Should Have Strength to Meet the First Shock of Attack; Would Take 6 Months To Prepare Division Says War Veteran

By D'ARCY O'DONNELL
Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA, Feb. 6 (CP)—Moj.-Gen. G. R. Pearkes, V.C., Progressive Conservative Member for Nanaimo in British Columbia, in the Commons today vigorously criticized Government plans for reducing the strength of peacetime armed forces and said that under existing plans it would take the Dominion six months to place a division in the field.

Gen. Pearkes, veteran of the two World Wars, warned that Canada likely would be a major battlefield in a third World War and said that the Dominion should have forces ready which could take the first shock of attack while awaiting the arrival of other United Nations armies.

"I feel quite certain that plans based merely upon tradition, based upon old formations of the time of the First Great War will never be effective in meeting the problems of today," said Gen. Pearkes during continued debate on the Throne speech.

Other speakers in the debate included Percy Wright (CCF-Melfort), Bona Arsenault (L-Bonaventure), Alcide Cole (L-St. Jean-Iberville-Napierville) and Denton Massey (PC-Toronto Greenwood).

At the night sitting the speakers were J. H. Matthews (CCF-Kootenay East); Harold Timmins (PC-Toronto Parkdale); Maxime Raymond (BP-Beauharnois-Laprairie); P. E. Gagnon (Ind.-Chicoutimi); Liguori Lacombe (Ind.-Laval-Two Mountains) and Patrick Ashby (SC-Edmonton West).

TO VOTE AGAINST NON-CONFIDENCE MOTIONS

Mr. Raymond and Mr. Lacombe announced that they would vote against opposition motions of non-confidence in the Government.

At the House opening members passed a resolution providing for postponement of the Throne speech debate between Feb. 10 and Feb. 24 to allow for passage of legislation extending some war-time controls.

First reading was given a half dozen bills providing for some of the extensions.

External Affairs Minister St. Laurent said it was still uncertain where Canada will submit special representations for a hand in the making of the Austrian peace treaty.

In resuming the Throne speech debate, Mr. Wright called for establishment of a commission to decide how the national income should be divided among agriculture, labor and industry. He said he favored long-term agricultural contracts and urged abolition of the Winnipeg Grain Exchange. He suggested that the Wheat Board be turned into a grain board to handle the selling of all grains.

Mr. Arsenault called for the construction of a communication system which would lead to the development of mining and forestry resources in the Gaspé Peninsula.

Mr. Massey urged the Government sponsor a national health program.

Gen. Pearkes said there should be MATTHEWS WANTS PARKS ACCESSIBLE TO ALL

OTTAWA, Feb. 6 (CP)—Rev. J. H. Matthews (CCF-Kootenay East) told the Commons tonight the Federal Government should make national parks more readily accessible to rich and poor alike.

Persons living in the neighborhood of Banff and Yoho National Parks were forbidden to truck their agricultural produce over the Federal roads, he said during the Throne speech debate. The roads were closed in winter, and this prevented taxpayers from making use of them.

Mr. Matthews commended the Government for its Throne speech forecast of new old-age legislation, and reiterated his party's demand for a $50-a-month pension at 65 without means test.

"I am sure it is the wish of the great majority of Canadian taxpayers that the Government be generous to these people," he continued. "Let it not be said that we are so concerned with the miseries of those in other countries that we cannot see them at home."

Turning to penal matters, Mr. Matthews reviewed the brutal system of segregation employed in British penitentiaries, and urged its establishment in Canadian Federal prisons. There had been a considerable increase in recidivism in Canada and a new approach to criminal reform was needed.

TRIBUTE TO ESILING
H. W. Herridge (People's CCF-Kootenay West) spoke briefly, paying tribute to the late W. K. Esling, the Progressive Conservative member who preceded Mr. Herridge in Kootenay West.

Byrd Expedition Discovers New Coastline and New Continental Area

QUICKIES ... By Ken Reynolds

LITTLE AMERICA, Feb. 6 (AP)—Rear Adm. Richard E. Byrd announced today the expedition had discovered a new South Polar coastline almost equal in distance across the United States and 125,000 square miles of hitherto unknown continental area.

Within the vast new area, he said, are eight new mountain ranges and a huge bay discovered in the Roosevelt Sea.

The findings were made in about 25 flights by Mariner planes of the Eastern and Western task groups. Byrd declared the discoveries were of the greatest importance geographically.

Also photographed were three other bays, about 20 islands, three peninsulas, and 25,000 square miles of unknown ocean areas.

SENTENCED TO HANG FOR WIFE SLAYING

Crown Claims Taylor Beat Wife With Kitchen Chair

APRIL 19

SARNIA, Ont., Feb. 6 (CP)—Joseph Taylor, 28, tonight was found guilty of murder in the slaying of his wife and was sentenced to be hanged on April 19.

The 28-year-old foundry worker was charged following the death of his wife Rita in hospital here early last Nov. 30, allegedly from effects of a beating administered by her husband in their cabin home at nearby Baxter's Beach the previous evening after both had been drinking with neighbors in Sarnia and in their home.

Taylor, a foundry worker and former resident of Hamilton, showed no emotion as sentence was passed by Mr. Justice E. R. E. Chevier, at conclusion of a nine-day trial.

Crown evidence was that Taylor used a kitchen chair to inflict fatal injuries on his 28-year-old wife.

Says Bitter Cold Originated In Siberia

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6 (AP)—Blister cold now blanketing most of Canada and the United States originated over Eastern Russia and Siberia, a leading weather scientist said today.

Dr. Jerome Namias, Chief of the Weather Bureau's extended forecast section, told a reporter that uncommon meteorological conditions in the Russia-Siberian section and the Eastern Pacific also led to:

1. Freakishly warm weather in January and December.

2. Extreme winter weather which gripped Canada and Western Europe much as a similar condition in 1941 caused a surge of cold which helped stop Hitler's march on Moscow.

Dr. Namias sees a likelihood that the same conditions causing the current cold wave will make for winter weather for several weeks. He explained:

Much chilled Siberian air crossed into Alaska and Northwestern Canada during the earlier part of this winter.

There it hovered, prevented from entering most of Canada and the United States in any strength during December and January because of an unusually strong West-to-East flow of air which was sweeping in from the Eastern Pacific.

But while unseasonable warmth prevailed, the Siberian air was taking on a further chill while rotating above the Alaska-Northwestern Canada snow cover.

When the mid-temperatured air flow from the Eastern Pacific diminished in the week last week, the cold air masses from Siberia got the right-of-way.

A. L. FARRIS INDUCTED AS MINISTER AT TRAIL

TRAIL, B. C., Feb. 6 (CP)—First Presbyterian Church was filled last night when the Rev. Allan A. Farris was inducted as minister at a simple but impressive ceremony conducted by dignitaries of the Kootenay Presbytery.

Mr. Farris was called as the unanimous choice of the annual congregational meeting last week. He came to Trail in 1945 as the Mission Board's appointee. Recently the Presbytery authorized the raising of the church's status from a missionary to an augmented charge, the congregation then being free to call a minister of their own choosing.

Rev. David A. Smith of Vancouver, Acting Synodical Missionary, gave the traditional address to the minister and the congregation.

Expect Imported Vegetables, Fruits To Be Cheaper

VANCOUVER, Feb. 6 (CP)—Housewives had good news from the Canadian Fruit Wholesalers' Convention here today with forecasts that imported fruits and vegetables will be plentiful and cheaper.

"All vegetables for export to Canada will be sufficient in quantities and possibly at lower prices than last year," said C. B. Moore of Los Angeles. He added bananas will be more plentiful and probably of better quality.

Domestic supplies from British Columbia orchards will be in better quantity. Growers reported that there will be a steady increase in the quantity of prunes, peaches and pears.

178,585 FOREIGN CARS ENTER B. C. TO ECLIPSE PAST TOURIST SEASONS

VICTORIA, Feb. 6 (CP)—All previous records in the number of tourist cars to enter British Columbia were eclipsed last year, according to figures released today by Trade and Industry Minister Leslie H. Eyles.

Total number of foreign cars to enter the province on traveler's vehicle permits during the 12 months was 178,585, which was 40,800 more than the total for the previous record year, 1930. Total for 1945 was 107,596.

Provincial travel officials now look for a total of more than 200,000 this year.

Reflecting British Columbia's popularity as a year-round tourist mecca, figures just completed show that 9438 foreign cars came to the Province last December.

Anscomb Has Test Run On Main Lake

A "very satisfactory" test run of the new Kootenay Lake ferry Anscomb was conducted with Provincial Public Works Department officials Wednesday.

Out on the main lake for half an hour, the Anscomb was berthed at the Kootenay Bay landing, then taken back to Balfour landing where it will remain until such time as the road to the Kootenay Bay landing is completed.

Fred Hardie, Bridge Inspector of the Public Works Department and who has been in charge of the wharf construction, was aboard, as well as O. P. Roberts, District Engineer. Captain M. MacKinnon was at the wheel and crew members of the Nasookin in the engine room.

It is hoped to resume road construction at Kootenay Bay in about a month. A large fill has yet to be made at the approach between the landing and the shore.

FIND BODIES OF 3 FROM WRECKED BOAT

BRINCE RUPERT, B.C., Feb. 6 (CP)—Bodies of three Indians missing for the past eight days in a small fishing boat of this West Coast port were found late today by search parties in Telegraph Passage, twelve miles from the point where the wreckage of the vessel was found earlier today.

Meanwhile a plane, boats and ground parties continued to search the area for trace of four other Indians known to have been aboard the gill-net boat, which apparently floundered in treacherous ice floes in the mouth of the Skeena River last week while on a trip from Prince Rupert to Port Essington, B.C.

One of the three bodies found today was identified as that of Peter Spalding. The other bodies have not yet been identified.

Of the 212,000,000 brought in by tourists, $207,000,000 came from the United States.

New Technique To Improve Gravel Road

VANCOUVER, Feb. 6 (CP)—Gravel roads in British Columbia, comprising one-third of B.C.'s rural roads, will have their faces lifted this year with scientific assistance.

Roadbuilders will be supplied with new gravel construction techniques developed by the B.C. Research Council. Paul M. Cook, gravel research director, said that after testing gravel samples from all parts of the Province "remarkable improvements in durability and surface smoothness have been found possible."

He said provincial expenditures on B.C. roads were expected to exceed $17,000,000, three times the normal road outlay, this year.

Operation on Fernie Blue Baby a Success

TORONTO, Feb. 7 (CP)—The 30th successful "blue baby" operation by Dr. Gordon D. W. Murray was performed here yesterday on 3-year-old Faye Fleming of Fernie, B. C.

The operation was financed by the Fernie Rotary Club.

Schedule Debate On Coal Crisis

LONDON, Feb. 6 (CP)—The House of Commons scheduled a special debate tomorrow on coal as the creeping paralysis arising from unprecedented winter storms and the serious coal crisis extended to more sections of Britain's life today.

The Ministry of Fuel suspended coal loadings on ships leaving Northwest ports for foreign destinations cutting off Ireland from its industrial fuel.

Fifty-one coal ships braved a North Sea gale to bring 100,000 tons of coal to fuel-starved industries along Britain's East coast, but 26 others still were immobilized in South Wales and Northeast ports.

The South Metropolitan Gas Company, second largest in the London area, reduced pressure 15 per cent because of the coal famine.

In addition, more factories are closing and railways were virtually embargoed all freight except coal.

At least two Canada-bound ships—the liners Vasconia and Valancia—are affected by the bunkering ban.

Game Branch, was a veteran. Minus teeth and most of its ears, the old fighter carried scars from many battles.

The tracks of these cougars were the only ones seen in that district this year.

Mr. Haskell, aided by his dogs, has brought home the carcasses of nine cougars this season.

RECORD B.C. REVENUE EXPECTED TO BE ANNOUNCED BY ANSCOMB

TOURISTS BRING $212,000,000 TO CANADA IN '46

100,000 Come by Air, 73 p.c. More Cars Cross Borders

MOST AMERICANS

OTTAWA, Feb. 6 (CP)—Arriving in record-shattering numbers from 55 different countries, tourists last year brought Canada an all-time high sum of $212,000,000.

In a preliminary estimate of 1946 border crossings, the Bureau of Statistics today reported 1,422,000 cars — 73.5 per cent more than in 1945 — checked through at Canadian border points and stayed for more than 24 hours. Entries by long-distance bus were estimated at 310,000 persons, by plane, 100,000 and by boat, 340,000.

The figures did not include the "millions of local visits" across the International Boundary.

Of the $212,000,000 brought in by tourists, $207,000,000 came from the United States.

Communist Refuses to Take Oath in U. S.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6 (AP)—Gerhard Eisler, alleged chief Communist agent in the United States, refused to take an oath and testify before the House of Representatives Un-American Activity Committee today. He was cited for contempt.

The pale, defiant little man spat red protests when chairman J. P. Thomas (Dem.-N. J.) asked him to swear to tell the truth. He repeatedly refused.

Finally, Thomas told Eisler to "step aside," meaning to leave the witness stand.

The committee promptly voted to cite Eisler for contempt. This is a charge which must be tried before a jury. Conviction carries a possible penalty of $1000 fine and a year in jail.

One committee member who declined use of his name said evidence would be produced to show how orders drafted in Russia were passed along for execution by agents in this country.

He predicted this will lead to an investigation of leaks in atomic and other military secrets.

Eisler, self-styled "German anti-Fascist refugee" who was labelled top United States Communist by a committee witness last November was arrested Tuesday in New York on a warrant charging violation of the Enemy Alien Act.

Three witnesses took the stand later.

William Nowell, Negro. He said he was Georgia-born, and joined the Communist Party in 1929, broke with it in 1936. He declared he had known Eisler in Moscow and in Detroit, and that Eisler was for years an agent of the Communist International.

Ruth Fisher of New York City. She testified her real name is Eisler and that she is a sister of Gerhard Eisler, but has not spoken to him for years because she regards him as "a most dangerous terrorist both for the people of America and the people of Germany."

Between puffs as she chain-smoked cigarettes, Miss Fisher said Eisler was known in inner Communist circles as "Gerhart" but added that he had "used many other names" in the course of his work.

(The Communist is the International Communist Party controlling group.)

She said she was expelled from the Communist Party in 1925.

School Records Aid In Mental Hygiene

REGINA, Feb. 6 (CP)—Charges that records for schools introduced by Saskatchewan's C.C.F. Government were similar to Gestapo dossiers and that the social studies textbook "word of today" was used for political propaganda were answered today by Education Minister W. S. Lloyd.

The records were used to enable teachers to study each child as an individual. They were invaluable in the mental hygiene program being conducted.

Fences, Furniture, Sheds Go Into Dawson Stoves; Food Running Low; Prairie Schools, Businesses Close

REGINA, Feb. 6 (CP)—All communities on the wheat plains of Southern Saskatchewan, harried by another 50-mile-an-hour blizzard Thursday night, faced imminent lack of coal, some with only a two-day supply left.

Snow-blocked railway cars were ready at Regina to take coal to the Fort Sn tuberculosis sanatorium 40 miles Northeast of here, where some 500 patients have only two days supply left. Temperatures are expected to drop 30 degrees below zero tonight.

Plans were made for an emergency trip by another route and R. C. Vaughan, Canadian National Railways President, said everything possible would be done to relieve the situation.

All schools excepting residential colleges were closed in Regina where Mayor Hugh McGillivray urged all non-essential businesses to close their doors until the crisis passed.

COAL TRAINS STRANDED
Officials said about 100 coal cars were stranded between various mines and the city awaiting locomotives, many of which are tied up by the drifts which have paralyzed transportation in the Province.

A few cars arrived here today but there was difficulty in unloading at the yards due to deep drifts. Roads were blocked in Southern Saskatchewan.

The same condition prevailed in Western and Southern Manitoba where a blizzard last night disrupted communications.

But the coal lack and the temperature drop weren't bothering the ladies at their annual bazaar here.

Mrs. Jack Mitchell said: "The coal shortage is the least of our worries out there on the rink."

Elsewhere, however, the situation was grim. Fuel dealers at Moose Jaw called it "extremely desperate."

And Thursday's blizzard was expected to drift in many roads and rail lines partially cleared in the brief respite between snows earlier this week.

Planned to Kill Soviet Leader

By RONALD BEDFORD
LONDON, Feb. 6 (Reuters)—The German Luftwaffe Special Duty Service — the Kampf Geschwader 200 — planned to assassinate Generalissimo Stalin, flying in patched-up captured American and British aircraft, the British Air Ministry said today.

"Full details about this attempt will never be known," an Air Ministry spokesman said, declining to give details.

In addition to their plans to kill the Soviet leader, the Kampf Geschwader 200 explored the possibilities of flights to the United States which never got beyond the stage of discussion, and organized the wholesale dropping of agents, three at a time in special containers, in Russia, France, Britain and Italy.

A suicide corps belonging to this force piloted V-2 rockets on the initial stages of their flights to Britain, bailing out after setting the steering mechanism.

The information released by the Air Ministry has been obtained from captured top-secret documents and from information supplied by a

'Silent Majority' Must Make Voice Heard in Support of Church

Churchmen Told at Deanery Supper

Suggestions as to how the church might deal with modern problems were presented to clergy of the deanery of Kootenay and to laymen by R. W. Diamond, Vice-President and General Manager of the Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company of Canada, Ltd., of Trail, and Commander B. A. Smith of Longsight, Thursday night. The address was made at a supper conference held at St. Saviour's Memorial hall.

A large number of clergymen and laymen from East and West Kootenay attended and enjoyed a dinner provided by the Churchmen's Club.

Raising of the voice of the "silent majority" in order to quieten the vociferous minority which attracted radicals, and the banding together of church men to develop a simple creed and promote interest in "our church," were urged by Mr. Diamond.

Men capable of being leaders were not in sufficient numbers, and didn't speak for the church. This resulted in concentration of radicals and a tendency to tear down the good things in society. The silent majority was made up of men who were serious minded but would not express themselves or challenge a misstatement.

Such a condition was fundamentally wrong and presented opportunity for organization of groups of radicals, and could assume threatening proportions. Many radical groups today opposed christianity and their teachings undermined the church.

So long as men's eyes were closed to this condition, ground would be lost. This could be corrected if the silent majority for good against wrong, for good against evil, for sense against

In a letter to Grant Allen, Herbert Spencer wrote: "If I had to teach children I should give them, among other things, a lesson on the importance of mastication, and should illustrate it by taking a small iron nail and weighing against it some pinches of iron filings till the two balanced. Then, putting them into two glasses, pouring into each a quantity of dilute sulphuric acid, leaving them to stir the two from time to time, and showing, them that whereas the iron filings quickly dissolve, the dissolving of the nail would be a business of something like a week. This would impress on them the importance of reducing food to small fragments."

No Marriages in Rossland in January

ROSSLAND, B.C., Feb. 6.—Vital Statistics for the Rossland District as registered at the Court House during January were 15 births; no marriages and four deaths.

During January, 1946, there were 11 births, one marriage and three deaths.

The Council for Social Service that to preach and teach the living gospel was the whole work of the church. But the gospel like everything else had a spiritual side and a material side.

Clergymen were confining themselves almost entirely to preaching one half of the gospel, the spiritual side. Perhaps this was the vague something missing. Clergymen should be real shepherds, not only in the churches, but should enter the lives of the people, thus living the gospel by influencing their lives.

He deplored the few personal visits by clergymen and said people he had talked to thought the city churches were "too much organized." He referred to the "long lists of dolings" usually read out in the churches.

He thought clergymen should follow more closely the Old Testament. The Bible was a lifelong study. He felt the Palestine situation might never have arisen if statesmen had known their Bible.

There was much belief in God, but not enough belief in what he said in the Bible, which was the word of God. The nearer "we can get to the laws of God, the less shock when the turnover comes, as it will." It was useless to try to bring God's Kingdom on earth by using men's blueprints. The United Nations would fail for precisely the same reason.

He objected to innovations in the church unless they had first been discussed with the laity, and deplored the modern practice of making communion. He thought this service should be a "very special service entailing special preparation and celebrated possibly three times a year."

He asked if the clergy was getting into the habit of thinking the church and the service were theirs. The laity constituted the bulk of the church but was not very articulate. He felt the clergy was out of touch with the laity. A more simple, less worldly church was wanted, and there was dislike over the hairsplitting over doctrines.

There was lack of wholehearted faith in the Bible. All the scriptures should be taught, not just the parts most easy to understand. To teach only part of the gospel and fail to balance it with the material side made it impossible to get the message over. He urged clergymen to wake up to the fact there was not much time left to teach people the "good news of the coming Kingdom of God on earth."

Commander Smith had praise for the splendid supper and hearty votes of thanks were extended by T. L. Bloomer of Castlegar and Rev. T. G. Procter, Rural Dean of Invermere. A general discussion followed the addresses.

Palestine Ground Of Future War Says Lecturer

Major F. T. Foort, Indian Army retired, commentator on current world events and historical lecturer told members of the British Israelite Federation at the Hume Thursday night that Churchill's and the present British Government's rightfulness persistence not to tear up the White Paper was the immediate cause of the current crisis in Palestine.

The refusal of the Arabs and the Jews to accept the suggested partition of Palestine by the British was seed for a third world war, the speaker maintained.

Since the days of Disraeli and Balfour Declaration the Jews have been pressing for a national home for the Jews in Palestine. Major Foort pointed out that the first Balfour Declaration, contained in a letter of Nov. 2, 1917 in which Lord Balfour favored a national home for the Jews in Palestine, was prior to the expulsion of the Turks from Palestine by Viscount Allenby. "How then could Palestine be dealt with before she was liberated?" the speaker asked.

Major Foort lauded the efforts of the British in endeavoring to settle the Palestine problem. The late President Roosevelt also supported quota immigration to the Palestine which was brought to the 75,000 in 1945 provided in the Balfour Declaration, while President Truman has supported scrapping of the White Paper. It was this practise of power politics and other factors which was stirring up a hotbed of trouble, the lecturer concluded.

Nelson Midgets Oust Rossland; Meet Trail Next

Only a scattering of fans were on hand to watch Nelson's smooth working Midget hockey team hammer a game Rossland squad 16-0 at the Civic Arena Thursday night.

The Nelsonites won the West Kootenay Midget semi-finals, a two game total goal series, by a 25 to 1 total as a result of their previous 9-1 win at Rossland last Monday.

The locals now meet the Trail Midgets in another two game total goal series for the West Kootenay title, starting at Trail next Thursday.

Number one star, picked by Mr. McNabb, was the visitors' diminutive goalie Seth Martin who turned aside no less than sixty-three shots.

Second star was Jimmy Todd, another little guy who packs plenty of scoring punch for the Nelson squad, while the third star rating went to the Nelson's squad captain Al Hood, whose brilliant back checking was a feature of the game.

The winners scored two goals in the opening stanza, added six more in the middle session and in the final period drove through for another eight goals.

Todd and Hood divided top scoring honors with four goals each. Bachynski scored two, while Pitts, Hyssop, Maglio, Pickering, Irwin, and Smith scored the other markers.

In assists Pitts on the front line gave six, Maglio and Pickering two each, while Todd, Hyssop, Bachynski and O'Genski were good for one assist each. Todd, Maglio, and Pickering were the Nelson offenders while Concl drew the visitors penalty.

Teams were:
Nelson — Dozzi, Smith, Maglio, Todd, Hood, Pitts, Hyssop, Bachynski, Irwin, O'Genski, Weibourn, Pickering and Johnson.

Rossland—Martin, Fulton, Leckie Davies, Harrison, Bertoria, Aitkins, Sinclair, Dekusseyer, Maitland, Concl and Swift.

Officials were, Referee, Red Koehle; Scorer, Al MacDonald; Timekeeper, Bert Blackwell and Scotty Mitchell.

Canyon Pioneer and Founder of First School, Mrs. Abigail Knott, Dies

CANYON, B.C., Feb. 6 — A pioneer of this district, Mrs. Maria Abigail Knott, wife of the late Frances Knott, died at her home Tuesday, following a short illness.

She is survived by one son, J. E. Knott of Kent, Wash., three daughters, Mrs. Barnhardt, of Yahi, Mrs. Nygard and Mrs. R. Penson both of Canyon, also 16 grandchildren, and five great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Knott who was in her 81st year, was born in Salisbury, England in 1866, and following her marriage to the late Frances Knott came to Chicago. Later they moved to Rossland where they resided for five years. They also made their home at Phoenix and Nelson, before coming to Canyon in 1908, with some of the original pioneers.

Mrs. Knott took a keen interest in community affairs and was active until her illness a week ago. With the late Mrs. Hickey she started the first school in the valley, she was also interested in her church and Sunday school, where she served faithfully, both as a teacher and organist for several years. During both wars she was an active and hard working member of the Red Cross, and during the First World War took an active part in the temperance union, accomplishing a great deal in this work.

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Walker, former Nelson resident, who died in Rossland Tuesday, were held in St. Saviour's Pro-Cathedral Thursday afternoon, Very Rev. F. P. Clark, Dean of Kootenay, officiating.

A large number of District friends attended the service and there were many flowers. The hymn, "Sun of My Soul," was sung.

Palbearers were three sons, E. L. Walker, G. A. Walker and V. B. Walker, and J. W. Dougan, H. Stone and A. Smith. Interment was in the family plot of the Knights of Pythias section, at Nelson Memorial Park. The Nelson Lodge of the Pythian Sisters was represented at the services.

The meeting went on record expressing thanks to Mrs. Wallace and their appreciation of the Chimes in the services of worship and their value to the city as a whole. Rev. G. McL. Boothroyd stated that a Committee of the Official Board is studying plans for a fitting Memorial by the congregation for those who served in the Second World War.

Miss Carol Proudfoot gave an interesting account of the activities of the C.G.I.T. and Explorer organizations. The meeting tendered a vote of thanks to C. F. Hunter for his work as Auditor. F. H. Smith, Recording Secretary of the congregation, acted as Secretary of the meeting. Members of the Junior Bible Class assisted the ladies in serving.

British Troops Move Into Security Area

Help Move Jews Who Tarried in Evacuation of 1000; Palestine Tense; Martial Law Imminent

By CARTER L. DAVIDSON
 JERUSALEM, Feb. 6 (AP)—British troops moved into security "Area B" of Jerusalem when the zero hour for evacuation of nearly 1000 Jews from their homes arrived at noon today. Only about half the Jews had left. The soldiers helped move those who tarried.

Palestine was tense and bitter. The prospect for martial law increased after the Jewish National Council rejected a British ultimatum to help stamp out "terrorism".

The evacuations proceeded in confusion in four formerly peaceful residential areas which will be converted into barbed wire compounds in anticipation of bloodshed in the promised British drive against the underground.

British wives and children of Army personnel and other non-essential civilians were being moved out of Jerusalem, Tel Aviv and Haifa. Troops who will guard the "Area B" security sectors will be billeted there with Government officials and other essential persons they must protect.

A police communique confirmed the escape last month from a detention camp in Eritrea of Itzhak Yeserlitzky, second in command of the Stern Gang, the most extreme of the underground forces. He was one of five who escaped.

The Cabinet discussed the Holy Land this morning for the third successive day before Foreign Secretary Bevin called the Jewish leaders together. The Cabinet plan to disclose details of a Cabinet plan for Palestine.

Informed Whitehall sources gave this picture: There were two distinct plans when British Ministers tackled the subject Tuesday. One was Colonial Secretary Jones' formula for partitioning the country into independent Jewish and Arab states immediately. The second was Bevin's scheme to modify the so-called Morrison plan for creating semi-autonomous Arab and Jewish Provinces in the Holy Land.

A compromise settlement was reached in principle, but details were still being hammered out. Jones changed his partition "immediate" proposal to partition "within five years." He also called upon the Cabinet not to impose any ceiling on immigration into the Jewish zone, and to abolish the Palestine police force.

Bevin disagreed with Jones' suggestions. The Foreign Secretary, supported by Prime Minister Attlee and Defence Minister Alexander, demanded a maximum Jewish immigration figure. He urged that if the Jewish Agency rejected his settlement Britain should hand over the mandate to the United Nations.

HOLD COLONEL AFTER FOUND WITH DIAMONDS

Had Excellent Record in Pacific Campaign
 Army Investigates

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 6 (AP)—An army colonel with an excellent record in the Pacific campaign and Japanese occupation was under arrest today while customs officials and the army pursued investigations resulting from seizure of $210,000 in Japanese diamonds. The jewels, custom officials said, were found on the officer's person and in his safe deposit box.

The San Francisco port of embarkation said the officer, Col. Edward J. Murray of Palo Alto, had been placed in "technical arrest and confined to quarters" on direct orders from General MacArthur. Murray, Tokyo dispatches said, was officer-in-charge of the Bank of Japan, in the vaults of which were millions in gold and silver bullion and diamonds held in occupation custody.

Murray arrived here Monday aboard the S. S. Westminister Victory. Collector of customs Paul Leake said customs agents seized $10,000 worth of Japanese diamonds in his watch pocket and $200,000 more from his deposit box.

Leake said Murray was traced through a previous sale here of $20,000 worth of smuggled diamonds. He said the officer, while being questioned, had intimated he considered the diamonds "legitimate loot."

The customs service has been working on the case, Leake said, since it was discovered some time ago that some diamonds had been unloaded in the San Francisco market.

Leake said the diamonds were not set, but had been cut, and they ranged from a fifth of a carat to 10 carats.

Murray served in the Mexican border punitive expedition and in the First World War. He once commanded a Sacramento regiment of the National Guard. Recalled to active duty before United States entry in the last war, he commanded the 160th infantry of the 40th division in the Philippines. He later was commander of military forces on Panay Island. He was presented the Legion of Merit at Yokohama last July.

LONDON—(CP)—An album of 9000 British Colonial stamps was sold at a Bond Street auction for £1,550 ($6,200) to a couple who travelled here from Nottingham for the sole purpose of purchasing it.

deputies were advised of France's views in a proposal submitted yesterday by Maurice Couve de Murville.

Under his proposal, the deputies would create consultation committees of the four big powers and other "states concerned" and, while proceeding with treaty drafting, would supply full information to the little states through these committees and would seek their advice when their interest were involved.

London newspapers meanwhile featured unconfirmed reports that Britain and the United States were planning to create a separate "Western German state" out of their two occupation zones if the Moscow talks failed to produce a peace settlement. This state, the report said, would have an elected government with diplomatic powers and the capital probably would be Frankfurt.

VIET NAMESE WANT END TO HOSTILITIES

Conflict Becoming International Question
 NAME 5 PROPOSALS

PARIS, Feb. 6 (Reuters)—Tran N'Goc Danh, President of the permanent Viet Name delegation in Paris, today issued a communique in which the Viet Nam Republican Government in Indo-China proposed "the cessation of hostilities on all fronts."

A spokesman for the delegation said that the proposals had been received from Viet Nam Government headquarters in Tonking (Northern Province of Indo-China) with authorization to forward them to the French Government.

The communique said the conflict in Indo-China was "tending to become an international question." It was stated that the double objectives of Viet Nam, namely political independence and territorial unity within the framework of the French Union, could be obtained peacefully on the basis of agreements already concluded.

The communique proposed:

1. Cessation of hostilities on all fronts.
2. Naming of armistice committees to execute a cease-fire order which shall begin to function immediately.
3. Recall of troops on both sides to positions defined under the agreements of March 6 and April 3, 1946.
4. Immediate halting of embarkation of French reinforcements for Indo-China.
5. Resumption of negotiations with the "legal Viet Nam Government" led by Dr. Ho Chi Minh, on the basis of agreements already concluded.

At Manila, the Viet Nam High Command, in a broadcast heard there today by the Associated Press claimed, the French had lost 3000 men killed or wounded since December in four heavy drives to capture Hanoi.

The Viet Nam Resistance Committee at the same time conceded they had lost 1,500 regulars and "self-defence youths" killed and wounded, with more than 50 villages set afire and several thousand homes destroyed.

Radio Hanoi also reported an oath-taking ceremony by a Viet Nam suicide volunteer corps which pledged itself to defend the Chinese and Viet Nam quarter of Hanoi to the last man.

The broadcast said the commanding officer handed each volunteer a "special weapon" with the words: "You shall give up your life so that the Fatherland may live 1000 years."

Each man was then reported to have pledged: "When a suicide volunteer dies, numbers of French troops must be exterminated. When a volunteer dies, one French arms depot must be exterminated or one French tank must be destroyed or one French post must be reduced."

Says Russ Ignore U. S. Efforts to Regain Ships

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6 (AP)—Chairman W. W. Smith of the Maritime Commission said today that Russia had ignored for nearly a year United States efforts to regain 85 ships turned over to the Soviets under lend-lease.

Testifying before the House Merchant Marine Committee, he said: 1. The Russian Embassy was requested on March 18, last year, to begin negotiations for the re-delivery of the vessels.

2. The United States has received no acknowledgment of its request. 3. Thus far, no arrangements have been made nor discussions begun with the Russians regarding the lend-lease vessels.

4. Russia is operating the vessels and so far as he knows is not paying any fees whatever to the United States for their use.

5. Russia at one time was operating 125 U. S. lend-lease ships, of which 26 were returned; Four were lost during the war.

Smith testified that the Maritime

Newly Appointed U. S. Ambassador To Britain, O. Max Gardner, Dies

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6 (AP)—O. Max Gardner, United States Ambassador to Great Britain, died today in New York.

The White House made the announcement and said death was due to coronary thrombosis.

The newly-appointed Ambassador was enroute to take over his London post. He was scheduled to sail today on the S. S. America.

Presidential Secretary Charles G.

Ross said President Truman is "deeply grieved and shocked."

Mr. Gardner was named to the diplomatic post a month ago to succeed W. Averell Harriman who left London to become United States Secretary of Commerce.

Prior to his appointment to London, he was Undersecretary of the Treasury. He served in politics for almost 40 years and was former Governor of North Carolina.

"Red Ellen" Wilkinson Dies

By STUART UNDERHILL
 Canadian Press Staff Writer
 LONDON, Feb. 6 (CP)—Fiery "Red Ellen" Wilkinson, emotional champion of working men and women, died quietly today in a London nursing home at the age of 55.

Her heart, taxed repeatedly in struggles against what she considered were injustices, ceased to beat as she lay in bed with bronchitis.

"She never spared herself," friends said of the woman who rose from a poor Manchester home to the Education portfolio in the Attlee government—second woman in history to hold a British Cabinet post.

The first was Miss Margaret Bondfield, Labor minister in the Chamberlain Conservative Government in 1929.

A school teacher, Miss Wilkin-son came into public notice in 1913 as an organizer of the National Union of Women's Suffrage Societies. During the depression of the 20's she fought tirelessly to better conditions of the unemployed. Once she led jobless in a march from the "forgotten town" of Jarrow in the Tyneside coal area.

She never married, but often fought the cause of the housewife. In May, 1940, she joined the Churchill Coalition Government as Parliamentary Secretary to the Pensions Minister with her chief task the care of needy servicemen's families.

Once she said she made her first speech at the age of five and had been at it ever since.

She said her aim as Education Minister was "to see that no boy or girl is debarred by lack of means from taking a course of education for which he or she is qualified and to remove from education those class distinctions which are the negation of democracy."

Miss Wilkin-son's most lasting contribution as a cabinet minister probably was her successful campaign to raise the age for leaving school from 14 to 15, a fight she won despite the opposition of fellow ministers and the acute need for young recruits for British industry.

Commission suggested that the State Department begin immediate steps for the disposition of the vessels in a letter dated Feb. 12, 1946.

Smith said the State Department despatched a note to the Russian Embassy asking that negotiations begin for the disposition of the vessels.

Bradley asked how many of the ships had been converted to canneries and were currently being used to fish in U. S. waters off the Northwest coast.

Morse said he lacked complete information but that the War Shipping Administration, acting on orders from the Foreign Economic Administration, early in 1943 converted "a number of Russian vessels" into floating crab and fish canneries. He said the conversion was done under lend-lease.

OTHER DIFFERENCES
 Here are some other things disturbing Russo-U.S. good feeling:

1. The Russians have ignored notes asking negotiation of a final lend-lease settlement.

2. The Russians rejected a Washington appeal to join with Britain and the United States in getting "free and unfettered" elections in Poland. Marshall will bring this up at Moscow.

3. The Russians have ignored an American note urging them and the Chinese to work out arrangements for the withdrawal of Soviet troops from the important port of Dairen and its return to Chinese civilian administration.

4. Authorities here report that Russians constantly ignore requests to send outstanding professors and others to the Soviet Union on cultural missions and cold-shoulder invitations for their people to come here.

Love Problems

"The Tired Business Man" Type Proves Frequent Problem to the Young Bride

One of the problems deposited most frequently in the lap of a department like this concerns the familiar character—"The Tired Business Man."

Here he is again, distressing still another young wife who'd like, and should of course have, a little normal recreation in her husband's company but can't get any cooperation from him toward that end.

"I am a young married woman of 26, and my husband is 28. We have been married eight years, and have four lovely children of whom both of us are very proud. My husband is a very good family man, and he doesn't smoke and drinks very little, and only in the house."

"Before our marriage, we knew each other for about five years. My problem is this: he doesn't want to go out any place after he comes home from work, and he doesn't work hard. He doesn't like to dance or go visiting or to the movies. Every time I make an appointment he gets mad and we have a fight, and it ends up he stays home. But if he makes an appointment, he expects me to keep it."

"While he was in the service, in all his letters he kept saying how he wished he was home to take me and there, and where he would take me when he did get home. But when he got home, he forgot all about it. We are young, and have to have some recreation. Would appreciate any advice you could give me."

"E.W." Now first of all, I wonder if this husband's attitude—or maybe his temperament or disposition—has changed from what it was before he went to war. "E.W." doesn't say whether this is a new problem that has arisen since his discharge from service, or whether it is one with which she has always had to cope.

For Parents

Parents Play an Important Role in Speeding Recovery of the Sick Child

I'm not a medical expert. I don't know any more about curing physical illness than any other average layman. When I need medical advice I consult the well-trained physician. We did so with our children. I'm sure you do likewise.

But I do know something about the person when he's sick or well. Since all children become physically ill sometimes, and some are often sick, a problem every parent faces is to guide the child when he is ill that his recovery will be most speedy and permanent. Accordingly, the parents need to learn how best to cooperate with the physician and win the child also to do so.

As any parent knows, it is nearly always harder to manage the child when he is sick than when he is well, especially when the illness is not very severe or when the child is recovering. In general, our success at guiding the child when he is ill depends on how well we have guided him while he has been well. He's the same person. Of course, we parents always tend to give in to the child when he is not well. The more frequent and prolonged his illness, therefore, the more we incline to spoil him and to render him less ready to cooperate with us or anybody else.

Whatever success we have at keeping him well is favorable to his best personality and character, all else equal. Fortunately the sick or convalescing child who has acquired obedience and cooperation while well. Such acquirement helps assure and hasten his recovery. Lack of such can lessen his chances to live or escape long invalidism.

Long Study Needed to Cure Ailments That Cause Discoloration of the Skin

It used to be thought that the emotions had a distinct and lasting effect on the color of the skin; so much so that certain people were described as "turning green with envy." Today we know more about these abnormal color effects and find their causes in physical rather than emotional factors.

Sometimes one sees a person whose skin seems to have been dyed a canary or lemon yellow. This pigmentation, which greatly detracts from the appearance, is known as carotenemia and is due, as a rule, to the excessive eating of foods which contain the yellow pigment carotene.

The disorder often occurs in children who have been given large amounts of carrots, and other yellow and green vegetables. The treatment consists, of course, in reducing the amounts of these foods which are eaten, for the time being. Carotenemia also may occur in certain disturbances of the glands of internal secretion, such as a lack of thyroid or pituitary secretion.

Another cause of yellow discoloration of the skin is jaundice, a condition in which there are excessive amounts of bile pigments in the blood and tissues. In these instances the skin is likely to be orange or greenish-yellow. The jaundice may be produced by gall-bladder disease, liver disorders and certain conditions affecting the blood which cause destruction of large numbers of blood cells. When jaundice occurs, a careful search must be made for the cause before proper treatment can be carried out.

When there is a lack of thyroid secretion a condition known as myxedema occurs. In this condition, as I have mentioned above, a yellow pigmentation of the skin develops. This is due to the fact that carotene is not changed into vitamin A by the liver as it normally should be, and it collects in the skin, producing the yellow color.

In patients with uremia, a condition known as "silk from China" syndrome, a yellow discoloration of the skin develops. This is due to the fact that uremia causes a yellow discoloration of the skin. The discoloration is due to the fact that uremia causes a yellow discoloration of the skin.

Whitehall Notebook Most of British Parliament Members Lack Old School Ties

LONDON, Feb. 6 (CP)—Most British Members of Parliament now are products of elementary schools rather than the expensive establishments like Harrow, Eton, Winchester and Wellington.

This was one of the facts unearthed by Manchester University Psychology Department through questionnaires sent to M. P.'s, heads of Civil Service Departments, judges and magistrates. About 63 per cent replied.

From answers by M. P.'s it was found 56 per cent had attended elementary schools, considered unusually high by observers who recalled times when "public" schools recalled almost every member. Elementary schools were attended by 76 per cent of labor members, and most of them ended their formal education there. But 49 per cent of labor members went to night classes against six per cent for the Conservatives and 10 per cent of Liberals and others.

LONDONERS LOOK HOME NOW WHEN THEY THINK OF GANGSTERS; BELIEVE DESERTERS COMPOSE MOST OF GANGS

LONDON, Feb. 6 (CP)—Gangsters used to mean Chicago to Londoners; now they think of their own city when they hear the word.

"Highly organized gangs stealing furs," shouts one newspaper heading, "Yards drive to smash gangsters," says another. Accompanying stories tell of thefts costing $20,000 a week.

Crime Reporters say the gangs are largely composed of deserters from the forces. About 20,000 British servicemen are on the loose, along with 20,000 Canadians and Americans. These men have no civilian registration and in "many cases are leading an underground existence," said defence minister Alexander when he made a recent appeal to them to surrender.

In the first week after he announced that those who gave themselves up by March 31 would receive every consideration, only a dozen responded. No amnesty for deserters is planned, but they will be helped toward their "rehabilitation."

PARHAM, Suffolk, England (CP)—When the Americans left Parham airfield they left behind a maze for motorists. The airfield has miles of broad concrete runways intersecting its great perimeter and motorists seeking a way out find themselves driving round and round, arriving back where they started.

One told police he used up all his basic ration trying to get out and had to sleep the night in his car.

Princess Margaret Gets Perfect Score In Rifle Shooting

LONDON, Feb. 6 (AP)—Beginner's luck gave Princess Margaret a perfect score in a Royal Rifle Shooting Contest aboard H. M. S. Vanguard while the King, Queen and Princess Elizabeth chatted up some misses, exchange telegraph reported today.

A dispatch from the big battleship taking the Royal family to South Africa said the young Princess fired the first shot in her life knocked over a small target across the warship's deck and then promptly retired from the contest with a perfect score.

King George, rated an expert shot missed the first two times, until the sight was adjusted, then knocked over four in a row. Queen Elizabeth tried her aim and knocked over two with several misses, but Princess Elizabeth was unsuccessful in 30 rounds.

The Royal party played deck tennis under a warming sun and last night invited officers to a dance on the deck in the moonlight.

Housing Shortage Hits Hollywood; Jennifer, Peck Receive Awards

By HELEN BANNERMAN Canadian Press Staff Writer

Hollywood has lined up with the other towns with housing shortages and David O. Selznick's "Portrait of Jenny" will be filmed in New York at the new R. K. O. Pathe Studios. They say it's just as hard to rent a studio to house film production as it is to get a roof over one's own head.

"Portrait" is second big-time feature movie to be produced entirely in Gotham—late Summer film "Carnegie Hall" was shot there with 80 per cent of the scenes photographed in the real Carnegie Hall, which had its face lifted for the occasion.

AWARD FOR PECK

Motion picture acting achievement awards sponsored by "Look" magazine go to Jennifer Jones for her vivid acting in "Dial in the Sun" and to Gregory Peck for two roles: as Jennifer's low-down Texas rover in "Dial" and as Jody Baxter's gentle, Florida-cracker father in "The Yearling."

Peck's contract was divided between four studios when he reached Hollywood in 1944 and ever since then he has always had to stop and figure which part of him belong to whom. When the contract expires in two years he plans to freelance.

15-Gun Salute To Mark Session Opening

VICTORIA, Feb. 6 (CP) — A 15-gun salute will thunder across the inner harbor at 3 next Tuesday afternoon to mark the arrival of Lieutenant-Governor Charles A. Banks for the opening of the second session of the 21st Legislative Assembly of British Columbia.

Accompanying the Lieutenant-Governor for the ceremonial opening of the Legislature, which will have all the color of pre-war ceremonies, will be Cmdr. Hew Peterson, Lt.-Col. F. Brooke Stephenson and Wing Cmdr. Donald Campbell, three aides-de-camp representing the three services, and J. G. Cromack, private secretary to His Honor.

The guard of honor will be composed of a killed detachment of the Canadian Scottish Regiment and a unit of the Royal Canadian Navy from H.M.C.S. Naden. The Lieutenant-Governor is Honorary Colonel of the Canadian Scottish Regiment.

The battery of 25-pounders, commanded by Capt. T. J. Larkin, will be from the Coast Battery, West Coast, R.C.A. Four guns will be used.

After inspecting the guard of honor, His Honor and party will proceed up the steps of the main entrance to the Parliament Buildings to the rotunda where His Honor will be greeted by Premier John Hart. The party will then proceed to the Legislative Assembly Chamber.

Mrs. Banks will precede the Lieutenant-Governor to the Parliament Buildings to take her place in the Legislative Chamber before the ceremony starts. She will be accompanied by Rear Admiral E. R. Mainguy, O.B.E., Mrs. Norman Mackenzie and Miss R. MacLean.

Immediately on entering the Legislative Assembly Chamber, the Lieutenant-Governor will go to the speaker's dais where he will read the speech from the throne, an address outlining the business of the session.

FUR PRICES CONTINUE DOWN

LONDON, Feb. 6 (CP) — Canadian mink followed other furs in a general price decline when 22,000 skins were offered for sale today on the third day of the Hudson's Bay Company's general auction at Beaver Hall.

Prices generally showed a 30 per cent drop since last October and the highest price offered was 123 shillings (about $22.15) for a Canadian ranch skin.

Arthur Frayling, assistant London fur manager for the Company, said the fall in prices was due to the general uncertainty as to the immediate future of all luxury trades and consequent unwillingness to hold stocks.

They Dip Weekly In Frigid Atlantic

NEW YORK, Feb. 6 (AP) — Quicker than you can say "double pneumonia," a group of hardy souls clad in nothing warmer than bathing suits dashed across the icy beach at Coney Island today and plunged into the Atlantic Ocean.

It's a sight that never fails to amaze winter strollers who aren't familiar with the intrepid code of the Iceberg Athletic Club, composed of 42 men.

It was an even more amazing sight today, with New York suffering in a seven-degree temperature, coldest of the year.

The club is in its 28th year and the members range in age from 21 to 88. One iron-clad rule binds the members: A dip in the Atlantic at least once a week is compulsory. Many don't miss a single day.

Methane, the most plentiful of all gases, is generated in marshes, sewers, and the human intestines.

GROWERS PRICES IN B.C. DOWN

OTTAWA, Feb. 6 (CP) — Canadian farmers received more for their products at the end of last year than they did at the end of 1945.

The Bureau of Statistics reported today the index of prices received for all farm products last Dec. 15 stood at 183.7 or 3.8 points above the index number of 177.9 a year earlier. The figures were computed on the 1935-39 equals 100.

The index for Prince Edward Island, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and British Columbia was lower than a year ago, due principally to marked declines in prices received for potatoes, fruits and vegetables. However, index numbers for Quebec, Ontario and the Prairie Provinces registered substantial increases and accounted for the advance in the national figure.

Higher prices were paid for livestock and dairy products in these provinces. Grain prices generally remained at levels similar to those in 1945.

CHARGE RETAILERS HOLDING CANNED SALMON FOR HIGHER PRICES

VANCOUVER, Feb. 6 (CP) — Vancouver Trades and Labor Council (T.L.C.) demanded an investigation into the sale and distribution of canned salmon in Canada.

Delegates charged that retail merchants here had "thousands of cases" of canned salmon in storage to be put on the market when the price went up.

William Rigby of the Fishermen's Union said Montreal grocery stores were selling British Columbia canned salmon "under the counter" at illegal prices. Street railwaymen's union delegate Robert Cormack said nine or ten carloads of canned salmon were being shipped every day from here to the East.

Forestry and Pulpwood

Dealing with forest resources and the pulp and paper industry, the January Monthly Letter on the Royal Bank of Canada remarks upon the need for flexibility to take advantage of technological changes and currents of demand; the dearth of workers in the woods, suggesting the desirability of immigration; capital outlay, and education of the people regarding the vital need of conserving forests.

It is not good enough, the article says, to regard forest land "as a kind of residuary" in the resource scheme—something not good enough for agriculture so "let it run to trees." Forests can be of permanent benefit in preserving Nature's balance and providing an annual cash income.

Some figures are given to show the dependence of the country's economy upon forest products: railway ties used in Canada's transportation systems would make a forest of 26,000,000 trees each 50 feet tall and a foot thick; frame houses form 72 per cent of Canada's total dwellings; and in one year 713,000,000 cords of wood are cut for firewood.

Their share of Crown-owned forest land could produce an annual harvest of 1000 cords of wood a year for every 55 adult persons in Canada, roughly equal to 1000 tons of newsprint paper. However, the forest asset is accompanied by the responsibility of making sure that conservation methods are such as to bring along annual crops in perpetuity. In this work, says the article, Provincial Governments representing the people and industries which put the forest into use have the obligation to work closely in harmony. In addition, there is "room for expansion in the interest taken by the Dominion Government," and some way should be found around any constitutional difficulty. "It is a need big enough to demand the greatest degree of cooperative effort."

The article continues in part: "So much for the Canadian forest; now look at the pulp and paper industry which stems from it, one of the major industrial enterprises in the world. It has a world-wide reputation for quality and dependability. From the standpoint of capital invested, it is far from the largest industry in Canada. It is first in employment among manufacturing industries, first in total wages paid, first in export values, first in the net value of production. It is the largest single industrial buyer of goods and services. It provides the principal, and in some cases only, industrial activity of many towns: in Ontario alone there are some 20 thriving towns that were built and are maintained by the Ontario pulp and paper industry. It is a substantial contributor to Government revenues.

"Some people think of the pulp and paper industry as a continually ravenous consumer of the forests, and they will be surprised to learn that it takes only 16.7 per cent of the annual forest consumption. Fuelwood uses 22.6 per cent, timber, pulpwood for export, and miscellaneous products 34.1 per cent, and fire, insects and disease take 26.6 per cent. Yet so vital is the continued supply of its raw material that the pulp and paper industry has done more on its own in the way of forest management and more in the way of developing the forest for use in perpetuity than all the other users combined.

"A log is about three times as valuable to the economy of the country if it is used by a pulp mill than if it is merely sawn. If the log is exported, according to the brief prepared for the Ontario Royal Commission, its value is only one-fifth or one-sixth as great as if converted into paper. In the last year for which figures are available, we exported 1,672,000 cords of wood. Since a cord of wood about equals a ton of newsprint paper, and the biggest individual newsprint mill produces 900 tons of paper a day, it may be seen that the wood now exported would keep six mills running all year."

After dealing with production of pulp, paper and other products, the Monthly Letter suggests the opportunity that is open to operators of small wood lots. "When running at capacity, the pulp and paper industry uses some 8,000,000 cords of pulpwood annually, of which about 6,000,000 cords are cut from limits leased or owned by the industry, while the remainder is purchased from private forest owners, the majority of whom are farmers. More could be made of the private business of raising pulpwood for sale if private wood lots were operated under any kind of long-term forestry plan, assuring continuity and certainty of supply. In 1945 the industry paid $19,000,000 for pulpwood it bought from private vendors."

The article remarks: "And, finally, there is imperative need for world law and order. World trade is vital to this Canadian industry. Agriculture can vary its crops from year to year according to surplus or dearth, but in growing perennials such as trees there must be a long-time assurance of peaceful commerce. There will be no advantage in the most perfect system of forest management if the forest industries are unable to sell their products.

Finds Nelson Cleanest and Prettiest, People Soul of Friendliness

To the Editor: Sir—Please send me a copy of your 12th annual Pictorial per Calgary Herald Jan. 30. I visited Nelson last Fall. I found it the cleanest and prettiest place in the West, and the people the soul of friendly helpfulness. C. D. LANAUZE.

Relieved We's Now Canadians

To the Editor: Sir—And now we're Canadians, and it seems to me a step in the right direction, for although I've lived here over 30 years, I still have a nice, smug feeling of being English; and if I'd been born an Indian, I'm quite sure I would have had a similar sense of superiority, thanking my lucky stars I was a good Indian, and not like "these others," and so would have wrapped myself more closely in my blanket, day by day.

But now all that is over, and we'll gradually get ironed out, and goodness knows we may even become more kind. During the years from 1927 to 1935, I was doing work which brought me in contact with the new Canadians, mostly Europeans, and it was my privilege to meet them in their homes and help them in various ways. I could sympathize with them in their homesickness, for I was lonely too.

The tales of their "home land" and the luxurious simplicity of the life they led there, where the mountains rose in solemn grandeur till their summits were shrouded in the mists of Eternity, where the little streams gurgled down the hillsides, of the broad fields and cobbled streets, of the vineyards and the olive groves, of the singing festivals they had, and the beautiful clothes they wore, of the cheeses and butter they made, and the nice crusty bread they baked, until the grey days came, when their "hearts were filled with utter confusion and pain, and into the silence of weary lives came naught but the gale of rain."

Then they knew they must gather themselves together, and turn their faces Westward, and so to Canada they came, and from England too, that beautiful garden of dreams, where the roads shine white in the moonlight, and the little villages and farms, with their thatched roofs, and endless footpaths, nestle so snugly among the gently sloping hills, where the bluebells and primroses grow, and the grey stone churches look as though they've grown out of the ground, so firm a foundation they have. Where the church bells peal and echo above the din of city life, where the soft grey drizzle and sparkling sunshine bring out the perfume from the wall flowers and the honeysuckle.

So much beauty, so much of heart's desire, and the "spirit's strange, deep longings" have come to the melting pot of Canada, this country of majesty and wealth untold, and what will we do with it? For we, as Canadians, in common with the rest of the world, have come to the point where we must pause, on the threshold of a new day, for full well we know now that "His nature's vast and knows no bound. A deep where all our thoughts are drowned." "CITIZEN"

Subscriber, (Trill)—Where should a person write for a passport to go to Scotland or England?

The Passport Officer, Department of External Affairs, Ottawa, Canada.

Deer Hunter, Fernie—Can you state what food a deer subsists on?

In tests made in New York State, both in a deer park and at Cornell University, it was found that whitetail deer nearly starved on beaver-meadow hay, and also on balsam browse; that they lost weight on either pine or spruce browse; that hemlock gave good results; and that the deer survived in good shape on alfalfa, and in better shape still on white cedar and yellow birch browse. For winter feeding, after extensive tests, a cake equal in size to a five-gallon can was devised, of molasses, alfalfa, grain, and other foods, which was hung in deer yards, to be uncased in years when deer were in danger of starving. Deer in poor condition quickly gained weight on this food.

Sport, Trill—(1) There were four great Negro heavyweights in the limelight for many years in Jack Johnson's time. Can you name them for me?

No doubt you have in mind Jack Johnson, who became world champion; Sam Langford, Joe Jeannette, and Sam McVey—to name them in their probable ring rating, Johnson never proved he could beat Langford; they met in a 20-round draw, and Langford never succeeded in getting a return match.

(2) Was Peter Jackson, the Negro fighter who drew with Corbett in 61 rounds at San Francisco, born in Nova Scotia?

No. Peter Jackson was born in the British West Indies, spent his heyday in Australia as fighter and instructor, and wound up in the United States. But two other great Negro fighters were born in Nova Scotia—George Dixon, or "Little Chocolate," who became the American featherweight champion, being a native of Halifax, while Sam Langford, the "Boston Tarbaby," was a native of Weymouth.

NO INTENTION OF OKAYING HIGHER RETAIL GASOLINE PRICE IN B. C.

VICTORIA, Feb. 6 (CP)—The Public Utilities Commission has no intention of authorizing any increase in retail prices of gasoline, Dr. W. A. Carrothers, Commission chairman said here today when questioned about widespread rumors of impending price boosts. Dr. Carrothers said the commission had received overtures from one oil company about a year ago and from another about a week ago, but there had been no general request from distributors for authority to raise prices, and the commission was not taking any action.

Rumours of retail price increases are believed to stem from Premier John Hart's recent announcement that the province intends to take over collection of the three cents a gallon wartime gasoline tax now levied by the Federal Government when the latter drops out of the gasoline tax field on April 1.

At present the province levies a seven-cent a gallon tax. It will raise the tax to ten cents in April but that does not mean any increase in the price to consumers, it is pointed out.

Owing to shortages it was felt not all articles could be obtained.

The Membership Committee reported that while the drive for members was not completed there had been a splendid response. The Sunshine Secretary Mrs. C. Bowker reported that all sick members had been remembered.

It's a melancholy thought... but isn't it true that you are always the last to share in your monthly earnings? There's the butcher, the baker, the coal-man, the landlord. There's that new mattress for Mary, or Junior's dental bill. All it takes is an unexpected "extra" or two and — bang! — where's that money you so carefully had earmarked for savings?

Yet here's an interesting thing. All through the war you proved, with your Victory Bond purchases, that you could "save some for yourself". In fact, you saved a surprisingly large amount. You proved, too, that a back-log of savings "does things" to you. It gives a lift to your self-respect... to your sense of getting somewhere. It makes you feel less vulnerable — makes you more willing and able to grasp opportunity.

Betty Mitchell, Speed Skating Champ, Has Eye on 1948 Olympics

WINNIPEG, Feb. 6 (CP) — It has been a long, tough grind since the day she first donned a pair of bob skates some 12 years ago, but 18-year-old Betty Mitchell of Winnipeg, North American senior women's speed skating champion, thinks it all has been worthwhile. One of the greatest female skaters ever produced in Manitoba, Mitchell has her eyes on the senior championships at Sudbury, Ont., this week, and on the 1948 Olympics as well, although she says, "one day at a time, I still haven't won a Canadian championship, but if I am asked to represent Canada at the Olympics, I wouldn't turn it down."

The dark-haired, quiet, Norwood-Bonifac Skating Club speedster confesses that taking part in the Olympic games is her one ambition. And she has two chances—not only as a skater, but also as a sprinter. Betty so dominated the intermediate class in the Manitoba trials and field meets here last Summer, nobody would race against her.

Now a Secretary in the Treasury Office of the Department of Finance, she broke into speed skating while in elementary school. She represented her school in the annual inter-school races, found the sport to her liking, but later, tried figure skating.

Discovering she could not do both, Betty chose speed skating. She joined the Norwood-St. Bonifac Club, coached by Ted Stainsby. Her keen sense of pace and long, smooth strides attracted Stainsby's attention.

She came along slowly, learning to judge her opponents and finally captured the Manitoba girls' mid-level title, then the juvenile, junior and intermediate championships, and enjoyed phenomenal success at meets both in Canada and the United States.

Last Fall, she invaded the senior women's ranks and has since won the Mid-West Open and the North American meets at Detroit, Stainesby, now coaching at Detroit, watched his former pupil capture both titles.

Fight Manager, Nate Lewis, Ill

CHICAGO, Feb. 6 (AP) — Nate Lewis of Chicago, last of the country's most colorful and oldest fight managers—his considerably older than 70 — was seriously ill today in a Miami, Fla., hospital following a cerebral hemorrhage.

Lewis' connection with the prize ring dates back 30 years and he earned and spent a fortune—perhaps a couple of them—during his career.

Forty years ago he steered "Kid" Herman, a rough Chicago 133-pounder, into a world's lightweight championship match with Joe Gans. Herman lasted eight rounds with the ring master Jan. 1, 1907.

Lose Faith in Lack-Lustre Play of Royals

By The Canadian Press

Once regarded as the most likely team to finish on top of the Northern Division of the Pacific Coast Hockey League, New Westminster Royals lack-lustre performance in recent days has caused their staunchest supporters to lose faith.

The second place Seattle Ironmen romped over the Royals Wednesday night for a 7-2 victory and the New Westminster team's fourth straight defeat.

The win for Seattle, their third in a row, puts them six points up on the Royals and Vancouver Canucks, who are still tied for third place. But the Ironmen will have to do some fancy stepping if, with less than a month's play left, they hope to catch the front-running Portland Eagles, nine points ahead.

In the Southern Division, Hollywood Wolves tightened their strangle-hold on the league by coming from behind with three final period counters to hand Los Angeles Monarchs a 5-3 defeat.

Trims Canadian Skating Mark

SUDBURY, Ont., Feb. 6 (CP) — Twenty-nine heats got the second successive Dominion speed skating championships to be held in Sudbury off to a flying start today and no dark horses came through to upset the form chart. Defending champions Frank Stack in the senior men's class and Eileen Whalley in the senior women's won their heats handily. Stack coming down in front in the 220, 440 and 880 and Miss Whalley in the 440 and 880. In other 440 and 880 heats, Whalley a Winnipeg skater and Betty Mitchell, like Stack and Miss Whalley, the chief threat for the senior women's title, came through with ease.

In winning one of the 220 heats in to juvenile girls class, Mae White of Winnipeg went around the fast course in 25 seconds flat, shaving two fifths of a second off the Canadian mark in that division set by Anne Bonner, also of Winnipeg, in last year's meet here.

Winnipeg skaters, who took six of the 10 titles at stake last year, appeared to be headed for another year of domination as they won 15 of the 29 heats run off. Edmonton representatives came through to win five and skaters from Calgary and Saskatoon three each.

Golden Rinks Cop Most Honors Windermere Spiel

INVERMERE, B.C., Feb. 6 — Rinks from Golden carried off the honors at the annual bonspiel of the Windermere District Curling Club held at Invermere Saturday and Sunday. Three rinks from that town annexed two first prizes and a second. There was an all-Golden final in the secondary competition with Thomas King's rink defeating J. H. Coles.

A record number of visiting rinks took part in the spiel. Two from Cranbrook, five from Golden, five from Canal Flats and eight local rinks made up the total of 20 competing in the three competitions.

The primary competition was won by Canal Flats with a rink skipped by P. A. McGrath, Stanley Fraser's invincible rink being runner up after a very close game for which an extra end had to be played. Even then the issue had to be decided by using a measuring stick.

A dance was held Saturday night to entertain the curlers.

Aussies, England Draw as Match Ends

ADELAIDE, Feb. 6 (Reuters) — England's luckless cricket team had to content with a draw against Australia today as the fourth test match between the countries ended.

The Britons outscored the Australians 800 to 702 runs but when stumps were drawn tonight after six days of play, Australia needed only 98 runs to tie the score and had lost only one wicket in the second innings.

Australia won the first two matches of the best of five series and drew the third. Results of the first three matches meant that England had failed in her bid to regain "The Ashes", mythical symbol of world cricket supremacy, as an absolute series victory is required.

Four and possibly five of the Shamrocks are out at least temporarily as a result of injuries suffered in the wreck.

LONDON MAY BECOME BRUIN PUCK OUTPOST

LONDON, Ont., Feb. 6 (CP) — Loyal supporters who have struggled for years to see London regain its place in the hockey sun, took new heart today as word spread around that Boston Bruins will move into London to sponsor a professional club, with an eye to backing a professional entry when the city is free to return to minor league competition.

Weston Adams, President of the National League Bruins, and Coach Dit Clapper, conferred with London sportsmen last weekend and admitted their move wasn't totally out of love for the Thames River — they realize the current state of Boston's hockey empire is not secure.

The Bruins are forced to expand their reservoir of players as the team's current edition is not too well stocked with young material and star players have reached the veteran stage. Adams blames war years for the lack of promising youngsters but figures two years with junior clubs under expert coaching should fill the gap.

Sullivan Takes Over Buckna Crown as Scoring King

A new king in Kootenay hockey point harvesting has climbed into the throne occupied since the 1941-42 puck semester by Mike Buckna. He is versatile Frank Sullivan of the Kimberley Dynamiters who has marked 70 points into the record book, four more than Buckna.

Five assists in Wednesday night's game against Spokane Spartans made Sullivan the record holder. He has scored 24 goals and given 45 assists so far this season.

Market Trends

NEW YORK—Assorted stocks overrode profit taking while many recent climbers were thrown for losses.

Propose Mass Labor Lobby

VANCOUVER, Feb. 6 (CP)—The Trades and Labor Council (A.F.L.) here has proposed that a mass labor lobby of the Provincial Legislature be held this Spring by A.F.L. and C.C.L. trade unionists. The suggestion will be forwarded to the Provincial Executive of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada for consideration.

Object of the lobby would be to seek approval of a 40-hour week, a labor code and other recommendations contained in the labor briefs recently presented to the Provincial Cabinet.

The Council also decided to hold a "delegates conference" to organize a one-day buyers' strike and stage protest meetings in an effort to hold down price ceilings.
