Stern Gang Directs Grenade and Gun Attacks in Jerusalem, Haifa in Return for Terrorist School Deaths

JERUSALEM, Nov. 13 (AP)—Five Britons at least were killed and 29 others wounded in grenade and gun attacks tonight as the cities of Jerusalem and Haifa exploded in the Holy Land's most violent outbreak of disorders in six weeks.

The Government said a British policeman was killed by gunfire at the scene of an attack on a downtown Jerusalem cafe in which 28 soldiers were wounded by two exploding hand grenades. Police said a soldier was killed in the blast.

Four British civilians were mowed down by gunfire in front of a Haifa cinema. Two of them were killed on the spot and a third died in hospital.

British officials said the Stern Gang directed the attacks as an underground reprisal for the deaths of two Jewish youths and three girls killed Wednesday in a British police and military raid on a house North of Tel Aviv believed to have been a terrorist training school.

The night's toll was the greatest since 19 persons were killed and 77 wounded Sept. 29 in the bombing of the district police headquarters in Haifa. Irgun Zvai Leumi, an organization similar to the Stern Gang, said it had engineered that blast with a 2000-pound barrel of explosives.

British troops were crowded into the tiny Ritz Cafe bar room when two grenades were tossed. The grenade throwers were protected by riflemen who raked the street and cafe from covering positions at street level and on the house tops.

Witnesses said two Jews stationed on the steps leading into the cafe fired at wounded men attempting to flee from the wrecked tap room. One British policeman was killed by gunfire in the street and another was wounded.

In Haifa, the four civilians were in front of the theatre just as a crowd was emerging. A taxi cab drove slowly by the theatre and gunmen opened fire from its windows. The cab escaped.

CONVICT 13 AWAIT TRIAL OF FREEDOM ON ARSON CHARGES

'Russia Almost on Us' Says One; Offer War Fear as Defence

VERNON, B.C., Nov. 13 (CP)—Fear of another war—"that Russia is almost upon us"—was entered today as a defence for the fire-raiding demonstrators of Doukhobors in the Kootenay Valley.

Homes, schools, churches and community buildings were destroyed earlier this year in the latest wave of incendiarism in the valley and today 20 of the Sons of Freedom, radical group, are in jail here convicted of arson or waiting trial before the Assize Court.

Seven—six men and a woman—have been convicted and will be sentenced at the end of the Assizes.

One, Tim Savinkoff, explained his sect code not to believe in man-made laws or in war.

"We solemnly uphold the teachings of our forefathers. We stand before you for the sake of humanity."

The Doukhobors, religious pacifists, came to Canada early in the century, coming from Russia to escape Czarist persecutions.

Mary Astaforoff, another of the convicted, confessed, a police statement showed, to a charge of firing a barn.

"I lit matches and threw them into a barn," she was quoted as saying.

As flames devoured the building, Mary and her friends sang and prayed.

In a solemn voice, another prisoner, who refused to enter a plea before Chief Justice Wendell B. Faris, declared: "Russia is almost upon us."

Others convicted were Jack J. Lazaroff, William M. Novokhonoroff, Peter C. Kostukoff, Peter P. Deminoff and Paul Metin.

ENJOY THE REST Several of the accused awaiting trial are women. It is a holiday for them, free from farm chores.

The men are not idle. They spend their days splitting wood, drying dishes and washing the laundry as well as cooking—the time honored jobs of Doukhobor women.

It is all amusing to the women. "The men—they cook for us," was the startled comment of one. "We are enjoying the rest."

But, the Mayor said sternly, "the entrance to the Port of New Westminster will be blocked by our fireboat navy until the agreement is signed, sealed and delivered."

Despite possibility of a Washington truce, however, some new complications were reported brewing at Santa Fe, the New Mexico State capital. The local Chamber of Commerce there said it plans to protest New Mexico's "slur" in refusing admittance to the one-time battleship bearing that state's name.

City officials, who previously had requested the Navy to give up its wartime base at Port Newark in order to permit a $70,000,000 expansion program to get under way, called out their fireboat fleet on Tuesday after learning that the New Mexico was enroute here for scrapping.

Mayor Murphy said the Navy's decision to let Lipsett dismantle the old battleship here would delay the proposed port development program.

WEDDING BRINGS HOTEL, CAFE BOOM

LONDON, Nov. 13 (AP)—Thanks to the impending wedding of Princess Elizabeth, London's hotel and restaurant business expects to enjoy its biggest boom since the Coronation of King George VI in 1937.

West End hotels have long been booked up for the wedding week and now even the smaller, less pretentious, semi-residential spots in outlying areas are obliged to refuse applicants, their managers said today.

Two hundred persons, representatives from Dominion and United States Governments, Provincial bodies and Game organizations and Creston District farmers were crowded into the auditorium of the High School to express their views. Over a dozen briefs, pro and con, were read from the floor. It was essentially the Reclamation Company versus the fish and game interests of the United States and Canada. Each group was strongly represented. Arguments of the opposing parties were listened to with keen interest on both sides. Several briefs were still to be heard, necessitating an adjournment until Friday.

(See also story on page 2.) It is expected that the Commission will make known its findings in a report prepared from the facts presented at the hearing.

The Reclamation Company in 1942, then headed by Frank Staples of Creston, made formal application for the drainage of Duck Lake. An Order-in-Council in May of the same year approved construction of dykes and levees for the project providing that increased water level below the international boundary line did not bring objections.

The Order-in-Council was left for approval by the International Joint Commission.

WARNERS OF FLOOD DANGER Five years ago the West Kootenay Light and Power Company, concerned over the decrease of water available to its five plants on the Kootenay River, raised its voice against the reclamation. The Company's objection on the grounds that the lake level would be lowered as a result of the reclamation of Duck Lake and sounded a note of warning as to the possibility of floods in the low-lying areas when the West Kootenay sought its rightful six-foot level on the Kootenay Lake for the operation of its dams on Kootenay River.

Since 1942 another voice, that of sportsmen's organizations, in the U.S. and Canada, has joined in opposition to proposed drainage. Their stand is that Duck Lake represents the last large body of water available for feeding and resting grounds for migratory birds.

They were formed in a bloc by J. G. Cunningham, Game Commissioner for B.C., Thursday afternoon to speak against drainage of the lake and urged the Commission to maintain the site as a conservation measure for the wildlife of the United States and Canada. A Bull, Counsel for the Reclamation Company, argued that the game people had no right to be heard as the Order-in-Council had approved the application for drainage of the lake.

He said that the sole objection raised was that of problems rising out of increased water levels behind the proposed project and that the Council had not been concerned over the objections of the reclamationists.

H. Staples, a Director of the Reclamation Company, was called on to present the views of his Company. He told the Commission that amount of dyking and pumping would amount to $350,000. Mr. Staples stated that the assets of the Company had been reserved for the purpose of draining Duck Lake, adding that it was in a financial condition to undertake the work.

It was pointed out that cost of the lake, if bought from the Provincial Government would be $250 an acre and that of the 8000 acres covered by Duck Lake, 200 acres would be gratis. Mr. Staples explained that drainage of 10,000 acres were sanctioned previously and that only 7500 were reclaimed, leaving a balance of 2500 acres already paid for.

A soil expert gave testimony re: the fertility of the earth under Duck Lake. He said that the soil was of the same richness as on farm lands elsewhere in Creston Valley.

Mr. Staples, upon a request from the Commission, gave approximate figures of crops that might be expected from the Duck Lake basin. Basing his statements against crops yields from adjacent lands, Mr. Staples said that 40 bushels of wheat, 60 of barley and 90 of oats and 4-ton of peas to the acre could be expected.

While arguments for the reclamation were of local aspect, the blast of opposition from game clubs was province-wide and reached into the United States. The majority of Rod and Gun Clubs in B.C. wired their opposition in proxy, opposition also was registered from game authorities in Idaho. Senator Vandelin and Marshall Epsom of the Idaho Game Branch spoke against the reclamation as did R. Imler of the U.S. Wildlife Service.

Representatives of Game Clubs from Alberta were also present to voice their opposition. Ducks Unlimited, a Company established to protect the waterfowl of North America, was represented by C. W. Cartwright, who vehemently defended the cause of the sportsmen.

The Nelson Board of Trade notified the Commission of its opposition to the reclamation by wire. J. J. McEwen, spokesman for the Western Canada and Yukon Fish and Game Council, presented the wire to the Commission.

Hear Over Dozen Briefs on Reclamation

CRESTON, B.C., Nov. 13—Whether 8000 acres of submerged lands should become wheat fields or remain a wild waterfowl refuge as desired by hunters was discussed in representations before the International Joint Commission studying the proposed reclamation of Duck Lake at Creston Thursday.

Probe Demanded After Chancellor Of Exchequer Apologizes for "Grave Indiscretion"; Dual Role for Cripps

LONDON, Nov. 13 (CP)—Hugh Dalton, Chancellor of the Exchequer, was dropped from the Cabinet tonight in a swiftly-developing budget "leak" scandal that shook Labor's crisis-harried Government.

Sir Stafford Cripps, Minister of Economics, was named to succeed Dalton as chancellor. He retained his recently-assumed duties as coordinator of Britain's industrial export drive. Cripps, hailed by Labor and Conservatives alike for his recent exposition of Britain's economic position, thus emerged as the undisputed "strong man" of the Government.

Dalton, officially fourth in seniority in Prime Minister Attlee's Cabinet, resigned after apologizing to the House of Commons for "a grave indiscretion" in disclosing tax secrets to a reporter a few minutes before he introduced his emergency interim budget in Parliament yesterday.

His resignation was the first major change and the biggest sensation since Labor came to power more than two years ago.

The full effect of this first break in the ranks of the big five—Attlee, Cripps, Dalton, Foreign Secretary Bevin and Herbert Morrison, Lord President of the Council—could not be estimated immediately.

The possibility of further repercussions was seen in a demand from Conservative Leader Winston Churchill for an investigation by a House of Commons Committee.

Churchill, who in the House earlier had commended Dalton for his frankness in admitting a "grave indiscretion," asked for a committee investigation in a letter to Dalton, copies of which he released to the Press, after the Chancellor had resigned.

CABINET CONVENE The Cabinet storm blew up quickly after Dalton's apology to the House. It brought a hastily called Cabinet meeting, a visit by Prime Minister Attlee to the King and then the announcement of Dalton's resignation.

Attlee received a letter from Dalton which said: "In view of the incident which was raised today in the House I think it is my duty to offer you my resignation. If you accept it I shall continue to do my utmost to support the Government's policy through the program to which we are all pledged."

"I shall continue in Parliament and outside to give all the loyal service in my power to the Labor Party, in which you and I have worked together as comrades for so many years."

"I should like to thank you personally for all the helpfulness, encouragement and kindness you have so often shown me."

In the same vein, Attlee wrote: "I need not tell you how painful it is to me to have to lose an old and valued colleague whose services to the Government have been so great. I sympathize with you very deeply in this interruption to a distinguished career."

"I would like to thank you most warmly for your good and loyal service. I know that you will continue to work for the movement which we both love so well and that our friendship remains."

INQUIRY REQUEST Announcement of the starting resignation came after H. V. A. from 1942 to 1945.

C. M. & S. to Give Kimberley, Trail $190,000 for Cultural, Recreational Facilities Promotion

TADANAC, B.C., Nov. 13—The Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company of Canada Ltd. announced today that it will present to the cities of Trail and Kimberley a total of $190,000 for the promotion of recreational and cultural facilities in these cities.

Under the provisions of this grant, $125,000 will go to Trail and $65,000 to Kimberley. Both cities are developing a long term integrated program for the provision of recreational and cultural facilities as and when labor and material conditions permit. It is for this purpose the money is to be allocated. It will be made available on a dollar for dollar basis matching contributions from all other sources.

The current grant of $190,000, together with $25,000 given to the city of Rossland earlier in the year, brings the year's total given by the company for purposes of this nature to $215,000.

those from Alberta and the United States were attracted to the duck and goose shooting area, and if it were abolished, the District would lose a considerable tourist revenue, members pointed out.

Doubt was expressed as to whether the entire area would be suitable for agriculture. It was stated that Duck Lake should be kept for the recreation of game hunters at large, rather than for "the benefit of a few."

Discussion on the matter was brought up by Robert Main, who reminded that the Commission was investigating whether the Duck Lake District be turned over to reclamation, or kept for sport purposes.

If the area was added to Creston's reclaimed lands, game would be evicted and sportsmen would lose one of the "best natural resorts for the preservation of wild fowl in the Province," it was felt.

Seek Production, Sale of Butter Substitutes

A resolution asking that manufacture and sale of butter substitutes be permitted in Canada, was endorsed at Nelson Board of Trade's Council meeting Thursday in the Hume. The action was taken following receipt of resolutions from the Trail Board of Trade, the Canadian Chamber of Commerce and an Ontario Board of Trade, expressing the same view.

Trail Board's resolution, which was being circulated among member Boards of the Associated Boards of Trade of Eastern B.C., requested legalization of the sale of butter substitutes, if approved specifications regarding quality of product were met.

Many people in lower income brackets were unable to pay current prices for butter, and butter substitutes as wholesome and nutritious as butter could be produced, the resolution pointed out. Legalization would also tend to increase the overall consumption of fat in this country, while the ban now imposed created a "serious restriction on trade."

Replied to a request that Nelson be made a customs port of entry for visiting aircraft, the Department of National Revenue informed Nelson Board of Trade Council meeting in the Hume Thursday that while "a number of other points in B.C. have been designated as customs airports, it was not considered necessary that Nelson be added to the list at present."

Authorized customs ports were set up at strategic points in the various Provinces, but traffic in the Nelson area did not warrant establishment of a port, the letter explained.

Members approved that the Department be written asking remittance of a list of customs airports now in existence.

The Labor Minister was in conference with Mr. Morrison and other Union leaders.

RULES LANDLORD CAN REFUSE SUB-LET RIGHT

TORONTO, Nov. 13 (CP)—Judge Ian MacDonell ruled that landlords have the right to refuse tenants to sub-let, when he heard an application made by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Humenick for an order to determine whether or not the landlord unreasonably withheld consent to an assignment of a lease.

"It seems to me that once a tenant has demonstrated he has no further need for accommodation himself that the natural right of the landlord should be permitted to prevail," said Judge MacDonell in court yesterday.

8,000 Acres for Farms, Jobs for 400 $200,000 Crops if Lake Drained

CRESTON, B.C., Nov. 13—The International Joint Commission studying the reclamation of Duck Lake at Creston Thursday heard arguments for the project advanced by Counsel A. Bull for the Reclamation Company of Creston and briefs presented by J. Melrose, Deputy Minister of Lands, as well as reports from engineers. Only one brief in opposition was read at the morning session.

The West Kootenay Power and Light Company Ltd. and Consolidated Mining and Smelting Co. Ltd. of Canada presented a joint brief. The Commission composed of Hon. Senator A. O. Stanley, Washington, D.C., R. B. McWhirter, Washington, J. E. Perault, Ottawa and G. Spence, Regina, will draft a report approving or refusing the drainage of Duck Lake on the basis of its hearing at Creston.

Application for reclamation of Duck Lake was first made in 1942. At that time the reclamation was approved by an order-in-council with provision that the project meet with the approval of the International Joint Commission.

Mr. Bull, representing the Reclamation Company of Creston, told the Commission that in 1942 the main issue was centered around the possible damage to lands around the border that might be brought about by the drainage of the lake. He said that in 1942 opposition from groups concerned with preservation of wild life was negligible and added that they had no right to be heard inasmuch as they were in the wrong court. They should have gone to the owners of the land, he said.

J. J. Cunningham, Game Commissioner for B.C., protested on the grounds that the Game Department had not been present at the first hearing in 1942 and stated that Department was ready to give its case before the Commission. Mr. Cunningham is one of the many representatives of game interests present to express views in opposition to the reclamation. Organized game club representatives from B.C., Alberta and the adjoining States across the border were on hand to fight the proposed reclamation. They will take the stand that further drainage of feeding grounds for migratory birds would add seriously to the depletion of the water fowl population.

P. Staples, brother of Frank Staples, Managing Director of the Reclamation Company who died at Creston recently, told the Commission that cost of reclamation would be in the neighborhood of $350,000. He said that of the 8,000 acres that would be available to farming if the lake were drained, 6,500 to 7,000 acres would be ready for cultivation, adding that the company was in a financial position to undertake the project.

Mr. Staples drew attention to the lands already reclaimed, stating that in 10 years these properties had been in the most part paid for and had provided a living for the farmers working the soil. He pointed out that the soil in Duck Lake was similar to the other lands and claimed that the richest crops were grown on ground which had been under deepest water prior to drainage.

Briefs urging the reclamation were also heard from the City of Creston, the Creston Valley Co-operative, the Creston School Board and the Wynndel Fruit Growers Co-operative. In general the briefs appealed for reclamation on grounds that it would increase the financial status of the district.

Deputy Minister of Lands, G. Melrose, asked for adoption of the scheme because reclamation would provide livelihood for 400 persons as well as become an asset to the food resources of B.C. He said that while wild life supported on the waters of the lake could not be assessed, the taxes made available would come close to $400,000 a year with an annual yield of $200,000 worth of crops.

Spokesman for the C. M. & S. and the West Kootenay said power loss caused by reduced water run would amount to $29,000 annually if the water level was lowered by drainage of Duck Lake. Production loss at the Trail plant of the C. M. & S. translated in terms of loss of kilowatt hours at 30,000 tons of lead, 1835 tons of zinc and 1970 tons of fertilizer.

The Industrial Committee was instructed to look into the matter.

Scores at Rites For Well Known Kaslo Woman

KASLO, B.C., Nov. 13—Scores of residents from Kaslo and the surrounding area Thursday filled the flower-banked St. Mark's Anglican Church, Kaslo, to pay an impressive final tribute to Miss Alice Lucy Hodges, Miss Hodges, 83-year-old woman who had held positions in Nelson, and Trail, as well as Kaslo, died Sunday in the Victorian hospital where, from 1913 to 1922, she had been housekeeper.

Born in Southampton, England, she came to Canada in 1911 to live at Victoria for two years until she took up residence in Kaslo. Well-known throughout the district, Miss Hodges was active in the town's community affairs, holding a keen interest in church and hospital work.

Rev. M. C. T. Percival of Procter led the rites, while Miss E. Giegener presided at the organ. Two hymns, chosen by Miss Hodges just before she died, were, "King of Love My Shepherd Is" and "O Love That Will Not Let Me Go."

B. F. Palmer, E. H. Latham, William Smith and H. Larson were pallbearers. Interment was in the Kaslo Cemetery.

Surviving are a brother and a sister in Southampton, England, and three nephews, one in South Africa, one in Australia and one in England.

Be Worthy of Sacrifices Rossland Told

ROSSLAND, B.C., Nov. 13—Armistice was duly celebrated in Rossland when members of the Canadian Legion, accompanied by the members of the Women's Auxiliary and representatives of other organizations, led by the Rossland City Band, paraded from the Legion Memorial Hall to the Cenotaph where a short Remembrance Service was held by the Rossland Ministerial Association.

The program opened with the singing of "O Canada," led by the City Band, then two verses of "Abide With Me," with the Salvation Army Band playing the accompaniment. Dr. B. P. Sutherland gave the invocation which was followed by a short address by Rev. H. Pepin, who took for his text "Foresake not the Ancient Land Marks, which They Fathers Have Set Up."

He said: "We are here to remember the men who gave their lives in the last two wars. 'The Text I have taken is repeated several times in the Bible and refers to some experience with God.

"Today we have our remembrance. God did something for us back in the war years, when the men answered the call and went overseas and gave their all for freedom and democracy that we might live. They left us their heritage.

"God grant that we live a life worthy of the sacrifice they made and that we dedicate our lives to a life of great purpose and endeavor."

A two minutes silence was observed followed by the sounding of the "Last Post", with the color parties of the Legion and Auxiliary taking part. W. Aiken and J. Gibbons for the Legion and Mrs. I. Conroy and Mrs. D. Calder for the Auxiliary.

Wreaths were placed on the cenotaph by the representatives of various organizations. Rev. T. B. McMillan, pronounced the Benediction. "God Save the King" brought the impressive ceremony to a close.

A banquet and dance was held in the K. of P. Hall in the evening. Among the organizations placing wreaths on the Cenotaph were Goldens City Lodge, Ladies Orange Benovolent Association; the Women's Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion; Knights of Columbus; Gyro, Fraternal Order of Eagles; City of Rossland, Maple Leaf Temple No. 4 Pythian Sisters; Catholic Women's League; MacLean School; Deborah Rebekah Lodge No. 13; Girl Guides; Junior Board of Trade; Knights of Pythias; Rossland IOOF Lodge No. 36; Boy Scouts; Corinthian Lodge; Kinsmen Club; and Rossland Canadian Legion Branch No. 14.

Poppy wreaths were displayed in all the places of business in the city.

Three Kaslo Pioneers Join Nonagenarians

KASLO, B.C., Nov. 13—Three of Kaslo's pioneers have or will be celebrating 90 years of life, William Murchison and James Spiers have already entered the select group—the nonagenarians, and Stewart Dennison will do likewise in a few weeks.

Mr. Murchison left his home in Ontario at the age of 16, and arrived in Winnipeg shortly before the second Riel Rebellion. He settled in Manitoba for a few years, and then moved West, coming to Spokane around 1869. From there he moved to Kaslo, later brought his family from Manitoba, and has resided here ever since. He was 90 on Oct. 12, and has been at Kaslo about 51 years.

Born also in Ontario, Mr. Spiers moved West to Calgary where he remained a few years. Later he went to the Coast for a few months, and early in 1896 brought his family from Calgary and settled at Kaslo. Mr. Spiers has served as alderman on the Kaslo City Council, and has dealt in coal for many years. His 90th birthday was on Guy Fawkes Day.

More than half a century of residence in Kaslo has been marked by Mr. Dennison. He spent a few years in Sandon, where he was Government Road Foreman. Being a carpenter, he helped build many houses still standing in Kaslo and Sandon. He lives on his "home on the hill," and will be 90 shortly.

Deny Saturday Afternoon Mail Delivery

Because a number of business houses close Saturday afternoons, and there is insufficient demand for late delivery Saturdays, the Postmaster General's Department cannot comply with a request for an extra Saturday mail delivery to businesses here, Nelson Board of Trade Council was informed Thursday.

The Director of Operations for the Department advised the Board that the practice of afternoon delivery Saturdays was discontinued during the war, but was general throughout Canada before. "As Nelson receives the same letter carrier service as other places, there is not sufficient justification to make an exception," the letter stated. An extra delivery Saturday could serve "no useful purpose," the letter said. Post office boxes could be secured as a means of overcoming any inconvenience caused through the one mail delivery Saturday morning, it was pointed out.

Nelson Board asked institution of the additional delivery for the business section over a month ago, and a delegation put the matter before Postmaster R. M. Manahan.

Concerning word from the Postmaster General that talks were underway for establishment of airmail service to the Kootenays, it was approved that the Postmaster General be asked to advise the Board on progress of negotiations.

Declares Loss in Waterfowl Life Would Follow Duck Lake Drainage

McEwen Makes Plea
For Youth of Present and Future

CRESTON, B. C., Nov. 13—The ultimate loss in wild waterfowl life that would result from the drainage of Duck Lake, as proposed by the Creston Reclamation Company, was stressed Thursday in a brief presented to the international joint commission, investigating the application, by J. J. McEwen, Past President of the West Kootenay Rod and Gun Clubs Association.

Mr. McEwen also emphasized that the move would be a contributing factor to juvenile delinquency, for it had been found that "children who have lived in the environment of the outdoors comprise the lowest number of delinquents." Should the lake be reclaimed, he said, the youngsters in the area would lose the advantages of plentiful hunting opportunities.

His brief follows:
We fully realize your formal position regarding this case and appreciate the difficulty you must endure in your efforts to conciliate honest rivalry. Honest rivalry is by far the most difficult task for those who are charged with a duty such as yours to decide in favor of one of the rival factions. We present our views on the matter wholly because we know that you do not wish to overlook any phase that may impair the citizens you represent and that in future years your deliberations emanating from this hearing, will be looked upon as commensurate with decisions of others who have not only prepared, but by virtue of their deeds, created a land of free and happy people.

You have heard, or will hear, the economic values described by all sides. These determined values must necessarily play a large part in your deliberations. The brief I present today cannot be considered from a monetary standpoint, but we beg of you to consider our plea for present and future Canadian youth who obviously cannot be present to voice their own appeal.

It is as a representative of the organized sportsmen of British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba and Yukon Territory that we are protesting the drainage of Duck Lake. Not, I may assure this Commission, from any selfish motive other than the preservation of the waterfowl of North America. I can sincerely assure you that it is not over-elaborate. The Western Canada Yukon Fish and Game Council, of which I am a Director, is vitally interested in Canadian youth. Every organization within our scope is leaving no sod unturned to try and conserve, preserve and propagate these things which we are sure will play a very large part in the future of Canada. Also in this same vein Good Neighbor policy to us is not a meaningless phrase, an airy catchword or an empty shibboleth. We enjoy these relations in this work because we know we are assisting them in fighting the same enemy—juvenile delinquency.

DUCK DEPLETION
May I take the liberty of reviewing certain well known facts about migratory waterfowl? Within the past 15 years their population on this Continent has decreased alarmingly. It was to offset that accelerating decrease that the great sportsmen's movement known as Ducks Unlimited came into being. The accomplishments of this body—supported by voluntary contributions for the most part from the United States—have been well reported in the press. Briefly they have sought to encourage the breeding in Canada, of waterfowl by flooding certain areas in the dry and previously reclaimed sections of the Canadian Prairies.

TOO LATE . . .
They have flooded these areas again, be it noted, where formerly natural conditions had favored nesting waterfowl. Before the land had been drained, that is, and the years of drought had set in. So, they filled up the ditches and built dams and . . . wild waterfowl began to flourish again.

Perhaps we were too late, we people who sent our small offerings to bring back the ducks and the geese, the snipe and the curlews, and the lesser game birds. But at least we tried.
Reclamation is no new thing in this district of Creston. Crops flourish where the lush level lands lay safe behind the dykes. No sportsman raised his voice to protest previous reclamations although we knew the duck population would be seriously curtailed. But . . . there are limits to which the inherent rights of a common citizen may be imperilled.

Juvenile delinquency has mounted very rapidly, and is possibly the greatest enemy of our present generation. Great minds are constantly endeavoring to reach a solution to the problem. Many millions of dollars are being spent annually to combat this deadly menace and still it continues to rise.

We do know very definitely that where large concentrations of people exist delinquency is greatest. We know also that where youth are occupied in healthy environment, whether it be clubs such as Scouts, hobbies, various sports, etc., delinquency is low and in many cases normal.

Many surveys are being conducted and some findings are appearing. The phase we are particularly interested in is outdoor life. Surveys conducted, and one particularly by an eminent Juvenile Court Judge in a neighboring State, have found that children who have lived in the environment of the outdoors and those who emanate from families who indulge in outdoor activities such as hunting and fishing, comprise the lowest number of delinquents.

Obviously the hearing is not concerned with all the contributing factors attributed to delinquency, and the following comments result from "combing out" of contributing factors. Good sound reasoning, memories and factual knowledge prove that of the great outdoors with its wildlife, forests, vegetation, streams, lakes and marine life, one or more of these creations find a spot in the heart of any human being. Solace is obtained from these associations that is incomparable and incalculable and we particularly emphasize its value to youth.

Gentlemen, we must concede that there are some fortunates that can buy these things with money, but for everyone who can, there are millions who cannot. It will always be thus. We cannot hope to provide every living soul with the opportunity to enjoy the outdoors as some of us in this assembly are or have enjoyed them. We can, however, provide for the greatest amount possible by carefully planning now for their future in this particular aspect.

Notwithstanding the fact that as a nation we must work hard we have long since found the intrinsic value of the right kind of recreations. Without this we cannot hope to survive. Millions of dollars worth of property is devoted to parks, zoos, aquariums and such like in our large cities which are a definite burden from a monetary viewpoint, but it would be suicide to suggest that Vancouver for instance, should subdivide and sell Stanley or Hastings Parks because of their greater value as building sites. Someone may have a thought at this time that this is not parallel to the case we are discussing because Vancouver has room for expansion and can readily afford the land in these parks. The principle remains that the need of this area is in its nearest to possible primitive state that marks its value to the community.

We know the value of our National parks. Nothing can surpass the popularity of these areas to people in all walks of life. And why were they created? Because our forefathers looked far into the future, and knowing man's personal greed, knew that unless certain areas were protected against alienation, man would eventually destroy too much of those things the human race desires the most of, to convene with nature as nature intended it to be. A BENEFIT MONEY CAN NOT BUY

Christianity is without question the ideal way of life and is God's gift to man. Man finds it very difficult to abide by the letter. Nevertheless the majority of our citizens recognize Christianity and would live closer to it if given a better chance. We claim here again that youth must have installed in their early fertile minds the value of Christianity. The first step is to provide definite proof that there was a Creator, that everything in and on this world was designed for some particular purpose, that nowhere in the pattern or design of all things did the Creator make a mistake. Man was the first to make a mistake no other living creature has done so. We claim that no system devised so far can approach the outdoors, if properly used, to prepare the mind of a child than to take them out into the outdoors and to prove to them there is a God. It is so easy to teach because the evidence in everything that grows, flies, swims, creeps, or runs is unmistakable and undeny- ing evidence. If we should provide access to this most valuable phase in our children's educational life, we would realize the benefit that money can never accomplish.

There is our appeal for youth who in growing to maturity will retain the value derived from it and preserve for those who will in turn follow them. We are not taking a selfish attitude nor do we feel that we are depriving anyone by asking that you recommend reserving Duck Lake from alienation. We are proud of this valley and its fertility. Also if it were not for the fact that our neighbors to the South, the Canadian Prairies, the Peace River area and others, are so dependent upon resting and nesting grounds on flyways, we would not be here today begging you to preserve the finest resting area for waterfowl in Eastern B. C. In the United States, $1,100,000,000 per year is spent on hunting, far more than all other sports combined with the exception of fishing which commands all sports with $1,280,000,000.

Service assisted by Inspector Frank Kearns of the B. C. Game Department, was over 20,000. There are times when easily five times this number are resting and feeding there. We cannot help but feel that should this area be drained and developed into crop land, the resultant destruction of the prolific growth of food that now exists there would undoubtedly create a definite hazard to the farmers from the crops to supplement the food so destroyed by drainage. If this should happen I need not remind you that there would then be a pest menace and more destruction of these valuable birds would result.
So again, Gentlemen, in the name of those who will follow in our footsteps, help them to preserve this land of free people, to fortify them against anti-Christian creeds and preserve it as a true democracy.

LONDON, Nov. 13 (CP)—Where the King and Queen, their relatives and distinguished home and overseas visitors will sit in vast, dimly-lit Westminster Abbey during next week's royal wedding ceremony was officially made known today.

A front view of the high, tapestried altar, approached directly down the centre aisle from the great West door, will show from left to right on the altar steps:

The King, the bride, the bridegroom and the Marquess of Milford Haven who will be best man.

On their right, seated sideways to the altar in the South sanctuary, will be the Queen, Queen Mary, Princess Margaret, the Princess Royal, the Duchess of Kent and other members of the royal family.

Opposite them in the North sanctuary behind the pulpit will be Princess Andrew of Greece the bridegroom's mother, Earl and Countess Mountbatten of India and other relatives of Lieut. Phillip Mountbatten.

The Abbey congregation, ranging from the great West door through the bronze gates to the lectern directly below the altar steps, thus will see the principal guests in profile.

Foreign royalty will be seated on either side of the lectern directly in front of the sanctuary. They also will be sideways to the altar in facing groups.

In a written judgment handed down by Mr. Justice H. Y. MacDonaid, the court dismissed an appeal by the Saskatchewan Government against a King's Bench Court decision of Mr. Justice J. V. Bigelow, who ruled the legislation inapplicable to railways and their subsidiaries, because railway legislation was the exclusive field of the Dominion Government under the British North America Act.

MADAME MUST CHANGE HER GAIT TO WEAR NEW LOW HEMLINE GOWNS

By MARILYN LAMBORN
Canadian Press Staff Writer
TORONTO, Nov. 13 (CP)—Most women don't mind discarding their wardrobe to conform with current dictates of fashion, but when it comes to developing a new walk to accompany the "new look," some say "enough is enough."

But professional models, whose livelihood depends on the "know how," say the whole effect of a new low hemline gown is lost if the wearer walks the same way she did when her skirts dangled at her knees.

A tight no-way-stretch dress 11 inches from the floor necessarily cramps the style of a long stride female. On the other hand a woman encased in swirls of material is tempted to walk with a swing. But whether she must or should change her gait to suit her dress, a sophisticated walk is a natural consequence of glamor gowns, say the models.

Suggests U.K. Send Her People Overseas

LONDON, Nov. 13 (CP)—Dr. Mont Follick, 66, Labor Member of Parliament for Loughborough, former Secretary to the Emperor of Morocco and the Commons' chief authority on dental care, suggests that the United Kingdom would be far better off if 15,000,000 of her 48,000,000 people left for Canada and other Commonwealth countries.

Follick is a slight, bronzed Welshman who is founder and proprietor of a language school in London, where he settled down after occupations as varied as being secretary to a former Minister of Queensland, Hon. Robert Philip, and to Sultan Mulai Hafid, Emperor of Morocco.

Follick, in his latest House statement, was all against the import of foreign labor. These newcomers simply represented more mouths to feed with food bought overseas. Britain's prosperity was greatest between 1890 and 1900 when her population was about 40,000,000, Southern Ireland included.

When Britain dominated the world only 40,000,000 citizens could be maintained and under present circumstances fewer could be supported, he said. If Britain sent her people abroad as emigrants certain markets for British goods overseas would be developed.

Democracy Alive and Kicking in Britain—Shawcross

By CLYDE BLACKBURN
WASHINGTON, Nov. 13 (CP)—Sir Hartley Shawcross, Britain's Attorney General and delegate to the United Nations, came down from New York this week and made a timely effort to explain to Americans the difference between a Socialist Government and a Communist totalitarian Government.

"I don't suppose there is anyone in this audience or anyone who knows anything about Britain who has any doubt that democracy over there is very much alive and kicking," he told the National Press Club.

"But we have a Socialist Government, and some people seem to think that really means a Communist and totalitarian Government. ... If you accept, as I do, Abraham Lincoln's definition... then I should think it true to say that never in the history of the British people has there been such active democracy as there is today."

"The choice that faces the rest of Europe is not one between Conservatism and Socialism," he said, "but between Social Democracy, which is what we have, and one form or another of totalitarianism."

STEP BY STEP COUNTING

MOST card-counting by a fine player is progressive. He gets his information bit by bit and so does his counting of the opponent's suit-lengths step by step. Eventually, when he is pretty sure he has the vital hand counted, he proceeds with a plan calculated to make the most valuable use of his knowledge. The player who will not exert his brain muscles on such a procedure may get the same result by a fortunate guess, but he also will occasionally fumble his opportunity by guessing wrong.

Russ Claim Big Advances in Far East Provinces

MOSCOW, Nov. 13 (AP)—The Maritime and Khabarovsk Provinces of the Russian Far East have made tremendous industrial and economic progress since Japanese forces followed British and American troops out of the area 25 years ago, according to official Soviet announcements.

Maritime Province, the area East of the Amur and Manchuria, according to official figures, has altered beyond recognition. Industry and agriculture have flourished and it has made notable progress in science and the arts.

Forests have been cleared to make room for new towns and large workers' settlements. The city of Artem has grown more than five times over in the last 10 years. Large scale industrial enterprises were built, coal deposits discovered and mechanized mines started.

Its lumber, building material and fishing industries likewise have grown. Large fish processing plants and canneries have sprung up and crab fishing and whaling fleets have been formed.

Since 1922 the number of ships in the Far East merchant fleet has increased 35 times, and its total tonnage has gone up 117 times.

Before the revolution, the Province had six secondary schools and only 28 persons in every thousand could read and write. Today there are 100 schools and hundreds of clubs and libraries in the region.

Probably his last trip as Premier, Mr. Hart will discuss his proposal that the $50,000,000 extension should be financed by a partnership of Dominion and Provincial Governments and the two transcontinental railways.

DIETITIANS FAVOUR HOT BREAKFASTS OF WHOLE-GRAIN

MORNING DEPRESSIONS SAID CAUSE OF POOR SCHOLASTIC SHOWINGS—

An exhaustive survey by prominent medical men and dietitians shows that most poor scholastic showings are due to morning depressions resulting from breakfasts deficient in minerals and vitamins. These depressions could be eliminated by the simple inclusion of whole-grain cereals at breakfast.

DOCTORS AGREE
Medical research has proven that among the many foods which supply the essential Vitamin B₁ (thiamine), whole-grain cereals are one of the richest sources.

STAPLE DIET
Welfare workers are unanimous in their choice of whole-grain cereals as part of a balanced and staple diet. They recommend them highly where pupils show a lack of interest in their studies or show a tendency to tire easily.

Now the Boycott

When it comes to blocking the will of the majority, the Russians have few if any superiors. By repeated use of the veto they have rendered the Security Council largely ineffective. Now, in the General Assembly, where the veto does not work, they have employed the boycott as a means of thwarting appeal to that more elastic part of the U. N. organization. That the basic charter of the world body calls upon all its members "to give the United Nations every assistance in any action it takes in accordance with the present Charter" seemingly means little to the Soviet or its satellites. This bloc has served notice on the other members that it intends to boycott the Balkan Commission, the "Little Assembly" which has just been established, and the Commission which would supervise establishment of an independent Government in Korea.

In the Korean matter, excluding the abstentions of five nations, world opinion was unanimous against the Russian bloc whose members refused to vote or to go on record as abstaining. Forty-six of the 57 nations voted for the American plan and none voted against it. To the 46 who supported the proposal, the program seemed fair and simple. Stripped to its essentials, it calls for creation of a nine-member Commission which would supervise elections next Spring to select a Korean National Assembly which, in turn, would form a Government. This Government would take over functions of government in both the North and South zones of occupation and arrange for withdrawal of occupation forces at the earliest possible date. The resolution also would call upon member nations not to interfere in Korean affairs while the new Government is being set up and after its establishment to refrain from anything to impair Korean independence and sovereignty. Whether in the light of the Russian attitude, the hope of the rest of the world for a free and independent Korea can be realized, only time will tell. Meanwhile, however, the Soviet group may draw what satisfaction it can from the fact that it seems to have found another effective wrench to throw into the peace machinery of the world.

Pies That Were Pies

Most who munch meditatively on an apple just take it for granted. In urban centres, people buy them at stores, and think no more about it. If they had to go out and pick it, and bushels like it, they might appreciate more the eating of the fruit.

An aged picker was injured by a fall from an apple tree, and this causes one to wonder whether any statistics have been compiled of the number of persons who have been hurt in this way. Because it is a rather risky business, especially if the trees are old and not kept well pruned.

All of which puts another thought in mind. Does anyone dry apples any more? We don't mean the factory produced stuff, but rather that delectable product made by slicing the apples and suspending them on a long string until they are withered and dry.

My, the pies and applesauce made from dried apples! The memory still makes the mouth water.

Even the Jails Hit

The housing shortage which has the United States in its grip involves even the jails, the American Municipal Association reports. In many cities prisons are badly overcrowded, not, apparently, because people are less law-abiding than formerly but because a greater proportion of them are living in cities and because shortages of materials and of funds have prevented replacement of inadequate and antiquated structures.

Several cities, the Association says, have resorted to the building of stockades and prison farms where less troublesome prisoners, notably alcoholics, can be housed. Los Angeles has appropriated nearly $2,000,000 to expand a jail farm for rehabilitating alcoholics, and Seattle, finding that seven out of 10 of its local prisoners are drunkards, many of them chronic repeaters, contemplates a similar farm where psychiatric treatment also could be given. It is obvious that municipal penal authorities from coast to coast have housing problems but they are spared one of the headaches which beset housing officials. It is doubtful whether they receive many protests against evictions.

Diplomatic Offence

Canadians will approve the warning given to foreign diplomats by Rt. Hon. Louis S. St. Laurent, Secretary of State for External Affairs, that they should not use "offensive language in public statements." It is directed, of course, at the Soviet Embassy, though representatives of certain satellite states have also been on the verge of breach of diplomatic privilege.

The majority of representatives of other countries, attached to embassies or legations in Canada, have been most scrupulous in observing the niceties of their positions. They would never think of interfering in purely domestic affairs, or of making statements liable to cause trouble in Canada.

It is no extenuation to say that most Soviet or satellite diplomats are newcomers to the field of diplomacy, and perhaps do not completely appreciate the traditions. Nor is it any excuse that they are zealots, and apt to let their fanaticism get the better of them. When in this country, it is only common courtesy, quite apart from diplomatic usage, to refrain from statements offensive to Canadians.

It is possible, on occasion, that through mere inadvertence a diplomat may overstep the line. There is nothing to indicate that statements of I. O. Scherbatyuk of the Soviet Embassy, in St. Vital, Man., were in this category. That the Embassy has not yet provided a text of his remarks would suggest what he said about Ukrainian Canadians, and displaced persons who came to Canada, was said deliberately.

Certainly no Canadian at our Embassy in Moscow would be permitted by the Soviet Government to get away with similarly offensive language.

Protests Fairview Sawdust Nuisance

To the Editor: Sir—Referring to Mr. Horton's letter in your issue of Nov. 7, wherein he informs the public of the Powell Lumber Company's effort to eliminate the sawdust nuisance originating in their premises and that finally they may have to construct a sawdust burner, but if they do the City of Nelson must absorb them "from blame of smoke and soot hazards."

I am not a sufferer of the nuisance of the Powell Lumber Company, but as Mr. Horton has referred to a petition having been circulated in Fairview regarding the Glacier Lumber Mill, situated on the outskirts of Fairview, I can speak quite definitely on what residents in this neighborhood suffer from soot, smoke and PARTICULARLY SAWDUST, through the operation of this mill's sawdust burner.

In the first place, I have no knowledge of this petition ever being circulated, but if that is a fact I am, very sorry my name was not on it.

This nuisance is not a matter of a few days in the year, but very many—often many days without a letup. On such days it is useless to sweep your veranda on account of sawdust, because that is a full-time job. The roof of my house is impregnated with sawdust, resulting in the rotting of the shingles. Outside painting is also a problem, not knowing whether you will be favored or not. That is one of the reasons I am now putting on brick veneer, which does not need painting. My garden is now saturated with sawdust and of course is gradually getting worse. And there are many other things for which this sawdust is a nuisance.

Residents afflicted with this nuisance want a normal home life the year round, and that is not what we are getting. Surely no industrial firm can with impunity make living conditions in this vicinity intolerable.

G. V. Nelson—What can be added to a rinse water to render clothes fireproof?

Fabrics may be steeped in almost any saline solution, such as borax, alum, sal ammoniac, etc. The addition of about one ounce of alum or sal ammoniac to the last water used to rinse textile materials or the addition of a lesser quantity to the starch used to stiffen them, renders them so little combustible that they will not readily take fire or burst into flame if kindled.

Today's Horoscope

You judge hastily and lose your temper easily, although you do not give way to violent fits of passion. You do not harbor any resentment, and although you are prone to speak hastily, you are sorry afterwards. You are magnetic and people follow you readily. Your birthday influences are adverse. Lie low and thereby avoid involvement. A showdown of some sort is likely. Associates may be in trouble, so be cautious. In your next year favorable and unfavorable vibrations are strangely interspersed, indicating exceptionally happy friendships or domestic bliss, but disputation and hostility from father or employer. Threats of accident or indisposition exist. The child who is born on this date will never want a friend and many happy, romantic friendships are foreseen, but people in authority and occasional ill-health may somewhat mar success.

The Second Story Of a Little Church

(Contributed)

ROBSON, B. C., Nov. 13—If on the morning of November 9, you had been walking up from Castlegar Ferry towards Robson—and you could do so without undue discomfort for now the road has been paved—after going about a mile you would see on the right a road leading up a fairly steep grade. If you went up it you would see at the top Robson Memorial Church.

You would have to be careful though to go up the right grade for there are several similar roads leading up to ranches with not a church but a dog at the top. However, we will suppose in this case you have taken the right road.

If you had known the church in days gone by you will notice the entrance on the South side, facing the river, has been done away with, and in its place there has been built a chancel or apse, with six colored windows. These were given to the district by St. Saviour's in Nelson. It is possible that if the ghost of one of the early settlers, and that settler had been a man who in life had liked his religion plain, had suddenly come upon the scene—seeing the chancel with its six colored windows—he might perhaps have sighed, shaken his head and quietly have dissolved into thin air.

But the alterations do not end with the front. The two small rooms at the back have been done away with and a hall built on to the church making the top part of the letter T. The entrance to the hall is on the West side, the new entrance to the church on the East side, close to the angle made by the new building. The belfry has been re-roofed, and the shingles of the whole building stained; the church and hall painted white.

INTERIOR CHANGED

Having noted the changes that have been made on the outside we will suppose you softly open the door and go in. You will see that the walls have been covered with fir veneer, and that part of the wall of the hall has been cut away, to enable the church and hall to be used as one when needed. When the two are not wanted folding doors will separate the one from the other.

The congregation has turned completely round and is now facing South instead of North. This change has been made without anyone recanting their principles, and is an adjustment that might be emulated by the United Nations. The altar at the end of the church was given by South Slooan, and when the United Church are holding Communion service the table portion is moved forward. Electric lights have been installed. All this has been accomplished since the Baptist Board gave the original church to the community.

VOLUNTARY EFFORT

Over $1100 has been subscribed and the work done would have cost more than double that amount if most of it had not been done by voluntary effort.

Now of course there is nothing very remarkable about this. Other places have raised far larger sums for memorial purposes, and have built much larger buildings, but the people of this little district, perhaps because they were not burdened with the finer points of theology, decided that a memorial church was as good a memorial as any other; so why not have a Community Memorial Church?

Moreover it might help the district to retain a sense of values in these uncertain days, then too it did not seem to make sense, in a small community, to have several half empty churches about when one would hold all the people of the district who were likely to come—moreover a Community Church should promote community spirit. The way of course was opened by the Baptist Board giving the existing church to the community. Much more remains to be done. As time went on the scheme expanded and grew more ambitious. A new floor is needed, the folding doors between the hall and the church have not yet been made. The hall itself has to be lined up inside and adequate heating for the whole building installed. But it is generally felt that what has been accomplished so far has been well worth while and as time goes on the remaining objectives will be reached.

You will notice that the church is full, the congregation extending right through into the hall; in fact a local truck had to be requisitioned to collect more chairs. The occasion is the unveiling of a plaque in memory of those who served and those who fell in World War II.

Conducting the service are Rev. Mr. Horricks, United Church Minister for the Castlegar District, and Archdeacon B. A. Beaker, whose parish extends from Brilliant to Salmo. Rev. T. J. & Ferguson, who has always shown a great interest in Robson, was invited to attend, but was unable to do so.

The familiar hymn, "Oh God, Our Help in Ages Past" is being sung; later Mrs. Robert Waldie, accompanied by Dr. Wright at the organ, sings Kipling's "Recessional." "Let Us Forget—Let Us Forget" is still echoing through the building as Mrs. Foxlee unveils the plaque which is dedicated by Archdeacon Beaker. Forty-two names are revealed. In front of five are crosses. Comrade McClure sounds the "Last Post"—silence—a silence that is broken by the "Reveille." Later the hymn "O Valiant Hearts... your memory hallowed in the land you loved" is sung. An address by Mr. Horricks, then the last hymn ending, "Give peace O God, give peace again." "God Save The King" ends the service, and as Dr. Wright plays the voluntary the people stream out into the Autumn air. In front the river has changed her Summer dress of turquoise blue for one of pale grey; behind the trees on the mountains are almost bare. For awhile people stand in little groups talking and then wind their way home. Another milestone in the life of a small community has been passed.

Says Bank Rates Same Despite Gains in Costs

MONTREAL, Nov. 13—Despite mounting costs of doing business, the rates and charges of Canada's chartered banks are the same as previously, or actually lower, it was stated here today by B. C. Gardner, President of The Canadian Bankers' Association.

"I know of very few businesses," he said, "that can make the same assertion, that in the face of steeply increased costs, charges for the final product or service have not been raised."

Addressing the Association's annual meeting, Mr. Gardner noted that the payrolls of the Canadian banks had increased 90 percent since 1939; taxes increased 104 percent between 1939 and 1946 and contributions to staff pension funds now are equivalent to 12 cents for every dollar paid in wages. At the same time that these business expenses were mounting, the maximum interest rate on loans was reduced, the yield on investments fell below the pre-war level and the banks voluntarily agreed to limit holdings and earnings on higher coupon government securities.

STORM CAUSES DEATH

BOSTON, Nov. 13 (AP)—A howling storm that brought rain, snow and winds that in some places reached hurricane proportions, lashed New England throughout the day, inundating entire communities, disrupting public utilities and causing heavy coastline property damage. One death was attributed to the storm, that of a six year old boy struck by an automobile while crossing the street during blinding rain.

"In short, our expenses are naturally higher; our charges are not," Mr. Gardner stated, adding, "it goes without saying however, that if the upward trend of costs continues, at least some of the charges we make for our services will inevitably have to come under review."

After referring to the exchange problem created by shipments to Europe under credit and the mounting deficit in our transactions with the United States, Mr. Gardner continued that Canada's dollar problem as it relates to the United States "cannot be resolved entirely through our own efforts."

"What hope there is of a permanent solution," he declared, "depends largely on the extent to which the productive facilities of this entire continent are intelligently shared in helping war-torn areas of the world to meet their own responsibility for rehabilitation and recovery."

"If the Marshall Plan can be made effective it is reasonable to hope that the United States would be a larger buyer, either directly or indirectly, of Canadian products and that this would bring about results not dissimilar to those which followed the wartime Hyde Park Agreement, thus maintaining our ability to purchase from the United States those goods such as machinery, coal, cotton and oil which are so essential to our economy, and which are not under present circumstances readily available elsewhere."

H.B.C. NOT MOVING HEAD OFFICE

By NORMAN GRIBBENS Canadian Press Staff Writer LONDON, Nov. 13 (CP)—Sir Ashley Cooper, Governor of the Hudson's Bay Company, said today at a press conference that there is a rumor circulating in Canada and Britain that the company is proposing to remove its London business and head office to Montreal...

Simultaneously Sir Ashley announced that the Hudson's Bay Company's wedding present to Princess Elizabeth is a beaver coat but declined to elaborate.

Looking fit and strong after a Canadian tour reaching as far West as Winnipeg, Sir Ashley said "Canadians have not forgotten the fight which Britain put up in the earlier part of the war against overwhelming odds."

"Apart from the friendly desire to help Britain it is a matter of great self-interest to Canada that Britain should be a solvent trading nation."

"This is especially so in the Prairie provinces where we have bought wheat and other food supplies and in British Columbia where we have been buyers of timber and fish."

Hopes Aid Funds Will Be Spent in Canada, S. America

By CLYDE BLACKBURN Canadian Press Staff Writer WASHINGTON, Nov. 12 (CP)—State Secretary Marshall today told a press conference he hopes Congress will authorize use of United States funds voted for the European recovery program to be spent on purchases in Canada and the Latin American countries.

He said also that he hopes the other Western hemisphere countries will be able to assist this country in carrying out the plan for rehabilitating the 16 European countries which are in the so-called Marshall plan.

In his statements already made to Congressional committees Marshall has emphasized the desirability of spreading expenditures under the multi-billion dollar program so that the inflationary impact at home might be lessened.

Water Retention in Body Tissues Can Make a "Reducer" Gain Weight

Dieting is uphill work for some overweight people. Literally. One "reducer" has just written to complain that she gained three pounds...

I say it's an outrage, but it can happen. Again, water retention in the tissues is the trouble maker, and when the water balance adjusts, the weight will decrease suddenly.

"Some years ago I weighed 195 pounds and resembled a baby blimp looking for a mooring mast. Although my appetite wasn't huge, I invariably ate the wrong foods. I was so fat I couldn't fight and I couldn't run, therefore had a good sense of humor and a pleasing disposition. However, being young, I found it difficult to purchase becoming clothes and finally decided to do something about my figure."

"First I had a medical checkup, as you advise, including a metabolism test, and found that although my thyroid was minus, it wasn't enough to cause all that bulk. The doctor gave me a diet which consisted of lean meats, eggs, cheese, buttermilk, fresh vegetables and fruits...

"I settled down to work in earnest. The first month I gained three pounds... making my weight 198! Yes, I felt discouraged, but after debating pro and con, decided to try for another month. At the end of the second month I had shed 20 pounds. I weighed only once a month and therefore could hardly wait to see what each month's loss would be. Your daily morale builders helped me to steer a steady course."

"Because I was working in an office, I ate a good breakfast and each day took fruit and a slim sandwich without butter for lunch. I ceased joining the gals for lunch (my friends were small and could keep that way regardless of what they ate and usually had ice cream, pie, etc.) By staying away from them, I not only eliminated temptation, but took that time to perform my only exercises for the day. I stayed at the office and opened and closed filing drawers for exercise. I would stretch and reach for the highest ones, and bend down for the lowest. Well, in 10 months I lost 63 pounds, bringing my weight down to 135 pounds. And that is what I weigh today. I tried without any luck to get down to 125 pounds. Would you consider my story a success, or not?"

It took more than ordinary courage to do what you have done. You are more than a success, you're a winner! The fact that you do not lose more weight on these good food habits is proof that this is your healthy, normal weight. So stay happy, healthy and streamlined at 135 pounds.

RESCUE PLANE TO SCOUT LANDING

WINNIPEG, Nov. 12 (CP)—The Canadian Army's Prairie Command headquarters announced today that FO. Bob Race's R.C.A.F. plane, the Snowbird, had landed today at Coral Harbor, Southampton Island—last seen before Moffet Inlet where eight Canadians are awaiting evacuation.

It added that FO. Race plans to fly tomorrow to Moffet 1700 miles North of Winnipeg and 400 miles within the Arctic Circle, to reconnoiter a lake chosen as a possible landing spot by Capt. Guy D'Artois.

Capt. D'Artois is the leader of four Army paratroops who jumped to the aid of Canon John H. Turner, Church of England missionary at Moffet, after the latter had been severely wounded when his rifle discharged.

Britain Against Partition Plan

LONDON, Nov. 13 (AP)—Britain has decided against accepting, or substantially sharing in, the Soviet-American plan for partitioning Palestine, high Whitehall sources said today.

Under the Soviet-American plan Britain would be asked by the United Nations Assembly to continue to be responsible for law and order in Palestine until May 1, 1948. Disclosure of the decision came a few hours after the Cabinet's regular weekly meeting.

The informants said Britain's delegation at Lake Success has been instructed to inform the United States: 1. Britain will not be a party to the use of force in the implementation of any solution in the Holy Land. 2. Britain will not be prepared to make any substantial contribution toward implementation of a settlement not acceptable to both Arabs and Jews.

3. Britain will not herself carry out the Soviet-American partition plan which would require this country to remain as mandatory until next May, when the process of transferring power to the Arab and Jewish States should begin.

The Soviet-American plan was adopted after a series of compromise efforts in which Canada's delegation at Lake Success played a prominent part.

LAKE SUCCESS, Nov. 13 (AP)—Britain told the United Nations today that British troops would "not be available" for use in Palestine to enforce any solution unacceptable to either the Arabs or Jews.

The British declaration was made by Sir Alexander Cadogan before a Palestine Partition Subcommittee of the United Nations Assembly.

Sir Alexander did not say specifically that Britain would accept or reject the Soviet-American compromise plan for putting into effect the proposed plan to partition the Holy Land into separate Jewish and Arab countries.

His declaration was interpreted, however, as a virtual rejection. British authorities, under present plans, hoped to complete the withdrawal of all British troops from Palestine by next Aug. 1. He added that so long as "British troops remain in any part of Palestine they must of course maintain law and order in the areas of which they are still in occupation."

WINNIPEG, Nov. 13 (CP)—Final plans for the evacuation of seriously-wounded Canon John H. Turner from his Church of England Mission post at Mofett Inlet, 400 miles within the Arctic Circle were outlined today in a joint Army-R.C.A.F. statement.

Yesterday the aircraft, piloted by F.O. Bob Race, reached Coral Harbor on the Southwestern tip of Southampton Island after flight from Churchill. Today, weather permitting, it will fly the 800-mile route to Mofett Inlet to reconnoiter the airstrip laid down by Capt. Guy D'Artois and the other three paratroopers who last month parachuted to the aid of Canon Turner. He was injured early last September when a rifle accidentally discharged, the bullet entering his head.

If conditions are not favorable for a wheel landing, the aircraft dubbed the Snowbird, will fly 200 miles to the Meteorological Station at Resolute Bay where skis will be substituted for wheels.

Then it will return to the lonely mission station, pick up Canon Turner, his wife, two children and the four paratroopers, fly back to Resolute Bay to reconnoiter to wheels, from there to Coral Harbor, Churchill and Winnipeg.

From Mofett Inlet to Winnipeg via Resolute Bay will mean a flight of almost 2000 miles.

Today's statement said that the flight, while planned for the earliest possible moment, is dependent on weather conditions. Early today a 40-mile wind and blowing snow presented a grim outlook.

There was no further word of the condition of Canon Turner suffering from a bullet wound in the head received when his rifle discharged as he was opening the mission door. The wound caused partial paralysis from which he was reported slowly recovering.

"Dry" Ontario Village Goes Wet

TWEED, Ont., Nov. 13 (CP)—Residents of this Eastern Ontario village, a "dry" stronghold for 33 years, approved the opening of a liquor store and a brewer's warehouse it was shown today in a count of ballots in a local option plebiscite.

Voters turned out in force—more than 800 of an eligible 1000—to vote 512 to 289 for the liquor store and 508-290 for beer. The "wets" lost out on a men's beverage room. Although voting 475-327 in favor, they fell four-fifths of one per cent short of the necessary 80 per cent in favor.

There was talk of a possible recount on the beverage room issue after the "wets" claimed irregularities at the polls.

NEW HONOR FOR PRIME MINISTER KING

First N. A. Political Head to Address Netherlands Houses

PEACE APPEAL

By JAMES McCOOK Canadian Press Staff Writer

THE HAGUE, Nov. 13 (CP)—Prime Minister Mackenzie King, the first North American political leader to address the Netherlands House of Parliament, today appealed to nations with democratic ideals to continue their cooperation to attain the ideals of peace.

"If we try to have our ideals prevail, all will come out well, at least I pray it may be so," said the Canadian Prime Minister, standing in the 700-year-old Ridderzaal as the guest of Parliament. Only Winston Churchill, Britain's wartime Prime Minister, and Prime Minister Smuts of South Africa previously had been given this honor.

King, who arrived yesterday in the Netherlands on a European tour prior to attending the Royal Wedding in London Nov. 20, was welcomed by Professor Roelf Kranenburg, President of the Upper Chamber, as "the grand old man of Canada."

Earlier in the day he has postponed a visit to Prime Minister Dr. Louis Beel because of fatigue. Instead, Foreign Minister Baron Botteolaer von Oosterhout called on the Canadian Prime Minister.

Nearly 150 members of the first and second chambers, representatives of the Royal Family and diplomats heard the Canadian Prime Minister speak from the dais under a high red velvet canopy in the hall where mediaeval knights banqueted.

In welcoming King, Kranenburg described Canadian soldiers who entered Dutch towns and villages in their jeeps as "a living testimony" to the liberation.

In a tribute to the Canadian Prime Minister, the Chairman of the Joint Assembly of the Dutch Parliament said King's record Premiership of 20 years "sounds almost like a fairy tale" to Netherlands, for "no Dutch statesman has ever presided over the cabinet council for so long."

On arriving in Holland yesterday, King received from the village of Putte a gift of a blue plate bearing the names of 12 Canadian soldiers killed there.

At Bergen-op-Zoom, where there is a Canadian military cemetery, he was given a bound copy of the history of the community, which he said he would leave to the Canadian state as a reminder of the bonds uniting the two countries.

Airliner Makes Dramatic Crash Landing

HAMILTON, Bermuda, Nov. 13 (CP)—A British-South American Airways plane carrying 13 passengers and a crew of five crash-landed on Bermuda's Kindley Airfield, early today after limping 800 miles back to the island. The plane took off from here yesterday.

All aboard escaped serious injury although many suffered cuts and bruises.

The big four-engine plane, a converted Lancaster, came in for her crash landing with ambulances and fire fighting equipment held in readiness along both sides of the runway.

The aircraft developed engine trouble about 800 miles out from the colony and turned around on her course. Fire broke out in the disabled engine.

The pilot circled the airfield for 35 minutes to use up excess gasoline to avert a fire on landing. As the plane, with all lights doused and power cut off, made its final approach part of the flaming engine fell onto the field.

Blames Communists For Marseille Riots

Violent Disorders Bring Out Army; "Will Fight You to End"—Ramadier

By LOUIS NEVIN

PARIS, Nov. 13 (AP)—Socialist Premier Paul Ramadier charged tonight the Communists were responsible for Marseille riots and told the Communist party his government would "defend the republic against you."

Troops and mobile guards patrolled Marseille's streets today, food stores were closed and truck transport halted as Communist leaders brought the great port city to the brink of a general strike in the wake of violent disorders yesterday.

In neighboring Italy, leftist rioting spread from the industrial North to Naples, where police fired on a Communist demonstration. The Italian constituent assembly was in turbulent session as leftists shouted down the government's disclaimers of responsibility for the spreading disorders, interpreted widely as a concerted leftist attack on the Conservative government of Premier Alcide de Gasperi.

Ramadier told the national assembly "no government can tolerate disorders such as occurred in Marseille. The Premier would determine any dereliction of duty among police and public officers, and delinquents would be punished.

The six hours of disturbances in Marseille yesterday resulted in one death and in injury to scores. The Communist-led General Confederation of Labor met, meanwhile, to vote on a general strike call. The port already was paralyzed by a walkout of seamen and dock workers.

In Paris the assembly was in a near-riotous debate. "If you want a dictatorship, we will fight you to the end," Ramadier shouted at the Communist deputies.

MARSEILLE, Nov. 13 (AP)—Troops and mobile guards were called out to patrol the streets of Marseille today as Communist labor leaders issued a general strike call following a day of rioting in which one person was fatally wounded and six others hurt.

While the Communists claimed their strike call had met a wide response among factory hands, indications as the day advanced were that workers were sticking to their jobs except in trades in which their unions previously had ordered strikes.

Affected were all seamen, longshoremen and members of the metal, building and chemical workers unions. Some food packers also were reported out.

All shipping in the port was tied up by the strike, which began as a protest against an increase in street car fares and assumed broader proportions.

French Author Nobel Winner

STOCKHOLM, Nov. 13 (AP)—The French author Andre Gide received the Nobel Prize in literature today.

The Swedish Academy of Literature selected the 77-year-old author, for 40 years a leader among French writers. Swedish literary circles acclaimed the choice.

His friends had testified that Gide still is "unusually vital in modern currents of art."

Gide's Swedish translator, Dr. Schildt, described Gide as "a Communist against Stalin and a Christian against the church." The author visited Russia in 1933 at the invitation of the Soviet Government and spoke in Red Square. His address was at the funeral of Maxim Gorki, the Russian writer.

The Swedish Academy said the award was given Gide "for his extensive and artistically important authorship, in which he has exposed the problems and conditions of humankind with fearless love of truth and psychological perception."

JUVENILES GIVEN HARD LABOR FOR STEALING CAR

ROSSLAND, B.C., Nov. 13—Two juveniles charged with theft of J. R. Langman's car several weeks ago, were given one year at hard labor in Nelson jail.

They were apprehended in Vancouver and brought back here for trial. The trial was on Wednesday morning, and was held in juvenile court, and then transferred to the regular court.

Magistrate R. E. Plewman presided.

FULL DRESS FOR HOUSEHOLD CAVALRY

LONDON, Nov. 13 (Reuters)—The War Office today informed officers and men of the household cavalry that they will be permitted to wear traditional full dress at the royal wedding one week from today.

It will be the first time since 1939 that men will wear the colorful uniforms—jack boots, white breeches, red and blue tunics, silver cuirasses, plumed silver helmets, white gauntlets and state swords.

whether to heed the Communist appeal for a general strike. An affirmative decision would affect the entire department—an area extending along more than 60 miles of industrialized coastline and taking in the inland cities of Arles and Aix.

At least a score of persons, including Mayor Carlini and Assistant Mayor Pierre Milani, were injured during yesterday's rioting. Both officials, members of Gen. Charles de Gaulle's Rassemblement du Peuple Francais which ousted the Communists in recent municipal elections, were beaten by Communist demonstrators and spent the night in hospital.

The most serious casualties occurred last night when, according to accounts in the moderate press, gangster elements operating some bars turned machine guns on demonstrators who were said to be looting their establishments.

The Communist organ L'Humanite ran a screaming headline saying: "De Gaulle's murder Vincent Voulant—20 other patriots wounded by gangster bullets." The paper said the shootings took place "under the protection of (Socialist) Premier Ramadier's prefect."

Voulant, 20, a member of the left-wing union of young French republicans, was wounded during one of the cafe shootings last night and died several hours later in hospital.

A meeting of the Rhone Delta Central Council of Trade Unions was called for tomorrow to decide portions following the arrest of four union demonstrators Monday.

The Premier said an immediate investigation would determine any dereliction of duty among police and public officers, and delinquents would be punished.

The six hours of disturbances in Marseille yesterday resulted in one death and in injury to scores. The Communist-led General Confederation of Labor met, meanwhile, to vote on a general strike call. The port already was paralyzed by a walkout of seamen and dock workers.

Last season he played goal for Sherbrooke, Que.—the team that went up against the Montreal Royals in the Eastern Senior play-downs. Barefoot recently tried out for the Minneapolis Millers.

Bob Proulx, who also practiced with the Leafs this week, will not be with the team.

Balance of the lineup will be composed of Smith, Huddleston and Gibson on defence; Irvine, McLean, Haldane, Vickers, Allen, Fargher, Koehle, Larson and Winlaw on the forward line.

JIM WEST SAYS

guess just about the hardest thing to figure out is what part of the cost of things we consume is absorbed by wages and salaries. A lot of people would say about 50 per cent, and point to some singular company's figures to prove it.

What about the cost of raw materials used in manufacture? About half their cost, too, goes directly into wages and salaries.

What about the cost of fuel? About half their cost, too, goes directly into wages and salaries.

What about the cost of new machinery, of freight, of cartage, of mail, of taxes and a hundred and one other things that all went into the company's general costs? Weren't all made up mainly of the cost of wages and salaries?

What about the cost of business and industry is done by people who have to be paid for what they do if they're going to do it, what else enters into the cost of what we use other than wages and salaries?

"Profits!" someone says. "Profits!" is the average profit of ALL companies over a period of years is a little more than four per cent—nearly always less than six per cent. That's the cost of using up capital, of buying the services of people who run businesses. Most (even taxes) goes to wages and salaries, directly and indirectly. That must be the reason why the business of trying to jack wages up and not raise prices is as profitable as chasing the berry bush!

ATHLETICS START REBUILDING WITH FLORES SALE

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 13 (AP)—Philadelphia Athletics today announced sale of pitcher Jesse Flores to San Diego of the Pacific Coast League for the $10,000 waiver price.

Manager Connie Mack said it was the first step in the Athletics' rebuilding program, making room for younger, more aggressive players. He said something may develop in the way of another deal in a day or two.

Flores had his best year with the A's in 1943, the year he came up from Los Angeles, winning 12 and losing 14 for the American League Baseball Club.

Rayner Out With Cheek Injury

NEW YORK, Nov. 13 (CP)—New York's reeling Rangers, defeated four times in six days, made known today that one of their most valuable players, goaltender Claude (Chuck) Rayner, will be out of action probably for three weeks with a broken cheekbone.

Officials said X-rays taken today showed that Rayner's cheekbone was broken in two places as a result of a shot fired last night by Defenceman Jack Crawford of the Boston Bruins, who defeated the Rangers 8-2.

When the extent of Rayner's injury was discovered, Manager Coach Frank Baucher sent a hurry call to New Haven Ramblers of the American League, a Sugar farm team, for netminder Rager Jim Henry. But New Haven officials advised that Henry is suffering from flu and may not be available in time for New York's game Saturday against Chicago Black Hawks.

Silver Cup Donated as Figure Skating Award

(Contributed)
With Pro, Mrs. Muriel Cooper teaching, prospects for the Nelson Figure Skating Club look very good. This year the Civic management has arranged for each group to have a full sheet of ice at their disposal, and already it is beginning to show results. It is a real treat to see the ice covered with perfect figures. The juveniles and juniors are pairing off nicely, and have started dancing in no mean fashion. Membership is filling up rapidly as skaters and parents alike realize that every session counts and to miss one seems a great loss, especially this season.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Jardine have donated an engraved sterling cup for the pre-test Juveniles and Juniors. This silver cup will become the property of the member showing the greatest ability in figures and free style skating during the year. So the youngsters will really have something to look forward to.

The adult seniors are enthused with their Sunday evening dance session. It is proving a popular and educational skating time for all the members taking part. Mrs. Cooper is doing a wonderful job of teaching, and there are many who are contemplating taking up figure skating for the dance session alone, as they see it gives a great deal more enjoyment and satisfaction than straight skating. Mrs. Cooper gives all of her time to club instruction and every member gets an individual check and group lesson during club sessions as well as private lessons by appointment for club members.

King-Sized Trout Entered in Derby By Nelson Man; Deadline Extended

A king-size fighting Rainbow trout landed Bill McDonald of Nelson at the top of the Nelson Gyro Club Kootenay Lake Trout Derby when he entered the 22-pounder in the last week of the Derby run.

The Saturday deadline for Derby entries Thursday night was changed to midnight Sunday, lengthening the fishing time by 24 hours.

Twin-holder on first place by Dave Parker of Vancouver and A. H. Ronmark of Nelson was broken by the McDonald entry—at least a full two pounds heavier than the 20-pounder trout he had earlier in the season. Weighed in at Procter, the reigning fish tips the scales at the "more than 22 pounds mark." Exact weight was not available Thursday night.

William Brown, Jr., of Nelson, who landed an 18-pound, 15 ounce trout at Wilson Creek Sunday, was high among a late entry list of 10. His catch placed him seventh on the role of 187. R. A. C. Heighon of Procter recorded an 18-pound haul. Leaders in the Derby to date follow:

Bill McDonald of Nelson, first, 22 pounds; Dave Parker and A. H. Ronmark of Nelson, second, 20 pounds; Mrs. L. C. Grennel of Spokane, third, 19 pounds, 12 ounces; L. Boffey of Creston, fourth, 19 pounds six ounces; R. Fisher of Queen's Bay, fifth, 19 pounds, four ounces; R. R. Potter of Trail and Gordon Armstrong of Kaslo, sixth, 19 pounds; Bill Brown of Nelson, seventh, 18 pounds, 15 ounces.

Entries were:

W. Brown, Jr., Nelson, 18 pounds, 15 ounces, at Wilson Creek on a Tillicum plug, Nov. 9; weighed in by C. A. Brady, Procter.
R. A. C. Heighon, Procter, 18 pounds, at Pilot Bay on a Gibbs Martin, Nov. 9; weighed in by C. A. Brady, Procter.
G. Donaldson, Nelson, 15 pounds, 10 ounces, at Pilot Bay on a Martin plug, Nov. 4; weighed in by C. A. Brady, Procter.
Capt. J. A. McDonald, Nelson, 14 pounds, one ounce, at Irvine Creek on a Gibbs Stewart, Nov. 7; weighed in by C. A. Brady, Procter.
Capt. J. A. McDonald, Nelson, 13 pounds, 14 ounces, at Pilot Bay on a Gibbs plug, Nov. 9; weighed in by C. A. Brady, Procter.
B. Donaldson, Procter, nine pounds, three ounces, at Kootenay Bay on a Gibbs Martin, Nov. 7; weighed in by C. A. Brady, Procter.
T. Heise, Procter, nine pounds, one ounce, at Pilot Bay on a Gibbs No. 5, Nov. 4; weighed in by C. A. Brady, Procter.

R. F. C. Heighon, Procter, six pounds, five ounces, at Pilot Bay on a Gibbs Martin, Nov. 9; weighed in by C. A. Brady, Procter.

Jekyll-Hyde Tendencies in Ezinicki

By MEL SUFRIN
WINDSOR, Ont., Nov. 13 (CP)—In the sport sense, a split-personality type of individual is not uncommon. But it's seldom you find a player who changes as much as Bill Ezinicki does when you hand him a hockey stick and a pair of skates.

It isn't surprising, therefore, that Ezinicki, Toronto Maple Leaf winger, has become involved in one of the most rousing hockey controversies in years.

The question is just how hard opposing puckchasers may be checked before the National Hockey League officials begin to frown.

Doug (Windsor Star) Vaughan suggests that if you were to poll all the players in the N.H.L. to discover the most unpopular man—on the ice—Ezinicki would undoubtedly be the choice for that unenviable position by an overwhelming majority.

WILD MAN TRUE
Suggesting that Ezinicki has definitely "Jekyll-Hyde" tendencies, Vaughan says the Leaf forward has been trying his darndest to live up to the nickname "Wild Man" throughout his puck-chasing career.

"In action he impressed you as an individual who would cheerfully break every bone in an opponent's body and then exonerate disdainfully in the fallen foe's face as they hauled the bruised and bleeding bulk that once was a man off the ice.

"But that is only Ezinicki the hockey player. Meet the same gent in a lobby of a hotel or the locker room of a gold club and you'd never recognize him as the same person.

"He's quiet and soft-spoken almost to the point of being bashful. He doesn't boast. He doesn't read blood-and-thunder mystery stories, and most certainly it isn't true that he exists on a diet of raw meat.

"Frankly," says Vaughan, "the better you know the fellow who only last Saturday night in Toronto hit Edgar LaPrade with such stunning effect that they toted the talented New York Ranger centre off to hospital suffering from a mild concussion, the harder you find him to understand."

Britain's Future Prince Consort

Lieut. Philip Mountbatten, who on Nov. 20 marries Princess Elizabeth, is shown as he performed his first public ceremony in the Garden of Remembrance at Corsham, Wiltshire, England. He unveiled a memorial wall in memory of men of the parish who gave their lives in the last Great War. Here Lieut. Mountbatten is shown walking past the memorial wall after the unveiling.

Lieut. Philip Mountbatten, R.N., has selected eight chief petty officers from the Kingsmoor (Corsham) Petty Officers' Training School, where he is stationed, to form a guard of honor on the steps of Westminster Abbey on the occasion of his wedding to Princess Elizabeth. All are members of the Kingsmoor staff, and two of them worked with Lt. Mountbatten when he took charge of the courses at the school. The officers are, left to right: Chief Instructor W. F. Twine, of Woking; Training Officers' Bosun P. Williams, D.S.M., of Topsham; Chief of R. T. Staff L. W. Muir, of Portsmouth; Parade Instructor L. Draper of Portsmouth; Parade Instructor C. Edwards of Hoylake; Stoker Mech. A. M. Spackman of London; Air Mech. A. S. Lowndes of Newport, Mon., and Writer S. Simmons of Ringwood, Hants.

He'll Drive King and Princess to Royal Wedding

This placid man, who sits, unexcited, at his ease catching up in his required reading, is F. Molliven, head coachman to the Royal Family, who will drive the "Irish coach" in which Princess Elizabeth and King George will ride from Buckingham Palace to Westminster Abbey for the wedding ceremony Nov. 20. Such colorful pageants are nothing new to Molliven, who has driven Royalty for more than 30 years. Another coachman will drive the Princess and her new husband back to the palace in another coach. The King and Queen will ride with Mr. Molliven.

New Teacher for Howser School

District School Board, meeting in the City Hall, decided that the Board pay the fees for the Secretary-Treasurer's membership to the B.C. Association of School Business Officials.

The resignation of Mrs. F. E. M. Bildstein of the Howser School staff was accepted with regret. Mrs. Mae Greenlaw was appointed to fill the vacancy.

The Secretary was instructed to contact the local Assistant Fire Marshal and request his authority for the school's annual Christmas concert to be held in the school auditorium. He will also ask that two firemen be stationed on each floor to prevent persons from smoking.

Trustee G. M. Armstrong reported that the schools had been inspected by the Fire Marshal's staff.

Day Is for the Fallen, Nakusp
Is Reminded

NAKUSP, B.C., Nov. 13—Remembrance Day was a day for remembrance, said Rev. W. J. Kerr, the special speaker at the Armistice service on Tuesday morning in the Legion. The service was opened by the "presentation of the colors" by a veteran of World War I to a Japanese veteran of World War II.

Rev. Kerr, Anglican clergyman here who was a chaplain on the H.M.C.S. Warren, continued his remarks that Remembrance Day was not just a day for revelry or celebration "but a day of remembrance, a day to salute our comrades in arms and a day to remember those who gave their lives. They were ordinary fellows who went through the mud and blood and dangers of war, men who went through the swift flight in the clouds, the lone watchers of men on Corvetts in the mined sea lanes. Not once, however menacing was the strength of the enemy, did the fighting men lose their complete faith in absolute victory. These are the men to whom this day has the greatest significance. They are the loving."

"War," the speaker said, "was followed by crime and poverty and greed. It comes in our homes, in our towns, but let us not be self centered.

"It was," the speaker said, "quite natural for a man to want the best for his family," but he warned to not make this the supreme purpose of life.

Rev. A. Crisp of the United Church assisted in the service.

The parade then marched to the Cenotaph where the placing of the wreaths and names of the fallen were read. The Last Post was sounded. The Nakusp Boys Bugle Band was in attendance.
