Set Hounds After Vancouver Killer

Manager Slain When He Pulls File Over on Holdup Man; Fleeing Gunman Escapes Padre

VANCOUVER, Aug 25 (CP) — Police tonight pressed bloodhounds into the search for a wild-eyed, armed killer, believed hiding in Vancouver's Kitsilano or West End residential districts following the slaying of Sydney S. Petrie, 55, Manager of a Canadian Bank of Commerce branch, during an attempted hold-up.

Decision to use the dogs came after police found the man's coat and vest on a lonely road near the English Bay shoreline, a short distance from where they picked up a full clip of ammunition.

Mr. Petrie died from a bullet-wound in the abdomen one hour after he pulled a heavy file over on the bandit, who fled without getting any loot.

The killer, described as about 30 years of age, dressed blue and holding a newspaper before his face, escaped on foot by dodging between houses.

PADRE GIVES CHASE

Rev. Norman Southcott, tall and athletic veteran padre and a life-long friend of Petrie, witnessed the shooting and chased the bandit down the street.

"He was a fast runner," Mr. Southcott said, "I never had a chance."

Said a frightened girl clerk: "It was all over so quickly, I really don't know what happened except that the manager was shot. The rest of us got on the floor. The gunman fled as soon as he fired the shot."

The banker was a veteran of 30 years service, 20 as manager of this branch.

Police, led by Chief Walter Mulligan, who was accompanied by three bank employees, rushed to the beach area where a suspect was taken into custody.

The man was later released when it was found he had nothing to do with the incident.

Vancouver, B.C. Aug. 25 The new Pacific region of the Canadian Pacific Railway became a concrete organization today with the arrival here of George H. Baillie, newly appointed vice-president of the region, and E. S. McCracken, who takes up the post of general superintendent.

Mr. Baillie, recently General Manager of the former western lines at Winnipeg, called a conference of his officers immediately on his arrival, well known in Vancouver he was a former general superintendent here. The creation of a new Pacific region and the appointment of a vice-president was announced last week by W. M. Neal, CBE, Chairman and President of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

May Invite Canada To Signing Western Hemisphere Treaty

PETROPOLIS, Aug 25 (Reuters) —Canada may be asked to join in signing the proposed Western Hemisphere mutual defence treaty, it was learned today.

The subject suddenly came under discussion among delegates to the Pan-American Defence Conference this weekend and it was said the United States might make a statement this week.

An unofficial Canadian observer was expected shortly for informal talks with delegates.

William Pawley, United States Ambassador to Brazil, went to Rio de Janeiro for a conference yesterday with Jean Desy, Canadian Ambassador to Brazil, and was believed to have sought Canadian reaction to such a proposal.

Convinced From Seances Death Not Fearsome

In his study of the 200 lesser known groups of religion, Dr. Marcus Bach, Professor of Religion at the University of Iowa, found the people he met interesting and the faith they followed sincere. One of the "most entrancing and fascinating" was spiritualism, he told a supper meeting in the Hume of the Rotary Club when the club entertained at a ladies' night.

He told his various experiences with the belief that claims 1,000,000 followers in the United States, explaining that down through the history of spiritualism appeared the names of many great people.

While there were several types of spiritualism, the speaker said, the highest type was materialistic spiritualism where those present at the seances were believed to have seen spirits "of friends or loved ones who had passed on."

"Whether or not what I saw during those seances was genuine, I know now that death is nothing to fear. I found in the world of spiritualism what I had found in other little known religions — intelligent and very likeable people."

Dr. Bach was introduced by W. G. Harold, Past President.

Conference of Rotary District No. 103 will be held in Nelson during the last week in April, 1948, it was announced.

Guests present were Thomas Bevin of Vancouver; Rev P. M. Wheeler of Torrance, Cal., and G. W. Cameron of Lake View.

SQUIRREL, FISH ONLY FOOD OF CRACKUP VICTIM

Pilot Swam to Safety When Punctured Pontoon Upset Plane

IN HOSPITAL

GOOSE BAY, Labrador, Aug. 21 (Delayed) (CP)—How he lived on the wild North St. Lawrence shore for eight days without food except for a squirrel and fish he caught with his bare hands was told today by a Pickering, Ont., flier from his hospital bed here.

The pilot, Jack B. Mutton, was flying a light Fox Moth plane on a photographic mission out of Rapide Lake, Que., Aug. 10 when he landed on a small nameless lake 80 miles South of this huge airbase.

Taking off next morning one pontoon was punctured and started to fill with water. The aircraft tilted and a gust of wind nosed it over.

Mutton swam ashore through the icy water.

The plane, battered and wrecked, washed ashore later.

He managed to salvage a small tin of matches from the wreckage. But again his spirits fell when he found the matches too wet to light. He tried to ignite some gun powder but this too, failed.

"The only thing that saved me," he said, "was a sheet of aluminum carried for emergency repairs on pontoons with which I signalled to the Catalina flying boat which performed the rescue."

Wheat Crop Estimate Uncertain Until Harvest

WINNIPEG, Aug. 25 (CP)—Canada's 1947 wheat crop appeared today to be somewhere between 340,000,000 and 360,000,000 bushels with the actual figure uncertain until harvesting, now under way in many sections, is completed.

In any event, agriculturists concede, there is no possibility of a crop to equal last year's approximately 418,000,000 bushels. A late Spring, hail, insects, drought in some areas, too much rain in others, and disease have combined to cloud a once-optimistic picture.

A Bureau of Statistics estimate earlier this month placed the country's wheat crop at 358,786,000 bushels, 339,696,000 of which were to come from the Prairie Provinces.

Since then, however, private estimates have put the Prairie harvest as low as 321,000,000 bushels.

Thirsty Spuds Get Costly Drink

ASHLAND, Me., Aug. 25 (CP) — George Pike, a potato farmer here, has a large water bill this month.

After 28 days without rain, his potato crop was approaching destruction. He appealed to the volunteer fire department and offered them $200 to pump water onto an 18-acre section.

The department spent the day pumping 450 gallons of water a minute over the thirsty crop.

Pickpocket Stops Show, but Escapes

VANCOUVER, Aug 25 (CP) — A pickpocket was the star this afternoon while dignitaries and officials were speech-making at the official opening of the Pacific National Exposition here.

Chased by an irate citizen who claimed the "dip" had taken his watch, the pickpocket hastily clambered down through the grandstand, falling over people in his rush, and chased relentlessly by his victim.

Speechmaking stopped as officials and citizens alike watched the breathless drama.

The man got away.

VETERANS OF SEA WARS ON VIEW

VANCOUVER, Aug 25 (CP) — Two battle-scarred sea veterans slid into their berths at dock here Sunday the U.S. Navy submarine "Sea Dog" and H.M.C.S. Crescent, and will be open to public inspection during the Pacific National Exhibition which opened its week-...today.

$65,000 DAMAGE IN FALSE CREEK BLAZE

Bridge Endangered By Gathering Crowd; Flames Uncontrolled

Thousands Watch

VANCOUVER, Aug. 25 (CP) — Damage estimated at $65,000 was caused to two Vancouver lumber companies here tonight when flames roared out of control in the heart of the False Creek industrial district. No one was injured.

The blaze began when A. T. Clare, night watchman at Viaduct Dry Kilns, was regulating sawdust in a giant hopper. Flames backfired when he opened the door, forcing him back. Flames spread rapidly to nearby Spruce Specialties, Ltd., crackling through five tinder-dry buildings and belching smoke 1000 feet into the air.

Fire Department officials said the fire was "still out of control" and it was expected the lumber company buildings would be burned to the ground. However, they said there was no danger of the flames spreading.

Firemen from four halls, aided by four fire barges fought to keep the flames away from a shed filled with canisters of rock gas as a brisk Southwest wind whipped the fire out over the adjoining railway yards.

At one point, the flames towered 150 feet into the sky.

Thousands of persons lining Georgia Viaduct, almost directly over the scene, were turned back when police received word from the City Engineer that the bridge was in imminent danger of collapsing.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25 (AP) — Chairman Fred Hartley (Rep.-N.J.) of the House of Representatives Labor Committee said today the Taft-Hartley Act "does not have enough teeth in it to give the public real protection against nation-wide strikes." The co-author of the new labor measure said he will try to have Congress remedy the situation next year.

SPUR ADDISON TO FOOD TALKS

BY LESLIE BRODIE
Canadian Press Correspondent

CANBERRA, Australia, Aug. 25 (CP) Commonwealth Secretary Viscount Addison, in Canberra with the British delegation to exploratory talks on the Japanese Peace Treaty, has been instructed by cable by the British Cabinet to open urgent talks with Australian and other Commonwealth representatives on a plan to expand Commonwealth trade.

Lord Addison is expected to confer with the Australian Cabinet on the possibility of getting more food and raw materials for Britain and to get the dominions to agree with Britain on the amount of goods they might purchase from dollar areas.

When the conference delegates arrived in Canberra today to begin talks on the Japanese Treaty, Prime Minister Chifley, Customs Minister Courtice and Reconstruction Minister Dedman were in conference with economic experts on Australia's role in the dollar crisis.

It was understood that, to save dollars, tobacco, films, cotton supplies, automobiles for pleasures and all luxury and semi-luxury goods from dollar countries will be so drastically cut that Australia will be put back in a wartime austerity basis.

"—and May the Best Man Win"

Sheila Hynes, 19, of England, is in a dilemma. The British girl started her romance by mail with Carl Wesch, right, of Brooklyn. They were engaged and she came to the U. Meanwhile, however, she had begun a correspondence with Wesch's good friend, Harold Conley of St. Albans, New York, and gave him a partial "Yes"—also by mail. Here she is with both swains on the dock. "May the best man win," says Wesch.

Sentence 11 Doukhobors; Island Leadership Denied

Terms for Three for Assault, Others Appear for Burning Threats; Report Of Guidance From Hillier Is Heard

While a Provincial Police clamp-down, on orders from Attorney-General Gordon Wismer, up until late Monday night, seemed to have brought at least a momentary lull to violence in West Kootenay Doukhobor settlements, earlier in Provincial Police Court at Nelson eleven members of the fanatical Sons of Freedom received jail sentences ranging from six months to one year, passed by Stipendiary Magistrate William Irvine.

Three men were sentenced outright to six months in Oakalla Jail near Vancouver, at hard labor, while the others including one woman bound over to keep the peace for one year, were ordered to post bonds ranging from $1000 to $2000 or go to jail. The first three were charged with assault causing actual bodily harm, the remainder with uttering verbal threats to burn.

Just before midnight Monday it was reported that an outbreak of new trouble was threatening in the Shoreacres section, but details were not immediately available.

During the day nothing disturbed the outward serenity of the beautiful valley area. A small band of Doukhobors gathered at Shoreacres near the scene of a Sunday Sons of Freedom meeting, but they only formed into chatting groups and shortly disbanded.

Three Doukhobors were sentenced to prison terms, and eight others, including one woman, were sentenced to jail terms ranging from nine to 12 months in default of payment of bonds to keep the peace, Monday, as police authorities put their promised clamp-down on the extremist Sons of Freedom into action.

Sentenced to jail were William A. Kalmakoff, Fred Nazaroff and Mike Ribalkinoff, each sentenced to six months at hard labor in Oakalla Jail. They were charged with assault occasioning actual bodily harm.

Annie Koftinoff and Nick Bersoff were each bound over for a period of 12 months on $1000 bond, or nine months in jail in default of the bond.

$2000 BOND

Mike Birshenkoff and Zahar Berishoff were also bound over for 12 months, but bond was set at $2000 each or 12 months in jail.

The 12 men and one woman are members of the Sons of Freedom group of Doukhobors, who have been accused by orthodox members of terrorizing the entire West Kootenay Doukhobor District.

Sentenced to 12 months in Oakalla prison after they each declined to sign two sureties of $1000 were William Chernoff, William Stoopnikoff, Fred Storgoff and Wil-Pozdnikoff, Fred Storgoff and William Olasoff. They were charged with issuing a threat to burn the Shoreacres home of William Kalmakoff and of endangering the lives of Kalmakoff, his wife and grandchildren.

Chernoff was sentenced to a year's hard labor at Oakalla in default of payment of the bonds.

The incident for which the six were sentenced occurred Aug. 18 when a 300-member raiding band of the Sons of Freedom gathered before the house of Kalmakoff warning him that if he took his belongings out of his house, it would be "burned down just the same." The building was then fired.

The six men appeared before Magistrate Irvine in a back room at Nelson. The customary Court room was not used in case of a demonstration by friends of the sentenced Sons of Freedom, police officials stated.

Only two of the men pleaded not guilty. They were Olasoff and Stoopnikoff, both of whom were found guilty after testimony by William Kalmakoff. Kalmakoff stated that the three were among the band that issued the ultimatum, stating that the house would be burned.

"We are all as one," bitterly William Olasoff said after sentence had been passed. "All 300 of us decided upon issuing the threat, and one is no more guilty than another."

Proceedings were conducted by Sergeant John White, and interpreter was Peter Markin.

Each of the six declined to pay two $1000 sureties to keep the peace for one year. If they do not sign sureties within five days, they automatically serve prison terms. It is thought unlikely that the sentenced Sons of Freedom will choose the surety method of release, as their possessions, including money, belong to the community as a whole, according to Doukhobor beliefs.

THREE AWAIT TRIAL

Less than two weeks ago, two men and a woman were committed for trial before the Supreme Court on arson charges.

Large numbers of orthodox and radical Doukhobors flocked into Nelson Monday, but showed no inclination to stage mass demonstrations similar to those marking Doukhobors trials of past years. Few attended the hearings.

Previously trials of Doukhobors had on occasions been accompanied by nudist displays and May, 18, 1945, nine men and women appearing for trial on nude charges startled the normal decorum of the court here by stripping in front of the magistrate. The following day three women prisoners repeated the performance.

COMMISSIONER HERE

Police reinforcements continued to arrive in the District, and Deputy Police Commissioner John Shirras, second highest officer in the British Columbia Provincial Police, was due in Monday night.

Learning of the jail sentences, a spokesman for the Sons of Freedom was quoted as saying:

"Don't think we are beaten . . . when the time is ripe we will take stronger action than has been seen yet . . . If the spirit moves us we will be forced to march on Nelson to protest . . ."

Mrs. Florence Storgoff, wife of one of the men under arrest, told reporters:

"We are awaiting inspiration and leadership."

The Trail Times reported today it had learned from a reliable source that the acts of terrorism were directed by "a foreign power," and that a delegation of Communist-minded Sons of Freedom had left for Russia.

The Times also reported that this same source, an unnamed, non-Doukhobor Castlegar business man, had declared that West Kootenay Sons of Freedom were directed from the newly-founded Hilliers community near Nanaimo on Vancouver Island.

DENIES CHARGE

However, Joseph Podovinikoff, spokesman of Michael(The Archangel) Verigin, leader of a newly-established colony of Doukhobors, denied his group had anything to do with the rampaging acts of terror.

"The report is absolutely wrong," he said. "We have warned of the danger of the uprising."

VICTORIA, Aug. 25 (CP) — Attorney-General Gordon S. Wismer reported today that Deputy Commissioner John Shirras of the B. C. Police would leave immediately for the Southern Interior areas where terrorism has broken out among the Doukhobors.

Mr. Wismer said that Shirras would make a full report to him on the situation in the Doukhobor communities and determine whether or not further action is needed to forestall the outbreaks of home burning and other terrorism.

"We're going to see that the law is observed and that terrorism has got to be stopped," said Mr. Wismer.

Police Inspectors in the Nelson Districts have reported that they now have adequate staff to cope with the situation.

To Build Temporary School for Nelson Junior, Senior High Overflow

Outcome of a "sudden overflow" of Junior High School students, a temporary cottage-type school will be erected opposite the present Junior High School grounds. The building will be of three-room structure and will provide tutorage for both Senior and Junior High School pupils.

Application for the four lots fronting on Hoover Street was approved by the City Council Monday night. They will be sold by the City to Nelson School District No. 7 for $330.

N. S. Macleod, Secretary of the Board of School District No. 7 explained to the Council that the building will be used temporarily to relieve crowded classrooms, particularly in the Junior High School. Two rooms will accommodate the Junior High influx, while another room will furnish extra facilities for the Senior High School.

TSALDARIS HOPES TO FORM NEW GREEK GOV'T

By L. S. CHAKALES

ATHENS, Aug. 25 (AP)—Constantin Tsaldaris said he hoped to form a new Greek Government today, "on as broad a coalition basis as possible," to replace the fallen Cabinet of Demetrios Maximos.

The Embassy of the United States, which is aiding Greece with $300,000,000 in suplies, took a hand in the dickering over one phase of the Cabinet crisis brought on by a dispute over the conduct of the fight against leftist guerillas.

The Embassy conveyed to Themistokles Sophohlis, 86-year-old former Premier and leader of the Opposition Sophoulis Liberals, its wishes for the participation of Liberals in the new Government.

It also was suggested that Sophoulis make counter-proposals to the offer by the Populist (Royalist) Tsaldaris to Sophoulis yesterday of "joint direction" of the new regime under which Sophoulis would hold the Presidency of the Ministerial Council and Tsaldaris the Premiership.

Election to Fill Bridges' Seat Set for Oct. 20

OTTAWA, Aug. 25 (CP)—Following a cabinet meeting today, Prime Minister Mackenzie King announced the date of the Federal by-election in New Brunswick's York-Sunbury riding has been set for Oct. 20. The seat was left vacant by the death two weeks ago of Hon. H. F. G. Bridges, Federal Fisheries Minister.

Although won by the Liberal Party in the 1945 general election, the seat was for many years held by Hon. R. B. Hanson, former Progressive Conservative House leader, who first was elected in 1921.

The York-Sunbury seat is the only remaining vacancy in the 245-seat Commons.

Present standing in the House is: Liberals, 126; Progressive Conservatives, 67; C.C.F., 28; Social Credit, 13; Independent, four; Bloc Populaire, two; Independent Liberal, one; Independent Progressive Conservative, one; C.C.F., one, and Union des Electeurs, One.

Do You Go to Movies?

PARIS, Aug 25 (Reuters) — If you don't go to the movies you're probably either physically or mentally abnormal, according to a psychological survey of non-movie-goers published here. The survey classified them as:

1 Sufferers from such physical defects as poor sight and bad hearing.

2 Oliogophrenics, who have difficulty in linking two or three ideas at once, and who feel ill at ease watching a plot that is at all complicated.

3 Claustrophobics, who fear dark, closely-packed places.

4 Supra-normal persons, otherwise known as "highbrows" who look down on films.

5 Those who can't afford to buy tickets.

To Discuss Southern Highway In October

VICTORIA, Aug. 25 (CP) — Works Minister E. C. Carson said today that officials of his department toward the end of October would meet officials of the Washington State Highway Commission to discuss proposals for building a 20-mile British Columbia Highway through part of Washington State.

Purpose of the road is to link Cascade and Laurier, to form the main Southern Trans-Provincial Highway link between Trail and Grand Forks.

Immediate aim of the October Conference will be an agreement to put B. C. Survey parties in the field in Washington to map the route for the road. Mr. Carson said he had already been in touch with officials of the Washington Commission.

Completion of the deal to provide B. C. with a right-of-way through U. S. territory would depend on negotiations in the highest diplomatic levels at Washington, D.C., and Ottawa.

"Our idea now is to get the preliminary work done," said Mr. Carson.

One plan is that the U. S. might trade a strip of ground in Washington, just wide enough for the highway right-of-way, for a similar strip in the Northwestern part of B. C. that would give the U. S. full title to the Haines cutoff road in Alaska. Another suggestion is that United States lease the territory to British Columbia.

100,000 Watch Coast Exhibition Parade

VANCOUVER, Aug 25 (CP) — The Show Window of the West, the Pacific National Exhibition, its exhibits telling the progress-story of industry and agriculture, opened here today with a colorful four-mile long parade watched by 100,000 spectators, including thousands of tourists.

They stood six deep on downtown streets, clambered from billboards, hung from office windows and perched atop roofs as 100 decorated floats, 22 bands and blonde majorettes passed in review.

The week-long features industrial and agriculture exhibits, expected to attract an attendance of 750,000 including 50,000 tourists. The agricultural section houses prize herds from famed British Columbia blue blood livestock.

Admiral Byrd Resting Comfortably

BALTIMORE, Aug 25 (AP) — Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd, who was admitted to Johns Hopkins Hospital with what officials described only as a "medical condition," was reported resting comfortably today.

MOM CURBS WANDERLUST

TORONTO, Aug 25 (CP)—Unique solution to the wandering-youngster problem, hourly growing worse as Children's Day progressed at the Canadian National Exhibition, was discovered and applied by one mother of three tots with adventurous spirits.

All three reported at the Lost Children's Department this afternoon followed shortly by their worried mother. She asked for and received a long piece of rope which she promptly tied to the trio [illegible] together.

When last seen, she was leading a procession of three waifs [illegible] single file, each separated by a [illegible] foot length of rope.

TORONTO, Aug 25 (CP) — Children usually have definite opinions of their own and four-year-olds Anne Larcsby and Noel Methven of Toronto are no different.

Little Miss Larcsby and tiny Master Methven shared fifth spot in a freckle face contest today.

Anne is exceptionally proud of her freckles and it was a great blow to her esteem that she came fifth. She's decided to hatch more "beauty spots" for next year's show.

Noel, showing all the disdain of youth for [illegible] looked at the $5 prize he got and said:

"Is that all I get? I thought there'd be a balloon or something."

THEY STRIP FOR BREAD AND BUTTER, BUT THINK HOUSEWORK EASIER

TORONTO, Aug 25 (CP) — They rate a lot of whistles but few proposals of marriage, lament the strip-tease girls on the midway at the Canadian National Exhibition.

They want to get married, settle down and raise children, say the girls who think doing it in a carnival sideshow theatre is an easy life, they have words of advice: get married and settle down in a small town.

Most of the girls have been in show business for some time and they like it. But they still think it's more strenuous wiggling their way through six shows a day than doing housework.

When not presenting a show for a tentful of bug eyes males they're raising temperatures on the platform outside. But they don't get much chance to meet the men of their dreams.

"How are you going to meet any eligible man when you work all day and most of the night?" one of the girls asked.

ON HONEYMOON

A few of them are married, but matrimony is beset with problems when one partner is on tour. On the whole husbands do not take kindly to their wives disrobing in public but the girls themselves say it's just like any other job after the first few months.

One of the performers actually is on her honeymoon, having been married last week. Hubby waits in the wings until the show is over, then escorts his bride to a nearby restaurant.

Thumbs Down on Request on Trades Licence Changes

City Council Monday turned down a petition from a group of member merchants of the Nelson Retail Merchants' Association asking immediate revision of the trades licence bylaw prohibiting or restricting traders from operating in the City, and suggesting a raise in the traders licence fee.

The 17 petitioners stated that transient salesmen and traders were in "direct competition" with retail merchants in Nelson, "who pay the regular licence fee required and otherwise assist in the payment of City taxes."

Council members felt that any revision of the trades licence by-law could "not be considered," in view of evasive methods that could be employed by the traders. By operating in local businesses on a percentage basis, payment of the regular fee could be avoided, it was pointed out.

CAN OF DEATH

BERLIN, Aug. 25 (AP)—Locomotive sparks that ignited a can of gasoline carried by a passenger were blamed for a fire in an overcrowded suburban train which killed 24 persons and injured 49.

The disaster occurred Saturday between Berlin and Kremmen, 25 miles Northwest of this city in the Russian occupation zone.

NICE TRY

SACRAMENTO, Calif. Aug. 25 — (AP)—He knew he couldn't win, but C. J. Carey asked City Councilmen for authority to mount an anti-aircraft gun in his backyard. His target: Low-flying, low-powered planes with high-powered advertising from high-powered microphones. The request we denied.

British Cabinet Called for Special Session; Longer Hours for Miners?

LONDON, Aug. 25 (AP)—The Cabinet was summoned to special session today to hear a report from Sir Wilfrid Eady, head of the recent Treasury mission to Washington, and to map new measures to deal with Britain's gloomy economic outlook.

Of immediate concern were possible repercussions from the suspension of free convertibility of sterling into dollars, an outgrowth of the Washington discussions which was expected to make itself felt shortly in new food ration cuts.

Also reported high on the Cabinet's agenda were the question of coal production and Prime Minister Attlee's proposals that miners work an extra half-hour daily in an effort to boost output. The miners now on a five-day week have opposed Attlee's proposals declaring that they would prefer to work Saturday short shifts at overtime pay.

ATTLEE BACK

Attlee returned from a vacation in Wales to preside at the session, which the Communist Daily Worker likened to a critical Cabinet meeting in 1931 when the last Labor Government was overthrown, but many over and coal."

seeking American aid to remain on the gold standard.

The paper observed pointedly that following the 1931 session the Labor Government gave way to a Coalition.

RUSH PLANS

The Liberal News-Chronicle and the Conservative Daily Mail predicted an early special session of the House of Commons, which is adjourned until Oct. 20. Political writers said Attlee would order his Ministers to rush completion of plans which the Labor Government hoped would solve the national economic plight.

Food Minister John Strachey talked with representatives of the catering trade about restricting food sales in restaurants and hotels. A Government announcement was promised in a day or two.

The News Chronicle predicted the Government crisis program would be completed so that the meeting next Monday of the Trades Union Congress, a powerful group in the Labor Party, "will be able to debate in detail the application of food rate controls, the direction of labor

$1100 Missing Cash Recovered; Two Arrested

Nelson City Police Tuesday morning reported the arrest of two men and recovery of $1100 of the $1300 reported stolen Thursday from the safe of the Canadian Pacific Express Company office here. The two, one at least a juvenile, have been charged in connection with the theft, police said, and they will appear in court later this week.

Money from the missing express package, which had contained bills destined for the Canadian Bank of Commerce branch at Nakusp, had begun to appear in local stores, police said.

City Police officers and Guy Mayo, C.P.R. investigator, made the arrests Monday night. The pair had recently arrived from Vancouver, police were informed, though one was a resident of Nelson. They had confessed to police and led them to the money cache, police reported.

Ladysmith Women Win Doubleheader

NANAIMO, B. C., Aug. 25 (CP)—Odeon Femmes, carrying the Ladysmith Senior B women's colors, yesterday eliminated the highly-touted Bays of Victoria in straight games, at Ladysmith, when they defeated the 1946 Provincial champions 11-10 and 8-1 to annex the Vancouver Island softball championship.

Bears Eke Out 11-10 Win in Rough Encounter

Out of a game that saw 31 penalties handed out and which ended in a near mauling of referee Max Desbrisay, the Trail Golden Bears emerged 11-10 victors over the Kiwanis Maple Leafs Monday night.

It was the final touch to a season of rough and bitter lacrosse for the Leafs. Although the game meant little in the way of league standing, the Lakesiders went out and played as they had in three months of regular matches. They played the Bears to a standstill and were ahead by one goal at the end of the third period. Then as players from both squads filled the penalty box to overflowing, Sammartino led his team in a three goal offensive that proved to be the stumbling block for the Leafs.

Sammartino figured in the play with five unassisted goals and was instrumental in forming many of the Trail attacks which ended in counters.

The game was also a coming-out affair for Leaftian Jack Gallicano, who has been absent from the lineups for two months. Gallicano was in for a goal and notched two assists. His stick-handling lacked some of the efficiency that he displayed earlier this year. Coach Cooper took his cue from Gallicano's performance and registered him into the playoff roster.

Len Appel, turned in three goals, variety. On one occasion he picked two of which were of the freak up a ball from the faceoff and rifled it past Meredith from 40 feet out. Again in the final canto Appel snagged a high pass and bounced the ball through a maze of players into the corner of the net.

Although rougher games have been fought out in the Civic Arena the parade of players to the sin bin was unpresidented. At the end of the third, 21 visitors had been booked and as the play picked up tempo in the final frame, 10 more were waved off the floor. When the horn sounded to signal an end to the ever-roughening encounter, no less than seven occupants filled the bench of the cooler. Leafians, who attributed the loss to the refereeing, formed a flailing ring about Debrisay. While the Leafs argued among themselves the referee walled of th floor and finally Coach Cooper led his protesting teammates into the dressing room.

Trail — Sammartino 5, N. Turik 2, Prescott 2, A. Bilesky 1, Robertson 1 (1), Dembicki (1), Zinio, Kendall, Bruce, Taylor, Meredith.

Nelson — Appel 3, Kuhn 2 (1), Gallicano 1 (2), Griffin 1, F. Graves 1, LaPointe, A. Choquette, Maglio, Morris, Price, Wassick 1 (1), Cookson.

Harold Long chose the three stars—Wassick of the Leafs and Turik and Sammartino of the Golden Bears.

Songs, Lacrosse Chatter Reign At Kiwanis Meet

Lacrosse chatter from Ty Culley and William DeFoe and songs by the "Barber Shop Quartette" held sway at the Nelson Kiwanis Club meeting Monday night.

Ty Culley asked for close support for the Kiwanis lacrosse machine as the playoffs were beginning Wednesday. He made no predictions as to the outcome of the playoffs, however.

Guests were Fred Aberdeen, President of the Richmond Kiwanis Club, Mr. B. Butchart and J. M. Adams of Vancouver.

To Battle for Flyweight Diadem

LONDON, Aug. 25 (AP)—Jack Solomons, London promoter, said today that Dado Marino of Honolulu, and Rinty Monaghan of Ireland, had been signed to fight for the vacant world flyweight boxing championship here Oct. 20.

Marino and his Irish rival were named as logical contenders for the title when Jackie Paterson of Scotland collapsed shortly before the weigh-in for his title bout with the Hawaiian July 16.

Paterson then was relieved of the title by the British board in control of boxing.

Dodgers Hoist Negro Pitcher Into Breach

By JOE REICHLER

BROOKLYN, Aug. 25 (AP)—Burt Shotton of the Dodgers today hustled big Dan Bankhead toward a National League pitching assignment as the Brooklyn management wrapped up details of the deal bringing the first Negro pitcher into the big leagues.

Manager Shotton said that Bankhead, pitching ace of Memphis Red Sox of the Negro American League, probably would make his debut at Ebbets Field either tomorrow or Wednesday. The Dodgers, riddled with injuries, are hard pressed for pitchers and Shotton said:

"We're in a tight fix for pitchers. If Bankhead is to help the best time to find out is right now. I don't know for sure whether I'll start him tomorrow or not. I had intended to start Hank Behrman, but he was in the bullpen all afternoon today (when the Dodgers met Pittsburgh). I may still start Behrman and have Bankhead in the bullpen. If Dan is not needed tomorrow I probably will pitch him against Chicago Cubs Wednesday."

HAS MAKINGS

Bankhead, 26-year-old Birmingham, Ala., native, had 3½ years of pitching experience in the United States Marine Corps before joining the Memphis club two years ago. He was officially added to the Brooklyn roster this afternoon, following his purchase from the Negro Red Sox for an unannounced sum Sunday.

"There is no doubt in my mind that Bankhead will be a great pitcher some day," President Branch Rickey of the Dodgers said. "He possesses everything a good pitcher ought to have. He is as fast as any pitcher in the National League, has a good curve ball and knows how to pitch.

"Physically, he has nothing to fear. The emotional stress and strain is the only thing that might worry him."

"The pitcher Bankhead resembles more than anybody else in style, I think, is Dizzy Dean," Rickey said.

Bankhead, who doubled in the outfield and on the mound, has won 10 games and lost five while pitching for a last-place club. His batting average is .385. He bats and throws righthanded.

SCOTTISH WEST'S SOCCER REPS

WINNIPSG, Aug. 25 (CP)—Winnipeg Scottish turned back Edmonton Legion 2-1 here tonight in the second game of a best-of-three series in the Dominion soccer quarter-finals and won the right to meet the Eastern champions in the Canadian semi-finals. Scottish had taken the first game Saturday night, 5-1.

More than 3000 fans saw the Scots storm from behind in closing minutes to edge the greatly-improved Legion squad. With the score 1-1 and only five minutes remaining in the game, Referee Percy Gillatt ruled Dave McIntosh, Legion fullback, handled the ball while trying to clear. Midge Pennington gave Goalkeeper Bill Ness no chance to save his waist-high drive from the penalty shot.

Abe Yanofsky Ties For Second Place

COPUS CHRISTI, Tex., Aug. 25 (CP)—Abe Yanofsky of Winnipeg, Canadian Chess champion, finished in a tie for second place in the United States Open Chess Championship concluded Saturday, only 1½ points behind Isaac Kashdan of New York, one of the three best players in the United States and among the 10 or 15 best in the world.

Sharing second place with Yanofsky was Anthony E. Santasiere of New York. They had 10 points to 11½ for the winner under a system giving one point for a win, a half point for a draw.

Would Consider Dominions Sharing British Population, National Debt

By JOHN DAUPHINEE

Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON, Aug. 25 (CP) — A prominent Labor Member of Parliament today suggested Britain should give consideration to the Australian idea that the "Dominions should take a slice of our population, old, middle-aged and young, together with an equivalent slice of our national debt."

Writing in the Daily Telegraph, D. R Rees-Williams, Member for South Croydon and Chairman of the Parliamentary Labor Party's Commonwealth and Empire group, said:

"I believe on these lines we could begin negotiations. I believe the only hope for large-scale immigration is by families with people from the same district in this country being settled in the same district in the Dominions, but no so as to become a colony too difficult to assimilate.

"It may be found on further examination that the difficulties are too great, but I do not think it should be condemned unheard."

Rees-Williams criticized Churchill's request to would-be immigrants to "stay here and fight it out."

"I should have thought that if anything was obvious in this uncertain world it is the necessity for us to strive, as the Government is striving, to develop and expand the resources of the Commonwealth.

"In particular for economic, political and strategic reasons, it is essential to have a better balance of populations in the Commonwealth. If Australia and Canada could each be built up to 25,000,000 and New Zealand to 6,000,000, it would have the greatest effect on our trade, on the influence of the Commonwealth in world peace, and on our defence arrangements, should efforts to maintain peace unhappily fail."

Sask. Gov't Takes Over Clay Marketing

REGINA, Aug. 25 (CP) — Resources Minister Phelps of Saskatchewan today announced the Provincial Government had taken over marketing of all mineral clays in the Province because "ceramic interests in neighboring Provinces have been depleting our clay products without compensating the Province for the loss."

All clay would be sold through a division of Saskatchewan Minerals, a Crown corporation which operates a brick factory and mines sodium sulphate in the Province.

SELLING PRICE LOW

Resources Department officials said farmers in Southwestern Saskatchewan, who had sold surface rights to Alberta clay processors received less than $2 a ton for their clay, while the same producers paid more than $6 a ton for clay imported from the United States. They predicted there would be substantial increases in the price of Saskatchewan clay.

Mr. Phelps said purchase of surface rights did not carry ownership of industrial clays where mineral rights were reserved for the Crown.

He said introduction of quality control similar to that used in the United States would benefit users of Saskatchewan clay and income derived from the marketing would pay for prospecting, mining, drilling and research for the development of the industry.

Flying Bat Fragment Hits Kiddie's Head

Wayne Theede, three-year-old son of Leslie Theede of Castlegar, was struck a glancing blow on the right temple by the flying heavy end of a softball bat that shattered when the bat met the ball hard in the fifth inning of a pick-up softball game at the West Kootenay Legion picnic at Castlegar Sunday afternoon. The flying missile struck Master Theede a glancing blow on the left shoulder before slipping on to hit the little fellow's head.

First Aid in the form of cold compresses was rendered by George Sutherland, and was considered responsible for reducing the swelling on the little fellow's temple and decreasing his pain. He slept soundly throughout the afternoon.

It was also believed [illegible] bring water to a boil.

Net $4000 In Bank Holdup

Not Known Whether McDonald, Lauzon Or Minille Linked With Newest Holdup

LONG BRANCH, Ont., Aug. 25 (CP)—Three armed bandits escaped with $4000 in a hold-up at the Canadian Bank of Commerce branch in this town 10 miles West of Toronto today.

Two of the bandits entered the bank shortly after its opening while a third remained at the wheel of their getaway car. The bank manager fired one shot after the pair as they dashed out of the bank to the car but no one was hit.

Toronto police just previously had received a tip that the three long-term prisoners who escaped a week ago from Kingston Penitentiary—Donald (Mickey) McDonald, Ulysses Lauzon and Nick Minille—were in the Toronto area, but it was not known immediately whether they linked the holdup with the escaped trio.

McDonald and Lauzon had already been linked with the $40,000 holdup of a Royal Bank of Canada branch at Windsor last Friday and Windsor police said that as far as they knew McDonald and Lauzon were still in the Windsor area.

WIRES CUT

The telephone wires to the bank apparently were cut just before the bandits entered. The two who went in the bank were both described as "big men", and one of them said during the holdup: "We aren't the Kingston convicts; we're just little guys."

The tip about the Kingston escapees said that McDonald and Lauzon had been spotted in a Long Branch restaurant earlier today. Police had found no trace of them.

The car used by the holdup men was believed to have been stolen either from Westmount, Que., or Markdale, near Toronto. It departed at a high rate of speed Eastward.

Fernie Council Hears Report on Health Board and Forest Fire Aids

FERNIE, B. C., Aug. 25—Fernie City Council heard reports on the formation of a Board of Health for East Kootenay and the inspection of the Fernie firefighting services. Alderman Haile reported that the Board of Health would consist of the medical director, Dr. Brockington; a sanitary inspector, Mr. Murrell; the present Public Health Nurses in the various centres, and a permanent secretary. The above personnel would in time be absorbed in the Provincial Civil Service. The Board of Directors would consist of two members from Kimberley, one each from Creston, Fernie and Cranbrook, and one each from School Districts Nos. 1, 2, 3 and 5. Any of the municipalities concerned could withdraw upon six months' notice.

Treatment was not provided, as the main function of the new unit was prevention, consultation, inspection and health education. The cost of such services was estimated at $1 per capita of which the Provincial Government absorbed 70 cents.

Alderman Haile informed the Council that Dr. Brockington intended to visit Fernie in the near future. It was decided no action would be taken until such time as Dr. Brockington was present at a meeting.

Major recommendations in the firefighting services inspection report were:

(1) That Departmental strength be increased by one permanent member, and, if possible, two.

(2) That the present fire truck should be replaced immediately.

(3) That the local firefighting department obtain membership in the National Fire Protection Association.

Minor recommendations included the purchase of several smaller pieces of equipment. The Fire Chief was instructed to obtain estimates as to the cost of implementing the report. Action was left to a special meeting which is to be called after necessary data has been secured.

HARD SURFACING

City Engineer Jeff Hunt reported that over a mile of new hard surfacing had been laid during August and three-eighths of a mile had been widened.

Sidewalk repair was to be carried out as soon as cement was available.

The City Clerk reported on action taken to secure cooperation for the meeting of Sept. 9, when Dr. Massey would outline plans for a TB survey this Fall. Several more organizations were to be invited.

TRADE LICENCES

W. G. Skinner and H. H. Mulham were granted trades licences, the former for painting and paperhanging and the latter a retail licence to sell staples.

The City Council recomended payment of half the costs of material for a sidewalk, which had been laid by a taxpayer, subject to a satisfactory inspection report by the City Engineer.

It was decided that henceforth the city would be responsible for the carrying of sewers to the property lines. This change would not be retroactive.

CATTLE COMPLAINTS

Complaints of cows and horses wandering on city streets and boulevards were heard. The complaints are to be investigated and necessary action taken.

Inquiries are to be made to see if it would be possible for the post office lobby to be open during certain hours on Sundays so that boxholders could get their mail.

URGE JEWS TO HIT BRITAIN ECONOMICALLY

Would Boycott Until the End "Without Mercy" TO MEET GOV'T

JERUSALEM, Aug. 25 (AP)—Irgun Zvai Leumi, militant Jewish underground group, exhorted Jews throughout the world today to "hit Britain economically without mercy" in protest against the transshipment of 4400 Jewish refugees to Germany.

In a broadcast denouncing British treatment of the refugees, who were intercepted in mid-July while trying to enter Palestine illegally on board the Exodus of 1947, Irgun declared:

"You can stop the cruel British machine forever. Do not pay your tax money, do not obey their orders. Do not obey their laws. Boycott, boycott, boycott until the end.

"Jews of the whole world can bring great harm to our enemy. Britain is in economic trouble. They can be hit economically without mercy."

The Irgun broadcaster also urged Jews to ignore appeals for a hunger strike today to protest treatment accorded the refugees.

"This is no time for fasting. It is now time for war."

British sources, meanwhile, reported that Gen. Sir Alan Gordon Cunningham, High Commissioner for Palestine, was weighing the possibility of leaving for Britain tomorrow to confer with the Government concerning the fate of the refugees.

DIFFERENT VIEWS

These sources said that Cunningham was "generally regarded as holding somewhat different views than some of his fellow officials on the situation," but did not elaborate.

The refugees in question are en route to Hamburg aboard three British transports after spending more than three weeks anchored off Port de Bouc, France, where they refused to disembark in protest at being denied admission to Palestine.

The Jews originally embarked for Palestine from a French port, and France had offered them asylum if they would disembark voluntarily at Port de Bouc. Britain has now proposed that she transport them overland from Hamburg to the French border and that French officials accept them there.

France has not yet replied to this proposal.

DAY OF PRAYER

LONDON, Aug. 25 (Reuters) — Beth Din, Ecclesiastical Court of the Chief Rabbi in London, today decreed that Jews throughout the British Commonwealth observe Thursday next as a day of prayer in sympathy with the 4300 Jews being shipped to Hamburg in British transports.

LONDON, Aug. 25 (Reuters)—Notice of motion for a writ of habeas corpus against Foreign Secretary Bevin and Colonial Secretary Creech-Jones in respect of six of the Jews among the 4400 now on their way to Hamburg in three British ships was served today.

The motion is returnable Wednesday when argument will be heard in the High Court.

It is possible that the argument will lead to an adjournment. If the writ is granted, however, it will be served without delay.

FRESH REPORTS OF WARFARE IN INDIA

Attacks on Trains Reported From Both Dominions

Fear Long Conflict

By WALTER J. MASON

NEW DELHI, Aug. 25 (AP) — Fresh reports of warfare between religious communities in the India and Pakistan areas of partitioned Punjab caused gloomy speculation today that a border conflict of months or even years, might be in prospect.

From both Dominions came repeated reports of attacks on such trains as still were running. The pattern was the same. Trains were stopped and searched and passengers belonging to the opposite religious community were slaughtered. The Sikhs and Hindus generally were killing Moslems in India and receiving treatment in kind in Pakistan.

Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru of India and Governor-General M. A. Jinnah of Pakistan appeal for a cessation of reprisals. The Pakistan Government of West Punjab issued a public warning at Lahore that travel was "wholly insecure" between Lahore and Delhi.

AREAS CUT OFF

Many areas here said some areas of West Punjab were cut off as refugees seeking to get into India from there were reported streams of Moslems trying to reach Pakistan. Accounts of murder, rape, arson and mass holdups were printed in profusion.

The Sikhs particularly were incensed because of the division of Punjab, leaving their main shrine and many lesser ones in Moslem Pakistan. The weekly Sikh magazine Liberator said that unless Sikh demands were satisfied "we shall make the existence of Pakistan impossible whatever the cost."

From 5,000,000 to 6,000,000 Sikhs are estimated to live in the Punjab. The Liberator said half still were in Pakistan. The newest Sikh demand was that Pakistan and India agree on a homeland for the Sikhs.

Mr. Strang said the Department would probably issue a full statement on the result of its investigation sometime this week.

JORDAN BAY FOREST FIRE UNDER CONTROL

Destroyed Three Homes, Church, Threatened Hospital

Fighters Recruited

HALIFAX, Aug. 25 (CP) — Flames racing through timber on the Jordan Bay Peninsula near Shelburne, 100 miles from here, on the Province's South shore, were brought under control today after destroying three homes and a church and forcing fisherfolk to flee the area.

Reports this morning said the fire was being held in check by a large force of volunteer fire fighters recruited from the surrounding areas.

The most serious of a dozen fires burning in Nova Scotia woodland areas during the weekend, the Shelburne blaze forced officials at the Roseway Hospital to make preparations for evacuation of 100-odd patients as smoke from the fire-front two miles away enveloped the building.

With taxis and private cars standing by and beds ready in church halls, the decision to move the patients, most of them tubercular, was postponed as the fire lost some of its fury.

THUNDERSTORMS HELP

In other areas, thunder showers helped check fires which have destroyed at least 24 homes, dozens of other buildings and thousands of acres of woodland in the last fortnight.

Another serious fire was at Sheet Harbor, 75 miles East of here, when the lumbering town of 1200 was threatened during the weekend after five homes and a sawmill employing 80 men were wiped out.

The showers and the efforts of 300 fire-fighters brought the blaze under control before it reached the big Halifax Pulp and Power Company's Mill or the town itself.

Other fires burned during the weekend at River Bourgeois in the Southeast corner of Cape Breton Island and along Cape George in Antigonish County at the Northeast corner of the province's mainland.

FAMILIES SAFE

ROUYN, Que., Aug. 25 (CP) — Ten to 15 families at nearby Lake Joannes were reported safe today after anxiety had been expressed when no word came for more than a day from their forest fire-threatened lakeside camps.

Lucien Castonguay, head of the Rouyn office of the Provincial Lands and Forests Department, said the families were safe and none of the camps was burned. He had no details of conditions at the lake, about 10 miles Southeast of here, but said a Department inspector had gone there with "a big pump" and he expected word back later today.

SITUATION SAME

Meantime, Castonguay said, the fire situation remained about the same as last night, with flames sweeping through tinder-dry scrub country in a 15 square miles area. There still was no sign of rain, needed to help miners and volunteer firefighters combat blazes along both sides of the highway between Rouyn and Val d'Or, 50 miles East.

MINERS ON JOB

Miners were on the job at Hosco Mine, from 10 to 15 miles East of here, where the head frame of the shaft caught fire. The blaze was extinguished before serious damage was done. Heva Gold Mine, also East of here, was threatened for a time Saturday, but miners went to work there too and put out the flames.

Although the wind switched today to the East and was blowing at about 15 miles an hour, the twin towns of Rouyn and Noranda, with a combined population nearing 20,000, were not believed in danger.

The Chilliwack total now is six.

AWAIT REPORT ON STEEL WORKERS

VICTORIA, Aug. 25 (CP) — The Provincial Labor Department is to-day awaiting the report of M. H. McGeough, Provincial conciliation officer, who is probing the four-day old strike of steel workers in three Vancouver plants.

James Thomson, Deputy Minister of Labor, said today he had seen nothing of Mr. McGeough's report.

Mr. Thomson indicated Provincial Government action was pending the filing of Mr. McGeough's report.

BATTLE OF HEMLINES IN FULL SWING AT NATIONAL EXHIBITION SHOWS

TORONTO, Aug. 25 (CP)—The battel of the hemlines is in full swing at the 16 fashion shows on the daily program at the Canadian National Exhibition.

One group of designers authoritatively states that skirts should be 14 inches off the ground. Another group is just as insistent that skirts should be 15 inches from the floor and a third group has it scaled to 10 inches.

Grapes are coming into the market, the kind of which we make jams conserves and jellies. Grape Tartlets are good and Grape Pie, too. Grapes also make a nice dessert served fresh in bunches, and what is prettier than a fruit bowl filled with grapes—blue, red and white—prettily arranged?

Grape Juice makes a very good drink for now and also next Winter, especially if lemon juice is added. And while we're busy making jelly and conserves, we'll cook a Beef Pot Roast for the family dinner.

TODAY'S MENU

Beef Pot Roast — Boiled Noodles
Brussels Sprouts — Cole Slaw
Grape Tartlets — Iced Tea

BEEF POT ROAST

Select a 3 or 4 pound rump or chuck pot roast. Season with salt and pepper and brown well on all sides, adding 2 tbsp. of lard to kettle, if necessary. When browned, spread ½ c. horseradish over the meat; add 1 c. water, cover closely and cook at simmering temperature about 3½ hours. Turn pot roast once or twice so that it will cook evenly. Thicken liquid and add water for gravy. Serves 3 to the pound.

GRAPE TARTLETS

1 c. grapes
1 c. sugar
½ c. grape juice
½ c. water
1 tsp. cornstarch
1 c. whipped cream

Cover inverted patty-pans with puff or flaky paste. Prick paste thoroughly so that it will keep its shape. Bake a delicate brown in a hot oven (400 F.) Remove from pan turn and fill with grape mixture made thus: Make a syrup by boiling together sugar, water and grape juice. Moisten with cornstarch which has been mixed to a smooth paste with a little cold water, and stir in as thickening. Remove seeds from grapes and put grapes in the syrup. Simmer until the grapes are soft and syrup thick. At serving time fill the shells and top each one with whipped cream and a single uncooked grape laid open and seeded. This recipe makes from 6 to 8 tartlets.

GRAPE CONSERVE

2 pt. (4 c.) grapes
2 oranges
1 c. seeded raisins
2 2-3 c. sugar
1 c. walnut meats

Wash, stem and seed grapes. Slice the oranges very thin, and add to grapes. Add raisins and sugar and cook until mixture is transparent and thick. Add the chopped walnut meats and pack into hot, clean jars, and seal.

GRAPE BUTTER

4 lb. grapes
1 lb. sugar

Wash and stem the grapes and cook in a small amount of water until the skins are soft. Press the pulp through a strainer to remove seeds and skin. Add sugar and cook until thick and clear. Pour into hot sterilized glasses and seal.

Girl Who Is "Not Bad Looking" Unable to Secure a Boy Friend

Dear Miss Atkinson:

I am going to be 16 in a few months and the point is that all my girl friends have their boy friends, but I am left out completely, and I can't understand it for one minute.

My girl friends tell me all about their boy friends and what I should do when I am on a date,but I still just don't have asingle one . I tried fixing my hair differently and just everything, and the funniest part is that I am not bad-looking. I go to a co-educational school, and we have confraternity at our church.

For goodness sake, where is a girl supposed to meet boys? It's beyond me. I have completely given up hope.

"Boyless"

Dear "Boyless":

If you go to a co-educational school and to confraternity at your church, I should think you would be meeting boys at both places. If the boys you meet do not ask you out on dates, perhaps there is something wrong with the way you react to them, or with your own social behavior in general.

You haven't told me enough about tyourself so that I can give you very specific advice, but I have a "Personality Quiz" which I would be glad to send you if you would care to write for it and enclose a stamped, addressed envelope. After you have answered the questions on the Quiz and returned it to me, I would have a much better idea of what may be wrong in your situation.

Thorough Cooking of Pork Will Prevent Contract of Trichinosis

Prevention of trichinosis is so easy that it is a pity for anybody to contract it. And, yet, this condition, which at best means a long, unpleasant illness, occurs fairly often, simply because people are not careful enough about cooking pork thoroughly.

Trichinosis comes almost entirely from the eating of pork infested with the parasite known as Trichinella spiralis. Either long and thorough cooking, or freezing at zero degrees Fahrenheit for 72 hours will kill all parasites. But, unless the housewife knows the exact conditions under which the meat has been frozen, she will do better to play safe and cook all pork until the last tinge of pink has disappeared.

SYMPTOMS OF TRICHINOSIS

The symptoms of trichinosis have been studied by Dr. Robert E. Ober, of Massachusetts.

Within three to five days after eating contaminated pork, such symptoms as sickness to the stomach, vomiting, pain in the abdomen, and diarrhea may develop. In this stage of the condition, the disorder is sometimes mistaken for an attack of grippe, acute kidney inflammation, rheumatic fever, or food poisoning.

In many instances, if disturbances of the stomach or bowel occur, a diagnosis of trichinosis is not made until later, because the symptoms are much like those of various abdominal disorders. The larvae are carried to the small blood vessels in the lung, to the heart, and the arteries in other parts of the body. They also pass into the eyelids, the diaphragm between the chest and abdomen, and the various muscles of the body. The worms then become encysted within the muscles and remain alive for many years. Encysted means that the worms are surrounded by a membrane or capsule.

ACHING MUSCLES

Within ten to fourteen days after eating contaminated pork, if no stomach or bowel symptoms have occurred, the infestation may be shown by aching or tenderness in the muscles, chills, cough, swelling of the eyelids and a skin rash. Fever develops and may reach 105 Fahrenheit. These symptoms may continue for from five to seven weeks.

As a general rule, there is an increase in the number of white cells in the blood, and the kind of white cells known as eosinophils are also increased in number.

Complete recovery ordinarily occurs, but pains in the various muscles may sometimes persist for a long time.

Unfortunately, there does not seem to be any treatment of this condition which is of any particular value. However, the disorder can be prevented if all pork is either thoroughly cooked or frozen.

Cultivate Good Reading Habits In the Child During Summer

It appears that during the long Summer vacation children of elementary school age read fewer books than while attending school. They also may take vacation from Sunday School and church, even vacation from work about the home. How absurd!

Such hardly could happen with children if their parents took a more serious responsibility for the best development of their children educationally, morally and spiritually. Moreover, children well guided at home in a balanced program can be happier than if allowed to drift into more or less aimless ways of spending the long days of the Summer months.

GOOD READING HABITS

Today I wish to entreat my fellow parents to cultivate good reading habits in their children during the Summer. Go with your toddler to your local public library if one is available. Help him find some books whose pictures make him want you or an older brother or sister to read from these books. (My list of selected books from which to read to the baby and young child may be had in a stamped envelope.)

The older child can give the baby brother or sister a vast amount of useful enjoyment by reading to this tot for a period once or several times daily. And it can be fun for the reader as well as the eager listener. Besides, the reader will improve his own reading skill. If he happens to be a poor reader the practice will be the best possible way for him to become a much better reader. I can think of no better way to help a slow reader. Even the best tutor might not do so much for his reading progress.

SOME OLDER CHILDREN

I know of some older children, even of high school age, who attract a number of tots in the block to a shady tree or to their home and read daily to the group. See the good these youths can do.

Go with your child from six to twelve to the library, or induce him to go alone, to borrow books to read. Show interest in his reading them. Listen raptly as he relates what he has enjoyed reading. Sometimes you and he should enjoy reading together.

In some instances, you may do well to require the child from seven to twelve or fourteen to read from a good book for a brief period each day. Once the habit is well begun it may easily carry on without your requirement. A selected list of books from this age range is also available in a stamped envelope.

TWO CRANBROOK SHOPS CHANGE OWNERSHIP

CRANBROOK, B.C., Aug. 25 — Nelson Photography Studio, operated for 23 years by Fred Nelson, has been bought by Robert Donaldson of Lethbridge, who will take over its operations soon. Mr. Donaldson was formerly with the Lethbridge staff of the Midwest Paper Company, and will bring his wife and son here from Lethbridge to make their home.

Fred Nelson has been a prominent business man here during the existence of his studio. He and Mrs. Nelson, Douglas and Shirley are leaving soon on a holiday trip to California and plan on visiting the Coast of this Province and possibly making their new home on Vancouver Island.

A second business on Norbury Avenue, Laurie's Handicraft Shop also changed hands at the weekend when Mrs. Verona Bulmer formerly of Calgary where she was with Hollingsworth's and of Vancouver where she was with Argosy, bought it from Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Laurie.

Protest Lateness Of Announcement Of Game Regulations

CRANBROOK, B.C., Aug. 25—Protests are being registered by big game outfitters and guides of the Windermere Valley over lateness of announcement by the Game Commission of the 1947 game regulations, which will affect their season commercially.

One outfitter and guide comments that his guiding business is principally with American parties and plans are necessarily made considerably in advance. He protests that setting back start of the season on all big game but bear to September 15 will seriously affect some of his parties whose service reservations were for early September.

DUMMY ON ROAD GIVES DRIVERS GITTERS

NEW WESTMINSTER, B.C., Aug. 25 (CP)—A Saturday night prank perpetrated by hoodlums in suburban New Westminster endangered the lives of motorists and also scared the wits out of them.

A dummy dressed as a man was stretched across the road, a rope attached to it enabled the prankster to give it some semblance of life as a motorist rounded the bend. Police failed to nab the operator of the prank.

Almost No Sign Revolutionaries In Batavia

By STAN SWINTON

BATAVIA, Jama, Aug. 25 (AP)—With stubborn Dutch completeness, this colonial capital has been transformed into its pre-war appearance as a bit of transplanted Holland, since "police action" against the Republic of Indonesia began last July 20. ! !

There is almost no sign now that for nearly two years this was the only city in Asia where a revolutionary Nationalist Government and a European Colonial Administration functioned side by side with surprisingly little administrative friction. ! !

For the Netherlanders, the good old days seem back again. The Dutch flag flies over erstwhile Republic buildings and the Republican Post Office.

On the streets, you see only military vehicles and civilian cars whose licence plates begin with the letter "B." Indonesian "X" plates have disappeared. All Republican-registered automobiles were confiscated within 24 hours after Dutch forces struck at 10 p.m. July 20.

In the Harmonie Club, stolid Dutch burghers drink their fiery gin, talking with eager enthusiasm of Dutch military victories against ill-armed and ill-organized Republicans. They complain with open bitterness that the U. N. sponsored cease-fire order cannot work out in practice and has had no other effect than to keep them from completing a job well begun.

There is no visible sign of the Republic left here, but inside countless small homes the Republic still lives. Moments after the Republicans broadcast a military communique or a speech, foreign correspondents are handed typewritten copies.

To those who know them well, the Republicans admit their government has had many failings, but with Asiatic calm they say that whatever the result of the U. N. decision, some day they will have a Republic from their own efforts—perhaps in five years, perhaps in 20.

JUMP TO RESCUE

WINNIPEG, Aug. 25 (CP)—Two Canadian Army officers parachutted Sunday night to the aid of Technical Sergeant J. H. Nelles of Gary, Ind., and his wife, whose plane had crashed near Water Hen Lake, 170 miles North of Rivers, Man., from which an RCAF Bakota bearing the officers had taken off.

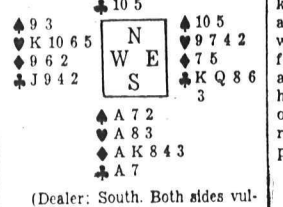
BARCLAY ON BRIDGE

By Shepard Barclay

"The Authority on Authorities"

WHICH ONE USES IT?

EFFECTIVENESS of the Blackwood convention depends often on which of the partners uses it to inquire about the honors opposite him. The information about the total number of aces held by the side—or perhaps kings—may be much more useful to one of the pair than to the other. Ordinarily the deciding factor is the amount of trick-taking material, exclusive of top cards, in each hand. The fellow with the larger total assets of other kinds is generally in the more favorable position to determine the gross resources of the entire pair, and hence more qualified to select the contract.



(Dealer: South. Both sides vulnerable.)

South	West	North	East
1. 1 ♦	Pass	1 ♠	Pass
2 NT	Pass	4 ♠	Pass
4 NT	Pass	5 ♣	Pass
5 NT	Pass	6 ♦	Pass
6 ♠
2. 1 ♦	Pass	1 ♠	Pass
3 ♦	Pass	4 NT	Pass
5 NT	Pass	7 NT

There were as many different bidding sequences on this big hand as there were tables in the duplicate where it was dealt, but everybody of course wound up in some kind of a slam. Those who got into 6-Spades, with bidding about like that in the No. 1 tabulation, were tied for the worst North-South scores. Those who got into 6-No Trumps ranked just above them. Beating these came the pairs which reached 7-Spades. And on top of them all was the one pair which got into 7-No Trumps by the bidding shown in No. 2 above. Since every declarer took all 13 tricks, the bidding decided the entire issue.

Notice what a difference was caused by South's second bid at the two tables. Where he bid 2-No Trumps to show his strength, North had no sure way to show at once that his hand was better than minimum, also his suit, except by hopping to game. The Blackwood 4-No Trumps here could only elicit useless information about North's lack of aces, and the second Blackwood bid of 5-No Trumps only showed one king. So the suit small slam was all South could safely try. But where the 3-Diamonds bid was followed by North finding out about South's four aces, North had so much unshown strength of other kinds that he took slight risk in bidding the biggest of all possible slams.

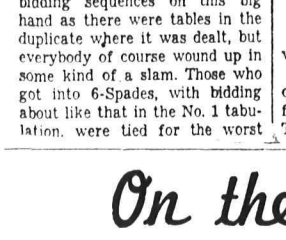
Tomorrow's Problem



(Dealer: North. Neither side vulnerable.)

If East leads the heart 7, how can that mark the winning way for North to play for 7-No Trumps?

SIX CHILDREN, ADULT DROWNS WHEN BOAT SINKS

MONTEITH, Ont., Aug. 25 (CP)—Six children and an adult lost their lives at a picnic near here yesterday when an outboard motorboat sank in Maude Lake. Three other children escaped death by clinging to an inflated automobile inner tube.

The children drowned within sight of their parents who stood, horror-stricken and powerless to aid, on the shore of the little lake 12 miles East of this Northern Ontario community about 30 miles Northeast of Timmins.

Higher Car Prices

DETROIT, Aug. 25 (AP)—President Henry Ford II announced Sunday that prices on "most models" of Ford Motor Company passenger cars and all truck models "are being raised from $20 to $97, effective immediately."

"This is an average increase of 4.2 per cent," the announcement said. "This action has been dictated by the simplest necessity of keeping Ford Motor Company on a sound economic basis."

The action followed price rises recently announced by other members of the automotive "big three," Chrysler and General Motors and several smaller manufacturers, including Hudson, Kaiser-Frazier, Nash and Packard.

Salvage of Practice Bombs Pays Off

PORT DOVER, Ont., Aug. 25 (CP)—Salvaging the metal remains of the thousands of practice bombs the Royal Canadian Air Force dropped into Lake Erie during the war is starting to pay off for a dozen Canadian war veterans.

The lead and cast iron they recover and sell for scrap becomes available for peacetime use. Besides the cash, the veterans, some of whom helped drop the bombs, get all the thrills of a big-scale underwater salvage operation.

They use a landing barge they bought from War Assets Corporation, two diving helmets, three or four diving suits and an air compressor and prowl around the Lake Erie bottom about 25 feet down.

Divers stay down 2½ to three hours at a time, picking up bomb noses and tossing them into a basket. They work on a piecework basis during the time underwater.

The men are working fast to get as much as possible accomplished before cold weather comes. Already they have cleared up the target area off Peacock Point in Lake Erie and now are working on another target area. When all the bomb noses have been retrieved, they plan to use their experience to set up a deep water salvage business on the Great Lakes or elsewhere.

Blood Service Saves Many Lives

By plane, train, boat, bus and car, emergency supplies of free blood and plasma have been rushed to all parts of British Columbia through the Red Cross Blood Transfusion Service since its inception in February. In the intervening six months, in addition to regular supplies to hospital blood banks in B. C., 172 emergency calls from doctors and hospitals all over the Province have been answered by the Red Cross blood bank in Vancouver. Many Kootenay persons contributed blood to this service.

Plasma rushed to Chilliwack in the middle of the night by Red Cross transport saved the lives of two seriously burned men; blood flown to Vancouver Island helped save the life of a severely injured logger; emergency operation at Prince George was performed with the aid of transfusions flown from the Vancouver Red Cross blood bank; and other cases at Port Alberni, Kamloops, Fernie, Penticton, as well as at scores of other spots, have received supplies of the miracle fluid.

Twelve British Columbia babies are alive and healthy because of blood replacements made through transfusions supplied by the Red Cross service. Affected by the dreaded RH Factor, which almost invariably takes the life of a newborn child, these infants have received an entire new supply of blood under a new therapy of blood replacement which has been adopted for the first time in Canada.

Complete equipment for this replacement with supply of the necessary type blood was recently flown from the Vancouver Red Cross laboratory to Lethbridge and transported from there by train to Fernie at request of a doctor in that locality. Just before the birth of the infant, Dr. W. G. Rice, Medical Director of the Red Cross Service, instructed the Fernie doctor by long distance on this replacement technique. The child is alive and healthy today, and serum from the mother has already been received at the Red Cross laboratory to be used for testing the RH Factor in other cases.

The Immigration Report

Lack of an immigration policy, which would outline the attitude of Canada toward the people in the British Isles and elsewhere in Europe, who are looking with longing eyes toward this country, is pointedly criticized by the Standing Committee on Labor and Immigration of the Canadian Senate. The report, which is now available in printed form, says:

"There is some difficulty in laying down a general policy, and some objection to settling policies for months and years to come, but something of the kind is now required. By virtue of the order-in-council that Canada will admit 5000 displaced persons as part of her aid-to-Europe contribution, and the presently defined class of fairly stable persons, there is no [illegible] in existence."

The Senate Committee [illegible] very interesting [illegible] make with respect to interpretations which are put upon immigration regulations by officials. It felt that the rules were necessary but "[illegible] may become strait-laced [illegible] out to be [illegible] that [illegible] has developed [illegible] into Canada and who [illegible] differs from a law in that it may be broken with impunity when circumstances warrant and should at times be broken. In recent months the rules of admissibility, as laid down in the regulations, have been applied in a manner reminiscent of the Laws of the Medes and Persians with a [illegible] Hardship in certain cases has resulted.

The Committee recommended that the Government [illegible] offices [illegible] and [illegible] ed, "and be [illegible] be made as humane and considerate as possible."

Over a long period of years every citizen of Canada has probably had related to him instances in which the immigration officials have made a rigid interpretation of the laws, the regulations and the rules. So far as that is concerned the same can be said about officials in other departments. If they went to them can be sympathetic, helpful and understanding, even kindly. But there are altogether too many of them who, clothed with authority, like to throw their weight around. Unfortunately, when that type of individual has been complained about, his senior officers have often been inclined to classify the complaint as coming from a "crank" or troublemaker, and the offending official has been encouraged to continue his course by the treatment accorded the complaint.

The Senate Committee suggests that the administration of the Act be made as humane and considerate as possible, and it is to be hoped that the recommendation is acted upon.

IN PRAISE OF REDUNDANCY

Recently, in reporting the proceedings of a drafting committee of the U. N., the New York Times noted a remark by Professor Koretsky, the Russian delegate. The Professor scored an unwieldy clause proposed by the British as "too detailed and wordy," and suggested that the committee might do worse than use the Ten Commandments as an example of brevity and simplicity.

Imagine anyone, in this day and age, making so simple and direct a directive as "Thou Shalt Not Kill"!

Let's put that law of the Hebrews in modern language.

"Subject to paragraph 5, of section 42; and to paragraph 8 of sub-section 6, section 83; it shall be deemed unlawful for one human being to take the life of another human being except in the following circumstance:

"(a) When he shall have been ordered to do so by the reigning government of his country.

"(b) When he is an official executioner in the employ of the aforesaid government.

"(c) When he may, by what is known as an Act of God, inadvertently do so by reason of failure of mechanical equipment he is operating: i.e., motor car, aircraft, or other vehicle.

"(d) When taking human life may fall within the scope of his duty to the state. (This sub-section shall apply to law enforcement officers, prison guards and military personnel while on duty in a national emergency.)

"Note: This section shall only apply, in whole or in part, to those nations who willingly accept its provisions. It does not apply in certain sections of the United States, for example, where a jury may decide that a Negro was lynched by his own hand, or to the government of the U.S.S.R., which reserves the right to launch a 'purge', with or without notice, and with or without trial.)

"Subject to the above provisions this section shall be deemed to have the effect of law wherever and whenever it is applicable."

Does that seem far-fetched? Is it any more far-fetched than the stupidity which sets up a United Nations organization on a sea of big words but fears to give it a name? Is it any more far-fetched than the ponderous arguments used to get the Security Council [illegible] Is it more far-fetched than hundreds of [illegible] trying to read a new [illegible] because [illegible] or Roosevelt was [illegible] enough to "bloody" insert [illegible]

B. C. PEACHES

In recent years British Columbia boxed apples have become a familiar sight in every important market place throughout Canada. B. C. apples of well tested varieties, picked right, graded, packed and refrigerated, have been well received in every market, and the uniform quality within the box has made the product famous.

Now peaches grown in British Columbia are following the trade lanes throughout the Prairies and beyond into Eastern Canada, and are meeting a favorable reception. It is the contents and not the package that is giving satisfaction and repeat orders, says J. E. Britton, Dominion Experimental Station, Summerland, B. C.

Early plantings of peaches in British Columbia were not too successful. A number of factors contributed toward a failure to market successfully a limited crop. Varieties were not suitable and growing, harvesting and marketing procedures were faulty.

In an attempt to improve this situation, the Summerland Experimental Station introduced new varieties in the late '20s and early '30s. This was followed by comprehensive investigations into maturity, harvesting and storage of this highly perishable crop. It was found that when peaches are picked fully mature they are still quite hard and will ripen perfectly in four to 10 days, according to temperatures. This growers were able to gain an increase up to 25 per cent in weight while consumers obtained a quality of fruit hitherto unknown.

In 1933, peach production in B. C. was 250,000 boxes, in 1940 it had increased to 517,000 boxes. The crop of peaches for 1947 is expected to reach the high level of 2,000,000 boxes.

The main reason for this remarkable increase is the reaction of markets to satisfactory high quality peaches, combined with good and reasonable selling procedure.

About one-third of the crop goes to canneries, while the remainder is sold throughout the fresh fruit markets.—Vernon Country Life

Film Production Hits Lowest Point In Many Years in Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 25 (AP)—Film production in Hollywood this week hit the lowest point in many years as studios weighed developments in the British tax situation before going ahead with future plans.

The doldrums are illustrated by the small number of pictures in work at the major lots. In contrast, Britain appears to be making more films than ever before.

Economy firings continue at several studios here and production staffs are striving to readjust to tighter markets. Observers believe conditions won't return to normal until Fall, if then.

COOPERATIVE TOWN

The "Rachel" company reports fine cooperation from natives of Eugene, Ore., who haven't seen a film location since "All That Money Can Buy." The townsfolk have been instructed not to bother the troupe, and there's little ogling and asking for autographs.

William Holden is doing "Rachel" on a joint loan-out from Paramount and Columbia. They, not Bill, get $100,000 for his services.

STRANGE MUSIC

Margaret O'Brien will sing a number in "The Big City" . . . Vincent Price tells me has four numbers in "Up in Central Park." Says he: "I'm going back to where I started—in the chorus." . . . And Sir Cedric Hardwicke, who once played Capt. Andy in "Show Boat," reports he is in a musical routine in "A Connecticut Yankee." He added: "It will be America's retaliation for the British film tax."

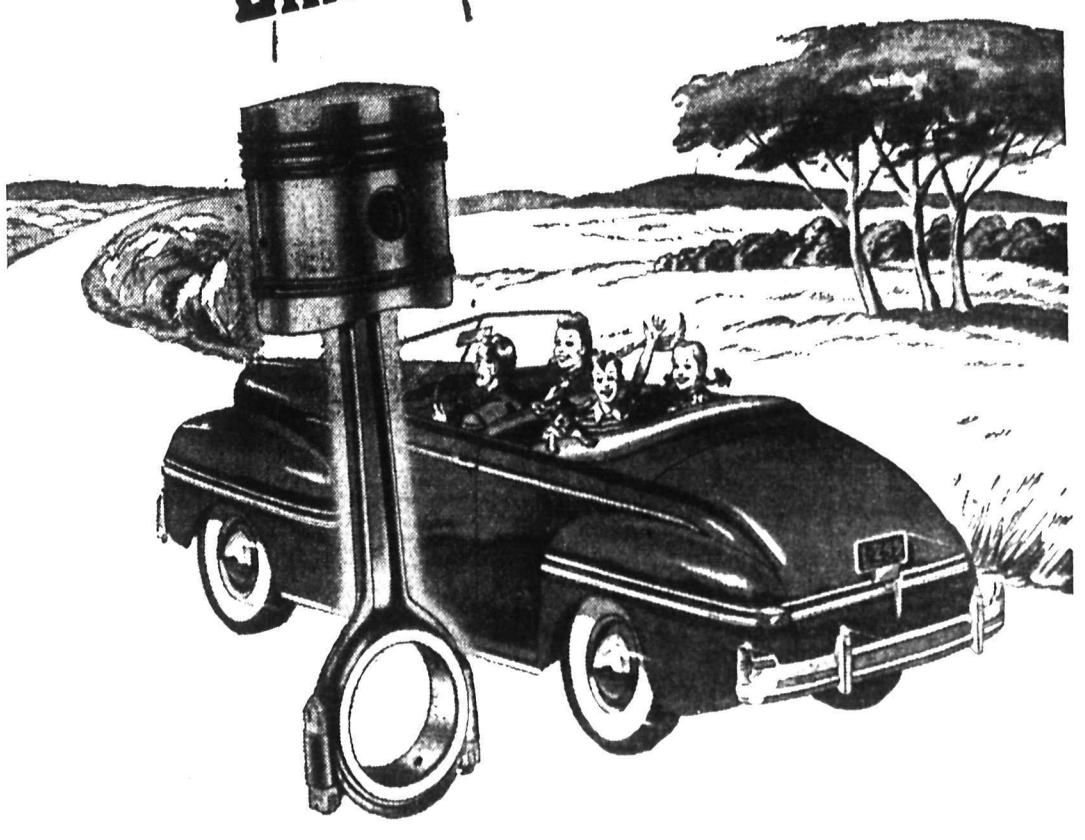
it gets SMACKED 1000 times a minute!



EVEN at normal cruising speed, the pistons of your car take a cruel licking. With each explosion one of them gets smacked down with pile-driver force—pressure runs more than a ton and a half. Heat builds up to 600° and higher. And the pistons take this hours on end—one thousand smacks and more every minute.

Aluminum pistons are made to stand this sort of punishment, and more. That's why they are used in airplane engines, too.

Another reason is their lightness, which in turn means power economy. Here's why:

You can push a modern, lightweight aluminum vacuum cleaner back and forth with almost no effort. (An engineer would explain it in terms of low inertia.) And inertia is important in a piston, which must reverse its direction every split second. The less force needed to stop it and head it the other way is that much power saved to drive plane or motor car with that much greater pep and speed.

THIRD STRAIGHT FOR CARDS, BUT DODGERS KEEP MARGIN SAFE

By STEVE ROBERTSON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

As much as St. Louis Cardinals huff and puff, they still can't blow down that six-game margin the Brooklyn Dodgers have atop the National League.

The Cards won their third straight game Monday night, defeating Boston Braves 5-2, but for the third straight day they also failed to dent the Dodger lead as the Brooks also won, edging Pittsburgh Pirates 11-10.

George (Red) Munger and Stan Musial teamed up to defeat Warren Spahn and the Braves, Munger fielding five hits for his 11th victory and Musial getting a two-run homer to start off the Card scoring.

The Dodgers had a close call fading off to a 7-0 lead in the second inning, and holding an 11-5 edge after six, the Dodgers received a scare as the Pirates went on a home run spree and shaved the margin to one run. Furthermore, the Bucs had the potential tying run on third in the ninth inning with only one out, but Hugh Casey, who had succeeded starter Clyde King in the seventh, retired Stanley Rich Kiner and Hank Greenberg without allowing a further score.

38th HOMER

Earlier, Kiner had slammed his 38th home run of the season. Other Bucs to hit for the circuit included Jim Russell, Billy Cox and Bob Sewell. Eddie Miksis and Pete Reiser hit homers for the Dodgers.

A home run by Billy Jurges with one on in the 10th enabled Chicago Cubs to defeat New York Giants 9-7. The Giants had tied the score with a two-run rally in the last of the ninth. Bobby Thomson and Willard Marshall hit homers for the Giants to make up the season total to 175.

Cincinnati Reds socked Oscar Judd for six hits and five runs in the first two innings, and went on to defeat Philadelphia Phillies 5-3 in the final game of their series in Philadelphia. Bucky Walters posted his seventh victory for the Reds.

SOX BEAT YANKEES

Chicago White Sox won their 30th one-run decision against only 12 defeats in such games when they nipped New York Yankees 4-3 in a night game. Four runs off Bill Bevens in the first two innings stood up as the Yankees got back three against Frank Papish, but were stopped by Pete Gebrian.

Two Boston hurlers fanned over three runners in the eighth inning with bases on balls to enable Cleveland Indians to defeat the Red Sox 10-8. Southpaw Ed Smith walked Joe Gordon and Jim Hegan with the tying and winning runs and Earl Johnson forced in another tally.

Piling up four runs in the first three innings, Philadelphia Athletics defeated Detroit Tigers 7-5 to move within a game of third place. Bill McCahan registered his eighth win for the A's while Freddy Hutchinson dropped his fourth in a row for the Tigers.

Sam Zoldak shaded Rae Scarborough in a pitcher's battle as St. Louis Browns shut out Washington Senators 1-0. A walk to Jeff Heath, an infield out and Billy Hitchcock's single produced the lone run in the second inning.

Fastball Teams Battle Against Time For Finals

WINNIPEG, Aug. 25 (CP)—With only two weeks to go before the Western Canada Senior Men's and Women's fastball finals get under way, the four Western Provinces are battling against time in an effort to decide their provincial winners.

When these representatives are decided, the British Columbia Women's champions will invade Alberta for a three-game series Sept. 2-3. The winner moves on to Saskatchewan for games Sept. 4-5-6, and the ultimate winner of that series plays in the finals against Manitoba starting Sept. 8.

The Men's Interprovincial Series takes place on the same dates as the women's, but they move Westward from Manitoba, starting off in Saskatchewan Sept. 2-3, and winding up at British Columbia for the finals commencing Sept. 8.

Three teams still remain in the hunt for the women's honors in Manitoba—Winnipeg C.U.A.C. hold a 1-0 lead over St. Boniface Athletics in their best-of-five semi-final, with the winner to meet St. Vital Tigerettes in the final.

The men's section is down to the semi-final stage, with Winnipeg Globetites, 1946 Western champions, meeting Winnipeg Crowleys in one half and C. N. R. and Winnipeg Legion in the other.

In Saskatchewan, the Regina Vics have already captured the Women's Southern title and now await the Northern winners, now in the final stage with Saskatoon Ramblers, last year's Western Champions, holding a 1-0 game-edge over North Battleford in their best-of-three series.

Regina St. Mary's and Moose Jaw Legion stand at one game apiece in their best-of-three series for the Southern Saskatchewan men's crown, while Saskatoon Merchants took the first game of the best-of-three Northern final from Prince Albert.

Alberta has already named its representative in the Women's division. The Edmonton Mortons defeated Calgary Alexandras two games to nil in the Provincial final which ended yesterday and now await the British Columbia titalists.

Calgary's Gashouse Gang, conquerors of Edmonton Veterans in the Alberta men's semi-finals, are one-game down in their best-of-three finals with Lethbridge Cadillacs.

TWO COAST TEAMS

Two Vancouver teams—Hedlunds and Pacifics—are tangling in the British Columbia Women's final, with Hedlunds out in front by two games to one in their best-of-five series.

Vancouver Ashers and New Westminster Army and Navy will meet for the lower mainland men's championship of British Columbia, the winner to square off against the Vancouver Island finalist — either Victoria or Ladysmith.

Royals Take Doubleheader At Rossland

A heavy slugging crew of Nelson's feminine softballers invaded Rosslad Sunday to take a doubleheader from a Golden City rep team 11-6 and 16-8.

The issue for the Royals was in doubt only once, when in the second inning of the first encounter the Rosslanders hammered out five runs. Meanwhile the Royals eked out runs and enjoyed a 9-6 lead by the top of the seventh. They banged out two more runs in the eighth while keeping the Rossland crew scoreless from the second inning on.

In the second game the Golden City team was unable to cope with the tricky offerings of Mrs. E. Colman, Clairie, who chucked for Rossland, was hit heavily and in the latter stages Nelson batsmen conected with almost anything that came over the plate.

Pippi of the Royals registered the only home run of the game. Appel and Stangherlin, of the Nelson roster turned in three-base hits.

Lineups were:

Rossland — Sdao, Laface, Crowe, Densky, Ling, Layton, Claire, Kootnikoff, Clairie.

Nelson — Wallace, Chursinow, Colman, Pippi, Stangherlin, McGinn, Appel, Ball, Konkin.

Indians Will Be Lightest Club In O.R.F.U. Circuit; No Big Names

(This is the first of a Canadian Press series on pre-season prospects of teams in the O.R.F.U. Today's story is about Toronto Indians. Tomorrow—Ottawa Trojans.)

By WILLIAM H. DUMSDAY
Canadian Press Staff Writer

TORONTO, Aug. 25 (CP) — There's only a couple of things about Toronto Indians to distinguish them from other O.R.F.U. Clubs as they pitch their wigwam this year—they'll be the circuit's lightest outfit and its most advanced in training.

There was much talk that the Redmen would fold their football teepee last Fall but John Stuart, their big white chief, came to the rescue and there's the talk that the horseman's output already has reached five fat figures.

Thanks to his race-track connections Stuart wangled his charges into the Woodbine infield and fixed up posh quarters for them in the jockey's house. There are no big names on the squad; there's no Grey Cup talk as during the last two campaigns but there's plenty of spirit and the boys hope to finish "no worse than third."

CREDIT OSSIE SOLEM

If this young club which lost most of its top-flight stars comes through, a lot of credit will be due for a grey-thatched gent from the South — Ossie Solem — who created football history at Syracuse University by reversing his centre. Solem will witness only the team's opening league contest before he returns to his job at Springfield College but the Indians claim the quiet-spoken Ossie who has been mentoring for 26 years, knows more football than the rest of the coaches in the country lumped together.

The team has been slugging away under Solem's guidance for six weeks and when he departs another Yank, Bob Cosgrove, will fill the coaching breach. Last year with Balmy Beach, the former University of Montana centre star, plans to use a special cast on his gimpy left ankle to lend wingline support to a club he admits is "mighty green."

BIG NAMES GONE

Gone from the squad through retirement or to other lineups are such big names as the Stukus brothers, Annis and Bill, Fred Kijek, Jake Gaudaur, Doug Pyzer, Jon Crowe and Harry Sonshine.

But there's a bunch or promising high-school grads on hand with more expected and Cosgrove sees "the making of a winning club in about three years."

From Balmy Beach, the tribe nabbed Ralph LaRue, a long-kicking half, and quarterback Ernie Becker, as well as three seasoned linesmen, Don Sinclair, Jake Edmiston and Bob McNally. Only imports are two youngsters from Canisius College, Buffalo — 225-pound George Doyle, a pass-grabbing end, and Pietrie McCleary, a 200-pound blocking back.

SALVAGED

Salvaged from last year's squad for backfield duty are speedy Ross McKelvey, plunging Mike King, kicker Bill Douglas, quarterback Nilo Ciotti and wing backs Ken Booker and Jack Gray.

Johnny Farmer, Vern Pickard and Bob McCullough all played end positions with the Redmen last year and veterans Ken George, Art Burns, Jerry Pryke and Juan Sheridan are available again for line strength, supported by rookie newcomers.

Infield Carries Injured Yanks

CHICAGO, Aug. 25 (AP) — Hit solidly by injuries and mishaps, the New York Yankees continue to win with the most surprising momentum in sports this season.

Spud Chandler has pitched only a few innings in the last six weeks and Frank Shea, the prize rookie, hasn't won a game in that time. Both were injured prior to the all-star game in Wrigley Field.

Yogi Berra, slugging catcher-outfielder, is in hospital with a strep throat. Last Saturday pitcher Allie Reynolds, who has a 16-7 record, pulled a shoulder muscle.

Charlie Keller was lost for half a season.

Still the Yanks win. Why?

"The biggest single reason," said Manager Bucky Harris today, "is that we've been able to ride out these injuries with sparkling infield play. Our infield has been in there every day—Johnson, Rizzuto, Stirnweiss and Mcunn — playing great ball and holding the club together."

Girls Softball Swings Into Semi-Finals

Girls Softball in the West Kootenays swung into the semi-finals over the week-end with doubleheader games at Trail and Rossland. Fruitvale played two matches at Trail while the Nelson girls were engaged in a similar tussle with the Rosslanders.

The games will be reesumed in the best-of-five series at Fruitvale and Nelson next Sunday with the starters meeting their weekend opponents. Winners of the semis will collide in a best-of-seven series for the Provincial trophy and the district title.

Rule as favorites on the strength of their exhibition playing are the Nelson Royals. They weren't beaten this summer in games which included engagements at Trail and Fruitvale.

The name of Toronto, of Indian origin means "a place of meeting."

De Gaulle Calls French to Support Rally

PARIS, Aug. 25 (Reuters)—Gen Charles De Gaulle, wartime leader of the Free French, today called on France to support his rally of the French people in the October municipal elections and create a "reformation" in the Republic by putting the State at the service of a "single common interest."

In a manifesto issued on the third anniversary of his entry into Paris after the liberation, De Gaulle declared the mass response to his appeal would demonstrate at home and abroad that the French people had chosen the "way of salvation", and would help end the "grave situation where the unity of the nation is threatened by schemings of separatists who do not play the game of France."

Stating that the administration of the constituencies and the political orientation of the country would depend in a large measure on the October elections, De Gaulle said the rally of the French people would put up candidates in the whole of France.

"This rally is not a party. On the contrary, the lists of candidates being presented will be composed of men and women of diverse tendencies but who have become companions for the task of public salvation."

$20 Million Hail Storm Damage in Alta. This Year

CALGARY, Aug. 25 (CP) — The Alberta Wheat Pool today estimated about $20,000,000 damage this year has been done by hailstorms in Alberta, the worst in 10 years.

J. Glen Elder, Manager of the Hail Insurance Board, said, however, that only between $1,000,000 and $2,000,000 will be paid in claims. Up to last week the Board received 4200 claims.

The Wheat Pool said approximately 600,000 acres had been hit by hail with much of the area damaged 100 per cent. "It is estimated that 25 per cent of the farmers carried enough insurance to cover the cost of labor, seed and other crop expenses."

WORST IN WETASKIWIN

One of the largest storms, the Pool said, was in the Wetaskiwin district, about 50 miles South of Edmonton, where a 50-mile strip extending from the district to the Saskatchewan border was damaged up to 100 per cent.

"Other storms causing heavy damage were those extending over an area of 100 miles wide from Vulcan to the Saskatchewan border; and another storm although smaller in area caused extremely heavy damage in an area between Nobleford and Seven Persons."

The island of Cyprus has an area of 3572 square miles.

. . . Why Musicials Are That Way . . . All Due to Sensitiveness

When Tommy Dorsey busted Benny Goodman a couple on the chin, at a Hollywood orchestral recording Friday for a movie sound track, it was not a case of temper, but of temperament. Benny had tootled some grace notes that were not on the musical score for his clarinet, and they apparently took Tommy's blares on the trombone by surprise, and didn't agree any too well with them.

Benny had meant no harm; his only object was to improve the musical effect. Tommy also meant no harm, I should judge; he only wished to improve Benny's musical judgment. A re-make, both of Benny's judgment and of the recording, was necessary.

No one can be a musician, especially one of class, and not have a fine appreciation of music, and in consequence be extremely sensitive to discords and to lack of harmony. This sensitivity may on occasion "jump the gap" and be transferred from the discords outraging the ear to discords of personality.

On one occasion, where personal feelings and consequent lack of cooperation among a group of individuals were creating problems for the late Fred L. Irwin, who headed Nelson's City Band for so many years in Nelson's earlier and middle times, the veteran bandmaster and choir leader made the confession to me:

"Sometimes I wonder why God created musicians."

This aphorism was voiced in a moment of despair by a man the community respected and loved; whose life outside business hours was wrapped up in music, who most of the time in his heart thanked the Deity that there was music, and who utilized his own powers and leisure vastly to Nelson's benefit.

A year or two later I repeated Mr. Irwin's remark to a friend, to illustrate some point we were discussing, and my friend, a lifelong singer, and a warm friend and admirer of Mr. Irwin, amplified it along another line, his long observation of Mr. Irwin leading him to the appraisal that a note slightly off pitch, or a singer's or instrumentalist's failure to accomplish just the effect Mr. Irwin sought, caused him actual anguish.

I hope Mr. Irwin's friends and admirers—among whom I count myself—will excuse these references to him, but I have just recalled that he once exclaimed happily to me, "I discovered last night that so-and-so has a soul." This particular bandsman, competent in every way, was meticulously accurate in his performance, and entirely dependable, but beyond the precise needs of the occasion, as indicated by the stresses marked on the score and by the bandmaster's directions, he would not go. The occasion that revealed this player's soul to Mr. Irwin was when he was assigned a certain solo part, and in the public performance went all out and gave it not only all that it required mechanically, but a vivid interpretation of his own.

MUCH TEMPTED

What I am stressing is my idea that musicians are, in the main, sensitive souls, and the more deeply they give themselves to music, the more they feel anything that is inharmonious. Most musicians, unless they have a sense of humor, must often feel sorely tempted—as the famous Benny Goodman was—to insert a few extra notes, or to take over some other player's part and show him how it should be played. And some may feel like hitting someone over the head, as evidently the famous Tommy Dorsey did when Goodman didn't like his rebuke over the variations he introduced.

There are times when a musician may feel rebellious over being "fenced in," and be seized with a desire to escape. I recall a case where a string snapped on an instrument just before a prominent orchestra was to file on the platform, at a public function in Nelson. Years later, whether in fun or not, I found the performer in question was credited, among his friends, with having used his powerful fingers to break the string.

To return to the Dorsey-Goodman bout, it was not exactly "something new under the sun," though perhaps not often reported on the highest musical levels.

HELP RESENTED

There was an incident in a certain military band training in Bramshott, England, during World War I. I am not sure whether it occurred indoors, or when the band was having a practice march. But the point was reached where the N.C.O., the most accomplished musician in the band, after the lieutenant bandmaster, and master of several instruments, including the bassoon, started a solo part on his instrument. His fellow performer on that variety of instrument, deeply sympathetic, yielded to an impulse to pick up the tune where he thought the N.C.O. was a bit weak, and add strength to it. Having gone that far, he continued to help out the soloist by carrying the tune with him to the end of the solo.

The N.C.O. didn't bat an eye, or change expression, so far as could be judged with his face screwed up, until the solo was ended.

Then he turned to the volunteer helper, and busted him one on the snoot. In fact, he acted real snooty. The band member who told me about it the day it happened said the soloist took the aid sympathetically afforded him, as a rank insult to his playing ability.

I don't suppose the lieutenant bandmaster "disciplined" anyone over the incident, which I would say was automatically closed when fist met nose. It arose because two musicians were sensitive—the one, with feeling for a fellow musician who seemed to be in a tough spot; the other, with regard to his escutcheon, which he felt was being given a gratuitous blot.

VANCOUVER, Aug. 25 (CP) — A tribute to the late Senator G. G. McGeer, K.C., was paid Sunday by Senator J. W. DeB Farris at a concert presented by the Vancouver Symphony Orchestra here.

Senator Farris spoke the lines of Aaron Copland's "A Lincoln Portrait," in honor of his late friend, who had been rehearsing the lines prior to his death. The late Senator was one of Canada's outstanding authorities on the life of Abraham Lincoln.

Scottish Output On Display

By STUART UNDERHILL
Canadian Press Staff Writer

EDINBURGH, Aug. 25 (CP) — Scottish industry goes independent today and shows the world that the Northern part of the United Kingdom can manufacture just about everything — including the kitchen sink.

The slick, streamlined display opened by the Duke and Duchess of Gloucester and held in conjunction with the International Festival of Music and Drama, contains handpicked examples of the best Scottish output. Emphasis is on up-to-the-minute design.

"Nobody ever has criticized Scottish workmanship," said an Exhibition official. "But our design has been weak. We have been content to stick to old and tried patterns. We want to change all that."

EXPORT TRADE

The Exhibition, known as "Enterprise Scotland 1947," is primarily aimed at export trade, though some goods soon will be available for the home market.

From 7000 examples submitted, 3000 were selected for display. Exhibits include shipbuilding, tartans, carpets, sporting goods, textiles, furniture, woollens, and leather—arranged in the order of evolution from the ancient country occupations to the "Scotland of the future" with prosperity based on new industrial and power developments.

Eye-catching displays include exact models of ships depicting the development of "Scotland as the cradle of the world's shipbuilding enterprise" from the first paddle-wheeler to an 18-foot model of the Queen Elizabeth.

THIEF DIVES OUT WINDOW WITH CASH

VANCOUVER, Aug. 25 (CP) — More than $725 was stolen by thieves here during the weekend, police reported.

Two women visitors from Los Angeles were robbed of a purse containing $125 and their passports. The pair, Hilda Kalenke and Mrs. Alice Rutherford told police that a man entered their auto court cabin early today and held a flashlight in their faces and asked for a dollar. He then snatched Miss Kalenke's purse containing the money and passports and dived out the window.

The mahogany colored 17-foot cabin cruiser Huloag owned by A. L. Hullah of Vancouver, valued at $3000, was stolen from the wharf at Bowen Island Saturday night, West Vancouver police reported.

BOSTON, Aug. 25 (AP) — The names of Sacco and Vanzetti were cheered again on Boston Common Sunday when a crowd of 400 shouted approval at a Socialist party rally of a resolution declaring that the two men were "murdered by the state" when they were executed 20 years ago for a double murder at a South Braintree shoe factory. Britons Pack Seashores And Shows for Vacation

By ED CREAGH

LONDON, Aug. 25 (AP)—How is the little man taking the current economic crisis?

Well, as of today, he's taking it on his back in a deck chair, with the sun beating down and the tide lapping at his feet, if he can possibly arrange it. This is vacation time, and for millions of people the jolly old crisis can just wait until the traditional two weeks at the seashore are over.

"It has been a most gentlemanly crisis," observed the London Sunday Observer.

Most Cabinet Ministers have joined the working man and his wife at the beach, although they were on call for "emergency" meetings. They were tired after a tough year. So were most people. Besides, the weather was gorgeous. There hadn't been a good dripping English rainfall for nigh onto three weeks until yesterday.

"After the holidays," said Deputy Prime Minister Herbert Morrison, "the Government must press for everyone to do that extra bit. . . ."

Meanwhile the Punch and Judy shows are packing them in at Brighton and Blackpool, the weekend holiday trains are jammed to the windows and the papers are full of bathing beauty pictures to inspire the harvesters and others who have to stay on the job and grumble "what holidays?"

Next Winter may bring cold houses and half-empty dinner plates, but today? Sir Alan Herbert, the poet-member of Parliament, put it in four lines in the Sunday Graphic:

"The sun is over Britain,
The kids are in the sea?
And if our doom is written
It shant disturb our tea."

American Motives in Europe Aid Distorted By Propaganda Abroad

By EDWARD E. BOMAR
Associated Press
Foreign News Analyst

American motives in trying to help Europe back on her feet are being distorted in a propaganda campaign whose intensity is hard to realize in a land where a free press and fair play are traditional.

Reminders bob up in news dispatches quoting Moscow's Pravda and Izvestia on some current turn of events, but only from time to time. In the meanwhile the campaign is being pressed relentlessly, day and night, in two score or more languages.

Both inside and outside the Soviet sphere of influence people are being told insistently that the Marshall plan for helping Europe help herself is just a device to fasten the grip of American trade monopolies on the continent.

As for Greece and Turkey, the United States is said to be backing reactionaries to extend American Imperialism. Britain is pictured as "deep in the plot." These at the moment are the main themes of Moscow and its satellites.

DAILY REPORTS

In an effort to keep tabs on what is being said about us abroad, the State Department receives a constant flow of reports from diplomats and carefully monitors the outpourings of scores of foreign radio transmitters, giving particular attention to radio Moscow.

A summary of foreign broadcasts runs to 100 or more pages of solid type daily. This not only testifies to the magnitude of the job but suggests that if any gratitude remains for the $20,000,000,000 or so we already have poured into Europe it is not Moscow's fault.

Random excerpts from one days report:

Moscow in German to Europe—"The meaning of the Marshall plan is now perfectly clear: The United States wishes to solve the economic problems of Western Europe in the interest of the U.S. monopolies . . . under the camouflage of a European relief scheme they want to end the economic independence of the countries of Europe."

"TO CONQUER STATES"

Moscow to Russia — "American monopolists are unceremoniously pushing aside their impoverished Anglo-French partners and are striving to conquer all vantage points in the economy of Western Europe."

Moscow in Hungarian to Europe—"As regards the so-called Communist Putsch, it exists only in the heated imagination of certain U. S. circles . . . (in cancelling a $7,000,000 cotton credit the United States wanted to deal Hungary a blow at the moment when the latter country was embarking on its large scale creative efforts aimed at the raising of the Hungarian people's material and cultural standards."

Moscow in Norwegian to Europe—"There is no doubt that the U. S. policy which aims at handing over industrial concerns in Western Germany to their former owners is also stimulating Fascist activity in other countries."

Moscow in German to Europe—"England (in Austria) tries with noisy propaganda and alleged generosity to disguise the expansionist schemes of British Imperialism."

These were taken from broadcasts of August 20 but it might have been any other day or night.

Means or coping with the campaign are another matter.

Congress has shown that it is far from being fully sold on the idea that the State Department should use an official American radio in peace time to counter propaganda with "facts" rather devote its efforts to fighting for the free-flow of objective news across all boundaries.

The issue is due for another Congressional airing next year.

Getaway Cars Recovered

GUELPH, Ont., Aug. 25 (CP)—A farmer's tip to police that an olive-green sedan had been abandoned in a patch of bushland Northeast of here has led to recovery of the getaway car used by Donald (Mickey) McDonald, Nicholas Mimlle and Ulysses Lauzon in their break a week ago today from Kingston Penitentiary.

Finding of the car, stolen from Henry Haunts of Kingston, provided a missing link in the story of the ex-convicts' movements but, although police immediately launched a hunt for clues in the Guelph area, apparently it afforded no solution to the mystery of the trio's present whereabouts.

"BACK ROAD"

The car was found on the Eramosa Road, a gravel highway looked upon by Guelph residents as a "back road." The Eramosa Road rambles Northeastward through Erin, Alton, and half a dozen other small communities to Orangeville, skirting most large centres of population.

The theory here is that the convicts followed this back road until they were within about five miles of Guelph, abandoned the olive-green sedan, walked a short distance farther along the road, and then, early Friday, made off with an automobile owned by R. C. Cairns of Guelph.

The stolen Cairns car next was sighted in Windsor, Ont., where two gunmen who robbed a bank of $40,000 Friday afternoon used it for a getaway and then abandoned it in Windsor. In the car, besides a shotgun and ammunition, police found McDonald's fingerprints.
