Russ Fling 14 Nazi Divisions Into Headlong Retreat

LONDON, March 10 (AP)—Moscow announced today that the Red Army had opened a third great offensive in the Ukraine and sent 14 Nazi divisions into such headlong retreat that they abandoned all their equipment — including 1100 mired tanks and big guns — and lost 20,000 men killed.

The new offensive, heading South in the middle of the Southern front, broke through on a 109-mile line, overran 300 populated places, including the pivotal stronghold of Uman and resulted in the captrue of 2500 Germans, the Russians said.

The announcement was first made by Premier Marshal Joseph Stalin and later information was given in the Moscow communique and its midnight supplement—all recorded by the Soviet radio monitor from broadcasts.

The latest Soviet report, which revised the number of German divisions routed upward from 10 to 14, said the German units in flight included one artillery, six tank and seven infantry divisions.

"The true scale of the German defeat can be judged from the huge quantity of trophies captured by our troops," the late bulletin said. "Weapons, equipment and military supplies were strewn on the whole course of the road from the Gniloietikich River to the city of Uman. All the roads were packed with the enemy tanks, self-propelled guns, armored troop carriers and trucks."

Five "Adolf Hitler tank divisions" which "were intended to stop our offensive" were compelled to abandon all their artillery and technical equipment and flee," said the Soviet communique.

This third offensive already has rolled forward from 25 to 44 miles in five days, Premier aMrshal Stalin announced in an order of the day, thus setting ablaze the entire Russian Southern front along a curving battleline more than 500 miles long. It joined offensives already under way North of Nikolaev and Kherson and in the region of Tarnopol to the West.

The Germans were retreating on each of the three big fronts as the Red Army mounted a supreme effort to throw them back into Rumania and Poland or cut them to pieces if they should elect to make a stand in the Ukraine.

Graydon Favors Gov't Proposed Industrial Bank

OTTAWA, March 10 (CP) — Gordon Graydon, Progressive Conservative House Leader, tonight placed his party in support of the principle of the Government's proposed industrial development bank, but wanted the project reviewed and strengthened through study in the House Banking Committee.

In an all-day debate on the proposed $100,000,000 corporation to provide medium and long term credits for industrial development after the war the only sharp opposition came from a Liberal speaker, G. G. McGeer of Vancouver-Burrard.

"I'm hopeful the bank will go much further than is now envisioned," said Mr. Graydon.

He said the nation must underwrite national prosperity in the post-war world and to the extent to which the bill would assure this he was for it.

Labor should be represented on its board of directors and not by a "token representation" he said. One of the main functions it should do is to help the "little man in business" who had suffered during war as a result of the concentration of business in the hands of large firms.

Mr. McGeer's objection was to the association of the industrial development bank with the Bank of Canada. He thought it would interfere with the function of the central bank in regulating the chartered banks to be in control of an institution competing with the chartered banks.

He did not object to the bill going to the Banking Committee, but hoped it would be later abandoned and replaced by a project similar to the Reconstrutcion Finance Corporation in the United States.

John Diefenbaker (PC-Lake Centre) asked the Government to give the House a complete picture of its post-war economic plans in order to enable it to appraise the bank proposal intelligently.

Beans and Split Peas "Frozen"

OTTAWA, March 10 (CP)—The Prices Board tonight announced the freezing, effective tomorrow, of stocks of dry white beans, yellow-eye beans and dry whole and split peas in the hands of processors, wholesalers, growers' cooperatives and other dealers and held in storage by chain and departmental stores.

The Board said stocks held by a retailer in a central or other separate warehouse also are frozen, but a retailer may dispose of his shelf stocks.

Officials said the action is taken to ensure that supplies of peas and beans may be made available to the Munitions Department, ships' stores and to other priority users.

Welsh Strike "Just a Little Worse"

LONDON, March 10 (CP)—Britain's rate of coal loss from the South Wales strike rose to 500,000 tons a week today as the number of strikers increased to 100,000, and the Ministry of Fuel and Power described the situation as "just a little worse" with prospects for a weekend settlement no better than even.

The walkout spread tonight to Lley Main, largest colliery in the North Wales coalfield, employing more than 3000 men.

The strikers went to the pits today—but not to work. It was a "collar and tie" appearance at the colliery offices to draw pay due for the last week.

The next move to settle the dispute, the worst coalfield strike since 1926 when the Government took over the mines, is set for tomorrow at Cardiff, where delegates of miners' locals will hear the details of the government's proposals to remove some of the main causes of the walkout

Believe Germans Refer to Churchill's Son

LONDON, March 10 (CP) — The Berlin Radio said today that British and American Commandos under the command of "a British General with the name of Churchill" had landed on Lissa Island off the Dalmatian Coast of Yugoslavia.

There was no confirmation here of the landing, but it was widely believed in London that the German broadcast was talking about Capt. Randolph Churchill, son of Prime Minister Churchill, who is reported to have gone to Yugoslavia presumably dropping by parachute.

The Berlin report said Churchill took command of the Allied troops on the island but it remained to be seen whether they would include the 2,000 followers of Marshal Josip Broz (Tito), Yugoslav Partisan Leader..

Churchill, 32, was the first Member of Parliament to become a paratrooper. The Allies have been giving aid to Tito's Partisans, but there has been no official announcement of the presence of British Commando or American Ranger troops in Yugoslavia.

"Events taking place at Lissa are of major interest. A British General with the name of Churchill arrived there a few days ago and has taken over command of Allied Island troops.

"Whether these troops also include the Tito followers of whom there are about 2,000 on the island remains to be seen. At any rate, there are several American and British Commandos under the command of General Churchill, comprising a total strength of about 1500 men.

Seek Roosevelt Advice on Union Wage Drive

WASHINGTON, March 10 (AP)—With pressure mounting for higher wartime wages, a movement developed on Capitol Hill today to write into law the "little steel formula" curbing wages.

Representatives Albert Gore and A. S. Mike Monroney (Dem., Okla) announced they will seek to add wage restraints to legislation prolonging the life of the office of price administration, now due to expire June 30. Hearings on a measure to extend OPA, began today before the Senate Banking Committee.

The wage control issue got attention at the Capitol as an off-stage American Federation of Labor-Congress of Industrial Organizations rivalry for prestige accelerated a campaign to overturn the little steel formula, and the troubled War Labor Board turned to the White House for guidance.

That formula, first originated by the War Labor Board and since incorporated into an executive order by President Roosevelt, limits general wage increases to 15 per cent above the level of January, 1941.

The CIO's principal attack on it now is through the demand by the United Steelworkers for a wage increase above the formula. The AFL members of the WLB, on their part, have asked the Board to recommend that Mr. Roosevelt lift the wage ceiling.

As a result, it was learned, Public members of WLB, have decided to seek a conference with the President for a general canvass of the situation and his advice.

SMALL VICIOUS STABS AT U.S. LINES REPULSED

Tense Atmosphere Over Anzio as Huns Move Troops

PLANES OVER ROME

NAPLES, March 10 (AP)—Two small but vicious German stabs at American positions Southeast of Carroceto on the Anzio beachhead were repulsed at dawn Thursday, leaving no-man's land so clustered with enemy dead and wounded that German details required several hours to remove them under a Red Cross flag of truce.

The two attacks gained not a yard of ground, Associated Press correspondent George Tucker reported from the beachhead. Other advices from that tense sector reiterated that the Nazis were making extensive troop movements around the beachhead perimeter, almost certainly in preparation for a fourth major try at driving the Allies into the Tyrrhenian Sea.

Fighter-escorted United States medium bombers, meanwhile, attacked railroad yards in Rome again today and heavy damage was reported.

The Nazi-controlled Rome radio claimed "a large number of houses were hit and it is feared casualties are high." The broadcast made the claim, unsupported in Allied announcements, that two of the raiders crashed in flames near the outskirts of the city.

One group of bombers hit the Tiburtina yards in Rome's Eastern suburbs, blasting rolling stock and warehouses. Another group struck the Littorio yards on the Northern limits.

Photographs indicated the main rail line from Rome to Florence, down which the Germans have been sending supplies to troops fighting the Allied 5th Army, had been cut in two places by the bombs on the Littorio yards.

Supplementing Thursday's estimate that 40,000 casualties had been inflicted upon the Germans in Italy since Jan. 22, when the landing was made at Anzio, headquarters announced that the total of Nazi prisoners taken in Italy now had passed 25,00. Of these, 3000 were taken on the beachhead and 1500 in and around Cassino.

There has been no comparable announcement of Allied losses by capture in Italy, as only the enemy could supply this figure.

The weather continued bad throughout central Italy, sharply limiting ground action.

Report German Officers Leave Finland

LONDON, March 10 (CP-Reuters)—Moscow Radio in a broadcast to Germany today said Hitler is evacuating high officers from Finland.

STOCKHOLM, March 10 (AP)—Acceptance of Russia's original armistice demands might precipitate civil war in Finland, Eric Lindquist, Foreign Editor of the Swedish newspaper Morgon Tidningen, reported today after a trip to Helsinki.

While Finland was reported awaiting Moscow's reaction to a revised answer to the Russian terms, Lindquist reported Finnish public opinion was so unprepared for peace that only one person was capable of uniting the people in their current dilemma. This person, he said, was Field Marshal Baron Carl Gustaf Mannerheim, the Finnish Commander-in-Chief.

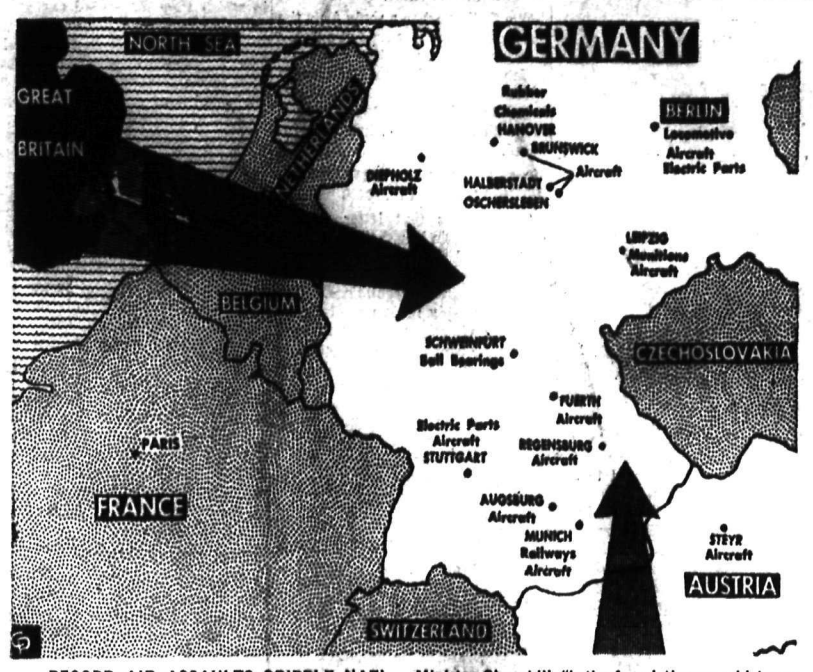
There is strong opposition to the Government's attempts to get out of the war, not so much because of any feeling of friendliness for the Nazis as because the long blackout of information had left a great segment of the population unaware of the nation's real predicament.

Spain Ousts Two Nazi Diplomats

WASHINGTON, March 10 (AP)—Spain already has ousted two German diplomats from Tangier and is making arrangements to move 15 others out because of their espionage activities, a United States Government official just returned from North Africa said today.

CHANGE ALTA. EASTER SCHOOL HOLIDAY

EDMONTON, March 10 (CP)—Alberta school-children this year will receive holidays from Good Friday until Easter Monday instead of the usual Easter week.



RECORD AIR ASSAULTS CRIPPLE NAZI PRODUCTION: After many days of the most terrible air blows ever hurled through the skies, it is a fact that the Allies have badly damaged the Nazi war machine. This, in the words of Prime Minister Churchill, "is the foundation on which our plans for overseas invasion stand in the scales." In short Allied strategy is to reduce the number of weapons available to the Nazis for the defence of Europe.

Stilwell Sets Fast Pace in Burma

NEW DELHI, March 10 (AP)—So fast is Lt.-Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell forcing the fighting pace in North Burma that a crisis which will make or break this year's Burma campaign is rapidly approaching.

Critics who once scoffed at the possibility of a major Burma action this year have begun to show real interest in the fact that, with limited resources, "Vinegar Joe" has forced his way approximately 100 miles into North Burma.

Stilwell is confronting the Japanese with a major decision—they must draw forces from other Burma fronts to halt his Chinese and American columns, or permit him to accomplish his objective relatively unhindered. His aim is to clear the Japanese from North Burma so he can build a new link to the Burma Road which can carry supplies to fighting forces in China.

Stilwell's action in diverting his American infantry column into operations in direct cooperation with his Chinese troops is a drastic revision of the first plan to have the column led by Brig.-Gen. Frank Merrill merely make a long-range harrassing penetration of Burma.

Instead Merrill's forces made a big left loop around the Japanese and came in 10 miles behind their ranks to spread confusion.

Stilwell is in command of all United States forces in the China-Burma-India theatre and as Chief-of-Staff under Gen. Chiang Kai-Shek, holds a position somewhat independent of the Southeast Asia Command, since China was never incorporated in the Command.

His opertions, however, are based on India and supplied from there and come under Lord Louis Mountbatten's Southeast Asia Command. For that reason, it must be assumed that Admiral Mountbatten not only approves Stilwell's present operations but will be ready to exploit them if he can prove his point—that he can take North Burma from the Japanese.

So determined is Stilwell to make his operation a success that he has taken personal command of the operation.

NEW DELHI, March 10 (CP) — Advances by British units on the Arakan front in Western Burma and Chinese-American forces in the North were reported today.

Chinese-American forces under Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell smashed Southward three to four miles in the Hukawng Valley of North Burma in the last 24 hours while Chinese troops continued to chop up trapped Japanese in the Ngamaw Ga-Walawbum-Ninghku Ga area, killing 600.

FARRELL FORMALLY ASSUMES OFFICE

BUENOS AIRES, March 10 (AP)—Gen. Edelmiro J. Farrell, who had served for two weeks as acting President of Argentina, assumed the office of President today upon the resignation of Gen. Pedro Pablo Ramirez.

Col. Gregorio Tauber, Executive Secretary of the Presidency, announced the action which made Farrell the titular head of the country.

Press Deplores de Valera Action

LONDON, March 11 (Saturday) (CP) — The Press deplored today Prime Minister Eamon de Valera's rejection of a United States Government request that Eire close the German Legation and Japanese Consulate in Dublin and the Yorkshire Post characterized the Irish action as "a deliberate rebuff."

The Yorkshire Post said "Mr. de Valera can be under no misapprehension about the strength of American feeling on the necessity of closing the legations.

"We deplore de Valera's refusal to comply with the American request," said the Daily Mail. "Enemy agents in Dublin have for too long been able to spy on us almost on our own doorstep. They jeopardize the safety of free nations, among which Eire is numbered."

LONDON, March 11 (Saturday) (CP Cable) — The diplomatic correspondent of Lord Beaverbrook's Daily Express reported today that during the recent exchange of messages between neutral Eire and the United States regarding Axis diplomats, Prime Minister de Valera "contacted the Canadian Minister in Dublin and through him sent a communication to Prime Minister Mackenzie King."

There was no clarification in the Daily Express story.

(At Ottawa, officials of the External Affairs Department said they had "no information" on the subject.)

Canadians Open Hospital Few Miles From Front

WITH THE CANADIANS IN ITALY, March 10 (CP)— Canadian doctors and nursing sisters are tending the wounds of Canadian soldiers in a casualty clearing station only a few miles from the front lines in the Canadian Corps sector of the British 8th Army front.

The most forward casualty clearing station in the corps, this one moved from Southern Italy and set up business in a factory.

Shells, which still plunk down quite close, damaged the big building and more than three weeks' work was needed before the first patients were admitted.

The Commanding Officer is Lt.-Col. J. P. Laplante of Granby, Que., who was on the staff of Montreal General Hospital before the war.

A few days before the station had opened, nursing sister Evelyn Galbraith of Renfrew, Ont., tidied up the operation room where she is the sister in charge. Her assistants include Cpl. G. J. Pelletier, Calgary.

A standard operating lamp, operated by the clearing station's own power plant, hung over one table while over the other was a set of lights made from the headlamps of German vehicles. The quartermaster, Capt. Norm Beattie, former Regina Roughriders Football player, found the lamps.

Chief Surgeon at the CCS is Maj. J. A. Ganshorn of Vancouver and the other medical officers came from many parts of Canada. Capt. M. A. MacPherson has his home in Vancouver. The chaplains include Capt. Bob Eagles of Victoria.

MARINES WHEEL NORTH AFTER AIRSTRIP TAKEN

Cut Willaumez Peninsula on New Britain in Two

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN SOUTHWEST PACIFIC, March 11 (Saturday) (AP) — United States Marines captured Talasea airdrome Wednesday and then wheeled North to occupy the township the following day, thus cutting in two the Willaumez Peninsula of North New Britain which they invaded only last Monday.

Headquarters reported the victories today. The successes established Allied forces more than 100 miles East of their Cape Gloucester holdings and within 170 miles of bomb-ravaged Rabaul.

No details were available concerning the final fight for the airstrip and town but a spokesman said enemy reaction, which had developed several hours after units of the first marine division gained its beachhead Monday, reached its peak of intensity Tuesday.

The marines, who landed on the Peninsula's West Coast opposite Talasea, cleared a path through land mines and began a push across the five-mile-wide peninsula.

The occupation of Talasea trapped Japanese caught on the Northern tip of the narrow land strip that sticks up like a sore thumb from the Northern Coast.

In the invaded Admiralty Islands to the North of the New Britain action, cavalrymen have pushed their steadily expanding lines 3½ miles Northwest of captured Momote airdrome on Los Negros. Japanese planes strafed the sector without effect.

In still another action on the borders of the Bismarck sea, Americans moving West of Saidor toward Madang achieved steady progress. Japanese planes bombed these forces Tuesday night and early Wednesday but headquarters said the attacks were ineffectual.

In the vicinity of Dutch New Guinea, flying boats bombed shipping, causing one medium cargo vessel to be beached and compelling Japanese to abandon another.

Sentenced in U.S. for Wearing R.C.A.F. Uniform

LOS ANGELES, March 10 (AP)—Ralph Hazelton, 19, declared by an assistant U. S. attorney to be a deserter from the Canadian Army, was sentenced today to six months in jail for wearing the uniform of the RCAF illegally.

U. S. District Judge J.F.T. O'Connor, who sentenced Hazelton, ordered that the jail sentence be terminated at any time if the Canadian authorities ask for Hazelton's custody to prosecute him.

Spies Operating Freely From Eire Bases U.S. Charges

WASHINGTON, March 10 (AP)—The United States publicly accused Eire tonight of affording a base for Axis spies endangering the approaching Allied invasion of Europe, but the Eire Government replied it was taking effective anti-espionage measures and refused an appeal to expel German and Japanese diplomats from the country.

The State Department announced that the request for expulsion of the enemy officials, held to be leaders in the spy ring, was transmitted to Prime Minister de Valera at Dublin Feb. 21. The department made public the text of a note setting forth the spy accustations.

Simultaneously the Irish legation here issued the text of de Valera's reply rejecting the request and stating that "should American lives be lost it will not be through any indifference or neglect of its duty on the part of this state."

De Valera also said he had received the assurance of the American Government that it "does not contemplate" using military measures—presumably invasion of Ireland—because of rejection of the request that the Irish eject the enemy officials.

The American note, presented by Minister David Gray, had reminded De Valera of the vast military preparations now underway in Britain and Northern Ireland and declared it is "vital that information from which may be deduced their nature and direction should not reach the enemy."

"Not only the success of the operation but the lives of thousands of United States soldiers are at stake."

Specific evidence of enemy espionage operations within Ireland was given in the assertions that (1) the German legation in Dublin, at least until recently, had possessed a radio sending set and (2) German planes had dropped into Ireland two parachutists equipped with radio sending apparatus.

While acknowledging Eire's good faith in her efforts to maintain strict neutrality, the United States said it actually is impossible to determine "with certainty" the extent of the enemy's Irish-based espionage against American shipping and troops.

It then cited the fact that German and Japanese diplomatic and consular officers in Dublin still enjoy their customary immunity and declared "Axis representatives in every country use these special privileges and immunities as a cloak for espionage activities against the United States."

The Eire Government was specifically requested to force the recall to their homelands of the enemy officials and the American note expressed the hope this would accomplished by a complete break in relations between Eire and the Axis.

De Valera replied to this that forcing removal of diplomatic officials "is universally recognized as the first step toward war" and he added the Irish Government "could not entertain the American proposal without a complete betrayal of their democratic trust—Irish neutrality represents the united will of the people and the Parliament."

On the charge the German Minister had a radio transmitter, De Valera said he had been "debarred from using it" for a long time and that for "some months" it had been in the custody of the Irish Government.

"As regards the two parachutists dropped in Ireland last December," the Irish reply said, "they were apprehended within a few hours. Two other agents dropped here since the war began met a similar fate. The fifth, who arrived during the first year of the war, remained at large until Dec. 31, 1941, but the police were aware of his presence here almost from the first moment of landing and successful activities on his part were rendered impossible."

He also disclosed that the British Government had officially given support to the United States in its efforts to have the Axis officials ousted.

"The Irish Government do not wish to comment on this," he said, "except to remark that it is perhaps not known to the American Government that the feelings of the Irish people towards Britain have undergone a considerable change precisely because Britain has not attempted to violate our neutrality."

"It has become increasingly apparent," the American note said, "that despite the declared desire of the Irish Government that its neutrality should not operate in favor either of the belligerents, it has in fact operated and continues to operate in favor of the Axis Powers and against the United Nations on whom your security and the maintenance of your national economy depend.

"One of the gravest and most inequitable results of this situation is the opportunity for highly organized espionage which the geographical position of Ireland affords the Axis and denies the United Nations.

"Situated as you are in close proximity to Britain, divided only by an intangible boundary from Northern Ireland, where are situated important American bases, with continuous traffic to and from both countries, Axis agents enjoy almost unrestricted opportunity for bringing military information of vital importance from Great Britain and Norfhern Ireland into Ireland and from there transmitting it by various routes and methods to Germany.

"No opportunity corresponding to this is open to the United Nations, for the Axis has no military dispositions which may be observed from Ireland."

LONDON, March 10 (CP-Reuters) —London evening newspapers put out late extra editions today headlining news of the United States Government's request to the Government of neutral Eire to break with the Axis.

The London Evening News had for its top streamer: "U. S. Requests Eire to Break With Axis" and followed it up in slightly smaller type: "Britain Supports Call to Expel German Envoy".

The paper's headline on the story read: "Dublin gets nervous."

Because of newsprint shortage extras are seldom seen on London streets, but the capital is more than ordinarily excited by this latest turn.

Milk Will Come Under Public Utility Control

VICTORIA, March 10 (CP)—Amendment to the Public Utilities Act introduced in the Legislature today by Premier Hart will bring milk under the Public Utilities Commission. The bill reads that "milk" means milk and such products of milk as are supplied, processed, distributed, or sold in any form.

Also inserted in the definition of "public utility" is included: "The production, supply, distribution, disposition, use, marketing and sale of milk to or for the public or any corporation for compensation."

The amendment is a proclamation measure and will come into operation on a date to be fixed by the Cabinet which may declare the clause may be applicable only within such area or areas of the province as are defined in the proclamation.

The Cabinet also may from time to time change the boundaries of any area defined; define a new area or areas; cancel the application of the act to any area defined and declare that the act shall no longer be applicable.

Another clause states that the natural products marketing (B.C.) Act shall not be operative so far as milk is concerned, in any area defined by the Cabinet unless such area is released from provisions of the Public Utilities Act.

Paris Radios Off the Air

LONDON, March 10 (AP) — The Paris Radio clicked off the air tonight, indicating that R.A.F. night bombers which last night blasted a Nazi airplane factory near Marseille, might have returned to deliver another blow at the German-dominated continent. (See page 4).

An air raid alarm sounded in Berlin today for several hours but no bombs were dropped, a Stockholm dispatch said. The alert presumably was caused by reconnaissance planes at United States heavy bombers took a day off after hitting the German capital four days out of six.

The German-controlled Scandinavian Telegraph Bureau quoted both German and Swedish air passengers as saying that American bombers attacked Berlin from all directions on Wednesday. The noise of the engines could be heard in deep air raid shelters, they said, adding that the sky was "crowded with bombers."

The audience was kept in a fit of laughter during the play "Statistically Yours."

The proceeds of these performances will be turned over to the Junior Red Cross whose money is used locally to help the Senior Red Cross, to assist the local war effort, to better health and living conditions in the community, or to help cases of individual need. It may also be sent to Junior Red Cross Headquarters designated either for the B.C. Crippled and Handicapped Children's Fund or the National Junior Red Cross War Fund.

Police Boat Makes Daring Coast Rescue

VANCOUVER, March 10 (CP)—A daring rescue of two men and two boys, aboard a 30-foot fishing vessel which had grounded on rocks off Third Beach, was made today by a police boat and its crew, after two other craft had failed in the attempt.

Fred Lunow, his two sons, Bob and Roy, and H. Miller were aboard the small craft, identified as V-356-L which grounded on the rocks about 1 p.m.

For four hours the fishermen attempted to repair their faulty engine, until rough seas drove the vessel onto the rocks, endangering their lives, and tearing a gaping hole in its side, half filling it with water.

Labor Minister Pearson introduced an amendment to the Female Minimum Wage Act which will require employers to furnish employees the details of basic wages, bonuses, cost of living allowances and deductions.

Premier Hart introduced an act to include merchant seamen in tax exemptions already granted to soldiers, sailors, and airmen.

Premier Hart also introduced an act authorizing reserve of lands for the purpose of settling British Columbia's returned men, under the Veterans Land Act. 1942, of the Dominion. This measure authorizes reservation of the million acres in various parts of the province already announced by the Premier.

Bill Would Give Farmer Right to Shoot Pheasants

VICTORIA, March 10 (CP) —The bill providing for wide-open shooting by farmers of pheasants on seeded areas was changed by Attorney General Maitland in the Legislature tonight.

The new amendment will give the Game Commission power, by regulation to designate certain areas where damage is being done, and in which areas the farmers will have the right to protect themselves by shooting without a permit, pheasants doing damage to the crop.

This permission will only apply to the farmer himself, or, if he is unable to shoot, to one of his bonafide employees named in writing, and any birds shot must be reported.

The idea of the new amendment is to give garmers protection in certain places in the Province where the situation becomes serious at times.

Cranbrook Teachers Draw Up Salary Schedule

CRANBROOK, B.C.—A teachers' salary schedule to apply to all Cranbrook teachers has been drawn up by the Cranbrook local of the British Columbia Teachers' Federation, to which all local teachers belong, and has been agreed to with a minor amendment by the Cranbrook School Board.

Board of Trade Again to Write to St. Laurent; Feel Main Point on Sons of Freedom Protest Ignored

Accentuation of examples of violation and defiance of Federal wartime regulations will be given by the Nelson Board of Trade in a second letter to Minister of Justice L. St. Laurent again urging the Dominion authorities to action against lawbreaking Doukhobors.

The feeling, when a reply from the Justice Minister was read at a Board meeting Friday, was that points on which the Board based its written appeal for the Dominion Government to accept responsibility in dealing with the problem, had been ignored.

NO REFERENCE TO DEFIANCE FEDERAL REGULATIONS

The Board's first letter pointed out that certain Doukhobors had defied Federal authority in matters of compulsory registration, and of alternative service regulations. The Minister's reply made no references to these violations, stating in part, "The offences—arson, destruction of property, indecent exposure, etc.—are all defined in Criminal Code of Canada, the enforcement of which is a Provincial responsibility. Needless to say, if the situation gets beyond control of local or Provincial Police, the R.C.M.P. will be available to render assistance."

B.C. Attorney General R. L. Maitland will be advised of the Board's continued efforts.

WAVE OF SUPPORT

Efforts of the Board of Trade Special Committee on the present Doukhobor situation brought a wave of response in letters from officials, Hon. R. L. Maitland, J. H. Blackmore, New Memocracy Leader; M. J. Coldwell, C.C.F. Leader; and A. MacNamara, Deputy Minister of Labor; and from District organizations, Winlaw Farmers Institute, Slocan Women's Institute, Kaslo Board of Trade, Arrow Lakes Farmers Institute and Lower Slocan Farmers Institute.

CARDS TO PRIME MINISTER?

The action also brought a response from two or three individual Doukhobors in the form of a letter to Prime Minister Mackenzie King in which they disclaimed any guilt for Doukhobors for depredations as listed by the Board in its appeal. The Doukhobors' letter indicated that the registration cards, ration books and other documents had been forwarded to the Prime Minister.

District organizations in the letters to the Board all indicated their support of the appeal made to Federal authorities. Many had sent similar letters to the Government. The Slocan Women's Institute in a letter to Justice Minister St.Laurent stated members felt that the Government was not giving proper attention to the flouting of wartime regulations by the sect, and urged "action against dangerous and obnoxious conditions." It also urged the scrapping of the Immigration Contract under which Doukhobors entered Canada. Doukhobors, it pointed out, broke the terms of the contract by engaging in business, lumbering, mining and other industry, while claiming the conveniences of the contract. Other letters were of similar tenor.

WORK ON SOLUTION

Sympathy with the views of the Board was expressed by Attorney Coneral Maitland; while C.C.F. Leader Coldwell wrote that action must be taken to end such lawlessness as referred to in the "astounding list of damages." Any aid he could give was promised by New Democracy Leader Blackmore.

The Government felt the proper moment of action had not arrived, Deputy Minister MacNamara stated. The Government was working on a solution to the problem, he said.

Reality of Hell Explained by Mission Speaker

Verifying his statements by direct references to Sacred Scripture, Dr. R. J. McKenna, Parish Priest of Dundalk, Ont., who has conducted a Mission at the Cathedral of Mary Immaculate during the past week, Friday night brought home to Catholics and non-Catholics in attendance the meaning and reality of Hell.

"In Sacred Scripture, Our Lord referred to hell, its darkness and sorrows and hardness, 108 times," Dr. McKenna pointed out. "In seven verses of Scripture, He repeated three times that hell was 'where the worm dieth not and where the fire is not quenched.'

"There must be a place where God's word prevails, and hell does not end in a few months or a few years, it is forever and forever and forever. Common sense tells us that if hell were to end, it would no longer be the treat that it is."

The speaker dealt with the objection that "God could not be so cruel, he wouldnt' let his people suffer like that."

"It isn't God's cruelty," Dr. McKenna emphasized, "it is man's own doing. He brought that punishment on himself. He preferred the easier way of getting along with imself than with God; by disobeving God's laws and casting aside His divine plan for us, man openly defied God and said 'I will not serve'.

DAMNATION SELF-INFLICTED

"Hell was created for those who insist on final disobedience, for those who, even given the chance of repentance on their deathbed, spurn God's mercy and choose eternal damnation," he said. "That damnation is self-inflicted, and in hell there will never be a whisper for mercy, because these souls even in Hell will cling to their obstinate defiance, and will still harbor hatred in remorseful hearts.

"Any sane person will shudder in horror, when on that final judgment dav the vast amphitheatre of souls will be divided into the saved and the damned. Christ will say to the one side, 'Come ye blessed of My Father', and to the other side, 'Depart from me ye cursed, into everlasting fire, which has been prepared for the Devil and all his angels."

Conference Rehabilitation Plan Amendment Is Defeated

VICTORIA, March 10 (CP) —The House spent two hours and 45 minutes today on introduction of seven new bills, defeating one opposition motion on division 28-17 and having a second motion adjourned after two hours were frittered away discussing it alone.

The defeated motion was an amendment by Colin Cameron (CCF-Comox) dealing with rehabilitation plans for the forthcoming Dominion Provincial conference. The original motion by opposition leader Winch would have the House resolve itself into a committee of the whole to examine all factors relating to the findings and recommendations of the post-war rehabilitation council.

This was amended by E. T. Kenney (LC-Skeena) professing confidence in the Premier and Government. Mr. Cameron's sub-amendment would nullify the Kenney amendment.

On division T. D. Pattullo (Ind.-Prince Rupert) and Tom Uphill (L.-Fernie) voted with the CCF.

The second motion introduced by Mrs. D.G. Steeves (CCF-Van North) asked the Provincial government to petition Ottawa to train Indian doctors, nurses and teachers for leadership among their own people, and to give full educational and health opportunities to all North American Indians living in Canada in order that they may be prepared to participate in all the rights and privileges of Canadian citizenship.

This was amended by R. H. Carson (LC-Kamloops) to urge the Federal Government to take into consideration expansion of present facilities for higher education, including vocational training, that guidance officers being appointed to encourage Indians to take advantage of existing facilities, and that Indians be advised and assisted to erect modern homes, on reserves or outside, that the low rate of welfare allowances to them be raised and health facilities be expanded with additional hospitals.

After two hours discusion by 16 members, Herbert Gargrave (CCF-Mackenzie) moved adjournment so that he could study the Carson amendment.

Right of appeal from decisions of the Public Utilities Commission is given in an amendment to the Motor Carrier Act introduced by Premier Hart.

Want Public Apology From Pearson

VANCOUVER, March 10 (CP) — Public apology or public reiteration of statements made in the Legislature made in the Legislature Wednesday by Labor Minister Pearson are asked by East Indians and Chinese residents of the Province.

Mr. Pearson, speaking on a bill to give East Indians the vote, classes them as "non-cooperative, dishonest and unreliable." The bill was subsequently declared out of order.

Speaking for the Khalsa Diwan Society, Secretary Nagindar Singh Gill expressed regret at the Minister's stand, contending that few people's lack a quota of "black sheep."

"When Mr. Pearson includes the Chinese in his sweeping condemnation," Mr. Gill said, "he assumes the chauvinistic attitude of Nazi master race theories and denies all principles for which the United Nations are fighting."

Mr. Mor Cheolin, on behalf of the Chinese Publicity Bureau, termed Mr. Pearson's statements "unworthy" of the Minister and unfair to his countrymen. He said the Chinese had received praise from Ottawa for their loyalty and support of the war effort.

Accuracy of U.S. Bombs Staggers Berlin Population

STOCKHOLM, March 10 (AP) — Germans are convinced that American bombers "must have some new weapon" making possible such pinpoint accuracy as the destruction of the ball bearing works and tank plants in Erkener, Southern suburb of Berlin, a Swede arriving today from the capital said.

The Erkener works were a target of day raiders Wednesday. German dispatches said the bombers had penetrated to the heart of the city yesterday, taking advantage of the thick clouds.

"There must have been more than 500 incendiaries landed on that factory," the eye-witness said of the ball-bearing works. "The whole place was covered and five or six blocks were blasted or butted by fire. Berliners simply are astonished that such a small place could be hit so accurately."

The Swede said he counted 120 big fires and that the whole district was in ruins. Skies above Berlin were an eerie red from fires.

In another bombing Wednesday, he said, a submarine parts plant at Wildau was smashed. He said Propaganda Minister Goebbels, also gauletier of Berlin, had called a meeting of all district leaders, senior party men, police and storm troopleaders to plan total evacuation of Berlin within the next few days, should the daylight raids continue.

Foreign passengers leaving Berlin received Gestapo warnings not to talk or they would be barred from returning to Germany.

Telephone Line in Northwest Now Complete

EDMONTON, March 10 (CP) — Final strands in the 2600-mile telephone system installed in Northwest Canada and Alaska by the Northwest Service Command of the United States Army have been joined on the 595-mile circuit from Norman Wells, N.W.T., to Whitehorse, Y.T., it was announced today by Brig.-Gen. L. D. Worsham, Commanding General of the N.W.S.C.

The line parallels the Canol project pipeline at Norman Wells and is connected with the 2026-mile telephone system extending from Edmonton to Fairbanks, Alaska, completed by the U.S. Army last Fall. It is now possible for officials in Washington to talk directly with men in the field throughout all Northwest Service Commad installations.

The Alaska telephone system, Alaska Highway, American-financed Canol Project and airfields constructed throughout Northwest Canada and Alaska are related parts of the defence of North America and a possible offensive route against Japan.

The line climbs mountain ranges over passes rising abruptly to more than 5,000 fet. It crosses scores of rivers and at one point in crossing of the Mackenzie River, a four-mile submarine cable was laid.

Says Nazis Are Setting "Booby Trap" in Rome

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla., March 10 (AP)—Most Rev. Joseph P. Hurley, Bishop of the Roman Catholic Diocese of St. Augustine, today charged "our Nazi enemies" with setting the "most dangerous booby trap of history" in Rome in an effort to lure the American Army into it.

"If we spring this trap, so cunningly prepared by the arch-criminals of our times," he said in an article appearing in today's Florida Catholic, "we shall destroy not only the City of the Popes and the capital of Christendom, with all that it holds so scared to the Christian heart, but we shall destroy our own prestige and thereby make a decent peace almost impossible."

Bishop Hurley said countless millions in Europe and South America would "turn resolutely" from a country, which, despite Christian professions, used the Prussian plea of military necessity and "dared to raze the beloved shrines of the Christian centuries."

Round-the-Clock Flights Over the Burma Road

WASHINGTON, March 10 (AP)—Planes are flying around the clock over the "aerial Burma Road" into China, four pilots of the China National Aviation Corporation reported today.

Enroute to their homes for a rest, the pilots estimated that each CD-3 —the standard airliner—equalled 90 trucks in delivery capacity under present operating schedules by which they make 1½ round trips a day, or three crossings of the Himalayas.

The pilots are Harold Chinn of Vancouver, B.C., Ray Allen of Bristol, Okla., Julius Petach of Port Vue, Pa., and Peter Goutiere of Bangor, Me.

C.N.A.C., operated by Pan American Airways for the Chinese Government, now hauls about 10 per cent of the total going over "the Hump", the rest being handled by the United States Army's Air Transport Command.

"The Air Transport Command now measures its load delivered in thousands of tons," Allen said, "while we used to measure ours in pounds. Where we used to try to hold things together with six overworked airplanes, the Army has a fleet of hundreds of their big transports flying.

"Pan American now has 100 flight crews on the China job—10 for every one we had two years ago."

MAN KILLED IN SEVERE WIND AT EDMONTON

EDMONTON, March 10 (CP) — One man was dead and three persons were injured slightly as a result of a two-hour windstorm, at times raging up to 78 miles an hour that struck Edmonton at 6 o'clock last night and caused considerable damage throughout the city.

Howard L. Rollag, 19, of Booge, South Carolina, employed by North West Airlinss was killed at the municipal airport as he attempted to climb into a heavy transport plane and apply the brakes when it broke loose from its moorings.

Rollag slipped and was crushed under the wheels. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Rollag, live at Beaver Creek, Minn.

Three persons received minor injuries when two streetcars collided head on at Jasper Avenue and 101st Street, the city's main intersection at the height of the storm. Dozens of streetcars were tied up and normal service was not restored for several hours.

Sidewalk signs and 16 electric light and telephone poles were torn down and indirectly caused several other traffic accidents. The storm tore bricks from a cornice of the Empire Theatre building and was responsible for 12 fire alarms.

On Saskatchewan drive a large tree was blown down and carried electric light wires with it blackening out the district. Numerous other districts were without electric power for several hours.

Perry replied to question by W.A.C. Bennett, Coalition South Okanagan.

Diphtheria at Coast

VICTORIA, March 10 (CP) — A second child believed to be suffering from diphtheria was taken to Royal Jubilee Hospital isolation on Thursday.

Earlier this week a 12-year-old school girl was diagnosed as suffering from diphtheria, first case in Victoria in nine years.

Dr. Richard Felton said while he was concerned with the two cases there was no reason for the public to be alarmed.

R.C.A.F. Transport Fliers Hop to India in Two Days

By HAROLD FREEMAN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

MONTREAL, March 10 (CP) — From Canadian snows to the sweltering heat of India in two days, and across the Atlantic and back in a day and a half, are the latest in unique marks hung up by the Atlantic group of the RCAF Transport Command.

The India flight was made by a crew under Capt. S. R. (Ray) Carver of Green City, Ohio, and Montreal, who delivered a Liberator at Karachi 49 hours and 32 minutes after taking off from Dorval airport here. The trip was made with a full load of 56,000 pounds of aircraft part sand radio equipment.

The double Atlantic crossing — with one aircraft and its crew making the round trip of 6300 miles with a single stop in Britain—was recorded by Transport Command men under Capt. Paul Zimmerman of Mineola, L.I., and Montreal.

Actual flying time for the 8500-mile journey to Karachi was 39 hours, 41 minutes. Remainder of the time was taken up at staging posts on the way for refuelling, loading and discharging freight and waiting for weather improvements.

Normal flying time for delivery of aircraft to India is five days, and pilots are not allowed to "push" bombers fresh from the factory but on this particular occasion conditions were favorable for the record and the Liberator was handed over at Karachi fit for immediate operational duty.

Wants All Dope on Philpott Commentary

OTTAWA, March 10 (CP) —John Diefenbaker (PC-Lake Centre) gave notice at today's opening session of the Commons radio broadcasting committee that he wanted production of all correspondence exchanged between Elmore Philpott, Vancouver radio commentator, and Ira Dilworth, CBC regional representative on Philpott's recent commentary on Lt.-Gen. A.G.L. McNaughton former Canadian Commander overseas.

Dr. J. J. McCann (L-Renfrew-South), reelected chairman, told Mr. Diefenbaker this information would be available together with any other information required by committee members when CBC officials were called as witnesses or when documents were requested.

R. G. Boucher (PC- Carleton) had asked whether it would be possible to call an official of The Canadian Press as a witness to give advice on the preparation of news for broadcast and other kindred matters.

Dr. McCann said this could be done but he added the CBC obtained its news from both the CP and the British United Press and this was prepared for news broadcast by the CBC's own staff.

He suggested it would be a better idea if the CBC news editor was called to appear before the committee. He said this matter would be taken up by the Agenda, sub committee.

M. J. Coldwell, CCF leader, suggested that steps be taken to obtain a final report from two U. S. public relations experts—identified as Drs. Estorick and Seipmann—on their survey of Canadian broadcasting made two years ago. He said preliminary reports had been tabled but a final report had never been received.

The committee decided to hold the majority of its sessions on Wednesday starting at 11 a.m., and 8 p.m. and Dr. McCann said the opening business meeting March 15 should lead off with War Services Minister LeFleche whose department has jurisdiction over the CBC, as the first witness. Other witnesses in order will be Rene Morin, Chairman of the CBC Board of Governors; Augustine Frigon, Acting General Manager of the CBC, and then representatives of the Canadian Association of Broadcasters.

Dr. McCann suggested that it might be a good idea if persons associated "in a critical way" with U. S. broadcasting might be called. "Let us get as many of these critics before us as possible so we can get their suggestions and advice," he added.

Gen. LaFleche asked if it were considered necessary to ask for a witness from the BBC. Dr. McCann said it might be a good plan to ask any BBC man who happened to be in Canada during the sessions of the committee, but he hardly thought it necessary to have a BBC expert make a special trip because Gladstone Murray, former CBC general manager, had already brought to Canada his deep knowledge of the British set-up.

Dr. McCann said he hoped this year's inquiry would meet with success and Olaf Hanson (L-Skeena) put in, "Yes, but it's going to be tougher."

Dr. J. C. Veniot (L-Gloucester) was elected vice chairman

Injustices in Our Income Tax Laws

Critics of our Canadian Income Tax laws are supporting the Winnipeg Free Press in attacking as chief weaknesses "four intolerable injustices which do not exist in the British or United States systems," and which are set out as follows:

"1. Our tax laws are undemocratic because they vest in tax officials sweeping discretionary powers.

"2. Our tax system taxes the same income twice through the Corporation tax and the personal income tax system.

"3. Capital is taxed as income in annuity and pension cases. Capital is not in Canada taxable. Buyers of annuities or pensions invest their capital. Yet when the pension starts to pay off, this withdrawal of capital is taxed as income.

"4. Tax collecting machinery, under the pressure of wartime burdens, has bogged down. Tax staffs simply cannot keep up with the job. Result is the taxpayer may not know for two years or more whether he has paid his due taxes, overpaid or underpaid, for which he is heavily penalized."

No one will deny that vesting wide discretionary powers in officials is undemocratic. That there has been no sustained complaint against the steadily increasing powers that are being delegated by Parliament to Income Tax officials is due only to the fact that so far the powers have in general been wisely exercised. Department officials generally endeavor to be fair and reasonable, within the boundaries of the law.

We have in British Columbia an exceptionally fine body of men in the Income Tax Branch. That might not always be so. Power long held has a tendency to create a spirit of arbitrariness and tyranny. Parliament should say what it means by statute and neither place officials in an unfair position of trying to make their own law nor subject the public to the ultimate danger of government by officials who have no direct responsibility to the public. Legislation is the business of our elected representative in Parliament.

For double taxation of the same income there has never been an excuse. It is bad in principle, cramps industrial development, reduces employment, hampers Canadians in competition for export trade and has the ultimate effect of increasing living costs.

Nor should pensions or annuities in which the public has invested its money, which has already paid taxes, be taxed a second time. Exemption of all pensions as the Free Press seems to advocate, would be going too far. Pensions to the extent that they are not provided out of payments by the pensioner should within reasonable bounds, be taxed, always provided that the money which created the pension fund had not previously been taxed.

There is an element of unfairness in criticizing the department for delays in assessments. Nearly every undertaking at present suffers from shortage of help and the Income Tax Department cannot be expected to be immune to these difficulties.

There is, however, another instance of serious unfairness to the taxpayer which the Free Press does not mention. That is that while a taxpayer is delinquent is very properly forced to pay interest the Government refuses to pay interest on overpayments by taxpayers. Interest charges should work both ways. If the Government retains for six months, or a year, or 18 months, money that does not belong to it, interest should be added to the refund.

Good Luck Helped to Relieve Coal Famine—We Should Guard Against Another

In Canada we have had this Winter fortunate conditions affecting fuel consumption. Weather has assisted us in getting by with very much less consumption than in the colder Winter of 1942-43.

In the Winter of 1942-43 shortage in many parts of the country was acute. Schools were closed, home owners had to resort to all sorts of expedients in order to keep their families warm, war industries were threatened.

Steps were taken to avoid similarly severe shortages this Winter. The government inaugurated a fuel conservation campaign for reduction in consumption, steps were taken to augment labor suply for coal mines, subsidies were granted enable to produce coal mines that it would otherwise have been uneconomical to operate, consumers were persuaded to purchase coal during the Spring and Summer so that there might be no slack season for mines operation.

All these measures, plus the present mild Winter, helped to prevent any acute shortage, and, in fact, to make operation of some mines temporarily unnecessary, but would we have been in such a favorable position if we had not had good luck with the weather?

Coal mines in some parts of the West are now either closed or preparing to close because the coal subsidies are to end on March 31.

Very serious consideration should be given by the government at Ottawa to a renewal of the subsidies. It would be much sounder business to build up a stockpile of coal against eventualities than to risk a recurrence of such a shortage as that from which the country and its war effort suffered in the Winter of 1942-43.

Experience of One Brotherhood With the C.I.O.

To the Editor:

Sir—In view of the controversey now going on between the C.I.O. and the Independent Union, at the Trail Smelter, some excerpts from a press report of the 17th convention of the International Brotherhood of Boilermakers Iron Ship Builders and Helpers of America, held in Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 2 may be interesting to the employees of the Smelter.

From the report of the Executive Council the following excerpts are taken: "For instance, we found the ever present Communist, or 'fellow traveller', working skilfully and adroitly through a small following, striving to ficers, the policies of the organization, and create suspicion and distrust of your local ofthe methods of handling its funds."

"Again, we found a sprinkling of the Nazi and Fascist-minded individuals, who were inspired by sinister forces to do everything possible to discredit the trade union movement, so Hitler and Hirohito would become the beneficiaries of national disunity."

"Working along the same channels were the inside agents of the C.I.O., who seized upon any opportunity available to discredit the efforts of loyal trade union officers, hoping that they would be the beneficiaries of such dissention."

These excerpts are taken from Labor, a newspaper, which the editor of which addressed the convention as follows:

"We have never printed a line of paid advertisi a,gnnNovnsto v vertising, and we have never taken a dollar from a politician, and never will."

AN INTERESTED ONLOOKER.

Today's Horoscope

If this is your birthday you are spurred on in adversity, rather than discouraged. You are an ardent lover, and the bitterest enemy. Never halfway in your work or social life, you are either thoroughly liked or disliked. Benefits will be received from unexpected sources in the next year, and uncommon activities will progress. Elders will help and hinder. Discretion is advised in all business transactions. Today's child will possess psychic talent, gaining thereby, but will need to exercise great care in routine business matters.

SUNDAY'S HOROSCOPE

You have a friendly and engaging personality if today is your natal day, and you form many lasting friendships. You should let your gift of intuition guide you, as it is more accurate than your carefully drawn conclusions. You are impulsive in love, but honest and faithful. Vocational activities may involve hostility or censure of those in authority in the next 12 months. Apparent reversals are likely to prove blessings in disguise. Today's child will gain much through the aged, despite some worry and occasional delayed success. Love and social affairs are well signified.

Etiquette Hints

Do not let the good table manners you were taught at home lapse as you grow older. If you have children they are apt to copy what you do rather than what you preach. This letting down of correct standards is bad for your morale, too.

Ski Fans, R. R. 1, Nelson—What was the longest jump made on the Nelson Ski-Jump last year and who made it?

On March 25, 1943 after a number of jumps ranging between 123 and 144 feet on the new hill on the Ymir road, Robert Mills of Nelson leaped 178¾ feet and on the following run he jumped 182¼ feet, a new record for the hill and for Nelson jumpers. Both jumps broke the hill record of 147 feet, 10 inches set by Signalman Danny McKay a week before, and also exceeded a 151.2 leap made by Alf Johanson, Kimberley ace, four years ago.

G. B. L., Trail—Please advise me where to send my Ronson Lighter to have it repaired.

Send it to Imperial Optical Co., 507 Baker Street, Nelson.

R. B., Trail—I would like to know where I would have to write for my birth certificate. I was born in Crookston, Minn., U.S.A., and what would be the price?

Write to the Bureau of Statistics, State Government Offices, St. Paul, Minn., and give full particulars. The cost depends on the length of time it will take to search. In British Columbia the cost is $1 for searching if the search takes no longer than three years; after that the fee increases. The average fee in the United States would be from $1 to $2.

A. M., Creston—Would you please tell me if a beauty parlor operator can charge $1.50 more for a permanent wave, than they did a year ago?

Without further information, the answer would be no, there is no authorization for increased prices, but much depends on whether or not the operator is giving the same kind of permanent wave as was given a year ago. Write to the Cranbrook Branch of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board and explain the complaint as clearly as possible. The Cranbrook Office covers the Creston area.

Reader, Nelson—Will you please tell me the national anthems of the following countries: Australia, Scotland and the United States?

In the case of Australia and Scotland, "God Save the King", is the national anthem sung, as in all British Dominions, but each has another anthem belonging to that particular country. In Australia the anthem is "Advance Australia Fair" and in Scotland it is "Scots Wha Hae". The national anthem of the United States is "Star Spangled Banner".

Badoglio Pleased With Statement by Churchill

NAPLES, March 10 (AP) — Premier Piertro Badoglio expressed gratification today at Prime Minister Churchill's statement on disposition of the Italian fleet. A spokesman for Badoglio's government said "the incident is closed."

Mr. Churchill told Commons yesterday that the transfer of warships to Russia from either America or Britain, or from the Italian Navy, had been under consideration but that the question of ultimate disposal of Italy's ships might not be settled until the war ends. He said "at present no change is contemplated" in arrangements under which Italian ships, with Italian crews, are coordinating in the war.

Previously Badoglio had expressed distress at reports there were plans to divide the Italian fleet among Britain, the U. S., and Russia.

REPORT ACE GERMAN FIGHTER PILOT KILLED

LONDON, March 10 (AP) — The Paris radio said today that Lt.-Col. Mayer, a German fighter pilot credited with 102 air victories, had been killed in combat. Mayer was cited recently by the Germans as the only surviving original member of the Richthofen Squadron, named for the German Ace of the First Great War.

LONDON — Britain's Medical Research Council is drying human blood for transfusion at the rate of 3,500 bottles a week. The Council co-operates with the Ministry of Health s Regional Transfusion Service and the Army Blood Transfusion Service. All blood is given freely by volunteers. Britain began drying blood for this purpose in 1939; by 1942, 26.000 bottles were ready. The Germans were reying on "whole blood" until the beginning of the Libyan campaign.

Roosevelt Is Silent on Italian Fleet

WASHINGTON, March 10 (AP)—President Roosevelt asserted today that what he and Prime Minister Churchill had said about disposition of the Italian fleet was correct, that no controversy could be made of it and that he would violate military security if he discussed what vessels might go to various places.

Mr. Roosevelt spoke in response to a question at a Press conference.

The President announced a week ago that a third of the Italian fleet, or its equivalent, might be turned over to Russia.

The President remarked that quite a lot of people had omitted some of his key words and he agreed with a reporter that those words were: "Or the equivalent."

The story of the partition of the fleet came out because newsmen followed a presidential clue.

President Roosevelt told his news conference on Feb. 22, in reply to queries about a call he had received from the Russian ambassador that Marshal Stalin had sent him a question and that he was trying to find out about it.

At the President's March 3 conference, reporters recalled the President's remark, asked him about it, and drew forth the information.

Flying Fort Does "Sightseeing" Over Berlin

A U.S. BOMBER BASE, England, March 10 (CP) — The crew of the Flying Fortress "round trip ticket" did a solo 'sightseeing' flight over Berlin yesterday closer to the capital's pavement than the observation roof of a city skyscraper.

Lieut. Lyman D. Barkalow, 28, brought the damaged plane home almost two hours late, after skimming across Berlin, maneouvring through intense anti-aircraft fire and almost clipping corners off of some of the tallest buildings.

Due to oxygen equipment failure and the threat of enemy fighters, the plane flew the journey back at between 500 and 1000 feet.

Unable to remain at a high altiture with the rest of the formation, Barkalow dropped down through the clouds—and found himself alone over Berlin.

British 'Lankies' Strike Nazi Aircraft Factory

By GLADWIN HILL,
Associated Press Staff Writer

LONDON, March 10 (CP).—Britain's four-engined Lancasters, striking again at Germany's aircraft production, reached far into Southern France last night and bombed the large factory at Marignane near Marseille, the Air Ministry announced today.

The R. A. F. raid kept Allied aerial blows going around the clock following yesterday's bombing of Berlin through dense clouds by the American Air Force.

A shakeup of the top men of the German Air Force has been precipitated by the series of heavy assaults on Berlin in which at least 324 Nazi planes were destroyed, Swedish Press dispatches reported.

The Air Ministry communique telling of the night operation said the large aircraft factory at Marignane was attacked in bright moonlight and first reports indicated the bombing as accurate and concentrated.

At the same time Mosquitoes, giving Western Germany no ease, struck objectives in that area.

The Air Ministry said none of its planes was missing.

The Lancaster raid was the R. A. F.'s third night precision attack on German aircraft factories in France in a month.

A United States communique last night said yesterday's blows against Berlin and a coordinated raid on unspecified objectives in central Germany—identified by the Berlin radio as Hanover—cost seven heavy bombers and one fighter, figures that contrasted sharply with 68 bombers and 11 fighters lost Monday.

Says Slot Machines May Be Illegal

TORONTO, March 10 (CP).—The Star says today that legislation Attorney General Blackwell will introduce in the Legislature will make it illegal for a person to have a slot machine even in his home.

The bill, the paper says, will be patterned after Manitoba legislation which permits a peace officer to enter without warrant any premises which he has reason to believe contains a slot machine. Such entry may be gained by force if necessary.

Germans Told "Other Side Is Weary Too"

LISBON, March 10 (AP) — Das Schwarze Korps, organ of the S.S. Elite Guard, in a grim editorial declares that while Germans may be weary of war they would remember that the Allies may also be "sick and tired" of the conflict.

Likening the present stage of the war to the last half-mile of a difficult mountain climb, the organ said:

"We can be blunt for a change and say that in the fifth year we are really fed up with the whole war—the danger is the tendency of Germans to forget the other side is getting tired too. In the first Great War the enemy was more than once within a hairbreadth of collapse, but we didn't see it . . .

"This time Germany must remember that while her enemies — particularly the United States— are better off in some respects, they are getting tired too, and in the last analysis victory means simply holding out one day longer than the enemy."

Says Doukhobor Situations Can Be Avoided

VANCOUVER, March 10 (CP) — Race-group headaches such as the Doukhobor situation might be avoided if Canadians would absorb future European immigrants into the Dominion pattern, Judge J. O. Wilson of Cariboo County Court, told a meeting here last night.

Loneliness of immigrants has driven them to tight communities to where they retain speech and customs of their former homelands much longer than if they were scattered throughout the country, he said.

Red Cross Returns Near Halfway Mark

TORONTO, March 10 (CP) — Headquarters in the Canadian Red Cross dominion appeal for $10,000,000 reported today collections were near the halfway mark, with returns showing subscriptions of $4,788,007 or 48 per cent of the objective. The drive will end March 15.

Help the Young People To Health - Happiness

What a common sight to see a young person whose bloodless face and feeble frame are evidences of poor circulation and weakness where bounding health and rosy cheeks should reign.

Young people in such a condition are generally of an anaemic nature and require a preparation containing iron to improve the blood content.

Milburn's Health and Nerve Pills meet this requirement, as they contain three concentrated forms of iron of an easily assimilated nature together with other valuable ingredients indicated for building up the system and helping to improve the blood content.

Drivers Need 1943 Forms in Purchasing Gasoline

Necessity of car owners retaining their 1943 dash board car licence forms for use with gas ration books was emphasized before the Board of Trade Friday by President G. A. Hoover. He had been asked to bring the matter before members, he said.

New ration books do not come into use until April, old books still being used to carry the numbers of 1943 licences. The last year's forms are necessary for identification of books in purchasing gasoline.

Vitamins Fight Against Disease

BY IDA JEAN KAIN

You can lead a man to good nutrition, but you can't make him eat it unless it is disguised. And that is what is beginning to happen. Whole wheat bread has always been good for us—and never much more popular than a cold tub. Now, all the things that made whole wheat bread so healthy have been put into white bread, and a lot of other foods are being improved.

Personally, I think the food industries deserve a great deal of credit not only for some of the most important finding but also for their prompt application to consumer goods. You homemakers should take every advantage of these advances. See that all the flour used is the enriched variety. Serve 100 per cent whole grain or enriched bread (some of each is a good plan). All dark bread is not whole grain. Look at the label to see what you are getting. Vary the cereals, but always make it the whole grain or the restored kind with the vitamin content plainly labeled.

When serving fruit juice for Vitamin C, bear in mind that orange juice and grapefruit juice contain twice as much of the vitamin as tomato juice, and three times as much as pineapple juice. Serve the fruit, whole to prevent the 30 to 50 per cent loss of the vitamin that occurs in squeezing and straining.

Use the improved foods and serve meals that are nutritionally well balanced. You can raise your family's resistance to disease, help them all to buoyant rather than merely possible health, and even make it easier for the children to get good marks in school:

Drugs Are No Good for Lumbago

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M.D.

Lumbago is not a separate disease. It is simply a pain in the back—good old backache and in many ways resembles that other good old reliable—headache.

Backache in children is always a more serious indication than in adults. And the child may not complain vocally of pain, but by its attitude, posture and method of stooping down to pick up anything on the floor, in a way that protects the back, the trouble may be suspected.

Lumbago is named after the lumbar muscles — a very thick, heavy, matted group of musculature. Here is where lumbago is located in the vast majority of cases. These muscles are nearly constantly moving — not only when you are working. You know full well when you get lumbago because you can't find a comfortable position. Everything is smooth and automatic usually, but as time goes on and infections from teeth and tonsils leave small abscesses which turn to fibrous spots the mechanism gets clogged and grinds and creaks and there you are.

The treatment of simple muscular lumbago is indicated from the causes. Drugs have little or no place in the treatment and only do harm. See about the infections in teeth and other places. And after the acute stage, massage, exercise even though it nearly kills you at first. And the hot iron applied over a flannel cloth—Grandma's method— still works in 1944.

ARABIA SUBJECT OF NOTED AUTHOR'S TALK

CRESTON, B.C.—Freya Stark, noted author and world traveller, told a packed auditorium audience about her experiences in Arabia. Miss Stark owning property in Creston is visiting here after 13 years absence and was introduced by Guy Constable.

Miss Stark was sent to the Middle East by the British Government and was resident there when the Axis forces under Rommel began their Eastward drive across the desert towards Egypt.

In the Summer of 1941, Miss Stark was sent to Bagdad and she told of the propaganda to the Arabs promising them help. It is understood that the defence of the Middle East prior to the war was in the hands of the French. Due to the Allied manpower shortage it was essential that the Arabs remain neutral and it turned out they were friendly which greatly strengthened the Middle East position.

If the Allies had not had the support of the Arabs they would not have had India today. Miss Stark described Arabia from a geographical, topographical and political standpoint.

16 Is Too Young to Be Married

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX

Dear Miss Fairfax:

I read a letter in your column from a 16-year-old girl who was asking you to help her choose between a soldier and the man to whom she was engaged. My advice to her would be to stop all plans for marrying now. She is too young to know whom she wants to marry. She will be much better off if she continues her studies until she is old enough to realize what marriage really means.

I'm 16 years old, a junior in high school, like dates and a lot of fun, but I love my studies more and they come first. I plan to obtain a college degree before I ever consider marrying. I think any girl needs her dates, fun, but also a good education. She'll be much happier in the future.

—K. L.

Congratulations, my dear, on taking such a clear-headed view of securing a good education before rushing into matrimony. I hope the other 16-year-old, who wrote to this column, will see how sensible is your point of view. I'm glad that you and I agree that 16 is pretty young for a girl to marry.

Self-Reliance . . .

Family Ties Can Be Too Close

By GARRY C. MYERS, Ph.D.

In these wartime days when so many children are being neglected by their parents, so many children starving for parental affection and companionship, there are still some other children who are hampered with too close emotional ties to the mother.

The commanding officer at any station receiving recruits in the Armed Forces can tell you of many tragic cases among young men who were never weaned emotionally.

Many bright young women who could go to college, join the Services, or find employment away from home just can't bear to leave the family. I wonder, also, how many broken homes and ruined grandchildren there are because the young husband or wife never had been weaned from mother or vice versa. Perhaps most troubles with inlaws are tied up in apron strings.

While providing the tot ample affection, companionship and protection, train him early in physical and emotional self-reliance, and enjoyment with others his age, so he will be comfortable out of your sight for short periods at first, then for longer and longer ones.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q. My daughter, 10, thinks I am being mean because I don't let her do things the neighbor children do. I don't let her go with her boy friend to a game or show.

A. Fifteen years from now she will be grateful for your good sense now. Pray for continued poise. Don't argue with her.

No Drug Cure Yet for TB

Diasone, a drug hailed as a cure for tuberculosis, is still in an elementary experimental stage. Belief that it will prove effective in wiping out out the TB scourge is premature.

Reports on the drug, and on promin with which experiments are also being made, have been received by Dr. W. K. Massey of the Nelson TB Clinic.

Experiments with diasone are being conducted by Dr. Charles K. Pepper, superintendent of the County Lake Tuberculosis Sanitarium in Illinois. "Diasone is still an experimental therapeutic agent" writes Dr. Pepper. "Much more must be learned about dosage, toxic reaction, change which take place in the tuberculous lesions and the many other ramifications of such a problem.

"We cannot be too emphatic at this time in stating that this compound is not ready for even limited distribution until a great amount of investigation work is completed."

No conclusive record of favorable results being obtained from the use of promin on humans has been established. Experiments on guinea pigs indicated that promin is a protection against tuberculosis, rather than a cure for those already infected.

Dr. Pepper's work with diasone is only one of numerous experiments being conducted in clinics, universities and institutes of all phases of tuberculosis prevention and treatment, Dr. Massey pointed out.

A determined search is being made to find medication that will be as successful in curing tuberculosis as the sulfa drugs have been in curing pneumonia and other infections. The main difficulty confronting experimenters is to find a drug or agent which will reach the tuberculosis germs without harming human tissue. The T.B. tubercle is encased in a waxy substance. To find a drug which will cut through the wax without destroying human tissue is the problem.

In the meantime, Dr. Massey said, plenty of rest with good medical and nursing care, preferably in a sanitarium, with modern methods of lung collapse when indicated, is the quickest road to recovery

Board Seeks Land Settlement Office for District

Establishment of a Soldiers Land Settlement Board office in this District to administer the work of the Board in the Kootenay will be sought by the Nelson Board of Trade.

This move was decided upon at the Board meeting Friday after C. F. McHardy read a letter indicating that the present plan was to establish offices on Vancouver Island, the Lower Mainland, and in the Okanagan, the Okanagan office to administer Land Settlement affairs for the whole Interior. Members agreed with Mr. McHardy's contention that such was the area of Kootenay land that might be utilized in soldier settlement that the problem of administration would be too vast to be handled adequately from the Okanagan.

Car Damaged, Mrs. Mann Slightly Hurt, as Brake Fails

Considerable damage was done to the under-section of a car driven by E. A. Mann of Nelson, while Mrs. Mann was slightly hurt, when the car was driven into the heavy wooden structure on the North Shore ferry ramp in order to prevent it from running into the lake because of a braik failure.

Mr. Mann was applying the foot brake to bring the car to a stop at the ferry stop sign, when the brake pedal rock broke. As the car kept moving down the hill, Mr. Mann put the car into second gear and stalled the engine, but was still unable to prevent the car from gathering speed and continuing downhill. He chose to steer the car into the heavy wooden railings at the foot of the hill, the car riding over the top of the railings and stopping on the axle.

Constable Frank Slater, who investigated, stated the choice was a good one, for the chain acros the landing would not have held the car.

Mrs. Mann was treated for bruises and cuts at Kootenay Lake General Hospital.

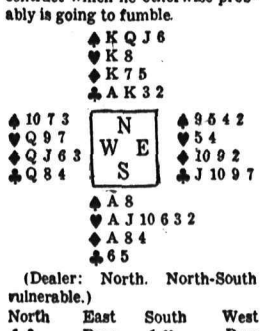
By ROBERT QUILLEN

"I reckon the government has to trust folks, but it puts a heavy strain on your honesty to see others breakin' ration rules and gettin' by with it."

SILENCE IS PROTECTIVE

JUST AS a soldier in the jungle must sometimes lay low and keep silent, so a bridge player must do likewise in order to protect his cards. Possession of secondary honors, especially queens, against which it may be possible to finesse in either direction, imposes a duty of concealment on the holder. A double for business, if based on such cards, is very likely to tell the declarer just how to make a contract which he otherwise probably is going to fumble.



(Dealer: North. North-South vulnerable.)

North	East	South	West
1 ♣	Pass	1 ♥	Pass
1 ♠	Pass	3 ♥	Pass
4 NT	Pass	5 ♠	Pass
7 NT	Pass	Pass	Dbl

Knowing from the Blackwood that South held the three missing aces, and having all four kings himself, you couldn't very well blame North for bidding the grand slam in No Trumps. He would never have made the contract, however, without co-operation from West.

East led the club J, which North took with the A, and then went to South with his spade 6 to the A. Back came the heart J, and it now made no difference what West did. If he covered, the K would win and the A-10 would clear the suit, making 14 set-up tricks in sight with only 13 possible to take. West properly ducked, so the heart 8 was put on from North's hand and the J won. The heart K, Diamond A and heart A eliminated West's heart Q, and the rest of the tricks were simply there to be run.

North admitted after the hand that, if West had not doubled, he would have played the heart suit differently, scoring the first trick with his K and then finessing the J. The Q therefore would have won the only trick needed by the defense.

Tomorrow's Problem

What is the best action by West after South opens this deal with 1-Diamond?

8,182,309 F.B.M. Sawlogs Scaled in January

Sawlog scalings in the Nelson forest district, which coincides with the Kootenay-Boundary, aggregated 8,182,309 feet board measure for January, a gain of about 10 per cent over the figure of 7,345,445 f.b.m. for a year previous.

Spruce was hard on the heels of larch as the leading sawlog species, larch scaling 2,363,574 f.b.m., and spruce 2,172,539. Fir was third with 1,669,051. Other sawlog contributions were, hemlock, 847,488 f.b.m.; yellow pine 424,720; cedar, 253,685; white pine, 212,956; balsam, 127,670; lodgepole pine, 61,321; and a miscellaneous species, 49,930.

Scaling of poles, piling, and stulls, measured in length only, dropped about two-thirds from the 834,866 lineal feet of January, 1934, to a current figure of 283,454 lineal feet. Whether this reflects a drop in pole production owing to transfer of labor to sawlog production, or merely means that the poles were under production but were not ready for moving and therefore for scaling does not appear. Cedar accounted for 211-66 lineal feet of those products scaled, other species contributing 71,788 lineal feet.

Products measured in cords came to 9026 cords, of course cordwood. Of this, 1919 cords were cedar.

There were 6420 hewn ties scaled, divided between cedar and larch, there being 4218 cedar ties and 2202 larch ties.

January's scaling of ties and cordwood both were about three times those of Jaunary, 1943.

Koolenay Fur Production Expected to Reach $500,000 This Season

No small item in Kootenay Industry in the past few months has been the fur business. East and West Kootenay production of furs during the present season will amount to approximately $500,000, an increase of 40 per cent in value and also in quality of the furs, J.H.M. Greenwood, Nelson buyer and exporter of furs, stated Friday.

The productions includes furs received from trappers and from ranchers, the season extending from early December and winding up at the end of May. Only beaver and muskrats are being handled now, season for other animals having closed Feb. 28.

Furs obtained from the Kootenay area, include martin, mink, lynx, lynx cat, beaver, muskrat, ermine, red squirrel and coyote. Lynx cat has been heavier than usual.

Mr. Greenwood stated that the Revelstoke Golden district is the best area for the highly prized martin. Fine mink is obtained by Slocan trappers while the best mink comes from ranches at Nakusp.

While prices have been very high this season, they fluctuate often, and a 50 per cent decline overnight is not uncommon.

Trail juniors are expected to meet tough opposition in the Canadians who rolled through the Edmonton junior hockey league season with only two losses.

Harry Givan Wins Commerce Cup

VICTORIA, B.C., March 10—Harry Givan, Walker Cup star from Seattle, today won the Chamber of Commerce Cup for the men's open in the 16th Annual Empress Golf Week. He defeated Art Christopher, Vancouver, 3-1, in a match that was decidedly spotty for both of them.

Meanwhile the Sir Edward Beatty Trophy matches for men tapered down to the finals with Helmuth Goertz, Edmonton photographer, meeting Lt. G. A. (Scotty) Wilson in the 36-hole finals.

The women's finals for the Sir Edward Beatty Trophy championship will be between two Seattle ladies, Mrs. Carl Jones and Mrs. Frank Dunn. Today they eliminated two Victoria women, Mrs. Jones taking Mrs. D. E. Fletcher, 4-3, and Mrs. Dunn downing Mrs. H. G. MacKenzie, 5-4.

Market Trends . . .

LONDON, March 10 (AP). — The trend of stock prices was irregular in quiet trading. Textile and diamond shares moved into higher ground while oils and Kaffirs remained inactive.

In the bond section, British funds and Brazilian and Chilean issues recorded gains, but French railroad lines were marked down fractionally.

NEW YORK—Investment demand centred on motors and specialties, while many leaders suffered from neglect, selected issues were pushed up fractions to a point or so to peaks for 1941.

Canadian issues were mostly firm. Hiram Walker and McIntyre advanced fractions and Distillers Seagrams and Dome were unchanged. Canadian Pacific yielded a fraction.

CHICAGO — Oats and barley were strong, May oats moving to a new seasonal high. At the close wheat was ¼-⅜ higher, May $1.71¼, oats were up ½-1¼, May 81½, rye was ⅝-1½ higher, May $1.28⅛-⅜, and barley was up 1⅝-1⅝, May $1.24¼.

MONTREAL—Price revisions were narrowly mixed and generally small in trading up to the final hour.

Imperial improved in refineries and Nickel, Smelters and Noranda posted minusses in metls.

TORONTO—Small gains were registered by gold and base metal stocks and other groups held steady.

Gains were limited to about 5 cents in golds. Ventures gained 5 or more. Smelters and Hudson Bay were other strong base metals while closing prices were down narrowly for Noranda, Steep Rock and Base Metals Corporation.

WINNIPEG—Rye futures finished ¾ higher. May ended the session at $1.27⅝, July $1.25¾ and October $1.24

VANCOUVER—Both Mines and Oils made a few gains.

Names Committee for Convention of Boards of Trade

Resolutions Committee, headed by Charles F. McHardy, was appointed by President G. A. Hoover at the Board of Trade meeting Friday to prepare resolutions for presentation at the annual convention of Associated Boards of Trade of Eastern British Columbia at Trail May 9 and 10. Convention delegates will be named by the President.

The convention would have unusual importance this year, the Chairman said, for it was intended to discuss and formulate tourist trade plans. Formation of a Tourist Bureau might result from deliberations. Spokane interests in the expansion of the tourist trade between Canada and the United States would be represented.

Other members appointed to the Committee were Leo S. Gansner, Harry Burns, W. G. Harold and R. A. Peebles.

Interpreting The War News

By KIRKE L. SIMPSON
Associated Press War Analyst

A general German retreat behind the Bug River line or into Rumania on the Black Sea flank of the Eastern front may be indicated by surrender of Uman, the fall of which was first announced by Berlin, and confirmed in a Stalin victory bulletin from Moscow.

Whether abandoned in a line-shortening manoeuvre to meet the growing danger to the whole Nazi Dnieper salient as Berlin indicates, or taken by storm as Moscow says, the loss of Uman marks a significant deterioration in the German defensive position in the South. The railhead town, some 40 miles Southwest of Zvenigorodka, covered approaches to three vitally-important rail crossings of the central Bug River,

Its capture implies that the whole Nazi deployment East of the Bug from Vinnitsa near its Northwestern rise to Nikolaev at its mouth may be on the move to the rear to escape multiple Red Army entrapment drives.

Russian reports tell of Nazi divisions pulled out of the Dnieper bend salient farther East to buttress the defence of the Tarnopol-Prekurov-Zhmerinka front, 200 miles to the Northwest, where Russian spearheads stand within less than 60 miles of the Rumanian frontier North of the Cernauti gateway to central Rumania. A desperate German fight to retain the Preskurov salient South of the Russian advance that cut the Warsaw-Odessa rail trunk between that junction and Tarnopol apparently has failed. Both critical junctions and Zhmerinka seemed doomed.

It could prove the decisive moment of the war if victory-flushed Soviet troops within sight of driving the last invader from Russian soil succeed in closing any one of several potential traps on any substantial part of the German armies seeking escape.

Industrial Bank Bill Discussed

OTTAWA, March 10 (CP)—A plea for a broad and complete picture of the Government's plans for converting industry to peace with a view to informing business of what it can expect and giving Members of Parliament an opportunity to deal inteligently with various proposed measures was made today in the Commons by John Diefenbaker (P.C.—Lake Centre).

The Saskatchewan Member was one of several Opposition speakers who expressed conditional approval of the Industrial Development Bank Bill. Howard Green (P.C.—Vancouver South) and Rodney Adamson (P.C.—York West) said they supported the bill, but complained that its full implications could not be assessed without information on other aspects of the Government program.

The New Democracy Group, with Victor Quelch (N.D.—Acadia) as spokesman, sponsored a motion to delay further consideration until after the bill to revise the Bank Act was brought down.

C.C.F. Members supportd the motion for adjournment, but Progressive-Conservatives voted with the Liberals against it and it was defeated by 104 to 22.

At the opening of the sittings, Prime Minister Mackenzie King protested against earlier statements by John Blackmore, New Democracy Leader, to the effect the Government was influenced by sugar companies in adopting its policy of wartime control of that commodity.

During the Bank Bill debate, Mr. Diefenbaker, who has been studying the report on post-war industrial reconversion in the United States by Bernard M. Baruch and John Hancock, said the United States was further ahead in planning than Canada, at least so far as the public was aware.

Mr. Green said the bank should have local contacts through Provincial or Regional Advisory Boards on which labor and other sections of the population should be represented. The importance of industrial development to the individual lay in the creation of jobs. Labor and local interests generally should have an influence in determining what industries should receive assistance.

At another point in the debate, T. C. Douglas (C.C.F.—Weyburn) said Capt. Walter Tucker (L.—Rosthern) had stated in the House that the C.C.F. stood for the taking over of farm land in British Columbia.

If Capt. Tucker had checked the source of his information his position might have been different, he said.

Capt. Tucker had mentioned a report in the Vancouver Sun, said Mr. Douglas. The quotation in the Sun had been publicly repudiated on many occasions.

He read from an open letter to the Sun from F. J. Mackenzie, a C.C.F. official in British Columbia.

Capt. Tucker said Mr. Douglas was "pretending" to quote from the Sun.

"I am not pretending to quote from the Sun," said Mr. Douglas. "I am quoting from a letter to the Sun which denied a statement in the Sun."

Deputy Speaker Bradette said the whole letter quoted by Mr. Douglas should be made available to the House. Mr. Douglas said he would be glad to make it available.

Mr. Douglas said the C.C.F. Agriculture policy could be found in the Party's program.

"Where is their platform?" asked Capt. Tucker.

"He'll have no trouble getting our Party program—I'll give him one if he wants it," said Mr. Douglas.

Nowhere in the C.C.F. program was there any suggestion the C.C.F. had a policy of land collectivization, he said.

Mr. Douglas read the agricultural policy adopted by the C.C.F. Provincial Organization in British Columbia, cooperative farms in areas where they could lower production costs should be encouraged, said the policy. Milling and distributive services should be brought under public ownership.

G. G. McGeer (L.—Vancouver-Burrard) said the discussion was out of order. The bill before the House concerned the Industrial Development Bank.

"Do like Mr. Bracken (John Bracken, Progressive Consrvative National Leader) and hire a hall," called a Liberal Member speaking to Mr. Douglas.

Deputy Speaker Bradette said he had allowed Mr. Douglas to answer Capt. Tucker who had raised the matter of C.C.F. agricultural policy earlier in the debate on the Bank Bill.

Board Continues Efforts to Lift Store Lights Ban

Nelson Board of Trade decided on Friday to press for relaxation of wartime regulations prohibiting store window lighting. An amendment to Defence of Canada regulations will be necessary to permit display lighting in stores left unattended after dark.

The Board had previously requested easing of the restrictions, but had been advised by W. C. Mainwaring, chairman of the Advisory Council of Provincial Protection Committee, that this was impossible without amendment of defence regulations. A recommendation by the Publicity Committee, following the study of the Mainwaring advice, that members abide by the regulations was opposed and a new resolution that the amendment be sought was approved.

The necessity for banning window display lighting had gone with the improvement of conditions in the Pacific War theatre, Alderman A. H. Allan believed. The view that public opinion was largely in support of this feeling and no longer supported the particular regulation was expressed by H. B. Gore. C. F. McHardy urged continued efforts to have the restriction lifted.

The public should obey such regulations if they are still deemed necessary by authorities, Mayor Stibbs said.

Creston Area Fine for Hog Production

CRESTON, B. C., March 10—W. M. MacGillivray told a large audience on the closing day of the Agriculture Assembly here that British Columbia in 1942 sold 60,000 head of cattle, killed 70,000 head and shipped 20,000 hides out of the province.

Dealing with hogs, he said Canada has developed a brand known as the Yorkshire, and outlined its characteristics. British Columbia, he felt, was not raising enough hogs, the average shipment being 450 million pounds. He felt this locality was good for hog production.

Beef raising in the East Kootenay was in is infancy and the two-year-old steer is the animal which nets to the producer. There is less than 14 per cent of cattle raised on the ranges. He emphasized the necessity of good stock when breeding and of the care it should have, as well as feed and diet.

There are about 125 thousand sheep in B. C., the big drawback to sheep producton being the abundance of wild animals which harry the sheep. He was not optimistic about horse production in British Columbia or Canada, his reason being that mechanized farm methods displaced the horses.

He answered questions on feeding diseases of animals and concluded his lecture with a brief outline that his department the Emergency Farm Labor Board has done in the matter of placement offices throughout British Columbia in order to help the farmers with labor matters.

BLOOD DONORS MUST BE BACKED BY MONEY DONORS

"I KNOW the blood serum saved my life . . ." John Gouthro, Royal Canadian Engineers, who lost both arms and one eye.

"I couldn't have lived in that German prison camp hospital without the food parcels from Canadian Red Cross . . ." Mike Ewanshyn, Royal Regiment of Canada, seriously wounded at Dieppe. "I had lost a lot of blood and the plasma saved my life . . ." Lieut. S. E. Atkinson, wounded by gunfire at Nessonia, Sicily.

Actual experiences, from soldiers, sailors and airmen, show that many of them literally "owe their lives" to the magnificent work of the Red Cross. Again and again, from the lips of fighting men lying in hospital cots or sitting, propped up in wheel chairs, come stories like these.

The Red Cross organizes blood banks, supplements medical supplies, forwards parcels to the prison camps, sends food to the famine-stricken. An ever-increasing number of our loved ones owe their very lives to this great organization—to which we all owe a debt of gratitude we should be proud to repay. Remember this when you are deciding what you can give to the Red Cross.
