

Top Priority for Austria Treaty

Agenda Agreement Follows Molotov Stab at Western War-Making; Bevin, Marshall Thrust Allegations Aside

LONDON, Nov. 25 (AP)—Foreign Minister Molotov of Russia, in a slashing attack on "imperialist" forces, tonight raised the spectre of a third world war before the Foreign Ministers Council, and State Secretary Marshall replied he is convinced Molotov "does not really believe his allegations."

Molotov charged that the Western powers were blocking a German peace treaty, imperialistically seeking to avoid small powers and trying to tear down the German economy to ensue competition and build up the German war potential.

Foreign Secretary Bevin of Britain said the Soviet charges should be treated "with the humor they deserve."

The debate was followed by swift agreement on the order of the agenda.

LONDON, Nov. 26 (AP)—French sources said the Foreign Ministers Council agreed today to place the Austrian treaty at the top of their agenda.

The Council approved the suggestion made yesterday by Foreign Minister Georges Bidault of France to take up the question of the Austrian treaty and the send it to their deputies, who are considering an accord in the light of French proposals on the German assets issue.

At the same time, the Council placed the preparation of a German treaty, including frontiers and procedure, second on the agenda.

The Foreign Ministers of Britain, the United States, Russia and France are to begin German peace treaty discussion tomorrow.

Under the French compromise, solving an initial dispute between the Western powers and Russia on whether to consider first the question of treaties with Austria or Germany, the Austrian treaty nominally takes its place at the top of the list.

But real attention will be given initially to German issues, as the Russians insisted.

The French proposal, which the deputies now are to consider, is to allow the Austrian Government to negotiate directly with each of the Big Four powers as to what property within the Austrian occupation zones can be considered German assets subject to reparations.

The rest of the agenda was set down for consideration in this order:

Economic principles relating to Germany; the form and scope of a provisional political organization for Germany; implementation of decisions taken by the Big Four in Moscow regarding demilitarization of Germany; and the so-called "Byrnes Plan" for a 40-year treaty by the four powers for the disarmament and demilitarization of Germany.

Foreign Minister Molotov was reported by Western power diplomats to be anxious to make a major Russian speech on Germany at the earliest opportunity.

It was expected, though not at all certain, that Molotov would agree to place the Austrian issue first on the six-point agenda but with the understanding it would be dispatched almost immediately to the Deputy Foreign Ministers.

This would get the conference quickly into a discussion of Germany and provide Molotov the opportunity the Americans and Britons believe he wants to deliver a speech critical of their occupation policies.

Ceilings, Profit Limit For Nine Food Items

Move Expected to Bring Down Consumer Prices; Allow for Higher Costs; Increases Not Justified

OTTAWA, Nov. 26 (CP)—Moving to curb soaring prices of fruits and vegetables, the Prices Board tonight announced that effective Thursday price ceilings will be re-imposed at the canners' level on nine items of canned goods, ranging from canned peaches to tomato juice.

The list being brought back under the ceiling control includes canned peaches, pears, plums, peas, corn, green and waxed beans, tomatoes and tomato juice.

In addition, wholesale and retail mark-ups, by which the margin of profit through the trade is kept to a limited percentage of cost, will be the same as before the Government de-controlled prices of these commodities.

What price reductions will occur on the retail market depends on a number of factors, including the amount of recent increases in various districts, Prices Board officials said. But generally consumer prices will be "considerably" below present prices and consumers in areas where prices on affected commodities had risen greatly would get a bigger reduction than those in districts where the rise was only slight.

The new ceilings are fixed on the price the canneries will get and the wholesale and retail mark-ups are worked out on an item index basis. Wholesalers are allowed a certain markup on the basis of prices paid to the canneries and the retailers on the basis of what he pays the wholesaler.

In making the announcement tonight, the Board said "the price scheduled for the items being placed under control is sufficiently higher than the previously-controlled price to allow for a number of higher cost factors, but is considerably below the general level of prices which prevailed during the week following the announcement of the new emergency import control policy."

When Mr. Abbott first announced the decision to re-impose controls on canned fruits and vegetables last Monday, he said increases which had taken place following announcement of the Government's new economic policy, "cannot be justified by increased costs."

STAPLES SUPPLY SUFFICIENT

At the same time, the Minister had stressed that domestic supplies of such staples as potatoes, cabbage, onions and carrots were "fully adequate" for several months to come and said the Government would augment the supply through easing of import restrictions if the amount of recent increases in various districts, Prices Board officials said.

The Board gave the following maximum canners' prices for the newly-controlled items in the B.C. Prairies Zone. The prices are for "choice" quality. Prices for other grades will vary somewhat—higher for "fancy" quality and lower for "standard" quality. Prices are for cases of 24 or 30 units each.

B.C. Prairies: Peas $1.45; corn $1.65; tomatoes $1.45; tomato juice $1.05; peaches (syrup or solid pack) $2.30; Bartlett pears $2.45; Flemish pears $2.50; Kaffir pears $1.80; plums and fresh Italian prunes $1.53; Italian prune plums $1.63; beans (green and wax) $1.43.

OTTAWA, Nov. 26 (CP)—Lifting of import restrictions effective tomorrow, on certain types of oils and greases not manufactured in Canada and on fibre glass which is used in Canadian manufactures, was announced tonight by Finance Minister Abbott.

Amendments to the list of imports banned under the Government's recently announced dollar-saving economy program, will allow unrestricted importation of lubricating oils and greases compounded wholly or in part of petroleum; refined petroleum jellies and oils for toilet, medicinal, edible or similar purposes; petroleum greases and lubricating greases; not otherwise provided for, in containers of more than 25 imperial gallons or of 250 pounds in weight.

Officials said that lubricating oils such as that used in automobiles was not affected and still was on the banned list, since it is manufactured in Canada.

get it is that Bevin is expected to adopt a "more moderate" line than Marshall, but a less violent one than Molotov.

In short, the British Foreign Secretary is employing the familiar "balance of power" in the interests of harmony. Having said this, one hastens to add that it shouldn't be taken as indicating that Britain is adopting any middle-of-the-road course politically with Russian Communism.

There is no weakening in London of the belief that the democracies must stand together. However, I take it that Bevin is against forcing the issue with Russia in the matter of the economic questions involved in the rehabilitation of Europe.

Britain wants to be a moderating influence, but not at the cost of appearing Bolshevik.

PALESTINE PLAN RECEIVES SETBACK

Canada Accepting With Heavy Hearts; Many Misgivings

NEW OPPONENTS

NEW YORK, Nov. 26 (CP)—The United Nations tonight postponed until Friday its decision on Palestine partition after a hectic day-long debate in which Canada warned that failure of U.N. to act could result in "murderous warfare which might spread far."

Several states shifted position during the day but fate of the plan to partition Palestine into Jewish and Arab states still was unpredictable with any certainty.

By ROSS MUNRO
Canadian Press Staff Writer
NEW YORK, Nov. 26 (CP)—Justice Minister Lileay, in Canada's major pronouncement on the Palestine problem, before the United Nations, told the General Assembly today that his delegation is voting for the plan to partition the Holy Land into Arab and Jewish states with "heavy hearts and many misgivings."

Simultaneously, it was learned the partition plan's possibilities of approval in the Assembly have received a setback, with two more countries in the Assembly joining the opposition to the plan.

The proposal, hammered into shape after lengthy Committee debate in which Canada took a leading part, was approved in Committee yesterday, but the 25-to-13 vote was one short of the two-thirds majority that will be required in the Assembly.

BEST OF POSSIBILITIES

In announcing Canada's decision to vote for partition, Lileay said the Dominion does so because that course is the best of four "unattractive and difficult" possibilities. At the same time, he expressed regret at the "threat of reprisal and all the talk of fire and sword which we have heard from both sides to this controversy."

OTTAWA, Nov. 26 (CP)—Reduction of the pension of Henry Page, First World War veteran who fatally shot Dr. M. R. Bowie, Veterans Department medical officer, in his office here yesterday, was made only partly on the basis of Dr. Bowie's examination, a D.V.A. statement said tonight.

Dr. Bowie, whose funeral will be held here tomorrow, was killed in the chest when the Vancouver veteran shot him without warning and then committed suicide by turning the gun on himself, apparently because he had been brooding over a reduction from 60 to 40 per cent in his disability pension.

The statement, issued by James L. Melville, Chairman of the Canadian Pension Commission, referred to Dr. Bowie as "an outstanding fine public servant" and stressed that Page's pension was reduced on the strength of examinations made while he was a patient at Shaughnessy Hospital, Vancouver, last Summer, as well as on the conditions shown to exist through X-rays made in Ottawa and through Dr. Bowie's examination.

In all likelihood, it added, Page's pension would have remained permanently at 60 per cent had he not applied for treatment in Vancouver last Summer.

"The man's file showed the award of 60 per cent was made in February of this year, had been noted as 'apparently permanent' which meant that there would have been little likelihood of the Commission ever calling him in for a re-examination. However, when he applied for treatment in Vancouver last Summer, the improvement in his condition came to light and the re-examination was necessary."

WINNIPEG, Nov. 26 (CP)—A St. Louis, Mo., lawyer reported today that a $25,000 legacy is awaiting William, Blanche and Gertrude, Shinn provided they are located before Dec. 15.

In a letter to a Winnipeg newspaper (Free Press), H. C. Tannehill said the three are children of Frank Jerry Shinn, who was employed at a St. Boniface, Man., packing plant in 1918, and later moved to Calgary, leaving his family behind.

All trace of them has been lost.

COALITION MUST CARRY ON SAYS JOHNSON HERE

Urges Implementing Of Social Service Measures

DELEGATES NAMED

Byron Johnson, M.L.A. for New Westminster, speaking before a meeting of the Nelson-Creston Liberal Association on Wednesday night, stated that the Coalition Government "must carry on." Under no condition should it dissolve, he affirmed, stating he felt certain it would continue.

The Member, considered among possible successors to retiring Premier John Hart, reviewed the Greenberg proposals, stressing particularly the need for implementation of health insurance, hospitalization and pensions schemes and financial help in financing the construction of hospitals, as outlined in the proposal.

"Agreements between the Federal and Provincial Governments concerning social service angles contained in the report should be completed as soon as possible," he urged.

He advocated a low-cost purchase plan in housing, and compulsory contributory superannuation for all workers. The latter "has to come, and the sooner the better," Mr. Johnson said. Also dealt with briefly were inquiries now under way into problems of taxation.

Mr. Johnson will go on to Trail Thursday, and thence proceed to Fernie and other points in the East Kootenays. He may return via Nelson on his way back to the Coast.

Delegates chosen to the annual meeting of the British Columbia Liberal Association were Walter Hendricks, D. D. McLean, Mrs. D. D. McLean, Mrs. K. Carpenter, Mrs. R. Mills, Mrs. Frank Putnam of Erickson, W. L. Bell of Creston, Nelson Winlay, E. W. Kopecki, H. N. Taylor of Creston, Mrs. L. Trainor, Mrs. M. Paterson, D. Cummins, Steven Vingo, Nelson Murphy and H. D. Harrison. Ex-officio delegates are James Draper of New Denver, who was candidate in the last Provincial election, Hon. Frank Putnam, M.L.A. for Nelson-Creston, Charles H. Bland of South Slokan, President of the Nelson-Creston Liberal Association, and Mrs. R. L. Oliver of Nelson, Secretary-Treasurer, who has served in this office for 10 terms.

GRAVESEND, Kent, England, Nov. 27 (Thursday) (Reuters)—Britain's Labor Government maintained its two-year unbeaten by-election record today when Sir Richard Acland defeated Conservative candidate Frank Taylor in a straight fight for the House of Commons seat left vacant by the recent expulsion of Labor Member Garry Allighan.

Complete returns of the record vote early today gave Sir Richard 24,692 votes to 23,017 for Taylor.

This compared with the 1945 general election figure of 21,609 votes for Allighan, 14,553 for the Conservative candidate and 5033 for the Liberals, who did not enter a candidate in Wednesday's by-election.

The large vote kept returning officers at work through the night and it was nearly 5 a.m. when the result was announced.

OTHERS COMING UP

The by-election was one of five pending which will measure the Labor Government's prestige in the midst of economic crisis.

The short campaign, based on such national issues as potato rationing and Government controls, was fought with the heat of a general election.

A Conservative held the Gravesend seat before the 1945 general election.

NEW VOTERS

Five thousand new residents, ex-servicemen and wartime evacuees who were not in this district in 1945, were eligible to vote today.

Allighan was ousted after writing in a newspaper trade magazine that some members of Parliament were selling restricted news about party caucuses and after admitting he had done the same thing himself.

There will be by-elections on Thursday in Edinburgh East and the Howdenshire District in Yorkshire East riding. A by-election is set for Epsom Dec. 4. No date has been set for a by-election due in Croydon North.

Buying Rush on As Yuletide Near

With store windows alive with animated Santas and bounding reindeer, Nelsonites are being reminded forcibly that the old man of the polar region is harnessing his sled in preparation for his annual journey South.

His arrival is being heralded by bunting-festive shops with counters crowded in gay wrappings, tree decorations, gift suggestions, bright red cranberries, mince-meat and Christmas cakes. The run of so many days-to-Christmas slogans has begun. And people are responding in a push of pre-Christmas buying.

Row-eyed youngsters are gazing awe-struck at life-sized dolls, slings and skates, and parents are being coaxed incessantly into complying with the wants of their offspring. Mechanical toys, which disappeared from toy departments during mid-winter year, are back again. Tricycles and miniature cars are appealing to the kids like Santa Claus himself.

Indications are that homes will contain everything desired for a happy Christmas come Dec. 25, that is, if there is the money to buy it. Fat turkeys, candies, nuts and fruits will be available in ample stocks, it is promised, meaning a brighter picture than has been seen for some years.

Recently imposed restrictions on imports from the States will have only mild effect on Christmas supplies here, if any, it is thought, but the joy that Christmas alone brings, and the excitement that precedes it, are items which will not be on the restricted list for certain.

4-Day Christmas Holiday for Coast Factory Workers

VANCOUVER, Nov. 26 (CP)—Pacific Coast factory workers will enjoy a four-day holiday this Christmas, but department and other retail store employees will be at work Christmas Eve, despite its falling on Wednesday, and on the Saturday following Christmas.

Officials of the Retail Merchants Association explained that trade establishments here were not following the lead of other mercantile firms by closing four days because store employees are granted Wednesday off.

Britain Appears to Take Moderate Stand Between Russia and U. S.

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

The opening of the Big Four Foreign Ministers' Conference in London finds Britain pursuing what appears to be a governmental policy of acting as a moderating influence between the world's most powerful politico-economic antagonists—Russia and the United States.

On the eve of this momentous parley to try to iron out the fiercely-debated Austrian and German peace treaties, Foreign Minister Molotov and Foreign Secretary Bevin had what was described by a British official source as a "very friendly" conversation. They agreed that unanimity among the Big Four in the meeting was of "the very highest importance" to the world.

Well, that's a general statement with which certainly both saint and sinner can agree. However, this same official source gave further point to his statement by adding that Bevin's line in the conference "can be expected to be more moderate" than State Secretary Marshall's. Previously Bevin had told the British Cabinet of the course he proposed to pursue, and is said to have received the blessings of his colleagues.

That raises the question of just what is meant by a "more moderate" line. I think the British official source could have given us the answer if he hadn't stopped in the middle of a sentence (or so it seems to me). The complete thought is I think that Bevin is expected to adopt a "more moderate" line than Marshall, but a less violent one than Molotov.

In short, the British Foreign Secretary is employing the familiar "balance of power" in the interests of harmony. Having said this, one hastens to add that it shouldn't be taken as indicating that Britain is adopting any middle-of-the-road course politically with Russian Communism.

There is no weakening in London of the belief that the democracies must stand together. However, I take it that Bevin is against forcing the issue with Russia in the matter of the economic questions involved in the rehabilitation of Europe.

Britain wants to be a moderating influence, but not at the cost of appearing Bolshevik.

Everyone Will Contribute to Insurance Scheme

By STUART UNDERHILL
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON, Nov. 24 (CP)—The wealthy director of big business firms and the street sweeper who peddles shoelaces will have a financial concern in common next year—contributing to the national insurance scheme.

Whether their incomes are £2 ($8) or £200 a week, all "self-employed" persons are required, effective next July 1, to join the national scheme. Self-employed men will contribute 5s 2d. ($1.24) each week and women 5s 1d. ($1.02).

In return they are assured of sickness and maternity benefits, life insurance, retirement pensions and death grants toward funeral expenses.

Nearly 2,000,000 persons are believed to be affected by terms of the National Insurance Act covering this class of citizen. Their first duty is to register early next year, after which they will be provided with books to which stamps must be affixed each week.

It was suggested that one of the chief difficulties would be to overcome the indifference of wealthy men who were not interested in the benefits, but warned that "unless the self-employed cooperate with the state to make the scheme work by accepting a reasonable measure of self-discipline, they make ludicrous inquiries and rules of behavior."

Pension Chop Not All on Slain Doctor's Finding

OTTAWA, Nov. 26 (CP)—Reduction of the pension of Henry Page, First World War veteran who fatally shot Dr. M. R. Bowie, Veterans Department medical officer, in his office here yesterday, was made only partly on the basis of Dr. Bowie's examination, a D.V.A. statement said tonight.

Find Four Alive Of Wrecked Ship

KETCHIKAN, Alaska, Nov. 26 (AP)—The Coast Guard reported today it had found four men alive and three dead on the bow of the Army transport Clarksdale Victory, which was smashed on the rocky beach of Hippa Island.

Capt. Niels Haugen, Commandant, said the searching party did not report finding any trace of the other 44 crew members of the ship and prospects of their survival "don't look very good."

He said combing of the beach and the wooded section of the rugged little island had failed to disclose any trace of survivors ashore, despite aerial observers reports that they sighted three men on the beach yesterday.

The Coast Guard letter identified the survivors as Second Mate Henry H. Wolfe, Oakland, Calif., and Third Mate William M. Rasmussen, Modesto, Calif., and Clar E. Driscoll, Los Angeles, and Seaman Carlos Sanabria, La Ceiba, Honduras.

All were reported to be suffering from "immersion foot" from the long exposure to the salt water. A Coast Guard plane was to drop letters and the cutter Wachusett was dispatched to the lee side of the island to assist in rescuing them.

The searchers, the first of whom reached the island late yesterday, were able to get on to the bow of the shattered ship for the first time this morning as the heavy seas subsided.

A bare report of the sighting of a lifeboat was received also. Searchers were starting to encircle the island's shoreline, he said, for any possible trace of anyone having reached shore at another spot, "but it doesn't look like there is a very good chance." Hippa is less than three miles long and a mile across at the widest point. The coastal search also will be extended to Graham Island, a large one just to the east of Hippa. Only the bow section of the ship was on the beach and Coast Guard officers expressed the belief that the stern section may have drifted away with survivors aboard. Previously, it had been assumed that it sank after breaking off. A sea search for possible signs of it was being launched.

Three survivors who were reported to have been sighted on the beach yesterday are believed to have been native fishermen. BELIEVE 43 DEAD

The second mate said he thought the other 43 crew members went to the bottom in the stern half of the broken ship.

The Coast Guard said Second Mate Henry Wolfe informed his rescuers that no survivors were able to get away in lifeboats.

Attempts were being made to place the four survivors aboard a Coast Guard cutter late this afternoon and they may be brought into Ketchikan, the Coast Guard said. The cutter will probably not leave the vicinity, however, until it is definitely determined there are no more survivors on the island.

Claims Signed Away Ranch When Practicing Yoga

RENO, Nev., Nov. 26 (AP)—The 25-year-old heir to an Indiana fortune went to court today to get back a $67,000 debt ranch he said he practised because he was practicing Oriental mysticism and didn't understand what he was doing.

Alva Lasalle Kitzelman, testifying in his suit against his sister and his mother, declared he had suffered from amnesia almost continuously for two years after signing away property 35 miles Northeast of Reno.

"I suffered the lapses of memory because of my exercises in Yoga," he told the court. "Looking back on that period of my life, I realize I was incapable of entering into a practical agreement."

He said his critical faculties were "in suspension" at the time he signed an agreement in 1940 surrendering the ranch to his sister, Margot Kitzelman Dunn Hanson O'Shea Rautzahn, and his mother, Mrs. Leslie K. Figueroa.

Kitzelman said he had discontinued his mystical studies but that after he bought the ranch in 1945 from his share of the Kitzelman estate, he built a ventilated but light-proof cabin on the property. There, he said, he practised the suspension of breathing and squatted, cross legged, with spine erect for hours.

"My studies probably were learned imperfectly," he confessed, "for I often became unconscious for long periods and lost my memory."

During lucid periods, he said, he learned that he had relinquished his property. His sister has converted the holding to a dude ranch and incorporated it under the name of "The Sage, Inc."

Young Kitzelman's father, the late A. L. Kitzelman, Sr., was President of the Indiana Steel and Wire Co. and Kitzelman Bros. Co. in Muncie, Ind. He died in 1940.

Donaldsons of Procter Fishingest Family in 1947 Gyro Trout Derby

Anglers some 300 strong were gathered in the Trinity Church Hall Wednesday night to mark the end of the 1947 Gyro Trout Derby and danced to the jig time rhythm of the Gyro Hoedown after the banquet.

W. C. McDonald, of Nelson, who won the first prize for the largest trout taken during the derby was also recipient of a $25 prize for the heaviest fish caught of Gibbs tackle.

Fishingest family in the derby were the Donaldsons of Procter. Altogether they boated over a dozen trout and reaped heavily of the prizes. Their catches ranged from the heavier teens to the smaller ones and were caught by daughters and father.

Fishing stories were rife but J. R. Bailey, President of the Nelson Rod and Gun Club, sounded a word of warning, too, for the fisherman. He appealed for a more "intelligent and comprehensive program" for the planting of fingerlings. Manchuria Turned Into Frozen No-Man's Land

"Hounded" by HEADACHES

Blinding pain, constant throbbing can make life a misery. Many headaches may be caused by the failure of the kidneys to perform their normal duty of filtering poisonous wastes and excess acids from the blood. If kidneys fail and poisons remain in the system, headaches, backache, rheumatic pains, disturbed rest may often follow. No Man Entirely Bad Experiment Tries to Show

MONTEITH, Ont., Nov. 26 (CP) —A unique experiment in penology is taking shape at Monteith Jail Farm, Ontario's newest penal institution in the heart of Northern Ontario's timber and mining country. Experts believe the experiment here may lead to the reform of every penal institution in Ontario. Based on the philosophy that no man is entirely bad, it is founded on the theory that with just and humane treatment, all but the most hardened criminals can be returned to society as useful, honest citizens.

Here are some of the features here which make the jail unique:

1. There is not a firearm on the premises. There are no billies for the use of guards.
2. There is no fence around the jail.
3. Many prisoners wander about the grounds virtually at will. Unescorted and free to escape any time he pleases, one prisoner runs a tractor one-half mile from the nearest guard. Jail trucks manned by prisoners run up and down the road without a guard accompanying them.
4. The food is good, living quarters are cleaner and more comfortable than in most jails.

Succeeds in Photo-Engraving Of Newspapers

CHICAGO, Nov. 26 (AP)—The girls who ordinarily type their bosses' letters now are pounding out the news for the Chicago area's millions of newspaper readers. Typists gained an unprecedented importance when the city's six big dailies when the papers' 1500 printers went on strike.

All the papers were prepared for a possible work stoppage and were ready with a substitute photo-engraving process for printing the news.

Ordinary, when copy is written and edited in the editorial room of a newspaper, it is sent to the composing room to be set up into type. Under the photo-engraving process it is sent to a battery of typists equipped with ordinary or electronic typewriters. They copy the stories on white paper ruled to one or two columns wide. The columns then are pasted on a dummy page. The headings and prints of photographs are placed in their assigned spots on the dummy page. Then the entire dummy page is reproduced by photo-engraving and sent to a stereotyper who makes the semi-circular leaden plates for the printing presses. In a front page box, the Chicago Herald-American, one of the strike-bound papers, announced: "We who are engaged in producing this new kind of newspaper find it a fascinating experiment. We will keep changing it as we learn and we will keep improving it. It interests us and it interests you, because you may be looking now at the newspaper of the future."

"The Authority on Authorities"

TIME FOR THANKSGIVING
 APPRECIATION for gifts vouchsafed is seldom thought of as one of the qualities required for a well-rounded bridge player. On special occasions, however, it can be one of the most important of all your assets. That is, if you can recognize that a present of a lot of points is probably being offered to your side, through the bidding of your opponents. In many such spots, the soundest action is to pass and see if your partner wants to double, instead of going on with your own bidding.

nents had. North had rebid hearts on the preceding round, whereupon South's diamond rebid instead of supporting the major showed he did not have three hearts. West therefore was pretty sure to have four. Actually he had five.

If East had reckoned thus and passed the 3-Hearts, West would have doubled, and the result should have been at least 800 points for the defenders.

Note what a swing East's unwise 3-Spades caused. The diamond K went to the A, the spade K to the A, the club 3 put South in with the A, the diamond Q won, the diamond 3 was ruffed by the spade 2 and the heart K scored. That set the doubled contract, a plenty bad result compared to what would have happened if East had passed the 3-Hearts.

The Doctor

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

Home Penicillin Treatments Used for Sinus Sufferers

Almost from the moment when the wonders of penicillin were discovered, I have been asked repeatedly: "Doctor, why can't I use penicillin at home?"

Sufferers from sinus infection were particularly interested. Because they had heard of penicillin's amazing ability to cure pneumonia and other diseases of the respiratory tract, they wondered if they could not use it to root out the germs causing infection in the air passage-ways connected with the nose.

METHOD WORKED OUT
 Today I am happy to report that they can. For the first time—and after many trials—a method has been worked out whereby penicillin in adequate amounts can be put into the sinuses without the use of special apparatus. This means a great saving in time for both doctor and patient because the method is so simple that once the patient has learned it, he can use it at home as often as necessary, thus saving himself many trips to the doctor's office.

This does not mean, however, that he can do without a doctor. In the first place, not all cases of sinus trouble can be treated successfully in this way. In the second, the doctor must decide the strength of the penicillin solution to be used and how often it is needed.

THERE'S A TRICK
 And not only this. Even though the method of getting penicillin into the sinuses is simple, there's a trick to it. It is doubtful if the patient could manage it correctly unless first shown in detail by his doctor just what to do.
 Usually a weak solution of penicillin in salt solution is recommended. The patient lies with his head bent back over the edge of the bed. Then the weak penicillin in salt solution is put into each nostril. From one to one and a half teaspoons of this solution is put in each

If Hubby Continually Says "Go," No Reason Why Wife Should Stay

A correspondent who has been married 16 years and has four children writes to ask what I think a woman should do "when her husband continually tells her to get out and says if she doesn't he will throw her out."

The answer to that question seems to me simple indeed. I think she should get out as fast as possible. Why she would stay, under such circumstances, I cannot see, unless of course she would be confronted with an insoluble financial problem otherwise. And even at that, it seems to me that a woman with real gumption would prefer to struggle along as best she could in an atmosphere free of constant quarrelling, rather than accept support from someone who so obviously and loudly begrudges it.

Somewhat I doubt if this woman wants to break up her home. She seems to be one of those—and many of us humans are like that—who would rather stay in an unsatisfactory situation in the hope that it may at some time magically change itself than make the effort to move out of the situation.

The reason I suspect this woman does not want to leave her husband is that she can think of so many reasons for not doing it. She like to play with the idea of going; she even admits that if she did leave, she is sure that she and the children would be happier. But instead of getting down to brass tacks and planning what she might do if she walked out and took the children, she talks about how it would hurt her husband if she went, her fear that she is too nervous to go through the strain of a divorce, and her reluctance to have her children upset by the break-up of their home.

None of this, of course, is consistent. For a woman to worry over hurting a husband who treats a wife as badly as this one complains of being treated seems ridiculous. He himself is apparently not very much worried about being hurt by her departure, since he has already told her to get a lawyer and start divorce proceedings. As for being too nervous to go through a divorce, it hardly seems possible that it could be any more upsetting than living under the conditions which, she says, are tearing them both apart. As for the children, there again it is questionable whether the break-up of their home would do them any more harm than being brought up by parents who were constantly at each other's throats, so to speak.

mean. The answer to that, of course, is that if a person wants a thing enough he generally finds the courage to go after it.
 The question is, which is stronger in this woman—the desire for peace and absence from nervous and emotional strain, or her fear of change? If the former is stronger, she will find the courage she needs to achieve it.
 Microscopic marine organisms formed a North Sea barrier which prevented herrings from reaching the usual grounds off the East coast.

New Household Gadgets Increase Accident Hazards of Young Child

With all the new gadgets coming into the home come also increasing hazards to the young child. Years ago, some young children got their hands in the hand-turned wringer. But it never ran very fast and could easily be turned back. Who the gas-driven washing machine, and later the electric washed appeared there came wringers and other parts very alluring to the little child, from which his hand could not easily be extricated.

IN THE KITCHEN
 In the kitchen are the electric food grinder and mixer. Through a friend of the family I just heard a story which made my blood curdle, of a lot of two who got his hand in an electric food chopper and had to be carried with the hand still in the chopper to the hospital.

As you know, these gadgets run very fast and powerfully, and are very alluring to the tot who may be quick at getting into them. Besides he may, if not well trained, press the button and run these gadgets when nobody is around.

ELECTRIC TOOLS
 Then there are electric tools in many home workshops, such as the electric circular saw or band saw, unsafe even for the older child to use unless he gradually has learned their proper use under careful supervision.

About the farm also are many new gadgets bringing increasing perils. Then with the newer ways of fighting garden pests come added hazards in poisons, acids and the like. All of which clearly means that the young child needs increasingly more supervision and better training in inhibitions essential to safety.

Manifestly, the little child who has not learned the meaning of NO (used wisely) faces growing dangers with poorer chances to keep whole and alive.
EXPLANATION ISN'T ENOUGH
 As any parent knows, just to explain to the young child specific known dangers is no guarantee that he will avoid them. Nor is it enough that his parents be ever vigilant and careful. In addition, the youngster needs to learn, as soon as he can move about, that he must avoid certain acts and things.
 The surest way for him to achieve such learning is through physical pain so surely, immediately and consistently connected with the

SUN ARTICLE TELLS NELSON'S STORY

Nelson's history, his occupations and hopes for the future were related in word and picture to readers of the Vancouver Sun Magazine Supplement published Sunday. In a near two-page spread entitled "Pioneer Push Still Stamps Nelson." The write-up was ninth in a series on British Columbia cities, towns and districts.
 Its author, Ted Greenalade, vividly told of Nelson's past, dwelling particularly on mining. He brought the story into modern focus with descriptions of the city's industries, public utilities, scenic and civic attractions.
 "Mining men claim Nelson is the city of the hardest rock and the softest hearts in all the Kootenays. This may well be, for in her mountain solitude she has learned to look on the stranger as one who through her entire history has given more than ever he has taken away," he wrote.

Again, "Nelson, with her foundations built upon solid rock and surrounded by natural wealth and beauty, can be proud of her past and confident of her future. For this latter she does not trust to nature alone, but realizes that her chief wealth lies in her sons and daughters, and proudly claims the lowest rate of juvenile delinquency of any city in Canada."
 Shown were pictures of the business section, taken from below Gyro Park, the Kootenay Belle Mine at Sheep Creek, and diamond drilling at the Fern Mine, South of Nelson.

Movie Gossip

To Choose Bette Davis' Next Picture On How Much It Will Tax Her Strength

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 26 (AP)—Bette Davis' next film will be selected partly on the basis of how much it taxes her strength.

Bette's doctor told her she wasn't strong enough to undertake the strenuous "African Queen." Her next film will be a choice of "Two Worlds of Johnny Truro," "Return of a Soldier" or "Feature for June," and much of the decision will rest on which one will be easiest for her.

The actress has been seen in only two films in two years. Her current movie, "Winter Meeting," will be rushed through for a March release.

AROUND THE LOTS
Joan Crawford took over Bette's set the other day. Bette quit work early so Joan could use the set for a food-conservation short... friends say the Jack Benny-Al Jolson feud is in earnest... Olivia DeHavilland won't be competing for another Academy Award this year. "The Snake Pit" won't reach the theatres in time. That will give 20th-Fox a chance to concentrate on its Oscar hopeful, "Gentleman's Agreement."

HORSES AND HASHERS
Betty Grable has never worried her pretty head about her own publicity, but when her racehorse gets a write-up, she waves the clippings in front of everyone she meets... Note on the state of originality in Hollywood: U-I is now shooting five films, four from Broadway plays, one a rehash of an old picture... Merle Oberon signed a new contract with RKO for one film yearly for the next five years. Her next will be a big color picture... Howard Hawks' hard-luck picture, "Red River," is reported to have run up a bill of two-six, which is the way Hollywoodians refer to $2,600,000... The prevailing price is 75 cents.

HARD WINTER
Dana Andrews, I discovered, has a fine singing voice, but he hopes the studios don't find out. He might have to do musicals...

Helping the Fight Against Tuberculosis

Residents of the Kootenay-Boundary have personally seen two convincing demonstrations of the far-reaching benefits resulting from the annual sale of Christmas Seals by the British Columbia Tuberculosis Society.

Twice, now, X-ray units purchased with proceeds from the sale of Christmas Seals, have visited Kootenay-Boundary centers to provide free chest examination for all.

Then there were those found to have other complications, such as heart disease, and warned in time to prevent serious and prolonged illness.

Two mobile X-ray vans and portable X-ray equipment have been purchased by the money raised by Christmas Seals; the Kootenay Clinic in Nelson was equipped by the sale of the Seals; and the education program of prevention and care of tuberculosis is growing.

It is to our own interest that we buy, cheerfully, Christmas Seals to help the fight against tuberculosis, to help those conducting the fight to reach their goal—an end to tuberculosis.

Stealing Taft's Thunder

Senator Robert Taft's recent 17,000-mile speaking tour, followed by his announcement that he is a Presidential candidate, demonstrated that General Dwight Eisenhower is now the most popular Presidential timber in the minds of the mass of voters of many States.

This is the verdict given by Frank Gervasi, Associate Editor and Washington correspondent of Collier's, in a signed article in the national weekly. Gervasi was one of a group of political writers who accompanied Taft on his tour.

"Reporters who accompanied Taft ... encountered so much first-hand evidence of Eisenhower's popularity at the grass-roots level," he declares, "that they often asked themselves and one another whether they were covering a Taft campaign tour or an Eisenhower boom."

"In the Middle West and West," he adds, "Eisenhower seemed to appeal most to those to whom the Deweys and the Tafts appeal last, the working men and women."

Eisenhower's popularity is said to have extended through California, Oregon, Washington, Wyoming, Idaho, Nevada, Ohio, Illinois, Minnesota and Kansas. Railroad workers, taxi drivers, barmen, waitresses, salesmen and some farmers and ranchers interviewed by the reporters, are reported to have been enthusiastic Eisenhower supporters.

"Eisenhower has said 'no' to questions concerning his availability often enough to qualify him as a contender with Gromyko for the world championship," Gervasi says. "But no one, as is traditional in politics, takes his disavowals seriously."

He reports that Washington's political writers "almost unanimously" believe he'll become a candidate after he leaves the army next January, and that some prominent Democrats feel sure that he's cut to get the Republican nomination.

"Taft is not unaware of the widespread Eisenhower sentiment," Gervasi declares. "He has talked with members of his staff and friends of the phenomena that he, as much as the newspapermen with him, encountered out West. He sees 1940 repeating itself, with General Ike in Willkie's role."

War in the Arctic

The timber wolves, Arctic white fox, muskox and the Indians and white men who make a living trapping and hunting them in Canada's vast hinterland, may have to move on in the face of advancing science.

There has been set up in the vast interior desert area of Australia a rocket-testing range. It is sufficiently large for current experiments. However, differences in air temperatures influence the trajectory of rocket weapons, so that a sub-zero rocket-testing area, with a range of perhaps 1500 miles, may be needed.

This much information was recently pried from a group of British and Canadian scientists at Calgary. The group was headed by Sir Henry Tizard, K.C.B., Chairman of the Defence Research Policy Committee of the British Ministry of Defence, and with him was Sir Benjamin Lockspeiser, chief scientist for the Ministry of Supply, and Dr. Wansborough-Jones, O.B.E., scientific adviser to the Army Council.

If Canada and the United States, along with the other nations of the British Commonwealth are going to have to be prepared for another war, probably this is the best use for the Arctic northland. We may have had visions of it some day being populous and productive, but if we are going to be able to produce in the area we now occupy, perhaps we had better make the frontier North our line of defence.

Press Comment

MR. CROLL SPEAKS

David Croll, Liberal M.P. for Spadina, splits the responsibility for absence of state health insurance in Canada three ways. It rests upon Premier Drew of Ontario and Premier Duplessis of Quebec, who were the stumbling blocks to agreement at the Dominion-Provincial Conference to which such insurance was offered by the King Government.

Mr. Croll told the Garment Salesmen's Association of Canada that there is no rhyme or reason in the Federal Government's failure to take this step. He said: "It is the plain duty of the Dominion Government to do something about health now. The Dominion should pass an act and give a national health plan to those Provinces that want it. Today we are in a particularly strong position and the time to enact such a measure is now when we have a large surplus, and corporation profits after taxation are double what they were in 1938."

It is encouraging to find at least one Liberal Member of Parliament who will speak plainly about the duty of the Government. Mr. Croll is right. Now is the time to inaugurate health insurance, and, for that matter, old age pensions for those who need them at 65. The Government committed itself to these measures in its brief to the Dominion-Provincial Conference. It should call together the Premiers of at least the seven cooperating Provinces with a view to agreement on a comprehensive plan. The other two would ultimately find it impossible to stay aloof.—Toronto Star.

Etiquette Hints

When visiting another country than your own, it is correct to stand when the national anthem is played.

the degree of aid which has been advanced by the United States since the war ended:

"We hear a great deal about the dollar shortage. Dollars represent the toll and skill and self-denial of scores of millions of American wage-earners which they are contributing of their own free will, in most cases without any hope of repayment, to help their fellowmen in misfortune across the ocean."

"Such a process should be treated on all occasions with the respect which is its due. No country in the world has ever done anything like it on such a scale before."

Contrary to some of the speeches which can be heard at conferences of the British Labor Party, this is exactly what dollars represent. And contrary, also, to the asides which earn such rolling applause, the United States has not played Shylock to the European Antonio.

PASSED BY CENSOR When William Bird of the New York Sun wanted to tell readers in 1940 how Hitler-minded Franco was, and how impoverished Spain had become, he knew censors wouldn't pass his copy and that Franco soldiers would probably pass him into the clink if he wrote it. He wrote it, nevertheless—this way:

"Critics of Spain, which is serenely peaceful on the frontiers of a war-ravaged world, have been viciously biased, as refugees from the debacle of France today could see with their own eyes. "To say that General Franco is the voice of Hitler is no more true than to say that Edgar Bergen is the voice of Charlie McCarthy. Under a regime of independence and self-sufficiency, this country is flourishing like Job's turkey." A Spanish censor passed it.—Editor and Publisher.

"This has been a happy visit," the Canadian leader added. He arrived in Britain Nov. 7 to attend the Royal Wedding and visit France, Belgium and Holland. Today he went by train to Southampton to board the liner Nieuw Amsterdam. "I think things here are improving. The people are showing a great spirit of determination. # Mounbatten's Children Would Succeed Elizabeth on Throne

The marriage of Princess Elizabeth to Prince Philip Nov. 20 with the probability that they will have children raises the question of the future line of succession to the British throne. To get indisputable information on the subject, the Canadian Press asked Cyril F. J. Hankinson, editor of Debreth's Peerage to write the following story.

Written for The Canadian Press by CYRIL F. J. HANKINSON

LONDON, Nov. 26 (CP)—When Princess Elizabeth and Prince Philip have their first child—whether it be a son or daughter—it will take a place next to the mother in line of succession to the British throne.

If the child is a boy, it will always keep that place, but a daughter would be displaced if a son were born later.

The first child—son or daughter—will move Princess Margaret, younger sister of the heir, from second to third place in line, and she will drop one place further down for every child that is born.

Meantime, Princess Margaret remains second heiress to the throne. And should Princess Elizabeth come to the throne without children, Margaret, until Elizabeth had offspring, would be the heiress presumptive—the title Elizabeth now holds.

The thing to remember is that the line of succession passes from the sovereign through his eldest son, or if there is no son, through his eldest daughter.

Even if Elizabeth never comes to the throne her children will be heirs to the throne after the present King.

Only if Elizabeth and Philip are childless until Elizabeth's death would succession pass to Margaret and her children. That is what happened when King Edward VIII, now the Duke of Windsor, abdicated without children. If he had had a son, that son, not George VI, would have succeeded him.

If Elizabeth and Margaret both are childless on their death then the line of succession will pass to the descendants of the Duke of Gloucester, next to George VI in age among the sons of George V, and beyond him to the descendants of the Duke of Kent.

HAVE ROYAL TITLE

Children of Princesses take their titles from their father, not their mother. So far no special announcement has been made which would vary the usual custom in the case of Elizabeth and if the King had not created Lieut. Philip Mounbatten HRH Prince Philip in addition to Duke of Edinburgh, any children born to Elizabeth would not have been entitled to be styled Prince and Princess.

Now, however, by the right of their father any children of the couple will be known as Prince or Princess of Edinburgh.

If Elizabeth has a son when she comes to the throne, he will automatically be the heir-apparent title given to the eldest son of the sovereign or, if the eldest son is dead, then his eldest son.

If there is no son but a daughter she will become heiress presumptive—title given to the next in line of succession not being a son or grandson of the sovereign and hence liable to be displaced if a son is born later.

NOT NECESSARILY PRINCE OF WALES

When he became heir-apparent, Elizabeth's son would become the Duke of Cornwall in the peerage of England and the Duke of Rothesay in the peerage of Scotland. The latter dukedom, which used to be borne by the eldest sons of the Kings of Scotland, has followed the dukedom of Cornwall since the accession of King James VI of Scotland as King James of England.

Their heir-apparent does not automatically become the Prince of Wales as this title is conferred at the sovereign's pleasure and in fact there have been six Dukes of Cornwall who have not been created Prince of Wales.

The last Prince of Wales, now the Duke of Windsor, became the Duke of Cornwall on the accession of his father to the throne in 1910 and was created Prince of Wales June 26 that year.

Miner Killed Accidentally, Jury Concludes

A verdict of accidental death was returned Tuesday by a jury inquiring into the death of August Wegener, killed at Emerald Mine near Salmo Nov. 7.

"After hearing of evidence by several witnesses, and particularly the testimony of M. J. Mitchell, Inspector of Mines, we conclude that Mr. Wegener came to his death by accidental means," the jury stated. It added: "We do most strongly recommend that all miners called to work in extremely dangerous situations or positions such as this one, should be compelled to wear such safety equipment as provided by the mines in compliance with Government regulations."

Wegener was apparently crushed by a pile of recently-blasted rock. Jurors were Ernest Collinson, foreman; Joseph F. Crosby, Jack Morgan, John W. Dewar, Clarence Jameson and Chris D. Olson. Dr. F. M. Auld, District Coroner, presided.

19 RUSSIANS EXPELLED FROM FRANCE

Blamed for Interference in Labor Crisis

RALLY BROKEN UP

PARIS, Nov. 26 (AP)—The Cabinet has decided on terms of an offer to the General Confederation of Labor to end widespread strikes in France, a communique said today.

Interior Minister Meeh also announced that the Government will within a week ask the National Assembly to frame a law regulating the right to strike.

PARIS, Nov. 21 (AP)—The Interior Ministry announced today the expulsion from France of 19 Russians for "interference in French affairs" during the current labor crisis, which erupted in new violence as police and strikers battled in the streets of Lyon.

The announcement identified the Russians as members of the "Soviet Patriotic Union" and said they included the President, the Treasurer and two Secretaries-General of the organization.

The 19 were taken by bus to an unattended destination, believed the Soviet zone of Germany, and put across the border, the Ministry said. The Minister said the four expelled officers were President Katchva, Treasurer Krivo-Chine and Secretaries-General Dmitri Mobalev and Alexander Palevov. The announcement said most of the group formerly were White Russians who became Soviet citizens after France was liberated.

In Lyon police used tear gas to break up a strikers' march on the prefecture after a mass labor rally called by the Communist-dominated General Confederation of Labor.

Several persons were reported injured in fighting between police and the demonstrators. Eye-witnesses estimated the number of strikers participating in the demonstration at approximately 20,000.

The strikers retired when police used the tear gas.

In Paris, additional mobile guards and police were thrown around railway stations as trains continued to move on some lines in defiance of a general strike called by the National Federation of Railroad Workers.

This would be the second general rail strike call in five months by the Federation of Railroad Workers, which has some 600,000 members. The order was designed to halt even the intermittent service that has been operating on some lines since individual locals walked out last week to enforce demands that the present minimum wage of $58 a month be increased to $90 at the current exchange rates.

CREATES TERROR

France's new Secretary of State for Communications, Eugene Thomas, issued a communique declaring that "Communist elements" were using "intimidation and menace and trying to create an atmosphere of terror" to overthrow an anti-strike decision yesterday by the majority of the Postal Workers' Union.

It was reported that Premier Robert Schuman's inner Cabinet had agreed on a double-barrelled policy calling for general wage increases and stern law enforcement measures to combat the wave of strikes and disorders.

Informed sources said that the program would be presented to the full Cabinet for consideration later in the day and that if approved the wage increases would then be offered to union leaders.

It was believed likely that Schuman might follow this up with a broadcast appeal to the strikers.

Would Bring Freight Rates On Even Levels

OTTAWA, Nov. 2 (CP)—Western rail rates should not be increased until those in the East have been brought up to Western levels, Manitoba counsel Wilson E. McLean declared today before the Board of Transport Commissioners.

Arguing against a general 30 per cent freight rate boost, Mr. McLean submitted:

1. No increase should be imposed in the West "until there is removal of the disparity presently existing."
2. If this will not raise enough revenue then the railways should boost rates "presently at uneconomically low levels because of competition which has either disappeared or is not effective."

However, Mr. McLean contended the railways had failed altogether to prove they needed more revenue, declaring the 1947 picture showed them in healthy financial condition.

Opening the case for British Columbia after Mr. McLean's submission, C. K. Guild of Vancouver declared freight rates affecting the Pacific Province were neither reasonable nor fair.

British Columbia was "the end of the line" and its industries were largely dependent on freight rates in moving their products to Eastern markets.

"The full effect of increases would be felt by all our people," he said, "and if horizontal (percentage) increases were granted, they would be felt in British Columbia to a greater degree than anywhere else in Canada."

Mr. McLean, dealing with the West's claim that the rate level in West is higher than in the East, said this had been demonstrated in evidence given by R. E. Moffat, Manitoba economist witness.

Mr. McLean said there was no validity to the argument of Isaac Pitblado, chief railway counsel, that the West got a "definite advantage" in this case, since certain export grain rates were not being touched.

These grain rates were statutory, said the Manitoba counsel, and the railways could not use their existence to "refuse relief on other rates effective in the West."

He also termed "unsound" the argument of Mr. Pitblado that "as a greater percentage of the proposed increase will come from Eastern than from Western Canada, no difference (in rates) should be made."

Mr. McLean said this difference in percentage—51.2 per cent in the East and 48.8 in the West—was "so small as to nullify this as a reason."

Dealing with problems of other Western Provinces, Mr. McLean:

1. Opposed removal of the "mountain differential" on freight hauled over the Rockies. Removal is sought by British Columbia.
2. Declared Alberta's position at the "apex of the freight structure" could be remedied only by the Federal Government on a national basis.

Begin Anew to Break Finnish Strike

HELSINKI, Nov. 26 (AP)—The Finnish Government began new conferences with a committee of civil servants today in an effort to break a strike for higher pay which has stopped trains, closed schools, grounded planes, tied up ships and severed almost every connection between Finland and the outside world.

Forty thousand civil officials in every branch of Government service, except police and defence, joined the work stoppage, which began at midnight despite a stern warning broadcast by Prime Minister Mauno Pekkala, who said the strikers were risking loss of their jobs.

Mr. McLean said this difference in percentage—51.2 per cent in the East and 48.8 in the West—was "so small as to nullify this as a reason."

Dealing with problems of other Western Provinces, Mr. McLean:

1. Opposed removal of the "mountain differential" on freight hauled over the Rockies. Removal is sought by British Columbia.

25 Doukhobors Convicted of Riotous Burning; Sentences Later

Twenty-five Doukhobor men and women Wednesday were convicted of riotous burning of a Shoreacres house in the Nelson Court of Assize after three full days of testimony. The jury of 12 deliberated only half an hour.

The 25, dressed in the rumpled yet colorful garb of their sect, sat quietly while foreman J. A. Ferguson read the decision of "guilty." They were remanded for sentence by Mr. Justice H. S. Wood to the end of the criminal assizes.

The courtroom was crowded to capacity during the entire trial and Wednesday the Courthouse was surrounded by Doukhobors awaiting word of the decision. Officers of the B.C. Provincial Police kept a watchful eye on the gatherings and closed gates into the grounds.

Conviction on the charge of being "riotously and tumultuously assembled to the disturbance of public peace and unlawfully and riotously destroying by fire a building" brings a possibility of a maximum sentence of life imprisonment.

In his charge to the jury, Mr. Justice Wood warned them to measure the defence and prosecution carefully. "As far as I can make out, their only defence is that they did not commit a crime because they had the consent of the occupants—a mutual fire." Confining his address to the problem confronting the jury in reaching a conclusion, he outlined the entire case from both the Crown's and defendants' point of view.

W. W. Ferguson, Counsel for the Crown, also summarized the case in his address, giving a brief account of the evidence against each individual.

TWO SPEAK IN DEFENCE

Only two Doukhobors, Bill Markin and Nastia Arishenkoff, took the stand in their own defence. Five addressed the jury and three witnesses, who testified to the large number involved in the occurrence, were called from the spectators. The others remained in their places, silently confirming earlier announcements that "God is our defence."

Bill Markin on taking the stand said the fire "is a mutual one. The evidence is prefabricated and false. We were given no resistance."

In backing his statement, Markin said "Although I am a cripple, no one could come and burn my house without my consent. The arrangements were made before."

He stated that when the group of almost 100 men and women arrived at the house "everything was in readiness for us. I myself could not enter because of my handicap. I stood aside and watched. I was a participant."

Mr. Justice Wood summed up Markin's defence by saying "in order to be a riot, there must be force and violence. Is that your defence?"

"Yes," Markin replied, "that is what I say. There was no force used." Earlier witnesses for the Crown testified that violence had been used to prevent the occupants of the house from resisting.

"They knew in Canada what kind of people we were, yet they admitted us," Nastia Arishenkoff said from the stand. Mrs. Arishenkoff, an elderly woman, like the rest of the witnesses refused to take oath on the Bible, swearing to tell the truth by bread, salt and water—symbols of Doukhobors beliefs. The three items were kept near the stand.

The Sons of Freedom were fighting against a Third World War, she emphasized, "we beg you, do not

Forecast General Country-Wide Italian Strike

ROME, Nov. 26 (AP)—Rome newspapers, echoing last week's threat by the pro-Communist Socialist leader, Pietro Nenni, forecast today a general country-wide strike that will include even Italy's public services.

As it did with the Nenni announcement, the Italian General Confederation of Labor, only organization which could call such a strike in Italy, ridiculed the report.

Nenni last week said he opposed "drop by drop" demonstrations (which have freckled Italy during the last two weeks as Leftists assailed Premier Alcide de Gasperi's Government) and that he favored a general strike throughout Italy to protest against "violence against workers."

Kinnaird Residents Ask Exclusion of Area From Proposed Regulations After Bitter Meeting With Official

KINNAIRD, B. C., Nov. 26 — A resolution requesting the Provincial Government to exclude the Kinnaird area from the proposed lower Columbia regulated area, is being forwarded from this community. The resolution followed a stormy four-hour meeting attended by some 50 residents and J. H. Doughty-Davis, Regional Planning Officer for the Department of Municipal Affairs, held to discuss the proposal to regulate late subdivision, building and zoning in an area between Castlegar and the International Border.

be confined to the regulations themselves. Neither he nor Mr. Davis were able to answer questions of Government policy or questions relating to any department other than the Regional Planning Board.

A. G. Cameron, Trail lawyer, who arrived late at the meeting and did not hear this request, bitterly and heatedly attacked Government policies in regard to application of the Town Planning Act, declaring "it is being crammed down our throats."

The amendment to the Act making planning applicable to unorganized areas of the province had not been up for discussion in the house. It was sure to lose out if put to a vote, he said.

The Planning Officer explained that the Goldenberg report on municipal-provincial relations had advocated the regulation of unorganized areas.

"I don't know who he (H. Carl Goldenberg) is and I'm sure there are others here who don't know," the lawyer boomed.

"There are apparently a number of other things you don't know," Mr. Davis replied, at which Mr. Cameron reminded him that he was a taxpayer and demanded and had the right to know what was going on. He drew great applause from the crowded hall when he cried, "The black shirts are not in control here."

Mr. Davis said that while the proposed regulations were based on those in force at Kelowna and Vernon they were not binding in present form, being merely a basis for discussion. Purpose of the meeting was to obtain the views of the residents and to accept and forward any recommendations to the Regional Planning Division. When a complete draft of regulations for the area in question had been compiled and made the subject of an order-in-council, copies would be distributed for study by the residents, following which a series of public hearings would be conducted. The regulations would not come into force until such times as any further amendments had been made.

He read all 43 of the proposed regulations, answering a large number of questions from the audience. Nothing in the subdivision regulations would affect existing buildings which might be continued unless prejudicial to health or public interest. The regulations applied only to new subdivisions being aimed at making them more attractive and preventing decreases in property values.

Asked who would be responsible for the snowplowing and grading of the subdivision minor roads called for in the regulations, Mr. Davis replied that all roads were a matter for the Public Works Department.

A questioner wanted to know why this area was chosen to be regulated. Mr. Davis explained that regulated areas already existed in Kelowna and Vernon and that the Lower Columbia area was only one of five others in the process of being developed. It was the Government's plan to regulate all populated areas in the province. Purpose was to prevent exploitation of present development and the decreasing of property values. Without regulations there was nothing to prevent industry or nuisances from coming in and forcing such property depreciation.

"However, if you don't want that protection, tell me you don't want it, and I will pass the word along and the chances are the regulations will not go into effect."

A questioner wanted to know why the regulations were not put into effect in 1925 (when the Town Planning Act was passed). People had moved into areas of Kinnaird's type to get away from regulations.

Also from friends in the Okanagan it had been learned that hundreds of dollars were having to be spent resulting from application of the regulations. "Our people went to fight people like Hitler and now we have to fight them at home."

Mr. Davis explained that regulation of unorganized areas had not commenced in 1925 because only a little over a year ago had the Government extended the terms of the Town Planning Act to include unorganized areas. Since that time the Government had been going ahead with developing regulated areas.

He assured the questioner that there had been no cases of increased costs in the Kelowna area. He did say, however, that as a result of the issuing of building permits, the Provincial Assessor had been able to raise assessments on improved buildings which would otherwise have been carried out without his knowledge. There had been a half million dollar's worth of building in the Kelowna area since the regulations went into effect.

While the regulations laid down highway widths they were applicable only to the development of new subdivisions. The works department had long-range plans for development of highways which these regulations could not alter, but which would tie in with such plans, Mr. Davis said.

There was a long discussion on highways and their widening, during which Mr. Davis explained that the 80 feet called for in the regulations was overall width from property line to property line, not just the travelled portion, applying only to populated areas.

Another member of the audience complained that the present road was adequate for at least three generations, that air travel was doing away with much car traffic and that the minor subdivision roads would be unnecessary. Rather, a better plan would be to have a four-lane highway between Trail and Nelson.

This would do away with the necessity for a lot of secondary roads.

In respect to the minimum of 800 square feet of floor space for houses proposed by the regulations, Mr. Davis said there was nothing to prevent the erection of smaller temporary houses. He did not think the inspector would name a time limit in bona fide cases where it was the intention to increase the size of the house to the required minimum. The regulation calling for this size was aimed at preventing erection of permanent shacks.

Answering an opinion from the audience that the inspector would be vested with too much power, Mr. Davis explained that there was always the Appeal Board, empowered to relax the regulation in cases of hardship.

Replying to criticism of the National Building code as being used with respect to structural and plumbing details, Mr. Davis said it was only used to give a uniform regulation. It was suggested from the audience that the VLA building regulations would be less stringent than the National Building code.

Others felt that the National Building code would increase building costs to such an extent that home building for the low income groups would be out of the question.

Busy Month for Kimberley Auxiliary

KIMBERLEY, B. C., Nov. 26—Activities of the Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion have been extensive this month. Members conducted the sale of poppies in the district and reported a very generous response.

A number of members attended divine service at All Saints Church Nov. 9, and on Nov. 11 all members took part in the Remembrance Day parade and service.

At the general meeting $15 was sent to Tranquille and a social hour following the meeting netted a goodly number of packets of cigarettes—the admission fee—which will go to Tranquille for Christmas.

Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. Phentiff and Mrs. Gillis were chosen to look after the Christmas tree for Legion children.

CANON PASSES FAIR NIGHT

WINNIPEG, Nov. 26 (CP)—Canon John Turner "passed a fair night" at Winnipeg General Hospital, Dr. M. M. Speechly, representative of the Church of England, reported today after consultation with Dr. Oliver Waugh, Canon Turner's physician.

"He is taking nourishment better and the spinal pressure is not as great as it was. Although Canon Turner's temperature is not yet normal, it is gradually falling, and his pulse is steady."

The missionary, suffering from a compound fracture of the skull and meningitis, was flown here Saturday from Moffet Inlet, 1700 miles North of Winnipeg.

10,000 Dutch To Emigrate To Canada

OTTAWA, Nov. 26 (CP)—A total of 10,000 Dutch agriculturists will emigrate to Canada next year and will work on farms until such time as they can arrange to settle on land of their own, it was announced today.

The announcement was made by Resources Minister Glen and Dr. A. S. Tulman, Agricultural Attaché of The Netherlands Embassy, here.

The immigrants will be over and above the 20,000 persons Canada has agreed to accept from displaced sons camps in Europe.

To facilitate the passage of the Dutch to Canada, The Netherlands Government has chartered two vessels, the S.S. Tabinta and the S.S. Kotabaroe. They will make 13 trips, carrying approximately 770 passengers each time.

OIL PRODUCTION HIGH

REGINA, Nov. 26 (CP)—Oil production in Northwestern Saskatchewan's Lloydminster oil field during October was approximately three times the entire production of 1946, Resources Minister J. L. Phelps said today.

He predicted more than 800,000 barrels would be produced from the field's 67 wells this year. October production was 89,370 barrels—7632 more than in September.

land at next month's elections, officials of the School Board said today.

The program includes construction of a new $800,000 junior and senior high school here, new schools in the Gill and Franklin River Districts, and alterations and additions to the Alberni elementary school.

Declare War Against High Feed Grain Costs

VANCOUVER, Nov. 26 (CP)—Twin battle lines were drawn up today as the B. C. Federation of Agriculture opened its 14th annual convention here by declaring war on the high cost of feed grains and advocating the retention of the ban on the sale of oleomargarine in Canada.

A resolution requesting the Federal Government to continue to prohibit the manufacture, importation or sale of margarine was adopted by Federation directors, who voted to ask Agriculture Minister Frank Putnam to carry the fight to Ottawa.

J. B. Munro, Provincial Deputy Minister of Agriculture, already has promised his full support to the representation.

Federation members joined with the parent body, the Canadian Federation of Agriculture in demanding restoration of subsidies on coarse grains and the reapportionment of ceiling prices.

P. E. French, Federation President, in his annual speech, emphasized the fight to remove the burden of school costs from the land.

A strong brief was presented to the School Tax Commission at Vernon earlier this month and a second submission would be made early next month when additional data is expected to be accumulated, he stated.

Statement on New Price Ceilings Expected Today

OTTAWA, Nov. 26 (CP)—The Prices Board is expected to announce tomorrow the new price ceilings being reimposed in the most important varieties of canned fruits and vegetables.

Finance Minister Abbott announced Monday that the Government had decided to reimpose ceilings on those commodities to stem "unjustified" price ceilings which had followed the announcement of quota restrictions being instituted under the new dollar-saving program. At the same time, he stressed that there was no shortage of basic food products in Canada.

The expectation is that the new ceilings will roll prices back to where they were before the quota system was announced.

Tomorrow's announcement will be followed by another, possibly early next week, detailing plans to reimpose markup control, the method by which trade profits are limited to a percentage of costs, on fresh fruits and vegetables and canned fruit juices.

Close Two Crown Ranges Near Cranbrook

CRANBROOK, B. C., Nov. 26—Notice has been issued by the Forest Branch of closure of two districts of crown rangeland in East Kootenay effective December 15 for a three months' period, in further efforts to rid public range of useless and un-owned horses who consume annually considerable range food to no purpose. Clearance of public range is in line with the district policy of the past few years of conserving available public range for the beef livestock industry which becomes increasingly important agriculturally each year.

For the third consecutive year the Waldo Stockbreeders' Association district will close its range, extending from the railway tracks through Elko South to the boundary and including the territory to Bull River. An estimated 700 unclaimed horses have been shot or otherwise disposed of in this area during the past two closures, appreciably increasing grazing opportunities for cattle.

In Cranbrook district the grazing lands within the bounds of the Cranbrook Farmers' Institute and Livestock Association stretching from Moyle Northward to the boundary of the Ta Ta Creek-Skookumchuck district, and including Fort Steele and the Bull River district, will close. This area was closed for the winter quarter two years ago, but few horses were removed at that time. An estimated several hundred unowned and wild horses are believed on this range.

Following the closure the Waldo Association will appoint its agent for disposing of the unclaimed animals in its grazing district, and the Cranbrook Institute will appoint its agent for the Cranbrook district.

Hornet Goalle Sought By Hawks

By The Canadian Press
Bill Tobin is still seeking to mend Chicago Black Hawks' broken hockey fences.

The Chicago Club's President sped in and out of Toronto yesterday in quest of a goal-tender. Tobin would like to obtain Baz Bastien of Pittsburgh Hornets of the American League and he talked about that with Managing Director Conny Smythe of Toronto Maple Leafs, parent club of the Hornets. But Smythe appraised Tobin of the fact that Bastien actually was owned by Hornets. Tobin then headed for New York where it was understood he would confer with John Harris, Pittsburgh President.

JACKSON FAILS

Hawks seemed to profit on offence by the recent deal where they picked up five players from Leafs in exchange for Max Bentley and Cy Thomas. But their defensive record didn't show any improvement. They tried switching goalies—using Doug Jackson for Emile Francis—but Jackson failed to stem the tide, allowing 17 goals in two games.

Claim Preparing for Possible Failure Of Big Four Meet

MOSCOW, Nov. 26 (AP)—Tass News Agency said in a London dispatch today that Foreign Secretary Bevin of Britain and the British press were preparing the public in advance for possible failure of the Foreign Ministers' Council conference on Germany and Austria.

The dispatch, prominently displayed in all Moscow newspapers, said Bevin's expression of pessimism and the tone of the British Press indicated an attempt to ascribe such a breakdown in advance to the Soviet Union.

The press was "frightening readers in every way over the poor prospects of the conference and (presenting) it as if the conference were almost the last chance for the great powers to reach agreements," the dispatch said.

FRENCH WOMAN CABINET MINISTER HAS BROAD PLAN
 By CARL HARTMAN
 PARIS, Nov. 26 (AP)—France's first woman cabinet minister is the nearest thing to a prohibitionist in this part of the world, but she drinks wine with her meals and says she likes a "little glass" of something stronger now and then.
 Mme. Germaine Poinso-Chapuis has been installed in the Ministry of Health and the one-room-and-bath apartment that goes with it. She is delighted with the apartment.
 Mme. Poinso-Chapuis lives with her husband and two sons, Maurice, nine, and Jean Marie, two, in Marseille. She has been staying with a friend when she comes to overcrowded Paris.
 Denying any intention to prohibit the use of alcohol in France, she explained:
 "I don't want to trust the saltness or docility of people. I want to be a realist."
 She proposes encouragement of non-alcoholic drinks, a broad education and recreation program, and ample medical treatment to fight alcoholism and drunkenness.

Deposits at New High for Bank Of Montreal
 MONTREAL, Nov. 26 — Again this year, following a practice it originated, the Bank of Montreal has come forward with an easily understandable bank statement for the benefit of its depositors. Unique among bank statements, the report, which covers the 130th year of the Bank of Montreal's career, can be read with complete understanding by everyone.
 In the explanation of "the facts behind the figures," the bank emphasizes that money deposited does not lie idle, but works constantly for the building of the nation.
 The statement is brightened considerably by the addition of thumbnail sketches throughout, and the use of simple, everyday language in place of the more formal financial terms usually found in bank reports.
 Deposits of $1,783,000,000 again set an all-time high, showing an increase of $47,000,000 over the previous year.
 This statement reflects the general trend of business activity throughout the country. For example, commercial loans increased by 39 per cent, denoting the nation's expanding peacetime production. The financing of this expansion has been accompanied by a reduction of holdings of government and other public securities, which now stand at $957,000,000.
 Heightened industrial activity brought about by the increasing production of peacetime goods found the bank participating to a much greater extent in commercial financing, with holdings of industrial bonds and debentures increased from $56,000,000 in 1946 to $96,000,000 for the year ended October 31, 1947.
 These factors add up to give the bank record-breaking resources of $1,898,000,000. This figure exceeds its obligations to the public by $81,079,000.
 After paying all overness expenses, including staff salaries, bonuses, and contributions to the pension fund, and after making provision for contingencies, and for depreciation of bank premises, furniture and equipment, the Bank of Montreal reports earnings for the year amounting to $9,578,285. To provide for Dominion and Provincial taxes, the bank set aside $4,156,000, leaving net earnings of $5,422,285, compared with $4,487,782 last year. Of this, $3,600,000 was distributed to shareholders, with the balance of $1,823,285 transferred to the profit and loss account.

GIVES FINANCIAL STANDING OF C.P.R. FREIGHT
 OTTAWA, Nov. 26 (CP)—The Canadian Pacific Railway was "unduly pessimistic" in citing financial need as the basis for freight-rate increases, Manitoba Counsel Wilson E. McLean declared today at the National Freight Inquiry.
 Mr. McLean said the company's claims as to its "perilous" and "critical" financial position had been "based upon a misapprehension of the prospects of 1948." The C. P. R.'s forecasts for the year's business had not been borne out.
 The Manitoba Counsel was continuing the final argument for his province before the Board of Transport Commissioners in opposition to 50-per-cent rate increases sought by the railways.
 Mr. McLean suggested the C.P.R. was attempting to take advantage of prosperous times to protect itself against possible setbacks later on.
 He declared that in the first 10 months of 1947 the C.P.R.'s gross operating income was $21,900,000 up from the $242,900,000 of the same period last year. For the whole year the C.P.R. had estimated its gross operating revenues as $287,300,000.
 Rail-freight revenue for the first 10 months of this year at $205,200,000 was up $27,600,000 over the same period of 1946, he said.

Claims Soviets Have Huge Hoard Of Gold to Combat Marshall Plan
 NEW YORK, Nov. 26 (AP)—Paris and Zurich are unwilling to go.
 "The best informed opinion is that it is certainly worth more than $3,000,000,000, and probably not more than $17,000,000,000. The U. S. reserve is $22,000,000,000."
 Prince says that behind a screen of intense secrecy gold production in the Soviet Union has increased rapidly.
 "In 1926, the Soviet Union ranked 15th among the gold-producing countries of the world. In 1936, she moved up to second place, and in 1940 claimed to occupy first place."
 "If, as the Russians insist, they have surpassed the gold production producing today well in excess of 10,000,000 ounces a year, or more than $350,000,000. This compares with current U. S. production of 6,003,000 ounces and the Canadian output of 5,311,000 ounces in 1940."
 "Exactly how big the Soviet gold hoard is, nobody outside the Soviet Union knows. Beyond the statement that it is the world's second largest gold reserve, official sources in Washington, New York, London, and Paris are silent."

 The Princess said today she and the Prince wished to spend the rest of their honeymoon "absolutely to themselves."

SCIENCE has proved there are certain food elements everyone needs for health. If there aren't enough of them in a child's food, serious things can happen—such as stunted growth, soft bones, poor teeth, faulty nerves, loss of appetite, defective eyesight.
 Ovaltine supplements the diet with elements frequently deficient in ordinary foods. Three servings of Ovaltine furnish a significant portion of a child's daily requirements of Vitamins A, B<sub>1</sub>, C, D, Riboflavin (B<sub>2</sub>), and Niacin and Minerals Calcium, Phosphorus and Iron.
 In addition it provides the basic food substances—complete proteins to build muscle, nerve and body cells—high-energy foods for vitality and endurance. It thus acts as an insurance against food deficiencies that retard normal growth.
 So if your child eats poorly, is thin, underperforms, perhaps nervous, why not try delicious Ovaltine for normal growth and better appetite.

The Great American Fake How White Slave Law is Used

It is likely some will be offended at the topic I am taking today, but I feel my choice is justified.

Uncle Sam's Federal Bureau of Investigation, the highly factual and impartial Associated Press asks us to believe, has "smashed a nationwide white slave ring" by having its agents, the famed G-men, swoop down on 47 people in four states, 35 of the people being detained as witnesses. (Monday's Daily News front page.)

This leaves 12 to be charged, and J. Edgar Hoover mentions that 11 have been charged. The remaining arrestee, a San Francisco waitress, is stated by the A. P. to have been "picked up on white slave charges" so presumably figures so far only as a suspect.

Of the 47 people, 45 were gathered in in Ohio, principally in one little city or town I don't remember to have heard of before. The waitress singled out represents California, though formerly from the Ohio place mentioned. To round out the 47, one individual is needed, who must be from both St. Louis and Illinois, and since we have to find four states, we must assume this party divides his or her allegiance between St. Louis, Mo., and East St. Louis, Ill.

Finally, we are told, the aim of the raids was to break up the white slavery operation in the aforesaid Ohio community.

What a grandiloquent description, the destruction of a nationwide white slave ring, to apply to a set of vice raids relating to one small place! The raids aren't described as "delivering a smashing blow" at the alleged country-wide ring, but as breaking it up.

Assuredly this is an over-playing of the facts!

Yet this is only in accord with the customary hoopoe that surrounds this particular Federal law.

To my mind, the U. S. law against white slavery is the Great American Fake.

INTERNATIONAL ACTION TAKEN

When William Howard Taft was President of the United States, one of the subjects being discussed internationally—that was before there was a League of Nations—was the possibility of international police action against the white slave traffic, which preyed upon all countries, impartially. An international convention was arrived at, and many treaties were signed and later ratified, by which each signatory country undertook to enact a law with teeth in it against the white slaver. Every signatory country made it a crime to import a white slave. It was understood that all the countries subscribing to the convention would exchange information, so as to smash, and keep smashed, the international white slave ring that all conceded was operating.

President Taft, I might say, both strongly advocated this convention, and after it was signed, urged its implementation by the U. S. Congress, and after the required statute was enacted, spoke loudly and long as to this great accomplishment.

UNCLE SAM'S FIELD

INTER-STATE
Now, under the U. S. Constitution, Uncle Sam may not step into any of the 48 states and start dealing with crime there. His field is pretty well limited to inter-state traffic, inter-state commerce, inter-state crime. Fraudulent use of the mails across a state boundary, theft across a state boundary such as may be involved in a car theft, and the like, are automatically up the F.B.I. alley. So, in the U. S. anti-white slavery law, it was made a crime to transport a woman across a state line for immoral purposes.

You are aware that, in addition to the U. S. legal machinery, and the legal machinery of 48 states, every organized county in every state has a prosecuting attorney, who is elected by the voters.

Well, these thousands of prosecuting attorneys received Uncle Sam's anti-white slavery enactment with open arms, and with whoops of delight.

It offered a perfectly wonderful chance to get after, not the white slave rings, but innumerable individuals who were not impeachable in their private relations.

The very first published prosecution under that Federal statute was not of a white slaver, but of a wealthy California playboy. That was about 1911 or 1912. For weeks that man was pilloried. I don't remember how the case ended.

There have been untold thousands of prosecutions of individuals having no connection with slavery, under that statute. It was Taft's great gift to American prosecuting attorneys, and it has been worked for all it was worth, for over 35 years, on those fines—getting after the personally immoral if they happened to have crossed a state line.

Meanwhile, hardly a dent has been put in the white slave traffic. And breaking up of a traffic in human beings was supposed to be the object of that legislation.

So far as results go in relation to the supposed objective, and considering the way this statute is generally made use of by law authorities, I think it is fully entitled to be called the Great American Fake. And you can say it twice.

Believes Canada on Threshold Of Great Trade Opportunities

MONTREAL, Nov. 26 (CP) — Trade Minister MacKinnon told Canadian business today it was his opinion following a 25,000-mile trade tour to a dozen countries that Canada was an extremely favored nation and stood on the threshold of great trade opportunities.

In a speech at a meeting of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, the Minister reviewed conditions in the various countries visited and disclosed that many large European firms are making immediate plans to establish "very substantial branch plants in Canada." He did not elaborate on this.

"We have seen something of the domestic problems faced by other nations of local conditions of soil, of climate and geographical location," the Minister said. "In all these respects Canada seems to me to be extremely favored among the nations. In this perspective, our own difficulties, though real, seem much less imposing."

"In so many respects, providence has been most bountiful to Canada, in our resources and by our strategic position in the world, Canadians hold a trust in their keeping. As a nation Canada can be a vitally important instrument in shaping the future of all mankind."

R. C. Berkinshaw, President of the C. M. A., who accompanied Mr. MacKinnon and a number of other Canadian business men on the tour which began in South Africa and wound up in Portugal, also addressed the meeting.

PRESS SEARCH FOR MAN IN Love Strangling

MONTREAL, Nov. 26 (CP)—Police here and in Ottawa today pressed the search for a 34-year-old Ottawa man who they said admitted in a letter that he strangled a 34-year divorcee "because nobody will have her if I can't."

The body of the victim, Mrs. Tillie Deprato, was found last night in her lover's room by detectives alerted by a letter sent to her sister in which the man, identified by police as Sylvio Albert of Ottawa, told her of the slaying.

The detectives had to smash through a door to get into Albert's room where they found Mrs. Deprato's body fully-clothed and wrapped in a blanket. Her face and neck showed marks of the fingers which strangled her.

There were two more letters in the room in which Albert spoke of his great love for her and said that he was too jealous to stand by while she went out with other men. Police said that one note signed by Albert indicated that he also planned his own death. The note, apparently meant for police, simply said: "You will find us here together."

It was Montreal's third love strangling since last February and in both cases the slayers identified themselves in notes to police left near their dead sweethearts. Each was found guilty of manslaughter.

ed a "most-favorable atmosphere for further development of a two-way trade between us." He advised Canadian business men to make contact directly with their foreign customers to gain a first-hand understanding of the relative possibilities for closer and more intimate economic association.

Mr. MacKinnon said that in Britain he got the feeling that Britain was steadily, if slowly, increasing her production and ultimately her trade export. He found the people much more alive and interested in the future than in 1946.

Of all the countries visited "South Africa appeared to be the most promising long-term outlet for Canadian products."

South Africa would absorb substantial quantities of newsprint, wheat and wheat products, canned and dried fish, electrical appliances heavy railway and transportation equipment, stoves and refrigerators.

But Canadian exporters should be careful to send only quality products. He told of the case of a shipment of "definitely inferior" lumber from Eastern Canada which had cost a South African firm a loss of $200,000. Canadians should make certain this sort of thing "simply does not happen."

415 AMERICANS IN OLYMPICS

LONDON, Nov. 26 (AP)—The United States has entered 415 athletes for the Olympic Games here next Summer — the highest total of any of the competing countries. Great Britain is second with 308.

The maximum number of entries for each country is 481, of which 69 must be women.

VANCOUVER, (CP)—David and John Andrist, fishermen brothers, have invented and patented an automatic fishhook baiter. It is a steel and aluminum machine capable, they claim, of baiting more than 60 hooks a minute.

Costly Machinery

IN the coastal region of British Columbia you can't make lumber by hand. It is an industry of big trees. That means its a heavy industry.

For every single workman on a company's payroll, someone must put up thousands of dollars ... as much as six or seven thousand dollars per employee ... to buy the tools of timber production.

Making lumber at a profit, then, becomes the joint enterprise of the people who put their money into tools of production and the people who receive good pay cheques steadily because they have the right tools to work with.

These tools wear out ... become obsolete ... have to be replaced. The industry must operate at a profit so that it can buy the new efficient machinery needed to pay good wage rates and keep B. C. lumber competitively priced in far distant markets.

Thus steady jobs, good wages, ability to sell lumber as reasonably as competitors, all depend absolutely on adequate profits being earned.

W. C. McDonald, '45 Winner, Cops 1947 Gyro Derby; Mrs. L. C. Grennell Leads Fishereffe Section With 19 Pounder

There may be a few big ones that got away this year but a 22 pound, eight ounce Rainbow that swallowed W. C. McDonald's lure was big enough to place in first spot in the Nelson Gyro Club Trout Derby of 1947.

The 24 winners along with five prize grabbers were made known during the Annual Gyro Trout Derby banquet at the Trinity Church Wednesday night.

Mr. McDonald is a familiar figure in fishing circles hereabouts, having won the derby prize in 1945 with a 23 pound, 14 ounce. The 1947 derby was won by his father, Captain J. A. McDonald.

Early in the season Mrs. L. C. Grennell of Spokane netted a whopper which dipped the scales to 19 pounds, 12 ounces. She held the lead during the late Summer and Fall, her nearest competitor, Mrs. G. A. Donaldson of Nelson, falling short by more than two pounds with a catch of 17 pounds, 10 ounces.

There was a change in the derby picture just before it closed when G. D. Barwis of Sunshine Bay pulled out a 21 pound, 12 ounce breaker on the tie on second spot held by A. H. Ronmark of Nelson and Daye Parker of Vancouver, who were standing on their laurels with trout weighed in at the 20-pound mark.

There were only four catches 20 pounds or better in the 241 entries. First, second and third prizes were the only ones given to fishermen with catches of over 20 pounds.

Boost for Robison; Hope Name Manager Soon
 NEW YORK, Nov. 26 (AP)—Brooklyn Dodgers will offer Jackie Robison a "substantial increase" in salary for the 1948 season and hope to be able to announce their 1948 manager before the close of the major league baseball meetings Dec. 10, President Branch Rickey said today.

In guarded replies to questions posed at him during a Press conference, Rickey explained that he had been "working directly" on the managerial situation for the last six days.

Rickey said he has no meetings scheduled with either Leo Durocher, the manager who was suspended through the 1947 season by Baseball Commissioner A. B. Chandler, or Burt Shotton, who handled the Dodgers last Summer.

Bares Background Leafs Weakness; Feels Team's Attitude Not Justified

To the Editor:
 Sir—Under prevailing circumstances and for the benefit of all concerned, I take the opportunity of writing this letter to the general public of Nelson, and the Executive of the Maple Leafs.

After being with the Club such a short period, and making such an unimpressive showing to date, someone must be the goat.

I came here six weeks ago with all intent of doing my utmost for a team which many persons in the Kootenays figured could be developed into an Allan Cup contender. Up until now this has proved to be untrue. With the loss of last year's outstanding defence men Barefoot and Krizan, plus Kilpatrick, a 40-point man, the reshuffling of Tatchell, a 35-point man, to defence, I have had very little to work with. Unfortunately, financially the Executive could not retain certain boys whom I had here, thus the miserable showing to date.

I have been more than fair, and tolerated more than the average coach does, and as the general public knows, certain players should be benched right now, but if I am forced to resign and a new coach is elected to run the team and he tries to run it fair and square like I tried to do, he too will find himself in the exact same position as I. To date I have benched one player, Doug Winlaw, and replaced him with a last year's man, Johnny Hryciuk, who proved to the team and myself over the last weekend, that he deserves to play for the Club regardless of what some of the boys think. The boys as a Club could not see this move. Why I can't figure out as Johnny picked up four points in three games, more than one complete line of last year's players have done in 81 periods of PINEHURST, N.C., Nov. 26 (AP)—Eric Green and Jimmy Adams, members of the British Ryder Cup team, defeated Frank Stranahan and Dick Chapman of the United States Walker Cup team, 2 and 1, in an international exhibition golf match here today. Green turned in the best medal round, a two-under-par 78, while his partner, Adams, shot a par 72. Chapman fired a 74 and Stranahan a 75.

Market Trends
 TORONTO (CP)—The downward price trend persisted with golds taking substantial losses and industrials off on a ratio of about two losses for every gain. Weak spots in industrials were foods, steels, utilities and liquors with price changes largely fractional.

NEW YORK (AP)—Stocks put on a highly irregular performance in a quiet pre-holiday market.

MONTREAL (CP)—Papers exhibited an upward trend while other industrial groups were comparatively quiet. Mines were dull and easier.

LONDON (AP)—British Government securities were weak and registered losses of a point. Copper issues were firm following favorable dividends announcements.

CHICAGO (AP)—Buying by commercial interests and a good deal of short-covering caused an upturn in wheat. The bread cereal's strength eventually was reflected in other pits, causing a late rally to develop in corn.

WINNIPEG (CP)—Oats and barley futures prices showed a somewhat erratic trend. There was light selling by both American and local interests. Offerings received with moderate purchases by shippers. Trading was inclined to be inactive.

Barefoot To Rejoin Leafs

hockey to date. The Club as a whole has scored 30 goals in nine games, more than half of these being scored by new players, Koehle and Tatchell making up the rest, all but two.

I have proved to you, Executive and general public, that I was rightly justified in benching this particular player and if I had access to a couple more players I would do likewise to a couple more. The boys claim I either don't know the game or they can't agree to play for me. This is a very poor excuse as I probably am one of the more fortunate boys who had the best of coaching and the distinction of never ever having been on a losing hockey club. My records and references from which the Executive chose me to coach the Club satisfy me any anyone else who would like to see them. Financially, I have fared badly since coming here as I gave up a job in Vancouver of over $200 a month to coach this team at a price I think was very reasonable ($250 a month). But that is not all.

I am leaving Nelson shortly with a bad record, and as you know, the record of two wins in nine games goes with me. I would say offhand that this move will force me to drop hockey altogether, a game which I have diligently studied and in which I have produced good players, some whom have gone to the National Hockey League.

In closing, may I add that I hold nothing but the highest regard for the Executive, who have worked hard in the face of it all, and finally, but true, I do hope the Club beats Trail and Kimberley and proceed to the goal of all hockey players, the Dominion championship, of which I so proudly wear the ring. It is indeed a sorry plight.

GORDON MACKENZIE.

George Barefoot, who was named most valuable player with the Maple Leafs last year, will return to Nelson colors, it was announced by the Nelson Hockey Club here Wednesday night.

Barefoot has obtained his release from the Calgary Stampede and will join the Leafs at Cranbrook and see action at Kimberley Saturday and Monday nights. He will be with the club for the remainder of the season.

Bud Emery, former Nelsonite, also with the Stampede expressed willingness to sign a contract with the Leafs, but was unable to leave his job at Calgary, it was learned.

Try To Drum Up Braddock Parallel For Title Bout

By GAYLE TALBOT
 NEW YORK, Nov. 26 (AP)—In an effort to inject a competitive angle into next week's heavyweight championship fight here, the drum beaters employed are drawing a dramatic parallel between the present status of Jersey Joe Walcott and the plight, back in 1935, of Jim Braddock, the original "Cinderella man."

Braddock was perhaps the hungriest man around before he outstaged Max Baer for the title. Jim had been on relief and had worked as a longshoreman.

So, it turns out, was Walcott on relief before he started the comeback which led to his approaching chance against Joe Louis. The New Jersey Negro also has a much larger family to feed than Braddock had—a wife and six children.

Walcott worked on a construction job, drove an ice truck, mixed cement and carried a hod. It was not until 1944 that Joe hooked up with his present manager, Joe Webster, a rich Camden, N.J., cafe keeper, and started back up the old flistic trail.

"Walcott has been enriched in the last three years with substantial purses," concedes a recent release from Joe's training camp somewhere in the wilds of New Jersey. "Walcott has saved most of his money, so that today he owns a 10-room house, and the larder is well stocked."

Plainly, if Walcott's family still is hungry, then somebody isn't attending to the cooking.

The current odds, which make Jersey Joe an 8-to-1 underdog in man-to-man betting, indicate that the fraternity has not been influenced by publicity.

Record Period of Sunshine For Nova Scotia

Dog Days in November and these schoolboy footballers at Halifax, N.S., find the sunshine a little too warm for strenuous exercise. While West Coast Canadians sloshed through the heaviest rains on record, Nova Scotians basked in one of the longest periods of continuous sunshine ever experienced. At supposedly dampish Halifax the sun failed to shine on only six days in three and a half months. October rainfall, 9-100 of an inch, was the smallest in the history of local weather records.

Winnipeg, (CP)—The war may be over but as far as the Army's Prairie Command bomb disposal section at Fort Osborne barracks is concerned, they're still answering calls from residents who stored war ammunition souvenirs. To date, two aerial bombs have been picked up and one "live" grenade destroyed.

What to Do!

By JACK SULLIVAN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON (CP).—Football Association referees must not blow their whistles for "purely sentimental reasons" and, by love, they had better watch their peas—and no pun intended.

Item 58 of the F.A.'s latest bulletin reminds the refs that their whistles must be heard above the crowd's roar. It adds: "The life of a whistle is not determined by the condition of the outer casing but by the more rapid deterioration of the pea."

Presumably this discovery follows years of scientific research on the part of F.A. experts and it's a pity they didn't give the refs advice on how to get a new pea into an old whistle.

The F.A. item also leads with a neat piece of ambiguity: "Use of a whistle for purely sentimental reasons should be avoided." That's all the ruling association had to say about this but probably it's aimed at those sentimentalists who use the dear old whistle of their big game in 1930 in the belief it will bring them luck.

The Association, in all its wisdom, has left a major problem unsolved: what to do with that numskull who brings his own whistle, particularly when his and the referee's are as alike as two underdeteriorated peas.

Seek Cut in Aid To Europe Program

OTTAWA, Nov. 26 (CP)—Arthur MacNamara, Deputy Minister of Labour, announced today that the Government's National Employment Service is attempting to trace 13 Polish veterans now missing from their places of employment.

The men were among the former members of the Polish army brought to Canada to work on farms.

"The 12 men have left their places of employment without making application to the Employment Service, and it is believed that their purpose is to seek non-agricultural work," said Mr. MacNamara. "Employers are being asked to report any cases of the 12 missing men applying for non-agricultural work."

Mr. MacNamara said he did not plan to release the names of the missing men for publication at this time. The disappearances were not confined to any one area, but were spread all across the country, and occurred over a considerable period of time.

Eastern Group Charged With Trying To Stir Up Japanese

CLOVERDALE, B. C., Nov. 26 — (CP)—Thomas Reid, Liberal Member for New Westminster, B.C., has charged that a group of Eastern Canada lawyers were attempting to stir up Japanese to request reprisal of their British Columbia farms.

Addressing the Surrey Liberal Club last night, Mr. Reid said: "It is not a group of Conservative aides and abettors by the CCF, who were protected from Japanese invasion by British Columbia during the Second World War, who are accusing the Government of robbing the Japanese of their lands in 1941."

Reds Plan Underground Activity in West

By RICHARD KASISCHKE
BERLIN, Nov. 26 (AP)—Recent American intelligence reports say that the Communist party in Western Germany, acting on instructions from Moscow, is making preparations for underground activity in the British and United States occupation zones in the event it should be outlawed as a result of strained relations between the East and West.

Although the United States Military Government has made no move to limit the freedom of the German Communist party (KPD), the intelligence reports said that "KPD anticipates" outlawing if the strain continues and if Germany is permanently partitioned because of the failure of the Russians and the Western powers to agree on unification.

With this in view, these reports say, the Communists are intensifying their efforts to infiltrate into labor unions and "all manner of organized groups, including local food and dairy cooperatives as well as factory groups."

For months the Communists also have sought to gain recognition in the British and American zones for the Socialist Unity Party (SED), a Russian-sponsored amalgamation of Communists and Social Democrats recognized only in the Soviet zone. These efforts have been unavailing because of insufficient popular support.
