weeks, 46, who will return overseas shortly.

Brig. R. E. G. Roome, 50, Senior Artillery Officer of a Canadian Division in Canada for the last 10 months, succeeds Gen. Kennedy as Deputy Adjutant-General and Chairman of the Officers' Selection and Appraisal Board.

Brig. William N. Bostock, 39, who returned from overseas recently is appointed to the General Staff, succeeding Brig. J. E. Lyon, 45, who is proceeding on leave pending retirement on account of ill health.

Gen. Mackenzie has had experience as a business executive, a civil engineer and a soldier. He had a notable record in the First Great War, winning the Distinguished Service Order three times, the Croix de Guerre, and being mentioned in dispatches several times.

JAPANESE PRESS TAKES CRACK AT U. S. STRIKE

NEW YORK, May 2 (AP)—The Nippon Times, Japanese Foreign Office organ, declared editorially today that the United States coal strike was "a direct challenge to Governmental power in wartime and something that is inconceivable in Japan, where everyone is putting his shoulder to the wheel."

"Roosevelt was vacillating in his negotiations with the labor leader," the Nippon Times editorial added, according to radio Tokyo. This was attributed to "fourth term" aspirations.

"The seriousness of the situation is at once clear from the prediction already made by American steel companies that if a general strike of coal miners were called, they would have to seriously curtail steel production within two weeks," the broadcast editorial added.

Fliers Boost Bond Sales in Alaska

VANCOUVER, May 2 (CP)—A press release from Western Air Command yesterday said R.C.A.F. fliers in Alaska are boosting Victory Bond sales by a competition in which each squadron buys an extra Bond for every bomb the other unit drop on the Japanese in the Aleutians.

"Although wartime secrecy hides the full details of the scope of operations and therefore the progress being made in Bond sales, it is reported Sqdn. Ldr. Brad Walker, D.F.C., of London, Ont., is making it expensive for his opponents including Sqdn. Ldr. Ken Boomer, D.F.C., of Ottawa," the statement said.

HALIFAX LEADS IN LOAN RACE

HALIFAX, May 2 (CP)—Wiping out a $55,000 deficit, Halifax county surged into the lead by $59,850 Friday in the cross-Canada race with greater Victoria for leadership in Fourth Victory Loan subscriptions.

The lead has changed hands several times in the see-saw battle.

The two districts have approximately the same quotas and are competing on a dollar-for-dollar basis.

Ten More Enemy Ships Sunk In Mediterranean

LONDON, May 2 (CP)—Ten more enemy ships have been sunk in the Mediterranean by British submarines.

Among the ships sunk was a large tanker torpedoed near Marittimo Island "while west-bound on a course from Tunis. She was escorted by an unusually large number of surface craft and aircraft."

Another tanker was sunk by gunfire off Italy's West coast and a large ammunition ship was blown up off the Island of Monte Cristo, between Italy and Corsica.

Other sinkings were off the East coast of Corsica, Northwest of Sicily and off the Northern tip of Tunisia. One vessel apparently had been previously damaged by air attack.

The attacks were carried out by five submarines. While their names were not announced, their Commanders were identified as: Lt.-Cmdr. M. R. G. Wingfield, D.S.O., and Lieuts. A. R. Daniell, D.S.C., H B Turner, G.M., G. R. Lumby, D.S.C., and M. L. C. Crawford, D.S.C.

Essen Pounded in R.A.F. Attack

LONDON, May 2 (CP) — The R.A.F. smashed again at Essen and other objectives in the Ruhr Valley Friday night in what the Air Ministry termed "a heavy attack" which cost 13 bombers in the fourth raid on the German industrial centre during April.

Halifax squadrons of the R.C.A.F. took part in the attack, R.C.A.F. Headquarters announced. One of the bombers missing is a Canadian craft.

The German communique, recorded from Berlin broadcasts, said considerable damage was caused at Essen and other places in Western Germany.

The most recent visit to the much-bombed Ruhr area was Monday night when the R.A.F. attacked Duisberg, 12 miles West of Essen, in the second raid on that river port in a month.

Friday night's losses brought the toll of R.A.F. bombers to 602 since the beginning of the year.

Indicative of the new tempo of the air offensive is the rise in monthly losses: 75 in January, 104 in February, 158 in March and 264 in April.

Essen became the most heavily-bombed city in the world last night, it was disclosed authoritatively. More than 10,000 tons of bombs have fallen in 55 attacks on the city.

It was also stated that British bombers dropped "almost 10,000 tons of bombs on Germany alone last month in 10 major raids."

The tonnage loosed on Essen considerably exceeds that dropped on London since the war began.

Today several squadrons of heavy bombers, believed to be American, flew across the Channel to continue the assault on the Nazi war potential.

BRITISH DESTROYER BEVERLEY LOST

LONDON, May 2 (CP)—The Admiralty announced today that the British destroyer Beverley has been lost. No details were given.

Sergeant Craig of Ymir Tells How Canadians Helped Lift Bodies of Children From Bombed School

SERGEANT EDWARD CRAIG

"It was a three storey school and one complete end of it had crashed in on the kiddies in the dining hall . . . We worked right through until about four in the morning. . . .

"Working beside me was an English soldier home on leave who was tearing at the debris with his bare hands. He had two kiddies in the bombing.

"One was at the hospital dead, and the other was under the debris, dead."

These sentences paint the picture of war upon English school children waged by Nazi airmen. They tell of rescue work at a bombed school in London in which a group of Canadian soldiers, among them Sergeant Edward Craig, formerly of Ymir, assisted in clearing the debris.

Sgt. Craig is the son of Staff-Sergeant H. D. Craig, now stationed at Medicine Hat with the Veterans Guard of Canada, and Mrs. Craig of Nelson. They were Ymir residents for many years.

The young soldier told the story of the bombing and the heartache it brought, to all Canada when he spoke on the radio program "Khaki Scrapbook", broadcast from England. His mother recently received a copy of his talk.

He was introduced by Gerry Wilmot of the CBC and this is what he said:

FEEL CONCUSSION

"Well, we happened to be near where this bomb landed and we felt the concussion of it and one of our fellows brought word that a school was bombed. So we jumped into a matador (gun tractor) that happened to be there and drove to the scene of the bombing to see if we could help.

"The ARP and local wardens were on hand and our men pitched right in with them, using our vehicle in helping to clear heavy stuff that had fallen.

"It was a three-storey school and one complete end of it had crashed on the kiddies in the dining hall downstairs just as they were gathering to have their lunch.

"We worked with shovels and hitched cables on to big lumps of masonry and beams, and dragged them clear with the lorry. We worked right though that afternoon until approximately four in the morning. We worked with the ARP rescue squads, policemen and firemen.

"The thing that will always stay in the men's minds I think, will be the kiddies when they were being removed from the debris. It's not a thing a man can forget. All the kiddies were dead that we got out of the debris.

"There was dust and fumes filling the air . . . there was a bit of a fire started but the local fire department put it out.

"When it got dark the work was lit up by the acetylene gas lamps—just enough light to work by and see what you were doing. You could not tell who you were working beside—whether he was English or Canadian—until he spoke, and you couldn't have recognized them any more even if it had been light, because everyone was covered from head to foot in dust.

"It was the first time some of the lads with me had ever been helping with this kind of emergency and they did wonderfully well. People seemed very pleased to have us there. One of the ARP men in charge thanked us and said we had been a great help to them.

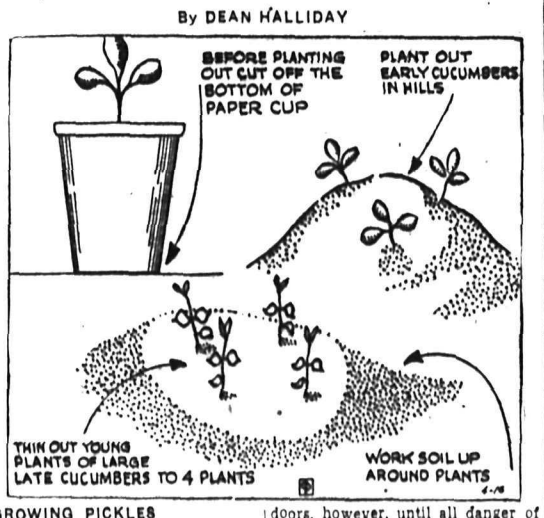
"It was pretty heartbreaking. For instance, working beside me was an English soldier home on leave who was tearing at the debris with his bare hands. He had two kiddies in that bombing. One was at the hospital, then, dead, and the other was under the debris, dead.

"Some of the Canadian lads with me were Pte. Hutchison of Vegreville, Alta., Joe White, who I think comes from Toronto, Sgt. Miller of Craig Siding, Man., and A. Q. S. Sampson of Montreal and Sgt. Ernie Hollenby of Ottawa. They all worked very hard.

"The boys felt pretty bitter of what they saw. You could hear them muttering all the time they were at work clearing the debris. It makes a lot of little grievances that a soldier has seem pretty small, and makes him forget them. It makes us all determined to do a good job of killing Huns when we get our hands on them."

Today's VICTORY GARDEN-GRAPH

By DEAN HALLIDAY



GROWING PICKLES IN VICTORY GARDEN

With point rationing presenting problems in the economical preparation of meals with tasty variety the growing of pickles and relishes in the Victory Garden seems at least part of the answer. This also means the planting and cultivation of the succulent cucumber.

In order to have extra early cucumbers the seeds should be started indoors about the middle of April. Since cucumbers do not transplant easily it is good practice to start them in paper cups as shown in the Garden Graph. When the seedlings are ready to be planted out of doors cut off the bottom of the paper cup but leave the sides intact around the ball of earth and plant cup and seedlings as one. Do not plant outdoors, however, until all danger of frost is past.

For early small varieties of cucumbers have the hills four feet apart each way. For the large late cucumbers plan the hills farther apart, four by six feet is usually ample spacing.

The late cucumber seeds can be planted in circular hills about one foot in diameter. Cucumbers are heavy feeders and placing one or two shovelfuls of manure in the bottom of each hill gives the plants wonderful stimulation. Place four inches of soil over the manure and plant the seeds one-half inch deep, 10 or 12 to each hill. After the young plants are making good growth, thin them out and leave only four of the sturdiest to each hill, as illustrated.

NATIONAL SELECTIVE SERVICE

Men Born From 1902 to 1924 Must Prove Compliance With Mobilization Regulations When Asking Permits to Seek Employment

BY order of the Minister of Labour issued pursuant to National Selective Service Civilian Regulations, (P.C. 246, January 19, 1943) an important change is now made in regard to the issue by Employment and Selective Service Offices, of permits to seek employment.

After April 30, 1943, a permit to seek employment may be refused to any male person born in any of the years from 1902 to 1924, inclusive, who has reached age 19, unless such person presents satisfactory evidence that he has not contravened the provisions of National Selective Service Mobilization Regulations (that is, Military Call-up Regulations). Evidence required is to be in one of the following forms:

(a) A certificate of discharge from His Majesty's Forces after service during the present war; or
(b) a rejection slip issued by the Army on application for enlistment; or
(c) a certificate of medical examination issued by the Registrar of a Mobilization Board; or
(d) a postponement order certificate issued by the Registrar of a Mobilization Board; or
(e) in the case of a male person born in any of the years from 1902 to 1916 inclusive, a statutory declaration on a form available in the employment office, that he is not a "single person" under Mobilization Regulations.

Documents referred to in (a), (b) and (e) above need be presented only the first time a permit is sought after April 30, 1943, unless subsequently asked for by a Selective Service Officer. Documents referred to in (c) and (d) above must be presented each time a permit is applied for.

Two points under the new Regulations are to be specially noted:

(1) Male persons applying for permits by mail should forward with their applications the evidence required (except (e) above).
(2) A Selective Service Officer MAY furnish a permit without first being handed evidence, where the applicant's services are required for immediate employment, or where a permit is asked for by mail, but in these cases the evidence must be presented to the Selective Service Officer later, usually WITHIN THREE DAYS of the issue of the permit.

All men, born from 1902 to 1924, who have reached age 19, are urged to co-operate with Employment and Selective Service Officers in this matter.

Help yourselves, help others applying for permits, help the Offices to function smoothly, by having your documents with you when needed.

Girls Hockey Will Be on Nelson Hockey Program Next Winter; Slim Porter Heads Strong Executive

At an annual meeting marked for the first time by presentation of the playoff cups, as well as by review of an extremely successful season from the point of view of development of local hockey, the Nelson Amateur Hockey Association Friday night wound up its hockey season by electing a strong and representative executive for the coming year.

President Jack Wood, who insisted on retiring after one year in the chair—which climaxed many years of continuous service on the executive, including a number of years as secretary—was succeeded by M. N. (Slim) Porter, veteran Fairview Athletic Club mentor. Porter beating out Jesse Seaby on a 9-8 vote. Seaby then landed the Vice-Presidency by acclamation. A recommendation by Mr. Wood, for merging of the offices of Secretary and Treasurer was accepted, and Ed Kelter, Civic Centre Secretary-Manager, was the unanimous choice for this office, Walter Wait, late Treasurer, insisting on retiring, while Mac Norris, late Secretary has been accepted by the R. C. A. F. Mayor N. C. Stibbs was retained as Honorary President, and Jack Wood succeeded D. G. Chamberlain as Honorary Vice-President. The executive was rounded out by the election of Walter Wait, Harry Wassick, and Jim Ritchie, Ritchie beating out Billy Brown and A. N. Winlaw in a re-vote for the last seat.

M. N. (SLIM) PORTER

NO DISTRICT COMPETITIONS

In reviewing the past season, Retiring President Wood referred to the absence of district playoffs due to the war, to the highly successful Bantam Pool, which reached a final membership of 44, to it being clear that the ordinary kid hockey could not draw pay crowds, to the experiment of High School Girls' hockey which enlivened the last weeks of the season, and to the possibility of the girls hockey being developed in the future as a drawing card. Financing would have been a close thing but for the $120 grant from the B. C. Amateur Hockey Association and he urged that ways to raise money by sought.

Treasurer Walter Wait reported season's receipts from all sources as $353, the largest single expenditure being the $150.50 paid to the Civic Centre Commission for ice. The season started with $11 in the bank, and with an obligation of $35 to the Trail Amateur Hockey Association. There is a current balance of $126.17, and when some final adjustments are made the Association will have about $125 clear.

Jim Ritchie, High School Minister of Athletics, thanked the Association on behalf of the High School Girls, stated about 30 girls were interested in hockey, and said it was hoped to have two teams ready at the start of the season.

On his recommendation, supported by Ed Kelter, it was decided that the N.A.H.A. should promote girls hockey next season, and incorporate it in the regular program.

CUPS PRESENTED

Mayor Stibbs was called on by President Porter, who assumed the chair, to present the cups won in the various divisional playoffs that followed the league seasons. The Mayor handed the Tip Top Tailors Cup for the Juvenile division to Art Townsend, for the Panther Juvenlles. Townsend also had to accept—in the absence of any Panther Midgets—the Wood, Vallance Midget Cup while St. Clair Duffy, captain of the F.A.C. Bantams, received the Wood, Vallance Bantam Cup.

Jim Ritchie reported on the successful Commercial League, and the Commercial playoffs, and H. H. Currie reported on the successful kid leagues and the Bantam Pool.

Walter Wait reported the prospect of Salmo and Slocan City teams for the Commercial League next Winter, with all games in Nelson.

Attention being called to the lack of a cup for the Commericals, it was decided to take advantage of the Wildfire Coal Cup available through the Burns Lumber & Coal Company, and devote it to this competition until required in the future for senior purposes. It will be presented to the Ritchies, winners of the Commercial playoffs.

Mr. Brown expressed the opinion that the Commercials ought to accept the job of providing all referees needed for the higher kid leagues.

Votes of thanks were extended to all retiring officers, the executive, the Civic Centre, the Daily News and the Savoy Hotel.

Count Fleet Easily Captures 69th Kentucky Derby

By SID FEDER
Associated Press Sport Writer

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 2 (AP)—The Fleet sailed into port with the 69th Kentucky Derby Saturday without getting up a full head of steam under his star Canadian pilot, Johnny Longden.

Just as was predicted almost unanimously for this war-time renewal of the turf classic, Mrs. John D. Hertz's Count Fleet—he has been tagged "The Fleet" or "The Count" ever since he skyrocketed to prominence a year ago—made a parade of this old run for the roses.

A comparatively slim crowd of 50,000—slim compared to the 90,000 of other years—roared him home.

The only hopeful who might have made him speed up from a waltz to a two-step was Warren Wright's Ocean Wave and the Wave wasn't on the track. Three hours before the plaintive notes of "My Old Kentucky Home" had drifted over this picturesque race course, Ocean Wave was withdrawn because of an injured leg.

The Fleet broke out in full battle array after bouncing along with some of the others in the field of 10 for half a mile, and from there on it was just a gallop. At the wire, he was three lengths in front of Blue Swords, the pride of Allen T. Simmons, Akron, O., radio station owner, and nine in front of Slide Rule from the barn of W. E. Boeing, Seattle airplane manufacturer. And all the way back, they were stretching out just like that, all the way back to Burnt Cork, the entry of Eddie Anderson—Rochester of the radio—who was just as unanimously the pre-race prediction to finish last as the Count was to be first to the payoff line for the $60,725 which was waiting for the winner.

The victory of the Hertz hurricane, freely forecast after he was backed down to 1-2 in the future books—shortest price in Derby history—and knocked down to 2-5 in the last tuel machines Saturday, was about the only thing in this Derby that didn't fit into the pattern that made this the strangest of all of Col. Mat Winn's annual affairs at the Downs.

Count Fleet paid his backers $2.80 to win, $2.40 to place and $2.20 to show for a $2 ticket. Blue Swords paid $3.40 and $3.00. Slide Rule paid $3.20.

The chart says he won "handily" and it was even easier than that for the last eighth of a mile. He coasted to the wire and the result was he was clocked in only two minutes four seconds—slow time for a colt which last Fall set a world record of 1:34 4-5 for a mile and for a two-year-old.

Junior Lady Bowlers to Hold Banquet Winding Up Season

Junior Ladies Bowling Club decided at a meeting to hold a banquet, winding up its first season, this week. The meeting was held at the home of the Misses Agnes and Rosa Stewart, Silica Street.

The Club operated a five-team five-pin league during the season.

Senators Split Doubleheader With Yankees

WASHINGTON, May 2 (AP) — Washington Senators gained an even break with New York Yankees in an American League doubleheader today before 32,000 fans, taking the nightcap 4-1 behind Rookie Edwald Pyle's six-hit hurling after dropping the opener, 11-3. Pyle steadied after a shaky start and never was in serious trouble after the first inning, when the Yanks pushed across their lone tally on an error, a fielder's choice and Joe Gordon's double.

In the opener, Ernie Bonham scattered Washington's nine blows effectively. He was never in trouble after Charley Keller blasted a home run over the right field wall with two mates on base in the fourth.

First game:

New York	11	10	1
Washington	3	9	4

Bonham and Sears; Wynn, Carpenter (7) Scarborough (8) and Early.

Second game:

New York	16	0
Washington	4	7	2

Wensloff and Hemsley; Pyle and Early.

REGAIN SECOND PLACE

DETROIT, May 2 (AP) — Cleveland Indians regained sole possession of second place today by hammering three pitchers for 11 hits to defeat Detroit Tigers 9-2 in the opener of a doubleheader before 22,040 spectators. The second game was postponed because of weather.

Ray Mack's first hit of 1943, a homer off Johnny Gorsica in the fifth inning, provided the winning margin. Mel Harder, leaving 11 Tigers stranded in a fancy exhibition of clutch pitching, gained his second victory against one defeat but needed help from Mike Naymick.

Cleveland	5	11	2
Detroit	2	8	1

Harder, Naymick (7) and Rosar; Gorsica, Newhouser (7) Henshaw (9) and Parsons.

ST. LOUIS WINS TWO

CHICAGO, May 2 (AP)—An 11th-inning homer by Outfielder Chet Lasbs in the opener and Steve Sundra's steady seven-hit pitching in the nightcap, gave St. Louis a doubleheader over the White Sox, 3-2 and 5-1, before 4525 fans today and enabled the Browns to return home tonight at the .500 mark.

The Browns sewed up the nightcap by scoring four runs, all of them unearned, off Johnny Humphries in the first two innings.

First Game:

St. Louis	3	7	0
Chicago	2	6	1

Niggeling, Muncrief (10) and Ferrell; Lee, Maltzberger, and Tresh.

Second game:

St. Louis	5	8	2
Chicago	1	7	3

Sundra and Hayes; Humphries, Grove (9) and Turner.

SPLIT DOUBLEHEADER

BOSTON, May 2 (AP)—Boston Red Sox split a twin bill today with Philadelphia Athletics, coming from behind to win the opener, 7-6, and then collapsing in the nightcap as the A's backed up an 8-1 verdict.

Cecil (Tex) Hughson, Boston pitching ace, sought his third straight victory in the opener but was roughly treated during the five innings he worked. Anton Karl relieved him.

The A's landed on Ken Chase in the nightcap and piled up a lead which the Sox were unable to challenge with knuckle-baller Roger Wolff holding them to six scattered hits.

First game:

Philadelphia	6	10	3
Boston	7	12	3

Arntzen, Christopher (6) and Wagner; Phughson, Karl (6) Ryba (9) and Partee, Conroy (9).

Second game:

Philadelphia	8	15	0
Boston	1	7	1

Wolff and Swift; Chase, Newsome (7) and Conroy.

Cards Batter Way to Two Wins Over Reds

NEW YORK, May 2 (AP.) — Brooklyn Dodgers and New York Giants entertained the season's largest major league crowd, 47,068, at the Polo Grounds today by dividing a closely contested doubleheader in which each game was decided by one run.

Brooklyn's National League leaders bagged the first game 3-2 to extend their winning streak to six but the Giants took the nightcap 2-1 to end a five-game losing string.

The Giants, after being outhit 9-7 in the opener, were outhit 8-5 in the nightcap, but succeeded in winning through the batting of Buster Maynard, who hit a homer in the first inning and drove in New York's other run in the second with a long fly when the bases were loaded.

First game:

Brooklyn	3	9	0
New York	2	7	0

Wyatt, Allen (4) Webber (6) and Owen; Feldman, Mungo (8) Adams (9) and Mancuso.

Second:

Brooklyn	1	8	1
New York	2	5	2

Head, Kimball (6) Melton (8) and Moore; Trinkle and Berres.

WORRY OVER COOPER

ST. LOUIS, May 2 (AP.)—Extra-base blows powered the Cardinals to victories in both ends of a twin bill against Cincinnati Reds today—6-3 in the nightcap and 7-6 in the opener.

The Cards' pleasure was diluted somewhat by worry over their ace hurler, Mort Cooper, who retired in the sixth inning of the first game complaining of a pain in his pitching elbow.

Combining three consecutive doubles and a triple with an intentional pass, the Cardinals counted four runs in the first inning of the second game, then cornered two more in the second inning. Meantime, Howie Pollet held the Reds in check.

Lou Klein, rookie shortstop, slashed two doubles and a single in the curtain-raiser to lead the Redbirds' attack and drove in three runs, including the winning marker.

First game:

Cincinnati	6	11	1
St. Louis	7	10	3

Starr, Stone (5) Beggs (6) and Mueller; M. Cooper, Krist (6) (Dickson (7) and W. Cooper.

Second:

Cincinnati	3	7	1
St. Louis	6	9	0

Riddle, Shoun (1) Stone (8) and Dephillips; Pollet and O'Dea.

PIRATES WIN TWO

PITTSBURGH, May 2 (AP.) — Playing heads-up ball behind the stingy pitching of Wally Hebert and Bob Klinger, Pittsburgh Pirates captured both games of a doubleheader from Chicago Cubs today, 3-0 and 1-0.

The nightcap was a heartbreaker for Dick Barrett of the Bruins who pitched one-hit ball for seven innings, only to lose when the single safe blow, a two-bagger by Vince DiMaggio, helped score Elbie Fletcher who previously had walked.

First game:

Chicago	0	6	0
Pittsburgh	3	8	0

Thorn and Hernandez; Hebert and Baker.

Second game:

Chicago	0	4	2
Pittsburgh	1	1	0

R. Barrett, Warneke (8) and Todd; Klinger and Lopez.

SPLIT DOUBLEHEADER

PHILADELPHIA, May 2 (AP.)—Philadelphia Phillies and the Boston Braves divided a doubleheader today. Boston won the first game, 3-1, while the Phillies took the second, 6-5, in 12 innings.

Danny Litwhiler's double off Red Barrett with the bases filled and none out scored two runs in the 12th and gave the Phillies their second victory of the National League season in the second game.

First game:

Boston	3	9	1
Philadelphia	1	7	0

Andrews and Kluttz; Johnson and Livingston.

Second game:

Boston	5	13	0
Philadelphia (12 innings).	6	10	2

Avery, Barrett (7) and Masi, Kluttz (12); Fuchs, Podgajny (6) and Padden, Livingston (7).

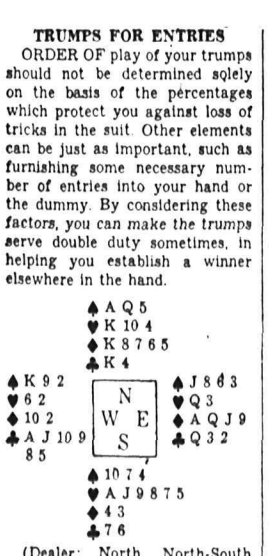
TRUMPS FOR ENTRIES

ORDER OF play of your trumps should not be determined solely on the basis of the percentages which protect you against loss of tricks in the suit. Other elements can be just as important, such as furnishing some necessary number of entries into your hand or the dummy. By considering these factors, you can make the trumps serve double duty sometimes, in helping you establish a winner elsewhere in the hand.



(Dealer: North. North-South vulnerable.)

North	East	South	West
1 ♠	Pass	1 ♥	2 ♣
2 NT	Pass	3 ♥	Pass
4 ♥

Seeing so many entries into the dummy, after he led the club A, West decided that the diamond suit there might be dangerous unless he removed some of said entries. So he went to work on them at once by leading a second club to the K. Facing the possibility of two losers in diamonds and two in spades, plus also perhaps one in trumps, South determined to give himself every chance to prevent as many of these as possible.

He saw that, even if the diamond A lay wrong, he still might make his contract if he could set up a long diamond for discard of a spade, and so wanted as many chances as he could figure out. Hence he came to his hand with the heart 4 to the A and led toward the diamond K. After the A killed it, East realized a spade lead could not hurt his side, as South would surely finesse if he did not have the K, so he sent forth a spade to kill those entries as soon as he could.

Dummy, of course, won West's K with the A and a second diamond was called, which East took with the 9. Then he led a second spade to the Q. The diamond 6 was then ruffed by the heart 7, and the heart 5 led to the K. This happily dropped both remaining hostile trumps and made entry for a fourth diamond lead, ruffed by the heart 8. This set up the diamond 8 in dummy and the heart 9 to the 10 furnished an entry to use it for a discard of South's last spade. The heart J then took the final trick.

PUBLIC NOTICES

TENDERS FOR COAL
(Western Provinces)

SEALED Tenders addressed to the undersigned and endorsed, "Tender for Coal for Western Provinces," will be received until 3p.m. (E.D.S.T.), Thursday, May 27, 1943, for the supply of coal for the Dominion Buildings and Experimental Farms and Stations, throughout the Provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia.

Forms of tender with specifications and conditions attached can be obtained from the Purchasing Agent, Department of Public Works, Ottawa; the District Resident Architect, Winnipeg, Man.; the District Resident Architect, Saskatoon, Sask.; the District Resident Architect, Calgary, Alta.; and the District Resident Architect, Victoria, B.C.

Tenders should be made on the forms supplied by the Department and in accordance with departmental specifications and conditions attached thereto. Coal dealers' licence numbers must be given when tendering.

The Department reserves the right to demand from any successful tenderer, before awarding the order, a security deposit in the form of a certified cheque on a chartered bank in Canada, made payable to the order of the Honourable the Minister of Public Works, equal to 10 per cent of the amount of the tender, or Bearer Bonds of the Dominion of Canada or of the Canadian National Railway Company and its constituent companies unconditionally guaranteed as to principal and interest by the Dominion of Canada, or the aforementioned bonds and a certified cheque, if required to make up an odd amount.

By order,
J. M. SOMERVILLE,
Secretary.
Department of Public Works,
Ottawa, April 27, 1943.

Ontario Gold Mine Output Down

TORONTO, May 2 (CP)—In reporting value of production of Ontario gold mines was down 26 per cent for the first three months of this year compared with the same period last year, the Ontario Department of Mines announces the downward curve will likely continue.

Main cause of the decline is attributable to lack of labor, and there are indications that the manpower crisis is far from over.

Value of production for the first quarter this year was $22,014,917. For the same period in 1943 value was $26,153,867.

Riverland Sets New Record in Dixie Handicap

BALTIMORE, May 2 (AP.) — Louisiana Farm's Riverland won the $20,000 added Dixie Handicap in a blanket finish with two other horses before a crowd of approximately 18,000 persons Saturday.

The big gelding ran the mile and three sixteenths in 1:56 2-5 to set a new track record, two-fifths of a second under the old standard held jointly by Pompoon and Seabiscuit.

At the wire, the Harold A. Clark color-bearer had a half length lead over Max Hirsch's Attention which in turn was a head in front of Charles S. Howard's Mioland. A. J. Sackett's Tola Rose finished fourth.

NEW DELHI, (CP.) — K. P. S. Menon has been appointed agent general for India in China in succession to Sir Mulhammad Zafrullah Khan, it was learned here.

Spitfires Hammer Leopards 22-8 in Softball Opener

Spitfires, taking full advantage of the error-riddled defence of the Leopards, hammered the offerings of Moundsman Ray Gill for 15 hits in taking the Men's Softball League opener 22-8 here Sunday.

Gill gave three walks and struck out seven; while Fred Brown, Spitfires chucker, gave three walks, allowed eight hits, and struck out eight.

Because of a late start and a girl's exhibition game to follow, the men's session was ended after seven innings. This recalled a ruling, set up by the Softball Association two or three seasons back, that when a doubleheader was scheduled, the seventh inning of the first game must be completed or in play at the end of the first hour from the scheduled starting time or the game would be called at the end of the seventh inning. The seven inning game in such a case would be accepted as a league game. Both teams accepted the ruling.

Lineups were:

Spitfires—J. Lee, S. Hill, J. Prestley, A. Brown, R. Kellogg, Fred Brown, W. Thompson, F. Beresford and W. Khodikin.

Leopards—A. Peloso, D. Monaghan, C. Ball, C. Lepinski, E. Kline, R. Gill, E. Weinranch, B. McDonald, G. DeGuglielmo, E. Yahnke and A. Choquette.

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA (CP)—Five separate German infantrymen out of several captured by an Eighth Army patrol asked a British officer if it "was like this at Dunkerque?"

Interpreting The War News

By CARL C. CRANMER

Berlin radio assertions that large Allied transport and warship concentrations again are at Gibraltar and moving into the Mediterranean betray a German nervousness over impending events similar to that on Nov. 7 when British and American convoys were nearing the beaches of North Africa.

Not only the German broadcasts, but also the general expectancy of the Soviet Press which has been given its cue by Premier Stalin, and the outright prediction of Gen. Giraud, the French Commander-in-Chief in North Africa, create the definite impression that May is to be one of the climactic months of the war.

It seems doubtful that the official Russian Press, which remained aloof from the nerve war throughout 1942 when Washington and London were doing their best to scare the Nazis with the threat of a second front, would be trumpeting a coming blow from the West unless it had every confidence that a European invasion indeed is in the offing.

In the last week the Russian papers have not only prepared the Russian people for a victory in North Africa comparable to the Red Army's at Stalingrad, but they have hinted strongly at great events to come this month.

In the last two days, Berlin radio correspondents have reported a concentration of 85 Allied transports and supply ships, many of them carrying landing barges at Gibraltar. Previously, they had reported the departure into the Mediterranean of three British battleships and battlecruisers, three aircraft carriers, four cruisers and eight destroyers, and they added that there was an almost continuous flow of Allied aircraft through the Gibraltar airdrome in the direction of the Mediterranean.

These German assertions cannot be relied upon as accurate. The first intimation of the Allied landings in North Africa, however, came from Berlin broadcasts reporting similarly large convoys passing Gibraltar to the East. Then, as now, the Germans could only guess where the blow would fall.

For months the Allies have been building up and equipping their armies in North Africa, and convoys which the Germans note may be intended for the same place.

It is interesting, however, that Giraud is confident enough of present United Nations strength in North Africa to predict that "this month of May will see the complete defeat of the Boche in Tunisia."

He added that 1944 will see the end of the 30-Year-War—which began in 1914—and the Allied victory. In this he agrees with the more cautiously expressed opinion of Prime Minister Churchill who "imagines" that the death knell of the Axis will be sounded in 1944 although it might not be until 1945.

Market Trends . . .

NEW YORK, May 2 (AP)—The United States coal labor crisis failed to unsettle the stock market and a number of leading issues advanced to best levels for the year or longer.

The war news remained a prime bolstering influence and further assorted good earnings statements helped brighten sentiment to a certain extent.

The Canadian list was firm.

TORONTO—Trading dwindled to decidedly small volume but prices were firm on the whole. The action still reflects the shift of interest to the Victory Bond Campaign.

Only a few mining issues appeared in the trade.

Most base metals remained unchanged.

MONTREAL — A few leaders, which moved in a narrow track, made their appearance in trading.

Aluminium pushed up in metals and Hudson Bay slipped.

Price Brothers lost ground in newsprints.

VANCOUVER — Oils closed the week slightly firmer, golds remained unchanged.

WINNIPEG—United States support slackened toward the end of the session and wheat prices dropped back from early advances to close ½ cent above the previous close. The may future finished at $1.00½ a bushel, the July at $1.01 and the October at $1.01¼.

American houses were credited with the bulk of the buying while mills, shippers and local interests also made substantial purchases.

CHICAGO—Wheat prices advanced as much as a cent at one time influenced by unfavorable crop reports from the Southwest, but most of the gain was erased in later trading. Rye rose as much as 2 cents early, but later eased with the bread cereal.

ARSENAL WINS LEAGUE CUP

LONDON, May 2 (CP Cable.)—The mighty Arsenal Gunners yesterday won the League South Football Cup and set up a scoring record for the Wembley Stadium by trouncing Charlton Athletic 7-1 before a crowd of 75,000, including members of the War Cabinet.

The Duke and Duchess of Gloucester occupied the Royal Box and the Duchess presented the trophy to Arsenal. The Coldstream Guards Band played while an American cavalry band paraded at half time.

Clement Attlee, Dominions Secretary; A. V. Alexander, First Lord of the Admiralty; Lord Leathers, Minister of Transport, and Lord Woolton, Food Minister, were Government representatives in the large crowd which was the limit wartime police regulations would permit at the vast stadium.

It was the most one-sided game ever played at Wembley, home of big international matches. The Gunners were led by Centre Forward "New" Lewis, who scored four times, and Ted Drake, with two. The other Arsenal goal went to Denis Compton, playing in his second wartime cup final for the Gunners.

Arsenal led 4-1 at half time. Charlton's goal was scored by Green on a penalty shot.

A Blackpool crowd of 28,000 watched Blackpool and Sheffield Wednesday battle to a 2-2 draw in the first game of the League Cup North final. The return match of the total-goal series will be played next Saturday when major football winds up for the season.

Liverpool, which clinched the League North championship last Monday, beat Bolton 2-0 as the season ended. In other games Aston Villa whipped West Bromwich 6-2, Manchester United defeated Sheffield United 2-0 and Swansea took the League West Cup by defeating Lovells Athletics 7-6 on the round, though the new champions lost 4-3 today.

In the semi-finals of the Scottish Northeastern League's Mitchell Cup series, Aberdeen edged Hibernian 2-1 for a victory on the round by 3-2. Raith Rovers emerged as the other finalists over East Fife, winning today 2-2 and on the round by 5-3.

Three-Team Kid Softball League Is In Prospect

Prospects for a four-team kid softball league appeared excellent Friday afternoon, at an organizing meeting held in the Civic Centre Lounge, presided over by Secretary-Manager Ed Kelter. About 20 boys were present.

Sam Brown, who started the ball rolling a few days ago by organizing a group of boys, announced that Albert Brown would enter a team of Daily News carriers. Sam Brown's own team will be known as the Farmers. Aleck Marshall also announced he would have a team. The Dodgers will be the fourth entry, probably coached by Allan DesChamps.

In addition to the four coaches or sponsors, the executive will include a boy from each team. Jim Brooks was elected by the Farmers as their representative, John Holmes was picked for the Marshall boys, Mickey Maglio was picked by Dodgers, and Arnold Kennedy by the Daily News carriers. Ed Kelter, as chairman, will complete the executive.

Games will be played after school, with probably doubleheaders on Saturday afternoon.

The Civic Centre supplies the bases, bats and balls.

A meeting of the executive will be held Wednesday evening to draw up a schedule.

After the meeting the boys had an afternoon of practice on the Recreation grounds.

Ottawa Lifts Order on U. S. Coal

OTTAWA, May 2 (CP)—Shortly after John L. Lewis, United Mine Workers President, announced in New York that a two-week agreement has been made with the Government ending the work stoppage in the United States anthracite and bituminous coal fields, the Munitions Department announced it had revoked an order freezing all anthracite coal in transit from the United States or in stockpiles in Canada.

There was no immediate announcement regarding the order of last Friday, freezing all bituminous coal in transit from the United States and regulating deliveries in Ontario and Quebec.

Both orders had been issued by J. McG. Stewart, Coal Controller.

The anthracite freezing order was announced earlier today. The Department said then that it was made necessary owing to the spread of the coal strike in the United States into the anthracite field.

When the order freezing "soft" or bituminous coal was announced, the Munitions Department said Ontario and Quebec were the only Provinces importing substantial amounts of American bituminous, and added it would have little effect on the larger consumers outside those Provinces.

Host of Friends Pay Tribute to Mrs. R. G. Joy

In St. Saviour's Pro-Cathedral the church of the Parish which she had served for the past 45 years, final tribute was paid Sunday afternoon to Mrs. Beatrice Joy, wife of R. G. Joy, well known pioneer of this city. Her death occurred in St. Paul's Hospital, Vancouver, on Easter Day after an illness of three months.

Rev. J. G. Holmes, Rector, who conducted the funeral services, praised her as an example of the Christian faith, giving herself to the service of the parish and the community in a quiet and unassuming way. She was one of the original members of the Church's Mothers' Club.

"O Love Thou Wilt Not Let Me Go," composed by the late Rev. M. Matheson, whose services Mrs. Joy attended as a girl in Edinburgh, Scotland, and "Abide With Me," were the selected hymns. The fiftieth Psalm was sung. The Church choir was in attendance. The lesson was from St. Paul's Epistle to the Corinthians.

Many of the District's early-day pioneers were among the large number attending, and a long cortege followed the body to Nelson Memorial Park, where interment took place. Several vehicles conveyed the large number of floral tributes.

Pall bearers were Fred Irvine, Frank Goucher, Herbert Logan, Thomas Lambert, Errol L. Wright and Charles Sewell.

Subsequent to Mrs. Joy's death in Vancouver a private service, attended by several former Nelson friends, was conducted by Rev. N. D. B. Larmonth, formerly of Nelson. The remains were accompanied to Nelson by two surviving daughters, Mrs. O. H. Carlson and Miss Constance V. Joy. They were joined at Penticton by the eldest son, George G. Joy and at Nelson by the youngest son, Robert, of Roxberg. The funeral was postponed until Sunday so that another son, Sgt. A. R. Joy of the Armed Forces, stationed at an East Coast camp, could attend.

Mrs. Joy was one of the original members of the St. Saviour's Mothers' Club, being one of a group of Mothers who decided to function as a body to work toward providing a new hall for the Church's Sunday School. The result of their efforts was the Memorial Hall, so named when its erection commenced shortly after World War I. She served as President of the Club for several years.

Mrs. Joy was also active in Red Cross work during both the last and this war. A dexterous knitter, she had produced a large number of articles since September 1939, as well as reknitting a great many articles, for which work she was nicknamed "Mrs. Fixit."

Kimberley Man Survives Atlantic Sinking

A BRITISH PORT, May 2 (CP Cable)—Survivors of a vessel torpedoed in the Atlantic during a blinding snowstorm, 16 R.C.A.F. fliers have arrived in Britain.

Two torpedoes struck their freighters in the darkness of early evening and the Canadian airmen took to rafts and lifeboats. They were picked up two hours later by a British corvette which formed part of the convoy and when the first torpedo flash came they thought it was lightning.

"But our ship started to list immediately and when the second flash and a thud came seconds later I had no doubt about what had happened," one survivor said.

Speaking of the great waves blown up by the storm, Fo. Norman Louden, former Victoria, B.C. Times newspaperman said, "I still don't know how the corvette ever managed to take us aboard."

Another survivor was J. W. Rogers, Kimberley, B.C.

Theme Eternal Punishment

Christian Science Churches have no preachers; they have the same services everywhere. The subject of the Lesson-Sermon on Sunday was "Everlasting Punishment."

The Golden Text was: "Whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap" (Gal. 6: 7).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "I have seen the wicked in great power, and spreading himself like a green bay tree. Yet he passed away, and, lo, he was not; yea, I sought him, but he could not be found" (Psalms 37: 35, 36).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "A magistrates sometimes remits the penalty, but this may be no moral benefit to the criminal, and at best, it only serves the criminal from one form of punishment. The moral law, which has the right to acquit or condemn, always demands restitution before mortals can 'go up higher.' Broken law brings penalty in order to compel this progress."
